About Town

Many shoppers are expected to take advantage of the Christmas recipe exchange tea sponsored by Group 4, Center Congregational church, in the Federation room starting at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon. Whether recipes are typed or handwritten makes no difference, anyone interested is invited to bring them along and exchange them with friends while enjoying tea and cookies served by the hospitality committee.

Recruit Gino Schiavetti, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emilio Schiavetti of 367 Hilliard street, recently was assigned to the 308th Army Transportation Truck company, Fort Story, Virginia. He is presently on detached service for basic training at the Transportation Replacement Training Center, Fort Eustis, Virginia. A graduate of Manchester High school, Recruit Schiavetti entered the army in October of this year.

The Lucy Spencer group of the Second Congregational Women's League will have an all-day work session tomorrow at the church, when two quilts will be tied. A hot meal will be served at noon.

The regular meeting of the Ladies Aid of the Emanuel Lutheran church will be held Thursday afternoon at two o'clock at the church. Following a short business meeting and election of officers a Christmas program, consisting of vocal and accordion solos by Mrs. Hazel Anderson, readings by Doris Mae Johnson and a Christmas message by Pastor Olson, will be presented. Members are reminded to bring twenty-five cent gifts for the grab bag. Appropriate refreshments will be served by the hostess committee.

St. Christopher's Mothers Circle will have a potluck dinner tomorrow evening at eight o'clock at the home of Mrs. William Horgan, 475 Adams street. In connection with this meeting William Martens will show the Christopher's sound film "You Can Share the World." All members are reminded to bring Christmas gifts for exchange.

Linne Lodge No. 72, Knights of Pythias, will hold its regular meeting tomorrow night at eight o'clock in Orange Hall. Officers for the ensuing term will be nominated at this meeting. Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

The Christmas party of the Cosmopolitan club will be held at Center church house Friday afternoon at two o'clock. Christine Ramsey Lyman will entertain with original sketches and monologues. Refreshments will be served by the hospitality committee, Mrs. David M. Caldwell, chairman. Each member may bring a guest. Mrs. W. A. Greaves will be hostess.

The Manchester Choral Society will rehearse as usual this evening at 7:30 at the Second Congregational church. This will be the last rehearsal until after the holidays.

Manchester Grange announces a Christmas party for the children of Grange members, Wednesday evening, December 20, at 6:30 o'clock. Parents are asked to call Mrs. William Belmont, 49 Lyness street, or Mrs. Earl Hutchins, 85 Broad street, as soon as possible, giving the age of the children and their names so that arrangements may be made for the program.

Anderson-Shea Auxiliary will enjoy a pot luck supper this evening at 6:30 at the V. F. W. home and follow it with a Christmas party. Department President Mrs. Catherine Tinker of New London, and members of her staff will be guests. Child Welfare Chairman Mrs. Margaret Brown reminds the members to bring fifty-cent toys to be sent to children at the Tolland County home in Vernon and the Newington Home for Crippled Children.

Through error in the church news Saturday, the annual Brotherhood supper tonight at Emanuel Lutheran church was given as eight o'clock. It should have read 6:30. It will be the annual ladies' night, and the guest speaker will be Rev. Erich O. Brandt, the new pastor of Concordia Lutheran church.

Malcolm T. Segar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart G. Segar of 110 Main street, has been promoted to rank of cadet captain, commanding Company B of the Cadet Corps at Hordentown Military Institute, Hordentown, N. J.

The school children from Hollister street, Bowers and Robertson schools will hold their annual carol sing at Depot Square Thursday night at 7 o'clock. It was incorrectly announced in an article carried in The Herald last night that the festival would be held Wednesday night.

C. Gideon Rice of the Manchester Lumber and Fuel company is a member of the board of directors of the Lumber Dealers' Association of Connecticut. The next meeting of the Board of Directors will be held tomorrow at the Lawn club in New Haven, at which time problems which the lumber industry is facing today concerning the shortages of various materials will be discussed.

2 Local Marines Wounded In Big Battle in Korea

Two local Marines have notified their parents by mail that they have been wounded in the recent heavy fighting in Korea, it was learned today.

The wounded are Pfc. Albert H. Bolduc, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Bolduc of 20 Ford street, and Pfc. Donald N. Bolduc, son of Mr. and Mrs. Florian J. Bolduc of 31½ Charter Oak street. The men, who are cousins, wrote from hospitals in Japan.

Albert was wounded in the back on November 27 and Donald was hit in the back and hand by shrapnel from a bursting mortar shell on November 28. The local men are serving with the First and Seventh Marine Divisions, respectively, and participated in the fighting through the bloody "trap" in northeast Korea.

Both men enlisted in the Marines on August 8, 1948, along with Albert's brother, Pfc. William F. Bolduc. William is also with the First Division and has been fighting with his brother throughout the Korean fighting. Albert said in his letter, The three Bolducs have been in Korea since August.

Albert and William have seen action at Seoul, Hamhung and the Chonghin Reservoir. Donald has participated in the fighting at Wonson, Seoul, Chonglin and Hamhung, and was wounded on the move to take the Chonglin Dam, according to his letter. Donald was taken off the field even before the cause of frozen hands, he said.

Although there have been reportedly 10 Red casualties for every American one in the bitter Korean fighting, a news report yesterday stated that Marine casualties in the northeast "trap" will be among the heaviest of any battle in Marine Corps history.

For the benefit of any friends who wish to write to him, Albert's address is: Pfc. Albert H. Bolduc, 1074282 U. S. M. C., Osaka Army Hospital, A. P. O. 1007, care of P. M., San Francisco, Calif.

Donald's address was not available today but will be published when received.

The Infant Jesus of Prague Mothers' Circle will meet tomorrow evening at eight o'clock with Mrs. Kathleen Rivard of Bremen Road. Members are asked to bring Christmas gifts for exchange.

The Walther League of Zion Lutheran church will entertain Leaguers from Glastonbury, West Hartford and Lebanon, this evening at 7:30 at Zion church.

Parishioners of Emanuel Lutheran church who were born in Sweden, or of Swedish decent, filled the vestry of the church last night and were delighted with the beautiful colored pictures taken by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Anderson of Wellesley Hills, Mass., on a tour of Sweden last summer. Mr. Anderson made a running comment on the different scenes flashed on the screen. Sweden recently lived in this town and after the showing of pictures many greeted them. The Ladies Aid Society of the church served sliced coffee bread, cake and coffee.

Members of St. James's adult choir are urged to be present tomorrow evening at 7:00 when an important rehearsal will be held for their Christmas program. The annual Christmas party will take place Sunday evening at 7:30 in St. James's hall.

Daughters of Liberty No. 125, I. O. L. I., will hold their annual Christmas party this evening in Orange hall. Mrs. Emma Armstrong and her committee will serve refreshments.

Honor Award For Gallantry

Silver Star to Go to Widow of Capt. Steinberg, Killed in Korea

The Department of Defense in Washington, D. C., has announced that the Silver Star for gallantry in action has been awarded posthumously to Captain Ernest W. Steinberg who was killed in action in Korea on September 3. Captain Steinberg was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Steinberg of 70 Benton street. He was the first Manchester man to meet death in the present conflict.

Captain Steinberg's wife, the former Juanita Taylor, and two young sons, Gerald and Duane, accompanied him to Japan and are now living in Redlands, Calif. He also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Alice Gaudian of New Britain and Miss Dorothy Steinberg, an employee of The Herald.

Captain Steinberg was born in Manchester on August 5, 1912. He was educated in local schools and was employed as a route salesman by Arthur F. Wilkie, local milk dealer, until he entered service in 1935 and was with the 240th Infantry in Korea. In 1944 he was promoted to the rank of lieutenant, while stationed at Fort McClellan, Alabama, and to captain when transferred overseas. After World War II he was stationed with the Occupational Forces in Germany and his family joined him there, later going to Japan.

Clerks at the F. W. Woolworth store on Main street will have their annual Christmas party this evening at Murphy's restaurant.

Marshall Plan Aid to Britain Is Terminated

Move Based on English Recovery; Officials Stress U. S. to Extend More Aid If Needed

Washington, Dec. 13— (AP)—The United States today cut off all Marshall Plan Aid to Great Britain, effective January 1.

William C. Foster, the Marshall Plan Administrator, said Britain's economic comeback in the past year is the reason.

Since the recovery program started in April of 1948, Britain has been allotted a total of $2,694,300,000.

First Nation to Step Out

The program, named for Gen. George C. Marshall who proposed it while he was Secretary of State, has had a dual purpose: To help Europe recover from damages of World War II and to strengthen friendly nations against the threat of Communism.

The ruble to stop all Marshall Plan aid to the British comes five weeks after conversations between Marshall Plan officials and the British Government. Britain is the first nation to step out of the program.

In an announcement issued at the same time that British Chancellor of the Exchequer Hugh Gaitskell was breaking the news to the British House of Commons, Foster said:

Order Can Be Restudied

"The suspension of aid under the European Recovery Program does not mean that the recovery of the British economy is complete or that financial resources of the sterling area are adequate."

The United States action, Foster

Rummel Death Launches Wide Gaming Probe

Two Sheriff's Officers Suspended as Grand Jury Digs Into Allegations of Protection

Los Angeles, Dec. 13—(AP)— The shotgun blast that killed Attorney Sam Rummel, "mouthpiece" for underworld characters, today promises to blow the lid off protected gambling in Los Angeles.

Two sheriff's officers, Vice Squad Sgt. Lawrence Schafter and Capt. Carl H. Pearson, former head of the squad, are under suspension.

The County Grand Jury is digging again into the case of the Guarantee Finance Co., an allegedly protected $6,000,000 a year bookmaking operations, and what connection Rummel had with it, if any.

Eye "Secret Conference"

Particularly, the police and the Grand Jury want to know why Rummel called Pearson and Schafter to a secret conference about Guarantee Finance Sunday night, a few hours before the lawyer was slain early Monday morning.

Pearson was under subpoena by the Grand Jury, which opened its probe yesterday. Schafter took some Guarantee Finance reports from the sheriff's office to the meeting with Rummel.

Both Pearson and Schafter said they still aren't sure whether Rummel was trying to get, or give, information.

Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz suspended the officers because they did not disclose their conference with Rummel until Monday night, more than 12 hours after the lawyer was killed.

"Gang Warfare"—Governor

Gambler Mickey Cohen, often represented by Rummel, took a temporary back seat as the ramified investigation proceeded.

Gov. Earl Warren in Sacramento said the Rummel killing "besmirches the name of our state again." He called it "just another outcropping of gang warfare" which springs from fighting over the spoils of the underworld."

Police Chief William Parker visited the Grand Jury yesterday morning. He said: "I wanted to know if some of the people we want to question in the Rummel murder are to be witnesses before the jury in the Guarantee case."

"What We Want to Prove"

The jury foreman, Carey S. Hill, told reporters: "Of all things! Imagine Capt. Pearson, a public official, stating the attorney for all the gangsters on the Germans Face Death For Siding with West

Food Prices Below Ceiling

Most Items Would Escape Controls; Some Meats, Rice Are Up

Washington, Dec. 13—(AP)—The bulk of the items in the family food market basket appeared likely for today to escape government price controls for some time to come.

With the exception of some meats, rice, and cottonseed oil, prices of food commodities are all still below price ceiling levels set by law.

For that reason, establishment of ceilings right now would have little or no effect on holding down food prices. In most cases, the ceilings would be above current market prices so far as farm products are concerned.

Report Issued Nov. 30

The law says ceilings on farm products must not be below parity or below prices which prevailed during the 30 days preceding start of the Korean War on June 25. Parity is a legal standard for measuring farm prices. It is declared by law to be equally fair

East Zone Parliament OK's Bill Providing Execution for Those Aiding Allies' Plans

Berlin, Dec. 13—(AP)—East Germany's Communist Parliament today threatened death to all Germans convicted of collaborating with the military policies of the Western Powers.

The Parliament unanimously approved, on its first reading, a law designed to strike terror among the West Germans now being asked to join Western Europe's common defense. The legislation will go into effect after a second reading Saturday.

The law listed six classes of "offenses against peace," punishable by death if committed "on direct order from states which follow a warmongering or aggressive policy."

The United States, Britain and France were put in this category. They were accused of trying to "entangle the German people in a murderous civil war."

All Germans, even if they live outside the Soviet Zone and commit their alleged offenses elsewhere, are liable to punishment by the East German Supreme Court.

Gets Hot Letter

Rep. F. Edward Hebert (above) (D., La.), a state's righter and a critic of the administration, is latest recipient of a "hot" letter from President Truman. It dealt with what the president called a new "low" in politics in the recent campaign in Utah, Louisiana, North Carolina, Illinois and Indiana. (AP Wirephoto).

New Truman Letter Blasts 5 Campaigns

Says Election Drives Were "As Low as I've Ever Seen"; Charge Spurs Senate Probe

Washington, Dec. 12 — (AP) — President Truman's assertion that election campaigns in five states were "as low as I've ever seen" quickened investigations underway today by the Senate Campaign Committee.

Chairman Gillette (D-Iowa) told a reporter inquiries already have been made in Utah and North Carolina, two states mentioned by the president in a Dec. 7 letter made public last night by Rep. Hebert (D-La.).

The Iowa Senator said that Louisiana, Illinois and Indiana—the other states the president cited —are being covered in a nationwide survey by the Committee of Campaign Costs and Circulation of "Defamatory" Literature.

Hebert Is Stunned

Hebert, a frequent critic of Administration policies, had written the President suggesting Mr. Truman set aside a Sunday before Christmas and call on the people to pray in their churches for guidance of the nation in "the Gethsemane of our existence."

Mr. Truman replied by sending Hebert a copy of his Thanksgiving Proclamation, saying he believed "that effectively answers your suggestion."

Then, in the latest of a series of letters evidently dashed off in a moment of annoyance, Mr. Truman added:

"I am extremely sorry that the sentiments expressed in your letter were not thought of before November seventh, when the campaign in your state, Utah, North Carolina, Illinois and Indiana was carried on in a manner that was as low as I've ever seen and I've been in this game since 1906."

Hebert wrote Mr. Truman in reply that he was "stunned," and he added:

"Political Distemper"

"It is indeed exceedingly regrettable that you failed to grasp the real purpose and intent of my suggestion, but it is even more regrettable that you saw fit to gratuitously inject political distemper in your reply."

Mr. Truman's remarks about the level of the campaigns in the five states led Senator Capehart, Republican re-elected in Indiana,

GOP Backs Plan to Build Armed Might

Assure Truman of Support; He Will Speak To U. S. by Radio-TV Friday at 10:30 p. m.

Washington, Dec. 13—(AP)— Republican Congressional leaders gave President Truman their full support today for a swift build up of armed strength and said they agree "a dangerous emergency exists."

Their views were set out in a statement after a White House conference of Congressional leaders of both parties.

The meeting followed an announcement that Mr. Truman will make a radio address to the American people at 10:30 p. m. (EST) Friday night on the world crisis. It will be broadcast by all major networks and also will be televised but the White House said the TV stations which will carry it have not yet been determined. The "Voice of America" will carry the speech around the globe.

Taft is Spokesman

Senator Taft of Ohio, acting as spokesman for Republicans who attended the White House conference, dictated this statement to reporters:

"We agreed fully that a dangerous emergency exists for the people of the United States. We agreed with the President's general program for building up the armed services as rapidly as possible.

"As to the proposed declaration of a national emergency, we did not feel we were sufficiently advised as to the legal effect of such a declaration, or the program that must accompany it, to take a final position on that question.

"If the declaration is legally necessary to advance the development of our armed strength, we would be for it."

Taft said the statement had the approval of other Senate and

Solons Cry "Perjury" In Rosenberg Probe

Say Witnesses Flatly Contradicted De Sola's Testimony About Presence at Red Meetings

Washington, Dec. 13—(AP)—Two Senators say false testimony has been given a Senate committee investigating charges of Communism against Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg, Assistant Secretary of Defense.

The Senate Armed Services Committee continued its closed-door inquiry today, calling for fresh testimony from two men it identified as former FBI agents. They are T. C. Kirkpatrick and K. M. Bierly, publishers in New York city of a "Counter Attack," said by Senators to be an Anti-Communist periodical.

Committee members said in advance they understood the two former FBI men would testify they had probed the Rosenberg charges and found they resulted from mistaken identity.

Mrs. Rosenberg already has told Senators that under oath, she denied any association or sympathy for Communism or Communist organizations.

Only witness known to have made direct charges against Mrs. Rosenberg is Ralph De Sola, who said he was a Communist from 1934 to 1937 and saw her at party meetings in New York city.

Claims Dismissal Proves Fears for U. S. Justified

Wolf Point, Mont., Dec. 13—(AP) —A draft board chairman, fired because he didn't want to draft more men until the atom bomb was used, says his dismissal proves "my fears for the future of the nation are well founded."

R. R. Taylor, Chairman of the Roosevelt County Board, and member Carl B. Flomas of Culbertson were dismissed by Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, National Director of selective service.

The two sent a resolution to Montana congressmen last week saying they didn't want to draft more men until the government "used its entire resources, including the atom bomb, in support of" troops in Korea.

Kennedy Hits Foreign Policy

Urges U. S. to Leave Asia; Cites Lack of European Defenses

Charlottesville, Va., Dec. 13—(AP) —A former United States Ambassador to Great Britain says "Russia will have us in a state of emergency by the end of this week and yet has not lost a man, moved a foot or fired a shot."

Joseph P. Kennedy made the assertion here last night during a question-and-answer period which followed a talk in which he declared our foreign policy is "suicidal" and made us no four weather friends.

America's foreign policy also has "solidified Communism," reduced our econo'c strength, failed to provide a strong hemispheric defense and is "politically and morally a bankrupt policy," Kennedy asserted.

"Stop Wasting Resources"

Kennedy told the University of Virginia Law School Forum that the United States should get out of Korea and any other place in Asia where we cannot hope to hold our defense. In addition, he said, we should stop wasting our resources in an attempt to hold either the Rhine or Rhine river line in Europe.

In Korea, Kennedy said, "we are fighting the fourth greatest war in our history. What have we in return for this effort? Friends? We have far fewer friends than we had in 1945."

Neither is there in all Europe any buffer against a massed Russian attack, he said. "Worse than this, where is there any determination to create such a buffer?"

Russia Rejects Korean Cease Fire Proposal

Army Asks More Draftees

Increases Call for January and February By Seventy-Eight P. C.

Washington, Dec. 13—(AP)—The military, racing to rearm against the Russian menace and combatting growing casualties in Korea, is calling for more draftees — and fast.

A new draft call, supplementing requests for January and February, yesterday boosted the original quotas for those two months by 78 per cent and raised the total of calls up to now to 370,000.

At the same time the tempo of the armed forces procurement of weapons and other equipment is being quickened, to speed the production of tanks, airplanes and other war gear.

Draftees for Army

And, defense officials said today, a declaration of national emergency could increase it even more. Such a declaration by President Truman was generally expected.

As in all previous calls, the draftees are for the Army, the to say the president must have been talking about the drive put on there by the defeated Democratic candidate, Alex J. Campbell.

"I don't blame the president for being ashamed of the campaign and the New Deal candidate carried on in Indiana," Capehart told a reporter. "The president was correct in saying it was the lowest in the history of Indiana."

Senator Long (D., La.), re-elected in November, said he thought the campaign in which he was ignored generally was "conducted on a high plane."

Lucas Is Silent

Senator Lucas (D) Democratic leader defeated in Illinois, declined comment. Senator Elbert Thomas (D., Utah), also defeated said it's up to the Gillette committee to label the campaign waged against him. Thomas said he was attacked in "fake" publications.

In the fifth state Mr. Truman mentioned — North Carolina — the administration lost a supporter in Frank P. Graham, although not in November. Graham lost a June run-off primary to Willis Smith, an administration critic, who won easily in November.

The president's letter didn't mention Ohio, where Republican Senator Taft won re-election despite the combinated opposition of labor organizations.

Taft told a reporter he is thinking of asking the Republican committee to investigate publications used against him in the campaign.

Gillette said Ohio will be covered in the roundup of "defamatory" literature, as well as the committee's overall investigation of campaign spending. Preliminary estimates indicate that national campaign costs were "astounding," the Iowa senator added.

Report Heilmann Is Getting Well

Police Chief Herman Sghendel said today that he had received word from Legal Officers at the Newport, R. I., Naval Base that Corporal Leo A. Heilmann, 21, a Marine, is recovering satisfactorily from wounds received in a running gun-battle with two Manchester policemen several months ago.

Heilmann was shot three times, twice in the back and once in the leg, when he tried to flee in a stolen Army car while absent without leave from his service duties. He was brought down by Officers Samuel Maltempe and John Cavagnaro.

After making a remarkable recovery at Manchester Memorial hospital after being given but a few hours to live after being admitted, Heilmann was transferred to the Newport Naval Hospital.

Christmas Display Atop First National Store

A roof-top Christmas display has been erected on the First National store at Main and Maple streets.

The scene includes Santa Claus and his sleigh and reindeers as well as a village complete with Christmas trees. The display is illuminated at night.

The scene is erected on the roof and is facing north on Main street.

Russia Rejects Korean Cease Fire Proposal

study and arbitrate all Far East problems—with Red China probably a member of the commission. Rau did not demand any priority on the latter proposal, on which the Philippines did not go along with. It was unanimously recommended by the other 12 members of the group, however.

The U. S. strongly opposes linking the two measures because of the political nature of the commission idea.

Study Red China Claims

The General Assembly yesterday afternoon finally chose a commission nominated by Entezam to study the legal and political background of Red China's claims for a seat in the U. N.

India led the list in the voting. The committee membership, followed by Canada, Ecuador, Mexico, the Philippines, Poland—only Soviet bloc country—and Iraq. India and Poland have recognized the Peiping Regime.

The committee can only make recommendations to the Assembly. Until, and if, the Assembly votes to seat the Chinese Reds, Nationalist China will keep its membership in the world organization.

To consider the cease fire resolution, the Political Committee interrupted its debate on a six-power proposal to call on Communist China to withdraw its troops entirely from Korea. There appeared to be a disposition to forget now about the withdrawal demand in favor of giving the cease fire move a clear right of way.

Andrei Vishinsky, Soviet Foreign Minister, yesterday cancelled passage home today so he can take part in Assembly debates that will go into next week. Then he launched a long attack in the Assembly on an eight-power resolution asked the Assembly to constitute the Security Council members and Canada as a committee to see if atomic energy and armament reduction questions can't be lumped in a single study.

He said that the United States was aiming only at complete control of world atomic energy for "American monopolists." Vishinsky again offered the Russian plan which demands outlawing of all atomic weapons before considering any informational control system. The Assembly has battered down the plan by huge majorities several times.

The Soviet Foreign Minister assailed President Truman, who he said was threatening the world with the atom bomb. The eight-power resolution followed a suggestion made before the assembly last October 24 by President Truman for speeding up atomic control and disarmament.

Jeers at Russian

John Sherman Cooper of the United States, rebuked Vishinsky's statements as "specious" and pleaded with Russia to join with atomic-disarmament commissions of the Security Council which it has been boycotting.

"We can see then if it is in favor of disarmament and peace," Cooper said.

The atomic debate continues in plenary sessions at Flushing Meadow today.

Tel Aviv — (AP) — Gireaudoux' "Mad Woman of Chaillot" is now being performed by the Hebrew Worker's theatre "Ohel" in Tel Aviv. Excerpts were broadcast. The play, one critic wrote, "had been confusing audiences in Europe and America for several years and will probably confuse Israel audiences as well . . ."

CURLED UP WITH A GOOD BOOK—His machine gun emplaced on a river bank for instant action to protect wriggling Yanks making their way south in Korea, Sgt. C. J. GOP Backs Plan to Build Armed Might

Suggested "Go Slow"

From the statement, it appeared the Republicans may have suggested a "go slow" approach to a declaration of national emergency which the administration was reported to be about ready to make.

Administration men have said such a declaration would not have any important legal effect, so far as increasing the President's powers is concerned. But they contend it would have a great psychological effect.

Senator Wherry (R., Nebr.) told reporters he understands that Mr. Truman will hold two or three more conferences before deciding about an emergency proclamation.

Tol Curbs Policy in Speech

Similarly Rep. Martin of Massachusetts, House G O P leader, said the President would have more talks with members of Congress, including heads of the banking committees, before making up his mind.

Wherry, in reply to questions, said Mr. Truman's decision as to whether to invoke wage-price controls probably will be disclosed in the Friday night radio speech.

The Congress members told reporters they had a "free discussion" on the world situation at the two-hour conference with Mr. Truman.

Senator Lucas of Illinois, Democratic leader of the Senate, said "the whole picture with respect to the present emergency" was discussed.

Asked for his summary of the meeting, Senator Millikin (R., Colo.) told reporters:

"The President very specifically invited comment and opinion, and he got it."

Yugo Aid Bill Hits Surprise Snag in House

Yugoslav Government rather than a gift.

Another being considered would put the entire relief program into the hands of an independent, non-government agency like the Red Cross or Society of Friends.

The Administration Bill Authorizes the President to help the Yugoslavs get through a food-short winter occasioned by last summer's crop failure. About $32,000,000 has been spent already on aid through various government agencies.

Congressional approval has been requested frankly for reasons of expediency—to exploit the break between Tito and Moscow. The hope is that Tito's 22 army divisions at least would not fight more conveniently in defense of Russian aggression in Europe.

In advance of today's session, Rep. Vorys of Ohio, GOP foreign policy spokesman in the House, predicted the bill "will be beaten unless it is substantially amended."

A rash of amendments was anticipated by leaders—some of them possibly proposing conditions for freeing Greek children taken hostage by Yugoslav guerrillas or religious freedom in Yugoslavia.

The Senate version of the bill contains an express statement that the United States does not approve Communist suppression of liberties.

It seemed unlikely this would satisfy those House members demanding outright defeat of the aid plan.

Gift Hints

A gift with sure-fire appeal is a dress-up belt combining velvet and glitter, both fashion's pets often. I think that's a shabby attitude for a wife to take.

Wife Shares in Husband's Prestige

Every wife ought to want her husband to look as "big" as possible to other people. Anything she can contribute toward making him look "big" she should do gladly. After all, she shares in any prestige he has.

Why in the world would you, if you love your husband, prefer to have people think that you're the family big shot and that without your money your husband wouldn't amount to much?

Think it over and see if you wouldn't both be happier if you started thinking in terms of "our" instead of "my."

Marriage isn't a real partnership unless money is a mutual possession. And that goes for husbands as well as for wives.

Spicy Orange Marmalade

Ingredients: 6 oranges, 8 cups water, 6 cups sugar, ¼ cup vinegar, 2 inch piece stick cinnamon, ¼ cup raisins (ground), ½ cup chopped walnuts or pecans.

Method: Using the point of a paring knife, remove orange peel in quarters. Put peel through food chopper using coarse blade. Cover ground peel with water and bring to a boil. Cook until peel is tender. Meanwhile discard center membrane of oranges and seeds; dice pulp; add diced pulp to peel and continue cooking until mixture reduces to about ½ its original quantity. Add sugar, vinegar, cinnamon and raisins. Stir until sugar is dissolved. Cook slowly until mixture is thickened, stirring frequently. Mixture has been cooked sufficiently when the syrup drops not runs from the spoon. Stir in nuts. Turn into hot, sterilized glasses, filling to within ½-inch of the top. Cool and skim. Seal with hot paraffin at once. Makes 10 six-ounce glasses.

orderly but hurried in the face of mounting Chinese threat.

Picked Troop Hold Off Reds

As the Chinese Reds swarmed down toward the beachhead from snow-covered hills, picked troops from five Allied divisions mounted a strong guard. The defense perimeter stretched for a radius of 14 miles around the port, protecting Hungnam and its twin city of Hamhung six miles inland.

The beachhead bristled with Allied artillery, mortars and tank guns. Warships of the U. N. fleet slid along the Sea of Japan coastal area, hurling shells into the Red Chinese concentrations.

Marine Corsairs, Navy Panther jets and other Allied planes prowled overhead, alert for any Chinese Red aircraft or to counterattack any attempted annihilating offensive to the smashing successes rolled up by Chinese Red forces since late November.

10th Corps Units Safe

All 10th Corps units were reported safely out of North Korea or leaving the Hungnam-Hamhung beachhead.

These included the lone unreported U. S. Seventh Division's 17th Regimental Combat Team. This outfit was stretched along the Manchurian border at the Yalu River around Hyesanjin when the Chinese Reds struck Nov. 25 in overwhelming masses.

A 10th Corps spokesman said the 17th had reached the beachhead two days ago. Details of its icy withdrawal from Th Yalu — a trek of 80 air miles but many

Children's Groups Require Many More Volunteer Leaders

They're having trouble in our town and perhaps in yours, too, getting leaders for Brownie and Cub troops, those junior organizations of the Girl and Boy Scouts.

The answers they get from mothers asked to lead such groups is too often the same:

"I want my child to belong and I'll be glad to help out anyone who takes the group, but I just don't want to take on all that responsibility myself."

So while many mothers are sitting around ready to "help" but are unwilling to "lead," some of the children who should be starting out in Scouting aren't getting a chance to.

What's the matter with us mothers that we fight so against taking on responsibility? Too many of us want only to "help out" when it's convenient and figure that if we sit back and wait, somebody else will come along and assume the responsibility for the leadership of our children and others.

We've Just Losing our Consciences

Yet the truth of the matter is that offering to "help out" when we are asked instead to assume responsibility as a leader isn't much more than a salve to a nagging conscience.

It doesn't help the kids, and it doesn't do much for us.

The jobs that are really worthwhile always involve responsibility and hard work.

It's easier to dodge such jobs. But there's a lot of satisfaction in taking them on, doing them well, and knowing that we are doing something not just for our own children but for a whole group of children.

So let's quit hiding behind that old dodge, "I'll help out if somebody else will take the responsibility," when next we are asked to do something for children.

Husbands Lose Confidence As Mama's Tastes Rule Family

The woman was sitting at the glove counter of a department store buying on gloves when her husband came clear across the store to get her okay on a necktie he was buying for himself. "You're sure it's all right?" he asked anxiously.

Like a lot of other husbands that one has evidently been made so aware of his wife's superior taste he has reached the point where he doesn't trust himself to pick out even a necktie without help.

It's amazing, and kind of pitiful, too, the way we women have managed to set ourselves up as the final authority in the family on all matters of taste.

Pop looks longingly at a comfortable chair in a department store and tells him Mama would look horrible in the living room. He meekly accepts the verdict.

Suit Must Suit Mama

He announces that he is going to buy a new suit and Mama either tags along to make sure he gets what she thinks is right or gives him explicit instructions about the kind of suit to buy.

Even when he goes down and selects a gift for Mama to surprise her on her birthday or wedding anniversary, Mama may sneak back to the store and exchange it for something she likes better.

No wonder the poor men don't trust their own ability to pick out anything without first consulting Mama. She is so sure that her taste is better than any man's could possibly be, she has finally succeeded in persuading her husband that she's right.

Substitute 'Our' for 'My'

In the Marriage Vocabulary

An indignant wife writes:

"Please tell me in your column what a woman should do when she learns that her husband, in order to make people think he is better off financially than he is, leads them to believe that the property his wife has inherited is his property.

"He gets angry when I tell people the truth about whose property it really is."

That's easy—but you probably won't like my answer. Stop calling it "my" property, even when there is no one around you want to know "the truth."

You'd resent it, wouldn't you, if your husband labelled every cent he earns "my" money? Well, he has just as much right to resent your going around talking about "my" property, instead of "our" property.

As for your hating to see your husband enjoy a prestige you think he hasn't earned entirely on his own, I think that's a shabby attitude for a wife to take.

Wife Shares in Husband's Prestige

Every wife ought to want her husband to look as "big" as possible to other people. Anything she can contribute toward making him look "big" she should do gladly. After all, she shares in any prestige he has.

Why in the world would you, if you love your husband, prefer to have people think that you're the family big shot and that without your money your husband wouldn't amount to much?

Think it over and see if you wouldn't both be happier if you started thinking in terms of "our" instead of "my."

Marriage isn't a real partnership unless money is a mutual possession. And that goes for husbands as well as for wives.

Bolton Center church school staff will give a party for the pupils of the Sunday School on Saturday, December 16th from 2 until 4 p. m. at the parish room of the church. Wilson Cone of Manchester will entertain the children with magical tricks. The children will each bring a gift suitable for a child his age and sex which will be given to the children of Tolland County Home. Each guest at the party will receive a gift from the Sunday School. There will be carol singing and refreshments of ice-cream, cookies and candy will be served. Mrs. Fred Luck is superintendent of the church school and William A. Roberts is secretary-treasurer. Other member of the staff include Mrs. William A. Roberts, John Rogers, Mrs. Samuel Valenti, Mrs. Burton Tuttle, Mrs. Paul Arnold, Frances Elliott, Anita Gagliardone and Dawn Rogers. There are seventy children enrolled in the church school.

East Central Pomona Master, Wilbur T. Little of Manchester and his installing officers, seated Edward Dedoser, newly-elected master of Bolton Grange, and his fellow officers in a public ceremony at the Community Hall on Friday night. Mr. Dedoser, who was welcomed to the new office by retiring Master Lillian D. Hutchinson, will be assisted during his term by the following officers:

Overseer, Raymond Campbell; lecturer, Lillian D. Hutchinson; steward, Raymond Mielke; gatekeeper, Keeney J. Hutchinson; assistant steward, John Massolini; lady assistant steward, Grace Tedford; secretary, Mary Tedford; treasurer, Walter F. Elliott; chaplain, Eva W. Elliott; Ceres, Evalyn Bailey; Flora, Terry Ronson; Pomona, Ethel Mielke; Executive Committee, 3 years, Fred Mohr; pianists, Hazel Hutchinson and Mary Keeney.

Miss Adelia N. Loomis who recently resigned as chaplain after serving Bolton Grange in that position for twenty years, was presented with a past chaplain's jewel. Miss Loomis joined Bolton Grange in 1887, one year after it was chartered. In her 64 years as a Grange member, Miss Loomis has held every office and was the first lady master in Bolton and the first juvenile matron. Mrs. Keeney Hutchinson, retiring master, was presented with a past master's jewel.

The installing officers Friday night included Gustave Anderson as master; Grace Baker, chaplain; Beatrice Little and Hazel Anderson, marshalls; Olive Murphy, regalia bearer; Valiata LaChance, emblem bearer, Marjorie Morrison, pianist and Betty Lambert, soloist.

Their work was especially well done and resulted in a most impressive ceremony.

Bolton Grange will hold its Christmas party at the home of Maxwell Hutchinson in Andover on Thursday, December 21 at 8 p. m. Gifts costing 50 cents will be exchanged. The men are asked to wrap their gifts in red paper and the women will use white paper.

The next meeting of Bolton Grange will be held at the Community Hall on Friday, December 22nd when a short Christmas program will be presented.

War Claims Paid After 90 Years

Rome—(AP)—The treasury budget for 1950-51 provides for an appropriation of $641 to refund "damages sustained in war actions by the Bourbonist troops in the war campaigns of 1860-61." It was the last war fought by the troops of the late Ferdinand II, king of Naples, and of the two Sicilies 90 years ago.

Commenting the news, a Rome newspaper said: "The thousands who suffered damages from World War II can therefore be assured that their rightful descendants will be reimbursed before the year 2040.

First Discussion Held On Fire Consolidation

Fact Finding Committee Hears Various Views on the Subject At Initial Session

The newly appointed fact finding committee on fire department consolidation held its first session last night under the chairmanship of Attorney Christie P. McCormick and named as its secretary Mrs. Lotta B. Heard. The meeting started a series of gatherings which it is expected will extend over the period of a year before full information is gathered and matte public in effect a decision on the consolidation question.

It has been stressed that the committee's function is to gather facts and information and to take no stand in the matter of opinion on consolidation.

The committee will secure information as to whether or not consolidation will promote economy, efficiency and security, or find out if the present divided district system is the better.

Former Chief Foy's Views

Retired Fire Chief Albert Foy of the South Manchester Fire District suggested that as an aid to the committee's functions, it request the National Board of Fire Underwriters to study the town.

Apart from deliberations of the committee to date, it was learned today that one of the hinge questions on which others may swing may be that of water supply. In both north and south areas, there is now a considerable lack of safe and proper fire fighting pressure in spots containing valuable property. There seems to be a growing feeling, not alone at the south end of town but over north, that any improvement in fire protection may have to be considered along with possible public ownership of the Manchester Water company.

The connection between the two items of consolidation and water distribution is being forged by circumstance as well as by necessity.

The Problem of Pressure

There is a problem of adequate pressure at the south end just as there is at the north end. But at the north part of town, water costs now are serving to join the problem of water supply with fire protection, possibly because some residents figure both problems might be settled within the same package. Some north enders seem to believe that the time of argument of consolidation will be the right time also to talk public ownership of the water supply in the 5th District.

The town owned water department now serves the southern part of the town up to Middle Turnpike. The privately owned Manchester Water company with its separate facilities, handles the northern section.

New Rate Set-up

Some months ago the private company secured a tentative, reviewable new rate setup from the Public Utilities Commission, this to coincide with new metered rates which supplanted the former flat rate.

It is reported that users are finding, over north, that the amount of water that costs $5 at the south end, costs somewhat over $8 north of the turnpike. Already town officials have heard complaints on the situation.

The charges are starting building of a possible frame of mind to "consolidate everything," which would include the 5th District's sewage disposal system also, along with fire protection and water distribution.

Many questions of procedure and finance are involved, but while fire and water are separate problems, they are being cast into the same hopper for the long grind that stretches before the fact finding committee.

Ellington

The Ellington Catholic women's club is planning a Christmas party for the children of members and their guests for Saturday December 16, from 3 to 5 p.m. A program of games and entertainment is being planned by the executive committee which includes: Mrs. William Prutting, chairman, Mrs. Joseph Girardin, Mrs. Joseph DeCarli, Mrs. Peter Edmondo, Jr., Mrs. Mario DeBortoli, Mrs. Francis Dowd, Mrs. Earl Parker, Mrs. Raymond Peltier, Mrs. Richard West and Miss Adeline Loetscher. The place for this event will be announced at a later date.

The next meeting of the Ellington woman's club will be held in the Library hall at 8 p.m., and the guest speaker will be James T. Pearce from House of Jimpers in Warehouse Point. His subject will be "Decorating with the Old and New." The hostess: chairman, Mrs. Raymond Peltier, assisted by Mrs. Harold Patric, Miss Nellie McKnight, Miss Hazel Aborn, Mrs. Edwin Heintz, Mrs. Harold Davis, Mrs. Blanche Fournier and Mrs. Donald Fisk. This meeting takes place on Wednesday, December 20.

The annual business meeting and roll call of members of the Ellington Congregational church will be held Thursday, night in the social rooms of the church. A supper for members will precede the meeting at 6 p.m. Three changes in the by-laws which were recommended by the prudential committee will be voted on. The first being to increase the number of deacons from two to four, the second would discontinue the office of pastor's assistants of which duties will be taken over by the committee on ushering and offering appointed by the pastor. The third change concerns the amending of any rule which would be done by a two thirds vote of the members present and voting at any annual or monthly meeting of the church.

Order ERP Signs Be Torn Down

Vienna—(AP)—Marshall Plan funds have been used to rebuild federal roads and bridges in the Russian zone of Austria and for several federal agricultural projects. At each project—about 60 in all—Austrian and ERP authorities erected huge signs: "This work is being done with ERP funds."

They have stood untouched up to two years. Now the Russians have ordered local Austrian officials to pull them down.

Hebron

Hebron's special town meeting last Friday evening did not attract a great many voters, only about 25 being present. There were no items in the warning which were of such a nature as to excite opposition or cause a great deal of discussion. The proposed change in street lights, from the one at east of the green to the front of the town hall, and installation of a light in front of the post office, where the through bus discharges and takes on passengers, were approved. The closing of the road north of the Gilead church, to make room for a proposed Sunday school room, was approved, also the opening of the road south of the church, which will keep open the crossroad to the east, for travel. The continuation of rent control beyond the 31st of December was acted upon favorably. The voters approved the legalizing of real estate purchase by Dr. Charles M. Larcomb, at Bunce Hill section of Hebron, which took place several years ago.

Work of the committee on naming roads of the town was accepted, and a map made by First Selectman Winthrop S. Porter was shown. It was voted that the committee continue its work by naming brooks, hills, or other historical places. Maps will be printed and will be sold to help pay expenses of printing, etc. Members of the committee were Winthrop S. Porter, Clarkson F. Bailey, Leroy B. Kinney, Albert W. Hilding, Mrs. Clarence E. Porter and the late Claude W. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Hewitt observed their 30th wedding anniversary Saturday, in a quiet way, at their home on the Green. They were married December 9, 1920, at the home of the bride's parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bailey, of Columbia. Mrs. Hewitt is the former Miss Annie Bailey. They have two daughters, the Misses Emily and Joan. The former is a sophomore at the Willimantic State Teachers' college. Miss Joan is a seventh grader in the Hebron elementary school. They have lived in Hebron for a number of years, after having been located in New London for a time. Mr. Hewitt is the son of John N. Hewitt and the late Mrs. Hewitt, and was born in Hebron.

Mrs. Hugo Lederer was hostess to the Tolland County Home Demonstration group Monday evening at her home on the Basket Shop road. "Preparations for the Holidays" was the theme of the gathering. Christmas goodies were made, the expense being divided between those attending.

The new daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Benzinger has been named Mary Anne. The Benzingers now have two sons and six daughters. They moved from Hebron to Amston a month or two ago.

The Hebron Civic Council met Monday evening at the Town hall. Reports of the meeting are not yet available.

Twenty-two members of the Hebron Women's club were present at the meeting at the home of Mrs. Walter C. Hewitt last Thursday evening. The ladies each brought a set of earrings to exchange with other members. Two boxes of gifts to be presented to patients at the Norwich State hospital were made up. One box remains here for further donations before being sent. Mrs. Carl Linke was the leader. Games were played and there was carol singing, after which refreshments of sandwiches and coffee were served, and a social time enjoyed.

About 44 children of the Hebron elementary school attended Thursday afternoon or evening the Yale Band concert at the Bushnell Memorial, Hartford. The concert was first of the series for children sponsored by the Hartford Symphony. The children were enthusiastic and applauded vigorously. Clifford R. Wright transported the children in Robert Rathbone's school bus, accompanied by Mrs. Wright, in the afternoon. Several Andover children went with them. Upper graders went in the evening, accompanied by Mrs. Wright and Mrs. William W. Hammond, who drove to Andover and completed the trip by bus.

Miss Marjorie H. Martin, librarian, Douglas library, was one of 10 librarians from eastern Connecticut towns or cities who attended a library meeting at the Willimantic State Teachers' college recently. Plans were discussed for a proposed regional library, the state to provide and house the books. The project must be endorsed by the State Legislature if carried out.

With thermometers Monday registering in the upper 40's and a bright sunshine most of the time, it is not surprising that shrubs are sending out leaves and that many small flowers are in blossom, such as Johnny-jumpups, dandelions, etc.

Mrs. Duane Wheeler and her two sons, Harold and Michael, have come from Virginia to Amston Lake, to spend the time while Sgt. Wheeler is on overseas duty. They will live with Sgt. Wheeler's mother, Mrs. Harold Wheeler.

A Christmas cantata will be presented at the Hebron Congregational church next Sunday evening, December 17. Mrs. William O. Reyna, organist, of Colchester, will be in charge.

The HeGlAm bridge club met last at the home of Mrs. Ralph Secord. Winners were Mrs. Norton P. Warner, first, Mrs. John S. Markham, 2nd. Sandwiches, pickles and tea were served. Mrs. Irene Wright will entertain the club next time. It will take the form of a Christmas party.

Reds Boosting Idea of Peace

Berlin—(AP)—"Little Peace Doves Fly Over the Roof," is the latest Communist song for kindergarten children in Soviet-occupied Eastern Germany.

At a recent student festival at Magdeburg, the children sang the new tune while 20 live doves were turned loose. "They flew eastward," reported the Communist newspaper "Volksstimme," "to where the bulwark of peace, the great and mighty Soviet Union lies."

Indian Claims Right to Hunt

Dartmouth, Canada—(AP)—An elderly Micmac Indian is appealing his conviction for hunting deer illegally on the basis of a 198-year-old treaty.

A copy of a treaty, signed by the governor, says in Latin: "It is agreed that the said tribe of Indians shall not be hindered from, but have free liberty of hunting and fishing as usual."

Jobless Increase

Hartford, Dec. 13—(AP) — Connecticut's unemployment load remained about the same last week, The Department of Labor's weekly survey reported a total of 13,241 claims in the week, an increase of 109 from the preceding week. Women claimants number more than half of the total.

Local Girl Scouts Issue Monthly News Bulletin

Manchester Girl Scout leaders have received the first issue of a monthly bulletin from their new Executive Director, Mrs. Lucille Baker. The bulletin, entitled "Manchester Girl Scout News" mentions that the newly opened Girl Scout office, located at 983 Main street, Room 12, will be open Monday through Friday from nine a. m. to three p. m. Mrs. Baker will be at the office full time with Mrs. Ruth Larson as part-time office secretary.

The news letter will be sent monthly to all leaders and other adult volunteer Girl Scout workers. It will contain news of troop activities, special events, and will keep the organization posted on all phases of Girl Scouting.

The current issue for December informs the reader that the cabin at Camp Merri-Wood has been given a thorough house cleaning by the Girl Scout Council, and that the floors have been scraped and refinished. This is an ideal place for winter camping and the camp keys will be available at the Girl Scout office.

Three New Troops

The bulletin goes on to state that starting January 1, 1951, the office will assume the clerical functions of the registrar. It announces the establishment of three new troops in Manchester. These are Troop 11 at St. Bridget's church, Mrs. Joseph Palkowski and daughter, leaders, sponsored by the Daughters of Isabella; Troop 44 at St. Bridget's church, Mrs. Georg- Williams, leader, sponsored by the Daughters of Isabella; Troop 43 at Hollister Street school, leader, Mrs. Pauline Edwards.

Mrs. Baker plans to increase the size of the bulletin and has asked the leaders to cooperate by informing her in advance of special troop events and also about their outcome. She would like Scout exhibits at the area office showing troop work, and would appreciate suggestions from the adult volunteer workers.

Sportsmen Eye Assembly

Hartford, Dec. 13—(AP) — The Connecticut State League of Sportsmen's Clubs, meeting here last night, made plans to seek enaction by the 1951 General Assembly of the five-point program which it advocated unsuccessfully during the 1949 session. It calls for a no-diversion law assuring that all sporting fees shall be used for sportsmen's purposes, pollution abatement, stream stabilization, hunting and fishing at reservoirs and water basins and the expenditure of $200,000 for land to be used for recreational purposes.

To Celebrate 79th Birthday

Mrs. Josephine Snow To Keep Open House On Coming Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Lyman of 101 1-2 Center street will keep "open house" Sunday, December 17, in honor of the seventy-ninth birthday of Mrs. Lyman's mother, Mrs. Josephine A. Snow, widow of Charles H. Snow. Relatives and friends may call from two to five and seven to nine. The actual date is Sunday, December 24, but the family selected the earlier date will be more convenient than the day before Christmas.

Mrs. Snow was born in Pulaski, N. Y., five months after she was graduated. She came to Connecticut with her parents in 1880 and the family lived at Spring Hill, between Storrs and Willimantic. As a girl she was employed in Gurleyville, the native village of the late Governor Cross of Connecticut, at the Hanks silk mill. The little silk mill of that firm, said to be the first in the country, was bought by the late millionaire, Henry Ford, and moved to his Wayside Village in Sudbury, Mass. The mill where Mrs. Snow worked is still standing and buttons are manufactured there.

She remembers the Starkweather family who lived in Mansfield and one branch of the family in Gurleyville. Asked if she knew Miss S. Annie Starkweather who died in April, 1945, and was a teacher in Manchester public schools for 37 years, she replied that she did not, but did know Miss Starkweather's niece, Mrs. Ida S. Bidwell, who survived her aunt by only three years. She also knew Gustave Storrs who donated much of the land where the state college buildings are now located. It was called the "Agricultural College" in the early days; girls from the surrounding country were admitted, and her sister-in-law was the first girl to graduate, Mrs. Snow said.

Lodge Studies Budget

Hartford, Dec. 13—(AP)—Finances of the University of Connecticut, the State Welfare Department and the Development Commission came under the scrutiny of Governor-elect John Davis Lodge today as private hearings on the proposed State budget for the two-year fiscal period beginning next July 1. The Republican Governor-elect yesterday heard the budget requests of the State's mental hospitals, the Agricultural Experiment Station and the Aeronautics Commission. The largest request came from the mental hospitals, which are seeking about $88,000,000 in the new budget.

Greater Caution Needed In December Driving

Dawn . . . Dusk . . . Darkness . . . Death!

"In mid-winter, especially in December it almost seems that there is, actually, no daylight worth mentioning," Chief of Police Herman O. Schendel said this morning. "It's dark when we go to work in the morning. It's dark when we come home. And these, unfortunately, are the peak hours of automobile traffic."

The combination of heavy traffic, darkness, and—to large extent—weather conditions such as sleet, snow and rain that tend to obscure the driver's vision, were blamed by the Chief as contributing factors in thousands of fatal accidents every year.

"Obscurements on the windshield, alone—including rain, ice, sleet, snow and, others—were found to have been involved in about 2,220 fatal accidents in 1949 according to the National Safety Council," Chief Schendel said.

To combat the dangers present in winter driving, the Chief made several suggestions for the motorist's self-preservation.

"The long hours of darkness in winter," Chief Schendel said, "must mean greater caution, and proportionately reduced speed for the driver. The car heater, defroster, and windshield wiper blades must be in A-1 condition, as well, if he is to avoid the dangers invited by limited vision."

The Police department's December program of traffic safety education is sponsored in cooperation with the National Safety Council and its efforts are being coordinated in Manchester by the Police department.

Two Opposing Negotiation

There can be no understanding of the present diplomatic situation with regard to possible peace in Asia unless it is realized that the Arab-Asian bloc's proposal for negotiation of all Far East questions has two major opponents in the United Nations, and that these two opponents are the United States and Russia.

Yesterday, Russia even delayed approval of the first Arab-Asian bloc resolution—that calling for arrangements for a cease fire in Korea. Russia may, today, approve that resolution, but if Russia does one can be sure that, behind the scenes, Russia will be trying to persuade the Chinese Communists to hold to cease fire terms which will be impossible. At the same time, the United States gave its approval to the cease fire resolution, but, in its own behind the scenes negotiations, was setting cease fire conditions the Chinese Communists did not seem likely to accept.

But it is not likely that either the United States or Russia will give even surface approval to the second Arab-Asian resolution—that calling for a special commission to try to negotiate all problems concerning Communist China.

Each big country has its own special reasons for opposing this resolution.

—The United States, incapable of admitting that it may be wrong in Formosa in some shadow of the same way China is wrong in Korea, takes the position that to discuss Formosa and Korea together would constitute appeasement of Chinese action in Korea. The United States knows that Formosa is eventually going to China. It knows that Communist China is eventually going to be seated in the United Nations. It knows that Communist China is going to have a voice in the future of Korea. But it takes the view that, if these things happen, they must happen over a period of time, by indirect methods, and not as the "price" for the attainment of a free and unified Korea. This United States attitude, taken together with the attitude the Chinese Communists are formally maintaining, seems to make peace impossible unless a majority of the United Nations over-rules the United States.

Russia's opposition to the negotiation resolution is based on entirely different grounds. Russia has a fine thing going in a budding war between the United States and China. It is fine for Russia because it threatens to involve American military strength in a secondary and indecisive military area. It is fine for Russia because it threatens to split the United Nations.

Therefore, Russia's power politics play is to persuade the Chinese Communists to be as tough and aggressive and unreasonable as possible. Russia does not want peace to come in Asia, on any terms. Russia wants to keep the tragic pot boiling. Several days ago, one shrewd observer said that the world was going to get a test of the degree to which Russia dominates Communist China in the latter's decision whether or not to cross the 38th parallel. Russia wants the trouble to keep going. There is still much evidence that Communist China wants to win some concessions and then have trouble stop. And Russia opposes the negotiation resolution because it might have the latter effect.

These two oppositions to negotiation, one from the United States, the other from Russia, are entirely different in motive, but together they add up to one danger to the cause of peace—a danger which the other members of the United Nations must somehow circumvent if they can. The irony of the situation is that our hard and firm position with regard to negotiations is playing into the hands of Russia, which doesn't want to have any negotiations at all taking place.

Because She Is A Jew

We are living in an era when the traditional liberty, the traditional decency, the traditional tolerance of the American way of life are being shamefully and cruelly abused. At some point, if this is going to continue to be America, this abuse has got to stop. Such a point has now been reached in the extraordinary case of Mrs. Anna Rosenberg, appointed by President Truman, at the request of Defense Secretary George C. Marshall, to be Assistant Secretary of Defense.

The appointment of Mrs. Rosenberg, when made, received editorial praise throughout the country. The Senate Armed Services Committee had her appear before it in the normal routine on Nov. 29, and voted, unanimously, to recommend that the Senate confirm her appointment.

Then the dirty work began. Protests against the appointment began to drift in from various anti-Semitic groups. Finally, there appeared a witness who claimed that he had seen Mrs. Rosenberg at a Communist meeting 15 years ago. If there has been one thing obvious about this witness, it was that he had never seen Mrs. Rosenberg at such a meeting, but that he had decided to say so nonetheless.

There has never been, and never will be, any real possibility that Mrs. Rosenberg is a Communist. Her whole record in public life denies it.

But there is one thing about Mrs. Rosenberg which is certain. Mrs. Rosenberg is a Jew. And that fact is the key to the whole shameful business at Washington.

Mrs. Rosenberg is Jewish and she is being appointed to high public position. That is the fact which is intolerable to anti-Semitic groups in this country. And by their strategy with regard to her they are serving notice that any Jew who dares accept high public appointment must be prepared to be accused of being a Communist. It weighs nothing at all in the strategy of such groups that the charge may have to be false. They know that that very fact makes the charge itself the more disconcerting, the more horrible, the more difficult to answer. They know there is a certain receptiveness, in some quarters, to such charges even when they are obviously false. They have but one purpose—to keep Jews from entering public life—and, in this case, they are proclaiming their intention of subjecting every Jew who does take public post to the same kind of unscrupulous vilification.

These elements, by their attacks on Mrs. Rosenberg, have succeeded in giving that woman an anguish which can only be compared to that of the Nazi concentration camps. They have succeeded in imposing upon her an ordeal so fiendish in its naked hatred that she would not voluntarily choose to go through it again.

Now, it seems to us, it is up to the members of the United States Senate, without exception, to declare where they stand. The question is whether "any nation so conceived can long endure." The question is whether we are going to allow the forces of hatred in our midst to proceed, unrebuked, to the torture of the innocent. Senate procedure has allowed this cynically-designed torture to take place. Senate procedure also allows every Senator an opportunity to rise and state that, from the bottom of his American heart, he rejects and deplores such an attempt to strike at the very foundation of American democracy.

Legion Meets Saturday

Hartford, Dec. 13—(AP) — The Connecticut Department, American Legion, will hold its annual "midwinter conference" in the State Capitol on Saturday. A conference of Legion service officers and the annual membership roll call will feature the morning session. In the afternoon, three national Legion officials will address the delegates. They are Niles Kennedy, director of the Legion's Legislation Commission; James O'Neil, Director of the Legion Magazine, and Herbert J. Jacobi, National Vice-Commander of the Eastern Area.

Most large lumber and paper companies in the United States have placed their timber resources under management which will yield a continuous growth of trees.

The Open Forum

Communications for publication in the Open Forum will not be guaranteed publication if they contain more than 300 words. The Herald reserves the right to decline to publish any matter that may be libelous or which is in bad taste. Free expression of political views is desired by contributions of this character but letters which are defamatory or abusive will be rejected.

Appreciates Editorials

To Mr. Ferguson, Publisher, and To The Editor,

For some time I have been hoping and planning to write a good letter to the forum expressing my personal appreciation of the high level and clear-thinking, consistent, cogent and literary editorials of your paper. I have followed them as far as a busy calendar permitted, regretted that I have not been able to read them more. Not only are the editorials thought-provoking, objectively and basically written, but the style is classical, and when the editor gives us his brief write-ups that connect with nature, he offers to the public and school students literary gems. Furthermore his writing contains moral content and counsel, as well as American fore-thought and concern that is appealing and prophetic both. One does not have to agree in every point or part, politically or personally, to appreciate and recognize what is good and of common interest. And we should always be fair to recognize that which is good. That's what the good Book says too: "Prove all things; holding fast that which is good." (I Thess. 5:21). We believe that nowhere in the whole U. S. have more consistent and thoughtful editorials been written than in Manchester. We think they should have been published widely. We wish we had time to say more at this time, but suggest now that readers of the Herald read more of editorials. They, like in other papers, are almost forgotten contributions. In general people turn to headlines, or start at the back with funnies, and forget about editorials. They're too heavy and long, never realizing how much time and effort often goes into them. Maybe it would help if individuals exchanged their thoughts in these columns. What made America great was the individual contribution of thought and interest, not merely a regimented thinking and doing. Send the editorials on to your statesmen if you think them worthwhile. They have it hard these days. They need our sympathetic interest and constructive thoughts, and, they, if you please, need your fervent prayers, as well and the President and the whole Congress of our beloved country. May God again bless America, the world's last great stand for freedom and opportunity, also for all churches. "Long may our land be bright with freedom's holy light; Protect us by Thy might, Great God our King." We have asked the publisher to let this appear without name, to make it more impersonal, and so perhaps more helpful. Some other time we may have time to improve on this hasty, but we hope, also timely letter.

A Reader.

Aluminum Walls For Skyscraper

New York—(AP)—Cast aluminum panels are taking the place of brick facing in enclosing New York's newest skyscraper, a 24-story structure at 635 Madison avenue.

Reflective insulation in connection with air-conditioning of the building is one of the purposes. Modern appearances is another.

Bathing Suits Worry Aussies

Sydney — (AP) — Australian migrants from Europe who appear on Sydney's beaches in French-style bathing costumes, or undress in the open are causing beach inspectors concern.

Inspectors say, in most cases, the new Australians have protested that in the countries from which they came they had been accustomed to such habits.

WATKINS of Manchester

New York's Rebel Mayor Has Mind of His Own

New York—(NEA)—If anybody had bothered to look, they would have discovered that calm, cigar-smoking Vincent Impellitteri has a mind of his own.

They could have found that out long before the tall, dark-eyed native of Sicily defied Tammany Hall, challenged both Democrats and Republicans, and upset political precedent to win the second toughest administrative job in the nation.

A little probing would have unearthed several instances of Impellitteri's independence of mind. In 1948, when most of New York's top Democrats were giving Harry Truman large doses of silence, Impellitteri spoke up for the campaigning president. He was the only top-level political figure in New York to go up to Vito Marcantonio's Harlem stronghold and campaign against him that year.

And wonder of wonders, he also publicly snubbed Frank Costello, the big-time gambler and shadowy figure behind New York Democratic politics. That happened at a party. Some friends of Impellitteri said they'd introduce him to Costello. But Impellitteri said no, thank you, he didn't care to meet the gentleman. Costello didn't like that at all.

So it was perfectly in character for the man New York headline-writers are calling "Impy" to run anyway when Tammany Hall decided to run someone else. That happened in August, when William O'Dwyer resigned to become ambassador to Mexico.

Impy figured he was the man for the job. After all, as City Council President, his job was to fill in for the mayor when he was out of town. And O'Dwyer was the nation's undisputed long-distance vacation champion. So Impy had had lots of experience at giving out keys to the city and greeting visiting dignitaries and other maying work.

Tammany reasoned otherwise. The story is that a deal had been worked out before O'Dwyer resigned, whereby the Liberal Party—which commands a lot of votes in New York—would support the Democratic state ticket if Judge Ferdinand Pecora was put up for mayor.

Whatever the reason, Tammany gave Impy the fishy stare and gave Pecora its blessing. Impy said they'd offered him a $28,000 judgeship if he'd quit the race. (Pecora's backers said, on the contrary, that Impy had demanded three judgeships—one for himself and two for his friends.) Pecora got the Liberal Party support, all right, and a lot of other groups jumped on the bandwagon.

But Impy kept on running. Three Tammany district leaders bolted to his support. A few labor groups did likewise. An Independent Citizens' Committee for the Election of Impellitteri was formed. He became the one candidate of the one-man Experience Party.

And he had one big advantage. As acting mayor, he was in City Hall. He made the most of his opportunity. The Brooklyn gambling investigation unearthed some smelly business about policemen being cozy with the bookies. He appointed Thomas Murphy, the man who had convicted Alger Hiss, as police commissioner.

The good publicity he got from this, and other, moves made him a generally liked public figure. He was the Fighting Underdog, doing his job and trying to win the election at the same time. His opponents burned up the airwaves with charges about his inexperience, his previously warm friendship with Tammany—but he had captured the public fancy.

It was a strange spot for a man who had spent most of his public career in somebody else's shadow. His is the story of a typical ambitious immigrant. Born in Isnello, Sicily, he spent his boyhood on the lower East Side. After a hitch in the Navy in World War I, he worked his way through Fordham Law School as a hotel bellhop and night clerk.

He served as a union counsel, and then was, for eight years, a hard-working assistant district attorney. Later he was secretary to two New York supreme court justices. In 1945, O'Dwyer hand picked him to be his running mate for City Council president.

And there he was when events projected him smack into the limelight. Few New Yorkers had heard of him until O'Dwyer went south of the border. Few had seen pictures of the handsome man with the flashing black eyes and his tall, blonde wife, Betty. Even fewer had heard his rich, baritone speaking voice.

But New Yorkers saw and heard plenty after O'Dwyer quit. Impellitteri waged a tireless fight in a campaign marked by exceptional quantities of exceptionally dirty mud-slinging by all parties.

On election night, Impy came in to his headquarters in a midtown hotel. He was tired, but it didn't seem to matter. A crowd estimated at 50,000 was milling about. Impy smiled and said, "Well, it looks like I'm a winner."

Then he and Betty went out to a night-club. He didn't get home until after four in the morning. But his supporters figured he deserved a night out.

Orders Closed Court Session

Judge Gryk Postpones Hearing of Clark Case Until This Afternoon

Donald A. Clark, 22, of 763 Center street, will be presented in a closed session of Town Court this afternoon on charges of breach of the peace and failure to notify the Motor Vehicles department of a change of address. The case was started this morning but the lengthy docket caused Judge Wesley C. Gryk to adjourn the matter to 2 p.m.

The court was ordered cleared at the request of Attorney Herman Yules, who is representing the accused. Clark had pleaded guilty to the change of address charge and not guilty to breach of of the peace. He was arrested as the result of a fight Sunday night following the union Christmas party at the armory, on the complaint of Joseph Mistretta, 112 School street. Mistretta said he broke his arm in the scuffle.

Yules told the court that he had requested Prosecutor Philip Bayer to issue a warrant for Mistretta's arrest charging lascivious carriage and indecent assault. He said that he felt both cases should be tried at the same time.

Prosecutor Bayer disagreed. He said he thought the court should hear the case and then, if Judge Gryk felt it necessary from the testimony presented, a warrant should be issued for Mistretta's arrest.

Judge Gryk agreed with Bayer and it was at this point that Yules requested the crowded courtroom be cleared.

The cause of the Sunday night fight is alleged to be an incident that occurred in the armory during the period of dancing.

$267,136 Balance In School Account

Manchester's new schools account showed a balance of $267,136.59 on December 5 with both the Bowers and Verplanck schools in use and only $6,919.20 encumbered for school completion according to the report on the new schools released today by General Manager George H. Waddell. The original appropriation for the two schools was $924,000 for the Verplanck and $715,000 for the Bowers school plus $50,000 for engineering study and alteration planning for the Hollister street school and the projected new Broad street school.

Expenditures to December 5 on the Verplanck school were $740,610.16 and on the Bowers school $651,688.30. Engineering and plans for the Hollister street school and Broad street school had cost $29,564.95.

Peter Staum Is Promoted

Supernumerary Is Now Probationary Regular In Police Department

Peter Staum has been named a probationary regular on the Manchester Police Department force, it was announced today by Chief Herman Schendel. Action on Staumn's appointment was taken at a recent meeting of the officers of the department.

Two supernumeraries were also named by the officers, with Chief Schendel releasing the information today.

Robert Turcotte, 29, of 6½ Trotter street, employed at Farr's soda shop, and an Army veteran of three years, all in Military Police work, was named as well as Joseph Hilinski, 31, of 93 Benton street. Hilinski was also a member of the Military Police in the Army, serving five years.

Chief Schendel said that he is still anxious to receive applications from young Manchester men who wish to become supernumeraries. Application blanks may be secured at headquarters.

Charge Perjury In Inquiry

The complaints of false testimony came after two long secret sessions yesterday at which two witnesses, who DeSola said could verify his testimony, were quoted as disputing it.

"It's a clear case of perjury," Senator Cain (R., Wash.) told reporters without saying whom he regards as guilty. "Witnesses are telling us contradictory stories about the same incidents. It has to be a case of perjury by some one because all winesses have been placed under oath."

Russell Charges Perjury

Senator Russell (D., Ga.), Acting Chairman, agreed in a separate interview that "someone undoubtedly has sworn falsely." But Russell said the matter of perjury and possible prosecution by federal attorneys must wait until the committee ends its hearing.

De Sola told the committee he was recruited as a Communist by James McGraw. He said McGraw also introduce Mrs. Rosenberg and saw her at meetings of the John Reed club in New York City 15 years ago.

Committee members quoted McGraw as denying he was a Communist, had attended the club meetings De Sola mentioned, or that he ever had seen Mrs. Rosenberg.

They said the second witness, Isadore Schneider, like McGraw from New York City, denied he knew Mrs. Rosenberg, and other portions of De Sola's testimony. But Senators said Schneider did not reply to questions about his affiliation with Communists on the ground that it might incriminate him.

The committee unanimously recommended Senate confirmation for Mrs. Rosenberg to the $15,000 a year defense post Nov. 29 after a closed hearing. Later it reopened hearings to listen to De Sola and to follow up his testimony.

Mrs. Rosenberg is now serving under a temporary appointment.

Lillooet, B. C.—(AP)—Crews of workmen are pouring gold-bearing cement for more than a mile of sidewalk in this town 200 miles northeast of Vancouver. The gravel was taken from the famous banks of the Cayoosh Creek, but the workmen don't bother panning the stuff. Oldtimers say it wouldn't yield more than a few dollars for 12 hours work.

Futile Chase After Bus Brings Court Hearing Her

Stepping off the New York train in Hartford Monday afternoon, Anton Kaletchitz, 82, of Eastford, hurried to make the bus leaving for Willimantic—but just missed it.

Jumping into a taxi, Anton told Judge Wesley C. Gryk in Town Court this morning, he ordered the driver to "catch that bus and I'll give you a dollar."

The chase was on and continued through East Hartford and into Manchester Center before Anton gave up the chase, he said. When the cab driver, Richard Kidder of 208 Farmington avenue, Hartford, asked $4 for the trip and offered to take Anton to Wilimantic for another $10, Anton told Judge Gryk, he rebelled.

He gave Kidder $1, Anton said, but refused to pay the other $3 and was arrested for evading taxi fare.

Kidder wasn't really trying to catch that bus, Anton claimed.

Kidder's story differed fr Anton's. Kidder denied that A ton offered him a dollar to ca the bus. He added that he war Anton in East Hartford that continuation of the chase i Manchester would cost $4, a rate that is charged for all tr to Manchester. He added that couldn't catch the bus because the heavy afternoon traffic.

Judge Gryk affected a comp mise when he asked Anton if would be willing to pay the $3 b ance of the fare. Anton agreed the charge was dropped.

Nathan Hale PTA Has Xmas Party

The Nathan Hale P. T. A. held its December meeting at the school last night. The Christmas play which was scheduled, was not presented because of the illness of three members of the cast. In its place Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Handley read three Christmas stories. Mrs. Handley read "The Gift of the Magi" and "The Small One," and Mr. Handley, "The Littlest Angel." All three were much enjoyed by the audience.

Carol singing led by Miss Martha White followed, with Mrs. Ward Dougan at the piano.

The banner was presented to Miss Mary Taylor's room for having the largest number of parents attending last night's meeting.

After the meeting and program every one adjourned to the kindergarten where open-face sandwiches, cookies and coffee were served, on tables gay with Christmas decorations. Mothers of first grade pupils under the direction of Mrs. Carl Gustafson and Mrs. Harold Hill were hostesses for the evening.

Marlborough

The card party for the benefit of the 1951 cancer fund which had to be postponed because of the bad windstorm will be held on Saturday evening, December 16 and all tickets purchased for the November 25 event will be honored at this time. Mrs. Howard Stebbins who is in charge of the affair will appreciate the loan of cards and card tables.

Mrs. Gladys Dancause, lecturer of the local grange, attended the state lecturers conference which was held in Plainville last Saturday.

At the Grange meeting Thursday night the officers for the ensuing year were installed, by Perry Lathrop of Vernon and his installing team. The officers installed are as follows: master, Wilbur Wilbur; overseer, Mrs. Hazel Rossman; lecturer, Mrs. Gladys Dancause; steward, Harry Hagborn; assistant steward, Mrs. Isabelle Rossman; chaplain, Mrs. Agnes Roberts; treasurer, Fred Coleman; secretary, Mrs. Letitia Willes; gatekeeper, Ralph Korn; ceres, Mrs. Catherine Pettengill; pomona, Miss Nancy Nichols; flora, Mrs. Betty Nichols; lady assistant steward, Mrs. Louise Nichols; member of executive committee for three years, William Zerner.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon for George McCabe, 90, who died at the Post

Albert D. Krause

At the meeting of Manchester Lodge No. 73, A. F. and A. M., at the Masonic Temple last evening, Albert D. Krause, of 44 Ridge street, was elected Worshipful Master. Other officers elected are: senior warden, Walter S. Broadwell; junior warden, Graham L. Clark; treasurer, Past Master W. Sidney Harrison, and secretary, Past Master T. Walter Reichard.

Mr. Krause is office manager of the Marine Department of the Aetna Life Insurance company group. A native of Manchester, he is married and has two children. He is also a member of Delta Chapter Royal Arch Masons.

Master-elect Krause announced the appointment of his marshal, Malcolm Robertson. Mr. Robertson is a group leader in the engineering department of Pratt and Whitney. He resides with his wife and two sons at 452 Adams street. For the past year he has been president of the Fellowcraft club of Manchester Lodge.

Other appointed officers are John L. VonDeck, deacon; Eric S. Anderson, junior deacon; Herbert J. Leggett, senior steward; C. VanZandt McQuide, junior steward; Thomas R. Maxwell, chaplain, and William C. Bray, tyler.

R. LaMotte Russell and C. Leroy Norris, both past masters, were reelected trustees for five years.

All officers will be installed next Tuesday evening, December 19.

Convalescent Home in East Hampton on Saturday. Burial was in Hillside cemetery this town. Mr. McCabe was a native of Middleborough and had always lived here up until a few years ago when he went to the convalescent home to live. He leaves no relatives.

Children's Xmas Party by W.C.T.U.

The W. C. T. U. gave its annual children's Christmas party yesterday afternoon at the South Methodist church.

The program, a most delightful one, under the direction of Miss Kathryn Bryon, Mrs. Helen Mc-Kinney and Mrs. Celia Lincoln was as follows:

"Christmas Carols In Story and Song Around the World", by these Y.T.C. members: Marilyn Gates, Shirley Speed, Betty Whiting, Barbara Young, Peggy Gaskell and Gaynore Lauritsema, accompanied on the piano by William Kinnaly, Jr.

Duet, Silent Night, Donald and Carol Gardner; Solo, Rudolph, the Red Nose Reindeer, Donald Meisner; Piano Solo, Jane McKinney; Monologue, The Little Old Lady, Mrs. Celia Lincoln; Film, The Night Before Christmas, presented by Miss Kathryn Bryon.

White Ribbon Recruit Ceremony, conducted by Mrs. Ella Burr, at which time six little ones were declared to a life of purity and abstinence.

At the end of this ceremony Santa Claus made his appearance and gave the children candy canes and Mrs. Margaret Barlow and her committee served beautifully with decorated homemade cookies and ice cream, a fitting way to end such a lovely party.

Deaths Last Night

By The Associated Press

Los Angeles—Joe Nicholas Weber, 84, a former president of the AFL Musicians Union and a Vice President of the American Federation of Labor. He was born in Hungary.

Pueblo, Colo.—John W. (Jack) Raper, 80, a columnist for the Pueblo Chieftain for 28 years before his retirement in 1947. He was born in McArthur, Ohio.

Chicago—Frederick C. Hibbard, 69, noted Chicago sculptor who won national acclaim for many of his works.

Urges Registration

Stratford, Dec. 13.—(AP)—Albert M. Pickus, Stratford's municipal civil defense director, has asked all male citizens between 35 and 50 years of age to register for duty with the Civil Defense Organization. Asserting that registration blanks were available at police headquarters, Pickus said "time is running out, and it is necessary that we advance without further delay from the planning stage and become a working organization, trained and ready to cope with any emergency."

Trunkline Survey Started By Natural Gas Company

Natural gas introduction to New England as a less costly industrial and household fuel is now receiving another push ahead as the Algonquin Gas Transmission company starts a detailed survey of the proposed trunkline route, which passes close to the southerly boundary of Manchester. The line will, as projected, go through Marlborough into Hebron or Andover thence through Columbia and Windham on its way toward Pittsan. It will enter this area from Middletown.

Low-level aerial photographic survey of the 250-mile route over which Algonquin Gas Transmission company plans to construct its New England natural gas pipeline is now in progress and will be carried on until the entire route between Boston and Lambertville, N. J., is photographed.

The survey is being conducted for Algonquin by Eastern Aerial Surveys, of Boston, under the supervision of Ford, Bacon and Davis, Incorporated, the New York engineering firm which designed the Algonquin pipeline system.

The aerial survey will eliminate much of the tedious and time-consuming land survey work which would otherwise be necessary. By using latest techniques of stereophotography and aerial map-making developed during World War II, it is possible to get extremely accurate terrain information for use by pipeline engineers.

Algonquin's pipeline system is planned to start at Lambertville, N. J., where it will join with the Big and Little Inch lines of Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation which are now delivering gas into Staten Island, New York. From there Algonquin's line will extend through New Jersey and New York, crossing the Hudson near Peekskill, and continue through Connecticut, Rhode Island and Massachusetts, to a point near Boston. A recent decision of the Federal Power Commission, reserved most of Connecticut, all of Rhode Island, and Southeastern Massachusetts, as far north as Boston, for service by Algonquin upon proof of an adequate gas supply.

Weddings

Hewitt-Mosley

Staff Sergeant Everett Martin Hewitt, USAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hewitt, of 98 Lyness street, and Miss Joan Mosely, of Daisy Beach, Florida, and Washington, D. C., were married December 9 in the First Baptist church of Alexandria, Virginia.

Miss Moseley is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bedford Forrest Moseley, pioneer residents o' Delray beach, Florida, and originally of Owensboro, Kentucky. She is a graduate of Eastern high school, Washington, D. C., and attended the University of Alabama, where she was a member of the Kappa Alpha chapter of Theta Upsilon Sorority.

Sergeant Hewitt graduated from Manchester High school with the class of 1945, and attended the Porter School of Aircraft Machine Design in Hartford. He is a veteran of 29 months service with the Occupation Forces in Germany. At present he is stationed at Andrews Air Force Base with headquarters, Air Weather Service.

The bride wore a street-length dress of beige lace with dusty pink accessories. Her corsage was of camellias. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Patricia Nan Brenk, of Boca Raton, Florida. Corporal George O'Brien was best man.

After a brief motor trip through Virginia, the couple will reside in Washington, D. C.

MacArthur For Headlines

Singapore—(AP)—Headline writers on newspapers in Singapore and Malaya don't have any trouble making the name of Gen. Douglas MacArthur fit their columns. They simply call him "Mac."

fore its usefulness may be evalted properly.

The surgery takes about 90 mines to complete. Four hours are dinarily required for the convenal operation in which the ophagus is cut out and the omach is brought into the chest that food passes into it directly on the mouth.

Dr. Berman believes the prime e of the plastic gullet at present uld be in patients suffering from ncer.

The announcement made it clear at doctors offer no hope of a ncer cure through the new plastic tube, "only a possible palliative or relieving effect."

It said other surgeons have commented that if the plastic gullet should work successfully, it would be especially beneficial to children who swallow lye or acids and suffer irreparable damage to the esophagus.

aid, does not mean a permanent end of Marshall Plan aid. If Britain's economic position worsens, there can be "reconsideration, if necessary," of the cut-off order, he added.

Britain will be permitted to use the $175,000,000 granted her by the Economic Cooperation Administration (ECA) as its Marshall Plan allotment for the last six months of this year.

The joint American-British announcement also stressed that the end of Marshall Plan aid to Britain "will in no way affect the arrangements which are now being worked out by the North Atlantic Treaty organization for the assessment and distribution of the burden of the defense programs of its members."

Foster said the United States government is "especially pleased to see so prominent an example of the success of the European Recovery Program at this early date." Generally, the Marshall Plan effort was to have continued until 1952.

The British Government, in the joint announcement, expressed its "deepest gratitude" to the United States for its "unprecedented generosity" in giving freely to Britain at a critical moment in history the means to regain her economic independence and power.

When Britain and the United States started reviewing the need for Marshall Plan help last Oct. 31, Foster emphasized "any new economic relationship should be one of stand-by rather than of termination" of all American help.

Today's announcement pointed out that "new difficulties and burdens" are certain to hit the British economy in 1951 as a result of increased defense spending and the necessity for paying higher costs for raw materials.

The insurance losses in Manchester's recent weeks of windstorm and rain are expected to boil down to considerably less than $50,000 one agent estimated today. First reports, he said, indicated some possible heavy losses, but adjustment inspections show that some losses were either overestimated or fell outside policy provisions.

Finds Man Dead In Canton Shack

Canton, Dec. 13—(AP)—The body of Edward A. Ross, 72, was found today in a shack where he lived alone near the Canton Inn. Dr. Owen L. Murphy, Simsbury medical examiner, said death was due to natural causes.

The body was discovered by Fred Schiele, a friend, who notified Louis A. Pane, manager of the Canton Inn. He called State Policeman James L. Parrott who notified Dr. Murphy.

ROOM FOR CONTEMPLATION—With the shadows of world conflict hanging particularly heavy over the UN, delegates at Lake Success now have access to a newly-opened "meditation room." The 20-foot square, dimly lighted room, decorated only by small flags and a pot of ferns, was opened to UN officials and the public alike, in response to many pleas by religious organizations.

Dodgers to Look Over Several New Outfielders

Training camp activities of the Dodgers always have provided interesting stories and next spring should be no exception. For there promises to be some interesting battles for some spots on the Dodgers' 1951 team and particularly in the outfield.

Among the fly-chasing talent that is being brought up for next year are Don Thompson and Dick Williams. Thompson will not be any stranger to training camp followers as he has had a trial previously with the Braves. The Dodgers had him at their Montreal farm last season and everything the left handed hitter had done warranted this new chance to make the big leagues. He batted around .310 and, in the process of accumulating 222 bases on 157 hits, drove in 81 tallies.

Williams appears on the Dodgers' roster for the first time. He was purchased from the Fort Worth team. A right handed hitter, he's had two full seasons in Double A competition and, in both years, his hitting has been convincing enough. In 1949 with the Cats, Williams batted .310, drove in 114 runs and his 174 hits included 23 homers and 30 doubles. Last season he batted around .300, again hit thirty doubles and had an RBI total of 72. He is considered one of the best defensive players to come out of the minors in some years.

Also on the list for the first time is outfielder Bill Sharman, a bonus player, signed after he had starred for Southern California University. A right handed batter Sharman launched his pro career with the Pueblo Western League team last season and, after batting .288 in 11 games and driving in 70 runs, he was moved up to Elmira. Played in 10 games with that team, hitting .289. In addition to his baseball ability, he is recognized as one of the greatest basketball players to come from the Coast. While at Porterville, Cal., high school, he won 13 varsity letters.

Bill Antonello, a long ball hitter who spent the last season at Hollywood, and George Shuba, left handed hitter who has been up before, are other outfielders expected to enliven training camp work. Antonello, a Brooklyn boy, bats right handed.

Rocky Bridges, the shortstop who made the Int. League All Star team for the second successive year, returns from Montreal where he batted .281 and drove in 81 runs last season. Another infielder on the list is Jim Baksis, a third baseman who wears glasses. Baksis, possessor of a great throwing arm, is a long ball hitter. He's been in the pro ranks four years. Last season started with St. Paul, but after 13 games with that club was shifted to Hollywood where while he wound up hitting only .243, he walloped 31 homers and drove in 76 runs.

Fighting for a catching spot will be Steve Lembo and Dick Teed. Both are right handed hitters. Lembo, ill most of last season, was recalled from St. Paul last September when Roy Campanello was hurt. Before reaching the Dodgers he hit .241 at St. Paul. Teed is on the roster for the first time. This is his fourth year in the pay ranks and he batted .275 in 56 games at Montreal last season after he had started the season with Pueblo.

Most of the pitchers being bought by the Dodgers have been on the roster before. Appearing for the first time is Ray Moore, a right hander, purchased from Fort Worth. Moore started in organized ball in 1947 with Greenwood in the Cotton States League and, after posting an 18-7 record there, moved up to Greenville in the Sally League. His percentage in both of those seasons was below .500, but despite that he was promoted to Ft. Worth where he regained his winning stride, turning in 15 victories while losing only nine last season. His ERA was 3.10.

Other pitchers are Jim Romano, Joe Landrum, Clem Labine, Pud Podbeilan and Jack Banta. Of these, Brooklyn-born Romano was the last to join the Dodgers. He was brought up in the final days of the past campaign, having spent the greater part of the season at Mobile and later at St. Paul. He had a 12-10 record at Mobile and won two games without any setbacks at St. Paul. He's been in the Brooklyn organization since 1946.

Banta, Labine and Podbeilan were with the Dodgers last spring. Podbeilan got off to a fine start, but slipped and was sent back. Banta was shipped back to Montreal in June and Labine, a curve baller, was returned in May. Landrum came up in the middle of the season and had a brief stay.

Two Youth Groups To Be in Charge

The two youth groups of the Second Congregational church will conduct the entire candlelight Christmas carol service on Christmas Eve at the church. The program has been planned to start at 6:30 to enable families with small children to attend.

The story of Christmas will be read from the Bible and carols will be sung by both the choral group and the congregation. This is the first time the young people of the church have undertaken a musical program and they cordially invite their friends and families to attend.

A freewill offering will be taken which will be used by the group in fulfilling their missionary and conference pledges.

King's Daughters Christmas Party

Ever Ready Circle of King's Daughters enjoyed a delightful Christmas party last night in the directors' room of the Whiton Memorial Library, under arrangements made by Mrs. Beatrice Manning and her committee, consisting of Mrs. James T. Pickles, Mrs Muriel Davis and Mrs. Wallace Jones.

After the devotions and business meeting, conducted by the president, Mrs. George F. Borst, Mrs. Jessie Cadman sang solos, Miss Gene Walton, whistler, contributed several numbers and Miss Hazel Driggs, humorous recitations, all of which were well received.

To add to the Christmas atmosphere, a large wreath was placed above the mantelpiece and a fire glowed on the hearth. An illuminated Christmas tree was surrounded with gifts, and the identity of the "capsule ladies" were revealed. Jellied fruit salad, home made cookies and other dainties were served at small tables centered with Santa Claus figures or snow men, with cornucopias, made by Mrs. Manning and filled with candy at each plate.

Holiday Social At Country Club

A gay holiday social schedule is in prospect for members of the Manchester Country club, both seniors and juniors, beginning with the kiddies' Christmas party Sunday, December 16 from four to six o'clock. Committee chairmen for the affair are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Scranton, who will be assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lambeck, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stevens and Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, Jr.

Junior hostesses who will assist in serving and in general supervision of the younger children include Priscilla Anderson, Ann Alvord, Mary Ann Handley, JoAnn Handley, Holly Smith, Lynne Sundquist and Sandra Sundquist.

Measles On March

Hartford, Dec. 13—(AP)—Measles continue on the march in Connecticut according to the State Department of Health which today reported 75 new cases last week Bronchopneumonia cases increased to 49 cases from 27 reported in the previous week. One new case of infantile paralysis was reported bringing the total to nine. Whooping cough cases reported decreased from 56 to 54.

Employment Up In Local Section

Despite the restrictive influence of material shortages and the scarcity of skilled workers, postwar employment records in the Hartford labor market, which includes Manchester, have been broken as the pressure of increased economic activity pushed employment up to an unprecedented level.

Private non-agricultural employment in the area in November soared to a new postwar high of 153,830, substantially above the October peak of 151,510. About two-thirds of these 2,320 newly added workers found employment in manufacturing industries.

Mixed trends characterized the manufacturing group with gains more than offsetting losses. Once again the fabricated metals and aircraft industry led the advance in factory employment, adding about 1,190 persons to the workforce. Large increases also were registered in the machinery industry, especially in the office and service subgroups, up 400, and in textiles, up 100. The sharpest decline was centered in the garment trades due to the usual seasonal contraction, and minor losses occurred in other industries.

Brisk Christmas buying resulted in a large increase in non-manufacturing employment. Principal gains were concentrated in retail trade establishments where merchants hired extra help for the rush.

Unemployment continued its decline in the area. Women still constitute almost one-half of the current job-seekers, and a large number are qualified for clerical and sales work. There is a sizeable group, however, seeking unskilled occupations. About 12 per cent of the unemployed are handicapped.

Job openings in the offices of the State Employment Service were fewer than the previous month, although orders for skilled and semi-skilled workers increased.

Lou Viscusi Says Pep Not for Sale

Hartford, Dec. 13—(AP)— Lou Viscusi motored up from New York City today with Mr. and Mrs. Willie Pep and took time out from a busy day to declare that his contract with Pep was not for sale.

Clarence Kay, who yesterday said he was "very interested" in buying the former world featherweight champion's contract, apparently would have no chance of doing so even if it were on the market.

"Let Kay pay what he owes me for the Pep-Humberto Sierra bout first," said Lou. "Let him pay that debt before he goes around saying he'd like to buy any fighter's contract."

Mr. Kay promoted the Pep-Sierra bout in Miami in February, 1948, and wound up with a loser financially, though the show appeared to draw a large crowd.

Skunks Too

New London, Dec. 13—(AP)—Last week the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association announced it had nine puppies to give away as Christmas gifts. Up to today, 25 puppies have been distributed and 32 others will be placed in homes by the end of the week, says Patrolman Joseph L. Rafferty. Now Rafferty has come up with something new. He has at his disposal, awaiting new homes, two deodorized skunks.

"The Rising Tide Lifts ALL The Boats"

How you can help yourself by helping New England

If you are a business man, industrialist, farmer, professional man, or a leader in any field of endeavor, you will want to read this because it concerns you . . .

New England is your home and business place, and upon its prosperity depends your own welfare, the progress of this six-state region and your own progress are inseparable.

Hard industry in early New England laid the foundation for the present attainments of this, your home region, and provided it with the heritage of Yankee ingenuity, pioneer spirit, and workable democracy so important to continued advancement.

New England, as you know, has a great many tangible assets in the fields of Industry, Commerce, Agriculture, Recreation and Transportation — but the greatest asset of all, perhaps, is New England's recognition that it faces not only challenges but also problems—its awareness that THERE IS WORK TO BE DONE.

New England is uniquely equipped with men, ideas, machines, and money, but New England's progress in the future, as in the past, will depend upon the continued application of its early pioneer spirit and of united effort as a region to solve these problems.

There is a working tool for the application of this united effort. It is an organization which represents you, works for you and with you, and which depends upon you for support. It is the New England Council.

For a quarter of a century the New England Council has been the agency through which leaders in industry, commerce, agriculture, and recreational development in the six New England states have successfully united their efforts for the common and the individual good.

The aim of the New England Council is to stimulate regional action for the further economic progress of New England by:

Promoting regional consciousness and co-operation.

Expanding the use of New England's industrial, financial, agricultural, recreational and human resources.

Facilitating the cooperation of business interests and governmental agencies in furthering the region's economic growth.

Increasing national consciousness of New England's economic significance, achievements and opportunities.

The Council is non-profit, non-political, nonpartisan. Its only funds are membership dues and unconditional contributions.

Committees of elected directors supervise the activities of a permanent staff of specialists, in industry and industrial development, agriculture and forestry, recreational development, transportation, research, and public relations.

It is customary for the committees and staff specialists to enlist the aid and cooperation of interested institutions, associations, firms and individuals in working on particular problems.

The New England Council is committed to no interest but that of New England PROSPERITY; it has no authority but that of PUBLIC OPINION: it has no power but that of MEN and IDEAS.

For greater effectiveness in furthering New England's development the Council has concentrated its work in five major departments: Industry, Agriculture, Recreation, Transportation, Public Relations. These departments will enact the Council's new long-range program for building a better New England . . . a program specifically designed to attack, by united action, the urgent economic problems of New England.

To implement this program, the New England Council in 1950 will promote these special activities:

Expand its work for the construction of an integrated steel mill in New England,

Co-operate with National Planning Assoc. and The Federal Reserve Bank of Boston in the conduct of a comprehensive study of the impact of policies of the Federal Government on the New England economy."

Ascertain the best means of financing the construction of modern industrial factory buildings for existing and new industries.

Broadcast to the people of New England and the rest of the country the facts about New England's economic progress and achievements, through an accelerated and expanded public relations program.

You Need the New England Council

ALL New England needs the New England Council—the Council needs the support of ALL New England. If you are not already a member; it is to your interest to join with other leaders who, through their memberships in the Council, are helping to develop this important region to its fullest.

Add your name NOW to the rising tide of Council membership. Remember, what helps New England helps you.

Youths Mixed In Car Theft

One Sent to Reformatory, Other Two Are Put on Probation

The cases of three youths involved in the theft of a car and several motor vehicle violations were disposed of in Town Court this morning with Judge Wesley C. Gryk sentencing one of the youths to a reformatory sentence and giving the other two suspended sentences and placing them on probation.

Roger Michaud, 18, of 50 Ash street, was sentenced to Cheshire Reformatory for taking a motor vehicle without the owner's permission. Judgment was suspended on charges of driving an improperly registered motor vehicle and disobeying a police officer, and Michaud was given 30-day sentence, suspended, in the County Jail for reckless driving.

Peter R. Listro, 16, of 11 Piano place, was fined $15 for driving without a license and was given a suspended reformatory sentence and placed on probation for one year for taking a motor vehicle without the owner's permission.

A suspended sentence and one year probation was also meted out to Donald Howe, 19 of 18 Liberty street, Hartford, for taking a car without permission. A companion charge of reckless driving was nolled. He was represented by Attorney Melvin Katz of Hartford.

Michaud, who has a previous local record, is scheduled to face a theft of motor vehicle count in Hartford Police Court tomorrow.

Prosecutor Philip Bayer told the court that Michaud stole a car November 11 from a Trumbull street, Hartford, parking lot, drove the vehicle to Manchester and switched marker plates. The car was driven around Manchester for several days by Michaud, Howe and Listro, Bayer said.

On November 28, Bayer continued, Michaud was driving the stolen car down Main street when he was spotted by a police cruiser that gave chase. Michaud refused to stop and the cruiser abandoned the pursuit in Hebron after some near collisions.

Police Lieutenant Raymond F. Griffin testified that he recovered the stolen car on St James street and that Michaud had admitted both stealing and driving the vehicle. Griffin said that he spotted Michaud driving the car on November 30 and that the accused refused to stop.

The youths were taken into custody at the close of the court session by Detectives Harold Goodman and Moore Storrs of the Hartford police

Must Report All Sales Of Sling Shots, Air Guns

A state law is in force that all store owners must report the sale of sling shots and air rifles to the chief of police in the locality of the sale.

Police Chief Herman Schendel said that permits for sling shots and air rifles must also be obtained at the police station at a nominal fee.

Death Is Penalty For 'Collaboration'

lin described the "law for the protection of peace" as a desperate climax to Russia's campaign to scuttle Western Europe's rearmament.

They admitted, however, that without West German units in any united European army, that army would be doomed almost at the outset of a war with Russia. West German government officials already oppose the contribution of troops to such an army unless their occupied country is treated as an equal partner, something that France so far has refused to accept.

The Communist death threat seemed to Western observers here to hark straight back to Hitler's tactics in the 1930's of winning bloodless victories by threatening other European nations with destruction.

Except for an outright military attack, it was the strongest offensive that Communism could launch against the West.

It came at perhaps the worst possible moment for the Allied powers, which are deeply engaged in a spreading Asiatic war and have only puny forces in Europe compared to the Soviet Army.

Out of long wrangling, the Allies last week produced a formula for incorporating German troops in Europe's defense. But this has been rejected by Chancellor Adenauer as failing to grant Germans "equality."

Now Russia's German agents have set a supreme penalty for West Germans who cast their lot with Western Europe.

The catch-all phraseology of the East German law apparently menaced with a future death verdict by some East German "war crimes" court:

1. West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and all members of his Bonn Government, who already are accused by the Communists of "trying to entangle Germany in the Anglo-American war bloc."

2. All German officials who helped the American and British Armies raise the 65,000-man "German Labor Service" force. The Communists call these men "mercenary troops." The force is uniformed and is organized to carry on supply and guard functions to free western troops for those duties, but could serve as the nucleus of a German Army.

3. All German officials who have suppressed Communist-inspired "peace demonstrations" in Allied occupied territory.

4. All Germans who have commented publicly in favor of American development of atomic weapons.

5. All Germans who openly support West German rearmament.

6. Any German "who makes contemptuous the movement for the preservation of peace"; that is, anyone who opposes the Communist-sponsored Stockholm Peace Petition or any Communist-line Peace Congress.

The sweeping legislation may become a model for all Soviet satellite countries.

Reject Appeal To Join Roman Catholic Faith

churches in Southington and Plainville, said that as far as he knew it was the first official action taken by a Lutheran conference on the Pope's invitation and on the new dogma, announced by the Pope this year, that Saint Mary ascended bodily into Heaven after her death.

Asserting that the Mary of the Pope's dogma does not conform with the "Mary of Holy Scripture," the Lutheran statement said:

"We are shocked by the unscriptural new dogma of the Assumption which, following the Papal call for Christian unity, is widening the rift in the Christian world."

It said the new dogma threatened "to rob Roman Catholic believers of the saving Christian faith" by placing Saint Mary in the role "of mediator between God and man." Such a role, the Lutherans hold, belongs only to Christ.

"We feel genuine concern over this threat to the spiritual welfare of millions of Roman Catholics, and therefore we extend our hand in spite of the above misgivings," the statement added.

As for rejoining the Roman Catholic church, the Lutherans asserted they were "mindful of the divine desire for one truly united Christian Church," but said "Christian unity must be in accordance with the will of God, which is clearly revealed in the Bible."

"Accordingly," the statement continued, "we propose a new joint-study of Holy Scriptures for re-examining together with the Roman Catholic clergy and people without fear or favor, and to our mutual satisfaction and conviction, the saving truth of God's Holy Word."

Senators Hit Valentine Plea

creases without making a similar request of the steel industry.

The Senators, Capehart of Indiana and Bricker of Ohio, termed it inconsistent for Economic Stabilizer Alan Valentine to seek no voluntary steel price cut and yet expect General Motors and Ford to cancel increases they had announced.

Valentine asked Ford and General Motors last week to wipe out the roughly five per cent price hikes they put into effect then. Both refused, saying the increases were justified because of higher labor and material costs.

Capehart and Bricker raised their questions about steel prices, boosted last month after a wage increase in the industry, as Valentine called in officials of Ford, General Motors and other auto companies today to talk over the price situation.

The session was described in advance as a "discussion of the whole situation and an effort to get them to hold the line if this can be done."

Sitting in were Valentine, Price Administrator Michael V. Disalle and other stabilization officials. Capehart and Bricker said in separate interviews the steel price increase apparently was the principal reason for the hike in Ford and General Motors car prices.

"In view of that, I think Congress ought to find out why there was no request for cancellation of the steel price increases," Bricker said. "Maybe there was some justification for not making a request but on the face of it, it looks inconsistent."

Capehart said both Ford and General Motors recently granted wage increases, and that the wage factor therefore was just as much in the picture there as it was in the case of steel.

"It just seems a little funny to me that we aren't treating everyone alike," Capehart declared.

Public Nurses Hold Meeting

Report 778 Calls During Last Month Here; Highlights of Session

At the monthly meeting of the Manchester Public Health Nursing Association held yesterday in the board room of Memorial hospital, Mrs. Gertrude Raynor, supervisor of nurses, reported the nurses made 778 calls in November. Of this number 522 were nursing cases, 256, supervision. Mrs. Raynor also said that the Public Health Nurses attended a meeting in Hartford of the Connecticut State Nurses.

Social Security was discussed and a demonstration was given of the rehabilitation of a crippled child.

The monthly meeting of the Registered Nurses Association of Manchester was attended by the Public Health Nurses when Dr. Fox of the State Department of Health spoke on tuberculosis. He told of the latest treatments and explained the modern surgery which is now used for tuberculosis when surgery is indicated.

Mrs. Philip Nelson, a member of the board, told of the instruction given those who attended the disaster institute and explained in detail the organization of the disaster committee.

The Board members listened with great interest, as the subject is uppermost in the minds of all engaged in public health work.

Plans are already under way to provide Christmas comforts and cheer for inmates of the Hospital Annex, the Town Farm and also a number of sick and aged persons who otherwise would have little or nothing on Christmas Day.

A Memorial Fund, which was started in 1948, is used for this purpose. This fund is sustained by gifts of money given in memory of friends or relative and is used only at the discretion of the board.

Small things such as shaving cream, soap, bath powder, tobacco, perfume, candy and even snuff can mean a lot when one is sick and old.

Warm underwear, stockings, bed-jackets, shoes and clothing of various kinds are also given.

Friends of the Manchester Public Health Nursing Association have in the past contributed gifts and money each Christmas, knowing that only those who are truly deserving and in need will be helped by the Public Health nurses.

If anyone wishes to donate to this fund when the next occasion arises for expressing sorrow, and flowers and messages seem inadequate, a check may be sent to Mrs. Hamilton J. Bickford, 22 Greenhill street, treasurer, of the Manchester Public Health Nursing Association.

The era 80,000,000 years ago is called the Cretaceous age.

Says Chinese Reds Face Era of Power

Dr. McReynolds Tells YWCA Group U.S. Has Lost Contact With Liberals We Educated

Dr. George McReynolds, head of the Department of Government and International Relations at the University of Connecticut, presented the second in the monthly lecture series of the Y. W. C. A. Public Affairs course, yesterday afternoon at the Community Y. His topic was "Japan and China in the Present World Picture."

In thinking of Japan, the first country about which Dr. McReynolds talked, he said we must remember that the fundamental economic problem of the country is based on its overpopulation. The ability of the Japanese people to assimilate foreign culture and their loyalty to the emperor are other facts which should be taken into consideration. They know they must remain the workshop of Asia. They are friendly to the United States partly because they are dependent on us. They also realize that for a defeated nation they can have favorable peace terms.

"In regard to China," the speaker continued, "whether we like it or not, the communists are in for a good long period of time. The Chinese people, 450 million of them, have accepted the communist government." Chiang Kai Shek is considered by the Chinese people as a defeated and descredited leader and the Oriental will not return to the leadership of a leader who has once been discredited.

Dislike Us

"The second point to be remembered concerning China, the speaker continued, is the fact that the United States is becoming the most disliked nation in China. This stems partly from the fact that the greatest single loss we have suffered in that country is in the thousands of liberals, Chinese educated in the United States and formerly friendly to this country, who have made a choice which places them in the Chinese communist camp.

"The only way they could make themselves felt was by joining a government which they despise, and by non-recognition of the present regime we have no way of contacting these Chinese communist propaganda. On the affirmative side is the long standing friendship between us and the Chinese.

Dr. McReynolds believes that the Chinese people have been sold on the idea that United Nations action in Korea represents a direct threat to Chinese territory. Although the Chinese and Russians are traditional enemies, as long as the Russians do not overplay their hand and intervene too actively in Chinese affairs the people will not resent them.

When speaking of Japan and China the other countries in that section of the world, such as India, Burma, Siam, Indochina, must be taken into consideration. One thing that all have in common is that they are fed up with war, and it is somewhat of a marvel that the Chinese have been able to do what they have done in Korea.

Four Conditions

Another fact to be remembered about all these peoples, Dr. McReynolds continued, is that they are interested in not having their newly gained nationalism infringed by any outside government. The great fear the people of the world have of the United States is a fear to accept our aid because of the conditions which might be attached to such loans.

India today, Dr. McReynolds believes, is asserting a natural leadership in this section of Asia. She is anti-Communist and if a war develops she would probably side with the West, after everything possible had been done to avert such a war.

In that case she would be forced to abandon her many carefully laid plans for the development of the country. President Truman's threat to use the atomic bomb in Korea was a windfall to the Indians and was politically fantastic.

Throughout this area we have the opportunity of a lifetime. We can make friends with these people, and we should attempt to do so. It is one of the greatest raw material producing areas of the world, and an area unstable politically. The way Indo-China goes, service where the greatest manpower buildup is needed and where the heaviest losses from battle casualties have occurred.

The Army wants 80,000 called in January and the same in February instead of calling only 40,000 the first month and 50,000 in the second. The 80,000 is the biggest monthly call since the huge demands of World War II.

Food Prices Below Ceiling

to farmers and those who buy their products.

The latest government report on farm prices—issued Nov. 30—showed that only cotton, cottonseed, wool, flue-cured tobacco, beef cattle, veal calves, lambs and grain sorghums, were above the minimum ceiling levels. More may be shown to be above the ceiling mark in the next report due Dec. 29.

Some Items Low

Some products were "bringing less than two-thirds of their minimum ceiling prices in the last report. They included potatoes, grain sorghums, sweet potatoes, grapefruit, and oranges.

Other commodities which were selling for less than minimum ceilings included wheat, corn, peanuts, butterfat, milk, barley, dry beans, oats, rye, soybeans, apples, chickens eggs, hogs and turkeys.

The law permits establishment of ceilings on processed food products but not at levels which would hold farm prices below their minimum ceilings.

In other words, a bread price ceiling could not be set which would keep wheat from reaching the minimum ceiling for the grain.

But it is possible that some processed food items are selling for Rico. In opening their convent on yesterday they heard a call for more food production by W. Averell Harriman, President Truman's Foreign Affairs Assistant. Alan H. Kline, Iowa hog farmer who heads the nation's biggest farm organization, said necessary food will be produced through greater efficiency, more machines, and use of more women and older-age workers.

Poage, a member of the House Agriculture Committee, also urged that nations receiving aid money from the U. S. be required to put up something in return if they can. Asiatic nations could provide manpower for our armies, he said. "Let Spain send us mercury, let India send bamboo if she has nothing else, but let us get something." He said this would make such nations "feel they have a stake in collective security."

Henry Ford II, president of the Ford Motor Company, said he believes the U. S. can make itself the world's "arsenal of hope" by assisting Russia in a production race. The youthful industrialist declared the outlook for peace is very good. He said:

"Strikes Interfere"

"Everywhere the nation realizes only too well that we cannot win a production race if anyone else is on the feet. We, as Americans of good will, simply must find peaceful ways to settle our disputes. For strikes interfere with production—and nothing must interfere with production."

Senator Ellender (D., La.), told the farmers that egg and potato price supports were dropped for 1951 because producers would not "make adjustments in production." There was too much production, Ellender said.

"The government couldn't go on indefinitely providing the only market for a big percentage of our annual potato crop," Ellender said in a prepared address. "Let me here stress that the same fate awaits those who insist on pursuing a similar course. Farmers should know they themselves must take the policing of their own activities, if they cannot hope to have price supports unless they are willing to accept government regulations."

About Town

The Imanuel class of the Church of the Nazarene will hold its annual Christmas party, Friday, December 15, at 6:30 at the Y.M.C.A.

A Christmas story hour by Miss Marion Jessman, children's librarian at the Mary Cheney Library, especially for children of grades 2, 3 and 4, is scheduled for tomorrow afternoon at 3:15 at the library. Other children will be welcome. Miss Jesseman will visit the Verplanck, South and Keeney street schools this week to tell stories to the children there.

Anderson Shea Post, No. 2046, and its auxiliary will give a Christmas party for children and grandchildren of the members Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the Post home, Manchester Green. Mrs. Jane Fortin will select gifts, with funds donated by the post and auxiliary. Refreshments will also be served.

Seller of Pistol Hailed Into Court

Willimantic, Dec. 13—(AP)—Investigation into the accidental shooting of a Canterbury child today brought Joseph A. Sterling, 40, sporting goods dealer into police court on two counts.

Sterling is president and treasurer of Nassiff Arms, Inc., located in this city. He is charged with selling a pistol without keeping a record of the sale and with selling a pistol without obtaining a written application from the purchaser as provided by law.

Det. Sgt. Francis G. Sayres of the Willimantic Police Department and State Policeman John Murphy, is investigating the accidental fatal shooting of Dora Agnes Marquis, 5, in the Canterbury home of his parents, said the death weapon was purchased in Sterling's Willimantic store five weeks ago. Arthur Marquis, Sr., father of the child.

Police said the girl was shot fatally December 6 when the pistol, being examined by her brother, discharged.

Attorney Harold Garrity obtained a two weeks' continuance from Judge Napoleon C. Bertolan.

Nassiff Arms in Willimantic is not a subsidiary of Nassiff Arms Company in Manchester, according to Fred Nassiff, it was reported in The Herald this morning. The Nassiffs own a major portion of stock in the Willimantic store but it is operated by Sterling.

North American has 21.3 persons per square mile.

Another Shower For Bride-to-Be

Another surprise miscellaneous shower was given Miss Virginia Duncan recently at the home of Mrs. William Duncan. The honoree and Miss Jeanette Batteron.

The room was decorated in pink, blue and yellow, centered by a sprinkling can, under which the bride-to-be opened her gifts.

A buffet luncheon was served by the hostesses. A tiered wedding cake, made and decorated by Chinese, brother-in-law of the bride-to-be, was the center of attraction.

Miss Duncan will be married to Harley Dimock of Storrs on Saturday, December 30.

Q's and A's

Q—With what famous artist is The Swan Dance" especially associated?

A—Anna Pavlova, the famous Russian ballet dancer.

Q—How frequently do birds molt?

A—Most birds go through one molting period a year, at the end of the season in which they rear their young. However, some birds molt two or three times a year.

Q—What motto is used on the great seals of the states of Missouri and Kentucky?

A—It is a unique coincidence that the historic motto "United We Stand, Divided We Fall" is used on the great seals of the some states of both President Truman and Vice President Barkley, Missouri and Kentucky. This is the only such instance in the history of the presidency.

Q—Of all the insects in the world, which is the most valuable?

A—The bee ranks first. The silk moth might be taken as a rival, but the silk which it provides is hardly as important as the money of the bee.

Q—How did the word nemesis acquire its present meaning?

A—In the ancient religion of Greece, Nemesis was the goddess of retribution or vengeance. In present-day usage nemesis designates some one or something that inflicts retribution or punishment.

Q—Are any women judges of Israel recorded in the Bible?

A—In the Book of Judges, Deborah, a prophetess, is referred to as a judge of Israel.

Q—Is it true that Andrew Jackson once fought a duel because of his wife?

A—Yes. At the age of 24, Jackson was married to a young woman, Mrs. Rachel Robards, who had been divorced. In those days, it was rare for anyone to be divorced, and there were persons who said harsh things about Mrs. Robards. Jackson fought a duel with a man who had spoken words against his wife.

Q—How did Houston, Tex., attain importance as a seaport?

A—Houston has attained major importance as a seaport through the conversion of Buffalo Bayou into a 50-mile long canal, which can accommodate ocean shipping.

Q—What duty is imposed by the U. S. Customs Service on original works of art?

A—Under the law, original works of art, no matter how valuable, may be brought into this country duty free.

Q—Are the Canadian and American sides of Niagara Falls the same height?

A—Goat Island divided Niagara Falls into two parts, the American and Canadian. The American Fall is 167 feet high, which is never feet greater than the height of the Canadian, or Horseshoe Fall.

Q—Will the seeds of Spanish moss grow in soil?

A—The seeds of Spanish moss are hairlike. They have little weight, and the wind picks them up and blows them around. They fail to sprout if they drop on soil, but they grow into plants after they come to rest on a branch of a tree.

Q—Why does England have a much milder climate than Labrador which is in the same latitude?

A—The Gulf Stream brings a large current of warm water to England's shores while the Labrador current flows from the North Polar Regions.

Santa Claus Is American

Reykjavik, Iceland—(AP)— To many Icelandic children Santa Claus is an American. This is particularly true in and around the Keflavik Airport which is operated by Americans. During the war American soldiers held Christmas parties for the local children with big successes and the habit was kept by the civilians who took over the base.

Court Cases

Richard N. Templeton, 16, of 45 South Alton street, was fined $45 with $24 remitted after pleading guilty to reckless driving before Judge Wesley C. Gryk in town court this morning.

Police said the operator was arrested at 7:40 p. m. yesterday after an accident at Main and Hilliard streets, said Prosecutor Philip Bayer.

Patrolman Theodore L. Fairbanks reported that the accident was driving west on School street when he had entered the intersection when he made a left turn into Vine street. The car jumped the curb, knocked down 100 feet of fencing and damaged a no parking sign, and finally came to rest after striking a tree on the west side of Vine street, the court was told.

Joseph Coleman, 22, of the Milner Hotel in Hartford, was fined $15 for contempt of court and ordered to pay immediately a $25 motor vehicle fine which was the basis of the contempt charge. Coleman failed to appear in court Saturday and Judge Gryk at that time ordered a $40 bond forfeited and another warrant issued. Coleman explained this morning that his truck had broken down while on an out-of-state trip and he was unable to make the Saturday session, and Judge Gryk ordered the $40 forfeiture erased.

A speeding count against William C. Clevenger, 39, who told police his address was 923 East Main street, Waterbury, was nolled after the prosecutor said police had been unable to locate the accused. Clevenger was arrested September 25 by State Policeman Lester McIntosh on the Wilbur Cross Highway and hasn't been located since. He had posted no bond.

A motor charge can be reopened and Judge Gryk ordered that the State Motor Vehicles department be notified of the reason for the nolle.

why you get FINER Quality
in NATIVE CONNECTICUT PINEHURST FARM TURKEYS

No finer food can grace your festive table than a broad-breasted, native grown PINEHURST FARM TURKEY. It's quality controlled from egg to market! First the choicest birds in the flock are selected for breeders. Then the top-grade eggs are used for hatching, and the care of the off-spring from the birth to the dress-off day is a continuous babying process. Every precaution is taken to insure well-developed, tender and delicious, broad-breasted turkeys. Then, finally, no bird is sold by Pinehurst unless it measures up to our quality standards. That's why PINEHURST CONNECTICUT FARM FRESH TURKEYS always give you tasty flavor, delicious tenderness and more meat per pound than other types. Order one of these Connecticut FARM FRESH turkeys from Pinehurst today.

We may have your size in a ROBART FARM TURKEY, or in the equally fine selection from Range Hill Turkey Farm. Both birds carry Pinehurst's guarantee of CONNECTICUT "FARM FRESHNESS." Hen turkeys will weigh from 11 to 14 lbs. Tom Turkeys at 10c lb. less will weigh from 20 to 25 lbs. They have the same broad breasts and tender meat as the hens. We suggest that you order the size that you will want today.

Come in Thursday and look over our display of gift baskets, fruit cakes . . . yes we have low priced toy gifts too.

Over 700 Men Shoppers Visit Burton's Dress Shop

Approximately 750 men visited Burton's store on Main street last night during the hours of 6:30 and 9 o'clock for the third annual Men's Night Shopping Spree, store manager, said today that the attendance was the best ever since the idea was conceived and put into operation three years ago.

Women—outside of sales ladies and gift wrapping girls—were not allowed to enter the store. The big attendance reflects on the many good wives who let their husband get out on a Tuesday night—in hopes of course that they visit Burton's.

Shopping was a pleasure in complete male atmosphere, except for the service girls who looked their best for the men.

The first fifty men who arrived received a surprise package containing a gift for their wives or girl friends. And early purchasers also received a personal men's gift with the compliments of Burton's.

Twelve gift wrappers were kept busy during the store hours. A little vial of a famous, perfume was purchased in each box on each package.

Hot coffee and home made apple pie was served. Mr. Knopp said that 30 pies were consumed and 20 gallons of coffee. John Vincent of the Philip Morris Company distributed cigarettes to all. Chief cigarette girl was Miss Elizabeth Robinson, the oldest employee at Burton's in point of service. More than 1,000 cigarette sample packages were distributed.

Tony O'Bright and his orchestra provided music during the evening.

Following the Men's Night, 44 employees of Burton's motored to Cavey's where a Christmas party was held. Miss Louise Johnson was in charge. Christmas presents were exchanged in a grab-bag.

VFW Auxiliary Has Xmas Party

Mrs. Ann Richards, chairman of the committee in charge of the pot luck supper and Christmas party of the V. F. W. Auxiliary, desires to thank her committee and all members who made last night's affair such a success.

Fifteen of the gifts will be sent to children in the Tolland County Home at Vernon, and the remainder will be turned over to Miss Jessie Reynolds, social service worker for the town. Gifts remaining from the joint party of the Post and Auxiliary Sunday afternoon will also be given to Miss Reynolds for distribution to children in service men's families.

Mrs. Richards was ably assisted last night by Mrs. Eleanor Maloney, Mrs. Edith Mason, Mrs. Elsie Anderson, Mrs. Jane Fortin, Mrs. Rose Chapdelaine and Mrs. Mary DeClantis,

Boy Killed By Auto

Bridgeport, Dec. 13—(AP)— A seven-year-old boy was instantly killed here last night when he was struck by an automobile as he attempted to cross Barnum avenue after a visit to a neighborhood barbershop. The victim was Richard Rusbarsky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rusbraski, of this city. Police identified the driver as Bernard F. Furmanek, 17, also of Bridgeport.

Greenback Shower For Colleen Aborn

Miss Colleen Aborn, of 938 Tolland Turnpike, was honored with a greenback shower last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Roy Farris, 9 Durkin street. Guests were from Manchester, Rockville and Glastonbury were present.

Hostesses were Mrs. Wilbert Auden, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Ronald Farris, his sister-in-law. They used the Christmas motif in the de orations, and the gifts were enclosed in a decorated mail box. Games were played cuded to outfit all 1,625 of its maintenance workers with the attention of attracting headgear.

Miss Aborn will be married to

Janowicz Awarded Heisman Memorial

New York, Dec. 13—(AP)—Ohio State's Vic Janowicz was praised as one of college football's great "all-time" performers last night when he was awarded the Heisman Memorial Trophy at the Downtown Athletic Club.

Wes Fesler, Ohio State, told a gathering of several hundred sports enthusiasts that one of the finest things that happened to him was "having a boy like Vic Janowicz on my last team."

Fesler has announced he is quitting coaching after this season to enter the real estate business.

"Janowicz was Ohio State's best passer and best runner," said Fesler. "He threw 12 touchdown passes. He also was our best man on defense. He kicked off and kicked extra points and field goals.

"He is one of the great all-around stars the game has produced. He was matchless on the field."

Groves Down Legion To Gain League Lead

Post 74 to 40 Victory With Babcock Scoring 26 Points; Eagles Top The Bowlers 72 to 62

The Garden Grove gained undisputed possession of first place in the Rec Senior League last night as they romped to an easy 74 to 40 victory over the American Legion. In the second tilt the Burnside Eagles scored a 72 to 62 victory over the Charter Oak Bowlers.

After a very erratic first quarter that ended into a 16-all tie, the Caterers opened up and were never in trouble for their third straight win and left the floor at the halfway mark with a 31 to 21 lead. From here on, Bob Babcock took charge of the offensive and tossed in nine twin pointers and eight out of ten charity tosses for a total of 26 points. John Rivosa was next in line on the scoring end with nine points while Joe Young, Red Gavello and Dick Danielson did great jobs on the boards.

The Legion put up a great fight but the height of the boys in general was too much for them. Doing the heavy scoring were Leo Day and Don Hubbard, each connecting for 13 points.

Overtime Contest

Playing in another overtime, the Eagles came through with flying colors in a contest that was close from start to finish. The Bowlers took a two point lead in the first quarter 14 to 12, but the boys from East Hartford came back with a scoring spree to go ahead at half time, 32 to 28. Red Leonard and Phil Pease accounted for 20 of the 32 points made by the Eagles to put them into the lead while Nino Pagani and Bob King kept the Bowlers in the game.

In the second half the Eagles kept up their pace and took a 44 to 39 third period lead as the underdogs still stayed within striking distance. In the final stanza with but 20 seconds to play, Jumping Joe Accornero came through with a leaping one hand flip. That sent the game into an overtime period.

Three field goals and a foul shot by Bill Zabel spelled defeat for the Bowlers, as a hard fought game ended.

Zabel netted 25 points and Leonard 21 to star for the winners while King collected 17 and Pagani 14 for the losers.

Ace High Meeting

A deck of playing cards was passed out to each member of the Connecticut Sports Writers Alliance at Monday's weekly meeting at Hugo's Restaurant in Stamford. The little gift, presented by Walter Kennedy, marked an ace high meeting. Kennedy is the very capable football broadcasting mate of Ted Husing and publicist for many nationally known groups including Little League Baseball and the Harlem Globetrotters.

The meeting was entirely different than the usual Monday football sessions of the Alliance. Instead of hearing college coaches bringing out the crying towel, Nutmeg scribes listened intently last Monday to three fine speakers. They were Ron Northey, hard-hitting Chicago Cubs' outfielder; Mort Lindsey, one of bowling's all-time big pin greats, and Abe Saperstein, the round little man who directs the Harlem Globetrotters basketball team. Each had an interesting message to leave following a delicious dinner which incidentally, was on the house.

Northey, a husky, handsome fellow, attired in a dark blue suit, was very informal and asked for questions from the group. Ron, a former Phillie and Cardinal, roomed with Marty Marion, new St. Louis manager, when both were with the Red Birds. "Marion is one of my best friends in baseball. I hope that the boys on the Cards don't take advantage of Marty as the Reds did to Bucky Walters a few years ago. Walters played for years with the Reds and when he was made manager some of the older players made life pretty tough for Bucky. It could happen to Marion as well, although I hope it doesn't.

"Eddie Dyer is a strict boss but is a well liked man. I don't know whether he would want to come back into organized baseball because he is pretty well heeled. He has an insurance business in Texas and a couple of his oil wells have come in recently," Ron said in answer to questions on Dyer's coming back into baseball. "I thought Dyer would go to the Pirates because he is a Branch Rickey man," he added.

The dark-haired flychaser reported that the Cardinal organization is planning to build a new ball park, three or four tiers, with no towers or posts in view of any spectator. The job will cost four million dollars and has already passed the blueprint stage.

Commenting on the recent Red Sox-White Sox deal, Northey feels that Rae Scarborough, acquired from Chicago, will be at least an 18 to 20 game winner for the Red Sox. "I believe the Sox will keep Vern Stephens. After all, he wins many ball games in late innings with extra base hits and any man who can drive in 140 runs in a season, as Stephen does, is mighty handy to have around."

This writer asked, "Does Monk Dubiel of Hartford fit into the future plans of the Cubs?" Northey said, "Dubiel is a Frisch (Manager Frank Frisch) man. He has all the assets of a good pitcher. I think Dubiel will be a 15 to 18 game winner." This may sound strange to close followers of the Cubs for it was Frisch who left Dubiel in against the Phillies one day last summer after Monk walked across several runs and blew a 4 to 0 lead. The incident reached the headlines and caused much comment. Frisch claimed he left Dubiel in the game because the Hartford native was eyeing the bullpen, waiting for help and Frisch decided to let Monk stay in the box. Northey said, "The incident was only a misunderstanding. Dubiel is still a good pitcher."

Manny Leibert, the young wrestling promoter in Hartford who has presented one fine show after another for the past several years during the winter season, offers Bull Curry and Don Eagle in the feature event tonight. Eagle is currently considered as world champion of the grunt and groan sport... Judge Joe Bogdanski of Meriden is a former Colgate football player. The Silver City judge played an end position of several of Coach Andy Kerr's Red Raider teams in pre-war years.. Fourteen players appeared to play and eleven dressed with the Bristol Tramps last Sunday but under Eastern League rules only seven were allowed to play. Puggy Bell is the new Bristol player-coach. Bell, at 33, can still throw up long set-shots.. Owner Julie Larese of the Tramps called a meeting after Sunday's loss to Nassiffs and handed out pink slips to several players.... Player-coach Jack French of the Wallingford Vets did likewise after losing to Manchester last Saturday night. Walking papers were given to four players. Wallingford plays Nassiffs Sunday.. Ray Famechon and Glen Flanagan top Friday night's pro boxing card at Madison Square Garden Flanagan is a brother of Del Flanagan who upset Sandy Saddler last Wednesday night in a non-title bout.. Dick Hole, the big gun in Meriden's two Eastern League wins, failed to score a point against Manchester in the game between the rival clubs.. Colby Gunther, the hook-shot artist who flashed for Meriden last season and the Bristol Tramps last Sunday, is seeking his release from Bristol in order to rejoin Meriden. The Meriden Record reported, "Gunther was unable to play with the Pros (Meriden Pros last Sunday) because of a ruling by Lou Black, president of the state loop, who awarded his services to the Bristol Tramps".. The Hartford Hurricanes are said to be loading up for Friday night's game with Nassiffs.

Boston Celtics Capture Another

By The Associated Press

There apparently isn't much to choose between the Boston Celtics and the Fort Wayne Pistons, respective Eastern and Western Division leaders of the National Basketball Association.

The two pacemaking squads clashed last night at Boston before jammed throng of 13,909 and the Celtics came from behind to win a thriller, 87-81. The result left both squads with a record of 13 victories and eight defeats for the current campaign.

The Pistons rang up 12 points before their foes even got started. The visitors still led by 26-22 when the first period ended. In the next three, Boston did most of the scoring paced by Easy Ed Macauley, top man of the game with 25 points. Fred Schaus led the losers with 20.

The Philadelphia Warriors, second to Boston in the Eastern section, kept close on the Celtics' trail by beating the New York Knickerbockers at their own game—high scoring. Earning their ninth straight home triumph, the Warriors prevailed, 101-91. Philadelphia took a first-quarter lead and held it.

The red hot Rochester Royals won their fourth in a row as they walloped the Baltimore Bullets, 102-87. It marked the first time this season the Royals hit the 100-mark in scoring. They are a close third to Fort Wayne and Minneapolis in the Western group.

The Indianapolis Olympians and Tri-Cities' Blackhawks fought the closest battle of the night, Indianapolis eking out a 75-74 victory after trailing entering the last quarter.

TV Acts, Pro Basketball On Same Bill Tonight

Basketball fans will be in for a real treat tonight at the armory when the world famous New York Renaissance meet the Nassiff Arms, pacesetters in the Eastern League.

Two television acts will be presented during the intermission periods. One will be a unicycle act—one wheel—by Jacques Gordon of Paris, France, while the other "extra" will be Ray Wilbert, the "hoop manipulator." Both acts, according to Manager Jack Saperstein of the Rens, are terrific. Gordon and Wilbert have both been on Ed Sullivan's "Toast of the Town" TV show.

Arms Out to Preserve Perfect Home Record

Knight to Oppose Old Teammates; Allen to Rejoin Locals; Two Special Acts Listed

By Hal Turkington

Nassiff Arms whirlwind quintet undefeated leaders of the Eastern Pro League, move into real fast company tonight at the armory when it is host to the New York Renaissance at 8:30. It will be the initial exhibition of the Rens in Connecticut this season who are now under the guidance of Abe Saperstein, owner-coach of the world famous Harlem Globetrotters.

The Rens, an aggregation highly interesting to watch in action, possessing great talent and electrifying ball manipulating, are recognized as the second best box office appeal club in the country. They rate second only to the Globetrotter. Saperstein set right to work when he acquired the Rens two years ago and has placed them nearly on a par with the 'Trotters. In an effort to build for the future as well as give Rens followers currently the type of basketball they expect from the heralded quintet, stress is being placed on younger players who are plenty capable right now and face even more brilliant futures.

Taking the place of such former "greats" as Dolly King, Pop Gates, Zack Clayton, Johnny Isaacs, Puggy Bell, Pappy Ricks, Tarzan Cooper, and Wee Willie Smith will be shouldering a responsibility like Atlas. Saperstein rates his new players highly, especially Bob Dowery of Kentucky State, Josh Grider and Carl Helem of Tennessee State, Sonny Smith recently signed by the Cleveland Indians, Bob Hall, Ed Hunt, Fred Pearson and Stan Burrell. Henry Singleton is the lone veteran of the Rens, having starred for the past four years with the famed New Yorkers. It will be his third appearance here. After a month's invasion of the Mid-West, the Rens are opening their eastern swing tonight.

Nassiffs have proven their ability in the Eastern League. They will run with the best of teams. Tonight they have a chance to show their wares against a formidable club known throughout the country. Coach Johnny Falkowski will go along with his regular crew, the highest scoring team in the state at the moment.

Bobby Knight will be facing his old teammates for he played with the Rens for several months last season. Jackie Allen, the playmaker from Rhode Island, will rejoin Nassiffs tonight.

The first game of the twin-bill finds the Burnside Eagles facing the Wethersfield A.C. at 7:15. Reserve and general admission seats go on sale when the box office opens at 6:30. The flashy, razzle dazzle Rens assure a pleasant evening of action and fun, adding two professional television acts for halftime exhibition.

Birdie Tebbetts Sold To Cleveland Indians

36 - Year - Old Catcher Batted .310 in 79 Games Last Year More Trades Likely

St. Petersburg, Fla., Dec. 13—(AP)—The Cleveland Indians have purchased catcher George (Birdie) Tebbetts from the Boston Red Sox, Cleveland General Manager Hank Greenberg announced early today.

The 36-year-old Tebbetts, who came up to the big leagues in 1936 with Detroit, batted .310 in 79 games last year.

Greenberg revealed that it was a straight cash deal with no players involved. He declined to announce the sum.

Tebbetts came to the Red Sox in 1947 in a trade for catcher Hal Wagner. He caught in a 123 games in 1948 and 122 in 1949. Each year he was voted on the American League All-Star team. His 79 games last year was his lowest since 1938.

Tebbetts, a noisy little receiver known for his squeaky voice, is regarded as one of the smartest backstops in the game.

Born in Nashua, N. H., Tebbetts is a graduate of Providence College. He led the American League catchers in assists in 1939, 1940 and 1941; Put outs in 1942; and in participating in double plays in 1940. His last year marked the only time other then his first season when he appeared in only ten games that his batting average rose over .300.

This gives the Indians three catchers with big league experience. The others are Jim Hegan and Ray Murray.

The sale of Tebbetts leaves the Red Sox with only two catchers—Matt Batts and Warren (Buddy) Rosar. It is expected that the Red Sox will deal for another catcher to take Tebbetts' place.

Catching was one of Boston's weak spots last year.

Local Sport Chatter

Jack Crockett, general manager of the Hartford Hurricanes, reports that reserved seat tickets for Friday night's Eastern League game at the Hartford Auditorium between the 'Canes and Nassiffs will be on sale Thursday and Friday at his office on Main street.

First holiday greeting card of the season arrived in the mailbag yesterday morning from No. 997653, an inmate at Wethersfield State Prison. This chap for several years handled all sports writeups at Wethersfield and also at the Osborn Prison Farm.

The Kaceys set a new high team single record in the West Side Rec Bowling League last night with a score of 649. The three string team total was 1846. The individual totals were: Schuetz 395, Giraitis 356, Mahoney 318, Jaskolka 388, and Rusconi 389.

Collector of Revenue Sam Nelson rolled a fine 368 triple for St. Mary's in the Church Bowling League last night. Sam for many years was one of Manchester's ranking pinners.

The Burnside Eagles have been involved in two overtime games in the Rec Senior Basketball League in as many weeks. Two weeks ago the Eagles dropped an overtime tilt to the Laurels but last night the Birds toppled the Charter Oak Bowlers in an extra period.

Ernie Johnson, Nassiff forward, may miss tonight's game with the Rens at the armory while a cut over his eye heals. The stitches were to be removed today. Johnson was injured in Wallingford last Saturday night.

Nassiffs boast the best following of any team in the Eastern League. Last Saturday night between 300 and 350 fans watched the locals in Wallingford. Sunday there were at least 400 to 450 Manchesterites in Bristol. At least 500 Silk Towners are expected to follow the locals to the Hartford Auditorium Friday night. Nassiffs need only to whip the Hurricanes Friday for a clean sweep in the first round of play in the Eastern League.

George Feigenbaum, the stormy pedal from New York, instigator of the near-riot at the armory two years ago when Wallingford played Manchester in the Eastern Basketball League, has rejoined the Vets. Beedlebomb will be in action Sunday with the Vets at the armory. Ed Anderson, six foot, four inch star with Long Island University for three years, will also be with Wallingford Sunday.

Rent Discussion Still Scheduled

Even though Congress has approved rent control extension moves for the first three months of 1951, the Manchester Board of Directors probably will hold its scheduled public hearing December 18 on local option extension of rent control.

For one thing, it has been pointed out, local use of the optional form could extend rent control for more than three months as Congress now proposes. Those favoring such a course point out that the Manchester rent situation is now tougher than at any previous period. If industrial immigration continues, it will grow worse, it is contended.

For this reason, and to give opportunity for remarks on the rental situation here, the congressional action probably will not be allowed to halt the scheduled local hearing.

Columbia

The weekly calendar is full for Columbia people this week with Christmas activities and organization meetings keeping many of them busy each and every day. Monday night and Tuesday and Wednesday also, the members of Columbia Ladies' Society auxiliary are to meet at the home of Mrs. John Kozelka to prepare Christmas greens for their sale. Tuesday night at Yeomans hall Columbia PTA will meet; Wednesday night a Cub Scout Park meeting is scheduled for Yeomans hall and a choir rehearsal at Columbia Congregational church in preparation for a concert to be presented Sunday night; Thursday there is a sale and supper in Yeomans hall, sponsored by Columbia Ladies' Society; Friday the employees from the telephone company in Willimantic will hold a party in Yeomans hall and the local people will gather for a carol sing around the outdoor Christmas tree on the green; choir rehearsal for Congregational church group that same night, following the sing. Saturday Recreation Council committee members will gather at the hall to decorate and in the evening the children will be entertained at their annual Christmas party. In addition, younger groups will hold meetings which have become weekly events, such as Scouts, 4-H Clubs and Cub Scouts.

The Columbia Ladies' Society sale and supper Thursday, will start at four o'clock. Supper will be served at 6:15 and tickets must be secured in advance. Miss Anne Dix has charge of this department. Mrs. Lyndon Little and Mrs. Allan Robinson have charge of the food table at the fair; Mrs. Bessie Trythall and Mrs. Raymond Lyman, the handkerchief table; Miss Anne Dix and Mr. Kenneth Fox, knitted wear; Mrs. Ralph U. Wolmer and Mrs. George Reama, parcel-post and white elephant; Mrs. Lester Hutchins painted ware and plants. Mrs. Raymond Clarke and Mrs. Raymond Squier, aprons. The members of the auxiliary will have a booth for Christmas greens and a grab bag.

Mrs. A. R. Sharpe heads the supper committee and will be assisted by Mrs. Wilbur Smith, Mrs. Russell Andrews, Mrs. Marshall Squier, Mrs. Mae Miller, Mrs. Clair L. Robinson, Mrs. Kenneth Fox, Mrs. John Cragin and Mrs. Evan Kullgren.

Mrs. A. R. Sharpe acknowledges receipt of $16 from the former Hilltop Dairy club, the balance in their treasury when they recently disbanded, given her toward the purchase price of the two new electric stoves and refrigerator for Yeomans hall. The 4-H club, led by Philip Mazanik, was organized last year. Several of the members have moved or are away at school, and some gone on to high school have found their time too taken up to go to meetings of the dairy club. The members were Tom Fox, Jack Emerson, Sam Berkowitz, Howard Hinckley, Jane Mazanik, Dean Tibbits and Lillian Banner.

Other contributors toward the stove fund, not before mentioned were Columbia Volunteer Fire Department, $50; the Prayer Boys, $25, and Columbia Recreation Council, $20.

Miss Abby Tibbets, Miss Deborah Young, Miss Nancy Vanatt and Miss Nora Watrous from Columbia are on committees arranging for Santa's Soiree, a dance to be given in Case gymnasium December 16 by the class of 1951 at Windham High school. Miss Tibbits said Sunday night that the dance is particularly for alumni and she urges all local alumni to plan to attend. Tickets may be obtained from her.

Francis Lyman, Raymond Clarke and Richard E. Davis left for Vermont about four o'clock Saturday morning, spent the day there chopping Christmas trees which they piled into a truck and brought back for Columbia Volunteer Fire department and arrived here to put them in John Kozelka's barn at about 10 p.m. Raymond Clarke admitted it was a long day but said the men felt it most successful. They were able, mostly because the weather was mild and not zero and snowy as it was last year when they made the trip, to pick out what they feel are exceptionally fine trees. The firemen will have them on sale next week end. This is one of their many voluntary sources of earning money for their departmental work.

Chief Occum Corral members held their Christmas party Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bernitt. Supper was enjoyed to start the evening off. A New Year's Eve party will be held by the group at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Field.

Howard Rice, sexton of Columbia Congregational church, is reported to be improving satisfactorily at Windham Community Memorial hospital following surgery. Little John Kozelka, small son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kozelka of Columbia Green has returned home following a tonsilectomy.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Tuttle entertained at dinner Saturday night in honor of Mrs. Chauncey M. Squier, Sr. who celebrated her birthday Monday.

Miss Joan Kelly, student nurse in her second term at Massachusetts General Hospital, is spending a few days with her parents in Woodland Terrace. She has as her guest, George March of Drexel Hill, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Reama have returned home after a week in New York. Mrs. Reama visited with Mrs. Harvey Saul, a friend in Rye, while her husband attended the National Manufacturer's Association Conference in the city.

your FIRE CHIEF says.

By Chief James H. Schaub

You all know the old fable about the shepherd boy who cried "wolf!" once too often. The lad had sparked a lot of excitement by calling for help several times when no wolf threatened his flock. Finally, when the wolf actually did appear, no one would answer his cry. And the flock was destroyed.

Fire departments have a lot in common with the friends of that shepherd boy—up to a point. Nearly every fire chief has had the exasperating experience of having to make a number of runs every year, only to discover that the department is answering a false alarm. After a couple of experiences like that, the entire department is bound to feel a particularly murderous hatred for the morons who turn in false alarms. But, unlike the shepherd's friends, we've got to keep answering our call after call after call.

According to recently published figures, departments in cities over 20,000 in this country last year answered more than 53,500 false alarms. In fact, one out of every fourteen calls answered turned out to be a false alarm. An outright, "malicious" false alarm, not a case where smoke or steam were honestly mistaken for fire. New York City alone had 18,650 false alarms, Chicago had 4,600, Detroit had 1,778, Los Angeles and San Francisco both had more than 1,500.

And consider these figures: Little Rock, Ark., a city of 100,000 did not have a single false alarm in 1949. Tuscon, Ariz., with 37,000 population, had 72 false alarms. Maybe there's a moral there. Maybe those figures suggest that in communities where both children and adults have a good sense of responsibility, you don't have to waste hundreds and thousands of dollars of the taxpayers' money chasing false alarms. Not to mention risking the lives of firemen, motorists and pedestrians!

Next time you hear the fire trucks go past your neighborhood, why not use the occasion to remind your boys and girls of the tremendous difference between calling the department on a honest-to-goodness fire—and getting us out on nothing but a fool's errand?

Wapping

Wapping Community church services were held at the Community House, Sunday, because of there not being heat at the church. During the service Dwight Lucius son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Foster, was baptized.

Next Sunday a special Christmas service will be held in the church at 7 p. m. There will be a worship program by the Rhythmic and senior choirs and the Youth Fellowship. A "White Gift" service will be held for which people are asked to bring good used clothing. This will be sent to Pleasant Hill Community Center.

The combined Mothers' Circles of St. Francis of Assisi church had a Christmas party last night in the church hall starting with a pot-luck supper.

There will be an XY meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wetherell Wednesday at 8 p.m.

The nursery group of the Wapping Church School will have their Christmas party, Tuesday December 19 from 1:30 to 3 p. m., and the primary group, Wednesday December 20 from 3 to 4 p.m. Both parties will be held in the church.

The Chancey Field Army held a pot luck supper and party December 8 at the home of Mrs. Ray Livermore. This was their last meeting until after the new year.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Tuttle celebrate their 54th wedding anniversary on December 11, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bienkowski their 9th anniversary December 7.

The Junior and Intermediate groups of the Wapping church school will have their Christmas party in the Community House Monday, December 18 from 7 to 9 p. m.

There will be no bowling for the different leagues either Christmas or New Year's week.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wagner has been named William Harry.

Ellsworth Memorial High school basketball team defeated Watertown Friday night 41-39 in a very close game. The Ellsworth jayvees also won the contest 42-34. Tonight Ellsworth will play Suffield here.

The Friendly Indians and Pioneer groups of Y. M. C. A. have been enjoying lessons in gymnastics given them by Mr. Knox who is the executive secretary of the Hartford County Y and is a graduate of Springfield College.

Police Discover Mite Mischief

Arcadia, Calif.—(AP)—"I'm in trouble and I need help. Come quick." the voice on the phone told the desk sergeant.

A squad car hastened to the address and a bunch of youngsters scattered as the officers pulled up.

The lone five-year-old who remained informed the policemen that his playmates weren't playing fair so he'd called the cops "to fix 'em." The officers fixed junior instead. They told his parents on him.

British Patrol Makes Record

Kuala Lumpur—(AP)— The last patrol of the veteran first battalion Devonshire regiment is going home to Britain after hanging up an impressive record in the jungle war against Communists.

This patrol has killed 70 terrorists since emergency regulations were proclaimed in Malaya in June, 1948. The patrol, led by Sandhurst-trained Lt. Peter Grayston, of Paignton, is made up of 12 army men and two policemen.

Honesty Wins Suspension

Bakersfield, Calif.—(AP)— The judge suspended hunter Pete Olivetti's 90-day jail sentence for shooting an illegal spike buck "in view of your honesty."

Olivetti turned himself in to game wardens and pleaded guilty.

His excuse: "The deer turned its head in such a way that the spikes formed a fork. I thought it was a legal animal."

India Plans Big Vote

New Delhi—(AP)—The largest number of voters in history will go to the polls next April to elect their representatives to the legislatures.

Nearly 180,000,000 Indians — almost half of the country's population—voting under adult franchise will elect their representatives to the central and state legislatures under the new constitution. The election scheduled to begin on April 10 next year, will be completed before the end of May.

SIGNS OF DISCONTENT—A brush over leaky gutters developed into a paint-and-gutter feud between next-door neighbors in Cleveland, O., and finally leveled off into a propaganda battle, the brunt of which is borne by the two signs above. Landlord Edwin Moore wasn't able to paint the fourth side of his house, at left, for the reason explained by neighbor Frank Baguske in the sign at right. Irked about the leaky gutters next door, Baguske refused to let painters use a ladder on his property to reach the wall. A thwarted painter swished the figure-8's on as far as he could reach

Says Pilgrims Are Ill Housed

Singapore —(AP)— Moslem pilgrims to Mecca have to put up with dark, stuffy rooms, totally inadequate sanitary arrangements, lack of ambulances and doctors, a Malayan Federal Councillor charged on his return from Mecca.

Tuan Sheik Ahamad asserted "as every pilgrim paid $56 to the Saudi Arabian government, it should be the duty of that government to provide sanitary comforts." He added this was a matter for the respective Moslem governments to appeal to the Saudi Arabia Government.

Discard Pipes For Cigarettes

London —(AP)— Britons, from Bond street gentlemen to gruff Cockney dockworkers, are laying aside the pipes which once were closely linked to their way of living. An ounce of tobacco costs 56 cents, 7 cents more than a pack of 20 cigarettes. So more men are smoking cigarettes.

The men who make and sell pipes and tobacco are highly disturbed. They've formed the national pipe smoking conference from representatives of associations of retail tobacconists, pipe and pipe tobacco manufacturers and other allied industries.

Indians Predict A Mild Winter

Seattle—(AP)—Indians who work for the Boeing Aircraft Company think this winter will be mild. Five of the men agreed that signs point to less snow and cold than last year. One women disagreed. She thought there might be plenty of cold. Most of them said their parents or old people of their tribes were better at predicting weather than they were at it.

Last year Boeing also asked its Indian workers what the winter would be like. Last year they hit it on the nose—predicting lots of snow and cold.

Discovery Of Natural Gas Vital Resource

Berkeley, Calif.—(AP)— Natural gas may prove to be more important than oil in the United States, says James J. Parsons of the University of California. He estimates that six trillion cubic feet were taken from the ground in 1949. Huge gas reserves are bigger than oil reserves, he says.

In 1949 the marketed production of gas increased 12 per cent with eight per cent reduction in oil and 28 per cent, reduction in coal.

War Curtails Cruise

Singapore —(AP)— The Korean war seems to have put a decided crimp in the cruising business. The 9,600-ton liner President Polk docked in Singapore at the end of October on a five-day visit—with only 22 salon passengers. Usually she carries a hundred or more in that class. The lack of a big passenger list was believed to be due also to unsettled conditions generally in this section.

Death Bell Is Tipoff

Berlin—(AP)—As a century-old custom, the bell of the local church is tolled every time a resident of Stadtoldendorf in West Germany dies. The housing office now wants this custom discontinued. The town is so crowded, officials say, that a few minutes after the tolling, people queue up to apply for the living quarters of the deceased.

SIGNS OF DISCONTENT—A brush over leaky gutters developed into a paint-and-gutter feud between next-door neighbors in Cleveland, O., and finally levelled off into a propaganda battle, the brunt of which is borne by the two signs above. Landlord Edwin Moore wasn't able to paint the fourth side of his house, at left, for the reason explained by neighbor Frank Baguske in the sign at right. Irked about the leaky gutters next door, Baguske refused to paint a ladder's length of property to reach the wall. A thwarted painter swished the figure-8's on as far as he could reach

Singapore —(AP)— Moslem pilgrims to Mecca have to put up with dark, stuffy rooms, totally inadequate sanitary arrangements, lack of ambulances and doctors, a Malayan Federal Councillor charged on his return from Mecca.

Tuan Sheik Ahamad asserted "as every pilgrim paid $56 to the Saudi Arabian Government, it should be the duty of that government to provide sanitary comforts." He added this was a matter for the respective Moslem governments to appeal to the Saudi Arabia Government.

Discard Pipes For Cigarettes

London —(AP)— Britons, from Bond street gentlemen to graft Cockney dockworkers, are laying aside the pipes which once were closely linked to their way of living. An ounce of tobacco costs 56 cents, 7 cents more than a pack of 20 cigarettes. So more men are smoking cigarettes.

The men who make and sell pipes and tobacco are highly disturbed. They've formed the national pipe smoking conference from representatives of associations of retail tobacconists, pipe and pipe tobacco manufacturers and other allied industries.

Indians Predict A Mild Winter

Seattle—(AP)—Indians who work for the Boeing Aircraft Company think this winter will be mild. Five of the men agreed that signs point to less snow and cold than last year. One woman disagreed. She thought there might be plenty of cold. Most of them said their parents or old people of their tribes were better at predicting weather than they were.

Last year Boeing also asked its Indian workers what the winter would be like. Last year they hit it on the nose—predicting lots of snow and cold.

Asia's population average 77 persons per square mile.

See Natural Gas Vital Resource

Berkeley, Calif.—(AP)— Natural gas may soon be more important than oil in the United States, says James J. Pascoe of the University of California. He estimates that six trillion cubic feet were taken from the ground in 1949. Known gas reserves are bigger than oil reserves, he says.

In 1949 the marketed production of gas increased 12 per cent with eight per cent reduction in oil and 28 per cent reduction in coal.

Death Bell Is Tipoff

Berlin—(AP)—As a century-old custom, the bell of the local church is tolled every time a resident of Stadtoldendorf in West Germany dies. The housing office now wants this custom discontinued. The town is so crowded, officials say, that a few minutes after the tolling, people queue up to apply for the living quarters of the deceased.

War Curtails Cruise

Singapore —(AP)— The Korean war seems to have put a decided crimp in the cruising business. The 9,600-ton liner President Polk docked in Singapore the end of October on a five-day visit—with only 22 salon passengers. Usually she carries a hundred or more in that class. The lack of a big passenger list was believed to be due also to unsettled conditions generally in this section.

Coventry 7-6231

The clothing drive on December 22 in which Coventry 4-H'ers will participate for the benefit of 4-H Austrian members will take place at the Town hall, Spring Hill, Mansfield, instead of at Echo Grange in Mansfield as previously reported.

The North and South Coventry branches of the Rockville Chapter, ARC, blood donor program committees are making arrangements to have the mobile unit come to Coventry. The date for the visit here and further details will be announced as soon as arrangements are completed.

The Willimantic District Heart Association reports that the Heart Consultation Center recently opened at the Windham Community Memorial hospital is operating successfully and has developed into a real service for residents of Willimantic and twelve surrounding towns, including Coventry. The Center operates on the last Monday of each month from 9-12 a. m. Appointments are made through one's physician. The services of an outstanding heart specialist are available each time. The opening of the center saw the attainment of one of the goals set by the local heart association when it was organized about a year ago.

Robert W. Yingling of Storrs, director of music education at the University of Connecticut, will direct a program on "A Singing Group Is A Happy Group", following the PTA business meeting tonight at 8 p. m. at the George Hersey Robertson school.

Oscar Miller, Mrs. Albert F. Kalber and Mrs. Richard C. Snow will be chairmen of the set-back party tonight at 8 p. m. in the auditorium of the Nathan Hale Community Center to be sponsored by the Center organization committee.

Coventry Junior Homemakers 4-H Club will meet after school on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Ralph C. Hoffman, leader.

Coventry Garden club meeting Wednesday will be in the form of a pot luck Luncheon at noon and a Christmas party following in the Nathan Hale Community Center auditorium. Members are reminded to bring the presents for the Mansfield State Training school and hospital, with whom they are sharing their Christmas. Mrs. John H. Westland, Mrs. Floyd N. Wiley, Mrs. Herman F. LeDoyt and Mrs. Louis Orehotsky are hostesses.

Waterfront Park Association will have a bazaar Thursday from 2-9 p. m. at the Nathan Hale Community Center. Mrs. Edgar Wennerberg, Mrs. Peter Ambrose, cochairmen, will be assisted by Mrs. Melvin Manchester, Mrs. Lawrence Usher, Mrs. John Mursyn, Mrs. Charles Pettis, Mrs. Joseph Liska, Mrs. Raymond Symington, Mrs. G. Hoxie and Mrs. Harold Giglio.

The revised cast of "Why the Chimes Rang," a pageant to be presented Sunday at 7:30 p. m. in the Second Congregational church by the Christian Endeavor Society of the church, follows: little brother, Harold Hill; Pedro, Raymond Menzel; widow, Carole Wittmann; King, Robert Robertson; farmer's wife, Georgianna Hill; old woman, Barbara Schwarm; cook, Faith Hill; artist, Helen Jordan; author, Carolyn Dart; minister, Hubert T. Edmondson; choir, Donald Hayden, Colin Edmondson, Robert Keller, Shirley Wright, Marilyn Jordan, June Loomis. Ronald Edmondson will be in charge of lighting; Andre Leibman, records; Mrs. Lawrence R. Robertson will be organist. Other committees follow: costumes, Marilyn Jordan, Helen Jordan, Shirley Wright, Carole Wittmann, Barbara Schwarm; music, June E. Loomis and Rev. Reginald A. Merrifield; stage, Hubert Edmondson, Robert Keller, Harold Hill, Colin Edmondson.

Miss Thelma J. Wright will direct the pageant and be the narrator. There will be no admission charge excepting a white wrapped gift for the CES annual white gift service. The gifts will be given to needy persons. Clothing and food are especially needed; however, money donations will be welcome.

There will be a candlelight service Sunday at 7:30 p.m., at the First Congregational church in South Coventry.

Tolland County Fat Lamb Club will have its annual Christmas party Friday evening at the Nathan Hale Community Center auditorium.

Plans are about complete for the annual community children's Christmas party Sunday from 2-4:30 p.m., at the Nathan Hale Community Center. Kenneth Spencer is chairman; Mrs. Richard C. Snow, secretary-treasurer. The committees in charge include John F. Chappelle, toys; June Kaye Jaye and Mrs. Herbert J. Gable, entertainment; Mrs. Raymond L. Pender, refreshments; Oscar Miller, tree and trimmings. Donations of money toward expenses will be welcome and may still be sent to Mrs. Snow, Main street, South Coventry.

The pasque flower is South Dakota's official flower.

Good Samaritans Help Neighbor

Des Moines—(AP)—Ernie Huetter hopes his luck has changed. Huetter farms a place near Calamus. First it was sickness which laid him up for about a year and a half. Then last spring fire destroyed farm buildings and damaged his residence and most of his machinery.

But things are looking up. A new barn has been completed with the help of neighbors who are also assisting in the construction of a hog house. Huetter estimated his neighbors' help had saved him about $2,000 in labor.

Ethiopia Plans Highway Repairs

Addis Ababa — (AP) — Emperor Haile Selassie now plans a major repair program for Ethiopia's highways. Mussolini built more than 2,000 miles of surfaced roads in Ethiopia, at an estimated cost of $300,000,000.

Some of the highways cost as much as $40,000 a mile, because of extremely difficult terrain. More than 60,000 Italian laborers at one time were engaged in the great road program. The prize achievement was a 700 mile road from Addis Ababa to Asmara in then-Italian-held Eritrea. Passing through some of the most formidable parts of Africa, this road ranks among the greatest road-building achievements in the world. It crosses deserts and 10,000 feet high mountains.

Ethiopia has asked the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development for financial help on the road program.

Pakistan Pushes Export of Wool

Karachi, Pakistan—(AP)— Pakistan this year aims at a record export of 25,000,000 pounds of wool. There has been an increased demand for Pakistan wool from world markets in recent months. This is due to three reasons:

China is not exporting any wool, India has imposed a ban on wool export, and Tibet will not be in a position to export with the Chinese invading the country.

Australia Eyes Uranium Finds

Darwin, Australia — (AP) — The thinly-peopled Northern Territory of Australia may hold vast deposits of uranium ore. Already five radio-active ore deposits have been found—two in the northern part of the territory at Rumjungle and Ferguson River — and three smaller ones in the Alice Springs area.

Government rewards have been paid to the finders of the Rumjungle and Ferguson River deposits. There is one important point about these two discoveries of radio-active deposits. The two places are 150 miles apart, yet rock formations are similar. It could mean that more deposits of high grade radioactive ore are available along this 150 mile stretch of little-known country between Rumjungle and Ferguson River.

Resolution on Gambling

To the Editor:

The enclosed resolution on Gambling was passed yesterday at the annual meeting of the Council of Churches in New Haven by unanimous vote. In the light of the recent discussion in your paper of this issue I think that many would be interested to see the resolution passed by the officers and delegates to the annual session of the Protestant Churches in our State.

Very sincerely yours,
C. O. Simpson

"We commit ourselves to uphold our State laws against gambling. We affirm unalterable opposition to any relaxation of these laws, in view of the increasing evidence that gambling is one of the first half-dozen most desperate problems facing our nation, with its corrupting effects on individual character, home life, and legitimate business, as well as government.

"Especially do we repudiate all attempts to place the Church and charitable groups in a favored position to promote minor forms of gambling, such as are proposed by certain members of our State Legislature, and groups who cry that there is no way to raise funds for their particular enterprises, except by raffles, lotteries, and games of chance.

"The Church should set a good example and reject for itself methods that are not considered right and legal for all others. How can the Church foster gambling in its own house and at the same time speak with moral earnestness and authority against organized gambling that corrupt law enforcement and robs large numbers of people by exploitations of human weakness.

"We endorse the work of the 'Connecticut Committee for Sustaining the State's laws on Gambling.'

"We propose that individual members of this council, laymen and ministers, take action as follows: To plan and organize a widely representative committee of laymen and ministers in their respective communities for these specific purposes:

"1. To alert our people to the insidious evils of organized gambling.

"2. To oppose any relaxation of our State laws that would make exceptions for religious, charitable and other non-profit groups to promote gambling.

"3. To encourage our legislators by interviews and letters to uphold our present gaming laws.

"4. To stand ready to appear personally at the State Capitol for hearings at the coming legislative session in January.

"5. To give personal financial support to "The Connecticut Committee" through the Council Office in Hartford, to help carry on the program of education and action to sustain the State's anti-gambling laws."

Ellington

Ellington volunteer Fire department responded to a call from the home of Mrs. Mary K. Godak on Mountain street Sunday morning at 8:25 where an oil burner had exploded and caused a fire, which was extinguished with a fire extinguisher with slight damage.

Mrs. Katherine Saidak of Main street, who has been ill and has spent several weeks with her daughter in Amsterdam, N. Y., has returned to her home on Main street.

Ralph E. Edward, Seaman 1c., USCG, son of Mr. ad Mrs. Nathan Edwards of Maple street, Ellington, has been transferred from the Coast Guard Cutter Inle in Portland, Me., to the Coast Guard Training Institute in Groton, where he will undergo 16 weeks petty officer training. Edwards has been in the Coast Guard for 22 months, 20 of which he has had sea duty. While serving aboard the Cutter Cook Inlet he was Atlantic Iceberg and weather patrol.

J. A. Rank Runs Charm School

London—(AP)—British movie mogul, J. Arthur Rank has opened a charm school to turn his cinema managers into perfect gentlemen. Starting from the bottom—in the boiler room—24 fledgling managers are learning the niceties of separating the customers from their shillings graciously in a suburban Rank movie house that has been turned into a combination school and dormitory.

It's a 24-week course. Besides learning how to stoke a boiler and keep a theater at a comfortable temperature, embryo managers will have a crack at:

Cleaning door handles and polishing windows; vacuuming the carpets; peddling ice cream speedily during intermissions so that it gets to the customer before it starts to melt; handling an usherette's torch so that it doesn't flash in the eyes of the patrons.

Briggs-Coached Elevens Cop 10, Lose 18, Tie Three

Football teams at Manchester High during the past four seasons coached by Walker Briggs have won ten games, while losing eighteen. Three contests have ended in deadlocks.

The Indians copped three decisions while losing five games during the recently completed 1950 campaign.

Briggs assumed the head coaching reins prior to the start of the 1947 season. Walker's first year, as far as won and loss percentage goes, was his best. His charges triumphed in five of eight games. In 1948 the Red and White eleven won two games, lost four and tied two. This team, sparked by the B-Boys, Ronnie Buckmaster and Buddy Burbank, was among the highest scoring machines ever turned out at the Main street school of learning. In 1949, the locals were winless in seven games, including one tie.

Scoring honors during the past season were divided among six players, each of whom scored two touchdowns for twelve points. Co-Captain Carlo Petrucci, Jimmy Roach, Al Morgan, Spec Flavell, Harold Duff and Hank Agostinelli each registered two touchdowns. All players but Duff are backs, the latter being an end. Clyde Pickral scored one touchdown for six points and tackle Jimmy Minicucci accounted for the only extra point after a TD, hitting on a placement.

No "Earned Average"

For Goaltenders

Most times when a goal is scored in hockey, many of the fans blame it on the goaltender, when his supporting cast is at fault on many of the occasions. In baseball, the pitcher, which is the goaltender's equivalent in hockey in allowing scores, has the benefit of an "earned run" column, which separates any tallies permitted which are caused by his teammates' errors.

When Vern Stephens and Walt Dropo tied for the major league runs batted in championship in 1950, it was the second straight year two Boston Red Sox finished in a deadlock for that crown.

Lanky Center

Swede Anderson

Swede Anderson, six foot, three inch center, will be with Manchester High against arch rival Bristol High Friday night at the armory. Anderson, a product of the East Side Rec, is expected to share the pivot duties with Pinky Hohenthal.

Polish Amerks Open Season

Play Host to Bristol St. Stans Sunday at Rec; Girls in Prelim

The Polish-American basketball teams will open their twelfth consecutive season in the State Polish league Sunday afternoon at the East Side Rec. Providing the opposition for the Poles will be the Bristol St. Stans.

Heading the Poles' roster this year will be old reliable, Pete Staum, well known athlete. Composing the Polish league this year are but seven teams. Waterbury and Thompsonville dropped out after poor 1949-50 seasons.

The St. Stans have played one game in league play this year, losing by a narrow margin to the Terryville St. Stanz. Ken Wales and Jake Krowski, two high scoring forwards, will lead the Bristol quintet.

The Polish-Americans girls will attempt to retire the trophy in the girls' division, having won two legs on the cup. In two years of competition, the girls have not suffered a defeat. The lassies will be after their 37th consecutive win Sunday in league competition.

All PA home games will start at 2:30 with the girls' team playing the preliminary.

Unexpected Support

When the Pittsburgh Hornets of the American Hockey League took to the ice for a game in Indianapolis recently, the cheers which greeted them were surprising for a visiting team. The reason was that in the audience were a goodly amount of khaki clad members of the Pennsylvania National Guard, who are in training in Indiana.

Baseball Umpiring Board Gets Territory Ruling

Three Cage Games At YMCA Tonight

There will be three basketball games played at the 'Y' tonight. Starting at 6 in the Intermediate league the Rockets will play the Homestead Packers. In the Senior League the Garden Grove Caterers clash with the North End Pharmacy. This should prove a good game as the Groves and the North Ends are evenly matched. In the nightcap, Bolton takes on Moriarty's in what should be a close game. If Bolton is to stay in the running they need to take this one. Moriarty's also good to win as the pace-setting Wapping Harvesters have yet to lose a game. The first Senior League game will start at 7:15.

Sports in Brief

Michigan State football teams under Coach Clarence (Biggie) Munn have lost only four home games in four seasons while winning 18.

The 1950 University of Arizona baseball team had a squad batting average of .326.

Frank (Lefty) O'Doul, manager of the San Francisco Seals, still holds the National League record for most hits in a season—254 in 1929.

Andy Phillip, ace of the Philadelphia Warriors of the National Basketball Association is married to Dorothy De Wolf of the Sonja Henie Ice Show. They have two children.

When Lou Boudreau participated in 154 double plays for Cleveland, in 1944, he set a major league record for shortstop which still stands.

Northern Connecticut Board of Approved Baseball Umpires has been awarded jurisdiction over all officials in the territory assigned for the 1951 season. The Board will assign all umpires for National Baseball Congress games next season in the Hartford, Tolland, New London, Windham and Middlesex Counties.

The local Board has held membership in the National Association of Umpires since last season. Any future applications to the National Association must be approved or rejected by the local board.

Current officers of the Northern Connecticut Board include Herb Stevenson, president; John Hedlund, vice-president; Earl Yost, secretary-treasurer.

Members of the board are John Hohenko, Joe Lovett, Cliff Gleason, Truman Cowles, Alton Cowles, Walter Snow, Vic Dennis, Paul Iacobucci, Bill Brainard, Pat Egan, Frank Vittner, Ed Britner, John Skiba, Donnie Cowles, Stevenson, Hedlund and Yost.

Last year the board supplied men for all games in the Twilight Baseball League, Connecticut State Semi-Pro Baseball Tournament, and the Inter-County Baseball League. Members also worked softball games in the Rec, Church and Twilight Leagues. Board members also worked practically all games in the Little League at no charge.

Gene Roberts of the New York Giants recently gained 218 yards on the ground against the Chicago Cardinals to break Cliff Battles' National Football League rushing record set in 1933.

Bristol High Here Friday

Unbeaten Bell Towners Rated With All Time Great Monahan Teams

Tabbed the best Bristol High team in years, Coach Tommy Monahan's 1950-51 edition will roll into Manchester Friday night for a skirmish with Coach Will Clarke's Indians. The Bell Towners are undefeated in three games, all won by lop-sided margins. Manchester has captured two of three previous outings.

Cage fans who take in the contest may be watching the next Class A Connecticut schoolboy champions for, according to Chuck McCarthy of the Bristol Press, the Bell Towners are going all the way this season. Monahan has turned out more championship basketball teams than any other coach in the CCIL. In addition, Bristol has long been a state power, always playing a rugged schedule.

With practically an all veteran team, Bristol will be a top-heavy favorite to bring home the bacon Friday night. With Al Morgan back in harness, Coach Clarke of the Indians is pointing his charges to the upset. Morgan was sensational against East Hartford last week and looms as one of the state's best performers.

A preliminary game between the rival schools' jayvee teams will start at 7:15.

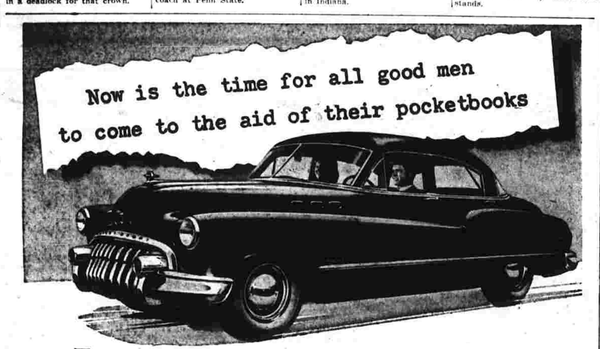
Merry Christmas SHOPPING

Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their pocketbooks



There's been a lot of talk in recent weeks about "the buying power of the dollar"—past, present and future.

As to prices—they start down below some sixes. And whether you price the SPECIAL, the SUPER or the ROADMASTER, you'll find, on a cents-per-pound basis, that few other cars can touch them for value.

And this is for sure! When it comes to performance—ride—the way they handle and hold the road—and thrifty use of fuel and oil—Buicks have never been finer.

That's another way of saying that coil springs on all four wheels—Dynaflow*—torque-tube drive—and Buick's high-compression, high-economy Fireball power produce an out-of-this-world combination.

So if you want your dollars to do extra duty—the time to act is now.

*Dynaflow Drive is standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

Look at the Typical Delivered Prices on 1950 Buicks

Cryptaesthesia: It Makes Lost Things Look for You

By Richard Kleiner
NEA Staff Correspondent

New York — (NEA) — Next to a can opener and a garbage disposal unit, Dr. Frederick Marion is about the handiest thing you could have around the house.

That's because Dr. Marion can find lost objects. There's no trick to it, no magnets and nothing up his sleeve. It's simply that the missing objects look for him. Or he has the impression that a lost object is looking for him, which boils down to the same thing.

It is, he says, cryptaesthesia that does it. Cryptaesthesia (go ahead, look it up in the dictionary—isn't there, is it?) is the science of being clairvoyant. Clairvoyance is the ability to see invisible things. Only Dr. Marion says that clairvoyance isn't what he uses, which just confuses everything.

To unconfuse things, Dr. Marion is a jovial, balding Austrian who just wrote a book called "In My Mind's Eye." It's the autobiography of a cryptaesthetist. A cryptaesthetist is a clairvoyant, but let's not get into that again.

How Dr. Marion differs from a run-of-the-mill clairvoyant is that he doesn't only use sight to reach his conclusions. He also on occasion, smells or tastes or feels or hears things which nobody else can smell or taste or feel or hear.

To demonstrate his strange faculty, Dr. Marion took himself to a hotel room. He warmed up by reading notes in sealed envelopes and describing people he'd never met. Then he called for handwriting samples, from which he said he'd reconstruct the life of the writer.

With his eyes closed, he examined the sample—which in a neat trick only the cryptaesthetically-inclined can do. He paced up and down, with his fingertips pressed to his brow.

Finally, he began to reel off phrases. They were disconnected. Thinks like "squeezed in," "forced change," "very fine brain," "very pleasant" and so on. But the witnesses who had submitted the samples said the phrases could have related to the writers.

The secret of being a good cryptaesthetist is to avoid thinking, explained Dr. Marion. That trips up many a budding cryptaesthetist, it seems. He just uses his five senses, and lets the chips fall where they may.

One of his first applications of practical cryptaesthesia was in World War I. He was made an Austrian officer because he could find water in Albania with a divining rod. Later, he perfected his ability. He didn't even have to go to Albania to find water there—all he needed was a map of Albania.

He says he first discovered his powers as a schoolboy in Prague, which probably made him the most popular kid on the block. He naturally graduated into vaudeville, performing as "The Man With Six Senses" and "The Human Bloodhound." Now he's, as this country for a lecture-demonstration tour.

About that finding lost objects business. Dr. Marion was going to demonstrate how he could do that, too. But he had to hurry away. It was most embarrassing, but he had lost his keys. He said it had something to do with vibrations.

How Should Children Repay Parents for Their Education?

Should a daughter pay back at least some of the money spent by her working mother for the daughter's college education?

The mother who asks that question goes on to explain:

"My daughter had four years at the state university, belonged to a sorority, had nice clothes to wear because I sewed for her at night—suits, dresses, even formals. She was graduated and has been teaching school for a year.

"Her education cost about $6000 and it was understood that when she got a job she would help her father and me put a little money aside against his compulsory retirement which is due in about seven years.

"But she prefers to ignore this debt to us. My contention is that she owes us a debt and should pay back at least part of it, even though she is now planning to marry."

An Important Problem

As it becomes more and more difficult for a husband and wife of ordinary means to give their children good educations and at the same time lay aside a little money for their own future security, this problem is going to become more and more important.

Certainly there's no injustice in expecting a boy or girl to repay, at least in part, the money spent on his or her college education. Particularly if the parents have had to give up all thought of their own future security in order to give their offspring such special advantages.

But if it is expected, it should be put on a business-like basis. That is, the son or daughter should understand exactly how much of the money is to be paid back. And in order to make the agreement even more business-like they should be asked to sign notes for it.

The trouble in this case, or at least part of the trouble, stems from the fact that the "paying back," while agreed upon, was not a business-like arrangement. The daughter was to help her parents in return for their home. But help in a vague term, whereas an agreement to pay back a definite sum is not vague at all.

Deer Welcomes Air Passengers

Grand Canyon, Ariz.—(AP)—Official greeter at the Grand Canyon airport is a deer, he extends a welcome to all passengers alighting from Trans World Airlines flights.

He makes friends readily, but is a bit of a "character" too. For instance, he is fond of eating lighted cigarettes and will snatch one right out of your hand. He's a little too young to have horns, but he is most proud of the beginnings that he is sprouting. Turn your back on him and he'll give you a nudge. Just teasing, you know.

U. S. Farmers Send 'Crop' To Hungry War Victims

By NEA Service

Chicago—(NEA)— A big gray freighter wallows east across the Atlantic; another sails west across the Pacific. They are part of a fleet that carries a cargo of life and hope for hungry war victims from the heart of America—and from Americans who have joined in the Christian Rural Overseas Program.

CROP was organized to collect agricultural commodities from Catholic and Protestant American farmers. The collecting and distributing are done under church auspices, and the organization takes up where the Marshall Plan leaves off.

It permits those too poor to buy food and clothing under the Marshall Plan to fill their needs at no cost at all. CROP might also be called a partial successor to UNRRA. It makes no attempts at rehabilitation, merely acting as an emergency relief body.

And it's all free. Every single egg and grain of wheat aboard the mercy ships is an outright neighborly gift from American farmers.

Each year members of CROP allocate part of their land and livestock to the organization. The grain that is harvested, the processed eggs and milk, all are collected by CROP, with the government bearing part of the transportation expense, and shipped overseas.

Since 1947, more than 3500 carloads of food and material for clothing have gone overseas for distribution without regard for race, creed or color. CROP's democratic character won it the 1950 award of merit from the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

Nor does CROP draw the line at political "curtains." Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary and China have all been recognized as places where Americans can make friends by actively practicing Christian charity.

A gnarled old woman in the Bavarian forest can tell you what CROP means to her. She is starting life all over at 76, one of a family of nine living in one room of a bleak factory converted to "residential" use.

Or you can hear the same song of gratitude from kids with pipestem limbs on the India-Pakistan border. To almost every country of the world, Friend Ships are carrying a hold full of good will and good cheer when they are most needed.

Kickoff for the 1950 CROP program, which has as its goal 1350 carloads, was the departure from Chicago of the Orange Line's S.S. Prin Mauritz on the fifth birthday of the United Nations with 60 carloads garnered from 18 states, from New York to Wyoming and from North Dakota to Texas.

India Is Growing Her Own Jute

New Delhi—(AP)—India, pushing toward self-sufficiency in raw jute, hopes to produce nearly two-thirds of her requirements domestically this year. The overall requirement is 6,000,000 bales yearly. Commerce ministry officials expect domestic production this year to total 4,150,000 bales. In addition, there will be 350,000 bales of mesta and similar fibres which may be mixed with jute. Officials estimate this will keep Indian jute mills working for eight months.

India used to acquire its raw jute from Pakistan, but this trade has been suspended because of an argument over the par value of the Pakistani rupee.

Word Confusion Cause of Fires

Chicago—(AP) — Confusion over what the word "inflammable" means may be an indirect cause of fires, says Dean Keefer, director of safety engineering for Lumbermen's Mutual Casualty Co. He points out that "inflammable" means easily ignited and not fireproof as many people believe.

Because they are misled by the word, Keefer says, many persons are not careful in handling certain canned or bottled fluids which are easily ignited.

As a result, some national groups working on fire prevention standards have eliminated the word from their language. Instead, they use "flammable" to describe easily ignited materials and "nonflammable" to label anything that is fireproof.

The Gran Chaco of Paraguay is still in the Wild West stage.

U. S. Carbines Helping British

Singapore — (AP)—British troops and security forces are using American carbines in their jungle war against Communists in Malaya.

The British bought the arms in the United States in a cash deal, but more substantial military aid may soon be forthcoming if the United States grants a British appeal for $5,000,000 to buy equipment. British officers regard the American carbines as an "A-1 weapon" in the battle against terrorists.

The automatic carbines are equipped with magazines of 15 or 30 rounds of 30 calibre bullets. In addition to lightness, the barrels of the carbines are short—a decided asset for soldiers and police who often have to hack their way into jungle lairs of Communists.

Andover

The program of the Ladies' Society meeting on Thursday night was a pageant, "Christmas in Many Lands." The reading parts were taken by Mrs. John Shepherd and Mrs. William Pratt and the choir voices were, Mrs. Elwood Hudson, Mrs. Raymond Goodale, Mrs. Howard Jennings, Mrs. Ronald Richard and Mrs. Charles Van Deusen. Mrs. A. H. Benton in charge of devotion read the scripture story of the nativity from Luke and the choir concluded the program with a response. Mrs. Montague White, who with her committee had arranged the program was in charge.

The members, by way of their president Mrs. George Nelson, presented Mrs. Crook with a Christmas gift of a wallet and cash. The gift was wrapped in numerous oversize boxes with paper on each and all matching. Mrs. Crook enjoyed the expressions of anticipation before the contents were revealed.

The next meeting of the society will be held in the social room on December 21 at 1:30 p. m. A card party, military whist and food sale will take place in the social room on Saturday, December 16 at 8 p. m.

Seventeen persons joined the Andover Congregational church on Sunday, December 3.

On confession of faith:

Mrs. Mira Bell, Ericka Eleanor Carlson, Carl Walfred Carlson, Anna Mildred Goodale, Raymond William Goodale, Angie Way Gunther, Raymond Proctor Houle, Hedwig Bergel Savage, Aladah Bell Way and David Gilbert Way.

The following on reaffirmation of faith: Marie Stewart Hudson, George Lange, Jeanette L. Lange, Elsie W. Stiens, by letter: Evelyn Ellison, Elwood David Hudson and Margaret C. Pringle.

The following officers were installed at the Grange on Monday night by Alfred C. Beckwith, master of Quinnebaug Pomona and his installing team: Master, James Hendry; overseer, Henry Skoog; lecturer, Gladys S. Jillson; steward, Harmon N. Cochrane; assistant steward, L. Edward Whitcomb; chaplain, Anna P. Lindholm; treasurer, Althea Hendry; secretary, Ellsworth Covell; gatekeep- Eugene Thompson; Ceres, Edythe Dexter; Pomona, Muriel Skoog; Flora, Margaret Yeomans; lady assistant steward, Ann H. Whitcomb; member executive committee, George S. Nelson.

The Mother's club will hold its annual Christmas party-meeting at the home of Mrs. Christine Covell on Wednesday, at 8 p. m.

Miss Shirley Pratt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Pratt, who by her accomplishment in 4-H club activities has won a trip to New Orleans, is leaving for that city on Saturday.

Word has been received here of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Merritt, Coventry, at the Manchester Memorial hospital on November 29. Mr. Merritt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Merrittt of Andover.

The Andover Girl Scout troop has registered for the year 1951 as follows: two leaders, fifteen girls and five committee members. The troop committee will give its annual Christmas Party for the Scouts on Tuesday, December 19. All mothers are invited to attend. At this time, pins and badges will be presented. Miss Dorothy Raymond is resigning her position as leader in order to be able to devote more time to Civilian Defense activities. She has been associated with the Girl Scouts since 1943.

The very fine church bulletins which are being issued weekly for the Sunday morning services and succeeding weekly news are due largely to the work of Mrs. Rosco Talbot, who prints them. There were eleven voices in the choir on Sunday.

Rev. Malcolm Crook, pastor, spoke on the topic, "The Newness of the Bible," the hymns were "O Come All Ye Faithful," "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks," and "Send Down Thy Truth O God."

Adoptions Bring More Children

New York—(AP)— Childless couples frequently have a baby after they have adopted a child. Some of the reasons may be that after the adoption the wife becomes freer of tension, fears and hostilities, and accepts a feminine and maternal role, says Dr. Abraham Stone, director of the Margaret Sanger Research Bureau.

He said that about 20 per cent of married couples who seek advice about inability to have a child have no apparent physical troubles. The desperate desire to have a baby may sometimes apparently interfere with conception.

Raiding Reds Rap Railroad Jobs

Kuala Lumpur—(AP)— It's a mighty tough job working on the railway in Malaya. No one knows at what moment he may be blown sky-high.

Communists by day and night emerge from the thick jungle bordering rail lines. They plant mines to blow express passenger and freight trains off the tracks. They burn railway stations and murder workers. They fire upon just about every train that makes the run from Singapore to Kuala Lumpur.

WATCH AND JEWELRY REPAIRING

STATE THEATER BUILDING 737 MAIN STREET

Bargains Listed by The Inquirer

BOUDOIR SCARF SETS make a daintily appealing Christmas gift to be found at the PARIS CURTAIN SHOP, 829 Main street. Five-piece sets of permanent-finished organdie or colored ninons are $2.98. Unusual sets, priced from $3.98, include pure linen with cutwork designs in white or colors.

You can make artificial snow for your Christmas tree with soapsuds. Use a minimum of water, whip up thick dry soapsuds with an egg beater or electric mixer. Apply them to the tree and they'll cling indefinitely. If you still want to sprinkle powdered "snow," use the soapsuds as a base.

From SILVER COFFEE AND TEA SERVICES to SILVER DISHES, there are exquisite Christmas gifts for discriminating hostesses at MATHER'S AT THE CENTER. A gorgeous coffee service in melon design by Community is $134.20 for three pieces, with a matching tray at $73.30, including tax. A four-piece service with both coffee and tea pots, sugar and cream pitcher, is $87.84 in Community Oneida in the "Henley" pattern, with matching tray at $36.60. Other sets are as low as $56.87. Single dishes include a handsome gravy boat at $12.20, a Homes and Edwards "Spring Garden" pattern gravy boat at $15.25, and an oblong or shell pattern butter dish at $10.64.

Cereal Puffs

Ingredients: 3-4 cup light corn syrup, ¼ cup light molasses, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vinegar, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 6 cups puffed cereal or crisp corn cereal, 3-4 cup salted peanuts.

Method: Heat cereal in moderate oven for 10 minutes. Mix syrup, molasses, salt, vinegar; cook to hard ball stage (258F). Remove from heat, stir in butter and vanilla. Mix cereal and peanuts in lightly greased bowl. Slowly pour syrup over cereal and nuts; mix. When cool enough to handle form into balls. Makes about 3 dozen balls.

PARTICULARLY GOOD-LOOKING ANKLETS are budget-wise Christmas gifts at Cheney's for school girls or active ladies. There are white and colors in brushed nylon, wool with angora tops, and all-angora at $.75 a pair or three pairs for $2.00 at the CHENEY BROTHERS REMNANT SALESROOM.

Candles to be used for decorative purposes will not droop if given a coat of shellac, say the experts. To be cleaned, they need only be wiped with a damp cloth.

WINSTON CHURCHILL CHRISTMAS CARDS, the smart greetings with the British statesman's own paintings, are available at the DEWEY-RICHMAN COMPANY, 767 Main Street, as well as a wide array of other lovely cards.

Note for Christmas giving: Bake fruit cake right in tin gift boxes obtainable at ten cent stores.

HASSOCKS FOR CHRISTMAS are a happy choice to be found at KEMP'S, INC., 763 Main street, at prices starting at $5.95. All colors are available in a wide range of types—a big all-steel hassock, covered in plastic, which opens for huge storage capacity; a comfortably soft cushion on a firm base; children's hassocks with child-pleasing pictures and a variety of shapes and sizes.

An attractive centerpiece can be made of Christmas ornaments and pine branches. Green, red or blue vegetable dye tablets can color water. Put it in a clear vase for a pretty receptacle for holly, pine needles or other Christmas floral decorations. This centerpiece can be used on a buffet or dining room table.

A HOPALONG CASSIDY LINOLEUM RUG is just the Christmas gift for the youngster who has a room of his own. It's available at the MANCHESTER FLOOR COVERING COMPANY, 721 Main Street.

Muffin Meat Loaves

Ingredients: 1 pound ground chuck beef, 1 cup soft brown bread crumbs, 3-4 cup milk, 1½ teaspoons salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 2 tablespoons prepared mustard, 2 teaspoons finely grated onion.

Method: Put beef at one side of mixing bowl. Put bread crumbs in the other, and pour milk over crumbs. Add salt, pepper, Worcestershire sauce, horseradish, mustard, and onion. Mix well with spoon or fork. Turn into 6 muffin cups (above 3 inches measured across top and about 1 1-4 inches deep), using about ½ cup of mixture for each. Bake in moderate (350 F.) oven about 25 to 30 minutes, or until done. Remove from cups with small spatula. Pour liquid left in muffin pan into large mixing bowl and use in tomato sauce to accompany meat loaves. If desired, brown tops of meat loaves under broiler before removing from cups.

LOUNGING WEDGIES are as gay as they are comfortable for leisure hours in the colored satin with bead sparklers or the black with self-ruffle trimming, at MARLOW's SHOE DEPARTMENT. Shirred elastic keeps the slippers firm in a sling back. Price is only $1.99 in sizes 4 to 9—an attractive Christmas gift.

Party Trick

Make an ice bowl in your food freeze and use it as a center piece on your dining or buffet table. Freeze water between two nested bowls. Fill it with different flavored ice cream balls and garnish with fresh mint leaves.

DISTINCTIVE JEWELRY FOR CHRISTMAS includes two new and exceptionally lovely sets of necklace and earrings at MATHER'S AT THE CENTER. A set of genuine turquoise (the "good luck" stone) at $22.80 has a double drop medallion which detaches for use as a pin, with white sapphires accenting the turquoise in necklace and earrings. A pearl set, at $19.40, encases the round and tear-drop shaped pearls with gold.

Fruit Cake Cookies

Ingredients: ½ cup butter, 1½ teaspoons vinegar, 2 cups sifted all-purpose flour, ½ teaspoon baking soda, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 teaspoon cloves, 1 teaspoon allspice, dash of nutmeg, 1½ cups raisins, 1½ cups currants, 1½ cups candied pineapple (about 6 slices), 1½ cups candied cherries (1 pound), ½ cup thinly sliced citron (4 ounces) 1½ cups broken walnut or pecan meats.

Method: Wash raisins and currants; drain well. Cut other fruit in small pieces. Cream butter and sugar thoroughly; beat in egg yolks. Stir vinegar into milk and add. Sift flour with baking soda, salt and spices. Stir in with fruit and nuts. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto greased cookie sheet and bake in slow (325 degrees F.) oven 20 to 25 minutes. Makes 8 to 10 dozen cookies.

ARTS AND CRAFTS SETS make a worthwhile Christmas choice from the McGILL-CONVERSE COMPANY, 645 Main Street. A youngster's Water Color Set has brush and colors set in a replica of a real artist's palette. A Leathercraft set has all the equipment for making ashtrays or wall plaques in animal or gamebird designs. Modeling clay is an unfailing source of delight. Oil painting sets start at $2.95. Many figurines invite painting—and the paints are available there.

Tangerine Poinsettias

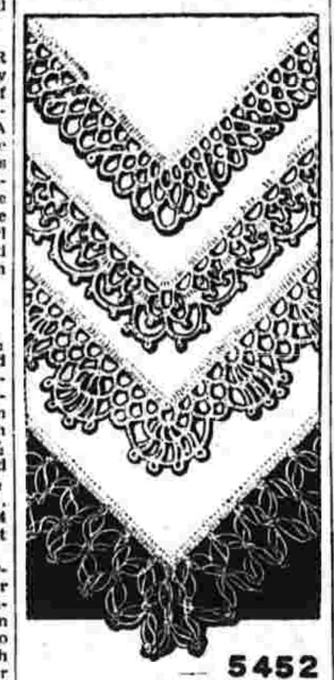
Cut tangerine peel into six sections; peel down one-half of the way but do not remove. Cut sections of peel with scissors into fine slivers. Spread sections apart sunburst-fashion; fill centers with semi-sweet chocolate or salted nuts.

FISHING ESSENTIALS make a most welcome Christmas gift to be found at the McINTOSH BOAT COMPANY at the north end of the Purnell Parking Lot. From precision-made rods and reels for the experienced sportsman to inexpensive tackle for the beginner, there's something to give pleasure to any "Isaac Walton."

Festive Grapefruit Halves

Cut grapefruit in half. Cut around each section, loosening fruit from membrane. Do not cut around entire outer edge of fruit. Cut slice of cranberry jelly with small sharp knife into small Christmas tree; place in center of grapefruit half and garnish with silver balls. Cut thin slice of citron into tiny leaves. Arrange with cinnamon candies around center of another grapefruit half to resemble a Christmas wreath.

Elegant Edgings



By Mrs. Anne Cabot

Transform plain handles into dainty "show-pieces." A frilled ruffle edge, an Irish crocheted design, a fan pattern and a lacy-knot stitch are all easily and quickly crocheted.

Pattern No. 5452 consists of complete crocheting instructions for the four edgings shown, material requirements, stitch illustrations and finishing directions.

Send 20c plus 5c for first-class mailing, in coins, your name, address and the pattern number to Anne Cabot, The Manchester Evening Herald, 1150 Ave. Americas, New York 19, N. Y.

Needlework fans—Anne Cabot's big new album is here. Dozens of fascinating new designs, gifts, decorations and special features . . . plus 4 gift patterns and directions. 25 cents.

The PINE PASTRY SHOP, 660 Center Street, suggests that we place orders early for their specially decorated, specially delicious CHRISTMAS CAKES AND COOKIES — there's a rush for their superlative goodies! The shop has two particular treats to add to their regular offerings this week in BLACK WALNUT LAYER CAKES that "make" a party or a home meal and their popular APPLE STRUDEL.

Hard-to-wrap gift items such as home-made mittens, handkerchiefs or other items for which you do not have boxes can be rolled into a little ball and wrapped in gay paper with ribbons and bells hanging from it.

INGENIOUS TOYS FOR CHILDREN are many and inexpensive at the PINE PHARMACY, 664 Center Street. A tuneful miniature xylophone is $3.50; a replica of a soda fountain is $1.98; the talent-developing Erector sets are $1.75 to $10.95. There are all sorts of pleasures for wee Western-addicts from Hopalong Cassidy coloring sets to toy rodeos and pistols; bead-stringing or embroidery sets for little girls; dolls and animals in rubber, plastic or plush for the smallest. (Be sure to cast your votes in the Boy and Girl Contest with every purchase—and double votes with every Rexall product.)

CHRISTMAS NECKTIES are still in stock to suit all masculine tastes—all-over prints in geometric or appropriately figured designs, solid colors, stripes, or the latest combination of print and solid color — at four for $2.00, four for $3.00 or four for $5.00 at the CHENEY BROTHERS REMNANT SALESROOM.

If there's a new infant in the family, keep a bar of soap near baby's corner. The soap makes a handy pin-cushion. If you form the habit of jabbing all diaper pins directly into the soap after use there's never a question of just where missing pins are.

STERLING SILVER CANDELABRA are the epitome of elegance at MATHER'S AT THE CENTER. A stunning, three-branch example at $61.00, including tax, permits two sockets to be unscrewed for use as single holders.

ADRIAN'S "SAINT" AND "SINNER" are particularly nice Christmas gifts just because they're a bit expensive for the average gal to buy for herself. Nationally famous among sophisticates, the two fragrances are displayed at QUINN'S PHARMACY at $4.00 and up for the cologne, $6.50 and up for the perfume, and $12.50 for a set containing both perfumes.

SEWING MACHINE ATTACHMENTS, such as a button-hole maker or a "blind" hemmer, or a HAND VACUUM CLEANER are among the many thoughtful Christmas gifts to be found at the SINGER SEWING CENTER, 832 Main Street. What better purpose can a gift serve than to save time and energy?

A single strand of Christmas tree lights woven through a graceful spray of pine will give sparkle to the room and cast interesting shadow patterns across the drapery and wall.

A ROGER AND GALLET SET of soap, sachet, and toilet water is a most delightful Christmas gift for $1.00, plus tax. Any of their four classic scents—"Blue Carnation," "Fleur d'Amour," "Lavendar," or "Jean Mariefarina" is available at the WELDON DRUG COMPANY.

Get your CHRISTMAS SWEETS at the PINE PHARMACY, 664 Center Street, from chocolate Santa Clauses for the children to the complete line of Whitman's chocolates, Level and Covel Candy Cupboard chocolates, and all sorts of Christmas novelty candies.

Ribbon Sandwich Salad

Ingredients: 2 packages lime-flavored gelatin, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 2 medium-sized bananas, ¼ cup crushed drained pineapple, ½ cup chopped ripe olives, ¼ teaspoon salt, salad greens.

Method: Prepare gelatin according to directions on package and stir in lemon juice. Pour half into 9 x 9 x 2 inch pan and chill until firm. Mash bananas and combine with pineapple, olives, and salt. Spread over firm gelatin layer. Top with remaining gelatin. Chill until firm. Cut into squares and serve on salad greens. Makes 8 servings.

CHRISTMAS TREATS FOR DIETERS are given holiday packaging at the CENTER PHARMACY. For diabetics or others on a sugar-free diet, the Christmas box, at $3.98, contains fruit drops, chocolate creme wafers, chocolate pudding dessert, choclate-flavored bar, gelatin dessert, strawberry juice spread, Softea cookies, and saccharine. The pharmacy has just secured and will keep on hand DIABETIC ICE CREAM made by Sealtest, at $.40 a pint.

ALL-NYLON ANKLETS with a stay-put elastic top are very nice "small" gifts which one finds at $.45 a pair or three pairs for $1.25 at the CHENEY BROTHERS REMNANT SALESROOM.

STERLING SILVER FLATWARE for the memorable Christmas gift comes in the loveliest of patterns made by Gorham, Towle, International, Lunt, and Wallace at the DEWEY-RICHMAN COMPANY, 767 Main Street. One or more place-settings or special serving pieces will give lasting pleasure. Engraving is free and a flannel roll is included with each place setting.

Super Dunking Sauce for Shrimp
(Yield: about 3-4 cup for 2 pounds shrimp)

One-half cup chili sauce, 1-4 cup grated horseradish, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1 teaspoon finely chopped onion, 1-4 teaspoon garlic salt, ¼ teaspoon salt, dash of cayenne pepper, 1 tablespoon vinegar, dash of Tabasco sauce, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1 teaspoon celery salt.

Combine all ingredients thoroughly. Keep in a covered jar in the refrigerator for a day or so to blend the flavors. Serve the chilled sauce in a deep glass bowl with chilled, cleaned shrimp hung around the edge or arranged on a plate with a bowl of sauce in the center. Provide picks for guests to spear a shrimp to dip it into the sauce.

Jumper Outfit

By Sue Burnett

For the kindergarten-through-grade school miss—a pretty, easy to make jumper with exciting detail. To match, a dainty draw-string blouse that requires a minimum of fabric.

Pattern No. 8210 comes in sizes 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 years. Size 4, jumper, 1⅝ yards of 35 or 39-inch; blouse, 1 yard; 1 yard ric rac.

For this pattern, send 25c plus 5c for first-class mailing, in coins, your name, address, size desired, and the pattern number to Sue Burnett, The Manchester Evening Herald, 1150 Ave. Americas, New York 19, N. Y.

Send 25 cents today for your copy of the Fall and Winter Fashion, our complete pattern magazine. It contains a wealth of smart, easy to sew styles; special features; gift pattern printed inside the book.

ART SUPPLIES for the young or the mature artist make thoughtful Christmas gifts to be found in all varieties at the JOHNSON PAINT COMPANY, 699 Main Street. To encourage youthful interest, there are Devoe water color sets from $.50, big boxes of colored crayons, and finger Paint sets by Shaw or by Crestex. For adult artists or crafts workers, there are water colors, oils, textile colors, paints for china or glass, sets for lettering or drawing and the new Flo-Paque sets for both arts and crafts.

Wheat Flake Cookies

Ingredients: 2 cups sifted all-purpose flour, 1 teaspoon baking soda, 1½ teaspoons ginger, 1 cup shortening, 1 cup sugar, ½ cup molasses, 2 eggs, ¼ cup warm water, 3 cups whole wheat flakes, 1 cup chopped walnut meats.

Method: Sift together flour, baking soda, and ginger. Cream shortening and sugar; stir in molasses. Beat in eggs, one at a time, and water. Stir in sifted dry ingredients, wheat flakes, and chopped walnut meats. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto greased cookie sheet, 2 inches apart. Bake in a moderately hot (400F.) oven about 10 minutes. Makes 6 to 7 dozen cookies (3 inches in diameter).

PINKING SHEARS are really helpful Christmas gifts for the girls who sew, because they eliminate seam-raveling. The Notion Department at the J. W. HALE COMPANY has pinking shears made by Griffon at $3.95, and two lengths by Wiss at $3.95 and $6.95. All have the bent handle which keeps the blade parallel to the cloth.

DINETTE SETS of lasting, easily-cared-for chrome and Formica plastic, have special beauty at the MANCHESTER FLOOR COVERING COMPANY, 721 Main Street, for Christmas joy to the whole family. Distinctive floral designs or cleverly styled two-tone colors add to the charm of a set that is gorgeous in color, designed in various lines from "period" to ultra-modern, and planned to resist all common forms of dirt or damage. Prices are modest for the quality.

Feathery sprays of Christmas greens, fastened high on the corner of a window, will add a festive holiday note without taking up precious floor space required by a tree in the small room or apartment.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR FATHER are knowingly chosen at MATHER'S AT THE CENTER. Thoroughly masculine rings may be set with onyx, with onyx and a diamond, with a ruby, with a garnet or ornamented with his lodge emblem. There are lapel buttons with lodge emblems, distinctive tie slides, gold or Sterling silver identification bracelets, Sterling belt buckles, and a variety of cigarette cases and lighters.

CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS are both good-looking and inexpensive at McCONVILLE's, 302 Woodbridge Street. Cemetery baskets are $1.00, CHRISTMAS wreaths are $.75, holly and mistletoe are $.25 a bunch, red ruscus is $.25 a bunch, and poinsettias are $.50 and up.

A noisy clock will be less noisy if you put it on a piece of felt.

A DRESS FOR CHRISTMAS is a gift to please a little girl—especially when there are the charming choices at very low prices to be found at the MONTGOMERY WARD COMPANY. For tots of sizes 1 to 3, there are wee velvet frocks and pastel taffetas with corded flounced skirts and many bright cottons in solid colors or plaids, at $1.98 and $2.98. For girls of 7 to 14 sizes, there are very becoming school or party dresses at $2.98 and $3.98—solid-color pastel cottons with white collars, gay plaids with decorative touches, corduroy jumpers, and dressy spun rayons and taffetas.

NYLON MARQUISETTE, 48" wide, makes the most desirable window curtains and a most desirable Christmas gift. Simple to make because threads are readily drawn, speedy to launder because little pressing is needed, durable beyond most fabrics, and beautifully sheer, the marquisette is only $.75 a yard at the CHENEY BROTHERS REMNANT SALESROOM.

Sense And Nonsense

Marriage—a drip and a squirt go together and finally wind up in Niagara Falls!

Railroads have stopped buying steam locomotives, and this holds encouragement for the future. Clear air will in time be commonplace over railway yards.

Arizona Ike — What happened to that tenderfoot who was out here last week?
Badger Pete—Oh, he was brushing his teeth with some of that new-fangled tooth paste and one of the boys thought he had hydrophoby and shot him.

Speed still is the greatest killer on the highways. Better to start earlier on the trip or arrive later than not arrive at all.

Artist—That, sir, is a cow grazing.
Visitor—Where is the grass?
Artist — The cow has eaten it.
Visitor—But where is the cow?
Artist—You don't suppose she'd be fool enough to stay there after she'd eaten all the grass, do you?

While motorcar manufacturers announce proudly that they are turning out automobiles at a rate of 6,000,000 a year, city managers in convention in Florida acknowledge themselves stumped over where to put the cars already in their streets. Almost any country on the globe would like to have that problem.

Teacher—Can you tell me anything about the great chemists of the 18th century?
Smarty—They're all dead, sir.

Correct this sentence: "I am so glad," said the spinster, "that our boys are marrying Australian girls."

In the race to the altar some girls cover more laps than others.

The woman hoarder who rushed out to stock up with food is now wondering what she is going to do with the 100 boxes of Krumbled Krunchies — a breakfast food that no one in the family liked anyway.

Did You Know That—

Waste piles around gold mines of the "Rand" in South Africa have been estimated at 1,000,000,000 tons in weight.

The Dutch had come to depend on windmills to operate land drainage pumps by the 15th century.

Morristown, N. J., had 45 forges turning out arms for the Continental Army during the Revolution.

Windmills became common in Germany and Holland before the 12th century.

The French engineer Lenoir built the first known internal-combustion engine automobile.

Empire State Grows Taller

A 222-Foot TV Tower Is Put on World's Highest Building

By Richard Kleiner
NEA Staff Correspondent

New York—(NEA)—America's biggest spindle is getting bigger. The Empire State, the world's tallest building, is putting a tower atop its tower, which is just like Jimmy Durante putting an extension on his nose.

Only there's a point to it. The new 222-foot steel contraption which is being fitted to the Empire State's slender silver shaft will transmit television signals to a potential audience of 15,000,000. When completed in January, the red beacon at the peak of the tower will be 1472 feet above bustling Fifth Avenue.

Five of the TV stations in the New York metropolitan area will use the tower to transmit their programs. It will be the first time that a single pole has been used for what TV engineers call "simultaneous transmission."

The installation is expected to eliminate reception "ghosts" and "shadows." Ghosts are caused by images reflected off tall objects, and shadows are those which are in-between the transmitter and receiving antenna.

With its extension, the Empire State will be taller than anything on the Atlantic Seaboard. It will be tough for an object to get in-between it and a receiving point. Consequently, the new tower will give a farmer 52 miles away in the Catskills a clearer picture of those television showgirls.

The idea for the tower came fro.. Bill Lyons, manager of the building, according to Richard W. Hubbell, wartime Yank columnist-Magazine. Lyons wondered why television transmitters were located in different spots. He wondered if they couldn't all be put in one place, and what better place than atop the Empire State.

Lyons didn't know the answers, but found out that it could be done. And that started the machinery.

When it's completed, Hubbell says, "(listeners) can buy a television set, plug the electric cord into the wall and start looking. Unless they are in a very bad location, they'll have no more worry over outdoor antennas and steep installation charges."

Sticking the new tower atop the building's ornamental dome wasn't an easy job. The dome was removed first, exposing the main girders at the 103rd floor level. From this base, a group of steel radiating elements called dipoles are being erected. Four to six dipoles will be used on each side.

Altogether, some 50,000 pounds of steel are being used. Yet the 20,000 people who work in the building are virtually unaware that anything is going on. They have to go out in the street and look up to see the construction work.

The steel is all prefabricated and stored in the basement. It is whisked up to the tower in freight elevators, and assembled by a crew of daring workmen who rivet in the clouds.

The actual transmitters of the five stations, which include all major networks, will be located on the upper stories of the building. This makes for better pictures, too, since the shorter the line from transmitter to antenna, the better the picture.

Busy Schedule For H. S. Group

Round Table Singers Engaged for Appearances Until Xmas

The Round Table Singers, a group of 30 High school students under the guidance of G. Albert Pearson, is again this year doing its part in adding t. the enjoyment of the Christmas season. The talented group has already made two appearances and has at least eight more scheduled, including a radio broadcast.

The Singers performed December 4 at the Manchester Country club for the Nurse's Aid and again December 7 at the Emanuel Lutheran church for the Mission Society. Tonight they will participate in the 18th Annual Christmas Concert and Carol Sing in the High school.

On December 18, the Singers will appear a. the Country club as guests of the Kiwanis club. The grade schools are scheduled for December 19 and the Manchester Memorial hospital for December 21.

On the evening o' December 21, the Singers will perform at the Christmas party at Depot Square, and the following day they move to the Aetna Life Insurance company in Hartford, where Mr. Pearson will lead Aetna employes in carol singing.

Then on December 31, the local group will be guests of Station WHAY on a program starting at 1:15 p. m. and ending at 2 p. m. On January 12, the Singers will entertain the Co-Weds at the Center church.

Red Charges Collapse, Says Senator Morse

Sees No Proof of Mrs. Rosenberg Having Communist Sympathies; Probe Goes On

Washington, Dec. 14—(AP)—Senator Morse (R-Ore) said today charges of Communist sympathy against Assistant Secretary of Defense Anna M. Rosenberg "have collapsed completely for lack of proof."

Morse is a member of the Armed Services Committee, which has been holding closed hearings on Mrs. Rosenberg's nomination for more than a week. It had unanimously recommended on Nov. 29 that she be confirmed, but Senate action has been held up for investigation of new allegations.

Mrs. Rosenberg has repeatedly denied any sympathy for Communism or its fronts.

Another New Witness

Senator Russell (D-Ga), Acting Committee Chairman, said the group is keeping its record open while it looks for a "very material witness." He named the witness as George Starr.

Other Senators said a "George Starr" was mentioned by Ralph De Sola as an FBI agent. De Sola, who says he is a former Communist Party member, testified he had seen Mrs. Rosenberg at Communist meetings in New York 15 years ago.

Senators who have heard the secret testimony said several other witnesses, who De Sola said could confirm his charges, have denied them instead.

"Great Wrong Done"

Morse told a reporter "a great wrong has been done" to Mrs. Rosenberg, although he commended the committee for investigating the charges against her thoroughly. He said, "I think it's a very saddening thing to have public officials falsely accused.

"If proof had been offered I would have been the first to insist that this appointment not be confirmed, but in the absence of

Britain Stands On Own Feet

Press Hails End of Marshall Aid; Heralds Era of Independence

London, Dec. 14—(AP)— Britain's press today chorused proudly that the nation will once again stand on her own feet after Marshall aid is suspended Jan. 1. Coupled with the prideful talk were echoes of public gratitude for American generosity.

Realization that Britain—for the first time since World War II must begin living within its means struke out on her own brought joyful headlines in London newspapers.

"On her own feet at last," the nerfined Conservative Daily Mail. "It's up to us again, headlined the Independent Daily Express. "On our own," cried the conservative Daily Graphic as the President's message to the Marshall Plan. Britain has been allotted $2,084,300,000 since the program began in April, 1948. This aid provided work, food and clothing for Britons during the hungry post-war years.

Taxi Riding Bandit Waits Turn in Line, Then Flashes Pistol And Walks Calmly Out

Lowell, Mass., Dec. 14—(AP)— An unshaven taxi riding bandit who courteously waited his turn at the teller's window today robbed the Lowell Five Cent Savings Bank of an estimated $2,500, then vanished within a block of the scene.

Bank officials said the man carried a pistol hidden in a newspaper and uncovered it enough for Teller Nina Cleo to see as he stepped up to the window.

"Give me all you've got there," he told the 21-year-old brunette teller. She obeyed, handing over $1,000 in $20 bills, $1,000 in $10's and $500 in $5's. A half dozen customers and as many bank employes either were unaware of the holdup or too stunned to make a move as the man cooly walked out to a waiting taxi.

The taxi sped off down Lee street, and less than a block from

Democrat Wins Poll Recount

Williams Re - Elected Governor of Michigan By Narrowest Margin

Detroit, Dec. 14—(AP)— Michigan's politicos returned to its hectic normalcy today after a week of sensation.

The recount of nearly 1,900,000 votes in the Nov. 7 gubernatorial election had been called off with Republican Harry F. Kelly conceding a tradition-shattering GOP defeat.

Kelly, once declared victor, gave up late yesterday to the Democratic incumbent, G. Mennen Williams.

GOP Quits

Williams, 39-year-old soap fortune heir, thus will be inaugurated Jan. 1 as Michigan's first re-elected Democratic governor in 36 years.

The GOP quit as Williams' recount margin reached 4,243 votes. About three-quarters of the original vote had been recounted.

For the official record, however Williams' original canvass margin of 1,154 will stand to mark the closest governorship fight in Michigan's 113-year history.

That was Williams (D) 935,-152, Kelly (R) 933,998.

British False Tooth Monopoly Puts Bite On Free Enterprise

London, Dec. 14—(AP)—A government commission accused the British false teeth industry today of strangling competition to maintain high prices.

The commission, set up by Parliament to investigate monopolies and restrictive practices, urged that the alleged trade restraints be prohibited by law.

Target of the report was the Association of Dental Manufacturers and Traders of the United Kingdom. The commission said the association controls 90 per cent of the retail supply of dental goods in this country.

Free Palse Teeth

The false teeth industry has boomed sharply since 1948, when Britain's National Health Act went into effect. Since then, false teeth have been free to all comers.

Greek Vessel Believed Lost in Tempest; Ango American Oil Tanker Radios for Aid

Brest, France, Dec. 14—(AP)—At least five ships—Dutch, Swedish, English and Greek — are in difficulty in a tempest off the coast of northwestern France, the French Naval Station said today.

The 3,658-ton Greek Ship, Agios Spyridon, is in the worst shape, and was probably lost, considered lost, the station said, adding that it has reports that rescue ships have approached the vessel and taken off at least two men and a woman.

The station said it also had picked up signals of distress from the 5,083 ton British Ship, Blairclove, and the Dutch Coaster Konginnave, 495 tone, which was drifting out of control.

The storm is so bad it has disabled the radio signals, the station said.

Top Orchestra Leader Dies

Max Reiter Parlayed a Shoestring Into Two Noted Symphonies

San Antonio, Tex., Dec. 14—(AP) —Max Reiter, who played a shoestring into one of the nation's foremost symphony orchestra's, is dead.

The little man who came to the United States in 1938 with $40, a letter from Arturo Toscanini and a burning desire to have his own orchestra, left as a monument two—the one here and one in Texas.

He died late yesterday in the hospital where he had been under treatment since a heart attack last Wednesday.

Born in Trieste in 1905, Reiter chucked a successful career as a conductor in various European countries to come to New York City. From there he picked Texas as a spot that might use his talents. He started for the Lone Star State with a list of 18 towns and $217 he had saved while working in New York, in his pocket.

How he got his orchestra—not one but two—was a heartwarming story.

Stopped Off at Waco

Reiter stopped off in Waco, a central Texas town of less than 100,000 in 1939, while enroute to San Antonio. He talked to various people and was encouraged to try and start a symphony.

In San Antonio he received additional encouragement. So he started two orchestras and built the one here into national renown. It was the first big budget symphony in Texas.

"He started with a scratch orchestra," said John Rosenfield, amusements editor of the Dallas Morning News and a close personal friend. "He brought in musi-

Virginia Town Perched Warily on Gas Chamber

Lynchburg, Va., Dec. 14—(AP)— Part of downtown Lynchburg is sitting anxiously on top of a "gas chamber" that could explode at almost any time.

Gasoline is pouring into a sewer at the rate of 75 gallons a day, but neither Public Works officials nor the Fire Prevention Bureau has succeeded so far in locating the cause.

A probe was begun in mid-September when a theater and several business firms located just off Main street reported gas fumes were seeping into their places of business.

Gas ejectors had to be used to clear the air when workmen who entered the combination storm and sanitary sewer were driven out by the fumes. Workmen also found gasoline trickling from a small crack in the mortar-brick tunnels, and samples were taken.

The gasoline was found to have a low flash point.

Dyes were put in gas tanks at service stations downtown, but none of the dye ever showed up. Service station operators have been asked, however, to check for any possible losses.

There's another theory that the Farm Bureau Opposes Price Control Plan

Favors Continuation of Price Supports and All-Out Production Effort in World Crisis

Dallas, Dec. 13—(AP)—Harmony prevailed today as the American Farm Bureau Federation approached that part of its convention which sometimes leads to fireworks—the resolutions session.

It is harmony of two sorts. There is lively singing of such old tunes as "Pack Up Your Troubles," sandwiched between all speeches. And there appears to be harmony, this time, on what the farmers want.

In contrast with the 1948 Chicago convention where a fight over price supports broke out, the 1950 session appears agreed upon some such program as this:

Continues Price Support

An all-out production effort to give the United States and friendly nations the food they need.

Continuation of the present flexible price support program.

Vigorous opposition to price controls, and some opposition to rationing.

Award Gold Medals

Some resolutions were expected from the convention floor at the Texas State Fair Auditorium. But most of the resolutions were the work of a committee headed by Federation Vice President R. E. Short.

The nation's biggest farmer organization last night presented three gold medal awards for distinguished service to American agriculture. One went to the late Ransom E. Asbell of Mississippi Federation President credited with bringing better hospital and medical service to rural people. A second went to Dr. Donald F. Jones, Chief Geneticist of the Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station at New Haven, discoverer of the "double cross" method of producing hybrid corn. The third went to Herbert J. King, former Wyoming Federation President who was the first to

Herald Five Cents Effective Jan. 1

Effective January 1, The Herald follows the standard already established by the other daily newspapers of Connecticut and becomes a five cent paper.

Approximately half of the one cent increase will go to the newsboys who deliver The Herald, giving them a total profit of one and three quarter cents on every copy they sell. They now make a profit of one and one-third cents on each four cent paper.

The home delivery price will be 30 cents a week.

Mail subscriptions will be $12.00 a year, or $1.00 monthly.

The five cent standard has already been established by the Hartford Times, Hartford Courant, the Bristol Press, Danbury News-Times, Greenwich Times, Meriden Record, Meriden Journal, Middletown Press, Naugatuck News, New Britain Herald, New London Day, Stamford Advocate, Torrington Register and other Connecticut dailies, most of them having established the new rate several years ago.

Beyond its desire to afford a larger return to Herald newsboys, The Herald management has also been compelled to reckon with continually advancing costs in all departments of newspaper production. Newsprint now costs $105.50 a ton, as compared to a pre-war figure of $44.00. The cost of type metal has advanced from 18 to 27 cents a pound.

In formally announcing the January 1 increase, Publisher Thomas Ferguson said: "As both our readers and advertisers should know, The Herald management has always preferred to go slowly in passing on increased publishing costs to the public it serves. In both advertising and circulation rates, we have consistently remained behind other comparable newspapers. As has been noted, a generous share of the January 1 circulation rate increase goes to the newsboys, whose faithful service deserves our appreciation and that of the public. The remainder of the increase will be of partial help in making it possible for this newspaper to adjust to inflationary production costs."

Marshall Fears War May Come In Few Months

Tells Congress U.S. Must Move Faster on Arms Build - Up; Yugoslav Aid Bill Passes House

Washington, Dec. 14—(AP)—Secretary of Defense Marshall has told Congress a rapid build-up of the nation's defense production machine is essential to meet the serious threat of an all-out shooting war within the next few months.

The trouble, Marshall said, is that while this country is doing all it can to avoid a global conflict "we realize that an all-out war can be initiated-by a single word from the other side."

While this uncertainty exists, he said, "emphasis on production is the way to begin" to strengthen the nation's defenses. He said the important thing is "to lay down the assembly lines, the tools and jigs and so forth, so that we can quickly build up what may be necessary."

Plug for Controls

Marshall expressed these views in secret hearings before the House Military Appropriations Subcommittee on an emergency $16,846,000,000 request for more military funds. The subcommittee made the testimony of Marshall and other military officials public today.

The Administration is pleading for wage-price controls said they would tell President Truman today that such curbs must be invoked swiftly to safeguard mobilization speed-up plans.

At Mr. Truman's request, leaders arranged to attend a White House conference—the second in as many days—on bolstering the nation against Communist aggression.

The group called to today's session with the President is made up of top Democrats and Republicans on the Senate and House Banking Committees and the Joint Economic and Atomic Energy Committees. Key Administration officials also were called in, just as they were yesterday when a different group of Congressional leaders met with the President.

After that meeting the White House said there appeared to be unanimous agreement among the conferees that "our military situation should be built up with the utmost speed."

Reds Launch All-Out Air War as GI's Pull Back in Beachhead

May Embargo Parcel Post Mailings Unless Rail Strike Is Settled

Washington, Dec. 14—(AP)—The Post Office Department today considered a partial embargo on parcel post mailings in view of the spreading strike among railroad yard employes.

Assistant Postmaster General John M. Redding told a news conference shortly before noon (EST) that the railway walkouts at strategic centers across the country "effectively cripple the mail distribution system."

He said department officials must decide within the next few hours whether to order post offices to stop accepting package mailings for transcontinental delivery and movement between the north and south.

Xmas Mails Near Peak

The interruption has occurred as the Christmas mailing season is approaching its peak—expected to be reached some time over the coming weekend.

Redding also disclosed that the department has under study a plan for shifting first class surface mail to the air lines in order to avoid a stack-up of such mail.

Emergency arrangements set up yesterday to get transcontinental Christmas packages routed around Chicago, where the walkouts started, have now been cancelled because of the spread of the strike to other points.

Army Threatens Contempt

The Army threatened today to seek contempt action against the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen unless the union obeys a court order to end a wildcat strike by railroad yardworkers.

The warning came as the strike spread from Chicago to Washington and St. Louis, and union leaders hinted at further extension of the walkouts. The government obtained a Federal injunction against the strike at Chicago last

Truman Calls Atomic Leaders for Parley at White House

Washington, Dec. 14—(AP)—Top atomic leaders were called to the White House today amid speculation that President Truman may order controls over the critical materials needed for the nation's rapidly expanding A-Bomb program.

The speculation arose when it was learned that three atomic officials would attend the meeting arranged for Mr. Truman with a among others—the chairman and ranking minority members of the Senate and House Banking Committees. These committees have jurisdiction over controls legislation.

Representing the atomic program will be Chairman Gordon Dean of the Atomic Energy Commission; Chairman McMahon (D-Conn) of the Senate-House Atomic Committee, and Rep. Hinshaw (R-Ohio), a member of the committee.

Urges Quick Okay

Elston told a reporter he did not know what the meeting was about, but assumed it was another in the series of meetings the President is holding with Congressional leaders on the present emergency.

McMahon told the Senate yesterday Congress should speedily approve as a matter of the "utmost urgency" the AEC's request for $1,050,000,000 to carry out the third phase of its expansion program.

The request is contained in a $17,850,000,000 supplemental defense money bill now under study by the Appropriations Committees of both Houses.

Rumor New Plant

McMahon said the new program would at least double an increase in stocks of available uranium — the ore which provides the explosive material for the A-Bomb; (B) Add "huge new plants" for using products of the ore, and (C) Introduce new weapons production and storage facilities.

Malik Says Chinese Will Quit Korea Only If U. N. Troops Get Out; Assembly Vote Today

Bulletin!

New York, Dec. 14—(AP)—The United Nations Assembly today approved an Asian-Arab plan for a Korean cease-fire despite Soviet bloc warnings that this would not end the fighting. The vote was 52 to 5 with Nationalist China abstaining. The Soviet bloc countries cast the negative votes.

New York, Dec. 14—(AP)—A last-minute move to get Red China to agree to a cease-fire truce in Korea was promised overwhelming by U. N. Assembly approval late today. Russian opposition made the plan's chances of success doubtful.

The 60-nation U. N. Political Committee adopted the measure yesterday 51 to 5, after a flood of gloomy predictions that World War III threatens unless the Chinese Communists heed the world organizations.

Russia's Jacob A. Malik fought desperately to defeat the measure, sponsored by India and 12 other Asian and Middle East countries.

He even half-promised that Chinese troops would quit Korea if all foreign troops—the United Nations forces—pulled out, in accord with a Soviet proposal still awaiting committee action.

More Russian and Soviet bloc arguments were expected to delay a final Assembly vote until late today.

Hope for Speed

The cease fire resolution would empower Assembly President Nasrollah Entezam and two others he names to find out what can be done to get Red China to agree to stop fighting.

Delegates hoped that the three-man commission would be able to determine quickly what should be done and lay it before the Assembly for approval.

But a number of questions remained unanswered as the delegates went into an historic session to lay the groundwork for a U. N. truce request addressed to a warring nation.

Would the Chinese Reds insist on the withdrawal of the U. N. forces in Korea before they would agree to a cease-fire? Would they insist on a seat in the U. N. Security Council? Would they insist on the ouster of the U. S. from Formosa?

Or would they agree to a cease-fire and then negotiate the other issues?

Malik's speech indicated that the Chinese Communists would insist on the withdrawal of the U. N. forces before they would agree to a cease-fire.

Malik said Chinese troops would withdraw from Korea "as soon as the question of withdrawal of foreign troops from Korea is settled peacefully."

Malik's statement appeared to rule out any cease-fire agreement that would not provide for withdrawal of U. N. forces.

Lodge Cancels Inaugural Ball

Says World Crisis Makes Colorful Ceremony Inappropriate Now

Hartford, Dec. 14—(AP)—The Korean crisis has caused cancellation of the Inauguration Ball traditionally given by the Pratt Company, Governor's Foot Guard, for an incoming Connecticut Governor.

Announcement that the ball had been called off came last night in statements by Major Raymond F. Gates, Commandant of the Company, and Governor-elect John David Lodge (R).

The ball had been scheduled for

2 Quakes Cause Damage

Two series of prolonged, hair-raising earthquakes caused damage today in the Sierra Region of Northern California and in Mexico City. A dozen smarp shocks broke underground installations at the U. S. Army's Sierra Ordnance Depot at Herlong Calif. The Mexico quakes caused buildings to sway and knocked dishes from shelves.

President Gets Square With Autograph Hounds

Washington, Dec. 14—(AP)—President Truman, a famous father of a famous daughter, knows what he's going to get for Christmas. He's going to get the autographs of more than 200 daughters of members of the National Press Club.

Mr. Truman asked for them himself.

He and Margaret were guests at the Club's annual Father-Daughter Dinner last night. All through the meal the girls kept up a steady parade to Mr. Truman's table, getting his autograph.

The traffic was so heavy that at one point the Press Club Presi-dent, Radford Mobley, asked would the kids stop coming, please, so that the President could eat?

200 Christmas Cards

At the end of the program, Mr. Truman got up and said:

"As usual, it's been a wonderful evening." He then ran through the entertainers, who included everyone from the comedian, Jimmy Savo, to a bunch of kids, "Juvenile Jury." He said he liked them all. "It was well worth the price of admission," he said, "and it didn't cost me anything."
