ALL DELEGATES TO GO TO G. O. P. CONVENTION

Five Local Men Going to Sessions at Foot Guard Hall Next Week.

It is expected that all the delegates named at the recent Republican caucus to attend the Republican state convention at Foot Guard hall Tuesday and Wednesday will be able to attend. These delegates are Raymond A. Johnson, Thomas Ferguson, E. J. Holl, W. W. Robertson and Robert J. Smith. The first four represent the town and the latter the Fourth Senatorial District. Senator Hiram Bingham will be chairman of the convention and will make the opening speech. This is always worth hearing and it is expected a large number of Manchester people will attend the convention other than the delegates. The session will open at 8 o'clock Tuesday night. The gallery of the Foot Guard hall is open to the general public. Two years ago Senator George P. McLean made the opening speech.

was a Republican or a Democrat. He finally announced himself as a Republican, but his inclination had killed his chances with both parties. President Harding appointed Hoover as secretary of commerce, then a comparatively unimportant post, but almost immediately Hoover began making a big job of it of a little one. He needed more trained assistants, and being unable to afford them out of his appropriation from Congress, he hired them and paid them out of his own pockets—which he still does today.

NOTICE!

Notice is hereby given that a special meeting of the Eighth School and Utilities District of Manchester, Conn., will be held on Friday evening, April 20, 1928 at 8 o'clock p. m. in the Assembly Hall in the school building on North School Street, for the following purposes, to wit:—

- 1. To listen to the call of the meeting. 2. To choose a moderator. 3. To hear the report of the President and Board of Directors of said District as to the needs of the District for school-room facilities. 4. To see if the District will vote to build additional school rooms to its present school building on Hollister Street. 5. To see if the District will vote to improve the heating plant at the Hollister Street school. 6. To see if the District will vote to improve the ventilating system at the Hollister Street school. 7. To see if the District will vote to make appropriations to build additional rooms at the Hollister Street school; to improve the heating plant at the Hollister Street school and to improve the ventilating system at the Hollister Street school. 8. To see if the District will authorize the Officers of the District or a special committee to build new school rooms at the Hollister Street school and to improve the heating and ventilating system in said school rooms. 9. To see if the District will vote to purchase that certain lot of land situated in said Manchester, bounded and described as follows, to wit:—

Northerly by Washington Street; Eastern by Summit Street; Southerly by Hollister Street; and Westerly by other land of said District. 10. To see if the district will make an appropriation for the purchase price of the above described land. 11. To do any other business proper to come before said meeting. Dated at Manchester, Conn., this 14th day of April, A. D. 1928. F. A. SWEET, President.

PLAYERS EXECUTIVES TO PLAN MORE WORK

Local Thespians May Start on Next Production This Spring.

The executive committee of the Town Players will meet again on Monday evening in the School Street Recreation Center to plan further extension work to be started either this spring or in the fall. Preliminary plans were made at a meeting held a few weeks ago but nothing definite has yet been decided upon.

It is planned to bring the associate members into closer contact with the activities of the organization through play reading and other affairs of the kind. It is expected that a meeting of the associate and active membership will be called for some time in May.

There will be no more three act plays from the organization this year because of the lateness of the season. It was at first planned to put on three big plays during the past season but unavoidable circumstances made this impossible.

TOLLAND

At the Democratic caucus held Tuesday evening in the Town hall for the purpose of choosing delegates to attend the state convention to be held in Hartford in May the following delegates were chosen: First Selectman Frank A. Newlin, Peter Johnson, James A. Galvin and Town Clerk Frank Lührsen.

Everett Smith who has been employed by the State Highway Department in the western part of the state is now working for the State Highway Department on the Tolland to West Stafford road.

Mrs. John H. Steele attended the Sabra Trumbull Chapter D. A. R. meeting held at the home of Mrs. Charles O. Britton at Talcottville Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Bessie Lerhune who has spent the winter at the home of her brothers, Dr. Percy Lerhune and family in Passaic, New Jersey has returned to her home.

Fred Randall who has spent the winter in New Jersey has returned here for the summer.

Miss Thelma Price has returned home to the Vermont University after spending the Easter recess with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Lewis B. Price.

The Study Club met Monday evening at the home of William Agard. A paper was given the "Southland" by Mrs. John H. Steele and a reading by Miss Miriam Underwood which was much enjoyed. Games were played and refreshments served during the social hour. Miss Lucille Agard, Mrs. Marion Agard Baker and Mrs. Preston Moacham were the hostesses. A good number were present to enjoy the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Simpson are guests at the home of their son William Sumner Simpson and family in New York City.

Harvey Clough of Flushing, Long Island has been the guest of his parents Mr. and Mrs. James Clough of Stafford road.

Mrs. C. D. Boothby of Mariden and Miss Alice Welcher of Hartford were the speakers. Mrs. Boothby presented the constitution for the new organization formed by the Union of the Home and Foreign Missionary work. Miss Welcher gave a very interesting account of her recent visit to some of the missionary schools in the south. The luncheon was served by a committee of ladies of the Federated church. Mrs. I. Tilden Jewett, Mrs. Miriam Baker, Mrs. L. Ernest Hall, Mrs. William Agard Ayers, Jr., and Mrs. John H. Steele.

At the Union Congregational church, on Monday evening a mystery play entitled "Der Totentanz", Death dance by nine students from the Hartford Seminary Foundation under the leadership of Mr. Schimmelfing a student in the Hartford Theological Seminary from Germany.

Professor Johnson of the Church History Department will preface the play by the story of miracle plays in the middle ages and how they came to form a part of the church worship.

Mr. Schimmelfing has put on the Totentanz in many churches of Germany and in a recent performance at the Hartford Seminary the audience was so impressed by the solemn ceremonies in the play and by the fine acting that several ministers including the pastor of Union church have asked for a repetition in their own churches. The play is given to the accompaniment of music by Mrs. Charles E. Daniels of Tolland who will entertain the students on Sunday at her home. Several from Tolland are expected to attend this service.

G. FOX & CO., Inc. ESTABLISHED IN 1847 HARTFORD

Announces THE 81st ANNIVERSARY Beginning Monday and For All Week

A LITTLE store grown up, a modest business expanded into this city's leading retail institution, a history of fine traditions—such is G. FOX & CO., INC. now in its 81st year and about to welcome its patrons to the annual birthday celebration. Never in its history has this Anniversary celebration reached the proportions expected this year. Because of that, and because this firm wishes to keep its patrons impressed with its importance to them as a modern institution of service values will be offered that will astonish even the keenest shopper. Come on Monday and come daily.

PREPARATIONS have been made even greater than last year, to meet the demands of the thousands who will come from all over the state to share in the good things that will be offered. Every department of this great store is in readiness with the kind of goods upon which a fine reputation has been built. Every customer will be served to his or her satisfaction which is traditional at this store. To simplify shopping during the Anniversary, special detailed advertisements will be printed daily in the morning and evening papers, beginning Sunday. Let these guide you to some of the good things.

A prize winning letter in a recent Garden Club contest contained this paragraph: "Miss America is getting her face lifted! Old blemishes of unsightly dirt, lots, neglected parks and unkempt roadsides are being removed; the wrinkles of unattractive yards and gardens are being erased and the bloom of natural beauty is being brought out. A million garden lovers are the beauty doctors and clinics are being held in thousands of garden clubs. Every garden club, whether it be a big organization in the large city or a group of a dozen women in a country village, is working to beautify one tiny section of Miss America's face. And each garden club is doing it in just a little different way."

Houses For Sale

$2,600 is the price for a small cottage with fair sized lot, electricity, bathroom, garden and poultry place.

A sitting hen is lost to everything but her duty. Instinct plays its part, for at the time when she should hatch her eggs a great heat develops in the breast of the sitting bird; her brood patch is hot.

These downy little chicks are Tinamous. They are South American birds and run almost as much as they fly.

Here is a little brood of White Storks. They are very different in appearance from the long-billed parents.

A mother Tern, out with her baby, is pictured above. They are the Drakes and Raleighs of the bird world, Arctic Terns sometimes traveling as much as 22,000 miles a year.

SENSE and NONSENSE

TOO BUSY TO LIVE (Commended to Persons Afflicted with Hurryitis) He hadn't time to meet the day; He hadn't time to laugh or play; He hadn't time to wait a while; He hadn't time to give a smile; He hadn't time to glean the news; He hadn't time to dream or muse; He hadn't time to train his mind; He hadn't time to be just kind; He hadn't time to see a joke; He hadn't time to write his folk; He hadn't time to eat a meal; He hadn't time to deeply feel; He hadn't time to take a rest; He hadn't time to act his best; He hadn't time to help a cause; He hadn't time to make a pause; He hadn't time to pen a note; He hadn't time to cast a vote; He hadn't time to sing a song; He hadn't time to right a wrong; He hadn't time to send a gift; He hadn't time to practice thrift; He hadn't time to scan the skies; He hadn't time to heed a cry; He hadn't time to say goodbye; He hadn't time to study noise; He hadn't time to repress noise; He hadn't time to go abroad; He hadn't time to serve his God; He hadn't time to lend or give; He hadn't time to really live; He hadn't time to read this verse; He hadn't time—he's in a hearse. —Detroit Free Press.

LETTER GOLF

A GOLD MINE FOR GOLFERS. Here's a GOLD MINE for letter golf fans. If you dig real hard you may be able to go from the first word to the second in less than four strokes, but you'll find that's par and the solution is on another page.

THE RULES 1—The idea of letter golf is to change one word to another and do it in par a given number of strokes. Thus to change COW to HEN, in three strokes, COW, HOW, HEW, HEN. 2—You can change only one letter at a time. 3—You must have a complete word, of common usage, for each jump. Slang words and abbreviations don't count. 4—The order of letters cannot be changed.

A radio is reported to have frightened a burglar out of a New Jersey store he was looting. Pol Parrot seems to be in the way of losing her time honored job.

Remember the chaps who always gave you a feeling of ghastly shame when they tried to be funny at a party? Aren't you glad they are radio announcers now.

THE TINYMITES

"Oh, my," cried Scouty, "look up there. Poor Clowny's speeding through the air. That great big bird is stealing him. I fear he'll ne'er come back. To Clowny it may be a thrill to be picked up in some bird's bill, but I'd be mighty scared. Just look, he surely is real black." Then Coppy said, "What can we do to help poor Clowny? Wish I knew. That bird will soon be out of sight and he'll be left behind. Let's look and find the butcher man, 'cause he will help us if he can. At least if we are trying to help 'twill somewhat ease my mind." So off they started, down a hill, all closely watching Clowny till the monstrous bird that carried him flew near a mountain top. "Oh, gee," yelled Carpy Tinymite, "the bird has now flown out of sight. My wouldn't it be terrible if he'd let Clowny drop." But Clowny didn't drop. Oh, no! The big bird didn't let him go.

He held him tightly in his claws and flew on through the air. "Where are we going?" Clowny cried. "Why did you take me on this ride? You left the others all behind. I wish I was back there." And then the big bird circled round and dropped down near to the ground. A mountain loomed up not far off. The bird sailed out that way. "Please land me on the mountain side, I'm getting tired," wee Clowny cried. "Twas fun to ride with you, but I have had enough today." The queer bird seemed to understand. He swooped right down where he could land. Then Clowny got a big surprise, and loudly cried, "Hurry! The bird has done his very best to be real kind." 'Twas in a nest of little birds he landed. Then the big bird flew away. (The Tinymites meet a queer man in the next story.)
