LOYD GEORGE PROPOSES TO FIX INDEMNITY AT $25,000,000,000

British Prime Minister Also Favors Modifying French Demands — Italians and Japanese Say They Are Not Interested in Matter— Austrians Anxious to Fin- ish Treaty Work.

Paris, June 3.—President Wilson conferred this morning with every chief expert of the American staff, obtaining their views on the German counter proposals, as well as on the amendments to the peace treaty proposed by Premier Lloyd George. Lloyd George, it was learned, proposes to fix the total German indemnity at $25,000,000,000.

(The treaty handed the Germans set no definite limit to German indemnity payments but exacted an initial payment of $5,000,000,000 before May 21, 1920.)

Modifies French Demand.
The British prime minister further favors modifying the French demands in the Saar Basin to meet some of the German objections, suggests a plebiscite in Silesia and favors granting the Germans more merchant shipping, than the treaty now provides.

The Italians and Japanese have washed their hands of the matter, declaring they are not interested in these features of the German reply.

Arc Vital Questions.
President Wilson has told Lloyd George and Clemenceau that since these questions are most vital to France and Great Britain, they should try to reach an agreement between themselves.

While the President is willing to accept amendments agreeable to both Lloyd George and Clemenceau, he is insisting that whatever is decided must not, mitigate the deserved punishment of the German junkers.

General Botha and General Smutz are both insisting that Lloyd George ask the elimination of the clause in the German treaty calling for the punishment of persons responsible for the war.

Austrians Want to Finish Up.
The Austrians are reported to be most anxious to finish their work of treaty making. They probably will send their reply to the treaty handed them yesterday to Clemenceau not later than the first of next week, sending replies to the financial and reparations clauses later after these have been completed by the Allies.

The council of four met this afternoon in Premier Clemenceau's office in an endeavor to secure an agreement on the details of the final reply to Germany which, it is expected, will be presented not later than Friday.

Clemenceau and Lloyd George conferred last night for more than an hour, but came to no definite understanding on the reply to the German proposals.

Experts O. K. Idea.
Barney Baruch and other American experts told President Wilson today that Lloyd George's proposal to set a definite total of the German indemnity was an excellent idea. It is understood that if concessions are granted in the Saar District Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau will make further demands for changes in frontiers. It is reported that Clemenceau is opposed to considering any concessions to the Germans unless definitely assured that they will sign the treaty. It is probable that measures already have been taken to feel out leaders both at Versailles and in Berlin and the outcome of the negotiations will depend on what is learned.

STIFF PENALTIES FOR REDS.

Washington, June 3.—Severe penalties for anarchistic outrages and propaganda and the display of the red flag were provided in a bill introduced in the Senate this afternoon by Senator Walsh, of Montana.

Walsh also had read the anarchistic proclamation found in the effects of the "red" who bombed Attorney General Palmer's house.

YALE STUDENTS' TRIAL BEGINS IN NEW HAVEN

Result of Recent Riots on Campus Now in the Courts.

SEVERAL HAD WEAPONS

Fines of $25 and $50 Imposed—Reported That Ex-President Taft Will Defend Students.

New Haven, June 3.—The trial of the Yale students arrested by the police as a result of the recent attempts of soldiers and rowdies to storm the Yale campus, was begun in the police court this morning. A constitutional question of the right of the Yale men to carry arms in defense of their dormitories, which are in reality their homes, and their property is to be raised in the cases, it is understood. It was reported that William H. Taft, former President, who is a professor at Yale, had offered to come to the defense of the students if necessary to raise the question of their right to carry weapons on the nights of the recent riots, as a measure of self-defense.

First Case Up.
The first case taken up this morning was that of John S. Perry, who was arrested on a charge of carrying a piece of lead pipe on the night of the riotous attempt to beat up the students.

Fined $25.
The trial of his case occupied almost all the morning session of the court and Judge Caplan who was on the bench fined him $25 and costs. Elliott Watrous, his attorney, asked that the judgment of the court be suspended until tomorrow to permit him to file a brief in the case, in which it is understood he will raise the constitutional question mentioned.

Request was granted.
Hough Discharged.
John D. Hough, of Oak Park, Ill., a Yale Sheffield student, was discharged on a charge of carrying a revolver as it was found that the gun had not been discharged and that he was on the college grounds when arrested.

Clement Fined.
Hugh Clement, of Rutland, Vt., was fined $50 and costs for carrying a revolver which had been fired and because he was on the street and not on the college property when arrested.

Arthur Dwin, of Minneapolis, was fined $10 and costs for carrying concealed weapons, having been found with a piece of picket fence in his possession when arrested.

YOUNG TOWNE'S MOTHER WILL NOT INTERFERE

Will Let Wealthy Son Work in Auto Shop and Provide Home for His Bride.

Detroit, Mich., June 3.—Interviewed at her hotel, Mrs. Fred W. Towne, mother of Joseph Meredith Towne, grandson of Henry Towne, head of Yale and Towne Lock Manufacturing Company at Stamford, Conn., declared that there was no truth in the report that her son had been estranged from his family as a result of his secret marriage with Miss Raven. She said that no announcement of his marriage had been published in his home simply because neither she nor his grandfather had any definite details of the wedding.

"I came to Detroit when I learned Fred was in a Detroit hospital suffering from a severe attack of blood poisoning," said Mrs. Towne.

Asked if the young couple would return to Stamford to live, Mrs. Towne said:

"No, they will not. Since Joseph's ambition was to learn automobile work and since he had chosen to make his own home, and to provide for his bride and himself, his grandfather and I feel that the best thing for the young man was for him to continue in the city of his choice."

EIGHT-HOUR DAY LEADS TO LABOR CRISIS IN FRANCE

More Than 300,000 Men and Women Strike in Paris.

82,000 MINERS QUIT; WANT LARGER WAGES

High Cost of Living the Cause—Five Thousand Department Store Girls Walk Out.

Paris, June 3.—Disputes over the application of the eight hour day principle have led to another labor crisis in France.

Today more than 300,000 men and women are on strike in Paris alone. The strikers are mostly metal workers and men engaged in aviation plants and clothing and shoe workers. Five thousand girls, employed in the Printemps, one of the city's largest department stores, have quit work and are engaged in one of the kind of demonstrations that generally accompanies a strike of Parisian midnettes or shop girls.

In the northern coal fields 82,000 coal miners have quit work.

In every case, in addition to the eight hour day, the workers are demanding big wage increases to meet the high cost of living which is still rising throughout France.

GERMANS FORMING MORE NEW REPUBLICS, REPORT

Placards Posted Saying They Have Been Formed in Hesse and the Palatinate.

Amsterdam, June 3.—Placards announcing the establishment of Republics in Hesse, the Palatinate and the Rhineland have been posted in Hoechst, said a dispatch from that city today. The placards were sent from Weisbaden, provisional capital of the Rhineland Republic, but were unsigned. Later they were torn down by the populace, according to the dispatch. President Dorden, of the Rhineland Republic, was a former lawyer in Berlin and is declared by his opponents to be weak minded.

GERMAN ARMY LEADERS WANTED PEOPLE'S VIEW

Therefore They Sent Circulars About Asking Whether Populace Wanted War, So They Say.

Berlin, June 2, (Via London, June 3.)—The supreme army command, replying to the cabinet's reprimand for having sent broadcast circulars inquiring whether the German people's sentiment is for a resumption of the war, explains that the circulars were the result of numerous telegrams, letters and resolutions received by von Hindenburg, who, therefore desired "an uncolored picture of the situation."

It was reported not long ago that von Hindenburg had appealed to the government to relinquish his command of the army and that he was planning to go to Switzerland to live.

Colonial minister Bell has left Berlin for Versailles to consult with the peace experts.

ORLANDO WEARS STRAW HAT.

Paris, June 3.—Premier Orlando of Italy, is the only delegate to the peace conference who has dared to take a public stand for freedom of the styles.

Every other delegate, President Wilson included, wore a silk hat at St. Germain yesterday when the treaty was handed to the Austrians. It was mighty hot and sultry and streams of perspiration ran down the cheeks of the world statesmen.

Orlando, looking as cool as a cucumber, wore a straw hat.

NATION WIDE BOMB PLOT; EXPLOSIVES WRECK HOMES; BOMBER BLOWN TO BITS

Every Government Agency in U. S. Is Working Today on Bomb Plots

Washington, June 3.—Every government agency is today at work in an attempt to run down the perpetrators of the second nation-wide bomb plot within five weeks. With the May Day conspiracy frustrated by the watchfulness of a clerk in the New York post office, the second, which resulted last night in what

More Than Half Dozen Outrages Reported During Past 24 Hours—Bombs Wreck Homes in Washington, D. C., New York, Boston, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Newtonville, Mass., and Paterson—None of Intended Victims Badly Hurt.

Washington, June 3.—Department of Justice agents today were centering upon Pennsylvania their efforts to run down the perpetrators of the greatest terrorist plot in the history of the nation.

With the home of Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer, himself a Pennsylvanian, shattered by the force of a bomb explosion that blew the perpetrator to bits and showered the cabinet member with broken glass, and with other explosions having occurred in Ohio, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey investigators today were in possession of a series of clues that caused them to believe the Keystone state might be the headquarters of the latest terrorist movement.

Mystery Unsolved.

Although government agents had not yet solved the mystery of the May day plan, when a score of bombs were placed in the New York post office was destined for prominent men in all sections of the country, it is known that a Philadelphia man, said to live on Chestnut street, was then under suspicion. And it has been established beyond doubt, that the man who was killed by the explosion of his own bomb at the Palmer residence, boarded a train at Philadelphia at 6:15 last night. This developed today when the metropolitan police found a conductor's receipt near a portion of the victim's body.

Directed By One Head.

That the planting of bombs in widely separated cities last night and early today was directed by some central organization of anarchists who plan to continue their attempts at assassination until run down by the police, there is no longer any doubt. The text of the circular signed by "anarchist fighters" near the home of Attorney General Palmer is identical with the text of similar anarchist circulars found at the scene of the bomb explosions in Roxbury, Mass., New York, Paterson, New Jersey and other cities.

In Making Known that the search was centering upon Pennsylvania cities, officials recalled that the key- stone state was the home of the "Molly Maguires," the anarchist or- ganization that spread a reign of terror throughout Pennsylvania years ago.

Bomber Killed.

Washington, June 3.—The terrorist who planted the bomb at the home of Attorney General Palmer was himself blown to pieces by the force of the explosion. Fifty feet away from the official's residence was found the remains of a limb and other sections of a body. It was at first believed that the victim might have been some one not connected with the plot; but detectives were soon convinced by the finding of the fragments of a circular, which, when pieced together, read

A Narrow Escape.

The attorney general was today congratulating himself on a remarkable call from death. He was about to retire when the explosion occurred and shortly before had left the place where the bomb had been planted. As it was, the force of the explosion broke windows and shattered the attorney general with glass.

Of Slender Build.

From the bloody remains of the bomber it was judged that he was a swarthy man with dark hair and of slender build. He wore a

BOSTON BOMBERS BUSY TWO HOMES SHATTERED

Residences of Prominent Cit- izens in List of Nation Wide Plot.

NO ONE SERIOUSLY HURT

Judge Hayden Was Out of Town— Representative Powers Escapes But Smaller Daughter Injured.

Boston, June 3.—Vigorous police search was made today for the persons who at midnight planted bombs that tore great holes in the homes of Representative Leland Powers in Newtonville and Judge Albert F. Hayden, justice of the Roxbury municipal court in this city. Polly Powers, four and one half year old daughter of the state representative was cut about the face by flying glass as she slept in her little crib within a few feet of the window. Samuel Powers second, aged one and one half years, slept peacefully during the explosion on the side of the house where the bomb was planted. Mrs. Powers was in the west. Representative Powers was on the other side of the 12-room home and was not hurt. Representative Powers is a son of former congressman Samuel W. Powers, who was senior counsel of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company. The state representative was active in the work of putting an anti-anarchist bill through the legislature, but he pointed out today that it was he who succeeded in modifying the first one proposed.

Judge Hayden Visited.

With a blast that shattered windows in the entire neighborhood the side of the home of Judge Hayden, who sentenced the May Day specialist rioters, was blown in by a bomb.

Judge Hayden and his family escaped, having gone to their summer home in Plymouth Saturday.

Son Not Home.

Two minutes more and Malcolm Hayden, a son of the Judge, who has been sleeping at home, would have been in the wrecked house. He was on his way home and two doors away when the blast occurred.

The bomb, which was one of the shrapnel type, was planted on the front piazza and was evidently set off by a time fuse.

SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT MEETS NO OPPOSITION

Senator Watson Says There is No Need for Lengthy Debates on the Subject.

Washington, June 3.—Without opposition, Senator Watson, of Indiana, brought up the equal suffrage amendment in the Senate this afternoon and planned for consideration until disposed of. Senator Watson stated that he believed "there would be no need for lengthy debate." Senator Harrison, of Mississippi immediately introduced an amendment providing that suffrage be granted only to white women, and demanded a vote.

MAN AND WOMAN BLOWN TO BITS BY EXPLOSION

Man is Supposed to Have Been One Who Placed the Explosive.

JUDGE'S HOME WRECKED

New York, June 3.—A man and a woman were blown to bits by a bomb that wrecked the home of Judge Charles Cooper Nott, Jr., of the court of general sessions early today. Mrs. Nott, who was asleep on the top floor of the four story brownstone house, was not injured and Judge Nott was in Connecticut.

Bomber Blown Up.

The man, fragments of whose body were scattered over half a block, is believed to have been the anarchist who threw the bomb. He is believed to have been killed by a premature explosion. The woman victim was about sixty years old. Apparently she was passing the Nott home in East Sixty First Street, when a large fragment of the brownstone, blown off by the bomb, horribly mangled her body. Inspector Owen Egan of the Bureau of Com-bustibles, announced after several hours investigation that the bomb set off on the steps of the Nott home was the most powerful he had ever dealt with in all his investigations of bomb plots.

Wrecks Building.

The explosion tore out the entire first and second floors of the stone building, carrying down the stairs and leaving Mrs. Nott marooned on the top floor. She escaped to the street by a fire escape.

So powerful was the explosion that a large chunk of human flesh was blown across the street and through a window of the war camp community service building, where many returned soldiers were sleeping. Fronts of other buildings along the street were plastered with bits of human flesh and their windows shattered.

Caretaker Unhurt.

The caretaker at the Nott home, a man named Vorkins, his wife and daughter, were unhurt. Fifteen minutes after the bomb was set off at Judge Nott's residence, the news had been flashed to every policeman in New York city and the search for known anarchists was begun. The police feared that other bomb explosions would be reported before day-break, but no other reports were received.

Judge Nott, it was stated at his home, has seldom been on the bench when cases which might arouse the anger of anarchists were in court. Detectives are working on the theory that the bomb plotters made a mistake and planted the explosive in front of the wrong residence.

The police learned later that the man killed by the bomb was not an anarchist, as was at first supposed, but was a watchman named Boehner, employed by a private detective agency. It is believed he saw the bomb on the steps of Judge Nott's home and was examining it when it exploded. The bomb was charged with between eight and ten sticks of dynamite, Inspector Egan announced.

"CLASS WAR IS NOW ON," SAYS "RED'S" CIRCULAR

Copy of Same Document Found Wherever Bombs Were Placed— A Wild Appeal.

Boston, June 3.—A copy of a circular found near the bombed home of Judge Albert F. Hayden is said by officials to be the same as discovered in other cities. It was signed the "anarchist fighters" and was printed on red paper. The copy of the circular measured 11 inches long and 7 inches wide. The circular is headed "plain words" and reads

Class War On.

"A time has come when the social questions solution can be delayed no longer; class war is on and cannot cease but with a complete victory for the International proletariat. The challenge is an old one.

"Oh, Democratic Lodge of the Automatic Republic, we have been dreaming of freedom, we have talked of liberty, we have aspired to a better world; and you jalled us. You clubbed us, you deported us, you murdered us whenever you could.

"Now that the great war, waged to replenish your purses and build a pedestal to your saints, is over, nothing better can you do to the power of the murderous institutions you created for your exclusive defense against the working multitudes rising to a more human conception of life.

"The jails, the dungeons you rear, are now replenished with languishing, conscientious workers; and never satisfied, you increased their number every day.

"The Voice of Dynamite."

"It is history of yesterday that your gunmen were shooting and murdering unarmed masses by the wholesale; it has been the history of every day in your regime, and now our prospects are even worse. Do not expect us to sit down and pray and cry. We accept your challenge and mean to stick to our war duties. We know that all you do is for your defense as a class; we know that the proletariat has the same right to protect itself, since their press has been suffocated, their mouths muzzled; we mean to speak for them, the voice of dynamite through the mouth of guns.

"Do not say we are acting cowardly because we keep in hiding, do not say it is abominable; it is war, class war, and you were the first to wage it under cover of the powerful institutions you called order in the darkness of your laws, behind the guns of your boneheaded slave.

"No liberty to you except but yours; the working people also have a right to freedom and their rights, our own rights, we have set our minds to protect at any price.

To Fight to the Last.

"We are not many, perhaps more than you dream of though, but we collar of well known make with a Chinese laundry mark from which detectives hope to work up a case. His suit, from its tattered remnants, was black, with a green stripe. He wore winter underwear, tan lister socks and a white shirt of poor quality with green and yellow stripes.

Every effort of the secret service, Department of Justice and police headquarters has been centered on identification of the terrorist and guarding against a similar attempt on any other official in the capital.

Bomb Contained Cordite.

Lieutenant S. J. Mabee, U. S. A., who is an authority on explosives, today said the bomb had been packed with cordite, not dynamite. The latter, he said, would not have done the damage done by the bomb. He said a short commercial fuse was employed as a detonator and that its unexpected rapid burning gave the man who placed it no time to get away. Experts from the bureau of mines and from the War Department were endeavoring today to establish the exact attitude of the charge though retarded by the lack of remnants.

Nowhere in Washington is there to be found a group of persons who are more important in public and private life than those gathered in homes near that of Mr. Palmer, and all of these were endangered by the blast.

If Mr. Palmer had been on the first floor of his home, he probably would have been killed as the living rooms in the front was demolished. He went home last night on foot, but is sure he was not followed.

No Fingers or Head Found.

One angle of search for the man remains has been unrewarded. The police have been unable to discover any of his fingers. They are continuing to look for them, believing they might furnish most important evidence through prints or rings. The head has not been found and it is believed it was blown to bits.

Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt, who had returned to his home from a reception just before the explosion, was one of the first to reach the Palmer home.

Amid the leaves and broken branches, which littered the street, it was difficult to locate possible essential items of identification.

Two Revolvers Found.

Early today the police found the butts of two automatic revolvers however, with the maker's numbers intact. Amid the pieces of the suitcase were the shreds of what resembled women's clothing, in which the explosive device was believed to have been wrapped. None of these was productive of any worth while evidence, however.

The downward force of the explosion was so great that it wrecked the section of the Palmer cellar next to the street and burst several water pipes from the street main, flooding the neighborhood.

Same Plotters.

Officials were working today up on the theory that the bomb plot of last night was carried out by those who planned the May-Day terrorism. Balked in the first place in their attempt to get the infernal machines through the mails officials believe that the terrorists redoubling their efforts to carry out their plans, put the bombs in the hands of trusted agents. Whether these agents were dispatched from a central point, or whether they were local representatives of the radical element suspected, was a question that, was puzzling the government agents working on the case. The fact that the bombs were planted in widely separated sections of the country and almost simultaneously, convinced investigators that instructions were issued from a centrally located "nest." Consequently, the plan of detectives was to concentrate upon efforts to locate this headquarters.

Perfect Organization.

At any rate, it was certain that investigators had to deal with the most perfectly organized and strongest, anarchist conspiracy ever conceived in the history of the country. And while officials were inclined to credit both plots to the same source, they were puzzled by the fact that up to the present time those who were marked in the May Day plot were omitted from last night's program.

Although several times it was reported that arrests were about to be made in connection with the May Day Terrorists movement, it developed today that government investigators were practically as far away from a solution as they were on the day following the outrage. And up to the present time the clues that were left in the second plot were seemingly not as productive as those which were available immediately following the May Day conspiracy.

BOMB IN PATERSON.

Paterson, N. J., June 3.—A bomb early today badly damaged a building occupied by I. Cohen and M. Morris and their families and also did damage to the house next door, owned by Max Gold, silk manufacturer. No one was injured.

John Fitzgerald, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, lived in one of the damaged buildings until a few weeks ago. It is possible the bomb was intended for him.

"CLASS WAR IS NOW ON," SAYS "RED'S" CIRCULAR

are determined to fight to the last. A man remains buried in your battle till a hostage of the working class is left to the tortures of your police system and will never rest till your fall is complete and the laboring masses have taken possession of all that rightly belongs to them.

"There will have to be bloodshed; we will not dodge; there will have to be murder; we will kill because it is necessary; there will have to be destruction; we will destroy to rid the world of your tyrannical institutions.

"We are ready to do anything and everything to suppress the capitalist class, just as you are doing anything and everything to suppress the proletariat revolution.

Only a Warning.

"Our mutual position is pretty clear. What has been done by us so far is only a warning that there are friends of popular liberty still living; only now we are getting into the fight; and you will have a chance to see what liberty-loving people can do.

"Do not seek to believe that we are the Germans or the devil's paid agents; you know well we are all class conscious men with strong determination and no vulgar liability; and never hope that your cops and your hounds will ever succeed in ridding the country of the anarchistic germ that pulses in our veins. We know how we stand with you and know how to take care of ourselves.

"Besides, you will never get all of us, and we multiply nowadays.

"Just wait and resign your fate, since privilege and riches have turned your head.

AN OUTRAGE AGAINST POOR ASSERTS ROGERS

Representative Declares He Will Fight This "Injustice."

MUNICIPAL ICE PLANT IS THE THING, HE SAYS

Will Present Plan to Board of Selectmen at Next Meeting—Ice Enough on Hand.

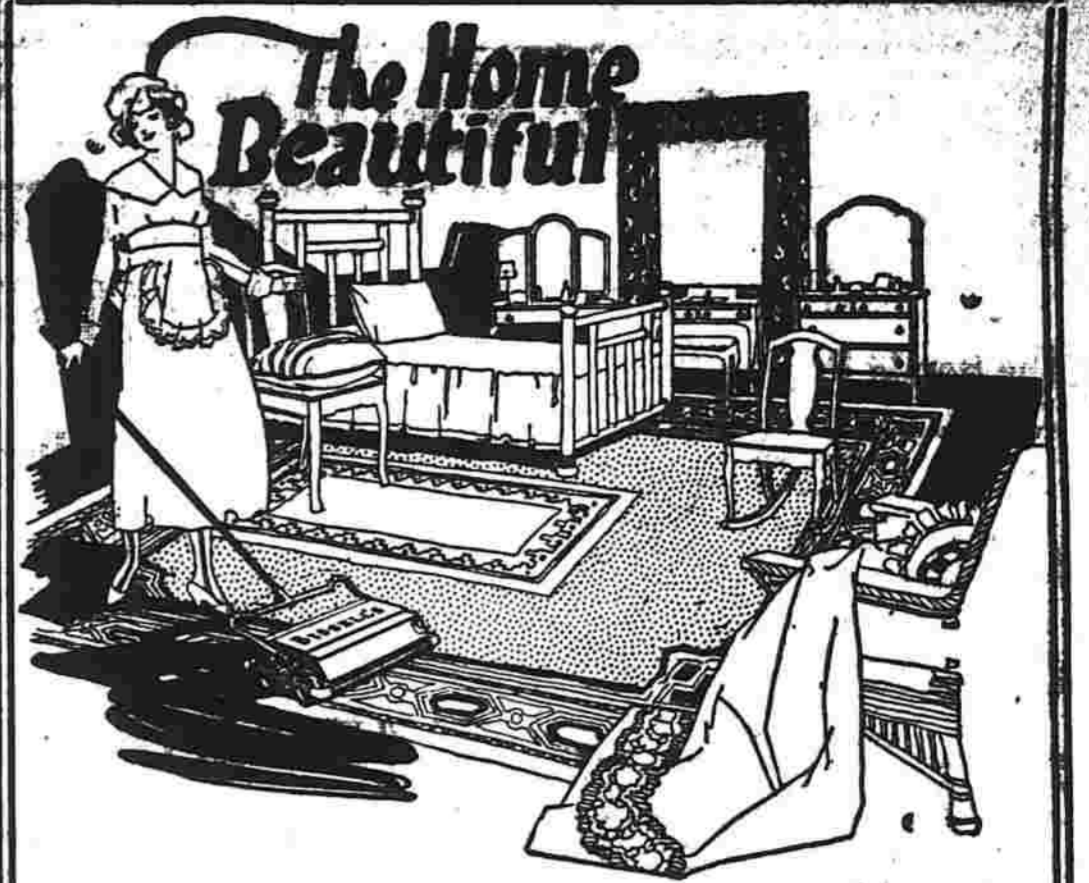

"The setting of a standard price for the consumption of ice in Manchester by two local dealers, who got together recently for an adjustment of a price for this necessary summer commodity that is far beyond the reach of the average workingman's pocket-book, is an outrage and an injustice." This statement was made by Representative Willard B. Rogers last evening. "And the fact that they have prepared a similar schedule and bold facedly announced that they have been forced to do this, makes matters worse," continued the Representative.

"With the supply that they had in their houses together with the quantity harvested last winter, there is absolutely no need for the present scheduled price which is to be charged this summer" says Mr. Rogers. "It simply means that many poor families in Manchester will be forced to go without ice and children and babies will suffer in consequence," he further stated. Mr. Rogers said that he considered it an imposition to the people of the town and that if any grocery concern or manufacturing plant resorted to such methods, they would be halted as being a part of a trust or combine."

For Municipal Ice Plant.

Mr. Rogers says that he will introduce at the next meeting of the board of selectmen, a proposal for the establishment in Manchester of a municipal ice plant with data obtained from cities where plants of this nature are being conducted successfully and at a very small expense. In conclusion Mr. Rogers stated that the prices charged by the local dealers are entirely out of proportion and that steps should be taken to prevent such an increase as has been made.

THE RIGHT WAY.

Deputy Sheriff John F. Sheridan, who has been notified by the selectmen that he must slice a few inches off the front of the Park theater building which he owns, on the ground that the theater projects over the Main street line, comes back with a claim for damages because, he alleges, the town has been turning drainage and surface water upon his land on North Main street for the last twenty years.

Of course Sheriff Sheridan knows as well as anyone that two wrongs do not make one right and that an offense at the north end of the town does not justify one at the south end. Each alleged encroachment on another's rights should be considered on its own merits.

If Sheriff Sheridan has a claim against the town for damaging his property on North Main street, two miles away from his theater, that should be treated as a separate affair. Like the Main street question, it too should be settled right and for all time.

BLOWING HOT AND COLD.

There are, in the Senate of the United States, a certain number of gentlemen who have contracted a professional apprehension which seizes them every time the League of Nations is mentioned.

Such has been the solemn argument of those who would extinguish the brightest gleam of hope that has pierced to this misery shrouded world for the past five years.

And yet Senator Borah, this same communion hating, barrier building touch-me-not Senator Borah, has blandly risen in the Senate and introduced a resolution requesting that the representatives of this country in Paris shall grant a hearing to the representatives of "the people of Ireland."

Thus the statesmanship of Mr. Borah would reject the League of Nations to save us from entangling alliances and precipitate a break with England in order that we might taste the joys of our ancestral isolation.

WEARS TWO PIECE SUIT AS SHE COMES BEFORE JUDGE IN POLICE COURT

Mrs. Sokoliski Helped Her Husband Escape Arrest.

HE IS STILL AT LARGE

Asked Officers to Read Warrant and Then Quickly Obeyed Command from Mrs. S.

Barefooted, with only a black skirt and a corset cover on, Mrs. Annie Sokoliski appeared before Judge Arnott in the police court this morning. The charge against her was resistance of an officer or officers. Mrs. Sokoliski lives in Homestead Park with her husband and family.

The neighbors' chickens were the start of the row. One of the neighbors complained to Prosecuting Attorney Hathaway that he had lost some of his chickens and that when he went to Sokoliski's place to get them he was assaulted by Sokoliski.

Yesterday afternoon Officers Michael Fitzgerald and William McSweeney went to the Sokoliski place to arrest their man. Frank asked the officer if he had a warrant and requested that it be read to him.

Judge Arnott was evidently not pleased at the proceedings and after hearing the evidence decided to continue the case until the officers were able to produce Sokoliski in court.

Sokoliski's Possessions. Sokoliski has a place that contains a small house with at least a half dozen sheds, all connected with the house.

Several foreign families, relieved, who were in need of home service help. Translation of facts which appear on the "Baby Record Cards" issued by the Child Welfare Committee, in Polish and Italian.

BARLOW PLACE SOLD.

W. Howard Barlow has sold his place at the Green to Ward E. Duffy of the Evening Herald editorial staff. Mr. Duffy has just resumed his duties on the paper after two years of service as lieutenant in the field artillery.

The property included in the transfer is one of the most attractive dwellings at the Green. Besides the dwelling house, a new barn and out-buildings, there are four acres of land with a frontage of 400 feet on the state road and trolley line, and an abundance of fruit trees and shrubbery.

AMERICANIZATION WORK COVERS A WIDE FIELD

Committee Has Numerous Interesting Meetings For Foreign Born.

NEED MORE TEACHERS

Progress is Delayed by Lack of Instructors—Many Have Learned to Read in Few Months.

A very brief summary of the work of the Committee of Americanization of Manchester from January 1, 1919 to May 1 appears below.

It has been the effort of the Director, in accordance with the wishes of the Committee, to collect information, make personal investigations, and try to discover the best avenues of approach to the problems of Americanizing the foreign-born of the town.

"A Lobby Program" of Italian music given at the Recreation building, by invitation of Miss Tinker.

An Americanization lecture in High School Hall given by Father Murray of Hartford.

An effort made to procure a Night Court for naturalization. This, however, cannot be accomplished without an act of legislation.

Co-operation of foreign-born in Roosevelt Memorial Sunday service. An address to the Lithuanians, by invitation, at their society meeting.

A talk on Americanization at Center Church. Entertainment, "The Melting Pot."

Social evening at Recreation building for mixed crowd. Meeting of Polish at their hall in joint honor of Lincoln and Kosciusko.

Demonstration classes conducted by Mr. Samuel Brown of Hartford. Italian Benefit at Circle Theater.

Lecture on "American Ideals" by Prof. Phye, of Hartford. Talk on "Naturalization" by Mr. W. S. Hyde.

Demonstration of Fire System in High School Hall, by Mr. L. N. Heebner.

Band concert and dance, by the American Band of Manchester. Organization and supervision of classes in English.

A great quantity of foreign translation connected with the various activities, handled through the Director.

Special assistance given to nine declarants for citizenship who faced peculiar difficulties.

Publicity kept up. Translation of facts which appear on the "Baby Record Cards" issued by the Child Welfare Committee, in Polish and Italian.

Over fifty personal calls. F. Domato Gave Rooms. In mentioning the class work, it should be stated that at Homestead Park, two rooms were offered by Frank Domato, who runs a store there, equipment was volunteered by the W. C. T. U., the Methodist church and the Ninth School district, and a school established in the heart of a real foreign colony.

The Washington School, never before used for evening school purposes, was used to bring class advantages nearer to the neighborhood of people who had found it inconvenient to walk so far as the High School.

All classes were taught by volunteer teachers, thirty-eight in number, reaching about one hundred and fifty people.

Not Enough Teachers. The popularity of the "Home Class" movement is attested by the wide publicity given to it by the foreign people themselves, and by the fact that the demand for teachers for such classes exceeded the supply.

One of the sources quoted in the statement was B. T. Mostowski, recently returned from Paris, where he served on the committee on public information.

"BARNUM WAS RIGHT." St. Louis, Mo., June 3.—Convinced that Barnum was right, William H. Knights has departed for his home in Wichita, Kan., without his $50 watch and $11.

He met a "nice" stranger at Union Station, who in turn met a "stranger" and they started matching coins.

life point of view of the teachers themselves and no better expression can be given than to quote from the words of one of them

"In conclusion, would say that we feel that we may have created a little better understanding with these people, and as for ourselves we know that we have put into our lives a broader spirit and a more intelligent appreciation of those, who after all, are just as human and as capable of well-doing as ourselves, if only taught the true American spirit. We also realize that the future of this nation will be determined to no small degree, by the efforts we may make to "Americanize" and imbue these people with the high principles for which this country stands."

DIPLOMAS PRESENTED.

Pupils who attended the Americanization school at Frank Damato's store in the Homestead Park section of town, were presented with diplomas last evening. The teachers, Joseph Wright and Will Asimus, who have been teaching the foreigners English for the past ten weeks, made the presentation.

It is probable that the Homestead Park students made greater efforts to learn English and the customs of America than the students of any of the schools in town.

There were about 18 students at the school. In several instances pupils who were totally illiterate were taught to read and write during the ten weeks.

JEWS SAY PADEREWSKI IS WRONG—GIVE DATES OF POGROMS IN POLAND

Committee Discloses Facts Concerning Anti-Jewish Demonstrations.

55 ARE SLAIN AT VILNA

Claim to Have Complete Proof That New Republic is Not Granting Liberty to All.

New York City, June 3.—The recently-published statement by Ignace Jan Paderewski, premier of Poland, that no anti-Jewish pogroms have occurred in Poland under his premiership, was vigorously denied in a statement issued here by the committee for the defense of the Jews in Poland, of which Nathan Straus is chairman. The statement enumerated dates, places and in many cases names of Jews who were declared to have been slain in pogroms, asserting that incontrovertible proof of the instances cited had been obtained.

"Shall we assume", it inquires, "that Mr. Paderewski does not know what is going on in his own country? In that case, it was his duty to investigate the reports to stop the hideous atrocities which cover his administration with shame. If, however, Mr. Paderewski prefers to cover up the unspeakable ugliness of organized crimes with phrases and excuses, these are too flimsy to conceal the truth."

The Vilna Disorders.

The statement begins with a recital of disorders at Vilna, where, it is asserted, at least 55 Jews are known to have been slain in pogroms. Answering Mr. Paderewski's statement that most of the Jews slain in Vilna were bolsheviks and that only a few innocent Jews were killed by stray bullets, the statement declares that all of the murders enumerated were committed deliberately, after the bolsheviks had been dispersed, and that they were accompanied by looting of Jewish shops and homes, in which Polish troops as well as civilians participated.

Other pogroms, concerning which authentic proof has been obtained, the statement continues, occurred at Pinsk and in many Galician towns including Zestow, Stryzan, Nebilow, Ksiazewilki, Kolbuzow, Strzyzow, Suticz, Wysoko and Linku. The town of Jolowa, it is asserted, suffered eight successive pogroms.

In all these cases, says the statement, Polish troops participated in murders and looting and in the meantime the Polish press conducted a vigorous anti-Jewish propaganda.

One of the sources quoted in the statement was B. T. Mostowski, recently returned from Paris, where he served on the committee on public information. He declared that "stories published in American papers about Jewish massacres in Poland have all been verified by eye-witnesses and are admitted by the best informed circles in Paris to be accurate."

WHEN HEINIE BEAT WIFE YANKS GET IN GAME, BUT FRAU WINS.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 3.—A handful of Doughboys of the Eighteenth Field Artillery are undecided whether it is very gallant to chastise a haughty Heinie for beating his hausfrau. Still, when Heinie came home and in deep bass voice brought down wrath upon one poor, defenseless but stout German woman, and began to let his fists fly, the Doughboys, writes Mechanic Albert E. Clark, decided something must be done.

Still it was a delicate matter, even in Germany, for a man to be disturbed in his domestic happiness, but it was decided the "ferocious mustache," described as a "bird" and taught to stand up around his eyes "after sixteen years' training," must come off the irate husband.

The Doughboys went to the house, caught the "overbearing stiff," whom "nobody liked" sheared his facial adornment with dull scissors "in sixteen seconds," but what did Mrs. Heinie do while the frightened and trembling husband slunk away? "You should have seen that woman rave," said Clark. "What did she care because her Heinie had been affectionately knocking her down and kicking her? Somebody had insulted her Heinie and somebody sure had to pay. Man, she rolled up her sleeves and entered the fray for a woman's rights. Jack Dempsey could have got pointers on speed that would have given Jess Willard shell shock. Say, that woman's verbal barrage was worse than her artillery. We fled to the American trench. I don't know where the husband is, but I want to say that woman still holds her trench."

NOVEL FIFTH LOAN RECORD.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 3.—One of the unique features of the Victory Loan campaign here was the convass of Leo G. Aitmayer, who at his own request was commissioned by the Treasury Department to sell not less than 1,000 $50 bonds. It was stipulated by Aitmayer that he would not sell a bond except to a person who had already bought or who had decided not to invest in the fifth loan. His novel plan was given the enthusiastic endorsement of the Treasury officials. His sales were 1,023. He had no assistance.

NC-4 CREW TO BE DECORATED.

London, June 3.—Lieutenant Commander A. C. Read, of the American seaplane NC-4 and his crew may be decorated by King George. It was understood today that when the Prince of Wales meets the American flyers at the luncheon in Parliament building on Thursday he will inform them that the King wishes to see them and discuss the flight. It is believed that the real reason King George wishes to meet the intrepid Yankee aviators is to bestow a fitting decoration upon them.

FACES MURDER CHARGE FOR PART IN SLAYING CAPT. WILLIAM MADDEN

Francis Murphy Will Come Before Superior Court in Hartford.

BENSCHKE CASE ALSO UP

Man Who Attempted Robbery on Oak Street Will Go Before Superior Court.

There are two Manchester cases which will go to trial in the Superior court of this county which opens in Hartford today. Francis Murphy, indicted for murder in the first degree for the killing of Captain William Madden, head of the Cheney Mill police, on the night of January 30 and John Benche, bound over from the local court on the charge of burglary and attempted violence following his unsuccessful attempt to rob a fellow countryman at his boarding place on Oak street last April.

There was one other case from which an appeal was taken from the local court on a non-support charge. George Klotz having taken the appeal. But at the opening of the court this morning, States Attorney Alcorn had this stricken from the docket. This was satisfactory to local court officials as additional evidence not presented at court here seemed to indicate that this was the proper course to pursue.

Murphy, it will be remembered, put up a strenuous battle against extradition proceedings. He was finally brought to this state for trial and bound over for the present session. He is the youngest of the New Jersey gang of gunmen and is unmarried. He is the owner of a large Stutz touring car and although he does not work, he has ample means. Hoboken officials stated that he was a professional gambler.

Murphy became implicated in the murder of Captain Madden when he drove the "investigating car" to Manchester two days previous to the crime. On this trip he was accompanied by Miller. It was Murphy who located the warehouse at the Cheney Mills where the silk was stored as he later testified at a hearing. Palmer Willard, a salesman also testified that Murphy was the man who had asked him in Lockwood's store the direction to East Hampton and also to New Jersey. Murphy disregarded the salesman's instruction however and disappeared in the opposite direction.

Murphy was not in Manchester on the night of the murder as on the evening previous he was arrested in a general round-up in Hoboken. The fact that he plotted in the robbery and murder prompted the Grand Jury, of which Judge William S. Hyde of this town was foreman, to indict him on a charge of murder in the first degree.

George C. Cutley, a New Jersey lawyer who was at the opening of the first trial was not there to represent Klein, Nuess, Bessler, Miller or McDonnell, but to represent Murphy. When he found out that Murphy was not to be tried with his companions he returned to Hoboken. This lawyer will no doubt represent Murphy when the trial opens. The other gunmen who were sentenced to life imprisonment having been found guilty of murder in the second degree, have taken an appeal, action which is still pending.

"FROM AN ECONOMIC VIEW, WOMAN IS AN ACCIDENT."

Pittsburg, Pa., June 3.—Why are women workers paid less than the men and treated worse?
"Woman is simply an accident, economically speaking, in the industrial world," he said. "Honestly, women are less desirable workers in industry than men, not because of any inefficiency, but from their very nature."
"Women are continually marrying out of industry. They are strangers, shopping awhile and going out into homes to rear families. The turnover cost to employers as a result of this constant change is enormous. This turnover cost a steel firm one year $400 in each case. The shifting population makes a turnover cost of 80 per cent among women employees and makes for a lower wage for equal work."

SLIGHTLY SUPERSTITIOUS.

Oklahoma City, Okla., June 3.—"There ain't nobody agoin' to wish no bad luck on me," said J. S. Walley, city dog catcher, when he was asked to kill some cats. "I ain't agoin' to git no seven years bad luck, an' yo' kin kill yo' own cats."

The silver cups are now on exhibition in the show window of John Cairn's store on Main street. A silver cup will be awarded to the best appearing corps in the parade. A beautiful medal will be awarded to the winner of the baton swinging contest.

The parade will start from Orange Hall on East Center street at two o'clock in the afternoon and will proceed down Chestnut street past the mills to Pine street thence to Hartford Road to Main, up Main to East Center street and then counter-march to the Park where the competition will be held.

Dancing in Evening.
In the evening a dance will be held in Orange Hall and admission will be free. Dancing will also be free. The music will be furnished by the Victor orchestra.

WHY ICE WILL BE COSTLY THIS SUMMER

Local Dealers Have Hard Work Figuring Out a Profit at Eighty Cents a Hundred.

Users of ice this summer will have to pay well for the cooling luxury because last winter was so warm that local icemen were unable to harvest more than a small fraction of the usual crop. The price to small domestic consumers has been raised to 80 cents a hundred and will probably have to go higher before long. Berkshire ice costs $6 a ton at the point of shipment. Freight, shrinkage and unloading more than double this price by the time the ice has been placed in the local dealer's ice house. Add the further shrinkage and the cost of peddling the ice to the ice box of the consumer and the profit is insignificant. In fact one iceman, who has kept a close tab on his costs of handling a car of Berkshire ice, figures that he was out of pocket when he had delivered the ice to his customers at 80 cents a hundred.

It is only about once in 20 years that the winter is so warm as to preclude the harvesting of an abundant crop of natural ice in this region. At such times as this an artificial ice plant would be profitable. But artificial ice plants are expensive and must be operated continuously if they are to be made to pay. When there is plenty of natural ice it can be sold cheaper than artificial ice, therefore for about 19 years out of 20 the artificial ice plant would be idle. The only thing for Connecticut people to do at such times as this is to pay the price and console themselves with the thought that what they lose on ice they saved on fuel last winter.

WAR BUREAU TO STAY ON JOB ALL SUMMER

Home Service Department Finds Returning Soldiers Furnish Plenty of Work.

It has been reported that the Manchester War Bureau would close after July 1st. That report is true as far as conducting drives, war gardens and other campaigns are concerned. It does not mean however that the War Bureau is going out of business altogether. Since the soldiers have begun to return home, the Home Service department has been busier than ever, registering the men, filing reports and keeping track of the soldiers' families. There are many soldiers' families yet to be cared for, consequently the Home Service department will continue for the summer, at least. This is a work that must be carried on for an indefinite period, and when the War Bureau finally goes out of existence the task will probably be taken over by some charity organization. No definite action has been taken in regard to the matter as yet.

METHODISTS HERE PLEDGE $4,600 FOR FIVE YEARS

Centenary Fund Still Below Standard Set—May Draft Rev. G. G. Scrivener to Boost Work.

Rev. G. G. Scrivener, who has attended a meeting of some 50 or 60 representatives of New England Methodism in Boston reports that it was announced at the meeting in Boston that Methodism had raised 100 of its 105 million dollars toward the Centenary Fund. He also announced that the local church had pledged something like $4,600 a year for five years toward the Centenary Fund, this being a big margin over the top of its quota. Some of the smaller churches, however, have not been able to meet their quotas and at the Boston conference it was decided to use the selective draft and call some of the ministers for special work in helping the weaker churches. Mr. Scrivener said he expected to receive a call today, assigning him to this work for this week and if he doesn't make certain calls, as advertised on the calendar, the people will know the reason why.

STARTS FOR MANCHESTER; GOES TO WILLIMANTIC

William Daust Runs Away From New Haven School and Does His Best To Get Home.

Late Saturday evening Chief of Police Samuel G. Gordon was notified by the Willimantic police headquarters that a Manchester lad had been found wandering around in the Thread City. The lad told the Willimantic police that his name was William Daust and that he had come to the city by train from New Haven. The Thread City chief requested Chief Gordon to conduct an investigation and locate the lad's parents.

Patrolman William Glenney was assigned to the case and returned a half hour later with the information that the youngster's parents resided on Adams street and that he had run away from a private school in New Haven where he had been sent a few weeks ago. The lad evidently boarded a train in New Haven with the intention of coming here for a visit.

Through some misunderstanding he was carried through to Willimantic. The boy's father left for Willimantic to bring him back home.

MEMBER OF FAMOUS DALTON GANG IS KEEPING SECRET.

Tulsa, Okla., June 3.—Jim Shockey, one of the famous "Dalton Gang," that met their Waterloo in Coffeyville, Kan., years ago, has turned up. In the fight most of the gang were either killed or captured. In a letter to William ("Bill") Tighman, ex-United States Marshal, Shockey gave details of his life following the Coffeyville debacle.

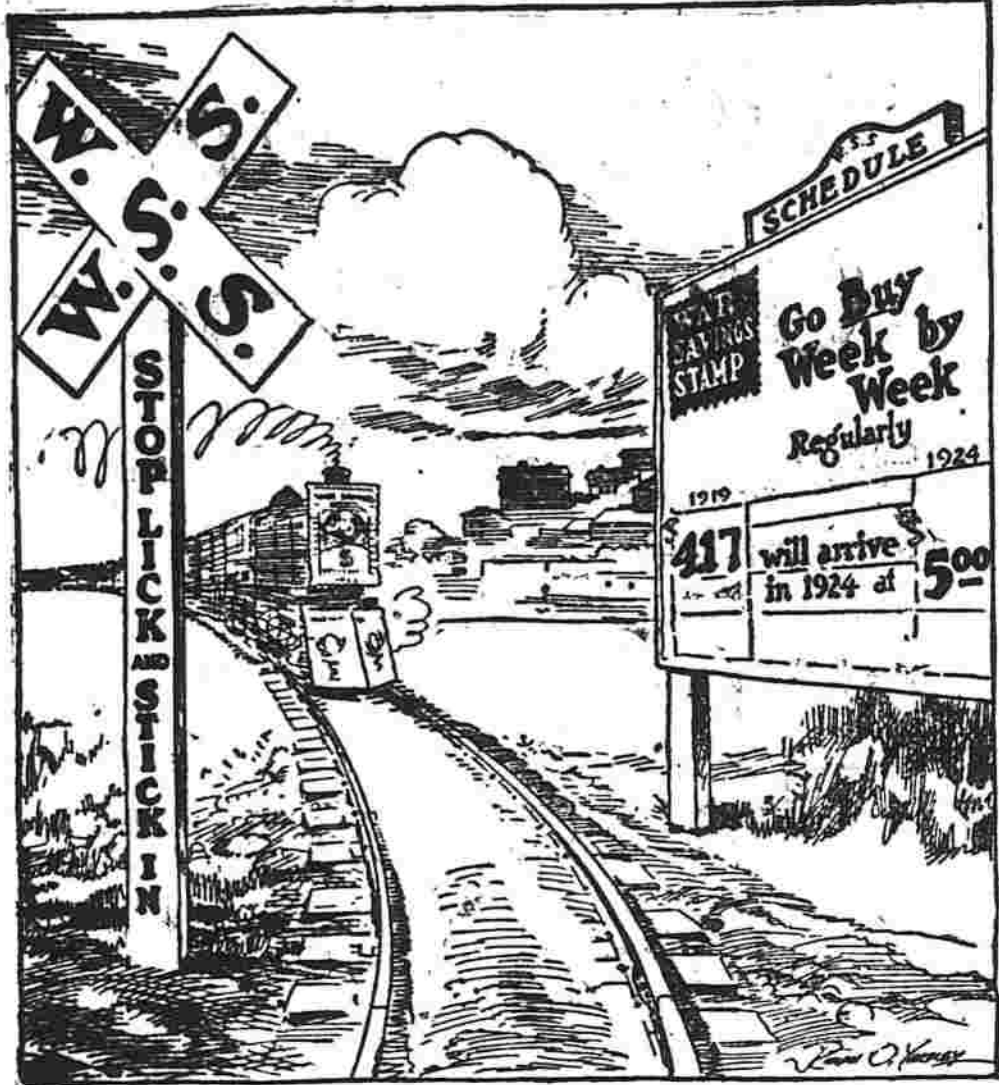

"I was left sick and wounded at the Jane Owen Ranch," the ex-bandit wrote Bill. "When I recovered I changed my name, came to Tulsa and have lived here ever since."
"No one knows me as the outlaw, not even my wife."
"Another famous bandit, a woman—"Rose of Cimarron" as she was known—also is living in Tulsa. She is settled now, with a husband and two children. "Rose and I have met several times, but our secret will be buried with us," he wrote.

Safety First

TRAVEL BY THE W. S. S. AND AVOID FINANCIAL ACCIDENT

THINGS ON WHICH ALL CAN SAVE. Wise Spending the General Basis for Economy.

"No one can lay down a rule of saving which will be effective for other people," says Mrs. F. L. Higginson, New England District Savings Director. "Every one has to settle for himself the question of personal economy. A general basis is wise spending, avoidance of waste, intelligent saving, safe investment. As the British wisely put it, 'begin to save at the point where you have supplied your self with everything needed for efficiency.' The best single suggestion that the Savings Division, or anyone else, can make to the individual is to give a little time to considering what he would do if his income were suddenly reduced by a fixed amount. To answer this, he would have to consider where he could economize if he had to save.

"If all of us took care never to waste anything and not spend foolishly, nearly all of us could probably effect some saving. Most of us do not think enough before we spend. 'Think before you buy and you will have more for your money.' This means a greater return for your work and more money left for thought. As quoted from an English authority—'Most of us could reduce our consumption of food without impairing our health or efficiency. We could travel less often for pleasure or to save ourselves trouble, or could obtain equal pleasure from less expensive trips. We could walk to our places of business instead of taking a tram to go half a mile.' All of which translated into American phrasing means that the average individual can by logical economy purchase additional War Savings Stamps and at the same time actually add to his health, personal efficiency and happiness."

REAL MONEY TALKS.

A Manufacturer Makes An Ingenious Display.

Realizing that interest tables are apt to be dry stuff, and that people are more easily interested in an exhibit of real money than by a display of figures a manufacturer who seeks to promote habits of thrift among his employees, arranged an ingenious display in the cafeteria of his factory. Behind a glass frame were sixteen quarters, a dime and two pennies, under the legend "Today." An arrow pointed from this money to another legend, "New Year's Day, 1924," with exactly sixteen quarters, a dime and two cents. Underneath the first arrangement of coins were sixteen Thrift Stamps, with a dime and two cents, then an equal mark, followed by a War Savings Stamp, and an arrow pointed to a $5 bill under the coins on the opposite side.

"This was indeed a graphic way," says Mrs. F. L. Higginson, Savings Director for New England, "of showing that $4.13 in itself would not grow at all during five years, whereas invested in Thrift Stamps it will earn nearly another dollar."

The cornerstone of tomorrow's success is founded upon today's thrift. Any postman can lay the cornerstone for you with War Savings Stamps.

Some one is saving what you spend foolishly. Who is depositing your dollars? Invest them in W. S. S. and save them for yourself.

Keep on Saving

200 War Savings Stamps bought this year will be $1,000 in 1924 for that new office equipment, new car, postgraduate course in a specialty, payment toward a home, for the youngsters' education, or against a rainy day. 100 Stamps now will be $500 then, for advancement or protection; and 50 will be $250. Fix your own mark of your needs or desires and get there via W. S. S. W. S. S. pay more than 4 1/4% and are absolutely safe and convenient investments for the busy man or woman.

Put Your Family on Safety Lane

ONE WAR WORKER TO COMPANY

A. E. F. stock-taking finds Y. M. C. A. alone averages secretary to every 170 men.

Paris, May.—Although the tumult and the shouting have died over here, and the captains, having assisted in effecting the exit of the kings, are themselves beginning to depart, the American program of war with the A. E. F. "carries on" with increased resources and effectiveness.

The other day the A. E. F. took stock of the agencies from the home-land that are serving the doughboy. The stock-taking was preliminary to the newly instituted General Headquarters program for co-ordinating the work of these agencies to the best advantage of the men. And the results are illuminating.

With approximately 1,500,000 doughboys still in France and occupied Germany, there is now one American war worker over here for every 150 men and one but operated by an American war work organization for every 900 men.

The totals as given in the resume for all the war agencies, exclusive of the American Red Cross, are 9,618 men and women workers and 1,856 huts. Of the total number of workers, 8,350 are representatives of the Young Men's Christian Association, leaving the overseas war work strength of all other organizations at 1,268. Of the total number of huts, 1,507 are operated by the Y. M. C. A. and the remainder, 140, by all other war work agencies.

Incidentally the stock taking showed that everyone of the American agencies has increased its personnel in the five months since the signing of the armistice—the Y. M. C. A., for instance, having added 726 workers to its strength. This increase is attributed to the recognition, both by the military authorities and by the executives of the various agencies, of an increased need for war work among the men, now that the concentration upon the objective of victory has been eliminated and eagerness to get back home is intensified, with weeks and even months of waiting ahead.

With these resources at hand the General Staff of the A. E. F. has undertaken to supervise and regulate the service given to soldiers by the auxiliary organizations. General welfare officers are to be appointed, one to each combat division, each similar unit of the Service of Supplies and each higher headquarters. Their duties will be to supervise athletic and amusement programs; determine the proper disposition of huts, restaurants and entertainment halls; recommend readjustments where recreational facilities are in adequate or where there is duplication of effort, and to notify war work agencies of the locations of all units. They will decide whether there are too many or too few war workers in their territories and, where necessary, will obtain details of non-commissioned officers and men to aid the war workers.

The welfare officers will have jurisdiction over free distribution of food and supplies by the various war work organizations. Indiscriminate giving away will be discouraged, and free distribution will only be countenanced when ordinary comforts and facilities for the men are not available, especially for sick and wounded and for troops in transit or otherwise separated from the usual source of supply.

The Y. M. C. A., which is operating 1,600 huts in France, is said to have expended half the amount which will be available to it for use in France. It has operated the canteen service at a loss. With the army taking over the canteen service, however, the expenses of the Y. M. C. A. will be reduced.

Some idea of the expenditure made for war work in the period which passed with the institution of the program of co-ordination is shown in the record of the Y. M. C. A. This organization had invested $4,500,000 in overseas huts and their equipment up to the first of the year, with an average maintenance cost of more than $1,000 a month. It gave away in combat areas, from last May to the end of November, goods valued at more than $700,000 and its Christmas gifts to the doughboys last year represented a value of more than half a million.

Its loss in the operation of canteens, done on borrowed capital, was $600,000. It has expended $1,750,000 for sporting goods for free use of the soldiers. It has leased and operated 37 chocolate and biscuit factories and seven sawmills in France to meet the needs of the war. It has distributed more than $2,000,000 worth of books, literature and Bibles, free to the soldiers. The entertainment bill of the Y. M. C. A. overseas for the last six months had increased to $400,000 a month in February. In three months after the signing of the armistice it gave 11,381 moving picture presentations, representing an aggregate of 55,085,000 feet of film. Incidentally, the Y. M. C. A. had transmitted free of charge for the soldiers up to April 5 of this year, $12,316 remittances to the value of $12,627,797.65.

SAYS HE CANNOT TELL FACTS OF FATAL FLIGHT

Lieut. Roulett Declares Army Order Seals His Mouth Regarding New Haven Tragedy.

New Haven, June 2.—Lieutenant John Roulett, commander of the squad of Curtiss biplanes, two of which collided over Yale Field yesterday causing the death of Lieutenant Melvin B. Kelleher, of Franklin, Ind., and Corporal Joseph Katzman of Brooklyn, appeared before Colonel Mix today and declined to furnish any information concerning the collision on the ground that an army order issued last February prohibited him from doing so. The colonel, took his statement and was advised by Lieutenant Roulett that all information would be furnished him by Colonel Archie Miller, in charge of the Mineola Aviation Field from whence the machines came. Colonel Mix turned over to Lieutenant Roulett the personal effects of the two dead aviators which he took into his possession following the accident and issued the death certificate for the removal of the bodies to their homes.

BOYS, HERE'S YOUR CHANCE.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 3.—Providing there are enough modern George Washingtons in Cleveland the city is going to get a lot of trees planted. City Forester Hyatt has ruled that any boy who damages a tree must spend two vacation days planting trees for the Park Department. But he is at sea as to how he is going to locate the offenders unless "they cannot tell a lie."

WOMEN REPAIR ROADS.

Atlantic, Iowa, June 3.—Disrupted at the condition of the highway in front of their houses, which had not been repaired for months, Mrs. G. De Witt and Mrs. J. R. Railsbeck, wives of well-known farmers of Griswold, repaired the roads themselves. Many automobiles and trucks were mired in the road in front of the two homes. The women procured planks and a couple of shovels, and going to the mudhole threw the planks in the hole and covered them with fresh dirt. The road is now passable.

GOBBLER ATTACKS AUTO.

Danville, Pa., June 3.—Prof. Frank W. Magruder drove his new highly-polished automobile out into the country the first day after receiving it and stopped along the road to chat with a farmer friend. Unstrutted a fine turkey gobbler, which caught a glimpse of its reflection in the polished sides of the machine. The bird immediately challenged the newcomer and with beak and claws flew at the car. The old bird fought until it was exhausted and the side of the auto was a wreck.

PETROGRAD CAPTURED(?)

Christiania, June 3.—Petrograd has been captured by the Estonians and the Finns, according to an unconfirmed report received by the newspaper Tidens Tegn from Vardoe today. It had previously been reported that the Finns and Estonians had driven the Bolshevik defenders from Petrograd but the report proved premature.

Happy Jack in School

Do you know Happy Jack? Of course you do, for he is the children's patron of thrift; but that need not deter any grown-up from becoming a Happy Jack member, for even President Wilson is one, and proud of the distinction.

"Happy Jack is represented by a keen-eyed squirrel with the cutest of red coats, and the wise sayings he puts forth are worth heeding. He is well established in the New England schools, where besides teaching thrift, which is his specialty, he dispenses a sunshiny spirit that is infectious.

Thornton W. Burgess, author of the Bedtime Stories which are the delight of the young folks, is the creator of Happy Jack, and he sent the above photograph to the War Savings Division in Boston. Mr. Burgess received it from Mr. Chace, the superintendent of schools of Beverly, Mass. It was originated by Miss Lucy Larcom—hasn't that name a familiar ring?—and is used in a school in Beverly to increase interest in the Happy Jack clubs.

Happy Jack Squirrel is seen seated at a table, in the panel on the front of the big tree. He has a Thrift chest in front of him, and a couple of frisky fellows are climbing the ladder to add their mite, while other Happy Jacks are scurrying through the forest in the same direction.

This is the spirit of the Happy Jack clubs. In the school referred to, as each pupil joins a squirrel is added to the picture, bearing the initials of the new member.

Mr. Chace writes: "Our children have enjoyed your Happy Jack Thrift Club very much, and the plan has resulted in the saving of hundreds of dollars in Thrift and War Savings stamps, which otherwise would have been more or less wasted."

SAVING AND HAVING.

An Old Fable Applied to Present Conditions.

Save and have! Remember the story of the ant and grasshopper? The ant worked and saved. The end of each day found him with a little more added to what he had the day before. The grasshopper danced and sang and fiddled his time away. Winter came; the ant had plenty. The grasshopper had nothing; he had not saved. He went to the ant and asked for help. Said the ant: "While I worked, you fooled your time away. You can dance now for all I care."

Are you an ant-person or a grasshopper-person? Some time are you going to have to ask for help and will someone tell you to dance, or will you be independent? If you save now, you'll have later on. Let the end of every week find more Thrift Stamps on your card. At the end of every month be able to show more War Savings Stamps pasted on your certificate. Buy 1919 War Savings Stamps. Lend your money to the Government at four per cent interest, compounded quarterly, and see it grow. Take stock of yourself! What are you worth? Will next New Year's day find you worth more or less? Which will you be; an ant or a grasshopper? Save and have!

MY FIRST THRIFT STAMP.

By Ruth Blank, William Lloyd Garrison School, Boston. [10 years old.]

One day last summer my sister wanted to go in town. She couldn't go on account of the baby. I asked her if I might take care of him. "Yes, you can take care of him," she said. So she went in town and I took care for a while. But half an hour later he got cross. Seeing how cross he was I put him to sleep. I started to sew when my sister came in. She asked me where the baby was. I said, "He got cross so I put him to sleep." My sister was delighted that he was asleep for he didn't like to sleep in the afternoon. She gave me twenty-five cents for taking care of him. The clock struck four and I had to go home. When I passed by the postoffice I said to myself, "I am going to buy a Thrift Stamp. I don't know what twenty-five cents will do, but all my friends are buying them." So I went into the postoffice and asked the clerk what Thrift Stamps are for. He told me about everything. So I got a Thrift Stamp, which was my first one.

On my way home I met my brother. When he saw the Thrift card he said, "What is that?" I told him that it was a Thrift Stamp and that it was to help the boys a little. When I said that he went into the postoffice and got a stamp also. After that we kept on saving and were very happy.

"CAN I BE CURED?" SAYS THE SUFFERER

How often have you heard that sad cry from the victims of disease. Perhaps the disorder has gone too far for help, but often it is just in its first stages and the pains and aches are only nature's first cries for help. Do not despair. Find out the cause and give nature all the help you can and she will repay you with health. Look after the kidneys. The kidneys are the most overworked organs of the human body, and when they fail in their work of filtering and throwing off the poison that constantly accumulates in the system, everything goes wrong. GOLD MEDAL Haerlem Oil Capsules will give almost immediate relief from kidney and bladder troubles and their kindred ailments. They will free your body from pain in short order. But be sure to get GOLD MEDAL. Look for the name on every box. In three sizes, sealed packages. Money refunded if they do not help you.

PURELY SOCIAL GOVERNMENT MAY REPLACE EBERT-SCHNEIDEMANN COMBINE IN GERMANY

Paris, (by mail).—What form of government Germany will have after the peace is signed is one of the most interesting and vital problems of Europe. It is generally felt that the Ebert-Scheidemann combination will not last. According to Hugo Haase, the president of the Independent Socialist party, it will soon be replaced by a purely Socialist government.

organ, the Freiheit, has a circulation of 170,000, which is certainly more than the Vorwaerts' circulation, and when we get sufficient paper the Freiheit will sell 50,000 more. Before the revolution of November the Independents had only eight dailies in the provinces. Now they have thirty-four flourishing in the various big industrial centers.

NORTH-END PLAYHOUSE PLANNED BY T. C. HARDIE

Will Be Built on Sheridan Tract—Thinks There Is Need of Another Amusement Place.

A handsome playhouse of modern construction is promised for the north end in the near future by Thomas C. Hardie, who recently purchased through the agency of Robert E. Carney what is known as the Hartman property, and who also bought the vacant site on the corner of North Main and North School streets from John F. Sheridan.

It is on the Sheridan tract that Mr. Hardie intends to erect the playhouse. The north end has at the present time a small movie theater which is located in what is known as Turn Hall on North street.

Mr. Hardie is of the opinion that a playhouse in the north end would be a paying proposition and that the population is large enough to insure satisfactory box office returns. He has just completed the construction of a dance hall and bowling alley at Sound View. He has also leased, and will operate this season, a movie house at this summer resort.

BOLTON

Mrs. Frederick H. Phelps of Windsor was in town last week for a few days looking after her cottage at the Center.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank R. Abbott are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, their third, last Saturday at the St. Francis Hospital, Hartford.

Miss Anna Hebenstret is soon to return to her home in East Hartford after several weeks' stay in town.

William B. Trowbridge of Hartford, formerly of Bolton, was a recent visitor in Willimantic.

Charles McBride of Manchester was a week end visitor at the home of R. Kneeland Jones.

TAGGING THE BASES

Cecil Algernon Causey's string of seven victories remains unbroken, not because he won yesterday, but because he got out quick enough to permit Poll Perritt to save the day.

While the Yankees were walloping the Athletics, Ping Bodie, four times up, coached out a single, a double and two homers. In the opening game, Bodie only drew down a single and a double.

Shawkey is packing horseshoes in his pocket. He finished three games against the Senators and as the Yankees won, Bog gets credit for each of them. He added a fourth victory yesterday.

Alexander won his first game of the year when the Cubs walloped the Pirates.

While the Tigers were cleaning up the White Sox in a double bill, Bob Veach, the youngster, scored the winning run in the first with a circuit swat and drew two triples in the second encounter.

Stanage and Flagstead also drew homers in the Tiger-White Sox game. While the Dodgers were getting a fifty-fifty break with the Braves, Grimes and Herzog were chased to the showers.

Shaw let the Red Sox down with three hits while Carl Mays got touched for seven and a shut out.

Lavan, playing his first game at short with the Browns, handled four putouts and six assists without the semblance of an error.

"WATER GUN BANDIT" CAUGHT.

Springfield, Ill., June 3.—This city has a "water gun bandit". He is Lee Burton, colored, arrested for holding up persons with an automatic pistol that squirted water instead of bullets. Burton got away with several burglaries while using the toy, witnesses testified.

Park Theater

What and where is the Barbary Coast? To be exact, there are two. The original was the "Coast of the High Barbaree" of old piratical days. The other and more modern, is the underworld of San Francisco.

The Barbary Coast of San Francisco is comparable only with the old Five Points in New York or White-chapel in London. It is, or was—though it is still there as a shadow of its former self—the resort of the worst element of the city.

The new William S. Hart picture, "The Poppy Girl's Husband", which will be shown at the Park theater tonight and tomorrow, is laid partly in this section of San Francisco. It is said to be one of the most dramatic stories ever supplied the star.

This is by far the best feature Hart has ever played in.

Circle Theater

There will be another showing tonight of Peggy Hyland in "The Girl With No Regrets" which made so great a hit last night at the Circle. On the same bill will be a Sunshine Comedy, the Pathe-News and another episode of "The Man of Might."

James Forbes, a young bank cashier of Waterville, was unfortunate enough to get into the toils of Eastern crooks who fleeced him at poker. It is rumored he used money belonging to the bank to make good his losses. However, the crooks were captured in the act of robbing the bank, through the instrumentality of Nora, a waitress who came into town in a box car.

This is a brief synopsis of the plot of "When Do We Eat?" a new picture by C. Gardner Sullivan, starring Enid Bennett and produced by Thomas H. Ince for Paramount.

It will be shown tomorrow at the Circle.

TO ISSUE ULTIMATUM. Paris, June 2.—An ultimatum demanding that the treaty be signed before June 15 will accompany the Allies' rejection of the German counter peace proposals, it was learned today.

A "reasoned" refusal of the German counter terms will be handed to Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the German peace envoys at Versailles by Premier Clemenceau.

BOSTON ELECTRICAL WORKERS PLAN STRIKE.

Boston, June 2.—Unless the State Board of Conciliation and Arbitration shows results there will be a strike of the Boston electrical workers employed by the Western Electric Company this week. The date of the strike will be decided by a committee from Electrical Workers' Union No. 399 after the State Board has been appealed to.

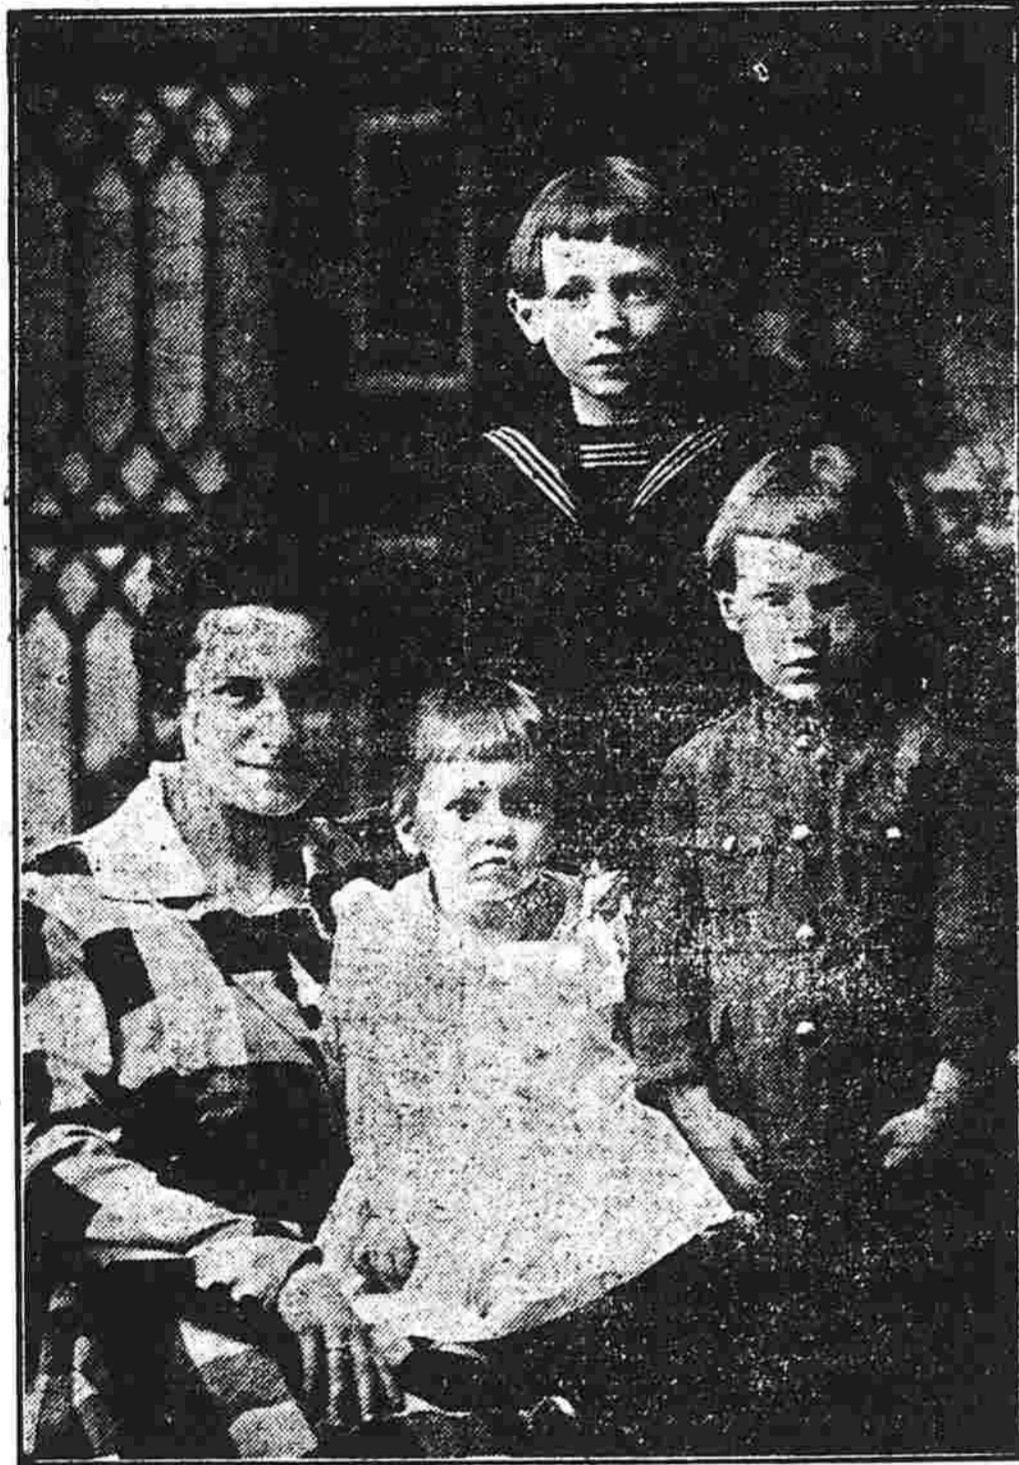

BOY'S CATCH BEAR IN TRAP.

Mariaville, Me., June 2.—Albert and Leslie Frost captured a bear in their trap on the outskirts of this town. The bear was caught by the hind paws and tore the ground about him savagely trying to regain his freedom.

BURGLAR SWOONS WHEN CHASED BY YOUNG GIRL

Ogontz, Pa., June 3.—Awakened when a burglar fell over a piece of furniture in her room, Miss Linde, daughter of a wealthy merchant jumped up and gave chase to the intruder. At the foot of the stairway the man fell, and then, stricken with a fit that the physicians said was of the epileptic type, dropped unconscious to the floor.

Thrift and Opportunity

MRS. L. A. RHEUME AND CHILDREN

Mrs. L. A. Rheume, of 48 Lyman street, Holyoke, Massachusetts, has been buying War Savings Stamps for a year. Early in March she applied at the postoffice to cash what she had—$350. She told the postmaster that her husband, who sells bread, was buying a motor truck for $825 and they needed the money.

Mrs. Rheume is of French descent, and a very capable woman, mother of three little children. She and Mr. Rheume own a small apartment in which they live. She said that because a payment of $850 was due April first, she had to use her stamps for the truck.

DECLARES BRITAIN MUST WIN CONTINENTAL TRADE WITH AIRPLANES.

SINN FEINERS WILL FIGHT.

Dublin, June 2.—"The Sinn Fein organization knows how to continue its fight," declared Prof. De Valera, "President of the Irish Republic," in an address last night.

Prof. de Valera admitted a reverse for the Sinn Feiners in Paris, where they have been trying to secure recognition from the peace conference, but declared that Parliament had no other policy to substitute.

OPERATIONS SUCCESSFUL. BILLS CAUSE SUICIDE.

Hammond Ind., June 3.—Mrs. Charles B. Schoemaker, of Hammond, recently submitted to two operations at a local hospital. When she received the surgeons' bills the size of them shocked her so that she committed suicide by turning on the gas.

EIGHT MILLION LOSS TO U. S. IN WINE REVENUES.

San Francisco, June 2.—The United States Government will lose $8,000,000 annually in revenue on wines in the First District of California, which comprises Northern California and Nevada. These figures were obtained from the local bureau of Internal Revenue. The last collection of revenue on sweet wine for April amounted to $74,000 and has just been received. The tax on brandy used to fortify these wines amounted to $30,000, making a total of $104,000.

STORE 18,000,000 POUNDS. FOOD PRICES STILL HIGH.

Boston, June 2.—Despite that in many cases exorbitant food prices are prevailing today, the cold storage warehouses in this state have reported to the State Department of Health the storage of seventeen and three-quarter million pounds of food during the past month.

HUSBAND IMPRISONED HERE. FIVE WEEKS, ASKS DIVORCE.

Omaha, Neb., June 2.—Alleging she was held a prisoner in her former home at Keystone, Neb., for five weeks, Laura Barns has brought suit for divorce from her husband, Ernest. The couple have eight children, ranging from three to seventeen years.

In July last year, after he had grabbed her by the hair and thrown her out of the house, she returned to the home of her parents here. In April she learned one of her children was sick, so she went to her former home. Her husband made a prisoner of her. He has $2,300 in bank, many horses, cattle, an automobile and some land. She asks $2,500 alimony.

YANKEE DIVISION BOYS STUDY FOR MINISTRY.

Boston, June 2.—Yankee Division boys are studying for the ministry, according to a report given out at army headquarters. In the examination, carried out this week for entrance to the Episcopal ministry it was announced that among those applying were several who had served in the Yankee Division. When Major General Clarence R. Edwards was asked about it he said: "Why, that's natural. If you ever got into a machine-gun nest it would make you pray more than anything else. Many of those boys are turning from mere material things to the spiritual."

INSTALLS "MIRROE" CURTAIN IN LONDON THEATER.

London, June 2.—James M. Barrie has a new hunch for a drop curtain. Believing that London theatergoers may be tired of gazing at drop curtains showing a harlequin waving a wand or a voluptuous maiden lolling by a marble fountain, an immense mirror will be installed as the drop scene at the Little Theater, recently purchased by Albert de Courville, London's premier play producer. The idea is Barrie's.

Portland, Ore., June 2.—For the first time in the history of the butter market on the Pacific Coast an invasion of foreign buyers has been made. Ten carloads of butter are now on their way to England from the coast via New York. Residents here suffered an increase of two cents per pound when the foreign buyers started their bidding.

"SOCIAL ETHICS" LECTURE SWAMPED WITH GIRLS.

Boston, June 2.—At Boston University Dr. Eleanor Bertine announced a lecture to girls who were engaged entitled "Social Ethics."

Girls flocked to the lecture room. Whether they really were engaged mattered little to them. They wanted to hear that lecture. If they weren't engaged they created that impression until:

Dr. Bertine remarked that she knew several of the girls in the audience who were not engaged. That, settled it. Many of the girls got up from their seats and left.

TO COACH INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE.

Fred Weber, a Springfield Y. M. C. A. College man, has been secured to take charge of the west side playgrounds this summer. He will come here next Monday, a few weeks before the opening of the grounds, largely for the purpose of helping in the supervision of the Industrial Baseball League. It is planned to open the playgrounds evenings about the middle of June. The day work at the playgrounds probably will start June 30.

With the exception of the painting, the Army and Navy club is now finished. There has been a delay in this work but it is expected to have it all done by Saturday as the painters have been so busy with other work.

STEAL FLAG FROM GRAVE OF PRIVATE J. M. FINLAY

Vandals Visit East Cemetery and Strip Stars and Stripes From Soldier's Last Resting Place.

Most people prize a silk flag, but one must have something meaner in his mind than the desire for a flag when he will steal the Stars and Stripes from a dead soldier's grave. Such a thing happened, however, in the East cemetery some time since Memorial Day. A flag was placed by other soldiers on the grave of Private James M. Finlay, who died of pneumonia in a southern camp. Sunday evening, two of Private Finlay's sisters went to the grave with some flowers and discovered the theft. The staff was still standing at the head of the grave, but the flag had been taken away.

READ-- IT'S FOR YOU

Yes, we appreciate your business, and that is why we are giving you the special low prices on all glasses fitted in our South Manchester office. Some people wonder how we can do it. It is simple. We do not depend on this office alone. As we fit more glasses in our Hartford office in one week than is sold in the entire town of Manchester in a month. But we want to increase our business in Manchester, and we are doing it. Are you with us? Do you want to save money on your glasses and at the same time get the best at a reasonable price? If so see us any night.

Office Open Every Night Except Saturday from 6:30 to 8:30 P. M.

at Optical Dept. G. Fox & Co during the day.
