BAVARIA WILL NOT SECEDE FROM THE GERMAN EMPIRE

Former Kingdom's Leader in Reichstag Declares That Hard Fight Will be Made Against Disbandment of Security Police.

Berlin, March 15.—"Under no condition will Bavaria secede from the German Empire," it was declared today by Dr. Hein, Bavarian leader in the Reichstag. "Bavaria will not do that favor for France."

The threatened clash in the Reichstag over the law dissolving the Elnwohnerwehr, the Bavarian security police, has temporarily passed the danger point as the measure has been referred to a committee for amendment.

Dr. Walter Simons, the Foreign Minister, in giving an opinion upon the bill said that the allies' ultimatum demanding that the Elnwohnerwehr be dissolved by March 15 was no longer operative because of the indemnity penalties.

"Therefore," continued the Foreign Minister, "there is no need for hurry."

Will Make Hard Fight

Dr. Hein, speaking for the Bavarians felt that they needed the police to maintain order. He pointed to the former outbreak of Bolshevism in Bavaria and said that the people wanted to guard against future disorders.

Dr. Simons in replying to Dr. Hein said: "I have been accused of mixing in internal matter, but this is external matter, and it is my duty to pass this law. I have no wish to sacrifice our young manhood that been spared from the last war except in the last and most extreme eventuality."

"JERSEY JUSTICE" FAST ON THE PERTH AMBOY MURDER

Negro Murderer of Pretty Young Church Organist Ex- pected to be Placed on Trial Monday and Convict- ed in an Hour.

Perth Amboy, N. J., March 15.—"Jersey Justice" is expected to move quickly in the case of Washington Knight, the negro who confessed to the brutal attack on Mrs. Edith Marshall Wilson, pretty young church organist, which caused her death.

Prosecutor Joseph E. Stricker had today called a special session of the grand jury for next Friday. He announced that Knight would be indicted on a first degree murder charge that day and placed on trial the following Monday. Stricker declared Knight would be convicted in an hour.

The negro was taken to New Brunswick last night, the authorities here fearing an attempt would be made to lynch him.

CLARA HAD BLUE MARKS ON THROAT

Sister of Accused Testifies of Hamon Defendant's Appearance the Morn- ing After the Shooting.

Ardmore, Okla., Mar. 15.—The court house was jammed today by spectators who, at six a. m., had stormed the court room, so eager were they to hear the story of Hamon's mortal wound from the lips of the defendant.

The court room presented a battered appearance when the judge took his stand. Five hundred murder fans had pushed and milled their way into the room, while as many more jammed the hallways. Sheriff "Buck"

Italian Political Feud in Chicago

Two Saloonkeepers Arrested Out of Five Alleged to Have Joined in Slaying.

Chicago, March 15.—"Little Italy" is deeply stirred today by the arrest of Samuel Amatuna, proprietor of the "Blue Bird" cabaret, and Frank Compino, saloonkeeper, as suspects in the slaying of Paul A. Labriola, recent victim of an alleged political feud in the 19th ward. Police say that three witnesses to the shooting of Labriola have identified Amatuna and Compino as the men who were with him at the time.

Three other men, whose names are said to be known to the police, are being sought as alleged accomplices of Amatuna and Compino.

Garrett, aided by every deputy, cleared the court room of part of the throng just before the trial was resumed. The court room door had been smashed in the charge of the wrought up spectators.

Attorneys expect the case will reach the jury some time tomorrow. The defense planned to close its case today after Clara Hamon leaves the witness stand.

She arrived on the arm of her mother and was dressed in the same blue tailored costume she has worn since the trial began.

The first witness of the day was F. L. Cartar.

He testified he had heard W. B. Nichols, former police chief, declare that "Hamon held my hand until the last and up to the last he says it was an accident."

Nichols one of the state's witnesses had testified Hamon accused the defendant of shooting him.

Mrs. V. D. Walling, of Wilson, Okla., a sister of the defendant, took the witness stand.

Mrs. Jake L. Hamon and her son arrived during the testimony of Mrs. Walling, and were escorted to the same seats they have occupied since the first day of their attendance.

Mrs. Walling testified Clara came to her home in Wilson, 17 miles from Ardmore, the morning after the shooting.

"Did she show any bruises when she arrived?"

"Yes, she had blue marks on her throat. You could see thumb prints on her throat which was so sore it hurt her to swallow."

There were bruises on her hand. The fingers and joints were very sore, Clara said, the witness answered.

CHENEY SILK SHOW DRAWS LARGE CROWDS

Visitors Speechless With Amazement at Geor- geous Showing.

STYLE SHOW OFFERS PLEASING DIVERSION

Local Models Make Hit in Period and Modern Costumes—Buyers' Day Tomorrow.

If the throngs which packed Cheney hall last night at the opening of the silk show continue through the week the exposition in South Manchester will rival in attendance that at New York last month at which all records were broken. The doors were first opened to the public at noon yesterday. At that hour the main displays were in place although a few details remained to be completed.

These were finished last night and today the show will be in complete running order. The completion of the exhibit was a great relief to the scores of men who had been working almost to the limit of human endurance for a week to get everything ready for the opening. The attitude of most of the visitors yesterday was that of speechless amazement. Words were powerless to express their admiration of what they saw and they were content to stand in silence and try to absorb the wealth of color and richness of design with which they were confronted on every hand.

The Style Show.

The spell was broken both afternoon and evening by the appearance of living models on the stage, beautifully clad in the latest styles.

Since silk has been worn. The first model shown was that of a Chinese bride, because Chinese girls were reeling raw silk several thousand years before the white man came to America. The costume worn by this model was brought from China. Next came a Japanese lady also in an imported costume. Following her were eleven other models, all clad in robes of Cheney silk. They represented in turn a Venetian lady, Queen Elizabeth, Madame de Pompadour, a Directoire gown, the Empress Josephine and, coming down to modern times, a morning frock, a sport suit, an afternoon gown, a duvettine coat an evening gown and finally a bridal gown with veil of silver tulle.

These are the same gowns that were shown at the New York exposition and which created such a furor there. In New York they were draped on professional models. Here they were worn by non-professionals selected from the young ladies of this place. Those who saw both exhibits say our young ladies did not suffer of comparison. Indeed Mrs. W. C. Cheney who selected and trained the models, found so much good material to work with among our pretty girls that she secured a double set of models for most of the characters one set posing in the afternoon and another in the evening. Those who posed yesterday were:

Chinese bride, afternoon, Miss C. Ocella; evening, Miss Bertha Hoffman.

Venetian lady, afternoon, Miss Brownell; evening, Miss Little.

Japanese lady, afternoon Mrs. Dexter; evening, Miss Pritchard.

Queen Elizabeth, afternoon, Mrs. Elliot; evening, Miss Trebbe.

Madame de Pompadour, afternoon, Mrs. Scott; evening, Miss Dunn.

Directoire, afternoon, Miss Rachel Miller; evening, Miss Platt.

Josephine, afternoon, Miss Brindle; evening, Miss Talcott.

Morning frock, afternoon, Miss Patterson; evening, Mrs. Arthur Lashinsky.

Sport Suit, afternoon and evening Miss Van Dusen.

Afternoon gown, afternoon and evening, Mrs. George W. Cheney.

Evening gown, afternoon Miss Catherine Miller; evening Miss Sweet.

Duvettine coat, afternoon, Miss Eva Thornton; evening, Mrs. John L. Jenney.

ALLIES DRAFT NOTE TO GERMANY ON PENALTIES

Declare Germany Had Not Paid Money Pledged Under Treaty.

SO ACTION IS JUSTIFIED

Poincare Declares Penalties Are In- capable of Giving France the Amount of Reparations due to her.

Paris, Mar. 15.—The reparations commission today drafted a note to Germany declaring that the allied military and economic penalties were legally justified under the Treaty of Versailles because Germany had not paid the amount of money pledged under that covenant.

This allied note was designed as an answer to the German contention that the advance of the allied troops on the Rhine nullified the peace treaty.

German Argument Rejected

The document was drafted at a meeting of the reparations commission this morning. It pointed out that Germany had paid less than one half of the 20,000,000,000 gold marks due from her (under terms of the treaty) by May 1.

The argument of the Germans that the amount had been fully paid was rejected.

(Dr. Walter Simons, the German Foreign Minister in a speech at London offered the allies 50,000,000,000 gold marks indemnity. He contended that Germany already had paid 20,000,000,000 gold marks leaving 30,000,000,000 gold marks to be paid in the future.)

Penalties Inadequate

The present military and economic penalties imposed by the allies upon Germany are "inadequate" of giving France the amount of reparations due her according to former President Poincare in an article printed in the press today.

"The total of the Rhine customs will not exceed 500,000,000 gold marks annually," said M. Poincare. "At the end of ten years, we will find ourselves far from being reimbursed. It is difficult to guess the results of the export tax. The only present valuation of the sanctions is the coercive power they give. If we want to be paid we must take other steps."

JUMPED TO DEATH FROM BROOKLYN BRIDGE

Unidentified Italian Goes Through the Air With Outstretched Arms and is Later Towed to Siftore.

New York, March 15.—An unidentified man was instantly killed when he leaped 100 feet from Brooklyn Bridge into East River. He went through the air with outstretched arms. A passing lighter crossed the spot where he hit the water and when the body, apparently that of an Italian about 50 years old, came to the surface, the head was bleeding. The body was towed to shore.

A torn envelope in the man's pocket bore the name "Vrachycek, 434 East Seventeenth Street, New York" and police concluded that was his name and address.

Former Turkish War Leader Killed in Berlin by Armenian

Berlin, Mar. 15.—Talaat Pasha, former minister in the Turkish government and long a power in Turkish national affairs, was assassinated at noon today. He was killed at his residence in Hardenburg-Strasse by an Armenian.

Talaat Pasha resigned as minister of interior in the Turkish cabinet in October 1918 and disappeared. He was said to have exiled himself.

Talaat Pasha was allied to the Turkish political faction that plunged the Ottoman empire into the war on the side of Germany. He and Enver Pasha were the two principal leaders of the Turkish war party. He presided at some of the sessions of the Russo-German peace conference at Brest-Litovsk which was opened after the Bolsheviks got into control of Russia.

THIRTEEN CASUALTIES IN FIGHTING IN COUNTY CORK

Trouble Continues — British Reprisals With Bombs and Torches in the Kilmallock District.

London, March 15.—An official report in which bombs and the torch were used was reported from Cork County in a dispatch to the Evening News today.

The attack was made by soldiers in retaliation for the shooting of a sergeant. A farmhouse in the Kilmallock district was burned and other buildings were bombed.

Spasmodic outbreaks of shooting continued in many parts of the city this morning following the battle last night when the three civilians were shot dead, three were wounded and five Black and Tans were injured. Five more civilians were wounded by flying bullets.

The battle began with a revolver attack against a raiding party of Black and Tans.

Before the battle began a civilian was severely wounded by the premature explosion of a bomb. The bomb had been prepared for use against the military policemen, but in his excitement the civilian dropped it and it was discharged.

$50,000 ROCKVILLE FIRE; BIG WAREHOUSE BURNED

Building a Mass of Flames When Watchman Nearby Discovers It— Rain Aids Fire Fighters.

The building was a mass of flames when the fire was discovered and the firemen had a hard fight of several hours to extinguish the blaze. Nearly by buildings in the vicinity were saved by the fact that heavy rain fell during the night.

It is understood also that foreign affairs are to come in for more discussion today than heretofore in the cabinet meetings.

Jake L. Hamon Wrote 200 Endearing Appeals to the Girl Now Accused of His Murder.

"The love letters of an autocrat" might well describe the following article obtained exclusively by the International News Service. It includes quotations taken at random from approximately 200 letters written to Clara Smith Hamon by Jake L. Hamon during the "spring time" of their illicit love.

(Copyright 1921 by the Int. News Service)

(Copyright 1921 by the Int. News absolutely prohibited)

Ardmore, Okla., Mar. 15.—"Darling, don't you understand I love you dearly; that my life is wrapped up in you and that I am only happy when with you?" wrote Jake L. Hamon, oil master and Republican leader of the southwest to his "love child", Clara Smith Hamon, now on trial charged with his murder.

Terms of Endearment

"Little Pet," "Kitten" and the "sweetest little person on earth" were the oil king's favorite terms of endearment for the girl who later shared his career and faces a jury in the little court house here, charged with his murder.

Most of them were written between 1914 and 1915 when the accused woman was attending Lexington College in Missouri at Hamon's expense and some of the most of the endearing ones were penned after the girl had signed the contract presented in evidence yesterday by the state in which she agreed to "drop out of the oil king's life on the payment of $1 and other considerations."

Hamon Madly in Love

The letters show that Hamon was madly in love with the accused woman and his thoughts centered on her instead of the wife who sits in the court room. In one letter Hamon told of his wife's arrival in Ardmore and declares she came to kill both him and the girl.

"Mrs. H. came up from Fort Worth Sunday night" he said in this letter. "The night clerk at the hotel, turned her into my room. She found your hat and then the maid told everything that she knew and later more."

"She was trying to have us both arrested for adultery. Had employed old Judge Brown of Ardmore. Had been to all the banks and talking. Sent for Mr. and Mrs. Bryan. Had them talk to her. Said she had come over here to kill both you and me."

Mrs. Hamon on the Scene

"She had been told by some one that you were still in Ardmore and was not going away."

"She moved into the parlor bedroom and stayed two days. I have had one H— of a time. Never was embarrassed like this before in my life."

"I wished several times that the train which brought me back had been wrecked and I had never got here. I will never spend any time in Ardmore from now on. I was glad you were not there to take the punishment I had to."

Fear of Younger Men

Hamon, empire builder and political czar, 20 years older than the girl, was in constant fear that she would fall in love with a younger man, according to his love letters.

In one of his letters he wrote, "I have no one with me in Ardmore. I know where there is one little person who would love to take charge there quick and cold me and when I left Ardmore to go right along with me."

"You know what you must do when you come or we will be both unhappy. Make up your mind calmly and I will do everything to help you possible for me to do."

Age and Looks Worried Him

"If I were younger and better looking it would not be so bad for you but I cannot help my age and looks."

"When I ask the little person to come what will be the answer?"
In another letter he mentions his nephew, Frank Hamon, who later went through a marriage ceremony with the accused woman to give her the Hamon name and thus protect the lovers from scandal.

The "Myrtle" mentioned in one letter is Clara Smith Hamon's only sister, now Mrs. Van Allen James of Los Angeles, California. It reads:

Myrtle and Frank
"I received your letter. Was very much pleased the way you expressed your sentiments toward me.

"Now, pet, keep this in mind, you are the one and only real little person."

"Frank is just a big ugly boy. Not a thing fancy about him and has no money except his salary. I will ask him for his picture the next time I see him. Am afraid he is not pretty enough for Myrtle and that she might not be contented to marry a poor man. I would trade the world to be his age. Then I would make the real little person love me dearly.

In July, 1915
"You are absolutely wrong about my not wanting to see you when you are ill. Little kitten, when I see you I will love you almost to death."

"I want to see you so badly. Can hardly wait."

"I love you more dearly than ever."

In July 27, 1915 he wrote:
"Dear, do you really love me? I really want you, good sweetheart and true, like you were."

"Darling, turn back to me. No other man will ever love you as I do. You are my real life."

Hamon suffered

"Darling please be square with me. You know, dearest, what I expected and what I wanted. You can never realize how I have suffered these last few days. Words cannot express it. There is never a second of time I don't want you with me. Don't get discouraged. Everything will be all right and we will always love each other. I will love you forever and truly want you to be with me."

At another time he wrote:
"You will be my little kitten always, won't you, pet?

I love you dearly and will always live you and you alone, my little girl."

"His Moral Standards"

In another letter he asks her to "live up to his moral standard"

"Be square with me always. You can live up to my moral standards if you try. Never tell me an untruth and don't deceive under any circumstances."

Again he wrote:

"I will come oftener than you want me to. I would like to have you with me tonight to cheer me up and maybe I could induce you to pet me a bit."

Wanted Her at Ardmore

In another letter he offered to send her sister to school and pay the expenses of her mother if she wished to accompany the girl. Later he told her not to pay any attention to "my selfish idea of wanting you always in my business."

On July 17, 1915, he asked her to come to Ardmore. "If you will love me just a little you will know better to do what I want."

He wrote, "for, pet, I want you fat and strong and your health to be perfect, so darling be careful of yourself and don't hurt yourself with study."

ARDMORE COURTROOM
IN AN UPROAR

Near Riot Suspends Hamon Trial When Prosecution Attacks Reputation of Defendant's Mother.

Court Room, Ardmore, Okla., March 15—A near riot interrupted the Clara Smith Hamon trial shortly after it convened this morning when murder fans staged a demonstration against the prosecution.

Attorneys for the prosecution while interrogating a witness attacked the reputation of the defendant's mother.

"The old mother of this defendant is as good an old woman as any who ever bore a lawyer," shouted W. P. McLean, of defense counsel.

The court room was in an uproar. Murder fans arose in their seats shouting angrily and making gestures at the states counsel.

Judge Thomas W. Champion then ordered the court room cleared.

The aged mother of the defendant broke down, sobbing uncontrollably.

A moment later, the pretty defendant burst into tears. She had to be led from the court room.

Bailiffs meanwhile fought with the crowd shoving every person out of the court room.

Spectators refused to move. Bailiffs stood about helplessly.

Sheriff Buck Garrett shouted to his aides to beware of "six shooters."

"Look out for trouble boys," he yelled above the uproar.

Judge Champion then ordered the jury removed to its private room on the fourth floor of the court house.

Court was then adjourned until 11 o'clock.

The fans remained, however.

Overtured Lantern Starts So. End Blaze

About $800 Damage Done in House on Hartford Road—Department Quick to Respond.

Fire was discovered in the house owned by Mrs. Lena Weiss and occupied by Anton Kendall at 452 Hartford Road at 4:30 yesterday afternoon. Three companies of the South End department responded to the alarm which was rung in from Box 13. The blaze was caused when one of the Kendall children, tenants in the house, was looking for some shoes in the attic and overturned the lantern he was carrying at the time.

Hook & Ladder Co. No. 1 was the first to reach the blaze and they soon had the flames under control. The roof of the house was chopped open by the firemen to get at the blaze which was confined to the attic. The interior of the attic was badly damaged by the fire but the rooms in the upper part of the house were mostly damaged by water and smoke.

Household goods were brought from the house and were piled in the yard. The ell part of the house was damaged by water only. The recall was sounded about 30 minutes after the alarm was rung in. The damage was estimated to be about $800. It could not be learned whether there was any insurance on the house or its contents.

Pueblo, Colo., March 15—Four men and a woman were burned to death in a Pullman car attached to a westbound Denver and Rio Grande train south of here early today.

CLARA SMITH HAMON
ON WITNESS STAND

Ardmore, March 15—Court room Clara Smith Hamon, Ardmore's "Woman of Sorrows" today stripped the mask from her romance with Jake L. Hamon, Oklahoma oil magnate and political czar, baring in sordid detail the life secrets of their illicit love.

The "Woman of Sorrows" from the witness stand made a last desperate bid to escape a sentence of life imprisonment which will accompany her conviction of the murder of Hamon.

Murder fans, who staged a riot earlier in the day, fighting to hear her testimony, settled back in their seats. The drama within a drama began to unfold.

A few minutes after she took the stand, the accused woman was handed the revolver which caused Hamon's death. She demonstrated to the jury how she held it, the night a bullet ploughed from its muzzle into Hamon's abdomen.

The first question asked by Attorney McLean was:

"What is your name?"
"Clara Smith Hamon," she replied.
"You are the defendant in this case are you?"

"Yes sir, I am."

"Charged with having killed Jake Hamon?"

"Yes, sir."

"You have examined these letters, have you?"

"Yes sir, I have."

"In whose handwriting are they?"

A—They are Mr. Hamon's.

Q—You received them from him?"

A—Yes sir, I did.

Q—Where were you born, Clara?"

A—Near Norman, Okla., in Cleveland County, I think.

Q—How long ago?"

A—Twenty-nine years ago, last October, the 22nd.

A number of questions then related to her schooling.

"When did you first know Jake Hamon?" she was next asked.

"I have known Mr. Hamon for many years. I don't know just how many years. Ever since I was a girl in Lawton. I first met him when he was pointed out to me and I met him formally some time later."

Did you, after you—while you were out of school—did you work any where?"

I worked for Miller Brothers, a drygoods store in Lawton.

When you went there in 1912 did you know Mr. Hamon?"

I certainly did.

Hatch's orchestra with carefully selected moods representing the periods portrayed in the style show adds a pleasing touch to the effect of the tableaux.

Buyers' Day.

Tomorrow will be buyers' day and during the afternoon the exhibit will be closed to the public.

There will be no style show tomorrow afternoon and models are requested not to report at the hall until evening. A special train of four cars will be run from New York and a special car will come from Boston attached to the noon express.

The Makers of the Show.

The work of arranging the show was in charge of Mr. Henry Creange of New York, head of Cheney Brothers' art department. With him were Signor Mario Fantoni, one of the leading decorative artists in this country, Arthur Waldron, New York's leading specialist in draping and his assistant John Chalmers and from the New York store Ralph James, Arthur Hoffman, Howard Valentine and Robert Kane.

These men were lodged at the Orford and were served with meals at the mill restaurant.

A detail of uniformed firemen is stationed at various points in the hall during the exhibition hours and special policemen are employed to direct the traffic and to keep guard over the precious fabrics in the show. In order to permit easy access to the entrance the parking of cars in Elm street is forbidden during the exhibition.

In the lodge room beneath the stage a ribbon loom is in operation. This is only one-fourth the size of a regular ribbon loom but it serve to illustrate the process of weaving ribbons. At the east end of the same room is a large display of Cheney Silk cravats, mufflers and handkerchiefs.

Much interest is shown in the machinery in operation in the basement. No visitor to the show should leave without seeing it.

Difficult Problem
of Postmasters

Republican Members of Congress Uncertain as to the Attitude They Will Assume.

Washington, March 15.—The Republican membership of Congress is confronted today with the difficult problem of postmaster patronage.

Rep. Fees of Ohio, chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee has sent a questionnaire to every Republican representative inquiring whether the member favors revocation of the executive order issued by former President Wilson placing first, second and third class postmasterships under civil service is taken at the instance of President Harding, who must decide whether the Wilson order will stand or be revoked.

Members of Congress find themselves in a peculiar dilemma. The majority of the members find the recommendations for postmasterships to be an undesirable task, for the recommendations usually lead to factional fights in the home districts. On the other hand the members are not anxious to see the Democratic appointees continue in office while the Republicans remain jobless.

SAYS HE IS ASSESSED FOR OTHER'S PROPERTY

Alfred Johnson Tells Selectmen That Board of Relief Refuses to Correct the Mistake—Board Must Explain.

Alfred Johnson of Edgerton street appeared before the Selectmen last evening at their regular monthly meeting. It appears that Mr. Johnson has been assessed for property which he does not own. In explaining the situation to the Board, Mr. Johnson said:

"I have come before you, gentlemen, for the purpose of trying to find out why I should be assessed for property which I do not own. I have appeared before the Board of Relief and it has apparently overlooked my case. My lots are only 55 feet but I have been assessed for a 60-foot frontage."

Senator Bowers asked Mr. Johnson if he had appeared before the Board of Relief more than once. In reply Mr. Johnson said:

"Not only this year but for the past two or three years I have tried to have this situation remedied but without any results. I really own but 55 feet on each of my lots and which I have taxed me for 60 feet which I think ought to be corrected."

Mr. Johnson's statement caused a bit of excitement at the meeting. Senator Bowers was of the opinion that the incident was closed as far as the Board of Selectmen was concerned. Selectman W. C. Cheney, however, thought differently. He quoted from the general statutes a part of the law which he thought covered the case. Chairman Johnson agreed with Mr. Cheney.

In explaining his stand on the question Selectman Crockett said:

"This is not the first time that complaints have reached me. I don't think a man should be treated like Mr. Johnson has been treated. I think we should do something to help him out of his predicament."

"What I think ought to be done is to hold up the payment of the Board of Relief until they have appeared before this board and explained their actions regarding Mr. Johnson's claim."

Selectman James Aitken who had been sitting quietly and listening to the discussion was of the same opinion as Selectman Crockett. After much debate of the subject a motion was made that the Board of Relief should be requested to appear at the next meeting of the Selectmen and that Town Treasurer Waddell should withhold the checks now due the members of the Board of Relief until after they appeared at the meeting. The motion was carried without a dissenting vote.

According to the deed of the property owned by Mr. Johnson on Edgerton street, he is right in his claim. He has been taxed for property which he does not own and if an error has been made, according to the law as interpreted by Selectman William C. Cheney, he is entitled to have the records made right before he pays taxes.

The outcome of this case will undoubtedly be watched with much interest by the other property owners in Manchester.

Dr. Moore Resigns as Hospital Trustee

Continues Member of Medical Staff—F. A. Verplanck Succeeds Him on Board.

At the regular monthly meeting of the board of trustees of the Manchester Memorial Hospital last evening the resignation of Dr. D. C. Y. Moore was read and accepted and F. A. Verplanck was chosen to fill out the unexpired term.

The services of Dr. Moore have been invaluable in the organization and equipment of the hospital, as the members of the board were without experience and technical knowledge. Now that the work of organization has been completed and the hospital is running smoothly Dr. Moore feels that he should withdraw from the board of management and take a place on a par with the other members of the medical staff. In accepting his resignation the board of trustees passed a resolution in recognition of his efficient services.

Mr. Verplanck will succeed Dr. Moore as a member of the house committee.

CONNECTICUT AND BUBONIC PLAGUE.

Because of a threatened outbreak of bubonic plague on the Atlantic coast the United States Public Health Service urges upon the public health council of the state department of health the pressing need of a rat survey in the coast towns of Connecticut.

The public health service has made a brief preliminary inspection of the waterfront condition in eight of the coast towns and is not satisfied with the results.

The federal report says that unless a rat survey is made now the first notice we will have of the presence of the deadly plague among us is when human cases begin to appear and to be recognized.

It was hinted that the suit will be dropped in New York state and another one filed in California or Nevada.

White Plains, N. Y., March 15.—Argument on two motions in the suit of James A. Stillman, multi-millionaire president of the National City Bank of New York, for divorce from Mrs. Anna U. Stillman, was indefinitely postponed today in the Supreme Court here.

At present the national government is doing all in its power to keep out the plague but its measures cannot be wholly effective without state aid and co-operation.

One Rumor Says Forty Gallons Rescued Peacefully on Bottom of Pond—Town's All Stirred Up Over Incident

There has been an aftermath to the automobile accident, that occurred in Talcottville a week ago last Saturday night which has created quite a bit of excitement in the town.

The Sunday night following the accident three men came to the town about 9:45 in a light touring car from the direction of Hartford.

Their Actions Suspicious. It was plainly to be seen that it was peculiar that these men should come in the night to hunt for a spare tire in the pond when they had been taken the wrecked car away and taken the wrecked car away and nothing was reported missing nor was any attempt made to recover anything from the depths of the pond.

NO RELIEF COMING FOR SMALL SALARIED MEN

Income Tax Law Working Too Smoothly to Tinker With It.

BIGGER MEN PAY MOST

Washington Legislators Do Not Plan to Lower the Percentage of Tax Nor Increase the Exemption Figures.

Washington, March 15.—The groans that are going up all over the country today as belated income tax checks are dropped into the Federal treasury are penetrating Washington. But more penetrating still is the insistent demand for more revenue to meet the burden of government expenditure.

Income Tax Working Well.
The taxation and tariff legislative experts who are now engaged in trying to whip into shape a program of revenue legislation for the new sixty-seventh Congress which meets on April 11 offer little hope that the income tax law would be materially modified under the regime. The income tax law is working smoothly—much more smoothly than some of the other features of the present tax law—and they plan to leave well enough alone. Attention instead will be paid to the correction of the excess profits and surtaxes.

As for the small salaried men, he can look forward to paying the government four per cent. on his income for some time yet, according to the congressional tax framers. It is the belief of framers of legislation as well as treasury experts that neither will be the percentage of taxation be decreased or the individual exemptions be raised by the new Congress.

No Relief for Salaried Men.
Representative Joseph W. Fordney, of Michigan, chairman of the ways and means committee, which has the forthcoming legislation in charge, said today he could see no relief coming for the small salaried man in 1922.

"We do not now plan to decrease the percentage of tax nor increase the exemption figures," he said. "I do not think that the present conditions of the Treasury will warrant any reduction in the income tax percentages on incomes of less than $5,000 anyway."

Representative Longworth, Ohio, also a member of the ways and means committee, and rated as one of the tax experts of the House, expressed similar convictions.

Little Fellows Get Off Light.
At the Treasury Department whose experts are advising with the congressional taxers, it was pointed out that the amount of revenue derived from the tax on incomes of $5,000 and less were small in comparison to what the bigger fellows were soaked anyway.

The Treasury's most complete statistics on the income tax are for the calendar year 1918. These show that of the 4,425,114 personal returns filed for the year, 89 per cent. of them were from persons having incomes of $5,000 or less. This 89 per cent. paid in taxes $143,825,666, or slightly less than 13 per cent. of the total amount of $1,127,721,835 derived from taxes on incomes.

Bulk of Income Tax.
The persons who had incomes of from $10,000 to $25,000 and higher paid the bulk of the revenue derived from the tax on incomes.

The availability of so many tax free securities has led many persons having large incomes to invest heavily in these issues, resulting in a material decrease in the government's revenue. It is the intention of the framers of the new taxation laws to get this money back into taxable channels, rather than tinker to any great degree "with the little fellows" who range around $5,000 and under.

CARPENTIER ASSURED OF FIGHT WITH DEMPSEY.

Grimsby, England, March 15.—"I have received assurance from Tex Rickard that arrangements have been made for me to fight Jack Dempsey July 2 in New York," said Georges Carpentier here today in response to questions regarding his match with the world's champion.

"I've cabled America that I am ready for the contest with Dempsey. Subject to everything being in order I will go into training the end of April and start for the United States some time in May."

"I have a feeling that at last there is a definite prospect of Dempsey and me getting into the ring. I no longer feel that the match is in the air. I'm delighted."

boxing body and the boxing laws of New York state in making his challenge. Under these rules champions are supposed to defend their titles every six months if challenged by approved contenders.

NO FILIPINO POLICY UNTIL AFTER PROBE

Washington, March 14.—The policy of the administration with regard to the Philippines will not be formulated until Major Gen. Leonard Wood and W. Cameron Forbes have made an investigation and reported on Philippine affairs, President Harding today informed Jaime C. De Veyra, resident Philippine commissioner.

De Veyra called upon the President and urged that he set a definite date for the pronouncement of the independence of the Philippines. The President outlined the scope of the investigation to be made by Gen. Wood and Mr. Forbes and informed the commissioner that this inquiry would cover the question of independence for the islands and that no action would be taken until a complete report had been made. The President also stated a complete report had been made. The President also states that there would be no appointment of a Governor General of the Philippines until after the report had been made.

URGES LIQUIDATION OF FOREIGN DEBTS

Washington, March 14.—The growing conviction among administration leaders in Congress that something must be done immediately to lighten the terrific taxation burden under which the nation is now staggering, found expression today in a statement from Senator James E. Watson of Indiana, declaring that European nations should be required to liquidate at once the $10,000,000,000 which they owe the United States.

Senator Watson is a member of the Senate finance committee and is a taxation and tariff legislator of long experience in both House and Senate. His views expressed today were taken as indicative of the course he will urge in the conference with other Senate and House leaders beginning this week. "We should make definite arrangements with our debtors to pay a fixed amount each year, whatever the sum, so that we may have definite assurances of just how much we may expect," said Senator Watson.

Park Theater

Frances Marion, well known scenario writer, who directed Mary Pickford in "The Love Light," which is now being shown at the Park Theater besides developing a very splendid director, also became quite proficient as an animal trainer.

During the filming of the picture she directed a bird, a pig, a cat, a flock of chickens and supervised the close-ups of a monkey.

After Miss Marion struck her directorial stride, and the newness of her directorial experience wore off, she kept two cameramen and two sets busy at work every day. The picture was well rehearsed in advance and while Miss Pickford and Miss Marion were filming one scene, the lights, etc., were arranged on the other, thus giving them an opportunity not only to do the scenes in which Miss Pickford appears but also the scenes in which she does not.

Life on a dilapidated shanty boat along the banks of the Mississippi River and the adventures of its humble owner, is the unique theme used by Ellis Parker Butler in his story "The Jack-Knife Man," the latest picture to be released by King Vidor through the First National Exhibitors Circuit. This delightful little tale of the love for fellow man is announced by the Park as its attraction for Wednesday and Thursday.

In "The Jack-Knife Man," Mr. Butler, who has been accredited the best humorist since Mark Twain, has given us a locale little known to the great body of American citizens. And he has drawn all of his characters in the picture from real life which greatly adds to their attractiveness.

From Ossining on the Hudson, through the mazes of Manhattan and down to the aristocratic section of Long Island weaves the subtle of Fate in H. M. Van Loan's story, "The Wonderful Chance," which is Eugene O'Brien's latest Selznick production announced as the feature of the Park theatre's program for next Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. O'Brien will essay a dual role in this photo-drama, portraying the part of "Swagger" Barlow, an ex-convict and gentleman crook, and Lord Birmingham, an English nobleman. In support of the star is a most capable cast, with dainty Martha Mansfield playing opposite Mr. O'Brien.

STOKES DIVORCE TRIAL.

New York, March 14.—Evidence concerning Mrs. W. E. D. Stokes' relations with Edgar T. Wallace, wealthy California oil operator, will be admitted into the suit now being tried here in which Stokes, elderly millionaire, is suing his young and vicious wife for divorce. In his complaint Stokes named seven alleged co-respondents.

A bitter fight took place in Judge Finch's court this morning when Attorney Martin W. Littleton for the defense sought to prevent the admission of the Wallace evidence. Littleton charged that the prosecution had brought up the Wallace matter purely to lengthen the trial and to further dishonor the name of the defendant.

Littleton insisted that the court refused to admit the Wallace testimony on the ground that it had previously been refused admission by the court of special term. Littleton declared heatedly that the defendant has been accused of adultery in 16 instances and five states.

Judge Finch informed the counsel for the defense that the court would grant the defense necessary adjournments and otherwise protect their rights in view of the ruling in favor of the admission of the Wallace evidence.

Herbert O. Smythe of Stokes counsel, argued that the alleged evidence concerning Wallace would be brought out anyhow in Stokes' second suit that it would figure prominently in Stokes' planned action to gain custody of the two Stokes' children and that the evidence was permissible under that portion of the suit alleging indiscretions by Mrs. Stokes' with "unnamed" men.

Smythe asserted evidence concerning Wallace was obtained about a year after Stokes' original suit was begun, and that Martin J. Littleton, Mrs. Stokes' counsel, offered to allow the evidence included in the present action if $2500 additional counsel fees were allowed.

Stokes places great confidence in the alleged Wallace intimacies with Mrs. Stokes to gain his divorce.

"We intend to use the Wallace evidence to show that Mrs. Stokes is not a fit person to have custody of her children, as allowed by a Denver," said Smythe. "We deny the defense's contention that the Denver decision was conclusive. The welfare of the children may allow such a case to be reopened at any time during the children's minority.

Mrs. Stokes was acquainted with Wallace a year prior to her marriage, Smythe stated.

WALLACE NUTTING WILL LECTURE HERE MARCH 21

Will be Given at Watkins Brothers—To be Illustrated by Stereopticon Slides.

The art lecture to be given by Wallace Nutting at Watkins Bros. will be held next Monday. There will be no admission fee. The public in general is cordially invited.

The second floor in the Watkins Building is to be cleared and is to be arranged to seat a large number of people. A screen will be erected as Mr. Nutting's lecture is to be illustrated.

Mr. Nutting is a professional man turned out to grass by the physicians. Formerly an amateur, he took up outdoor picture making as a kind of knitting work. He is a man who in earlier life was thought to be more or less of a failure as far as a profession was concerned. He had a talent for art and had done some amateur work, and found that he could readily adapt himself to this work. Realizing the natural gift that he had, he set out to develop it.

Being in the nature of a genius, he developed a new type of water color painting that has proved to be in a class of its own in the realm of art.

By the use of the isochromatic plate, anastigmatic lenses and platinum paper, he has prepared a picture basis in black and white which serves as an unexcelled basis or drawing for the water colors applied by hand. The result is far more perfect than an artist of the highest skill could produce without a photographic base. This type of water color painting is a scheme produced by Mr. Nutting. It has met with great success. His pictures have been exhibited in all the leading museums of fine arts in this country. They have been judged as masterpieces by our best art critics.

Every subject is directly from nature and has been gathered in beauty hunts from Maine to California and in Europe and the Orient. Mr. Nutting is well acquainted with the scenes in New England and many of his best pictures are reproduced from picturesque settings found among the hills and mountains of this part of the country.

The pastoral subjects have been pronounced the most beautiful ever produced. The apple blossoms in his pictures of New England orchards in the spring are a continual delight to look upon.

The figure subjects or "Colonials," old-fashioned persons in old-fashioned settings, used in some of his pictures were originated by Mr. Nutting.

Besides his keen interest in art he has taken much interest in the collecting of antiques and has a remarkable and invaluable collection, and he has also been instrumental in the restoration of several old Colonial houses.

Notice to Consumers

Owing to the high costs of coal and other supplies, which prevail this Winter, The Hartford Electric Light Co., from whom we obtain our electric current, have been forced to make a considerable increase in their rates.

We are therefore obliged to advance our rates and we give notice that all bills after January 1, 1921, will be net, the 10% discount which we now allow being discontinued.

Bills will be payable within 15 days of their date. We also give notice that beginning December 13, 1920, we will discontinue our present practice of giving our customers free lamp renewals.

We regret that present high costs have forced us, in common with other public utilities generally throughout the country, to make advances.

UP TOWN OFFICE

To accommodate our customers we have opened a branch office in the Herald Office on Oak Street. Customers may pay their bills there and we will also have a supply of standard lamps and fuses for sale, at reasonable prices, to our customers.

Spectacular Emerald Rally Sends Company G to Defeat

Willimantic Quintet Furnishes the Thrill That Comes Once in a Lifetime.

Once in a decade—and sometimes it does not occur as often as that—a great crowd has the privilege of witnessing a great contest. It may be baseball, football, fighting, horse-racing or—but what's the use of jotting them all down. It happened to be basketball in Manchester last evening. And the greatest gathering that has packed the "Rec" this season saw the greatest basketball battle that has ever been played here. Close to 750 fans and fanettes—and that's some crowd to crowd into the "Rec" court—saw the crack Emeralds of Willimantic give the kind of exhibition one reads about. Coming from behind in the first half, with the score 19 to 10 against them, the hoopers from the Thread City electrified the fans with a super-exhibition of basketball and trimmed Company G by a score of 36 to 25. The Emeralds demonstrated beyond any shadow of doubt that they are one of the classiest and fastest teams in '11 old New England. If the Emeralds—and this is not criticism—could shoot as well as they pass—they'd be too fast for semi-professional basketball. That's all. As an old fan expressed himself in the vernacular of fandom: "They're there."

It was a whirlwind contest all of the time, from the beginning to the end. The game started with the speed of a rifle bullet and the force of a tornado. Higgins was the first man to tally, with a double counter from the north side of the hall. And then the mighty Dowd set the crowd on edge with a nifty little shot from in under the hoop, the pass from Sheehan, who was clear down the end of the hall, being of a spectacular nature. From out of the gathering of flashing figures emerged the shifty Dowd, and the crowd went wild when he saw-sawed through an Emerald three man defense and scored again from in under the basket. "Yump" Johnson then took a hand in the game by scoring from mid-air. But "Chief" Johnson, undaunted, resorted to long distance tactics and got away with it twice. It looked like a tight game when Bellair and Normandin scored, but the G boys started another spurt "Joey" Madden cutting loose this time, and with two minutes to go in the first half the score stood 17 to 10. To put an added thrill to the half, "Snooks" Dowd flipped a back-hander through the hoop.

But the second half. Ah! There was an exhibition. It can be told for ages that the second half was all Emerald. There is no question about that. Picketts, who had been covering the shifty Dowd, gave up the job and went on a shooting rampage, gathering in no less than five double counters for his team. It was a session where pass work predominated and team work came into its own. Rough was the play at times, but the crowd enjoyed it. Well executed plays and scintillating shots by the visitors sent them from the cellar position and they climbed up, up, until the score stood 24 to 23, with five minutes to go. During the resting period bedlam broke loose among the fans and fanettes and they yelled for more baskets—Manchester baskets.

When play was resumed, the crowd got the baskets, plenty of 'em. But they were on the other end of the scoreboard. One, two, three, four they came, practically in a row. And the scoreboard showed the figures of 32 and 23, with the Emeralds at

A WOMAN'S BACK

The Advice of This Manchester Woman is of Certain Value.

Many a woman's back has many aches and pains.

Ofttimes 'tis the kidneys' fault.

That's why Doan's Kidney Pills are so effective. Ask your neighbor! Many Manchester women know this.

Read what one has to say about it:

Mrs. J. Gabbey, 49 Edward St., Manchester, says: "I am very seldom without Doan's Kidney Pills in the house. I find them a much needed medicine when I am taken suddenly with an attack of backache, caused from overwork or a cold. Sometimes dampness affected my kidneys. Many a time, especially in the morning, my back has felt so stiff and sore I could hardly straighten up. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I usually buy at W. H. Grant's Drug Store, give me great relief."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply get for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Gabbey had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

the big end. "Snooks" Dowd added another to the Manchester score, but it was the last. The Emeralds added just two more and the heart breaking battle—it was a heart breaker—ended. Let the past be forgotten and let the future bring what it may; the Emeralds of Willimantic trimmed Company G of Manchester last evening, and who can say that it was luck. Here's the score:

Manchester	Willimantic
Right Forward	Bellair
Left Forward	Normandin
Center	Higgins
Right Guard	Larson
Left Guard	Picketts
Score: Emeralds 36, Company G 25.

Goals Emeralds: Picketts 5, Larson 4, Higgins 3, Bellair 3, Normandin 3. Co. G: Dowd 5, Johnson 4, Madden 3. Fouls: Dowd 1.

A Few Sidights

Shift Eddie Quish from forward to guard, next season, and watch him. He played a wonderful game at guard last evening. It was his best performance this season. 'Tis well said: "He did his bit."

Sheehan, crack Inter-State guard, worked hard. Darned hard. New faces, however, made a big difference to Tommy. His team mate "Snooks" also gave a splendid exhibition, despite a few sarcastic remarks from the Thread City section. Somehow or other the notion still seems to prevail—that when a real star is engaged for an exhibition, he is supposed to clean up things. Strange country this.

BALTIC ACES DEFEATED.

Atlas Team Evened Up Series With Baltics Last Evening—Final Score 32 to 19.

The Atlas basketball team evened up their series with the Baltic Aces at the Recreation Center last evening by trimming the visitors, 32 to 19, in the preliminary game to the Emeralds-G game.

In the first half the visitors had the best of the going and at half time led by the score of 9 to 5.

The last half was fast all through. Stowe caged the ball five times in the last half and played a whirlwind game. Mills, star center for the visitors, had to retire in the middle of the last half on account of an injury. Couch also played a fine game for the winners.

The lineup:

Atlas (32)	Baltic (19)
Stevenson	Ridgeway
Right Forward	Hunt
Left Forward	Mills
Center	Dietz
Right Guard	Cervini

LOCAL GIRLS WIN.

The girls' All-Manchester Dowling Team defeated the Emeralds three games last night at the Wooster alleys. The Emeralds are considered one of the strongest teams in the Wooster League. A number of fans went to Hartford to see the matches and back the Manchester girls last night.

Next week they will meet the All-Hartford team, one of the leading teams in the league.

REPORTS HE HAS FOUND POSITIVE CURE FOR EPILEPTIC CASES

Worcester, Mass.—Michael Nicholson, formerly a medical student in Greece, says he has discovered a cure for epilepsy, of which he was at one time a victim. He came to this country three years ago from Sparta.

So confident are local men in the efficacy of Nicholson's remedy that a fourteen-room summer residence is being transformed into a sanitarium to administer the treatment. Dr. Stephen A. Bergin, a Worcester physician, is president of the sanitarium company. William K. Paterson is treasurer and Nicholson is secretary. The institution has been named Fern-reed.

The treatment of epilepsy will be revolutionized if the medical student's tests are successful, Dr. Bergin said.

The sanitarium has its first patients. A man who was taken there has been suffering from the disease for thirty-two years and for the past three has been a patient in a State institution.

PITTSBURGH CLUB CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS

New York, Mar. 15.—"Pittsburgh's chances in the coming National League race were greatly enhanced by the acquisition of Rabbit Maraville and I have high hopes for the team."

George Gibson, manager of the Pirates, wired this modest comment to the International News Service today.

"From my viewpoint the race is going to be a close one with at least half a dozen teams plugging along neck and neck. I feel sure that we will be in the thick of it."

"As the Pittsburgh club stands today it is better balanced than it has been within the last three years and we have some good young recruits who are showing exceptionally well. I don't know just now how the team will line up in the opening game but we have plenty of seasoned material even though we did have to give up Southworth, Nicholson and Barbare for Maraville."

WHIST AND DANCE.

To be Given by Ladies of Charity Thursday Evening at 8th District School.

The Ladies of Charity have been compelled to transfer their whist and dance which is to be held Thursday from the new hose house of the Manchester Fire Department to the Assembly Hall of the 8th District school on School street. The large advance sale of tickets has made this change necessary.

As soon as returns began to come in from the different members who had the tickets for sale, the committee realized that the accommodations at the hose house would not be large enough to hold those who had purchased tickets. Arrangements were made to secure the Assembly hall in the 8th District on School street and last evening all arrangements were completed.

The Knights of Columbus orchestra has been engaged to furnish music for the dancing and refreshments will be served during the evening.

Beauty or Abundance?

Which is more important to the farmer, a strain that produces beautiful individual specimens or one that gives an abundant yield of consistent good quality? Do you want blue ribbons—or bushels per acre? A new way of judging farm produce is described in

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

A. R. Rice tells of agricultural exhibits where corn, for example, is judged on its germinating and producing qualities—not on its good looks. It sounds like a sane idea.

THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN is the business farmer's weekly—it is edited to help make the farm pay. And a strain of corn or of hogs or of beef or dairy cattle that produces the yield that brings in the profit is the strain that pays the business farmer to grow. This national service weekly of progressive farm methods always reports to its 800,000 prosperous readers the developments and improvements that will show on the farm bank account. Every week it brings a helpful and inspiring message—on each Thursday of the next 52 weeks it will visit you—if you send me just $1.00 today.

Routine Matters Up Before the Selectmen

Dates for Hearings on Walks Set—Sign Posts Needed—Centering the Trolley Tracks.

The sidewalk hearings for Russell, Henry, School and Florence streets are scheduled to come before the special meeting of the Board of Selectmen on March 23.
