COL. T. R. A. CANDIDATE To Run For Assembly on the Republican Ticket.

Mineola, July 2.—Lieut. Col. Theodore Roosevelt, of Oyster Bay, has agreed to be a candidate for the Republican nomination for assemblyman from the second district of Nassau County, it was announced here today by Edward J. Conlin, Chairman of the Oyster Bay Republican town committee. This will be Colonel Roosevelt's debut in politics. He recently frowned on efforts of his friends to induce him to run for Republican nomination for President of the Board of Aldermen of New York City.

FIRST ARREST IN NEW YORK.

New York, July 2.—The first arrest here for violating the war time prohibition measure in the United States was reported from Brooklyn. Detectives took into custody Leonard G. Steinberg, 18, whose father owns a liquor store. They said Steinberg sold them a half pint flask of whiskey for 75 cents. He was arraigned today.

CASE GOING TO JURY.

Lawrence, Mass., July 2.—Daniel J. Daly, counsel for Mrs. Bessie (Skeels) Lundgren, began his argument to the jury today, asking for the acquittal of the "Sunshine Nurse" who is charged with causing the death of Miss Florence W. Bay. Before she was carried into the court room, the defendant said: "In a few hours it will be all over and I will be free." Attorney Daley will be followed by Attorney General Atwill.

A LONG DROUGHT.
In the window of one of Manchester's saloons there appeared yesterday a sign reading, "Closed until when?" After this, in a different hand, were the words, "Forever."

REVOLUTION STARTS THROUGHOUT GERMANY

Spartacist Leader Arrested
—Many Guns Smuggled
Into Berlin.

ARTILLERY TO BE USED

Machine Guns Also Placed on Streets—Food Shortage—Women Storm Shops.

London, July 2.—An Exchange Telegraph Copenhagen dispatch today reports that strikes are now threatened throughout Germany and that the government, fearing revolution, has occupied all public buildings in Berlin and is patrolling the streets with machine guns and artillery. The Spartacist leader, Herzog, the dispatch states, has been placed under arrest.

Guns Smuggled In.
The government, according to the Copenhagen report, has discovered that guns have been smuggled into Berlin from Hamburg, scene of the latest unsuccessful Spartacist coup. Thousands of revolutionary pamphlets have been brought in from Budapest.

Food Shortage.
The Copenhagen dispatch asserted that the food situation is causing increased nervousness. Women are storming the shops. Several food trains have been held up. Thirteen thousand laborers engaged in the distribution of food are threatening to go on strike.

An early dispatch today from our Berlin correspondent reported that the German government was uneasy over the strike situation and had prohibited the sale of firearms.

LEMUEL QUIGG IS DEAD; FAMOUS N. Y. REPUBLICAN

Had Been Ill But a Few Weeks—
Was One Time Editor of New York Press.

New York, July 2.—Lemuel Ely Quigg, widely known Republican politician, and attorney, died at his home, 435 West End Avenue, last night, of Bright's Disease, it was learned today. His wife and family were at the bedside when death came. Mr. Quigg was in his fifty seventh year.

Mr. Quigg was ill but a few weeks. He appeared only a short time ago in the Supreme Court as counsel for the big traction interests he represented.

He was born in Cecil County, Md., on February 12, 1863. After obtaining a common school education he came to New York and engaged in newspaper work, studying law at the same time. He later became editor-in-chief of the New York Press.

From journalism Mr. Quigg went into politics. He was elected to Congress on the Republican ticket and served from 1893 to 1899. In 1894 and again in 1902 he was temporary chairman of the New York state Republican convention and in 1896, 1900 and 1904 he was a delegate to the Republican National Convention.

For many years Mr. Quigg was an influential and at the same time picturesque figure in Republican national politics. With the advent into power of Colonel Roosevelt his influence declined and in recent years he had devoted most of his time to the practice of law.

NORTH CAROLINA IN.

New York, July 2.—The United States battleship North Carolina arrived today from Brest with 52 officers and 1,522 men from overseas. The Italian steamer America brought 2,149 overseas soldiers and 119 welfare workers.

SINN FEIN ORGANIZER SCORES PLUNKETT PLAN

Criticizes Scheme for Dominion Home Rule in Ireland.

IS OFFERING GOLD BRICK

Mr. Griffith Says Sir Horace Is Used
By English as Cat's Paw.

Dublin, July 2.—A. Griffith, Sinn Fein member of Parliament and one of the founders of the Sinn Fein organizations, strongly criticized Sir Horace Plunkett's scheme for dominion home rule in Ireland in an interview today. In view of the fact that Mr. Griffith is one of the chief directors of Sinn Fein policy his views might be accepted as the official attitude of the Sinn Fein organization towards Sir Horace Plunkett's proposal.

Equal to Nothing.
"Dominion home rule is, to use an algebraical expression, equal to Ireland," said Mr. Griffith. "Dominion home rule, as desired by Sir Horace Plunkett, is explained in a circular which seeks support on the pretense that Ireland will control her military and naval forces and foreign policy and will have power to enter into relations with other countries or appoint representatives abroad to guard Irish interests. It makes Ireland liable for England's wars and forces Ireland to continue to pay for the upkeep of England's army and navy and diplomatic and consular services. This is not dominion home rule. It is Irish repression."

Used As Cat's Paw.
"Sir Horace Plunkett was used as a cat's paw by English state craft against Ireland in 1917-1918 and is being used again by the same people for the same purpose."

"In 1917 he was used to throw dust in the eyes of the Americans by presiding at a bogus convention, which, it was pretended, represented the Irish people."

"In 1918 he was used to break up that convention when it was believed the time had come to pretend successfully to America that the Irish had been offered liberty should they choose to agree upon it."

"Again, in 1919, he was used to pretend to America that Ireland was to have her own constitution and that England was willing to agree to a measure of self government equal to that of Canada, Australia, or South Africa."

Has Little Weight.
"Sir Horace Plunkett has no political weight in Ireland. His supposed usefulness to England springs from the belief held by A. J. Balfour, (the British foreign secretary), and some of his colleagues that Sir Horace has a grip on large sections of American public opinion and can maneuver that public in England's interests. It is not the interest of Ireland but England's credit with America that brings Sir Horace to his act of professing to offer dominion home rule. Really he is offering a gold brick."

20,800 YANKS ON WAY TO U. S. ON TRANSPORTS

List of Troopships Which Set Sail
On June 28 From the Other Side.

Washington, July 2.—Nine transports, bringing 20,800 Yanks, sailed on June 28, the War Department announced today. They are:

- Savoie, with 421 casualties from Le Havre, due at New York, July 12;
- the Nasmond, with 5,525, from Brest, due at New York, July 10;
- The Postro, with 1,273 from Marseilles, for New York; the Mt. Vernon, with 5,756, from Brest, due at New York, July 6; the Madawaska, with 2,822, from St. Nazaire, due at Charleston, July 9; Marica, with 2,026, from Marseilles, due at New York, July 9; Santa Oliva, with 1,861, from Bordeaux, due at New York, July 11; Canonius, with 1,385, from Bordeaux, due at Newport News, July 10; Mauretania, with one casual, from Southampton, due at New York, July 7.

BOY 'GETS EVEN' WITH HEN, BUT BARN IS DAMAGED.

Overbrook, Kan., July 2.—When the five-year-old son of Clarence Albright, a farmer near here, went to the barn to hunt eggs, a hen pecked at him from the nest. The boy, desiring to get even, got some matches and set the nest on fire.

The fire got the hen off the nest, but the fire spread. An alarm brought many neighbors, who managed to save the barn, although the contents were badly damaged.

GERMAN ASSEMBLY MAY NOW REFUSE TO RATIFY PACT

Chaotic Situation in Country
May Lead to Almost Anything.

STRIKER ARE DECLARED ON SLIGHTEST PRETEXT

Street Car Men Demand That Companies Give Them $125 as a Gift—Bank Employees to Strike.

Berlin, July 2.—The German cabinet left Weimar last night, with the intention of presenting the treaty of peace to the national assembly for ratification this week.

Several members of the government said that they believed the treaty would be ratified without a great struggle, but others predicted opposition from centrists and conservatives.

May Refuse to Ratify.
In some circles it is even feared that the national assembly though it has already voted to accept the treaty, may now refuse to ratify, which is quite in keeping with the present grotesque and chaotic situation, where everyone is protesting violently against everything and going on strike on the slightest provocation.

Odd Demand.
The demand of the street car men is an instance. Each employee is demanding that the street car companies give him $125 to pay his personal debts.

The railroad men declare their strike is not ended. Some trains, including those carrying food, are now running. The bank employees are expected to strike momentarily in protest against the arrest of one of their leaders who is still in custody.

Efforts are being made to prevent the proposed strike from becoming country wide.

Troublesome Rumors.
The political significance of these disturbances is enhanced by reports from Hungary that soviet representatives are disbursing funds here. The German government is showing some uneasiness and Minister of Defense Noske has issued an order prohibiting the sale of firearms.

Thus far there has been no trouble, except that the striking street car men have stopped cabs and taxis, pulled out the passengers and sent the drivers home. However, a repetition of the March disturbances is feared.

PRESIDENT WILL REACH THIS SIDE ON MONDAY

Officials, However, Have No Definite
Word from George Washington
Yet.

Washington, July 2.—Indications are that the George Washington, bringing President Wilson home from France, will dock at New York Monday, Navy Department officials said today. They added, however, that they have received no definite word from the Presidential transport and their calculations were based on the time she is reported to be making.

Vice President Marshall and all the members of the cabinet will meet the President a few miles out at sea, Secretary Daniels announced today. They will make the trip aboard the dreadnaught Pennsylvania.

Repairs are being made at the old Cheney Homestead, which has been closed during the winter months.

World's Greatest Dirigible Flying Across the Atlantic Reports All's Well At Noon

Our Army of Occupation to be Cut Down to a Total of 6,000 Soldiers

Paris, July 2.—General John J. Pershing, officially announced today that the Fourth Division of the American Army will sail for home within a few days. The first, second and third divisions, probably will follow within a month or six weeks. The old army of occupation, as it was originally constituted, ends today.

leave the job to somebody else," said General Pershing. "Our flag is here, our duty is here and our honor is here. We are not going away until it has been demonstrated to our entire satisfaction that the Germans are living up to the treaty terms."

HOLCOMB REFUSES SPECIAL SESSION MANCHESTER MEMBERS DISAPPOINTED

Governor Declares Not Enough Women Want It—
Can Not See "Emergency"
Required by Constitution—
Shuts Women Out of Next Presidential Election.

Governor Marcus H. Holcomb has declined to call a special session of the Connecticut Legislature to vote on the question of ratifying the Anthony amendment granting women the right to vote.

The Governor gives as his reason for so declining his opinion that a sufficient number of women are not interested in the question of suffrage to warrant a special session. The Constitution of the state provides that a special session may be called by the Governor "on special emergencies" and Governor Holcomb says he can not conclude that woman suffrage, as viewed in this state, constitutes such an emergency.

The Governor's official refusal to call the session follows:

"Two organizations of women in the state, favorable to woman suffrage, have called upon me, one requesting and the other demanding, the calling of a special session of the General Assembly to act upon the proposed suffrage amendment to the Constitution of the United States; and two organizations of women of our state opposed to woman suffrage have protested against the calling of such special session. I have received letters from several members of the 1919 session of the General Assembly opposing and none in favor of the calling of such special session. As all of our citizens are interested in the subject of woman suffrage, I think it well to state my conclusion in the public press."

"The Constitution of Connecticut prescribes the time of holding the stated sessions of the General Assembly, and further provides that the person administering the office of governor may on special emergencies convene the General Assembly at any other time. I cannot conclude that the desire of a few women—be they more or less in number—to have a vote upon said proposed amendment taken prior to the next stated session of the General Assembly creates such a special emergency. I, therefore, decline to call a special session of the General Assembly for the purpose of voting upon said proposed suffrage amendment. I am convinced that it should be voted upon at the next regular session, when the people of the state know in advance it is to be acted upon and can select the members of the General Assembly with that issue in view."

"Marcus H. Holcomb, Governor."

Had Then Traveled 450 Miles from Starting Point—Has to Cut Down Speed When She Runs Into Fog Bank— Expects to Reach United States on Saturday.

London, July 2.—Thick fog into which the R-34 plunged during the morning on her trans-Atlantic flight cut down her speed from 40 to 32 knots an hour, Major Scott reported in a wireless message at noon. At that time the dirigible was in latitude 55 degrees and 7 minutes north, and 14 degrees and 50 minutes west.

The text of the radiogram follows:
"Noon. Position 55.7 north; 14.50 west. Speed 32 knots. Going through thick fog. All well." At that hour the dirigible had traveled about 450 miles since her departure from East Fortune this morning and was about 200 miles west of the north point of Ireland.

STRIKES FOG BANK.

London, July 2.—The monster R-34, the world's greatest air liner, poked her nose straight in a fog off the Irish coast shortly before 10 o'clock this morning, (Greenwich time) about eight hours after she soared away from her anchorage near Edinburgh, Scotland, on the first attempt by a dirigible balloon to cross the Atlantic.

At 42 Miles An Hour.
Until she encountered the mist clouds, the great dirigible had been speeding westward at the speed of an ordinary railway train—about 42 miles an hour. She probably will reduce her speed as she gropes her way through the fog and it now appears likely that she may not reach Mineola, L. I., until Saturday morning.

Nothing Sensational.

Her history-making flight apparently is being made in as prosaic a fashion as that of any modern ocean liner. Her crew of 23 men, including Lieutenant Commander Lansdowne of the United States Navy, are comfortable housed in their gondolas as the officers of any of the big Cunarders, excepting that their freedom of movement is more restrained. The early hours of her flight the dirigible apparently is encountering no trouble at all, none is anticipated while she is passing through the fog bank.

Sun Lights Her Way.

In her easterly flight from East Fortune this morning, the big airship engaged in a losing race with the sun. She was off before sunrise, but a few hours later the rays of the morning sun which bathed her flying field in light immediately after her departure must have caught the stern of the speeding air liner and then passed beyond her lighting her way.

LEFT AT 1:45 A. M.

London, July 2.—The first attempt in the history of the world to fly across the Atlantic in a dirigible balloon is under way today, with the great British dirigible R-34 pushing westward towards America above the North Atlantic steamer lanes. Leaving the East Fortune Aerodrome, near Edinburgh, at 1:45 o'clock this morning, (British time), the R-34 was passing Rathlin Island, off the north coast of Ireland at 5:30 o'clock.

DIMENSIONS OF R-34.
Length, 639 feet, 8 1/2 inches.
Greatest diameter, 78 feet, nine inches.
Total weight, 30 tons.
Carrying capacity, 21 tons.
 motive power, five Sunbeam-Maori engines of 350 h. p. each.
Gas capacity, 2,000,000 cubic feet.

LEMON AND LIME VIES WITH COLD MILK SHAKE
Drug Stores Do Big Business on Town's First Dry Day—Saloons Shut Tight.
Drug stores report a smashing business for yesterday and last night. It was a hot day and ordinary people had a thirst for cooling drinks while those who had been deprived of their usual beverage on account of war prohibition law going into effect, simply had to rush to the soda fountains. At one drug store, the rush started at nine o'clock in the morning and kept up until late at night. Lemon soda had the call at that place. In another drug store, chocolate milk shakes seemed to be the most popular drink ordered although there was quite a call for lemon and lime. The evening trade was the heaviest and some of the young men would call for two right in succession. It has been suggested that the tables, where ice cream is served, be removed and that a rail be placed in front of the fountain, to make the fellows feel more at home.
Milk shakes, and especially chocolate milk shakes, always have been among the most popular drinks at the soda fountains. At one of the drug stores, $96 worth of milk was sold during the past month.
All Saloons Closed.
Wet supporters yesterday were alarmed when the news circulated around town that all of the saloons were closed. It was expected that the order from Washington to allow the sale of 2 3/4 per cent beer, would result in the saloons being open for the sale of beer and light wines.
Early risers were doomed to disappointment however for they found the doors locked. Many congratulated themselves on the foresight of having secured the night previous, enough "booze" to last for a week or perhaps a month.
Saloon men were reticent on the subject yesterday and paid but little attention to the numerous queries in regard to the subject. The majority of them went to Hartford, presumably for information, but this, if it was obtained, was not disclosed.
It is thought that the local cases will stay closed until some word has been received from the United States Attorney from this district in regard to the Washington order. A few saloons were opened in Hartford yesterday, but closed at one o'clock.

bility for this action."
"However, I have not given up hopes of a special session. The teachers of this state are organizing and they are going to demand a session to make good on the promise to grant them an increase in salary. The teachers showed their splendid ability to organize when the Morrison Bill was up for discussion and they will repeat the process now."
"It is a short sighted policy on the part of those who are blocking the movement for a special session. I shall do all I can to bring such a session about."
Suffrage Regret Action.
"We regret the action of the Governor in opposition to woman suffrage," was the comment of a prominent suffrage leader here when informed of the Governor's refusal.
The suffragists will hold a meeting in Hartford this afternoon to decide on the next move toward getting Connecticut to ratify the Anthony amendment.
In connection with the statement of the Governor that the members of the legislature were not actively in favor of suffrage it was stated at suffrage headquarters today that blanks had been sent out to the members asking them to express their views on the subject and that the results showed a ten to one majority in favor of suffrage.

LIQUOR DEALERS BRING TEST CASE TO CROSBY
Will Present Evidence of Violation in New Haven—More Drunks in Jail Than Year Ago.
Hartford, July 2.—United States District Attorney John F. Crosby was today awaiting evidence of New Haven violation of the war time prohibition act, which he expected would be presented to him by counsel for the retail liquor dealers' association, William H. King of Willimantic and Arnon A. Alling of New Haven. Mr. Crosby did not know the character of the evidence or the names of the alleged violator or the witnesses. He said he would proceed by indictment and this will necessitate the presence of a grand jury in New Haven next Tuesday when Judge Thomas I. Chatfield of Brooklyn will hear arguments on the constitutionality of the law.
Mr. Crosby said he knew of no saloons which were selling intoxicants other than 2 3/4 per cent beer and only a few of these, two of them being the Bond hotel and the Bond restaurant in this city. Mr. Crosby said that if he learned of other direct violations than the test case arranged for in New Haven by the liquor dealers' lawyers, he would of course proceed to prosecute. He is also securing data on sales of 2 3/4 per cent beer on which to base possible prosecutions if the Baltimore test case on beer sales is won by the government. Both Mr. Crosby and his limited number of investigators have been compelled to abandon work on the ice question until the more pressing problem of prohibition has been cleaned up.
How Do They Do It?
In the Hartford police court today, there were six cases of drunkenness as compared with three a year ago today.

GOV. HOLCOMB REFUSES TO CALL LEGISLATURE
The Connecticut branch of the National Women's Party, of which Mrs. Katherine Houghton Heppburn is the head, and the Connecticut Woman Suffrage Association are the two organizations which appealed to the Governor for a special session. The Connecticut Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage, headed by Mrs. Daniel A. Markham, and a New Haven organization are the two which made an opposite appeal.
If no special session is called the Connecticut Legislature cannot act upon the suffrage question until January 1921, which will be after the next presidential election.

MEETING WILL DISCUSS CHRISTIAN PATRIOTISM
Talks on Present-day Topics at Center Congregational Church Tonight by Manchester Men and Women.
The approach of the Fourth of July this year is stirring Americans with new ideas of their responsibilities as citizens of our Republic. The old Independence Day we have celebrated so long and ardently is taking on larger meanings in the light of recent happenings. Those in charge of the mid-week service at Center church are trying to respond to this call to expansion in patriotism. A meeting for tonight at 7:30 o'clock has been arranged to give expression to some new and striking phases of Christian duties, obligations, and opportunities in the exercise of citizenship and patriotic devotion.
The general theme of the meeting will be "Christian Patriotism in the New World." The new peace treaty with its provision for a League of Nations, the coming of prohibition and equal suffrage, and the spread of democracy in industrial and economic life, all call for a new estimate of citizenship and an expansion of the meaning and application of patriotism.
Special addresses will be given tonight by E. L. G. Hohenthal on patriotism in view of prohibition, by Mrs. Ward E. Duffy on the new patriotism under the spur of woman's suffrage, and by W. H. Schieldege on the patriot's attitude to industrial democracy. Dr. Hesselgrave will speak upon some international aspects of patriotism. BROADWAY IS HARD HIT BY THE NEW "DRY" LAW
Ritz-Carlton Hotel Receipts for One Day 30 Cents—Reisenweber's Receipts Drop $3,000.
New York, July 2.—Broadway had its first "dry" night in history last night and today proprietors of cafes strung all up and down the gay white way were sadly counting their receipts and agreeing that a desert is no place to grow luxurious profits.
The bartender at the Ritz-Carlton hotel blushing admitted that his total receipts on the first "dry" day were just thirty cents.
Reisenweber's announced a falling off in receipts for the first 24 hours of about $3,000. Many other big cafes were hit almost as hard and the cash register showed such small totals in a number of Broadway saloons that they failed to re-open for business today.
All the Broadway lobster palaces were crowded last night, but there was a lack of effervescent spirit. The police reported they had no more trouble than with a Sunday school picnic.
Beer and light wines were sold at all the cafes, in a few places something harder was sold to those "in the know" but at one of the leading centers of merriment guests found to their astonishment that they could purchase only soft drinks and tea.
FAIR WEATHER JULY 4.
Night Fans Promised Smiling Skies Friday.
Washington, July 2.—The weather man handed out some cheerful news today for the fight fans who will witness the big spat at Toledo on Friday.
"The present indications are," he said, "that the weather will be fair, although warm."
International revenue Commissioner Roper today estimated that the bout would enrich the Treasury Department by $100,000, figuring on the 10 per cent war tax on a million dollar "gate." The bureau will be represented by Augustus Barnes, General Deputy Collector, of New York.

SALOONS ALL CLOSED.
Bridgeport, July 2.—Many of the saloons that were open here yesterday were closed today. Business in the others was very light. Most of the places closed early last night and those that kept open were dimly lighted, the owners apparently figuring that the cost of lighting would exceed the profits. Veritable wakes were held in the clubs last night, where nothing but beer was to be had. The weak beer now on sale offers little inducement except to the really thirsty.

WORLD'S GREATEST DIRIGIBLE FLYING ACROSS THE ATLANTIC

Rathlin Island is approximately 122 miles southwest of Edinburgh and if the dirigible had travelled in a straight line from the starting point she had made a bare 35 miles an hour on this initial leg of the journey.

Message Received.
The following radiogram was received from Major Scott, commander of the balloon:
"Off Rathlin Island at 5:30. British summer time. Steering west and going well."

Unless the R-34 encounters gales or strong headwinds she should arrive at Roosevelt Field, near Mineola, N. Y., on Friday, probably in the late afternoon or evening.

The United States Navy is represented on board the balloon in the person of Lieutenant Commander Lansdowne, who is working as a member of the crew.

Got Great Send Off.
The giant dirigible was given an enthusiastic sendoff when she rose from the East Fortune flying field and headed westward towards the sea. The motors were working perfectly and all on board were confident of a successful voyage. The airmen were hopeful that they would arrive in time to take part in the Fourth of July celebration in New York City on Friday.

There are more than a score of men in the crew of the great balloon and everything possible had been done to insure their comfort on the long trip through the sky.

Flying Low.
Major Cooke, the navigator, planned to make most of the trip at a low altitude in order to make observations easier and to keep in direct touch with the steamships passing beneath.

Weather conditions were excellent when the historic flight was started and the indications were for fair weather off the coast.

The R-34 had already proved her mettle by the 2,000 mile flight above the Baltic when she rode through storms that caused keen inconvenience to ships upon the sea.

No Chances Taken.
Careful preparations had been made and the greater part of Tuesday had been given over to careful inspection of the mechanism of the balloon. Every test known to aeronautical science was given to the dirigible to insure the utmost safety. An immense supply of petrol was taken on board as a precaution in case the airship was blown out of her course and would have to travel a greater distance than the schedule called for.

Officers on Board.
In addition to Major Scott and Lieutenant Commander Lansdowne, U. S. N., the following additional officers are included in the R-34's crew: Lieutenant Durrant, wireless operator; Captain Coombes, of the British Navy; Captain Greenhard, first officer; Lieutenant Shotter, engineer officer; Major Cooke, navigator; Colonel Hunt and Major Pritchard.

NOW THE DIRIGIBLE.

A dirigible balloon 634 feet long and carrying 23 men is on its way across the Atlantic. Although airplanes have made the transatlantic flight eastward, starting from Newfoundland, this is the first time that a dirigible has attempted the trip, and it is the first air flight westward. The big gas bag started from Scotland and her pilot expects to land at the Muncie field on Long Island, near New York. Propelled by powerful engines, the airship is expected to make the voyage in safety in between 60 and 70 hours.

While the lighter than air vessel is naturally considered safer than the airplane, which depends upon its engines to keep it aloft, there are still difficulties to be overcome with the dirigible. Only yesterday a big navy dirigible exploded with terrific force in Baltimore just after it had alighted with a crew of seven and two passengers. The explosion was thought to be due to the sudden expansion of the gas caused by the descent from the cool air of the high altitude to the warmer air of the earth's surface. The balloon became a mass of flames and was completely destroyed. Many were injured but so far as known at this writing none fatally. But the balloon, worth probably half a million or more, was a total loss. The first cost of these immense airships and their highly inflammable character as well as the danger from storms, due to their great bulk, offset some of the dangers of gravitation to airplanes which they are supposed to avoid.

MRS. GILLIGAN DISPOSED OF.

The long drawn out case of Mrs. Amy E. Archer Gilligan, charged with murder of an inmate of her old people's home at Windsor and suspected of other crimes of a similar nature, came to a sudden end late yesterday afternoon when she pleaded guilty of murder in the second degree and was sentenced to state prison for life. This is as good a disposition of the case as could be expected. Juries in this state do not like to give a verdict that will hang a woman and even if they had done so the board of pardons would have been asked to commute the sentence to imprisonment for life. The case has been dragging along for more than three years, during which period Mrs. Gilligan has been in jail. The remainder of her life will be passed at Wethersfield.

ANOTHER BORAH BUGABOO.

Senator Borah is suffering from another attack of the Wall Street Tremens. He had quite a bad spell a while ago when his fever stricken brain was possessed with the idea that the peace conference at Paris was in secret partnership with big business in this country and together they were trying to foist the League of Nations on this country by dint of making serious charges and rash statements on the floor of the Senate. Mr. Borah brought on an investigation which proved nothing so conclusively as it did the emptiness of his own talk and the desperate limits to which he is willing to go to defeat the international covenant.

Mr. Borah's latest is the assertion that financial leaders, chiefly connected with the house of Morgan, have bought the New York Evening Post in order that they might more effectively advocate the league idea. The only apparent basis for this is the fact that the Post was purchased some time ago by a New York financier, that he and a great many other representatives of America's leading business organizations are in favor of the league and that the New York Evening Post itself has long been advocating such a covenant. Thus by putting two and two together Mr. Borah has made five and is doing his best to alarm the public at the result.

The League of Nations is a practical plan which will have as one of its blessed results the limitation and possible elimination of war. Mr. Borah declares that big business is backing such a league for selfish reasons. Somehow we seem to recall that it used to be said in various places that the United States was being forced into the war by big business because all wars were profitable to Wall Street. Is Wall Street running under a different system or is Mr. Borah simply wrong again?

GET YOUR MONEY'S WORTH IN CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAM

Plan of Selling Season Tickets Gives Great Reduction in Price—Industrial Ticket Sells for $1.75.

Chautauqua week in Manchester will begin next Monday and the distribution of tickets is in active progress under the direction of Robert J. Smith. Two entertainments a day will be given during the week. With the exception of the two evenings, when a play and an opera respectively will be given, there will be a double bill each afternoon and evening, usually a concert and a lecture. Each ticket purchaser will receive a handsomely illustrated program containing photographic portraits of the speakers and performers.

Adding together the single admission prices of all the performances the total would be $6.15. These are all covered by the season ticket at $2.50. This ticket is transferable so that one person can use it in the afternoon and another in the evening. In addition to the regular season ticket, a special industrial ticket has been issued in Manchester this season admitting to the evening performances only, and selling for $1.75. This is a bargain, as the single admission prices for the week total $4.

Mr. Smith has a large corps of ticket sellers at work. Among them are Arthur E. Bowers, John H. Hyde, J. Howard Keith, J. Frank Bowen, Edwin A. Lydall, George Davidson, Fred Fish, J. C. Bushnell, L. S. Burr, J. Henry Thornton, William Rubinow, Martin L. Gilman, F. H. Jones, Fayette B. Clarke, Charles I. Balch, William Foulds, Jr., Willis J. Lydall, Frank Spencer, Mrs. P. Hannan, Mrs. John M. Hutchinson, Miss Sarah Curran, Miss Hazel Trotter, Miss Lillian Finnegan, Miss Laura Mathison, Miss Jennie Wind, Miss Anna Hyde, Miss Pauline Beebe and Miss Amy Williams.

Tickets are for sale also at the War Bureau, at the Dewey-Richman Co.'s, Packard's, Grant's Pharmacy and Balch & Brown's.

CHICKEN THIEF GETS SIX MONTHS IN JAIL

Charles Pietros, Convicted of Robbing Roosts Belonging to John Hackett.

Charles Pietros, the man who worked for Hackett Brothers and who took advantage of his employers when they were away Monday night and stole six chickens, the property of John Hackett was sent to jail for six months by Judge Carney in the police court this morning. Pietros pleaded guilty to the theft. He had nothing to say for himself. The chickens were stolen Monday night and Tuesday morning, when Mr. Hackett discovered his loss, he made inquiry about the help and James Abbey, who is cook at the boarding house, remembered seeing Pietros leaving the place with some chickens. Pietros took the chickens to a place in Homestead Park. He had apparently learned that his employer knew who the thief was and was about ready to take French leave when John Hackett apprehended him and took him to Captain Campbell in his automobile.

Pietros had worked for Hackett Brothers before and he admitted that he had been arrested several times and once before had served time for theft. He claimed Taunton, Mass., as his home. He was taken to jail by Captain Campbell.

HONORABLY DISCHARGED. Soldiers and sailors who have reported at the War Bureau in the past few days as having been honorably discharged from the service are: First Class Private John Obrensky.

Private William Petrowski. Seaman George Tedford. Private James Grimason. Private Frederick McCann. Lieut. Allan R. McLean.

DUSSELDORF BESIEGED. London, July 2.—A Central News dispatch from Amsterdam today reports that a state of siege has been proclaimed at Dusseldorf after fighting in which three citizens and a cavalry sergeant were killed.

How the Colonies of Germany Will Be Treated By League

On this page The Herald is printing a series of letters touching every angle of the plan for a League of Nations proposed by the Paris Covenant, now awaiting ratification by the United States Senate. In accordance with the authors' wishes the individual letters are not identified with any one writer.

They are written by: William H. Taft, Ex-President of the United States. George W. Wickersham, formerly United States Attorney General. A. Lawrence Lowell, President of Harvard University. Henry W. Taft, of the New York Bar.

Until this point the provisions of the Covenant have dealt almost exclusively with the organization of the League and the prevention of war. Article XXII and the three that follow are concerned with improving conditions in which the people of many countries take, or ought to take, an interest.

German Colonies. The first of these articles deals with races hitherto ruled by Germany and her allies and not yet qualified to govern themselves. Its object is two-fold. First, to protect and assist peoples on their way to complete independence; to guard them from dangers, and guide them while still inexperienced in the use of popular government. During that period they would be likely to make mistakes which might expose them to external and internal perils. The second object is to prevent selfish exploitation of backward peoples and natural resources. These colonies were won by all the nations that helped to win the war, and all have a right and duty to demand that the native inhabitants shall not be maltreated, and that one of the victors shall not monopolize to the exclusion of other countries any raw products essential to the industries of the world.

These things are properly placed under the control of the League; and if so the plan of mandatory acting under contract with the League, and rendering an annual report of their stewardship to the Council, with a permanent commission to supervise the administration, seems well devised for the purpose. No nation need accept a mandate unless it pleases, but if it does so it accepts the trust under the conditions prescribed by the League. The whole plan marks a great step forward in the recognition of the common responsibility of civilized nations for the weaker peoples of the earth; in contrast with the principle of exploitation for the national benefit of those who can succeed in conquering and owning them, or who can by purchase, bargain or force of arms obtain a transfer of them from their former masters. To establish the principle, to provide for inspection and publicity is a long advance, and may be expected to have its effect upon the government of all native races whether under the control of the League or not.

International Responsibilities. Article XXIII carries the conception of responsibility, instead of exploitation, still farther, applying it to the conditions of labor, the treatment of all native races, the white slave trade, the traffic in opium and other dangerous drugs, the trade in arms in disorderly regions, fair commercial opportunity, and the prevention of disease. Everyone familiar with the difficulty of regulating these things properly under the pressure of competition will appreciate the importance of concerted action. In such matters the work of the League must be consultative and advisory, because over the legislation and administration of its members in their own countries it has no control. But the members themselves covenant to do these things, and in the case of labor to endeavor to maintain fair and humane conditions not only in their own country, but also in all others to which their commercial and industrial relations extend. They agree further to maintain for that purpose the necessary international organizations. The publicity which will result cannot fail to be of great value, and the total effect may be expected to be large and highly beneficial.

Matters of Common Interest. Article XXIV deals with international bureaus for the administration of matters of common interest. Few persons have any conception how many of these exist. The best known is the Universal Postal Union, but there are many others relating to telegraphs, wireless, agriculture, railroads, river navigation, industrial and literary property, sanitation, crime, scientific subjects, and other things. Some of them include all civilized countries, some only those neighbors directly concerned. There are also a number of commissions of various kinds. These were in existence before 1914 and the war has brought in among the Allies more to unify the conduct of military action, and the vast auxiliary supply services connected therewith. Some of these will be useful in peace as well as in war and will survive.

Hitherto the different bureaus have been independent of one another; but it is obviously better administration to place them under one supervising authority, where information about them can be readily collected, so that the Council and Assembly can discuss them, bring grievances to light, demand explanations and correct abuses. This is the object of Article XXIV.

The work done by the members of one organization in the war has been so great that it seemed possible to make a larger use of it for the relief of suffering in time of peace. Both as a recognition of its services and with a view to further work, the members of the League agree by Article XXV to promote the establishment and cooperation of national voluntary organizations of the Red Cross.

Headline History of the World War

What Happened July 2

- 1914. Anti-Serbian rioting at funeral of Archduke Ferdinand. Dutch Government invites U. S. Government to send delegates to Third Peace Conference at The Hague. Mexico announces conclusion of peace with United States.
- 1915. W. J. Bryan, replying to De Constant, French pacifist, asks belligerents to make known their peace terms. Bomb explodes in Capitol at Washington. Germans storm Argonne front; penetrate line one-eighth of mile toward Verdun. Teuton army sweeps on in Poland, both sides of the Vistula.
- 1916. Allies forge ahead on River Somme; take three towns and 9,500 Germans in two days. Henry Weisman, head of the German-American Alliance, criticizes President Wilson. General Wood has 130,000 soldiers on way to Mexican line.
- 1917. Russian attack in Galicia continues. 10,000 Germans captured. French recapture lost trenches on the Aisne. English setback at Lens. Greek conscripts called to the colors. Americans gain a mile, capture 500 prisoners and take Vaux village, key to Chateau-Thierry. President announces more than 1,000,000 Americans overseas. German General takes command of defeated Austrian forces. Italians press on against Monte Grappa. German commands Finnish Diet to establish monarchical rule in Finland.
- 1918. Cleveland, Ohio, July 2.—Of course, if the girls insist on wearing 'em higher this winter, the shoes likewise will have to be higher. But, according to shoe manufacturers, fair warning is given that the prices will be higher. European buyers have stripped the American leather market, the shoemakers say, and leather worth forty-seven cents a foot a week ago is now selling for seventy-two cents.
- Ham Sanville, the most wounded man in the 26th (Yankee) Division, has arrived home. He bears forty-seven wounds. He was three times sent to hospitals but returned to the front-line trenches. Among the souvenirs he carries are a silver rib, artificial kneecap, twelve pieces of hand-grenade imbedded in his right shoulder, and a silver support in the left instep.

TOO BUSY TO DIG GRAVE.

Cottonwood Falls, Kan., July 1. People in this county are too busy to dig graves for their departed friends. When the friends of Dick Waterhouse, a farm laborer, endeavored to find some one to dig a grave at Clements they were unable to get a man.

BOY WANTED FOR THEFT MASQUERADES AS GIRL.

Sacramento, Cal., July 1.—Harry Williams, smartly dressed in an up-to-the-minute woman's attire, including a rose-colored hat, and going under the name of Rose Williams, has been arrested by Southern Pacific detectives here as the absconding cashier from the railroad office at Mina, California, from which $155 in War Savings Stamps, $28 in cash and a number of bank drafts were taken.

SO MAD SHE SLAPS THEIF.

Springfield, Ill., July 2.—It made Mrs. Irene Littrell, cashier at a meat market here, so mad when Harry McCullom grabbed two bank books containing $200 in cash from her as she was leaving the store for a bank to deposit the money that she could not resist the temptation of chastising McCullom at the jail after he was caught in a running battle with police. She walked right up to him and slapped him a resounding whack on the face. "There," she said, "take that." McCullom was astounded he couldn't ward off or resist the blow.

YANK STOPS JAIL BREAK.

Lincoln, Ill., July 2.—Robert Hardin, negro prisoner, was so confident he would escape he penned a brief note to Sheriff Alberts. In the letter Hardin begged the Sheriff's pardon for stealing his revolver and promised to return it when he reached Canada, where he expected to start life anew. But Hardin reckoned without Sheriff Alberts' bravery, who had just returned from the army. The latter intercepted Hardin as he was making his courteous exit and found the incriminating note.

BECAUSE JUROR SLEPT, ARGUMENT IS REPEATED.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 2.—It was very warm in the courtroom. And a big fly buzzed incessantly in the corner of the jury box. Juror Bruno Stadler says the buzzing principally caused him to fall asleep. The result was that the other eleven members of the jury had to listen a second time to the arguments of counsel and the charge of Judge Critchfield. Stadler's slumbers were detected as the jury was about to retire.

LONG AND SHORT OF IT REJECTED BY MARINE CORPS.
Tulsa, Okla., July 2.—John Burke and Harry Brown, Tulsa youths and chums, tried to enlist in the Marine Corps. John was too short and Harry too tall, so the recruiting officer rejected them. John measured sixtyone inches tall, while the minimum requirement calls for sixty-four inches. Harry was seventy-seven inches tall, while the tallest man that can be enlisted must not exceed seventy-four inches.

THREE-YEAR-OLD BASEBALL FAN KILLED BY TUMBLE.
St. Louis, Mo., July 2.—A ball game attracted the attention of three-year-old Charles H. Gerber.

In order to watch he pushed a chair up to a window of a third floor apartment and climbed up on it.
When the ball leaped against the screen it gave way and he fell to the brick alley, thirty-five feet below.
He was dead when picked up.

BANK FINDS WIFE GONE; STEALS QUILT; IN JAIL.
Pittsburg, Pa., July 2.—Edward Stanley returned from the war to find that his wife had gone to another city and had left him only a bedstead and a mattress. He thought the exigencies of the case justified him in entering a house and stealing a quilt to go with the mattress. Mrs.

Stanley testified that she got her husband drafted into the army as he failed to support her, and she received the government allowance.
Stanley went to jail.

ing toward the educational and shownovation is said to be for the purpose of giving the young people something attractive in the church besides the religious services.

COLORED GIANTS WILL PLAY HERE JULY 4TH

Will Oppose Athletics at Mt. Nebo Grounds—Fast Game Promised for Independence Day.

The Elm City Colored Giants of
New Haven will be the attraction on the Mount Nebo grounds against the Athletics on the morning of July 4th. Manager Dowd having cancelled a handsome offer from an out-of-town team in order to play at home.
The former team is well known in town having played here earlier in the season.

Although the locals won by two to one score, the fans concede that it was one of the fastest games played at the Nebo grounds. Only two hits were secured off Cannonball Smith the colored wonder; while the dusky comedians garnered four hits from Warock. Manager Dowd brings this team back to town at the request of fans who were impressed with the exhibition put up by the Elm City men.

The "Giants" are recognized as one of the fastest colored teams in the country and are in big demand at all times. This is the last opportunity that the local fans will have to see this team this season as the booking list is now filled up. Cannonball Smith will again oppose the Athletics and a fast game is assured.
The Comstock-Cheney team of Ivoryton, which needs no introduction, will be the attraction on the local grounds Sunday afternoon.
This team is one of the most widely known and heaviest financially backed teams in the New England states. "Bobby" Kennedy, the veteran pitcher, or Kennedy, formerly of the Hartford Club of the Eastern League, will oppose either Sipples or Warock.

The Athletics line-up for this game will probably be: Schiedge left field; Massey second base; Wilson third base; Fay first base; Sipples shortstop; Ketch right field;
O'Connell, Strange or Dickie, center field; Warnock or Sipples pitch;
Lamprecht, Crockett or Matchett catch. "Darby" O'Connell who has been playing great ball for the Athletics both in the box and in the field may be lost to the locals as he expects to leave town this week.

In the event of O'Connell not being able to play Sunday, the center field position will be filled by Paul Strange, the old Echoe stars who has been playing ball in France and Germany with the A. E. F. team of all stars. Dickie of Stafford Springs one of the heaviest hitting fielders in these parts has also been signed up.

BIG FIRE IN PARIS IS JUST A FLICKER IN N. Y.

What a Doughboy Told Mademoiselle
They'd Do in a Regular Country.

Paris, June 24.—(By Mail.)—If you want to see even a real worth while blaze you have to come back home, the doughboys in Europe are unanimous in declaring.

A Paris fire was well under way and the fire-fighters were having hard work confining the blaze to the basement when a party of doughboy sightseers under a Y. M. C. A. guide passed down the street. The dough-boys paused to see the Paris firemen in action. A large crowd of Frenchmen also, in open eyed admiration, were watching the department at work.

"Not much of a fire," ventured one of the doughboys to a pretty mademoiselle standing beside him.

"Oh, yes, a big fire, Monsieur, a very big fire," the young miss answered enthusiastically, "the biggest fire in Paris in a long, long time."

The doughboy stared.
"Say, Miss," he finally ventured,
"do you know what they'd do with that fire if they had it in New York?
They'd use it to light a cigarette with, then step on it."

"PLEASE BE CAREFUL," IS COURT'S ADMONITION.

St. Louis, Mo., July 2.—It was in the Federal Court, the United Railways receivership case was set for resumption at 10 o'clock. Eph-raim Caplan, counsel for the plaintiff, failed to appear. Master Lamm was impatient and made no bones about it. Ten-thirty, ten forty-five, eleven o'clock and still no Caplan.

A few minutes after 11 the attorney arrived, red of face, smiling and breathless.
"You are somewhat late, Mr. Caplan, I"—began the master. But Caplan interrupted.

"It's a boy," he exclaimed, "weight
nine and a half pounds."
"Aha," said the Court, rubbing his hands. "I understand, but don't let it happen again."

Prince of Wales, "Having Found His Manhood," Now Busy Adding Titles

London (by mail).—Colonel His Royal Highness Edward A. C. G. A. F. D. Prince of Wales and Duke of Cornwall, K. G., G. C. M. G., G. B. E. M. C., Colonel-in-Chief Twelfth Lancers, Royal Scots Fusiliers, Duke of Cornwall's Light Infantry and Royal Wiltshire Yeomanry, Personal Aide-de-Camp to the King, is easily the most mentioned personage in England today.

Much of the recent mention has to do with his acquisition of new honors and titles and memberships and freedoms of cities. By the time this is published, doubtless, a few new letters and honors will have been acquired by the heir to the throne of the British Empire.

For, to use his own words, spoken in the City of London when receiving the "freedom" of the financial capital—America willing—of the world, the Prince of Wales "has found his manhood."

He found it, he explained, doing his insignificant bit at the front, during four years of war. Officers who saw him when he arrived in France, thin and timid, not yet freed of the apron string of constant tutoring and supervision which is the lot of sons of the palace, bear witness to the truth of the Prince's announcement. In effect, the heir to the throne announced to the world that he had reached his majority.

The Court of St. James accepts the announcement and many things happen forthwith. No promising candidate for political honors in our own land of manipulation of public attention, however, experience and skilled his manager might be, ever had more constant mention in print than the Prince of Wales has had during the past several weeks. The activities of the King and Queen and the rest of the royal family have slipped into positions of secondary importance. Prince

Pat, Lady Diana Manners, Lloyd George, Hawker—these got their columns on occasion, but the occasion is short, and the Prince steps blithely through the prints day after day.

For the smiling young Prince who hasn't even yet lost all his air of timidity is being voted into full membership of all things done by and sanctioned by royalty, under the age-old organization, and sponsored candidate during the hectic weeks of the final swing around the country. The royal household counts that day just when their eldest born has not visited two or three institutions, accepted honorary presidency of this or that organization, and sponsored some new venture or received some foreign visitor.

He goes to Dover to meet the President of Brazil today, replacing the Duke of Connaught as the King's personal representative. He has just been made a Free Mason, yesterday he was made Grand Commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George, tomorrow it will be something else, and the day after yet another function, or a new title, or a new duty. Various trips out of London to provincial cities are carded, and later the proposed tour of the dominions, during which he is expected to make a side trip to the White House.

Day by day he rides through the city saluting the populace which hails him Prince. Day by day he appears at crowded centers inspecting a pensioner's home, reviewing a drill, opening a new civic center or hospital, attending races, awarding prizes at athletic contests—and at each place he talks with the common people and is snapped by ready photographers in the act of learning how the pensioner lives, how the hospital is managed, or how young England plays its games.

Tens of thousands weekly are getting a liberal education first hand regarding the sort of man their king-to-be has become. Hundreds of thousands more get the message through the newspapers and magazines.

And yet staid old England professes to look down on publicity methods and to consider America the foremost land of personal advertisement.

Talcottville

Mr. and Mrs. John Talcott returned from Gloucester, Mass., Monday where they have been enjoying a short visit.

Troop 1 of the local Boy Scouts will march in Rockville, Friday. All members are requested to meet at Talcott Hall at 7.00 o'clock in uniform.

William Crooks has returned from Hartford where he has been spending a short visit with relatives.

Mrs. Charles Bauer and family of Patterson, N. J., are enjoying a short visit with their relatives Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McKenna.

Talcott Brothers' mill will be closed Thursday until Tuesday, on account of some repairs being made. This gives their employees a longer holiday than usual.

The Talcottville Fife and Drum Corps will march in Rockville, Friday, July 4.

The Boy Scouts will go on an overnight hike to Crystal Lake Saturday afternoon.

Clarence Hoch arrived in town Monday night. He has just returned from "over there" where he has seen active service for about eighteen months.

Park Theater

Comedy again appears as a happy attendant to the playing of Miss Lillian Gish in her newest role, that of a country girl in "A Romance of Happy Valley" David W. Griffith's second Arctcraft production, which will be shown at the Park theater again tonight.

Miss Gish's efforts in comedy in "The Great Love" were rewarded by general applause from the critics. Under Mr. Griffith's direction she has created a new and delightful character, and her part as Jennie Timberlake in the new production is even more sparkling.

She appears as the only child of an idle, likeable farmer in the Ohio Valley country, a man who neglects his little fields but attends most industriously to his sleep. He wishes his daughter to dress as her mother did. To be confined to rural styles of a generation past, and at the same time array oneself to attract the interest of young John Logan Jr., is a supreme task for her girlish ingenuity.

Her trials are not entirely confined to fascinating the eyes of John Logan Jr., for her father is addicted to headaches, and oftentimes needs her attention in the night. So she arranges a signal system of quaint and effective simplicity. Miss Gish makes the character one of delightful whimsicalities, a unique and fascinating personality. The comedy is fuller than any Miss Gish has attempted in the past, and it becomes her with the same artistic charm as the sterner roles.

Tomorrow's feature will be H. B. Warner in "The Man Who Turned White."

Circle Theater

Wallace Reid has the part to which he is best suited in his latest Paramount Picture, "Too Many Millions," which will be shown at the Circle theater tonight. As Walsingham Van Dorn, he is first shown as a poor young man trying to make a living selling books. Then comes a bolt from the blue. Two wealthy skintiff uncles of his are suddenly killed in a motor accident and Walsingham finds himself the possessor of a cool forty millions of dollars by the terms of their will.

The cool forty millions, however, make things warm for Walsingham. In the first place a beautiful young woman, Miss Desiree Lane, shows up and tells him that two millions of the money belongs to her, that his uncles robbed her father of it and caused his death. The next thing to happen is the discovery that Van Dorn's confidential agent, Wilkins, has fled with the forty millions.

Taking the girl, Van Dorn goes in pursuit of him in a motor car. They stop for gasoline and while they are at a garage officers take the car away from them. He and Desiree go to a nearby inn for the night, and at dawn the inn catches fire and they barely escape with their lives. Then Van Dorn and Desiree marry and the bridegroom takes a job in the garage to pay for the gasoline.

They like the life so well that they live on in the little village quite happily for two years with no money except what Van Dorn earns. Then Wilkins unexpectedly appears and offers to return the forty millions of money, but they hesitate to take it. What would you have done?

A Sunshine comedy will be on the same bill.

HARD TO FIND WILLARD CASH IN TOLEDO, OHIO

At Least a Million in Fight City Waiting to be Wagered.

SOME OF THE BETS MADE

One Man Came With $100,000 to Bet On Jack—Today He Has Only Placed $2,000 of It.

Toledo, O., July 2.—If you know of anyone who wants to wager at even money that Jess Willard triumphs over Jack Dempsey on July 4, "shove" him into Toledo.

Then you'll be obliging at least one of the several thousand persons who yearn with feverish yearning to plunge on the challenger.

Lots of Dempsey Cash.

At least $1,000,000 Dempsey money is in cold storage here held for even money. It is the fear of the Dempseyites that unless they offer about 2 to 1 on the "Utah mauler" they won't get even a small portion of it placed. And they are holding off breaking their offerings below even money, hoping that late arrivals may bring tons of Willard cash.

Meeting All Trains.

The great Toledo game just now is locating a man with money who wants to stake it on the champion at even money. Some of the big plungers have even gone so far as to offer commissions to any one who will steer their way a man who wants to stick a bankroll on the champ.

And more than that. Some of those who like Dempsey and are keen to back him, are going to the extreme now of meeting all incoming trains, and hawking their offers on even money just like a sandwich vender would hawk his wares.

What's the matter anyway? queries Charley Chrysler, of Chicago, who brought $100,000 to stick on Dempsey. "Here we are offering even money on the smaller man—and no one wants it. Never before in fight history has a champion been less than two to one. Now he's even money—and no one wants him."

Some of the Bets.

Those who have failed to get down straight bets on the outcome of the clash, are offering freak wagers. Here are a few:

$2,000 to $6,000—or any part—that Dempsey knocks out Willard.

$1,000 to $5,000 that Willard won't answer the call of the bell for the seventh round.

$2,000 to $10,000 that Dempsey knocks out Willard in three rounds or less.

$500 to $1,000 Dempsey wins decision, (either decision or knockout), in eight rounds.

$750 to $1,000 there is a knockout.

$750 to $1,000 that fight goes at least eleven rounds.

$100 to $2,000 Dempsey knocks out Willard in the first round.

"I came here two weeks ago prepared to bet $100,000 on Dempsey," declared Chrysler. "I thought the town would be filled with Willard money—and I figured on getting at least ten-for every seven of mine. Such offers found no takers. Gradually I boosted the odds until they were at even money. And, now—two days before the fight—only $2,600 of my $100,000 has been placed. That's the first bet in the entire ring game which made the challenger for the heavyweight championship a favorite."

Although there is not much straight betting there is a fair sort of play on the pari-mutuels. The idea is to pick the round which you think will end the fight. If you are lucky in your picking, it doesn't matter which man wins, you cash your bet. The money bet on all the rounds is pooled and split pro-rata among the holders of winning tickets.

The mutuel play is on the $2 basis, but $5, $10 and $20 tickets are sold as well as $25.

Pari-Mutuel Bets.

Up to the present time, the mutuel betting on the rounds, is as follows:

1st, $6; 2nd, $6; 3rd, $10; 4th, $11; 5th, $13; 6th, $68; 7th, $81; 8th $10; 9th, $41; 10th, $19; 11th $14.

If you want to bet on the twelfth round you must name your man. Wagering on the 12th round shows $177 on Dempsey and $170 on Willard.

The postings show about $750 bet in the mutuel machine. If the fight should end in the first round the three men to whom the tickets have been sold, purchased at $2,—would get back $250. PRESIDENT TO BE MET BY ENTIRE U. S. FLEET

Plans Announced at White House Today—Is Expected on Next Monday.

Washington, July 1.—President Wilson, on his arrival from France, will be met by the full Atlantic fleet, according to tentative plans announced at the White House today. The White House was without any official advice as to the time the George Washington would dock at New York but plans for his greeting were being made on the assumption that it would be on Monday. In the course of the day Secretary Tumulty will be in communication with Rear Admiral Grayson, the President's aide, in an effort to learn when the vessel is supposed to dock.

The committee arranging the welcome home consists of former secretary of the treasury McAdoo, Mayor Hyland of New York, Governor Smith of New York, Judge M. P. Maton, of New York, Secretaries Baker and Daniels and Secretary to the President Tumulty. The members will meet the President a few miles out at sea, going aboard the Pennsylvania, it was said.

It was planned to have the President escorted either to the Metropolitan Opera House, or to Carnegie Hall, where there will be a speech of welcome, with a brief response by the President. It was said that if the President speaks, his talk will be along purely informal lines, and will not touch on the international situation. He will then leave immediately for Washington, aboard a special train.

In the event the George Washington should dock on Sunday, it is planned to ask the President to remain in New York overnight, and have the ceremonies on the following day.

JOHN D. IS HOMELESS.

IN CLEVELAND, ANYHOW.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 2.—It's a hard, hard world. None other than John D. Rockefeller is homeless when he comes to Cleveland. The other day John D. wired that he was tired of Tarrytown and wanted to see Cleveland again. Since the Forest Hill mansion of Rockefeller burned down a year ago the aged millionaire had had no Cleveland "home." His friends got busy immediately, and as one of them expressed it, they had "a deuce of a time" locating a roof "neath which John D. could rest his head after a strenuous game of golf.

TELLS STORY OF CHANGE FROM BOOZE TO "PROHI."

St. Louis, Mo., July 2.—Former Governor Malcolm R. Patterson, of Tennessee, in an address at St. John's Methodist Church here, told the story of his conversion from a "wet" to a "dry."

He pleaded guilty. The case came up on an appeal from the police court where he was sentenced to $50 fine and three months.

ALLIGATOR PARADES THE STREETS—BOOZE BLAMED.

Muncie, Ind., July 2.—A call came to the local police station that an alligator was crawling down Walnut street, the principle thoroughfare of Muncie, but the police, believing some one had been imbibing too freely in a left-over stock of liquor, did not respond. But when repeated calls came in a squad of police was sent out to investigate. It was an alligator, all right. He escaped from a carnival.

BREWS BOOZE AND THEN BEATS WIFE; HE'S JAILED.

Youngstown, Ohio, July 2.—Steve Frenzy tried his hand at "raisin jack" when the state went dry. He brewed a barrel of it. Then he started to drink it. Steve's condition soon corresponded with his last name and he started "raisin' Jack." Then he beat his wife and got six months in the workhouse.

JESS SAYS OPPONENT MAY NOT SHOW UP

Answers Kearns' Statement That Champion is Afraid to Fight.

JACK HAS LITTLE CHANCE

Greatest Set Up Since Corbett Whipped Mitchell, Says Champion—Will Win Easily.

Toledo, O., July 2.—"Some paper had a note in it this morning to the effect that Jack Kearns was afraid that I wouldn't show up on the fourth," said Jess Willard yesterday afternoon...

Dempsey Won't Be There. "Say," he said, raising his eyebrows and jabbing the writer in the ribs, "the funny part of it all is that I'm wondering whether Kearns and Dempsey will be there. You know I've laughed myself to sleep at night thinking of Kearns' gall. The idea of him even thinking that Dempsey has a chance with me."

May Hurt Jack. "I think it's the biggest set up since Corbett beat Mitchell. Can't understand why people bet on Dempsey. He's a good little fellow, but Gosh! What chance has he with a big man like me? I'm afraid I might hurt the young fellow. Honest to goodness I am. Why he's only a little bit bigger than Joe Chip."

Denies Story. "Say, how in the world did that story about me doing road work at night get out, anyway?" he continued as he laced his shoes. "Of all the crazy yarns, ha, ha, ha. Say I think some of those newspaper writers ought to have their heads examined. Some one starts a crazy story and they go right on and write it up as though it was Gospel Truth. They didn't even ask me if it was true. Huh, why should I do road work at night? If I wanted to do it I don't do it in the day time. I don't need road work and therefore, cut it out."

To Use Rabbit Blow. "The rabbit punch? No, that isn't barred. Why should they bar that? I never heard of it being a foul blow. No, I did not agree that it should be barred. If I feel like using it I will but I don't want to hurt that little fellow any more than I have to. That is a tough punch, believe me. Yes, sir, that punch shakes up the old skull."

Phoney Tickets Sold. Frank Flournoy, who is Tex Rickard's partner in the big show, has asked the local police to help him run down the men who are selling phony tickets to the fight. In the past few days quite a number of fake duets have been sold to unsuspecting strangers. Of course, they will not be accepted at the gate and there's going to be an awful roar. Mr. Flournoy says that people buying their tickets at the regular office are safe, but those buying them at other places will have to take their own chances.

Betting is Light. Betting on the fight is extremely light. Around the lobbies even money prevails but very little of that has been seen. Everybody is waiting for inside dope or a tip of some kind and the gab that goes on is a treat. They want to know who is favorite in "Frisco, New Orleans, Detroit and New York, and then they explain why the betting is that way in that town."

Local experts say that Willard took in $20,000 or more at his camp during the training period here. He has been working steadily for a month and has had on an average of 1,200 people a day, with a mob of four and five thousand on Sundays. At two-bits a copy on week days and four bits on Sundays Jess has taken in enough dough to keep him in silk socks for the next 1,500 years.

WEAVERS WIN. The Weaving Mill and Main Omece teams of the Industrial league were scheduled to play Thursday afternoon but played last evening instead. The Weavers winning by the score of 5 to 2.

MRS. GILLIGAN PLEADS GUILTY IN SECOND DEGREE

Famous Case Ends With Sentence of Life Imprisonment for Aged Woman.

Middletown, July 2.—Mrs. Amy E. Archer Gilligan, charged with the murder of Franklin R. Andrews of Cheshire, at her home for aged people in Windsor, on May 30, 1914, pleaded guilty of murder in the second degree, in the Superior Court here yesterday. She was sentenced to the state prison for life.

At her first trial in 1916 Mrs. Gilligan was convicted and sentenced to be hanged. Gov. Holcomb reprieved her and the Supreme Court granted a new trial. Mrs. Gilligan had been on trial in the Superior Court for the last ten days. Change of plea came after a consultation between Benedict Holden, chief counsel for Mrs. Gilligan, and State's Attorney Alcorn. The prosecutor explained to the court that some doubt might exist as to whether Mrs. Gilligan was a free moral agent, because of her use of drugs.

The Court agreed that such doubt might be entertained sufficiently by the jury to cause a second degree verdict. Two days after the death of Andrews, one of her alleged victims, his body was exhumed and traces of arsenic were found in the stomach. In February of the same year Mrs. Gilligan's husband, Michael, died suddenly. His body was also exhumed and arsenic found in his stomach. Mrs. Gilligan was arrested on May 8, 1916. She was convicted on five counts of murder in the first degree. A record obtained at a Windsor drug store showed Mrs. Gilligan had bought a pound of arsenic during the year of 1914 and had bought two ounces of the poison before the death of Andrews and her husband.

The motive for the wholesale poisonings was alleged to have been the woman's desire to collect life insurance the victims had made over to her.

BOY SCOUT BENEFIT PROVES BIG SUCCESS

More Than 700 Attend Lawn Party and Movie Show—Scouts Give Demonstration.

The moving picture entertainment and lawn party held on the South Methodist church lawn last evening for the benefit of Troop 5, Boy Scouts of America, proved both a social and financial success. There was an attendance of about 700 and the Scouts expect to clear in the neighborhood of from $75 to $100. This money will go towards their summer camp this month.

The crowd began to gather about seven o'clock. At 7.30, the Salvation Army band, accompanied by some of the Scouts, carrying signs advertising the event, marched down Main street to the church lawn and gave a concert during the evening. In the meantime, the Boy Scouts busied themselves selling ice cream cones, pop corn and Cracker Jack. There was a good demand for all the sweets, but the ice cream cones seemed to have the call, more than 15 gallons of cream being sold.

Just before the moving picture entertainment started, five Scouts from Troop 3 gave a Scout drill on the south lawn. They put up a 7x12 tent in quick time and afterwards gave an exhibition of first aid work. The boys taking part in the demonstrations were Harold Burr, Henry Tilden, Norbert House, James McKay and James Barr.

At the moving picture entertainment, two five-reel productions were shown. "The Adventures of a Boy Scout" was first thrown on the screen. This picture gave a fine example of the Boy Scouts' activities. The other picture was a five act drama entitled "The Little Duchess", with Midge Evans in the leading role. It was 11.15 when the entertainment closed. Harold Germaine, formerly employed at the Circle theater and now working on the Evening Herald as reporter operated the machine for last night's entertainment.

Scout Master Whiting wishes all Scouts who still have tickets on hand or who have not made returns on tickets which they have sold to report at once so that he may determine the total income derived from the lawn festival.
