

KNOX OFFERS ANOTHER PEACE PLAN; TO END WAR BY JOINT RESOLUTION

CONGRESSMAN MERRITT MISQUOTED J. L. LEWIS

Acting President of Miners' Union Now Demands a Retraction.

"DONE ME AN INJUSTICE"

Alleged Speech Was Used by Judge
at Federal Probe—Congressman Representative Responsible.

Indianapolis, Dec. 20.—Demand that Representative Schuyler Merritt of Connecticut retract statements made on the floor of the House in which he read what purported to be an extract from a speech by John L. Lewis regarding an alleged League of Coal miners and Operators is made in a letter from Lewis to the congressman, made public today.

"To Wipe Out Competition," Lewis was quoted as saying at a joint conference of miners and operators of the central competitive members coal field that "it is the competitive field which will do anything in any way endangering the peace that exists between us" and "it is for the purpose of wiping out competition between us."

"Some one has done me a very great injustice," Lewis declared today. "At no time, at no place and under no circumstances did I ever make the statement which the Connecticut Representative charges me," he asserted.

Demands a Denial. "In his letter to Representative Merritt, Mr. Lewis said he did not feel that Merritt deliberately intended to make a malicious statement," but demands that he "make amends for the mistake by making public admission of the fact."

"I can only think that his speech was a part of a carefully planned and skillfully executed scheme to create a prejudice in the minds of the public against the United Mine Workers," said a statement issued by Lewis in making the letter public.

Used by Judge Anderson. The extract from Lewis alleged speech as quoted on the floor of the House, was included in Judge A. B. Anderson's instructions to the special Grand Jury investigating the coal inquiry.

Judge Anderson had a right to rely upon the speech of Congressman Merritt as containing the truth, for the speech was published in the Congressional Record, thus giving it official standing," said Lewis. "But the quotation of the statements alleged to have been made by me is false and wholly unwarranted."

LUSITANIA'S TREASURES ARE TO BE RETRIEVED

Attempts to Cut into Hull of Sunken
Steamer to be Made Next Spring.

Cork, Ireland, Dec. 20.—An effort will be made early next year to retrieve the treasure from the hull of the Lusitania which lies off the Irish coast, it was learned today.

Representatives of the firm of divers that will make the effort to secure the treasure have been here for some time making preliminary arrangements. They have now returned to London for appliances.

No attempt will be made to raise the vessel but the divers will try to cut into the hull and secure the valuables from the interior of the vessel.

In Our Town

WHY LEMONS ARE HIGH.

It happened in Manchester a few days ago.

One of the girls at the Cheney mills was arranging the surprise party and she gave the invitations to a young man who lived at the south end and who has the reputation of being a practical joker. The invitations were in the shape of a printed form and one line read: Please Bring Lemons, and on this blank space different delicacies should have been written.

The young man wrote LEMONS on each and every invitation.

The night of the party arrived. At the refreshment hour all fled into the dining room for the grand banquet. When the first package was opened and lemons were found the girl who was in charge exclaimed, "How nice. We'll have lemonade!"

The next was lemons. "We'll have a lot of lemonade!" But when the third and fourth and fifth and every package up to 33 was opened and found to contain nice juicy lemons there was no smile left on the lips of the hostess although the guests smiled and some of the boys were even mean enough to laugh right out in company.

The youth who wrote the invitations was not at the party.

TANKER BREAKS IN TWO; 47 OF CREW ARE LOST

Harrowing Tale Told by Three Men
Who Are Picked Up—Ship Struck Reef.

Marshfield, Ore., Dec. 20.—Forty-seven members of the crew of the oil tanker J. A. Chanseler, are believed to have been lost when the vessel struck a reef off Cape Blanco on the Oregon coast Thursday night.

Three men, including Captain Sawyer, are known to have been saved.

The Chanseler was bound in ballast from Portland to San Francisco. Immediately after striking the reef the vessel broke in two, the after part carrying 30 members of the crew down with it.

Earl Dooley, one of the survivors, stated that 10 or 12 members succeeded in manning a life boat. The craft drifted all Thursday night and Friday, unable to make a landing or give a call for help. Two men were picked up by the men in the boat, but one of them was insane and died shortly after being pulled out of the ice cold water.

The life boat capsized when an effort was made to make a landing near Bandon, Ore., and the fate of three of the occupants is still unknown.

Mayor Thompson and his official family greeted the General as he alighted from the train and was escorted to an automobile through a lane of school children who raised their voices in patriotic songs.

Starting with a parade this afternoon General Pershing will be kept on the jump during his stay here, attending banquets, addressing returned soldiers and presenting decorations to Chicago's war veterans.

"I Know You Are a Murderer" Shouts Woman At Gustav Noske

Berlin, Dec. 20.—A suffragette member of the National Assembly created a stormy scene during today's session when she interrupted interpolations upon the government's program against the Spartacists.

Minister of Defense Gustav Noske had just completed a statement when Mrs. Seth, an independent representative, jumped to her feet shouting:

"You are a murderer."
Minister Noske rapped sharply for order for the woman kept on replying: "There is no doubt that you are a murderer; I know it."

After she had been quieted M. Noske declared that the government is determined to use the severest measures against those who attempt to disturb the safety of the republic.

Noske if the Spartacist and Independent Socialist members of Parliament were free from arrest for their political offenses. The minister replied:

"We have already ordered the arrest of persons who by overt acts have attempted to overthrow the government. Any person who is guilty of such actions is not safeguarded against arrest by being a member of this National Assembly."

ATTACK ON LORD FRENCH STIRS LONDON'S PAPERS

"Let There be Civil War in Ireland"
Says Morning Post—Other Comments.

London, Dec. 20.—"Let there be Civil War in Ireland for there is no alternative for the British government save surrender," said the Morning Post today.

The St. Paul's Irish nationalist in Ireland near Dublin yesterday. "Let the Sinn Fein leaders suffer the consequences."

"It is imperative that the government clear out the cursed gang of irreconcilables in Ireland," said the Daily Graphic.

The Times expresses the belief that the end of the Irish troubles is not yet in sight.

The Chronicle, which is generally regarded as the organ of Premier Lloyd George, does not express any surprise over the attack.

"The attempt to assassinate Lord French will not modify the Premier's forthcoming statement on Monday regarding the new Home Rule measure for Ireland," said the Manchester Guardian. The government is believed to be ready to enact a new Home Rule measure immediately if Ireland is ready for it and is prepared to consider it seriously."

Boston, Dec. 20.—Apparently convinced that War Time Prohibition will continue in effect until the dry era beginning January 16, Boston liquor interests, holding approximately $7,000,000 worth of "wet goods" in bonded warehouses are making efforts to export their stored goods and prevent heavy losses. Local federal officials said today. The first liquor laden steamship will leave here Monday for Mediterranean ports. Guards assigned to supervise shipments have been doubled. Shipping experts say it is doubtful if cargo space can be found for the Boston stored liquor offered for export.

The bill now goes to the President for his approval. Under the terms of the bill the Sugar Equalization Board is given the power to control and purchase sugar.

Committee Vote Along Party Lines—Republicans Will Try and Force Decision Before Christmas—Lodge Says Delay Will Be Necessary—Three Knox Proposals Now Before Committee—Compromise May Kill Them.

Washington, Dec. 20.—A new proposal for the establishment of peace was submitted today by Senator Knox, republican, of Pennsylvania to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, of which he is a member and adopted by a vote of 7 to 3.

The proposal was in the form of a resolution providing for the repeal of the resolution which declared a state of war to exist between the United States and Germany.

There was considerable discussion of the resolution by members of the committee which met in executive session. The meeting started at noon.

"Any violation of the prohibition contained in such proclamation by the President shall, be punishable as provided in Section 16 of the trading with the Enemy Act, Approved October 6, 1917.

"It is further resolved that the United States reaffirms the policy expressed in the Act of Congress approved August 19, 1917 in the following words:

"It is hereby declared to be the policy of the United States to adjust and settle its international disputes through mediation or arbitration to the end that war may be honorably avoided. It looks with apprehension and disfavor upon a general increase of armaments throughout the world to send representatives to a conference which shall be charged with the duty of formulating a plan for a court of arbitration or other tribunal to which disputed questions between nations shall be referred for adjudication and peaceful settlement and to consider the question of disarmament and submitted their recommendation to their respective governments for approval, is hereby renewed.

"And it is further resolved in the language of said Act, that the representatives of the United States in said conference shall be qualified for the mission by eminence in law and by devotion to the cause of peace, and said representatives shall be appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate."

Immediate Action Impossible. Senator Lodge announced subsequently that no immediate action on the new Knox proposal by the Senate was possible if Congress carried out its intention of taking a two weeks' recess over the holidays.

Unanimous consent would be required to call up the resolution today, Lodge pointed out, as the rules of the Senate require that any legislative measure reported by a committee must otherwise lie over one day.

The Vote. The vote on the Knox resolution was: Republican, for: Lodge, Mass.; Borah, Idaho; Brandegee, Conn.; Knox, Pennsylvania; Harding, Ohio; New, Indiana and Moses, New Hampshire.

Democrats, against: Hitchcock, Nebraska; Williams, Mississippi; Pomeroy, Ohio.

COMMUTERS MAKE PLEA FOR LOWER FARE BUT COMPANY IS SILENT

All Agree That Conn. Co. Needs More Revenue From Lines.

BUT URGE SPECIAL RATE FOR REGULAR PATRONS

Company's Attorney Makes No Attempt to Break Down Statements of Commuters.

The hearing of the Manchester protestants against the new trolley rates closed about four o'clock yesterday afternoon after the officers of the Manchester Commuters' association had been heard and E. L. G. Hohenthal had made a strong plea in their behalf. The Connecticut Company offered no evidence, reserving its witnesses until after all the other town hearings have been completed. Nothing was said yesterday to indicate what its line of defense would be. Its attorney, Mr. Berry, did not cross-examine the Manchester witnesses, contenting himself with putting two or three bland questions of no particular significance at the conclusion of the testimony of each witness.

Commission Chairman Higgins, however, indicated by repeated questions, that the commission had in mind the relief of trolley companies from taxation as the solution of the fare problems. Action of this nature would be beyond the power of the commission and could be taken only by the general assembly.

Favor 15 Cent Rate.
The representatives of the commuters all agreed that the Connecticut Company needed more money and said that if the commuters' rate had been advanced no more in proportion than the transient rate had been increased they would have made no objection. They were unanimous in declaring that if the trolley company would give them a 15 cent rate now charged by the jitneys they would be satisfied and would abandon the jitneys for the trolley cars.

After Attorney Burke had introduced a mass of documentary evidence from reports of street railway experts, testimony was heard from Isaiah Symington, president of the Commuters' association, Matthias Speiss, vice president, Andrew Ferguson, secretary and Miss Mary J. Thompson, treasurer.

Isaiah Symington Testifies.
Mr. Symington, who is temporarily employed at the Underwood factory, said that he knew of 600 to 700 commuters who were not now using the cars but were traveling to Hartford by trucks and buses. If their fare had been raised in proportion with that of the casual travelers they would have kept on with the trolley line. He objected strongly to the present system of collecting fares, saying that it was impossible for the commuters to reach their work on time because of the delay in unloading the crowded cars.

"Don't you think the company needs more money?" asked Chairman Higgins.
"Not from us!" retorted Mr. Symington.

The witness said that a round trip fare of 30 cents a day, with free transfer to the shops would be satisfactory. He said that the daily travelers had always had a commuters' rate and had established their homes with the understanding that the reduced rate would be permanent.

Mr. Speiss, a leaf tobacco merchant, had been a commuter for 15 years and owns a home in Manchester. "We are in favor of the trolley," he said, "and don't want to lose it, and we are against the jitney. We are not boycotting the trolley, but are riding in jitneys because 90 per cent of the commuters cannot afford to pay 44 cents a day carfare. Add to that 50 cents a day for lunch and that makes it cost about a dollar a day to work in Hartford." He had frowned on the proposition to buy trucks for the commuters.

Mr. Speiss told of some of the things the commuters had been forced to put up with, but he said they had not complained of the poor service because they knew they were getting a low fare. He was in favor of amending the laws to relieve the trolley companies from some of their burdens, provided the officers could be prevented from drawing large salaries.

Andrew Ferguson said that Manchester could not absorb all the commuters who now work in Hartford, and if the rate continued prohibitive many of them would have to move to or near Hartford. "Manchester is the best town in the state," he said, "and we want to stay there."

Miss Thompson, who works for Olds & Whipple, said she could not afford to pay the new rates. When she rides on the trolley now she spends 25 cents for her lunch instead of 40.

Mr. Hohenthal, who has been familiar with the trolley situation for some time, reviewed the attempts to get lower fares and to relieve the company from some of its burdens. He told of the growth of Manchester since the introduction of the trolley, and the rapid growth of trolley travel. Now the company is taking a course which will kill the goose that laid the golden egg.

A Correction.
In our report of the hearing yesterday an error appeared through the misunderstanding of a telephone message. Mr. Berry did not say that it would be impossible to give the revenue of the Manchester lines, apart from that of other lines. He said just the opposite—that it would be possible. This statement caused some stir as previous statements by representatives of the company had given the general impression that the accounts of the different systems could not be segregated.

RETURN OF RAILROADS WILL HIT PUBLIC PURSE

La Follette Says If Roads Go Back People Will Have to Pay Millions.

Washington, Dec. 20.—Return of the railroads to their private owners will cost the American public many billions of dollars each year, Senator La Follette, Republican, of Wisconsin, said today in opening the final debate on the Cummins Railroad Bill.

The question before the Senate was the La Follette Sub-Bill which prohibits the return of the roads to private ownership within two years. Senator La Follette said he had been informed "by the man operating the finance department of the Railroad Administration", that the rates will not be increased with the continuance of government control.

"This official looks for the next year to be the biggest normal year in tonnage and profits," Senator La Follette said.

FEDERAL MEN INSPECT MANCHESTER SALOONS

Investigate for Violations of Law—No Liquor May Be Displayed.

Four Federal inspectors were in Manchester this afternoon visiting all of the saloons here to determine whether the proprietors were violating the provisions of the Prohibition law. Their chief object was to learn if the saloon keepers were displaying any liquor in the vicinity of their bars. While it is permissible for intoxicants to be stored no supplies may be on the business floor.

As far as could be learned there were no violations here and the inspectors left town after warning the saloon proprietors that the law would be strictly enforced. In other cities several violations of the law were found but the saloon keepers were not prosecuted as the offense was the first.

The Mack auto-chemical for Hose Co. of the north end was delivered this afternoon and will be housed at the Carryle-Johnson shops until the new hose house is completed. The chemical is the latest model of fire fighting apparatus and was purchased at a cost of $5,500.

The following Manchester people have been selected to take the census in this town: Carl W. Noren, 23 Ridge street; George L. Fisk, 329 East Center street; Thomas F. Moriarty, 26 Hollister street; Mrs. Jessie M. Winterbottom, 34 Garden street; Mrs. Louise A. Murphy, 25 Middle Turnpike, east; Mrs. Mary C. Dannaber, 65 Ridgewood street; Elmore J. Ryan, 57 Ridge street.

STRUGGLING COBBLER MUST CLOSE HIS SHOP

Neighbors Complained Because He Pegged Far Into the Night.

PAYS RENT TOO LATE

West Side Shoe Repairman Refuses to Move and Landlord Brings Legal Action.

In a little shop on Walnut street, Frank Facinto, a shoemaker is still pegging shoes in spite of the efforts of his landlord to have him ejected. Antonio Lamenzo owns the building where Facinto has his shop and because Facinto did not pay his rent on the day specified Lamenzo ordered him to vacate. The cobbler refused to do so, the landlord had a writ of summary process served on him. The case was scheduled to come before Judge R. E. Carney yesterday. But because of a technicality it was necessary for new papers to be served. In the meantime Facinto is pegging away on piles of shoes.

Frank has a wife and three children. He has a good reputation in the community in which he lives and it is because he is obliging that he faces ejection from his present location. Frank leased the little store from Antonio Lamenzo on November 12th. It was agreed that Frank should pay the rent on or before the 12th day of each month. So Frank started in business and being an honest and conscientious worker his business increased.

It was Frank's contention that many people could not afford to buy a new pair of shoes because of the increased price and for this reason they were having their shoes re-soled. Shoes came piling in and in order that his patrons would not be forced to wait, Frank worked night and day. He charged a modest price for his labor, just enough to keep himself and his family comfortable. Residents in the vicinity said that at one time he worked night and day for a week with hardly any sleep.

But neighbors complained that Frank was making too much noise while he was working at night. He failed to pay this month's rent on the specified date and a notice to quit possession of the premises was served. But Frank would not get out. "I work hard night and day," said Frank, "to make a living for da keeds. Meester Lamenzo, he wanta me to get out. Eet is nota fair. My customer they can nota buy new shoe, so I worka hard to geta them fixeed. I spend a lotta money to buy da tools, nowa I loose everting. What I'm goin to do, My business go on da bum. It's a pretty hard."

Antonio Lamenzo has retained Attorney Raymond Johnson as counsel and Judge William S. Hyde is representing Facinto.

Circle Theater

The feature tonight will be "The Whip" the great melodrama which made so great a hit last night. This big film was shown here about a year ago and broke attendance records for three days. It was shown at fancy prices.

Acting Manager "Doc" Sullivan had received many requests to bring "The Whip" back. The big film was being brought to Boston from Waterbury and had two days' vacation. Mr. Sullivan heard of this and had it brought here for a special showing at popular prices. From here it goes to Boston for a week's run in a special return engagement.

There is hardly need to tell you about "The Whip". It is as famous as "The Birth of a Nation". It should be seen by everybody and hundreds will go tonight to see it again.

Park Theater

Big time vaudeville at the Park has certainly come to stay. It made a great hit last night and tonight will be shown again.

The feature will be "Dombey & Son."

Everyone is thoroughly familiar with the works of Charles Dickens. He is the most widely-read author today, as evidenced by the fact that at the present time more copies of Dickens' books are being printed than of any other writer. Because of his immense popularity, the announcement that one of the best known of his novels has been adapted to the silver-sheet will be greeted with enthusiasm.

In order that none of the environment and charm of "Dombey & Son" may be lost, the closest possible attention has been paid to even the most trivial details. A visit to the Park theater tonight will reveal to you that the quaint costume of "Cap'n" Cuttle; the marine instrument shop of Solomon Gillis, filled to overflowing with curious, old-fashioned chronometers, sextants and compasses; the coach-and-four of the wealthy Mr. Dombey; and even the fog which is a part of London are recreated and made real again in "Dombey & Son", to delight the old and young who will see and enjoy the screen presentation of one of our most famous authors.

Tomorrow night's feature will be "Riders of Vengeance" with Harry Carey playing the leading role.

WHAT DOES SENATOR KNOX OFFER US?

We again submit the Knox resolution—now advanced as a compromise measure in the Senate—for the consideration of our readers. It provides:

That the Senate of the United States unreservedly advises and consents to the ratification of the Treaty of Versailles insofar only as it provides for the creation of a status of peace between the United States and Germany.

Reference is now made to this incomprehensible resolution only because it is being used as camouflage by those who would slay the Covenant of Nations. The Knox resolution of today is nothing more or less than the Knox resolution, made early in the Treaty debate, to throw the League into the ditch. At that time it did not seem possible that the Senate could precipitate the present state of business uncertainty and political turmoil and the Knox proposal was given scant consideration. It was then regarded as an extreme to which we would never be driven.

It is certain that Senator Knox wants to do the League to death but what else he wants is a matter on which one man's guess is as good as another's.

Under his proposal we are to ratify the Treaty only so far as it provides for peace between ourselves and Germany. The Treaty of Versailles specifically mentions the United States five times and refers to the Monroe Doctrine once. It provided in the Covenant that nothing therein shall be deemed to affect the validity of—the Monroe Doctrine and the duty of calling the first meeting of the League is placed on the President of the United States. Article 227 of Part VII provides that the United States shall appoint one of the five judges to try the former German Kaiser for a supreme offense against international morality and the sanctity of treaties. It is further provided that this country shall nominate one delegate for the Reparation Commission, that whatever money Germany is obliged to pay in New York shall be paid in gold dollars of this nation and that the United States government shall convene the first meeting of the annual international labor conference at the city of Washington. That is the whole story so far as direct mention of the United States is concerned.

Of course, by implication we are involved in practically every Article. Wherever the words "Allied and Associated Governments" or "High Contracting Parties" are used the United States is included and, as the Herald stated last Monday it will be beyond the power of any court to tell that we have or have not ratified under the Knox resolution.

The only thing that is clear in Senator Knox's plan is that he would be rejecting everything in the Treaty which lifts it above the plane of former international agreements and everything which offers the world a hope of better things in the future. Last August, Senator Knox himself said that the Treaty forces a "hard and cruel peace" on Germany and that it is but the "harbinger of other and greater wars". But today he is fathering a plan which would make "other and greater wars" not only possible but inevitable. He is the author of a plan to wipe out those sections of the Treaty which represent the effort of free nations to get away from the war filled past and establish justice where we have had only the sword and the rifle.

But it is not necessary to contemplate the unhappy future which will follow the breakdown of the League idea among the nations. Out of the past there are voices urging us to stand fast against these men who would fling us back into that discredited era where might is right and a nation's greatness is measured by the number of its cannon.

Assume that we make peace on the basis proposed by the Pennsylvania Senator, that we ratify the treaty only insofar as it terminates the war between this country and Germany. What have we then to show for our sacrifices? What shall we then answer the child who reads of Chateau Thierry, and asks what it was all about? What shall we say it was we won in the Argonne or at St. Mihiel?

We ask the men and women of this community to search the Knox resolution for anything that will justify the sacrifices which they have made in the past two and a half years. The resolution is ambiguous and tricky and, even with the most liberal interpretation, what does it offer in return for the price we have already paid? This is "peace without victory" in its most hateful sense. It is a quitter's peace, it is a cowardly way to end a war so nobly fought. How many Liberty Bonds would Manchester have bought to win such a peace? How many men would Manchester have sent to die for such a result?

When Thomas Finnegun lay suffering his last hours on board the hospital ship Solace, when James Gorman, went out three days after Christmas, a year ago, when Emanuel Reymannder was shot to pieces, when John Cornell breathed his last, when Thomas Hickey fell and when all those others made the supreme sacrifice—then and there did we establish our right to a better peace than Senator Knox would offer, then and there did we incur the everlasting obligation to see to it that these men did not die in vain. We have already paid too much—too many dollars and too many men—for such a peace. We want peace and we must have peace in the near future but we ask a peace which will not be treason to the dead and treachery to those yet unborn.

SAYS SUN WILL GROW COLD IN 12,000,000 YEARS.

London, Dec. 20.—Professor John McCabe, of Australia, says the sun is due to get cold in 12,000,000 years. "Ouch!" says a London paper, "we're doomed. Let's fire the circulation manager."

"The trouble is that scientists are always right in their long distance prophecies," asserts the paper. "We are told that the world is getting colder every year, and in 4,572,030 years it will be quite chilly, though for quite a long time the average yearly temperature has been getting higher."

"Tell a man there are 270,169,324,011 stars in the heavens and he'll believe you. But let him see a notice 'Wet Paint' and he puts his finger on it to make sure."

FRAGONARD FOUND IN SALOON BACK ROOM.

Pittsburgh, Dec. 20.—The back room of Fritz Ueberle's North Side saloon may hold a fortune, which was purchased for a quart of whiskey five years ago in the form of a fourteen-foot art panel believed to be by Fragonard, for whose panels both Frick and Morgan paid large sums. Professor E. F. Savage, of the Carnegie Institute of Technology, has pronounced it the work of Fragonard, but has asked a number of his contemporaries also to pass judgment.

The tapestry formerly hung back of the bar in the Hotel Antler, which went out of business five years ago, Ueberle purchased the panel for a quart of whiskey from men razing the building.

RETURN OF "ENOCH ARDEN".

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 20.—"Enoch Arden" is home today—permanently. This time "Enoch Arden" is Richard Sorenson who enlisted early in the war and was later reported "killed in action." Mrs. Beulah Irene Sorenson his wife and the mother of 16-year old Allen Sorenson waited hopefully for the verification of her husband's death. It came in the form of letters from those who "saw him last." All hope apparently gone Mrs. Sorenson was married on June 17 1919 to G. C. Jackson. A few days ago a telegram reached her from New York and it was signed "Dick." The "killed in action" report was false. The two husbands left the choice to her. Her choice was "Dick" and she has started annulment proceedings against her "reigning" husband. The suit is an amicable one, it is understood.

VICTOR L. BERGER IS RE-ELECTED TO HOUSE BY NEARLY 5,000 VOTES

Socialist Leader May Find Door to Congress Again Barred.

REP. DALLINGER WILL AGAIN CHALLENGE HIM

Declares Re-election Does Not Change Fact That Berger Gave Aid and Comfort to Enemy.

Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 20.—Victor L. Berger, the Socialist congressman who was recently unseated for alleged violations of the espionage act, has been re-elected to Congress, receiving practically 5,000 more votes than his opponent Henry H. Bodenstab, Republican, running on a fusion ticket.

Berger's total vote was 24,367 and Bodenstab's 19,561. The returns indicate that approximately 9,000 voters did not go to the polls. The total registration in the district was about 53,000 voters.

Should the House again refuse to seat Berger the Fifth Wisconsin district will not be represented in Congress until after the regular election in 1920. Governor E. L. Philipp announced tonight.

"I do not believe in spending any more of the people's money in this way," he declared.

Berger's Statement. Mr. Berger made the following statement tonight.

"While my election may undoubtedly be characterized as nothing short of a revolutionary act: in view of opposition by the entire capitalist class, not only of Milwaukee yet Wisconsin, but of the country—yet it cannot exactly be called a victory of the Socialist party."

"The Socialist party simply took the lead and furnished the advance guard and foremost champions."

"As a matter of fact my re-election is simply the first sign of the re-awakening of genuine democracy in this country since the days of the struggle for the emancipation of the black race."

"I don't know whether the House will seat me and I care little, if only the continued fight for my seat will furnish the occasion to awaken the common people of the United States, especially the working class, to a realization of the great dangers before us and the immense duties that we must fulfill if modern civilization is to progress or even to survive."

"But as to the voters of the Fifth district I can only say: 'Well done. The eyes of the world are upon you. You have vindicated one of the basic principles of modern democracy—representative government.'"

Bodenstab's Statement. Mr. Bodenstab in a statement said:

"I am indeed grateful to my supporters. I put up the best fight I knew how for a worthy cause and I feel that the majority of the voters have been misled by a false propaganda. I am ready to continue in the fight to rid the community of these foreign agitators and Bolshevik adherents and I call upon the good loyal people of Milwaukee to remain steadfast in their faith, in their country and its institutions."

Washington, Dec. 20.—No move to depute for the second time the right of Victor L. Berger, re-elected to the House of Representatives to a seat is expected until he presents himself to be sworn in as a member, Representative Dallinger, Massachusetts, chairman of the elections committee, said tonight.

Will Object Again. "I shall then object as I did the previous time", Mr. Dallinger said. The House may take action on a resolution to deny Berger a seat without formality or referring the matter to the elections committee or re-opening hearings on the case again, Mr. Dallinger explained.

"The facts in the case", he said "are exactly the same as they were before and will ever be. Berger, the committee decided 'gave aid and comfort to the enemy' and anyone so judged is barred from membership in the House under provisions of the Constitution. His ineligibility is just as great as when he first presented himself. The House by a decisive vote supported the resolution of the committee denying him a seat and action will be taken if second time."

Unseated 311-1. The resolution denying Berger, a seat passed the House on November 10 by a vote of 311 to 1, Representative Voight, Republican, Wisconsin, voting in the negative.

This was the culmination of a series of hearings covering more than five months, and during which time all alleged violations of the espionage act attributed to Berger, his radical activities and his career as a socialist leader were reviewed. The testimony covered several thousand pages. During the hearings Berger, although not admitted to the floor of the House until he spoke in his own behalf, enjoyed all the other privileges of a member, drawing his salary, his clerk hire and having use of the franking privilege.

The committee report suggesting that Berger be denied his seat was unanimous. Representative Rodenberg, republican, Illinois, however, in a minority report, requested delay by the House until Berger's appeal from the court sentence of twenty years in Leavenworth prison was decided.

LUMBER PRICES TO SOAR DURING WINTER AND SPRING. Portland, Ore., Dec. 20.—Lumber prices will soar to unprecedented levels during the winter and spring, according to lumber company officials here. The president of one of the largest northwestern lumber concerns has just returned from a 30-day tour of the lumber lands and makes the announcement that the demand for Douglas fir and other woods from this section by eastern building and manufacturing industries will reach an enormous volume during the next year. He adds that an era of building is to emphasize next year's business activities. He says: Predictions that there will be a drop in the price of lumber as a result of increased production following the war have proved erroneous.

BOWERS HELPS ATLAS TO DEFEAT THE ACMES

Contributions Half of the Big End of the 25-17 Score—Richmond Also Does Good Work.

The Atlas A. C. basketball quintet opened its season at the Recreation Center last evening by defeating the Acme five of the north end by a score of 25 to 17. "Susie" Bowers, former Atlas star, and now of Loomis was an expert in the game and contributed half of the Atlas score with seven double counters. Richmond of the Atlas also played a steady game at guard Paisley and D. St. John starred for the Acmes. The summary:

SENIORS LOSE TITLE WITHOUT A STRUGGLE

"Stiff Practice Game, That Was All" Juniors Say—Now Champs of High School.

The Juniors defeated the Seniors for the interclass championship of the school yesterday afternoon on the "Rec" floor. One would never have guessed that these two teams were tied for first place. The game that the Juniors played was worthy of praise but the work of the Seniors would have shamed a team holding a cellar position.

Seniors Start Well. In the first half the Seniors started like a whirlwind and had five points before the Juniors realized what they were up against. But this did not last long for the Seniors "blew". At the end of the half the score was 5-5.

Juniors Finish Better. In the second half the Juniors began playing and the Seniors, much to their discomfort, found themselves giving the Juniors good practice.

The Junior forwards and "Curley" Gustavson were the cause of the Seniors' downfall, for their playing was brilliant throughout the whole game. To "Sher" Robb the light Senior forward goes the credit of making more than half the Senior points. His playing during the whole game was snappy and it was through no fault of his that the Seniors were defeated.

The summary:

Juniors 29	Seniors 11
Dougherty	Turkington
L. F.	L. F.
Waddell	Robb
R. F.	R. F.
Gustavson	McKinnon
C.	C.
Walleit	Doellner, Swanson
L. G.	L. G.
McComb	Ringrose
R. G.	R. G.

Field goals: Dougherty 3, Waddell 6, Gustavson 2, Robb 3, McKinnon 1, Ringrose 1; foul goals: Turkington 1, Dougherty 1, Gustavson 4, Walleit 2.

VELVET WORKERS ADD $125 TO WIDOW'S FUND

Gifts Come in From Manchester's Open-Heart and Purse.

GRATITUDE FILLS MOTHER

Offerings of Money and Clothes Come to R. K. Anderson to Be Delivered to Family.

A gift of $125 collected in the Velvet Department of Cheney Brothers for the widowed Mrs. Mzkioneck and her seven children was announced this morning. This amount with the other money that Manchester people have contributed voluntarily and out of the generosity of their hearts brings the total to almost two hundred dollars.

Nor is money the only thing that has been sent to the unfortunate family. R. K. Anderson who has volunteered to deliver the gifts has received a quantity of clothing for the children. One Manchester person went to the house and searched the rooms for shoes. A few pairs were found but these had been worn until they could be worn no longer. So this person took those shoes to the cobbler and today the children will have a thick piece of leather between themselves and the cold ground.

The fully equipped kitchen range, a gift of Watkins Brothers will be delivered today. Mr. Anderson said that the expression of gratitude, the face of Mrs. Mzkioneck, when he last saw her, repays him for all his efforts. One Manchester woman sent a dollar to the Herald today with the request that it be given to the family in the hope that they may get enough to have a glad Christmas.

The following contributions have been received:

ABOUT TOWN

A marriage license has been issued at the Hall of Records to Richard Grimley and Miss Mary Maxwell.

Dr. Harry R. Sharpe, who has been suffering from blood poison in the hand, is now able to attend to his duties.

Because of the holidays, the bowling meet of the Army and Navy club, scheduled for next week has been postponed.

There will be an important meeting of the Board of Governors and By-Law committee of the Y. D. club at the Army and Navy building, tomorrow morning at 10.30 o'clock.

Religious services, to be conducted by the Rev. J. S. Neill, pastor of St. Mary's church, will be held in the Porter street school house at Highland Park tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock.

Preparations are being made at the south end postoffice for the holiday rush. Two additional men have been added to the parcel post delivery, there will be three more carriers on the city routes and two more clerks in the office. Local people are requested to see that all packages for mailing are securely wrapped and tied. The address should be legible and correct.

The schools of the Ninth district will close for the Christmas recess on Tuesday afternoon. The pupils will enjoy a week's vacation.

A Leap Year dance will be held by the Ladies' Auxiliary in Cheney hall on Thursday evening, January 8th. Music will be furnished by the Victor orchestra.

Miss Mary Quinn, a student at Simmons College, Boston, arrived in town yesterday to spend the holidays at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Quinn of Park street.

The Ellison Construction Company which is erecting the addition to the House & Hale building has contracted for an extensive construction job in Danvers, R. I. The deal will include the construction of 100 new houses.

From all appearances, the nine o'clock schedule adopted by the merchants of the town for the holiday season proved to be a success. All of the stores were well patronized last evening. The cold weather of the past few days, however, put a damper on Christmas shopping.

Miss Irene Crockett, whose home is on Bigelow street, has just been elected secretary of the Student Government Association, at the Women's College in Brown University. Miss Crockett is a member of the class of 1922 at the college and is living at Metcalf Hall, the new dormitory opened there this fall.

The public appearance of a bottle of gin created a sensation on Manchester's Main street last evening. A gang of out-of-town "cut-ups" stood in front of the Orford hotel building last evening and proceeded to make short work of the contents of a bottle in full view of pedestrians. The visitors then publicly expressed their opinion of a hick town and the gin started working in an amazingly short period. The appearance of Captain of Police, William R. Campbell wrought a miraculous change in the visitors and after listening to a little friendly advice from the captain, they departed.

Getting Nearer to Santa Claus

Tonight and Three More Days Left

Let Hale's Help You These Last Few Days

Try Hale's Everybody is Doing It

We are devoting over 3,000 square feet of space to toys alone this year. Santa Claus is still receiving letters. Kind hearted people in town are sending in gifts of money for him to use in connection with the Chamber of Commerce committee.

The spirit of Christmas is bound to fill every fibre of your body the minute you enter the store.

Come and enjoy it yourself. Only three days left.
