

publican and one Socialist congressional seat at stake.

NORTH CAROLINA Normal Democratic majorities are claimed for Senator Leo Overman and ten Democratic representatives.

NORTH DAKOTA Senator Gerald P. Nye, Republican, is opposed by F. F. Burchard, Democrat and two Republican representatives.

OHIO Another heated contest between the parties here from the senatorial race on down the ticket.

OKLAHOMA There are eight candidates for the senatorial seat in Oklahoma.

OREGON After losing renomination on the Republican ticket, Senator Robert N. Stanfield has entered the race as an independent.

PENNSYLVANIA Nominally a Republican state, but arousing great interest because of the capture of many Democratic districts in the Coolidge landslide.

RHODE ISLAND No senatorial contest. Two Republican and one Democratic representative are seeking re-election.

SOUTH CAROLINA Senator Ellison D. Smith and seven Democratic representatives are unopposed.

SOUTH DAKOTA Senator Peter Norbeck, Republican, is opposed by C. J. Gunderson, Democrat and Howard Platt, Farmer-Labor.

TENNESSEE A border state where eight Democratic and two Republican representatives have no opposition.

TEXAS Chief interest centers around the campaign of Rep. Harry M. Wurzbach, sole Republican representative from Texas.

UTAH Senator Reed Smoot, the finance expert of the administration in the senate is seeking re-election.

VIRGINIA Three of ten Democratic representatives have opposition from Republicans.

WASHINGTON Senator Wesley L. Jones, Republican, is seeking re-election.

WEST VIRGINIA Five Republican representatives and only one Democrat are up for re-election.

WISCONSIN Senator Llewellyn J. Brown, Democrat, is seeking re-election.

WYOMING One Republican representative at large seeking re-election.

DEATH OF MRS. ANNA KLEIN Mrs. Anna Klein, wife of John Klein, died at her home.

TREASURY BALANCE. Washington, Nov. 2.—Treasury balance as of October 30: $230,560,594.05.

ALMOST CUT UP BY MOWING MACHINE Fortunately Machine Was Not in Gear When It Struck Bolton Woman.

Mrs. Loomis went out to the field to see her husband who was cutting grass with a mowing machine.

HOHENTHAL LOSES SUIT AGAINST HILLS Because his manner of defending the suit was more impressive than that of E. L. G. Hohenthal, Jr.

WOMAN, KIN OF THE ROOSEVELTS, KILLED Mrs. Dick Victim of Horse's Fall as She Rode With Meadowbrook Hunt.

TO ATTEND EPISCOPAL MEETING IN HARTFORD Mrs. James Harrison of Russell street and Mrs. Letting Cavely are the voting delegates.

GRIEVING FOR HUSBAND TAKES SUICIDE LEAP New York, Nov. 2.—Grieving over the recent death of her husband, Mrs. Elizabeth Clark Rogers.

ESSEX PASSES NOVEMBER 1 WITHOUT BLOWING UP Essex, Nov. 2.—Essex was still on the map of Connecticut today despite the threat of a New Jersey crank.

Mancheater Men Buy Their Clothes at George H. Williams

Cheaper Ironing. Merrie Coffield Saves your money Saves your time Saves your labor and improves your work.

The Manchester Electric Company

MUSSOLINI'S DOCTOR MET BY LOCAL M. D.'s His Private Surgeon Attended Convention of Doctors Held in Montreal.

Judging from the numerous attempts that have been made to take the life of Benito Mussolini.

ABOUT TOWN A daughter, Shirley Loretta was born Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Duncan of 719 Hartford Road.

MIDDLETOWN JUDGE SECRETLY A BENEDICT Middletown, Nov. 2.—Judge Curtis S. Bacon, who has presided over probate court here continuously since 1908.

DEATH OF MRS. IDA M. CASHMAN Mrs. Ida M. Cashman, 41 years of age, wife of P. J. Cashman.

Typewriters Do you need a good rebuilt machine? We have Underwoods, Royals and others; very moderately priced.

Adding Machines See and try the new Victor. TYPEWRITER EQUIPMENT We carry Ribbons, Typewriter Paper and Supplies of all kinds.

Dewey-Richman Co. Jewelers — Stationers — Opticians New Store — 787 Main Street.

MARIE GIVES BLOOD FOR SIOUX ADOPTION Brave Cuts Royal Finger in Ceremony of Making Queen a Tribal Daughter.

Aboard Queen Marie's Special Train in Montana, Nov. 2.—Queen Marie of Rumania breathed deep today in the wide open spaces of Montana.

CHARLES W. HOLMAN OF SUMMIT STREET returned last night from the national Y. M. C. A. conference held last week in Chicago.

ROYALTY AND OLD-FASHIONED MODERN and old-fashioned numbers will be on the program and Al Behrend's orchestra will provide the music.

MYSTIC REVIEW WHIST IN TINKER HALL Mystic Review, Woman's Benefit Association followed its meeting in the usual manner last evening.

CIRCLE Today & Tomorrow Orford Parish Chapter, D. A. R., will hold its November meeting Saturday, November 6 at the home of Mrs. A. E. Loomis.

Public Dance at Odd Fellows Hall King David Lodge of Odd Fellows and Encampment No. 128 of the Elks will give another public dance at Odd Fellows' hall Saturday evening.

Mancheater Men Buy Their Clothes at George H. Williams

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

The Penalty LON CHANEY In His Greatest Role.

DRIVES 20 MILES TO GET A HERALD. "We simply can't get along without The Herald," was the complimentary remark of a former local man who now lives in Hartford.

magistrates at Bologna have ascertained that the 18-year-old assassin, Zamboni, died of strangulation. Three stiletto wounds on his body, and they all were superficial.

DENIED PETITION. Marshall S. Thompson, former local resident, was denied a petition for pardon from the prison in Wethersfield yesterday.

THE RIALTO Manchester's Coziest Theater Today and Tomorrow JETTA GOUDAL in "Her Man O'War"

STATE Tonight LAST TIMES 7:00 and 9:00. It's the Mightiest of All Great Stories of America's Tremendous Western Empire.

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

THE PENALTY LON CHANEY In His Greatest Role.

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Whole Anti-Fascist Press of Italy Suppressed as "Precautionary Act."

Rome, Nov. 2.—The Fascist government has ordered all opposition newspapers suspended, as the result of the attempt to assassinate Premier Benito Mussolini on Sunday.

Antea Zamboni, the youth who attempted to shoot Mussolini at Bologna, was suffering from a nasal ailment which affected his mental organs.

Mancheater Men Buy Their Clothes at George H. Williams

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Mancheater Men Buy Their Clothes at George H. Williams

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

BREAKS A COLD IN A HURRY "Pape's Cold Compound" is pleasant and affords instant relief.

Your Trip To New York may be anticipated with more enjoyment if you secure accommodations at the HOTEL WELLINGTON.

Mancheater Men Buy Their Clothes at George H. Williams

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

Country Store and Surprise Night Thursday-Friday-Saturday Red Grange

THE LAST SHOWING OF "THREE BAD MEN"

Big Feature's Last Time Tonight—Tomorrow Country Store, Two Features and Surprise—Latter Part of Week Real Football Game on Stage.

When you leave the State theatre tonight after seeing "3 Bad Men" you will have to rub your eyes before you can come to yourself and realize that you are living in the twentieth century. It seems as if you were living in the past and not so far in the past at that because you see a proclamation of President U. S. Grant and that was not so very many years ago at that. "3 Bad Men" is not alone a story of American history that every American should know but it is a story that will bring the tears to your eyes as the story unfolds. The

At C. H. Tryon's Sanitary Market

Tel. 441
TELEPHONE 442.

Groceries

QUALITY AND LOW PRICES.
McIntosh Apples, 98c basket.
Good Apples, 75c basket.
Golden Bantam Corn, 15c can.
3 pkgs. Cream Corn Starch, 25c.
Creamery Butter, 49c lb.
Strictly Fresh Eggs, 85c dozen.
3 cans Evaporated Milk, 25c.
3 cans Asparagus Tips, $1.00.
Shredded Wheat, 11c pkg.
Gold Medal Flour, 1-8 bbl. sack, $1.29.
Royal Lunch Crackers, 18c lb.
Fancy Mixed Cookies, 18c lb.
Not-a-Seed Raisins, 10c pkg.
3 pkgs. New Currants, 25c.
Baker's Chocolate, 18c half lb.
Baker's Cocoa, half lb., 18c.

Meats

Native Fowl, 45c lb.
Native Chickens, 50c lb.
Legs of Lamb, 37c lb.
Lamb Patties, 3 for 25c.
Rib Lamb Chops, 39c lb.
NATIVE VEAL TODAY.
Cutlets, 50c lb.
Veal Chops, 40c lb.
Veal Patties, 3 for 25c.
Rib Roast Beef, 35c lb.
Pot Roast, 25c lb.
Sausage Meat, 35c lb.
Small Sausages, 42c lb.
Beef Liver, 18c lb.

OYSTERS EVERY DAY
89c a Pint.

history part of it is accurate to the smallest detail. The human interest part of it is as accurate as a cast of a dozen leading screen stars can portray it. The background is furnished by a cast of 25,000 and the whole outdoors as a stage.
Do not forget that tonight will be the last opportunity for you to see this screen classic.
For tomorrow night the State management has a double feature bill. There will be Hoyt's "Trip to Chinatown," a Country Store and a surprise. You know the value of the gifts given away and tomorrow will be no exception to the rule. As for the surprise, come and see. Hoyt's "Trip to Chinatown" is a play that your father and mother will tell you about. The other feature will be "Racing Blood." That as its name indicates, is a story of the turf. Just enough romance in it to offset the thrills of the big horse race which is the big moment of the play.
For Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the management has, in addition to five selected vaudeville acts, a big feature, especially appropriate at this time. "Red" Grange in "One Minute to Play." The star as everyone knows is a great gridster and reports say that he is just as good on the screen as he is on the gridiron. What makes this picture more interesting here is the fact that Grange is the idol of all the local youngsters and when he appeared in Hartford recently in person all of the High school boys and girls went in to see him.
To create atmosphere for the football play, the State management has arranged a football game on the stage. This will be a real football game, the first real football game ever put on a stage in the history of Connecticut, if not the country for no one has ever heard of such a stunt. There will be two full teams, the North Ends and the All Stars, twenty-two local football players in full uniform, cleated shoes, head guards, nose masks and all; all on their toes waiting for the referee's whistle to go. This in itself is a hair raising feature and as the slangy persons say: "An' that don't mean maybe." As for the vaudeville, it is well to say that the same calibre of high class acts will be shown as is the policy of the State management to maintain and that means the best acts of their class now available. The various New York booking agencies.

GREAT LON CHANEY AT CIRCLE TONIGHT

"The Penalty" Is Latest Vehicle for Great Character Actor—Better Than "The Miracle Man."

Last evening two women were overheard discussing the feature for tonight and tomorrow at the Circle theater.
"The Penalty." One woman said: "I have seen Chaney in every play since I first saw him in 'The Miracle Man' and every time I see him advertised I make it my business to see him." The other said: "I never read Chaney's name without getting a feeling of fear but at the same time I must see him whenever he is in pictures."
Here are two different versions of Chaney's acting, taken from a conversation heard a few evenings ago in the Circle lobby. They expect this is the greatest character actor held in local esteem.

There is no doubt about it. Take Chaney in "The Miracle Man" as the fake cripple and then think of him in "Phantom of the Opera" and no matter how you hate him or fear him on the screen you must admire him for his sheer ability to act.
"The Penalty" is just the type of feature that Chaney fits into. You must see it to appreciate it. As in all Chaney pictures there is mystery and adventure galore.
For Thursday and Friday there will be double features at the Circle. Ken Maynard in "The Unknown Cavalier" a western and Government Morris' great magazine story "That Model from Paris." The stars in this play are three. Eileen Percy, Otto Lederer and Marceline Day. It is an entertaining comedy drama. She could speak English but didn't. He couldn't talk French but studied it to make love. She masqueraded as a French model so you can imagine what a general mix-up these two made before things were straightened out.

A Word With the Old Folks

Elderly People Are Learning Importance of Good Elimination.

IN the later years of life there is apt to be a slowing up of the bodily functions. Good elimination, however, is just as essential to the old as to the young. Many old folks have learned the value of Doan's Pills when a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys is required. Seanty or burning passages of kidney secretions are often signs of improper kidney function. In most every community are scores of users and endorsers who acclaim the merit of Doan's. Ask your neighbor!

DOAN'S PILLS
60c
Stimulant Diuretic to the Kidneys
Foster-McMillan Co., Mfg. Chem., Buffalo, N.Y.

DRAMA, THRILLS, HUMOR IN RIALTO PICTURE

A remarkable view of the inside workings of the German intelligence department during the World War forms the basis for the suspense and thrilling action in "Her Man o' War," Jetta Goudal's first starring vehicle which is being featured at the Rialto theatre today and tomorrow.
This material, rather than the battle scenes to which one is accustomed to in war pictures, supplies the grim menace that lies behind the comedy and romance with which the picture is packed. It is a pitting of the wits of an American prisoner, who is really a spy, against the cunning, experienced and scientific head operative of the German Secret Service, Professor Krantz. William Boyd plays the part of the prisoner and Frank Reicher that of the professor.
The fact that the action takes place in a new locale for American war pictures—a quiet sector behind the German lines—takes the plot out of the usual channels and not only enhances the drama and melodrama but gives a quaint and beautiful setting for the romance between the star and Boyd.
Despite grim danger and thrills that keep the spectator's spunk tickling and hair on end, the love story and the comedy element of "Her Man o' War" predominates. There are a number of ludicrous situations in which the hero finds himself that would draw a laugh from the most chronic dyspeptic. A splendid supporting cast appears in the picture. The selected shorter subjects to be shown include a comedy, news reel and novelty reel. The management of the Rialto wishes to announce at this time that suggestions received here will always be accorded an earnest consideration. Those who would like to see some particular picture brought back for another showing or who have some other idea which would prove enjoyable to the majority of the audience are urged to submit it to the manager. Of course some suggestion would not be feasible, but in every instance they will be investigated thoroughly and no doubt a great many valuable tips will be received in this manner.

ROBERTS EXONERATED.

Former Local Man's Case in Willimantic Is Nolle.

Manchester friends of Leroy Roberts, former local resident, will no doubt be glad to learn that Roberts has been exonerated of all blame in connection with the fatal burning of a Willimantic youth recently at his filling station in Willimantic.
The continued case came up for a hearing in the Willimantic police court yesterday morning. The charge against the former local garage man who recently removed his business to Willimantic, was "filling a motorcycle tank with gasoline while the motor was running." Through his counsel, Arthur T. Kelley, Roberts entered a plea of not guilty. Prosecuting Attorney Harry S. Gaucher then asked the court to nolle the case. The request was granted by Judge Foss.

OUR TOWN PLAYERS TO HEAR VAN DOREN

Official of Enfield Players to Speak Before Amateur Theatians Wednesday.

Louis B. Van Doren, president of the Thompsonville Chamber of Commerce and secretary-treasurer of the Enfield Players, will speak to the members of the Town Players at the annual meeting which will be held in the School street Rec on Wednesday evening. Officers for the coming year will be chosen and reports heard from the retiring officers.
The meeting was originally scheduled for last week but the illness of Miss Geary, director of the club, caused it to be postponed until this week. Miss Geary, it was later learned, will not be able to return to the Rec for a week or more because of her illness.
A program of entertainment will be given by members of the club. This will include readings and instrumental selections.
Each member of the Town Players and any who wish to become members of the organization are asked to attend the meeting. Miss Jessamine Smith, president, will call the meeting to order at 8 o'clock.

Charged with stealing apples from Stephen Miller of this town, A. Silver, Hartford peddler, was fined $5 and costs in the Hartford police court yesterday morning.

CARDS CLAIM FIVE
The St. Louis Cardinals have recalled five players sent to the Syracuse club of the International League for seasoning. One of the five is Walter Roetger, an outfielder who is expected to star next season.

Class Forming

A violin outfit will be loaned while learning and at the completion of a course of lessons a new outfit will be given free of charge.
Enroll this week!
See
Timothy C. Sheehan
Orford Bldg. 865 Main St.
So. Manchester, Conn.

CORNS

Lift Off—No Pain!

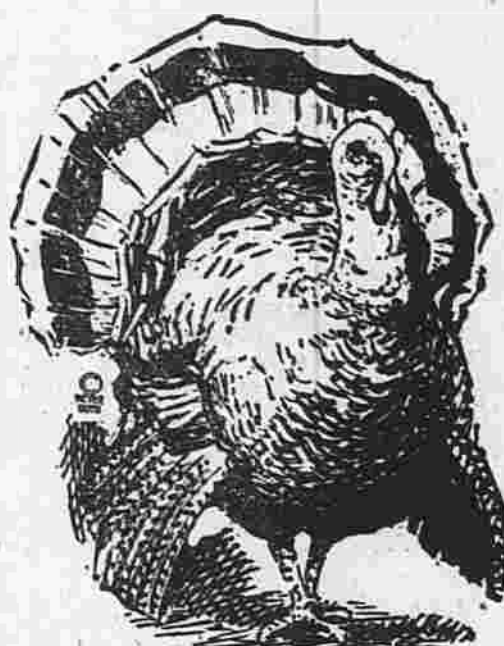

Doesn't hurt one bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers.

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the foot calluses, without soreness or irritation.—Adv.

Promptness
We Will Take Pride
in Promptly
Executing
and Properly Completing your Plumbing Work
Joseph Wilson
28 Spruce St. Phone 641.

Keith's Big November Feature Free Turkeys For Thanksgiving

Enjoy your Thanksgiving Dinner at our expense. With every suite of furniture or Kitchen Range sold between now and Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 25th, we are going to give, absolutely Free, a large, tender, juicy Turkey, all dressed and ready for the oven. We have contracted for a large number of these fine birds—the finest we could find in the market—they have agreed to furnish as many as we shall need and that every one will be a native turkey. There's one for you, and all your friends. So come in at once and select your Suite for Dining Room, Living Room or Bedroom, or a Kitchen Range. Pay for your purchase in 12 months on our Profit Sharing Plan which entitles you to a liberal discount, and in addition one of these fine native turkeys will be delivered to your home absolutely Free on Thanksgiving Eve.

Quaker Ranges

You will make no mistake if you purchase a Quaker Range. There is no better range made. Every Quaker is a perfect baker and a perfect heater. They are economical on fuel and are very easy to keep clean because of the smoothness of the castings.

Many models in stock to choose from, and our men are experienced in stove work so that your range will be installed properly.

QUAKER ROYAL

Combination Range
4 holes for gas and 2 for coal, very compact, the finest and most up-to-date range on the market.

Black Finish .....$162.
Enamel Finish .....$216.
(On our Profit Sharing Plan with 1 year to pay.) And a Fine Turkey Free.

A Whale of a Big Gobbler

Two Native Hen Turkeys

TO BE GIVEN AWAY BY LOT
If you don't need a suite or range, every customer during the month of November will receive a chance on this prize drawing. Coupons will be given out from now until Thanksgiving for every dollar we take in, both on old accounts and new accounts and all cash sales—one coupon anyway, and additional coupons for every five dollars paid. Bring your coupons to the store on date to be announced later, drop them in the box which will be provided.
Three numbers will be drawn by disinterested party; if you hold one of these numbers you get one of the prize turkeys. (Turkeys will be on exhibition in our show windows later in the month.)

42 Pc. China Dinner Sets $8.95

Choice of attractive patterns. Just the thing for the occasional party with refreshments—or suitable for complete service for six people.

G. E. KEITH FURNITURE CO., Inc

Cor. Main and School Sts. South Manchester, Ct.

Quaker Ranges

QUAKER SOCIAL

A medium size coal range with double mantle. A very popular number and an honest, practical stove.
Black Finish .....$89.50
Enamel Finish .....$144.00
(On our Profit Sharing Plan with 1 year to pay.) And a Fine Turkey Free.

QUAKER C

A large size coal range, and a favorite of the Quaker line for years. Very dependable, in Black only. $112.50.
(On our Profit Sharing Plan with 1 year to pay.) And a Fine Turkey Free.

Gloves For Work or Play

(G)lovely cold weather we're having!

The tingle in the air finds a ringing response in our glove section.

Right on hand with any sort of gloves you need for dress, for business, for driving, for work.

Some men like the lined kid gloves, while others think the knit ones of wool are the warmest for cold-weather sport wear.

We feature

FOWNE'S Daniel-Hays-Buck D. and P.

Unlined Dress Gloves—Suede—Mocha—Buck and Cape—Priced low, $2.50 to $6.00.

Lined Dress Gloves, $2.00 to $6.00.

Work Gloves and Mittens, 50c to $3.00.

Boys' Gloves and Mittens, 59c to $2.00.

We invite your inspection.

C. E. HOUSE & SON, INC.

Manchester Evening Herald

PUBLISHED BY THE HERALD PRINTING CO. Founded by Elwood S. Ela... Every Evening Except Sundays and Holidays.

TUESDAY, NOV. 2, 1926.

INTERESTING RETURNS.

After Manchester people have heard enough of the early returns to satisfy them that everything in Connecticut has gone in the regular way, solidly Republican, they are pretty sure, tonight, to find their interest jumping first to the result in New York state, where the fight of Mills against Smith for the governorship and the battle of Senator Wadsworth against Robert F. Wagner, plus the defection of a swarm of drays and a group of disgruntled feminists, for the United States senatorship, excite the most acute speculation of any contests in the east.

It is generally admitted that if Smith wins his bout with Mills by less than two hundred thousand plurality he is practically done as a candidate for the nomination for the presidency in 1928, because it will prove a tremendous falling off in his power as a votegetter. Whereas if he is defeated, or is elected by a narrow margin of a few thousand votes his elimination from the 1928 contest will be so automatic and absolute that it will not even be discussed.

To be sure Smith won his present term as governor in 1924 by a matter of only a little over a hundred thousand plurality. But that was in face of a Republican landslide that gave Coolidge $70,000 more New York votes than John W. Davis received; so that Smith was nearly a million votes stronger than his party two years ago. Today he has no such handicap to overcome and if he loses seven or eight hundred thousand votes of his strength away will go all the argument of his followers for making him the Democratic nominee. There is going to be a heap of interest here in tonight's returns from New York.

Almost as keen is the interest in the fate of Senator Wadsworth, on which hangs also the fate of the dry forces as a political factor in that state and in the East. If Wadsworth wins despite the tremendous effort put forth today by the prohibition advocates it will be such a complete vindication of independence of thought in the matter of liquor legislation that the shackles of the dry influence will be knocked off the hands and feet of every eastern senator and congressman. A good many Connecticut people will be even more concerned over the issue of this test, than over the Mills-Smith struggle.

Another contest in which Connecticut folk will be deeply interested is that between Senator William M. Butler and former Senator David I. Walsh for the Massachusetts senatorship. Many reports have come from the neighbor state that the personal unpopularity of the present senator would overcome the desire of the majority of Massachusetts people to endorse the Coolidge administration, and that the glib and magnetic Walsh's influence with the mill towns people would be sufficient to carry him to victory. It would not be surprising if it were a good many hours after the closing of the polls this evening before the result of the Massachusetts senatorship were made known.

Illinois, Ohio and Pennsylvania results will be of far more than casual interest, too. It's going to be an absorbing business, getting the returns tonight.

ADVISORS.

The man who opened a business college after having made a colossal and inexcusable failure of a manufacturing enterprise, the minister whose sons and daughters all went wrong, the boxing instructor who was licked by a boy in his first street fight and the beach life guard who was drowned in a mud puddle all fade before the experience of Vashti Dale and her daughter.

Vashti Dale, who for years has written for magazines on "How to Train Girls" is Mrs. Charles Nichols of Rock Island, Ill. She has a daughter, Bulah. The other day Bulah attended a gin party with a new man. After the party, alone, she held up and robbed an ancient party named Maloney in his home, pointed a gun at him and made him produce a suit of his clothes. Then she compelled him to cut closer her already bobbed hair and find her one of his caps. Finally she stripped in the presence of the horrified septuagenarian, put on the male attire, left him her silk lingerie and set forth.

She caught a freight train, rode to a neighbor town, rode back again next day and was forgiven by her parents. Also matters were fixed up with the Maloney person.

We submit that up to this point Vashti Dale may not have so very far outclassed the above listed contenders for booby honors. But now she proceeds to make the bizarre results of her education of girls the subject of a new set of articles on "How Not to Train Daughters."

Granted that Vashti Dale has demonstrated that she is immensely better qualified as an authority on this subject than on the one she has followed so long, it would still seem that the thing indicated as appropriate in the circumstances is a large, high, broad and deep measure of silence from her typewriter. If there is a woman in America who has scored a higher mark for unsuccess as a mother and a trainer of youth, or as one completely unfitted to give advice, than Mrs. Charles Nichols of Rock Island, Ill., we haven't yet heard from her. And we don't expect to.

BASSETT.

Psychologists, criminologists and other students of the mental sciences will be sure to make an enthusiastic study of the case of Charles H. Bassett, who yesterday won his release from Wethersfield prison from the State Board of Pardons. He has served 21 years for complicity in a murder which was the upcome of a gangster robbery. He had been a tough young crook for years. He was a bad prisoner, unruly and violent. Then he became interested in mathematics, for which he had an undiscovered talent. Study changed the whole course of his thoughts and impulses. He is said to have become a really cultured person with a great urge to follow the profession of engineering, for which he has been fitting himself for years. In his plea for freedom he expressed confidence that he would be able to make a success in that line of endeavor. At all events he has undergone a complete metamorphosis during his imprisonment.

Bassett will be seized upon as proof of their contentions by those rather numerous students of crime who insist that every individual can be kept in the right track if his mind can only be diverted to the development of some useful interest already existing within him—that the interest is always there, though frequently never discovered. One swallow does not make a summer, but perhaps there are often more swallows than we see. There may be far more Bassetts in our prisons than we suspect.

POLICE HANDICAP.

A fiction story in a recent issue of a well known magazine brought out a fact that very few people outside of New York know and which not many more will believe—that if an accused person refuses to take the witness stand in the course of his trial in New York state there is no way in which his criminal record if he has one, can be brought to the knowledge of the jury. Any question calculated to bring out the fact that he has been convicted of felonies, say half a dozen times, if asked by the prosecution of any police officer or other witness, will be objected to by the defence and the objection promptly sustained. The theory being that the jury must judge absolutely on the evidence presented in the particular case on trial.

Of peculiar interest is this condition with relation to the man "Olson," who was killed by one policeman in Detroit after "Olson" had killed another officer, subsequently to his murder of "Killer" Cunniffe and a woman, presumably in a row over the division of spoils of the Elizabeth mail robbery.

"Olson" is "Ice Wagon" Crowley or Conley or half a dozen other names, as well known to the police of Manhattan as the facade of the Pennsylvania station. He has been arrested time and time again. He has served one sentence in prison. He was before the Court of General Sessions in New York last year on a charge of robbery and gun toting. In that case the police knew that he had also done a murder, but they couldn't prove it. A jury discharged him. It has been impossible to let the jury know the kind of an individual Crowley was. He looked like a big, clumsy ruddy faced boy. The jury gave him the benefit of the doubt. Instead of being put away in Sing Sing he was turned loose to rob the mails and put an end to the life of a gallant war hero of a policeman.

In this singular provision of the New York law, which not only makes justice blind but semi-idiotic, is to be found explanation for much of the failure to win the police war against criminalism.

FASCISM.

Here is the way the Italian Fascist argue: Mussolini must be obeyed so implicitly and so universally that every person in Italy who dares to intimate that he should not be obeyed must be killed. And if Mussolini, in his mistaken generosity, would spare the lives of any of them he must be disobeyed by his supporters and those who disobey him must be slain in disobedience of his will.

This is logical according to the workings of the Fascist mind. That it is the most extraordinary logic ever seriously promulgated makes it all the more logical, for Fascism is extraordinary in its every aspect. Meantime, while Mussolini expresses the firm belief that his life is being protected against assassins by direct interposition of Divine solicitude, the puzzling circumstance that a bullet entered the front of his coat and passed out at the back, without wounding him, is accounted for by the assertion that the Duce wore a sole leather vest under the coat. The logic of this is, probably, that God helps him who helps himself.

Stewart's WASHINGTON LETTERS

By CHARLES P. STEWART.

Washington, Nov. 2.—They were talking at the Department of Agriculture of the work of Luther Burbank.

It was agreed that he probably was the greatest of all plant breeders. However, to think of him as the founder of a science is all wrong, the agricultural savants added; the breeding and development of plants and animals is as old as farming and stock raising.

A few of the older breeders were nearly as great and worked about as fast as Burbank, but most of them are unknown to fame, many were prehistoric, and the transformations they accomplished in plant and animal life took generations and centuries. One of the departmental scientists cited corn.

Experts long entertained the theory, it appears, that corn was derived from a wild grass—a weed—called "teosinte." It was evident, however, that teosinte must have developed into corn in prehistoric times, for the Indians already were corn raisers when the first white men came to America, and the Indians said they had had it as far back as they could remember.

So there seemed to be no way of testing the theory; it would take too long. Burbank wasn't so sure about that.

He got some teosinte and began breeding it up and up, improving it all the time. In 17 years it was good corn, not teosinte.

Not so many generations ago, contributed another of the experts, the peach was exclusively a semi-tropical fruit—rather more sensitive to cold than the present-day orange.

Now it thrives in the northernmost of the states. Resistance to frost was gradually bred into it.

Can the same thing be done with the orange, the lemon, the banana? The authorities are of the opinion that it's a distinct possibility.

There's the case of wheat, broke in another voice. They raise it now on the arctic circle. The sun helps in that latitude, by shining nearly 24 hours out of the 24, which makes the wheat grow day and night, but the farmers helped by developing a fast-ripening variety. The yield has been increased, too. Departmental agronomists estimate that the yield couldn't have exceeded eight bushels per acre in the late stone age. Today the American average is nearly twice that, while in Denmark, where cultivation is more intensive, the average is close to 40 acres. The corn belt may be pushed north also, the department's experimenters say, and so may cotton, like peaches.

A visitor from the bureau of animal industry blew in and took a hand. "How many eggs a year does a wild hen lay?" he asked. About a dozen. We have domesticated hens that lay 200 to 300. How much milk does a wild cow give? Enough to support one calf for a few months. We have cows that yield 1,000 pounds of butter in a year. How much meat on a wild hog? Thirty or forty pounds. And a prize tame one? A fifth of a ton, or thereabouts. The explanation is, breeding.

The Agriculture Department isn't much worried over the food problem yet, even with the growth in the country's population. Between the reclamation of weeds and wild animals, the improvement of the old stand-bys, and the defiance of climatic conditions, it fancies the supply will expand as it's needed.

IN NEW YORK

New York, Nov. 2.—They call him Johnny Uptown and he is more typical of New York.

He belongs to the exclusive inner group of oddities that include the champion gate-crashers, the chewing-gum scrapers of Pennsylvania station and the silk-hatted doorman of the Metropolitan Opera, who knows 1,000 celebrities by name. Of course Johnny Uptown isn't his name. It was fastened on him because of his habit of saying, when asked where he was going: "Oh, I'm on my way uptown."

Tradition has it that Johnny is worth something like a million dollars. This probably is exaggeration; but certain it is that he has money. He always has wanted to be in the "center" of things, part of the hectic movement and rush of the city. He wanted to be in the picture when things were going on. What good money, thought Johnny, if all you can do is spend it!

So he created an unusual job. He appeared on Park Row many years ago and began to look the newspaper over, particularly the sports departments. He learned that editors of various newspaper departments wanted copies of competing sheets as soon as they came from the press.

Johnny started a service. He planted men in the press rooms and saw to it that the very first papers reached the city desks with all possible speed. Today Johnny can walk into any press room.

He gets the first papers of the press and then goes speeding away to distribute them. In this manner he gets plenty of action and has a stand-in that makes him not only a neat wage but a public figure.

It perchance, upon visiting New York and walking into the lobby of a theater upon a second or third night, you see an immaculately-clad man, in full evening regalia,

Advertisement for Watkins Brothers, Inc. featuring various furniture pieces like the Upholstered Pieces, The Odd Pieces, and Governor Bradford Rocker. Includes a list of items and prices.

A Shot in the Arm

Old Masters

I arise from dreams of sleep In the first sweet slumber of night, When the winds are breathing low And the stars are shining bright: I arise from dreams of thee, And a spirit in my feet Hath led me—who knows how? To thy chamber window, Sweet!

DAILY ALMANAC

All Souls' Day which the Catholic church dedicates to all those believed suffering in purgatory. Birthdays anniversary of two former presidents, Warren G. Harding and James K. Polk. Election Day. Kansas adopted amendment to constitution providing for statewide prohibition. "Too bad about poor old Dauber, wasn't it?" "What happened to him?" "He got so far behind in his rent he had to marry his landlady!"

QUEER QUIRKS OF NATURE

BY ARTHUR N. PACK. President American Nature Ass'n. American plane tree, the botanists tell us it should be called but sycamore it has long been called and sycamore it will probably remain. It is rated as our largest and tallest deciduous tree, but attains perfection only in the stream banks and moist valleys of our southern states. In city streets or dooryards it reaches only a moderate size. The "button balls" consist of in-

TOM SIMS SAYS

By the way, who is the king of Rumania? A New York editor, hunting in Africa, caught the elusive kudu by running it to earth. He got his practice with Dame Rumor. Headlines that make you sick: WE DID IT FOR OUR MOTHERS, SAY SEVEN OF BANDIT GANG. No, he hasn't been smoking cigarettes—those are walnut stains. The huddle system is not confined to the football field. It also is well known as an apartment heat plan. The longer you look at some women the harder they get. A THOUGHT: Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any.—Col. 3:12. To forgive a fault in another is more sublime than to be faultless one's self.—George Sand.

Like Clothes She Wears, Fashion Model Soon Goes Out Of Style

BY MARIAN HALE
NEA Service Writer.

New York, Nov. 1.—Harry, the sleek salesman in the wholesale dress house where I worked as a model, came up behind Dolly and kissed her on the back of the neck as she was leaning over.

There was a light, meaningless love-making between salesman and model.

"Oh, awfully nice," smiled Harry. But Harry never asked Dolly for a date. He never took her to lunch. Neither was unusually interested in the other. This was simply the comradery of the house. Between the salesman and models there existed a friendly banter and light, meaningless love-making.

Part of Her Work. A Gotham model comes in contact with many kinds of men. And, as I learned in two weeks as a model in one of the large wholesale dress houses, she has a different "defense and attack" for each.

"VOTE AS YOU PRAY," BISHOP HAMILTON SAYS

Fight Against Prohibition Is Fight Against Methodist Episcopal Church He Tells Audience Here.

"The fight against the Prohibition Amendment in Congress after the coming election is a fight against the Methodist Episcopal church more than against any other religious denomination. Therefore, go to the polls on Tuesday and vote as you pray."

Thus did Bishop John W. Hamilton of Washington sum up the coming election before a large congregation at the South Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning. It was the first anniversary of the dedication of the church.

Bishop Hamilton took his text from Isaiah, "They shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks."

An exhortation against war and everything connected with it took up considerable of Bishop Hamilton's discourse. He declared that war was antiquated for the reason that it started with the first family when Cain slew Abel.

Causes of War. "We must get back to the gun to the man behind it. And what do we find? Envy, Jealousy. There is nothing older than the murder of Abel. And war is not one bit different today."

SILVER LANE BUS UNDER NEW CONTROL

The Hartford, Silver Lane and South Manchester bus line has been taken over by F. H. Geer of Hartford, who has had much experience in business.

ADVERTISING PAYS

Advertising certainly pays. We lost our money but we got it back again. "No, but we got two better dogs"—Outlook

HEBRON

The Young Women's Club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edmund Horton, with an attendance of about twelve members.

Visitors at the home of Mrs. E. G. Lord on Thursday were Mrs. Lulu Lord and her daughter Esther of Manchester, Mr. and Mrs. William Hamner and daughter Gertrude and Mrs. Mary E. Lord, of Westfield, Mrs. George Slason and daughter of New Haven.

The American Legion entertained their friends in an open meeting at the town hall Thursday evening. The meeting was opened by Commander Harold Gray.

A demonstration of aluminum will be held at the home of Mrs. Carrie Burnham on Thursday, November 4.

The auction which had been planned for October 29th at the Grover Club house has been postponed until a later date.

COLUMBIA

Miss Anne Dix is visiting her sister in New Jersey.

introduced the speakers, the Hon. Richard P. Freeman of New London and Mrs. Lenny B. Whitman of Groton.

Mrs. Lillian Clark has been spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Albert Brown, of Columbia lake.

Mrs. W. W. Miller of Woodstock, Vt., and Miss Haywood of Hartford are spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Carpenter.

Madison Woodward spent Thursday at the home of his sister, Mrs. John Locke of Amherst, Mass.

The Village Improvement society held a supper at the Town hall Friday evening, about 100 being present.

Mrs. Lester Hutchins of Chestnut Hill entertained seven of her friends from Berlin at dinner Thursday.

The Columbia school committee held its monthly meeting Friday evening in the Center school house.

Twenty members of the Christian Endeavor society held a Halloween party Saturday evening at the parsonage.

Mrs. Lulu McCorkle closed her Columbia house Tuesday and will spend the winter in Hartford.

Mrs. Eugene Oehlers of Springfield, Mass., is a guest at No. 12.

Hard colds are prevalent, due to the sudden changes in the weather.

ideas from buyers who have bought dresses in Paris and returned to this country with them, to sell the styles.

One woman buyer with an import shop charges $100 just to show her dresses to designers in the wholesale business.

If one of these designers wishes to copy a Parisian frock, he must pay $35 in addition to buying the material and making the gown.

Buyers for retail stores in all parts of the country come to the New York wholesale houses twice or four times a year.

From the dresses shown on the models they pick the style and designate the size and particular color in which they want the dress.

The dress that is planned by the designer in Paris, made by the wholesale house in New York, modeled in the showrooms, sold to a buyer, eventually reaches the thousands of retail stores, and is purchased by women in California and Maine.

What becomes of the fashion model? She either works into the business, before her modeling days are over, or marries. Few models are over 28 years old.

BOLTON

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Alvord and son, Morgan, and Edwin Lawton attended the Yale-Army game at New Haven, Saturday.

Mr. Frank Strong entertained the Grange at her home Thursday evening. The house was tastefully decorated for Halloween.

Junior Jones spent the week-end in Hartford visiting Junior McGurk.

The Women's League of Voters met at the home of Mrs. Charles Summer, Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Clarence Lewis met with an accident recently, cutting both feet.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Ruggles visited friends in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Alvord and son, Morgan, have moved into Hartford for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. McGurk and family spent Monday at their home here.

Mrs. A. Bunce had a Halloween social at her home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Burnham and daughter of South Windsor were guests at Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Taylor's recently.

Let us give you a ride in a new Buick. Call Manchester 1600. Capitol Buick Co.—Adv.

Let us give you a ride in a new Buick. Call Manchester 1600. Capitol Buick Co.—Adv.

Let us give you a ride in a new Buick. Call Manchester 1600. Capitol Buick Co.—Adv.

Let us give you a ride in a new Buick. Call Manchester 1600. Capitol Buick Co.—Adv.

Let us give you a ride in a new Buick. Call Manchester 1600. Capitol Buick Co.—Adv.

Let us give you a ride in a new Buick. Call Manchester 1600. Capitol Buick Co.—Adv.

Let us give you a ride in a new Buick. Call Manchester 1600. Capitol Buick Co.—Adv.

Let us give you a ride in a new Buick. Call Manchester 1600. Capitol Buick Co.—Adv.

Let us give you a ride in a new Buick. Call Manchester 1600. Capitol Buick Co.—Adv.

Merchant Regains Health

Suffering From Dizzy Spells, Indigestion, Loss of Sleep, Restored to Good Health by Tanlac.

Everyone who has the tremendous responsibility of supporting a family knows the value of good health. It is life. For a year, Louis Porter, a well-known Worcester, Mass., merchant, 28 Woodford St., suffered from indigestion, heartburn and dizzy spells that would make him blind.

"Whatever I ate caused miserable hours of suffering. My nerves were in such a wretched state I could not sleep nights. I was always tired, and tried everything in the search for relief. Then I read of how Tanlac had helped others, so decided to give it a chance to bring me relief. It met with every need in my case. I am on my fourth bottle and again feel like my old self. I eat everything without pain. I enjoy a good night's sleep and get up feeling fine. Tanlac deserves a lot of credit."

This amazing tonic made from roots, herbs and berries helps build up weak bodies, relieve causes of pain. Ask your druggist for your first bottle today.

Dr. Fred F. Bushnell VETERINARIAN 494 East Center Street, Manchester Green. Office Hours: 7 to 8 P. M. TELEPHONE 1847.

"The Cleaners that Clean"

We're Obliging:

Folks like to deal with obliging organizations; concerns that will gladly stretch a point in order to oblige a customer. We do business that way ourselves, so we know!

There are a lot of little things that a cleaner can do to be helpful to his customers. We do all of them!

THE DOUGAN DYE WORKS INC.

HARRISON ST. SOUTH MANCHESTER, CONN. Phone 1510

A Car to be Proud of

Any touring car or roadster takes on added good looks when equipped with a Glassmobile all-season enclosure.

This enclosure is light-weight, thin in construction and designed to make the car look lower and snappier.

Glassmobile makes the open car the equal of the closed car for vision, comfort and convenience and the superior of the closed car for economy, power and road qualities.

Your open car dressed up with this enclosure will be a source of real pride.

Manchester Auto Top Company

W. J. Messier, Prop. 115 Oak Street Phone 1816-3

$15 down; balance easy

GLASSMOBILE

CLOSED CAR COMFORT WITH OPEN CAR ADVANTAGES

Acid Stomach

"Phillips Milk of Magnesia" Better than Soda

Here after, instead of soda take a little "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

Simmons Metal Beds

New arrivals of these standard goods in several desirable styles. Round or shaped tubing; spindle, panel and cane panel effects, also solid panel head and foot-board.

All are beautifully finished in dark wood. Prices $6.75 to $35.

Home Variety Store

Corner North Main and North School Streets.

Sage-Allen & Co.

2-7171 INC. 2-7171 HARTFORD

Wednesday, November 3rd

WILL BE

"WOMAN'S CLUB DAY"

at Sage-Allen's

The New Club House On Broad Street.

In Order to Raise Funds for the Maintenance of Their New Club House, This Great Organization of Hartford Women Will Take Over the Entire Store for One Day, Wednesday, and Will Receive a Large Percentage of the Day's Sales for Their Enterprise.

Special Sales In Every Department Will Celebrate The Event

WE HAVE planned this sale in order to help the Hartford Woman's Club in their campaign for a fund with which to finance their new club house on Broad Street, and their many charitable and civic activities.

And, for this day, Wednesday, we are offering new, seasonable merchandise at very special prices.

For you this means not only a splendid opportunity to aid a worthy cause, but also to save substantially on new things for yourself and for your home.

Executives for the "Hartford Woman's Club Day"

President and General Manager, Mrs. Robert F. Gadd. Educational Director, Mrs. Gilbert Ashley. Superintendent, Mrs. Harold G. Bergen. Director of Information Bureau, Mrs. Jerome Mayer. Credit Manager, Mrs. Alfred C. Wurts. Head of Home Cooking Department, Mrs. Samuel MacFadyen. Director of Adjustment, Mrs. Fred R. Bill. Personnel Director, Mrs. H. J. Montgomery. Advertising Managers, Mrs. Charles E. Wertman, Mrs. B. Norman Strong.

FLOOR MANAGERS: Mrs. Howard Critchfield, Mrs. Willard Gay, Mrs. Charles B. Whittlesey, Miss Elizabeth Cairns, Mrs. D. Haynes Murphy, Mrs. Harry Alling, Mrs. Allan D. Colvin, Mrs. Ernest F. Nutting, Mrs. Ralph L. Smith.

Tuesday's "Times" and Wednesday's "Courant" Will Give You News Of The Special Values Offered In Each Department.

TOWN ADVERTISED WELL IN PITTSBURGH

Cheney Silk Ties Distributed at Convention of C. of C. Secretaries — Mr. Rix's Impressions.

Secretary George E. Rix of the Chamber of Commerce returned Saturday afternoon from the Twelfth Annual Convention of the National Secretaries Association at Pittsburgh.

Secretary Rix has attended eight of the twelve annual meetings of the NACOS (National Association of Commercial Organizational Secretaries) and is listed among the old timers of the organization.

Manchester, Connecticut, was particularly well advertised at the convention this year on account of the beautiful silk ties given by Cheney Brothers to each delegate, and by the exhibition in the reading room of the articles on fraudulent sales which have been appearing in the Herald.

As might be expected, the convention was a model of efficiency. All papers presented were carefully prepared and severely edited and censored by capable committees before presentation.

Time Consumed by the Convention. The Connecticut State Building was, of course, one of the first places to be visited. Here a complete and up-to-date file of Connecticut newspapers including The Manchester Herald were on exhibition.

Pennsylvania has the most elaborate state exhibit. The British, Spanish and Italian exhibits of jewelry and art are bewitchingly beautiful.

Real Smoky City. As far as the city itself is concerned, one does not gain a very pleasant first impression as it lives up to its reputation for smoke and dirt.

CALLS FLORIDA STORM GIFT OF REAL LUCK

Al Schacht, well known baseball comedian, spent last winter as a realtor in Florida.

The day after the storm, someone asked Al if he had suffered much of a loss as a result of the storm and in his usual optimistic manner, he replied:

"I should say not. That storm was a good break; all the beach lots now have ocean frontage."

men as Carnegie, Heinz, (of 57 variety fame), Frick, Mellon, Schwab, and others.

Our Exhibit. Time Consumed by the Convention. The Connecticut State Building was, of course, one of the first places to be visited.

WITH THE LOCAL AUTO DEALERS

The most optimistic of the automobile dealers admit that business is not what it was three months ago, but that is to be expected at this season.

W. R. Tinker, Jr., has delivered several Chevrolet light-delivery trucks during October. His latest is a truck of this type to L. P. Campbell, the North End grocer.

The Crawford Auto Supply Co. reports deliveries of an Oldsmobile coach to Axel Swan of Pine street and de luxe sedans to Tony Carabino of Norman street and Michael Pantalone of Center street.

These are the correct answers to the questions which appear on the comic page: 1—The man has the lighted end of the cigar in his mouth.

TO TELL KIWANIAN ABOUT GROWING APPLES

W. H. Cowles Speaker at Luncheon of Kiwanis Club Tomorrow Noon.

The Manchester Kiwanis club, as well as other Kiwanis clubs, Chambers of Commerce and Farm Bureaus throughout the state, is co-operating with the Connecticut Pomological society in celebration of National Apple Week.

At the meeting at the Hotel Sheridan tomorrow the speaker will be William H. Cowles of Woodbridge street, one of the largest and most successful apple growers in this section.

It appears that when Mrs. Squatrito saw that two children had so much money she became suspicious and when she discovered that they had found it she at once took steps to see that it was returned to the rightful owner.

STOECKEL DISCUSSES AUTO REGISTRATIONS

A tendency to reduce fees for motor vehicle registrations and operators' licenses "and to rely more and more upon the fuel tax for producing money" is now evident.

A new method of determining motor vehicle registration fees, based on "gross weight," has been under careful study in Connecticut, the commissioner brought out.

After an extended investigation conducted by the U. S. Bureau of Standards at the request of and with the co-operation of the departments of motor vehicles and highways of Connecticut, this method is reported on as the best and most thorough.

Connecticut motor vehicles are now taxed by the state according to total piston displacement. Commissioner Stoekel took the view that motor vehicle handling is a state proposition and that the federal government has never taken and probably never will take active steps for enforcement of motor vehicle laws, except to the extent of giving advice along lines of that of the Hoover conference.

German Cinema Star Here

Emil Jannings, German movie celebrity, and his wife, Gussy Holl, an actress famed in the fatherland, selected an hour unpropitious for publicity to arrive in the United States.

Emil Jannings, German movie celebrity, and his wife, Gussy Holl, an actress famed in the fatherland, selected an hour unpropitious for publicity to arrive in the United States. Their steamer docked the same day as Queen Marie's.

Jack Dwyer, motorman on the local branch of the Connecticut Co., believes that a colored woman can joke even when facing death. For example: A few mornings ago Dwyer was piloting a car filled with colored men and women from Burnside to Hartford.

At one intersection of streets he saw an auto bearing down on him. He slowed up his car and the autist put on speed to beat him to the crossing.

COLORED WOMAN JOKES IN FACE OF DANGER.

Jack Dwyer, motorman on the local branch of the Connecticut Co., believes that a colored woman can joke even when facing death. For example: A few mornings ago Dwyer was piloting a car filled with colored men and women from Burnside to Hartford.

At one intersection of streets he saw an auto bearing down on him. He slowed up his car and the autist put on speed to beat him to the crossing. The trolley missed the auto by inches.

These calendars are in the manner of "art calendars" devoted to the school, its faculty, classes and clubs. A page of the calendar is given over to each. For instance, the page of the Senior class would contain the class motto, poem, with perhaps a picture of the class president, besides the calendar of the days of the month.

The seniors who contemplate the publication of such a calendar, have in mind one that would be fitting one for the local school. If they see that the school will stand in back of them in the doing of this work, they will put out a calendar before the Christmas vacation.

Emil Jannings, German movie celebrity, and his wife, Gussy Holl, an actress famed in the fatherland, selected an hour unpropitious for publicity to arrive in the United States.

American Legion Troop No. 7 Boy Scouts of Manchester, carried away all the honors last Saturday afternoon in a Scout Field Day of the Legion troops at Keeney Park.

STOGIES FROM PITTSBURGH SEEN ON OUR MAIN STREET

Business and newspapermen along Main street in the South End this morning were smoking long, slender, peculiar looking cigars, the gift of George E. Rix, secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Rix has just returned from a convention held at Pittsburgh, Pa., the home of the famous "Pittsburgh Stogies," and the odd looking cigars seen here came from Pittsburgh.

"Every man smokes stogies in that section of the country," said Mr. Rix. "I saw but four or five cigars being smoked on the streets while I was in 'The Smoky City'."

London. — Part of the remains of an ancient Roman house, the mosaic pavement of a 2000-year-old villa, was uncovered recently in Woodchester, Gloucestershire. It had been lavishly built, with pillars, corridors, colonnades and court yards.

German Cinema Star Here

Emil Jannings, German movie celebrity, and his wife, Gussy Holl, an actress famed in the fatherland, selected an hour unpropitious for publicity to arrive in the United States.

Emil Jannings, German movie celebrity, and his wife, Gussy Holl, an actress famed in the fatherland, selected an hour unpropitious for publicity to arrive in the United States. Their steamer docked the same day as Queen Marie's.

Jack Dwyer, motorman on the local branch of the Connecticut Co., believes that a colored woman can joke even when facing death. For example: A few mornings ago Dwyer was piloting a car filled with colored men and women from Burnside to Hartford.

At one intersection of streets he saw an auto bearing down on him. He slowed up his car and the autist put on speed to beat him to the crossing.

COLORED WOMAN JOKES IN FACE OF DANGER.

Jack Dwyer, motorman on the local branch of the Connecticut Co., believes that a colored woman can joke even when facing death. For example: A few mornings ago Dwyer was piloting a car filled with colored men and women from Burnside to Hartford.

At one intersection of streets he saw an auto bearing down on him. He slowed up his car and the autist put on speed to beat him to the crossing. The trolley missed the auto by inches.

These calendars are in the manner of "art calendars" devoted to the school, its faculty, classes and clubs. A page of the calendar is given over to each. For instance, the page of the Senior class would contain the class motto, poem, with perhaps a picture of the class president, besides the calendar of the days of the month.

The seniors who contemplate the publication of such a calendar, have in mind one that would be fitting one for the local school. If they see that the school will stand in back of them in the doing of this work, they will put out a calendar before the Christmas vacation.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The Boys' Glee Club rehearsed yesterday in the assembly hall. The boys will probably make their first public appearance next week, National Education Week.

The Girls' Glee Club will rehearse this afternoon in the assembly hall. The girls, like the boys, will most likely appear publicly next week.

Orchestra rehearsal will be held on Wednesday afternoon. This organization, too, will be included in the Educational Week program, and will render several numbers.

The assembly this week, the football assembly, will be held on Thursday, is being anticipated by the students. Although the school football team has won only one game this year, interest is high among the students.

Today's Big Offer to All Who Have Stomach Agony

When you have any trouble with your stomach such as gas, heaviness and distention, why fool with things which at best can only give relief.

Such a medicine is Dare's Mentha Pepsin, a delightful elixir that is sold by Magnell Drug Co.—and all live druggists with the distinct understanding that if it doesn't greatly help you your money will be gladly returned.

It has helped thousands—it will no doubt help you.—Adv.

When you have any trouble with your stomach such as gas, heaviness and distention, why fool with things which at best can only give relief.

dent, besides the calendar of the days of the month.

The seniors who contemplate the publication of such a calendar, have in mind one that would be fitting one for the local school.

They see that the school will stand in back of them in the doing of this work, they will put out a calendar before the Christmas vacation.

ONE COL LOCAL BOX. FOUR HURT IN MIDNIGHT AUTO CRASH AT MILFORD. Milford, Nov. 2.—Four residents of New Haven were injured last night when the car in which they were riding crashed into a truck on the Milford turnpike.

Three are receiving treatment in Milford hospital, one being reported seriously injured. They are Nicholas Perelli, 21, fractured skull; Rose Madigan, 16, body injuries; Louise Kehoe, 14, lacerations of the body; and Robert Affinito. Affinito was able to leave the hospital.

A. H. Phillips So. Manchester Store Hotel Sheridan Bldg. ANNUAL CANNED GOODS SALE A FEW OF OUR SAVINGS Tomato Soup 6 cans 44c Campbell's Peas 6 cans 60c Sweet and Tender Corn 6 cans 60c Spaghetti 6 cans 50c Corn 6 cans 90c Green Mountain Shrimp 6 cans 84c "Where There's Life—There's a Phillips Store"

RIDE BY BUS Hartford-Silver Lane South Manchester Motor Stage Line Under New Management. TIME TABLE In Effect November 1, 1926.

Table with columns: Lv. Htd. Cor. State and Front Sts., Arrive South Man'ter, Lv. So. M. Ch. Oak and Main, Arrive Hartford. Includes times for 5:30 a.m., 6:15 a.m., 7:15 a.m., 8:15 a.m., 9:15 a.m., 10:15 a.m., 11:15 a.m., 12:30 p.m., 1:30 p.m., 2:30 p.m., 3:30 p.m., 4:15 p.m., 5:15 p.m., 6:15 p.m., 7:15 p.m., 8:15 p.m., 9:15 p.m., 10:15 p.m., 11:15 p.m.

Table with columns: Lv. Htd. Cor. State and Front Sts., Arrive South Man'ter, Lv. So. M. Ch. Oak and Main, Arrive Hartford. Includes times for 8:30 a.m., 9:30 a.m., 10:30 a.m., 11:30 a.m., 12:30 p.m., 1:30 p.m., 2:30 p.m., 3:30 p.m., 4:30 p.m., 5:30 p.m., 6:30 p.m., 7:30 p.m., 8:30 p.m., 9:30 p.m., 10:30 p.m., 11:30 p.m.

Are You Going To Paint? Builders' Hardware. We have taken the agency in town for Lowe Brothers Paints and have a full line on hand, including house, auto and wagon paints. Also Varnish. Before buying paints get our prices; we can save you money. Pure Linseed Oil per gal. $1.20 Pure Linseed Oil per 1/2 gal. 65c. Lock Sets per set 75c Front Door Sets per set $3.00 Butts 30c and 40c Garage Door Sets $3.20 Yale Locks 65c Miller Locks 25c. Manchester Green Store W. Harry England. Phone 74.

Fancy Hose. A great assortment in silk, silk and wool, cashmere, mercerized and lisle. 50c to $1.50 Symington Shop At the Center

"CASCRETS" FOR COSTIVE BOWELS, HEADACHE, COLDS. To-night! Clean your bowels and stop headache, colds, sour stomach. Get a 10-cent box now. Turn the rascals out—the headache, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and bad colds—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascrets.

TEST ANSWERS. These are the correct answers to the questions which appear on the comic page: 1—The man has the lighted end of the cigar in his mouth.

Warner Optical Co. Quality—Service and Prices. 42 Asylum St. Hartford

Sport Carnival at Rec Tomorrow Night for Mill Workers

Comparing Cloverleaves and Cubs Difficult Task Because It's 1926

It begins to look as though Manchester will have a real town championship clash in football this season. Both the Cubs and the present title holders, the Cloverleaves, seem to be on a par and to present it is hard to attempt to say which is the better team. The experts have made so many flops this season that it is not safe to come forth with a prediction.

If the Cubs had the same team they had last year, we would venture to say the Cloverleaves would win in a walk, but that is not the case. The Cubs will be almost fifty per cent stronger when they take the field against their bitter rivals the latter part of the month. There seems to be improvement at nearly every position. Here are a few of the changes. Jimmy "Barber" Wilston star, will fill one of the wing positions. Groman, brilliant broken en field runner, will be back at

Oberlander In Action Against Harvard

BY "SWEDE" OBERLANDER

All-America Halfback, 1925

Perhaps the two greatest passes that I made occurred together in the Harvard game last year in the stadium at Cambridge. They were identical plays, and each resulted in a field goal kicked by Captain Cheek.

Twice during that period we held them for downs within our own twenty-yard line. Our backs were against the wall. A second attempt by them for a field goal failed. The period ended. Now with the ball on our twenty-yard line we began to make a consistent march for a score.

Eventually we brought the ball to their thirty-eight yard line. We were in punt formation. The pass was called. The following play developed thusly: Horton, the second man on the tandem on the right, received the ball on a direct pass from the center. He whirled and handed it to our quarterback, who had lined up on the left.

In the meanwhile, the ends had been tearing down the field. When I looked up, Tully was just clearing Crosby, the last defensive line, spotted him as my mark. A long speedy pass was necessary. Without stopping, he picked it out of the air and was over the last chalk mark for a touchdown.

Our lead now well established, we opened up more ricketyly with our passing game. In the third period we were approximately in the same position as when the above pass was executed.

Following the old adage "use the same play as long as it works," MacPhail called again for the long pass. Again it worked exactly after the fashion of the first. Another touchdown was scored by the same man by taking a pass on the dead run after it had been in the air for forty yards.

GROWLING AT JONES' POLICY INCREASES

Yale Alumni Members, One New Haven Paper, Demand Tad Resign.

New Haven, Nov. 2.—Rumblings of dissatisfaction with the Jones football regime at Yale came to a head here today when members of the Alumni Association openly demanded that the football coach resign. A New Haven newspaper also took up the cudgel against Tad, but at the same time admitted that his job at Old Eli was secure as long as he cared to retain it because of his connections.

LAST NIGHT'S FIGHTS.

At New York—Bud Gorman, of Kenosha, Wis., won on a foul from Harry Persson, of Sweden, fifth round; Yale Okun of New York won a decision over Little Boy Blue of St. Paul, ten rounds; Al Welch of Buffalo, N. Y., won decision over Murray Gittits of New Haven, ten rounds; George Godfrey, of Leipsville, Pa., won on foul from Jack Townsend of New York, sixth round.

ARMY BANS SYRACUSE

West Point, N. Y., Nov. 2.—United States military academy authorities today confirmed the report that a temporary break in athletic relations with Syracuse University had been agreed upon.

DELANEY TO MEET JOHNNY RISCO, MAYBE

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Jack Delaney of Bridgeport, Conn., light heavyweight champion of the world, has been signed by Promoter Nells Vierup for a ten-round decision match at the Coliseum here November 26. It was announced today. His opponent has not yet been selected.

DENIES LATZO IS PARALYZED

New York, Nov. 2.—Denial that Pete Latzo, welterweight boxing champion, had suffered paralysis of his right arm and would never fight again, was made today by Paddy Mullins, his manager, after a telephone conversation with the Latzo home. Latzo cut his hand six weeks ago and blood poisoning developed.

The greatest Buick ever built. Try one and be convinced. Capitol Buick Co. Phone 1600.—Adv.

Holy Cross and Aggies To Play Here on Feb. 22

Manchester basketball fans are at least assured of one star basketball attraction this season even though no local club has signified similar intentions. Connecticut Agricultural College and Holy Cross will clash at the local State Armory on February 22.

PERSSON TO FIGHT IN HARTFORD MONDAY

Hartford, Nov. 2.—Harry Persson, Swedish heavyweight champion, who meets Pat McCarthy in the star bout of George Mulligan's show at the State Armory here next Monday night, is rated as one of the three real contenders for the crown that now sits on the head of Gene Tunney, fighting marine.

Grantland Rice, in a story last week pointed to Persson, Jack Delaney and Big Monte Munn as the only three big men of the period who can be reckoned as liable to give Tunney real trouble in the squared circle.

It is hard to understand how Rice

DOOLEY IS NOT EQUAL TO NOTED OBERLANDER

Dartmouth misses "Swede" Oberlander, outstanding star of last season.

The defeats already suffered by Dartmouth at the hands of Yale and Harvard strikingly call attention to Oberlander's value.

Last season Harvard, Cornell and Chicago fell before Dartmouth. Green victories were largely the result of Oberlander's fine play.

However, the brilliant forward passing game that made Dartmouth so dangerous last season is missing this year. Lane and McPhail still are in the backfield as receivers, but Dooley, a mighty fine passer, appears to lack the precision of Oberlander.

names Munn instead of Jack Sharkey, but he undoubtedly is right regarding Delaney and Persson.

Persson came to these shores practically an unknown but in a comparatively short time has lifted himself into the front ranks.

He has bowled over all opposition thus far and is slated for a bout with Jack Delaney, provided Dempsey does not decide to retire from the ring.

Jack told Rickard at their conference last week, that he would not return to the ring unless sure that he was fit to give a good account of himself.

The big Swede is in fine hands, having placed himself in the care of Jimmy DeForest, veteran trainer, who handled Luis Firpo when the South American made his famous American invasion.

Persson has a fine physique and tremendous hitting power. He still has much to learn of the finesse of the game, but DeForest will bring him along as rapidly as anyone could.

George Lamson, who meets "Little Boy Blue" in the Persson-McCarthy semi-final is in Hartford working out for his bout.

Nick Fidel and Pince Tooma will meet in an eight-round preliminary and Joe Smith, Hartford amateur, who is turning pro on this occasion, will tangle with George McRae of Springfield.

Cheney Brothers A. A. To Hold Another Departmental Clash At Rec; Machinists Won Last Time

It is expected that there will be a large gathering at the School Street Recreation Center tomorrow evening. It will be the occasion of another "Rec Night" staged by Cheney Brothers' Athletic Association and in the past these affairs have proven a rousing success. The program is scheduled to get under way shortly after 6 o'clock.

This is the fourth departmental sport carnival to be sponsored by the Athletic Association at Cheney Brothers. Two were held last winter not to mention the meet with the J. J. Regan Company of Rockville which ended in a tie. The last Rec Night resulted in a victory for the Machine Shop with the Weaving Mill capturing second place honors.

There will be a large number of entries from each department. Their names have been handed in to the director of athletics in each department and this morning were forwarded to John L. Jenny, secretary of the Athletic Association.

Mr. Jenny has arranged a fine program of contests. In bowling, two-man teams will roll for total pinfall. In relay racing, four-man teams will compete, each man running two laps against time. In pool, there will be two players on each side and games of fifty points will be played. Tug-of-war will be decided with five-man teams pulling for one minute endurance tests. In checkers, the decision will go to the winner of two out of three games. In volley ball, the teams will play one 21-point game with the finalists competing in the best two out of three 15-point games. In setback, play will be as partners from 9:30 until 10:30.

Indoor horseshoe pitching is a sport which is about to receive its indoor initiation. This sport has thrived successfully out of doors in Manchester during the summer season and a great amount of interest has been aroused. The indoor

FROSTY PETERS MISSES GRANGE'S INTERFERENCE

While Frosty Peters of Illinois, touted as a second Red Grange, has failed to live up to the wonder feats of the illustrious red head, he still is quite a football player.

The Illinois backfield misses Earl Britton. That young man made much of the interference that helped Red Grange become a gridiron star.

There is no Britton to help Frosty Peters and as a result that young man has pulled few of the thrills this season that Grange supplied over a period of three years.

If there is one thing the Illini backfield lacks it is interference. That is one reason why Peters looked like an ordinary performer against Michigan.

sport has been proposed by Director E. H. Cheney. The games will be waged in the Junior Gymnasium. Two-man teams will play 21-point games with the winners of the semi-finals meeting in a series of 15-point matches. Squira wooden boxes filled with clay will be used.

The point-scoring system has been arranged so that there will be no score for third place. First place winners will receive five points while the runnersup will have three tallyes chalked up on their ledger. In all tournaments the loser will be eliminated. But one team will naturally be allowed to enter from each department. Members of all teams must be from the same department.

When do Alabama and Louisiana State meet on the gridiron and where will the game be played?—P. G. H.

Oct. 30 at University, Ala.

PERSSON LOSES BUT LOOKS GOOD

Walsh Impressed With Swede's Work in First Garden Bout.

By DAVIS J. WALSH
N. Y. Sports Editor
New York, Nov. 2.—Having forfeited his membership card in the benevolent and protective order of volunteer pallbearers, this writer cannot consistently predict, without endangering his amateur standing, that the heavyweight championship of the world is due to go on a long journey. But, after what happened at Madison Square Garden last night, he will venture to recognize this calamitous event as a distinct possibility. I don't mind admitting that I wandered out into the night greatly enamored of Harry Persson, Sweden's entry in the heavyweight sweepstakes.

Harry didn't win, at that. Suffering from a rash of authority to the head, Referee Jimmy Gorman awarded the fight to Bud Gorman on a foul. It was the only way Bud could have won, barring a flutiron in either hand.

The blow that killed father obviously was low. So was the one that immediately preceded it, for Harry had much in common with old Cy Morgan of the Athletics. He had plenty of his fast one but no more control than a skate without a foot.

Yet Referee Crowley was not above censure, either. He seemed to be afflicted with the disqualification phobia and began calling Persson's shots for him before they were well on the way. His next-to-the-final warning was issued against a punch that landed over Gorman's head, and the two that ended it seemed to leave the victim in slight distress if at all.

Coming Offhand, I would say that Jimmy De Forest must impress his man with the fact that it is not the intercollegiate rules to tackle below the knees. He has taught him everything else, except the matter of an adequate left hook. De Forest almost kidded Firpo into the title but, in a few short months, he has brought Perssons further along than the man with the bearded chest ever was or will be.

The Swede looked the part and no mistake. He head-slipped Gorman's opening barrage of lefts and then rocked Bud with three rights shot straight from the shoulder. This, apparently, is Persson's best punch, although his right to the heart, in close, was a fearsome thing to hear and look upon. He almost ruined Gorman with his attack in the second round, Bud scoring only with a left hook to the jaw.

The third round was much like the second, except that Persson was warned about low punching. The same warning also had been issued in the opening round.

Gorman came out for the fourth with the idea of carrying the fight to Persson but the Swede again crossed two rights to the jaw and Bud thought better of it. Persson, meantime, had been boxing cleverly. He picked off plenty of Gorman's left leads and slipped a lot more with his head. He was very cool and won every round but the fifth. That one was hardly under way long enough for him to win it, merely long enough for him to lose it—and the fight as well.

TOWN TITLE CHECKER TOURNAMENT STARTED

Tom Weir announced last night that he had completed arrangements for a town championship checker tournament to be conducted at the West Side Recreation Center starting on Friday evening.

Entries are now being made and it is hoped to have at least 18 before the tournament commences. The schedule calls for four nights of play with nightly prizes being awarded.

The winners will be matched against players from out of town as an added attraction at the completion of the tournament. The list of entries will be announced later.

EELS HITS 145 SCORE IN CHURCH LOOP GAME

Eells turned in a neat bowling exhibition last evening in the Church League at Conran's alleys at the North End. He scored a high single of 145 and came within three pins of Henry's high three string record of 351.

Team No. 2 won three straight from Team No. 1 and Team No. 3 won the same from Team No. 4.

Team No. 2.
Stiles	104	93
Norton	78	91
V. Ingraham	97	83
Ineson	96	96
Henry	75	88
450 451 432

Team No. 1.
Hoves	66	75
N. Smith	78	72
McGonigal	107	100
McGonigal	92	82
Tenney	86	91
423 420 430

GEORGETOWN LEADS IN POINT SCORING

New York, Nov. 2.—Georgetown increased its lead for national scoring honors in football as a result of Saturday's games, the Washington school having a total of 230 points. Southern California was second with 199 points, Vanderbilt third with 195 and Lafayette fourth with 190.

Other contenders were Pennsylvania, 188; Penn State, 185; Syracuse, 177; Colgate, 170; Oregon Aggies, 169; Holy Cross, 159; Stanford, 158.

Bill Madden, Columbia captain and halfback, is now leading the Eastern college grid scorers with 63 points. Whipplet Carr, the Syracuse back, who is laid up with a broken leg, is second with 59.

Colgate's fullback, Shaugnessy, is third with 53 points, and Kenneth Strong, of New York University, is fourth, with 55. Two Wilsons, one of Lafayette and the other of Army, both undefeated teams, are fifth and sixth, respectively, with 54 and 49 points each.

Graham, Fordham's quarterback; Weston, Boston College's halfback; Connor, of New York University, and Lane, of Dartmouth, are the next in line among the scorers.

Strong, of New York University, has 16 successful points after touchdowns, giving him the lead in that field. Madden, the Columbia captain, is second, with fifteen points after goal.

O'Hare, of Clarkson, has six field goals, followed closely by Hamilton, of Navy, with five. Madden, of Columbia has two.

Take a tip to pipe-joy

IF COLUMBUS had not been of investigative mind, this grand and glorious continent might never have been discovered. It's a good thing to experiment, up to a certain point. If you don't yet know the joys of Prince Albert, for instance, experiment!

It will be more than an experiment; it will be an experience! A delightful experience! It will prove to you that you have been missing the best your pipe was prepared to give you in downright contentment. Buy some Prince Albert today and see.

That first fragrant whiff, as you open the tidy red tin, will set you astir with anticipation. Eagerly you will fill your pipe and light up. As that wonderful smoke trickles up the pipe-stem, you will ask yourself where you've been all these years!

Cool as a Palm Beach suit. Sweet as the promises of an office-seeker. Mild as a May morn. Mild, but satisfying right down to the last puff. You can hit it up from sun-up to sun-down . . . and you will. There's a tidy red tin nearby with your name in it!

PRINCE ALBERT

—no other tobacco is like it!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, round and half-pound tin holders, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of tile and punch removed by the Prince Albert process.

© 1926, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, N. C.

LATEST FASHION HINTS BY FOREMOST AUTHORITIES

THE HERALD'S HOME PAGE

FEATURE ARTICLES ABOUT INTERESTING WOMEN

Campus Rebels

NEA FICTION

© 1926 NEA SERVICE INC.

by Virginia Swain

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE
DR. PETER DORN, astronomy professor, and ERIC WATERS, senior, are rivals for the favor of JUDITH MARTIN, a young teacher.

Judith arouses the wrath of DEAN TIMOTHY BROWN by defending Eric against the accusations of bootlegging poison liquor from which two students have died.

MYRA ALDRICH, in love with Eric, is jealous of Judith. The dean plans to have Judith dismissed. Mrs. Brown is determined to prevent her husband from persecuting Judith, who has befriended her.

Dr. Dorn is puzzled because he has learned that Judith lives in the room from which he had seen Eric climbing down the trellis, weeks ago. He does not question Judith and she has no chance to explain that he had climbed up to ask her to unlock the door for Myra, who had stayed out too late.

The professor avoids Judith thereafter. Mrs. Timothy Brown waits in the corridor outside Judith's classroom, to tell her that "KITTY" SHEA, town bootlegger, has learned of a trip to the city on which Mrs. Brown met her lover and is demanding blackmail.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
CHAPTER XXIV

JUDITH drew Mrs. Brown with her down the hall. They went into the art museum, where in terminable rows of plaster casts stood stately black hangings.

"Now tell me all about it. Are you sure Shea knows anything? He might be bluffing."

"Mrs. Brown shook her head miserably. 'I thought so too,' she said. 'So I tried bluffing it out, at first. Ordered him from the place. But he only laughed his horrible laugh and stood reared back, with his hands in his pocket, and a smear of tobacco juice across his chin.' She shuddered.

"Go on," said Judith, mercilessly. "What did he say?"

Mrs. Brown steeled herself with an effort. "He just laughed a min us. Then he said, 'Better fork over the dough. It's easier in the wrong run.'"

"Then I looked at him, and I knew he'd know, and I remembered being afraid someone would hear us talking in the College."

"While I was thinking, he stepped closer and said, 'In case you don't understand how I got the dope on you—I'm part owner of the College Inn. You may remember a conversation there with a certain young lady. Your story about a little trip to Middleburg was interesting.'"

"After awhile, when I could talk, I said, as unconvincingly as I could, 'You are talking nonsense, and you have no proof.'"

"He laughed very loudly, and I looked at the kitchen window, for the cook was making cookies there. He saw me turn and brought off his grey cap with a low bow. 'A thousand pardons, Madame, for being so thoughtless. I shall speak more softly. Or perhaps I shall speak at all—depending on your generosity toward a poor sinner.'"

"But you can't make anybody believe your tale," I said to him, and he laughed again.

"You can't!" Well, I have a copy of a certain hotel record that would make the dean check-up on your actions on a certain week-end pretty damn fast. I fancy."

Judith turned and faced him. "Kitty" Shea is trying to blackmail me—and somebody else. You've got to stop him.

"Well, I knew he had me there, for Timothy would turn every stone to find out where I was that week-end, and if he asked my people, they'd be sure to give it away that I never came to visit them." Judith. "WHAT are we going to do?"

Judith sat down. "First, stop wringing your hands," she said. "We need our wits. I'm not ready to give up to 'Kitty' Shea without a struggle."

Mrs. Brown started. "Oh, I forgot to tell you. He said he had plenty on you to keep you forking out, too. Said you were scared to death of him."

Judith straightened her shoulders. "I'm not afraid of him," she said. "I'm not afraid of anybody." Mrs. Brown whimpered.

Judith sat thinking. "He does know something that I shouldn't like published," she said at last. "But it's nothing ruinous, and if necessary, I can brazen it out. However, you can't, and we've got to do some thing."

The dean's wife was looking at her with wide, terror-filled eyes. "If I don't, I'll have to get out of it all," she bent her stout body forward so that her white face was near Judith's. "You don't know what it means to be afraid—so afraid of a man that his key in the door makes your heart miss a beat—so afraid that you swallow your food whole when he sits across the table from you."

Judith shook her head. "No, I don't, thank God. It seems to me that you'd be better off if something did happen to release you. You'll collapse some day."

Mrs. Brown shrugged. "What if I do? I don't care much. But when wife. "I'd never dare keep comics around the house. The dean would find them, and call me a scar-woman. He hates them like poison."

Judith fished out her own vanity case and began to apply the rouge puff. Mrs. Brown submitted to it. Judith pulled the woman's hat straight. "Something has got to happen to rescue you," she insisted. "I can't conceive of a woman living in such slavery."

Mrs. Brown smiled sadly. "You've never been married to Timothy Brown, my dear."

Judith shook her head. "No, the gods be praised," she said devoutly. "Look here, what call me a scar-woman. He hates them like poison."

"Judith fished out her own vanity case and began to apply the rouge puff. Mrs. Brown submitted to it. Judith pulled the woman's hat straight. "Something has got to happen to rescue you," she insisted. "I can't conceive of a woman living in such slavery."

Mrs. Brown smiled sadly. "You've never been married to Timothy Brown, my dear."

Judith shook her head. "No, the gods be praised," she said devoutly. "Look here, what call me a scar-woman. He hates them like poison."

"Judith fished out her own vanity case and began to apply the rouge puff. Mrs. Brown submitted to it. Judith pulled the woman's hat straight. "Something has got to happen to rescue you," she insisted. "I can't conceive of a woman living in such slavery."

Mrs. Brown smiled sadly. "You've never been married to Timothy Brown, my dear."

Judith shook her head. "No, the gods be praised," she said devoutly. "Look here, what call me a scar-woman. He hates them like poison."

"Judith fished out her own vanity case and began to apply the rouge puff. Mrs. Brown submitted to it. Judith pulled the woman's hat straight. "Something has got to happen to rescue you," she insisted. "I can't conceive of a woman living in such slavery."

Mrs. Brown smiled sadly. "You've never been married to Timothy Brown, my dear."

The WOMAN'S DAY

By Allene Sumner

Twenty unboxed German chorus girls who came to work the other morning were met by six lusty barbers tried and true who proceeded to snip off 20 heads of flaxen tresses. It seems that the chorus girls had signed contracts which called for bobbed hair, had taken the jobs, and proceeded to forget about having their hair cut. Ergo—

Despite the fact that even in this advanced day some employers in our own land still object to bobhairing girl employees, I wager the day will come when they'll hire barbers to cut 'em short, if they won't or don't cut themselves short!

Modern girls denounce the petting instinct in modern young men. This from a minister who preached recently on his findings when he sent out a questionnaire to dozens of young girls asking them to list the faults and virtues of the modern young man. He found that they objected more strenuously to petting than anything else. At least they said they did.

Do you believe it? Neither do I. If the majority of modern girls, or girls of any decade, objected seriously to petting, it would be a serious thing for the race indeed!

You women who dote on antiques, and what woman doesn't should dip within a little tome called "Collector's Luck in England," by Alice Van Leer Carick. Alice goes to England, snoops around in the Isle of Wight, and everywhere, and picks up such samples as Georgian copper urns, telescope candlesticks, and Pembroke tables.

By the way, are there any antiques left in America? It seems that this good lady, and others must have done it, too, spent her summers for years in rambling through the highways and byways of New England seeking what she could see in the way of spool bed; and cherry highboys, then holding auctions with her loot! Yum, yum!

"I would rather be married than single," writes a w. k. woman author in a current magazine, proceeding to explain why she thinks thus:

"Mother Nature sees to it that we find no satisfactory substitute for mating," writes she. "We can't be content while we are neglecting her business. We may become doctors and lawyers and merchants and chiefs and like—and we can—but she don't let us off being sweethearts and wives and mothers as well."

Well, that's not so unfair, to sop the feminists! Men are up against the same thing. They are doctors and lawyers and merchants and chiefs and like—and we can—but she don't let us off being sweethearts and husbands and papas, too. Sauce for the goose and gander!

A pleasant little homebody who will have at least 10 children's one laid down by the year's male graduates of 10 American universities. They insist on wives who do not want careers of their own, wives who do not smoke, drink or pet, wives who are religious and high-idealized, wives who can cook.

And I opine that hardly a single one of the thousands of graduates turning in this questionnaire will ask that sort of girl to be their wife! And within five years they'll be knocking "modern wives" and "wondering what the home is coming to, anyway!"

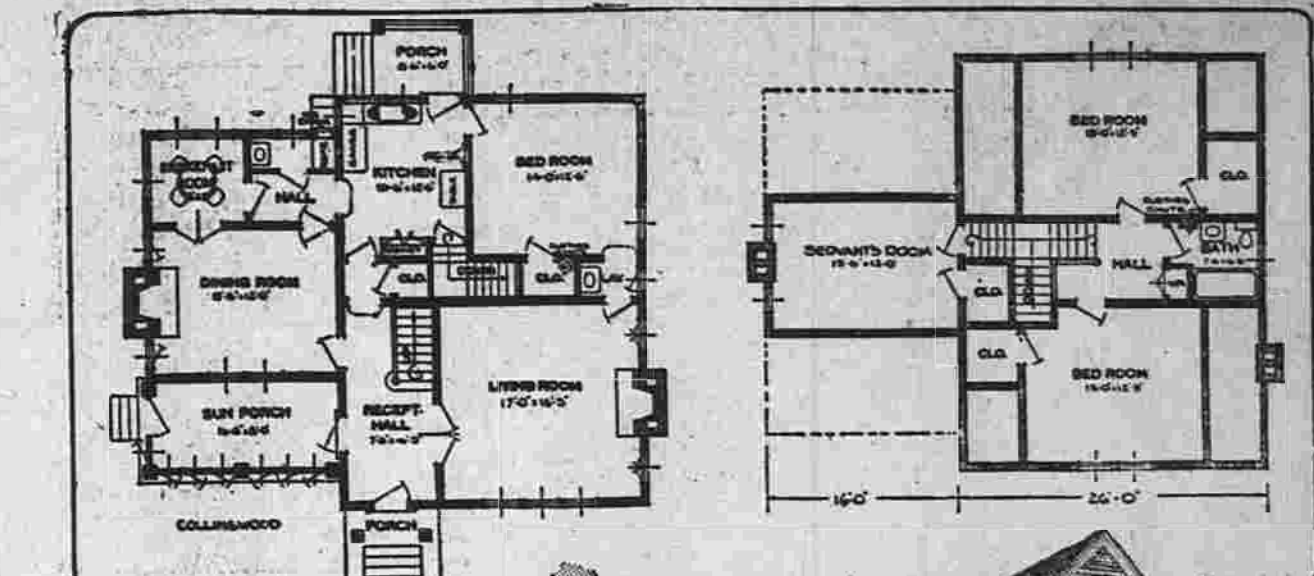

Lacy frills, sleeveless shirts, and a decollete covered with strands of pearls and sparkling jewels will soon bedeck the well-dressed young man when he goes forth for the evening, we are told. A syndicate of master tailors in high convention in Big declares that the gritty, frothy, colorful dress hitherto worn by the male, whilst his fair companion wears the dark and impeccably correct tuxedo or dress suit hitherto worn by him.

How they do rub it in, the revolting, despicable, nabby-pabby picture of the mighty male, his chest shaven, his white pomades rubbed over his mighty expanse, then the lace frill, the powder, the perfume, the jewels! And do they expect "us girls" to believe one word of it? Well, if they do, they're all wrong! We're on the male tricks! For the past decade they've been so scared to see some of their old-time comforts as lords of creation slipping away from them, that they stoop to any trickery to corral them back in the home and on the sole job of ministering to their comforts! Now they seek to frighten us by saying, "I'll take all your pretty clothes away from you!"

GOOD FOR SANDWICHES. A salad dressing that children love, and which is very nourishing for them, is made of chopped figs, chopped ginger, chopped walnuts and a little lemon juice. It is best on brown or whole wheat bread.

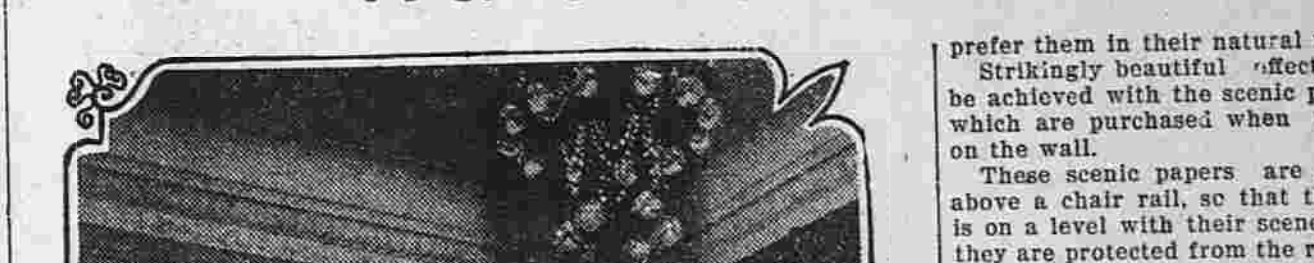

TIP TO PLANNERS. When building a house, or when remodeling the interior, remember to allow plenty of space for sink and table room. This saves breakage and lightens labor generally.

SPACIOUS, CHARMING—THE COLLINGWOOD

There is charm about this spacious home that makes it inviting and "homey" to the last degree. The graceful New England doorway; the sun porch in the wing, with its French window opening on the terrace; the roominess of its central hall, and the skill with which its floor plans have been designed, combine to make this a house with a very wide appeal. The first floor bedroom is always a popular design, and a dining room that contains a fireplace is a novel feature. If desired, the space above the dining room can be left unfinished, thus cutting the price of the building. Few houses lend themselves better to the use of shrubs and hedges than does this one.

Proper Treatment Of Walls Is Fundamental

Panels of wall paper on a plaster wall give the effect of oil paintings, as illustrated in this interior by W. and J. Sloane.

BY JAMES BLAUVELT

It will be no hardship to spend the winter evenings within your own four walls, if these walls are so treated as to make a charming background for the furnishings of your home, and to add an interest of their own to the general effect. The walls have a decisive influence upon the mood of a room, and partially determine its style of furnishing.

For example, if you are lucky enough to have a room paneled in wood, you must consider the type of paneling. If it is in small, square divisions, the room is distinctly seventeenth century and Jacobean furniture should predominate. Eighteenth century rooms have larger, oblong panels and demand marble mantels and Georgian furnishings.

Utilizing Light

However, wood-paneled walls are expensive and therefore rarely found save in very fine houses and apartment buildings. The painted, plastered and papered walls used in most American homes are no less charming when skillfully handled. You will of course remember, in decorating your house, that north rooms require wall tones of yellow or rose or mulberry or tan to counteract the cold north light.

The cooler shades of blue and green are properly used in a room that abounds in sunlight. Plaster walls give satisfying backgrounds when painted in a solid color and accented with wood moldings, in a deeper tone.

The question of ceilings can be solved by considering the height of the walls. If they are very lofty, use a lighter tint of the color used on the walls, or a warm buff, to decrease the height and make the room more intimate and interesting.

White ceilings are useful to increase the height of the walls. If you intend to paper your walls, prefer them in their natural finish. Strikingly beautiful effects may be achieved with the scenic papers, which are purchased when placed on the wall.

These scenic papers are placed above a chair rail so that the eye is on a level with their scenes, and they are protected from the rubbing of chair backs.

Tapestries Costly

Chinese, French and early American designs are most favored in the scenic papers. There are also elaborate classic motifs, like that of Cupid and Psyche, for spacious, formal rooms.

Tapestries and damasks are effective wall coverings for elaborate houses. But their costliness and the problems of sanitation they present prohibit them for general use. They are useful chiefly for large Georgian or French apartments.

When you have prepared your walls as backgrounds for your rooms, you have laid the foundations for a consistent scheme of decoration.

TYPEWRITERS

All makes. Sold, rented, exchanged and overhauled.

Special Discounts to Students.

Kemp's Music House
Telephone 821.

Dresses Cost Half What They Used To!

You needn't spend a lot to keep up with the season's color changes. Nor even know how to sew. Make all your old dresses latest shades through the magic of home dyeing. It's so easy to do beautiful dyeing or perfectly gorgeous tinting, if you'll only use original Diamond dyes (true dyes). Brighten your house, too, curtains, spreads, etc. are Diamond dyed in an hour or less. Any material, right over other colors.

FREE: your druggist gives you the Diamond Dye Cyclopedic, valuable suggestions, easy directions, actual piece-goods color samples. Or write for illustrated book Color Craft, postpaid from DIAMOND DYES, Dept. N16, Burlington, Vermont.

Diamond Dyes

Make it NEW for 15¢!

Julius Hartt School of Music
Ida Levin, Teacher of Pianoforte.
Alfred Cohn, Teacher of Violin.
Studio: THE THEATER BUILDING
For Appointments Call 308-5, 659 or 2-5010.

Pasteurization of Milk is a Safeguard for Public Health.

J. H. HEWITT
40 Holl St. Tel. 2056.

Good Nature and Good Health

FISHBEIN SCORES HEALING FAIDS AND SUPERSTITIONS. By DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN. Editor Journal of the American Medical Association and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine.

In the earliest period of man's history, he believed disease was caused by demons entering the body, and that it could be cured by conjuring forth these demons through some magic or supernatural influence.

Which doctors, voodoo doctors and savage medicine men sometimes seemed to achieve remarkable cures. As medicine progressed and man began to learn more about the working of his body, he began to use methods based on the actual causes of disease, but still continued his efforts to placate or mollify the spirits.

Quacks and Their Charms. The middle ages gave rise to Meemer and mesmerism, and to all sorts of traveling quacks who healed largely by charms and incantations. In more modern times there still is a considerable number of people likely to trust to faith-healing methods when first confronted with the possibilities of illness, and to continue such methods until pain and weakness become so prominent that the patient no longer is able to carry his burden of illness. To this class are addressed the advertisements of all sorts of faith-

Home Page Editorials Where To Live

By Olive Roberts Barton

Have you heard this one? Is it better to live in the country or in the city?

I thought it was all settled long ago, until I received a letter from a debating society last week asking my opinion. It always was a hard one, but now it's a harder one. If you live in the country you can step on the gas and be in the city. If you live in the city you can join the Sunday parade on Gasoline Way and be in the country in a few minutes.

It isn't like it used to be in the days of the Caesars when the whole country moved to the City of Rome, about three millions of them. I believe the figures are, and left the country and the wheat-growing to take care of itself. That is why the Roman Empire "busted up," as Tom Sawyer said. Fortunately in America some are "for" the country and some are "for" the city, which keeps a nice balance of production. That is as it should be if a nation wishes to be a top-notch power on this terrestrial globe.

The city and the country augment each other, naturally. But as for individual advantages of living in either locality, let us consider.

People in cities are close to the sources of culture. They have easy access to libraries of exhaustive information, art galleries, the best more restful. Light wall paper with dainty coloring is infinitely preferable in a bedroom to papers with set figures and involved geometrical designs.

USE A BREADBOARD. In your kitchen equipment do not neglect to provide several hard wood boards on which to set hot sauce-pans. Keep them clean—paint them, if you like.

FLAPPER FANNY says

We've all heard a lot of records we'd like to see broken.

INTELLIGENCE TESTS

WHAT'S WRONG?

There's something wrong with the accompanying picture. The man will learn quickly enough if he isn't careful. The answers to this test appear on another page: 1-What's wrong with the accompanying picture? 2-What are the comparative and superlative forms of the word "good"? 3-From what myth did the word "tantalize" originate? 4-What was Lilliput? 5-Correct this sentence: Each have their work to do. 6-What is meant by coagulation? 7-How many dimes are there in three dollars? 8-How often does leap year occur? 9-Who was president of the United States during the World War? 10-What is meant by cauterizing a wound?

If a man's face is his fortune, some of us are in debt. Line in a book of etiquette says, "A girl should always conceal her emotions." Quite right. But in these days of short skirts and low neck gowns, where can she conceal them? The fellow who used to have such a time winding his Waterbury watch is now spending his time cranking his old Ford.

SENSE AND NONSENSE

The rattle of the driver isn't the significant thing. The trouble starts when the driver gets rattled. Our idea of a go-getter is one who sells a garage to a person who has just bought a chance on an automobile.

SAFETY LAST Lies slumbering here one William Lake; he heard the bell, but had no brake. At fifty miles drove Alle Pidd; he thought he wouldn't skid, but did. At ninety miles drove Eddie Shaw; the motor stopped but "Ed" kept on. Here he sleeps, one Johnny Fonker; he rounded a turn without a honker. Down in the creek sleeps Jerry Bass; the bridge was narrow; he tried to pass. Beneath this stone sleeps William Raines; ice on-hill; he had no chains. Here lies the body of William Jay, who died maintaining his right-of-way. And here's what's left of Samuel Small; he paid no attention to "slow" signs at all. That ash pile is Bill Hatch; he looked in his gas tank, with a match. Here, near the sod, lies Big Bill Bessing; he tried to beat a train to a crossing.

EPITAPH Bill thought his gas was getting low; He struck a match; the tank let go— Bill sailed three miles right in the air. Three miles on a pint is pretty fair. Whether the pedestrian gets an even break depends largely on where he's hit. In 1910: "May I pump it up for you?" 1924: "G'wan, I'm no fish. Call a garage."

When a locomotive whistles for a grade crossing, it is best to believe all you hear. God made the country, but the car in front makes you eat it. Fairy Tale: Once upon a time an automobilist held out her hand to signal for a left turn, and when she reacted the intersection she made a left turn.

BIRD SEED A little couple, a lot of gas Two rosy lips all sweet and mellow, Two loving arms, a kiss, more gas Oh! what a lucky fellow.

"Have you sold your car?" "No, the company took it back. I couldn't buy it any more."

Be fair to the auto drivers. You seldom see a car go up on the sidewalk after a victim.

Gross negligence: Twelve dozen automobile drivers refusing to stop at a railroad crossing.

It's a wise tourist that knows a state cop from a holdup man.

Dance critic says the Charleston does not appeal to the man in the street. And, in these days of traffic congestion, it's a good thing it does not.

Why don't girls sell advertising space on their stockings?

GAS BUGGIES—The Thinker

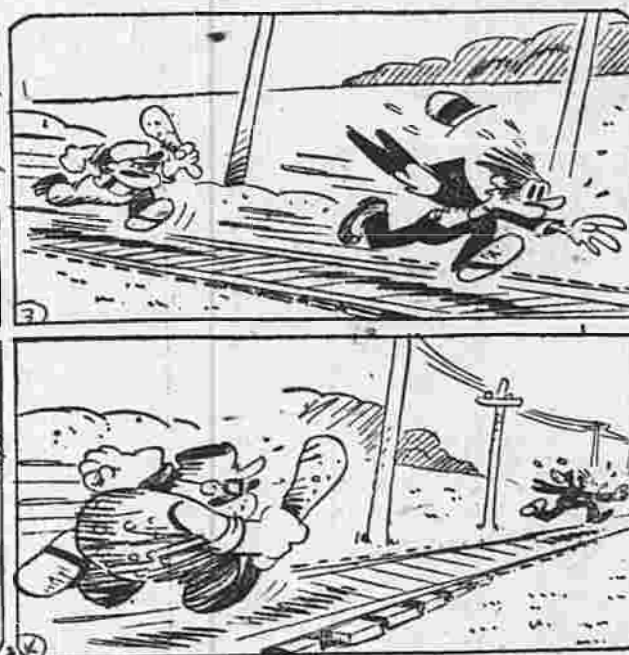

By Frank Beck

SKIPPY

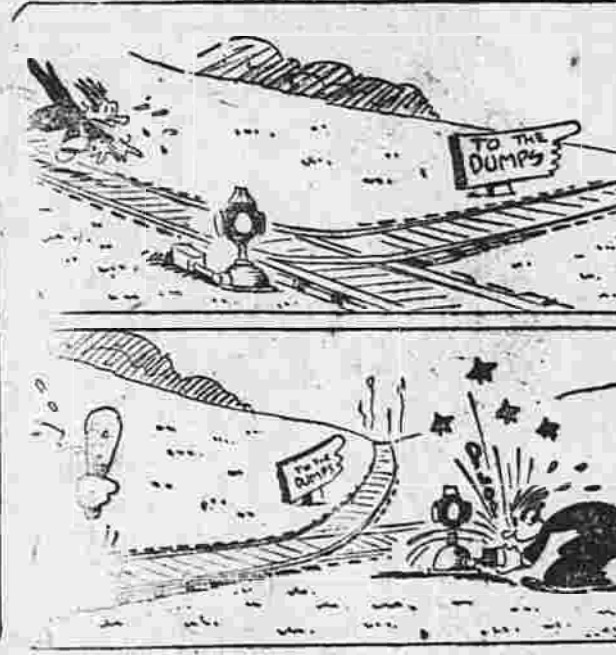

By Percy Cross

SALESMAN SAM

A Good Turn

By Swan

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

Wouldn't Scare Alek

By Blosser

THE TINYMITES BY HAL COCHRAN

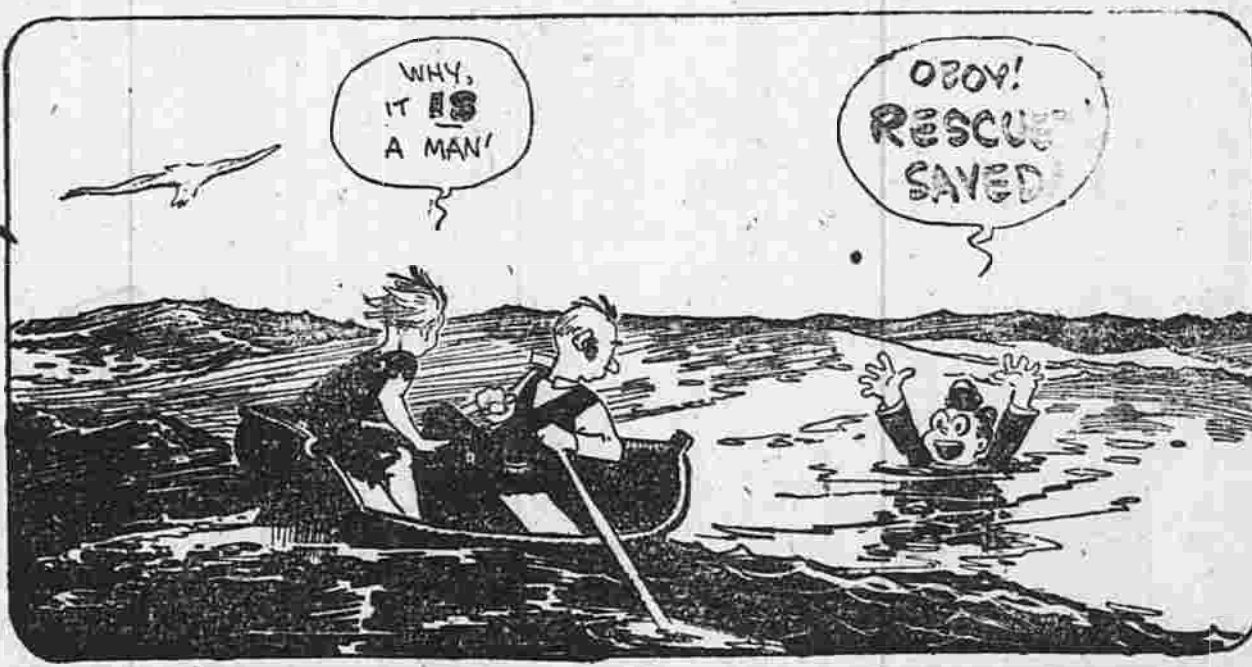

(READ THE STORY. THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The Tynmites were now downstairs, and Clowny said, "Aw shucks, who cares for any little setting, hen that couldn't hurt you much?" But Copsy who had fought the chick replied, "Of fighting I am sick. The next time that I see a hen I simply will not touch." The sound of footsteps warned the band that someone must be near at hand, and as they scampered out of sight a farmer's voice broke out: "Here, bossy. Come on, lazy cow. I'm ready for my milking now." Of course the Tynmites all wondered what 'twas all about. They peeked and saw a funny cow. Then heard the farmer's dog 'bow-wow.' Of course you know here always is a dog around a farm. They help bring home the cows at night and see that everything's all right. I guess their arking sort of keeps the cows away from harm. The farmer then sat on a stool.

The cow's tail wished to keep him cool, while Mister Farmer milked away until his pail was filled. And then he led the cow away and said, "That's all I'll do today." When he had left the barn, of course the Tynmites were thrilled. Said Clowny Tynmite, "I think I'll have a dandy drink." And then rushed up hurriedly to where the buckets stood. "You mustn't steal," was Copsy's cry. "Besides, the farmer's just outside." But Clowny, rather stubborn had made up his mind he would. Alas, alack. He reached the top. Then in the bucket went kerflop. To keep from getting soaked, the other Tynites ran away. But, when they heard poor Clowny shout, they came right back to pull him out. And now most likely Clowny knows that stealing doesn't pay. (To Be Continued.)

(The Tynmites make a pumpkin face in their next story.)

WASHINGTON TUBBS II By Crane

The Little Scorpions' Club

by Fontaine Fox

(© Fontaine Fox, 1926, Bell Syndicate)

ABOUT TOWN

The Ladies Aid society of the North Methodist church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 with Mrs. S. C. Erickson, 22 Centerfield street. Plans will be completed for the chicken pie supper on the 11th, and a full attendance of the ladies is hoped for.

The Wednesday evening bridge and whist party will be held at the Manchester Community clubhouse tomorrow night. Mrs. C. B. Loomis will be in charge of the bridge section and the Misses Chapin and Fitzgerald, progressive whist. All card players will be made welcome.

Second Congregational Ladies Aid society members will sew for the December sale at the Manchester Community clubhouse tomorrow afternoon from 2 to 5 p. m.

Miss Margaret Hyde who has been stationed as a nurse at the naval hospital in Philadelphia, has been transferred to the naval hospital at Annapolis, Md.

The board of assessors after a strenuous two or three weeks' session, took a day off today, after they voted, and went to Williams pond to fish. The party included John Jensen, S. Emil Johnson, Samuel Nelson and Tax Collector George S. Howe.

E. L. G. Hohenthal will be the speaker at the meeting of the Men's Friendship club of the South Methodist church next Monday evening. His subject will be "Things I have seen and what I have heard." Mr. Hohenthal has traveled extensively in the last few years, not only in the United States but in Europe, and as he is a keen observer he will doubtless give the club something to think about.

PUBLIC DANCE

Odd Fellows' Hall SATURDAY EVENING, NOV. 6 King David Lodge and Shepherd Encampment. Al Behrend's Orchestra. Admission 50c.

Manchester Grange, P. O. H. members will hold a rummage sale in the vacant store at 151 North Main street all day tomorrow and Thursday afternoon and evening.

John Crawford of Cottage street is at the Memorial hospital for treatment. He was taken with a severe nose bleed Saturday and became weakened from the loss of blood. He is resting comfortably today and his recovery is looked for.

The Ladies Guild of St. Mary's Episcopal church will hold their regular meeting in the Guild room Thursday afternoon at two.

Manchester Lodge of Masons will meet at 8:15 this afternoon at which time the Entered Apprentice degree will be conferred. After an intermission the lodge will again meet at 7:30 and at this session the Master Mason degree will be conferred. The chairs will be filled by men from the Machine shop at the silk mills, who will work the degree. The candidate is employed in the machine shop.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Maloney of 21 West street announce the engagement of their niece, Miss Dorothy Maloney, to John Murphy, son of Mrs. Rose Murphy, of 43 South Main street.

Doctors D. M. Caldwell and A. E. Friend returned late Sunday night from attending the conference of the American College of Surgeons held in Montreal. They will be at their offices at their usual hours.

A daughter, Mary Teresa, was born Monday morning to Mr. and Mrs. John Humphrey of 85 Birch street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dauplaise of Center street gave a Halloween party Saturday evening. Friends and relatives from Southbridge, Mass., Burnside and this town attended.

Mrs. Winifred Chase and Mr. Herbert Alley are giving a public whist at the home of Mrs. Chase, 163 Main street, Thursday, November 4th at 8 p. m. It will be in the name of the Pythian Sisters.

The new issue of the Bon Ami stock and investment bankers were able to obtain only one-eighth of the amount of their subscriptions. The supply was quickly exhausted at the prevailing market price.

Directors of the Manchester Kiwanis club held a meeting today at the Harriet Brown Tea Rooms of South Main street. Among other matters of business, several applications for membership were acted upon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bengs of Park street returned yesterday from a visit with their daughter, Miss Eisle Bengs of New York city. Miss Bengs who is the well known contralto is a member of the organization, "Friends of Music" and Mr. and Mrs. Bengs while visiting her attend the concert given by this society and the Metropolitan orchestra jointly. Under the direction of Bodansky Beethoven's "Mass Solemnis" was beautifully rendered.

Mrs. Janet Linnell of North Main street is visiting in Mousup.

ON THE WALK. It rains; Silently the yellow leaves float down from off the trees and spread themselves in patterns on the brick-red of the walk. Each little star-like point of maple leaf stands out. Close-pressed against the walk. Like golden laid in patterns. By the skillful artist's hand. L. H. McMENEMY.

CITY CLUB ANNUAL MEETING THURSDAY

Officers for Year to Be Named; Luncheon and Entertainment Planned.

The Manchester City club will hold its annual meeting on Thursday night of this week in the club rooms on Oak street. Postal cards are being sent to each member reminding him of the meeting and urging him to be present.

The annual election of officers will be held at this meeting. The nominating committee was named at last month's meeting and has already prepared a slate which it will recommend to the members. William H. Burke has been acting president of the club for the greater part of the present year. The present secretary is Dennis J. Murphy.

Following the election the club will enjoy a dinner. The house committee has not yet decided upon the menu but it promises a good one. Entertainment will also be provided for the evening.

BIG TOBACCO SHED BURNS IN S. WINDSOR

A seven-acre tobacco shed owned by J. E. Shepard, one of the largest tobacco growers in South Windsor, was burned Saturday night with a loss of $10,000. The shed contained seven acres of tobacco. The cause of the blaze is attributed to a Halloween prank played by children.

MOTHERS' CLUB MEETING. The Manchester Mothers' club will hold its November meeting Friday evening at eight o'clock at the home of Mrs. R. E. Purinton at Highland Park.

Kenneth P. Fallon, eastern district manager of the Gilbert Toy company will speak on the subject "Toys for Children," and Miss Jessamine Smith at the South Manchester library will give a talk on "Books for Children." With the approach of Christmas it is believed this program will be of extraordinary interest to the mothers, especially those who have little children.

The hostess will be assisted by the following ladies: Mrs. E. Anderson, Mrs. H. Bennett, Mrs. H. L. Griswold, Mrs. L. Leeburg, Mrs. E. L. G. Hohenthal, Jr., Mrs. David McCann, Mrs. E. Peterson, Mrs. James Shearer, Mrs. George H. Washburn, Mrs. Louis Grant, Mrs. T. Brennan and Mrs. F. J. McEvitt. Members desiring transportation should confer with Mrs. Purinton.

RUMMAGE SALE

Manchester Grange WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY AFTERNOONS AND EVENINGS Vacant Store, 151 North Main St.

Piano Tuning and Talking Machine Repairing

Tel. 821. KEMP'S

Special Afternoon

Tea and Coffee Served from 2:30 to 5 P. M. Daily.

Special Pastry

Come In and Bring Your Friends.

Waranoke

Hotel & Restaurant Main St. So. Manchester

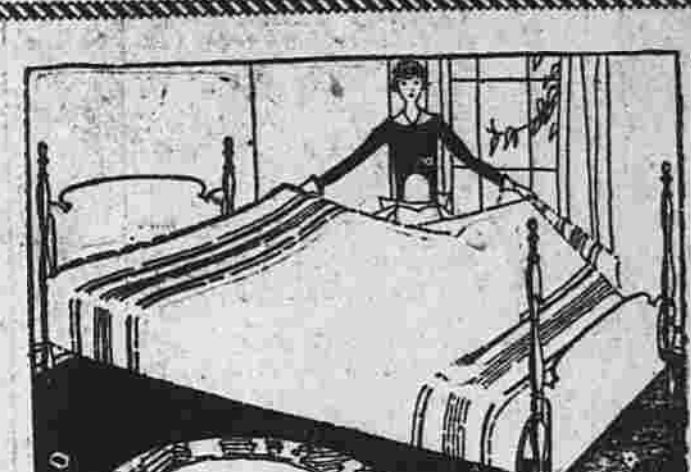

WE GO INTO THE BEST CELLARS!

Our dependable coal is one of the best sellers and it deserves to go into the best cellars. Order us to send you some—there's prime economy in high quality.

G. E. Willis & Son, Inc. Mason Supplies. Phone 64

Two Hour Specials On Sale Tonight From 7 to 9 p. m.

BEACON Single Blankets

AT A SPECIAL PRICE $2.98 Regular Price $4.00. SIZE 66" x 80"

Most every woman is familiar with Beacon Blankets—note for their quality and style. We have secured one lot of Beacon Priscilla Blankets, which have been a regular $4.00 retail number, to put out at this low price. Bound with sateen binding. Surely you can use one or two of these blankets in your home. They will give a bright touch to your bedroom. To see these blankets will make you want one.

Rose Blue Gray Green Lavender Blankets—Main Floor.

50 ONLY English Twill Umbrellas $2.98 FAST COLOR

An umbrella that will outlast three silk umbrellas—made of fast color English twill that is guaranteed not to split. In the smart 10 rib style; has the new pearl-handled tips. We have only a limited number to sell. Colors: Lavender, green, purple, red and black. Umbrellas—Main Floor.

Rayon Combinations $1.00 REGULAR $1.50

Good quality rayon combinations in plain colors with contrasting binding—peach with black, green with pink, and pink with green. Sizes 38 to 42. Why not buy a couple of these chemises—surely some one on your Christmas list would love one. Combinations—Main Floor.

Special Tuesday and Wednesday!

All-Wool Dress Fabrics $1.69 YARD NEWEST MATERIALS

It is unusual to find such quality woolen goods at this low price at the beginning of the winter season. Included in the lot you will find 42 inch Wool Jersey, 36 inch Duvateen, 42 inch Formosa, 42 inch Wool Crepe, 36 inch Rayvella Twill and 42 inch Alpaca Crepe in new fall colors. These materials would ordinarily retail up to $2.98 a yard. Dress Fabrics—Main Floor.

HEATING SYSTEMS

Pipe or Pipeless Furnaces. Steam and Hot Water Heating. We Are Equipped to Give You Service.

Joseph C. Wilson 28 Spruce Street Phone 641

ception of St. John's football team sectional championship at the Hartford Velodrome on Saturday, November 5.

Brown Thomson & Co Hartford's Shopping Center

The Newest In Sport Type Frocks Suitable For Street, Business and Afternoon Wear

Our Showing Includes the Very Newest, As Smart As They Are Practical.

DRESSES LIKE THESE ARE OUT OF THE ORDINARY, INCLUDING JERSEY, CREPELLA, KASHA AND LUSTRA KNIT, AND REALLY A TWO YEAR INVESTMENT.

Frocks

For street or business wear, in fine twills or Jersey, many of silk in diversity of styles, prices ranging from $12.50 to $25.00

A "HUBRITE" DRESS of Jersey, in popular shades of navy blue, Copen blue, henna and green and priced very moderately $8.75

Dresses—One Floor Up.

Arthur L. Hultman Visit Our New Boys' Department.

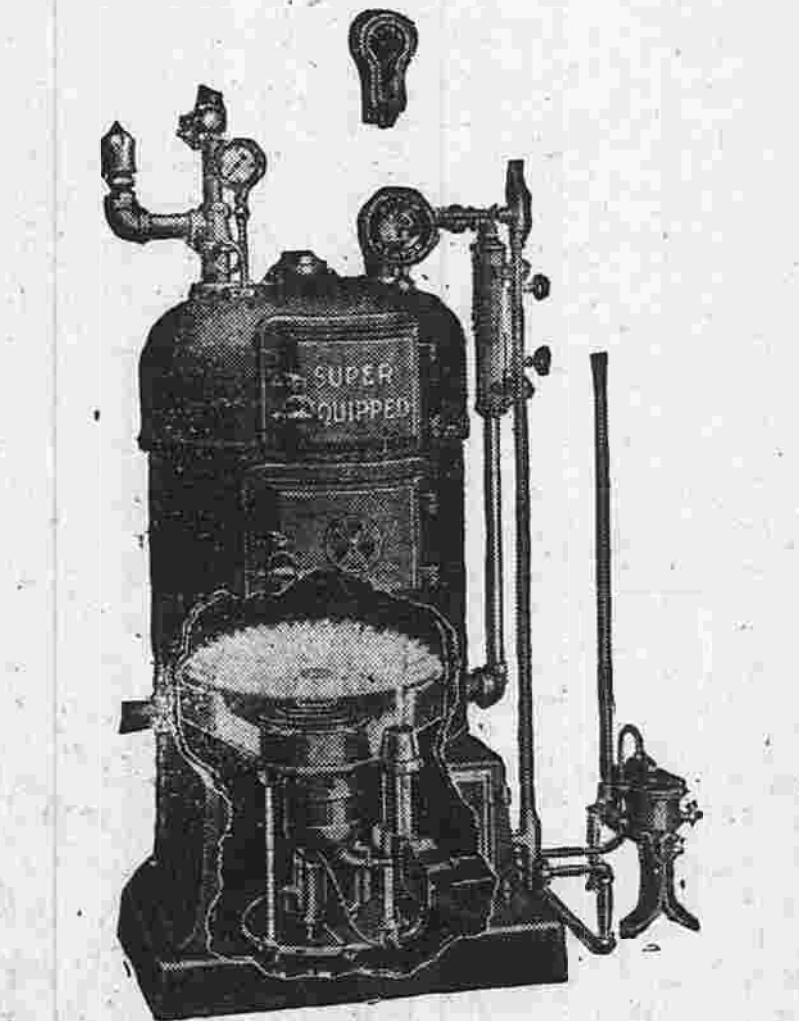

An Anchor to Windward

No matter how smooth the sea, the cautious sailor is always ready to drop an anchor to windward in case of threatening storms.

In prosperous earning days it is well to provide against possible future emergencies. A bank account will be your financial security—your "anchor to windward."

Start an account with us and let it grow steadily with small, easy deposits.

The Savings Bank of Manchester A Mutual Savings Bank. South Manchester, Conn.

The Super Automatic Oil Heater

was designed for home heating plants. It will fit your present boiler without alterations. It is the most compact heater on the market. Thermostat controlled. We will be pleased to give you the details of this Heater and its installation. Phone or write us.

Johnson & Little Plumbing and Heating Contractors 13 Chestnut Street South Manchester Phone 1083-2.

ORGANIZE ST. JOHN'S ALUMNI.

On Thursday, October 28, at a meeting held in the Hotel Garde, Hartford, there was organized the St. John's Alumni of Connecticut. There was an election of officers at which the following were elected: President, J. E. Gargan, Hartford; vice-president, David J. Mulcahy, New London; treasurer, James A. Crawford, Norwich; secretary, Wm. P. S. McMahon, New Britain. It was voted to hold a smoker and buffet lunch on Wednesday, November 3, at the Hotel Garde, Hartford, at 8 p. m., to which all former students of St. John's Preparatory College of Danvers, Mass., are invited. A committee was appointed to complete arrangements for the re-