

OUR BOLTON CORRESPONDENT tells how on one occasion, years ago, when the need of rain was imperative, a day of fasting and prayer for rain was appointed.

WANTED:—A governor for the state of Massachusetts. Found:—A man who wants to be governor of Massachusetts, BENJAMIN F. BUTLER.

ENGLAND IN EGYPT.

Uncle Richard's Reflections on the Eastern War.

(Written for the Saturday Herald.) Developments thus far indicate that England has a long, unpopular and sorry job on her hands.

The ostensible cause of this war seems to be simply this: England and France said to the Khedive, you do not manage the affairs of Egypt to suit us; you do not pay our subjects as per contract.
