KILLED IN BOSTON.

Bert Risley, a Manchester Man Run Over By His Own Team—Body Badly Mutilated—

The body of Bert Risley, who was accidentally killed in Boston Wednesday, was brought to the Buckland cemetery yesterday and placed in the vault. He was a teamster and was carting a load of about three tons of tar. He was taken with heart failure and fell from his wagon which passed over him, killing him instantly. The body was badly mutilated. He was unmarried. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Risley, who until about ten years ago lived in Buckland. The family moved from here to New Britain where they now live. Bert Risley was about 27 years old. His father is a Grand Army man and belongs to Drake Post. The funeral services were held at two o'clock this afternoon. Rev. Mr. Taylor, of the North Methodist church officiated.

Bulldog's Savage Attack.

James Corder, one of the representatives of the Prudential Insurance Company, was savagely attacked by a bulldog belonging to Deputy Sheriff George H. Hall yesterday, and but for the intervention of his own canine would undoubtedly have been badly mauled. Mr. Corder was riding his bicycle down Main street from the Center and was opposite the lower end of the park when the bulldog espied him and rushed to the attack. Mr. Corder dismounted and attempted to drive the dog away, but as soon as he mounted the wheel again the bulldog renewed the attack. The dog seized Mr. Corder's left leg and bit him in several places, finally dismounting him from his wheel. About this time the insurance man's own canine jumped into the fray, and caused a diversion in its owner's favor. The bulldog turned on the other dog and chased it down the road. This gave Mr. Corder an opportunity to escape and he sought refuge in Dr. Gillam's office. The doctor cauterized Mr. Corder's wounds.

HOME SITES AT AUCTION.

Many Braved Rain at First Day's Sale to Buy Lots—and Get Presents.

It took more than a fitful, drizzling rain like that of yesterday afternoon to keep people away from the auction sale of building lots at Orford Park. Doubtless the weather did keep a great many away but the band played inspiring music and nearly a hundred, fully half of them women, gathered at the park and stood under their umbrellas; listened to the music; participated in the presents that were given away and incidentally bought several lots, thereby bringing encouragement to the hearts of the promoters of the sale.

It was anything but an auspicious day for a sale but it is evident that some people stand ready to buy. The price, $175 each, for the first three lots sold, was considered fairly cheap for lots desirably located as these are. Seven lots were sold during the afternoon. The sale was continued today and Saturday and Monday are expected to be big days. The sales will commence each day at two o'clock and there are plenty of presents for distribution each afternoon.

Three of the four new houses at Orford Park are already occupied. The fourth is not yet completed. The lots are dug for three more houses. There are more in prospect so it is evident that Orford Park is seen to come a well populated residence.

Temple Chapter Entertained.

About twenty-five members of Temple Chapter, O. E. S., went to East Hartford Wednesday evening as the guests of the East Hartford lodge. Members of Windsor Chapter, of Ivanhoe Chapter, of Hartford, and fourteen grand officers were present. A bounteous supper was served the visitors at 6.30, about 200 enjoying the feast. After supper three candidates were initiated by the East Hartford Chapter. Light refreshments were served at the close of the degree work, and after a pleasant social time the guests departed for home, all having spent a very pleasant evening.

ORFORD PARK LAND SALE A HUGE SUCCESS!

Sale Now in Progress; Continuing Tomorrow, Saturday, and Monday, Decoration Day at 2 p. m. on the Grounds

MR. RENT PAYER

What are you going to do about it? Are you going to be contented to pile up a roll of rent receipts, enriching the landlord and depriving yourself and family of the greatest pleasure in life? The knowledge that you own something in the world that brings comfort and happiness to you and yours. Own your own home and be somebody. We may not have just the kind of property at Orford Park to please you, but we know we have one of the finest tracts of building land that has ever been offered to the public, either at private or public sale. If you attend our sale tomorrow or Monday you will surely agree with us, and if you cannot buy you will certainly wish that you could.

The Success of Orford Park is Assured

For the past several years we have been offering building lots to some of the best business men in Manchester. Some are building already, others are planning to do so, and we are helping them in every way possible. We will make the terms of purchase easy. Our mission is to help home builders. Can't we help you?

Remember You Must Act NOW Only Two More Days to Decide.

Saturday, May 29th, Monday, Decoration Day, May 31st.

At 2 p. m. on the Grounds.

EASY TERMS! EASY TERMS! WARRANTEE DEEDS. SALE RAIN OR SHINE.

SUCCESSFUL SALE.

It is an old saying and a true one, "That nothing succeeds like success." The success of our sale last year was a revelation to the skeptics that we meet on every hand, but the sale now in progress has been more so. It is very easy to interest the public when we give value for money, and certainly everybody has been interested in our Orford Park auction. The crowds attending prove it and certainly the buyers of lots prove that good real estate is yet saleable in Manchester. Everybody is surprised at the progress made in one short year. You will be surprised at the progress made in the next few years. Don't put off the visit until Monday, but come tomorrow, Saturday, and secure one of the few remaining lots. You do not have to wait for improvements, they have already arrived.

The Investment of a Few Dollars Now

May mean a good deal to you later on. Real estate is one of the finest and safest investments that you can possibly hold. It cannot get away from you. Bank failures, embezzlements and trickery do not affect your title, and if the industries of the country continue to grow, as they are bound to do, investments in real estate will continue to double and triple. Some of the largest fortunes in America were founded from small investments in suburban real estate. The same chances are here today. It is no use having opportunities if you do not grasp them. If you would buy land for a home, investment or speculation you cannot do better than invest your money at Orford Park.

People going to the Auction Sale should get off the cars at McKee Street. Orford Park is about three minutes' walk South. We have about one hundred presents left and they will be given away FREE, whether you buy a lot or not. We want you to become familiar with Orford Park. It pays us to pay you to do so.

MRS. WILLIAMS TO GET $500.

New Britain Claimant to H. Clay Carver's Estate Agrees to Compromise.

The postponed hearing on the claim of Mrs. William Williams, of New Britain on the intestate estate of the late H. Clay Carver, of Manchester for the sum of $2,700 for service rendered was held as scheduled before the commissioners, Attorney W. S. Hyde and John M. Williams, in the Probate Court Wednesday forenoon. Attorney Benjamin W. Alling, of the law firm of Klett & Alling, of New Britain, represented Mrs. Williams, who was present at the hearing with her husband. Judge H. O. Bowers represented the heirs of the estate.

It will be remembered that it was stated at the original hearing on May 20 that Mrs. Williams formerly lived in the Carver family and was to all intent and purposes a member of the family. She worked in the mill and turned her wages in toward the support of the family. Mr. Carver promised to make her his heir, but in the end forgot to make a will. He left behind a bank account of $1,350 and his nearest relatives are cousins.

While it was generally admitted by the witnesses that Mr. Carver had promised to leave his money to Mrs. Williams, whose maiden name was Celia Case, the evidence was not of the strongest to support the contention, and as several of the heirs felt that they should be recognized in the distribution of the estate, Judge Bowers proposed that the matter should be compromised and a settlement made without a contest. This was agreeable to Attorney Alling and it was finally decided that Mrs. Williams should receive $500 as her share of the estate.

Entertainment by Hartford Talent.

An entertainment will be given by Hartford talent in the parish hall of the Center Congregational church Thursday evening, June 10, under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor society. Those who will appear on the program are: Miss Clara M. Coe, reader; William J. Carroll, tenor; and Wyllys B. Waterman, pianist, all of whom are well known to Manchester audiences. At the conclusion of the program there will be a sale of ice cream, cake and home made candies. Tickets will be on sale after tomorrow noon at F. W. Mills's store and by members of the society.

LAUREL PARK OPEN TOMORROW

Music for Dancing by Sutherland's Foot Guard Orchestra.

Laurel Park will open for the season tomorrow with dancing at the pavilion both afternoon and evening to the music of Sutherland's Foot Guard orchestra. It is good music; the kind that makes dancing a double pleasure; the kind that almost compels one to dance.

It has been the custom to open the park on Memorial Day, but as it falls this year on Sunday, the management decided to start a day earlier. Everything at the park is in trim and ready for visitors who will find this favorite breathing spot as attractive as ever.

The first band concert will be given by the Foot Guard Band Sunday afternoon beginning at 3.30 and on Memorial Day the orchestra will play for dancing afternoon and evening.

A Call for Cultivated Flowers.

South Manchester, Conn., May 25, 1909.

To the Editor of The Manchester Herald:

Owing to the backward condition of the season, it is very apparent that there is to be a scarcity of wild flowers for Memorial Day. For this reason I desire through the use of the columns of your paper, to appeal to our citizens and townspeople that they make a special effort to furnish a generous and adequate supply of cultivated flowers for the use of Drake Post, No. 4, G. A. R., for decorating the graves of our soldier dead. Let us render so far as we can, this humble service in honor of our heroic and honored dead and exemplify it by a profusion of nature's beautiful gifts to man.

Contributions of flowers may be sent to Balch & Brown's store, Manchester, and Cheney Hall on Monday forenoon. Yours very truly, Emil L. G. Hohenthal, Chairman of Citizens' Committee.

The pastors of Protestant churches in Paterson, N. J., have decided not to officiate at funeral services on Sundays except in cases of death from contagious diseases.

It is announced that the time schedule for first-class mail between New York and Seattle has been cut to four days. Hereafter a letter mailed in New York at noon Sunday may be delivered in Seattle, Washington, the following Thursday afternoon.

POVERTY SOCIAL.

Prizes Awarded to the Most Poverty Stricken Looking Guests.

The poverty social and dance given by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the A. O. H. in Cheney hall Tuesday evening was attended by about 200 people, all of whom spent a most enjoyable evening. The object of the social was to have the guests dress as poorly as possible and a large number complied with the conditions. The most poverty stricken looking girl was Miss Carrie Buzzell who received a prize of a lady's belt, and John McCann received a pair of overalls for being the most forlorn looking man.

The Peerless orchestra furnished music for the dancing and Professor C. Foley prompted. Ice cream and cake were on sale in the lower hall during the evening.

FESTIVAL AT THE GREEN.

Military Band Breaks Up the Entertainment.

The ice cream and cake festival and entertainment given by the Manchester Green Improvement society in Bliss hall Tuesday evening was largely attended and was a success both socially and financially. The program included the following numbers: Singing by chorus, reading by John Jensen, piano solo by Miss Lillian Young, baton swinging by George Fitch, singing by chorus of school children, reading by Richard Pitkin.

Mr. Pitkin responded to an encore but was interrupted by the South Manchester military band which was out on parade advertising E. J. Holl's auction sale at Orford Park. Evidently a band at the Green is a novelty for the people all rushed to the door and windows to hear the music and Mr. Pitkin's encore remained unfinished.

The debate of the automobile schedule of the Aldrich tariff bill gave the Senators a chance to air characteristic rhetoric. Thus, the gentleman from Idaho, Mr. Heyburn, not only described motor cars with more or less inaccuracy as "snorting steam machines," but added that those who ride in them "shout with glee as they see the farmers flying through the air." Words cannot improve upon that. Waterbury American.

BOLTON.

Fred J. Olds, tax collector, will be at the postoffice at Bolton Center Thursday, June 10th from ten a. m. to four p. m., at his residence in Belknap Friday, June 11th from ten a. m. to four p. m. and at the latter place June 15th from nine a. m. to five p. m. for the purpose of receiving payment on taxes due town of Bolton.

Sherman Hutchinson, aged 53, died Tuesday evening at the home of his mother, Mrs. Maryette Hutchinson. The funeral was held at one o'clock Thursday afternoon, after which the body was taken to Gilead for burial in the family lot.

Mrs. Mary Anthony, of Springfield, was in town the middle of the week.

The Ladies' Aid Society met with Mrs. C. M. Parry yesterday afternoon. Miss Helen M. Dewey, of Torrington, who is teaching in Columbia, is the guest of the Misses White for a few days.

Edward Cook, of Hartford, is at Walter E. Howe's.

The young man, John Popka, who stole $250 from his employer, Fred Burnham, of Hebron, last Monday morning, was tried before Judge Sackett, of Andover Tuesday. Popka pleaded guilty and was bound over to the superior court under $500 bonds, which he could not furnish. He was taken to the Tolland jail.

John A. Conklin, of Hartford, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Charles F. Sumner.

The Connecticut board of health, showing that by its carefully compiled tables tuberculosis has decreased 25 per cent. in this state since 1889, specifically says that the reduction is due to better modes of living and to a more general knowledge of its infectious character. It makes no mention of milk from tuberculous cows as a cause or of pasteurized milk a cure of the disease. Without in the least discrediting Mr. Straus it may be observed that his opinions are universally shared, at least not with his intensity. —New Haven Register.

There are many in this state who are pleased by the action of the general assembly in appointing a committee to investigate the state board of education. There have been so many insinuations indulged in regarding the conduct of the board and so many complimentary things said, both in and out of the legislature, that it is about time the facts in the case were definitely known. —New London Day.

convenience; generous almost to a fault in his judgment of men as well as in philanthropics and charities; an ideal family man; a treasured friend; an optimist of optimists—such was he. As the business man his every transaction was exemplary. He was of the old school of manufacturers, yet he always saw the great wisdom of utilizing the very newest appliances which the busy minds of inventors might evolve for shortening or bettering the making of silk, which was his business.

(Dr. Nathan Mayer, Sixteenth Regiment, in Hartford Times.)

There is regret and sorrow; there can be no mourning over the close of such a sane, conscientious, worthy and nobly inspired life as Colonel Frank Cheney's. He served his country with utter devotion and at the high sacrifice of life in war; he served his vocation—a great industry—his town, and his state with as great a devotion, and sometimes with as much personal sacrifice in place. And for the long years he has been a pillar of commercial honor, political right doing, and social benevolence. The crisp good sense and good nature of his personal conduct, his broad charity of view and action, and the noble strain that inspired his enterprises made him a stay and support to the various circles commercial, military and social that surrounded him. He was a New England gentleman and large hearted American of the highest type, whose life remains a quickening impulse after he has passed away.

"THE SWEET FAMILY."

Successfully Presented by Cast of Young Ladies in St. Mary's Parish House.

St. Mary's parish house was filled to its capacity Tuesday evening when "The Sweet Family," a one act comic sketch, was presented by a cast of young ladies. The cast included Ma Sweet and her seven accomplished daughters. Miss Margaret Hyde, as Ma Sweet, explained that although her husband was a poor man he had managed to give his daughters a good education, and since his death they had earned their living by traveling as a company giving entertainments. As master of ceremonies she then introduced her daughters and they exhibited their skill as singers, musicians, elocutionists and composers.

The whole production was really a burlesque, the selections all being given in as ludicrous a manner as possible, and in just the opposite way one would expect, after hearing the mother tell of her daughters' accomplishments. Those taking part were: The Misses Margaret Hyde, Elizabeth Hyde, Anna Hyde, Annie I. Smith, Louise Schendel, Caroline Bendeson, Edith L. Walsh and Alice Dillon.

In addition to the sketch there were piano solos by Miss Christine Engel and Miss May Fletcher and vocal solos by Miss Sadie McColium and Irene Ratenberg. At the close of the program ice cream and cake were served in the lower hall.

Funeral of James Doyle.

The funeral of James Doyle, whose death was noted in our last issue, was largely attended from St. Bridget's church yesterday morning. Court Nutmeg, Foresters of America, of which the deceased was a past ranger, turned out in a body. The members of St. Mary's T. A. B. turned out also and there were delegations from Campbell Council, K. of C., and Wapping Grange. The members of the different organizations met at the home of the deceased and headed the funeral procession to the church. The Foresters wore their regalia. Rev. F. J. Murphy officiated at the church services. The church was filled with the relatives and friends of the deceased. The bearers were: Frank Balkner and Patrick G. Hayes, representing the Knights of Columbus; R. E. Bryan and John P. O'Connor, the Foresters and John Gill and George Bryan the T. A. B. society. After the services at the church the procession reformed and marched to St. Bridget's cemetery.

The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful. Among them were a large pillow from his three brothers as well as a pillow bearing the words "At Rest" from the family. J. P. O'Connor, his partner in business, sent a pillow, the Misses Sullivan, a bouquet of carnations, Miss Elizabeth Shea, carnations, the Wapping Grange a pillow, Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Doyle, a cross of roses, St. Mary's T. A. B. society, a standing cross, Foresters, a pillow, Knights of Columbus, a large anchor, George and Edward Bryan, bouquet of roses, Mrs. Touhey and family, a wreath.

THE POSTOFFICE.

It Seemed to Be Located in a Rather Lonely Place.

A veteran stagecoach driver in Idaho used to tell of an incident that happened when he drove the stage over to Boise City from the Union Pacific line. He had on one trip only a single passenger, a little tenderfoot of a New England schoolma'am going to take charge of a school in that town. She had never before been farther from Boston than the Hudson river. Along about dusk one evening as she sat on the box by the driver and the team wound its way around the shoulder of a bleak mountain a highwayman suddenly stepped into the middle of the road and held up his hand. A cocked rifle rested easily in the hollow of his arm and its muzzle pointed straight at the driver's head. He quickly pulled up.

"Throw over Wells-Fargo's box!" said the man with the gun.

The driver reached down and fung the box into the road; then he started to gather up the reins.

"Hold on!" the other cried impatiently. "Where's the mail bag? Don't you think I want that?"

For reply the driver swiftly kicked it overboard.

"All right," said the man on the ground in affable tone; "you can drive on now."

For half a mile they rolled along in silence, schoolma'am and driver. The former seemed to be in deep study. At last, turning to the driver, she said, "I don't know anything about the west, of course, but that certainly does seem to be an awfully lonesome place to have a postoffice."—Washington Post.

A Useless Implement.

Aunt Ann Arkwright, the bustling spouse of Uncle Joshua Arkwright, proudly showed him a silver implement which a friend had given her as a birthday present. It was shaped something like a spatula, but broadened considerably toward the handle.

Uncle Joshua inspected it with some curiosity.

"What is it?" he asked.

"Haven't you any idea?" she said.

"No, not the least in the world."

"Well," said Aunt Ann, "it's a pie knife."

Uncle Joshua picked it up, inspected it critically and laid it down again.

"I haven't any use for it," he said, "as far as I'm concerned. It's too wide. I couldn't eat pie with it 'thout cutting my mouth."—Youth's Companion.

Dyed Articles.

In dyeing at home amateurs often make the mistake of putting the dyed article through the wringer, possibly to avoid staining the hands for one reason or perhaps hoping to dry the garment more quickly. This, however, should never be done, for the creases so formed are most obstinate and, in fact, often only disappear with wear, despite all pressing. Dyed articles should be squeezed from the bath and hung out of doors to dry.

HUNTER-BRADFORD PLAYERS.

"Salomy Jane" Greeted by Big Audiences—Mummy and Humming Bird Next Week.

The popularity of "Salomy Jane," the offering of the Hunter-Bradford Players at the Parsons Theater this week, is proven by the fact that the audiences have been the largest of the season. The Bret Harte story, so picturesquely garbed in an elaborate scenic production, is a beautiful stage work and the Players are scoring their greatest hit of the season. There will be three more performances of the play, this evening and tomorrow afternoon and evening.

The Players will return to straight comedy next week, presenting "The Mummy and the Humming Bird," and Empire Theater (New York) success that was used a few seasons ago with a cast of exceptional strength that included John Drew, Lionel Barrymore, Guy Standing and Margaret Dale.

Lionel Barrymore, it will be remembered, made a hit as Guiseppe, a young Italian who came to a strange country in search of his sister. This role will be acted next week by Edmond Elton, who, it is said, has had the services of two Italians in this city during the week in order to acquire the proper dialect for his broken English lines in the comedy. On account of the holiday next Monday a special matinee will be given and the usual matinees are scheduled for Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

ANOTHER VETERAN

OF THE 16TH.

Huber Bushnell, of Berlin, a Survivor of Andersonville, Died Wednesday Night.

In strange coincidence with the death of Colonel Cheney comes the death of Comrade Huber Bushnell, of Berlin, a veteran of the 16th (Colonel Cheney's regiment) and a survivor of Andersonville. Mr. Bushnell was a prosperous Berlin farmer and was deputy judge of the Berlin Town Court.

Concerning him The New Britain Herald prints the following:

Mr. Bushnell's career is one that any man should be proud to claim. He was 66 years of age and was born in Barkhamstead, May 1, 1833, the son of Hiram and Beulah Case Bushnell. When yet a small boy the family moved to Berlin, where they remained until 1859.

Shortly after the war broke out he came back to this town and enlisted in Company K, Sixteenth Regiment, with his schoolmates. A singular occurrence in connection with this regiment is that one of its leaders, Colonel Frank W. Cheney, passed away Wednesday afternoon at his home in South Manchester. Company K was engaged in active fighting but a short time, it being captured at Plymouth in 1864.

The soldiers were confined for ten months in Andersonville prison and but very few of the old Berlin boys ever returned. The hardships endured in those ten months by Mr. Bushnell can only be imagined. When he enlisted Mr. Bushnell was a strong, healthy young man weighing over one hundred and eighty pounds, and when he was set free in March, 1865, his family hardly recognized him, he having lost until he weighed less than a hundred.

The deceased is survived by a wife and son, Arthur H., baggage master at the Berlin station, two grandchildren, Lucius and Gertrude, and a stepdaughter, Mrs. William H. Stowe, of Middletown. He also leaves a sister, Mrs. Ellen M. Wright, of Hartford, and a brother, Charles F. Bushnell, editor of The Berlin Record.

The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon, and will be in charge of Stanley Post. A short service will be held at the home at 1.30 and ceremonies at the church at two. The pall bearers will be Postmaster Henry Porter, Eli Clark, and William Luby, of Berlin, and Julius O. Deming, Loren D. Penfield and William P. Sternberg, of New Britain. Rev. S. A. TAFT ANGERED AT "RACY" PLAY

President Leaves Theater With Sister-in-law.

FIRST ACT PROVES ENOUGH

Nation's Chief Executive Disgusted With Piece Which Depicts Scenes on the Great White Way and in Which Young Woman is Represented as Going to Opium Dens and Other Such Places — Senator Knox Also Shows His Disapproval.

Washington, May 28.—President Taft and his sister-in-law walked out of a theater here because he disapproved of the character of the play that was being produced. He said that he was disgusted with the performance.

The play was "The Revelers," written by Charles Richman and described as a comedy in four acts.

With the president in his box were Mrs. Louis Moore of Cincinnati, who is Mrs. Taft's sister, and Captain Archibald W. Butt, the president's military aid. They also strongly disapproved of the play.

President Shows Indignation. The show had not proceeded far before a look of indignation came over the president's face, and it was evident that he did not approve of the "racy" character of the lines and action. Before the end of the first act the president, with an expression of disgust, abruptly left the theater.

Secretary Knox, who likes the theater, saw an act of the play and also left the theater in a hurry.

Scenes in Questionable Taste. "The Revelers" depicts scenes along the Great White Way. The first act is a scene in a house of questionable repute, where Jack Randolph, a wild Bohemian, places Dorothy Dean, with whom he is in love, for safe keeping.

As the play progresses Dorothy goes to opium dens and other such places with people whom a nice girl should not know.

Mr. Taft and his sister-in-law saw nothing amusing, interesting or instructive in the depiction of typical scenes in a house of bad character.

Manager Has No Explanation. Manager Taylor of the theater admitted that Mr. Taft and those with him had gone away during the first act, but he said that he did not know why they had left.

Manager Marburg of the Shuberts had no explanation to offer of the action of the president. He said frankly that the play was "foxy" and that it might shock some people. Mr. Marburg intimated that the police had suggested certain changes, which had been made, but the play was still very racy.

FLEEING TAX CLERK CAUGHT

Said to Have Confessed Share in $100,000 Embezzlement.

Buffalo, May 28.—Samuel W. Hofbeins, the fugitive tax clerk in the Erie county treasurer's office, has been arrested at Gladwin, Mich., on a charge of being implicated with Cashier Weed in the embezzlement of $100,000 of county funds.

County Treasurer Fry says both men confessed their guilt to him.

HASKELL ACCUSED AGAIN OF FRAUDS.

Oklahoma's Governor Says He Is Victim of Injustice.

Tulsa, Okla., May 28.—Indictments charging fraud in the Muskogee town lot cases were returned by the United States grand jury against Governor Charles N. Haskell and five of his associates.

The accused men are charged with obtaining titles from the government to town lots in Muskogee by illegal methods. It is the second indictment against Haskell. The governor in discussing the indictment said:

"As a result of four government attorneys and an army of secret service men surrounding the grand jury and limiting the testimony to just what suited them indictments have been secured against me. I am the victim of injustice, as there has been no violation of the law in any particular.

"The only embarrassment to me is that many witnesses must be brought from a great distance, resulting in expense which I have not the means to bear. However, my friends, including many Republicans, have generously shared my expense up to date."

DENIAL BY CARUSO.

No Operation to Be Performed on Famous Singer's Throat.

Milan, May 28.—Caruso this afternoon denied that he had had or intended to have an operation on his larynx. "It is true," the tenor said, "that I've been to see a throat specialist for five minutes. Probably I'll go again, as I want to take care of my voice. All I require is a few months' rest."

WE MAY HAVE TO CHECK CUBA AGAIN

Present State of Island Is Unsatisfactory.

GOMEZ MAKING CASH FLY

Financial Transactions of His Government Making Washington Sit Up and Take Notice—Budget Calls For More Money Than Government Can Raise — Foreign Creditors Expected to Turn to Us For Satisfaction.

Washington, May 28.—Information from an authoritative source has reached President Taft and Secretary Knox in showing a serious condition of affairs in Cuba and portending a situation that may easily demand another intervention.

It seems that the new Cuban government is in a fair way to make ducks and drakes of the finances of the island and precipitate national bankruptcy.

In the short time that the Gomez government has been in power there have already been several indications of the way in which it enjoys spending money without much consideration of the means of raising it. The total revenues of the island will hardly be more than $26,000,000, but the budget now in the hands of the administration calls for expenditures of more than $33,000,000.

Paying Trouble Makers to Quit.

A favorite way of getting rid of a man who is in a position to embarrass President Gomez is to give him a liberal sum of money and send him out of the country. Thus Loymas del Castillo, who was one of the leaders of the famous "insurrectionary army" of 1906, has been appointed special ambassador to all of South America and packed off with $40,000 to entertain the presidents of the continental republics.

Meanwhile the island treasury is suffering from an extraordinary stringency. The government has made some small effort to supply funds, but its principal endeavors have consisted of the restoration of the lottery and of cockfighting. There is also pending in congress a bill to revive bullfighting.

While this is going on American contractors who have claims against the Cuban government are unable to get their money. Work on the sewer and paving contract has been suspended for lack of funds, and there is no indication when it will be possible to resume them.

Washington Eye on Havana.

It has been reported to the president that the Gomez administration is so hard pressed that it is endeavoring to raise money by the sale of the Havana arsenal property, through a trade for some water front property which can be disposed of for ready cash. Gomez is also ready to negotiate for concessions, and some very peculiar transactions are reported, in which this government is especially interested.

It is pointed out by those familiar with Cuban affairs that in case the epoch of extravagance is not checked before long a situation will be produced such that the foreign creditors of Cuba will turn to the United States for assistance in securing settlement of their claims, and there will then be nothing for it but another assumption of authority over the island.

TURKEY WANTS THE JEWS.

Aaks People Oppressed in Russia and Roumania to Immigrate.

New York, May 28.—The Jewish Morning Journal received the following dispatch from its correspondent in Constantinople:

"Ahmed Riza, president of the Turkish parliament, visited the haham bashi, the spiritual head of the Jews in Turkey, and on behalf of the Turkish government extended an invitation to the Jews of Russia and Roumania to immigrate to Turkey.

"As proof that Turkey was making the invitation in good faith Ahmed Riza informed the haham bashi that the government will abolish all restrictions against Jewish immigration and, what is still more significant, will confer full citizenship upon Jewish immigrants immediately upon arriving in this country."

MAIL TRAINS RUN IN GEORGIA

Federal Government Takes Hand In Trouble.

NEGROES WIELD SHOVELS

By Request of Postal Officials Railroad on Which White Firemen Are Striking Against Employment of Blacks Resumes Carrying of Letters—Attitude of Georgians In Doubt — More Talk of Arbitrating Dispute.

Atlanta, Ga., May 28.—With the attempt to run mail trains on the Georgia railroad with negro firemen in the face of the strike of the white firemen against the employment of negroes the strike assumes a new phase today.

Whether the striking firemen or sympathizers with their cause will interfere with the running of the mail trains and thus incur the severe penalties attaching to tampering with the carrying of the mails is the question that interests the people of the nation outside of Georgia.

The trains are run by the railroad at the request of the postal authorities.

Negroes in Train Crews.

One train was started out of Augusta for Atlanta, and another started from Atlanta for Augusta. Other mail trains will meet these through trains at Camak for the Macon branch, at Barnett for the Washington branch, at Union Point for Athens and at Union Point for White Plains.

The crews are about half of negro firemen and half of white firemen not members of the brotherhood. The mail clerks are negroes.

Postoffice inspectors accompanied each of the trains sent out. This was done following a conference between George M. Sutton, inspector in charge of the Atlanta division, and United States District Attorney Tate.

Mr. Sutton said it was deemed wise to have experienced inspectors accompany each of the trains for the purpose of making observations, ascertaining the sentiment of the people along the line.

Attitude of Georgians In Doubt.

The gravest concern in this breaking of the ice by the first train run in five days in a community which en masse has supported the racial contention of the strikers is felt here among the men who for forty-eight hours have been continuously working for some solution of the difficulty. Hopefulness that the mail trains will be harbingers of peace prevails, but fears of complications are not concealed.

A second crisis is the fate of arbitration. Charles P. Neill, United States commissioner of labor, has notified General Manager Scott of the railroad that he must make final decision whether he will accept arbitration.

The Georgia Joint Terminal company controls the tracks on which the Georgia railroad enters Atlanta, and the switchmen insist that any agreement to arbitrate must include the terminal company. Three directors control this company, and up to today there has not been a majority of them present in Atlanta to act in concurrence with the Georgia railroad.

Two Important Questions.

The determination to run the mail trains reduced the problem of settlement to two issues—first, in what manner the negro shall be allowed to work, and, second, the interference with mail carrying and its possible result in federal intervention.

The race question, however, is apparently as much to the fore as at the beginning of the strike, and the reports of moral support of the white foremen against the negroes by residents along the road are even more unanimous than at the start of the strike.

TOBACCO UNDER THE BAN.

Presbyterians Declare Church Members Should Abstain From Its Use.

Denver, May 28.—That clergymen and laymen should not use tobacco, but that it is not contrary to the principles of the church for Presbyterian judges to grant saloon licenses, was decided by the general assembly of the Presbyterian church here.

The assembly thus expressed itself in approving the report of the temperance committee. The report commended President Taft and Emperor William for being teetotalers and urged ministers of the church to petition congress to stop interstate shipments of liquors and to prohibit the use of the mails for the distribution of advertisements of liquor.

DEGREE FOR GOVERNOR FORT

Law University Honors Him and He Advises Students.

New York, May 28.—J. Franklin Fort, governor of New Jersey, addressed the graduating class of 1909 of the New York University Law school, Washington square, on "Legal Ethics." Before Governor Fort began his address Chancellor Henry M. MacCracken of the university and the faculty conferred the degree of doctor of laws on the governor.

"Never mingle your client's money with your own. It will save you a lot of trouble," was some of the advice Governor Fort gave to the embryo lawyers.

HUGHES VETOES AUTO BILL.

Refuses to Sign Measure Taking Legal Limit From Speed of Automobiles.

Albany, N. Y., May 28.—Governor Hughes flayed reckless motorists in his memorandum on the assembly bill amending the highway law and doing away with definite speed limits throughout the state. The governor disapproved the bill, which is thereby lost. In his memorandum he says:

"The subject of paramount consideration at this time is protection to life and limb. We are passing through a period of adjustment when the natural hostility of many to new highway conditions is increased by abuse of privilege.

"We should not deprive our large cities of the right to make reasonable traffic regulations to insure the safety and convenience of the public."

The bill provided that a speed of thirty miles an hour should be considered presumptive evidence of reckless driving and lowered the penalties for such offense.

YALE HONOR FOR YOUNG TAFT

He Is "Tapped" For Membership in University Senior Society.

New Haven, Conn., May 28.—Not in years was the interest in tap day at Yale so keen as that of this year in the selections for three senior societies. Robert A. Taft, son of President Taft, Yale '78, went to Skull and Bones, as did his father and his grandfather.

Young Taft is at the head of the junior class in his studies, is president of the Phi Beta Kappa, the City Government club, the Debating union and is treasurer of the Yale Y. M. C. A. His fraternity is Psi Upsilon.

CAR STRIKE IN PHILADELPHIA

Motormen and Conductors Decide to Go Out on Order.

Philadelphia, May 28.—In accordance with resolutions adopted at meetings of street car men in all parts of the city a mass meeting of motormen and conductors was held here early today, and it was decided to strike whenever the executive committee of the National Organization of Street Car Men gives the word.

It was also decided that every effort would be made to protect the company's property from rioters.

EDUCATORS FAVOR FREER DIVORCE LAWS

University Sociologists Give Rules For Both Sexes.

Chicago, May 28.—That freer divorce laws are a necessity is the conclusion by six educators in the current Journal of Sociology, issued by the University of Chicago.

All the writers are scathing in the denunciation of the lax manner of entering wedlock and declare that legal quibbles make matters doubly bad by imposing restrictions on those who have been mistreated.

Professor E. A. Ross, the sociologist of the University of Wisconsin, lays down seven propositions which he advocates as the surest preventives of the divorce evil. These are:

"First.—Instruction of girls in domestic science, housekeeping, etc.

"Second.—Systematic instruction of the youth of both sexes in the ethics and ideals of the marriage relation.

"Third.—Safeguards in custom, perhaps in law, against the marriage of pure women to tainted men.

"Fourth.—Marriage only at place of residence of one of the parties.

"Fifth.—Repudiation of the 'common law marriage.'

"Sixth.—A filing of declaration of intention to marry not less than six weeks before the issuance of a marriage license.

"Seventh.—Where the volume of business warrants it the creation of special divorce tribunals, on which women shall sit as well as men."

Washington, May 28.—President Taft is to be made an honorary member in a blue lodge of Masons in England, a dispensation for which has been granted by the Duke of Connaught, grand master of the grand lodge of England.

The new lodge will be instituted in London and consecrated on June 3. President Taft will send a cable message of appreciation.

Rome, May 28.—While a fireworks display was going on at Sorso, Sardinia, a sky bomb burst prematurely on the ground.

ROYAL MAIDS.

When They Wish to Marry They Must Do the Proposing.

When a reigning queen is to be married she must be the one to broach the subject first to her future consort. The same rule holds good with regard to all royal ladies who marry commoners.

The late Queen Victoria has told how she managed to "put the question" to Prince Albert—how she first showed him Windsor and its beauties and the distant landscape and then said, "All this may be yours." The queen of Holland on a like occasion simply sent a sprig of white heather, begging Prince Henry to look out its meaning in a book of flowers and their meanings. The Duchess of Argyll took the following means of proposing to the Marquis of Lorne: She was about to attend a state ball and gave it out that she would choose as her partner for the first dance the man she intended to honor. She selected the marquis, who subsequently became her husband.

But perhaps the most interesting of all ways chosen was that of the Duchess of Fife. She took the earl, as he then was, to a drawer and showed him its contents. There he saw a number of trifles he had given her at different times, including sprigs of several kinds of flowers, now dead, he had picked for her at various times. He was much impressed at the sight, nor did it require words on her part to make her meaning plain.—London Answers.

ADENOIDS.

The Way These Growths Endanger the Health of Children.

Adenoids are curious little cauliflower-like growths which appear at the junction of the nasal cavity and the pharynx. They are often observed at birth, but they seldom cause discomfort until some months later. Then they interfere with respiration and cause the baby to be restless. It tosses in its sleep and wakens suddenly, crying out as if in distress.

If adenoids are permitted to remain they deform the mouth, teeth, throat, chest and face. At their worst they produce pop eyes and what is called a frog face. They cause mouth breathing, with all its attendant evils. They open the way for a hundred and one ills, from rupture of the eardrum, running from the ears, coughs and tonsillitis to pulmonary tuberculosis.

A slight operation suffices to remove them. The baby suffers little pain and loses little blood. Out they come, and with them the overgrown tonsils that commonly accompany them. If they are suffered to remain they may never be discovered. But it is certain that in one way or another, directly or indirectly, they will cause damage.—Dr. Leonard Keene Hirschberg in Delineator.

Yarmouth's Narrow Street.

Kitty Witches row, Great Yarmouth, can justly claim to be the narrowest street in the world, the entrance at one end being only twenty-nine inches and at the other fifty-six inches. It gives some idea of the width when one mentions that neighbors can shake hands and put out each other's candles across the street! Why these rows have been so constructed has given rise to a good deal of discussion. Some writers give the reason that when there was a very high tide the water might flow through them; others, in the event of an invasion they would prove an excellent means of defense or that the ground plans of the rows were suggested by the fishermen's nets, which, spread on the dunes to dry, had a narrow pathway left between them, which represented the rows. Yarmouth has 145 rows, and their total length exceeds seven miles, Kitty Witches being the most interesting and the narrowest of all.

How Faraday Refused a Pension.

Lord Melbourne once announced to Faraday that it was his pleasing duty to offer him a pension, but, he added, "I suppose all this science is humbug." Faraday at once replied, "If that is your opinion, my lord, I decline the pension," and retired. Melbourne, on meeting some of his colleagues, said: "I have had a strange thing happen. A man has declined a pension." But these gentlemen knew Faraday's position and reputation better than the premier and urged him to rectify the blunder. Faraday was again interviewed, but Melbourne was obliged to retract and apologize before the pension was accepted.

London Snowstorms.

The purifying effect of a snowstorm on city air was shown in London by experiments which demonstrated five times the amount of impurities are active, as on Sundays. It was figured out that nevertheless a single Sunday snowstorm carried to the surface of the county of London 75 tons of dissolved solids, 142 tons of suspended matters, 100 tons of coal, 25 tons of salt and a ton of ammonia.—London Chronicle.

simple in its construction, has a marvelous power of expression. The peculiar genius of the language lies in the system of prefixes and suffixes which enables it to express all possible shades of meaning contained in the root word. e. g. From the root san, we have 52 words; as, sano, health, sana, healthy, sanulo, a healthy person, malsanulo, an unhealthy person, etc. Take an object word, et, diminishes and eg. enlarges or intensifies the meaning contained in the root. Also all root words may grammatically be used as a noun, adjective, verb or adverb.

This system of word building not only gives the language a large variety of shades of meaning but enables the author to express his thoughts more precisely and more forcibly and sometimes more clearly than is possible in the English language. One noted author calls it the language of the heart and soul. The writer has noticed in comments on scripture passages the author says, in substance, "The exact meaning of this clause cannot be expressed in English translation," and then explains by comment just what the original did mean. In every instance it was not difficult to make an Esperanto translation that would have as clearly expressed the exact meaning as explained by the commentator.

END OF SUGAR DEBATE IN SIGHT

Schedule's Adoption Near, Says Aldrich.

INCOME TAX VOTE LATER

Senate Postpones Consideration of the Tariff Bill Amendment Until June 10. Two Votes on Sugar—Washington Discussing Details of Row Between Senator Bailey of Texas and New York Newspaper Man.

Washington, May 28.—With the debate on the sugar schedule almost concluded, the senate resumed today its discussion of the tariff bill. Senator Aldrich predicted that the sugar schedule will be concluded and adopted today. Mr. Bristow has some amendments, but it seems likely that these will be rejected. Mr. Aldrich expects to have some smooth sailing now and make appreciable headway on the bill until the cotton and woolen schedules are reached, when his troubles will again begin.

Income Tax Debate Postponed.
By the decisive vote of 50 to 23 the senate decided to postpone until June 10 the further consideration of the income tax question in connection with the tariff.

Consideration of the sugar schedule was continued, but after two amendments to it were voted upon the senate switched off to a discussion of the possibility of getting a vote on the Bailey income tax amendment. Mr. Bailey presented his argument for a vote in his usual forcible manner, but did not succeed in prevailing upon Senator Aldrich to concede a vote in advance of the tariff schedules.

Lower Sugar Rate Defeated.
The two amendments to the sugar schedule on which votes were taken were those eliminating the Dutch standard test from the tariff schedule and lowering the duty on refined sugar from 1.00 cents per pound to 1.25 cents per pound. Both were defeated, the former by a vote of 39 to 47 and the latter by a vote of 32 to 53.

On the first vote eleven Republicans voted with the Democrats for the amendment, but on the second only five Republicans broke ranks.

It was considered significant that the two Louisiana senators, Messrs. Foster and McEnery, the only senators representing a cane sugar producing state, should have been the only Democrats to vote with the Republicans on the Dutch standard provision, and this was made the more significant because of the fact that for the first time the possibility of a sharp conflict between the cane sugar and beet sugar interests was indicated.

Senator Bailey's "Scrap."
Washington is still buzzing with talk about Senator Bailey's fight with W. S. Manning, a correspondent of the New York Times.

A bitter attack upon the author of the article in the New York Times charging that Senator Bailey had played into the hands of Senator Aldrich by his course in demanding an immediate vote on the income tax amendment and had thus caused a split of the forces supporting such an amendment had been made by Mr. Bailey on the floor of the senate.

Mr. Manning accused Mr. Bailey after the adjournment of the session to inform him that he was inaccurate in suggesting Republican senators as a possible source of inspiration for the article. Hot talk followed, and the two men pummeled each other for a few seconds, until others interfered. The Texas senator is charged with using decidedly unparliamentary epithets in reference to newspaper men in general and Manning in particular.

POLICE COURT.

Thomas Hahn, employed by Forest N. Buckland, of Hillstown, was arrested by Sheriff Hall Wednesday evening on the charge of non-payment of his poll tax. Hahn, who is a German, said speaks very good English, said in court yesterday morning that he did not know what a tax was and asked for time in which to procure a lawyer. He was then asked if he could furnish a bond and he replied that he could not, adding that he did not know what a bond was. When informed that he would have to remain in the lockup if he couldn't furnish a bond he said, "All right, I'll stay." Judge Bowers therefore continued the case until nine o'clock Saturday morning, under $100 bonds.

It is thought by the court officials that Hahn knew more about taxes and bonds than he cared to tell. Sheriff Hall said he understood about them all right Wednesday night.

The management of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad has ceased the practice of suspending operating employees for infractions of rules on the ground that such punishment is an ineffectual means of discipline. Instead, the company has instituted a comprehensive system of records which are at all times accessible to the men, and from which promotions and dismissals from service will be made.—New London Telegraph.

ESPERANTO.

Some Interesting Things About It.

(By Rev. J. H. Sherman.)
Esperanto is a language invented by Zamenoff, a Polish physician, whose heart was deeply moved with pity as he saw, in his native city, people of so many languages struggling to understand each other. Its aim is to furnish a universal language by which all, except the illiterate can converse or correspond with others who do not speak the same native language. Its extensive use and progress is wonderful, when we consider that it is only about twenty-five years since it was seen in print. At first its growth was slow through many hindrances and with the inertia of the whole linguistic world to move, before it could come to the surface so as to be seen and heard by the nations.

About four years ago the first international convention was held and it organized a World's International Congress. Its fourth annual meeting was held last August. There were present 1,600 delegates from forty-one different countries or nations. This country was represented by an army officer who was duly appointed and officially made his report. Other countries also gave it official recognition.

The first organization in this country was in 1905 and last July the Esperanto Association of North America was organized and the May number of its official journal gives names and addresses of over 2,000 members.

There is scarcely any, if any, civilized country on earth without one or more Esperanto journals. There are over sixty in all and besides these, many other journals have a department printed in Esperanto.

It is officially recognized as the international language of correspondence by nearly all international societies and several of them have reviews of world wide circulation, especially devoted to the cause of the society which it represents.

It is thoroughly organized from start to finish. A group is organized for the purpose of learning the language; clubs are organized for entertainment, propagation work, etc.; associations are organized covering more or less territory as the New England Association, the national, continental and finally, all unite in a World's congress.

There are in many cities Esperanto headquarters of information, and Esperanto homes to entertain travelers. A Boston man traveled seven weeks in Russia using and needing no other language than Esperanto.

Although we have been nationally organized less than a year, a Russian traveler could do the same thing in this country. He might not find, as yet, the Esperanto homes as in those countries which have been organized longer, but he could have before him a map of the country and the address of all the clubs and associations, their officials, and of those who hold regular diplomas, and of what grade these diplomas are. These addresses are so distributed and yet so near that he could reach any section of our country.

It is easy to learn. Its entire grammar has only sixteen rules and they have all been printed on a postal card. There are no exceptions to any general rule. Each letter has one sound only, everywhere and always the same. Hence to pronounce a word correctly is to spell it. To write or print a word correctly is to pronounce it. Each syllable has one vowel and only one, with the accent always on the next to the last. It is said to be the only scientific language in the world. In all other languages the grammar must conform to its language. In Esperanto the language must conform to its grammar.

The Esperanto language, although so

Breck's many Manchester admirers are well pleased with the showing he has made with Amherst.

The town of Portland this year will adopt the plan of using potted plants in the place of cut flowers for decorating the graves of veterans on Memorial Day. The idea is a sensible one that should recommend itself to all. It might be adopted in Manchester. Wild flowers are scarce. Potted geraniums and other plants are less expensive than cut flowers and they will remain in bloom all summer while the cut flowers have already begun to wither when they are placed on the grave.

The strawberry festival season will open with the East Glastonbury festival next Thursday evening. This annual event is too well known to most Manchester people to need a recommendation. The suppers have been famous for 25 years and now, as formerly, people come from miles around to regale themselves on the appetizing viands prepared by the East Glastonbury cooks. Not the least of these are the delicious shortcakes, prepared in the church kitchen and served hot. The date selected for the festival this year falls on the full of the moon which promises excellent weather.

The Central Oil and Gas Stove Co., of Gardner, Mass., have invented a new blue flame oil stove which is attracting a great deal of favorable attention. Heretofore the burners, of blue flame stoves have been supplied with oil by means of a valve. This stove is unique in that it has no valve. The oil always remains at a fixed level. By means of an ingeniously applied lever the burners are raised or lowered within the oil level, causing the oil to stand at various heights in the burners, thus regulating the flame. To extinguish the flame the burners are raised high and dry above the oil level.

This simple method of control is said to be a distinct advantage over other stoves as it makes it absolutely safe and extremely economical. They called this stove the Florence Automatic.
