One of the most exciting finishes ever seen in a war drive in Manchester is taking place just now in the United War Work campaign. This afternoon the eleven teams entered the home stretch neck and neck, and it is any team's race from now up to the closing hour, which will be 6 p. m. Monday.

At 1:30 today, just after the noon-day luncheon at the recreation building, the eleven teams reported the amounts collected by them since yesterday, and the work accomplished is most gratifying.

After First Honors. As a result of the marked rivalry, every one of the eleven teams is "on edge" this afternoon, and some of the most unique and original "stunts" yet seen in war drives in this part of the state are being utilized to extract the dollars from the pockets of possible givers.

20 BILLIONS COST OF WAR TO AMERICA

Secretary McAdoo, House Ways and Means Committee and Senate Finance Committee Prepares Figures—Four Billions in Taxes in Last Fiscal Year.

Washington, Nov. 16.—The cost of the war to the American people is approximately $20,000,000,000, according to figures prepared by the House Ways and Means Committee and the Senate Finance Committee today, following conferences with Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo.

The total appropriations made in the two war sessions of Congress, to carry until June 30, 1919, amount to $57,000,000,000. Of this amount practically $27,000,000,000 has been saved through the sudden collapse of the war.

Twenty billions will have gone out of the Treasury for war purposes by the end of the present fiscal year, but this amount includes the $10,000,000,000 total which American loans to our allies will reach June 30. To date war expenditures have amounted to $20,000,000,000, including $8,000,000,000 in loans to the Allies, Treasury figures show.

Expenses for the first third of the present fiscal year were $6,000,000,000, but these are expected to lessen materially during the year's remaining months. Congressional leaders estimate that expenditures during the remainder of the year will amount to $3,000,000,000.

Four Billions in Taxes. Figures compiled by members of the Senate finance committee today show that the government collected $4,000,000,000 in taxes for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1918, and will collect $6,000,000,000 under the pending revenue bill a total of $10,000,000,000.

The proceeds of the first of our Liberty loans have amounted to $17,000,000,000 and an additional loan to be floated in the spring will amount to $5,000,000,000, a total of $22,000,000,000. By bonds and taxation the United States will have raised by July 1, 1919, $32,000,000,000.

Loan to Allies 10 Billions. The $10,000,000,000 loaned to our Allies will be returned to the United States in due course of time. This leaves an expenditure of $20,000,000,000 as the total cost of the war.

TO RETURN BOYS MAY TAKE ONLY 8 MONTHS

Hurley, Who Sails With Hoover to Europe Today, Says So. 300,000 A MONTH

He Suggests This Rate—1,000,000 More Tons of Steel Shipping Expected This Year.

New York, Nov. 16.—Herbert C. Hoover, National Food Administrator, and Edward N. Hurley, chairman of the Shipping Board, two of President Wilson's chief war work aides, sail for Europe today to tackle two of the biggest problems left by the war.

Mr. Hoover will arrange for the feeding of the war ridden countries and Mr. Hurley will draft preparations for the safe and speedy return of the American soldiers on foreign soil, who now number upward of two million.

Mr. Hurley expected to be gone about six weeks. In speaking of the return of American troops he said:

It would take only eight months to transport all of the men from Europe to America.

"During the balance of this month and December we expect 1,000,000 tons of shipping to be delivered and of these vessels about two-thirds will be of steel construction. In addition the United States is taking about 450,000 tons of shipping out of the South American nitrate carrying trade.

"Furthermore, it must be borne in mind that in sending troops abroad we used only 15 per cent of our tonnage. The other 85 per cent was used in carrying supplies and equipment of various kinds."

Mr. Hurley said that the big ships like the Leviathan, (former Hamburg-American liner) probably would be used for transport purposes a year.

McADOO SPENDS $400,000,000 IN EIGHT MONTHS.

Washington, Nov. 16.—The sum of $403,864,950 was spent for all work in connection with the United States Railroad administration during the period from January 1, 1918, to September 30, 1918, Director General McAdoo announced today.

This sum is 34 per cent of the total sum authorized to be spent by the Railroad administration during the year 1918.

GERMANS HAVE NEARLY ENDED EVACUATION OF FRENCH LANDS

French and American Troops Cross into Lorraine and Liberate Many Villages—Also Occupy Advance Forts of Metz. Strassburg is Next—Much Material Captured—Thousands of Germans Surrender Voluntarily.

Washington, Nov. 16.—The evacuation of French territory by German armies may now be considered complete, says a semi-official dispatch received today from Lyons. French soldiers have already entered Belgium by the headland of Givet and American troops, who have crossed the frontier of Lorraine have liberated a great number of villages which were included before 1871 in the French department of the Moselle. The advanced forts of Metz have also been occupied by them.

Everywhere the Allies are welcomed as deliverers by the inhabitants of invaded or annexed parishes.

French Take Much Material. In their forward march on the heels of the invader, French soldiers are taking large amounts of material of all kinds. They are surprised at the considerable number of German soldiers who have not followed their retreating armies and who for reasons easy to guess have preferred to be captured than to go back to Germany. On the Belgian and British fronts the same conditions have been found. The dispatch adds that the entry of the Belgian troops to Brussels remains to be fixed for Sunday or Monday. It is also likely that the French troops will make their entry into Metz on Monday and the triumphant entry of the Allies into Strassburg will follow a few days later.

MOYER DENOUNCES HAYWOOD OF I. W. W.

International Labor Conference Also Condemns Radical Socialism.

PETTIBONE'S WORDS

He Blessed American Federation on His Death Bed, Says Moyer, for Its Benefits.

Laredo, Tex., Nov. 16.—Bolshevism and I. W. W.-ism are given the official ban of organized labor by the action of the International Labor Conference in session here with Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in the chair. The conference also declares to the delegates of labor of other American nations whose movements have not enjoyed the progress of organized labor in the United States that they too must abandon Bolshevism and lawlessness if they desire to be permanent, constructive and successful.

The dramatic part of the meeting, which led up to the flatfooted stand of the conference against Bolshevism in all its forms, occurred when Charles H. Moyer, president of the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers and co-defendant with "Big Bill" Haywood and George Pettibone, who the three were tried for the murder of Governor Frank Steunenberg in Idaho in 1916, bitterly denounced his former colleague, Haywood, as a force in the labor movement. He particularly warned Mexican miners against Haywood.

Moyer Denounces Haywood. "My name is Moyer—Charles H. Moyer," he began. "I am that Moyer who sat in the shadow of death out at Boise, Idaho, with Haywood and George Pettibone. I know that every word that has been told you of the American Federation of Labor adding workmen is true. My organization was not then a member of the American Federation, but it poured out its money for our defense."

"Pettibone is dead. On his death bed he blessed the Federation for what it had done for him."

Moyer said Haywood, who he mentioned his prison sentence. From the day he has been set free he has been working against the Federation, to which he owes his life, and against organized society and the best interests of workmen. I warn you against him and his propagandists."

The discussion followed, provoked largely by a resolution introduced by Mexican delegates, which they later admitted was intended to aid indicted I. W. W.'s. After a heated debate, lasting hours, a vote was taken, referring the matter to the American Federation of Labor action and voicing the position of the conference as definitely and unalterably opposed to the aims of the Industrial Workers of the World.

URSA looks and acts just like a small bear. She is married and has a husband and four children; the children are normally developed.

Circle Theater

There is no use in talking. The Saturday bills at the Circle are the talk of the town. Last Saturday there was not even standing room at 8 o'clock and tonight, counting on the bill which will be presented, there will be just as big a crowd.

The headliner will be "A Gentleman's Agreement" one of those love and adventure stories which will keep you on the edge of your seat for a solid hour. The star, the story and the settings are in the 100 per cent class.

On the same program will be a new release comedy and another chapter of "Hands Up," the serial that has Manchester agog. Tonight's chapter is a thriller. A fight for death on a mountain top with the Phantom Rider thrown off a high cliff. Echo climbs down the side of a precipice on a rope ladder. The High Priest gets into a treasure cave. Then there is a battle with bandits and the blowing up of the stage coach. These are but a few of the thrills in tonight's chapter.

For tomorrow the headliner will be "Missing" a story that will interest you.

Park Theater

William Farnum, the greatest movie star in his class in the world, comes to the Popular Playhouse this evening in a big Fox production "The Plunderer." With the possible exception of "Les Miserables," tonight's picture is Farnum's greatest success. The story is of the gold rush in '49 and in one of the battles, Farnum defeats twenty miners in a fist fight. It is the most thrilling story of the old days of California that has ever been filmed.

On the same bill tonight will be a new release comedy and another chapter of that exciting serial "The Lion's Claw."

Tomorrow night's feature is a Triangle Special entitled "The Atom." This is the story of a little boarding house servant who falls in love with a matinee idol who is down and out. They travel over the country selling patent medicine and their adventures makes a most entertaining comedy drama.

For next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, besides the usual big movie bills, John F. Sullivan has engaged a circus and a vaudeville attraction that will please you. Ursa the bear woman and Muriel, the White Mahatma, the greatest acts ever shown in Manchester will be the talk of the town after the first night. The bear woman is a circus freak and the Mahatma is a second sight performer. The matinee prices will remain the same but in the evening the admission will be 15 cents and the war tax for all.

Doughnuts for the Doughboys is the slogan. Come around tonight to "THE LITTLE DOUGHNUT SHOP" on Main street in the south end. Adv.

WHO PEACE CONFERENCE DELEGATES WILL BE AND LABOR'S PART TO FORE

Washington, Nov. 16.—Stable government is a certainty in Germany. Official advices received today indicate that the early wave of radical Socialism has waned. The conservative Socialists are in the saddle. They are maintaining order and no further outbreaks are looked for. As a result the peace conference will be hurried as much as possible with the plans can be expected early next week, officials said here today.

President Wilson is understood to have about made up his mind regarding the personnel of America's representatives. He is in communication with some of the men he wants, and as soon as he is certain that they are willing to accept will announce their appointment. He has been in direct communication with the Premiers of Great Britain, France and Italy on the general subject of representation. As a result it is expected that they will resume their conference in Versailles next week and then announce the basis of representation.

No More Notes to Self. Meanwhile there will be no further reply to the appeal of the new German government to hurry up negotiations. As a matter of fact there is a growing resentment in official circles here over the attitude of Dr. Soif. While it is recognized that the German people are in great need of foodstuffs and other supplies officials today said the Germans have only themselves to blame. They have known for months that the end was in sight and insisted on continuing the war until all supplies had been exhausted. Now they want to get the peace conference over with, if possible while there is a general sentiment of pity in the United States and officials today declared it is very apparent that their propaganda factories are working overtime.

Of course, the United States and its allies are anxious that the world's affairs shall be re-adjusted as quickly as possible, but they are prepared at this time to allow Germany to gain any real benefits by forcing issues that might make for discord.

Peace Terms Dictated. It is well known here that the peace terms are to be dictated. So far as the Central Powers are concerned they will have to take what they are given. And the United States, Great Britain, France and Italy, which have shouldered the burdens of the war, do not intend to be forced into a situation where they might be outvoted on important matters.

trip. Many officials, who, at first, favored the visit to Europe are arguing against it. They say conditions within the United States today are such that the absence of the President for a month or six weeks might be very disastrous. Labor Would Influence Conference. Organized labor throughout the world is planning to influence the peace conference. The various national federations are planning to be represented in Paris which the conference be held at Versailles, as now seems likely. And this will also present a problem that many officials here would like to see prevented. There is a growing feeling here that radicals in all of the countries will try to take advantage of the conference to inflict views that might later on prove exceedingly dangerous. And an unofficial peace conference, to sit at the same time as the regular, might put forward a program that would result in real trouble in many countries.

Japan and the United States at the present time would be fertile ground for trouble makers, officials say, while the latest labor program announced by leaders of the movement in Great Britain is a very advanced one. Realizing the danger it is believed here that the various governments will take steps to prevent open radical interfering. This very easily can be accomplished by withholding passports.

However, it can be stated officially that there will be no interference with movements of the real labor leaders. Their counsel is wanted and will be invited.

FOOTBALL TODAY. Chicago, Nov. 16.—Ohio State will meet Illinois at Urbana today in a game that will figure largely in determining the Western Conference championship. Other western games slated were: Chicago vs. Northwestern, at Evanston. Wisconsin vs. Minnesota, at Minneapolis. Syracuse vs. Michigan, at Ann Arbor. Ames vs. Iowa at Iowa City. Purdue vs. Wabash at Indianapolis. De Pau vs. Indiana at Bloomington. Chicago Naval Reserve vs. Camp Dodge.

REVOLUTIONISTS SINK GERMAN WARSHIP. London, Nov. 16.—The German battleship Schein, which refused to join the revolutionists was pursued and sunk by torpedo fire from two revolutionary warships with her entire crew while enroute to Norway, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen.

20 BILLIONS IS OUR COST IN THE WAR

to the people of the United States. Including loans to our Allies the cost has been $30,000,000,000. Figuring these loans as "war expenditures"—and Treasury experts say they could not be so designated—the United States will have raised the money for the conduct of the war on the basis of 33 1-3 per cent in taxes and 66 2-3 per cent bonds. Counting the loans to our Allies as an investment, the United States will have achieved a net gain of $10,000,000,000 on the "fifty-fifty" basis recommended early in the war by President Wilson.

The figures compiled by Senate committee members today show, if they are correct, that the burden of debt to be passed on to posterity will be $10,000,000,000 for one half of the $20,000,000,000 required for carrying on the war, exclusive of loans to our Allies, which have been supplied by taxation.

IS PRESS FREE AGAIN?

The supposition of certain Democratic contemporaries that the country's press has become as free as ever with the removal of the censorship is far from being sound.

No newspaperman wants to see return the days when any irresponsible owner of a press and a few fonts of type could print whatever he pleased in any way he pleased about public officials.

The infringement upon their liberties takes forms directed to uphold the political power of the present administration and undermine their prosperity.

Then there is the helplessness of the news associations in Washington which even now can get little news except what department or bureau heads in the capital want published.

A government by Democrats or any other party during a war is intolerable, but the nation has put up with it for the sake of the larger world end.

OUR BOYS' RETURN. The suggestion that the New England troops may be among the first to come back from France falls pleasantly upon Connecticut ears.

The story has been repeated so often about two years' being required to bring the boys back, that general credence has been given to it.

building merchant vessels and will continue to do so indefinitely, the way things look now.

HORSES AND MACHINES.

The 83rd annual horse show in New York City is the occasion for an editorial in the Hartford Times under the suggestive caption of "Still His Majesty," that readers of "Black Beauty," subscribers to "Our Dumb Animals" and their like would find profitable reading.

The Times displays some figures which seem to show that in other than "urban and eastern centers" he "more than holds his own in both numbers and dignity."

There is no argument at all, though, when it comes to Dobbin's attraction as a pet or for many even as a means of enjoyment.

The horse disappearing? He has been man's chief companion and servant for thousands of years.

Solicitors for the United War Work fund run across some queer objections. One is that the Y. M. C. A. is profiteering on its sales of cigarettes, chocolate, etc.

The papers are full of talk about the return of the expeditionary forces from abroad but little is said about the release of the two million men now in training in this country.

WEALTH WELL DISTRIBUTED.

It would be difficult to dispose of a great estate more sagaciously and justly than Mrs. Russell Sage has done by her will.

In the twelve years from the time of Mr. Sage's death Mrs. Sage gave for public uses between thirty-five and forty millions. By will she has given away forty millions more.

HORSE DIVES INTO AUTO; HURT LESS THAN MACHINE

Curious Accident on Main Street in South End—Harness Torn to Ribbons.

Auto Accident An auto driven by Charles Packard of Watkins Bros., and a team owned and driven by Charles Wardell of Highland Park collided in front of the Herald Office on Main Street early last evening.

The Wardell outfit was coming down Main Street going South at a rapid rate when the Packard auto turned the corner of Oak and Main Streets preparatory to going up St. James Street.

The horse turned completely over, tearing the harness to shreds, but fortunately neither the occupants of the auto or team were hurt.

A crowd soon collected around the scene of the accident and the driver hitched up his horse the best way he could and proceeded as if nothing had happened.

LABOR FEDERATION AGAINST TRADE WAR

International Conference Also Resolves Labor is Not Commodity. Influence of Wilson's 14 Points Seen.

Laredo, Texas, Nov. 15.—Resolutions introduced by Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, which embody the peace program of labor, are expected to be passed at today's session of the International Labor Conference here.

The resolutions insist that labor is not a commodity; that industrial servitude must cease; that the application of the right of free association, assembly, speech and press must be general.

It is asserted by delegates that the efforts of the conference, through establishing a permanent international organization, are opposing Socialism and Bolshevism by extending unionism.

School reunions are the sort of event that bring out the real social value and precociousness of the institution. The class of 1917 of the High School doubtless has found out, as many a class did before it, that the way to go to school is to go back to it, as Chesterton might say.

THE FUTURE OF THE HUN

By E. E. Harriman of the Vigilantes.

There must be a future for the German. He can not stop and resolve into a mere memory. It is out of the question for the civilized nations to annihilate him.

What manner of future awaits those millions? What will they do? What will be their status in the world? How will they prosper?

Already many thinking people are considering the matter of German trade, German industry, German debt paying.

Now that this war is ended Germany will find herself handicapped with a double load. The debts she has incurred through the financing of the war, and the rehabilitation of the devastated countries.

How is she going to acquire the necessary standing, the confidence of buying nations, to give her these markets? Once she would have sent her thousands of emigrants to colonize, with rigid instructions to demand German goods and thereby create a condition that would force importations.

With all nations on guard against Germanising influences, that plan must be abandoned. If Germany, in her stupid disregard of all rights and prejudices should attempt to again get control of any part of the national affairs of America or Canada or Brazil, for instance, it will probably lead to the barring of intercourse with her definitely.

It is difficult to ascertain where she can first gain a foothold. With her reputation blackened by her own acts, her rotten methods thoroughly exposed, it will be a hazardous thing for any nation to attempt to deal with her.

It is a matter that calls for the sober, calm study of master minds, the consideration of all nations opposed to Germanic ideas and the autocratic domination of Germany.

It is time for the nations and their deepest thinkers to begin to plan and consider, for it will not be long now until the Hun will be wanting to emigrate from Hunland to escape the burdens he has helped to create.

The forces of many nations have been harnessed in the effort to hammer some reasonable degree of sense into the Hunnish head. Next will come the prodigious effort to hold him to his work and force him to walk the straight and narrow path.

Unless he is so hedged about by rigid, inflexible guards that he can do only the right thing, he will soon be doing the wrong one. It is folly to think that getting a whipping will change the Hun nature.

So let us plan now for what comes later, that we may enjoy life with no fear of despotic oppression in the future years. We must weld a steel ring, such as Kaiser Wilhelm loved to rave about, that will keep the Prus-

Museum freaks are now going in to vaudeville and following the lead of the big vaudeville circuits, John F. Sullivan of the Park theater has signed contracts for the appearance on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, 'Ursa', one of nature's strangest curiosities.

On the same bill will be Muriel, the White Mahatma, a mind reader extraordinary, who predicted the ending of the world war before Thanksgiving, as is proven by a copy of the Norwich Bulletin now in possession of Mr. Sullivan.

WAR CORNER

Even though the war is over, the soldiers' letters mailed about a month ago keep coming to Manchester and it is surprising how many of the soldiers tell about being wounded.

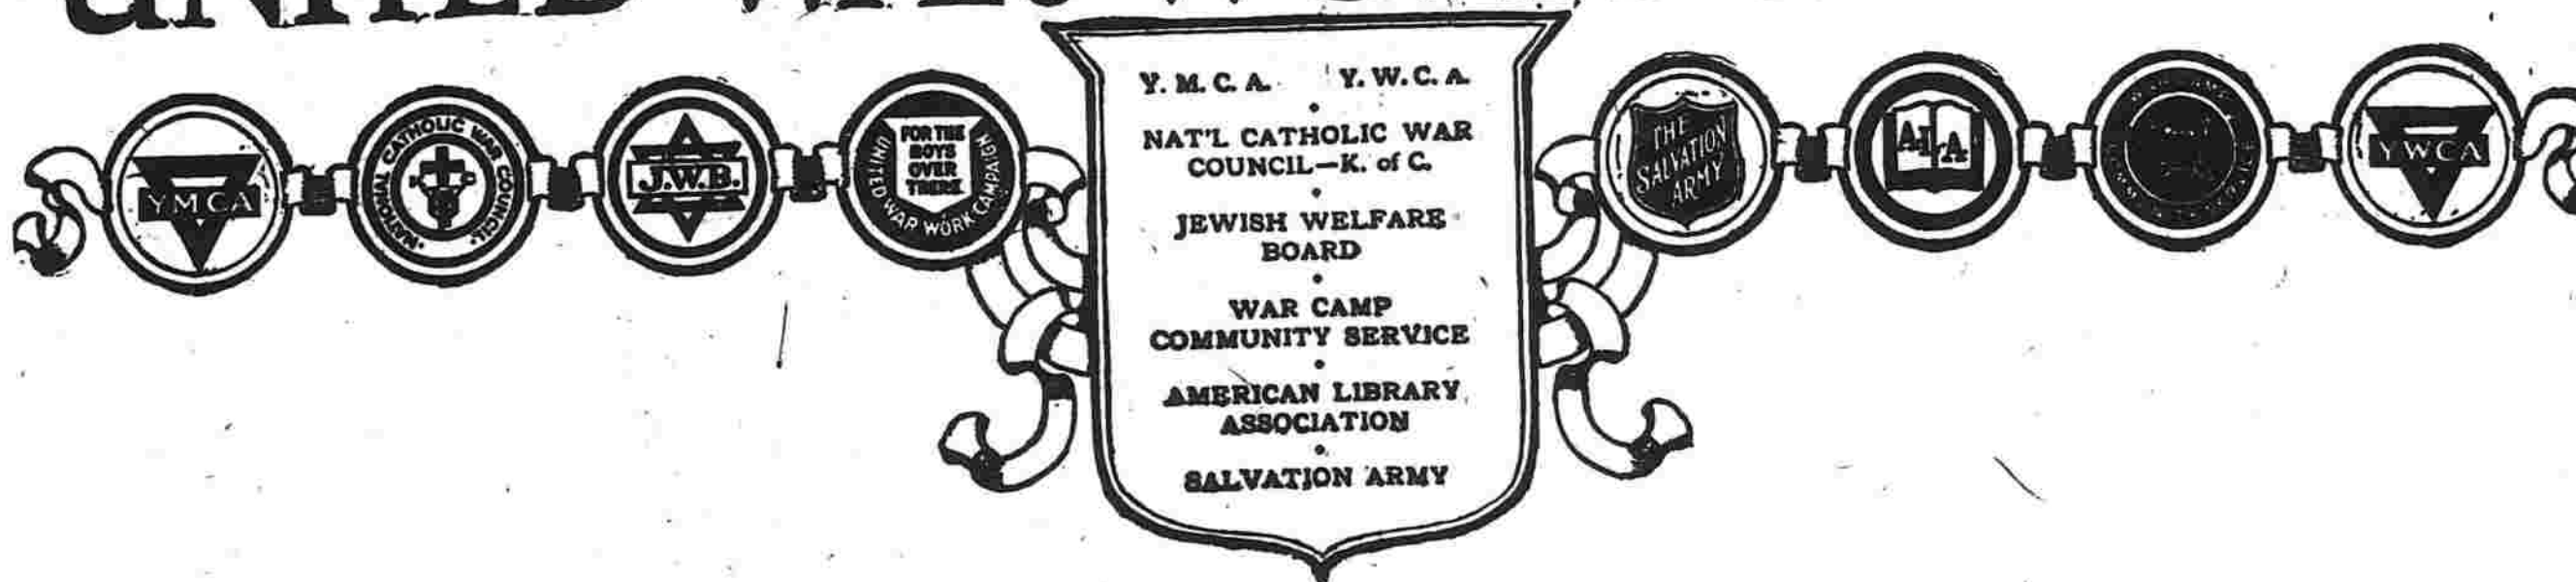

The latest to reach this office is one from Joel H. Best, who writes under date of October 19 to his mother, Mrs. Isabelle Best, of Church Street. Joel tells how it feels to be on top and get wounded and how he would like to be back and go over again.

I am now sitting up in bed. Since I have been here in the hospital I have had wonderful treatment. The doctors in the U. S. service are the best in the whole world. They give us boys the best of attention and the nurses are very kind. We have the best of food and even now I am smoking a good cigar as we can buy anything very cheap.

While I stood there I felt glad for another reason and that was that during the melee I was nearly captured by the Germans, but I got away. I was reading in The Herald that Cheney Brothers are making some kind of a flag with the combined flags of all the allies. I wish you would try and get me one of them.

UNITED WAR WORK CAMPAIGN

UNCLE SAM SAYS: "MORALE WON THE WAR"

WHAT IS MORALE?

HERE IT IS?

AT CHATEAU THIERRY AN AMERICAN SAID—
 WHERE ARE THOSE GERMANS. LET'S GET AT THEM AND FINISH THIS UP. IT IS MAKING ME SICK WAITING FOR THE WORD TO START.

AT THE SAME BATTLE A GERMAN WROTE—
 WE ARE ON THE EVE OF A BATTLE. WE ARE NERVOUS. THE AMERICANS ARE GOING TO ATTACK.

Now that the war is over the Boys have more leisure time and the need for this same morale is much greater—Remember that—keep Manchester in the one hundred per cent plus class in this campaign.

Celebrate Peace By Fixing the Auto

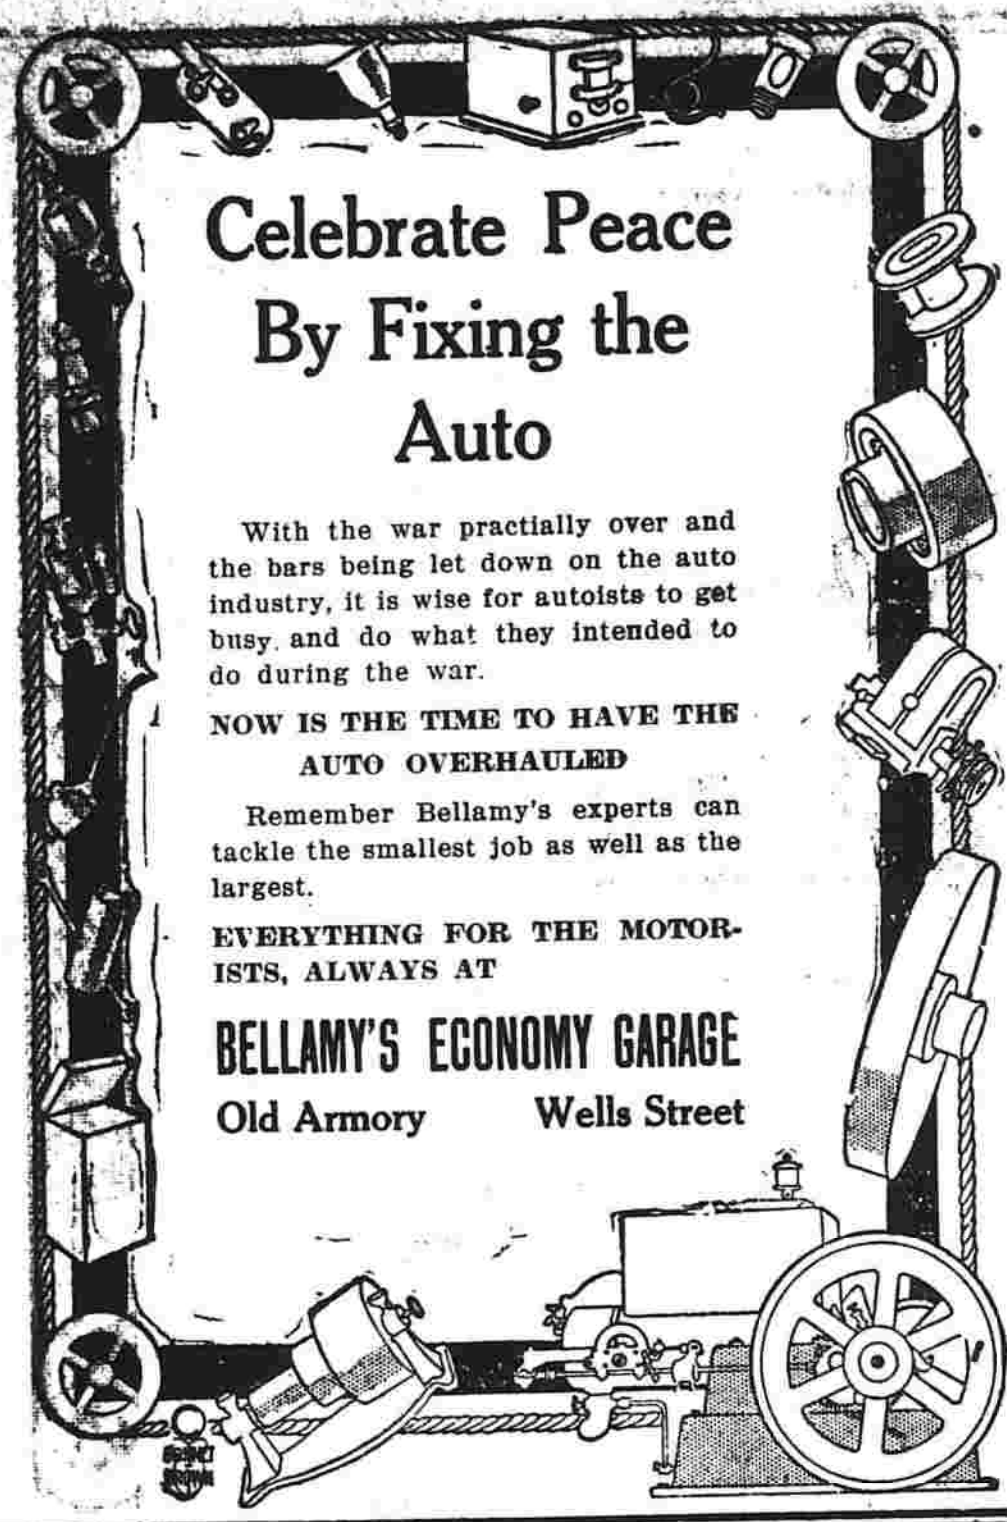

With the war practically over and the bars being let down on the auto industry, it is wise for autoists to get busy, and do what they intended to do during the war.

NOW IS THE TIME TO HAVE THE AUTO OVERHAULED

Strictly Fresh Dressed New York State Turkeys

I have been fortunate in securing SIXTY-FIVE TURKEYS for Thanksgiving. They were grown by a relative of mine in Washington County, New York, and are guaranteed fine quality. I shall bring them from the farm to my store personally by automobile.

The price will be high as the government has commandeered all cold storage turkeys for the boys in France. But some of the folks at home will feel so happy that they will want turkey at any price.

The number is limited so place your order early.

with "here's where we shine," guess we can make doughnuts, huh," and as a result, Mrs. E. G. Seaman, Miss Harriett Treat, Miss Charlotte Treat, and Mrs. W. S. Coburn are very popular ladies today among those who love hot doughnuts, and they are making a lot of money besides.

Band Concerts Tonight

Along Main street this evening, band concerts will enliven matters, and there is sure to be a large crowd out. Robert J. Smith, captain of Team 8, had a big batch of tags printed yesterday, and every tag costs the wearer a contribution to the war drive fund. At the moving picture theaters this evening the audiences will be given a chance to help, and Superintendent of Schools A. F. Howes at the Circle and Postmaster Fred H. Wall at the Park will give short addresses on the work of the seven organizations in the United War Work drive.

Various other ways have been adopted, for securing funds. The automobilists are not being overlooked, and "fines" are being imposed on the generous.

The Free-For-All.

It was not until this afternoon that the town became open territory in the grand free-for-all, open to all the teams. This meant that the limits as to territory heretofore imposed by the district system were lifted, and that all members of the eleven teams were free to canvass anybody and everybody whom they pleased and wherever they saw fit. Hence has come the tax on the ingenuity and the resort to wits in devising schemes for raising cash for the different teams.

Mill Canvass Big Job.

Excellent progress is being made in the canvass of the factories, and care is being taken that not a single employee shall be overlooked. The donations are generous, and the big job is being thoroughly done. Every plant and every department feels that it is so to speak on trial as to patriotism and generosity, and unpopular indeed would be the person who showed lukewarm attitude toward the factory canvass.

The results as printed in the Evening Herald and on the public bulletin boards and on the charts in the factories show the progress in the mill canvass from day to day.

The Next Luncheon.

The next luncheon will be the final one. Chairman Edward F. Taylor, of the executive committee, has announced that there will be no luncheon Monday noon, but that there will be luncheon and final meeting of the teams Monday evening, at 6 p. m. The reports will be given by the team captains, and the meeting will terminate the campaign.

There is still much work to be done, and much territory covered. The original quota of the town was $60,000, but the national headquarters of the United War Drive has limited strongly that it would prefer to see the amount advanced to $90,000. All of the workers are ex-

15 FAMILIES HOMELESS IN CAMBRIDGE FIRE

Five Tenements in Bay State City, Burn and Several Persons are Killed by Flames.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 16.—Fifteen families were made homeless, scores of persons forced to flee for their lives and several were slightly burned in a fire that destroyed five tenements at Putnam and Elmer Streets, in the Cambridgeport section of the city today.

The fire started in some unexplained way in one of the tenement houses. Three of the six tenements were in a row and the flames quickly swept through them and on to two tenements, housing three families each. A barn nearby was also destroyed.

Firemen Do Good Work.

A general alarm of fire was sounded, bringing every available piece of fire apparatus in the city to the scene. Most of the occupants of the tenements were asleep when the fire broke out and man were rescued by the firemen. For a time it looked as though the entire district, which consists chiefly of six and three story frame houses, would be wiped out. This caused thousands of persons to flee to the streets in scanty night attire. Many removed their belongings to the street.

The lack of a breeze and rapid work by the firemen were responsible for the checking of the blaze.

The property damage done by the fire was estimated as $50,000.

The Manchester Overseas Smoke Fund showed a little gain yesterday and as a result the goal of $1,200 is a little nearer.

Plans are under way for another movie benefit to be run on the same lines as last year. It is probable that the moving pictures taken by Leo McPartland of the Victory day celebration and the auto parade on the afternoon of that day will be shown. Other pictures of local interest will also be shown and vaudeville is being planned so as to give all who attend a good show and a good time.

FRESH TURKEYS COMING.

P. F. Hannon of the Universal market has made arrangements with a cousin of his in Washington county, New York, an experienced poultryman, for 65 fresh dressed turkeys and will go after them with an automobile. In view of the scarcity of turkeys, caused by the government's purchase of all the cold storage supply for the soldiers, Mr. Hannon considers himself lucky to get this number of strictly fresh home grown birds. The price will necessarily be high but from the number of orders already received he is confident that the entire number will be speedily disposed of.

NORWICH DISTRICT MEETING.

The annual meeting of Norwich District West, W. F. M. S., of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held in the Stafford Springs church next Monday. After the business session at 11 o'clock and a basket lunch at 12.30, all who attend will be privileged to listen to Miss Jessie Marriot.

Miss Marriot has recently returned from Hingya, China, and is an enthusiastic and interesting speaker. The afternoon session commences at 12.30.

If you have not subscribed anything for the boys do so at "The Doughnut Shop" on Main street tonight, tomorrow and Wednesday.
