FOR THE PUBLIC GOOD.

It would seem that there might be a chance that a decision just handed down by the Connecticut Supreme Court of Errors will eventually prove to be one of the most important and far-reaching findings ever made by that tribunal.

A jury had found in favor of the defendant city, sued by the brick company, and Superior Court Judge John W. Banks had refused to set the verdict aside.

It is found that the city had put upon the brook a burden beyond its normal carrying capacity and could not justify its action on the ground of public necessity.

For a great many years the habit of thought in Connecticut has been to subordinate the theoretical rights of the public to the custom of pollution in the interest of the convenience of municipalities and industries.

The public of this entire state owe a rising vote of thanks to the Supreme Court of Errors.

BOOMING DONAHY.

It's a brand new senator from Oklahoma, Elmer Thomas, who comes barging into the middle of the Democratic circus tent.

Thomas has been in Ohio and he has been hobnobbing with that state's governor, and now he toots for Donahy on a definite schedule.

men who have fathered twelve children and would still not make very good presidents—the Oklahoma man proceeds further.

It certainly does sound as if Senator-elect Thomas were the official boomer for Donahy.

CHILDREN'S MUSEUM.

Hartford is to have a children's museum, modeled somewhat after the almost unique institution in the Boston Fenway and directed by a woman for many years identified with the management of that institution.

It has always seemed to us that if Boston had dispensed with its many museums intended for the use and benefit of adults or as an alternative to away with its Children's Museum.

Magnificent creation as is the Morgan Memorial, it is a safe bet that within a year after the successful establishment of a children's museum in Elizabeth park the latter will be doing a cultural work of actually more importance than the beautiful institution downtown.

GOLF PERILS.

Actuaries of accident insurance companies deal a long treasured superstition a terrific wallop when they declare that golf belongs in third place among outdoor sports for attendance by casualties.

The idea of it! Golf—the "old man's game" of just a few years ago, the butter and egg person's notion of getting back to nature.

Golf worse than football, worse even than basketball as a physical hazard! Who'd believe it?

RUINED ROMANCE.

Childless and utterly devoted to each other, George B. Underhill and his wife, of Brooklyn, at the end of 41 years of married life, found themselves facing separation.

There is surpassing beauty in a love like that. Yet, setting aside the religious aspects of the case, how lamentably the man failed in the end. He could not give where he no longer received.

BOOMING ACHIEVEMENTS

FOSTERING CULTURAL LIFE IMPORTANT IN EVERY CITY

By DON E. MOWRY Secretary, The American Community Advertising Association

Not all of a city's success depends upon the new industries it secures, the new trade centers it develops, the annual increase in its bank clearances.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER

Washington, June 7.—A gentleman of Montgomery, Ala., has formulated a plan for world peace and submitted it to one of our most distinguished senators.

"I would like to give you my plan, which I think will keep the United States at peace with the rest of the nations, a thing not yet possible," writes the gentleman.

"My plan is this, taking Great Britain and the United States as examples. First, Great Britain is to choose 200 of our best citizens of the United States, about four from each state.

"The United States is to choose 200 of Great Britain's beloved subjects, of whom she might pick the following:

"Now if war is declared or commenced by either party, then 10 per cent of the United States representatives, 20 men, and 10 per cent of the British representatives, 20 men, are immediately executed.

Childless and utterly devoted to each other, George B. Underhill and his wife, of Brooklyn, at the end of 41 years of married life, found themselves facing separation.

Take therefore no thoughts for the tomorrow.—Matthew vi, 34. Tomorrow may bring the final reckoning.—Spurgeon.

BATTALINO WINS FIRST BY A KAYO

Hartford Boy Drops Rosenberg, Substitute Boxer, For Count In 2nd Round.

More than 200 Manchester fight fans were among the 4000 persons who watched the splendid program of professional boxing bouts at the Hartford Velodrome last night and saw Bat Battalino win his first fight as a professional by a knock-out.

Battalino's victim was Archie Rosenberg who hails from New York City. Rosenberg was a last-minute substitute for Otto Goldberg, the latter being eight pounds overweight.

The other four bouts were unusually good. The contestants in each case were well matched and gave the fans a mighty good exhibition of crafty boxing mingled with a world of hard hitting.

Steve Smith, of Bridgeport and Sammy Offerman of New York battled to a draw in a slashing bout crammed with action.

Sput Murphy, Springfield, knocked out Tommy Jarret of New Haven in the sixth round of their ten round match.

In trimming Johnny Blair of Utica, N. Y., decisively, Matty Marlo, of Staten Island, N. Y., put up a very impressive showing.

A check-up by the ticket committee of the Manchester Community Club discloses the fact that there is a heavy sale of admission tickets for the fifth annual Lawn Fete which will open Thursday evening at the "White House" grounds.

There was a wide distribution of the tickets this year, and Treasurer Charles B. Loomis has been having a busy time with returns made by mail and in person.

FIRST TIME IN LONDON THE GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH

RACE FOR FIRST PLACE IS ON; FOUR TEAMS IN THE RUNNING

Hot Contest in Leadership in Both Major Leagues; What Walsh Thinks About It.

By DAVIS J. WALSH I. N. S. Sports Editor

New York, June 7.—Another tale of two cities will be written in New York and Pittsburgh today where four ball clubs will go to war over the temporary privilege of making the pace in the major leagues. The Giants can't go to the lead in the National League even should they sweep through the four game series with the Pirates at Forbes Field...

Some Speculation If the Cardinals merely break even with the Braves, which is somewhat unlikely; the Giants knock the Pirates off for four straight, which is even more so; and the Cubs take three out of four from the Dodgers, only a matter of two games would separate the first four clubs at the end of the current week.

The Yankee-White Sox series for leadership of the American League deals less in mere possibilities, however. The White Sox, one of the so-called sap teams of the training camps, can jump the pace for the first time by winning three out of four from the Yankees at the Stadium, starting today. No other club is even close at this writing, so the entire race will have an eye on the proceedings.

Must Start Rally The Giants will go into the Pittsburgh series duly aware of the fact that they must rally around the situation, proto, or speedily pick their spot for a nose dive. The time was not so long ago when they could beat the Pirates almost on order but that time is no more. The Giants dropped their last two in Cincinnati through bad pitching and it would seem that only a miracle can get them by with that kind of stuff against the Pirate hitters. To a man up a tree, an even break would constitute a moral victory for McGraw in this series, in which case the Cards and Cubs alone would benefit. The Cardinals, in fact, hardly can go wrong against the Braves, considering the present speed of the two outfits.

HARTFORD CLUB PLAYS HERE ON SUNDAY, JUNE 19

Senators Meet Waterbury At Trinity Field and Play Here On Sundays of Next Two Weeks.

The next game to be played in Manchester by the Hartford Eastern League Club will not be until one week from next Sunday—on June 19. There will be no league games here this week. Repeated requests for a home game on Trinity field in Hartford, have led the club officials to a decision to play Waterbury Saturday in Hartford, Sunday the Senators to Providence.

Local Sport Chatter

Both Owner Jim Clarkin and Manager Kitty Bransford of the Hartford Senators were loud in praise of the McKee street stadium. They admitted it was one of the largest ball parks they had ever seen. Each expressed belief that neither Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig nor any player in baseball today could knock the ball over the fence in left center, center or right center. They even said it would take a mighty good poke to clear the fence on fair territory near the foul line.

Bransford says the stadium's biggest asset from a playing standpoint is that it affords abundant opportunity for spectacular fielding. Clarkin, however, thinks, if anything, the field is too big. He feels the same as many a fan does, that a shorter park gives a big thrill both to the player and the onlooker because a ball is crashed over the fence occasionally.

The vast crowd that jammed its way into the stadium Sunday filled the grandstand and bleachers to overflowing. Fans, three and four deep lined both sides of the playing field from the bleachers where the automobiles were parked against the fence near the foul lines.

Through the courtesy of Principal Clarence P. Quimby, arrangements were made whereby if the Hartford Eastern League club desired to play in Manchester next Saturday, it could have done so. The High school and Cheney Brothers were to have played a double-header at the West Side field but Hartford decided to play at Trinity field on that day. Nevertheless, Secretary F. L. Sullivan of the Hartford Club said he appreciated Principal Quimby's attitude on the matter.

Manchester fans who got their first taste of professional boxing last night after a long period of the amateur sport could not help but comment today on the immeasurable difference between the two kinds of boxing. The card at the Velodrome in Hartford surely was a corker and if Promoter Homer Rainault of Holyoke continues to offer programs of similar caliber, he should be rewarded by increased attendance.

It has been reported that the Community Club is planning to play the Bristol New Departures here Thursday night in a twilight game but nothing official has been given out to that effect at this writing.

The Community Club will practice tonight at the Community playgrounds. The new suits have arrived and will be given out at the club house tonight before practice. Manager Bulla said this morning that he had not arranged any game with the Bristol New Departures as has been reported.

Eastern Connecticut, which never has sent any amateur boxers to Hartford tournaments, though the amateur game flourishes in that sector of the state is sending a four-man team, each member of which is an Eastern Connecticut champion, to the Massachusetts A. C. amateur show to be held at the Hartford Velodrome tonight.

Bill Taylor, the former Hartford high school star athlete, who is an amateur welterweight of much promise and who looms as the probable successor to Bat Battalino as the outstanding amateur of the state, is one of the Hartford boxers slated to meet the Eastern Connecticut titelholders, all of which hail from the thriving town of Putnam.

Wiley Will Pitch Against East Hartford On Thursday

Thursday afternoon's baseball game at East Hartford is by far the most important of the season for Coach Tommy Kelley's S. M. H. S. team, because on its outcome hinges the championship of the Central Connecticut League. Wilford Wiley will pitch for Manchester with Nino Boggini behind the plate. The regular lineup will be intact.

East Hartford, with its brilliant hurler, Buddy Brewer, has lost but one game this season, a 1-0 decision to Meriden High with Johnny Deming on the mound. Manchester High lost its first game of the season to West Hartford in that city 9 to 4 and then lost to East Hartford here a few weeks ago 6 to 3.

A victory for Manchester will knot the league standing at the conclusion of the schedule with the provision that Manchester wins both games from Middletown High, which is more or less of a certainty—or should be.

Saturday afternoon, Middletown High will play Manchester at the McKee street stadium. The following week, Rockville High will come here Monday to face Holmes and Wiley will essay to turn back Middletown Thursday in that city.

Gene Tunney recently took the count—not, however, from any opponent in the ring. The heavy-weight champion casually asked the price of a painting by Monet in New York the other day. The price named made him realize that his next fight must net a million dollars if he expects to collect any oil paintings.

THIS TELLS IT 1. It counts as a strike or whatever may follow. 2. The calling of a balk is a matter of the umpire's judgment and no appeal is necessary for a decision. 3. The degree of speed is given no consideration, if in the opinion of the umpire, the batsman has tried to avoid being hit, therefore he is entitled to his base on a slow ball or fast ball. 4. He has such a right. 5. He cannot. The umpire should rule such a move a balk.

Stroke Savers by Bobby Cruickshank. Here I am half way on my favorite club—the long iron. Note how my body is curved, how my left foot is about three inches back of my right, how my left heel is raised several inches and the left knee is turning in toward the ball. I think you will find yourself getting much more distance if you keep your left arm not too rigid and your right elbow tucked in comfortably. The right knee is straight.

"I was shot up in the World War." "So was I." "I was run over by an automobile."

"That so?" "And I've had to live with my mother-in-law ever since I was married."

"Great heavens! I should say you have met with misfortune! What can I do for you?"

It's quite a trick to be a magician.

Nod: "Why do you call money 'Jack'?" Ted: "It lifts such a load off of a fellow."

A kiss is alleged to shorten life and the lack of them in families has been known to shorten married life.

Music be the food of love, jazz must be the poison.

The shell house was a wondrous place. A smile spread on each Tiny's face, as all around the house they looked, while King Roar led the way. They found some cots that looked brand new and they were made of seashells, too. When King Roar said, "That's where you'll sleep," the Tinies yelled "Hurray!" Then Clowny stopped and looked them over. Said he, "I fear they'll make us sore." The seashells look so sharp and hard, they'll keep us all awake." Old King Roar laughed to beat the band. He answered, "You don't understand. When all the shells are covered up, a dandy bed they make."

He then brought blankets by the score. Said he, "That's what we use these for. They're spread upon the little shells, and you'll soon understand." This made the Tinies broadly grin. The beds were made and they crawled in. It thrilled them all to know the king had made them all by hand.

Next morning, when the sun was high, and clearest blue was in the sky, the happy band of Tinymites went strolling down the beach. They went out on a dock, quite long, and hoped that they weren't doing wrong. They tried to pick some water flowers, but found them out of reach.

Just then the king himself appeared, and when he smiled, the bunch were cheered. Their good friend said, "I've something here to open up your eyes." He then unwrapped a bundle small, while being watched by one and all. And, when they saw what it contained, they looked on in surprise.

"A diving helmet," Scouty said. "I'll bet 'twill fit right on my head. I wonder, can I try it on, and will you show me how?" "You bet I will," the King replied. "It's not so hard to crawl inside. As long as you have asked me first, we'll put it on right now."

(Scouty meets the king at the bottom of the sea in the next story.)

PENTLAND CRAWLING UP ON ANDERSON
 "Jack" Only 64 Votes Behind "Whitey"—Cervini Doesn't Gain In Third.

At the end of the ninth week of C. E. House & Son Inc. "On To Paris" Popularity Contest, "Whitey" Anderson still holds the lead—but by the smallest margin since the start. "Whitey's" vote stands at 7329 and Jack Pentland's at 7265. There is only a margin of 64 votes. If the past two weeks indicate the trend of affairs, Pentland will be ahead of the end of the tenth week unless Anderson can pull in some big votes.

Frank Cervini was making quite a favorable showing in third place but took a fall last week, not one vote being credited to him.

The contest is getting into the home stretch and voting is simmering down to Anderson and Pentland.

Don't miss Lawn Fete.—Adv.
