SIGNING OF PACT WILL NOT EFFECT TROOPS IN FRANCE

Aim of U. S. War Department Is to Get All Men Home.

LITTLE NEED OF YANKS TO GUARD OUR PROPERTY

Most of It Has Been Disposed of Already and Rest Will Be Brought Back to This Country.

Washington, June 25.—The signing of the peace treaty will have no effect upon the policy of the War Department with reference to the removal of American troops from France, General Peyton C. March,
chief of staff, stated today. Ever since the signing of the armistice, General March explained, it has been the aim of the Department to get the men back home as quickly as possible. As to the Army of Occupation, he added, that was a matter in the hands of the inter-allied council,
but the department is ready to expedite
their return as soon as word comes
that these units may be released.

For a time it was believed that a number of units may have to be retained in France to guard American property and to restore damage
unavoidably done in the sections occupied by the American troops.

Will Need No Guard.
However, American property in France is being disposed of so rapidly
through the efforts of the Liquidation commission that it is believed, the General said, none will remain by the time the last of the troops are ready to leave. Besides,
he pointed out, American soldiers
have been relieved of practically all of the work of restoration through the employment of German prisoners
of war for the purpose.

Property Brought Back.
American property that cannot be disposed of abroad will be brought back to this country and any small amount that may remain can be protected for the short time necessary
by men now enlisting for overseas service, it was stated.

In line with the War Department's policy of returning the men as quickly
as possible, it was announced today that the recent order under which regular army officers who had not seen overseas service would be allowed to cross, has been rescinded.
That the star of the army of occupation is still indefinite was reflected in the request of General Pershing
announced today that the War Department hold up application for passports for relatives desiring to visit soldiers now on duty in Germany.

DEADLOCK IN WATERBURY STRIKE FAR FROM ENDED

Newly Organized Union Prevents Settlement—Neither Side is Willing to Yield.

Waterbury, June 25.—A deadlock
between the strikers and the manufacturers over the recognition of the former newly organized union,
threatens to forestall any immediate
solution of the unskilled labor strike.
Neither side appears willing to yield.
It was reported today that the strike has developed into an I. W.
W. movement and having become suspicious of this fact, the manufacturers have jointly agreed to resist the demands of the union under such circumstances. One of the latest developments to remove the deadlock,
however, is the arrival in Waterbury
of representatives of the American Federation of Labor, who will organize or try to organize the strikers,
along the approved lines. The strikers' committee today was preparing an answer to the manufacturers concerning the conditions presented by the manufacturers at yesterday's meeting on Alder street. The strikers are willing to accept the increase of ten cents an hour, forty four hours
a week, and time and a half for overtime but want their union recognized before they will agree.

DR. WILKINS ON STAND AT THE MURDER TRIAL

Says He Took Dogs Out for Run After Wife Was Slain.

DERBY HAT SAVED LIFE

Physician Undergoes Severe Grilling
—Says That Burglars Killed Mrs.
Wilkins.

Mineola, L. I., June 25.—Dr. Walter Keene Wilkins was subjected to a severe grilling today when he resumed the stand in his trial for the alleged murder of his aged wife last February. His actions on the night
his wife's body was found in front
of their home with the head beaten
in with a blunt instrument were closely questioned.

The burglars, who Dr. Wilkins testified killed his wife, were medicine men, he said. His own life, the physician swore, was saved
only through the protection of his derby hat.

"It has been testified that you did not go to the hospital for nearly an hour and three quarters after your wife was taken there," said the prosecutor. "What were you doing?"

"Well, I took the dogs for a run.
They had not been out and I thought
I would give them a little exercise,"
the aged physician answered.

"You were much concerned about the condition of the dogs?"

"Well, I thought it best to give them a little exercise," again was the reply.

SECRET SERVICE WARNING OF RIOTS REACHES 'HUB'

'Tip' Says Reds Will Break Out Tomorrow—Machine Guns 'Planted'
All Over Boston.

Boston, June 25.—Machine guns
were reported to be in every Boston
police station today in anticipation
of possible radical demonstrations.
Every policeman in Boston was on duty. Night men were held. Days off were cancelled.

Warning that the radical demonstrations were planned for today
came from the secret service in Washington.

Warnings Sent Out.
That the radical demonstrations
expected were not restricted to Boston was evidenced in similar warnings which were sent to Governor
Bartlett, of New Hampshire, who received the following telegram from
the secret service in Washington:
"The chief of the United States
secret service bureau was ordered to notify the governor and his office that the department expects bomb trouble tomorrow, June 25. Does not know whether it is to be in large cities or scattered. Care should be taken in opening all packages received through the mail."
Precautions were taken to protect the court house at Pemberton Square
and the state house guards were on duty all around the buildings.

DENY SENDING 'TIP'

Washington, June 25.—Officials of the Department of Justice, and of the United States secret service today disclaimed all knowledge of the bomb plot warning, reported to have been sent to Governor Bartlett, of New Hampshire, acting Chief Tucker, of the Secret Service—Chief, Moran is with President Wilson in France—said that he had neither
sent nor seen any telegrams warning of a bomb plot, and Chief William J. Flynn, of the Bureau of Investigation, declared that no warning had come out of the Department of Justice.

CAR STRIKE OFF.

Boston, June 25.—Trolley car service on the former Bay State Line
was resumed today, the strike of some 3,000 employees having been called off. A meeting of the joint conference board was held here today to discuss plans for a conference
relative to meeting the men's demands of elimination of the hand
cush register and the return of the 1916 working agreement.

DEALERS TELL VOTERS WHY COST OF ICE IS HIGH IN MANCHESTER

Warm Weather Last Year and Ice Trust to Blame.

WOULD SELL BUSINESS TO TOWN AT LOW PRICE

Wood, Starkweather and Martzer
Explain Situation Here Before
Public Hearing in Town Hall.

The price of ice in Manchester
will not be any lower this year because of the hearing on the ice question which was held at the town hall last evening. This fact was brought out by the ice dealers themselves.

They are not in a get-rich-quick
business according to their own figures. The hearing was attended by five selectmen, Aaron Johnson, Howard I. Taylor, A. E. Bowers, W. B.
Rogers and Dr. T. H. Weldon. Mr.
Rogers is chairman of the committee appointed by the board of selectmen to investigate the ice question
and he was chairman of the hearing
and asked most of the questions.

About 50 citizens attended the hearing including the three ice dealers,
I. T. Wood, Fred W. Starkweather
and John Martzer.

Selectmen Rogers opened the meeting and told the story of what had led up to the investigation. He said that the selectmen were not in favor of having the town go into the ice business unless the ice dealers
were found to be unfair in their methods. Mr. Rogers called on Mr.
Wood, who is the largest ice dealer
in the town at the present time. He recited the troubles of the ice men
in their attempt to get ice last winter. His concern had gathered ice from four different ponds. He had built a temporary ice house at the Salter pond near Lydallville and stored upwards of 700 tons in it. He had the carpenters at work while
the ice cutters were filling the house. The sides of the building
were not completed when a warm
rain came along and he lost fully 20 per cent of the ice. His concern had gone out to Highland Park to cut ice and had secured about 400
tons out there. The season was bad for the ice men and in no pond in this vicinity had the ice been cut thicker than seven inches. The depreciation of ice is figured at about 25 per cent.

Mr. Wood said that he was importing ice from Stafford Springs.
He can get ice there as long as it will last but that will be a very short time. He is also getting ice from Lake Sunapee. The ice men pay at the rate of $8 a ton and pay the freight and war tax. And in addition to this they have to stand the shrinkage. In a car of 30 tons Mr.
Wood said he had lost over four tons from shrinkage. He delivers direct from the freight cars to the consumers and in this way he saves
some shrinkage.

WALKER KEEPS PRICE UP.

Upon being asked if the price of ice would take another jump this year Mr. Wood said that it would be impossible to tell. The price will be the same up to August 1, as he had enough in his ice house to last for that time without relying upon Walker, the ice king. Mr. Wood plans to go north in the hope of getting some ice. He can get it from Walker but the price is such that he would be forced to make another increase to the consumers. If he can get ice further north and have it shipped here under favorable conditions he will be able to sell at the present prices.

World Give Town Equipment.
Mr. Wood gave the committee a lot of facts in regard to the ice business and the retailing of it. He has no contracts with any big concerns
in town to deliver ice in quantities.
His customers are all treated alike.
He also told the committee what it costs to buy ice in other places and he related to some extent the method and cost of harvesting the ice under normal conditions. He gave the meeting to understand that he was not opposed to the town going

IRISH BISHOPS DENOUNCE PRESENT MILITARY RULE

System Results in Acts of Violence
They Say in Manifesto Just Issued.

Berlin, June 25.—Denunciation
of the evil of present system of military rule in Ireland, was contained in a manifesto issued from the town
of Maynooth, near here, by the Irish Catholic bishops.

Military rule, the bishops declared, resulted in acts of violence. They demanded that aggressive domination by the authorities cease once and for all.

At the same time they urged the Irish people not to overstep the laws of God, recalling the inspiring
example set by the people of Belgium.

"Now is the time," said the manifesto, "to declare with emphasis that justice must be done in Ireland
and to express our gratitude to America."

Hatred for Allies Springs Up In All Largest German Cities

Berlin, June 25.—Feelings of revenge and hatred of the allies is springing up alongside the chaos
here. Orchestras in the Berlin cafes
last night struck up the old war
songs of the "Deutschland über Allies" type. The crowds sang the songs with wild enthusiasm. Everywhere people are earnestly discussing plans for Germany's revenge,
when the proper time comes.

War Minister Gustav Noske and Generals Reinhard and von Lutwitz
have pledged their support to the government in the present crisis.
Noske announced that he will take three months more to preserve order. The statements from the three

AIR HIGHWAY LINKING ENGLAND AND U. S. IS SOON TO BE FACT

GERMAN PLOT TO START NEW WAR IN THE EAST

Intercepted Telegram Gave Details—
Government Will Unofficially Lend
Support to Movement.

Paris, June 25.—A German telegram intercepted by the Polish command, and whose contents were revealed here today, contains information regarding a plot to proclaim
a new war in the East against the Poles, with the tacit consent of the present German government. The telegram was received at Posen last Saturday. It declares Germany will sign the peace treaty but nevertheless hopes that she will not be deprived of any territory in Schleswig-
Holstein and that East and West Prussia will proclaim a new war in the east.

The author of the telegram, whose name was not made public expected
the further hope that the German government, while opposing the new war officially, will unofficially lend
it every support.

AFTER SERVING 10 YEARS WISHES TO BE FORGOTTEN

Woman Implicated in Kidnapping
Case Says She Will Do Penance
Rest of Life.

Pittsburg, June 25.—Helen Boyle
left the Western Penitentiary here
today under parole after serving a little more than ten years of a 25
year sentence for complicity in the sensational kidnapping of Willis
Whitt, of Sharon, Pa., in 1909.

"I'll never come back again," she said, as she stepped out in freedom.
"My future life will be one of expiation. I wish only to be forgotten.
No, I will not go in the movies."
Her brother was waiting for her
and the pair started for Chicago,
where the paroled prisoner will
make her home.

James Boyle, the woman's husband, is serving a life sentence for his part in the kidnapping.

Security and Reduction of Cost Are Things to be Sought—Maximum Eco- nomical Flight is Now Three Hours.

London, June 25.—Speaking before a company of influential citizens
but expressly stating that none of his remarks were to be taken in an official sense one of the most experienced members of the Air Ministry
today announced that he believed it was but a question of months before
a crowded air highway would link
England and the United States in a union of commerce that would bind
the two countries even closer together than did the great war.

He declared that it was already proved that the trans-Atlantic voyage could be made and that it only remained to make it a practical journey and to increase the carrying capacity of planes.

He spoke in part as follows:
"When the problem of construction
for endurance of rough weather is solved—the NC-4 rode out a storm
in which the destroyers were unable to work—all seas will be aerodromes.
At least they will be temporary landing places.

"The watchwords for civil aviation
must be security, reliability, regularity and reduction of cost.

Both Machines Good.
"The Vickers-Vimy machine, with a Rolls Royce engine and the NC-4
with a Liberty motor both achieved truly remarkable performances, but engine weight is one of the prime factors. More reliability must be evolved before aviation can become a secure profitable commercial project.

"Such endurance tests as these reveal shortcomings in organization,
weak points in construction and equipment.

More Pilots Needed.
"Another important point: after
each successful attempt the psychological strain on pilots and navigators becomes less. The many weeks of waiting before starting is a big
strain on the optimism of the fliers.
This strain is apart from the deadly monotony of the flight itself. Any one who has carried out long flights
knows the curious mesmeric effect
which the continued roar of the engines and propeller has on the pilot.
Until things reach a stage where more than one pilot can be carried
the strain imposed is superhuman.
The maximum economical flight in present machines with one pilot is about three hours.

Must Study Air Currents.
"We must gradually improve our navigational and meteorological knowledge. It is much more exacting to pilot on an aeroplane than a ship. Observations taken at several hours interval may be entirely different. In this respect directional wireless is an invaluable help, enabling a navigator to fix his position
regardless of the sun and stars.

"Our meteorological knowledge of the upper air at present is practically
nil. It is possible that the wind currents above are so constant that an aeroplane can proceed to its destination on one wind and return with another."

PEACE PACT VALUELESS SAYS BERLIN NEWSPAPER

"Treaty is Valid Only So Long as Allies Are in Power," Says Editorial.

London, June 25.—The Berlin
Vorwarts in a leading editorial today declares that the peace pact
agreed to is valid only so long as the power which dictated it exists, according to a Central News dispatch.
"This peace," said the Vorwarts,
"is due to compulsion and is, therefore, valueless. The German people will never forget the injuries suffered in this peace. It is valid
only so long as the power which dictated it, exists."

CANADA STRIKE SETTLED; PLANTS OPEN TOMORROW

Hundreds of Men Have Been Idle for
Past Six Weeks—Agreement
Reached.

Winnipeg, Man., June 25.—Exactly six weeks from the date of its beginning, the Winnipeg general strike
will come to an end. Leaders of the strike have ordered the men to return to work tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. The strike became effective at 11 o'clock on the morning
of May 15.

The decision to call off the strike
was reached after several weeks of
mediation and was the result of an
agreement between the strikers and
the officials of the provincial government whereby the government will
appoint a commission to investigate
into the strike and settle all disputes.

With the issuing of the order calling off the strike industries today
are preparing to re-open on a full
scale and hundreds of men who have
not worked for six weeks are preparing to return to their jobs.

MRS. GILLIGAN TOOK MORPHINE EVERY DAY

So Her Daughter Declares at Trial—Had Habit Long Ago.

Middletown, June 25.—Mary Archer, daughter of Mrs. Amy E. Archer-Gilligan, was a witness for her mother in her re-trial today. She said her mother was a great user of morphine and that she took large quantities each morning for a long period of time. She had known of this since she was thirteen years of age. Her mother acted strangely at times she said but although advised by Dr. Howard King and others to have her confined she never did anything as she was ashamed of it. She told of her mother's extravagance
in expending money. Once she said before her marriage to Gilligan she spent $1,500 in fixing up the Gilligan home which was next to theirs and when she remarried with her the accused said: "God will take care
of us."

She also told of her giving an unknown woman whom they met on a trip $10 and paying a colored boy
$10 for beating carpets. She said that her mother contracted so many bills that they had to borrow $1,000
to pay them.

BIGGEST BAR IN WORLD FOR JUNE 'THIRSTIEST'

Being Built in Madison Square Garden—To Be Used For One Night
Only.

New York, June 25.—With six days to go before the nation goes dry—unless President Wilson intervenes, carpenters began work today
at Madison Square Garden on the largest bar the world ever saw.

The bar will extend all the way
around the arena of the Garden and will be open just one night, the last night. An admittance fee of $2 "to keep out the rough necks" will be charged and theatrical performers
will put on a show while the ticket
holders hook elbows over a real bar
for the last time.

NURSE ON STAND.

Says She Used Poison to Cure Patient
of Skin Disease.

Lawrence, Mass., June 25.—Mrs.
Bessie May (Skeels) Lundgren again
took the witness stand in her fight
to disprove the state's charge that she murdered Miss Florence W. Gay.
Alfred Lundgren, the defendant's husband, expected to follow her on the stand.

During her first ordeal the "sunshine nurse" declared her patient as a "dear old lady". On the witness stand the nurse said that Miss Gay's
face was disfigured by a skin trouble
and that the teacher used an arsenic
solution. When Mrs. Lundgren found a rash on her own face she testified that she treated it with the same solution. She took it internally
three times a day at Miss Gay's sug-

CANADA STRIKE SETTLED; PLANTS OPEN TOMORROW

Hundreds of Men Have Been Idle for
Past Six Weeks—Agreement
Reached.

Winnipeg, Man., June 25.—Exactly six weeks from the date of its beginning, the Winnipeg general strike
will come to an end. Leaders of the
strike have ordered the men to re-
turn to work tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. The strike became effective at 11 o'clock on the morning
of May 15.

The decision to call off the strike
was reached after several weeks of
mediation and was the result of an
agreement between the strikers and
the officials of the provincial government whereby the government will
appoint a commission to investigate
into the strike and settle all disputes.

With the issuing of the order call-
ing off the strike industries today
are preparing to re-open on a full
scale and hundreds of men who have
not worked for six weeks are preparing to return to their jobs.

LOOK FOR $5,000,000 HERE TO FREE IRELAND FROM RULE OF ENGLAND

Eamonn de Valera, "President of Irish Republic" Makes Announcement.

TO PAY INTEREST AFTER ENGLISH FORCES LEAVE

Would be President Says Ireland Plans to Send Ambassadors to Other Nations Soon—Will Resist England.

New York, June 25.—Eamonn de Valera "President of the Irish Republic" is in this country for two great purposes, he announced yesterday. The first, and most important, is to get the United States to recognize the freedom of Ireland and the second is to float in this country a $5,000,000 bond issue.

Money contributed to this fund will "bear interest six months after the British forces have evacuated Ireland", said the Irish statesman.

According to de Valera the new "republic" is preparing to soon announce itself as a full fledged member of the family of nations.

"In order to obtain for our own de jure government and for the Irish republic which the Irish people have willed to set up the necessary international recognition", Mr de Valera said, "we shall send at once our accredited representatives to the peace conference and to the league of nations: We shall give them all necessary authority and that they may proceed there in a manner befitting their character as the representatives of a nation we shall apply for the necessary safe conduct to enable them to pass through the naval and military cordons with which the power in occupation of our country has surrounded us.

To Send Ambassador.

"We shall send also to other countries a number of duly accredited ambassadors and consuls to see that the position of Ireland is understood as it truly is and not as English propaganda would represent it, and in general to see that the interests of Ireland in these countries are in no way neglected. We shall thus resume that intercourse with other peoples which befits us as a separate nation, that intercourse which it has been the chief aim of English statecraft to cut off for ever a century.

"At the present time of general world reconstruction it is most important that the material interests of the country at home be also looked after, and by Irishmen. It will be the duty of our ministry to secure the co-operation and to co-ordinate the activities of the various bodies which have taken voluntarily on themselves the safeguarding and advancement of these interests. Toward English legislation interfering with these interests we shall act in accordance with the general principles I have already indicated, that is, we shall act as we think best for the general good.

"To measure such as the English ways and communications bill, designed as regards Ireland, to prevent Irishmen from using the natural resources of their own country, we shall offer all the resistance we command as being both injurious and unjust. It will be the special duty of our director of trade, to examine, in co-operation with public bodies, how best to make our resistance effective.

The National Army.

"The ministers and directors at the heads of the other departments—labor, industries, agriculture, local government—will similarly be charged with seeking co-operation with all interested in their departments. The minister for national defense, is, of course, in close association with the voluntary military forces which are the foundation of the national army.

Need of Funds.

"It is obvious that the work of our government cannot be carried on without funds. The minister of finance is accordingly preparing a prospectus, which will shortly be published, for the issue of a loan of 1,000,000 sterling, 500,000 pounds to be offered to the public for immediate subscription, 250,000 pounds at home and 250,000 pounds abroad, in bonds of such amounts as to meet the needs of the small subscriber.

"We think that is a fair outline of our program as it stands at present. An outline is all we are prepared to give, and so I have not attempted to go into details. The working out of the details will be the immediate concern of individual ministers and of the cabinet as a whole. When they are ready we shall bring them formally before you for your approval and sanction."

The bond issue will be repaid, Mr. de Valera said, six months after the English "evacuation" of Ireland. He denied emphatically that Russian or German money ever had been used for promoting the cause of Ireland. Mr. de Valera again declined to tell how he made his way to this country.

GIRLS FRIENDLY CLUB GIVES LAWN FESTIVAL

Crowd of 500 Patronize Booths and Society Hopes to Make $100 for Treasury.

The lawn festival, given by the Girls' Friendly society on St. Mary's church lawn last evening, drew a crowd of about 500 people. Every body seemed to be having a good time and all spent their money freely and as a result the society expects to clear $100 or more. All the booths did a big business and everything was sold out.

At nine o'clock, a program was given. This included a short address by Rev. J. S. Neill, vocal solos by Mrs. Arthur Lashinske and Miss Ada Porter, the latter appearing in costume in a series of gypsy songs. Selections also were given by the Manchester male quartet. All the numbers were warmly applauded.

The Girls' Friendly society has been giving to the various causes during the war and has held no entertainments during that period. As a result, its treasury had become greatly depleted. The money realized at the festival last night will give the society a working fund for a time at least. Just what will be done with the money has not been decided, but probably some of it will go toward the summer camp for girls at Canaan.

During the ceremony, Mrs. John Sullivan, a sister of the bride, sang "O, Salutaris."

The bride wore Georgette crepe and a veil with pearl trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid wore a pink gown, with picture hat to match, and carried pink roses.

The ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast and reception at the bride's home, only the relatives attending. Many beautiful gifts, including silver, cut glass, gold and several checks, were received by the young couple. The bride's gift to the bridesmaid was a twin bracelet, while the bridegroom gave the bride a pearl necklace and the best man a signet ring.

During the day, Mr. and Mrs. Mutrie left on a wedding trip to Albany. On returning, they will reside at the Moynihan homestead on Center street. New York, June 25.—The cotton market opened 7 to 52 points lower today, on the issuance of notices that about 10,000 bales of July contracts which tended to offset unfavorable weather news. ## SUFFS SEE GOV. HOLCOMB ABOUT SPECIAL SESSION

Executive Reserves Decision—Suffrage Leader Feels That Sentiment for Session is Growing.

Miss Katharine Ludington, president of the Connecticut Woman Suffrage Association, had a personal interview with Governor Holcomb at the Capitol Building, Tuesday morning at ten o'clock, concerning the possibility of calling a special session of the Connecticut Legislature for the purpose of acting upon the Federal Suffrage Amendment.

The Governor gave no definite statement as to whether or not he would call such a session but assured Miss Ludington that he would keep the matter under consideration.

It was announced that the Suffrage Association would begin an immediate poll of the members of the Legislature to ascertain their attitude toward a special session and the possibility of ratification if the session were called.

In speaking of the general situation in the state concerning the amendment, Miss Ludington said that she was well satisfied with the progress made thus far toward securing a special session for ratification. She said in part:

"The demand for a special session is springing up from all over the state, for one reason or another. Not only is the Connecticut Woman Suffrage Association extremely anxious for a special session itself but we are constantly receiving offers of co-operation from legislators and others interested in a special session."

"We believe that a strong current is setting toward ratification and that Connecticut will increasingly feel the strength of that current and that this will be one of the occasions when Connecticut is not to be dragged in by other states."

Miss Ludington pointed out that six states, Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan, Ohio, New York and Kansas have already ratified the amendment and that the Massachusetts and Pennsylvania Senates have passed the resolution calling for ratification.

USES SNEEZE AS SIGNAL, WIFE DID NOT NEED IT.

Newport, R. I., June 25.—Real Admiral William S. Sims, formerly commander overseas of United States naval forces, is a good sneezer. The Admiral admitted this fact to his wife and told her he would bring a sneeze into play in aiding her to deliver a report at a meeting of the sub-committee of the Newport Memorial.

"If those in the rear of the hall cannot hear you," said the Admiral, "I will sneeze three times, which will be the signal for you to speak louder."

The Admiral didn't have to sneeze.

North Adams, Mass., June 25.—Action against the First Congregational Church of Troy, N. Y., and its board of trustees has been entered in the Supreme Court by Arthur G. Sherry, of this city, and other heirs of John Sherry.

CHIEF GETS VACANT ROOM; UNEARTH'S GAME OF POKER

Cincinnati, Ohio, June 25.—"Room 08 is vacant," said the night clerk to Night Chief of Police Kirgan.

"All right, I'll take it," said the officer. Kirgan knew something about vacant rooms, so he mounted the stairs went directly to 08. Vacant? Huh, uh! There was a lot of men, poker chips, cards and other things in the room.

The driver of the truck, John Burt, is being held by the local police awaiting a decision of Coroner Phelan. The boy's father was killed by an automobile in Greens Farms nine months ago. The driver of that machine was never identified.

THE ICE QUESTION.

The hearing on the local ice conditions and prospects last night proved pretty conclusively that local dealers are having hard work to make both ends meet even at the present high prices. The proposition is simple enough for anyone to understand. Last winter was so exceptionally mild that the local dealers were unable to harvest a crop and they have to import ice from lakes farther north. Because of the high price charged them at the ice houses where it is loaded, the shrinkage in transportation, the high freight rates and war tax and the cost of local distribution at the present high cost of labor and teaming, and the further shrinkage of ice by melting and waste in the process of distribution, the dealers are obliged to charge more than they ever did before and at that are barely able to break even.

The selectmen, in their laudable search for cheaper ice are talking of establishing a municipal ice plant. To us this would seem to put a needless burden upon the town and at the same time deprive the men who make a legitimate living in the ice business of their means of subsistence. Present conditions will last not more than three months. After that there will probably be no further cause to worry about the price of ice for the next twenty-five years, for it is only at long intervals that the ice crop in this latitude fails. That the town could conduct the ice business more economically than private concerns is doubtful. The ice dealers know the ice business; the town authorities don't. Undoubtedly there are some families which will need ice this summer who are too poor to buy it at present prices. It is within the province of the charity superintendent to help these families obtain needed ice just as much as it is to help them obtain needed coal or fuel or medicine. The simplest way out of the predicament is for the town to give temporary aid to these needy families. The expense to the town would be far less than it would be to take over the ice business.

It is quite possible that the cost of northern ice will be reduced through the action of the legal authorities. In that event local dealers will no doubt give their customers the benefit of any reduction in the wholesale price.

FOR THE LOVE OF IRELAND.

It is nothing new for this country to be visited by patriots from Europe seeking to raise money for their 'causes' and most of them have returned home with their pockets well lined. Poles, Serbs, Hungarians, Greeks, Armenians, Finns, Czechs have all made this country the mine from which they drew the gold to finance their fights for 'freedom'.

The latest Moses sent to smite this rock of plenty is Eamonn de Valera, President (to be) of the Irish Republic (to be). In all the long list of those who have sought to stir the sympathy of the American public for the oppressed and down trodden ones of other lands none have ever had greater success than those who came to plead the cause of Ireland. Few have had so moving a story of a great people long suffering political injustice. Thousands in this country, whether Irish blood flowed in their veins or not, have been touched by the appeal of Ireland, have reached to her a helping hand by lavish contributions to her political funds. When the great Redmond returned from his last tour through our states his money bags were overflowing.

Now comes de Valera to make another plea and could he tell the old, old story in the old way the heart of America would respond as it ever has to those who honorably present a just cause. The voice of Ireland asking a fuller measure of political recognition has lost none of its appealing force for us but we have grown more cautious in the bestowal of our trust, more circumspect in passing unconditional votes of confidence. One of the first to find this out will be Mr. Eamonn de Valera. Mr. de Valera who hopes to be president of the Irish Republic but who is actually a leader of the Sinn Fein. Mr. de Valera, who says he comes to lead an oppressed people to freedom but who actually represents an organization which played traitor to freedom's very self in an hour of greatest peril. Mr. de Valera, who will call for help from this country in the name of democracy but who is actually speaking in the name of a political faction which carried nails for Germany to crucify democracy on an iron cross.

We predict that this Mr. de Valera will find the hand that in the past has been so free to give pointing the finger of scorn at him and the wretched band in whose name he comes. He will address gatherings where there are unthinking thousands to cheer his denunciations of Great Britain but there will be someone at every meeting place who will rise and ask, "What did you do during the war?" He may tell, and with considerable truth we grant him, a story of rank Tory injustice on the part of England but somewhere in all his audiences there will be a man or woman who will inquire, "What did Sinn Fein do during the war?"

All the principles which Ireland loves and has proved herself willing to die for were threatened with extinction in 1914 and Sinn Fein looked calmly on, picked Germany as the winner of the great struggle and promptly clasped hands with the Hun. Ah, no! Too many noble Irishmen have died in freedom's cause for Irishmen here to forget that infamous record. Too many Irishmen lie under the sod of Flanders where they fell facing the avowed foes of freedom, and the proven trampers of small nations everywhere, for Irishmen here to be traitorous to their memory. Who speaks for Ireland now must speak without the brand of Kaiserism on his brow. Who pleads for Ireland now must be able to answer, the question, "What did you do during the war?"

GIRL WITH FOOT CAUGHT IN TRUCK FROG SAVED.

Litchfield, Ill., June 24.—Miss Olga Cline was hurrying to work. She heard a faint cry. Investigating she found a small girl with her foot pinned in a railroad track frog. A train was approaching. No amount of wiggling would loosen the child's foot. Finally Miss Cline unlaced the girl's shoe when the latter's foot was yanked out just as the train thundered by.

HUN PHONE PUT TO USE.

Carrington, Mo., June 24.—Employees of the local telephone company here have a German trench telephone for their own use. The telephone set was captured by Sergeant John Hudson, of this city, and sent home. His friends in the telephone office installed it for private use. It is so arranged that the mouthpiece and receiver can be held in one hand.

DID HE DRINK EVIDENCE?

SURE!—HE'S A KANSAS. Columbus, Ohio, June 25.—Two casual acquaintances were standing in the lobby of one of the leading hotels in Columbus when one of them bought a paper and read: "Two District Attorney's offices have 5,860 quarts of 100 proof whiskey which is being held as evidence." "Ever drink any evidence?" asked the other.

"No, did you?" "Piles of it," was the reply. "How in the world did you manage to do that?" asked the man with the newspaper. "Oh, I'm from Kansas," remarked the other, dryly.

BROTHERS MEET AFTER 37 YEARS OF SEPARATION.

Wichita, Kan., June 25.—Two brothers, John and Edward Fitch, both veterans of the Civil War, who had not seen each other for more than thirty-seven years, met here for the first time during the recent G. A. R. encampment. Both enlisted in Iowa regiments, John with the Thirty-first Iowa Infantry and Edward in Troop C, First Iowa Cavalry. In 1882 the men parted, John going to Oklahoma and later removing here. Edward went to South Dakota, where he prospered.

GIRLS TO LEARN SHOOTING.

Long Beach, Cal., June 25.—Girl cadets at the Long Beach Polytechnic High School will be drilled with rifles next year and will be taught to shoot, according to Colonel Charles H. Boice, U. S. A., who is commandant of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps unit at the school.

HUNTS GAS LEAK WITH MATCH; RESTS EASY NOW.

Olean, N. Y., June 25.—Roger Dominic started out with a lighted match to discover a gas leak in the new house he was building. He found it. The damage to the house is estimated at $500 and Roger is now resting easy at the local hospital.

NON-PARTISAN POLITICS.

Akron, Ohio, June 25.—Akron has a new political organization and yet it isn't political. That is, it is non-partisan. It is known as the "Non-Partisan League for Better Government."

Without Article Ten the League Will Have but Little Real Force

On this page The Herald is printing a series of letters touching every angle of the plan for a League of Nations proposed by the Paris Covenant, now awaiting ratification by the United States Senate. In accordance with the authors' wishes the individual letters are not identified with any one writer.

They are written by: William H. Taft, Ex-President of the United States. George W. Wickersham, formerly United States Attorney General. A. Lawrence Lowell, President of Harvard University. Henry W. Taft, of the New York Bar.

Sanctions Behind Obligations

The world war has brought home the need of having behind international obligations a sanction that shall make them a binding force, instead of mere honorable engagements. Without Articles X and XVI the League would be no more than an agreement on the part of the members that they would do right, with no compulsion for those that broke faith. These articles make it a real association to maintain and enforcing peace.

The two articles must be read together. To a large extent they cover the same ground, and provide for the same contingency, Article XVI declaring in part how the obligations of Article X are to be carried out; and yet they do not wholly coincide. Cases may arise which bring one of them into effect, but do not touch the other. If, for example, an arbitral award, let us say on a question of ill treatment of citizens is made in favor of one nation with which the other fails to comply, at first may, to compel compliance, at tack the second without incurring the penalties of Article XVI, because it is not resorting to war in disregard of its covenants. But the first nation would not be at liberty to destroy the independence or annex the territory of the second. That would entail the obligation of Article X. On the other hand, a war for the same cause begun without submission to inquiry would be a violation of Article XVI, but not of Article X if it did not involve the integrity or independence of the country attacked. This was true of our war in 1812; and on the same principle President Roosevelt took the ground that hostilities by European nations to collect claims against Venezuela did not violate the Monroe Doctrine if no annexation of territory or destruction of independence was contemplated.

Works Automatically.

Article XVI declares that if any member of the League should resort to war in disregard of its covenants "it shall ipso facto be deemed to have committed an act of war against all other members of the League, which hereby undertake immediately to subject it to a boycott and blockade, and to do certain other things. Now it must be observed that this sanction is automatic on the part of the members of the League. In case of a resort to war contrary to the Covenant, they undertake jointly and severally to subject the offending nation to the prescribed penalty immediately—not if and when directed by the Council. That body has no power to order or to release the obligation which is made by the members, not with it but with one another as mutual guaranties. If France, for example, should be attacked by Germany, she would have a right to call upon us, and all the other members of the League, to sever all trade and intercourse with Germany, and we should be bound by the Covenant to do whatsoever the Council might think. The obligation is absolute, and the Council has nothing to do with the matter, except to recommend what, if any, military and naval forces the members of the League shall severally contribute.

The members of the League agree that an attack made in disregard of the Covenant upon any one of them shall be deemed an act of war against all of them. This, while justifying any of them in going to war with the aggressor, does not oblige them to do so; but they do agree to subject it to treatment closely akin to war; and also to give to any of their number that is actually engaged in the war aid that by international law is given only to a co-belligerent. They agree to boycott the offender completely, to blockade it by sea and land, to support one another financially, economically and in resisting any special measures aimed at one of their number, and to afford a passage through their territory to the troops of any of the members that are fighting the offender.

Might Be Made Stronger.

To some people it would seem better to have agreed boldly that all the members of the League should immediately declare war on the aggressor. The situation would thus have been more plain, although it would not in fact have been very different. If the aggressor were a small country a pacific blockade would be enough, and other military operations by the members of the League, or at least by those at a distance, would not be needed, either under the Covenant or under an express agreement to declare war. If, on the other hand, the aggressor were a large and powerful nation the measures required by the Covenant would practically be certain to bring about shortly collisions and actual war with all the principal members of the League. There is indeed, a distinct advantage in providing for an immediate declaration of war. The object of the sanction is not to punish but to deter; and the greater the certainty of meeting with an irresistible armed force the less the danger that any ill-disposed nation will venture to precipitate a conflict. The proposed defensive alliance of England, France and the United States against Germany would have that effect.

These Critics "Ultra-Pacifists."

Other people criticize the Covenant from the opposite standpoint. They complain that it may bring us into a war in the causes of which we are not directly concerned, and that our young men may be sacrificed in foreign quarrels. Often without being conscious of it, these critics are ultra-pacifists, for they shrink from using the arm necessary to prevent war in the world. They are like people who should object to a police force created to maintain order in the streets for fear that the policemen might get hurt. If we believe in preventing war we must use the means necessary to do so. We must be willing to risk a small sacrifice to insure against a larger one.

HONOR CONNECTICUT CO. FOR EMPLOYMENT POLICY

War and Navy Departments Send Certificate Praising Attitude of Company Toward Ex-Service Men.

The Connecticut Company has been awarded a certificate of honor by the War and Navy Departments because of its policy of re-employing every man who left its service in the army or navy during the war. The certificate is signed by Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War, Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, and Col. Arthur Woods, representing the War and Navy Departments.

About 450 employees of the Connecticut Company entered the service and up to June 15th, 247 had returned to their former positions, 7 had been given positions just as good as those they left and 13, by their own preference, entered other employment. As fast as the remainder return positions will be open to them.

The company also has taken into its employ a considerable number of discharged army and navy men who were not employees at the time of their enlistment, it being the policy of the company, in case of vacancies, when none of its former employees are available, to give preference to discharged soldiers or sailors.

The company states that this policy has been adopted purely because it feels that its former employees are entitled at least to begin where they left off as recompense for the sacrifices they have made, and not with the idea of obtaining any glory for itself.

"BUCK," HERO GUNNER AT MANILLA BAY, PASSES AWAY.

Dennisport, Mass., June 24.—Patrick Mahoney, known to the United States Navy as "Buck," the gunner's mate who fired the first American shot at the battle of Manila Bay, died at his home here.

When the American fleet entered Manila Bay during the Spanish War, Mahoney had charge of the after six-inch gun on the Boston. As the fleet was going into the harbor the soot in the smokestack of the coal-supply steamer Zafre ignited, which drew fire from the forts on Corrigider Island.

Mahoney set his gun working, and those shots were the first fired as the American fleet got into action with the Spanish fleet in the bay.

When the forts surrendered it was found that the gun in charge of Mahoney had caused a lot of damage to them.

WOODPECKER HOLDS UP TRAIN.

San Francisco, June 25.—Ever hear of a woodpecker holding up a train? That is just what happened recently at Iron Point, Nev., according to the president of the Burek-Nevada Railway.

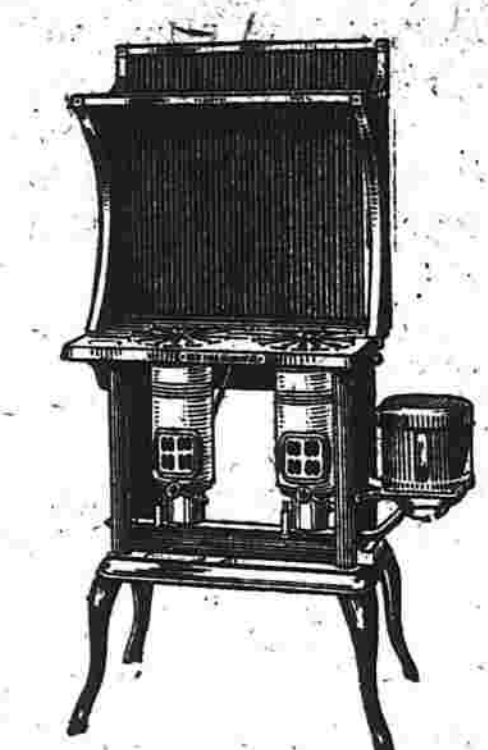

It seems the woodpecker took a fancy to the relay apparatus of a signal box and pecked at the wires until they short-circuited. Immediately the signal swung up denoting danger. Southern Pacific Overland No. 5 came along and halted. After a wait of one hour the engine driver investigated and found the woodpecker busy at "lunch" on the wires. A crowbar had to be used to remove the pest from the box.

PRINCE OF WALES WAS REALLY "TOO ECONOMIC."

London, June 25.—The Prince of Wales carried the economy idea too far to suit the money barons of the city.

He asked that the gold casket containing the certificate of his grant of the freedom of the City of London be omitted and the document framed unostentatiously.

NO USE FOR CHURCHES.

Editor, Evening Herald: In your issue of June 20th, I noticed an article regarding the No Tobacco Corporation whose object is "to secure by law, prohibition of culture, sale and use of tobacco." Their petition for a charter which was signed by prominent church people and ministers was refused by Judge James Carpenter of Pittsburgh, Pa.

For many years the people have asked and wondered whether the Prohibitionists would disband it even they were successful in their efforts against alcoholic drinks. It now shows they have no intention of disbanding. Their slogan is: "Prohibition Won—Now for Tobacco." Every one knows that the clergy and prominent church people are responsible for the success of prohibition.

They have taken away the working man's glass of beer and wine, and, not satisfied, they want to take away his pipe and cigars. The clergy preach beautiful sermons to empty pews on Sundays and spend the rest of the week wondering why men prefer to go fishing on the Sabbath. Strawberry festivals and whist or lawn parties may bring out an extra few but where do you find the big majority of people? Surely not within the fold.

The worker realizes more than ever before that the church is not friendly to him and his class. Robbed of his glasses of beer and wine and now seeing a crusade against his pipe and cigars, started by clergymen and prominent church people, he wonders what will come next. No doubt the next strike will be against theaters and dance halls. They would keep on until you and I were walking in "sack-cloth and ashes." Puritanical laws have had their days. We are not going to drift backwards. Evolution decrees we must progress whether we like it or not. If evolution is hampered it gives birth to revolution. Which do you choose?

Yours truly, (Signed) Mathias Spiess. June 24, 1919:

JOHN, THE TAILOR, AND BILL, THE BAKER, MAY YET CALL ON ROYALTY.

London, June 24.—It is suggested by the Daily News that the King and Queen have royal at homes when Bill Smith the baker and John Jones the tailor, not to mention Abe Simons the jeweller can be received at about without appearing in short pants and the rest of the "presentation regalia" which now sets a patriotic Britisher back some $500.

The Daily News believes that such "at homes" would more closely cement the ever-growing friendship and homely familiarity between the reigning house and the people.

As it is now only debutantes of the rich and nobility who can afford special court clothes costing more than $500, can be presented at court, while the equally expensive levee suit for gentlemen precludes many, even though they might have the opportunity of meeting the King and his wife.

During the war, "investitures" at which hundreds of decorations were bestowed upon men of the army and navy who had done heroic deeds, were held weekly, and thousands of persons who previously never saw more than the outer gates of Buckingham Palace were ushered inside the building on rainy days, along with their women folk. Sir Kingsley Wood believes the suggestion will meet with royal favor or because "there have been no King and Queen in history who have moved so much among their people."

Before the war there were royal garden parties, when the King and Queen met the leading men and women from all classes.

NEW HOTEL CHAIN.

San Francisco, June 25.—A string of first-class hotels stretching from the Mexican border to Canada, with every house within a convenient one-day trip to the next, has been mapped out by the D. M. Plans for a hotel in Seattle also have been made and construction work is to be started soon.

Elaborate plans are being formed by Canadian and British organizations here for his reception. The Prince will arrive in Canada, where he will be met by a delegation formally inviting him to the United States.

Tad Says Willard Looks Soft and Does Little Training.

TAKES LITTLE ADVICE

Jess Does Just as He Pleases—Shows Little "Pep" and Works or Plays When He Feels Like It.

By TAD.
Toledo, Ohio, June 25.—"Tham" Langford is around these parts telling his friends that the Dempsey people are crazy in the head and that it is a shame to send him against Willard.

"My goodness," said "Tham," "this Mr. Willard, beat the greatest man the ring has ever known when he beat that Jack Johnson. I was sore at Johnson once but I never said he wasn't a great fighter. I will tell you that every time I think of Willard licking him I have to take my hat off and scratch my head. He must be a great man."

Willard was in a kidding mood yesterday. He was sitting in the Secor hotel lobby here and laughing with Walter Monahan.

Willard Speaks.
"Walter, they think that I am sort of old, eh? They say that no champion at my age ever successfully defended his title. Well, wait, listen. After I topple over this boy, Dempsey, we'll go away on a big ranch for a few years. I will take a trip around the world later and when I am fifty years of age, if they have any new white hopes, why I will just wire to you to get me some gloves and things and we'll start in training again. I will smash all records on this age thing."

Someone has defined old age as death of enthusiasm. Sports here are worried over Willard's age. Others are worrying over his utter lack of pep. And other still are worrying over his condition.

Not Much "Pep."
Willard worked out again yesterday afternoon but he was just as excited over his afternoon's work as the kid with the violin is as he looks out of the window at a game in the lot. If the death of enthusiasm is old age, then Mr. Willard is a white-haired, round shouldered centenarian. He is the original "that good enough guy."

Of course he should know his own business better than we do. He should know how he feels and everything like that. Maybe the sports expect too much. They probably think that Jess should hop around like a grasshopper, sing like a thrush and clap his hands with joy. He doesn't. Oh, no, my boy, nothing like that. Jess just goes about his boxing in a business like way. He boxes just as fast as he likes. Some day he enjoys it. Some days he laughs all the time that he is in the ring. On these days the soreheads say: "Well, he oughta laugh; he's getting $100,000 for his bit."

Is His Own Boss.
One thing you can bet on and that is that Willard is his own boss. There was a time when he listened to a bevy of trainers. That was before he was champion. Then he had to go out on the road. He had to box a certain number of rounds daily. He had to eat and drink less. Those days are passed, though Angus.

Now Jess does just as he pleases. He may listen to a suggestion or two but it is up to him whether to accept it or not. Two weeks ago he laid off road work. He said that it shook him too much. Now he has stopped work on the pulleys. He says that his back muscles are right. He has also decided to have a day of rest after this. He gives orders to himself.

Yes, he may be Okay physically but he really looks soft. We don't know who will advise him in the ring on July 4. He will probably advise himself. He is monarch of all he surveys in Toledo.

SHRINERS OCCUPY ALL BEDS—JURY DISMISSED.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 24.—The Federal Grand Jury was in session here, but the Shriners, who were holding their national convention here, had engaged every available bed in every hotel in the city. So the Grand Jury was released from service for one week, as the United States Marshal could not find a place to "house" the jury.

Stevensville, June 25.—A bolt of lightning which tore through the roof of the home of T. R. Thompson, near here, entered a bedroom and amused itself by running around the bed, shattering the four legs and tearing out the casters.

CHAUTAQUA AND RECONSTRUCTION

OUT OF THE CHAOS OF WAR COMES THE WORLD OF 1919. It is rich in new possibilities, but also full of new responsibilities. The realization of the possibilities, within the grasp of men and women everywhere because of the triumph of the forces of light, depends entirely upon how the responsibilities are met.

It is the great task and privilege of Chautauqua to throw its powerful forces into the struggle of meeting these responsibilities in the best way. The Chautauqua platform, the finest forum in the land, is open for the discussing of the world's great problems. The Chautauqua spirit will create that community interest which banishes individual selfishness.

During the war Chautauqua proved itself of inestimable value in maintaining the nation's morale. President Wilson called it "an integral part of the national defense." And now, during the Reconstruction period, Chautauqua has a unique opportunity for service. It will turn itself wholeheartedly to its new task with that effectiveness which made it so valuable during the war.

Chautauqua, with an entirely new and original program, (to be found in another part of this paper) will make its fourth annual visit to Manchester July 7-14.

REFEREE AT BIG BOUT STILL CAUSES TROUBLE

Dempsey's Manager Opposed to Having Two Judges Also in Ring—New List of Candidates

Toledo, June 25.—Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, announced today: "I am unalterably opposed to any plan for the Willard-Dempsey fight that provides for any other ring official than a referee. Operating with a referee and two judges is all right for amateur boxes—but not this one. Every other heavyweight battle was decided solely by a referee and that's the way with this one."

Kearns' statement was made prior to a confab on the "third man" question which involved Jess Willard, Tex Rickard and W. A. Gavin, members of the National Boxing committee. At the session Willard was asked to submit a list of names of men suitable to him for the refereeing job. He also looked over the list that Kearns had submitted at last night's conference.

The Kearns list embraced: Jack Welch and Jim Griffin of San Francisco; Jack Skelley of Yonkers, N. Y.; Walter C. Kelley, of Buffalo; Ed Smith of Chicago; Dave Fitzgerald of New Haven, Conn.; Ollie Pecord, of Toledo; Bill Brown, Kid McPartland and Billy Roche, all of New York.

"Anyone of that crowd suits me," said Kearns. "However, I feel that Brown and Welch stack up as the strongest," he added. "I'd like to get this referee matter settled. We could get somewhere today if Willard would only make up his mind and then speak it. I understand Willard favors, but one man for the refereeing job, but up to date I have not been able to learn his identity." However, it is believed that Willard's real choice for referee is Tex Rickard who probably wouldn't accept unless to prevent a hopeless deadlock.

MOTHER SAVES VET'S MONEY.

Junction City, Kan., June 25.—Leo Rivers, a soldier, came home to find himself $300 richer than he thought he was. While in the army he made an allotment of $15 a month to his mother. She deposited the money to his credit without telling him of it. When he went to the bank to see about his account he was told of the increase. He also had saved $100 while in France, sending it home by the "Y."

SKOBO HAS REAL "KICK"

Minden, W. Va., June 25.—Skobo has spread demoralization among the coal miners in this district. Skobo is an apple cider to which some drug with a paralyzing kick has been added. For a week after one drinks Skobo all he has to do is to take a drink of water to become gloriously "jagged."

U. S. WINS FIVE FIRSTS IN INTER-ALLIED GAMES

Also Carries Off Two Seconds in Nine Preliminaries—Yanks Win Baseball Game.

Paris, June 25.—The United States won five firsts and two seconds in nine track preliminaries in the first day of the inter-allied athletic games. Twenty thousand spectators attended the first day's games. Leman's Embarkation Center baseball team attracted the attention of many doughboys. It defeated the Canadians five to nothing. The Americans are banking on Joe Stout, of Chicago University, to win the final heat of the fifteen hundred meter race. Stout has shown his heels to rivals thus far.

Bob Asher, Detroit, bantam champion of the A. E. F., lost the deciding bout in the bantam class to Digger Evans, of Australia. Evans recently won a newspaper decision over Jimmy Wilds at Havre, France.

In the trial heats of the 100 meter dash Edward Teschner, Lawrence, Mass., won the first heat in eleven seconds. Lindsay, New Zealand, won the second heat in eleven seconds. Sol Butler, colored, of Hutchinson, Kan., won the third heat. Howard of Canada was first in the fourth and Charley Paddock, Pasadena, Cal., won the fifth.

In the first heat of the semi-final of the 100 meter dash Lindsay, of New Zealand, finished first, Teschner second and Butler third. In the second semi-final heat Paddock won. Howard of Canada was second and Caste, France, third.

IS DANDELION CLASSIFIED AS A WEED OR A FOOD?

Huntington, W. Va., June 25.—Is the dandelion a weed or a food? The answer to this question means a whole lot to West Virginians, for dandelions can be used in the manufacture of beer or wine. Prohibition Officer Holt says that food products cannot be used in the manufacture of intoxicating liquor except for sacramental or medicinal purposes, according to President Wilson's proclamation. So if the dandelion is food it is illegal to use it in the manufacture of drinks.

WEED PATCH IS FAMOUS, THO' RATHER UNWELCOME.

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 25.—"Please send me a few suggestions on how to rid my garden of a patch of 'Star of Bethlehem,'" wrote Dr. George W. Ely to the Bureau of Plant Industry in Washington. "A few suggestions?" said Dr. A. Hansen, the Government expert, after a hurried trip here. "We would like a few suggestions ourselves." And then he explained that the "Star of Bethlehem" weed is an exceedingly rare thing and there are only two or three plots of it in the whole country. It is an exceedingly mischievous pest and, nothing so far known to man can divorce it from the soil when once it gets a hold. And Dr. Ely's weed patch, therefore, becomes famous.

BEATS A BOARD BILL OF $5; COSTS HIM $22.50

Maryville, Mo., June 25.—It cost B. L. Taylor, of New Market, Iowa, $22.50 in Judge Jackson's Court, to beat the Linville Hotel, of this city, out of a board bill of $5. Last November Taylor stopped at the hotel, and in payment for his bill, presented a personal check for $5 on a bank in New Market. The bank said he had no funds on deposit.

Coming back from the army, Taylor was located by local officials and brought here where he paid his fine—also the board bill.

Lodi, Cal., June 24.—For capturing a German 77 mm. field piece, eight German soldiers and four horses, though under heavy German machine-gun fire, Private Andreas Vavasilis, of Lodi, Cal., has been awarded the Distinguished Service Cross. He served with Company I, Third Hundred and Sixty-third Division. He had previously served in the Balkan wars.

WEDDED, BUT LIVED MORE AS BROTHER AND SISTER.

San Francisco, June 24.—The relations of Edna Elizabeth Zerr and Elijah J. Zerr were more like those of brother and sister than husband and wife, according to a suit for divorce filed in the Superior Court here by Mrs. Zerr.

Mrs. Zerr describes herself as a "wife in name only" and complains that Zerr, a civil engineer, is opposed to having children, while she feels her life will not be complete without experiencing the thrill of having some little one call her mother.

JUST A QUINT SMOKE, BUT IT SHOOK 'SOME.

Topeka, Kan., June 24.—Clouds of smoke coming from the women's waiting room at the Rock Island depot here, caused the patrons of the room to make an investigation. Over in the corner, smoking a clay pipe peacefully, was an aged woman, all unconscious of the excitement she was causing. When the matron told her it was not the place to smoke, the aged woman calmly went outside the depot and completed her smoke. She said she came from the mountains of Kentucky and was on her way to Nebraska.

PONY SIZE OF HARE.

Pechin, Pa., June 24.—Robert Brown claims to own the smallest pony ever in the world. It is two weeks old, a little larger than a rabbit, and almost as tiny as a cat. It is affectionate as a puppy and likes to crawl up on its owner's shoulder whenever he is sitting.

GREAT CREDIT GIVEN TO COACH BILLY LUSH FOR NAVY'S BASEBALL SUCCESS

An Incident of Army-Navy Game—Safe at First.

With its baseball team beating the army nine for the first time since 1908 and its crews sweeping the Schuykill this is a big season for the navy. This year already has proved itself the most successful in the history of sport at Annapolis, and if it culminates in a football triumph over the army next November it will go down as a record breaker par excellence.

When Wilbert Robinson, desperately in need of a seasoned first baseman, plucked Koney from off the soapy chutes that led to the minors, there were many who feared Wilbert had made a mistake, that Koney never would come through and that it would be many a day before Brooklyn would unearth a first baseman who could approach the veteran Daubert.

JIM SHAW EQUALED RECORD

Slammed Homers Off Pitchers Selbold and Kinney of Athletics in Successive Innings.

When Jim Shaw of Washington, on May 2, slammed homers off Selbold and Kinney of the Athletics, in successive innings, Jim equaled a major league record that has stood since June 30, 1912, for on this latter date, Ed Willett, the Tigers' star hurler of long ago, while pitching for Detroit, slammed a single and a pair of round trips off Morigridge and Jordan, the White Sox hurlers.

Fashion Set During Racing Season Does Not Find Favor With Parisian Ladies.

Paris, June 6.—(By Mail.)—The "nothing below the knee" decree has been rescinded by the Rue de la Paix fashion arbiters and shadow stockings are again the vogue for town wear.

Today girls without stockings may still be seen strolling up the Champs Elysees and through the Bois de Boulogne, but fashionable women as a whole have decided that the style is unsuitable to the dusty streets of a city and must be limited to the society beaches of Deauville and Dinard and such watering places as Vichy, Luxon, and Contrexville.

CAUTIONS IN CANNING. Bulletins on home canning of fruits and vegetables may be obtained free by any resident of Connecticut by addressing a request to the Extension Service, Connecticut Agricultural College, Storrs, Conn. Following is a list of cautions to be observed in canning with the one-period cold-pack method:

- 1. Follow only one set of instructions. 2. Begin with small quantity of one product. Work carefully. Test for keeping before canning large amounts. 3. Complete canning as quickly as possible after gathering product to prevent "flat sour" and loss of flavor. 4. Fill jars with water free from excessive quantity of mineral matter. 5. Have plenty of boiling water on hand. 6. Place jars in canner when water is put on to heat. Leave in boiling water at least 15 minutes. 7. Use new rubbers that meet requirements of vegetable canning. 8. Avoid jars with defective joints, springs and caps. Old metal caps should be discarded. 9. Blanch leaf and green vegetables in steam; all other products in boiling water. Do not count time until water jumps. 10. Pack jars of peas, corn, and shelled beans loosely. Place immediately in canner. If hot-water bath is used, do not count time until water jumps. 11. Have the water in hot-water bath at least one inch over top of jars. 12. Cool jars quickly after taking from canner. 13. Test for leakage. If rubber or cap is defective replace immediately with new one while product is hot and return to canner. Sterilize fruits for 10 minutes longer; vegetables 30 minutes. 14. Do not store until cold.

WHITE WOMAN NAMED BY CHINESE WIFE IN DIVORCE

San Francisco, Cal., June 24.—Miss Jessie Stanley, a white woman, was recently named as the other woman in the divorce proceedings of a Chinese couple.

The Chinese wife in her complaint asserts that her husband asked Miss Stanley to have dinner at their home and then requested his wife to join him in the invitation. When she refused, she says, her husband seized a kettle of hot water and poured it over her. He then drew a revolver and forced her out of the house.

WAR MESSENGER PROMISES COURT TO CURB HIS SPEED

South Bend, Ind., June 24.—"I used to carry dispatches on a motorcycle in France, your honor, and had to make speed then. I didn't have any speedometer, so I don't know how fast I was going," Clifford Casper, lately mustered out of service, told the judge in City Court here when arraigned for speeding. "You don't need any more practice now—the war's over," retorted the judge. "One dollar and costs. In view of your war service, however, and if you will promise to get a speedometer, I will suspend the sentence," Casper promised.

BILL'S ALIBI DIDN'T GO

Indianapolis, Ind., June 24.—Mrs. William Lyles appeared in City Court here with blue spots around her naturally black eyes. "Judge, he knocked me down and stamped on me," she told the Court. "Judge, she smeared coal oil on me, and when I woke up she was holding a torch over me ready to burn me up," said Lyles. "One hundred days on the penal farm for you, Mr. Lyles," said the judge.

MEN IN KANSAS STORES TO HELP WHEAT HARVEST

Salina, Kan., June 24.—Business men of Salina have made plans to release their employees for work in the harvest fields, which will start shortly. According to a letter to the Chamber of Commerce from E. E. Frizell, State farm labor agent, all wheat must be cut within fifteen days. Any left uncut after that time will be lost. Many firms throughout the State, it is reported, will release their men for harvest work. Other firms will have women do as much work as they can in their places. Some towns will send out men in the late afternoon and early evening to harvest near the town to help save the crop.

DAD WOULD NOT BELIEVE SON JOHN WAS DEAD

Undertaker Said He Was and Proved It—But Pop Was Right.

New York, June 25.—There is no use trying to argue with John Riley, when John knows he is right. All the hospital authorities and undertakers between Bear Mountain and Ocean Grove couldn't convince John that the body of somebody else was the corpse of his own son. John simply refused to be persuaded.

And John won out. But not until John Jr.—but that is a part of the story which comes later. For some time Riley, who lives at North Bergen, had been worried about the health of John, Jr., who was a patient in the Laurel Hill hospital. On a recent Saturday he received notice from that hospital that his son had died.

The grieving father telephoned to a West New York undertaker to get the body and prepare it for a first class funeral. The undertaker filled the commission and delivered the corpse in a handsome coffin to the Riley home, where it was to lie in state.

The elder Riley approached the casket for a glimpse at the beloved face. The undertaker tiptoed up, softly removed the lid, and motioned to the father. "Does he look natural?" the undertaker said. "I don't know," said Riley. "I never saw him before." "Never saw your son before?" "But this isn't my son. There has been a mistake."

The undertaker insisted that a mistake was impossible. The father insisted that it wasn't. The undertaker appealed to the hospital authorities for moral support. They gave it. They declared over the telephone that there had been no mistake, and that the body most inubitably, undeniably, and irrevocably was that of John Riley, Jr. And they convinced all parties to the discussion with the single exception of John Riley, Sr. "But I know my own son, don't I?" was John's irrelevant retort to every argument. Finally in despair the undertaker persuaded the father to go with him to the hospital. There they were shown the records. These proved beyond question that the dead man was John Riley. Still the elder Riley was adamant. Even the undertaker was getting provoked with him, when a man dressed in the garb of a patient entered the room. "Hello, pop," he said, addressing Riley. "How's every li'l' ole thing?" It was John Riley, Jr. Afterward it was discovered that he had been two young John Rileys in the hospital. The one who had died had given only the miscellaneous information that he lived in Bayonne. No relatives had put in any claim for his body, but it at any rate will get a first class funeral. Just who is to pay for the funeral has not been determined. John Riley, Sr., was too much pleased to be interested in the matter. He was almost boastful as he left the hospital after learning that his son was convalescing. "I'm a pretty determined man in an argument," he remarked proudly.

COAL SHORTAGE ON WAY, GOVT. SAYS BUY NOW

May Be Repetition of 1917-18 Conditions Next Winter Says Geological Survey.

WINES IDLE WITHOUT ORDERS. Those Who Delay Ordering Longer May Not Get Their Fuel Later On.

The United States Geological Survey announces from Washington the probability of another general coal shortage next fall and winter. The announcement is based, the Survey states, upon a nation-wide study of conditions in the bituminous field. Unless steps are taken at once, the Survey says, to place the mines upon a basis of increased production there is every prospect of a repetition to some degree of the situation that prevailed in the United States during the winter of 1917-18.

The only way production can be stimulated at the present time, it is said, is by placing orders with the mines for coal which will be needed later on. "Production during the first five months of the year," reads the statement, "fell 37,282,000 net tons, or approximately 25% below production during the first five months of 1918. Mines are producing coal now at the rate of from 3,000,000 to 3,500,000 tons a week. An average output of 10,700,000 tons a week must be maintained from June 1 to January 1 next if the country's estimated needs of 600,000,000 tons this year are to be met."

Evil of Delayed Orders. At no time during this year has the rate of production approached the required tonnage. The tendency on the part of buyers to hold off placing their orders is limiting production, as the mines cannot store coal at the point of production, and when the rush of orders for the winter's needs comes next fall there is grave danger that the mines, with depleted labor forces and the probability of less adequate transportation, will be unable to meet the demands. The result of such a situation would be an insufficient supply for the requirements of domestic consumers, public utilities and industrial users generally. "It is believed that requirements for this year," reads a Survey statement to Fuel Administrator Garfield, "will be about 530,000,000 tons of bituminous coal, of which approximately 30,000,000 tons have been used from stocks accumulated last year, leaving 500,000,000 tons to be produced. Of this 500,000,000 tons, 118,000,000 tons were produced during the first five months, leaving 382,000,000 tons to be produced in the remaining 30 weeks, or an average of 10,700,000 tons a week. "This far this year production has been at the rate of 3,200,000 tons a week. In 1918 production was at the rate of 11,800,000 tons a week. "This production will be difficult of accomplishment. The capacity of operating mines at the present time with labor now on the payroll is about 10% lower than it was last year. This deficiency may be made up in part or wholly if the mines have orders sufficient to run them five or six days a week unless the threatened exodus of foreign-born labor occurs."

May Be Car Shortage. "Present wage" agreements between operators and miners expire with the production of peace by the President. A suspension of mining operations with a new wage agreement is being negotiated. "Should, of course, seriously interrupt the production of coal and a panic among buyers and consumers of coal."

There is no use in gambling upon this or any other contingency, fuel administration officials say. The firm or individual who wants to be sure of an adequate coal supply next winter can be certain by buying coal now. There is no other way such assurance can be obtained. Transportation also promises to be a limiting factor if the flood tide of demand comes at a time when the country's record crops are being carried. In some districts it would appear certain that notwithstanding the utmost endeavors of the Railroad Administration and the utilization of its experience last fall, car shortage will be a cause limiting bituminous coal production, and for that reason it is prohibitional whether the expected production of 500,000,000 tons can be attained this year. Shortage of labor already is a factor that is cutting down the output in some coal producing sections, according to the Survey's report. The operators report that from 38,000 to 40,000 foreign-born miners expect to return to Europe as soon as they can get passports and that many have already returned. If continued this movement will be capable of producing but one result—a reduction of the amount of coal mined in districts where the mine labor is largely foreign-born, and there are many such districts. He who hesitates to buy coal now is the one who will buy it later.

WEAVING MILL TOPS INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE

Has Lost No Games to Date—Splashing Mill Comes First Going the Other Way.

The standing of the baseball clubs in the local Industrial League has been compiled to June 20th by Recreation Director Whiting and is as follows:

Table with 4 columns: Team Name, W, L, P.C. Weaving Mill: 3, 0, 1.000. Spinning Mill: 2, 1, .667. Ribbon Mill: 2, 2, .333. Velvet Mill: 1, 2, .333. One postponed game: Weaving Mill and Spinning Mill.

The keepest rivalry is being shown among both teams and followers of this league and the standing and merits of the individual clubs is the main topic of conversation in and around the mills at noon. The league to date has turned out to be a whirlwind success, thanks to the efforts of Director Whiting of the Recreation Center.

WHAT IS A BILLION, ANY? WAX?

By James H. Collins. "One billion dollars," detested the boss to Tillie. "Do you want that in figures?" she asked. "Yes." But Tillie hit the cipher key too many times and wrote: $1,000,000,000,000. It looked large, even for a war figure! And it was both wrong and right as you will see a little later. What is a billion, anyway? Last year, the people of this country did something which gives a very good illustration of $1,000,000,000. The Treasury Department received a billion dollars from War Savings Stamps bought by the people. Just who bought them does not matter. Every man, woman and child in the United States buying a 25-cent Thrift Stamp weekly for forty weeks would have done it—not much of a drain upon anybody's income, even that of an office boy.

HOLD UP GANG TERRORIZES FASHIONABLE NORTH SHORE

Ipswich, Mass., June 20.—Every road and garage on the fashionable North Shore was being watched by the police today in an effort to apprehend a band of armed bandits who have been terrorizing the district for the last 24 hours. Four attempts to hold up automobilists in which shots were fired, were reported to the police of Ipswich, Manchester and Beverly. The police are also investigating other reports that the robbers broke into summer residences of wealthy North Shore residents.

PASSING OF THE SARDINE CHARGED TO PROHIBITION

Bangor, Me., June 20.—Mark another wreck up to prohibition! This time it's the lowly and humble sardine, the poor man's delight, the desire of the thirst-quencher. Maine's sardine industry is threatened. The sardine factories are not opening up this season because of prohibition. In the big cities, where the cheering cup was having its day, the barrooms supplied their customers with a lunch to go with beer, wine or gin, and nothing went so well with any of the appetizers as the festive sardine. But prohibition came and the barrooms went, or are on their way. No sardines are wanted.

DRIVERLESS TEAM IS WISE TO "GO" AND "STOP"

Indianapolis, Ind., June 20.—A team of horses owned by an Indianapolis wholesale grocery company decided to move without their driver. The horses drawing a dray started slowly. They were just behind the white line at Meridian and Maryland streets when the traffic man turned the semaphore. The "stop" sign faced the horses and they stopped. In a few minutes the traffic man turned the semaphore and the "go" sign faced the horses. They went. As the team stopped at the "stop" sign and started at the "go" sign, the traffic man failed to notice they were driverless. The horses slowly walked to the next corner and again the "stop" sign was up. The horses stopped. And this is the way the driver caught them.

REFUSES TO BE DEAD, DESPITE THREE REPORTS.

Salina, Kan., June 25.—Despite the fact that the War Department has reported him killed in action on three different lists, and despite the fact that his many friends here believe him to be dead, Lloyd E. Ingram, a former member of the One Hundred and Thirty-seventh Infantry of the Thirty-fifth Division, persists in declaring he is alive. He has written friends here from Ellsworth, where he is now living, that he is very much alive and that the reports are false. Furthermore, if he is not believed, he will come over and show himself to his friends to prove the War Department has simply made a mistake.

Talcottville

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Talcott and family and Miss Mary White left Tuesday morning for Gloucester, Mass., where they will enjoy a short visit among friends.

Mrs. Gardner Talcott and children are visiting at the home of M. Talcott. The barn dance held at William McCarrison's Saturday night was largely attended by many local and out-of-town people. This was the first barn dance held in Talcottville for a number of years.

The Talcottville Pike and Drum Corps will journey to New Haven Friday night where they will attend the Lancrast-Drum Corps convention to be held Saturday.

TAGGING THE BASES

The Cubs hammered Salie and Luque to their hearts' content in the first half of a double header with the Reds. In the second half Biller blanked the Bruins, striking out ten batsmen. Flagstad, Alsmith and Shorten made life miserable for Wright, of the Browns. The Tigers totaled twelve hits.

Jack Quinn had the range against the Athletics and smeared on the kaisomine, allowing but four hits. Plenty of hitting featured the double header between the Braves and the Phillies, which finished fifty-fifty. Cravath, Riggert and Armille collected homers. The Pirates, led by Claude Cooper, ran into a hidden machine gun nest in St. Louis and the Cards shot 'em full of holes.

George Ruth made his sixth homer of the season against the Senators. The Sox won by a rally in the eighth. Tommy Griffith hammered out a homer with the bases full in the eighth inning of the second game against New York for his fifth hit of the game. The Dodgers won the pastime easily, after having lost the first game with Toney pitching good ball for the Giants.

First baseman George Kelly, of the Rochester Internationals was on a hitting lark yesterday. Kelly smashed out four home-runs and a double in six times at bat against Reading. He struck out once.

MY KINGDOM FOR AN OPENER, IS PLEA FROM FRANCE.

San Francisco, Cal., June 25.—"A can opener! My kingdom for a can opener!" Miss Winifred Jones, of Suisun, domestic science teacher attached to a roll canteen in the Le Mans area in France, writes friends in this city that it's no joke to find a substitute for an "exhausted" can opener. She has worn out several jackknives, hatchets and axes opening cans, and declares that the absence of a can opener—when several divisions of Doughboys, awaiting the magic order to entrain for home, are hanging around waiting for hot chocolate—is a serious problem. Miss Jones is a 7. M. C. A. worker in France and serves gallons of hot chocolate day and night. She holds an enviable record as a doughnut-maker, too, and says that when she gets home she will have a can opener in every room in her house.

RECOVERS WEDDING RING LOST MANY YEARS AGO.

LaFayette, Ind., June 25.—Twenty-eight years ago Mrs. Edward Brady, living east of here, handed her wedding ring to Marvin House, present county recorder, while she was putting on her gloves. House dropped the ring into his pocket and later lost it while working in a field. This spring Harry Northrup was harvesting in the same field, and found the ring, which was apparently none the worse for wear except for the loss of some of the smaller ruby settings.

PECULIAR RECORDS SHOWN BY ASSESSORS IN KANSAS.

M'Cracken, Kan., June 25.—The record of the McCracken assessor shows many interesting things about the ages of the well-known residents of this city. For instance, one of them is three years older this year than he was last, while another, a leading citizen, is two years older. In another case the husband has added another year to his already half a hundred, while his wife, who was his schoolmate, is only thirty-eight—the same as for some years back. The youngest citizen was three days old when the assessor called at the home of his parents, while a woman of eighty-five years claims the honors as the oldest.

IMPATIENCE IS FATAL

Hammond, Ind., June 25.—Eugene Curll, of Indiana Harbor, Ind., was used of waiting for a Pennsylvania freight train to clear the crossing of Lincoln street. He attempted to go under the train just before it started and was cut in two before the eyes of one hundred persons watching to cross the tracks.

WAR BUREAU STILL BUSY WITH SOLDIERS' RECORDS

Office Force Finds Many Things to Do Now That Service Men Are Coming Home.

Many people have broached the question: "Is the War Bureau necessary now that most of the boys are home?" Just drop into the office any day or evening and activities there will give a sufficient answer to your question. The medal work takes up a great deal of time and attention, and also requires a great deal of patient work on the part of the office forces. The records of our soldiers and sailors are kept in index form and data is tabulated with their arrival. Correspondence has to be maintained and there is a great deal of this. Last evening, Miss Eva Johnson who was in charge of the bureau was busily engaged, answering questions, filing honorable discharge reports, and taking care of applicants for medals.

Returning Soldiers.

Robert Dowd of Maple street, who has been serving overseas in the Medical Corps, arrived home last evening.

William D. Black, a member of the same unit as Dowd, arrived at Camp Upton about a week ago and was expected home last evening.

Homer Davis of Cottage street has arrived in this country from overseas service. He is receiving treatment for shellshock at a hospital in New York.

Into the ice business. He would give the selectmen all the assistance necessary and would be willing to turn over his entire equipment for the use of the town for a fair consideration.

Mr. Starkweather's Story.

Fred Starkweather was called upon by the committee to give some of the facts of his business and how he conducted it. He told the meeting that he had harvested less than 80 tons last winter and that he had been importing ice ever since April. He was forced to charge a cent a pound for the ice and was not making any money on it at that figure. He had been in the business for the last 20 years. He delivers as much as possible from the freight cars and the surplus he carts to his ice house. He verified about everything Mr. Wood had told the committee about the conduct of the business. The facts that he gave the committee went to show that the ice dealers in town were getting very little for their work. He was unable to tell just what he had made each year on the business. He knew that he made enough to pay his bills and get a living but he was willing to sell out for a reasonable figure. He recited the hardships of the ice men and the hours of labor they were compelled to put in.

Disgusted With Business.

John Martzer another ice man in town, came in late. He told the meeting that he had been delivering ice just as long as he could see and that he had come to the meeting without his supper. He claimed that he had made no agreement with Mr. Wood as to the price of ice in town. He was disgusted with the business and if he could sell out he would gladly do so.

Mathias Spiess thought that a little system introduced into the business would cut down the price. He quoted Uncle Sam and his method of mail delivery. The scattered area he blamed for the high cost of delivery.

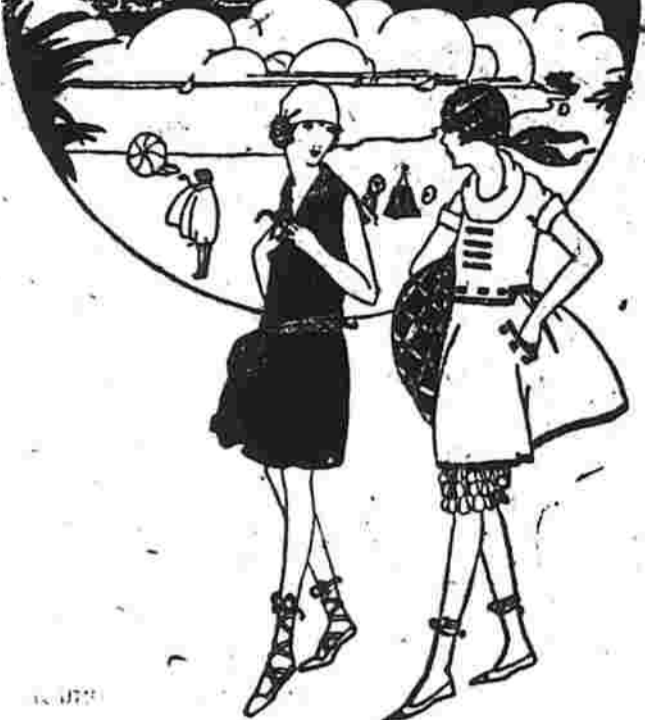

William Schieldge was at a loss to know what the object of the meeting was. He took the part of the ice dealers. He said that he was wearing a pair of shoes that cost him $7.50 and that he used to buy the same shoes for $3.50. It was the same all along the line he said. The grocer and the baker had to get more and the ice men of necessity had to charge fully a hundred percent more for their ice in order to make both ends meet.

The idea of a municipal ice plant was not a new one Mr. Schieldge said. The selectmen had gone into the ice question some years ago and he was of the opinion that there was on record some very valuable data on hand in the Hall of Records in regard to this matter. He was not favorable to any move on the part of the town toward going into the ice business except as a preventive against an ice famine.

GIRL GETS FIRST LETTER FROM FAMILY SINCE 1914

Relatives in Russia Without Shoes or Clothes—Former Cost $16 a Pair.

A Polish girl in town yesterday received the first authentic letter from her family in Russia since the war started in 1914. The letter which was written by her brother states that the family is in a pitiful and destitute condition. Some of the members of the family are without clothes or shoes and they have been forced to sacrifice their homes for what little they have. Cheap suits are selling in Russia for about 1,000 marks which amounts to $80 in American money at present rates. Shoes are commanding a 200 mark price or about $16 for poorest quality. It is reported that a special commission is being formed in New York City for the purpose of arranging a method whereby relatives of Russian families may forward funds to the mother country in safety.

HAND SALUTE—ONE—TWO IN THE MILITARY WAY

That's the Style That is Replacing the Old Fashioned Manner of Greeting a Lady.

Has hat tipping disappeared? It has as far as Manchester is concerned. When a young man meets a young lady on Main street he no more dons his chapeau but up goes his right hand in a military salute.

It is believed that the war has caused this change. An observer gave as his reason that the campaign hats worn by the soldiers made it difficult to tip properly unless one bowed and made a sweeping motion similar to the bows made by old time Southern "Colonels" who needed a square yard to take off their wide brimmed hats. On a crowded thoroughfare it was impossible to make this sweep so, of necessity, the custom was abandoned.

Next came the overseas men with their overseas caps. Here again it was impossible to take off one's hat unless he crumpled it into his hand and then much difficulty would be experienced in putting it back again on the head.

The soldiers started the style of saluting and the civilians took it up.

It is now a rare thing to see a man tip his hat in the old style when he meets a lady in Manchester.
