PRICE TWO CENTS

25,000 APOSTLES OF REVOLUTION NOW PREACHING DOCTRINE HERE

"Red" Missionaries Active All Over Nation, Officials Say —Said to Control Thirteen Newspapers, Eight Printed in English—Very Active in Far West—Congress to Take Drastic Steps.

Washington, May 2.—That at least 25,000 professional apostles of revolution are preaching their doctrine in the United States was the belief expressed today by an official government department in close touch with the situation, and in addition to these it was stated, there are probably thousands who, while not devoting their entire time to the movement are nevertheless making their efforts felt.

Red Missionaries.

These "red" missionaries, in the opinion of officials, represent an amalgamation of I. W. W.'s, Bolshevik sympathizers and extreme socialists, all uniting in a common revolutionary aim of setting up a "proletariat" government in the United States. They are said also to control thirteen newspapers, eight of which are printed in English and the others in foreign tongues. And reports that have reached government circles are to the effect that converts are being recorded by the hundreds every day.

Active in West.

The "red" missionaries are believed to have been most active in the Far West, with their eastern program centering about New York. Officials pointed to the May Day disturbances and to the bomb plot uncovered this week as evidence that their preachings have not been unfruitful. Although the Department of Justice would make no comment today up the situation, it is known that agents of the department, and of other branches of the government, have been watching very closely all meetings conducted by radicals during the past few weeks. At many of these meetings the Russian soviet has been openly praised.

Drastic Steps to Be Taken.

Just what steps the government is taking, or planning to take, to counteract the red propaganda has not been revealed. Officials, however, frankly expressed the opinion that drastic measures would have to be taken and these in the very near future—if the very apparent revolutionary movement is not to become a serious menace.

Various members of Congress were reported today to be planning the enactment of rigid legislation aimed at dealing effectively with the situation.

AUTO WITH 4,728 NIPS OF BOOZE IS CORRALLED

Washington, May 1.—An automobile, attempting to run the "booze blockade" of bone dry Washington early today, was overtaken by the police, who found that it contained just 1,728 half pints, commonly known here as "shorties." At the prevailing price of $2 per "shorty" the bootleggers were out $3,456, in addition to what they may be fined when arraigned today.

LOAN IS LAGGING; TREASURY OFFICIALS CRYING "SPEED UP"

Country is Not Responding as It Should—Department Apprehensive.

ONE THIRD SUBSCRIBED; TIME IS NEARLY UP

New England Makes Poor Showing —Boston District Has Bad Slump on Tenth Day.

Washington, May 2.—Treasury Department officials were frankly apprehensive today over the failure of the country to respond to the Victory Loan campaign. With less than one-third of the desired $4,500,000,000 subscribed, and with practically two thirds of the drive completed, it was apparent that there would have to be a record speeding in the few remaining days unless the nation is to be recorded as unwilling to "pay for victory."

Speed Up! Speed Up.

Appeals to speed up have been sent to workers throughout the land, and it was hoped that these might bring results. However, the possibility that the loan might fail was a reality that was causing much uneasiness among officials today.

The showing is much poorer than was made, in that proportionate time, either than the third or the fourth loans. When two thirds of the third drive had passed, there were official subscriptions on hand of $1,900,000,000 and in the fourth loan, when the goal was $6,000,000,000, nearly $2,000,000,000 had been subscribed at the two thirds period.

HANDCUFFED BURGLAR LEAPS FROM TRAIN.

Barnstable, Mass., May 2.—A spectacular attempt to escape while handcuffed from the state police by jumping from a train running at 25 miles an hour between Bourne and Sagamore, was made by Edward B. Baker, 18, of Stratford, Conn. After his capture in the woods he was today arraigned before Judge Swift in the district court and admitted nearly 20 burglaries in the Cape district.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

New York, May 2.—Myer, Charles and Julius Damsky today obtained court permission to change their names to "Damsky." Too many people poked fun at them, they said, and besides "Damsky" had a Bolshevik sound to it.

NEW IMMIGRATION LAWS.

Ottawa, Ont., May 2.—Orders for bidding the immigration into Canada of Doukhobars, Hutterites and Menonites went into effect today. They were issued under the new immigration law.

ARMY AT BUDAPEST.

London, May 2.—The Roumanian army of invasion in Hungary, with King Ferdinand at its head, has entered Budapest, said a Central News dispatch from Bessie this afternoon.

NEW ENGLAND LAGS.

Boston, May 2.—New England lags in the Victory Loan campaign. This district after a bad slump for the

Ex-German Royalty Awaiting Its Fate

Geneva, May 2.—The former Kings, ex-Emperors, Princes, Counts and Ministers in Switzerland are anxiously watching for the decision of the peace conference at Paris on responsibility for the war. They are also keenly interested in any action that may be taken towards the trial of the former Kaiser for his war crimes.

Some of the fugitive royalty in Switzerland believe they will be in the same boat with the ex-Kaiser.

The Swiss government is watching closely the attitude of Holland on the question of extraditing the erstwhile ruler of Germany.

Whatever action is taken will establish an international precedent.

CLEVELAND O., HAS BLOODY MAY DAY, TWO HUNDRED HELD; THREE MAY DIE

Father of Two Boys Buried in France Tears Down Red Flag and Riots Follow— Police Lieutenant Dying.

Cleveland, O., May 2.—With the investigators of the bloody May day riot that may cost three lives—one of them Police Lieutenant Nelson J. Meeker—behind bars today, a peaceful quiet prevailed where yesterday blood-mad labor agitators battled with police and infuriated citizens, the venom of which, police say, has not stirred Cleveland in many years.

Among the 200 held under a charge of inciting riots are believed by police to be those who worked up thousands of Cleveland socialists to a martyrdom faith in Bolshevism.

Vigil Still Kept.

A vigil still is being kept to prevent possible individual acts of violence against city officials, or possible attempts to destroy public buildings.

The probable fatal injury of Police Lieutenant Meeker occurred at one of the meetings last night. The officer drove into an open air gathering and was struck on the head with a club, sustaining, physicians believe, a fractured skull.

Tears Down Red Flag.

The disturbance yesterday did not reach its blood fury until a middle aged man, who let it be known that he had two boys buried in Flanders rushed into the street and tore down the red flag which was being carried beside the Stars and Stripes in the parade. As he trampled the Bolshevik symbol he cried "Come on, boys!" to spectators who stood nearby. At this juncture the band in the parade was playing "The Stars and Stripes Forever."

When one of the marchers struck the irate spectator, immediately a throng leaped from the sidewalk and engaged the marchers in the general brawl.

Dead Man Unidentified.

At the county morgue, the marcher, who was shot and killed by Detective Woodring yesterday afternoon, still lay unidentified.

Every known Red meeting place in the city today was a complete ruin. Windows were smashed, doors broken in and interior furnishings were destroyed by bands of citizens.

Among the prisoners is Charles E. Ruthenberg, announced candidate for Socialist mayor.

REDS BEHEAD 60 YANKS LONDON EXPRESS HEARS

London, May 2.—Sixty American soldiers, who were captured by the Red troops at Shenkursk, on the Archangel front, (northern Russia,) are reported to have been beheaded by a Bolshevik executioner, said a dispatch from Helsingfors to the "Daily Express" today.

Spies enabled the Bolshevik troops to make a surprise attack against the Americans at Shenkursk.

WINDY CITY REDS PLAN GENERAL STRIKE JULY 4

Chicago Police Upset Plans for Riots on May Day. 16 Held.

SPEAKERS RAP WILSON.

"Let Them Alone," Say Sleuths: "We Have Them Watched and Are Just Waiting."

Chicago, May 2.—Their plans for a "red May day" in Chicago upset by police and federal authorities and with sixteen of their number languishing in jail, local "reds" are today planning a general strike for July 4.

"The general strike" program was outlined at an I. W. W. meeting in workmen's hall last night. Department of Justice agents attended the meeting, left with voluminous notes and when asked why "inflammatory speeches" denouncing President Wilson and the government were not stopped, smiled.

"Let them alone," volunteered a Chicago detective sergeant. "We have a line on every move they make and only want them to really start something before we spring our trap."

One of the speakers, referring to the bomb plot said he would have been sorry had Federal Judge Landis of Chicago been killed by the bomb addressed to him as the judge would make a great worker for the "proletariat government" when things were finally turned upside down.

GERMAN CREDENTIALS O. K.

Paris, May 2.—The credentials of members of the German peace delegation have been found satisfactory, in the Echo de Paris today.

The peace treaty, Hutin said, will be composed of from sixteen to twenty chapters with a preamble stating why the Allies entered the war and why a League of Nations is a necessity. This will be followed by two chapters dealing with Germany's frontiers, then a chapter carrying military, naval and aerial clauses and a chapter dealing with the disposition of Germany's colonies.

17,000 JUGO-SLAVS PRESS ITALIANS IN CORINTHIA

Cross Armistice Line and Deliver Series of Attacks, Paris Hears— Began Monday Night.

Paris, May 2.—Seventeen thousand Jugo-Slav troops have crossed the armistice line of demarcation in Corinthia delivering a series of attacks in the sectors of Aradstein, Villach and Rosenbach, said a dispatch to the Matin today.

Then the Jugo-Slavs crossed the Drave river, cutting communication between Austria and the Italian Adriatic coast.

The attacks began Monday night. The attacks made by the Jugo-Slavs were evidently against troops from the Italian army of occupation from Southwestern Austria.

Benjamin Franklin said: "Remember that money is of the prolific, generating nature." Buy U. S. S.

PRESIDENT WILSON AGAIN OUTVOTED WHEN HE ASKS FOR OPEN SESSION

Double Session at Conference; Small Powers to be Recognized

Paris, May 2.—The peace conference may develop into a double session with the small powers meeting independently of the big nations.

President Wilson's uncompromising attitude regarding Italy which has already merited the gratitude of the lesser nations, is stimulating the movement of the small powers to get official recognition by the conference.

The intercession by Colonel E. M. House in behalf of the Irish-Americans which resulted in Premier Lloyd George granting them an audience, is regarded as a most hopeful sign. Even if the minor nations do not get official recognition in the peace conference they will at least have an opportunity of getting an unofficial hearing.

While the scheme for a special conference by the little nations has not been definitely worked out it is understood that it probably will assume the form of giving a public hearing of all their aims and later a complete program will be drawn up to be presented to the league of nations for its future guidance.

It is significant that in this suggestion to line up the small powers the greatest friendliness of spirit is seen towards the league of nations. It is probable that the pathway will be smoothed out at the beginning by publishing a concrete and definite program on which the whole world may look and the league of nations act.

Congressman James A. Hamill, of Jersey City, who is here as counsel for the Ukrainian-Americans; Frank P. Walsh, a representative of the Irish-Americans, and others are enthusiastic over the proposal.

"Never have small nations had such a chance to get together," said Mrs. Walsh today.

Lloyd George and Clemenceau Want No Publicity When Peace Treaty is Handed to German Delegates—Bel- gians Excited Over Deci- sion of Conference—Or- lando Still Waiting.

Paris, May 2.—Once again President Wilson has been outvoted in an attempt to secure publicity in the peace conference proceedings. The American delegates asked that the newspaper correspondents be allowed to see the handing of the peace treaty to the German delegates. But when the matter was taken up by the big three Premier Clemenceau would not consent and was backed up by Premier Lloyd George, President Wilson remaining in the minority.

No Publicity.

As a result it will be impossible to secure the slightest publicity over this proceeding. It is now understood that when the treaty is turned over to the German envoys, they will be given a fortnight to consider it and to submit in writing any changes they may desire.

Treaty Ready Monday.

It was believed today that the treaty terms would not be in the hands of the Germans before Monday, although it was suggested yesterday that this proceeding might come either on Saturday or Sunday. The credentials of the German peace delegation, headed by Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, the German foreign minister, were formally handed to the allies Thursday afternoon, the session lasting only a few minutes. It took place at Versailles. Should the Germans be given two weeks for consideration of the pact and should it be presented to them on Monday this means that the final stage of the peace proceedings, so far as Germany is concerned would be reached on or about May 19. A few days would be given for consideration of any alterations the Germans might suggest. The signatures probably will be placed upon the treaty about May 25 or 26.

It is unlikely the treaty that the Austrian delegates must sign will be ready before June 1. There are troublesome territorial problems involved in that document which will require careful handling.

Whether President Wilson will be able to remain in France until the Austrian treaty is completed has not yet been decided. This matter probably will be determined within the next fortnight.

The peace treaty will be handed to the Germans on Tuesday, the Petit Journal believes.

Belgians Excited.

According to the Matin the Belgian ministry has requested the Belgian delegates to warn the big three that Belgian public is greatly excited over the failure to obtain satisfaction in the conference. "This same newspaper comments caustically on the Kiao-Chau sentiment. It claims that President Wilson made concessions to avoid a conflict because the interests of the United States would have directly suffered. In the meantime, Premier Orlando is waiting for France and England to establish an agreement on Italy with the President."

FIRST ARREST IS MADE IN NATION'S BOMB PLOT

Man Giving the Name of Dr. C. L. Baldwin Caught in New York— Had Dangerous Explosives.

New York, May 2.—Arrest of a man giving his name as "Dr. Charles L. Baldwin, of the Baldwin Medical Institute," was the first positive development today in the federal and police investigation of the attempt to assassinate more than a score of prominent persons throughout the United States by means of bombs sent through the mails.

Bomb squad detectives found at Baldwin's Institute two packages, each holding six bottles, believed to contain very dangerous explosives.

The labels indicated that inside the bottles were quantities of "T. N. T.", nitroglycerine, smokeless powder and nitrate of ammonia.

The bottles were turned over to the bureau of combustibles to determine whether they really held explosives.

Baldwin explained that the bottles were given him by a man who lives on Chestnut street, Philadelphia. He said this man asked him to keep them until he returned. The police are keeping the man's name secret.

SWITZERLAND TO FOLLOW U. S. WITH PROHIBITION

Medical Association Calls on Govern- ment to Make Country "Dry" —Has Support of Population.

Berne, May 2.—Switzerland will follow the example of the United States in going dry. The Swiss medical association today adopted a resolution calling upon the Swiss federal council to adopt a prohibition measure. The doctors say the movement has the support of a great part of the population.

The movement is embarrassing the government, however, as it derives its revenue from the liquor monopoly.

FUME DISPUTE SETTLED.

Unconfirmed Rumor Reaches Rome Newspaper.

Rome, May 2.—The News Agency Italia Nuova declares it understands that the Italian peace delegation has received assurances from Paris that the conflict over Fiume and Dalmatian territory has been settled in accordance with Italy's desires.

No confirmation of this report has been received from Paris, though Paris dispatches represent the Italians as in a more conciliatory mood. It is possible that following a series of conferences which were held at Rome Wednesday and Thursday, Premier Orlando has submitted to the Big Three a compromise which is acceptable.

CANANDIAGUA DUE.

20 POLICEMEN HURT.

Clashes With Mobs in Paris—Scores of Civilians Injured.

Paris, May 2.—Twenty policemen were wounded in clashes with mobs in the streets of Paris on May day, according to a revised casualty list made public today.

Following a lull late in the afternoon rioting broke out again last night.

Dragoons charged the mobs and scores of persons were hurt in addition to the wounded policemen.

FEARS MASSACRE.

Population of Munich Appeals to Government For Aid.

London, May 2.—Fearing a massacre the population of Munich has urgently appealed to the German government for help, according to the Berlin correspondent of the Daily Express today.

Prussian troops took a leading part in the storm attack which defeated the Bavarian Reds at Munich. The Prussians, however, were solidly received by the Bavarian peasants.

Some of the members of the communist regime at Munich are reported to have been captured.

887 Main St. About Baked Beans.

We are frankly in competition with the housekeeper in baking beans. We admit at the start that we know how to do it.

Our beans are baked in old fashioned bean pots, after the old Boston recipe—baked a long time in a slow oven and are turned out hot every day.

If your family is small it does not pay you to bake beans at home when you can get them here, fresh from the oven at 12c a pound.

LOAN IS LAGGING; TREASURY OFFICIALS CRYING "SPEED UP"

Tenth working day must raise more than $27,000,000 daily for the remaining eight days of the drive as it is nearly 80 per cent. behind realization of its quota.

There was an atmosphere of deepest gloom about New England headquarters today. Only $13,068,000 was raised in the New England district on the tenth day less than half the average required to reach the top. Only 42.2 per cent of the $375,000,000 quota or $152,259,000 has been subscribed today. The city of Boston is nearly 10 per cent behind the average of this district, raising only $2,805,000 on the last day, making the Boston total $32,989,250. The total number of individual subscribers in New England now is 150,719. Vermont with 72.7 per cent of its quota leads New England in subscriptions, Connecticut running a close second with 68 per cent.

WHITE PANTS, PINK VEST GREEN TIE, YELLOW SPATS ALL ADORN ONE NEGRO.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 2.—"Abloom", literally abloom, was a highly colored gentleman when he recently strolled down South Broad street. The negro was all dressed up in a pair of snowy white trousers, a Prince Albert coat and a high silk hat. But lest spring be forgotten, he also wore a pink silk vest, a pea green tie and yellow spats. To complete the color scheme a huge bunch of violets adorned the left lapel of the coat.

FIREMEN'S FAIR.

Big Event to Close With Prize Awarding Tomorrow Night.

Although it was stormy last night, there was a good attendance at the firemen's fair and the people were liberal in their patronage of the various booths and attractions. A big crowd is looked for tonight. John Conlon of Troy, N. Y., formerly known as Manchester's Boy Wonder, will appear on the program in popular songs and Dillon & Anderson, two well known local comedians put on a musical skit.

There will be a matinee tomorrow afternoon, but the program has not been announced. The fair will come to a close with the awarding of prizes tomorrow night. Dancing, of course, will be featured both tonight and tomorrow night.

Word has been received in town that John Cavagnaro of Company G Headquarters Company has arrived from overseas and is, at the present time located at Camp Merritt, N. J. Cavagnaro is a casual, having been terribly gassed in action and he will receive treatment at the Government hospital at Camp Merritt until he has sufficiently recovered to come home.

72 MILES IN 20 MINUTES.

Oklahoma City, Okla., May 2.—A new record flight from Post Field, Lawton, Okla., to Oklahoma City has been established by Lieutenant T. S. Reed, of Post Field, Fort Sill. Flying in a De Havilland biplane, equipped with a Liberty motor, he made the seventy-two miles, air line, in twenty minutes, breaking the previous record of 24 minutes, established by Lieutenant Robert Baker recently. Lieutenant Reed flew at an average height of 2,000 feet, backed by a high wind.

HARVARD ACCEPTS.

Cambridge, Mass., May 2.—The Harvard rowing management has considered its decision to accept Yale's invitation to occupy quarters at Gales Ferry before the boat race this year and will send the crews to Red Top instead. The crews will go to Red Top about June 1, it was announced today.

ITALY TO COMPROMISE.

Paris, May 2.—That Italy will accept a compromise by accepting Fiume as a free port was the opinion expressed in British official circles today. (President Wilson suggested that Fiume be made a free port in his recent manifesto on the Italian situation.)

ITALIAN SOLDIERS LAND ON DALMATIAN COAST?

London, May 2.—Italian reinforcements have been landed on the Dalmatian coast, according to a report telegraphed from Copenhagen to the Mirror.

(The Dalmatian coast lies on the northeastern shores of the Adriatic Sea. Both Italy and Jugoslavia are making territorial claims there.)

BACK TO FARMS.

Agriculture Choice of Most of Our Disabled Soldiers.

Washington, May 2.—Agriculture holds one of the foremost places in popularity with the disabled soldiers who are being re-educated by the federal board for vocational education. Out of 2,993 cases approved for training by the board, nearly 500 have taken up some branch of agriculture, it was announced today. About 400 of these have gone in for general farming, taking full courses at agricultural colleges to equip themselves for the operation of modern farms, according to modern methods. In agronomy there are only two students; animal husbandry is being studied by 23; dairying by 13; horticulture by 13; poultry raising by 18 and truck gardening by nine.

UNITED WAR VETERANS TO HAVE 4,000,000 MEMBERS.

St. Louis, Mo., May 1.—Lieutenant Colonel Eric F. Wood, secretary of the temporary committee of the American Legion of the United War Veterans' Association, has completed plans for the national caucus of the war veterans to arrange for a convention to be held here. The caucus will convene May 8 and adjourn May 10.

Twelve hundred delegates are expected to attend the caucus when arrangements will be made for the formation of an organization whose contemplated membership totals more than 4,000,000. Lieutenant Colonel Theodore Roosevelt and Lieutenant Colonel Bennett C. Clark will be chairman of the meeting.

BASS-BARITONE

of the Metropolitan Opera House

What a leading American critic thinks of Mr. Middleton:

BOSTON POST—Mr. Middleton is surely one of the finest basses on the concert stage. His voice has an astonishing range and astonishing beauty throughout its compass. The upper tones are brilliant, as the lower tones are rich and full. And Mr. Middleton is a rarely intelligent singer, one to whom text, phrase, rhythm, dramatic conception have value and meaning. The almost endless capacities of this voice, and its employment, made for the greatest possible pleasure on the part of the hearer.

U. S. CAVALRYMAN GUILTY OF SLAYING SWEETHEART

Robert Warm May Get 14 Years for Crime—Almost Faints as He Hears Verdict.

St. Albans, Vt., May 2.—Robert Warm, United States cavalryman of Pottstown, Pa., was found guilty of manslaughter charged by a jury in Franklin County court today, at the end of his second trial on the charge of killing his 14 year old sweetheart, Jennie Hemmingway.

Warm, whose hopes had been high, showed the first trace of emotion as the verdict was given and seemed about to fall but quickly recovered.

The accused soldier did not have a close friend or relative with him during the ordeal.

May Get 14 Years. Sentence, which will be announced next week, may be from 10 to 14 years imprisonment. Counsel for Warm announced that they would make further efforts to save the former cavalryman from prison.

The Crime. Warm was charged with slaying the school girl on a summer night in July. The body was found late at night by the roadside bearing marks indicating violence.

Warm was convicted of manslaughter at his first trial but the finding of new evidence had given his lawyers hope that he could be freed. His defense was that he was assaulted by hoodlums while in the company of the Hemmingway girl, that the gangsters separated the couple and killed the girl.

POLICE CAPTAIN IS DEAD AS RESULT OF HUB RIOTS

May Day Excitement Brings On Heart Failure—111 Persons Arrested by Police.

Boston, Mass., May 2.—Captain Hugh J. Lee of the Dudley street police station who underwent unusual exertion and excitement during May day rioting in Roxbury, was found dead in bed today at his home. It is believed the strain was a factor in his sudden demise. He was 53 years old.

One hundred and eleven persons, many of them women, were under arrest today, charged with rioting and more than a score were injured, as a result of the clash between the police and a group of Letts.

The trouble started when a policeman demanded to see a permit to parade.

Two policemen and a dentist were shot, another officer stabbed and two more kicked and beaten and more than a score of rioters bruised and battered by a vengeance seeking crowd which gathered as quickly as the trouble started.

The disturbance raged for several hours, covering a territory of several blocks. More than 30 shots were fired by the rioters and the police.

BAVARIAN REDS BEATEN.

Copenhagen, May 2.—The Bavarian Red troops defending Munich have been decisively defeated by the government forces and the city has been liberated from communist domination, said a Berlin dispatch to the Politken today.

Upwards of a week the government had been massing troops at Munich. When the city was encircled a storm attack was made.

STOCK MARKET

New York, May 2.—There was a vigorous demand for stocks at the opening of the stock market today, and during the first 15 minutes advanced were recorded caused much comment. General Cigars, which has been in urgent demand for some days, made a further advance of eight points to 72 1-2. Texas Land Trust which closed yesterday at 460, sold this morning at 461, and back of these sensational movements many stocks made gains ranging from one to over two points.

The railroad stocks were prominent in the trading with Dere, Marquette advancing one point to 19 5-8 and Union Pacific advanced 3-4 to 131 3-4. Southern Pacific and Missouri Pacific both made fractional gains.

Steel Common was steady, ranging from 95 3-8 to 97 1-8. The Marine stocks were active, Marine Common moving up nearly one point to 42 while Pacific Mail rose two points to 39 and American Inter opened 1 3-8 higher at 88 1-4.

The market continued strong during the forenoon with sensational advances made in some issues.

General Cigars rose over 8 points to 72 1/2 and gains of one to over three points were made in many other issues. Steel Common moved up to 97 1/2. All the tobacco issues were in better demand, United Cigars on large dealings moving up over two points to 184 1/2. There was a very good demand for all of the low priced railway issues, Missouri Pacific moving up two points to 31, while Rock Island also rose two points to above 27. Atlantic Gulf, after selling at 148 1/2 rose to 152.

TROOPS MOBILIZING.

Geneva, May 2.—Twenty classes of troops are being mobilized by the government of Carinthia to check the invasion by Jugo-Slav soldiers. The Jugo-Slavs, who are advancing in the direction of Klagenfurt, are attacking the Carinthians on a 50 mile front. Vienna is preparing to send aid to the Carinthians. (Carinthia lies in the southwestern part of Austria, adjoining Tyrol.)

DENIES SHE'LL WED.

New York, May 2.—Before leaving on a trip to the Adirondacks today, Mrs. Irene Castle, widow of Vernon Castle, the dancer, denied that she was going to marry Captain Robert Tremont of Ithaca, N. HELLO GIRL GIVEN $400 FOR DUTY DURING STRIKE.

Lenox, Mass., May 2.—Mrs. Jessie G. Ferguson, chief operator of the Central Telephone Exchange, was presented with a purse of $400 in gold in recognition of her devotion to duty during the recent telephone strike. Mrs. Ferguson remained at her post for 108 hours without leaving the building.

Contributors to the purse, included Andrew Carnegie and Lieutenant Colonel Herbert Parsons, U. S. A.

NATION'S BOMB PLOT FRIZZLED OUT TODAY

Authorities Promise Arrests Will Be Made Soon—Original Projections Taken.

New York, May 2.—The Nation's greatest bomb plot frizzled out today but federal authorities and detectives in New York, Chicago and a score of other cities were on the trail of the conspirators and arrests were promised within 36 hours.

The federal authorities expressed confidence that no more of the infernal machines mailed from New York will be exploded. Practically all are believed to have reached their destinations. The country has been so alarmed by warnings sent broadcast that there is little likelihood that any more of the packages will be opened by would-be victims, if there are any more in the mails. The New York police made the promise of arrests within 36 hours and deputy commissioner Lacey said "We know what we are promising."

The authorities have no evidence that any of the bombs were placed in the mails for France but only took the step as a precaution. Detectives today learned that the paper in which the packages containing the bombs were wrapped was made by Louis De Jonge and Company of New York. It is possible a clue to the identity of the bomb plotters may be found from this bit of evidence because the company only recently began manufacturing paper of this quality. Quantities of it have been shipped to Chicago, St. Louis, Philadelphia and other cities. The company furnished the police with a list of purchasers.

RADIUM WILL BE USED IN NEOPLASTIC DISEASES.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 2.—Radium valued at $150,000 will be used in the treatment of neoplastic (tumor and cancer) diseases at a radium and oncologic institute to be established in this city by King C. Gillette.

Work on the building for the institute, which will be the largest of its kind in the West, is now in progress. Dr. Rex Duncan will act as medical director.

HEN LAYS ABNORMAL EGGS.

Newton, Gan., May 2.—R. T. Shafter, of this city, has a hen that has been laying for several months, and in that time has never been known to lay a normal sized egg. Her smallest egg weighed 5 3-4 ounces and the largest 7 1-2 ounces. Her smallest egg is now on display at a local store.

POSTMAN SINCE '78, NOW RESIGNS TO FAVOR SOLDIER.

Cincinnati, Ohio, May 2.—Cincinnati has one veteran mail carrier who is a real patriot. He has been carrying mail in the residence district of Cincinnati since 1878. Now he wants to resign and the only request he makes is that there be appointed in his place a soldier of the world war. "I am handing in my resignation to make room for a gallant soldier," he told the postmaster.

PARCEL POST EXTENSION.

Washington, May 2.—Extension of the United States parcel post system to the French colonies of Algeria, Corsica and Tunis, via New York and France, and to Egypt, via England, was announced by the Post Office department today. The weight limit in both instances is eleven pounds.

DYNAMITE EXPLOSION.

Brownsville, Pa., May 2.—The municipal building was damaged to the extent of several thousand dollars today by an explosion either of dynamite or gas. The police believe dynamiters excused the explosion in an effort to release eight prisoners confined in the basement.

FACES DEATH, SMOKES PIPE

Pittsburgh, Pa., May 2.—Responding to a hurry call in an attempted suicide case, a physician found Joseph Gramlinsky, twenty-seven, calmly smoking a pipe. A towel wrapped around the man's neck covered a wound seven inches long.

GERMANY MUST PAY 25 BILLIONS TO ALLIES.

London, May 2.—The total indemnity that Germany must pay to the allies is $25,000,000,000, but the Berlin government will be given fifty years in which to make the final payments, said a Paris dispatch to the Post today. A fifth of the total sum—$5,000,000,000—must be paid before 1921. It will require about half of this amount to feed Germany and maintain the troops in the occupied zone.

Circle Theater

Exerting a powerful appeal to all married folk and especially to young brides just entering upon their marital careers, Elsie Ferguson's new Arcraft photoplay, "His Parisian Wife", will be the attraction at the Circle theater again this evening. As expected, it was well received last evening at its initial showing. The story is one of exceptional dramatic interest and the various situations are most thrilling.

The story deals with Fauvette, a girl reporter on a Paris newspaper, who weds a Boston lawyer after a brief courtship. When Martin Wesley, her husband, takes his bride to the home of his parents, they resent her coming on the theory that since they had not been consulted about their son's marriage, his bride necessarily must be a devil incarnate—a designing creature with a shady past.

This repellent attitude toward the young bride is prolific of numerous harrowing scenes and every effort of Fauvette to win the confidence and love of her father and mother-in-law is frustrated. Her husband finally accepts his parents' views and treats his bride with refined cruelty. A separation ensues during which Fauvette wins fame as a novelist and she and her husband are later reunited and live happily ever after.

Tomorrow the feature will be Corrine Griffith in "Love's Watches".

Park Theater

Youth and beauty triumph over sham and suspicion in "The Kingdom of Youth", Madge Kennedy's intensely thrilling and modern Goldwyn Picture, which comes to the Park theater tonight. The charming star has a role particularly suited to her remarkable comedy and dramatic talents.

The picture tells the story of a truly loving couple, torn with suspicion by jealousy; of a scheming middle-aged woman, who seeks to win the love of a man half her age, and who is later exposed in all her falsity by the beautiful young woman she has tried to separate from her husband.

The widow arranges that Ruth Betts (Madge Kennedy) shall be seen constantly with Count Henri Duval, whom she uses to prove to Ruth's husband that his wife is unfaithful. Ruth suspects that the widow's "motherly" affections for her husband are too pronounced and accuses her of trying to win his love. The interloper defies her and Ruth plans to have her husband see the widow unadorned with all her false trills. Ruth starts a fire with some greasy waste in a drip pan and places it at the door of the widow's boudoir. The widow rushes into the street in night attire and Ruth triumphs as her husband sees her rival as she really is.

Other shorter subjects will be found on the same bill tonight.

Next week there is coming to the Park that sensational melodrama known to every movie fan "Wanted for Murder."

GETS DIVORCE, ALTHOUGH SHE CRITICIZES MARINES.

St. Louis, Mo., May 2.—Mrs. Dean Marian Revelle was granted a divorce in the Circuit Court here on her cross bill filed in the suit brought by her husband, John A. Revelle, in which he charged that his wife was ashamed of his rank of second lieutenant and because he was a Marine. She charges that her husband has a violent temper. Mrs. Revelle testified that at the time she wrote him in a disparaging tone regarding the Marine Corps she did not know what the Marine Corps was. Later, she said, she wrote an apology.

A PLOT WHICH FAILED.

While the manufacture of bombs which have been found in the mails addressed to 20 or more prominent men of the United States showed skill and ingenuity, the method of distributing them was stupid. It would be a natural inference that if one bomb reached its mark all the rest would be corraled by active officials. That is exactly what happened.

The first bomb was addressed to Thomas W. Hardwick, a former United States Senator, at Atlanta, Ga., and when it was opened, his wife was badly burned and a servant was mutilated by its explosion. This incident drew attention to a score or more similar packages addressed to prominent people which had been placed in the New York post office and they were gathered up and sent to the New York Bureau of Explosives. They were found to be ingeniously constructed of fine materials. They showed that neither money nor time was spared in their construction.

Had they reached their destination and been opened by the men to whom they were addressed, the damage to the lives of great men would have been enormous. As it was, not one reached its mark. Police authorities feel confident that they will soon locate the originators of the plot.

THE LURE OF THE SEA.

A new avenue of employment has been opened to bright young Americans by the United States Shipping Board's development of the merchant marine. A writer in the current issue of the Saturday Evening Post contrasts the personnel of the crews of freight ships in the past and the present. Not so very long ago the ship crews consisted of men of all nationalities gathered in the ports of the world, who had acquired their knowledge of the sea in a haphazard way. As a rule, they were almost helpless on land and fell an easy prey to conscienceless lodging house keepers. Most of the time on shore they were drunk and usually were in that condition when they shipped for a voyage. Once at sea and with the alcohol out of their skins, they made fine sailors. But they knew nothing of the value of money, as they had no use for it while afloat and remained ashore only long enough to get rid of their earnings. Their quarters on shipboard were generally far from comfortable but they were hardened to discomforts and as a rule were kept in good health by their active exercise in the pure sea air.

But now things are changed. The ships which have recently been constructed are steam driven and have good accommodations for the crews. The dreadful stoke hole, which was often depicted as a fearful inferno, has been transformed by the use of oil as fuel, into a clean comfortable apartment and firemen who used, half naked, to shovel dirty coal into the maws of red hot furnaces, now have only to take an occasional look at the drafts and see that the oil is feeding properly. The knowledge which formerly an apprentice seaman acquired through long years of hardship is now taught on government training ships in the course of a few weeks.

The young man who enjoys the sea and has a love for adventure may now find healthful employment at good wages on Uncle Sam's ships. Already thousands have been through the course of training and have taken their new jobs. Some of them will soon become officers and in their positions of command will be honored and well paid.

UPSETTING BLUE LAWS.

Both houses of the Legislature yesterday passed the Sunday movie bill over the veto of Governor Holcomb. The governor's veto was based on sound law. Connecticut's statute law forbids Sunday work not classified as work of necessity or mercy and the governor points out the obvious fact that a moving picture performance cannot be classed as an act of necessity or mercy. But many of Connecticut's Sunday laws have come down from Puritan days and have long since been obsolete. To say that the various forms of recreation in which Connecticut citizens now indulge on Sunday conform to existing laws would be obviously false. The Puritan Sabbath of our ancestors has gone, never to return. If harmless recreations are to be permitted on Sunday, then the movie show should be entitled to its place among them. Governor Holcomb was consistent in vetoing the measure which gives communities the option of having or not having moving pictures on Sunday, but we suspect he will not be greatly disturbed when he passes an open movie house on Sunday afternoon.

Uncensored cable messages are now passing freely between America and Europe for the first time since the declaration of war.

With a state highway appropriation for the next two years of $2,000,000, besides the income from automobile licenses, the state highway commissioner will be able to make a fine showing on the state roads.

HIGH SCHOOL TO PLAY BRISTOL SATURDAY.

The local high school will cross bats with the speedy Bristol baseball team tomorrow afternoon at the Four Acre baseball diamond. Although in the past few years Manchester has defeated Bristol, both teams are now about evenly matched and a fast game of baseball is expected.

The local high school has had an excellent team during the last two years under the leadership of "Cop" Glenny and the team this year looks even more promising. It has an exceedingly fast infield and under the coaching of Mr. King its opponents will have to work hard to get anything past them. Coach Whiting is rounding out the outfield which promises to be up to the standard. The team is playing and practicing on the Four Acre diamond now as the diamond at Mt. Nebo is in very poor condition.

The team will probably line up as follows on Saturday afternoon: Wright c, Ballsieper p, Glenny ss, Turkington 1b, Crockett 2b, Beecher 3b, Fox if, F. Finnegan cf, Lynch rf.

The game will be called promptly at 3 p. m.

MOTION DENIED.

Record of Madden Trial Not to be Printed at Expense of State.

Judge Donald T. Warner, before whom Klein, Bressler and McDonald went to trial, and were found guilty of the crime of murder in the second degree for the killing of Captain William F. Madden on January 30, has denied the motion made by Edward W. Broder and Edward J. Myers, lawyers for the men, that the record of the trial in the superior court be printed at the expense of the state, for the appeal to the supreme court in behalf of the men. The record which the lawyers asked for would contain a transcript of all the testimony, the rulings made on the trial and the charge of the judge. Under the judge's ruling it is for the accused to pay for the record in case they perfect an appeal, and want these features of the superior court trial for use in the supreme court.

William E. Egan made the same motion in behalf of Miller. This latter motion, however, was subsequent to the filing of the motion in behalf of the others and evidently had not reached Judge Warner at the time he made his decision on the motion as to the others. Nuess was not mentioned in any of the motions, the fact being he has, or did have at the outset of the trial, close to $10,000 under his control.

FEWER DOGS IN TOWN.

Up to last night 670 dog licenses had been issued by the town clerk. Yesterday was the last day named for this purpose and all who have neglected this little duty will be called upon to pay one dollar additional for the license. The number of licenses issued is about 100 short of that of last year, but this is explained by the large number of dogs that have been killed during the year. Some of the dog owners have preferred to get rid of their canines than pay the tax.

CARPENTERS WANTED.

Carpenters are needed to help build Manchester's Army and Navy Hut. In order to complete this in two weeks it is hoped that every contractor and carpenter in this town will plan to lay aside his regular work from four to six days to help in the work. The hut must be finished in time for the Welcome Home celebration. For further information call either F. H. Anderson or E. L. G. Hohenthal Jr.

MANCHESTER EAGERLY AWAITS RELIC TRAIN

Thousands Will View Victory Loan War Trophies Here Saturday.

BIG LOCAL SALES TODAY

Tremendous Effort to Raise Town's Quota This Week—Helmet Contest a Hummer.

Thousands of Manchester citizens are sure to be at the local railroad stations, north and south, tomorrow afternoon. The attraction will be the famous war relic train which is being brought here by the Victory Loan committee.

This was a busy day in bond selling circles in town and there is every indication that the local campaign will go joyfully over the top this week.

The Relic Train. Each of the four cars is in charge of returned wounded soldiers, who showed exceptional bravery in France, for which they were cited. Trophies of the conflict in which they fought compose the exhibition.

The first car contains the smaller implements of warfare, of both friend and enemy, the German helmets, breastplates and other articles of defense being reminders of "what they were up against" from the beginning. The French army coats, too, bear marks of the hard fighting of the sturdy poilus and many of the bayonets and knives are covered with blood rust.

In the open cars, are huge field pieces, German, French, American, British, some camouflaged and some not. It is noticeable that the wary Huns displayed a little more finesse in the artistic deception, the less war experienced nations showing a crudity in this respect. Depth bombs, aerial bombs, shells, German howitzers, French 76s, shattered airplane motors and many other souvenirs of the tragedy of war are exhibited.

The climax of the display, and last to be seen is the famous Hindenberg "pill" box, in which General von Hindenberg is supposed to have watched the fate of his "line in comparative safety, while shrapnel vainly attempted to pierce the impenetrable covering.

Silk Workers' Chance.

The hours for the relic train's visit are as follows: Manchester station, 2.30 to 4.30, Saturday afternoon; South Manchester station, 4.45 to 5.45 p. m. This will give a fine chance to the 4,500 workers at the Cheney silk mills to view the relic trains immediately after the close of their afternoon's work.

$681,500 Now. Bond sales of $57,700 today finished Manchester's total sales to date up to $681,500. Now for the grand finish and over the top this week!

POLICE COURT.

William H. Armstrong, a transient whose home is where he hangs his hat, and who is minus a right leg, was before Judge Arnot in the police court this morning charged with vagrancy. He was arrested by Chief Gordon yesterday afternoon. Armstrong has the habit of begging money from every one on the street and if he is not successful he becomes abusive. The chief ordered him to leave town but he failed to go and was later arrested. Judge Arnot imposed a jail sentence of 30 days and then suspended execution of judgment, providing that Armstrong leave town at once. The man was seen to take the first car for Hartford.

FUNERAL OF H. M. NORTON.

The funeral of Henry Marshall Norton was held from his home, corner of Laurel and Chestnut streets, at 2:30 this afternoon. The service was conducted by Rev. Dr. George W. Reynolds, formerly pastor of the Center church. The bearers were C. R. Hathaway, Dr. D. C. Y. Moore, David H. Husband, George Clark, Charles Peterson and Fred T. Blish. There was a large profusion of floral tributes including contributions from various Masonic orders and from King David lodge of Odd Fellows. The burial was in the East cemetery.

ATLAS' BIG GAME.

Sunday the Atlas will have one of the hardest games on its schedule to face. It will lineup against the Cardinal A. C. of Hartford at the golf links. This team was undisputed champion of Hartford last year winning twelve games without suffering a single defeat. The Sand Hills of Burnside, which the locals meet one week later is the only team to play a tie game with the Cardinals. Cervini is slated to be on the mound and Noble will do the backstopping. The game will start at 2.30. The Atlas has games this year with such fast teams as the Indian A. C. of Hartford, Windsor Locks, All Stars and Crescents.

REV. J. S. PORTER TO RETURN TO BOHEMIA

Rev. J. S. Porter of this place is planning to return to Prague, Bohemia, about the middle of next month. Mr. Porter was a missionary in Bohemia at the time the war broke out and was compelled to leave the country on account of hostilities. With the coming of peace, communication lines have been restored and travel is again moving freely. Mr. Porter and his family expect to sail from New York about the 15th of May. During his long enforced vacation he has spent most of his time in Manchester and has rendered valuable aid in religious and patriotic work.

ORANGEMEN TO HAVE PAST MASTERS' MEETING

Washington I. O. O. No. 117 will hold Past Masters' meeting in Orange hall Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The past masters will confer the R. A. P. M. degree on a class of candidates. Out of town guests are expected to be present. After the conferring of the degree, refreshments will be served.

The Past Masters plan to make this one of the best nights that has been spent in Orange in this town. A large audience is assured. Songs, recitations and speech making will be features of the evening.

MANCHESTER'S MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCE PLANS

Various Committees Appointed at Meeting Held at Hall of Records Last Night.

Plans for Manchester's observance of Memorial day this year were discussed and various committees appointed, at a meeting of the general committee and representatives of the different local military organizations, held at the Hall of Records last evening. Other meetings will be held shortly, after which the program in detail will be announced.

The observance this year will be along lines similar to preceding celebrations, only this year, with the addition of the veterans of the present war, it will be on a little larger scale. It was voted at last night's meeting to invite the new Army and Navy club to appoint a committee of three to decorate the graves of soldiers who have died during the present war, just as the G. A. R. and the United Spanish War veterans will have committees to decorate the graves of soldiers of the other wars.

John Jensen was appointed marshal of the parade and also chairman of the committee to arrange for the part the school children will take in the celebration. The other members of the school committee are F. A. Verplanck, L. P. Knapp, A. F. Howes, J. C. Bushnell, W. H. Whiting and Walter Olson.

Miss Mary Cheney was appointed chairman of the committee to secure flowers, J. T. Robertson, chairman of the committee to secure automobiles for the veterans who are unable to walk and E. L. G. Hohenthal, chairman of the committee on music.

As in past years, appropriate exercises will be held in Cheney hall at two o'clock in the afternoon, to be followed by a parade through the usual streets, namely up Hartford Road and Main street to the Center park, where the soldiers' monument will be decorated and short exercises held.

U. S. HAS SPENT OVER 30 BILLIONS FOR WAR

This Amount Includes Nearly Ten Billions Loaned to Allies—Some Big Figures.

Washington, May 2.—The Treasury has paid out about $30,500,000,000 since America's entry into the war a little more than two years ago, it was announced today. This amount includes, however, nearly $10,000,000,000 in loans to the allies, which eventually will be refunded. That the war expenses of the nation have abated but little since the signing of the armistice is proved by the announcement that during April treasury expenditures amounted to some $1,420,000,000, of which about 66 per cent for the payment of direct war bills, and the remainder to the allies to enable them to pay obligations already incurred in the purchase of war materials and food stuffs in this country.

READY TODAY.

All First Day Frills of Baseball Postponed Until Today.

New York, May 2.—All the first day frills scheduled for the openings on the Polo Grounds and Ebbets field yesterday will be put on today, weather permitting. And the sun did its best to break through the gray sky early this morning. The two programs call for flag raisings, band concerts, salutes and features galore. At the Giants' opening, where the Phillies are to be entertained, the game will mark John McGraw's first appearance on the Polo grounds as a National league magnate.

Over in Brooklyn, the Dodgers will hook up with the Boston Braves. The latter have yet to enter the winning column and while they have been losing five straight, the Dodgers are four to the good against only one defeat.

TAGGING THE BASES

With the bases full, score tied and in the final inning, Frank Baker, the Trappe mauler, singled, scoring two runners. Sounds like a movie or a meller drammer, doesn't it?

Query—Who is going to stop the Reds?

Seven straight without a defeat and going strong. Cincy fans see visions of a pennant.

Rariden and Stock, in the Cincy game yesterday, each helped himself to a double and triple.

Babe Ruth apologized to Ed. Barrow just in time to get into the game and connect with a double the first time up. After that, Ruth was hors du combat.

Weather permitting, the Giants today start a stretch of seven straight series on their home grounds, the longest they will play at home this year.

Speaker helped himself to two doubles in three times up.

TROLLEYMAN DESERVES MEDAL.

Speaking of citations, it appears that Motorman James McGuire of the local branch of the Connecticut company is in line for one. A Hartford auto truck belonging to a party by the name of Crenstein was left on the side of the main road near Laurel Park last evening and in some manner or other caught fire. McGuire, in charge of the controller of the 11:52 p. m. Manchester bound trolley noticed the blaze. He stopped the car and displayed extraordinary heroism by shovelling dirt on the conflagration thereby smothering it. As yet Jim has not received any recognition from the owner of the truck for his efforts.

STUDENTS SHINE SHOES.

Springfield, Ill., May 2.—Boot-blackening is part of the training in the manual training class at the Central Junior High School here. But it is not public bootblackening. It is for the students themselves and is part of a plan to encourage the boys in neatness of appearance. The instructor has had erected a complete shoe shining department. The students shine each other's shoes at an average cost of half a cent.

McGraw IS PLANNING FOR SUNDAY BASEBALL

To Take Advantage of New York City Ordinance That Permits Games.

New York, May 2.—Manager McGraw of the Giants is planning to take immediate advantage of the ordinance which permits of Sunday baseball in New York and which is now effective following signature by Mayor Hylan.

The ordinance permits playing games after two o'clock on Sunday afternoons. It also provides that baseball clubs operating in the city may not raise their price for Sunday games over the scale of admission charged on week days.

Next Sunday the New York-Philadelphia and the Brooklyn-Boston National league games which were prevented by rain yesterday, will be played off.

Whenever it is possible, these Sunday open dates will be used to play off postponements as John Heydler, president, wishes to discourage the practice of playing double headers.

In the meantime, if games are prevented by rain they will be played on dates made vacant through shifting of contests for Sundays. In this way it will not be necessary to resort to double headers.

BOLTON

Notices have been received in town of a Victory Liberty Loan War Exhibit Train to be in Andover May 6th from 9.30 a. m. to 10 a. m. The train will show captured German war material, with relics of French and United States War equipment. Soldiers will explain and demonstrate their use. The arrival of the train will be announced by firing an aerial salute, by blowing of whistles and ringing of bells.

IS CORSET UNDERWEAR?

New York, May 2.—Daniel Roper, commissioner of internal revenue, is only a man but he has to decide what is a corset. The department stores today asked Roper to tell them whether a corset is a luxury under the new luxury tax law, that is, whether it must be classified as underwear.

MONKEY GETS WAR BURIAL.

Uniontown, Pa., May 2.—Uniontown witnessed its first monkey funeral recently when "Joe", the Simian mascot of a regiment just returned from France, was buried with all the honors of war.

Although "Joe" had survived all the rigors of the Argonne drive he had no chance against a bulldog that trapped him here. Every youngster in the neighborhood accompanied the remains to the last resting place.

TRUTH AND ROMANCE CONCERNING G's MASCOT

Youth Who Liked the Soldiers but Told Fairy Tales.

What has become of Company G's mascot? Where is the boy wonder who so persistently clung to the company of his adoption throughout the strenuous campaign of the great world war? When Company G sailed with the rest of the 26th division for this country some time ago, embarkation officials refused to allow him to accompany his comrades in arms and he was left behind. But the youngster knows or should know that some of his adopted comrades were from this town and there is a possibility that he may pay Manchester a visit, for at the present time he is somewhere in America, having eluded foreign port officials by boarding an American cargo steamer which has undoubtedly arrived in this country by this time.

Local boys who are now ex-members of Company G will no doubt be surprised to learn the real truth concerning the life of the intrepid mascot. They believed that he was one of the original Lusitania waifs, but information which has developed since their leaving France is contrary to the mascot's story of his life. This information published in an April edition of the "Stars and Stripes", which has been received by Miss Catherine Murphy of this town from her brother, Dennis S. Murphy of the U. S. Finance division, which is still overseas, tells how this boy munchausen fooled them all.

Harry Skinner, 15 years old, is a boy after Mark Twain's own heart. He has always kept one lap ahead of Truth, who has been following up his trail as the boy wonder mascot of Company G. Last month when Truth thought she had trapped Harry in the embarkation port of Brest, Harry was on board a cargo ship somewhere on the Atlantic on his way to the United States.

Harry for months and months was the authentic and original Lusitania waif. The tale he told the men of Company G when he appeared among them unaccountably one day up near Chateau Thierry, had all the thrills of the old rainbow-backed literature of boyhood, with all its settings strictly modern and dovetailing with the history of the Great War. He described his home in Springfield, Ohio. He told of the day when the Lusitania was sunk. He was on her. So were his parents. He was saved. They were not. There were other chapters—one in which the young hero was captured by the Germans, spent weeks in a German prison camp, and finally escaped by way of Switzerland.

All the time, however, Truth was on Harry's trail. But Company G moved too fast. Embarkation officials unfeelingly made Harry an orphan again, when they refused to let him go with his adopted company when it sailed with other American units for the land of the Stars and Stripes. Truth took fresh hope and speeded up to catch him. Truth arrived at Brest—a letter from England saying Harry's mother was living, that she had never been out of England, and that Harry was a runaway. But all the time Truth was looking for him in Brest, Harry was on his way to America having succeeded in getting aboard an American "tramp", the name of which is unknown.

We are indebted to the correspondent of the Stars and Stripes for this information and we trust that Harry Skinner still retains that trait of persistency. For if he has, there is a possibility that the young near-hero who fooled them all, may visit Manchester and personally tell his comrades in arms the real story of his life.

MAKE HONEY ON STATEHOUSE.
Charleston, W. Va., May 2.—Bees are making honey on top of the State capitol building here. All apriary has been established there by Charles R. Reese, bee specialist of the State Department of Agriculture. Five colonies have been placed there and more colonies will be added. Officials of the State Department will be supplied with honey fresh from the comb.

"I. W. W.'s POOR LABORERS."
Topeka, Kan., May 2.—"Kansas needs more industrious efficient laboring men in the State penitentiary and fewer I. W. W.'s" said E. E. Frizell, of Larned, head of the labor bureau to furnish farmers with "hands" for harvest. He is also a member of the State Legislature and interested in the binder twine factory at the State penitentiary. Three million pounds of twine will be produced this year by the penitentiary and $5,000,000 needed for the 1918 crop.

TWO LOCAL SOLDIERS CITED FOR BRAVERY

Charles Hoptner and Thomas Hewitt Receive Official Documents—Their Heroic Acts.

The publication of many acts of bravery and daring by Manchester boys who played a prominent role in the world's most realistic drama, The Great War, has been delayed because of modesty on the part of our native sons who have left their respective acts of heroism for someone else to tell and this someone has in the joys of homecoming, forgotten. The receipt of two important looking packages in Manchester yesterday, bearing the label of the United States War Department and the postmark of Washington, D. C., brings to light another tale of heroism enacted by two local boys before the curtain descended on the drama that started the world.

One of these packages was addressed to Charles Hoptner of Spruce street, an ex-member of Headquarters Company 102nd Regiment, 26th Division, A. E. F. The other was addressed to Thomas Hewitt of Flower street, also an ex-member of the above command. The packages contained official citations for bravery shown during the battle of Seichprey on April 24th, 1918. During this battle while being subjected to a heavy fire, both of these young men displayed extraordinary heroism by maintaining communication between the sectors of Seichprey and Beaumont.

When interviewed last evening, Hoptner stated that he wasn't looking for publicity and did not care to divulge the contents of his letter. A relative of his however promised the Herald the citation for publication at an early date and also related the story of Hoptner's experience.

It appears that Hewitt was a regimental runner and carried messages to and from the various headquarters of the regiments. At about three o'clock on the afternoon of the battle, Hewitt was sent out to inform the various commanders that the Germans were about to resume activities. A heavy barrage was sent over, followed by a storm of an assortment of High ammunition. Hewitt continued on his mission informing the various commanding officers that special attention must be paid to the telephone wires and communicating apparatus in order that communication could be maintained at all times. Hoptner was among a number of men who were sent out to patrol the line of communication between Seichprey and Beaumont, and to repair the wires whenever they were broken by German shells.

For 25 hours Hoptner and his companions repaired broken lines amid a veritable hail storm of bullets, while Hewitt dashed here and there with important messages. Military communications were kept up as a result and the work of the repairing detail received special mention in the commander's report of the engagement. The relative stated that Hoptner received a French citation shortly after the battle. This was lost with other effects prior to overseas departure.

It will be remembered that it was after this battle that Hoptner was reported as having been killed, but it later developed that he was gassed. Hewitt was also gassed and wounded in the leg at Verdun.

BRIDE OF ONE DAY INSANE.
Flemington, W. Va., May 2.—Anna Serio, seventeen, married one day, fell asleep the next and remained in the stupor for a week. When she awakened the doctors pronounced her insane.

STILL TIPPED BY SMOKE.
Bethlehem, Pa., May 2.—Dense smoke issuing from a house across the street from a school building here led to the uncovering of an illicit whiskey still in full operation. The janitor of the school thought the place was on fire and investigated.

Punching The Bag

Organized Baseball is a trust—think of it!
The damage suit won by the Baltimore Feds brought out the painful truth, and the jury that tried the case returned a verdict which confirmed suspicions about baseball that have long been the subject of discussion.

But baseball is a nice little trust, which goes about its business very quietly and quite gentlemanly as a rule, so that even though the decision in the Baltimore case went against it, baseball can still continue to live on without much fear of being harried by legal entanglements. The only real blow O. B. received in its bout with the Baltofeds was the wallop on the pocketbook—a $240,000 wallop that caused some of the magnates to yelp things about "Bolshevism" in this country. The magnates will have to dig down deep and pay the fine, but in doing so they will have the satisfaction of knowing that some of the former Feds will have to dig along with them.

Baseball cannot be classed with the great monopolies. The only thing that crops out now and then to remind us of the fact that it is a trust at all is some loose conversation spilled by the merrie magnates. Threats of blacklisting this guy, or that guy, or of patting something out of business, such as we heard during the Federal League war, will be heard no more. The magnates, if they are wise, will keep mum and saw wood.

Even though Organized Baseball should be ordered to dissolve itself and get away from the trust idea, it would continue to run just the same and the only difference would be that the written agreements which hold the magnates to their vows would be destroyed and gentleman's agreements put in force.

The reserve clause is the backbone of baseball, though of course the recognition of territorial claims plays its share in making the business a closed corporation as far as outsiders are concerned. Anybody can build a ball park and get a ball club together. But burning into the select set is quite impossible unless the bird who wants to get in can coax some magnate to part with a franchise.

As baseball can't very well get a membership in the League of Nations, it is altogether probable that it will face another Bolshevik movement in due time, but not for a long, long while if we have the dope correctly figured. The Federal Leaguers lost so heavily as an organization that the man with money, red-hot business fan though he might be, would hesitate a long, long while to day before tossing his dough into the arena to fight O. B.

AS PIE EATER WOUNDED
HEROES "TAKE THE CAKE."
New York, May 2.—At a pie-eating contest staged in the K. of C. hut on Broadway recently six wounded soldiers and sailors competed with six unwounded service men. The wounded team ate eighteen pies and the unwounded team twelve. Asked to explain the victory, one of the wounded boys remarked: "When you've been over there without pie for more than a year and you come back here and the doctor won't let you eat it until you're pretty nearly well, it stands to reason that the first chance you get you're going to participate in a pie program."

Can You Look this Man in the Eye with Pride?

Or do you avoid his gaze?

You were a staunch American when the Country was at war, and you bought First, Second, Third and Fourth Liberty Bonds. You could meet him upstanding then. Now that we are striving to gather the sweet fruits of Victory, to pay our honest war debts, and maintain military strength to enforce a righteous peace,

How do you feel?

Not all the men who fought for you and who returned alive have been maimed. Many grievous wounds are hidden. Suffering and sacrifice are not measurable by a yardstick, nor can you recognize the veterans now in "civies." You will meet them unawares.

They will judge you!

If this little "Victory" Liberty Loan button is pinned on your coat, then you are the American that you were while your country was at war.

And you can look this boy in the eye.

But if the button is not there, you will shrink from his gaze.

For you are not what you were a year ago.

Subscribe and wear a button!

We cannot sully the brightness of our victory by failing in our financial obligations, by refusing to maintain our army or declining to restore our wounded, crippled and sick fighting men.

This Button, worn with pride, is the sign that you have again taken your place in the army of saviors for patriotic purposes.

ABOUT TOWN

Reylander Brothers have just put a new Chevrolet delivery car into service.

Recreation Director W. H. Whiting was called to Middleborough, Mass., this morning by the death of his mother.

All the schools in town were closed today to give the teachers an opportunity to attend the teachers' convention in Hartford.

The steady rain last night was needed very badly, as the earth had become very dry. Now for sunshine and then everything will appear beautiful.

The Ex-service men who are interested in the North Methodist church will assist the ladies at the May dinner to be given in the vestry of the church this evening from six to eight.

Dr. M. J. Sullivan of Naugatuck arrived in town yesterday to take over the management of the Circle theater formerly managed by his brother James who is now looking after the interests of the Palace theater in Broadbrook.

The weather report for April shows that the month was close to normal in temperature, sunshine and rainfall. The mean temperature was 47 and the total precipitation 2.79 inches. There were 181 hours of sunshine out of a possible 401.

The Hudson baseball team will have the Spartan Athletic club of New Britain for their opponents in a game on the west side playground Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. Any teams wishing games with the Hudsons, should write to J. C. Edwards, 108 High street.

One of the popular May dinners at the North Methodist church will be served from 6 o'clock in the church vestry this evening. The menu includes well known New England delicacies and those who attend may be assured of a square meal at a reasonable price.

The Ladies of Charity need old clothing, especially those suited for children. Anyone in housecleaning who finds such garments should kindly notify either Mrs. John Gleason or Mrs. P. J. Hannon, both of Main street and they will have someone call.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Buzzell of Wadsworth street announce the engagement of their daughter Emma M. Buzzell to Egbert B. Inman of Hartford. Mr. Inman has just returned from 19 months of service with the Yankee Division in France.

John A. Anderson, bass of the Center church quartet for the past two years, has resigned to accept a higher salary at the First Baptist church, New Britain. His place will be supplied for the present by Kenneth Roberts of Hartford, who has recently been discharged from service in the navy.

Manchester is beginning to assume its post-war appearance. That is, in regard to its residents. Practically all of the members of the 26th who were mustered out at Camp Devens have arrived home, and once more are seen familiar faces and figures which have been absent for over two years.

Lieutenant Rolin T. Rood of the United States Naval Aviation service arrived at his home in town last evening. Lieutenant Rood enlisted with the naval reserves at the Yale boathouse in New Haven and was later assigned to the U. S. Marines. He is home now with gold overseas stripes and a lieutenant's commission.

The citations for bravery received yesterday by two local young men are probably the forerunners of other recognitions of a like nature which are bound to be received in due course of time. These acts of bravery are just beginning to come up before the War Department and many other Manchester boys will no doubt be accorded the proper recognition.

The male quartet of the local Salvation Army corps has been invited to sing at a memorial service in Providence Sunday, in honor of Bandmaster Edward Blackman, who was killed in France while serving in the capacity of a dispatch carrier. Bandmaster Blackman was the son of Commandant Samuel Blackman, who was at the head of the local corps some eight or nine years ago. Services in his memory are to be held both Sunday afternoon and evening. The local quartet is composed of Ernest Clough, Robert Von Deck, Thomas Maxwell and Fred Clough.
