WARSHIPS ROAR SALUTES AS WILSON AGAIN RETURNS TO UNITED STATES

GIANT DIRIGIBLE WILL START FOR SCOTLAND LATE TONIGHT

Unless a Storm Arises in the Meantime — Planned to Leave This Morning But Work of Overhauling Engines Was Not Finished in Time.

Mineola, L. I., July 8.—The British dirigible R-34 will hoist anchor and start on the 3,000 mile trip back to her base in Scotland between 11 o'clock tonight and five o'clock tomorrow morning, barring unexpected changes in the weather.

This announcement was made this morning by Major J. E. M. Pritchard, in charge of the dirigible over night, following an announcement a few hours earlier that the trans-Atlantic airship could not be made ready for the start this morning.

Work Delayed.
"We could not complete the work of overhauling the engines in time to get away this morning," said Major Pritchard. "There were quite a number of minor troubles with the engines when we arrived. These repairs will be completed before five o'clock tomorrow morning unless the weather reports are extremely bad."

To Watch Weather Reports.
Before the R-34 makes her getaway, the weather reports will be scanned carefully. If the weather appears favorable at the start, Major Scott, the airship's commander, probably will take the southern course, about 400 miles north of the Azores, but if strong winds are blowing in an unfavorable direction she will return over the same route by which she came. She will carry about 1,000 gallons less gasoline on the return trip than on the voyage to America, counting upon westerly winds to push her along.

Officials Get Scared.
British and American aviation officials guarding the R-34 received two distinct scares early today when the rear of the great airship twice settled to the ground. Once the rear gondola bumped the earth and it was feared for a moment that the stern of the big ship was about to be seriously damaged. Several men were ordered aboard to release water ballast at the stern. After they had been at work a few minutes the stern rose to a correct position and the danger was over.

After sunrise the big dirigible was brought down and securely lashed to earth to avoid a duplication of yesterday's accident in which her envelope was ripped.
Officers and crew of the R-34 are extremely anxious to get started on the homeward trip. Every hour they stay at Roosevelt Field decreases their chances of getting home, they declared today. The lack of a hangar sufficiently large to house the big ship keeps her constantly exposed to elements and the danger of being broken up through storms and high winds.

The course to be taken on the eastward trip was completely mapped out by the officers today. Weather reports for the next 48 hours are satisfactory. For the first third of the journey the R-34 will ride north-easterly cross winds and for the remainder of the journey will have westerly tail winds, which will greatly increase her speed without increasing the consumption of fuel. The southern steamship lane will be taken, bringing the ship 400 miles north of the Azores.

ASKS ALL ELKS TO OBEY THE PROHIBITION LAWS

Grand Exalted Ruler at Convention Also Asks Members to Pledge Themselves to Fight Bolshevism.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 8.—Members of the Order of Elks must not seek to evade the prohibition law, Bruce A. Campbell, retiring Grand Exalted Ruler, declared in his final report to the National Convention here today.

"Every Elk is entitled to his views as to the propriety of prohibition laws," he said "but as to the question of obedience to them, all Elks can and must have but one opinion and that is that we must in all instances serve the law. "We must also pledge ourselves as steadfastly opposed to Bolshevism and we must pledge ourselves to aid in driving it from the Nation by all lawful means. Commander Evangeline Booth of the Salvation Army, the first woman ever invited to speak before the Grand Lodge, today thanked the Elks for their support of the Salvation Army in the recent campaign.

Los Angeles has dropped out of the contest for the 1920 convention, swinging her support to Chicago, which is the likely winner. In return Los Angeles will be supported by Chicago for the 1921 convention.

THREE WOMEN MIXED UP IN MURDER OF LAWYER

One Killed Him; One Was His Common Law Wife and the Other His Fiancee.

Chicago, July 8.—Three women who figured in the triangle that led to the slaying of Benjamin E. Burr, an attorney, will face each other today before a coroner's jury impaneled to investigate Burr's death.

One of the women is 17 years old, Margaret Seithamier, who killed Burr by firing five shots from a tiny pearl-handled revolver into his body. A second is Mrs. Tillie Sauter, Burr's fiancee, to whom he was to have been married next week. Mrs. Myrtle Westgate Burr, the common law wife of the slain attorney, is the third.

Waited for Victim.
It was because she thought Burr no longer loved her that Miss Seithamier waited for him in his office yesterday with her half sister, Mrs. Marie Hermes, and shot him as he entered. Burr died a few hours later at a hospital.

A Tangled Love Affair.
Testimony at the inquest is expected to reveal further details of Burr's tangled love affairs.

Miss Seithamier expressed no remorse today over the killing of Burr and laughed when informed that he had died of the wounds she inflicted. "He got what was coming to him," the girl told the police. "He made a toy of me and then cast me aside when he no longer cared. I warned him but he would not listen."

KILLED BY AUTO.

Fairfield, July 8.—John Gorham, of Stratford, while waiting for a trolley car opposite the town hall here this afternoon, was struck and killed by an automobile, driven by George Cooley of 308 East 79th street, New York, driver for John Bowman, hotel man of New York City. Cooley was arrested and is held pending an inquest by Coroner Phelan.

LLOYD GEORGE PLANNED TRIAL OF EX-KAISER

English Premier "Put One Over" on Colleagues, is Report.

SUBJECT KEPT SECRET

Wilson So Busy He Left Details of Trial to Others, But Big Three Were in Full Accord.

Paris, July 8.—The decision of Premier Lloyd George, Premier Clemenceau and President Wilson to try the ex-Kaiser for his war crimes in London was described in official circles today as a "gentlemen's agreement." Secretary of State Lansing, after a conference with his associates, is satisfied that the Big Three were in accord upon this matter.

In some quarters the question is being asked: Did not Premier Lloyd George "put one over" on his colleagues in being first to announce publicly that the former Emperor would be arraigned in London? In this same connection it was suggested that President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau were so absorbed with other matters that they left the details of the ex-Kaiser's trial to the British prime minister.

American Not Informed.
The admission in official circles that the Big Three at one of their final meetings agreed to try the former Kaiser in London seems to dispose of all doubts about Premier Lloyd George bluffing. The American delegates are not completely enlightened yet, but they frankly admit that the decision regarding the fate of the former war lord did not necessarily have to be communicated to them. It is explained that the President had so many things on his mind before his departure for home that it is very probable he forgot about the trial of the former German Emperor, or it may be he did not attach as much importance to it as Premier Lloyd George did.

How It Came Up.
The manner in which the question was said to have been raised by Mr. Lloyd George at a meeting of the Big Three is causing much amusement.

"It was characteristic of Lloyd George," is the comment heard on all sides.

The version that is commonly accepted is that Premier Lloyd George suggested to his colleagues that the ex-Kaiser be tried in London.

Thereupon Premier Clemenceau and President Wilson assumed an attitude of indifference. It is generally understood that Premier Clemenceau and President Wilson both objected to the former Kaiser being tried in Paris.

Then the suggestion was made that he be tried in Washington and President Wilson again objected. The suggestion of Premier Lloyd George that he arraigned in London afforded the solution.

BURGLAR BOUND OVER.
Bridgeport, July 8.—John Mitchell, a negro, was bound over to the superior court here today on a charge of robbing Kleinberger's pawnshop in this city. Mitchell served a ten-year sentence for killing a man in a race riot in Atlanta in 1903.

TO BRICKS FOR THIEVES.
Dayton, O., July 8.—Score another one for "variety." In one night the blotter at the Dayton Police Headquarters shows that thieves took everything from the family bottle of milk from the front doorstep to a load of bricks from the premises of a man who was building a new house.

SENATOR NEW'S SON WILL BE CHARGED WITH MURDER TODAY

Confessed to Slaying His Fiancee While on an Auto Ride.

PASSES SLEEPLESS NIGHT; CURIOUS ABOUT GALLOWS

Autopsy to be Performed On Girl's Body This Afternoon—Nurse's Story Will Aid Police Investigation.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 8.—Harry S. New, Jr., confessed slayer of his 20 year old fiancee, Freda Lesser, in lonely Topanga Canyon early Saturday morning, will be formally charged with first degree murder today. The complaint will be asked for following the autopsy on the body of Freda Lesser and the inquest this afternoon.

Spends Sleepless Night.
New spent another sleepless night, haunted by visions of the dead girl. He is near collapse and may not be able to stand the ordeal of the inquest as he had slept little or none since he was arrested at 3.30 Saturday morning when he brought the body of his victim to the police station and calmly announced he had murdered his sweetheart.

Doubly Guarded.
Owing to threats that have been made against the life of New by friends of the dead girl, a special guard of detectives has been asked for him today at the autopsy and inquest. New is not afraid, however, declaring he would welcome death. He said today he was sorry he had not turned the gun upon himself after shooting his sweetheart.

Asks About Gallows.
During the night he continually consulted the jailer and, special guard that is kept with him always to prevent him taking his life, about gallows, how they are constructed in California and how long it takes death to come after the trap is sprung.

New was represented by an attorney, John Richardson, today. He has not given up hope that Senator New, of Indiana, who he claims as his father, will come to his aid. "My father always helped me," he said, "and he will not stand aside at this moment in my life. He will not stand aside and see my mother fight for my life practically helpless and penniless, how I hate to face my mother when she arrives tomorrow."

Investigating Case.
Whether the whole fabric of the story told by New regarding the condition of Freda Lesser was to be torn away will be decided at the autopsy to be performed on the body of the girl at 1.30 this afternoon by Dr. A. F. Wagner, county surgeon. If New's statement that the girl was to have become a mother is proven true, a nurse whose name the police have and who, according to his story, influenced the girl to spurn marriage and consent to undergo an operation, will be forced to detail the story Miss Lesser told her. This story may throw an entirely new light upon the case. A nurse giving her name as Miss Saunders and who lives near the home of Mrs. Alice Lesser, mother of the slain girl, admitted she is the woman New referred to and gave out a statement that the report that Miss Lesser was in a delicate condition before she met death was false.

ADMIRAL VON TIRPITZ IS TO BE TRIED ALSO

Former Head of Germany's Navy Responsible for U-Boats.

DEATH PENALTY POSSIBLE

To Be Tried in London in Open Court With Other Accused Naval Officers.

London, July 8.—Former admiral Von Tirpitz, who was responsible for Germany's war of sea frightfulness with her submarines, will be among the accused German naval officers demanded for trial, the Times stated today. He will be accused of violation of International law.

Some Suggestions.
Many prominent persons are sending letters to the press making suggestions for the trials. Sir Ryder Haggard the novelist believes the German naval officers should be tried before court martial. In his letter he says: "Let the submarine commanders and other German murderers, who were instruments of German frightfulness, be dealt with under martial law on sea or wherever they carried out their crimes."

The Daily Mail understands that Von Tirpitz and other offenders will be tried in open court and that it will have power to inflict the death penalty. The government, it is likely to change the place of detention of the former Kaiser and it is possible that if a suitable "prison residence" can be found near Epsom, he may be detained there, being carried back and forth to the trial room in a closed automobile.

CONGRESS RECONVENES; WAITS WILSON'S RETURN

President to Address Senate on Thursday—Speech to be a 5,000 Word Document.

Washington, July 8.—Congress reconvened today after a six day recess of both houses. With President Wilson scheduled to address the Senate on Thursday, when he will present the treaty of Versailles, with the League of Nations covenant incorporated, together with the Franco-American pact, there remained but two days for opponents of the League and of the pact to continue the verbal warfare they have waged for the past two months.

The President's address, which is reported to be a 5,000 word document, was being awaited with keen anticipation by both Administration Senators and those who have lined up in opposition. Whether, in view of the almost solid opposition of the Republican ranks to the League of Nations his speech would be conciliatory in tone, or whether it would be couched in sharper language was being made a question for considerable speculation today.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.
England Pays Homage to Capt. Fryatt's Memory.

London, July 8.—England today paid homage to the memory of Captain Fryatt, the British skipper who was put to death by the Germans in Belgium for trying to ram a "U" boat with his unarmed merchant ship. Scenes recalling the funeral of Miss Edith Cavell, here were enacted just before noon when Capt. Fryatt's body arrived at the Charing Cross station and was borne along the Thames embankment to St. Paul's church where solemn services were conducted in the presence of a vast throng.

New York, July 8.—Escorted by five dreadnaughts and a number of destroyers, the transport George Washington, bearing President Wilson home from Europe, steamed up New York Bay amid the booming of battleship salutes.

As the George Washington, conveyed by the Oklahoma and the four destroyers which had accompanied her from Brest, arrived off the lights, they were met by the dreadnaughts, Pennsylvania, Utah, Delaware and North Dakota which formed two lines through which the transport passed.

The big guns of the Pennsylvania, flagship of Admiral Wilson, commanding the Atlantic fleet, roared in salute as the George Washington came abreast, with the Presidential party all on deck. Then the Utah, Delaware and North Dakota broke forth with 21-gun salutes.

The Pennsylvania, carrying Vice-President Marshall, members of the Cabinet and a delegation of Democratic congressmen, headed by Champ Clark, swung about the George Washington in a wide circle and took the lead, heading up the upper bay.

Several out-going vessels blew their fog horns frantically as they passed the procession making its way up the bay under sunny skies with more than 2,000 overseas "doughboys," hanging from the rigging and sides of the Presidential transport and responding to salutes with wild cheers.

The Welcoming Party.
The main welcoming party that boarded the Pennsylvania from a destroyer included Vice-President and Mrs. Marshall, Secretary of the Treasury Glass, Secretary of War Baker, Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels, Secretary of Labor Wilson and Mrs. Wilson, under Secretary of State Polk, former Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and Mrs. McAdoo, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Sayre, son-in-law and daughter of the President and a committee of Democratic congressmen.

Salute of 21 Guns.
As the George Washington passed abreast the dreadnaughts, they were to fire a salute of 21 guns in the President's honor. Then they were to swing about and escort the transport to the harbor, the Pennsylvania, flying the pennant of Admiral Wilson, commander in chief of the Atlantic fleet, leading the way, with the George Washington directly astern, flanked on one side by the dreadnaughts Oklahoma and Utah and on the other by the Delaware and North Dakota.

New York state and New York city reception committees were to meet the George Washington off Quarantine.

Ports to Boom Welcome.
The guns of Fort Hancock and later of Forts Hamilton and Wadsworth and Governor's Island will boom greetings to the President as the transport makes its way up the harbor.

The George Washington is scheduled to dock at Hoboken at about 1 o'clock this afternoon, where thousands of school children will greet the President. The streets of Hoboken and the route the Presidential party will take up Fifth Avenue to Carnegie Hall were bedecked with flags and bunting.

To Speak in N. Y.
The President is expected to begin his Carnegie Hall address at about 2.30 p. m. Admission was by ticket only and it was certain that the hall would be jammed to its capacity. President Wilson will leave for Washington immediately after the speech.

In addition to the President and

Mrs. Wilson, French Ambassador Jusserand and Mme. Jusserand are returning to the United States aboard the George Washington. The transport is bringing 2,644 soldiers.

WHAT LONDON SAYS.

London, July 8.—With President Wilson due to land in New York today, the London press is devoting considerable space to the attitude of the American people on Mr. Wilson's peace principles.

"President Wilson's defeat by the American people would be an international disaster," said the Daily News in its leading editorial. This paper declared that it is now the President's task to justify the peace treaty and the League of Nations before the American people.

GIRLS' COTTAGE BURNS AT STORRS COLLEGE

Dormitory at Connecticut Agricultural College Destroyed By Fire.

Grove Cottage, a girls' dormitory at Connecticut Agricultural College, burned down shortly after noon today. The cause of the fire is unknown. This is the second building to be destroyed by fire at Storrs within a week. A barn was burned last Sunday.

Several Manchester girls had rooms at Grove Cottage. No one is reported as having been injured in the fire.

TEST OF THE "DRY" LAW BEGUN IN NEW HAVEN

By Agreement Meriden Saloonkeeper Sells Quart of Whiskey to Department of Justice Agent.

New Haven, July 8.—The test of the constitutionality of the war time prohibition law as it affects the sale of spirituous and intoxicating liquors, was begun in the United States District Court here this afternoon before Judge T. L. Chatfield, of Brooklyn, N. Y., when, by agreement Stephen A. Minery, a saloonkeeper of 32 Railroad Avenue, Meriden, was arraigned on a charge of selling a bottle of Wilson Rye Whiskey to Special Agent Grimes, of the Department of Justice at his place of business, in violation of the war time prohibition act. Attorneys Arnon N. Ailing and W. A. King, counsel for the liquor interests, filed a demurrer attacking the constitutionality of the prohibition act and Judge Chatfield fixed Saturday at 10 a. m., as the time for hearing arguments on the demurrer.

Minery was remanded into the custody of United States Marshal Hayes pending the determination of the case.

SAILORS INJURED.

Explosion On Board Warship Off Boston.

Boston, July 8.—Acting Gunner Mate N. H. Nesmith, and Mess Attendant I. H. Huntington were seriously burned by an explosion of gun cotton primers on board the U. S. S. Ossipee 123 miles off Boston. It was announced at the Navy Yard today that the Ossipee was bound from Halifax when the explosion took place and immediately sent out an "S. O. S." call. The destroyer Stebens left here within an hour's notice. The destroyer met the Ossipee 100 miles off shore and taking off the two injured men hurried them to the Chelsea Hospital.

TO VOTE TOMORROW.

Berlin, July 8.—(Via London, July 8).—The German national assembly is scheduled to vote Wednesday upon acceptance or rejection of the peace treaty, the federal committee having approval ratification of the pact today. Dr. Herman Mueller, the foreign minister, will address the assembly upon Germany's foreign policy when the vote is taken. Dr. Bauer, the Premier, will deliver an important speech on Thursday on domestic questions.

WEAVERS WIN.

Defeat Ribbon Mill 11-5 in Industrial League Game.

The Weavers defeated the Ribbon Mill team of the Industrial baseball league yesterday afternoon by the score of 11 to 5. Harry White of the Weaving Mill team featured with the stick work, making a two bagger and a three bagger. Sam McKee made a three bagger for the Ribbon Mill. The batteries were: Vittner and Johnson for the Ribbon Mill; Ceryni and Hayden for the Weavers.

AMERICA'S ISOLATION ENDED ELKS ARE TOLD

Senator Edge, of New Jersey
Makes Speech on Americanism.

ELKS DENOUNCE RED FLAG

Delegates Declare They Will Never Hold Convention in Chicago While
Thompson is Mayor.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 8.—Senator Walter E. Edge, of New Jersey, declared today in an address at the opening of the convention of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks that the arrival of the R-34 was another proof that America's isolation was no more. The nation must enter the "international corporation," he said, but not as "a minority stockholder," nor in the manner of variance with "home-made" Americanism.

"The American people, I believe, are opposed to America being a minority stockholder in an international corporation," he said, "yet they see the necessity of the corporation as a protector of peace and they have no objection to America occupying in that corporation a position which is consistent with home-made Americanism and, at the same time, with American duty toward the world. The necessity for the non-partisan, impersonal attitude of everybody, official and private citizen, was not more urgent during the war than it is in the crucial period of peace."

Bruce A. Campbell, retiring grand exalted ruler of the order, delivered a patriotic address upon the necessity of undivided loyalty to America, in which he said:

"As we teach Americanism let us drive from our midst every element opposed to it and every person who does not give full and undivided allegiance to our country, its institutions and its flag, and is not willing to subordinate everything to the one idea of free and democratic government and leave America for those who believe in but one flag."
"In a government like ours we have no place for the man of divided allegiance. We have no place for the hyphenate not for the red flag, nor for the anarchist, the I. W. W., nor the Bolshevik. We pledge our order to drive them from our midst and to leave in America only Americans, wherever born, who love our institutions and will preserve our traditions and ideals."

The election of a grand exalted ruler will take place tomorrow. Late reports indicated that Frank L. Rain, of Fairbury, Neb., had an advantage over the independent candidate for the office.

Boston delegates who arrived today were aroused at sight of great posters setting forth the advantages of Chicago as the site of the 1920 convention. No city of which William H. Thompson was mayor was eligible, the Boston men declared.

AUSTRIA MAY BE TAKEN INTO LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Has Already Made Application—
Matter to be Decided in Washington in October.

Paris, July 8.—Austria may be admitted into the League of Nations at the meeting in Washington in October. That was the situation today upon the eve of the presentation of the remaining peace terms to the Austrian delegation. Austria had already made application for admission to the League, and was informed that, if she showed good faith, she would be admitted soon.

WHAT IS "WIVES OF MEN"?

It played to capacity for two full weeks at the large Casino Theater, New York City. It stars Florence Reed, one of the finest emotional actresses on stage or screen. The story forcibly presents how both the upper and lower classes live in New York City. It is a special seven-part feature that is packed full of action with a real surprise finish. The story is one that will awaken the interest at the very start and hold it until the final fade out. Massive settings of great splendor are contrasted with the sordid surroundings of the East Side. The supporting cast includes that sterling actor, Frank Mills, in a wonderfully effective role. All of the Metropolitan newspaper critics gave this production their undivided praise and the public flocked to see it.

NORWAY WANTS ISLANDS IN THE ARCTIC OCEAN

Makes Formal Claim for Possession of Spitzbergen—Also Seeks Reparation for Ships Sunk.

Paris, July 8.—The Norwegian government has laid formal claim before the peace conference for possession of Spitzbergen, it was learned today.

(Spitzbergen comprises a group of islands in the Arctic Ocean. They are not permanently inhabited and have not been claimed by any particular nation. It is understood they hold rich mineral deposits.)

The Norwegian government has also asked the peace conference to secure for it reparation for ships and seafarers lost as a result of Germany's submarine warfare. The matter was referred to the reparations committee.

SON OF SENATOR NEW CHARGED WITH MURDER

New of Indiana tonight issued the following statement regarding the arrest in Los Angeles on a charge of murder of Harry S. New, who claims he is a son of the senator:

"I have just this to say about this whole deplorable matter. More than 30 years ago when I was in my 20's and unmarried, I knew Mrs. Burger. There was never at any time a question of marriage between us. Conditions arose which I did not care to dispute which resulted in my doing everything in my power to make amends then and later. Whatever I did in that direction was of my own accord, and no one else had anything whatever to do with it. The affair was ended 30 years ago. Since that time the people of my home city are the best judges of what my life has been. I never have shirked any responsibility that has come to me, and I never shall."

ROME QUIET.

Anarchists Who Plotted to Seize Supplies, Arrested.

Rome, July 8.—This city is quiet following the arrest of anarchists who were plotting to seize public supplies and establish a reign of terror among the population by use of explosives. The police raided an anarchist meeting and made ten arrests.

Later another group of plotters went to Pietra Alata Fort, outside of the city, and attempted to induce Arditi troops to desert, but were fired upon. The soldiers left the fort and arrested many of the anarchist band.

HAS NOT RESIGNED

Washington, July 8.—"There is absolutely no truth in the story which has been spread broadcast over the country today that I have resigned as Postmaster General. You may deny it flatly and I will be obliged to you."

The Postmaster General made this statement shortly before noon over the telephone to an International News Service representative.

A son, George Louis, Jr., has been born to Mr. and Mrs. George L. Graziadio, of North Main street. The child was born at the home of Mrs. Graziadio's parents in Dobsonville.

Manchester Grange will meet with Mrs. Frank Pinney of Walker street tomorrow evening.

AUTO FLINGS YOUTH BEFORE TROLLEY CAR

Quick Action of Motorman
Saves Life of James Smith.

BOY SEVERELY BRUISED

Driver of Auto Reported Accident to Police and Did What He Could to Aid Victim.

James Smith, fourteen year old adopted son of Henry De Forge who conducts a barber shop at 131 Center street miraculously escaped death yesterday afternoon near the corner of Orchard and Center streets, when he was struck by a Buick run-a-bout owned and driven by William M. Meek a paper salesman residing at 375 Blue Hills avenue, Hartford. The youngster was hurled fifty feet into the air, landing almost directly in the path of an approaching trolley, which was stopped by its motorman a short distance from the lad. The boy's father was a witness to the hair breadth escape.

Young Smith had been sent to the vicinity of Adams street on an errand by his father. He boarded a Manchester bound trolley at this station, alighting from the car at the junction of Church and Center streets. As the car started to move he darted across the street. The driver of the Buick which was proceeding down Center street in a westerly direction sighted the lad as the trolley passed by and applied the emergency brake.

The intervening distance between the lad and the car was too short however and the lad was caught by the left fender of the car, in a peculiar manner. His head struck the hood and he was hurled through the air about fifteen feet. He landed on the trolley track and was directly in the path of the coming express. Mr. DeForge said at this time he turned his head practically convinced that the boy did not have a ghost of a show. The motorman stopped his car but a few feet away.

Bystanders state that Mr. Meek stopped his auto within 15 feet of the spot. He hustled back and with the aid of neighbors picked the lad up, placed him in his car and carried him to the DeForge residence. He then went in search of a physician, finally locating Dr. Harry Sharpe who made a thorough examination of the lad's injuries.

When the boy was picked up a large abrasion on his head was noticeable and he was also severely cut on the right hip. The hood of the Buick showed a fair sized dent and it was thought that the injured lad might have received a fractured skull. Dr. Sharpe's examination disclosed the fact that no bones were broken. It was anticipated last evening that an X-ray photograph would be taken today in order to ascertain whether or not any internal injuries had developed.

Mr. Meeks reported the accident to Chief of Police Samuel S. Gordon and also told his side of the story. The Chief is conducting an investigation. Mr. Meeks left word that everything be done for the lad's comfort.

The boy was resting as comfortably as could be expected this afternoon. The bruises to his hip and leg have proved to be especially severe.

PAUL CUSTER.

Paul Custer, a well known resident of Manchester, died at his home on 26 Clinton street yesterday afternoon, death being due to double pneumonia which developed from an attack of influenza contracted by the deceased in the spring and which had confined him to his home since that time.

Mr. Custer was a former member of Company G, and was also prominently connected with the local lodge of Foresters. He was 33 years of age and is survived by a widow and three children.

WANTS MONITORS.

Vienna, July 8.—(Via London, July 8).—Bela Kun, Red dictator of Hungary, today demanded that Serbia return the monitors which the counter revolutionaries took into Serbian waters when the counter uprising at Budapest failed. The monitors had been lying among a group of islands in the Danube south of Budapest when the uprising collapsed.

FOUR SOLDIER BROTHERS RECEIVE WELCOME HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Cain Mahoney Give Elaborate Party in Honor of Returning Sons—Family Reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Cain Mahoney of Walnut street gave a welcome home party last evening in honor of their four sons, who served in the World War. The gathering also was a family reunion, it being the first time in five years that all of Mr. and Mrs. Mahoney's children had been with them at the same time. They have eight children. The four sons who served in the war are Sergeant Paul J. Mahoney, who is still in the service and is stationed at Fort Slocum; Cain Jr., who served in the 32d Division with the Army of Occupation; Raymond, who served with the Headquarters Company at Camp Devens and Walter, who served 22 months overseas, first in Company M, 102d Infantry and later with the 502d Engineers. Walter returned home a week ago today. The other children are Mrs. Roland Meyer of Collinsville, Frank J. Mahoney of this town and Grace and William, who live at home.

About 60 guests attended the party last evening. The lawn was illuminated with electric lights and Japanese lanterns and an orchestra furnished music for dancing on the lawn. During the evening, refreshments were served.

TAGGING THE BASES

"Home Run" Baker did it again. He got his customary circuit swat in the ninth with one on and placed the Yanks in a position from which they emerged winners.

Peckinpaugh hit safely for 28 consecutive games.

Benny Kauff moved into the circle of batters. Benny gathered 4 hits in 8 times up and is now fifth in the honor column with an average of .314.

By taking a double header from the Phillies the Giants moved back into the National league lead. It also meant five straight from the sleepy town bunch for the McGrawites.

NOT ALL DEAD YET.

Columbus, Ohio, July 8.—Yose Contifotes, a cook, has been saving his money for years and had $2,000 saved up. He met Charles Landis, to whom he confided the facts regarding his finances. Landis was interested and told Yose he could make $40,000 out of his $2,000. Landis had a machine in his possession and told Yose to put in a $1 bill. Yose did and when Landis turned the crank a $20 bill came out. Yose was filled with overflowing confidence when $200 had been "made." Then he invested his $2,000 with Landis and two other men. The two escaped. Landis is in jail and Yose is starting another savings account out of his wages.

THIRTY YEARS A GUARD.

Ossining, N. Y., July 8.—John Derrenbacher, for thirty years a keeper in Sing Sing prison, has been retired on a pension. He served under fifteen different wardens and never was charged with anything that reflected upon his record for efficiency. Derrenbacher has guarded hundreds of murderers, robbers and looters, including some of the most notorious prisoners of the last three decades.

MILKING THE COCOANUT.

The coconut patented by N. Gunturiz, a Cuban, is designed for withdrawing the milk from coconuts. It is a hammer with a tubular head sharpened at one end, and its blow cuts a clean round hole through the shell and meat of the nut. The circular piece removed in the punch is pushed out by a piston leaving the tool cleared for the next cut.

WILL FORM UNION OF PROFESSIONAL WORKERS.

London, July 8.—The Society of Technical Engineers is forming a union of brain-workers, beginning with engineers, and extending in time to all ranks of qualified men, including doctors, scientists and chemists, and embracing buyers, experts and managers of businesses and industries. Employers are ineligible, and manual workers are to be left to their own unions.

It has been calculated that there are at least 500,000 men coming within the scope of the new union. There is to be no interference with existing societies. The movement is political and industrial. It aims at giving the men whose knowledge is essential to the success of great undertakings a voice in all disputes and a place in industrial councils.

MEN, GET YOUR CORSETS; ALSO TAN POWDER PUFFS

Paris Has Spoken and it is But for Me! Men to Obey—Other Masculine Fads.

Paris, June 20.—(By mail)—Wasp waists for men are the thing in Paris this spring. Corsets may or may not be worn but the coat must make an elegant curve at the waistline. A few dandies are sporting a skirt-like flow below the waist, but Andre de Fouquieres, the beau brummel of the town for ten years, declares that the smartest men discard the skirts and have the bottom of the coat clinging tightly around the hips.

More startling than the masculine waistline is a post-war addiction to dandies to face powder. Many men are now using the powder puff, dabbing themselves quite openly with tan powder which gives the appearance of trench burn to drawing room habits.

COLORADIANS PLANT TREES IN MEMORY TO FALLEN

San Diego, Cal., July 8.—Colorado people living at San Diego have taken up plans with the American Forestry Association at Washington for the planting of memorial trees at Camp Kearny, near here, in honor of the Colorado soldiers who passed through that camp. The trees will be registered in the national honor roll of the American Forestry Association.

AND THE JUDGE IS STILL PONDERING THE MATTER.

New York, July 8.—"Ha!" said Detective William Kelly, a plain-clothes man from Central Office "I'll just follow this bird and nab him the minute he starts." The sleuth had been watching a man in the subway who kept edging close to prosperous looking people with his eyes on their pockets. For two hours the game of hare and hounds was pursued through the maze of New York's subways. The suspect changed trains twenty times during that period, always with the gumshoe artist on his heels. The game began to get tiresome. The suspect would edge right up to an inviting pocket and then shy away as if warned by some sixth sense. "I'll take him, anyway," decided Kelly. He did.

"Judge," said the suspect when arraigned, "I tried to explain to this bird a thousand times that I'm William Klein, employed by the Interborough Rapid Transit Company to watch for pickpockets. But he said: 'Tell it to the Judge', and now I'm telling you."

SMOKING CARS FOR WOMEN.

New York, July 8.—Smoking cars for women will be run on some of the Eastern roads within the next few years, local railroad men predict. The vestibules and observation platforms on many trains running to New England during the college commencement period this year were filled to overflowing with young girls and women puffing cigarettes.

'HUB' SELLS 2.75 BEER.

Boston, July 8.—Beer and ale of the 2 3/4 per cent variety was once more flowing through the taps of more than 450 Boston bars today. Boston's drought of a week was broken following a warning issued by assistant United States district attorney Goldberg that the sale of malt liquors containing more than 1/2 of one per cent alcohol constituted a violation of wartime prohibition. Dealers declared that the 2 3/4 per cent beer and ale was not intoxicating. A test case will be brought before the court.

THIEF STEALS THE CHIEF'S GUN AND LOCK TO CELL.

Hingham, Mass., July 8.—Chief of police James said today he expected almost anything of James Elwood, 23, of Atlantic City, N. J., who was arrested charged with stealing the automobile and clothing of a party of bathers, leaving them stranded on Nantucket Beach. But the chief did not count on Elwood taking "dutch leave" from police headquarters and carrying with him the cell lock and the chief's pet revolver. This, however, is what Elwood did. A general alarm for the arrest of the young man was sent out today.

AT THE GANG PLANK.

Good afternoon, Mr. President. We are glad to see you back. Very glad to see you back.

You went away against the advice of most of us but of course that was a matter that you could decide best. Anyhow, we are anxious to hear all about your trip and especially to get a little better look at that large document you are carrying labeled "Treaty of Peace." Senator Borah heard you were going to get, up some such thing and he tried to beat you to it by publishing a little treaty all his own but it didn't have much of a go over here. We understand he is working on another and more original volume to be entitled "Confessions of a Politician or How I Talked Myself to Death."

A lot of things have happened over here, Mr. President, in the seven months you have been away. A good many fellows are back home and out of the army now. You will find them about the hardest men to fool in the country. And you will also find them the most willing to take hold and lend a hand in any good job that needs doing.

We have had quite a time with some men who think that the best way to find a solution for our national problems is to blast a few homes with dynamite and kill some of our leading citizens. We wish you would do something to hurry up that Department of Justice of yours and see why it is that none of these gentlemen have been asked to explain their theories of government in some of our federal courts.

We have even had a visit from another "President" in your absence. He calls himself the head of the "Irish Republic" but you will best remember him as a leader of that band of misguided men who went under the name of Sinn Fein. They are the men who loved liberty so much that they were willing to sell themselves and their country into German slavery in order to attain it.

But, interesting as things have been here at home, Mr. President, we have been most interested in the things you were doing over in Paris. Nothing that has taken place elsewhere in the world can be compared with that for importance. Say, you've got a tough time coming to you when you hit the United States Senate. But then, you've had Senators to deal with before and you ought to know them pretty well. Come in and have a glass of—of— Say, that's another thing that happened while you were away.

EUROPE'S NEIGHBOR.

While we are praising the heroes of the R-34 for their splendid voyage across the Atlantic it may be well to give a thought to the military significance of the event. The giant airship came from a friendly country and its arrival has justly been made the occasion of handsome compliments between Englishmen and Americans. But one shudders at the thought of what might be the result of a visit from some hostile R-34, manned with a crew of aerial fighters and loaded with terrible bombs filled with a modern explosive composition or with deadly gas.

Dirigibles can easily fly far out of range of the largest anti-air craft batteries and at long distances the accuracy of this branch of artillery is so doubtful as to give little concern to a raiding party. The dirigible would come quickly; it would arrive unannounced; efficient defense would be impossible, as London found to its sorrow, and the destruction along our city lined shores would be incalculable.

The plain and inescapable fact is that the Atlantic is no longer a barrier behind which the United States can hope for protection from possible European conflicts. Our shores have already largely been raided by under-seas craft which set out from Europe. Twice the Atlantic has been crossed in less than 16 hours by heavier than air machines and now it is about to be re-crossed by the lighter than air R-34. These are facts which it will be rather difficult to overlook when next we are urged to keep aloof from Europe and preserve "American isolation."

A FAILING GAME.

(Bridgeport Times.)
 The fight between Willard and Dempsey came about as near to swindling the American public as anything can which fails to attain the legal definition of a swindle. Willard, a great hulk of a man, with a heart out of tune with his size, never had been a great fighter, and in this contest entered the ring entirely unfit to fight. The men who managed Willard, everybody who had anything to do with the affair, including the newspaper correspondents knew that Willard belongs on a farm not in a prize ring.

This knowledge was reflected in the betting, in the news that was sent from training quarters, and in the facts as they existed. It was expected that 80,000 Americans would assemble to watch this performance in one sided brutality. Not more than 40,000 came. These saw Willard knocked down seven times in the first round, saw him beaten to a pulp in three rounds. It was not a show, it was a slaughter.

The quicker America unloads the prize fight, the better off America will be. These great national contests do not serve a good purpose. They do not even promote a warlike spirit. The late war proved that gallant soldiers and heroic fighters do not come extensively from the prize rings.

American sports, including that of the prize ring, are alike in one thing. They promote an injurious expertness in a few specialists, and waste the masses of the people without healthful athletic exercise.

HOW GIRLS TALK.

Just before commencement not so long ago a certain high school teacher conducted a lesson which, while not found in any textbook, was of real, practical value to a class of girls about to face the world for the first time as wage-earners.

The lesson was the result of impressions made by conversations overheard in trolley cars, theaters, department stores and other places where young people gather. The pupils were interested and made copious notes, of which a number are quoted below, not, we should judge, in the teacher's own phraseology, but in words to that effect:

1. Don't be a slang artist. Slang is expressive and not always vulgar, but to refer to one's employer as "his nibs", or to a great singer "doing his stunt", is poor form.

2. Don't be an imitation high-brow either. Don't say calisthenics for gymnastics; wealthy for rich; avoid the word elegant as you would the plague; never say "retire" when it is bedtime, and when you use the word "exquisite" place the accent on the first syllable. This word alone is an indication of good breeding or its absence. Miss Blank says so.

3. Don't pervert a perfectly good word to wrong uses, such as homely when you mean ugly. Miss Blank says it gives her cold creeps to hear about a "good-looking girl in a good-looking hat who bought such a good-looking chair." And the woman who says "Loar me a nickel!" may be a model of all the virtues, but her English is far from pure. Should be "lend", you know.

4. Don't use French words unless certain of their pronunciation. The French word most commonly used is "almost invariably" pronounced, "bouquet". If a kind friend sent you flowers at commencement, thank her for the beautiful "bo" (not "bo") kay.

5. Don't mispronounced common words of our own language. Remember that "prune" has one syllable and rhymes with June, despite popular opinion, while the man who put the "o" in percolator, had a thankless job, for nearly everyone changes it to "u."

6. Don't mention "cartoons" of soap or sugar. The newspapers will take care of the cartoons; the word you mean rhymes with Barton.

MAINE "BABIES" CONTAIN TWENTY SMALL BOTTLES.

Portland, Me., July 8.—Eviders of the bone-dry law have adopted a new device with which to smuggle liquor into this state. Huge dolls, such as are given as prizes at county fairs and shore resorts and camouflaged to represent sleeping infants have been pressed into service. Two of them, which it is estimated will hold twenty small bottles of whiskey each, were brought to this city by two men, one attired as a woman and the other posing as a husband, and not long after their arrival the liquor was being sold to men on the streets.

THOUSAND SURGEONS IN ITALY LOST THEIR LIVES.

Rome, July 8.—The Italia Sanitaria, a professional paper, publishes interesting statistics concerning the losses sustained by the Italian Medical Corps during the war. In killed alone these amounted to 1,060 surgeons, a percentage unsurpassed in any of the other Allied armies.

There are numerous victims of shell and rifle fire in the advanced trenches, where the medics fearlessly attended the wounded, and quite a number were bayoneted while operating in camp hospitals, especially during the Caporetto disaster. A considerable percentage of those who lost their lives is represented by surgeons who lost their lives on torpedoed ships.

JESS GOES HOME.

Toledo, July 8.—Back to the farm, Jess Willard, shorn of his crown, but possessor of something over $100,000 as a consolation prize for the loss of the heavyweight title, is speeding back to Lawrence, Kan., in a new automobile bought from the training camp proceeds while here.

Accompanied by his wife and a couple of friends, the champion left here late yesterday. Traces of Dempsey's pounding were apparent.

League of Nations Is Vital Part Of Treaty—Can Not Be Separated

On this page The Herald is printing a series of letters touching every angle of the plan for a League of Nations proposed by the Paris Covenant, now awaiting ratification by the United States Senate. In accordance with the authors' wishes the individual letters are not identified with any one writer.

They are written by:
 William H. Taft, Ex-President of the United States.
 George W. Wickersham, formerly United States Attorney General.

A. Lawrence Lowell, President of Harvard University.
 Henry W. Taft, of the New York Bar.

Article XXVI, the last in Covenant, deals with amendments; and it is singularly free from detail. It does not prescribe any procedure whatever, but merely that amendments shall take effect when ratified by the members of the League whose representatives compose the Council and by a majority of the members of the League whose representatives compose the Assembly. No doubt proposed amendments would be discussed by the Council, and probably also by the Assembly, but this is not obligatory, the only essential thing being that they should be ratified by the nations themselves as stated.

Two facts about this method of amendment may be observed. One of them is that the unanimous assent is required not only of the five large states, but also of the smaller states associated with them on the Council, these last having, so long as they retain their seats on that body all the privileges of the five large nations. The other fact to be noted is that the independent sovereignty of each member of the League is wholly preserved, because it is not bound by any amendment to which it does not freely consent, no matter how overwhelming the majority by which it is adopted. Yet the difficulty met with at the Hague, whereby a few small objectors could block a plan, is avoided by providing that a state which is unwilling to consent to an amendment duly adopted ceases to be a member of the League. It cannot be a party to a Covenant that does not bind all equally, and hence it goes out. This is in accord with the general principle which runs all through the Covenant; that the members as independent sovereign states assume certain definite obligations specifically described, and further concert of action is wholly voluntary on their part.

Plan Basically Sound.
 Probably no two nations, and perhaps no two men, would have drafted the articles for a League of Nations precisely alike, and any such document must in the nature of things involve much compromise. There is abundant evidence of this in the Covenant of Paris, not least in the amendments made to meet objections raised in America, after the draft agreed upon by the representatives of fourteen countries had been presented to the Peace Conference. Those objections seem to have been fully covered by provisions whose meaning cannot reasonably be doubted by any one that believes sincerely in such a League. The principles on which the League is based are sound, and impose the least obligations consistent with the prevention of future wars. The question for a citizen of the United States is not whether the Covenant represents his views precisely, but whether on the whole it is good or not, and whether this country had better accept it or not.

Covenant Basis of Treaty.
 It has been argued that peace with Germany ought to have been made first, and a League of Free Nations organized afterwards. But, quite apart from the fact that a League must be made at the close of this war or the one great opportunity of centuries would be lost, the treaty of peace has made clear, what shrewd observers had foreseen, that the terms of the treaty depend for their maintenance upon a League strong enough to enforce their observance. Beside the articles of the Covenant itself, the treaty of peace contains many provisions for action by the League, and this is necessary. It would otherwise be difficult to execute, for example, the plans for giving to the newly constituted states in central Europe access to the markets of the world through navigable rivers and free ports. In fact the very existence of these new states would be in jeopardy without the moral support of such a League.

Cannot Be Separated.
 The Covenant is, therefore, an essential and integral part of the treaty of peace, not artificially, but by the very nature of the case. They cannot be separated. To cut the Covenant out of the treaty is to amend it, and leave the whole peace to be negotiated over again between thirty-two independent nations. How long this would take, it is impossible to foresee; certainly several months, perhaps longer. During that time Germany would intrigue to bring about disagreements, and meanwhile we should still be in a state of war, and we can not return to the natural course of our peaceful industries and commerce. Are the amendments desired in the Covenant, mainly questions of wording, important enough to warrant the delay and the risk?

The Great Crisis.
 The world stands at a crisis in its history. Chastened by war, it is ready to adopt the principles of arbitration and disarmament, coupled with projects for the amelioration of the lot of mankind, if we will join in a League for the purpose. Shall we do it or not? Shall we allow small things to hinder great ones? Shall we now hold back, or shall we consent?

THE PLEDGE TO FRANCE.

(Meriden Journal.)
 There is rejoicing in France because of the treaty and the solemn pledges that the representatives of Britain of the United States that they will help combat the menace of Germanism, if there should be need. For a great many years the mighty mailed fist of the Prussian war lord has been threatening the very life of the French nation. The people knew what to expect because of the memory of that war nearly a half century ago and that their fears were not groundless is shown by the devastation that the grey Hun hordes caused to the fair land in this war.

France wants nothing but to be certain that she will not again be the victim of the German raider. She wants peace and quietness. She wants her frontiers secure and she does not want to live in constant fear that this German thing will come to life and once more attempt to destroy her.

The pact between the three nations guarantees on the part of both the British and ourselves that we will come to the aid of France, in the event of unprovoked aggression. It does not mean that we shall help keep watch and ward over Germany. It does not mean that we shall have to help France if she begins a war. It does not mean anything except that we shall help, if Germany tries again what she attempted in 1914.

Therefore, there is no reason for distrust of the treaty here, no question but that it should be endorsed. We owe much to France and we should give her our pledge and we should let Germany know that we will aid France if she be attacked.

THEY ARE COMING TO IT IN BRISTOL.

 In considering the matter of a Memorial Hospital vs. an Auditorium it should be remembered that a Hospital is in use and service every day and hour of the year while an auditorium might be used twice a month. From the standpoints of utility, usefulness and public need the Memorial Hospital has by far the best of the argument, and it certainly has many advocates.

NOW COMES "MINERAL HIGHBALL" WITH KICK.
 Boston, July 8.—With a punch that will make a "tired business man feel like an aviator on a hot day," Colonel Roger F. Scannell, a well-known Bostonian, has concocted the "non-tox" highball, carrying with it all the curative minerals of the Malow Spa, in the County Cork, Ireland.

The beauty of the new highball, according to the Colonel, is that the concoction is a real ball. "It has several minerals in it," said Roger, "and just a bit of the best old whiskey."

The formula, he said, was handed down to him by old Dr. Samuel H. Woods, who kept an apothecary shop on Tremont street, opposite King's Chapel, during the Civil War.

The manufacture and consumption of mararoni and vermicelli in China has reached enormous proportions and is still growing.

TOWN JAILS BEING SOLD.
 Altamont, Mo., July 8.—This little town, several years ago, in anticipation of national prohibition, turned its calaboose into a cow stable. Now reports are coming in here that towns nearby are selling their town jails. The city dads here sit back and laugh at their neighbors, who several years ago laughed at Altamont.

BAN KELLERMAN PARADE.
 Dayton, Ohio, July 8.—Bathing suits are not for promenades, but for the water. With this statement the safety director has instructed police that women and men who disport themselves about the streets in the vicinity of Island Park shall be subject to arrest. The would-be Annette Kellermans have been so bold that some of the residents have been really shocked.

LEAGUE IS WAR TRUST SAYS HIRAM JOHNSON

California Senator Declares Covenant Will Lead to Many Wars. HAS NO IDEALISM IN IT

Says It Means That American Boys Must Police the World—Voices Japanese Fear.

Providence, R. I., July 8.—United States Senator Hiram Johnson of California, speaking here tonight, declared that the proposed League of Nations was not in reality an association to prevent war, but "a league of armed nations in a gigantic war trust."

"In its very creation," declared the Senator, "it has been stripped of every idealistic purpose it ever had. It contains within itself the elements of many wars, and worse than that, it rivets, as in the starting decision, the claims of tyranny upon millions of people and cements for all time unjust and wicked annexations."

"This League of Nations, with the men who really wrote it, was meant to obtain peace only in so far as peace maintained forever inviolate their territories and their subject peoples, and it was meant that this kind of peace should be obtained by the exercise of the power and the force of the United States."

Summing up his arraignment of the League covenant, the Senator said:

"In a word, this League means that American boys shall police the world, that all the warring nations of the earth shall be upheld by our blood and our bone, that Europe, Asia and Africa may draw upon us in their every dispute and quarrel, that our nation will be at the mercy of European and Japanese diplomats who never had and never will have any sympathy with our aspirations or our ideal, that we with our glorious past shall guarantee the territorial integrity of every country on earth and the bondage of every suffering people in anguish begging for freedom, that we destroy our Monroe Doctrine and submit controversies to the American hemisphere to determination by foreign powers."

PEOPLE OF MANCHESTER AND VICINITY WILL PROFIT BY WISE, SMITH & CO.'S SEMI-ANNUAL INVENTORY SALE.

Twice every year, in January and July, Wise, Smith & Co., Hartford, have for the past twenty-one years taken inventory of their stocks and accompanied the occasion by an Inventory Sale, marking nearly everything at reduced prices and this year, although the cost of living is higher than ever, the importance of the money savings at the Inventory Sale is greater than ever, simply because people are more economical and thrifty than before the war—So it behooves one not only to procure wanted merchandise now, before further advances in the wholesale market take place, but they should also buy where their money will go the farthest—and if experience is a teacher, the Inventory Sale affords opportunities for money saving that are as unusual as they are important. Every garment of the firm's suit and coat department, without reserve, is marked down in price and throughout the store, whether it is wearing apparel for man, woman or child or wanted articles for the furnishing of the home, you can save money by buying at Wise, Smith & Co.'s Inventory Sale as the firm says in their large announcement, "the money saved at the Inventory Sale can be used in many other directions or added to your bank account."

NOW IF IT HAD BEEN THE OPPOSING PITCHER!

Hadleyville, Ore., July 8.—Even the mighty John Law can't stop a championship ball game. Hadleyville and Crow were to do battle for the championship of Lane County. Just as the game was on Deputy Game Wardens F. M. Brown and E. H. Clark arrested Hadleyville's pitcher, Joe Owen. Joe was charged with killing a beaver.

But Justice of the Peace J. M. Holland, who confessed a bet on Joe's right arm, rigged up a court in the bleachers, tried Joe between the second and third innings, fined him $25, and the game went on.

"NAUGHTY BOY" PROVES TOO MUCH FOR SPOUSE.

New York, July 8.—It's bad enough to find tender, endearing letters in your husband's clothing, but when the "other woman" calls you on the phone and says that your husband has "just been a naughty boy and to treat him as such," it is a bit too much. At least, it has been too much for Mrs. Jessie LeFevre, wife of ex-Lieutenant Cornelius LeFevre, and she sued for divorce.

55 YEARS ON ROAD.

Boston, July 8.—William M. Corcoran, known to thousands of travelers as "Billy," employed by the B. & A. for fifty-five years in continuous service—the last ten years as conductor of the Twentieth Century Limited—has made his last run. Officials of the road have pensioned him at the age of seventy. He has a Civil War record as well as a long service with the railroad.

Tom—"Are you deaf to my pleasings?" Eva—"I am." Tom—"But what if I were to offer you a diamond ring?" Eva—"Oh, I'm not stone deaf."—Success.

NEW FRENCH TREATY IS OPEN DIPLOMACY

So Declares Paris Paper in Comment on Agreement.

PRECEDES THE LEAGUE

Protects France From Aggression Until Nations Can Form Lasting Covenant of Peace.

Paris, July 7, (French Wireless Service.)—Le Petit Parisien, explaining the agreement entered into by the United States and Great Britain to come to the aid of France in case of unprovoked aggression by Germany, says:

"For the first time a convention of this kind is made public directly after its conclusion. This may be called an act of diplomacy accomplished in the face of the whole world; one, all the more decisive, for not being kept secret in the Chancelleries.

"The circumstances relative to its conclusion are known. The League of Nations cannot operate immediately. Years may go by before it really comes into force, and in the meantime France may again be the victim of aggression. The danger of aggression menaces France more than any country, which is a member of the League, America being far away, and England more than ever protected by the sea.

"Mr. Wilson and Mr. Lloyd George realized that France needed an immediate guarantee, the simple proclamation of which would keep in check any desire for aggression. The agreement published answers the purpose. It will come into force if any unprovoked act of aggression is made against France. But who could imagine our country capable of provoking a war?"

"The treaty does not impose any obligation on France, but her allies have bound themselves by it to provide her with the guarantees they deemed necessary. Finally, the treaty will remain in force until the League of Nations decides the League itself is sufficient guarantee against aggression.

"Such is the meaning of this unprecedented agreement. It will not be possible to misconstrue it."

CHAS. KUHR

20 Bissell Street. Just around the corner from Main

A GOOD JOB.
"Clemenceau, Lloyd George and Wilson have sown dragon's teeth", yawns a Berlin blast. More important, they have pulled Germany's Chicago Tribune.

ABOUT TOWN

James Goldman of the Park Shoe Store is in Boston on a business trip. Carl Brink of Providence is renewing acquaintance with friends in town.

The Swedish Boys' Gymnastic club will meet at the Recreation Center tomorrow evening.

Mrs. B. J. Bartlett of Pine street left today for a visit with Mrs. Lula Doane of Brighton, Mass.

John Polise and family of Fairview street are spending a two weeks' vacation in Maine.

Arthur Mercer is putting in a concrete foundation for his new house at the corner of East Center and Walker streets.

Louis Marte, employed by the Manchester Trust company, is spending his vacation at Plattsburg, N. Y. He made the trip by auto.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Gottschalk of Oakland street started this morning for a trip to their old home in Rochester, N. Y. They went by automobile.

The July meeting of the board of selectmen will be held on Thursday evening at the Hall of Records. The board will meet in the afternoon to approve bills.

Sidney Strickland, who returned recently from England, after serving three years in the British Army, has secured work in the finishing room at the velvet mills.

The Army and Navy club is taking on a finished look. Painters are now giving it the final coat of paint on the outside. It is being painted white with green trimmings.

Mrs. Frederick N. Fish of Walnut street and Mrs. Walter F. Elliott of Cooper street are spending the week with the former's sister, Mrs. Judith T. Whicker, at her cottage at Point of Woods Beach.

Robert J. Smith has sold for Clarence Barlow a two-family house on Pearl street to Carl F. Schultzy of Hartford. Mr. Schultzy formerly lived in Manchester and owned property on Glenwood street.

Thomas Sullivan, Ernest Brown and Patrick Hanley have returned from Bolton Notch where they have spent four days at Fanhall. They were on a fishing trip and report good luck on each day's angling.

Charles Kuhr of Bissell street is in New York on a combined business and pleasure trip. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Dorothy Kuhr, and Miss Emma Schultz of Foley street. The girls will remain in New York for a two weeks' visit with friends.

Word was received this morning of the arrival of Sergeant Raymond W. Joyner at Newport News, Va. Sergeant Joyner has been in the service nearly two years and has been overseas since a year ago last March. He expects to receive his honorable discharge within a few days.

Dr. Van Verplanck has just returned from overseas after two years' hospital work in the army. He comes home with the title of M. D. from John Hopkins University and of first lieutenant in the United States Army. He is now at Camp Dix awaiting discharge and will probably reach his home here by the end of this week.

HOOSIER GETS $46,000 FROM ENGLISH ESTATE.

Alexandria, Ind., July 8.—Charles Booth, of this city, recently received a check that called for $46,000. The money was inherited by Booth from Nathan Booth, his uncle, a wealthy land owner of England.

QUALITY AND PRICES ARE WHAT COUNTS

We believe in giving a square deal to all, which means perfect vision, highest quality goods and low prices.

As we sell six times as many glasses as anyone else in Manchester we can afford to sell them cheaper. If you want good, yes extra good glasses and don't feel that you can pay the high prices charged by some, than you should call at our South Manchester office and receive a square deal and get your glasses at the right price.

EIGHTH DISTRICT VOTES $1,000 FOR PLAYGROUND

School Committee is Authorized to Equip Grounds—Will Hold Meeting at Once.

The voters of the Eighth School and Utilities district appropriated the sum of $1,000 at the meeting last night for the north end playgrounds. The school committee was authorized to equip the playground with the necessary material such as swings, ladders and other playground equipment. The committee is to have a meeting this evening or tomorrow evening and will get things ready just as soon as possible. J. T. Robertson has kindly allowed the district the use of the ground for the season. Miss Moore, who has charge of the district child welfare movement, plans to have the place in such condition that mothers with their babies will find it pleasant to come.

CHAUTAUQUA PLEASES OPENING AUDIENCES

Yesterday's Programs Gave Taste of Treats in Store for Rest of the Week.

The Chautauqua sessions opened auspiciously yesterday with fine weather and a good attendance. The entertainment last night was of a high order and set the pace for a fine week's program. The Zimmer-Carter Company, which furnished the first part of the evening's program gave novel musical selections with a combination of harp and piano and one of their number, Miss W. M. Dearborn Carter, gave humorous readings and impersonations which delighted the audience and won numerous recalls. The three young women in the company were beautifully costumed and made a most attractive appearance behind the footlights.

After such a delightful first part the prospect of a lecture by a woman doctor was not very alluring, but it turned out a most agreeable surprise. Dr. Carolyn E. Geisel is a slight little woman, but although she looks frail, she believes in long life and says that men who take the right care of themselves ought to live more than a hundred years. She spoke for more than an hour and from her opening words to the very end of her talk held the close attention of her audience. She gave from her professional education and experience a long list of suggestions framed in understandable terms, for avoiding the ills which shorten life, interspersing witty side remarks which kept her hearers wide awake and in good humor.

Tonight one of the finest musical programs of the week will be given by the Coralla-Bonelli Company, every member of which is a superior artist. One of the company, Gabriel Hines, a skilled pianist and composer, gave a lecture-recital this afternoon which was attended by many musicians.

Tomorrow night the entire play "The Fortune Hunters", will be given by a competent company of actors. The evening performances begin at eight o'clock.

MANY SUMMER MEMBERS AT RECREATION CENTER

Reduced Rates With All Privileges Attract Large Number—Total Membership Now 826.

Many of the townspeople are taking advantage of the summer rates at the Recreation Center. Last year, there were only 35 or 40 summer members, while so far this summer 104 have been received. The summer memberships are good until September 15 and at that time may be exchanged for an annual membership, it being necessary simply to pay the difference between the summer rate and the annual rate.

The summer tickets, giving the owner all the privileges of the building until September 15, cost $1.00 for men of the Ninth district and 75 cents for women. For people outside the Ninth district, 50 cents additional is charged.

The Recreation Center now has 722 full members and 104 summer members, making a grand total of 826. Only three members have been dropped during the past six months.

TURKS AMUCK.
Athens, July 8.—Greek reinforcements are being rushed to Turkey today following an attempt by Turkish troops to occupy Aidin, 81 miles southeast of Smyrna.

DIRECTOR WHITING NOW ON NATIONAL BOARD

Is Made Member of National Committee On Industrial Recreation—Work Here Attracts Attention.

Recreation Director W. H. Whiting has been appointed a member of the National Committee on Industrial Recreation, sitting under the American Physical Education Association, which has for its purpose the investigation and promotion of the best methods of industrial recreation. The appointment was made by the association's president, William Burdick, of Baltimore.

The local Recreation Center, of which Mr. Whiting is head instructor and director, is one of 60 community centers now being operated successfully in the United States. Many more are to be built during the next few years, however, and visitors are coming to Manchester frequently to look over the Recreation Center here and get ideas from it. Recently visitors were here from Norwalk and Bristol, Saylesville, R. I., and from several towns in New York state. Calls also have been received from Massena, N. Y., and Malden, Mass., and visitors are expected from those cities within the next few weeks.

ARMY AND NAVY CLUB DRIVES FOR MEMBERS

Service Men May Become Charter Members by Joining Before Sunday.

"Over the Top" is the slogan adopted by the members and captains of the ten teams competing in the Army and Navy club's whirlwind campaign for new members. The campaign started last evening when the teams met at the Army and Navy hut for final instructions. Chairman Albert Dewey urged each team to fight until the last gun is fired which will be on Sunday evening at twelve o'clock. The board of governors have agreed to keep the charter open until this time, consequently all World War veterans who join this week will be accepted as charter members.

The team captains will report daily the results of their efforts to the club steward. The final reports will be announced the first of the week.

"DARBY" O'CONNELL LEAVES.

Popular Athletic Player Goes to Springfield Club.

William O'Connell, more familiarly known to Manchester baseball fans as "Darby", left Manchester yesterday to join the Springfield club of the Eastern Association, having signed a contract with the Springfield management on Saturday.

"Darby" came here from Naugatuck a few months ago to learn the moving picture business under the tutoring hand of his uncle, John F. Sullivan. He was assigned to the Circle theater to assist Dr. P. F. Sullivan in its management.

During his stay in Manchester he appeared in the Athletic line-up for several games and made a favorable impression with the fans, particularly in the Athletic-Nutmeg game when he twirled the former team to victory.

O'Connell has played with some of the fastest semi-professional outfits in New England and his many friends are of the opinion that the Springfield club engagement is but a stepping stone to the big league teams.
