SHOT TO DEATH IN NIGHT CHASE ON DERBY ROAD

White Slave Aspect Suspected in Mystery Murder of Waterbury Man Near New Haven.

New Haven, July 2.—Another "white slave" murder is believed by police here to have been committed on the busy Derby road in Orange early today. The body of John Constanti, alias Constanzo, 35, of 19 Union street, Waterbury, was found lying beside his car by Derby police. Constanti had been riddled with revolver bullets, evidently in an effort to reach safety in a grove near-by.

Lawyer Heard Shots
Derby police were notified early this morning that Robert J. Woodruff, a well-known attorney of New Haven, and his family had been arrested by revolver shots. They investigated and found the car with the man's body lying near.

Coroner Eli Mix started an investigation into the case just before noon. Meanwhile police of the entire Naugatuck Valley aided the state police in seeking the man's state police had been determined that Constanti had been shot from behind.

Records today disclosed the fact that Constanti was arrested in April during a raid by Waterbury police on his home. At that time a gun was found in his pocket as well as $4,000 in cash. He was convicted of keeping a gambling house.

Further investigation unveiled the fact that Constanti left his garage in Waterbury early last evening intending to go to one of the Woodmont beaches, but was seen about Waterbury as late as ten o'clock.

Believe Woman Involved
Apparently he drove down the Naugatuck valley intending to cross the Derby road toward the shore, and was stopped by his slayers at the point where his road left the main road.

Police believe that a woman was involved. They conjecture that the woman tried to get money from Constanti, and that when he refused she obtained male aid and followed him to the point where he was slain. There, they believe Constanti saw that he was unable to escape in his car, drew up to the roadside, and started to run. Then he was shot down and his slayers fled.

EIDLITZ CONCERN TO BUILD YALE LIBRARY

New York Contractors Who Erected Travelers Tower
Get Six Million Dollar Job.

New Haven, July 2.—Announcement is made that Marie Eidlitz & Son of New York have been awarded the contract for the new six million dollar Sterling Memorial Library at Yale University, and that Sperry & Treat Co. of New Haven, have been awarded the contract for the $900,000 William L. Harkness recitation hall, also for Yale University.

Marie Eidlitz & Son built the Travelers Insurance Company building and other large structures in Hartford, and the vast Harkness quadrangle at Yale. Sperry & Treat company have built many Yale structures and now are at work on the Harkness theatre and C. W. Blincham hall.

Work on both new structures for Yale will be started immediately according to university officials. The library is expected to be finished in a little more than a year, they announce.

MELBA! MELBA!

To the Manchester girls that means something like, for instance, "a banana royal." A peach Melba means a sort of iced confection with ice and peaches and dainty foderols.

But that name "Melba" means something else in this universe. It means the greatest singer in the last two generations, Dame Nellie Melba, most noted of lyric sopranos.

A Manchester man played one season with Dame Melba.

Stormy Petrel

Mrs. Jessie M. Budlong of Newport, R. I., is in the news again. Having been quiet since her famous "seige" in a New York apartment, she now is in divorce court answering her husband's charges of cruelty. He says he still loves her.

SAYS MILLIONAIRE BACKED RUG THEFT

Of Three Thieves Held in Stealing of Ford Gift, One Makes Accusations.

Detroit, Mich., July 2.—With the stolen Persian rug, gift of Mr. and Mrs. Edsel B. Ford, back in its case in the Institute of Arts, and three suspects in their theft jailed, police were hunting today for clues to the identity of an anonymous New York millionaire implicated by one of the trio as instigator of the robbery.

Girl in Plot
Those held gave their names as Paxton Howard, 19, Solomon Cohen, 59, and William Thackeray, 22.

In Howard's room detectives found two luggage checks. Hurrying to the Union station the officers claimed the goods, one of which was empty, while the other contained the stolen treasure. Howard then confessed and implicated the others.

Howard's sweetheart, whose name he would not divulge, was held during a raid by Waterbury police on his home. At that time a gun was found in his pocket as well as $4,000 in cash. He was convicted of keeping a gambling house.

DUCE'S PLAN WORKS, LONG HOURS BEGIN

Mussolini Tells Consumers His Aim is Low Prices in Place of High Wages.

Rome, July 2.—Premier Mussolini's great economy drive is well under way. Reports gathered from many sections of the country show that, while the increased hours of labor had not been formally decreed, they were voluntarily adopted in many trades without a ripple of opposition.

The premier has given promise that these increased hours will be normal as soon as the nation is again on a stable financial and economic basis.

For Lower Prices.
Back of the drive is a note for economy and reduction of prices. Mussolini has met with a committee of the National Confederation of Consumers and has pledged his support to all measures to reduce prices.

The reduction of the cost of living is more important to the workers of the nation than illusory increases in salary with prices ever mounting, the premier declared.

Mussolini declared that he would aid in the campaign to eliminate the middleman's profit and strive to bring the producer and the consumer together.

COOLIDGE'S FISHING WON'T COST A CENT

Al Smith Sends President a Paid-up License For the Term of His Vacation.

Albany, N. Y., July 2.—When President Coolidge begins his summer vacation at Osgood Lake, in the Adirondacks, he can fish to his heart's content without paying one cent for a fishing license.

Governor Al Smith today wrote a letter to the President expressing pleasure that he was to spend the summer in New York state and enclosing a fishing license.

"Bearing in mind that the largest fish are those that get away, we all hope you will not miss any," the governor wrote.

As soon as the President is established at Osgood Lake, the governor will motor up and extend a personal welcome to the state.

BILL HARPER TRIMS DAN IN MARBLE CHAMPIONSHIP.

Hartford, Conn., July 2.—Willis Harper, of Bevier, Kentucky, today won the marble championship of the United States in defeating Dan Gore, of Springfield, Mass., in the finale. He won by the decisive score of 13-0, 13-0, 9-4, 13-0, 0-13, 10-3. In two sets he ran the total of thirteen without a miss.

GIVES LIFE FOR BROTHER

Washington, July 2.—Robert C. Stuart, 12, saved his brother, Harold, a year older than himself from drowning at the expense of his own life. He succeeded in turning him over to a companion, became exhausted and sank.

BELIEVE MEHL, BROOKLYN LAND OWNER, SLAIN

Police Seek Body of Missing Man On Theory He Was Victim of Scheme to Get $400,000 Estate.

New York, July 2.—John W. Mehl, wealthy Brooklyn land owner, was murdered and his body was probably buried somewhere near his home, is the opinion of police who today started a search for the corpse.

The authorities are prepared to dig under the various barns on the Mehl estate, and to search through sand pits in the neighborhood where the body might have been thrown.

Serota Silent
Samuel Serota, who is held without bail on charges of feloniously assaulting Mehl's sister Grace and his daughter Ruth, and who admits being present during the attack, today refused absolutely to name his companion on the night the assault took place.

The police are working on the theory that telegrams received by Grace Mehl, signed by her brother's name, since his disappearance on April 29, were fictitious, and were designed to counteract any suspicious inquiries which might arise in her mind as to Mehl's fate.

After $400,000 Property
Serota, an ex-convict, for some time had been trying to acquire title to Mehl's property, valued at $400,000. The theory that the attack was for the purpose of gaining possession of the land is complicated by the fact that Mehl's wife, with whom he has not lived since 1913, would also have to sign the deed to make the title clear. This she has already refused to do.

MAKES QUEER CHARGE IN GAINES MURDER

Lawyer Says Someone Close to Sheriff's Office Killed the College Girl.

Seattle, July 2.—Prosecutor Ewing Colvin today announced that Wallace (Bob) Gaines will not face trial until next month on the charge of murdering his pretty 22-year-old daughter, Sylvia.

When informed that Robert MacFarlane, Gaines' attorney, asserted that "someone not far removed from the sheriff's office committed the crime," Colvin today became somewhat wrathful.

"If MacFarlane has any evidence to sustain such an accusation I wish he would turn it over to me at once," said Colvin; "otherwise such statements should cease."

MADE IT, DRANK IT TILL HUSBAND CALLED COPS

Mrs. Polowski of Norwalk Locked Up, Still Seized, On Polowski's Complaint.

Norwalk, July 2.—Andrew Polowski, of Springfield, today caused the arrest of his wife, Verona, on charges of making liquor and being intoxicated. Police went with Polowski to his home after he had complained to headquarters and found evidence, they said, to support his charges.

The woman is locked up for trial tomorrow while the police are holding a still, mash and liquor seized in the house.

8TH DISTRICT BUYS PRESIDENT A CAR

At a meeting of the directors of the Eighth School and Utilities district held yesterday afternoon it was voted to purchase a Ford roadster equipped with delivery body for the use of President of the District, F. A. Sweet. The automobile will be used in going to and from various sewer construction jobs.

The biggest sewer job in the district has recently undertaken and perhaps will undertake for some time is now under construction.

The question was to have been brought before the last district meeting, but it was left out of the call. Purchases under $1,000 can be made by the directors. The Ford was bought through the L. P. Fitzgerald agency in Rockville.

BRIDGEPORT P. O. CLERK HELD FOR MAIL THEFT

Bridgeport, July 2.—John P. McMahon, 32, of 503 Brook street, was released under bail of $1,500 pending a hearing before United States Commissioner H. J. Lavery here on July 9 on a charge of stealing from the mails. McMahon was for several years an employe of the mailing section of Bridgeport post office, was arrested late last night.

'REGULAR' MAY BE OPPONENT OF NYE

Decision Yet to Be Made Whether to Fight Radical Nominee For Senate.

Washington, July 2.—President Coolidge's chances of controlling the Senate of the Seventieth Congress, to be elected in November, were regarded here as distinctly more slender today as a result of the victory won by Senator Gerald P. Nye in the North Dakota primary.

Nye's nomination was accepted as another administration defeat, similar to that suffered in Iowa when the flaming insurgent of the corn belt, Smith W. Brookhart, triumphed over the veteran Albert B. Cummins. While not as spectacular as the defeat of Nye, but it had been hoped that L. B. Hanna, who was the Coolidge manager in North Dakota in '24, was put up against the youthful Nye and was backed solidly by powers in Washington. Friends of the President had a decision for a Hanna victory to offset that of Brookhart in Iowa.

They saw today but little hope of preventing Nye's return, for a Republican nomination in North Dakota is traditionally equivalent to election. Between now and November a decision will be made whether to put up a regular to oppose the insurgent in the election.

Obscure Country Editor.
Barely 34 years old, Nye was an obscure country editor when Senator Ladd died a year ago. Governor Soble rejected the advice received from Washington to appoint a "regular" and selected Nye for the unexpired term, which so nettled administration leaders here that for weeks they withheld his credentials, and refused to seat him. Ultimately, after a bitter fight, he was given his seat—largely through Democratic votes.

Farm bloc leaders hailed Nye's nomination with joy today. They interpreted it as another "warning voice" from the grain belt to the administration that something must be done for the farmer. Nye supported all measures for agricultural aid.

Nye's Lead 10,000.
Blamark, N. D., July 2.—With more than two-thirds of the returns from North Dakota's primaries tabulated, United States Senator Gerald P. Nye is leading his opponent, former Governor L. B. Hanna, in the race for the Coolidge candidacy for the republican senatorial nomination in both the short and long terms by approximately 10,000 votes.

Nye's election has been conceded by Hanna.

Governor A. G. Orlic, Non-Partisan league, was also conceded the gubernatorial nomination on the republican ticket.

NEW CRISIS LOOMS IN BRITISH COAL STRIKE

Laborites Appeal for Resistance to Proposal For An Hour Longer Day.

London, July 2.—The Laborite motion for a vote of censure on the Baldwin government was defeated this afternoon by a vote of 256 to 96.

The motion for a reply to the king, acquiescing in the continuation of the state of emergency, was carried by a vote of 244 to 82.

The Trades Union Council this afternoon appealed to all affiliated unions to join in resisting the government proposal to increase the working hours of the miners, charging that the government is trying to "starve the miners into submission."

Boston Young Woman Is New Housekeeper Of White House

Ipswich Mass., July 2.—The busiest woman in this fashionable little North Shore town today was Miss Ellen Riley, who had just received word of her appointment as the new housekeeper of the White House.

Miss Riley, charming and thirty, daughter of William J. Riley, head of the local Chamber of Commerce, once a school teacher but lately manager of a Boston department restaurant, was "packing up" and getting ready to depart on the "big adventure" of her life.

"Really, now," said Miss Riley, "I mustn't discuss my new post, my plans or anything else. If anything is said I think the statements must come from the White House officials."

My first job, of course, will not be at the White House itself. That's going to be remodelled, you know, understand I am to join the presidential party at the summer White House in the Adirondacks.

STOP SHOOTING, NEW ORDER TO RUM SLEUTHS

Andrews Puts Ban On Firing On Runners; Coast Guard Warned to Stop Attacks On Yachts.

Washington, July 2.—Placing an absolute ban on firing on automobiles along the international borders by customs and prohibition agents, Gen. Lincoln C. Andrews, prohibition chief, took steps today to protect the huge tourist traffic that moves over the Canadian line every summer.

Customs collectors were notified not to permit agents to use firearms in chasing bootleggers and smugglers.

All Over Country.
It was indicated that Andrews probably would notify prohibition administrators in all sections of the country of the ban on firearms in chases, owing to the great number of automobilists moving about the country during the summer.

Because of the number of innocent persons killed or injured by prohibition agents and others endeavoring to enforce the law, Andrews decided that it was in the best interests of enforcement that the use of firearms be prohibited except in extreme cases.

Although officials admitted that some bootleggers and smugglers might escape from the authorities as a result of the order, it was decided that automobile traffic, particularly on the Canadian border, must be adequately protected.

Admiral F. C. Billard, commandant of the Coast Guard, has issued instructions to rum patrols that the lives of pleasure seekers aboard yachts must be safeguarded against use of firearms against rum runners in essential, Coast Guardsmen have been notified to employ the utmost discretion and to be sure of the identity of the craft before shooting.

In a letter to the presidents of yacht clubs, Billard put owners of pleasure craft on their honor not to violate the prohibition law.

"BUD'S" SHIP WEDDING LAWFUL; MUST PAY

Fisher Touched For $250 a Week, $10,000 Law Fees, in Separation Suit.

New York, July 2.—H. C. "Bud" Fisher, famous cartoonist, was ordered by the Supreme court to pay his wife, Mrs. Aedita Fisher, formerly a countess, alimony of $250 a week and counsel fees of $10,000 pending trial of her suit for separation.

Justice Ford, commenting on Fisher's affidavit, which in one case expressed doubt concerning the validity of the marriage, said: "They are married as lawfully as if the ceremony had been performed in a cathedral instead of aboard the Leviathan."

U. S. WILL NOT SUBMIT, THE LEAGUE IS TOLD

Won't Stand for Outside Control and Supervision of Its Military Forces.

Geneva, July 2.—The United States will never accept international control and supervision of its military forces, it was proclaimed in the eventual decision is made in the event of a delegate, today told the disarmament commission in session here.

"The application of disarmament measures should depend on the good faith of the nations," Nolan said, and the United States would not submit to outside control of any body created by the convention.

NOISY WELCOME FOR BOBBY JONES, GOLFER

New York, July 2.—Bobby Jones, world famous golfer, disembarked from the Aquitania at quarantine at 11 a. m. today, and was immediately taken aboard the municipal ship Macon. A brass band on board the Macon sounded a noisy welcome for the Atlanta youth who recently won the British open championship—the ultimate test of golfing ability.

Also on board the Aquitania were seven other American golfers who had turned in scores among the ten lowest in the British open.

An official welcome was tendered the triumphant Jones at the Battery, after which a demonstration was staged at the City hall.

PONZI THREATENS TO KILL HIMSELF

Wires Mass. Governor He Will Take Only Life if Not Allowed to Leave U. S.

Boston, July 2.—Charles Ponzi, ex-financial wizard, today telegraphed to Gov. Alvan T. Fuller that if the chief executive does not allow him to leave the United States he will commit suicide.

Ponzi added that he is a subject of persecution and for that reason believes the governor should deal with him leniently.

Gov. Fuller being out of the city, the telegram was not made public. "Placed on file."

"The telegram has been placed on file," remarked Herman A. McDonald, secretary to the governor. Belief was expressed at the State House that Gov. Fuller would take no further action on Ponzi's request to be deported.

ANTI-EVOLUTIONISM BEATEN IN SENATE

Blaise Tries to Get Gag Put on Radio But Amendment Is Rejected.

Washington, July 2.—The great controversy over evolution reached the floor of the august Senate this afternoon—and the Senate went evasive.

Senator Blaise, (D., So. Car.), saying he was "on the side of Jesus Christ," introduced an amendment to the Dill radio control bill which would have prohibited discussion of evolution over the radio.

The Senate rejected his amendment by a viva voce vote amid much merriment.

SUBWAY STRIKE ON MONDAY THREATENS

New York I. R. T. Men Vote to Go Out Unless They Get Big Pay Increase.

New York, July 2.—New York City today faced the possibility of a serious subway strike. Unless the Interborough Rapid Transit Company grants 752 motormen and switchmen employed by the company a substantial increase in wages the strike will take place next Monday at midnight. This was decided at a meeting of about 400 men affected, held last night.

A strike would seriously cripple the subway service, on which hundreds of thousands of New Yorkers rely upon for transportation to their places of employment daily.

WORCESTER LIGHTING CO. TO MAKE BIG REBATE

SIX MILLIONS SPENT BY DRYS TO RETAIN LAW

Huge Sums Used Since Pro- hibition, Wheeler Tells Slush Committee — Judge May Face Trial.

Washington, July 2.—Towering above the expenditures of even the major political parties, the Anti-Saloon League of America poured out $6,487,291 in the last six years through thirteen state organizations in its efforts to keep prohibition in the constitution, Wayne B. Wheeler, its general counsel, revealed today to the Senate slush fund committee.

Wheeler brought to the committee financial reports from ten states, where $3,269,970 was spent in that period. Previously he had given the committee reports showing $3,217,321 in the states of New York, New Jersey and Ohio.

Where Spent.
The new states and the funds spent for "educational" and "campaign" purposes on behalf of prohibition were: $1,356,439 in Illinois; $400,073 in Wisconsin; $347,294 in Indiana; $317,634 in Massachusetts; $301,510 in Iowa; $218,835 in Kansas; $190,111 in Virginia; $60,034 in North Carolina; $35,000 in Michigan, and $30,980 in South Carolina.

Wheeler took the stand to conclude his testimony about the political activities of his national dry organization.

Questioned about his activity in putting over the Volstead act, Wheeler said: "I should say that Volstead did more work in getting it in shape than any other person. He sat up nights with it."

"Yes, but you helped draft it, didn't you?" asked Senator Reed, Democrat of Missouri.

"Yes," the state expenditures, which Wheeler filed, was one of the high spots in his testimony.

In Illinois, the disbursements were $155,701 in the year ending May 1, 1920; $224,835 to May 1, 1921; $181,297 to May 1, 1922; $203,578 to May 1, 1923; $217,924 to May 1, 1924; $193,097 to May 1, 1925; and $180,002 to May 1, 1926.

In Wisconsin, the disbursements were: $70,103 in the year ending May 1, 1920; $57,886 to May 1, 1924; $65,232 to May 1, 1922; $65,064 to May 1, 1923; $58,251 to May 1, 1924; $48,885 to May 1, 1925; and $34,650 to May 1, 1926.

In Massachusetts, the expenditures were: $57,665 in 1920; $45,246 in 1921; $41,833 in 1922; $54,230 in 1923; $46,464 in 1924; $51,200 in 1925 and $21,152 until June 1, 1926.

In Iowa, the state organization spent $67,956 in 1919; $47,386 in 1920; $50,770 in 1921; $49,513 in 1922; $45,757 in 1923; $41,464 in 1924.

Reed and Wheeler resumed their clash of wits when the wet senator questioned the dry leader about his "lobbying" activities in the halls of Congress.

"You got everything you wanted?" asked Reed.

"Not by any means," Wheeler testified the Anti-Saloon League had sought to raise a $50,000 campaign fund prior to the opening of the Congressional primaries this year. His testimony confirmed a news service dispatch of last March, which Wheeler, at the time denied, that the funds, however, was unsuccessful, Wheeler said.

"I appealed for $50,000 fund to match the $50,000 fund the wets were raising," the dry boss admitted. "But we spent only $25,000." Wheeler said he sent $200 to Wisconsin, $200 to Oregon and $150 to Minnesota.

Hobson Got $171,249.
Wheeler gave the large audience a shock when he produced documents showing Pearson Hobson, hero of the Merrimack, was paid $171,249.68 by the League between 1914 and 1923 for prohibition activities. The amounts were: $2,100 in 1914; $10,625 in 1915; $12,450 in 1916; $17,275 in 1917; $18,336 in 1918; $21,037 in 1919; $22,800 in 1920; $23,000 in 1921 and $18,325 in 1922.

Wheeler admitted that Congressman William D. Upham, Democrat of Georgia, had been paid fees by the league while prohibition legislation was pending in Congress.

"Nobody thinks that influenced his attitude on prohibition," Wheeler explained.

May Be Perjury Charge.

KIWANIANS BUSY AT HEBRON CLUB

Local Professional and Business Men Help to Prepare Camp For Needy Kiddies.

Manchester business and professional men, mostly members of the Kiwanis club, cast aside their dignity last night and pitched in for the Community camp at the Hebron Game club to help prepare the place for the first shipment of needy children who are to spend two weeks there.

There were straw houses and all the rest that goes with a gang of diggers. Those who were the weakest were given the positions of boss and timekeeper while the others, a little more husky, wielded picks and shovels at the trenches for the water pipes that are to be run.

Carpenters Busy A gang of carpenters employed by the Manchester Construction Company, Holger Bach and E. L. Hohenthal, Jr., worked on the new dormitory. Construction on this building has progressed so far that it will be finished when work is completed this evening.

Photos Snapped Pictures of the Kiwanis club in action, the first of their kind ever taken, were snapped by Arthur Hohenthal, who would try to have them appear in leading magazines throughout the country to show that members of the Kiwanis club are not altogether lazy.

The first crowd of children, numbering 20 or more, will arrive at the camp on Monday, and will stay for two weeks. After that, three more groups will stay there for a similar period and the camp will remain open until September.

The following men have donated their time and services to help build the camp buildings: William Knofo, Walter Flavel, John Walenta, Herman Stanley, Sherman Duffy, Albert Knofo, George Garbini, Hedrick Moss, Fred Knofo, E. L. G. Hohenthal, Jr., Dwight W. Willis and Mrs. Hazel Hotchkiss Wightman first won the all-comers title for America in 1924.

Wimbledon, Eng., July 2.—Miss Mary K. Browne and Miss Elizabeth Ryan today won the Wimbledon Ladies' doubles when they defeated Mrs. Kitty McKane Godfree and Miss Evelyn Colyer, 6-1, 6-1.

The victory was the second scored by an American women's doubles team at Wimbledon. Helen Wills and Mrs. Hazel Hotchkiss Wightman first won the all-comers title for America in 1924.

Miss Mary Suchler curseys—Broadway style—to thank the Polo Grounds judges for declaring her winner of the "world championship" Charleston dancing contest staged for the United Jewish Fund benefit. She received a big cup from "Peaches" Browning.

Chicago, July 2.—Eleven men, including the Capone brothers, Al (Scarface) and Ralph, and Earl (Hymie) Weiss, lieutenant of the late Dion O'Banion, beer baron, today were indicted on election fraud charges. All the indictments resulted from disorders in the April primary in Cook county.

PANAMA CANAL TOLLS 25 MILLIONS FOR YEAR Balboa, July 2.—Nearly $25,000,000 in tolls was paid by vessels passing through the Panama canal during the fiscal year just ended, it was announced here today. The sum is larger than that received during the same period in 1925, but slightly below the canal record of 1924.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL WAS A SUCCESS The strawberry festival held by the ladies of the Lutheran Concordia church on the lawn at the church, corner of Winter and Garden streets, last evening, was a great success. The "Salvation Army" band of twenty-six members proved to be a magnet in drawing the crowd. They sang and played a number of sprightly pieces. It was an auspicious night for an outdoor affair and a large supply of ice cream, lemonade and straw berries served in a variety of ways was disposed of.

WEDDINGS CUT LAST MONTH TO SIXTEEN

Poor: Dep. Cupid! During the last month he has suffered more than during any month of June in the past five years.

Only 16 marriages took place in Manchester last month, it was revealed today by Town Clerk Samuel J. Turkington. This is practically a 50 per cent drop. The town clerk says the decrease is due to short time at the mills.

Following is the table of Manchester marriages during the past five years in June:

Table showing number of marriages in Manchester from 1921 to 1925.

SIX MILLIONS SPENT BY DRYS FOR LAW

(Continued from page 1.) William S. Vare, who won the senatorial nomination. Although Wayne D. Wheeler and Ernest H. Cherrington were summoned to give further details about the political activities of the Anti-Saloon League of America, even greater interest centered on the committee's probable action toward O'Connor.

The case against the Philadelphia magistrate apparently was completed when Senator George Wharton Pepper took the witness stand last night to solemnly swear that O'Connor told him all about the alleged offer to the Pennsylvania election.

Pepper Backs Reporters. Pepper substantiated the testimony previously given by three Philadelphia newspaper men, who said O'Connor had boasted to them of the offer from the Vare camp at a time when he was supporting the Pepper-Fisher ticket.

Pepper Further. Pepper went a trifle further, testifying that O'Connor told him the offer—amounting then to $75,000 in cash—had been made by Albert M. Greenfield, Philadelphia capitalist and Vare "angel," after Vare had introduced them and put his approval on whatever offer the capitalist would make.

NEW SUMATRA QUAKES London, July 2.—Earthquakes have recurred in Sumatra, according to dispatches from Padang today. New shocks were felt in Sumatra today and many houses are on the verge of collapse, the dispatches stated. Tremors last Sunday and Monday caused widespread damage and a considerable death toll in Central Sumatra.

SUPERB FIREWORKS DISPLAY ASSURED HERE FOR JULY 4

New Haven Firm Announces Program — American Flags, Countless Rockets and Palm Beach Bombs.

Manchester's Fourth of July fireworks program was announced today by the Connecticut Fireworks Company of New Haven, the firm which has the contract for the big display. A list of the principal pieces is given below, with brief description, and examination of the list shows that a really beautiful exhibition is in store for this community on Monday evening, July 5.

There will be innumerable rockets, with their noisy upward swish and loud explosion and great showers of colored fire. There will be beautiful set pieces, including a handsome American flag, also the latest Palm Beach bombs, and revolving pieces, and representations of the blue-green, foam-crested Niagara Falls in colored fire.

The fireworks have already been brought here by truck from New Haven and are carefully stored in a dry place.

Opening Display
The opening display will consist of three powerful aerial bomb shells; loud explosions, and emitting showers of colored fire at great altitude, bursting into the National Colors, red, white and blue, and terminating in the set-piece, a beautiful American flag of fire.

Then will follow the pieces specified and described below, rockets and bombs intervening constantly between the set pieces.

American Orchestration
Consisting of many palms, composed of six standing pieces, very attractive. A genuine mosaic, at first moving slowly, then changes in colors and moves more rapidly in white silver sparks, while its third changes will be a great surprise, when it will throw a golden shower. Will give a beautiful scene. Its length is about fifty yards long.

Finale
Twenty bomb shells will be fired in succession with all kinds of colors, giving a strong attraction for the spectators and a great surprise as well.

On the Playgrounds
The fireworks will be on the Jackson street playgrounds under the auspices of the Manchester Improvement club. The public is contributing gifts of cash and the zeal is not far off. Prompt responses from those who have not contributed will aid the finance committee.

DANCE Sat. Night, July 3 Turn Hall Krieski's Orchestra. ABOUT TOWN

Miss Bernice Lydall of Hudson street gave a picnic yesterday at Sunset Hill for her piano pupils living on the south side of the town. Tomorrow afternoon she will entertain her pupils living at the north end at her home.

Mrs. C. O. Wolcott of North Main street left today in company with the family of her daughter, Mrs. Hubert Peck, of Hartford, to spend the summer at the latter's cottage at Crescent Beach, Niantic.

Captain Joel M. Nichols, who has been confined to his home with illness for the past ten days, is again able to serve his customers at the Manchester News Shop on Depot Square.

South Manchester Lodge of Moose will meet tonight in Tinker hall at 8 o'clock instead of on Monday evening, July 5.

A party of local people motored to Seaside yesterday to call on Mrs. C. H. Barber, widow of Rev. C. H. Barber, who was for many years pastor of Seaside Congregational church. Mrs. Barber is at present visiting her daughter's family, Rev. and Mrs. George B. Hawkes and their three children.

The piano pupils of Mrs. Martha Meyers of 58 Bigelow street gave a recital at her home yesterday afternoon. After the recital refreshments were served and games played.

Mrs. James Ivers of Easthampton is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. Francis P. Handley, of Hudson street.

Two trolley cars, filled with more than 150 children and their parents, left the Center this morning for the annual Sunday school picnic of Elizabeth Congregational church at Elizabeth Park, Hartford.

A chimney fire in a house owned by Abel Jacumin on Middle Turnpike East, was extinguished without damage at noon today by the Manchester Fire department.

A daughter was born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Ivar Carlson of 55 Summit street. Mrs. Carlson was formerly Miss Irene Johnson of 130 West street.

DIVER ON BOTTOM, TO TALK OVER THE RADIO
London, July 2.—Having exhausted most of the novelties in broadcasting, the London Station "2 L" will on Monday broadcast a speech delivered by a diver, speaking into a microphone in the helmet of a diving suit at the bottom of the Thames river.

LOCAL BOY APPOINTED A PHYSICAL DIRECTOR "Izzy" Wexler Gets Position in New Haven Junior High School.

"Izzy" Wexler, formerly of Manchester, and of late, Waterbury, has been appointed director of physical education at the Troup Junior High school in New Haven. It was learned today. He will assume his duties in September.

Wexler is a graduate of the South Manchester High school and also of Arnold's College in New Haven. At the Elm City institution Wexler received a B. S. P. E. degree. He was also a member of the Sword Society, the highest honorary organization.

In addition to these honors, Wexler was prominent in sports. He was manager of the Arnold's basketball team and a member of the tennis team. While at the local high school, Wexler was one of the stars on the tennis team.

FIREMEN'S TEAM WINS FROM COMMUNITY CLUB Does the Kaplan-Act, 9 to 4—Bill McGonigal Hurt.

The Firemen took the measure of the Community Club team last night on the North End Playground in a one sided game by the score of nine to four. The second inning spelled disaster for the community team as was afterwards proven in the innings later in the game. The firefighters hit Wright of the community team at will in this frame and when the inning closed the fireladdies were leading with a comfortable six run advantage. The community team endeavored to even things up in the fourth but failed. In the fifth stanza the firemen chalked up three more. In the last and seventh inning the community team again made a desperate rally and for a time it looked as though it would be successful but the endeavor only netted them two runs.

Kellar, McGonigal, McCarthy, Brainard, Thompson and the Brennan brothers were each responsible for a run or more for the firemen.

Wilson, Keever, Wright and Griswold scored for their team. Bill McGonigal was replaced by Crooks in the seventh inning after sustaining a painful injury while running for a fly ball in right field. Mr. McGonigal was taken home and medical examination disclosed a pulled tendon, which will necessitate him being around on crutches for a few days. Firemen ..... 150 030 0-9 C. ### EVEN STRANGERS IN TOWN ATTEMPTING TO "KID" US

A stranger in town, a fireman, from where Fords are made, was in town yesterday. Naturally every bit of fire gossip and news was of vital interest to him. He picked up The Herald and read avidly the news about the North End fire where a woman happened to be bottling beer when the firemen arrived.

A Manchester fire official was talking to him. "This North End fire," quiered the stranger, "was it not a still alarm?"

"Might be in Michigan," answered the local man, "but we make our beer without a still in the east."

POLICE COURT

Because of an accident when a Ford car driven by Patrick Henderson ran into one owned by Sven Anderson, the former was in the police court this morning on the charge of driving while under the influence of liquor. Henderson was placed under arrest by Sergeant John Crockett. In court this morning he entered a plea of nolo contendere. He was represented by Attorney William S. Hyde.

After the facts in the case had been brought out, Attorney Hyde told the court that it would be a hardship not only to Henderson but his wife and five children to impose the usual fine for this offense. The minimum fine in such cases is $100 and costs, amounting to in the neighborhood of $120. Mr. Hyde thought the ends of justice would be met if a suspended jail sentence was imposed. Judge Johnson agreed with Mr. Hyde and imposed a jail sentence of fifteen days and then suspended the sentence.

The judge instructed the clerk to inform the state motor vehicle department that he recommended both Henderson's registration and driver's license be suspended indefinitely.

The charge of speeding against Milton Briggs, a 19-year-old young man from Hartford, was nolleed this morning on recommendation of Prosecuting Attorney Hathaway.

65 Million Spent On Motoring In Connecticut Last Year

Hartford, July 2.—An investigation by the Iowa State College has shown that 10 cents a mile pays all the cost of operation of the average car, it has been unofficially estimated that some $65,000,000 was spent for the operation of motor vehicles in Connecticut last year.

Gasoline tax returns, considered together with the average motor efficiency, have indicated that motor vehicles were driven about 650,000,000 miles in this state last year. The Iowa institution's research has brought out that to operate the average car one mile there is an expense of 1.61 cents for gasoline, .31 of a cent for oil, .98 of a cent for tires, 1.24 cents for maintenance, 3.16 cents for depreciation, 1.24 cents for interest, .31 of a cent for insurance, .83 of a cent for garage costs, and .59 of a cent for license charges.

The costs vary according to the size of the car. One car was found, a light four-cylinder touring model, which can be operated for 7.05 cents a mile, which is the minimum shown by this survey. The maximum cost is 13.15 cents a mile, for the operation of a big four-cylinder touring car, which takes nearly 2 cents' worth of gas for every mile traveled and depreciates at the rate of 4 cents a mile. Thirty per cent of the operation cost for a composite car is for depreciation. No car was found which took less than a cent's worth of gas for each mile traveled.

HUGE NEEDLE STRIKE IS ALREADY IN FULL SWING

All the 40,000 Garment Workers Quit Machines in New York.

New York, July 2.—The biggest conflict in the history of the needle trade in New York City was in full swing today.

Almost to a man and woman, 40,000 garment workers, members of the New York Coat and Dressmakers Union, affiliated with the International Ladies' Garment Workers, have answered the general strike call.

Not a machine was in operation today in the shops affected by the walk-out, which cripples one of the most important industries in the state.

Practically Complete
"The strike is practically 100 per cent perfect," Louis Hyman, chairman of the strike committee announced. "We hope for an early peace, but we are prepared for a long struggle."

As their first move, union leaders announced, picketing of the warehouses of jobbers, who control the manufacture and sale of 75 per cent of the cloaks made in New York, will begin Tuesday.

GIRLS' SWIMMING CLASSES.
Swimming periods for school girls will be started at the School street Rec next week. The first period will be held on Tuesday and the next on Thursday. Beginners will enter the pool at 9:30 in the morning, the intermediates at 10:10 and the advanced at 10:50. These classes will be under the direction of Miss Laura Glidden, who is a member of the American Red Cross Life Saving Corps and has taught swimming at Kansas University. Swimming suits will be supplied at the Rec but children must bring their own caps for novelty. ### POLICE TO ENFORCE FOURTH ORDINANCE

Strict enforcement of the ordinance pertaining to pre-celebrations of Fourth of July which will be officially observed on Monday, will be the aim of the local police, it was learned today.

Reasonable celebrations will be permitted from 4 o'clock Monday until midnight. The discharging of firearms at any other time will constitute a violation of the law and according to the statutes is liable to a maximum fine of $5.

It is probable that the police station will again be crowded this year. It was last Fourth. Youths were brought in for violations. The majority of them were released in the morning but several were held for trial.

It was stated that no rough tactics would be allowed. The police will be out determined to keep order.

The fireworks will be on the Jackson street playgrounds under the auspices of the Manchester Improvement club. The public is contributing gifts of cash and the zeal is not far off. Prompt responses from those who have not contributed will aid the finance committee.

The Greatest Advance in Fifty Years WINDOW SHADES That Are Washable

TONTINE SHADE CLOTH—
Absolutely waterproof, easily washed and can not be damaged by wind or rain.

What housekeeper hasn't wished hundreds of times that she could take her window shades down and wash them. Until now it has been impossible.

But a recent discovery brings a window shade that rain, snow or the elements can not damage. One that you can wash spic and span with soap and water. A window shade that is non-cracking, non-shrinking and non-sagging. One that retains its fine gloss and mellow color despite time and hard wear.

We have made exhaustive tests and the results prove every claim.

The Cost Is But Slightly More

The upkeep is almost nothing—will wear for years.

Today, Madam, we offer it to you.

It is Dupont Tontine Washable Shade Cloth and it is now sold in Manchester at this store. We invite you to become fully convinced of its merits.

There never has been such a shade cloth before. Soap and water keep it perpetually new; nothing but willful abuse can damage it. It comes in all desirable single and duplex colors and in widths up to 72 inches. No modern home is complete without it.

Call, phone or write—for complete details. A representative will take measurements in your home, upon which estimates are based. No obligation.

Scrub it with soap and water. It will come out fresh and clean with no damage to the texture or color.

RAILROADS SEE NO END ELIMINATING GRADE CROSSINGS

Would Cost 12 Millions and Would Take 300 Years—Some Blame Motorists.

New York, July 2.—If we would eliminate all present grade crossings along the greater railroads of the country, it is estimated, it would cost $12,000,000,000 and it would take 300 years to accomplish.

And even then we'd have more grade crossings left on the roads than the number with which we began.

That's the anomaly of the accident situation at railroad crossings.

During the last year for which figures are available, 708 grade crossings were eliminated at a cost of about $70,000,000. But in the same time 4,560 new crossings had cropped up, leaving more than five times the number at the beginning.

In view of this situation, railroad and safety officials are depending on the gospel of safety to reduce accidents between automobiles and trains.

That doesn't mean that the roads and government authorities aren't continuing the elimination of grade crossings at important intersections. In New York alone, $300,000,000 has been appropriated, yet that will pay for eliminating only 2,000 of the 80,000 crossings booked for this work.

More emphasis, however, will be placed on education of auto drivers and instilling in them the factor of caution.

A recent national survey of the causes of grade crossing accidents denies the general belief that most crossing accidents are due to physical hazards, such as obstructed view. The figures show that 63 per cent of such accidents happen where the view is open, and 70 per cent of them happen in daylight.

Besides, most of these accidents happen at crossings with which the drivers are familiar. And 14 per cent are due to motorists running lam into the sides of trains, several cars back of the engine!

Boy Scouts Invited to March in Hartford Parade.

The celebration of the 150th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence of the United States in Hartford will be in the nature of a mammoth parade and exercises at Bushnell Park. The Red Men of Hartford will have charge of all the details. The Boy Scouts of Hartford Council, including all Manchester Scouts are invited to march in the parade. Representatives from the lodges of Red Men throughout New England will be expected to take part in this affair. It will doubtless be one of the biggest times in the history of Hartford and should be of great interest to everyone.

Three silver cups will be awarded as first, second and third prizes to the Scout Troop who has the largest percentage attendance and best general appearance of uniforms and equipment and the best showing in the march. It is recommended that the Scout troops of Manchester who are interested will go to Hartford in a body. The parade will form in front of the State Library on Capital Avenue and will start promptly at 1:30, daylight saving time.

Camp Pioneer. Scouts wishing to attend Camp Pioneer at any time during the summer should send applications with registration fees immediately to Scout headquarters in Hartford. The number of Scouts attending each week will be limited to 100. The applications will be accepted in the order that they are received at Headquarters.

ESCAPES LIONESSES

Johannesburg, South Africa.—From Rhodesia comes a story of a lioness' attack on a missionary and a baby's fortunate escape. Rev. Nigel Arnot was asleep in his tent when a lioness put her feet inside and mauled him. The animal then seized the bed on which the missionary's baby son was sleeping and dragged out the boy and the bed. The bed collided with an ant hill, and the lioness bolted, leaving the baby unharmed.

WALTER L. MAIN CIRCUS TO HAVE NOTED ARRAY OF FORTY CLOWNS

One of the greatest arrays of clowns ever carried on tour by an American circus is found with the Walter L. Main Circus this year. There are forty of the funny fellows—count 'em, forty and their latest laugh provoking creations are guaranteed to bring forth the keenest merriment of the year. These clowns are all guaranteed laugh-getters and many have been seen with the greatest amusement organizations to be found in Europe.

The role of clown is no easy one. The modern clown is a paradox. He is the same as in the days of the celebrated Dan Rice, back in the past century, and yet he is a different clown. The explanation? Well, in this way—he is the same in that he paints his face in vermilion and white and adheres to the time-honored ridiculous pattern in his dress, he is different because of the fact that his work of today is practically all pantomime and he never reverts to the old habit of clowns of former days who almost exclusively made up his act of recitations, songs, and jokes.

The change in the clown's method of work is the logical result of shifting conditions in the circus world. In other days, when one rarely small, the tent was necessary to the fact which permitted the clown to be heard distinctly everywhere under the canvas. At that time one act was quite enough for such a limited audience. And the clown being obliged to contribute his share on the program, happily hit upon the pleasing and successful idea of singing, joking and reciting.

Nowadays all is changed. Tents have been enlarged to care for many additional rings and are of huge proportions. It is impossible for the clown's voice to be heard from every point and so naturally he has to act entirely in pantomime, or "dumb acting." There are forty clowns with the Walter Main Circus who form the greatest collection of this sort ever seen here. The international favorite, Harry La Pearl, heads the list, and among the foremost in his support are Fred Leslie, Chick Reed, Lou Hershey, Harry Loy, Rube Dyer, Eddie Palmer, George St. John, Al DeArman, and Jimmy Jackson.

The Walter L. Circus will be seen here on Monday, July 12. The street parade will be given at 11 a. m., and doors open to the immense menagerie at 1 and 7 p. m., with the performances starting at 2 and 8 p. m.

FIRST SCULPTURE

Philadelphia.—Mrs. Patience Lovell Wright of Bordentown, N. J. was the first native-born American to follow the art of sculpture. After her husband's death in 1769 she used to make faces out of bread and putty to amuse her children. Later she began to model in wax, and her products met a commercial demand.

The Duty Of Health

This is the third of a series of four articles on public health work.

BY DR. HUGH S. CUMMING

Surgeon General, United States Public Health Service
The meaning of public health work to the individual as a member of the state is a complex question which may be approached from many different angles.

The living human body is the most complicated mass of matter in the known world, and when the significance of this statement is grasped it will be found that it is a remarkable truth. It is almost equally true that the average individual knows very little about his body or the way in which it reacts to the causative agents of disease. The popular demand for articles such as these is but a manifestation of the hunger of the intelligent adult mind for information of which he has only vaguely heard, and about which his ideas must necessarily be extremely hazy.

This state of things is no doubt due to the fact that the great bulk of our progress in the conservation of health and the combating of disease is of recent development. It may be recalled that as late as 1628 Harvey had great difficulty in inducing the scientists of that day to accept his demonstration of the circulation of the blood.

Until the discovery of vaccination by Jenner about the close of the 18th century, approximately 80 per cent of the inhabitants of the earth suffered at some period of their lives from an attack of smallpox, and, on an average, about one out of every 10 deaths was due to this disease.

If this rate prevailed at this time throughout our country, it would mean that we should have approximately 129,000 deaths from smallpox in the United States every year.

MOTORISTS PRESENT A "BILL OF RIGHTS"

Chicago, July 2.—Important measures adopted at the annual convention of the American Automobile Association held here recently, included resolutions to:

1. Urge state governors and legal officials to use their influence to do away with the "fee system of arrests" on the highways, to keep the roads free as possible from detours and to inform the public of road openings and closings.

2. Oppose compulsory automobile liability insurance as not being in the interest of safety and calculated to place an unfair burden on the mass of responsible car owners.

3. Oppose changing the automobile tail light from red to yellow.

4. Urge Congress to enact a law for the regulation of motor vehicle common carriers.

5. Demand that the remainder of the war excise taxes be repealed.

6. Oppose use of special taxes for purposes other than road work.

7. Commend a fair and impartial investigation by the Federal Trade Commission of gasoline prices.

8. Condemn the practice of granting concessions to the detriment of public parks and beauty spots.

CAN'T DIG UP RUBY BOB FOR DIAMOND FILLINGS.

Chicago, July 2.—Two diamond fillings in the teeth of the late Bob Fitzsimmons, former heavyweight boxing champion of the world, will remain for the present where they are—in Fitzsimmons' grave in Rose-land cemetery.

This was decided today by Chief of Police Collins, to whom Mrs. Fitzsimmons, the boxer's widow, appealed to for permission to exhume her husband's body.

MCTIGUE BEATS RISK.

New York, July 2.—Johnny Risko's pretensions as a heavyweight contender were deprecated considerably last night when he dropped the decision to the ancient Mike McTigue after ten slow rounds at Madison Square Garden. The Clevelander, mystified by McTigue's defense, hardly laid a glove on the elusive Irishman.

QUEER QUIRKS OF NATURE

BY ARTHUR N. PACK

President, The American Nature Association

To most of us the word "desert" conveys an implication of anything but beauty. We are apt to think of sterile, sandy, stony waste, whose sparse vegetation repels the observer with its thorny stems and leathery, grayish leaves. The idea of flowers in the desert seems incongruous, even impossible.

Yet in the arid and semi-arid regions of the American west there are many plants whose monotonously ugly lives are relieved, for a brief period each year, by a short season of beauty that rivals any dream of Persian gardens.

After the spring rains and before the long drought of summer sets in, and again between the autumn rains and the oncoming of winter, one may find among the sagebrush or chaparral a host of low-growing plants, eagerly spending the brief life of their delicate, bright-tinted flowers.

One of the loveliest of these is shown here. It belongs to the Evening Primrose family, and is known variously as Rock Rose and Fragrant Primrose.

Primrose

But during the spring, and occasionally also after the fall rains, the plant unfolds its group of large, fragrant, white or rose-tinted flowers, and shines forth as a veritable Cinderella of the desert.

MACHINES OUST MEN IN SUGAR INDUSTRY

Honolulu.—The sugar industry in Hawaii will employ less and less men and more and more machinery, in the opinion of Dr. Roman-so Adams, professor of economics of the University of Hawaii, who has just completed an interesting study on the future population of these islands.

In past years, the sugar industry has played a large part in increasing the population Dr. Adams says, but this point is now passed, and henceforth labor-saving machinery will play a large part in the manufacture of this commodity.

The pineapple industry is still subject to development and will have quite an important part in influencing population figures for some years to come.

Dr. Adams estimates that the population of Honolulu will be 160,000 in 1950. The present population is approximately 118,000. He does not think that tourists will increase the population to any great extent in the next twenty-four years, not, for instance, at nearly so high a rate as they have in Southern California. This is principally because the majority of those who go to California cannot afford to come on to these islands.

CACTUS SPREAD. London.—Within a few short years Queensland, Australia, has become practically overrun with cactus. Some settler or traveler brought a few springs of the plant known as the prickly pear, which spread before the farmers took any notice of it. Now the cactus has spread over much of the arable land of the province, which is 670,000 miles square.

WOMEN IN REICHSTAG Berlin.—Thirty-three of the 493 members of the Reichstag are women, giving them the largest representation of any elective legislative body in the world. Many hold important committee jobs.

"TUMBLEWEEDS" SHOWS BILL HART AT BEST

Star Returns to Active Screen Work in Role That Fits Him Perfectly.

When Bill Hart stepped before a battery of cameras in "Tumbleweeds" some months ago, it was the first time in a year and a half that he had faced the movie lens.

But the great star looked better than ever, weighed exactly what he weighed when he first entered pictures, more than ten years ago, and in every way was the Bill Hart—"Two-Gun Bill"—the public has learned to adore.

"Tumbleweeds" is now at the State theatre and if ever the west was represented faithfully on the screen, this is one time. However, this has always been a characteristic of Mr. Hart's productions. He is faithful to the types and incidents of the west. He does not believe in wild exaggeration and untruthful representation of people he holds in reverential esteem—the men who made the west.

A fine cast is supporting Mr. Hart and the picture is a real thriller. King Baggot directed. The companion feature for today and tomorrow, "Bebe Daniels in 'The Palm Beach Girl.'" This picture incorporates a new idea—speed boat racing. It is one of the most thrilling sports to be found anywhere—and pictorially beautiful. There are hair-raising escapes used in the race sequences. As a matter of fact, the big racing scene is an actual reproduction of the annual regatta near Miami Beach. Some of the spectacular scenes are:

Miss Daniels and Armand Cortes in the speed boat thundering between two schooners, while the sheriff tries to stop it with a rope stretched across its course.

An exciting moment when a seaplane glides down over the boat. Lawrence Gray drops a monkey wrench with a message wrapped around it. It hits Cortes who is operating the boat. The craft, running forty miles an hour circles dangerously among the hundreds of boats anchored in Biscayne Bay. In this scene the speed boat is caught by a dredge and lifted out of the water while traveling at breakneck speed. Later, the boat crosses the stern of a high speed sea sled.

At another point in the picture a rapidly moving Florida East Coast train wrecks a hand car, the leading players narrowly escaping.

THE ROMANCE OF AMERICA

With the birth of her fifth child, May 8, 1782, Martha Jefferson became ill. For weeks Jefferson constantly attended her and administered her medicines to the last. When she died, September 6, 1782, Jefferson fell into a swoon and for weeks lay dazed. The love and care of his 10-year-old daughter, Martha, finally won him back.

Thomas Jefferson (5)

—By Redner

In 1784 Jefferson went to France as minister of the United States. He was a favorite of Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette.

Returning from France in 1789, Jefferson was appointed secretary of state and founded the Democratic party of America.

Jefferson campaigned for the presidency in 1796. His platform, like his life, was based on personal liberty, freedom of speech, of the press, of religious views. He was opposed by John Adams of the Federal party, which held rigidly opposite views. Jefferson lost, but won the vice presidency. (Continued.)

He Died for Love of Freak!

Old Cap White and Zip May Now Answer "What Is It?"— O. K.'s Loving Heart Broke.

By VIRGINIA SWAIN.

New York, July 2.—"Love is kind to the least of men," says the old Chinese song.

In the light of this, consider the marvelous friendship between "Zip, the What-is-it," and old "Cap," Octavius K. White, his manager. Zip, you recall, died last spring at the age of 84. He had been a circus freak for 70 years, a "missing link," "a mono-headed mystery" and "a great man." The ballyhoo of decades notwithstanding the mockery which was his portion, had built up a certain glamor for Zip, professionally.

Of his sidishow platform, however, doctors agreed Zip was nothing but a half-witted old Jersey negro with an oddly-shaped head and a harmless disposition.

And for the love of Zip, the What-is-it, "Cap" White has just laid him down and died.

"Cap" was recognized as an intelligent man, with more than average education and a wide knowledge of music. For 35 years he had been Zip's manager and guardian.

At Zip's funeral he collapsed, and soon afterwards he began a decline from which there was no recovery. A stroke of paralysis then sent him to the Coney Island Hospital, and his nurse entered the name, "O. K. White, 76, hopeless."

In the nation's capital of absurdities and gossies, the old man died of a broken heart, that is, he died before going to the hospital, he had lived for weeks shut up in the little bungalow back of the Dreamland show, which had been home to him and Zip.

Jolly Irene, the fat lady; Hojo, the bear boy; and Olga, the bearded woman, were White's friends and Zip's friends, too. But after Zip's death, White had neither a smile nor a word for any of them.

Beach policemen reported almost nightly a gaunt figure, head sunk on breast, walking slowly along the boardwalk after midnight, heeding no greetings and never altering his pace. Finding that it was "Old

"Cap" White and Zip.

Cap" White, they did not molest him. He lived a shadow life until S. W. Gumpertz, of the show, found him slumped in a chair in his bungalow, unable to speak or move, and had him taken to the hospital.

White's zest for the show life faded from his entrance into a gated with Barnum's. He tried later to teach Zip to play a cheap little violin he had bought for him.

Every morning, after he had given Zip his breakfast, he read him tales of Red Riding Hood and Achilles fighting the Trojans, and the comic sheets of the Sunday papers.

None of the show folk knew of White's family except that he had two sons, one of them a dealer in musical instruments in Cleveland, and a second wife, a former show girl, 50 years his junior. She "cleared out" some years ago because White wouldn't make Zip "clear out." "The idiots yellow eyes" staring at her almost drove her mad, she said. She came back to see him die.

Pine Forest

The English House of PINE FOREST is now entirely completed; in its setting of pines, it makes a picture to stir the artist; a study in brown. But it is more than a thing of beauty; it is as honest in its construction as one of the charming Colonial of our forefathers, and every convenience is there. It is GOEBEN-BUILT; more need not be said to the initiated. We invited everyone interested in PINE FOREST to see it; just 'phone to any of our officers, and the house will be opened for you. Be sure, however, to send for the interesting literature pertaining to PINE FOREST.

FRIDAY, JULY 2, 1926.

NORTH DAKOTA

North Dakota yesterday formally entered the list of Republican states in the agricultural belt which have gone off the reservation. It is hardly a fair thing for the press agencies to refer to the defeated candidates for senatorial and gubernatorial nominations as "Coolidge" candidates, for we have no recollection that the President committed himself in the North Dakota situation.

There is nothing unexpected in this, unless perhaps it be the clear cut alignment of town against farm, which was accentuated with surprising sharpness.

Nothing can be more certain than that the big farming states—and there are a lot of them when South and West are considered—are sincere in the belief that they are getting the worst of it. It is folly of the gravest kind to simply override that kind of discontent by force of numbers and congressional votes. Such a course is to challenge revolt, to breed war where peace is vital to party life.

We have never accepted the validity of the arguments for the McNary-Haugen bill. But we do recognize the necessity of fair and square conference, of unprejudiced study of the needs of American agriculture by leaders as little as possible impregnated with sectional bias, and a unified advocacy of an acceptable program by the whole Republican party.

Capable leadership would achieve just that result before it is too late.

GARMENT STRIKE

The situation in the New York garment trade, where 40,000 workers are on strike, not against their employers but against the jobbers, is a puzzling one indeed to those who are not familiar with the unusual business methods in vogue in that line of manufacturing.

The claim of the garment workers is that the jobbers, so called—the wholesalers who handle the product of the numberless large and small producing plants of the metropolis—are the real manufacturers; that they supply the designs, materials and specifications and fix the prices of the manufactured commodities, while the so-called manufacturing concerns are in reality nothing but contractors exercising only minor volitions in the management of their businesses.

It is said to be true that a great many of the jobbers are persons who formerly were actual manufacturers but who, after many a conflict with their employees over wages and working conditions, evolved the present system as an escape from the expense and worry of frequent labor wars.

In this situation, the apparent incongruity of factory workers going over the heads of their immediate employees to fight the "higher-ups" diminishes. As to the merits or demerits of the claims of the strikers that they are underpaid and suffer from unnecessarily long periods of unemployment, these are matters at which the public, outside of the eastern half of Manhattan Island, can only guess.

WALSH NON-COMMITTAL

With considerable rhetorical flourish former Senator David I. Walsh of Massachusetts has denounced as "cheap Republican propaganda" the report that he would not run for the United States Senate next fall against Senator Butler. But nevertheless he avoided any direct statement as to whether or not he would run. If there were not considerable doubt about it, it would have been easy for him to have said that he would be a candidate, and that would have settled the matter.

Actually much depends on the Walsh candidacy. He is the only Democrat in the state of Massachusetts who would have a ghost of a chance of winning, and that he might beat Senator Butler is a recognized possibility. Butler, it must be frankly admitted, is not popular with the voters of his state. Walsh, on the other hand, has an uncanny influence among Republicans of the mill hand class in western Massachusetts, where no other Democrat living has the slightest strength, besides being able to make inroads into the opposition in such cities as Worcester and to hold all the Democrats of greater Boston.

There is a remote possibility that Bay State Republicans might even yet decide that they had better run a stronger candidate than Butler if Walsh is to be his opponent. But if the latter quits the race, of course, nobody but Butler will be considered, as he could be elected, hands down, against anyone else.

The Massachusetts situation is highly interesting.

BLIND LEADERS.

Maine State Commissioner of Education Dr. Augustus O. Thomas goes to Philadelphia and delivers a speech before the National Education association in which he makes an impassioned plea for the teaching of racial and international understanding. Which is all very well but would come with much better grace from almost anybody else than from a citizen of the state of Maine.

We haven't had either the time or the interest to closely examine the text of Dr. Thomas' address, but however full of wisdom and good advice it may be, perhaps the best thing to do with it would be to take it back to Maine and devote the next hundred years or so to instilling its first rudiments into the civilization of that singularly insular community.

For if there is a spot on earth outside of Tibet where the foreign devil and the outlanders' ideas are subjected to Class A intolerance it is in the Pine Tree state.

It is considerably less than fifty years ago that the story was current that Maine farmers drove thirty miles, with their families, to get a glimpse of the first Irishman to locate in a district of four counties, being eaten with curiosity to see a human being with a spiked tail and cloven hoofs. And it wouldn't be necessary to cut that story down much more than half in order to make it fit, today.

Our idea is that those who should be America's instructors in the intricate problem of racial and international relationships should be men and women whose contacts and experiences in these matters are a cut broader than we may reasonably expect to find in Maine, or at least whose credentials have a more convincing sanction.

HARMONY

Another church is split wide open by the fundamental-modernist wedge. The pastor of a Torrington Baptist society has resigned and one of his deacons and a minority of his congregation go with him because the majority of the church members would not declare themselves fundamentalists.

Evidently there is small chance for accord, in any church, between those who accept the letter of the scriptures as they have survived through the centuries, and who deny the teachings of scientists, and those who accept the evidences of science and doubt the infallibility of the literal written word. Perhaps we are to witness one more realignment by congregations, of the many millions of followers of the Christian faith.

Sam Small, most beloved of the old time revivalists, used to say: "I'm an old fashioned Christian. I believe in the Bible, every word of it, from cover to cover, just as it's written. I believe that the whale swallowed Jonah. And if the Bible said that Jonah swallowed the whale I'd believe that, too, and when I got to heaven I'd expect to meet Jonah"—linking his finger tips far in front of his ample midriff—"with his vest out here."

There is a beautiful simplicity about a faith of that sort. It would seem to be all the creed, and the only creed, needed by any fundamentalists. That people whose religious convictions run along such a clear cut line as that should be scattered among twenty or thirty denominations seems a strange thing. Isn't the logical course the gathering together of all of them in a single body? It should be at least one harmonious group among the many religious sects where lack of harmony just now is disconcertingly obvious.

ALFONSO.

Just why there should be so much eagerness in anarchistic circles to bring to an end the happy, happy life of King Alfonso it isn't easy to understand. If all that the anarchists have against Alfonso is that he is a king, the animus should by no means be sufficient to stir them to the risky business of murder; for while the Spanish monarch's job may be that of a ruler he isn't working at it, and has not worked at it for some time.

And if, on another hand, their grudge grows solely from the fact that he squanders a great deal of the people's money in expensive meandering among European casinos and costly watering places, they might easily and with better appropriateness pick on untold numbers of North and South Americans whose wastings make Alfonso look like a piker.

If being the kind of a king that Alfonso is doesn't bring exemption from the perils that go with auto-cracy and firm ruling, what on earth is the use of a king trying to be a good fellow, anyhow?

ALCOHOLIC.

For the sake of the continuation of human occupancy of the Italian peninsula it is to be hoped that the experiment of running automobiles one wine, outcome of overmuch of the juice of the grape and too little gasoline in Mussolinland, will turn out better than it has in the United States.

Stewart's WASHINGTON LETTERS

BY CHARLES P. STEWART

Washington, July 2.—Senator Thaddeus H. Caraway of Arkansas is one of the most formidable debaters who ever came to Washington and Senator Hiram Bingham of Connecticut made a mistake when he crossed verbal swords with him the other day during the former's discussion of the proper price to pay for votes at senatorial primaries—as in Pennsylvania.

When Caraway had finished his speech there'd have been nothing for him to do but quit and sit down. What he needs, worse than anything in the world, when he's making a talk is to have somebody try to interfere and mix him up. It's at a bit of repartee that he's best. He always comes out of such encounters on top.

Other senators discovered this long ago, from bitter experience. They let him strictly alone, no matter what he says. But Bingham is rather a new hand at the senatorial game. He rushed in where hard-boiled solons fear to tread and Caraway had some fun.

Caraway didn't start with the idea of assuming that votes were bought, out and out, at so much per cent. He considered that the Pennsylvania game. Bingham gave him the idea, and Caraway so twisted the conversation that the Nutmeg State senator appeared to be agreeing with him that that was what really happened.

When one considers that the Pennsylvania primary was a Republican primary and that Bingham is a Republican senator and that Caraway is a Democrat one, it immediately becomes apparent how awkward this was for Bingham.

However, he brought it on himself. It will be recalled that when Truman H. Newberry was criticized for having spent $195,000 to be elected senator from Michigan, Senator Frank B. Willis of Ohio introduced a resolution to the effect that $195,000 was more than any such campaign ought to cost.

Nevertheless Willis voted not to unseat Newberry. Caraway simply re-introduced this resolution, but with the amount blank, suggesting that, as the Republican primary appeared to have cost about $1,850,000, he thought the resolution ought to be amended. He invited Willis, "or some senator who sympathizes with him, to write in whatever sum he feels would be reasonable."

At this point Bingham made the unfortunate remark that it seemed to him there ought to be a sliding scale—a larger allowance for a state with a large population than for a state with a small one.

Caraway agreed immediately. If a Senate seat cost, say $10 a vote, obviously, he said, a candidate in a state with 10,000,000 population ought to be authorized to spend more than a candidate in a state with 100,000.

Hooked, Bingham struggled to escape. He meant legitimate expenditures of course—not the purchase of votes. "Don't you think," he insisted, "that, instead of a lump sum per state, it would be wiser to provide that not more than 10 or 25 cents per head might properly be spent by a candidate on a primary campaign?"

"I do not put my opinion against the opinion of experts, who have had more experience in vote-buying than I," rejoined Caraway. "I leave it to senators who have given the subject more study than I have but I think there ought to be a limit."

And so it went on while the session lasted. Monkeying with Senator Caraway is fatal.

IN NEW YORK

New York, July 2.—See-sawing up and down Broadway, I saw William Gibbs McAdoo, none other than the candidate for the presidency, at one of our most popular night clubs. . . . But, verily, I am told he ordered milk toast, which must have thrown the cook into great confusion and which would doubtless have been leered upon by the Ritzly waiter had the guest been any other than W. G. M. . . .

Saw Renee Adoree strolling in the Times Square belt, her arm cozily tucked in that of Rudolf Film, the Viennese composer, and whereas their engagement has been oft rumored since her divorce from Tom Moore, and whereas she has not verified it yet, withal, they are much seen together. . . .

Saw Bell Baker, who is said to have the longest non-stop record in vaudeville. . . . Her two-a-day appearances date back over her entire career and, I am told, she is finally to desert in favor of musical comedy. . . .

Also Eugene O'Neill, the play scrivener, much tanned after a season in Bermuda. And they tell me he brought in his hip pocket—no, not what you think—but a play, "Lazarus Laughs," and another concerning Marco Polo, which he has been revising and which makes the famed traveler the first of the 100-per-cent business men. . . . DAILY POEM

LULLABY LANE

Along in the wee hours, when all is at rest, a shrill little voice breaks the still. You wonder, at times, how a child stands the test of crying so hard. Is it ill? You hie to the bedroom and find, very soon, a youngster's just having its fling of howling for some sort of lullaby tune. The kind that a mother can sing. When wrapped in a blanket, and taken from bed, the tot doesn't cry any more. The little one knows that it's soon to be fed, ere mother starts walking the floor. From bedroom, to kitchen, to front room to hall. The walking is never in vain. If the tot's sung to sleep—then it's fun, after all, to travel through lullaby lane.

Do You Dread the Hot Weather?

Some people just seem to thrive on hot weather, while others feel it terribly. Of course, this cannot be changed entirely. But you can stand the many hot days to come, much more easily if your feet are comfortable. In rigid, unnaturally shaped shoes your feet are liable to burn, chafe and get puffy on the hot days. Such shoes retard the circulation thereby causing the feet to swell.

Even on the hottest days these trim Cantilever oxfords will give you all-day comfort and keep your feet active and cool. They are flexible from toe to heel and are shaped just like Nature shaped your feet.

You will enjoy wearing these comfortable, light weight shoes. The flexible arch fits snugly to the under-curve of the foot and give you helpful, restful support. It functions with the foot and does not hinder circulation. Wouldn't it be a fine idea to start the Summer in comfortable shoes like these?

Costing $6,500,000, more than 582 feet long, displacing 26,000 tons and with a speed of 25 knots, the biggest ship ever built in the United States here is being launched in Philadelphia. It is christened the Malolo and will be used in the Pacific coast service. Secretary of Commerce Hoover took part in the ceremony.

HELPING AMERICA'S TRAFFIC PROBLEMS

A New Light Car Remarkable for Ease of Handling.

Crowded streets, congested with traffic. Parking space at a premium. Main highways lined with cars moving slowly along in a tedious parade. This is a picture of America's traffic problem as it exists today.

In Wisconsin, legislation has recently been passed placing the maximum speed of cars on the highways at 40 miles an hour and the minimum at 25 miles an hour. Practically every large city in the country has passed drastic traffic laws, limited parking and done everything possible to overcome this great congestion of roads and highways.

And now another very important factor in the handling and reducing of traffic is announced. It is a revolutionary new-type of automobile. An American-built light car that combines the advantages of European design with new and greatly improved standards of American performance.

It parks in 12 feet. Gets into and out of the smallest conceivable space quickly and with the minimum of effort. Thirty-four feet of radius, that's less than the width of the average street. Motor with amazing pickup, 5 to 30 miles an hour in 13 seconds. 4-wheel brakes, that means quick stopping. This is the first time that any American-built light car has had them as standard factory equipment. And now add to this such factors as 28 to 30 miles on a gallon of gasoline, 1,000 miles on a gallon of oil, with greater roadability than any light 4-cylinder car has ever had before. This is the new Overland Whippet, first shown Saturday at the salesroom of The Pickett Motor Sales, 22 Maple street.

Georgetti Holds Saints Safe And C. B. A. A. Wins

SILK WORKERS PLAY ERRORLESS BALL AND EVEN UP TOWN SERIES

Pound Gustafson For Sixteen Hits and Score 9 to 4 Victory—Georgetti in Limelight—Long, Hanna and Stratton Each Make Three Hits—Saints Get Two-Run Lead in First But Fail to Stand Pace.

Pounding the delivery of Alex Gustafson at all corners of the pasture and playing errorless ball behind the masterful twirling of "Quido" Georgetti were the potent factors in the 9 to 4 victory registered by Cheney Brothers over the St. Mary's last evening at the West Side playgrounds in the second clash between the two aggregations. The series now stands on an even basis, the Saints having won the opener 3 to 2. The date for the third game has not been decided.

The silk workers were just as far superior over the Saints last night as the Saints were over them in the first game. There was no erratic playing in the mill team's outfield like there was in the first game. In fact the Edgar-Long-Cole trio performed admirably, cutting off several possible rallies by fast fielding. Edgar's leaping catch of Robb's smash in the sixth was a beauty. It came in the midst of a rally. In the second inning "Ike" Cole retired the side from right field practically unassisted. After H. Stevenson and Robb had singled, Gustafson punched another drive cleanly into right, but Cole, by fast work, threw the Saint's twirler out at first, thus robbing him of a clean hit. Cole then bagged the next two flies for the second and third outs.

The superb pitching of Georgetti stood out even above the heavy hitting of his mates. He let the Saints down with eight hits, struck out four batters and walked two. He was touched up rather freely in the opening stanza but from then on to the finish, with the exception of the sixth, he was never in real danger. The Italian youth finished exceptionally strong whiffing Wright and Seelert on each of their last two trips to the plate. In addition to all this, Georgetti slammed out two hits himself. One started the mill team's biggest rally and the other drove in a run.

Alex Gustafson, Hartford moundsman, who let the silk workers down with four hits the previous week, was knocked "galley-west" last night. Sixteen hits were made off his delivery. He fanned but three batters, Cole 2 and Lewis 1.

Saints Take Lead
The Saints took a two run lead in the first inning and it looked as though they were destined to repeat their first victory. Massey, singled to center, Wright walked, Seelert doubled scoring Massey. Partons skied to Edgar and St. John scored Wright with a single. The mill team hopped into the lead in the third spelling the frame with three counters. With one out, Georgetti, Long, Hanna, Stratton, and Cole singled in succession. Seelert's bingle came with the sacks loaded and after he had fouled off a half dozen pitches, Cole's hit scored the third run.

C. B. A. A. Scoring
Two more runs for C. B. A. A. in the fourth, all on clean hitting. Plitt doubled to right, Macdonald grounded out, Plitt going to third from where he scored on Lewis's scratch single which Partons knocked down. Wright recovered the ball but hurled wildly to Robb, Lewis taking second. Georgetti singled but Lewis was caught at the plate on a fine peg from "Dubbie" Stevenson in right field to his brother at the plate. Long's single, however, scored Georgetti.

Cheney Brothers scored another tally in the fifth when Cole doubled and scored on Wright's error at short on Edgar's grounder.

Moré Scoring
Three more runs were scored in the sixth by Jenney's charges. Lewis got a Texas leaguer and took second on an error by Robb. Long scored him with a single. Hanna scored Long with a double. Stratton sent Hanna the rest of the journey with a single.

The Saints got two runs in the sixth when St. John tripled, scored on "Dubbie" Stevenson's single down the third base line. Billy Stevenson who had been hit by a pitched ball in the meantime, took third on the hit and scored on Gustafson's sacrifice fly to center. Long, Hanna and Stratton made three hits apiece.

THREE GAMES FACE SONS OVER FOURTH

Norwich Hospital Team Here On Monday Morning—Yellow Cabs in Providence Sunday.

Three hard games face the Sons of Italy over the coming week end. They will go to Providence on Sunday to play the return game with the Yellow Cab team and on Monday will engage in a home and home affair with the Norwich State hospital team, the morning game to be played here and the afternoon contest in Norwich.

The Sons are confident that they can repeat their victory of last week over the Taxi team on Sunday. They will play in the Eastern League park there and will be entertained by the Providence lodge of the Sons of Italy before and after the game. The trip will be made by bus.

On Monday morning at 10 o'clock the Norwich team will make its appearance at the West Side. With the visitors will be such well known favorites as Normandin, Mills, Hammill, and Belaire. Most of these men played with Willimantic when the American Thread team was in its glory.

Norwich holds victories over Tatville, Fort Trumbull, Branford, Corbin Red Sox of New Britain, Bristol New Departures and Meriden Endees. They shut out Bristol, allowing the Departs only two hits during the game.

LAST NIGHT'S FIGHTS.

At New York—Mike McGuire, former light heavyweight champion, outpointed Johnny Risko, Cleveland, ten rounds. Honeyboy Flinnegan, Boston, featherweight, won from Steve Smith, Bridgeport, ten rounds; Jackie Snyder, New York featherweight, beat Johnny Filucci, New York, ten rounds; Monty Munn, Nebraska, light weight, knocked out Jack Shaw, U. S. Marines, in the third round. At West New York, N. J.—Jimmy Slattery, Buffalo light heavyweight, defeated Jackie Clark, Allentown, Pa., ten rounds.

Despite the clouting of Manush, who collected a homer, two triples and a double, the Tigers lost to the Indians, eleven to six. A six run rally in the eighth sewed up the game for Cleveland.

Another Tom Sharkey

You've heard of Tom Sharkey, famous heavyweight gladiator of old. Well, here's Tom Sharkey, equally famous sprinter of Miami University. A few weeks ago he was credited with doing the 100 in the world record time of 9.6 seconds. (It won't appear in the record books, however). Sharkey finished second to the great Roland Locke at the recent national intercollegiate and is to compete in the A. A. U. meet at Philadelphia next month. They call him "Ohio's fastest human."

WORTH KNOWING

Harry Hooper, who was cast adrift by the White Sox last winter, had an illustrious big league career which covered a period of 17 seasons. Twelve he spent with the Boston Red Sox and the remainder with Comiskey's club. Hooper hit around the 300 mark during his many years in the majors, but oddly enough, he had his best campaign, insofar as batting was concerned, in his next to last season. That was in 1924. In 130 games he turned in a percentage of .328, making 156 hits and scoring 107 runs. While a member of that famous Red Sox outfield composed of Hooper, speaker and Lewis, he participated in four world series. In the 1915 classic he hit .350, and the following fall .333.

The cogdor is the only bird which keeps its young in a nest for a year. The young cannot fly for that long after being hatched.

CHENEY BROS. NINE IDLES OVER HOLIDAY

There will be no games for Cheney Brothers baseball nine over the holiday week-end. Manager Jenney said yesterday. The next game for the silk workers will be played next Thursday evening at the West Side playgrounds when the Connecticut Mutual Insurance Company, of Hartford, sends its representatives of the diamond here.

A five run rally in the seventh inning enabled the Pirates to win from the Cardinals, 7 to 3, for their first victory in nine states. The victory put Pittsburgh five games behind the Reds and gave Bill McKechnie a good night's sleep for the first time in ten days.

Hack Wilson did a Frank Merriwell against the Reds, socking a homer in the eleventh inning which gave the Cubs the game, 2 to 1. Pete Donohue was the victor.

FOUR CONTESTANTS SURVIVE ELIMINATION TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Bissell, Scott, Macdonald and Thornton to Meet in Semi-finals For Silk Mill Championship This Week.

Four contestants remain in the elimination tennis tournament being conducted by Cheney Brothers' Athletic Association following the completion of the second round of play. They are Sherwood "Cap" Bissell, Walter Scott, Matthew Macdonald and Howard Thornton.

The semi-finals of the third round of play will be completed this week. The pairings for the semi-finals are Bissell vs. Thornton and Scott vs. Macdonald. The two winners will meet the following week for the championship. The results of the second round as announced yesterday follow: Bissell defeated Hawley 6-2 and 6-3; Scott defeated Dr. Goff 6-1 and 6-2; Macdonald defeated Leonard Beadle 6-4 and 6-3; John Nickerson defaulted to Howard Thornton.

Beadle worked his way into the second round by defeating Fred Van Ness in a postponed match. The scores were 7-5 and 6-3.

Bob Smith of the Braves got a verdict over Carlson of the Phillies in a pitching duel, three to one. The two clubs are now deadlocked in the great battle for seventh place.

Thirty-five thousand fans saw Washington swamp the Yankees, twelve to five, in the second game of a double-header after Shocker had beaten Walter Johnson in the opener, three to two.

By GEORGE SISLER. Greatest of First Basemen.

Knowing where a batter is most likely to hit the ball enables a first baseman to move a step or two more to his right or left in order to get that much of a jump on the ball, should the batter's effort run true to form.

Not only should he be a sure catch on thrown balls that he is able to handle with both hands, but he must be a come equally proficient with the gloved hand. It has been figured that at least 30 per cent of the men retired die at first base. This makes it very apparent why it is so necessary that the first sacker be well nigh perfect in handling thrown balls.

In the major leagues, there are certain players known as "line-hitters." By that, I mean players who are notorious right field hitters and are more likely to pull the ball down the line rather than between the first and second basemen.

On such players it is well to hug the line closely. The first baseman should always make an effort to get to the bag as quickly as possible, so as to offer a set target to the infielder about to make the throw. Incidentally, one is usually more sure while waiting for the ball than handling it on the run. On fast hit balls it is often necessary for the infielder handling the ball to hold back his throw until the first baseman gets into a proper position to take it.

Football had its "four horsemen" a few seasons ago in that famous Notre Dame backfield composed of Miller, Layden, Crowley and Stuhldreher. They were the sensations of the gridiron world. Well, here are the "four horsemen" of baseball, Dave Danforth, Ossie Orwell, Joe Eddelman and Dennis Gearin. They are members of the Milwaukee club of the American Association. And—each is a southpaw!

During the recent remarkable winning streak of the Brewers, which reached 21 games (a new record for the circuit), this quartet of hurlers turned in 17 triumphs. Eddelman led with six, followed by Danforth and Gearin with four apiece and Orwell. Eddelman also saved a tilt for Roy Sanders, big right-hander, while Danforth finished two for Gearin. Orwell relieved Gearin in one fray and Gearin did the same for Orwell.

Milwaukee obtained Eddelman from Flint in the Michigan-Ontario League a couple of seasons ago. "Dandy Dave" Danforth is well known throughout the majors, having played with the White Sox and Browns. Orwell came to the Brewers direct from Luther College, Decorah, Ia., while Gearin was given a trial with the Giants three years ago.

The Brewers' great record, which started May 26 and ended June 16 when the Toledo Mudhens tripped them, carried the club from a lowly seventh to first place. And, as mentioned, the "four horsemen" played big parts in the climb up the Double-A ladder.

Billy Evans Says

Hagen's Sportsmanship.
In certain quarters they are trying to detract from Walter Hagen's brilliant victory over Abe Mitchell by insisting that he resorted to unsportsmanlike tactics.

The question as to Hagen's sportsmanship hinges on the matter of being 20 minutes late to start the final 36 holes of the match.

Did Hagen try to get Mitchell's "goat" by being late, thereby keeping the sensitive and high-strung Mitchell waiting?

Regardless of whether Hagen purposely resorted to such tactics, he reached his goal by winning four of the first six holes, evening the margin Mitchell had gained in the first 36 holes of the match.

Goat-getting tactics are common to most other sports, but this is the first time the "keep-your-opponent waiting" ruse has been charged to golf.

Britt's Stunt.
In the fight game many of our champions, past and present have done strange things tending to upset their opponent.

Jimmy Britt, one of the greatest fighters of his day, holds all records for keeping rival fighters waiting. Britt had the reputation of never in all his career entering the ring on time.

Every big bout in which Britt engaged was from 10 to 15 minutes late getting away because of his tardy appearance.

This practice caused Britt to be unpopular with many of the fight fans on the coast, but, incidentally, helped make him a big card. Instead of flocking to the fight to see Britt win, the fight fans came hoping to be in on his finish.

Britt, never a great puncher, but decidedly clever, kept fooling them a greater part of his career.

Retort Courteous.
The retort courteous, or otherwise, is another form of goat-getting that has always been decidedly popular.

They say that Young Corbett was able to defeat Terry McGovern largely through the medium of his stinging invectives rather than a knockout punch.

Getting in close, Corbett is alleged to have told McGovern plenty of things that didn't make a bit with Terry. Losing his temper as a result, the Terrible Terry fought a style of battle that made him soft picking for Corbett.

Stanley Ketchel, Johnny Kilbane and Abe Attell are just a few of the noted champions who never failed to work on their opponents through the use of goat-getting tactics.

Different Schemes.
Professional baseball perhaps offers more schemes for getting the opposition on the run than any other sport.

This can best be explained by the fact that 18 players are actively engaged in the playing of the game, while in even more players warm the bench waiting for the opportunity to break in.

With so many active participants there are that many more opportunities to try out different stunts.

The pitcher, as a rule, is the main target for goat-getting methods. If he is a weak fielder, the opposition bunts on him. If wild, he is waited out. If he has "rabbit ears," he hears plenty of uncomplimentary chatter.

In the meantime the coaches overlook no chance to say or do things that pass the censor or the umpire, with the hope of cutting in on the pitcher's effectiveness.

Unusual Charge.
Getting-the-goat of individual or team has always been a part of most sports, regardless of whether it is sportsmanlike or not.

Golf has been the one sport regarded as immune, which makes the charge against Hagen decidedly out of the ordinary.

Whether guilty or innocent, Hagen accomplished what he set out to do. He defeated Mitchell. He is probably worrying less about the alleged poor sportsmanship than anyone else. Nothing bothers Hagen.

Connie Mack Superstitious; Grove Cited As An Instance

EVEN THE SHREWD OLD CONNIE MACK HAS HIS OWN PET BASEBALL SUPERSTITIONS

Most baseball managers are just as superstitious as the ball players and superstition runs riot among the athletes.

As one watches Connie Mack methodically directing his ball club from the bench, he would never suppose the tall leader of the Athletics believed there was such a thing as a jinx.

Yet only recently, Connie, by deciding that "Lefty" Grove should never again be used as the opening pitcher in a three or four-game series, proved he did.

And thereby hangs a very interesting tale of how superstition often causes smart baseball men to suffer an entire change of opinion.

When a ball club has a big defensive threat like Grove or an offensive menace like Babe Ruth, the manager of the club has two lines of action.

One is to hurl your best bet at the opposition, get 'em "grogy" and then try your best to keep them in that condition. The other is to keep him in reserve.

Landing an early knockout was Mack's original intention in using Grove to open every series. With the star southpaw at the top of his

JUNE 8 DEGREES UNDER NORMAL TEMPERATURE.
New Haven, July 2.—June was three degrees below normal in temperature and somewhat more than one inch below normal in precipitation, according to the federal weather bureau.

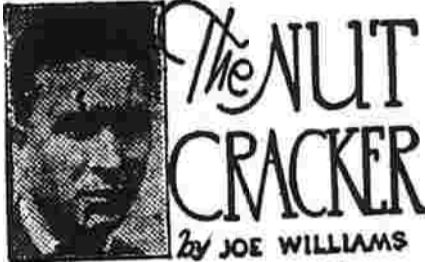

It was the coolest June since 1818 and the driest only since 1924. Its mean temperature was 63.6.

The six months ending June 30 show a deficiency in rainfall totaling 3.42 inches while the temperature has averaged 1.2 degrees below normal for each day since January 1.

As a matter of fact, it is not at all unusual for him to warm up a bit each day. Certain pitchers rest a day or two after talking their regular turn but Grove is not that sort.

Strong and willing, this feature of his makeup will permit his use in pinch roles without in any way hurting his work in his regular start.

It will be interesting to watch how the new program that has been outlined for the pitching sensation of 1926 turns out.

Nothing succeeds like success unless you happen to know a sure cure for hooking off the first tee.

Fourteen clubs passed Grover Alexander by on waivers. . . . It is not a far cry from wavering to waivers in baseball.

Babe Ruth is behind his 1921 record now both in home runs, law suits, and indignation attacks.

This seems to be an exceptional year for the Cardinals, including those that represent Rogers Hornsby and the church.

Mr. O'Goofy is warbling a new ditty these days. It goes, "You may be honey to somebody but you are just tangledfoot to me."

We read that Young Bob Fitzsimmons plans to retire as a fighter. . . . Whaddamean as a fighter?

If you insist on graduating from the college of hard knocks at least wear a head protector.

Figures are at hand to show that wrestlers live longer than fighters. . . . This is just one of the little discouraging things about the present scheme of the world which we intend to change when we get around to it.

Tex Rickard says he is willing to match Wills with the winner of the Dempsey fight. . . . So get ready, mates, for the big shot of pugdom along about July 1925.

"What's wrong with this pitcher?" moaned Mr. Connie Mack after the fashion of the popular advertisement, as he watched Ehmeke get knocked out of the box.

We suppose if the canned music people ever signed Charlie Paddock up the name of his first record would be nine and four-fifths.

Florida senator's wife testifies a medium helped her husband's violin, so that's another argument against spiritualism.

Babe Ruth says "Control of the ball is two-thirds of pitching." We say, "Control of yourself is two-thirds of living."

The chief trouble with Mickey Walker is that he believed all those stories in the newspapers that said he was an invincible champion.

A stitch in time may save nine but it usually takes a .300 hitting outfielder and a bang up left-handed pitcher to save the home nine.

Cal Coolidge is going to pitch horseshoes on his vacation. . . . There is a growing belief Cal will need horseshoes before the next campaign gets far under way.

We presume the polite coxswain on alighting from the shell always turns to the stroke oar and says, "Thanks for the boat ride."

It is not true that Dempsey has drawn the color line. . . . He is willing to fight anybody for the heavyweight championship, providing his name is Tunney.

Passing the buck is popular in Scotland, too, probably for the reason that a buck over there has nothing to do with a silver dollar.

The Washington club is beginning to release its veteran pitchers, which is further proof that the gland treatments are no good.

Anyone riding down town in the street cars these mornings will tell you that the bare necessities of life all seem to be knees.

While this is the open season for statistics no one has yet compiled the number of frys swatted on screen doors since summer began.

Until we see a picture of the Prince of Sweden shaking hands with Babe Ruth we will continue to refuse to believe that he is a gent of any great importance.

If you are to believe the old picture books there is plenty of evidence to prove Abraham Lincoln was the worst high hatter the nation ever had.

Rounding into the last month of the half year period Nash sales and production raced thru June to pile up a 60% lead OVER the greatest previous volume of June business in all Nash history.

And this record-breaking total also made June 1926, the 22nd consecutive month—with one exception—to surpass the mark set by the same month of the previous year.

The reason Nash is getting the business is simply because people are buying where they get the MOST for the money—in greater VALUE, in greater QUALITY, and in finer PERFORMANCE.

Hard Talk by Youth

A business girl wrote to a friend: "I went home over the week end, and I am still shaking hands with myself that I had common sense to get out and earn my own living and be somebody when I did. Otherwise I should be just such a mush pudding as my two sisters."

"I wish there might be a school for mothers, so that one could look across at them and talk as man to man, instead of always harping on the nursery stuff." No, it is not a cruel letter. It is merely hard with the hardness of egotistical youth, which is always profligate of its blessings.

E. L. INSTITUTE PLAN SEEMS SUCCESSFUL

First Year That League Meeting Has Been Separated From Camp Sessions.

Willimantic Camp Grounds, July 2.—The experiment of having the League Institute separated from the regular camp meeting sessions with which it has been held conjointly for some thirteen years, seems to be working out successfully. What the effect of the camp meeting will be upon the camp meeting itself next month when it convenes from August 14 to 22, remains to be seen.

Excellent weather has been vouchsafed by the weather man so far, Wednesday having been the warmest day. The dean of the Institute, Rev. Charles E. Spaulding, D. D. of New London, reports that 100 full registration fees of two dollars each had been paid in up to Wednesday noon, the one hundredth fee having been paid by Rev. Joseph Cooper of South Manchester in addition, twenty-seven partial payments have come from those arriving since the beginning of the week, and many more are expected before it ends. The dining room is practically filled each meal with about a hundred guests.

Daylight saving time rules, and the "insitooters" are having strenuous days. Morning watch is at 6:30 a. m. daily, led by Rev. F. W. Gray, of Burnside. Breakfast at 7 o'clock. The first period is devoted to Foreign and Home Missions, led by Rev. Buell O. Campbell, of Ludlow, Vt., and Mrs. Campbell respectively. Foreign mission lectures are given in the tabernacle, and Home mission lectures in Epworth Chapel.

During the second period Rev. J. Homer Slutz, of Brockton, Mass., gives talks on "Stewardship" at the Epworth chapel; and at the same time in the tabernacle, H. Chester Hoyt gives explanations of the department work. "Music in Church and League" is at 9:30 in the tabernacle, and the leader of the singing for the week is instructor, the Rev. Russell E. Waite, of Providence, R. I. At the same hour in "The Haven" on Church Circle, parliamentary law talks are given by Rev. E. H. Hughes, Jr., son of Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes, of Chicago. Also in the Manchester house on Church Circle lectures on Pageantry are delivered by Mrs. Robert A. T. Bitgood, of New London.

The next period the topic is General League Methods, and Rev. George E. Mitchell, of Berkeley, R. I., instructs. This is a "required" study, and is in tabernacle. The period beginning at 11 a. m. is Bible study, also "required." But the leaguers have the choice between the Old Testament, elucidated by Mrs. Russell Waite, at "The Haven," or the New Testament by Mrs. H. Chester Hoyt in Epworth Chapel. The closing period gives a choice of three studies: "Wesley and How It Happened," is the afternoon of Rev. Mitchell in the Tabernacle; "Community Service" is Prof. Hughes' theme in Epworth Chapel, while "Junior League Methods" are taught by Miss Mabel M. Pollard, of South Manchester at "The Haven."

The first evening of the Institute the gathering was bombarded with short but pithy addresses, both wise and witty, from officials and faculty under the direction of Dean Spaulding.

Yesterday evening the famous "coteries" came off, where the young folks of all ages divided up into ten groups, and about every ten minutes these groups were in as many different places having an amusing time with different stunts. Wednesday evening was given over to Foreign Missions. After the usual song service led by the presenter, Russell Waite, Rev. and Mrs. B. O. Campbell, returned missionaries from the Latin American countries, held a service in Spanish, with a number of the leaguers arrayed in the gaudy robes of Mexico and South America leading the singing on the platform. An American, (Dr. Spaulding) made an address in English, and sentence by sentence it was interpreted in Spanish by Mr. Campbell. The latter then gave in English a vivid picture of a bull-fight in Mexico.

The next hour was devoted to Japan, and the speaker was Miss Esther Thurston, who went from South Manchester to Japan several years ago. After five years there, including the time of the terrible earthquake when she was in Tokio, she is home on a year's furlough. In a very interesting manner she told of conditions in the "Sunrise Kingdom." She affirmed there was no "yellow peril," that if the Christians in America would simply treat the Japanese in a Christ-like way, the people there would readily respond. In spite of the extreme dissatisfaction occasioned among the Japanese have, by no means, forgotten the munificent millions of Red Cross aid sent at the earthquake time. The island is terribly over populated, and Miss Thurston thought that the United States with its millions of acres of uncultivated land ought to afford abiding places for some of the Japs.

NOOSE KILLS BOY SCOUT.
PARENTS DENY SUICIDE.
North Smithfield, R. I.—July 2.—State police are investigating the discovery of the body of Raymond Thompson, 15, a Boy Scout, hanging by a rope in the doorway of an attic room at his home. Although the medical examiner stated that it was a case of suicide, the boy's parents today insisted that the young Scout did not take his own life.

CHIEF FOY TALKS ON THE CONVENTION

Just Returned From Gathering of New England Chief at Manchester, N. H.

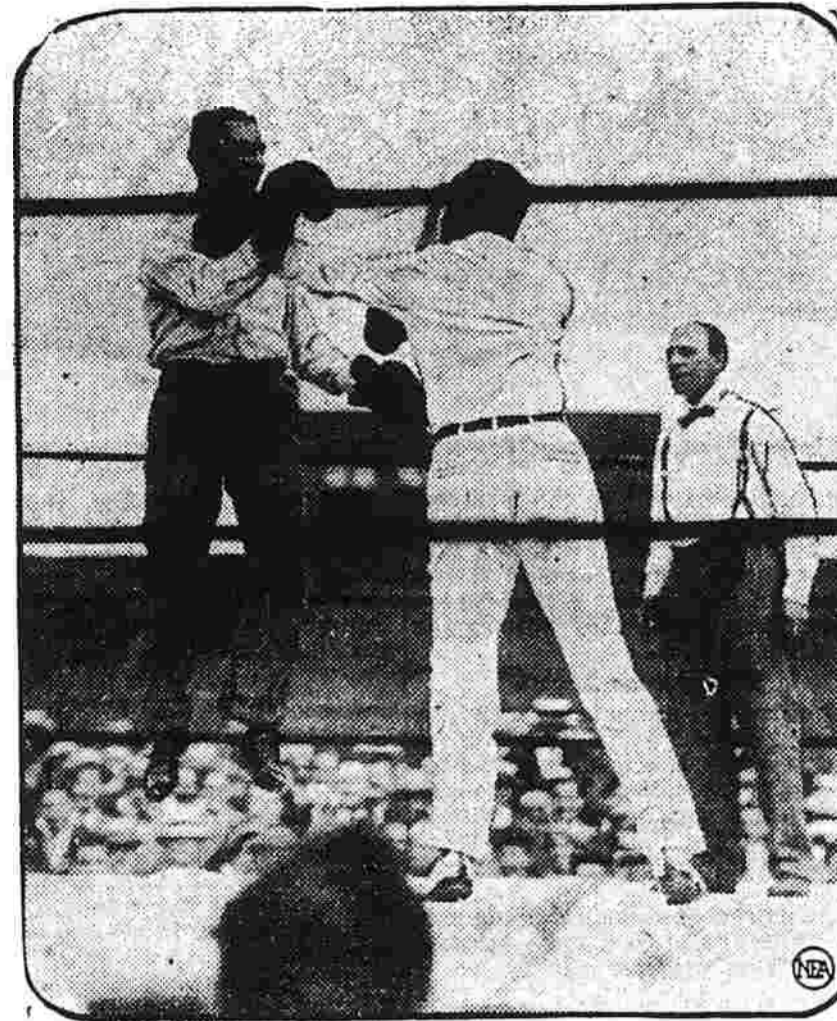

Chief Al Foy of the South Manchester Fire department, just back from the chiefs' convention in Manchester, N. H., gave some of his impressions of the convention yesterday. The chief said that the most important matter that came up during the sessions was the matter of salvage. It seems that the fire insurance companies are trying to have all fire departments have special men to take care of goods in stores and furniture in homes, to prevent the articles from being ruined by water. The chiefs were against the plan on the grounds that it was not firemen's work and that when the fire was over their work was ended. However, if the fire insurance company pays for the service the chiefs have no objection. In larger cities it was reported that the insurance companies maintain their own salvage corps that go out to all big fires.

Traffic Problem
Chief Foy brought up his traffic problem in a round table discussion and made the discovery that the same condition prevails in every city and large town in New England. It was decided that the only things that can be done is to educate the auto public to draw to the curb as soon as they hear the fire siren or to impose stiff fines on those who do not obey the rule. As to the volunteer system which is a local question, various chiefs discussed phases of it. In some places they had men in the houses as here and had so many call men who were paid for the time they worked at the fire. These men were not called unless to a blaze too big for the paid men to handle. This scheme worked satisfactorily, it was reported. It was also explained at the convention that ten trained men were worth at least 40 untrained men at a fire.

Demonstrations
There were many interesting demonstrations given at the convention. One was a little truck that carried just as many ladders as the large trucks do. This was accomplished by a double bank of ladders. Another was a demonstration of a pump that plans to do away with chemicals. It would be handy here, the chief believes, especially in the outlying districts where if the chemical tanks are emptied one must go back to the house to have them recharged. With the new pump even buckets could be used to fill the tanks. Another advantage is that the pump throws a stream about three times higher than a chemical tank. Oil Fires
As to fighting oil fires a demonstration was given with a sort of foam that will smother oil fires in a few seconds. This is being used in all cities where there is danger of oil fires which cannot be fought with water.

While the chief was talking, Lieutenant Austin of the Fire department, dropped in and after showing his credentials, he was shown around the firehouse and asked his opinion of our equipment here. He said that he would be worried if he had some of the small hydrants that he saw on his trips about town. He also said that Manchester had enough modern equipment to fight any sized fire but he feared there was a shortage of paid men to properly man the apparatus.

NEW FUEL FOUND

Jena, Germany.—Discovery of a new gas, as light as air, with all the power, but without the combustibility of gasoline, has been announced by Dr. Hugo Eckener, designer of the Los Angeles, former ZR-8. A new Zeppelin is to be driven with the gas.

The typhoid germ cannot be killed by freezing, according to recent experiments.

MASSACHUSETTS IS FIRST IN CHECKING RECKLESS DRIVERS

Most Drastic Motor Vehicle Law Becomes Effective Next January — Delays Expected.

Boston, Mass., July 2.—Not since registration of cars and examination of automobile drivers has such a drastic measure to protect pedestrians and automobile owners from the careless driver been adopted as a Massachusetts law. This will require that the owner of every automobile operating within the state be covered with insurance of at least $5,000, a bond of that amount, or securities or cash of that value. The law will become effective January 1.

In the meantime state officials and representatives of insurance companies are working hard on plans to speed up registration next year, for it is expected that new insurance requirements will entail more than twice as much work as there is now with the issuing of license plates and drivers' licenses and examination of applicants.

Incidentally it will mean that

Massachusetts will be the most expensive state in which to operate an automobile. It is expected that when Jan. 1 comes around thousands of owners will hesitate more than once before they put up the insurance policy.

Delays Seen Ahead. Insurance companies will be flooded by people wanting policies and if there is any attempt to investigate the holders before considering them good risks there will be delays. Then there will be those who are turned down by surety officials.

From such decisions there is provided an appeal to a state commission. That will mean delay, too.

Just how many of the policies will go to insurance companies is merely a guess. The amount will run into millions. But with all the extra cost of operation and the increased amount of claims to settle and defend, the insurance men state the law is not going to be a bonanza for them.

While it is generally admitted that eventually this new law will benefit both sides, it is pointed out that special traffic courts will have to be established to handle automobile cases, both civil and criminal. As it is now, it takes about three years for a case to go through the courts for final settlement.

More Payments. A traffic court of this nature has already been recommended here.

Just what effect this new law will have on the sales of new cars is problematical. With practically all cars being sold on the time payment basis, it means that the purchaser is going to be heavily loaded with payments on the car, driver's license fee, registration fee and the premiums on his insurance.

Meanwhile, the other states of the union will be watching with interest the first attempt in the world to give uniform protection in a financial way to those who are injured, or their families if they are killed, by the reckless drivers.

GAS KILLS RATS

Washington.—War-time gas pumped into the army storehouses at Duncan Field, Tex., have cleaned up the rats there and will save the army about $30,000 a year according to a recent War Department announcement. The rats infested buildings at Duncan Field that contained about $70,000,000 worth of army stores. The hydrocyanic gas cleaned them out in 48 hours.

TREE BURIED DEEP
New York—A cedar tree trunk found 45 feet below the tide level of the Hudson river, in the foundation excavations for a skyscraper, is a relic of the glacial area. Experts have identified it as a species of red cedar that flourished in Europe about a million years ago, but was never supposed to have lived in America until the present geological age.

SILENT GEARS
Washington—New gears for motor cars, which are claimed to permit noiseless operation, increased load-carrying capacity, long life and high efficiency, were described at a recent meeting of the Society of Automotive Engineers here. They are described as "tapered gears with offset axes," and cost no more than spiral bevel gears.

OPENS RICH AREA
Washington—A territory of 3,532 square miles of rich farm and pasture land is opened up by the permit of the Interstate Commerce Commission to the Dodge City & Cimarron Valley Railroad to build an extension from Manter, Kas., to a point near Joycoy, Colo. Less than 1 per cent of the area is in timber.

STORE NEWS OF THE WEEK

Wale's Olives Pimento stuffed	Dromedary Golden Dates	Veuve Chaffard Olive Oil
---	----------------------------------	------------------------------------

This week we want you to try these fine olives and so we have priced them specially at 2 bottles for 29c. This is the 3 oz. size and usually sell at 18c ea. Probably no better olives ever came from sunny Spain.

When you stuff your Dromedaries try adding a little cocoa and cinnamon to the sugar in which you roll them. Delicious! This week Dromedary Dates are priced at 2 pkgs. 39c., and all fresh stock.

This is perhaps the finest olive oil that comes into the U. S. It is bottled in France and is the pure, virgin product of the famous French presses. Our stock comes from S. S. Pierce of Boston, the importers of this brand.

IVAN'S COOKIES--ALL VARIETIES

The Philadelphia biscuit makers are rapidly forging to the front as master bakers of fine cookies. Here are a variety of tempting flavors in convenient tins that keep them always fresh. To make more friends for them this week the regular price of 29c per 11 oz. tin has been changed to 2 for 49c

Cruso Clams in Tins An excellent product. Why not a clam chowder some day this week? 2 cans 29c.	Ritter's Beans with Pork A medium grade product and good value this week. Specially priced, 3 cans 27c.
"ZO" Vitamin Food "ZO" is the choice part of wheat with vegetable concentrates added. It is rich in blood—nerve—and body-building elements. To make friends, special price, 2 packages 25c.	Sanatorium Bran This is a cooked bran rich in iron for the blood and lime for the teeth and bones. One of the best of health foods for both children and grown-ups. Large package 25c.

ABOUT TOWN

James Shaub's homer pigeon which remained on the roof of his home every day for nine days, has departed. It left yesterday for parts unknown. All efforts to trap the bird to read its leg bands proved in vain. The pigeon would stay on the Shaub roof all day long but during the night would fly away.

Mr. and Mrs. David Wilson of 100 Spruce street will leave tonight by automobile to spend the holiday week-end with relatives in Philadelphia. They plan to visit the Sesqui-Centennial.

Mrs. Charles Risley of Hamlin street, who recently disposed of her property there, leaves today for her summer home in Vermont near Brattleboro. Mrs. Risley will return in the fall and will occupy her new home which she has purchased through the Robert J. Smith agency.

Washington L. L. No. 117, will hold a memorial service at the East cemetery Sunday evening. Members will gather at the Orange hall on East Center street and will parade to the cemetery, led by the Center Flute band. Members are asked to bring flowers.

Miss Johanne Abelmann of 99 Hartford road left today for New York where she will sail Saturday on the S. S. George Washington for a stay of several weeks in Germany.

Dr. Howard Boyd is enjoying his annual vacation which is being spent in Texas.

Miss Margaret Boyle, of 1095 Main street, is spending a few weeks with friends in Detroit.

John Gaultier, of Rockville, who works for the Manchester Construction Company, was discharged from the local hospital yesterday. He was injured in a fall recently.
