

NET PRESS RUN
AVERAGE DAILY CIRCULATION OF THE EVENING HERALD
for the month of July, 1927
5,040

Manchester Evening Herald

THE WEATHER
Forecast by E. S. Walker, Bureau
New Haven
Fair tonight, Thursday, partly cloudy.

VOL. XLII, NO. 260.

Classified Advertising on Page 10.

MANCHESTER, CONN., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 3, 1927.

Comm. State Library
... (SIX PAGES) ...

PRICE THREE CENTS

COOLIDGE'S NOTE A BOMBSHELL

FULLER POSTPONES PLANS ON DECISION

Meeting of Council, Called For Today, Is Postponed Until Tomorrow Noon; Sacco and Vanzetti Await Chair.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 3.—Governor Alvan T. Fuller today sprang a sudden surprise in his review of the case of Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti.

Announcement was made at the State House by William L. Reed, secretary of the Executive Council, that the scheduled meeting for that body at noon today was postponed until noon tomorrow.

The councillors were enroute to the capitol when the announcement was made.

The fact that Gov. Fuller's decision in the Sacco-Vanzetti review is to be given out at approximately eight p. m. tonight and that the council meeting has been postponed until after the announcement of the decision caused much speculation. State House observers were as much in the dark as ever on the nature of the decision but a majority thought that the council was to be consulted, which was taken to mean that the governor had decided to intervene.

Loose Hope.
Waiting within a few feet of the electric chair, Sacco and Vanzetti were said to have abandoned hope in Gov. Fuller's decision and to be planning a "last ditch" battle before either the local federal court or the United States Supreme Court.

With Sacco and Vanzetti in the death house today was Celestino Maderios, of New Bedford, Wrentham bank cashier slayer, who made a "confession" shifting the guilt of the South Braintree killings from Sacco and Vanzetti to a band of Providence, R. I., gangsters. Maderios, scheduled to die August 10th, the date of the Sacco-Vanzetti execution, occupied Cell No. 1 in the death house. He would be the first to go to the chair. There was some doubt in legal circles whether Maderios would be executed if the governor intervenes in the case of Sacco and Vanzetti. Sacco was in Cell No. 2 and Vanzetti in Cell No. 3. The transfer of the three prisoners from the Cherry Hill section was made suddenly last night and without incident. Prison uniforms of the three men have been discarded for black civilian suits.

Death Guard.
A death house guard of two armed men was placed outside the cells and heavy guard details patrolled the walls of the prison and the streets outside were guarded.

Defense counsel may visit Sacco and Vanzetti and Mrs. Sacco may visit her husband, accompanied by Sacco's two children. But all others are barred. The death cells the men may smoke, write and have whatever they desire to eat from the outside.

Vanzetti's sister is rushing to America by ocean liner from Italy.

Needed No Help.
Sacco needed no assistance in walking from Cherry Hill to the death house, a distance of a few hundred yards. Yet his condition from fasting, mental and physical, has been giving his friends and sympathizers some alarm. Before Vanzetti quit his hunger strike he showed symptoms of "mental confusion" according to Attorney Thompson, and for a few hours was

(Continued on Page 2)

PEGGY JOYCE SAYS SHE'LL GO ON STAGE

Much Married Actress Is Done With Husbands and Will Return to First Love.

New York, Aug. 3.—Peggy Hopkins Joyce is returning to her first love—the stage. She is through with her husbands, she said today.

The famous beauty is under contract with the Shuberts to star in a forthcoming production of "Artists and Models." She is reported to be guaranteed a salary of $2,000 weekly and a percentage of the gross receipts.

Lee Shubert personally made the contract with Miss Joyce. It was the Shuberts who first brought her out years ago as a star with Norman Trevor.

Miss Joyce has been living quietly since her divorce from Count Costa Morner, Swedish nobleman. She will not admit her plans to return to the stage. Her last appearance was three years ago as the star of Earl Carroll's Vanities.

ROGERS PAPER COMPANY SOLD TO CHAS. RAY

General Manager of Concern Purchases Business and Two Mills Here—Founded By Rogers Family.

The Rogers Paper Manufacturing Company Inc., operating two mills here passed out of the Rogers family, which organized it in 1832, today when Charles Ray, for seven years general manager of the concern, announced that he had purchased the business and the mills. Boston banking interests will be affiliated with Mr. Ray in the new concern, but the local man holds a controlling interest in the corporation. Miss Gertrude H. Rogers of Prospect street has been president and treasurer of the Rogers company.

The two local plants of the company located on Charter Oak street and on Hartford Road employ a little over 100 hands. Paper specialties and press-board are manufactured in the mills. Business has been unusually good and the outlook for continued prosperity is promising. Mr. Ray said today that the concern has orders three months in advance.

No Immediate Changes.
No changes in employee personnel will accompany the change in ownership. Mr. Ray announced Thomas H. Johnston, who joined the Rogers company shortly after Mr. Ray, is superintendent and will continue in that capacity. "The only change in employment will be to increase as our business expands," Mr. Ray said.

Mr. Ray celebrated his 25th anniversary as a paper manufacturer on the 24th of July. He came here from Troy, N. Y. in 1902. In Troy he had been associated for 18 years with the John A. Manning Paper Company. When joining the Rogers company he had in mind the purchase of the plant. He proceeded to reorganize the system in vogue at the mills and brought the equipment up-to-date. Under his management the company was unusually successful. He made an offer to Miss Rogers and other smaller stockholders for the concern and it was accepted.

Capital Increased.
Only a temporary board of directors has been named awaiting incorporation under the laws of the state of Massachusetts where an issue of stock is being placed on sale by a Boston finance house. The new concern has been incorporated under the laws of this state with an authorized capitalization of $450,000. The capital of the old Rogers company was $30,000. All of the new stock here has been subscribed for.

While no immediate development of the business is planned Mr. Ray hopes to expand and employ more people in the future. For the present he hopes to get the most out of what he has to do with in the two mills here. A better regulation of production has already been attained under his management and he has further improvements in mind. The mills are working 24 hours a day at present and since the Rogers company has a reputation for high quality pressboard and is alone in the field with a number

(Continued on Page 2)

THE WORLD SOON WILL KNOW

Final decision of the celebrated Sacco-Vanzetti case is expected today from Gov. Fuller of Massachusetts (lower picture). Sacco and Vanzetti (left to right above) are on a hunger strike.

SCRIBES ALLOWED TO INSPECT BOOKS

Newspapers Are the Only Connecting Link Between the Public and Its Officials

Hartford, Conn., Aug. 3.—Dr. Stanley H. Osborn, state commissioner of health and superintendent of vital statistics, today received an answer from Louis Schiller, Jr., Naugatuck town clerk, who he had requested to explain his stand in refusing to permit the names of applicants for marriage licenses to be given out for publication.

Dr. Osborn had informed Schiller that if the town clerk insisted on following this course, he would have to explain how he interpreted the new five-day law to extend this power to a town clerk. Dr. Osborn said he would refer Schiller's letter to the attorney general for ruling.

Schiller in a lengthy message apparently based his stand on the personal interpretation that public books are not open to "the curious" but only to those having business requiring them to inspect records.

He went on to say that publishing of marriage licenses would do more harm than good.

Protest had been lodged against Schiller's action on the basis that it is part of a newspaper's business to inspect public books, newspapers being practically the only connecting link between the public and its officials.

SHIP WITHOUT PILOT ARRIVES AT GRAYHEAD

Coast Guard Mystified as Motorboat Comes to Beach Alone—Seek Owner.

Gayhead, Mass., Aug. 3.—The mystery of motorboat C-63, a modern "Flying Dutchman," remained unexplained today and there was no trace of John Reardon, the owner, who chugged out of Newport, R. I., harbor for the sword fishing grounds off Cape Cod.

Coastguardsmen at the local station could hardly believe their eyes when the ghostly craft, without a man aboard, swung sharply across Dog Fish bar and beached herself near the Coastguard station below the red and white clay cliffs here.

Reardon's license was found aboard and he had been preparing a meal before he was lost in some mysterious fashion.

The tenantless hull was pierced in ramming the shore and while coastguardsmen searched the seas for a trace of Reardon, other guardsmen raised the sunken craft.

TREASURY BALANCE
Washington, Aug. 3.—Treasury balance August 1: $184,742,835.70.

FIFTH DISTRICT OUTSIDERS MAY OUST FACTIONS

Plan to End School War By Taking Control, Calling In Umpire Body to Pick School Site.

Warning was given today to the voters of the Fifth School District of a special meeting to be held on Wednesday evening, August 10. This is the meeting made possible by a petition of a number of district voters and a variety of matters are slated to be settled at that time.

More business than the district has ever before had to transact at one meeting is included in the call. Among the items in the call are several of great importance. For instance, the 12th and 13th clauses concern the building of a new school and the change of the site from the present one to one at the corner of Keeney and Hackmatack streets.

Outside Umpires
An unusual clause mentions the possibility of having the site for a new school building left to the decision of the board of school visitors of an adjoining town. The adjoining town is not mentioned but it is probably Glastonbury.

The district will decide what course to take on the judgments handed down by the court of common pleas recently in favor of Almee Demars and Arthur E. Loomis. For instance, the district will authorize the treasurer to report on the indebtedness of the district and report back to a special meeting within 30 days. The tentative date for this meeting has been set for September 2.

Other clauses in the call concern a matter which has been troubling opponents of the Manning faction of the district for some time, that of dispensing with Frederick R. Manning and his assistants as counsel for the district. A clause preceding this one seeks to rescind the former vote which gave the committee power to employ counsel.

Whether just a perfunctory gesture or not, the district will vote on consolidation with the "Town School System."

From the talk of prominent residents of the district it is possible that the Manning and Loomis factions, who have been causing all the trouble in the district by their continual fighting, will be ousted by the so-called "innocent bystanders" who have been watching the fight from the outside.

Many residents of the district, it is said, are tired of the continual wrangling and are anxious to bring the district back to its former smooth way of functioning.

SEE SETTLEMENT SOON OF GREY-CHAPLIN SUIT

Her Lawyers Withdraw—Case May Be Settled Outside of Court.

Los Angeles, Calif., Aug. 3.—Reports of a positive nature that the Lita Grey-Charlie Chaplin divorce suit was settled out of court, coupled with the withdrawal from the suit of Mrs. Chaplin's attorneys, today startled friends of the comedian and his youthful wife.

Lyndell L. Young, Milton Young and William K. Young, who had represented Mrs. Chaplin, admitted today they have severed relations with their client and added the break had been hastened by "differences" arising from a probable settlement out of court.

Trial of the suit is scheduled for August 22.

POLICE SEEK KIN OF FORMER MAYOR

Charged by Girl With Attacking 17 Year Old Girl in an Automobile.

Ansonia, Conn., Aug. 3.—Although John Riordan, described by police as an idler, was due to surrender late yesterday on charges of attacking and brutally assaulting Lena Zaharias, 17, no trace had been found of the man today. The girl was thrown from an automobile after being attacked, according to her story. Riordan is a nephew of former Mayor John C. Mead, court charges of theft in an offense that dates back to December 22, 1924.

Digra is now held in the New Jersey Reformatory but will be returned by Detective Sergeant Frederick of Bridgeport who was appointed to return the fugitive.

POLITICIANS DEBATE ON WHAT IT MEANS

Opinion Divided on Whether It Means He Will Not Run For Presidency or That He Will Run If Nominated; Announcement Came Out of Clear Sky—Leaders Speculate on Reason Why It Was Made at This Particular Time—Probable Candidates Start to Build Fences.

Washington, Aug. 3.—Political candor or political cunning? As hot a political debate as the country has witnessed in years raged today about President Coolidge's enigmatic declaration that he does not "choose" to run for the presidency next year, with opinion divided sharply as to whether he is displaying political candor or political cunning by his peculiarly worded statement.

If Mr. Coolidge really means to take himself out of consideration for 1928, he will have to put his intention in more positive words before the hard-bolled politicians in the capital will believe it. The great majority of republicans now in Washington are unwilling to scratch his name on the basis of the ten startling words that emanated from Rapid City yesterday in such dramatic fashion:

"I do not choose to run for president in 1928."

At the same time, it is conceded generally that Mr. Coolidge, by his statement, has let down the bars to a flock of Republican potentialities who will not be slow to take the declaration at its face value and proceed to build themselves up in the line of succession.

Leaders' Opinion.
There are several Republican leaders who believe that, whether he intended to or not, the president has removed himself from consideration. They are, however, in the minority. The majority, whose opinion was sought, viewed the cautiously-worded statement with skepticism and attributed to Mr. Coolidge a desire to be "drafted," as they put it.

"If Mr. Coolidge really wanted to eliminate himself from consideration in 1928, he would have said: 'I am not a candidate and will under no circumstances consent to stand again.' That is what Theodore Roosevelt said in a similar situation twenty years ago. But Mr. Coolidge did not say that. He merely said he did not choose to run again. Of course, no man can afford to 'run' for the presidency when his running involves bucking the American tradition against a third term. Roosevelt also tried that later—and the result is well remembered."

Not Seeking Office.
That represents the view of the average Republican politician in Washington. As viewed by these practical politicians, Mr. Coolidge's statement is calculated to remove whatever stigma there might be to standing for another term, without, at the same time, removing himself entirely from the picture. He is now in the position of not openly at least, seeking a third term. Therefore, if the Republican convention next year should proceed to nominate him any way, he can accept with resignation and solemnly declare: "The will of the people."

On the other hand, there is a small group of Republican leaders who have always cherished the private belief, that Mr. Coolidge would not again be a candidate. These republicans regard the president's enigmatic statement as a confirmation of their views, and they were saying today "I told you so."

The Other Side.
The same practical politicians who believe that Mr. Coolidge's disavowal of candidacy is in reality a bid for renomination, also believe that it will be extremely difficult to nominate him after the country gets saturated thoroughly with his declaration. They point out that Mr. Coolidge has now extended an open invitation to all his rivals—Herbert Hoover, Frank O. Lowden, Charles G. Dawes, William E. Borah, and others—to get into the race, and there are few who believe the invitation will be ignored.

Lowden Ready
Gov. Lowden already has an organization functioning. Lowden-President Clubs have been in progress of formation for months in many parts of the country, principally in the west. This work has proceeded even in the face of Mr. Coolidge's apparent intention of merely remaining silent and letting his friends renominate him. An enormous impetus will be given now to this Lowden movement in the opinion of practical politicians here.

And Lowden is not the only dangerous potentiality. Republican leaders believe that a full-fledged

33 KILLED BY AUTOS IN STATE IN JULY

Over 1,000 Injured—Manchester Next to Last in Long List of Towns and Cities.

Hartford, Conn., Aug. 3.—With thirty-three dead, 1,139 injured and a total of 2,700 accidents, the month just passed was the worst for Connecticut motorists in history with the exception of October, 1926.

July accidents for previous years were far under last month's totals according to the motor vehicle department records today.

The total number of automobile deaths for the state this year including July casualties now stands at 163, eleven more than for the corresponding period last year but five less than the record year of 1925.

July Victims this year included ten children while of the 1,139 injured 352 were children.

That all parts of the state contributed to the high accident totals during July is indicated by reports on the number of accidents which occurred in the following cities: Hartford 223, New Haven 237, Bridgeport 213, Waterbury 143, New Britain 85, Stamford 74, Greenwich 61, New London 60, Meriden 57, Danbury 44, Norwich 35, Norwalk 33, Middletown 20, Willimantic 15, Windlet 14, Manchester 10, Putnam 10, Naugatuck 9.

ISSUES REQUISITION
Hartford, Conn., Aug. 3.—Governor Trumbull today issued a requisition on the governor of New Jersey for the extradition of George Digra, wanted in Bridgeport on a charge of theft in an offense that dates back to December 22, 1924.

Digra is now held in the New Jersey Reformatory but will be returned by Detective Sergeant Frederick of Bridgeport who was appointed to return the fugitive.

movement in behalf of Herbert Hoover will burst forth before many weeks. The movement has been proceeding under cover for many months, anyway, but it could not be brought into the open because of Mr. Hoover's position in Mr. Coolidge's Cabinet. Political observers have not forgotten that only a few weeks ago Mr. Hoover made a remark in Rapid City that was almost as enigmatic as that of Mr. Coolidge yesterday.

Answering an inquiry about his own possible candidacy, Mr. Hoover observed that he was committed to Mr. Coolidge, and then added he was compelled to say that because of "my sense of loyalty."

WHY AT THIS TIME.
There was vast speculation today over the reasons that actuated Mr. Coolidge in making his announcement at this particular time. It caught even his few intimates completely by surprise. Even those who have preferred to believe that he would not be a candidate next year, did not expect him to make any announcement prior to the assembly of Congress. By merely remaining silent and permitting the country to believe he was a receptive candidate, Mr. Coolidge was choking the efforts of other candidates and was preventing organization of their movements on any formidable scale.

The Lowden organization has been proceeding under severe difficulties, merely because of this continued silence, and the Hoover movement has hardly got started, except in a sub-rosa way.

Republican leaders in Washington confessed themselves in the dark today as to why the president should have cast his political bombshell at this particular time. Some of them deplore it from the standpoint that it will lessen his influence with the incoming Congress. The average party member, it was pointed out, will be less amenable to White House discipline and the party whip with an occupant of the White House who has disavowed his candidacy for re-election. Republican control of the new Congress is shaky at best.

MOVE TO END STRIKE DISCUSSED BY UNION
Governors Ask Donahay For More Details of Proposed Peace Parley.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 3.—District chiefs of the United Mine Workers of America will be called upon to consider whatever results from the move made by Governor Vio Donahay of Ohio, to obtain operation of Governors Len Small of Illinois, and Ed Jackson of Indiana, in urging coal miners and operators to enter and end the bituminous coal field strike started when the Jacksonville agreement expired last April.

President John Lewis, who is ill, and other officers of the International Mine Workers' organization are out of the city but it was stated that the unions' general policy had not been changed.

Gov. Jackson announced today that he would write to Donahay asking further information on his plan to hold a peace conference.

CHOOSE" IS VERNACULAR OF THE NEW ENGLANDER
New York, Aug. 3.—"Will you have some more pipe?" the New England house-wife asks her guest.

"I wouldn't choose any, thank you," is the New Englander's reply. It means simple and polite refusal.

Those familiar with New England and its idiom, recalled this quirk of the vernacular as the politically wise of the country sought to find the hidden meaning behind the twelve words of President Coolidge:

"I do not choose to run for president in nineteen-twenty-eight."

Local Stocks

(Furnished by Putnam & Co.)

Table of local stock prices including Bank Stocks, Insurance Stocks, Public Utility Stocks, and Manufacturing Stocks.

N. Y. Stocks

Table of New York stock prices including Am Can, Am Car & Fdy, Allied Chem, and various other stocks.

ROGERS PAPER CO. SOLD TO CHAS. RAY

(Continued from Page 1)

of paper specialties the outlook is particularly impressive. Active in Manchester. Since coming to Manchester Mr. Ray has taken a prominent part in the business and social life of the town.

ANDOVER

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Coppold of New Haven and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nicolini of Hartford were week end guests of their mother, Mrs. Ellen Jones.

OUR WORLD LOST BISHOP DECLARES

Conference of Faith and Order Opens With 500 Delegates Present.

Lausanne, Aug. 3.—"We are living in a world that has lost its way," declared Bishop Charles H. Brent of Buffalo, acting as chairman today in opening the world conference of faith and order.

JACKIE COOGAN'S DEBUT AS A GROWN UP ACTOR

Hollywood, Calif.—"Where is little Jackie?" asked a visitor on the Jackie Coogan set.

PLANE FALLS; NONE HURT

Franklin, Conn., Aug. 3.—Pilot Russell G. Barker of Providence and two prominent passengers, Armand Collier, 23, nephew of Federal Governor Pothier of Rhode Island and Theophile Guerlin, mill owner, had returned to their homes today leaving behind them a wrecked airplane and taking with them the knowledge of a narrow escape from death.

KILLED BY CABLE

Hartford, Conn., Aug. 3.—Thomas G. Fraser, 22, went to his death in a peculiar manner yesterday when he was struck by a steel cable while drifting in his canoe and hurled into the Connecticut river where he was drowned.

BODY IDENTIFIED

Bridgeport, Conn., Aug. 3.—With identification of the body of a man found dead in the river near Yellow Mill bridge cleared up, police today resumed investigation into the manner of his drowning.

POLICEMEN IN COURT

New Britain, Conn., Aug. 3.—Even comrade policemen take their difficulties to court. Policeman Michael Lucas is suing policeman Edward Carroll for $10,000 damages as the outgrowth of an accident in which their cars crashed.

MEAN THIEF

Hartford, Conn., Aug. 3.—Looting the pocketbooks of women while they knelt in prayer at church services will be the charge to which 17-year-old Edward Sullivan must answer in Police Court today.

GOV. FULLER CHANGES PLANS ON DECISION

(Continued from page 1)

placed in a padded cell. He recovered and took nourishment. "Mobilize a million men; there is no hope" was a message Vanzetti sent all over the world.

COLUMBIA

Mrs. Lucy Clarke and her daughter, Mrs. Emily Randall spent the day Monday at "The Gables" with Mrs. Herman Little of New York who is staying at the lake for two weeks.

ABOUT TOWN

Miss Adeline Pentland of 30 Foster street and Miss Lillian Reardon of High street have gone to Pleasant View, R. I. for a few weeks.

GERMANY'S VIEW

Berlin, Aug. 3.—President Coolidge's announcement that he does not choose to be a candidate for president next year was a startling surprise to Germany and caused a sensation here today.

INDIGNANT WHEN BEES GET DRUNK

Gallipolis, O.—A still or stillo, somewhere in the woods near his farm, has almost ruined the once fine apiary of William Harper.

FOUND DEAD IN BARREL

New Haven, Conn., Aug. 3.—Found dead in a rain barrel, Pasquale Petrolini, 49, provided a mystery for police here today.

BITTEN BY RATTLESNAKE

Bath, N. Y., Aug. 3.—Serum was being rushed here from Ithaca today to combat the venom of an enormous rattlesnake which bit Mrs. Walter Thompson, 50, when she was picking berries in the woods near her home in Cameron.

OUR ARISTOCRACY

VISITOR: That a dignified old retainer you have, Mrs. Morris. MRS. MORRIS: Yes, isn't he? We've had him in the family for six weeks.—Life.

Various Opinions On Coolidge Note

Plymouth Notch, Vt., Aug. 3.—"I'll be gosh darned!" that the Allies are unwilling to disarm.

OUR HOMER TALKS

Stamford, Conn., Aug. 3.—Homer S. Cummings, former Democratic national committee man and Schuyler Merritt, former Congressman from this district, today added their opinions to the maze of conjectures that has followed the announcement of President Coolidge's withdrawal from the presidential race.

AL SMITH TALKS

New York, Aug. 3.—Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, potential Democratic presidential candidate, is "not interested" in President Coolidge's decision to retire from the 1928 race.

Excursion To Boston

SUNDAY, AUGUST 7

ABOUT TOWN

A daughter was born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Curran of 58 Bigelow street. The baby weighs 9 3/4 pounds and is named Ruth May.

Hose Company No. 1

The Hose Company No. 1 of the Manchester Fire department will have a drill Thursday evening at seven o'clock at the fire headquarters, Main and Hilliard street.

TO-NIGHT SOUTH MANCHESTER TO-NIGHT

Advertisement for Florence Vidor 'The World at Her Feet' at the State Theatre.

Advertisement for Manchester Public Market with prices for fish and other goods.

POLICE COURT

Albert Duncan was fined $35 and costs in the police court this morning by Judge Raymond A. Johnson for assault on his wife, May Hollister Duncan.

KANSAS CITY INVITES W. C. T. U. CONVENTION

Kansas City, Mo.—An invitation to the National Women's Christian Temperance Union to meet in Kansas City, next year, will be extended at the annual meeting in Minneapolis, according to Mrs. Fannie L. Taylor, president of the Kansas City Chapter.

Excursion To Boston

SUNDAY, AUGUST 7

Excursion To Boston

SUNDAY, AUGUST 7

Excursion To Boston

SUNDAY, AUGUST 7

Excursion To Boston

SUNDAY, AUGUST 7

KIWANIANS DISCUSS THEIR KIDDIE CAMP

Today's session of the Manchester Kiwanis club was wholly given over to the Hebron camp which was maintained by the organization last year and again this summer.

BOTH WERE GOOD

An old negro was asked what breed of chicken he considered the best.

LAKESIDE CASINO

So. Coventry Peerless Orchestra. DANCING SATURDAY EVG.

THE GREAT BIG CIRCUS AND BIG PARADE

MANCHESTER ONE DAY MONDAY Aug. 8

CHRISTY BROS BIG 5 RING

WILD ANIMAL SHOWS

Excursion To Boston

SUNDAY, AUGUST 7

Excursion To Boston

SUNDAY, AUGUST 7

Excursion To Boston

SUNDAY, AUGUST 7

Excursion To Boston

SUNDAY, AUGUST 7

Rockville FAVORS AIRPORT FOR ROCKVILLE

Mayor Cameron Suggests Plot on Tolland Turnpike; Busses to Stop in City.

(Special to The Herald)

Rockville August 3.—Mayor John Cameron expressed the opinion this morning that a flying field would place Rockville on the map and also said that others in Rockville were in favor of such a landing field. The particular place that was considered as a good landing place would be the large open space of land just opposite the end of Grove street and on the south side of the newly proposed Tolland Turnpike to the south of the almshouse.

This would give ample space for landing. The approaches are all that could be asked for and the land's location would be ideal for this. This is not a recent thought but has been under consideration for some time and as Rockville has already had a beacon field and a school of instruction in balloon flying there is enough incentive to get an active backing to the project. If there is any likelihood of the people of Rockville wishing to have Rockville numbered among the places in this part of the country that have a flying field. While the flying field suggested would be just outside of the city limit, the turnpike line being the dividing section, it would be less than five minutes by automobile to reach the center of the city and from the point that the landing could be made it would give a wonderful view of Rockville. There would be little trouble with air pockets because of the different sides from which the landing could be made.

Rockville On Bus Line
General Manager Curry of the Trans-Continental Motor Stages which run between Boston and New York and up to today have been skipping Rockville, made his first stop in Rockville for the purpose of connecting Rockville on the line. The bus has been passing through Vernon Center on its way to Manchester at 1:30 and instead of taking the route through Vernon, as has been the custom, the line now comes down the turnpike as far as Tolland avenue and then into Rockville.

The exact schedule is not as yet set, but on August 12 the complete schedule will be made known. At present stops are made at Stafford Springs, Rockville, Manchester, Hartford, New Haven and Bridgeport. It is claimed that the route that is followed is fifty miles shorter than by way of Springfield and it is also more attractive as it passes through more historical points, meets less trucks and is one of the most beautiful rides of any bus.

Arrangements were made last night to make headquarters in Rockville at the Lee Pharmacy, at the corner of Park place and Park street, and the first bus stopped there this afternoon. Rates and schedules, connecting for points south and west from New York and from Boston to the north are to be included in the schedule book and rate charges that will be issued next week Friday.

The buses are all new, have numbered and reserved seats, air cushions and individual reclining seats. The fare from Rockville to Boston will be $2.50. From Rockville to New York it will be $4.50. There is also a saving in running time from Boston to New York over the route that is to be followed by the new bus line of two hours.

Just Plain "Conspiracy"
John Kutowski, who lives in a house located on Market street, is called Brooklyn Street Heights, as there are just two railroad tracks and a couple of terraces separating it from Brooklyn street west, Washington Dunbar, a man of color, who lives on Brooklyn street, were both placed under bonds late yesterday afternoon after the police had been called to that section on a complaint that there had been a fight.

John had blood flowing from an ear and there was a mark on two on his neck, but "Washy" the other contender seemed unmarked because of their "conspiracy," as Harvey Price explained the matter. Harvey, who works as a laborer during the greater part of the season and plays the "coon" (this without a make up) on the head game at fairs, explained the whole matter after both men had been released on bonds. Harvey was an eye witness to part of the trouble, that led to the arrest and had a good word for both men. "John and 'Washy'" are good fellows, good friends, too," he said, "but they just got into a 'conspiracy' he said, 'and did things that they both sure will be sorry for.' At the same time Harvey was busy telling the other witnesses 'just what you say about the case and advised them to 'just tell the truth' for 'Washy' in Harvey's opinion is a good fellow and so is John.

As near as could be learned Washington Dunbar is a steady working sort of a fellow and is employed on the section gang of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company that connects Rockville twice each day with Vernon. "Washy" the story goes on was at his usual work yesterday afternoon.

His particular duty was to clear the weeds out of the gutter and toss them up on the bank where they were to be either in a steady working at the bottom of a rather steep embankment on the south side near the Brooklyn street side-ing and as he worked along he threw the weeds so far up on the bank that they covered over some plants that were so along the bank, which some day are expected to grow flowers, but no flowers have grown as yet.

Mrs. Nellie Hopewell, who lives on High street, was a visitor at the terrace house, not pleased with the way that things were being done and told John about it. John in languages that are sometimes hard to speak, but using words that are best understood, work being done and paid an unflattering remark about the color of "Washy."

Mr. Washington Dunbar was born in this country and although his forefathers might have been lately smothered, he rather resented the remarks and replied with words that he felt John could best understand and made reference to his particular birth place, which was not "Vernon." The verbal battle followed by a few stones being thrown, nobody but the house being hit, and then came a scuffle.

In this scuffle John had an injury inflicted on his ear and was also ruffled about the neck as they went into a clinch. Several stepped in to stop the trouble, among them Mrs. Hopewell who found it a good time, when "Washy's" hands were held behind him, to slap him in the face. It is then claimed that "Washy" made an effort to draw a knife. Some say he did get out a knife and did not open it, while others say that he got it out and with his hands still tied behind him used his teeth to open the knife, but there was no carving done.

Both went to the police station with Captain Tobin and he called in medical aid to have the ear of John put together again and also to wash and dress the wound. Washington seemed uninjured.

The necessary bond of $100 was supplied for each. They both returned to their home and after Washington got all dressed up took a sitting position on the north rail of the north track while John stood up on the bank and they talked to each other. Washington told John that it was foolish to fight. He had been doing some thinking, he said, and only real fighters get any money out of fighting while all others that fight get arrested or have to pay for the expenses and thought that they were both a little foolish. "Why throw stones at me and try to kill me?" John asked and Washington would reply, "You just should get hit. Harvey and told them both that they were good fellows, that "Washy" would not hurt John and John would not hurt "Washy." "The ways you fellows turn the stones showed it."

"In the days that I was in the dodging business nobody at all would get a cigar if they all threw like you fellows," he concluded, but they both were just angry at each other, it could be seen, and Harvey was still trying to play the part of the peace dove when the reporter left.

May Cause Hitch.
The fact that the Economy Grocery Company has a lease on the so-called Robinson building, which was sold last week to Henry Belheimer, in which it is specified that certain goods cannot be sold in the same building where their store is located was a matter under discussion today after a visit yesterday of two of the members of the Economy company in this city.

Canned goods are carried by the Economy Grocery company and they are also carried by Mr. Belheimer.

Gas Works Responsible?
In the investigation that is going on in an effort to clear up the Hockanum river and leave it clear before it leaves Rockville seems to have resulted in many findings. As all the water of the trouble in the filter beds is due to the passing through the septic tanks of lint that is carried through on the soap that is used in the different mills that form a coating over the filter beds and does not allow for proper exposure to the sun to clear away the water so it will sink through the beds. Until the stream reaches a point where the gas plant is located on West Main street the water looks clear and attractive, but the refuse that is turned into the stream at the gas houses turns it black again and leaves an odor that is not pleasant to the smelling powers nor attractive to the eye.

The examination that is going on and the report that is being compiled will not be ready for action until December, when the annual meeting of the city will be held and at that time it is expected that there will be a recommendation for a large expenditure to properly purify the water as it leaves Rockville and enters the Hockanum river.

In a survey of the rivers of Connecticut made by the state board of health the Hockanum is considered the dirtiest in the state as far as dirt and filth is concerned, the other being the Naugatuck, which is considered so bad that a self respecting germ would not live in it.

Populations of County.
According to the report of the state board of health the population of Tolland county is now estimated, as of July 1, to be 27,000. Vernon which includes the city of Rockville is estimated at 8,751 and the next largest town is Stafford which is estimated at 5,472. The other towns in the county make up the remaining 14,000.

Another Test Taken.
Another test of the water at Crystal Lake was taken yesterday afternoon and early last evening. It is a month tomorrow since Ives Farkow with his sister was drowned in the lake. The body of the girl was recovered, but the boy's body is still unaccounted for.

A Close Call.
Bobbie North had a close call from serious injury yesterday. The little fellow had taken a piece of ice from the rear of an ice cart standing on Market street and was darting out across the street when he ran into an automobile going north. The automobile was just coming to a stop because of the police light and as the little fellow fell his foot was caught in the spokes of the rear left wheel, which completed about a quarter of a turn as it stopped. The little fellow picked him-

12 LITTLE WORDS STIR POLITICIANS

(Continued from page 1)

The bill which the Rockville Feed and Grain Company has against the City of Rockville for damage done to their stock and building on Brooklyn street, when surface water came into the place and did considerable damage was considered last night by the Aldermen. Holloran presented a resolution to the common council recommending that the bill be paid for the amount of $200.

This amount was considered reasonable, he said, by the city council. Judge John Fisk, and on the part of the resolution the matter would be taken care of and cleared from the files by Judge Fisk.

Town Clerk on Vacation.
Town Clerk John B. Thomas of West Main street, which will be part of his vacation. The office is open each day and also until 8 o'clock two nights each week by his assistant during his absence. This is the time of the year when business in the office is at a low ebb and when he can best take his vacation.

No Decision as Yet.
Contrary to reports Judge John Fahey has not rendered his decision concerning the death at No. 94 West Main street. He has stated that the hearing was continued and that the notes that were taken have not been transcribed and until this is done, his decision will not be given.

The state police who were called in on the case are not as yet through and are still investigating. In fact, the better part of yesterday was given over by one member of the Stafford barracks to this.

Band Concert.
The Rockville Boys' Band under the direction of Henry M. Schonrock, will give a concert this evening in Talcott Park. A program of popular and classical music has been arranged for the evening's entertainment which is scheduled to commence at 8 o'clock, weather permitting.

Since Mr. Schonrock has been in charge of the boys, he has accomplished much toward making the band one of the finest as each boy is given his individual attention. Mr. Schonrock is also director of Col's Band of Hartford and is considered one of the best bandmasters in the state.

It is hoped that the public will be out in large numbers, thereby encouraging the boys in the good work which they are doing.

Rockville Notes.
About fifty of the children of the Vernon Center County Home will be the guests of the management of the Palace theater this afternoon to enjoy the showing of Harry Langdon in "Long Pants." The children will be conveyed to the theater by a bus and will be accompanied by Superintendent, Mrs. Martha R. Weed and two matrons of the home.

Mrs. Herbert Thorp and daughter of Pittsfield are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Kent, of Orchard street.

Miss Margaret Fay who has been spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Frank Woods of Norwood, Mass., has returned to her home on East street.

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Bauchmann of Ward street are spending this month in Elizabethtown, Pa. where they are the guests of Mrs. Bauchmann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Helsey.

Miss Edith Smith of Prospect street and Miss Marjorie Kite of Davis avenue are enjoying a two weeks' vacation at Mount Desert Island, Maine.

Mrs. Frank Prescott and daughters, Lucy and Georgiana of North Park street have returned from a month's stay at Pleasant View.

Mrs. F. Cohn, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Fred Mathewson of East Main street, has returned to her home at Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Butcher of Orchard street are visiting relatives in Maine.

GERMAN FLYERS START ON ENDURANCE TEST

If Successful They Will Hop Off For New York From Berlin.

Warsaw, Germany, Aug. 3.—Air Pilots Von Koenig and Loose, Reich and Elzard hopped off at 5:10 p. m. and 5:50 a. m., respectively today in two Junker all-metal, 320-horsepower monoplanes on an endurance trial between Lessau and Leipzig. These airplanes are intended for flights to the United States.

The four pilots—two to a machine—planned to fly back and forth between the two cities so long as their fuel held out. Each plane carried two tons of gasoline, which was calculated to be sufficient to beat Clarence E. Chamberlin's record of about 51 hours.

Although overburdened, the machines took off perfectly from a specially constructed runway 750 yards long, built of concrete.

The first machine rose after running along the runway for 600 yards; the second required the whole 750 yards.

The first machine to get away was threatened with an accident at the hop-off when the rear wheels failed to uncouple as the plane rose. The machine flew for two hours handicapped by the trailing wheels before they were finally shaken loose while the plane was flying at an altitude of 100 yards.

Officials of the air council are registering the flight so that the figures will be official.

LINDY LEAVES OHIO.
Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 3.—Continuing his tour of the country in the "Spirit of St. Louis," Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, first New York Paris non-stop flier, took off from Brook Park Airport at 10:35 A. M. today for Pittsburgh. According to announced plans, Lindbergh is to fly over Youngstown on his way to the Pennsylvania City.

U. S. GENERAL DIES.
Boston, Mass., Aug. 3.—Brigadier General James C. Rhea, U. S. retired, former head of the Citizens' Military Training Camps in New England, died at his home today. He was a native of Iowa, was a West Point graduate, served in the Philippines and attended the General staff college at Fort Leavenworth.

RED MEN MAKE PLANS FOR ROCKVILLE OUTING

Dinner, Dancing and Sports on Program For Maple Grove on Sunday, Aug. 21.

Manchester Red Men, their wives, children and friends will enjoy a chicken dinner and sports at their annual outing at Maple Grove, Rockville, on Sunday, August 21. Joseph Barbo is chairman of the general committee.

Following the dinner there will be dancing from 4 o'clock until 8, with music by Mack's Imperial orchestra. There will also be a program of sporting events which will include the following: horseshoe pitching contest with a cup for the champion, potato race for girls 8 to 12, prize, a bisque doll; tug of war for Red Men only, prize, a box of cigars; sack race for boys, prize, watch and fob; bottle contest and volley ball game for women, prize, boxes of candy.

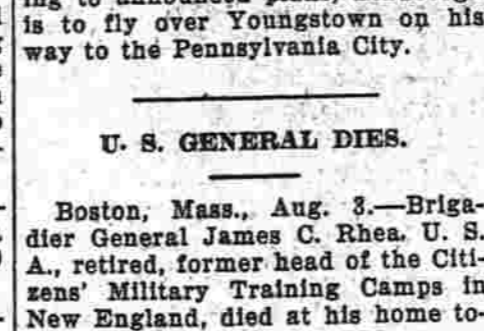

Chas. Trux is chairman of the sports committee.

Other members of the general committee are Sherwood Platt, secretary; James Foley, treasurer; George L. A. Bailey, Max Wagner, James Coffell, Francis Tournard,

WILLIAM J. LEGGETT, JAMES O'BRIEN, FRANK DIANA, GEORGE WILSON, JACK WILSON, REFRESHMENTS, WILLIAM LEGGETT, JAMES O'BRIEN, DANIEL JAMES FOLEY, SHERWOOD PLATT, DINER, FRANK DIANA, TICKETS, JAMES COFFELL.

Scientists have not yet learned why storms occur at the time of equinoxes.

LITTLE JOE
BY THE TIME SOME PEOPLE LEARN TO RIDE HORSEBACK, THEY CAN'T.

Other members of the general committee are Sherwood Platt, secretary; James Foley, treasurer; George L. A. Bailey, Max Wagner, James Coffell, Francis Tournard,

Keith's MID-SUMMER CLEARANCE SALE

Splendid Values From Our Rug Section

A diligent search may locate cheaper merchandise than we offer but NOWHERE will you find better values. Ours is QUALITY merchandise, remarkably low priced.

All Wool Bath Room Rugs Value up to $8.95 Come in 24 and 27 inch sizes. Different patterns, all fast colors and are washable. Splendid values.	All Wool Carpet $2.95 Yard Cut to Measure. A very fine grade of carpet that sells regularly for $4.50 yard. A very substantial saving here.
Smyrna Rugs $3.98 Value $6.95. Fringed ends and reversible. A variety of colors and patterns. Size 30x60 inches.	Velvet Carpet $1.95 Yard Reg. $2.95 yard. You save $1.00 a yard on this high grade carpet from $7 to $12 in covering your hall and stairs.

All Remnants Of Carpet At 1/2 Price.

$35.00 Tapestry Rugs, 9x12 for	$21.50	$105.00 Bagdad Wiltons, 8-3x10-6, for	$74.50
$50.00 Axminster Rugs, 9x12, for	$32.50	$110.00 Bagdad Wiltons, 9x12, for	$79.50
$57.50 Axminster Rugs, 9x12, for	$37.50	$130.00 Special Wiltons, 9x12, for	$94.50
$72.50 Axminster Rugs, 9x12, for	$52.50	$130.00 Roxbury Wiltons, 9x12, for	$94.50
$80.00 Axminster Rugs, 8-3x10-6, for	$59.50	$175.00 Hartford Servian, 9x12, for	$129.50
$85.00 Axminster Rugs, 9x12, for	$62.50	$175.00 Hartford Saxony, 9x12, for	$129.50

All the above at $1.00 or more weekly.

Our Summer Goods Section Presents Some Special Values

Aerolux Porch Screens

4 ft. wide, 7 1/2 ft. drop, now	$3.50
Reg. $4.75.
5 1/2 ft. wide, 7 1/2 ft. drop, now	$4.75
Reg. $6.50.
6 ft. wide, 7 1/2 ft. drop, now	$5.65
Reg. $7.75.
7 1/2 ft. wide, 7 1/2 ft. drop, now	$6.70
Reg. $9.25.
8 ft. wide, 7 1/2 ft. drop, now	$7.60
Reg. $10.50.
10 ft. wide, 7 1/2 ft. drop, now	$9.90
Reg. $13.75.

White Mountain Refrigerators

$25.00 Top Icers now	$17.50
$30.00 Top Icers now	$25.00
$37.50 Top Icers now	$28.50
$45.00 Side Icers now	$37.50
$47.50 Side Icers now	$36.50
$55.00 Side Icers now	$42.50

All $1.00 weekly at reduced prices.

Final Clearance on Screen Doors

$3.25 Doors now	$2.25
$4.25 Doors now	$2.85
$5.50 Doors now	$3.35
$6.95 Doors now	$4.65
24x38 Window Screens49c
24x41 Window Screens69c

Couch Hammocks

moving out fast. Some of the better numbers still left.

$27.50 Upholstered back model now	$23.50
$29.50 Upholstered back model now	$24.50
$32.50 Upholstered back model, now	$26.50
$40.00 Upholstered back model, now	$33.50

$1.00 weekly at these reduced prices. Silk Floor Hammock Pillows, each

Sale Prices on Credit Terms.

Even if you are not quite ready for the goods you can benefit by the sale prices. For we will arrange to hold the goods in storage until you are ready for them and you have a full year to pay for them.

G. E. Keith Furniture Co., Inc.

Cor. Main and School Sts., South Manchester

Folding Camp Chairs
98c

Lawn Benches
$1.98

PLAYGROUND NOTES

The finals in the West Side girls' tennis tournament will be played off with Marion Moran opposing the winner of the Mary Tierney Eleanor Runde match. Miss Modan defeated Mary Donnelly yesterday in straight sets, 6-2, 6-2, 6-2. The winner of the finals will meet the finalist of the East Side girls for the town championship.

The West Side girls' volleyball defeated the East Side girls yesterday by 15-5, 15-9, 6-15. The lineup of West Side: Eleanor Tierney, Alice Modan, Elizabeth Lithwinski, Doris Turkington, Edith Johnson, Mary Donnelly, Marion Modan; East Side, Katherine Giblin, Elizabeth Washiewicz, Leo Giglio, Grace Gryk, Leo Gryk, Esther Carlin, Eleanor Swanson.

Following the results in the horseshoe pitching tournament at the East Side playgrounds this morning:

The standings:
Team Won Lost
Kris, Johnson

THIS CAUSED THE WAR.
New York.—At last the responsibility for the world war has been placed. Dr. George D. Stewart, President of the American College of Surgeons, blames cancer. Had not cancer killed Frederick II of Prussia, who espoused democratic principles, the great conflict probably never would have started, he says.

CLEAN WITH CAMERA
London.—Before Buckingham Palace is given a thorough house-cleaning, photographs are taken of the contents of every room. This is the only way that every ornament and piece of china may be put back into exactly their proper places, as the Queen has learned to keep them.

A French woman has a system by which totally illiterate persons have been taught to read and write in ten lessons of two hours each. Her plan has been investigated by the French ministry.

Phone your classified "ad"

Manchester Evening Herald

PUBLISHED BY THE HERALD PRINTING CO. Founded by Elwood W. Ely Oct. 1, 1851

Every Evening Except Sundays and Holidays. Entered at the Post Office at Manchester as Second Class Matter. SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Mail six dollars a year, six cents a month for shorter periods.

SPECIAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVE: Hamilton De Lassar, Inc. 235 Madison Avenue, New York and 612 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 3, 1927

THUNDERCLAP

Calvin Coolidge, man of silence and reserve, exponent of the matter-of-fact, to whom theatricalism is as foreign as clove hoofs to an angel, springs upon the people of the United States the most dramatic political sensation since the Bull Moose bolt in 1912.

"I do not choose to run for President in nineteen-twenty-eight."

In these dozen words does Mr. Coolidge upset the whole mass of political prearrangements in the calendar of uncertainty and speculation. There were probably not six persons in the United States who were not taken utterly by surprise by the announcement that the President made at Rapid City yesterday.

He could not, had he been the most consummate sensation seeker alive, picked a moment when the country was less on its guard against a thunderbolt of this character.

That the President, after the completion of his Black Hills vacation and after thorough digestion of his experiences with the people of the west, might presently give some intimation as to his attitude toward a renomination, was very generally regarded as a likelihood. But that such a declaration as this one was even remotely liable to be made by him prior to his return to Washington—if at all—was not dreamed of.

The very fact that the announcement was made in the way it was, of the President's own initiative and out of a clear sky, apparently apropos of nothing whatever, makes the irrevocability of it seem beyond question. Obviously it is the result of an absolute, final determination. The citizen is left with the conviction that there will be no possibility of a compromise—of the President's eventually accepting the nomination if it is pressed upon him by unanimous action of the Republican convention. There is a certain fixity about Coolidge's decisions that dissipates such a hope, even as it is forming.

The Herald has been a "Coolidge newspaper" from the hours of his succession to the Presidency—and still is. It believes in and admires him. It regards him as an admirable President and would gladly advocate his re-election if he were to make the race. But it does not share in any degree the unflattering intimations expressed by some Republican politicians that the announcement of yesterday does not mean anything.

It is utterly out of keeping with the practices and the mental and moral habits of Calvin Coolidge to say "I do not choose to run for President in 1928" if he had not made up his mind to retire from the office at the end of his present term.

Mr. Coolidge is a Vermonter. He has never entirely outgrown certain New Englandish mannerisms of expression. To the people of some parts of the country there may seem a trace of ambiguity in the sentence he employs. To the New Englander there should be none. When a Vermonter says "I do not choose" to do a certain thing, that means that he has very definitely chosen not to do it—that he has arrived at a decision after consideration; that his mind is made up.

If there are Republican leaders who fancy that the Coolidge announcement does not bear the impress of finality it is because they do not know their President.

Calvin Coolidge would have been the choice of the Republican party as its candidate in 1928 beyond reasonable doubt. It is not a contest for that nomination, it is the nomination itself, that he is passing up. And almost as certainly he is passing up four more years in the Presidency.

It would be vain to say that the President's determination does not create complications for the Republican party to face. Not that the party lacks Presidential material. There never was a time when there was within its fold a greater number of available statesmen of the first grade from whom to choose; the trouble, indeed is in an embarrassment of riches.

Hoover, Lowden, Dawes, Longworth—half a dozen others. The campaign of 1928 begins today.

PERHAPS MORE DELAY

While it has been universally assumed that the decision of Governor Fuller of Massachusetts in the Sacco-Vanzetti case, promised for tonight, would definitely determine the issue of the affair so far as the fate of the condemned men is concerned, there are indications that the long-drawn out controversy may yet be indefinitely prolonged. Boston is rife with rumor that, after all, there may be another reprieve and that the governor, instead of making final disposition of the matter, may recommend that the Massachusetts Legislature pass an act enabling the state supreme court to review the evidence in appealed cases instead of confining itself to interpretations of questions of law, as at present. Such an enactment would, naturally, be followed by a complete review of the Sacco-Vanzetti trial before the appellate court, and might easily involve a delay of another year in the final settlement of the case.

That such a change in the Massachusetts law ought to be made, the present case amply demonstrates. Never was there a worse judicial system than that in the Bay State, where at present it is impossible to get an appealed case actually out of the hands of the judge who tried it in the first place. To ask any jurist to reverse his own findings is, prima facie, sheer farce. If the Sacco-Vanzetti agitation should succeed in bringing about the proposed reform in Massachusetts the two men would not have lived in vain, even if they should wind up in the electric chair.

Another interesting matter in this connection is the declaration of Rev. Roland Sawyer of Ware, representative in the Bay State legislature, that he intends to bring impeachment proceedings against Judge Thayer, who presided at the Sacco-Vanzetti trial, should that individual fail to refute the charges of prejudice and misconduct that have been brought against him. If Judge Thayer did not, as a matter of fact, conduct that trial in a rigid determination to convict the accused men, regardless of their actual guilt or innocence, he ought to welcome such action on the part of the Ware minister. If he had that been testified to concerning his hysterical, panic ridden hatred of the prisoners, merely because they were reds, is true, then he is utterly unfit to be the judge of a justice court, to say nothing of an important trial tribunal.

OIL AND WATER

Dr. Charles A. Beard, economist, speaking before the Institute of Politics at Williamstown, yesterday, forecast a new confederation, economic and political, between the states of the South and West.

Dr. Beard revives a political specter that has lain in the back of many a man's mind for a long, long time. It has always seemed anomalous that politically the country should be largely divided along lines that apparently have nothing on earth to do with economic cleavage. The industrial East and the agricultural West joined in political union against the agricultural South—that, "3 large, has been the basis of the lineup of the United States for two generations. Such divergences as there have been from it, at times, have been, even if sufficient to determine Presidential elections, only comparatively slight.

Yet Dr. Beard, in his forecast of a political combination of the East and South seems to have overlooked a third element in the proposition. Besides the economic and strictly political aspects of the situation there is another—the social side.

Economically the South and the West may have much in common. Socially they are as far apart as the poles. It is an inherent and vital principle of the civilization of the West that one man is as good as another provided that he demonstrates as an honest person and a good citizen. It is an inherent and vital principle of the civilization of the South that no man is any good unless he belongs not only to a specified race but to a specified class. The West despises the pretensions of the ruling class of Southerners. The South despises the inherent democracy of the West.

There may, indeed, be political union between the South and the West some day. But it will come only after one or the other has abandoned certain conceptions which are as the blood in its veins. It will not be tomorrow.

NEW ENFORCER

The prohibition or anti-prohibition partisan can read many things into the salutatory of Seymour Lowman, assistant secretary of the treasury in charge of prohibition enforcement. Some of them Mr. Lowman may not have meant at all. "I am looking," says Mr. Lowman, "for honest, efficient enforcement of the prohibition law. I the same as other United States laws are enforced."

The dry can find much ground for satisfaction in this. He thinks of the laws against counterfeiting, against robbing the mails, etc., offenders against which are hunted down at all cost and whatever pains. But he might also think of the basic law of the constitution which provides for equal rights to black and white alike—which is not enforced at all.

"Our greatest job," says Mr. Lowman again, "is to hold down the activities of the radical wets and the radical dries."

At this the wet is likely to wave his arms and cheer, seeing in it a service of notice on the Anti-Saloon League to keep its hands off prohibition enforcement. But it might be well for the wet to not overlook the fact that Mr. Lowman desires to hold down the law violator as well as the would-be law dictator.

The most we can make out of the Lowman statement is that it is non-committal. Evidently he has profited by the example of officials who have promised too much and failed to make good on their promises.

Weighing one circumstance with another it is rather to be expected that matters will go on pretty much in the same old way, only growing gradually worse, as they have done ever since 1920. Whatever Mr. Lowman's intentions or ability he cannot perform the impossible. And even a reasonable enforcement of the Volstead law has long ago been shown to be beyond possibility.

My fairest child, I have no song to give you; No lark could pipe to stars so dull and gray; Yet, ere we part, one lesson I can leave you.

Be good, sweet maid, and let who will be clever; Do noble things, not dream them, all day long; And so make life, death, and that wait forever. One grand sweet song. —Charles Kingsley: A Farewell.

A THOUGHT

A soft answer turneth away wrath; But grievous words stir up anger. —Proverbs xv: 1.

TEST ANSWERS

- Below are answers to the "Now You Ask One" questions on the comics page: 1—Cossacks are horsemen from the steppes of Russia. 2—The letter occurring most frequently in the English language is "e." 3—Mt. Vesuvius is a volcano of Italy. 4—Robert Burns was a Scotch poet. 5—The tibia is a bone in the lower leg. 6—The pointed arch is a distinguishing feature of Gothic architecture. 7—Miles Standish asked John Alden to do his wooling for him. 8—The Congo River empties into the Atlantic Ocean. 9—Little Eva was a character in "Uncle Tom's Cabin." 10—The "Just So Stories" were written by Rudyard Kipling.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER

Washington.—The presidency of Nicaragua, which has so much concern and expense in the last year may next be voted to none other than General Jose M. Moncada, who threw up the sponge as commander of the Liberal army when he was threatened with the power of the United States marines.

Moncada became a national hero when he crossed the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific, bringing his army through the jungle, explained Morales, who has just returned to a Washington university to complete graduate studies. "His soldiers stood in water up to their waists and formed a human bridge for rifles and munitions kept dry by passing them from one set of raised arms to another. He had to make several speeches a day to keep up the spirits of these men."

Moncada's men were on hand to capture them en route—that was the way Moncada kept armed. "Moncada preferred to starve the enemy into submission rather than inflict great loss of life. But the marines took up a strategic position between Boca and the capital, so that Moncada could not seize the capital as he planned to do."

When Moncada, having given up the fight, came into the conservative stronghold of Granada—Catholic city—the conservative newspapers admitted and applauded the fact that he received the greatest reception Granada ever gave a human being.

"If we were to have a free election today, Moncada could not help but win," says Carasa-Morales. "Conditions may change in the next year, but the marines are more likely to keep the country in a status quo."

TRY AND DO IT!

"I want you to sing for me in New York," said the American agent. "What are your terms?" The great tenor named his fees for a series of fifty concerts, a colossal sum. The agent gasped. "But that is three times what we pay our president!" he exclaimed. "Well, why don't you get your president to sing for you?" was the reply.—Tit-Bits.

MAGICIAN'S HAT

St. Paul.—One ton of corn cobs, recently distilled at the University of Minnesota, produced 5,843 feet of combustible gas, 76.2 pounds of acetic acid, 24 pounds of wood alcohol, 140 pounds of wood tar and 622 pounds of charcoal.

NEW YORK

New York, Aug. 3.—Random notes from an afternoon's ramble about Manhattan: "Daddy" Brown in a new maroon colored Rolls with silver trimmings and drawn curtains. "But no sign of another Cinderella."

A woman newspaper vendor shouting her extras on a Broadway corner. "And garbed in widow's weeds. . . . Thousands attracted by her symbol of mourning stop to buy papers. . . . Few take change. . . . They are all sympathetic. . . . They tell of another woman who went from district to district dressed in black and, over a period of a year. She made a neat sum. . . ."

A crowd of young collegians hanging around "jazz-band corner" on Broadway waiting to catch the agencies that hire musicians for summer resorts. . . . Come east, young man, if you can play the saxophone! . . . But be sure you own a "sax" and be more sure that you can play it well. . . . The town is overflowing with second rates in every line, and they're invariably the people who think they are good. . . . The good ones don't have time to wait for their hair to be cut. . . . That would seem to finish it. . . . Long hair now has a good chance to come back. . . . Hair dressers can shout until they're hoarse and I'll give little heed. . . . But Greenwich Village has been too sure an oracle of coming events to sneeze lightly. . . . Bobbed hair, cigarettes, carmed finger nails, smock suits. . . . They all started in the Village and spread across the land. . . ."

Two east side youngsters learning vaudeville acrobatics on a roof top. . . . And using an old portable radio set. . . . Why does anyone try to be an acrobat? . . . And where do they come from? . . . It seems to me audiences always walk out on them when they close a show, or come late when they open it. . . . They've years of effort and training go to make up their dexterous feats. . . . Along the side streets off Broadway I am always running across signs reading "school for acrobats." . . . They tell me most of them now teach acrobatic dancing instead. . . ."

Cocktail shakers in a 5 and 10 cent store window. . . . 10 cents for the bottom part, 10 cents for the top. . . . And labeled "lemonade shakers." . . . But who in New York drinks lemonade? . . ."

They tell me that Roger Wolfe Kahn, Banker Otto's little boy who runs jazz bands, has turned his affections to flying. . . . While over in Europe this summer he got the bug and went flying everywhere. . . . Now he has an airplane in the back yard of his millionaire father's estate. . . . Years ago, finding the minds of the Kahn youngsters turning to automobiles, a speedway was built on the estate and the youngsters were given an imported speed car. . . . They would go about the course at 100 miles an hour or more. . . . Which kept them from doing the same thing on the open road and getting their necks broken. . . ."

JUST ISN'T DONE.

"Baby's getting on wonderfully. I'm sure she'll be able to walk soon." "Do you think it worth the trouble of teaching her? Hardly anybody walks nowadays." —Everybody's Weekly.

MINTS TO COIN $100,000,000 IN GOLD PIECES

Treasury Orders Coinage to Add to Reserve For New Certificates.

Denver.—America's gold reserve, approximately $4,500,000,000, will be added to when United States mints in Denver, Philadelphia and San Francisco begin to coin an additional $100,000,000 in the yellow metal in a few days.

The new coinage, according to Robert J. Grant, mint director here, will be all in $20 gold pieces, and has been ordered by the treasury department as a reserve for $300,000,000 in gold certificates that Uncle Sam will shortly issue.

Grant revealed the fact that of all the "small change" coins made in the United States, 95 per cent are used west of Chicago, declaring that the Denver mint alone sends out shipments in carload lots.

Grant said that one of the perpetual puzzles to mint directors was the disposition of millions of pennies coined. "No one seems to know what becomes of all the pennies," Grant said, "but the mints keep busy coining them."

NEITHER GOT HER MAN.

Lemberg.—Strolling along one afternoon, Lena Bonjew and Helen Jorawski acknowledged the greeting of a mutual boyfriend, later quarreled over which one his greeting was intended for. Next morning they fought a duel. Lena was wounded and permanently disfigured. Helen was spurned by the boyfriend because she was such a good shot.

WEARS 15,000 FLOWERS

London.—For 35 years Sir Walter Gilbey never has been seen without a mauve carnation in his buttonhole. His florist sends him a fresh flower every day wherever he is. The florist also says Sir Gilbey never has missed a day and probably has worn more than 15,000.

Laws Are Enacted

Covering Most Everything

these days but judging by the way some property owners neglect their buildings there ought to be a law compelling them to use a little paint on their buildings to protect them from the elements.

John I. Olson

Painting and Decorating Contractor. 699 Main St., Johnson Block South Manchester

Alterations and Repairs

DON'T put up with the inconvenience of unsatisfactory plumbing. A phone call will bring one of our expert men to your assistance. He will be able to render high efficiency repairs and alterations at moderate cost. "A Perfect Service"

CARL W. ANDERSON

Plumbing and Heating Contractor. 57 Bissell St. Tel. 1438

Thursday's Special For the Semi-Annual Sale

WINDSOR Side Chairs

to match arm chair sketched $7.50

Here is truly a remarkable value. These fine New England chairs are made of birch finished in a real Colonial red mahogany to match. Gov. Winthrop Desks and other fine pieces of Colonial furniture. They have six spindles in the back in addition to the fancy pierced splat. Regular $11.75. On sale Thursday morning. Remember, these are side chairs to match the arm chair sketched.

WATKINS BROTHERS

91 Center Street, Telephone 941

ANNOUNCEMENT

Emil Boulanga, former mechanic for Elmer Auto Co. for three years is back again ready to welcome all his old customers. The Elmer Auto Co. use only genuine Ford parts and we carry a complete stock at all times. All work is on a flat rate basis and we can tell you just what it will cost when you leave your car. All work guaranteed.

ELMER AUTO CO.

91 Center Street, Telephone 941

Another DAY for PLEASURE

Washday is just another day for pleasure when you own a Maytag. In one hour a Maytag does your washing—all garments washed clean without hand-rubbing. What a contrast to older ways of washing! Washday no longer is a day of toil. It becomes another day for pleasure.

Phone your Maytag dealer for a FREE Maytag trial next washday.

Test—try—compare the Maytag. No obligation. If it doesn't sell itself, don't keep it.

Deferred Payments You'll Never Miss

THE MAYTAG COMPANY, Newton, Iowa

Alfred A. Grezel

829 Main, South Manchester Phone 1525-2

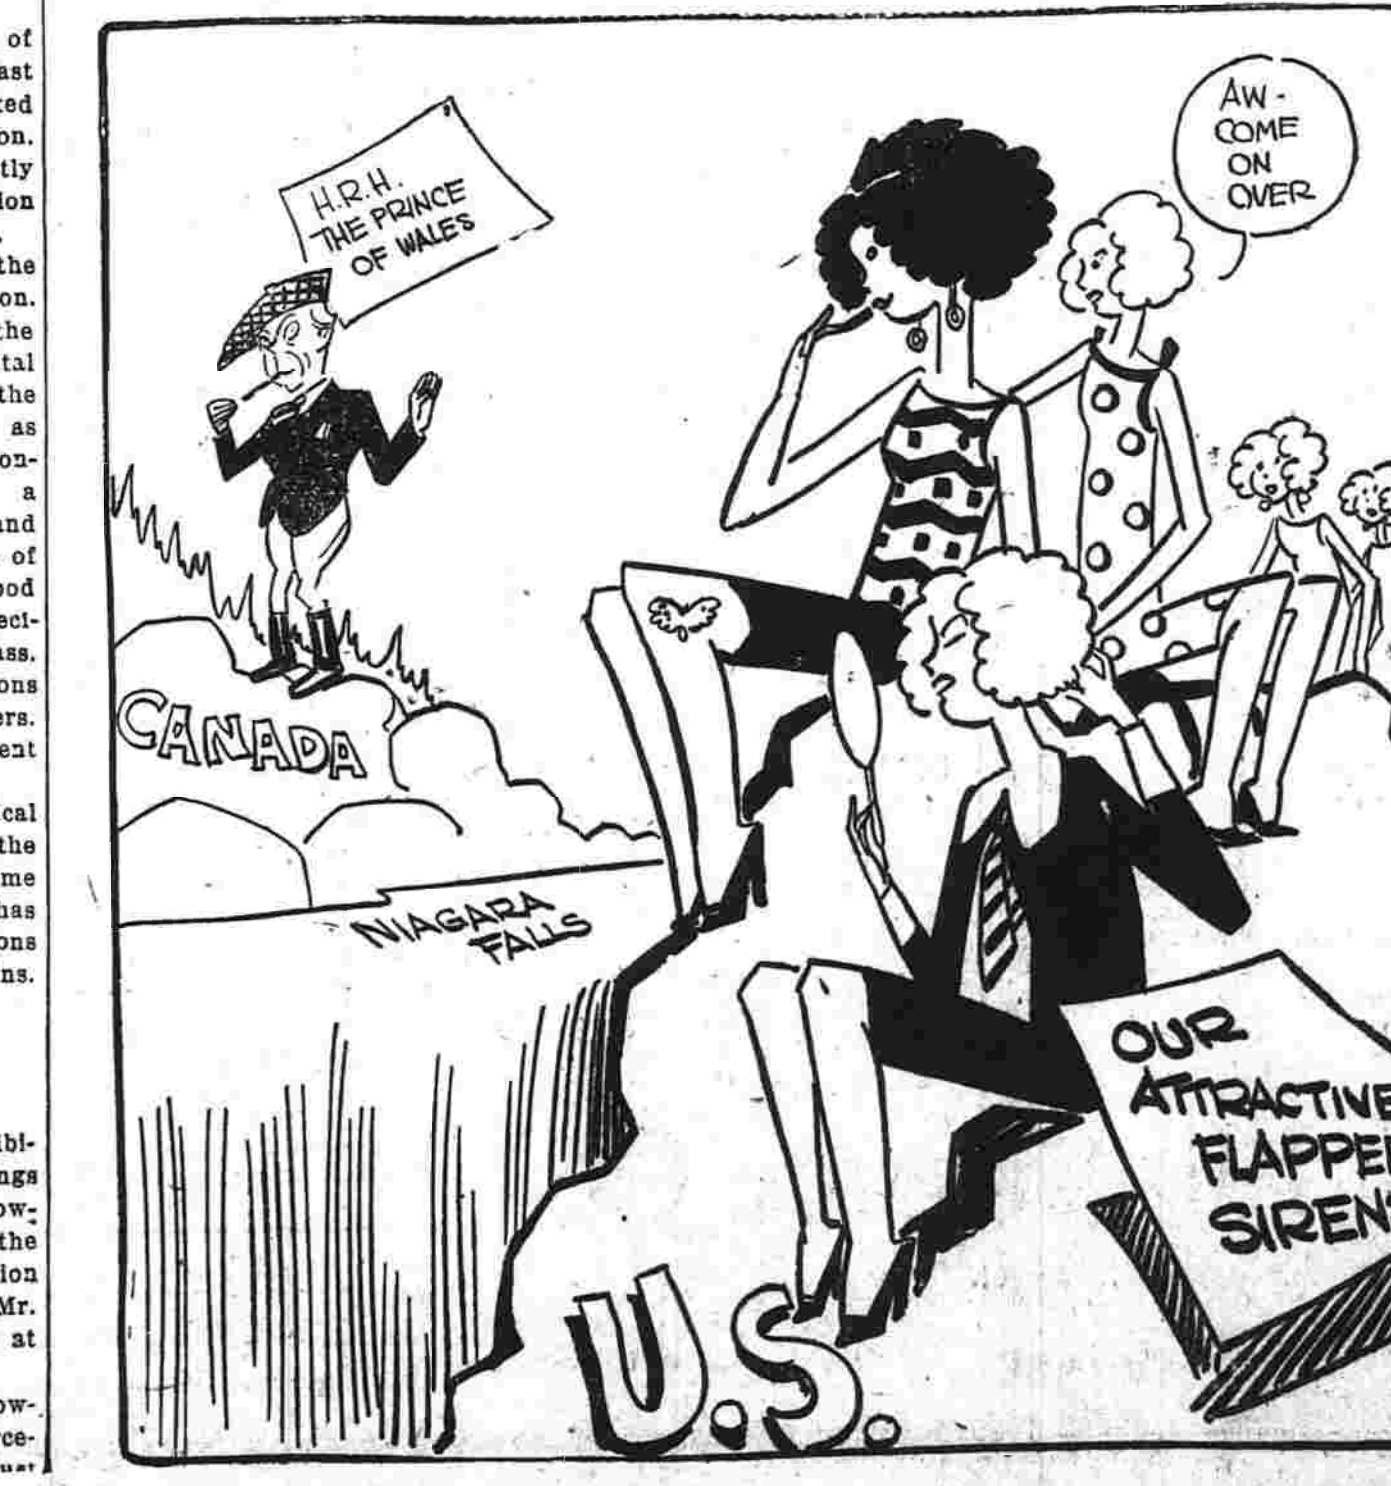

DOG DIES OF GRIEF

Butte, Wash.—After his master met death in a mine accident, a dog had reared from puppyhood refused to eat and cried almost continually for ten days. A veterinary was sent for to chloroform the dog, but it was dead when he arrived.

GET IN ON THIS

"That was an excellent story you told at dinner, Jim. Where did you hear it?" "From the postman. That's the joke of the month."—Life.

A Young Bachelor Who Is Taking No Chances

THE FLINT-BRUCE CO.

HARTFORD

THE FLINT-BRUCE CO.

HARTFORD

THE FLINT-BRUCE CO.

Now! Semi-Annual Sale of Furniture

Reductions of 15%-50% Many Items at HALF PRICE

Prices Tell the Story!

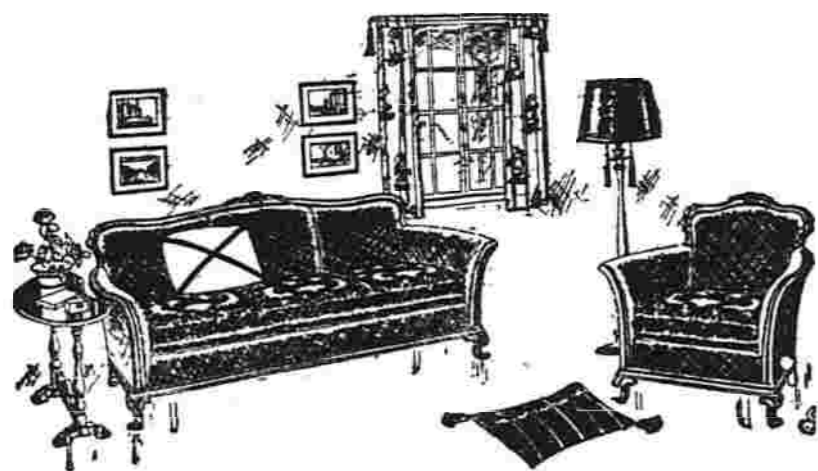

Complete Suites and Single Pieces throughout the store are subject to a reduction of 15%-50% Off

Many Suites and Single Pieces, of which there is floor sample only, or very limited stock, now marked for clearance at Half Prices!

Discontinued Suites and Single Pieces, and Floor Samples slightly shopworn, now marked at less than half price.

Below Cost!

$335, 2-Pc. Solid Mahogany Frame Suites

248/905½. A 2-piece Suite of unusual refinement and beauty with handsomely carved frames of Solid Mahogany. The all-over covering is of genuine Chase Mohair with cushions reversing in rich linen Frieze. A rare saving is offered at the low sale price of $269

Many Coxwell and Occasional Chairs can be selected to go with this Suite—all reduced!

Months have been spent in planning this huge event. Markets have been searched far and wide for the newest, the best, the most desirable in fine quality Furniture. Manufacturers have cooperated with special reductions. Entire surplus stocks have been purchased outright at a fraction of their regular worth. And through Flint-Bruce's association with a chain of 14 progressive stores, thousands of dollars have been saved their customers by this tremendous buying power.

And now they are here—carload after carload of these beautiful Furnishings—crowding 6 immense floors, numbering thousands of pieces, and offering savings in price so sensational as to be without parallel in Flint-Bruce's 36 years of business. Flint-Bruce hold but two general sales a year and the reductions are genuine. For the fall Home-furnisher and Bride these vast displays present an unsurpassed opportunity to secure the very best in Fine Furniture at record-breaking low prices. You are urged to make selection early!

The Greatest Stock of Fine Furniture In Our History!

$500,000 Worth of Complete Homefurnishings
164 Styles of Fine Bedroom Suites
145 Styles of Quality Dining Suites
125 Styles of Rich Living Room Suites

Jacquard Velour Bed Davenports

248/1707. Luxuriously comfortable Bed Davenport fitted with loose cushions and covered in Jacquard Velour or Baker, fast color, cut Velour. Reduced from $110 $88

Arm and Wing Chairs to match, also reduced. Davenport in mohair (velour back) reduced from $145 to $119.75.

$343, 3-Pc. Genuine Chase Mohair Living Room Suites

248/750. Distinctively designed and luxuriously comfortable, this handsome grouping represents the very utmost in value in fine quality Living Room Suites. The pieces are massive, yet splendidly proportioned with a rich all-over covering of genuine Chase Angora Mohair. The deep, 22½-in., spring-filled cushions are reversible in imported linen Frieze. Note the unusual length of the roomy davenport—82-in. over all. Pieces may be purchased separately at a proportionate cost.

$275

9-Pc. Figured Walnut Dining Suites

400/14. At the sale price of $199, this handsome Suite is an exceptional bargain. The 9 artistically designed pieces are made of richly figured Walnut and Gumwood, with contrasting overlays of Maple. Mahogany lined drawers and heavy under construction are features. 66-in. Buffet. Reduced from $275..... $199

10 pieces, including Server reduced from $295 to $235

$35 Solid Mah. Tables

Flint-Bruce urge you to compare this with any Table priced at $35. Made of solid mahogany with attractively turned legs. Top 34x48 in. With drawer $22.50

Gov. Winthrop Desks

220/0203. An extraordinary value! Made of mahogany and gum, and finished in Colonial red or brown mahogany. Automatic lid supports. 34 inches wide $52.50

$34 Coxwell Chairs

248/321. From the largest manufacturer of upholstered Furniture in the world—priced to save you nearly $10! Covered in Jacquard Velour or Baker Velour $24.75

$15 Arm Chairs

22/1540/5. Windsor Arm Chair, staunchly made of Birch, finished mahogany. Extra high back. Special turnings $7.95

$8.50 Windsor Chair

22/1548. New England style Windsor Chair of Birch, finished mahogany. Saddle seat. Braced back. Heavy, quaintly turned legs $5

$350 Large 4-Piece Bedroom Suites

56/2127. Artistic overlays of Myrtle wood, well emphasize the beauty of these 4 large pieces. Made of Walnut and Gum and pleasingly shaped they are priced to allow a most attractive saving. Expert cabinet work throughout. 46-inch Dresser with 36x30-inch plate included. $275

$675 Solid Walnut 10-Pc. Dining Suites

388/249½. In this big 10-pc. Suite will be found unusual beauty and dignity of design. And even at the low regular price of $675 you still save $180! It is made of solid Walnut with fronts and panels veneered and overlaid in artistically figured Walnut and Maple. Mohair upholstered back Chairs, the Console Server and 72-in. Buffet are notable features. $495

$35 4-Drawer Chests

$24.75

34/200. Only this great sale makes possible such a value! Trimly made of mahogany and gumwood, richly finished. 38 inches wide.

Mirror to match, 20x24 inches, of French plate glass, $8.

Final Reduction On All Summer Furniture!

Hammocks, Porch and Lawn Furniture, Refrigerators, Summer Rugs, are now subject to final clearance reductions. Priced at cost, near cost and half price, it will be well worth your while to buy now for next year.

Values Such As These Make This Hartford's Greatest Furniture Event!

248/650. 3-Piece Living Room Suites, all-over cover of Jacquard Velour. Reversible cushions. $119.75

309/. 3-Piece Combination Mohair Suits. Tapestry reverse cushions. Reduced from $139.50

Over 200 Sample Floor and Bridge Lamps. All styles, finishes, shades. Reduced 25%-50%.

$35 Mahogany and Gum

4-Poster Beds

$25.75

A quaint and charming design, 4-post Bed, made of mahogany and gum or walnut and gum. Cone tops, 53-inch head posts. Twin and full sizes.

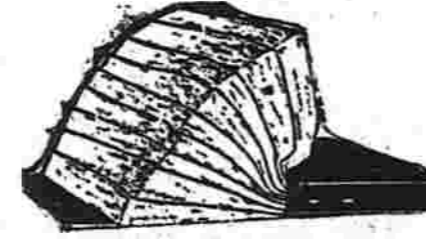

Colonial Pieces For Bedroom—Living Room at Rare Savings!

34/710. $35 Mahogany and Gum Dresser, 38 inches wide. Mirror 26x22 inches $24.75

324/75. Mahogany and Gum 4-Pc. Bed. Full foot, 46-inch head. Twin and full sizes .. $17.95

$85 Mahogany and Gum Salem Chest, beautifully finished $59

$17.50 Felt Mattress

$13.75

At $13.75 these fine Layer Felt Mattresses represent an attractive price saving. They are hand built of white felted cotton, made layer upon layer for resiliency and comfort. Yarn dyed woven tick. Roll edges.

$12.75 Roll Edge Cotton Mattresses. Trimly tailored cover of neat art $7.50

$240 Mah. and Gum 4-Pc. Bedroom Suites

64/60. Here are 4 large pieces of sturdy construction, open grain finish, marked at a sensational saving in price! Made of mahogany and gum. Trimly styled and detailed. 50-inch Dresser, 38-inch Chest, 6-drawer Vanity, bow-end Bed. $139

All "Crawford" Ranges 15% off

Every "Crawford" Range has been reduced 15% for cash, 30 days, or 10% and a year to pay. So that now you may buy this famous make, in any style you prefer, at savings little short of sensational.

Buy On the Budget Plan

The Flint - Bruce Budget Plan of buying is open to all even during this sale. No red tape, no signing of notes. But rather a practical, dignified method which permits your paying-out-of-income as convenient.

The Flint-Bruce Co.

Selling Good Furniture for 36 Years
 103 Asylum St. Hartford 150 Trumbull St.

Attractive Savings On Extra Quality RUGS

$47.50 Seamless Axminster (9x12 feet).....	$34.50
$42.50 Seamless Axminster (8-3x10-6).....	$32.50
$55.00 Seamless Axminster (9x12 feet).....	$39.50
$50.00 Seamless Axminster (8-3x10-6).....	$37.00
$85.00 Beauvais Axminster (9x12 feet).....	$46.75
$60.00 Beauvais Axminster (8-3x10-6).....	$43.50

"Biggest" Feature Of Christy Circus

The Christy circus which will be here next Monday...

every word she utters, and what gives a seeming air of plausibility...

of village life, and there is everything that goes with a well regulated...

It would seem that after taking first place among all the circuses...

PLAN BETTER PROGRAMS FOR WILLIMANTIC CAMP

Speakers and Entertainment Sure to Excel Efforts During Previous Years.

Willimantic Campground is annually the mecca for many residents of Manchester and vicinity... of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society are in charge, and their speaker is Miss Althea M. Todd...

WAPPING

Mechlenberg on "War Stricken Europe and the Way Out." Mr. Hernandez, the Male Quartette and Chorus.

WAPPING

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur C. Hills and family, Mrs. George Hills and son...

RAILROAD ENGINEERS UNION NOW MANNED BY YOUNG OFFICERS

Cleveland.—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, one of the richest and most powerful labor unions...

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given to all legal voters of the Fifth School District...

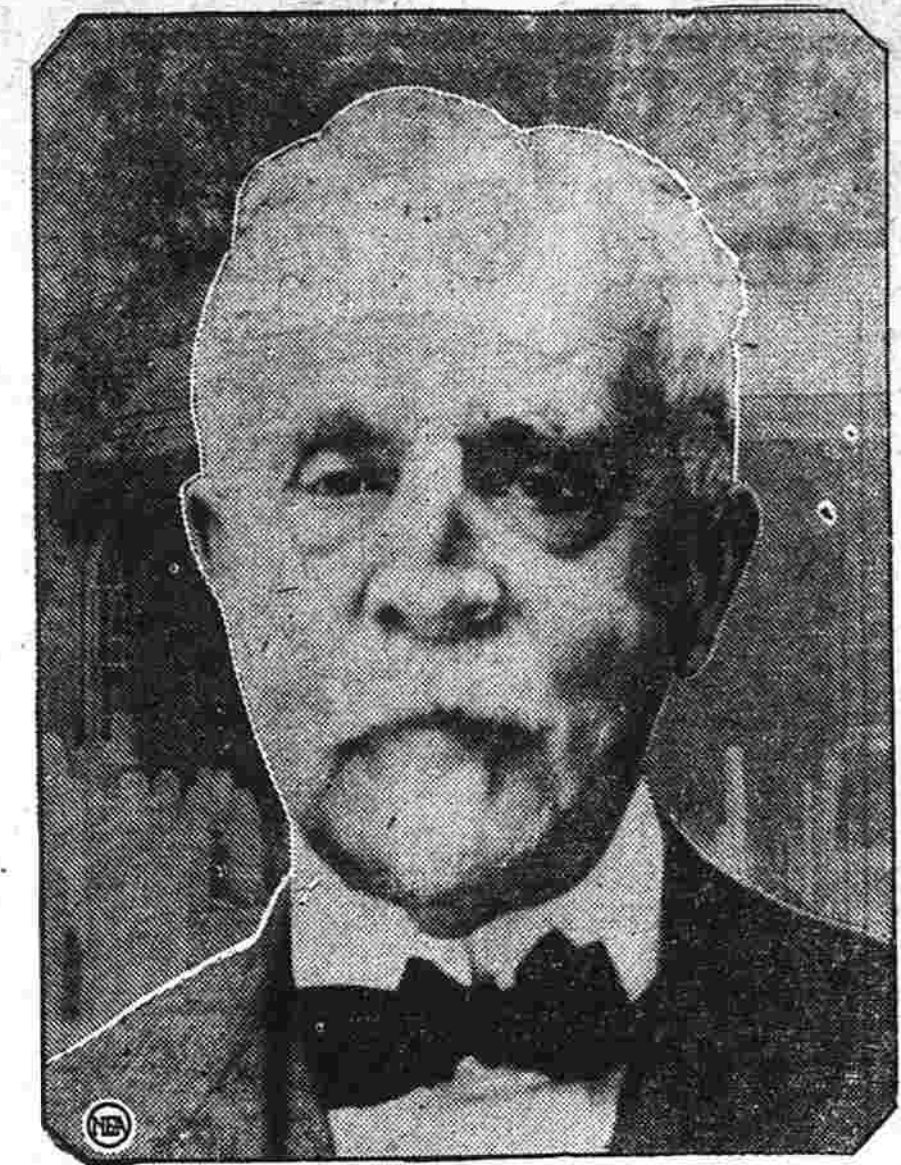

NORTH CAROLINA FACES OIL RUSH

Raleigh, N. C.—Clinton, the capital of Sampson County, overnight has become the scene of North Carolina's newest oil rush.

OLD WOUNDS KILL

Hartlepool, Eng.—When German aviators "bombed" this city 12 years ago, Mrs. Sarah Stringer was one of the casualties...

John D. Rockefeller Ideal Church-Goer

Dr. Allen... flattered but not influenced when John D. comes to his church.

Tarrytown, N. Y.—Dr. John Knox Allen has sufficient drawing power as a preacher to draw the world's richest man as one of his listeners.

Rockefeller. His hair, though white, is plentiful and his shoulders are straight and square.

NO POLAS IN ENGLAND

London.—England never has produced a Pola Negri or a Lya De Putti—and probably never will.

NOTICE!

I have had two of my songs arranged by a New York publishing house. One of the songs entitled "God Bless the Old Fashioned Mother" is priced at thirty cents and the other, "We're Out to Root for Smith" is priced at twenty-five cents.

FOR SALE

2 Modern Houses At Hollywood Inquire of G. SCHREIBER & SON 285 West Center Street, Phone 1555-3

GILEAD

Rev. J. W. Deeter gave an interesting talk Sunday morning on the Religion of Law, Religion of Expediency and Religion of Love.

The Tri-County Christian Endeavor meeting was held in Hebron Sunday evening and was in the hands of the Rev. W. H. Wainwright, delegate to the Cleveland Convention.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hutchinson and children of Porter street, South Manchester, attended the local church service Sunday morning and spent the afternoon with relatives.

Miss Anna Buehl and a friend, Miss Perry of Hartford are spending this week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Buell.

At the annual meeting of the Gilead Hall Association held Monday evening the following were elected as directors for the ensuing year: Mrs. Mary Z. Foote, Arrow, Big Knife, Sharp Knife and Military Star of the Southwest.

McGovern Granite Co. CEMETERY MEMORIALS

Represented by C. W. HARTENSTEIN 149 Summit St. Telephone 1621

THE JOHNSON ELECTRIC CO.

Solicits Your Electrical Business—Both Wiring and Fixtures. First Class Work. Estimates Cheerfully Furnished.

A Fine Line of Fixtures. 29 Clinton St. Phone 657-4

Advertisement for Dodge Brothers car, featuring 'The Fastest Four in America' slogan and a large '$875' price tag.

Advertisement for Dodge Brothers car, titled 'A New Car at a Lower Price' and 'The fastest Four in America'.

FEATHERWEIGHT CROWN AWAITS WINNER OF BOUT ON SEPT. 7

Red Chapman and Tony Cannoneri to Battle For Title On That Date In New York.

New York, Aug. 3.—A new featherweight champion will be crowned on the night of September 7 in Ebbets Field when Red Chapman, of Boston, and Tony Cannoneri, of New York, meet over the fifteen round route to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation last year of Louis "Kid" Kaplan.

This match will mark the end of a long trail for Chapman—one that has been hedged by many disappointments. He was twice matched with Kaplan, who resigned the title finally through inability to make the weight.

Chapman fits all requirements. He is one of the best light featherweights in the ring today and only recently hooked up twice in Chicago for the bantamweight title.

Can Make Weight Cannoneri can still make 118 pounds next winter over the 15-round route in New York. Meanwhile he is getting heavier and has turned his attention to the featherweights. His natural fighting is about 121 pounds.

If Cannoneri defeats Chapman he will confine his boxing to the featherweight class unless he can get another crack at Taylor.

Sammy Goldman, his manager, declares Tony is willing to make 118 pounds for a title scrap.

TODAY IN FISTIANA

August 3rd, 1912 ATTEL vs. MURPHY Fifteen years ago today, Abe Attel, former featherweight champion and Tommy Murphy of New York fought their memorable twenty round draw at San Francisco, Calif. It was their second meeting in the year following Attel's fight with Johnny Kubane in which he won the title. Attel was making a valiant effort to come back.

Calls Welsh's Case A Most Pitiful One

Farrell Describes His Life; Friends Deserted Him In Time of Need.

New York, Aug. 3. (United Press)—Alone, deserted by his friends, broken hearted and financially flat, Freddy Welch, one time light weight champion of the world, died recently in a side-street New York hotel.

The doctor said death was caused by heart trouble. "Heart trouble," said the wife from whom he had been separated, "yes, heart trouble, a broken heart."

The case of Freddy Welch was just another one of those with which the history of sporting New York is crowded. You're a good fellow when you have it.

Freddy Welch was a good fellow when he had it. He was not a coward. He was of a serious turn of mind and saved much of his money but he always had a ten or a twenty for a needy hand.

He had saved $200,000 up to the time that he lost the championship to Benny Leonard. With a part of the money he bought 162 acres of valuable land in Summit, N. J. and opened a health farm. He had taken up physical culture before he turned to professional boxing and his health farm became a success.

Then came the war. Although he was a British subject, Welch enlisted in the United States army and because of his technical training was assigned to the medical corps and rose to the rank of captain.

It was difficult to get his business back because competition had become much stronger and he finally was forced to place heavy mortgages on his property. His business failed to pick up and he had to call on wealthy friends for assistance.

They promised help but when the time came they faded and his farm had to be sold.

He was left broke and had to look for work. He couldn't find it in his own line and he knew no other line.

"Everybody left him flat, his wife said. 'Way they wouldn't even give him a complimentary ticket to a fight.'"

Welch was a sensitive sort of a fellow and proud, too. He didn't want to make of himself an object of charity and when his wife broke his heart, he was given to drinking.

"How's things, Freddy?" he asked. "Might be worse," he replied with a wistful sort of a smile.

"Say," he then went on, "there are some big fights coming on this summer. Don't you suppose you could get me a job doing some experting? I see a lot of the fellows are doing it. I need money but I want to work for it."

When we found an experting assignment for him, we called on him and the next thing we heard he was dead.

He had a game heart in the ring and a game heart in business but it could not stand up under the punishment of ingratitude and the painful lesson that when you have it, it's not it you're not a good fellow.

American League

Table with columns for Philadelphia Athletics and Chicago White Sox, listing players and statistics.

"They Couldn't Wait"

La Vern Dilweg and Bride

They just couldn't wait—that is the reason given by Eleanor Coleman, member of the 1924 American Olympic swimming team, and La Vern Dilweg, athletic editor of a Milwaukee newspaper, and La Vern Dilweg, Marquette's All-American end, as explanation of their recent elopement. This photograph was taken when Dilweg was graduated from the Marquette law school a few weeks ago.

National League

Table with columns for St. Louis Cardinals and Cincinnati Reds, listing players and statistics.

EVANS CALLS JOHNSON BEST PITCHER HE HAS EVER SEEN

Johnson's Pitching Record

Table showing Johnson's pitching record with columns for Year, Club, League, G, IP, W, L, etc.

Johnson's Pitching Record

Table showing Johnson's pitching record with columns for Year, Club, League, G, IP, W, L, etc.

Johnson's Pitching Record

Table showing Johnson's pitching record with columns for Year, Club, League, G, IP, W, L, etc.

Johnson's Pitching Record

Table showing Johnson's pitching record with columns for Year, Club, League, G, IP, W, L, etc.

PHILLY TEAM EVEN AGAINST HARTFORD

Win Two and Lose Two on 'Drome Boxing Card; Many Local Fans Present.

About 3,000 fight fans, among them some 500 from Manchester, witnessed a well balanced card at the East Hartford Velodrome last evening under the auspices of the Massachusetts club.

A four man team from Philadelphia broke even in the bouts by winning two and losing two but it was noticed that the Hartford opponents were all second string men.

Bill Taylor, Ray Hall, Joe Bard and others in that class were missing and the fans did not hesitate to tell the officials that they knew it.

Joe Champ and Paul Terza dropped decisions because they were outboxed.

Kromoac, the Unionville sensation, did not show up for the fight because he was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

PHILLY TEAM EVEN AGAINST HARTFORD

Win Two and Lose Two on 'Drome Boxing Card; Many Local Fans Present.

About 3,000 fight fans, among them some 500 from Manchester, witnessed a well balanced card at the East Hartford Velodrome last evening under the auspices of the Massachusetts club.

A four man team from Philadelphia broke even in the bouts by winning two and losing two but it was noticed that the Hartford opponents were all second string men.

Bill Taylor, Ray Hall, Joe Bard and others in that class were missing and the fans did not hesitate to tell the officials that they knew it.

Joe Champ and Paul Terza dropped decisions because they were outboxed.

Kromoac, the Unionville sensation, did not show up for the fight because he was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

PHILLY TEAM EVEN AGAINST HARTFORD

Win Two and Lose Two on 'Drome Boxing Card; Many Local Fans Present.

About 3,000 fight fans, among them some 500 from Manchester, witnessed a well balanced card at the East Hartford Velodrome last evening under the auspices of the Massachusetts club.

A four man team from Philadelphia broke even in the bouts by winning two and losing two but it was noticed that the Hartford opponents were all second string men.

Bill Taylor, Ray Hall, Joe Bard and others in that class were missing and the fans did not hesitate to tell the officials that they knew it.

Joe Champ and Paul Terza dropped decisions because they were outboxed.

Kromoac, the Unionville sensation, did not show up for the fight because he was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

PHILLY TEAM EVEN AGAINST HARTFORD

Win Two and Lose Two on 'Drome Boxing Card; Many Local Fans Present.

About 3,000 fight fans, among them some 500 from Manchester, witnessed a well balanced card at the East Hartford Velodrome last evening under the auspices of the Massachusetts club.

A four man team from Philadelphia broke even in the bouts by winning two and losing two but it was noticed that the Hartford opponents were all second string men.

Bill Taylor, Ray Hall, Joe Bard and others in that class were missing and the fans did not hesitate to tell the officials that they knew it.

Joe Champ and Paul Terza dropped decisions because they were outboxed.

Kromoac, the Unionville sensation, did not show up for the fight because he was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

PHILLY TEAM EVEN AGAINST HARTFORD

Win Two and Lose Two on 'Drome Boxing Card; Many Local Fans Present.

About 3,000 fight fans, among them some 500 from Manchester, witnessed a well balanced card at the East Hartford Velodrome last evening under the auspices of the Massachusetts club.

A four man team from Philadelphia broke even in the bouts by winning two and losing two but it was noticed that the Hartford opponents were all second string men.

Bill Taylor, Ray Hall, Joe Bard and others in that class were missing and the fans did not hesitate to tell the officials that they knew it.

Joe Champ and Paul Terza dropped decisions because they were outboxed.

Kromoac, the Unionville sensation, did not show up for the fight because he was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

PHILLY TEAM EVEN AGAINST HARTFORD

Win Two and Lose Two on 'Drome Boxing Card; Many Local Fans Present.

About 3,000 fight fans, among them some 500 from Manchester, witnessed a well balanced card at the East Hartford Velodrome last evening under the auspices of the Massachusetts club.

A four man team from Philadelphia broke even in the bouts by winning two and losing two but it was noticed that the Hartford opponents were all second string men.

Bill Taylor, Ray Hall, Joe Bard and others in that class were missing and the fans did not hesitate to tell the officials that they knew it.

Joe Champ and Paul Terza dropped decisions because they were outboxed.

Kromoac, the Unionville sensation, did not show up for the fight because he was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

PHILLY TEAM EVEN AGAINST HARTFORD

Win Two and Lose Two on 'Drome Boxing Card; Many Local Fans Present.

About 3,000 fight fans, among them some 500 from Manchester, witnessed a well balanced card at the East Hartford Velodrome last evening under the auspices of the Massachusetts club.

A four man team from Philadelphia broke even in the bouts by winning two and losing two but it was noticed that the Hartford opponents were all second string men.

Bill Taylor, Ray Hall, Joe Bard and others in that class were missing and the fans did not hesitate to tell the officials that they knew it.

Joe Champ and Paul Terza dropped decisions because they were outboxed.

Kromoac, the Unionville sensation, did not show up for the fight because he was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Harold White, who was out of town, was out of town.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

Advertisement for 'The Nut Cracker' by Joe Williams, featuring an illustration of a nutcracker.

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS:

The girl who catches some sap may get a sugar daddy.

NOW YOU ASK ONE

THREE GUESSES

Here's a chance to get every question right by merely guessing which of the three answers in each question below is correct.

- 1-Are Cossacks horsemen of Arabia, Russia, or Mexico?
2-Is the letter occurring most frequently in the English language "E," "I," or "S"?
3-Is Mt. Vesuvius a volcano of Italy, Hawaii, or Japan?
4-Who is Robert Burns a poet of Ireland, England or Scotland?
5-Is the tibia a bone in the leg, the arm, or the chest?
6-Is the pointed arch a distinguishing feature of Gothic, Greek, or Moorish architecture?
7-Did Miles Standish ask Governor Bradford, John Alden, or Cotton Mather to do his wooing for him?
8-Does the Congo River empty into the Mediterranean Sea, the Indian Ocean, or the Atlantic Ocean?
9-Was Little Eva a character in "Uncle Tom's Cabin," "The Last of the Mohicans," or "To Have and to Hold"?
10-Were the "Just So Stories" written by Hans Christian Andersen, L. Frank Baum, or Rudyard Kipling?

Some women look as if their reduction exercises were having as hard time reducing them as their husbands have pleasing them.

Probably the radish from your own garden receives as much undeserved praise as anything else in the world.

Captain (to Irishman applying for job on board ship): "Have you ever been to sea before?"
The Son of Erin: "Do you think I came over from Oireland in a cab?"

SENSE and NONSENSE

No Time to Quit
There's a time to part and a time to meet,
There's a time to sleep and a time to eat,
There's a time to sleep and a time to play,
There's a time to work and a time to pray,
There's a time that's glad and a time that's blue,
There's a time to plan and a time to do,
There's a time to grin and show your grit,
There's a time to work and a time to play,
But there never was a time to quit!

Correct this sentence: "I never take a case," said the lawyer, "unless I am convinced that my client is in the right."

Trying to knock a small white ball into a very small hole has kept many men out of much larger holes.

Charlie: "But I told you dearest to keep our engagement a secret for the present."

Claire: "I couldn't help it. That hateful Ella said the reason I wasn't married was because no fool had proposed to me, so I told her you had."

Ain't It The Truth
There are just two things that break up most of the happy homes nowadays.
"Who are they?"
"Women's love for dry goods and man's love for wet goods."

Prohibition has made many a man a good judge of bad whiskey. Take the man out of romance and there'd be nothing left.

It is much safer to pay by check, but often safer to collect in cash.

There's a point beyond which saving becomes slaving.

When a country doctor dies, the people gather to pay their respects, but they consider their doctor bills paid.

Man has conquered the air, but the young lady next door hasn't.

The candidate who some day has an inspiration and is able to assign a new reason for running for office, will write some literature that should at least win a Pulitzer award.

People who go away for a vacation don't always get one.

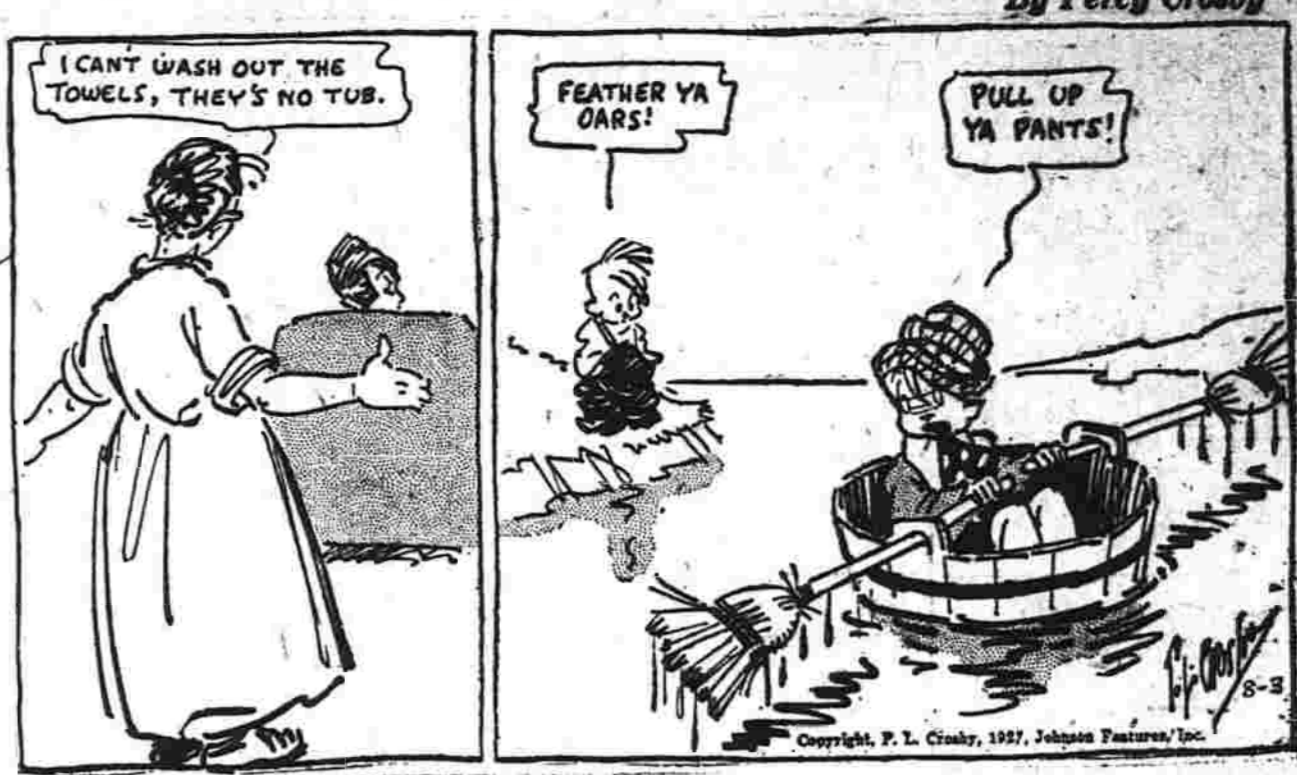

Just to be asking: "What's become of the old-fashioned moonlight schools that were to remove illiteracy from our 'amongst'?"

CIVILIZATION seems to be improving: We've had fewer crossword puzzles this past winter.

The way some men answer a telephone reminds us of the way a bulldog greets a stranger.

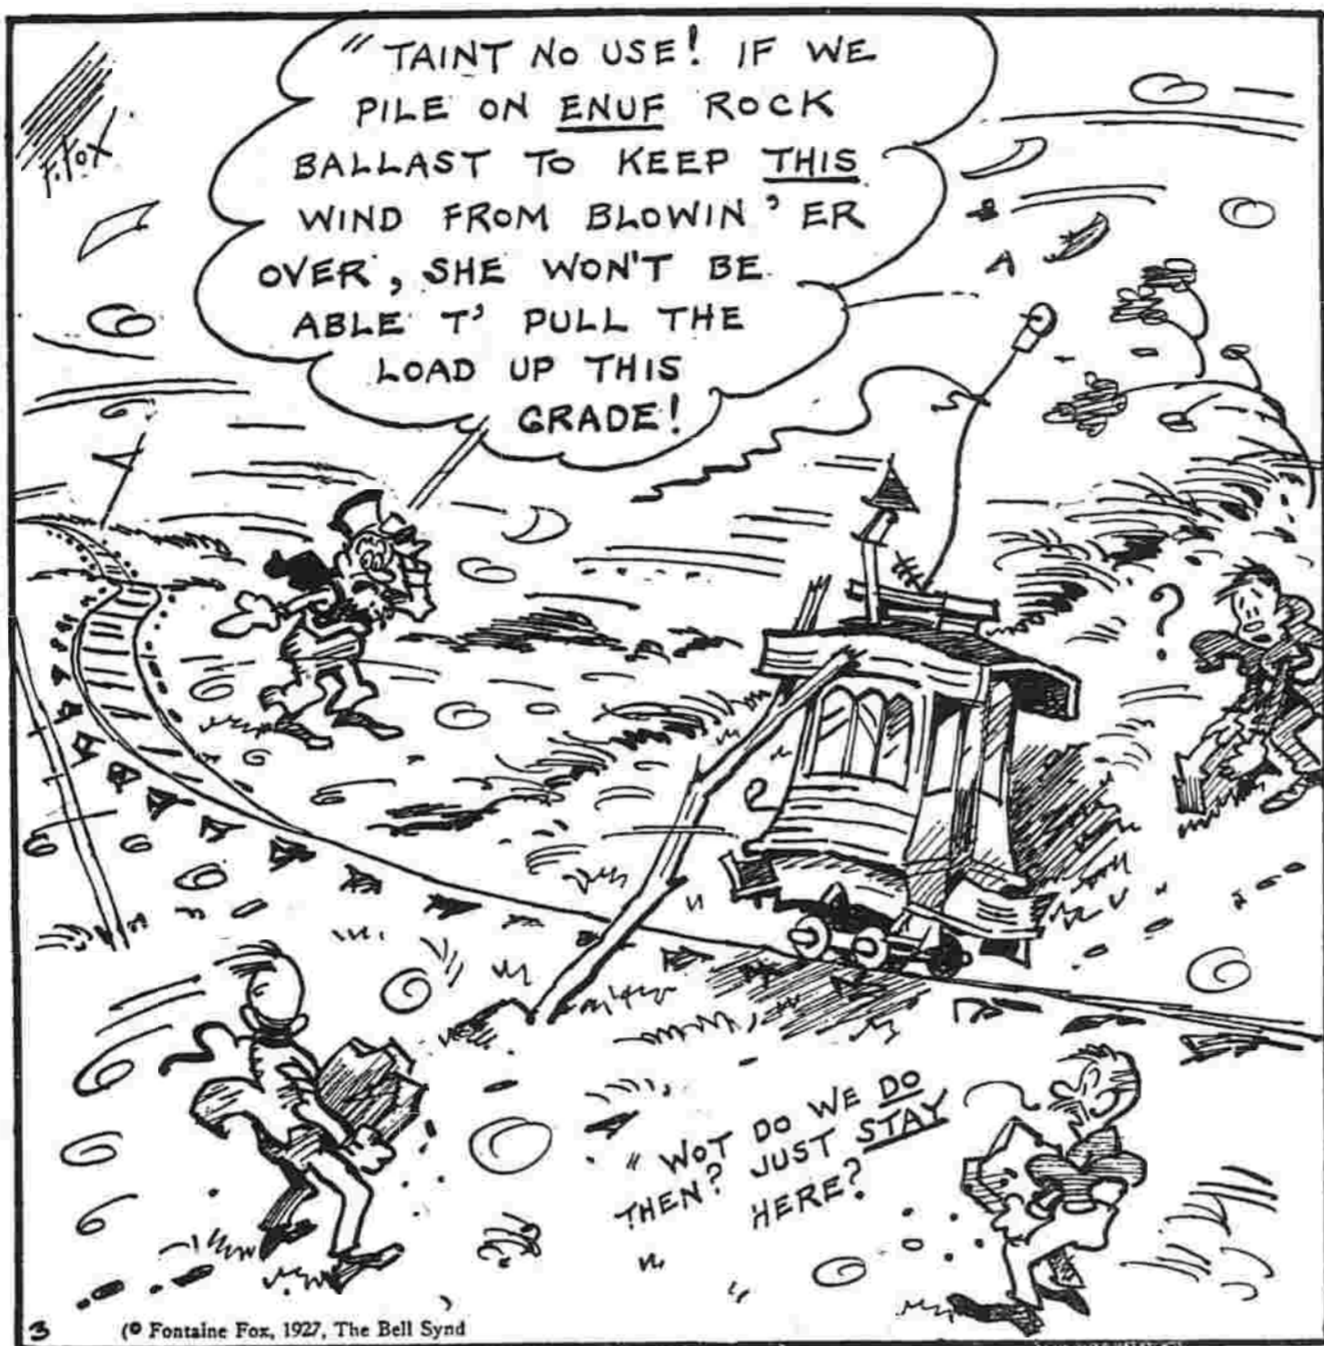

A genius is a crank who succeeded and a crank is a genius who failed.

SKIPPY

The Toonerville Trolley That Meets All the Trains

By Fontaine Fox

WASHINGTON TUBBS II

By Crane

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

Undependable

By Blosser

SALESMAN SAM

He's a Wow

By Small

JACK LOCKWILL IN THE WOODS

by Gilbert Patten

THE TINYMITES

The Ice Cream Hills were queer to see, and just as queer as they could be. Said Cloway, "Oh, let's slide on them. 'Twill be the best fun yet." Then Carpy broke right in and said, "Well, if you want to go ahead! But, not for me, because I know that we'd get soaking wet."
Just at this moment Scouty cried, "I'd like to take another ride upon the candy rabbit. Will we go, or are you skeered?" The bunch all said, "Sure, we'll go 'long." But then they found something was wrong. The rabbit they'd been riding on had quickly disappeared. They looked and looked, to no avail. Then Scouty shouted, "Where's a pall? I surely wish we had one. We could gather lots of cream." But, though the bunch looked all around for quite a while, no pall was found. And then what happened, certainly was quite a funny scene. They picked up ice cream in their hand, and each one shouted, "This is grand." They ate and ate until they'd had enough to satisfy. Then Cloway shouted, "My, the breeze around these hills will make me freeze. We'd better leave this ice cream land, and come back bye and bye."
"Where will we go?" somebody said, and Scouty answered, "Just ahead I think we'll find a winding road. Let's find out where it goes. These ice cream hills were sure a treat, but we have had all we can eat. I'll take the lead. Just follow me, and I'll follow my nose."
So, off they went, a happy band, not knowing where they'd shortly land. They found the road and walked along, and then the whole bunch ran. Right soon they found a little house, and sneaked up quiet as a mouse, and in the doorway of the place they found the Taffy Man. (The Tinymites pull taffy in the next story.)
(Copyright, 1927, NEA Service, Inc.)

SOUTH METHODIST
SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC
 Crystal Lake, Saturday, Aug. 6
 Tickets at the Church Thursday
 Night, Between 7 and 9.
 Games and Good Time.

MODERN DANCING
AT THE RAINBOW
TONIGHT
 Admission 50c.

ABOUT TOWN

Rev. Joseph Cooper of the South Methodist church, who has returned from his vacation will lead the mid-week prayer service in that church tomorrow evening at 7:30.

Oscar Swanson of this town will preside at the organ of the Methodist Episcopal church of Rockville Sunday morning. Mr. Swanson is an organist in the Grand theater in Hartford.

Mary C. Keeney Tent, Daughters of Union War Veterans, will have its regular meeting tomorrow at the state armory. As this will be the only meeting this month all the officers and as many of the members as possible are urged to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Wright of 128 East Center street left today for Nantasket Beach, where they will spend two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Ramsdell have returned to their home in Pittsfield, Pa., after spending three weeks with Mrs. Ramsdell's parents at 35 Main street.

Stuart Dillon, Jr., of East Center street is spending two weeks in Fieldale, Mass., as the guest of Mrs. Lee March at her summer camp at Alum Pond.

The young people of the Salvation Army will conduct a meeting at Depot Square this evening at 7:30. Music will be furnished by the Junior band.

Mrs. Holger Gustafson of 32 Maple street left this morning for a two weeks' stay at Nantasket Beach.

Rev. Marvin S. Stocking of North Main street came to town today from his Simsbury camp to officiate at the Field-Packard wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. John McFadden and family of Hamilton, Ont., Canada, are visiting in South Manchester for a few weeks.

Allen Avery of the Pinehurst grocery is enjoying a rest during the month of August. This week he is visiting his mother in Williamstown, and later he plans to go to Block Island.

John Chandee of Forestville has entered the employ of the Pinehurst grocery.

Charles Holton of Pinehurst is spending his vacation visiting relatives in New London.

A. N. Potter of Lancaster road, director of the local evening schools, is in New Haven this week attending the sessions of the summer school on adult education at Yale university. Mr. Potter will address the school next Monday on the subject of "Civic Responsibilities of the Naturalized Alien."

St. Margaret's Circle, No. 280, National Daughters of Isabella, will hold its regular business meeting in K. of C. hall tomorrow evening at eight o'clock. The regent, Mrs. Julia Sheridan, who was sent as a delegate to the national convention held recently at Fort Wayne, Ind., will make a report of the proceedings in full. Many of the items in the report will be of great interest. As this will be the only meeting in August and several other matters are to be discussed, a large attendance is requested.

Mrs. Anna M. Risley of Parker street has returned after spending a few days at Mount Hermon, Mass., where she attended the commencement exercises of Mount Hermon School. Her son, Wells Edward Risley, a sophomore last year at the local high school, is now a student at Mount Hermon. He with his class mate, Lincoln Winton, returned for a visit with Mrs. Risley.

Edward Elliott, Sr., returned yesterday from his trip to his old home in Leicester, England. His daughter and grandchild accompanied him on the visit. He has been in England since May, and while across the water he visited a number of the cities in the north of Ireland. Mr. Elliott intends to resume his work as janitor of the municipal building within a week or ten days.

James Adamson has sold land on Hemlock street to Wallace M. Hutchinson.

HOLLYWOOD DIVORCE

Los Angeles, Calif., Aug. 3.—Claire Windsor's divorce action will not be opposed by Bert Lytell. Records in the marital rift of the screen couple today showed its default to Miss Windsor's suit has been entered.

The actress charges cruelty. She asserted her husband was unreasonably jealous and left her alone for long periods while engaged in fulfilling stage engagements.

Fine gases and carbon dioxide now are being used to prevent dust explosions in industry.

TOWN RIDES ITSELF OF MAINE PAUPERS

Family Arriving Here Destitute and In Deplorable Condition, Returned.

The enforced emigration of a pauper family from this town to the state of Maine recently was the result of investigation of one of the most squalid cases which has ever been brought to the attention of the charity commissioner here.

The father suffering from tuberculosis, the three children not old enough to work and the mother, although working for a small wage on a tobacco farm, the family was in danger of becoming a public charge.

Came Here Destitute
 Some county agent William Murphy, his wife and three children, came to Manchester from the town of Hermon, Maine. They lived in one of the free tenements in Buckland. The mother got a job "on tobacco." The father was unable to work because of his illness and the whole family lived in an advanced stage of poverty and filth. Because of the condition of the family, reported to the Manchester charity commissioner, a doctor was engaged to examine the father. It was found that he was suffering from advanced tuberculosis and was in such a condition that he should have been removed to an institution.

Finding that the family could not pay for the support of the father at the institution, the charity commissioner declared them paupers and sooner declared with the state charity commission. As the family came from Maine it was decided that this state should not be made to assume charge of the five members of the family.

Accordingly the state commissioner ordered them sent back to Maine and deputized the local charity commissioner to take them to that state. They were taken to Maine and deposited over the border.

Connecticut was not obliged to keep these paupers for the law states that four years' residence without town or state aid is required before any person becomes a town or state charge. As the family had only been here four months the state of Maine and the town of Hermon were still responsible for their keep.

COOL WEATHER EXPECTED TO BOOST TRAP SHOOT

The Manchester Rod and Gun club expects a better attendance at its shoot at the Rainbow range tomorrow afternoon. Hot weather during the past few weeks has kept many of the members away from the range but with the coming of cooler weather the club officials expect better attendance. The shoot will begin at 2:30 with Edward Elliott, Jr., in charge of the range. Ammunition may be purchased at the range.

LEAVES MONEY TO CHURCH

New Orleans, La., Aug. 3.—By terms of the will of Mrs. James Sale, of this city, who died in Eddyville, Ky., July 14, and died here for probate, she left to the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Boston, Mass., $1632.51 and asked that a part be used in establishing a Pleasant View home in Concord, N. H.

EMERGENCY DOCTORS

Dr. N. A. Burr (Phone 3) and Dr. Howard Boyd (Phone 1145-2) will be on emergency call tomorrow.

ED MISSES A CHANCE AT BIG-BASS PRIZE

"Never Would Catch a Big One" But Lands Whopper at Bolton Lake.

"All things come to him who waits." Ed Berggren of 32 Walker street, well known Manchester vegetable and fruit dealer, had to wait three years. And then he missed a golden opportunity to win a much coveted prize.

This is a fish story—true. It's proof was in the window at Barrett & Robbins' store on Main street today.

For three years Berggren and Mrs. Berggren spent much spare time fishing. Ed, however, never caught a bass over a pound in weight, although his wife had.

Yesterday was different. The Berggrens went to Bolton Lake after supper for their almost daily try. They had been in the habit of fishing from a boat. This time they decided to try their luck from shore.

And Ed hooked a bass which afterward proved to weigh exactly four pounds—the biggest exhibited by any Manchester fisherman this season. The bass put up a mighty battle but Ed finally landed him after a tussle of half an hour.

In the mouth of the bass—a perfectly good "small mouth"—was an old hook and bit of line showing that it had been victor over man on at least one previous occasion. The fish measured 17 inches in length.

There are plenty of hard-boiled anglers who would have hot-footed into town with such a bass, but fishing a little later he landed another bass which tipped the scales at two pounds, four ounces. Then the Berggrens called it a day.

Efforts have been made repeatedly to have Berggren join the Bass club which has a big membership in town and holds out substantial prizes. The membership fee is a dollar and the money goes into a prize fund. Last year the biggest catch of the season netted $25.

Ed, however, always declined to join, declaring: "What's the use, I'll never get a big one." The biggest bass registered by the club this year is a little over three pounds.

LOCAL BOTTLING WORKS ATTACHED ON A NOTE

An attachment was placed today on the Glenwood Bottling works, owned by Hyman Fisher of Glenwood street. The plaintiff, the Federal Supply company of New Haven, alleges default of payment on a three-months' note given by Fisher on April 30. The amount of the attachment is $2,000 and the plaintiff claims damages of $1,800, including the amount of the note, interest and the costs of the action.

On April 30, the plaintiff alleges Fisher gave a note for $1,488 for three months. The plaintiff in turn endorsed the note to the First National Bank of New Haven. On July 30 the holder of the note presented it to the Home Bank and Trust company for payment but the note was protested.

The plaintiff, therefore, had to pay the full amount of the note, with the accumulated interest and protest charges.

Furniture Salesmen

Opportunity for two live wire experienced men for permanent connection with New England's largest chain of furniture stores. Good salary and commission.

KANE'S 1082 Main Street, Hartford

PHONES Pinehurst
"GOOD THINGS TO EAT"
Market News Specials

Pinehurst will close at noon tomorrow. Please do your shopping in the morning, and if you want early delivery, just call in before 7:45 and your order will leave the store at 8 o'clock.

It's cool enough for Sausage—so early Thursday we will grind up a fresh supply of Pinehurst Sausage Meat.

If you want a tender, lean cut of shoulder of lamb for stewing, we can deliver it to you early.

Lamb is a good summer meat; Loin, Rib or Shoulder Chops are ready for your order.

Scotch Ham, Canadian Bacon, Pork Roll, Chicken Roll, Pigs' Souse, Fried Ham and Eckhardt's Frankfurts continue to be much in demand.

Pinehurst Creamery Tub Butter 45c lb.
 Pure Lard 15c lb.
 New Potatoes (delivered with other orders) 35c pk.
 Fresh Eggs 48c dozen
 Bunch Beets and Carrots 5c bunch
 Pinehurst best Coffee. The repeat calls we have for this good coffee prove that it is good value at 49c lb.
 Pinehurst Hamburger (with or without pork) 25c lb.
 Fresh 3 pound Chickens 49c lb.
 Boiling Shanks of Ham 15c to 22c lb.

We expect more fresh Blueberries, Sweet Corn (perhaps Yellow, if the price is right), Wax and Green Beans, Summer Squash and Native Tomatoes. Send the children to the store, come yourself or Call 2006. Satisfaction guaranteed.

LOCAL MEN PICKED FOR YEAR'S JURIES

Thirty-Nine Manchester Residents on List Named by Jury Commissioner.

Nearly two score Manchester men may be called upon to act as jurors to serve in the Hartford County Superior Court during the year that begins September 1, 1927, it was learned yesterday when the clerk of court announced the list of jurors for Hartford county which was compiled at the recent annual meeting of the jury commissioners, Lucius P. Fuller, Joseph W. Alsop and Edward H. King.

The thirty-nine to be summoned from Manchester are: Henry Ahern, building contractor, 14 Bond street; George H. Allen, 142 East Center street; Richard C. Alton, 249 East Center street; Frank H. Anderson, treasurer and general manager of the J. W. Hale company, Green Hill, Manchester Green; Frank G. Balkner, salesman, 102 Ridge street; Lorenzo Bentley, 2 Sterling Place; Samuel Burgens, 116 Center street; Louis St. Clair Burr, realtor, 302 West Center street; Lawrence W. Case, president Case Bros. Inc., 673 Spring street; David Chambers, contractor, 158 Main street; Ernest D. Clough, painter, 24 Orchard street; Edward R. Coleman, chief fire department, 135 Hilliard street; Joseph W. Conroy, salesman, 382 Main street; Edward R. Couch, piano tuner, 158 Main street; Frank B. Crocker, office manager, 48 Russell street; Albert T. Dewey, Hartford Connecticut Trust and chairman Board of police commissioners here, 93 Henry street; George A. Johnson, civil engineer, 204 Hartford road; George E. Keith, treasurer Keith Furniture Co., 19 Lewis street; William A. Knofla, president Manchester Construction Co., 288 Main street; Christopher McHale, malt and hops, 169 Center street; Herman E. Montie, assistant superintendent Cheney Bros., 36 Bigelow street; Ralph P. Norton, secretary Norton Electric Instrument Co., 9 Oakland street; Patrick J. O'Leary, secretary Manchester Dairy Ice Cream Co., 367 East Center street; Frank A. Rolston, real estate, 206 Centre street; Samuel Nelson, Jr., insurance, 110 Ridge street; Harold W. Walsh, store keeper, 34 Russell street.

Also, George W. Gammons, salesman, 880 East Center street; John H. Gill, 191 Main street; Walter R. Hall, insurance adjuster, 17 Strickland street; William E. Hibbard, hardware, 300 North Main street; Emil L. G. Hohenthal, Jr., contractor, 24 Roosevelt street; George A. Johnson, civil engineer, 204 Hartford road; George E. Keith, treasurer Keith Furniture Co., 19 Lewis street; William A. Knofla, president Manchester Construction Co., 288 Main street; Christopher McHale, malt and hops, 169 Center street; Herman E. Montie, assistant superintendent Cheney Bros., 36 Bigelow street; Ralph P. Norton, secretary Norton Electric Instrument Co., 9 Oakland street; Patrick J. O'Leary, secretary Manchester Dairy Ice Cream Co., 367 East Center street; Frank A. Rolston, real estate, 206 Centre street; Samuel Nelson, Jr., insurance, 110 Ridge street; Harold W. Walsh, store keeper, 34 Russell street.

Efforts have been made repeatedly to have Berggren join the Bass club which has a big membership in town and holds out substantial prizes. The membership fee is a dollar and the money goes into a prize fund. Last year the biggest catch of the season netted $25.

Ed, however, always declined to join, declaring: "What's the use, I'll never get a big one." The biggest bass registered by the club this year is a little over three pounds.

MASON SUPPLIES
LIME
CEMENT
PLASTER
BRICK
FLUE LINING
DAMPERS
TILE
A Full Line.
 Give us your order. We deliver the goods.
G. E. Willis & Son
 2 Main Street Phone 50

MEMBERS OF AMARANTH VISIT AGGIE COLLEGE

Group 5 of Chapman Court, Order of Amaranth, which is headed by Mrs. Laura Loomis and Royal Matron Finis Grant arranged a delightful outing yesterday at Connecticut Agricultural College, Storrs. Twenty-six of the Amaranth members made the trip in five automobiles, leaving town shortly after noon. They inspected the college buildings, community house and grounds and enjoyed a real old-fashioned picnic supper on the tables provided for outdoor gatherings.

The meal was topped off with rich ice cream from the Storrs dairy, and everything including the transportation was provided by the committee at a charge of 75 cents for each guest. The outing was thoroughly enjoyed by everybody. It was the first activity since the membership of the court was divided into ten groups, and was voted a success in every way.

Tigers in India have been known to pull men down from platforms seventeen feet high in the trees.

Dark colors, light colors and an endless variety of summer shades. Small, medium and large head sizes—so you can easily find the hat you need for vacation wear. Entire stock divided into three groups and now priced

50c $1.00 $1.98
ALICE F. HEALEY
 Millinery Shop, Park Building

Facials Advocated by the French

Everyone knows that French women take excellent care of their complexions. Therefore, French Facials are much desired by the woman who seeks beauty. Our experts have taken a course in Facials as given by the French and we assure you the same care and fine results.

State Beauty Parlor
 755 Main St., State Theater Building, Phone 1941-2
 Closed Thursday Afternoons During July and August.

Blue Serge Suits
$29.50 $29.50
 Men's 15 ounce Blue Serge Suits with two pairs of Trousers. Special for this week at an exceptionally low price. Well tailored and all sizes in stock
$29.50
GLENNEY'S
 TINKER BUILDING.

FIELD-PACKARD

Miss Maude Packard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Packard of 531 Middle Turnpike, and Sidney Field, son of Mrs. Iva Field of East Hartford were married this afternoon at two o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Marvin S. Stocking, pastor of the North Methodist church, the single ring service being used. The home was tastefully decorated with yellow daisies and ferns.

The bride was attired in a gown of white georgette trimmed with silver. On her head she wore a wreath of silver leaves and rhinestones. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses.

Miss Alice Packard, who was her sister's bridesmaid, wore a gown of flowered georgette and carried pink sweet peas. Walter Hale, a friend of the bridegroom was best man.

A reception for relatives and close friends followed the ceremony. Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Field left on a honeymoon trip to Maine. Upon their return they will make their home with the bridegroom's mother in East Hartford.

Final Clearance of all Summer Millinery

Dark colors, light colors and an endless variety of summer shades. Small, medium and large head sizes—so you can easily find the hat you need for vacation wear. Entire stock divided into three groups and now priced

50c $1.00 $1.98
ALICE F. HEALEY
 Millinery Shop, Park Building

Facials Advocated by the French

Everyone knows that French women take excellent care of their complexions. Therefore, French Facials are much desired by the woman who seeks beauty. Our experts have taken a course in Facials as given by the French and we assure you the same care and fine results.

State Beauty Parlor
 755 Main St., State Theater Building, Phone 1941-2
 Closed Thursday Afternoons During July and August.

Blue Serge Suits
$29.50 $29.50
 Men's 15 ounce Blue Serge Suits with two pairs of Trousers. Special for this week at an exceptionally low price. Well tailored and all sizes in stock
$29.50
GLENNEY'S
 TINKER BUILDING.

TO SAFEGUARD CHILDREN ON PICNIC OF S. M. E.

Lifeguard Will Watch Young Folks at Crystal Lake on Saturday Outing.

Every precaution has been taken to safeguard the children who are going to the South Methodist church picnic at Crystal Lake on Saturday. It was announced today. A number of competent lifeguards have been appointed and these will be on duty during the swimming periods.

A program of sports and games has been arranged and a general good time is in store for those who attend. Ice cream and lemonade will be served free to those who go on the picnic. Headquarters will be at Koelsch's pavilion on the lake shore.

Cars will leave the terminus on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. Tickets will be placed on sale at the church on Thursday evening and may be bought between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock.

Final Clearance of all Summer Millinery

Dark colors, light colors and an endless variety of summer shades. Small, medium and large head sizes—so you can easily find the hat you need for vacation wear. Entire stock divided into three groups and now priced

50c $1.00 $1.98
ALICE F. HEALEY
 Millinery Shop, Park Building

Facials Advocated by the French

Everyone knows that French women take excellent care of their complexions. Therefore, French Facials are much desired by the woman who seeks beauty. Our experts have taken a course in Facials as given by the French and we assure you the same care and fine results.

State Beauty Parlor
 755 Main St., State Theater Building, Phone 1941-2
 Closed Thursday Afternoons During July and August.

Blue Serge Suits
$29.50 $29.50
 Men's 15 ounce Blue Serge Suits with two pairs of Trousers. Special for this week at an exceptionally low price. Well tailored and all sizes in stock
$29.50
GLENNEY'S
 TINKER BUILDING.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Admissions reported at Memorial hospital today were Ruth Burns, 61 Chapel street, East Hartford and Mrs. Louis Hutton, 9 Boulder road, Discharged: George Scheldge, 516 Garden street.

ROHAN REPORTS SALES

The James J. Rohan Real Estate Agency reports the following sales: 74 acre farm in Coventry to Jacob and Elizabeth Jacobs; single house on Dougherty street to Sam Yulies from Mark Hewitt; 13 acre place to Milford G. Kenyon from Theodore C. Zimmerman; 3 tenement house on Oakland street to Mark Hewitt from Sam Yulies.

Thursday Morning 50c Specials
 Specials on Sale for Three Hours Only. Store Closes at Noon.

One Group Mid-Summer Fabrics 50¢ yard
 A splendid assortment of yard goods have been reduced to this price. In this group you will find our regular $1 silk broadcloth which comes in good looking stripes that are color fast; $1 imported printed voiles; 59c sylvan; 79c ray de rayon and roudoux chiffon in a number of good patterns; also a few pieces of our 59c charmeuse which is guaranteed fast.

25 Only Summer Hats 50¢ each
 Twenty-five only hats to close-out tomorrow morning at 50c each. None of these hats have been marked less than $1.98, some as high as $5.95. Light and dark shades. Large and small head sizes.

REMNANTS 50c
 Each. We still have a good assortment of remnants at this price. Short lengths of ginghams, prints, rayons, silks, cotton prints, etc. are included in this assortment. Short lengths that will make up into darling frocks for the kiddies, crisp aprons and house frocks.

$1.00 WASH HATS 50c
 Boys' and girls' wash hats in either white pluge or pongee. Hats suitable for general wear this summer at home or at the beach.

WOMEN'S SUMMER VESTS 50c
 2 for 50c
 Cotton vests with strap or built-up shoulders. Sizes 36 to 44.

7 CAKES OF DONA CASTILE SOAP and A FACE CLOTH, all for 50c
 The castile soap sells regularly at 10c a cake.

39c OIL CLOTH 50c
 2 Yards 50c
 A number of designs and patterns to choose from. Special at 2 yards for 50c while it lasts.

3 ROLLS HALE'S TOILET-TISSUE and a SHOPPING BAG, all for 50c
 2,000 sheets to the roll. Special Thursday morning only at this price.

"Health Market" Specials

TENDER STEAK, 2 lbs. 50c

Fresh Ribs Beef, 5 lbs. 50c
 Lean Rib Corned Beef, 5 lbs. 50c
 Lean Pot Roast, 2 lbs. 50c
 Pork Roast, 2 lbs. 50c
 Sterling Steak, 2 lbs. 50c
 Fresh Sausage Meat, 2 1/2 lbs. 50c
 Beef Stew, 2 1/2 lbs. 50c

'Self-Serve' Specials

William's Root Beer or Ginger Ale Extract, 3 bottles 50c
 Fairy Soap, 10 cakes 50c
 Columbia River Salmon, 3 cans 50c
 Toilet Tissue, 7 rolls 50c
 1,000 sheets to the roll.
 Sunbeam Stuffed Peppit Olives, 4 bottles 50c
 Helmet Crushed Hawaiian Pineapple, 3 cans 50c

The J.W. Hale Company
 SOUTH MANCHESTER, CONN.

Advertise in The Evening Herald-It Pay