

RADICALS DIED AS THEY LIVED; FINAL SCENES

"Long Live Anarchy" Sacco Shouts—"I Am Innocent Of All Crime" Says Van- zetti Before Death Came.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 23.—Sacco and Vanzetti are dead—but the hue and cry of their dramatic passing rang round the world today.

The end of the seven years' fight for life by these convicted radicals—a fight unprecedented in American criminal procedure, and unprecedented, too, in its effect on world opinion—came in the early hours of this morning in drab old Charlestown prison.

The whining sing-song of an electric current whipped through their bodies and burned out their lives while the guns of 2,300 police encircled them to make sure they did not escape Massachusetts justice.

Nothing like it was ever witnessed in an American city. The streets of Boston and other cities saw marching and near-rioting in sympathy with them. From Kansas to Rio the radicals, martyrs of the condemned men and demanded their liberation. In London, Paris, Berlin and Moscow there were riotous demonstrations against the same in grim old Charlestown prison, and today their bodies lay on marble slabs in the North Grove Mortuary.

To the radicals of the world and to their sympathizers among the intellectuals, Sacco and Vanzetti were symbols of legalistic and capitalist oppression, and martyrs to the cause of political liberalism.

Anarchists Under Law.
To the law of Massachusetts, stern and unyielding as the Rock of Plymouth, they were a pair of anarchistic aliens who had perpetrated an unusually brutal crime in the murder of a factory paymaster and his guard at South Braintree, and who for seven years had managed to escape paying the penalty thereof.

They died as they lived—defiant, contemptuous of the "system" that took their lives, unrepentant, unorthodox, and protesting their innocence the end. They went to the chair with their heads up and their trend firm, unafraid and without benefit of clergy.

DEATH OF SACCO CAUSES TRAGEDY

Man Crazed Over News Fights Duel With Wife and Is Him- self Killed.

New York, Aug. 23.—Driven insane by the fate of Sacco and Vanzetti, according to police, Santo Calino, 37, attacked his wife with a table knife in their home at 217 Hudson Avenue, Brooklyn, this morning and was stabbed to death in a duel which followed. The wife, Amelia, 34, was taken to Cumberland hospital in a dying condition with 32 stab wounds. Police said she stabbed her husband 32 times with a carving knife in self-defense.

HOPE IS GIVEN UP FOR LOST PLANES

However The Navy Will Keep Up Pacific Search Until Thursday.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 23.—Hope for the five missing Dole flyers and their two would-be rescuers Captain Billy Erwin and Alvin Eichwald, had all but vanished with the coming of dawn today, one week after the ill-fated "Golden Eagle" and "Miss Droran," hopped off on their disastrous attempt to reach Honolulu.

Not a single authentic clue as to the fate of the three planes and their seven occupants has been found, despite the fact that innumerable naval vessels, planes and fishing smacks have searched every mile of the great circle between here and Hawaii.

Reluctantly friends of the missing flyers are resigning themselves to what seems to be inevitable. Sympathy centers on Miss Mildred Doran, 22-year-old Flin, Mich., school teacher, who was a passenger on the plane named for her, piloted by Augie Pedlar and navigated by Vilas Knope. Others missing are Pilot Jack Frost and Navigator Gordon Scott of the Hearst monoplane "Golden Eagle."

Despite the apparent futility of the search, the navy will "carry on" until Thursday, it was announced.

GARY WILL IS FILED; NO VALUATION GIVEN

Bequests Total More Than $2- 000,000—Personal Property Given At $10,000.

Minneapolis, N. Y., Aug. 23.—The will of the late Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of the United Steel Corporation, was filed here today. There was nothing in the document or the accompanying petition to indicate the value of the estate although specific bequests totaled more than $2,000,000.

SACCO SCARE IN N. Y.

New York, Aug. 23.—Two hundred panic stricken employees of the branch postoffice opposite City Hall fled from the building early today when the gasoline tank on a milk truck in front of the building exploded. A sheet of flame menaced several employees, but firemen extinguished the blaze with chemicals. Firemen believe a dropped cigarette caused the blaze.

At first it was believed that Sacco and Vanzetti sympathizers had set off a bomb.

FIGURES IN CELEBRATED CASE.

It was in brighter days that this photograph of Mrs. Nicola Sacco and her daughter Inez was made. Hopes of saving her husband from the chair then were strong. Now she is prostrated with suffering.

DEFENDER—Arthur D. Hill, Boston attorney retained to make the eleventh hour appeal to the courts in behalf of Sacco and Vanzetti.

GRIM TASK—To Warden William Hendry of the Massachusetts state prison at Charlestown fell the grim task of supervising the Sacco-Vanzetti electrocutions.

COOLIDGE SEES 'YELLOWSTONE' AT ITS FINEST

Presidential Party Visits Show Spot Of United States—Marvels At Won- drous Natural Scenery.

Yellowstone National Park, Wyo., Aug. 23.—President Coolidge set out today to see that portion of the Yellowstone National Park which the good folk of 1809 contemptuously and disbelievingly referred to as "Colter's Hell" and which it took an official expedition sixty years later to make them believe possibly could exist.

The executive's second day in America's scenic wonderland took him into regions where nature has performed her most ambitious feats of geologic drama.

All these marvels of the thermo phenomena, which John Colter, first white man to enter the region, sought so unsuccessfully to "sell" to an incredulous public, were visited in a one-day trip much fuller than that of the average tourist.

Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge and their son, John, arose to an early breakfast in order to encompass the second day tour. Motoring southward toward Old Faithful, the geyser paratory to further explorations of the park, the president's destination for the day was "Old Faithful," which once every hour erupts a column of water 150 feet in the air.

Next came the "Paint Pot," a remarkable natural cauldron some 40 and 60 feet in size with a mud rim four or five feet high, in which a mass of whitish mud bubbles constantly.

And then on through the gorgeous scenery of the Rockies to the geyser basins where subterranean volcanic streams force upper strata of water skyward through vents in the rocks.

The president's destination for the day was "Old Faithful," which once every hour erupts a column of water 150 feet in the air.

At first it was believed that Sacco and Vanzetti sympathizers had set off a bomb.

Can You Do The Kinkajou? It's Latest Dance Step

New York, Aug. 23.—"Kinkajou" will be the new ballroom dance for the coming season of 1937-38, supplanting the "Charleston."

The dancing master of America, who are in convention here today, gave the dance its official approval. The originator of "Kinkajou" is Mrs. Edna Rothard Passapae, of Newark, N. J., who explained that the new dance is made up of "the strut step, little side steps, a twinkle step, a little heel step, and a heel step in open position."

"The Dixie Stomp," a rafter-shaking importation from Chicago, and "The Lindbergh Glide," an aviation fox trot, were among the new dances that made a hit with the dancing masters.

"Lindbergh Glide." None has to be adept to accomplish "The Lindbergh Glide." This was exhibited by Myron G. Ryder, a sleek-haired dancing expert of

NEWS AGENCIES IN CONFERENCE

Independents Want "Open Door" Policy In The Mat- ter Of News From Europe.

Geneva, Aug. 23.—The demand of independent news agencies of the world for an "open door" in the matter of news dissemination promised at the preliminary discussions today to take precedence at the conference of press experts which opens here tomorrow under the auspices of the League of Nations, with the result that the draft of a proposed law concerning property rights in news will be sidetracked entirely.

The discussions today centered around the question of how far the independent news agencies, of which International News Service is one, will be able to go in forcing the conference of press experts to adopt a declaration in favor of equality for all news agencies, whether governmental or independent in character, in matters of distribution and dissemination of news.

Independent agencies expect to meet with opposition from the European and Asiatic governmental agencies and their allied American organizations.

Many preliminary conferences were in progress today, and indications were that the independent agencies may strive to force a record vote on the question of an "open door" in news distribution. It was reported that one or two South American delegates were ready to bolt the conference unless freedom for all press associations and

(Continued on Page 5)

RIOTS IN EUROPE BUT FEW IN AMERICA OVER RADICAL EXECUTIONS

Chaplin Divorce Cost Will Reach A Million

Los Angeles, Calif., Aug. 23.—The big studio tent of "The Circus" Charlie Chaplin's unfinished picture, was housed and staked out again today as the comedian, now a free man, prepared to resume his acting after an eight months' lay-off. Lita Grey Chaplin received an interlocutory decree of divorce from Chaplin yesterday.

Work—Resumed. Although Chaplin himself was expected to go today to Catalina Island for a short rest, other members of the cast of "The Circus" were ordered to take up work at once on the unfinished comedy. Chaplin and his supporting players, including Merna Kennedy, leading lady, stopped work on the picture when his wife sued for divorce eight months ago.

One Killed, 30 Injured In Geneva When Mob Of 5,000 Clash With Police— Extra Police Guards In London—Frisco, Boston And Chicago Report Small Riots.

Geneva, Aug. 23.—Extraordinary precautions were taken by the chief of police of Geneva today to ensure against any repetition of rioting such as ensued last night when 5,000 unruly Sacco-Vanzetti demonstrators clashed with police. One person was killed and thirty were wounded, five policemen among the latter, during the fighting.

The chief of police announced he was prepared to call out the civil guard and parade troops through the streets, armed with machine guns, if necessary, to quell a Communist demonstration scheduled for two o'clock this afternoon.

A drenching rain was sweeping the city today, and it was believed that this would aid the police in holding down the ardor of the demonstrators.

As far as it was possible to learn, no American citizens were among the riot casualties, although a party of Americans were in the Kursaal when the mob stoned the offices of the United States steamship line, an American shoe store and moving picture theaters at which American films were shown.

IN LONDON
London, Aug. 23.—Two thousand policemen were detailed today to guard the United States Embassy and to prevent hostile Sacco-Vanzetti demonstrations following the midnight outbreak when 500 sympathizers of the two executed men attempted to march upon the embassy and Buckingham palace.

Some of the police were actively on guard; others were within easy reach in the event of riotous demonstrations.

The attempt to march upon the embassy and the king's palace followed a mass meeting in Hyde Park. When the mob reached the Mall near St. James' palace—the home of the Prince of Wales—mounted police rode into the ranks scattering the marchers. There were no casualties.

The Class War Prisoners Association plans a memorial service for Sacco and Vanzetti in Hyde Park tonight.

The red flag was flying at half mast throughout the day over the headquarters of the Independence Labor Party in Westminster, in mourning for Sacco and Vanzetti.

A. J. ("Emperor") Cook, leader of last year's coal miners' strike, and George Lansbury, another prominent labor leader, were aggressive in arranging for tonight's protest meeting.

SPORADIC OUTBREAKS
Boston, Mass., Aug. 23.—Sporadic outbreaks marked the passing from the earthly stage of Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti. In the city of Webster, in Worcester county, an explosion, believed by police to be dynamite, ripped up a piece of the sidewalk near the postoffice.

(Continued on Page 5)

ONE-MAN TROLLEYS TO START SUNDAY

Economy Crews To Handle Cars From Burnside East, And Burke's Switch Be- yond.

One-man cars will begin operation on the South Manchester lines on Sunday from East Hartford to this town, according to an announcement made today. The cars will be operated by two-man crews from Hartford to Comstock Hall at the junction of Main street and Burnside avenue in East Hartford and from that point to the terminus here will be in charge of a single operator.

On the Stafford and Rockville lines the two-man crews will run the cars from Hartford to Burke's switch, just east of Rockville, and from that point on the cars will be run by one man.

No Time Changes.
The Manchester and Rockville lines will not be affected as far as service and running time are concerned. This statement was made a week ago by N. J. Scott, general manager, to set at rest the worries of some commuters who feared that the service might be curtailed.

These two lines, however, are not the only ones in the Hartford division which are being affected by the retraining policy decided on by the company. Other lines which will see changes are the Middletown and Rainbow, the latter extending up through Windsor.

Automobile traffic is cutting into the revenues of the Connecticut Company, it is admitted, and the summer months show that an increase in the motor traffic has resulted in a marked decrease in the number of passengers on the street cars.

Officials have pointed before to the practice of automobile owners who carry from one to five passengers to Hartford each day. Some motorists, it is said, charge their amounts to approximately the cost of riding on the trolleys six trips each week. It is estimated that the Connecticut Company loses as much as $50 weekly through the automobile in this town and in Rockville.

Such a practice is illegal under the laws of Connecticut, the trolley people say, first because these motor vehicles are not usually listed under the head of public conveyances, and also because of the Connecticut Company's exclusive franchise to carry passengers between Manchester and Hartford over the route on which its tracks are laid. Buses making the trip from points east of Manchester have at times, it is said, accepted passengers from the Center to Hartford, but the full fare from the Bolton line was charged in these cases.

(Continued on Page 5)

WIFE AND SISTER HEAR TRAGIC NEWS

Miss Vanzetti And Mrs. Sac- co Scream In Anguish When Word Comes At Midnight.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 23.—Piercing shrieks re-echoed through South Russell street, West End, as Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti went to their doom this morning.

In the South Russell street apartment of friends, Miss Luigia Vanzetti, who had crossed the seas from Italy to bid farewell to her "Barto," and Mrs. Rosa Sacco, the brave and loyal wife of Barto's comrade, received the terrible news. It was relayed to them by telephone from state's prison, where the Charles river in Charlestown.

The cries of anguish of the two grief-stricken women, perhaps the most pathetic figures in the Sacco and Vanzetti case, awoke the neighborhood. Many residents went to the streets.

A crowd soon gathered outside the apartment house.

A detachment of police kept the crowd at a respectful distance from the house. Later members of the Sacco-Vanzetti defense committee arrived to console Miss Vanzetti and Mrs. Sacco.

"Death watches" had been kept at the two Sacco-Vanzetti headquarters in a modest building on Hanover street in the north end, more than 100 men and women gathered. Every race and creed, every walk in life, gathered to hear the word that the two men had gone to eternity. This six years of labor by the defense committee and women was over—they had lost.

Aldino Fellicani, who organized the committee, nervously paced back and forth across the little room, with his wooden tables and single battered typewriter, from

(Continued on Page 5)

(Continued on Page 5)

5 FIREMEN OVERCOME AT BRISTOL BLAZE

Grain Warehouse Destroyed With Loss Of $25,000—All Companies Called Out.

Bristol, Conn., Aug. 23.—Bristol's entire fire department was recovering today from the effects of a general-alarm fire that kept the men busy practically all night after destroying the warehouse of the Bristol Grain & Supply Co., on North Main street, and causing a loss of about $25,000. Five firemen, overcome as they were, "king on" the interior of the building and rescued by companions, had recovered today from the effects of their experience.

The fire started in a long hay storage shed behind the main grain elevator from unknown cause and spread to the elevator itself where a system of chutes used to distribute grain were converted into lines that carried fire all over the structure.

5 FIREMEN OVERCOME AT BRISTOL BLAZE

Grain Warehouse Destroyed With Loss Of $25,000—All Companies Called Out.

Bristol, Conn., Aug. 23.—Bristol's entire fire department was recovering today from the effects of a general-alarm fire that kept the men busy practically all night after destroying the warehouse of the Bristol Grain & Supply Co., on North Main street, and causing a loss of about $25,000. Five firemen, overcome as they were, "king on" the interior of the building and rescued by companions, had recovered today from the effects of their experience.

The fire started in a long hay storage shed behind the main grain elevator from unknown cause and spread to the elevator itself where a system of chutes used to distribute grain were converted into lines that carried fire all over the structure.

MAY LEAVE TODAY

Curtis Field, N. Y., Aug. 23.—Old Glory, the monoplane sponsored by William Randolph Hearst, may leave today on its expedition to Rome and return. The pilots, Lloyd Bertaud and James Hill, were waiting only for a favorable west wind. Weather reports indicated favorable weather over most of their 4,300 mile route.

OIL PRICE DROPS

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 23.—Buckeye crude oil dropped ten cents to $2.25 per barrel, on the Pittsburgh market today. All others were unchanged.

HAYMAKERS TO MEET

Middletown, Conn., Aug. 23.—The Connecticut State Haymakers Association will hold its annual meeting here on September 24, according to announcement made here today.

Local Stocks

(Furnished by Putnam & Co.)

	Bid	Asked
Bank Stocks
City Bank & Tr	685
Capitol Natl Bank	265	285
Conn River	300
First Bond and Mort	54	58
Hart Natl Bk & Tr	450	460
Hid-Conn Tr Co	700	730
Land Mtg & Title	59
Morris Plan Bank	140
Park St Tr	480
Phoenix St B	410
Riverside Trust	450
Bonds
Hfd & Conn West 6	95
East Conn Power	101	102
Conn L P 4 1/2	98
Hart E L 7 1/2	370	375
Conn L P 5 1/2	107 1/2	110
Brid Hyd 5 1/2	103	105
Insurance Stocks
Aetna Insurance	600	610
Aetna Sure	900	920
Aetna Life	665	675
Conn Gen	170	1740
Automobile	270	280
Hart Fire	625	635
Hart St Bldg	700
Lincoln Nat Life	88	95
National Fire	885	870
Phoenix	453	465
Travelers	410	1425
Public Utility Stocks
Conn L P 8 1/2	120	123
Conn L P 7 1/2	116	119
Green Wat & Gas	99 1/2	101
Hart El Light	385	390
Hart Gas com	62
Hrt Gas pd	9	10
Hart Gas rts	9	10
S O N E Tel Co	164	168
Conn El Ser pd	76	78
Manufacturing Stocks
American Hrd	81 1/2	83
American Silver	25	29
Acme Wire	13	17
Billings Spencer com	3
Billings Spencer pd	3
Bigelow Hart com	92	94
Bristol Brass	105
Collins Co	110
Colt Firearms	27 1/2	28 1/2
Eagle Lock	92	100
Fair Bearing	102	106
Hart & Cooley	190
Inter Silver com	170	175
Inter Silver pd	118	123
Land & Bow A	18	20
Mann & Bow A	17	20
do B	9	10
New Brit Ma pd A	103
do com	19	21
Niles Be Pond new	1
J R Mont pd	27	28 1/2
North & Judd	80	88
Pratt, Whitney pd	80
Peck, Stowe & Wilc	18	21
Russell Mfg Co	43	50
Smyth Mfg Co	55	58
Smolville Mfg	55	58
Stanley Works com	64	66
Stanley Works pd	27
Standard Sew	98 1/2	102
Torrington	79	81
Underwood	55	57
x U S Envelope pf	25	30
Union Mfg Co	25	30
Whitlock Coll Pipe	25

N. Y. Stocks

	High	Low	1 p. m.
Am Can	51 1/2	51 1/2	51 1/2
Allied Chem	157 1/2	157 1/2	157 1/2
Am Loco	113 1/2	113 1/2	113 1/2
Am Smelt	171 1/2	169 1/2	171
Am St Fdy	55 1/2	55	55 1/2
Am T & T	170 1/2	169 1/2	170
Am Woolen	22 1/2	22 1/2	22 1/2
Anacosta	195 1/2	195 1/2	195 1/2
Atchafson	258 1/2	258 1/2	258 1/2
Am Loco	258 1/2	258 1/2	258 1/2
B & O	121 1/2	120 1/2	121 1/2
Beth Steel	64 1/2	64	64 1/2
Ches & Ohio	192 1/2	192 1/2	192 1/2
C M & St Paul	17 1/2	17 1/2	17 1/2
do pd	113 1/2	113	113 1/2
Cons Gas	55 1/2	55	55 1/2
Corn Prod	209 1/2	208 1/2	209
Del & Hud	209 1/2	208 1/2	209
Dodge Bros	18 1/2	17 1/2	18
Du Pont	299 1/2	298	298
Gen Elec	62 1/2	62	62 1/2
Gen Mot	235 1/2	233 1/2	235
Int Nickel	66 1/2	65 1/2	66
Int Harv	195 1/2	195	195 1/2
Inspira	21 1/2	20 1/2	21 1/2
Kennebec	72 1/2	70 1/2	72 1/2
Le Valley	109 1/2	107 1/2	109 1/2
Mart Oil	37 1/2	37 1/2	37 1/2
Mack Truck	99 1/2	98 1/2	99 1/2
Mo Ptc com	52 1/2	52 1/2	52 1/2
N Y Central	155 1/2	155 1/2	155 1/2
New Haven	48 1/2	48 1/2	48 1/2
North Pac	95 1/2	94 1/2	95 1/2
Penn R R	64 1/2	63 1/2	64 1/2
Pullman	152 1/2	152 1/2	152 1/2
Pres St Car	72 1/2	69 1/2	69 1/2
Radio	66 1/2	65 1/2	66 1/2
Rock Isl	109 1/2	109 1/2	109 1/2
Sears Ro	72 1/2	72 1/2	72 1/2
Sou Pac	124 1/2	124 1/2	124 1/2
Sou Rl	136 1/2	134 1/2	135 1/2
U O of N J	39 1/2	39	39 1/2
Studebaker	52 1/2	52 1/2	52 1/2
Tab Prod	99 1/2	99 1/2	99 1/2
United Fruit	36 1/2	36	36 1/2
Union Pan	191 1/2	189 1/2	190 1/2
U S Rubber	49 1/2	48 1/2	49 1/2
U S Steel	139 1/2	138 1/2	139 1/2
West E & M	84 1/2	83 1/2	84 1/2
Willys Over	18 1/2	17 1/2	18 1/2

DRIVER EXONERATED.

Middletown, Conn., Aug. 23.—Edgar L. Johnson, of Hartford, was today exonerated by Coroner L. A. Smith of all blame for the death on August eighth of Carmelia Paraci, aged eight, who was struck and fatally injured by Johnson's car near the "underpass" here.

The coroner, who upon was traveling at fifteen miles an hour when the little girl stepped in front of his machine. The coroner recommends caution lights be placed near the "underpass."

SUES FOR ALIMONY.

Bridgport, Conn., Aug. 23.—Helen F. Davidson, of New York, today filed in the Superior Court here a suit for $7,000 damages against Wilbur Leroy Davidson, of New Canaan, claiming she was granted a divorce and alimony of $60 a week in New York in 1924, and that Davidson has failed to pay her any money since Christmas Day, 1925.

Rockville

BELIEVE MORNING FIRE INCENDIARY

Investigation Started By State Police—Some Change On Trolley Cars.

(Special to The Herald) By Staff Correspondent

Rockville, August 23.—Fire believed to be of incendiary origin at 3 o'clock this morning resulted in the total destruction of a barn, on which there was carried $1,500 worth of insurance and the burning of part of the roof of the house, causing at least $1,000 more loss on Pillsbury Hill has resulted in the matter being reported to the state police and an investigation started.

What further adds to the belief is the fact that the house was unoccupied and was owned by J. A. Godowicz of 479 Prospect street, Woonsocket, R. I., and was without furniture of any description at the time of the fire. In one of the rooms near the kitchen was found red tissue paper, soaked with oil that had burned to a crisp through the center, while in a closet, just off of this room, it was found that the plaster had been torn from the side walls, leaving the lath exposed. There had been sprinkled kerosene oil on these laths and paper that was similar in color and design to that used in the pantry shelves was also found.

Confusion in Alarm

The alarm was turned in from Box 45, but through some mishap or other four blasts were blown. The fire was on Grand street or as it is known locally "Pillsbury Hill." The fire had gained much headway when the alarm was turned in and the firemen gave their attention to the house.

Cellar Cleaned Out

By directing their efforts towards the house the firemen were able to save the house, but not until a fire had burned through the center of the building. When Chief George Milne made his investigation and found that the conditions were such as to indicate that there was suspicion in connection with the fire and this morning notified the state police at the Stafford Barracks.

Covered by Insurance

The total amount of insurance on the place was $6,200, which is not considered as too much considering the manner in which it was covered. There is $1,500 on the tobacco shed or barn, $4,500 on the house, which is not an over insurance and in addition to this there is $200 on chicken coops, which were not burned. This amount was not placed on the building by the present owner, but was increased at the time of the fire on East Main street by the owner of the buildings at that time, the property since having been sold.

May Dig Up Cellar

Because of the general clean and smooth manner in which the sand in the cellar was found which showed it was of recent date there is a possibility that the cellar may be dug up to see that nothing has been concealed there as no other motive could be advanced for having the cellar burned. A total loss of which the insurance that was in force being insufficient to cover the damage.

Many changes will be noted on the local lines of the Connecticut Company when the men select their new night, as the Rockville line is one that has a conductor all the way to the Rockville city line both coming and going to Rockville and with the exception of the busy time at Crystal Lake it is not likely to be hard on a motorman, who has had little experience in the way of a conductor to take care of this line, especially from Rockville to Stafford Springs.

Cars were being turned in today to be changed over to make their expected that thirty of the large P. E. cars that are run on the lines out of Rockville, Manchester and several of the suburban trips, will be changed over. It is going to cost $3,000 a car to make these changes.

Will Continue Express Car

The express car about the getting freight into the city, will not be discontinued, as was at first thought, but will be operated as a one man car, which means that the motorman on the car will also be the messenger. It is going to be rather difficult for the motorman to run behind the car carrying a red flag at the Market street crossing, and at the same time run the car, but this will probably be overcome by using the flagman with the car.

Lake Being Developed.

Tankersoon Lake in Vernon is being developed as a summer resort. On the west side twelve houses have been built, mostly owned by Hartford people, who appreciate the proximity of the spot to Hartford and at the same time finding good roads all of the way to the lake. Elmer La Chappelle, who owns all of the land on the east side of the lake would be buyers, but in each case Mr. LaChappelle has refused to sell as it is his intention to develop that section himself. He is having prepared by a landscape gardener a general layout for the roads and bathing beach and also the lots. The design in each case and septic tanks will be provided in each purchase. He has submitted this general plan to a company of builders, who are now at work on a Maine resort and if figures are satisfactory he will set the work underway at once.

Up From A Sea--Borne Hell

Fog, Thirst and Despair Beset Two Newfoundlers Adrift on Ocean 11 Days.

By MILTON BRONNER.

London.—"Hell—it was just hell—eleven long days and eleven longer nights of it!"

"The preschers tell us about hell—fire and brimstone and great thirst and sharp hunger and pain and agony. Well, my mate and I, we know something of what the preacher means."

"We did not have the fire and the brimstone, but there was sun that peeled our faces—seas that soaked us to the pores—icy winds that set us to shivering till our teeth clacked. After a while, nothing to eat, and thirst—raging, tearing, maddening thirst—until we came across a whole ice-box—an iceberg. Yes, we know what hell is like."

They're Mates

Charles Williams spoke. He's fifty, a fisherman from Newfoundland. His mate, George May, forty-two, is a former superintendent. They were working aboard the fishing schooner Donald A. Creaser off the Grand Banks of Nova Scotia, 150 miles at sea. The boat was lying to and the two men left in a twelve-foot dory in the afternoon to haul in fishing nets.

That was the last seen of them until eleven days later when the Canadian steamer Albuera, en voyage to England, rescued them by some miracle, more dead than alive. Slowly they convalesced on the boat when it landed in London they were taken to the big hospital in Tilbury docks.

Weak and Thirst

There they didn't talk glibly. They were too weak and too tired. "Yes," said May thoughtfully. "Charles has told you we know what hell is. We also know a little about heaven. It's to go through all we did and then find ourselves alive here, warm and snug and fed—food to eat, cool things to drink, no sun burning you, no waves wetting you, no winds freezing you."

Williams' speech thinned off into slumber, the slumber of weakness. Then Williams took up the epic again:

"We had only left our ship a short time when we were cut off by the denseness of fog. It was just like letting down a blanket. We lost our bearings. We did not know what to do. We used our oars and pulled in the direction we thought the ship should be. We yelled, but got no answer from out the thickening murk. Nothing to do but to wait. Maybe the fog would rise by evening. If not, by next morning. Then we would be found. They would miss us on the ship and hunt for us."

Drift and Fog

"But the fog stings. And all the time we're drifting. We prepared for a long stay out, we had no drinking water and only twelve ship's biscuits. We ate these, but by

Married in Springfield.

Automobiles carrying automobile markers of Massachusetts and also Connecticut markers were around the city from about yesterday for the better part of the day.

By MILTON BRONNER.

London.—"Hell—it was just hell—eleven long days and eleven longer nights of it!"

"The preschers tell us about hell—fire and brimstone and great thirst and sharp hunger and pain and agony. Well, my mate and I, we know something of what the preacher means."

"We did not have the fire and the brimstone, but there was sun that peeled our faces—seas that soaked us to the pores—icy winds that set us to shivering till our teeth clacked. After a while, nothing to eat, and thirst—raging, tearing, maddening thirst—until we came across a whole ice-box—an iceberg. Yes, we know what hell is like."

They're Mates

Charles Williams spoke. He's fifty, a fisherman from Newfoundland. His mate, George May, forty-two, is a former superintendent. They were working aboard the fishing schooner Donald A. Creaser off the Grand Banks of Nova Scotia, 150 miles at sea. The boat was lying to and the two men left in a twelve-foot dory in the afternoon to haul in fishing nets.

That was the last seen of them until eleven days later when the Canadian steamer Albuera, en voyage to England, rescued them by some miracle, more dead than alive. Slowly they convalesced on the boat when it landed in London they were taken to the big hospital in Tilbury docks.

Weak and Thirst

There they didn't talk glibly. They were too weak and too tired. "Yes," said May thoughtfully. "Charles has told you we know what hell is. We also know a little about heaven. It's to go through all we did and then find ourselves alive here, warm and snug and fed—food to eat, cool things to drink, no sun burning you, no waves wetting you, no winds freezing you."

Williams' speech thinned off into slumber, the slumber of weakness. Then Williams took up the epic again:

"We had only left our ship a short time when we were cut off by the denseness of fog. It was just like letting down a blanket. We lost our bearings. We did not know what to do. We used our oars and pulled in the direction we thought the ship should be. We yelled, but got no answer from out the thickening murk. Nothing to do but to wait. Maybe the fog would rise by evening. If not, by next morning. Then we would be found. They would miss us on the ship and hunt for us."

Drift and Fog

"But the fog stings. And all the time we're drifting. We prepared for a long stay out, we had no drinking water and only twelve ship's biscuits. We ate these, but by

WILL REPAIR HOUSES WILLED TO HOSPITAL

One Being Sold, Though Deal is Not Yet Complete—Others to Be Rented.

By MILTON BRONNER.

London.—"Hell—it was just hell—eleven long days and eleven longer nights of it!"

"The preschers tell us about hell—fire and brimstone and great thirst and sharp hunger and pain and agony. Well, my mate and I, we know something of what the preacher means."

"We did not have the fire and the brimstone, but there was sun that peeled our faces—seas that soaked us to the pores—icy winds that set us to shivering till our teeth clacked. After a while, nothing to eat, and thirst—raging, tearing, maddening thirst—until we came across a whole ice-box—an iceberg. Yes, we know what hell is like."

They're Mates

Charles Williams spoke. He's fifty, a fisherman from Newfoundland. His mate, George May, forty-two, is a former superintendent. They were working aboard the fishing schooner Donald A. Creaser off the Grand Banks of Nova Scotia, 150 miles at sea. The boat was lying to and the two men left in a twelve-foot dory in the afternoon to haul in fishing nets.

That was the last seen of them until eleven days later when the Canadian steamer Albuera, en voyage to England, rescued them by some miracle, more dead than alive. Slowly they convalesced on the boat when it landed in London they were taken to the big hospital in Tilbury docks.

Weak and Thirst

There they didn't talk glibly. They were too weak and too tired. "Yes," said May thoughtfully. "Charles has told you we know what hell is. We also know a little about heaven. It's to go through all we did and then find ourselves alive here, warm and snug and fed—food to eat, cool things to drink, no sun burning you, no waves wetting you, no winds freezing you."

Williams' speech thinned off into slumber, the slumber of weakness. Then Williams took up the epic again:

"We had only left our ship a short time when we were cut off by the denseness of fog. It was just like letting down a blanket. We lost our bearings. We did not know what to do. We used our oars and pulled in the direction we thought the ship should be. We yelled, but got no answer from out the thickening murk. Nothing to do but to wait. Maybe the fog would rise by evening. If not, by next morning. Then we would be found. They would miss us on the ship and hunt for us."

Drift and Fog

"But the fog stings. And all the time we're drifting. We prepared for a long stay out, we had no drinking water and only twelve ship's biscuits. We ate these, but by

WILL REPAIR HOUSES WILLED TO HOSPITAL

One Being Sold, Though Deal is Not Yet Complete—Others to Be Rented.

By MILTON BRONNER.

London.—"Hell—it was just hell—eleven long days and eleven longer nights of it!"

"The preschers tell us about hell—fire and brimstone and great thirst and sharp hunger and pain and agony. Well, my mate and I, we know something of what the preacher means."

"We did not have the fire and the brimstone, but there was sun that peeled our faces—seas that soaked us to the pores—icy winds that set us to shivering till our teeth clacked. After a while, nothing to eat, and thirst—raging, tearing, maddening thirst—until we came across a whole ice-box—an iceberg. Yes, we know what hell is like."

They're Mates

Charles Williams spoke. He's fifty, a fisherman from Newfoundland. His mate, George May, forty-two, is a former superintendent. They were working aboard the fishing schooner Donald A. Creaser off the Grand Banks of Nova Scotia, 150 miles at sea. The boat was lying to and the two men left in a twelve-foot dory in the afternoon to haul in fishing nets.

That was the last seen of them until eleven days later when the Canadian steamer Albuera, en voyage to England, rescued them by some miracle, more dead than alive. Slowly they convalesced on the boat when it landed in London they were taken to the big hospital in Tilbury docks.

Weak and Thirst

There they didn't talk glibly. They were too weak and too tired. "Yes," said May thoughtfully. "Charles has told you we know what hell is. We also know a little about heaven. It's to go through all we did and then find ourselves alive here, warm and snug and fed—food to eat, cool things to drink, no sun burning you, no waves wetting you, no winds freezing you."

Williams' speech thinned off into slumber, the slumber of weakness. Then Williams took up the epic again:

"We had only left our ship a short time when we were cut off by the denseness of fog. It was just like letting down a blanket. We lost our bearings. We did not know what to do. We used our oars and pulled in the direction we thought the ship should be. We yelled, but got no answer from out the thickening murk. Nothing to do but to wait. Maybe the fog would rise by evening. If not, by next morning. Then we would be found. They would miss us on the ship and hunt for us."

Drift and Fog

"But the fog stings. And all the time we're drifting. We prepared for a long stay out, we had no drinking water and only twelve ship's biscuits. We ate these, but by

WILL REPAIR HOUSES WILLED TO HOSPITAL

One Being Sold, Though Deal is Not Yet Complete—Others to Be Rented.

By MILTON BRONNER.

London.—"Hell—it was just hell—eleven long days and eleven longer nights of it!"

"The preschers tell us about hell—fire and brimstone and great thirst and sharp hunger and pain and agony. Well, my mate and I, we know something of what the preacher means."

"We did not have the fire and the brimstone, but there was sun that peeled our faces—seas that soaked us to the pores—icy winds that set us to shivering till our teeth clacked. After a while, nothing to eat, and thirst—raging, tearing, maddening thirst—until we came across a whole ice-box—an iceberg. Yes, we know what hell is like."

They're Mates

Charles Williams spoke. He's fifty, a fisherman from Newfoundland. His mate, George May, forty-two, is a former superintendent. They were working aboard the fishing schooner Donald A. Creaser off the Grand Banks of Nova Scotia, 150 miles at sea. The boat was lying to and the two men left in a twelve-foot dory in the afternoon to haul in fishing nets.

That was the last seen of them until eleven days later when the Canadian steamer Albuera, en voyage to England, rescued them by some miracle, more dead than alive. Slowly they convalesced on the boat when it landed in London they were taken to the big hospital in Tilbury docks.

Weak and Thirst

There they didn't talk glibly. They were too weak and too tired. "Yes," said May thoughtfully. "Charles has told you we know what hell is. We also know a little about heaven. It's to go through all we did and then find ourselves alive here, warm and snug and fed—food to eat, cool things to drink, no sun burning you, no waves wetting you, no winds freezing you."

Williams' speech thinned off into slumber, the slumber of weakness. Then Williams took up the epic again:

"We had only left our ship a short time when we were cut off by the denseness of fog. It was just like letting down a blanket. We lost our bearings. We did not know what to do. We used our oars and pulled in the direction we thought the ship should be. We yelled, but got no answer from out the thickening murk. Nothing to do but to wait. Maybe the fog would rise by evening. If not, by next morning. Then we would be found. They would miss us on the ship and hunt for us."

Drift and Fog

"But the fog stings. And all the time we're drifting. We prepared for a long stay out, we had no drinking water and only twelve ship's biscuits. We ate these, but by

WILL REPAIR HOUSES WILLED TO HOSPITAL

One Being Sold, Though Deal is Not Yet Complete—Others to Be Rented.

By MILTON BRONNER.

London.—"Hell—it was just hell—eleven long days and eleven longer nights of it!"

"The preschers tell us about hell—fire and brimstone and great thirst and sharp hunger and pain and agony. Well, my mate and I, we know something of what the preacher means."

"We did not have the fire and the brimstone, but there was sun that peeled our faces—seas that soaked us to the pores—icy winds that set us to shivering till our teeth clacked. After a while, nothing to eat, and thirst—raging, tearing, maddening thirst—until we came across a whole ice-box—an iceberg. Yes, we know what hell is like."

They're Mates

Charles Williams spoke. He's fifty, a fisherman from Newfoundland. His mate, George May, forty-two, is a former superintendent. They were working aboard the fishing schooner Donald A. Creaser off the Grand Banks of Nova Scotia, 150 miles at sea. The boat was lying to and the two men left in a twelve-foot dory in the afternoon to haul in fishing nets.

That was the last seen of them until eleven days later when the Canadian steamer Albuera, en voyage to England, rescued them by some miracle, more dead than alive. Slowly they convalesced on the boat when it landed in London they were taken to the big hospital in Tilbury docks.

Weak and Thirst

There they didn't talk glibly. They were too weak and too tired. "Yes," said May thoughtfully. "Charles has told you we know what hell is. We also know a little about heaven. It's to go through all we did and then find ourselves alive here, warm and snug and fed—food to eat, cool things to drink, no sun burning you, no waves wetting you, no winds freezing you."

Williams' speech thinned off into slumber, the slumber of weakness. Then Williams took up the epic again:

"We had only left our ship a short time when we were cut off by the denseness of fog. It was just like letting down a blanket. We lost our bearings. We did not know what to do. We used our oars and pulled in the direction we thought the ship should be. We yelled, but got no answer from out the thickening murk. Nothing to do but to wait. Maybe the fog would rise by evening. If not, by next morning. Then we would be found. They would miss us on the ship and hunt for us."

Drift and Fog

"But the fog stings. And all the time we're drifting. We prepared for a long stay out, we had no drinking water and only twelve ship's biscuits. We ate these, but by

WILL REPAIR HOUSES WILLED TO HOSPITAL

One Being Sold, Though Deal is Not Yet Complete—Others to Be Rented.

By MILTON BRONNER.

London.—"Hell—it was just hell—eleven long days and eleven longer nights of it!"

"The preschers tell us about hell—fire and brimstone and great thirst and sharp hunger and pain and agony. Well, my mate and I, we know something of what the preacher means."

"We did not have the fire and the brimstone, but there was sun that peeled our faces—seas that soaked us to the pores—icy winds that set us to shivering till our teeth clacked. After a while, nothing to eat, and thirst—raging, tearing, maddening thirst—until we came across a whole ice-box—an iceberg. Yes, we know what hell is like."

They're Mates

Charles Williams spoke. He's fifty, a fisherman from Newfoundland. His mate, George May, forty-two, is a former superintendent. They were working aboard the fishing schooner Donald A. Creaser off the Grand Banks of Nova Scotia, 150 miles at sea. The boat was lying to and the two men left in a twelve-foot dory in the afternoon to haul in fishing nets.

That was the last seen of them until eleven days later when the Canadian steamer Albuera, en voyage to England, rescued them by some miracle, more dead than alive. Slowly they convalesced on the boat when it landed in London they were taken to the big hospital in Tilbury docks.

Weak and Thirst

There they didn't talk glibly. They were too weak and too tired. "Yes," said May thoughtfully. "Charles has told you we know what hell is. We also know a little about heaven. It's to go through all we did and then find ourselves alive here, warm and snug and fed—food to eat, cool things to drink, no sun burning you, no waves wetting you, no winds freezing you."

Williams' speech thinned off into slumber, the slumber of weakness. Then Williams took up the epic again:

"We had only left our ship a short time when we were cut off by the denseness of fog. It was just like letting down a blanket. We lost our bearings. We did not know what to do. We used our oars and pulled in the direction we thought the ship should be. We yelled, but got no answer from out the thickening murk. Nothing to do but to wait. Maybe the fog would rise by evening. If not, by next morning. Then we would be found. They would miss us on the ship and hunt for us."

Drift and Fog

"But the fog stings. And all the time we're drifting. We prepared for a long stay out, we had no drinking water and only twelve ship's biscuits. We ate these, but by

M. L. DIAMOND BUYS MAIN STREET BLOCK

Purchases Rubimow Property At Main And Maple Streets Today.

By MILTON BRONNER.

PLAN TOUR OF U. S. WITH 'RED' BODIES

Later Sacco And Vanzetti Will Be Taken To Italy For Burial, Committee Says.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 23.—All that is mortal of Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti will lie in state in Boston, New York, Chicago and several other large cities of the country, according to an ambitious plan drawn up for execution today by the Sacco-Vanzetti defense committee.

RIOTS IN EUROPE BUT FEW IN U. S.

monument. In the glare of the flood lights that play a night on the great granite shaft stretching into the dark sky, the Sacco-Vanzetti sympathizers planned a "death watch." The watch was to be on soil where a century and a half ago General Warren waited until his men saw the "Reds" in the eyes of the red coats. But Thompson Square was the nearest any of the protesters got to Monument park.

LAUDER IS UNDECIDED ON RETURN TO STAGE

Wife's Death Severe Blow, He Hesitates At Trying To Make Other People Laugh.

London, Aug. 23.—Sir Harry Lauder, world-famous comedian, grieving over the recent death of his wife, is unable to decide whether or he ever will return to the stage. He revealed in a pathetic letter to Hugh Melver, ex-miner, beside whom Lauder worked before he went on the stage.

ROBITUARY

MRS. CHARLOTTE VINCENT Mrs. Charlotte Vincent, aged 36, widow of Childs Vincent of 36, Ford Road, died early today at Memorial hospital, death being due to a complication of diseases.

Miss Harriet E. Packard Marries Clifton L. Potter This Afternoon

Miss Harriet Etta Packard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmore C. Packard of Henry street, and Clifton LeRoy Potter, son of John G. Potter of Bigelow street, were married this afternoon at 1:30 at the South Methodist church.

Becomes Mrs. C. L. Potter Today.

'Twas An Outing, Indeed, But Who Stole The Feed?

"Muvver, I wanna banana." "An' I wanna piece pie." So shouted the children. "Get out that roast chicken, Mary." From the father. "Gee, let's eat the watermelon first!"

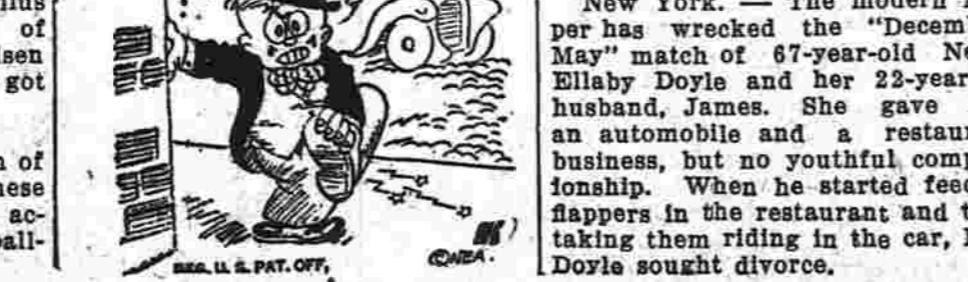

NEWS AGENCIES IN CONFERENCE

news agencies is supported by the conference. The independent agencies point out that under present conditions the official agencies are often given exclusive statements of governmental policy and are given priority in transmission.

BURTON IN EUROPE TO INVITE DELEGATES TO PEACE MEETING

Cleveland.—The Geneva conference, apparently having been a failure, officials are looking forward to a scheduled conference of the American Peace Society, to be held here in May, 1928, when it is hoped better progress will be made.

LITTLE JOE

PRIESTHOOD STUDENT TO VISIT HIS PARENTS

James Leo Burke To Arrive Here Thursday—Will Teach At Holy Cross.

James Leo Burke, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Burke of Spruce street, will be a visitor at the home of his parents Thursday. He has now advanced in the study of the priesthood in the Jesuit order where he will spend two years as a teacher, and will specialize in history as a member of the faculty at Holy Cross this year with the opening of the school.

Miscellaneous Shower For Miss Forbes.

About forty friends of Miss Marie Forbes gave her a surprise miscellaneous shower Saturday evening at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Joseph Kennedy of Rosemary Place. She was brought into the darkened living rooms and when the lights were turned on was greatly surprised to find a large party gathered in her honor, many of them being her friends among the Daughters of Liberty and associates at Cheney Brothers mills.

C. N. G. TRUCK DRIVERS END LONG DUTY TOUR.

After six weeks of strenuous outdoor military life, seven Manchester boys were back at their old jobs yesterday. They are Sergeant "Dick" Lippincott of McCabe street, Sergeant Alfred Blatter of Bissell street, First Class Private Edward Ingraham of Woodland street, Private Albert Cole of New street, Private Nick Angelo of Pine street and Private Peter Kiecha of Lilac street.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincerest thanks to our friends and neighbors who were so kind to us during the illness and at the time of the death of our wife and mother. We would especially thank the members of the Cloverleaf Football team and others who sent flowers.

HOLD MALT-HOPS MAN FOR RECIPE

South End Dealer Arrested By Federal Officers; Makes Light of Accusation

Arrested yesterday on a charge of having distributed formulas telling how to make intoxicating beverages at the United Malt and Hops branch store at the South End here, Albert Klotzer of this town, manager of the store, was bound over to the September term of the United States District Court at New Haven in bail of $200, which was furnished by Daniel Nasseive of Springfield, one of the two owners of six malt and hops stores in Connecticut and Massachusetts. Klotzer pleaded not guilty and waived examination.

ABOUT TOWN

At his place of business at 1071 Main street this morning, Mr. Klotzer said he was confident the case would never come up for trial; that it would be thrown out of court. He said that in selling malt and hops, he was doing the same as many other stores in town and perfectly within his legal rights, and so far as the formulas are concerned, he said each one contained an explanatory clause instructing the user how to prevent the beverage from becoming illegally alcoholic.

WIFE AND SISTER HEAR TRAGIC NEWS

which had come reams of copy for the press. Miss Donovan Shocked Miss Mary Donovan, an ardent defense worker, almost fainted when she heard the news that her husband and sister were dead.

SOLOK UNION REPORTS 35,000 MEMBERSHIP

Catholic Society, Meeting At Bridgeport, Has Assets of $1,125,000. Bridgeport, Conn., Aug. 23.—The Catholic Sokol Union of America, has 35,000 members and complete assets amounting to $1,125,000, according to the report of John Barlow, of Bethlehem, Penna, supreme treasurer, read before the tenth triennial convention of the order here today.

HURRICANE REPORTED

Washington, Aug. 23.—A hurricane has developed about 300 miles southeast of Cape Hatteras and is moving northward, the Weather Bureau announced today. Present indications are it will not strike the coast, officials said.

FLAPPERS WRECK MATCH

New York.—The modern flapper wrecked the "December-May" match of 67-year-old Nellie Ellaby Doyle and her 23-year-old husband, James. She gave him an automobile and a restaurant business, but no youthful companionship. When he started before flappers in the restaurant and then taking them riding in the car, Mrs. Doyle sought divorce.

CRAWFISH EXPORT TO MAINE NEW INDUSTRY.

Maine may have plenty of excellent places to fish, but you can't get fish without bait and that's just what Connecticut has plenty of. Yesterday Barrett & Robbins' sports store here received an order for two dozen crawfish to be sent to Thomas Leure at Damascus Mills, Me. He is unknown here but evidently heard that the Manchester store had good bait.

BUCKINGHAM

The officers elected last week for the ensuing year at the annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Buckingham Church are: President, Mrs. Lulu T. Plank; vice president, Mrs. Erwin D. Reed; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Burton J. Bell; directors, Mrs. J. S. Plank, Addison; Miss Ruth A. Wright, Addison; Mrs. Grace A. Strickland, Glastonbury; Mrs. George H. Slater, Glastonbury.

ALLING TO SAIL

Hartford, Conn., Aug. 23.—B. W. Alling, attorney general, Mrs. Alling and Judge Edward N. East of Stamford, will sail for Europe on August 31. They are to be gone six weeks and will visit France, England and Spain, joining Mrs. East in England.

MYRTLE TURKINGTON ON WAY TO FRANCE TODAY

Salvation Lassie of War Fame Goes As Delegate of Legion To Paris Convention.

Ensign Myrtle Turkington of the Boston Salvation Army headquarters leaves today on the steamer Lancastris as a delegate to the American Legion convention in Paris. She is one of a group of Salvationist veterans sailing on the Lancastris. Ensign Turkington spent last night with her mother, Mrs. Maria Turkington of 145 Center street, leaving for New York this morning.

Advertisement for FRIGIDAIRE refrigerators, featuring an image of a refrigerator and text: 'Now you can have FRIGIDAIRE for only $180. NO more ice to buy—no more spoiled food to throw away—constant automatic refrigeration that guards against the dangers of tainted foods. These are the advantages that Frigidaire brings to your home.'

Advertisement for The Bake Day Aid RUMFORD BAKING POWDER, featuring an image of a Rumford Baking Powder can and text: 'Not merely a leavener for your baking—Rumford is more than that—it not only makes biscuits, muffins and cakes light, tender and of fine texture, but also adds real food value to them, and only Rumford does this. You can always depend on RUMFORD BAKING POWDER. The Wholesome BAKING POWDER.'

Advertisement for Barbara shoes, featuring an image of a shoe and text: 'Give a Thought to Foot Comfort. EVERY woman can now have shoe style without foot discomfort. Dr. Dickerman Hurd Health Shoes overcome and correct foot troubles through the proper application of the new improved Pedic Arch built into every pair. And while we call it a health shoe, it has all the style appeal that Dame Fashion decrees in correct footwear for women.'

WHOLESALE ARRESTS

San Francisco, Calif., Aug. 23.—Ninety-nine men and twenty-five women were under arrest here today in connection with Sacco-Vanzetti demonstrations. They were taken in custody last night when police interrupted a parade in the Latin quarter. The marchers were on their way to a protest meeting. A similar meeting in a public park had been broken up by the authorities a short time before. There was no rioting, the leaders submitting to arrest without protest.

PRESS COMMENTS

Berlin, Aug. 23.—News of the Sacco-Vanzetti executions filled all the first pages of the newspapers of Central European countries, today, and the editorial comment, except for that in German nationalist papers, was unanimously in condemnation of the Massachusetts authorities.

HIS GOOD LUCK ENDS

Madison, Wis.—Not for 40 consecutive years did it rain at the commencement exercises of the University of Wisconsin. Many attributed this to the fact that Julius Olsen had attended every one of those commencement. But Olsen attended the last exercises and got drenched to the skin.

THE FAVORITE CAT OF SUSUHANAN OF SURAKARTA, A WEALTHY JAVANESE PRINCE, DIED RECENTLY AND WAS ACCORDED A COSTLY FUNERAL WITH 24 PALI-BEARERS.

The favorite cat of Susuhanan of Surakarta, a wealthy Javanese prince, died recently and was accorded a costly funeral with 24 pali-bearers.

Manchester Evening Herald

PUBLISHED BY THE HERALD PRINTING CO. Founded by Silwood & M... Oct. 1, 1851

Every Evening—Except Sundays and Holidays. Entered at the Post Office at Manchester as Second Class Matter...

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Mail six dollars a year, sixty cents a month for shorter periods.

SPECIAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVE: Hamilton L. Lessor, Inc. 285 Madison Avenue, New York...

The Manchester Evening Herald is on sale in New York City at Schuller's News Stand, Sixth Avenue and 41st Street...

TUESDAY, AUGUST 23, 1927.

MORE THAN DEATH.

Sacco and Vanzetti are dead. The seven year old episode, which has stirred the world as has no criminal prosecution since the Dreyfus trial, is finished. It is a curious fact, in connection with it, that the electrocution of these two men is barren of all sense of shock—rather is there something of a feeling that they have been liberated from a superior agony.

The trial of Sacco and Vanzetti was as fair and as just as is provided for anyone, rich or poor, loyal citizens or traitorous red, by the laws of the state of Massachusetts. In their behalf the chief executive of that state went even further beyond the law than there is record of any governor going in any previous criminal case, when he appointed a special commission to inquire into the merits of the trial.

NEW ENGLAND

We are just a little fed up on journalistic admonitions to shift from pessimism to optimism concerning New England. Says the Springfield Union, for instance: "Some of the most condemnatory criticisms of New England are to be found in our own household. Indeed it seems to be a popular fad to indulge in filings at New England as a section that is past its usefulness and of which little good is to be expected. If such a spirit comes to possess any region it is on its way to well merited oblivion."

The only New England knockers in New England are the people who write stuff like that. Where on earth was this editor when he heard somebody say that New England was all in? Has he been vacationing in some sanatorium for neurotics? We have spent the major part of a not short life in New England and never once did we hear any New Englander intimate that this section had passed its usefulness—unless in the indirect way in which the Springfield editor gives voice to that bilious idea, blaming some unidentified offender for it.

If it is decrying New England to suggest that it cannot expect forever to monopolize the industrial activities of a country as huge and populous as this, then of course there are New England knockers in New England. But it is no such thing. It is merely recognition of a fact not at all to be regretted. To be a New Englander it is not necessary to go on four legs and grunt. We do not want all the prosperity nor all the money in America. It may certainly be necessary for New England to adopt herself to changed conditions. She has done that before and can do it again—dozen times over, if necessary. Nobody is worrying about New England except these birds who are worrying about the worrying.

THOSE 177 BATTLES.

If this controversy over the respective "decisiveness" of the fights at Bennington and Stillwater continue, the time may not be far off when New York state and Vermont people will be splitting at each other, even as certain American and certain British army men are, right now, over the exasperating question, "Who won the war?"

But we fall to see where Connecticut folk need feel any special call to throw in with the Vermonters, in this rumpus. Most of the fighting in the desperate encounter at Stillwater—called the first battle of Saratoga—was done by soldiers from this state; or at the very least they did more than their share of it, owing to the fact that it was against the American left wing that Burgoyne threw the weight of his attack. The glory of that day, and the nearly similar glory of Burgoyne's second defeat by that same left wing a fortnight later, have already been sufficiently dimmed through the subsequent treason of the Connecticut General Arnold, without sacrificing the claim that, at Saratoga, Connecticut men largely determined the fate of Britain's military aspirations in the colonies. Vermont claims all the credit, because Stark defeated the German-officered forces that were seeking to capture the Bennington supply of stores and munitions. Such a claim contemplates the assumption that if the Bennington raid had been successful Burgoyne would have won the battles at Saratoga.

There is absolutely nothing to support such a theory. Neither is there anything but guesswork to back the notion that if he had won the Bennington provender he would have been able to retreat, or would have elected to. The double battle of Saratoga was won by the Americans at Stillwater, not at Bennington. There is not the slightest reason to believe that Burgoyne would have done any better than he did, there, under any circumstances. In being loyal to New England, in this dispute, let's not fail to be loyal to Connecticut.

WATCH 'EM.

So far as we know there is not, as yet, a single shady airplane manufacturing corporation in this country trying to sell stock to the public; though there may be a dozen of them of which we never heard. But that the time is just about ripe for phony promotions of this sort goes without saying.

Public interest in aviation has had a tremendous boom in the last few months. And it is impossible for the public to become widely interested in any new invention or development without the wildcat intruder intruding himself into the situation. It is almost inevitable that every town in the country will soon have its visitation from some fly-by-night promoter seeking to interest local capital in a sure-fire airplane manufacturing business.

No record has ever been kept of the number of bicycle manufacturing enterprises that gobbled up the savings of investors in the late '80's and early '90's. And if all the projected automobile factories of twenty years ago had been built—to say nothing of those that were built and presently blew up—you could have stored all the used cars in America today within their walls.

The persuasive gentleman who has the best plane in the world and thousands of customers waiting for it, if he can only get backing for a factory, is going to be pretty common in the near future unless history fails to repeat itself. Watch your step.

MAUDLIN.

Lieut.-Colonel George Crouse Cook, Reserve Corps, U. S. A., is going to Germany to try to find the owners of a boxful and packing-casual of war souvenirs taken from German soldiers during the World War, in which he served with credit. Col. Cook has become conscience-stricken over the possession of this loot, which consists of parts of uniform, accoutrements, note books, etc., and has made up his mind to put in considerable time looking up the losers and returning their property to them.

That is a very amiable, even tender frame of mind to get into. But it may occur to some people that a fighting man who has come, with the passage of time, to develop such extraordinary sensitiveness of soul has probably developed, along with it, structural changes in those qualities which once made him "officer material." If we should ever become involved in another war—the possibility of which is the only justification for maintaining the officers reserve corps—unquestionably it would be just as necessary as in the late one to "treat 'em rough." Officers who entertain toward the enemy the emotions of Mary toward her lamb do not quite rate. It would almost seem as if Col. Cook, before sailing for Germany, might well see the fitness of resigning his commission.

Also, he would appear to have mighty little to do with his time.

FATHER AND DAUGHTER.

"If my children are of age I won't stop them from doing something I would have done myself when I was their age."

That was the answer Mildred Doran received when the 22-year-old Michigan school teacher told her father, William Doran, Sr., that she "wanted to be the first woman to fly across the Pacific."

It has been a long time since the senior Doran was Mildred's age. But perhaps when the Flint farmer gave his permission he remembered some daring dream of his youth that his own parents or his neighbors thought just a bit foolhardy.

In his young day, of course, women were different, or so we are led to believe. Unemancipated, shrinking, over-dressed, more or less servants of man to do his bidding without question—that is the picture handed down to us by our own elders.

Girls these days for the most part know what they want to do and do it. There is more opportunity for them to exert their capabilities and extend their ambitions than there was when Mr. Doran was a youth.

Mr. Doran is to be congratulated for having progressed with the times. We know many parents who have not gone ahead like that, who are living in the past and who would have refused permission or threatened. Mr. Doran seems to us the best kind of a father.

A BAD IDEA OF HUMOR.

The scene was a little Pennsylvania town where several men were working on a construction job. It was nearly noon and the men were getting hungry. They awaited the whistle and eyed their dinner pails hungrily.

There was a wag in the crowd. There was in the gang one of those fellows they call "the life of the party," who turns the laugh to everyone's own expense save his own. It would be fun to attach a live wire to one of the dinner pails and see the man jump when he touched it.

It WAS fun. The boy whose dinner pail was wired, a youth of 17, reached for his bucket and that was his last reach. The strong current killed him. Another practical joker reaped the fruits of his ignorant designs. Practical jokers are nice people to have around.

WASHINGTON LETTER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

Washington, Aug. 23.—August tourists, trooping here to look upon the grandeur of the capital, are gazing first on the world's grandest cemetery as they step out of the railroad station.

Between the station and the Senate office building, just a couple of hundred yards from the capitol itself and on the federal government's own ground, the Memorial Craftsmen of America are putting up their "Art and Design Show," where the art of the tombstone designer goes into direct competition with the art of the architect responsible for the Washington Monument, the Capitol, the Congressional Library and the Lincoln Memorial.

Tombstones, tombs, monuments, headstones, footstones, urns and fancy crosses—everything that goes to make modern cemeteries so arty—are set up in the exhibit, which is under canvas.

Sad Sight for Senators A thousand tons of stone are being used. It will be artistically scattered over grave plots with pebbles, walks and interspersed with evergreen trees especially brought from President Coolidge's home state to mark off the booths.

Senators and their secretaries for the past two or three weeks have been gazing out at the two big tents used to house the exhibits. Something akin to consternation may have struck them as workmen began to move the marble and granite in. Not many senators are here now, but the occasional one who faces a fight for re-election next year probably is glad that the funeral layout, which can be plainly seen from his window, is not permanent.

The exhibitors are mostly manufacturers, quarrymen and designers and the exhibit is meant for the retail trade, but it is open to the public and anyone who cares to march in and whose eye is subsequently struck by a particularly handsome tombstone will not find his business scorned.

New Styles in Tombstones "What," your correspondent asked Mr. C. T. La Vigne, manager of the show, "are the latest styles in tombstones?" "The new tombstones," replied Mr. La Vigne, "are as individual as art can make them."

"They are directed at the personality of the individual. "In the past, the general notion of the trade has been to make large monuments in their attempts to please the customer.

"But now the trend is toward smaller and more artistic monuments. "The artistic urge is expressed through carvings, symbolic poses and various whirligigs and more than ever of this is being done largely through perfection of the process of sand blast carving.

"Sand blast carving de luxe is exquisite almost beyond description," explained Mr. La Vigne, "in the delicacy of its edges and alliveness of its conventional motifs it shows that it has caught and kept the artist's dream. It is a boom to all those who work on ornamentation of tributes of memory."

Refined Jokes Permitted The lot on which the million-dollar exhibit is being shown is part of the federal park system and is being devoted to commercial purposes for the last time. As custodians of the park land, Vice-president Dawes and Speaker Nicholas Longworth granted permission to the tombstone makers to make themselves at home on the property.

Everything for the living room in this STORE-WIDE SEMI-ANNUAL SALE. Includes images of Swell Front Suites ($159), Spinet Desks ($27.50), 3 Pc. Jacquard Suites ($98), Coxwells ($29), End Tables ($2.98), and Finest Mohair Suites ($387). WATKINS BROTHERS, INC. EXCLUSIVE REPRESENTATIVES FOR CRAWFORD AND CHAMBERS RANGES.

Old Master's. The family moved to Chicago. The father died and everyone went to work. The kid, when he wasn't working, practiced tugging in the backyard. When he was 13 he had found another acrobatically inclined youngster. In Dodge City, Kas., one day appeared the team of Foy and Thompson. Memory... Broadway needs to be told that every now and then it has such a handy way of forgetting. GILBERT SWAN. Through the night, through the night. In the saddest unrest, wrapped in white, all in white, with her babe on her breast, walks the mother so pale, starting out on the gale, through the night! Through the night, through the night. Where the sea lifts the wreck land in sight, close in sight, on the surf-flooded deck, stands the father so brave, driving on to his grave through the night. —Richard Henry Stoddard: The Sea. DAILY ALMANAC. Feast day of St. Justina, hermit and martyr of the sixth century. Anniversary of the birth of Edgar Lee Masters and Louis XVI of France. Anniversary of the death of Rudolph Valentino, 1926; and Commodore Perry, 1819. Cornerstone of first Columbia College building laid in New York, 1756. "The sweetest thing in life is memory..."

FALL TERM BEGINS SEPTEMBER THE 14th. This is the largest professional school of college grade in the world devoted exclusively to training men for the duties of cost accountant, traveling auditor, credit man, office manager, comptroller, treasurer or public accountant. Completion of our courses requires two years. Excellent dormitory accommodations. Graduation from high school meets our entrance requirements. College graduates who are interested in following a business career should realize the advantages of specializing in order to fit themselves to do some one thing particularly well. Experience shows that on an average our graduates double their beginning salary in four years and treble it in eight. To Be Bentley Trained Carries Prestige in Business. Those desiring to enter should forward their applications for enrollment at once. Catalog Sent on Request. THE BENTLEY SCHOOL OF ACCOUNTING AND FINANCE. HARRY C. BENTLEY, C.P.A., President. 921 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass.

A THOUGHT. While I was musing, the fire burned.—Psalms xxxix: 4. Your own property is concerned when your neighbor's house is on fire.—Horace. General Auto Repairing and Overhauling. SHELDON'S GARAGE. Rear of 257 Hollister Street. Phone 2328-3. Residence 2328-5. More than 5,150,000 hunting licenses were taken out by sportsmen of Alaska and the United States last winter.

Ex-Buck PRIVATE goes back to FRANCE

"Marchandepodelapin" Antonio Cascia.

This is chapter 115 of the series of articles by Paul Adams, The Herald correspondent, who is revisiting France as a scout for the American Legion convention in September.

CHAPTER CXV

Of all the many interesting characters of France, none is more interesting than the "marchand de peau de lapin" or the nature of his business; further to the pronunciation of his name.

A "marchand de peau de lapin" is a buyer of the skins of rabbits. His name is beautifully elided. Phonetically perfect. His "marchandepodelapin" — say it fast — "marchandepodelapin."

In every French village, behind every stone maison, there are cages which house the rabbits so dear to the gustatory leanings of the peasants. Not every day, but it least once a week, the woman of the household picks up a struggling, kicking bunny and kills it with a knife. That's all there is to the ceremony. Subsequently, the rabbit adorns a festive board, being converted into an excellent piece of resistance, and the only step that remains to be taken is to sell the hide.

Thus does the "marchand de peau lapin" enter on the scene. He comes up on a bicycle. Behind the seat and on the handlebars he has tied the fruits of his previous dicker. He makes an inquiry and the conversation begins. It may require a half hour to settle on a price—at least that long—if not a full hour. Eventually an agreement is made, the price is paid, and another skin or two adorns the handlebars of that bicyclette. The skins eventually are made into coats, and the coats—many of them—go to America.

Everywhere in France there are marchand de peau de lapin. Up around Tigny and Toux in the Soissons sector, down around Euvezin, Xammes and Woel in the St. Mihiel sector, and over in Romagne, in the Meuse-Argonne, Jean Peyrouillet works that Tigny territory—Emile Farver rides the highroad from Xammes to Lac Lachaussée—and Antonio Cascia operates in the vicinity of Clerges, Reims, in the Meuse-Argonne. These boys know their pelts. Can't fool 'em on the quality or the weight. Keen judges, all of them, and the smartest dickerers in the land. In September, as American Legionnaires tour France, they'll see these tradesmen, their bicycles loaded down with skins, pedalling briskly from one village to another. If the boys have any rabbit skins to sell—they'll get a good price for them.

TOMORROW—A Dining Car.

THE GREAT WAR TEN YEARS AGO TODAY

By United Press August 23, 1917
Washington administration is more disturbed over the Russian situation than at any previous time since the breakdown of the first revolutionary government. Latest reports indicate that the allies should expect no support from disorganized Russia for many months.

President Wilson makes government control of the coal industry almost complete when he reduces prices of hard coal and thus lowers the price to the public.

TEST ANSWERS

Below are answers to the "Now You Ask One" questions on another page.

1—A bond is an interest-bearing certificate of indebtedness.

2—A mortgage is a conveyance of property as security for a debt, on the condition that if the debt is not paid, the conveyance shall be void.

3—Any articles of value pledged as security, as for a loan, are called collateral.

4—Debentures as certificates of indebtedness, unsecured, or secured by secondary obligations.

5—The stock of a company is its capital in the form of transferable shares, each of a certain amount.

6—The par value of stock is its nominal or face value, representing the price at which the stock was issued.

7—Preferred stock ordinarily bears fixed and guaranteed payment of dividends, but represents no voting power in the corporation.

8—Common stock entitles its holder to voting privileges in the corporation, but bears no fixed or guaranteed dividends.

9—Dividends are shares of profits of a corporation distributed to stockholders.

10—Assets are the entire property of an individual or a corporation, available for the payment of debts.

MUST SQUARE HIMSELF
"The best thing you can do, John, is to go and apologize to Mary."
"Yes, but I was in the right."
"Well, in that case, you'd better take some flowers along."—Passing Show.

At C.H. Tryon's Sanitary Market
Phones 441-442

- 50 Day Yellow Bantam Corn 28c dozen.
- Huckleberries 25c qt.
- Apples for Pies, 3 qts. for 25c.
- Brookfield Butter 52c lb.
- Graham Crackers, 2 lb. box 29c.
- Boraxo, 2 cans for 25c.
- Occident Flour, 1-8 bbl. sack $1.39.
- Carnation Evaporated Milk, 11c can.
- 1 lb. box Coffee in wood 29c.
- Parsons' Ammonia, large size, 29c.
- 3 pkgs. Kellogg's Corn Flakes 19c.
- Try Mrs. Clark's Canned Goods in glass, all kinds, 88c.
- Moxie 22c bottle. 5c rebate on bottle.
- Corn Beef 25c.
- Royal Scarlet Coffee in 1 lb. cans 45c.
- Irish Tea, 1-2 lb. pkg. 40c.
- Pure Lard 17c lb.

Meats
Native Poultry, 5 lbs. each 89c lb.
Legs of Lamb 89c lb.
Lamb Patties, 3 for 25c.
Home Dressed Veal today.
Loin Veal to Roast 88c.
Veal Cutlet 88c lb.
Veal Patties, 3 for 25c.
Rib Roast Beef 85c lb.
Pot Roast 80c lb.
Small Link Sausage 88c lb.
Dressed Corn Beef 85c lb.

Fruit
Blueberries 25c qt.
Cantaloupes, 2 for 25c.
Apples, 3 qts. for 25c.
Bananas 10c lb.
California Oranges 65c and 80c dozen.
Peaches 20c qt.
Bartlett Pears 45c dozen.

Vegetables
Yellow Bantam Corn 28c dozen.
Turnips, 3 bunches for 25c.
Beets, 4 bunches for 25c.
Carrots, 4 bunches for 25c.
Cabbage 10c head.
Celery 25c.
Lettuce 12 1/2c.
Tomatoes, 3 lbs. for 25c.
Summer Squash, 4 for 25c.
Parsley 10c.
Soup Bunch 10c.

DAVID CHAMBERS CONTRACTOR and BUILDER
68 Hollister Street, Manchester, Conn.
First and Second Mortgages arranged on all new work.

PLUMBING FIXTURES
A house may have a beautiful exterior, fine fixtures and furnishings on the inside—but if the plumbing is not of high quality or if the unseen system of water supply, water drainage and ventilation of drains is incorrectly installed, then comfort, convenience and health protection are lacking.

JOSEPH C. WILSON
28 SPRUCE STREET, TELEPHONE 641

TALCOTTVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. George Cleveland, Miss Sara Monaghan and Miss Gladys Gibbs left yesterday morning for an automobile trip through Maine, Southern Canada and Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. William Frazier and family of New Britain were Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Frazier's father, Albert Lee.

Fred Thorp and Jackson McKee of this place and Pliney Roy of Manchester caught over 100 bullheads on one of their week-end fishing trips.

The Talcottville Fife and Drum Corps journeyed to Westfield, Mass., on Saturday with thirteen men in line, ten from Talcottville and three from Manchester. They brought home two cups and five medals as a result of the day's competition.

The prizes were as follows: Cup for best playing corps, Ancient music division, Cup for best appearing corps in Ancient music division. William C. Monaghan was awarded a medal for the best individual fife and David Stiles also won a medal for being the second best individual fife.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix McKee of Millers Falls, Mass., spent the week-end with Mrs. McKee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Edmund Bradley.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morrell and George Dodson are on a vacation automobile trip to Canada.

New York State had the largest number of casualties during the World War, its killed numbering 9,196.

WAPPING

James Sullivan left early Monday morning for New Rochelle, N. Y., where he has recently purchased a new theater house. He will open the theater next Sunday afternoon, Aug. 28.

Walter N. Battey received the sad news of the sudden death of his mother, who died Sunday, Aug. 21, about eleven o'clock at her home in Glastonbury.

Mrs. Elizabeth Smith returned to her work at Highland Park on Monday morning, after enjoying a four weeks vacation, spent while visiting relatives in New London, and also a trip through Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Vermont.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Strong and little daughter, Emily, spent the week end at the home of Mrs. Strong's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Collins.

Little Alice Pratt, the six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pratt who met with the serious accident a week ago last Thursday, and lost her eye, has had a very hard week. She had a light attack of spinal meningitis. She is reported to be just about the same as a week ago today. The doctor an eye specialist spoke a little encouragingly of her last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Files and his sons, Judson and Harry, and his daughters, Mrs. Ernestine Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Donahue of Vine street, Hartford, all returned to their home here on Saturday evening, from a camp on Bonny Eagle Lake, Maine, where they have been staying during their month's vacation.

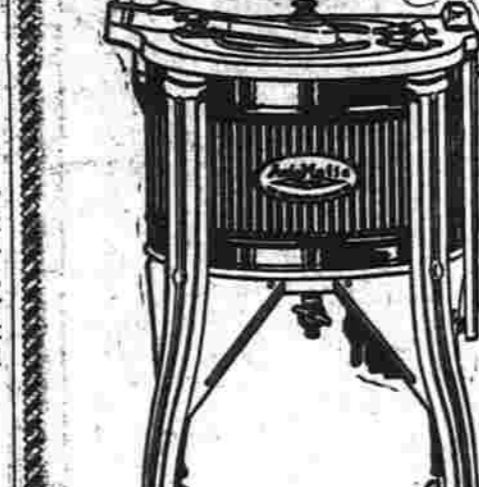

Mrs. Marion E. Lathrop is entertaining three of her cousins from Ellington this week at her home in Buckland.

Charles J. Dewey and Henry S. Nevers motored to Camp Bethel, Tyngsboro, last Sunday and spent the day with their families.

A total of 182 kinds of trees are known in the United States today.

Arthur A. Knoffa Insurance and Real Estate, 875 Main St.

IF YOU HAVEN'T A WASHING MACHINE DON'T FAIL TO ASK FOR A FREE DEMONSTRATION OF THE AUTOMATIC

This Washer assures you real washing service at a minimum of cost. This Washer uses a hydro-disc, the action of which puts no strain upon the clothes when it forces the suds through them.

Only $89.50 $6.50 Down $1.75 Weekly

The Manchester Electric Co. 861 Main Street. Tel. 1700

ENNA JETTICK Health Shoes

From the diary of Enna Jettick
"This was my turn on Mulberry Street. Four children and the father dead. I sent the mother out for the day. My dear, I gave five children a bath. I wondered why one of them looked and squirmed and squealed so, until the mother returned and told me that that youngster belonged to one of the neighbors. It was so good to see her laugh! I gave her a little extra money to buy a pair of Enna Jettick shoes like mine, and I think she won't mind her work so much now."

For women who want to go and do - without fatigue!

C. E. House & Son, Inc. South Manchester.

Wednesday's Sale Special

Colonial PALM STANDS $6.95

Authentic copies of an old Colonial palm stand, made of hand carved solid mahogany, exactly as sketched. They solve the problem of what to do with growing plants or the gold-fish bowl. A design that will never go out of style. Colonial red finish. 12 inch saucer top; 22 inches high. Reg. $8.75.

WATKINS BROTHERS

Sage-Allen & Co. LINC Hartford

Specials That Make It Worth While To Shop at Sage-Allen's

All Day Wednesday

Repeating Our Great $1.00 Hosiery Special!

Chiffon Silk Hosiery $1.00 pair

All silk, right to the top. Full fashioned. Some have very slight irregularities in the weave (which do not in any way affect the appearance or the wear) and others are perfect.

Fair Warning! Last time we offered this "extra special" stocks were depleted so soon that many people were disappointed. Come early Wednesday!

Broken Lots of Misses' Apparel Sharply Reduced for Clearaway

DRESSES, silks, prints, etc. Broken sizes 8 to 16 $5.00

WASHABLE DRESSES, tub silks, linens, prints, cottons and others. $3.98

COATS for girls and juniors, broken sizes 8 to 17. $10.00

A FEW COATS in broken sizes. $5.00

BLOOMER DRESSES, size 7 to 10. $1.49

"Snowflake" Woolens 59c Yard

English Prints For School Frocks 49c Yard

Sport mixtures in an attractive assortment of colors—greens, blues, etc. A splendid material for early fall dresses.

Jersey Sport Frocks $9.75

Clearance sale of several popular styles in plain colors or those showing stripes of contrasting shade. Broken sizes.

Rayon Step-Ins $1.00
Pastel tinted rayon underthings, tailored or trimmed with lace.

Rayon Teddies $1.00
These are plain tailored models, shown in peach, orchid, white and flesh.

Voile Step-Ins 50c
Self striped voile in peach, Nile or coral and striped saffron in flesh color. Second floor.

Drugs
Saco Extract Witch Hazel . . . . . 15c, 25c, 45c
Phillip's Milk
Magnesia . . . . . 39c
Saco Soda Mixture . . . . . 25c
Squibb's Mineral Oil . . . . . 75c
Saco Rubbing Alcohol . . . . . 39c
Multifid Coconut Oil 32c
Saco Toilet Tissue, 2,000 Sheet Rolls, 7 for . . . $1.00

BIG SURPRISE
Johnny, 10 years old, applied for a job as grocery boy for the summer. The grocer wanted a serious-minded youth, so he put Johnny to a little test.
"Well, my boy, what would you do with a million dollars?"
"Oh, gee, I don't know—I wasn't expecting so much at the start."—Passing Show.

REFRESHMENTS
"I was out in the country yesterday."
"Somebody have a picnic?"
"Yeh, the mosquitoes."—Judge.

IT DOESN'T WORK
Hard Old Lady (to tramp): Why don't you work if you are hungry?
Weary Willie: I tried that, ma'am, an' it only made me hungrier.—Answers.

MULHALL A SALESMAN IN STATE'S FEATURE

Leads in "Smile, Brother, Smile," With Dorothy Mackall Today—Furniture Night Thursday.

Jack Mulhall, now one of the most popular actors on the screen, is at his best in "Smile, Brother, Smile," which is the feature at the State theater tonight and tomorrow. He is assisted in the work by a cast which includes Dorothy Mackall, T. Roy Barnes, Philo McCollough and Yola D'Avril.

"Smile, Brother, Smile" fills a life-long ambition of Charles R. Rogers, the producer, who was himself a motion picture producer. Rogers has always sought to portray on the screen a romance of business, and in this vehicle, which features Jack Mulhall and Dorothy Mackall, he has succeeded in his ambition.

This story was written by Al Boasberg, who recently has risen to a place among America's foremost humorists and playwrights, and proves that he knows how to inject romance as well as comedy into his stories. "Smile, Brother, Smile," described as an epic of the traveling salesman, offers comedy, drama and a delightful love story.

It shows Jack Mulhall as a struggling young salesman in a cosmetic factory, whose efforts to put his company across with a big order are hindered by his manager, who secretly is in the employ of another company. Dorothy Mackall, as the factory switchboard operator, finally gives Jack the aid he needs in scoring a coup.

Jack Mulhall and Dorothy Mackall are co-featured in "Smile, Brother, Smile," which was produced for First National by Charles R. Rogers and directed by John-Francis Dillon. Rex Taylor prepared the adaptation.

Furniture night comes again on Thursday with its large number of presents in the form of chairs, tables, bridge lamps and the like. The management expects to handle the record crowd of the week at this time.

End of Season Reductions on All Summer Apparel

Tub Dresses

of silk pongee ..... $2.95

Voile, Dimity ..... $3.95

and Rayon ..... and

Sizes 16 to 50 ..... $5.95

Smart Sport Sweaters

Entire remaining stock on sale this week $2.95 values ..... $1.95

Rubino's GARMENT FASHION CENTER

E. Benson, Thirty Years Selling Bedding

We are trying to convince the public that you cannot get something for nothing. If you want to rest in comfort buy the best.

We have made a study of bedding for over 30 years and we think we know what we are talking about. You do not expect to buy as good an automobile for $800 as you would for $1,200. Just so with a good mattress.

Do not expect as good a mattress for $10 as you would get for twenty or twenty-five.

Come here and get your money's worth. We will stand back of every bed we sell if you want to have us.

Benson's Furniture Co.

The Home of Good Bedding.
649 Main Street.
"We Solicit Your Business Cash or Credit."

HEBRON

The Union Sunday school picnic or community picnic, which was to have taken place on Thursday had to be put over to Tuesday of the following week, Aug. 23, when it will be held at Columbia Lake, Hillcrest Beach as planned. The churches and Sunday schools of the town are invited as well as any people unconnected with any church who wish to attend and who are willing to assist with supplies and expenses.

The Rev. J. H. Fitzgerald was called to his parish at Bay Ridge, N. Y., on Thursday to officiate at the funeral services of one of his parishioners.

A beach party including Mr. and Mrs. Irving Will and their daughter, Miss Marion Will, Mrs. T. D. Martin and Miss Marjorie Martin, the Misses Pendleton, Mrs. Anne C. Gilbert, Miss Helen Gilbert and Miss Clarissa Lord recently visited Ocean Beach, New London, spending the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Miner of Norwich were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Miner.

Miss Clarissa Lord spent the week-end as the guest of Miss Dorothy Andrews at Terramaugus Lake, Marlborough. Miss Lord and Miss Andrews with six other graduates of Connecticut College for Women of the class of 1925, enjoyed a class reunion at the lake, at the Andrews cottage.

Dan Arnold and two children of New York, with a party of friends were callers at the old Arnold home Sunday afternoon. They motored from Lyme where they are spending some time. Mr. Arnold is the brother of Dorothy Arnold, whose mysterious disappearance from her home never been solved. The Arnolds were an old Hebron family. The house on Hebron Green, now owned and occupied by Miss C. E. Kellogg was the old Arnold home.

A baseball game between the Junior ball team of Hebron and Columbia took place on Hebron Green Saturday. The game was umpired by Edward Rathbun. The Columbian won.

Two children of Sherwood Griffin are sick with whooping cough. Mrs. Edmund Horton and her two sons are spending the week in Unionville as guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Doyle, Mrs. Horton's mother.

Mrs. J. A. Hannaway and her daughter Mildred of Pawtucket are guests for the week at the home of Mrs. Hannaway's daughter, Mrs. F. Elton Post.

Mrs. Ina Pratt, who has been in New Hampshire for a visit, has returned and is occupying her cottage at the Andover road.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Canfield of Hartford, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stratton of Guilford and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Nesbit of Hartford were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Griffin.

TOLLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newman have been entertaining their daughter, Mrs. William Sullivan and two children of Rockville.

Mrs. Faith Morris Reed and two sons who have been guests of relatives have returned to their home in Springfield, Mass.

George Crandall who is taking a summer course at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology at Cambridge, Mass., made a sort visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crandall at Grant's Hill.

Miss Gladys Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Reed of West Kingston, R. I., is a guest of her cousin, Miss Edna Crandall, in Springfield, Mass.

Mrs. Zoe Beckley Gollomb and Leete Stone of New York City were week-end guests of Mrs. Gollomb's mother, Mrs. Eliza Harney and Mr. George Bartlett.

Mr. and Mrs. William Overman and daughter Eleanor returned Saturday from Provincetown, Mass. and other points of interest on Cape Cod.

Mrs. Charles Richard Flint and Mrs. Edith Flint were guests Monday of Mr. Seymour at Nathan Hale House, South Coventry.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dodge and their daughter, the Misses Mildred and Margaret Dodge who have been guests at the home of Mr. Dodge's sister, Mrs. William Ayers and family of Merrow road, have returned to their home in Barre, Vermont.

Miss Helen Chapin who has been a guest at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Charles C. Talcott and Mr. Talcott for several weeks has returned to her home in Oradell, N. J.

Mrs. Benjamin Miller and three children who have been spending some time with Mrs. Miller's mother, Mrs. Laura Judson has returned to her home in East Hampton, Long Island.

Mrs. Charles Preston Meacham has returned from a visit with her parents at Poquonock Bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bean and son of San Francisco, Cal., who have been spending some time with Bean's parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Bean at the cottage, are now on their return trip to their home.

Mrs. Adelbert Barrows and daughter, Ethel Barrows of New London, were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Hibbard West at Snipsic Lake.

Miss Alice Budd of Hartford was a week-end guest of Miss Hazel West.

Mrs. Robert Amidon, Miss Helen and Richard Amidon of Scotland, Conn., were guests of friends here last week.

Miss Eleanor Overman will leave Wednesday morning for Summit, N. J., where she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Fred Walker and

BOLTON

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bentley are spending a few days in Scotland.

Albers Heights of Chicago is spending two weeks at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Frederick Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Alvord, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lawton and son, Edwin have returned from a trip through Maine.

Mr. John Massey attended the Lecturer's Conference at Kingston, R. I.

Miss Grace Taylor of New York City spent the week-end with her brother, Rev. Frederick Taylor.

Cromwell, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Fogel and son Kenneth of East Hartford were visitors at Mrs. R. K. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McGurk of West Hartford have returned to their home after spending a week at the McGurk cottage.

Charles Loomis of Pawtucket spent the week end at his home here.

Miss Annie Alvord is visiting Mrs. Hattie Strong in New York City.

The Methodist church fair proved a success in spite of the rainy weather. They realized $60.

A. E. Manegia is spending some time in New York.

Miss Jeanette Sumner spent the week-end with Miss Ruth Jones.

Misses Elizabeth and Ella Sumner spent the week-end at their home.

Carlus Ruggles of Springfield, visited at his home Saturday.

Mrs. Jennie Bolton, Mrs. Elsie Jones and Judge Sumner attended the Columbia church fair Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fries have returned to their home in Boston after visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Pond of New Haven were Sunday guests of Mrs. Jennie Bolton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Howard, Mrs. Ida Sumner are spending a week at Point O' Woods.

Mrs. May Hutchinson and daughter Louise are spending a few days here.

Howard Sumner and Max Lieberman of Hartford were Sunday guests of Mrs. May Hutchinson.

WE SPECIALIZE IN EXAMINING EYES AND FITTING GLASSES

WALTER OLIVER
Optometrist
915 Main St. So. Manchester.
Hours. 10 a. m. to 8 p. m.

Baseball Results

American League

At Chicago—
CUBS vs ATHLETICS
CHICAGO
Hunnefeld, ss ..... 4 0 1 3 2 0
Kamm, 3b ..... 2 0 1 2 0
Mettler, cf ..... 4 1 2 0 0
Barrett, rf ..... 3 1 2 4 1 0
Falk, lf ..... 4 1 0 0 0
Ward, 2b ..... 4 1 2 2 0
Clancy, 1b ..... 4 1 3 7 3 0
Crouse, c ..... 4 1 2 2 0
Lyons, p ..... 4 0 0 0 0

PHILADELPHIA vs ST. LOUIS
AB. R. H. PO. A. E.
Bliss, 2b ..... 4 0 1 0 4 0
Hahn, 1b ..... 4 1 1 2 0 0
French, rf ..... 4 1 1 2 0 0
Cobb, cf ..... 4 1 3 2 0 0
Cochran, c ..... 4 1 3 2 0 0
Dykes, 1b ..... 2 0 1 1 3 0
Wheat, lf ..... 4 1 1 0 0
Galloway, ss ..... 1 0 0 0 1 0
Collins, 2b ..... 1 0 0 0 0 0
Johnson, p ..... 1 0 0 0 1 0
Poles, 3 ..... 1 0 0 0 0 0
Powers, p ..... 1 0 0 0 0 0
Foxx, xxx ..... 1 0 0 0 0 0

At Boston—
BRAVES vs CUBS
BOSTON
Richbourg, rf ..... 4 0 1 0 0 0
Gautreaux, 2b ..... 4 1 1 2 0 0
Widish, cf ..... 4 0 1 1 0 0
High, 3b ..... 4 0 1 1 0 0
Pournier, 1b ..... 4 1 0 1 0 0
Urban, c ..... 4 0 0 0 0 0
Farrall, ss ..... 4 3 4 4 2 0
Clark, lf ..... 4 0 0 0 0 0
Brown, if ..... 4 0 0 0 0 0
Wertz, p ..... 4 0 0 0 0 0
Robertson, p ..... 1 0 1 0 0 0

PHILADELPHIA vs ST. LOUIS
AB. R. H. PO. A. E.
Adams, 2b ..... 4 0 1 1 0 0
English, ss ..... 3 1 1 2 0 0
Webb, rf ..... 4 1 1 4 2 0
Wilson, c ..... 4 0 0 0 0 0
Stephenson, lf ..... 4 0 3 0 0 0
Grimm, 1b ..... 4 0 0 4 1 0
Hartnell, 3b ..... 3 0 1 1 4 0
Beck, 2b ..... 3 0 1 1 4 0
Scott, 3 ..... 1 0 0 0 0 0
Carlson, p ..... 2 0 0 0 0 0
Heathcote, xx ..... 1 0 0 0 0 0

National League

At Philadelphia—
CARDINALS vs PHILLIES
ST. LOUIS
Holm, cf ..... 4 0 1 1 0 0
Toporcer, 3b ..... 4 0 1 1 0 0
Fritch, 2b ..... 4 0 1 1 0 0
Bottomley, 1b ..... 4 1 1 3 0 0
Blades, lf ..... 4 0 1 0 0 0
Farrall, c ..... 4 0 1 0 0 0
Schube, 3 ..... 2 0 0 0 4 0
Haines, p ..... 2 0 0 1 2 0

PHILADELPHIA vs ST. LOUIS
AB. R. H. PO. A. E.
Spalding, lf ..... 3 0 1 2 0 0
Scott, 2 ..... 3 0 1 2 0 0
Nixon, cf ..... 4 0 0 0 0 0
Sand, ss ..... 4 0 2 4 3 0
Williams, 1b ..... 4 0 0 0 0 0
Wrightstone, 1b ..... 4 0 0 0 2 0
Leach, cf, lf ..... 4 0 1 1 1 0
Wilson, c ..... 4 0 0 0 0 0
Thompson, 2b ..... 3 0 1 1 0 0
Friburg, 3b ..... 3 0 1 0 0 0
Ulrich, p ..... 3 0 1 2 0 0

THE SCOREBOARD

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

Eastern League
Hartford 4, Providence 3.
New Haven 3, Bridgeport 0 (1).
New Haven 6, Bridgeport 2 (2).
Albany 9, Waterbury 0 (forfeit).
Pittsfield-Springfield (not scheduled).

American League
Cleveland 9, New York 4.
Chicago 6, Philadelphia 3.
Detroit 6, Washington 2 (1).
Detroit 7, Washington 3 (2).
Boston-St. Louis (not scheduled).
Boston-St. Louis (not scheduled).
St. Louis 1, Philadelphia 0.
Others not scheduled.

Hartford Game

At Hartford—
SENATORS 4, GRAYS 3
HARTFORD
AB. R. H. PO. A. E.
Schmehl, 2b ..... 3 1 1 2 1 0
Davis, cf ..... 3 1 0 0 0 0
Nietzke, 3b ..... 3 0 0 0 0 0
Keesey, 1b ..... 4 1 1 8 0 0
Schinkel, lf ..... 3 0 0 2 0 0
Hornum, 3b ..... 4 1 1 2 1 0
MacPhee, ss ..... 4 1 1 2 1 0
Mangum, c ..... 3 0 0 0 2 0
Ricketts, ss ..... 3 0 0 0 2 0
Beall, p ..... 3 0 0 0 0 0

THE STANDINGS

Eastern League

W.	L.	PC.
Albany	49	567
Springfield	64	544
Pittsfield	62	584
Bridgeport	62	571
Hartford	59	590
New Haven	59	496
Waterbury	45	70

American League

W.	L.	PC.
New York	82	689
Detroit	68	586
Washington	68	559
Philadelphia	66	555
Chicago	55	456
Cleveland	51	429
St. Louis	36	405
Boston	31	308

National League

W.	L.	PC.
Chicago	70	45
Pittsburgh	67	47
St. Louis	66	48
New York	67	52
Cincinnati	52	452
Boston	48	452
Brooklyn	49	479
Philadelphia	42	385

GAMES TODAY

Eastern League
Providence at Hartford (2).
Albany at Pittsfield.
Waterbury at Springfield.
Bridgeport at New Haven.

American League
No games scheduled.

National League
St. Louis at Philadelphia.
Chicago at Boston.

MONEY TO LOAN

First and Second Mortgages

P. D. COMOLLO
13 Oak St. Tel. 1544

Typewriters

All makes. Sold, rented, exchanged and overhauled.

Special Discounts to Students.

Telephone 821

Kemp's Music House

Colonial Furniture Shop

NEW LOCATION
333 CENTER ST.
You are invited to inspect my stock of Antiques.
Repairing and Restoring of Antique and Modern Furniture

Victor Hedeon

THE BOOK OF KNOWLEDGE: (64) Dr. Fridtjof Nansen

The world rang with the sad story of the Jeannette's sinking and De Long's death, but there was to be a startling sequel to the grim tragedy. Three years after the Jeannette sank off the coast of Siberia bits of her began to appear off the coast of Greenland. Wreckage, clothing and writing arrived in a little stream.

The wreckage had come with the current from near Bering Strait in Asia right across the Polar Sea to Europe.

Was there after all a short cut across that terrible ocean by way of the Pole? It fell to Dr. Fridtjof Nansen to solve the riddle.

Nansen, Norwegian scholar and explorer, decided upon a new and terrific challenge to the dreaded ice king. In his wonderful little ship "the Fram" (which means "onward") he decided to drift through the Arctic, letting the Frost King carry the craft wherever it would. Near the New Siberian Islands he moored the Fram to a wandering ice floe and began his famous voyage.

Nansen, Norwegian scholar and explorer, decided upon a new and terrific challenge to the dreaded ice king. In his wonderful little ship "the Fram" (which means "onward") he decided to drift through the Arctic, letting the Frost King carry the craft wherever it would. Near the New Siberian Islands he moored the Fram to a wandering ice floe and began his famous voyage.

By NEA, Through Special Permission of the Publishers of The Book of Knowledge, Copyright, 1923-25.

Homans And Finlay Are Leading Jones

Von Elm Also Trailing In National Amateur Golf Championship—Today's Predictions.

By DAVIS J. WALSH
I. N. S. Sports Editor
Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 23.—Today neither Eugene V. Homans, Englewood, N. J., with a 71 nor Phillips Finlay, Shinnecock Hills, Conn., with a 72, have the slightest quarrel with fate, for they are leading Bobby Jones, George Von Elm, and one of the finest fields ever assembled into the final days of a championship qualifying round in the national amateur golf championship.

They may not win the medal, this adolescent pair that met in the final round of the Eastern Intercollegiate championship, with Finlay winning, this pair that has preferred to go off by itself for a quiet 18 holes, yet has been forced, by the exigencies of tournament play, into close personal contact from time to time. No, it may be that tonight but, whatever happens they are almost certain to qualify.

Today's Dope
That, this morning, was more than one could say about Von Elm, the champion, Bob Gardner, who twice held the title in other and perhaps better years; Rudy Knepper, Bill Fowles, Ben Stein, Frank Dolp and even Watts Gunn with his 77. Only 32 can proceed with the match play rounds after today's final show-down and since almost sixty men broke 80 yesterday, the answer is obvious. A man in the high seventies is not skating on this ice; he is dancing on the spray of the Niagara rapids.

Such a man was Von Elm with a 79. He must do at least 76 today to feel certain of escaping the ignominy of being second national champion in history who failed to qualify for a tournament in defense of his title. Bob Gardner now alone holds this doubtful distinction.

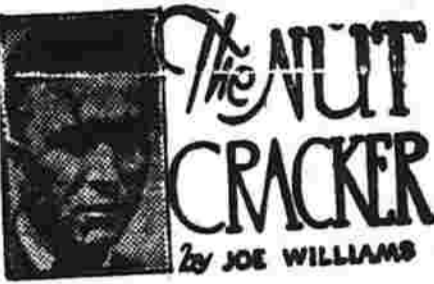

Gardner was starting out behind an 80 this morning. So were Dolp and Stein, not to forget Fred Wright. The good ones grouped with Von Elm at 79 were Knepper and Fowles. Boss Somerville had a 78 and Dr. O. F. Willing and Gunn were in there fighting at 77 with the nucleus of a standing army.

To be certain of remaining with the situation until further notice these entries simply will have to better their hands today. Of course, that happens to be one of the reasons they are good; they can and do bull-eye the situation when necessary.

THE BABE'S ON TOP

RUTH 40, GEHRIG 39.

Wrestling is illegal in Chicago now and they are seriously considering a law making murder the same.

Employment officials state there are 2,000,000 idle men and women in the U. S.—not including the golfers.

"Golf Gives Encouragement," says a headline. Well, it does if you play on a public links.

Many a bloke joins a golf club to impress another bloke who joined the club to impress him.

Careful putting is the surest way of lowering your score—unless it is careful scoring.

"It often happens," writes a doctor, "that a man who is a lunatic is entirely ignorant of the fact." Unless, of course, he happens to bet on a prizefight.

Dempsey rose, says an expert, from a bum to a millionaire. From brake-beam to trunk-line you might say.

Praise New Race Track.
Experts regard Curley Brown's new race track at Arlington as one of the best in the Chicago district.

"Maid Marian," who lived in London about 40 years ago, was 8 feet, 2 inches tall.

FORTY NETSTERS TO COMPETE FOR MANCHESTER TENNIS TITLE

By THOMAS W. STOWE

The first round of the local town championship tennis tournaments played on an elimination basis without handicaps will be run off this week. Forty racket wielders entered their names before closing time at 7 o'clock last night and the pairings were immediately drawn up with twenty-four men and sixteen women competing. The winner of each tournament will receive in addition to a $17 tennis racket docket, R. L., who is a former Manchester resident, a silver loving cup offered by The Manchester Evening Herald, which is promoting the affair. Never before in Manchester's sport history have there been open tournaments of this kind. There have been Recreation, and mill tournaments but in this case anyone in Manchester was eligible to sign up. Without a particle of doubt the best tennis players in Manchester are included in the pairings. Everyone had ample opportunity to enter and the winners may well feel that they are the best men and women tennis players in Manchester this year, at least. It is The Herald's plan to conduct another similar affair next summer and to keep it up annually.

How They Play
The pairings were drawn up at the School Street Rac last evening. In each tournament, the names of each entrant were written on paper tags, mixed up, put in a hat and then shook up well. Then in the presence of Director Miss Ruth Calhoun, Mrs. Gladys Wilkinson, Miss Etta Clulow, Miss Eleanor Rogers, James Neill and the writer, the names were drawn one by one in consecutive order. Play will be as follows: One vs. two, three vs. four, five vs. six, seven vs. eight, etc. Then the winner of one vs. two will meet the three vs. four winner and so on. In the girl's tournament only three rounds and the finals will be necessary but in the men's, an additional round will be required. Unless it develops that it is possible to speed up the latter rounds, the tournaments will be finished in three or four weeks. It is planned to have the finals of both tournaments on Saturday, September 17.

Regrettable Incident
The only regrettable incident connected with the drawing of the pairings, strange to relate, was that in both instances, the only brothers and sisters were matched. In the girl's tournament, the Boyle sisters, Mary and Margaret were matched, while in the men's tourney, Sherwood Bissell and his younger brother, Earl, will have to eliminate one or the other right away. However, fate ruled that in each case they should meet, and so it must be.

The first round of each tournament must be finished before Sunday night. There will be absolutely no excuses allowed. Anyone not having played his or her match in the first round before next Sunday night will be automatically eliminated. The Herald feels that this is giving everyone ample time to play. It was first planned to have Saturday as the time limit but on reconsideration, it was decided to allow the players all day Sunday to "boot."

No Excuses Accepted
There is no excuse why everyone cannot play his or her match before that time. There are six tennis courts at the south end and one over north. They are located as follows: two at the East Side Playgrounds, West Side Playgrounds and in the rear of the South Manchester High school and one on North Main street near the Second Congregational church. The first six, the only ones that will probably be used, are under the control of the Recreation Centers and Miss Ruth Calhoun, director, said last night that no fee would be charged for the rental of the courts for tournament matches. Miss Calhoun, however, stressed the importance of making reservations. She said that few permits have been issued for the remainder of the week as yet and that there will be ample opportunity for everyone to play providing reservation is made immediately.

Arrange Own Matches
It has been decided to grant the players plenty of privileges inasmuch as they will be allowed to decide when and where they will play. However, do not forget that the "when" means before 8 o'clock at night. Requests to get in communication immediately with each other and make plans for their matches. Unless the players feel that they need a referee, they will handle their own matches. Should there be exceptions, The Herald or the Recreation Center which is doing considerable to make the affair a success, will name an official. However, the consensus among the players seems to be that they will be able to handle their own matches.

The winner of each match is responsible for submitting the complete score of his or her match to the Recreation Center or to the writer at the sports department of The Herald immediately after it is played. The scores of each set must be turned in. Incidentally the matches up to the finals will be the best two out of three sets with the finals being the best three out of five.

Men's Tournament
Here are the names, addresses and telephone numbers of the members of the men's tournament and how they are paired in the first round:

1 and 2—Louis Farr, 45 Cottage street, phone 741-3, vs. Leonard Berry, 18 Knox street, phone 976-2.
3 and 4—Harry Russell, 22 Ridge street, phone 1388-2, vs. Fred Van Ness, 417 South Main street, phone 346-13.

5 and 6—John Boyle, 115 Walnut street, phone 338-9, vs. Ephriam Cole, 8 Middle Turnpike West, phone 168-5.

7 and 8—Herbert Kerr, 4 Fairfield street, phone 62-3, vs. Lawrence Paisley, 457 North Main street, phone 346-13.

9 and 10—Sherwood Bissell vs. Earl Bissell, 109 High street.

11 and 12—Henry McCann, Cross street, vs. Ding Farr, 45 Cottage street, phone 741-3.

13 and 14—Walter Dunn, 23 Hamlin street, phone 1765 vs. Robert Metcalf, 89 Pleasant street, phone 1970.

15 and 16—Paul Cervini, 75 Main street, phone 158-12 vs. Walter Holland, 108 High street, phone 155-12.

17 and 18—James Quish, 39 Locust street, 114-2 vs. Bernhard Schubert, 54 Cooper street, phone 244-3.

19 and 20—James Neill, 97 Oxford street, 2438-3 vs. Joseph McCann, 454 Main street phone 814.

21 and 22—Arthur Krob, 77 Laurel street, phone 2223 vs. Kenneth May, 18 Trotter street, phone 975-2.

23 and 24—Matthew Macdonald, 199 Center street, phone 2214 vs. William Brennan, 487 Main street, phone 1022.

Girls' Tournament
1 and 2—Etta Clulow, 101 Walnut street, phone 2409 vs. Ruth Behrend, 41 Walnut street, phone 1982.

3 and 4—Esther Metcalf, 89 Pleasant street, phone 1970 vs. Ethel Robb, 197 Center street, phone 724.

5 and 6—Elizabeth Waskiewicz, town, vs. Eleanor Runde, 118 Walnut street, phone 763.

7 and 8—Flora Nelson, 29 Lilac street, phone 1535 vs. Kathryn Giblin, 28 Cottage street, phone 798.

9 and 10—Mary McVeigh, 85 School street, phone 1008 vs. Leo Giglio, 209 Spruce street.

11 and 12—Margaret Boyle vs. Mary Boyle, Manchester Green, phone 252-12.

13 and 14—Esther Carlini, 17 Norman street vs. Estelle Jackson, 34 Middle Turnpike West, phone 1295.

15 and 16—Evelyn Clarke, 93 Main street vs. Aileen McHale, 169 Center street, phone 244-2.

A white leghorn hen on an Iowa farm, being deprived of her setting of eggs, flew to the top of a tree and took possession of a crow's nest and eggs.

LEAGUE LEADERS SHOW STRAIN OF THE GRIND

(BY LIES CONKLIN)

New York, Aug. 23.—Leaders in both leagues were showing the strain of the pennant grind today. The Cubs, thrice defeated by the millitant Boston Braves, lead the Pirates by only two and a half games. The Yankees have lost four straight, their longest losing streak of the season.

While the Yanks lead the Tigers by 12 1-2 games and are in little danger of losing the pennant, their slump is causing apprehension to their supporters who recall how the team went to pieces on its final western trip last season. The astounding Tigers have won thirteen straight.

With Farrell leading the assault on Carlson with four hits, the Braves walloped the Cubs five to three. The teams play again today.

Ed Brown, Boston outfielder, set a new National League record when he played in his 534th consecutive game.

Babe Ruth hit his 40th homer, breaking the tie with Buster Gehrig, but the Yanks lost to Cleveland nine to four. The Indians tagged Moore, Shocker and Penneck for nineteen hits, Joey Sewell getting four.

Hellmann and McMann collected homers as Detroit drubbed Washington twelve, four to two and seven to three. Walter Johnston lost the nightcap, but helped himself to a home run.

Chick Hafey's home run was the only score as Jess Haines of the Cardinals chalked up his twentieth victory in winning a one to nothing duel from Frank Ulrich of the Phillies. Ulrich advanced only four hits. The Cards advanced to within one game of the Pirates, who were idle.

Marriage Ruins Boxer.
A French doctor claims that marriage ruins boxers.

Plans Next Eastern Trip
Despite her poor showing in the Poughkeepsie regatta this season, California already is planning for the 1928 regatta.

Only Profit Shown.
Football was the only sport at Rutgers that showed a profit last year.

C. B. A. A. And Green Meet This Evening

Try Conclusions For Second Time; Cheneys Won 3 to 1 Before; Prentice vs. Boyce Or Georgetti.

Weather permitting, Cheney Brothers and Manchester Green will hook up tonight at the West Side in the second of their two-game series. Cheneys won the first game a couple of weeks back by a 3 to 1 score in a game that was in doubt until the final out. Due to the fact that Cheney Brothers meet the Bon Ami in the first game of a new three game series Thursday night, it is a matter of conjecture as to just who will ascend the mound for the mill team. It all depends on which man Coach Bill Brennan thinks is the better for the Bon Ami series starter. Eddie Boyce has been going good of late and it is his turn to pitch, but he may be saved for the pitched Saturday be used. On the other hand, Lefty Wiley may be given an opportunity.

The Manchester Green lineup this evening will be the same as it was reported. Lefty St. John is due to play centerfield, Art Seeler moving over to left. Joe Prentice and Jack Hayden will probably form the battery. The game will start shortly after six o'clock and if darkness doesn't come too soon, seven innings will be realized.

CONRAN GIVES PROFITS TO THE CLOVERLEAVES

Manager Bill Griffin of the Cloverleaves football team today branded as false any statement to the effect that his team will enter a state league composed of teams from New Britain, Meriden, Waterbury, Thomaston and Thompsonville. It had been reported in an out of town paper that the local team might enter such a circuit.

Manager Griffin also announced that Tommy Conran, well known north end bowling alley proprietor had generously offered the net receipts of his business next Thursday night to help reimburse the team's treasury. All the money received from pool and bowling games above actual expenses will be donated to the Cloverleaves. At seven o'clock Thursday night, the Cloverleaves will practice at the Community club grounds after which they will all adjourn to the bowling alley.

STAR DIVER WILL BE WATER MEET FEATURE

Howard Steppe, College Champion, To Give Exhibition At Globe Hollow on Saturday.

Howard Steppe, former intercollegiate diving champion, will be one of the features at the annual aquatic meet at Globe Hollow on Saturday. Steppe is considered one of the best springboard men in New England and his repertoire includes almost every dive known. He will go on for an exhibition and will be one of the judges in the diving contests in which Manchester boys are entered.

The aquatic meet will be an all day picnic, and the first events will start in the morning at 10:30. The morning events will be confined mostly to the younger people and will include underwater stunts and freak races. The boys' and girls' events will be started at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

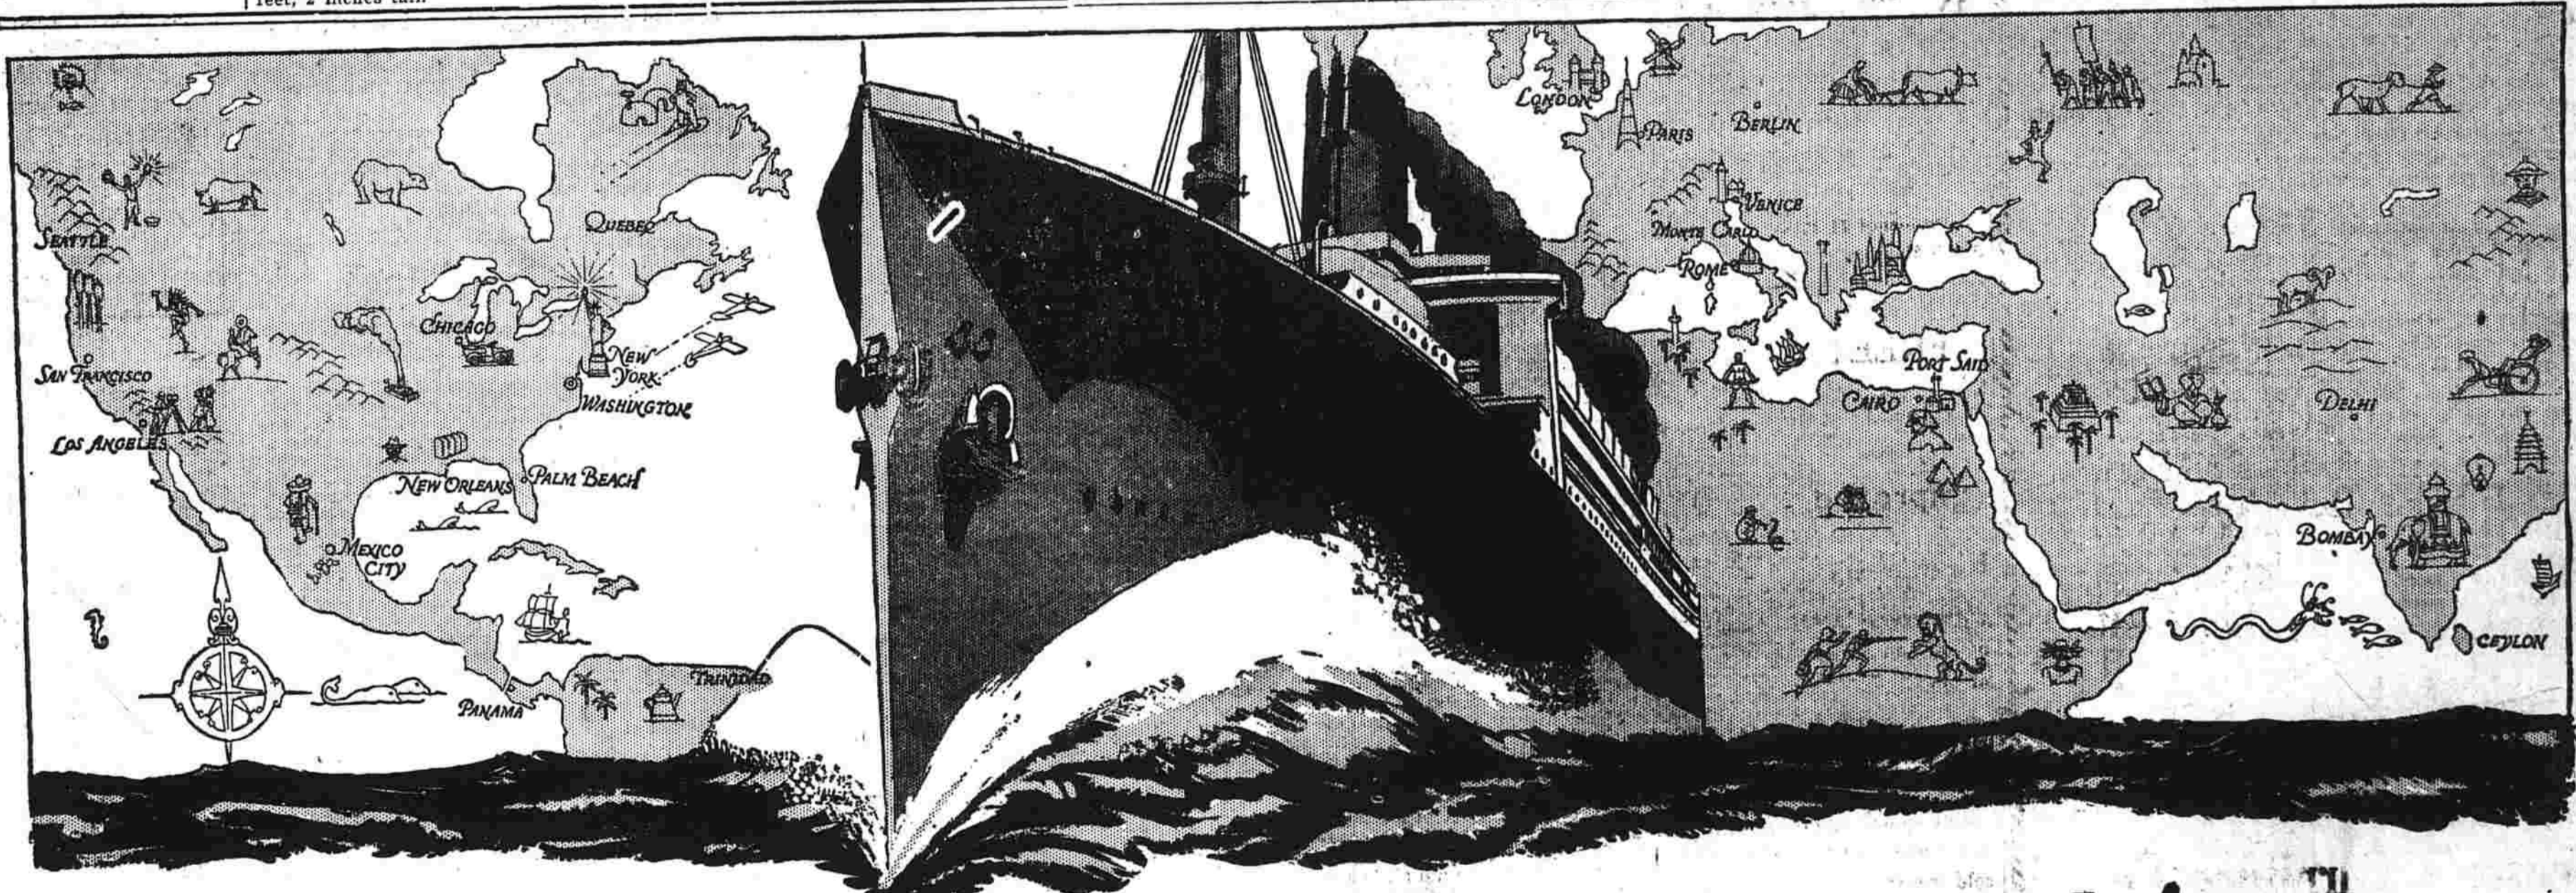

There are to be three classes in the regular competitions. These will be divided into those under 12 years of age, between 12 and 14, 14 to 16 and over 16. The intermediate class, between 14 and 16, will have as its principal contenders Markley and Warnock, rivals for the past several years. There will be four events in which this class will compete, 50-yard novice, 50-yard freestyle, 100-yard freestyle and 50-yard backstroke. There will also be a fancy dive.

In the adult class, there will be the addition of a 50-yard breast stroke and the 440-yard swim around the pond. The smaller classes will do the 25-yard novice, 25-yard freestyle, 50-yard freestyle and the fancy dive.

Demonstrations of lifesaving by members of the local Red Cross Lifesaving Corps will be given during the afternoon. The boys who will take part have been under the instruction of Miss Ruth Calhoun of the Recreation Centers and most of them have received their emblems as members of the corps.

Families are invited to come to the pond and to make a picnic of the event. The big lot at the rear of the bath house is ideal for the purpose.

The first record for traveling around the world was made by Magellan's expedition, which completed the circuit September 8, 1522, having been gone twelve days less than three years. The present record is 28 days, 14 hours, 36 minutes and 5 seconds.

Yes.. in all four corners of the earth!

THE FOLLOWING IS QUOTED, BY PERMISSION, FROM A LETTER OF MR. A. J. BARKER, ST. LOUIS, DATED MAY 10th, 1927

"It will be, I have no doubt, a source of gratification to you to know that Chesterfield cigarettes were on sale and, at that, the leading American seller, in all parts of the world.
"We started our trip on December 2nd, and visited among other points—Madeira Island... Gibraltar... Monte Carlo... Algiers... Haifa... Jerusalem... Cairo... Naples... Suez...

Bombay... Java... Dutch Sumatra... Singapore... Manila... Hongkong... Shanghai... Peking... Kobe... Tokyo... Honolulu... the Canal Zone... Havana and home.
"Not only was Chesterfield the leading American cigarette at all points visited, but it was the best seller (all brands) on our ship, the Empress of Scotland."

Chesterfield

LEONARD & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

THE SUN NEVER SETS ON CHESTERFIELD'S POPULARITY

DAILY RADIO PROGRAM

Tuesday, August 23. 7:00-8:00 Theater vaudeville. 8:00-9:00 WEAF programs (3 hrs.). 9:00-10:00 WEAF programs (2 hrs.). 10:00-11:00 WEAF programs (1 hr.). 11:00-12:00 WEAF programs (1 hr.).

Leading DX Stations. (DST) (ST) 478-WBS, ATLANTA-430. 9:00-10:00 WEAF programs. 10:00-11:00 WEAF programs. 12:45-1:45 Concert. 528-KYW, CHICAGO-570. 7:30-8:30 Dinner music.

WTIC

Travelers Insurance Co. Hartford, Conn. 467.

Program for Tuesday E. D. S. T.

6:30 P. M.—Dinner Concert. Sea Gull Dinner Group. Ben Irving, director. 8:50—News and Baseball Scores. 7:00—Dinner Concert continued.

ANDOVER

A musical comedy, "See America First," will be presented in the town hall Friday evening by talent from Hebron, Colchester and Westchester. It is to be given under the auspices of the Andover Christian Endeavor Society and will begin at 8 o'clock, D. S. T.

Selections to be announced The Riff Song One Alone Just Across the River from Queens Honey Do Trio Selections to be announced Paradise Isle (Waltz) Somebody Else Red Lips Somebody Said Me and My Shadow 8:30—"Sons of the City" vealed in Nature." Miss Dorothy Cook acted as organist. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Colborn, of Willington, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry of Mansfield Center, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lavey, of Hartford, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lewis on Sunday.

LAST CALL Straw Hats $1.00 Take your pick of any straw sailor or Toyo in stock. SYMINGTON SHOP At the Center.

Callouses Quick, safe, sure relief from painful callouses on the feet. Dr. Scholl's Zino-pads Put one on—two pain is gone.

Second Mortgage Money Now On Hand Arthur A. Knofla 875 Main St. Phone 782-2.

ALEXANDER JARVIS, Jr. SAND, GRAVEL, STONE CINDER FILLING Loam and Grading. Ashes Removed. Moving and Trucking. Now is the time to have your lots graded at the Cemeteries by ALEXANDER JARVIS, JR. 416 Center Street, Phone 341

ANDOVER Mrs. Ward Talbot, Mrs. Hubert Thompson and Mrs. Erskine Hyde attended the supper and entertainment by the Ready Helpers society in North Coventry Wednesday.

Thursday at the home of Mrs. Thomas Lewis at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Ella Curtis returned home Friday after spending a week with her cousin in Burnside. Mrs. Curtis spent Thursday night with Mrs. Ada Gilson in Manchester.

Insist on Springfield Brand 100% Pure Barley Malt and Hop Extract UNITED MALT STORES 1071 MAIN ST., SOUTH MANCHESTER F. D. LEWIS 11 Maple St., South Manchester. Phone 2018

All Types All Sizes All Prices ALL GOODYEAR'S A Carcass . . . that is trouble-proof A carcass of Supertwist Cord explains the astonishing ability of Goodyear's NEW All-Weather Balloon to absorb punishment.

The Record of an Achievement Written on the chart below is the story of an accomplishment of real significance to the people of Connecticut. EXCHANGE & TOLL RATES COMPARED WITH COST OF LIVING AND WHOLESALE PRICES. The heavy straight black line represents the cost of living in 1914. High above, as the years move on, soar the hills and valleys of wholesale prices and the cost of living since that time.

Cars Of All Makes--Late Models--Thoroughly Reconditioned "Trade-Ins"--Many Bargains

Want Ad Information Manchester Evening Herald Classified Advertisements

Lost and Found FOUND--SMALL PIGS Owner may have found by proving property and paying for adv. Call 687-5.

Automobile for Sale WHY TAKE CHANCES? ONE WEEK FREE TRIAL 15 MONTHS TO PAY BALANCE

Table with columns for Car Model and Price. Includes models like Chrysler Sedan, Oldsmobile Coach, etc.

Prices on Used Cars probably never will be lower than they are today. Dealers throughout the city have cut their stocks to bedrock.

Business Locations for Rent FIVE ROOM TENEMENT all improvements, including steam heat, electric, etc.

Wanted to Rent WANTED--RENT FIVE rooms or more West Side, Main street all improvements by September 1st.

Desirable Lots in Colonial Garden section. Price reasonable. Apply 23 West Middle Turnpike.

Advertisement for a used car sale with the headline 'A USED CAR SALE THAT COMES BUT ONCE IN A LIFETIME'.

Advertisement for a used car sale with the headline 'USED CARS AT PRACTICALLY YOUR OWN PRICES'.

Advertisement for a used car sale with the headline 'THE COMMERCIAL USED CAR CO. 1273 MAIN ST. HARTFORD'.

Advertisement for a used car sale with the headline 'Auto Repairing--Painting'.

Advertisement for a used car sale with the headline 'Business Opportunities'.

Advertisement for a used car sale with the headline 'Household Goods'.

Advertisement for a used car sale with the headline 'Business Property for Sale'.

Advertisement for a used car sale with the headline 'Lots for Sale'.

Telephone Your Want Ads Ads are accepted over the telephone at the CHARGE RATE given above.

Index of Classifications Evening Herald Want Ads are now grouped according to classifications below and for handy reference order indicated in the numerical order indicated.

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Automobiles and Accessories Automobiles for Exchange, Auto Accessories, Auto Repairing, etc.

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Business and Professional Services Business and Professional Services will be classified in the following manner:

Advertisement for an auction of real estate, including details about the property and the auctioneer, Robert M. Reid.

By Percy L. Crosby

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS:

Sometimes it's mighty hard to give a soft answer.

SENSE and NONSENSE

Everybody's talking about making the streets safe for pedestrians and nobody's doing anything about it.

Always a Hit A detour here, another there, Now into ruts and hotels we drop. The yield of detours never falls, It always is a bumper crop.

Passenger-Driver: Driver! Have you lost your senses? Taxi Driver: Not yet, but I reckon I will at the next turn—my brakes have gone flooie.

Office-Say, lady, do you realize that you were going 50 miles an hour? The Lady—Oh, officer, I couldn't have been; I've only been driving 15 minutes.

An odd simile was used recently by a young motorist in speaking of a very homely girl. "She looks," he said, "like seven miles of bad road."

Traffic Cop—I'm sorry, Miss, but I've got to tag your car. You know what that means? The Sweet Young Thing—Certainly. Now I chase somebody else and tag them and then they're it.

Etiquette In case of an auto wreck, who should speak first? An should the man precede the lady through the windshield?

When a woman first learns To drive a car, She may not be nervous— But her neighbors are!

If the motoring public were forced to repeat aloud, quickly and clearly, the safety slogan, Cross Crossings Cautiously before they attempt the feat, many of them would walk. Try it.

And Then They Kissed "Will you please drive off the track?" asked the motorman. The truck driver promptly reined to one side.

"Thank you ever so much," said the motorman, with a smile. "You're very welcome," responded the truck driver, "but you must pardon my seeming carelessness. I had no idea your car was so near."

Angry motorist (after grade-crossing accident): You engineers must think you own the crossings. Irrate Engineer: No, but some of you motorists drive as if you owned your cars.

"Father, the world is round, is it not?" "Yes, my son," the parent agreed. "Then, father, if I wanted to go east, I could get there, could I not, by going west?"

"Yes, my son, you could—and you'll be a taxicab driver when you grow up."

"Oh, I can't stand him—he's an awful flat!" "Yes, but he's got a motor-car and ten thousand a year—what you might call a flat, with every modern improvement."

He—Something seems to be wrong with this engine, if— She—Don't talk foolish, wait until we get off this main road.

SKIPPY

The Toonerville Trolley That Meets All the Trains

By Fontaine Fox

THERE HAVE BEEN A COUPLE OF TRICKY DAMAGE SUITS AGAINST THE CAR COMPANY LATELY AND THE SKIPPER ISN'T TAKING ANY CHANCES.

WASHINGTON TUBBS II

By Crane

NOW YOU Ask One

BUSINESS TERM QUIZ

What do you know about stocks and bonds? Test your knowledge of business terms on this quiz. Answers are on another page.

1—During the war, everybody bought Liberty bonds, but—what is a bond?

2—When the folks talk about a mortgage on the old home, what do they mean by "mortgage"?

3—When you go to a bank to borrow money, they ask for collateral. What does "collateral" mean?

4—On the financial pages, you see debentures advertised for sale by big corporations. What are "debentures"?

5—On Wall Street, they trade in stocks. What is the "stock" of a corporation?

6—They also speak of the par value of stocks. What do they mean by "par value"?

7—Does preferred stock entitle the holder to vote at stockholders' meetings?

8—Does common stock bear fixed and guaranteed dividends?

9—What are dividends?

10—And lastly, what are the "assets" of a company?

Butler—Ma'am, the new cook has come and she wants to know where to park her motor car.

Permanent parking places are needed for pedestrians, says one traffic expert. Has he forgotten the telephone booths?

Mary, Mary, quite contrary, How does your fivver go? Creaks and groans and rattles and moans, And pretty much to and fro.

A postal card three feet long and two feet wide and requiring one dollar postage was recently received in Chicago inviting the post office clerks to attend the national convention of their organization in Indianapolis.

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

Ritz!

By Blosser

SALESMAN SAM

Accommodating

By Small

Jack Lockwill at Summer Camp

by Gilbert Patten

By the time the middle of the lake was reached Saunders had taken a lead over the others. Then Lockwill, who had alternated the breast stroke with the tudegon, was seen to fall into the improved crawl. Driving along at his best, Lizard Wattles kept pace with Jack. "You're licked at this, Lockwill," he taunted. An instant later, he yelled: "Cramp! I've got a cramp!"

The fellow threw up both hands, and went down. A few swift, strong strokes carried Lockwill to the spot. Diving, he brought Wattles to the surface.

Crazed by pain and fear, Lizard tried to clutch Jack round the neck. He fought so hard that the rescuer was forced to give him a quieting jolt on the chin.

Then the judge's canoe came up, and Lockwill helped get the boy into it. "I guess this puts you out of the race, Jack," said the judge. "but probably you saved Lizard's life." Making no reply, Jack went steaming away after Saunders, who was now well over toward High Bluff. As Buke approached the bluff, a figure appeared on the top of it—the young Indian, Jim Hatchel. (To Be Continued)

THE TINYMITES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

A pocket-knife was soon brought out and then the bunch heard Clowzy shout, "Why, this is much too small, I fear. We'll need an axe instead. The beams are big. The corn is tall, and this wee knife won't do at all. Will someone kindly find an axe so we can go ahead."

A Gooly Goo then ran away, and on returning, said "Hurray! I've found a mighty dandy axe. Who'll cut the beams and corn?" "Why, I will!" shouted Clowzy, loud, and then he promptly showed the crowd just how to do the cutting job. He worked till he was worn.

Then he suggested, with a smile, "Hey, someone else please cut a while." And Carpy picked the big axe up, and tried to take his turn. He often found the axe was stuck. In fact he didn't have much luck, so Clowzy turned and said, "I think you have a lot to learn."

"Oh, is that so?" Wee Carpy cried, and dragged the axe down by (The Tynmites gather butter and milk in the next story.)

DANCE CARNIVAL AT RAU'S PAVILION CRYSTAL LAKE WEDNESDAY, AUG. 24.

ABOUT TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bliss of Wells street have returned after spending a week at the Marwill cottage, Pleasant View, R. I.

Miss Eva Buckland of Hartford has returned home after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Weiman of Eldridge street.

Mrs. Frank Northrop of Cumberland street is entertaining Miss Eleanor Baxter of Waterford.

OPEN FORUM

BLAMES DR. SWEET FOR POOR HIGHWAYS Letter to Herald Says Sewer Construction Has Spoiled Three Roads.

22 CRAVAT SALESMEN WATCH SILK MAKING

Spending Most of Week Here Learning Inside Facts At the Cheney Mills.

Entertain Friends At "Dog" Roast

Mr. and Mrs. David Moriarty of Florence street entertained about twenty of their friends at a "dog" and marshmallow roast last evening.

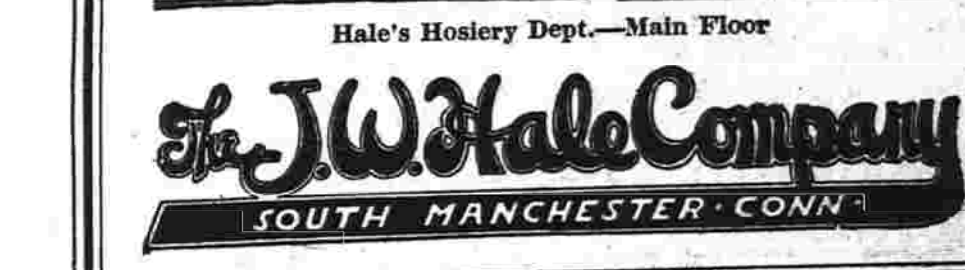

National Humming Bird and BLUE CRANE Hosiery Week

August 22nd to 27th Humming Bird Blue Crane Silk Hose $1.25 $1.00

For Your Car I Can Provide A new top, new curtains, slip covers, carpets, glassmobile enclosures, Sport Model tops and dust covers made to order.

Humming Bird Pure Silk Hose $1.50 Blue Crane Chiffon Hose $1.19

BLUE CRANE MEDIUM WEIGHT POINTED HEELS $1.00 Fashion says "pointed heels." Here they are, in the ever-popular Blue Crane Hose.

BLUE CRANES WEAR LONGER

Hale's Hosiery Dept.—Main Floor

The J. W. Hale Company SOUTH MANCHESTER, CONN.

Reymander's Market

1069 Main Street, Opposite Army & Navy Club Phone 456 We Deliver

Fresh Mackerel lb. 15c

Table listing various fish and their prices: Halibut 45c, Cod Steaks 25c, Boiling Cod 20c, Flounders 15c, Salmon 40c, Swordfish 39c, Boston Blue 20c, Butterfish 30c, Haddock 12 1/2c, Filet of Haddock 25c.

Clams for Chowder. New Crop Salt Mackerel, Salt Herring. Fancy Golden Bantam Corn. Fresh Vegetables and Fruits of all kinds.

Students Are Enrolling for the Fall Term Now

Write for circulars. The Connecticut Business College G. H. Wilcox, Principal Odd Fellows' Block, South Manchester

BUSINESS TRAINING

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for circulars.

Write for