CHINA AS IT LOOKS TO A LOCAL MAN

Manager of Glastonbury Knitting Co. Gets First Hand Information.

First hand information about the trouble in China has reached Manchester in a letter from Dr. Fred Robinson who is practicing dentistry in Shanghal. The litter was furnished to The Herald today by Elmer A. Robinson, vice-president and general manager of The Glastonbury Knitting Company. It tells in a clear, understandable way "what all the shooting's about."

Dentist In China Dr. Fred Robinson is a native of Glastonbury and a graduate of the medical college at Boston University. He got his degree 37 years ago and specialized in crown and bridge work. At the time there was little of that type of dental work being done in China and a call reached the university for a man to go there and practice and also teach other dentists already there the Fight for Dollars Now, this is the sort of thing that is going on in China all the time and it is just what is happening to Shanghai at the present time. Shanghai at present is in the hands of the Northerners and the Southerners are going to try to take it away from them; both sides are sending their troops here by the thousands, many of them are already here and it is anticipated there will be a clash between two sides within the next few days. There may not be any fighting here at all. I, myself, do not think there will be any. I think most likely it will be settled in the same way as the most of their battles are-by the dollars.

Shanghai is a very large and wealthy place and well worth fighting for, the side who gets it and able to hold it will, of course, be getting a prize. If there is any fighting takes place here, you will, no doubt, hear of it before you get this letter.

When I write about Shanghai as I am doing, I do not mean the International Foreign Settlement of Shanghai which is situated on the banks of the Whongpoo river just to the north of the native city of Shanghai and it is in and around the native city where the fighting, if any, will take place, and if there is any great fighting takes place in or around the native city of Shanghai, the International Settlement will be between the devil and the deep sea and we are almost sure to get some of the shells from that we have little or no fear for the International Settlement

There was a very lively and exciting time Wednesday evening at the First African Baptist church. Trouble being anticipated by Rev. George Hopewell, pastor of the church, police attendance was requested. Captain Stephen J. Tobin, accompanied by three other officers were present upon his request. The three trustees who were elected at the beginning of the year have been found by the pastor to be working against him so Wednesday they were ousted and three new trustees elected, also a new secretary.

The meeting was well attended and was opened by Captain Tobin who suggested that if there was trouble between the members it would be more advisable for them to hire a lawyer to advise them than to be obliged to pay the money out in court fees. Having put the fear of the law into those present, Captain Tobin and one of the officers left but unknown to the agitated members two officers were present in an upper room

Washington, April 1 .- It is not ecially surprising that Secretary Kellogg's resignation is rumored to be impending, but the virtilence of this rumor and the credence which it is given by nearly everyone in Washington is astonishing.

All around the town the most frequent question heard is not as to whether Mr. Kellogg will quit, No sooner does one get within the doors of an embassy or legation than this question is popped at Another demonstration of the power with which this ever-recurring rumor has gripped general imagination is to be seen in the regiment of names which have been advanced as Mr. Kellogg's possible successor. Here are only a few of them:

Dwight Morrow. Herbert Hoover. Irvine L. Lenroot. James W. Wadsworth. Alanson B. Houghton. John Bassett Moore. David Jayne Hill. Charles Beecher Warren.

Your correspondent has long since pointed out that only the most incurable optimist could expect Mr. Kellogg to quit-or expect President Coolidge to let him quit-until he had achieved something to which someone might conceivably point with pride.

But there doesn't seem any prestige to be gained in Nicaragua China presents only the possibility of trouble, prospects for brilliant performance at the new disarmament conference become daily more dismal and there remains only a chance to do something with that situation right under our nose, our squabble with Mexico. The negotiations between Ambassador Tellez and Brother Kellogg, it is reasonable to suspect, will furnish a satisfactory cue for a creditable if not a glorious exit.

An unprejudiced observer must admit that the situation is becoming more and more painful. It is not only that Latin-American diplomats are suspicious and afraid of Kellogg, but there seems little sympathy or any more than the barest surface loyalty to him in the State Department

One attends a private dinner and hears a high official of the department flay Kellogg mercilessly.
One of the most, amazing side-

Some people believe that this constellation received its name of the fact that when the sun was in was farthest north of the equator, its daily change in position in a north or south direction was very slight, so that it seemed to be moving slowly in a sideways die rection very much in the manner in which a crab crawls. As the sun is no longer in Cancer when farthest north of the equator at the beginning of summer, the name has now lost is appropriate-

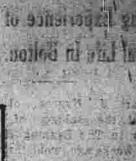

There is an old myth which represents Cancer as the crab sent by Juno to annoy Hercules when he was fighting with the many-headed serpent in the Lernean-swamp. When Hercules crushed him with a single blow the god-dess rewarded the creature by placing him among the stars. A star! Not even a movie actor could achieve more than that.

At the thirtieth anniversary celebration of the big Curtis Store, old T. Q. CURTIS, millionalre owner, announces the prize winners in a contest which has involved the answering of a questionnaire. BILLY WELLS is one of the winners. She has answered the questionnaire over the protest of CLAY CURTIS, son of the old man, who suspects his father of some hidden motive.

Clay has disinherited himself and is now living with the Wells family in a poorer section of the town, working as a factory hand and writing music at night. Clay has assured Billy that as a violinist she has genins. Billy's answers to the questions are impudent but truthful, while two of her co-workers. NYDA LOMAX and WINNIE SHELTON, lie to gain Old T. Q.'s favor.

Curtis asks the twenty-five winners to meet him in a conference before the dancing begins, and there he astonishes them by a request that they write him a letter, telling just how they would spend a hundred thousand dollars. For the best answers, he offers prizes. Billy is puzzled by this strange request, and all the more so when she suddenly realizes that old T. Q. has picked the very pretiest girls in the store as winners for the first contest.

When Old T. Q. asks Billy to walts with him later in the evening, then requests her in gentle and pleading tones to do him the honor of cutting the big birthday cake, she is completely dazed with wonder. She resolves to make Clay tell her just what his father's scheme is.

that I could find an "Elmer Gantry" good story about one. at least once a week, just a good story, well told, that one could pick up after dinner and read and read and read all night and then sigh for a sequel. That's what "Elmer Gantry" was to me, and I have never spring is rather high waistline, acsallant of the book who did not cented by a belt. There is usually a read it through or who professed that it bored him.

HUGO DID IT! Elmer is "a lie," they say, What they mean is that he is no typical minister. Well, what of it? When Hugo wrote "Les Miserables" with the swinish Javert, the policeman, trailing Jean Val Jean through a lifetime, was he saying that Javert was the typical policeman? Was he attacking the entire noble profession of policing? Was he saying that all policemen were swine? I hardly think so.

I find the assumption that Sin-clair is attacking all ministers and all churches just as ridiculous. He writes a book about a swinish fellow who goes into the ministry because he likes to hear his own bellow, have people fawn upon him, and because he can make a living in no other way. Elmer Gantry is an interesting character, because of his mental and moral processes, if any. Surely an author has the right to choose exceptional types as characters, simply because they make interesting reading!

NOT FOR POLLYANNAS To be sure, if you belong to the "sweetness and light" school which will not go to any show but a musical comedy or vaudeville, "because life is depressing enough as it is,' you will not like "Elmer Gantry." It is not Pollyannish reading. But surely authors cannot be compelled to write for people who are afraid to face life as it is or who, if not afraid, have no relish for salty facts, but wish to spend their days chewing divinity fudge!

THERE IS PROPAGANDA! Far be it from me to declare that Lewis, through the life of Gantry and his fellows, is not attacking certain phases of the church! Of course he is, and they are there to be attacked! The person who says that no such minister as Gantry ever lived and that no such conditions ever existed in any church is the ostrich hiding his head in the

The Cubs actually aren't a strong ball club but, inbued with the impetus of their rush at the close of he 1926 race, they may be hard to stop with all of that fine young pitching and those seventy-seven home games in which Hartnett and Wilson may shoot at the fences. On paper, they don't seem to be as dangerous as the Giants, Reds and Pirates but I think they will get sounder leadership than the latter while their weaknesses in certain departments are not as glaring as hose of the Giants and Reds.

Nutmeg Quintet Outplays Florence Rest of Game; East Out of Competition Now.

(Special to The Herald) Chicago, April 1 .- Bristol High Conn., was eliminated here last night by Florence High, Mississippi 28 to 17 thus erasing the last of the eastern entries in the national high school tournament. The Connecticut team was sadly outclassed at the start, Florence chalking up a 17 to 2 lead in the first quarter. Although Bristol outplayed Florence most of the remainder of the time, this tremendous lead proved more than it could overcome.

Eight teams remained after yesterday's competition. Four of them are from the South, giving this section of the country the best chance it has had in years to win the coveted honor. The others are one from the West, one from this city and two from the North. The Bristol-Florence summary:

Better pitching is one reason in that game than when I won the why I look for the Red Sox to be a more interesting ball club. A much improved second line of defense is another potent factor.

The Sox have capable substitutes for every position. The catching is sure to be decidedly better. One who knows the value of catching can appreciate this. To briefly show what I mean by better reserve strength; should anything go wrong with Phil Todt at first, Jack Rotrock can fill in most capably. Wanninger is a capable understudy for Rigney at short, while Rogell can step in at second and take Regan's place in a pinch. Rolling, a mighty likely looking chap from Mobile, is battling with Fred Haney for third. With two ball hawks like Jacob-

Boston isn't going to win any pennants nor trouble the first division, it may even finish last again, but, like Carrigan, I think it will win 20 more ball games than last

DAUGHTERS OF SCOTIA

Helen Davidson Lodge, Daughters of Scotia, held its annual supper, entertainment and dance in Tinker hall last evening. From both a social and financial stand- ford hospital at midnight Wednespoint the event was entirely sucones given by the lodge.

More than 125 persons gathered around tables made attractive with green ferns and yellow paper streamers. They were all served with cold ham, baked beans, salads, the high school, received awards relishes, cake and coffee.

The entertainment followed the meal and included two songs "Until" and "Killarney" by Mrs. Annie Oliver; readings, "At the Ball Game" and "Can I Stay Home, Mamma, by Miss Eva McComb. The humorous play by the New Britain Daughters of Scotia, entitled "The Employment Office" was the company. A large advance sale a great success. Dancing until mid- of tickets has been reported. Modnight followed to music furnished by Bill Waddell's orchestra. Credit for the Scotia Daughters' will play.

There are many tales told of the parbarous treatment accorded convicts in the old days of the Texas penitentiary. Back in 1906, a syouth who had just been pardoned from the institution struggled into the city room of a San Antonio daily newspaper and told a most evolting story of conditions then obtaining in the prison. The youth laimed to have seen a prisoner buried alive-merely because the physician said the man could not

Two Hundred Mile Chase Ends At Dock-Schooner Leaking

Lunenburg, N. S., April 1.—The long chase of the liquor-laden schooner "I'm Alone" by the American coastguard cutter Harriot Lane, was the one big topic of conversation slong the waterfront here today. The cutter sighted the schooner with four thousand cases of liquor aboard two hundred miles off Nantucket. "I'm Alone" hoisted anchors and started away. The cutter set off in pursuit and chased the schooner right up to her dock here. The schooner was able to out-distance the cutter because of a good wind in her sails augment-ed by powerful engines, giving a speed of twelve knots.

The schooner was leaking and will be repaired here. The cutter was still anchored in the harbor this forenoon.

OLD TEACHER DEAD

Greenwich, Conn., April 1.—Mrs. Ella Catherine Davis, who fifty years ago was a teacher in Pecksland school here, is dead today at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Albert J. Keyon, of Cos Cob. She leaves also a son, Ralph A. Davis, of New Haven.

Mrs. Davis, who was 82 years old, was a native of Guilford and funeral services will be held from the Congregational church there tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Davis' husband was the late William H.

EARLY MORNING FIRE

Green Road Structure Burns to Ground Before Firemen Can Put Up Fight.

Fire destroyed a barn at two o'clock this morning on property owned by Robert J. Smith on Green road. Three tons of hay and a number of farming implements were lost. William Beckwith of Oakland street was the owner of the hay and the farm tools. He was given the use of the barn in exchange for work he did on Mr. Smith's property. The loss of the barn is covered by insurance.

The origin of the blaze is unknown. There are no houses within a quarter of a mile of the scene DESTROYS BARN, HAY and since the barn was well filled with hay it is probable that tramps were the cause of the fire.

> The alarm was turned in from Henry and North Elm streets by a young man who saw the first flare of fire while on his way home. Both trucks of the Manchester Fire department responded and were on the scene in quick time. The fire gained great headway and there was little for the firemen to do. They did prevent the fire from spreading through the grass and causing a serious brush fire, how-

The blaze was bright and attracted autoists from many sections of the town.

OBSERVES SILVER WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Eagleson of 127 Cooper Hill street were pleasantly surprised at their home last evening by a party of twenty-five of their friends who came to help them celebrate their silver wedding anniversery. Mr. and Mrs. Eagleson have been residents of Manchester for upwards of twenty years. Their well-wishers from different parts of the town showered them with numerous gifts in silver and a large silver basket of beautiful cut flowers. A buffet lunch, dancing and games helped to spend the evening merrily.

Enjoy Home Ownership

Most of us possess the ardent wish for home ownership "sometime" in the future-but we continually postpone plans for one reason or another-and the years pass on without the wish being fulfilled.

Today and every day you can find greater "Home" values in the Manchesters than were ordinarily available. Modern methods of finance has put "home ownership" within the means of every family. A small down payment-you move in immediately-and pay the balance in monthly payments like rent.

Daily in Herald Want Ads unusual values in "homes" are listed for gale.

"The Bachelor's Baby" is an hilbeby in a hurry to save a pretty girl from going to jail. The fact fant, adds to the general mix-ups fashioned and modern, was enjoyed plays the bachelor; Helen Chadwick is the pretty girl, and to Midget Gustav fell the role of the baby. In the companion feature Bob Custer has the part of the hardriding young foreman of the Bar X ranch, and in that he-man's part he shows just why he is so popular with the fellows. When it comes to riding, roping or shooting Bob is surely there. There is a very novel angle to this picture that is too good to give away but Jack Castle deserves a word of praise for the way in which he puts it over. Ruby Blaine as the heroine is very attractive and lovable and is a good enough reason for any of Bob's wildest stunts. Bill Rhino, as her
