NEW YORK STILL LAGS IN LOAN—MORE BIG CITIES PASS QUOTAS

Cleveland, Chicago, and Probably Franco and Dallas "Over Top"

ALL WEST BEYOND MISSISSIPPI, ALSO

Ohio Reaches Allotment—25,000 of 27,000 Erie, Pa., Workers Buy Bonds—Connecticut Leads New England.

Washington, May 3.—With the third Liberty Loan drive ending tomorrow night, nearly $162,000,000 still remains to be subscribed. The local survey department announced today that total subscriptions, as indicated by initial payments on bonds in the twelve Federal Reserve districts, is $2,995,300. Recalling, however, that the closing hours of the two previous drives were exceptional, it is estimated that the remaining quota of $6,000,000,000 will have been oversubscribed when the campaign comes to an end at midnight tomorrow.

Chicago Tops Quota.
The Chicago Federal district has oversubscribed its quota, it was officially announced today, being the fourth district to go over the top. The district's allotment was $425,000,000 and subscriptions of $453,640,850 already have been reported. The Dallas and San Francisco districts are claiming over-subscriptions, but official figures to substantiate the claims have not yet been received by the Treasury.

Subscriptions in the New England district are:
New Hampshire, Maine, Connecticut and Vermont have reached their quotas, the standing of the states in the district being:

Connecticut 118 per cent; New Hampshire, 117; Maine, 112; Vermont, 100; Massachusetts, 89 and Rhode Island 87. New England reports a total of $18,222, individual subscribers. The total subscribers for the San Francisco district is 622,000.

New York Still Lags.
New York, May 3.—Subscriptions to the third Liberty Loan in the New York district today reached a total of $750,400,000, according to an announcement made early in the day at headquarters. The advance made yesterday amounted to $43,473,350. The district is still $150,000,000 short of its allotted quota of $900,000,000.

Indications are that the entire West, beyond the Mississippi River, has gone over its quota. This is based on persistent reports that both the Dallas and San Francisco districts are over-subscribed. The others are the St. Louis, Minneapolis, Kansas City and Chicago districts. This honor zone includes every state west of the Mississippi and is a complete reversal of the experience of former loans, when the Eastern districts were the first to go over.

Reports encouraging returns indicating towns in western Texas, where no rain has fallen for two years, have reached their quotas.

Today's dispatches from Cleveland show that Ohio also has reached its allotment, having a total of $147,937,700. The city of Cleveland, with a quota of $55,000,000, has exceeded that mark by at least $1,000,000 and raised its honor flag at noon today. The county in the Cleveland area is also over.

CALL OUT 250,000 TOMORROW

Provost Marshal General Hopes to Summon Selectives At Once

BAKER AGAIN SEES HOUSE COMMITTEE

Army of 3,000,000 Still Being Discussed—Appropriations to be Increased by House Military Affairs Committee.

Washington, May 3.—The Administration army expansion program was set in motion today. While Secretary Baker elaborated his tentative plan for putting three million men in France before the House military affairs committee, the office of the Provost Marshal General was busy preparing the largest draft call since the United States entered the war.

By working all night tonight the Provost Marshal General believed the call, which will be for approximately 250,000 men, could be issued tomorrow.

Baker gave estimates today that the military authorization to be carried in the military appropriation bill will be "somewhat over $13,000,000,000 but will not approach $15,000,000,000, members of the committee said today. Secretary Baker made it clear that he reserved the right to call up on Congress for additional appropriations as soon as the full scope of the full military operations became apparent.

Under the original pay estimates a little more than $1,000,000 would have been required for this purpose. The new estimates are understood to have been double this figure.

The authorizations to be made in the military appropriation bill will be sufficient to carry through all War Department plans until Congress goes into session again in December and additional authorizations can be asked, Secretary Baker said.

With Secretary Baker before the committee today was Chief of Staff March and his assistant Colonel Bretts. Their testimony related almost entirely to the pay of the fighting men, and the amounts that would be required for the government to meet this obligation.

The 3,000,000 men program, he said, was taken as a tentative working basis, but he believed that number would be exceeded.

6,207 "Want Column" Selectives.
Washington, May 3.—A call for 6,207 selective service men whose occupations already have been listed in the "Nation's want column" was issued this afternoon by Provost Marshal General Crowder. The mobilization will begin May 17, and every state except New Jersey will contribute.

PROVENCE TORPEDOED, BRING REFLOATED.
Paris, May 3.—The French Steamship Provence has been torpedoed by a German submarine and beached in the Mediterranean, it was learned today.

The attack was made on the evening of April 15, the torpedo striking the port side.

The vessel was beached near Palamos, on the Spanish coast, where the work of re-floating her is now in progress.

The Provence is a vessel of 3041 tons and before the war hailed from Marseilles.

British Gain Again East of Amiens; Big Guns Active

New Infantry Thrust by Hindenburg Expected in Flanders—Artillery of Both Sides Busy Between Givenchy and Nieppe Forest—British Raids Result in Captures of Prisoners South of Arras and East of St. Venant

FRENCH PUSH ON IN VILLERS-BRETONEUX AND NEARBY SECTOR

Advance in Halles-Castel Sector After Attacking Foe—Americans Said to be at Villers-Bretonneux—Foch Strengthens Amiens, Arras and Ypres Positions.

Paris, May 3.—A French advance south of Villers-Bretonneux on the Pleardy battle front was reported by French war office today.

Another French success was achieved further south, in the Halles-Castel sector, where the French delivered an attack capturing 100 prisoners.

(Americans were reported recently to be fighting with the French near Villers-Bretonneux.)

Violent artillery duels have raged north and south of the Avre river, (Pleardy front), near which district Americans are holding part of the battle line.

Foe Masses For New Attack.
The Germans are reported to be massing fresh forces and it is accepted as a foregone conclusion by French military critics that the end of the struggle is not yet in sight.

While the Germans have been reorganizing their shattered divisions and bombarding, General Foch has been active, strengthening his positions before Amiens, Arras and Ypres, and moving reserves to strategic points. No matter where the next German thrusts fall the Boches will find the Allied forces ready to meet them and give them blow for blow.

This was the forty-fourth day of the grand German offensive.

TWO BILLIONS OR MORE BRITISH LIQUOR'S VALUE.
London, May 3.—The English, Scotch and Irish committees that have been considering the financial aspect of the purchase and control of the liquor trade in the United Kingdom, has issued a report proposing between $2,000,000,000 and $2,500,000,000 as the purchase price. The report avoids questions of policy.

The Chronicle in commenting upon the proposed purchase says it would enable the government to reduce the number of licenses, insure a wholesome beverage, economize in labor and eliminate the demoralizing influence of exploiters.

FLANDERS FAILURE DOESN'T DETER FOE, PARIS PAPER SAYS.
Paris, May 3.—"It would be a grave error to believe that the Germans will be deterred by the present failure," writes Maurice Barres in the Echo De Paris. "We may rest absolutely assured that Germany is determined to end the war through military operations this year, if possible."

PERSHING HAS NEW CHIEF OF STAFF.
With the American Army in France, May 3.—Brigadier General Harbo has been relieved as chief of staff to General Pershing and has been assigned to the troops in the field.

Major General James W. McAndrew has been appointed chief of staff.

DEPLORES CHALLENGE IRISH CONSCRIPTION INVOLVES.
London, May 3.—Thomas Burt, M. P., to whom Premier Lloyd George wrote a letter deploring the challenge of the supremacy of the United Kingdom Parliament by Irish Nationalists and Catholics in concert with the Sinn Feiners has replied, expressing regret that there should have been such a challenge.

By the terms "challenge of supremacy of parliament" the Premier evidently referred to the opposition to conscription in Ireland.

BREAD SCARCER IN GERMANY.
Copenhagen, May 3.—Count von Waldow, the German food controller, announced in the Reichstag that the present bread rations will be maintained only if it is stipulated that the rations of meat and potatoes imported from Ukraine will be lowered.

Deputy Streb, a Socialist, charged that army officers are pilfering food and sending it home to their families.

In Saxony the bread ration has at 0.91 or 0.92 more peopple used 400 grammes.

GERMAN AVIATOR.
Paris, May 3.—A German airplane was shot down by Swiss gunners, near Basle, said a dispatch to the Matin today.

OUR BOYS OVER THERE ENJOY TOASTED CIGARETTES.

Through the patriotism of the citizens of this country thousands of smoke kits are being distributed to American soldiers in France.

Doctors, nurses and commanding officers all join in the demand which has awakened in this country a great movement to keep our boys supplied with smokes.

Millions of the famous LUCKY STRIKE Cigarettes are "going over" all the time. There's something about the idea of the toasted cigarette that appeals to the men who spend their time in cold, wet trenches and billets.

Then, too, the real Kentucky Burley tobacco of the LUCKY STRIKE cigarette gives them the solid satisfaction of a pipe, with a lot less trouble.

GERMAN PAPERS SEE DEFEAT AT YPRES.

Amsterdam, May 3.—German newspapers have begun to prepare public opinion in Germany to accept defeat on the Ypres battle front. A Berlin dispatch today quoted the Deutsche Tages Zeitung as saying that the Germans may not attack Ypres, which "has no importance" owing to the stubborn resistance expected there.

MARKET IRREGULAR STIFFENS AFTER OPENING

Steels and Coppers Less Strong—A Few Specialties Up—Rails Drop Point or Two—Quotations.

New York, May 3.—Although there was a show of strength at the opening of the stock market today, with the majority of issues making fractional gains, the tone quickly changed, and before the end of the first 15 minutes the list was well below the closing level of yesterday.

The copper stocks were irregular. American Smelting selling off one point to 77 1/2, while Anaconda, after opening 1/4 higher at 65 1/2, dropped to 65 1/4.

After the recessions following the opening, the market became steadier, but there was no important movement in prices except in a few specialties. American Ice became active and strong, moving up one point to 27 1/2, while Colorado Fuel continued in good demand, selling up to 43 1/2, a gain of nearly 2 points.

Cotton had an irregular opening today. July was under heavy pressure at the start and sold 47 points below last night's close, but new crops were not so weak, October being 15 points lower.

OFFENSIVE IN ITALY COMING AGAIN SOON

Festivism of German People Over Flanders Advance May Lead to Abandonment for Other Front.

London, May 3.—Correspondents with the Italian army on the southwestern battle front predict heavy fighting along the Piave River.

It is believed that the Germans will insist upon an Austro-Hungarian offensive against the Italian front in an effort to relieve the pressure against the Germans on the Western front and to prevent the further sending of Italian forces into France. Some correspondents corroborate a report printed by the Berlin newspaper Deutsche Tages Zeitung that the Germans may abandon their offensive in Flanders and transfer the drive to Italy.

From more than one German source the news has come out that the German people are quickly losing hope of winning on the Western front and that they are deeply depressed by their severe losses. German newspapers are taking a pessimistic tone, and their comment is far different from their buoyant attitude when the drive started in March.

PROSPECTIVE OFFICERS AT DEVENS MUST BE MENTALLY FIT

Candidates to be Examined As to Mental and Temperamental Suitableness—Horse Show on May 17 to Include Probably All Horses in Camp.

Camp Devens, May 3.—All of the candidates selected to attend the fourth officers' training camp will be examined as to their sanity and mental and temperamental fitness to become officers before they are accepted, according to an announcement at Division Headquarters today. The examinations will be made by Major L. Vernon Briggs, the division psychiatrist, and his assistants, and will include psychological, psychiatric and neurological tests.

Somebody stole the "Kaiser" from the bayonet assault course back of the base hospital and the members of the division intelligence department have been put to work to find it. The "Kaiser" is one of the mechanical dummies into which the members of the division bayonet schools took a particular delight in lunging their bayonets in their "over the top" exhibitions.

It was announced here today that a horse show which will probably include all of the horses in the cantonment is to be staged here on May 17.

Private Alex Seth, of West Haven, Conn., a member of the 28th Company of the Depot Brigade, died at the base hospital today of pneumonia. His body will be sent home for burial.

ROUND-UP OF ALIENS.

Bridgeport, May 3.—Department of Justice agents and the local police today began a round up of German aliens in the city who were charged with violations of the President's proclamation in not obtaining permits. Twenty-five aliens were brought to police headquarters in two patrol wagons, a touring car and an emergency hospital ambulance which made the rounds of the city, each manned by six police and federal agents.

MAN KILLED BY TRAIN.

New Haven, May 3.—The mutilated portions of a man's body were found strewn along the tracks of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad for a distance of about a mile near Quinnipiac station, north of this city, early today. The man apparently had been struck and killed by a south bound Owl express train.

ARTHUR L. CLARK.

Winsted, May 3.—Arthur L. Clark, president of the Hurlburt National Bank, president, treasurer and general manager of the Winsted Edge Tool Works, a director in several local manufacturing concerns and promptly identified in other local affairs, died in his home here today, aged 60 years.

EDWIN HALLOCK.

Derby, May 3.—Edwin Hallock, president of the Hallock Company, hardware dealers and one of the wealthiest and best known men of this city, died in his home here today, aged 77 years. Mr. Hallock was a member of numerous local and state organizations. He was an extensive traveler, having journeyed all over this continent and Europe.

Russell Pitkin is sick at his home with pleurisy.

AMERICAN SENTENCED FOR AIDING SINN FEINERS.

London, May 3.—William Pedlar, an American, has been sentenced to four months' imprisonment and recommended for deportation for inciting and aiding unlawful drilling by the Sinn Feiners at Dublin, the Daily Sketch stated today.

HORSE MEAT AT 50 CENTS

London, May 3.—A News Agency dispatch from Zurich says that meat has become so scarce in Switzerland that horse flesh is selling for 50 cents a pound.

Mrs. Mathias Spless and her daughter and son have returned from a ten days' visit in New York and surrounding places of interest. From the way in which the small places in Connecticut are going over the top in the loan, the larger communities must realize that they can not fail to keep their end up.

CONNECTICUT HONOR STATE.

Connecticut is second to Massachusetts, as might have been expected on the basis of population and resources, in subscriptions to the third Liberty Loan. The figures to date are:

Massachusetts	$150,349,000
Connecticut	$39,011,000
Rhode Island	$21,982,000
Maine	$14,267,000
New Hampshire	$7,742,000
Vermont	$6,673,000

Some of the discrepancies of endeavor one sees here are more apparent than real. Connecticut, for instance, has obtained 118 per cent of its quota and leads all six states. New Hampshire is second, one point behind; Maine, 112 per cent; Vermont, 100.2 per cent; Massachusetts, 89; Rhode Island, 87.5.

Every one of Maine's twenty cities has oversubscribed, and 300 of the smaller communities, another record for which the Pine Tree State should be given full credit.

Boston has fallen down, and has pulled down the Bay State's record with her.

The total for the district, which omits Fairfield county, Connecticut, is $224,022,000 against $250,000,000, the quota. New England will obtain its quota, but its showing is not yet creditable to it as a whole.

OUR BIRD ARRIVALS.

Just how early the migration of birds into New England begin each year may be seen in a report, just out, of the State Ornithologist of Massachusetts. For the information of local bird-lovers we clip the following from the report:

During this wave they were noted some early records. A yellow-bellied sapsucker was seen March 19 in the Connecticut valley in Massachusetts, and a brown thrasher in Worcester county March 18. A nighthawk was seen at Demarest, N. J., March 20. (A barn swallow) was reported from Athol on the 20th. Single chipping sparrows were noted at Woods Hole and Hudson, Mass., respectively on March 23 and 29. This bird wave evidently reached Lewiston, Me., March 20 to 22, and Auburn, Me., March 23. Fox sparrows appeared at Bar Harbor on March 20. A pair of yellow-bellied sapsuckers was seen at Lunenburg, Vt., March 25. The last snow-bunting was reported from Ellsworth, Me., on March 31. The first phoebe were seen at Southbridge, on March 20, and at Buckland, March 22. First arrivals of this species appeared in different localities in Massachusetts until April 1, and it had reached Bangor, Me., on April 3. Another bird wave entered Massachusetts April 2, bringing numbers of vesper sparrows, field sparrows, a few Savannah sparrows, and in Worcester county, Mass., and the Connecticut valley, a few white-throated sparrows. Pine warblers appeared from the 1st to the 4th. A few kingfishers were seen moving north in Massachusetts. During the week a wave of juncos, fox sparrows, robins, song sparrows and bluebirds was reported from points in Maine with most of the birds in full song.

All this time horned larks, which wintered on the Atlantic slope, were moving north, and prairie horned larks, which breed here, were coming in. On February 14 they had reached Worcester county, Mass. On March 12 they were at Bangor, Me., and on April 5 their actions on Block Island indicated that they were nesting, though no nests were found. The males are now singing their flight songs. Many bluebirds, robins and song sparrows are mated. On April 9 the first Carolina wren was reported from the shores of Buzzards bay.

WILHELMINA AND THE DUTCH.

The war has seen some peculiar political upheavals in several countries of Europe, but none so interesting as those which have resulted from differences between governments and peoples. In Greece these differences became so acute, because of the deposed King Constantine's wife's membership in the House of Hohenzollern, that the monarch was deposed. In Sweden, the people steadily are becoming more anti-German, while royalty and the class of well-to-do who are waxing rich from war trade with Germany, are still pro-German. There are several other similar illustrations. It is with something of a shock that one, who remembers the popularity of the girl Queen Wilhelmina of Holland years ago, reads of her being hissed on the streets of The Hague.

There is a strong pro-German sentiment in Holland, spontaneous or artificially created by Germany. But the mass of the people are with the Allies, and long have feared their warlike neighbors to the east. Wilhelmina did not make a popular marriage, when a member of the Mecklenburg nobility became her consort. From being idolized by her people to being hissed and hooted—an accident, perhaps, but still significant—is a lamentable change.

The Princess Juliana, her little daughter, alone stands between a succession of German princes to the throne. The child has taken her mother's place in the popular esteem, and Wilhelmina, especially now during the war, seems more unpopular than ever.

AMERICA'S WAR ARISTOCRACY.

There are thirty-three degrees of human parasites, if not more, and it has taken the war to bring him to light. Agriculture, manufacturing, mining, lumbering still absorb, it is true, the vast majority of Americans who, in peace as in war and 365 days in the year are either helping to produce something useful or resting from their labors. Given the natural resources it is in this class which composes the backbone of the country's wealth-makers.

Next to them are the railroad employees, etc., who perform a necessary function in moving raw materials or finished products to markets and factories.

Third, perhaps, are the tradesmen, wholesalers and retailers, who are equally necessary as the last link in the process of distribution.

Outside of all these classes, however, is the real parasite, the superfluous servant class, the swarm of persons in occupations which are performed and multiplied because Americans are too lazy or busy to perform such services for themselves, the public personal servant class.

These fellows have been exposed repeatedly of late in newspaper and periodical. They are of the "feeding trough" Americans of whom Mr. Roosevelt has spoken repeatedly. They swarm thickest where wealth is most plentiful.

They are the country's original profiteers, and they are making their thousands and millions out of the war right now, especially perhaps at the national capital. A correspondent of the Hartford Times exposed this class, and the hotel, restaurant and similar profiteers mercilessly in an article last evening.

One's tranquility is not greatly shaken by the facts presented, because they are not altogether new, but when one of these fellows, a seller mostly of noxious and unnecessary things, refers to commissioned officers of the army and navy as "cheap military guys" one's ire is stirred. The officers with their meagre salaries of course are in a different class from many of our United States Senators and Representatives—that latter name is a synonym for plain, ordinary liar occasionally with lobbyists of sorts, and many other dear persons in Washington.

Taking them by and large, the commissioned officers in the country's service are the flower of the nation. By education and in intelligence, initiative, public spirit and all that goes into the crucible of good citizenship, they compose America's best manhood. Just now they are making the supreme sacrifice, or preparing to do so.

"Cheap military guys!" Did our quick rich of comic weekly fame ever reveal their allegiance to the aristocracy of good clothes, good food and good living, all the superficialities that money will buy, as this fellow does?

There are all sorts of aristocracy in the world. Money, name or fame, brains, character when it becomes of conspicuous value to a large number of people, descent, personal beauty, all have their places alternatively or in more or less conjunction in the aristocracies of democracies. But in America the aristocrat of today is the man or woman in the country's service, the man or woman who is doing something for the race and the ages to come.

General H. C. Dwight lived so long in Hartford, that the city was part of him as well as he of the city. Former Mayor, ex-president of the Connecticut Chamber of Commerce, prominent in business, a Civil War veteran with a proud record, his life was as useful as it was full. He was a native, however, of Northampton, which also claims some of the honor of his life.

RECRUITING SPEEDS UP BECAUSE OF HUN DRIVE

Over 300 Men Outside of Draft Age Joined Colors in This State Last Month.

April broke all records this year for army recruiting in Connecticut, 300 recruits outside the draft age having been accepted at the recruiting stations in New Haven, Waterbury, Hartford, New London and Bridgeport. Fifty-five were rejected for defective vision, teeth and other defects. New Haven city led the state with 42 recruits. Hartford second, 34; Bridgeport, 33; Waterbury, 25; New London, 16; Meriden, 13; Manchester, 12; New Britain, 10; Middletown, 7 and the rest from 50 other towns and cities. Approximately 500 volunteers applied for enlistment, a number promising to go in May.

Fifty-seven recruits went into the medical department, 51 in cavalry and 51 in field artillery, 24 coast artillery, 24 quartermaster corps, 21 infantry, 14 engineers, 8 quartermaster corps of national army, 7 signal corps, 5 in tank service and remainder scattered.

Flocking to Nations. It is believed that the wonderful fighting of the Connecticut boys on the battlefields of France has stirred the state and the patriotism of the boys back home, who are flocking to the recruiting stations in large numbers daily. Major W. A. Mercer, commanding the Connecticut district, in his monthly report looks for a heavier rush in May. He adds that every branch of the army, aviation excepted, is still open to men who are not registered in the Selective draft. The latter cannot be accepted at army recruiting stations.

Can't Wait Longer.

Many boys, who will be in the next draft registration on June 5th, are now joining the colors instead of waiting to be registered. All boys under 21 years of age should bring birth certificates to the recruiting stations, if possible. It has been found that many boys under 15 years have been getting into the army. This spirit is to be commended but Uncle Sam has enough older nephews left to take care of the Kaiser and the Potsdam Gang. Little boys should stay home with their mothers, say recruiting men. Only strong robust and physically fit men are wanted in the army.

GERMANS LOST 80 PER CENT OF SEICHEPREY ARMY

With the American Army in France, May 2, (9 p. m.)—The Germans in their big attack against the Americans at Seicheprey on the Toul front lost four fifths of their numbers, declares a German Red Cross attaché who had been captured by an American patrol. The German had assisted in carrying for the casualties and was in a position to give correct information. The conditions on the Toul front have been extremely inactive, less than 200 shells being fired by the Boches in the past two days. The battle of Seicheprey took place on Saturday, April 20 when 1,200 German shock troops attacked the Americans. The Germans fought their way into Seicheprey but were driven back to their original positions.

The Open Forum

Editor, The Evening Herald:

Amidst the patriotic work done and being done in Manchester in this trying period of our country's history when noble men and women and youth of either sex are making every effort to stimulate and sustain our boys in the service, the Fraternal Benefit League is working energetically.

The part taken by our organization must not be lost sight of, especially when we consider that this organization is composed of men and women, a majority of whom earn their own living by manual labor. These people are buying Liberty Bonds, thrift stamps, taking a share in everything our country calls for. They are not satisfied but they promote entertainments of all kinds notwithstanding the amount of labor involved to get an extra dollar for thrift stamps.

To this end the Fraternal Benefit League is working and the people knowing the object sought have come forward splendidly in every way.

With the knowledge that even in these trying times young people must and will have recreation we consider it worth while to provide such for them. That they appreciate it, is evidenced by the fact that nearly 200 tickets have been disposed of for the prize waits in Tinker hall next Saturday evening.

Respectfully,

HOME GARDENERS SLOW IN GETTING PLOT CARDS

Only 125 Out of 500 Have Presented Themselves at War Bureau—Need of Haste.

The enthusiasm over the Home Garden proposition does not seem to be running as high this week as it did two or three weeks ago. The committee received upwards of 500 applications for garden plots. As fast as these were assigned, postals were sent to applicants asking them to report to the War Bureau some evening this week, make their payments and receive their plot cards. So far this week only about 125 plot cards have been issued. This either means that the majority are waiting until the latter end of the week or that many of those who made application for plots are not going to take them.

This is going to place the committee in rather an awkward position unless they know positively whether applicants are going to take the plots or not as arrangements have been made for plowing, harrowing and fertilizing enough plots to cover all applications.

Several desirable plots will be available at the end of the week when all assignments have been made as for one reason or another applicants have countermanded their requests for plots. Anyone desiring a plot should make application at the War Bureau either this evening or tomorrow evening when members of the committee will be in attendance.

A Real Way to Hooverize

The Gospel of Hooverization is preached by every Bohn Syphon Refrigerator placed in the home. The text of the sermon might be "The Sanitary Preservation of Food on a Lower Ice Consumption." Inadequate air circulation in a refrigerator produces odor, tainting the butter and milk, and causing the rapid deterioration of otherwise wholesome food. With the Bohn Syphon System this is impossible. A chilled, purified current of air is continually circulating through all portions of the provision chambers. Any odors that may arise from fruit, vegetables, cheese, etc., pass out of the provision compartments through the syphons and over the ice, where all impurities are condensed and carried off with the meltage. The use in the home of the Bohn Syphon Refrigerator one piece porcelain lined means real economy—it saves as it serves.

BIG RECRUITING RALLY HERE MONDAY EVENING

Men Who Saw Start of German Offensive to Speak at High School Hall.

Hurried arrangements have been made for a British-Canadian war rally to be held in high school hall, Monday evening, at eight o'clock. Plans for the rally had been under way about a week, but it wasn't until yesterday that word was received from the British recruiting headquarters in New Haven that the rally was to be held on Monday night.

Lieutenant Nopsworthy, of the 73rd Royal Highlanders and Lieutenant Todd of the 60th Battalion will be the speakers at the rally and they will have a message of interest to all who attend. O. F. Toop will preside at the meeting. Music will be provided by the Manchester Bagpipe band and the Center Flute band.

Tickets for the rally have been printed and they may be secured by British subjects for the asking from any one of the following committee: W. C. Cheney, John E. Craig, J. E. Hood, John G. Trotter, Herbert Ingam, M. J. Moriarty, Cain Mahoney, O. F. Toop, David Clegg, John M. Carney, Henry Morgan, John Turnbull, Fred H. Wall and Alexander Shields.

TRADE SCHOOL NOTES.

About fifty people, mostly men due in the next draft, listened to a talk on Radio and Buzzer service by Sergeant Arthur J. Starkweather, Company A, 301st M. G. B'n., Camp Devens, at the Recreation Building last evening. Sergeant Starkweather is a Manchester boy and is acting as an instructor in radio work at Camp Devens.

Sergeant Starkweather described and demonstrated the equipment used in Signal Corps work, including the telephone and "buzzer" station system, the wig-wag signal code, and the semaphore signal, using the International Code.

He stated that a knowledge of signal work was of great advantage to every man going into the service and that those who had acquired a proficiency of ten or more words a minute would be given preference.

The Radio and Buzzer class work was described by Mr. Tucker, and several new enrollments were received. The class now numbers twenty.

Paul Schuets and Matthew MacDonald, who were members of the first term class have enlisted and expect to start for Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas, Wednesday, May 8th, to continue signal corps training. This will make six men who have gone to Ft. Leavenworth from the radio class.

The State Trade School baseball team will don its new suits for the first time when it goes out this afternoon. Several games have been scheduled for the near future.

A CHICKEN PUZZLE.

Frank Johnson Set Dozen Eggs and Has Fourteen Chicks.

Reading in fictitious newspaper stories and poultry almanacs how more little chicks were hatched than there were eggs in the setting Frank Johnson of Strickland street yesterday looked in his chicken coop and found that an old hen had hatched out for him fourteen little chicks from an even dozen of eggs.

There must be two sets of twins in the brood somewhere but try as hard as he can Johnson can't find them. All the chicks are healthy and show signs of living for some time yet.

Johnson says he didn't think that any of the eggs looked like double yoked ones. In fact, he says, he poked out small eggs so that he could get a dozen under the hen.

It isn't so easy to become a citizen of Canada now as it used to be. Five years instead of three are required, and citizenship, instead of being recognized only in the one part of the British empire is recognized everywhere. A Canadian is still a good Britisher, even though he moves to Australia, for instance. Judging by the way many new Americans regard their citizenship, the lesson of Canada ought not to be lost in the United States.

BUCKLAND STATION AGENT STRUCK BY FREIGHT TRAIN

James B. Munsell May Die as Result of Accident—May Have Concussion of Brain.

James B. Munsell station agent at Buckland is in St. Francis hospital today in a serious condition as a result of an accident that happened last evening when he was struck by a freight train in front of the station.

The station agent was about to throw the east bound mail pouch on the Boston Express which slows up a little for this purpose when the train passes the station. He did not notice a freight train coming from the east and consequently he got between the two trains. He was struck by the train and knocked down.

The engineer on the express saw the man hit and stopped his train and hurried him to Manchester where the injured man was attended to by Dr. Sloane.

It was apparent that Munsell was seriously hurt and the doctor sent him to St. Francis hospital. It was learned that he had received a bad cut back of the left ear which may have caused concussion of the brain. His shoulder was dislocated and beside this he was badly shaken up.

Munsell lives in Hartford and was only recently married.

MODERN SODA FOUNTAIN AT PACKARD PHARMACY

Erectors Have Been Working on It All Week—Will be Ready by This Evening.

The handsome new soda fountain at Packard's drug store at the Center will be ready for business this evening. The fountain reached town last Tuesday and immediately two men from the factory where the fountain was built started to set it up and get it ready for business. Since that time the plumbers and electricians and the erectors have lost no time and Mr. Packard informed the Herald this morning that his fountain would be opened for business this evening.

It is a Knight fountain, one of the first of its kind to come to this town. It is exceedingly attractive and a safeguard against any unsanitary corrosion or objectionable substance. Marvelously white it is a picture in itself. It is practically a double fountain, as two dispensers can serve at the same time. In fact it is one of the most up to date fountains made and but few towns can boast of any that is better.

On page seven of today's Herald will be found a half page advertisement showing pictures of the fountain and explaining some of its special features.

SENT TO REFORM SCHOOL.

Fourteen Year Old Boy Suffers From Kleptomania.

Judge Arnot sent Adam Levandoski to the reform school at Meriden today to remain there until he is 21 years old. The boy has a habit of stealing anything he gets his hands on. He had been working in the silk mills for a short time and at his boarding house he recently made a "cleanup" of four gold watches, silk shirts, sweaters, and other clothing that he was able to carry away in a dress suit case. The day that he made the theft he went to Schenectady, N. Y., and on the way he pawned some of the watches and the clothing. The man of the house who by the way was the boy's godfather, complained to the police and Chief Gordon got busy and soon located the boy in Schenectady. The chief went after him and they arrived in town last night.

The boy is only fourteen years old but he would pass for a young man much older. In court he pleaded guilty and the judge believed that it would be well for the boy to be placed under restraint. The chief managed to get the stolen goods back to the owners.

MISS RUTH DRAPER

TALENTED ACTRESS IS TO SPEAK HERE

Miss Ruth Draper, a most talented young actress, will appear on Monday, May 6th, at 8 p. m., at Cheney Hall, for the benefit of the local chapter of the Red Cross. No one who can hear her should miss the opportunity to do so, for such a treat has seldom been given a Manchester audience, and the Manchester Red Cross feels it is most fortunate in securing her services. She has written all her monologues herself, and will give a program that covers a wide range of subjects, and gives scope for her versatile acting. You will laugh most of the time, but there will not be a dry eye in the audience when she finishes "Vivre La France," the true story of a young French mother, who takes her son out to watch the return of his father's regiment to Paris. Though she searches the ranks in growing uneasiness, she sees no trace of her husband, and in answer to her question, is told he has fallen for his country. She is overcome for a moment, only, and before the regiment has passed, with the indomitable spirit of the women of France, she raises her boy above her head, and shouts "Vivre La France" with the rest. The picture shows Miss Draper in the role of a young Scotch girl who has come to America to be married, and is one of her most charming monologues. The picture was made by Sargent when she was delighting English audiences, before the war. Do not fail to enjoy this rare treat, and help the boys.

SHEEP ARE EASY TO RAISE AND MAKE GOOD PROFITS

U. S. Dept. of Agriculture Urges New England Farmers to Raise Small Flocks.

Washington, D. C., May 3.—The New England sheep industry, for many years on the decline, appears to be reviving under the stimulus of high prices. A study of this industry in sections of the extreme Northeast shows that with prices which prevailed last year, sheep kept in small flocks may be very profitable under certain conditions, that the number of sheep can be increased without decreasing the number of dairy cows, that such flocks require comparatively little grain and labor, and that many parts of New England are particularly well adapted to raise sheep of the mutton breeds. These points are brought out in detail in Farmers' Bulletin 929 "The Place of Sheep on New England Farms," recently published by the United States Department of Agriculture.

An Interesting Point.
One of the interesting points brought out in the study was the fact that farms where sheep were kept had practically the same kinds and numbers of other live stock as did farms without sheep. Moreover, farms with sheep had an average of 15 more acres of pasture than did farms without sheep, warranting the conclusion made by the department's specialists that sheep in New England have not been kept to the exclusion of other live stock, but are valuable to utilize the extra pasture which is available on many farms in this section. It was found also that the larger farms where sheep were kept had practically the same acreage in crops as the farms without sheep.

Sheep vs. Cows.
The study included a comparison of the profits derived from sheep and dairy cattle, and it was found that owing to the high price of sheep and wool, also, the cost of dairy feeds, that sheep, in small flocks at least, were more profitable than their equivalent in dairy cattle. It must not be inferred from this, says the bulletin, that the sheep industry should to any great extent displace the dairy industry, but sheep could replace the unprofitable dairy cows to advantage.

Sheep Pay in Peace Times.
Though sheep raising is now conducted as a profitable business at present prices, says the bulletin, with better care it can be attractive even under normal conditions and without artificial stimulus to prices given by the war. One way of increasing profits is by increasing the lambing rate by careful breeding and proper attention at lambing time. Another way is to increase the crop of wool by better selection of sheep and providing good feed and care throughout the year. The study showed that with one-third increase in lamb production and a fifteen per cent increase in wool, both of which were possible under average conditions, an increase in receipts of nearly $3.00 per sheep could be secured.

Care of Sheep.
Care is the most important factor bearing upon the profitability of the sheep business in New England, says the bulletin. This means, briefly, plenty of wholesome feed at all times, dry quarters, good ventilation and an opportunity for the sheep to exercise while being stabled and close attention at lambing time. An occasional inspection and regular dipping is also essential to insure freedom from lice, ticks and skin diseases. While sheep are good scavengers and are useful in keeping down weeds and cleaning up fence rows and waste lands they should be provided with good pasture. This is particularly important in late summer and fall when the lambs need to be put in shape for market. Many successful growers plant a forage crop for pasture at this season. Rape makes an excellent crop for this purpose, one acre being sufficient to furnish from 30 to 40 lambs if allowed the run of other fields. The finer hays, preferably legumes, are good winter feeds. At this season some succulent feed, such as stock beets, rutabago turnips or corn silage should be provided. Practically the only grain that is necessary to feed the farm flock is just prior to and at lambing time.

CHARLES LATHROP PACK MAKES PLEA TO CLUB WOMEN TO DO SHARE IN HELPING WIN THE WAR

Hot Springs, Ark., May 3.—"We stand with our backs to the wall," that call to the civilized world made by General Haig, is being answered by the women of the civilized world," Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the National War Garden Commission, of Washington, told members of the General Federation of Women's Clubs in session here today.

"All that we have and are as men and women is dedicated to the sacred cause of victory," continued Mr. Pack. "This is more than a war to decide policies or mark boundaries. It is a war involving the most sacred questions with which men and women have to deal—the sanctity of womanhood, the sacredness of childhood and the right to live quietly in free peace. We will not yield that right while we have strength to defend it."

"As the women have been the leaders in those things so have they been in thrift. The women of France astonished the world when they helped pay off the debt following the Franco-Prussian War. In this war food and thrift go hand in hand. We must all set our minds to winning this war. The victory will be brought about if we have the ability to grow food and to save it. To the glory of England the 'how' for the men in the trenches goes into them whether it is quiet or a raining half of shells is falling in a section."

"Our boys must get the same service. They are giving their lives—must they be allowed to worry whether food is coming to them or not? How are you going to answer that question? The answer is food as close to the kitchen door as possible. Plant it, can it, dry it, for the Hun hungers and if you do not help to feed yourself you will help to feed the Hun when he gets a strangle hold upon the resources of the world."

"When you leave this annual meeting will you not carry the message of food production and food saving wherever you go? The National War Garden Commission will send you free instruction in either or both. It will suggest how to organize for community work in canning and drying. You can help win this war right in your own homes, and if you do not, let me read to you the plan that Germany has for those homes of yours. Here is a short paragraph from a book called 'War,' by Klaus Wagner, published in 1916, and I take this from page 165, as follows:

"Not only North America, but the whole of America must become a bulwark of German kultur, perhaps the strongest fortress of the Germanic races. That is everyone's hope who has freed himself from his own local European pride and who places race feeling above the love for home."

"I ask you to mark these words well—his race feeling above his love for home—and then I want to read to you one of the thousands of letters that the National War Garden Commission is receiving. It is from a little boy, as follows:

"I have decided to help win the war by having a war garden and I have just read your notice that any one can have a free garden book. My father joined the army in 1915 and was killed in 1916. Please send me the book."

"HARVEY CAMERON,
New Glasgow, Nova Scotia."

"If that boy can look this job in the face that way, what can you do? You are sending your boys to the front to make this world a decent place to live in. In the name of the Liberty for which he is fighting—not for himself but for you—provide him with the food with which to fight."

POLICE BOARD DIDN'T MEET.

The police commissioners did not hold their monthly meeting last night. There was no business to be transacted.

The commissioners have not received the pull boxes for the police as yet but they are expected any day. When they are received they will be set in place at twelve different points around town.

SAFE-GUARDING The Public's Health

Have you ever looked behind the scenes of the average sheet metal Soda Fountain? Do you know that approximately fifty per cent. (50%) of the fountains serving refreshments are unsanitary, filthy with veridigris and vermin? Lift the top of any sheet metal Ice Cream Cabinet, and you will rarely find it free from veridigris. Demand being served from a clean, wholesome, sanitary fountain. Insure being properly served by purchasing your soft drinks, soda water, etc., at a "KNIGHT ALL WHITE SANITARY" Soda Fountain. FREIGHT TRAFFIC NOW BREAKS ALL RECORDS

Long Trains Constantly Passing Through Manchester—Express Business Also Heavy.

Not in the recollection of the oldest inhabitant has so much freight gone through Manchester as the New Haven road is now handling. Since the bridges were strengthened, not only are monster locomotives used to haul long trains, but trains are sent through more frequently. It is understood that much of this freight formerly went by way of the Shore Line Division and it has been diverted to this division primarily to relieve the congestion on that line. Recently it is said that it has been found that freight can be moved faster on this division.

A good deal of coal is going through, both soft and hard, the soft predominating. As yet, Manchester has received comparatively small shipments of anthracite and coal dealers are watching anxiously for trains that will drop off coal at this station. All the dealers are loaded with orders for summer but their present receipts are hardly more than enough to meet immediate needs. The local receipts of coal for the two weeks preceding May 1 were 1,024 tons. Business as well as passenger is very heavy. The local office is loaded with work and one day this week had Allen's big truck for an extra day in addition to its own trucks for covering and collecting express orders. The local nurseries are sending and sending heavy shipments by express and parcel post.

BASEBALL GAME.
Tomorrow afternoon the high school baseball team will meet a fast team at the home. Gilbert High of Winsted will be here with its usual strong aggregation. This will be Gilbert's second game of the season and as a result Manchester should win an easy victory.

Last year Gilbert won from the locals in the fastest game of the season played. The score was 3-2. Winsted has lost one of its strongest men in Biggins the pitcher. This man kept the local boys guessing for five innings last year. Winsted plays its first game this afternoon with Litchfield.

No doubt Ballsieper will pitch for the locals. Finnegan was scheduled to pitch against Hartford this afternoon.

BALL AND BAT FUND.

P. H. Dougherty Has Already Collected About $100.

P. H. Dougherty's Ball and Bat fund now totals about one hundred and fifteen dollars. All the returns are not in from the mills yet and when they are a full report will be made. One young man canvasser in the mills collected thirty dollars alone.

The following contributed twenty five cents to the cause: Robert Hynds, Asale Oppizzi, Ernest Peterson, Carl Kjellson, Fred Sobole, Katie Quinn, Mary Quinn, J. J. McCann, Richard Boyce, Thomas Hopper, Jacob Reichenbach, Peter Farron, Abraham McCann, Samuel Fischer, Emnis Johnson.

Fred Allen, Josephine Smythe, Florence Snow, Mary Miller, Rosalind Crawford, John Turkington, John Cargo, James Wilson, Hildur Peterson, May Turkington, John Moriarty, Hattie Scheldge, Ellen Anderson, Elger Moling, Arthur Stave, George Mallon, Herman Motion, Emil Hicking, Albert Eagleson, Charles F. Johnson, Joseph Wetherell, Andrew Schmidt, Charles Apel, Emil Kohls, Takla Peterson, Sadie O'Brien, Lila Harvey, Maude Griswold, Mina Taylor, George Johnson, Harry Benson, Archibald Torrance, Frank

Beside these twenty five cent contributions there have been the following at fifty cents: Raymond Fogarty, Julia Sullivan, Charles Ryan, Albert Heminway, Max Schaller, Fred Behrend, Robinson Crockett, Frank Montie, Ewald Doellner, Robert Brown, Charles Stave, Eloy Johnson, Mary Flannigan, Max Lautenbach, Ward Strange, Robert Campbell, Samuel Stevenson, John Fogarty, Thomas Harrison, Fred Whippert, Charles Packs.

Other contributions are Henry Morgan $1, Charles Worswick $1, L. W. Mason $1, James Wright $1, Dr. Moore $2, Friend $1, Lottie Baker $50, James Kay $50, Robert Watson $50, Ralph Russell $25.

1,000,000 TONS OF WOOD SHIPS CONTRACTED FOR.

Washington, May 2.—One million tons of wooden ships, authorized in one day, making an additional 200 ships for the Emergency Fleet will be contracted for within the next few days, it was said at the Shipping Board's offices today. This is the biggest expansion in wood ship construction since the Emergency Fleet Corporation announced its original building plans for wooden vessels.

Chairman, Hurley of the Board said today that engineers already are busy drawing plans and specifications. The wooden ships will be of the Ballin and Dougherty type; he said. Each ship will average approximately 4,700 tons.

AUSTRIA LACKS FOOD; BLAMES HUNGARY.

Copenhagen, May 2.—The Austrian Liberal press is attacking Hungary for not providing Austria with food, according to information received here today. The Hungarian peasants are said to have food in abundance.

The Arbeiter Zeitung of Vienna was quoted as saying: "Hungary is an enemy, although a sister country. The existing animosity is more serious than hostility and open fighting."

At a great mass meeting in Innsbruck, Austria, it was decided to ask help from Budapest and if it is refused to appeal directly to Germany.

LAD STARTS FOR FRANCE WITH $1.20—HE HAD DECIDED TO WHIP KAISER.

Cleveland, O., May 2.—Thomas Alfred Taylor, aged nine, listened to "teacher" in the little school house near Barborton, Ohio, and was fired with the ambition to whip the Kaiser. The tales of German atrocities angered him and when he found $1.20 on the table at home he took it and started for France. He got as far as Cleveland, when his money ran out, and an officer found him asleep in a doorway in the downtown section. "It's too far to walk to France, I guess," he said, "but I'd like to lick the Kaiser."

SWITZERLAND HESITATES TO GIVE GERMANY COAL.

Paris, May 3.—Negotiations between Germany and Switzerland for the renewal of the economic agreement are proceeding tediously, said a Geneva dispatch to the Petit Parisien.

Directors of the Swiss federal railway fear to break in upon their coal reserves, the dispatch added.

Switzerland has been getting her coal supply from Germany, Germany, taking advantage of this condition of affairs, has been attempting coercive measures.

YANKIES AFTER RUDOLPH.

New York, May 3.—Dick Rudolph, holdout pitcher of the Boston Braves, is trying to engineer his transfer to some other club, according to a rumor in baseball circles here today. It is said Rudolph has offered President Houghton $10,000 for his unconditional release and that he is planning to join the New Yankees.

GERMAN-ROUMANIAN PACT PROGRESSES.

London, May 3.—An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Amsterdam quoted the semi-official German newspaper Cologne Gazette as saying that a peace pact with Roumania will be signed at once and that it will settle the Bulgarian and Turkish frontiers.

Recently it was reported that Bulgaria would cede some of the territory taken from Turkey in the first Balkan war if Turkey would recognize Bulgaria's claims in Dobruja.

PUGILIST CARPENTIER BOXES TEXAN IN CAMP.

Paris, May 3.—Georges Carpentier, famous French pugilist, took part in a sports meeting at an American camp, boxing a big rawboned Texan. Although the Texan had size he lacked skill and it took the Frenchman only about a minute to settle him. The Americans won most of the prizes.

MEMBERS OF SUBMARINE CREW GO CRAZY.

London, May 3.—Two German submarines have put into the base at Ostend with their crews raving mad, said an Amsterdam dispatch to the Morning Post today.

The seaman that displaced them mutilated on account of the bad food and were led handcuffed through the streets of the town.

6,500 HUNG IN BUSINESS IN BRITAIN.

London, May 3.—W. Johnson-Hicks, M. D., at a meeting of the Empire union, said there are 6,500 Hung at Liberty in Great Britain who are engaged in commercial pursuits. He declared they should be interned now and deported later.
