U. S. CONGRESS UP ON ITS TOES AWAITING PRESIDENT'S RETURN

League of Nations, Prohibition, Wire Control, Taxation and High Cost of Living to be Discussed—Senators and Representatives Deeply Concerned With Reconstructive Legislation.

Washington, June 26.—Congress was being kept right on its toes today in anticipation of the return soon of President Wilson. Reappearance of the President at the capitol was expected to mark the climax to the League of Nations controversy.

Submission of the peace treaty, signed and sealed in its final, official form, to the foreign relations committee, coincident with the President's return, would, it was pointed out, confront the Senate with facts instead of theories.

"Down to Hard Pan." Proponents and opponents of speedy ratification by the Senate of the bulky document with the league covenant interwoven with it would then have to "get down to hard pan." Weeks might be consumed by debate, pro and con, but the Senate would face an actual condition not as at present, prospective action, to be dismissed by speech-making and resolution. Aside from the growing interest in what course anti-league Senators eventually will pursue with regard to proposed amendments, modifications or reservations with respect to treaty or the league covenant, both the Senate, and House were speculating today as to the effect the President's return would have on regular legislation.

The prohibition question naturally held the spot light, because of the near approach of July 1 and of the persistent report that the President would call war time prohibition off before that day.

Both Senators and Representatives are more deeply concerned with reconstructive and peace legislation centered their interest on what the President would probably have to say and do, when he got back to the White House, with:

Wire Control. "The bill for the restoration of the country's telegraph and telephone lines to private ownership which was expected before the week end to pass both houses as reported from conference;

The daylight saving repeal legislation;

Special tariff measures; railroad and merchant marine legislation;

Luxury and other forms of taxation about which congress is daily hearing more and more from "back home";

Labor, immigration, soldier employment and equally important problems.

High Cost of Living. The ubiquitous high cost of living, which has reduced the "almighty dollar" to the purchasable value of about 40 cents; and other important national and domestic questions which Republican National Chairman Will H. Hays declared recently "were bothering the home folks a darned sight more than international matters."

Other Things Besides League. From present indications the Senate is not going to crowd everything off the Congressional stage with the League of Nations fight. There will be other contests going on in the squared circle at the capitol—and the President, aside from his well known determination to "put across" the League covenant with the utmost dispatch, even to the extent of making a country wide tour to take the American people into his confidence, will have plenty to keep him busy after he reaches the end of the long trail home to the White House.

NEW PEACE ENVOYS. Paris, June 26.—A German peace delegation composed of Foreign Minister Hermann Mueller, Herr Geisbert and Herr Leinert will arrive in Paris Saturday morning to sign the treaty.

600 SALOON KEEPERS TO KEEP OPEN JULY 1

Will Serve Drinks Just the Same, On Advice of Lawyers.

AWAITING A TEST CASE

Along Broadway Booze Shoppers Lay in Supplies—Actor's Liquor Brings $6,000 at Auction.

New York, June 26.—New York will not be wholly dry on July 1, regardless of whether President Wilson acts before next Tuesday to set aside the war-time prohibition law.

Six hundred liquor dealers, said to have the backing of the Lager Beer Brewers Board of Trade, will continue to serve all kinds of drinks, acting on the advice of attorneys who have pointed out that there is no provision for enforcement of the law and who have registered the opinion that it is unconstitutional. They expect to have a test case rushed to court.

Advised to Keep Open. William H. Hirst, counsel for the New York Society of Restaurateurs today advised hotel keepers and restaurateurs to continue dispensing drinks but to confine their sales to light wines and beers in conformity with President Wilson's recommendation to Congress, in order not to appear to be defying the law. He plans to have a test case brought into court and then obtain the suspension of the law by injunction, pending a decision on its constitutionality.

Dealers Still Hope. Liquor dealers continued to express the hope today that the President will set aside the law before it becomes effective Tuesday but a steady stream of "booze" shoppers was pouring into the stores. At Broadway and Forty-second street, a fifteen foot sign announced bargains in whiskey, wines and other liquors.

A crowd of eager bidders attended the auction sale of the private liquor supply of the late Nat Goodwin, the actor. The sale brought $6,000.

MERWIN GRAY SUICIDE; KILLS SELF AT BOLTON

(Special to The Herald.) Bolton, June 26.—Merwin Gray, a summer resident of this town, shot himself through the right temple last evening, killing himself instantly.

Mr. Gray sent his hired man, Albert M. Skinner, away on an errand and when Mr. Skinner returned the body of Mr. Gray was lying on the floor. He had been dead for some time.

No reason is known for the deed. Mr. Gray had not been in the best of health for about two weeks and had not been at his office in the city with his usual regularity. However, he was there at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, but left early for his farm in Bolton. Mr. Gray was 42 years old.

"TIPPERARY" BARRED. Famous British War Song Will Not Be Played on Chimes.

London, June 26.—Despite suggestions by the local press, "Tipperary," the famous British war song, will not be played on the chimes of the peace treaty.

"Why not also fox trot," wrote the Vicar of Wellingsborough, in indignantly rejecting the suggestion. "I hasten to assure all and sundry that whilst I am Vicar of Wellingsborough, it's a Long Way to Tipperary, will never be played on the bells of the House of God."

SINGLE SHOT MAY BRING CIVIL WAR TO 'HUN' CAPITAL

STREETS ARE BARRICADED RAILROADERS ON STRIKE

London, June 26.—Berlin is a great armed camp with the tension between the communists and the reactionaries so great that a single shot may bring bloody, civil war, said a Central News dispatch from Berlin today.

The communist soldiers' councils have distributed large quantities of arms and ammunition to soldier members and their civilian adherents. The government's position is growing more serious and some troops are deserting. The ministry of marine has been converted into a fortress and the surrounding streets are barricaded.

Government soldiers have occupied the newspaper offices. Trains Tied. As a result of the railway strike the most important lines are tied up and the stations barricaded.

It is reported that General Luettwitz is attempting to form a new government with military support.

Exclusive dispatches from our Berlin correspondents early yesterday brought first word of the outbreak of rioting in Berlin.

A Reuter dispatch from Berlin reported that sniping continued throughout the night from the roofs of houses and buildings all over the city. Troops were called out to clear the Alexander Platz of enormous crowds of rioters. Bands of looters held up the street cars. There were frequent clashes between the troops and crowds of civilians.

ALARMING RUMORS. Berlin, June 26.—Rumors spread throughout Berlin early today that several volunteer divisions, which have been protecting the city against communist disorders have resolved to dissolve and abandon Berlin to the Spartacists, who have been participating in the rioting going on here for the last 48 hours.

Their leaders decided upon this action, it was reported, following the resignation of Field Marshal von Hindenburg from the chief command of the army. "The war ministry is attempting to prevent the disaffection from spreading to other units in the army."

CROWDS THROG STREET TO SEE ACCUSED NURSE

Lawrence, Mass., June 26.—Mrs. Bessie May (Skeels) Lundgren, the "Sunshine Nurse" today faced the supreme ordeal in her trial on a charge of having murdered Miss Florence W. Gay. The nurse accused by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts of having poisoned Miss Gay and by the state of New Jersey, of having killed her brother, Albert J. H. Wilkins, of Bayonne, N. J., also by poison, resolutely resumed her place as a witness but today in the hands of the state's prosecutors, for cross examination.

A record crowd sought admittance long before the taxi conveying Mrs. Lundgren drew up to the side entrance of the court house. Onlookers who were refused admittance because of lack of seating capacity contented themselves with seeing the accused woman carried into the building and up the stairs.

Under direct examination the "Sunshine Nurse" had vehemently denied that she had given poison to Miss Gay or her brother.

This is the last day of the Salvation Army drive and the fund is still below the mark set. It will be your fault if Manchester fails to live up to her comp!

ALLIES SEND SHARP WARNING TO GERMANY; WILL STAND FOR NO MORE VIOLATIONS OF TERMS

Former Crown Prince Frederick Flees Holland and Returns Home

Paris, June 26.—Peace conference circles are materially concerned over a report that the former German Crown Prince Frederick William Hohenzollern has escaped from Holland and returned to Germany. The report of the Crown Prince's escape reached army intelligence sources here. Though the news is not yet official, it is generally accepted as true. The report occasioned no surprise here in view of the resolutions adopted by the German Officers Association, declaring that they would protect the ex-Kaiser, the princes and Ludendorff from trial by the allies. If the news is confirmed, it is accepted here that the allies will make an immediate demand upon the new German government for the surrender of the Crown Prince as a matter of principle, regardless of whether he was brought to trial or not. It was conceded that a receipt of such a demand by the new government would immediately precipitate a crisis in Germany with the military party threatening revolution if the government acceded to the Allies' request.

ENGLISH PRESS ANXIOUS ABOUT PRESIDENT VALERA

If Head of Irish "Republic" is Allowed Free Platform Newspapers Fear Trouble.

London, June 26.—Commenting upon the murder of Police Inspector Hunt in Ireland and the reluctance with which the coroner's jury returned a verdict of murder, the Daily Express today declared that it "commends a study of this inquest and these strange proceedings to the Congress of the United States."

The English newspapers are displaying great interest in the movements in the United States of de Valera, head of the Irish "republic" whose appearance in America is expected to be followed by more moves by Irish sympathizers in the American Congress.

Fear Valera. "If de Valera is allowed a free platform, we will find Congress recognizing the Irish republic," said the Express. "We urge the need of British propaganda in America. We plead for sane consideration by American public opinion. Until Great Britain discovers what Ireland wants we will apply our Monroe Doctrine to the Irish question. It must be respected."

The Irish unionists have adopted a resolution supporting the government and deprecating the manifesto of the Irish Catholic bishops, issued from Maynooth, attacking military rule in Ireland.

Everything Ready. Announcement of the personnel of the new German delegation was conveyed to the big three this forenoon by Paul Dufassa, Secretary of the Peace Conference. The big three immediately went into session to consider details of the ceremony.

Premier Lloyd George asked President Wilson if he would object to signing the treaty on Sunday. The president has not yet replied but it is believed he may consent if it is found impossible to have the ceremony on Saturday afternoon.

UNWRITTEN LAW IS USED IN LONDON MURDER TRIAL

Cornish Miner Quickly Acquitted, for Slaying Man Who Tried to 'Ruin' Girl.

London, June 26.—The unwritten law won quick acquittal for John Nicholls, a Cornish miner, accused of the death of Captain Ernest F. W. Schiff, who was described by counsel for the defense as "one of the most profligate men in the Bohemian set in London."

Captain Schiff was a friend of the late Billie Carleton, beautiful actress, whose death under mysterious circumstances was regarded by sensational exposures regarding affairs in London's fast set.

He went on a boating trip to Carbia Bay, a little fishing town and there met Nicholls' daughter, the village beauty. Nicholls accused the handsome Londoner of attempting to lure the young girl away to "a hellish life in London." The two fought and Captain Schiff died a few days later of his injuries.

TRUMPS TRIM EAGLES. Last night on the Main street diamond the Trumps defeated the Eagles by the score of 20-4. "Woody" Waller pitched for the Trumps and had twenty one strike-outs to his credit and his brother "Tiskie" caught.

Scuttling of Ships and Burning of French Flags "May Have Very Unfortunate Effect Upon Future Operation of the Peace Treaty," Note Declares—Allies Demand Reparation—Those Responsible Will Have to Stand Trial.

GOV. REFUSES TO GRANT REPRIEVE TO MURDERERS

Erasmus and Joseph Parrett, of New Britain Will Be Hanged at Midnight Tonight.

Hartford, June 26.—The last chance to save the lives of Erasmus and Joseph Parretta, New Britain murderers who are sentenced to be hanged at midnight tonight disappeared this morning when Governor Marcus H. Holcomb refused to grant a reprieve until a special meeting of the board of pardons could be called.

A desperate eleventh hour attempt to save the doomed men was made by their counsel, Noble E. Pierce of Bristol and Michele Ricci, local consular agent for the Italian government this morning when they pleaded with the governor to intercede on the grounds of newly discovered evidence.

The governor refused to grant their request on the grounds that the board of pardons had already considered the case of the men and had refused to interfere with the sentence of the court. The Supreme Court took up the case on appeal from the Superior Court several months ago but found no error in the trial.

Demanded Reparation. The allies serve notice that they will demand reparation for these acts and will bring responsible parties to trial before military tribunals.

The allied note, which was signed by Premier Clemenceau as president of the peace conference, recalled that Germany was complaining of the treaty provisions for a fifteen year period of allied military occupation and because her admission to the League of Nations is deferred and inquired how Germany could complain against the full exercise of the allied powers when she deliberately violates her written agreements. Furthermore, the allies intimated their intention of making use of the power guarantees them under Article 429, of the peace treaty, providing for a prolongation of the period of military occupation if Germany persists in violations of her agreements.

AGED WIDOW IS KILLED BY DEADLY GAS FUMES

Police Think Death Was Accidental—Pet Cat Found Dead Beside Body.

Stamford, June 18.—Mrs. Rosalia Searles, a widow upwards of 70 years of age, was found dead in her bed at 34 Atlantic street this morning, a gas jet open in her room, having been killed by gas fumes.

During the night Mrs. Searles, who was so badly affected by catarrh as to have lost her sense of smell, had left a note under the door of a neighbor saying she was very sick and asking her to come to her room when she came home. The note was not found until this morning.

The police think the death was accidental.

ENTER—THE 15 CENT JAG WOOD ALCOHOL—MILK

Cheap Drunk Has Nearly Killed 40 Men in Last Two Months in Boston.

Boston, June 26.—With the near approach of national prohibition the "15 cent jag" has made its appearance. It is produced by a mixture of wood alcohol and milk. It has nearly killed 40 men in Boston during the past two months. District Attorney Pelletier of Suffolk County told all about it today when he appeared before the legislative committee on legal affairs in support of his bill to place all dealers in wood alcohol and denatured alcohol under police license with power of revocation if any of these substances are sold for drinking purposes.

BALTIMORE FIRE. Baltimore, June 26.—A serious fire broke out today in the center of Baltimore's lumber district. Every available piece of fire apparatus in the city has been rushed to the scene.

Paris, June 26.—A sharp note of warning that a repetition of such violations of the armistice terms as the scuttling of the German fleet and the burning of the French flags in Berlin "must have a very unfortunate effect upon the future operation of the peace treaty," has been dispatched by the allies to the German government, it was officially announced today.

Demanded Reparation. The allies serve notice that they will demand reparation for these acts and will bring responsible parties to trial before military tribunals.

The allied note, which was signed by Premier Clemenceau as president of the peace conference, recalled that Germany was complaining of the treaty provisions for a fifteen year period of allied military occupation and because her admission to the League of Nations is deferred and inquired how Germany could complain against the full exercise of the allied powers when she deliberately violates her written agreements.

Furthermore, the allies intimated their intention of making use of the power guarantees them under Article 429, of the peace treaty, providing for a prolongation of the period of military occupation if Germany persists in violations of her agreements.

The Sinking of Warships. The note sent by the allies last night recalled the fact that under the terms of the armistice the German ships were interned with German care and maintenance parties aboard. The contention of the German admiral, von Reuter, that the sinking of the ships at Scapa Flow was not a violation of the armistice because he believed the armistice expired at noon June 21, was rejected, the allies pointing out that the armistice only terminated on Germany's refusal to sign the peace treaty, or if no answer were returned by Monday night, June 23.

The destruction of the ships is therefore characterized as an act of gross bad faith, as well as a breach of the armistice and the perpetrators, under international law, became liable to trial by military tribunals. After announcing their right to demand reparation, the Allies declare: "The sinking of the German fleet is not only a violation of the armistice, but can only be regarded by the allied and associated powers as a deliberate breach in advance of the conditions of peace communicated to Germany, and now accepted by her. Furthermore, the incident is not an isolated one. The burning or permission for the burning of the French flags which Germany was to restore, constitutes another deliberate breach in advance of these same conditions."

The Warning. In consequence, the allied and associated powers declare that they take note of these signal acts of bad faith, and that when the investigations have been completed into all the circumstances they will exact the necessary reparation. It is evident that any repetition of acts like these must have their very unfortunate effect in the future operations of the peace treaty which the Germans are about to sign.

Provisions Violated. They have made complaint that admission to the League of Nations for a fifteen year period of occupation which the treaty contemplates. They have made complaint that admission to the League of Nations may be too long delayed. How can Germany put forward such claims if she encourages or permits deliberate violations of her written engagements? She cannot complain should the allies use the full powers conferred on them by the treaty, be Article 429, if she on her side, so liberally violates its provisions.

ABOUT TOWN

The Royal Neighbors took two big truck-loads of picnickers on their annual outing at Sayin Rock today. They left the Center about 7.45.

Washington Loyal Orange lodge will observe Sunday, July 6, as its annual memorial day. The members of the lodge will attend divine service in St. Mary's Episcopal cemetery, where the graves of deceased members will be decorated. They are to assemble at Orange Hall at 1.30 and all are requested to bring flowers.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the South Methodist church held its annual outing at Elizabeth park yesterday. The members left the south terminus at 9.15 and carried a basket lunch with them.

Miss Margaret Brennan of Hackmatack street and Henry Leister of Hartford Road were married in St. James' church this morning.

BELL-CHENEY.

Capt. John Thomas Bell and Mrs. Judith Calkins Cheney were married this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Knight Cheney homestead. Capt. Bell is an infantry officer in the regular army.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Friends of Miss Elizabeth Heffron gave her a birthday surprise party at her home on Pleasant street last evening. Games, dancing and music were enjoyed and refreshments were served. As a reminder of the occasion Miss Heffron was presented with a handsome blue silk umbrella.

FLORISTS BUSY.

June has been a very busy month for the Park Hill Flower Shops. Every day wedding bouquets have been made up. Not alone in this town but for Hartford, Stafford Springs, Rockville, Vernon and as far away as Baltic. The florists say that there have been more weddings this month than during any June in the history of Manchester.

KEMP-HARRIGAN.

Sámuel Kemp, salesman in Watkins Brothers' piano and Victrola department, and Miss Anna Harrigan of Waterbury were married in St. Patrick's church, Waterbury, yesterday morning in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Miss Agnes Harrigan, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and Daniel Kemp, a brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Both the bride and bridesmaid were attired in imported French gowns.

The ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast and reception at the bride's home, about 70 guests attending. During the day, Mr. and Mrs. Kemp left on a wedding trip to Old Orchard, Me., and other points of interest in northern England. On returning, they will reside in their newly furnished home which Mr. Kemp purchased recently at Main and Lilley streets.

BUT THEY MADE IT.

Eccles Family Just Got Aboard Ship For England.

According to word received from New York, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Eccles and family of this town had an exciting experience when they sailed for England, Tuesday. They were to sail on the steamship Royal George, bound for Liverpool, and arrived in New York just twenty minutes before sailing time. They secured a taxicab and raced to the pier at West 14th street.

Mr. Eccles carried a two years' old child in his arms as he ran down the pier. Mrs. Eccles followed with a five months' baby in her arms and behind them trailed a porter with the baby carriage. The baby carriage was the last thing that rolled across the gangplank before it was pulled in.

NO MORE ENLISTMENTS FOR OVERSEAS DUTY.

Washington, June 26.—Further evidence that it is the aim of the War Department to withdraw all American Forces from France as quickly as possible, was forthcoming this afternoon when the War Department announced that the enlistment of men for overseas has been discontinued.

You can never be down, and out where the Salvation Army is for they say "A man may be down but he's never out."

Perhaps you don't need the Salvation Army. Bully for you. But give a thought to the fellow who does.

The Salvation Army never asks, "What can I do for you?" It just goes ahead and does it. It is an efficient organization it knows its business.

Waterbury, June 26.—Unorganized machinists who openly protested against the 15 per cent increase given them by the manufacturers yesterday have called a meeting for tonight in building trades council hall. The machinists say that the increase is nothing compared to what the unskilled workers in the city are being offered, and at the meeting tonight they will present to the manufacturers.

Manufacturers here claimed today that more unskilled labor had returned to work but the strikers denied it. A conference was held this morning between the strikers delegates representing the Waterbury Workers' Association and delegates from the American Federation of Labor. The latter delegates want to organize the strikers but thus far no action has been taken.

The police made several more arrests today of men whose activities in the strike they are suspicious of.

IRELAND MAY REJECT PEACE TREATY TERMS DECLARES DE VALERA

Not Bound by Conditions
Drawn Up by British Delegates.

IS DELIGHTED WITH U. S.
SPEAKS IN BOSTON SOON

Will Also Make Train Platform Address in City of Providence—
Dodge Prohibition Question.

Ireland does not feel herself bound to respect the provisions of the peace treaty, according to Professor de Valera, self styled "President of Ireland", because that document is in part the work of British delegates. Mr. de Valera has sent a letter explaining this fact to M. Clemenceau. No peace pact signed by Lloyd George in the name of "Great Britain and Ireland", declares the Sinn Fein leader, can have any binding force on the latter country. The letter was dated May 17, 1919 and was signed by de Valera, Arthur Griffith and Count Plunkett.

The letter follows: "The treaties now under discussion by the conference of Paris will presumably be signed by the British plenipotentiaries claiming to act on behalf of Ireland as well as Great Britain. Therefore we ask you to call the immediate attention of the peace conference to the warning which it is our duty to communicate, that the people of Ireland, through all the organic means of declaration, has repudiated and does now repudiate the claim of the British government to speak or act on behalf of Ireland, and consequently no treaty or agreement entered into by the representatives of the British government in virtue of that claim is or can be binding on the people of Ireland.

"The Irish people will scrupulously observe any treaty obligation to which they are legitimately committed; but the British delegates cannot commit Ireland. The only signatures by which the Irish nation will be bound are those of its own delegates, deliberately chosen. "We request you to notify the peace conference that we, the undersigned, have been appointed and authorized by the duly elected government of Ireland to act on behalf of Ireland in the proceedings of the conference and to enter into agreements and sign treaties on behalf of Ireland."

Clemenceau Has Not Replied. Professor de Valera said he had not received any response from M. Clemenceau.

Last night he distributed prizes to the pupils of the Carmelite Priory, in East Twenty-ninth Street, the institution in which he found shelter when he landed in New York incoognito last week.

"I'll feel more at home with the school children", he said, "than I do here with you gentlemen of the press."

In Boston Saturday. The Sinn Fein leader is receiving reporters twice a day, once in the afternoon and once in the morning. He said yesterday that it had been arranged for him to go to Boston on Saturday to address a mass meeting at which, he had been told, a resolution was to be adopted expressing the wish that the government of the United States recognize the republic of Ireland.

At Providence, R. I., Professor de Valera is to make a speech from the rear platform of the train on which he travels to Boston.

U. S. Like Ireland. "It makes me feel as if I were back in Ireland", he said. "Holding meetings in a procession like that and seeing the interest and open-mindedness of the people here on the question of Ireland is delightful."

President de Valera was asked for his opinion of prohibition. "I don't want to interfere in any way with the internal affairs of America", he countered.

Then he was asked what he thought of prohibition for Ireland. "Well, the point is I am a great believer in personal liberty. Nobody is ever the worse for the exercise of liberty."

MISTAKES MAN FOR COW. Connellsville, Pa., June 26.—In the gathering gloom the engineer of a freight train on the Baltimore & Ohio saw what he thought was a cow on the track some distance ahead. ANOTHER FIGHT STORY BY NOTED N. Y. WRITER

T. A. D. Describes How Willard Looks to Him Before Big Bout.

HARD TO PICK WINNER

(By T.A.D.) Toledo, O., June 26.—The fellow who picks the winner of the big fight correctly is just a good guesser and don't let any one tell you he isn't. He knows right now that his pick is only a hope. It's just like tossing a coin. Sport writers who have followed the boxing game for years come here and for the life of them they can't figure this thing out.

Of course there are fellows who dropped in with their minds fixed and won't change. They're like the democrats who are democrats because their fathers were.

Hard to Pick Winner. It is probably the toughest fight to pick that was ever staged. On one side you have a champion, a big, good-natured Hercules. He beat the greatest fighter that ever lived. Some say that this fight was a fake. Others argue that it was on the square. Be that as it may, as George Monroe used to say, Willard won.

Willard a Big Man. Willard is big. He is so big that he actually frightens you. Gee, he's big.

Every time you see him he seems to be bigger. In the hotel here, in the morning, you often see a six-footer strutting around like a peacock. He looks like a giant strolling among bell boys, cigar girls and cake eaters.

Soon through the front door looms a large form. The swelled up guy seems to shrink. He looks like a runt and he wears a silly smile. The huge form is Willard. The only things in the Hotel Secor that make him look small at all are the giant pillars in the lobby. Are you Jerry to the size of this stripling who stands six feet seven? That's one side of the story.

The Other Side. On the other hand we have a black-haired Irishman who knows nothing but fight, a big Terry McGovern who has knocked out every thing in the heavyweight class; a terror who knocked out Fred Fulton and Carl Morris, both of the Willard build. No one knows how he does it. He just socks 'em. They are all too big for him until he hits them. He stands over six feet tall and weighs 200 pounds. He is young—his opponent quite past the age of a successful pugilist.

Dempsey All Thrills. Dempsey is all thrills. His opponent has seen it all. He is quite blasé. We go to their camps every day. One day Willard is slow; the next day he appears fast. But he is always big.

Two New York sporting writers arrived today. Both were Willard boosters. One saw Willard today and changed his mind. The other, an old timer, looked at Willard and smiled contentedly. He looked in at the Dempsey show later, and saw

Dempsey drop two with his left. He left him. He was disgusted. He said: "I've seen circuses before, gentlemen!"

That's the way it goes. If the scribes here are not all daffy before July 4, the writer will be there all alone.

PUBLIC OPINION WINS.

The League of Nations is a deep rooted aspiration of the plain people of this country; it is their hope; it is the most practical expression of that spirit of idealism which is native in the hearts of all of us; it is the path which the common American men and women see leading toward peace and justice, toward honor and fair play.

We shall hastily review the dismal list of these fruitless efforts to hamstring the league. First came Borah with his sensational charge that the treaty was secretly in the hands of financial "interests" in New York and that they were in collusion with the peace commission at Versailles.

Next came Senator Knox with his proposition to rip the heart out of the treaty by separating it from the League of Nations idea. Bolstered by lengthy speeches and violent declarations on the floor of the Senate this scheme for a time appeared to seriously threaten the great labors of the Allied statesmen.

Senator Reed of Missouri followed with a speech reeking with make-believe terror. He declared that the league would be controlled by members of the black and yellow races and shook the very rafters of the Capitol with his denunciation of the covenant. And hardly had the echoes died when Senator Sherman rose to his feet and condemned the league as a scheme hatched by the Roman Catholic Church to get itself back into temporal power.

Falling to create the desired effect by shrieking of the yellow peril or trying to picture the Pope as a worldly prince craftily seeking to meddle in the political affairs of the nations, the league opponents next advanced Senator Fall with a ridiculous proposition to have the Senate declare peace without regard to the treaty just concluded at Versailles and then go ahead and make separate terms with the Germans.

Ex-Senator Root's statement on the league contains some helpful suggestions and differs by just so much from other efforts to undo the work of the peace conference. But at present none of the Senators seem to be springing from their seats to lead another attack against the League of Nations, even under the banner of Elihu Root. We have always heard that the burnt child dreads the fire.

CHAUTAQUA TICKETS GO ON SALE AT ONCE

May Be Obtained from Robert J. Smith or Any of His Canvassers—Over $600 Worth Already Subscribed For.

The Chautauqua entertainers will be in Manchester this year for the week beginning July 7 with the usual varied program of high grade talent. There will be lectures, concerts, a drama and a light opera. The sale of tickets this year has been placed in the hands of Robert J. Smith, who will district the town and vicinity and will be assisted by a large corps of canvassers. More than $600 worth of tickets for this year were subscribed for at the close of last year's Chautauqua, and the growing enthusiasm over the Chautauqua program, year by year, indicates that the sale this year will be larger than ever.

The eastern Connecticut circuit has been firmly established and this year Chautauqua will be welcomed in New London, Norwich, Willimantic, Rockville and Manchester. In each of these places prominent citizens, most of them busy men, have backed the enterprise and have assumed the local management. The performance will be given here in a large tent located on the Main street baseball lot. Handsome illustrated programs will be distributed by the ticket sellers.

AWARD K. OF C. LEADER TWO HONORARY DEGREES

William J. Mulligan Made Doctor of Laws by Fordham and Holy Cross.

A singular honor was paid to Chairman William J. Mulligan of the Knights of Columbus on War Activities when two famous schools, one a university and the other a college, bestowed the degree of Doctor of Laws upon him in recognition of his services in the war work of the Knights of Columbus.

Fordham University of New York City and Holy Cross College of Worcester, Mass., awarded this honor to Mr. Mulligan and, through him, to the Knights of Columbus. Mr. Mulligan, being overseas, the degrees, in each case, were conferred in absentia. The Fordham exercises took place last week and the Holy Cross commencement exercises on the morning of June 25.

Chairman Mulligan some weeks ago celebrated his first anniversary as head of the K. of C. war work committee. He is now in France supervising the final work for the A. E. F. and intensifying K-C activities for the Army of Occupation. James A. Flaherty of Philadelphia, Supreme Knight of the Knights of Columbus, has been honored by Georgetown University of Washington, D. C. At its commencement last week Georgetown awarded the degree LL. D. to Mr. Flaherty in recognition of his services to the nation in peace and war as head of the largest Catholic fraternal society in America.

UNCLE TOM SHOW NEARLY "BUSTED" UP BY NAVY.

Sajna, Kan., June 26.—Uncle Sam's Naval recruiting officer here almost disrupted an Uncle Tom's Cabin show when more than half of the male members of the troupe made a rush to get into the navy. Only two were able to make it—the cook and the clown. The others were unable to show their ages were within the navy limits, or their physical condition precluded their acceptance. Had the others made the "riffle" the show would have had to lay over here until new players could be secured.

TRIES TO "DOUSE" HIS PAG, BUT FIRE STARTS IN HAT.

Topeka, Kan., June 26.—Miss Lorraine E. Wooster, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, who has begun war on smoking among public school men of Kansas, met another State officer in the State House the other day. He had read Miss Wooster's ideas about tobacco and State affairs, had the others made the "riffle" the show would have had to lay over here until new players could be secured.

The fire was caused by a hidden cigarette in the lining of his hat. Don't forget that flowers are the final touch for the "Sweet Girl Graduate". A wonderful assortment of roses, sweet peas and carnations; in fact all cut flowers, at the Park Hill Flower Shops.—adv.

Nations Outside the League May Appeal to it as Court of Justice

On this page The Herald is printing a series of letters touching every angle of the plan for a League of Nations proposed by the Paris Covenant, now awaiting ratification by the United States Senate. In accordance with the authors' wishes the individual letters are not identified with any one writer.

They are written by: William H. Taft, Ex-President of the United States; George W. Wickersham, formerly U. S. States Attorney General; A. Lawrence Lowell, President of Harvard University; Henry W. Taft, of the New York Bar.

The object of the League is to prevent war, not only among its members, but also by, against or between nations outside of the Covenant; and Article XVII is aimed at such cases. The outside nation engaged in a dispute, even if of a character that threatens war, is not treated as an outlaw, but is offered for the purpose of the dispute the benefits as well as the obligations of membership in the League. If it accepts the invitation it obtains the same protection as a member from attack by its adversary whether within or without the League; and if there is a voluntary submission to arbitration it has the same right as a member to demand that the award be carried out. This is certainly treating the outsider fairly.

On the other hand the outsider, whether it accepts the invitation or not, is restrained from attacking a member by the same penalties that would be applied to a signer of the Covenant. In other words the members agree to help one another against attacks from outside as well as against those from one of their own number. They could hardly do less.

When the controversy is between two outsiders both are invited to join the League for the purpose of the dispute, and, if either of them accept, the position is exactly that of a member of the League.

Reconsideration of Treaties. Article XIX, which authorizes the Assembly to advise the reconsideration of treaties that have become inapplicable and the consideration of international conditions endangering the peace of the world, needs no explanation. It gives power merely to discuss and suggest, and is part of the Assembly's general function of debating international relations, especially such as may threaten war.

Article XX, providing for the abrogation of all obligations between members of the League inconsistent with the Covenant, and forbidding any such hereafter, is merely an express declaration of what would be otherwise implied. Clearly if a nation enters into this Covenant—which is a treaty—it agrees not to do anything incompatible therewith, and a fortiori not to agree to do something inconsistent therewith. The further agreement to seek release from any prior inconsistent treaty with a non-member is what any honorable nation would do.

Restraint on Influences. This method of preventing war with or among non-members is both fair and ingenious. They are subjected to the penalties and are offered the benefits of membership, except that a temporary membership gives no consultative voice in the general management of the League.

CITY DADS DOWN ON POOL. Eldorado, Kan., June 26.—Pool table rental will thrive in this city if the city dads can help it. At least, that is what pool hall men say, and they base their statements on the new city ordinance which just went into effect. The pool halls pay a license of $100 a month tax for six tables only. If they have more than six tables it is $10 more per month for each table.

Furthermore, nothing else can be sold in the room but tobacco and cigars. Soft drinks, etc., are banned.

HERE'S CHANCE FOR DOG TO DESTROY FLOWER BED. Topeka, Kan., June 26.—"Want-ed: a dog who will test his constitutional rights to tear up flower beds in the State House grounds. Apply to Kate and Kilmaurs Kling humane agents."

This ad should bring a response, as the humane agents have announced a test case upon the orders of E. McDougal, custodian of the grounds, that he will shoot the first dog he finds tearing up his nice new flower beds. As county and State officials refused to interfere with the orders of the custodian, the humane agents announced they would prosecute McDougal.

AUSTRALIA SPENT NEARLY BILLION AND HALF ON WAR. London, June 26.—Of all the British dominions, Australia spent the most on the world war, the war debt of that country being $1,550,000,000. Canada spent almost as much, $1,275,000,000 while other self-governing dominions' war expenditures were as follows: New Zealand, $378,750,000. South Africa, $114,785,000. Newfoundland, $9,490,000. This makes a total of $2,233,025,000, or less than one-twelfth what the motherland spent.

JESS WILLARD IS SOFT IS LATEST FIGHT DOPE

NEEDS MUCH TRAINING

Experts Say He is Too Fat and Too Slow to Last Before Dempsey's Attacks.

Toledo, Ohio, June 26.—Legions of Willard shouters arriving in this community, trek out to see their idol, watch him from every conceivable angle in his workouts—and then they come away shaking their heads rather dejectedly and shouting no more. It's all because of the great fear that the King of Pugilists may not be able to get into real condition for the slashing, bruising battle which the cyclonic Jack Dempsey is sure to wage.

Willard Laughs. Willard laughs at these fears. And so does every man in his camp. It is their belief that Willard will be in tip-top form when he steps into the ring July 4. They can't figure it any other way. Every man who has worked out with the giant claims that he is not soft and does not weary easily, as some persons claim. They assert in unmistakable terms, that Willard today needs just about another week to fit him for an overwhelming victory over Dempsey.

But those enthusiasts who want Willard to win—want to bet the family bank roll on him—are skeptical. They realize that in the past week, during which Willard actually has trained strenuously and faithfully, a vast improvement has come about. But they feel that the remaining week is too short a time to regenerate the endurance that will be a vital need when confronted by the furiously aggressive and the gloriously youthful Dempsey.

Not Sure of Jess. A vast number of folks here who came along figuring Willard was "a sure thing" reckon this way now: "Unless Willard can accomplish the miracle in the next week of hardening his body inside and out and whipping his muscles back into control and power his hope for the championship simmers down to a chance wallop to Dempsey's jaw or to his amidship section."

Tex O'Rourke who trained Willard for his Havana battle was somewhat startled by Willard's appearance and this is the gist of what he said: "Willard is slow and fat, lacks timing of his blows and seems to tire easily. I don't think he can get into real condition by July 4 to stand a terrific pace. Expert's Opinion. George Engle, who trains Benny Leonard, is a wonderful judge of fighters' conditions, and was a Willard enthusiast, claims that Willard appears to him as slower and bulkier than even some of the champion's critics had pictured. Tom Jones piloted Willard into a world's championship after picking up Willard when he was little more than a novice and a joke battler. If any man is competent to judge of Willard's condition, it is Jones. This is the opinion of Jones: "He isn't the Jess Willard of Havana, not by any means. He's fatter and much slower. However, I am hopeful that by fight day he will be in shape. I've already bet a bunch of kale on him. Must Speed Up. Tom Andrews, Milwaukee promoter, saw Willard, and as a student of fighting form who has seen Willard in training for all his important battles, said: "Right now he is a fat ring man, old and slow in comparison with his Havana form. I thought before I came here he couldn't lose. But now he certainly does not appear like an unbeatable champion. If he doesn't speed up in his training he will go into the ring far below necessary form. Folks who have no real choice in the fight who yearn only for a slam bang, thrilling contest—really view Willard's present lack of fighting condition rather cheerfully. An Even Break. Many have believed all along that Willard is too big and too rugged for Dempsey and that the fight would be too one sided to be entertaining. Now they are perking up because they figure that if Willard lacks perfect form it will just about offset his natural advantages and make all things about fifty-fifty when the two gladiators enter the ring. Willard's Plans. Willard planned to whirl through the last week training at a hurricane clip. All of his energies will be bent towards strengthening his resistance power and speeding his attack—a wise course. Willard's foot work, despite great improvement shown during the past week, is still slovenly; his timing is better but far from what it needs to be. And Jess Willard, powerful though he is and wonderfully muscled, seems to tire when the battling with his partners grows a bit furious. And a soft muscled champion never yet won a fight unless he was lucky enough to drive home a chance wallop early in the fray. SQUIRREL LOSES FUR. Greenfield, Ia., June 24.—A pet squirrel on Prairie avenue here was divested of its coat of fur during an electrical storm, yet it escaped alive. The squirrel was climbing a tree when the tree was struck by lightning. It has been noticed by residents, who are placing food for it in its haunts.

ARMY UNIFORM BARRED IN INDIANA REFORMATORY.

New Albany, Ind., June 26.—Olliver G. Grantham, a discharged soldier, was not permitted to enter the Indiana Reformatory at Jeffersonville in the uniform of the United States. Grantham was given an indeterminate sentence after pleading guilty to stealing a $1,000 Liberty Bond from his wife and converting it to his own use. After imposing sentence Judge John M. Paris inquired whether Grantham had any clothing other than the uniform he was wearing. Grantham said he had not and the Sheriff was directed to buy a cheap suit of clothing for him. Grantham then went to the reformatory.

CHIN DOGS PRICELESS BECAUSE OF UGLINESS.

San Francisco, Cal., June 26.—Priceless on account of their homeliness, their worth enhanced by the fact that they are walleys and stub nosed and chinless, two little Japanese chin dogs arrived in San Francisco on the liner Tenyo Maru. They were brought here by Mrs. M. P. Wylie, of Los Angeles. Omi is declared by Mrs. Wylie to be an absolutely perfect specimen of the chin dog. He is black and white and his eyes are walled and his nose is very stubbed and he is very jealous of attentions shown Yasha, his mate, who is white and tan and very well-eyed and very shag nosed and very jealous of attention shown Omi.

DISREGARDS DAD'S VIEW OF MARRIAGE—DIVORCE.

San Francisco, Cal., June 26.—"Son, never get married. Never do yourself a skit." This remark was made by William G. Kuhlmeier to his son, Norman, 18, testified Mrs. Myrtle E. Kuhlmeier, before Superior Judge Thomas F. Graham. On the strength of the remark the woman was given a divorce.

ABNORMAL WHEAT CROP.

Stockton, Cal., June 26.—That California will produce between 11,500,000 and 12,500,000 bushels of wheat this year is the estimate compiled by the agricultural department of the Sperry company here. Harvesting is now well under way and a good crop is assured in the Northern San Joaquin Valley. It is stated that the crop this year will be the largest in the last twenty years.

AERIAL MAIL SUCCESS.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 26.—The first month of operation of the aerial mail service between Cleveland and Chicago has been completed without a break. A total of 780,000 pieces of mail were carried. Fifteen planes are available for the service and seven pilots employed. The average speed between the two cities was 101 miles an hour and the record flight was made in two hours and forty-four minutes.

FINE WHEAT IN KANSAS.

Salina, Kan., June 26.—Samples of wheat five feet tall, with heads six inches in length, were brought into Salina by farmers to show the heavy growth of wheat. The strain is heavy and rank, but in most cases is in first-class condition. The harvest in this part of the State will not be in full progress in the latter part of next month.

TAGGING THE BASES

The Yankees make hay while the Sox and Indians are doing a fifty-fifty skit. Hug's wallopers made it three straight over the Mackmen, defeating Scott Perry with ease.
Sam Vick had a great afternoon, scribbling two of the Yank's runs and making three hits.

There was an argument at Cincinnati yesterday which ended: Jim Vaughn 3; Reds, 1. Vaughn was in his best form and the Reds were subdued.
Eddie Collins, Joe Jackson and Ray Schalk collected seven of 11 hits made off Morton, Enzmann and Phillips, of the Indians. Chicago won easily.
Olson, Johnson, Griffith, Wheat and Myers manned the heavy battery at Brooklyn and bombarded the Giants to a queen's taste. Four New York pitchers failed to stop them.
Sam Jones had the better of Wall in one half of a double headed contest at Boston, but the Senators managed to take the other half by free hitting.

Thanks to a homer by Luderus with two runners on base in the eighth inning of the second game the Phillies got an even break with the Braves in Quakerstown.

GOODBY, WOMEN'S TROUBLES

The tortures and discomforts of weak, lame and aching back, swollen feet and limbs, weakness, dizziness, nausea, as a rule have their origin in kidney trouble, not "female complaints." These general symptoms of kidney and bladder disease are well known—so is the remedy.
Next time you feel a twinge of pain in the back or are troubled with headache, indigestion, insomnia, irritation in the bladder or pain in the loins and lower abdomen, you will find quick and sure relief in GOLD MEDAL Hairton Oil Capsules. This old and tried remedy for kidney trouble and allied derangements has stood the test for hundreds of years. It does the work. Pains and troubles vanish and new life and health will come as you continue their use. When completely restored to your usual vigor, continue taking a capsule or two each day.
GOLD MEDAL Hairton Oil Capsules are imported from the laboratories at Elberfeld, Holland. Do not accept a substitute. In sealed boxes, three sizes.

Reasons Why Men Get Drunk Given by Probation Officer Who Studied the Problem for Years

Somerville, Mass., June 26.—Twenty-six reasons, answering the eternal question: "Why do men get drunk?" have been promulgated by William Preble Jones, probation officer of the Somerville Police Court, who has studied the problem intimately for many years. Here are the underlying reasons:

1. They want liquor and they will have it. But it is an acquired taste. After taking the first drink of whiskey in his life nobody ever hankered for the second, although he learned afterward to like it.
2. They need their beer or ale to relieve thirst, so they say. Very often this is true.
3. The doctor ordered whiskey for them once upon a time, and that prescription lasts forever and for all things. Whether it is chills or toothache, cramps or pain, stomach-ache—as some men tell the judge—flu or rupture, or "pleurisy" way down in their abdomen, whiskey is their panacea.
4. Financial troubles of every name and description.
5. Family rows. Husband is jealous, generally without cause. Wife buys too many things on the installment plan. Perhaps there is a star boarder. The daughter's gentleman callers are objectionable to the old man. His filthy talk and vile accusations, absolutely inseparable from the booze habit, break up the family life and lead to more drink on his part.
6. Bad weather. Too hot, too cold, too stormy, etc.
7. Death in the household a very frequent cause of drink.
8. Wife is going to have a baby. The poor husband loses his nerve just when his assistance is most needed and the patrol wagon lugs him off to the police station.
9. Disappointed in love. After his best girl jilted him Charlie squared things up with her by getting drunk.
10. Religious disagreements.

11. Too many convivial companions. Drinking then may be classed among the contagious diseases.
12. Celebrating a holiday, a birthday or the like.
13. Because he went to a funeral, a wedding or a christening.
14. Fear of ridicule and the jeers of friends.
15. Fear of arrest or a summons to appear in court.
16. Fear of an impending operation or a tooth extraction.
17. A desire to be smart, tough or the real thing.
18. Because a stranger offered him the liquor.
19. Because of unusual hardships and other disagreeable features connected with their job. Herein lies every imaginable excuse.
20. To stimulate an appetite. "I can't eat anything unless I have a ball first," or "I can't eat fried stuff."
21. To encourage sleep.
22. To brace up his courage generally or to forget his sorrows.
23. Many men, such as teamsters or ice men, deliver goods at the saloon or are constantly driving by the door, so that the temptation is always with them.
24. Because the saloon is a social center and a very convenient one at that. He must be a mighty cheap sport who won't support the institution which he frequents.
25. The saloon is a convenient banking institution for borrowing money or cashing checks. The favored person, of course, returns the kindness by buying a few drinks.
26. For countless thousands of men the saloon is the public comfort station, providing the only available toilet accommodations during business hours and open until 11 o'clock at night. This is one of the chief causes of drinking and is a feature of the problem that most of the temperance and prohibition people fail to consider.

LORD LONG SAYS ENGLISH COULD NOT STOP SINKING

Allies Agreed on Policy of Internment Instead of Surrender, He Declares.

London, June 25.—Speaking before an assembly at the Hotel Carlton, Walter Hume Long, first lord of the Admiralty today denied that the Admiralty was responsible for the scuttling of the German fleet off Scapa Flow. "If the Germans meant to do it, we couldn't prevent it," he said. "The Allies were determined on a policy of internment instead of surrender. But we need not trouble ourselves with the matter. Premier Lloyd George will deal with it at Paris."
The first lord defended Admiral Weymss against his critics. The German crews of the scuttled ships at Scapa arrived at Oswestry, in England today under guard of British soldiers. They were hooted by a crowd of women. Admiral von Reuter, who commanded the German fleet, is under close arrest.

FOCH NOT COMING.

Washington Officials Deny That Marshal Will Visit U. S.

Washington, June 25.—Reports that Marshal Foch would sail on the George Washington and with President Wilson review an Independence Day parade in Washington were discounted in official circles, here today. If the supreme commander of the allied military forces planned to visit America, officials believed, the fact would be definitely known by this time, so that a welcome befitting so distinguished a visitor might be arranged. It was expressed also that the President would not be home to review the Fourth of July parade. It was generally believed the George Washington would not dock before July 5.

SERGEANT TO 'GET EVEN'; HAS MAJOR UNDER HIM.

Topeka, Kan., June 26.—The oft repeated "wish" of many soldiers that they might have one of their former officers—or in many cases just an army officer—under their direction is realized here by Sergeant Bob McGiffert.
While the sergeant was overseas he was elected a city commissioner. He is on the job now. He has under him, and subject to his direct supervision, Major Earl Brown as Health Commissioner. The two, however, did not serve in the same unit and so far everything has proceeded satisfactorily.

COBB GETS DEGREE.

Hanover, N. H., June 25.—Irvin S. Cobb, author and George Washington Goethals, who engineered the digging of the Panama Canal were among the notables awarded honorary degrees by Dartmouth College today. The degrees awarded follow:
John Henry Bartlett, '94, Governor of New Hampshire, master of arts; George Levickibb, Manchester, editor, Master of Arts, William Palmer, '91, dean of Berkeley Divinity School, of Middletown, Conn., Doctor of Divinity; Raymond Pearl, '99, Doctor of Biology, at Johns-Hopkins University, Doctor of Science; Irvin Shrewsbury Cobb, Doctor of Laws, and George Washington Goethals, Doctor of Laws.

STRIKERS GO BACK.

Ansonia, June 25.—About 1,700 hands of the American Brass company shops here who have been on strike or forced out of work by the strike, are back at work today. This is an increase of about 500 over yesterday and is about half the regular force of employees.
The police are holding Harry Borash, who was arrested last night for the federal authorities, his bonds having been increased to $5,000. It is alleged that literature and other papers found on his person may be sufficient to apply for his deportation.

MOTHER AND TWINS SLEPT IN STABLE NEAR HORSES.

Somerville, Mass., June 26.—Twin baby girls, little more than a year old, with their mother, Mrs. May Marahan, twenty-five, were discovered living in a barn. There were three horses in the barn.
Police investigation disclosed that Mrs. Marahan was employed by Eldridge Tilton, seventy-two, a teamster, as housekeeper. Tilton has occupied the barn as a home since his house was burned a month ago.
When discovered by the police the children were asleep in a bed near the stalls occupied by the horses. Mrs. Marahan was cooking over an oil stove.
The children were placed in the care of Richard K. Godwin, agent for the State Board of Charities.

THEY BELIEVED IN SIGNS.

Atlanta, Ga., June 26.—Tiring of the inattention paid to the "keep off the grass" signs around the capitol grounds, the caretaker, after trying wire fencing, put up this sign where pedestrians had worn a path through the grass: "This path is for hogs." Travel over the grassy path has ceased.

Circle Theater

Local fans raved about "The Whip," "The Bar Sinister," "The Nigger" and all those mammoth thrillers but tonight's big feature at the Circle has them all stopped for thrills and size. It is called "When a Woman Strikes", a western melodrama that has action from the start to finish.
Telling of the story or the plot would spoil your enjoyment for to really enjoy this feature one must see the plot unfold from the very start. There are many surprising twists in it that will keep you mystified to find out how it all is to end. With all the big scenes and all the real western situations, a simple little love story runs through the thousands of feet as the reels are unrolled.
It is a play for the whole family, clean and wholesome, one that will take you to the great outdoors and show you primitive passion among the Greasers and cowboys of the borderlands.
You must see "When a Woman Strikes" just so you can say that you saw the biggest thriller ever brought to Manchester.
And here's good news, fans. On Monday and Tuesday of next week, the famous Lee Kids will be at the Circle in their latest and best picture "Smiles". You better make your dates now so that you will be able to see these Baby Grands of Screenland.

Park Theater

"What Every Woman Wants" is the alluring and curiosity provoking title of the Jesse D. Hampton production starring Miss Grace Darmond, released through Exhibitors Mutual which will be the feature at the Park tonight.
Gloria Graham (played by Miss

Darmond), secretary to a wealthy bachelor and in love with Phil Belden, a poor clerk, thought she knew what every woman wants, but it took many heart-aches for her to learn that "what every woman wants" and "what every woman needs" to make her happy are sometimes distinctly opposed.
How many girls in the position of Gloria, with the alternative of love in a four-room flat with the man she loves, or luxury in a mansion, with every material desire satisfied, with a man she does not love, decide rightly and really find "what every woman wants?"
The way of a married man who goes back to the woman of the world—of easy virtue—when he finds that love does not exist at home, and the tragic denouement when the wife discovers her husband is making her the subject of ridicule by an adventuress, is exposed in this startling drama.
When the wife's lover is found in her bedroom after the murder of her husband suspicion is cast upon the wife, and she is charged with the murder.
The drama ends with the trial of Gloria and the confession of the real murderer, which develops into a thrilling climax.
That thrilling serial "The Silent Mystery" will be on the same bill as well as a Ford Weekly. This weekly takes one on a trip to all the big cities of the United States and has many admirers in this town. It is better than a personal trip as you can see the cities seated in a nice, cool theater and it costs no railroad fare and you don't have to pay a guide.
Tomorrow "O Johnny" will be the feature.
Just as sweet as the Girl Graduate are the roses, carnations, sweet peas at the Park Hill Flower Shop.

SIoux INDIAN CODE ON TELEPHONE FOOLED HUNS.

Decatur, Ill., June 26.—There was one code Fritz never got onto in France. That was the Sioux. Private John Leas, just back from France, tells of it.
"A good many German spies got over into the allied line," said Leas, who was in charge of a communicating battery, "and there was some tapping of lines and listening in by German agents who understood English perfectly. We got around this in a clever way. We put Sioux Indians on the telephones to send and receive orders.
"Ump, glum, hoosha, moo, chunk" an Indian would repeat over the telephone, meaning bring up a battery of 75's.
"Og, gog, pom, hegan, cahoo, rakok," would come the ready answer, which might mean they're starting; will be there in five minutes.
"I don't know how much of a technical war vocabulary those Sioux had, but Fritz never got wise to the lingo."

RIOTS IN TORONTO.

Toronto, June 25.—Rioting broke out in the car strike here early today. A big crowd tried to rush the car barns where a number of strike breakers are housed. The men inside turned the hose on the crowd. During the melee Police Inspector Reeves was struck on the head by a brick. Two men were arrested on charges of rioting.

ASKED TO ENTERTAIN NEW YORK WAIFS

Tribune Fresh Air Fund Will Bring Them Here if Homes Will Take Them in for Two Weeks.

Last year during the month of July, nearly 100 poor children from the slums of New York were entertained in the homes of Manchester and vicinity for two weeks. They were sent here by the Tribune Fresh Air Fund. The arrival of the motley throng of poorly dressed and undernourished children at the Manchester station will be well remembered by those who saw it and whose hearts were touched by their pitiful poverty.

Yesterday Mr. I. A. Marsland was in town, representing the Tribune Fresh Air Fund, and wanted to make arrangements for the entertainment of another body of children here this summer. The date tentatively chosen for their arrival is July 15 and for their departure the 29th or 30th. This would be after the termination of Chautauqua week and before the first of August when many go away for vacations.

E. S. Ela of the Evening Herald, who was chairman of the local committee last year, would like to hear from any who would be willing to take one or two children for two weeks this year. Some have already indicated their wish to have the same children they had last year and in most cases this can be arranged.

WILL MANCHESTER FAIL FOR THE FIRST TIME IN HISTORY OF WAR WORK?

Salvation Army Fund Still Below Quota—Time Almost Up.

COMMITTEE CONFIDENT TOP WILL BE REACHED

Feel Sure Last Days' Pledges Will Preserve Town's Record for 100 Per Cent Accomplishment.

The Salvation Army drive will end at midnight tonight, and unless the contributions make a decided spurt Manchester will have failed to realize its quota. This would be Manchester's first failure to put a drive over the top. The committee is still optimistic as there are many factories and business men, as well as many citizens, from whom they expect contributions before midnight, or in tomorrow's mail.

The above amounts have been added to the Salvation Army drive fund: If this drive fails, it will be a source of keen disappointment to the many friends of the Salvation Army. On account of the wholehearted and self-sacrificing work of this Army among our boys in France, it was expected that there would be an exceptionally liberal response to the appeal for Home Service funds, so that work of the same character might still be carried on with the same spirit.

Most Popular in France. Mr. Raymond D. Fosdick, Chairman of the Commission on Training Camp Activities, War Department, in a report to the Secretary of War on the activities of welfare organizations serving with the A. E. F. says: "The Salvation Army is easily the most popular of the six organizations in France". Later in his report he says, "Its personnel has been carefully selected from trained workers in the Salvation Army—men and women who knew how to meet their fellow men on a common plane—and no task has been too humble, and no service too small, for them to perform for the troops. Those who have not yet contributed to this most worthy cause, are urged to send their contributions in as early as possible. It is not yet too late to go over the top. Manchester, that has never yet failed to nobly meet every call upon it during the recent war, must not fail now."

PLAYGROUND PROMISED FOR EIGHTH DISTRICT

J. T. Robertson Offers Free Use of Land if District Will Equip and Care for It.

Through the efforts of Miss Moore, the Eighth district school nurse, the children of the district have the possibility of a well equipped playground ahead of them. J. T. Robertson has offered to the district the large tract of land at the corner of North Main Oakland streets, which extends back along the brook to the school grounds. He will put the ground in good condition for a playground if the district will equip it.

The South End has two public playgrounds, well equipped with apparatus and directed during the summer months by trained caretakers and instructors. These plants are considered a part of the educational outfit of the district and are supported by Ninth district funds. Some of the heaviest tax payers of the North End have expressed themselves in favor of similar action on the part of the Eighth district.

The proposed playground adjoins the premises of the district school and can also be approached from Oakland street. The brook which runs through the tract has in the past been more or less polluted by sewage, but through the efforts of the Board of Health this condition will soon be improved. It is probable that a special meeting of the voters of the district will soon be called for the purpose of making an appropriation for the equipment and maintenance of the new playground.

RETURNS FROM AUTO RIDE TO FIND PARTY WAITING

When Miss Maud E. Russell of High street, who is soon to wed Herman C. Hill, was invited last evening by a friend to take a short auto ride, she accepted not knowing what was in store for her.

When she returned her home was in darkness. She walked into the front room, the lights flashed on and she was surrounded by about sixty of her friends who had prepared a miscellaneous shower in her absence. The home had been transformed into a fairy's bower. Hidden behind palms, an orchestra played. Piled high on tables were all sorts of gifts, enough to stock a kitchen in a modern home. In the kitchen and dining room all sorts of refreshments had been brought by the guests and soon the merrymaking was on in full swing.

Elizabeth Fay arranged the party. There was dancing in the home and on the lawn. Instrumental solos were rendered by Leo Schendel and Charles Bissell and vocal solos by Mrs. Arthur Laschinski. Among the guests were many from out of town who know either the prospective bride or the groom.

GOES OUT TO MAIL $5 BUT FAILS TO RETURN

Woman Gets Loan From Mrs. Christine Carlson After Having Received Free Meals and Room.

A Norwegian woman whose name probably is fictitious, induced Mrs. Christine Carlson, of Galway street to let her have five dollars a few days ago to send away in a letter. That was on Monday and the woman has not appeared since.

Last Saturday the woman called on Mrs. Carlson. She told her that she was looking for a rent and that she came from Hartford. Mrs. Carlson gave her her meals and even bought extra bedding so that she might have a more comfortable place to sleep. The stranger said that she was rich, owned an auto and a piano and had expensive furniture but just now was a bit short of ready money.

On Monday, after staying at the Carlson home several days, the woman said she needed ten dollars to send to her sister. She borrowed five dollars from Mrs. Carlson and then went out ostensibly to mail the money. She never came back.

WEAVING MILL WINS; MACHINE SHOP PEEVED

Feel That They Were Really Playing Athletics in Last Night's Game.

The Machine Shop baseball team was defeated last night in a hotly contested ball game on the Pleasant street grounds. The Weaving Mill manager was a little scared about the result of the game so he went to the Carpenter Shop to pick one of the best ball players in town which gave them the Athletics infield. Some gang to put up against a bunch of old men and cripples from the Machine Shop. Clarence Smith and Karl Johnson two Machine Shop regulars were out of the game owing to sickness. Cotter pitched a fine game having 12 strike-outs against Brennan's 8. Cotter walked 3 men, Brennan walked one, each team collecting 5 hits. Wild throws and errors losing the game for the Machine Shop.

The Machine Shop team is looking forward to a Sunday game with the Athletics having made such a good showing against them last night.

GIVES GOLF CLUB HOUSE TO TROOP 3, BOY SCOUTS

J. P. Cheney Grants Boys Use of Building, Tennis Courts and Baseball Diamond.

J. P. Cheney has given Troop 3, Boy Scouts of America, the privilege of making their headquarters at the old golf club house, formerly occupied by the Orford Tennis club. The boys also have the use of the tennis courts and the baseball diamond in the hollow north of the clubhouse. The Scouts greatly appreciate this kindness of Mr. Cheney and are replacing broken windows and fixing the place up in general. In the fall, they will hold their regular meetings there.
