WOMAN LEADER OF THE SINN FEIN TALKS ABOUT THE IRISH REPUBLIC

Countess Markiewicz, First Woman Elected to British House of Commons Grants an Exclusive Interview.

(Copyright, 1919, by the I. N. S.)
Dublin, Dec. 30.—"If England has wisdom she will see that the only way to make lasting peace in Ireland that will give her an ally instead of an enemy on her western flank, is to withdraw her armies and recognize the Irish Republic. If on the contrary, she continues her present policy of force and fraud we shall succeed in spite of her."

Sinn Fein Leader Talks.
This declaration was made today by Countess Markiewicz one of the chief leaders of the Sinn Fein and the first woman elected to the British House of Commons. It was through the refusal of the Countess to take her seat that the honor of being the first woman to sit in Parliament fell to Viscountess Astor.

Countess Swears Falsely.
"My reason for refusing to take my seat after being the first woman elected to Parliament is a simple one. First and foremost I would never take a false oath nor swear fealty to the Crown that tyrannizes over my country and against which every moral and physical force in my whole being is in rebellion and warfare."

"If you ask me why I do not go and refuse to take oath it is because I would consider that course absolutely futile; neither I nor my colleagues nor the people whom I represent have considered such a course worth a moment's consideration. It would not lead to anything except absence from my country where we are all wanted and where there is so much to be done."

"At the last general election—one year ago this month—the people of St. Patrick's Division of Dublin decided in unison with the majority of the people of Ireland. That they would no longer send a representative to a foreign Parliament to assist the enemy in governing Ireland, I was unable to give promises or to make pledges being imprisoned in an English jail at the time. An enormous majority honored me with their votes knowing that was absolutely in accord with their ideals and aspirations and believing me to be one of the crowd that was not afraid to stand openly for the Irish Republic in an assembly in Ireland no matter what the cost."

A Proud Moment.
"I felt proud of their faith in men and prouder still the day I took my seat in Dail Eireann (the Sinn Fein Parliament) as the one woman elected to the first Parliament of the Irish Republic by the people of Ireland."

"The members of the Irish Parliament following their most sacred aspirations and in obedience to the will of the people of Ireland are now endeavoring to establish the Irish Republic on a firm and solid basis by every means in their power. They are setting about this in the following way:

"1. By establishing the necessary machinery by which a country is governed and through which the functions nationally and internationally operate.

"2. Raising the Republic loan

DRASTIC PUNISHMENT FOR FOOD PROFITEERS

Brandt Bill Provides Jail Sentences of From One to Twenty Years.

PUTS TEETH IN THE LAW

Judge and Jury to Decide All Complaints Made Against Dealers in Food and Fuel.

Washington, Dec. 30.—Drastic criminal punishment for fraudulent dealers in foodstuffs and fuels and sweeping enlargement of punishable acts as constituting frauds, is embodied in legislation to be taken up for consideration by the House Judiciary Committee early next month, it was announced today.

Brandt Author of Bill.
The bill carrying the proposed legislation was introduced by Representative Charles H. Brandt of Georgia, in the closing hours of the House before the Christmas holidays. It provides penal servitude from one to twenty years in a penitentiary, with no alternative of a fine, for any one of these acts which are declared to be fraudulent and unlawful.

Sales or purchases of foodstuffs for human or animal consumption and of fuel that are not intended to be actually delivered by the seller or received by the buyer.

Quotation of prices on, or proposals to enter into a contract for the purchase or sale of future delivery of such foodstuffs or fuel without intending that there shall be actual delivery or receipt.

No Hoarding Allowed.
Purchase of foodstuffs or fuel with intent to store and hold in order to increase the price for the purpose of receiving unreasonable or excessive profits.

Publication with knowledge of false and misleading market quotations.

No Price Boosting.
All agreements, contracts, or promises, written or otherwise to hoard and control foodstuffs and fuel with intent to limit supply or to unreasonably enhance the price.

All agreements and contracts, written or otherwise, to increase the price of foodstuffs and fuel, whether stored or hoarded, with intent to receive for the sale thereof excessive profits.

The provisions of the bill are made applicable to all persons engaged in and to all transactions contracted with interstate commerce but shall not apply to persons producing foodstuffs by cultivation of lands.

A Jury to Decide.
A jury shall determine the question as to what are expressive or unreasonably profits upon the facts submitted and under proper instructions by the presiding judge.

Refusals by dealers or any person regularly engaged in the business of selling foodstuffs and fuel to sell at reasonable and market prices, when the offer to purchase is made in good faith and they have the stock, shall be evidence against such dealer or a fraudulent intent to increase the price for the purpose of selling at unreasonable and excessive figures this evidence shall not be conclusive proof of guilt and the ac-

In Our Town

SOAK WELL, THEN RUB.
"Brother Harry M. Burke." The name was called out by Santa Claus Hutchinson at the annual Christmas tree entertainment of Campbell Council, K. of C. held in Foresters' Hall last evening. In his hand Santa Claus held a package. It was a present for Mr. Burke. Stepping toward the tree Mr. Burke received his present. To it was attached a card which read:

I'm fighting the company who raised the car fares, For they think a commuter's a dub I may not be able to make them come down But I surely will give them a rub. Brother Burke opened the package before the members of the council. It contained a wash board.

COLLECTIVE BARGAINING LABOR TROUBLE REMEDY

Expert Finds Little Hope of Success in Numerous Plans Now Being Tried Out.

Washington, Dec. 30.—"A speedy readjustment, political and industrial, of the nation's affairs is necessary to end the present turmoil, Dr. Royal Meeker of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, Department of Labor declared. The present evils, he said are not to be cured by retracing our steps, but by advancing further along new lines. Dr. Meeker finds little hope of success among most of the large number of systems in this country which he has studied "since they offer little or real responsibility to the workers."

The Workers' Plans.
The workers, he finds, want more of a share in the management of their industries as well as a larger share of the profits. To the present system of depending on machinery for big production and less on the ingenuity and ability of the men themselves. Dr. Meeker ascribes much of the present discontent.

Among remedies suggested, Dr. Meeker advocates the principle of collective bargaining. The war having failed to develop fully some plan for industrial peace, he expressed the hope "that the terrors of peace will be as potent as the horrors of war in compelling the Bolsheviks of the right and of the left to come together on a reasonable compromise."

COL. HOUSE HAS BROKEN WITH WILSON, IS REPORT

New York American Says the Colonel Will Oppose President for a Third Term.

New York, Dec. 30.—The New York American today printed the following:

"Col. Edward M. House has definitely broken with President Woodrow Wilson.

"He will refuse to support the President for a third term. He will oppose the nomination of William G. McAdoo, A. Mitchell Palmer or any other democrat the President may seek to install as his successor.

"The Colonel is disposed at present to back Oscar W. Underwood or a conservative democrat of his type for Wilson's place.

"The former Wilson mentor is secretly doing his utmost to make Underwood instead of Gilbert M. Hitchcock the democratic leader of the United States Senate.

"The foregoing information is vouched for by a political leader of unquestioned veracity, who talked with Colonel House yesterday."

VERMILY'S FIANCEE OF LOCAL PARENTAGE

George L. Keeney, Druggist, Her Father, Talcottville Woman Her Mother.

NO TEARS WERE SHED

Father of Disappointed Girl Thankful Now That Groom Did Not Come to His Christmas Wedding.

It now appears that Miss Ruth M. Keeney of Monson, Mass., whose love affair with Dr. William Grey Vermilye of Brooklyn has occupied a prominent place in the papers the last few days, is the daughter of a former Manchester man. Her father, George L. Keeney, was the son of Lewis Keeney of Vernon and came to Manchester when a young man to learn the drug business in the drug department of the Cheney store. He remained here several years and finally moved to Monson to enter business for himself. Before his removal he married Miss Mabel Hawley, daughter of Rev. John P. Hawley, then pastor of the Talcottville church. That was back in the late seventies.

Their daughter Ruth M. Keeney professor of Spanish at Bucknell university, was engaged to be married to Dr. Vermilye, a surgeon in the navy and many years her senior. The ceremony was to have taken place in the Methodist church at Monson, Christmas day, but the bridegroom failed to appear at the appointed hour and after holding the wedding guests for half an hour the clergyman dismissed them. Newspaper reports now say that Dr. Vermilye has a wife to whom he has been married for 20 years. Mr. Keeney is quoted as saying that he and his daughter felt that they were well rid of the whole matter, and very thankful that it went no further.

GERMAN NAVY ESCAPED BECAUSE OF A SLIP UP

Delay in Transmitting Message Save Teuton Fleet From Destruction.

London, Dec. 30.—The British government's official account of the battle of Jutland, the biggest naval engagement of the war which is to be published in January, will show that a slip up in transmitting a message from Admiral Beatty to Admiral Lord Jellicoe, then in command of the Grand Fleet enabled the Germans to escape, it was learned today.

"Follow me, sir, and we have them cold!"—Beatty's famous message to his chief—did not reach Jellicoe until 12 hours after it had been written. And then the Germans had escaped.

The official book on the Jutland operations does not explain just why this slip up did not reach Jellicoe promptly. The book however, will endeavor to show that the indecisive character of the battle was largely due to the difficulty of inter-communication between the various squadrons and ships. Shell fire and exploding played havoc with the wireless and signal apparatus, and in more than one case vital news could not be transmitted to Jellicoe's flag.

ANOTHER LOAN TO ITALY.

Washington, Dec. 30.—An additional credit of $416,114 has been advanced to Italy by the United States. The Treasury Department announced today. This makes the total loan to Italy $1,621,338,986.99 and the total loans to the Allies $9,647,834,649.94.

BOSTON IS MYSTIFIED OVER DOUBLE TRAGEDY IN AN OFFICE BUILDING

Pretty Manicurist Dead and Young Man is Fatally Wounded.

WITNESS SAW STRANGER WALKING NEAR SCENE

Girl Who Was Killed Was Friend of Manicurist Shot by Irving Olmstead in 1916—Police Investigating.

Boston, Dec. 30.—Miss Daisy Rogers, a pretty manicurist, was shot and killed in her manicuring establishment in a Tremont street office building today. Outside the door in the hall way the unconscious body of Francis Caverly, a young business man was found probably fatally wounded.

Cases Shrouded in Mystery.
The shooting was shrouded in mystery, as Caverly was removed to the Haymarket Square Relief Station in an unconscious condition and the police were unable to identify any witnesses, except a few officers who heard the shots and rushed into the hall declared they saw a young man walking rapidly away from the room where the tragedy occurred. A bullet hole was found in the glass door six feet from the floor. Caverly was considerably under this height according to the police.

The Mooers Shooting.
The affair took place next door to the scene of the murder of Violet C. Mooers, also a manicurist, who was shot and killed in March, 1916, by Irving E. Olmstead of Newton.

According to tenants of the building Miss Rogers was a partner in the manicuring establishment with a Miss Haines.

But little could be learned regarding Miss Rogers. She was also known as Dorothy McCloud. She was a Canadian who had lived in the United States for some years. Miss Haines, her partner, could not be located.

Was Mrs. Mooers' Partner.
Miss Haines is believed to be the Miss Edith M. Haines who was the partner of Mrs. Mooers and who was present when the latter was shot by Olmstead. This shooting occurred following a violent altercation between Olmstead, who was married and the father of a family, and the manicurist.

Miss Rogers was alone in the office early this forenoon and shortly before ten o'clock was visited by Caverly who is said to be a married man with children. It was also stated that Caverly and Miss Rogers had been friendly for some time. Shortly after ten o'clock the reports of two shots were heard by other tenants who rushed into the hall. Victor Losch, of East Boston, was one of the first to reach the hall.

"I saw a young man walking rapidly away from Room 301," he said. "I was so excited that I did not stop to get a good look at him. Then I saw Caverly lying on the floor of the hall outside Miss Rogers' door. We rushed up to him but he was unconscious. There was a bullet hole in his head.

About half a hour later some one thought to go into the manicuring rooms. Miss Rogers' door was leaning against the door. She was dead. She had been shot through the head, the bullet going just in front of one ear. The pistol which apparently was used, was a .32 calibre, which was found lying beside Caverly in the hall. There were two empty chambers.

Five Men Spirited Across State Line to Massachusetts to Answer Charges of Homicide as Result of Deaths in Chicopee —New Haven Court Officials Want Men to be Brought Back to This State to Stand Trial.

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 30.—That a determined effort will be made to press the Habeas Corpus proceedings begun last night in behalf of Dominick Peratta, one of the five men spirited across the state line by federal officers and placed in charge of the Massachusetts officials to answer charges of homicide as a result of the death of one of the victims of wood alcohol poisoning in Chicopee Falls, was evident today when a hearing on the writ issued last night by Judge E. C. Simpson of the Court of Common Pleas came up before Judge Simpson this forenoon.

According to R. J. Woodruff, counsel for Peratta, the writ was served last night at 7 o'clock on Coroner Eli Mix of this city.

Hearing Tomorrow.
State's Attorney Aaron N. Alling appeared at the hearing this morning representing Coroner Mix and Chief Smith. He entered a demurrer to the Habeas Corpus writ attacking its legal form. The demurrer was promptly overruled by Judge Simpson who set a hearing on the merits of the petition for tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Writ by Defendant.
The writ was issued by the Coroner and the Chief of Police will be as to the release of the prisoners from custody after the service of the writ of Habeas Corpus will only be revealed at tomorrow's hearing. If Judge Simpson upholds the writ, it is claimed by counsel for Peratta the Coroner and Chief will be obliged to show cause why they did not produce the prisoner in court today.

Attorney Woodruff left today for Chicopee, Mass., to defend his client.

Prisoners Ready to Go.
United States Marshal William R. Palmer of this city today denied that the five prisoners taken to Massachusetts by officers of the state last night were even in federal custody. He denied also that he or his deputy accompanied the prisoners. According to the Marshal, the federal warrants for the prisoners were never served. When the five men were taken from their cells at police headquarters the Marshal and his deputy were present. He was introduced to the prisoners and the Massachusetts officers, according to the Marshal, asked the prisoners if they were willing to go to Massachusetts. They acquiesced and were whisked away.

A Clever Coup.
It was stated here today that there was grave doubt about the ability to extradite the men, owing to the fact that they had never been in Massachusetts and had not actually committed a crime there. In order to gain possession of them the "coup" was arranged by which the Massachusetts officials obtained the prisoners following their release from local custody, thus evading any troublesome legal technicalities.

Need More Deputies.
New Haven, Conn., Dec. 30.—United States Marshal William R. Palmer today telegraphed Attorney General Palmer asking authority to appoint a number of special Deputy United States Marshals which he claims are needed to assist in the roundup of violators of the revenue laws as a result of the exposure of the "poison whiskey" sales.

MALE TEACHERS FORM LEAGUE.

Pittsburgh, Dec. 29.—At last, the School Man's League to prevent the encroachment of women in this field.

Nearly 300 male teachers formed the organization here. One of the means proposed as a method of stopping the "feminization" of the school system is a general increase in salaries which shall keep the teachers from "tumbling into debt for the necessities of life."

An official statement said that the 300 men "propose to stand with a bold front for such change in the educational policy of the city schools as will insure well-balanced influence of both men and women teachers."

sets authorities may join with the Connecticut officials in the extradition and prosecution of the men on account of the deaths at Springfield and Chicopee.

MORE ARRESTS MADE.
New Haven, Conn., Dec. 30.—Several arrests of saloon-keepers were made by the local police today, all the accused being held for Coroner Eli Mix as suspects in his investigation of local deaths attributed to wood alcohol poisoning. The Coroner has a number of cases under investigation.

Two men in Meriden and two in Southington were taken into custody by federal officers it was stated here today on charges of selling wood alcohol for beverage purposes. The federal officials now have a dozen men in custody or under bonds and more arrests are expected as a result of their efforts.

SALOONKEEPER HELD.
Hartford, Conn., Dec. 30.—Leonard Montano of Thompsonville was today brought before United States Commissioner F. J. Corbett in this city on a federal charge of violating the War Time Prohibition Act. At the request of Assistant District Attorney George H. Cohen bail was fixed at $5,000 and a hearing set for January 7. Montano was yesterday released on bail of $1,000 in Enfield town court where he is charged with illegal liquor selling.

Springfield, Mass., Dec. 30.—The five defendants in the wood alcohol cases, were held without bail on charges of murder and the cases were postponed to January 3 for further hearing.

After the arraignment the defendants were taken to Springfield and lodged in the Hampden County jail. They pleaded not guilty to the charge against them. Their cases will eventually come before the Grand Jury, where District Attorney Joseph B. Fly will seek indictments for murder in the first degree.

The formal complaint in each case specifically charged the administering of a deadly poison which caused the death of Michael Bednarz one of Chicopee's 45 victims of wood alcohol whiskey dispensed on Christmas day. The prisoners are accused of manufacturing and selling the whiskey which was procured by Chicopee dealers who, in turn, are being prosecuted for manslaughter.

CAMP DEVENS HAS PINK TEAS AND DANCING.

Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass., Dec. 30.—Pink teas make for the morale of the army, according to army officers here. Officers of the Thirty-sixth Infantry at this camp have instituted teas and dances every Tuesday afternoon. These have done more for the morale of the men than any other means. They are held at the officers' club house once a month. Brigadier General and Mrs. Harry P. McCain have encouraged these simple festivities, which have taken well with the men.

LOCAL JEWS ORGANIZE INTO ZIONIST ORDER

Must Procure Ten More Members to Receive a Charter.

J. LAUFER IS PRESIDENT

Purpose of the Organization is to Rebuild the Holy Land As a Home For the Jewish People.

At the annual Chanukah celebration of the Jewish people of Manchester, held in Tinker Hall on Sunday evening, a local branch of the Zionists Organization of America was established. Officers were elected and 40 members enrolled. It is necessary, however, for the local society to procure 50 members, before a request for a charter can be granted. Officials of the society say that the ten additional memberships will be procured before the end of the week.

To Rebuild the Holy Land.

The Zionists Organization of America has been long established and has an international reputation. Its work in Palestine has created much favorable comment and the object of the organization is to build up the Holy city as a home for the Jewish people of the world. One of the most prominent leaders of the organization is Chief Justice Brandeis of the United States Supreme court at Washington, D. C. Many of America's most prominent Jewish business men are also executives.

In addition to the election of officers and a general discussion as to the future welfare of the new organization, a program was given by the local Jewish people in connection with the celebration of Chanukah. Attorney Slonin of Hartford, who recently arrived from France spoke on: "The problem of Judaism, and How to Solve It." Mr. Samuel C. Kone, prominent Zionist and orator had for his subject: "Organization and the Part it has played, even in Modern Times."

Three Branches. The local organization is composed of three branches; The Zionists, which is composed of men and women and young people of eighteen years or over; The Hadassah, a circle composed entirely of women whose mission is to gather in supplies for the troops in Palestine, and the Judea, for children under eighteen years of age. Following are the temporary officers of the new organization:

The Officers. President, Jacob Laufer; vice president, Morris Elman; secretary, Mrs. Yetta Kurh; treasurer, Mrs. Morris Pasternach. Executive committee, Miss Esther Horowitz, Miss Pauline Horowitz, Mrs. Jacob Selwitz, Mrs. James Goldman, Mrs. Yetta Kurh, Miss Sylvia Elman, Miss Bessie Horowitz. Hadassah branch: Mrs. James Goldman, president; Mrs. Morris Pasternach, treasurer; Mrs. Yetta Kurh, secretary. Judea branch: Chairman, Miss Esther Horowitz. Executive committee: Miss Sylvia Elman, Miss Bessie Horowitz.

"CAMP VAMP" IS FOUND; BROWN'S WIDOW IS HELD

Detectives Are Told Story by Mrs. Vestor Which Implicates Mrs. Brown.

Mount Clemens, Mich., Dec. 30.—Located through the efforts of reporters of the Chicago Herald and Examiner, Mrs. Cecil Vestor, also known as the "Camp Vamp," "Bee of the Auburn Hair" and by other aliases, was surrendered to Chief of Police L. Straight here today. Following a remarkable story told by the girl in which she denied any part in the death of Brown, found shot to death in his automobile near "Dead Man's Hill" Chief Straight announced that he has evidence now upon which he will seek a warrant today formally placing a charge of murder against Brown's widow, once in custody and released.

300,000 EVICTION CASES.

New York, Dec. 30.—According to figures being compiled by the clerks of the municipal courts of New York the year now drawing to a close will establish a new record in the number of landlord and tenant actions filed. While the complete figures are not all in, it is safe to say that 300,000 eviction cases were filed during the year.

REBEKAHS CELEBRATE THEIR 25TH BIRTHDAY

Guests Come From Many Outside Lodges—Prominent Officials Give Short Talks.

More than 250 guests were in attendance at the twenty-fifth anniversary celebration of Sunset Rebekah lodge held in Od Fellows hall last evening. Aside from the members of the local lodges, guests were present from Hartford, East Hartford, Rockville, Norwich, New Haven, Bristol, Torrington and Forestville. The hall was prettily decorated in Christmas evergreen and pine and a special stage was constructed for the Bell City quartet of Bristol which was the attraction of the evening.

William S. Hutchison, grand secretary of the Grand Lodge and a charter member of the local lodge gave a reminiscent talk on the early activities of the Odd Fellows. There were short talks by other prominent officials. A pleasing program was rendered by the Bell City quartet of which Dr. Moore, a brother of Dr. D. C. Y. Moore, is a member. Mrs. Hattie J. Fisher of New Haven, president of the Rebekah State Assembly was presented with a mayonnaise dressing set by Sunset Rebekah lodge. The presentation speech was made by Mrs. Etta M. Loveland, Noble Grand of the local Rebekahs.

Prominent among the guests present last evening were the five elective officers of the Rebekah State Assembly who are President, Mrs. Hattie J. Fisher of New Haven; vice president, Mrs. Grace E. Willey of Norwich, warden, Mrs. Ellen T. W. Hutchison of New Haven; secretary, Mrs. Mary E. Johnson of Torrington; treasurer, Mrs. Cora B. M. Douglass of Forestville; also Charles R. Hathaway, Grand Marshall of the Grand Lodge; Mrs. Carrie T. Mara, fight supporter to the warden; Miss Irene Burdick, district deputy president. Refreshments were served.

SIX HUNTERS CLAIM SAME DEER.

Bellefonte, Dec. 30.—The courts may have to decide how division should be made of a deer. The animal was brought down by a party of hunters near here, and after it was found that there were six bullets in the body it developed that the six hunters had fired simultaneously. Each one believes that he shot the first and is entitled to the head and hide, as decreed by custom.

OVERCOME BY CAMPHOR FUMES

Watertown, N. Y., Dec. 29.—Camphor fumes, which drove out the firemen, nearly cost the lives of 12 persons when fire broke out in the Metropolitan Chain Stores Company today. ## WILSON SOON TO NAME SECRETARY OF INTERIOR

President to Also Appoint Man to Take the Place of Sec. Glass.

Washington, Dec. 30.—A new Secretary of the Interior may be named by President Wilson shortly, it was learned at the White House today.

Secretary Franklin K. Lane has expressed a desire that he may be allowed to resign at the convenience of the President.

The President now has a man in mind to fill the place, it was stated at the White House and Secretary Lane may be permitted to resign. It is possible that the appointment will be made at the same time as the appointment of a new Secretary of the Treasury to succeed Secretary Glass who has been appointed to the Senate by the Governor of Virginia.

ARMY-NAVY TO OPPOSE OLD BASKET BALL VETS

Ahearn, Carlson and McConochie on the Middletown Lineup—A Rival of the Old G Team.

The crack Middletown basketball quintet champions of Connecticut, will oppose the Army and Navy basketball five at the Recreation Center on Friday evening. The College city team is well known in Manchester having been the "G" team's greatest rival in the state league a few years ago.

That the Army and Navy team will have to extend itself to come out at the big end of the game is indicated by the fact that Ahearn, Carlson and McConochie, members of the Middletown trio which defeated the Buffalo Germans, are still with the team. Other members are: Schultz, Wilkinson, Spear, Hill and Anes.

The game will be played in the gymnasium beginning at 8.30 o'clock. Dancing will be enjoyed at the Army and Navy club afterwards. There will also be a preliminary game. It is expected that "Rabbit" Finnegan will referee.

ADVOCATE GYM CLASS FOR NORTH END MEN

John Chartier Backs Plan to Start Athletic Work and to Form Classes For Boxing Instruction.

An effort will be made to start a gymnastic class in the north end this winter. John Chartier, an old time boxer is behind the plan. He has called for a meeting Thursday night in the rooms of the Mayor A. C. in the Brown building.

At Thursday evening's meeting an attempt will be made to form a boxing class for one or two nights a week. It is hoped to get the business and professional men of the section interested. A boxing instructor, one of the best in New England, has already been approached and says he will come to Manchester if a large enough class can be formed to pay him for his trips here.

The larger the class the less the dues will be so it is hoped by those backing the scheme, that there will be a large attendance on Thursday evening. Everybody is invited.

"But before and above all else we seek the withdrawal of the British Army of Occupation and the recognition of the Irish republic.

"We rejoice in the good will and co-operation of the Irish people under the most cruel and ceaseless provocation and persecution. They are showing self-control and forbearance unparalleled in history. With its usual consistent hypocrisy the British Government is inspiring newspaper representatives that suggest a "liberal measures of Home Rule" while daily the chains are being riveted tighter. The Education Bill, an absolute denial of the rights of Irish parents to a voice in the education of their children, is proof of this. All Ireland is behind the bishops in their condemnation of it. This is surely a curious Bill to be put forward at the time when Premier Lloyd-George is devising a scheme for the self government of Ireland."

Washington, Dec. 30.—Normal Hapgood, former Minister to Denmark, resigned and requested President Wilson that his resignation be accepted immediately in order that he might reply to charges that he had been in negotiation with representatives of the Soviet Government in Russia. This was learned at the White House today.

It was stated at the White House that Hapgood's resignation had been immediately accepted.

GRANDMOTHER USED MUSTARD BLISTERS TO RELIEVE CONGESTED CONDITIONS.

Grandmother also walked to town if she wished to do any shopping. Do you wish to return to Grandmother's times or take an elevated car? This comparison is brought before you for the simple purpose of illustrating why people of today that are up-to-date use MINTOL in preference to using mustard plasters and smelly mustard creams.

For colds in the head, catarrh, grip, bronchitis or pneumonia simply apply a hot, wet towel to the throat and lungs for five minutes then apply MINTOL rubbing thoroughly in for five minutes and cover the parts with a hot dry bandage so arranged as to allow the vapors arising from the MINTOL to be inhaled. This treatment will be found as much an improvement over the old-fashioned mustard blisters and crears as the elevated is over walking.

NOTICE—MINTOL is the latest scientific discovery for the treatment of all congested conditions such as colds in Spanish Influenza, Grip Pneumonia and Bronchial affections. It kills the influenza and Grip germ and acts as an antiseptic in healing inflamed throat or nostrils. For hoarseness, a little of the MINTOL applied to the back of the tongue will give instant relief, 80c, 50c and 25c a jar. If your druggist cannot supply you we will send you a jar on receipt of price. The Home Relief Laboratories, Boston, Mass. For sale by J. H. Quinn & Co.

But we can't continue increasing our production unless we continue increasing our railroad facilities.

The farms, mines and factories cannot increase their output beyond the capacity of the railroads to haul their products.

Railroads are now near the peak of their carrying capacity.

Without railroad expansion—more engines, more cars, more tracks, more terminals—there can be little increase in production.

But this country of ours is going to keep right on growing—and the railroads must grow with it.

To command in the investment the flow of new capital to expand railroads facilities—and so increase production—there must be public confidence in the future earning power of railroads.

The nation's business can only grow as fast as the railroads grow.

A TEST OF CITIZENSHIP.

One of the truest indications of progress is to be found in the increasing acceptance of the fact that sickness and disease are sure indications of ignorance. Modern physicians have performed a work of social education almost as great as their direct service in restoring men and women to health. One of the fine things about the doctor of today is that he seems anxious to knock the mystery out of medicine. If you are sick he usually makes no bones about telling you that you have been a fool in one way or another. Every sick man is a self convicted sinner against the laws of health. Nature has its own come-back and there is no more mystery about it than there is about what happened to the boy who tickled the hind leg of the mule. The man who has lost his health is the victim of his own or some one else's transgression of nature's laws.

Though we are slowly coming to recognize the importance of certain health rules in our homes and in connection with our individual health we still seem unconscious that the same principles apply to public buildings and public conveyances. Women who wisely insist that their living rooms shall be well dusted and freshly aired each day will travel to and from a shopping trip in a trolley car swirling with germ laden filth and stagnant with thrice breathed air. Men who would refuse to wear second-hand clothes for fear they might not be sanitary will sit for hours in clubs or at town meetings pumping a thick mixture of second-hand tobacco smoke and air onto the delicate tissues of their lungs.

The same heedlessness and criminal negligence is responsible for the shocking conditions which we force our children to undergo in some country schools. Unattractive and unclean school yards usually harbor disease. The common drinking cup, the unsanitary toilet, the dirty towel—or no towel at all—the unwashed floors and windows are symbols of ignorance which we tolerate in the very home of education.

The more we come to regard disease as a mark of social inefficiency or a sign of ignorance and the less we come to regard it as entailing us to pampering or self indulgence the sooner we shall arrive at a culture and a civilization worthy of us as American citizens. The responsibility of health is both individual and collective and the loyalty with which we work for higher health standards in our community is a measure of our good citizenship.

New Years eve celebrations at restaurants and hotels, which have in recent years depended to a large extent upon liquid stimulants to enhance the gladness of the occasion, will begin to take on a new character tomorrow night. While the law does not prevent guests from drinking their own wines and liquors and they have been invited to "bring their own", nevertheless the restricted quantity of liquor in existence, its high cost and the inconvenience of transporting and serving it will greatly reduce the quantity consumed. Champagne will no longer flow like water—at $15 a bottle. Hilarity will no doubt break out in spots as of yore but they will be like the last flashes of a dying fire. By 1921 the reserve stock of booze will be pretty well exhausted and bacchanalian revels will have passed into the discard.

THOUGHT DEAD, RETURNS WITH FORTUNE FROM ALASKA.

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 29.—Twenty-three years ago John Baer trekked from the little village of Warrenville, near here, to the Alaskan wilds of gold fame. Eleven years later on failure to hear from Baer, relatives announced him dead and collected insurance on his life. Today Baer is back in Warrenville his pockets bulging with gold dust and a hankering for all the fine things in life. He "struck it rich" while in the frigid north, and amassed a fortune during his absence. "Too busy to write," was his only comment.

RELAX GRIP ON COAL FOR OVERSEAS LANDS

Director General Hines Lets Down Bars—Allows Limited Export.

PRODUCTION INCREASING

Return of Miners to Jobs Has Relieved Situation in Eastern Coal Fields.

Washington, Dec. 30.—Preliminary arrangements for the investigation of wages and prices in the bituminous coal industry as provided in the coal strike settlement, were made at the initial meeting of the commission of three appointed by President Wilson.

The members of the commission Henry M. Robinson of Pasadena, Cal., representing the public, Rembrandt Peale for the operators and John P. White for the miners—established semi-permanent headquarters in the department of labor building and were understood to have discussed the matter of organization. Secretary of Labor Wilson and Secretary Tumulty were present. The commissioners said the plan of procedure in the task outlined by President Wilson had not been fully worked out. They refused to discuss the questions of whether they would hold hearings or whether they would visit the coal fields in conducting their inquiry.

Export Restrictions Modified.

While the commission was preparing to take up the dominant questions of the strike, Director General of Railroads Hines, who has had charge of coal rationing, modified the last of the restrictions put into effect during the strike—that prohibiting exportation of bituminous coal. The director-general issued an order under which the overseas movement of coal up to an amount equal to 50 per cent. of the quantity exported in October may be shipped from the ports of Baltimore and Newport News. Similar arrangements are to be placed in effect at other ports as soon as the necessary details can be worked out. Dumping of coal at all ports will be regulated, however, through railroad embargoes on tidewater consigned coal.

Situation Improving.

The relaxation of restrictions against exportation was possible, Mr. Hines said, through steadily increased production resulting from the return of the miners to their jobs. "The situation in the eastern fields was described as especially good."

Director-General's Statement.

Relaxation of export restrictions was announced by Director-General Hines in the following statement:

"In the two weeks which have passed since the bituminous coal miners returned to work generally production has increased regularly. This has afforded a great measure of relief in those consuming sections customarily supplied by miners in the central competitive field and in the Southwest, in which sections consumers' stocks have been much depleted. Indicative of the better condition of such stocks is the fact that many of these consumers who were eager during the strike to obtain coal from the fields had continued to produce in the East, have refused now to take such coal which the railroads moved West during the strike to protect such consumers, the additional freight rate from the East naturally entering into the price of the coal.

"It is necessary under these circumstances that productions of the eastern fields be again turned into usual channels and usual markets and among the latter is the overseas export market. Otherwise, a serious congestion of coal loads will inevitably develop on the railroads.

"After careful consideration of the entire situation, it has been deemed advisable to permit restricted resumption of overseas export movement of bituminous coal. Instructions have already been issued for such movement through the ports of Hampton Roads and Baltimore in an amount equal to about 50 per cent. of the export tonnage handled through those ports in the month of October. Similar arrangements will be made at other ports as soon as the necessary details now under way can be perfected. At each port, however, the export dumping will be only allowed upon a restricted basis, the restrictions being made effective by railroad embargoes against the movement of

AMERICAN LEGION O. K.'s GENERAL MILITARY PLAN

Service in Cantonments for Four Months for all Young Men Under 21.

Washington, Dec. 30.—Members of the sub-committee of the Senate Military Affairs Committee, considering the Army reorganization plan will report a Bill to the main committee including the compulsory military service plan, according to statements of members of the sub-committee today.

American Legion's O. K.

The House committee has refused to take up the question of compulsory service at this time. The program will be included in the Senate bill primarily at the request of the American Legion. In the main the compulsory service features will be those suggested and approved by the American Legion. They will constitute the composite recommendations of Gen. Pershing and others appearing before the committee, however.

The General Plan.

The general plan will be service in cantonments for four months, for young men under 21, most likely during the eighteenth and nineteenth years. Service in the national guard for a period of three years, during which time the strict rules of the guard organization, under federal supervision will be necessary.

The plans of the general staff for a federalized militia will not be followed according to members of the committee. It will recommend that the old militia law be left as nearly intact as is possible under the proposed arrangement of compulsory training.

The recommendations of the general staff on the question of size of the army will not be followed by the senate subcommittee. Not more than 300,000 men will be recommended for the standing army.

There is doubt that the main committee will support the subcommittee on the compulsory service provisions.

JURY TO PROBE LEAK.

Washington, Dec. 30.—A Grand Jury investigation of the alleged leak on Supreme Court decisions will be asked by the Department of Justice.

This announcement was made today by Judge C. B. Ames, Assistant Attorney General. "We have decided to submit the matter to a Grand Jury," Judge Ames said. "No further details can be given at this time."

A NEW YEAR'S PRAYER.

Sent Around the World and Translated into a Thousand Tongues.

The first prayer ever to be sent around the world and translated into a thousand tongues, so that it could be spoken simultaneously all over the universe, has just been issued by the Interchurch World Movement of North America for use in all Protestant churches at watch night services of the new year.

From New York, its starting point, it has been wired to the great denominations of this country, cabled to England, the East, and dispatched to every mission center near and far. From Shanghai it will be relayed to Japan and the Philippines, to India for distribution throughout surrounding countries, to Syria for the Levant, Cairo for the northern stretches of Africa, Bolobo for the dark places of the Congo, to South Africa for the Zulu and the Boer.

The prayer calls for the elevation of justice and of brotherhood, and is as follows: A Watch Night Prayer: Almighty God, Father of all mankind, at the end of a year in which malice has so often thwarted love, we join the prayers of all Thy children around the world for peace, the elevation of justice and of brotherhood.

Thou Creator, possessor of all things, who didst make the earth for the races of men and didst set bounds for their habitation, forgive us our greed as we repent of our sin, and restore to all hearts the recognition of the transcendent right of human life to live.

Open our eyes, we beseech Thee, to the dignity of labor, the sacredness of human service, and the privileges of production, that nation may join and man may join man justly in honest work to replenish a devastated earth.

Quicken the sympathy of hearts made full by reports and sights of suffering, incomprehensible and needless. Call us again that we may bow down before eternal laws of creation, putting aside malice, envy, covetousness and brutality, to enter into the peace of the son of the Most High.

Hasten by Thy gracious providence and by the consecrated efforts of Thy children the coming of Thy world wide kingdom where justice, mercy and love shall rule the hearts and hands of men.

Create in us, O Lord, clean hearts, and renew right spirits for the coming year. This we ask in the spirit of Jesus Christ, our only Hope. Amen!

12 ABOVE, HE STROLLS ABOUT IN NIGHTSHIRT.

Rockford, Ill., Dec. 30.—C. S. Wethington colored, pneumonia patient in a local hospital, eluded attendants and took a hike in his nightshirt. Although chilly blasts hammered the thermometer down to 12 degrees above zero, he didn't care. Several blocks away he pounded on the door of a residence. The surprised occupants called an officer who took Wethington back to the hospital none the worse for his promenade.

THE TRAGEDY OF THIRST.
(Bristol Press.)

The tragic deaths of fifty-three individuals brought about through the drinking of the deadly poison known as wood alcohol under the guise of whiskey arouses varied emotions. It is easy to denounce the sordid, criminal creatures who made and sold the vile stuff. There can be only one opinion of the depravity that is willing to kill men for the sake of a dollar. But public sentiment cannot stop there. It must realize that such things could not happen if the responsible officials were doing their duty. Had the laws been properly enforced there would be no saloons to spread liquid death. The moral indictment therefore holds against the negligent officials, presumably, they did not personally approve of suppression of the drink traffic.

The affair also calls attention to another fault that must be corrected. It is astounding that such a virulent poison as that known as "wood alcohol" should ever have been permitted a name that counfounded it with the familiar ethyl-alcohol, the qualities of which are known to all. There should be a stiff penalty forbidding its sale under any name resembling alcohol or without a poison label.

TWO LOCAL MEN TAKE OVER STEPHENS STORE

Albert Anderson and Edward Noren Go Into Partnership.—Both Experienced Grocery Men.

Albert Anderson and Edward Noren have purchased the combination grocery store and meat market at the corner of Center and Lilaç streets from Harding A. Stephens of the Stephens-Williams Auto Company. Mr. Stephens has been conducting the store in the past but will now devote his entire time to the automobile business.

The new owners have had considerable experience in the grocery and meat business. Mr. Anderson was engaged as a clerk by Mr. Stephens and he was at one time a partner in the Berggren and Anderson store on Eldridge street. Mr. Noren was also a clerk in the Berggren and Anderson store. Lately he has been employed as a clerk at Cheney Brothers.

CAMPBELLS MAY MOVE TO FIRST PLACE TONIGHT

Game With Thompsonville K. of C. Will Decide Who is to Lead the League.

If the Manchester K. of C. basketball quintet defeats the Thompsonville K. of C. five at Turn hall this evening, the locals will have an opportunity to meet the inter-state champions for the basketball title of New England. Tonight's contest means a great deal to the local council as the boys from the Carpet City are one game in the lead. A victory for Manchester means, "the top of the league."

Last week the local team stacked up against the champion Middletown team and were defeated by but 4 points. The Middletown fans are of the impression however, that the locals can trim the College City quintet and so remarked after the game. The next game between Manchester and Middletown is for the state championship.

Tonight's line-up will include: Curry, a former "G" star; Dwyer, ex-Colgate star; Quish, former High school and "G" star; Fay, one of the best centers in this section; Madden, acknowledged to be the fastest guard in Connecticut; and Angell, star of the Community Basketball league last year.

KILLS HIS SWEETHEART,

Fredonia, N. Y., Dec. 30.—Joseph Huels, a recently returned soldier, killed Miss Eleanor Carrol, nineteen, and himself. Huels and Miss Carrol had been sweethearts. They quarreled two weeks ago.

Huels went to Miss Carrol's house and shot her while she sat at the breakfast table.

Park Theater

Mary Pickford in "Daddy Long Legs", the screen version of the famous story by Jean Webster, which was shown last night at the Park will be again shown tonight and tomorrow. In it the star plays not only the role of Judy Abbott, the little orphan who passes her childhood in the John Grier Home, but Shakespeare's "Juliet" in "Romeo and Juliet."

This comes about in the latter part of the picture where Judy has been sent to college by the mysterious benefactor whom she names "Daddy Long Legs." On the college green the spring she graduates, is played "Romeo and Juliet" and she is chosen as "Juliet" being the prettiest girl of her class.

In this part Miss Pickford portrays such a bit as would be done by the average girl amateur, putting one more touch of humor into a picture which is filled with fun as well as moments of seriousness.

In "Daddy Long Legs" Miss Pickford is supported by Mahlon Hamilton, as "Daddy Long Legs"; by Marshall A. Neilan, the director of the picture, as Jimmie McBride, a suitor; by Milla Davenport as Mrs. Lippett, the tyrannical superintendent of the orphan home; by Fay Lempert as Angelica Wyckoff, a spoiled little rich girl, and by more than a score of cute kiddies, inmates of the John Grier Home for Orphans.

The latest and greatest of screen productions is creating a sensation throughout the land. In Boston it has been running since last April to capacity audiences, which breaks all records for screen productions in the "Hub."

It first started at the Tremont Theater, where it overstayed its time owing to the great demand, but was forced to move from that theater on account of other contracts. It is now at the Tremont Temple. It is breaking all records for long runs of one production in that city. This same success has been attained by the picture in nearly every large city throughout the country. In the seven months that it has been before the public it has been shown, so it is said, over thirty thousand times.

NEW FUEL BEATS "GAS," AIR MAIL SERVICE FINDS.

New York, Dec. 30.—A fuel more economical than gasoline and less hard on the motor has been tested successfully in the Air Mail Service, according to an announcement made by Otto Praeger, Second Assistant Postmaster-General, in charge of the air mail.

The tests, which were made on the Washington-New York route between August 4 and September 19, indicate a saving of 3.3 gallons of fuel. The new synthetic fuel is known commercially as Alcolgas and is composed of 38 parts of alcohol, nineteen parts of benzol, four parts toluol, thirty parts gasoline and seven and one-half parts is not explained.

ENGLAND, AT LAST, SMILES AT BREAKFAST.

London, Dec. 30.—England is wearing smiles at the breakfast table for the first time in four years. After patient waiting and heroic endurance first-class bacon is being received from the United States. Heretofore a third rate product bought by the Government was supplied. Sufficient stores had accumulated under the Food Ministry that it was possible to forego American purchases. The American bacon market broke and Britain was able to stipulate that in all future shipments only the best cuts shall be sent to England. For months people have been reducing their bacon purchases, for poor bacon improperly stored does not make an exactly aromatic or tasteful dish.

The pen is supposed to be mightier than the sword. Sometimes it is more often it isn't.

Editor Baird of the Bradford Blade and his assistant, Andrew Ferguson, discovered that printer's ink, while highly effective sometimes, is not nearly so much to be relied upon as a revolver. The town of Bradford has been terrorized by a gang of liquor smugglers for some time past and recently Baird began a campaign to get himself elected sheriff. If elected, he promised that he would clear the "Black Riders" out of the country.

That's the plot of the "The Black Circle", in which Creighton Hale is starred by World Pictures.

Creighton Hale plays the role of Ferguson, the youngster, who helped Baird drive out "The Black Riders." Baird is elected sheriff of the county and a hot fight follows. Eventually the gang is cleaned out but not until both the newly elected sheriff and his assistant have been endangered several times. Creighton Hale will be seen in "The Black Circle" at the Circle theater tonight. It made a great hit last evening.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS GRIDIRON SESSION A TRIUMPH IN ROASTING

More Than 175 Local Knights at Annual Christmas Tree Festivities.

OVERSEAS QUINTET MAKES MUSICAL HIT OF EVENING

Fire Truck for Chief Limerick—Swords for War Heroes and Grill-ing for Everybody.

More than 175 members of Campbell Council, Knights of Columbus, attended last evening one of the liveliest and most enjoyable sessions ever held by the council. The occasion was the annual Christmas tree exercises and gridiron program, and the event will go down on the council records as one of the best in the history of the organization.

Foresters' hall was crowded. In addition to the regular program, refreshments were served, additional musical numbers and readings were given, and exercises which continued until after midnight were immensely enjoyed.

Enter Santa.
Soon after 8.30, the lights were lowered, and through the darkened
hall the buzz of the wings of an airplane was heard. When the lights came on again dimly, a real live Santa had appeared, wearing a gorgeous flowing red costume and beaming with smiles through his Rip Van Winkle whiskers. He later proved to be the Santa Claus of the council, P. J. Hutchinson, but a Springfield costumer had done so good a job that nobody would have known it.

Old Santa did not carry the historic pack for the very good reason that his load filled several packs, as the council for every man in the city had ordered his wares
packed in four hunky
bags, containing great baskets of packages. The raising of the lights disclosed a scene of particular beauty; Santa was seen before a falsed platform upon which was a mammoth Christmas tree, with boughs extending almost to the ceiling.
The branches sparkled with snow, and amid the greens and follage scores of colored incandescent
lamps twinkled, giving the whole a splendid effect.

Presents for All.
In connection with the gift-giving,
musical numbers were given under the direction of the council lecturer, Dr. Edward G. Dolan, and a hit was made by the Overseas Quintet. When the grid had been heated to the proper temperature Santa Claus began
the distribution of gifts; each gift was accompanied by a verse which held up the recipient's characteristics and foibles to his colleagues, and none escaped without a harpooning.

That New Fire Truck.
The north end's new fire truck
and Chief John F. Limerick's pardonable pride in it prompted Santa to bring Mr. Limerick a nobby little fire truck, with the following lines
thereon:

"Ye call me chief,
And ye do well to call me chief
Who rides twelve long hours each day

On our new fire truck
And who has never yet given any man

His seat."
Roars of laughter greeted the salutes of wit from the beaming old Santa, as each victim stepped forward and took his gift and his medicine. An improvised jazz band beat the tom-toms and added to the spirit of the occasion.

That loquacity has its penalties
was discovered by George H. Williams when Santa Claus handed him
a horn three feet long, with these lines:

"Some people cry when they're infants
But I've talked from the time I was born;
I don't like to listen to others,
But do love to blow my own horn."

For the Soldier.
Even Santa has a warm spot for the overseas fighter, as was evidenced when he remarked that he believed in credit where credit is due; he referred to sweeping the Huns back from Paris, and handing
a little carpet sweeper to Captain Thomas H. Ward, declaimed:
"He swept the Huns back from Paris,
He flew from the Channel to

Brest;
I'll roast no man who backed Pershing
And wears two decorations on his chest."

A decorated mirror was presented to Corporal Edward Harrington with the following significant lines:
"I'm quite a Beau Brummel,
Most all the girls say,
I've loved in the present and past;
But I've met so many going
to war
That I just can't make my love
last."

The overseas record of Dr. J. A.
Higgins prompted Santa to present
to the doctor an elaborate sword,
with the following sentiments:
"As proud as a peacock I went to the front
Where cannon and trench mortars
roared;
But I did my duty as Pershing has
said,
And I thank you, kind friends, for the sword."

South End Fireman, Too.
Not to be partial to the north end
fire department, Santa presented a chemical engine to William F. Taylor, with the warning:

"Out of the way, get off the earth,
I speed through dust and mire,
I want the street from curb to curb,
I'm on my way to a fire."

Willingness to mix things when mixing is the requirement of the occasion brought to Dr. Edward G.
Dolan as Santa Claus's gift a bristling fox terrier.

The recently elected recording secretary of the council, Paul B.
Ward, drew a massive ledger from Santa.

Robert J. Gorman's penchant for business was recognized by Santa
with the gift of a little business block.

Diplomat Wall.
Postmaster Fred H. Wall's occasional resorting to diplomacy in adjusting fraternal jars brought him
from Santa Claus a little oil can,
with the following lines attached:
"When the arguments are hottest
And the tumult's heard a mile
I take the floor and cautiously
Pour on a little oil."

Edward J. Murphy's willingness to be among those present when abnormal activities are on drew for him a mixing pan, with the lines:
"Like the quiet side of life,
With politics and no fixings,
But I surely do enjoy a fight,
And like to do the mixing."

Other Gifts.
Postmaster Thomas J. Quish was given a nobby mail truck to aid in moving his 52,000 pounds of mail next year. A. J. Campbell, in his first year as basketball manager for the council, was given a chick just emerging from the shell, with the lines, "His first year out." Edward F. Taylor received a miniature mouth organ mounted on a ladder
to hold him with his high notes." P.
J. O'Leary received a box of comfort powder to alleviate soreness over the sugar situation. John F. Sheridan, who kept guard over the Bolsheviks
in the Hartford county jail prior to deportation, was given a young gatling gun. Edward McCarthy was given a detective's mask, dark lantern and whiskers, with card attached addressed to "Philo Gubb."
Jerry Fay, the six-foot-two player on the council's basketball team, received an elephant.

The musical numbers and readings, under the direction of Dr.
Dolan, were especially enjoyable.
Edward F. Taylor, Thomas J.
Quish, D. J. Sullivan and Edward McCarthy gave readings. The overseas quintet consisted of Messrs.
Mallon, D'Amico, Cavanagro, Moriarty
and Narcowski. During the evening a K. of C. gold pin was presented to Joseph Moriarty, chairman of the last class of candidates, by Edward J. Murphy.

It was the general opinion that the 1919 "tree" was the best ever enjoyed by the council. The committee on arrangements consisted of P.
J. Hutchinson, chairman, Edward
F. Taylor, Fred H. Wall, Frank J.
Quish and Edward Moriarty.

BOLTON

There is to be community celebration of New Years at the basement Thursday afternoon and evening.
Everyone is invited and all are requested to come prepared to help entertain in some way.

Saturday evening there will be a dance at Bolton hall given by Mrs.
J. Wesson Phelps and the Misses Elizabeth and Ella Sumner. Music will be by the Victor orchestra.

Miss Lorraine Hart is visiting
Mrs. R. Kneeland Jones. The Misses Eva and Helen Jones who were also visiting Mrs. Jones have returned to their homes.

YD BLOWS "ASSEMBLY" FOR MEETING TONIGHT

Important Matters to be Discussed—
Big Dance Stated for January 22—
Strong Club Expected Here.

All local members of the Yankee Division are urged to attend an important meeting of the YD association to be held in the home guard rooms of the Barnard school this evening at eight o'clock. The officers are especially desirous that those who are already members and those who intend to join the organization
attend this meeting as several phases
vital to the future of the association will be discussed.

On Thursday evening, January 22,
the YD boys will give their first dance. It will be held at Cheney hall and already it promises to be one of the biggest social events of the year. An invitation has been extended to Major General Clarence D.
Edwards and it is expected that he will be present. The Lenox Banjo Orchestra of Boston has been engaged to provide the music.

There are 110 YD men in Manchester and they hope to perfect an organization in Manchester that will be as good or better than the associations in other parts of New England.
The club in this town will be a part of the national YD organization and Manchester members may enjoy the privileges in any town where there may be a YD club.

Once it is thoroughly organized the Manchester YD Association hopes to be a valuable factor in local affairs.
It is composed of many of the best young men in town who, associated as they were during the war, wish to perpetuate the ties of fellowship and friendship in a real organization.

STUDENTS TELL OF LIFE IN HAPPY COLLEGE DAYS

Audience at Congregational Church Hears Why Everyone Goes to the Best College in the World.

An audience of more than a hundred gathered at the Center Congregational church last evening for the annual "College Night" exercises.
The speakers were all students who are home for the holidays except one, Richard Buffrum, who attended the French university of Sor-bonne while a member of the Expeditionary Forces.

Following is a list of the other speakers and the schools which they represented: Lester Hohenthal, Trinity; Merton Strickland, Wesleyan;
Raymond Carrier, Storrs; Dorothy
Carr and Walter Hibbard, Brown;
Clifford Norton, Rensselaer
Polytech; Elizabeth Norton, Boston University; Mary McMenemy, Oberlin; and Lafayette Robertson, Pennsylvania State.

Each of the speakers dwelt on the merits of his or her school telling of its scholastic and athletic advantages and general superiority to all of the others.

Miss Ruth Hesselgrave, who had charge of the decorations, trimmed
the hall with banners from all the well known colleges and each person in the audience wore a tag giving his or her name and college.

Miss Eunice Case of Wapping delighted everyone with two beautiful solos and Miss Lillian Grant of Cambridge street played the piano in most acceptable fashion.

A refreshment committee, headed by Mrs. Herbert E. House, served ice cream and fancy cakes during the social hour. The singing of popular songs by the audience was led by Herbert A. Cadle.

BANK COMMISSIONER WAS ALSO BUNCOED

State Official Testifies That He Was
Muled of $20,000 in Stock Transaction.

Waterbury, Conn., Dec. 30.—Everett Sturges, State Bank Commissioner of New Milford, testified today at the hearing in the bankruptcy court on the proceedings incident to the bankruptcy petition of the Tobacco Products Company of New Milford, that he was muled of $20,000 by purchase of stock in the concern. Mrs. Wandyne Deuth, member of a prominent New York family
said she invested $50,000 in the concern at the instance of her former husband, J. R. Johns, who she believed collected commission for sale of the stock. The concern was capitalized at $5,000,000 and testimony thus far adduced indicated that the assets
of the concern were about $5,000.

Her attending physicians say her
condition is not serious.

REPORT "WILD MAN" AT LARGE
Waynesburg, Pa., Dec. 30.—A
"wild man" is reported at large in
the rough country near here. He has been seen a number of times,
but all efforts to capture him have failed. People living near the scene are excited over the appearance of the stranger and keep close
to their homes.

CABINET MEETING TODAY.
Washington, Dec. 30.—President
Wilson's Cabinet met today and
held a general discussion of the affairs of the nation.

"We had no particular question
up before us," said Secretary of State Lansing. "We had merely a
general discussion of affairs."

J. P. MORGAN CO. AIDED GERMAN-RUSSO VENTURE

American Firm Said to Have Advanced Money to Form Northwest Russian Government.

Paris, Dec. 30.—The newspaper,
Eclair today published what purports to be copies of three letters
in an effort to prove that J. P.
Morgan & Co., participated directly in the German-Russian venture in the Baltic. The first letter is said to have regarded a loan for 300,000
marks which was written by an official in Berlin to an unknown person. The second was an alleged copy of a provisional contract between the Morgan bank and the Government of Northwest Russia.

After the collapse of the so-called
Government of Northwest Russia,
which had been supported by Russian and German troops, a man was arrested in Berlin charged with falsely representing himself an agent of J. P. Morgan & Company. After his arrest, he was said to have secured
funds through his fraudulent representations.

FAILED FOR A MILLION.

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 30.— Melville Boyd of Westport and Raymond E. Hackett of Stamford were today appointed trustees of the bankrupt estate of Joseph Weissman in the local Bankruptcy Court. Weissman failed with liabilities of over one million dollars and comparatively small assets. In court today 145 claims, a partial list, representing about $600,460
were presented and a partial inventory of the assets showed about $70,354.54. Weissman, who has been charged with concealing assets
took oath that he had turned over all of his property. Bonds of the trustees were fixed at $100,000
each.

MAJOR BARRY DEAD.

Washington, Dec. 30.—Major
Thomas Barry, one of the best known officers of the United States army, died at the Walter Reed hospital here today.

Major General Barry was recently retired while in command of the Department of the East at Governor's Island, N. Y. He was formerly in command of the Central Department and at one time was Superintendent of the Military Academy
at West Point.

Major General Barry was born October 13, 1855, and was appointed a cadet at West Point in 1873.

TO RELEASE U. S. SAILORS.

Washington, Dec. 30.—The State Department was today advised from Mexico City that H. V. Leonard and H. O. Martin, two American sailors held by the Mexican Authorities at Mazatlan will be released today.

The two sailors were held on charges of assault upon a Mexican.
The State Department urged the Mexican government to make speedy disposition of their cases after they had been held in jail for a considerable time without any action being taken in their cases.

STATE TO HAVE CAVALRY.

Boston, Dec. 30.—Information was given out today by Col. W. F. Martin
in charge of militia affairs at headquarters of the Department of the Northeast that a troop of cavalry will be organized for the Connecticut National Guard. This troop will be known as Troop A. George M. Wallace has been appointed captain; William H. Tiernan, first lieutenant, and Thomas J. Reilly, second lieutenant.
All are of New Haven.

NEWS' MOTHER COLLAPSES.

Los Angeles, Dec. 30.—Mrs. Lillian Berger collapsed today as the result of the terrific strain imposed upon her by constant attendance at the trial of her son, Harry S. New Jr., alleged son of United States Senator New of Indiana, and confessed
slayer of his sweetheart, Freda Lesser.

Her attending physicians say her
condition is not serious.

REPORT "WILD MAN" AT LARGE

Waynesburg, Pa., Dec. 30.—A
"wild man" is reported at large in
the rough country near here. He
has been seen a number of times,
but all efforts to capture him have
failed. People living near the scene are excited over the appearance of the stranger and keep close
to their homes.

CABINET MEETING TODAY.

Washington, Dec. 30.—President
Wilson's Cabinet met today and
held a general discussion of the
affairs of the nation.

"We had no particular question
up before us," said Secretary of State Lansing. "We had merely a
general discussion of affairs."

NEW PAPER FOR BOSTON.

Boston, Dec. 29.—Frederick W.
Enwright, publisher of the Lynn Telegram-News will start a new morning and evening newspaper in Boston about March 1, according to an announcement today.

Boston's new paper will be housed in a modern newspaper plan in the heart of the financial district. It will be known as "The Telegram."
It will be democratic in both local and national politics.

TOWN CLOCK TOLLS WHEN ZERO IS REGISTERED.

Beaver, Pa., Dec. 30.—Beaver's town clock has the uncanny habit of tolling when the thermometer registers zero. All last winter the bell made its hearers acquainted with the weather conditions. The first zero weather this winter was also announced.

FOUR-YEAR SENTENCE FOR STEALING SIX PENNIES.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Dec. 30.— Four years for stealing six cents, or one year for each of one and one-half cents.

That's the sentence imposed on Walter Hyde, colored, for breaking into the Bridgeport Bank near here
and picking up the few pennies.

LOST AT POKER—SUICIDE; MOTHER GETS LOSSES IN MAIL.

Gallion, Ohio, Dec. 30.—Six years ago Ben Orr lost in a poker game in Detroit and killed himself. This week his mother received a small sum of money in an envelope postmarked Detroit, together with an unsigned note stating it was the writer's winnings of six years ago.

OPPOSED TO SUNDAY FUNERALS

Hutchinson, Kan., Dec. 30.—Ministers, undertakers and sextons, who recently started a campaign here against Sunday funerals, have been joined by flower shop and greenhouse men.

The florists declare they will not keep open Sundays in the future.

PLAYERS EXCHANGED.

New York, Dec. 30.—The first important baseball deal of the winter season has today brought about the transfer of players Bobbie Roth and Maurice Shannon of the Red Sox to Washington for Pitcher Harper, Outfielder Menos-
key and Infielder Foster.

SNAP FASTENERS ON UNDIES

Handy Convenience Aids in Transferring Lingerie Straps From One Garment to Another.

Lingerie straps, which can be transferred from one undie to another by simply unsnapping the snap fasteners
are dainty things to give and handy things to have.

You might make them of batiste and trim them with fine cross-stitching in pastel colors. You might hemstitch them in colors, or you might buttonhole the edges.
Then you might make them of satin
—white washable satin preferably.
These are very attractive when they are trimmed with small chiffon flowers just where they are snapped to the garment.

Ribbon may also be used. French knots in pastel colors or small embro-dered dots will lend themselves very successfully as means of trimming
these straps.

The homeliest camisole or teddy bear may be made attractive by an attractive pair of shoulder straps. They are a distinct convenience, for they are held securely in place and will not necessitate such inconvenience as removing one's clothes to refasten, as one has to do when one's sewed-on shoulder strap has dropped its stitches
on one end.

JET POPULAR AS TRIMMING

Decoration Used in Flat Binding in Novel Designs, in Fringes and in Other Characters.

Some frocks are showing a great deal of ornamentation. There is much beading to be seen in various forms,
the trail of hand embroidery is found in the land of fashion, and other forms of artistic decoration. Yes, trimmings are here, and yet so harmonious and logical are most of them that we are scarcely aware they belong to that one-time overrate and lugubrious thing—trimmings.

Jet has a stellar role to play. We find jet in flat binding, in novel designs, in fringes and other characters.
Pearl trimmings are lovely now on evening gowns, and jet or pearl strands for shoulder straps are the mode for these formal costumes.

But the trimming of all trimmings is the one that is well selected for the style of frock it is to decorate—it shows at all times make the frock
more individual, without detracting
from its simplicity—and when artificially applied it often spells the entire charm of the costume.

COLORS FOR 1920

Variety and Artistic Beauty in Store for Next Year.

Pinks in All Shades, Blues, Greens, Yellows, Violets, Browns and Grays in Profusion.

Seldom even in pre-war days have colors promised more variety, artistic beauty and brilliancy than for the season of 1920. That fashion will have a galaxy of colors to choose from is proclaimed by the 1920 spring season
color card just issued of the Textile Color Card association.

Pinks abound in profusion. They range from the most delicate tints—
implied by their names—zephyr, dawn
and nymph, down into lustrous rich tones called rosebud, arbutus and sweet briar. Three true venetian blues of the turquoise type follow,
called Lagoon, Venice and Adriatic.
Also three soft lavender—morning
glory, crocus and thistle.

Five scintillating greens of bluish
cast range from a light water green named Naïad through gradually deepening tones—Neptune, jadeite and scarab, ending with a deep brilliant shade called mint. Among the old shades of pink are terrace, coral and the well-known shade Bermuda. Three new yellows of slightly greenish tint are cockatoo, quite pale in tone, and sulphur and citrine of greater depth.

The violet tones are well represented in hyacinth, foxglove and heartse-
case, the last a deep rich purple.
Flaming brilliancy accentuates the red family. Only three shades are included, but each distinctly individual.
Firefly, the lightest, is an unusual
shade of pronounced orange tone.

In the neutral and dark shades,
browns and blues share equally in importance. One brown family portrays the burnished yellow tone suggestive of aboriginal tendencies which their names imply, Aztec, wigwam and moose. Cattail is a dark brown, less yellow in tone, ranging a trifle lighter than seal brown, which again appears. Another range of six leads off with a light sand shade,
called pebble, and runs on down
through the light beige tones, moth
and pecan, into the medium and darker castor shades, grouse, eagle and moose.

A range of exceptionally good blues
of the Deift and tapestry persuasions appear. Starting with a rather faint blue, called aquamarine, and followed by twilight, of deeper, clearer tone,
one finds shades in this group covering all the varied tones of blue, green, hyacinth, radio and orion, favored by fashion.

Five grays are shown, ranging from a delicate tone, called wood ash to the medium soft shades, cinder and zinc,
down to the darker shades, pelican
and grebe.

SMART VEIL AND NECKWEAR

Veils and attractive neckwear play an important part in the well-dressed woman's wardrobe, as usual, this season. This vest of brilliant-lined silk, and the fancy-figured veil are very popular, and both are decidedly chic.

THE USEFUL TAILORED FROCK

Milady Considers Her Wardrobe Incomplete Without at Least One Such Outfit.

The tailored frock for street wear
is the most important garment to be chosen during either spring or fall. For several seasons the two-piece suit has enjoyed a rather doubtful favor, while the one-piece frock has gained in vogue
each succeeding season since it made its initial appearance. The two-piece suit is really an expensive garment, no matter what it costs when purchased,
for the reason that innumerable blouses must be purchased also, and during the past two seasons the possession of a two-piece suit has meant the purchase of several separate vests
as well. The one-piece frock only requires at the most fresh collar and cuffs to complete it, and very often not even these. In addition to these recommendations, the one-piece frock is so easy to slip into and so generally becoming that no woman considers her wardrobe complete without at least one tailored street frock for every season.

POP GEERS IS GREATEST OF REINSMEN AND HAS HAD LONG AND INTERESTING CAREER

Veteran Driver and One of His Pets

Edward Franklin Geers, more popularly known as "Pop," was born three miles from Lebanon, Tenn., January 25, 1851. He has appeared in races before more people than any man who ever sat in a sulky, the number at Charter Oak Park, Hartford, alone being over a million. He has also won more races than any man who ever followed the profession in which his name will always be a leader.

War by Merit.

For all time Geers' name will be linked with that of Budd Doble and Charles Marvin. Each of them earned their laurels by following the hard and narrow path that bears the old-fashioned label of integrity. By merit and fair dealing they made their way to the front and remained there as fixtures during the balance of their careers.

While time performances were the stepping stones upon which both Doble and Marvin mounted the pedestal of fame, Geers made himself near and

dear to the race-going public by gathering his laurels in scabrously contested races, many of which were in doubt to the last stride of the last heat. He also had his champions in Hal Pointer, Robert J. The Abbot, and The Harvester, while the triple team record of 2-14 which he made with Belle Hamlin, Globe and Justina at Cleveland in 1891 will in all probability remain unchallenged forever.

Fame Is Assured.

There are others on the way, but if Geers should never draw a rein over another horse his fame is secure. The pegs were driven home by Mattie Hunter, Brown Hal, Star Pointer, Hal Pointer, Hal Dillard, Fantasy, Robert J., Hamlin's Nighthawk, Joe Patchen, Lady of the Manor, Lord Derby, The Abbot, Heir at Law, Billy Buck, Direct Hal, Anvil, Etawah, Doodle Archdale, The Harvester, Napoleon Direct, St. Frisco, Single G., Goldie Todd and this year's babies, Molly Knight and Durette.

TAD'S TID-BITS

Dear Tad—

There should be no argument as to who was the greatest fighter of them all. I cannot see any one but Syracuse Tommy Ryan. He was game, clever, a great mixer, figured every move and every step, knew how to feint and take instant advantage of every opponent. He cared nothing for size. At 142 pounds he fought and defeated heavyweights like Bonner, Dick O'Brien, Root, Lawler and Craig. He was knocked out and saved by the bell in several fights, but came back and by using his brain outgeneraled his opponents and with one exception always left the ring victor.

Take his battle with Tommy West in Louisville, never in the history of the sport was there another such battle. When sick and weighing 142 pounds he outgeneraled and knocked out Kid Carter in Fort Erie. All those tough heavyweights became set-ups for him. And he understood the game from A to Z. He would find every opponent's weak spot and make use of it.

Look up his battle with Needham and several fights with mysterious Doby Smith. He had confidence in himself. He knew how to defend himself and what a wallop he had! Another thing about Foxy Tommy was that he knew how to teach others how to fight. No matter who claims the credit, James J. Jeffries would never have been heard of but for the tutoring he received under the watchful eyes of Tommy Ryan.

Ityan originated the famous Jeffries crouch. He was the greatest cross counterer with left or right. He knew how to feign grogginess and keep in position to wallop over the sleep-producer. He was also tricky. For instance, when he fought Dunfee he stopped to call his attention to the packed house and the moment Dunfee took a slant around he was gone.

Sincerely yours,
JACK CURLEY.

HURRAY FOR OHIO!

Some State, that Ohio! Jack Dempsey won the heavyweight championship there; Pat Moran's Cincinnati Red's, copped the World's series there, and today Ohio has about six native sons entered in the Presidential Suburban.

EARLY ROSE POTATOES.

Some women would rather sweep the room with a glance than with a broom.

"The applause of one single person," as Samuel Johnson has said, "may be of great consequence". Sam, evidently, didn't know many actors.

Maybe it's best the world didn't end on December 17. Some profane on the other side of the long, long trail was probably getting ready to boost the price of gold bars.

Who won the pound of sugar offered by some big-hearted millionaire for a sprint in the recent six day race?

We wonder if the Mars papers "would copy" in the event that this cruel old apple did take a Fred McKay.

We also wonder if Venus, Mercury, Jupiter, Saturn, Neptune and Mars would exclaim, "Doesn't she look natural?"

JOHN KEENE.

INTERESTING SPORT PARAGRAPHS

Toronto has no building suitable to hold indoor track meets.

Amherst has recognized soccer and hockey as active sports.

Pay of Pacific Coast league umpires has been raised from $250 to $300 per month.

How many can recall right offhand who was the great hero in that world series?

Charley Mullen has been succeeded by Clyde Wares as manager of the Seattle club of the Coast league.

Wellington Brothers '21 has been elected captain of the University of Wisconsin varsity cross-country team for 1920.

George Burns, the Giant outfielder, is on an automobile tour of the middle West with "Slim" Salee, the Reds' left-hander.

Foster Sanford, Rutgers coach, is one of the rumored successors to Fred Dawson, Columbia football coach, who has resigned.

Polo will be recognized and adopted as the official army sport, according to the announcement of General March, chief of staff.

Elected by unanimous choice of the 17 football "11" men, Elliot Risley, plant lineman of the varsity football team, will pilot the Indiana eleven next season.

It won't be long now until the hold-out crop begins to bear fruit. Most of the clubs are preparing their new contracts, to be mailed out the latter part of next month.

Nebraska football team has offered to go to Annapolis next year for a game with the Naval academy team. Penn and Princeton are also mentioned as probable opponents for Annapolis.

If John McGraw really wants to trade, he won't have any trouble in getting rid of Benny Knutt. Benny and Jawn, so reports have it, have about reached the parting of the ways.

Arthur Callahan, brother of John Callahan, captain of the Yale 1919 football team, and Capt. Harry Callahan of the Princeton eleven, has been elected captain of next year's football team at the Lawrence high school.

Bill Carrigan, former manager of the Red Sox, may become part owner of that club if a plan now in the making goes through. Several Boston men want to buy the club from Harry Frazee and have interested Carrigan in the deal.

BAKER DETERMINED TO QUIT

Manager Huggins Expresses Belief That "Home-Run" Star Is Sincere in Declaration.

Frank Baker.

Frank Baker may not play third base for the Yankees next year. Manager Miller Huggins, in mapping out his 1920 campaign, announced his belief that the former "home-run" star is sincere in his statement that he is going to retire from the game.

RECORD FOR MAJOR LEAGUES

Washington American Team Believed to Have Set Mark for Consecutive Playing in 1919.

What is believed to constitute a record for major leagues has been established by the Washington club in the matter of uninterrupted playing. The calling off of the final game in the recent Cleveland series because of rain was the first postponement the Senators had encountered since May 23. After that date, which was just one month after the season opened, the Griffins participated in every scheduled contest and a number of games postponed prior to that date as well, including two tie games at the Polo grounds. In eighty-three days Washington averaged one game a day, exceeding half of the schedule of 140 games by thirteen.

RUSH OF IMMIGRANTS TO U. S. HAS STARTED

More Than 3000 Are Being Detained for Examination at Ellis Island.

New York, Dec. 29.—The Ellis Island authorities have been swamped with a rush of immigrants to this country and it was estimated today that more than 3,000 newcomers are being detained on vessels for examination. One cause of congestion is that the number of boards of inquiry have been cut down and only from 40 to 50 cases can be handled in a day now against 6,000 before the war.

A force of special inspectors is working fifteen hours a day to pass upon immigrants so that the ships, upon which they arrived, can depart. Hundreds of relatives from Pennsylvania, Ohio and the New England states are here to meet incoming immigrants and have become so clamorous over the delay that special guards were today posted at the large office.

KILLED IN COASTING ACCIDENT

Simsbury, Conn., Dec. 29.—John Florio, aged 10 died at the Hartford hospital during the night as a result of injuries received in a coasting accident here yesterday afternoon when he and Rinaldo Zacher, 11, were struck by the automobile of W. R. Wagner of Collinsville while coasting on South Main street. The Zacher boy died an hour after accident.

CHILDREN AND TEACHERS ASKED TO AID IN CENSUS

Washington, Dec. 29.—An appeal to the school children and their teachers to aid in the 1920 census was voiced by Dr. P. P. Claxton, Commissioner of Education, recently.

In his statement Dr. Claxton said: "Teachers and school officials, and the children in the schools as well, can help the Government with the fourteenth census of the United States, which begins January 2, 1920, by making clear to all the people in the community how important the census work is.

"The enumeration of the population during a census of the United States always presents numerous difficulties—among them apprehension on the part of the people, particularly those of foreign birth or extraction, that their answers to the enumerator's questions will cause increased taxation, legal entanglements or other consequences injurious to their welfare. The schools can assist materially in quieting such unfounded fears, and at the same time acquaint all persons with the main questions included in the census schedules."

U. S. TRADE COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE PRICES

To Find Out How Manufacturers Can Guarantee Against Decline in Prices.

Washington, Dec. 29.—The Federal Trade Commission is about to undertake one of the biggest tasks in its career: That is the investigation of the question of guarantee by manufacturers, wholesalers, and jobbers, against decline in price, a subject of many complaints before the commission. Opinion seems so diverse that the commission announced today that it is determined to go into the whole matter thoroughly.

It will be the aim of the Commission through interchange of letters and through public hearings to find out if it is against public policy for a jobber, wholesaler or manufacturer to sell goods at a certain price and guarantee that prices will not decline within a certain period of time.

According to commission officials it is a trade custom with many firms to guarantee against decline in prices, while other firms in not recognizing the custom, have suffered a loss of trade. Whether the public suffers in either case will be the aim of the commission to ascertain, it was stated.

SNAKES, LIZARDS AND TOADS SEIZED IN BOOTLEG RAID

Denver, Dec. 29.—It was his reputation for sobriety and steadiness that saved Police Detective Schneider from possible reprimand when he reported to his chief that he had been "seeing snakes" during a raid on an alleged "bootleg" still headquarters here.

The bootleg squad arrested V. A. Blivins at his home here, seizing a quantity of "new liquor" and a pair of "mash." During their search of the premises, officers discovered a row of glass cases containing a varied assortment of reptiles—lizards, horned toads and snakes.

Blivins says they were "just pets", but police are endeavoring to determine if Blivins was prepared to provide his customers with "snakes" before as well as after indulging in the booze.

EDITOR QUILTS PAPER TO GATHER ACORNS—$1.50 SACK

Cottonwood, Cal., Dec. 29.—With print paper gone sky-high in price is it profitable for a publisher to issue?

Burney J. McNamar, editor and owner of the Cottonwood Enterprise, answers this best in his actions: He has left his editorial chair to gather acorns in the forest. Acorns are now selling at $1.50 per sack. They are used for fuel.

Editor McNamar has gathered in ninety-eight sacks this month. In his absence his wife edits and gets out the paper.

Is Your Motor Extravagant in Gasoline?

That depends largely on the quality of your gasoline and the mixture you use.

Take a Look at This House

A home like this cost about $3,500 to build a few years ago. If you should build a house similar to this one today, the price would figure in the neighborhood of $7,000. These figures we admit are correct.

Now then—answer this question! Would you insure this house for $1,750, that cost $3,500? No, of course you would not—you would insure it for what it was worth.

Now, listen! The point is this. Is it not a greater risk to keep a house that is worth $7,000 insured for $3,500 or less, than it is to have a house worth $3,500 insured for $1,750? Think this over seriously—it applies to every property owner, and if you are a property owner it means you! Not everyone else but you. Protect your own interests by carrying enough fire insurance. Your furniture, store stocks, etc., should be looked over and inventoried in the same way. You may be carrying $500 or $1,000 on furniture and clothing that is worth twice as much as it is insured for. To prove this is true, look up present prices on these articles and then figure what you would have to pay for new goods, should yours be destroyed by fire. Can you afford to take the risk? If not, look up your fire insurance policies at once and compare the amount of insurance with the values of today. Fire insurance is cheaper today than it was a few months ago.

MERCHANTS—If you understand the 80 per cent Co-Insurance clause, you are carrying at least 80 per cent of the value of your stock and fixtures. If not you stand to lose in case of fire.

I represent and write fire insurance for 15 reliable Fire Insurance Companies and can give you the very lowest rates together with prompt and efficient service.

The Hines' Optical Service

Here the advantage of the Hines' service is apparent. We assume all the responsibility.

To insure absolute certainty the Hines' System of eye examinations includes three different methods. The results are as near perfection as knowledge and experience can produce. After the interior as well as the exterior of each eye has been carefully examined, the prescription is given to the grinding department, where lenses are ground absolutely to the prescription by skilled artisans, who work in thousandths of an inch, and take just as much pride in the proper filling of the prescription as the specialist does in making it. Let us fit you to glasses. Prices are right.

Office Open Every Night, Saturday Included, from 6.30 to 8.30 p. m. At Optical Dept. of G. Fox & Co. during the day.
