TROOPS QUELL ARMED NEGROES QUIET CHICAGO'S RACE RIOTS

Houses Burned in Negro Section—Blacks Said to Have Been Thrown in Chicago River—Negroes Clear Streets With Armed Autos—Clash With Troops Called to Their Protection.

Chicago, July 31.—Troops of the Illinois Reserve Militia are on guard in Chicago's riot zone today and reports indicate comparative quiet in a district, which, since Sunday, has been seething with battles between whites and negroes. Only sporadic fighting is reported and there have been no killings since early yesterday.

U. S. Soldiers Arrive.
United States troops took a hand in the fighting for the first time today when Captain B. Maloney, in charge of a motor transport company permanently stationed here, ordered his men to return the fire of an auto load of negroes who made a dozen trips around the block in which the quarters of the company are located and fired at the troops each time they passed. The troops opened fire as they took up pursuit of the negroes and a few minutes later captured seven men, ten revolvers, four knives and a quantity of ammunition which they turned over to the police.

Fired On Troops.
A withering hail of fire greeted the first units of the troops that entered the troubled districts. As the troops lined up after their arrival a fusillade of shots came from doors, windows and alleyways where snipers were hiding in every possible place of concealment. The troops returned the fire but no casualties were reported.

Shortly afterward troops and negroes again clashed at Fifty Eight street and Racine avenue. For the most part, however, the arrival of the troops was the signal for the rioters to withdraw to their homes and only occasional shots from stragglers along the railroad tracks came thereafter.

Five Regiments On Guard.
Orders to send the troops into the riot zone came early last night and ten minutes later the first units had arrived. By midnight five of the seven mobilized regiments were patrolling the riot areas.

The calling of the troops came after two days of expectancy and after Mayor William Hale Thompson had personally requested aid from Adjutant General Dickson.

The adjutant general today is personally directing the militiamen who are working in close co-operation with the police.

Troops aided the police to disperse a mob at 38th and Dearborn streets after Sam Banks, a negro, had been shot in the abdomen. Soldiers were fired upon by a mob at 63rd and Loomis streets, when a band of negroes started to drive all white people from the streets in that vicinity. The mob was dispersed without any casualties.

Incendiaries at Work.
Incendiaries have been setting fires in the riot zone and one of the most serious clashes between troops and rioters came while the soldiers were helping to extinguish a fire that destroyed ten stores and several residences with a loss of $125,000. Small fires are burning today in numerous places throughout the district and are causing the fire department no little trouble. A report that many negroes employed in the stockyards have been tossed into the Chicago River and drowned caused the police today to start dragging the river for bodies.

Combating Riot District.
Soldiers, aided by the police, are combating the riot district, searching both negroes and whites for weapons and disarming every rioter found to be armed. Many houses suspected of harboring snipers or concealing ammunition have been entered and searched and where resistance was offered the militia and police promptly battered down doors.

The call for the militia came after special investigators sent out by the mayor and by the state authorities had learned that a number of south side athletic clubs and other white organizations had summoned their members and were preparing to attack the negroes in force with the intent of wiping out the entire "black belt." Torch parties it was reported, were being organized to fire the homes of the negroes. The calling out of the troops, it is believed, prevented the breaking out of violence on a scale far greater than at anytime since the rioting began.

The coroner's inquest into the cause of the riots has been postponed indefinitely until the exact number of dead has been officially determined.

Twenty More Dead.
The most accurate report today is that twenty nine have lost their lives, three of those wounded and taken to hospitals having died since yesterday.

The grand jury probe of the riots is underway and a thorough investigation is being made also by federal authorities. The state's attorney's office has announced that the death penalty will be demanded for all those found guilty of murder during the riots, whether they be white or black.

Negroes Ask for Protection.
Delegations of negroes have called upon the mayor and state authorities for protection and for a restoration of normal conditions. These appeals are said to have been a factor in influencing the Mayor to ask for the aid of troops.

With the riot zone practically under martial law many negroes living in districts outside the "black belt" are moving back into the colored section today, believing they will be safer there under the protection of the soldiers than in the districts where white residents predominate.

Special Officers Sworn In.
Besides the troops the regular police department is being reinforced as fast as additional officers can be sworn in. The city council has given chief of police Garrity authority to employ immediately 2,000 additional men.

The spectre of hunger also is stalking through the riot district today as it has been impossible for deliveries of food supplies to be made in the troubled zone. Many negro families are reported on the verge of starvation.

In Other Districts.
Reports from towns surrounding Chicago tell of race disturbances in several places. At Bloomington, Ill., a mob of negroes attacked Mrs. Kate Cecil, white, after she had chased several negro children from her yard. Negroes from Chicago have fled to Aurora and other suburban towns and authorities there are taking precautions to prevent outbreaks. Sale of all fire arms and ammunition at Aurora has been forbidden.

R. R. ENGINEERS SAY WAGES MUST GO UP OR PRICES COME DOWN

Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers Put It Up to Wilson.

Washington, July 31.—The seriousness of the situation presented to President Wilson when the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, through their president Warren S. Stone, laid before the Chief Executive the flat proposition that unless something was done to bring down the ever soaring cost of living the engineers would be forced to demand another increase in their wages, was apparent in White House circles today.

Offer No Plan.
The brotherhood board outlined no plan of action for the government to take beyond saying it was believed that "this situation is brought about mainly by conscienceless profiteering by the great interests who have secured control of all the necessities of life."

The president was told by the brotherhood board "that a widespread spirit of unrest exists among all classes, especially among wage earners whose wages will no longer provide adequate food, shelter and raiment for themselves and families."

"The President is giving deep and very thoughtful consideration to the question of the high cost of living," Secretary Tumulty stated at the White House today when asked what course the President was likely to take. At the same time he indicated that it would be "unwise" for the White House to issue any statement with reference to what it planned to do, until it was ready to proceed with some definite course.

According to the latest reports available there is a very large increase in the amount of butter, eggs and dairy products in the big storage plants over the figures of a year ago. However, the storage experts insist that this increase is a natural one and that if it did not take place next winter's prices on these products would be absolutely prohibitive.

Clothing prices also are far beyond reason the advocates of radical action declare. Suits that sold a year ago for $25 now are quoted at double that figure and further increases are in sight. The manufacturers declare that this is due to increased costs of raw materials and production. Labor leaders in many of their letters which are reaching Washington, insist that it is at least in part due to increased capitalization of many manufacturing companies which "injected water in large quantities into capital stock," sold to the public.

Worth Only $2.15.
The flat declaration by the locomotive engineers committee that the daily wage "of $5 prior to the war which at that time was worth 500 cents today is worth approximately only $2.15," has impressed Congressional leaders as well as the Administration. Because of the injection of partisanship into practically every legislative problem so far considered by the Congress, the problem of legislation that will re-

NO CHANGE IN THE RATES UNDER PRIVATE CONTROL

President of Southern New England Telephone Co., Makes a Statement Today.

New Haven, July 31.—President James T. Moran, of the Southern New England Telephone Company, in a statement today regarding the return of the company from government to private control, says there are no changes to announce. The company he says has been in no way hampered in its efforts to furnish the best service by government control. Rate advances, he says, have been no more than sufficient to meet advanced costs of operation. The policy of the company in the matter of rates, he declared, is evidenced by the continued rate modifications throughout a period of twenty years and the policy will be resumed whenever made possible through reduced costs of operation, but the present serious problem is that of restoring the service to its former efficiency.

HUNGARIANS DECLARE THEIR INDEPENDENCE.

London, July 31.—Two hundred and eight-three Hungarian communities in Hungary have decided to declare their independence of the Soviet government at Budapest, the Copenhagen correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph reported today.

The Soviet troops at Budapest refused to quell the demonstrations of striking metal workers.

BARUCH SAYS WILSON WOULD REJECT MONEY WRUNG FROM GERMANY

Financial Adviser Testifies Regarding Acceptance of Indemnities.

SAYS SENATE HAS POWER TO DETERMINE QUESTION

Distribution of Indemnities Still Undetermined Baruch Tells Foreign Relations Committee.

Washington, July 31.—President Wilson's view is that the United States should not share in the indemnities to be paid by Germany, Bernard M. Baruch, confidential financial adviser to the President at the peace conference, told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today at the first of its open hearings on the treaty of Versailles.

Baruch stated that the distribution of indemnities to be paid by Germany was still to be determined. Senator Knox interrupted to say that he had gathered from the President's address of July 10 that the United States was not to share in any of the billions Germany was to pay over to nations arrayed against her in the war. Baruch replied that he was still of the impression that the President did not think any part of the German indebtedness should be turned over to the United States. Baruch suggested, however, that it was for the Senate to determine whether it, as well as the President, had jurisdiction in the matter.

Tariff Expert Present.
F. W. Taussig, chairman of the United States Tariff Commission and Bradley W. Palmer, of Counsel to the alien property custodian, who were among the President's advisers at Paris, sat near Baruch during his testimony regarding financial and economic clauses of the treaty.

Lodge Changes Room.
The hearing was slow in getting underway. It had hardly started in a big committee room on the second floor of the Senate office building when Senator Lodge, presiding, decided that the acoustics necessitated a change to a room better adapted to hearing what was said.

TO QUESTION LANSING ON SHANTUNG SUBJECT

He, General Bliss and Henry White, Are Said to Have Signed the Agreement.

Washington, July 31.—Secretary Lansing is expected to appear soon before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Senator Lodge, its chairman, announced today when the committee met in open session for the first time since it began consideration of the treaty of Versailles.

The Secretary of State was to be questioned closely as to the protest against the Shantung settlement, he, General Bliss and Henry White, as three of the American peace commissioners, are purported to have signed before the peace negotiations were concluded.

Baruch to Testify.
Bernard M. Baruch, financial and economic expert, and one of the President's closest advisers at the peace conference was to be the first to testify at today's public session of the committee, with reference to the big financial and economic features of the treaty, including the maintenance and transfer of property rights, and the reparation exacted from Germany.

It was suggested that Thomas W. Lamont, of J. P. Morgan and Company, another of President Wilson's chief advisers in the financial and economic matters with which the peace conference was concerned, would follow Baruch.

It was Secretary Lansing who proposed to Senator Lodge that Baruch, as well as F. W. Taussig, chairman of the United States tariff commission; Norman Davis and Bradley W. Palmer, other experts who also acted in an advisory capacity to the President at Paris and Versailles, be called before the committee.

PLANNING WIDER SCOPE FOR U. S. AERONAUTICS

MAJOR GENERAL AT HEAD America Must Keep Pace With Rest of the World, Says Senator in Introducing Bill.

Washington, July 31.—A congressional drive for wider development of aeronautics in the United States opened today when Senator New, of Indiana, introduced a bill in the Senate which would create a department of aeronautics. Under the provisions of the bill this department would have charge of all government aeronautics in the army, navy, post-office department, coast guard and other government branches. A director would be appointed by the President at a salary of $10,000 per annum, with an assistant at $6,000 a year.

Would Control Air.
The scope of the bill has been greatly increased over that introduced by Senator New at the last session of Congress and gives to the proposed department as wide powers in matters of aviation as the War Department has in matters concerning the army. Not only would the department of aeronautics control the air services during times of peace, but also in times of war.

Plans for providing commissioned and enlisted men are included in the bill.

Major General at Head.
The highest rank permitted is that of major general and none but flying officers would be permitted to be placed in command of aeronautic squadrons. Transfer of officers and men from the army and navy to the Department of aeronautics is provided for and the President is given authority to transfer any government departments dealing with aeronautics to the proposed department. All of the privileges afforded to men of the military and naval services would be accorded men of the proposed service.

"America must go ahead in aeronautics," Senator New said today, "and I believe the most effective way is to consolidate and concentrate our efforts in one department."

CRIPPLED CHILDREN OF CONNECTICUT ARE KEPT IN FIRE TRAP

Lack of Funds Causes Neglect of These Little Ones.

MADE HELPLESS FOR LIFE FOR LACK OF RIGHT CARE

Only Portion of State's Unfortunate Children Can Be Cared for at Present.

The welfare of every crippled child in Connecticut will be provided for if a generous response is made by the people of the state to the Connecticut Children's Aid Society's campaign to raise $500,000.

This may seem a broad statement

He Needs Your Help.

but it is true nevertheless. A realization on the part of the people of the state of just how pitiable is the condition of some unfortunate boys and girls of Connecticut is all that is needed to convince one of the importance of this work and the necessity for raising the money.

An organized drive, such as conducted during the war by Liberty Loans, etc., is not contemplated unless made necessary through lack of response to the appeals for aid.

There is but one institution in the state caring for crippled children. That is the Connecticut Children's Aid Society's home at Newington where today there are housed 103 crippled children in a home condemned by insurance companies because it is an absolute fire trap.

A new fire-proof home, suitable to care for all the crippled children in the state, is the aim of the society and the one way in which it can be accomplished is through the success of the $500,000 drive.

Three frame buildings, all old, where conditions are crowded to the limit, ceilings falling down and plumbing inadequate, now hold only one third of the state's helpless children and a fire would jeopardize their lives.

The lack of a suitable home and funds enables the society to reach only a small percentage of the unfortunate children. Neglect in many cases, where children could have been cured, has caused many to become helpless cripples for life.

What Has Been Done. The financial support of the society heretofore has been derived from private donations, partial help from parents and some assistance from the state. During the past year 112 operations were performed at the home, through which 69 children were cured and all others definitely improved.

It will be seen therefore, that a great deal is being accomplished under trying conditions and it is natural to assume that the society's work will certainly be increased to a great extent with the construction of a modern home.

The drive committee consists of Austin Cheney, President of the society, Cheney Brothers, South Manchester; Frank C. Sumner, President Hartford-Connecticut Trust Company, Hartford; and Clarence E. Whitney, President Whitney Manufacturing Company, Hartford.

Conditions at the home, together with the amount of money on hand, make it impossible to care for all the state's crippled children. Two thirds of them are being neglected and getting worse daily. Their plight is a serious one. No one can doubt the necessity of the $500,000 campaign.

Circle Theater

"The Other Man's Wife" starring Ellen Cassidy and Stuart Holmes, which will be open at the Circle theater tonight, is a picture that every man, woman and child in Manchester should see. Its moral is pointing, its lesson convincing and its presentation by a cast of capable players stand for all that is entertaining and instructive in the silent drama. As the proof of the pudding is in the eating, so the proof of the drama, whether spoken or silent, is in the seeing. After seeing, we find proof of the strongest entertainment value. It is absorbing throughout, for it exposes one of the greatest evils that can beset married life and presents a situation that has ruined countless homes. It strikes home, whether there be happiness or unhappiness in the family. If it be happiness, then we are told what to avert—if it be unhappiness, then we are shown the way out of darkness into the light.

In addition to the stars, Stuart Holmes and Ellen Cassidy, there appear in this remarkable photodrama some of the most accomplished and talented actors, including Ned Hay, Olive Trevor, Mrs. Garrison, Lesley
Casey, Danny Sullivan, Regina
Quinn, formerly of the Winter Garden show; Laura Newman, George Jessel, and Evelyn Brent, whom you will remember as leading women for Lignel Barrymore in his first screen appearances under the Metro banner.

With this feature will be also shown a Pathe comedy and a news weekly.

Park Theater

Read what the Exhibitor's Herald says about Sessue Hayakawa and "A Heart in Pawn" which will be the feature at the Popular Playhouse
tonight:

"A Heart in Pawn" is a photoplay designed chiefly for the entertainment of the adult, thinking audience, strong in the best sense of that abused word, interesting and realistic, the most careful exhibitor may feel perfectly safe in promising "the best picture that Hayakawa ever made."

Sessue Hayakawa, at all times

an actor of exceptional ability, has the advantage of a story that rises head and shoulders above the average."

On the same bill will be the famous Ford Weekly and another episode of "The Silent Mystery" the serial which is making so great a hit in this town.

Tomorrow Mae March will be seen in "The Bondage of Barbara."

On Saturday Bryant Washburn
will be featured in "It's All Wrong."

On Sunday Margaret Fischer will be the star in a delightful comedy drama "Charge It to Me."

And don't forget that "Hearts of Humanity" the biggest feature ever produced will soon be shown at the Park.

TAGGING THE BASES

The Yanks took the first game of their double header with the White Sox when Eynah squeezed Pratt down with the winning run in the tenth inning.

In the second game the Sox copped in ten innings, Weaver's double bring Faber home with the winning run.

Meadow's, pitching for the Phillies, fanned ten of his former team mates and defeated the Cards.

After mauling Ponder and Mayer in the first game the Giants lost the second to Pittsburgh when Perritt blew up in the opening round.

Cheney forced home the winning run in the ninth at Cincinnati by walking a batter with the bases full, and giving the Reds a victory over Boston.

Wheat's heavy hitting—he made two singles and a triple—and Pfeffer's tight pitching in the pinches enabled Brooklyn to beat the Cubs.

DADDY USES POOR ALIBI

Chicago, Ill., July 31.—"You're the father of a bouncing baby boy," said a happy voice over the telephone to Edward Flannagan.

Flannagan jumped into an automobile and raced toward home. Arrester for passing another machine on the right side, he told Judge Stalk of his good fortune and that he wanted to name the boy after him.

The judge declined the honor and fined Flannagan $18 and costs.

WAS CAUSED BY U. S.

Capt. Edward Allen Tells of Conditions as He Saw Them.

THINK TREATY TOO HARSH

Believe Terms Are Impossible—Intense Hatred for English and French—Friendly to Americans.

Captain Edward Allen, home from duty in Germany with the army of occupation, says that the German people are blaming the Americans for being responsible for bringing defeat to the Teuton forces. The idea seems to be among the conquered people that the French and English forces would have been overcome had it not been for the assistance that came from America.

Before enlisting in the service,
Captain Allen was industrial physician with Cheney Brothers. He enlisted in the service and last year was sent to France where he was attached to the Second Division. He has been engaged chiefly in orthopedic work at various hospitals, and also has had considerable experience with neurotic patients.

Although food is not plentiful even yet in Germany, according to Captain Allen, there seems to be no great suffering among the people.
The people look very healthy and the children fat and sleek.

At Coblenz, in March, there was scarcely enough food to go around.
Soap was a luxury for which the Germans would trade their valuables and chocolate was a medium of exchange. The German people had an idea that the American troops lived on chocolate. Fats have been, and are yet, exceedingly scarce in Germany. Lately the shipments of food from the United States have greatly relieved the situation.

Wounded Well Cared For.
German soldiers who were wounded during the war are being well cared for and are receiving the very best of treatment in their hospitals.
Where they have been maimed they have been supplied with the most modern artificial limbs and appliances.

In spite of the fact that the Germans regard the Americans as being in a large measure responsible for their humiliation, a greater degree of friendship exists between the Germans and Yank soldiers than with those of the other allied nations. Between the English and Germans animosity still rankles and a fight with fatalities is not uncommon when Frenchmen meet Germans.

Dr. Allen believes that the friendship that the Germans are showing the Americans is somewhat forced and affected. Still some of it is genuine and sincere, one of the proofs being the marriages that are taking place between the American soldiers and German girls.

Good Times for Soldiers.
The living conditions for the American soldiers proved far superior in Germany than in any other European nation. The cities are cleaner, the quarters more comfortable and sanitary. In fact the Army of Occupation has had a glorious time for all they have had to do is a little drilling in the mornings and liberty almost every afternoon and evening. There have been excursions up the Rhine and through the historical spots of Germany which lie within the occupied area.

According to Dr. Allen, the German people regard the peace treaty as being too severe. They believe that it is a physical impossibility to live up to the terms which they think are unnecessarily harsh.

Dr. Allen will probably return to his position as physician with Cheney Brothers in the near future.

WHEN JEFF COMES BACK.

It was 1921. The month was May.
The scene was the well-known Polc Grounds.

The Giants were out for their morning practice, and at first they did not notice a huge form moving majestically across the outfield.

Jeff Tesreau, for it was indeed he, rushed among his old team mates
and greeted them enthusiastically.

"I am filled with a solemn joy," he began, "to be once again among my old comrades, inhaling the hydrogen and oxygen blended, noting the azure of the firmament, feeling the radiance of the glorious orb of day."

His former comrades fell back and regarded him with dazed expressions.
Was this the old Ozark Mountain husky who had first known them when he was "cruder than crude oil?"

"I seem to sense a vague aloof-ness," he remarked, biting off a large chew of plug.

And with this simple action Big Jeff came into his own.

"The same old Jeff," they exclaimed, crowding closely about him.
"College ain't turned his head a bit!"

JAMAICA GINGER WITH

Tulsa, Okla., July 31.—E. Smith, a teamster, of West Tulsa, died in the hospital room of the Tulsa City jail here from the after-effects of drinking Jamaica ginger and an extract. Smith was found at 11 o'clock at night, unconscious. Physicians worked with him through the night, and he managed to regain consciousness long enough to tell where he lived and that he had been drinking.

DISTRIBUTE ARMY FOOD THROUGH PARCELS POST

Details of Plan Now Being Worked Out—Price Lists to be Sent to All Communities.

Washington, July 31.—Details for the distribution, through the parcels post, of the War Department's 341,000,000 pounds of surplus foodstuffs were being worked out today
by representatives of the Post Office Department and E. C. Morse, assistant director of sales. In the meanwhile Assistant Secretary of War Crowell was preparing a price list to be forwarded to Postmasters and Rural carriers throughout the country.

The disposition of the surplus in this manner is in conformance with a resolution sponsored by one of the sub-committees investigating the cost of the war and passed by the House.

The value of the surplus available July 8 was approximately as follows: Canned vegetables, $23,000,- 000; corned beef, $24,000,000; bacon $23,000,000; hashed corn beef, $10,000,000; roast beef $20,500,- 000 and fresh frozen meats and poultry $20,000,000.

NIKEUS TRACE THIEF
THROUGH BUTTON CLUE.
Chicago, Ill., July 31.—Greenfield entered the Maxwell avenue police station and announced:

"Some one swiped all the tires off my machine. Here's a button I found on the floor of the garage."

"Aha!" quoth two detectives, as they went out with their clue.
Thirty minutes later they came upon Sam Mankin leaning against a buttermilk bar. One of the buttons on his coat was gone.

One of the detectives held the button Greenfield gave them against the coat.

"It matches," he informed the other.

"It does?" replied his partner.
"Where's those four tires?"

Mankin confessed.

ALARM CLOCK A LUXURY?

Portland, Ore., July 31.—Jewelers here, complaining against the luxury tax, cite their inability to convince returned army men that a tax on alarm clocks is proper.

"Getting up a luxury?" ask the former soldiers. "It wasn't considered so in the army. You'll have a sweet time telling that to the boys."

The hermit thrush is declared to be the most talented and brilliant singer in the world, not even excepting the nightingale, says the American Forestry Association. The tail of this little bird is of a reddish brown, much brighter than the back and head, while the breast is quite heavily spotted with black. It winters in the Gulf States.

YANKS TO LEAVE RUSSIA.

Washington, July 31.—The early embarkation of the entire American force of troops in northern Russia, less a small detachment for transfer of property and the disposition of the American dead, is reported by Brigadier General Richardson, commanding, in a communication received from General Pershing at the War Department this afternoon.

General Pershing has ordered General Richardson to withdraw his headquarters and return as soon as practicable.

SONG-AND-DANCE TEAM MAKES GOOD IN COURT.

Atlanta, Ga., July 31.—When Judge Johnson in Police Court seemed to doubt the story of James and Minnie Higgins, who maintained that they were vaudeville artists, they offered to do their "stunt" to prove it.
Space was "squared off" and the couple, backed when they were arrested, executed several negro turns before His Honor.

"Fine!" pronounced the Judge, after an encore.

The couple looked horrified.
"H-h-h-ow m-much, Judge," asked the male half of the duo.

"I mean the show," laughed the Judge. "Case dismissed."

DOUBLE EXPLOSION IN NEWARK.

Newark, N. J., July 31.—Two explosions occurred shortly after noon today in the Riverside Avenue plant of the Maas & Waldstein Company, said to be the largest manufacturers of picric acid, used in explosives, and dyes, in the world. Two alarms of fire were turned in.

NO WASTE, SAYS BAKER.
Washington, July 31.—Time consumed in perfecting the liberty motor for use in American airplanes was justified and denial of waste of appropriations for aircraft was made today by Secretary Baker, before the aviation sub-committee of the House Committee investigating expenditures in the War Department.

ZEELANDIA ARRIVES.

New York, July 31.—Held up by a broken propeller the transport Zeelander arrived from Brest today, two days over due. On board were the Thirteenth Field Artillery of the Fourth Division, fifty officers and 1,470 men of the 133th Ammunition train, fifteen officers and 420 men.

IN UNIVERSAL TRAINING.

Washington, July 31.—Senator Chamberlain, of Oregon, introduced a bill in the Senate today providing for universal military training.

Although the Ford libel suit is not yet finished it is reported that the trial has already cost each side $200,000. Ford is suing the Chicago Tribune for one million dollar damages. The worst of these libel suits is that the lawyers get most of the money. A newspaper has to defend itself even though it may be entirely innocent of libel.

THE GHOST? AT SKUNK'S MISERY

Judge Card Makes Merry Over Mysterious Light—Explains Name of Place.

P. T. Barnum said "one was born every minute, etc." and he said a mouthful. Five thousand people journey to Skunk's Misery to view the "Lightning Bug" or the Ghostly Light whichever suits the bunch. But the night was too cool for the diaphanous garments of "Ye Ghost" and also being sympathetic with the strike at the Manchester Lumber Yards the "Ghost" didn't walk last night. But, what thrills of terror; what horrid shudders and shakes of horrible horrors stirred neurotic nerves of that multitude as they awaited the Ghostly visitation. Yet, why fear a chained ghost; it has been there for years; it's the old story of Ye-oldest inhabitant; Gurd Keeney avers that he saw this same ghost in Skunk's Misery when he was a boy and Gurd is no spring chicken. The legend reads that a German picnic party left a piece of Limburger cheese there, near a skunk's den and of course it is easy to imagine a "Skunk's Misery"; hence the name of that locality. I see by the Herald that Credulous the Great-head believes it Mars wigwagging to the earth but it is more than likely that it is a HELL-O-Graph.

Nature's phosphorous and skunk's misery are synonymous terms. Are you incredulous? Well; try to pick up a little black and white kitten some dark night and a living streak of "ghostly fire" between the eyes will convince you instantly. But ghosts in this present century; WHAT??? Hugs Munsterberg spent three years in ghostly search and study and, like the farmer who saw a giraffe for the first time, declared that "There ain't no sich an imle", but just the same P. T. Barnum made a fortune;????

A little rotten wood of the proper dampness; a hot muggy night and the "Ghost" but people "will see things" and as the skunk said when he first smelled an automobile; What's the Use.

OUR SCHOOL GROUNDS.

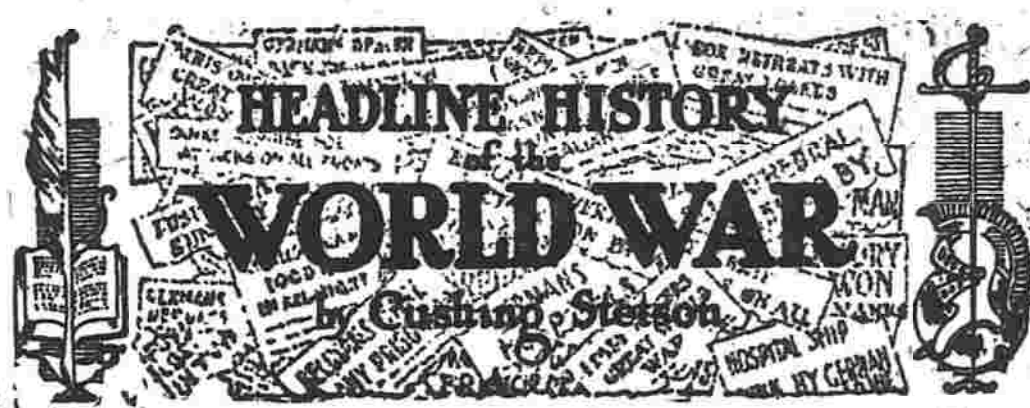

What if Teachers Should Look as Shabby as Places Where They Teach?

To the Editor of The Evening Herald:

With the opening of the schools but a few weeks distant, it seems appropriate to call attention to the conditions existing at a number of the buildings in the outlying districts of the town. It is not so much toward the buildings themselves that criticism is directed. They may be far from perfect in regard to lighting and heating arrangements. In some cases new floors are needed and additional blackboard space could well be used. But in the main, the buildings are substantially constructed, apparently adequate in size, and not unattractive. It is with the sanitary conditions and the state in which the buildings and grounds are maintained that fault is to be found.

Unfortunately, in most of the districts there is no public water supply or sewer system. While this may explain the present conditions, it certainly does not justify the continuance of the hopelessly unsanitary outside toilets. The provision of an adequate water supply, perhaps by means of drilled wells and pressure tanks, and the construction of septic tanks would not call for the expenditure of a very large sum of money, and the outlay would be justified a hundred fold by the removal of a really serious menace to the health of the pupils.

Of almost equal importance is the conditions of the grounds, and in some cases, the exterior appearance of the buildings. Paint is expensive, but it can be obtained, and there is no reason why any of the school buildings should be shabby for lack of it. Nor is there any reason why the present weed-choked footpaths that meander from the corners of the lots in the general direction of the entrance should not be replaced by cement.

WHITE SOX HAS PENNANT THIS YEAR, SAYS GLEASON

Peppery Little Manager Certain His Team Will Lead the American League.

New York, July 31.—Kid Gleason, peppery little manager of the White Sox, believes they are going to win the American League pennant. He said so today.

"I believe we'll win the pennant sure," said Gleason. "We're out in front, holding just a comfortable lead and the boys are mighty confident. I'm not saying we won't have a hard fight on our hands but I don't think we can be stopped now if we get our share of the breaks."

"The Sox fight tooth and nail for every game. They're never beaten until the last man is out. I believe this is indicated by a good number of gamts we've lost by one run. "We've been getting some fine pitching this season and it has been a big factor, but the hustling spirit of the club as a whole is what's keeping us up there."

"Yes, Williams is sure going great guns. He is at the top of his form. Cletote and Faber and the rest of our pitchers are carrying their share, Cletote in particular. "We haven't our best strength right now; can't have it with cripples on the club. Felsch, Schalk and Weaver are all bothered with Charley Horses but the latter two are playing in spite of them. They'll be all right again, before long I hope."

Gleason said there was no way to account for the improved hitting of the Sox, who are leading their league in club batting.

"The boys are simply stepping up there and mauling the ball against all kinds of pitching," he said. "They are full of confidence and that goes a long way."

Greenfield, Ind., July 31.—Not a rat dead, but fifty-two spring chickens, four hens and a groundhog comprised the casualty list when Mrs. Maude Elliot went to investigate the effects of rat poison she had put out the night before.

ADMIRAL WILEY HOME.

Admiral Wiley, who is to take command of the fleet of destroyers in our new Pacific squadron arrived in New York from France yesterday.

Help Save

CONNECTICUT'S UNFORTUNATE CHILDREN

There are many crippled children in the state, who will become cripples for life unless the Connecticut Children's Aid Society is successful in its campaign to raise

$500,000

The present home at Newington, where 103 crippled children are housed, consists of three frame three-story buildings, which, because they are not fire-proof, place the lives of these helpless boys and girls in constant jeopardy.

The $500,000 will be used to erect a new fire-proof home where all the crippled children of the state, instead of one-third as at present, will be cared for.

League of Refinement Latest London Wrinkle, Although Fair Bathers Cling to One Piece Suit

London, July 24 (by mail).—While a League of Nations is being pro and copped as the likeliest way of getting stubborn nations out of fixed habits and better in warring, a league of refinement has just been formed here by shocked citizens who didn't get to the front to persuade returning soldiers to give up the unheeded habit of cursing. "Tis said that even army chaplains became profligate swearers on occasions. Many demobbed men have admitted the need of a conversational quarantine wherein they could absorb non-shocking cuss-words before joining up with their families.

Many six-cylinder ejaculations were heard on all sides when Sir Douglas Haig recently dilated upon the need for and beauties of a large citizen army for peace. It is putting it pretty mildly to say that musket-toting Tommies got their fill—even up to their eyes—of things connected with guns and sabres and cannon and poison gas and liquid fire and high explosives and bombs and the like during five years' A.H.A. peace-time soldier game appeals to them about as strongly as a case of lock-jaw. The man in the street wants to know who he is going to fight next, and when is this business of international living on an amicable basis going to start anyway, hey, Bill?

About the only sort of organizations that appeal to a returned soldier are those designed to get him a job, and there's considerable disgust with the efficiency of those at present. Organizations which make some pretense toward realization of that promised England which was to be made fit for heroes to live in. Each of those fighters of the bulldog breed has been diligently searching for his respective allotment in the "promised land" since his escape from blood-stained Flanders. And many have been searching in vain. Comrades of the Great War, which has enrolled 400,000, and two similar organizations may be able to do some co-operative searching and building.

Other crowds with spare change are gathering around war loan booths, helping to make good the Victory issues, which John Bull thought up after reading the American papers. All crowds collectable are needed for the sum's seven and a half billion dollars, for the war game stunt hasn't the keen edge it had five years ago. Hence a little bait is being offered in the shape of $75 and $100 bonuses, left to chance, every $500 bond being one ticket in the national lottery. Each year prizes will be issued at the rate of one lucky bond in each two hundred, following a national drawing. The Government will straightaway redeem the lucky bonds at par, thereby making the bonus alluded to, after the numbers are picked out of a hat or something. Even churches have not questioned the need of this lottery stimulus to moneyed Britons with fagged patriotism. As the Daily Mail remarks, the bonds are the only cheap thing in England today. But gambling makes a strong public appeal. That's why racing continues in such high favor—betting tips are sold openly, and a bookmaker occupies as important a position in sporting circles as an unpire.

All of which has nothing to do with the wrangle going on over the propriety of mixed bathing. It's all due to the woman's sea dress. Perhaps a brief description of such a costume is necessary. It couldn't be other than brief and do the subject justice. It's one-piece and "does dower any" freckles that may lurk on the ninth rib or thereabouts. It fits the skin tight and stops mid-thighs. There are no stockings. And all the row is being raised because beach lounging, made possible by unusually warm weather, has arrived, and the bathing costumes haven't been altered, except by the appearance of camouflage suits, which make them seem even briefer.

Fashionable bathing is accomplished by hiring a bathing machine, which is simply a gayly painted shed on wheels, built for one. If you want to be "swank," a mule driver is engaged to drag the machine into the surf. The steps are let down, a door opens and out and directly into the sea steps the mermaid. When sufficient sea water has been swallowed the mulester is signalled and the process is reversed.

All of which makes bathing quite a ceremony. But more often the machines are left on the beach, these burro keepers adding they can make more money by giving fat but fair visitors a burro-jostle along the sands.

CARL MAYS A YANKEE.

New York, July 31.—Carl Mays, who recently deserted the Boston Red Sox is a Yankee today. Boston gets Pitcher Allan Russell and Bob McGraw, another player to be named later and a cash consideration reported to be $25,000 for the title to Mays. It is said the White Sox were ready to pay $40,000 for Mays and other clubs were also bidding.

Make the Finish Like the Start The War Bureau Needs $11,000

SERVICE MEN TO DANCE AT ARMY AND NAVY CLUB

Tomorrow Night the Club House Will Be Scene of Second Dance of Series.

Tomorrow evening the second dance of the series of five will be held at the Army and Navy Club-house. The dance last week was a great success with about fifty couples attending.

An even larger number of young people are expected to be present tomorrow evening for the excellence of the floor in the Club has met with general approval. Refreshments will be served at the canteen. All members of the Club may attend and bring their girl friends. It is necessary to have a membership card to be admitted.

The idea of having a club house where ex-soldiers and sailors would always be welcome was originated by the War Bureau and in the opinion of many it is one of the most important things done. In spite of the fact that during the summer young men are loath to stay indoors, the pool tables, the pianola and the graphophone attract many every night. The long wide verandas make ideal places to rest in the evening. Inside there are card tables, writing tables and reading tables with all the current publications.

But when the cold weather comes the Army and Navy Club will be a home for all ex-service men. Here a fire will burn cheerfully in the large, comfortable looking fireplace. Here will be plenty of light, good reading and good fellowship. Just the thing that Manchester has needed for years for its young men who have never had a place to go in town.

The Red Cross and the Manchester War Bureau have given this building to the town and to the former soldiers and sailors. At first it was not thought possible to have such a pretentious club as now stands on the corner of Forest and Main. The original plans called for a temporary building of light construction. Instead, a very substantial structure that is an ornament to the town has been erected. It now has a membership of almost a thousand.

The cost of the building, including the heating plant, which is yet to be installed, will be slightly under $12,000. The Red Cross contributed $5,000 toward this amount. This leaves $7,000 yet to be raised.

In Manchester, when all of its young men are discharged, there will be over twelve hundred men who can have the Army and Navy Club as a place of constant amusement and recreation. There is scarcely a town in New England that has shown its appreciation to its soldiers in a more tangible way than has Manchester.

ORDER MORE MEDALS.

War Bureau Finds it Needs 379 More for Service Men Now Home.

An order for 379 medals has been placed by the War Bureau and when these arrive they will be distributed among the ex-service men who have been discharged. It is the intention of the Town of Manchester, through the War Bureau, to present each soldier and sailor with a handsome bronze medal, on the front of which is an allegorical figure of victory and on the reverse the name of the man and his rank or rating and an inscription speaking the gratitude of Manchester for the services rendered.

These medals are personal tokens from the people of Manchester to the men who endured and sacrificed that the ideals of the nation might be upheld. About a hundred medals have already been distributed and eventually there will be a medal for every man who is on the town's honor roll.

RAILROADS WANT RAISE.

Chicago, July 30.—Wage increases have been asked by about 100,000 railroad trainmen, shop mechanics and track workers employed on rail lines of the middle west, it became known here today.

The trainmen are asking a minimum wage of $150 per month with time and a half for overtime. The shopmen and trackmen also want an advance in hourly pay.

Railway officials assert that the granting of the men's demands will add several million dollars annually to the operating expenses of the lines.

$9,000 MORE IS NEEDED TO FINISH WAR WORK

$2,000 Has Been Contributed in Response to Requests From the War Bureau.

Over nine thousand dollars is still needed by the War Bureau to make its last drive a success. Almost two thousand dollars have been contributed by Manchester people in answer to the appeals that have been sent them. The money is needed to complete the work of a bureau that has become known throughout the state for its efficiency and invaluable work during the war.

Through the War Bureau the efforts of Manchester people have been coordinated so that the strength and force behind such efforts could be realized. It has, in fact, been the "united command" without which many of the town's attempts to help would have been at cross purposes.

There was not a drive in Manchester that the War Bureau did not aid in a very decided manner to go over the top. There is scarcely a family in Manchester which gave up a son that did not find the War Bureau at one time or another a friend in need.

Pretty soon the men who enlisted from this town will be back again. So the work of the War Bureau is drawing to a close. It needs now to finish the payment of the Army and Navy Club and the Welcome Home Day celebration expenses. Then there will be a small expense connected with the closing up of the War Bureau work.

MANCHESTER STILL HAS 294 MEN IN SERVICE

Out of the 1,241 Who Were in Service 947 Have Reported at War Bureau.

Only 294 of the 1,241 men who left Manchester to contribute their services in the war have not been reported discharged at the Manchester War Bureau. In other words, 947 men have been reported at the Bureau as relieved from further military service.

The following named men have recently reported at the War Bureau as being discharged:

- Reg't Sup. Sgt. Arvid F. Gustafson.
 - Pvt. 1c John Wood.
 - Pvt. 1c James Taylor.
 - Pvt. 1c Paul J. McDonald.
 - 2nd Lieut. Ralph J. Thrall.
 - 2nd Lieut. William C. Bose.
 - Sergt. 1c John H. Crockett.
- In order to keep local and state files complete it is necessary for every man when he returns home to fill out a home service blank to be kept in the town record and a questionnaire which is sent to the department of historical records at the State Library in Hartford, where they will be always kept.

FIANCE OF DEAD GIRL RELEASED BY POLICE

County Physician Convinced That Drowning of Mabel Harris Was Accidental.

Pateron, N. J., July 31.—Lester Decker, fiance of Miss Mabel Harris, whose body was recovered from Pompton River yesterday after her disappearance Sunday night, was released from custody today.

An attempt performed by County Physician Anderson convinced Assistant Prosecutor Hunson that Miss Harris had been drowned and that Decker's story that she lost her life when their canoe was carried over the Pompton Lake dam, was true. Anderson's examination disclosed little water in the girl's lungs, but the county physician said today he thought this condition might have been caused by her fainting or being stunned by being thrown against the rocks.

The bruises on Miss Harris' body and the scratches on her cheeks were attributed to the fact that she was tossed against the rocks below the dam by a strong current. Members of her family expressed confidence in young Decker's innocence after the autopsy.

Decker explained the absence of the girl's shoes by saying she had removed them in the canoe for comfort.

WAR BUREAU FUND IS INCREASED TO $1,865

Personal Appeals in Mail Bring Total Over Eighteen Hundred Mark—Still Much to Be Done.

Over $1,800 has been contributed in the War Bureau fund drive which must have $11,000 to make it a success and to make the ending of the War Bureau work as worthy of the town of Manchester as it was when it played the part of clearing house for "Win the War" efforts.

In the work of gathering funds for finishing up the work of the Bureau, in meeting the expenses of the Welcome Home Day celebration, and in paying off the debt on the Army and Navy club the War Bureau is depending on personal appeals in the form of letters to individuals. It was impossible to send letters to everyone in town and the failure to receive a letter does not mean that a contribution would not be greatly appreciated.

Following is a list of the subscriptions that have come into the War Bureau within the last few days. The names of other subscribers have been previously printed.

STATE QUESTIONNAIRE SHOULD BE FILLED OUT

Connecticut Certificate Will Then Be Awarded Men and Women Who Served in War.

There have been numerous inquiries at the War Bureau regarding the state war certificates, a sample of which arrived yesterday, and which is now on exhibition in the window. A certificate with the name engrossed is to be sent to every man and woman who served during the war. This is a personal memorial of the State of Connecticut.

A supply of these certificates, ready to be distributed, will be sent to the Manchester War Bureau as soon as the State War Questionnaires are sent to Hartford. In order to receive a certificate every returned soldier and sailor should make certain that the state questionnaire has been filled out.

CLAIMS OLDEST BEARD.

Dayton, Ohio, July 31.—W. H. Martin, of Dayton, rises to lay claim to be the champion raiser of hirsute adornment of the land. He defies M. F. Skinner, of Pomona, Cal., who says his upper lip has been adorned for half a century. The Dayton man declares his mustache has been growing ever since the Civil War. Until a few years ago he wore a full beard, but lost it on a wager.

$1,000,000 BONFIRE OF ARMY AIRPLANES WHEN THE WAR ENDED

Investigating Committee Hears Story of Deliberate Destruction.

SAY OFFICERS ORDERED FIRE—FORBADE PHOTOS

But Pictures Were Taken and Enlisted Man Promises to Procure Them for Committee.

New York, July 31.—A "million-dollar fire," in which 100 or more serviceable airplanes were destroyed by order of American army officers, was described by several witnesses who appeared today before the investigating committee, which is investigating cruelties to prisoners and other alleged army irregularities. The hearing was conducted by Representative Royal C. Johnson of South Dakota and Representative Oscar E. Bland of Indiana, republicans. The third member of the subcommittee, Representative Henry Flood of Virginia, democrat, was not present.

The destruction of the airplanes took place at Colombes-les-Belles, near Toul, and details of the fire were supplied by several former non-commissioned officers and men of the air service who were in the French village at the time. None of the witnesses could give any reason for the bonfire or tell under whose orders it had been conducted.

Says 115 Planes Were Destroyed. The only witness examined who saw the fire was John C. McKague, an enlisted man in the air service, who was at Colombes-les-Belles as a casual. He testified that most of the machines destroyed belonged to 2 outfits leaving France for home. They had been inspected and some were marked for salvaging and others were not, but the markings, he said, were disregarded and all were burned. He put the total number of planes destroyed at 115 and said the conflagration was commonly referred to by the soldiers of the "1,000,000 fire." Despite restrictions, he said, certain soldiers took snapshots. He promised to get them for the committee.

At the opening of the hearing, Representative Johnson announced that a cable message from Gen. Pershing to Gen. March, chief of staff, in which the head of the American expeditionary force denied that any destruction had taken place, would be read into the record. The cable message was not available until after the hearing had closed and then proved to be merely a denial of a reported burning of automobiles and damage to other war material at St. Nazaire.

Committee Going to France. The investigation into the airplane fire closed the hearings of the subcommittee in the United States. The inquiry will be continued in France next month.

STOP SENDING SUGAR OUT OF THE COUNTRY

That is Proposal of Representative Elliott of Indiana to Bring Down H. C. of L.

Washington, July 31.—Exportation of sugar would be prohibited for two years under a bill introduced by Representative Elliott, republican, of Indiana. He said wholesalers were giving as a reason for failing to fill orders from sugar retailers the necessity for filling export demand.

Buttermilk Creates Beauty Overnight

Delightful New Vanishing Cream Containing True Buttermilk Makes You Look Years Younger or Money Back.

The first application of Howard's Buttermilk Cream will astonish you. It creates beauty almost like magic, but the most wonderful of the about it is the fact that whilst it turns the dulled and most lifeless complexion to radiant beauty and makes red or rough arms snowy white, yet there is not the slightest sign of its use after application. It actually vanishes from sight and the most heated atmosphere will not produce the least shininess or greasiness of the skin. There is no secret about it nor is there any doubt about the result—it's just common ordinary buttermilk in the form of a wonderful cream gently massaged with the finger tips around the corners of the eyes and mouth. To prove this to your complete satisfaction obtain a small quantity of Howard's Buttermilk Cream from your druggist or at any toilet goods counter on the money back if dissatisfied plan. The directions are simple and it costs so little that any girl or woman can afford it.

FILL YOUR CANS FULL IS BUREAU'S ADVICE

Department of Agriculture Advises Commercial Canners to Put More Food and Less Liquid in Their Containers.

Washington, D. C., July 31.—The "gospel of the full can" is being preached this year to commercial canners by the United States Department of Agriculture through its Bureau of Chemistry, which enforces the Federal Food and Drugs Act, commonly called the "Pure Food Law."

Inspectors of the Bureau of Chemistry will visit personally as many of the canneries this season as they can reach. They advise that all cans of food should be packed as full as practicable without injury to quality. They also advise housewives and other purchasers to note the relative amounts of solids and liquids in the cans they buy, and to give preference to the products of firms that seem to want to give a square deal to the home liquid. Examinations of a large number of cans put up by different firms reveal a wide divergence in this particular.

The Bureau of Chemistry specialists have made investigations to determine exactly how much solid food—from which the liquid has been drained—may be put up in the cans of different sizes in common use without in any way injuring the quality of the product. A certain amount of liquid, which varies with the different products, is necessary. The addition of more liquid than is necessary results in less food in the can, makes an inferior product, wastes shipping and storing space, and is unfair to the consumer. An honest pack promotes fair dealing, conserves containers, food, and shipping facilities, and aids the development of the canning industry.

The quantity of drained food, which is the solid food exclusive of liquid, that can be put more efficiently and economically in each of the various sized cans in common use, has been determined for peas, beans, cherries, pears, and peaches, and the canning industry has been advised of the results. The drained weights for other fruits and vegetables will be announced to the canning industry as they are determined.

In making a declaration of contents on cans of fruits and vegetables under the net weight requirement of the Federal Food and Drugs Act, the total weight of the contents of the can, liquid included, should be declared.

COMMENCING FRIDAY, AUGUST 1 at 8:30 a. m.

WHEN we announced our February Furniture Sale six months ago, we said we believed prices were going to be much higher, and it would pay anyone in need of furniture of any kind to place their orders at once. What we prophesied about prices has proved unpleasantly true, but we did not foresee the acute shortage of all kinds of merchandise which now exists. No longer is it possible to go into the market and buy stock in a normal way. Whereas formerly we were constantly solicited for business by the manufacturers and visited by an endless company of traveling salesmen, now we have to importune the manufacturers for whatever we get, and are asked to wait months before orders are filled. The cause of this condition of things is understandable. The last 18 months of the war the best furniture factories in the country, were practically running 100 per cent on government work. When the armistice was declared, the government machinery had to be disposed of and the equipment for making furniture reinstalled. Meantime many of the best workmen had left, tempted by the more lucrative work in the government munition plants. Before these men could be replaced and the factory conditions brought back to normal basis, came the demand from soldiers returning from overseas, and from a people who had deprived itself of everything which could be done without for two years, and simply overwhelmed the manufacturers.

Relief is not in sight at present. We considered a long time whether to have any August sale or not, but knowing that so many people depend upon it, we at last decided to hold the sale as usual and with the customary discounts. Our stock is an immense one despite the difficulties of assembling it and we believe we can give you what you want. We positively guarantee that the prices noted below are at least 25 per cent less than they will be in three months from now. It will be for our interest to have you buy later but from your point of view, the quicker you buy the furniture you have in mind, the more you can save.

Some are putting off making purchases on account of not being able to secure a house. If you are in that situation, let us say that we will be glad to store any purchases you make without charge and agree to deliver your furniture within forty-eight hours from the time you ask for it.

Summary of the Sale's Salient Features

Terms—The prices quoted are in all cases for cash in thirty days from date of purchase.

Future Delivery—Knowing that many people will like to anticipate their wants and make purchases for their needs ahead of time, we have arranged to store free of charge, not to exceed six months, any purchase made during the sale.

Daily Deliveries—In order to handle the volume of business we anticipate smoothly and give equal service to all we have made the following schedule. Articles purchased before one o'clock will be delivered the following day. Articles purchased after one o'clock or in the evening will be delivered the second day following. For instance, any article purchased Tuesday morning will be delivered Wednesday, but if purchased Tuesday afternoon or evening will not be delivered until Thursday. We hope to have your cooperation in this matter, and we know it will result in greater satisfaction on your part as the furniture when delivered will come to you in much better condition.

Out of Town Purchasers—We shall be glad to refund carfare to out of town visitors who make purchases amounting to $10 or more, and of course we deliver such purchases without charge.

Advantages of our Exchange Department—Variety in one's domestic surroundings is the essence of home contentment. To exchange "something old" for "something new" will be almost as good as a month's vacation. Let us bring the furniture of which you are tired to our Exchange department and apply its value to the price of new things you purchase here.

Visitors—We extend to you a very cordial invitation to visit the store and examine for yourself the articles advertised. If you are not a patron, we want you to become acquainted with us, to know our store, our business methods, the service we give and courteous attention to all.

E. Hibbard. Mr. Allen has no immediate plans for development, but it is said that he will not allow this lot to remain vacant very long.

TO STOP RUNNING MILLS FROM TOWN WATER MAINS

Paper Mills Will No Longer Draw From Manchester Supply—Better Pressure Will Result.

The three paper mills owned by the Lydall & Foulds Co., the William Foulds Co. and the Colonial Board Co., will in a short time get their water supply direct from the stream that supplies the Salter pond. Heretofore these paper mills have been getting the water to run the mills direct from the mains of the Manchester Water Co. Now these concerns are to conduct the water to the mills through a six inch main from the stream and a force of men are now on the job of laying the pipes and it is expected that the work will be completed in a short time. When this work is finished it means much better pressure for the patrons of the Manchester Water Co. This pressure will be on day and night, and it is expected that it will be in the neighborhood of 70 pounds all of the time.

The owners of the three paper mills above mentioned are practically the owners of the Manchester Water Co., and as the supply was plentiful the paper mills used it through the mains. But as the demand for the water increases throughout the territory covered by the Manchester Water Co., the owners have decided that in order to give the necessary pressure at all times they will build a pipe line from the stream to the pond and thus be independent of the water mains. The water company is planning further improvements in the near future.

Tomorrow's Wirthmor Day

a national event, the day on which the NEW and every popular Wirthmor Waists go on sale:

$1.50

—is the price; the same low uniform price at which they are sold the Country over.

If you lived in the Nation's metropolis you couldn't buy a Wirthmor Waist for less than you pay right here at home, and you couldn't buy a newer style. That's because of the unique advantageous Wirthmor Plan which brings the new Wirthmor models to all the Wirthmor Stores simultaneous and gives to every co-operating merchant and in turn to his patrons the benefits of the exceedingly modest price this superior method makes possible

If you know the Wirthmor then you are doubtless buying them repeatedly; if you don't know how good they are, we urge you to make their acquaintance. Come in tomorrow to buy one of these appealing new models that have just arrived.

Wirthmor Waists are sold in just One Good Store in every City.

METHODISTS WILL HOLD CAMP MEETING AUG. 17

Willimantic Institute Plans Religious Features for Week's Program.

PROMINENT SPEAKERS

Missionaries and Evangelists Will Tell of Their Work and How They Achieved Success.

Word comes from the Reverend William H. Bath, superintendent of the Norwich District of Methodist churches, and a former pastor of the South Methodist church, that the executive committee of the Willimantic Institute and Camp Meeting of Methodist churches anticipates one of the most successful sessions in the history of the association. The Willimantic camp meeting opens on Sunday, August 17, and will continue for one week.

An institute social on Saturday evening will precede the opening of the camp. A representation is expected from every Epworth League in the Norwich district. The opening day will be marked by Missionary day meetings, with special speakers morning, afternoon and evening, under the auspices of the Woman's Home Missionary Society and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

Devotional services will be held every morning at 8.30 o'clock on the general theme, "The Prayers of Jesus." These meetings will last about half an hour. These will be led by the Rev. W. C. Darby, Rev. James A. Wood, Rev. C. E. Bromley, Rev. E. P. Phranor, Rev. R. E. Blisbee and Rev. J. E. Duxbury.

Bible study class, based on Eucocock's "The Parables of Jesus," will be led by Rev. E. J. Curry, who has had an extended experience in this work. For the first three days of the week, the Foreign Mission Study class will be led by Rev. J. M. Springer, Methodist Abolitionist, missionary in Africa. The speaker for the last three days is yet to be announced.

Epworth League methods and Personal Evangelism will be in charge of Rev. Albert E. Legg, D. D., recently returned from France, where he was chaplain of a regiment of engineers. A valuable course for Sunday school teachers and workers will be given by Mrs. Lucy Stock-Chapin. Mrs. Chapin will lecture each day. Inspirational messages will be delivered by the Rev. Joseph Cooper of Brookton, Mass. Rev. Cooper will speak on Monday and Tuesday afternoons at 2 o'clock.

On Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Chaplain Legg will speak on his overseas experiences. The two o'clock meetings for the afternoons of Thursday, Friday and Saturday, will be in charge of Gypsy Smith, Jr., who, like his father, is giving his life to evangelistic work. Mr. Smith is said to rival his noted father in eloquence and appeal.

At 6.45 o'clock each evening there will be vesper services when short "Life Work Talks" will be given. These services will present the opportunity to the young people for Christian service in the ministry, medicine, teaching, law, business and nursing. Leaders for the meetings will be chosen from successful men and women in each of these walks of life. Directly after these meetings at 7.30 each evening, sermons will be delivered by the following clergymen: C. C. Tibbets, W. E. Handy, O. J. Aldrich, W. H. Dunnaek, and Ljepold A. Nies.

On the closing day, Sunday, August 24th, there will be a "Love Feast" at 9.30 o'clock in the morning led by Rev. F. C. Booker. The 10.30 and 7.30 sermons will be preached by Rev. Charles L. Goodell of New York city, recognized as one of America's leading pastor evangelists. Dr. Goodell is a wonderful speaker and the Camp Meeting Association is fortunate in securing him for the occasion. The 2.00 o'clock sermon will be delivered by Rev. Leopold Nies, D. D., of Worcester, Mass., one of the most successful ministers in New England. In a down town district he has raised his evening congregation from 175 to 900.

Music for the camp meeting is being prepared by Mr. E. M. Wheeler of Providence who is a specialist along these lines. In addition to the studies, classes, lectures, and preaching services, there will be athletic and social features for the young people. Tennis tournaments, campfires, community sings and other features will also be introduced. Rooms and meals can be secured on the camp grounds.

WATERBURY ELKS TO PLAY ATHLETICS HERE SUNDAY

Fast Game Should Result at Mt. Nob Grounds When These Teams Meet.

The Athletics will play the Elks of Waterbury Sunday on the Mt. Nob grounds. The latter team is composed mostly of former Eastern League players. Walter Ahearn, one of the best catchers in the Eastern League two years ago will be behind the bat for the visitors; Ray Holden, the Torrington boy who is conceded by many to be the best shortstop in the state is also with the Elk team; and O'Neil, one of the best semi-pro pitchers in the state will oppose the Athletics.

If the Hendee Indians will not come to Manchester Sunday, August 10th, the All-Rockville-Athletic series of three games will commence on that day. This series should prove a hummer as the All-Rockvilles were only defeated by the Hendee Indians last Sunday by the score of three to one. May, the All-Rockville's consider holding the Hendee team to four hits.

The Athletics are willing to play the winner of the Hudson-White-Sox series, best two out of three games. The Hudsons or White Sox, whichever team wins the series, must use the same players against the Athletics who participated in the Hudson-White Sox series. The Athletics agree to use their regular players, namely: Matchett, Crockett and Lamprecht catchers, Sipples, Warnock and O'Connell pitchers, Sipples and Warnock shortstop, Fay first base, Massey second base, Wilson third base, Scheldge left field, "Pop" Edgar center field, Kotch right field, "Dick" Edgar utility.

EAST SIDE GIRLS WIN VOLLEY BALL SERIES

Three Games of Series Won by Them—Have 23 Points in All.

The volley ball series between the girls' teams of the East and West side playgrounds has been completed, the former team winning all three games. The girls' team of the East side now leads with a credit of 23 points as against their opponents 17. This includes points credited in the baseball games. The names of the members of these two teams together with the scores follow:

- First game East Side 21, West Side 14.
Second game, East Side 21, West Side 1.
Third game, East Side 21, West Side 14.

Volley Ball Teams. East Side: Marjorie Crockett, Beatrice Sweeney, Mollie Lovett, Lillian Tournaud, Vera Griggs, Rose Woodhouse, Josephine Gleason, Sadie Eagleson. West Side: Arlene McHale, Dorothy Russell, Miss Maxwell, Stella Lincoln, Gladys Behrend, Viola Greenaway, Esther Noren, Elsie Cole.

ONE PINT OF BOOZE FOR EACH CITIZEN, RAID RESULTS

Wheeling, W. Va., July 31.—There is enough whiskey in town to give every inhabitant a pint each. But it will do the thirsty no good. The Ohio County jail holds 1,000 gallons of the inebriated joy, as taken in raids since the state went dry. The whiskey, valued at $25,000, would give two-ounce drinks to 120,000 thirsty. It is estimated,
