NO AMERICAN LOAN TO FOREIGNERS IF GOODS ARE BARRED

Bill Now Ready to Protect Americans from Euro- pean Exclusion.

WE WILL HELP EUROPE; THEY MUST HELP US

Any Nation Establishes An Embargo That Nation Should Get No American Money, Senator Says.

Washington, June 24.—Denial of American loans or other financial assistance to foreign nations which place an embargo on, or otherwise seek to bar out American goods, is the purpose of a bill prepared by Senator Edge, Republican, of New Jersey, he announced this afternoon.
U. S. Needs Protection.

"Protection of American business from foreign exclusion is an important feature of the proposed legislation," Edge said. "By financing foreign purchasers of American goods and by helping foreign governments, if necessary, to finance themselves,
we will assure the 'open door' to American exports of every kind. To any nation which proposes to establish an embargo we merely will have to say, 'You hardly can expect us to loan you money, or to set you up in business, if you propose to discriminate against American business —competition of course is expected and is permissible, but exclusion cannot be tolerated, and I think that even a casual hint along that line would in itself be sufficient."

SWEETHEART A WITNESS AS AVIATOR IS BURNED

Lieut. Watson and His Mechanic Meet Horrible Death When Machine Bursts Into Flames.

Rye, N. Y., June 24.—Lieutenant Shelley Watson, stationed at Mineola
Field, and his civilian mechanic
M. Ireland, were burned to death here today when their airplane crashed to the ground and burst into flames.

Watson was flying low over a cottage on the beach in which his fiancee lived. His motor failed, causing the machine to fall. His fiancee witnessed the accident.

Watson had recently returned from 18 months overseas and was accompanied an expert flyer.

The bodies were charred beyond recognition, but army officers from Mineola Field identified the plane and occupants.

As the machine struck the ground the gasoline tank exploded and it was impossible for the few spectators to do anything to extricate the men. An adjacent cottage caught fire from the flying gasoline, but was extinguished by the fire department. Watson had been in the habit, his brother flyers said, of flying over his fiancee's cottage every morning.

FALSE RUMOR.

Paris Heard That All German Ships
Were Sunk.

London, June 24.—The Admiralty today discredited a Paris report that the remaining ships of the German war fleet, lying in German harbors, have been sunk by their crews.

Reports that German warships at Hiel and Wilhelmshaven and other German naval bases had been scuttled by their crews, were circulated yesterday by two American press associations the Admiralty also issued a denial.

INSPECTOR SHOT.

Dublin, June 24.—Police inspector Hunt was shot dead yesterday at Dunshaughlin, a small town 21 miles north of Tipperary. The streets were crowded after the races. Suddenly three shots rang out simultaneously and the police officer was killed. He died in ten minutes.

ONE BILLION AND HALF TO HELP BUILD EUROPE

Governor Harding Gives Out Rather Low Figures. to Board.

PROBLEM, POLITICAL ONE

We Must Help Europe to Help Itself,
He Says—United States Must Ship Machinery.

Washington, June 24.—That the financial aid required from America to rehabilitate devastated European countries will not exceed $1,500,- 000,000 was the view expressed today by Governor Harding, of the federal reserve board. Governor Harding gave this figure as his personal estimate, and it is just one half the sum estimated in a recent issue of the federal reserve bulletin. Henry P. Davison, banker and head of the American Red Cross, has estimated four billion, and Frank A. Vanderlip, former President of the National City Bank, upon his return from Europe, recently placed the amount at three billions.

Reasons For Estimate.
Governor Harding justifies his low figure upon the fact that in practically all of the huge financial undertakings of the government during the war it had been found that the sum required in the end to carry the project through successfully had been surprisingly lower than that asked for. He recalled a specific incident where it was thought $200,- 000,000 would be needed and the undertaking was successfully carried out with $28,000,000.

A Political Problem.
"The European problem is political rather than commercial," said Governor Harding. "We must help the people of Europe to help themselves and this help must be for the greater part in restoring the normal workaday life of the people. Machinery and supplies must be sent from here and every effort to speed up the re-adjustment. Our export trade now running about three billion dollars a year in our favor. Before the war the balance in our favor was about half a billion. When our exports fall off to one billion in our favor annually, we may consider ourselves back to normal and the present high prices will fall off appreciably."

DEATH LIST OF CYCLONE IS NOW DOWN TO FIFTY

Fans Now Nearly All Explored— Relief Workers Have Situation Well in Hand.

Fergus Falls, Minn., June 24.—Believe that the list of those killed in Sunday night's tornado will not number more than fifty was growing today as workmen continued their search for bodies among the ruins of the city. The known dead still stands at 47 and it is believed that but few bodies remain in the debris.

Agencies for the relief of those whose homes were wiped out by the storm are completely organized today and relief work, under the personal supervision of Governor Burnquist, is proceeding. Two thousand loaves of bread were expected here today from St. Paul and arrangements have been made for a daily shipment of one thousand loaves untill the city can again feed itself.

Plans for an appeal to citizens throughout Minnesota to raise a fund of $500,000 for reconstruction work are being considered.
Except for the basement of the Grand Hotel, where the greatest loss of life occurred, the wreckage of the city has been pretty thoroughly explored. It is expected that search of the hotel basement will reveal the fate of several who are missing.

Public funeral ceremonies for the victims of the storm are being planned for tomorrow.

AUSTRIA HERE.

Paris, June 24.—The big Three met this morning to perfect the Austrian treaty while awaiting word of the appointment of a new German peace delegation.

APPALLING PRICE PAID BY HUMANITY FOR THE WORLD WAR

Over Seven Millions of Lives Sacrificed—Billions of Dollars.

TWENTY-THREE MILLION TONS OF VESSELS SUNK

Property Damage Twenty-two Billions—620 Warships Sent to Bottom—France Suffered the Most.

PRICE HUMANITY PAID
FOR THE WORLD WAR.
Human lives sacrificed in battle—7,582,300.

Cash—Between $180,000,- 000,000 and $175,000,000,000.
Warships—620 with a total tonnage of 1,882,125.
Merchant ships—A total
dead weight tonnage of 23, 005,883.

Property damage—Due to battle, devastation and troop movements—$22,000,000,000.

Washington, June 24.—Staggering estimates compiled by the War department show the appalling price exacted for the world war from the principal nations involved were submitted to the Senate today by Senator McCumber (of North Dakota), an unyielding champion of the League of Nations as an argument for the speedy ratification of the peace treaty by the legislative-making body of the United States.

Unless world wide peace is established on a permanent basis, Mc-Cumber declared the American people may expect to shoulder indefinitely an oppressive burden of war preparedness involving increased taxation made necessary by huge army and navy appropriations.

Staggering Figures.
McCumber presented war department figures to show that foreign losses sustained from soldiers killed in battle or by wounds: Russia, 1,700,000; Germany, 1,600,000;
France, 1,385,000; Great Britain
900,000; Austria, 800,000; Italy, 462,000; Turkey, 250,000; Serbia and Montenegro, 125,000; Belgium, 120,000; Roumania 100,000; United States, 49,000; Greece, 7,000; Portugal, 2,000; grand total, 7,582,300 of the monetary cost of the war, as fixed by the war department as between $180,000,000,000 and $195,- 000,000,000 Germany spent between $37,000,000,000 and $39,000,000,000
and Austria between $20,000,000,000 and $23,000,000,000, McCumber said.

France Suffered Most.
France suffered more than any other nation from property damage, it being estimated that of $22,000,- 000,000 blotted out by the war, in that way, the French lost $10,000,- 000,000. Great Britain's loss was estimated at $4,580,000,000 but most of it was in ships, while the devastated "Western Front" of France reveals why her bill is so large.

Of the 620 warcraft, not including the submarines Germany lost which were sent to "Davy Jones locker," the Entente Allies and associated lost 404 with a total tonnage of 1,364,067, while Germany and her allies were deprived of 216, with a total tonnage of 518,058. In merchant ships the entente lost 15,027, 718 gross tons, the enemy but 309, 204 gross tons out of a grand total of 15,336,922 gross tons or 23,- 005,383 dead weight tons.

STRENGTH OF U. S. ARMY.

Washington, June 24.—The strength of the army on June 17 was 1,132,743, not including the Marine with the A. E. F., according to figures made public by the War Department today. Of this number 552,820 were in Europe, 180,550 survived either to or from Europe, and the remainder in the United States.

There remain only five divisions overseas, most of the units of the sixth and seventh having embarked for home. None of the organizations of the five divisions still abroad has been assigned to early convoy, it was stated.

PACT TO BE SIGNED THURSDAY; WILSON WILL LEAVE NEXT DAY; IS PLEASED WITH THE OUTCOME

PROF. VALERA ESCAPED BY USING FLYING BOAT

Secret of His Manner of Reaching America Now Disclosed.

MET STEAMER AT SEA

President of Irish Republic Now in
New York City—Will Tour United States.

New York, June 24.—The secret of Prof. De Valera's spectacular escape from England and making his way into the United States without the aid of passports or credentials was revealed here today.

Used an Airplane.
The president of the Irish Republic left England in a hydroplane, flew out to sea and there met by appointment a steamer. He transferred to this ship and came to America.
Further details of his daring exploit were refused by his advisers today because of fear that their revelation might injure friends in England and America.

Not Recognized.
According to De Valera's advisors, he made his escape under the eyes of a number of the army and naval officers, who apparently did not recognize him, said one. For as the hydroplane left the water they cheered and waved. The aviator flew straight out to sea, made a successful landing and President De Valera was taken aboard in a small boat.
The port at which he landed must remain a secret.

In his "presidential" suite at the Waldorf today, De Valera told of the aims and hopes of the Irish Republic.

Valera Explains.
"First, I want to deny that lies so widely circulated in this country that the Irish republic connived with or accepted gold from the German government during the war," he said. "It is British propagandists, calculated to discredit our cause in the allied countries."

President De Valera stated that his prime purpose in coming to America was to win from the American people recognition of the Irish republic.

Recognized First.
"After the people have recognized our government," he said. Then it would be time enough to ask your congress and government for recognition. If a hearing has been refused our representatives in Paris, I would like to go before the American congress, thank them for the interest taken in our cause and present our claims for recognition."

Plans have been completed to finance the republic, he declared. The De Valera government already is authorized to issue bonds to be sold in America, Canada, Australia and Ireland.

President De Valera stated he would tour the United States and place his cause before the people of every city.

ADMIRAL TO BE TRIED FOR SCUTTLING SHIPS

London, June 24.—Admiral von Reuter, who commanded the German fleet scuttled and sunk off Scapa Flow, will be tried by the same international tribunal that tries the Kaiser and other war criminals and will be liable to receive the death sentence, the Daily Express declared today.

A British court martial will not sit in judgment on von Reuter because he violated the terms of the armistice. His case is held here, in essence, the same as that of a German soldier who fired an Allied troop after the armistice went into effect.

TEXT OF THE LAST WHINE

Paris, June 23.—The Government of the German Republic has sent the following note to M. Clemenceau, President of the Peace Conference, through Dr. Haniel von Haimhausen:
"The Minister of Foreign Af-airs has instructed me to communicate to your Excellency the following:
It appears to the Government of the German Republic, in consideration of the last communication of the allied and associated Governments, that these Governments have decided to wrest from Germany by force acceptance of the peace conditions, even those, which, without preserving any material significance, aim at divesting the German people of their honor.
No act of violence can touch the honor of the German people. The German people, after frightful suffering in these last years, have no means of defending themselves by external action.
Yielding to superior force,
and without renouncing in the meantime its own view of the unheard of injustice of the peace conditions, the Government of the German Republic declares that it is ready to accept and sign the peace, conditions imposed.
Please accept, Mr. President, assurances of my high consideration.
(Signed)
VON HANIEL.

PHILIP SCHEIDERMANN FEARS TRIAL; PLANNING TO FLEE TO SWITZERLAND

EVERYTHING IS READY FOR SIGNING OF PACT

Delegates Awaiting the Arrival of a Message From Weimar—Prussians Make Merry.

Paris, June 24.—Final preparations for the signing of the treaty of peace with Germany at Versailles were delayed today pending the arrival of a message from Weimar, notifying the allies of the composition of the new German peace delegation and the date of its arrival.
Message Expected.

This message was expected to arrive before the late afternoon, The Big Five will meet immediately upon its receipt and fix the day of the signing, which is now expected to be Thursday or Friday.

It is reported that Dr. Haniel von Haimhausen, secretary of the former peace delegation, who has carried on negotiations with the allies since the departure of the heads of the German delegation, has informed the German government that he will not sign the peace treaty, even though he is made head of the German delegation with full power to act.

Parisians Make Merry.
Paris has been over to a night of merry making after word of the acceptance of the peace treaty by the Germans was sent over the city by the same great siren voice that formerly announced the coming of the German air raiders. The scenes of the armistice celebrations were repeated. Hilarious crowds marched through the streets, cheering and singing songs, champagne was flowing in all the restaurants and the place de la Opera and the Place de la Concorde, in front of the headquarters of the American peace mission, were crowded until an early hour this morning.

ACCUSED NURSE WEEPS AS MESSIVE IS READ

Mrs. Beesie Skeels Shows Emotion
For First Time at Lawrence Murder Trial.

Lawrence, Mass., June 24.—Mrs.
Beesie (Skeels) Lundgren wept convulsively during her trial here for the murder of Miss Florence Gay, of Andover, while her letter written to Mrs. Albert Wilkins, wife of the brother whom she is charged with poisoning by the authorities of New Jersey was read as part of the state's evidence in the Gay case.

The letter written a few days before her brother's death urged Mrs.
Wilkins to bring her children to her husband's death bed, that some explanation could be made for his expected death. She wrote her sister-in-law that she sympathized with her for the unhappiness her brother had caused her.

Wilkins' husband's death was admission to the court room today.

RECENTLY RESIGNED AS HEAD OF GERMAN GOVERNMENT—OP- POSED ACCEPTANCE OF TERMS OF PEACE TREATY.

Weimar, June 24.—The rumor has leaked out in cabinet circles that Philip Scheidemann, who resigned as head of the German government last Friday because he opposed acceptance of the peace treaty, is preparing to flee to Switzerland, fearing that he is among those German leaders whom the Allies plan to bring to trial for responsibility for the war.

RECENTLY RESIGNED AS HEAD OF GERMAN GOVERNMENT—OP- POSED ACCEPTANCE OF TERMS OF PEACE TREATY.

A dispatch yesterday reported that former Premier Scheidemann was preparing to leave Germany for a long sojourn in a neutral country.
His Letters Burned.

Paris dispatches also reported that immediately upon the resignation of his ministry, Scheidemann sent instructions to the headquarters of the German peace delegation at Versailles that all his correspondence with the German delegation, in the hotel reservoir at Versailles, must be burned at once.

There has been no previous report that Scheidemann would be among those sought for trial by the allies on the charge of responsibility for the war. Scheidemann was spokesman for the Social Democrats, now the Majority Socialists, in the German Reichstag for many years, preceding the outbreak of the war.

Attacked Old Regime.
He repeatedly attacked the old Bismarck-Hollweg regime and several times urged that the German government to take steps to end the war by negotiation, but he never allied himself with the independent socialists, such as Liebknecht, who actively opposed the government's military program by refusing to vote for war credits and stirring up insurrections. His policy of acquiescence in Germany's war policies made him the most available candidate for head of the German government after the flight of the Kaiser and the reestablishment of the German republic because he held the support of some leaders of the old regime.

TO REPEAL TAX.
Republicans Leaders Trying to Cut Out Luxury Tax.

Washington, June 24.—Another effort will be made soon by Republican leaders in the House to repeal the luxury tax carried in the war revenue law passed by Congress last winter.

It was expected, leaders said today, that the second effort will meet with a better reception by the house because the repealing legislation will amend all and not be restricted to a portion of the luxury items, and because the support will be more certain.

WASHINGTON SHORT SIX CENT.
Washington, June 24.—The date does over his expense accounts with a five cent cost.

Controller of the Treasury today announced that he had disapproved one item of the subsidies on a passenger train railroad, and another of the war tax erroneously imposed by the bill of 1918 submitted by the war financing committee to Congress, and that the bill would be returned to the committee for amendment.

The armistice was held blameless.
To prevent plunging into the
crowd Claggett swung his beam into
the teeth of the crowd. Claggett
was not seriously injured.

"This Peace is the Greatest Boon for Humanity," Pres- ident Declares—Ready to Tour U. S. if Republicans Block Ratification in Con- gress—Believes Opposi- tion to Treaty is Losing Ground

(By JOHN EDWIN NEVIN.)

Paris, June 24.—It is now expected that the treaty of peace will be signed Thursday afternoon. President Wilson sailing for home the following day. The President is extremely pleased at the outcome of the negotiations and declared today:

"This peace is the greatest boon for humanity."

Wilson Disappointed.
President Wilson is deeply disappointed because the treaty cannot be signed this evening. The failure of the German government to send a new peace delegation here at once and the French insistence upon complete formalities for the ceremony at Versailles have put this out of the question.

The President plans to lay down the treaty before Congress immediately upon his arrival and demand speedy ratification.
He believes that the opposition to the treaty in the Senate is losing ground, but he is ready to tour the country on behalf of the League of Nations covenant, should Republicans block ratification.

Note Sent to Weimar.
A note has been sent to Weimar, inquiring about the personnel of the new German peace delegation to Versailles, but thus far the Allies have received no answer.

It is officially stated that the armistice continues in effect until the treaty is signed.

Secretary Haniel von Haimhausen of the German delegation at Versailles notified Colonel Henry, allied liaison officer with the German mission, that he expects to be notified of the personnel of the German delegation at any moment but that he does not expect to be a member of the new body.

ARMY HELD BLAMELESS FOR KILLING CHILDREN

To Save Crowd Aviators Plunged Into Tree at Boston—Ground Not Properly Roped Off.

Boston, June 24.—Public indignation was at a high pitch today as the result of the airplane accident on Franklin Field yesterday when "Black Jack," a huge de Havilland army plane piloted by Lieutenant Colonel H. B. Claggett and completing the last leg of a 3,000 mile flight from Dallas, Texas, swept two children to death and seriously injured a third and the observer Captain Wil-ham H. Chandler, 44 years old, of New Brunswick, N. J., was charged that Franklin Field, where the airplane came down after a flight from Albany, N. Y., was not properly roped off.

The airman were held blameless.
To prevent plunging into the
crowd Claggett swung his beam into
the teeth of the crowd. Claggett
was not seriously injured.

MORNING BLAZE CALLS FIREMEN OUT OF BEDS

Quick Work Puts End to Flames in House Owned by George McCormick.

The South End firemen were called out this morning for a fire in the four-tenement block owned by George McCormick and located in the rear of his home on Center street. An oil stove in the upper east tenement, occupied by Thomas Phillips and family, was the cause of the fire. The woodwork near the window behind the stove ignited and there was a merry blaze for a few minutes, but the firemen responded promptly and the trouble was all over in less than 15 minutes. It was necessary to use the hose, but it did not require a great deal of water to extinguish the fire and but little damage was done. It probably will amount to $100. As the house has double floors throughout, there was not much damage from the water.

The fire police were right on the job this morning and kept the crowd well in hand, although they did not string their ropes. Some of the fire police and firemen had not finished their morning snooze and were not fully dressed when they appeared at the fire. It was noticed that Captain John Bissell of the fire police did not have time to put on his collar and necktie and Ed. Post, who drove No. 3's truck, had on his pajama shirt, some old trousers and a pair of boots. He didn't stop for his hat.

But these are the kind of men who make the South Manchester fire department so efficient. It is doubtful if a paid department could respond any quicker than did the South End firemen this morning and they have done just as well at other fires recently.

Ostriches are being hatched in incubators in South Africa.

CAMP FIRE DANCE IS FINANCIAL SUCCESS

Manuka Girls Makes About $40 to Help Establish Summer Camp at Columbia Lake.

The Manuka Camp Fire Girls made about $40 on their dance in high school hall last evening. There was an attendance of between 150 and 175 and a most enjoyable evening was spent. During the intermission, refreshments were served. The money made at the dance will go toward the Camp Fire Girls' summer camp to be held at Columbia Lake. While the exact dates for the camp have not been decided upon definitely, it is expected the camp will be continued during the last three weeks of July and the first week in August. Miss Ivy Clark of Buckland, head of the local Guardians' association will be in charge of the camp for the entire period and the different guardians will be responsible for their own particular group of girls. Each group will spend a week at the camp, but two groups may be at the camp at the same time, that depending upon the size of the groups. The girls will go to the lake in auto trucks and will pitch their own tents. They will do their cooking over an open fire. While at the camp they will have boating, swimming, hikes, camp fire instruction and camp fire work. At the end of their week's stay, they will return in auto trucks. The last groups at the camp will have the work of breaking camp.

VANDALISM ON RADDING TOBACCO PLANTATION

Louis Radding Finds Seventy Plants Pulled Up by Roots—On Look-out for Culprit.

Sunday morning when Louis Radding was looking over his tobacco plantation he discovered that some malicious person had deliberately pulled up seventy plants. The tobacco had been set out just one month. The plants were pulled out of the ground near the road-side and the act was evidently the work of some person who wanted to do Mr. Radding an injury. He at once set new plants in the ground to take the place of those destroyed and he is on the lookout for persons who would be likely to do such mischief. Mr. Radding is building two new tobacco sheds on his farm on Lydall street. Each shed will have a capacity sufficient for the yield of nine acres. This is the amount of his tobacco acreage increased this season. In all he is raising 48 acres of prime tobacco this summer. Mr. Radding has given up the raising of shade grown tobacco.

PUBLIC HEARING TONIGHT ON ICE CONDITIONS HERE

Dealers Have Been Asked to Come and Explain Situation to Citizens at Town Hall.

Manchester's town hall will be the scene this evening of a public hearing to thrash out town ice conditions. Local ice men have been invited to be on hand that they may explain the reason for the advance in the price of this commodity. Many local people argue that the ice dealers have been justified in the raising of prices, while others argue to the contrary. If the dealers at this evening's session can convince the selectmen that they were justified in raising the prices it is very probable that the matter will be dropped.

TOMM-BUCK.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Irva G. Buck, eldest daughter of Mr. and George Sherman Buck of Highland Park and Harry Tomm of Foster street. The wedding took place at the South Methodist parsonage Saturday evening, Rev. G. G. Scrivener officiating. The young couple will live at the bridegroom's home for the present and a little later will take up house-keeping. They were attended at the wedding by William P. Pitkin and Miss Alice Buck.

PIONEERS DEFEAT YANKEES.

The Pioneers defeated the Yankees last night at the Mill lot by the score of 15 to 7. The batteries were Donnelly, catch; Jackson and Robinson, pitch, for the Yankees; for the Pioneers, Haggerty, catch and Ferguson and Turkington, pitch. Ferguson knocked a home run and a three bagger, Turkington hit so old a great deal of hitting.

WILL PRODUCE COMEDY AT THE SALVATION ARMY

Good Brown Oats Will Be On Sale at the Citadel and You Name Your Own Price.

It takes a yellow buttercup to sneeze your chin so tell whether you like butter but it will only take a walk down by the Salvation Army Citadel to tell you that you like doughnuts. A lot of men found that they were mighty good three thousand miles from Manchester but it is safe to say they have never had a real Salvation Army doughnut since that famous day in November when the Germans threw at their hands and the Kaiser cried "Kamerad." But today they, and all the rest of us, have a chance to try 'em out in front of the Citadel on Main street. There the doughnut committee has constructed a miniature field range and this afternoon you will find a band of efficient cooks turning out tasty doughnuts with the help of a score of pretty k. p.'s.

The doughnut makers are the Mrs. Ralph Jones, William McCabe, George Johnson, Turkinston and Thomas Hewitt.

Doughnuts will be on sale all the afternoon and evening and you can come and eat all you want paying only what you think it is worth.

Meanwhile the total of the drive contributions mounts nearer and nearer to the quota mark. The list which is published below brings the fund up to $3,727.45.

THREE YEARS IN ATLANTA

FOR RAISING U. S. NOTES

Two Men Convicted in Hartford

Learned Trick From Stranger in Connecticut

Hartford, June 23.—Three years in the Atlanta penitentiary was the sentence imposed upon Louis Steeles and Andrew Bonacas, who confessed in the United States Court today to having raised bonds during that they were guilty of raising United States currency bills, stolen and returned were arrested in Waterbury and they confessed that they had raised bills of various denominations by buying a paper from one bill and pasting the figures it contained in the corner of another bill of smaller denomination. One of their bills was a ten raised to a $50 bill and they had raised others of lesser denominations. They claimed that they were conducting a restaurant in Scranton, Pa., when they were shown the trick by a man who came into the place. They started to make a business of it and were getting along nicely when they were caught in Waterbury. Their method of cutting the bills was such that the large bills from which the figures were cut were not so mutilated but that they could be redeemed.

THE "REC" CIRCUIS

At the "Recreation Circuit" which takes place in the Recreation Building tomorrow night the following will be a few features of the program: Selections by the Gasco band, tumbling stunts, an "amateur" parade, a skit by our best town talent, dancing and refreshments.

As this is the last chance the "Rec" members will have to get together this season it is expected almost every member will attend.

Park Theater

Once before has Mary Pickford played a Scotch role—in "The Pride of the Clan," one of her most popular "Astor" pictures. In "Captain Kidd, Jr.," her new photoplay which will be shown at the Park theater tonight she is again Scotch, but transplanted from the heather to some-where in America, as the granddaughter of Angus MacFavish, keeper of a curio and bookshop, where the buried treasure, which is the basic idea of the story, is first noised about.

And Mary is said to be the most winsome, close-fisted, lovable and at the same time, irritating little person you would find from one coast to the other. She keeps Jim Gleason, engaged in writing a novel, dangling till the very end. And she is a demon at a trade—so that when the book with the secret plan of the buried treasure appears, she is one of the foremost in arranging for the search which takes them to Cabbage Center—and thereafter, the tale is one of the most gripping, amusing and whimsical character.

On the stage, this play by Rida Johnson Young was a great success. In the film with Mary Pickford in the lead it seems destined to create even a greater furor, to judge by the reports emanating from the studio where it was recently completed by William D. Taylor. Francis Marion adapted the comedy to the screen.

A wonderful cast supports "Our Mary." Douglas MacLean is the leading man. "Captain Kidd, Jr.," is a complete departure from the previous Arcraft offerings, starring America's sweetheart and it should prove a welcome attraction for every kind of audience.

STOCK MARKET

New York, June 24.—The general bearish talk that prevailed in the Wall Street district after yesterday's close was reflected in renewed pressure against the stock market at the opening today when nearly all the important issues joined in the downward movement. The heaviest loss sustained in the early dealings was in General Motors, which opened down seven points to 283 with a quick rally to 286 1/2. Steel Common declined over a point to 107 1/2 and Baldwin Locomotive yielded 1 1/2 to 102 1/2. Corn Products yielded 1 1/2 to 75. Sinclair Oil declined 1 1/2 to 60 1/2; Studebaker three points to 102 1/2; American Inter 2 1/2 to 108 1/2 and both Marine Common and Preferred stocks one point.

The railroad issues were in demand during the forenoon, advancing from one to three points. Atchafalpa rose over two points to 101 1/2; Southern Pacific 1 1/2 to 107 1/2; and Reading nearly two points to 89.

Steel Common rallied to 107 and Baldwin moved up two points to 104 1/2. U. S. Rubber advanced nearly two points to 128.

ACCOUNTS SHORT

Auditor Goes Over Books of Stamford's Ex-Treasurer.

Stamford, June 24.—An apparent shortage of $7,389 in the accounts of former city treasurer William N. Travis, was today called to the attention of the local prosecuting attorney and the corporation counsel, following filing of a report of an audit of Mr. Travis' books. The corporation council directed that this action be taken. Mr. Travis is now under indictment in the federal court for alleged violation of the embezzlement section of the national bank act. He was for years cashier of the Stamford National Bank.

PRINCETON JRS. WIN

The Princeton Juniors beat the Cubs by the score of 16 to 9 at the eastside playgrounds last night. The battles were for the Princeton Jrs., England and Hewitt, pitcher, Carlson, catcher; for the Cubs, Gardner, pitcher, Gleason, catcher. Gardner pitched a good game for the Cubs but lacked support from the fielders. Domingo (Dingo) Farr, the Cubs' star shortstop, played a fast game and at bat made three hits, one resulting in a three bagger. Carlson, the catcher for the Princeton Jrs., made a three bagger and came home on errors. The Princeton Jrs. would like to hear from the Cubs averaging 13 years. For games address Cecil England, 254 Spruce street; telephone number 557.

MARRIES AGAIN

New York, June 24.—Mrs. Mary Fowler Knox, the former Providence, R. I., sales girl, whose marriage with Philander C. Knox, son of the United States Senator, caused such a sensation in 1910, has been married again. It was learned here today she became the wife of Max Howell Behr here May 23. Knox obtained a divorce at Reno in 1917 on the charge of desertion.

Defeats Main Office in Industrial League Game by Score of 4-2

In a game which was almost as exciting to watch as to play the Velvet mill trounced the Main Office team last evening at Four Aces. When the dust had settled after the contest it was found that the Main Office had brought in two new players that the Velvet mill had easily disposed that number. Markley pitched for the Velvets and Stidwell for the office. Webber acted as umpire. Six hits were made by the Velvet mill players and three by the M. O. B. Bivens is the first fourth inning were responsible for the defeat of the Main Office.

RIGHT VILLIERS KILLED

In DEBO, Maine, June 24.—Right of the followers of Pancho Villa were killed and twenty two were captured by federal forces who clashed with the rebel troops under Nicolas Perdomo near Villa Guzman. ## KEEP A WATCH ON THE RHINE.

It is deplorable that the return to reason which has led the German to sign the treaty could not have been accompanied by a change of heart sufficient to warrant more confidence that they will stand by their agreements. As it is there is small satisfaction in their act. They sign but they do so amidst such a chorus of protests that one gets the impression that the signature has little of good faith behind it.

The "very message" conveying the German decision to sign contains many phrases that evidence their open insincerity. In their assertion that the Allies "aim at divesting the German people of their honor" and that "no act of violence" can touch the honor of the German people, the German representatives speak with the prevailing Tautian misconception of what honor means to the rest of the civilized world. A nation which bestowed medals on the assassins who sank the Lusitania, which sustained a red-handed Kaiser in all his foul acts, which even now is demanding that he escape the just punishment that awaits him, which applauds the treacherous sinking of the surrendered warships at Scapa Flow—such a nation can hardly be "divested" of its honor by a treaty imposing conditions of reparation, however harsh. It is as easy to spoil rotten eggs as to rob the Germans of their honor.

But in one particular the surrender speaks truth. The message to the Allies says, "The German people have no means of defending themselves by external action" and admits that they sign, "yielding to superior force." There is no camouflage here. Germany is broken. She is crushed by the nations which she had marked as her victims. She is humbled by the powers over which she had resolved to rule. And, here is the true victory, she is conquered by that spirit of democracy which she hoped to extinguish for all time. She has surrendered because she had no other choice. She yielded it so. The terms are harsh but she wrote them. Her future is dark but she it was who summoned the awful cloud of war five years ago. Her god was the god of might and now she finds herself shorn of power. She must yield to justice.

But if the German note of surrender means anything, it means that Germany intends to watch her every chance to avoid meeting the conditions of defeat. The last sentence of the message reads, "Yielding to superior force, and without renouncing in the meantime its own view of the unheard of injustice of the peace conditions, the government of the German republic declares it is ready to accept and sign the peace conditions imposed." What does the retention of "its own view of the unheard of injustice of the peace conditions" imply if not that at some future date the Germans will attempt to disregard these conditions or prevent their enforcement?

Germany has served notice on France, England, Italy, Belgium, the United States and all the other powers which have been united against her that she must be watched. She has furnished a most compelling reason for a league of nations. She has, in fact, made such a league imperative. Germany has already declared that she regarded one treaty as a "scrap of paper" and unless we are willing to see her reduce this present one to the same status we must league in some such combination of international good faith as is proposed in the covenant about to be signed at Versailles, and transmitted to the United States Senate.

THE SHORTER WORK DAY.

The American Federation of Labor has committed itself to a four-hour week with the alleged object of preventing unemployment. We were not aware that under the present schedule of working hours there is any considerable unemployment. There may be a surplus of labor in some localities, but there is a corresponding shortage in others. The majority of those who are out of work are idle because of incompetence or intemperance.

The relation between working hours and the cost of living is the main thing to be considered. The shorter hours a man works the less his product will be. The labor cost per hour to the employer is thus increased. To this must be added the carrying charges when buildings and machinery are idle. Therefore the employer must charge more for his product. Suppose that product is cloth; then the consumer will have to pay more for a dress or a suit of clothes. But the wage earners themselves are the largest consumers of clothing. The question they must decide is whether they will work an hour longer and buy their necessities cheaper or work shorter time and do without some things.

We should think that most earners would prefer to work long enough to keep commodities plenty and reasonably cheap. The eight-hour day or the 48-hour week is now being generally adopted by manufacturers. This seems a fair division of the day's time, for it permits eight hours for recreation and eight hours for sleep. In most occupations a person can work eight hours a day without undue fatigue. In some employments which are particularly strenuous shorter hours are desirable if not necessary; on the other hand there are jobs where the work is intermittent, with periods of leisure, at which one can work more than eight hours a day without hardship.

It is a tendency of human nature to shirk hard work and loaf as much as possible. But the edict of the Almighty that man must earn his bread by the sweat of his brow has held good through all the past ages and will continue to prevail through the ages to come. Therefore any movement to encourage wholesale idleness beyond a certain point is unwise and certain to fail in the long run. The time may come when men may support themselves in comfort on less than eight hours work a day; but we do not believe that time has yet arrived.

BUT LITTLE LOVE LOST OVER THIS LOVING CUP

Trophy Won By Buckland Drum Corps Claimed By Man Who Paid For Engraving.

A silver cup, a trophy that was awarded to the Buckland Drum Corps some years ago is just now causing some friction among the members of that organization. One of the members of the corps, in whose possession the cup remained for a long time, resigned from the organization, but continued to keep the trophy. He had paid for the engraving on the cup and as the corps had not reimbursed him for the expense he kept the cup as security. The other members of the organization do not agree with this procedure and have taken steps to get the cup back.

The officials of the corps appealed to Captain Campbell to help them out and he in turn sought the member who had the cup in his possession. After hearing the story he decided to take the cup away from him. After consulting authority on the matter the police officer discovered that the silver cup was likely to give rise to a case for the courts. The drum corps claims the cup belongs to it and the man who was once a member and who kept it for several years claims it belongs to him, as he paid for the engraving on it. At present the cup is in the safe in Deputy Judge Carney's office.

WHO TOLD THE CHICKENS.

And if Nobody Told Them How Did They Know It.

Passengers at the Manchester station were somewhat surprised yesterday to see chickens feeding on the railroad tracks. But some of the curious ones took a walk down the track to discover what they were feeding on and sure enough, they were eating real yellow corn. It is no secret just how the corn got there but the question is who put the chickens wise? The grain was strewn along the tracks for a distance of several hundred yards and was caused by a break in a freight car containing a load of corn that was shipped to Manchester. It was real Western corn and the chickens seemed to know that it was theirs for the eating. Employees at the station own chickens but they deny that the fowls that were eating the corn belong to them.

Court of International Justice Is Included in the League Plan

On this page The Herald is printing a series of letters touching every angle of the plan for a League of Nations proposed by the Paris Covenant, now awaiting ratification by the United States Senate. In accordance with the authors' wishes the individual letters are not identified with any one writer.

They are written by: William H. Taft, ex-President of the United States. George W. Wickersham, formerly United States Attorney General. A. Lawrence Lowell, President of Harvard University. Henry W. Taft, of the New York Bar.

The Council is directed by Article XIV to formulate plans for a permanent Court of International Justice. Those who are familiar with the debates on this subject at the Hague Conferences, and the difficulties encountered there in reconciling the claims of the large and small nations, will understand why no attempt was made to work out a complete plan and embody it in the Covenant. Resort to this court is not made obligatory. It is to be established as a tribunal to which disputes of a justiciable character can be submitted for decision by consent of both parties. It has also another significant function, for it consists of a body of jurists whose opinion may be sought by the Council or the Assembly as an assistance in matters that come before them.

Although the members of the League do not agree to submit disputes that may arise between them to this court or to arbitrators, they must submit them to some organ of the League. They agree not only to abstain from war without such a submission, but positively also to submit any dispute likely to lead to a rupture to inquiry by the Council or Assembly, if it is not submitted by consent to arbitration; and either party to the dispute may demand inquiry. The matter stands thus. For arbitration (compliance with the award being involved), the free consent of both parties is required; for inquiry the demand of either; but at the request of either party the case is laid before the Assembly instead of the Council. The Assembly thus stands in the position of a jury at Common Law. Neither party to the dispute can refuse the inquiry, but either can claim this form of trial.

Mediation First Resort. When a dispute is referred to the Council it begins its work not in a judicial capacity, but as a mediator. It seeks, not to decide the dispute but to effect a settlement which will often involve a compromise. In contradistinction to a strictly judicial procedure, which ought to be public, a mediation is more likely to be successful if the parties do not commit themselves publicly. It is often easier to bring the disputants to an accord if the negotiations are private; and if an amicable settlement is reached it is not always necessary to make public the concessions by which it was attained. In such a case, therefore, the Council is given discretion to publish what it may deem appropriate.

Next Comes Arbitration. If the dispute is not settled by consent of the parties the function of the Council is changed. It becomes an arbiter instead of a mediator, and publishes a report with recommendations stating what it deems the just and proper action for the parties to take. If the Council is unanimous (except for the parties concerned) the recommendation has a binding effect to this extent, that while there is no obligation under the Covenant to carry it out, there is an express agreement not to go to war with any party which complies with it. Even after a unanimous recommendation war is not absolutely prevented, for the nation against which it is made may refuse to comply with it, and there may be resort to arms. War in such a case is not, as some people have asserted, authorized, but it is not subjected to a penalty. Unless the nations are prepared to enforce compliance, and at present they are not, the prevention of war can hardly be carried farther. But it may be observed that after a unanimous report, which would undoubtedly be supported by the public opinion of the world, the cases in which a nation failed to comply would be very rare.

Where the recommendation is not unanimous the danger is greater. In effect no judgment has been rendered; all the states represented on the Council may publish their opinions; and the members of the League reserve the right to take such action as they think right. In short, the efforts of the League to adjust the dispute have failed. But again we must remember that even in such a case war or gross injustice is improbable. Time will have been given for calm consideration, and the efforts of all the countries not directly involved will be exerted to avoid war—influences that are powerful for peace.

When the dispute is referred to the Assembly the same rules apply, except that a recommendation is effective if supported by the representatives of all the states with seats upon the Council and a majority of the rest.

Domestic Affairs. Only one other provision of this Article remains to be considered. To obviate the fears of many Americans that such matters as immigration and tariffs might, as subjects of dispute, be brought before the Council and the authority of the nation over them be impaired, a clause was inserted, that if either party claims, and the Council finds, that the matter in dispute is one "which by international law is solely within jurisdiction of that party, the Council shall so report and make no recommendation as to its settlement." This clause inserted for that express purpose would seem to cover the point completely. Nevertheless it is objected that the Council may differ in opinion from the legislative rights may be restricted. To such an objection there are two answers. In the first place the desires of other countries to preserve their internal independence is as strong as our own. It is inconceivable that the other states represented on the Council should unanimously decide that the tariff, or any other internal matter that we claim to regulate for ourselves, is not a domestic affair; and it is only unanimously that an effective judgment against us could be given. In regard to the most sensitive point of all, that of immigration, if England were to vote that it was not under domestic control, it might break up the League, but in view of the feeling in Canada, South Africa, and Australia, it would certainly disrupt the British Empire. The second answer is that one cannot make a contract and insist that the interpretation of it shall always be in one's own hands. The clause is perfectly definite, its object is perfectly understood; and if we can trust none of the League to act honestly, fairly and reasonably let us make no League with them, and leave the world in the state of mutual suspicion, distrust and suppressed hostility that is a discredit to civilization and a curse to mankind.

HUNGRY GERMANS DIVED INTO GARBAGE AND ATE KAW FLOUR.
Portland, Ore., June 24.—Diving into garbage barrels and scraping dirty flour from the deck of a ship is the length to which starving Germans went when the steamer West Waunakee put into Hamburg recently. This is the word brought here by Prescott Sawyer, professional mariner and expert yachtsman of the Pacific coast, navigating officer of the West Waunakee.

The vessel carried 7,000 tons of flour for the Poles. They went to Falmouth, England, thence to Plymouth and were proceeding to Danzig when orders were wireless to them to put in at Hamburg instead because of fighting at Danzig.

"The Germans at Hamburg had figured to the last teaspoonful how much flour they'd get of the 7,000 tons," said Sawyer. "They were a mighty disappointed lot when they learned we were sending it down the Elbe to the Cascho-Slovaks."

"Our ship was the first of the United States Shipping Board vessels to enter Hamburg since the war started. Women came aboard offering money, jewels—any price at all—for flour and bacon. Children from five to ten years of age swarmed the decks like wharf rats, scraping the flour from beneath the feet and eating it raw.

Sometimes we had more than 350 of them aboard. They dived into the garbage barrels to get anything edible at all."

Miss Bertha Keeney and Miss Mildred Sheldon are away on a three weeks' visit to Niagara Falls, Buffalo and Chicago. They will spend several days visiting friends in Chicago.

WHO SAID NO FIREWORKS FOR THE GLORIOUS 4TH?

This is Not a Matchless Invention But It Will Make a Lot of Noise.

"Oh, he's only a kid, he hasn't any brains". This expression has been used or rather misused many times, by some wise old acres who in their self importance and infinite wisdom have imparted dust covered knowledge to their juniors in a condescending manner. But every now and then the little juniors have burst into the limelight and astounded the world with ingenious feats and devices.

Manchester possesses one of these youngsters. He came into his own last week. And today he is the uncrowned king of kid-dom. And even the success that followed perhaps a great deal of industrial toil has not got the best of his better judgment. He has not applied for a patent, neither has he demanded a royalty for the use of the invention. And because of his generosity the ban placed on the use of fireworks on the Fourth of July will hold no terrors for local youngsters. And if a sign to this effect is ever placed on the town pump, you will invariably find it surrounded by youths greeting it in the Peck's Bad Boy high sign. (This is executed by the thumb of the right hand connecting with the nose.)

But now to the invention. It is entirely within the law; it bucks the high cost of living, and it makes more noise than a high calibre cap pistol. The material used in its construction can easily be "pinched", not purchased. The operating instructions are very simple. And for seven cents it can be shot off about five hundred times.

Follow these instructions and after you have finished your work, try the thing out. If it works satisfactorily don't forget to say a prayer for the local wizard, for notwithstanding his youth and brainlessness he has beat out the more advanced minds who constructed the anti-fireworks law.

Take an ordinary trunk key. Then a piece of string to which attach a five penny nail. Tie the string around the end of the key and the invention is complete. A match comes next, birdseye-preferable. Cut off the head of the match and insert it into the hole of the key, sulphur end up. Now take the sharp end of the nail and wedge it firmly against the head of the match. Grab the string and wallop the nail head against a sidewalk or brick building and you will get a report that will surprise you.

Who says a kid hasn't any brains?

HAS DEMPSEY A WALLUP? JUST ASK BILLY TATE

Story From the Training Camp Shows What Jack Can Do When He Loosens Up.

Toledo, O., June 24.—Can Jack Dempsey take a fearful wallop and then go on for more? Can he punch with all the dynamic power credited to him? Has he been travelling under wraps since his advent in Toledo? Well, harken to this tale:

All through the Dempsey training camp sessions those who were skeptical as to Jack's ability to whale Jess Willard into a state of coma became just a little more so because the Utah mauler did not seem to mull up his sparring partners to any great extent. And furthermore, Jack didn't demonstrate to an awful lot of success in battering his way through the long, snaky guard of one Bill Tate. Bill is the dark warrior who stands close to six feet and beams about 230 and is called "the black Jess Willard." Inasmuch as Jack, despite seemingly frantic efforts didn't spill Bill over and anon add never even caused Bill to do any noticeable wabbling, it was figured by some that Dempsey was an over-rated better of human beings—and that he wouldn't even hurt Willard.

All Has Changed. But all has changed. Sunday afternoon Jack Kearns connected with the idea of testing out Jack's jaw when forced into conclusions with a slashing uppercut. So, without tipping Dempsey, he told Tate to try to drop Dempsey with an uppercut—which is Willard's main stock in trade. "Hit him with all you've got", ordered Kearns. In the second round of their session Sunday, the totally unprepared Dempsey was frisking around with Tate when—Zowie, the Negro started an uppercut around his knees and drove it with pile-driver force against the rim of Dempsey's jaw.

Shook Him. What happened? Oh, Dempsey wiggled a bit, then steadied himself and as he realized that Tate had tricked him, blind fury blazed in his eye. He fairly leaped at Tate but before he could land a smash, Jimmy DeForest called "time" and the afternoon's show was over. Dempsey had taken a punch—perhaps as wicked a wallop as Jess Willard can liberate—and not only had kept his feet but had gone back for more.

Sought Revenge. The youngster, browsing around to find why Tate had slipped him that unlooked for "haymaker" discovered the truth. And then he decided upon a little revenge. It came Monday afternoon and Bill Tate the innocent victim still suffers horribly from the hang over—effects Dempsey worked easily—as usual—with Tate in the first round of their two-round exhibition Monday afternoon. And he started off the second rather unceremoniously, too, but before the half-way mark had been reached a great change came over Dempsey. The Kid was under "wraps" no more. He remembered that wallop that Tate had handed him, and he was out to square things. While the crowd gasped, Dempsey hurled himself at the giant as he never has done before. Tate, realizing that tragedy was headed his way, tried with all his skill and his power to fight off Dempsey. He pushed out the long left that always had held Dempsey away—but Dempsey swept under it and was on Tate. Tate tried to clinch but Dempsey shook him off. He faked a swing for the stomach, Tate dropped his guard—and then like a flash of lightning, Dempsey let loose an overhand left—Bill Tate staggered—and even went down.

The negro got to his feet, announced that he was quite all right and although he looked longingly at the timekeeper, he signalled "come ahead" to Dempsey.

A Clean K. O. A tiger-like rush, a right feint for the body, a left that flashed out with the speed of an electric spark—and Bill Tate was a knockout victim. Not a mere knockdown this time but a real sure enough knockout that caused the Jamaica Kid, Dempsey and others to hustle over to the prostrate, life him up and hurry him to his corner.

Yes, Dempsey can—even if the shrewd Jack Kearns, who is looking for juicier betting odds than 10 to 1 against his man, tells Jack: "He mustn't get rough with his heavy playmates."

Meanwhile the Dempsey stock is soaring and those who displayed a certain willingness to wager that Dempsey would not drop Willard are getting a bit fewer in numbers.

Mrs. F. K. Abbott received word recently that her mother, Mrs. Matthews of Wilkesbarre, Pa., had fallen and broken her arm.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair S. Hutchison and daughter Miss Louise J. Hutchison of Hartford spent the week end in town.

The Center and South Schools are to close Friday for the summer. These two schools were closed so much in the winter on account of illness of the teachers that they are now later in closing than the others.

Mrs. Helen Mathis was home from Hartford for the week end. Local farmers are commencing to harvest their hay crop.

John H. Massey was a recent visitor in Westport, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. Kneeland Jones and Miss Ruth Jones were Hebron visitors the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Atkins and children of Hartford who have been visiting at Charles M. Lee's returned home Sunday.

HERO FALLS VICTIM OF CONFEDERATE BILL SWINDLE. Boston, Mass., June 24.—The famous after-the-Civil-War swindle of passing worthless Confederate notes has just been worked in this city on a hero returning from the world war.

Two $100 Confederate notes were passed together, making a very impressive-looking bill. The bill was tendered the soldier to be changed.

He accommodatingly gave $100 in United States notes in exchange. Upon finding that he had been swindled the man went to army headquarters, and plain-clothes detectives were put on the trail of the swindler.

The matter of a new church was discussed. While there is no important announcement to be made at this time, it is expected that some definite action will be taken in the early fall. The Building Fund, started a few years ago, now amounts to a sum which is considered sufficient to warrant serious consideration before many months.

EIGHTH GRADE PUPILS TO GIVE PEACE PAGEANT

ELECT G. M. CHAPMAN.

St. Mary's Members Meet and Discuss Plan for New Church.

At a special meeting of St. Mary's parishioners last evening, George M. Chapman was elected senior warden, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John Wright, sr. A recommendation also was made to use the weekly envelope system, beginning January 1, 1920.

The matter of a new church was discussed. While there is no important announcement to be made at this time, it is expected that some definite action will be taken in the early fall. The Building Fund, started a few years ago, now amounts to a sum which is considered sufficient to warrant serious consideration before many months.

Importance Of Being Well Dressed

It's a woman's duty to her family and her friends to look her best but most of all it's her duty to herself. Good clothes give a poise and assurance that are gained in no other way. The first requisite of the well-groomed woman is the Corset. The foundation on which the gown is draped. If the Corset is not adapted to the figure, or has not the proper lines prescribed by fashion, all the charm and style of the costume are lost.

For perfect fit and beauty of line we personally recommend Warner's Rust Proof Corsets. We sell them with the strong guarantee of the manufacturer that they will fit, that they will wear and keep their shape, and that they will not rust, break or tear.

We have a large assortment of these Corsets. May we have the pleasure of fitting you? They are priced from $1.00 to $5.00 each.

The past matrons of Temple Chapter, No. 53, O. E. S., will hold a lawn party at the home of Mrs. Anna Barber of Gardner street Saturday afternoon and evening, from three to eight o'clock. Members of the chapter are requested to bring their friends. Transportation will be provided, leaving the south trolley terminus at 2.30 and 6 o'clock. If stormy, the event will be postponed.

In checking up the 6,000 contributors for the memorial hospital it is found that many names were not furnished to the Evening Herald for publication. This was a clerical oversight due to the difficulty of co-ordination of different workers when names were pouring in at the rate of thousands a day and billing up faster than they could be tabulated. A careful revision of the list is now under way and in a few days those names which have been omitted will be published.

The Girls' Friendly society has arranged an interesting program to be given in connection with their lawn party on St. Mary's church lawn this evening. During the early part of the evening, music will be provided by a local orchestra and at eight o'clock the formal program will be given. This will include an address by Rev. J. S. Neill, a vocal solo by Mrs. Arthur Laskins, selections by the Manchester male quartet and a series of gypsy songs in costume by Miss Ada Porter. The festival will open about 7.30 o'clock.

Where the Far-Famed Wirthmor Waists are Made

Here is a picture of the WIRTHMOR factory, the most modern and largest building in America devoted exclusively to the making of ladies Waists.

This building is of interest to merchants and to the wearers of Waists everywhere, because it shows the wonderful development of the Wirthmor idea, of a better and more efficient way of Blouse making and Blouse selling that has meant much in savings to women the Country over.

Not alone because of its size does the Wirthmor factory claim distinction, but because of the high plane upon which waist making is there conducted, because of cheerful surroundings, and the happy, healthful, wholesome conditions there existing.

And who will say that there is not an added satisfaction in knowing that the Blouse you wear comes from a factory of this kind.

New Wirthmor Waists $1.50

Four timely and tempting new Styles, particularly appropriate for Summer-time wear have just arrived and will be shown for the first time tomorrow. Like all Wirthmors they are by far the best obtainable Blouse to sell at this low price. They are sold here only.

WHY IS A FIRE?

whistle blown when you are asleep, at work, or at play.

I—IT IS the signal for the hustling firemen to rush out night or day, rain or shine, to save someone's property from destruction.

II—OUR FIREMEN do wonderful work, look up their record and see how much property they have saved. Look at the property they saved this (Tuesday) morning.

III—NO MATTER how efficient our firemen are there is always more or less damage done before the alarm is turned in and by water and chemical putting out the blaze.

IV—TO HELP the good work along and make sure there is no loss (insure) your buildings, stocks and household furniture with a good Fire Insurance Company.

V—REMEMBER THIS: I write fire insurance, and give the service that is needed after every fire. Ask any property owner that has ever had a fire covered by insurance written by me.
