AFFAIRS ABOUT TOWN.

C. H. Rose and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Lyman have recently bought bicycles.

Colonel and Mrs. F. W. Cheney, their three daughters and one son are at the World's Fair.

Mrs. Lottie Norton, daughter of Mr. D. C. Hall, is home for an extended visit from Detroit, Mich.

Everybody stops to see the life-size photograph of a negro baby, clad only in a string of beads in Rose's window.

The new time table went into effect on the New England road last Monday. No changes are made in trains at this station.

Dr. G. M. Griswold will leave with Mr. Childs on Monday for Chicago to attend the World's Fair, returning Saturday July 1st.

A party of croquet enthusiasts at this end of the town have rigged electric lights over the croquet grounds, and play the game evenings.

Mr. Goddard of the Hartford Theological Seminary preached at the Center church last Sunday. Professor Merriam of the same place is expected to fill the pulpit tomorrow.

Sherwood Cheney, son of Mr. John S. Cheney, left for West Point Wednesday to begin his military course. A number of his young friends united in a farewell party at his home last Saturday night.

We are indebted to Joseph Albiston for a liberal sample of fine Babach strawberries grown on his place. Mr. Albiston has made fruit raising a fine art, and the product of his vines is unexcelled.

Mrs. Fitz Gerald, state organizer of juvenile temperance work, will meet the children to form a Loyal Legion at the North Methodist church this afternoon at three o'clock and all the children are invited to attend.

The marriage of Prospecting Agent Charles R. Hathaway to Miss Olive Deitcher will take place at the bride's home on Prospect street next Tuesday, June 20. It will be a quiet affair, only the relatives and intimate friends being present.

C. W. Allen is about to make extensive repairs in the building occupied by Ackley & Hollister's store. A stairway will be cut through to the second floor, and Messrs. Ackley & Hollister will use the entire building in their rapidly increasing grocery business.

The ladies of the Center church will hold their annual strawberry festival at the town hall next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Russell's famous strawberry shortcake will be served and cold meats, strawberries and cream, ice cream and cake, and other light refreshments will be provided.

The Manchester Wheel club made a "hard times" parade to South Manchester Thursday night. The uniform consisted of overalls, jumpers, and old hats. H. R. Sedgwick captained the company and was conspicuous in an old plug hat. The grotesque procession attracted a good deal of attention.

The ladies of the North Methodist church will hold a strawberry festival next Tuesday evening on the lawn west of the church. A musical entertainment will be furnished by the members of the Epworth League during the evening. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody to be present. Admission ten cents. If stormy it will be held on the first fair evening.

Principal L. Z. Collins, of the South school, will close his labors at the school this term. It is understood that he will be succeeded by some one who is thoroughly in sympathy with the work of the normal school which now has a large place in the South school. Mr. Collins has been principal of the South school for the last five years, during which time many improvements have been introduced, the school building has been greatly enlarged and the number of pupils has correspondingly increased.

It is said there are half a dozen cases of scarlet fever within a short distance of the armory. The persistence with which this disease appears in South Manchester demands prompt investigation and energetic action on the part of the board of health. South Manchester ought to be a healthy place, but it is a sad fact that scarlet and typhoid fevers have been prevalent to an alarming extent for the last 15 months. There is a cause for this and it is the duty of the board of health to find this cause and remove it.

Mr. Norton with his brother Noah went to Thomaston to work for the Seth Thomas clock company and has lived there ever since. He is now 79 years old and though not actively engaged in business he is well preserved and in full possession of his faculties.

Work has begun on the repairs to Company G's armory.

A divorce has been granted by the superior court to Edna Hollister of Clantonbury from Wesley Hollister of Manchester.

Five hundred and thirty dogs have been licensed so far this year. Last year 584 dogs were registered, and the town authorities are looking for the other 54. Several persons have already paid fines for keeping unlicensed dogs.

L. A. Weil has bought the interest of Mrs. M. H. Creelman in the Manchester Beef company. The partners now are Mr. Weil and F. S. Weed. Mr. Weil is president and Mr. Weil secretary and treasurer of the company.

Mrs. James Reddan, of New Haven formerly a Miss Mary Malley, of this town, died at the home of her mother on Lydall street Tuesday morning, aged 85. The funeral was held Thursday and the body was taken to New Haven for burial.

Tiffany, the New York Jeweler, is preparing a genealogical work on the Tiffany family and has enlisted the aid of C. Tiffany, the South Manchester jeweler in completing the genealogy of the Connecticut branch. The family is one of the oldest in Connecticut and Mr. Tiffany, in pursuing his investigations in Litchfield county, has found many interesting papers and relics.

The first of a series of morning prayer meetings at the North Methodist church will be conducted tomorrow morning at ten o'clock by W. E. Lydall. In connection with the prayer meeting, Mr. Tregaskis will deliver his illustrated sermon on Bacchus one week. Presiding Elder Tirrell will hold a meeting of the official board at the North Methodist church at a quarter to eight next Wednesday evening.

W. J. Flood, editor of the News, will have the sympathy of the community in the loss of his daughter Josephine. She died suddenly Thursday morning of scarlet fever. Her twin brother was just recovering from a severe attack of scarlet fever when, last Monday morning, she was taken sick. She did not appear seriously ill, however, until Wednesday and then the disease became violent. She was buried Thursday afternoon. She was 12 years old.

Interesting children's day services were held at both the North and South Methodist churches last Sunday evening. The exercises entitled "Columbus's Discoveries" was used at both churches, and was in both instances interpreted in a careful and painstaking manner. Fine music was a feature at both churches. Miss Ella Martin, of Rockville, violinist, assisted at the North Methodist church and at the South church the Misses Edna and Maytie Case played as an organ duet a Fantasia by Adolph Hesse.

Stephen Dunn will leave the employ of C. H. Rose tonight and after a vacation of two weeks will go to Hanover, N. H. to begin a course of medicine at Dartmouth college. Young Mr. Dunn has been a clerk at Rose's pharmacy for the last five years. He has been devoted to his work, and has not only acquired a thorough knowledge of drugs and medicines which will be of great assistance to him in his studies, but has also made many friends among the customers of the store. He will be succeeded by Richard Robb, of Hartford, formerly of South Manchester.

DISPOSAL OF GARBAGE.

Town Votes to Buy Dumping Ground--Enlargement of East Cemetery.

The first step toward providing means for the disposal of the town's garbage was taken at a special town meeting last Wednesday afternoon. The action was good as far as it went but it did not go far enough, because the call for the meeting did not permit anything further. About thirty voters were present when Selectman Riskey called the meeting to order and James W. Cheney was elected chairman.

B. F. T. Jenney introduced a resolution to the effect that the selectmen be instructed to purchase a suitable place or places for the dumping of rubbish. The question then arose as to what should be considered rubbish. If animal or vegetable matter was to be dumped at the same place as tomato cans, old stove pipes and hoop skirts, the pile would require constant attention to prevent its decomposing and proving a detriment to the health of the surrounding community.

To overcome this objection, the motion was amended to exclude from the dumping ground all decaying matter, but then the question came up what should be done with the vegetable and animal matter which collects in such large quantities in the summer in the vicinity of dwellings in the two large villages of the town. It was shown to be essential that some place be provided for the disposal of this garbage, so after some discussion the amendment was stricken out and the resolution passed as originally offered. The discussion lasted nearly an hour and was participated in by Messrs. B. F. T. Jenney, H. E. Rogers, John Trotter, David Cheney, Horace Cheney, H. G. Cheney, Robert Cheney, R. O. Cheney, W. B. Cheney, and K. D. Cheney. It was apparent from the trend of the discussion that those present favored a systematic collection of the garbage, and although the meeting under the warning could take no action toward this course, it approved the suggestion that the selectmen, if they have authority under the statutes, advertise for bids for the collection of garbage.

A vote was then passed unanimously instructing the selectmen to thoroughly clean up the old dumping places on the highways or land adjoining highways.

The proposition to buy land for the extension of the east cemetery was explained by R. O. Cheney of the selectmen's commission. He said that the calls on the committee for more space were becoming urgent and that the extension of the ground would be absolutely necessary in the near future. He said that a strip of land was now available between the west line of the cemetery and a proposed new road on the Foster farm. The committee had examined this land and found it well adapted for burial purposes and advised its early purchase. It will take some time to grade it and prepare it for cemetery uses and by the time it is done it will be needed.

The plot comprises from ten to twelve acres and will furnish all the room required for a number of years to come. The land could be bought cheaper now than when the locality was built up. Another important advantage of the addition would be that it would permit an entrance from the south side of the cemetery and also provide room for the much needed enlargement of the entrance accommodations on the Center street side.

It was voted that a committee of three take the matter under consideration and report at the October town meeting with a plot of the property and the price asked for it.

F. H. Norton has left the employ of the Mather Electric company and has opened a bicycle repair shop in the building erected for that purpose adjoining his house on Hilliard street. His shop is equipped with all necessary tools and an electric motor for power. Mr. Norton is a machinist of long experience and already has a reputation for high grade work. He is also an experienced wheelman and understands all about a bicycle. Besides doing bicycle repairing he will do all kinds of light machine work.
