LEADERS PLAN MONDAY'S BIG STRIKE; GARY DEFIES UNION; FOR OPEN SHOP

Closed Shop Will Stifle Production and Increase Cost of Living, Says Gary—Defies Steel Unions—Official of Corporation Says Unionizing of Labor Will be Prevented at All Costs.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 18.—A letter from Chairman E. H. Gary, addressed to the Presidents of the subsidiary companies of the United States Steel Corporation giving the reasons for declining to deal with labor unions, was made public by the Carnegie Steel Company today. The letter, which is dated New York, Sept. 16 reads:

Not long since I respectfully declined to meet for the purpose of discussing matters pertaining to labor at our various plants a number of gentlemen representing certain labor unions. They claim this furnishes cause for complaint, and have stated that, they intend, if possible, to prevent a continuation of operations at our mills and factories. I deem it proper to repeat in a letter what heretofore has been said to you verbally. I entertain no feeling of animosity toward the gentlemen personally, and would not hesitate to meet them as individuals; but I did not and do not consider it proper to confer with them under the circumstances.

Reason for Decision.
The decision was made for two reasons: First, because I did not believe the gentlemen were authorized to speak for large numbers of our employees, whose interests and wishes are of prime importance. Secondly because a conference with these men would have been treated by them as a recognition of the "closed shop" method of employment. We do not combat labor unions as such. We do not negotiate with labor unions, because it would indicate the closing of our shops against non-union labor; and large numbers of our workmen are not members of unions and do not care to be.

"The principle of 'open shop' is vital to the greatest industrial progress and prosperity. It is of equal benefit to employer and employee. It means that every man may engage in any line of employment that he selects and under such terms as he and the employer may agree upon; that he may arrange for the kind and character of work which he believes will bring to him the largest compensation and the most satisfactory conditions, depending upon his own merit and disposition.

"The 'closed shop' means that no man can obtain employment in that shop except through and on the terms and conditions imposed by the labor unions. He is compelled to join the union and to submit to the dictation of its leaders before he can enter the place of business. If he joins the union he is then restricted by its leader as to place of work, hours of work (and therefore amount of compensation) and advancement in position, regardless of merit, and sometimes, by the dictum of the union leader, called out and prevented from working for days or weeks, although he has no real grievance and he and his family are suffering for want of the necessities of life. In short, he is subjected to the arbitrary direction of the leader and his personal independence is gone. Personal ambition to succeed and prosper is stifled.

Country Wants Open Shop.
This country will not stand for the "closed shop." It cannot afford it. In the light of experience, we know it would signify decreased production, increased cost of living, and initiative, development and enterprise dwarfed. It would be the beginning of industrial decay, and an injustice to the workmen themselves.

President Denies That Great Britain is Able To Outvote the U. S.

"The Affirmative Vote of United States is Equivalent to the United Vote of Several Parts of British Empire, With One Exception," He Says—Answers Other Questions.

San Francisco, Sept. 18.—President Wilson denied today that Great Britain can outvote the United States in the League of Nations or that she can overcome or offset the American representation. The President made his denial of this—which is one of the things which opponents of the treaty have made the most of—in answering a series of questions addressed by the San Francisco League of Nations Society.

Britain Can't Outvote Us.
"It is not true," said the President, in dealing with this, the first question submitted, "that Britain can outvote us in the League because in every matter except the admission of new members to the league, no action can be taken without the concurrence by unanimous vote of the representatives of the states which are members of the council, so that in all matters of action, the affirmative vote of the United States is necessary and equivalent to the united vote of the several parts of the British empire which cannot offset or overcome the vote of the United States."

The reason why Great Britain was given six votes, the President said, was the nations which make up the British empire are self-governing and autonomous, in everything except foreign policy. Carrying out his program of "fighting his opponents in the open," President Wilson today sent to the San Francisco League of Nations society a series of questions and answers dealing with communications put to him.

Question No. 1.—Will you state the underlying consideration that dictated awarding of six votes to the British Empire in the assembly and is it true that Great Britain will outvote us in the League and control the League's action? Answer No. 1.—The consideration which led to this assigning of six votes to the self-governing portions of the British Empire was, in effect, that they have in all but their foreign policies, become autonomous self-governing states, their policy in all foreign affairs being independent of the British Government, and in many respects dissimilar from it. But it is not true that the British Empire can outvote us in the League, because in every matter except the admission of new members to the League, no action can be taken without the concurrence, by unanimous vote of the representatives of the states which are members of the council, so that in all matters of action, the affirmative vote of the United States is necessary and equivalent to the united vote of the representatives of the several parts of the British Empire which cannot offset or overcome the vote of the United States.

Question No. 2.—Is it true that under the League the foreign countries can order the sending of United States troops to foreign countries? Answer No. 2.—It is not. The right of Congress to determine such matters is in no way impaired.

PREMIER LLOYD GEORGE IS COMING TO THE U. S.
London, Sept. 18.—Premier Lloyd George will soon visit the United States, it is announced by Thomas Howard, Canadian national secretary of the international brotherhood which has been in convention here. The Premier addressed the international brotherhood at City Temple last night when he made a strong plea for "a new order of things." It was the first of a series of political addresses he will deliver through the country.

SLAYS WIFE, DAUGHTER AND THEN SLAYS SELF

George A. Fish, Former Timekeeper of Groton Iron Works, Principal in Triple Tragedy.

(Special to the Evening Herald.)
George A. Fish, 35 years old, of Noank, a small town outside of Groton, went to the town hall of the latter place at noon today and found his wife eating her lunch in the building where she is employed as a clerk. Brandishing a pistol he fired at the woman hitting her in the head. She died instantly. Fish ran from the hall and went to his home where he at once shot his daughter, killing her on the spot. He himself was found dead in his garage where he had shot himself through the head after making an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide by hanging.

Fish, who was formerly a timekeeper at the Groton Iron Works, has not lived with his wife for some time. It is thought that his mind may have been unbalanced by a sunstroke which he suffered a year ago. His eyesight was so injured by the stroke that he has not held regular employment since.

Miss Irene Laszlo, who was seated with Mrs. Fish when the slayer entered the room, pistol in hand, ran out for help but the fatal shot was fired before she could return.

HURRICANE'S DEATH LIST NOW INCREASED TO 300

Relief Parties Report Finding of More Bodies Almost Hourly—Aviators Aid Searchers.

Corpus Christi, Texas, Sept. 18.—With reports of the finding of additional bodies of victims of Sunday's tornado along the Texas gulf coast, relief officials today estimated that the number lost in the tropical hurricane would total close to 300. Army aviators flying low over the flood district report sighting bodies of the storm victims, in many places swept inland for several miles, by the flood tide.

Relief parties, scouring the country near Corpus Christi, Aransas Pass and other nearby villages, report the finding of bodies almost hourly.

Late estimates of the property loss places the damage at between $15,000,000 and $20,000,000.

MASKED BANDITS LOOT CANADIAN TRAIN; TAKE $75,000 AND GET AWAY

Robbers Believed to Have Fled Over Line Into the United States.

BIND AND GAG CLERKS ON DOMINION'S FLYER

Got On Train at Montreal and Broke Into Mail Car While Train Was Speeding at 60-Mile-an-Hour Clip.

Quebec, Que., Sept. 18.—Masked bandits held up the mail clerks on an express train on the Canadian government railway near Harlaka early today and escaped with $75,000.

The robbers escaped from the train at St. Thomas with their loot. Armed posses are in pursuit but the robbers are believed to have fled over the line into the United States. Shipped From Montreal.
The money had been shipped from Montreal last night and was consigned to Halifax. Near Harlaka the bandits, who had evidently been riding in a passenger coach, stealthily made their way into the mail car with automatic pistols in their hands. The clerks were overpowered, bound and gagged.

No Trace of Bandits.
It was not until the train reached St. Thomas, some distance from Harlaka that the robbery was discovered. The clerks were then released and gave descriptions of the robbers. Search was immediately ordered along the line, but no trace of the men was found. They are believed to have followed the money shipment from Montreal.

The express was the Ocean Limited, one of the crack-trains of the Canadian government railway.

Clerks Bound and Gagged.
According to the clerks the train had just left Harlaka when the door of the mail car burst in with a crash and five men, all masked and armed, entered. The leader shouted "Hands up," and the clerks lost no time in obeying. Then while some of the men collected the money sacks others bound and gagged the clerks. At the time the train was racing eastward at 60 miles an hour.

The robbery was discovered by the conductor of the train. When the clerks were unbound one of them, E. Rene, was suffering so badly from fright and nervous shock that he had to be brought to this city for medical treatment.

BRITISH AIRMEN ATTACK RUSSIAN FORTRESS AGAIN

Seven Planes Bombard Kronstadt, Chief Defense of Petrograd—All Return Safely.

Helsinki, Sept. 18.—Two more heavy attacks have been made by British airmen against the Russian fortress of Kronstadt, the chief defense of Petrograd on the seaside. Seven airmen took part, it was learned today. In the second attack vast columns of smoke arose from the western part of the city. Bolshevik artillery put up a heavy air barrage but caused no damage to the attacking squadrons.

One aviator was compelled to land in Finland upon his return to his base, because of engine trouble. The first raid was carried out at noon on Saturday and the second on Sunday morning.

A. E. Bowers Will Head Delegation To Request Session of Legislature

Will Call on Governor Sept. 23—Action Taken in Interests of Suffrage—Has Petition Signed by 175 Members of Legislature—Majority of Both Parties Said to Have Signed—Holcomb Sets Date to Receive Petition.

EXPLOSION OF RIOT GUN INJURES SIX GUARDSMEN

Soldier Was Cleaning Weapon When It Accidentally Is Discharged—City Quiet.

Boston, Sept. 18.—Shooting of six state guardsmen, when a soldier's riot gun exploded at the Roxbury Crossing police station and trial of nineteen Metropolitan Park police officers who were suspended for refusing to go on duty in this city after the walkout of the Boston police were the outstanding features of the police strike today.

The six guardsmen, it is said, had just come from a tour of duty and were gathered about a fellow guardsman who was cleaning his rifle. The weapon was discharged and the bullet struck the six soldiers in the legs.

They were taken to the city hospital painfully wounded. The victims follow:
Harold Cuall, Somerville; Asa K. Purdy, Watertown; Robert J. Lusk, Cambridge; George Parker, Arlington; William Jackson, East Cambridge; John Alexander, Arlington.

PRESIDENT IS OPPOSED TO POLICEMEN'S UNIONS

Such Is Interpretation Place On Telegram Sent to Washington Official Today.

Washington, Sept. 18.—That President Wilson is opposed to the unionization of police, was the interpretation placed by District Commissioner Louis Brownlow upon a telegram received by him from the chief executive, and read to the district committee of the Senate today. The telegram follows:

"I hope that you understood my brief telegram of the other day. I am quite willing that you should tell the Senate Committee that my position was exactly the same as I have expressed recently in speeches here in the west and of course I am desirous as you are of dealing with the police force in the most just and generous way, but that I think that any association of the police force of the capital city, or any great city, whose object is to bring pressure upon the public or the community such as will endanger the public peace or embarrass the maintenance of order should in no case be countenanced or permitted.

(Signed)
"WOODROW WILSON."

Hartford, Sept. 18.—A deputation of Republican and Democratic senators and representatives will call on Governor Holcomb on Tuesday September 23rd to present a petition of legislators requesting that a special session of the legislature for ratification of the federal suffrage amendment be called. The deputation will wait upon the Governor at 10 o'clock, this being the time set by the Governor in response to a letter sent to him signed by Senators Arthur E. Bowers of this town, Richard H. Deming of West Hartford and C. C. Hemenway, of Hartford, and Representatives O. H. Ripley, of Winsted, Howard A. Henshaw, of Suffield, and John C. Geary of Waterford.

The letter requested that a time be set for presenting the petition which has been signed by 175 members of the legislature. It is understood that a majority of Republicans in both houses have signed. The names will be made public next Tuesday, it is stated.
Suffrage Inevitable Says Bowers.
"I believe that women's suffrage is inevitable and I also think that the necessary thirty eight states will ratify before March 1, 1919 so that, whether the Governor calls a special session for action of the bill or not all women will have the privilege of voting in the state and national elections early next year." This is the statement Senator A. E. Bowers made to a Herald representative yesterday afternoon. At that time he did not know what reply the Governor would make to the letter concerning the petition.

Sixteen states have ratified the bill giving suffrage to women. On Sept. 29th Utah will call a special session and the sentiment in that state is so overwhelmingly in favor of the amendment that there is no doubt of the action that will be taken. Senator Bowers went on to say. There is no reason therefore, in the face of the national sentiment why Governor Holcomb should not call a special session and put Connecticut immediately in line with the popular movement.

Other Reasons for Session.

"But there are at least three other reasons why we should have a special session," said Senator Bowers. At the last session of the legislature, there was such great haste to adjourn in order to go on record for the shortest session that no action was taken on one important bill and the enabling clause was omitted from two other bills.

One of these bills provided that such ex-service men as needed financial assistance should receive it from the state. During the war Connecticut bought $2,400,000 in Liberty Bonds. It was decided that the interest on these bonds should be set aside and the amount of $100,000 or more that would accrue in interest should be disbursed among the soldiers and sailors who needed assistance. The bill was approved by the legislature. But because it came up at the far end of the session

Steel Workers at Pittsburgh Say There Will be No Postponement of Nation-Wide Walkout—"Gary is Only Power on Earth That Can Prevent It," Leaders Declare.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 18.—The steel strike order for September 22 stands.

This was the positive statement made by Organizer J. L. Beagher, organizer for the American Federation of Labor here this morning.

An official statement signed by Chairman John J. Fitzpatrick, and three other committeemen, in answer to Judge Gary's letter of yesterday was given out today. It reads as follows:

Official Statement.
"In his letter of September 16 to the presidents of the subsidiary companies of the United States Steel Corporation, Judge Gary avers that he had two reasons in mind when he refused to meet with the American Federation of Labor, committee which called upon him recently requesting a conference for the purpose of presenting grievances of his employees.

"First, he did not believe that the committee was authorized to speak for large numbers of the employees. "Second, a conference with the committee would have been treated by them as a recognition of 'closed shop' method of employment.

"If these are the real reasons accounting Judge Gary surely they are not sufficient to plunge the industry into a great labor conflict. Judge Gary presents a false promise and then declares that he will stand or fall upon this false ground.

"The committee that waited upon Judge Gary were the selected representatives of the employees. And they requested a conference for the purpose of establishing the principle of collective bargaining, and some practical method of redressing grievances.

"Judge Gary denied their authority to represent the employees and refused to meet them in conference. The only left for the employees to convince Judge Gary that the committee does represent the great body of the employees of the United States Steel Corporation is to cease work until the corporation agrees to meet their representatives in conference. This the employees have decided to do on Monday morning, September 22.

No Other Way Out.
"It is unfortunate that the employees are compelled to resort to a strike in order to prove the authority of their selected representatives to present their grievances. But as there is no other way, the proof, in the form of a strike will effectively remove all doubt in Judge Gary's mind.

"In the second place, Judge Gary, sets up the question of the 'closed shop' which has absolutely no basis whatsoever in the present controversy." It is simply dragged in here by Judge Gary as a bugaboo to cloud the real issue.

Question of Conference.
"There is one and only one question at issue and that is the question of a conference. The employees have exhausted every avenue of approach to the corporation for the purpose of securing a conference and every avenue has been closed to them. Their last and only hope is to strike and now the employees declare that they will cease work on next Monday morning until their representatives in conference for the purpose of establishing humane and reasonable methods of dealing with the very vital problems

USE HOWARD'S BUTTERMILK CREAM FOR SUNBURN, TAN AND FRECKLES

Tell all good drug and department stores not to take any one's money unless this delightful new sunburning cream quickly shows a decided improvement. Try it today at our expense.

The first application of Howard's Buttermilk Cream will astonish you. It creates beauty almost like magic. The most wonderful thing about it is the fact that whilst it turns the dulled, most lifeless complexion to radiant beauty and makes red or rough hands or arms snowy white, yet does not produce the least shibboleth of redness of the skin. No matter whether you are troubled with a poor complexion, wrinkles, puffiness around the eyes, freckles, crow's feet or lines around the mouth, ugly finger nails or just a simple roughness of the face, hands or arms caused by wind or sun, you will find that any or all of these troubles will quickly disappear with the use of Howard's Buttermilk Cream. To prove this to your complete satisfaction, get a small quantity today at Magneil Drug Co., South Manchester, with an understanding that they will freely return the purchase money to any dissatisfied user.

Beautiful actress says, "A short massage with Buttermilk Cream at night before retiring is all that is necessary."

A. E. BOWERS TO HEAD DELEGATION TO HOLCOMB

(Continued from page 1.) slon no clause was incorporated with the bill defining the method of such disbursing or who should have the authority for making the grant. Naturally the interest money from the bonds cannot be used as the legislature intended it should be used. In order to overcome this difficulty and to prevent discomfort to the ex-service men who need the money, Gilpatrick, state treasurer, has himself put aside the necessary funds to carry on the relief work until the legislature can take the required action.

Pay for Teachers. It was also the intention of the last legislature to make a provision to all the towns and cities of Connecticut for an increase of pay to school teachers. The bill was passed by legislature but because it was one of the last bills to come up, no fund was set aside to be distributed among the various schools. The bill provides a payment for the next two years or until July 1, 1921 but the law becomes inactive through the failure to include an enabling clause that definitely sets aside the money and provides authority for the distribution.

The Storrs Problem. Because of the failure of the legislature to take action regarding the rebuilding of the destroyed buildings at Storrs the state is liable to a great expense in any event unless a special session is called and funds immediately appropriated for the new buildings, says the Senator. The dormitory which housed the women at the agricultural college was destroyed by fire and the hundred women enrolled are without quarters. A little more than $40,000 was realized from insurance and unless the legislature appropriates money this $40,000 will have to be expended for temporary buildings, until the state donates the necessary money.

Col. William H. Hall of the college and also of the legislature has asked permission to borrow the $140,000 necessary for the new buildings. "Suppose that he was granted this permission," said Senator Bowers, "the interest on the loan at five per cent, if money could be had at that rate of interest, would be $14,000 for two years and $16,800 for the same length of time at six per cent. The special session during the war cost only $1,500 and a special session now should cost no more than $2,000. Thus it can be seen that the saving to the state in the single item of Storrs College alone will amount to between twelve and fourteen thousand dollars. A special session would mean that the ex-service men would be sure of funds and it would mean that the schools would be granted the sums that are rightfully theirs to meet the increased expenses.

"There is no doubt," continued Senator Bowers, "if the legislature is called what the action will be on the suffrage question and it is the knowledge of this that is delaying the calling of the special session."

BOLTON

Mrs. James Samlar and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Pierce Samlar of West New York, New Jersey, are the guests of Mrs. Ellabeth Daly. Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Levey left town Monday for their winter home in Indianapolis, after having spent the season at their summer home in town. Carlos Ruggles, Jr., who spent much of his boyhood in Bolton and now resides in Springfield, was married recently to Miss Kathleen Quigley.

Mr. and Mrs. George Finnegan were in New York recently to visit Mrs. Finnegan's father, Michael Daly, and to attend the Futurity Race. The Ladies' Aid Society is to meet in the Bolton Hall Friday afternoon. Russell Lee and Miss Dorothy Von Deck, daughter of Mrs. Annie Von Deck, were married at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. G. E. Davis pastor of the church last Saturday afternoon. The young couple are to receive a reception at the home of groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Lee, tomorrow evening.

DR. J. W. SMITH SAFE. Washington, Sept. 18.—Confirmation of press reports that Dr. J. W. Smith, an American physician for the Potomac Mining Company, who was captured last Saturday by Mexican bandits from a train enroute to Santa Baulita, and held for $6,000 ransom, had arrived safely at Chihuahua City, after being liberated by the outlaws, was received at the State Department this afternoon.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Sept. 18.—Although many stocks showed losses at the opening of the stock market today, a strong tone developed after the start with prices in many cases advancing from fractions to 2 points above last night's close.

Steel Common opened 1-8 lower at 108 3-8 with a rally to 108 3-4. Baldwin Locomotive after yielding 1-4 to 131 rose to 133 and American Locomotive advanced 1 3-8 to 106 3-8. Mexican Petroleum yielded 1 3-4 at the start to 210 3-4 and then rallied to 212. Pan American Petroleum opened 1-2 lower at 118 1-2 with a quick advance to 119 1-2.

FATIGUE CAUSE OF DISEASE

That Fact Being Admitted, It Follows That the Best of All Cures Is Rest. From time to time somebody proposes the "rest cure" for all maladies, and for a time we hear a great deal of it. Then the subject is dropped, and little appears in the public prints concerning its value. But invariably it comes up again, and the "rest cure" is advocated for all manner of ailments.

Just why we should not go ahead and accept it as a fact that the best treatment for most diseases is rest, we do not know. It is well settled in science as anything pertaining to diseases that absolute rest is of the greatest benefit; that most diseases are the actual result of fatigue of one kind or another. The human body is able to take care of itself when it is not tired; it cannot take care of itself when it is overworked, no matter how many drugs are poured into it. There is a splendid work to be done by the physicians in the matter of teaching the people how to rest. Not one person in a hundred understands it. Unless the average person actually feels fatigued, he doesn't realize that his body is tired—or that his mind and nervous system are crying for rest. The average person doesn't know there is anything the matter with him unless he feels pain, and yet there are many maladies that are not accompanied by pain.

FAMOUS PALACE AND JAIL

Historic Tower of London Easily "Most Ancient and Most Poetic Pile in Europe." Palace and prison, once noted also for its menagerie and its pageantry, birthplace and death house of monarchs, scene of hairbreadth escapes and reputed hidden treasures, ghostly and sacred for its martyrs, the Tower of London simply various descriptions as the "most ancient and most poetic pile in Europe," reads a bulletin of the National Geographic society. William the Conqueror gave London a charter, but built the White tower to show the people how little that charter might mean. Like the English constitution the rambling London Tower of today is a product of centuries, and not one, but many towers, are now scattered over some 130 acres. The site had been a fortress since Roman times. To the Middle Tower Elizabeth came back a queen five years after her jealous half sister, Mary, had kept her there a prisoner. The humpbacked Richard III hired three assassins to murder his nephews in Bloody tower. Not until years later were their bones found and taken to Westminster abbey. Lady Jane Grey, who had the birth of a princess, the life of a saint, and the death of a mulefactor, was beheaded in London tower.

Fraudulent Old Clocks.

The brass lantern clocks of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries have made a strong appeal to collectors, and the fact has led to the manufacture of replicas of the old clocks. When these are sold frankly as replicas, there is nothing to be said against such a practice; but unfortunately, the matter does not stop here and too often the attempt is made to palm off an imitation as a genuine old clock. Famous makers' names are added and various expedients adopted to make the new clock pass muster as an old one. Such frauds are deplorable from every point of view, and the ignorance of many collectors makes success possible. Every one, it is obvious, cannot possess a genuine old clock. It would be well if this fact were faced, and the clocks bought simply as reproductions, by all those who are not in a position to make reasonably sure that they are really purchasing a genuine old English clock.—Christian Science Monitor.

sales, who prosper only when industry succeeds. The "open shop" will generally be approved by this permits them to engage in any employment whether they are or are not members of a labor union. It is appropriate to further emphasize what has been said many times in regard to our employers. Every one without exception must be treated by all others justly and according to merit. In accordance with our established custom, one of our workmen, or a number of our workmen from any department will continue to be received by the management to consider for adjustment any question presented.

It is the settled determination of the United States Steel Corporation and its subsidiaries that the wages and working conditions of their employees shall compare favorably with the highest standards of propriety and justice. Misrepresentations have already and will hereafter be made; unfavorable criticisms may be indulged in by outsiders, especially by those who have little knowledge of the facts; our employees may be threatened and abused in the effort to influence them to join the unions against their own desire, but whatever the circumstances may be, we should proceed with the conduct of our business in the usual way and should give evidence to our employees that we mean to be fair with them.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE. Boston, Sept. 18.—James H. Butler, 74, a famous old time orsman attempted suicide by shooting today in the Boston and Maine Railroad yards. Butler placed the mouth of a 32 calibre revolver at his head in full view of a number of railroad employees and fired. The bullet entered by the right ear and came out of the left eye. His name is on the danger list at the Relief Hospital.

NEW HAVEN MODEL CITY. New Haven, Sept. 18.—With but one prisoner in the local lockup and three cases before the police court in this city today, local police and court officials were discussing the question: "Is New Haven becoming a model city?" The cases in court were two violations of the motor vehicle laws and one of non-support. The lone prisoner is locked up on a minor charge.

PRESIDENT NAMES 22 TO REPRESENT PUBLIC IN LABOR CONFERENCE

Labor and Capital Will Name an Equal Number of Representatives.

SPARGO AND ROCKEFELLER WILL BE ON SAME SIDE

Wilson Sends Message to Each of Twenty-two—Meeting to Open in Washington October 6.

San Francisco, Sept. 18.—President Wilson has announced the names of twenty-two men who have been asked to represent the general public in the national labor conference which is to begin in Washington October 6.

The purpose of the conference is to establish a better relationship between employers and employees and thus make strikes and other economic disturbances less frequent. The President has sent a telegram to each of the men listed below asking that they accept appointment as representatives of the public in this work.

Twenty-two representatives to be selected in the conference will be split later by organized labor, the leading agricultural associations, investment bankers and manufacturers. Representatives of Public. On the President's list of those who will represent the public are: Bernard M. Baruch of New York, former chairman of the war industry board; Robert S. Brookings of St. Louis, former chairman of the price-fixing committee of that organization; John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Judge Elbert H. Gary of New York, Dr. Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard; Charles Edward Russell of New York and John Spargo of Vermont. The last two named are socialist leaders.

The others on the list are: O. E. Bradfute of Xenia, O., president of Ohio farm bureau federation; Ward Burgess of Nebraska; Fuller R. Callaway of La Grange, Ga., extensive cotton manufacturer; Thomas L. Chadbourne of New York; Charles G. Daves of Chicago; H. B. Endicott of Milton, Mass.; Paul L. Felsch of Cleveland; Edwin F. Gay, dean graduate school of business administration at Harvard university; George R. James of Memphis, Tenn.; Thomas D. Jones of Chicago; A. A. Landon of Buffalo; E. T. Meredith of Des Moines, Ia., editor Success Farming; Gavin McNab of San Francisco; L. D. Sweet of Carbondale, Col., and Louis Titus of San Francisco.

U. S. ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE TO RAISE $5,000,000 FUND
 Plan to Make World Dry—Nothing Will Be Done Until First Million Has Been Raised.

Chicago, Sept. 18.—The anti-saloon league of America, in conference here today, will map out a campaign to raise a $5,000,000 fund, necessary, according to estimates furnished members of the league yesterday, to bring to a successful conclusion their proposed campaign to "make the world dry."

More than 300 leaders of the dry movement, attended the conference, discussing ways and means of conducting the world campaign. Today it was said, practically all minor differences which have cropped out among the various prohibition organizations during the past year or two, have been ironed out and are united for the world wide dry drive.

It was learned that practically nothing will be done in the world campaign until $1,000,000 of the $5,000,000 fund has been raised. It was also reported that most of the $5,000,000 would be raised in the United States and that prohibition workers from this country would then be sent into every country on earth to conduct the fight for world wide prohibition.

WHITE SOX NEAR VICTORY.
 New York, Sept. 18.—The White Sox are within two games of another American League championship today. By defeating the Yankees in both ends of a double header Wednesday, Kid Gleason's athletes practically put the Cleveland Indians out of the running, even though Cleveland won. The Chicagoans need but two more victories to clinch the pennant regardless of what the Indians may accomplish from now on, but it is possible for the Sox to clinch the flag today should the Yanks and the Indians suffer a defeat at Philadelphia.

Mrs. Harry E. Russell of Fairview street, who has been under the care of Dr. W. R. Tinker for several days, was taken to the Hartford hospital yesterday. Mrs. Russell has been ill for ten days.

The League have in either forwarding or hindering the final restoration of Shantung or China? What effect will the League have in preventing the further spoliation of China and the abrogation of all such special privileges now enjoyed in China by all foreign countries. Answer No. 3.—The League will have a very powerful effect in forwarding the final restoration of Shantung to China. No other instrumentality of action can be substituted which could bring that result about. The authority of the League under article ten, will be constantly directed toward safeguarding the territorial integrity and political importance of China. It will absolutely prevent the further spoliation of China, promote the restoration to China of the several privileges now long enjoyed by foreign countries and assure China of the completion of the process by which Shantung will be restored to full sovereignty. In the past there has been no tribunal which could be restored to for any of these purposes.

Question No. 4.
 Question No. 4.—Is there anything in the League of Nations covenant of the peace treaty which directly, or indirectly, in any manner imposes upon the United States any obligations, moral or otherwise of the slightest character, to support England in any way in case of revolt in Ireland? Answer No. 4.—There is not. The only guarantee contained in the covenant is against external aggression, and those who framed the covenant were scrupulously careful in no way to interfere with what they regarded as the sacred right of self determination.

Question No. 5.
 Question No. 5.—What effect, if any, will the League of Nations covenant have in either hindering or furthering the cause of Irish freedom? Answer No. 5.—It was not possible for the peace conference to act with regard to the self determination of any territories except those which had belonged to the defeated empires, but in the covenant of the League of Nations there has been set up for the first time, in article 11, a forum to which all claims of self-determination which are likely to disturb the peace of the world or the good understanding between nations upon which the peace of the world depends, can be brought.

These questions and answers represent the position which the president has taken in the stronghold of the men who are chiefly opposing the ratification of the treaty. He has announced time and again that he is willing to reply to any questions that may be addressed to him dealing with the general peace situation and that he is ever ready to make explanations that will make for a better understanding between the signatories, who represent reservation designed to express their belief of what the treaty language actually means, and himself. But under no circumstances will the president, he says, even assume to compromise with his opponents who would send the treaty back to the peace commission for re-negotiation or allow it to be lost by defeat.

which affect their lives, their homes, and their future. "Only Perfecting Plans." Although it was said by some of the committeemen after the first session yesterday that President Gompers was to be sent for, John J. Fitzpatrick, chairman of the committee, stated this morning that Gompers would not be here today. It was said the message calling Gompers was to be framed at the late afternoon session.

No information was given out as to what took place at that session. Asked if Gompers could postpone the strike, Fitzpatrick replied with heat: "Postponement of the strike is not the purpose of this meeting. We are only here to perfect plans for the strike."

Gary Can Stop It. "Mr. Gary is the only power on earth that can prevent it," said Mr. Beaghen. "Not even Mr. Gompers can stop it."

At the headquarters of the strike committee employees were busy sending out circulars in seven languages calling the men out next Monday. The circulars read: "The workers in the iron and steel mills and blast furnaces, not working under union agreements, are requested not to go to work on September 22nd, and to refuse to resume their employment until such time as the demands of the organization have been conceded by the steel corporations."

"Refuse to Meet Us." "The union committees have tried to arrange conferences with the heads of the steel companies in order that they might present our legitimate demands for the right of collective bargaining, higher wages, shorter hours, and better working conditions. But the employers have steadfastly refused to meet them. It, therefore, becomes our duty to support the committee's claims, in accordance with the practically unanimous strike vote, by refusing to work in the mills on or after September 22, until such time as our just demands have been granted. And in our stoppage of work let there be no violence. The American Federation of Labor has won all its great progress by peaceful and legal methods."

ERUPTIONS FOR THE SCIENTISTS

Volcanoes in the Southwestern Part of Alaska Are Accommodating.

GEOGRAPHIC SOCIETY THERE

Members Who Went to Study Mount Katmai and Its "Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes" Are Favored With Fine Performances

Juneau, Alaska.—Volcanic peaks in the far southwestern corner of Alaska are in eruption this summer, evidently for the benefit of a party of scientists sent by the National Geographic Society to study Mount Katmai, the greatest of Alaska's smoking mountains, and its "Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes."

Persons who have returned recently from the volcanic country to the westward said Shishaldin peak, on Unimak island, in the Aleutian chain, was in eruption recently. They also reported it was believed Mount Bawlin on the southwestern Alaskan mainland, also had erupted, as the snow about the summit was coal black.

Last "blowoff" in 1912.

When the party of scientists left Anchorage, Alaska, on their way to the Katmai country, they said they believed there was little likelihood of an eruption this summer and declared they were certain there was absolutely no danger attached to the investigation. Katmai's last big "blowoff" was on June, 1912.

The party of twenty-six scientists led by Professor Robert A. Griggs of the University of Ohio, and some are from Carnegie Institute. They were planning to make observations of the botanical, biological and geological effects of the 1912 eruption. In 1913 Professor Griggs headed a party of scientists to Katmai and returned with the announcement that the crater was the largest on the globe and that near Katmai lay a great valley whose floor was dotted with thousands of mounds vomiting gray, rosy gas and smoke. This valley Prof. Griggs named "The Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes." Instead of 10,000, it is said there are literally millions of smoking vents.

Set Aside by Congress.
 Congress recently set aside "The Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes" as national property, and it is believed that some day it will be a second Yellowstone geysers field. Steaming springs, it is said, will eventually take the place of the present smoking vents.

Professor Griggs and his party expected to remain in the Katmai district until the middle of September. Until they return nothing probably will be heard from them, as there is no direct means of communication. Mrs. Griggs and her children accompanied the professor to Kodiak, an island near Katmai, and will remain there during the summer waiting for him to return. Moving pictures of the smoking mountain and valley are to be brought back by the party.

TO ACCEPT OFFER.
 London, Sept. 18.—An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen today stated that the representatives of Estonia, Letland and Livonia, at a conference at Riga, have decided to accept the Russian Bolsheviks peace offer. Nicholas Lenine, the Bolshevik dictator at Moscow, was informed that negotiations may be opened Thursday or Friday, probably in Finland, the Exchange Telegraph dispatch added.

FOOD RIOTS IN BERLIN.
 London, Sept. 18.—Food rioting has broken out in Berlin, said an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from that city today. The worst disorders occurred in Alexanderplatz, in the heart of the city. The food shops were closed to prevent looting.

Each Beauty in Harem Demanded a Gold Tooth.

Trials of a toothpuller in a harem were described by Dr. A. S. Hungerford of Teheran, Persia, who visited Toledo on his way back to the Pacific coast. Fourteen years ago the royal dentist for his majesty, the Shah of Persia, who has a fifty harem in his palace, has convinced the dentist that life with a surplus of beautiful spouses does not have all the traditional joys. One of the doctor's first duties in the Shah's palace was to pull a tooth for a member of the harem. When the dentist finished her beauty had been enhanced by a brilliantly flashing gold bitcupid. Such jealousy did this addition to her beauty strike in the hearts of the harem that forthwith they all went seething and sobbing to the Shah, charging his majesty with partiality. His majesty got out of the difficulty by ordering a gold tooth for each of them, but to even matters up ordered three United States molars for himself.

WANTED HER DOG UNWITCHED

Pennsylvania Woman Asked the Federal District Attorney for Help, but Got None.

Harrisburg.—"My dog is bewitched; what can you do to help me?" pleaded a woman at the district attorney's office. "Its name is Lady. The woman that did it is a witch. My poor dog didn't eat for two weeks. Whenever I go away from home Lady leaves house for me, but this woman bewitched it, and I want the dog to get well again."

No one in the district attorney's office knew of any magic word that could unwitch the dog.

STRIKES GROW UNPOPULAR.

The public generally is getting tired of strikes. People are beginning to realize that strikes help to increase the present high cost of living, by reducing production, and that every increase in wages above the present high level simply adds to the cost of service or commodities. We are gradually emerging from the delirium of war and coming back to common sense. The feverish demand for men and materials which sent wages and prices skyward has passed, and while the work of repairing the waste of war must go on as speedily as possible, it is not so urgent as the work of preparing for war itself. The balance between supply and demand will gradually swing toward the level and then prices will begin to drop.

In the meantime people who wish to hasten the return of normal prices should reduce consumption as far as possible and produce as much as possible themselves. To the extent that one produces in garden or orchard or dairy or pigeon or poultry yard what he and his family consume, to that extent he is helping to reduce the cost of food. To the extent that one dresses simply and takes good care of clothes and shoes so that they will give longest service, to that extent he is helping to bring the cost of clothing back to normal.

But increasing wages, further shortening of hours and the consequent tendency to spend freely and live extravagantly work in the opposite direction. They make prices still higher, not only for those who can command the high wages and short hours, but for people in general. That is why the public is not in sympathy with further strikes by men who are already well paid.

VACATION FRIENDS.

It is surprising what sudden and seemingly strong attachments people form while on vacations and equally surprising how quickly they are dropped and forgotten. Away from home, among strangers, one naturally craves companionship. It is easy to strape an acquaintance with somebody else who is doubtless in the same predicament that you are. For the time being your interests are common. You may both enjoy fishing, or tennis or golf, or possibly flirting with the opposite sex. With nothing else to occupy the mind but the pleasures of the moment, the friendships of congenial spirits ripen rapidly. By the end of a fortnight you are swapping intimate experiences, each narrator of course, putting himself or herself in the best possible light, and when you finally part for the homeward trip you do so with real regret and with every intention of continuing and cultivating the friendship.

But once home again the whole atmosphere changes. There is no longer lack of friendly intercourse, no longer want of something to do. Piled up duties crowd upon one's attention. A host of friends bid you welcome and soon you are engrossed with the cares of everyday life. A haze drops between you and your vacation days; your eyes are set forward and not backward. You may remember your new friends to the extent of exchanging a postal card or two and then they sink into oblivion. Next year they may be succeeded by others.

ONE TEENY PECK-LIKE KISS LANDS HIM IN JAIL.

Lancaster, Pa., Sept. 18.—One peck-like kiss landed Charles Asper, of Baltimore, a magazine agent, in jail. Asper attempted to sell one of his magazines to Mrs. Thomas Ruth, of this city. Failing to do this, he made an insulting remark and followed it with a kiss. Asper is now in jail awaiting a hearing.

KILLING AMERICANS.

(New York Globe.)
Gringosidd, Mex., Sept. 18.—Two citizens of the United States, who were in jail here awaiting trial, were kidnapped by a mob of Mexican citizens, taken to the outskirts of the city, and hanged. It is not known whether they were guilty or not.

This item is false. No such city exists in Mexico and no such incident has happened there. There is, however, in the United States a city named Pueblo, Col., and a few days ago two Mexicans were taken from the jail there and hanged, having been arrested a few hours earlier on suspicion of having murdered a policeman. And it is fortunate that the facts were as they were, instead of being the other way round.

When two Americans are killed in Mexico, even though it be in a section of the country remote from any city and notoriously infested with bandits, a roar for intervention goes up throughout this country. When two Mexicans are killed in a civilized American city by a mob it is regrettable, to be sure; but, after all, they look somewhat like negroes, and every one knows what we do with the latter. No one suggests that Mexico would be justified in intervention in the United States, in spite of the fact that more American citizens are probably lynched in the United States each year than are killed in Mexico. Doubtless this is an entirely admirable and healthy state of affairs, but if it would have amused a certain bald-headed old Greek gentleman named Socrates.

RED CROSS NURSES OPEN CONFERENCE TODAY IN WAR ON GERM ARMY.

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 18.—"The germ army has killed more Americans in the past four years than the German army."

With this slogan to spur them on fifty Red Cross nurses from Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky today declared war on the germ army. They opened a three-day conference at the Red Cross teaching centre here to plan their peace-time work of teaching the home hygiene course arranged by Red Cross chapters.

COP ARRESTS HIS WIFE—ON CHARGE OF LARCENY.

Boston, Sept. 18.—Calvin H. Wiltzer, a volunteer police officer was relieved from duty today after he had exercised his newly acquired authority as a patrolman by arresting his own wife on a charge of larceny. Mrs. Wiltzer, who claimed that her arrest was due to domestic difficulties, was released immediately after she had been brought to the station house. Mrs. Wiltzer told the police that her husband took her to a police box in South Boston and started to ring for the patrol wagon but upon her appeal to him not to call the wagon he walked her to station 12.

AERIAL DERBY.

The First Trans-Continental Aerial Derby to be held under the auspices of the Aerial League of America, on the sanction of the Aero Club of America, as provided for under the rules of the International Aeronautic Federation, has been officially announced.

To make the First Transcontinental Aerial Derby the most important and extensive aeronautic contest ever held, Rear Admiral Robert B. Peary, President of the Aerial League of America, has appointed a large committee of leading aeronautic authorities to draft the rules and set the dates for the Derby, the prizes for which are expected to exceed the total of $100,000.

CONNECTICUT C. OF C. TO MEET NOVEMBER 19

Committee Making Extensive Plans for Annual Meeting.

DISCUSS R. R. PROBLEM

Convention to End With Banquet—All Meetings Open to Business Men of State.

Hartford, Sept. 18.—At a luncheon and meeting at the Hotel Tatt in New Haven yesterday the committees for the first annual meeting of the re-organized Connecticut Chamber of Commerce were appointed. The dates of the meeting were set for November 19 and 20. Isaac M. Ullman, President of the New Haven Chamber of Commerce and chairman of the general committee on program and arrangements, called this meeting of his committee to make the general plans for the convention of business and financial interests which is to be held in New Haven late in the fall.

HERE'S SOMETHING NEW IN POLITICAL CAMPAIGNING.

Steuubenville, Ohio, Sept. 18.—Here's something new in politics. A candidate for a political office here did this:
Buying as many packages of breakfast food as there were voters in his ward, he put his card in each one. Then the packages were distributed, door to door.
"He figured that when the family ate the corn flakes they would feel kindly toward him at least," is the way a friend explained it.

DUTCH TO BE ASKED TO GIVE UP EX-KAISER.

London, Sept. 18.—The Dutch government will receive, if it has not already received formal demand for the ex-Kaiser for trial before an allied tribunal, according to the Pall Mall Gazette. This newspaper states unofficially that the war council at Paris has decided upon a move for the extradition of the former war lord. Although a protest is possible, officials are confident that Holland will finally accede to the demand, says the Pall Mall Gazette.

TOWN DINES ON FISH WHEN LAKE IS DRAINED.

Newcastle, Ind., Sept. 18.—Hundreds of Newcastle residents took a pot shot at the high cost of eating the other day when a six-acre pond at the Walter Hogue farm was drained. Several tons of fine fish were left stranded by the receding waters and it was estimated at least 1,000 persons obtained a supply of funny food.

the group meetings in which they are most interested. In the evening there will be a large general meeting held, probably, in Woolsey Hall. The subject of that meeting will probably be "The Railroad Problem" and it is the plan of the General Committee to have the matter presented by several persons: Robert S. Lovett, President of the Union Pacific Railroad, Harry N. Wheeler, ex-president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, and Senator Cummings if they are available.

On Thursday morning, November 20, the departmental meetings will be continued. In the afternoon there will be a general meeting in Woolsey Hall on the street railway situation education of some similar subject. The election of a board of directors for the coming year will take place at the end of this meeting. The convention will end with a banquet on the evening of the second day. On November 21 the newly elected board of directors will meet for purposes of organization. All meetings during the two days will be open to the business men of the state.

72-YEAR OLD HUSBY IS NOT LAZY, SAYS JUDGE.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 18.—Lazy husbands who have passed their three-score and twelve mark are finding consolation in a decision of Acting-Judge T. J. Moll, in City Court. John William Bell's sixty-year-old wife complained that her seventy-two-year-old spouse was lazy. The court held that a man of those years can hardly be classed as a lazy husband and took the case under advisement.

WEST VIRGINIA GOVERNOR OPPOSED TO PLUMB PLAN.

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 18.—Governor Cornwell has come out in a statement saying he was opposed to the Plumb plan of railroad control.

PATROL WAGON ROUNDS UP ALDERMEN FOR MEETING.

Beverly, Mass., Sept. 18.—Aldermen of this city were astonished and somewhat alarmed recently when the police "hurry up" wagon drew up before their doors and the driver inquired for them. It was not to the police station that they were brought, however, but to City Hall, where the chairman was very apologetic to have the sale of a piece of property to the city ratified and took this means of getting a quorum. The meeting lasted three minutes.

NOVEMBER 11 MAY BE HOLIDAY

Boston, Sept. 18.—A movement is under way in the State to make "Armistice Day," November 11, a legal holiday. Governor Calvin Coolidge has notified the American Legion that he will take the matter up with the Executive Council.

SOME OF FRANK CHANCE'S RICH FRIENDS TRYING TO LURE HIM BACK INTO BASEBALL

Frank Chance, idol of kids of Glendora.

Frank Leroy Chance, once the peerless leader of the Cubs and most-talked-of baseball man, has come out into the limelight again.

A few of his rich friends want him to buy the Boston American league club and come right back into the big doings, writes Al Spink in Chicago Evening Post.

But Chance says that he has quit the limelight for good and that nothing will tempt him away from his Glendora orange farm in California. When there are big doings in the sport world, however, Chance quits the farm for a little while. That was the case recently, when he made the trip to Toledo to see the Dempsey-Willard fight.

From the fight he went to New York with Barney Oldfield, the auto star, and it was while in the metropolis that friends invited Chance to take a flyer with them in the purchase of the Boston team.

Managed From Bench.

Chance was not much use to the Cubs as a player in the last few years he was with them.

But his presence on the bench made

LEONARD FOOLED RUTH ONCE—THEN BLOODED!

There is a story going the rounds about "Dutch" Leonard and "Babe" Ruth. Leonard was once a teammate of the formidable "Babe," and boasted to a friend that he knew the home-run hitter's weakness.

"All you've got to do is pitch 'em low and outside," said Leonard. "I ought to know, for I set him down without a hit the last time he faced me."

But the next time "Babe" gathered in a pair of doubles and a homer. Leonard boasts no more.

UNIQUE RECORD SET BY CATCHER SCHALK

Toils in Over 100 Games Each Season for Seven Years.

Little Backstop of Chicago White Sox Team is in Class by Himself—He is Light in Weight, but Not Often Injured.

Seven years ago Bill Gleason burst into the private offices of Charles A. Comiskey, wearing a large smile on his sun-seamed countenance and grasping firmly by the arm a slight youth. Bill exclaimed:

"Say, boss, I've got the greatest young catcher I ever saw."

Mr. Comiskey smiled. For years enthusiastic persons had been tipping him off to "the greatest this" and "the greatest that," who would cause the White Sox to step right out and become world's champions.

"Can he catch Ed Walsh?" the boss inquired.

"Sure, he can catch any pitcher that ever lived," Gleason responded—and he can.

When he caught in a recent game Ray Schalk had totted in over 100 games a season for seven consecutive years, which is a world's record in backstopping. George Gibson, a husky former Pittsburgh receiver, worked 110 games for six years, but not consecutively. Even the great John Kling, who helped the Cubs to pennants, had enough first-class assistance as a catcher behind the bat in a century of consecutive only two years.

Schalk stands in a class by himself in more ways than one. He is the smallest of the star catchers, weighing only about 100 pounds. Yet he seldom is hurt and never seriously. His catlike speed keeps him out of harm's way. Because of his fast, snappy throw they early hung on him the nickname of Cracker, referring to the way he whips the ball around.

GOOSE PITTMAN DEMONSTRATED HOW HE COULD HIT WALTER JOHNSON'S CURVES

Walter Johnson, Who Throws Remarkably Fast Ball.

Louis Lamer, who played independent ball in California after leaving college and might have been in the big league had he not decided that he preferred to settle down in Los Angeles and make more money at something else, sends this one as the funniest thing he ever saw in a ball game, and it must have been a sidesplitter at that:

"Walter Johnson came out to southern California after the 1910 season closed, in the East and was engaged to pitch for an independent team at Santa Ana. The manager of the team Johnson was with booked the club for a game and we were all wondering if we would be able to get a foul off Johnson, who was at top-notch form.

Pittman Was a Character.

"On our team was a player we called Goose Pittman, who was quite a character. He talked about what he could do and just how he could hit Johnson's speed. He had it all figured out.

"Johnson put over the first two strikes on Goose so fast he did not even see them, but then Goose began to work his system. He sort of squatted down and took a good bead on the pitcher's box, with his bat ready to swing and waiting. He was going to slam away as soon as he saw Walter winding up, figuring he'd about get his bat around when the ball got to the plate.

Fired Ball to First Base.

"Johnson brought his arm up and fired the ball over to first base, trying to nab the runner there. Goose was all set and as he saw Johnson's arm go round, he swung wildly, going all but the atmosphere. The crowd roared and Goose threw down his bat and shook his head. 'My Gawd! such speed,' he said, 'I never even saw it.'

"And then, Johnson, having got the return from first base, really did pitch one over and the umpire said it was the third strike.

"Pittman had to take a lot of joshing for being the only man who was over known to swing at a ball that had been thrown to first base."—Sporting News.

BASEBALL NOTES

Dan Howley is an able vocal substitute at the coaching lines for Hughie Jennings.

Pitcher Lou Dresson, who has been overseas for more than a year, has rejoined the Des Moines club.

One of Chick Hartman's first moves when he resumed the management of the Binghamton team was to brace the pitching staff.

A New York paper says President Grant of Boston can't be blamed for swapping Art Nohf, since the Boston fans were shy on supporting the Braves.

Rounding, Pa., will have to get along without Sunday ball, according to a court decision. Property owners put over the decision after the reformers had failed.

Some Los Angeles fans are inclined to criticize Manager Killefer for letting Maurice Schick go to San Francisco, now that the youngster is playing such fine ball for the Seals.

Being manager doesn't seem to bother Tris Speaker a bit. In fact, one scribe who has watched him in most of his games declares the leader of the Indians is playing the game of his life.

Salt Lake fans have become so enthused over the recent showing of the Bees that they talk of raising a fund of $10,000 to be presented the players if the Coast league pennant is won.

The Mobile club lost Homer Summa, but still is under obligations to the St. Louis Cardinals for Jake Miller, for this youngster is going big and looks good enough for a recall to the big show this fall.

Eddie Reiter, who made a reputation as a third baseman with the Tufts college team, has been signed by Binghamton. He was with Buffalo awhile last year, then quit baseball to enter the aviation service.

President George Washington Grant of the Boston Braves says it won't be his club that's transferred to Toronto for next season. The denial was in reply to rumors out of New York that the Braves might forsake Boston for greener fields.

HAS PROVED WORTH OF HIS DAD'S JUDGMENT

Young Robert Kinsella, son of the Giants' famous scout, has proved the worth of his dad's judgment. Father Kinsella had watched his boy develop on the lots of Springfield until he considered him worth a professional trial, whereupon he sent him to Little Rock. There Bob has made good and the "old man" will keep his promise and give the boy a chance with the Giants in the spring training trip. The "sale" of Bob by Little Rock to New York has just been announced. The son of his father has been hitting .280 in the Southern league and is one of the fastest men on bases in the circuit. Pretty good for a 19-year-old boy.

ment, that of coach of athletics at West Point. Oil is tickled over his being able to once more get into harness at the Point.

His stay with the Crackers has been highly successful and the big bosses of the Crackers are highly pleased with his 20 days' show. He has played errorless ball and fielded in a most spectacular fashion.

Oliphant is the greatest college athlete ever developed in America and he starred exceptionally at West Point. His coaching ability has been proven at Camp Benning. His knowledge of football gained in eight years on the gridiron, his basketball experience equally as extensive and professional baseball experience will make West Point teams better than ever.

NOTES OF THE DIAMOND

Reb Russell continues to hit homers for Minneapolis like a regular Babe Ruth.

Fewster and Vick continue to slop the ball better than some of the old timers.

The New Orleans club has sold Pitcher Jim Roberts to the Detroit Americans.

First Baseman Pete Shields has been discharged from army service and rejoins the Binghamton team.

There is no truth in the report that Grover Alexander lost his arm in the war. The old soup bone was just on a furlough.

The Shreveport club announced that the deal by which Shortstop Jimmy O'Neill is to go to Washington for a trial has been completed.

If all boxers can be developed into such accomplished boxmen as little Dick Kerr, some club should go out and sign up Jack Dempsey.

Hal Chase has Eddie Collins' superstition of placing his gum on the button of his cap and then taking it off when the pitcher gets two strikes on him.

A Milwaukee critic says that Roy Hansen, the young pitcher secured by Rowland from the Chicago White Sox, is the best relief hurler in the association.

Pitcher Gene Packard "handed in his resignation" to the Philly management with the statement that he intended to take a job in a Pennsylvania steel plant.

Connie Mack has dug up a lot of talent, he imagines. In the Southern league. The tall tutor of the A's has been down south for several weeks hunting ivory.

Cox of the marines has secured a contract for $250 to pitch for the Detroit Tigers and will join them as soon as he draws the blue envelope from the government.

Sam Crawford is hitting well above .300 in the Pacific Coast league this season. It is a wonder one of the major outfits hasn't recalled the veteran from the bushes.

The New Orleans club is reported to have sold Outfielder Johnny Sullivan to the Cincinnati Reds. Sullivan seems to have found himself in the Southern league this year and has been going fine.

CLARKE LIKES TRAPSHOOTING

Former Manager of Pittsburgh Pirates Devoting Time to Shooting, Oil and Farming.

Fred Clarke, former manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates and regarded as one of the greatest field directors ever connected with the national pastime, is devoting his time now to trap shooting, farming and the oil business. The former Pirate leader lives at Winfield,

Fred Clarke.

Kann, and is now making plans to entertain the 1920 Kansas state trap-shooting tournament there. Clarke doesn't boast of being as good a trap shooter as he was a baseball manager, but, at that, he does fairly well. He broke 246 birds in a recent state titular shoot, using a 12-gauge single-barrel gun, which was presented to him several years ago by Pittsburgh fans. The gun is extensively engraved, the principal adornment being a figure of Clarke in baseball uniform, but in hand.

RING HAS MEAN FAST BALL

After Making Pitcher Out of Reuther Manager Moran Turns Attention to Brooklyn Lad.

After making a pitcher out of Walter Reuther, the Cincinnati left hander, Pat Moran, Redland manager, turned his attention to Jimmy King, the Brooklyn lad, who had fought with the Dodgers and the Yankees. Batters who have had trouble against Jimmy say he now has one of the meanest fast balls any pitcher in the league can shoot over. Leave it to Pat Moran to bring out dormant pitching talent!

HOW TO HANDLE THE BALL.
By A. A. Staggs
Athletic Director, The University of Chicago.

I wonder how many of us realize the number of football games lost through fumbles? Often they result directly in touchdowns, but frequently, when they do not bring the winning score, they decide what is known as the "break of the game", and thus determine victory.

No boy relishes the disgrace of a fumble. Learn therefore to handle the ball. Practice till you are sure you can handle it in every department of the game.

Learn to handle the ball, no matter what position you play. Some time or other you will have to do it. The boys chosen to fill the more spectacular positions have usually qualified for them by long practice.

Catch the ball, squeeze the ball, whenever you have the chance. As a quarter-back, practice till you never make a fumble in receiving from center, or in passing to the runner, whether he is a back or a line-man.

On backs the runner must wrap both arms about the ball to prevent it from being torn from him. On free running plays, where one hand may be used for warding off the tackler, one end of the ball should be tucked snugly into the crotch of the arm and shoulder and held there by strong pressure from the forearm and hand.

Many games are lost by muffon punts. Practice long and hard to make yourself "safe and sure" in catching. Catch the ball in a pocket formed by the hands with the softer part of the body below the breast bone.

Forward pass play is now a part of the strategy of the game. Learn to throw the ball without gripping it, using the lace to help spiral it. Practice sometimes with a slippery ball. Also learn to catch a forward pass in the hands like a baseball. It will come in handy frequently.

Finally, remember the maxim, "Squeeze the Ball."

All Around American Girl

A HIKE CONTEST.
By Louis Freer
Director of Physical Training for Women, The University of Illinois.

How many of you have been in a hike race? Those of you who have will agree that it is exciting sport for a Saturday afternoon.

The contest consists in two teams hiking to a place which can be reached by two routes. Each team starts on a different route, returning by the opposite route. The team which is first to get back to the starting place is the winner.

If you have a girls' athletic association in your school, you can have two teams of association members; or two clubs of basketball teams can compete. It can be just as exciting if your teams are chosen from your particular group of friends.

Keep these rules well in mind:
1. The teams must start from the same place at the same time. Your captains must carry watches and be sure they have, the same time.

If the hike is a long one, have an agreement to take fifteen minutes or more for rest along the way.

2. Every girl must keep to a walking gait, the captain being responsible for setting a good, steady pace. (Remember that a real hiker wears low-heeled, broad-toed shoes and comfortable clothes.)

The teams will, of course, meet. The team in the lead will be returning on the route not yet covered by the other team. This is where you take "time out" for a picnic by the road-side, or in a nearby field or wood. After lunch and games you are ready to continue the race. The team which is first to get back to the starting place will wait for the other team.

COWGIRLS COMPETE IN OREGON "ROUNDUP," WHICH OPENS TODAY.
Pendleton, Ore., Sept. 18.—Ten cowgirl bronco busters of the first water—women who can stick to the hurricane deck of the wildest animal that ever snorted equine anger at the curbing of his liberty—will clothe their "bucks" at the annual roundup which opened here today.

The riders are renowned for their daring and several have won wealth, honor and glory in all the broad plains region where pigskin-bedecked "bad" animals are so well known. Kitty Canutt, of Colfax, Wash., and Ruth Roach, of Oklahoma, have heretofore defied the efforts of the rearers, pawing, squealing four-legged demons of the Western prairies to unhorse them. Kitty will appear with Charley Irwin to defend her numerous titles won in past years. She will be opposed by such noted rough riders as Lorraine Udy Trickey, Donna Card and Ruth Par-ton, the last named staging a comeback after several years' absence from the "show." Prairie Rose Henderson, Loise Thompson, Bonnie McCarroll, Eloise Hastings and Mrs. Hugh Smith, hair raisers in the saddle and capable of riding with their mount walking erect or standing on his head, will help to entertain the largest attendance the roundup ever has witnessed. There are spectators present from as far East as Boston, and a number from New York, Chicago and Detroit.

Cook's Older Mill opens every day but Wednesday and Saturday.—adv.

SAYS U. S. COAL EXPORTS WILL NOT STINT US

America Could Well Afford to Export Even Greater Tonnage, Asserts Official.

WORLD-WIDE SHORTAGE OF 62,900,000 TONS, HE SAYS.

All Europe Demanding Coal; We Are Not Injuring Home Consumers in Satisfying It, Declares Witness.

Washington.—(Special)—American coal producers, seeking to relieve a world-wide shortage, are not sending coal abroad in sufficient volume to deprive the American consumer, in the opinion of H. Y. Saint, head of the Shipping Board's export department, a witness before the senate subcommittee conducting an inquiry into the coal situation, headed by Senator Frelinghuysen of New Jersey.

Mr. Saint submitted to the committee the Shipping Board's official estimate of the extent of the world-wide coal shortage, totaling 62,493,000 tons, most of which, if made up, he said, "presumably must be made up by the United States." Exclusive of shipments to Canada, the United States is exporting coal, he said, at the rate of about 7,000,000 tons a year. This is a little more than 1 per cent. of the total amount of bituminous coal produced in the country for a year.

According to Mr. Saint's figures Canada will need about 16,858,000 tons, France 17,000,000 tons, Belgium 12,000,000 tons, which may be reduced later, as Belgium is rapidly restoring her mines; the Netherlands, 8,000,000 tons; China, 3,135,000 tons; Italy, 5,000,000 tons; Sweden, Norway and other countries many millions more. To help supply the needs of these and other countries, Mr. Saint stated, the Shipping Board has allocated the coal trade, 194 American ships of 929,834 dead weight tons, as follows: In the Swedish trade, 85,111 tons; to Switzerland and the Netherlands, 235,633 tons; to Denmark, 7,000 tons; Italy, 105,503 tons; France, 138,380 tons; South America, 207,523 tons. There was included in these figures, he said, 103,061 tons in the coastwise or New England trade, which would have to be deducted from the total tonnage, leaving approximately 828,000 tons engaged in the overseas transportation of coal.

These figures represented only Shipping Board vessels, he said, or about 30 per cent. of the total. "The export coal trade so far this year," Mr. Saint said, "is running a little behind the export trade of last year owing to the dropping down of the Canadian trade. But the foreign trade has increased over last year. By the time this year is up we will have exported, I think, about 7,000,000 tons."

So great was the dearth of coal abroad, Mr. Saint asserted, that demand had come from practically every European country, including the British Isles, heretofore the chief coal exporting nation of the world. "England's inability to produce coal in previous quantities, he thought, was primarily responsible for the increased demand on the bituminous coal producers of the United States."

"Her exports have dropped from 77,000,000 tons of coal a year," he said, "to 23,000,000 tons. It was the understanding that England was to take care of the Italian situation. I believe that conclusion was reached in Paris during the economic conference there. But England has radically failed to take care of the Italian situation. Italian imports of coal before the war were 10,000,000 tons annually. Last year England sent Italy 4,000,000 tons, and this year up to date she is doing very little better. This leaves from 4,000,000 to 5,000,000 tons to be supplied Italy by other nations and we are practically the only nation that can supply her that coal."

"Are we relieving England at our expense?" Senator Frelinghuysen asked. "If you mean expense in the sense of taking coal that should go to our own people," replied Mr. Saint, "I do not believe that sufficient coal is going abroad to particularly injure our domestic situation. If you look at our foreign shipments as a development of a legitimate foreign trade, which will mean a very great deal to this country in future years, I think we can well send what we are sending now, and considerably more, abroad at this time."

Mr. Saint said that "we are trying to distribute our tonnage equitably among the countries that need coal."

Park Theater

Two of the most thrilling hand-to-hand fights ever seen on the screen take place in "A Man's Country", starring Alma Rubens as a dance-hall queen in a rough western town of the early California gold-rush days. The picture is distributed by Exhibitors Mutual and will be the feature tonight at the Popular Playhouse.

Huxley's Gulch was a rough hamlet and Kemp's dance-hall was a rough joint. Everybody toted a gun in the Gulch, and the handles of most of the six-shooters were notched. When they couldn't use a gun they fought with their fists.

In the last reel, Kate Carewe, (Miss Rubens) is attacked by "Three-Card" Duncan (Lon Chaney) a bad gambler, and Miss Rubens demonstrates that she's a "wild-cat" keeping the gambler as busy as a hairless dog in a bee-hive.

The big fight which follows this preliminary—when the pugacious parson takes a hand and rescues Kate from "Three-Card"—is a corker. The preacher and the bad-man literally wreck the bar-room fixtures and glassware. The quantity of "licker" spilled when they both crash into the bottled goods, bringing down the loaded shelves on their heads, generates joy in the gloomiest Pariah.

Circle Theater

"Beyond the Law" an unusual feature, will be shown tonight and tomorrow at the Circle Theater. There are three stars in it, Emmet Dalton, Virginia Lee and Billy Connolly. The story is of the west in the days of '49 and is most interesting.

On the same bill will be an educational bill "Fairy Magic" and a Pathe comedy.

On Saturday the Circle will show an unusual program. There will be thirteen massive reels. The last chapter of "The Tiger's Trail" will be shown in two reels, and three reels of the new serial, "The Gambler" will be also on the same bill. Because of the unusual length of the program, the afternoon performance will begin at 2 and the evening performance at 7.30.

ENTIRE TOWN ARMED WITH PITCHFORKS, ETC., CAPTURE BURGLAR AFTER STRUGGLE.

East Whately, Mass., Sept. 18.—The entire town turned out here armed with pitchforks, pokers and death-dealing kitchen forks to help Postmaster Charles Ross capture a burglar armed with a hammer. After the townspeople had surrounded the store, brandishing their weapons, they formed a living wedge and entered, simultaneously, by the front and back doors. The burglar did valiant battle, hitting to right and left with his hammer. Several hands, hands and shins were lacerated, but at last the burglar held up his hands in surrender.

He told the townspeople that he had a horse and carriage waiting for him in the woods, and wouldn't they please see that the horse didn't go hungry.

ATTRIBUTES HER LONGEVITY TO TOBACCO; SMOKED PIPE SINCE GIRLHOOD.

Westfield, Mass., Sept. 18.—To the use of tobacco was attributed her longevity by Mrs. Mary Jane Adgate, aged eighty-two years, who died in her home on Thomas street here. Mrs. Adgate smoked a pipe for years beginning the habit when she was a little girl.

TAD'S TID-BITS

"I've seen a lot of great fighters," said Leo Flynn, pushing back his iron kelly, "but take it from me, big or little, white or black, the grandest of the lot was little George Dixon. He was my idea of a wonderful fighting machine. I know that a lot of the fight fans today never saw Dixon. He's been dead ten years, you know, but his fights will live for ten more, and then some."

"I liked Gans as a fighter, too. He had almost everything but speed, with speed added. You must remember, too, that Dixon at 88 lbs. was fighting big, strong boys. He put on a bit of weight later, and then kept on giving away weight. He was fighting big, husky lightweights along with the featherers all the time, and was first under the wire nearly every trip.

"There isn't a fighter today who can rip with that old left the way Dixon could. He could rip a left to the body and upon the chin and then shoot a right over before a fellow could 'scat.' He was a hitter, a boxer, a ring general, and was cooler than a lemon and soda.

"Kinbane? Yes, a great boy, but Dixon ma above all others. There was a better feinter and better hitter, Kilbane, I admit, can sock, but he can't use the left as Dixon did. There never was another left like Dixon's. It was murderous. That old rip to the stomach was poison to any one."

AN OLD-TIMER CHIRRS.

Dear Tad: I read your article the other day in which Eddie Graney says that Jim Corbett was the star of our heavy-weight boxers. I think that Mr. Graney knows something at that. I saw Corbett at his best when he beat Jake Kilrain. He made a show of Jake if ever a show was made. I can't imagine Jim. Jeffries: even touching Corbett at that time.

Corbett was twenty-four years of age then and he was uncanny in his work. Jim Jeffries was twenty-four when he won the title from Fitzsimmons. I should like to have seen the cumbersome Jeffries meet Corbett at that time.

The only fight that I can think of that would compare with this was the night that Jim Driscoll made a monkey of Leach Cross here in New York.

Yours for the old-timers,
J. COONEY.

REVERSE ENGLISH NOTES.
Harry Frazee of the Boston Red Sox, has asked for waivers on Babe Ruth, a left-handed pitcher of his club.

Mr. Ban Johnson, of Cleveland, was the guest of Colonels Ruppert and Huston at a luncheon yesterday.

Harry Stevens, the Polo Grounds caterer, will present free to the fans for the rest of the season all the ice cream cones and peanuts that they can eat.

Pat Masterson says that the present batch of pugilistic champions are the gamest, straightest and best that the world has ever seen.

Jack Kearns, who brought Jack Dempsey into public notice, has shaken his charge for good. Jack says that Dempsey is "a has been" and in the future will let him paddle his own canoe.

THAT'S WHAT THEY ALL SAY!
They were talking about old-time fighters the other night at Billy Gibson's pugilistic contest. The fighters of today were almost as good as compared with the old boys. Others said that boxing had improved so that the old-time wouldn't have a chance with a good man of today.

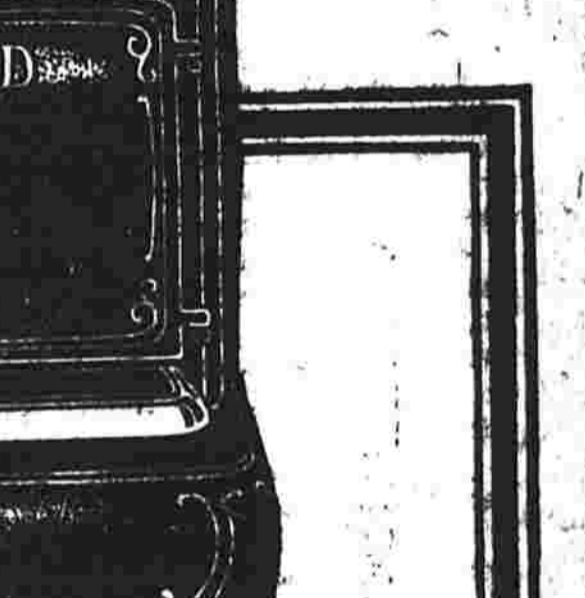

Thon Gibson chimed in. "It's a fact," piped Bill. "you can't make an old-timer believe that Sullivan and that gang were any unbeatable in their prime. You know I took my father to see Jim Cooney and Joe Jeanette training one day. Jim was in top form at that time and Jeanette was priming him up for his work. My father watched them go through three rounds without saying a word. When the workout was finished and we were on our way down town I said to him, 'Well, pop, what do you think of my coming champion, Jim Coffey?'"

"The old man gave me one look and stepping out faster than usual, said, 'Sure, John Morrissey could lick them both in a round.'"

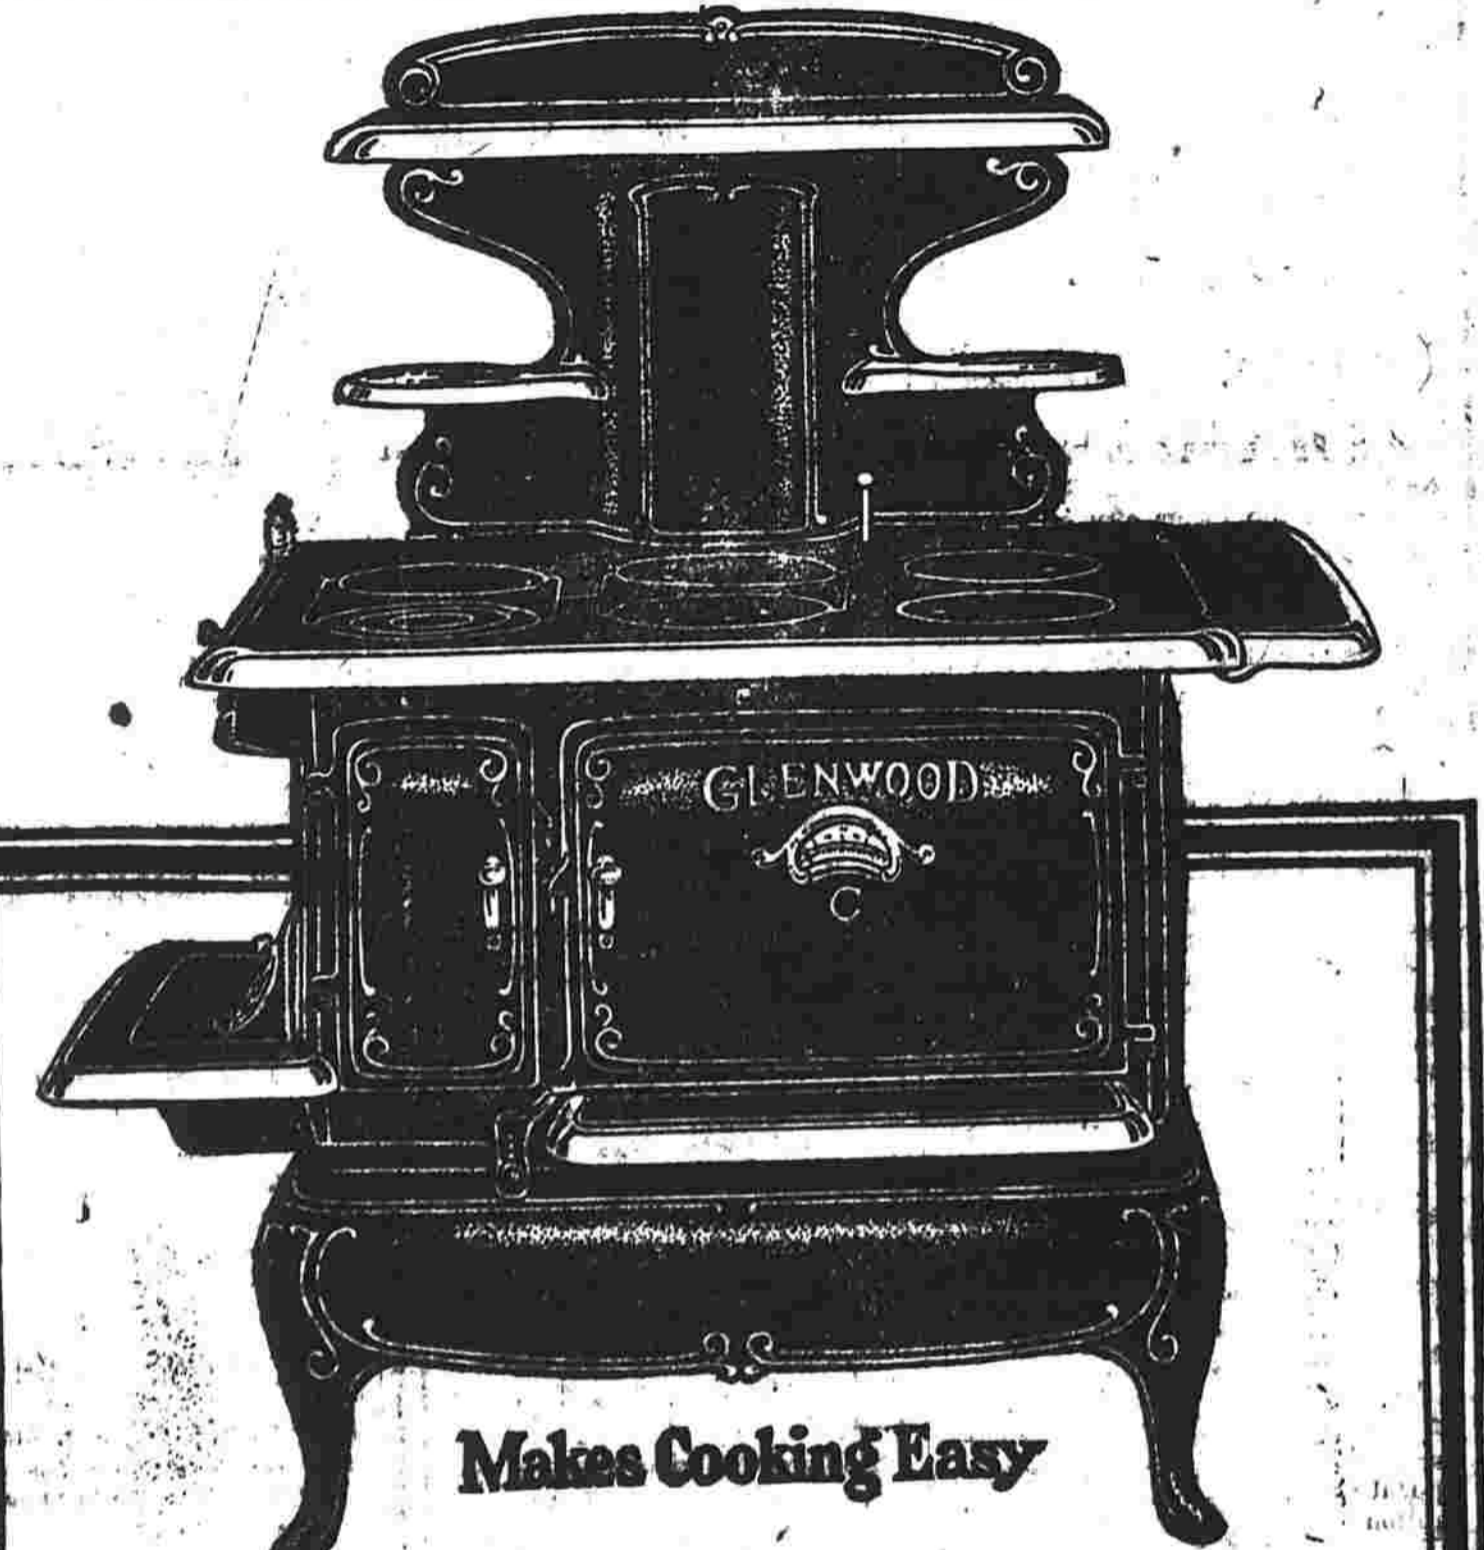

THIEVES CARRY OFF LARGE SAFE.
St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 18.—Burglars who operated almost within sight of the police and who were observed by bystanders, carried away a 500-pound safe of the Newark Shoe Company, hauled it in a truck to Forest Park and there blew it open, obtaining $350.

NOT PRACTICAL TO TEAR UP SURFACE AT PRESENT
 Highway Commission Says Man Was Sent Out to Look at Overturned Truck.
 The McLean hill road has been sanded in an effort to eliminate the danger of automobiles skidding in wet weather. It is not thought that this treatment will be of any great benefit as it only provides a temporary service. The heavy traffic has brushed the sand to the sides of the road, and with two or three rain storms, the coating will disappear entirely.
 Replying to the Herald's inquiry as to whether or not the state department had conducted an investigation, an official at the State Capitol said that inasmuch as the road was a permanent one, it would not be practical to tear it up. All hard roads, he maintained, were slippery, and this feature could not be helped. Asked if a man had not been sent out to look over the road, the official replied that they had sent one of their road men out to look at the truck which turned turtle a few days ago.

YOU CAN BRING A CASE TO COURT BUT THAT'S NOT A TRIAL AT ALL
Harry M. Burke Again Opens Legal Door and Suit Takes Vacation.
WILL COME TO TRIAL SEPT. 23RD, PERHAPS
 Williams-Proctor Case Has Been Thrown Out of Court Three Times—Now Scheduled to Come Before Jury.
 The Proctor-Williams justice trial which was scheduled for a hearing before Justice of the Peace Carney this morning was of very short duration. This was the third time that the controversy has been before Justice Carney and just as soon as the case was opened this morning Attorney H. M. Burke, representing Williams, made a request for a jury trial and suggested that the trial be set for Saturday morning, September 27. Attorney Arnott, thought that the trial should come sooner and suggested next Tuesday. Justice Carney was of the opinion that next Tuesday would provide ample time and set the date for that time.
 Deputy Sheriff John F. Sheridan will be called upon to summon the jury of six men for next Tuesday morning.
 This case was in the process of being tried before a jury ten days ago and at that time Attorney Burke claimed that the case was not a proper one to be tried before a justice and Justice Carney sustained him in the contention. Then Attorney Arnott brought a summary process before Justice Carney and again Attorney Burke found fault with the papers and he was supported by the Justice. Now the case is to come up in the same way as at first but, according to the lawyers, the papers are now in proper form and it looks as though the case would be fought to a finish before a jury next Tuesday.
 The suit concerns a lease held by George H. Williams, which entitles him to the use of a building or a garage. The building belongs to Proctor and he claims Williams has broken the terms of the contract.
TAKEN ILL AT TOBACCO FARM—WOMAN SOON DIES
 Mrs. Beatrice Casenhill of Hartford Rushed to Hospital—Passes Away in Few Hours—Was in Good Health.
 Mrs. Beatrice Casenhill of 35 Charles street, Hartford, who was employed at the Hartman Tobacco farm, was taken ill yesterday afternoon at four o'clock, with what appeared to be a fit. A Manchester physician was called to the farm and he recommended that she be hurried to the Hartford hospital. Accordingly Holloran's ambulance was rushed to the farm and the woman was taken to the hospital. She had been at that institution but a short time when she died. She was about 50 years old and apparently had been in the best of health. She was married and had a family.
MUSICAL CONCERT.
 Robert Doellner and Burdette Hawley to Give Public Recital.
 A high class recital is promised for Manchester's music lovers some time in October. It is to be given by Robert Doellner of West Center street and Burdette Hawley of Cottage street.
 Mr. Doellner is a violinist. He needs no introduction to Manchester people. His previous appearances in public have demonstrated that he is a musician of rare ability. He is also a composer and a member of the Hartford Philharmonic orchestra.
 Mr. Hawley is a pianist. He ranks as one of Manchester's best musicians. His ability as a pianist is equal to that of Mr. Doellner's as a violinist. He is also an organist at one of the Hartford churches.
 The young men are preparing a musical program which will include a number of their own compositions. The concert will be free to the public. The date and place will be announced later.

BRIDGEPORT SINGERS PLAY ATHLETICS NEXT
 Fast Nine to Meet Locals at Mt. Nebo Sunday—Eastern League Has Eye on Sipples.
 The Singers of Bridgeport, beloved by a large majority of local fans to be the fastest team that has appeared in town this year, will oppose the Athletics on the Mt. Nebo grounds Sunday. The Singer team of Bristol and holds two defeats over the Pioneers of New Britain, defeating that team last Sunday in a six-teen inning game, and as the Pioneers defeated the Hendee Indians by the large score of 22 to 4 in a seven inning game, local fans who have not seen the Singer team perform here before will have an opportunity to see not only one of the best teams in Connecticut in action, but one of the best semi-pro teams in New England. Earl Champion, Connecticut's leading south paw, or Pete Wilson will pitch for the sewing machine company, and Tommy Sipples will occupy the box for the Athletics with Lamprucht behind the bat. The good work done by Sipples and Lamprucht this year will perhaps mean the loss of these two players to the team next year, as Sipples has already received tentative offers from two Eastern League clubs for next year, and the work of Lamprucht behind the bat at Springfield in the Hendee game not only received high praise from the managers of several clubs who were present at the game but of Jack O'Hara, manager of the Springfield Eastern League Club.

 In a special match at the Center alleys, the Spinning Mill Regulars put it all over the Spinning Mill Yannigans. Of course the match was not for blood as much as it was for the purpose of getting in trim for the opening of the Industrial League on October 6. The scores show that the Regulars haven't lost their bowling eye and the Yannigans also demonstrated that they have some possible timber for the regular team. The Regulars won by 66 points.
 The score follows:

ST. BRIDGET'S HOLDS MISSION FOR POLES
Native Ceremony is Conducted for Three Days by Polish Priest.
PICTURESQUE PROCESSION
 Father McCann Pleased by Large Attendance—As Many Men as Women—Polish Priest Surprised at Number.
 Any one passing St. Bridget's church last evening would have been attracted first by the sound of preaching in a strange tongue and then by congregational singing very much above the average, also in a strange tongue. A visit into the church would have impressed the stranger even more because, even after he had been told that the congregation was composed of Poles, he would hardly believe that there were so many persons of that nationality in the entire town.
 A Polish mission has been held in St. Bridget's church during the first three days of this week and the average attendance at each service has been well over 300. Yesterday afternoon the Polish babies were blessed and the side of the church was lined with baby carriages. It reminded one of Saturday's baby show to see the many tots being trundled down Main street toward Depot Square, after the blessing.
 Last evening the services consisted of recital of the rosary and the litany, a sermon and an impressive ceremony, typically Polish, "The Renewal of the Baptismal Vows."
 400 Present Last Night.
 Last evening there were nearly four hundred persons in the church, all Polish. On one side of the main aisle were the women and children and on the other, the men. Each was given a candle. These were all lighted at one point in the ceremony and the scene was most beautiful. The congregation then stood up and repeated the words of the baptismal ritual which had been said for them by their god parents when they were baptized. After this, led by the Polish priest, who is conducting the mission, with Father McCann, as master of ceremonies, and the regular altar boys of the parish, a procession was held. There were so many crowding into the aisles that it was impossible for all to take part.
 Father Baumelster, the Polish priest who is conducting the mission, said that he was surprised at the number of Polish people in this town. He said that the mission was not advertised very much except through announcements made by Father McCann but that one told the other and in a day or two every Pole knew of the mission.
 In the opinion of Father McCann there has never been such a large number of Polish people in attendance at a similar function in town before. He says that a feature of the services was the large number of men who attended. Nearly as many men were present as there were women. "An unusual occurrence in religious services of any kind," said Father McCann.
CRESCENTS TO RISK FAME IN THE FOOTBALL WORLD
 Hope to Hold High Place They Won On Diamond—Practice Called for Tonight.
 Having won the juvenile baseball championship of the town, the Crescent A. C. is now out for the juvenile football championship. They will start their season by calling out the members of the club for an initial practice at the mill lots this evening. All members of the club and those who wish to try-out are requested to report.
 Since their organization as a football club, the Crescent squad has never been beaten. The West Ends were the only team last year to cross the Crescent goal line. The men who will report this evening are: J. Thornton, C. Thornton, G. Peterson, R. Swanson, McKinney, Ray, Turkington, C. Wright, G. Wright, H. Smith, McKay, W. Stevenson, H. Stevenson, Anderson, Angell, Wilkie, Armstrong and Madden. An important meeting will be held after the practice.
