WATCHES

The first consideration in selecting a watch is to get a reliable time keeper. It makes no difference how little you spend for a watch. It is money wasted unless you can depend on it.

one of the chief expenses is the final adjusting and regulating. There are, however, inexpensive watches of real merit. These are constructed along simple lines and are dependable time keepers. Other cheap watches gotten up in a showy way are not worth carrying.

We have learned from years of experience, to distinguish between the good and poor makes, and we will not sell a jeweled watch at any price that we cannot guarantee.

NEW BRITAIN WINS OUT.

Herald of That City Claims Positively That State Board of Education Has Decided to Locate Trade School There.

From general appearances the State Board of Education has sidestepped Manchester in regard to locating one of the state trade schools here. While the board has made no official declaration to that effect the news comes from New Britain that the board has voted to locate a school in the Hardware City and, as it is scarcely probable in view of the clamor from all quarters of the state for one of the schools, that the board will decide to locate both schools in the same county, it may be safely assumed that the other school will grace a locality more distant from New Britain than Manchester.

The Herald of New Britain printed an exclusive story on the front page of its Saturday night edition in which it claimed positively that the board had decided to locate one of the schools there. The following paragraphs are taken from The Herald's story of Saturday's issue:

New Britain wins its fight for one of the trade schools to be established by the state.

The state board of education has voted to establish one of the schools in this city.

The details of the agreement with the public-spirited manufacturers of the city through whose activity the claims of New Britain have been successfully urged are not yet fully worked out but they will be made public as soon as completed. One thing is practically certain, there is no possibility of a hitch and the cause for which there have long been ardent workers in this city is certain to be crowned with success.

In reference to the above a representative of The Herald called up Howell Cheney, who is a new member of the state board of education, yesterday and asked for verification of the report. Mr. Cheney replied that he had no official knowledge of its truth, but had little reason to doubt that the re-

Fire Caused by Explosion of Kerosene Lamp in Boiler Room—Four Story Mill Built of Brick and Wood—Insurance $90,000.

The Vernon Woolen Company's mill at Vernon was totally destroyed by fire early this morning, causing a loss of over one hundred thousand dollars. It was shortly after half past two this morning when the watchman, Robert Koch, rudely awakened M. H. White, treasurer and manager of the concern, and told him the boiler house was on fire. Mr. White's residence is on the hill overlooking the mill property and it took him only a few minutes to get into his clothes and to the scene of the fire. The watchman hurried for help and Mr. White attempted to get out the hose and start the water wheel, but this could not be done. Every effort was made to confine the fire to the boiler room, but the building was so dry that the water had little or no effect in stopping the progress of the flames. When the fire reached the main part of the mill it was evident to Mr. White that the mill was doomed. The entire mill was fitted with the automatic sprinkler system and the water was supplied from a large tank on the hill above the mill. The tank was full and its capacity was 14,000 gallons of water. All of this water was poured on the flames through the sprinklers but it did not check the fire. In three hours the entire mill property was laid low. The only building saved was the road.

The Tramway Company are experiencing more trouble from falling leaves this fall than ever before. The leaves get on the track and cause the cars to slip along the rails. The brakes refuse to work and oftentimes the motorman can't stop his car when he gets the bell. The early morning cars find the greatest trouble. In order to avoid this trouble in part a work car is run from the barn to the limit on the Talcottville flat, to Burpside and to the Green, every morning about five o'clock. This car distributes sand on the rails all the way and is a great help.

POLICE COURT.

Patrick Moonan was fined $10 and sentenced to 30 days in jail for intoxication in the police court Saturday morning. He was arrested by Officer Glenney Friday night near the park at the Center. Moonan had been on the streets the greater part of the evening in an intoxicated condition and was given all kinds of chances to go home. He had a bottle of liquor with him and kept pulling at it until he was too drunk to go home and the officer was at last obliged to lock him up.

Moonan was in court about a month ago and was let off with a fine. He said Saturday morning that he was arrested in Rockville the day after he was in court here and also informed the court that he was found sleeping in the Hoekanum river.

Trio of Exceptionally Good Attractions This Week.

Parsons' theater can boast of a trio of celebrated attractions for this week, offering three stars in plays that are widely contrasted yet have met with phenomenal success everywhere. Tonight that clever character comedienne, May Robson, plays a return engagement in "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary," a comedy that was voted one of the best seen at Parsons' last season. The story concerns a maiden aunt with plenty of money and a nephew, Jack, with a propensity for spending it and getting into expensive trouble. The play is built up around these two and the many interesting developments during Aunt Mary's introduction to the ways of modern society people.

On Wednesday night Manager Parsons announces Mrs. Fiske—her first visit to this city in seven years—in the divine comedy of the slums, "Salvation Nell," a play that stirred the metropolis recently because of its remarkable and truthful pictures of life on the east side of the big city. The play and production are both said to be truly remarkable.

G. F. Huntley, the best comedian that England has ever sent to this country, will be seen Friday and Saturday night and Saturday matinee in the musical comedy, "Kitty Grey." The American production is made by Charles Frohman in every detail, and in addition to Mr. Huntley and an entire company of English actors, Miss Julia Sanderson, who is well known here, plays the title role. Miss Sanderson is a Springfield woman and has been featured in many American musical successes during the past few years.

Funeral of Mrs. Patrick Quinn.

The funeral of Mrs. Patrick Quinn, who died at her home on Union street last Friday afternoon, was largely attended from St. Bridget's church yesterday morning. Rev. F. J. Murphy officiated and the burial was in St. Bridget's cemetery. Mrs. Quinn had lived in this town for over half a century. She had been ill for a long time. She fell and broke her hip some months ago and from this accident she never fully recovered. She is survived by one son, Hugh Quinn, who is employed in Hartford, and three daughters, Mrs. John F. Sheridan, Mrs. John McGinn and Miss Sarah Quinn.

Mrs. Eben Miller and daughter, Helen, who have been living in the Owen place in Buckland, have moved their household goods to New York where they intend to live.

Mary's T. A. B. Society will give its fifth annual barn dance and husking bee carnival in the Armory, Thursday evening, Oct. 23th. Heretofore the Klub has given this annual barn dance at the north end, but the attendance at former dances has been so large as to crowd the hall, thus making it uncomfortable to dance, and in order to eliminate this trouble, the committee thought it advisable this year, to give the dance in the Armory at the south end, thus assuring all who attend, plenty of room to dance.

In keeping with its annual custom, the Klub will offer special and novel attractions, which will be announced later. The Peerless orchestra will render a dance program of the latest popular music, including waltzes, two steps and the ever popular barn hop. Prof. C. Foley will have charge of the stepin. The following committee have the affair in charge: Chairman E. J. Hickey, Secretary J. F. Limerick, E. J. Murphy, C. H. Bryan, F. W. Chartier, J. E. Campbell, J. F. Touhey, W. A. Tallon, T. F. Shea, T. L. Champagne, M. A. Gorman and J. F. Campbell.

Dr. Weidner Locates in Hartford.

Dr. Calvin Weidner will open an office in Hartford this week in rooms 404 and 406 of the Ballerstein building. His many Manchester friends regret that he is to leave town but wish him success in his new location. After a number of years of successful general practice in town Dr. Weidner decided, a year and a half ago, to specialize and with that end in view went abroad and spent a year in study of the diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat at the University of Vienna, from which he received his post-graduate degree this spring. Returning home, he spent several months in the New York hospitals, specializing on the eye. With this excellent preparation he will join the ranks of the specialists, devoting his practice to diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat. Dr. and Mrs. Weidner will probably remain in town during the winter, residing with Mrs. Weidner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Foulds.

HARNESSING GRAVITY.

The new Virginian Railroad, notes the Boston Transcript, has hauled, with a single locomotive, a coal train consisting of eighty fifty-ton cars, the train's complete load reaching four thousand three hundred and ten tons, from the coal mines in West Virginia to the seaboard. A road built in disregard to local traffic, following essentially contour lines, can be so constructed as to utilize the net difference in altitude between its two ends for giving it a coasting effect in the direction over which the load must be borne. This was Mr. Roger A. Iden.

CONCRETE AND STEEL DAM.

With These Materials E. C. Hilliard Will Build Permanent Barrier.

When the new dam which E. C. Hilliard is having constructed at the head of the west pond near Adams street in Hilliardville is completed its owner promises that nothing short of an earthquake or some equally disastrous convulsion of the elements shall disturb or even shake its foundation. To bring about this result Mr. Hilliard determined not to spare expense and the instructions given to the designer of the new water barrier were thoroughly explicit in regard to strength and durability.

Work on the foundations for the new dam has been going on for several weeks under the direction of Superintendent C. L. Ricketts, who will supervise the construction throughout. The new dam is to be built of reinforced concrete and steel and will occupy the site of its predecessor. The old dam, although built of wood, was a pretty solid affair and really withstood the shock of last winter's flood in a remarkable manner. The trouble last February was caused by the giving way of the earth bulkhead to the north of the dam. It was through this gash that the water escaped, leaving one end of the dam exposed from top to bottom, but it has been proved since that the dam itself did not budge more than a quarter of an inch. So that while the new dam will be constructed of concrete and steel it will not differ materially in size, shape and location from the one it replaces. In fact the old dam is being used as a form for the new one.

The old dam was built from the bottom of the pond at a sharp angle and was floored with stout planks. It was supported at the back with heavy foot-square uprights. The old dam was 54 feet long, 21 feet on the slope and 11 feet high. The new dam will be built on the same angle, a slab of concrete reinforced with three-quarter inch steel rods taking the place of the plank flooring. The slab will be ten inches thick and 54 feet long by 21 wide. The plank flooring will be used as a form upon which to lay the concrete. In place of the heavy wooden supports at the back of the dam three foot-thick triangular supports of concrete are being substituted. The ends of the slab will be supported and held in place by walls of concrete and steel. Thus the main slab of concrete will be supported in five places by the three triangles of concrete in the center and by the heavy reinforced end walls. The south wall at the back will be flanged into the earth bank and towards the pond the end will be carried into the bank for about ten feet.

As before, the sluiceway will be located to the north of the dam. Sections of the large steel stack which was recently taken down at the mill will be used as forms for the sluiceway. These will be set in concrete to a great depth so that there can be no chance for a give at this point. The gate will be placed between the sections of pipe. From the sluiceway for a hundred feet or more to the north the dam will be extended in the form of a strong high core wall of concrete. This will effectively keep the pond in bounds as the end of this concrete wall will be carried well beyond the north bank of the pond.

In order that there may be no mistake in the matter of durability the foundations for the new dam have been carried four feet deep. The end walls and the triangular supports rest on foundations of concrete and boulders carried down to hardpan. The bottom edge of the concrete slab will also rest on a concrete foundation four feet thick. That there may be no chance for seepage the foundation for the south wall has been carried back into the earth bank for a distance of seven feet and the space between the wall and the bank will be filled in with puddled gravel. The foundation for the north wall will also be seven feet wide. The foundation work for the dam is now finished. This includes a concrete and stone floor for the spillway.

Superintendent Ricketts has a dozen men engaged on the job and figures to have the dam proper well towards completion by the end of this week. As soon as the dam and sluiceway have been built the brook will be turned into its new channel and work on the core wall will then be started. Over a thousand bags of cement will be used on the job, but when it is completed Mr. Ricketts promises that it will stand up to his guarantee. If anything breaks up stream in the future the water, he declares, will go over and not through the new barrier. Mr. Hilliard has not decided as yet whether he will reconstruct the dam at the upper pond. In any event the job will not be undertaken this year.

CURRENT COMMENT.

UP TO BUG PROFESSOR.

It transpires that the reason why the postage stamps do not stick is discovered, and that the responsible party is the water bug. That ubiquitous little pest has invaded the postoffice building in Washington and made inroads on the stock of postage stamps, licking of the gum. The general postoffice building is full of bugs, and they are all gum-chewers. It is considered queer, too, in view of the fact that the government employs a whole force of entomologists, who, it is argued, might turn their attention for a day or so, away from bugs in Arizona and Alaska and the Philippines, to the gum-bugs at Washington.—Hartford Post.

MOKE GRANT UNEARTHED.

The state liquor dispensary experiment in South Carolina, which Senator Tillman was confident would dispose of the always troublesome liquor question in the best way possible, has ended in a cloud of scandals. A former member of the state dispensary board, for example, has confessed that in 11 months of service on the board he made over $28,000 in underhand commissions on purchases of liquor.—Meriden Record.

FOES TO LAW AND ORDER.

The latest instance of the hostility toward the National Guard on the part of labor organizations is supplied by Evansville, Ind., where the brewers and bottlers have refused to march in a parade with the guardsmen. Whoever is convincing these men that the National Guard exists in the interest of capital and for the purpose of oppressing anybody except the enemies of state and nation, is doing grave evil to his country. If he is a union man he is also doing evil to his union. The vast body of workmen are respectable upholders of law and order. For the maintenance of that condition the guard exists. Objection to its continuance should be confined to anarchists, criminals and foes abroad.—Waterbury American.

THE LIFE OF A ROAD.

According to a Hartford interview with State Highway Commissioner Macdonald the latter makes the statement that Connecticut state roads are good for ten or fifteen years and he computes the expense to the state on that basis. It may be that the roads built by the state would last that long if carefully supervised and repaired each year, but under the present conditions it is difficult to see how they could last in even fair condition for any such length of time. The state roads are fine affairs for the first year or two but in many cases they disintegrate after two or three seasons and usually to pieces. Eventually the commissioner will have a system of supervision organized, undoubted, which will keep the roads up to the required standard and prolong their life.—Hartford Post.

HOME, SWEET HOME.

Attachment is a word well understood by New Englanders. It is a salient feature of their characters. The old hill town is dear to the hearts of every one of its sons and daughters who, by circumstances, are called away from it. The old homestead by the wayside, with its hoary cherry tree and lilac bush, mean a lot to the son born beneath its roof. The lonely church topping the hill and the little red schoolhouse on its worthless bit of soil, bring a flood of memories to the sons and daughters of good old New England. Of all places, however, his attachment is keenest towards the cemetery. "Where the rude forefathers of the hamlet sleep."—Connecticut Valley Advertiser.

HAPPY RESULTS.

Have Made Many Manchester Residents Enthusiastic. No wonder scores of Manchester citizens grow enthusiastic. It is enough to make anyone happy to find relief after years of suffering. Public statements like the following are but truthful representations of the daily work done in Manchester by Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. David Wilson, 3 Mather street, Manchester, Conn., says: "In January 1906, I gave a public statement endorsing Doan's Kidney Pills and telling how they had cured me of a lameness across the small of my back. This trouble had bothered me for a long time and often I could hardly get up in the morning on account of the intense pains through my kidneys. It took Doan's Kidney Pills only a short time to relieve me and at this time, I willingly confirm my former endorsement of them. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills very effective in cases similar to mine." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milbrun Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

CRITICISES PANAMA SUIT.

Judge in Canal Libel Case Calls It More or Less Political.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 12.—That the so-called Panama libel case is "more or less of a political matter" was the comment of Judge A. B. Anderson of the United States court of this district at the close of argument in the hearing of Charles R. Williams and Delevan Smith, proprietors of the Indianapolis News, whom the government is seeking to remove to the District of Columbia for trial on the charge of criminal libel. The judge said he wished not to give an impression that he had formed an opinion on the merits of the case, but that he wished to point out the trend of the argument as to whether or not this was probable cause for indictment of Williams and Smith by the federal grand jury of the District of Columbia for criminal libel in their having published articles intimating that there was a graft of $28,000,000 in the sale of the Panama canal zone to the United States by the French company.

GAYNOR ACCUSED ### OF RACE LAW DEAL.

Justice Says Justice Conspiracy With McCarren.

New York, Oct. 12.—Before an enormous audience at the Hearst meeting in Carnegie hall William M. Ivins, one of the foremost members of the New York bar, assailed the judicial integrity of Justice William J. Gaynor of the supreme court, accusing him of misconduct on the bench. Mr. Ivins made the following charges:

That Justice Gaynor conspired with Senator McCarren and Eugene Wood, representing racing interests, to nullify the anti-gambling law.

That Justice Gaynor met McCarren and Wood in the Hoffman House on June 11, 1908, immediately after the passage of the bill by the legislature, and conferred with them until 3 o'clock in the morning.

That Justice Gaynor told them the law was unconstitutional.

That the racing and gambling interests attempted to frame up a test case to bring before Justice Gaynor.

That a test case finally was got before Justice Gaynor, but instead of relating to race track gambling it involved merely the betting of a box of golf balls on a golf match.

That Justice Gaynor wrote an opinion in this case defining what constitutes a common gambler which will, if it stands, insure the acquittal of all the men arrested for race track gambling.

In making these astonishing charges Mr. Ivins said:

"I know the responsibility I am taking. I know the man is still on the bench, and I am inclined to believe he will have the cowardice to decline this nomination at the last moment and remain on the bench. In that case he will have opportunity to discipline me as a member of the bar for what I say, but I am willing to take the discipline."

BRIBE OFFERED TO COOK GUIDE.

$5,000 if He Would Help to Discredit Explorer.

HE CLIMBED MT. M'KINLEY.

Barrille's Partner Tells of Efforts to Get Alaskan Guide to Make Affidavit That Brooklyn Doctor Never Made the Ascent So as to Raise Doubt as to the Latter's Discovery of the North Pole—Barrille is Coming East to Testify.

Missoula, Mont., Oct. 12.—Edward Barrille, the guide who accompanied Dr. Frederick A. Cook to the top of Mount McKinley, Alaska, in 1906, has been approached with an offer of $5,000 to make an affidavit to the effect that the Brooklyn explorer never completed the ascent.

The proposal was made by persons who have been using every possible persuasion upon Barrille to make an affidavit to the effect that his discovery of the north pole is a fraud.

Barrille is Coming East. So far from accepting the offer, however, Barrille is now speeding across the continent as a witness before the National Geographic Society of America or any other organization of scientists which may care to inquire into the validity of Dr. Cook's contention that he did reach the "top of the continent."

C. C. Bridgeford of Hamilton, Mont., who is associated with Barrille in the real estate business and who is a personal friend of Dr. Cook, is authority for the statement that an attempt was made to bribe Barrille to make a false statement, and he adds interesting testimony of his own.

Always Told the Same Story. He declares that the residents of Hamilton have heard Barrille's story of the climb perhaps a thousand times, in the last three years and that there is not a man in the little city in southwestern Montana who ever heard the former guide utter a word which did not bear out the narrative of the ascent as told by Dr. Cook in his book.

Throughout the trip Barrille kept a diary recounting everything that happened day by day, and this he has shown repeatedly to Mr. Bridgeford and to Frederick Prince of Barboursville, Mont., who also was a member of the exploring party of 1906.

"Barrille has shown me his diary a score of times," said Mr. Bridgeford, "and I can say positively that his records correspond with Dr. Cook's story to the smallest detail. There is no doubt in my mind that Dr. Cook reached the summit of Mount McKinley. I have heard Barrille tell the story many times."

Implicit Faith In Dr. Cook. Frederick Prince, at his home in the Bitter Root mountains, said he had turned back to Sustina Station, leaving Dr. Cook and Barrille to make the ascent alone. "But," he added, "there has never been a time when I doubted the story which they both told me when they returned."

"Since the news of the discovery of the north pole was first announced every effort has been made to have Barrille and myself make some statement. Every inducement has been offered to us to swear to something which is far from the truth."

Just at present labor is well employed in Manchester. Very few men who care to work are out of employment. The demand for skilled mechanics in Hartford this fall is greater than for a number of years and therefore the number of Manchester men who work in the city is larger than ever.

LAXITY IN TOWN BUSINESS. Over in West Hartford they have been rather lax in their business methods. This, of course, refers to the town, but the result is just the same as it would have been with an individual or corporation.

STRANGE SECRECY. There seems to be something a bit odd in the matter of locating the state trade schools. During the past summer the state board of education gave various hearings up and down the state with the idea of obtaining information as to the facilities of the cities and towns applying for the schools.

EIGHTH DISTRICT NOTES. The attendance banner was won last by Miss Hackett's room, although there was close rivalry with Miss Grant's room. Each room had an average attendance for the two weeks of somewhat better than 96 per cent.

September Statement. A report of the town finances for the month of September was received from Town Treasurer Benton. It showed that the receipts totaled $5,147.79. The disbursements were: On court orders $313.28; miscellaneous orders $566.57, leaving a balance on hand of $4,267.94.

COMMITTEE ON VENDORS.

First Public Meeting of Newly Elected Board Several Petitions Received—Protest Against Town Dump—Policemen Appointed—Next Meeting November 8.

The first public session of the recently elected board of selectmen was held last evening at the Hall of Records and the only absentee was Selectman Harrington. The first matter acted on was the appointment of a janitor for the Hall of Records and Town Hall.

Residents of Highland street petitioned the board against the grade which is being established by reason of the new macadam work in the neighborhood of Hayes's store. Joseph Wilson appeared on behalf of the petitioners. He claimed that a fill in front of his property would result in flooding his land during periods of storm unless some other provision was made for its disposal.

James Trotter petitioned for street lights on Hemlock street. Selectman Cheney claimed that owing to the attitude of the town on the money question little in the matter of extending the street lighting system could be attempted this year.

Vendors' Licenses. The matter of badges and licenses for street vendors then came up for discussion. Chief Sheridan had been to New Britain and Rockville, where the ordinance licensing vendors is enforced.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. William Lyddon. Mrs. Annie (Glenny) Lyddon, wife of William Lyddon, died Sunday morning at the home of her mother, Mrs. Letitia Glenny of Garden street. She had been a sufferer from tuberculosis for more than a year and was an inmate at the Cedar Mountain hospital during last winter. She returned from the hospital last spring. Mrs. Lyddon was well known in town, having lived here since she was a young girl. Besides her mother and husband she is survived by a daughter, two sisters, the Misses Sarah and Elizabeth Glenny, and two brothers William and Thomas Glenny. Funeral services were held at the house at two o'clock this afternoon, with burial in the East cemetery. Rev. Manning B. Bennett conducted the services.

Mrs. Jane Edwards. Mrs. Jane Edwards of Spruce street, who went to New York last week to care for her daughter, Mrs. James Black, who was ill, was taken ill herself while in the city and died Friday morning. The body was brought to Manchester Saturday. Prayers were said at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Ford of Spruce street, at 2.30 Sunday afternoon followed by funeral services in St. Mary's Episcopal church. Rev. Manning B. Bennett officiated and the burial was in the East cemetery. The bearers were Robert Muldoon, James Finnegan, William McCormick, James Munis, James McCann and Abraham McCann.

Wednesday Evening's Entertainment. A good sized audience enjoyed the entertainment given at the North Methodist church last Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society. Miss Clarke of East Hartford gave a number of monologues and readings in a very pleasing manner. Her selections found prime favor with the audience. The solos of Mrs. R. P. Grant Jr. were sung in a sweet clear soprano and were liberally applauded. Wyllys Waterman, the piano was in perfect form. He is an accompanist of exceptional ability and his solo numbers were played with an artistic finish. Home made candies were sold during the evening and the ladies netted a neat sum from the entertainment to be devoted to church purposes.

BASKETBALL MEN ORGANIZE LEAGUE

Professional Circuit Formed to Restore Game to Popularity.

EIGHT BIG CITIES IN LINE.

Plans Being Made For Opening of Season—To Start on Thanksgiving Day—Many Stars in New Pennsylvania-New Jersey Organization.

For the past few years the game of basketball in what is known as the "big league" has been steadily going from bad to worse, owing to the lack of public support. The term "big league" is applied to teams whose playing ability makes them the premier basketball fives of the east, and it was from these teams that the traveling basketball aggregations obtained handsome guarantees.

There arose in the game some few years ago a menace known to the promoters of the game as "bush leaguers." The greed for money became so great among the players that many of the stars developed by various teams received inducements from certain managers who found it easier to take a player than to develop one, and these managers succeeded in filling attractive schedules by promising the home managers in the "big league" an all star team, with the star center taken from one team, the star forwards borrowed from some other team and star guards plucked from another five. From these players who had deserted their regular teams stars appeared among the stars, and it soon came to pass that between ten and fifteen men monopolized the games to be had on the outside among the "big league" clubs.

This select band of basketball stars, in order to fill all their engagements and obtain many more paying dates, were compelled to resort to the subterfuge of assuming five or six different team names. So when the home managers were advertising five or six presumably different and distinct quintets as attractions the spectators found upon visiting the courts on the nights of the games the same men playing under the various team names. The old identity of teams soon became a thing of the past, the so-called teams having none of the peculiar styles of team work that marked the play of the legitimate teams, and individual work came to the fore. With the players it was no longer the pride and glory of the team's score, but rather the number of goals one man scored in his opponent and the most startling feature of the game—team work—became a dead issue.

The crowds that patronized the games and made possible the payment of big guarantees to visiting teams grew disgusted with the turn of affairs and, tiring of seeing the same faces appear week after week on the various teams, gradually dropped their support until many of the big clubs disbanded, and the managers of those that continued were out of pocket at the end of the season owing to lack of business.

The situation became so desperate that the "big leaguers" decided that something must be done to stop the drain upon their pocketbooks and to restore public confidence in the game. With that object in view a meeting of those interested was held recently in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., to organize what will be known as the Hudson River League of Professional Basketball Teams. The circuit will consist of eight cities, representing the following: Jersey City, N. J., by the Lauter five; Paterson, N. J., by the Crescent five; Yonkers, N. Y., by the Fourth Separate company; Poughkeepsie, Hudson and Catskill, N. Y., by the representative teams of those cities.

It is the intention of the league to place a team in Newburg or Kingston to complete the circuit. All games, with the exception of those in Jersey City, will be played in the state armories, where the courts will be caged. The rules will be what are commonly known as "old rules," or professional rules. The nearest approach to the old rules are those of the Protective association, which differ but slightly from the rules to be employed in the professional league. The opening games will be played on Thanksgiving day.

With the organization of a new and speedy basketball league with eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey towns in the circuit there is a possibility of some of the best stars in the Central league in Pittsburg being lured over to the other side of the state. Preliminary arrangements looking forward to the formation of such an organization in the east have been made. It is the plan to have the new league composed of Trenton, N. J.; Yonkers, N. Y.; Paterson, N. J.; Reading, Pa.; Camden, N. J., and Harrisburg, Pa. In the Central league, a circuit in which Pittsburg, western Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio are interested, matters are rather quiet.

In the meantime the new eastern contingent is keeping busy, and applications are being received from players who are worth while for positions in the new circuit.

MAHER TO QUIT RIDING.

Famous Jockey Taking on Weight Will Train Horses in Future.

Danny Maher, the premier jockey of the world, greater than either Sloane or Fred Archer was, has confirmed the rumor that this will be his last season on the turf as a jockey.

"There is no reason for any mystery in the matter," Maher said recently. "If I leave the ranks of the jockeys it will be, I hope, with the good will of both those who are active in racing as well as the public that just go to see a race. I have had a fair share of the rewards that come to a jockey and am bound up in the sport."

"But," and here the face of Maher assumed a serious aspect, "I value my health much more than I do anything else. I would be foolish not to recognize that I cannot forever fight against nature in the matter of weight. Every year it is growing more difficult for me to keep down to riding weight, and I do not propose to resort to measures that might prove injurious to my health.

"It is entirely probable that at the end of the season I will hand in the colors, but I will not leave the turf. I shall try my hand at training. Just where I may locate I cannot now say. It may be abroad, and it may be in America. You may readily see that this is a matter that I cannot decide offhand, but my place is on the turf, and there I shall remain."

WAGNER SEEKS MORE FAME.

Famous Ball Tosser Will Tour Country With Basketball Team.

Hans Wagner, the star baseball player of the Pittsburg team of the National League, who first made his debut as a professional with a team in Paterson, N. J., is after two of the biggest known basketball players to join a club which he is organizing and with which he intends to tour the country at the close of the baseball season.

The Paterson men Wagner seeks to engage are Johnny Keys, formerly of the Crescents, and Wells Pounds of the old Y. M. C. A. five. Pounds is one of the best known players in the country, and Keys, who retired about a year ago, was also a star all around player when he gave up the game.

PLENTY OF WINTER RACING.

Mexico and Florida to Be Mecca of Horsemen.

After all, there will be no lack of winter racing for the coming cold season. When stringent laws were enacted in Louisiana and California last winter the outlook for the long cold weather seasons looked blue indeed, but all that has been changed, and those who so desire will have every opportunity to keep their horses going.

The new racing field in Mexico will be opened at Taurey Thanksgiving day, the date always had for the beginning of the New Orleans meeting. Florida will be ready at that time or possibly before, and now it is assured that California will have a season.

Bresnahan Can Retrade Players.

Roger Bresnahan of St. Louis has an agreement with Griffith of Cincinnati which provides that if Mowrey cannot get into the game this year Roger can return the Red third baseman and receive back Charles.

Brooklyn's Big Reserve List.

The Brooklyn Nationals have sixty-two players signed for the 1910 season.

Columbia's New Athletic Field.

Columbia university, New York, now has an up to date athletic field.

FOOTBALL NOTES

The English Football association amateur cup series has 244 teams.

For the first time since college football began it is now possible to make any score from 1 to 50 points. A forfeited game counts 1 to 0, and the goal from the field counts 3 points.

Michigan has two eastern teams on its schedule this season, playing Syracuse at Ann Arbor Oct. 30 and Penn at Philadelphia Nov. 13. Penn has beaten Michigan the last three years.

Lieutenant Jensen of the Annapolis Athletic association has already received 900 requests for tickets for the Army game, most of them from outsiders. The game will be played at Philadelphia Nov. 27.

QUARTERBACKS WORRY COACHES

Many Big Teams Must Develop New Men For Passing Ball.

PENNSYLVANIA WELL FIXED.

Red and Blue Has Star In Captain Miller—At Harvard O'Flaherty Is Well Liked—Chicago Will Have Hard Time Filling Steffen's Place—Yale Has Two Good Candidates.

Several of the big college football teams east and west face the same proposition—the development of the quarterback. Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Annapolis and Chicago are all in the same boat. Yale and Princeton, though, have some slight advantage over their rivals in this respect, for they have experienced men to work with, while Harvard and the Navy will be forced to begin the season with untried men.

The filling of the vacancy created by the graduation of John Cutler is one of the most serious problems facing Percy Haughton, the Harvard coach. Between them Haughton and Charley Daly made Cutler the greatest quarterback in the east last year.

Daly now believes he has found a fitting successor to Cutler in O'Flaherty, substitute end last year. O'Flaherty is a long, rangy individual, chuck full of bones, muscle and speed. Six feet two in height, he weighs only 172 pounds. He may be taller than the average run of quarterbacks, but so was Cutler, and Haughton is not a believer in the claim that all good quarterbacks are small men.

O'Flaherty has been working out with the rest of the Harvard squad at Cambridge and just now appears to have the best chance of making the team.

Princeton has a lot of good material to pick from, but none of the candidates looks good enough to rival Eddie Dillon. The choice rests between Bergin, Bard and Tilton, the latter a former Amherst player.

HAMILTON FIRE, WHO WILL LEAD HARVARD ELEVEN THIS SEASON.

At Yale it will be necessary to make a final choice soon between Gorey and Johnson, who alternated in the position last year. For years Yale has been famous for the quarterbacks, but did not come up to the standard last year.

The middies will start without Lange, who, but for his failure to live up to his earlier form when the middies met the cadets in their most important game, would have made more than one All American team.

West Point has the bulge on the admirals in this respect, for Hyatt, a veteran of last year's Army-Navy game, is again available, and Coach Beachem has an idea that a little more experience will make this red haired, freckle faced, snub nosed little Irishman one of the star quarters of the east.

Pennsylvania, too, has a star on tap in Miller, who incidentally is the only veteran back left to the red and blue. Miller did not receive anything like full credit for the work he did last year until his skill in the Michigan and Cornell games forced the critics to recognize him as one of the best in the land.

In the west the quarterback problem is not so serious except in Chicago. Minnesota has a crack in Captain Johnny McGovern and Wisconsin a good one in Moll. Were it not for an occasional attack of rheumatism the latter would be one of the greatest in the game. Coach Stagg will have a colossal task in trying to fill Steffen's shoes. It is likely that Captain Page will be selected.

CHINESE ELECTROCUTED.

Three of Them Die in Chair For Murder of a Countryman.

Boston, Oct. 12.—Three Chinese murderers—Min Sing, Leong Gong and Hom Woon—were put to death in the electric chair at the state prison in Charlestown this morning. It was the first time since the new method of executing murderers was introduced into this state that more than one person had been electrocuted on the same day.

The three murderers died as Roman Catholics, being baptized by the Rev. Father Austin D. Malley, one of the prison chaplains.

Hom Woon was the first to die, and the others were executed at intervals of fourteen minutes. Leong Gong was the last. All three met their fate with fortitude.

SPRAGUE MANSION BURNED.

Home of Ex-Governor of Rhode Island In Ruins—Loss, $650,000.

Narragansett Pier, R. I., Oct. 12.—Canonchet, the historic mansion of War Governor William Sprague, near here, was destroyed by fire. The loss is placed by Mrs. Sprague at $650,000.

Ex-Governor Sprague, who is seventy-nine years old and feeble, was taken from his bedroom and carried out of the burning house by Michael Allen, the coachman. He had returned to the building to get private papers and doubtless would have lost his life had it not been for the coachman.

Bank Teller an Embezzler.

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 12.—Eugene R. Wiltbank pleaded guilty in the United States district court to embezzling $7,710 from the Second National bank of Atlantic City, of which he was formerly note teller and bookkeeper. His speculation covered a period of a year and involved thirty notes ranging from $10 to $250. He will be sentenced next Monday.

FUTURE SPORT EVENTS

Boston is to have a six day go-as-you-please race this fall. Marquette university of Milwaukee plans to embark in all branches of athletic sport.

The western bowling congress tournament will be held in San Francisco next March. Albert G. Cutler will go after the eighteen inch balk line billiard championship title.

The St. Louis Country club will hold a polo tourney beginning Oct. 11, at which army teams will compete.

The Ionia race meeting in Cincinnati will begin Oct. 11 and continue for four weeks. That matter was settled at a conference recently.

MORSE IN JAIL; STILL HAS HOPE

Believes Highest Court Will Give Him Freedom.

LAST RESORT TO BE TAFT

New York Bankers and Other Financiers Ready to Petition President to Pardon the Former Ice Trust Magistrate if the United States Supreme Court Sustains Decision Just Rendered by Circuit Court of Appeals. Counsel Will Again Apply For Bail.

New York, Oct. 12.—Although he has only just been elected president of the reorganized Metropolitan Steamship Lines, Charles W. Morse is again in the same cell in the Tombs which he occupied for five months last winter. The United States court of appeals today by a unanimous decision denied him a new trial and committed him to serve fifteen years in the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., for fraud on the National Bank of North America, of which he was vice president.

The judges on application of Morse's counsel granted a stay for forty days pending a petition to the supreme court of the United States. Morse, however, was committed without bail.

Back in His Old Cell. The convicted banker at once surrendered and was driven to the Tombs. There he was put in the same cell he had occupied after his conviction last November. His cell is 712 on the fifth tier, the section devoted to federal prisoners. His son Den ran up a few minutes later and was at once admitted.

Mr. Littleton said he would soon ask the court to admit Morse to bail pending the stay of forty days. The application will probably be denied. District Attorney Wise said it was against the practice and that he would oppose it.

Morse said: "I have by no means lost hope. I consider there is a strong probability that the highest court will decide in my favor."

Will Ask President For Pardon. It was said at Mr. Littleton's office that many bankers and financiers had offered to sign a petition to President Taft for a pardon for Mr. Morse and that such action would be taken in the event that the highest court decided against Morse.

Although Morse kept his nerve well in the face of the serious setback to his case, his wife, who was with him when the decision was rendered, broke down and became hysterical.

Mrs. Morse in Tears. After seeing her husband in jail Mrs. Morse came out, leaning on the arm of her stepson, Harry Morse. Her face was swollen with tears, and her voice was so choked that she could hardly speak. Nevertheless she made a brave effort.

"This was a terrible blow to us all," she began. "We felt certain that Mr. Morse would get a new trial, and the decision came like a thunderbolt in our faces. But we have been reading the decision over together, and we all believe that the supreme court will not agree with its findings."

Will Fight to the End. "We will fight and we will win yet," she continued. "My husband has done no wrong, and surely the supreme court of the United States will recognize his innocence and declare it."

"And if not?" "If they do not," she rejoined, her eyes flashing, "we will go higher. If we cannot get justice and liberty in one way at least we can get it in another. We shall fight to the end."

"And if the sentence must be served?" "That is impossible," Mrs. Morse burst out. "It is absolutely impossible. There can be no question, if there is justice in the land, that but what you suggest is not possible."

Here she started sobbing so violently that she could go no further.

Court's Decision Unanimous. The circuit court in giving its decision in the case, which was unanimous, used the following language: "We fully realize the consequences to the defendant which must follow an affirmation of this judgment, and yet we cannot doubt that he was given a fair trial, and the verdict on the fourteen counts was amply sustained by the proof. No unprejudiced person can read the record without being convinced that by the defendant's procurement the bank bought its own stock and the stock of the Ice Securities company, and by his procurement also the entries in the bank book and in the reports to the comptroller as to these transactions were so arranged as to conceal the truth and to record transactions which in reality never took place."

Revolution in Santo Domingo. Cape Haitien, Oct. 12.—A revolution has broken out in Santo Domingo. The insurgents, headed by General Andre Navarro, attacked Dajabon, a town near the Haitian frontier, but were repulsed by the government troops.

Pope Rewards Charitable Woman. Rome, Oct. 12.—The pope has awarded the decoration of the Gold Cross to a lady of Reggio who prevented twenty children made orphans by the earthquake from falling into the hands of Protestants.

ASSAILED IN CEMETERY.

Daughter of a Newark Lawyer Dragged From Bicycle by Stranger. Caldwell, N. J., Oct. 12.—A daughter of Lawyer Thomas C. Provost of Bloomfield and Forest avenues, Caldwell, is seriously ill at her home as the result of an attack made upon her in a cemetery on Friday last.

Miss Provost, who is fourteen years old, is, with her twin sister, a student in the Caldwell high school. She left the high school grounds on a bicycle to meet a schoolgirl friend who had gone home to luncheon. The Caldwell cemetery adjoins the school grounds on the south, and it was necessary for Miss Provost to pass through the burying ground in order to reach her friend's home.

When Miss Provost was about half-way through the cemetery a man stepped from behind a tombstone and, seizing her about the waist, dragged her from her bicycle. To silence her screams he choked her into insensibility. He was frightened away by other school children coming along.

The country has been scourged for the man, but he has not been caught.

DEATH AND HAVOC FROM CYCLONE

$4,000,000 Damage Done In Key West and Cuba.

MANY LIVES SACRIFICED.

Martial Law Proclaimed in Florida City, and Guards Patrol Devastated District—United States Government Asked to Send Troops—President Gomez' Palace Damaged and Many Houses Destroyed—Vessels in Havana Harbor Sunk or Blown Ashore.

Key West, Fla., Oct. 12.—The cyclone which swept Cuba and the south coast of Florida did at least $4,000,000 damage, and many lives were sacrificed.

Martial law has been proclaimed here, and guards are patrolling the devastated district, which is more than half the area of the city. To prevent the looting of hundreds of wrecked houses the governor has asked the United States government to dispatch federal troops here without delay.

Ten Big Factories Wrecked. The property loss in this city and vicinity alone is estimated at $3,000,000. Over ten of the largest cigar factories are in ruins, among them the Havana, American, Martinez and Ruy Lopez. Scores of houses were killed, and their bodies lumber the streets.

Several bank buildings were partially wrecked, the First National being among them. Terrible havoc was wrought on the shipping in the harbor. There were over a hundred vessels at anchor. Of these only a few are left, the others being driven out to sea or being cast on the beach.

Raged For Eight Hours. The storm struck the city with full force and raged for eight hours. At times the wind blew eighty miles an hour. The storm passed up the east coast, and it is feared that the loss of life has been great in that section.

There were many men working on the Flagler east coast extension across the Florida keys, and it is feared that many of them have been killed.

Besides the several scores of residences either totally wrecked or blown from their pillars six churches and four schools were destroyed. The engine houses of the city fire department were destroyed, the firemen narrowly escaping, but several of the houses were killed. The top of the first National bank was blown off, the postoffice damaged, and buildings in the government coal stations were wrecked.

Tidal Wave Follows Storm. The cyclone was followed by a huge tidal wave, which seems to be a feature of those tropical disturbances, and the residents of the lowlands on the east Florida coast are in imminent danger. Launches have been sent out to the lowlands around Jacksonville to help in rescue work.

Two of the big Southern Pacific passenger steamers plying between New York and New Orleans are in the midst of the hurricane. One is the Mogus, with a large list of returning summer tourists. The other is the Antilles, which sailed from New Orleans on Saturday and should be somewhere between Jupiter light and St. Augustine.

Governor Sanders of Louisiana is on the Antilles, intending to go to St. Louis by way of New York.

DEVASTATION IN CUBA

President's Palace Partly Destroyed and Eleven Persons Killed. Havana, Oct. 12.—The most serious cyclone since the big blow three years ago struck Cuba, causing extensive devastation through the whole western portion of the island. In the city of Havana many minor buildings were blown down or unroofed. Almost all the trees were uprooted. Eleven persons were killed by falling buildings. About fifty persons were injured.

The greatest damage done was in the harbor, where more than fifty lighters, launches and small tugs were either sunk or blown ashore.

The total damage in Havana and vicinity is estimated at more than $1,000,000. The greatest individual loss has been caused by the destruction of half the coal elevator conveyors of the Havana Coal company at Casablanca, estimated at $200,000. The president's palace was partly destroyed.

Communications with the interior of the island have been interrupted except with parts of Havana and Pinar del Rio provinces, in which the orange and other fruit crops suffered severely.

Following heavy rains, the gale rapidly increased in intensity and reached cyclonic proportions, the velocity of the wind being about 120 miles an hour. The storm continued with unabated fury for six hours, after which the rain was intermittent, with occasional heavy squalls.

All business was suspended, and trolley traffic ceased in consequence of the government ordering the cutting off of all electric power to avoid danger to life. Most of the government departments also were closed.

Archbishop Falconio in Trantou. Trenton, N. J., Oct. 12.—Archbishop Falconio, apostolic delegate, arrived in Trenton and took part in the Columbus day exercises today.

HERESY CHARGE FAILS.

New York Presbytery Votes to Ordain Rev. Archibald Black. New York, Oct. 12.—The New York presbytery refused by the rather close vote of 40 to 38 to postpone until after the meeting of the synod the ordination of the Rev. Archibald Black as pastor of the Bedford Park Presbyterian church.

The sixteen clergymen who requested such postponement because of their belief that the young Union Theological seminary graduate is a heretic will carry their fight to the synod.

Two protests, each signed by the sixteen, were read at the meeting. The first document repeated the earlier declaration of the signers that the presbytery had erred in licensing Mr. Black to preach. The second protest put the case even more strongly and named John S. Steen and George A. Fitch, Mr. Black's classmates at the Union Theological seminary, as also holding heretical views as to the virgin birth of Christ, his resurrection and the raising of Lazarus.

SENATOR SAYS HE'S POOR.

Flint of California Will Resign to Make a Better Living. Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 12.—Senator Flint announces that when his present term expires on March 4, 1911, he will not be a candidate for re-election. He has been traveling with President Taft and made the statement in discussing the political outlook.

"If I were a rich man," said Senator Flint, "I would like nothing better than to remain in the senate. But I feel that I owe it to my family to get out of politics and get a competency while I am able. I can retire, now from the senate and pick up a good living, but if I waited until the end of another term before taking the step I would probably be too old.

"My associations in the senate are very congenial indeed. I have practically no opposition for renomination, and the sole reason for contemplating retirement is the urgent necessity of providing for my family."

FIRST COLUMBUS DAY

PARTIALLY HONORED

Big Italian Parade in New York; All Banks Closed. New York, Oct. 12.—Columbus day, which has been made a legal holiday in this state and in New Jersey, was partially honored here for the first time today. Not only were banking institutions closed, but some of the stores also. The public schools had no sessions.

Columbus day is now observed in Connecticut, Montana, Maryland and Colorado, and efforts are being made to recognize the day in Massachusetts, Illinois and Louisiana.

There was an imposing parade here by the Italian societies, and the monument of Columbus in Columbus circle was decorated.

The line of march was up Fifth avenue to Fifty-ninth street, where the parade was reviewed by Acting Mayor McGowan, the Italian consul, the admiral of the Italian fleet and others. The parade then turned west on Fifty-ninth street to the Columbus statue, where speeches were made.

James E. March was grand marshal of the parade. About 20,000 men were in line. Among the marchers were the Knights of Columbus, the Garibaldi legion, the Victor Emmanuel II corps, the Italian rifles and the Society of Christoforo Colombo.

BANK FINDS FORGED NOTES.

$210,000 Shortage Hidden by Placing Spurious Securities in the Vaults. Mineral Point, Wis., Oct. 12.—The First National bank here has discovered a shortage of $210,000 due to forgeries of notes.

The shortage was hidden by the placing of forged notes of local business men in the bank's vaults. No arrests have been made.

School Director to Be Shot.

Barcelona, Oct. 12.—Senor Ferrer, director of the Modern school, who has been on trial here as the principal instigator of the recent revolutionary movement, has been sentenced to death. He will be shot tomorrow night.

Colds on the Chest

Ask your doctor the medical name for a cold on the chest. He will say, "Bronchitis." Ask him if it is ever serious. Lastly, ask him if he prescribes Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for this disease. Keep in close touch with your family physician.

When you tell your doctor about the bad taste in your mouth, loss of appetite for breakfast, and frequent headaches, and when he sees your coated tongue, he will say, "You are bilious." Ayer's Pills work well in such cases.

ABOUT TOWN.

Arthur Gerich is breaking in as conductor on the Rockville line.

Today, Columbus day, is for the first time a legal holiday in this state.

Thomas Gray began work Saturday morning on the Ninth school district enumeration.

Levi Drake of Hartford, who has been ill for a long time, is slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Kearns of Main street are spending a few days with friends in New Haven.

William Foulds and family are expected home from their summer house in the Adirondacks tonight.

Men in the employ of the Doffman Iron Works of Hartford have the fire escape at the rear of the town hall partly built.

The regular meeting of the Manchester Poultry Association will be held in the town hall Thursday evening. The public is invited.

Ever Ready Circle of King's Daughters are preparing a cook book which they expect will be placed on sale in the course of a few weeks.

Another large class of candidates will be initiated at the meeting of South Manchester Council, F. B. L., in Foresters' hall Thursday evening.

Persons wishing to attend the evening school, which opens next Monday evening, will have an opportunity to register tomorrow, Thursday and Friday evenings at the high school building.

Manchester Lodge of Masons will confer the third degree tonight. The past masters of the lodge will fill the chairs. At the close of the lodge refreshments will be served in the lower hall.

Claus A. Johnson of Newman street, who has been employed as a weaver at the silk mills for the past ten years, started yesterday morning as a local agent for the Prudential Insurance Company.

Catherine, the eight-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Quinn of Ridgewood street, died Friday evening. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon with burial in St. James cemetery.

Mrs. John Albiston of Roosevelt street, who has been on a trip to Niagara Falls, and the Hudson-Fulton celebration and also visited her sister, Mrs. Harry Shaw of Newark, N. J., returned home Saturday.

The evening mail for Hartford from the Manchester postoffice now closes at 7.25. This is five minutes earlier than has been the custom and is made necessary because of the recent change in running time of the evening train for Hartford.

There is a scarcity of apples here and sugar barrels in town. Farmers find it hard to get enough of them in which to pack winter apples. The J. T. Robertson company buy up all the surplus barrels the grocery stores can supply.

George, son of Policeman W. J. Glenn, who has been undergoing treatment at the Hartford hospital for appendicitis, was brought home yesterday. His condition is much improved but he is to undergo an operation as soon as he has recovered sufficient strength.

Thomas Ferguson, collector in the Eighth district, gathered in a little over four hundred dollars of the annual tax last Saturday. This is not considered a big day's work. The collector will be at the Herald office again next Saturday. Interest at the rate of nine per cent will be added to all taxes remaining unpaid after November first.

It was expected that about 50 members of Campbell Council, Knights of Columbus, will go to New Haven today to participate in the Columbus day parade in that city. They met in their club rooms in the Ferris block at 6.45 tomorrow morning and left for Hartford on the 7.07 trolley, going from Hartford to New Haven by train.

At the regular monthly meeting of Center Hose Company No. 2, held in the town court room last evening Henry Simonson, Charles Bissell and Walter Vennart were appointed as a committee to arrange for an entertainment to be given by the company, the proceeds to be used for the benefit of the new hose house. A committee consisting of the company officers was also appointed to make plans for the opening of the hose house.

No move has been made to build the new bridge on Oakland street and it is doubtful if the new structure will be built this fall. The work is being held up because the Connecticut company haven't time to attend to their part of it. The macadam road is nearing completion and the street could be opened to the public the greater part of the way but the bridge is considered unsafe and therefore traffic is diverted in another direction.

Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Seastrand were given a pleasant surprise party at their home on South Main street last Saturday evening, the occasion being the thirty-third anniversary of their marriage. It was also Mr. Seastrand's birthday. Thirty-five people were present and all had a most enjoyable time. During the evening the guests presented a parlor table and a gold coin to Mr. and Mrs. Seastrand. Refreshments were served.

The town of Glastonbury at its annual meeting Saturday voted to lay a 16 mill tax.

Town Clerk Benton has issued about one hundred hunters' licenses thus far this season.

Mary Lester Circle, Companions of the Forest, will give a social and dance in Cheney hall Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schmidt of New York are visiting at Mr. Schmidt's home on Cedar street.

Clarence W. Hodge of Parker street, who was kicked by a horse last week, remains in a very critical condition.

Fred Trowbridge is moving his family from Starkweather street to Manchester Green where he is employed in the mill.

Miss Myrtle G. House of South Main street has returned to work at Rubinow's Specialty Shop after spending the summer vacation at home and at the shore.

S. S. Greenberg, who sold his interest in the Manchester Provision Company a few days ago, will go on the road next week for John Weyth & Co., chemists, of Philadelphia, covering the New England territory.

The installing of the new shaft, to take the place of the one which broke at the spinning mills last Wednesday noon, was finished Sunday and everything was in readiness for starting up yesterday morning.

At the regular meeting of the Manchester Business Men's association Thursday evening, E. S. Ela will give a short talk on his recent trip to the Pacific coast. Delegates to the state convention will be chosen.

The body of Mrs. Jane Rockwell, who died in Meriden, was brought to Manchester this morning and taken to Wapping for burial. She was aunt to Judson Rockwell of Marble street, and formerly lived in Wapping.

R. La Motte Russell returned yesterday from an automobile ride to New York and Philadelphia with Dr. Cramer and Dr. Gillam. The two doctors are still touring and when last heard from were enjoying themselves in Atlantic City.

Minna Elliott Penney of Boston, who has traveled extensively abroad and has lectured upon her travels for nine years, will deliver a stereopticon lecture entitled, A "Summer in Norway," in the parish hall of the Center Congregational church Monday evening, October 18, at eight o'clock.

Bans of marriage were published for the first time Sunday in St. James church for James V. Campbell of the north end and Miss Helen Coleman of West Center street; also for James Dalton of Hartford Road and Miss Helen Sweeney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sweeney of Birch street. Both couples will be married in St. James church the following week.

J. H. Stannard and wife were in an automobile accident Sunday afternoon. Friends from Shelton took them out for a ride and near New Haven the steering gear of the machine went wrong and the automobile, before it could be stopped, ran squarely into a large maple tree. The occupants were thrown out but fortunately no one was seriously hurt. The machine was wrecked badly.

About twenty-five of the shopmates of Miss Elizabeth McShean gave her a surprise at her home on Main street last evening. They carried refreshments and the evening was pleasantly spent. Misses Fimmegan, Hills, Rock and Heffron contributed to the pleasure of the occasion with vocal solos. During the evening two handsome pieces of cut glass were presented to Miss McShean.

The traction engine used by the contractor in hauling supplies from the Manchester station to the new macadam on Charter Oak street plays havoc with street traffic. As it passes through Main street owners and drivers of teams hasten into side streets or, if there is not time to escape, jump to their horses' heads. Many have asked by what right, such an infernal contrivance is operated on the street.

Extending Water Mains.

The South Manchester Water Company is to extend its water main on Olcott street as far west as Adams street this fall. At present the water main extends only to a point opposite E. L. G. Hohenthal's residence on Olcott street. Work is to be begun on the extension as soon as the pipes arrive and it is expected the job will be completed before cold weather sets in. The extension will be over 2,000 feet in length.

North Methodist.

Sunday was observed as rally day in the Sunday school. A special effort had been made to secure a full attendance and 194 were present. The program included special exercises and music and an address by Rev. Dr. Knight of the Hartford School of Religious Pedagogy.

The Epworth League had a rally service Sunday evening with a large attendance and an interesting service. The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid society will be held at the home of Mrs. C. I. Balch tomorrow afternoon.

The regular midweek prayer meeting will be held in the vestry Thursday evening.

An Idea Followed Out.

The founder of the house of Stein-Bloch, who was a tailor of advanced ideas, originated the idea of high grade ready-to-wear clothes fifty years ago.

It is said that he made an epoch.

His ideas, followed out scrupulously by the house he established have done for the appearance of men what the telephone, thirty years later, did for their convenience.

Stein-Bloch clothes enable business men, professional men and younger men in salaried positions, in all the cities and towns of the country, to wear clothes whose fashion is fully authenticated in America and England—to be well dressed, at a price that saves your bank account and your self respect.

The Fall and Winter sack suits, frock suits, evening suits overcoats and storm coats are ready for your immediate service. Examine their character; try them on in our elegant new clothes shop.
