PRESIDENT WILSON TO TAKE NO HAND IN KEYMEN STRIKE

To Be Handled Entirely by the U. S. Postoffice Department.

WALKOUT CALLED FOR WEDNESDAY, JUNE 11

Washington, June 9.—President Wilson will pursue a policy of "hands off" in the nation-wide strike of commercial telegraphers called for Wednesday.

This was emphasized at the White House today when White House officials stated that although the matter probably had been brought to the attention of the President, no communications had been sent through White House channels. They were in a position to state positively, these officials said, that the attitude of the President is that the strike is a matter to be handled entirely by the Post Office Department, in conjunction with other government agencies which might have jurisdiction—such as the Department of Labor and the National War Labor Board.

WILSON MAY ACT.

Washington, June 9.—Whether President Wilson would act to avert the threatened nation-wide strike of commercial telegraphers, called for Wednesday, was a matter for speculation in official circles here today. Ever since it became evident that the Atlanta strike was likely to spread throughout the country the President has been kept in touch by cable with all developments, the White House transmitting to him even the reports of the postal inspectors assigned to the scene of the southern walkout.

A. F. of L. To Take It Up.

Possible congressional intervention to avert the walkout also was anticipated in some circles, although just what form this action would take was conjectural. There was also a well defined report today that the American Federation of Labor, at its Atlantic City convention, would take up the matter.

Telegraphers in the national capital today had completed plans for their participation in the walkout Wednesday. Telegraphers who are members of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America, decided at a meeting to drop their keys at the "blowing of the whistle" Wednesday, and, at the same time, expressed the belief that the strike "would be of short duration."

Repeal Wire Control Act.

Meanwhile Senate leaders were hoping today to repeal the wire control act, and take the initial step in returning the telegraph and telephone properties to their private owners.

Criticism of Postmaster General Burlison's administration of the wires appeared to be the only barrier to passage today of the Kellogg Bill. Senators were busy in their efforts to confine the debate to the return of the wires, but members on the floor were prepared to extend their discussions beyond the actual provisions of the measure.

One Year's Grace.

Under the terms of the Kellogg bill the wires would be returned on the passage of the bill. Present telephone rates, however, would be continued until the proclamation of peace is issued, provided the proclamation is issued within ninety days after the passage of the bill.

Officials of the telephone companies desire a period of one year in which to readjust their rates, and maintain that it will take that period for state commissions to validate present rates, which many telephone officials declare are "necessary and just."

Companies to Be Paid.

Compensation for the period of wire control would not be materially affected by the Kellogg bill, which provides that provisions in the wire control act "providing the just compensation to be paid for and on account of said acts shall continue in full force and effect until such just

LABOR FEDERATION DEMANDS THAT BURLISON BE DISMISSED

Charge Postmaster General With Using Prussianized Methods of Dealing With Postal Employees — The League of Nations Endors- ed— Want Government Ownership of Docks.

Atlantic City, N. J., June 9.—Organized labor's demand for the dismissal of Postmaster General Burlison was voiced at the opening session today of the 39th annual convention of the American Federation of Labor. Matthew Wolf, president of the International Labor Press of America and member of the War Labor Board was loudly applauded when he asked Burlison's dismissal for his "Prussianized methods of dealing with postal employees." He charged that Burlison's only object was to show a profit on the books of the Post Office Department. He asked the Federation of Labor to petition Congress for the repeal of the zone system, calling for increased postal rates, on the ground that it is "un-American."

It is considered likely that the convention will ask President Wilson to remove Burlison.

Endorse League.

Endorsement of the covenant of the League of Nations and demand for government ownership or regulation of all public and semi-public utilities, were contained in the report of the executive council, submitted to the convention by Secretary Frank Morrison.

The recommendations embraced within the report will form the basis of resolutions to be urged for adoption at later sessions. Other recommendations were:

Government Ownership.

Government ownership of wharves and docks used for commerce or transportation and the linking up of navigable rivers.

Government or state ownership of water power.

The right of women to receive the same pay as men for equal work should be recognized.

There must be no reduction in the wage of any worker, but in many cases wages must rise to meet the rising cost of living.

A graduated tax on all usable land above the acreage cultivated.

More definite legislation to correct corporation abuses.

Immigration into the United States should be prohibited for at least two years after peace is signed, and at no time should an influence of foreigners be permitted when an abnormal degree of unemployment exists.

Continuance of the effort to obtain a general eight hour work day.

If the treaty of peace as drafted by the Allied and Associated governments, declared the report, sets a new standard in the relations of nation to nation and gives to the government a purpose lacking wherever the monarchic and bureaucratic concept has prevailed. We feel that with a peace so built the world has in truth been made safe for democracy.

League Approaches Perfection.

The covenant of the League of Nations must meet with the approval and support of the American working people. It is not a perfect document and perfection is not claimed for it. It does, however, make the nearest approach to perfection that ever has been reached in the international affairs of mankind.

The report reviews the history of the United States constitution and expresses the opinion that the covenant of the League of Nations will be amended from time to time to meet its defects.

"We declare," the report continued, "our endorsement of the triumph of freedom and justice and democracy, exemplified in the

NICARAGUA ASKS U. S. TO HELP WITH TROOPS

6,000 Troops Already at Border Ready for an Invasion.

MAY COME UP IN SENATE

State Department Investigating Matter and Seeking Fuller Details of Situation.

Washington, June 9.—Indications were that the Senate today would find time to discuss the appeal of the Nicaraguan government for a force of American troops to cope with a threatened invasion from Costa Rica. And that the proposition, in view of the attitude of the Senate in other matters involving American participation in affairs in other nations, would meet with strenuous opposition, especially among opponents of the League of Nations, was believed to be certain.

The State Department is investigating the situation, and it was said by officials there today that until this investigation is completed, there can be no formal statement of what action, if any, this government will take.

6,000 Troops Gathered.

According to the Nicaraguan legation, President Tinoco, following the collapse of the Costa Rican revolution, has massed 6,000 troops on the Nicaraguan frontier, charging that the Nicaraguans aided in the revolt—a charge which is denied at the legation here.

Wants Aid of U. S.

After pointing to the fact that Nicaragua threw her support to the Allies in the war with Germany, and ceded two naval bases to the United States, the legation, in a formal statement, declared:

"In accordance with the plan by which the United States gives us friendly advice, we think that the United States should give us in this emergency the moral and material protection of a sufficient guard on our frontier to prevent an invasion."

DETROIT NOW TIED UP BY STREET CAR STRIKE

Not a Trolley Has Moved in City Since Four O'clock Sunday Morn- ing.

Detroit, June 9.—Detroit is in the grip of what probably is the most complete and most peculiar street car strike ever put into effect in the United States. Not a street car has moved since four o'clock Sunday morning and the city is confronted with indefinite duration of the strike because of a deadlock between the city council, the mayor and the Detroit United Railway company on the question of fares.

Want 5 Cent Fare.

The city stands pat on a five-cent fare with universal transfers; the Street Railway Company demands five-cent fare on all lines and one cent for transfers and the street car workers demand 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 cents an hour increase in wages.

The peculiar feature of the strike is that the company refuses to make a fight against the strikers and will not attempt to run cars until the city permits the advance in fares the company demands.

No Disorders.

No disorder has occurred and little is feared. Business down town is at a standstill and manufacturing industries are badly crippled, although every kind of vehicle is in service carrying workers to their places of employment.

Mayor Couzins has made no move towards a settlement as yet, but made recommendations to a special meeting of the city council this morning for action in the situation.

ULTIMATUM IS NOW READY; 4 MATERIAL MODIFICATIONS; BERLIN EXPECTS UPHEAVAL

Chaos Imminent No Matter Whether or Not Envoys Sign Treaty — Military Spirit Not Stamped Out Yet in Germany—Number of Men Willing to Fight Astounding.

Berlin, June 8.—(Via London, June 9.)—Everything is prepared for an upheaval. It may come immediately after Germany's decision is announced whether or not she will accept the treaty. In case the Germans do not sign the militarists may start a nationalist campaign. The number of men who are willing to fight is astounding, proving that the military spirit has not yet been driven out of the Germans.

In case the Germans do sign the original terms the military leaders likely will obey the government, whereupon the so-called nationalist movement will break out, the militarists meanwhile claiming that they were unable to master the situation.

The annual meeting of the socialist parties at Weimar on Tuesday will be a most important one. The Berlin socialists who have demanded the resignation of the (Majority) Socialist members of the government are expected to carry their fight into the national meeting.

ICE AND WATER MAY GIVE SELECTMEN STORMY TIME

Board Will Consider Complaint of J. P. Sheridan Regarding Surface Water and Rogers' Ice Plant Pro- ject.

A number of important matters will be presented for discussion at the monthly meeting of the board of selectmen which will be held at the offices of the board in the Hall of Records this evening. The selectmen were in session this afternoon for the purpose of examining and approving the outstanding bills against the Town of Manchester for the month of May. The letter of Deputy Sheriff John F. Sheridan notifying the board that the influx of surface water on his property must be discontinued and that the town must compensate him for the use of this property in the past as an outlet for surface water was read by Secretary Rogers at this afternoon's session. At the time of going to press no action had been taken on this matter, but it is very probable that the town fathers will seek the advice of Town Counsel Alexander Arnott.

At this evening's session Representative Willard B. Rogers, who has been investigating local ice conditions, will in all probability present a resolution or motion for the board's consideration relative to this question. Mr. Rogers has secured an exhaustive amount of data and other material during the past week from cities where municipal ice plants are being conducted. The representative favors the establishment of a municipal ice plant in Manchester and this evening will endeavor to obtain the opinion of his colleagues.

Whether or not any new developments will be brought to light this evening is a matter of speculation. Preceding official business there will be a public hearing on the establishment of a 19 foot veranda line on Park street. This line is to extend from a point 125 West of Main street on Park to the junction of New street. No objection to the establishment of this line is anticipated.

100,000 Hungarian Reds Fighting Czechs for Possession of Komorn

Vienna, June 8.—(Via London, June 9.)—One hundred thousand Hungarian Reds are engaged with the Czech forces in a fierce battle for possession of the city of Komorn, it was reported from Budapest today.

Monitors are shelling the Czech troops, who are slowly giving way. (Komorn lies at the junction of the Waag and Danube rivers, 48 miles northwest of Budapest.) Further details of the disarming of the Hungarian Bolshevik organization at Budapest known as the "Lenine boys" have just been received here. A band of 300 Radicals took possession of Count Andrássy's palace whence they issued forth on a series of raids.

The "Lenine boys" caused a reign of terror for nine weeks during which time they raided many private houses carrying off young women and valuables. Finally Bela Kun, the Red dictator, intervened.

Germany Guaranteed Coal May Join League and Her Army May Be Abolished— Treaty Now Made Work- able—Wilson to Remain in Paris Until the Pact is Signed.

Paris, June 9.—The Big Four today placed the finishing touches upon the ultimatum which will accompany the Entente's reply to the German counter proposals this week. Four material modifications in the treaty have been virtually settled. They are:

The Modifications.

1. Germany is guaranteed coal from Upper Silesia and Polish territory;

2. Germany will be furnished complete records of the League of Nations and if she lives up to the treaty terms she may actually be admitted to the League at the forthcoming meeting in Washington in October;

3. Military arrangements are modified whereby the army may be abolished if the leaders desire it;

4. Germany is given representation on the economic commission, but this commission will receive iron clad orders to fix definitely the size and payment terms of indemnity not later than October.

Making Treaty Workable.

It is understood that even further material changes have been ordered and that several commissions are at work to make vague clauses of the treaty workable. While it is admitted that the changes were designed to meet the German point of view and insure signing it is emphatically declared that there has been no modification of a single principle.

Want Further Changes.

When the amended treaty is submitted to the Germans it is possible that Premier Lloyd George will continue to insist upon further modifications along certain lines. Premier Clemenceau is expected to put forth firm opposition. President Wilson, in the meanwhile, is trying to secure unanimity.

Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, who has just returned to Versailles, is insisting that he will not sign. Secret advisers from Berlin, however, state that the present German government is likely to lose its leading members, who will be replaced by independent Socialists. Then the envoys will be directed at once to affix their signatures, as the German independent Socialists have been in favor of acceptance of the treaty all along.

President Wilson will remain until the pact is signed, if the Germans agree to do so; if they refuse he will leave immediately for the United States.

PARENTS' NIGHT.

Educational Square Buildings Open to Public Tonight From 8-9:30.

Tonight will be "Parents' Night" at the Educational Square buildings and the Trade School, Hartford school and Recreation Center building will be open for inspection from eight to 9:30 o'clock. The lighting system in the court between the buildings will be turned on for the first time this evening. All departments of the Trade School will be in operation. Because of class work the swimming pool will not be open for public inspection until after 9 o'clock. All other departments of the building, however, will be open to the public all the evening.

EXACT COPY OF THE PEACE TREATY PUBLISHED IN CHICAGO NEWSPAPER

Is Now in Hands of Senators in Washington—Much In- terest in the Labor Clauses

Washington, June 9.—Publication today of what is said to be an exact copy of the treaty of peace with Germany, as originally drawn, was expected to provoke further insistence from Senators that a copy of the pact be placed in the hands of the Senate at once by the American peace delegation.

Brought by Reporter.
The copy was brought to the United States from Paris by a correspondent of the Chicago Tribune. It contains 16 pages, is printed in both French and English, and contains about 75,000 words, as well as a number of maps illustrating its text.

Newspapers containing copies of the publication reached the capital so late today that Senators have not yet had time to digest the lengthy text. Those Senators who led the fight to secure a copy of the treaty were more concerned over the fact that a copy had been published before they themselves had seen it, than over the actual text.

Interest in Labor Clauses.

Interest in the text centered largely in those sections relating to the disposition of the Saar Valley and to the international labor organization created under the League of Nations covenant. Both these sections, in the complete text of the original draft, were said to contain much matter not dealt with in the summaries of the treaty prepared in Paris and sent to the United States by wireless for publication. It was recalled that Senator Lodge in making known that he had seen a copy of the peace treaty in New York, referred to the section dealing with the labor organization; and it has been rumored here that this section contained clauses of the highest importance.

WILSON SENDS CABLE.

Washington, June 9.—Any one who has the official English text of the peace treaty "has what he is clearly not entitled to have" President Wilson cabled today.

The text of the president's cablegram follows:

"I am heartily glad that you have demanded an investigation with regard to the possession of the text in full of the treaty by unauthorized persons. I have felt that it was highly undesirable officially to communicate the text of a document which is still in negotiation and subject to change. Any one who has possession of the official English text has what he is clearly not entitled to have" or to communicate. I have felt in honor bound to act in the same spirit and in the same way as the representatives of the other great powers in this matter and am confident that my fellow countrymen will not expect me to break faith with them. I hope the investigation will be most thoroughly prosecuted. (Signed)
"WOODROW WILSON."

DR. WILKINS ON TRIAL CHARGED WITH MURDER

Testimony Being Heard in Same Court House Where Mrs. De Saulles Was Tried.

Mineola, L. I., June 9.—In the same wine covered little court house where Mrs. Florence Carman and later Mrs. "Jack" De Saulles faced murder charges, Dr. Walter Keen Wilkins was placed on trial today charged with slaying his third wife, Julia, at their Long Beach home on February 27, 1919. Despite a down pour of rain and the fact that today's session was devoted solely to the drawing of a jury, a big crowd of murder fans gathered early and packed the court room.

Mrs. Wilkins was beaten to death shortly after she and her husband returned from New York at about 9 o'clock at night. There was no eyewitness to the tragedy. The doctor declared that both were set upon by burglars as they entered the house. He himself was beaten and robbed, he said, and he later found Mrs. Wilkins dead in the garden, from blows with a hammer and a piece of lead pipe.

District Attorney Charles R. Weeks, who assisted at the prosecution of Mrs. Carman and later prosecuted the case against Mrs. De Saulles, will attempt to prove that Dr. Wilkins killed his wife to obtain $75,000 worth of property she owned.

WHITLOCK APPOINTED AMBASSADOR TO ROME

Paris, June 9.—President Wilson has decided to appoint Brand Whitlock, now minister to Belgium, Ambassador to Rome, succeeding Thomas Nelson Page. The promotion is in recognition of Whitlock's fine work at Brussels during the war.

Page is retiring to continue his literary work. It is known, however, that he has been out of touch with President Wilson's views on the Italian situation.

STOUGHTON FUNERAL.

The funeral of Sidney E. Stoughton of Wapping was held at his late home Sunday afternoon. The service was conducted by the Rev. George Hamilton of the Wapping Congregational Church, of which Mr. Stoughton had been a life long member.

The Evergreen Lodge of Masons held a service at the grave and Drake Post No. 4 G. A. R., of which Mr. Stoughton was also a member, was well represented. Many beautiful floral pieces were contributed by these organizations and by a large number of friends.

The bearers were: Judson Grant, Frank Grant, Olin Wheeler, William Wood, John Helm and J. Valcourt. E. F. Taylor of Manchester sang two selections at the funeral. Burial was in Wapping cemetery.

Circle Theater

While he was making his latest production in Central Park, New York, George Walsh used three bucking bronchos and went through some wild stunts which attracted everybody in that section of the big recreation ground. The scenes are not in the picture for the reason that they were too dangerous. He rode two horses at once in Roman fashion, swung from the saddle of one of these almost to the ground, and scooped up a squirrel while in that position. He rode the horse facing backwards, standing up, lying on its neck—in short, in every conceivable manner. William Fox presents George Walsh in his latest production, "Luck and Pluck", at the Circle theater for 2 days starting tonight and all who want to enjoy lively sensations can have their fill by viewing this film of strenuous action. Mr. Walsh is the possessor of a well-earned reputation as the supreme athlete of the screen. He scoffs at peril and stares death in the face at every turn, regarding it as "all in the day's work." On the same bill will be a comedy and another episode of "The Man of Might." This bill will be repeated tomorrow with the addition of Pathe News.

LABORITES ASK WILSON TO DISMISS BURLESON

League of Nations. The introduction of the nine specific labor clauses in the peace treaty declares that the "well being, physical and moral, of the industrial wage-earners is of supreme importance." No such declaration has ever been written into international law through any previous treaty of peace and it is due to the efforts of the American labor movement more than to any other single factor that it appears in this emphatic form in the present treaty.

Fred Weber of the Springfield Y. M. C. A. Training College who is to have charge of the activities at the West Side playground this summer, began his duties here today. Mr. Weber is a trained physical director and an ex-coast man, having served with the Coast Artillery at Fort McKinley. He has been physical director at Holyoke high school during the past two years and helped develop the basketball team which defeated Hartford High last winter. Mr. Weber has had considerable experience in boxing, wrestling, baseball, football and track work. While he will have general charge of all the activities at the West Side playground, his particular job this summer will be to develop and supervise the newly organized Industrial Baseball League.

In a tennis tournament at the Manchester Country Club Saturday afternoon, the Club's team defeated the Hartford Tennis Club in five out of six matches. In the singles, Scott beat Guinan, Mark Cheney beat Grant, Alvord beat Nehring and Nickerson was defeated by Wells. Two doubles were played, both going to the local team. Scott and Alvord beat Grant and Guinan, while Cheney and Nickerson defeated Wells and Nehring.

TAGGING THE BASES

"Home Run" Baker got one of those things—his first this season—and the Yanks let the White Sox down four to nothing.

Peckinpaugh ambled home ahead of Baker on the circuit wallop. Walter Johnson and Sisler met at the capital, yesterday and "Sis" won two to one. The Brown slugger put across both runs.

Flack's homer, with two to one made going very soft for Aleck the Great. The Cubs tickled Northrop and Keating for nine tallies.

Who said they don't return? Ames twirled the Cards to victory while his friends waylaid Mr. Rixey.

Guy Morton ran his own show in Cleveland. After holding the Athletics to one run, he poled a single in the ninth that sent across the winning tally.

Topeka, Kan., June 9.—Captain Luther R. Tillotson, U. S. A., retired, formerly of the One Hundred and Tenth Engineers, wants to know if he was ever in the military service. He continued to think so until he received a curt note from the War Department asking him if he had ever reported for service, and if he had to reply by the said endorsement or he would have his commission cancelled. The captain replied that he reported for duty June 21, 1917, and was discharged January 12, 1919.

With two pot-smoking went to the cleaning establishment, where the handkerchief was found, but it had been cleaned of the $100.

SAW A LOT OF FRANCE BUT LANDED IN ERIN

Robert McKinney Was Shipped Through Many Lands Before He Reached War Job in Ireland.

Robert J. McKinney, who has been stationed for the past year with the Naval Aviation Construction Unit at Queenstown, Ireland, returned home Saturday morning. James J. Keating, another Manchester man who was with the Construction Unit in Ireland, also returned home Saturday morning. Both men arrived in the States some time ago and Keating had been home on a furlough. Both have now received an honorable discharge from the service. McKinney says he had a fine time while in Ireland because it afforded him an opportunity to visit many of his relatives there but he is mighty glad to get back to Manchester. He wouldn't care about living in Ireland, because it rains all the time there. When McKinney was sent across the pond, there was some misunderstanding as to the destination of his outfit and as a result he got a trip through France, England and Wales before finally landing at Queenstown, Ireland. It was thought his contingent was to man the big naval guns on the Western front and they were shipped to Brest, France, being the first men to arrive at that port. From there, they were sent nearly to Paris, then across to England.

A Lucky Miss.

From England they went to Wales and were finally sent to Ireland. They just missed their boat and the next day were sent over on a cattleboat. They learned on the way across that the ship they had missed had been blown up at four o'clock in the morning.

Four or five Manchester men served in the same unit with McKinney. He was made storekeeper and was the last of the local boys to leave. Conrad Casperson, Henry Mutrie and James Keating were among the other Manchester boys serving with the Naval Aviation Construction Unit in Ireland.

McKinney had the distinction of being the chief witness in a trial in Cork against two of the Irish Constabulary, who broke into the United States Naval storehouse while he was in charge.

45 MINUTE SCHEDULE.

Perrett & Glenney, who started a bus line between Manchester and Hartford Saturday, put a second bus in commission this morning. A forty-five minute schedule is being maintained, one bus leaving Manchester at the same time the other leaves Hartford. The last bus leaves Hartford at 11.15 at night. The bus line is an experiment but Perrett & Glenney are well satisfied with the results so far. These young men have made a success of their express business and one person was heard to say this morning that if any one could make a success of the jitney business Perrett & Glenney would do it.

Miss May Breen has left the employ of The Dewey-Richman Company and has entered the employ of P. J. O'Leary.

The practice for the novices in the Recreation Tennis tournament which was to have been held tonight has been postponed until a week from tonight. Hereafter Monday and Thursday evenings will be for practice.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAYS WINNING GAME WITH ROSARY SCHOOL NINE

Excellent Work by Entire Team Brings 6-4 Score.

BEECHLER STOPS 'EM ALL WHEN THEY REACH THIRD

Wright is Spiked but Refuses to Quit Game—Glennay and Fitzgerald Do Good Work.

The High School defeated the fast Rosary High baseball team of Holyoke 6-4 Saturday afternoon at the Four Acres diamond.

The game was well played throughout, there being no errors made that were important. The Holyoke team started off with a rush and when their half of the frame was over they had two runs to their credit. The High School team secured one run in their half and another in the second. This tied the score but the Rosary team secured a run in the third and another in the fourth. It was in this inning that "Glu" Wright, the Manchester catcher was spiked. At first it was thought it would be necessary to remove him but the plucky catcher remained for the rest of the game.

In the last of the fourth the Manchester teams secured two more runs and tied the score again.

Glennay relieved Ballsleper, who was showing signs of weakening, in the sixth and he pitched airtight ball for the rest of the game. The visitors were unable to knock the sphere out of the infield.

They Stopped at Third.

Beechler's playing at third was a feature of the game. He made six assists and five putouts without an error. He saved the team from disaster in the sixth by stopping a hot grounder and pegging it to first in time to get the batter. He scored two of Manchester's runs and brought in the run that broke the tie in the eighth by a perfect bunt along first base line, with a man on third who scored.

Wright's work behind the bat was superb. He cut off two men at the plate and made perfect throws to the bases.

Fitzgerald made a three base hit in the fourth and scored on Glennay's wild throw from short left field to third base.

LANG MAKES HARD FIGHT AGAINST VICTORY A. C.

Game Finally Goes Against Hudsons By 5-0—Many Errors Lose the Day.

The Hudson A. C. lost its first game of the season on their new baseball grounds at the West Side yesterday afternoon when they were defeated by the Victory A. C. of Hartford by a score of 5 to 0. Errors on the part of local players were responsible for the defeat. A pitchers' duel between Lang of the locals and Kaiser of the Capitol City aggregation was the feature of the game up to the sixth inning. Both men worked a no hit, no run route for six innings. The visiting batsmen finally got to Lang for three hits and by clever work garnered in five runs. Lang pitched a steady game in spite of the defeat, having 14 strikeouts to his credit. The locals won Saturday afternoon's game against the Glastonbury team by a score of 7 to 5, the contest going an extra inning. Next Sunday the Hudsons will meet Windsor Locks. HOUD PUP TRAPS I. W. W.

Monrovia, Cal., June 9.—To one long-eared hound pup goes the honor of catching an I. W. W. in this district. Deputy Sheriff Couets, after firing two shots at the fleeing agitator, lost sight of the man in an orange grove. This pup was watching the chase, barking with glee. Couets, completely baffled, looked down at the dog which had run to his side. "See him, pup," said the Sheriff. The hound pup ran down the orange grove a hundred yards, lifted his front paws against the trunk of a tree and, barking furiously, looked first up the tree, then at Couets. The Sheriff followed and arrested the man.

KILLS HOBO WITH SHOT; THOUGHT HIM GROENPHOG.

Mitchell, Ind., June 9.—James Childers, a discharged soldier, took a shotgun and went out along the right-of-way of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern Railroad to look for ground hogs. He saw the grass move, fired and up jumped a tramp. The tramp was watching the office of a local surgeon, and about slightly five shots were poked from the man's face and body. The man had on several suits of clothing, which protected him from serious injury.

WHITE SOX COME BACK IN THE LUCKY SEVENTH AND TRIM ALL STARS

Win Game With Plainville Nine After Defeat Seemed Sure.

TIE IN FIRST OF NINTH

Glennay Brings in Victory Run on Dowd's Single to Right Center.

The White Sox baseball club defeated the All Stars of Plainville by a 6 to 5 score at the Adams street grounds yesterday afternoon. Yesterday's game proved that the lucky seventh in baseball is by no means a superstition. For with a score 4 to 0 in the opening of the seventh stanza, with the visitors at the big end of the string, the locals started a batting rally and when the smoke cleared away, the score stood 5 to 4 in favor of the White Sox. Plainville again scored in the first of the ninth, tying the tally. The locals came right back at them however and with an exhibition of big league inside dope added another run which won the game.

The locals opened the session with Daoust on the mound. Smith of the visitors faced him, lifting the first ball pitched to the outfield. Cassidy, the next man up, was safe on a fielder's choice. He stole second and scored on Oakes' single to center. The locals came to bat in the last half of the first but were unable to connect safely against the delivery of Oakes. The inning ended 1 to 0 in favor of the visitors.

The second opened with Wlninger of the visitors reaching first on an infield error. McNally advanced him to second with a sacrifice. He scored when Corrigan lifted the ball to deep right field. The next two men were easy puts. The locals again failed to score in the last half of the second and this inning ended with the visitors at the big end of a 2 to 0 score.

From the second to the sixth inning it was a pitcher's battle, between Daoust and Oakes, the latter being more effective. The visitors filled the sacks in the sixth inning with nobody down. The next two batters struck out. With two out it looked as if Daoust would pull out of a tight hole but McNally, the guardian of the visitors' dizzy corner, shot a clean single to center, scoring Cassidy and Oakes. The locals failed to score in their half of this inning and with a 4 to 0 score it looked as if the Sox were due for a whitewash.

Then came the lucky seventh. Plainville failed to score in their half of this inning and the locals came to bat determined to do or die. White, facing Oakes, opened the battle with a hard smash to Goodie at short, beating the throw to first. Ritchie, batting for L. Daoust, was given a free pass. Daoust up, struck out. Oakes blew up and walked the next two men, forcing in the locals' first run. Glennay struck out and McAdams stepped to the plate with two out and the hassocks filled. He selected the first ball pitched and sent the sphere on a long journey to left field. Before the ball arrived back home two more White Sox had scored.

With Kornsa on third and McAdams on second, "Dodger" Dowd stepped up and came through with a smashing single to right center, sending home both runners. Buckley ended the rally by flying to center. There was no more scoring until the ninth when the visitors added another run, tying the score. In the Sox's half Glennay opened another rally with a bunt along third base line, beating the throw to first. He stole second, went to third on a passed ball and came home on Dowd's single to right center, with the run which won the game. The thousand rooters went home with sore throats and lungs, but happy. It was the eighth victory for the Sox. The box score of yesterday's game follows:

THE FRIENDLY TELEPHONE.

It would be hard to think of any invention which has been of more benefit to the people of the United States than the telephone. This instrument, which has extended the scope of the human voice from a few feet to an area limited only by the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, has through intelligent management been placed at the disposal of almost everybody. By increasing the capacity of the user it has lightened his labor and enlarged his achievements.

We are glad to know that the wire systems are about to be restored to private management. Government management, brief though it has been, has materially increased to cost of telephone service, without improving its quality. In fact it has introduced some requirements which are decidedly annoying. The management of the American Telephone system by the American Telephone and Telephone Company and its subsidiary companies has been little less than a marvel of organization. The occasional complaints of poor service in various localities have mainly been due to shortcomings of local directors or to unfavorable conditions. But on the whole the telephone management has been liberal and progressive and its service has been of far greater value than the money it has cost.

As people become more and more educated in the time-saving powers of the telephone they use it more and more. Already it is regarded as one of the indispensable fixtures of homes or offices. At its call everybody pays attention. No occupation is too engaging to prevent one from answering the phone. It is not uncommon for people to spring from bed to answer a call and we have even known persons to respond to the summons from the bath tub. What other call would receive such an immediate response? The visitor who rings your door bell gets far less prompt attention than the caller who rings your telephone bell.

The telephone is a friendly instrument. Unlike the automobile or the airplane, its rivals in modern invention, it brings no dangers to its users. The utterances which come from it are almost invariably friendly. Even the voice which conveys the unwelcome information that the wire is busy is always melodious and often regretful. When you want to get in touch with someone in a hurry the telephone is your best friend.

But this friendliness and willingness to serve promptly has been brought about by something more than the invention and mechanical perfection of the instrument. It is due, even more largely, to the selection and training of the operators and the organization of the thousands of local exchanges into a connected system. This work has been done far more efficiently by private management than it could or would have been done under government control.

SCOUT WEEK.

Sometime this week you will have an opportunity to give something to the Boy Scouts. You will be asked to become an associate member of this splendid organization. That ought to make you feel good for any man that the boys want to have associated with them, even to the extent of letting him help their organization, is an honored man. You will be asked to contribute toward the expenses of the Scout movement and if you can think of any reason why you shouldn't you ought to be ashamed of the idea.

It doesn't matter much whether you are prompted to give as recognition of the vital services rendered by the Scouts during the war or whether you give as an investment in the future. By giving to the Boy Scouts you get value received either way.

But if the Scouts had nothing to offer in the future, if they could only point back to the things they have done in the past, they would still have a claim on the hearts and purses of everyone of us. In the Fourth Liberty Loan they sold bonds amounting to $278,44,650 and they have turned over to the government almost $43,000,000 from the sale of war savings stamps. They have collected over 100 carloads of fruit pits, used in the construction of gas masks. They have located over 20,000,000 feet of walnut lumber for war purposes. They have cultivated 12,000 war gardens throughout the country. They have rendered countless acts of service to other organizations which were doing patriotic work all through the war. Wherever there was work that boys could do there were Scouts to do it.

Still, it is in the future that the Scouts can place their greatest claim to our support. Scout work makes for clean, upstanding, straight thinking, unselfish young men and among such rests the fate of the nation. As Governor Holcomb says, "The Boy Scouts of America is a great, beneficial organization which inculcates in our young men that loyalty and devotion to public service which is vital and necessary if the rights we have inherited are to be preserved, maintained and transmitted to those who succeed us."

Shake hands with the next Scout you meet and open your purse.

It is the policy of wisdom for Germany to sign the peace treaty, with such reasonable concessions as it is able to secure from the allies. The tendency will be, as the heat of the conflict cools and the wrecked regions are reconstructed, to look upon a purified and repentant Germany with mercy and from time to time, to amend the more distressing terms of the treaty in its favor. But if Germany balks at the terms, and refuses to sign, it will and should be forced into a humiliation that will be far more grievous and costly than is imposed by the present document. The allies cannot afford to let down the bars until the German nation has shown evidence of repentance and reformation.

The leading Sunday morning newspapers of California will hereafter sell for 10 cents a copy. Even at that they will be cheap. Newspapers generally return better value for the money they cost than almost anything else.

GOVERNOR NAMES FRIDAY AS DAY TO HONOR FLAG

Would Have Children in Schools Taught Why U. S. Leads the World Today.

By His Excellency, Marcus H. Holcomb, Governor, a proclamation: I hereby designate Friday, the thirteenth day of June next as Flag Day to be observed in all of our public schools with suitable exercises, having special reference to the history and meaning of the Star and Stripes. The children should be taught the ideals which the flag represents, and why it is that the United States has become the greatest republic and the most influential country in the world today. They should be impressed with the fact that the maintenance of our ideals of government will depend very largely upon their loyalty and service, as they in the near future will be the ones who must administer the government of our state and nation.

Given under my hand and seal of the State at the Capitol, in Hartford, this fifteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and nineteen, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and forty-third.

GAMBLERS FINED ALTHOUGH THEY PUT UP GOOD FLEA.

Boston, June 9.—That the sun, and not Congress, governs time, and that "the Lord's Day" really begins at 1 o'clock Sunday morning, new time, was the unusual claim made in Roxbury Court. Herbert A. Kenney, counsel for seven men charged with gaming on the Lord's Day, pointed out that they were arrested at 12:30 Sunday morning, which was actually Saturday night.

WALL PAPER AUCTION.

The Manchester Wall Paper Company will continue the auction sale of all that remains of their stock of wall papers, paints, varnishes, moldings, and painters' supplies tomorrow evening at seven o'clock. Robert M. Reid will be the auctioneer. The sale Saturday was a success in every way and the people were well repaid for attending. The concern still has a large quantity of goods left unsold and persons who are in need of wall paper or paint will do well to be on hand tomorrow night when the sale begins.

CHURCHMEN WILL HOLD NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON PROBLEMS OF CITY

Greatest Gathering of Kind Opens in Cleveland Tomorrow.

"THE PASSING SALOON"

Problems Arising from Prohibition Will be Discussed at Meeting—Interchurch Movement Another Topic.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 9.—Delegates from all sections of the country, practical experts in every phase of city church work, began to arrive here today for the national conference on "The Church in the City" which will open in the Hotel Cleveland tomorrow morning under the auspices of the Interchurch World of North America.

Everything points to one of the most significant meetings in history of the Protestant churches in America, one absolutely unique in that it is the first national gathering of city church work specialists ever held in this country. Besides the scheduled interchange of ideas, there will be reports on actual experiments in the approach of the city church to so-called radical groups.

Inasmuch as Cleveland is still hotbed of interest in this problem as a result of the sequels to the May Day riots, special importance attaches to the part which will be taken by the Cleveland Federation of Churches. This organization, among other things, will have specific guidance of the theme: "The Church in Relation to the Social and Civic Agencies of the City."

The Passing Saloon.

"The Passing Saloon and the Opportunity for the Christian Church" is a topic scheduled to come before the entire assemblage tomorrow afternoon, when the conference also will give attention to the subject of "A Community Program for the City Church."

National leaders will present the message of the Interchurch World Movement, with S. Earl Taylor of New York, its general secretary and chief executive officer, speaking on "Its Purposes and Program." Ralph E. Diffendorfer, of New York, will address the conference on the proposed method and organization of the national survey being made under his direction.

"The purpose of the conference" said Dr. Diffendorfer, "is to discuss and attempt to outline a Protestant program for the cities, to review the plans of the movement for surveying and developing this program, and to make available for record the experience of the trained and successful city pastors."

"In view of the national survey of the cities of America which the Interchurch World Movement is now contemplating and also in view of the fact that no national conference has ever been held, so far as we are aware, on the whole problem of the Protestant program in our great cities, this gathering in Cleveland promises to be an epoch making one."

Following the discussion on "the passing saloon", a community program and the church's civic and social influences on Tuesday afternoon and evening, the conference on Wednesday will devote itself to considering different types of church fields. This will be done through a series of sectional meetings concentrating on the downtown church on the thoroughfare, the organization and management of the city mission and church extension societies, the church in the residential and suburban communities, and the church in the foreign speaking community. The reports on actual experiments will be heard Wednesday evening, and the closing day, Thursday, will be given over to the problem of finding and training the thousands of new workers to be needed for city leadership under the expanded scope of church endeavor.

HELD SATURDAY CLASSES, NOW WANT EXTRA PAY.

Galena, Kan., June 9.—The school teachers of the Galena public schools have brought suit for two weeks' salary against the school board. For two weeks last fall and winter the schools were closed on account of the "flu" epidemic. The Board of Education endeavored to make up the lost time by having school on Saturdays. This was too strenuous, so the teachers objected, and it was stopped. Now the teachers want pay for the extra Saturdays.

NEW METHOD GAS RANGES

Have More Exclusive Patented Gas Saving and Convenience Features than any Gas Range made

Compare the New Method with any other gas range at any price and you will be convinced of this more forcibly than we can convey in a printed statement. There are certain distinctive features about all gas ranges, but try and think of a single one that combines the great number of exclusive features that you will find in the New Method.

The New Method Consumes 20 to 40% Less Gas

This is not a mere advertising statement, but a fact that is easily proven by the following description of burner. A cast iron burner found on every other gas range has drilled flame holes, retarding the flow of gas. New Method burners are of steel, enameled inside as well as out, affording an easy flow of gas and enabling 3 1-2 times more air to enter the air mixer, than any Cast Iron Burner.

Oven Construction

The flame travels along the bottom flame plate. It does not touch the oven bottom. The heat travels up the sides and down on whatever you are baking. The same flame used in baking is used in the broiling. The flames travel in solid sheets insuring Broiling and Toasting (without changing) alike at all points.

Movable Simmering Burner and Lighter

With this device you can light one burner from the other without matches. There are no pilot lights to be blown out by gusts of wind, or gas registering on your meter 24 hours in a day. Then, too, you can move this burner underneath the vessel, instead of moving the vessel above the burner. This feature is found only in the New Method Range.

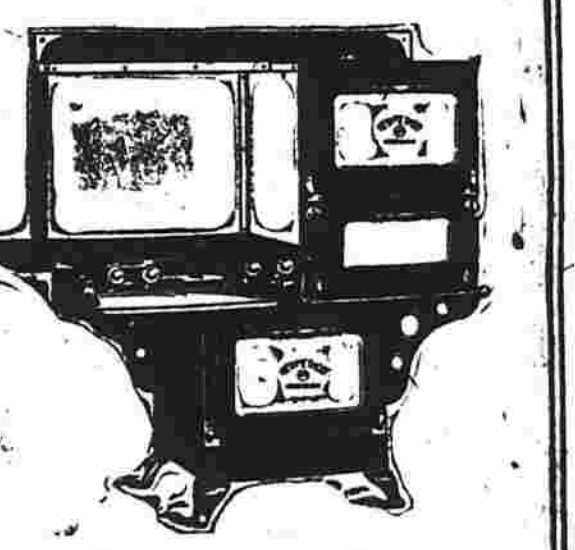

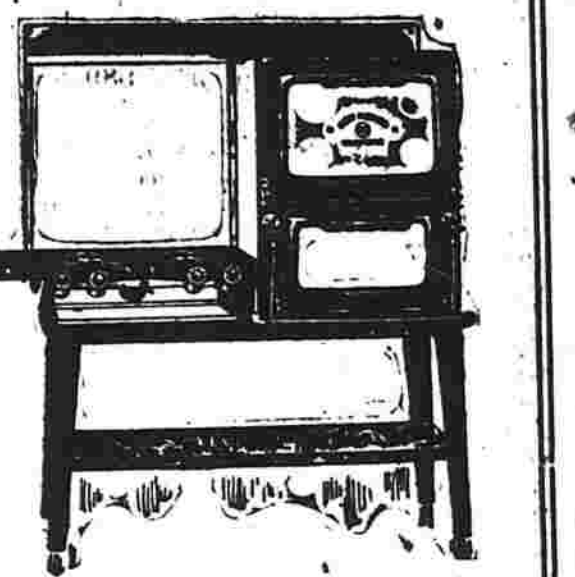

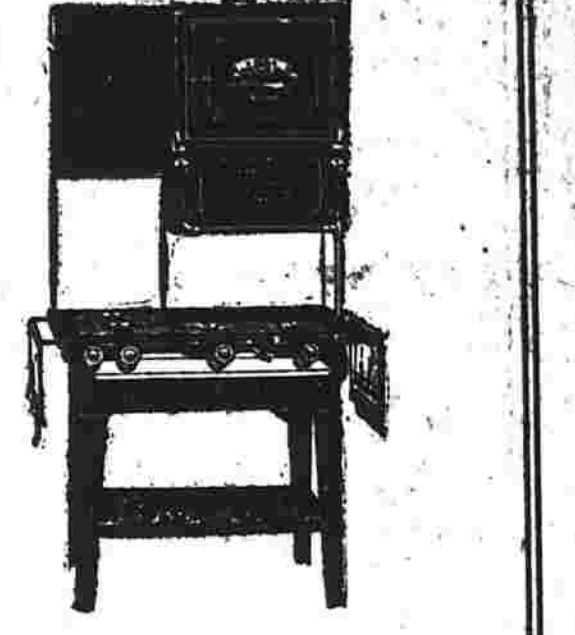

Dividing Oven Doors

enable you to see by only partially opening doors. You cannot open swinging or full drop oven door to see into the oven without allowing the heat to escape and interfering with the baking.

All Steel Throughout

New Method Gas Ranges are all steel throughout. No blackening or polishing is necessary. A damp cloth rubbed over the enameled surface will make it shine with jet black brilliancy.

Come in and see these gas ranges, compare them with any range, we make no restrictions. So confident are we of the absolute superiority of this gas range.

Park Theater

"The Love Defender, is the title of the newest June Elvidge World Picture. This delightful, unusual and charming production is scheduled for showing tonight at the Park Theater. It is a particularly pleasing subject and is certain to interest and entertain all those who are so fortunate as to see it.

Miss Elvidge portrays the role of Hope Meredith in this picture. Hope is a good-looking, bright American girl of fine ideals. She falls in love with Frank Rodney, a young, likable doctor, and she marries him. And then her troubles begin! But everything ends happily for the two.

The story of "The Love Defender" was penned by Marvone Thompson, the famous author whose short stories and novels have been published in so many of the leading American periodicals. This story is one of the very best things that Mrs. Thompson has ever written and is particularly suited to Miss Elvidge.

Miss Elvidge is supported by a notable company in this production, including Frank Mayo as her leading man, and charming little Madge Evans who appears as Hope's young sister.

"The Love Defender" is not alone notable as a decidedly good picture but is remarkable for the beauty of the outdoor scenes which figure in it. These scenes will prove delightful to all movie fans in every locality.

SALVATION ARMY WILL SEND LETTERS ASKING AID FROM MANCHESTER

Campaign Proves Country Grateful for War Services of S. A.

ARMY PRAISED BY ALL

Prominent Men Unite in Expressing Gratitude to Organization for Its Work in France.

The friends of the Salvation Army are busily engaged in preparing for the "Sally Drive" which will take place June 18-26. The committee is planning to send out several thousand letters to the citizens of Manchester, calling upon them for their loyal support.
 Contrary to the belief of many people the drive is not handled by the Salvation Army directly, but by their friends who recognize and appreciate the wonderful work these self-sacrificing Christian people are doing. At Springfield, Mass., the recent campaign manager of the drive was a Y. M. C. A. secretary, and the campaign headquarters was a K. of C. hut in the public square.

 During the New York City drive Vice President Thomas R. Marshall in his address in Madison Square Garden said, "The odor of sacrifice and the flavor of the service of the Salvation Army in the late conflict, arose from its intense loyalty and devotion to all the weary, needy and oppressed. It went with hope in its heart, with faith on its lips, and with charity in its hands, into the leaden shot and shell of a horrific warfare. It proved by actual service its consecration to its Lord and Master."
 The Hon. Chas. S. Whitman said, "The Salvation Army is a real Army and it deals with very real things. Poverty and want are real, destitution and misery, sickness and death are real; cold is real, hunger is real, and this army has been during the past years (I know here in New York City) dealing with these real things, and helping to make life a little easier for those who are not able, sometimes not willing perhaps, to help themselves."
 Rabbi H. Perera Wendes said, "You are doing holy work. You are saving thousands that are out-cast. You are simply imitating God. The Salvation Army is saving the poor, those that are bruised in the battle of life, those that are out-cast."

 From overseas Major Thomas J. Dickson, recently Division Chaplain of the 1st Div. A. E. F., writes, "I have seen the Salvation Army under shellfire, being bombed, caring for the sick and wounded and burying the dead. I have talked to thousands of your work, and have the first unfavorable criticism yet to hear on your work and methods. On behalf of our dear soldiers I thank you and your fellow-laborers. There are many broken hearts in our country where your ministrations will be appreciated the same as they were at the front."
 A striking example of the attitude of the soldiers in service toward the Salvation Army is shown by their treatment of Private Joseph Robinson, 26th Infantrp, 1st Div., A. E. when the boys of his company learned that he was a Salvationist, not one made light of his religion, but all said "Stick to it, Joe!" and on many occasions when the boys were going "over the top", Salvation Joe was asked to offer a little prayer, which he gladly did.
 Every Christian can well afford to give to the Salvation Army, often spoken of as "The Little Church of Highways and Byways", because he is helping to spread the doctrine of fellowship and goodwill among all classes, and where it is most needed. Every patriotic citizen should give liberally because the Army is working continually to make good citizens of the unfortunate.

 The friends of the Salvation Army are not seeking to raise money for the Army as a reward for its services overseas, but from a knowledge that it is to be used for the benefit of those whose suffering and need may not be brought to our personal attention. In giving we will be giving to our own community, we will be helping to make life a little easier, a little better.
K. U. CO-OPERATIVE HOUSE TO OPEN IN SEPTEMBER.
 Lawrence, Kan., June 9.—The first co-operative house at the University of Kansas here will be opened in September, it was announced by the school authorities. Twelve or fourteen young women and a chaperon will live in the house. It is expected to cut down materially the cost of living among the women students.
 Student organizations and clubs are furnishing rooms at the house. The Woman's Student Government Association and the Women's Pan-Hellenic Association have furnished $900 of the $1,700 necessary for the furnishing of the house.
 What would the month of June amount to without June-roses? It would be as dull and barren as a June wedding without flowers from the beautiful assortment at the Park Hill Flower Shop. adv.

Twelve Bands in Competition and Several More in Parade.

SILK CITY WINS PRIZE

Gets Cup Awarded in Fife and Piccolo Class—Father Matthews' Corps Looks Best in Parade.

"Has Germany accepted the peace terms?" This inquiry came from the lips of a stranger who dropped into Manchester Saturday afternoon, and was greeted upon his arrival with the incessant roar of bass and snare drums intermingled with the music of the flute and fife.

Want 1920 Meet Here. The stranger was right. This big musical carnival staged in Manchester on Saturday afternoon and evening by the local Center Flute Band turned out to be a tremendous success.

The visiting musical bodies that were to compete and parade in the first competition or carnival of this nature that has been held in Manchester for years, began to arrive in town early.

The parade passed down Center street to Chestnut, past Cheney Brothers plant to Pine street to Hartford Road, thence to Main street to the Center to East Center, countermarching to Center Park where the competition was held.

Eighteen silver cups on exhibition at the headquarters of the local corps give evidence of the popularity and ability of the "Centers." The Center Flute Band is anxious to bring the 1920 meet to Manchester, but it requires a great deal of hard work to handle fifty drum corps.

There is also a great expense attached to a field meet. The local body is handicapped by not having an enclosed park or field where such contests are usually held.

Manchester Wall Paper Co. is anxious to bring the 1920 meet to Manchester, but it requires a great deal of hard work to handle fifty drum corps.
