U. S. KNEW OF SECRET BRITAIN-JAP PACT 6 MONTHS BEFORE WAR

State Department Knew That An "Understanding" Had Been Reached.

AGREED TO DIVIDE THE PACIFIC ISLANDS

British Were to Take Over German Islands South and Japan North, of the Equator—The Lansing-Ishii Pact.

Washington, Aug. 11.—The State Department had official knowledge six months before the United States entered the war that Great Britain and Japan had a secret agreement or "understanding" whereby they were to split Germany's Pacific Island holdings between them with the equator as a line of division. Secretary of State Lansing informed the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today, when he resumed his testimony regarding the treaty of Versailles. Lansing stated, however, in response to questions by Senator Borah, of Idaho, that neither he nor the State Department had any knowledge, when the armistice was signed, of the secret treaties made between Japan, Great Britain, France and Russia as to Shantung.

He received his first official information regarding their existence in February this year he added.

Lansing-Ishii Pact.

Lansing admitted that the Lansing Ishii agreement had been entered into by him before he learned that Japan had made secret treaties with Great Britain, France and Russia as to the Pacific islands, whereby the Japanese were not only to acquire German rights within Shantung but the British were to take over the German islands in the Pacific south and Japan those north of the equator. Ishii informed him, he said, that Japan was willing to surrender Kiau Chau after the conclusion of peace, but that the Japanese government "would not stand if it Japan were not to retain the Pacific Islands Germany had held north of the equator."

Lansing told Ishii when their agreement was being drafted that he would consent to the use of the phrase "special interest" but not "paramount interest" in connection with Japan's extension of her spheres of influence in China because of Japan's territorial postion.

Open Door Policy.

The purpose of the agreement was a "reaffirmation of the open door policy in China," Lansing added, and he had informed Ishii that the United States favored the application to China by Japan by a doctrine like the Munroe, which was to insure "the self development and independence of American republics." He insisted that he had told Ishii that the United States would never agree to Japan acquiring "paramount interests" in China under the Lansing-Ishii agreement.

"What was Ishii's response?" asked Senator Brandegee, of Connecticut.

"He remained silent," answered Lansing.

"And silence was his only reply?"

"Yes."

R. R. STRIKE SITUATION IS MORE SERIOUS TODAY

Sweeping Freight Embargoes in Effect on Three Leading New England Systems—Further Curtailment of Passenger Service—No Possibility of Men Going Back to Work Before Friday—In Other Parts of Country.

Boston, Aug. 11.—With sweeping freight embargoes in effect on the three leading New England Railway systems, further curtailment of passenger service and no apparent possibility of getting the men back to work before Friday the railroad shompen's strike here a graver aspect today. Delegates from the New Haven, the Boston and Maine and the Boston and Albany roads who assembled here today, said every effort would be made to end the strike at once. According to present plans all the constituent locals of the three roads are to vote on the proposal to return to work and await the prompt settlement President Wilson promises in that event. After a conference at New Haven it was announced that the six drafts out on the New Haven would hold such meetings before Wednesday night. The system will meet Thursday at New Haven, it was said to canvass the votes and if it found that a majority of the strikers are in favor of returning to work they will be ordered to do so Friday morning.

The Boston and Maine and the Boston and Albany men, will, it is expected, have completed their balloting by tomorrow night or Wednesday.

OHIO STRIKE OVER.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 11.—The action in the railroad shompen's strike in Ohio has been broken.

Following the leadership of their international officers, striking workmen of the Pennsylvania, Wheeling and Lake Erie and Nickel Plate shops in Cleveland and are back on the job today.

New York Central shompen out at Ashtabula likewise returned to work today and at Columbus 5,000 shompen of the Pennsylvania, Hocking Valley, Norfolk and Western and Toledo and Ohio Central Railroads were returning to their work today.

At Brewster 750 Wheeling and Lake Erie shompen are still out and at the shops near Cincinnati, Louisville and Nashville and Chesapeake and Ohio workmen to the number of 1,200 are still out.

SERVICE PARALYZED.

New York, Aug. 11.—Service on the Harlem River branch of the New York, New Haven, and Hartford was still paralyzed today as a result of the strike of 150 car inspectors in the Harlem River yards, marooning many pleasure seekers at City Island and other sound resorts. It was stated at the office of the New Haven road that the same service was being maintained on the main line as on Friday.

TO MEET THURSDAY.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—A national conference of striking railway shompen has been called for Thursday and announcement made today that no answer will be made from the Chicago District to President Wilson's appeal to the men to return to work pending settlement of their demand for wage increases.

In the meantime a committee representing all locals of this district involved in the strike is waiting word from Washington before starting for that city for a conference with Railway Director Hines. Former Senator J. Hamilton Lewis is reported trying to arrange a conference between Director Hines and the committee.

Denying reports that the men in the Chicago District are returning to work in response to President Wilson's appeal, the Chicago District council sent the following telegram to 200 cities where workmen are out on strike:

"Ignore reports Chicago men are back to work. We stand by our original demands."

Union leaders declared today the number of men out now totaled 250,000. Of these 28,000 are from the Chicago District.

Steel Magnate and Philan- thropist Passes Away at Summer Home.

DAUGHTER NOT PRESENT WHEN THE END CAME

But Three Days—Caught Cold Which Quickly Developed Into Pneumonia—Wife at His Bedside —His Life.

Lenox, Mass., Aug. 11.—Andrew Carnegie, one of the world's most prominent financiers, steel magnate and philanthropist, died at 7.10 a. m. today at his summer home "Shadow Brook" of bronchial pneumonia. He had been ill but three days and the end was entirely unexpected. He was 84 years old.

Had Mr. Carnegie lived until November 25, next, he would have been 84 years of age. At his bedside at the time of his death were Mrs. Carnegie, his private secretary, John Boynton, the family physician and members of his home staff. Mrs. Roswell Miller, his daughter, was not present.

NEW YORK SITUATION.

New York, Aug. 11.—Union leaders were today reported to be canvassing the situation on transportation lines in Manhattan Island, with a view to calling a strike, following the settlement Saturday night of the strike that tied up Brooklyn's transportation system for four days.

It was reported that the unions within a few days will present to Job Hedges, receiver of the lines of the New York Railways Company, the same demands made in Brooklyn recognition of the union and an increase in wages to 75 cents an hour. They count upon their victory in the Brooklyn strike to win them support among the Manhattan Railway men—not already members of the union.

The Washington View.

Washington, Aug. 11.—Refusal of the majority of the striking railway shompen to return to work is creating a very serious situation throughout the nation. While New England is most seriously affected many of the big systems throughout the country are crippled.

In New England all Pullman, dining and special cars have been taken from through trains and many cities are suffering from a food shortage.

The dangerous factor in the strike, officials here said, is that the men have positively refused to obey their national leaders.

The chiefs of the American Federation of Labor here and the officials of the railway brotherhoods, have counseled and implored the strikers to return to work. They positively refuse.

Meanwhile the railroad administration was standing pat today on the orders of President Wilson that the strike must be called off before negotiations for increased wages are started. Today the various locals of the railway shompen's union throughout the country were deluged with telegrams from the labor leaders now here, asking that the men go back to work at once so that the wage negotiations can be started.

St. John's, N. S., Aug. 11.—The British battleship Renown, bearing the Prince of Wales to America, arrived off Conception Bay early today escorted by the cruisers Dauntless and Dragon. Preparations have been made for the Prince's reception here tomorrow.

Elaborate Reception.

Preparations have been made for a great reception to the Prince when he steps ashore for the first time in America in this little fishing town, not so very far from the spot where Captain John Alcock started the first non-stop trans-Atlantic flight. Triumphant arches have been erected along the principal street and there will be no business carried on during his stay here.

Automobile Tour.

The government authorities have planned a luncheon for the Prince and an automobile tour of the picturesque country around St. John's. He is to be the guest of honor at the first regatta to be held on Quidi-Vidi Lake since the war. From New Foundland, the young heir to throne of England will go to New Brunswick and then proceed to the mainland of Canada, where a busy itinerary has been prepared for his ten weeks' stay. He will have at his disposal a private car equipped with everything from a handle set at the royal bedside to regulate the temperature to a telephone connecting him with all parts of the train.

Federal Agents Spread Net For Food Profiteers Today; Congress Now Ready to Act

PALMER REBUILDS WAR TIME MACHINE TO GET PROFITEERS

Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer today sent to all State Food Administrators in the U. S. the following telegram:

Fair Price Committees.

"In order to secure accurate information relative to charges of profiteering by dealers in necessary commodities it is the desire of the Government to ascertain whether or not such dealers are making more than a fair margin of profit. Will you assist by appointing fair price committees, including one rather of groceries, one of dry goods, a representative of the producers, of organized labor, of housewives, two or three representatives of the public generally, also a wholesaler when practicable?"

"Please request them to pursue approximately the same inquiries with reference to food products and the ordinary necessities in dry goods and clothing that were pursued by your fair price committees under the Food Administration Act."

"This committee will be an extralegal body without power to summon witnesses or fix prices. It is requested, however, to ascertain the cost prices, determine a fair margin of profit, and if retail prices are in excess of what the committee regards as a fair price, to have published its list of fair prices, reporting to you for review.

Report to Washington.

"You are requested to report to the Department of Justice a general review of the situation in your jurisdiction. Any evidence of hoarding or other violations of the Food Control Act which may be developed in the work of such committees should be turned over to the United States Attorney, who will be instructed to employ all his resources as well as those of the Bureau of Investigation to co-operate with you and your committees in seeking out and punishing all violators of the law."

"There is a pressing necessity for the restoration of normal conditions and it is believed that, through the same organization which you had as Federal Food Administrator, you and your county Administrators, together with their appointees, can render a valuable service to the country at this time, and your co-operation and theirs, without compensation, will be greatly appreciated. Please wire whether the Government can count upon your active co-operation."

Every Government Agent in Nation Rounding Up Evi- dence—Food Question Overshadows Treaty of Versailles—Senators to Speak on H. C. of L.— Opposition Develops to Hutchinson Bill.

Washington, Aug. 11.—The first arrests in the Department of Justice fight, on food hoarders, and profiteers were expected today.

With practically every agent of the Department engaged in rounding up evidence on which District Attorneys throughout the country can base prosecutions and with the machinery of the war time food administration reviewed to cope with the situation, scores of violators of the food control act would fall this week into the net that has been drawn tightly around them, officials of the Department said.

Congress Ready to Act.

In the meantime Congress was ready to proceed with consideration of the President's recommendation to bring down the cost of living. It was evident that all of these recommendations would not have plain sailing and that they would be made the subject of spirited debate before they are finally enacted. Opposition has developed in the House to the proposal that commodities be stamped with the price the producer, and this opposition was expected to break forth tomorrow when hearings are opened by the House Agriculture Committee on the cold storage bill sponsored by Representatives Hutchinson of New Jersey. Also the recommendation for an extension of the food control act was not to get through the Senate Agricultural Committee without a battle. Senator Gronna, chairman of the committee, has called a meeting for tomorrow, when the work of grappling with the President's recommendations will be started and Senator Cummins, chairman of the Interstate Commerce Committee today will name a sub-committee to be charged with the drafting of legislation covering the White House proposals.

The Plumb Plan.

The House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee was to decide today whether to continue hearings on the Plumb plan for government ownership and tripartite operation of the railroads, or to devote its entire time for the present consideration of the cost of living legislation.

The food question seemed in a fair way of supplanting the treaty of Versailles in debates on the floor of the Senate, for Senator Reed, of Missouri and Senator McKellar, of Tennessee, announced they would speak on the subject today and others were expected to follow their example.

SELLING UNDER PRICE.

Boston, Aug. 11.—Intimations that surplus army food is being sold cheaper in some cities than it is in others was made today by Mayor Peters in a letter to the quartermaster general at Washington. In this letter, in which he demanded an investigation the mayor called attention to the fact that a firm had offered to the city of Boston several cars of canned food at five cents a pound cheaper than the government quotation. This offer was made by Harris Poerba who said he had six and a half cars of food purchased in New York.

"If the facts are as they seem to be on their face, said the Mayor, it hardly seems as though the people of Boston are being treated fairly. It seems unbelievable that the government would offer similar goods at different prices in different cities."

Budapest, Aug. 10.—(Delayed)—The future form of government for Hungary will depend upon the national assembly, according to a declaration made today by Arch Duke Joseph, head of the regime now in power.

The Archduke received your correspondent at the foreign office. He is a middle aged man of simple appearance, and dressed quietly, even to the verge of shabbiness. He gave the impression as being anxious to help his country out of difficulties.

"I accepted the post offered me from motives of patriotism," said Joseph. "The time has come for that it may become strong and powerful again."

Asked if the monarchy would be established, the Archduke replied: "I cannot say what the result will be. It is for the national assembly to say what we all shall do. We now are preparing for general elections to be held in six or eight weeks' time. The ballot will be conducted on Democratic principles, universal suffrage being granted to all over 24 years of age. Our only hope is to live in close friendship with the entente."

CLEVERLY MADE DUMMY CAUSES MURDER ALARM

Quakertown, Pa., Aug. 11.—Horrified to find what they believed to be the body of a dead girl lying along the banks of a stream near California two children notified the village folks and Coroner White, of this place, made a quick trip to the spot. Arriving on the scene the Coroner found the supposed girl nothing more than a cleverly executed model of a woman made from clay and placed in such a position as to mislead even careful observation. A knife was lying close by and red soap was placed on the hands, indicating a bloody struggle.

GANG OF AUTO THIEVES CAUGHT IN POLICE RAID

Lived in Summer Cottage to Deceive Authorities—Three Automobiles Recovered.

Billerica, Mass., Aug. 11.—Three men and a woman, said to constitute a gang of daring automobile thieves, were arrested today in the second big raid here within a week. In the raid last week three men and two women were seized.

The raid was made in a summer cottage in which a Cambridge woman with two children had been installed as housekeeper, ostensibly to lend an air of respectability to the place, the police said.

Three stolen automobiles were recovered by the police, who also found a quantity of implements for removing numbers from engines and chassis.

One of the prisoners was Leo Kelleher, 20, of Cambridge, who, last week was discharged in the Boston courts on a charge of robbery. The others were Ernest Blevins, 28, of Cambridge, Samuel C. Brack, Somerville, and Evelyn M. Kelley, 19, of Cambridge.

The housekeeper, Mrs. Grace M. Tompkins, of Cambridge, was not arrested.

The prisoners were taken to Cambridge. Brack was charged with receiving stolen property and the others with the larceny of automobiles.

SAY 2000 GAS DEALERS VIOLATE LICENSE LAW

Police Asked to Take Action at Once—Penalty is $100 Fine.

Hartford, Aug. 11.—Commissioner of Motor Vehicles Robbins B. Stoeckel today requested the police departments of the leading cities of the state to arrest all retail gasoline dealers who could not show registration certificates indicating that they have a retail gasoline dealers' license issued by the Motor Vehicle Department.

It is estimated that there are at least 2,000 violators of the law which was passed by the last legislature and which was effective July 1.

Although various warnings have been sent out during the past six weeks to the dealers advising them that the violation of the law called for a fine of $100, only 1450 dealers have registered at the capitol.

The action taken by the commissioner is the result of the warning published in the Herald last Friday that prosecutions would be started today.

NEW NOMINATION.
Washington, Aug. 11.—The nomination of Leon O. Tibbets, of Waterville, Me., to be internal revenue commissioner of Maine, a new office, was sent to the Senate by President Wilson this afternoon.

ANDREW CARNEGIE, NOTED FINANCIER, DIES UNEXPECTEDLY

When oil began to flow in Pennsylvania Carnegie bought several small farms and his gains on these ventures totalled approximately $100,000. Young Carnegie saw the value of steel rails for railroads while visiting in England and, on his return to Pittsburgh laid the foundation of the steel industry which soon had the English beaten at their own game.

His Marriage.
He was married in 1887 to Miss Louise Whitefield, daughter of a rich New York importer. Mrs. Carnegie, not caring for society and having an independent fortune, carried on her own charities and philanthropies, which were as secret as those of her husband were open.

From the date of his marriage his fortune increased by leaps and bounds. Upon becoming sole owner of seven steel and iron works he formed the Carnegie Steel Company, which later became the principal asset of the United States Steel Corporation. Later, after his fortune had been estimated at $280,000,000 and up, he retired from actual business life to devote himself to his hobbies.

Castle in Scotland.
After he had bought the Skibo Castle in Scotland, on which he spent millions to make it his ideal, he went in stronger than ever for music, art and literature. He realized his life's dream of placing education, through reading, within reach of all by founding the great chain of Carnegie libraries throughout the country. The first of these was at Pittsburgh at an estimated cost of more than $300,000.

While libraries were his "hobby", he gave lavishly to churches, parks, organizations and institutions where the benefit has been far reaching. One of his most startling bequests was a gift of $10,000,000 to be used toward the advancement of international peace. This was shortly after he sold out to the United States Steel Corporation for $500,000,000 in 5 per cent bonds. His actual wealth was never very definitely known. His wealth was second to none, unless it be Rockefeller.

PROHIBITION KEEPS ROCKVILLE PEACEFUL.

Prohibition has been the cause of keeping Rockville peaceful for the past six weeks and has practically put the police court out of business. Since the war time prohibition act went into effect, on July 1, there have been but five cases before Judge John E. Fisk in the police court, and three of these were intoxication cases.

When prohibition went into effect Rockville's eighteen saloons did a big business the day before July 1, and sold a large amount of whiskey but it seems that the purchasers are figuring on hard times and saving it for the future.

ENGLAND NOW EXCITED OVER AIRCRAFT SCANDAL

Newspapers Filled With Results of Probe—Dead Men Were Kept On Payrolls.

London, Aug. 11.—The sensational Air Ministry scandal, revealed by the probe into useless expenditures, was the leading topic of comment in the newspapers today. The matter will be brought up in parliament this evening.

The following charges were made as a result of the investigation.

- 1.—That $3,000 was over paid on one contract.
 - 2.—That materials were diverted to private jobs.
 - 3.—That contracts for women's uniforms were given to manufacturers whose bids were previously rejected.
 - 4.—That dead men were kept on the payrolls and that there were over payments of $75,000 men.
- The newspapers are demanding prosecution of the delinquents. According to the probe the government attorney had refused to prosecute on the ground it would reveal inefficiency and absence of control on the part of the officials.

TO WIN OVER HUDSONS IS BECOMING REGULAR HABIT WITH WHITE SOX

Clean Victory in Second Game of Series by 7-1 Score.

VITNER DOES HIS BEST

But it Takes More Than One Run to Win When the Other Side Has Seven.

Combating against a mystic spell cast over them by a Voodoo seeress, the Hudsons were again defeated by the White Sox in the second game of their series at the Adams street grounds yesterday afternoon by a score of 7 to 1. From the opening stanza to the final inning the victory was never in doubt and it would appear now that the Sox are the better players.

The gathering of fans was the largest ever seen in that section of the town but the interest that characterized the opening game seemed to be lacking. The game, although a bit one sided, was interesting and at times marked by a number of sensational plays. The appearance of a mysterious woman who had predicted a Hudson victory created a great deal of curiosity. It is recommended that this individual take a post-graduate course in black art.

P. Daoust was in excellent form yesterday. To F. Vitner goes the credit for the first Hudson hit off Daoust in twelve innings, the wallop being a clean hit over second. J. Vitner romped home with the first Hudson run in eighteen innings, coming in from third when Rider dropped a ball from the bat of J. Benny.

The game started with Daoust and McAdams on the mound for the Sox and McCann and Wilkinson for the Hudsons. "Mull" McCarthy held the indicator while Wormstedt officiated at bases. Decisions from both referees satisfied fans and players and were never doubted or questioned. The game opened with the Sox in the field.

J. Benny, the first Hudson man to face Daoust, fouled to McAdams. Wilkinson up, rapped one to Pitt who threw wild, the batter going second on the throw. McDonald, following Wilkinson, filed to center. F. Vitner walked and Coil retired the side by striking out. The Sox squeezed two runs across the plate in their half of this inning. Ritchie walked and took second when Wilkinson dropped a pitched ball. Kornas up, advanced his team mate to third with a slow bunt and also beat the throw to the initial base. Brennan following Kornas bunted and Ritchie was called at the plate on an attempted try for home. Kornas taking third on the play. His game with the first run of the game when L. Daoust laid down a bunt in the middle of the diamond. Pitt up, filed the base with another bunt but Brennan was forced out at third on White's infield hit. L. Daoust came in from third with the second run when McCann threw high to Wilkinson. Rider ended the inning with a weak hit to McCann. Vitner went out in the second inning with the Hudsons up, when he singled to L. Daoust. Russell hit by a pitched ball took first. Gustafson up, struck out. McCann following walked, Russell going to second. The latter took third on a passed ball but the prospects of a Hudson tally ended when Jack Benny popped a weak one to P. Daoust. The Sox scored another run in their half when McAdams walked, took second on P. Daoust's sacrifice bunt, and went on a wild throw. He came home when Ritchie bunted and Wilkinson dropped the ball on the throw to the plate.

Get a Hit Off Daoust. The third inning was marked by the first Hudson hit of the series off Daoust. F. Vitner captured this honor with a clean single to center. With the Sox at bat McCann and McDonald featured in a double play. No runs were scored by either team. The fourth inning brought forth two more White Sox tallies. The Hudsons had another opportunity to score in this inning. J. Vitner up singled to Daoust, and was thrown out at first. Russell walked and stole second. Gustafson struck out, Russell took third when L. Daoust fumbled McCann's grounder. J. Benny ended the inning by striking out. The game to White Sox runs. P. Daoust was thrown out at first on an infield hit. Ritchie walked. Kornas was thrown out on an infield hit, Coil to McDonald. Brennan up, advanced Ritchie with a single to center and L. Daoust following sent both men home with a triple. Pitt ended the inning with a hit to right garden.

The first of the fifth went by fast for the Hudson batters. Wilkinson was caught stealing second after having gained first when he was hit by a pitched ball. McDonald up struck out and J. Vitner filed to Daoust. The Sox put two more runs on the board in their half when Algrim, batting for White, singled to left field. He took third on Rider's sacrifice. McAdams up, bunted safely and P. Daoust filled the sacks on a walk. McCann forced Algrim in by walking Ritchie, and McAdams came home on Kornas's sacrifice hit to right field. The inning ended when Brennan filed to left field.

Both twirlers tightened up from the fifth on, and there was no scoring done until the Hudson half of the final frame. J. Vitner came in with the first Hudson tally of the series when he singled to center and took up the dust to the diary corner of Russell's stage, he crossed the plate when Rider dropped Jim Benny's bunt to center. Jack ended the game by grounding to Pitt who threw him out at first.

ATHLETICS WIN 10-1 OVER SPRINGFIELD NINE

Gilbert and Barker Team Meets Defeat at Nebo Diamond.

9 RUNS IN TWO INNINGS

Desire for Another Skirmish With Hen-dee Indians is Now Greater Than Ever Among Locals.

Fresh from a 3 to 0 victory over the Hen-dee Indians on Saturday afternoon, the crack Gilbert and Barker team of Springfield arrived at Mount Nebo grounds yesterday afternoon eager of victory over the home club which has received much free publicity in the columns of the Springfield Union. The Athletics administered a crushing defeat to their guests, the time of the victory march being 10 to 1.

It was a terrible slaughter and three Springfield twirlers succumbed to the onslaught of the local hickory walders. Ward, who opened the game for the visitors, lasted but one-third of an inning. Crowe, who replaced him, did much better, going four and two-thirds innings. The latter however, was forced to retire in favor of Bangs who came in from third in an effort to check the third assault of the Athletic bats.

The locals scored nine runs in the first two innings. That they were earned on clean hits is evidenced by the fact that the visitors made but two errors in the entire game. Warnock was in his glory and twirled effectively allowing but two hits. Massey, Sipples and Fay did the bulk of the scoring for the Athletics. With the locals in their present form the Hen-dees look like easy picking.

ATLAS-CRESCENT TEAMS NOW ON 50-50 BASIS

Have One Game Each—Will Play Off The Next Sunday on Neutral Grounds.

In the second game of the Crescent-Atlas series for the junior championship of the town of Manchester, played at the West side playgrounds yesterday afternoon, the former aggregation came back strong and defeated their rivals by a score of 2 to 0.

Both teams now stand on even terms each having one game to their credit. The Atlas won the first game at the Main street ball grounds last week by a score of 3 to 2. The deciding game will be played on a neutral diamond next Sunday.

Thornton of the Crescents bated Cervini in a pitcher's duel, but four hits being secured off his delivery. Cervini usually consistent was touched quite freely yesterday when hits were needed.

Both teams played good ball only one error being made during the en-the regular season and waited for the Crescents while Cervini and Cervini played well for the Atlas.

WATCH FOR BIG NEWS.

An investigation "of the widest scope" into Mexican affairs has been announced from Washington.

The public will do well to look through the glasses of suspicion at any mention of Mexico and her relations with this country for the next few months.

Attempts to bedevil this country from its southern border are not new. The most extensive endeavor was made by the imperial government of Germany in the years immediately preceding our entry into the war.

The committee which is to do the investigating, and unquestionably a lot of very public reporting, for the Senate is composed of one Democrat, Senator Smith of Arizona and two Republicans, Senators Brandegee of this state and Senator Fall of New Mexico.

The Herald of Saturday carried the announcement of the plans of the committee but there are a few other facts which we deem it within our province to lay before our readers. They have to do with the chairman of the committee, Senator Albert B. Fall, leading citizen of Three Rivers, New Mexico.

To those who have had regard for the Senator's actions during the past few years it has been increasingly evident that he was desirous of a still newer Mexico than the one wherein he makes his happy home when he is not otherwise engaged at Washington.

In 1916 General Pershing made a dash into Mexico under orders to capture Villa who had conducted a raid on Columbus in Senator Fall's own state and killed nine U. S. troops and eight civilians.

Three days after this Senator Fall wrote a letter to one Charles F. Hunt, an El Paso broker who was acting as intermediary for him, and sought to arrange a meeting with the very bandit whom the United States forces had been pursuing.

Below, just what I thought was best for this Government to do in Mexico. Frantically to this, Hunt had written to Villa that if he would meet him at a certain place on the border he (Hunt) would bring with him "one of the most eminent statesmen in the United States, with powerful influence with both our political parties relative to questions pertaining to Mexico. I refer to United States Senator Albert B. Fall."

The termination of this interesting correspondence was an invitation sent to the Mexican outlaw by Senator Fall's go-between; an invitation for which Villa is presumably still waiting. It was inconsiderately intercepted by a secret service agent of the United States government.

These things may or may not have a bearing on the future reports of the investigation committee. They will probably appear over Senator Fall's signature. By some they will be read as the results of an unbiased inquiry and by others they will be read as something else.

Some of the old soaks who think they cannot get along without their booze are concocting all sorts of home made brews in the effort to get something to drink which has the alcoholic kick. Almost every day the papers relate instances in which these home made drinks have caused illness or death. It is too bad that men have such an inordinate thirst but it must be admitted that those who do have it are not of much use to their families or to the world at large.

We cannot place much confidence in the success of the efforts of Food Commissioner Scoville and his deputies who have been asked by the United States attorney general to resume their war functions with the object of reducing the high cost of living.

At eleven o'clock in the morning, nine months ago today, the guns on the Western front ceased booming for the war was won. But still the Senate withholds complete victory in order that it may bicker and sputter over matters which the country at large regards as settled.

THE WINNING OF THE WAR. (E. S. M. in Life.) "Don't forget," said Field Marshal Haig at Newcastle, "don't forget it was the British Empire that won this war."

We talk a great deal about our allies. It was necessary and right that we should do so to buck them up all we could while the fighting was going on, but you know our Russian friends, let us down and the Italians didn't do a very great deal. Then our French friends made the best of it, but then they really had a very hard job at the beginning.

It may, perhaps, be discussed to advantage by elimination. Belgium didn't win the war. France didn't, thought she did most of the fighting. Russia didn't win it, nor Italy, nor Serbia, nor Portugal, nor Montenegro, nor Japan.

But they didn't. President Wilson told the sailors on the Fourth of July: "If it had not been for America the war would not have been won." Eight months ago that was almost a universal opinion. Everybody said so. The English—some of them—will forget soon, and many have forgotten already, that any Yankee got to Europe, just as they promptly forgot that there was anybody but Wellington at Waterloo.

In the reconstruction of world had been deeply implicated in it, and nearly all of them were so heavily taxed that they must all work together to avoid a common destruction. The United States saved the day, but it didn't win the war. Belgium, France, Russia, Britain, Italy and finally the United States saved the day in turn. Between them all the war lasted till the Allies won it.

"Unless the railroad strike breaks up, the embargo on express shipments is lifted. I shall be forced to close my theatre before the end of the week," said John F. Sullivan last evening.

Mr. Sullivan, who conducts the Park and Circle theaters, is having difficulty in securing films for both houses. Saturday noon he received telegrams from Boston saying that no films would be shipped by express until the strike cleared up.

He was also notified that films would be shipped from Boston to Springfield by auto-truck and it was up to him to make arrangements for their delivery to Manchester from the latter point. On Saturday, a messenger was dispatched to Springfield but the truck did not arrive.

AT 95 HE DRIVES AUTO AND HARVESTS HIS GRAIN. Noblesville, Ind., Aug. 11.—Clark Millikan, who lives in the north-western part of Hamilton County, came to Noblesville the other day purchased an automobile and drove it home. Nothing extraordinary, except that he's probably the oldest man in the country driving a motor car.

TUMBLES TWICE IN SAME PLACE Pittsburgh, Aug. 11.—Lightning doesn't hit twice in the same place—but Elizabeth Brastie, a fair milkmaid, did. Elizabeth was driving her father's milk wagon and was crossing the railroad tracks when the horse's hoof caught. The sudden stop threw the girl out. Her ankle was sprained.

SUPPORT TROLLEYS SAYS EDISON TO THE WORKING MAN

Electrical Wizard Believes the Railways Help to Build Homes.

EVERY MAN ENTITLED TO HOME OF HIS OWN

Increased Fares Should be Paid So the Roads May be Able to Extend Their Lines, He Says.

Thomas A. Edison believes that the country is making a great mistake in permitting its trolley lines to suffer from lack of support and in a long interview in the New York Sun argues that the electric street railway is an economic necessity for the working man as it enables them to live in the country while employed in town and city.

Men who once drew wages of $1.75 per day now are drawing wages of $4 and $5 a day, which more than meets the increased cost of living. Why shouldn't they pay a few cents more to the trolley companies who have had to raise their operating costs enormously?

Lay British High Prices To American Food Trust

London, Aug. 11.—London faces two perils today, one containing an element of humor and the other serious enough.

All England is holidaying—holidays having been very largely passed off during the war—and Londoners find that all the summer resorts within reach of the average pocket-book are "booked-up," or that the prices prevailing at these summer centers have doubled overnight.

In the midst of her holidays London is giving thought to the winter and, by all accounts, serious thought, for the prospect seems to be far harder, and more expensive living conditions than prevailed when the Huns were knocking at the doors of Paris.

As regards the holidays: It is bred deep in the British character that whatever the outlook for the future, having worried through four years of war, there shall be a real holiday this year. So, with real or assumed forgetfulness of the price of things and that danger of dearer coal and whatnot, the Englishman sets about preparing for a seaside trip of good old pre-war dimensions.

This is what he has found: Obscure boarding houses on the South Coast, where he stayed of old for $7.50 to $15 a week, now ask $22.50. Hotels ask $35 for third-floor rooms and $50 to $75 for first and second-floor rooms. An insignificant village on the South Coast emerges into the profiteering class easily with a charge of $105 for a family of four with maid. And in spite of these prices, prohibitive under the usual standards of holiday making for the proletariat, most of the resorts might very well put up "standing room only" signs. For the soldiers have their gratuities and the officers even tidy bank accounts, and each is determined to spend the last of their Government money getting this one "bust" out of the way before setting down to work.

As some of these resorts are "booked right up to the end of September" there will be waiting lists and some late vacations, or holidays, as they're always known in England. These late holiday-makers, by all accounts, are coming home to some pressing domestic problems.

The Government has quickly slowed up its process of decontrol of food products and resumed control of some products that had heretofore been freed. The outlook is bad, and it is aggravated, in public opinion, by the reports that the American meat trust is buying up food right and left, even reaching into the British colonies to get hold of supplies which England considered safely awaiting her needs.

"When I came into the Ministry of Food three months ago the cry of the public everywhere was for decontrol," says Charles A. McCurdy, M. P. "In my opinion we have gone too fast.

"Now we are faced with a very serious position. We decontrolled bacon, for instance. Today it is practically impossible for the working class to get bacon, and wherever procurable it is at a very high price. "Again, we decontrolled margarine. The price of margarine is rising and will continue to rise, and the public must be prepared to pay more.

"During the war the Allied Governments have been very closely associated for the buying and distribution of foodstuffs. The American Government has been one of the biggest purchasers from the 'packers.' "Unless something is done—and it may be done—if this association of the Allies breaks up with signature of Peace, we have the fact at once that the comparatively helpless and unorganized wholesale and retail dealers of the world are pitted against the highly-organized food trust of America.

"The 'Big Five' in the United States has been, and is, unfairly manipulating live-stock markets, "Restricting international supplies,

"Controlling the prices of deersed meats,

"Crushing effective competition, and

"Profiteering on a great scale.

"They are rapidly extending their power to cover fish and every kind of foodstuff. That is to say, they have a grip on a large part of the essential foodstuffs of the people of the world."

When you add to this the fact that the coal miners are not bringing up enough coal to insure a comfortable winter, and the fact that the coal that is delivered will be at a new advanced price, it is little wonder that the people of England are having their fling at holiday time regardless of the profiteers. They will think about the future when the holiday time is over and when the Government bounty has been spent.

GREY AS AMBASSADOR.

London, Aug. 11.—Viscount Grey, foreign secretary at the beginning of the war is considering the government's offer of the British ambassadorship at Washington, the parliamentary lobbyist correspondent of the Daily Express stated today. Acceptance depends upon the report of the specialists who are treating Sir Edward for his eyes and general health.

PRISON BARBER LOSES JOB WHEN INMATES STRIKE.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 11.—Ben Owens, the negro barber who has done the tonsorial work of the City Jail for the last twenty years, is out of a job. It would seem that he would have a "sure thing" in his business with no competition and 180 involuntary patrons—but the prisoners have struck. They no longer care to patronize Owens and have demanded a new barber.

"He's bum—his razor is a hoe", chorused 180 husky voices when Warden McCully asked the reason for the strike.

"He don't clip you with the clipper—he just naturally grabs the hair out", said another.

Owens moved his equipment out of the jail after the protest.

BOY CHOKES TO DEATH ON A PEANUT

Eugene, Ore., Aug. 11.—An eight-year-old boy is dead here, having choked on a peanut.

The boy was Clyde L. Lewis, son of Mrs. Guy Redding. It was at first thought the lad had taken poison. The peanut became lodged in his windpipe.

SUES CHURCH FOR BROKEN LEG

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 11.—A suit has been filed in Circuit Court here by Jiva Perrin, in which he asks $5,000 damages from the Holy Trinity Serbian Orthodox Church School Parish. Perrin alleges that on February 2, 1915, he went to the church to attend a wedding and while there fell down a flight of stairs and broke a leg.

Fighting Men Back Martin's Claim to Heavyweight Title

New York, Aug. 11.—Bob Martin, of Akron, Ohio, who fought his way through the ranks of heavyweights to the championship of the Allied armies at the inter-Allied games in France, stands in the way of Jack Dempsey's claim to the world's heavyweight championship.

Martin's boosters believe—and he has the backing of two million American soldiers and some ten million fighting men of the Allies, according to reports—that he has a better claim than Dempsey to the title of world's champion.

General Pershing has placed the stamp of approval on Martin. The American commander praised the Akron boy highly for his success and predicted great things for him after having seen him dispose of the pick of the huskiest scrappers of fifteen Allied armies.

Captain H. O. Ware, of the United States Cavalry, is one of Martin's most enthusiastic boosters. In a letter to the sporting editor of a Philadelphia newspaper Captain Ware declares that if Jack Dempsey wants to prove his claims to the world's title he must seek Bob Martin and defeat him. Ware is responsible for the statement that the army champion has the unanimous vote of two million American soldiers who look upon him as the real heavyweight champion.

Captain Ware is perhaps a trifle over-enthusiastic about Martin, but his enthusiasm is prompted by honest conviction. He points out that Martin as a fighting man, having defeated the best fighters that could be dug from the ranks of the Allied armies without the guidance of a manager or the lure of a rich purse to spur him on, deserves more credit than Jack Dempsey because he has met and defeated men from various parts of the world, whereas Dempsey's activities have been confined to the United States alone.

If Ware speaks for the majority of American soldiers, as he says, the popular demand for a match between Martin and Dempsey should bring the two together in the not far distant future. At any rate, the bout would be bound to attract wide interest.

In speaking of the activities of American boxers in the big tournament in France, Captain Ware does not confine himself to the heavyweight division alone. He presents Martin, heavyweight; Eddie Egan, Denver, middleweight, and Benny McNajil, Philadelphia, lightweight, as "our champions"—champions of the A. E. F.—and that goes for the rest of it, Jack Dempsey, Mike O'Dowd and Benny Leonard not excepted.

The spirit and the enthusiasm of Captain Ware and other American fighting men in boosting the A. E. F. champions is admirable. It shows the kind of spirit that made the Americans invincible at Chateau-Thierry, St. Mihiel and the Argonne. It is their right to think as they please of their champions and boost them as high as they please, and though they may step on the toes of some of our generally recognized champions in doing so the action is pardonable.

It is the opinion of many who have followed boxing activities in the Army and Navy that many a future champion may come from the ranks of the men who bore the colors in the world war. They should be given every chance and all the encouragement possible. Should they fail to demonstrate the class that is claimed for them they will have nothing great to lose. If two million Americans say they are good, they must be good.

AN INTERNAL TREATMENT FOR PILES (HEMORRHOIDS)

Gives absolute relief from all pain and suffering. Never fails. Guaranteed.

Many people have become dependent because they have been led to believe that their case was hopeless and that there was no remedy for the trouble. Go to your druggist and get an original bottle of Miro Pile Remedy, the discovery of a clever Ohio chemist that taken internally, passes unimpeded through the stomach and intestines, and thus reaches the source of the trouble where, by its soothing, healing antiseptic action, it first relieves and finally causes them to heal and disappear forever.

Two positively marvelous how speedily it acts. Blisters relief often comes in two or three days, even in cases that have resisted all previously known treatments. Really wonderful results have been accomplished. It is one of the wonderful discoveries of recent years and anyone who is disappointed with his use can have their money refunded.

Just read what Mr. F. M. Smith of 2311 Broadway, Lorain, Ohio, says: "I gladly recommend Miro Pile Remedy for Piles. There is no equal to it. I suffered for 15 years and tried everything that was recommended. I fasted for years and was a constant sufferer with bleeding piles. I took two bottles of Miro and was entirely cured. Any sufferer using it will never regret it."

All druggists dispense Miro or can get it for you on short notice. Surely it is worth the little trouble to obtain to get rid of piles for good.

IMPORTANT—What is known as itching piles are not piles in the true sense of the word, although this condition may accompany a true case of piles. For this condition a different treatment has been prepared and in such cases it is not necessary to take the internal prescription.

If you druggist cannot supply you, we will gladly send either of the above mail charges paid in the amount of $1.00. Ointment 50c, war tax 50c extra. Internal treatment $1.50. Guaranteed Remedies Co., Elyria, Ohio.

Circle Theater

"Married in Haste", the first picture produced by William Fox for his new star, Albert Ray, and his new leading woman, Elinor Fair, is a smashing big comedy of the cleanest and liveliest sort—snappy, rapid, bubbling with fine humor and exorcistically funny in its situations. Both Mr. Ray and Miss Fair, are fitted perfectly by nature and training for this sort of work. They are destined to become favorites of the first rank with all motion picture-followers who love comedy of the best sort—comedy that appeals with greatest force to the American public. They are heralded by Mr. Fox for a series of photoplays which will present "the sweetest stories ever told."

Albert Ray and Elinor Fair are winners with a great big "W." "Married in Haste" is said to be a fast, snappy comedy drama. It deals with a young spendthrift who is forced to make good in business because of the scheming of his young wife to keep his own money away from him until he has done so. He does make good finally; but the road that he and his bride travel meanwhile is beset by many obstacles—most of them laughable. In their poverty they are mistaken for crooks; but his wife, always with her eye on the main chance, helps hubby into a position in which he does something beside spending money.

Besides this feature there will be a comedy and another episode of that whirlwind serial "The Perils of Thunder Mountain."

TAGGING THE BASES

All McGraw has to do to lose a ball game is to release one of his players to some other club. Davy Robertson, who went from the Giants to the Cubs, smashed out a home run with one on ahead of him and licked the Giants, 2 to 0.

With the injunction still working, Carl Mays flipped the Yankees to another victory, Cleveland suffering. The Reds are out in front now by a five and one half game margin, their win over the Phillies in 13 innings being responsible.

Nothing to worry about—the Braves taking three straight from the Cards.

Shaw carried Cicotte along for 11 innings and then was forced to see the game tossed away by Foster who let in the lone run by a wild heave. The Dodgers rushed home to stage a Sunday game with the Pirates only to lose.

Park Theater

Suspense. Action. Heart inter-est. Youth. Romance. These are some of the things you'll find in "Phil-for-Short," the new World picture starring Evelyn Greeley which is scheduled for showing tonight at the Park theatre.

"Phil-for-Short" is not alone a delightful play, it is an absorbing fascinating, entrancing production and you are certain to enjoy it thoroughly. It is the story of a modern girl—modern, that is, in her independence, in her love for the right and in her dislike for the old fettering conventions which decreed that her sex must not wear men's clothing. Of course Phil doesn't wear men's clothing all the time, but when she works in her garden she dons overalls and this is the cause of much agitation on the part of an old maid of her town and the old maid's brother.

"Phil-for-Short" is mighty pleasing, mighty interesting, mighty good entertainment from start to finish. It is just the sort of entertainment that every member of the family thoroughly enjoys.

On the same bill will be a comedy and a new Craig Kennedy detective story.

For tomorrow and Wednesday almost everybody within miles of Manchester knows that "Heart of Humanity" is coming. This gigantic film feature is the cinema wonder of the last ten years. There will be special effects and a big augmented orchestra. Each evening the feature will be shown promptly at 8.30.

Here is what the New York Times says of "The Heart of Humanity":

"The Heart of Humanity," a distinct achievement of motion picture creation. . . . Allen Holubar, who directed it, did his work with independent intelligence, finesse and skill. In little scenes and big he was master of the technique of directing. Some of his battle panoramas are among the most comprehensive and vivid ever produced on the screen, and by touches here and there throughout the play he succeeded remarkably in putting such definite meaning into the action—that the impending sub-titles which would have been used, by less industrious and accomplished directors were omitted because unnecessary."

SMALLEST PENKNIFE.

Wellesley, Mass., Aug. 11.—A gold-handled penknife that is so small it could pass through the eye of an ordinary darning needle is on display in the window of its maker, Solomon L. Baxter, jeweler, here. Baxter claims it is the smallest penknife in the world. The little knife has two steel blades, measuring three thirty-seconds of an inch. Three tiny steel rivets hold the sides and blades in position.

STRIKES CAUSE DESERTION OF CAMPGROUND

The strike of the Shore Line Electric Company employees, which has been on for four weeks, has had its effect in the attendance of cottagers at the Willimantic Camp Ground. It was expected that at least 140 cottages would be occupied. The number is now but sixty-nine. With the announcement of the railroad employees' strike, many left for their homes. With no transportation between Willimantic and the grounds except by jitney, the cottagers found that they could not stand the rate of fares, and for that reason many left.

SECURING ARMY FOOD FOR MANCHESTER MUST WAIT UNTIL WEEK END

Nothing Can Be Done Before Selectmen's Meeting on Friday.

OFFICIAL TELEGRAM SAYS ACTION MUST BE PROMPT

Stock on Hand Moving Quickly and No Promise is Given of Future Supply.

That Manchester may be able to secure, through the selectmen of the town, a portion of the supply of foodstuffs which are being sold and distributed by the Army equalization boards at cost prices is indicated by the receipt of a telegram to the selectmen Saturday from Zone Supply Officer Wilkins. The telegram follows: "Referring circular letter, this office August 1, now have authority to ship foodstuffs to you on thirty days consignment at prices indicated in circular providing, however, that city charter or laws do not prevent city buying outright for resale. Goods must be paid for or returned within thirty days. Shipments can be made only upon receipt of letter stating that mayor or other heads of local government, will act as agent and supervise distribution or appoint some other responsible individual to act. Freight from point of shipment also freight on return goods must be paid by you. Quick action urged, as stock on hand is moving quickly. All orders accepted only subject prior sale."

In commenting on Mr. Wilkins' telegram many of the officials seem to appear to be in favor of the plan. The present supply of foodstuffs which the Army boards are distributing consist of hams, bacon and canned goods. There is very little demand at this time of the year for the latter. Town Treasurer George H. Waddell, who is the purchasing agent for the Town of Manchester, said this morning that nothing would be done about the matter until a number of the members of the Board of Selectmen who are out of town returned. It is very probable that these men will arrive in time for Friday evening's session and in this event the board will probably decide whether or not it would be practical to order a consignment of foodstuffs.
