FRANCE AND GREAT BRITAIN BEHIND WILSON'S STAND IN ITALY'S DISPUTE

TWO STATES ARE "OVERITOP" IN VICTORY LOAN DRIVE TODAY

Race Between Michigan and Iowa—Unofficial Returns Make Former Nation's Banner State—Cleveland Leading in Federal Reserve Districts—Reports from All Over United States.

Washington, April 24.—Two states have gone over the top in the Victory Loan, it was announced at the Treasury today. They are Michigan and Iowa, but thus far officials of the Treasury have been unable to determine which was the first to have the honor of subscribing its quota. On the face of unofficial returns, however, it appears that Michigan is the banner state.

Cleveland Leading.

The Cleveland district with 94 towns and cities oversubscribed, appeared today to be leading all federal reserve districts in the number of communities having attained their quotas. Its total sales are now estimated to be in excess of $80,000,000, and the district was hopeful that the end of the present week. The city of Toledo is within striking distance.

The New England district reported 74 districts as having exceeded their quotas, Rutland and Bennington, Vermont, being among those that have attained their goal.

Oregon's Bulletin.

More than two thirds of the counties in Oregon are "over" and the state hopes to reach the 400 per cent mark. The city of Portland has obtained one fourth of its quota without counting subscriptions from industrial plants, foreign language organizations, railroads, corporations or banks. Fourteen counties in the Atlanta districts have subscribed their full quotas.

"We have no fear of results," Minneapolis wired the Treasury today. Twenty five out of 238 counties in the district have completed their allotment, the telegram added.

No large communities have oversubscribed in the Dallas district, but a number of smaller towns are listed in the honor column.

Main Buying Big.

The battleship Kentucky, which is steaming down the east coast from Portland, Maine, to New York, challenging the nation to "match the navy" reported to Rear Admiral Cowie by wireless today that all sixteen of Maine counties will go over the top within a few days.

Treasury officials in the absence of any complete reports refused today to estimate the amount that had been subscribed throughout the nation. Yesterday they placed the figure at $500,000,000 but it was evident today that the returns had not justified an amount so large. The belief was ventured that the total today may be less than that which was estimated for yesterday.

94 FLAGS FOR OHIO.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 24.—Ninety-four honor flags have been awarded communities in the Cleveland federal reserve district, with the district starting out on its Fifth Victory Loan campaign today with $50,198,969 of its $450,000,000 subscribed.

Thirty-three of the flags were won in the campaign yesterday. The above represent communities which reported their quota the first and second days. The city of Cleveland has 100,000.

HUNGARIAN SOVIET GIVES UP ITS POWER.

Berlin, April 24.—The Hungarian Soviet government at Budapest has issued a proclamation requesting a suspension of the Roumanian offensive and announcing its willingness to hand national authority over to the socialists, according to a dispatch from Vienna today quoting the New Journal.

MANCHESTER NOW HAS $337,000 AS ITS TOTAL

Rain and Boston Celebration Slows Up the Work a Little.

STEADY FLOW OF BUYERS

Appeal Sent to Every Resident—There May Be No Need of House to House Canvass.

Today's total for the Victory loan in Manchester stands at $337,000. The rain checked the work a bit and the Boston celebration took away many of the workers. Still there is a steady stream of men and women arriving at the War Bureau buying booths.

The local committee sent out the following appeal to every person in town. It says that the results expected there will be no need of a house to house canvass.

The Appeal.

The Government again asks for a loan, the last, to "finish the job." They offer two classes of securities to meet the needs of all. We recommend them as attractive investments aside from any question of patriotism.

But Patriotism must enter into this transaction, for there is not enough investment money idle in the United States to absorb this loan, and the credit of all the people must again be used.

The money must be raised because it is owed. It is owed by the Nation—the people of the United States—who are as much in honor bound to meet their debts as a whole as individuals.

You will hear some say money has been wasted. Granted that some money may have been wasted. It was bound to be, when we consider the size of the job, the magnitude of our preparations, and what we accomplished.

On July 1, 1918, America was expected to have 600,000 men in France. As a matter of fact, on that date we had over two and a half times that number, and the fact that those men were there and thousands were to follow brought the war to a close. Whatever was wasted in dollars was more than repaid in saving lives and bringing the war to a close months and perhaps years before the most sanguine dared to hope.

When we went into the war it was with a determination to "see it through," to win. The boys who went over did their part, they won. Now we must "finish the job." We must pay the outstanding bills. That's our part.

The Secretary of the Treasury offers a security attractive in rate, and in the matter of tax exemption—four year notes bearing 4% per cent

RAIN NO BLANKET TO DAMPEN ARDOR OF 26TH'S PARADE

Every Train Coming Into Boston Jammed With Friends of YD.

HOTELS, LODGING HOUSES TAXED TO OVERFLOWING

Troop Trains Pour Into Terminals Bringing Thousands of Cheering Doughboys to Scene of Tomorrow's Monster Celebration.

Boston, April 24.—Despite the rain today every train entering this city is jammed to overflowing with relatives and friends of the boys in the YD division who are to parade tomorrow. Troop trains are moving continuously between Camp Devens and here, bringing company after company of cheering doughboys. Hotels and lodging houses are filled to overflowing and hundreds are seeking shelter. It is estimated that over 300,000 will be seated on the grandstand for tomorrow's parade while windows and points of vantage all along the route will accommodate many more.

Over Three Lines.

The long troop trains moved over three lines of railroads. Four of the trains went over the main line of the Boston and Maine railroad and the remainder over the branch line of the Boston and Albany road and thence into Boston. Shrieking whistles, cheering men, women and children and thousands of waving flags greeted the men enroute.

Units Which Arrived.

The units arriving today were: 52nd infantry brigade headquarters, 101st field signal battalion, 101st machine gun battalion, 51st infantry brigade headquarters, 101st infantry (less 2nd and 3rd battalions) 102nd infantry, 103rd machine gun battalion, 101st headquarters trains, 101st sanitary trains, and 101st supply trains. In addition the 101st engineers regiment went over the road by automobile. Upon arriving here they were detained and marched to their billets in the various armories. This evening the soldiers will be given freedom of the city.

Boston Decorated.

Boston, gaily decorated in red, white and blue, was ready to receive the heroes. The last nail has been driven into the mile upon mile of review stand and the last banner had been unfurled. Thousands of relatives and friends of the Yankee heroes were in the city, coming from all quarters of the New England district. More thousands will come tonight and tomorrow until 1 p. m. tomorrow it is estimated that more than 1,000,000 persons will be here to acclaim the Yanks.

Showers Predicted.

Showers during the early hours of the day of the great parade were forecasted today by the weather man. These, however, he promised were of light variety. By the time the parade begins to move up historic Beacon Hill the weather man said the clouds would be lifted by a cool breeze from the east and the sun would burst forth over the marching hosts of khaki.

With Helmets and Masks.

The New England troops arrived today fully equipped for the march. They will wear steel helmets and carry gas masks, packs with one blanket alicker rolled in a horsehoe

LLOYD GEORGE AND CLEMENCEAU AID PRESIDENT IN PREPARING STATEMENT ON FIUME QUESTION

WHAT PARIS PAPERS SAY OF WILSON ACT

Paris, April 24.—Diverse newspaper criticism today greeted President Wilson's public declaration that Fiume should not be given to Italy. The Figaro referred to the statement as a "Thunderbolt", saying that it may do more harm than good. The Oeuvre expressed the opinion that the President is tired of secrecy and is now appealing to the peoples themselves. The Echo de Paris was distinctly hostile, saying: "We have sacrificed too much to President Wilson already. Are we going further?" The Petit Parisien regards the situation as simply a suspension of the negotiations.

The Journal, in its comment, recalls that England, France and Italy signed an agreement that none of the powers had signed a separate peace with Germany. "In spite of the high tone of President Wilson's statement, it is nothing less than an appeal to Italy against that country's own government and to the world against Italian aspirations," said the Matin. "Substituting himself for the conference President Wilson says that the only solution is Italy's full renunciation." The Matin took the attitude that the break is only temporary, adding that there could be no real peace treaty unless it was signed by all of the powers, including Italy.

WOULD-BE BURGLAR BOUND OVER IN $2,500

John Benche Admits Attempt at Robbery in Police Court and Is Held for Superior Court—Goes to Jail.

As a result of the near tragedy which occurred on Oak street a week or more ago when John Benche entered the room of Jacob Tomasco, ordered him to hold up his hands and fired a shot that went clean through Tomasco's neck, Benche was charged with burglary and personal violence in the local court this morning. He was not represented by counsel.

Jacob Tomasco boards at the house of Michael Schuetz on Oak street. Tomasco was the first witness called and he told the story of the assault. He said that he was sleeping in his room and was awakened about a quarter of ten by the voice of some man whom he did not know at that time. He was ordered to hold up his hands and immediately a shot was fired. Although Tomasco was badly wounded and the blood was flowing from the side of his throat, he grappled with Benche, forced him back on the bed and during the melee the revolver was fired again and this time the bullet struck Benche. Tomasco called for help and in a few minutes the light was turned on by Mr. Schuetz. Both men were held in the room until the policemen arrived. Officer Crockett, who was on duty that night at the south end, was the first to arrive and immediately placed Benche under arrest. He said he found both men badly wounded and called Dr. Moore to attend them.

Chief Gordon, who had been notified of the attempted murder, arrived at the house shortly and in his talk with Benche, he admitted that he went there after money. Benche had a revolver, a black jack and a flash light. He had carried all these with him all day long. He told the Chief that he had read in the Boston American about the many foreigners who had made good money during the war and were now planning to go back to the old country. He had figured that Tomasco must have a big roll and went after it. Dr. Moore was called and told the court about the condition of the men when he arrived. He said that it was remarkable that either of the

DEATH BLOW BY WILSON CRIES GEN. GARIBALDI

The Italians' Side of the Question by Descendant of "The Liberator"

HAS SUFFERED THE MOST

"Italy Can Never Accept"—Our Final Victory Caused Germany's Death Blow.

Paris, April 24.—"Italy can never accept these ideas," declared General Peppino Garibaldi, descendant of the Italian "Liberator," when shown a copy of President Wilson's statement saying that Fiume should be made a free port. "I intend sailing for New York on Saturday, but if Fiume is not given to Italy, I would immediately return to help fight for it," continued the soldier.

"No Compromise."

"Italy positively will not accept any compromise in this matter. We shall continue to insist that we rule Fiume as a purely Italian city and port. Our allies completely failed us and our situation is most tragic and desperate. Italy has suffered more than any other nation as a result of the war, too.

"Ninety per cent of our national wealth was spent in the allied cause. Of our total pre-war wealth of 100,000,000,000 lire only 10,000,000,000 remain. France's proportionate loss is only one third of that out of 500,000,000,000 lire while the losses of Great Britain and America were much smaller proportionately.

Terrible Loss of Life.

"At the same time we come next to France in loss of life. Already we have 1,400,000 unemployed, yet England has just cut down on our coal supplies from 1,000,000 monthly to 250,000 tons. The effect of this will be to ruin Italy economically and throw most of the country into idleness at a time when we have no outlet for immigration."

"Wilson's Death Blow."

"Now comes this death blow from President Wilson—who is certainly

FIRST ACTUAL BREAK OCCURS IN CONFERENCE NEGOTIATIONS

Approved by Premiers Three Days Before Statement Was Given to Public—Break Will Not Help Germany's Cause—Italian Premier Says: "Later I Will Decide Whether I Will Answer With Words or Deeds"—His Delegates to Leave Paris Thursday—Japan May Follow Suit.

Paris, April 24.—France and Great Britain are fully in accord with President Wilson's publicly announced position on the Italian-Jugo-Slav territorial dispute and any attempt by the German peace delegates to make capital out of the temporary break will meet with no success, it was declared today in American circles. Should the Germans attempt to make any arguments, basing their contentions on the 14 principles, President Wilson will interpret them himself.

Prepared 3 Days Ago.

It became known today that the President's statement had been prepared three days ago with the approval of Premier Lloyd George and Premier Clemenceau. It was released several hours before it was made public and the two premiers were asked for suggestions. "It is admirable in every way and I would not change a word of it," Premier Clemenceau is said to have remarked.

"There is no apprehension among the American delegates as to the effect the statement will have in Italy. But in unofficial circles some fears were expressed for the Americans now in Italy. Practically all of the American troops are out of Italy, but there are some Red Cross workers in that country yet.

Germans at Spa.

It is learned from French sources that 43 members of the German peace mission have already reached Spa and are ready to leave for Versailles on short notice. Accompanying the delegates and their secretaries are telegraph and wireless experts to keep Berlin in touch with the developments.

When the Germans are called in the only suggestions they will be allowed to make will pertain to details for the application of the treaty terms. No arguments that the Teutonic envoys may undertake to raise will be entertained. This apparently disposes of the rumor that the Germans will be permitted to discuss the disposition of the Saare Basin, of Dantzig, or the German colonies.

"Doomed to Disappointment."

If there are any hopes in Germany that the German plenipotentiaries may be able to "talk the allied delegates out of some of their decisions on territorial questions" they are doomed to disappointment.

The Chief Interest.

Chief interest centered today upon two subjects: First, the effect of President Wilson's Italian statement; second, the exact time when the Germans would be called on to sign the treaty and the attitude the Teutons would take on territorial and indemnity questions.

Orlando Speaks.

Premier Orlando, of Italy, did not know in advance of the preparation of the President's announcement. When a copy was shown to him he said: "This is a document of the highest importance. But I cannot discuss it until it is translated into Italian and I have had a chance to canvass it at length with my colleagues. Later I shall decide whether I shall answer it with words or deeds. "I am here representing the Italian people and therefore I am able only to speak when I am certain that I reflect their sentiments. In any event I cannot be drawn into a discussion which might give the false impression that there is a fight between President Wilson and myself." To Leave Thursday. Later following a conference between Premier Orlando and his colleagues it was announced that the Italians had decided to leave Paris on Thursday afternoon. The action of President Wilson regarding Italy is regarded in some quarters as a strong indication of the principle that President Wilson will apply in dealing with Japan's claims for Chinese territory. This has brought about a revival of the reports that Japan may withdraw from the peace conference if Italy takes formal action in that direction.

ONLY ORLANDO TO LEAVE.

Paris, April 24.—Only Premier Orlando will return to Italy as a result of the Italian developments, the rest of the Italian delegation remaining in Paris for a few days it was learned this afternoon.

Newspapers are urging Premier Lloyd George and Premier Clemenceau immediately to attempt a reconciliation.

Premier Lloyd George held a lengthy conference with the Italian premier during the morning and later a representative of Premier Clemenceau met and talked with the Italian statesman, but the result of the meetings was not made known.

SPECIAL MEETING TONIGHT.

A special meeting of the voters of the Eighth district will be held in the school building tonight to take action on a proposition to change the location of the hose house that now stands on North School street. Many of the voters are of the opinion that a new site should be chosen. The committee appointed some months ago is now ready to report and it will be up to the voters of the district to take action at this meeting tonight.

IN TOUCH WITH BERLIN.
 German Delegates Allowed to Use Wires Freely.

Copenhagen, April 24.—Marshal Foch, in replying to the representations of the German government has granted the German peace delegates free use of telephones and telegraphs for continuous communication with the Berlin government during their stay at Versailles, said a dispatch from Berlin today.
 It is semi-officially stated in Berlin that the German delegation will leave for Versailles on Monday, April 28.

An earlier cablegram said that 43 of the German peace delegation had already arrived at Spa and were ready now to start for Versailles.

NEW YORK CITY CHEERS ITS RETURNED DRAFTS.

Three Boat Loads of Relatives and Friends Go Down Bay in Downpour of Rain.
 New York, April 24.—Ten thousand voices foared cheers of welcome to the New York city selective service men who returned home today.
 Three boat loads of relatives and friends went down the bay in a downpour to greet the 4,100 officers and men of the 77th who arrived aboard the Aquitania. The liner brought the 305th Infantry complete and the 306th Machine Gun Battalion. The transport Mt. Vernon, bringing other units of the same division is nearing port.
 The 77th was the first draft division to enter the front line on the Baccarat sector. Subsequently it fought on the River Vesle but its crowning achievement was its drive straight through the Argonne Forest in the Meuse-Argonne battle preceding the armistice.

DEATH BLOW BY WILSON CRIES GEN. GARIBALDI

 unable to appreciate the intensity of our national feeling towards Fiume. This is Italy's reward for thrice saving Europe from German domination. We saved France, England and Russia at the beginning of the war when France stationed three army corps on the Italian frontier. We were then an ally of Germany, but we told France she could employ those troops against Germany as we did not intend to attack her.
 Italy Saved Russia.
 "Our intervention in 1915 saved Russia and our final victory on the Piave was the greatest of the war and Germany's death blow. Our 1918 offensive on the Piave cost us 40,000 men killed and 120,000 wounded in the first three days of fighting.
 "Now after all of these unparalleled sacrifices the President refuses us Fiume, which is 90 per cent Italian."
 The veteran spoke with deep feeling and was evidently staggered by the finality of the president's statement.

RESIDENTS OF MUNICH STARVING, SAY REFUGEES.

London, April 24.—Fugitives arriving in Berlin from Munich say the people in the Bavarian capital are starving, according to a Central News dispatch from Berlin today. The homes of the Bourgeois are being systematically plundered by the Reds.
 A severe struggle is anticipated when the government troops close in upon Munich to deliver the people from the communist rule.
 For a time no street cars were running in Munich but finally the Red government resumed the traffic in order to raise money.

RED ARMY DEMORALIZED.

London, April 24.—The Rumanian troops invading Hungary are advancing along their whole front and are already 30 miles inside the Hungarian frontier, it was stated in official advices received here today.
 The Hungarian Red Army is completely demoralized and many of the soldiers have deserted and joined the Rumanians.
 A peasant uprising is threatened and the fall of Bela Kun, the Hungarian dictator is expected hourly.

KILBANE MAY BATTLE.

New York, April 24.—Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion of the world, is in New York today and may sign up for an eight round bout before the Sportsmen's Club, of Newark, with Benny Vélger, who claims the French featherweight title. Kilbane has been offered a match by Dave Mackay, matchmaker of the Newark Club, and it is said he came here to get Mackay's best terms.

FOG, OLD, OLD STORY.

St. Johns, N. F., April 24.—A trans-Atlantic flight from this side may be held up until next month by bad weather, according to the prospects today. Both Harry G. Hawk and F. P. Raynham, the rival aviators have reconciled themselves to a long delay. There is thick fog and frequent rain storms.

FLYING STUNTS POSTPONED.

Springfield, Mass., April 24.—The start of the "flying circus" unit of aviators for Boston which was scheduled for ten o'clock this morning was postponed on account of rain. The aviators were uncertain at that hour whether or not the trip would be made today, their decision depending on the weather conditions during the day.

STOCK MARKET

New York, April 24.—The stock market reflected an increased outside demand as well as a renewal of accumulation by strong interests at the opening today, but the influence of this combined buying was not reflected in the trading in the first few minutes. The speculative interests which had turned to the selling side offered stocks at concessions and tried hard to depress many issues in which they thought there was an absence of buying at the time.
 They made inter-nickel weak, forcing it down one point to 26 1/4. Bethlehem B sold down 1/4 to 74 1/4 and Studebaker yielded over one point. Steel Common opened up 1/4 at 101 1/4 and after yielding to 100 1/4 came back to its opening price. American Locomotive dropped one point to 70 from which it advanced to 71 1/4.
 Royal Dutch, sold off 1/4 to 93 1/4 followed by an advance to 94 1/4. Similar recessions, followed by brisk gains were noted in other issues.

 The railway men are now talking of joining the movement.

OLD POSTAL OFFICIALS BEGAN WIRE TROUBLES

Postmaster General Burlison Says They Used System to Incite Insurrection.
 Washington, April 24.—That the deposed officials of the Postal Telegraph Company enlisted the services of government employees and used the wires of the system without cost for the "circulation of propaganda to incite insurrection and to disorganize and obstruct government operation of the wire system," thereby impairing the use of the wire service to the public, was asserted in a statement today by Postmaster General Burlison, replying to the charge that he had applied the gag rule, to employees in the service. Instructions for bidding the use of the wires for such purposes without payment were issued, the proclamation added, and distributions of the Postal Telegraph Magazine through the telegraph offices was barred. However, the Postmaster General declared, no ban was placed on the circulation or receipt of the magazine by mail and there was no desire to interfere with the expression of personal views held by employees with reference to government ownership of operation of the system with the order only prohibited, he emphasized, the operating organization or personnel of the wire service from "being employed for the purpose of spreading propaganda in obstruction of operation."
 The postmaster general quoted a report by A. P. Adams, federal manager of the land line operations, stating that for some time the Postal magazine has been used to carry on a propaganda to reflect the views of the Mackay Company's and was "not being used in connection with the operation of the Postal system on government account."

MANCHESTER'S GOOD OLD FAVORITE—ALWAYS A WELCOME VISITOR.

WILLIAM S. HART IN "BREED OF MEN"

CAR HAS "HORSE SENSE."

St. Louis, Mo., April 24.—"A Ford with horse sense" is the way Mrs. Carl Bahnsen described her roadster in telling police of an attempt to steal it.

Mrs. Bahnsen said the machine was gifted with "horse sense" because it balked in front of their home and refused to go any farther after it was stolen in another section of the city.

THOUSANDS OF GOES TO GET PAX AT ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis, April 24.—Thousands of "gobs" living west of here but east of the Denver district will be discharged from service and paid here, under the plan of the Navy Department in naming St. Louis a naval demobilization point.

Two paymasters, together with a sufficient clerical force to handle the work of demobilization, have already arrived here and are in readiness to discharge and pay the sailors.

It is believed by Navy Department officials that if the men are discharged and paid at points nearer their homes there will be less opportunity for swindling and that they will be more likely to go home at once.

HAVE GERMAN OFFICERS.

Paris, April 23.—The Bavarian Red army is now reported to be commanded by two former officers in the German army—Baron Zoller and the Prince of Wied, said a dispatch from Zurich to the Petit Journal today.

men had escaped death. On his own behalf Benche admitted that he went to the house of Tommasco after money. Judge Arnott at this time warned him that anything he said on the stand would be used against him. Prosecuting Attorney Hathaway carefully noted every word of his testimony. Benche admitted that he told Tommasco to hold up his hands. He said that he planned to frighten him and in this way get some of his money. At this point the state rested its case.

Judge Arnott bound the prisoner over to the June term of the Superior Court under bonds of $2,500. Benche could not furnish the bond and was taken to the Hartford jail to await trial.

Benche's wife was in court and presented a very pitiful sight. She was in tears all the time the court was in session. She is badly crippled with rheumatism. She was allowed to see her husband and have a talk with him.

POSED AS SINGLE SO AS TO HELP ARTIST CAREER

San Francisco, April 24.—Because his wife believed she was destined to be a prima donna and made him pose as a guest in his own home, Jacob Flowerman, insurance man, was granted a divorce here recently.

Flowerman said his wife contended that a singer to be popular must be single. Therefore they lived together secretly. When guests came he said he went out the back way and later was admitted at the front door like any other guest. Finally, he says, he got tired of this deception and sent her back East.

NEW YORK NEWSPAPERS ON WILSON STATEMENT

What Metropolitan Press Thinks of Stand Taken By President in Italy's Dispute.

New York, April 24.—New York papers commented as follows today on President Wilson's statement regarding Fiume:

Times—"Orlando and Sonnino have sought to win by insistence carried to the point of obstinacy but unless their passions have got the better of their reason they will not put Italy in the unfortunate and dangerous position of being an outsider when the treaty is signed and the League of Nations becomes operative."

Herald—"If President Wilson were in this country he would know that the sentiment of the American people is overwhelmingly with Italy as against Jugo-Slavia and then, doubtless, American sentiment would be properly represented at Paris."

World—"President Wilson's decision in regard to Fiume will go far toward re-establishing public confidence in the integrity of the peace conference. What the effect may be in Italy we do not pretend to know, but certain it is that recognition of Italy's claims to Fiume would have laid the foundations of another war."

CHICAGO ULTRA REDS FLEEING WINDY CITY

Every Passenger and Freight Train Going Toward New York Has Several Anarchists Aboard.

Chicago, April 24.—A group of Russian Reds, who claim to have aided Trotsky seize the Russian government and who, members of this city's anarchist squad say, were urging "ultra Reds" of Chicago to take possession of industries here May 1, are today reported leaving Chicago hurriedly—returning to New York in groups of two on every passenger and freight train leaving this city.

According to disclosures here today the Reds have been working in this city for some weeks organizing the extremists, preparatory to taking over the city. They planned to hold three parades on May 1. The parades were to start from different parts of the city and wind up in the loop section. Seizures of the sub-treasury and the big business houses were to follow after which they planned to set up a new government by a workmen's council.

Morris Blackall, said to be a former New York soap box orator, made formal application to the authorities for permission to hold a parade on May 1. The parade was to be a "silent protest" against oppression of the working classes.

over the top of their packs, filled canteen, fixed bayonets, cooked lunch and first aid pouch. Officers will wear steel helmets, side arms, canteens, first aid pouch and gas masks.

Each unit will be designated by a sign so the spectators will know its identity immediately. To the 102nd infantry falls the honor of escorting the division flag of honor. A sergeant and six men from that regiment today were assigned to act as escort to this flag.

Announcement was made at the Northeastern department that it would take the parade about two hours to pass a given point. This means that if the parade starts promptly at 1 o'clock, the last men will reach the dismissal point about 4:30 or 5 o'clock.

The first of the wounded Y. D. men stationed in hospitals outside of Boston who are coming to view the parade, will reach Boston today. Some are stretcher cases, but in such improved condition that they may be made comfortable in grandstands. These men will be cared for by Red Cross nurses.

Those of the wounded who are able will ride in the parade in automobiles.

300,000 On Stands. The grandstands will accommodate between 250,000 and 300,000. Most of these stands have been erected by the state and city and by organizations.

The task of caring for the great multitude of visitors, both in housing and feeding, is a stupendous one. Hotels Overtaxed.

Hotels and lodging houses are already overtaxed and hundreds will probably be forced to seek shelter in churches, theaters and other places opened for their convenience.

A box luncheon will be served the Y. D. men before they start on their parade will be furnished by the Y. M. C. A.

Dignified Wraps for Spring

We are constrained to give many of the dignified wraps for spring the indefinite title of "outer garment." They are toga-like affairs which manage to combine the convenience and warmth of coats with the grace and style of capes; part coat and part cape. Designers have employed a world of ingenuity in making them, sometimes joining a regulation cape to a short coat and sometimes merging two garments into one, but always contriving to keep the suggestion of the cape very much in evidence.

In the wrap shown it is the sleeve that turns the trick of converting a long coat into the semblance of a cape. This is the smartest of models, made of velvets in marine blues, with an ample notman's sleeve. A suit patterned silk in the same color with white agner lines the whole garment, and makes an overlay on the wide shawl collar. It is glimpsed in the sleeves and makes this a very spring-sook of a wrap. The long, narrow sash is made of the material and folds over at the front.

Charles in Spring Hats. Cherries trim quite a number of the new spring models of hats, according to the bulletin of the Retail Millinery Association of America. These are used in the same shade as the hat in natural shades or in a combination of different shades. One very smart three Milan hat in cherry red has a cluster of grapes dangling over the side.

The fringe and draped band at the model are of white tulle.

RECEIVES A REPORT TODAY IN INTIMIDATION BILL. Hartford, April 24.—The House today received a report on the intimidation bill. Instead of reporting favorably on the labor men's bill, which would eliminate the word "calculated" to intimidate, the committee requests the attorney general for the next session of the general assembly legislation which will make the statutes comply with the construction as determined by the decisions of the state supreme court.

The House passed from its calendar today the bill fixing the salary of New Haven County Commissioners at $3,000 and New London County Commissioners at $1,500.

The divided report of the committee on cities and boroughs on an act to repeal a law whereby the superintendent of the water works of the city of Norwich holds office during good behavior, occupied an hour's time. The unfavorable minority report signed by three of the committee including House Chairman Sherwood.

OFFICERS DISCHARGED.

Washington, April 24.—The number of commissioned officers discharged from the army during the period from November 11 to April 17 was 95,380, the War department announced this afternoon. The number discharged during the week ending April 19 was 2,633. At the time of the signing of the armistice the number of commissioned officers in the army was 188,434, the department says.

STEAMSHIP IN DISTRESS.

Boston, April 24.—The S. S. Osage this afternoon went to the assistance of the steamship Watauda which sent out a wireless call for assistance. The Watauda's engines are disabled. Her position was given as 30 miles off Nantucket Lightship.

FIRMS BANKRUPT.

Cologne, April 23.—(Via London, April 24.)—Many industrial and mining companies in Westphalia claim to be on the verge of bankruptcy as a result of the strikes which have followed the revolution. One company is said to have lost $9,000,000. Others that formerly had a surplus of millions are now claiming a deficit of that amount.

COMING OVER SOON.

Washington, April 24.—All organizations of the 29th division, also the 25th Engineers, 32nd Bakery company, base hospitals Nos. 60 and 61 have been assigned to early convoy, the War department announced this afternoon.

MAN KILLED.

Pittsburg, April 24.—One man killed and a boy seriously injured in baseball's toll here in the last 24 hours. Clarence Bender, 22, hit over the heart by a foul ball died in a few minutes. Thomas Ross, a 13 year old boy, sustained slight concussion of the brain when he was hit on the head by a batted ball. He will recover.

national defense. They have sacrificed national honor and have had to learn that they have been living for false ideals and ignoble aims and that if they are to regain rank among the great nations of the earth they must first cleanse their hearts and learn to worship truth, justice, liberty and the love of humanity, instead of their old gods of force, world dominion, trade monopoly and imperialism.

America alone has come through with its vital forces unimpaired. We have paid our sad toll in death and suffering; in disordered industry and in lavish expenditure of wealth, but we still have the full strength of our young manhood. Our spirit is strengthened. Our organization and our productive resources are intact. Our lands have not been devastated. Our wealth is beyond that of any land at any time. We have become the great creditor nation of the world.

Who can doubt for the future? True we have our problems and we shall need all our strength and all our political and economic wisdom to enable us to solve them. America has met and solved as difficult problems in the past and she will find the solution for these.

To hesitate and tremble before the unknown trials to come would be unworthy of those who have been victors in battle and who have overcome the trials of the past.

Look forward with confidence! Meet the world with assurance! Believe in the present and in the future! Talk of cheer and of confidence! Go out and sell your customers a firm belief in the destiny of America and in their own hope of a full share in its prosperity! Don't steal your employer's time and at the same time bore your prospect by preaching sermons, but breathe out good wholesome belief in your country, in your house, in your life, in your prices, and "smile, smile, smile!" That's a kind of propaganda that no one need be ashamed of, and it pays.

The Salvation Army has been worthily purveying the bread of life for many years but it was never really appreciated until it began to feed hot doughnuts to hungry soldiers.

It is time for our building contractors who went out of business during the war to reorganize a force of employees and prepare for work. There are some big jobs ahead and they will go to out-of-town contractors if local men are not in shape to handle them.

The death of Sidney Drew removes one of the most delightful characters from the American stage. Old residents of Manchester recollect that Mr. Drew and his company played here as the opening attraction at the Armory after it was remodeled from a skating rink to a theater. Lately he has reappeared here on the screen with his wife in a series of dainty comedies. His clean wholesome humor was always a welcome change from the custard pie stuff which is made to pass on the screen for humor.

Large employers of labor are expecting very little help from immigration in the years immediately ahead. They believe that the demand for labor in the reconstruction of Europe will give employment to every able-bodied person and that foreign governments will place an embargo upon emigration. That being the case, this country will have to look for its workers among its own people. The demobilization of the army will restore many men to the ranks of the workers. The North will be forced to bring colored help from the South and the West Indies to make good the shortage of laborers. It is estimated that the South can spare a million laborers without creating a shortage in that section.

STEALS COP'S SHOES AND ANOTHER'S LOADED GUN. Philadelphia, Pa., April 24.—To steal a policeman's shoes and then swipe another "cop's" loaded revolver is "some stunt," but that is what Samuel Smith put over in Llanerch, a suburb of this city.

Smith broke into the home of Samuel Love, a policeman, at Llanerch, while Love and his family were soundly sleeping and pocketed Love's revolver and quietly evacuated the premises.

A short time later Roy Jenkins, another patrolman of the village, espied a man acting in a very suspicious manner. The man was carrying a pair of perfectly good shoes in his hand and keeping in the shadows. Jenkins arrested him. The shoes belonged to the patrolman.

TAIL END BIG STORY WILSON. WILSON AS MEDIATOR. Paris, April 24.—If a deadlock occurs at Versailles President Wilson will endeavor to set as arbitrator between Germany and the powers that are associated with the United States, excluding the Allies, it was learned today.

The whole of the Italian nation is said to be beating Premier Orlando in his territorial claims and great demonstrations reported from Rome.

The Japanese are expressing sympathy with Italy.

Text of President's Statement

The text of the statement follows:—"In view of the capital importance of the questions affected, and in order to throw all possible light upon what is involved in their settlement, I hope that the following statement will contribute to the final formation of opinion and to a satisfactory solution.

"When Italy entered the war she entered upon the basis of a definite private understanding with Great Britain and France, now known as the Pact of London. Since that time the whole face of circumstances has been altered. Many other powers, great and small, have entered the struggle, with no knowledge of that private understanding.

Austrian Danger Ended. "The Austro-Hungarian empire, the enemy of Europe, and at whose expense the Pact of London was to be kept in the event of victory, has gone to pieces and no longer exists. Not only that, but the several parts of that empire, it is agreed now by Italy and all her associates, are to be erected into independent states and associated in a league of nations, not with those who were recently our enemies, but with Italy herself and the powers that stood with Italy in the great war for liberty.

"We are to establish their liberty as well as our own. They are to be among the smaller states whose interests are henceforth to be safeguarded as scrupulously as the interests of the most powerful states.

"The war was ended, moreover, by proposing to Germany an armistice and peace which should be founded on certain clearly defined principles which set up a new order of right and justice. Upon those principles, the peace with Germany has been conceived, not only formulated. Upon those principles will be executed. We cannot ask the great body of powers to propose and effect peace with Austria and establish a new basis of independence and right in the states which originally constituted the Austro-Hungarian empire, and in the states of the Balkan group on principles of another kind. We must apply the same principles to the settlement of Europe on those quarters that we have applied in the peace with Germany. It was upon the explicit avowal of those principles that the initiative for peace was taken. It is upon them that the whole structure of peace must rest.

Fiume Must Be Outlet. "If those principles are to be adhered to, Fiume must serve as the outlet of the commerce, not of Italy, but of the land to the north and northeast of that port: Hungary, Bohemia, Rumania and the states of the new Jugo-Slav group. To assign Fiume to Italy would be to create the feeling that we have deliberately put the port upon which all those countries chiefly depend for their access to the Mediterranean in the hands of a power of which it did not form an integral part and whose sovereignty, if set up there, must inevitably seem foreign, not domestic or identified with the commercial and industrial life of the regions which the port must serve. It is for that reason, no doubt, that Fiume was not included in the Pact of London but there definitely assigned to the Croatsians.

"And the reason why the line of the Pact of London swept about many of the islands of the eastern shore of the Adriatic and around the portion of the Dalmatian coast which lies most open to that sea was that not only here and there on those islands, and here and there on that coast, there are bodies of people of Italian blood and connection, but also, and no doubt chiefly, because it was felt that it was necessary for Italy to have a foothold amidst the channels of the eastern Adriatic, in order that she might make her own coasts safe against the naval aggression of Austria-Hungary. But Austria-Hungary no longer exists. It is proposed that the fortifications which the Austria government constructed there shall be razed and permanently destroyed.

"It is part also of the new plan of European order which centers in the league of nations that the new states erected there shall accept a limitation of armaments, which puts aggression out of the question. There can be no fear of the unfair treatment of groups of Italian people there, because adequate guarantees will be given, under international sanction, of the equal and equitable treatment of all racial or national minorities.

Wears New Aspect. "In brief, every question associated with this settlement wears a new aspect—a new aspect given it by the very victory for right for which Italy has made the supreme sacrifice of blood and treasure. Italy, along with the four other great powers, has become one of the chief trustees of the new order which she has played so honorable a part in establishing.

"And on the north and northeast her natural frontiers are completely restored, along the whole sweep of the Alps from northwest to southeast to the very end of the Istrian peninsula, including all the great watershed within which Trieste and Pola lie, and all the fair regions whose face nature has turned towards the great peninsula upon which the historic life of the Latin people has been worked out through centuries of famous history ever since Rome was first set upon her seven hills.

"Her ancient unity is restored. Her lines are extended to the great walls which are her natural defenses. It is within her choice to be surrounded by friends; to exhibit to the newly liberated peoples across the Adriatic that noblest quality of greatness, magnanimity, friendly generosity, the preference of justice over interest.

"The nations associated with her, the nations that know nothing of the Pact of London or of any other special understanding that lies at the beginning of this great struggle, and who have made their supreme sacrifice also in the interest, not of national advantage of defense, but of the settled peace of the world, are now united with her older associates in urging her to assume a leadership which cannot be mistaken in the new order of Europe.

America Italy's Friend. "America is Italy's friend. Her people are drawn, millions strong, from Italy's own countryside. She is linked in blood, as well as in affection, with the Italian people. Such ties can never be broken. And America is privileged, by the generous commission of her associates in the war, to initiate the peace we are about to consummate—to initiate it upon terms which she had herself formulated and in which it was her spokesman.

"The compulsion is upon her to square every decision she takes a part in with those principles. She can do nothing else. She trusts Italy, and in her trust believes that Italy will ask nothing of her that cannot be made unmistakably consistent with those sacred obligations.

"The interests are not now in question, but the rights of peoples, of states new and old, of liberated peoples and peoples whose rulers have never accounted them worthy of a right; above all the right of the world to peace and to such settlements of interest as shall make peace secure.

"These, and these only, are the principles for which America has fought. These, and these only, are the principles upon which she can consent to make peace. Only upon these principles, she hopes and believes, will the people of Italy ask her to make peace."

MANY VOLUNTEERS EAGER TO TEST 2.75 P. C. BEER.

Washington, April 23.—Beer containing 2.75 per cent alcohol is not intoxicating—for some folks. Under the watchful eye of Dr. Charles A. Rosewater, chief of the Narcotic Clinic, ten men drank ten steins apiece of 2.75 beer without batting an eye. They were then examined by the doctor who said they were not affected in the least. The beer was free and Rosewater had no trouble finding tasters.

YD. TROOPS START.

First Companies Reached Boston This Morning. Boston, April 24.—Yankee Division troops began to invade Boston today to be ready for the triumphal victory march of the famous Twenty Sixth division over six miles of up-town streets tomorrow afternoon.

Singing war songs and cheered by hundreds, the advance guard of New England's war heroes came down from Camp Devens this morning. Seven troop trains carried the men—half of the Yankee Division. Early tomorrow morning, the remaining units of the division will leave the Ayer cantonment for this city.

Punching The Bag

After a player has stood the gaff in the major leagues for eleven years he is labelled "all in" the first time he shows a sign of slipping.

This was the sort of "rawberry" handed to Heinie Zim in 1917, when before he got himself into the lime-light in the world's series by chasing Eddie Collins home in that now famous marathon of sixty feet, which was promptly pointed out as a one-reel thriller and given the title, "I'm a Faster Man Than You Are, Heinie Zim."

Last fall, after the Giants had closed their curtailed season, various scribes predicted that 1919 would find somebody else filling the shoes of the great Zim at third base for the Giants.

New York scribes led the gang who expertly pointed out that the great one was on the skids; that his legs were growing stiff and his throwing arm turning to glass. Then they started picking out a soft spot, for Heinie to light. Some chose first base for him, and the ones who were less hopeful relegated him to right field, just as though John McGraw would think for half a second of displacing a "crack" young player like Ross Young.

Heinie kept his place through all the long winter of 1918-19, hibernating in the Bronx and saying nothing. But when the time rolled around for contracts to be signed Zim visited the offices of the Giants, accepted terms without a whimper, and calmly told McGraw that if he had ordered a new third baseman he'd better cancel the order.

When the Giants entrained for Gainesville to start spring training the veteran Zim was very much in evidence. He got into a uniform and started sawing wood in his own way, taking his time and working hard to get into shape. Eight hours work a day in a Jersey shipyard during part of the winter had not done Zimmer-

BRYAN BACKS WILSON ON ITALY DECISION

Against Secret Agreements He Tells Audience at Victory Loan Workers' Meeting.

Wobster, G., April 24.—William Jennings Bryan, former secretary of state, told a gathering of Victory Loan workers here that he would let Italy withdraw from the peace conference for her territorial demands are aggressive and furthermore are found on secret understandings which can no longer hold.

"I am opposed", said the former Secretary, "to the peace conference ratifying any treaty pledges made in secret in which a promise of any territory as a reward for help was made."

Mr. Bryan predicted that the Senate will accept the League of Nations and future presidential campaigns revolving about government ownership of utilities issues. He asserted "it is a slander on the American soldier" to say he will return to vote this country wet again.

The former secretary is touring the Cleveland Federal Reserve District in the interest of the Victory Loan.

AN APPRECIATIVE TOWN.

If there is any place in the country which has taken a keener interest in its representatives in the great war than Manchester has we have yet to learn of it. There was quite an army of them, 1246 the Honor Roll says, and the fact that the town sent so many was in itself creditable. But it not only sent them but it has taken remarkably good care of them since they left home. It has also looked after the welfare of their dependents.

Our War Bureau was organized early and has been remarkably active and efficient. Through its initiative Dr. Hensgrave was sent across as a special representative of this town in the field to do everything in his power for the comfort and welfare of Manchester men. Nominally a Y. M. C. A. worker, he was paid by his home people and supplied with additional funds to be used according to his judgment for the benefit of their boys. He was of great value not alone in providing comfort and consolation to our men under the perilous surroundings of the battle zone but also in getting them government insurance and adjusting apportionments for their dependents. The beneficial effects of his aid in these respects will continue long after the war is over.

In all the drives for war funds Manchester has responded most generously. Because the town was known for its public spirit and generosity its quota was much larger in almost every instance than that of other places of the same size; yet it has never failed to exceed its quota handsomely.

The War Bureau has not for a moment relaxed its vigilance over the dependents of the men in the service. It has cared for the sick and the unfortunate and in conjunction with the officers of the Red Cross chapter has kept constantly in touch with those who were likely to require aid.

The Red Cross chapter itself, with a membership of over 10,000, has worked unceasingly and has produced an enormous quantity of warm clothing and other necessities for the men at the front.

Now the boys are coming home and Manchester is giving them an exceptionally royal welcome. The men who are to take part in the demonstration of the Twenty-sixth in Boston tomorrow will be treated to a fine supper and entertainment at the Parker House tonight, when scores of our prominent citizens will be on hand to welcome them. When they march tomorrow they will have no difficulty in finding the Manchester section of the reviewing stand and their hearts will be gladdened by the welcoming cheers of the home relatives and friends.

The celebration at home is yet to come and the permanent memorial of their services in the form of a Memorial Hospital will follow the individual honors which will be heaped upon them.

On the whole Manchester has done its part well, both in the field and at home.

"GOD HELPS THOSE WHO HELP THEMSELVES."

Charles Cheney, president of Cheney Brothers, was recently asked to contribute a sentiment to be presented at the annual dinner of the Silk Travelers' Association recently held at the Hotel Commodore, New York. What he wrote was good advice not only for silk salesmen but for everyone else and we reprint it in full herewith:

The war torn, blood stained, tired world has found a time of rest. The tragedies of the past though unforgettable are to be put away from sight and consciousness. The problems of readjustment demand our present attention. We must find out how to make the new world, that has come into being through the labor and travail of the old world, find its balance, and learn how to steer its course.

The struggle has brought the nations of Europe near to the breaking point. They have been bled white. Their reserves of all kinds have been used to the point of exhaustion. Those of them who have fought for freedom and who have won it, have lost their moral strength and made it weaker and sadder. Those who have come down in defeat have lost far more than

U. S. LABOR SITUATION IS IMPROVING RAPIDLY

Reports from Cities All Over Nation Are Made Public Today.

IN NEW ENGLAND STATES

New Haven Unsettled—Bridgeport Has 7,400 Unemployed—Strikes Still On in Bay State.

Washington, April 24.—The labor situation is improving.

The United States employment service today made this assertion, basing it on reports of labor surpluses and shortages from 3,147 representative concerns in 58 cities during the week ending April 19.

Twenty-seven cities, or 46.6 per cent, reported a surplus of labor of 59,957, as compared to 73,575 for the previous week. Of the 58 cities six, or 10.3 per cent, show a shortage of 3,600 skilled and unskilled laborers, an increase of 150 for the week, leaving 43.1 per cent, reporting an equality of labor supply and demand.

Some Figures. The principal decreases in surplus during the week were at Los Angeles, 1,000, San Francisco, 1,500; Meriden, 3,000; Atlanta, 1,000; Butte, Mont., 4,000; and Portland, 1,600.

In New England. Conditions in the New England states, especially in Connecticut, for the current week, showed marked improvement. Seven of the 11 cities in Connecticut reporting had a surplus aggregating approximately 23,000 unemployed, while four cities which have heretofore reported a surplus, this week showed an equality. All of them with the exception of New Haven reported industrial relations good. New Haven is unsettled. Bridgeport reported 7,400 unemployed; Meriden, 5,000, a reduction of 3,000 during the week; New Haven 8,000; Derby 800; Stamford 400; Middletown 300 and New London 300.

Strikes Still On. Strikes are still in progress in the textile industries in Brockton, Lawrence, New Bedford and vicinity. In the latter place the textile mills, which have been closed several weeks owing to poor market, have resumed operations affecting one thousand operatives. Fall River is the chief unemployment center in Massachusetts in the absence of a report from Boston, and industrial relations are reported good.

TAKES PRISONERS' CLOTHES AFTER JAIL-BREAK FAILS.

Seymour, Ind., April 24.—Sheriff Harvey L. McCord heard a commotion in the Jackson County jail and slipped through the corridor to ascertain the cause. He saw Claude Strange and Chauncey Hall, waiting removal to the Jegeronville, Ind., reformatory to begin sentences of from one to five years for forgery, digging a hole through the cell floor to the basement with iron rods taken from their cot. After watching the pair for a few minutes, he made his presence known. He then made the two remove all their clothing, which was locked in the jail office. McCord then returned to his apartments, feeling confident they would not try to escape without their clothes.

WIFE HUGS AND KISSES HUSBY'S DINNER GUESTS.

San Francisco, April 24.—"Oh, what a lot of nice men there are to love." Mrs. Helen E. Merkelbach said that and gave a hug and a kiss to every male visitor her husband brought home to dinner, according to a divorce complaint filed recently by William E. Merkelbach, branch manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company.

A short while ago Merkelbach took three friends to dinner. He went into the kitchen for a minute and while there, he says, he heard three distinct smacks from the living room.

Male friends were enthusiastic about Merkelbach dinners. There was no gainsaying that.

HOLDUP IS CONSIDERATE. Dayton, Ohio, April 24.—A new type of highwayman has appeared in this city. E. Boyer was held up and twenty-five cents was taken from his pocket. The thief kept fifty cents and gave Boyer back a quarter. "You might want to buy a watch," he told the victim.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The baseball team is being whipped into excellent shape this week in preparation for its opening game. Mr. King is coaching the infield while Mr. Whiting has charge of the outfield. The team is beginning to show the snap and speed which was responsible for its excellent records in the last two years. The team has a formidable battery. With a trio such as Balleseper, "Rabbit" Finnegan and "Cop" Glenny and with "Gill" Wright behind the bat the high school will have a better battery than it has had in many years. "Gill" Wright, the stocky little catcher who has two years experience with the team, one on second base and last year behind the bat, will no doubt do all the receiving. "Paulie" Balleseper who threw his twisters for the last three years and in the majority of the games last year can be relied upon to be the mainstay of the pitching staff.

When Balleseper is not pitching he will cover the first sack which he is very capable of doing. "Rabbit" Finnegan is another pitcher of no mean ability who can fool the best of them when his arm is in good condition. "Cop" Glenny is a hurler who is to be respected. He pitched his freshman year and has captained the team since, playing shortstop the last two years.

First base will be covered by Finnegan and Balleseper in their turns when the other one is pitching. Both men have had some experience at this corner. These men are both excellent batsmen. Finnegan has a record of long hits to be envied while Balleseper stands very high in the averages.

"Bobbie" Crockett will cover second where he has played the last three years. He seems to have grown better this year than he was last year. Crockett is also a very handy man to have around when it comes to wielding the willow. "Cop" Glenny will cover shortstop when he is not in the box. Glenny has an excellent eye for grounders and his motto is: "The harder they come the better I like them." Glenny led the team in batting the year before last and stood very high in the list last year. Fred Fox will cover the dizzy corner where he has played an excellent game for the last three years. "Aviator" has the ability to hit and hit hard when it is needed. "Speed" Beechler will no doubt cover the left garden. Beechler will make 'em hit hard if they want to hit beyond him. He is a very fast man in the garden and few men hit beyond his reach. Beechler has a perfect throw to the plate from any part of the field.

"Eddie" Lynch will cover right field. He has two years' experience, one behind the bat and last year in right field. Lynch is a natural batter, having second place in the averages the year before last and first place last year. In only one game last year did Lynch fail to connect for a base hit.

There are quite a number out for the other two open positions and as there are several men who are very good players it is hard to choose between them.

There has been practice all this week because there was no practice during vacation and the opening game is on Saturday in Windsor with Loomis Institute of that place. The team will make the trip in a truck. Quite a few fans are going in automobiles to watch the game.

MRS. T. L. CHENEY TO MARRY ARMY CAPTAIN.

Announcement has been made of the coming marriage of Mrs. Judith Cheney, the young widow of Thomas L. Cheney, to Captain John Thomas Bell of the United States army. The wedding is to take place June 26 at the Knight Cheney homestead in the presence of relatives only.

Captain Bell is a graduate of the University of Virginia and of the West Point Military Academy. He is a personal friend of Colonel Halsted Dorcy and served with him during the earlier battles of the war. Later on he was sent home to instruct the students who were taking military training at Cornell.

Mrs. Cheney has been very active in war work and has given valuable aid in the various drives for funds. She has made many friends in this town who will regret her probable removal after her marriage.

NOTED PAINTER DEAD.

Newton, Mass., April 24.—Darius Cobb, widely known as a painter and art lecturer, is dead of old age in his 85th year.

Mr. Cobb was known wherever art is patronized and famed for nearly three generations as a painter of classical and religious subjects. He was born in Malden on August six, 1834, a twin to Cyrus Cobb, who attained wide prominence as a sculptor.

PENTECOSTAL CHURCH SHOWS PROSPERITY

Rev. A. C. Goldberg, Back for Seventh Year, Is Youngest Pastor in Town.

Rev. A. C. Goldberg returned last evening from the annual conference of the Pentecostal church in Everett, Mass., having been reappointed for the seventh year as pastor of the local Pentecostal church. He brought with him his wife, who has been at her home in Center Moriches, N. Y., for nearly seven weeks, suffering from a nervous breakdown.

Rev. Goldberg has been most successful in his pastorate here. The church has grown under his administration. At present the church edifice is undergoing a complete renovation of the interior. The basement has been ceiled with the interior finish of the auditorium and the auditorium now is being plastered and the roof is being reshingled. It is expected the auditorium will be ready for occupancy in two or three weeks. While both the auditorium and basement were in a torn-up condition, services were held in the Lincoln school. Since the completion of the basement, the services have been held there. The work, with the exception of the plastering, has been done by the church members.

Although the youngest minister in Manchester, Rev. Goldberg is one of the oldest in point of years' service. Rev. W. J. McGurk and Rev. P. J. O. Cornell being the only ones who have been here as long as he. Rev. Goldberg is now 32 years old; Manchester is his fourth pastorate and he is now starting on his seventh year here. He began preaching when he was 17 years of age and was ordained at the age of 21. His first charge was at Patchogue, L. I. He also served at Sag Harbor, L. I. and came here from Saco, Maine.

Mr. Goldberg has one son, who was born in South Manchester five years ago. In speaking to a friend this morning about his return to South Manchester, Mr. Goldberg said he liked Manchester better than any town he ever lived. While not given to crying, he said he believed he would weep when the time came for him to leave this place.

SUDDEN DEATH OF METHODIST PASTOR

Rev. Arthur H. Withee of Hazardville, Drops Senseless While Fixing His Furnace—Local Pastors at Funeral.

Rev. W. H. Bath, now superintendent of Norwich district, was the guest last evening of Rev. and Mrs. G. G. Scribner at the South Methodist parsonage, having come here after officiating at the funeral of Rev. Arthur H. Withee, who died suddenly at Hazardville Monday morning. Rev. Withee suffered an attack of indigestion Sunday night. He felt better Monday morning and about nine o'clock went down cellar to fix his furnace. While there, he fell over unconscious and died in a few moments.

Rev. Mr. Withee will be remembered by many of the Herald readers as one of the four ministers who conducted a series of special meetings in the South Methodist church a year ago this past winter. He was appointed to the Hazardville church at the annual conference this spring and in this short time had won a warm place in the hearts of his people. He was a man of unusual personality and was greatly beloved by the people of all his parishes. His funeral at Hazardville yesterday afternoon was largely attended, among the mourners being a number of his former parishioners at Mystic, his last charge and also some from Moosup.

Rev. W. H. Bath, as the superintendent of Norwich district, was the officiating clergyman. Rev. G. G. Scribner gave the eulogy. Rev. E. A. Legg of Norwich Trinity read the scripture lesson and Rev. Thomas Tyrre of Wareham offered prayer. Rev. Bath and Rev. Scribner accompanied the body to Waterbury, Mr. Withee's old home town, where the burial took place.

PROF. FILES DEAD.

Boston, April 23.—Prof. George T. Files, one of the faculty of Bowdoin College at Brunswick, Maine, died in a hospital here today. His death was hastened, according to his physicians, by his strenuous work in France as a Y. M. C. A. recreation director for a year. From 1891 until the United States entered the war Mr. Files was professor of German at Bowdoin.

TAGGING THE BASES

The cannon's roar is heard no more. But once again the ringing crack of lusty bats in horny hands. Reminds us that baseball is back. It took just one third of a ball club to trim the Yankees in the opening game with the Red Sox.

Babe Ruth's homer, two doubles by Schang and Carl Mays' airtight pitching was all Boston needed. The White Sox are no longer the hitless wonders. Twenty-one solid swats off three Brownie pitchers gave them victory at St. Louis. Eddie Collins treated himself to a home run. The Giants may have an antiquated infield, but there is nothing wrong with their heavy artillery. Doyle and Kauff contributed homers to the rout of the Phillies.

Samuel Agnew's larrup in the thirteenth inning paved the way for Walter Johnson's victory over the Athletics. Johnson and Scott Perry pitched the best opening day battle in either league.

Old Jupe Fluvius kept opening day attendance down to the ground keepers at Chicago and Detroit. Jean Dubuc, lately of the Red Sox and Salt Lake is a member of the Giants.

105,000 FANS. Baseball Got Away to an Auspicious Start Yesterday.

New York, April 24.—Baseball got away to an auspicious start despite the fact that there were two postponements on account of rain.

More than 105,000 fans filed through the turnstiles in six major league cities to witness the opening games and big men in baseball are satisfied today that the future stability of the pastime is assured. The attendance figures for the six opening games, as unofficially reported, were:

- At New York, 30,000. At Philadelphia, 15,000. At Washington, 13,000. At Cincinnati, 22,000. At Boston, 10,000. At St. Louis, 16,000.

CONTINUES TO WIN LAURELS.

It is good to see an artist of the calibre of Arthur Middleton, winning the success and recognition that he so richly deserves. This splendid American singer has long been considered by musicians as one of the most gifted and representative of our native artists. That this same recognition is being accorded him by the press wherever he appears is evidenced by the following lines concerning a recent concert appearance of Mr. Middleton's in conjunction with Leopold Godowsky at Lawrence, Mass. "Mr. Middleton has been very aptly styled the McCormack among baritones," said the Lawrence Daily Eagle, and no doubt a great compliment was bestowed upon him. To be compared to McCormack as a lyrical and interpretative singer is indeed high praise. Mr. Middleton is an exceptional baritone. His naturally big voice is controlled and beauty of his tones and phrasing and by the intelligence and lofty style of his diction and enunciation. It is so seldom that we hear singers who merge to perfection the salient elements of good vocalism that the appearance here of Mr. Middleton will be a red letter in local musical annals.

Mr. Middleton will sing at our High School hall on the evening of May 5.

HOPPE-SCHAEFER MATCHED.

New York, April 24.—Willie Hoppe and Young Jake Schaefer will meet in a 1,500 point match at 18.2 ball line if Schaefer accepts Hoppe's challenge, which calls for a side bet of $5,000 or $10,000. Tod Sloan, who represents Schaefer here is today awaiting an answer to a wire sent the player informing him that Charles Stoneham has agreed to back him. Schaefer is in California.

THOSE ATTENDING REVIVAL ALSO TAKE IN MOVIES.

Medoria, Ill., April 24.—"Movie" shows are just as popular here as revival meetings. And when it comes to choosing between the two the population wants both. Such was the decision when a picture show and evangelical meeting came to Medoria the same night. The only place to hold the meetings was at the "Opdy" house, so it was decided to set the scheduled hour for the revival to conclude back thirty minutes in order that the citizens might not be up too late. They also advanced the hour of the picture show meet so the audience sat right through the revival to watch the flickering of the movie film immediately afterward.

How to make Dishwashing Easier Job for Housewife

Thoughtful housewives in these days of thrift and economy are asking themselves pertinent questions as to the use they are making of their time. Is it wasted, or does it count for something while they are at it? Mere speculation will not help, but constructive thinking, backed by experimentation, will. Remember that a housekeeper can plan better for herself than can anyone else. By watching herself, becoming acquainted with her own efforts and habits and by using some of the efficiency-engineering which is in each of us, time and strength may be saved in the performance of household tasks.

No woman is fond enough of dishwashing to spend any more time over it than is necessary, and yet from lack of planning many hours are squandered over the dishpan. If you accuse a housekeeper of wasting time over that task, the retort is likely to be, "Waste time washing dishes? I should say not, for I don't like to wash dishes that well. I hustle through them as fast as I possibly can, but even then it does seem to take hours." Would it, if she had had her brains as well as her hands?

Working Like a Whirlwind.

There are women who start cleaning a room as though they were going to be through within the next ten minutes, but instead, the work hangs on for the next two hours. Why? Because all the hurrying was creating more work every minute. They sweep as a whirlwind do— and with much the same result. They are the type who think housework is drudgery, and they do not see that it can be bettered.

Everyone has been in homes where the housekeeper, overtired from work caused by lack of planning, was too tired to be pleasant. For this kind of housekeeper salvation lies in studying her methods, observing where time and effort has been wasted and then standardizing her tasks.

"One of the best ways to observe yourself," says the Office of Home Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture, "is to make a time, method and motion study house. It will add zest to the housework, help to make you see measures necessary for your own reform, and make you ready to assist an inefficient neighbor."

How to Find the Best Way.

A time, method, and motion study sounds much more formidable than it is. Take the task of dishwashing, for instance. You have done it in many different ways and probably have wondered which method was really the best. To find out, try one method each day, keeping accurate count of the motions necessary and the time taken up.

Watch for waste motions. A column can be made for the pumber of motions, counting as one motion each step made necessary by the placing of the dishes and each complete motion of the hands, as placing the dish in the drainer and back again. This does not mean that you should do your work like an automaton, but thinking about it in this way will show you that you are in the habit of making needless motions.

Would it be worth while to cease guessing as to your efficiency and know the best way for you to do the work? In some cases it will be more efficient to do the work one way than another because of some special arrangement of your time or kitchen conveniences, but you are the one to find the best method and benefit by the discovery.

Circle Theater Park Theater

What William S. Hart himself believes to be one of the best stories he has had for some time which certainly presents the popular Arcturan star at his very best, is "Breed of Men", the scenes of which are laid in the fertile bottom lands of Arizona, and which will be shown at the Circle theater tonight. In brief, it details the exploits of Wesley S. Prentice, a land shark who succeeds in hoodwinking the westerners to their financial loss.

"Careless" Carmody, a boss puncher, rides into the new town of Chloride and realizing he will make either a dangerous enemy or powerful friend, Prentice succeeds in getting him in a gambling game from which he emerges "broke and afoot." Then, by giving him back his horse and offering him the job of sheriff, the trickster gets Carmody on his side.

A love story enters when Carmody rescues a girl from a Mexican bad man. Later it is discovered that the land deal was a fraud and that the settlers have no claim to the property. In short, they have been bilked by Prentice. Carmody has been singing his praises, but when he learns the truth and finds that the schemer has escaped, he goes after him to revenge and redeem himself. He is believed to be in league with Prentice but when he captures the rascal in Chicago and brings him back to justice, he is hailed as a hero. Seena Owen is leading woman.

On the same bill will be the War Review and a new release comedy.

Tonight at the Popular Playhouse the crank on the moving picture projector will little work for there will be but Houdini, the serial and straight vaudeville for over two and one half hours. The spot light, will be working as some of the illusions use this light to accentuate some of the mysteries.

Probably there is no more interesting field in the entertainment line than ledgerdom: Travelers for centuries, even before the time of Columbus, brought marvelous tales of tricks done by the people of India and China.

Tonight at the Park, Abbots Merry Wizard Co. will present all of these tricks. There will be a trance medium who will answer letters sealed in the audience and never opened. There will be a Ventriquist who will entertain with his marvelous mannikin "Jo". This man is the only artist who can throw his voice from the audience to the stage. Then there will be straight vaudeville turns and singing and dancing and juggling.

On the same bill will be hand sleights in which the performer without mechanical contrivances will baffle the eye with his passes. When it is known that the front and back continuous palm, the basis of all hand work, takes a year's practice to perfect, one knows how hard it is.

That will be the first part of the program. The last half will be devoted to big illusions, such as the mystic flight where two persons disappear right before your eyes and when two persons change positions in the thousand part of a second although at opposite sides of the stage. Then there will be spirit manifestations when all sorts of heavy articles will be suspended in the air and move about at command with no visible support.

All of the tricks which astonish the ancient travelers will be shown tonight and this in itself is worth the price of admission.

RIOTS AND RAIDS IN THE STREETS OF BERLIN SO COMMON THAT NEWSPAPERS

"BOIL" ACCOUNTS AND USE BOX HEADS

Berlin (by mail).—On a recent afternoon about 1,000 Spartacides stormed the City Hall at Duisburg, forced their way into the council chamber, dragged Mayor Jarres into the street and compelled him to carry a huge red flag at the head of a procession after severely beating and bruising him. Cafes and restaurants were promiscuously demolished and the guests thrown into the streets and beaten as the rioters marched through the town. The doors of the city prison were battered down and the prisoners released.

Crowd Assembled.

Earlier in the same afternoon, the crowd, composed mainly of workers, who for some obscure reason had gone on strike, had assembled in front of the City Hall to protest against a new levy of taxes. Red flags and banners with sensational Spartacide inscriptions gave color to the gathering. Mayor Jarres entered a balcony and suggested a conference with a committee representing the demonstrators. The crowd demanded an hour's respite to think the proposition over. But before the hour was up they battered down the doors of the City Hall and seized the Mayor.

This is only one of a dozen items on Spartacide disturbances in Germany appearing in the Berlin papers every day. They occur with clockwork regularity. In fact, one would almost feel there was something lacking in the morning papers if it didn't bring a couple of columns of Spartacide highhandedness. And the items cover the length and breadth of the new republic, from Hamburg to Danzig and from Warnemunde to Munich.

Stereotyped Heading.

One Berlin newspaper has become so tired of featuring these endless disturbances that it brings the stories in condensed form under a standing box head, entitled simply, "Spartacus im Reiche."

Following are some interesting examples of what the Spartacides manage to accomplish in one day, all quoted from a single newspaper:

Breslau—A dozen men were killed and numerous wounded in a pitched battle between government troops and unemployed who had surrounded the prison, disarmed the guard and attempted to release a number of prisoners held for investigation in connection with Spartacide activities. The attackers numbered about 600. The troops answered the attack with machine guns and rifle fire and finally dispersed the mob.

Dresden—A crowd of Spartacides entered the former royal Catholic church during mass, expelled the worshippers and tried to hoist machine guns to the roof of the edifice. The attempt was frustrated by government troops.

Hanover—A group of 150 Spartacides, escaped from the Paderborn detention camp, yesterday undertook a pillaging expedition through the province of Minden. Towns and villages along the route were notified by wire, and citizens armed with hand grenades met the would-be robbers in the first village en route, with the result that the expedition was abandoned.

Muenster—Following negotiations between the general command of the Seventh Army Corps and delegates from the General Soldiers Council, the latter body has withdrawn its opposition to the general command and agreed to abide by its military orders.

Bielefeld—A battalion of government troops today quelled a Spartacide riot, arresting 800 disturbers. A large quantity of machine guns, hand grenades and infantry munitions possessed by the Spartacides were confiscated. There was some shooting.

Picture of Unrest.

The foregoing dispatches, covering a fraction of a day's action by the Spartacide, give a fair picture of the general unrest in Germany. The death of a Liebnicht or a Luxemburg, or the arrest and deportation of a Radek, does not discourage the Bolshevik elements. They seem to have an inexhaustible supply of leaders. The moment one falls a substitute steps into his place.

It is noteworthy, however, that all of these uprisings share a common fate. Whether it be in Bremen or Leipzig, in Berlin or Nuremberg, the government troops invariably score the final victory, a fact that causes even the old-fashioned conservative opponents of majority Socialist rule to acknowledge that the new republican administration of Germany is determined to establish order and safety in the land.

SHOCK VICTIM FORETELLS AIR RAID AND KILLING

Incident in Real Life Outdistances Any Flight of Foe's Imagination.

London, (by mail).—An incident in real life which outdistances any flight of Edgar Allan Poe's imagination, was told recently when a group of American and British officers were chatting together about their war experiences.

The conversation turned to one of the most dreaded of all war wounds—shell-shock, which sometimes changes a strong, sane man into a helpless lunatic.

One of the party, turning to a young British Air Force officer, said: "I think I've heard you tell a strange yarn about your pilot who died from shell-shock. Would you care to repeat it, old man?"

The young officer smiled slightly. "It is not often I tell this story, but I think you will agree with me it is rather weird," he said.

"My pilot was sent to a hospital near London, dying from shell-shock. His father came to see him the evening after he reached the hospital. The father knew his son was dying, as did the boy—he was only twenty-two years old. 'It's all right, dad,' the young pilot tried to smile. 'I know I'm going to die. I'm not afraid. But I want to die within the next half hour, for in an hour's time there will be an air raid on London. They'll pass right by here and drop a bomb very close. 'I must die soon—their squadron commander is the man who killed my chum, and I'm going to get him.' 'He is only wandering', said a nurse to the boy's father, 'and, besides, if there was to be an air raid the warning would have been given before now.' 'A few moments later the pilot lapsed into unconsciousness and almost simultaneously the raid warning was given—it had been delayed. 'A short time after a bomb fell within twenty yards of the hospital. 'Fifteen minutes later the pilot died. 'He had not been dead two minutes when the German commander's aeroplane was seen to crash to the ground, the occupants unharmed, but stone dead.'

ATHLETICS TO PLAY RED TOPS SATURDAY.

Manchester's only semi-professional baseball club, the Athletics, will open their season Saturday when they will stack up against the crack Fisk Red Tops of Springfield in that city. It is probable that Manager Dowd will use Ray Porter and Carl Lamprecht as the batteries for this game. The local team will be accompanied by a host of loyal rooters.

Sunday the local team will open the Poll season at East Hartford and will battle against Manager Gillette's all star combination. Sipples, Manchester's premier slab artist will twirl for the locals. "Red" Crockett will be at the receiving end.

Our Spring Lines are Peace designs

There's a distinct note of freedom in our spring clothes. We call them peace designs because they have that quiet air of grace and charm.

They're not "Hooverized" models—they have all the clever styling of before-the-war days. But they are not overly-fussy—just the right degree of sober, sensible designing ability to give them distinction, that's all.

And the custom finishing-touch of hand tailoring, done right here in our own shops, lifts these Horsfall-made clothes out of the machine-made class, into the preferred class of "custom-mades."

The annual ball of Manchester Masonic lodge will be held in Cheney hall this evening and, as in past years, it is expected to be the big ball of the season in Manchester.

Talk about Mayor Curley's band of loyal rooters, just wait until the Manchester contingent strikes the Hub. The former head of the Hub may learn some valuable pointers.

Albin Peterson, the well known druggist, has sold his home on Cottage street to A. Eger, the clothier. Mr. Peterson plans to move to Hartford. R. J. Smith made the transfer.

Evidently the peach trees were not injured by the ice storm of two or three weeks ago. Peach trees all over town are now blossoming plentifully and there is every indication of a good crop.

One of the performers at the Park theater will give a free show in front of the theater tomorrow evening at seven o'clock. He will attempt to get out of a straight jacket hung head downwards forty feet in the air.

Friends in town of Captain G. Calvin Butler, have received word that he is now at Camp Dix, N. J. He expects to be discharged this week and after a few weeks' vacation expects to return to this town for a visit with his friends. Captain Butler went out from Manchester and has been overseas for the last year.

One of the local residents in Boston sends in a clipping from a Boston newspaper showing the prices charged for seats for the parade. A room on one of the streets is advertised to rent for the day for $500. Seats in windows run from $2 to $15 and war tax. Third floor windows sell as high as $100. Windows accommodating ten persons sell for $100.

Four cars made up the special train which left the Manchester station for Boston promptly at 11:30 this forenoon. The weather was damp but the spirit of the party was not depressed by the rain. Among them were a number of men in khaki who had been invalided home ahead of their comrades. The special consisted of four cars. It was due in Boston at two o'clock.

Property owners at the north end have been busy this week assembling all the old rubbish about their places and will have it ready to be carted away tomorrow morning. The big auto truck will start at seven o'clock tomorrow morning and will continue the job until every bit of the rubbish is cleared away. The work is done at the expense of the district. The rubbish must be placed in a convenient place for the men to reach it.

OUR NEW BRASS BAND MAKES FINE IMPRESSION

Opening Concert by Consolidation of 85 Local Musicians—Dance Follows Concert.

Manchester's newly organized band made its first bow to a local audience at our High school hall last evening. Judging from the applause which punctuated each number on the program, its leader will be forced to bow to many encores during its career both in and out of town. From the opening number to the finale, the tempo of the entire program was perfect. Difficult numbers were rendered with marvelous ease, were interspersed at various times with special instrumental effects. To give the concert a sort of metropolitan touch, solos by local artists were rendered between numbers. These were received as enthusiastically as the instrumental solos.

The auditorium was fully well filled when Director Arvid Weiman waved his baton and the American Band of Manchester swung into that immortal ballad by Francis Key, "The Star Spangled Banner." In their eagerness to listen to the opening number, the hearers did not forget their respect to the national anthem, and as the first stanza filled through the hall, the audience arose to its feet.

The General Pershing march by Vandersloot carried the audience to Flanders trenches and ended with a martial maze of stirring military incidents. This number made a big hit with the audience and was applauded heartily. The same enthusiasm characterized the rendition of the medley of war songs entitled "The American Fantasia" by Laurendeau.

The difficult passages of the Stella Polka by Herndon were played in a skillful manner by P. I. Ottone on a novel instrument which is known as the euphonium. Vocal solos by Miss Rosalyn Crawford and Mr. John Conlon followed and these artists were forced to respond to encores.

After a short intermission the band opened the second part of the program with the overture "Lustspiel" by Keller Bella. This number really demonstrated the merit of the band and its execution proved that the new organization is going to be a credit to the town. A feature of the program was "Till We Meet Again", which was played by a saxophone quartet.

Ortone's American minuet recalled ye olden days and the rendition of the old Paul Jones' favorites gained instant favor with the audience which applauded time and again. The Pasadena Day march by Vessella rounded out both a splendid concert and a perfect evening of musical entertainment. Great credit is due to Mrs. Florence Hillsburg for the success of the affair. The local Americanization director was also a dominant factor in the organizing of the band. It is safe to say that if last evening's debut is any criterion for the future success of the American Band of Manchester, their success is already assured. At the conclusion of the concert dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. Music for the end of the program was furnished by the Victor Orchestra and some of the band members. The following local musicians are members of the executive staff of the new band.

President and manager, Frank V. Diana; secretary, James Harrison; treasurer, Martin Batista; property manager, John Gallasso; trustees John Crawford and Ignazio Ottone; band leader and director Arvid Weiman; assistant leader, Ugean Arata. The band is composed of thirty-five pieces.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.

About 30 of the girl friends of Miss Ethel Wartley gave her a miscellaneous shower at her home on Wells street last evening. Following the shower of gifts, which included cut glass, linen and other pretty and useful presents, a pleasant time was spent with games, music and singing. During the evening, refreshments were served.

LOCAL ODD FELLOWS READY FOR PARADE

Three Organizations to Be Represented by Floats.

MARCHERS WILL WEAR ATTRACTIVE COSTUMES

A. H. Simonson to Be Marshal of Manchester Section—Hartford Band in Lead.

About 300 local Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will go to Hartford Saturday to participate in the big state parade in observance of the 100th anniversary of Odd Fellowship. About 250 men from King David Lodge and Shepherd Encampment will march and Sunset Rebekah lodge will be represented by a body of between 30 and 50 women. Each of the three local organizations will have a float. A. H. Simonson will be the marshal of the Manchester section and the Hartford Polish-American band has been engaged to parade with the local contingent. It is planned to provide automobiles for some of the older members of the lodge, who cannot march.

Shepherd Encampment will have a float, representing a shepherd, watching over a flock of live sheep. King David lodge's float will represent a living room, with a sick member and a committee from the lodge visiting him. The wife and children also will be there and a Rebekah, bringing in a basket of fruit.

Sunset Rebekah lodge will have a pure white float, with one figure on it and also various symbols, representing associated industries.

The Odd Fellows will wear white caps and an arm band, bearing the name of King David lodge. The Rebekahs will wear white dresses, middy caps and blue sweaters and will carry canes, tied with pink and green ribbons.

The local marchers plan to leave for the city about one o'clock Saturday afternoon. Extra cars will be sent in from the Center. The parade is scheduled to start at 2:30 o'clock and all units are requested to be in their appointed places by 2:15.

According to the orders issued by Major Henry A. Grimm, the chief marshal, the parade will start from Barnard Park (South Green), and the marchers will pass through Main street, north to the tunnel, with a possible counter-march to Church, to Trumbull, to Pearl, to Trinity, to the State Armory. At the Armory, a box, lunch will be served.

Wilbur Loveland is chairman of the local committee of arrangements; L. N. Heebner is chairman of the sub-committee on floats. Other members of the committee are Charles Norris, Ralph Cone, George Clarke, H. Marshall Norton, C. R. Hathaway, Henry Mars, Charles A. Sweet, A. H. Simonson and Samuel Robinson.

Preceding the parade Saturday, there will be a rally for Odd Fellows in Parsons theater tomorrow evening, with addresses by the grand lodge officers. The degree work also will be exemplified in the different lodge rooms in Odd Fellows Temple on South Main street.

Fred Sankey of Oakland street is at the Hartford hospital where he is being cared for because of an accident received late Tuesday night. He was cranking his automobile and in some way the marker of the car had been displaced and when he gave the crank a sudden turn he struck his right wrist against the keen edge of the marker and several arteries were severed. Dr. Moore was called and advised his removal to the hospital.
