

4 SELECTMEN TO STAND FOR RENOMINATION

What Four Not Decided But Chairman Treat and Johansson Say They're Through—Politics Start.

Manchester's political pot isn't even simmering yet and Primary Day, which is practically Election Day here, is only a month away. Primary Day this year comes on Tuesday, September 13 and proposals for elective offices must be in the hands of Town Clerk Samuel J. Turkington before midnight Monday, August 29. Beside the town offices which are annually voted upon Manchester will this year vote for town treasurer and town clerk. These are voted for every two years. Manchester's present Board of Selectmen has served intact for three years and some of the members have expressed a desire to retire this year. Chairman Robert V. Treat has served as a Selectman six years. Secretary John H. Hyde has served for six years and Thomas J. Rogers and Harry W. Keeney have been on the board five years. Robert J. Smith has served four years and Wells A. Strickland and Carl Johansson have served three years.

Two Are Determined. Chairman of the Board Robert V. Treat insists that he will not run for re-election and could not be drafted no matter what arguments are advanced. Carl Johansson has served long enough he believes and positively will not stand for renomination. None of the other members have any particular desire to be elected to the board again, but the present seven Selectmen have agreed that four of their number should remain on the board for another year at least. Several important problems are under consideration by the Selectmen at the present time and an entirely new board would have disastrous results. School consolidation, town planning and zoning, the purchase of Cheney owned school buildings, the town control of the Trade School, the possible town purchase of public utilities and other subjects of the utmost importance are in the works or now under consideration and are fully understood by the present members. Should all of them vacate office their work on the problems would be entirely lost.

Four to Remain. It is quite probable that John H. Hyde, Thomas J. Rogers, Robert J. Smith and Wells A. Strickland of the present Selectmen will decide to stand for renomination. In event

NEW SIDEWALK MAY DRIVE OUT LOCAL CONCERN

Glastonbury Knitting Co. Objects to Walks—May Move to Addison—Selectmen Hold Meeting.

A concrete sidewalk may be the determining factor in removing the Glastonbury Knitting Company mill from Manchester Green to its main plant in Addison. It was brought out at last night's meeting of the Board of Selectmen. Residents of the Green have asked for a permanent sidewalk from Woodbridge street at the corner of Middle Turnpike to Vernon street. The Glastonbury Knitting Company, the only property owner objecting. Plans of the Glastonbury company to consolidate its plant have been hinted previously but no definite action has been taken. In making known the company's decision on the proposed sidewalk construction Elmer F. Robinson, superintendent of the company, told George H. Waddell, clerk of the Board of Selectmen, that if any such extra burden were put on the company's shoulders it might hurry the contemplated move.

Owns Over Half. The Glastonbury Knitting Company owns over half the property fronting on the proposed section to be planned and zoning. The purchase of Cheney owned school buildings, the town control of the Trade School, the possible town purchase of public utilities and other subjects of the utmost importance are in the works or now under consideration and are fully understood by the present members. Should all of them vacate office their work on the problems would be entirely lost.

CAPITAL MOURNS AT WOOD'S BIER

Body Borne to Final Resting Place Among His Beloved "Rough Riders."

Washington, Aug. 9.—Back to the scene of his greatest triumphs was borne today the body of Major General Leonard Wood, for a final resting place in the Arlington National cemetery among the nation's warrior dead.

It was in Washington that Wood, once an obscure surgeon in the army, rose to chief of staff, the highest post in the military establishment. The funeral which honored his forty-two years service as soldier and colonial administrator was one of the most impressive military ceremonies here in recent years. Despite overcast skies, thousands of Washingtonians paid silent tribute along the fifteen mile procession route between Union station plaza and the burial ground. Rank and file of the army officiated as pallbearers. Public officials of every rank participated in the ceremony. Flags were flown at half staff on all public buildings.

Body Arrives. General Wood's body arrived at 7:25 o'clock this morning from Boston, where he died early Sunday morning following a cranial operation. He was 67 years old and had returned from the Philippine Islands three months ago on his first leave of absence since he assumed the governor-generalship under President Harding in 1921. Mrs. Wood and a guard of honor composed of six troopers accompanied the body to the station, where it was placed in a casket for transport to the cemetery. Wood's grave is among his comrades of the "Rough Riders" regiment.

Family With Casket. Mrs. Wood, her two sons, Osborne Wood and Leonard Wood, Jr. and her daughter, Miss Louise B. Wood, sat for a short time by the casket in the president's room. None but military officers and relatives were permitted to view the casket. (Continued on Page 2)

Sacco-Vanzetti Riots in Boston

COMMITTEE VISITS EIGHTH'S SCHOOLS

Believe Present Buildings Can Supply Necessary Room With Few Changes.

The committee of five appointed at the special meeting of the voters of the Eighth School and Utilities district last Thursday to investigate conditions with relation to school accommodations and advisability of moving the Manchester Public library to provide additional space, held a meeting last evening. The committee includes F. A. Sweet, Mrs. C. R. Burr, Mrs. C. J. Strickland, William Foulds, Jr., and William Maguire.

HALF MILLION TOBACCO LOSS

Survey Just Completed Shows Storms This Year Were Costly—Only 4,000 Were Insured.

Hartford, Conn., Aug. 9.—Net losses to tobacco growers in the Connecticut valley this year because of the recent record-breaking hail and wind storms, will amount to nearly half a million dollars, a survey made public today reveals. Tobacco growers at even more than the amount has been ruined but insurance reimbursements of from $150,000 to $200,000 will modify direct losses somewhat. About five-sixths of the loss is reported in Connecticut, where, oddly, about the same proportion of the total tobacco acreage is planted. Most of the damage resulted from two storms, although several milder disturbances caused considerable destruction.

Need Another Week. If another week passes without a severe hail storm, growers feel their crop raising troubles for the year will be about over. Harvesting is under way and is being hurried as much as possible to escape further damage. Failure to outguess nature will result in losses to a great many growers this year. In the first year of the life of their own insurance company, the Connecticut Valley Mutual Hill Insurance, there were about 15,000 policy holders. This was after three companies had refused to write hail insurance because of previous heavy losses. The first year of the new company experienced little damage from hail and the next year's losses were almost slight. Confident of another favorable year, this summer found 11,000 growers falling to renew their policies.

Only 4,000 Insured. Only 4,000 are now covered, and among this number will be divided adjustments approximating $175,000. While only about $100,000 has been collected in premiums this year, according to Arthur E. Nelson, secretary-treasurer, the preceding seasons with heavy damage payments far beyond this amount and still remain financially secure. Insurance in force now covers 2,100 acres. This is a little more than one-fourteenth of the acreage. (Continued on Page 2)

TESTING CHAIR FOR EXECUTION

R. G. Elliott Leaves for Boston to Get Ready for Sacco and Vanzetti.

New York, Aug. 9.—Although absolute silence prevailed today with and about the Richmond Hill home of Robert G. Elliott, official executioner of Sacco and Vanzetti, friends ridiculed the idea that he had developed "cold feet." They pointed out that he was an experienced electrician to whom there was no personal element in throwing the switch of an electric chair. The house was guarded, but there was no response to the door bell. It was thought Elliott had gone into seclusion until after the execution. He also was reported to have gone to Boston to test the chair.

PLEA OF INSANITY FOR GOTTSCHALK

Judge Johnson Orders Examination of Local Man by Hartford Specialists.

Attorney Frederick J. Corbett of Hartford, who represents Henry W. Gottschalk, who is now confined in the Hartford county jail awaiting a hearing in the Manchester police court next Tuesday on the charge of forgery, appeared before Judge Johnson in court this morning and made a motion to have Gottschalk examined as to his sanity.

TROTSKY IS STRIPPED OF POWER BY SOVIET

Expelled From Central Committee by Big Vote—Zinoviev Falls With Him.

Moscow, Aug. 9.—Trotsky and Zinoviev have been expelled from the central committee of the Communist Party, by an overwhelming vote of the plenum, according to reliable reports today. No official statement has been issued on the vote as yet. The final expulsion of Trotsky and Zinoviev from the central committee completes the stripping of power from these two men who were once high in the Communist councils. For more than a year Trotsky and Zinoviev have been leading the opposition to the present Communist policies and as their opposition has continued they have been deprived of office after office. When the plenum of the central committee went into session last week it was reported that Joseph Stalin had given warning that all those of the opposition who failed to give a pledge of allegiance to the party and its policies would be drastically dealt with. Many deserted the opposition, but Trotsky and Zinoviev held fast and now pay the penalty of expulsion.

THAYER DENIES PLEA; EXPLOSION IN LONDON

Bomb Placed in Subway in English Capital—Dispatches from Many Points in Europe Tell of Sacco-Vanzetti Demonstrations—American Flag Burned—Switzerland Neutral.

London, Aug. 9.—A bomb was exploded in the Aldwych station of the London tube (subway) today. According to first reports there were five or six explosions. The underground railways, after an investigation, issued the following statement: "A small tin containing some explosive material exploded in the lavatory of the Aldwych tube station at ten o'clock. It is believed to have been the work of a practical joker."

Despite the nature of the company's statement, detectives from Scotland Yard and explosive experts took charge of the fragments of the bomb and began an effort to trace the perpetrators. The station was searched for other bombs. "No One Injured" The explosions took place during the morning rush hour but there was no damage and no one was injured. Porters in the Aldwych station declare that the force of the explosion shook the building and made a deep crack in one of the walls. Two men were observed to come from the cloakroom just prior to the explosion, making their exit to the street by the stairs rather than by the elevators which are ordinarily used.

Not a Busy Station. The Aldwych station is probably one of the least used underground stations in London as it is not on a main line, but is a station on a connecting loop. It is located on a strand almost opposite Bush House, the huge American office building, and is near Australia House and the Air Ministry. A tunnel runs under the Strand and the Aldwych station and if the bombing was intended as a serious attack, it may have been the plan of the perpetrators to blow up this tunnel, which would have tied up traffic on the Strand and Kingsway, two of the most important traffic outlets from the city of London.

Riot in Stockholm. London, Aug. 9.—An excited mob of 10,000 persons attempted to storm the United States Legation at Stockholm, Sweden, last night, said a Central News dispatch from that city today. A strong gordon of mounted police backed the mob, arresting several of the ringleaders. Disorderly scenes took place in other parts of the city as the result of Sacco-Vanzetti demonstrations. Swedish Communist and Socialist have been active in behalf of Sacco and Vanzetti for some time.

SCOTSMEN PROTEST

Glasgow, Aug. 9.—The National Union of Scottish Mine Workers today delivered to the United States Consul a protest against the death sentence imposed upon Sacco and Vanzetti.

IRISH MAKE PLEA

Dublin, Aug. 9.—The Irish Labor Party and the Irish Trade Union Congress today sent a cablegram to President Coolidge asking executive clemency in behalf of Sacco and Vanzetti. The message follows: "Irish labor joins labor in other countries surging clemency for Sacco and Vanzetti. The Workers Party of Ireland adopted a resolution protesting against the Sacco-Vanzetti death sentences."

SWISS WON'T INTERFERE

Geneva, Aug. 9.—The Swiss Telegraph Administration today refused to transmit to the United States Minister at Bern a long telegram protesting against the execution of Sacco and Vanzetti, which had been drawn up at a radical mass meeting on the ground that it would be injurious to a friendly government.

MEETINGS IN NORWAY

Copenhagen, Aug. 9.—The National organization of the Norwegian trades unions has organized Sacco-Vanzetti protest meetings throughout all Norway, to be held at the close of work on Wednesday.

AT LEAST 500,000 TO STRIKE IN N. Y.

Sacco Sympathizers Expect to Stage Largest Demonstration in City's History.

New York, Aug. 9.—At least 500,000 workers were expected to lay down their tools here today in protest against the impending execution of Sacco and Vanzetti in Massachusetts. Leaders called upon the workers to quit at ten o'clock and proceed to thirty mass meetings. If the plans carry, leaders declare this will be the greatest demonstration of protest ever staged in New York.

The climax of the day is expected to be reached at four o'clock this afternoon when a huge demonstration will be held at Union Square. There assembled, the workers will be addressed by speakers and exhorted to appeal against the execution of their two comrades. Meetings Allowed. Although the meetings have been permitted by police, extraordinary precautions will be taken to assure order and to prevent blocking of traffic by parades. At the Union Square meeting, approximately 1,000 police will maintain order.

Among the unions and other organizations which were said to have pledged themselves to join the protest strike were: The International Printers Union; Ship and Land Workers; Clothing Workers; Union of the Socialist and Communist parties and the Industrial Workers of the World; the strike will be one of sympathy only, hence there will be no picket lines or other manifestations. Sympathizers of the Sacco-Vanzetti cause have also been asked by the Boston group to join the "march on Boston" and stage a demonstration there. Leaders here said that more than 1,000 had declared their intention of joining the "march." They said they would travel in buses emblazoned with signs reading: Sacco-Vanzetti Freedom Delegation.

NATIONALS FORCED TO EVACUATE PENGPU

Suffer Heavy Losses in Battle—Are Now Retreating Toward Pukow.

Shanghai, Aug. 9.—Under heavy pressure from the Shantung troops the Nationalists have been forced to evacuate Pengpu and retreat toward Pukow. The economic situation has been complicated by the Japanese cotton mill owners to close forty mills, throwing sixty thousand out of work, unless the Nationalists received a 12 per cent tax which is collectible in September.

WEDDING ANNOUNCED

Friends in town and former pupils of the local High school have received announcements of the marriage of Miss Evaline Rebecca Hewitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Hewitt of Winsted and Arthur Jerome Phillips. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, Tuesday, August 2. The bride was for a number of years instructor in stenography and typewriting at the High school.

NEW DEVELOPMENTS

Boston, Mass., Aug. 9.—As Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti approached one day nearer their doom developments in the world famous case came rapidly today. Police in the Roxbury district discovered circulars calling for a workers' general strike in protest against the executions of the prisoners, who are under respite until midnight Wednesday. Telegraphic requests were sent by the Sacco-Vanzetti defense committee to United States Senator Charles Sumner, Robert M. La Follette and Miss Jane Addams to hasten to President Coolidge at Rapid City, S. D., to wait as a delegation on the chief executive in order to demand that the federal government's alleged connection with the case as well as to urge him to follow President Wilson's precedent in the famous Mooney case by making a federal inquiry.

WIRE LINDBERGH

The defense committee also telegraphed Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, asking him to appeal to the President to appoint a commission of inquiry. European goodwill created by the trans-Atlantic flyer was being destroyed by the pending execution of Sacco and Vanzetti, wired the committee, appealing in the humanitarian ideals of Lindbergh's father.

Decision Vanishes Last Vestige of Hope for Radical in Massachusetts—Now Apply to U. S. Supreme Court—Boston Prepared for An Emergency.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 9.—Two men, said by police to be "bombers" from New York, were under arrest this afternoon, police believing they had nipped in the bud a bomb plot on the life of Governor Alvin T. Fuller, who handed down an adverse decision in the celebrated case of Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti.

Dedham, Mass., Aug. 9.—Judge Webster Thayer, for seven years storm center in the famous case of Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti, today in a decision in Norfolk County Superior Court, denied the two defendants motions for a stay and revocation of sentences.

Judge Thayer had previously denied Sacco and Vanzetti a new trial. The decision appeared to vanish the last vestige of hope of saving the lives of Sacco and Vanzetti via the Massachusetts courts. An "eleventh hour" appeal to the United States courts was said by defense forces to be ready.

Telephone Clerk

Judge Thayer wrote the momentous decision at his Worcester home, which was closely guarded. This noon, while a deputy sheriff was enroute from Worcester to the Court House with the document, Judge Thayer telephoned to the clerk of the Superior Court, informing him of the nature of the decision.

Little Excitement

When the news was made known at the court house unusual quiet reigned, in marked contrast to the heavy police detail at the hearing all yesterday afternoon when Judge Thayer from the bench made his first public denial of the charge that he was prejudiced against Sacco and Vanzetti because of their radical opinions. This alleged prejudice was the basis of the request for the three motions.

Today police guarded each corner of the Court House and that was all. Judge Thayer's decision was immediately telephoned to Defense Counsel Arthur D. Hill at his office in Boston and to Attorney General Arthur K. Reading, the latter representing Thayer from the United States proceedings in the Sacco-Vanzetti case. Stenographers were at the Court House ready to transcribe copies of the decision and to rush them to Boston by fast automobile.

The local plant employs about 75 hands. The main plant at Addison has just recently been equipped with new machinery so that a light underwearer material can be manufactured.

In executive session the Selectmen decided that the highway lines were so complicated in this section that investigation was necessary.

Academy Street Grading. Joseph Tedford, local milk dealer, of Academy street, appeared before the board with a petition for the grading of Academy street from Park to Pitkin streets.

Sidewalk and curbing assessments were laid against properties on Norman, Spring, School and Eldridge streets without objection.

The State Highway department through Executive Deputy Commissioner Clinton G. Nichols informed the Selectmen that the town's share of the state aid appropriation for highways must be applied for before October 15.

Mrs. John B. Spencer informed the Selectmen that an error of $1,000 in the valuation of property in her name had been made by the assessors and she wanted a rebate. The error had been admitted by Assessor John Jensen, Mrs. Spencer stated. The letter was referred to the Board of Assessors.

The highway committee will visit Pine Hill street tomorrow to try to solve the road problem there. Each storm washes the roadbed out and leaves most of the gravel on the sidewalks on Main street.

signed "Sacco-Vanzetti Strike Committee." It read: "Strike for freedom for Sacco and Vanzetti. The last day strike begins at noon Tuesday. Only the workers' protest can save us. Come to the following halls and be assigned for picket duty."

The defense committee appealed to Senator Borah as chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. The message stated that "Sacco and Vanzetti have become international symbols of American justice, and goodwill toward the United States will be professedly impaired in Europe and America if these men are executed while the United States government has evidence in its possession bearing on their innocence. We are appealing to you, as chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, as well as to William E. Borah, humanitarian. We believe a Federal investigation opening the Department of Justice files will bring out the two radicals' freedom."

The telegrams to Senator Borah, Senator La Follette and Miss Addams then went on to explain that Sacco and Vanzetti had been sought because it was alleged, they belonged to the Gallieni group of anarchists, Vanzetti being a contributor to Cronaca Sovversiva, the Gallieni paper published in Lynn.

Miss Ann Strickland of Highland Park returned home last night from the American Foundation camp at Mountain View, N. H., where for the past six weeks she has been acting as secretary.

SONS OF ST. GEORGE HOLD CONVENTION

John Alley Heads Order—Secretary Resigns—Rockville Notes.

(Special to The Herald)

Rockville, Aug. 9. A large number of delegates from throughout the state were in the city today attending the annual convention of the American Order of St. George. At 8 a. m. a reception committee was on hand in Foresters' hall to greet the delegates and serve breakfast to those who had traveled many miles to arrive in time for the first session. The first session was called to order by Grand President Walter Dugmore of Hartford at 9:30 and after a few preliminaries, election of officers took place when John Alley, a past president of the local order and for the past year Grand Vice-president for the state, was elected and installed to the office of Grand President of the state order. Howard Hewitt, past president of General Kitchener Lodge, was also honored and installed to the office of assistant messenger. After installation, Mayor John P. Cameron gave a few words of welcome and handed over the keys of the city to the delegates.

At the close of the morning session, the members attending the convention were served a chicken dinner at 1:30 at the Rockville House. The menu was as follows: canteloupe, chicken soup, broiled chicken, celery, olives and radishes, heart of lettuce salad, string beans, mashed potatoes, corn pudding, sponge and fruit cake, and coffee.

Following their bountiful repast, they returned to the meeting room where important matters were discussed and disposed of and the convention was adjourned in session as The Herald went to press.

John Alley, newly elected grand president of the state has always been a faithful and conscientious worker for the good of the order. His past experience as president and grand vice president and other important offices he has held will enable him to carry on the work of the state organization in a most creditable manner.

The committee in charge of the convention was composed of past presidents and great credit is due them. The committee follows: general chairman, John Alley; secretary, Sydney Little; banquet, Joseph Moss, John Williams, Howard Hewitt; badger, Fred Nutland, John Hewitt and Reginald Kent.

The report of the grand secretary, George E. Whatnall, who has held this position for the past seventeen years made known that it was his last report as he wished to resign and devote his attention to other business.

His report showed that there was cash on hand at the starting of the year of $1,505.53, and the expenses for this fund, the sick benefit fund, had been $1,125.93, leaving a balance in the sick benefit fund of $378.88. In the general fund on June 1, 1926 there was $193.18 and this year $1,232.21.

Membership Decreases

Of the number that had left the order during the year, sixty-four were suspended, one expelled, one withdrew by card. There were 42 initiated, in the present membership of 2,448 there are 320 in arrears, 115 honorary members and 608 past presidents.

The funds in the hands of the treasurer, either on hand or in banks or invested amounts to $40,462.08.

BAND OVER NORTH TOMORROW NIGHT

Legion Concert and Ball Game on Community Club's Grounds.

Dillworth-Cornell Post No. 102 of the American Legion has planned a big night for the Community club tomorrow evening, and anticipates a large crowd to be on the Community Club grounds.

There will be a baseball game starting at 6 p. m. sharp, between the local Post of the Legion and the Stanley Dobosz post of Rockville. In its first game the local Post was defeated by the Cheney Brothers A. A. team by the score of 12 to 6, but this should not be considered as a criterion of the strength of the local team. New players have been taken on with the result of rounding out a team which should prove capable of playing good ball. Rockville has had a team clamoring for a game with the local Post. Chairman Lorch of the local committee advised Manager Zimmerman, at a recent committee meeting, to muster his strongest team for if Rockville cannot play at this time, one of the best teams in town is ready to fill in.

Comments regarding the concert held on the West Side were so favorable, and after meeting the representative of the Community Club, it was decided to repeat with the Rockville Band. This band has a repertoire of classical and modern concert music which satisfies its listeners.

This concert is the forerunner of three now scheduled, with the next on the West Side on August 17, and the third on the Cottage street grounds on August 31. There will be the usual collections and sale of refreshments.

The Legion does not desire to have a surplus in the treasury from the concert, therefore, any profits made will divert to the people of Manchester in the form of more or better concerts.

LOCAL SACCO-VANZETTI SYMPATHIZERS GIVE UP

No Disposition Here to Participate in Threats or Violent Demonstrations.

Manchester sympathizers with Sacco and Vanzetti, due to die in the electric chair at Charlestown, Massachusetts, tomorrow unless some unexpected development should arise, have obviously given up hope and with considerable calmness have accepted the final determination of Governor Fuller and his advisory committee as settling the matter. The most pronounced of these sympathizers, naturally, have been among the Italian residents, but so far as this town is concerned there has been shown no disposition whatever on the part of these people, to take part in protests of a violent or threatening nature.

There is even considerable feeling among local Italians, as expressed by some of them, that even if Sacco and Vanzetti have suffered from a prejudice against radicals they have themselves largely to thank for their plight. At all events, there is no indication here of any trace of the ugliness being displayed by Sacco-Vanzetti sympathizers in some of the larger centers.

It was stated in some of the New York papers this morning that according to radical sympathizers in that city thousands of New Yorkers intended to make their way to Boston today to take part in some sort of demonstration against the executions, and that many of them would travel by motor bus. Up to noon today no such groups had passed through Manchester, though the route through this town is said to be the shortest between the two cities, by many miles. If the New York radicals are motoring to Boston at all they are going some other and longer way.

RAINS CAN'T STOP CIRCUS DEPARTURE

Gets Off Nearly on Time Despite Mirings and Desertion of Few Laborers.

The circus came to Manchester and went away again. But its departure was hindered by the presence of some nasty wet weather and considerable trouble was experienced in bringing the great wagons from the circus lot to the trains at Depot Square.

Christy Brothers, who have had rainy weather ever since they started out from Houston, Tex., early in the spring, thought they would enjoy fair weather in Manchester. They got into town on Sunday with the sun shining but before their performance last night rain began to fall and continued all evening.

The big top did not leak for it had been covered recently with a preparation of gasoline and paraffine. So much rainy weather had been encountered on the trek from the south that an opportunity to coat the canvas with the waterproofing solution did not present itself until the circus came to Manchester.

Parking Space Filled.
Several thousand people came to the circus grounds despite the wet weather and special cars between Depot Square and Hickey's Grove, the circus lot, were crowded. Automobiles filled every parking space for half a mile or more on Oakland street on each side of the lot and people in the neighborhood who had space in their back yards accommodated many more cars.

The tent was pretty well filled before the evening performance started and the large crowd awaited anxiously the first numbers. They began shortly after 8:15 and continued without a break until the show was over.

It showed that the Christy Brothers circus, although not comparable with the bigger shows, was one of quality. An excellent performance was given, especially by the trained animals, of which there was a large number.

Acrobats, tightrope walkers, iron-jawed women who hung by their teeth to ropes suspended from the roof of the tent, funny clowns and hard riding men and women made the show something worth the time and money spent in seeing it.

Particularly interesting among the animal acts were two tightrope feats executed by a mountain goat and a little pomeranian dog. Both animals walked across a double wire high up in the tent and back again without a slip.

The big tent was being struck before the last member of the audience had left and some of the big baggage wagons were already on their way to the station when the first customer emerged. Muddy ground, churned into a quagmire by the feet of people and horses, made the going hard and rough.

A small tractor was used to help out some of the bigger wagons which were in danger of becoming mired. Horses pulled valiantly and men helped them along with their shoulders to the wheels. Elephants were stationed at the rear of some of the wagons to lend their strength to that of the horses.

James Foley's Yellow Cab became mired and one of the elephants was used to give it a push out of the mud. The animal got out in the jig time but put a dent in the rear of the body. At the train three of the wagons were put on in the wrong order and had to be taken off and rearranged. The elephants were used again and little time was lost.

Only Little Late.
The departure from Manchester was made on almost scheduled time but the weather and the mud made the start a little bit late. Traffic was held up at Depot Square for several minutes at intervals while the wagons were loaded on the railroad cars.

As is usual, some of the "razor-backs," or all around laborers, left the circus at Manchester and looked for work on some of the tobacco farms here. It was said that fifteen men left but it is understood that this number would not make any appreciable difference in the handling of the circus for there are three or four hundred people employed all together.

Tobacco farmers here said today that they had had no applications for employment from circus workers, so far as they knew. One tobacco farmer said that there might have been such applications but as they were not in the habit of investigating their workers' antecedents they were not sure whether some new workers were circus men or not.

MAYHOP TOMORROW
Le Bourget Aerodrome, France, Aug. 9.—There was a flurry of excitement at the Le Bourget Aerodrome today as indications increased that the Bellanca monoplane Columbia may hop off early tomorrow on its return flight to New York.

The mechanics at the Columbia's hangar were engaged in putting the finishing touches to the big plane, although Marcel Drouhin, Levine's French pilot, declared the field would still be too soggy and wet from the recent heavy rain for a take-off tomorrow morning.

Encyclopedia Britannica says:

THE Encyclopedia Britannica makes the following enlightening statement: "This beneficial, cooling beverage produces a feeling of buoyancy and exhilaration."

The delicious flavor of YUBAN is sufficient reason in itself for the feeling of gaiety that accompanies a steaming cup of this tempting beverage. But Yuban-enthusiasts are glad to know, in addition, that wise men pronounce it "beneficial".

How to Make Good Coffee

Yuban comes in the whole bean or clean-cut ground form. The clean-cut ground is primarily adapted for the plain coffee pot and the whole bean for the Yuban coffee pot. Yuban produces 50 cups of delicious coffee from one pound of Yuban.

Keep Eliminative System Active

Good Health Requires Good Elimination.

ONE can't feel well when there is a retention of poisonous waste in the blood. This is called a toxic condition, and is apt to make one tired, dull and languid. Other symptoms are sometimes toxic backaches and headaches. That the kidneys are not functioning properly is often shown by scanty or burning passage of secretions. Many people have learned the value of Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, when the kidneys seem functionally inactive. Everywhere one finds enthusiastic Doan's users. Ask your neighbor!

TUESDAY, AUGUST 9.

THE END

The Sacco-Vanzetti case may be, probably is, a closed book as far as the state of Massachusetts and the American federal courts are concerned.

It is our disposition to regard the whole affair as in the past tense, an accomplished and completed episode.

Such condemnation of the Sacco-Vanzetti remonstrants is, in many cases, outrageously unfair.

There are any number of persons who were extremely reluctant to throw in with the radicals in a demand for a retrial of the Braintree case, but whose consciences compelled them to do so.

It is not our belief and never has been our belief that Judge Thayer knowingly contributed to the destruction of two innocent men.

Our position has been that we could not see with their eyes. Just as impossible is it for them to see with eyes like ours.

So be it. Sacco and Vanzetti are to die, no doubt, tomorrow. They will not be the first, by many millions, to die unjustly even if they are innocent.

Meantime there is no sympathizer with Sacco and Vanzetti, on any honest grounds, who will not stand with all governments against the swarm of anarchists and destructionists who are using this case for their own evil ends.

been through an agonizing jangle with Britain and Japan over the question of naval "parity" and in the course of that rumpus the experts representing America insisted over and over again that, unless Great Britain came off her high horse in the cruiser matter the United States would have to embark in a huge campaign of ship building in order to keep our naval strength at the safety point.

This in itself is sufficient to start the head-whirling. It would seem to indicate that it should be Britain, rather than the United States, that is seeking parity.

But not half so bewildering is this apparent contradiction as that it is to the fact of the Lexington carrying 106 fighting airplanes that the navy attributes her enormous potentialities. It is not her eight 8-inch guns nor her dozen 5-inch guns that are to sweep a first class battle fleet from the seas, if the job ever comes her way.

Here we find the navy chuckling over the possession of exactly the instrument of ruin which Billy Mitchell lost his job for insisting was about to make surface ships obsolete in war.

LINDY'S INSURRECTION If Lindbergh should, by any inconceivable and wretched mischance, meet with a tumble in the future, no matter how remote, there is a national women's organization that will know to what to attribute it.

Of course the good, blundering souls will be "terribly disappointed" in Lindy after this. It is conceivable that some of them may even arrive at the conclusion that, since the nation's hero is obviously bent on going to the devil, perhaps it would be better if his plans should crick up pretty soon, and he himself be converted into a snow white angel, before he has time to slide down to the point where he, too, like Chamberlain, might drink a glass of beer.

Personally our sympathies in the affair run straight to Lindbergh. We can imagine nothing more disconcerting to a red blooded young man, hero or otherwise, than to be touted as a masculine Little Eva.

Senator Gillett is one of the most loyal individuals on earth—and one of the most circumspect. Entering the Senate at a rather advanced age and after a long career in which fidelity to his party and to his political friends had governed his every act, he occupied a position where he might naturally have expected to become the President's spokesman on the floor of the Senate.

instead of kicking over the traces or grousing about the situation, quietly assumed his place in the ranks and has never wavered an iota in his sincere support of the administration.

It is probable that, in spite of his apparent submergence, there is no senator who more fully enjoys the confidence of President Coolidge than the senior senator from his own state.

This being the case, and it likewise being emphatically true that Senator Gillett is about the last person in the upper house to go off at half cock or make an illy considered statement of any kind about some other person's affairs, it may be pretty well accepted that, when he now declares emphatically that President Coolidge means to quit, he is talking by the book and with authority.

And when Senator Gillett goes to the extraordinary length—for him—of naming Charles Evans Hughes and Herbert Hoover, in that order, as his choices for a successor to Mr. Coolidge, it is hardly too much to assume that he is, to some extent, at least, reflecting the mind of the President as to available nominees.

New York, Aug. 9.—Grownups may get that "New York attitude," but youngsters stay youngsters pretty much the world over. They make neighborhood affairs of everything—whether it's a Christmas tree in Broadway, the opening night of the grand opera, a symphony at Carnegie Hall, or a little theater in Greenwich Village.

Wandering through the Village mazes to the tiny Grove Street Theater the other night, I found the regimented forces of the neighborhood gathered in front. It was a hot night and windows and doors were thrown open. Gamins clustered the sidewalk trying to get a peep, and women raked habits to the strains of the jazz band orchestrating inside.

Quick of wit and ingenious are these youngsters, particularly in the ways of picking up an extra penny or two. If you are a stranger and would be steered to those basement eating emporiums where wine may still be had with meals, just listen to the small boys of any of the side streets that run away from Greenwich Village into the Italian section.

And when he has escorted you to the door he will recite: "Gotta coupla extra pennies, mister?" And every street has a similar assortment.

More and more the little theaters are turning up material for Broadway. Here you see youngsters in their mid-teens, with a suggestion of amateurishness and sophomoric clinging to them, struggling in little out-of-the-way places that can't get on anywhere else. A season ago Betty Starbuck was doing her songs and dances with the little Garrick Gaities group, those cute youngsters of the Theater Guild. Today she's in the "big league."

A couple of seasons ago Lorenz Hart and Dick Rogers swung into town from college, their ukes under their arms. After being frowned on by Broadway, they showed up with one of the "words and music" writers. They've made fortunes since then and their "words and music" are sought by many a producer.

Joseph Lawren is captain of the "New York Little Grove Street crew. An odd character, Lawren! A shrewd business man who makes plenty of money in real estate and spends it in promoting "art for art's sake."

Now he has a little theater of his own and is happy. GILBERT SWAN.

I am content, I do not care. Was as it will the world for me! When fuses and fets was all my fare it got no ground that could see; So when away my caring went I counted cost and was content. —John Byron: Careless Content.

WASHINGTON LETTER

This is the last of three articles dealing with the present condition of prohibition and enforcement. The stories are an up-to-date summary of some of the broader aspects of an important situation.

By RODNEY DUTCHER

Washington, Aug. 9.—The great "wet and dry" war has come to resemble the state of affairs which prevailed so long on the western front.

The Anti-Saloon League army, after pushing forward to brilliant victory, has dug itself in and is on the defensive, seeking and expecting to hold its advance.

Fighting Al Smith Their great object right now is to prevent a possible stampede in the Democratic party for the nomination of Al Smith.

Millions of copies of the pamphlet "Al Smith's record as Tammany legislator and governor" have been sent out over the country, according to the league's headquarters here, and these will be followed by millions more.

"We don't believe the Democrats can win the election in any event," says the aforementioned official whose name cannot be used.

"The defense position is always the hardest. The wets come at us like so many mosquitoes and annoy them all at once, even though they make no headway. Dry fanatics are among our worst enemies. Our 'lunatic fringe' outside the league is constantly making absurd statements which are good targets for the other side."

The league, our informant continued, laughed at the rumor that Republican politicians had decided to let up on prohibition enforcement.

Against the league, the only organization of importance which has appeared is the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment. The association, however, is not to be compared with the league as regards its influence or organized support.

That being the case, prohibition remains the law and the whole question boils down to whether prohibition in this country will be enforced more effectively, less effectively or just about the same.

Life's Niceties HINTS ON ETIQUET

1. During a dinner dance, should the men rise every time a woman leaves and returns to the table?

The WOMAN'S DAY by ALLENE SUMNER

This bright saying came forth from a national business woman's convention: "Bachelors are selfish or they wouldn't be bachelors. They're afraid of assuming the obligations of man. We have a deeper sense of moral responsibility than men."

Something that struck me funny, coming as it did from a band of several thousand business and professional women, most of whom were led to believe, are that very thing because they, too, have not assumed the obligations of woman.

And yet I recognize the possibility that these women may be what they are, not from choice, but from necessity. I realize that what may make them bitter at the bachelors is that they who could be choosers will not be, and that in necessity hereof women are kept in the single state.

To quote another delegate—"The modern girl seldom finds a man who meets with her approval as a comrade and who still earns as much as she does."

She does her own choosing, you see, and evades as many responsibilities by this choice as the man whom she chastises!

Another delegate said—"Both men and women would marry if they could. It is all a question of romance which some never find and others do."

A man is more easily kidded into thinking that he has found it, which is why there are fewer bachelors than bachelor girls!

The high cost of flapperism was read in a tale brought into court in a certain city by a bankruptcy petitioner, of a stenographer who listed her liabilities as $1,104 and her assets at $25. Inasmuch as the liabilities were debts owed sellers of hats and dresses, coats and shoes, jewelry and perfumes, it was hard to learn where these treasures were, if the lady listed only $25 worth. Probably the old story of "not a thing fit to wear."

Speaking of clothes one wonders what in the world the Japanese flapper who may never permit the same people, save those with whom she works to see the same costume twice, does your vivid picture of a Japanese girl's life is given in the clever new novel, "The Honorable Picnic," by Rucart.

"I can keep the same parasol I wore day before yesterday; the foreign gentleman did not see it open," writes the little flapper of the Cherry Blossom Kingdom.

There are other trials too. Certain colors and styles may be worn only by women of certain ages and rank. "Foreign gentlemen" who do not know this seem in the habit of bestowing "obis" and kimonos of colors that the lady of their choice may not wear for 20 years.

MAKE-UP FOR EVENING By Mme. Anne Gerarde Use the same methods of make-up for evening. But the artificial lights call for heavier make-up than glazing sun.

Several little make-up touches can be added to your daytime scheme that give added allure for evening.

Add a touch of rouge to the lobes of your ears and you will find face. Put a bit of rouge inside each nostril. It will give your nose a narrower and straighter look and will make your nostrils appear more delicately sensitive.

If your chin is small, touch it with rouge and it will gain definition and, seemingly, size. Never put drops in the eyes to increase their brilliance. But rest before dressing, with pads of witchhazel over the eyes and they will look fresher. Proper make-up will emphasize this.

Good Nature and Good Health

By DR. MORRIS FISHBEN, One of the saddest spectacles in the afflictions of mankind is early blindness caused by improper care of the eyes in new-born infants.

The National Committee for the Prevention of Blindness has been giving attention to this subject for many years, and reports that the amount of blindness for 1926 due to the infection of the eyes in childbirth was 12.9 per cent, a gradual reduction from 23 per cent in 1908 to 1912.

The venereal diseases continue to be responsible, however, for most of the blindness from which human beings suffer, since other venereal conditions are responsible for loss of sight besides that which causes the common type of blindness of infancy.

Home Page Editorial A FABLE About a Mother and Daughter

By Olive Roberts Barton Once upon a time there was a woman who took it into her head that her husband did not understand her. Nothing original about that, of course, but this woman believed herself to be an unusual person.

Later Mother went to him, a conscious flush on her face, "I see it all now, John. You were right all along."

Mothers and fathers, too, may often learn their own shortcomings if they observe their children.

"We are selling used cars as a direct result of the every day advertising we are doing, and have been doing for some time on the Herald Classified Page. It has been demonstrated to us, beyond question, that daily advertising pays best and is the right and only way to get the desired results. NOW YOU Ask One

THREE GUESSES

These three guess quizzes go well in mid-summer, as they don't require so much heavy thinking. Answers for today's questions are on another page.
1-What Country is known as 'The Land of the Rising Sun,' Korea, Japan, or China.
2-Is the Statue of Liberty on Bedloe's Island, Staten Island, or Manhattan Island?
3-Is a United States census taken every year, every ten years or every five years?
4-Was Crousus a rich man, a poor man, or a beggar?
5-Was Andrew Carnegie an Englishman, or Scotchman, or a Welshman?
6-Is the largest of the Great Lakes, Lake Michigan, Lake Erie, or Lake Superior?
7-Is Allah the supreme being of the Aztecs, the Buddhists, or the Mohammedans?
8-Is the world's most famous passion play, dealing with the last days of Christ's life, given in Geneva, Oberammergau, or Rome?
9-Is the calory a unit of light, a unit of electricity, or a unit of heat?
10-Was the first draft of Declaration of Independence written by Benjamin Franklin, John Adams, or Thomas Jefferson?
Judge: "What is the man charged with?"
Officer: "Intoxication, your honor."
Prisoner: "Judge, I'm as sober as you are this minute."
Judge: "Pleads guilty. Ten days! Next case!"
SILENCE HAS ITS POINTS
Tacturnity's best, on the whole. As a safety rule nothing can match it;
Though confession is good for the soul,
Let a husband try this and he'll catch it.
Those who take no chances have to take what's left by those who do.

SENSE and NONSENSE

Definition: Concentration is a person's ability to keep his eyes on the cards in a strip poker game.

A lot of folks who are against prohibition manage to stagger along under it just the same!

Two old Scotchmen were crying on the street corner the other day because they had spent their youth together.

Money made the mare go, but an auto makes the money go.

Speaking of polecats, the anonymous insulting letter writing variety is the most offensive.

John came home and Mary met him at the door—all smiles.

"John, dear, you can't say I'm extravagant this time. I bought a real bargain today."

"Bought something for nothing, I suppose," growled John.

"Yes, I suppose I really bought something for nothing—I bought you a birthday present."

GOOD-BYE WILLIE!

"I shall die," throbbled the suitor, "unless you consent to marry me."

"I'm sorry," said the maiden kindly but firmly, "but I will not marry you."

So the fellow went out West and after sixty-two years, three months and a day became suddenly ill and died.

A newspaper recently printed an editorial on "The Decline of Fishing." In this section the decline has been only in catching.

Two can live as cheaply as one; therefore, get married and bring down the High Cost of Living.

Teacher: "Take this sentence: Let the cow be taken out of the pasture. What mood?"

Pupil: "The cow."

A fool and his married woman flirtation are soon started.

A wife is not experienced until she can tell if a man is pouting, or just being dignified.

Rastus, out in a boat with his best girl, Mandy, had been teasing for a kiss, but she refused him again and again. Finally he became desperate.

Mandy, he threatened, "effen you don't lemme kiss 'n' I'll gwine to upset dis here boat."

Getting home, Mandy told her mother all about it.

"An did you let de gemman kiss you?" her mother asked.

"Well, did you all see anything in de paper dis mawnin' 'bout two niggas drownin'?"

An "old friend" is the one who didn't lend you the money.

Strive to be a race horse, rather than a truck horse.

Those who take no chances have to take what's left by those who do.

Jack Lockwill at Summer Camp

by Gilbert Patten

The Indian boy sucked Buke Saunders' fist, and closed with him. Clutching the white bully round the body, he threw him with a leg lock. A grunt of astonishment came from Saunders as his big body crashed upon the ground. He had seized Tom Longpine, but the shock of the fall broke his hold, and the Indian snapped himself free and rose quickly to his feet.

"Don't let him get away!" shouted the assailant, scrambling up from the hard earth. "I'll smash him for that trick!" "You forced me to defend myself," said Tom.

Buke Saunders charged again. This time, however, he was careful not to let the young Indian grapple with him. Viciously, he struck low at Longpine's stomach.

Though the blow reached him, Tom leaped back in time to save himself from being hurt much. He sprang forward even more swiftly than he had retreated, and his moccasined foot smote Saunders fairly in the pit of the stomach, knocking him over backward. Then one of the other boys struck the Indian with a broken limb that had fallen from a dead tree. (To Be Continued)

THE TINYMITES

Story by HAL COCHRAN - Pictures by KNICK

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

It surely was a funny scene to watch the little submarine. The Tinies climbed around its sides, and scrambled up on top. Said Scouty, "We are soaking wet, but we are glad any minute that our taffy boat would drop.
And then they saw the taffy boat, which for a long time stayed afloat, just sort of drift right out of sight amid the whipped cream sea. It made the whole bunch feel real bad 'cause quite a dandy trip they'd had. Then Clowny said, "Oh, let's not cry. Be happy as can be."
"You're right," the queer sub captain cried. "Be cheerful lads, and come inside. I'll let you hang your wet clothes up so they can quickly dry." And in the sub the whole bunch went, and 'bout an hour or so was spent in drying clothes. The Tinies sat and watched them with a sigh.
They turned them round and round, and then, when all the bunch were dressed again, the captain served some bread and milk. Oh, gee, it tasted good! "That's good for any little man," the captain said. "Eat all you can." And that's just what the Tinies did because they knew they should.

When they had finished with their meal, wee Carp said, "I surely feel like running 'round and playing tag. I think that would be grand. "All right, my son," the captain cried. "We soon will end this little ride. If you will just be patient, I will take you up on land."
Wee Scouty's knowledge was real keen. Said he, "How can a submarine go up on land? That isn't what a submarine is for." But then they felt a bumpy bump. They all peeked out. It made them jump, for, through the window they could see that they were up on shore.

(The Tinymites meet another band of Goots in the next story.)

REPLACING POLES ON CENTER STREET

Men in the employ of the Manchester Electric Company are at work on Center street, working towards the Center from Pine street, replacing poles.

All of the poles on the south side of the street from Pine street junction to the Center have decayed near the base and while the storms of the last month have threatened their falling over they have so far withstood the strain.

It is not at all likely that the poles could carry the weight of the winter storms and to prevent this the construction crew of the Electric company started work this morning on replacing the poles. The first pole to be taken care of is at the point where the stairs come down the bank opposite the Edgewood House which will give a stronger brace between the pole at the junction of Pine and Center street and also to the pole at the railroad bridge. This will be done until all have been replaced up to the Center.

PROCRASTINATION

Isn't it peculiar why people will put off ordering coal until the last minute when they could just as well have their bins filled before the cold weather arrives?

It's human nature to put off until tomorrow what can be done today, but every sudden cold snap keeps us busy writing orders, each order stating "must be delivered at once."

All of which leads us to ask, have you ordered your winter supply of coal?

As necessary as your Gasoline and Oil

A WISE motorist before starting on a long journey first makes sure his car is in good order and that he has sufficient gas, oil and water. Equally wise is he who starts on his trip with the assurance of the safety of his funds.

In these days of outlawry and highway robbery, no motorist's funds are safe. Travelers Cheques present themselves as the perfect form of personal fund insurance and a protection in case of loss as well as theft. Similarly, the greatest number of losses and thefts of pocket money undoubtedly happen to those who thought their "roll" too small to protect. Losses of $200 or $100 all too often spell the ruin of a vacation or the shattering of a bulwark against a rainy day.

Travelers Cheques are peculiarly adapted to motorist's use because they are self-identifying. They are readily spendable at hotels, gasoline stations, stores—in fact, anywhere, at any time. A simple system of signing and countersigning protects the holder in case of loss or theft. Travelers Cheques are sold in convenient denominations at 75¢ per $100. Be sure the cheques you purchase are "blue."
