ARMY OF 500,000 FOR YEAR; WILSON HOLDS TWO DIVISIONS

Secretary of War Declares Future Military Policy is Not Settled—Would Have Training in Schools Above Grades — Demobilization Ahead of Program.

Washington, May 29.—The future of the American army in France is still undetermined, Secretary of War Baker and General March, chief of staff, today told the House Military Affairs Committee.

On the request of President Wilson two divisions which were scheduled to be withdrawn from the army of occupation will be kept in Europe, General March stated. It is now the plan of the War Department to maintain five divisions in Europe until peace terms have been definitely settled.

The War Department has not been informed what the military obligations of the United States will be under the peace treaty, General March declared.

Army of 500,000 for Year.

Both the Secretary of War and General March insisted that it will be necessary to maintain an army of 500,000 during the coming year although they anticipate that the army may be reduced below that number before July 1, 1920.

Military Training in Schools.

"I want it understood that that does not refer to any permanent military policy," Sec. Baker said. "It merely applies to the coming fiscal year. During the first of the year we will have more than 500,000 men and late in the year less than 500,000. I do not wish at this time to suggest anything in the nature of a permanent military establishment, but I would like to see a plan for the establishment of military training in our high schools, colleges and universities carried out."

"The plan would not apply to any school system below the high school would it?" he was asked. "It would not," he replied.

Secretary Baker declared that demobilization is now far ahead of the War Department's program.

"Between two and three hundred thousand more men have been discharged than we had hoped to have demobilized at this time," he said.

U. S. ORDERS MEXICANS TO KEEP OUT OF TEXAS

Government Troops Want to Chase Villistas and Take Short Cut on U. S. Soil.

Washington, May 29.—The United States has informed the Mexican government that it must withhold, for the present, permission for Mexican troops to pass through Texas, on their way to Chihuahua, to protect American there from Villistas, it was announced at the State Department today.

The fear that such permission might result in arousing Villa to increase activities, which would further jeopardize the Americans pending the arrival of the troops, was said to have been expressed in the communication. Not until there are definite assurances that the Americans will not be harmed while the troops are on the way, will permission for them to cross over American soil be given, officials made clear.

SLAYS SELF IN COURT HOUSE.

Boston, May 29.—A man thought to be Melton Artinoff, aged 50, shot himself in the head in a corridor on the second floor of Suffolk County Court House today. He was sent to the relief hospital in an ambulance. The shooting created excitement through the court house. Court attaches, police and spectators who flocked to the court sessions crowded into the corridor.

Two court officers saw the man reach into a pocket and draw a revolver. Before they could interfere the man had shot himself.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE BILL IS TO COME UP TODAY

But Largely to Afford Senators to Outline a Program.

BOTH SIDES HOLD VIEWS

Amendment Will Be Taken Up Middle of Next Week—Long Debates Expected.

Washington, May 29.—Woman suffrage was scheduled to pop up again in the Senate today, but largely for the purpose of affording the proponents and opponents of the measure an opportunity to agree on a program for next week, when the famous Susan B. Anthony amendment was expected to be passed in the upper chamber.

Senator Hoke Smith, Democrat, of Georgia, leader of the opposition, said he was in accord with Senator Watson, Republican, of Indiana, chairman of the new Senate woman suffrage committee, that the Senate get down to the final disposition of the amendment by the middle of next week, Senator Watson hoped to have the amendment called up for consideration not later than Tuesday next.

Sure to Reach Agreement.

"I am sure we can reach an agreement to take the amendment up by the middle of next week," Senator Hoke Smith told Senator Watson, and as the Georgia Senator is in charge of the Democratic opposition to the amendment a final vote on the latter was regarded as certain before the end of next week.

Senator Watson's original motion for the discharge of the old Senate woman suffrage committee from further consideration of the amendment which was still on the Senate calendar as unfinished business was to be wiped off the slate soon after that body reconvened today.

When Debate Will Take Place.

Then the Senate was expected to take up the question of when the amendment would become debatable. Senator Borah, Progressive Republican, of Idaho, who is an avowed foe of the amendment, declared that while it was evident that the amendment would pass, he desired full opportunity to express his views on the subject.

Getting Down to Business.

Senator Cummins, of Iowa, chairman of the Senate Interstate Commerce; Senator Jones, of Washington, chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee; Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, and Republican heads of others important Senate Committees were prepared, however, to begin the organization of their respective committees today with a view of "getting down to business" either before the week end or early next week.

BRITISH AMBASSADOR TO U. S.

Paris, May 29.—There has been a renewal of speculation in peace conference circles as to the new British ambassador to the United States, General Christian Smuts and Premier Borden, of Canada, are among those now being mentioned.

Mexico's Minister in Cuba.

Havana, May 29.—Gen. Heriberto Jara, the new Mexican Minister to Cuba, presented his credentials to President Menocal today.

WORLD WAR VETERANS WILL MARCH TOMORROW WITH HEROES OF '61

Khaki and Blue to Mingle in Mutual Honor of Dead.

SAILORS AND SOLDIERS TO WEAR FULL UNIFORM

World War Men Requested to Meet at Army and Navy Club at 1.15—All of Town's Bands Will Be Out.

The Memorial day parade will have an added attraction with the veterans of the World War in line. It is expected that there will be a large turnout of soldiers and sailors. An enthusiastic meeting was held at the Army and Navy club last evening when action was taken in regard to its members' participation in the day's activities. The men will assemble at the club at 1.15 and march to Cheney Hall, where the memorial day exercises will take place. The soldiers will wear their regulation uniforms and the sailors will wear their blue suits and white hats. The senior officer present will be placed in command of the veterans. There will be so many men, that they probably will not be able to enter the Hall but they will join in the parade after the exercises and march to the soldiers' monument in Center Park, where the closing exercises of day will be held.

Rev. Eric I. Lindh to Speak.

The exercises at Cheney hall will begin at two o'clock. The full program and the order of march appeared in the Herald's columns last week. Rev. Eric I. Lindh will give the memorial address, and Commander M. H. Keeney of Drake Post, G. A. R., will give the address of welcome. Music will be provided by the Girl's Glee club of the high school, under the direction of Miss Marion Washburn.

John Jensen of Manchester Green has been chosen marshal of the parade. He will lead the procession from Cheney Hall, up Hartford Road to Main street, up Main street to the Center, east of East Center street to Huntington street and then countermarch to the Center Park for the closing exercises.

All the bands in town will be in the parade. Other organizations will include the Civil War veterans in automobiles, the United Spanish War Veterans, the Sons of Veterans, the State Guard, Boys Scouts, school children, selectmen and citizens' committee.

Open Tonight.

The clothing, drygoods, hardware and shoe stores will close all day tomorrow, but will remain open this evening for the accommodation of the public. The grocery stores and meat markets will close tonight, but will be open tomorrow forenoon.

The South Manchester postoffice will close at one o'clock tomorrow afternoon and remain closed for the remainder of the day. There will be one city delivery, but no R. F. D. delivery. The schools and bank will be closed all day. Sessions at the schools will be resumed Monday morning. The silk mill employees will have a half holiday, the mills closing at noon for the rest of the day. The Saturday schedule will be as usual.

NEW LONDON FIRE.

One Dead and Several Others Missing in Early Morning Blaze.

New London, May 29.—One man is known to have met death and it is feared other lives were lost in a fire that razed the Williams block, a four story brick building at the corner of Green and Golden streets at five o'clock this morning.

A bowling alley and cafe were located on the street floor and the upper floors were occupied by families of railroad men. A man believed to be Robert Tate, of Pittsfield, Mass., jumped to the pavement and was instantly killed. Another man jumped and broke his legs. It is reported that a child is dying from suffocation after reaching a hospital.

GERMAN PEOPLE WANT RETURN OF A MONARCHY BUT DO NOT WANT FORMER KAISER TO HEAD IT

FAMOUS MELLEEN SUIT IS FINALLY ENDED

Former President of New Haven Road and Wife End Litigation.

DIVORCE LABEL DISMISSED

Father Says He Wants to Save His Children From Unpleasant Notoriety—Children With Him.

Pittsfield, Mass., May 29.—Charles S. Mellen, formerly president of the "New Haven" Road, has made satisfactory provision for his wife, Mrs. Katharine Livingston Mellen, and litigation in the case is ended.

The decree of Judge Edward T. Slocum, of probate court, dated September 23, 1918, in which he found that Mrs. Mellen had deserted her husband, and that he was justified in living apart from her has been affirmed by Justice John C. Crosby, of the Supreme Judicial Court.

Divorce Label Dismissed.

Ms. Mellen's divorce label, filed in superior court August 2, 1918, asking alimony of $500,000 has been dismissed by agreement. There is nothing in the superior court or the probate court records to indicate the amount which Mr. Mellen has settled upon his wife, but it is said to be no larger than the sum he was willing to give her at the time of the publication of the "fondly, kitten," letters at the Mellen trial last September. There has been no reconciliation.

Mellen Willing to Settle.

Mr. Mellen said today that he was willing to settle, chiefly to save his children from unpleasant notoriety which further proceedings would entail. Miss Katherine L. Mellen, the oldest child, who has been her mother's constant companion since last September, is to spend the summer with her father at his estate, Council Grove in Stockbridge.

With them will be the four other Mellen children, Priscilla, Candice, Amory and Raymond.

Daughter With Mother.

Miss Katherine L. Mellen sided with her mother when the Mellens became estranged. At the trial Mr. Mellen testified that he provided his daughter with an income of $100 a month and gave her $100 on her birthdays and at Christmas. She is now 23. Mr. Mellen and Katherine Livingstone were married November 15, 1893, on her 21st birthday. He

Wilson's Memorial Message

The following Memorial Day message from the President was received today. It is generally interpreted as reiterating the President's confidence in the League of Nations:

"My fellow countrymen: "Memorial Day wears this year an added significance and I wish, if only by message, to take part with you in its observation and in expressing the sentiments which it inevitably suggests. In observing the day we commemorate not only the reunion of our country but also now the liberation of the world from one of the most serious dangers to which free government and free life of men were ever exposed. We have buried the gallant and now immortal men who died in this great war of liberation with a new sense of consecration. Our thoughts and purpose now are consecrated to the maintenance of the liberty of the world and of the union of its people in a single comradeship of liberty and of right. It was for this that our men conscientiously offered their lives. They came to the field of battle with the high spirit and pure heart of crusaders. We must never forget the duty that their sacrifices has laid upon us of fulfilling their hopes and their purpose to the utmost. This, it seems to me, is the impressive lesson and the inspiring mandate of the day.

(Signed) "WOODROW WILSON."

GERMANY'S COUNTER PROPOSALS IN; FINAL REPLY BY BIG POWERS SOON

When Treaty is Again Handed to Teutons Negotiation Door Will Be Closed for Good.

Paris, May 29.—The Big Four today received two copies of the German counter proposals to the peace treaty and immediately began considering them.

Experts upon the inter-allied commissions were called in and work upon the allied reply was begun at once. The reply will be handed to Germany very shortly and it is expected to contain material modifications of the terms as originally drafted.

NEW RHENISH REPUBLIC TO BE FORMED FRIDAY

German Cabinet Issues Warning That Such an Act Would Be High Treason.

Berlin, May 28. (Via London, May 29.)—A Rhenish Republic will be proclaimed at Aix la Chapelle and Wiesbaden tomorrow, according to plans of the leaders of the movement.

The German cabinet issued a proclamation today giving warning that such an act would be high treason and the penalties were cited.

The independent Socialists and the political party of the Right nearly came to blows while making counter charges of responsibility for the secession movement in the Prussian Assembly.

Rhenish Prussia or Rhine Province, is one of the most important and richest districts in Germany, containing great industrial centers, rich coal fields and many big cities of much commercial importance. The area is 10,423 square miles and the population is estimated at almost 6,000,000. It is the most densely populated province in Germany.

Rhine Province is the western-most province of Prussia extending from the frontiers of Holland, Belgium and Luxemburg southward along the Rhine river. It is a center of reactionary influence in German politics and presumably the latest coup was planned by conservative leaders. Among the leading cities in Rhenish Prussia are Coblenz, the capital, Cologne, Essen, (the seat of the great Krupp works), Dusseldorf and Aix la Chapelle.

Part of Rhenish Prussia is now under the control of the American and British armies of occupation.

Fluctuation in the hope market ended yesterday, though NC-4 stock continued to go up.

This View Established by Series of Interviews With Men and Women in All Walks of Life—"Not Loyal to Kaiser But to Kaiser Idea."

Berlin, May 28.—(Delayed.)—Many German people—political leaders, subordinate government officials, professional men and farmers—want the return of a monarchial form of government in Germany, but they do not want the ex-Kaiser to come back.

This widespread view was established by a series of interviews which have been secured during the past few days. Many of the rank and file are not satisfied with the republic for the pomp and glimmer of Kaiserdom appealed to the German mind. But, offsetting the pessimistic prophecies Premier Philipp Scheidemann says that the republic is here to stay.

On any attempt to restore the monarchy by force of arms there seems little prospect. The out and out monarchists are apparently biding their time, hoping to take advantage of a natural evolution.

A Cowardly Act.

The flight of the former Kaiser into Holland is regarded on all sides as a cowardly act and "if the monarchy should be restored it is most likely that the crown will go to a prince of some German royal family. If Wilhelm comes back it will be as a private citizen. Some of the most important interviews follow:

Premier Philip Scheidemann.—"I consider the ex-Kaiser finally disposed of. He would never be a menace to the German republic if he should come back."

Friedrich Naumann, president of the German Democratic Party.—"The former Kaiser has not been excluded from Germany, so the question of whether or not he should be permitted to return has not been considered."

Dr. Maximilian Pfeiffer, national secretary of the Centrum party.—"The return of the ex-Kaiser will depend chiefly upon the extent to which he was responsible for the war."

Dr. Stresemann Speaks.

Dr. Gustav Stresemann, president of the German Peoples' Party—"The statements made by our party at Jena about loyalty to the Kaiser party does not mean that we are loyal to the former Emperor. We are merely loyal to the Kaiser idea and openly proclaimed our belief that a monarchy is the best form of government for Germany. Our ideal is the constitutional form of monarchy based on parliamentary regims. The English form of monarchy is the goal towards which German political idealism has always striven. It is therefore a lie to say that the revolution overthrew absolutism and gave us an opportunity for free political development. In reality the revolution overthrew the constitutional, parliamentary monarchy. For this reason we do deplore November 9, (the day of the outbreak of the revolution). We regard it as a day of mourning for Germany. The empire was a symbol of German unity. Therefore we preserve the memories of the German empire as the epoch of greatness of our people. We do not wish to restore the monarchy as long as the only means is through civil war which would lead Germany to further ruin. Furthermore the union of Germany and German Austria can be achieved now only through the republic. Our emphasis of industry and financial organization will never stand for a dictatorship by the workmen. In fact socialization of German industries is impossible. Premier Scheidemann is hated by the independent socialists and President Ebert, though a good German citizen, is without political greatness."

GERMANY'S COUNTER PROPOSALS NOW IN
The document consists of about 10,000 words. The introduction reviews the declarations of the Entente statesmen and Germany's right to enter the League of Nations on equal equality and reconstruction in accordance with President Wilson's fourteen principles.
Germany unqualifiedly rejects the treaty clause providing for the trial of the ex-Kaiser and other officials, declared Herr Naumann, press director of the foreign office in a statement to the correspondents.
In speaking of the terms Herr Naumann said:
"You would perhaps be surprised to learn how closely we concede the Entente's demands."

BAKER FAVORS MILITARY TRAINING IN SCHOOLS
Wants National System Established in All High Schools of the United States.
Washington, May 29.—Establishment of a national system of military training in the country's high schools, colleges and universities, was favored by Secretary Baker, before the House Military Affairs Committee today.
Secretary Baker pointed out the "great educational value" the army had possessed during the war for millions of America's men and boys. He explained that he did not wish, however, to commit himself to any permanent future military policy for this country until the peace treaty had been signed and ratified and peace conditions actually re-established.
An American army of 500,000 men for the fiscal year 1919-20 was recommended by the secretary.

SAYS TY COBB KICKED HER.
Detroit, Mich., May 29.—Alleging that Tyrus Cobb kicked her while he was a guest at a hotel in which she was employed on April 25, Ada Morris, negress, has sued the batting demon for $10,000. The records show that the papers were served on Cobb on the occasion of his reaching first base in the first game of the season on April 26, but somehow Ty forgot to appear in court yesterday to defend the suit and Judge Clyde I. Webster, of the United States District Court signed an order of default.

WHAT ABOUT ROGERS HORNSBY THIS YEAR?
Fans Asking Each Other If He Will Step Up to Old Gait.
Cardinal Shortstop Given Big Increase in Salary by Jack Hendricks Fell Into Slump—Rickey Expected to Get Results.
What about Rogers Hornsby in the 1919 campaign in the National league? National league fans are asking each other whether Rogers will step up to his real gait this coming season or whether he will continue in the slump he suffered last season.
Hornsby joined the Cardinals in 1915, but did not receive very much of a chance to get going. But in 1916 he stepped right out in front. He was the very life of the attack and defense of the team. His general work at shortstop and his batting made him the most talked of player in the circuit, if not in the majors.
The next season he let out another notch and again burned up the league. He batted .327 and finished second to

Rogers Hornsby.
Eddie Roush of the Cincinnati Reds, who pulled down the batting title.
When the 1918 season started scribes asked, "Where will Hornsby stop?" Rog. asked for a big increase in salary and got it. Jack Hendricks took hold of the team that spring. It never will be known exactly whether it was the big pay and publicity of two seasons or his inability to get along with Jack Hendricks that caused Rogers to slump.
Now Hornsby will play under Branch Rickey this coming season. Rickey and Hornsby will get along. Rickey is the kind of a manager who can talk to the youngster and get results.
If Hornsby hits his old stride again next summer—if he takes the lead in batting and infield work most fans will blame his year's lapse on Jack Hendricks. Hendricks, being one of the big league again, will not worry over the verdict. Jack undoubtedly has his own views, which are enough for him.

A company has been formed in Copenhagen called A-S lactose, for the application of a method invented by H. Schandorf for the industrial utilization of milk, or rather its by-products. The capital stock is $100,000.

The factory will be erected in connection with a creamery which will treat 20,000 kilos of milk a day, making 800 kilos of butter, 5,500 kilos of buttermilk and 13,700 kilos of skimmed milk.

A Masterpiece of Girlishness

The flapper must have caught the ear of some master-designer of flapper clothes, this season and coaxed her way into apparel that much resembles that of her grown-up sisters. This is a cherished ambition of the flapper—to have blouses and separate skirts, cape-coats and suits that might really have been designed for a debutante. The fascinating tunic is not denied her and the pretty and simple frock pictured above bears testimony to this. Any of the soft, thin fabrics in cotton or silk are suited to a frock of this kind—white or colored voiles, linen-finished lawn, batiste, crepe-de-chine, foulard and the newer crepe fabrics—all materials that insure flowing lines and tend to soften youthful angles. Over a plain skirt, with the hem corded at the top to finish and weight it, there hangs a tunic, which is corded at the bottom and about the thighs. The simple blouse claims the flowing sleeve, so much featured in the new styles, to lend it character, and this sleeve takes advantage of cording as a finish. It is attached to a long close-fitting cuff which may be omitted and the sleeve left open. This sleeve has a very grown-up look. But the designer has no intent to deceive, and has added a bib to the front of the blouse, the most youthful and ingenious touch imaginable. The flapper will be reconciled to this digression because it is a touch not by any means absent from the frocks of young women.

The pretty girle that finishes off this little masterpiece of girlishness is of ribbon. It is in a color, blue, pink, light green and might be flowered with gay blossoms.

EIGHT OR TWELVE.

Although the Democratic National Committee is holding a big war council at Chicago and the sachems are all busy pointing with pride or viewing with scorn it is evident that there is one great obstacle which derails their trains of thought and scatters their ideas in a confused tangle of political supposition.

Wilson himself says nothing but a few of his friends and party advisors are speaking for him, whether with or without authority we can only surmise.

Mr. David Lawrence, a journalist who can swing all doors at the White House, thinks that Mr. Wilson is through. Lawrence does not base this conclusion on any statement of the President or on any confidential information which he may have picked up.

Whether this is a compelling reason is certainly known only to Mr. Wilson but it is significant to note that the President gives visible evidence of the terrible strain under which he has been living for the past two years.

However, the President is still turning off about fifteen hours of work a day and seems to be letting his friends do his worrying for him as regards his health almost as much as he is letting them speak for him in the matter of a third term.

As a question of national policy the President has no opposition to a twelve year executive. Arguments against the violation of the unwritten law will have as little effect upon him as did on Theodore Roosevelt.

As things stand now, the people might more likely be cheated than served by further limitations of the President's eligibility."

When Mr. Wilson returns to this country he will have ears for but one voice—the voice of America regarding the League of Nations and if the Democratic leaders are not careful they are going to confuse this question with a third term issue so that the voice will be indistinct and weak.

BROTHERS IN ARMS.

The people of this country were once presented with a plan for a league of nations and after considerable debate the plan was adopted. It is called the Constitution of the United States.

because they had the courage to sacrifice for the Union and we honor no less those younger men who have shown the same spirit and made the same sacrifice for the same ideal—a union of free peoples, defending liberty, protecting right with their victorious might.

The proposal in Congress to repeal the daylight saving law is meeting with a storm of opposition. In this part of the country at least the sentiment is overwhelmingly in favor of the law. The fact that the plan is now practically universal among the civilized nations of the globe makes it all the more desirable that this country keep in line.

New Haven should be ashamed of the riot which night before last resulted in bodily assault upon a number of inoffensive Yale students and the smashing of many windows in the university buildings.

While agreeing with the selectmen that the town needs a rest from war drives we fail to see what power the town fathers possess to bring about this desirable condition.

We cannot help thinking that Germany's idea of fair peace terms is very different from what it would have been if, instead of losing, Germany had won the war.

GERMAN REGRET OVER DEATH OF LIEUT. ROOSEVELT A LIE; SOLD PICTURES OF BODY. Chicago, May 29.—The regret feigned by the Germans over the death of Lieutenant Quentin Roosevelt, when in reality they took pictures of his body and sold them throughout Germany, was told by Lieutenant Colonel Thomas Bowen, visiting friends in this city.

Donhauser was among the five Germans who delivered the first German planes to the Allies after the signing of the armistice. "He told us he was sorry he had killed Quentin Roosevelt," said Colonel Bowen. "He lied. The Germans took pictures of Quentin's body, held between two German soldiers and sold the pictures throughout Germany. We saw the pictures."

"PEANUT JOHNNY" LEAVES CHILDREN $30,000 ESTATE. Waynesboro, Pa., May 29.—Indignant pity for Priamo Rossi, familiarly known as "Peanut Johnny," who conducted a peanut and fruit stand in Chambersburg for many years, prompted many to become his customers out of sympathy.

BOY DRAGGED TO DEATH BY FRIGHTENED MULE. Rome, Ga., May 29.—James Lewis, thirteen, living in the Ligon district, eleven miles from Rome, is dead as the result of being dragged by a mule for more than a mile. The lad was riding a plough mule from the field when the animal became frightened, throwing the boy, whose foot became entangled in the harness. His head was crushed to a pulp.

SENTENCES HIMSELF TO PAY $50 TO "SAL" ARMY. Chicago, May 29.—It's not often that a defendant is permitted to name his own fine and decide what shall be done with it—but, such was the good fortune of Patrick O'Malley, politician and saloonist, recently arrested for accepting a bet on the races.

PLAN WHITE CITY HERE. Manchester may have a White City this summer if the plans of a number of amusement promoters materialize. It is said that these men are considering the leasing of Jarvis Grove and contemplating the installation of a merry-go-round, flying swings, shutles and various other up-to-date amusement devices.

MUST TRIM BUILDINGS TO FIT BUILDING LINE OUR SELECTMEN DECIDE

Board Orders Main Street Property Altered Within 30 Days.

FATHER MCGURK WANTS 19 FOOT PORCH LINE

Declares Proposed School Building Itself Will Not Project Over Line. Rogers Resolution Beyond Power of Board.

The Park Theater building and the L. & M. store situated on Main street, and owned by John F. Sheridan and Edward J. Holl respectively, encroach on the street line on the east side of Main street, between Pearl street and Brainard Place. The selectmen of the town of Manchester reached this conclusion at their special meeting last evening, after having read the opinion of Town Counsel Alexander Arnott, in which he stated that the engineer's description should be followed. The board will notify the respective owners of the properties involved that they must adhere to Section 2698 Revised Statutes of the Public Acts of the state and remove the obstruction within thirty days from the receipt of the notification.

May Go to Law. If the property owners involved do not adhere to the order of the board, steps will be taken by the town to have the obstruction removed, that is, the portion of the buildings which project over the street line.

At a recent meeting of the board Attorney William S. Hyde, representing the interests of Mr. Holl, stated that the map approved by the selectmen and Superior Court of the state would be the controlling factor in a legal controversy and would have precedence over an engineer's description of street lines.

A recent survey made by Town Engineer J. Frank Bowen discloses the fact that the stakes laid out on the Dugan tract on Main street, formerly owned by Mr. Holl and which was recently disposed of by him to several local business men, encroach on the highway. The engineer was instructed to remove these stakes and to stake out a street line between the Salvation Army building and Pearl street, in accordance with the written description. The new owners will be instructed to get their lines from the town engineer in order to avoid further controversies.

Father McGurk Presents Plan. Previous to the opening session a hearing was held in regard to the re-establishment of the present building line on Park street. Rev. William J. McGurk, representing St. James Parish; W. C. Graham and Charles F. Worswick appeared before the board as property owners in this section to state their claims. Father McGurk read to the board a letter which he had received from the executive body of 1914, which set forth the fact that members of the board of five years previous seemed to be in favor of a re-establishment if improvements were contemplated. At the conclusion of the reading of the letter, Rev. McGurk stated that he was desirous of having this contract fulfilled.

Exhibiting sketches of the proposed parochial school—he explained his wishes to those present. It appeared that the Rev. McGurk was desirous of having a re-establishment effected in order to construct a veranda which would extend about ten feet from the main building. The main building he stated would not extend over the present 29 foot building line. The permission to extend the veranda over the line, would allow additional room in the rear for a children's playground. Upon being informed that there might be a possibility of establishing a veranda line, without changing the present building line, Rev. McGurk withdrew his former petition and verbally requested the establishing of a 19 foot veranda line of 19 feet. In commenting on the situation, Charles Worswick, a Park street property owner, said that he had no objections to the establishing of 19 foot veranda line providing the present 29 foot building line remained untouched and that the main building of St. James Parochial school as proposed would not encroach the present line of 29 feet. W. C. Graham, another Park street property owner, was in agreement with Mr. Worswick's views.

After those who had been summoned had retired, the matter was discussed by the board. The clerk was instructed to call a hearing June 9th for the purpose of establishing a 19 foot veranda line on the north side of Park street from Main street west to New street. All property owners involved will be summoned to appear and in all probability the line will be established.

Offers Oil Free. A petition from John M. Nichols et al, asking that improvements be made to the Birch mountain road was referred to the Highway committee. The same action was taken on a letter from Mgr. John F. Cullen of the Valvoline Oil Co. in which he offered the board, gratis, 4 barrels of 65 per cent Valvoline Oil with the provision that it be sprayed on Russell street.

Selectman Rogers' Idea. The resolution of Selectman Rogers in regard to money drives was then presented. The selectmen however decided that they had no power to vote on the resolution as presented.

This is the resolution: Whereas, The inhabitants of the Town of Manchester have contributed $486,073.99 in the various war drives, including the Manchester Memorial Hospital fund, to say nothing of the innumerable other war contributions which our townspeople have made and, Whereas, The inhabitants of the Town of Manchester have invested $5,423,244.88 in Liberty bonds and War Savings Stamps.

Be It Resolved By This Board of Selectmen That, We believe that with the exception of the Salvation Army drive which was postponed one month to give way to the hospital drive and the purpose of which we heartily endorse, all drives and unnecessary attempts to raise money should be held in abeyance for at least six months. If the rumors so frequently heard are true, plans are under way by a number of various organizations to hold dances and other events in behalf of the hospital fund. While we of course endorse the hospital project we believe that in view of the fact that some $40,000 more than was required has been raised the townspeople should not be pestered with appeals to buy tickets, more especially in view of the fact that the canvassers in the drive assured donors that they would be solicited but once. We know that many townspeople, anxious to the point of extreme sacrifice to do their duty during the world war, have given "until it hurt" and we feel that it is unfair to immediately approach those people on any project. True, they have the privilege of refusing to give but where the raising of money is placed upon a competitive basis as in practically all of the drives and each department of mills and section of the town is anxious to outdo the other donations have been made which have actually worked hardships. Hence, it is the opinion of this Board of Selectmen that money drives should for a time be dispensed with that the people may have a well earned rest.

No Fireworks. The Board decided that the sale and use of fireworks on July 4th should be prohibited. Gets $1 for Rabbit. The petition of Edward Ferris for a street light to be placed at the corner of Oak and Autumn streets was referred to the Highway committee. Richard Wright of Woodland street was awarded damages of $1 for a rabbit killed by stray dogs. The board adjourned at 10.30. The next meeting will be held on June 9th. Those present last evening were Chairman Johnson; Selectmen Cheney, Weldon, Johnston, Rogers, Boyers and Taylor and Clerk Waddell.

Morris and Co. Have Set of Beel Cutters Presented to Them—Bookkeeper Solves Mystery.

The finding of a set of false teeth on the steps of the Morris & Co. building at the north end this morning has caused a mystery. The teeth were thought to be the property of a woman, but later when a light green colored cap and a necktie were found at the side of the building the finder came to the conclusion that the teeth belonged to the man who had lost the cap and necktie. The cap was almost new and had C. E. House & Co.'s label in it. The bookkeeper at the Morris & Co. best box had to put in some overtime last night and when he was about to leave the building he stumbled over the body of a drunken man. He tried to arouse the man but the fellow was so drunk that he only grunted and went to sleep again. It is thought that when this drunken man comes to his senses he will be shy a set of teeth, a hat and a necktie.

FRENCH SEE PARIS AS COMMERCIAL
CAPITAL OF WORLD

Paris, (by mail).—Paris, as the commercial as well as the intellectual capital of the world, has become one of the first after-war visions of many Frenchmen.

Already the first stroke of the pick has been delivered on the obsolete fortifications that surround the city, and it is feared that unless the Government takes a hand Paris will spread out in ungainly fashion, without provision being made for the establishment in Paris of the nodal point of trans-European railroads; as is believed to be possible.

Albert Milhaud, the well-known publicist, leads a movement to have the whole question of the future of Paris taken up publicly without delay, so that the government may be instructed and enlightened on public opinion with a view to efficient action.

"A year ago," says M. Milhaud, "we were thinking only of the salvation of Paris. Today we are entitled to think of her extension and her splendor."

"Henceforth our capital is the consecrated capital of the west. The glorious denouement of the war entitled her to a brilliant future. Paris, la Grandville is again confronted with the necessity of extending herself and meeting the needs of a new situation."

"Tomorrow, when London and Paris will be the suburbs of one of the other, when relations with Belgium and the Rhenish country are renewed and increased, the least important event will see our streets flooded with human torrents. With business, politics, pleasure, letters and the arts increasing the number of Paris' visitors and inhabitants, we must be ready to meet the demand intelligently and not have to fall back on hasty measures."

"All-around Paris a zone has been maintained unoccupied by buildings for military purposes. If now this ground is cut up and owners are allowed to build haphazard, we shall find these dwellings, factories and shops linking up eventually with the outlying suburbs, and with Paris forming a shapeless mass. Such a conglomeration would form a big obstacle to the communications of the rest of Europe. The east would be blocked from the ocean and the north from the center and south of France; the Channel Tunnel would connect only the Charing Cross station in London and the Gare du Nord in Paris and not England, France and Italy, unless a line were built around the capital, in which case Paris herself would suffer."

"This problem is not one for the municipality but for the government, as it affects the whole question of national development at a time when the Channel Tunnel is about to be built. If Paris rises to the occasion her future is clearly foreshadowed; our capital will become a commercial center where Europe, Northern America and Africa will exchange their goods."

FINAL DRIVE OF WAR COST BELGIANS 20,000.

Paris, May 29.—The final drive against the Germans, from September 28 to November 11 last year, cost the little Belgian army 1,612 officers and 29,056 men killed and wounded. Of this total 853 officers and 8,088 men were killed.

The relatively low proportion of killed and wounded is explained by the fact that most of the fighting was done with rifle and machine gun, which have throughout the war proved less deadly than shellfire. They were found that day fastened to the spire of the tower of the main building at Butler College. Undergraduates of Butler are suspected.

Circle Theater

The advance notices telling of the play were missed to Manchester, N. H. It was learned late today so a description of the play cannot be given. However, it is a big Mutual Production here for a special run.

Tomorrow the management has arranged a holiday bill the like of which has not been shown here in a year. There will be besides the comedies and novelties, a Brady-made World feature called "The Adventurers of Carpi" with Madge Evans playing the lead. It tells the story of the daughter of a wealthy man who runs away from home and is picked up by an organ grinder. There is comedy lots of it and tragedy also in this wonderful picture.

On Saturday the feature of features "The Old Maid's Baby" comes here with Baby Osborne in the stellar role. There will be a Big V Comedy, the Pathe News and another chapter of Pearl White's "Lightning Raiders."

Park Theater

This week in Hartford Henry B. Walthall in "Modern Husbands" is playing the entire week as a special at special prices. Tonight at the Popular Playhouse it will be shown at usual prices together with the new serial, "The Silent Witness," and a news weekly. Here is what you'll see in "Modern Husbands": Society high-jinks in a road-house. A woman-chaser thrown through a second-story window. Walthall in the role of a wronged husband. A striking photographic novelty in a vision scene. The finish of a philandering-forger. A midnight fight in a woman's room. A tea dance with unhappy wives and lounge lizards. And who do you think will be here for tomorrow's holiday bill, "Mickey"? Yes, Mabel Normand in a Goldwyn called "A Perfect 36." Unusually funny situations have their place right at the start in "A Perfect 36," where Miss Normand is Mabel, a boarding house slayer. The jokes she plays on her landlady after she is assigned to the task of papering a wall bring about her discharge. Fortune smiles on her, however, when she is engaged as a traveling waist salesgirl by Sol Manheimer, who conducts a factory in his apartment on the boarding house. She proves no more successful at selling than as a paper hanger and, meeting her sweetheart, O. P. Dildock, at the beach, she accompanies him to the hotel for a dip in the surf. Strange happenings come thick and fast to Mabel at the beach. Her locker is looted of her clothes and her bag and a mile chase by a constable adds to her discomfort. She is caught and accused of a jewel robbery, which later proves to be no robbery, at all but a scheme of a press agent to grab off some publicity. It's in evading the charge that Mabel Normand is at her funniest.

JAPANESE TRIUMPH IN SHANTUNG PROBLEM CLEANEST CUT VICTORY OF CONFERENCE ALLIES PLEDGED TO BACK JAP DEMANDS

The Japanese victory in the Kiaochow fight at the Peace Conference was a direct consequence of the clever work which her diplomats put through while the war was still on. When President Wilson came to take up the question with a very apparent desire to do ample justice to China he found that the Japanese delegates had an armor-plated case for retention of the possessions which she wrested from Germany in the first few months of the war.

The British, French and Italian governments, and the Czar of Russia's government as well, had more than two years since bound themselves to back Japan when the Shantung problem came up for final settlement. More than this, the Chinese themselves were committed to a settlement in Japan's favor, and their contention that they had been bullied into the arrangement by their wily neighbor availed them nothing in view of the fact that all the Great Powers, outside of the United States, came to the conference with their hands tied.

As already cabled, the Peace Treaty merely contains Germany's renunciation of her rights in China and the statement that they revert to Japan. These rights, as conceded to Germany by the Chinese in 1898, are:

1. Lease of ninety-nine years on the two banks of the passage leading to Kiaochow Bay, as well as on the neighboring islands.
2. An inland zone fifty kilometers from the shore for the movements of German troops.
3. Two railroad concessions, one road (completed in 1904) leading to Tsinan and the other running south.
4. Rights over all mineral wealth found within fifteen kilometers of these two railroads.
5. Preferential rights in respect of all loans and industrial activities in the Province of Shantung, which has a population of 40,000,000.

In 1913 and 1914 Germany revised these concessions, giving up some which were unproductive, and obtaining by way of compensation preferential rights over four other projected railroads, which would have extended her grip even beyond the Shantung Province.

By the settlement now arrived at Japan retains all port facilities at Tsingtao and gains two embarkation ports used during the Kiaochow campaign—Wei Hsein and Lunchow—as well as the strategic railroad built by the Japanese across the Shantung Peninsula. In addition, the Japanese receive all commercial concessions, including railroads and mines, formerly leased to the Germans.

The diplomatic documents which enabled the Japanese to secure this triumph, really the cleanest cut victory of the conference, are at one and the same time a tribute to the prescience of her diplomats and evidence of their determination to take advantage of any situation tending to their aggrandisement.

Details of the treaties and understandings which constituted the preparatory work leading to the final successful assault in Paris are given below:

Japan and China—Article I of the treaty signed at Peking on May 25, 1915, says:

"The Chinese government undertakes to recognize all things (toutes les choses) that may be arranged between the Japanese government and the German government, as far as they concern the disposition of all the rights, interests and concessions which, by virtue of treaties or otherwise, Germany possesses vis-a-vis China in the Shantung Province."

The same day the Japanese Minister at Peking and the Chinese Minister for Foreign Affairs exchanged notes, of which the essential passages were:

"If at the conclusion of the present war the Japanese government receives the absolutely free disposition of the leased territory of Kiaochow at a commercial port.

"1. Opening of the whole of Kiaochow as a commercial port.

"2. Establishment of a Japanese concession in any locality designated by the Japanese government.

"3. Establishment, if the Powers so desire, of an international concession.

"4. An arrangement to be made between the Japanese and Chinese governments before the territory is returned concerning the disposition of Germany's public buildings and properties."

This agreement was completed by notes exchanged at Tokio on September 24, 1915, between the Chinese Minister and the Japanese Minister of Foreign Affairs. Under one note, the two countries entered into the following reciprocal arrangements:

- "1. All Japanese troops stationed along the Tsingtao-Tsinan railroad to be concentrated at Tsingtao, except a contingent to be left at Tsinan.
- "2. The Chinese government to police the railroad.
- "3. The expense to China to be paid out of the railroad's revenue.
- "4. Japanese to be employed at the headquarters of the Chinese force at the principal stations and at places where the police are trained.
- "5. Chinese to be employed on the railroad.
- "6. The Tsingtao-Tsinan line to be run as a Sino-Japanese undertaking.
- "7. The present civil administration to be withdrawn."

The same day that Japan and China thus instituted a new regime for the German-built railroad, the Japanese government accepted a Chinese offer that Japanese capitalists should build railroads previously conceded to Germany. In this way, two weeks before Germany demanded an armistice, China, who had been in the war for one year, was led into negotiations conducted on the basis of the 1915 agreement, under which she ceded Germany's rights to Japan. The other powers of the Entente had similarly committed themselves, as is shown below.

Japan and Great Britain.—On February 16, 1917, the British Ambassador wrote to the Japanese Minister of Foreign Affairs:

"His Majesty's government accedes with pleasure to the request of the Japanese government requesting an assurance that at the Peace Conference it will support Japanese demands concerning the disposition of German rights in Shantung and the possession of the islands situated north of the equator."

Japan and France.—On March 1, 1917, the French Ambassador wrote to the Japanese Minister of Foreign Affairs:

"The Government of the Republic is disposed to give to the Japanese Government its help in regulating the questions essential for Japan, of Shantung and the German islands in the Pacific situated north of the equator, when the moment comes to negotiate peace." It is also in agreement to support the demands of the Imperial Government applying to the cession of rights which Germany possessed before the war in this Chinese Province and on the islands.

Japan and Russia.—On March 5, 1917, the Russian Ambassador at Tokio wrote to the Japanese Government:

"You can entirely count on the support of the Imperial Government of Russia for the eventual concession to Japan of the rights belonging to Germany in Shantung and the islands occupied by the Japanese forces in the Pacific north of the equator."

Japan and Italy.—On March 23, 1917, the Japanese Ambassador at Rome acquainted the Italian Government with the existence of these three undertakings. The Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs (Baron Sonnino) replied verbally that the Italian Government had no objection to make.

By relying on the strict letter of her previous arrangements with China, countersigned by her allies, Japan was able to obtain all she wanted in this connection in Paris. Although no time limit is fixed she will proceed to make an understanding with China for the execution of the stipulations of May 25, 1915, and September 24, 1915, covering the return of Kiaochow to China. In effect, these stipulations, as outlined above, mean that China will control the city and peninsula as far as local government is concerned, but Japan retains her railroad and mineral rights indefinitely. She has undertaken to demolish the forts.

58 VOTES CHEAT EDITOR OF CHANCE TO "CAN" CHIEF.
Hoopeston, Ill., May 29.—Fifty-eight votes cheated Chester A. Aldrich, editor of a newspaper here, out of his revenge on Chief of Police Bogart.

Aldrich became a candidate for mayor at a recent city election just so he could "can" Bogart. The story dates back two years. Aldrich published an innocent police item in which the chief was referred to. The compositor in setting up the story made "but" read "mult". Bogart took it as a personal insult. He went so far as to visit Aldrich in the latter's sanctum sanctorum. There the two had a nice little dissertation, which ended in several missing teeth and a badly battered vice for Editor Aldrich. Court proceedings followed, but "Bogey" settled out of court, and made a lengthy public apology in Mr. Aldrich's own little newspaper. But Algy didn't want money or apologies. He wanted revenge. So when the election came around he decided to look for it there by announcing himself a candidate for the office of mayor, despite the fact that the Mayor of Hoopeston receives only a dollar a year.

Bogart was "solid" with Aldrich's opponent. The two candidates went to "bat" and Editor Aldrich lost out by just exactly fifty-eight votes.

LOST BANKBOOK CASHED, BANK HELD NOT LIABLE.
Macon, Ga., May 29.—Keep your bankbook locked up, for if it is stolen or lost and some imposter gets it and goes to a bank and draws the money out the bank is not liable. Judge H. A. Mathews, of the Bibb County Court, has just so ruled in the case of Mary Wilson vs. the Citizens and Southern Bank of Macon, and his decision has been affirmed by the Court of Appeals. Mary Wilson claimed that some one stole her bank book, went to the bank and withdrew $400, forging her name.

EVERY TOWN IN NATION WANTS GERMAN GUN

Shortage of Artillery is Worrying the Senate Military Affairs Committee.

HUNDREDS OF REQUESTS

From Kiel, Wisconsin, to Berlin, New Hampshire, Every Village Wants Artillery for its Town Hall Lawn.

Washington, May 29.—"Shortage of artillery" was worrying the Senate Military Affairs Committee today. One year ago this committee was concerned over a shortage of artillery for service in France; now it concerns artillery for the "home towns."

Towns Want Guns.
Hundreds of bills directing the Secretary of War to contribute German artillery to as many towns throughout the United States, from Kiel, Wisconsin, to Berlin, New Hampshire, have been introduced in the Senate, as well as in the House. Senators and Representatives are being besieged by constituents who want German artillery to decorate the lawn in front of the town hall.

Senator Wadsworth of New York, newly named chairman of the Senate Committee on Military Affairs, believes he has solved the problem. He has proposed to distribute war trophies to the states in proportion to the numbers of men who went in to service from the states.
