TO DEPORT REDS CAUGHT IN RAIDS; NEXT 48 HOURS DECIDES BIG STRIKE

LABOR IS NOW FACE TO FACE WITH ITS GREATEST CRISIS

Government Takes the Stand That the Issue is Sharply Drawn—If It Recedes the Radical Group Now Seeking to Dominate the Nation, Will Rule—Miners Say They Will Not Return to Work.

Washington, Nov. 9.—The Government will go ahead with its proceedings against the coal strike leaders. The proclamation of the American Federation of Labor caused some surprise in administration circles but will have no effect on the pronounced policy of the Federal Government, according to officials here today.

Radicals in Control.
It is considered that President Samuel Gompers of the Labor Federation, and his conservative followers have lost control of the labor movement and that the radicals have swept the field. It is being freely predicted here that a split in labor is not the remotest of possibilities.

On the other hand it is universally recognized that labor realizes that it is face to face with the greatest crisis in its history and desperately the council of the American Federation of Labor still leaves the way clear for the strike leaders to obey the court's orders but it encourages a contest by promising the support of all organized labor.

The Declaration.
The whole attitude of labor is set forth in these paragraphs of the declaration:
"We declare that the proceedings in this case are unwarranted, as they are unparalleled in the history of our country, and we declare that it is an injustice which not only the workers but all liberty-loving Americans will repudiate and demand redress. The citizenship of our country cannot afford to permit the establishment of maintenance of a principle which strikes at the very foundation of justice and freedom."

cleansed from so outrageous a proceeding.

The Strike Just.
"By all the facts in the case the miners' strike is justified. We indorse it. We are convinced of the justice of the miners' cause. We pledge to the miners the full support of the American Federation of Labor and appeal to the workers and citizenship of our country to give like indorsement and aid to the men engaged in this momentous struggle."

Surprise to Washington.
This statement, arrived at after lengthy proceedings by the labor leaders came as a total surprise to official Washington, for it had been expected that the executive council of the American Federation of Labor was in session in an attempt to devise a way out, that the strike order might be rescinded and that the miners might have their demands at least partially satisfied.

Samuel Gompers, gave every indication last week that he was most desirous that organized labor should evade this crisis and that an amicable settlement be reached out of court.

Gompers, in his conferences with Attorney General Palmer, indicated that the American Federation of Labor was endeavoring to arrange a proposition which might satisfy the miners. The operators and the government can afford a solution for the whole situation. The result of the meeting of the executive council again brought rumors of a struggle within the Federation of Labor, which took priority to the steel strike, with Samuel Gompers and the conservative leaders taking a strong stand for upholding the law, but being voted down by those who are anxious for a showdown as to the strength of organized labor.

The Government's View.
The appeal for public support of the coal strike will bear little weight in the belief of officials here. They declare that the thousands of telegrams which are pouring into the offices of cabinet officials indicate that the public is behind the Government in its course. In answer to the charge that the vast majority of the public does not resort to the sending of telegrams to Government officials, it was pointed out that the House of Representatives, by a unanimous vote had pledged its support to the

The "machine guns" described in the yellow reports of the Red raid on the home of Mark Yulish on Fairfield street Saturday afternoon are nothing but models of machine guns, constructed more as toys than anything else. At any rate they could have done no damage and that they were leaning toward firearms. It may account for the blue print of a machine gun that was found among his possessions at his home. So far nothing has been discovered that proves any intention on the part of Yulish to start trouble immediately.

Just why Yulish had the models of the machine guns with him has not been explained. As they could not be used to start trouble and as the investigation so far has failed to reveal a workshop where the real machine guns are being turned out it is a chance that the most violent weapons in the possession of Yulish was his tongue and the "Red" literature found in the raid.

The fact that the guns found Saturday were only models was confirmed by the United States District Attorney's office in the Federal building Hartford this morning.

Word was received today from the office of the United States Commissioner of Immigration that the disposition of Mark Yulish rests with the Department of Labor at Washington. Yulish at the present time is confined at the Hartford Police headquarters under $10,000 bonds. Federal authorities in Hartford are reticent in regard to the situation and are not disclosing any information.

Those who understand the situation locally seem to be of the opinion that with the arrest of Yulish, the teeth have been drawn from the local branch of the Russian Workers and Peasants' Union. With the disappearance of Getzewich, a former president of the organization, Yulish assumed the leadership. He was considered a Red of the most rabid sort and he was not backward in expressing his views and also his opinion of the government.

Just how long the Russian Workers and Peasants' Union has existed is not known. His meetings have been held in private in headquarters, on Blissell street and during the past year their activities have attracted public attention. Dances for the benefit of the order have been held at Jarvis Grove and Tinker Hall and it is said that the proceeds were partly used for the furtherance of the principles of the main organization.

Two Schooners Believed to Have

Boston, Nov. 10.—Logs of the United States Shipping Board steamer Polar Land, with the crew of fifty men in life boats being sought, four other steamships in distress, a schooner wrecked off Portland, Me., and the wreckage of another schooner washed ashore at Scituate, Mass., was evidence today of several sea tragedies.

Sends Out S. O. S.
A wireless message received at the naval radio station here told of the plight of the Polar Land. A call for help was later received from the ship.

Two More in Distress.
The Greek steamship the Platea the Navy Yard wireless heard, was ashore on Cape Sable, the British steamship Greystone was reported in a perilous position with her propeller blades gone off Sable Island.

The Telemachus, a Canadian coal vessel sent out a call for help from the vicinity of Cape Breton and another steamship off the Nova Scotia coast which did not give her name, said she too, was in need of assistance. Wreckage of a schooner found floating off Ragged Island, Portland, Maine, by fishermen, is believed to be part of a three masted schooner that went to pieces on the ledges during the recent gale. The crew is supposed to have perished to a man. Coast guardsmen today were searching for the bodies. The name of the wrecked schooner is unknown.

Another Wreck.
Wreckage of a schooner bearing the number 216,192 was washed ashore at Plum Cove, Scituate, Mass. Marines thought it was part of the schooner Lochosla from Philadelphia. The wreckage was the top of a vessel's cabin. It had been recently painted. The name "C. Cadman" was written in pencil on the wood. Word was received today that the Gloucester fishing schooner Natalie Hammond was seriously damaged in the gale and had put into Liverpool, Nova Scotia.

PRINCE TO MEET WILSON.
Washington, Nov. 10.—The Prince of Wales will be permitted to see President Wilson at the White House tomorrow afternoon; it was stated this afternoon by Admiral Grayson, the President's physician.

The reports of Dr. Grayson today indicated continued improvement in the President's condition. It was stated the President had spent a restful night and was in good spirits today.

The Princess of Wales will call at the White House at 3 o'clock tomorrow.

253 ARRESTED UP TILL NOON; AGENTS CONTINUE THEIR WORK

aces" Say Circulars.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Up to noon today, 253 arrests of "Reds" have been made by Department of Justice agents, a statement issued from the Attorney General's office this afternoon stated.

"All of those arrested thus far will be deported," the statement declared. The Department of Justice announced that while many were being taken into custody, actual arrests followed only in those cases where deportation was possible.

Where Arrests Were Made.
Arrests were made as follows:
Newark, N. J., 13; Detroit, 40; Baltimore, 10; Cleveland, 17; Buffalo, 14; Hartford, 25; Chicago, 9; Detroit, 40; Akron, Ohio, 32; Monessen, Pa., 20; Bentleyville, Pa., 1; Universal, Pa., 4; Philadelphia, 10; Trenton, N. J., 1; New York City, the latest batch of prisoners. It is expected that some of them will be deported along with other undesirable charged in Friday night's raids. John Reed, one of the organizers of the Communist party in this country was reported today to be on his way to Russia to confer with Soviet officials.

James Larking Held.
James Larking, agitator for Irish freedom, and a co-worker with Reed in Radical Socialist activities, was one of the prisoners taken in the Communist raids. He was held by the police and was expected to be arraigned along with other prisoners some time during the day.

IN HARTFORD.
Hartford, Conn., Nov. 10.—Hearings granted the prisoners arrested in the roundup of Russian Reds were of the 500 persons arrested by the Federal, state and city officials in the raids on 73 communist headquarters in Greater New York on Saturday night were held by the authorities today for further examination in the nation wide crusade against Bolshevik sympathizers. All of the others were released. The officials were said to be planning further raids.

25 Tons of Literature.
Among the 25 tons of anarchistic literature seized in the second series of raids Saturday night in Manhattan, Brooklyn and the Bronx, were said to be revolutionary appeals from Nicholas Lenine, the "Red" Dictator of Russia. Officials declared that investigation of the literature showed that there are between 7,500 and 8,000 members of the Communist party living in or near New York and that all are liable to arrest.

The Communists, officials said, believed in "ownership of everything by the people."

Work Will Go On.
Senator Clayton R. Lusk, Chairman of the legislative committee which is co-operating with the Department of Justice in clearing New York of anarchists, declared that "the work will go on." He said that practically all of the members of the Communist party in New York are aliens.

"The fact that 71 different headquarters of the Communist party have already been raided here shows the wide extent of the party's activities," said Senator Lusk.

Tabulating Documents.
Agents of the Department of Justice and the police officials are tabulating the documents found in the various Red and Communist gathering places to get the following facts:
1. Names of members.
2. Source of funds.
3. Method used in communicating with European Anarchists.
4. Location of printing presses turning out "Red" literature.

of Peter Kiser of New Haven. Kiser apparently proved a gold mine of information for the inspector and it is understood a mass of valuable evidence and important leads were opened by his testimony.

To Arrest 50 More.
Inspector Clark and his assistants, the Department of Justice agents, are impatiently waiting for telegraph authorization for fifty more arrests to be made in Connecticut in connection with the raids. It is understood that Inspector of Immigration James Fitzgerald, who is handling the hearings in the cases of those arrested in Bridgeport, is also waiting for wire authority to make more arrests. It is estimated that the additional warrants to be served in Connecticut may aggregate one hundred.

Manchester "Red."
Six accused examined Sunday are all being held, among them being Mark Kulesh of Manchester, in whose home were found plans of machine guns. Mrs. Annie Cook of New Haven, who wanted to give bail for Kulesh, was permitted to see him for a short time Sunday evening.

In all the cases nominal bail of $1,000 is required but it is understood that more will be demanded if the facts warrant it. All arrested admit being members of the Union of Russian Workers and all are subscribers to the Chicago tri-weekly "Russian Voice."

Attorney Harry R. Edlin of New Haven is here representing some of those arrested in Ansonia. There is no legal appeal from the action of the Department of Immigration which is handling the arrests except through a writ of habeas corpus. It is understood that one of the prisoners here has wired Attorney Isaac Sheer of New York who is attorney for a number of those arrested in this city.

SEIZE "RED" BOOKS.
Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 10.—Four thousand volumes of "The Proletarian Revolution in Russia," by Lenin and Trotsky, were seized in a raid today in a book bindery here. The raid was conducted by District Attorney Nathan A. Tuttle, assisted by representatives of the Department of Justice and the Attorney General's office. No arrests were made. The books were edited with introductory notes and supplementary chapters by Louis G. Fraha and were printed in

ARMY-NAVY LOSES TO CLAY HILLS ON FLUKE PLAY, 6-0

Service Men Change Tactics and Visitors Are Allowed to Score.

LOCALS CHANGE PLAY MYSTERIOUS REASON

Clay Hill Line Contained Veteran Stars—Their Delayed Signal System Worked Well.

After outplaying and outgeneralizing the crack Clay Hills for two periods at the Mount Nebo gridiron yesterday afternoon, the Army and Navy team changed its tactics and enabled the visitors to score the first and only touchdown of the game. The winning play was made in the third period, the ball being carried from the Army and Navy's thirty-five yard line directly after the kick-off. Carroll took the ball across the Army and Navy goal. O'Neill missed the goal on a kick from touchdown and the score stood 6 to 0 for the Clay Hills.

Yesterday's defeat for the locals was caused by a change in tactics; a fluke play and a 15 yard penalty. It was an interception of a forward pass that jolted the morale of the locals and matters were made worse when Damico through some misunderstanding left the field on play and the Army and Navy was penalized fifteen yards. With the ball but three yards from goal, the local defense snapped and Carroll wriggled through the line for a touchdown. There was no scoring after this although the Clay Hills were again dangerous in the fourth period. The ball lay on the Army and Navy's ten yard line on a Clay Hill first down when the quick glance of Massey detected a technicality and the visitors were set back to the twenty-five yard line on a penalty.

Why the Army and Navy changed its tactics appears to be a mystery. In the first period they outplayed the Clay Hills at every stage of the game and although the gains were not large, the pigskin travelled toward the Clay Hill goal in remarkably quick time. In the first period the visitors had the ball but once, and in the second period they had the ball four times but could make no gains against the Army and Navy's stone-wall defense. Twice the Army and Navy had the ball on the visitor's ten yard line. Massey failed on a drop kick and later Rau failed on a kick from placement.

With line-plunging tactics the Army and Navy was never in danger, but with the introduction of the forward pass play, the trouble started. With a wide open right field, Swan intercepted a forward pass and

PENALTY KICKS SCORE 1-1 IN S. K. F. GAME

One of the Largest Crowds in Hartford's Soccer History Turns Out to See Opening Game.

A tie game marked Hartford's opening battle of the Hartford District Soccer league at Charter Oak Park yesterday afternoon, when the Manchester Soccer Football club and the crack S. K. F. team played to a 1-1 score before one of the largest gatherings that has ever witnessed a soccer contest in the Capitol city. In the first half the Manchester team made a sensational exhibition of the quick work of Smith, the S. K. F. goal tender that saved a score. The locals started off with a rush in the second half and for twenty minutes the ball seeped up and down the field. A penalty gave the S. K. F.'s a free try for goal and Hanlon "opened" the score for Hartford.

The reverse served to put new life into the locals and terrific drives were sent against the net by McCorket and Pratt. The latter finally sent a hot one at Hills who knocked the ball down with his hands and Manchester was awarded a penalty. Pratt had but very little trouble in placing the ball in the net. From then on the locals kept the ball in S. K. F. territory and the game ended with both teams on equal terms. Billy Moore handled yesterday's game to the satisfaction of both teams.

The standing of the league follows:

Fortier Makes Sensational 40 Yard Run for Touchdown—Bill Barrett Figured in First Period.

In a fast and cleanly played game at the Four Acres lot yesterday afternoon, the local Atlas went down to defeat before the Cardinals of Hartford by a score of 6 to 0. Owing to truck trouble the visitors did not arrive in Manchester until 4 o'clock and the last half of the game was played in darkness.

The local team made a sensational exhibition of the quick work of Fortier, the Cardinals' goal tender that caught a long pass from Barrett, the sensational 40 yard run for a touchdown. The loss of "Bill" Barrett, who was injured in the first period, was a severe blow to the Atlas. The line-up follows:

THE CAMEL

Editor Herald, Dear Sir, The camel is the most patient of animals. He represents transportation. Has never been imbued with Bolshevik tendencies. Five conditions are absolutely essential to the camel's welfare.

First: The camel's efficiency depends on public support for before he can have any feed there must be the wherewithal. If the camel is deserted this usefulness must of necessity be crippled.

Second: The camel must have sensible caretakers, and feeders, those who understand camel constitutions, and furthermore be endowed by nature, as well as practical education, with a sympathetic camel feeling.

Third: The camel must have experienced transportation experts and freight loaders. One camel should not be overloaded so he will wobble under the load, just to save a nickel; divide the load up among several.

Fourth: The camel should have humane drivers and attendants—they should be endowed with a keen moral sense. They should, under all circumstances be loyal and true to trust, never beating the camel as he patiently wends his way over the desert waste. This spirit will be reflected in the public heart and add to the camel's comfort and prosperity.

Fifth: The head masters and overseers and all associated in directing the camel business should be endowed with a far-seeing sense of camel needs. The granary from which the feed to sustain strength and camel vigor should always be well filled. Water alone will not give strength, though the camel drinks a barrel.

Supreme, everybody, from the highest official, to the track workers including the outside public units, seeing self preservation is the first law, and form a society dedicated to the health and prosperity of the camel. Long life to this patient beast; may he never be fed on straw or be otherwise mistreated.

Camel's Friend, CARD FROM RED CROSS COMMITTEE The chairman of the local Red Cross roll call committee requests the Evening Herald to publish the following statement bearing on the closing days of the third Red Cross roll call:

An Armistice Day Proclamation

By the Board of Selectmen of the Town of Manchester— A PROCLAMATION:

The anniversary of that great day when the glorious heroism of our army and navy was crowned with victory is at hand and it seems altogether fitting that the citizens of Manchester commemorate it with those special acts of celebration which it is our custom to perform in memory of significant historical occasions.

Therefore we, the Board of Selectmen of the Town of Manchester, suggest and recommend that on Tuesday, November 11, the national emblem be displayed from all houses and places of business, that there be appropriate exercises in all our schools, that all clubs and fraternal organizations which hold their customary meetings on this day devote a portion of their time to observance of this anniversary.

And we especially recommend that at eleven o'clock—the hour when hostilities actually ceased—the bells of our churches be rung and whistles on all places of manufacture be blown in order that the entire countryside may be reminded of that day when democracy and liberty were triumphantly established.

And we furthermore suggest that at eleven o'clock all our citizens suspend the routine of their daily occupations and for a few minutes give thought to the debt we owe those men and women of our town who rendered such distinguished service during the time of national peril and that our minds turn in gratitude to Him whose cause they so loyally served.

son who has given before and desires to give again, especially the hundreds of smaller givers whose aid was and is so very important. It is requested that all who have not given, carefully consider what they can afford, and send it before Tuesday evening to the roll call headquarters at the Recreation building. The roll call committee needs and appreciates every contribution, no matter how small, and feels that every giver certainly should not be ashamed if the amount that he can afford to subscribe is small.

Inasmuch as it is the policy of the Manchester Chapter to acknowledge through the papers all contributions above the membership and one dollar, the roll call committee will in the future not make acknowledgment by letter. Should anybody, however, prefer acknowledgment by letter this method will be used if request be made at time subscription is given. The expense of acknowledgment by letter has thus far been borne by individual members of the roll committee who had frequently had such action suggested to them by others.

Directors Recommend That Capital Stock be Doubled to $200,000.

SHARES TO SELL AT $150

Surplus From Sale of 1,000 Shares Will Go Into Surplus—$100,000 to Capital.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Manchester Trust Company to be held in the offices of the bank on Wednesday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock, action will be taken on the recommendation of the directors of the company to increase the capital stock from $100,000 to $200,000. Notices to this effect have been received by the stockholders.

If the stockholders vote to sustain the recommendation of the directors, the new series of stock will be divided into 1,000 shares the same to be sold at $150 each. Of the total amount of $150,000 to be subscribed to, $100,000 will go toward capitalization and the balance will be transferred to the surplus account. This action will give the Manchester Trust Company a capital of $200,000 and a surplus of $100,000.

NO MORE COMPLAINTS.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 10.—At the office of the State Public Utilities Commission here today it was said that no further protests had been received from the various cities of the state against the zone system of fares inaugurated by the Connecticut Company. It was intimated that the sooner the protests were received from the cities who intend protesting the sooner a date could be set for a general hearing to be granted as soon as all protests are submitted.

SEARCH FOR CROWELL IN BIRCH MOUNTAINS

Boy Scouts and Fraternity Brethren Scour Hillside Without Success.

CLAIRVOYANTS ADVICE

Company F Tracks Through Woods and Swamp of Enfield—Mr. and Mrs. Nichols at Flag Mobilization.

Highland Park, Nov. 10.—Members of the Phi Theta fraternity at Wesleyan and Manchester Boy Scouts spent yesterday afternoon beating the bushes of the Birch Mountains and scouring the hillsides of Enfield in search of the missing man.

The shifting of the search from the vicinity of the institution where Mr. Crowell was staying came through the advice of a clairvoyant who when consulted said that the countryside near the Crowell home should be thoroughly searched. In addition to this several south end residents believe that they saw Crowell in town after his disappearance from Enfield.

The Boy Scouts and the fraternity brethren of Crowell who gathered at Highland Park yesterday numbered about seventy-five and they covered every foot of the hills near Highland Park. They failed, however, to find a single clue that might assist in the finding of the missing man. Between forty and fifty of the members of Company F went to Enfield Saturday afternoon and spent several hours searching through the woods and swamps. The men spread out in skirmish line formation and in this fashion covered thoroughly about a mile and a half of the surrounding country.

It is probable that the Director General will make final answer to the demands of the Railroad Brotherhoods.

It was stated at the Railroad Administration this afternoon that the meeting had nothing to do with the general labor situation or the coal strike.

BOSTON TRAFFIC COPS TO BE "ALL LIT UP."

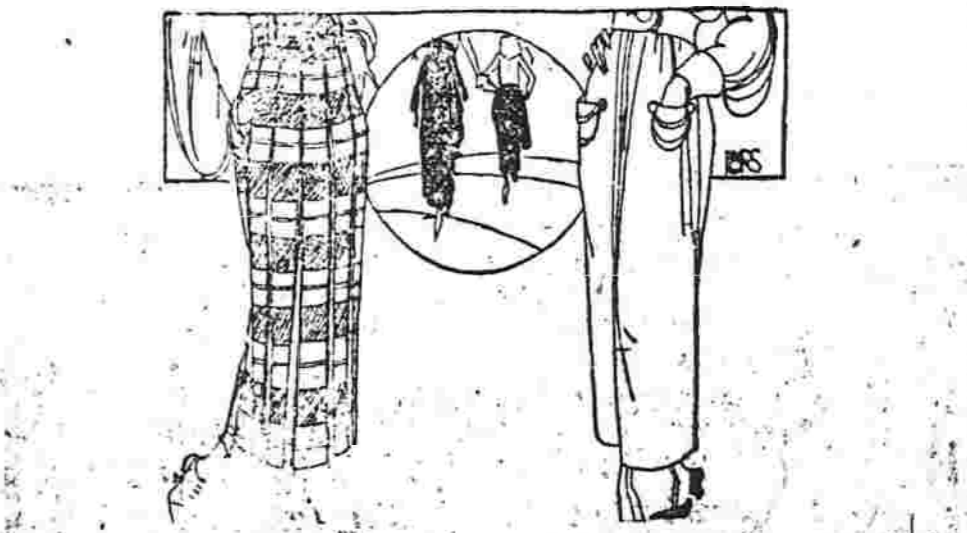

Boston, Nov. 10.—Boston traffic officers are to be "all lit up" hereafter. The First Motor Corps of the State Guard, which is handling traffic on Boston streets until a new police force is formed, have originated the "lighted cap" idea to direct the streams of motor vehicles during the evening rush hour. The head dress consists of a light framework of copper wires with a band fitting the hat and a small incandescent red bulb at the apex, lighted by electric current from a battery carried in the pocket. In addition the traffic officer wears a white shoulder harness, making it possible to see the officer several blocks away. The illuminating device was originated by Lieutenant James A. Morse, of the Motor Corps.

TOWN MEETING TO ACT ON TROLLEY PETITION

Judge Arnott Says Town May Support With Necessary Funds.

TO ACT ON HAYNES STREET

Successor to Late James W. Cheney to Be Appointed for Bridge Commissioner—To Regulate Parking.

The call for the special town meeting to be held in the Town Hall on Thursday evening at eight o'clock does not indicate any action of unusual interest. Sections two and four, relative to the acceptance of Haynes street and the election of a bridge commissioner to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late James W. Cheney, are matters which the selectmen have already acted upon and have referred to the town meeting for final action.

Of chief interest is the first section of the call in which the selectmen ask for authority to bring a petition before the Public Utilities Commission alleging that the rates of the Connecticut Company between Manchester and adjoining towns are unreasonable and that the service furnished by the trolley company is inadequate to public necessity and convenience. Town Counsel Alexander Arnott has informed the board that the town may bring such a petition before the Public Utilities Commission and may expend such money as is necessary to properly present its cause.

Acting on the recommendation of the police commissioners, the selectmen will ask the voters to adopt a by-law regulating the parking of vehicles at the Center around the property of the Center Congregational church. While it is probable that there will be some discussion on Section 1, the entire business to be brought up before the meeting should be transacted in a short time.

LAST OF STEFANSSON'S PARTY ARRIVES IN SEATTLE

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 10.—From the land of the Igloo and the parka, bearing much secret information regarding scientific discoveries made by the Stefansson expedition in the Arctic, A. G. Gaumer and Martin Killian have arrived here, last of the exploring party to reach civilization. For several years these two men travelled with the expedition, having joined it at Victoria Land and Bailey Island and remaining with the party until Stefansson became ill and left for the outside. They left Barter Island, on the north coast of Alaska, July 28 last.

CHINA COMPETING WITH U. S. EGG TRADE IN ENGLAND

Washington, Nov. 10.—Chinese eggs are coming more and more into competition with the American egg trade with the United Kingdom, according to United States Department of Agriculture reports on foreign markets.

The producing sections of China are upward of a thousand or two thousand miles inland from Shanghai. The eggs are brought down by slow river transit. Eggs that arrived in Canada last fall did not pass inspectors at a grade higher than seconds. Distance and other factors are in favor of American and Canadian exportation, but the Chinaman is declared a particular competitor in England.

Park Theater

Everybody likes to see a real two-fisted fight. That is the reason why "The Battler" in which Earl Metcalfe and Virginia Hammond are starred is making such a hit with theatre-goers all through the country. It will be shown tonight at the Park. "The Battler" tells of a society man who treats his wife with great brutality. Hart stages a bout for the entertainment of his friends in which he is to meet a professional pugilist. At the last moment Fortune, an east side fighter who is a deadly enemy of Hart's takes the place of the fighter originally engaged.

Hart's wife, Angelica, hearing that Fortune is to meet her husband in the ring, refuses to witness the fight. For her refusal Hart beats her with a whip and compels her to go to the ring side in his drawing room. Enraged at the treatment she is receiving she bares her neck to Fortune at the ringside and showing him the red mark where the lash of the whip struck she implores him to kill her husband, Hart.

The fight starts. Rules are thrown aside. It becomes a battle in which the best man will win. Hart is downed several times but each time his hatred for Fortune urges him on, and he is able to regain his feet and the fight continues. Finally a tremendous blow on the jaw knocks Hart out. Fortune has won the greatest fight of his career!

"The Battler" is a fight picture purely and simply. The big fight between Hart and Fortune is the feature of the picture. Pep, punch and fast moving action makes this one of the kind of pictures that people won't fail to see, while Earl Metcalfe and Virginia Hammond, who are starred in it, never did better work in their careers.

On the same bill will be "Vaudeville" and "The Trail of the Octopus."

Don't forget to get around early tomorrow night for the super picture "The Eyes of the World."

Circle Theater

Tom Mix, William Fox's daring cowboy star, has turned into a photographer well-known book, "The Trail of the Octopus."

"The Trail of the Octopus" will be shown at the Circle theater tonight and tomorrow. The story has to do with the Hudson Bay Company in the wilderness of Canada. It shows wonderful photography of life and romance in the land of measureless snows and grim forests where human hearts are very warm and vital. Tom Mix alternates death-defying devotion to true love with some of his skillful and thrilling stunts that every red-blooded person loves to see—among them a wonderfully managed fight in the deep snow, and a struggle to save the life and honor of a girl. The piece is all action and surprise, and entirely wholesome. Colleen Moore is Mix's new leading lady. She's pretty and dainty and a capital actress.

On the same bill will be a comedy and "Smashing Barriers" the William Duncan serial.

On Wednesday in addition to the regular bill there will be vocal selections by Mildred Polsten, soprano and John Conlon, baritone.

On Saturday afternoon there will be a bargain matinee. The admission price for all will be six cents.

The largest pipe organ in the world is in a motion picture house at St. Louis, Mo.

PLEASEING CHARACTER SKETCHES

Entertainment at North Methodist Church Conducted By Mary Baillie Bartlett.

A very pleasing entertainment is looked forward to when Mary Baillie Bartlett of North Reading, Mass., author and entertainer, will be heard and seen at the North Methodist church under the auspices of the Epworth League, Wednesday, Nov. 12. Mary Baillie Bartlett's programs are composed entirely of her own writings. This does not mean that her material is all of the same style. On the contrary, one of the charms of her entertainment is the wide variety shown in her work. There are dramatic stories—comic stories—pathetic stories. There are poems and monologs. There are little plays and character sketches, and the people in them—and all of Mary Baillie Bartlett's platform people make one wonder how through one individual's portrayal so many personalities may come into active existence.

COST HIM $25 TO GO "SHIMMYING" IN WICHITA

Wichita, Kan., Nov. 10.—The "high cost of shimmying" now comes upon the scene to add its toll to the high cost of enjoying life in Wichita. The wife of jazzing the jazzing dance was set at twenty-five bucks by Post Sergeant Rogers when Edward Horsley, twenty-three, appeared before him to make bond. Horsley was arrested by special officers at the Wheat Show "Palais de Danse" for dancing the "shimmy." He put up bond for appearance in court.

The arresting officers did not say whether the "crime" was "grand" shimmying or just "petit" shimmying.

RECORD DEMAND FOR HUNTING LICENSES

Geneva, N. Y., Oct. 10.—It may be the high cost of living or it may be the desire of the hunter of the near-hunter to get in touch with nature that this season has created an unusual demand for licenses to hunt and kill during the open season. Nimrods old and nimrods young have besieged the City Clerk's office here for the card and button which entitles them to these privileges. The cock pheasant is said to be plentiful. The hunter is after him.

Criticism and Citizenship

It is to criticize proposed government measures believed to be harmful.

Swift & Company is in a better position perhaps, than others, to understand the meat packing business in all its relations to public and private interests, even though the others may have been giving the subject a great deal of sincere attention.

Swift & Company is convinced that interference with its legitimate business function by governmental agencies, however well intentioned, would be an injury to every man, woman and child who wants meat to eat, as well as to the men who raise the meat and to those who dress and distribute it.

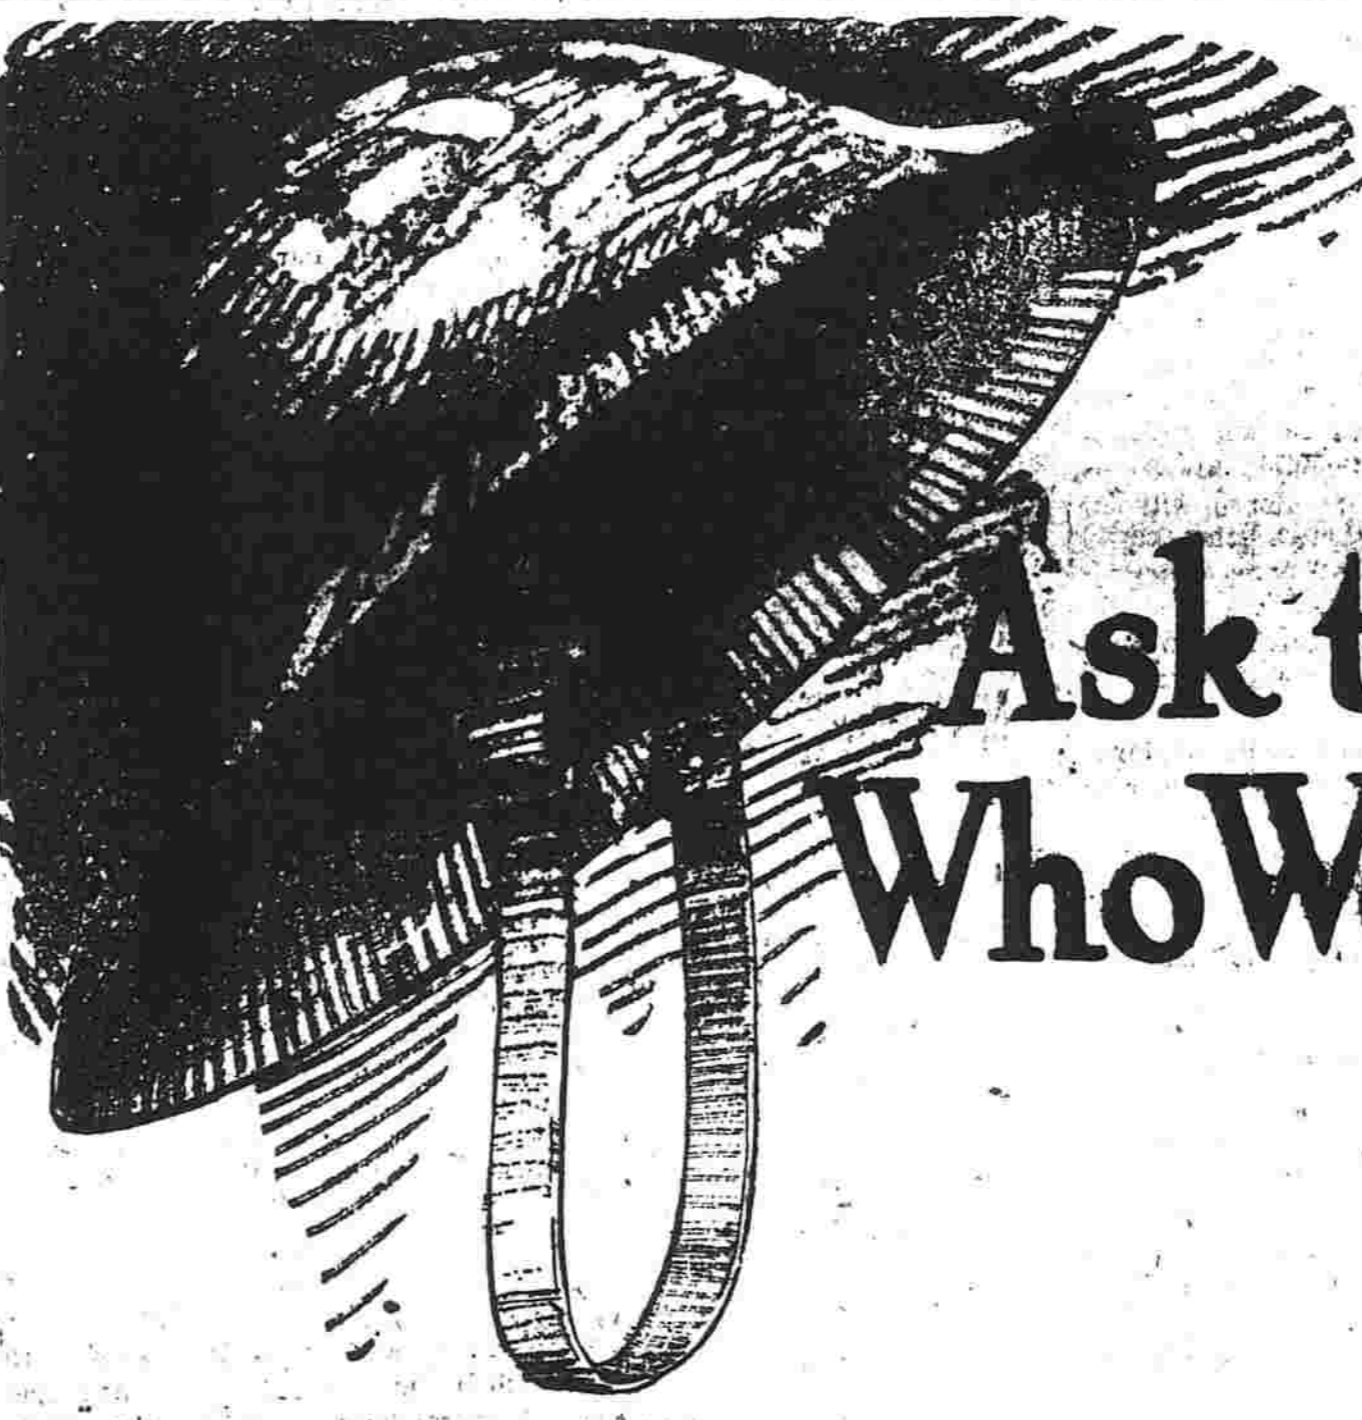

Maximum service that cannot monopolize because of keen competition and lack of control over sources of supply is furnished at a minimum of profit—a fraction of a cent per pound from all sources.

Therefore Swift & Company is taking every legitimate step of citizenship to prevent such interference.

These advertisements are intended to help you, and to help Congress decide what is best to be done. Mistakes are costly and apt to be harmful in these trying times.

Let us send you a Swift "Dollar."

SERVICE MEN TO LEAD ARMISTICE CELEBRATION

Welcome Everybody to Their Club House—Red Cross to Announce Returns Tomorrow Night.

Plans are practically completed for the celebration of Armistice Night at the Army and Navy Club tomorrow night. Ed. Harrington is arranging for a show made up of the best talent of the town. He is chairman of the arrangements and he wants it understood that the whole town is invited. For the day, at least, no one will need a membership card to enjoy the offerings of the club.

From twelve o'clock noon until twelve o'clock at midnight there will be a welcome committee at the club ready and anxious to show visitors around and to tell them that they must make themselves at home and to persuade them that they must try some of Pat McVeigh's grub in the canteen. Chairman of the Welcome Committee will be Sergeant Fred Hughes who was so frequently and severely wounded in France. He will be assisted by Blanchard who has just come back from Wildwood after a course of treatment for the effects of gas.

If any one has ideas for the proper celebration of Armistice day and wants to get a crowd to carry them out, if he wants to start a parade, party or song he will find plenty of enthusiasm at the Army and Navy Club to back him up.
