ANGLO-FRENCH REINFORCEMENTS HAVE REACHED ITALIAN FRONT, LONDON OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCES

Join Second and Third Armies of General Cadorna on New Battle Front—Italian Com- mander-in-Chief Has Two Plans of Meeting Invaders —Has 3,000,000 MEN.

London, Nov. 2.—Anglo-French reinforcements have arrived at the Italian front, according to official information reaching here today. They have joined General Cadorna's second and third armies on a new battlefield, probably along the Tagliamento, where, it is believed here, the most decisive battle in the history of the war is soon to be fought.

Official information says that the welcomed troops found the personnel and material of the retreating forces to be in much better condition than might be expected after their recent experiences. Officials here think General Cadorna is entertaining two plans for battle. One is along the Tagliamento, provided the enemy has not made too deep inroads from the Carnerve, which flows westward and which already is bristling with strong fortifications.

Losses Small Comparatively.
Military authorities here say the reported losses of the Italians, mentioned only in the official statements issued from Berlin, should cause little apprehension. They point out that the Italian army, boasting of more than 3,000,000 men, can stand the loss of 180,000 men.

Heartening news is seen in the fact that all of the big British guns loaned to Italy, were saved. The arrival of the Anglo-French reinforcements also means that the enemy will have the heaviest fire yet to be encountered in an attack against the Italian front.

The sea, as well as practically the entire civilized world, are now on the French plain, where the combined forces of von Buelow and Mackensen are soon to clash with the Italian-Anglo-French forces.

Rome, Nov. 2.—King Victor and Premier Orlando are making a personal inspection of the Italian front, it was announced here today. The presence of the ruler and the Premier at the front is believed to forecast the beginning of the mighty battle that is expected along the Tagliamento.

TO STOP COTTON SEED HOARDING.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Speculation and hoarding in cotton seed and cotton seed products will be checked. Food Administrator Hoover announced today, under regulations to be issued tomorrow governing ginners, seed buyers, merchants, crushers and refiners who are now being placed under license. Administrator Hoover stated that the chief object of the regulations will be to protect the producers by controlling the various factors to handle cotton seed on its way to the consumer.

PASSENGERS OFF GOVERNOR.

A Pacific Port, Nov. 2.—Tugs and small steamers today were removing the passengers from the Pacific company's liner Governor, which went ashore just inside a breakwater here during the night. The sea was smooth and the work of removing the passengers proceeded with little difficulty.

It is not known how badly the Governor is damaged.

Los Angeles, Nov. 2.—The steamship Governor, which jammed on the rocks off San Pedro breakwater late last night, will be floated at high tide this morning with the aid of tugs, according to the opinion of officers of the vessel. Three hundred men, women and children, taken safely from the vessel last night by tugs which answered the distress signals of the Governor, are in Los Angeles and San Pedro today. They will be given transportation by the company.

CONGRESSMEN LEAVE FOR FRANCE.

London, Nov. 2.—The American congressmen who are here to see the war have left for France where they plan to visit the British front. While there, the American party also will visit the American soldiers now in training in the trenches and in training camps.

WOMAN DIES SUDDENLY.

Mrs. Henry Gates of 76 Main street died suddenly at her home late this afternoon. Heart trouble was the cause. Mrs. Gates was the widow of Henry E. Gates, who died six or seven years ago. She had been a resident of Manchester for many years.

"GO TO WORK OR LOSE YOUR UNION CARDS"

Officials of the United Mine Workers So Tell Striking Miners.

WANT DISTURBERS OUT.

Will Contenance No Action of Aid to Enemy, Union Heads Say.

Bellair, Ohio, Nov. 2.—"Go to work or lose your union cards," officials of the United Mine Workers of America told recalcitrant miners here today. Three mines have been closed for two days while the miners held mass meetings to protest against wage scale. Another such meeting is scheduled for late today and the union officials declare that drastic action may be taken to wipe the disturbers out of the organization. "We will contenance no such action which can only be classified as a help to the enemy," said the officials.

GOVERNORS WANT RIFLES FOR STATE HOME GUARDS

Washington Gets Many Requests.
To Give States Old Springfield and Krag Rifles.

Washington, Nov. 2.—The war department has received numerous requests from governors for rifles for organizations of Home Guards, that are being organized in numerous cities and towns. The ordnance department has been authorized by the Secretary of War to issue old Springfield and Krag rifles to all organizations that meet the department requirements as to membership.

How Guard Eligibility.

An man between the age of 18 and 45 may become a member of a home guard company, the strength of which is 100 enlisted men and three officers. Their duties will be purely local, confined within the state for the purpose of suppressing riots and taking charge of dangerous situations such as accompany great fires, floods or storms.

77 YEAR OLD WOMAN IS PICKPOCKET.

New York, Nov. 2.—A 77 year old woman, said by the police to be Madeline Vintler, one of the best known pickpockets in the country, is to be arraigned in court today on a charge of grand larceny. She was arrested, the police say, while attempting to take a woman's handbag. Numerous complaints had been made by victims of similar thefts lately.

TWO DYING IN AUTO ACCIDENT.

New Haven, Nov. 2.—Irving Manchester, 25, and George Berganini, 20, of North Haven, are dying at the hospital here of fractured skulls. They were thrown from their small racing car while on the way to work in this city today. They turned out to pass a trolley car and automobile at the corner of Middleton and Clinton avenues and struck a post, being hurled 30 feet. The car was demolished.

RUSSIANS FIGHTING AGAIN.

Petrograd, Nov. 2.—A renewal of fighting activity on the southwestern front was reported today by the war office. Near the village of Popelava German forces drove back the Russian advance guard, but the Russians counter attacked with reserve forces and won back their positions. Russian artillery has silenced German artillery in the direction of Grand Porsk.

HOGS HIGHER.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Hogs continued their upward climb in the market here today, opening at prices ranging from 25 to 30 cents higher than yesterday's close. Top hogs sold at $17.70. A scarcity of good offerings is held responsible for increased prices.

PITTSBURGH EXCHANGE FIXES MINIMUM PRICES.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 2.—Minimum prices on securities listed only on the Pittsburgh Stock Exchange were established today by the Board of Directors. It was explained that the restriction would be temporary to give investors a chance to protect themselves on what was declared to be an unnecessarily depressed market. The closing prices of yesterday were established as the minimum quotations.

PANIC PRICES ON EXCHANGE

New York, Nov. 2.—Leading standard representative stocks listed on the stock exchange here today, with few exceptions, are at their lowest value of the present year. Since January 1 the speculative value of America's greatest steel and industrial enterprises, and its railroads, have dropped an average of 35 points, and in some instances as much as 60.

Bethlehem Steel Common stock alone has fallen 439 points from its high figure of the year of 515, while the Class B stock of the same stock has dropped 124 points. STEEL COMMON DOWN.

United States Steel Common, which is generally conceded to be the greatest corporation of the country, has fallen over 42 points, and yesterday closed at the lowest level it has reached in over a year. Other representative stocks have lost value in a like manner.

The action of the stock exchange yesterday in taking steps to see who are behind the heavy sales is expected to result in a higher market. There have been rumors on the exchange that German interests were behind the heavy unloading of stocks. The board of governors' action is believed to have resulted from these rumors.

The majority of the low levels of the stocks were reached yesterday as a result of the continued heavy liquidation.

TABLE OF CHANGES.

The following table shows the net change in prices of some of the stocks which have suffered heavy loss since the first of the year, the closing price of yesterday, and how it compares with the high of the year:

FOUR MILLIONS SIGN FOOD PLEDGE CARDS

Indiana Leads With 147,498 Pledges, With Michigan Second, 145,645.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Over four million women throughout the United States have signed the food pledge cards distributed by the food administration, it was announced today. These reports are with the exclusion of eight states, which have not been heard from. Indiana leads with 147,493 pledges and Michigan is second with 145,645. California is third with 132,659.

The administration, in answer to questions as to why corn and potatoes and flour is not shipped to Europe to the allies of the United States say that these ingredients are already in use across the water.

CHICAGO'S MILK SUPPLY 15 PER CENT OF NORMAL

12-Cent Fluid is Aimed at in Conference Held in Windy City Today.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—With Chicago's milk supply reduced to not more than 15 per cent of normal by the strike of farmers, who refuse to sell milk for the price dealers assert is all they will pay, action by the federal food administration is looked upon today as the only means by which a milk famine can be averted. Illinois state food administrator Harry A. Wheeler already has taken preliminary steps in arbitration and a conference is scheduled for this afternoon at which efforts will be made to reach an agreement that will give Chicago 12-cent milk. Wheeler is said to have urged both sides to make concessions to avert a serious situation.

Distributors are determined to pay no more than $3 per hundred pounds while the farmers are demanding not less than $3.12, the price that was in effect during October.

OPERATING EXPENSES OF RAILROADS JUMP

Interstate Commerce Commission Issues August Report—Records of Last Two Augusts.

Washington, Nov. 2.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today reported railroad earnings for August as follows: Operating expenses, $365,216,147 as compared with $327,199,369 in August, 1916; expenses, $209,341,511, as compared with $203,497,739; operating income $101,917,702, as compared with $109,916,693; eastern railroad operating income $44,179,669, as compared with $47,772,316; southern railroad operating income, $13,110,281, compared with $13,209,883; western railroad operating income, $44,627, compared with $48,934,494.

NEW MILFORD NEGRO SCALDED TO DEATH

Horrible Accidents in Laundry Here—Caught in Tons of Boiled Cotton Cloth.

New Milford, Nov. 2.—James Denny, a negro, aged 30, died in the Danbury hospital today as a result of a terrible scalding at the Robertson bleaching here on Tuesday. Denny removed the clamps from the top of a boiler containing 18 tons of cotton cloth, which had been under 200 pounds of steam pressure, without shutting off the steam.

The tons of cotton cloth were hurled upward; and Denny was enveloped in the steaming material. Workmen who attempted to rescue him were prevented by the scalding steam. When he was finally extricated his flesh clung to his clothing and he was hurried to the hospital, where he lingered two days in agony.

ADJUSTING DIFFERENCES OF MINER AND OPERATORS.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Fuel Administrator Garfield today sought to smooth out slight differences which still exist between the miners and operators of the southwestern coal fields—Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Texas. A committee representing the operators and miners went into conference with Dr. Garfield and submitted to him their penalty clauses, as provided for under the President's order of October 27. Both sides expressed satisfaction over the new wage increase agreement, and there was prospect that an early settlement would be reached over the penalty clause, which will be satisfactory to the fuel administration.

RUSSIA STILL IN WAR.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Russia is not out of the war, nor has she any intention of quitting, it was stated here today, following publication of statements attributed to Premier Kerensky, that Russia has the right to expect her allies to now shoulder the burden of the conflict. Kerensky has contended all along that the allies must have patience, and above all furnish active assistance. And assistance is now being rendered by the allies, although it may be some time before its effect can be seen.

MOOSE BANQUET.

About 100 members and friends of Manchester Lodge, No. 1477, Loyal Order of Moose, sat down to a banquet at the Orford hotel last evening. Members of the Rockville lodge were also present. Dictator Frank A. Monti, acted as toastmaster. During the evening Professor Clarence Hubbard, of Hartford, entertained with sleight of hand tricks. William Walsh, the hotel proprietor, brought a chef from New York city to prepare the banquet.

TARNOPOL BOMBED.

Petrograd, Nov. 2.—Russian air men have bombed Tarnopol successfully, it was announced today. Fires and explosions were observed. All of the Russian air men returned safely.

JOINT COMMITTEE MEETS

Campaigners to Interview Donators.
Y. M. C. A. Busy—Contributions to Date.

Manchester's hundred per cent perfect war record is not in the least danger of being marred in the campaign to raise $2,000 for the Knights of Columbus war fund with the aid of Y. M. C. A. workers. Today's results were most gratifying to those who are pushing the campaign; each mail brought a fresh supply of the envelopes addressed to Treasurer P. J. O'Leary, and the amount of checks and yellow-backs was most encouraging to all concerned.

The first day's donations reached a total of $434, which was an excellent first-day showing. The generous response indicates that there is full appreciation of the part of the townspeople of the Knights of Columbus by the war department—that of providing recreation buildings and social and educational advantages for the United States soldiers at the sixteen national encampments.

Joint Committee Meeting.

Plans for pushing the campaign were gone into at a meeting of the joint committee, Thursday evening. The present were Harry M. Burke, chairman; P. J. O'Leary, treasurer; Frank Cheney, Jr., Frank H. Anderson and Fred H. Wall. Satisfactory reports of the work in all its phases were submitted. The prospect of utilizing the good will of the local moving picture houses in the campaign was discussed, and the matter of securing some rattling good Camp Devens films and other five military features was considered. In event of a decision to carry out these plans, some enjoyable entertainment crowded theaters, and a wide distribution of tickets will follow.

The Fund to Date.

Following are the contributions to the Knights of Columbus war fund for the soldiers received by Treasurer P. J. O'Leary today and reported to The Evening Herald for acknowledgment:

- $50—Katherine L. Farley.
- $10—Harry M. Burke, P. H. Dougherty, John Carins.
- $3—E. L. G. Hohenbath, R. J. Gorman.
- $2—Leo Cleary, Wm. Rubinov, E. W. Post, Fred Shippee, George E. Ferris, Wm. A. Campbell, L. P. Knapp, E. Balleseper, F. W. Snow, Wm. Rush, Timothy J. Young, Wm. McGuire, sr., Thos. Wright, J. T. Turner, Henry K. Gerrish, John A. Hoop, N. Marlow, Geo. Davidson, Mortimer Elman.
- $1—Wm. Thimineur, George H. Williams, Scott H. Simon, A. W. Hitchcock, Mrs. W. C. Allison, H. Sander, Mrs. S. K. Yergens, Mrs. James W. Hall, Daniel Sheehan, Oliver Mallon, T. E. Collins, J. A. Fitch, John G. Turnbull, John Abajian, Chas. E. Norton, F. W. Woolworth Co., Jos. W. Flood, Cardine Campbell, John P. Campbell, Frank Sullivan, Thos. K. Clarke, Dwight Blish, John E. Dougan, Mrs. W. R. Mitchell, Edna A. Hall, Elizabeth M. Goodwin.
- $5—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Murphy, Luigi Pola, Carlyle Johnson Co., P. F. Hannon, C. J. Strickland, Dr. N. A. Burr, H. C. Alford, P. Waldo Smith.

MORE PLUMBERS OUT.

As was predicted, Ferris Brothers' head plumbers and steamfitters went out on strike this morning, after receiving a communication from the firm stating that they could not grant the men's demands for an increase in wages of $3 a week. There are about eight men out. Only one helper went out with the head men, and the others are doing odd jobs about the shop. Six or seven men in the employ of The Manchester Plumbing & Supply company went out on strike yesterday morning, but one of the plumbers, who also belong to the plumbers' and steamfitters' union, went back to work in the afternoon.

G. B. MEANS' TRIAL TO BE AT CONCORD N. C.

Suspected Murderer of Mrs. Maude G. King To Be Tried Nov. 26.

JUDGE SO RULES TODAY

Decision is to Advantage of Former Confidant of Wealthy Woman —Means Pleased.

Concord, N. C., Nov. 2.—Gaston B. Means will go on trial on a charge of murdering Mrs. Maude A. King here on November 26. The date was set after a conference of attorneys on both sides just before noon today. Judge Cline earlier had ruled that the trial could not be transferred to any other county and that it must proceed here.

Means beamed his satisfaction of the decision. He smiled at his spectators and turning towards the immediately Judge Cline rapped for order.

"I shall not tolerate any signs of approval or disapproval in this trial," he declared in crisp tones. "There shall be absolute quiet in this courtroom and justice will proceed with no evidence of approbation or disapprobation from any concerned."

The trial was postponed because of the fact that Judge Cline must leave to hold court in another county on November 1. Counsel on both sides agreed that the case could not be settled by them. A special session of court will be necessary to start the trial November 26. A request for this already has been sent to Governor Bickett.

Latter Position Covers Beer- sheba on North, War Office Officially Announces— First American Forces in Trenches Are Relieved— Muddy and Tired but Hard- ened.

London, Nov. 2.—The British have improved their positions south and west of Passchendaele and southeast of Poelcapelle as the result of minor operations, the war office announced today.

London, Nov. 2.—Further successes by the British troops operating in Palestine were announced by the War Office today.

"We now hold a position covering Beer-sheba on the North," the announcement read. "We conducted a successful raid. A large number of Turks were killed."

American Field Headquarters in France, Nov. 2.—Fresh battalions of the American forces have relieved those that have been in the trenches, and the former have been sent back to their billets.

The training received by the Samites in the trenches is considered invaluable. The first battalions, having completed the given period of training in actual battle, moved silently out of the trenches. Their return march was over frozen ground and was marked only by the sudden encountering of other American battalions, en route to the trenches and distinguishable from the French only by the shape of their helmets. There were but few other exchanges. The returning ones were tired and muddy but thoroughly happy.

GERMAN SECRET AGENTS PREPARE TO INFLUENCE RUSSIAN ELECTIONS

Novoye Vremya Makes Sen- sational Charges—Asserts Germany Would Determine Personnel of Constituent Assembly—Teuton Spies Active Again and Have Plenty of Bribe Money— War to Go On.

Petrograd, Nov. 2.—The German Intelligence Bureau is actively preparing to take part in the elections to the Russian constituent assembly, according to the Novoye Vremia.

Documents in possession of the Russian government, the paper says, reveals the astounding fact that German spies will endeavor by money and connections to develop a strong agitation for extremist plans, conclusion of immediate peace and against all constructive plans of the provisional government.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Reports received from Petrograd by mail and telegraph show that Premier Kerensky and his government, far from yielding to discouragement, are still animated by a strong determination to organize all Russian resources in a whole hearted resistance and carry the war through to a victorious completion. At the same time this government, like those of the Allies, is rendering all possible assistance.

'PHONE COMPANIES REPORT.

Washington, Nov. 2.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today issued the following report on the telephone companies of the United States for May, 1917. Operating revenue $26,298,141, as compared with $23,237,499 in May, 1916; expenses $17,943,344, compared with $15,330,083; operating income, $8,354,797, compared with $7,907,416; number of telephones in use 7,404,962, compared with 6,792,694.

Special Agent of Department of Justice After Professor in University of Middle West.

Champaign, Ill., Nov. 2.—Alleging that eight members of the faculty of one student of the University of Illinois are disloyal, W. H. Kerrick, special agent of the Department of Justice, is preparing today to lodge charges against those accused with the government and with Governor Lowden.

Kerrick charges that when he summoned several faculty members to appear before him after an investigation of alleged opposition of the nation's war program, including the sale of Liberty Bonds, all but two disregarded the summons.

'CHICAGO SUBURB HALTS 'SEPTEMBER MORNS'

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Discounted but otherwise qualified to understand the well known Lady Godiva, fair maidens rumped through the streets of Morton Grove, a suburb, in the small hours, even running foot races around the city hall. Morton Grove had stood for violations of the Sunday closing law, but this parade of "September mornings" was too much. The citizens complained, and as a result August Pohlmann, millionaire mayor of the suburb; Henry Lotisch, trustees; and Edward Johnson and Peter Heintz, saloon keepers, have been indicted for conspiracy, in permitting open saloons on Sunday, gambling and disorderly houses and "blind pigs."

Cold weather halted the antics of the Merry Godivas, but Mayor Pohlmann's pleas that he would return the village will fail to halt prosecution of the case, Assistant State's Attorney Case declared.

CHAMPLAIN MILLS BURN.

New York, Nov. 2.—The Champlain silk mills of Brooklyn, which have been operating day and night on war orders, was seriously damaged by fire early today. The concern manufactures silk bags for government gun powder orders. The damage, which includes two other concerns in the same building, is estimated at $25,000. Defective wiring was said to be the cause.

FORM ASSOCIATION TO CATCH HORSE THIEVES.

Illinois has an anti-horse thief association.

Its object is primarily the catching of horse thieves, but at a convention recently held here resolutions were adopted extending the vigilance work to apprehending automobile thieves and other purloiners of other people's property.

Dr. J. C. Montgomery of Blue Mound, has been elected president, and Taylorville, Ill., selected as the next year's convention city. The association has a membership of nearly four thousand in the state.

At the last convention the association went on record as firmly supporting the President in his war policy and approved the Liberty Loan issue.

TURKEY SELLING HIGH IN SOUTHERN STATES.

The average cost of the turkey that will be the chief attraction of the great American family Thanksgiving dinner will be around $4. The bird in the South is selling at forty cents a pound, an advance of fully twenty per cent. over the prevailing prices of last year. But the South can always find a way out. Where the family is not too fastidious and where the New England strain is not too strong in the blood, "Brer 'possum," done to a turn with sweet potatoes, will answer the purpose.

AT THE PARK.

Firemen from all over town will be at the Park theater tonight at the annual benefit performance of Hose Company No. 3. Besides a crackerjack movie program the men will give away ten dollars in four two-and-a-half-dollar prizes.

The feature reel will be William Russell in "High Play", a tale of frenzied finance and love. It tells a high tension story of fortune and romance. Photographically speaking and from the point of view of stage direction, the play is a studio triumphant episode also distinguishes it from the average production. An element of mystery is added to the play through speculation already rife as to the particular financial debacle, upon which the story is threaded.

Besides this there will be a comedy and the Mutual Weekly. This week's issue shows big scenes from the World's championship baseball games played at New York and Chicago.

For tomorrow "The Crimson Dove" will be the Brady Made feature and the Keystone on the double feature bill will be "A Clever Dummy".

On Sunday the Triangle feature besides "Do Children Count?" will be William Desmond in "Master of His Home".

On next Tuesday, "They're Off!" a race track thriller will be featured and R. S. Johnson, of the famous Strollers' Quartet, of Portland, Me., will sing the popular songs of the day. There will be no advance for this extra feature.

OIL FOR BRITISH SHIPPING BOARD PROBLEM.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Chairman Edward N. Hurley of the shipping board left for New York today to confer with members of the British war mission and with petroleum producers concerning the question of shipment of oil supplies for the British navy.

British demands for oil will make it imperative for this government to divert a certain amount of tonnage for that purpose. The British war mission estimates that it needs 360,000 tonnage to transport American oil for the British fleet. Just how much of this tonnage the United States can spare is now being discussed.

COAL STRIPPERS ASK INCREASE IN PRICE.

The Ohio Coal Strippers' Association, representing interests worth $50,000,000, will ask the Federal Fuel Administration for an increase of at least fifty cent a ton, or a total price of $2.50, for their coal at the mine. Every stripping operator has been asked to furnish data and send to a committee which has its headquarters here.

The coal stripping companies produce their coal by means of steam shovels, and while this process requires less men than the ordinary mining methods, the cost of steam power has risen considerably, according to D. Vass, of Wheeling, W. Va., treasurer of the association.

"In order to be able to operate at a profit we must be granted an increase in price," said Mr. Vass. "Our purpose is to work in perfect harmony with the government, and we hope that the Fuel Administration will see the justice of our claims."

ESCADRILLE CHANGES.

Paris, Nov. 2.—Lieutenant William Thaw, of Pittsburgh, is now in command of the Lafayette Escadrille. He has succeeded Captain Thénault, the French officer who was in command of the unit when it was originally formed.

Captain Thénault is suffering from nervous strain and overwork as a result of his continuous service with the Escadrille during which he has had no furlough. He has been sent to a convalescent and nursing hospital in the south of France and will probably not be back at the front before next week.

Lieutenant Verderi, whose brother is proprietor of a department store in San Francisco, is now second in command.

Walter Lovell, of Concord, Mass., has been promoted to rank of adjutant, following the splendid work he has been doing during the last few months.

GOVERNMENT SHORT OF PENNIES AND DIMES.

Washington, Nov. 2.—New problems have arisen for the United States mint as the result of the stimulated business activity which has attended upon the war. Raymond T. Baker, director of the mint, today ordered that the various plants of the mint operate all day Sundays to turn out the needed coins. For some time the mints have been working on a 24-hour schedule, but this has proved inadequate and Sunday work must be resorted to.

The immediate needs, according to Director Baker, is for pennies and dimes.

ITS PART SAYS SCOVILLE

State Food Administrator Declares Food Card Campaign Has Been a Success Here—Miss Hunt
on Substitutes.

Manchester is fully holding up its end in the food card campaign.
State food administrator Robert Scoville told an audience so at the Center Congregational church parish hall last night, and later reiterated his assertion.

Manchester was cited in a dispatch yesterday from Hartford as a town which was holding back its cards.

Upon the stage in addition to the chief speaker of the evening sat a mixed quartet and the pastor, Dr.
Hesselgrave, who introduced the speakers. A couple of big posters, one demanding that people save wheat, meats, fats and sugar, another of the State Council of National Defense and the United States food administrator, to much the same effect, were tacked on the wall back of the platform.

The audience of 150 or less made up in attentiveness what it lacked in numbers.

The quartet led in the singing of patriotic airs, including the Marsellaise, and rendered one or two selections without the chorus, before the speaking began.

Mr. Scoville speaks.
In the course of his speech, which was informal, Mr. Scoville said a greater saving could be effected by stopping waste than by using substitutes. It was especially imperative for the country to toe the mark in food thrift, he declared, because democracy was on trial. Autocracy believed and had asserted that the citizens of a democracy were individually self-indulgent.

Mr. Hoover had told him, he said, how the leading flour men of the country had voluntarily offered to submit to a larger measure of control than he would have himself assented.

The state food administrator, read the pledge card, and described a follow-up campaign, in which there were to be certain wasteless and mealless days, with every day a wasteless day.

Miss Hunt speaks.
The speech of Miss Mery E. Hunt, director of household arts in the public schools, was of practical value in its advice regarding the use of substitutes. Molasses was better than sugar for children, she said,
and corn syrup was valuable also.
Honey, vegetable sugars, jams, jellies, etc., had their places.

There was no end of wheat cereals in the morning, she continued.
In bread, one third of its composition might be a grain other than wheat.
Rice was an excellent foundation for all sorts of salads, because it absorbed the flavor of fruit, meat, fish or what-not.

Fish had been neglected as a meat substitute. Milk was a substitute not only for meat, but for almost anything, except that it did not provide iron. Dried beans, peas, peas, peanuts and lentils might be used as vegetables. Meats in the form of stews were most nutritious.

The fats of meats should never be wasted. Both animal and vegetable "oleos" were wholesome, but neither contained all of the properties of butter, and the latter should be given to children as usual.

Miss Hunt closed with an enumeration of several menus.

The Local Speakers.
After Mr. Scoville had finished speaking Mrs. W. C. Cheney told how the Women's committee of the Council of Defense had been organized in this town. She said that when the food pledge card plan was presented the committee called on the women of the town to aid in the work. Out of sixty invitations sent out fifty persons responded. G. H. Miller took charge of the work and soon the town was flooded with the pledges.

Another branch of the Women's committee took up the Liberty Loan work and gathered in the last campaign over $200,000 from 500 subscribers. There were over 100 women engaged in this campaign. She said that the Women's committee was ever ready to assist in any plan for the good of the town, the state and the nation.

G. H. Miller then explained how the food pledge campaign has been conducted and how successful it was in Manchester.

Questions Freely Asked.

Then Mr. Scoville announced that he would answer any questions on the subject of food conservation. F.
H. Anderson asked whether Mr.
Hoover was responsible for the pledge cards left at the churches.
These were weekly reports for the parishioners to make to their pastors and a complete report is to be made to the government at Washington by the pastors. The speaker answered that Mr. Hoover did not originate the idea but the churches put the plan before him and as it was a plan to save food he had endorsed it.

Miss Helen Chapman asked if it was right for organizations to have banquets after those who attended had eaten their supper at home. Mr.
Scoville said that it was wrong and that everything should be done to discourage the practise. Mr. Anderson then arose and asked if supper had not been eaten and the banquet made the third meal of the day was it all right. The speaker said there was nothing against that.

C. R. Hathaway then asked what had been done to regulate the price of food and Mr. Scoville answered that prices would be controlled in due time.

We see no chance for peace in Europe. Nobody wants it but the people.—Patterson Call.

EASTERN FOOTBALL WARMING UP FAST

West Point vs. Notre Dame Saturday's Big Game—Syracuse vs.
Brown

New York, Nov. 2.—Eastern football eleven will swing into the final month of the season tomorrow, and several important games will be decided. Interest in tomorrow's grid battles will center at West Point, where the army will meet Notre Dame. The Indiana team will invade the East with its lineup infact, according to reports, while the army will be minus the services of Vandergraaf, star tackle.

Syracuse and Brown.
The game between Syracuse and Brown at Providence means much to the Brunoians for they have not yet been defeated, and the same applies to Dartmouth, against which team Penn State will battle tomorrow.

Cornell's varsity eleven has been definitely selected, it was announced today, and the coaches are confident of a victory over Carnegie Tech.

Other Games.
The undefeated Washington and Jefferson eleven will have a comparatively easy time with Marietta, and Pittsburgh and Penn are picked to defeat Westminster and Lafayette.

The fast going Colgate team will stack up against Rochester, and the Navy will take on Western Reserve of Cleveland at Annapolis.

Other eastern games of varied importance on tomorrow's schedule are:

Williams at Wesleyan, Carlisle at Bucknell and West Virginia at Rutgers.

There is some doubt as to whether coal will be king this winter. A popular disapproval of kings is growing, and the government may put this monarch off his throne and in his place as a servant of the people.—

THE HERALD REBUKED.

The Rockville Leader gravely upbraids the Herald for sundry reflections upon the Loom City and in particular for misrepresenting Rockville's contribution to the Liberty Loan. As to the specific instance, the Herald in its very next issue has hastened to say that it had been misinformed, and made correction and apology.

Concerning the general charge that the Herald pokes fun at Rockville and does not show the magnanimous spirit it should, we consider it unfounded. When the present editor of the Herald founded the paper thirty-six years ago, Rockville was a larger place than Manchester and was about clothing itself in a city charter. From that time on there was a healthy rivalry between the two places which culminated in a somewhat heated contest for supremacy on the baseball diamond. Soon after that controversy Manchester began to forge ahead of its neighbor and now, by the admission of our contemporary, has about twice the population of the city of Rockville and the surrounding town of Vernon combined.

With such a lead as this we must admit that there is no further need of comparisons for the purpose of stimulating local enterprise. But it is hard to get the boys in the office out of the habit of slyly a good-natured dig now and then at our old time rival. There is no hard feeling, Brother Smith. The Herald fully appreciates all the kind words that the Leader has said of it and isn't a bit stuck up because it has, after a long and sometimes painful struggle, graduated into the daily class. We think so much of the Leader that we gladly exchange with it and read it faithfully. We shall continue to do so in spite of the spirit of sadness which steals over us when we read this extract from the Leader's editorial:

"For a large quality town that has always been treated fairly by Rockville, Manchester has a newspaper in the 'Herald' that is either trying to row view and a small spirit, nowhere near approaching the view and spirit of Manchester and her people."

ITALY AND MAN POWER.

The statement of the First Lord of the British admiralty, published this morning, that nearly half of the German submarines have been sunk, is probably as near the truth as can be ascertained, in spite of the bias which one might attach to its author. Between 40 and 50 per cent of the U-boats at work in the North and Arctic seas and the Atlantic is the way the report reads. Yesterday the Evening Herald published a statement by a British officer that five submarines were sunk or captured weekly.

Perhaps this explains the Italian campaign, and also it explains the emboldened attitude of the Reichstag, especially the social democrats.

What is more important, however, is not that Germany will certainly lose the war, but that, regardless of how completely the Allies, including America, are victorious, or how fully they can impose their own terms upon the Central Powers, Germany, and to a hardly less extent Austria-Hungary, has reached such a point of physical exhaustion and loss of man power that she will be utterly incapacitated for heavy warfare for many a decade to come. The throwing of half a million Germans—most of them Bavarians, dispatches say—into the breach in northern Italy, will still further deplete Germany's man power. And these Bavarians are not quite so eager to continue the war as are the Prussians.

Already, with the data at hand, it is certain that Germany's loss of man power by next summer say, will be a full 50 per cent, against Great Britain's 25 per cent, and that is allowing the latter to lose a round 1,000,000 men during the current year of the war, a figure abnormally high. In view of the new policy of man-saving which has been put into effect.

Now a new source of destruction of Germany's man power has appeared, regardless of how successful the campaign in Italy may continue to be. Italy's man power is second only to that of Russia itself, as Mr. Simonds points out, and she can afford to lose man for man against Germany and Austria-Hungary and still keep the allied cause several notches ahead.

FOOD SUBSTITUTES.

Food substitutes are in a class by themselves, and there ought to be less popular prejudice against the use of them, now that the necessity is upon us. Miss Hunt, director of household arts in the public schools, showed plainly in her speech last night at the Center Congregational church that many of the substitutes proposed for meats, fats, sugars and wheat were preferable to the articles to which consumers have been accustomed.

The fact that the "darker breads" are many of them more wholesome than the white breads, which are the standard article of diet in so many households, ought to be emphasized again and again. The variety of substitutes for sugar, though some of them, like honey, are more expensive, is something well worth reminding consumers of.

Miss Hunt's talk bristled with facts, not all of which were matters of common knowledge, even to expert housekeepers. It was also packed with good advice regarding choice of substitutes, some of which, like butter, are necessary, especially for the little folks.

The food thrift habit is the thing that the leaders of the food card campaign are evidently aiming at, and a habit can be formed in a week or two if indulgence does not break its effects meanwhile.

Manchester ought to derive some permanent good from the campaign which has been conducted here. Judging by the success of the local workers, the value will be abiding.

BRIDGEPORT'S SUICIDES.

It's "sad news, bad news" that comes out today regarding Bridgeport's suicide rate. The ammunition town stands fifth among 100 cities of the United States in the number of its suicides. Nearly 32 persons out of a 100,000 killed themselves during 1916, against a little over 17 and one half as the average of the cities cited.

The Hartford rate decreased from 22.5 to 18.9 per 100,000 of population.

It stands 30th in the list of 100.

New Haven is No. 80 among the 100. Springfield is No. 55.

The statistics are of course not in themselves very significant, for Bridgeport's increase, for instance, is only 10 suicides in 1916 as compared with 1915, 40 as against 30 the previous year. A single year does not fix or certainly should not fix a city's place.

Mr. Roosevelt is one of the chief sights of America. Those who fail to hear him at Hartford tonight will miss a good deal.

Judge Hylan is not only a "joke", but evidently a "joker", in what might be called the legislative sense of the term. It's the same old Tammany, and the same old Tiger—about as friendly to Washington as the hungry quadruped usually is.

Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown, including of course chancellors who are only proxies for Kaisers.

We wonder how long it will take Emperor Charles to realize, after the victories in Italy, that he is only playing jotta subscript after all, to Wilhelm's alpha and omega.

CHANGES IN GERMAN GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED.

Amsterdam, Nov. 2.—Count von Hertling has accepted the post of Chancellor, according to advices from Berlin today. He has also been made Premier of Prussia. It was stated.

Coincident with the announcement that von Hertling had taken the post after it was reported that he would decline it, word was received that Dr. Karl Helfferich has resigned as vice-chancellor and minister of the interior. Herr von Waldow, food dictator, also is reported to have resigned.

Herr von Payer, progressive leader, is expected to become vice-chancellor.

Banks employing girls as clerks find them slower than boys, which ought to be an advantage occasionally when one of the clerks starts South with the contents of a till.—Pittsburgh Post.

MACCABEES GIVE PRIZES TO AMATEUR GARDENERS

All Sorts of Vegetables and Fruits Exhibited After the Lodge's Business Meeting.

At the meeting of Manchester Tent of Maccabees held in Brown Lodge hall last evening the members had a display of fruit and vegetables raised by them in their home gardens this summer. The display was spread out on tables in the lodge hall.

The judges were A. L. Brown, P. J. Toohy and H. L. Wilson. At the close of the business meeting the members looked over the exhibit with great interest. The judges declared the following prize winners:

Potatoes; first prize, Harry Custer; second, Dwight Blish.

Parasip; first prize, W. J. Douglas; second, Alfred Rivenburg.

Turnip; first prize, L. N. Chapman; second, Henry Custer.

Carrot; first prize, D. W. Blish; second, L. N. Chapman.

Tomatoes; first prize, Conrad Apel.

Celery; first prize, L. N. Chapman; second, H. E. Fairbanks; third, L. N. Chapman.

Onions; first prize, W. J. Douglas; second, L. N. Chapman.

Apples; first prize, D. W. Blish.

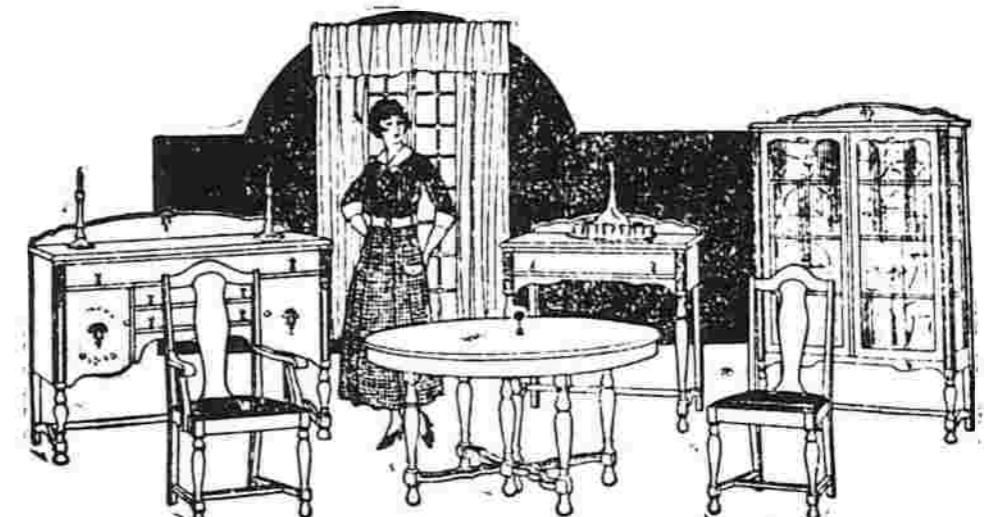

Beets; first prize, Henry Custer; second, L. N. Chapman.

L. N. Chapman was awarded the special prize for the largest and best exhibit.

Following the awarding of the prizes the members enjoyed a social hour with refreshments.

SUNDAY FOOTBALL.

The Independents will go to Rockville Sunday afternoon to play the Rovers of that city. They will leave the Cottage street playground at 1:30 o'clock, making the trip to the Loom City in an automobile truck. It is expected that a goodly number of rooters will accompany the team. The Independents will be the first Manchester football team to play in Rockville for some time. They are to have a game with the Rovers in Manchester two weeks from Sunday, but had to agree to play in the Loom City first in order to get the game here.

For The Thanksgiving Dining Room

What is so significant of Thanksgiving as the home?

Thanksgiving Day in the home with the family, and possibly friends, gathered around the festive board, good cheer reigning, makes the hostess happy, if her dining room is a beauty spot, a welcoming room for those who would dine pleasurably and contentedly.

Will your dining room be as attractive as you desire on this Thanksgiving Day?

Will the furniture be what you want? Don't let Thanksgiving Day find any creaky chairs, a shaky table, a marred buffet, or not enough furniture to meet your demands.

Our displays present a host of moderately priced pieces for those who would choose artistic furniture for the dining room, assured that each piece is of sturdy construction and worth while for the home.

Period and modern pieces in a stock as large as any we know of in this vicinity.

LARGE AUDIENCE AGAIN STIRRED BY REV. MOORE

"The Gracious Words of Jesus" was the subject on which Rev. Mr. Moore preached last night at the South Methodist church. In the course of his sermon he said:

"While her husband was giving a testimony in meeting, you have seen a woman picking things off her dress that weren't there. While his wife was speaking in meeting, you have seen a man looking into the book and not seeing anything that was there. He knew that life, and he knew that he was living with the kingdom of God in his own house. There was more in the life than in the testimony."

"No man has ever yet adequately reported Jesus Christ. This is why we turn from what men said about him to the words he spoke himself, the most difficult place to live the Christian life is before the people who know us best. Christ came to Nazareth, his home, the hardest place in Palestine for him to preach."

"He said, 'The Spirit of the Lord is upon me for he hath anointed me to preach the gospel.' The nearest some people seem to get to Christ is in seeing the hypocrisy of other men. It is the type that takes an apple from an orchard and insists that there are no good apples. We have condemned Christ because we did not know Him. He spoke gracious words and did gracious deeds because the spirit of the Lord was upon Him. When the spirit of the Lord comes upon any man, it will be known. The soul can't hold the mighty truth. It bursts out."

"He came to preach the gospel to the poor. That means all men everywhere. There are no rich men or poor men in the eye of God. We all stand as paupers before him."

"Christ came to heal the broken-hearted. In these days when hearts are broken by the desolations and separations of war some are finding that the only strength that sustains is that which comes from above. When a man stands by the grave of his dead, how helpless we are to say any word that will comfort. Then men find comfort in the gracious Christ."

"Christ came to deliver from captivity. Every man has been taken in the snare, every man has looked out of his prison house. But Christ has come that men may escape from themselves, find God and in finding him find themselves. Because Christ came, any man may run up the shining way and find perfect liberty at the feet of the Son of God."

Yesterday there was a large attendance at the children's meeting in the afternoon. Another such service will be held next Wednesday. In the evening there was a splendid audience. A delegation came from the Rockville Methodist church, also one from East Glastonbury. Tonight Mr. Moore will speak on "How One Man Found Christ." It will be a special night for the members of the Sunday school. Plans are being made for a men's meeting to be held

LAKE RIVER VESSELS TO HOUSE NAVY WORKERS.

Washington, Nov. 2.—The problem of housing the overflow of workers at Atlantic coast navy yards and arsenals may be solved by pressing into emergency service a large fleet of passenger vessels, which otherwise would be tied up during the winter months, on the Great Lakes, the Hudson river and in other parts of the country. The idea comes from C. W. Morse, the New York ship magnate, and is being seriously considered today by the shipping board, the war and navy departments.

The commissary department of the Lynch Construction company's camp is open again. This department was recently closed by an attachment. Men are hired by the company to run

Should the person who pays CASH and CARRIES his goods home be entitled to buy cheaper than the one who has his goods charged and delivered?

We believe he should, and have decided, from now on, to give him the saving he is entitled to. It costs us 10 per cent less to sell goods to that customer than to the one to whom we have to deliver and charge the goods.

We shall still continue to deliver goods and to carry charge accounts for our old customers and at regular prices, but we will give

10 Per Cent Discount

To all CASH customers who Carry Home their purchases, amounting to $1.00 or over—Sugar and Flour excepted.

OR, WE WILL GIVE

5 Per Cent Discount

On CASH purchases of LESS THAN $1.00 which the customer carries home or Cash Purchases of over $1.00 which we deliver.

You'll be surprised at your savings by paying Cash and Carrying Home your goods. We shall not feel bad, because we save that much selling expense.

PUBLIC MEETING OF THE Board of Selectmen

Notice is hereby given that there will be a meeting of the Board of Selectmen of the Town of Manchester for the transaction of the business of the town, Tuesday, November 6, 1917, at 8 o'clock p. m., at the Hall of Records.

W. B. ROGERS, Secretary.

THOUGHT HIM DEAD, BUT CAME HOME ALIVE.

Bernard Junge's action in showing up at home in Fort Wayne, Ind., just a few hours before he was to be buried may cause his father, August Junge, to have to pay for an elaborate funeral for an unidentified man.

Junge believed his boy had been killed in a train accident near Poseyville. He sent for descriptions, and they seemed to tally. He brought the body home and it was prepared for burial. Before the time for the funeral he viewed the body and declared it did not resemble his son at all.

He was right, for a little later the son walked into the house. The mother ran from the house screaming at the top of her voice. The son had escaped from an insane hospital and had reached home after several weeks' tramping.

Junge had contracted to pay for a coffin and for the burial of the man thought to be his son regardless of his real identity.

JAPANESE PRODUCERS GET "TRUST" IDEAS.

The little brown men from the Orient are rapidly acquiring up-to-date methods of the big trusts. With the cabbage market at an extremely low ebb, the Japanese cabbage growers in Weld County, Colo., suddenly refused to sell to their American customers. With a stranglehold on the output, the shrewd Japs ran the price of cabbage from twenty-five to sixty cents a hundred pounds before they finally loosened the "restraint of trade" so that the cabbage buyers could supply shipments previously contracted for.

GERMANS FEAR U. S. MIGHT IN WORLD WAR.

Colonel T. H. Goodwin of the Royal Army Medical Corps of England, told physicians in the training camp at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., that the Germans fear the effects of the entry of America into the war.

"A German captain who had been captured was asked what he thought about our much-prized shell fire," said Colonel Goodwin. "Your artillery is no better than ours," the German replied. "Surely you will admit we excel in aviation," we told him. "No," the German replied, "you are not better than us anywhere." "Finally we asked him what he thought about America entering the war, and he answered: "That is hell—we've got some brains to fight now."

STAMPEDE OF "SHORTS" CAUSES GENERAL RISE

New York Exchange Sees Sensational Changes in Serious Downward Market.

New York, Nov. 2.—A stampede of shorts at the opening of the stock market today sent prices up from one to five points in the initial trading.

The first sale of Steel Common was 20,000 shares at from 98 1/2 to 97, against 93 1/2 at the close yesterday. Bethlehem Steel B was up 4 1/2 points at 80 and General Motors advanced 7 1/2 points to 93 1/2. Crucible Steel rose 3 1/2 points to 59 1/2 and Baldwin advanced 2 1/2 to 55 1/2.

The Marine shares were active, Marine Preferred rising 3 1/2 to 100 1/2 and the common stock 1 1/2 to 27. Atlantic Gulf and West Indies advanced 2 1/2 to 98 1/2.

American Smelting advanced 2 1/2 to 77 1/2 and Anaconda scored an equal gain to 57 1/2. Utah was up over two points to 80. The railroad stocks showed vast improvement, Chesapeake and Ohio advancing four points to 47 and Canadian Pacific 3 1/2 to 137. Reading gained 2 1/2 to 63.

Reactions followed the violent opening advances, on which most of the leading issues lost about half of their initial gains. Later there was a recovery, but not to the highest figures.

Steel Common was dealt in on a fairly large scale, and after selling down to 95 1/2, moved up to 96 1/2, and Bethlehem Steel B, after reacting from 80 to 77 1/2 advanced to 78. General Motors continued active, selling down from 93 1/2 to 87 and then moving up to 89 1/2.

Marine Preferred, after reacting to 93 came back one point. Union Pacific was the most active of the railroad issues, declining from 116 to 114 1/2.

Cotton.—New York, Nov. 2.—Good buying of the Hay option by Liverpool and room traders was the feature of the opening of the cotton market today. The tone was firm, prices advancing one to eight points, the latter in May.

After the call, demand increased. By the end of the first 15 minutes net advances of 25 to 28 points had been recorded.

Money loaning at four per cent. Clearing house statement: Exchanges, $771,250,531; balances, $69,633,195.

THE VIGILANTES

The following articles are written by the Vigilantes. Who are the Vigilantes? The Vigilantes is an organization of America's brainiest men and women, who receive fabulous prices for their contributions to magazines. When war was declared with Germany they banded together and decided to use their pens, absolutely free to the publishers, "to help make the world safe for democracy."

KICK THE KAISER OUT OF CONGRESS!

By Lowell C. Frost of The Vigilantes. (Senators and Congressmen are now at home with leisure to learn the sentiments of their constituents. Would it not be well to let them know, once for all, what patriots think should be done to La Follette and the other allies of the Kaiser?)

Is the Kaiser in Congress? Not in person, of course. Neither is he in the Reichstag in person. But he is represented in both places very efficiently.

Who would dare to represent him in the Congress of the United States?

Robert M. LaFollette would dare, and will dare, not merely to represent the Kaiser in the halls of Congress, but also to give him aid and comfort wherever he goes, through his speeches, acts, and influence.

But how can he do all this without being arrested for seditious practices?

Well, you see it's like this: Under the constitution he cannot be touched for anything he may say in the Senate, and as to his activities outside of the Senate, that august body stuffs its fingers into its ears and doesn't hear anything. You will notice that there are very few men in the Senate who care, or perhaps dare, to throw any very big stones at anyone.

Can nothing, then, be done to stop the mouth of a traitor in high office in this country? Yes, the Senate has the right to cleanse itself of the Gentleman from Berlin by expelling him with a two-thirds vote.

Then why have they not already done so?

Well, if a pole-cat got into your house by mistake, you would be sure that it ought to be put out, wouldn't you? But someone very likely hesitates for a few moments hoping that someone else would come along to do it for you.

How, then, in the name of justice and common sense, can we remove the shame once and for all, and make LaFollette's expulsion certain?

We must come down so hard on the political toes of every Senator from every state, that he will jump to his feet with the conviction that public opinion is more to be feared than the pole-cat, and that the men and women of his state will no longer be soothed by such balmy phrases as "Senatorial Courtesy," "Indiplomatic Exposure," and so on.

It is very necessary to send our sons abroad that they may make the world safe for Democracy, but it is equally important for us at home to Kick the Kaiser out of Congress!

WHO'S WHO AMONG THE PACIFISTS.

H. W. L. Dana, By Hildebrand Hawthorne of the Vigilantes.

"There's this man Dana," said the Man Who Wants to Know. "He sounds American."

"How d'you mean, sounds?"

"I mean his name. I'd hate to think the awful stuff he signs his name to was American. Here he is with the other creatures that call themselves pacifists, and are evidently trying to take the heart out of all our boys who are going into this war because they know that America needs them as she's never needed them to fight for her before; trying to make them feel, if possible, that they have no solid backing from their folks at home; trying to befool the fine clear spirit of patriotism and devotion to an ideal that is indeed fit to die for, by base and sinister insinuations—I'd certainly hate to think such stuff American; but the name—"

"Ever hear of H. W. Longfellow?"

"What are you driving at? Longfellow—the poet?"

"Did you notice this man Dana's initials?"

"H. W. L. You don't mean he's related to Longfellow?"

"It's a kind of sardonic joke, isn't it, that the author of 'Paul Revere's Ride' should have this Pacifist grandson? Longfellow was a gentle spirit certainly. No fire eater, no swashbuckler, heaven knows! But the old man knew that there was a time when you had to fight, or quit being a man or a nation. And he could put that conviction into words that have rung the hearts of three generations. And now we have this sort of stuff from his grandson. To be sure, the words of Dana are scarcely likely to ring in any hearts. You might as well expect a ditch to turn the wheels of a mill and make flour for bread to give the body of man sustenance."

WANTED: Boys over 14 years of age to work Saturday in nursery. C. E. Wilson & Co. Adv.

"What's Mr. Dana's own job?"

"He's a professor. There are a good many professors in the pacifist business. I suppose they like to think they are above the common herd—and the easiest way to think it is by running contrary to the accepted ideas and beliefs of men and women who are not professors, but just humans. A professor of that type hates to think that theory isn't the strongest thing in the world. A good theory is all he wants. It is a perfectly good theory that to fight is bad, and leads to all sorts of trouble. Nothing easier than for the professional mind to cast facts into the discard, and go hotfoot on his theoretical track. Longfellow was a poet. He hated war and disease and wickedness, as all wise and good men must. But he knew there are times when a man must fight for the truth that is in him and the spirit that leads him, and he voiced that conviction in noble verse. I should advise anyone who has been assailed by any of Professor Dana's propaganda to turn back to the words of his grandfather—and get square with life again."

"To, so to say, take the taste out of your mouth," declared the Man Who Wants to Know.

SWEATERS FOR THE KAISER.

By Caroline Ticknor of The Vigilantes.

Just now there is a big drive on to secure sweaters for our boys in camp, and for those going off to France. Our soldiers, who are going out to stand between us and the guns are cold. The Red Cross is calling for a million helmets and sweaters, and thousands of devoted women are working over-time trying to fill this great demand. Wool is expensive, some of our women are going without the things they want, yes need, in order that they may buy it. Some of our women would gladly knit if they could buy the necessary wool but they have not the money. And in the meantime, there are thousands of women able-bodied, and well-to-do, knitting pro-German sweaters for themselves. Knitting for Germany!

A few days since I visited the worsted-counters of several of our big department stores to get some wool to finish up a soldier's sweater. Before these counters I found that women were lined up three-deep purchasing wool and needles. I looked at them with satisfaction; our women were certainly awake to the needs of our "boys."

And then! I suddenly discovered that they were buying pale-greens, and pinks, and blues; only one woman in a dozen calling for the gray, or khaki.

These were the scraps of conversation which greeted my astonished ears:—"I'm going to make mine yellow trimmed with white!" "Nell, you look sweet in green." "I've got a pattern that fits me like a glove." "I've made me a red one, and a blue, and now I'm going to make a black."

I turned away in wonder. I couldn't at first understand. They were well-dressed, well-fed and seemingly intelligent and well-intentioned.

What was the explanation? There must be some sufficient reason? Suddenly, all in an instant, the answer was flashed upon me. "They are knitting for Germany! They're making sweaters for the Kaiser!" I'm glad none of my friends are doing it! If you know anyone who is, just tell her that Major Murphy, Red Cross Commissioner in Paris, has cabled: "We need at once 1,500,000 sweaters, 1,500,000 mufflers, 1,500,000 pairs of socks, 1,500,000 wristlets—they must come before cold weather. Everyone here looks to America! We urge you on behalf of our soldiers and those of our allies who will suffer in their frozen trenches, and also on behalf of thousands of French and Belgian refugees.—Begin shipping at once."

BOMBING THE RED CROSS.

By Jonathan Bang of the Vigilantes. One of the activities of folks who want to destroy confidence in every institution which is working for a permanent state of democracy is to "get after the Red Cross."

"Terrible lot of graft," they declare. "Awful what salaries some of them get!"

That, by the way, is a lie. Those who give all their time to Red Cross direction are paid on the basis of receiving less than they are worth—the balance is their individual contribution to the merciful mission of the Red Cross.

There are abroad persistent rumors that the boys in the Army and Navy have to pay two dollars for a sweater knitted by patriotic fingers and fifty cents for a pair of socks similarly constructed. Of course, this is another falsehood.

Boys will be boys, and many a lad in the Army or Navy is not far beyond the knickerbocker age when he traded marbles and postage stamps. The sentiment in their souls does not always take orthodox expression, and while the women and girls who knit the warm grey or blue chest protectors love to feel that each stitch is treasured by the boy who wears it, just as likely as not he takes a chance on selling it when he can use the money to advantage, to one of the hucksters who follow the army for trade purposes. These in turn have been known to resell such wares to soldiers who have not yet received their allotments from the Red Cross. But whatever knitted garments the Red Cross sends out go free of charge.

TREE VACCINATION WORTHLESS.

Makers of "Fertilizing Scale Treatment" Fined $100 in Federal Court.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 2.—Claims that the insertion of a white capsule and a brown capsule, containing potassium cyanide and other substances, in the bark of fruit trees will kill scale on the trees, led to a fine of $100 in the Federal courts upon the makers of the "Fertilizing Scale Treatment," who pleaded guilty to the charge of misbranding and adulteration. This fine, reported in a recently published notice of judgment was imposed in the case of the United States versus Albert D. Kleckner, Maybelle B. Kleckner and Emma Kleckner (Fertilizing Scale Co.), Allentown, Pa., brought under the Insecticide Act of 1910 at the instance of the United States Department of Agriculture in the Eastern District Court, Pennsylvania.

Capsules Tested.

The department tested these capsules for several years on fruit trees to determine whether their use had any deterrent effect on scale and whether the material also actually fertilized the trees as asserted by the makers. The department found that the capsules did not kill the scale and did not fertilize the trees, but on the contrary, injured the tree causing large cankers through which rot fungi may enter and finally destroy the tree. The department's tests were further supplemented and confirmed by scientists of the department who visited many orchards in Maryland and Pennsylvania and studied the trees which had been treated by the agents of the company.

The "Fertilizing Scale Treatment" has been advertised and sold also as a remedy for other insects and for various tree diseases. Department specialists fail to find any reason to believe that the potassium cyanide and other substances inserted in trees in capsules have any value, whatever, in controlling plant pests.

PACIFIC STEAMER AGROUND.

Seattle, Washington, Nov. 2.—The steamship Al Ki, bound for Seattle from Juneau, is aground in a snow-storm on Point Augusta, according to word reaching the Merchants' Exchange here today. The vessel has sent out wireless distress calls. There are 34 passengers aboard.

The government cable ship Burnside has started to the aid of the wrecked vessel and the fishing schooner San Juan is reported to have reached the wreck and will take off the passengers, if the danger becomes great.

DECISIONS AFFIRMED.

Hartford, Nov. 2.—At the Governor's office today a telegram was received from Washington announcing the President's affirmation of board. Those whose appeals for exemption are denied are Frank H. Joyce of Bridgeport, and John H. Aiken of Norwalk.

If Ban Johnson becomes a soldier he may be expected to make the usual announcement that tickets of admission to Berlin in the last grand battle will not be permitted to fall into the hands of speculators.—Springfield News.

Superior Optical Service

Here you have the service of one of the best Refractionists and Optometrists in this country, with more than 20 years experience and a graduate of the largest optical college in America. There are very few, if any, cases of defective vision but that he can give instant relief and perfect sight. Thousands of Manchester people who have been disappointed in glasses elsewhere have been perfectly fitted here and are today praising his optical work and sending their friends here for glasses that relieve headaches and nervousness caused by eye strain.

Lenses Ground While You Wait

When you have the misfortune to break your glasses, bring us the pieces and we'll duplicate them while you wait—an hour or two at the most for even the most complicated lenses.

Our electric grinding plant on the premises makes it possible for us to give you this kind of service. You do not have to wait while your glasses are being sent to a wholesale house or to a distant city for repairs. Our prices are the same as the large city's.

CONNECTICUT MUST RAISE PIGS

It has become apparent that Connecticut must do her part in supplying mutton and pork. Just how this is to be done is not exactly clear to those cognizant of the situation, but a way must be found somehow or other to increase the number of cattle, sheep, and hogs in this state. The Committee of Food Supply and Conservation of the State Council of Defense has taken the matter up in order to bring about such an increase in this state if possible. They have appointed Samuel Russell, jr., of Middletown, Leonard Heeley, secretary of the State Board of Agriculture, and James M. Whittlesey, Commissioner of Domestic Animals, as a committee to look into the situation and to report the proper steps to be taken. A meeting will be held in Boston next Saturday, at which the state secretaries of agriculture of all the New England states will discuss the situation and devise some means of increasing the sheep population of this section of the country.

Great importance is attached to this movement by Herbert Hoover, who declares that our meat supply will win or lose the war for us. "A pig is worth as much as a shell," he says.

HOSE CO. NO. 1, S. M. F. D., PLANS FOR A BIG SOCIAL

$200 of Thanksgiving Receipts To Be Pledged for Our Boys—The Committees.

At the monthly meeting of Hose & Ladder Co. No. 1 of the South Manchester fire department last evening, various committees were appointed to make arrangements for the company's annual Thanksgiving eve social and dance. In giving the dance this year, the west side firemen are working for two causes; to send help and encouragement to "Our Boys" in service and to raise money toward the running expenses of the fire company.

With the idea of helping "Our Boys," it was voted at the meeting last night to pledge $200 of the Thanksgiving eve social receipts to the Red Cross. It also was voted to pay for seven of the soldiers' Christmas kits for its seven members who are in service. These men are Captain Harry B. Bissell of Company G, Lieutenant Philip Cheney, who is at the training camp at Yaphank, L. I.; Dr. C. C. Burlingame, who is doing Red Cross work "somewhere in France"; Max Bengs, who is training at Plattsburg, Edward Ballsiper, jr., who is at Camp Devens, and Walter Rau and Harry Maidment, and last but not least, Donald Miller, who are with the Naval Reserves. The money for the seven kits will be turned over to the local Red Cross Chapter, which is buying the articles for the kits in wholesale lots.

Under Heavy Expense. During the past summer, the west side firemen had a heavy extra expense in installing new engines in their trucks. Money also is needed for current expenses and for any emergency, which may arise. In the present crisis, it is highly important that fire companies should be as efficient as possible and it is to keep up and increase, if possible, its efficiency, that the annual Thanksgiving eve social is given.

As in past years, the firemen will sell "Pig Tickets" in connection with their social and during the evening they will give away 25 presents.

Committees in Charge. The committees having charge of the arrangements are as follows: General committee: L. N. Heebner, Thomas Bennisson, Herman Montie, Harry Schieldege, James O. McCaw, Charles Warren, R. O. Cheney, jr., Joseph Moore, B. L. Knight, Robert Thayer, John Bissell, Herman Behrend, C. D. Cheney.

Tickets and advertising: L. N. Heebner, Herman Montie, B. L. Knight, Herman Behrend, John Bissell, Joseph Moore, Charles Warren, George Smith, Arthur Lashinski, J. Henry Thornton, Harry Schieldege, Paul Agard, Robert Thayer, F. J. Bendall.

Floor and music: F. J. Bendall, C. O. Lord, A. E. Behrend, Arthur Lashinski, J. Henry Thornton.

Cloak room: Thomas Bennisson, Wilson Martin, Patrick Fraher, Harold Manning, John Reinartz, Royal Webster, Fred Behrend.

Refreshments: R. O. Cheney, jr., J. O. McCaw, F. P. Geer, R. J. Dougan, Wm. Dalton, jr., H. B. Cheney, Fred Wohlbebe, Julius Rau, 2nd, John Hood, F. D. Cheney, E. C. Montie, F. P. Hansen, Wm. Montie, Dan Thayer, L. J. Hansen, Ed Bronkie, John Fogarty, John Martin, Stewart Cordner, Ernest Bantley, George Bassett, Frank Robinson, Hans Engle, Albert Anderson, Clarence Smith, Ray Bidwell, Terry McGann, S. L. Cheney.

Reception: Frank Cheney, jr., W. C. Cheney, Julius Rau, J. M. Carey, Norman L. Hope, H. G. Cheney, Carl Bengs, H. L. Gould, Sam Nelson, William Dillon, John Bantley, L. H. Geer.

AUTO OVERTURNED; 14 INJURED.

HUNGRY COYOTES SNAP AT PASSING AUTO TIRES.

Starving coyotes that nip at tires of passing automobiles are the latest menace to motorists in western Kansas, according to K. L. Pettit, a prominent farmer living at Brookfield, near here. Pettit brought a carcass of a large wolf to this city to verify his story. According to Mr. Pettit, this particular animal rushed at his car and bit viciously into a rear tire.

MRS. SCHONESKIE BETTER.
Charity Commissioner Shippee made a visit to the Victor Schoneskie home yesterday. He wished to determine the needs of the family before consenting to allowing them town aid. When Mr. Shippee went to the home he found that the family was visiting in New Britain. He investigated and found that the Schoneskie family had been buying luxuries.

Mr. Shippee said he found out that Mrs. Schoneskie has been doing heavy work and has been going back and forth to the stores. Evidently the woman's condition is improved. The charity commissioner is still firm in the belief that it is not necessary to send the woman to the hospital.

GORDON-SHADLICK.

Robert Gordon of Center street and Miss Susie Shadlick were married at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Shadlick of Broad Brook. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Emma Shadlick as maid of honor and her cousin, Miss Etta Otto and Miss Marjorie Gordon, a sister of the bridegroom, as bridesmaids. Victor Gordon, a brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The bride wore white Georgette crepe, trimmed with rose buds and a veil, caught with ribbon bands. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. The maid of honor wore blue taffeta and carried pink roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Gordon and Miss Otto, wore pink chiffon and pink crepe de chine respectively. Both carried yellow chrysanthemums. A reception and wedding luncheon followed the ceremony.

Later in the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon left on a short wedding trip. On returning, they will make their home with the bridegroom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gordon of Garden street.

NEW BUSINESS FIRM.

Charles Hall and Edward Moezan both of whom have been employed by Watkins Brothers for a number of years, have formed a partnership and will start a furniture and undertaking business in the Princess theater building on Birch street as soon as they can get in their stock. Mr. Hall will leave Watkins Brothers' employ tomorrow night and Mr. Moezan will leave a week later.

Mr. Moezan learned the undertaking business while in California several years ago. Upon returning to Manchester in 1911, he entered the employ of Watkins Brothers, and after working for them a year or two he went to California. He remained there about two years and then came back to Manchester and since then has worked for Watkins Brothers. Mr. Hall was employed by the Neal, Goff & Inglis company in Hartford before entering Watkins Brothers' employ about five years ago.
