CROWDS STAND IN THE RAIN TO WATCH PARADE

Manchester Honors Its Soldier Dead in Drizzle; Day Passed Quietly Here; Theater Crowded.

Manchester stood in a drizzling rain yesterday to honor its soldier dead. And three faces were missing in spite of the shower. The parade was late in starting but it came along up Main street about half past three.

Many Autos. Space was taken up all along the street by the autos from the Center to the terminus and not even one parking stall was vacant. Traffic Officer Rudolph Wirtala preceded the march and cleared the way for the parade.

Novelty Introduced. A novelty was introduced into the parade when the drum and bugle corps of the G. A. R. followed by Robert Richardson and Robert Von Deck of the Salvation Army band and they showed the effect of long practice and hard work.

Rainy Day. Memorial Day dawned with lowering clouds. Those who had not left town on Saturday or Sunday decided to stay indoors. As the day progressed a drizzle of rain fell that kept hundreds off the streets.

Few Outdoors. Mill workers who on ordinary years would have spent the morning hours in working on lawns and gardens, gave up their plans and stayed indoors.

ANTI-EVOLUTION LAW IS PUT TO CRUCIAL TEST

Scopes Case Argued Today Before Supreme Court of Tennessee — Change of Sentiment at Nashville.

State Capitol, Nashville, Tenn., June 1.—The world's most famous misdemeanor case reached a new climax today before the supreme court of Tennessee when final arguments were heard on the constitutionality of America's first anti-evolution law.

The law was attacked as invalid by counsel for John Thomas Scopes who was fined $100 by a rural jury in Dayton, Tenn., last summer for teaching evolution to a high school class.

Change of Sentiment. The new setting of the case became significant because it brought a change of sentiment, whereas in Dayton, the Scopes defense found little sympathy for their arguments among the town's citizens and less still from members of the bar, here the local attorneys freely expressed their opposition to the law.

Reconcilable. "We all know that thousands of people in this very state, who are devout Christians, believe at the same time in the divine origin of man and in his development from a lower form of life," said Malone.

Deny All Science. In his application, he said, the law would deny the teaching of all scientific theories, if they dwell upon the development of a lower form of life, even though they were reconciled to the story of divine creation.

IN NEW YORK

New York, June 1.—Butlers and servants in the homes of the prosperous New Yorkers make a neat bit of pin-money peddling the master's cast-off clothes to a large group of stores that deal in slightly used apparel.

So brisk is the trade that an entire commercial center has sprung up on Seventh avenue between Sixteenth and Nineteenth streets, though there are thousands of such concerns scattered about the city.

The regular patrons of these places are a critical lot and demand the peddler to make to keep the name of the original owner undisturbed on the identification tag to be found in most inside pockets.

A suit once worn by a banker, broker, lawyer, or such always brings an extra several dollars.

The shrewd dealer generally arranges to have a picturesque history for a suit of unusual presentability and it has been said that the fiction has extended to the placement of a "good name" on an identification tag.

The other day I heard a slick-tongued salesman telling a highly ornamented tale of how a certain suit had been worn but twice by "so-and-so" who "you know never wears a suit longer than a week and has his stuff made by the finest tailors."

As a matter of fact suits bearing the mark of some of the city's most expensive tailors do find their way into these shops via the head butler.

NO-NOX

MOTOR FUEL

STOPS KNOCKS

PUTS CARBON TO WORK

PUTTING the old demon, carbon, to work sounds like a paradox—nevertheless that's just what GULF No-Nox Motor Fuel does and here's how it happens: Compression is power. The more compression the more power. Greater compression is secured by reducing the displacement or space in the combustion chamber. Carbon deposits materially reduce this space—old time gasoline would not withstand this added carbon compression—clicks—knocks—pings or detonations of distress quickly following sudden acceleration or heavy pulls.

No-Nox withstands higher compression—stops the knocks or detonations, thereby increasing engine efficiency. GULF No-Nox and Carbon Deposits work together for more power and greater mileage.

Turns Mountains Into Mole Hills

This guarantee goes with it: GULF No-Nox Motor Fuel is Non-Noxious, Non-Poisonous and no more harmful to man or motor than ordinary gasoline—that it contains no dope of any kind—that the color is for identification only—that it positively will not heat the motor, winter or summer.

GULF No-Nox Motor Fuel is priced three cents per gallon higher than ordinary gasoline—and is worth it.

NEW HAVEN SUFFERS MOST FROM WILD AUTOMOBILES.
 Automobiles did more property damage in New Haven last year than any other municipality of the state, according to a statement prepared by the state motor vehicle department subdividing, according to town, the $2,130,977 damage estimated to have been done throughout the state during the year.
 The damage in New Haven caused by 2,718 accidents was put at $214,929, while Hartford, which had more accidents, stood second in the matter of property damage, made by the department using reports of accidents submitted by operators involved, and department investigation wherever deemed necessary. The varying estimates of property damage written in accident reports by the operators are not relied upon.
 Third in order with respect to property damage stood Bridgeport, with $178,727 destruction reported to have been done by 2,061 accidents. The damage done in other municipalities of the state was as follows: Waterbury, $98,242 in 1,484 accidents; New Britain, $94,586 in 886 accidents; Stamford, $83,725 in 655 accidents; Norwalk $51,630 in 498 accidents; Meriden, $51,590 in 533 accidents; New London, $37,795 in 467 accidents; Norwich, $33,820 in 415 accidents; Bristol, $24,841 in 240 accidents; Torrington, $18,425 in 225 accidents, and Ansonia, $13,218 in 184 accidents.
 Most of the damage reported had to do chiefly with destruction of the motor vehicle themselves, in whole or in part, but the damage to other property is included. It will be noted that the damage per accident in cities on the main highway from Boston to New York by way of Hartford and Meriden, is larger than in most other cities.

HOME RUN, TRIPLE AND DOUBLE MADE BY JOHNNY WRIGHT

But S. M. H. S. Loses to Meriden 9-8 When Filpeck Hits Homer in Tenth.

Filpeck's home run with one out in the tenth inning brought defeat to the South Manchester High school baseball nine in Meriden Saturday afternoon. It also practically eliminated Manchester from any chance of winning the Central Connecticut High school league bunting. The score was 9 to 8.

The game was a nip and tuck affair from the start to the finish. Each team scored within one of the same number of hits. The batting of Johnny Wright was the high light in the play of the Silk City team. He hit a double, triple and home run. The latter came in the fourth inning, with two runners on the paths (F. Lupien and Farr) and two batters retired. Meriden evened the score at three all in the same frame.

Manchester scored a run in the eighth when Wright tripled and scored on Wiley's single. Meriden tallied five times in its half but Manchester evened the score at eight all in the ninth. The latter runners advanced a peg on Farr's sacrifice fly. Then Quish singled and Winsler walked. This action scored two runs. A moment later Wright connected for his third home run, a double that cleared the bases.

Then came the fatal tenth inning when Filpeck smote the home run ending the game. The summary:

Manchester		Meriden

Holland, f	6	0	6	0	0
Foley, 2b	6	1	2	1	2

Home runs: Wright, Filpeck. Struck out by Wiley, 6; by Civello, 10. Base on balls off Wiley, 6; off Civello, 4.

OUTDOOR BOXING AT CAPITOL PARK

Hundreds of boxing fans from Hartford and vicinity are expected at Capitol Park tonight for the third of the series of summer outdoor amateur boxing shows.

The management today announced an added bout, one in which Bat Battalino, clever Hartford featherweight, will take on Ben Teller, of New York, now in New Haven for the summer season.

Battalino is one of the best amateurs in the state and has competed successfully at Newark and in other cities outside Connecticut against the best in the simon pure ranks.

Holyoke, Hartford, New Britain and New Haven are represented in the entrants and the bouts cover a wide range of classes from the fly-weight division up.

Among the boys who have entered is Johnny Clinch of New Britain, brother of Jimmy Clinch. Jimmy it is said, will desert the amateur ranks soon and may be in the opening preliminary on the Kaplan-Garcia card at Hartford, June 28.

LAST NIGHT'S FIGHTS
At Cleveland, Ohio—Harry Willis defeated Jeff Clark. Atlantic City heavyweight, in a six round exhibition.

At Cedar Rapids, Iowa—Pinkey Mitchell, Milwaukee welterweight, defeated Jimmy Finley, Louisville, Ky., ten rounds.

After being beaten by Carl Mays in the opener, 7 to 2, the Pirates took the afternoon contest by a score of nine to five, driving Red Lucas from the box.

Mantelli Hurls Javelin 150 Feet For New Record

For the first time in track history of the South Manchester High school, a New Britain high school athlete who entered the local ranks just recently, took third. In the mile run New Britain took first in slower time than Manchester had previously done. McClusky took second for Manchester, but seemed a bit out of color.

Although beaten for the first time this year, the locals went down fighting, as the score will show. In a way they carried off a large part of the glamor, for they broke three records and tied one. Coach "Petey" Wiggen is undismayed at the locals' set back, and looks for a victory this week in the big meet of the year, the inter-scholastic track meet with Meriden, Bristol and West Hartford. Manchester won this meet and one leg on the cup, which is the trophy to the winner, last year. The locals are anxious to get a stronger hold on the trophy and will be at full strength for the event, for it is practically assured that Hall will be ready for duty again by the end of the week.

The summary:

100 yard dash: Bray, McGrath, Grybowski, all of New Britain. Time, 11.

ADVENTURES of the TWINS

by OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

"Oh, my poor, poor shadow!" cried the little Whiffet. "It didn't get lost at all! It was stolen. And now it has to work for old Snoosy. It will be all worn out, my poor shadow will."

"Don't cry," said Nancy. "Shadows can stand a good bit. But come along. We'd better be moving."

Pretty soon they came to a Totem Pole.

The Totem Pole had six faces and when the three travelers came along all the faces opened their mouths and said, "How do you do?" at once.

The Twins and the Whiffet were too surprised to answer for a minute, but finally Nancy got out. "We're pretty well, thank you. And dropped a curtsy."

"That's fine," said the first face on the Totem Pole. "And now what can we do for you?"

"I lost my shadow," said the Whiffet. "Do you know where he is?"

"I'll ask my next neighbor," said the first face. So he asked the second face and the second face said, "I'll ask my next neighbor." And each face said the same thing until the last face was reached at the top. And it said, "Mister Snoosy jumped over the moon last night and sprained his leg. He's gone to the doctor's."

The next face passed down the word to the next one, and so on down the pole to the bottom. Then the bottom face said to the Whiffet, "He's gone to the doctor's."

"What doctor's?" asked the Whiffet. And all the faces asked, "What doctor's?" on up until it came to the last face.

"Let me see," said that one. "I think it was his leg he sprained, so likely it was the carpenter instead of the doctor."

"Likely it was the Carpenter instead of the Doctor," went on down the line until the answer got to the bottom.

"Where does the carpenter live?" asked the Whiffet.

Up went the question from one mouth to the other until it came to the ears of the face at the top of the Totem Pole. Then down came the answer again a step at a time. "Three leagues and a goose step from the saw-mill."

"Thank you!" said the Whiffet. "We'd better be going."

And as they left, the Twins and the little rag-bag boy heard the answer stepping down, saying at each step, "You're welcome!"

"Three leagues and a goose step!" said Nick. "What's a goose-step?"

"I'll show you," said a big brown and black goose. "Follow me."

So they followed the goose and came at last to the saw-mill. Then he turned to the right and they followed him some more.

"Three leagues," he said stopping. "Here we are."

The Carpenter had been out riding on his saw-horse. But when he saw that company had come, he got off and tipped his hat.

"Did Master Snoosy come here?" asked Nick. "And if so, has he gone? And if he's gone, when, and where to?"

"My goodness! You sound like a school-board," said the Carpenter. "I suppose he always thinks 'boards,'" whispered Nancy, "being a carpenter."

"But," went on the Carpenter. "Snoosy was here and I made him a new leg. He just left for the South Pole."

"Poles too!" whispered Nancy. "That's what being a carpenter does to one. Turns him into a wooden head."

"I want my shadow!" whimpered the Whiffet. "Is the South Pole far?"

SENSE AND NONSENSE

What's going to happen to used cars if the manufacturers keep on slashing the prices of new cars?

The question now on the floor is:—Which has caused the most profanity, Ford or radios?

How can the girls complain if a young man drives his car while clad chiefly in his shirt sleeves. They seem to have pointed the way.

Traffic Cop: What's the idea of billing up traffic? Why don't you use your noodle?

Sweet Miss: Didn't know the car had one.

Gus, the hack driver, can't understand why they need "fire plugs" in these days of automobile fire engines.

Experience is a good teacher but those who endeavor to but locomotives off the track seldom profit by the lesson.

Sing a song of market,
Of shoppers in a motor car,
And no place to park it.

Don't think a motorist is profane when he says it's a "hell of a road." Maybe he only means it's paved with good intentions.

"Where'd you get the name Teddy for your car?"

"There are no doors. You simply step-in."

Persons run over by automobile balloon tires may escape serious injury, says a motor magazine. Still, the principle of the thing will never make the practice popular.

Why not give medals for bravery to movie actors who have to take part in the "humorous" races between rickety flivvers and motorcycle cops!

"Steady, you barely missed running over that woman. If she hadn't jumped—"

"Oh, that's all right. It was my wife and the doctor said she needed exercise."

Famous last words: Watch me do 60 miles an hour!

There was a girl who had a car and everyone would date her. I wonder if she knew that they just liked her carburetor.

It takes all a person's brains to get out of trouble so they shouldn't use them to get in. Dick, aged five, thinks in terms of automobiles rather than those of natural history. Startled by a dog, running swiftly and barking gruffly, he described the event vividly, exclaiming: "Daddy, he came tearing down the road with his cut-out open."

Locomotives are being made larger, but the flivver are game.

You can't tell. The number of his spare tire doesn't indicate how much he owes the filling station.

A good suggestion from the West is that signs be erected at railroad crossings reading: "Better Stop a Minute Than Stop Forever."

It is pretty hard nowadays for an auto to hit a flapper without it showing.

"Ethel: "Indeed."
Marjorie: "Yes, and I accepted him in the hospital."

A PUZZLE A DAY

One of the mail slogan posters in a Nashville branch postal station was damaged by the wind. The head clerk started to make another one. He had just cut out all the necessary letters and placed all the consonants in the proper order when the noon whistle blew. So he left the uncompleted poster on his desk. If you were called upon to do so, could you complete the poster?

Last Puzzle Answer

The fewest number of cigars the captain of the Irene could have had in his glass jar was 169. This quantity when divided by 3 gives 56 and 1 left over. When it is divided by 7 it gives 24 and 1 left over. When divided by 8 it gives 21 and 1 left over. And when it is divided by 6 it gives 28 and 1 left over. The method of solving a problem of this type is to find the smallest number which will contain 3, 7, 8 and 6 evenly and add 1 to that amount.

DUMP AGAIN ABLAZE.

The School street dump gets afire so often that fire fans in the South End, so anxious to rush to the scenes of a blaze, lose all interest when the rumor spreads that there is a fire near the dump.

This happened about 10 o'clock Saturday night when the rubbish caught fire in the usual "unknown" way. A lot of waste paper was blazing but there was no danger to the houses in the vicinity, so the firemen allowed the blaze to burn itself out.

WAPPING

HERE, MR. DIOGENES, IS MAN YOU SEEK.

George Reidman, of 627 Center street, evidently believes in being honest judging from his action yesterday.

Mr. Reidman found a pocket-book containing $29 in bills and an automobile driver's license owned by Charles McBride, of Ridgewood street.

The finder took the billfold to the police station and the owner later called for it and reimbursed Mr. Reidman. He did not know he had lost it.

In favor of the Wapping team. Henry Pasqualine of Avery street has just purchased a new Overland six sedan, through the Pickett Motor Sales Company.
