AFFAIRS ABOUT TOWN.

A new timetable will be issued by the New England road the 20th.

The excursion to Boston Monday had few passengers from Manchester.

Mr. W. S. Walker, of Hartford, will preach at the Center church tomorrow. John McKeever was severely bruised by falling from his barn loft last Monday.

About as many Manchester people attended the Rockville fair as were present at the Manchester races last week.

The Lydallville paper mill shut down Wednesday to give its employees an opportunity to attend the Rockville fair.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union, of Manchester, will meet at the house of Mrs E. E. Hibbard next Friday at three p. m.

Maurice C. Bryant has applied for a license at the new building he has just put up on Main street near Ratenburg's blacksmith shop.

Jersey Quinn was sentenced yesterday to eight years in state prison for jail breaking. This with the five years for rape makes his total penalty 13 years.

The last excursion of the season to Newport will take place next Friday. Passengers from Manchester will take the 7:18 train. Fare for the round trip is $1.75.

Hale, Day & Co. have sold to George M. Barber their valuable dapple gray horse, Nero. They have also sold to Mrs. Kate Gorman the gray mare whose mate died recently.

The affairs of Abraham Backer, the New York note broker, who owns mills at Glastonbury, and failed recently, will be made a matter of investigation by the grand jury upon the demand of the creditors.

Dick Blumenthal sold George B. to William Daly at Rockville Thursday night. The price paid was $1,000. Blumenthal, apt to be without a fast one, immediately bought D. E. Strong's Walnut, on private terms.

Mr. Townsend, of the firm of Hood & Townsend, who have lately leased manufacturing quarters in the Lydall & Foulds needle shop, is unable to move his home here from Philadelphia because he cannot find an empty house in town.

The overflow room at the North school only partially relieves the pressure on the primary rooms. Dr. Taylor says that unless another room is provided it will be necessary to divide at least one of the primary schools into half-day sessions.

The South Manchester W. C. T. U. will hold a regular meeting at the Methodist church, Tuesday, Sept. 15, at three o'clock. The union anticipate a lecture from Mrs. Mary Clement Leavitt, its round-the-world missionary, on the evening of Oct. 1.

In our article on the schools last week Principal Collins of the South school was, unintentionally, shorn of some of his authority. While he attends to the details of instruction in the higher departments only, he is responsible for the conduct of the entire school.

The town has been living on short rations of butter the last week or ten days. The creameries cannot supply their customers and the farmers are even worse off than the creameries. The shortage is attributed to scant feed, caused by the August drouth. The price of creamery butter has gone up to 35 cts.

The South Methodist church at an election last Monday evening, chose Walter Couch, George M. Barber and Albert Abbey to be their own successors on the board of trustees. The vote was by ballot and the women as well as the men of the church were permitted to vote.

The contract for the monument to be erected on the lawn of St. James's church over the resting place of the late Rev. James F. Campbell, has been awarded to John Hanna, of New Britain. It will be completed in about four months and will be set up as soon as finished. The foundation for it will be laid this fall.

The month of September is the worst month in the year for zymotic diseases. In view of that fact and to impress upon the public the necessity of observing sanitary laws the Board of Health reprint in another column the rules which they have made for this town. Every good citizen should read them and live up to them.

Joseph Albiston was in luck at the Rockville fair. He took first premium on out flowers, first on ten varieties of apples, first on canned fruit, first on Muscadine grapes, first on Concord, first on Wordens, special on Bartlett pears, first on collection of asters, second on bouquet. He was the only exhibitor from Manchester.

Advertised Letters.
MANCHESTER, CONN., SEPT. 10, 1891.
Rev. D. M. Bradley, Arthur Smith, Dominique Tibodo. LEVI DRAKE, P. M.

A council is called to meet at Gilead Sept. 16th, to ordain Mr. John S. Porter for the work of foreign missions. Mr. Porter expects to go to Austria to the field formerly occupied by Rev. E. A. Adams.

At the North Congregational church the subjects put down for the evening services for tomorrow and a week from tomorrow will change places. It is expected that John S. Porter will speak at the missionary meeting on the evening of the 20th.

O'Day Killed by the Cars.
Patrick O'Day of this place was killed by the cars on the New Haven & Northampton road near Plainville Thursday. He was employed as brakeman on a freight train. His body was brought to Manchester and was buried in the Catholic cemetery yesterday afternoon. His funeral was from the house of his brother-in-law, Frank Gribbon.

A Week of Many Deaths.
Mary E. Davison, wife of Joseph Davison, died at her home at the east end of School street Wednesday. She had been an invalid for several years. Her funeral was held Friday.

An infant son of James Loomis, one of twins, died last Monday at the age of nine months.

RICHARD BARRETT.
Richard Barrett died of consumption last Friday night at the age of 88. He had lived in South Manchester from childhood and since leaving school was in the employ of Cheney Brothers. The last few years he worked as a loom-fixer. He has suffered from consumption for two years. Last year he went to Colorado but returned about three months ago little benefited by his trip. Robert and William Barrett are his brothers and Mrs. Edward Taylor is his sister. His funeral Monday was largely attended.

Requiem high mass was celebrated in St. James's church. The bearers were John Keefe, Edward Dunn, John Foley, William J. Carr and Thomas Benabon. He was a young man of excellent qualities and had many friends.

LIZZIE CROCKETT.
Lizzie Crockett, daughter of James Crockett, died last Friday evening of typhoid fever. She was 18 years old and worked in the silk mill. She had a very large funeral at her father's house on Maple street Sunday afternoon. Rev. C. H. Barber conducted the service.

JOHN TEDFORD.
John Tedford died last Friday night of malarial fever. His death is particularly sad one, for he leaves a wife in delicate health and four young children. He was a weaver at the silk mill and had just completed and moved into a new house near the Salvation Army barracks. His funeral was held at St. Mary's church Monday afternoon. His body was followed to the Center cemetery by a procession of 25 carriages.

EPWORTH LEAGUE CONVENTION.
List of the Speakers at the North Methodist Church.

The Epworth League convention of the Norwich district will be held at the North Methodist church, Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 28 and 29. The program has been substantially completed. Prof. Marcus D. Buell, of Boston, will give an address Monday evening on the subject "Culture as a Duty." The Rev. David G. Downey, a very eloquent young preacher of the New York East Conference has promised to come and will speak Tuesday forenoon at 10.30. Rev. Walter P. Buck, the popular young preacher at Mystic Bridge, will read a paper on "The Loyal League." Rev. G. A. Grant of the Sachem street church in Norwich, always keen and discriminating in thought and word, has been secured to speak Tuesday at 11.30 a. m. W. I. Ward, of Niantic, corresponding secretary of the District League, will respond to the address of welcome by Pastor McVay. Young ladies from different churches will read papers on interesting subjects. This cannot fail to be a most profitable and inspiring convention and will call to it a large attendance of the young people of the Norwich District.

At Apal's Opera House.
Pat Maloney's Comedy company will be at Apal's next Tuesday evening. The skit is entitled Jerry's Visit and is said to abound in music and mirth. Features of the entertainment which are promised are songs, dances, contortion acts, banjo solos and character sketches.

Next Thursday evening, Sept. 17th, "The Shadow Detective" will be seen at Apal's, with Daniel A. Kelly in the title role. Kelly has been starring in this piece several years and has had good success. Special scenery and mechanical effects will be used. In the cast are a detective, an Irish policeman, an Italian, a Yankee and an actress, besides the conventional characters. The company has numerous complimentary press notices.

PERSONAL MENTION.

[Readers of The Herald are requested to send items for this column. The name of the sender should always accompany the item in order that we may know it is genuine.]

B. T. Lyons, of Bristol, was in town Sunday.

Jules LaLange has returned from a flying trip to France.

George Hall, Jr., will return to the Storrs Agricultural school this fall.

George W. Finlay expects to occupy his new house on Park street in about three weeks.

Mrs. George Roe has gone to Philadelphia for a week. Master Claude Porter accompanied her.

Manager J. J. Gates, of the Perkins company, is expected home from his western journey next Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Skinner have gone to Vineland, N. J., to visit Mrs. Osborne Bidwell, who formerly resided in Manchester.

Benjamin Wilson and wife have taken a drive up through Mansfield and will spend a week visiting friends in that vicinity.

Henry Lydall and wife will accompany the Fourteenth Regiment on the Antietam excursion, leaving next Monday.

Miss Gertrude Bissell, who has been visiting in Rome, N. Y., is the last of the Christian Endeavor excursionists to return home.

Miss Bessie Cheney, daughter of C. S. Cheney, is to have charge of the new teacher's boarding house, opposite Watkins Bros.' new block.

Steven Dunn, clerk at Rose's, has gone to New York to spend his vacation. George Chapin, of Talcott & Frisbie's will take his place.

William Reed, son of George Reed, is soon to leave for Belding, Mich., where he will have the position of book-keeper and buyer for The Richardson Silk Co.

Mrs. Geo. H. Chase and her daughter, Mabel, of Jewett Heights, Catskills, are visiting her sister, Mrs. Edwin Brainard and also her brothers and friends in Washington.

Rev. John McVay and wife will leave next Monday morning for a trip south during which they will visit the battle field of Gettysburg and Antietam and the city of Washington. They will be absent ten days.

The Misses Elizabeth and Genevieve Garvan, of East Hartford, have entered the Manhattan seminary, New York. Their brother, Master John Garvan, has gone to Georgetown college, Washington, D. C.

FIRE AT HILLIARD'S.

Storehouse Burned -- Automatic Sprinklers Saved the Mill.

Had it not been for the complete facilities for extinguishing fire at Hilliard's mill, the entire establishment would have been burned to the ground last Sunday evening. About five o'clock, as three employees of the company were walking down Adams street they discovered smoke pouring from the skylight of the storehouse. The storehouse was a lean-to one story building adjoining the main mill on one side. It was of wood with tin roof. The men who discovered the fire notified Superintendent Butler and the force pump was started. With the aid of a heavy stream from the hose and the no less effective aid of the automatic sprinklers, the adjoining buildings were saved. The wooden storehouse itself was not burned down but the wood was charred and the roof was burned through in places.

There was no machinery in the burned building. It was used as a store room for the stock which had been mixed in the adjoining picker room. At the time of the fire it contained about $8,000 worth of wool. It was the only room in the mill that was not supplied with automatic sprinklers. The fire escaped into the main mill under the eaves and into the main mill through the belt tunnel but in each case the automatic sprinklers opened and prevented further spread of the fire. The stock in the burned building was damaged so as to be practically worthless. The loss on stock and building, amounting to $4,000, is fully covered by insurance.

The fire started at the bottom of a pile of stock and was undoubtedly the result of spontaneous combustion.

Mr. Hilliard wishes through The Herald to thank his neighbors who labored so industriously to save his property.

Epworth League Delegates.

The Epworth League at South Manchester last Tuesday evening appointed these delegates to the district convention soon to be held at Manchester: William Keith, Lawrence Case, E. N. Stanley, Miss Jennie Carrier and Mrs. M. R. Ingalls. It was voted to hold the young people's prayer meeting the first Sunday evening and the third Wednesday evening in each month. Social meetings, with literary and musical programs, will be held the first Tuesday in each month from October to May.

The Romance of a Lock of Hair.

CAUGHT IN RHODE ISLAND.
 Jersey Quinn's Huge Joke on the Jail Officials.
 [Associated Press Dispatch.]
 ROCKVILLE, Sept. 10.—"Jersey" Quinn, the young tough who escaped from the jail at Tolland a few days ago, was captured this morning at Chepachet, R. I. Early this morning Captain Cady received a telegram from Constable Twitchell of Harrisville, R. I., asking if Quinn was wanted in Rockville, and if so for Cady to telegraph particulars and description of the man. The captain immediately telegraphed in reply, giving Quinn's description, and saying that he was wanted $100 worth. A dispatch was received in return saying that Quinn was in custody, and would return without a requisition. Sheriff Kibbe accordingly went to Williamantic, where he met Twitchell, who had Quinn in custody, and brought his prisoner to this city, arriving on the six p. m. train. Quinn seemed chipper enough, and was immediately transferred by team to Tolland jail.
 The capture resulted from Quinn's forming the acquaintance of a man who, as Quinn says, became intoxicated and notified the officers of his whereabouts. Quinn says he was just ready to "light out" when he was arrested.
 He says he was in Williamantic Monday morning about eight o'clock and talked with his sister, who works in a boarding house there; that she wanted him to stay until Tuesday and she would give him some money, but he did not think it safe. When asked why he ran away he said, "Who would not with five years before him and the doors wide open?" He went from Williamantic to Rhode Island by way of Dayville and Danielsonville. He gives a somewhat amusing history of his slinding the officers who were in pursuit of him and seems to treat the whole matter as a huge joke on the jail officers.
 The Rhode Island officers will claim the reward of $100 which has been offered.

Blumenthal Reinstated.
 All the parties in the Blumenthal imbroglio at Woodland Park cooled down over Sunday. Monday, at the request of Mr. Blumenthal, the judges who had suspended him from the tracks of the National Association met him at Hartford. The entire day was passed in canvassing the affair and finally Starter Hayden consented to accept an apology from Blumenthal. That evening he received the following note:
 Hartford, Sept. 7, 1891.
 Mr. George A. Hayden:
 Dear Sir—I wish to retract, even more publicly than I made them in the Hartford depot, on Friday, September 4, and later in the judges' stand at the Manchester Driving Club track, Woodland Park, the charges that you were, directly or indirectly, interested in the pools sold on any of the races at the late meeting at that track.

 The retraction was satisfactory to Mr. Hayden and the restriction placed by the judges on Mr. Blumenthal was then withdrawn. It is the general opinion among those who are acquainted with the circumstances that Blumenthal got off easy. The restriction was removed in time to allow him to enter his horses at the Rockville fair this week.

GRANGE FAIR.
 To be Held at Town Hall, September 23 and 24.
 Manchester Grange has voted to hold its annual exhibit of farm products and fancy articles at the town hall, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 23 and 24. The town hall is chosen for the exhibit because of its hall will be closed for repairs through this month. The executive committee consists of R. O. Cheney, Joseph Albiston, M. H. Keeney, Mrs. A. W. Hollister and Mrs. William Keish. John Loomis is chairman of the committee on printing.
 All persons interested, whether members of the Grange or not, are invited to make exhibits. The Grange will this year, for the first time, offer a list of premiums for the best exhibits.
 A meeting of the Grange to perfect arrangements will be held at the town hall next Wednesday evening at which it is important that all members be present.

ROCKVILLE.
 The high school has opened with about 100 pupils. The entering class has 55 members.
 Three hundred lads and misses are rehearsing the operetta, "The Gypsies Festival."
 James Lynch has been appointed policeman to succeed Stephen Tobin, resigned.
 F. G. Miner, from Hartford, has entered Fitch's pharmacy.
 A. P. Dickinson has presented to company C a large and elegantly framed engraving of Sherman's March to the Sea. The picture will be hung in their parlors in Henry building.
 The collection of curiosities at the Snipico grove museum is being enlarged almost daily and is now one of the best exhibits of this kind in the state.
 Capt. and Mrs. Sweet, who have had charge of the Salvation Army corps for the last six months, bade their comrades farewell last Sunday evening.
 The estate of L. B. Warner pays between five and six cents on the dollar.
 The teachers employed in Vernon are: Miss Jone Gallup, Center district; Miss Mary Robinson, Southwestern district; Miss Anna West, Rockwood district; Miss Maggie Welch, Depot; Miss Edith Danvers, Dolansville; Miss Flora Beard, Dolansville.

J. E. Fisk of Stafford Springs has opened a law office in this city.
 Dr. E. P. Flint, of Andover, has also moved here and begun practice.
 Company C's drill night is to be changed this season. The company now has six applications for membership.
 Dr. F. L. Dickinson of this city is one of 14 physicians in the state who have practiced half a century. He is fifth in length of service, having graduated from Castleton in 1840.
 The work of tearing down the old rookery tenement houses on the corner of School and Park streets is well under way, to make room for the new high school building.

A Band of Boy Brigands.
 An amusing instance of the contagion of a case in the Berlin police court reports. The outrage on the Turkish railway and the stories of brigands which have lately filled our newspapers seem to have acted on the imagination of two boys named Oscar Scheffner and George May. They determined to become bandits, and they prevailed on several of their schoolfellows to join them. The average age of the band was thirteen. They inaugurated their defiance of the law by boldly playing truant, and then they took refuge in the wilds of the Grunewald, where, in true brigand fashion, they hid themselves.
 After a night passed in this fashion they felt the pangs of hunger, and consequently they sallied forth at an early hour and seized the milk cans and baskets of new rolls which had been left at the doors of the neighboring villas. This, however, they thought was scarcely heroic, and their next step was to garrote an old gentleman who was taking a morning stroll in the park. Somehow or other the Berlin police got wind of the affair, and the juvenile bandits were seized. They are now languishing in grewsome dungeons, where, by means of a cane administered at intervals, it is hoped that they may be made aware of the historic fact that in northern Europe brigandage is an anachronism.—Pall Mall Budget.

Argentine Frenchmen in Want.
 The grant of the French government of 1,000,000 francs toward the expense of bringing distressed French emigrants in the Argentine Republic back to France is sufficiently significant of the expediency of emigration to that country at this time. Mr. Herbert, British secretary of legation at Buenos Ayres, is clearly at one with the French authorities on this point, for he expresses a hope that the flow thither of British emigration may cease for the present.
 The British colonist adds to other causes of failure a special difficulty in acquiring the language of the people. His competitor, the Italian laborer, on the contrary, owing to the similarity of the language, climate and habits of the country with what he has been accustomed to, feels himself comparatively at home on landing, besides finding himself surrounded by a large number of his countrymen.—Paris Cor. London Telegraph.

Vandals in the Adirondacks.
 Visitors from the Chateaugay lakes, Adirondacks, says that the glory of that region of trout and deer has departed. Notwithstanding the liberal stocking that has been done every year, the trout are small and scarce. The miners use giant powder in the spring holes and on the spawning beds, and the hotel keepers are afraid to complain. In addition to this, many of the residents go up the side streams and catch fingerlings by the hundred. This is always fatal to good fishing. As long as the little fish are left undisturbed, the stock is kept up; but going up the little brooks and fishing them out is killing the goose that lays the golden egg.—Forest and Stream.

Voice Figures.
 A coming "fad" or pursuit will be that of voice figures. A book on the subject has been written explaining and illustrating this new discovery of the forms produced by the human voice. At a recent reception in London some glass screens were provided, upon which, after certain preparations, were thrown the figures developed by the voice. These were very exact and well defined and resembled a plant or seaweed. We shall undoubtedly have these exhibitions in New York drawing rooms before another season has passed, as the subject is exciting much attention abroad.—New York Times.

Fire Winds.
 California, from the Mexican frontier to the redwood regions of Mendocino county, has been visited by a sirocco of the ultra Mediterranean sort. In Fresno, the much advertised paradise of raisin culture and co-operative communities, the heat rose to 114 degs. in the shade; in Nagra to 110 degs.; in Sonoma to 109; in Healdsburg (on the Russian river, far north of San Francisco) to 108 degs. San Francisco itself escaped, thanks to the irrepressible counter currents of sea winds, but Sacramento, a little further inland, thought itself lucky to get off with 106.—Philadelphia Times.

The Ball Thrower in Bronze.
 The baseball player has long been immortalized in the public prints, but it remained for Douglas Tilden, a deaf mute sculptor of San Francisco, to immortalize him in bronze. Not long ago he completed a handsome statue entitled "The Ball Thrower," and presented it to the city of San Francisco. The figure is of life size and is mounted upon a red granite base and a Montone sandstone pedestal four feet high. The site of the statue is south of the Garfield monument in San Francisco's park.—Bloomington Eye.

Recent statistics show the estimated population of the world to be 1,487,000,000, an increase of 8 per cent in ten years. Europe is the most thickly settled, having a population of 380,200,000, or 101 persons to the square mile. North America has 99,200,000, or fourteen to the square mile, an increase of 20 per cent in the past decade.
