PEACE TREATY TO BE READ IN SENATE WITHIN 48 HOURS

This is Prediction Made by Senator Borah Who Says
He Read Text in New York in Hands of Powerful Financial Companies
Several Days Ago.

Washington, June 4.—The text of the peace treaty as submitted to Germany will certainly be read in the Senate and into the Congressional Record within the next 48 hours, if the State Department persists in its refusal to furnish the Senate with a copy of it.

This prediction was made today by Senator Borah, Progressive Republican, of Idaho, who also declared that he possessed indisputable evidence that authentic copies of the peace treaty were in the possession of big business and financial interests in New York City which he defied the State Department to disprove.

Saw Treaty in New York.
"I saw the peace treaty in New York City; I had it in my hands; I had ample opportunity to examine it; I know exactly what it contains; I know exactly how many printed pages it is composed of, how many words approximately it is composed of," was the equally emphatic declaration of Senator Lodge, Republican, of Massachusetts, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and leader of the Senate Majority.

Anti-Leaguers Unite.
The alleged discovery that copies of the peace treaty had reached powerful interests in New York City, while the Senate was still denied an opportunity to peruse it coupled with the statement of acting Secretary of State Polk that probably certain New York financial men through the Paris representatives, had served to solidify the opposition in the Senate to the proposed League of Nations, it was stated by both Republican and Democratic Senators who are avowed anti-Leaguers.

"If New York financial interests were granted the privilege of examining certain financial agreements, surely the Senate is entitled to examine whatever governmental agreements the peace treaty may contain," Senator Borah said.

Can't Suppress Treaty.
"I am sure that another 48 hours will not elapse before the Senate will be able to present the peace treaty to the American people, who certainly have as much right to know exactly what it contains as the German people. I feel confident that the efforts of the Administration to suppress the peace treaty in the United States, while it is being hawked about the streets of Berlin for every German to purchase for a pittance, will not prove successful much longer."

As soon as the pending woman suffrage amendment, was disposed of by the Senate today, which it was expected to be soon after that body reconvened, Senator Johnson, Progressive Republican, of California, planned to again bring up his resolution calling upon the State Department at once to supply the Senate with the treaty.

Despite his announcement that he had seen the treaty, Senator Lodge will adhere to his original decision not to commit himself or the Republican side to any final policy or course, with respect to prospective action on the proposed League of Nations until the Senate has received the complete official text of the treaty through regular channels, it was authoritatively stated today by Senators who enjoy Senator Lodge's confidence.

WINNER OF DERY.

London, June 4.—Grand Parade Day won the Derby at Epsom Downs, the premier turf event of the world. Buchanan ran second and Paper Money third. The purse was 6,500 guineas, (approximately $32,500), and the distance was one mile and a half.

German Envoys Expect Allies To Reject Counter Proposals

Berlin, June 4.—A report reached here today from Versailles that the German delegates expect an ultimatum from the Allies on Saturday, rejecting the German counter proposals to the terms of peace.

If this report is true, Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau and the other German delegates will return to Berlin, leaving the final decision to the government, it is stated here. It is felt here that the government will not sign the treaty if the German demands are flatly rejected.

Paris dispatches to the International News Service report the American and British delegates supported by the Italians, pressing for concessions to the Germans and modification of the treaty.

BRITAIN TO FOLLOW U. S. EXAMPLE IN HOLDING UP WAR SHIP BUILDING

American Peace Delegates, However, Deny That Any Definite Agreement Has Been Made Between Nations.

Paris, June 4.—American peace delegates understand that Great Britain shortly will make an announcement of a postponement of her naval building program similar to that made on behalf of the United States by Secretary Daniels.

No Agreement Made.
It is denied that any definite agreement has been entered into by the American and British peace delegates. But it appears that there is a general understanding between the British and the Americans who were the warmest advocates of the League of Nations, that they must prove their faith in the League by definite acts.

First Fruit of League.
Secretary Daniels' announcement, the League supporters, declare, is the first fruit of the League formation. They expect practical results to follow in the way of announcements from Great Britain, France and other allied nations.

The American delegates are watching with the greatest interest the fragmentary reports on the League debate in the United States Senate. They do not believe the opponents of the League will succeed in their efforts to separate the covenant from the text of the peace treaty.

GIANT IMPERATOR HITS STEAMER OFF NANTUCKET

Second Largest Ship Afloat Collides With Smaller Vessel in Fog—Little Damage.

New York, June 4.—The giant army transport Imperator, second largest ship afloat, collided head on with the cargo carrying steamer Agwidale, operated by the United States Shipping Board, about 48 miles northeast of Nantucket Light in a heavy fog at two o'clock this morning.

A wireless dispatch said that neither vessel was seriously damaged and both were proceeding under their own steam. No one was injured.

The Imperator put to sea yesterday after discharging troops from France and was returning to the other side. The Agwidale was bound for New York from Rotterdam. Her bow was crushed in but her captain wireless she would be able to reach port.

The transport Tiger stood by both ships until the extent of the accident was ascertained.

KNIGHTS' TEMPLAR GATHER.

Meriden, June 4.—Lee S. Smith of Pittsburg, Grand Master of the Grand Encampment of the United States, officers of the Grand Commandery of Connecticut and other guests have begun arriving for a celebration this evening of the fiftieth anniversary of St. Elmo Commandery, Knights Templar of this city. The four surviving charter members will be present, H. Wales Lines, national treasurer, first selectman George W. Miller, representative Eli C. Bidswey, and Arthur Mathison, of Springfield.

3 KILLED, 11 HURT IN TOLEDO RIOTS; 10,000 ON STRIKE

Mayor Sends Call to Governor
Cox to Send Troops at Once.

UNION LABOR LEADERS DENY RESPONSIBILITY

Soldiers and Riots Constantly Fighting in Streets—Mayor's Home Closely Guarded.

Toledo, Ohio, May 4.—With a resumption of the rioting which last night cost three lives and resulted in the serious injury of 11 feared hourly, authorities were today awaiting action by Governor Cox on the appeal of Mayor Schreiber that troops be sent here to preserve order.

10,000 On Strike.
The Willeys-Overland plants where 10,000 men have been on strike for nearly a month closed today following the rioting of last night. Vice President Earl said that the plants would not re-open until the present troubles dies down.

Labor Leaders Talk.
Union labor leaders today emphatically denied responsibility for the rioting which began late yesterday afternoon as men who remained loyal to their employers were leaving the Willeys-Overland plant. A great crowd including many women, gathered in front of the plant. As the workmen came out they were attacked. Deputy Sheriffs and discharged soldiers in uniform who had been retained by Mayor Schreiber as guards, attempted to disperse the crowd. A free for all fight ensued in which brick bats, clubs, and guns were used. Reinforcements arrived and the crowd was finally dispersed after two men had been shot and eight others seriously injured by flying missiles.

Soldier Attacked.
Late last night a crowd surrounded one of the soldier guards as he was walking up the street with a young lady. He took refuge in a fire house and sent in a riot call. Two truckloads of his comrades responded. Upon their arrival the crowd was ordered to disperse. It failed to do so and after firing one volley over the heads of the crowd, the soldier guards turned their guns on the crowd. It fled after the first volley, leaving three dead and one wounded.

Mayor's Home Guard.
Mayor Schreiber spent the night at his office in the city hall and at the Hotel Secon.

A guard was thrown about his home after a house next door had been stoned and its windows broken. It is believed that the place was mistaken for the Mayor's home.

MAY APPEAL TO WASHINGTON.
Dayton, Ohio, June 4.—Governor Cox left here for Columbus soon after six o'clock this morning.

"I have been in touch with the Mayor of Toledo regarding the situation," the Governor said, before leaving. "That is all I have to say at present."

It was reported here after the Governor left that he might appeal to Washington. It was pointed out that Ohio has no national guard and therefore the governor has no troops to send to Toledo in response to Mayor Schreiber's appeal. It was also pointed out that some federal action would be necessary, to permit the sending of troops from Camp Sherman of Camp Custer.

A son was born at the Wilson sanatorium, Hartford, this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Heritage of Hartford. Mr. Heritage is a former Manchester man and still is employed by Cheney Brothers in the weaving mills. Mrs. Heritage, before her marriage, was Miss Elizabeth Bennett of Warehouse Point.

PVT. MCKINNEY COMING.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McKinney, 113 Spruce street, that their son, Robert, will be home soon from Brookline where he is now stationed as a member of the Naval Construction Unit. Pvt. McKinney arrived in this country a short time ago.

Bomb Plots Planned In Chicago; Flynn In Charge of Probe

NORWEGIANS REFUSE TO JOIN IN THE BLOCKADE
Paris, June 4.—The Norwegian government has refused to accede to the request of the allies that it join in the renewed blockade of Germany in case the Germans fail to sign the peace treaty, it was learned today. Norway has made the same reply as Switzerland, namely, that such an act would be contrary to the principles of neutrality.

BOSTON JUDGE WARNED OF ANOTHER BOMB PLOT

Telephone Message Said Another Explosive Was to Be Planted—Police Guard Home.

Boston, June 4.—Police guarded the Brookline home of Judge Thomas H. Dowd, of the Boston municipal court, all night following a warning by telephone that a bomb would be exploded there at 11 o'clock. Another guard was flung around the house of a Roxbury police official who had been particularly active in arranging and prosecuting the Roxbury May Day rioters.

Except for the arrest of one man—Ernest Gaudet, a Russian—whom they are holding on suspicion, the federal, state and Boston police were without the slightest clues as to the perpetrators of the bomb outrages at the homes of Judge Albert F. Hayden in Roxbury and Representative Leland Powers in Newtonville.

I. W. W. LEADER GRILLED BY PITTSBURGH POLICE

Said He Knew Man Who Threw Bomb—Sixteen Other Suspects Being Held.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 4.—John Johnson, said to be head of the I. W. W. organization in this district, was being severely grilled by the local police today in their effort to help clear up the nation-wide bomb plot mystery. After he is alleged to have told the police that he knew the man who made the bombs that were exploded here, Johnson refused to say more, declaring that to "squeal" further would practically sign his death warrant. It is said the tip given by Johnson led to a search in Chicago.

Johnson, one of 17 suspects under arrest here, shot at a detective when the latter raided the I. W. W. headquarters. The police say that he answers the description of the man seen near one of the houses that was wrecked just before the explosion occurred.

FORTY ALIENS IN JAIL; RESULT OF OHIO BOMB

Police Have Clue to Identity of Men Who Planted Explosive That Shattered Mayor Davis's House.

Cleveland, O., June 4.—With forty aliens in custody as a result of a general round-up of all Red suspects, city police and agents of the Department of Justice were today following clues which seemed to definitely link the bombing of Mayor Davis' home here with Philadelphia as the plotter's headquarters.

Police declared that they had positive information to the effect that I. W. W. agitators, on from New York and one from Philadelphia, came to Cleveland Monday. The police dragged was thrown out for these men today and police in other cities were also looking for them.

A package containing 200 of the "plain words" circulars was found last night in a vacant lot 150 feet from the Davis home.

Miss Edna Skinner of Church street is visiting friends in Waterbury.

Eighty Suspects Arrested in Various Cities—Round Up of All Reds in This Country Now On—U. S. Secret Service Men Swarming Around Anarchist Resorts

LATEST DEVELOPMENTS IN BOMB PLOT PROBE

William J. Flynn, noted United States secret service agent, placed in charge of nation-wide investigation.

Seventeen suspects under arrest at Pittsburgh, including John Johnson, I. W. W. leader, who says he knows who manufactured the bombs exploded in Pittsburgh.

One suspect arrested at Boston in connection with the bomb explosions at Roxbury and Pittsfield.

Forty suspects arrested at Cleveland, where attempt was made on the life of Mayor Davis.

Philadelphia hat dealer cannot identify the anarchist, killed in attempting to assassinate Attorney General Palmer at Washington. An anarchist's hat came from his store.

Washington and New York police admit they have no fresh clues.

Federal secret service men search Philadelphia for headquarters of terrorist gang.

Chicago police arrest thirty radicals. Reported they located plant where anarchist circulars found at scene of bomb explosions were printed.

Chicago, June 4.—The bomb outrages in various parts of the country were planned and directed from "Red Headquarters" in this city, it was intimated today by federal agents and city detectives who last night rounded up thirty or more known radicals in several raids in the "radical settlement" on the west side of Chicago.

Included in those taken into custody and being held today for the government are several men classed by federal agents as "directing heads" of the various radical organizations throughout the country, which during the past two months have been consolidated into "one big organization" with the object of "overthrowing the United States government within the next six months."

All of the men taken in the raids are being held incommunicado.

EX-CHIEF FLYNN ON JOB.
Washington, June 4.—With William J. Flynn, former chief of the United States secret service in charge of the Bureau of Investigation, the Department of Justice today renewed the nation-wide bomb hunt with the prospects of adding scores to the number of arrests already made.

The appointment of Flynn, reputed to be the foremost authority on anarchists and their activities in the country as head of the bureau, was taken here to mean a complete reorganization of the man-hunting division of the Department of Justice and the co-ordination of all other government agencies combatting radicalism.

Seventy Arrests Made.
With about seventy arrests already made in raids upon radical forces, officials declined today to state whether any of these detained have been definitely connected with the series of bomb outrages that has stirred the nation. They made it plain, however, that the round-up would continue.

Several Valuable Clues.
In the meantime, despite the dis-

LABOR POLITICAL PARTY PLANNED FOR THIS STATE

Delegates Want Connecticut Federation to Endorse National American Labor Party at Convention.

Meriden, June 4.—Three resolutions pertaining to the formation of a labor political party were introduced this morning at the third day's sessions of the annual convention of the Connecticut Federation of Labor. Hartford and Bridgeport delegates put in one, that the federation endorse the National American Labor Party, New Haven delegates another proposing that the Connecticut Labor party be organized for the benefit of labor and New Haven, New Britain, Middletown, Hartford, Ansonia, Meriden, Bridgeport, Derby and New London, the third, asking for endorsement of the National Am-British labor party. The resolutions rith labor party. The resolutions were referred to a committee and a ballot over them is anticipated.

The delegates today heard addresses by Henry T. Bacon, of this city, the first president of the federation when it was formed in Hartford 32 years ago and by C. W. Woodman of Texas, representing the Texas division of the United States Department of Labor.

Other resolutions today were for the release of Eugene V. Debs and all political prisoners, that the state's trade schools directors be interviewed regarding stories that students are to be sent out in Meriden, Waterbury and Bridgeport to build houses, that a metal polisher of experience be made factory inspector, that labor men patronize trolleys whose workers are organized while jitneys are not; that Danbury hat-teries strike be endorsed.

Two delegates will be sent to the prohibition protest convention in Washington June 14. Officers probably will be elected during the day and the re-election of President P. F. O'Meara, secretary Ira N. Orburn and Treasurer F. L. Neebe is assured.

OLD SABBATH LAW N. G. UNDER 1919 STATUTES

Judge Wolfe Reverses Decision of Judge Martin in Savin Rock Case—Was Test Case.

New Haven, June 4.—Judge Isaac Wolfe, in the common pleas court today reversed the decision of Judge Charles J. Martin, of the Orange town court in finding Samuel De Waltoff, proprietor of an amusement park at Savin Rock, guilty of violation of the secular law and discharged him. Judge Wolfe in making the decision held that section eighty five of the 1919 statutes, just recently enacted, which gives the state police control of amusement parks, supercedes the old Sunday law with respect to amusements in public parks. The case of De Walt-off was a test one and the decision affects the cases of 65 other persons arrested at Savin Rock by the Orange town authorities on May 25. All held licenses from the state police under the new law and were arrested and prosecuted by the Orange authorities under the old secular law.

Some people find it impossible to do two things at the same time. The farmer often does four, and does them well—he walks, thinks, talks, and smiles all at once.

China's foreign population at the last count was 220,500.

NEAREST.

A Southerner in one of the cantonments below the Mason and Dixon line, when called up for examination, was asked:

"What is your nearest living relative?" "What you mean, 'relative,' mister?" returned the recruit.

"Oh, I mean your nearest living kins-folk." "Wal, that's my aunt you're talking 'bout." "Several other questions were answered satisfactorily, when there came:

"In case of death or accident, who shall be notified?" "My mother," immediately came from the selectman.

"But you told me just a few minutes ago that your aunt was the nearest living relative that you have," objected the officer.

"You asked me who my nearest living kin was, didn't you? Wal, that's Aunt Liz—she lives jest two miles from where I been livin'; mother lives five."

Harmony. "It is a mistake to think women in politics will divide the home. Now, I always vote the same ticket as my husband does."

"Do you?" "Certainly. But I tell him first what that ticket is."

THEIR CLASS.

"Some theorists say everything in life is attuned to one key. What keys are the slippery places in life tuned to?"

"Why, naturally to see sharp or be flat."

Too Much to Follow. This world is but a fleeting show; A circus with at least three rings. You stare and twist and yet you know You're missing lots of bully things.

Confused Grievance. "Here's somebody says the oyster produces nearly half a million eggs annually."

"Then if nature is such a wonderful provider, why didn't she make the oyster a hen?"

The Trick. "Is it hard to write for the newspapers and the magazines?" asked the sweet young thing.

"Not at all," replied the writer. "But it is hard to get the editors to buy your stuff."

Provocation, Anyway. "I'm ashamed of you. You're always fighting."

"Well, mother, supposn' the lady next door was to put her chawin' gum down yer neck, wouldn't you paste her one?"—Life.

Cause and Effect. First Hobo—You are not looking well; what's the matter? Second Hobo—I dreamed last night that I was working and I woke up with a headache.

FOR LEISURE MOMENTS.

"A successful man must study the faults of others."

"Well, I don't know that it will make a man successful, but it ought to be a delightful study."

History Makers. When men make history they find strange episodes so blended They never really make the kind That they at first intended.

Mean About It. "The girl I proposed to is a regular dog in the manger."

"How so?" "She will neither accept my affection nor return it."

Accounted For. "I don't seem to make any impression on the members of the poly-bulet."

"Probably because those 'ponies' have horse sense."

TICKET SALE FOR BOUT OVER HALF MILLION MARK

Both Fighters in Pink of Condition For Willard Dempsey-Go—Labor Situation Causing Trouble.

Toledo, Ohio, June 4.—With the ticket sale over the half million mark, both fighters on the ground and in the pink of condition there was but one fly in the ointment to disturb Tex Rickard today. That was the labor situation here. Although the fight promoter declared the strike would be settled long before the fight came off the possibility of it growing into a general strike is not escaping him.

What effect such a situation might have on the big scrap was being discussed today although all of Rickard's followers declared that it would have no effect at all.

Jess Willard is gaining new adherents daily since his arrival here. His condition is surprising everyone. Jack Lavan, a Cleveland heavyweight who boxed three rounds with the champion yesterday was down and out following the bout.

Dempsey continued to take it easy today. "Jack is ready to see a hundred rounds," declared his manager, Jack Kearns.

PAUL LAMBERT HONORED AT COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

Receives Degree of Bachelor of Literature—Admitted to Sigma Delta Chi.

The degree of bachelor of literature was conferred on Paul G. Lambert of this town by Columbia University at the commencement exercises held by that institution this noon. The bestowing of the degree marked the culmination of a four years' course of instruction in the graduate School of Journalism of the University. Lambert was also admitted today to Sigma Delta Chi, the national honorary fraternity of journalism.

Still in the Navy.
 Although Lambert's university career was interrupted by the war and although he is still in active duty as a second class pharmacist's mate at the naval receiving ship at New York, he has been able during the last semester to devote practically full time to school work and at the same time attend to a night detail at the ship.

Because of illness the Misses Anna and Clara Lambert of 3 Oak Place, Lambert's aunts with whom he made his home, were unable to attend the commencement exercises at Columbia today.

Trained on Herald.
 Mr. Lambert received his first experience in newspaper work on the Herald. He was high school reporter for a time and then became a regular member of the staff.

DOWD SHIFTS HIS MEN FOR SUNDAY CONTEST

Manager of Athletics Will Present New Lineup to Torrington Nine—Want Pioneers for July 4th.

The Athletics will have another strong team for their opponents at the Mount Nebo grounds on Sunday when they meet the crack Torrington aggregation. Manager Dowd has shifted his line-up and the following players will take the field when the game is called: Schielde, left field; Massey, second base; Kotsch, (Capt.), right field; Sipples, short stop; Wilson, third base; Wilkie, first base; Phillips, center field; Lamprecht or Crockett, catcher; Brennan, Peterson and Rabinson, utility.

The Athletics' schedule for the month of June will probably be: Torrington, June 8th; Thompsonville June 15th; U. S. Army, Hospital team of New Haven, June 22nd; Elm City Colored Giants, June 29th. The latter team is the fastest colored team in New England and local fans will no doubt remember the game this team put up against the Athletics a short time ago when the home team won by a score of 2 to 1. Only two hits were secured off Smith the colored wonder. The Athletic management is endeavoring to bring the strong Pioneers of New Britain here for a game on the morning of July 4th. This team is one of the strongest semi-professional teams in this state and defeated the New Departure team of Bristol on Memorial Day.

THREE MAN LEAGUE.

Last Match of Season Rolled at the "Rec" Tonight.

The Three Man Bowling League will close the season this evening on the alleys of the Recreation Center. At 7.45 the Blue Pigeons and Has Beens will bowl and at 8.45 the Will Bees and American Eagles will try conclusions.

An interesting match was bowled last night between the Don't Cares and Invincibles, the league leaders. Charlie Richmond, who enlisted in the Marines about a week ago, was a member of the Invincibles and bowled his games in advance. He had high single of 98 and high three string of 274 and it is lucky for the team that he did, or they would have lost their match. As it was, the Don't Cares won the first game by four pins, lost the second by nine pins and the third by the narrow margin of one pin. The summary follows:

Don't Cares.		Invincibles.
G. Ferris	81 85 86 252	276 240 242 758

BENSCHKE PLEADS GUILTY GETS 18 MONTH SENTENCE

Man Who Shot Fellow Countryman Throws Himself on Mercy of Court.

Charged with attempt at robbery, John Benschke, well known pool room proprietor of this town was yesterday sentenced to state's prison in the Superior Court, criminal side in Hartford, to a minimum of 18 months and a maximum of two years.

The sentence drops the curtain on the near tragedy that shocked Manchester several months ago. Benschke had lost heavily at cards. His brother-in-law was pressing him for money to pay a bill. Desperate, Benschke planned to rob a fellow countryman whom he saw displaying a roll of bills in a saloon.

On the night in question, Benschke procured a mask, a revolver and a flashlight. He broke into the man's boarding house and entered his room. A noise awakened the sleeper. Benschke discharged the revolver and the bullet ploughed through the awakened man's neck. He then jumped up and a struggle ensued in which the intended victim forced back the revolver in the hand of the would-be burglar and when the next shot was fired Benschke was himself shot in the neck.

The police found both men struggling in the room. Dr. Moore dressed their injuries and they were taken to St. Mary's hospital. Officer Crockett was on guard at Benschke's bedside until he was sufficiently recovered to stand trial.

Yesterday, Benschke pleaded guilty and threw himself on the mercy of the court.

WAR FUND BALANCE TO MAKE BETTER CITIZENSHIP.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 4.—Cleveland's City War Board, a co-operative civic organization which financed the city's share in war contributions, has appropriated $18,000 of its unexpected balance to carry on citizenship work among the hundreds of foreigners who have taken out first citizenship papers here since the signing of the armistice.

"Our drive," said Chairman Moley, announcing the appropriation, "will be to turn out 10,000 real American citizens—among the many foreigners who are eager to know this country and its institutions."

The Mark Twain School here was entered after school hours. The desk of Principal Robert St. Clair was forced open and eleven new league baseballs stolen. Several ball teams recently were organized in the neighborhood of the school, according to the police report.

VICTORY ANNOUNCEMENT

More Mileage Adjustment on Goodrich Tires

Fabrics - 6,000 Miles
 Cords-- 8,000 Miles

To automobile owners and drivers—to Goodrich Dealers—the B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company herewith declares a more-mileage adjustment on Goodrich Tires—6,000 miles for SAFETY TREADS, and 8,000 miles for SILVERTOWN CORDS.

Fix these new Goodrich Adjustment figures firmly in your mind—6,000 miles for SAFETY TREADS—8,000 miles for SILVERTOWN CORDS—instead of the 3,500 and 5,000 miles respectively heretofore in force.

This new adjustment stands back of all Goodrich Tires, including Tires already purchased in the hands of user or dealer.

Goodrich Tires in actual usage are today unfolding such matchless mileage, regularly in excess of adjustment basis, that Goodrich knows it has the strongest, most durable tires the rubber industry has produced.

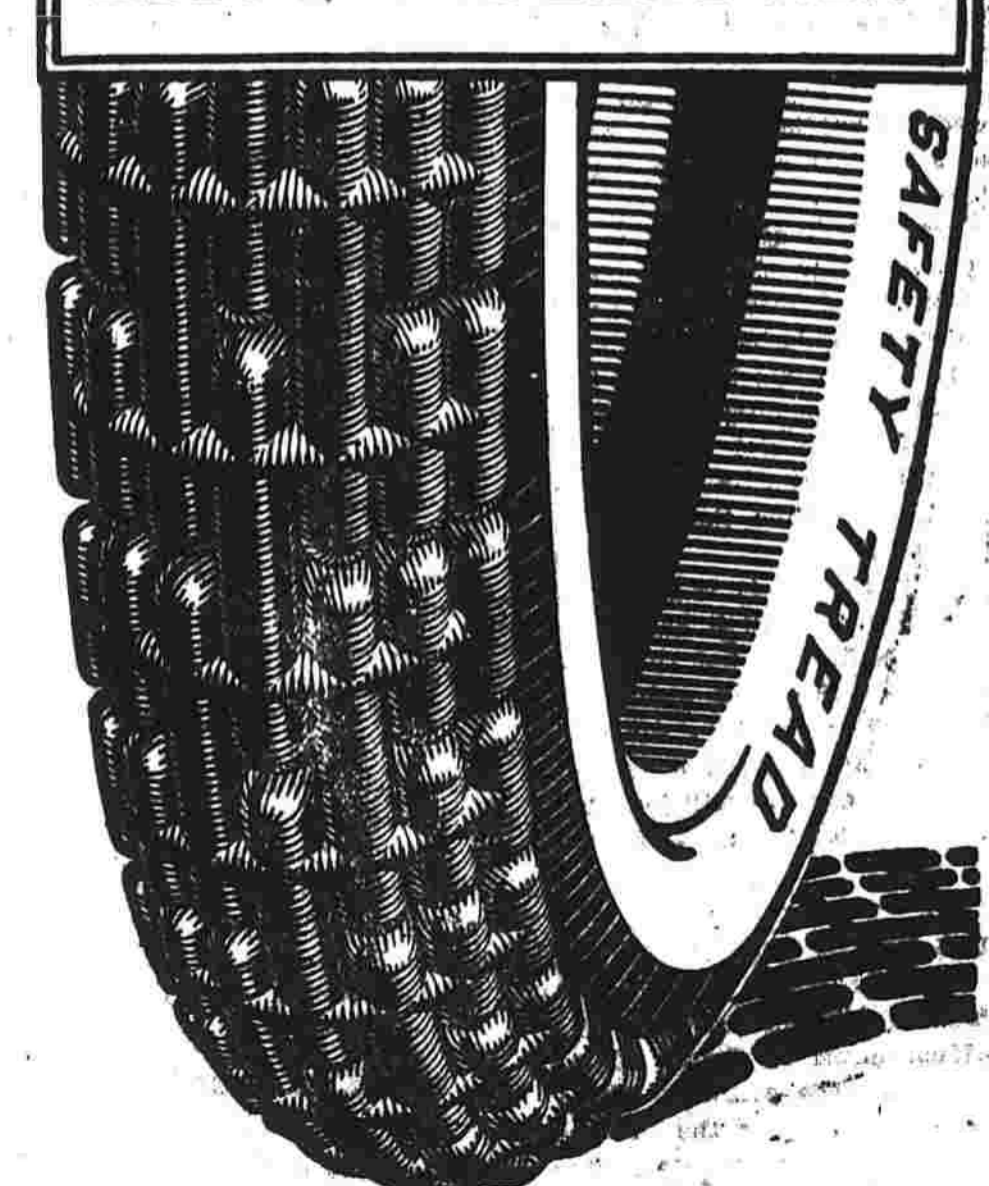

The Goodrich adjustment mileage is increased because Goodrich knows the mileage in its tires, and it wants to give every motorist a share in their economy.

Go to a Goodrich Dealer, and buy a Goodrich Tire, sure that with fair and square usage a Safety Tread will render you at least 6,000 miles; and a Silvertown Cord at least 8,000.

"BEST IN THE LONG RUN"

IRISH TENOR IS A COP.
 San Francisco, Cal., June 4.—John McCormack, the Irish tenor, was recently made an honorary member of the San Francisco Police Department at a special meeting of the Police Commissioners. Chief of Police D. A.

White presented the new member of the department with a golden star, and his certificate of appointment was handed to him by President Theodore Roche, of the Police Commission. This honor was conferred on the gifted Irish singer for valuable aid rendered the department during the Victory Loan drive.

JOKERS CUT FILMS AND PATRONS GET BLANK SCENE.
 New Wilmington, Pa., June 4. Practical Jokers had their inning here on a recent Saturday night and movie goers were the victims. Nearly 700 feet of thrilling Wild West films were clipped by the censor jokers. When Bill had killed seven or eight lowly Mexicans and had meritoriously earned a mortgage on the hand of the heroine the audience was given a blank scene and was obliged to use imagination as to what happened under those circumstances. Another scene which was leading up to some "knifing" on the part of the bad man was cut out just as the blood was about to flow.

JUSTICE, STERN AND SWIFT.

Swift capture, a speedy trial, a prompt verdict and immediate execution—that is what the country wants for the brood of vipers who are at the bottom of the bomb outrages. Five weeks ago there was a wide attempt at assassination through the mails but no one has as yet been held to account for that assault and now there is a second outbreak which gives every indication of coming from the same source.

This time even the Attorney General of the United States is marked for the killing, as if in derision of the efforts of our Department of Justice. How much longer are these miscreants to be allowed to flaunt the law and order of this nation?

That the band is cunning goes without saying. They have the cunning, and the courage, of the snake that coils beneath a leaf to catch its prey unaware. But, reptiles though they are, they have not even the full measure of a reptile's intelligence for they struck before their victims were within reach. Not one of the bombs shattered the bodies of those for whom they were set.

That the band is organized is proved by the fact that the bombs were exploded in eight different cities almost within the same hour. It is, as Attorney General Palmer says in his defiant warning to the bombers, "organized crime directed against organized government."

This is something more than the usual tide of criminal acts that follows such a great social upheaval as the war. These are the carefully plotted deeds of men whose minds are warped, whose souls have shrunk until they are no longer members of the human race but are like beasts raging and snapping among the members of society.

In their mad-dog practices these wretches have been actuated with the theory that if they could sufficiently terrorize society all opposition to them would cease. Men would so fear the consequences that they would hesitate to bring the forces of law and order into action and anarchy would be safe to work its bloody will.

Well, if fear of consequences has any place in their philosophy let the results of this last dynamite debacle be such that its repetition will be an impossibility.

LET MR. WILSON TELL.

The assertion of Senator Lodge that he has seen a copy of the peace treaty in New York City and that the treaty is there in the hands of private individuals deserves the fullest publicity and an extensive investigation of the facts. Senator Lodge should not have kept this information from the public. He has now rendered a distinct service in making it known.

A regrettable lack of confidence in the people has been shown by both the American and British members of the peace commission since the first but if it has come to where individuals in this country can have possession of an official document which is denied to the United States Senate it is high time the country was so informed.

Technically, the treaty is no business of the Senate until it has been cast into its final form but there is certainly no individual or group of individuals with a right to the exclusive possession of even a tentative draft. The country will look to Mr. Wilson himself for an explanation.

MORE MONEY FOR MRS. GILLIGAN.

The famous Gilligan murder case goes to Middletown for trial. This will mean that the prisoner, her counsel, the counsel for the state and all the witnesses will have to be transported to Middletown each day of the trial. Surely the accused cannot complain that her rights have not been fully protected by the state. She has been tried once at great expense to the state and the case has been sent back on an appeal. The retrial at Middletown will cost the state much more than the original trial at Hartford. Mrs. Gilligan, it will be remembered, kept a home for old people, in Windsor, and was accused of poisoning her charges to get them off her hands after they had paid her a lump sum to care for them the rest of their lives.

Bristol is soon to have a special town meeting to consider an appropriation of $100,000 for a soldiers' memorial hospital. We are pleased to note that Manchester has already raised $185,000 for a memorial hospital without holding a special town meeting.

The first four days of June will long be remembered for their torrid heat. Probably no period so early in the season has ever produced such warm weather in this latitude. In view of the warm winter we should expect a cool summer to balance the year's temperature.

Out in California where women vote and hold office on a par with men, they are finding it hard work to get justice from female jurymen. The women in the jury box fall readily to appeals to their sympathy. A friend, writing from Los Angeles, tells of a woman who kept a goat which annoyed the woman next door. Finally after due warning the woman who had complained killed the goat, whereupon the woman who owned the goat killed the woman who had killed the goat. She was tried for murder and the female jury discharged her. Now the five children of the murdered woman are being cared for in an orphan asylum.

Hartford needs a public parking place for automobiles. The streets are now so thronged with cars that it has become necessary to forbid drivers to leave their machines near the curb longer than is necessary to deposit and take on passengers. There is no place near the business center of the city where the suburbanite may leave his automobile while he attends to his business. A limited number of such parking places exist but they are always found to be overcrowded. As the number of motor cars increases, and traffic laws become more numerous and stringent, it is increasingly difficult for out-of-town drivers to keep so posted on the rules as to avoid breaking them. If one could drive straight to a convenient parking place and then do his shopping on foot—the situation would be greatly relieved.

DEATH FOLLOWS FALL FROM TRUCK TO ROAD

Hartford Man Fractures Skull When Tail Board Chains Break on Main Street.

Peter Parda of Hartford, an employee of the Capitol City Paper Company, died at St. Francis hospital at three o'clock yesterday afternoon from injuries received in a Manchester accident. The accident happened yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock directly in front of the meat market conducted by Oliver F. Toop. The injured man was attended by Dr. D. C. Y. Moore who pronounced it a case of fractured skull and ordered hospital attention. Parda was taken to the Hartford hospital in Holloran Brothers' ambulance and succumbed to his injuries about five hours later.

Parda, who is Polish, was employed as a helper on a truck operated by the Capitol City Paper Company. The auto had come out from Hartford on a delivery tour and previous to the accident had stopped near the Center. Parda, who had been delivering paper in a store, came out and sat on the tail board of the machine as a stop was to be made a few blocks farther down.

The chauffeur of the auto and another companion cautioned him and suggested that he come inside the truck. Parda, however, seemed content with his position and refused to move. The truck came rumbling down Main street, headed south. Directly opposite Toop's store, the machine passed over a bump in the road. The chains holding the tail board broke and Parda was thrown to the ground, striking on his head.

DON'TS WHICH WILL HELP PREVENT VAST DAMAGE FROM FOREST FIRES

WELFARE OF KIDDIES WORK OF THIS BUREAU
American Forestry Association Issues Warnings Which Should Be Observed by All Summer Campers.

Seven years ago the Children's Bureau of the United States Department of Labor was created by act of Congress. It was charged with the duty of investigating and reporting on "all matters pertaining to children and child life among all classes of the people," and directed to study certain specific questions such as infant mortality, juvenile courts, dangerous occupations, accidents and diseases of children, employment, and other matters affecting children.

In fulfillment of the duties assigned it, the bureau, since its beginning, has conducted various investigations and inquiries, the results of which have been published in a series of about 50 reports issued under such group headings as the Care of Children; Dependent, Defective, Delinquent Classes; Infant Mortality; Industrial; Legal; and Children's Year. The collection and distribution of miscellaneous information regarding child welfare activities in this and other countries, the preparation of publications giving directions for the inauguration of local child welfare work in various centers of population and the issuance of directions for testing birth registration are among the additional activities undertaken by the bureau.

The Children's year campaign conducted during 1918-19, in cooperation with the Child Conservation Section of the Council of National Defense, set forth a program for the protection of children embracing public protection of maternity and infancy; mothers' care for older children, enforcement of all child-labor laws and full schooling of all children of school age; and recreation for children and youth, "abundant, decent, protected from every form of exploitation." The carrying out of this program together with that of the bureau's "baby weeks" of 1916-17, stirred up increased interest in matters connected with child welfare in all parts of the United States.

As a culmination of the children's year campaign, a conference on child welfare standards was held in Washington during the week of May 5, under the auspices of the Children's Bureau. A number of foreign guests, who had been identified with work for children in European countries during the war, and a small working committee of American experts were present at this conference at the invitation of the Secretary of Labor.

The purpose of the conference as outlined by Miss Julia Lathrop was two-fold. "First, it was felt that the Children's Bureau, as part of the Department of Labor—a department concerned fundamentally with the problems of human welfare as exemplified in the great mass of the working people of America which it represents—had the responsibility of bringing together and coordinating opinion concerning the welfare of children in the United States. It was hoped that the standards evolved by the conference might adequately represent that opinion. Second, the conference seemed the most direct way of fulfilling the aim of children's year, as expressed by the President, 'to set up certain irreducible minimum standards for the health, education and work of the American child.' Such standards, it was felt, should be considered not as a goal, but as a suggested point of departure."

Washington, June 4.—The time to stop the forest fires is right now, says an announcement from the American Forestry Association, by not having any. "The fire in Minnesota last year is still fresh in the public mind and when it is estimated that the fire loss in 1918 was $28,500,000 and that 8,400,000 acres were burned every precaution should be taken by summer campers, says the association, which is getting contributions from all over the country to help in its work of reforesting the devastated areas of France and Belgium.

Here are some don'ts that should be pasted up on every tent door flap:

1. Don't throw your match away until you are sure it is out.
2. Don't drop cigarette or cigar butts until the glow is extinguished.
3. Don't knock out your pipe ashes while hot or where they will fall into dry leaves or other inflammable material.
4. Don't build a camp fire against a tree, a log, or a stump, or anywhere but on bare soil.
5. Don't build a camp fire any larger than it is absolutely necessary.
6. Don't leave a fire until you are sure it is out, if necessary smother it with earth or water.
7. Don't burn brush or refuse in or near the woods if there is any chance that the fire may spread beyond your control, or that the wind may carry sparks where they would start a new fire.
8. Don't be any more careless with fire in the woods than you are with fire in your own home.
9. Don't be idle when you discover a fire in the woods; if you can't put it out yourself, get help. When a forest guard, ranger or State Fire warden can be reached call him up on the nearest telephone you can find.
10. Don't forget that human thoughtlessness and negligence are the causes of more than half of the forest fires in this country, and that the smallest spark may start a conflagration that will result in loss of life and destruction of timber and young growth, valuable not only for lumber but for their influence in helping to prevent flood, erosion and drought.

Plans are under way for policing the forests with aeroplanes and wireless to aid in the fight against fire's destruction, but the association points out that the old ounce of prevention still beats the pound of cure in the forests, now being fast depleted, as well as anywhere else.

WAR ON MOSQUITOES AND RATS PLANNED AT BOSTON.
Boston, Mass., June 4.—Dr. William C. Woodward, Municipal Health Commissioner, is to make a war on mosquitoes and rats. Against the mosquitoes an army of offensive, consisting in part of employees and attaches of the Health Department, is to wage a vigorous campaign of extermination. The death-dealing ammunition will consist of oil which the attacking force will spread over swampy stretches and the pools of stagnant water. Not until the skeeters are eliminated from Boston confines will there be any let-up in the battle, vows Dr. Woodward.

The battle against rats will be conducted with equal fury, only in a more carefully planned manner. The paramount aim will be the seeking out of breeding places and the destruction forthwith of all species, young and old.

10-in. list price $1.00
Here is a song that is American in sentiment but universal in appeal for it tells of an old, old ducky who has come near to the end of the journey all must travel. "Massa an' ole miss's an' dead, dey're sleepin' side by side, and he is left alone in the old log cabin whose door has rusted from its hinges, whose roof is open alike to the sunshine and the rain. Alma Gluck sings it with the Orpheus Quartet of male voices.

KREISLER, FRITZ
64730 Dream of Youth, Felix Winteritz, 10-in. list price $1.00 (Reve de Jeunesse)
If in your heart there are dormant memories of days gone by when bright eyes lit your soul, and silver moonlight meant more than silver dollars, here is the music that will arouse them. They are waltz tunes, mostly, that Kreisler plays on this record. Such tunes as you heard in your youth and may still hear, for they are the tunes that never die. Kreisler's playing is a miracle of tenderness. There is lavish use of "double-stopping" (playing on two strings at once). This is done in such a way that Kreisler sometimes gets the effect of two violins, for the second part follows an independent melodic line of its own in beautiful harmony with the principal tune.

Tears of Love, Charles Hart
Wait and See, Henry Burr
"Tears of Love" is by Frank H. Warren and S. R. Henry, and has already proven highly popular. It tells us some of the many reasons why women weep, leaving you, most of the time, to guess the cause of so much sorrow. Women are just as likely to weep for gladness as for sadness, and you never can tell whether they are for a full heart or for a broken one. And there are tears calling for kisses, and—sweetest of all—the tears of love. The music is very catching, and for the second refrain a violin obligato is added. Henry Burr has a tender song of a lover's quarrel in "Wait and See (You'll Want Me Back)," by Charles McCarron and Carey Morgan. The refrain is beautifully played by Reitz as a solo for bells, and the effect is appealing.

covery early yesterday of what appeared to be several valuable clues, the authorities today were still without success in their efforts to identify the man who was blown to pieces by the bomb which he hoped to end the life of Attorney General Palmer. The police worked far into the night gathering shreds of clothing worn by the victim and attempting to assemble the body.

However, in spite of the fact that it had been established that he boarded a train for Washington at Philadelphia, and that it was known where he purchased the hat he wore, the police today apparently were no closer to solving his identity than they were in the hour immediately following the explosion.

Elaborate Precautions.
Never in the history of the national capitol have more elaborate precautions been taken to guard the lives of officials and their prominent men than were put into effect immediately following the bombing of the attorney general's residence.

The police co-operating with government agencies, placed guards at the homes of all cabinet members and other high officials. The police guard at the White House, which had been depleted because of the absence of the President and because of the necessity of additional police protection in outlying districts, during the night was restored to its former quota.

Every member of the capitol police was on guard at structure and all other public buildings were closely watched.

Flynn Won't Talk.
Chief Flynn today refused to discuss his plan of action in directing the bomb hunt.

"I had hoped to rest, but I've been called back again," was his only comment.

However, it was said upon excellent authority that he planned to make some marked changes in the bureau of investigation with a view to increasing its efficiency for the work directly in hand.

Legislation Needed.
Rush legislation to curb the activities of anarchists, to prevent the spread of their propaganda to provide adequate punishment for outrages and to restrict, if not to prohibit, immigration will be the immediate effect of the bomb outrages, Representative Johnson, of Washington, chairman of the House committee on immigration, declared today.

The form of this legislation he said, will be taken up for discussion by the committee when it meets tomorrow and the prevailing sentiment among members of the committee was to lose no time in getting the necessary bill out from the committee and into the House for immediate passage.

Johnson's View.
"It appears to me," said Johnson; "that these plots were designed and carried out more for the purpose of arousing what the anarchists, and socialists allied with the anarchists, define as 'class consciousness' than for the purpose of taking life or destroying property. It is part of their organized plan of fixing attention on what they demand and spreading terror to accomplish their ends. The purpose does not change the reprehensible character of the act and it is the duty of Congress to take cognizance and move quickly and effectively in the matter."

Johnson believed the anarchistic outbreaks in this country can be attributed in part to the lax immigration laws which have permitted the influx in recent years of undesirable aliens from Europe, who have herded in the eastern cities and are now hatching their devilish scheme. He would shut off immigration for a term of years.

FEDERAL MEN SEARCHING FOR PHILADELPHIA REDS

Secret Service Sleuths Work Independently of Local City Police—Hat Stores Visited.

Philadelphia, June 4.—The search for the central headquarters of the "Anarchist fighters" who are directing the greatest terrorist campaign in the history of the country, was begun here today by United States secret service agents from Washington.

The federal investigators are working independently of the Philadelphia police and presumably under direct orders of William J. Flynn, now directing the nation-wide hunt for the bomb plotters. They are directing their activities first to Philadelphia because the fragmentary clues in the hands of federal authorities indicates that the conspiracy of terrorism had its origin either in the Quaker City or in some nearby towns. Working Quietly.

Whether the secret service men possess any clues to the identity of the plotters other than those already made public, is not known, even to the Philadelphia police. They are working quietly and the results of their investigation will not be known until they report to Washington.

The southeastern part of Philadelphia, home of many Italians and other foreigners, is being combed for anarchist leaders. Italian business men in this section said today there were undoubtedly a large number of radicals in the colony, who were in communication with Red leaders in other cities. The police have always encountered the greatest difficulty in breaking up these anarchist gangs because of the threat of quick death the Reds dangled over the heads of all informers.

Reds Have Money.
Some of the Red leaders are well supplied with money and among them are keen minded men quite capable of directing such a campaign of bomb outrages as has been inaugurated throughout the country. That they chose fanatics from the poorer classes to do the actual work of planting the bombs is evidenced by descriptions of the anarchist killed at Attorney General Palmer's home.

Visited Hat Store.

Federal agents who visited the hat store of De Lucco brothers in their search to mark the identity of the man blown to pieces in Washington, obtained practically no information of value. The three brothers said they had sold so many hats of the kind worn by the dead anarchist that it would be most impossible for them to make any identification. There is a bare chance, they said, that they might recall the name of the purchaser if the Washington police succeed in reconstructing the dead man's face from flesh fragments and produce a photograph that bears some resemblance to the living man.

NO CLUE SO FAR FOUND IN THE NEW YORK PLOT

Only a Few of the Printed Circulars Can Be Linked With Identity of the Bomber.

New York, June 4.—Excepting a few of the printed circulars signed "Anarchist fighters" left near the bombed home of Judge Charles C. Nott, Jr., the police had no clue today to the identity of the New York agents of the nation-wide terrorist plot.

The paper on which the circulars were printed is cheap and of an unusual shade of light red. The type with which the printing was done is old and worn and it appears likely that the Dodgers were printed on a small and antiquated press. Detectives today were trying to learn where the paper was purchased.

At Paterson, N. J., where another bomb was exploded, the police are working on the theory that the bomb planter was an Italian. A girl said she saw an Italian near the building wrecked by an explosion shortly before the bomb went off.

CLEVELAND POLICE HOLD LARKIN, NOTED RADICAL

Sleuths Discover 28 Russians Had Been Smuggled Into United States from Canada.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 4.—Cleveland police today grilled James Larkin, well known radical and former Irish syndicalist, in connection with the bomb plot investigation. Larkin stopped off here Tuesday en route to Chicago from New York.

Police here are endeavoring to locate some connection between John Johnson, I. W. W. leader arrested in Pittsburgh and this city. Johnson is reported to have indicated that the bombs were manufactured in Cleveland.

Police investigation developed today the fact that 28 of the suspects rounded up were smuggled into this country via Buffalo and Niagara Falls without going through the immigration office. Most of them are of Russian birth and frankly admit they favor the soviet form of government.

Federal officials conferred with police department heads this afternoon and it was reported that deportation will follow the disclosure that the men were smuggled into this country without passing the immigration authorities.

Over 175,000 people in Japan abandoned agricultural pursuits to work in new and enlarged factories during the war.

WILSON CONGRATULATES READ AND NC-4 CREW

President Meets Commander Who Directed Trans-Atlantic Flight in Paris Today.

Paris, June 4.—Lieutenant Commander A. C. Read, skipper of the American naval seaplane NC-4 and his crew were personally congratulated upon their successful trans-Atlantic flight by President Wilson today. The American flyers were received at the Paris "White House" at 11:45 o'clock. They were introduced by Admiral Benson, U. S. N., and the President shook them warmly by the hand.

"The entire American nation is proud of your achievements," said President Wilson.

"I am glad to see you and to shake your hand and am glad to give you my warmest congratulations," continued the President. "I am happy to be able to say personally I am how proud I am to all of you. The whole of America and the navy are most proud of your achievements. I am also pleased that you were able to keep your heads on land as well as on the sea."

Following an informal chat Lieutenant Commander Read and his fellow flyers were introduced to Premier Clemenceau, Premier Lloyd George and Premier Orlando, who added their congratulations.

The Americans were accompanied by Admiral Plunkett and Admiral Lond.

There were no formal speeches. Earlier in the day the French Minister of Marine tendered his congratulations to the Americans on behalf of the French navy.

As Lieutenant Commander Read and his comrades were leaving the French Ministry of Marine they were wildly cheered by crowds.

Zurich, June 4.—The constitution committee of the German national assembly has voted "no" on the question of whether German officials should be surrendered for trial on war guilt charges in foreign countries, said a dispatch from Berlin today.

JAMES LESLIE WRITES FROM MANCHESTER, ENG.

Is in Military Hospital There—Thankful to be Alive After Fierce Fighting.

Cecil Kittle has received a letter from Private James Leslie who enlisted in the Canadian army in Hartford on October 15, 1917 and went through some of the hardest fighting with the Canadians. The letter was written from Manchester, England, where Private Leslie had been receiving treatment at a military hospital. He said that he expected to return home soon.

After training in Canada and England, Private Leslie arrived in France on June 1, 1918 and was soon on the Amiens front with a machine gun section of the Canadian army. By September, Leslie was transferred to the Arras-Douai Road where the Canadians captured five thousand prisoners on September 2. He received his first wound on the same day.

Later, Leslie was engaged in the last battle of Cambrai. In front of Cambrai, on September 27, he was seriously wounded, a bullet going through arm and shoulder, passing across his chest and coming out at the right side of his neck. In speaking of the experience, Leslie said: "The bullet was out for a joy ride and its a wonder I am not pushing up the daisies."

Private Leslie is a married man and has one child. He had lived in Manchester for seven years before enlisting and was employed for five years as painter and decorator by J. Swanson of Huntington street.

"WILD BILL" DONOVAN CLAIMS HE WAS ONE TO BRING OUT TY RAYMOND COBB

Ty Cobb, Hughie Jennings and "Wild Bill" Donovan.

When you are in a little group of fans and the talk is frittering away almost to a dead silence a good way to knock them all cold is to loudly announce: "I discovered Ty Cobb," or "If it hadn't been for me, Eddie Collins would be selling ham sandwiches on the B. & O." But anyway, Wild Bill Donovan comes out with the announcement that he was the real Edison who gave Ty Cobb to the baseball world. Harken to Wilyum!

Made Jennings Laugh.
"It was way back in 1915 when Detroit was training in Augusta, Ga., and the captain was a regular busher. Ty attracted little attention, for he was a terrible fielder and tried to run through the fence in every game. Hughie Jennings used to laugh every time Cobb ran out on the field, for there was nothing about him that even suggested a future star. His hitting was of the bush league variety, and when an outfielder can't hit it's time to forget all about him.

"Detroit had a chance that year to get Cobb for nothing, for the Augusta club had made a deal with Jennings whereby he would have the privilege of selecting any player on the team if his ball club did its spring training in Augusta. To show what a hit Cobb

WORLD IS MADE SAFE FOR BASEBALL GAME

At Least 100,000 More Players Because of Late War.

Grover Cleveland Alexander and "Rabbit" Maranville Came Over Recently and Given Warm Reception—Biggest Year.

The war has made the world safe for baseball.

There are twice as many ball players as there were before Uncle Sam got busy in the big world's series along the Rhine.

If you want figures to be convinced harken to Tom Nokes, secretary of the National Baseball federation:

"I think it is safe to say, from a federation standpoint, there are 50 per cent more teams this spring than there were three years ago."

And only a part of our soldiers have come back from France. Nearly all of them played ball in the army. The ones who hadn't donned a mitt for years went back to play when they were sent to camp. Others who never played learned. The ones who always played kept on playing. They will want to keep it up.

It is more conservative to say, we believe there are at least 100,000 more ball players as a result of the war. They're pouring back from overseas.

Grover Cleveland Alexander.

Grover Cleveland Alexander and Rabbit Maranville came in a few days ago. They were heralded with much ado. But on the same boats came other players—some who weren't players when they went in the army.

The big amateur baseball body of which Nokes is the working head is planning for 1920.

PETAINE AS A BASEBALL FAN

Marshal of France Forgets His Duty and Watches Exciting Game—Autographa Ball.

How Marshal Petain of the French army ducked the time clock to witness a ball game is the story brought back to this country by W. C. Mullen, former manager of the Dubuque team in the Three-I league, who has returned after spending six months as a K. of C. secretary with the Thirty-eighth division overseas.

The game was between company teams of the Fifty-sixth engineers at Ste. Nazaire. Marshal Petain was crossing the lot with fellow officers. He knows the American game, and stayed to watch it for a few moments. The game was exciting. The marshal remained. His duty was forgotten as the game went on into extra innings. 10,000 men vociferously applauding. The game ended with a 6-5 score, and Marshal Petain, enthusiastic, came to Mullen, umpiring the game, and autographa the ball in play at the finish. Then the marshal telephoned his orderly to punch the headquarter's time clock for him.

MADE WAR SEEM REAL

Charles P. Taft had an editorial in his newspaper the other day with the caption, "It Was Upon the Order of His Going," treating of Grover Cleveland Alexander and his return to Chicago. It speaks of the difficulty Chicago had getting him and the new record price paid, only to have him called to the colors. The editorial then says:

"The moral effect was incalculable. The man in the bleachers realized as never before that grim war was on. The government was no respecter of great right arms. Soon it would be reaching up into the bleachers, into the grandstand, and into the boxes, and taking the pick of the spectators."

HARRY COVELESKIE A MINOR

President-Manager Strang Nicklin of the Chattanooga baseball club states that Harry Coveleskie, former pitcher of the Detroit Americans, will play in Chattanooga this season. He stated that the report from Little Rock that Coveleskie had signed a contract there was a mistake.

TAGGING THE BASES

Luderus, despite a charley-horse, is after Eddie Collins' record of nearly 500 consecutive games. He should not be playing, but 501 is his goal.

The Phillies smacked Ferdie Schupp seven times in four innings, thereby placing the game on ice.

While the Dodgers and Braves were splitting a double header, Hi Myers clinched the second game for the Brooklynites by "poling" one of the longest hits ever seen on the Braves' field, a circuit clout, to the flag pole.

The Tigers have their claws sharpened. They made it three straight from the White Sox.

While the Browns and Indians were doing their 50-50 stunt, George Sisler got two circuit clouts in the first game.

Melvin and Scott drove in the four runs made by the Red Sox in the defeat of the Senators.

Martin bested Miller in a pitching duel, permitting the Cubs to make it three straight on the Pirates.

Ruel and Ward, the "terrible youths" busted up the Yank-Mack-men game in the ninth. Ruel walked and Ward, who batted for Shore, sent out a bouncer which went over Walker's head, permitting both young Yanks to score.

WIRE WORMS.

Wire-worms are hard, shiny, slender light brown larvae about three-quarters to one inch in length, which bore into the seed of corn, often necessitating replanting, and feed on roots or stems or otherwise injure potatoes, turnips and other garden crops.

Ordinarily they feed upon the roots of grasses and native plants so their presence is seldom noticed, but when such ground is broken up and planted to potatoes or corn, the worms have comparatively little to feed upon and quickly become a pest. They are slow in their development, taking from two to five years to become the long, slender, brownish "click" or "snapping" beetles.

There are no effective methods of controlling wireworms without the expense being prohibitive on large areas, according to Prof. G. H. Lamson of the Extension Service of Connecticut. Agricultural College at Storrs. Such methods as are effective come under head of cultural measures. Practice crop rotation. Do not plant the same crop again the following year on a badly infested field, but follow with a cover crop of rye or clover. Plant corn early to hasten rapid growth. Fertilize to encourage growth.

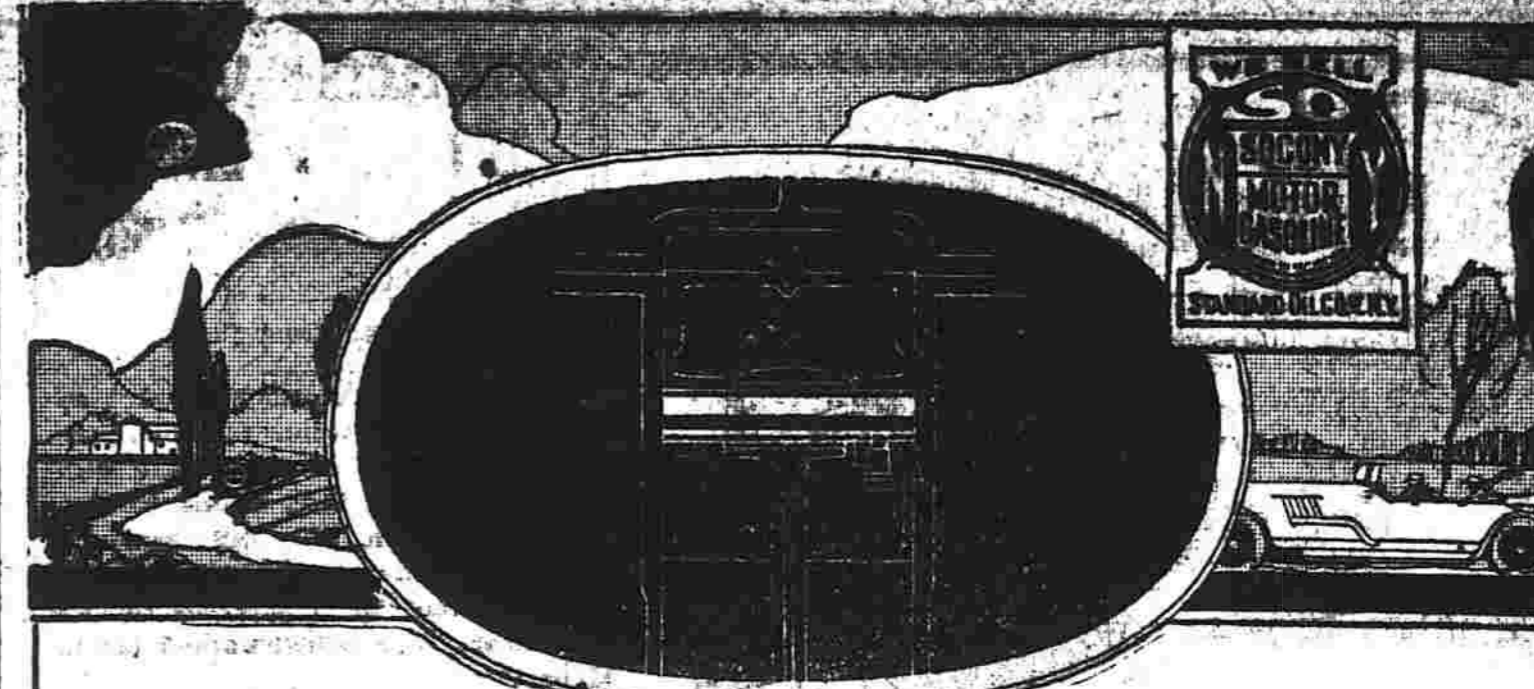

Such measures as lantern traps to catch adults, poisoned bait in the soil to kill the larvae, and fall plowing, which are sometimes advised, are not effective against most kinds of wire worms. Where potatoes are attacked, early digging is sometimes necessary.

Patrons of the line have named the car the "Y. D." special. Close friends since childhood, both men were wounded in the same battle at Chateau-Thierry.

Keeps the Engine Free from "Knocks"

Polarine flows into the closest fitting bearings of the piston pins and crankshaft. Supplies a cushioning film that keeps play from developing in these bearings that receive the full force of innumerable explosive charges. Prevents severe vibration and "knocks" that rack and strain an engine and quickly destroy the bearings.

Keeps down upkeep costs.

Polarine is suited for every type of engine. It does not break down and run thin under high engine heat. Keeps compression tight and the engine free from excessive carbon deposits. Guards against burned-out bearings, ruined crankshafts, scored pistons and cylinders. Assures smallest bills for overhauling and repairs.

SUFFS LAUNCH $100,000 CAMPAIGN NEXT WEEK

Say That 350,000 Women of Connecticut May Get Ballot Sooner Than Expected.

"One can hardly conceive of a more important work during the period of reconstruction the world over than that of the women of this state and every state in America shall be an intelligent one," said Senator John B. Dillon, of Bridgeport, in a statement endorsing the state-wide citizenship fund campaign that will be conducted from June 9 to June 16 for the purpose of raising $100,000 by public subscriptions.

Mrs. Samuel Russell, Jr., of Middletown, chairman of the campaign committee to conduct the state-wide campaign for subscriptions, said that many expressions of support have been received from men and women throughout the state, and that everybody will be given an opportunity to help the movement, which, she declared, is greatly needed as the citizenship work being done throughout the nation among the men.

"If the state legislatures meet in special session and ratify the Federal Suffrage Amendment as soon as it passes the Senate, as has been recommended in many quarters, the 350,000 women of voting age in Connecticut will have the franchise even before we expected. No time is to be lost, therefore, in preparing our women for their civic duties and responsibilities."

Hartford County Committee. Mrs. Russell announced that besides the state campaign committee, the county campaign committees, and the various other executive committees and the volunteer workers, a special committee, known as the Citizen's Committee, has been organized to aid in the campaign in an advisory capacity. Its membership for Hartford County is as follows: Hon. Hugh M. Alcorn, Suffield; Mrs. Joseph W. Alsop, Avon; Mrs. C. H. Bissell, Southington; Miss Mary Taylor Blauvelt, Hartford; Frank Cheney, South Manchester; Mrs. Charles P. Cooley, Hartford; Mrs. Caroline M. Hewins, Hartford; Col. Charles M. Jarvis, Berlin; Judge William M. Maltbie, Hartford; Dr. Ernest de F. Miel, Hartford; Major Emerson G. Taylor, Hartford; Judge Joseph P. Tuttle, Hartford; Mrs. Antoinette E. Wood, Simsbury.

"NOBODY" HAS LUCKY STREAK.

San Francisco, Cal., June 4.—Michael Ryan, derelict, and according to his own estimate of himself, nobody, tramped Montgomery streets an entire day praying for a dime with which to buy coffee. Fate then turned a winning card. Ryan picked up a check for $50.00 made payable to the Sacramento Northern Electric Company. He turned it over to its owners. As a reward for his honest Ryan got one dollar. The banquet last half an hour.

REUNITE AFTER 45 YEARS. Charles City, Ia., June 4.—Mrs. Lanie Dawson, of this city, and her brother, Alec Becker, now of Sacramento, Cal., met here for the first time in forty-five years. They parted in early childhood. Mr. Becker is a deputy sheriff in Sacramento.

STARTLING NEW FASHIONS ARE COMING FROM PARIS

Bare Legs, Extremely Tight Gowns, Short at Bottom and Very Low at Top—Some Details.

Paris, May 22.—(By mail).—Startling new fashions in women's apparel have made their appearance at the Longchamps Race Course where the Parisian smart set annually set styles. In addition to bare legs the women are wearing extremely tight gowns cut very short at the bottom and very low at the top.

The arms are exposed unless covered by a cape. Dress makers declare that the women's dresses are to be shorter than ever this season and are to be cut down further in the front and back. Nothing is worn underneath the newest gowns but girdles and lingerie.

Vivid green and Alice blue seem to be the most popular colors. Khaki has gone out of favor since the ending of the war. During the last years of the world conflict it was quite stylish among the women.

Capes Prominent. Capes are somewhat prominent. One new cloak had three capes attached, one hanging below the other, almost to the hem of the dress. Each cape was bordered with what modistes call "elephant's hair." More dashing, however, are the mantilles which are thrown carelessly over the left shoulder.

It is noted that hat brims have been banned by the milliners this season. Most of the latest hats turn up sharply over the brow. Some wonderful paradise plumes are worn.

On the whole, however, the honors of Longchamps go to skirt and coat completed, with a novel waistcoat that extends half way down the length of the coat. Generally this waistcoat is a contrast of colors, in white pique with black spots. The more conservative coats have high collars with little flaps under the ears.

FIVE ROOM BUNGALOW POPULAR WITH WOMEN

Battle Creek, Mich., is Conducting a Local Own-Your-Own-Home Campaign on Practical Lines.

One of the cities that is now working enthusiastically in support of the "Own-your-own-home" movement started by the United States Department of Labor, is Battle Creek, Mich.

The chamber of commerce of that city supplies plans for builders and is now finding that five-room bungalows with a great deal of closet room find favor with most women. One of these plans, which provides for quantity construction, contains not only all modern conveniences, but includes many artistic ideas. It has a living room 12 by 16 feet with hardwood floor and large double windows. Special attention has been given to lighting and emphasis is placed on good material and substantial construction.

The fact that architects and contractors are now recognizing the importance of closets in other conveniences that appeal to women, whose workshop is the home, is pointed out as one of the evidences of progress toward a time when men and women will cooperate more fully in all that pertains to domestic comfort and domestic economy.

JANITORS SCARCE, SO THE 'T. B. M.' WASHES WINDOWS.

Omaha, Neb., June 4.—Janitors are so scarce in Omaha that business men have to do their own window washing. At least, that was the reason why pedestrians along Fifteenth and Farnam streets the other morning were amazed when they saw Isaac Kahn, president of the McGrath Stationery Company, calmly washing the windows of the store.

Wearing clothes that would do for any tailor's advertisement, Mr. Kahn, perspiring but happy, washed the windows.

"Democracy's a wonderful thing, isn't it?" said one man to another, as they watched the performance.

"You're wrong," said Mr. Kahn, who overheard it, "there's a shortage of janitors and besides it's good exercise."

LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE USED TO HURRY WEDDING

Cincinnati, Ohio, June 4.—"Hello, Mary; can you come to Washington on the first train?" Miss Mary Clay Ireland, Cincinnati, was on the Cincinnati end of the telephone and P. R. Wheeler, Baltimore, business man, was on the other.

Mary said she could and she did. Wheeler was at the station with flowers and a marriage license, accompanied by several army officer friends. Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler are at home in Baltimore.

SAVAGE CLUB TO ENTERTAIN.

London, June 4.—The Savage Club, one of London's oldest social organizations will entertain the American Naval aviators on their return from Paris tonight.

NO, HE DIDN'T RUN.

A colored boy named Sam, while rambling through the woods, came on a hornet's nest. With rare courage for one so young he flung a stick into the abiding place of the little airplanes, with the usual quick results. Sam made a hundred yards in two-fifths of a second less than nothing.

"You didn't run, I hope, Sam," said a white "genman" to whom Sam related the episode.

"Well, mistah, I wouldn't say 'actly that I run, but a man in a field 'cross the road said he couldn't see nothin' of me fum mah wats' down."

Choosing a Mate. Kathryn—I think girls are silly to want to marry those snippy young lieutenants. I shall never marry an officer below the rank of colonel.

Kitty—You're sensible, dearie. Generals are likely to be of a more suitable age for you.

Some Time Left. Mrs. Justwed—You wrote me only from time to time while you were gone and you said you'd think of me when everything else was forgotten.

Her Husband—But, my dear, everything else hasn't yet been forgotten.

DEPENDING.

"How about the running expenses of motorcars?" "They all depend on the people you run over."

The Fleeting Show. The world is but a fleeting show. With beauties never ended. The tax collector lets you know. The free list is suspended.

A Problem. "Here is one thing which is puzzling me." "What is it?" "Would a woman prefer the privilege of making her own will to the right of breaking her husband's?"

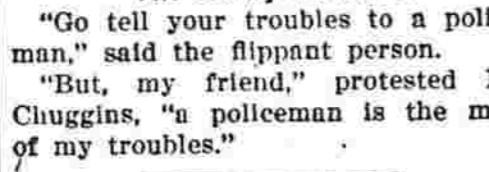

In Jeopardy. "I'm worried about Willie Skiffins." "He's so studious that he ought to get along." "Yes. But he is trying to learn aviation from a correspondence school."

Lingering Irritations. "Ill-gotten gains are often troublesome." "True," said Mr. Dustin Stax. "Many a chap who thinks he is feathering his nest inadvertently picks up a bunch of porcupine quills."

Subterfuge. "That socialist calls himself 'an intellectual.'" "Yes. It's an old trick. He's trying to convey the impression that he is thinking so hard he hasn't time for ordinary work."

The Weary Motorist. "Go tell your troubles to a policeman," said the flippant person. "But, my friend," protested Mr. Cluggins, "a policeman is the most of my troubles."

SHADOW OF A CRIME.

Angy—I am taking a correspondence course to become a detective. Archie—Thassoo? How far have you got?

Angy—I'm beginning on the follow-up letters.

Artless Mendacity. The good old days we truly prize. A theme that went beyond the size of fish that were not caught.

The Discovery. "Why is it we can't sing that round harmoniously?" "Don't you see? The accompanist is playing on a square piano."

Poor Policy. "Everything comes to him who waits." "Maybe, but that's a mighty poor way of getting things."

SOCIALISTS OF ITALY PLEDGE THEMSELVES TO BOLSHEVIK PARTY.

London, June 4.—Resolutions practically pledging the Italian Socialist Party to Bolshevism have been formulated by the executive council of that organization, according to advices received here from Rome.

The executive council consists of fourteen members. One of them, Arturo Volla, is serving a prison sentence awarded for active Socialist speeches and propaganda, and the decision on the new programme was formulated and adopted by the remaining thirteen.

Meetings were held from March 15 to March 22, and the general secretary of the Aragona General Confederation of Labor took part in the discussions. The Russian, German and Austro-Hungarian revolutions were commended and resolutions were passed condemning the Paris Conference on the ground that it was preparing to "oppress a conquered people."

It was also decided that the Italian Socialist Party could no longer affiliate with the International Socialist Bureau on the ground that the latter organization tolerated "patriotic" Socialists, and by a majority of 10 to 3 it was decided to link up its forces with the Revolutionary Socialist International. This latter organization is a Bolshevik society which held its meetings in Moscow recently.

The final resolution which was adopted, withdrawing the Italian Socialist Party from the International Socialist Bureau, stated that the Italian party intended to "work for the constitution of the Revolutionary Socialist International on the principles established by the Russian Communists."

The resolution further declared that active measures would be taken to win over the Socialists of other countries to the movement and that action would be taken to organize a general strike in order to force the withdrawal of Italian troops now in Russia.

HOME OF WASHINGTON'S GREAT-GRANDPARENTS TO BE TOURIST MECCA.

London, June 4.—In commenting on the visit of the American Ambassador, John W. Davis, to Sulgrave Manor, the home of George Washington's great-grandfather and great-grandmother, the English newspapers have generally expressed the sentiment that there is no reason why this historic spot should not, in the future always find a place in the programme of the American tourist.

The visit was undertaken by the Ambassador at the invitation of the Committee of the Sulgrave Institution, John A. Stewart, of the American board of the institution, and Major L. I. Seaman, who are here arranging for the reception of the statue of Abraham Lincoln by Manchester and also looking after the interests of Sulgrave Manor, accompanied the Ambassador. Lord Wear-dale, Mrs. Davis, Miss Mabel Geary, of New York, and H. S. Perris, secretary of the institution, were among those present. The party journeyed to the Manor in a special train, provided by Sir Fey, manager of the Great Central Railway, who is also a member of the board of governors of the institution.

Moving pictures were taken of the party and these will be shown in America later on for the purpose of making Americans acquainted with the birthplace of the ancestors of the Father of his country. It is also intended to exhibit them in the public schools throughout the country. Arrangements are now being made to restore the Manor and Lady Paget has announced that she will be able to obtain a large amount of furniture of the Tudor period in order to give the atmosphere of pre-Colonial days. An effort is also being made to obtain the original railings which were formerly around the tombs of Laurence Washington and his wife. These railings are said to be in America, having been purchased some years ago by a curio collector.

LOST BOTH LEGS, BUT GIRL IS TRUE AND THEY WILL WED.

San Francisco, June 4.—One of the war's most beautiful romances came to light here recently with the announcement that Corporal Joseph Schiefer, the San Francisco lad, who after both legs had been blown off by a German shell wrote home that he was "scratched up a bit," and Miss Bose, the girl who waits for him through all the weary months, he was over in France, are to be married next summer, just as though nothing had happened.

"Perhaps we shall be married sooner than we otherwise should have been," said Miss Bose, "for he will need me now all the more."

"It is enough to be thankful for that he came back when so many others did not. What does loss of limbs mean to us when we love?" "It was up to Helena," said Schiefer. "She couldn't see any difference, and I couldn't, either, so everything's going to be all right."

NEVER FAILED TO WRITE POLKS WEEKLY IN 30 YEARS.

Des Moines, Ia., June 4.—Lake Bower, a Des Moines automobile salesman, heads the honor roll for Mother's Day not only of Des Moines and Iowa, but the nation, it is believed here.

Lake, as he is known, has been away from home for thirty years. In all that time he has never missed a Sunday in writing to his mother or the folks at home.

And Lake is as busy as the average business man of today, too.

Circle Theater

Another theatrical troupe has gone the way of many another itinerant body of Theopians. Once more the sheriff has seized 'em, blood-hounds and poor old Uncle Tom. But Little Eva escaped, riding in a box car to Wattleville, where she disappeared. The young girl ran away in fear after slapping the face of the sheriff.

"When do we eat?" asked the stranded actors as soon as they were able to express themselves. In fact, they had apparently eaten but little of late. Several have gone to work on farms and the manager is in jail. It is a sad world for Uncle Tommers these days.

The foregoing is merely the prelude to the new Paramount picture which will be displayed at the Circle theater tonight, starring Enid Bennett, the Thomas H. Ince-Paramount star. The picture is called "When Do We Eat" and is said to be the best in which this popular youngster has been seen for many months.

In the supporting cast will be found a number of sterling performers, including Al Ray, cousin of Charles Ray, a prominent Paramount star; Robert McKim, one of the most successful screen villains in motion pictures; Jack Nelson, Gertrude Claire, Frank Hayes, and others. Besides these there is a splendid selection of types of the Middle Western small town variety. The picture was directed by Fred Niblo, husband of the star, while the story, said to be one of exceptional interest, was written by C. Gardner Sullivan.

On the same bill tonight will be a famous Sunshine comedy. Tomorrow and Friday that great play which astonished Boston last week "And the Children Pay" will be the feature.

Park Theater

One of the most elaborate sets ever constructed at the William S. Hart studio was built for "The Poppy Girl's Husband", a new Arcraft production, which will be shown again tonight at the Park theater. It shows three tiers of cells in a State's prison. The gloomy corridors of the prison are admirably represented with stone flagged passages, the "iron" gratings and platforms above to the roof of the studio structure.

Each cell contains a white iron bed, and when a hundred or more extras dressed as convicts did the lock-step down the corridor, the effect was highly realistic and painfully reminiscent to those who have visited some of the penal institutions in the country.

This picture is said to differ materially from anything in which Mr. Hart has hitherto made his appearance. Juanita Hansen in the role of the "Poppy Girl" is declared to have a part that suits her well and to which she has done full justice. Among others in the cast appear Capt. Long, late of the U. S. Artillery, and one of the best known "heavy" actors in the business.

San Francisco, the Barbary Coast and the prison are all features of the picture which was written by Jack Boyle for The Red Book and scenarized by C. Gardner Sullivan. Many of the scenes were taken in San Francisco and its environs. Those presenting the Barbary Coast, the underworld resort of the city, are highly realistic.

The story is chock full of thrills and those who saw it last night are telling all their friends how good it is.

Tomorrow Bessie Barriscale will be shown in a feature called "Hearts Asleep."

DON'T CROWD GIRLS; HERE'S CHANCE FOR REAL HUSBY.

St. Louis, Mo., June 4.—Here's a golden opportunity for a girl to get a model husband. The following letter received by Chief of Police O'Brien from Walter H. Allen, 2642 Larimer street, Denver, Col., speaks for itself:

"Pardon me for writing a letter like this, but I am a young widower very lonesome for a good girl that is tired of living alone and would like to settle down."

"I am thirty-three years old, have dark hair and eyes, dark complexion, am 5 feet 5 1/2 inches tall, and weigh 130 pounds. "I do not drink, smoke or chew. "I can cook, sweep, wash clothes, iron, wash dishes, scrub floors and dress kids. "If you know of a girl between seventeen and thirty-five years of age, tell her to write to me. I do not care whether she is as homely as a mud fence, if she knows how to love and treat a fellow right. I have no objection to a woman with a small child, and prefer a girl who has to work rather than one who does not."

MYSTERIOUS MARKINGS ON FREIGHT CARS ARE SURE SIGNS OF BOOZE.

Chicago, June 4.—If while out autoing some Sunday you should be stopped on the crossing by a freight train and should see a car in the train marked "XX", "23-23-23", "Buzz-2-2", "Heaven" or something equally as mysterious, you have stumbled on a warm clue. And the chances are a high-powered automobile will come racing along doing its best to crowd enough speed out of its twelve cylinders to keep abreast of the "marked" train.

For, let it be known right now, the mysterious markings indicate a booze-laden car and they of the speed automobile racing alongside are "whiskey thieves", who will follow the train until it stops, then help themselves to the precious contents.

R. H. Aishton, regional director of railroads, in issuing an order against placing of placards or markings other than standard forms on cars, explained all about the whiskey thieves.

A lookout where the train is made up spots the booze cars, marks it, then goes on about his business. Lookouts scattered along the right of way of the railway watch for these markings, then when the chance presents itself raid the cars.

BOY, PAGE STAR BOARDER.

Portland, Ore., June 4.—Let all boarders moan and all boarding mistresses "shimmy" with fending chortles of glee! Three million pounds of prunes owned by the Government are to be sold tomorrow.

The prunes were grown and packed in Oregon. They were bought for the soldiers.

JAZZ MUSIC IS FINE FOR ACHING HEARTS, SAYS DIVORCEE.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 4.—Jazz music for broken-hearted, disillusioned maidens is the medicine advocated by Ethel Fuster, recent divorcee.

"Love nearly ruined me," declared Mrs. Fuster, her first and only romance having ended in complete failure. "I was a bubble and it burst. Now I find comfort in the reckless joy of jazz stuff."

In Judge Taft's Court here, where she won her decree, Mrs. Fuster asserted Fuster lured her into a mock marriage. Later, discovering she had been deceived, she said, she compelled Fuster to marry her.

"He left me a minute after we were married," she said. "So, you see, it was a thriller. Wood, won, deceived and abandoned. What's a poor girl to do?"

"Now I'm singing every day. Jazz songs, full of life and happiness. A cabaret entertainer, you know."

"It does me good. I'm never unhappy while the orchestra is jazzing things. Broken-hearted maidens may find solace in a jazz song, and don't you forget it."

In granting the decree Judge Taft characterized the marriage as "more or less of a mockery."

CAN'T FEED BOURGEOISE.

Vienna, via London, June 4.—The Soviet government at Budapest has ordered the expulsion of 40,000 of the Bourgeoisie on the ground that they cannot be fed. Refugees are streaming out of the Hungarian capital and the suffering recalls the days of Belgium when the Germans over-ran that country.

BOY SCOUTS ENTER BIG DRIVE TO RID COUNTRY OF CATERPILLAR PESTS.

Washington, June 4.—Boy Scouts, attention! The big drive to get the "tent" caterpillars, those webby things that hang in the trees in June, is on. This is the game at which the Boy Scouts have had the best kind of fun, says the American Forestry Magazine, which urges that organizations be effected to block formations in order to rid the trees of the pests.

"The tents," says the magazine, "are common at this time on wild cherries, mulberries, willow and other trees. Apply a burning rag or torch to the web, or else squirt a little kerosene into the web. This should be done under proper supervision in every case."

Other suggestions for June follow: Spray for leaf-eating insects, for most of them commence defoliation at the end of May.

Hickory trees infested with the hickory bark borer should be removed and destroyed for the beetles emerge early in June and proceed to other trees. Look for the fine poles in the bark and the fine sawdust that is ejected.

Spraying for sucking insects is urged and advice along these lines will be gladly given to any who write to the American Forestry Association, Washington, D. C., and enclose a stamp for answer. In almost any group of trees will be found branches that have died off during the winter. These can be removed now and the resulting wounds covered with coal tar.
