Copenhagen, Jan. 19.—Germany for the time being is concentrating her efforts on a separate peace with Ukraine according to information from Brest-Litovsk today.

The Ukrainian delegates at Brest-Litovsk have not held the same ideas on peace terms as the Bolsheviks, being more "imperialistic" in their views.

HARTFORD PAPER'S ANNOUNCEMENT WRONG

If Saloon or Bar Opens, Only Enough Fuel is Permitted to Keep Pipes From Freezing.

Hartford, Jan. 19.—After long and bitter fighting, the fuel committee has decided that saloons and bars must close on ten Mondays during the winter.

Canals and waterways will be taken over as they are needed, Mr. McAdoo testified. Funds may be necessary to put these waterways into serviceable condition, he said.

GOVT TO TAKE OVER ONLY ROADS NEEDED FOR ITS UNIFICATION PLAN

Director General of Railways McAdoo Tells Senate Committee So Today—Short Lines to be Given 'Chance to Exist'—Same Thing Applies to Waterways.

Washington, Jan. 19.—Secretary McAdoo, Director General of Railways, took the witness stand before the Senate Interstate Commerce committee today to explain in detail the unification plan and the additional legislation necessary to carry out the government operation of the roads.

The committee at once questioned him about the short line problem. Mr. McAdoo declared the government should take over only such roads as are absolutely necessary to the unification scheme.

Canals and waterways will be taken over as they are needed, Mr. McAdoo testified. Funds may be necessary to put these waterways into serviceable condition, he said.

N. Y. CONSERVATION COMMITTEE FORESHADOWS A LONGER SHUT-DOWN

Statement by Committee's Chairman Startles New York—N. Y. City Obeying Order Better—Freight Loosening Up—Hundreds of Thousands on Streets.

New York, Jan. 19.—Greater New York observed its second day of industrial inactivity with better grace than it did yesterday.

Harry T. Peters, chairman of the State Fuel Conservation committee, was responsible for much consternation among the business element today when he announced there was a possibility of a much longer shut-down than that of the five days decreed by Dr. Garfield.

The United States Marshal's office and the police aided the Fuel Administrators in the enforcement of the order. Twenty business firms were mostly small East Side concerns.

GARFIELD TO STATE ADMINISTRATORS.

Fuel Director Harry A. Garfield today sent the following telegram to all State Fuel Administrators:

"Will you kindly give public expression of my appreciation of the public-spirited and patriotic action of employers in the state who may determine to pay the wages of their employees during the suspension period specified in the regulations of January 17. They are bearing their share of the sacrifice we all are called upon to make for the common good."

LOCAL BRITISHERS PLAN FOR RECRUITING RALLY

One Thousand Tickets to Be Distributed—Those Most Interested in Charge of Arrangements.

About one hundred Britishers met at the High school hall last evening in answer to the call of the local War Bureau to arrange for the British and Canadian Recruiting rally which will be held at our high school on Monday, Jan. 28.

W. C. Cheney was chosen chairman of the meeting and O. F. Toop, clerk. After fixing the date of the rally these committees were appointed:

Publicity—Alfred Maggs, Robert Brown, Herbert Ingham, F. H. Wall and Cain Mahoney.

Decorations—Frank Mullen, John Turnbull, John A. Hood, Arthur Shorts and James McSherry.

Distribution of tickets—O. F. Toop, Henry Morgan, David Clegg, John Craig, Alexander Shields and John M. Carney.

Issue 1,000 Tickets. It was decided at last night's meeting to limit the tickets to 1,000. It is estimated that there are about 400 Britishers in Manchester. With their wives this would make 800 and there would be 200 extra for British men who are naturalized Americans.

It is planned to have British subjects and those interested in the British army attend. If there is room after that others will be allowed in the hall.

The ticket committee appointed John M. Carney as its head.

LONGER HOURS MERIDEN'S PLAN FOR TIME LOST

International Silver Co. and Other Large Concerns to Operate on Saturday Afternoons.

Meriden, Jan. 19.—The International Silver company, employing 3,500 hands, and other large manufacturing plants here plan to go on a 54 hour schedule beginning next week to make up a half day of the time lost by the Monday closing.

The gain comes in working on Saturday afternoons. Under the five-day shutdown now in force the idle workers numbering about 10,000 will lose only three days' pay, if the shops are permitted to run next Saturday afternoon.

The Connecticut Telephone & Electric company today received a message from Dr. Garfield, exempting from the closing order that part of the plant engaged on government work, affecting about 400 hands, and operations in the factory were resumed this noon.

The only other shop working is Colt's branch, with 600 hands.

Twenty big touring cars on Hilliard street and about one hundred persons, attracted attention this afternoon to the bankruptcy sale of the lumber of the Hills Lumber Co.

MANCHESTER'S PART IN WAR CONVENTION

Howell Cheney Presides at All-Day Session and Gives Strong Address TO PUSH WAR STAMPS

Chairman C. E. House, of Local War Stamp Committee, Plans Vigorous Stamp Campaign.

"The man who dares to preach the gospel of business as usual and pleasure as always has no standing in this state."

Manchester took an important part in the activities of the war convention in Hartford at the session yesterday.

Mr. Cheney's prominent part in the convention was due to his position as state director of the national war savings committee.

Upon him falls the heavy responsibility of directing the organizing in every city and town in Connecticut an organization which will succeed in promoting the sale of thrift stamps and war savings stamps in proportion to the number of people in each community.

At eleven o'clock, a meeting of local grocers was called at the war bureau but, on account of it being Saturday, their busy day, only a few attended.

Washington, Jan. 19.—Serious opposition to Dr. Garfield's factory shut-down order had disappeared today.

It has developed, however, that the order has caused somewhat serious differences of opinion in President Wilson's cabinet.

AT THE PARK.
The big feature is a Brady-Made called "The Woman Beneath." It features Ethel Clayton and is called the motion picture treat of the year. This entrancing story of an odd phase of domestic life, was penned by Willard Mack, who has written some of the most gripping successes filmed by World-Pictures. This newest product of Mr. Mack's pen gives Miss Clayton one of the very best roles she has ever had. She appears as the New York society wife of a wealthy western mine owner who has married him for his money. When she tells her husband this he decides to make her leave him and he determines that the best way to do this is by making it appear that he has lost all his money. But when his scheme is successful, it works a most remarkable change in his wife—a change so very astonishing that the husband cannot believe it. "The Woman Beneath" is an astonishing play and a thoroughly delightful attraction. To see it is to see a real treat.

Besides this there will be a rollicking Keystone called "The Sultan's Wife" which is described as a "gale of giggles." The famous Keystone beauty chorus will serve as the background for the comedy.

Tomorrow evening "The Man Hater" will be the feature" and it is keeping with the big Sunday shows at the Popular Playhouse.

Whether or not the Park will be closed on Monday has not yet been decided. Word comes from Hartford that the theaters may keep open on Monday. The notice will be published in these columns Monday whether the Park will run shows or not.

AT THE CIRCLE.
In compliance with the new federal order of the fuel administrator, the Circle management wishes to announce that there will be no performances on Monday. The production which the management has booked for Tuesday and Wednesday will no doubt make up for the lost day. "The Bar Sinister" is the title of this wonderful cinema drama and it has been conceded by critics the world over to be the greatest photo attraction of the season. The production is in eight reels and at no time is there a dull moment. The picture is yet on an early road run but it has already been placed ahead of "The Birth of a Nation."

Other high class single reel subjects are included in the Tuesday-Wednesday program. On Thursday and Friday "Little Mary" will be seen in her latest Artcraft production, "The Little Princess." "A Milk Fed Vamp" William Fox's latest holocaust of merriment is also scheduled for that date.

the heart of the beings and tonight's features are a result of a hurried trip to Boston this week.

The big feature is a Brady-Made called "The Woman Beneath." It features Ethel Clayton and is called the motion picture treat of the year. This entrancing story of an odd phase of domestic life, was penned by Willard Mack, who has written some of the most gripping successes filmed by World-Pictures. This newest product of Mr. Mack's pen gives Miss Clayton one of the very best roles she has ever had. She appears as the New York society wife of a wealthy western mine owner who has married him for his money. When she tells her husband this he decides to make her leave him and he determines that the best way to do this is by making it appear that he has lost all his money. CO. G SMOKE FUND NEARLY REACHES $300 MARK NOW

One Hundred Dollars Collected at Park Theater Benefit Last Night—Playhouse Packed.

Table listing donations to the smoke fund: Capt. Williams 100, Co. G Night receipts 75.00, John H. Cheney 11.00, Bert Gould 11.00.

It certainly was Company G Night at the Park Theater last night if one could judge from the audience that crowded the popular playhouse to see the moving picture and vaudeville program that was put on for the benefit of the Company G Smoke Fund.

Mothers, wives, sweethearts, sisters and brothers of boys who are now overseas with Company G, 102nd U. S. Infantry, and of Manchester boys with other units in France all came and contributed their bit at the door, to help along the Smoke Fund.

And before this audience, the Company G boys, lived, moved, marched and drilled on the screen so life-like that one could feel one's heart beat quicker at the sight of them, so cheerful and gay as they marched away first to the border campaign, and afterwards to France.

To see these boys again through the eyes of the camera, so near yet so far was a sight to touch the heart of the most hardened. There were not a few handkerchiefs noticed in the audience, as a mother would recognize on the screen the boy that was now in France, perhaps never to return.

There were shouts of joy from the kids in the audience at the impish antics of "Clint" Morgan, who is evidently quite a favorite with the youngsters of our town.

Applause for Captain.

There was a thunder of applause at the sight of Captain Harry Bissell in front of his tent at Goodwin Park and the final picture of the whole 102nd regiment standing retreat was one that will live for a long time in the memories of those who were privileged to see it.

EVANGELIST ABBOTT.

An illustrated lecture on the "Life of Christ" will be given by F. L. Abbott in Spencer hall at Depot square, Sunday evening. Most of the pictures shown will be by the great artist, Hofman. The service will begin at 7:30 o'clock. All are welcome.

there was nothing that could be improved upon. It was not a long bill but it was good. Little Florence Server of Bisell street performed in fancy and soft shoe dances, responding to a number of encores.

Miss Rosalind Crawford and Miss Gertrude Stone pleased the audience with their efforts while George Taylor, a young baritone from Rockville touched the audience very deeply by his splendid rendition of "Keep the Home Fires Burning."

There was no admission fee charged the audience dropping their contribution in a box as it filed through the door.

There was exactly $99.80 collected but the balance needed to make the even hundred was thrown in by Mr. Sullivan.

The only expenses were for the feature picture and the Company G film so the balance on the Company G side of the ledger came to $75, a fine sum to go toward making our boys in France happy.

Those in Charge.

The following young ladies, wives, sisters and friends of Company G boys, now with the 102nd, assisted materially in the success of the affair last night, Mrs. Helen Newman, Miss Mary Newman, Miss Erna Rau, Mrs. Adele M. Bantley, Miss Agnes Tournaud, Miss Sadie Curran and Miss Alice Benson.

Postmaster Thomas J. Quish, who had full charge of the arrangements in conjunction with John F. Sullivan, spoke a few words in appreciation of the large contribution and thanked the audience for attending.

Thanks are due in a very large measure to the generosity of Mr. Sullivan who turned his theater over free to help out the Smoke Fund and who arranged the moving picture program.

It was an act that certainly will not be forgotten by those who were in charge of the fund, nor by the boys overseas when they learn of it.

THE PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT.

Comparatively few have questioned the necessity and therefore the wisdom of Dr. Garfield's closing order. Newspaper editors even, and officers of manufacturing concerns, have realized that only direct compulsion would have led to the issuance of such an order. The objection has been, at least on second thought, to the lack of foresight and preparedness which made the order necessary.

President Wilson yesterday issued the following statement, explaining how requisite the order was and appealing to the patriotism of the country for obedience to it in order that the freight congestion might be ended.

The statement follows:
"I was, of course, consulted by Mr. Garfield before the fuel order of yesterday was issued and fully agreed with him that it was necessary, much as I regretted the necessity. This war calls for many sacrifices and sacrifices of the sort called for by this order are infinitely less than sacrifices of life which might otherwise be involved.

"It is absolutely necessary to get the ships away, it is absolutely necessary to relieve the congestion at the ports and upon the railways, it is absolutely necessary to move great quantities of food, and it is absolutely necessary that our people should be warmed in their homes if nowhere else, and half-way measures would not have accomplished the desired ends.

"The question such as this had not been raised in the past, and it is a slowly growing one."

"I have every confidence that the result of action of this sort will justify it and that the people of the country will loyally and patriotically respond to necessities of this kind as they have to every other sacrifice involved in the war. We are upon a war footing, and I am confident that the people of the United States are willing to observe the same sort of discipline that might be involved in the actual conflict itself."

"What doth it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses his own soul?"

Unscrupulous large employers, the kind, that Roosevelt has referred to, with "soft bodies and hard faces," often have played upon the consciences of their employees to their own material advantage, but this committee's poster rings true.

"Germany is working, by every scheme that ingenuity can devise and money can put into operation, to make American workmen traitors to their country in its hour of need.

"What doth it profit a man if he sends his sons and brothers to the battlefields, and after he gets them there he betrays them to the enemy by stopping the industrial home work without which they can neither win or escape?"

"The courses of nations—the lives of millions—are changed by very small events. Had the Monitor not been ready for the Merrimack exactly when she was, the Union fleet would have been rendered useless and the Civil war might have had a different ending. Had someone then succeeded in making serious trouble in a mine, a foundry, or a shop—had someone then succeeded in delaying transportation while the Monitor was under construction, what would have become of the whole Union fleet of wooden ships which was blockading the southern ports?"

"Germany wants us to be unready or confused when a similar crisis comes.

"Our whole nation is preparing for the turning point in this war which is to determine whether every man shall have a chance to work out his destiny, or whether he and his country are to become subject to the dictation of a Prussian group.

"If we are not fully ready when the test comes it will be easier for German armies and German ships, German submarines and German aircraft, to kill the men that go out from your community to protect you and your rights.

"Whoever from any motive delays work bearing directly or indirectly on the war will be an accessory to the murder of his fellow Americans.

"Every strike in the United States, while this war is in progress, is a blow in favor of Germany.

"What doth it profit a man to increase his wages or decrease his working hours if by so doing he contributes to the victory of a nation that makes slaves of white men and scourges them as they work?"

"The condition of the blacks in America before the Civil war was far better than the condition of the whites of Belgium who today are carried off like cattle, are overworked, underfed, beaten and, sick or well, must labor incessantly, often under the fire of their own guns.

"What doth it profit a man to aid a monarch who in this manner has shamelessly re-established the slavery of white men? The workingman in America who obstructs the cutting of wood, the mining of fuel, the weaving of cloth, the turning of wheels in factories or on rails while this war is in progress—he is helping the slave masters, the destroyers of civilization, the murderers of women and children.

"What doth it profit a man who has lived in a land of incomparable liberties, of advantages unparalleled in all the history of the world, to contribute by any act, however small, to the success of an autocracy to whom a common man is but a clod of earth?"

"The workingman who stands faithfully by his duties day by day, allowing no person and no thought to get between him and an honest performance of his work, is rendering the highest kind of patriotic service to his nation and to his family.

"What doth it profit a man to sell his manhood, his self-respect, perhaps his soul, for a little selfish gain in such an hour? When life's services are measured up at the end, those who have faithfully labored through the war shall be entitled to their credit as well as those who have been idle. To sit by the fire and do nothing is to lose the game."

"There's nothing awful about dying. It's the pain, that's all. And that applies to beast as well as man. The cow struck by a trolley car Wednesday night and left to die ought to have been shot. To sit by the fire and do nothing is to lose the game."

doesn't, all else equal. Smoking is good for their physical being because it's good for their mental being, if not done in excess.

We hope the local smoke fund, which increased $100 last night, will amount until every Manchester man in camp or abroad who wants to smoke can smoke, and smoke the best tobacco the Nutmeg State can give him.

RETAIL FOOD STORES EXEMPT.

As the Evening Herald announced in a dispatch on Thursday, retail food stores are exempt from the Garfield order. Federal Food Administrator Scoville of Connecticut, however, in order to ascertain officially the scope of the order's application in this respect, investigated and last night issued this statement:

"In order that there may be the least interruption in the distribution of necessary food products, the federal food administrator has obtained permission from the United States fuel administrator, whereby retail food stores will be exempt from the Garfield order."

Mr. Scoville received the following telegram last night from Washington:

"You are authorized to give the most liberal interpretation to Dr. Garfield's coal order in respect to all food trades and industries appertaining thereto, elevators, potato and vegetable houses, cold storage, all forms of grain storage, grain and feed mills, cereal products manufacturers, bakers, canners, driflers, milk dealers, packing and slaughter houses, refrigerators, commission, wholesale and retail trades, in fact every sort of food handling, preserving and manufacturing or distributing agencies. Beyond this, I repeat our instructions of yesterday. You are authorized to exempt from the order all industries whose continuous operation is necessary to preserve the uninterrupted conduct of all of the direct food trades and industries."

A conference with Federal Fuel Administrator Russell and certain retailers followed at Hartford, after which the exemption order quoted was issued.

CHIEF GORDON AND MEN TO REGISTER OUR ALIENS

Patrolman to Assist Chief—Police Station the Place—Feb. 4 to 9 the Time.

The work of registering Manchester's many enemy aliens will fall entirely upon Chief of Police Gordon and the members of the local police force. The place of registration will be the local police station. The members of the force will take turns at staying at the station different hours of the days of registration.

Registration will take place on February 4-9 inclusive. On those days all citizens of countries with which the United States is at war will be required to present themselves at the police station and register.

The list of suggestion instructions to the enemy aliens which has been issued by the department of justice follows:

Persons required to register should understand that in so doing they are giving proof of their peaceful dispositions and of their intention to conform to the laws of the United States.

Every registrant should read carefully the form of registration affidavit handed to him and ask the registration officer for explanation on all points not clear to him before attempting to fill out the blanks. Registration officers are instructed to give registrants all possible aid in the way of explanation and advice.

Each registrant is required to furnish four unmounted photographs of himself, not larger than 3 by 3 inches in size, on thin paper, with light background. All four photographs should be signed by the registrant across the face of the photographs, so as not to obscure the features, if the applicant is able to write.

Three blank forms of registration affidavit must be completely filled out by the registrant or his representative (with the exception of the blanks indicated to be filled out by the registration officer and the description of the registrant and the placing of finger prints on the blank) and must be produced by the registrant personally to the registration officer and be signed and sworn to by the registrant in the presence of and before the registration officer, who will all in the discharge of the fixing of the finger prints and the attaching of the photographs. If the registrant cannot write he must make his mark in the signature space and affix his left thumb print in the space provided opposite the signature space.

The finger printing is a method of identification and follows the practice observed in the military and the naval service of the United States. The registrant is hereby informed that he must again present himself before the registration officer who took his oath after 10 days but before 15 days from the last day fixed for registration in his registration district to obtain a registration card, upon which he must sign his name, or make his mark, and place his left thumb print in the presence of the registration officer.

Twenty six Manchester men have failed to file their questionnaires with the local exemption board and are posted on the list of delinquents. It may be seen by glancing over the list of names that many of these men have already enlisted. But despite this fact, the local board has no record of these men and their friends or relatives are asked to tell the exemption board of those men who, they know definitely, have enlisted or are in the service somewhere. Otherwise the list will be given to the chief of police and a stiff fine and prison sentence may result. If there are any in the following list who have enlisted and are therefore exempted from filing their questionnaires let Chairman E. L. G. Hohenthal of the local exemption board know of it.

THE OPEN FORUM

R. W. D'Arche, of Hartford to Speak on "Financing the War."

The speaker at the Open Forum at the Circle Theater tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock will be R. W. D'Arche, of Hartford, who will speak on "Financing the War." He is an interesting orator and those who have heard him speak say that he understands his subject and knows how to put it over.

The speakers' committee of the Manchester Single Tax Club, under whose auspices the Open Forum meetings are held, announced today that tomorrow's lecture will be the last one until the fuel situation clears. It feels that it is using extra coal to hold these meetings and that though they are educational in character, the fuel administrator's orders must be obeyed.

The garbage question will not be so much of a problem. Each town will have its pigs to eat part of the garbage. The other part will be turned into fertilizers to be used by local people for their home gardens.

There will be city ordinances which will compel a man to keep his house painted and his lawn in trim. "City Beautiful" will be the slogan for Manchester.

If you are suffering from eye strain, headaches or nervousness you can gain nothing by neglecting your eyes. In most cases the trouble will rapidly grow worse. Good sight is too valuable for your success and comfort to run the slightest risk of impairing it.

As an eyesight specialist I examine eyes, design, make, and fit glasses at reasonable charges. The experience I have had, the care taken in every step, from the initial examination to the glasses fitted to your eyes make my service highly satisfactory.

Have you see the deep curve "COHAL" lenses, they are nearly twice as deep as the regular Toric, they are made like the eye itself giving the same wide field of vision.

This wonderful lens is sold only in my office and cannot be bought elsewhere. I do my own lens grinding in So. Manchester. Will appreciate an opportunity to serve you which will mean better and more comfortable vision and glasses for you.

OBITUARY

MISS AGNES CROOKS.

Miss Agnes Crooks, daughter of Mrs. Robert Crooks, died at her home in Apel Place early this morning. She had been ill less than a week with pneumonia. Her illness dated from last Saturday when she was taken with an attack of grip. Early this week pneumonia developed and her case was considered serious from the start. A trained nurse was engaged to care for her and every attention was given her. Yesterday afternoon Miss Crooks expressed herself as feeling a little stronger but about midnight the change came and she passed away at about 2.30 this morning.

Miss Crooks had spent the greater part of her life in Manchester and Talcottville. For a number of years she was a trained nurse and was well known in town. For the last few years she devoted her time to the care of her mother who is now in feeble health. Besides her mother she is survived by four brothers, James; of Buckland, William of Talcottville, Robert of Hartford and Joseph of this town.

The funeral will take place from her late home next Tuesday at two o'clock. Rev. John S. Porter of this town will officiate. The burial will be in the family plot in the Buckland cemetery.

MARTIN HAYES.

Martin Hayes, one of Manchester's best known Irish residents, died at his home on Olcott street this morning. He had been failing in health for the past year. Mr. Hayes was born in County Clair, Ireland, and had been a resident of Manchester for the past 41 years, having been employed by Cheney Brothers all that time. Although a hard working man all his life, he managed to give all his children a good education. The children are: Daniel J. Hayes of Stamford, Miles C. Hayes of Hartford, Martin J. and Perry Hayes, members of the aviation corps; Miss Margaret C. Hayes of New York, former instructor in the domestic science department of the Ninth district schools; David D. Hayes of Notre Dame college, James B. Hayes of Boston, Joan R. Hayes and Miss May D. Hayes of this town.

LOCALS LOSE HARD GAME; NAUGATUCK HIGH VICTORS

League Leaders Defeat S. M. H. S. in Well Played Game—Second Team Defeats 1917.

Playing a class of basketball which is seldom seen in town the local high school basketball team went down to defeat before Naugatuck High last night in the Recreation building by the score of 28-22. It was a hard game to lose. Naugatuck is the leader of the interscholastic league of which the local high school is a member. The Naugatuck boys were taller and heavier than the locals and when the Manchester boys put up such a fight against such odds it was hard to lose. The locals lost the game on fouls. "Naugie" had a foul shooter in Neary who could be depended upon. He made fourteen out of the fifteen shots he attempted. Had the locals been able to play the game they did without fouling they certainly would have won the game. The floor work of the local team was far superior to that of the league leaders. The guards on the Manchester five did wonderful work. They stuck to the Naugatuck forwards like barnacles to an ocean liner. So well did they play their positions that the Naugatuck forwards were forced to do excellent shooting to get a basket. In fact, the Naugatuck guard, Neary, did the larger part of the shooting for "Naugie."

Manchester's forwards, "Bob" Finnegan and "Bobbie" Crockett did better work than they have ever displayed in a local game. Although playing a man taller than himself Ballsleper was game and got the jump at center more often than his Naugatuck opponent. The game was well refereed. McCarthy had his eye on the ball every minute and did not allow either team to pull anything in the likeness of a foul without calling it. Manchester was ahead of Naugatuck at the start. The locals scored the first goal and for the first fifteen minutes of play it looked as if Naugatuck had sent her second team to play the locals. The local quintet was over anxious however and started to foul. This gave Naugatuck a chance to display its skill.

Although this team has not been playing as good as last year they are sure to put up an excellent brand of basketball. The locals displayed the class of basketball they should play all the time last night and they say that now they have started they won't stop. Dancing will follow Friday night's game as usual.

Sportmen in town, real lovers of clean sport, are complaining of the hissing at the high school basketball games. It is not sportmanship. Those who made it a point to pick out those who were responsible for the hissing say that they were not high school pupils. In the interests of good fellowship which is extended to the visiting team those who hiss are requested to stay away from the games.
