probable that he did nothing about it. Widow Cross Examined Assistant Prosecutor Hinkle cross-examined Mrs. Lillendahl on her alleged contradictory statements made to authorities after the killing, but she was steadfast in her stand that she had "told the truth." Willis Beach, the man with whom the widow is accused of having illicit relations, which led to the doctor's death, was dividing his glances from half-closed eyes between Mrs. Lillendahl and the jury. She also explained that her husband's quarrels with Beach were due to differences arising from their mutual hobby of raising chickens. Other defense witnesses had thus disposed of the "ill-feeling" that the state says existed between Dr. Lillendahl and Willis Beach. The "secret" letters, which she exchanged with Beach under the name of "Peggy Anderson," were merely notes keeping Beach posted on the doctor's health, she said, explaining that "Peggy Anderson" was a former pet name and also the name of her girlhood chum in Baltimore. She said she knew that the postmistress, Mrs. Tamberlain was "gossipy" so she used the false name to avoid comment. The doctor knew of the letters, she said.

Rockville

Keeney Has Chance
Rockville, Dec. 5.—Lafayette

Keeney, president of the Somersville Manufacturing Company and widely known in woolen manufacturing circles throughout the East, who is in a critical condition at his home in Somers as the result of an accident in the mill is suffering from a dislocation of the fifth cervical vertebra which has caused almost complete paralysis of the arms and legs. The last day or two has seen a slight lessening of the paralysis, and this, together with the declaration of a Boston specialist called in on the case Friday that Mr. Keeney has a chance for recovery, has considerably encouraged his wide circle of acquaintances. Mr. Keeney is about 70 years of age and until the accident had enjoyed almost perfect health having attended daily to the active duties of his office.

Keeney sustained his injury in a somewhat unusual manner. It appears to have been a custom for the employees of the company at certain times of the day to roll huge sheets of wool stock down the stairs from a mezzanine level, and on one of these occasions, Mr. Keeney, who was standing on the stairs, was struck on the head by a sheet of wool which fell from above. He was knocked down by the sheet, and although not rendered unconscious, sustained a serious injury to his neck. He has since been under the care of Dr. Thornton E. Vail of Thompsonville and Dr. Carl A. Schillander of Springfield, in addition to which nothing is being spared in the way of advice of specialists in the way of a somewhat unusual manner.

Associated with President Keeney as officials of the Somersville Manufacturing Company are his two sons, Senator R. Leland Keeney and former Rep. Ralph D. Keeney. The company recently announced a program of market expansion, including not only additions to the Somersville mills but also through the purchase of the former plant of the Belding-Hemmenway silk factory in Rockville, which it is planned to convert to its line. Senator R. Leland Keeney is president of the American Wool and Worsted Association, a national trade organization, at the annual meeting of which he will preside in New York Wednesday unless prevented by the seriousness of his father's condition.

Lafayette Keeney has been one of the foremost residents of the town of Somers for many years and has been prominently identified with the woolen industry during most of his life. He ascended to the presidency of the Somersville Manufacturing Company following the death of his brother, Gen. George E. Keeney, a few years ago, after having served as vice-president for a number of years.

Joseph Dobosz, aged 73 years, died Saturday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Siegfried on Ward street. He was born in Austria on Jan. 12, 1854 and has been a resident of this city for the past 40 years. He was a member of St. Josephs Polish Catholic church. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Valerian Gworek and Mrs. Fred Siegfried of this city, and one son, John Dobosz of Burlington, Vt. The funeral will be held Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Josephs church. Burial will be in St. Bernards cemetery.

The Bristol I. O. O. F. Degree team will exemplify the third degree on a class of candidates this evening in I. O. F. hall. A "Garden Supper" will be served at 7 o'clock in lieu of baked Virginia ham, brown gravy, mashed potatoes, sauerkraut, rolls, relishes, doughnuts, coffee and cigars.

The Emblem club charity whist which is to be held this Wednesday evening, will be the largest affair of the kind to be held in Rockville for some time. The tickets are fifty cents and the proceeds will be used for Christmas cheer. Refreshments will be served. Mrs. Richard Latham is in charge of the whist and Mrs. Thomas Garvan of the bridge.

The annual Memorial Service of the Rockville Lodge, B. P. O. E., was held Sunday at the Elks' home and was well attended. Judge John E. Fahey was the speaker. Since the lodge was instituted in Sept. 1918, thirty four members have passed on and were honored at this meeting.

The W. C. T. U. Institute will meet at the Methodist church Thursday from 10:00 to 4:00 p. m. Luncheon will be served at noon. Mrs. Nellis Rule Arnold, state treasurer and Mrs. Marguerite Goodale, state secretary will be the speakers.

Mrs. Charles Mead and Mrs. Mary Gregus entertained the officers of the Friendly Class of the Union Congregational church at the home of Mrs. Mead on Union street, Friday evening. The program included various games, Miss Edith Smith being the leader. At 10 o'clock everyone was invited to the dining room where waffles, fruit and candy were served. Mrs. Robert Liebe assisted Mrs. Mead in serving. It was a very pleasant affair and one long to be remembered by those present.

Burpee W. R. C. will hold their regular meeting on Wednesday evening, when the annual election of officers will take place. The Christmas sale which the lodge held last week was a financial success and over seventy dollars was added to the treasury. Allen, pastor of the church, read scripture and offered prayer. Rev. At the burial service in Buckland cemetery Rev. F. C. Allen read the scripture service and Rev. Watson Woodruff offered prayer.

HEAVY SENTENCES GIVEN OFFENDERS

Mary Lombardo Gets Six Months—Her Pal Four Months; Foley Case Wednesday.

Two disreputable characters, Mary Lombardo and Adam Page were sent to jail by Judge Raymond A. Johnson in the Manchester police court this morning. Both were charged with fornication. Page was given four months and Mary Lombardo six months, and an additional thirty days because Judge Johnson revoked the suspension of a thirty-day jail sentence given her ten days ago. She was one of the nine persons brought into the local court at that time for selling liquor.

Mary Lombardo is a recent import from Hartford to Manchester. She was married only a short time ago to Camillo Lombardo of Homestead street, who is at present serving a sixty-day jail sentence for keeping liquor with intent to sell.

Complaint Changed Page was brought into court on a simple breach of the peace charge, Friday night, but when some of the testimony was given Prosecuting Attorney Hathaway decided to change the complaint. In court Page admitted that he and Mary Lombardo had been sent to jail on three previous occasions in Hartford. He was released from jail the first of December and according to his own story he immediately started out to street, where he learned that she had come to Manchester where she was married to Lombardo. Page also testified that Mary was back at her old job of selling liquor.

Town Well Rid of Woman It was the consensus of the court officials, as well as the police and those who heard the case that Judge Johnson did well to give them long jail sentences and help rid the town of such specimens of humanity.

Berk Pays Fine Steve Berk of No. 3 Kerry street was before the court charged with breach of the peace and assault on his wife. The row took place at the Berk home on Friday night. Officer Roberts was called by Mrs. Berk. This morning, however, the woman apparently fearing that her husband would be sent to jail did not tell all that took place, she was, in a sense, an unwilling witness. The judge suspended judgment on the breach of peace charge and imposed a fine of $10 and costs for assault.

Foley Case Wednesday Arthur Barnes of Wapping who caused the arrest of Constable James Foley on an assault charge last week, apparently had an attack of cold fever when it came to appearing against him in police court this morning. It is surmised that Barnes and Foley got together and settled their differences and it was believed that the trouble was at an end. When the case was called this morning neither Foley, Barnes nor the four witnesses were present. Judge Johnson ordered the case continued until Wednesday morning at nine o'clock when Foley will be brought into court and answer to the charge of assault on Barnes. Officer Arthur Seymour was given the warrant and will subpoena all interested in the case.

SHOW GIRL ROBBED Boston, Mass., Dec. 5.—The Boston police pickpocket squad and Boston-Elevated special police cooperated today in an effort to round up a gang of pickpockets responsible for robbing Miss Betty Marjorie Fisher, fur model and former Pittsburgh show girl, of her savings of $4,600 as well as smaller amounts from six other persons.

Stamford, Conn., Dec. 5.—With the first fall of snow here came the first coasting accident of the winter. David Kallman, thirteen, and John Smith, twelve, were badly hurt when their sled struck a pole at the foot of a hill in Springdale. Kallman sustained a fractured skull and is in critical condition at Stamford hospital. Smith sustained cuts and bruises but was not dangerously hurt.

FIVE HAVE ESCAPE WHEN CAR OVERTURNS

Sedan, Badly Smashed, Goes on Its Way and Nobody is Injured.

A Hartford man, his wife and their three small children had a narrow escape from death or serious injury at 3:10 yesterday afternoon when the Studebaker sedan in which they were riding skidded and overturned on Hartford Road at the curve near Cheney Brothers' gas house.

M. and Mrs. Antonio Paolino and family of 25 Charles street, were the occupants of the automobile that overturned as the driver was rounding the corner, headed toward Hartford. The road was slippery because of the sleet storm.

How the occupants of the car escaped without injury is a mystery, because of a row at Mary Lombardo, and the top of the car, a front fender and wheel were also damaged, yet when the car was righted later, it was driven away under its own power by Mr. Paolino. The car was towed to Hartford by a passing motorist.

Patrolman John McGilgan made the police investigation.

FIRST COASTING ACCIDENT

Stamford, Conn., Dec. 5.—With the first fall of snow here came the first coasting accident of the winter. Kallman sustained a fractured skull and is in critical condition at Stamford hospital. Smith sustained cuts and bruises but was not dangerously hurt.

FIGHTING TO KEEP DIPHTHERIA UNDER

Ninth District Program Calls For Schick Tests and Immunization.

Under the direction of Superintendent F. A. Verplanck, a vigorous campaign is being carried on in the Ninth School District to prevent diphtheria from getting as strong a foothold as it did last year when there were thirty-three cases.

Questionnaires have been sent to the 2,000 parents of grade school children in the district in an effort to learn how many of the children have ever had diphtheria, how many have been Schick tested and how many have received the positive treatment, toxin-anti-toxin.

Many replies have already been received disclosing that in one school, out of 465 pupils, 28 had had the disease before, 91 had received toxin-anti-toxin treatment, leaving 346 children in need of immunization. A second communication will be sent out to parents of children in need of immunization advising that this preventative treatment be administered. The questionnaire says in part:

Some children can have diphtheria and some cannot. Doctors can find out by the Schick test whether the child can or cannot have diphtheria.

When the doctor gives the Schick test he injects a drop of fluid furnished by the State Board of Health into the skin of the forearm. The child suffers no discomfort, injury or illness. If the child can have diphtheria a small red spot appears on the arm which, after a few days disappears. This spot shows that the child can have diphtheria.

Are you willing that your child should be Schick tested at no expense to yourself? If so, fill out this sheet and return it to the school by your child.

Last year we had many cases of diphtheria in our school. We hope you will be willing to help in our efforts to free this town from diphtheria.

After the Schick test has been given and the number of children susceptible to the disease has been discovered, it is planned to have such pupils immunized. Superintendent Verplanck said that, with the approval of the Ninth District School committee, the co-operation of the members of the Manchester Medical Association through Dr. D. C. Y. Moore, had been obtained and that such treatment would be given at a greatly reduced fee which would be entirely in the meeting of each and every parent.

Superintendent Verplanck said that there are already six cases of diphtheria in the grade schools of the Ninth School district but that he hoped the campaign now in progress would prevent a recurrence of the condition of last year when a "cool" authorities had to keep up a continued fight against the disease. There were no deaths among the Ninth District School children from this ailment last school year.

SOVIETS IN PART OF PEACEMAKERS

Help in settling the territorial quarrel between Poland and Lithuania. Immediately afterward Litvinoff called upon the Lithuanian delegates and asked them to take a "moderate" attitude, also to employ every possible means for a settlement.

This is the first time since the creation of the League of Nations that Soviet Russia has co-operated with that organization in behalf of European peace. Reports are current in some quarters that Soviet Russia may be invited to join the League next year.

PLAN NEW POLICY

London, Dec. 5.—Despite the refusal of the Foreign Office to forecast the result of the Geneva conference between Foreign Secretary Sir Austen Chamberlain and Maxim Litvinoff, of Soviet Russia, opinion prevailed in unofficial circles that it may lead to a new policy towards England by the Soviet government.

Foreign attaches intimated that Sir Austen "is well fortified with stiff resolutions demanding a guarantee of the cessation of Soviet propaganda in England" before there can be any question of restoring amicable relations.

During the recent celebration of the tenth anniversary of the Communist revolution in Moscow many speakers openly declared that England is plotting against the Soviets. Government officials and official newspapers at Moscow made repeated charges against England. Marchers carried banners with inscriptions attacking Sir Austen Chamberlain and Mussolini.

BRINGS $5,000 SUIT FOR FALL IN DITCH

Willard Smith Starts Action Against Michael Coughlin Of North End.

Willard Smith of Depot Square, better known in the north end as Webb Smith has brought suit, for $5,000 against Michael Coughlin, also of the north end, the outgrowth of an accident which is said to have occurred on September 29th of this year. Property at 185 North Main street owned by Coughlin, has been attached.

Smith alleges that Coughlin, owner of a passageway adjoining his brick building on North Main street, dug a ditch a few inches from the easterly side of the passageway, and left it unguarded, unlighted and open during that night.

Expensive Injury He further alleges that he came through the passageway, accompanied by a companion, and fell into the ditch, suffering a fracture of a bone in his ankle. The injury, he says, has cost a lot of money in doctors' and nurses' bills, and has caused him to be crippled permanently.

He charges negligence on the part of Coughlin, claiming that the ditch should have either been guarded or marked by lights during the night.

In his suit he asks for $5,000 damages and the sum of $75 for prosecuting expenses.

70 YEARS OLD RECOVERS FROM HIP OPERATION

W. J. Ferguson Home From Hartford Hospital After Delicate Operation.

W. J. Ferguson, who has been at the Hartford hospital for ten weeks where he underwent a serious operation, was brought to his home on North Elm street yesterday afternoon in Holiora's ambulance. Mr. Ferguson has been sitting for the past two years with trouble in the right hip. The operation which was performed by Dr. Paul Sweet of Hartford was considered an exceptionally delicate one, especially so in this case for the reason that Mr. Ferguson had just passed his 70th birthday. However, the operation was very successful and before leaving the hospital the patient was able, with the use of crutches, to walk along the corridor for a short distance. It is now expected that Mr. Ferguson will recover fully from the trouble and be able to get about again.

MONDAY, DEC. 5, 1927

CONGRESS

Today the Seventieth Congress of the United States convened. It is the fashion in this nation, where Congress is concerned, to look bored, shrug shoulders and say, "Well, the country has got Congress on its hand again—let's hope it does a little harm as possible."

This fashion is being deliberately fostered and encouraged by that not inconsiderable group which is our American Fascist, it is an extremely ignorant and foolish state of mind.

In the first place, Congress is exactly and precisely what the American people make it. It always has been and it always will be. If the majority of our citizens take no real interest in public affairs, if there is no higher ideal of government than to use it to get something for our individual selves, if we as a people are without genuine knowledge about registration and predicate our political affiliations on inherited prejudices and bigotry, if we choose our representatives and senators carelessly and accept whatever aspirants play the game the most cleverly, it takes a deal of nerve on our part to expect Congress to consist of a lot of sanctified patriots willing to go to Washington and sweat through torrid summers framing laws whose only purpose is to make the ordinary person happy.

There is really no body of political opinion in the United States—for partisan affiliation and prejudice is not real political opinion. Congress, in nine out of ten cases, has no intelligent guide in the public. It has to do the best it can for the country, while keeping its jobs.

On the whole it does amazingly well. This session is bound to be given over very largely to party maneuvering. But, after all, what else have the people in mind? Anything?

VARE AND SMITH

With the opening of Congress today the Senate faces one of those periodically recurring harassments, disputes as to the eligibility of members-elect who come to the body with no question as to the regularity of their certification but surrounded by doubts as to the regularity of their election.

There can scarcely be two minds as to the ethics or even as to the morality of the methods which brought about the nomination and election of Smith of Illinois. He and his political aspirations were fostered by public service corporations to whom he had been kind in his official capacity and was expected to continue being kind in his new job. The public service people put up the money and the Anti-Saloon League and the "better element" nominated and elected him. If admitted to the Senate he will not be his own man; he will be, of course, a controlled senator.

The Vare case is considerably different. Vare was winner in the Pennsylvania contest because he as well as the other contestants had command of an enormous campaign fund and used it more cleverly than the others. It was a "barrel" contest. But Vare is a boss, not a bossed politician. In the Senate, if admitted, he will probably do as he pleases and vote as he likes.

Such elections to the Senate have a very bad effect, of course, on the public's deductions as to the rectitude of our political system. They are proper ground for indignation and resentment.

But in our perhaps quite individual opinion they are none of the Senate's affairs.

It is true that the Constitution provides that each house of Congress shall be the judge of the qualifications of its own members, but the paragraph in which that power is bestowed is a compound one and the right to judge election returns is bracketed with a mere reference to "qualifications" in the same sentence. It is easy to believe that the framers of the document had in mind only such matters of fact as the age, citizenship, etc., of the senator, as specifically provided by the constitution itself, and no intention whatever of providing for the body passing judgment on the morality either of the candidate or his election. "Election returns" and elections themselves may well be two very different matters.

At all events, it is our sincere belief that a senator or a representative in the House of Representatives, correctly certified as the choice of state or district, has a perfect right to his seat, no matter how reprehensible he may be as an individual. He is elected to represent the state or the district—and the choice of such representative is obviously the concern and business of the area represented and of nobody else.

If the people of Illinois elect a Smith or the people of Pennsylvania elect a Vare that is their business and nobody's else. He is the person that the people wanted, else they would not have elected him. If they want him because they are paid, or want him because they are fools or morally debauched, he still represents the majority of political sentiment in the region. And it is for the people that we have representative government. There was once a prize fighter in Congress in the days when prize fighting was a criminal pursuit. He was more truly representative of his district than any other person possibly could have been—a hundred times more so than a college professor or a minister. He was elected by the kind of people who thought a criminal prize fighter was the greatest of men.

Smith and Vare were elected to the Senate by states that were in favor of the Smith and Vare type of senator. If they are not entitled to their choice then there comes an end of representative government.

We don't believe that the Constitution framers ever intended that representatives or senators should be thrown out for their morals or the manner of their election. And if they did they made a mistake. There is simply no limit to what this sort of thing could be carried. Imagine a chance Democratic majority unseating every Republican member because his views on the tariff were "immoral."

HACKNEYED

There seems to be a considerable wave of astonishment sloshing back and forth over the country because Governor Al Smith told the League of Women Voters that he couldn't see anything reprehensible about people organizing to fight the Eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act. Why this commonplace declaration should surprise anybody we can't for the life of us see. People have always organized, in this country, to bring about changes in laws.

The twelfth amendment to the constitution, providing for separate voting for President and Vice-President by the electors, was the result of organized effort to prevent a repetition of the Jefferson-Burr mix-up in 1804, the original constitution having been found grievously at fault in this relation. The thirteenth amendment was so much the result of organization that before it was adopted the country was split and a great war fought. The fourteenth and fifteenth amendments were further issues of this solidified organization against slavery and its kindred evils. The sixteenth amendment, providing for income taxation, would never in the world have been adopted had there not been a systematic, organized demand from farm and labor bodies all over the country. The movement for popular election of United States senators, resulting in the seventeenth amendment, was very thoroughly organized indeed, while the perfection of organization gave us the lamentable eighteenth and the admirable nineteenth or woman suffrage amendment.

There was tremendous outcry against the idea of organizing to attack the constitutionality of chattel slavery. The abolitionist was a traitor and what not, in the view of the old slavery supporting majority. But the notion that there was anything evil in striving to erase the constitutional warrant for slavery is nowadays too ridiculous to even occasion a smile.

We see nothing remarkable at all about the Smith declaration. It says something that everybody who has the slightest conception of the meaning of constitutional government takes for granted. We give the opponents of any change in the liquor laws credit for far too much intelligence to believe that advocacy of Eighteenth amendment repeal or Volstead law modification is treasonable or bad citizenship. But it is not very intelligent, by pretending otherwise, to allow a Presidential aspirant to pose as a Moses by asserting what is nothing in the world but the commonest kind of garden variety truth, which everybody knows.

FACTS ABOUT CONNECTICUT

(5) Connecticut's Climate Best.

The best climate has four characteristics. It must have cool but not cold winters as a mental stimulus; warm but not hot summers as a physical stimulus; a high humidity except in warm weather; frequent changes of weather.

Connecticut is blessed with all of these. In Connecticut, the average annual temperature decreases from about 60 degrees on the south coast to about 48 degrees in the northeast and 45 in the northwest. In midwinter the average temperature decreases from about 30 degrees along the south coast to 24 in the north, while in midsummer the average temperature is about 72 degrees along the Sound, about 74 in the middle interior and 70 in the northwest. In all portions of the state the temperature usually descends below zero at times during the winter and ascends to between 90 and 100 degrees at times during the summer.

The prevailing winds in Connecticut are from the westward. The monthly mean value of relative humidity varies from about 50 to 80 per cent. Throughout most of the state, the average rainfall is from 45 to 50 inches. The snowfall varies very much from year to year, but on an average for a series of years about 40 inches fall in the southern part, with a fairly regular increase toward the northern part of the state to 50 inches in the northeast and 60 in the northwest.

Tomorrow—Connecticut Is Growing.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER

Washington.—Thousands of fingers are itching to get into the legislative pie as the Seventieth Congress begins to assemble.

Congress will be petitioned, beseeched or whacked on the head by hundreds of groups and organizations.

Many private bills will be pushed demanding relief for a single person. At the other extreme, Congress will find legislative programs supported by millions banded together in associations.

The Sixty-ninth Congress introduced 24,729 bills and resolutions, only 1,424 of which—including 842 private bills—became law, so many are bound to be left out when the new laws are dished out. Here, however, it is a summary of the legislative programs of some of the most important, largest and most reputable of the national organizations.

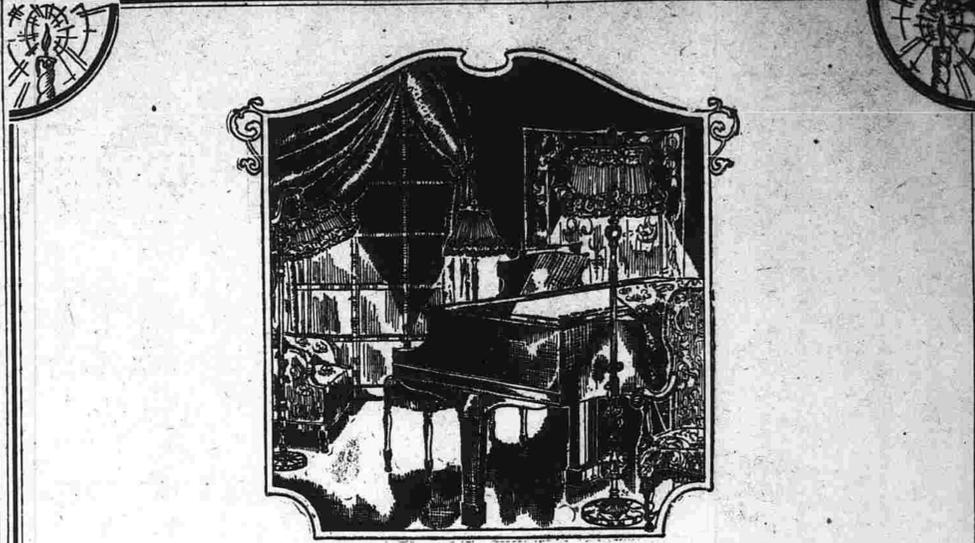

THE AMERICAN FARM BUREAU FEDERATION, largest of the farmer organizations, will support the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill with the equalization feature, the Muscle Shoals bill, which would turn that government project over to the American Cyanamid Company, standardization of hampers and baskets for fruits and vegetables, an adequate and permanent merchant marine, enlargement of the budget and research work of the Agriculture Department plus more funds to fight the corn borer and bovine tuberculosis, agricultural representation abroad, comprehensive flood control work, continuance of the Maternity and Infancy act, truth in fabrics, development of inland water transportation, tax bill accentuating the paying off of the federal highway appropriations. It will oppose any plan of the original plan of the farm loan system and any bill carrying a subsidy for anyone.

THE AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR will support further restriction of immigration, a 44-hour week in the government printing office, funding of the Public Health Service to investigate occupational diseases, employment of none but American citizens on government work, investigation of the bread trust, the Norris amendment to abolish lunch sessions on side streets, prohibition of compulsory military training, the McNary-Haugen bill, removal of radio broadcasting control from the Commerce Department to a permanent commission, workmen's compensation for a uniform marriage and divorce law, presidential prerogative and blue laws for the District of Columbia.

THE GENERAL FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS, representing millions of women, will support flood control legislation based on the plan of the late Senator Newlands, a federal Department of Education with its own cabinet member, the St. Lawrence waterway, co-operative extension work in agriculture and home economics, with men and women extension agents "in equitable proportions," designation of mothers caring for homes and families in wife or mother capacities as "home makers" in the next census taking, regulation of interstate commerce in prison made goods, a nurses' corps in the Public Health Service, constitutional amendment for a uniform marriage and divorce law, and various measures tending to relieve American Indians from the injustices and inequalities which now burden them.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OF THE UNITED STATES, representing the business men, advocates substantial reduction of the corporation income tax rate, repeal of excise taxes on particular businesses and of the federal gift tax, "proper" federal food protection, and adequate privately owned and operated merchant marine (along with opposition to continuance of the Shipping Board in the shipping business), consolidation of postal agencies, reorganization of federal administration for efficiency and economy, slight immigration law modification, return of alien property, ratification of the Lausanne treaty with Turkey, parcel post amendment to abolish lame duck sessions, legislation providing registration of lobbyists and other measures of western progressives.

Nearly five hundred whales were taken in Alaskan waters last year.

THE new Ford car has been on the market only a few days, but it has already created unusual interest throughout the country. Millions of people got the full details of it last week for the first time and were delighted with the story of its beauty, speed, comfort, safety and low price.

All day long and far into the night, great crowds gathered in hundreds of Ford salesrooms from Maine to Florida and from New York to San Francisco. Never has such interest been shown in a new car. Never has any new car so far exceeded expectations.

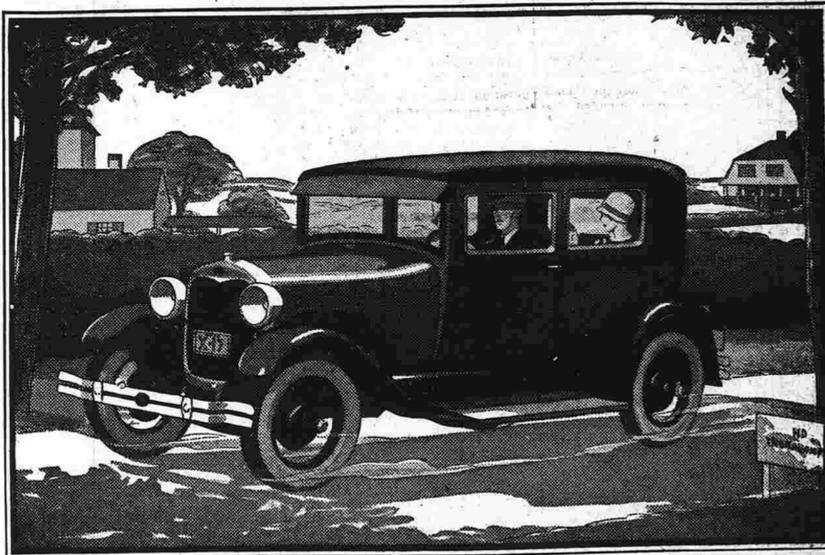

People knew that Ford was making a new car. They knew it was a good car. They had read announcements about it. But they had no idea it would be a car like this. Their quick appreciation of it is shown by the record-breaking sales.

Greatest day in the history of the automobile industry

Thousands upon thousands of orders for the new Ford car have been received since last Friday. These, and the advance orders placed with us by motorists even before the car was officially announced, will keep the entire Ford plant working day and night for weeks to come.

Such figures are a clear and unmistakable reflection of the value that has been built into the new Ford car. It is, without question, the outstanding purchase of all time in the light-car field.

car—ride in it—know the thrill of driving it easily and safely through thickest traffic or step it up to sixty and sixty-five on the open road, you cannot begin to appreciate the extent of the many mechanical improvements embodied in its construction.

It is difficult to believe that so much speed, power, beauty, quiet, comfort and safety can be had at such a low price. It would be impossible if this new car were made by anyone but Ford.

Only Ford could sell such a fine car at such a low price

The low price of the new Ford car and its exceptional performance are the result of manufacturing practices and economies as unusual as the car itself. The new Ford is more than a new automobile. It is a new idea in modern, economical transportation.

By all means, take a little while today to learn about this new automobile. You will know that there is nothing quite like it anywhere in quality and price.

SAY EUROPE DRIFTS TOWARD A NEW WAR

Disputes Over Territory Provide Dozen "Danger Spots"—Balkan Situation Like That of 1914.

EDITOR'S NOTE: With the convening of the Geneva conference on reduction in armaments, the eyes of the world have turned again to Europe, trying to determine whether Europe is to continue at peace or to generate another great war. The Herald today presents the first of a series of six articles by Milton Bronner, special European correspondent for NEA Service and The Herald in which the whole European situation is carefully analyzed. The second article will appear tomorrow.

By MILTON BRONNER
NEA Service Writer

London, Dec. 5.—After you have made due allowance for the ambitions of the German war lords, the European monarchs and the great race in armaments, you will find that the World War had its chief causes in two sore spots on the map—Alsace-Lorraine and the Balkans. What is the situation today, nine years after the warring nations met at Geneva to discuss a reduction in armaments? The Balkan situation is as threatening and dangerous as it was in 1914.

And the map of Europe has a dozen Alsace-Lorraines instead of one. Prior to 1914, neither France nor Germany ever for a moment forgot Alsace-Lorraine. Germany, having seized the provinces in 1870, was uneasy; France, thirsted for revenge, and the statue of the city of Strasbourg, in the Place de la Concord at Paris, was decorated annually by Frenchmen who lamented that it was a city in a conquered province. Today the situation is reversed. In Munich, capital of Bavaria, stands a great triumphal arch on a main

WHERE TROUBLE BREEDS

This map indicates some of the "sore spots" that may provide a new European war. At the top the arrows indicate the cities of Memel, taken from Germany and given to Lithuania, and Vilna, taken from Lithuania by Poland. Note how the Polish corridor to the sea cuts East Prussia off from the rest of Germany. Rumania's troubles are shown by the shaded territories; Bessarabia, taken from the Russians and Transylvania, taken from Hungary. The dotted portion of the map shows where Rumanian and Bulgarian frontier guards recently clashed. The relative positions of Austria, Yugoslavia and Albania are also shown.

the synthetic country south of Yugoslavia, rich in oil, is allied with Italy, while Yugoslavia looks to France for support. There is not a shadow of doubt that Yugoslavia plans a war with Italy as soon as she is prepared for one. Austria's Plight. Next comes Austria—a small territory of 4,000,000 inhabitants, half of whom live in Vienna. Vienna cannot live without selling her manufactured goods; but all her former territories are shut out by high tariff walls. Austria, as a result, wants to unite with Germany.

ENCAMPMENT ENJOYS SUPPER AND SETBACK

Shepherd Encampment, I. O. O. F., held a roast beef supper and set-back party in Odd Fellows' hall Saturday night which was largely attended. The supper was served at 6:30 and was followed by talks by prominent members of the lodge. Among the speakers was Rev. M. S. Stocking of the North Methodist Episcopal church. Grand High Priest Beardley of Meriden was present and also spoke.

Following the supper a set-back tournament was conducted with several teams entered. First prizes were won by the Chapman-Robinson team, second by the Smith brothers and the consolation went to Munsey and England. Miss Madeline Spiess was in charge of the waitresses and the decorations, and the young ladies also punched the tickets during the set-back playing.

OVERCOME BY SMOKE

Stamford, Conn., Dec. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. Beekman F. Hsley, of Colender's Point, Darien, are recovering in Stamford hospital today from the effects of a fire that swept through the living room of their home on Sunday, rendered both unconscious, and did considerable damage to the room in which it started.

Neighbors discovered the fire and rescued Mr. and Mrs. Hsley who were in danger of being suffocated. Mr. Hsley, a retired New York banker, sustained a cut head when he fell. Fire probably due to an overheated boiler destroyed the plant of the Florence Florist Co., also at Darien, early Sunday, doing damage estimated at upward of $10,000. The boiler room and five green houses were wiped out. A milk man discovered the blaze.

FOUR BURNED TO DEATH

St. Louis, Dec. 5.—Four women are dead and a fifth is expected to die from injuries suffered early today when fire gutted the Buckingham hotel annex, seven other persons were seriously injured in the fire, which caused a loss estimated at $180,000. All of the other 75 guests and employees in the hotel when the fire started are believed safe.

SURPRISE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond D. Streeter of Manchester Green were tendered a very happy surprise Saturday evening at their home by a party of 40 relatives and friends from Hartford, New London, New Britain and Manchester. The Misses Margaret Robinson and Hilda Magnuson provided piano solos, Miss Goldberg of Hartford, contralto, sang. Games were played and a thoroughly enjoyable evening spent by all in attendance. The guests brought with them not only a plentiful supply of good things to eat, but a handsome floor lamp, which was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Streeter by Henry Z. Stanley in behalf of the gathering.

TWO DAY HOUSE PARTY FOR TWINS' BIRTHDAY

Visitors from Hartford, Manchester and New York were present at the birthday party given in honor of Louise M. and Martha L. Reinhart, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Reinhart of Bush Hill road, on Saturday and Sunday. The twins were 16 years old on Saturday.

The girls received many presents, among them a purse of money and a beautiful bouquet of American Beauty roses. The party lasted until a late hour on Saturday night and was resumed on Sunday. On Sunday afternoon the girls left for New York, where they will spend the next three weeks. Among the visitors were Mrs. Edward Frohman and three sons, of New York City and Charles Carroll, also of New York.

TALCOTTVILLE

The following is part of a letter from the Talcottville Church Missionary in China, Rev. Edward H. Smith.

Foochow, China Nov. 1927.

"Changes have come during the past 20 years but the changes have not been equal to the abiding realities; twenty glorious and tragic years! In spite of the foolishness and madness of men God has stirred in the hearts of the world that passion for something higher. God is back of Russia's revolution and China's chaos and Mexican madness. Mankind is moving out in the great Pilgrimage. And you believe it as much as I do and so you continue to send your generous gifts to China to speak to these boys and girls of the love and fellowship that exist in the mighty movements we find ourselves in. God is calling China and India and Turkey and all of us as plainly as He spoke to Abram to leave the old and in simple trust to march forward to a new life. A few minutes ago at the gate I watch 1,000 men march past, Chinese soldier boys, dark visaged, ignorant, surly, lives stunted and debased from childhood poverty and neglect and later by the cruelty and crime of soldiering. Oh, it is so tragic!

"Now I go in a few minutes to church and there sit the Christians in a crowded congregation, clean, smiling, singing 'Holy! Holy! Holy! Lord God Almighty!' Students men and women who are ready to give their lives for China and for Christ. All over this great land the forces of evil and of good are in titanic struggle. Your money helps to furnish munitions and support for the army of Light and Purity and Peace and Righteousness and World Brotherhood. It is worth doing and we thrill with joy to be able to be here and work. Oh we do hate to grow old! One ought to live at least 100 years on a job like this! However Helen and Eunice are preparing to carry on. Helen wrote this week she had put in her first papers with the board in Boston to come out next year! And Eunice is a Senior in College (Wheaton) at Norton Massachusetts and she purposes to take Kindergarten training in Teachers College in New York before she comes out.

"There is no occasion for dismay or fear. The Church in China is going forward. Some are unable to make the adjustments to the new conditions and have gone home. To be able to adjust to new demands and change habits and plans and ideas, to be able to appraise new situations is the acid test of the mission fields. Who is able to stand? Day by day I fall back on that blessed promise 'If any man lack wisdom let him ask God who giveth liberally and upbraideth not' (for pour ignorance).

"Pray we may have the wisdom and spirit of Christ in all our life that we may impart it to this sick, awakened, but baffled people in the midst of changes they do not understand or desire. Coming out of Egypt with the desert on every hand as far as the eye can reach.

"We have not yet been able to get home to Inghok but we are in constant touch with the preachers and teachers and students. We hope to get back to them soon. They are carrying on nobly. The future is secure.

Our greetings to all.
Yours gratefully,
Edward H. Smith.

The Home Branch of the Woman's Missionary Society of this church planned an interesting meeting for Tuesday afternoon. The ladies will meet to sew, at 2:30, for Tbugaloo. "GORILLA" THRILLS BIG STATE CROWD

Mystery Play is Creepy—Tom Meighan in "City Gone Wild" Here Tomorrow.

"The Gorilla," said to be the best mystery play ever shown on the moving picture screen, played to capacity audiences at the State theater last night. Thrills and creeps were scattered throughout the picture and the audience gasped with excitement in every reel. Charlie Murray and Fred Kelsey were funny and convincing. They did not catch the gorilla, but that wasn't their fault. It was the fault of Murray, who was pictured as the dumbest detective ever seen. Murray did some of his best acting in the picture and it was thru his efforts that the film has become so popular. Others in the cast who did good work were Tully Marshall, Claude Gillingwater and Alice Day.

Tomorrow will see at the State one of the greatest crook plays ever filmed. Thomas Meighan, the leading role in this drama, "The City Gone Wild." The picture itself might have been the true story of Chicago and its gangs, for all the realism that there is in it. Gang wars have brought on a terrific crime wave in the city. Gallagher and Schroeder, the rival leaders, have staged machine gun battles in the streets and the lives of people are in danger. City officials determine on a campaign to end the crime wave but something comes up which spoils their plans. The leader of the gangs on one side is the father of the girl with whom one of the principal lawyers of the city is in love. This is Meighan's character and to complicate things the district attorney turns out to be Meighan's best friend. Things are tangled up in a complicated mess but the solution comes with quickness and logic, the plot unwinding as easily as a ball of string.

The Blazing Horizon

THE STORY TELLER... TONY HARRISON, 13, is orphaned when JEFF HARRISON, his father, is shot in a poker game in Caldwell, Kas. He is befriended by GORDON W. LILLIE, a restaurant waiter, by JOE CRAIG, foreman of the Bar K ranch, who takes Tony to the Bar K to live, and by COLONEL TITUS MOORE, owner of the ranch, which is in the Cherokee Strip.

BEHIND that blow had been every ounce of the young man's supple strength. It was a real sleep-producing punch. The superintendent dropped to the floor and in falling struck his head against the window sill. Blood trickled from the cut and he lay like one dead.

Finally he got up and made straight for the Indian agent's office. Major Bowman was waiting for him, with an expression of deep concern. "Bill, you're lucky you didn't kill him. He says you tried to. They've taken him to the hospital and he's charging you with attempted murder."

The other clasped it with his own. "I'll write to you when I hear from you." With a charge of attempted murder against him, he traveled best to travel light and travel fast. Accordingly, he was unencumbered with excess baggage when he mounted his horse and turned his face toward the northwest.

"There's twenty dollars, even, that Bill throws him." maneuver, but with three it should be no very difficult matter. "We'll take that ferry," Pawnee Bill said, "and put your buggy and the horses on it. Then we can take our clothes off and push."

Craig scratched his head and grinned. "That would seem a right smart thing to do, Bill. I'm real grateful that you can't make your visits stretch a little longer. Seems every time I see you you're in a hurry to get some place. Let's see; it's going on two years ago that you dropped in to pay your respects on your way south. Man! how you've filled out!" He appraised the other admiringly.

difference of opinion and Bill just naturally insisted on finding out which one was right. "Craig's a liar, Colonel," said Pawnee Bill, smiling. "I'm simply saving him a two-year wait."

Titus Moore looked casually at Pawnee Bill as he stood, naked down to the belt line, waiting for the word to go. The long-haired youth was built like a wedge, with broad and powerful shoulders and slender waist. His depth of chest was remarkable, and the colonel noted, with suddenly narrowed eyes and pursed lips, the strong neck and the smooth flow of muscles in the upper arm.

He led the way to the cook house, where they were met by the other Bar K riders, straggling in from the range. "I've got a grubber here," Joe Craig explained to the cook, a frowny looking individual with sour expression and a huge mustache. "He's got a contract on his hands that he's got to fulfill as soon as his meal's settled."

The WOMAN'S DAY by ALLENE SUMNER

The waitress asked me three times at lunch yesterday if I would have cream or lemon, and, after telling her cream three times, she brought me lemon. The girl who takes telephone appointments at the hairdresser's asked me twice if I said haircut and shampoo or haircut and marcel, and then dated me up for the wrong combination.

"I Take Thee—" A recent bridal couple startled the clergyman when, without waiting for the clergyman to first read the marriage lines and then repeat them poll-parrotwise after him, the groom bravely started off all by himself with his "I, James, take thee, Sophie," got through the whole thing, when the bride began. They said that they did it as a rebuke to the custom of memorizing the lines after the clergyman.

Wanted Honeymoons Two lady school teachers of Patterson, N. J., precipitated quite a rumpus when they asked for "time off" for honeymoons. Since a married woman has to step rather gently around most school boards in order to get any, keep a job, anyway, this additional request seems the height of folly, and I hardly blame the board for their action.

Not So Good Thousands of American girls invade Europe each year for musical careers. The Opera Comique in Paris is one of their chief goals. It may interest girls who are thinking of going, to learn that the maximum salary paid for any performance at L'Opera Comique is 20 francs or less than twenty dollars.

ILLIACS OR CEDARS? I just read a short story about a married twain who quarreled. She wanted illiac bushes above the door and he wanted cedar trees, and every time she planted her illiacs he dug them up, and every time he planted his cedar trees, she dug them up. So they separated, and when he went, he took her illiac bushes with him so "twould seem more homelike," and she planted his cedar trees about her door so "twould seem a more homelike, too."

Home Page Editorial Freedom—Could You Stand It? By Olive Roberts Barton

"Be sure," said a lecturer one night to a drowsing audience, "that you are a person who can stand freedom, if you are one of those complainers who hate a job." I wonder how many of the people there had had reason to recall his words. Probably all. They may have forgotten the lecturer, and his subject too, but almost every man and woman, as the years pass along, loses his job eventually, whatever that job may be, and when it is gone, looks back and realizes when it is too late how happy he was doing work he thought he hated.

ELMO'S LONG SHOT BEATS POQUONOCK

Come In Last 50 Seconds and Gives All-Manchester Five 32 to 31 Victory.

The All-Manchester basketball team made it two straight victories when it hung a defeat on the St. Josephs at Poquonock Saturday night by the score of 32 to 31. It was one of the best games seen in Poquonock in a long time.

Manchester started off with a bang, Faulkner dropping in a neat double decker from the side court. A couple more baskets gave Manchester a very encouraging lead and it began to look rather dubious for the Poquonock team. Then Poquonock put up a good defense and managed to gather a few baskets. In the first period Mantelli invoked the referee's wrath by arguing with him and caused the referee to give Poquonock a few extra foul shots. With these foul shots Poquonock was ahead by 17 to 16.

In the second half Poquonock uncorked a brilliant offense and soon had a lead of eight points. Manchester cut this lead down and with but five minutes to play was trailing by only three points. Boyle then stepped into the lineup and Farr who had been playing center went back to guard. Manchester tallied two field goals and took a one point lead with only a minute and a half left to play.

On the very next play Case put his team in front again by a neat field goal. With but fifty seconds remaining, Boyle tapped the ball to Mantelli, who shot a basket from mid floor winning the game. The All-Manchester team shooting of basketball "put" the shooting of Boyle was outstanding. Case led the scoring for Poquonock, tallying fourteen points.

TECH BEST TEAM IN UNITED STATES

Walsh After Return From South Is Enthusiastic Over Georgia's Playing.

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
(I. N. S. Sports Editor)
New York, Dec. 5.—Georgia Tech is one of the best, if not the best football team in America today. This writer, who knows what he is talking about, knows that he will make this crack as any other and in addition to that, he just can't help himself. After he saw Tech beat Georgia on Saturday, this unbeaten and untied Georgian team, he can come to no other conclusion. He had seen Notre Dame; he had seen the Army and both are generally understood to be fair aggregations, but he had seen no blocking, he had seen no tackling in the line until he saw Tech beat Georgia.

I am afraid that we will have to revise all our judgments, after a game such as Tech played two days ago. For example, we step ourselves out and pick all American teams and Tech merely had a fighting chance for this dishonorable mention for something. Today, Tech can't miss having several candidates because Tech deserves all of them or both or several. Offhand I would name a certain Mr. Thomason who in running for a touchdown, showed a change of pace such as they credit to Jim Thorpe, Eddie Mahan and other immortals. I swear that if a man can do a thing like that once, he is good for a hundred return engagements. They either have "it" or they haven't and I'm afraid that Mr. Thomason is guilty, as charged.

Other Favorites

I also liked the way Durant, not an automobile, just a quarterback, ran his team. He could have made mistakes but he didn't. The two tackles and Crowley played football such as I would demand if I were a head coach, and saw how the boys have been able to resist getting me up to and including that point.

In comparison, we have the All-Americans from Georgia to consider. For example Georgia is understood to have employed two ends this year and the funny thing is that both of them were bad on Saturday.

Maybe I am making one of my several mistakes in declaring that they were bad.

What I mean is that they weren't American. They were not an All-American team in the country which did not include either Nash or Shiver and I swear again, being profane by instinct and environment, that I saw a better end play football and his name is Crowley.

What I am driving at is this: This I am for discretion and propriety in the great popular rust to select All-American teams before the members thereof can possibly be determined.

School Street Rec Tournament Looks Best Ever Staged Here

Boxers From Providence, Springfield and Hartford to Make Up Seven-Bout Card Arranged By C. B. A. A.; In- creased Attendance Expected.

Cheney Brothers Athletic Association officials have arranged what looks like the best amateur boxing tournament ever staged in Manchester for tomorrow night at the School Street Rec. In the feature bout of the evening, Billy Taylor and Harry Seeche of Hartford are carded to swap punches. A somewhat small attendance watched the opening show here two weeks ago, but with football now past and winter here in full force, it is expected that there will be a large turnout of fans tomorrow night.

There will be seven bouts in all and boxers from Hartford, Springfield and Providence will be seen in action. Arrangements with the Danielson team fell through when Touraine who was to meet Taylor, turned professional. The card arranged for tomorrow night is the most expensive ever attempted by the local club and deserves loyal support.

C. B. A. A. officials have been guaranteed the presence of Billy Taylor by his manager Dave Hayes and Harry Seeche by his manager, Mickey McCollough. Both managers are aware of who the opponent for their boxer will be and have announced their confidence in winning.

Taylor and Seeche met last winter when the latter was on a Massachusetts stable of boxers which showed at Foot Guard hall in Hartford and Taylor was the winner by a wide margin. The ex-Hartford High school athlete, jabbed Seeche's face to ribbons with his lightning left, but the latter has greatly improved since that time and is confident he will get across enough solid punches this time to drop Taylor for the full count. The husky Russian battler has shown in the past that he packs a mean wallop and can take a good beating before he gives in. All in all, it looks like a torrid struggle with Taylor having the edge.

Other bouts may take place as follows:

Marino Pagnoni, Springfield, vs. Antonio Bonano of Providence.

Tony Korman of Springfield, vs. Antonio Mostroteson of Providence.

Art Chapelaine of Springfield vs. Paris Caprie of Providence.

Johnny Mastro of Hartford vs. Antonio Caprio of Providence.

Ray Strong of Hartford vs. Edo Venditti of Providence.

Joe Silme of Hartford vs. Billy White of Springfield.

Bill Taylor of Hartford vs. Harry Seeche of Hartford.

Cheney Brothers Beaten By Waterbury Eleven 3-2

North Ends' Claim State Junior Title

The North End football eleven claims the State Junior amateur championship by virtue of its 6-6 game yesterday afternoon at Hickey's Grove with the Frog Hollow Echoes of Hartford. The North Ends have gone through the season undefeated and with one tie game that of yesterday. The Echoes have been beaten but once, by the fast Mohicans of Meriden. The North Ends hold two victories over the Mohicans this year and therefore have a better record.

The Echoes secured their touchdown in the first quarter when they intercepted a forward pass on the North Ends' thirty yard line and raced over the goal line. The drop kick for the extra point was blocked.

The North Ends made their touchdown in the last quarter. Billy Eagleston punted to the Echoes' ten yard line where the man was downed in his tracks. Two line plays lost a yard and on the third down, Keegan tried to punt but it was blocked by "Judge" Evans. About fifteen men raced for the ball which had rolled back of the goal. When the pile was uncovered, Billy Eagleston had it and the score was tied. Trick play with Evans carrying the ball was stopped just inches from the goal line.

Dettan and Evans played a good defense game while Marlon was the star of the backfield never falling a yard. Rollet and Dugan featured the Echoes' offense.

The lineup: Echoes: ends, Winter, Merrer; tackle, Claffery, O'Brien; guards, Waters, Mytick; center, Hennessy; quarterback, Dugan; half, Rollet, Levine; fullback, Womack, North Ends: ends, Eagleson, Dettan, McIluff; tackles, Evans, B. Sacherik; guards, Golas, E. Wolfman; center, Jamrog; half, terback, Wright, Chartier; full, Marlon, Trouton, Wilson; full, Angelo.

"SUGAR" HUGRET RUNS BACK PUNT 35 YARDS, THEN SCORES DECIDING TOUCHDOWN IN HAIL

Sixty Yard Forward Pass Play, Mantelli to Farr Cubs' Lone Score; Visitors Get Gift Touchdown on In- terference.

While about two hundred spectators danced the High Kick in the town square, the Manchester Cubs football team brought its 1927 season to a close yesterday afternoon in a driving sleet storm at the McKee street stadium by dropping a 13-to-6 decision to the Maple Ends of Bristol. Felix Moszor, Mike Greenberg, Captain Jimmy Finnegan, Bennie Schubert and Jimmy Quish, five of the best players on the Manchester team, did not don a uniform for the game.

First Real Defeat

The defeat, incidentally, was the first real one the Cubs have tasted this season and of course this one was somewhat inexcusable by the fact that many of the regulars were kept on the sidelines. Several weeks ago in Meriden, the Falcons were given a 7 to 6 decision over the Cubs but they gained it only after a very raw action. Yesterday, however, the kick can be registered. The Bristol team outplayed the Cubs sufficiently to earn the decision they received.

Bristol's Lucky Break

To be sure, the first score was a pure gift, but the second came after a bit of spectacular football on the part of "Sugar" Hugret. Bristol High school star, who ran Kerr's punt from the forty yard line to the nine before he was tackled. It took Hugret but two smashes to cross the goal line for the winning score. He tallied the extra point on a forward from Spielman.

But to get back to that initial score, the Maple Ends brought the ball down to Manchester's twenty yard line only to strike a stone wall defense that refused to budge. On the fourth down, Spielman hurried a long forward pass over the goal line that Rao was speeding after. "Lefty" St. John interfered with Rao behind the goal line and fell. It was very plain that the Bristol end had no chance to bear the pass. Umpire Johnny McGrath detected St. John's foul and Referee Tom Kelley ruled the ball in Bristol's possession at the point where the foul was committed giving Bristol a touchdown. Spielman's drop kick essay for the extra point went wide.

Harmless Error

While it must be said that Kelley, McGrath and Ed Baker, the linesman, officiated in a satisfactory manner, it is also a fact that the ruling made on this play was wrong. The ball should have been given to Bristol on Manchester's one yard line, but judging from the way the two teams were playing, this would not have made any difference in the outcome of the game. Hugret seemed sure to make the yard in the four tries his team would have been allowed. The officials admitted their error after the game, but the fact that it made no real difference in the outcome of the game was a consolation.

Spectacular Play

The Cubs scored a few minutes after Bristol brought the ball to the game. With the ball on the Manchester's own forty yard line, Eimo Mantelli took an indirect pass from "Coady" Donnelly on a trick play, darted back five yards and hurled a beautiful forward pass that "Dix" Farr caught on the twenty yard line while running at top speed. He was over the goal line almost before he could slow down. This play was the most spectacular of the otherwise somewhat drab exhibition. On two or three other occasions, the Cubs almost worked the same play but each time the intended receiver failed to snare the pass when it might have spelled victory.

Playing "Piggy-back"

Once again St. John was the leading ground gainer for the Cubs. He circled ends and ran back punts for some splendid gains. Mantelli also made a nice runback of a kick-off that brought the ball to midfield from about the twenty yard line. He was easily the outstanding star for Bristol, but to a large extent this was made possible by high tackling on the part of the local lineup. Several times Hugret ploughed his way forward, the way of three Cub players playing "piggy-back." Bristol made seven first downs against three for the Cubs who played a sort of a "spirit-less" game. Bristol was penalized 55 yards and Manchester 35. The Cubs completed one of their slight passes and Bristol two out of a dozen.

SPORTS WRITERS CALL WANER BEST Player in National League; Frisch Second.

Pick Him As Most Valuable Player in National League; Frisch Second.

New York, Dec. 5.—Paul (Big Poison) Waner, of the Pittsburgh Pirates, has been chosen as the most valuable player in the National League. Waner amassed a total of 73 points in the votes cast by newspapermen from eight different cities, six more than Frankie Frisch got, and he will be awarded a bronze medal and $1,000 in cash. Rogers Hornsby was third with 54 points. The highest possible vote is eighty points. Each of eight newspapermen, one from each city in the league, votes for ten players, listing them as he rates them in the order of value to their teams.

Five of the writers named Waner for first place, two awarded him third place and one listed him fifth. Frisch did not have a first place, but he got a flock of seconds and thirds. The voting for first place was the closest since the National League inaugurated the plan in 1924.

Twenty-six players were voted for. Those who received ten or more points are:

Paul Waner	73
Frisch	56
Hornsby	54
Root	46
Jackson	42
L. Waner	38
Traynor	35
Haines	28

THE BOOK OF KNOWLEDGE: (151) Water Power

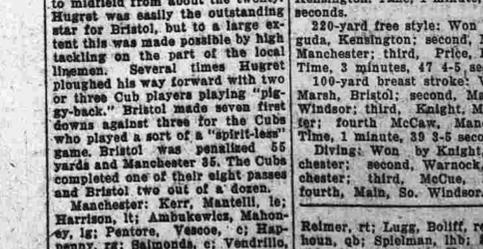

The many uses of electricity and the electric furnace call for great power to generate big currents. For the heavy purposes of industry, water power has been found the cheapest and best agent to turn the wheels of the dynamo. Water power has been used from the earliest times, men of remotely ancient days using water-wheels built over rivers.

Mechanical power from these old wooden water-wheels was used to saw logs and grind wheat. China still uses models of 1000 years ago.

The principle of electric power is merely gravity, the falling water spinning a turbine, which, in turn, spins a dynamo which generates electricity.

A water turbine is simply a wheel with buckets or vanes. Water is so directed against the wheel that it drives it round and round. This picture shows the turbine at the bottom and the electric generator at the top, on the same great axle. Water rushing through the huge pipes, drives the turbine and the generator.

EXPECT A FULL HOUSE AT WESLEYAN CONCERT

"Champion" Glee Club of Country to Sing Here For Third Time.

The high school assembly hall is expected to be filled to capacity Saturday evening when the Wesleyan University Glee club, two-time winners of the National Intercollegiate Glee club championship, gives a concert here following which there will be a dance, music being furnished by the Wesleyan Serenaders. The concert will start at 8 o'clock and will last about an hour and a half.

This will be the third time that the famous Wesleyan Glee club has appeared in Manchester and on each of the previous occasions, the school hall has been without vacant seats. The Middletown university, through its musical achievements, has come to be known as "The singing college of America."

This title is not the idle boast of a group of undergraduates, but a title earned by its second straight victory in the Intercollegiate competition at Carnegie Hall in New York. It was a brilliant victory on March 12 last, made doubly so by the fact that only two weeks before the club had failed to win the first award in the New England contest.

Judgment was based on the rendition of three songs by each of the thirteen clubs which participated. The prize song was Schumann's "The Lotus Flower," and for their optional number the Wesleyan men gave Sullivan's "The Long Day Closes." The college song chosen was "Twilight Song," by Clifford Waite, Wesleyan, '06, which the club also sang at last year's contest.

LOCAL SALVATIONISTS AID HARTFORD DRIVE

A number of Manchester persons are assisting the Hartford Salvation Army corps in its annual campaign for money with which to purchase Christmas dinners for needy families in that city. Eldred J. McCabe of this town is in charge of the campaign in Hartford and in the southern New England territory.

Among the Manchester workers who are ringing the bells at the Bells are Sergeant Major Thomas Hopper, Mrs. Rebecca Wright, Mrs. Harold House, Fred Barnaley, Mrs. Thomas Matchett and William Perrett.

It has been long a custom of the Salvation Army to provide Christmas dinners to needy families in the larger cities and the funds with which they are able to do this are collected in the famous kettles, suspended from tripods, the tripods usually being located at intersections of busy streets.

The Salvation Army's Christmas dinner fund is not aided by the Community Chest fund of Hartford so the money must be collected separately.

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS:

SENSE and NONSENSE

Scenery With garters worn Below the hem. How can we help But look at them? Cincinnati, Ohio, Enquirer. With dresses up Above the knees. Why can't men look Just as they please? Urbana, Ohio, Democrat. Observing most Of those we meet We don't regard As such a treat.

We all make mistakes, of course; but we don't have to respond to encores.

The stingiest man we know of is the one who gave a little girl a nickel not to eat any supper, who took the nickel away from her while she was asleep, and then refused to give her any breakfast because she lost it.

Fable: Once there was a man who never chuckled over the misfortune of his friends.

No one ever congratulates a bachelor, but on the other hand no one ever sues him for alimony.

If somebody else is doing your thinking you're probably doing somebody else's working.

When one contrasts the income of a professional boxer with that of a college professor, one can better understand why a little knowledge is a dangerous thing.

If a certain fellow don't keep his chickens out of our yard, the certain fellow is going to be minus some perfectly good frying size chickens.

"May I have this fox trot?" "Sure thing, kiddo. Do you sink or jiggle?"

One year on the planet Neptune is said to be equivalent to about 165 years on earth, so you had better not plan for more than one year when you go there. Thought you might want to know.

Who swam to the Cataline Islands? By George! That was Young!

"Pawson, I'm worried, I is." "Nigger, fer why is y'u worried?" "It says in de Good Book dat dere shall be weepin' and gnashing ob teeth."

"Yes, suh, it do." "Das right. Den w'at am dis nigger gwine do w'at ain't got no teeth?"

"Nigger, y'u jes' gwine to clap y'u gums together, an' nothing else but."

"Did you dance with the Prince of Wales?" "Yes," answered Gladys. "I could follow his style of dancing perfectly."

But I positively refused to go horseback riding with him."

Overeating causes both mental and physical heaviness.

The only way to be the light of a man's life is to keep him in the dark.

LETTER GOLF

FOUR TO NINE FOUR plus seven equals NINE. Proving arithmetic is all wrong. But we mean seven strokes, although you may be able to cut that down. A par solution is printed on another page:

Grid for letter golf with the word 'FOUR' in the top row and 'NINE' in the bottom row.

THE RULES 1-The idea of letter golf is to change one word to another and do it in par, a given number of strokes. Thus to change COW TO HEN, in three strokes, COW, HOW, HEW, HEN. 2-You can change only one letter at a time. 3-You must have a complete word, of common usage, for each jump. Slang words and abbreviations don't count. 4-The order of letters cannot be changed.

Just because they use asbestos curtains doesn't mean that it is a hot show.

THE TINYMITES STORY BY HAL COCHRAN - PICTURES BY KNICK REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

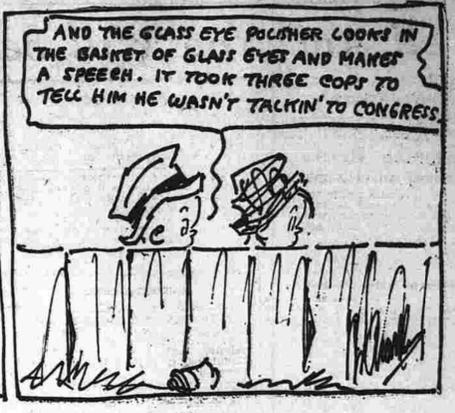

Poor Clowny! He felt very sad, 'cause now the Buddies all were bad. When they were good, they'd given him a dandy wagon ride. But now he felt that they would change. The Buddies' ways were surely strange. Just then a Buddy scampered up and stood by Clowny's side. "Say, listen here!" the Buddy cried. "Remember, no tricks can be tried. You've got to do just as we say. You're wise if you behave. Don't try to run. We'll catch you sure. Your chance to slip away is poor. We're going to have some fun with you, as long as you're our slave." "All right," said Clowny. "I won't run. I'll try to help you have some fun, but let's go back and try and find the other Tynymites." The Buddies laughed. "Ha, ha, he, he!" Then one exclaimed, "Well, mercy me, before we do, we're going to ride around and see some sights."

They all got in their wagon then, and Clowny pulled them once again. He traveled over hill and dale, and then one Buddy cried, "Why, there's our little cave, right near. I'll bet he tried to bring us here. He's got to pay for doing that. Let's put him back inside." So, in the cave they put him quick. Thus Clowny pulled a clever trick. That's really where he longed to be, with all the Tynymites. He told them all about his trip. No single portion did he skip. And when he'd finished, they agreed he'd seen a lot of sights. Then Scouty said, "I really fear we never will get out of here. The Buddies all have gone away. The situation's grave." Then something thrilled each Tynymite. They gazed up at the entrance light and realized monstrous hand was reaching in the cave. (The Giant rescues the Tynymites in the next story.)

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

SALESMAN SAM

Jack Lockwill's Fighting Blood

Lockwill had entered Rocklake Academy, by a special and unusual arrangement, in the middle of the first semester of the year, at which time Darling was a junior. Now Willie had advanced a class, while Jack remained a freshman still, and their rooming partnership had been broken up. "It's tough," said Jack grimly, "but nothing can bust our friendship, old scout."

An hour after a truckman had taken Willie's baggage to Solon Hall, Lockwill discovered that the cane Willie had acquired on becoming a senior had been left behind.

The sight of that slim, stout cane and the feel of it in his hand filled Jack with a sudden pranks desire to defy convention. Taking it, he headed for the campus.

The sight of a freshman strolling across the campus with a cane created a stir. He was halted on the Esplanade by seven surprised and indignant seniors. "What are you doing with that cane, Fresh?" demanded "Buck" Gammon. "You know you're not permitted to carry one." "But I have a lame arm," said Jack, smiling pleasantly. "A lame freshman can carry a cane." ©1927 BY NEA SERVICE, INC. (To Be Continued)

Miss Ruth E. McLagan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. McLagan of 48 Woodland street, and Dr. E. Victor Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gordon of 155 South Main street, were married Saturday afternoon at 3:26. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Marvin S. Stocking at the parsonage of the North Methodist church. The attendants were Miss Bessie Trouton and T. Walter Reichard.

The bride wore a gown of tan flat crepe trimmed with brown chiffon velvet and hat of gold lace. She carried an arm bouquet of Madame Butterfly roses.

The bridegroom's frock was of powder blue frosterepe with trimmings of blue chiffon and hat to match. Her arm bouquet was of Premier roses.

Following the ceremony a reception for the relatives and close friends was held at the home of the bride's parents, which was tastefully decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and carnations.

The wedding gifts were unusually numerous and beautiful. The bride has been honored with a number of "showers" by several different groups of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon left Saturday evening on an unannounced wedding trip and on their return they will for the present live with the bridegroom's parents.

DUMP ASHES IN STREET TO THE PERIL OF TIRES

A motorist who has occasion to travel through the Pinehurst section, particularly Alton street, reports that residents of that section have been dumping ashes in the roadway.

He drove through there on Saturday and one of his tires was punctured and the tube ruined. He found out later that the puncture was caused by a half-burned nail, which, he says was part of a pile of ashes dumped in the road by a nearby resident.
