BOMB CLUES LEAD TO NEW YORK, ARRESTS ARE EXPECTED TODAY

Officials Believe Identity of Anarchist Blown Up in Washington Will Soon be Established—Philadelphia Police Think Reds Were Imported From European Countries.

Washington, June 6.—The identity of the anarchist who was decimated in an attempt on the life of Attorney General Palmer was expected by Washington officials to be cleared up by arrests in New York today.

Watching New York. Although efforts to identify the man here have proved futile, government agents indicated today that developments in New York would go a long way toward clearing up the plot. The arrest in that city of a group of Spanish and Italian anarchists was expected, they said. They expressed the belief that the mystery of the Washington victim would be cleared up at the same time.

Radicals Under Surveillance. In the meanwhile government agents and the Metropolitan police were not relaxing their efforts here. Six houses believed to be the haunts of radicals were under the closest surveillance and a number of persons of radical tendencies were being watched. It became known today that a conference of officials was held late yesterday to decide whether these radicals should be taken into custody immediately. However, it was decided to let them operate temporarily, under the closest scrutiny in the hope that indisputable evidence might be obtained against them.

Chief Flynn's View. It was said to be the policy of Chief Flynn to urge the deportation of practically everyone who falls into the "red" dragnet that has been spread over the country. The Department of Justice has turned this phase of the situation over to the Department of Labor, which is in control of the deportation machinery. Labor department officials indicated, however, that there would be no "blanket" deportations, but that each case would be disposed of on its individual merits.

REDS IMPORTED.
Philadelphia, June 6.—The possibility that anarchists newly arrived from Europe had a prominent part in the explosion of bombs in several cities Monday night, was under investigation by federal agents, and the Philadelphia police today.

It was learned from the secret service men who came here from Washington that a purse picked up on the lawn of the home of Attorney General Palmer the day following the explosion at the Palmer home has given them an important clue. The purse contained a note written in French, stating that the bearer had just arrived in New York from France, and naming the boat on which he was a passenger. The purse also contained French and Italian stamps. Leather experts said the purse was made in France.

Inside a wallet which was found here was found a picture of a boy about nine years' old. The boy's hair apparently was of the same color as that of the anarchist killed at the Palmer home and federal agents believe the boy is the son of the dead man.

The French consular authorities in New York have been asked to find out whether the man actually arrived on the steamer indicated, what was his business in the United States, and who were his associates here.

PROBING MINE DISASTER.
Wilkesbarre, June 6.—Chief Seward Button of the State Department of Mines and Inspectors of the various anthracite districts today started an investigation of the disaster at the Baltimore No. 2 Tunnel of the Delaware and Hudson Company.

ADMINISTRATION HEADS TALK ON TREATY "LEAKS"

Welcome Thorough Investigation of Charges Made by Republicans—Treaty Not Completed Yet.

Washington, June 6.—Administration leaders in the Senate took the view today that the American people would be satisfied with the administration contention that the peace treaty should not be made public in this country, or submitted to the Senate for ratification or rejection, until the alterations, it was still undergoing were completed and the negotiations it was still being subjected to were ended.

The same leaders declared the copies of the treaties alleged to have fallen into private hands in New York city could not embody the more recent changes which have been made in the document, but if they had reached the city prematurely, must consist merely of the original text the Germans first received. They added that, "in justice to President Wilson" they would welcome the most thorough investigation of the charges of treaty "leaks" made by Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the majority leader, and Senator Borah, of Idaho, as provided by the resolution of Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, the acting minority leader, which was expected to be favorably reported to the Senate today by the Senate committee on audit and control of contingent expenses. The Senate was expected to pass the measure before the end of the day, Senators Lodge and Borah having agreed with Senator Hitchcock that it should have the support of both sides of the Senate.

BURLESON HASN'T TURNED WIRES BACK TO OWNERS

That is Opinion of Vice President of American Telephone Co.—Has Eliminated Board of Operations.

Washington, June 6.—Postmaster General Burleson has not turned back the telephone and telegraph systems to their private owners, in the opinion of Nathan C. Kingsbury, vice president of the American Telephone Company.

Testifying today before the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee Kingsbury said that Burleson had "simply done away with the board of operations."

"The companies are now operating with control with their own officials," Kingsbury continued, "but operating for the government and reporting direct to the Postmaster General instead of to the Board of operations."

U. S. ARMY TENNIS TEAM.

Paris, June 6.—An American army tennis team has arrived in England, from France, to play a Cambridge University team.

PRINCE OF WALES "SNAPPED" AT SIDE OF NC-4 CREW.

London, June 6.—The cordial relations existing between the English and Americans was emphasized in the House of Commons luncheon given to Lieutenant Commander A. C. Read and his fellow trans-Atlantic flyers when the Prince of Wales insisted on being photographed standing alongside of the gallant skipper of the NC-4.

ONE YEAR AGO TODAY MARINES LAUNCHED ATTACK.

One year ago today, the Fourth Brigade of American Marines launched their famous attack on Belleau Wood, west of Chateau Thierry, now officially known as the "Bols del a Brigade des Marines". On the same day, the German long range gun, concentrating its fire accurately on the center Paris, exploded shells in the Hotel Scribe, one block from the opera and other central parts of the city.

U. S. PUBLICITY BUREAU TO CLOSE SHOP JULY 1

Committee on Public Information To Go Out of Existence.

TARGET OF REPUBLICANS

President Wilson, However, Favors Temporary Continuance of Bureau For Several More Months.

Washington, June 6.—The committee on public information will cease to function on June 15 and on July 1 will go out of existence entirely, it was learned today. Orders have been issued to those connected with the foreign service of the committee to start for home not later than the former date. The two weeks between June 15 and July 1 will be devoted to closing up accounts and "gathering up the loose ends," it was stated.

Wilson Favors Committee. Informal advice reaching Washington have indicated that President Wilson is loath to have the government left without any publicity branch whatever. He is said to favor strongly the temporary continuance of the committee on public information, in view of the fact that other governments, notably the British and French will not cease to have similar organizations send out national propaganda broadcast. However, the President is reported to have confided to close friends that he would not himself recommend that the committee be retained, in view of the hostility that such a move would meet from the Republican Congress.

Target of Republicans.
The committee, ever since its establishment shortly after the United States entered the world war, has been a target for Republicans in Congress and there seemed little likelihood that retention of the organization would be sanctioned by that body now that it has passed in to Republican control.

In view of this situation it was said that the President was anxious to have its foreign work of the committee, at least until the peace conference is ended, taken over by an established government department. The committee has handled much of the routine news coming out of Paris, such as official statements and set speeches, thus obviating duplication and relieving congestion on the already over crowded wires.

POLAND THREATENED.

Frontier to Be Altered, If Fighting in Galicia Is Not Stopped.

London, June 6.—Premier Paderewski, of Poland, is authority for the statement that England threatened to alter the western frontier of Poland in favor of Germany unless the Polish offensive in East Galicia is halted, said a Central News dispatch from Cracow today.

TO PUNISH GERMANY.

If She Attempts Any Military Operations on Polish Front.

London, June 6.—If Germany attempts any military operations on the Polish frontier she will be punished by the Allies in the West, said a Paris dispatch to the Evening News today.

It is probable, the correspondent added, that there may be a modification of the treaty terms affecting the frontier of upper Silesia and also economic conditions imposed on Germany.

JOE EGAN KNOCKED OUT.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 6.—Jack Malone knocked out Joe Egan in two minutes and ten seconds here last night. Only one blow was struck, Malone planting a snappish right to Egan's jaw during the first round and ending hostilities.

TICKERS IN SOUTHLAND SILENCED BY STRIKERS

Walkouts All Over Southeastern States Among Telegraph Operators.

STRIKE BREAKERS APPEAR

Western Union Officials Get Operators From New York and Quarter Them in Hotels.

Atlanta, Ga., June 6.—The fifth day of the strike against the Southern Bell Telephone Company broke today with almost every Western Union wire in the southeastern states silenced by a sympathetic strike of commercial telegraphers from Richmond to Tampa and from the Mississippi river to the Atlantic coast.

Telegraph Offices Locked. Predictions of the strikers that all strikebreakers would be concentrated in Atlanta when the strike was spread to other southeastern cities and that the Atlanta Western Union office alone would be supplied with telegraphers were borne out by events Thursday night and this morning when dozens of Western Union offices throughout the southeast were closed and the keys mailed to division headquarters in Atlanta.

Telegrams were received at general strike headquarters in batches of a dozen or more at a time bearing the news of walkouts all over this section responding to the strike order.

Charleston and Tampa reported at seven o'clock that every man on duty had walked out. Winston-Salem wired that every telegrapher was out and the offices permanently closed. Spartanburg sent a similar message. Charlotte wired that every man on duty with the exception of three office messengers, not telegraphers, had answered the strike call. New Orleans wired that a large percentage was out. Other messages were received announcing complete walkouts and the closing of offices.

The order for a general walkout in all southeastern states was issued late yesterday afternoon by International President S. J. Koenekamp, of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union and Telephone Operators' Association.

Strike Breakers Appear.
More than 200 strike breakers had arrived late yesterday from New York and other cities. About half of these, union leaders declared, will refuse to go to work. They are quartered by the Western Union at the Piedmont and the Ansley hotels.

"The strikebreakers' special" from New York, which came in over the Southern Railway last evening was met and stopped at Chamblee by the Western Union officials with automobiles to drive them into the city. On account of the large crowds who gathered both at Brookwood Station and the terminal station awaiting the arrival of the strikebreakers, it was found advisable to remove them from the train before reaching Atlanta and spirit them into the city secretly. No violence has been threatened, however, and only small committees had been sent by the union to meet and inform them that a strike was on here.

Officials of both telegraph and telephone companies expressed pleasure that the lines had been turned back to private ownership so that the former owners might be free to make a fight against the union.

THE WASHINGTON VIEW.

Washington, June 6.—Plans for the nation-wide strike of telegraphers will be perfected at a conference of union officials in Chicago tomorrow, S. J. Koenekamp, international President of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America, announced before leaving Washington for the Illinois metropolis. Just before calling out the Western Union telegraphers of the southeastern district, following the announcement that Postmaster General Burleson had restored the lines for operation by their owners, Koenekamp asserted that he had no hopes for a peaceful settlement.

U. S. Navy Dares Anything, Says Sec. Daniels in Speech To the Annapolis Graduates

Erzberger Protests Encroachment Of Allied Military Commanders

Berlin, June 5.—(Via London, June 6.)—Dr. Matthias Erzberger, chairman of the German armistice commission, has sent another note to the Allied armistice commissioners at Spa protesting against the "unheard of encroachments of the Allied military commanders" in the Rhine district. The note asks for the release of President Adelung, of the Hessian assembly, who was arrested along with a number of others.

NEW CRISIS IN PEACE NEGOTIATIONS OVER FORMATION OF RHINE REPUBLIC

WILSON WILL NOT STOP WAR TIME PROHIBITION

Unless Congress Intervenes "Dry" Law Will Go Into Effect on July First.

Paris, June 6.—Unless Congress intervenes, war-time prohibition will go into effect on July 1.

Your correspondent was authorized to state officially today that President Wilson will take no further steps to prevent the United States from going dry on that date. The President has been inundated with appeals from America to set aside the war time prohibition measure, because of the belief that Congress will fail to act upon his recommendation, but he has taken the stand that he is unable to do anything further in view of Attorney General Palmer's decision.

The President, however, plans to discuss the effects of the war time prohibition measure with the Cabinet on his return to the United States before the law becomes effective.

President Wilson expressed his warmest satisfaction at the action of the Senate in passing the woman suffrage measure and said he was convinced enough state legislatures will ratify the amendment to permit women to vote in the next presidential election.

TO ABOLISH FOOD CONTROL.

Washington, June 6.—Legislation abolishing the food administration and requiring the Department of Agriculture "to reduce the price of wheat to a level based on the law of supply and demand on world markets, the United States government to assume the loss between this price and the guaranteed price of $2.26 per bushel," is provided in a resolution introduced in the House this afternoon by Representative Fitzgerald, of Massachusetts.

NEW BEDFORD STRIKE OFF.

New Bedford, Mass., June 6.—After a short conference here this morning between committees from the textile council and the Manufacturers' Association it was announced that the strike of engineers and firemen which has tied up the textile industry here for nearly three weeks had been settled. The terms will not be announced until late this afternoon when the textile council meets to vote acceptance.

BIG CROWD FOR BOUT.

Toledo, O., June 6.—Fully 80,000 people will see the Willard-Dempsey fight here July 4, Tex Rickard announced today that the arena now under construction will be increased in capacity from 50,000 to 80,000 and all of the choice pastebards are expected to be disposed of before the first of next week.

Germans Charge Allied Commanders in Army of Occupation are Encouraging the Idea and Supporting It.

Berlin, June 6.—A new crisis in the peace negotiations has developed here, growing out of the charges that French commanders of the army of occupation have encouraged and lent considerable support to the leaders of the movement for the formation of a Rhine republic.

AMERICA HAS JUST BEGUN TO INVENT, HE DECLARES—PREDICTS 60 MILES AN HOUR SHIPS AND AIRPLANES WITH SPEED OF 200 MILES AN HOUR.

Annapolis, Md., June 6.—The Navy dares anything.

This was the keynote of an address by Secretary of the Navy Daniels to the graduating class of the United States Naval Academy here today. Reviewing the accomplishments of the Navy in times of peace as well as war, the Secretary predicted that the inventive genius of its men would in the not far distant future, develop ships capable of a speed of sixty miles an hour, and airplanes with a speed of 200 miles an hour.

Just Begun to Invent.
"We might paraphrase John Paul Jones' phrase, 'I have just begun to fight' and say of Americans, 'We have just begun to invent,'" said the Secretary.

After reviewing the recent trans-Atlantic flight and telling of the accomplishments of the Navy great guns on the western front, Secretary Daniels expressed the belief that the repair of the German ships, wrecked by their crews when it became evident they were to be taken over, was one of the greatest accomplishments of the war.

Notable War Achievement.

"To put in new boilers would have taken months and perhaps years," he said. "As a result orders were issued to make all repairs possible by electric welding and to resort to mechanical patching only where welding was impracticable. There were plenty of men who said it could not be done, and the repair of these vessels was one of the notable achievements of the war."

Reads Secret Order.

The secretary read a heretofore confidential order, issued in the early days of the war, inviting all officers in the navy regardless of rank to submit directly to the Navy Department, suggestions and the results of any studies they might have made.

The secretary also spoke warmly of the League of Nations. "The war will have been fought in vain," the secretary declared if 1920 finds the world without a just and firm purpose and an international tribunal, so that never will it be possible for any Caesar to again bestride the world or any man on horseback to ride rough shod over the rights of nations, great or small.

Isolation Days Over.

"The day of isolation for America has passed. The ancients believed the seas were made to separate nations. We have learned that they were created to unite them in bonds of friendship. The close and intimate association of men of the American navy with the naval personnel of allied countries has done two things: cemented friendships which will endure, and foreshadow international relations which will preserve the peace of the world."

IRISH DELEGATES DEMAND IMMEDIATE INVESTIGATION

Walsh Presents Sec. Lansing With 6,000 Word Report On Conditions in Ireland.

Paris, June 6.—Frank P. Walsh and ex-Governor Dunne, of Illinois representing the Irish American societies, called upon Secretary of State Lansing this morning and demanded an immediate investigation of the case of Ireland.

At the same time they presented Lansing with a 6,000 word report on conditions in Ireland as they found them during their recent visit. They told Secretary Lansing that they are sending copies of this report to President Wilson, Premier Lloyd George, and to Congress.

Walsh declared that if the United States fails to take up the cause of Ireland at the peace conference, he will appeal to France and Italy and will demand to know why President Wilson and Secretary of State Lansing do not carry out the wishes of Congress.

HEAD OF BAVARIAN REDS IS EXECUTED AT MUNICH

Herr Levine Meets Death After Trial By Court Martial—Radicals Threaten to Strike.

Geneva, June 5.—Herr Levine, leader of the Bavarian Bolsheviks, has been executed following his trial by court martial at Munich, said a dispatch from the Bavarian capital today. Levine was head and front of the recent Red counter revolt at Munich.

The radical Berlin newspaper Freiheit threatened a general strike at Munich, Nuremberg and Leipzig if the death sentence was carried out and the Berlin socialist organ Vorwaerts views the situation as being most serious.

WEDDING LICENSE ISSUED TO MUTES VIA FINGERS.

Waukegan, Ill., June 6.—Hyman Bernstein, Salt Lake City, and Charlotte M. Taylor, Chicago, deaf and dumb couple, were married here. When they applied for a marriage license at the County Court the clerk cavorted with his fingers until some of the digits threatened to become disjointed in eliciting the usual questions and answers. He finally got the information that Bernstein was thirty-five years of age and Miss Taylor thirty-one. Then, under the kindly tow of a constable, they traversed to a Justice of the Peace, who, with the aid of his fingers, thumbs, pad and pencil and a few other accessories for transmitting intelligence, united the two in the holy bonds of matrimony.

POLES AND UKRAINIANS MAY SIGN AN ARMISTICE

Report Has It That Delegation Has Arrived at Lemberg to Start Negotiations.

Copenhagen, June 6.—A Ukrainian delegation has arrived at Lemberg to negotiate an armistice with the Poles, it was reported from that city today.

The conflict between the Poles and Ukrainians has been a source of considerable anxiety to the peace delegates in Paris. The Poles were asked to cease hostilities but instead of doing so continued their offensive against the Ukrainians with successful results. There has been bitter fighting around Lemberg between the Ukrainians and Poles for possession of the city.

E. W. Post, J. H. Dowd and Louis Grazel were named as an outing committee for the company.

It was voted to donate $100 to the Manchester Memorial Hospital fund. As a delegate to the state convention to be held in New Haven, E. W. Post was chosen.

Hose Co. No. 4 will meet Saturday evening, No. 2 will meet Monday evening and No. 1 Thursday evening.

DEATH SPARES COURT FROM TRYING FRIEND.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 6.—"Abated by death."

The writing of these words while tears coursed from his eyes spared Judge Virgil J. Terrell the ordeal of sitting in judgment on his boyhood chum, Morris Darling, who "went wrong." Darling, who had a long criminal record, finally was picked up in Cleveland as a pickpocket. He hanged himself the day before he was to have been arraigned before his friend of boyhood days.

GIRL BECOMES EDITOR.

Stillwater, Okla., June 6.—A precedent was broken at the Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College here at the annual student election when Miss Grace Snary, of Carmen, was elected editor of the 1919-1920 Orange and Black, the student weekly paper. It is the first time that a girl has been elected to the position.

CENTER FLUTE BAND WILL HOLD MUSICAL CONTEST

Musical Organizations from Many Parts of State to Meet Here for Competition—Dancing in Evening.

Lovers of good band music will find it very much worth their while to be in Center Park tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. At that time the Center Flute Band is going to conduct a musical contest in which bands from many parts of the state will take part. Contestants are expected from Willimantic, Meriden, Hartford, Rockville, Stonington and elsewhere.

Three competent judges will determine which band is entitled to the prizes. These are three handsome loving cups and will be awarded to the best players in three different contests or classes.

The competition will be preceded by a parade which will leave Orange hall at 2.30 and proceed down Chestnut street past Cheney Brothers' mill to Pine, thence to Hartford Road and to Main street, up Main to East Center where the line will countermarch to the park for the contest.

In the evening there will be dancing in Orange hall and admission to the hall and floor will be free. Music will be furnished by the Victor orchestra.

STOCK MARKET

New York, June 6.—There were vigorous advances at the opening of the stock market today in a large number of stocks with a good demand in evidence even in issues in which moderate declines were noted.

Most interest was attached to the buying of Steel Common which rose 1-2 to 110 3-4. Crucible advanced 1-2 to 96 1-2. United Cigars advanced 1-2 to 14 1-2. American Ice Securities recorded the greatest gain in the first 15 minutes, advancing 4 1-4 to a new high record of 76. Reading advanced 7-8 to 93 3-8 and there was a good demand for the low priced rails including Missouri Pacific, Pere Marquette and Pittsburg and West Virginia.

All the coppers were strong, Utah advancing 1 3-8 to 84 7-8. Ohio Cities gas rose 3-4 to 59. Marine Preferred was weak, falling 2 1-4 points to 119 1-2.

SIDNEY E. STOUGHTON.

Sidney E. Stoughton, a prominent farmer of Wapping, died yesterday afternoon in the house where he was born 73 years ago. Mr. Stoughton was for several years a brick manufacturer but at the close of his life was a tobacco farmer. The Stoughton house was built by the father of the deceased and for some time used as an inn. At that time Mr. Sidney Stoughton used to assist his father in the conduct of the place.

He was a member of Evergreen Lodge, F. and A. M., the Grange and the Congregational church. He was also a member of the G. A. R., having served in the navy during the Civil War.

Mr. Stoughton is survived by his wife, Louisa; by his son, Sidney F. of this town; by two daughters, Mrs. Harold O. Miller of Springfield, Mass., and Miss Etta Stoughton of Wapping and by six grandchildren.

Mr. Stoughton married Miss Louisa Rutherford of Broad Brook on the 6th of March, 1870.

Throughout his life and everywhere he was known Mr. Stoughton was noted for his uncompromising integrity in all his business dealings. He had a wide reputation for absolute honesty in all matters.

The funeral will be held at his late home Sunday, June 8, and will be conducted by the Rev. G. E. Hamilton, pastor of the Congregational church of Wapping.

SUBS ON SOUTHERN RIVER.

Knoxville, Tenn., June 6.—A fleet of submarine chasers will appear on the Tennessee and Cumberland rivers in the near future. BOYS HANG PLAYMATE WITH HIS SWING ROPE TO APPLE TREE LIMB

Run Away When Victim Becomes Black in the Face.

WERE IMITATING MOVIE; HAD QUARREL OVER ROPE

Brother of Dead Boy Tells Story of Gruesome Prank—Lads Who Held Rope Hiding from Police.

Trying to imitate a scene they had witnessed at the movies, several New Britain youngsters, late yesterday afternoon, hanged a playmate, Joseph Tontaski, 11 years old of 25 Silver street, that city. When the boys realized that Joseph was dead they became frightened and ran away and the police are searching for them. Walter, a nine year old brother of the boy who was hanged, was a witness of the gruesome sight. From the incoherent story told the police by Walter, it appears that he and Joseph are pupils in the Sacred Heart school. After the classes had been dismissed the boys went to a lot in the rear of the Horace Booth estate near North Burritt street. There were several apple trees on this lot and Joseph, the dead boy, had a piece of rope which he threw over an apple tree branch planning to make a swing. Several other boys were there. They wanted the rope and he refused to give it up. A quarrel followed and one of the boys took it away from Joseph. Then, according to Walter's story, one tied it around Joseph's neck while the other threw the other end over the tree branch and pulled Joseph off the ground. When the boy's face became black because of strangulation, the youngsters became frightened, dropped him and ran away. Walter says he does not know the other boys.

about his neck, choked him to death. Walter, however, insists that the rope was not put about his brother's stomach, but, was fastened about his neck in the first place.

Joseph was the second oldest of five children. There is one brother older than he, and two brothers and a younger sister. He peddled newspapers, and was a bright little lad. Tonight when police officers reached the household, realization of what had happened was beginning to dawn on the family, and the father and mother were sobbing loudly, the father with his head in his hands, while Walter, witness of the terrible affair, was trying to tell a connected story, with little success. The body of the boy was taken to the undertaker rooms of Frank Brodzik and prepared for burial. His father is employed at the P. & F. Corbin division of the American Hardware Corporation, and did not learn of the affair until he reached home.

SOLDIER CANDIDATES IN MISSOURI ENTER POLITICS.

Kansas City, Mo., June 6.—The crop of prospective soldier candidates in Missouri already has begun to show. It is common gossip among the Missouri and even the Kansas men of the One Hundred and Thirty-ninth Infantry that Colonel Carl Ristine, the commander of that regiment, will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor of Missouri.

Not to be outdone, Lieutenant Colonel James E. Reiger, of the same regiment, is also said to be a candidate for the Democratic honors. Both officers made splendid war records, and are prominent otherwise, so the boys are betting their commanders will show a pair of clean heels to their opposition.

BOY SPILLS THE BEANS ABOUT HIS NEW FELLER.

Smith Center, Kan., June 6.—The Methodist Sunday school here was "shocked" and amused when Willie Harris, a member of a little boy's class, betrayed some secrets about his sister.

"My sister has a new diamond ring," piped little Willie out in class. "Hush," warned his teacher, who scented the giving away of a secret, as she blushing pointed her finger at him.

"Well, she has," Willie reaffirmed, "and paw says it's a good one because her beau had to sell his best mule to pay for it."

RETURNS TO FIND WIFE DEAD THREE MONTHS.

McAlester, Okla., June 6.—To find his wife had been dead three months and to be given a pile of letters he had written her by the neighbors was the experience of J. E. Holliday, a pipe line company employee here, upon his return from a five months' trip. He left her Christmas and this was his first visit home. Holliday had not heard from her, but did not think it strange as he was moved about from place to place frequently.

SCOUTS WILL CAMP OUT LAST OF NEXT MONTH

Are Now Looking for Site Near Pond—Director Whiting Will Be in Charge.

The local troops of Boy Scouts will have the privilege of going camping this summer.

Plans are under way to secure a camping site at one of the ponds within a reasonable distance from Manchester.

Preliminary reports from the several troops indicate that from thirty to fifty boys will participate in the outing.

The camp will be held the last two weeks of July. That particular time was selected in order that Mr. Whiting could have full charge of the boys. Mr. Whiting has had considerable experience in arranging summer camps and is willing to assume the responsibility of this one. The activities of camp will consist of water sports, signalling, hikes, games and contests.

Russell Hathaway will be an assistant for a part or all of the time and there may be need of more assistance depending upon the number of boys in attendance.

To Have Chef.
The boys will probably do a portion of their own cooking but in order to provide proper food, properly prepared a man will be hired to act as chef.

The equipment consisting of tents, sleeping cots and the larger cooking utensils, will be provided. The boys will be asked to pay only for the food which they eat. The cook's wages, the transportation charges, boat hire, and all other expenses will be met by local contributors.

PETER CLARK McFARLANE BECOMES REAL MINER.

San Francisco, June 6.—Peter Clark McFarlane, war correspondent and story writer, has become a full-fledged mining operator. He entered the ranks at Divide County recently and is now numbered with the countless others who are braving the "double dry" southern Nevada desert in search of greater fortune.

McFarlane arrived in the Nevada camp with the idea in mind of describing a brand new camp in the making. He quickly caught the fever and remained to become a miner in his own right.

The McFarlane Divide Mining Company has been organized with other writers and mining men. It owns the Lexington group of four claims, located in the Ben Hur property.

FIGHTING IN FINLAND.

London, June 6.—The Bolshevik forces launched a furious night battle against the Finnish troops along the whole frontier of Finland, said a News Agency dispatch from Helsingfors today. In retaliation the fortress of Kronstadt, (one of the defenses of Petrograd), has been bombarded.

THEATRICAL MAGNATE DEAD.

New York, June 6.—Frederick W. Thompson, who started with a capital of $8 and became one of the best known theatrical producers and amusement park promoters in the world, died at St. Vincent's hospital today, following an abdominal operation. Besides founding Luna Park at Coney Island, Thompson conducted the big "Toyland" at the San Francisco exposition, managed the New York Hippodrome and other enterprises. His first wife was Mabel Tallafiero, the actress.

EXPECTS SERIOUS DAYS.

Amsterdam, June 6.—At a review of German troops in front of the police station in Berlin, General von Lutwitz addressed the soldiers, expressing the hope that "their morale would be maintained for the serious days to come," said a dispatch from Berlin today. The officer declared the troops should defend the government.

SIX TRANSPORTS ARRIVE.

New York, June 6.—Six transports bearing 10,925 veterans of the war, arrived in New York harbor and docked in quick succession this morning. Among the homecoming troops were units of the Nineteenth Division, made up of Texas and Oklahoma National Army men and the last of the eighty-eighth division, from the Middle West.

UKRAINE IN REVOLT.

Copenhagen, June 6.—The whole of Ukraine is aflame with revolt, according to information received here today.

There has been deep unrest in Ukraine for some time. It was intensified after the Poles invaded the country defeating the Ukrainians in a series of battles.

WANTED—A PENNY.

The United States is suffering from a penny famine and Uncle Sam has set his mints working overtime to satisfy the nation's demand for the little brown pieces.

Of course it may be that we are "penny wise and pound foolish" but the fact remains that every mint in the country has been put on a twenty-four hour schedule turning out that coin which buys us least and is spent most often.

The old order is reversed and since it became necessary for the government to have "millions for defence" every man, woman and child has had to repeatedly pay "one cent for tribute" to the god of war. No longer is "a penny saved a penny got." On the contrary, at every soda fountain, on every trolley car, at every candy counter one finds that it costs at least a penny to spend a nickel. A nickel spent is a penny lost.

Our astute Secretary of the Treasury is well aware that all he has to do is to "take care of the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves." Yet he himself, in his private expenditures must pay the penny tax as often as the rest of us. He is like the man in the old book who "with one hand put a penny in the urn of poverty and with the other took a shilling out."

Still, let no man despise the penny. It is the foundation of finance. For most of us it was our introduction to the monetary system. We grant it—or refuse it, as the case may be—to our children more often than any other coin. With it we teach the first lessons of thrift and in exchange for it most of us first tasted the delights of the all-day sucker, first learned the joy of the peppermint stick, first extracted the soothing salice of a stick of chewing gum.

But by no means is the penny limited to the purchase of things earthly. Man has established it as the unalterable price for that rarest of all commodities—thought. "A penny for your thoughts" we say and we never offer more for the ideas we buy are so often second hand.

No, we could not live without the ubiquitous penny. The treasury turned out no less than 90,000,000 of them last month and still we are saying to the master of the mints—Please, Mister, give me a penny!

PRIVATE MANAGEMENT AND RATES.

The restoration of the wire lines to their owners will not at once make any difference in the rates charged to the public. In fact no material readjustment may be expected for some time to come. The government as a war employer, while requiring most of its soldiers and sailors to work for smaller pay than they could command in private life, increased the pay of public utility employees far above pre-war rates. For that reason labor unions are opposed to the relinquishment of government control of public utilities, while owners of these properties and the people who are dependent upon them for their service favor it.

It is self-evident that prices cannot come down until wages come down and the readjustment of wages will be a slow process. Probably they will never drop to the pre-war level. But private managers can do one thing which will benefit the public. By the removal of their business from politics and by requiring their employees to earn their money they can effect savings which will in time tend to lower rates.

This is going to be a laurel year and already the hillsides are beginning to show tints of the color with which they will be aglow in a few days.

The change to cooler weather is gratifying to everybody except the fellow who is always finding fault, and who says that just as soon as he gets on his lightest summer clothes and rigs up the electric fan it suddenly turns cool.

Congress has appointed a committee of fifteen to investigate the wartime expense of the war department. Undoubtedly the committee will find that money has been spent extravagantly although that discovery in itself will do no particular good; but if it shows where extravagant expenditures are still going on it will give Congress an opportunity to stop them.

"COURANT" DENIES LIBEL IN LAWSUIT

Alleges Rogers Did Not Represent Governor in Washington.

(From Today's Hartford Courant.) The Hartford Courant Company, by Day & Berry, its attorneys, yesterday filed with the clerk of the superior court the answer of the Courant Company in the suit instituted by Willard B. Rogers of South Manchester to recover damages of $50,000 because of an article published in "The Courant" of March 16 of the present year, and which Mr. Rogers charges was libelous of him. The complaint in the suit was returned to court on the first Tuesday of May, and the filing of the answer yesterday, gets the answer into court within the rule fixed for the filing of the pleading, thus causing no delay to Mr. Rogers in the claiming of the ease for trial. The answer denies that the article complained of by Mr. Rogers was libelous and it is further pleaded that the article of which he complains was in fact true. Other defenses are pleaded by the Courant Company. The answer puts Mr. Rogers to his proof as to many of the matters pleaded by him in the complaint.

In paragraphs one to four inclusive he sets out in the complaint that in the October election in Manchester he was elected a selectman, that he qualified as such and that he was secretary of the board at the time of the publication complained of, and he says that for several years prior to the publication he had been a member of the board. He then recites that in the election in November, 1918, he was elected a representative from the town to the Legislature, that he had qualified as such representative, and he says that for two years prior he had been a member of the Legislature. In paragraph three he sets out that he was an officer of a fraternal organization and the fourth paragraph of the complaint sets out that he conducts an insurance business.

As to the matter outlined, The Courant Company pleads that it has no knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief, and Mr. Rogers is called on to prove what he alleges.

In the fifth paragraph of the complaint, Mr. Rogers alleges that on February 19, 1919, the speaker of the House of Representatives appointed him as chairman of a committee to investigate labor conditions in Connecticut, and he pleads that as chairman of that committee he was sent by the governor of the state, Marcus H. Holcomb, as a delegate to the conference on unemployment in Washington, D. C., held on or about March 3, 1919. The answer denies that Rogers was sent as a delegate by the governor of the state, and as to the rest of the matter pleaded by Rogers in the paragraph, the answer says the Courant Company has no knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief and therefore Rogers is left to prove all that is pleaded in the fifth paragraph.

Rogers in the sixth paragraph of his complaint says that by reason of his public positions and business affiliations he has become very widely known throughout the state of Connecticut and has heretofore held the public respect and confidence, both in his business dealings and public career. The Courant Company pleads that it has no knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the matter pleaded in the paragraph and calls upon Mr. Rogers to prove the truth of the allegations.

In the seventh paragraph the complaint recites that on Sunday, March 16, 1919, the defendant published a false, malicious, disparaging and contemptible article in the Sunday issue of its paper, for the purpose of exposing him to public hatred, contempt, ridicule, aversion or disgrace, and to induce an evil opinion of him in the minds of right-thinking persons, and then the complaint follows with a copy of the article. The answer admits the publication of the article as set forth in the paragraph of the complaint and then makes formal denial of all of the remaining matter contained in the paragraph.

Following the seventh paragraph, Mr. Rogers pleads that, by reason of the publication of the article complained of, he has suffered in his business and has been subjected to the contempt, ridicule and aversion of the public, has been looked down upon by those who formerly held him in high respect, and has been obliged to endure the insults wherever he appeared either in connection with his public duties or private business, to his great personal mortification and financial damage.

In addition to the matter set out in the first defense as already outlined, The Courant Company follows with a second and third defense. The matter pleaded in the first defense is made a part of the second defense and the additional matter pleaded in the second defense by The Courant Company is that the statements contained in the article complained of by Rogers were true. The matter contained in the first and second defenses are made a part of the third defense and then the third defense goes on to plead:

"The defendant published said ar-ticled in good faith without any malice in fact against the plaintiff but merely as a fair and just criticism upon the conduct of the plaintiff, a man in public life, with the sole and honest intention to furnish the readers of its paper with an item of current news upon a subject matter of general interest to the community; the information therein contained having come to the defendant in the usual course of business from reliable sources, the truth of which information the defendant had honest and reasonable grounds for believing."

Judge Alexander Arnot of Manchester is the only counsel of record in the case on the part of Mr. Rogers. The "Hartford Times," by which newspaper Mr. Rogers is employed, announced some weeks ago, however, that David E. Fitzgerald of New Haven, who is chairman of the democratic state central committee, had been retained as associate counsel. Mr. Fitzgerald's name, however, does not appear in connection with the case on the records of the superior court.

"KISSLESS BRIDE" FREE; HER MARRIAGE ANNULLED

Society Bud and Inspector at Shipyard Married After Brief Courtship.

New York, June 6.—The secret romance of pretty young Virginia Blair Reeves Warner, Washington and Philadelphia society bud, and Henry H. Warner, young inspector at the Hog Island shipyard, came to an end today when a referee recommended the annulment of the marriage of the inspector and his "kissless bride".

Mrs. Warner is the step daughter of Commander Archibald L. Parsons, of the Philadelphia Navy Yard. She made her debut in 1916, after graduating from a fashionable girl's school. On June 15, 1917, she motored to New York with Warner from a house-party at Montclair, N. J., and was married. Warner returned to his work in the shipyards and his bride to the home of her chum, Agnes Repplier in Philadelphia. They told no one of their marriage and when Warner met her later at her parents' home in Washington he did not even kiss her for fear her mother would suspect that they were in love.

It was after Warner's declaration that he "ditched" married people that had children and that he did not care for her any more, that the kissless bride told her parents of the secret marriage, she said. They brought the annulment proceedings.

K. OF C. WILL ERECT TWO BUILDINGS AT PANAMA.

Arlington, Mass., June 6.—James M. Mead, State Treasurer of the Knights of Columbus, has left for Panama to superintend the construction, for the national K. of C., of two buildings, at either end of the Canal Zone, which are to be used as welfare centers for United States soldiers and sailors. These buildings are to be erected at once, one at Cristobel, on the Atlantic side, and the other at Balboa, on the Pacific. They are to be of concrete and will cost in the vicinity of $40,000 each. They are to be so appointed and equipped as to meet the recreational, amusement and educational needs of the 25,000 men of the service who are practically isolated in the Canal Zone, and, it is expected, will prove an agency of great moral betterment.

"MODERN EYES" SHOCK AT LONDON RESORTS.

London, June 6.—The "modern eyes" are driving away large numbers of elderly men and women with old fashioned views from Brighton, England's most popular summer resort, says the Weekly Dispatch. Some of the bathing suits worn by women at Brighton leave nearly the whole body exposed. The Brighton correspondent of the Weekly Dispatch tells of seeing three elderly invalids order their servants to wheel them away because of the daring bathing suits worn by three women who were disporting themselves nearby.

ERZBERGER FOR SIGNING.

London, June 6.—Dr. Mathias Erzberger, head of the German army commission, during a prolonged discussion of the peace terms is now advocating signing the treaty, said an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Berlin today, quoting the Deutsche Zeitung. Previous advices had characterized Dr. Erzberger as being opposed to signing the treaty.

"ANGRY TEMPERAMENT."

Springfield, Ill., June 6.—"Temperament in a noted violinist got the best of an audience here. The fiddle virtuoso was playing a selection of "Cancion d'Amor" before an assembly at the Y. M. C. A. Some one shuffled their feet. The player struck a "blue" note. Then some one whispered. Laying his violin on a nearby table the testy entertainer said: "Either you or I will make the noise in this concert. If you insist on talking while I play, then I shall quit playing, or you shall go outside to talk." Nobody went outside and the playing continued in quietness.

BOOKS THAT WILL HELP YOU GET A BETTER JOB

Library Announces List and Asks for Names of New Volumes on Similar Topics.

The Connecticut Public Library Committee has asked the town libraries that are given state aid, to make a list of such books as they have which may help men, especially the returning soldiers and sailors, to fit themselves, while unemployed, for better positions than they had before the war. The state committee has recommended the purchase of books on employments, and says they must be of fairly recent date to be of much use. The following is a list of such books as the library has, and they may be found on a shelf near the door. Others will be added if the names are given to the librarians.

LABOR PARTY WAITING WORD FROM MERIDEN

Fate of New Organization Here Rests With State Convention Now in Session.

The outcome of the State labor convention which is now being held in Meriden will have a great bearing on the future developments of Manchester's newly organized Labor Party. This party was organized at a rally held at the Park Theater a few months ago and but very few members were secured. The party platform however has favorably impressed a great number of workingmen who are awaiting the opinion of the convention as to whether it will go on record as being in favor of the new organization here.

GRAIN OF CORN KILLS BOY.

St. Louis, Mo., June 6.—A grain of corn lodging in the windpipe of Paul Dorlas, J., five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dorlas, of Darbonne, St. Louis County, caused his death at the Jewish Hospital. The child was playing in a field with two playmates and had shelled some corn, placing the grains in his mouth. A remark made by one of his playmates caused him to laugh and the corn was drawn into his windpipe.

BOY, GAS, FIRE, HOSPITAL.

Laporte, Ind., June 6.—Twelve-year-old John Green was playing around an abandoned gasoline tank. He wondered if there was any gasoline in the tank and struck a match to see. There was. Johnny went to a hospital.

TRAVELERS AID TO CARRY ON WORK BEGUN IN WAR

Manchester Committee Asked to Spread Information of What is Being Done by State Association.

One of the many lines of work organized during the war under the Women's Division of the Connecticut State Council of Defense was that of Travelers' Aid, especially designed to help the relatives of soldiers who wished to visit the camps. It was then found that it was not sufficient to have Travelers' Aid agents at the stations in the cities or at the stations near the camps. It was essential that the men and especially the women traveling to the camps should know of these agents and should understand the offer of help that was extended to them when they were traveling. What was found to be essential during the war has also been discovered to be greatly needed in peace time, and the Connecticut State Travelers' Aid Association is trying to pick up the organization formed under the State Council of Defense and to make it a permanent and useful auxiliary to Travelers' Aid work.

This work, during the war, was done by a committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. F. T. Blissh and Miss Lillian Cheney is continuing the work.

The main part of Travelers' Aid work must always be done in the cities. In Connecticut, city organizations maintain Travelers' Aid agents at the stations in Hartford, New Haven, Bridgeport, Waterbury and New London. The services of these agents are freely offered to girls, women and men going to the cities from the small towns and from the rural regions. The expense of the service is borne entirely by the cities, although it is not city people who most need these services. What the State Association is now trying to do is to have these services more generally known, and to make the city a safe place for women and girls from the country, by providing that no woman or girl shall go to the city friendless or helpless, but shall be met and introduced to safe boarding places, and to the best agencies of city life by the agents of the Travelers' Aid.

The program of work that the Manchester committee is asked to carry out by the Connecticut State Travelers' Aid is a program of information and education. It is planned to get the knowledge of Travelers' Aid to those who need it through the Americanization centers, through the co-operation of employers of labor; through the co-operation of theater managers, and through the appearance of speakers before all organizations that will assist in the work by giving an opportunity for their members to hear about Travelers' Aid.

Leaflets and speakers will be supplied by the Connecticut State Travelers' Aid Association. The local committee under Miss Lillian Cheney's chairmanship will arrange for the distribution of the leaflets and for opportunities for the speakers. There are no state funds for the support of the work. It is all done by means of voluntary contributions, and each town which takes advantage of the offer of the State Association is asked to make some contributions towards the expenses, which are comparatively small. The State Association has two forms of membership—individual members who may contribute anything from one dollar up and organization memberships. These organizations are chiefly those which are interested in the safety and protection of girls, such as Girls' Friendlies, local Y. W. C. A.'s, and women's and girls' clubs.

UNITE ON SINGLE TAX SAYS CAIRNS TO CLUB

President of Single Tax Club Urges Members to Work for "Fundamental Reform."

At last night's meeting of the Manchester Single Tax Club, President John Cairns explained to the members assembled what was being planned for the formation of a Single Tax party in Connecticut.

He said that single taxers all over the country have come to the conclusion that hereafter they should concentrate on a platform with but one plank; single tax. In former years, and up until the present time, followers of Henry George, have been very liberal in their support of various reforms, principally prohibition and equal suffrage. Now that both these issues have been practically settled it is up to the single taxers, said Mr. Cairns, to concentrate all efforts on the fundamenmental of all reforms, the land question.

Following the tour of Mr. Robinson, national organizer, who is touring the states and who stopped at Manchester several weeks ago, it develops that a score of influential Connecticut citizens have signified their intentions of backing the movement. From now on, every election will find a single tax ticket in the field. This, in the opinion of the leading single taxers, will be good advertising and will bring forth questions, which is what the single taxers want.

Mr. Cairns demonstrated with figures that the amount of money annually expended in the United States on artificial values of land could easily run the United States government.

No definite action as to the placing of a ticket in the field in Manchester was decided upon at last night's meeting as it was the opinion of those present that it was too early to discuss that matter.

TAGGING THE BASES

Eddie Collins hit one of the shortest home runs on record during the White Sox defeat of the Yankees. The ball struck the turf ten feet behind the infield but Vick's anxiety to make a shoestring catch let it roll to the bleacher fence.

Cicotte ran up his tenth victory in eleven games.

Ernie Shore had walloped the White Sox eleven times in 19 games prior to yesterday. Then the thing happened.

The Red Sox won a costly victory over the Tigers as Babe Ruth, while sliding back to third base, wrenched a knee and had to be carried from the field.

As an emergency pitcher Eller waltzes beautifully. He went in to relieve Bressler when the bases were intoxicated and proceeded to walk the batter, pinch hitter Schulz, forcing Jn Clemons with the sole but winning run.

Walt Johnson had one of his old-time days, so the Browns got but four scattered hits.

Hank Gowdy was the main attraction during the exhibition game staged by the Dodgers and Braves at Buffalo while those two teams were on their way westward.

FORETELLS OF DEATH. Swampscott, Mass., June 6.—"I have a premonition that the end is near. I will be dead before morning," Miss Ida D. Raymond, twenty-six, told her family. She died before dawn at the home of her sister, Mrs. Annie Murray. She had been ill about a month.

Miss Marie McNulty of Ottawa has the distinction of being the only woman practicing law in the Dominion capital.

Springfield, Ill., June 6.—Plenty of money didn't help Barton Manuel in a justice of the peace court here. He had been hauled in for intoxication. Given an opportunity to go scot free if he would disclose where he purchased his liquor, Manuel said: "I never 'snitched' in my life, and I'm not going to start now." He said he would be glad to pay a fine regardless of the amount, but the Judge sentenced him to thirty days in the "cooler" to think it over.

TORRINGTON TO FIND

"JERRY" FAY ON FIRST

Athletics Ready for Big Game Sunday—Benches Ready for Crowd at Mt. Nebo Grounds.

Leo "Jerry" Fay, Manchester's popular boy athlete and a former member of the New Haven club of the state league, will again be seen at his old position, first base, when the Athletics line up against the Torrington team at the Mount Nebo grounds on Sunday afternoon. Leo was with the Eastern League a while this season playing with the New Haven club, but was released by Chief Myers of that club along with six other left hand batters. "Jerry" had the option of being placed with another club but he has decided to stick to semi-professional ball this summer, at least.

The benches for which the management has been waiting some time are completed and will be placed on the field in time for Sunday's game. They will be placed about 40 feet from the lines and near the wood. This will prevent the fans from crowding too close to the playing lines and will also avert accidents which are bound to happen when the crowd does not keep a reasonable distance from the lines.

On Sunday, June 15th, the Athletics will probably play in New Haven against the Elm City Colored Giants. Sunday out of town games have been refused with the Schenk team of Meriden, Norwich and the Army Hospital of New Haven as Manager Dowd wishes to play as many home games as possible. One of the conditions precedent to the Elm City Giants coming to Manchester was that the locals should play a return game in New Haven.

Says Athletics are Fast.

Manager Smith of the New Haven team stated that the Athletics are well known throughout the state as one of New England's strongest semi-professional teams and he expects a large attendance at the New Haven game. Arrangements will also be made to have the colored boys play a return game in town. Unless the locals play the Fisk Red Tops in Springfield on Saturday, June 14th, Thompsonville or some other strong team will be brought to town on that day. If other cases arrive where it is necessary to bring teams to town and then guarantee a return engagement out of town at a later date games will be played at Mount Nebo grounds on Saturday.

THREE CLAIM THE GIRL WHO IS WITHOUT A HOME.

Rock Island, Ill., June 6.—Who should receive the custody of pretty Miss Carmela Agnes Pines, aged fourteen years—her father, grandfather or stepfather?

This question is puzzling a Judge in the Circuit Court here.

All three claim the girl and have filed suits to support the claim. The case is a singular one: Mr. Pines was divorced from his wife, who was given the custody of the child and later remarried. She died recently. The stepfather sought the guardianship of the girl, but this was denied on a modification of the divorce decree granted her father.

Then the grandparent on the mother's side stepped in and also wanted the child. It developed into a wrangle in many courts of Cook County, Ill., and Des Moines, Iowa, finally being brought here.

The case is expected to be taken to the Supreme Court of the State and possibly to the United States Supreme Court.

MOTHER OF 27 QUITS HOME.

Woodland, Cal., June 6.—Lucia Cornea, who claims he is father of twenty-seven children, twenty-five of whom are living, recently appeared to the probation officer with the statement his wife had deserted him, and her whereabouts is unknown. Last year Cornea was arrested for alleged failure to provide for his family.

HUDSONS ARE WINNING 100 PER CENT RECORD

Diamond at Four Acre Lot Has Been Improved and Many Fans Are Expected.

The Hudson team of this town will cross bats with the Victory club of Hartford at Four Acre lot on Sunday afternoon. This game is creating considerable interest as it is the first game to be played on the Hudson's new field. A large force of men have been working on the diamond this week and it is expected that they will finish today. A backboard has been erected and many other improvements will be noticeable on Sunday. The Hudson management announced that arrangements are being made for a series of games with the local White Sox, the first game in all probability will be played on June 22nd. The Hudsons have won every game this season and are beginning to look like serious contenders for town championship honors. On Saturday the Hudsons will meet the crack Glastonbury team in the soap town.

LONDON DOCTOR SAYS FAT-MEN SHOULD WEAR CORSETS.

London, June 6.—Men with a paunch should wear corsets. That was the advice Dr. Leonard Williams gave the Peace Nursery and Midwifery Conference. His reason is based upon health principles.

"Aboriginal man," said Dr. Williams, "certainly was a four-footed animal. The abdominal construction was intended for that posture. Since human beings began to walk on their hind legs the position of abdominal organs had been thrown out of gear.

"People who take plenty of outdoor exercise and athletes might get on very well without corsets, but persons who live a sedentary life require some kind of support as given by corsets."

Dr. Williams said people who wore tight collars prevented proper draining of their brains and thereby suffered bad tempers.

"Since women gave up wearing tight collars they have become sweeter tempered," he said.

PEOPLE will buy if you tell them about the things you have to sell.

WHITE SOX WILL MEET ALL-PLAINVILLE NINE

The local White Sox team will have for their opponents at the Adams street grounds on Sunday afternoon the All-Plainville nine. The visitors' line-up is composed of stars known throughout the state. This team comes here with an excellent and enviable record. On the visitors' mound will appear Cunningham, a former Eastern League twirler. The locals will use either Daoust or Buckley supported by Jimmie Rennie. The White Sox have been going strong but their ability will receive a severe test on Sunday. The game starts at 3.15.

SHAVING BRUSHES CARRY ANTHrax GERM, THIS SAID.

Boston, June 6.—Health Commissioner Woodward has warned barbers, druggists and department stores in the State against the possibility of shaving brushes containing the germs of the deadly disease of anthrax.

Dr. Woodward states that the Federal health investigators have traced the source of the disease to the same material from which shaving brushes are made. He recommends that all brushes now on the market which do not bear the name or trade mark of the manufacturer should be returned or disinfected.

COINCIDENCE IN YANKS' LIVES

Glidden, Iowa, June 6.—Glidden discovered a coincidence in the welcome home of two of her soldier boys. The two, Privates Robert Dillavon and Lévi Chapin, of the Sixteenth Infantry enlisted here the same day and were assigned to the same regiment. Although in the same regiment, they did not see each other while in France until last September, when Chapin, taken sick and sent to the hospital, found Dillavon, who was there suffering from three wounds received in July. That was the last time they saw each other until they stepped from the same train here. Both were discharged at the same camp, and evidently travelled home on the same train, but without meeting.

ABOUT TOWN

A daughter, Virginia Faith, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Robb of 174 Maple street on Tuesday.

The auditors of the Eighth School and Utilities district were busy auditing the books of the officers of the district today.

Mr. and Mrs. James McConnell of Turner's Falls, Mass., formerly residents of Manchester, are visiting their relatives in town.

William Foulds with his son William Foulds Jr. started this noon for a fishing trip to New Brunswick. They expect to be away for the next two weeks.

Holger Schwartz of Strant street who was recently honorably discharged from the naval service has entered the employ of the Elmer Automobile Service at the Center.

A social and dance will be held at Cheney Hall this evening for the members of the S. P. D. club who took part in the minstrel entertainment which was recently staged by this organization.

The regular monthly meeting of the selectmen of the Town of Manchester will be held at the Hall of Records on Monday evening, June 9th. There will also be a number of important street hearings.

Beginning tomorrow the Manchester Public Library which is located in the Eighth District school building will be open Saturday afternoon and evenings. Heretofore the library has been open on Friday afternoon and evenings.

All of Manchester's parks and swimming pools are being well patronized. The pool at the Hollow is greatly in favor with the younger element and each evening groups of young men can be seen heading toward that vicinity.

Building Mover Street of Rockville has practically completed the work of moving the two tenement building on the north side of Oak street which was damaged by the Ferris fire. The house now stands on the east side of Keeney Place. It is expected that moving operations will soon begin on the Chinese laundry which now stands at the corner of Oak street and Keeney Place.

The Manchester Railroad station looks well in its two fresh coats of paint. A north end resident remarked last evening that the Railroad company apparently tried to cater to all classes of people. The last time the station was painted the trimmings of the station were of a light green. This time the body of the building has been painted a fairly good orange.

A number of Manchester men were elected into the Rockville Lodge of Elks at a meeting which was held in that town last evening. Manchester now has quite a representation in both the Rockville and Hartford lodges. It was rumored that a number of prominent men were considering the formation of a local Elk's club but last evening's session in the neighboring city indicates that these plans will not materialize this year at least.

MAIN STREET HOUSE SOLD.

John M. Williams as executor of the estate of Charles H. Bissell today sold one of the houses on Main street belonging to the estate and also one of the barns. The property was bought by George A. Smith of Wapping who is a well known building contractor. The house is now occupied by R. E. Morton and family. The lot has a frontage on Main street of 65 feet. Mr. Williams has had several offers for the corner house.

SIXTH DISTRICT MEETING.

Many of Manchester's tax payers are looking forward to the annual meeting of the Sixth School District which will be held in the school-house on Monday evening. These meetings in past years have invariably proved to be good drawing cards and have been run along the lines of the famous Town of New Shoreham meetings at Block Island, where the services of a wrecking crew were usually needed after the sessions. A school tax will be levied at Monday evening's meeting and because of this fact there are bound to be some interesting features and speeches.

MAIN ST. BUILDING LINE MAY LEAD TO TOWN ROW

Voters Inclined to Take Hand and Prevent Suit Between Town and Property Owners.

The trouble over the building line that is said to cut through the property of E. J. Holl and John F. Sheridan on Main street, promises to prove interesting. The voters are likely to take a hand in the matter before long. There are many of them who honestly believe that the town made a mistake and as the buildings are situated in the widest part of Main street, the seven inches or more that the buildings are supposed to be over the line are not noticeable and many think that is not worth while for the town to go to great expense to remedy it.

If the matter is brought to court there is, of course, a possibility that the town will lose the suit. The voters are not in a mood to see the town get into a law suit that is going to take a lot of money for nothing. The town has now several law suits pending and the voters and taxpayers say that the less money the town spends in fighting its property owners the better.

WILLIS G. BRALEY DIES; OWNED "OLD HOMESTEAD"

Proprietor of Hospital Passes Away After Fourteen-day Illness—Had Typhoid Fever.

Willis G. Braley, proprietor of the Old Homestead hospital on Oakland street, died this morning shortly after six o'clock, after two weeks' illness from typhoid fever. Mr. Braley was taken ill just fourteen days ago with what appeared to be an attack of grip. He had a hard cold and fever developed and later typhoid set in. His condition was serious from the day that he was taken ill. Everything that was possible was done for him but the fever weakened him so that when the crisis came his strength failed him.

Mr. Braley was well known in Manchester where he had lived for a long time. His mother, the late Mrs. M. W. Hutchinson, was one of the oldest residents of the north end. At her death Mr. Braley took over the property on Oakland street and he with his wife established a hospital there. The large house was remodeled with this idea in view and every convenience was put in that would suit a hospital of this nature. The place was named, The Old Homestead and it was a success from the start. Mr. and Mrs. Braley had all the patients that they could take care of.

War Building Mover.

Mr. Braley was a building mover by trade and followed this business for a long time. Of necessity this took him away from Manchester a good deal, but some years ago he came back to town and has made his home here ever since. He was a native of New York state and was 61 years old. He was a 32d Degree Mason and was raised in Bridgeport Lodge many years ago. He is survived by his wife.

The funeral arrangements were not completed at noon but will be announced in tomorrow's Herald.

FRED POLE.

Fred Pole of Bridgeport who used to be a well known Manchester resident, died in the former city on Tuesday, death being due to a shock. He left Manchester about eight years ago and up to the time of his death was employed as a mechanic in the Singer Sewing-Machine Company in Bridgeport. He was forty one years of age and besides leaving a widow formerly Miss Pauline Schindewolf of this town, and a daughter, he is survived by the following relatives who are residents of this town: Mr. and Mrs. Michael Pole, his mother and father; two brothers, Edward and Otto and three sisters, Minnie, Louise and Anthonetta. Mr. Pole was a Spanish War Veteran and was at one time the Commander in Chief of the New Britain camp of "vets." He was also prominently connected with other social orders. The body will be brought here for burial on Saturday. The funeral services will be held at the German Lutheran church on Winter street. Military funeral rites will be conducted by the local camp of Spanish War Veterans.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for the sympathy and kindness shown us during our recent bereavement in the death of our son Francis. We would thank especially the children of the Washington school and all who contributed flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carlson,

READ-- IT'S FOR YOU

Yes, we appreciate your business, and that is why we are giving you the special low prices on all glasses fitted in our South Manchester office. Some people wonder how we can do it. It is simple. We do not depend on this office alone. As we fit more glasses in our Hartford office in one week than is sold in the entire town of Manchester in a month. But we want to increase our business in Manchester, and we are doing it. Are you with us? Do you want to save money on your glasses and at the same time get the best at a reasonable price? If so see us any night.

JULES GIRARD RETURNS; IN GERMANY 5 MONTHS

Was in First Contingent to go Overseas from Camp Devenas—Hark Hike to Rhine.

Jules Girard, a former Manchester man who put in 14 months' overseas service, has returned to Manchester with the intention of making his home here. Girard was drafted from Waterbury and sent to Camp Devenas. After reaching camp he at once volunteered for overseas service and was with the first contingent to leave the camp for France. He went over with a casual company but shortly afterwards was transferred to the 32nd Division and served through the war in that outfit.

Glenney & Hultman
Ground Gripper Shoes relieve foot troubles.

Six out of the 14 months Girard spent in France were in the front line trenches and five months were spent in Germany. He hiked nearly 400 miles to the Rhine and he declares that to be about the hardest experience he had during the war. It was difficult to keep the supplies within reach of the marching army and the men had to be content with any or, one might say, no accommodations at night, sleeping in barns, sheds or any old place where they could lie down. Some of them were hiking practically in their bare feet before they reached the Rhine.

Girard has decided to engage in the automobile trucking business and is now having a truck made for him. He intends to do trucking between Willimantic, Manchester and Hartford and also to take out pleasure parties.

A pleasant surprise miscellaneous shower was held the other evening in honor of Mrs. Mark Holmes at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Holmes on North Main street. There were about twenty relatives and friends present and each brought useful gifts. A sociable evening was spent during which light refreshments were served.
