CAPT. CAMPBELL NEVER BEFORE BOARD BEFORE

Sentence of Commissioners Was Lightened Because of His Good Record.

HAD NEGLECTED LIGHT

Captain Repeatedly Told to See That Lantern on Dummy Cop Was Burning—E. J. Holl Discusses Case.

The Herald's account of the recent controversy between Police Commissioner G. E. Willis and Captain W. R. Campbell, published Saturday, implied that the Captain had been summoned before the Board of Commissioners three or four times for disciplinary action. Such is not the case and in the interests of fair play the Herald takes this opportunity to correct any injustice which Captain Campbell may have suffered as a result of the statement.

The reprimand read to Captain Campbell during a meeting of the Commissioners, which was closed to newspapermen, expressly stated that the mild nature of the censure given him for insolence and insubordination was due to the fact that he had so good a previous record. Captain Campbell has never before been before the Commissioners for disciplinary action.

The Captain had, however, within the space of six weeks, been repeatedly admonished for neglecting the red light on the dummy cop at the corner of Charter Oak and Main streets.

Commenting on the Willis-Campbell episode, which he likened to a mole hill turned into a mountain, Commissioner E. J. Holl said, "Though the censure administered to Captain Campbell was of the mildest nature possible under the circumstances, I do not want the impression to go abroad that the Board of Commissioners will tolerate insubordination of any kind. Captain Campbell is an alert and efficient officer but he was plainly at fault in this matter and fully deserved the action taken by the Board.

"Commissioner Willis is an excellent member of the Board and I feel that he should be sustained in his efforts to improve the morale of the police force. The Board will not stand for insubordination of any sort from any member of the force and, as was told in the Herald Saturday, it was made clear to Captain Campbell that a second appearance before us on a similar charge would, if proved, be followed by drastic action. This also applies to other members of the force.

"We are working in the interest of the town and in that interest only and it is only fair to the members of the police force to say that in most cases we have been met with a good spirit of co-operation."

ROBT. V. TREAT LEAVES MANCHESTER TRUST CO.

Has Been Secretary and Treasurer for the Past Fifteen Years.

TAKES UP TOBACCO TRADE

Well Known and Popular as Banker—Will Join Father-in-Law in Tobacco Business.

Announcement was made at the Manchester Trust Company this morning that Robert V. Treat, for fifteen years connected with that institution, has resigned as secretary and treasurer to enter the wholesale tobacco business with his father-in-law, Arthur Manning of Manchester. Mr. Treat's resignation will take effect on November 1st. His successor has not yet been appointed.

Mr. Treat entered the bank in 1904 as a clerk and through careful attention to banking details, worked his way through the many responsible positions connected with the business. He was elected secretary and treasurer Sept. 13, 1915. Because of the confidence of Manchester people in Mr. Treat, he has added much to the popularity of the bank. In his resignation the depositors will lose a conscientious advisor, and the bank a highly efficient and trusted official.

Mr. Treat will still remain as a director of the Manchester Trust Co.

NORTHCLIFFE'S PAPERS RAP BRITAIN'S POLICY

Attack Plan of Suppression Against the Sinn Fein in Ireland—Plunkett Talks.

London, Sept. 15.—The Northcliffe press today attacked the government's policy of suppression against the Sinn Fein in Ireland.

"The present attempt to hold down Ireland will fail and is only adding to the long catalogue of waste," said the Daily Mail. "Not by military methods can a settlement be effected."

The Times calls it "a very grave advance along the path of suppression and the very bankruptcy of statesmanship."

"If this government won't approach it there must be others that will."

Sir Horace Plunkett, chairman of the former Irish convention that attempted to settle the Irish problem, has sent a letter to the press repudiating the assumption that the Sinn Fein parliament has been connected with crime. The letter concludes: "Before long the Irish banshee will haunt the British parliament. Pray God it may be its last appearance."

Dull Clouds Turn Themselves Inside Out for Little Folks

Child Welfare Committee Stages Brilliant Exhibition

Salvation Army Band Gives Music as Special Feature—Spectator is Discouraged as He Thinks of Contrast Between Age and Youth.

Now, Mrs. Anderson, I really would like to say that your baby was about as pretty a child as was ever brought to a Baby Show anywhere. And yours, too, Mrs. Smith. I think the same was true of your little boy, Mrs. Pallantino. And of the seven hundred and forty baby girls and boys who made the Child Welfare show at the Center Park Saturday afternoon a spectacle unlike anything that has ever been held in Manchester.

As one disillusioned infant said after he had watched infants in arms, babies in carriages, tiny girls toddling behind their tinier go-carts, little boys manfully hauling express wagons, he exclaimed, "But what's the use of all these cunning little babies growing up to homely men like you and me?" I looked from the fresh and clean, fat baby faces to his and realized there was something in what he said.

But the day was glorious. For weeks we had endured, somehow or other, the downpour from gray clouds until raincoats and umbrellas seemed the most necessary part of our apparel. And then on the day of the show a summer sun appeared. The skies were smiling and sparkling like a baby's laugh. Never was the grass more luxuriously green. Never were the trees cleaner, or the air sweeter. And there was music in that air, the music of mirth and grief from hundreds of baby throats.

ON RAILROADS DEPENDS PROSPERITY, SAYS LEIGH

President of Equipment Co. Reports to House Committee on Interstate Commerce.

Washington, Sept. 15.—Contending that railway purchases measure general business prosperity, that railway revenue determines volume of purchases, and that accumulation of railway surplus would stabilize both railway buying and general prosperity, Edward B. Leigh, president of the Chicago Railway Equipment Company, appeared today before the House Committee on Interstate Commerce, representing the railway business association, manufacturers of railway supplies, Leigh, while not passing judgment on the provision of the Cummins Bill, for diffusing excess railway profits, nevertheless warmly welcomed the principle underlying that clause which provides for "a fair return in any year which may include a just allowance to provide reasonably for future years in which there may be insufficient earnings."

"The railways' most vital need," said Leigh, "is the assurance of permanent adequate revenue as a fixed governmental policy which, established by rule of statute, would enable managers confidently, definitely, and intelligently to provide for their present and future needs."

The railway supply business employs approximately two million persons, and approximately two million more are employed by the railroads themselves, he added.

BRITISH LABOR TROUBLE HAS NOW BEEN AVERTED

Steadiness of Average Workers Ties Country Over the Most Critical Periods.

London, Sept. 15.—"After a perilous journey British labor is passing into quieter waters, having been steered away from the dangerous shoals."

This declaration was made today by Sir Robert Herne, minister of labor and Premier Lloyd George's right hand man in adjusting the labor situation on a peace basis.

"If British labor had lost its head during the critical periods of the past seven months, causing an upheaval in England, the result would have been felt throughout the whole of Europe, where certain countries probably would have collapsed," said Sir Robert. "But the steadiness of the average British worker and his inherent sanity tided England over the most critical periods. There is a calmer tone in the whole labor situation now and the outlook is far from menacing."

STRIKERS LOCKED OUT.

New York, Sept. 15.—Thousands of shipyard workers were locked out at Brooklyn yards today as a result of their "half-day" strike on Saturday in an attempt to put into effect their demand for a continuance of the 44-hour week. The workers demand that the Saturday half holiday be continued throughout the winter months. They laid down their tools Saturday noon, but planned to return to work this morning. They found themselves locked out.

HURRICANE ALONG GULF.

Galveston, Texas, Sept. 15.—Train service into Galveston was resumed today after being discontinued for twenty four hours as a result of the tropical hurricane which swept the Texas Coast Sunday, causing considerable property damage, but according to reports reaching here today, no loss of life.

An accurate estimate of the damage to property along the coast are unavailable owing to the crippling of wire service.

Contrary to early reports the great sea wall here was not damaged by the storm.

PASTOR DENOUNCES MILK AND WATER CHRISTIANS.

Columbus, O., Sept. 15.—Declaring that "Hell's" temperature is lowered because there is nowadays a tendency on the part of "milk and water Christians" to soften "the punishment preached by the fathers," Dr. Walter E. Burnett, pastor of Broad Street Methodist church pictured six day Christians as "men who give liberally to six different charities and play golf on Sunday."

PRESIDENT PREPARING MESSAGE TO LABORITES

To Ask Capitalists and Labor Leaders to Come Out in Open.

HIS PECULIAR POSITION

Radicals in Both Camps Claim He is With Them—His Policy Not Made Public Yet.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 15.—President Wilson arrived in Portland today with his labor policy fully determined. He spent all of yesterday sequestered in his apartment in the hotel in Seattle.

Plans Kept Secret.

All of that time he spent utilizing the famous little typewriter upon which he has written all of his war messages to Congress. No word regarding the invitation to attend the labor congress in Washington will be forthcoming until the President's message is made public. However, it is possible to state that the President has plans to make the leaders of the labor movement in the United States, the capitalists whose names talk when money is mentioned, and the farmers who hold the balance of power in the United States, get out into the open and say what they are willing to do during the next year to restore the economic stability of the world and the United States.

TO TAKE EIGHT WEEKS TO DISPOSE OF TREATY

Senator Lodge Says He Will Keep It Before Senate Until Final Action is Taken.

Washington, Sept. 15.—With Senators favoring reservations to the treaty of Versailles still divided as to the form these reservations should take, the Senate this afternoon took up the monumental task of disposing finally of the bulky, complex document.

From six to eight weeks, at least, are expected to elapse before the outcome of the bitter fight between the opponents and proponents of ratification of the treaty without change is indelibly written on one of the most momentous pages of American history.

In calling the treaty up, Senator Lodge announced that he proposed to keep it continuously before the Senate until it was either ratified or rejected in its present form.

LEAGUE WILL NOT STOP WARS IN THE FUTURE

Writer Says Pershing So Declared—Expects War in Little While.

U. S. SHOULD BE PREPARED

Treat Well the Boys Who Came From Over There—They May Be Needed.

Washington, Sept. 15.—General John J. Pershing today took formal possession of his Washington offices, thus establishing for the first time in this country headquarters of the A. E. F. Since the arrival home of General Pershing he has been veritably flooded with mail and overwhelmed with invitations to visit other cities.

To Advise Congress.

His staff today was attempting to clear away this mass of correspondence. Some of the invitations will be accepted but none for the immediate future. General Pershing it was intimated, will remain in Washington for the present to give his counsel to the War Department and to Congress in the event that he should be called before either the Senate or the House military committee now resting with the War Department's army re-organization bill. Both opponents and proponents of the League of Nations are said to be keenly interested in any views the General may have on the covenant. He has not explained his publicity since his return to this country, and probably will not unless he should be questioned by a Congressional committee.

A Pershing Statement.

Stating that the General has not made any public statement of his opinion on the League of Nations, which he "regards as a political matter which should not call for his public opinion," a writer in the Washington Post today asserts that "substantially the words of General Pershing spoken in Washington during the past few hours" are: "The League of Nations will not prevent war. There will be another war in a little while League or no League. "The United States ought to be on the lookout. It ought to treat well the boys who have come back from over there. For they are the ones who will do the country's fighting. It is the fighting strength of the United States that this country must rely on, not upon the League of Nations. The United States must look out for itself. By doing that it will be of the greatest service to others."

Little Danger of General Strike Although Several Unions are Voting on Question Today—Governor Coolidge Says There is No Right to Strike Against Public Safety at Any Time.

Boston, Sept. 15.—Announcement having been made by a lieutenant of President Samuel Gompers, of the A. F. of L. that there would be no general strike, Boston awaited the "important announcement" that was promised for today in connection with the police strike.

It was thought that this was likely to follow the meeting of union officials and Police Commissioner Curtis this forenoon.

Despite the assurance that there would be no sympathetic walkout, several Boston unions seemed to be preparing today for that very action. Many of the local secret ballots which were sent to the Central Labor Union without the members of the local organization knowing the result.

Gompers Coming to Boston.

Frank H. McCarthy, New England organizer of the A. F. of L., was called to New York to confer with President Gompers and it was expected here today that Mr. Gompers would come to Boston to direct in person the fight for the police in the event that a general strike should be voted.

A telegram from Governor Coolidge to President Gompers, the latest in their series of exchanges, did not indicate that the Governor had receded the slightest from his position in support of Commissioner Curtis who has discharged the 19 union leaders and declared the positions of the strikers vacant.

He declared that the right of the police to affiliate is prohibited and that the suggestion of President Wilson to Washington, does not apply to Boston as in Washington the police remained on duty.

The Governor's Message.

"There is no right to strike against the public safety by anybody, anywhere, any time," said the governor.

"You ask that the public safety again be placed in the hands of the same policemen, while they continue in disobedience to the laws of Massachusetts and in their refusal to obey the orders of the police department. Nineteen members of the union have been tried and removed. A grave responsibility rests on all of us. You can depend on me to support you in every legal action and sound policy. I am equally determined to defend the sovereignty of Massachusetts and to maintain the authority and jurisdiction over her public officers where it has been placed by the constitution and laws of her people."

(Signed) "CALVIN COOLIDGE."

Boston had its usual calm Sunday and except for the patrolling of the city streets by armed state guardsmen, the day was no different from any other Sabbath. The guardsmen had been cautioned by their superior officers against using their rifles too freely and there was no shooting to mar the serenity of the day and night.

Rioters On Roof.

Early today two state guardsmen, members of Co. H, Trench Regiment, were the targets of missiles thrown from the roof of number 280 Forchester avenue, South Boston. The guardsmen fired several shots at an open window in the top floor of the three story tenement house, breaking the window and frightening the inmates.

Mrs. Patrick Moran, who with her two children occupied the third floor apartment, said she heard footsteps on the roof but did not investigate as she was unprotected. City Councilman James T. Moriarty and family occupy the second floor of the building.

THE EMPLOYER-CHURCH.

Episcopal Leaders Declare Church Should Be On Paying Basis With a Working Capital.

The Episcopal Church in America has undertaken the task of changing the "clerk-church" into the "employer-church." This was announced yesterday by the managers of the nationwide campaign that the Church is conducting.

Episcopal leaders say that the list shows too many "clerk-churches" at present. This has been particularly demonstrated by the survey of the needs and opportunities of Episcopal dioceses throughout the country, now being made by the Executive Committee of the nation-wide campaign.

The terms "clerk" and "employer" originated with the Rev. Elmer Nelson Owen of St. Paul's Church, Des Moines. When, two years ago, Mr. Owen became rector of St. Paul's he found it a "clerk-church." He called a committee of the leading laymen. He explained the situation, and asked them to use their genius for organization to run the church.

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM.

Clemenceau Receives Bible From Wilson—Treaty Makers Worked for Church Independence.

A Bible prepared by the American Bible Society and sent by President Wilson to the Peace Conference, along with a memorial addressed to the Peace Conference urging religious freedom for all the nations of the world to be provided for in the Peace Treaty, has just been accepted by Premier Clemenceau.

"The President asks me to say that he did present the Bible to, and it was very cordially accepted by the President of the Peace Conference, Mr. Clemenceau. Every effort was made by the Peace Conference to secure complete religious freedom throughout the world.

would never all have signed it. I believe we should join hands with them for the welfare of the world." Mr. Cheney paid a high tribute to the work of the Paris Peace Council and said that no man could be aware of the tremendous difficulties that were met and solved by that body.

"There is not a single argument used today against the Treaty and the League," went on Mr. Cheney, "that was not used against the federation of the states at the founding of this country. Just as those arguments were found to be false I believe most of the arguments that we hear today against this Treaty will be found to be false."

FRUIT TREES SCARCE.

Fruit growers who are expecting to plant fruit trees either this fall or next spring should make plans to order their trees at once, says S. P. Hollister, Pomologist at Connecticut Agricultural College at Storrs.

The importation of stock from Europe has been seriously hampered and labor conditions have affected many if not all nurseries. Prices probably will be much higher than formerly. The severe winters have checked plantings in many sections and consequently nurseries have hesitated to propagate as heavily as in previous years.

The outlook for fruit growing in Connecticut, either peaches or apples or both, is very bright. But this does not mean that everyone should try to put out an orchard. Fruit growing is a special business and not everyone will succeed. There will be times when everything will seem to go wrong, but it's then that the grower who loves the work will "play the game" and keep his orchard in condition to produce a paying crop the following season.

Fruit growers and nurserymen should work together more than they do at present, says Mr. Hollister. The nurseryman has to "gamble" on the varieties which will be called for one, two or three years from the time he propagates the trees. Thousands of trees often remain unsold and are a dead loss to the nurseryman because that variety may not be in favor two or three years after it was budded. It is often possible for a prospective grower to order his varieties a year or two ahead of the time he expects to plant. Any nurseryman will be glad to grow trees which are ordered in advance, and the transaction would probably be to the advantage of both parties.

WHITE SOX PLAY INTO LIMELIGHT ON MANCHESTER BASEBALL STAGE

Defeat Hennee Indians 5-3

—Wolfe, the Star of the Game—Indians Powerless

Against Hartford Youth—Fielding of Rider a Feature

—Dowd and Brennan Do Good Work With Stick—Hennee Team Plays Strong Game—Pitching Brings Victory to Locals.

The White Sox looked up on Manchester's baseball horizon yesterday afternoon as serious contenders for the town championship, by defeating the crack Hennee Indians of Springfield at the West side playgrounds, by a score of 5 to 3.

A record breaking crowd saw the snappy outfit, that has proven invincible against the Athletics, humbled by an eighteen year old school-boy. Wolfe was the name of this wizard from Hartford and he had "Mutt" Waters' pets eating out of his hand. Local fans marveled at his coolness against such seasoned campaigners as the Hennees.

Master Wolfe allowed the redskins but four hits. Two of these were of the dukey variety. He fanned nine men and among these were the pride of the Hennee welders. A number of bad errors on the part of members of the machine behind, failed to unnerve him. In the ninth inning with Hennee men on second and third, he handled the situation in wonderful style.

This youngster's twirling was undoubtedly the feature of the game. But the White Sox showed up well against the visitors in spite of five errors.

The fielding of Rider, and the hitting of Dowd and Brennan were dominant factors in the victory. Both Dowd and Brennan connected when his meant runs and it was the latter's single in the third inning that gave the Sox the jump on their rivals. Rider's running catch in the seventh saved a run. He jumped into the limelight again in the ninth when he speared a ball fifty yards outside of the foul flag.

The Hennees put up a good defensive game. Maloney and Daoust starting in field work. Cerago's three bagger would have been good for a circuit wallop had it not been for the nimble footed Rider. The team work which has made the visitors famous, was in evidence throughout the game. Their inability, however, to solve the delivery of Wolfe, sent them home with a defeat.

The game, play by play, follows:

First Inning.
Hennees: Roche fanned. Denault fanned. Maloney was safe at first on Wolfe's error. Waite grounded out. Plitt to Kornsa. No hits, no runs, one error.

White Sox: Ritchie fanned. Brennan singled to center. He stole second. Dowd fouled out to Roche. Daoust fanned. One hit, no runs, no errors.

Second Inning.
Hennees: Reynolds grounded out. Wolfe to Kornsa. Cerago was safe at first on Plitt's error. With Miller up, Cerago advanced to second when McAdams dropped Miller's second strike. He took third on a wild pitch. Miller's single to left scored Cerago. Miller out stealing second. McAdams to Brennan. Smith fanned. One hit, one run, one error.

White Sox: Plitt grounded out. Denault to Maloney. Kornsa grounded out. Roche to Maloney. Rider fied out to Denault. No hits, no runs, no errors.

Third Inning.
Hennees: Steere grounded out. Wolfe to Kornsa. Roche fied out to Rider. Denault fanned. No hits, no runs, no errors.

White Sox: McAdams walked. Wolfe grounded to Steere. Both runners were safe on Miller's error. Ritchie grounded out. Steere to Maloney. McAdams and Rider (running for Wolfe) advanced on the play. Brennan singled, scoring McAdams and Rider. Dowd singled, advancing Brennan. Both runners advanced on Steere's wild pitch. Daoust fanned. Plitt walked. Brennan crossed the plate when Smith dropped Kornsa's second strike. Kornsa fanned with two men on. Two hits, three runs, one error.

Fourth Inning.

Hennees: Maloney walks. Waite grounded to Daoust, forcing Maloney. Maloney out at second. Daoust to Brennan. Waite advanced on Wolfe's wild throw over first. Reynolds fanned. Cerago's single through short scored Waite. Miller fanned. One hit, one run, one error.

White Sox: Lacey twirling relieved Steere. Rider grounded out. Denault to Maloney. McAdams fanned. Wolfe walks. Rider running for Wolfe stole second. He advanced on Lacey's wild pitch. Ritchie singled, scoring Rider. Brennan fanned. One hit, one run, no errors.

Fifth Inning.
Hennees: Smith fied out to Kornsa. Lacey fanned. Roche was safe at first on Daoust's error. Roche stole second. Denault fied out to Daoust. No hits, no runs, no errors.

White Sox: Dowd singled to left. Daoust hit into a double play. Roche to Maloney. Plitt grounded out. Denault to Maloney. One hit, no runs, no errors.

Sixth Inning.
Hennees: Maloney was safe at first when McAdams dropped his third strike. Waite fied out to Daoust. Reynolds fanned. Cerago fied out to Rider. No hits, no runs, one error.

White Sox: Kornsa singled to center. He scored on Rider's triple. McAdams fanned. Wolfe fanned. Ritchie grounded out. Denault to Maloney. Two hits, one run, no errors.

Seventh Inning.
Hennees: Milled fied out to Rider, the latter making a sensational running catch. Smith walked. Lacey fanned. Roche walked. Smith and Roche advanced when McAdams dropped Denault's first strike. Denault laid down a bunt in front of the plate scoring Smith. Although Smith ran out of the base line, Umpire McCarthy ruled that McAdams did not have the ball in his hand at the time. In addition to this no base lines had been marked out. Maloney grounded out. Brennan to Kornsa. One hit, one run, one error.

White Sox: Brennan grounded out. Lacey to Maloney. Dowd grounded out to Maloney. Daoust fied out to Maloney. No hits, no runs, no errors.

Eighth Inning.
Hennees: Waite fied out to Brennan. Reynolds fied out to Ritchie. Cerago tripled. Miller grounded out. Daoust to Kornsa. One hit, no runs, no errors.

White Sox: Plitt fied out to Reynolds. Kornsa grounded out. Lacey to Maloney. Rider fanned. No hits, no runs, no errors.

Ninth Inning.
Hennees: McCarthy batting for Smith fouled out to Rider. The latter captured the sphere fifty yards outside of the flag. Finn, batting for Lacey, was safe at first on Plitt's error. Roche fied out to Dowd. Denault singled to Plitt. The latter's throw to first base was too slow and Denault was safe. Finn was safe at third when Plitt dropped a return throw from Kornsa. Maloney ended the game by grounding out. Wolfe to Kornsa. No hits, no runs, one error.

CRESCENTS PROVE THEY ARE JUVENILE CHAMPS

Follow Thornton Through Errorless Game Against Atlas A. C. to 5-0 Victory.

Playing errorless ball behind "Lefty" Thornton of the White Sox field yesterday afternoon, the Crescent A. C. won the juvenile baseball championship of the town, by defeating the Atlas 5 to 0.

Thornton twirled a remarkable game. He held the Atlas to two hits and holds the record of not being scored on by this team this season. Yesterday's game was his second victory over the Atlas. The score sheet also credits him with 13 strike-outs.

Cervini, the Atlas moundman was touched up for 6 hits and a number of errors by his team mates proved disastrous. The playing of Long, the Crescent's third sacker was the feature of the game. Long contributed a circuit wallop and also a two bagger.

ATHLETICS WIN 10-5 OVER LOCOMOBILES

Bridgeport Team is Outplayed From First to Last at Mt. Nebo.

MEYERS WITH ATHLETICS

Famous Star Catcher for Locals and Drives Out Some Long Ones—Loco's Pitcher Not Supported.

With Chief Myers, former New York Giant star, behind the bat, the Athletics defeated the Locomobile Company's team of Bridgeport at the Mount Nebo grounds yesterday afternoon by a score of 10 to 5.

The locals outplayed the visitors from start to finish. Miles, the "Loco's" twirler, was given ragged support at times, five errors being chalked up against his team-mates. Ahearn, guardian of the dizzy corner, was the star of the visiting nine.

Dowd's pet's jumped into the lead in the opening stanza when Kotch singled and took first on an error. He advanced to second on Massey's sacrifice. Sipples walked and both runners crossed the pan on Chief Myers' lusty bingle.

Two more Athletic tallies were marked on the score book in the second. Edgar walked and stretched Wilson's sacrifice hit for the bases. Lamprecht was given a free pass and later stole second. Kotch's sacrifice to right field scored Edgar and Massey up, sent Lamprecht home with a double.

Loco's Score.
Four hits off Warnock's delivery in the fourth inning enabled the "Loco's" to shove two runs across the pan. The locals still retained a substantial lead by adding another run to their credit in this inning when Wilson hit to third and took second on a wild throw. Lamprecht's triple sent him home.

After Myers had singled and was put out in the fifth inning, Jerry Fay lifted a high one to right field and took second when the Park City gardener dropped the ball. "Pop" Edgar's single sent Fay home with the sixth run of the game.

The visitors secured another run in the sixth but the locals shaded this with two more in the seventh. In the eighth inning, the "Loco's" batsmen came to life and by bunting hits sent three runs across the pan. Two more Athletic runs in the last half of this inning proved too big a lead for the visitors and they were retired, scoreless in the ninth.

A DEAF SENATOR.

Nearly two weeks ago the Herald called attention to the fact that Lloyd George had said that England was willing to hold up her warship building program until she could hear from the United States and then adopt a policy in harmony with ours.

Throttled though we are as a nation by the Battalion of Death, the individual argument for and against the League goes on like a stream making its way around a boulder which blocks its current.

It is with something of a jolt that we note these words from Senator Harding of Ohio, delivered in the course of a fulmination against the Treaty.

Who, indeed? More than five months ago Lloyd George declared, "Disarmament is an essential condition of success. We can not expect nations ravaged by war to trust their desolated lands to the League of Nations if its advocates show no confidence themselves in its guardianship."

We ask again for Senator Harding of Ohio—Has anybody heard anything about a reduction in the armament of Great Britain?

STATUE OF LINCOLN UNVEILED IN ENGLAND.

Manchester, Eng., Sept. 15.—Expressing confidence that the problems of nations will be settled by arbitration in the future and voicing the belief that Anglo-American understanding is growing, Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York unveiled George Grey Barnard's statue of Abraham Lincoln here today.

The ceremonies which were held in Plattsfield Park, were attended by a number of prominent Britons and Americans. There was a procession to the park led by a squadron of mounted police and the American flag flew from many buildings.

HOUSE IN PARIS.

Paris, Sept. 15.—Colonel E. M. House, of the American peace delegation, who has just arrived from London, issued a statement today saying he will remain in Paris indefinitely to discuss the League of Nations and other matters that are to be taken up by the peace conference.

J. C. Malcolm has been crowned in Leeds, Eng., 40 years and officiated at 25,000 inquests. He is 88.

AN ATHLETIC LETTER.

Manager Dowd Comes Back at "West Side Fan" Gives a Few Figures and Defends Athletics.

Editor, Herald, Manchester, Conn.

Dear Sir:

In reply to the letter of "A West Side Fan" which appeared in Saturday's issue of your paper, would say that the only team I know of that the White Sox should be proud of beating is the Hendee Indians, for if they are in a class with the Athletics and we are playing out of our class, then they are not even playing in their class when they play such teams as the Outings, Burnside, J. B. Williams, Corinthians, etc., as I would have to increase my life insurance if I brought such teams to Nébo, as I believe what fans would come to the games would make life miserable for me.

As to the number of games the Athletics won, would say we won fifteen and lost ten, and I believe this average is about as good as any semi-pro in Connecticut with the exception of the New Departure of Bristol. Perhaps the White Sox have a better average than this but please take into consideration we were playing the best teams in the state and western Massachusetts while the White Sox were playing most Hartford teams and there are very few good teams, if any, in Hartford.

As to Babe Ruth and Chief Meyers, would say that I made no statement about Babe Ruth going to appear here, and if Chief Meyers did not play with us Sunday then it must have been his ghost, and the "Fan" says I knew very well that Chief Meyers could not appear here. The Chief gave his word that he would appear here and he did.

Now you beat the Hendee Indians and perhaps you would like to play the Athletics with your regular team and the Athletics will use their regular team, and as far as the Athletic players being out after the money would say—that Lamprecht was offered $10.00 to catch for a team Sunday, which team you perhaps know, as was Warnock to pitch, and Tommy Sipples could have played short stop for Collinsville and received $15.00, but they played with the Athletics and the only one who was paid was Warnock, who pitched.

Mr. White, one of the White Sox players, ought to tell "A West Side Fan", if he knows who he is and I believe he does, to cut out the three words "I say no", which appeared in both articles of the "Fan" as this sounds very much like Mr. White and we do not want to get the wrong impression of who is writing these articles seeing that the "Fan" who gives us the impression that he is a good sport has not sporting blood enough to sign his name to statements he makes in black and white.

If the White Sox want to play the Athletics would say that I will be at home Tuesday night, and will be glad to go into the question of a series between the Athletics and White Sox with Mr. Dauost, "A West Side Fan", or any one else he cares to bring with him.

Yours truly, M. H. Dowd, Manager Athletics of Manchester.

PRICES IN CALIFORNIA.

Herald Reader Says High Cost of Living is Highest in East.

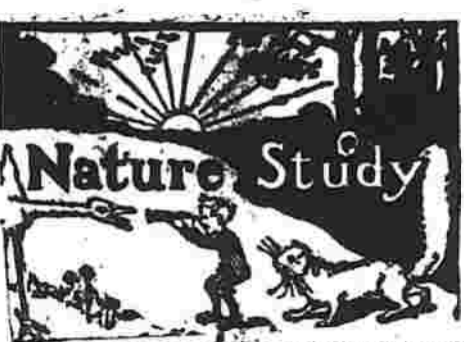

Alhambra, California. Editor of Manchester Herald, Dear Sir,

I am sending you a copy of the Los Angeles Herald. It may interest you to compare the meat prices and groceries of Los Angeles with prices in Manchester. I am sure you will find a great deal of difference. They complain here of high cost of living. The question is, what were the prices before? The Eastern people are the real sufferers of high cost of living. We have been here two winters and we have heated our bungalow with tight wall papers and always felt very comfortable. At mid-day we really didn't need any heat as the sun is quite warm.

The price of coal here is $18.00 a ton. Very few people buy coal as it really is not a necessity.

Before I close my letter I wish to say: "A Herald a day Drives homesickness away."

SHORT TAILS AND COTTONTAILS By Adella Belle Beard

Author, Artist; Secretary Girl Pioneers of America.

The little MEADOW MOUSE lives in the fields as well as in the meadows. Do you know him? He has a thick body, blunt nose, short legs, short tail and short ears. His coat is dark brown above, shading into gray or buff underneath.

He much prefers the moist meadows to the fields, but the dry, cultivated ground furnishes a big store of food and like all animals, human included, he likes to be near the source of supply. A field of Indian corn is a great feasting place for him and he often locates in it as farmers know to their sorrow at times he will eat the bark of young trees.

When he lives on the banks of a stream he will take to the water when frightened, and you may sometimes see him swimming under ice in shallow water. An old meadow mouse is savage and will bite, but a young one may be handled without danger and makes a gentle and interesting little pet.

Tame as a rabbit does not apply to those you come across in the fields, for though they do not, put up a fight they are wild and will run. You have seen them go jumping over the ground in great leaps. THE WHITE-TAILED JACK RABBIT of the West bounds into the air with lengthened body, and ears erect; he seems to touch the earth only with his toes and rebounds like a rubber ball. He lives entirely in the open and depends upon his tawny, fadeaway color, quick ears, and speed for safety. He is large, has long, strong hind legs and long ears. He will eat buffalo grass or weeds, leaves, bark, alfalfa or vegetables.

The common COTTONTAIL RABBIT, well known in the north and east lives in the woods as well as the fields. He rears a number of families during the season. You may sometimes find his nest and babies under a thorny bush. (Next week: "Field Animal Dug-outs and Other Homes.") Copyright, 1919, by J. H. Millar Boys' and Girls' Newspaper Service.

I sure look forward for my home paper it is as good as a long letter.

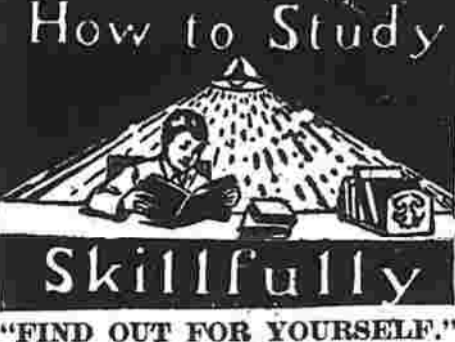

Respectfully yours, Mrs. Howard L. Barlow.

How to Study Skillfully

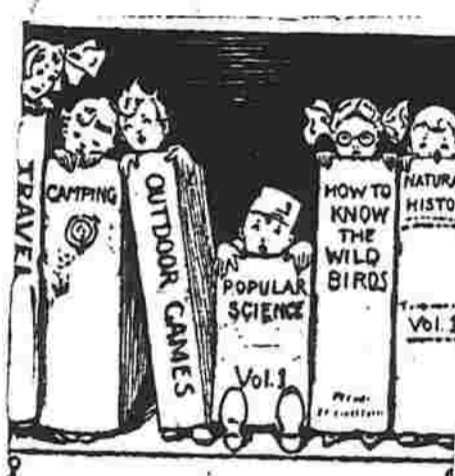

"FIND OUT FOR YOURSELF." By Jennie Hall

Francis W. Parker School

If you study from books alone, you might as well be found in leather and put on a shelf. Books, after all, give you only second hand information. Study at first hand whenever you can.

A young friend of mine became interested in the architect's plans of her father's house. She decided to investigate. She asked questions of her father and looked up the subject in books. Everything mentioned in books. She kept her eyes open and saw a street sign. "Blueprint Shop." She entered and courteously asked to see the process, and was as courteously welcomed. She took home materials and made experiments, drawing with India ink on tracing paper and printing from this in the sun on blue print paper.

Another girl I know saw a booklet advertising Batik, an interesting method of dyeing designs in cloth. The directions were not clear, but she did not despair. She melted paraffine and with it painted circles on a white cloth. This she dipped into blue dye. But the hot dye, alas! melted off the paraffine circles, and the cloth came out all blue. She tried beeswax in the same way with the same sad result. Then she tried the dye cold (an unheard of thing) and she succeeded. Out came the blue cloth with the wax circles. The wax she washed off (once with gasoline, and once with hot water), and she had a pretty blue cloth with white circles. She had had, moreover, the joy of having worked out the process by herself. She felt like an inventor.

Book-worm Library

Suppose these girls had only read about blue prints and Batik. Do you think they would have understood the subjects as well as they did or have remembered them as long? Try it yourself. Investigate? Try it yourself. Investigate! Experiment!

BIG OIL FIRE.

Loss Estimated at Nearly Five Million Dollars.

New York, Sept. 15.—The fire which started Saturday afternoon and swept the twenty acre plant of the Standard Oil Co. in Green Point, L. I., causing a loss estimated from $3,000,000 to $5,000,000 was still burning today. It had been under control since yesterday. All day Sunday huge crowds viewed the burning territory to watch the spectacular fight of the firemen. Intermittent explosions of oil tanks continued all day, and the work of the firemen was highly dangerous. From the standpoint of the fire companies called out the blaze was the greatest in the history of Greater New York. Every company in Brooklyn was summoned to the scene and the greater part of Manhattan's forces were used. The men had to be employed in shifts.

ITALIAN GENERAL ARRESTED.

London, Sept. 15.—The Italian general at Fiume has been arrested and a union of Fiume and Italy has been proclaimed, said a news agency dispatch from Belgrade today, quoting a semi-official Serbian announcement.

(Advices on Saturday stated that armed bands of Italians, headed by Gabriel D. Annunzio, had arrived at Fiume.)

BOLSHEVIKS' PLOT.

London, Sept. 15.—A plot has been discovered for an uprising and the surrender of Archangel to the Russian Bolsheviks, said a news agency dispatch from Stockholm today. Seven arrests have been made. (Archangel was maintained by the allied troops in Northern Russia as their chief base. An anti-Bolshevik government was created there with the support of the Entente troops. Late advices, however, stated that the allies were being withdrawn from Archangel and that they would probably all be out by November.)

FARMERS OF FUTURE. There are 6,407 boys and girls in Connecticut studying farm and home duties under the direction of the Extension Service of Connecticut Agricultural College at Storrs. These youngsters receive instruction regularly and must keep records of their work.

Gardening is the most popular subject in the list offered by the Boys' and Girls' Clubs. There are 2,735 youngsters engaged in gardening. Interest in other lines is shown by the following figures as to enrollment: Cooking, 984; canning, 850; Pig, 433; Poultry, 437; Garment Making, 395; Potato, 214; Corn, 192; Calf, 100; Sheep, 62.

The purpose of club work is to encourage boys and girls to prepare for farming and home making by carrying on some home enterprise. The boy who raises a pig, for example, must select the animal, feed it and finally market it on his own responsibility. The club leader supplies him with the best information and advice available, but the work and the responsibility rest with the youngster. The profits go to him, also.

Club work is coming to be looked upon as the most effective system ever devised of keeping the boys and girls on the farms.

NEW HAVEN REPORTERS STRIKE FOR MORE MONEY

Desk Men Also in Two Newspapers Quit—To Take Men From Every Paper.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 15.—Promptly at 8 a. m. the news writers of New Haven with two exceptions, on the evening papers, went on strike to enforce demands for a fixed scale of wages, namely $5 per day of $ hours for reporters and $6 a day for desk men. The writers about a week or ten days ago formed the News Writers Equity Association with a membership understood to include the entire staff of desk men and reporters on the New Haven papers with the exception of the managing editors.

Saturday night the staff of the Evening Register were told, they declare, that they were automatically discharged in accordance with the statement of the publisher, John D. Jackson, that if any of his editorial force identified himself with the News Writers' Association they could consider themselves as no longer connected with the paper.

This morning the entire force of the Union and Times-Leader, the two remaining evening papers reported for work at 8 a. m. and struck. It is stated that the news writers on the Journal-Courier, the morning paper, will leave tonight.

Circle Theater

Tom Mix, one of the greatest exponents of the real life of the old West, will appear at the Circle theatre tonight and tomorrow in his latest William Fox photoplay, "The Coming of the Law," based on the book by Charles Alden Seltzer. Mr. Mix has selected a fine cast for this play. He has Brownie Vernon for his leading lady.

"The Coming of the Law" is a story of Dry Bottom, New Mexico, to which town Mix, in the character of Kent Hollis, comes to succeed his father, who was head of the Circle-Bar Ranch. He finds his father has died; also finds that cattle rustlers are running the town. Although Kent is a tenderfoot, he jumps in to clean up the town and bring law and order to the place. He does so many amazing things that the rustlers are beaten by astonishment rather than by gun play.

As usual, Mix does some stunts in this picture that take one's breath away.

On the same bill will be a new comedy and an episode of "The Perils of Thunder Mountain."

Park Theater

The first of the new series of pictures to be released by World, starring Dorothy Green and Arthur Ashley, is called "The American Way," and it will be shown at the Park theatre tonight.

The dainty Betty Winthrop comes from the Long Island estate of the wealthy Van Alleng in her runaway to buy in New York a cute little kitten that had taken her fancy in some shop a few days previous, and undoubtedly when she turned her car into a little spin, before returning to her home in the country, with the kitten in a covered hamper, she hadn't the slightest idea that in a few short minutes the kitten would make its escape and then be captured by the man whom she would later wed.

Yet this is exactly what you will see happen when you come to the Park theatre tonight to see the World's latest release, "The American Way."

It is a clean, wholesome story, capably acted throughout, and artistically directed.

It is something which no one who likes moving pictures will miss.

A comedy and another Craig Kennedy detective story will also be shown.

Tomorrow and Wednesday William S. Hart will be seen in "Square Deal Sanderson," his latest Arcraft.

GOMPERS DENIES REPORT OF STRIKE POSTPONEMENT

"Entirely Inaccurate," Says Head of American Federation of Labor in Washington Interview.

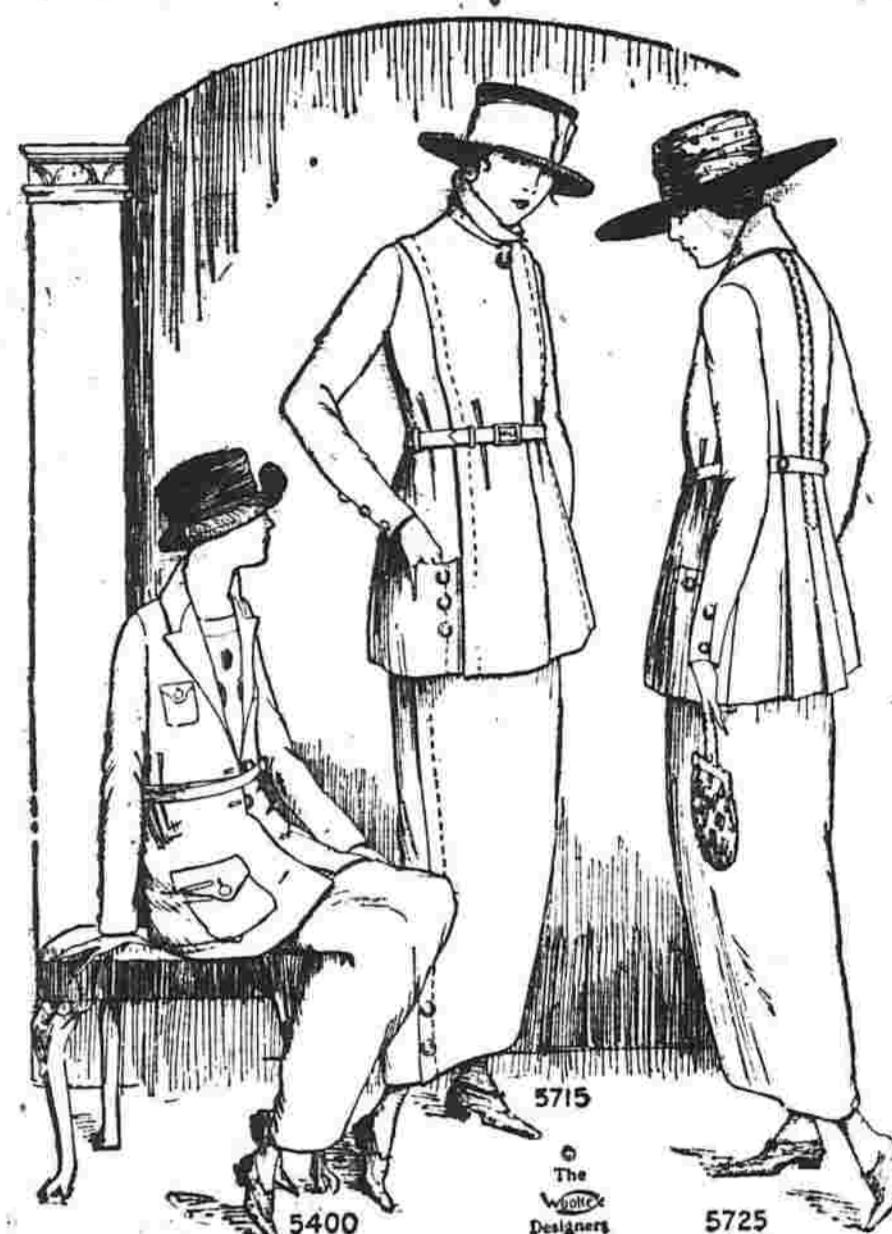

Washington, Sept. 15.—The report that the steel workers of the country had decided to postpone their general strike, called for September 22, until after President Wilson's conference of capital, labor and agriculture representatives next month, today was characterized by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, as "entirely inaccurate."

The Federation head refused to comment at length on the report. "I know nothing about it," he said. "The fact that the assertion was attributed vaguely to a 'member of my party' is in itself sufficient to stamp it as inaccurate."

Meanwhile it was learned that arrangements are going ahead for the meeting of the national committee at Pittsburgh next Wednesday, when plans for the strike will be made. It was pointed out that any decision to hold up the strike would be reached at that time. The meeting will have before it President Wilson's recent telegram to Gompers, asking that action be deferred until after the conference. Whether Gompers will attend the Pittsburgh meeting he declined to say, but it was reported in federation circles that he probably will counsel the steel leaders, either personally or by wire, to hold up their plans until after the "round table" meeting at the White House. However, he flatly refused to discuss this phase of the situation.
