FOE MASSES REINFORCEMENTS ALONG HINDENBURG LINE--ALLIED GAINS CONTINUE; AMERICANS PUSH ON SOUTH OF METZ--"WORK OR FIGHT" FOR SHIPPING SLACKERS

GERMANS VAINLY TRY TO PUSH BACK AMERICANS ADVANCING SOUTH OF METZ

Enemy Unable to Reach Our Lines in Haumont and Rembercourt Sectors in Face of U. S. Artillery—Only 13 of 87 German Divisions Fit for Offensive, It is Said—American Patrols Busy

With the American Army on the Lorraine Front, Sept. 20.—Debouching from Bois de Marmille, an Austro-German detachment on the Meuse-Moselle front attempted to raid an American position northwest of Doncourt.

The Americans captured three of the raiders—all Austrians attached to the Imperial Royal Regiment of Vienna.

Patrols are very active on the whole American front and squads of our men are operating right up to the new Hindenburg line.

Of the 87 divisions of reserve troops in von Hindenburg's hands only 13 are fit for immediate offensive operations, according to the best information reaching the Americans today. Of the 13 divisions only three are totally rested.

These figures include one Austrian division, possibly near Metz.

German Attack Broken.

A German attack was attempted at five o'clock this morning under cover of mist, against outer lines in the Haumont and Rembercourt sectors, but the American artillery slammed down a violent counter barrage fire that completely routed the Boches.

The Germans were unable to reach the American lines, so savage and accurate was the gun fire from the American batteries. As the Germans fled they left many dead in front of the American positions.

During the night the enemy established machine gun posts on the outskirts of the village of Haumont.

(The villages mentioned in the cablegram are all on the front west and southwest of Metz).

OUR MEN GAIN IN ALSACE; METZ UNDER DIRECT FIRE

With the American Army on the Lorraine Front, Sept. 20—American troops have occupied Amerswiller, in Alsace, (on the front west of Colmar).

American patrols made the discovery that Germans had withdrawn from the place and then the Americans occupied it. A general order has been taken by the Americans, describing how towns and buildings are to be systematically destroyed during retreat.

The German fortress of Metz is under direct fire from American guns of large calibre, assistant Secretary of War Crowell told members of the House military affairs committee today.

Meriden and New Britain Men Held Up on Hartford Turnpike

WILD STORY IS RELATED TO POLICE

Berlin Constable Confers with Meriden Officers on Complaint—Victims' Automobile Disabled by Gang.

Meriden, Sept. 20.—Constable W. H. Gibney of Berlin, conferred with the Meriden police this morning relative to complaint that between 15 and 20 men from Meriden and New Britain, were confronted by armed bandits in true Wild West fashion at the Silver Lake Club House on the Hartford turnpike, just north of the Meriden line, shortly after last midnight and relieved of about $2,200 in cash and jewelry. When the robbers departed the victims found that their four automobiles had been

LIBERTY DAY OCT. 12

Washington, Sept. 20.—President Wilson this afternoon proclaimed October 12 next as "Liberty Day." He requests that on that day the citizens of the United States celebrate the anniversary of the discovery of our country in order to stimulate a generous response to the fourth Liberty loan.

All employees of the federal government who can be spared are to be excused from work on this day, to join in the celebration, the proclamation stipulates.

GERMAN LED BOLSHEVISTS BADLY BEATEN EAST OF FINN FRONTIER

New North Russian Government at Archangel Makes Official Announcement of Victory—1,000 Rifles and Many Boats and Horses Captured.

London, Sept. 20.—A severe defeat has been inflicted upon German led Bolshevik forces in northern Russia, according to an official announcement given out by the new north Russian government at Archangel and received here this afternoon.

It follows: "On Wednesday German led forces were defeated severely at Ukhalskay, 100 miles east of Archangel."

BRITISH CAPTURE MOEUVRES; FORGE STILL NEARER CAMBRAI

German Efforts to Stay Progress of Our Ally are Futile—Bulgarian Defeat Becomes Rout—French Move Ahead along Chemin des Dames

London, Sept. 20.—(12.26 p. m.)—British troops again lunged forward on the front northwest of St. Quentin on Thursday, advancing one mile and capturing the important town of Moeuvres, the war office announced today.

(Moeuvres is about seven miles west of Cambrai and was an outpost of the northern end of the Hindenburg line. The Germans have been fighting desperately in an effort to hold up the British advance.)

In the Epehy sector part of the old British defensive system has been recaptured.

Violent fighting centered around Moeuvres and there was another hard struggle on the Lempire-Epehy line.

FOE MASSING REINFORCEMENTS.

With the British Army in France, Sept. 20.—Alarmed by the British success of the past two days, the Germans have massed reinforcements along the Hindenburg line, putting up more stubborn resistance in the past 24 hours than in any other engagement of the past month.

The Germans counter attacked at several places during the night, penetrating the British line, but were driven back after bitter fighting at all but a few points. The British gained the western outskirts of Fresnoy by local fighting. German troops are occupying prepared defenses and increased their opposition everywhere. Artillery activity is increasing also. The fourth British army captured 8,000 of the 10,000 German prisoners taken.

cross the Vesle river at Jonchery failed.

"French reconnoitering parties penetrated the German lines northwest of Souain, returning with prisoners."

Germany, Bulgaria and Turkey Discussed Offer with Dual Empire

BURIAN SO DECLARES

Peace Only Possible by Debate and "Free Expression" of Views, Says

ARE HIT BY SPREADING SPANISH INFLUENZA

Washington, Sept. 20.—Extensive epidemics of influenza have been reported from Camp Devens, Mass., Camp Upton, Long Island, Camp Dix, N. J., and Camp Lee, Va., and the disease may be expected to appear in other camps soon, according to the weekly report of Surgeon General Gorgas, made public by the War Department today. The Surgeon General's report is for the week ending September 13, so does not reveal the extent of the epidemic, which started early this week.

The admission rate for disease was slightly higher than for the preceding week, while the non-effective rate showed a decrease from 36.4 to 35.1. The death rate continued low, at 2.37.

New cases of disease reported during the week covered by report numbered as follows:

Pneumonia, 332, a decrease of one; measles, 697, an increase of 89; meningitis, 12, a decrease of two, and malaria, 208.

Jackies Hit, Too.

Great Lakes, Ill., Sept. 20.—The Great Lakes Naval Training station is virtually under a complete quarantine today, affecting the 50,000 jackies here, in an effort to prevent the spread of Spanish influenza, a wave of which is sweeping the north shore of Lake Michigan.

Roy Mendelsohn, a Chicago jackie, died yesterday from the malady, and hundreds of new cases have been reported in the vicinity. Among the jackies 2,000 are said to be ill.

Similar steps have been taken at the Northwestern University, in Evanston, south of here, where seven cases already have been reported.

Health departments of the northern suburbs of Chicago are co-operating with the health officials of that city in an effort to prevent the disease, which has been spreading southward from here, from getting a foothold in Chicago.

DEAD OF SPANISH INFLUENZA.

Ridgefield, Conn., Sept. 20.—Spanish influenza has already caused one death here, that of Edward M. Roach, a traveling auditor for the New Haven road, aged 25 years. Roach contracted the disease in Boston and came to his home here. His brother, Peter F. Roach, a student for the priesthood in Baltimore, who took care of his brother, is also down with the disease, as is a nurse, Miss Barbara Roach, a sister of the deceased, who was summoned from New Haven during his illness. Dr. H. K. Mansfield, who attended Roach is also reported ill with the malady and there are a number of other

DEVENS BOYS TO PARADE HERE.

A committee of Manchester citizens will meet tonight at nine o'clock at the War Bureau to perfect plans for a reception to Camp Devens boys here on Sept. 28, the day of the opening of the Liberty Loan campaign. The reception will be along the same lines as that tendered the boys from Devens some time ago. There will be an entertainment and dance at Cheney hall.

In the afternoon, the 31st Co. Depot Brigade, 75 members under four lieutenants, will have a parade here. Thirty of the members of this company are local boys.

BACK BROKEN BY

FALLING TIMBER.

Norwalk, Sept. 20.—Joseph McGovern, of Harbor Avenue, an employee of the Shipping Board's lumber yard at Wilson Point, was fatally injured last evening when a section of machinery of a crane gave way and allowed a heavy timber to fall on him. His back was broken and he died at the Norwalk hospital this morning. Foreman William D. Lockwood of Glenbrook was also injured when he attempted to extricate McGovern. The dead man leaves a wife and several children.

Washington, Sept. 20.—The Austro-Hungarian peace offer is still open, it is officially announced in Vienna, according to a dispatch from that city today.

The official statement from the city discussed the so-called "rash statements" made by A. J. Balfour, the British Foreign Secretary, immediately after the Austro-Hungarian note was put out, adding:

"Only by discussion and free expression is peace possible."

Baron Burián, the Austrian Foreign Minister, in an address to German members of the Chamber of Deputies, said that the peace offer had been discussed with Germany, Bulgaria and Turkey before it was made and that there would be "no weakening in the Central alliance."

LABOR ASKS SEAT

AT PEACE TABLE

Conference in London, Attended by President Gompers, Also Demands End of War and Open Diplomacy.

London, Sept. 20.—(11.50 a. m.)—Representation of labor at the peace conference which ends the present war, the holding simultaneously of a world labor congress, and a formal protest against the continuation of the war, for any secret treaty aims not in accordance with the President's "14 points," are the principle declarations of the inter-allied Labour and Socialist conference, in session here today.

All of these principles were contained in a resolution which was submitted during the early part of the week by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor.

BELGIUM REJECTS

AUSTRIAN PROPOSAL

Havre, France, Sept. 20.—Belgium has scornfully rejected Germany's offer of a separate peace.

"The offer cannot serve as a basis for serious discussions," it was announced.

MONTENEGRIN MINISTER

PRESENTS CREDENTIALS.

Washington, Sept. 20.—General H. Gvosdefovitch, newly appointed minister to the United States from Montenegro, called on President Wilson at the White House today to present his credentials.

The complainant here said that one of the party slept serenely on the second floor of the club with several thousand dollars on his person. "As I understand the situation," Chief Bowen said, "The men were engaged in studying their questionnaires."

Washington, Sept. 20.—With Charles Piez, general manager of the Emergency Fleet Corporation on the stand, the Senate commerce committee today resumed its investigation of conditions at the Hog Island Shipbuilding plant.

The renewal of the investigation has to do with labor conditions, and the management of the enterprise is involved only in so far as it is responsible for the employment of incompetents, who wish to avoid service at the front, at high salaries.

Piez was questioned on his alleged statement in Philadelphia that at the present rate of progress only 50 to 55 per cent of this year's program will be carried out at Hog Island.

SPANISH INFLUENZA IN BRISTOL

Bristol, Sept. 20.—Two cases of Spanish influenza were reported to the Health officer of this city today.

"A thousand rifles and many horses were captured."

Allied forces have been landed in northern Russia on the Murman coast.

HIS "WEAK HEART"

VANISHED IN FRANCE

John Salmon, Whom Devens Surgeons Rejected, Joins Attack—Is K. of C. Secretary at Front.

Paris, August 15.—(By mail)—Surgeons at Camp Devens, Mass., ordered the discharge of Private John Salmon last winter because he had a weak heart, they said. Had the same surgeons seen Salmon at zero hour one morning recently they would probably have decided to recruit a whole division of "weak hearted men."

Salmon, whose home is in Lowell, Mass., was determined to get to the front in France, so he enrolled as a Knights of Columbus secretary. He was in a trench on the Toul sector a zero hour giving the men who were awaiting orders to go over the top a final smoke. Instead of remaining in the trench as he should have done when the Yanks went over, Salmon hopped right out with them. Unarmed he took part in the attack and finished up by carrying a wounded man back to safety on his shoulders.

The ex-National Army rookie has a keen sense of humor, and he thinks now he's entitled to have a quiet little laugh at the expense of the surgeons at Camp Devens.

U. S. FLYERS DIE IN ACCIDENT IN FRANCE.

Washington, Sept. 20.—Ensigns Clyde Norton Palmer and Phillip Bernard Frothingham were killed in an airplane accident while flying near Calais, France, on September 14, the Navy Department announced today. Palmer's home was at Malden, Mass., and Frothingham's at Portland, Me.,

TWO DEAD IN DERBY

OF SPANISH INFLUENZA

Derby, Sept. 20.—Two deaths are reported here from Spanish influenza, one in the hospital and one outside. Seventeen nurses at the Griffin Hospital are suffering from grip and severe colds.

Paris, Sept. 20.—Bulgarian defeat in the Balkans is developing into a staggering rout, according to advices from Saloniki today.

The Allied line in southern Serbia is now only nine miles from Prilep, 30 miles inside the Servian border.

(The total advance of the Allied force in Macedonia is now about 20 miles.)

Mangin Still Winning.

Paris, Sept. 20.—The evacuation of the high ground north of the Aisne river known as the Chemin des Dames by the Germans is believed today to be imminent as a result of the remorseless pressure of General Mangin's army.

The German press has already paved the way for acknowledgement of another retreat in that zone by laying stress on the statement that the Chemin des Dames is not part of the Slegfried or Hindenburg line. The Germans counter attacked west of Juoy, (on the Aisne front), but were completely repulsed.

Despite stubborn resistance the French have made further progress in the Franco-British "pincer drive" on St. Quentin.

French Smash Counter Attacks.

Paris, Sept. 20.—(Noon)—Five violent German counter attacks were repulsed by the French in the sector of the Ailette river during the night, while French troops gained more ground in front of St. Quentin and north of the Aisne, the war officer reported today.

An attempt by the Germans to cross the Vesle river, (where Americans are fighting) failed. Heavy losses were inflicted on the Germans.

The text of the communique follows:

French Report.

"In the region of St. Quentin the French at the end of the day yesterday carried Essigny le Grand, capturing more prisoners. East of the Ailette river the Germans carried out a violent reaction. Five successive counter attacks were launched against our new positions north of Allemany and east of Moisy farm, but all were broken by our resistance.

"The Germans sustained the heaviest possible losses and their attacks had absolutely no result. The new French gains were all maintained intact.

"The French have gained ground west of Aisy and northeast of Bailly. "An attempt by the Germans to whose heroic conduct in the field is an inspiration to us all, telegraphed General Pershing in reply to a message of congratulation from Field Marshal Haig, the British commander-in-chief.

"Please extend to all ranks of that splendid army the affectionate regards of the young American army and assure them that we shall battle on their side until permanent peace is assured to the world."

NURSE TO GET

FRENCH WAR CROSS

Paris, Sept. 20.—For gallantry and fearlessness under terrific artillery fire, Miss Florence Bullard, of Glens Falls, N. Y., a nurse, attached to the American Red Cross has been named for the French Croix de Guerre.

Miss Bullard exposed herself to the fire of the enemy, during the height of several battles in order to find and aid wounded soldiers. She is commended for the gallantry shown during the fighting on July 21st., when the bombs were bursting about her.

ASS'T SECRETARY OF NAVY

RESTING WELL.

New York, Sept. 20.—The condition of Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant Secretary of the Navy, who is ill with pneumonia, was reported favorable today by his attending physicians.

Mr. Roosevelt was taken ill yesterday when he arrived at an Atlantic port from France. He is reported to be resting well and expects to return to Washington in a few days.

PETITIONER DIES,

BUT CASE GOES ON.

New Haven, Sept. 20.—When a hearing was called before Referee C. E. Headley today in the case of Julian Wendt, a Wallingford cafe proprietor who filed a petition in bankruptcy some time ago, his counsel announced that Mr. Wendt had recently died. After expressing his surprise the referee said that notwithstanding the death of the petitioner the case must go on.

AMUSEMENTS
 REAL STARS IN REEL PLAYS AT THE MOVIE THEATERS

Park Theater
 Taylor Holmes, the screen's most brilliant hero, who is being boosted to the limit in all the big cities in the United States, will appear at the Popular Playhouse tonight in a big feature called "The Small Town Guy." Movie fans who rave about Charles Ray should come around to the Park tonight and compare him with Holmes and see which actor is the better. The story which is of the serio-comic order tells of a boy from a small town who goes to a big city and tells his sweetheart that he has a swell position while in reality he is working in a beaver. In the story a couple of crooks get mixed up with the hero and exciting scenes follow. A pretty love story weaves in and out of the play.
 Besides this there will be a first class comedy and the famous Park Pictograph of Current Events which will show you in moving pictures all the important news events you have been reading about in the newspapers this week.
 For tomorrow evening there will be the usual triple feature bill. Another episode of the "Lion's Claw," a Keystone comedy and a Triangle Special called "Hell's End" which is a melodrama of the thriller class.
 On Sunday, "The Golden Wall" will be the feature and it is a good one.
 And for next week there will be a big Chaplin picture "Triple Trouble." There is a mystery about this picture that it might be well to explain beforehand. It caused a sensation in the movie world among the manufacturers so it should be made known as it demonstrates that brains count after all in this world.
 It appears that a director of the Essanay Film Co. realized some years ago that Charlie Chaplin was the coming sensation. Chaplin's two movies, "The Tramp" and "The Kid," the director put in his safe and waited, as he figured that soon the great comedian would be offered so fabulous a sum to act that the Essanay company could not afford to keep him. The director's prophecy came true. Chaplin became famous and now this great film which shows Chaplin at his best is given to the world. It is a new picture in the sense that it was never shown before. When you see it you will see Chaplin at the very beginning of his fame.

Circle Theater
 Conveying in no uncertain language the message that riches without love is a mockery, "Rich Man, Poor Man," the latest Paramount picture starring that charming screen star, Marguerite Clark, was received with marked manifestations of approval by an audience that tested the capacity of the Circle theater last evening. Both the star and the picture sustained themselves with the dignity that attaches to superiority, and the interest of the audience frequently manifested itself in hearty applause.
 Here is a photoplay that, because of its powerful theme, capable direction and the individual efforts of an exceptionally fine cast of players, is well worth any one's while to see, not once, but several times. Aside from the excellent characterization of Bob Wynne by Miss Clark who is justly termed "the sweetest girl in motion pictures," that of Frederick Warde, who essayed the role of Beston, a crusty, crabbed and heartless multi-millionaire, was distinctively a work of art eminently worthy of the last of the old school of tragedians, whose prestige is fading with time, but whose influence for good in the cinema world never will die.
 Based upon the novel by Maximilian Foster, the story of "Rich Man, Poor Man," adapted by George Broadhurst, is highly dramatic and the various scenes hold the interest as by a spell.
 Those who saw the show last evening say it is the best play that Marguerite has ever appeared in. It is far better than the "Sub-Deb" pictures that made so great a hit here. The show will be given again this evening and another capacity house is expected.
 For tomorrow Manager "Jim" has another episode of "The House of Mystery," a new release comedy and a big feature called, "Beebe, the Son of Kazan."
 On Sunday evening the great and only Jap screen star will be shown in "The Bravest Way."
OLD CLOTHES DRIVE
 To Start in Manchester Next Monday—so be Prepared.
 Another Old Clothes Drive is going to be launched in Manchester. The drive starts Sept. 23 and lasts until Sept. 30. It will be under the supervision of M. J. Moriarty. There will be six or seven different collection stations about town. More details will be given in tomorrow's Herald.
 There are ten million Belgians facing a hard cold winter with scarcely any clothing to keep them warm or cover their nakedness. These Belgians were greatly comforted by the first Old Clothes campaign held and it is necessary to get busy and obtain more clothes for them. Herbert Hoover is now in Belgium and he has just cabled from that country that the people are badly in need of clothing. Any old clothes from infants to old people's will do. Such things as high or silk hats are not wanted. Clothing which can easily be repaired or can be used in any way should be saved and given to the collectors.
HENS NEARLY STARVED.
 Edward Zimmerman, the local Black Minorca fancier, received yesterday his birds which were shown at the Syracuse Fair all last week. The fair ended a week ago and the birds have been on the road to Manchester ever since. They had had neither food nor water since leaving the fair. The birds weighed 5 3-4 each when they were sent to the fair and when they arrived home they weighed 1 1-2 pounds each. No announcement of the winners has been made and Zimmerman has no way of telling who took the prizes. He sent money along to have the prize announcement sent to him but it didn't show up.

GOT THE PROMISED CHILD
 How Chilcat Natives Kept Their Word With the Missionaries of Five Years' Standing.
 In my intimate companionship with Mur in Alaska I saw many instances of his warm human sympathy. S. Hall Young writes in World Outlook. One occurred when in 1879 we were visiting the tribe of Chilcats. These Chilcat women are the most warlike of the Alaskan natives. I had been told that they crowded the house where we lodged, filling it full and prying open the door to see if we were still there. The first night we spent in the village, after an all-day's palaver, we were about to retire to our blankets when a woman brought a baby to me which was almost a skeleton from lack of nourishment, and whose feeble cry was most pitiful to hear. The woman explained that the baby's mother had died, and that they had no food for the child—none of the other women being in condition to nurse it. At once Mur and I set about preparing condensed milk for the baby. We diluted it with warm water until we thought it of the proper consistency, and fed it to the starving baby. The child was almost too weak to take this nourishment, and it required the utmost patience and care to feed it. Mur worked with that little papoose almost all night, rocking it in his arms and soothing its cries, and when at last it rested in a healthful, refreshing sleep, he carefully showed the woman how to prepare its food, and insisted upon preparing all of our remaining condensed milk for the baby. The natives venerated Mur when we were about to leave that if the baby lived it belonged to me and they would bring it down to Fort Wrangel. I thought but little of this promise, knowing how easily people forget such things; but five years after this occurrence I was surprised to have some Chilcat natives bring a sturdy and healthy little boy, and formally give him to me, saying that this was the baby whose life we had saved, and he therefore belonged to us. The child was taken into our mission at Wrangel, and I baptized him with the name of "John" after my friend.

READY TO BE MARRIED, HE DIES OF INFLUENZA
 Spanish Malady Kills Charlestown, Mass., Man—Even Beside Wedding Falls to be Performed.
 Yonkers, N. Y., Sept. 20.—While his fiancée waited at his bedside with a marriage license and wedding ring and a clergyman held himself ready to perform a wedding ceremony, George S. Abbott of Charlestown, Mass., died at St. John's Riverside hospital from Spanish influenza early today.
 Abbott came here Sunday from Boston to keep a business appointment. He became ill. When told he might not recover, Abbott asked the hospital authorities to send for his fiancée, Miss Sarah Cone, a graduate nurse of Waltham, Mass.
 Miss Cone hurried to the bedside of Abbott and decided to have the marriage ceremony performed immediately. She obtained the license and ring and arranged for the clergyman. But when all was in readiness Abbott's condition became worse and he died.

FAREWELL PARTY.
 Miss Mae O'Connell of Hollister street and Miss Arstrid Lundin of Ridge street were given a farewell party by their fellow workers in the ribbon mill office Wednesday afternoon at five o'clock and each was given a fountain pen. Miss O'Connell has enlisted as a yeoman in the Navy Department and is to quit work tomorrow noon. She expects to call to duty any day and is to go to New London to work. Miss Lundin is to leave her work either tomorrow or the middle of next week and will begin training as a nurse at the Bridgeport hospital the first of October.

Want Home Iron Plants.
 New Zealand imports iron and steel products at present at the rate of about $20,000,000 a year, and demand is increasing. It is proposed now to attempt the development of a home iron industry. Iron deposits at Parapara, in the Nelson district, are estimated to contain from 50,000,000 to 60,000,000 tons and there are coal deposits near at hand.
Don't Say That Again!
 An Illinois man, remarking about the low price of wheat, compared to chicken feed, says: "Sort of indicates that wheat may go to the chickens, doesn't it?" Man, don't say that again! I am afraid it might be overheard in some broken household in France, where some widowed mother tries to still the cries of her hungry children by giving them the greater part of her own scanty rations. Don't talk about feeding wheat to the chickens!—Orange Judd Farmer.

SHIPPING WORKERS MUST WORK OR FIGHT
 Washington, Sept. 20.—New regulations being drawn by Provost Marshal General Crowder provide that any exempted shipyard worker who absents himself for more than two and a half to three days a month without a good excuse shall be immediately inducted into the military service.
 This is one of the methods that is to be provided for dealing with slackers in the shipyards, General Manager Charles A. Piez, of the Emergency Fleet Corporation told the Senate commerce committee this afternoon.

S. A. OFFICERS' WEDDING CROWDS LOCAL CITADEL

Captain Frank Riggs and Ensign Catherine Hartman Married Before Hundreds—Beautiful Ceremony.

The Salvation Army citadel was crowded Wednesday night at the wedding of Ensign Catharine Hartman, employed as a stenographer at the divisional headquarters in Hartford and Captain Frank Riggs of Pittsfield, Mass. Among the guests were a number of out-of-town officers, including Commandant and Mrs. Joseph Hartman of Scranton, Pa., father and mother of the bride. Brigadier William Andrews of Hartford performed the ceremony. The wedding march was played by the local Salvation Army band and during the ceremony, Miss Ilet Andrews, daughter of the brigadier, played appropriate music on the piano. There were two bridesmaids and two best men. They were the bride's sister, Mrs. Captain Herbert Young and Captain Pearl Robb, Captain Herbert Young and Lieutenant Walter Perrett, Dorothy Bartlett, daughter of Commandant and Mrs. Fred Bartlett of the local corps, acted as flower girl and ring bearer, the double ring service being used.

The Decorations.
Thomas Maxwell of the local corps had charge of the decorations, which were elaborate. There was a large arch of colored maple leaves, intermingled with hydrangea blooms, while from the center hung a large bell, made of red, white and blue asbestos. The bell was hung from a large lamp for the best and made a beautiful effect when the current was turned on, the light filtering through the red, white and blue asters. The platform also was decorated with palms, ferns and cut flowers from the Park Hill Flower Shop. The bridal party and decorations were photographed by Maurice Pasternack of the Elite Studio.

Four Salvation Army women acted as ushers. They were Captain Scofield of Plymouth, Mass., Mr. Adjutant Edward Perrett, Lieutenant Bertha Wilkinson and Mrs. Robert Wilson of Spruce street. Lieutenant Eva Platt was to have been an usher, but was unable because of illness.

After the Ceremony.
Following the ceremony, brief addresses were made by Mrs. Commandant Joseph Hartman, mother of the bride, Mrs. Captain Estill of Chicago, Captain Herbert Young, who gave up his Salvation Army work to enlist in Uncle Sam's army and is now stationed at Camp Wheeler, and Commandant Fred Bartlett of the local corps. Mrs. Herbert Young, the bride's sister, also favored with a vocal solo and the band played several selections.

Later in the evening, refreshments were served in the basement. There was a large wedding cake, which the bride cut into small pieces and passed around as far as they would go. Captain and Mrs. Riggs are to live for the present in Pittsfield, where Captain Riggs is stationed as a commanding officer in the Salvation Army.

COAL STRIKE OVER.
Pottsville, Pa., Sept. 19.—The strike of anthracite coal miners in district No. 9 was ended today when the men returned to work on promises that their grievances will be given immediate consideration. The Buck Run Coal Company near here was the only concern reported still closed. The miners said they would give Fuel Administrator Garfield three days' time to act on their wage demands.

TO SEND BODIES HOME.
Fort Worth, Tex., Sept. 19.—Plans to send home the bodies of Second Lieutenants James L. McKeever, of New York City and John M. Widenham, of Los Angeles, killed yesterday when their plane went into a slide slip and crashed to earth near here, are under way today. The young men were flying several hundred feet up when the accident occurred.

FRIENDS OF SGT. TEDFORD TENDER HIM A RECEPTION

First At His Home and Later at Tinker Hall—Returned Soldier Tells Stories of the War.

About 50 friends of Ser. Walter Tedford of Co. G. just back from France, and his brother, William J. Tedford, who has served 9 1-2 years in the navy, gave them a pleasant surprise party at their home on Fern street Wednesday evening. The young people assembled at the south trolley terminus and were taken to and from the Tedford home in automobiles.

Talks on the War.
Sergeant John Pentland of Company G, who left France a month or so before Sergeant Tedford, was among the guests and during the evening he and Tedford both gave interesting talks on their experiences in the great war. Sailor William Tedford, being of a most retiring disposition, did not make any speech. Sergeant Pentland was what might be termed the "Gas Sergeant" of Company G. He specialized on gasses and spoke interestingly of the effects of the gasses on the soldiers and told of preventatives, etc. It was up to him to tell the others when they could take their masks off. He said he had to take his off and test the air to see if everything was all right and that he had proved himself gas-proof on several occasions.

A Soldier's Life.
Sergeant Tedford told of the soldiers' life in the trenches and also spoke of Company G's part in the drive at Chateau Thierry. His company relieved the Marines and they were in the first part of the drive. He said that the most they could see was the coat-tails of the Germans, who were on the run about a mile and a half away. At one part of the drive, his platoon was relieved and the platoon taking its place was hit hard.

Some Exhibits
Sergeant Tedford exhibited a German gas mask, which he brought back from France. The fact that the face part of the mask was made of leather instead of rubber, showed that Germany is shy on rubber. Rubber is gas proof, but the gas will soak through leather. All of the U. S. masks are made of rubber.

Besides the talks singing, music and enjoyed and refreshments were served. Thomas Quish played the piano and he and Robert Veitch and Joe Durkin sang solos. These three artists and "Bill" Brennan also favored with quartet selections.

As before stated William J. Tedford has served 9 1-2 years in the navy. Since the war began, or for about a year and a half, he has been stationed at the New Haven Naval Recruiting Station. He has been enjoying a furlough at his home on Fern street and left today to report at an Atlantic port. He is to be assigned to one of Uncle Sam's new destroyers and will be sent overseas.

Sergeant Walter Tedford is to go as an instructor to Camp Zachary Taylor in South Carolina, when he completes his furlough.

Another good time was given Sergeant Walter Tedford last night by his many friends. A social and dance was held in Tinker hall in his honor. A large number were present. The Victor orchestra played.

LOCAL WOODMEN'S SOCIAL PROVES MOST SUCCESSFUL

After Clever Entertainment Judge Harris, of Chicago, Delivers Interesting Lecture.

South Manchester Camp 9240, Modern Woodmen of America, entertained a number of members and friends at their semi-monthly meeting in Foresters' hall. The entertainment of the evening consisted of selections by the Woodmen's orchestra, songs by Thomas Quish and Joseph Durkin, a solo by John Munsie, a little "Jazz" by Thomas Quish and a black face sketch by Anderson and Dillon.

Going out of the beer business on Dec. 1 won't really be much of a change for the breweries. They've been so starved for lack of fuel and raw materials lately that many of them will welcome the death-blow, and turn as hopefully as may be to other lines of work.

INDIANS, NEGROES AND WHITES ALIKE DOING GOOD SERVICE IN FRANCE—ENGINEERS SCARCE

With the American Army on the Lorraine front, Sept. 20.—All branches in the varied personnel of the American army are acquiring themselves with unusual merit whenever called upon. This applies especially to non-combatants as well as fighting men and to Americans regardless of the color of their skins. One American patrol, made up exclusively of full blooded Indians, has been doing particularly effective work west of Moselle. Adopting the tactics of their warrior ancestors they are locating scores of enemy machine gun nests, killing or capturing the gun crews, and bringing in the machine guns to be turned on the enemy.

During an American attack on the northern flank of the front, six negroes, employed in laboring detachments, wandered through the forest in an effort to get a better view of the battle. Suddenly they came upon a detachment of 20 Germans. The negroes had no weapons except picks and shovels, but they charged where vegetables are kept, and to the cold storage plant, ice making plant, and last but not least, the hot house where all cut flowers are raised, one could not help but feel satisfied that they were working for a common cause and better citizens. In closing Judge Harris commended the officers of South Manchester Camp on the spirit that prevailed and the enthusiasm with which the members greeted his remarks.

Following Judge Harris's address a light luncheon was served.

KAISER RUMORS PERSIST.

London, Sept. 19.—(3:50 p. m.)—It was learned by your correspondent this afternoon on reliable authority that rumors still persist in Holland concerning the troubles of the Hohenzollern family, one of which is that the Kaiser is suffering from a mental ailment.

and the Germans surrendered. The negroes marched proudly to the rear with their prisoners.

U. S. Engineers Scarce.
American tank officers are enthusiastic in their praise of American engineers who have been advancing ahead of the tanks, filling up pits traps left by the enemy and enabling the tanks to make unusually rapid advances.

Air observers reported today that long range American artillery had scored a direct hit on an important railway bridge at Conflans, destroying it. (Conflans lies northwest of Metz and the railway passing through there is an important line of communication supplying the German front from Verdun to Laon.)

During a high wind this morning one of the American balloons was torn loose from its moorings. The two occupants leaped out with a parachute, but were swept away by the wind across the German front. It is believed, however, that they were able to land safely behind the German lines.

AUSTRIA AGAINST TREATY.

Ams.ercam, Sept. 19.—Austria is preparing to repudiate the Brest Litocsk treaty, according to reports from that country which are being received here. The reports indicate that in the near future a statement may be expected from the Austrian government, or a resolution from the Reichsrath, that Austria does not propose to stand firmly by the much censured treaty.

TO PROBE CHARGES.

Washington, Sept. 19.—A complete investigation of charges that brewing interests have been active in politics, attempted to influence legislation and tried to control newspapers was ordered by the Senate this afternoon.

All we can do is talk about it after it happens. What a glorious privilege for the boys who are actually over there doing it!

RECREATION CENTER NOTES.

Miss Mary R. Kieley of No. 10 Munroe street, Northampton, Mass., has been engaged to take charge of the girls' work at the Recreation Center and will begin her duties next week. Miss Kieley is a graduate of the Northampton high school, class of 1914, and Sargent's School of Physical Education, class of 1917. For the past year she has been engaged as supervisor of physical training in the public schools of Lynchburg, Va.

The next Community Sing will be held Wednesday evening, October 2, in the gymnasium. As previously announced, no children will be allowed, unless accompanied by their parents.

Gordon H. Thornton, who has been engaged as secretary at the Recreation Center since its opening, has tendered his resignation to take effect October 5. He is to enter the Student Army Training Corps unit at the Connecticut Agricultural college.

SHAMOKIN MINERS RETURN.

Washington, Sept. 19.—Virtually all of the 30,000 miners on strike in the Shamokin anthracite district returned to work this morning, the Fuel Administration announced today. Twenty-six colliers affected by the walkout were reported to have resumed operations.

THE TEUTON SQUEAL.

Now that the Allies seem to have the upper hand and are gradually driving the enemy back to his own land the once arrogant Germans are beginning to squeal. The German newspapers, commenting on President Wilson's rejection of Austria's peace offer, complain bitterly of the injustice of America's stand. They say that a complete military victory by the Allies would leave the German people feeling that they had been the victims of a robbers' warfare. Robbers indeed! What would the complete military victory sought by Germany have meant to the Allies? Robbery, rapine, murder, destruction and every conceivable form of terrorism have been the characteristics of their warfare. Victorious, there is no telling to what lengths they would have gone. It is safe to predict that the terms they would have forced upon a vanquished enemy would have been far more severe than the peace demands of the Allies are now or will be even after they have conquered.

Let Germany squeal! It is a pleasant sound after all its boasting. So far it has kept its homeland free from land invasion by the enemy while it has been subjecting other countries to barbaric cruelties. Now it must pay the penalty. Its arrogance must be humbled by an overwhelming force. Out of the bitter experience its attitude toward humanity must be revolutionized before it can be admitted to peace councils with the christianized nations.

beginning has been its government. And that trouble has reached its climax during the present war. One of its worst results has been the lack of individual freedom which has made the truth about the war or anything adversely affecting it or the Hohenzollerns rare, if not impossible.

The world can forgive Germany much, but it cannot forgive the Hohenzollerns or any of their ilk. It can hope for Germany's reformation, but not while the minds of her children are at their most impressionable ages are being poisoned. The awful thing about this latter is its lasting effects.

How have the youngsters' minds been poisoned? This is how. Hate has been scientifically inculcated by State schoolmasters in order that the children's efforts for the war might be increased. And the little ones were so affected that they redoubled their work in collecting needed scrap metals, rubber, wool, etc., etc.

Imagine teaching young children songs like these: "Oh England, oh England, how great are thy lies! However great thy crimes, thou cheatest the gallows." Or like this: "Over there in the cowardly trenches lies the enemy. We attack him and only a dog will say that pardon should be given today. Strike dead everything which prays for mercy. Shoot everything down like dogs. More enemies more enemies," be your prayer in this hour of retribution."

Education is habit, and habit, according to Wellington, is far more than nature. One well may shudder at Germany's future.

Arthur Brisbane seems to have gotten into bad company, in the persons of German brewers and the United States Brewers' Association. Now it remains to show that the Washington Times, which he bought largely with funds furnished by them, has been unpatriotic during Mr. Brisbane's ownership. If we are after the truth, that is a very different matter. According to the editor's own statement, he both owns and controls the paper.

If we had only had some of this rain during the garden season!

FOOD EXHIBIT CROWDED ON THE SECOND NIGHT

Another Crowd Last Evening at Cheney Hall—Affair Closes This Evening.

The vegetable and canned food exhibit at Cheney hall is a great success if the approval of several hundred visitors yesterday afternoon and evening counts for anything.

From the time the doors were opened at noon until after nine last evening a steady stream of interested spectators discussed the merits of the different exhibits.

The premium ribbons were all in place before evening and as Prof. Stevens had made several new classifications, there was a plentiful sprinkling of blue, red and white ribbons, much to the gratification of the lucky exhibitors.

During the evening the Manchester Male Quartet sang several selections, which were liberally applauded.

The exhibit will be open this afternoon and evening, closing at nine o'clock at which time exhibitors may remove their displays. The committee wants it understood that all exhibits should be removed from the hall before noon tomorrow and anything remaining after that time will be disposed of at the discretion of the committee.

KIECKHEFER LEADS OTIS.

Chicago, Sept. 20.—Auggie Kieckhefer, who, until last night's block in the three-cushion billiard championship match between himself and Charles Otis, of New York, was five points behind his opponent, today faces the last block with a comfortable lead of 25 points. He ran away with the game last night with a score of 55 to 25, making the total score 100-75.

The game ran for 44 innings.

30 KILLED, 100 HURT IN FRENCH R. R. WRECK.

Paris, Sept. 20.—More than 30 persons were killed and a hundred were injured when the first section of the Marseilles Express was derailed by the second section in Pacy tunnel between Dijon and Laroche, said a dispatch from the scene of attack today.

Soldiers promptly went to the rescue of the wounded and have received praise for their activities.

GERMANY'S CHILDREN.

It is not the German character which is mainly responsible for the German people's degradation from the ancient idealism. With all the mechanical rigidity and inequalities of the German social system, with all the materialism, worship of the big, etc., etc., which have their roots generations back in Germany's history, the real, fountain-head trouble with the German people almost from the tion in turning these men out," said Chairman Fletcher. "This condition is one hardly conducive to efficient work at Hog Island."

Evidence was presented that showed Hog Island workers were capable of riveting at a rate of 38 rivets an hour when competing for a prize, but that immediately after the contest was over the riveting average dropped back to 17 rivets an hour.

"While we are driving out the slackers," Fletcher said, "we ought also to provide some protection to the skilled worker in the shipyards who is performing a full day's work in good faith. My information is that great numbers of these have been drafted while the others have been left behind."

Senator Randell, who visited Hog Island yesterday, praised the management of the enterprise, but he believed there was room for a great deal of speeding up. The spirit of the men, due perhaps to the presence of draft evaders given jobs at the behest of politicians, is not all it should be, he said.

GRANT'S GRANDSON IN RELIEF WORK

Colonel Ulysses S. Grant III Goes to Switzerland to Supervise Aid to Prisoners.

Paris, Sept. 20.—Colonel U. S. Grant, III, and a commission of American officers have left for Switzerland where they will engage in prisoner relief work.

They will cross the border in Muffli, owing to the fact that Switzerland does not permit Allied officers to wear uniforms while in Switzerland although during celebrations of the Kaiser's birthday and on other occasions, German officers strut about the streets in Berne with tin helmets and other turnerish regalia.

Colonel Grant and his staff will occupy a house in Berne which will be guarded by American soldiers, also in Muffli.

German spies in Berne are as numerous as flies in a county hotel, and many Americans living in the Swiss capital go about well armed.

Anti-Lobbyists Declare 36 Senators Have Been Pledged to Vote Against It.

Washington, Sept. 20.—Two predictions on the outcome of the struggle over the federal suffrage amendment were in circulation at the capitol today. Senators were told by anti-lobbyists that the amendment is certain to be defeated. They say they had 36 members pledged to vote against it. Only 32 negative votes are needed to defeat the amendment if the full membership of the Senate is present.

Suffragists on the other hand, were giving circulation to a prediction by Senator Jones of Washington, who has taken an active part in lining up his colleagues for the amendment, that the amendment is certain to pass.

HIST! A MYSTERY!

Hartford Road has a dangerous auto driver. He runs his flivver without hands 'n everything. Somebody's going to get hurt and nobody seems to stop him. He lives in a house. The house is somewhere on Hartford Road.

An anonymous letter received yesterday by Chief Gordon contained this information carefully disclosed in poor handwriting and awkward English.

The letter read:

Dear Sur,

Much dangers is otto driver who live Hartford Rode in old house. They say he got no liceness too drive dis otto. Stop heem fore he run over an kill sumone. He drive otto all summer. I spik fore he kill sumbuddy. He drive his otto wit no hands.

There was no signature and the address was "Mister Chief Gordon."

Central Pershing is sending, by courier, the names of 20,000 additional casualty cases. And that is no cause for alarm. They represent slightly-wounded men, most of whom will be recovered before their names get into print.

TRIBUTE TO HERO

F. H. Simonds Eulogizes Col. Raynal C. Bolling.

Services of Aviation Expert, Before His Untimely Death, Were of the Greatest Value to the Country He Loved.

The men whom we could least spare, and there are none we would willingly spare, are the men who are giving their lives to stem the fury of the German onslaught, writes F. H. Simonds in American Review of Reviews.

It is this thought which must be in the mind of all who knew Col. Raynal C. Bolling, dead to the enemy in the early days of the great German offensive in March. Among all the Americans who felt and foresaw the coming of this war to our own country, none with clearer vision or more instant response set himself to the task, alike of preparing himself and of striving to persuade his fellow-countrymen to prepare themselves. He chose for his work the aviation branch and for the three years, while the war was still remote and meaningless to millions of people on this side of the Atlantic, he devoted his life to study and to practical training in flying.

When at last the war came, no American of his age counted greater material success or was richer in the things men sacrifice for an ideal, than Colonel Bolling. General solicitor for the United States Steel corporation, respected and honored in the legal profession for his attainments and his promise, recognized as the one whose influence and power for usefulness in the future was to be great, happy in a home which gave him all that a man can hope to receive on this side of his life, Colonel Bolling laid aside all of these things to respond to the call of his country, not only willingly but ready trained for practical service.

For those who knew him and loved him the tragedy of his death, a death which all who knew his daring spirit, the unflinching response it made to every challenge of danger and difficulty foresaw, does not lie in the fact that he met the death he expected and they expected for him. Rather it is found in the realization that a man who might have done so much more in aiding his country and his countrymen to prepare for the real struggle, whose services were so essential, whose loss was so irreparable on the practical side has been lost to us at this grave hour.

Colonel Bolling did not die before he had done much which will count in the future and will be a portion of the history of American organization for the conflict.

Penny Postage Gone in England.

Penny postage, which disappeared at midnight Sunday, June 2, was one of the great triumphs of peace, and succumbed only to the demands of war. Although the price has gone, the principle remains, and nothing has been a truer index to the march of progress than the penny stamp. Its first use in 1840 for inland postage amounted almost to a revolution. That date fixes the "great divide" between the old postal systems and the new. The penny stamp, probably more than any other influence, exercised a power in holding together the scattered bonds of kinship and acquaintance throughout the far-flung British empire, and as a factor in imperial trade it provided the facilities upon which modern trading depends.

Many years ago King Edward, then prince of Wales, said he looked forward with hope to the day when every English-speaking man, in whatever part of the world he might be, should be regarded as being as much an Englishman, so far as the penny post was concerned, as if he lived in Kent or Sussex.

Origin of "Crater."

The word "crater," from the hole made by a mine and afterward fought for, has thoroughly established itself in the language of the trenches. It is highly obvious and inevitable borrowing from the volcano.

But the volcano itself took the word from the original "crater"—the mixing bowl (from the verb meaning to mix), in which the Greeks from the earliest known times, mingled water with the wine that they seldom cared or dared to drink neat.

These craters, which stood in conspicuous positions in the hall, were often of huge size, and the resemblance to them of the volcano's orifice struck all ancient observers, who used the word "crater" in the modern volcanic sense.

Airplane Flare Perfected.

Perfection of an airplane flare for use in night bombing expeditions was announced by the ordnance department. The flare is released from the plane in a parachute and is set off by air friction. At a height of 2,000 feet it will cause a light of more than 400,000 candle power over an area of one and one-half miles in diameter. The glare prevents detection of the plane from the ground it was explained.

Pigeon Messengers.

British naval pigeon service has 4,000 pigeons for messenger duty in France and elsewhere. Of these 3,000 birds are loaned by 800 British pigeon fanciers. Pigeons often make 250-mile continuous flights carrying war messages.

Fall Opening

Opening Day is SATURDAY

SEPTEMBER
Twenty-First

In bringing together such a comprehensive assortment of Fall apparel and accessories, we modestly claim a little more credit than usual. For, as you know, the labor situation is serious, there is a shortage of woolens, dyestuffs are none too plentiful and there is a genuine scarcity of good apparel. But large assortments are here for your inspection and gratification. We've accomplished our avowed purpose of obtaining the largest amount of the best Fall merchandise the markets could afford.

May we tell you of wholesale prices—briefly? They are going up almost daily and are considerably higher NOW than when we contracted for the great majority of our Autumn stocks. You will benefit by our foresightedness in buying early.

And So We Cordially Invite You To Our Fall Opening, Which In Many Respects Is The Most Remarkable Event Of Its Nature This Store Has Ever Requested You To Attend!

The New Fall Waists Are Rather Plain But Very Colorful

The approved trimmings are beads and embroidery but these are not used lavishly. Color is the feature that makes these models striking. Navy, taupe, and ecru are favorites. Fabrics are voile, georgette and heavy crepe de Chine. Round and V-necks, roll and Buster Brown collars, big sleeves and novel cuffs give a pleasing variety of effects. You'll want immediate possession of several of these waists now on display.

PRICES RANGE FROM

$1.49 TO $8.98

Fancy Frills Are Absent From The New Coats

Simple straight lines characterize these beautiful coats of velour, bolivia, suede-finished cloths, plush, silk velour and other pile fabrics. Knee to shoe-top lengths, slightly flared skirts, large collars, fur trimmings, big pockets, buttons and belts are features. You'll find that one of these new coats is a delightful necessity.

PRICES RANGE FROM

$18.00 TO $90.00

A "WOOLTEX COAT" Price $85.00

The Fall Millinery Offers a Splendid Variety of Shapes

The general tendency is toward broad low lines, which makes possible many models of beauty and character. Crowns are either high or low and soft brims are irregular in width. Velvet, poplin, faille, soft taffeta, angora and chenille are the principal fabrics. Wings, ribbon bows and ostrich effects are the best developed trimmings. You'll be delighted to find that nearly every model will prove becoming to you.

PRICES RANGE FROM

$5.00 TO $10.00

As usual our workrooms assures you of the utmost in particular attention.

New Dresses Favor Simple Lines

And they are strikingly graceful with a leaning toward youthfulness, particularly in neck designs and bell shaped sleeves. Jersey, velour, gabardine, georgette, crepe de Chine, tricollette and taffeta are the approved fabrics. Pleats, drapes, gathers, sashes, embroidery, beads, braid and buttons give handsome trimming effects. It will be a distinct pleasure to see these garments.

PRICES RANGE FROM

$9.98 TO $35.00

What's Smartest There Is In The New Skirts

Models for every occasion, developed in many ways but all attain one object—smartness. The new silhouette is followed faithfully, with trimming features in the form of pockets, overskirts, sashes, panels and tunics. These new skirts are made of satin, taffeta, poplin, twill, tricotine, velveteen, faille and serge. Our displays make inspection unusually easy for you.

PRICES RANGE FROM

$4.49 TO $25.00

Delightfully Plain are the New Suits

In these new suits, the straight line silhouette has reached its highest point of development. Coats are about three-quarter length. Skirts are somewhat narrower and longer than last season. Many have no trimmings—others have fur adornments. Oxford cloths, evora, duvet du laine, duvyteen and velour are the favored fabrics. You're bound to like these new suits.

PRICES RANGE FROM

$22.50 TO $90.00

Autumn Accessories That Apparel Fashions Make Necessary

Gloves, neckwear, veils, handbags—everything to complete the attractiveness of your appearance, is displayed in the newest colorings and designs. Extensive assortments here now moderately priced, in spite of wholesale shortages in some instances.

1918 Fall Opening And Exhibition

We Are Pleased To Announce That Our 1918 Fall Opening and Exhibition of New Furniture and House Furnishings

Will Be Held As Usual On Saturday, September Twenty-First

This will be a notable event for several reasons.

The fact that we have any stock to exhibit is in itself remarkable. Had we not established during the years of peace a high credit rating with the best furniture manufacturers in this country together with a general reputation for buying high grade furniture in quantities, our orders would have received little attention.

As it is, despite the very great shortage of merchandise, the difficulty in shipping and everything, we have arranged on our floors for your inspection the largest and finest collection of beautiful things for the home we have ever shown.

You will inspect these things with increased interest when you understand that a recent order of the Government has forbidden the use of locks, castors, drawer pulls, reduced the size of all mirrors to a compass which can be contained in a bureau drawer and curtailed 50 Per Cent. the number of designs.

The purpose of the Government in issuing this order is to conserve all possible material and labor for the successful prosecution of the war. It is not the idea of Washington as we understand to interfere with legitimate business or to discourage people in keeping up their homes.

The home must be kept up and the American standards of living maintained just as far as possible.

It is not a time to be extravagant in any way but if you are going to need new furnishings soon it is not only economical but patriotic to buy now before the extreme price advances which are just ahead.

Hoping to see you tomorrow we are

Yours Sincerely,

"HELLO" INCOME INCREASES.
Washington, D. C., Sept. 20.—The net income of 61 of the largest telephone companies of the country increased $37,051, or 12.3 per cent last March over that of the same month the year before, according to figures made public by the Interstate Commerce Commission. Total operating revenue increased $1,969,387, or 7.6 per cent.

All our casualties so far are about half as many as Great Britain has had many a time in two weeks' fighting.

Every Citizen Should Help Fight Sabotage

Policing War Work Is a Patriotic Service Open to Men, Women and Children Everywhere

It is a wartime duty of every citizen to be a policeman for Uncle Sam under the "sabotage law," to keep eyes and ears open for attempts to injure or destroy war material, war premises or war utilities.

Offenses covered by the "sabotage law" can be committed by the individual alone and unaided anywhere—in factory and shop, storehouse, grain elevator, village garage, blacksmith shop, railroad yard, at a country railroad crossing or on the farm, as well as in shipyard or munition plant. Hence the need of many eyes to watch for them.

The seriousness of these offenses is indicated by the penalties: A fine up to $10,000, imprisonment up to 30 years, or both. They are of two general classes:

1. Wilfully injuring or destroying, or attempting to injure or destroy, any war material, war premises or war utilities.

2. Wilfully making or causing to be made in a defective manner, or attempting to make or cause to be made in a defective manner, any war material, or any part or ingredient thereof, intended for, adapted to, or suitable for use in the conduct of the war.

"War material" includes: Arms, armament, ammunition, live stock, clothing, food, foodstuffs and fuel; also supplies, munitions and all other articles, or any part or ingredient thereof, intended for, adapted to, or suitable for use in the conduct of the war.

"War premises" includes: All buildings, grounds, mines, or other places where war material is produced, manufactured, repaired, stored, mined, extracted, distributed, loaded, unloaded or transported, together with all machinery and appliances therein contained; also all boats, arsenals, navy yards, camps, prisons, or military and naval stations.

"War utilities" includes: All railways, electric lines, roads of every description, railway fixtures, canals, locks, dams, wharfs, piers, docks, bridges, buildings, structures, engines, machines, mechanical contrivances, cars, vehicles, boats, air craft or any other means of transportation; all dams, reservoirs, aqueducts, water and gas pipes, steam pipes, electric light and power, steam or pneumatic power, telephone and telegraph plants and poles, wires, fixtures, buildings or structures connected with them.

Keep eyes and ears open and report suspicious acts to the nearest representative of the United States government or of the state council of defense.

Gameness Is Requisite to Successful Pitching, Says This Brawny Right-Hander

The difference between a successful and an unsuccessful major league pitcher is oftentimes shown in a disposition to let down in the pitches. Larry Cheney, the big right-hander of the Robins, is the authority for that statement, and Larry has been under the big tent long enough to know.

"Pitchers make their mark in the big league because they refuse to waver in the pitches. The man who lets down is a gone coon, for it only takes the boys about two games to get on to some of your little weak points. If they know that you'll let down, they'll stand in there and wait for your soft one, and then—good-night.

"Some pitchers are unlucky. Wheeler Dell was one of those fellows. He had a lot of stuff with us, but it never got him anything. He'd pitch the wrong sort of ball sometimes—just do it—and so it went. Being in a hole doesn't bother me. If I had five wild pitches in a row I'd take the sixth rather than send a naked flier up to the plate."

What Inspired Student to Compose the Hymn "America"

The well-known hymn beginning "My country, 'tis of thee" and known by the name of "America," was written by the Rev. Samuel Francis Smith. He was born in Boston, October 21, 1808; was educated at Harvard and studied theology at Andover; was for many years a Baptist minister and later did other church work. In a letter concerning the poem the author said: "It was written at Andover during my student life there and was first sung publicly at a Sunday school celebration, July 4, at Park Street church, Boston. I had in my possession a number of song books from which I was selecting such music as pleased me, and finding 'God Save the King,' I proceeded to give it the ring of American patriotism."

Well-Known Landmark.

One of the best-known landmarks on the Mississippi river is gone. A tall sycamore tree that stood on the Arkansas shore near Memphis, and which for more than fifty years served as a mark for river pilots, has been undermined by the action of the water and fallen into the river. Mark Twain was one of the famed pilots who held the packstaff of his boat on the tree.

FOR THE POULTRY GROWER

Fowls, like pigs, do the best and make the most rapid growth all through the summer season, if plenty of tender green feed is provided, says a writer. Even in towns and villages where there is plenty of space, this green feed can be provided in abundance for the poultry. It is, however on the farms, both large and small and where large flocks of fowls are kept, that this green feed should be provided.

As the fowls are, or should be, excluded from the gardens and truck patches at all seasons, some other spot must be used for providing the green feed. The two crops to grow particularly are corn and clover.

and may be sown for a regular succession of fresh, tender stuff is recommended.

As the early sowing of both oat and rape is now growing scarce and getting tough replot the ground and resow again in August. The larger the young chickens get, the more they will eat of such tender green feed and as it is both cheap and healthful, the more expensive feeds are saved.

The idea is to produce mature poultry and an abundance of eggs at the minimum of expense, and the work of providing green feed must be begun early and continued all through the growing season.

Salaries Paid to Principal Officers of United States

The salaries of the principal officers of the United States government are as follows: The president, $75,000 a year; vice president, $12,000; members of the cabinet, $12,000; representatives in congress, $7,500; speaker of the house, $12,000; United States senators, $7,500; chief justice of supreme court, $15,000; each associate justice, $14,500. In the diplomatic service twelve ambassadors are each paid $17,500 a year; five ministers are each paid $12,000, and 23 ministers are each paid $10,000. An authority says: "It is a matter of common knowledge that certain posts, especially in the diplomatic service, entail expenses so much in excess of the salary paid that they can be accepted only by men of wealth. A recent secretary of state who did not maintain an elaborate establishment, said that his four years in office cost him $40,000 in excess of the salary which he received."

For Meditation.

Fools may rush in where angels fear to tread, but observation teaches us also that fools are the ones who are draft evaders. The trouble with some men is that they are always expecting somebody else to make a good job for them. It's the exception that keeps the divorce courts busy. The majority of people make matrimony a life contract. Failure is always waiting around the corner for the man who thinks himself too wise to fall.

What 9,000 Girls Do.

AFTERMATH OF BASEBALL WAGER WAS NOT SO BAD

Winners Chip in with Losers to Have a Good Time in Hartford—The Bowling Game.

Manchester's eight baseball fans, who were interested in the Montie-Parkis bet on the world's series games, had a big time at their celebration in Hartford last evening. They went to the city in Herman Montie's and Leo Schendel's automobiles and dined at Bond's. From Bond's, they went to a show and then wound up with a bowling match at the Wooster alleys. It was after midnight when they quit bowling and the manager had to shoot them out.

As told in yesterday's Herald, Parkis lost on a bet, as he was strong for Chicago, and he was to set the "gang" up, but the other fans all "had a heart" and "went Dutch" for the sake of having a good time. When it came to choosing teams for bowling, Montie and Parkis were put on the same team and they worked just as hard for each other as though they had never differed on any question. The names for the teams, Pallbaras and Wheelbaras, were suggested by a joke they heard at the show about Theda Bara's relatives.

Some very good scores were made in the bowling match, which finished at tie, each side winning two games. Several of the men are soon to be called to the service and it is planned to have another match before they go to camp. The Pallbaras won the first two games; then the Wheelbaras got rolling along and captured the last two, the last string going to them by a wide margin. Following is the summary:

CHRISTMAS GIFTS

War and Post Office Departments Expected to Do So—Conditions will Alter Case, Though.

Washington, Sept. 20.—Christmas packages for the boys in the trenches probably will be barred by the War and Post Office Departments.

Although no formal ruling has yet been made, indications today were that an official order soon will be issued, telling of conditions leading to this decision. Officials said that both departments were anxious to devise some means by which relatives and friends of soldiers in France may send them Yuletide packages and added it would depend entirely upon mail and shipping conditions prevailing during the few weeks preceding the holiday season. At the same time, however, they held out little hope of a change in the tentative decision that the boys will have to forego substantial remembrances from home.

TWO NARROWLY MISS DEATH WHEN PLANE FALLS.

Stamford, Sept. 20.—A large de Havilland airplane from the Mineola aviation field descended in New York, near New Canaan, Conn., yesterday because of motor trouble. A stone wall, camouflaged naturally by underbrush, was in front of the machine and it plunged right at it. The collision was disastrous to the airplane, the propeller and a wing of which was broken. It went back to Mineola last evening in an army truck. Lieutenant W. L. Purcell, the pilot, and Victor Safro, observer, escaped injury.

The evacuation of the St. Mihiel salient, according to German official authority, "had been under consideration for some years." Presumably the movement waited on the cooperation of a general named Pershing.—New York World.

So boys of 18, 19 and 20 are "mere kids," are they? Well, George Washington was a major and a veteran before he was 20. The Duke of Wellington was an ensign in the British navy at 18. Napoleon was a lieutenant at 17.

War Exposition At State Fair Berlin

Day and Night, September 24-28

To People of Connecticut:

The United States Government has arranged a special war exhibit showing the instruments and agencies contributing to the winning of the war in Europe. In an area of 5,000 square feet of floor space, supplemented by motion pictures and other photography and large panels and working models they will be shown at the State Fair in Berlin and this will be the only place in New England where it can be seen. Everybody in Connecticut should see this. Its worth travelling hundred of miles to see. Do not miss this rare opportunity.

KILLS HUN WITH BAYONET THEN HE CAPTURES SEVEN.

Emporia, Kan., Sept. 20.—Letters received here from Private Michael Dominguez and his captain indicate that Dominguez will receive a decoration for an exploit in the recent fighting in France in which the private, single-handed, after killing a Boche during a bayonet duel took captive two German officers and five privates. Dominguez, who is a mixture of Spanish and French, although born in Yucatan, is now in a hospital recovering from a gas attack. He enlisted last summer in the regular army.

Auto lamps should be lighted tonight at 7:24 o'clock. The sun rose at 5:35 a. m. The sun sets at 5:54 p. m.

Private William A. Knoft, who is stationed in New York city, was home today on a 24 hour furlough.

Mrs. John L. Winterbottom is visiting relatives in Syracuse and Woodville, New York. Her parents live in Woodville.

Mrs. David Hadden of 375 Bidwell street, who has enlisted as a yeomanette, left today for Boston to take the examination. Her husband is already overseas.

Robert Moeane of the U. S. S. Leviathan is spending a five days' furlough at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Amandus Friberg of Russell street. He has made eight trips overseas.

The Rockville fair management certainly played in hard luck this year. The elements were against it. However, yesterday, the only good day the fair had, saw a tremendous crowd at the grounds.

The members of Manchester Tent of Maccabees had a watermelon feast at the close of the meeting last night. The melons were furnished by John Oederman who raised them on his place on Doane street.

The north end firemen are waiting patiently to hear the new whistle give the alarm of fire. They are not anxious to have a fire but like a child with a new toy they want to hear how it sounds. The new whistle has not yet been placed in position.

An informal reception will be tendered Rev. Richard Peters, the new pastor of the Second Congregational church, in the church parlors tonight from 8 until 10 o'clock. The Ladies' Aid society cordially invites all who attend the church and any friends of the church to attend and meet the pastor and his family.

The potato yield in some sections of the town is better this year than last and in other sections the tubers are hardly worth digging out of the ground. No one seems to know just what is the cause of the small yield. In some places the blight was the cause but in others where there was no blight the potatoes are very small.

Miss Mary Quinn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Quinn of Park street, who was graduated from the local high school last June, entered Simmons college of Boston this week. She will take a four years' secretarial course. Miss Quinn was one of the speakers at the graduation exercises.

Some people are predicting a mild winter because the storm of Wednesday cleared off warm. It was supposed to be the "line" storm. The fact that a heavy frost did not follow is of much more interest to the tobacco farmers and to the farmers who have a lot of corn standing in the field.

Hose Company No. 2 of the north end fire department is planning to get a service flag or something suitable to display the names of its members in the service of Uncle Sam. It now has two members, William B. McGuire and William L. Wilson. The company is planning to raise funds with which to motorize its fire apparatus.

Miss Elizabeth Norton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Norton of Main street, yesterday entered Mt. Holyoke college for the junior year. Miss Norton last year attended the Boston University and transferred this year because of the advantages at the latter college. Miss Marjory Keith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Keith, also returned to Mt. Holyoke college yesterday for her sophomore year.

Letters written by Mortimer Moriarty who is now a candidate for a second lieutenant's commission at Fort Hancock, Ga., say that the weather at the camp is real hot. The nights, however, are cool and allow one to sleep. Moriarty expects to be graduated from the school Dec. 15. He received a month's credit for three weeks' work yesterday.

"Merl" is anxious to hear from all his friends. His address is Candidate M. R. Moriarty, 23rd Co., C. M. G., O. T. S., Camp Hancock, Augusta, Ga.

GARDEN THIEF CAUGHT.

Judge Arnott Fined Him $33.47 for Stealing Potatoes.

Max Shaga of Hartford, the man who was caught in Hackett Brothers' potato field yesterday at Buckland, pleaded guilty to theft in the police court this morning and was fined $25 and costs amounting in all to $33.47. Shaga is employed as a section hand on the railroad and as a side issue dug potatoes for Hackett Brothers and as Mr. Hackett said the man was not on his payroll. The firm has known for some time that thieves were stealing the potatoes but up to yesterday it has been impossible to catch them.

Yesterday John Hackett caught the man right in the act and held him until Captain Campbell was called to place him under arrest. Judge Arnott some time ago said that if any garden thieves appeared before him, he would give them the full extent of the law and in this case he gave the man a substantial fine.

Max could have filled his cellar with potatoes for $33.47.

LESS POLICE BUSINESS.

No License Cuts Down Number of Cases in Police Court.

The annual report of Judge Alexander Arnott and Clerk Robert Carney of the local police court has been filed. During the fiscal year there were 281 cases before the court. Six of these cases were bound over to the superior court and four were appealed. The previous year showed more cases before the court, due, it is said, to the fact the town is no-license. During the fiscal year of 1918-17 337 cases were before the court. That is a decrease of 56 cases in a year for a no-license town. This is considered a good decrease by the no-license fighters and they say 56 cases a year is well worth fighting for.

The fines and costs collected by the court and paid the town treasurer amounting to $1,568.01. Of the the fines and costs collected $46.99 was paid in witness fees and officers' charges. The secretary of the state received $455.00 from the court out of the fines and costs. The sheriff collected $275.31 and paid it to the town treasurer. The total amount of fines and costs collected during the fiscal year was $2,344.33.

NEWS BY FREIGHT.

An out-of-town newspaper this morning contained a story, which was featured, of a cablegram sent to the local War Bureau by Dr. C. E. Hesselgrave telling of the work of the Manchester boys in the St. Mihiel drive. This story appeared in the columns of the Evening Herald two days ago.

This morning's story stated that an Ernest Peterson had been killed. The War Bureau telephone this morning was congested with calls asking about the death of Ernest Peterson. There is an Ernest Peterson from Manchester in France but there was no word of his death received in town. His friends and relatives were very anxious when they read or heard of this article.

Upon investigation it was found that the writer of the article had written Peterson meaning Anderson, referring to the death of Ernest Anderson in France.

SUNDAY'S BASEBALL GAME.

The third and deciding game of the town championship series between the Athletics and White Sox will be played on the Adams street ground at 3.15 o'clock Sunday afternoon. In the first game, the Athletics won easily by the score of 2 to 2 and last Sunday the White Sox won as easily by almost the same score, or 7 to 3. Either Daoust or Kornse will pitch for the White Sox Sunday and McAdams will catch. For the Athletics, either Sipples or Brennan will do the twirling and Walter Crockett will do the back stop-work. Edward McCarthy will hold the indicator. The receipts of the game will be divided a 60 to 40 basis, the winners taking 60 per cent and the losers 40 per cent.

TO GIVE WAR LECTURE.

Mrs. Brigadier Shepherd of Boston, just returned from France where she spent several months doing Salvation Army hutment work, holding meetings and giving comfort and aid to the boys, will give her war lecture in the Center Congregational church Sunday afternoon, October 6. She has a thrilling and interesting story to tell, direct from the battle front. Rev. Eric I. Lindh will preside at the meeting.

Mrs. Shepherd will be accompanied by her husband and they will be the guests of the local Salvation Army corps over the week end of October 6, taking part in the Saturday evening and Sunday services.

$700 WORTH OF PRESENTS.

These Will Be Sent from Here to Our Boys.

As a result of the meeting held about two weeks ago, when plans were outlined for the sending of Christmas gifts, or rather orders for Christmas gifts, to the boys in France, the War Bureau has received more than $700 worth of orders and the clerks are busy making out duplicate order blanks. Each order marked to be delivered on or before December 20, thus allowing five days before Christmas, but no guarantee can be given that the gifts will be delivered before Christmas, ever at this early date. Every effort however, will be made to have this done.

The War Bureau keeps the original order and duplicate orders are sent to Dr. Hesselgrave and to the Paris office of the Paris Shopping Service for Manchester Men. Dr. Hesselgrave's secretary will see to having the orders filled at the Paris office.

LOCAL REPRESENTATIVES.

C. Elmore Watkins and F. H. Anderson will represent the local Salvation Army corps at the Connecticut State convention to be held in New Haven Friday, September 27, to formulate plans for Connecticut's part in the United War Work Drive, which is to be waged this fall by the seven great organizations engaged in war relief work. These organizations include the Y. M. C. A., the Knights of Columbus, the Salvation Army, the National Catholic War Council, the Welfare League, the American Library Association and the War Camp Community Service. Austin Cheney has been named as the representative of the War Camp Community Service.

President Wilson has given his sanction to the raising of $170,000.000 by these seven organizations. Conventions are to be held in the various states next week and the big United War Work Drive will start November 11 and continue for one week.

Postal cards are being received from Paul Clune, Francis Handley, Raymond Fogarty, Elmore Ryan and Clarence Hanna who went a week ago to the Great Lakes Training Station in Illinois. Clune has been separated from the other four and is already stationed in his barracks. Clune's address is Barracks 844 North, 8th Regiment, Co. 566, Camp Decatur, Great Lakes, Ill.

THAT TERMINUS AGAIN.

Despite the many protests of Manchester commuters, nothing has been done to clean up the new Hartford terminus of the Rockville and South Manchester cars. Instead of getting better, conditions are getting worse around the corner of Market and State streets. Every night in the week is getting as bad as Saturday night. Even the afternoon sees many unsightly things at this point. Local women commuters are disgusted with affairs and many form groups and walk down State street to the Boulevard to meet the incoming cars in order to avoid waiting for their car at Market street. Although Hartford's police station is a short distance away the nearest officer is the traffic officer who is busy at all times and cannot give any attention to what is done on Market street.

At least the new draft will be helpful in calling into the ranks a large number of amateur strategists who have so long been telling their neighbors the only absolute way of winning the war.—Es.
