

NET PRESS RUN AVERAGE DAILY CIRCULATION for the month of March, 1928 5,119

VOL. XLII, NO. 169. Classified Advertising on Page 10. MANCHESTER, CONN., TUESDAY, APRIL 17, 1928. (TWELVE PAGES) PRICE THREE CENTS

STATE'S DELEGATES OUT FOR COOLIDGE

Although Uninstructed, G. O. P. Envoys to Make an Attempt to Draft the President at Convention.

Hartford, Conn., April 17.—Coolidge for President is the slogan to be adopted by Connecticut delegates to the Republican national convention at Kansas City on June 12 and various following days if the sentiment among the delegates remains the sentiment that, today exists among people who earnestly desire to be delegates and who expect to be named to such positions before noon tomorrow. On the eve of the state convention to choose delegates to the national convention the Coolidge for President idea was the dominating idea among delegates gathering here.

Sen. Hiram Bingham

There was some sentiment for Herbert Hoover for president and even a bit of native son movement but the great idea was "Coolidge for President." There was even a hope that Connecticut might make history, stampede a great national convention, and cause the "drafting" of the man who is now in the White House.

No Instructions The delegation that is chosen tomorrow will not go to Kansas City an instructed delegation. Connecticut Republicans always have been averse to telling their delegates what to do, and no special change is in sight this year.

The convention, that opens this evening and closes by noon tomorrow, will select seven delegates at large with an alternate for each, and two delegates and two alternates from each of the five congressional districts in the state.

Other Possibilities Others who are fairly likely to be delegates are Judge James E. Walsh, of Greenwich; Ernest E. Rogers, of New London, state treasurer; and Frederick M. Salmon, of Westport, state controller.

District delegates apparently in favor today are: First District—Walter E. Batten.

(Continued on Page 3)

REDS HAVE NO PLACE TO ENTERTAIN KING

Speculators Have Sold All Art Treasures and Furniture in Moscow.

Moscow, April 17.—Efforts of the Soviet government to provide a "royal residence" for the King and Queen of Afghanistan, its first royal visitors, have revealed the fact that millions of dollars worth of art treasures have slipped through the hands of the pro-Soviet government into the possession of speculators and foreigners who were only too eager to take advantage of the bargain prices at which they were offered for sale.

MILLIONS IN DIAMONDS ARE SMUGGLED IN Government to Organize a Special Unit to Break Up Highly Organized International Ring.

Washington, April 17.—Steps to break up international smuggling rings, which are slipping from $20,000,000 to $40,000,000 worth of diamonds into the United States annually without payment of duty were taken up by the Customs Bureau.

If a request for $100,000 appropriation is approved by Congress the bureau will have a special diamond unit in action by mid-summer, operating on both sides of the Atlantic.

Carriers—the men and women who actually bring the diamonds from Amsterdam and Antwerp markets to the United States—are reaping a profit estimated at close to $4,000,000 annually.

Customs officials said the Amsterdam and Antwerp markets cut about $100,000,000 worth of diamonds a year. Legitimate imports to the United States were about $40,000,000 last year. Experts estimate that from sixty to eighty per cent of the total output of the foreign cutters reaches the United States.

Highly Organized. The international smuggling rings are highly organized and some of them have agents in the South African mine fields, where illegal dealing in diamonds frequently starts. Millions of dollars worth of uncut stones are estimated to be taken out of the mines illegally and disposed of to European dealers at reduced prices every year.

Salvors in Ring. Customs officials said that the smugglers operate skillfully not alone with recognized carriers, but through members of the crews of trans-Atlantic liners. A number of beautiful women highly trained in the ways of the police society are agents of the illegitimate diamond merchants.

The customs diamond squad probably will have agents in Antwerp and Amsterdam, checking the outward movement of stones. Some of the diamonds reaching the United States illegitimately are brought through Canada, Mexico and Cuba.

PHYSICAL EXAMS. FOR THE MINISTRY

Bishop Freeman, of Washington, Proposes This to Divinity School Students.

New Haven, Conn., April 17.—The proposition that physical examinations be used upon candidates for the Christian ministry was advanced by Right Rev. James E. Freeman, bishop of Washington, during the second Lyman Beecher Foundation lecture delivered before the nineteenth annual convocation of Yale Divinity School here this morning.

Bishop Freeman pointed out that while physical tests are applied with impartiality to those who seek admission to the United States Army and Navy, men are frequently admitted to the ministry without proper examination as to their physical fitness. "Why this holy office should be given without discrimination to those who are unfitted for the more robust tasks of life, we cannot comprehend," he declared.

WHERE BREMEN AND ITS CREW LANDED

When the crew of the trans-Atlantic monoplane Bremen descended in a snowstorm on isolated Greenly Island off the coast of Quebec, they found shelter in the lighthouse pictured at the top. This photo, taken during the summer when the light was in operation, best shows the rocky contour of the island. The map at the left shows the route of the rescue attempts by water and air.

WOMAN FORFEITS BOND TO POLICE

San Francisco, April 17.—"Jola the Army and Keep in Touch with Home!" This should be the new enlistment slogan, for our soldiers in far-away Hawaii and the Philippines are now sending daily radiograms home across the Pacific to relatives and sweethearts, without cost.

They use a personal radio service known as the "apron string net" because of the many "Dear Ma" messages filed. It operates on short waves from both Manila and Honolulu direct to San Francisco.

CHICAGO BANDIT HOLDS UP TRAIN

Chicago, April 17.—A lone bandit who last night held up the Overland Limited, crack train on the Northwestern lines, and robbed a dozen passengers of cash and jewelry valued at several thousands of dollars, was the object of a city-wide search today.

Is He a Man—or a Name?

"EAST SIDE, West Side, all around the town"—You'll probably hear that old tune quite a bit before the campaign is over, for it's the tune they play for Governor Al Smith of New York.

You've been hearing a good deal about Governor Smith lately. But how much do you really know about him? He has many admirers and many bitter enemies; but in each camp there are lots of people to whom he is only a name.

IT'S PRETTY SOFT FOR MARINES NOW

Send Messages to Relatives and Sweeties by Radio Without Cost.

San Francisco, April 17.—"Jola the Army and Keep in Touch with Home!" This should be the new enlistment slogan, for our soldiers in far-away Hawaii and the Philippines are now sending daily radiograms home across the Pacific to relatives and sweethearts, without cost.

CHICAGO BANDIT HOLDS UP TRAIN

Chicago, April 17.—A lone bandit who last night held up the Overland Limited, crack train on the Northwestern lines, and robbed a dozen passengers of cash and jewelry valued at several thousands of dollars, was the object of a city-wide search today.

Is He a Man—or a Name?

"EAST SIDE, West Side, all around the town"—You'll probably hear that old tune quite a bit before the campaign is over, for it's the tune they play for Governor Al Smith of New York.

You've been hearing a good deal about Governor Smith lately. But how much do you really know about him? He has many admirers and many bitter enemies; but in each camp there are lots of people to whom he is only a name.

DR. GUILFOYLE CALM AS HIS TRIAL OPENS

Women Crowd Courtroom As Veterinarian is Tried For Murder—The First Witnesses.

Hartford, Conn., April 17.—Dr. Harold N. Guilfoyle, federal veterinarian, went on trial before Superior Court Judge here today on a charge of first degree murder in connection with the shooting of Mrs. Max J. Gaudet, of New Haven, in the Maple avenue apartments occupied by Guilfoyle on January 18, last.

A crowded courtroom, in which extra seats had been provided, greeted the appearance of Dr. Guilfoyle. More than one-third the audience was made up of women. With Dr. Guilfoyle were Mrs. George Le Gates, of Philadelphia, his sister-in-law; Mrs. Guilfoyle, and Dr. Robert Smith, head of the federal bureau here in which Dr. Guilfoyle was employed.

DATES OF MUSTER, ARMISTICE CLASH

Firemen's and Legion's Big Days Close Together For Support By Public.

With the decision last night of the firemen of this town to hold a muster this summer, the question has arisen as to which will receive the support of the people of Manchester, the muster or the big Armistice Day celebration which the American Legion has been planning for several months.

SAMUEL RUSSELL DEAD AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Middletown, Conn., April 17.—Samuel Russell, Sr., died at his home here today at the age of eighty-one years after a long illness. He was of the eleventh generation of the Russell family in Middletown, the family settling here in 1630. Mr. Russell was a son of the late George O. Russell, founder of the Russell Manufacturing Co., and was a director in the concern himself for ten years.

Was of the Eleventh Generation of Family Living in Middletown.

Middletown, Conn., April 17.—Samuel Russell, Sr., died at his home here today at the age of eighty-one years after a long illness. He was of the eleventh generation of the Russell family in Middletown, the family settling here in 1630. Mr. Russell was a son of the late George O. Russell, founder of the Russell Manufacturing Co., and was a director in the concern himself for ten years.

Is He a Man—or a Name?

"EAST SIDE, West Side, all around the town"—You'll probably hear that old tune quite a bit before the campaign is over, for it's the tune they play for Governor Al Smith of New York.

HIGH WINDS AND SNOW SWEEP GREENLY ISLAND

Commandant Fitzmaurice of Bremen's Crew Forced Down—May Try Later to Make Quebec; Other Planes On Way to Greenly Island Also Forced Down; Steamer Turned Back Because of Ice Flows—Germans May Start Tomorrow If Parts For Plane Are Received; No Disagreement Between Irish and German Members of Crew—Additional Details of Ocean Hop.

Seven Islands, Que., April 17.—Stormy weather, with high winds and snow, prevailed over the St. Lawrence valley today between Seven Islands and Greenly Island where the German trans-Atlantic plane Bremen made a forced landing. Flying conditions were extremely dangerous. It was believed unlikely that "Duke" Schiller and Commandant James E. Fitzmaurice were able to hop off at Natusquan this morning unless they took desperate chances.

MAY TAKE CHANCE

Natusquan, Que., April 17.—Commandant James E. Fitzmaurice, relief pilot of the German trans-Atlantic plane Bremen who was forced down here by stormy weather while flying from Greenly Island to Murray Bay, Que., hoped to be able to continue his journey today, reaching the airport outside of Quebec before dusk. The distance is approximately 500 miles.

NO DISAGREEMENT

Fitzmaurice's decision to leave the Bremen was made after a conference with Captain Herman Koehl and Baron von Huenefeldt. It is understood that there was no disagreement of any kind. The three flyers will unite later on.

WATER POWER PLAN IS AGAIN SHELVED

Canada Rejects Plan to Use Great Lakes and the St. Lawrence River.

Washington, April 17.—The Great Lakes-St. Lawrence deep waterway is again on the high shelf.

RELIEF PLANE

Seven Islands, Que., April 17.—The second Greenly Island relief plane, which was detained here overnight by a violent storm which blew up over the Gulf of St. Lawrence, was expected to hop off again this morning for the scene of the trans-Atlantic Bremen's forced landing.

TO HOP TOMORROW

Quebec, Que., April 17.—Captain Hermann Koehl and Baron Ehrenfried von Huenefeldt will hop off from Greenly Island in the trans-Atlantic monoplane Bremen tomorrow if they are able to complete their repairs on the plane today.

Is He a Man—or a Name?

"EAST SIDE, West Side, all around the town"—You'll probably hear that old tune quite a bit before the campaign is over, for it's the tune they play for Governor Al Smith of New York.

DR. GUILFOYLE CALM AS HIS TRIAL OPENS

Women Crowd Courtroom As Veterinarian is Tried For Murder—The First Witnesses.

Hartford, Conn., April 17.—Dr. Harold N. Guilfoyle, federal veterinarian, went on trial before Superior Court Judge here today on a charge of first degree murder in connection with the shooting of Mrs. Max J. Gaudet, of New Haven, in the Maple avenue apartments occupied by Guilfoyle on January 18, last.

MAY TAKE CHANCE

Natusquan, Que., April 17.—Commandant James E. Fitzmaurice, relief pilot of the German trans-Atlantic plane Bremen who was forced down here by stormy weather while flying from Greenly Island to Murray Bay, Que., hoped to be able to continue his journey today, reaching the airport outside of Quebec before dusk. The distance is approximately 500 miles.

NO DISAGREEMENT

Fitzmaurice's decision to leave the Bremen was made after a conference with Captain Herman Koehl and Baron von Huenefeldt. It is understood that there was no disagreement of any kind. The three flyers will unite later on.

WATER POWER PLAN IS AGAIN SHELVED

Canada Rejects Plan to Use Great Lakes and the St. Lawrence River.

RELIEF PLANE

Seven Islands, Que., April 17.—The second Greenly Island relief plane, which was detained here overnight by a violent storm which blew up over the Gulf of St. Lawrence, was expected to hop off again this morning for the scene of the trans-Atlantic Bremen's forced landing.

TO HOP TOMORROW

Quebec, Que., April 17.—Captain Hermann Koehl and Baron Ehrenfried von Huenefeldt will hop off from Greenly Island in the trans-Atlantic monoplane Bremen tomorrow if they are able to complete their repairs on the plane today.

Is He a Man—or a Name?

"EAST SIDE, West Side, all around the town"—You'll probably hear that old tune quite a bit before the campaign is over, for it's the tune they play for Governor Al Smith of New York.

DR. GUILFOYLE CALM AS HIS TRIAL OPENS

Women Crowd Courtroom As Veterinarian is Tried For Murder—The First Witnesses.

MAY TAKE CHANCE

Natusquan, Que., April 17.—Commandant James E. Fitzmaurice, relief pilot of the German trans-Atlantic plane Bremen who was forced down here by stormy weather while flying from Greenly Island to Murray Bay, Que., hoped to be able to continue his journey today, reaching the airport outside of Quebec before dusk. The distance is approximately 500 miles.

NO DISAGREEMENT

Fitzmaurice's decision to leave the Bremen was made after a conference with Captain Herman Koehl and Baron von Huenefeldt. It is understood that there was no disagreement of any kind. The three flyers will unite later on.

WATER POWER PLAN IS AGAIN SHELVED

Canada Rejects Plan to Use Great Lakes and the St. Lawrence River.

RELIEF PLANE

Seven Islands, Que., April 17.—The second Greenly Island relief plane, which was detained here overnight by a violent storm which blew up over the Gulf of St. Lawrence, was expected to hop off again this morning for the scene of the trans-Atlantic Bremen's forced landing.

TO HOP TOMORROW

Quebec, Que., April 17.—Captain Hermann Koehl and Baron Ehrenfried von Huenefeldt will hop off from Greenly Island in the trans-Atlantic monoplane Bremen tomorrow if they are able to complete their repairs on the plane today.

Is He a Man—or a Name?

"EAST SIDE, West Side, all around the town"—You'll probably hear that old tune quite a bit before the campaign is over, for it's the tune they play for Governor Al Smith of New York.

DR. GULFOYLE CALM AS HIS TRIAL OPENS

(Continued from Page 1.)

Way, and Max J. Gaudet, husband of the slain woman, be excluded from the court room during early presentation of evidence, opened the case.

The motion was not opposed by the state's attorney and was granted by the court, the three witnesses being escorted to an ante-room by Sheriff E. W. Devine.

In presenting his motion Mr. Robinson said he had not been allowed access to statements reported to have been secured by the state from the three witnesses, who were present when the shooting occurred.

The first witness to take the stand was John T. Henderson, of Hartford, a civil engineer, who made a map of the apartments on Maple avenue where the shooting occurred.

The map was made on the 24th day after the shooting. State's Attorney Alcorn presented the map, and the court ordered it marked Exhibit A.

Henderson, by use of the map, gave a complete description of the hallways, its approaches, the hallways, and the measurements of each. Mr. Alcorn asked for the measurements as illustrated by the maps with the evident purpose of later establishing the location of each person in the apartment, and the hallway at the time of the shooting.

Complete dimensions of every room in the apartment were taken by the three judges.

An Important Point One of the important points, according to Mr. Alcorn, was that a person coming out of the apartment, which was on the second floor, would be directly at the top of the stairway at the bottom of which Dr. Gulfoyle was found wounded.

Under cross examination by Defense Counsel Samuel Rosenthal, Mr. Henderson declared that when the shooting occurred, there were the front, rear and cellar exits.

Judge Rosenthal asked if the engineer had observed holes in the wall, such as might have been made by bullets. The reply was "I did see such holes but did not examine them to see how they had been made."

At this point the court ordered a short recess.

Husband Called The second witness called was Max Gaudet, husband of the slain woman, who told of living in Hartford in 1925 and of moving to New Haven in May, 1927. He met Dr. Gulfoyle and Mrs. Gulfoyle in the summer of 1926 at the home of the Ways.

He testified that he knew of arrangements for his wife going on a motor trip with the Gulfoyles and Ways when he was not able to be present. He declared he had no objection, as he knew of nothing wrong between his wife and Dr. Gulfoyle.

On the Sunday before his wife's death, he testified, the Gulfoyles visited his home at New Haven, and that Mrs. Gaudet and their small daughter returned to Hartford with the Gulfoyles. He heard from his wife by telephone on Monday, and again on Wednesday when he called her. She was to have returned to New Haven on Thursday. It was the day before that she was shot.

Identifies Photos Mr. Gaudet told of being called from New Haven on the night of the shooting, of his arrival here, and of his visit to his wife at Hartford hospital. He identified clothing worn by Mrs. Gaudet and also a cabinet photograph taken shortly after their wedding, in 1921.

Although the state did not show whence the photograph came, it was indicated it was seized in the Gulfoyle apartment.

Under cross examination Mr. Gaudet reiterated his statement that he knew of no wrong doing between his wife and Dr. Gulfoyle. He did say, however, that his wife had quarreled with the Ways, as she found that Mrs. Way was too inquisitive concerning the doings of himself and his wife. He told of a quarrel on New Year's Eve, last, between Mr. and Mrs. Way during a party at the Gulfoyle apartments. He said that Way struck Mrs. Way in the face during the affair. He also testified that Mrs. Way's nickname was "Babe". During this cross examination it was brought out that Mrs. Gaudet was defendant in a civil action which is still pending, regarding the disposal of her father's estate.

DR. GULFOYLE CALM AS HIS TRIAL OPENS

(Continued from Page 1.)

Recess was declared during the questioning.

STRIKERS TO KEEP REDS OUT OF CITY

New Bedford, Mass., April 17.—Waging a war upon what they termed an attempt "of the Communist groups that made the Passaic, N. J., strike of two years ago, a failure of rioting and battles," William Batty and Abraham Binns, labor leaders of the striking 27,000 textile workers of this city today declared forcibly against the meeting sponsored by outsiders for tomorrow.

An attempt on the part of two mills, the City and the Potomaska, was made to open up shop today. Pickets on duty around the former mills succeeded in prevailing upon workers to return to their homes.

In the Potomaska mill, several girls employed in the cloth room, non-production department, were un-molested and continued to work throughout the day.

Plans for the formation of a workers relief committee continued today.

The attack of the local labor leaders was made upon the plan of a textile commission to have a meeting here tomorrow which all the striking workers have been asked to attend. Among the speakers sought for this meeting were: Benjamin Bitner of New York, Albert Wisbord, leader in the Passaic, N. J., strike and others associated with that strike.

"This group is always lying in wait for a development such as we have had here in New Bedford to give them an opportunity to stop and foment trouble, thereby profiting their own egotism but doing nothing for the workers," said Mr. Binns.

"We urge our workers to have nothing to do with this group and to attend the meeting tomorrow afternoon. The records of the men who will speak, at the time of the Passaic strike, should serve as a warning here."

Many local Grangers are planning to attend the meetings of Central Pomona Grange at Wapping tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Dr. Austin A. Savage who has been ill at the Memorial hospital for the past week has returned to his home on Church street much improved in health.

A cottage prayer meeting for attendants of the church will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. John Muldoon, 119 Bissell street.

Rev. Frederick C. Allen of Second Congregational church is in attendance at the annual convention of ministers which is being held at the Yale Divinity school today and tomorrow.

Willing Workers of the Concordia Lutheran church will meet this evening at 6:15 and tender a reception to the new members. Tomorrow afternoon at 2 the Sewing Circle will meet with Mrs. Custer.

Classes in basketry and lampshade making will be omitted tonight at the Highland Park community club which will be in charge of the instructor, Miss Luchini of the Hartford Y.W.C.A.

NURSERY EMPLOYEE SERIOUSLY INJURED

Charles Orinski Severely Cut In Accident—Will Recover, Is Believed.

Charles Orinski, 19 years old, of North School street, is at the Manchester Memorial hospital suffering with deep multiple lacerations he received in an accident while at work at the C. R. Burr nurseries here today. The wounds were of such a character that they demanded an immediate operation. He is resting as comfortably as can be expected this afternoon and the accident will not be fatal, the hospital authorities believe.

CHARGED WITH MURDER AFTER DRUNKEN BRAWL

Bridgewater, Conn., April 17.—A warrant charging Louis Kiska, of Norwalk, with first degree murder in connection with the death of Eugene Tobey, of Norwalk, from the effects of a shotgun wound in the left foot, was served on Kiska in the county jail here today by Lieutenant Martin Lengyel, of the Norwalk police department.

The warrant follows the findings of Coroner John J. Phelan that Tobey's death resulted from a gun shot wound inflicted by Kiska. The coroner declares the shooting took place during a drunken brawl in Kiska's place in Norwalk.

Following the shooting Kiska's place was raided by police who secured liquor declared to be worth at least $12,000. Kiska was sent to jail for thirty days on a charge of liquor law violation. The coroner's finding declares that Kiska refused to make an statement about the Tobey affair.

REED'S HAT IN RING

Bluefield, W. Va., April 17.—Senator James A. Reed, of Missouri, probably will enter his name for the West Virginia delegation to the Democratic national convention in Houston, it was said here today.

Reed left this morning for a speaking engagement in Beckley. Final decision about the West Virginia campaign will be made after Reed talks to ex-Senator Chilton, ex-Governor MacCorkle and other party leaders at the state capital late today.

LITTLE TO CHOOSE AMONG CANDIDATES

(Continued from Page 1.)

Washington, April 17.—Eight weeks from today the Republican national convention meets in Kansas City to select its presidential candidate.

The field heads into the highly important six weeks of April and May, filled with primaries and state conventions, with the situation only beginning to clarify.

Lowden and Hoover About Equally Divided Among Delegates Thus Far.

Lowden and Hoover are about equally divided between the delegates to be chosen, either by primary, state convention, or action by state committees, and those that have been chosen are about equally divided between the leaders—Herbert Hoover and Frank O. Lowden.

Only six of the seventeen primary states have gone to the polls, Illinois, Michigan, Nebraska, New Hampshire, North Dakota and Wisconsin. These states have between them 164 delegates.

Lowden has received 48 in Illinois, the other 13 being doubtful; 13 in North Dakota and 7 in Wisconsin, a total of 68. Hoover has picked up 33 in Michigan, 12 in New Hampshire, and 4 in Wisconsin, a total of 49.

Senator George W. Norris, a Republican of Nebraska, has received the 19 from his native state, and 15 in Wisconsin, making 34.

The primaries to date admittedly have thrown little light on the situation as a whole.

Little Light As Yet The action of various state conventions and state committees have thrown little more. Aside from the primary states, some 14 other states have taken definite action in the matter of selecting delegates and pledging them.

Colorado Uninterested Colorado acted yesterday, but refused to instruct its 15 delegates for Hoover, notwithstanding, too, that Secretary of the Interior, Herbert Work, a native Coloradoan, is one of the Hoover managers.

The figures, while admitted to be substantially correct, probably present a somewhat false comparison of the relative strength of Hoover and Lowden because of the fact that the real fighting to date has been in the middle west where Lowden is conceded to be stronger than Hoover. The far west, admittedly Hoover territory, has not acted yet and the populous east, where Hoover sentiment is thought to be stronger than Lowden, also is yet to speak.

Ohio, three of the largest units in the convention, combining 169 delegates, have primaries next Tuesday. California acts on May 1, and will send a solid Hoover delegation of 29.

Maryland follows on May 7, and Indiana on May 8, with New Jersey coming along on May 15. Maryland and New Jersey are claimed solidly by the Hoover managers.

The Lowden managers have been greatly encouraged by the refusal of Colorado to instruct for Hoover. The Hoover managers had confidently counted on this, and the Lowden people were about ready to concede it, but the refusal to instruct indicates there may be some opposition to Hoover in the delegation.

SMITH'S CAMPAIGN OPENS

New York, April 17.—The opening bomb in the direct campaign to elect Gov. Alfred E. Smith for the presidency was fired in New York City today.

George R. Lunn, former lieutenant governor, speaking before the state committee at the National Democratic Club introduced a resolution calling upon all state delegates to the national convention at Houston, Texas, to support Gov. Smith's candidacy.

The resolution found an immediate accord in Franklin Roosevelt, who followed Lunn's address with a brief plea for a delinquent united for the governor. Both Lunn and Roosevelt went into some detail on the governors political record and the demand for his leadership if the Democratic ticket is to succeed.

CHINESE PIRATES

London, April 17.—Hong Kong pirates boarded the Chinese steamer Hsinawaw, overwhelmed the crew and then made off with five passengers as prisoners and a large quantity of booty, according to a Central News dispatch from Hong Kong today.

The pirates, it is believed, captured the passengers to hold them for ransom.

The Hsinawaw is a 1,940 ton vessel plying between Shanghai and Hong Kong.

A gunboat has been ordered to trail the pirate craft.

SMITH BOOSTERS

Waterbury, Conn., April 17.—Mayor Francis P. Gulfoyle is to be Connecticut's chief representative at Boston next Thursday evening when a New England-wide gathering of boosters of Governor Al Smith, of New York, for the Democratic nomination for the presidency is held in Faneuil Hall.

Gulfoyle is to deliver one of the principal addresses.

Bridgeport, Conn., April 17.—Mrs. Katherine S. Lawson, of Westport, was today made defendant in a $1,500 damage suit brought by John Wanamaker, New York, to recover judgment secured against Mrs. Lawson in New York.

HIGH WINDS, SNOW, SWEEP GREENLY ISLE

(Continued from Page 1.)

to reach this city when they started out but they ran into a terrible storm and Schiller thought it advisable to land at Nantassquan. To Go to Montreal It is believed that Fitzmaurice will attempt to get to Montreal.

There, according to reports from New York, he will be met by Timothy A. Smiddy, the Free State minister to the United States. Smiddy is now in New York and, according to reports, will leave for Montreal tomorrow night.

From Montreal, it is believed the Irish fierer and minister will go directly to Washington, D. C., where Fitzmaurice will deliver a person a letter he is bearing from President Cosgrave of the Irish Free State to President Coolidge.

Bremen's Sister Ship At about six o'clock last night Miss Helen Junker, daughter of the builder of the Bremen, arrived at Montreal in a sister ship of the trans-Atlantic plane, the Junkers F-13.

The plane was piloted by Fred Melchior. The boat from Curacao field was accomplished in little over three hours. Gerhard Junker, brother of Herta, accompanied her on the flight.

The F-13 carried surplus fuel and spare parts intended for the Bremen. Junker was accompanied by Miss Junker who will make for transporting the repair parts to Greenly Island, if they are needed, is not known as yet.

There are rumors that Fitzmaurice's flight with Schiller was made for the purpose of meeting the F-13 at Montreal and then flying it back to Greenly Island with the repair parts. The F-13 is equipped with the only propeller in America which will fit the Bremen.

According to first reports the propeller of the trans-Atlantic plane had been damaged when the plane descended after its grim battle westward across the Atlantic ocean in the face of adverse conditions of all kinds.

More Details Radio messages from Point Amour added somewhat to the meagre details of the adverse conditions encountered by the three fliers in their flight.

According to the messages, they encountered heavy snow, sleet and rain in the latter part of the flight. While over the northern tip of Newfoundland they found themselves in the midst of a driving storm, heavy rain, sleet and a running low. They knew they were over land but it is believed they were not certain just what their bearings were.

Then they saw the lighthouse on Greenly Island. At first, they thought the lighthouse was a sailing steamer. They flew low and sought a place to land. In the middle of the tiny island was a small body of water.

They descended and attempted to alight on the frozen-over sea or lake. In doing so they crashed through some of the thin ice and slightly damaged their plane.

The ice-breaker Montcalm, which started out to the aid of the fliers as soon as word was received that they were marooned on Greenly Island, seems to be waging a losing battle against the ice-floes.

The ship was pushed back about twenty miles by the ice yesterday despite all its efforts to get nearer to the island. It is now believed to be about eighty miles away from the island. Previously it had been reported only sixty miles away.

It is now feared that the ship will have to return to North Sidney to replenish its coal supply before it can reach Greenly Island.

MESSAGE FROM FLYERS

New York, April 17.—A direct message from the German fliers on Greenly Island, stating their intention to pilot the plane Bremen to New York tomorrow was made public today by the Radio Corporation of America. The message, sent out by W. F. Barrett, Marconi operator at Point Amour, several miles from the island, follows: "The Bremen's shaft is slightly damaged, but repairable. We expect to depart Wednesday. We had fog and snowstorm during part of our flight, and when we got near Greenly and saw the light we mistook it for a sailing vessel, but after circling around ascertained it was a lighthouse and made a landing on a small pond. The crew was rather exhausted, but quite recovered after a short time."

The message was obtained by a courier dispatched by dog sled to Greenly Island by Barrett. The messenger returned to Point Amour before it had been decided that Major Fitzmaurice was to accompany "Duke" Schiller back to civilization.

Berlin's Comment Berlin, April 17.—Berlin newspapers were rather wrought up today over Commandant Fitzmaurice's departure from Greenly Island in "Duke" Schiller's plane while his German companions remained with the Bremen.

Definite criticism of the Irish fierer was withheld, however, pending the receipt of a statement from him giving his reasons for his decision to leave the island before his companions.

Most of the papers regarded his unlooked-for departure as regrettable but refused to believe that any personal differences between him and the German fliers were responsible.

CHILD INJURED

Willimantic, Conn., April 17.—Frank Varga, 10, of Mansfield Center, was brought here for treatment today after a sickle thrown by a playmate penetrated the child's right eye. The child will recover through the sight of the eye has been destroyed. A group of boys were playing "war" when the accident occurred.

Kiwanis Funsters

(Continued from Page 1.)

Bill Dillon, Andy Anderson and Mush Grezel contribute considerable fun to the Kiwanis Minstrel Show at the State Theater tomorrow afternoon and evening. Here they are caught by our photographer in a moment of expectation—that is, expecting applause.

HARTFORD RECOUNT IS DENIED BY COURT

Judge Ellis Rules That Order Must Come Through Court of Errors.

Hartford, Conn., April 17.—The vote cast in Hartford's city election will not be recounted unless an order is obtained through the Supreme Court of Errors. Judge Arthur F. Ellis, of Superior Court, today denied the request of City Moderator U. E. Gutherie for an order for a recount. Whether an appeal from this decision is to be taken had not been decided this afternoon.

Moderator Gutherie Edward N. Allen, Republican town chairman, gave reasons why a recount was not needed, and took the matter under advisement. The decision came this afternoon.

D. A. R. TO PUNISH INSURGENT MEMBERS

Washington, April 17.—The D. A. R. probably will take disciplinary action against Mrs. Helen Truffs Ballie of Boston, and other "insurgents" who are held responsible for the broadcasting of the so-called D. A. R. blacklist, it developed today at the 37th annual congress.

The leaders, however, are opposed to introducing the matter in the present convention. They plan, rather to act through the regular machinery of the organization.

Mrs. Alfred J. Brossman, president general, said today she was not concerned whether the matter came into the convention.

The D. A. R. congress held only a brief business session this morning, preparatory to the annual pilgrimage to Mount Vernon this afternoon.

BEIRT ACOSTA'S CASE

Waterbury, Conn., April 17.—Beir Acosta's trans-Atlantic flight, today received another week of grace before facing the Common Pleas Court here to try out his appeal from a five-day jail sentence imposed early this year after he was arrested for flying low over the borough of Naugatuck.

Edward Mascola, attorney for Acosta, today showed Judge Harry J. Beardsley a telegram from Acosta asking for an extension of time because of Acosta's illness. The judge immediately granted an extension of seven days.

HEARING ECLECTICS

Bridgewater, Conn., April 17.—Judge Isaac Wolfe, of New Haven, today sat with the Supreme Court here in place of Judge Christopher L. Avery, of Groton, who is one of three Superior Court judges presiding over a murder trial at Hartford. The Supreme Court then took up the cases of fifteen eclectics who are appealing from their convictions by the State Board of Health. The eclectics are from Bridgeport, New Haven and Hartford.

CANNON AS MONUMENT

South Coventry, Conn., April 17.—A group of local men will meet tonight to determine whether they can secure funds to transport a cannon owned by the United States government from Valencia, California, to be placed on the revolutionary training grounds near the Nathan Hale birthplace. The group decided a cannon would add to the dignity of the town but found that the nearest one the government desires to give away is in California.

MISS HAWLEY BANKRUPT

Bridgewater, Conn., April 17.—Miss Cornelia M. Hawley, of Newtown, who filed a bankruptcy petition at New Haven last month, told Referee John Keogh today that she invested most of her money with the Newtown Feldspar Corporation as did most of her neighbors in that town. Her investments left her unable to meet debts and she filed a bankruptcy petition.

BUNTON DERBY

Tulsa, Okla., April 17.—C. C. Pyle's Bunton Derbyists moved on to their 45th control at Chelsea, 42 miles out of Tulsa today.

Peter Gavuzzi, Southampton, Eng., held the lead in the race this morning with an elapsed time of 270:41.05 for the 1,619 miles from Los Angeles to Tulsa. One hour, six minutes and 24 seconds behind him was Andrew Payne, Youthful Oklahoman, and second in the race.

MCKERNON'S NEW POST

New York, April 17.—Edward McKernon, who has just resigned as superintendent of the eastern division of the Associated Press after holding that post for seven years, will become the publisher of the Rochester, N. Y., Evening Journal and Post Express, it was announced today. Mr. McKernon thus becomes associated with Col. Frank Knox, who was recently made general manager of the Hearst newspapers.

DATES OF MUSTER, ARMISTICE CLASH

(Continued from page 1.)

nor's staff will use his influence to get the C. N. G. units here. The subject is being approached in a big way, in keeping with the growing idea that Armistice Day can be most worthily observed by such concentrations in the towns and cities in order.

Manchester has not had a big Armistice Day in several years, the celebration here usually being carried out by a small group of ex-service men who conduct a short service at the Memorial hospital.

It is the aim of the Legion to bring back to Manchester the feeling that Armistice Day commemorates one of the most important events in history, the end of the World War in which a number of Manchester men lost their lives.

The fliers' muster, as being planned, will be similar to the one which was held here seven years ago. It will bring to town volunteer fire companies from all over New England, who will compete for prizes at the field day. The last muster was not as much of a success as has been anticipated because a rainstorm continued most of the day.

To Organize May 15 The meeting of north and south end fliers, held in the headquarters of Hose Company No. 2, S. M. F. D., decided that a muster should be held and May 15 was the date set for the organization meeting. This will also be held in No. 2's house.

It was said today that the executive committee of the Legion will meet shortly to further plans for the Armistice Day celebration and further announcements regarding their plans will be made at that time.

WOMAN FORFEITS BOND TO POLICE

(Continued from Page 1.)

cars near the State Theater for about three hours yesterday afternoon. Only one hour parking is allowed on the east side of Main street from the Center to School street.

Warns of Parking Law Judge Johnson took the opportunity to state that hereafter automobile owners and drivers who fail to obey the parking laws will be more severely penalized. The parking laws are posted on every light pole all the way down the street. The matter has received considerable publicity through the newspapers and it is about time motorists lived up to the bylaws of the town. Hereafter, the judge declared violators will pay more than a dollar fine.

BAR ASS'N. MEETING

Waterbury, Conn., April 17.—The Connecticut Bar Association will hold its annual meeting here on Friday afternoon and evening with Terence F. Carmody, of Waterbury, presiding for the last time. Mr. Carmody is now completing his second term as president of the association. Arthur M. Brown, of Norwich, is vice-president. A nominating committee consisting of George D. Watrous, New Haven; Lucius F. Robinson, of Hartford; and David S. Day of Bridgeport, is preparing a list of proposed new officers.

Robert M. Hutchins, dean of Yale law school, is to be the principal speaker at the evening session of the association.

200 SEE MOOSE LODGE INSTALL ITS OFFICERS

(Continued from Page 1.)

Manchester lodge of Moose No. 1477 installed its new officers before a gathering of 200 members, friends and invited guests in Tinkers hall last night. The installation ceremonies were in charge of Past Dictator Frank Montie. Joseph Chicoine is the new dictator of the lodge.

The members of the lodge put on a show, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," in burlesque and the crowd heartily applauded the actors at the close. A social time and a luncheon followed the installation and the play.

HARBOR ALLOTMENTS

Washington, April 17.—River and harbor allotments, totalling many millions of dollars, were announced today by the War Department.

Included in the allotments were the following: Thames river, Connecticut, $285,000. Connecticut river below Hartford, Conn., $17,000. Bridgeport harbor, Conn., $25,000. Norwalk harbor, Conn., $65,000. New York harbor, N. Y., $125,000. East River, N. Y., $1,200,000. Hudson river, N. Y., $1,700,000.

KIWANIS LUNCHEON AT STATE THEATER

(Continued from Page 1.)

The Manchester Kiwanis club held a rehearsal luncheon and meeting at the State theater this noon. Practically the entire session was given over to rehearsing chorus numbers for the minstrel show at the theater tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Luncheon was served right on the stage and by way of entertainment Manager Jack Sanson of the State theater put on an excellent comedy reel.

The attendance prize was omitted today, but next week when the meeting will be at the Hotel Sheridan and every member is expected to bring a boy, two prizes will be drawn.

Every Kiwanian who takes part in the minstrel is expected to be at the State theater not later than one o'clock tomorrow for the final dress rehearsal. Luncheon will be served at the theater between the afternoon matinee and evening performance, the same as last year.

Dr. A. A. Savage will resume his regular office hours beginning Thursday morning of this week.—Adv.

STATE Tonight FINAL SHOWING

What a romance and what a thriller

The Patent Leather Kid starring RICHARD BARTHELMESS An ALFRED SANTELL production A First National Picture

TOMORROW MATINEE 4:00. EVENING AT 8

BIGGER AND BETTER THAN EVER.

SECOND ANNUAL

Kiwanis Minstrel

Benefit Kiwanis Kiddies Kamp

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

2-FEATURES-2

EDMUND LOWE MARY ASTOR

Now They're on the Screen Jiggs, Dinty and Maggie

"Dressed to Kill" Bringing Up Father

Visit The Eastern Arts Association Exhibition State Armory Hartford Opening Wednesday Evening, April 18 Continuing Through Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Art Objects, Paintings, Statuary, School Art, etc., representing American Art which will form the United States exhibit at the International Exhibition at Prague.

The painting and decorative industries will also have an elaborate display prepared by the State Association of House Painters and Decorators.

We extend a cordial invitation to the people of Manchester.

THE MANCHESTER MASTER PAINTERS' ASSOCIATION.

Bigger And Better Than Ever!

KIWANIS MINSTRELS

State Theatre Tomorrow

100 A BRILLIANT ARRAY OF SONGS, 100 COSTUMES AND SCENERY

PEOPLE FEATURING PEOPLE

Benefit of

KIWANIS KIDDIES CAMP

Jack Sanson's Stage Presentation

Featuring Jack Sanson and His Presentation Orchestra

Supported by OLIVE NYMAN FAYETTE B. CLARKE DOROTHY WIRTALLA ARLYNE MARIARTY ANN SULLIVAN and JOHN I. OLSON

SPECIAL CHILDREN'S MATINEE 4 o'clock Evening Performance at Eight

ADMISSION: Children 15c and 25c ADULTS, ONE DOLLAR

Kiwanis Chorus of Forty "Princ" Quimby, Interlocutor. And that inimitable sextet of End Men: "Andy" Anderson, "Mush" Grezel, "Wash" Washburn, "Nate" Richards, "Bill" Dillon and "Pop" Thiennes.

Beethoven Glee Club Helge Pearson, Director "Doc" Moore

Larry Emmons

Borst and Washburn A Pair o' Black Diamonds

MCKERNON'S NEW POST. New York, April 17.—Edward McKernon, who has just resigned as superintendent of the eastern division of the Associated Press after holding that post for seven years, will become the publisher of the Rochester, N. Y., Evening Journal and Post Express, it was announced today. Mr. McKernon thus becomes associated with Col. Frank Knox, who was recently made general manager of the Hearst newspapers.

MILLER PROVES A POOR WITNESS

Former Official Says He Knows Nothing About Sinclair's Liberty Bonds.

Washington, April 17.—Col. Thomas W. Miller, former alien property custodian, denied before the Senate public lands committee today that he knew anything of the Continental Trading Company's $3,080,000 Liberty Bond "slush fund."

Miller, now under prison sentence for conspiracy to defraud the government in the American Metals case, proved a disappointing witness to the committee. He knew nothing of the bonds said to have passed between Will H. Hays and Harry F. Sinclair.

"Were you a dinner guest at the White House with President Coolidge in the late part of 1923?" Miller was asked.

"I have no recollection of it," he replied.

"Were you a luncheon guest at the White House with John T. King and Attorney General Daugherty in 1923?"

"No, I never went to the White House with either of those gentlemen."

Under questioning by Senator Nye, Republican of North Dakota, Miller denied raising any funds for the Republican Party in 1923 or 1924. He said he did not know that "Sinclair Liberty Bonds were available" in 1923.

Handled No Bonds "Did you handle any Liberty Bonds in that year?"

"No sir."

Mrs. John T. Pratt, widow of the New York capitalist, was the next witness.

"There is some testimony here about Mr. Pratt making a $50,000 contribution to the Republican Party in 1923 at the same time that he received $50,000 in Liberty Bonds from Will H. Hays," said Walsh.

"There are a few matters, however, which I thought you might clear up. Did he tell you about that transaction?"

"No, he never did."

"Was it customary for him to talk to you about such matters?"

"He made many gifts without discussing them with me," said Mrs. Pratt.

Bonds Missing Walsh said the committee had learned that Pratt sold $25,000 of the Sinclair bonds but that no trace could be found of the other $25,000.

"Do you know what became of that other $25,000 in bonds?"

"Nothing at all, Senator," Mrs. Pratt said.

She said she didn't know why Pratt had later given back to Hays $50,000 of his Liberty Bonds.

Mrs. Pratt said she knew Hays very well. She said he came to her home two months ago to ask her to search her late husband's papers for trace of the Sinclair bonds.

"It was on Feb. 12, Lincoln's birthday, that he came to my house and asked me if I could find the record of Mr. Pratt getting these bonds. He said there must have been some record in Mr. Pratt's papers. I sent to the office and looked through the papers and found the documents, indicating he got the bonds."

She was excused.

Clarence C. Chase, son-in-law of Albert B. Fall and an El Paso, Texas banker, followed Mrs. Pratt to the stand.

Walsh first asked an exchange of telegrams, No. 12, Lincoln's birthday, which Fall asked Chase to accompany him from New Mexico to Cleveland on a "private matter."

Rockville

Superior Court News.

Three cases have been assigned for Wednesday in Superior Court. Judge Edwin C. Dickinson of Hartford will be on the bench and State's Attorney Thomas F. Noone will present the cases.

The case of Edward Rathbun and Everett Porter, ages 18 and 20, of Hebron, will be the first case to be presented. They will be charged with violation of the game laws and will be represented by Attorney William Hyde of Manchester.

The second case is that of Everett Porter of Hebron who is charged with carrying concealed weapons.

Rathbun and Porter were arrested two months ago by Deputy Game Warden D. E. Myers of Ellington and Edward Wright of Rockville, near the Hebron-Marion line. They were questioned about illegal setting of traps in the vicinity and when asked to show their hunting licenses Rathbun was found to have none. Porter was found to have a license and also to have a loaded revolver in one of his pockets. Although both claimed that the traps were not theirs, they offered no testimony.

The case was tried in the Hebron court. Deputy Commissioner Williamson of Hartford who was interested in the case at the time it was presented in the town court, was present. He has received numerous complaints from Hebron.

The case was tried in the Hebron court and Rathbun $54.70. The civil case of Albert E. Samuels vs. Allison L. Frink will also be before the court. Spellacy, Wholean & Yeomans is representing Samuels and H. S. Gaucher appears for Frink.

Funeral of Three. The funeral of three persons who were killed Sunday afternoon, when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by a switching engine at a railroad crossing in London, will be held at the Rockville Baptist church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The three, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Billings of New London and Ernest William Clark of Ellington, were returning from a visit with relatives in Ellington.

Mr. Billings was 47 years old and was in the real estate business and was a member of the Baptist church and the Men's Club. He is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Marian A. Russell; a sister, Mrs. Maude Campbell of Manchester and a brother, Robert Billings of Manchester, and several nieces.

Mrs. Billings is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Clark of Ellington whom she leaves. She is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Wallace Bergh of Ellington and a sister in Springfield; three brothers, Raymond, Clark and Everett Clark of Hartford and Everett Clark of Rockville who is the father of the boy who was killed. The child also leaves several brothers and sisters.

Rev. Blake Smith, pastor of the Baptist church will officiate. The Clark boy will be buried in the family plot in Grove Hill Cemetery and Mr. and Mrs. Billings will be buried in Ellington Cemetery.

"Der Totentanz" Novel Production. The Mediasa Mystery play "Der Totentanz" given by the Hartford Theological students at the Union Congregational church Sunday evening was one of the most novel productions ever presented in this city. The play was all presented in German dialect but the thought and spirit was fully interpreted throughout the play. Professor Johnson told the story of the play in a very interesting manner. The church was filled to capacity to greet the students. Music was furnished by the quartet.

May Concert by Community Orchestra. The Community Orchestra under the direction of Arthur H. Stein will present a concert during National Music week in May. The orchestra will be assisted by members of the Hartford Symphony Orchestra. The proceeds will be used for payment of the new piano.

Notes. The Wheel Club will hold the second of its series of four whists on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Keeney of West street and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keeney of West Main street spent Monday in Providence, R. I.

The Good Will Club of St. Johns Episcopal church will hold a card party in the parish rooms this evening. Pinochle, bridge and whist will be played and prizes awarded. The public is invited.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church will serve a roast beef supper on Wednesday evening. Burpee W. R. C. will hold a regular meeting on Wednesday evening. A members' supper will be served at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Frank Hall is chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Yost and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Barrows and daughter spent Sunday in Westfield, Mass.

Mrs. Julius Sharp is ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carl Conroy of Ward street.

Omer Fontaine of Middletown spent the week-end at his home on Brooklyn street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson of Broad Brook spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. A. Tennstedt of Cedar street.

JOCKEY KILLED Havre de Grace, Md., April 17.—Jockey O. Bourassa was fatally injured here today when exercising the Seagram stable's thoroughbred Julia H. The youngster was removed to a local hospital where he died.

At the 4-1-2 furlong pole, Bourassa's saddle girth broke throwing him violently against the inside rail. With the force of the fall the boy's skull was fractured.

PANTOMIME ARTISTS AT CITY CLUB BANQUET

Chairman Willard B. Rogers Arranges Unusual Attraction For Dinner Monday Night.

Manchester City club members and their guests will witness one of the finest entertainment programs in connection with their annual banquet this year that has ever been staged at any of the big affairs that have been put on at the Hotel Bond ballroom. The dinner will be served in the grand ballroom at 8 o'clock next Monday evening, April 23.

Willard B. Rogers, chairman of the banquet committee, today secured two of New York's most famous pantomime artists. These comedians are to be the boxing game what Nick Altrook and Al Schact are to baseball. Their mimicking of prizefighting is one of the best exhibitions possible to see. They are booked through Tex Rickard himself and are especially recommended by Joe Humphries, famous prizefight announcer. Mr. Rogers secured the two entertainers for a big benefit show at the State Armory last year and they made a big hit.

In addition to this act there will be 21 other vaudeville or cabaret numbers at the banquet. The entertainment will be staged while the club members are dining. The tables will be placed to form a huge horseshoe with all the diners facing the center of the ballroom where the entertainment will be given.

Tickets are now on sale at the club rooms here. Those members who are planning to attend are asked to get their tickets as soon as possible so that arrangements can be made for transportation.

STATE'S DELEGATES OUT FOR COOLIDGE

(continued from page 1)

son, of Hartford, now mayor-elect; and Samuel R. Spencer, of Suffield, a state Senator.

Second District—Charles A. Gates, of Willimantic, high sheriff for Windham county; and R. Leonard Keeney, of Somers, a state Senator.

Third District—J. Edwin Brainard, of Branford, lieutenant-governor; and Roy C. Wilcox, of Meriden, a state Senator.

Fourth District—Arthur F. Connor, of Bridgeport; and Julia M. Emory, Representative from Stamford.

Fifth District—Edward W. Goss, of Waterbury, a state Senator; and Frederic C. Walcott, of Norfolk, also a state Senator.

While the apparent favored list of delegates contains but three women, it is expected that Republican women of Connecticut will be more largely represented on the list of alternates.

Today's Program Preliminaries for the state convention start at three p. m., today with a meeting of the state central committee at the Hotel Bond. The session will devote its attention to the adoption of the roll. The convention itself is to be called to order at Foot Guard Hall at eight p. m., by Senator Hiram Bingham, of New Haven. The announcement of committee assignments follows, and then Senator Bingham delivers the "key note" address.

The state convention re-convenes tomorrow morning at ten o'clock. Before that, however, the senatorial district groups will meet to select members for the state central committee for the coming two years. Following the settlement of this affair and the acceptance of all other credentials, the committee on permanent organization will report. Senator Bingham will be recommended as worthy of being permanent chairman of the convention, and the work of electing the delegates to the national convention will proceed, delegates-at-large being named first, and district delegates next.

Following the convention the delegates will hold a meeting of their own and organize for the trip. The plans that they adopt then will be followed throughout the Kansas City meeting.

K. OF P. SURPRISES PAST CHANCELLOR Myron Peckham of Lydall street, past chancellor and present deputy of Memorial Lodge, Knights of Pythias, was honored last night by the visit of more than 30 of his brothers at his home. The party came as a complete surprise to Mr. Peckham who has been one of the most active members of the lodge since he came to Manchester from Lebanon, where he was a charter member of the order.

As a lasting reminder of their appreciation of his interest and helpfulness, his associates from Memorial Lodge No. 28 gave him a white gold Knights of Pythias ring. The presentation speech was made by David Dickson. Mr. Peckham warmly thanked his friends for their acceptable gift and the feeling which prompted it.

The evening was spent enjoyably with cards and after the games a lunch was served.

Although diamonds are among the hardest substances known, they are composed of carbon, and they burn sufficiently in air they will burn.

"EDDIE" GILL TAPPED FOR HONOR FRATERNITY

Selected to Join "Skull" at Worcester Tech—Has Been Football Captain.

John Edward Gill, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gill of Main street and a junior at Worcester Polytechnic Institute, has been tapped for membership in "Skull" the senior honorary society. The young man is already a member of the Newman club, "Knights of the Road" and treasurer of his fraternity, Alpha Chi Omega. He has figured prominently in college athletics, being captain of the football team, manager of basketball and a player on the varsity baseball nine. Mr. Gill was graduated with the 1924 class of the Manchester High school and after working for a year entered Worcester Tech.

PAINTERS, DECORATORS IN ART EXHIBITION

One of the most unusual exhibitions ever brought to New England will be that of the Eastern Arts Association which will be opened in the Armory at Hartford on the evening of April 18th and will continue until the 21st. The exhibition consists of a half million dollars worth of art objects, paintings, statuary and other works of art comprising the collection that will represent American art at the International Exhibition in Prague later this year. This is the only opportunity that the public will have of seeing this collection in its entirety prior to its shipment to Europe.

The painting and decorative industries will be represented by an elaborate display prepared under the auspices of the State Association of Master House Painters and Decorators. This exhibit will consist of a very handsome early Colonial bedroom cabinet that will be furnished with correct reproductions and painted and decorated in the most tasteful and skillful manner by members of the State Association. The furnishings of this room alone exceed six thousand dollars in value and will undoubtedly be the work of art. The members of the State society have shared in the designing and preparation of this unique exhibit which cannot fail to attract the attention of the public to the possibilities of the decorative art as applied to home decoration and furnishing.

OBITUARY

DEATHS

Mrs. Mary E. L. Hartenstein Mrs. Mary E. L. Hartenstein, 77, mother of C. W. Hartenstein, 77, Summit street, died at the Hartford hospital yesterday afternoon. She was the daughter of Charles W. Chapman, one of the charter members of the Hotel Bond, and her son, by a daughter, Mrs. Lillian I. Luce of Montclair, N. J. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hartenstein's son on Summit street at 1:30. Rev. William B. Tutbill of the Windsor Avenue Baptist church of Hartford will officiate at a burial which will be in Pogue oak.

Mrs. Eliza Burdick Mrs. Eliza Burdick, widow of the late James S. Burdick, died early today at her home at 40 Flower street after a short illness. She passed her 78th birthday last Sunday.

Mrs. Burdick's death was the direct result of a paralytic shock which she suffered two weeks ago Thursday. She had been confined to her bed ever since. Death came at 8:25 this morning.

Mrs. Burdick was born in Buckingham, April 15, 1850, a daughter of Harvey and Mary Weir. She had lived in Manchester 51 years. During the latter part of her life, she made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Eliza Gibson, local meat dealer. There are no other near relatives. The funeral will be held at the home at 2:30 Thursday afternoon and burial will be in the Burdick family plot in the East cemetery. Rev. Joseph Cooper, former pastor of the South Methodist Episcopal church, will officiate and he will be assisted by Rev. Robert A. Colpitts.

FUNERALS

John J. Brennan The funeral of John J. Brennan was held this morning at the home at 8:30 and in St. James's church where a requiem mass was sung. Rev. James P. Hinman was the celebrant of the mass. Rev. Vincent McDonough the deacon and Rev. William P. Reidy sub deacon. The soloists were Mrs. Margaret Sullivan and Mrs. Claire Brennan. As the body was borne into the church Mrs. Brennan and Mrs. Shilvan sang "What Shall I Render" and at the offertory Mrs. Sullivan sang "O Salutaris." Mrs. Brennan sang "Ave Maria" at the elevation and at the end of the mass she with Mrs. Sullivan sang "Thy Will Be Done." Mrs. Brennan and Mrs. Shilvan sang "O Salutaris." Mrs. Brennan was being borne out of the church. The bearers were John Tierney, Philip Shaw and Michael Foley as representatives of Manchester Division No. 1, A. O. H., Thomas Haggerty, Edward Sweeney and John Downing. Burial was in St. James's cemetery and the committal service was read by Father Timmins.

Keith's The Glenwood Gold Medal Combination Range A Wonderful Range A Very Low Price Special Cash Discount "A Year to Pay" THE "GLENWOOD ROBERTSHAW" OVEN HEAT CONTROLLER Can not only be used in cooking single articles of food, such as in ordinary baking or roasting, but in addition, any entire meal which can be cooked in a fireless cooker, can be cooked in a "Glenwood-Robertshaw" controlled range oven with even better results. Our salesmen will show you why when you call. Any Glenwood Range or Gas Stove sold through our profit sharing credit plan. "A Year to Pay" and a liberal cash discount. G. E. KEITH FURNITURE CO. CORNER MAIN AND SCHOOL STREETS, SOUTH MANCHESTER

WARANOKE HOTEL EMPLOYES GO OUT

Women Workers Quit When Put on Half Time Schedule By New Owner.

It was learned today that three women employees of the Waranoke Hotel on Main street had walked out today after they had been told by the proprietor that they would have to work only every other day and receive half their former weekly wages. The walkout left the hotel with only its proprietor, Harry Rampe, the chef and a porter to run the place.

The Hartford man took over the hotel less than two weeks ago from Morris Elman who operated it after Mrs. Joseph Williams had given it up as an unprofitable venture. They were only five employees, the chambermaid, housekeeper, waitress, chef and porter.

Last night, according to the story told by one of the strikers, the proprietor offered them the new proposition and told them that if they would only decide on it today. They decided against it and walked out. All have begun looking for other positions.

PLAN TRIPLE FUNERAL FOR VICTIMS OF CRASH

One Service at Rockville For Mr. and Mrs. Billings and Ernest Clark Tomorrow.

A triple funeral of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Billings and Ernest Clark of Rockville, victims of a grade crossing accident in New London on Sunday, will be held tomorrow afternoon at the Rockville Baptist church at 2 o'clock. The bodies of the three victims were brought to Rockville yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Billings, before removing to Rockville, had been residents of Manchester.

The funerals will be conducted by Rev. Blake Smith, pastor of the Baptist church, and the interment of Mr. and Mrs. Billings will be in the Ellington cemetery. The Clark boy will be buried in Grove Hill cemetery, Rockville.

SENT TO ATLANTA

New Haven, Conn., April 17.—For stealing an automobile in Norwich and driving it to Mars Hill, Maine, Norman Martin, a resident of Maine, was today on his way to Atlanta to serve a three years' sentence. Martin pleaded guilty to a violation of a federal statute by reason of transporting the car to another state, when he faced Judge Edwin S. Thomas in United States District Court here yesterday afternoon, and was immediately sentenced.

Joseph Fesh, a resident of Danbury, pleaded guilty to a charge of violating the National Prohibition act and was fined $200 and given a suspended jail sentence of sixty days by Judge Thomas.

SANDINO MISSING

Managua, Nicaragua, April 17.—All efforts of the United States Marines to get trace of Gen. Augusto Sandino, leader of the Nicaraguan rebels, have failed. It is reported that Sandino has fled across the border into Honduras.

Local Stocks

(Furnished by Putnam & Co.)

Table with columns for Bank Stocks, Insurance Stocks, Automobile, National Fire, etc. and their respective values.

Manufacturing Stocks

Table with columns for American Hard, Acme Wire, Billings Spencer, etc. and their respective values.

High Low 1 p. m.

Table with columns for Alls Chal, Am Can, Am Cr & Fdy, etc. and their respective values.

Service - Quality - Low Prices

Finest Fresh Caught FISH

by Express Wednesday Morning

Fresh Caught Mackerel, first this season 28c lb.

Fresh Caught Butterfish, first this season, large size 38c lb.

Fresh Caught Shad 25c lb.

Steak Cod, Boston Bluefish, Smelts, Herrings, Steak Salmon

CORNERED BEEF SPECIAL

Lean Rib Corned Beef 12 1/2c lb.

SPECIAL

Our Home Made Squash Pies 25c each

Our Home Made Crullers 19c dozen

Manchester Public Market

A. Podrove, Prop. Phone 10

N. Y. Stocks

Table with columns for Pull new, Radio Cor, Sears Roe, etc. and their respective values.

CITIZENSHIP PAPERS

New Haven, Conn., April 17.—An unprecedented rush to be made citizens of the United States has set in here, according to records of the United States District Court. For the first three months of this year the court collected fees from applicants for citizenship on the basis of over $20,000 a year. The fees are one dollar for first papers and four dollars for second papers. Judge Edwin S. Thomas today assigned naturalization hearings for the next month as follows: Hartford, May 4, 9, 10, and 21; New Haven, April 25, May 17, 18 and 24. About 125 applicants will be heard each day, a total of one hundred being reported as ready to receive citizenship before the end of next month. Judge Thomas will devote May 24 and 25 to hearing applications from soldiers.

ABOUT TOWN

A daughter was born late yesterday afternoon at the Memorial hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Michael Mooney of Glenwood street. Mrs. Mooney prior to her marriage was Miss Alice Griffin and the baby is the fifth grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Griffin of Hilliard street.

The Ladies Home and Foreign Missionary societies of the South Methodist church will combine forces in conducting a rummage sale all day Friday in the vacant store in the Johnson block on Main street. Donations will be called for Thursday by notifying the chairman, Mrs. Clarence L. Taylor.

Tonight at St. James's parish hall the last bridge, whist and set-back party of the season will be held. There will be 18 prizes and a gold door prize awarded to the winners and refreshments served.

A small crowd gathered at Locust and Main streets late this morning, attracted by smoke coming from the rear of an automobile whose brakes had become locked and had started to burn. The car did not catch fire for the brake bands merely smoldered. The car is owned by Rev. C. T. McCann, rector of St. Bridget's church.

Mill employees on their way to work this morning had the unusual opportunity of watching snow flakes fall from a clear blue sky with the sun shining brightly. Many in vain scanned the sky for clouds but they had passed before the flakes came into sight.

John L. Reinartz, local radio expert and one of the country's leading amateur operators, was "on the air" Saturday night when the first message of the landing of the German airplane "Bremen" on Greenland was given to the world. Mr. Reinartz caught the message through his own set.

John Mather chapter, Order of DeMolay, conferred the initiatory degree on a group of candidates last evening at the Masonic Temple.

Manchester Evening Herald

PUBLISHED BY THE HERALD PRINTING CO. Founded by Eliud S. Elin Oct. 1, 1881

Every Evening Except Sundays and Holidays. Entered at the Post Office at Manchester as Second Class Mail Matter.

Subscription Rates: By Mail Six Dollars a Year, Sixty Cents a Month for shorter periods.

By Carrier, fifteen cents a week. Single Copies, Three Cents.

SPECIAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVE, Hamilton-Da Lister, Inc., 225 Madison Avenue, New York and 612 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago.

The Manchester Evening Herald is on sale in New York City at Sobush's News Stand, Sixth Avenue and 42nd Street and Grand Central Station and at all Hoarding News Stands.

Client of International News Service.

"International News Service has the exclusive rights to use for republication in any form all news dispatches credited to or not otherwise credited in this paper. It is also exclusively entitled to use for republication all the local or undated news published herein." Full Service Client of N. E. A. Service.

TUESDAY, APRIL 17, 1928

FOR HOOVER

At Hartford tonight will be organized the Republican state convention to name delegates to the national convention at Kansas City, at which will be nominated the party's candidates and President and Vice-President.

It has become a rather fixed policy in Republican leadership in this state to avoid hard-and-fast instruction of national convention delegates in favor of any particular candidate for the Presidency.

Nevertheless it seems to us almost as unsound a principle for the Connecticut Republicans to fall together in the expression of a preference, when they have a very decided preference indeed, Connecticut people, Connecticut Republicans, are singularly united this year in their choice of a candidate for the Presidency.

This being the case it is submitted that if the state convention does not in some way short of absolute instruction to the delegates put itself on record as favoring the nomination of Herbert Hoover it will have fallen short of its plain duty to the voters of the party throughout the commonwealth.

DON'T GOSSIP

The Herald is becoming apprehensive over the Connecticut Company. You know how sensitive a thing credit is, and how essential it is that no false rumors should be circulated to the effect that this or that concern is getting "hard up."

Well, the Connecticut Company is a brisk and enterprising young concern, trying to get along. And so we do sincerely trust that nobody will jump at the conclusion, just because it has inexplicably quit the dental work job on Main street, that it has run out of the price of a few pounds of tar and broken stone, and go around gossiping about it.

Probably the Connecticut Company could buy a whole ton of stone and another of tar, if it wanted to. Which, on the Main street scale, would do for a whole lot of jobs like this one.

putting in a patch or two. Or maybe it just happened to forget. Anyhow, let's not start anything by suggesting that the company hasn't the price, because that wouldn't be a reason in any event.

LET 'EM ALONE

Just why the American State Department should continue to pursue the policy of attempting to invalidate the covenant of the League of Nations and the Lacarno pacts, and just why the people should expect any good to come of this diplomatic gesture, it isn't easy to see.

The Kellogg proposal to "outlaw war" through a treaty to be entered into by the United States, Great Britain, France, Germany, Italy and Japan cannot be subscribed to without all the others, aside from the United States, scrapping what measure of security inheres either in the League or the Lacarno agreements.

Under the proposed American treaty they would have to fore-swear their pacts which, whatever may be said against them, have at least prevented major wars during a period of ten wildly excited years.

It is perfectly certain that our government cannot have really expected anything to come from its treaty proposal. It would be more candid to tell France that we do not want a "gentlemen's agreement" with her to refrain from war, and let it go at that.

Brumby Vindication Secretary Wilbur has been extremely well advised in oversteering the finding of the naval court of inquiry into the sinking of the S-4 and the salvaging operation insofar as that court's stupid condemnation of Rear Admiral Brumby is concerned.

This newspaper was one of those which protested against the implication that Admiral Brumby was unfit for command of the Control Force of the fleet because he admitted lack of familiarity with certain details of technical construction in submarines.

Admiral Brumby displayed the very qualities of the experienced and capable commanding officer when, having assembled the finest possible group of salvage experts, he exercised the self-control and good judgment to permit them to do their job without nagging or interference.

UNLIKE YET ALIKE

Two honest men could hardly be more unlike than Andrew Jackson and Calvin Coolidge and yet it is not surprising to find President Coolidge paying a warm tribute to Jackson, seventh in the long line of Presidents who have preceded the present incumbent.

Jackson and Coolidge were fundamentally alike, with all their vast divergence in temperament and in method, in that each was and is devoted to the ideals of a great democracy and to the welfare of the nation.

KNEW MEN

His friends say that John Balevre knew intimately more men than any other person in the world. Yet outside of one very limited neighborhood in one city hardly anybody ever heard of John Balevre. Yet the latter condition does not at all contradict the former. John Balevre was the organizer in the Bowery Mission in New York for twenty years. When he died and was buried from the mission the other day thousands of down-and-outers, and others who were down-and-outers once, mourned him.

He retired from business comparatively early in life. It was then that he took to playing the organ at the mission—and spending many hours of every day making friends with the human rats and jetsam that comes to the doors of that and similar establishments.

We could swap, to our advantage, a good many vastly wider known men, our Falls and Hefins and Bill Thompsons, as example, for few who knew men as did John Balevre.

IN NEW YORK

New York, April 17.—In the mid-Sixties there's a school where, after the beat of the gong, you'll find all the little Lord Fauntleroy and Little Evras of the show world. Here the "professional" youngsters go to learn their sums and their geography.

Listening in on what should be childish chatter, you will learn how actors get that way. Already they are talking about rehearsals and roles they play; already they are beginning to lie about the salaries received and the length of their engagements.

Most of them are children of stage people, and you are just as likely to meet the small son of a celebrated clown as the daughter of an equally celebrated dancer.

A number of Broadway's very prominent players have come out of this school for professional children. Raymond, Hackett, Helen Chandler, Lily Lee and Billy Janction are but a few of the well known names that once appeared on this school's roster.

It's quite the most unusual schoolroom in the world. The recess hour brings forth a babble of information about Broadway managers, new plays and such. Frequently a youngster will be just about to complete a course when the call to the road sounds and the pupil's off with a play.

One teacher told me that last season a class shrunk from 15 to 6 in a side of a few weeks. The same teacher tells me that the discipline of the theater makes them particularly amenable to classroom discipline. There is no temperament during study hours. Many may still be hearing the echoes of applause earned just the night before, and

WASHINGTON LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER Washington April 17.—If we really want to show these Latin Americans what a fine, well-intentioned country we are, says Senator Ellison D. Smith of South Carolina, "let's not frighten them by the way we govern the Canal Zone. That ought to be an epitome of our form of government at home."

Gen. M. L. Walker... military governor of the Panama Canal Zone.

knows, is the little strip of American soil which lines the Panama Canal and lies between Central America and South America.

Senator Smith has introduced a resolution to investigate the Zone judiciary and a bill to place it under the Department of Justice instead of under the War Department where it is now.

If the charges which led to the Smith resolution and bill are true, the form of military dictatorship which has spread like measles through the Caribbean and Latin America is now being established on American soil.

These charges, alleging malfeasance, nonfeasance and misfeasance in office by Judge Guy H. Martin, were first taken to Congress by Felix Porter, a veteran Canal Zone lawyer who was disbarred after he had made charges of corruption against Martin to President Coolidge and the attorney general. Porter is now trying to have Martin impeached and the case is before the House Judiciary Committee.

More recently, two other men came here with fire in their eyes and added their charges to Porter's. One, a wiry, determined-looking little fellow named F. Edward Mitchell, was ousted recently as U. S. district attorney for the Canal Zone after he, too, had brought charges against Martin. The other, who also accuses Martin, was former Deputy Marshal Frank T. Hamilton, of Anderson, S. C., who lost his post as Zone deputy marshal when, after many years of service, he refused to obey Martin's orders because they were against those of his superior, Marshal Irvin M. Lieser of Des Moines, Ia. Marshal Lieser was also removed. He had suffered a paralytic stroke in the fight between Martin and the Zone's military governor, Gen. M. L. Walker, on the one side and Mitchell, Lieser and Hamilton on the other.

The charges against Martin are, principally, that he allowed and helped General Walker to assume control of the Canal Zone Judiciary system. Walker has been able to obtain help from the War Department in this project under an executive order last year placing the Zone courts under the secretary of war—an order which members of Congress are now learning about for the first time.

Judge C. P. Fairman, a prominent Canal zone attorney, also charges that Walker has attempted to abolish the jury system and otherwise disregarded the law. Mitchell charges that he was removed because he refused to give Walker and Martin the interpretations of law they desired. When he told them it was unlawful for Walker to dismiss Hamilton, they hired a special assistant who prosecuted Hamilton while Mitchell defended him.

Among many other charges that the congressional committees will hear is one that Martin has inflicted severe penalties on the humble and favored those of high station. In one case, it is cited, Hamilton sentenced to six months imprisonment a gassed, decorated war veteran for possessing a quart of rum and caused his dishonorable discharge from the army. In another case a lieutenant-commander of the navy, caught taking 21 quarts of liquor aboard a navy boat, was fined $35 on a plea of guilty after he had been prevented by Mitchell from being allowed to forfeit $200 bail. Mitchell wanted to send the naval officer to jail along with the private.

Martin resorted to Mitchell's charges with charges against Mitchell, supported by General Walker. They said Mitchell was unruly and insubordinate. The War Department sent Col. Grant T. Trent to investigate the case and Trent reported in favor of what the civilians involved call the "military oligarchy."

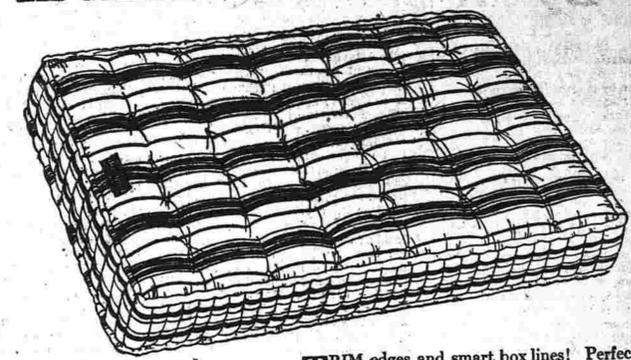

Mitchell subsequently applied for and received a leave of absence and returned to the States for a vacation. At the dock in New York he was met with a telegram advising of his dismissal. He was thus put to the expense of a return trip to the Zone with his family to pack and leave their home permanently.

Since then Mitchell and Hamilton both poor men, have gone to much other expense to vindicate themselves. Mitchell is now representing Hamilton in the latter's appeal from his dismissal in a federal court at New Orleans. Mitchell once was special assistant to Attorney General Marian F. Stone.

Il Duce Walks on Eggs

In America's finest homes

TRIM edges and smart box lines! Perfect buoyancy! Supreme comfort! This Beautyrest Mattress has the entrée in socially prominent homes.

Rows of tiny springs are nested in layer upon layer of new cotton felt. There are 810 of them extending to the very edge of the mattress, where they are stitched firmly within its felted sides. This gives the greatest support with the least resistance.

You will like its durable striped or art covering. The firm lines of the Beautyrest are always trim and smart-looking. Tufted by hand. Made by the world's largest manufacturer of beds, springs and mattresses.

WATKINS BROTHERS, Inc. CRAWFORD AND CHAMBERS RANGES

Tickets on sale here for Kivans Benefit Minstrel Show April 18, 1928.

This is the time of year when men go back to knee pants.

If You Want a Beautiful Lawn AND A THRIVING HOME GARDEN—USE HOLLAND PEAT MOSS MIXED WITH POULTRY MANURE For Sale at the Oakhurst Poultry Farm PRICE $1.00 PER BAG

The Next Telephone Directory

(the Summer Issue)

closes at noon on Saturday, April 28th

Orders for new installations, and changes in present listings, should be given us before that time if they are to be included in the Summer Issue of the telephone directory for this district.

Will your name be in it?

It's a valuable asset to you to be listed in the telephone directory. It means that your home is within speaking distance of anyone, anywhere, at any time. The telephone directory is more than a mere list of numbers—it's a "Who's Who" of the progressive, substantial people in the community. Will your name be in the new book?

And a telephone costs so little!

Most every home today has a telephone. It's a real economy, a great convenience, a faithful protector. In times of extreme emergency its value cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents.

You can have a telephone in your home for a monthly charge of as little as $2.00

Don't deny yourself and your family the benefits that a telephone in your home can bring. Order one before April 28th, and get the advantage of being listed in the new directory.

The above rate applies in the base rate area of the local Exchange Service Connection charge $3.50

Our local Business Office will gladly give you further particulars

THE SOUTHERN NEW ENGLAND TELEPHONE COMPANY

CAMPAIGN PORTRAITS—GOV. ALFRED E. SMITH 'Sidewalks Stuff' Discarded By Al Smith Of Today

This, the eighth in a series of Presidential Campaign Portraits written for The Herald and NEA Service by Robert Talley, is the first of four articles on Gov. Al Smith of New York. The second article on Governor Smith will appear tomorrow.

By ROBERT TALLEY

Albany, N. Y., April 17.—There will be less of the "sidewalks of New York" stuff when Al Smith's name is placed in nomination at the Democratic national convention at Houston, Tex., next June. If any slinky individual shows up down there from the Bowery, sporting a checked suit, a loud vest and with a brown derby cocked over the tip of a long cigar protruding from the northwest corner of his mouth, he probably will be thrown out on his ear if he starts singing "East Side, West Side, All A-round de town."

For this year the American public is going to be introduced to "the new Al Smith"—the man who has outgrown the environment of New York's East Side, where he once clerked in a fish market, and who has now "discarded the brown derby for the tuxedo in dress, speech and habit," with a consequent addition of dignity and refinement that would befit a president.

Three main obstacles stand between Al Smith and the presidency, according to his friends. One is his religion, one is his anti-prohibition stand and the third is a sort of general impression that the former East Sider is an uncultured and unrefined social creature who wouldn't know how to act in the White House if he got there.

For his religion, Governor Smith has no apologies to make. The prohibition issue can be met from the platform. But already the campaign is under way to show Smith's social metamorphosis from the cocoon of the Bowery to butterfly chrysalis of the White House.

In personal appearances, Smith's tailors have made him everything that could be asked in sartorial elegance, complete with good taste. In his speeches, this self-made man who left school before he was 15 carefully guards his grammar. In his official appearances, he has never been guilty of any act that would reflect discredit on the dignity or decorum of his state.

Always in his public appearances, Smith is on guard. But what sort of a human being is Al Smith under the skin? In his luxurious private office at the capitol, he met the man who has been acclaimed—and doubtless is—"the best governor that New York ever had." At any rate, he has been elected to that office four times.

"Hello!" he boomed in a voice that was almost a shout, as he grasped my hand with a grip like a lemon-squeezer. "Sit down!" he shouted.

I faced a man 55 years old, wearing horn-rimmed glasses, with graying hair parted in the middle, and a real smile. He wore a faultlessly-tailored brown suit, a bow tie of gleaming brown silk, an ordinary collar, a stiff-bosomed shirt and pearl studs, a gold signet ring on his right hand, one with a cloudy gray stone on his left hand and a pair of high brown shoes that, oddly enough, had enormously thick soles.

One of the telephones on Governor Smith's desk rang and he jerked off the receiver. "Hello, hello, hello!" he yelled in a voice that must have carried through the capitol, and he carried on his conversation in the same tone. While he was talking, I surveyed the governor's big, flat-topped desk, bearing a collection of articles not unlike a museum. It is necessarily a big desk, for here's what it has.

A statuette of a boy scout, a miniature bronze lion, a bronze bear, a small silver bull, three ink stands with flashily-colored pens protruding, a glass of ice water on a blotter, a bronze cast of a big peanut with two legs, a silver-framed picture of his wife and one of his sons, a 12-inch replica of the first railroad train in New York, several dozen unopened letters (Governor Smith opens his personal mail himself), a small marble elephant, several scribbled notations, two telephones, a desk lamp with pink silk shade.

Arthur A. Knofla
875 Main St.
Insurance and Real Estate.

Electric Wiring
Electric Fixtures
BREMER-TULLEY RADIO
Johnson Electric Co.
29 Clinton St., So. Manchester
Tel. 657-4

Gov. Alfred E. Smith of New York

and two bronze book-ends between which were these volumes: "Care and Treatment of the Diseases of Animals," "The World Almanac," "Papers of Thomas Jefferson," "Speeches of Bourke Cochran," and New York legislative proceedings for several years. On the walls were two American flags, pictures of Smith in a fireman's uniform, pictures of Smith with his baby grandson, pictures of Smith with Boy Scouts, framed cartoons and autographed photographs of the great.

Governor Smith talked—loudly, volubly and breezily. He laughed and joked in a big, booming voice and some of his smiles fairly smoked. If he wanted to use a cuss word occasionally he did it. Despite the care with which he guards his public speeches, Governor Smith's grammar lapses in ordinary conversation.

He used the word "ain't" at least a dozen times, and he frequently referred to "them fellows." But Al Smith at ease and Al Smith officially are two different persons. An amateur actor in his youth, he is a good imitator and a close student. In all his public appearances he has never breached the dignity of the position he holds as governor. In that he has been very careful.

During his first term as governor he used to toss his prepared speeches to the newspaper reporters and say: "There, take the fish market language out of this stuff for me, will you?" The reporter got together and made rhetorical and grammatical improvements thereon.

By experience, contact and close observation the former East Sider has acquired polish. Today, he can use almost perfect English in his speeches—only when at ease does his conversation lapse.

Between Governor Smith and the old Dutch families that comprise the aristocracy of Albany there has been a social feud for many years. No truce in this feud ever will be reached, although more than one wealthy hostess today would relish the opportunity to entertain the governor.

When Al Smith came to the assembly from New York's East Side years ago the dowagers let it be known that neither the young assemblyman nor his wife would be welcome in their social circle. "If Assemblyman Al Smith wasn't welcome in their homes at that time, then Governor Al Smith is not going into their homes now," he once told a friend.

With the younger generation it is different. Mrs. Emily Smith Warner, the governor's daughter, is prominent in the Junior League and the children often entertain at the Executive Mansion. But the parents keep their distance.

Governor Smith has many wealthy friends. Some of them even send their private cars to Albany for him when he wants to come to New York. But these friends were once poor like himself. One of them was the late Alfred H. Smith, who rose from a track laborer to the presidency of the New York Central.

Another is William Todd, New York shipbuilder, who—as a shipyard laborer years ago—put some of the rivets in the "Saemo," the magnificent private yacht that he now owns. Another is William Kennedy, former brick mason and now one of New York's biggest contractors, having erected many of the Edison power plants.

TOMORROW: The city street.

MISS ELSIE LEWIS NEW EPWORTH LEAGUE HEAD

Miss Elsie Lewis of Highland Park was elected president of the Epworth League at the annual meeting of that organization last night. The election and business meeting were followed by a social which was attended by the new pastor, Rev. Robert A. Colpitts, who met the league informally for the first time. Robert Wilson, retiring president of the league, declined re-election because of the pressure of business. Mr. Wilson is connected with a bank club in Hartford as president and is also treasurer of St. Mary's Young Men's club of this town. The other officers elected last night are the following: First vice president, Miss Marion Brookings; second vice president, Thomas Corder; third vice president, Miss Marjorie Crockett; fourth vice president, Francis Burr; secretary, Miss Margaret E. House; treasurer, David Hutchinson; pianist, Miss Miriam Hitchcox.

TALCOTTVILLE

The Eastern Arts Association Exhibition will be held at the State armory, Hartford, Conn., opening at 7 p. m., April 18th and open Thursday and Friday 9 a. m. to 10 p. m. and Saturday 9 a. m. till noon. The exhibition of the Hartford Schools is in charge of Miss Frances H. Bacheier, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. T. Bacheier of this school. This exhibition consists of selected work from twenty-three graded schools (registration 26128) from three High Schools (registration 4544) and from the Hartford Art School, the Oxford School and the Hartford Evening High School. Hartford Ceramic Club, Hartford Arts and Crafts Club, Professional Exhibits and Paintings and craft work by members of the Association will also be shown.

Work selected from all over the U. S. to be sent to the International Convention at Prague will be on exhibition in the Court of Honor.

About three thousand are expected to attend this exhibition and the meetings held in connection with it, at which speakers of National reputation will be heard, among them Mayor Norman C. Stevens, Commissioner A. B. Meredith, Dr. Bruno Bossell of Vassar College, Raymond P. Ensign, Art Extension Society of New York City; Emil Fuchs, sculptor, etcher and painter; Rollo C. Reynolds, Professor of Education, Columbia University; Alon Bement, Director of Art School; Gerritt A. Benneker, artist and lecturer and Solon P. Davis, first president of the Association in 1900.

Admission will be free to the public. It has been largely through the efforts of Miss Bacheier, a former President of the Association that the exhibition was brought to Hartford this year. Adena Trautman is suffering from an attack of the measles. David Stiles and William C. Monaghan attended a business meeting and election of officers of the Connecticut Pipers and Drummers Association at Stamford on April 14th. Mr. Monaghan was again elected to serve as a member of the Executive committee of the organization.

It has been largely through the efforts of Miss Bacheier, a former President of the Association that the exhibition was brought to Hartford this year. Adena Trautman is suffering from an attack of the measles. David Stiles and William C. Monaghan attended a business meeting and election of officers of the Connecticut Pipers and Drummers Association at Stamford on April 14th. Mr. Monaghan was again elected to serve as a member of the Executive committee of the organization.

EXPERIENCED ORCHARDISTS ALWAYS GIVE OUR STOCK PREFERENCE

Why is it Orchard Planters within a radius of fifty miles of our nursery visit us before placing their orders?

The name "WILSON" means something more to most planters than the name of an ordinary nursery.

It means that for every DOLLAR you invest in "WILSON" Trees you receive ONE DOLLAR in value.

Follow the lead of those who know good stock at right prices when they see it.

Orders for single trees filled as cheerfully as those calling for several thousand.

As yet our assortment is quite complete, but you are taking a chance by waiting.

SHALL WE MAIL OUR BEAUTIFUL CATALOG—JUST OUT?

C. E. Wilson and Company, Inc.
MANCHESTER
Offices and Packing Cellars ALLEN PLACE Phone 1100
Nurseries 302 WOODBRIDGE ST.

'PATENT LEATHER KID' ENDS RUN HERE TODAY

Barthelme's Feature Shows Last Time Tonight at State; Kiwanis Minstrel Tomorrow.

Tonight will see the final showing of "The Patent Leather Kid," starring Dick Barthelme at the State theater. This is the last opportunity to see Barthelme in the greatest picture in which he has ever appeared, a picture that overshadows all his other efforts as night over shadows day. Barthelme in this film is called the Patent Leather Kid because of the way he combs his hair. He is the yellowest man on the East Side but the fastest and shiftest fighter. The war breaks out and he is drafted to go to France and to become scared and to show the craven heart that is in him.

Awakening comes after his pal is killed and he goes after a machine gun nest high up in the tower of a ruined church. He is severely wounded and given up for dead but the girl who has stood by him pulls him through and brings him back from the Valley of the Shadow.

Tomorrow brings to the State the second annual edition of the famous Kiwanis Minstrel Show, given for the benefit of the Kiwanis Kiddies Kamp in Hebron. The club has assembled a big cast of local favorites and rehearsals under the direction of Manager Sanson have been very successful.

The program at the theater for Thursday and Friday has two big features: "Dressed to Kill" with Edmund Lowe and Mary Astor, and "Bringing Up Father," J. Farrell McDonald as Jiggs, Polly Moran as Maggie and Marie Dressler as Annie Moore, Dinty's wife. "Dressed to Kill" is the story of the modern gunman who goes around in evening clothes and carries a neat little gun that can be worn in the vest pocket. It tells of the underworld and the things that go on there after night. It is thrilling and true to life.

"Bringing Up Father" is pictured from George McManus' famous cartoon which has been running in the newspapers for many years. It is full of whimsical situations, intensified by the three stars who are featured.

CLAIM DISMISSED
New Haven, Conn., April 17.—Judge Edwin S. Thomas, of the United States District Court, today signed a decree dismissing the claim of Colonel Robert O. Eaton, collector of internal revenue, against the Salts Textile Company of Bridgeport, for income and profits taxes for the year of 1919 in the sum of $318,281 plus taxes of $10,022. The judge also decreed that the tax claim should be adjudicated in the sum of $86,572.

FOR SALE
Vermont, New York, Maine
Certified Seed Potatoes

Six of the nine men who had yields of 400 bushels or more in the Hartford County Farm Bureau 300 bushel club used seed selected by me, first and second place going to two of these six with yields of 525 bushels and 498 bushels respectively. It pays to buy the best seed potatoes.

LOUIS L. GRANT
BUCKLAND, CONN.
Phone, Manchester 1549.

TEST ANSWERS

Here is one solution to the LETTER GOLF puzzle on the comic page.

M U S E
M U S T
M O S T
P O S T
P O E T

The oldest botanical garden in Europe are in Padua, Italy.

LANDLADY'S HAZARD
Chicago.—There's a distinct hazard in being a landlady, especially when your tenant has a police dog. Take the case of Mrs. Ota Kovich who had Ignacy Mitowski and his dog locked up because Ignacy set the dog upon her when she came to collect the rent.

Phone Barstow 1968
216 Middle Turnpike East
For Radio Service
Easy Terms on Crosley
Fada, Grebe, Bosch,
FREE installation, no interest

40 Fathom FISH
Fresh and Smoked FILETS
When in Hartford dine at the oldest and best sea food restaurant. Sea food right from the ocean. Retail department connected.
HONISS'S
22 State St. Under Grant's Hartford

Layer Cake
Loaf Cake, Cup Cakes
They all will look appetizing, taste good and have real food value too when made with Rumford. You can always depend on Rumford for perfect leavening and uniform results. Be sure you get.
RUMFORD
The Wholesome
BAKING POWDER

Spring Is Here
Why Not Treat Your Car to a Grease Job?
We have two of the most up-to-date Grease Pits in Manchester, the one big feature is that there is plenty of room for our service men to work. They stand upright in the pit and are able to see every joint to be greased. Let us call for your car tomorrow. All work guaranteed satisfactory. Try Marland 100% Paraffine.
Phone 1551
FREE TIRES AND TUBES
Four Tires and Tubes—Get a Free Chance
Flat Tire Out of Gas Battery Trouble
Campbell's Filling Station
Corner Main St. and Middle Turnpike.

Spring Prices
Now in effect on best grades of Lehigh and Wilkesbarre COAL
Stove Coal $15.00 Ton
Chestnut Coal $14.75 Ton
Egg Coal $14.75 Ton
Pea Coal $11.25 Ton
Buckwheat $9.50 Ton
Where it is necessary to carry in coal the usual extra charge of 50 cents a ton is made.
Smith Bros. Grain Co.
256 Center Street. Phone 130-2

STATION
M L C BROADCASTING
Announcing the Continuance Of Its Popular Coal Club
Weekly deposits of 50c per ton for as many ton as desired and the COAL will be yours when you need it.
We Solicit and Appreciate Your Valued Patronage
MANCHESTER LUMBER CO. Inc.
Tel. 201

RELIGIOUS VIEWS OF KU KLUX KLAN

Stephenson Continues His Story of Inside Workings Of the Order.

Editor's Note: This is the ninth of a series on the deposition of D. C. Stephenson, former Indiana Klan leader, exposing the designed operations of the Ku Klux Klan.

Chicago, April 17.—David C. Stephenson, former Grand Dragon of the Ku Klux Klan in Indiana, in his installment of his deposition today, tells of the original purposes of the Klan, its feeling as to religion and political activity.

Q. State whether or not it is the policy of the Klan to denounce as traitors all men who opposed its policies.

A. Yes, that is true. Often some of the finest men who have been members of the Klan and who thought wiser of their associations, have had their characters involved in some hideous charge. Reports were then circulated that they were traitors to the Klan.

Specifically they branded as Atheists all those who did not accept the narrow views of the Klan. In fact they have repeatedly referred to me as an Atheist.

Views on Religion Q. What are your views on religion if they may be in variance to the Klan?

A. I believe in an eternal God. I believe in the God of Moses, Isaiah, Matthew, Mark, Luke and Paul and the God of plain John Smith and Peter Brown. I believe in the same God who reigns over the disciples of Catholic, Jew, Gentile, Mohammedan and the followers of Confucius.

Q. What is the fact as to whether or not the Klan is a Democratic organization, that is to say, Democratic in policy?

A. You ask me a complicated question. Perhaps I had better refer to the official record of the Klan itself. Prior to the time that Captain Coburn was murdered, the Klan was a political party, and it was serving a term in the Georgia state prison for murdering Captain Coburn. If x x x had what was coming to him he would be free and another would be serving time for the Coburn murder or probably would have been burned in the electric chair, because he is the real murderer of Coburn.

Stephenson then continued without apparent connection:

"I will quote from Page 14, Article 9, Section 1 of the constitution and laws of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. 'The Imperial Wizard is the supreme chief executive of the order. He shall be elected by the Grand Dragons while they are in session. They are prohibited from having any communication with anyone outside of their meetings from the time they are called to order to the time that the business shall be consummated. They shall not receive until he shall be tried before the Imperial Klondium which means the national order of the Klan.'

"I have referred to this to indicate to you that the members of the Klan had little to do with its operations or selection of officers. Neither did the membership of the Klan have any activity on the advancement of its ideals."

BOLTON

Miss Helen Bentley of Winsted spent the week-end at the home of her brother Thomas Bentley.

Judge J. W. Sumner and Mrs. Elsie Jones were appointed as delegates to attend the Democratic Convention held in Hartford, May 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Griswold of Hartford spent Saturday and Sunday at their cottage.

Fred Berry and daughter Helen of Hartford spent Sunday at their bungalow.

Miss Doris Lipovetzky spent the week-end at her home in New Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. McGurk and family spent Sunday at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Alvord of Hartford have moved to Alvord Acres.

Miss Ruth Jones has returned to New Britain Normal after spending her Easter vacation with her sister Mrs. Elsie Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Tuttle had a daughter born recently. Mrs. Tuttle before her marriage was Miss Eleanor Hutchinson.

Northern Loomis of Manchester spent the week-end at his home.

Bolton Grange has been invited to Bloomfield this evening to furnish two numbers. They will present the play "The Fatal Necklace".

Bolton Grange met Friday evening. Twenty-three were present. All officers were present. Notice was read of Pomona in Wapping April 18. The meeting starts at 4 o'clock and the fifth degree is to be conferred in the evening. The program was as follows, several selections were rendered by the "Jolly six" orchestra. Also a play entitled "The Fatal Necklace". Refreshments were served.

Miss Doris Pinney of So. Manchester spent the week-end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pinney.

NAB CO-ED PEEPER Chicago.—With the arrest of Davis Shanks, negro, Evanston police believe they have stopped at least one peeper from peeping into the co-ed's dormitory at Northwestern University. There was a near riot in the building when officers fired two shots before Shanks surrendered.

WAPPING

The Wapping Y. M. C. A. seniors are sponsoring a unique entertainment of unusual merit for next Friday evening, April 20. Dave Reed, well known New Haven hypnotist, will mystify, amuse, educate and delight his audience. Reed was for seven years on the staff of a large hospital where he hypnotized patients who were too weak to take ether. Other features will be the Pleasant Valley male quartet, a soprano soloist and a toe-dancer. The program will begin at 8 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Reichenbach of Denning street were given a genuine surprise party at their home last Saturday evening the occasion being the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage, when about thirty of their relatives and friends came in upon them. The evening was passing off very pleasantly. The guests brought with them a beautiful one hundred piece dinner set which they presented to Mr. and Mrs. Reichenbach as a token of their esteem for them. The Federated Workers will meet at the home of Mrs. Anton Simler, Jr., next Friday afternoon, from two to five o'clock. Mrs. C. Vinton Benjamin will assist Mrs. Simler as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Dewey motored to Florence, Mass., last Saturday and spent the day with their son and family, Charles W. Dewey.

Maurice D. Sullivan celebrated his eightieth birthday last Sunday, April 15. He received a shower of post cards. He was pleased and wishes to thank his many friends.

The Pleasant Valley club held its public whist at the school house last Friday evening. There were ten tables and the ladies' first prize was captured by Mrs. Lillian Skinner, and the gent's first was taken by Joseph Elmore. The ladies' consolation went to Miss Agnes Miller and the gent's to Howard Bamford.

The cedar chest which the Pleasant Valley club sold tickets on went to Mrs. Herbert Johnson, of Burnside.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barnes of Colrain, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Henry have been spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Asher A. Collins.

The first meeting of the Young Women's Council was held in Hartford at the Y. M. C. A. on last Thursday evening. The council is made up of two representatives from each of eight or nine Y. W. C. A. clubs in Hartford county and several members at large. The girls had supper together, after which Miss Beatrice Ulbert told them of the National Business and Professional Women's Department and its relation to us and Miss Adeline Abbott told of the National Industrial Department and its relation to us. The girls exchanged program ideas for each of their clubs and a few plans were made for a big Y. W. C. A. birthday party to be held at Camp Aya Po in Somers, on June 2. Miss Lucchini also told about the Y. W. C. A. Camp Maquis in Poland Springs, Maine. The result of the election of officers was as follows: President, Mrs. Mae Woodward; vice-president, Miss Dorothy Hodge of Glastonbury, and secretary, Miss Doris Fuller of Simsbury.

Hicks Memorial: Miss Olson, teacher; Jennie Kovalevich, Roman Kozley, White School; Miss Folan, teacher; Mary Kyrbul.

The following pupils of the school of Tolland had received bank books since the last printed list:

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book. Miss Hazel Jones of Tolland had received the book.

FLOOD CONTROL BILL DISRUPTS THE HOUSE

All Party Lines Smashed; May Not Be Passed This Session.

Washington, April 17.—With party lines smashed, charges of another "Teapot Dome" being bandied about, personal bitterness engendered and a presidential veto threatened, the House today took up the $225,000,000 Jones-Reid flood control bill with prospects of a final vote being reached on Saturday.

Meanwhile Republican leaders were still conducting negotiations outside the floor in an effort to secure amendments which would avert the threatened veto and the possible adjournment of Congress without enacting flood relief legislation.

Although the Senate passed the bill, 69 to 0, in less than two hours a bitter struggle was faced by those in charge of the bill in the House.

No measure which has come before Congress this session has aroused so many personal antagonisms as the flood bill, in the opinion of congressional observers.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

GILEAD

The three-act comedy "Two Days to Marry" under the direction of Mrs. J. L. Deeter, was presented at the hall Friday evening. The characters were: Dare, a millionaire's heir, Homer Hills.

Miss Imogene McClean, a sweet young thing, Miss Ruth Ellis. Simon P. Chase, as black as his race, Glover Rockwell.

Miss Pink, as black as ink, Mrs. Glover Rockwell. Mrs. Boise, a widow by choice, Mrs. Arnold C. Rote.

Mr. Blair, a millionaire, Jesse Hills. Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter.

The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

Mr. Sawyer, the lawyer, J. L. Deeter. The play was put on before a large audience, for a place of this size, and fifty dollars was received to be added to funds for the purchase of a lantern for showing photographic slides. The performance will be repeated in Mansfield Friday evening and at later dates in the community of Hollywood.

FOREIGN STARS

BACK TO EUROPE TO MAKE FILMS

London.—The belief that many of the men and women from Europe who have made fame and fortune in Hollywood are not anxious to quit America and try their luck in the revived motion picture studios of Europe, was expressed by Iris Barry, film critic of the London "Daily Mail," in a recent article.

Miss Barry recently returned from America where she made an extensive study of motion picture conditions.

"Two things have alarmed the film community of Hollywood," Miss Barry declares, "and not without reason."

"One is the growing reaction against the domination of the screens of the world by the Hollywood product. Another is the decision of Wall Street that the business of making pictures is being conducted in a lunatic manner, and a warning has been issued, a peremptory command for reform."

Back to Europe. "In response to the European distaste for an exclusive diet of Hollywood-made films, they threaten Hollywood might retaliate by sending back to Europe all the famous actors and directors now working in the studios but who originally came from this side of the ocean."

"Such a childish point of view would be merely funny were it not indicative of the narrow-mindedness of a part of the film community. Hollywood obviously feels in need of Europeans like Ernest

DAILY RADIO PROGRAM

Tuesday, April 17.

"American Composers and Conductors' Night" is the name of the Evening Hour which will be broadcast through WEAJ and the Red network at 9 o'clock Tuesday night.

10:00—Evelyn Nichols' studio program. 11:00—Cato's vaudeville. 11:00—WTAJ, NEW ENGLAND—760.

Leading DX Stations 475.9—WBB, ATLANTA—630. 8:30—WEAF Selterling singers.

5 BIG LONDON HOSPITALS BAN WOMEN DOCTORS

London.—Five of London's great teaching hospitals have just banned the entry of women medical students.

Little difficulty in having work to do. "The emoluments which may be confidently anticipated by the women in medicine compare most favorably with the rewards they may look for in any other walk of life."

This date in AMERICAN HISTORY

April 17 1790—Benjamin Franklin died. 1837—J. Pierpont Morgan born.

SHOT IN EYE

New Canaan, Conn., April 17.—A .22 calibre steel shot, rebounding from a steel target for a distance of thirty feet, struck Martin Apy, aged ten, in the left eye, and destroyed the eye.

A THOUGHT

Remember therefore to all their dues.—Romans 13:7. Most men remember obligations, but not often to be grateful for them.—W. G. Simms.

Sour Stomach

More horsepower per pound than any other car in its class, gives the Victory an advantage which its rivals simply cannot hope to compete with.

Advertisement for Dodge Brothers' Victory Six car, featuring a large illustration of the car and text describing its features and performance.

Black face type indicates best features. All programs Eastern Standard Time.

Leading East Stations.

272.5—WPG, ATLANTIC CITY—1100. 7:00—Dinner music; feature. 8:00—Ship's Deck, musical maids.

Secondary Eastern Stations.

268—WKRC, CINCINNATI—1220. 10:00—Movies; children's program. 11:00—Dance program.

Secondary DX Stations.

370.2—WLWL, NEW YORK—810. 7:05—Bass-baritone; organist. 7:30—Timely talks, opera, etc.

Make Best Wives.

They make the best wives," he says. "Their medical education," he explains, "makes them ideal companions for the intellectual man."

RIGHTO

"What could be more sad," said the schoolmistress, "than a man without a country?"

Become Successful.

"When medical women elect to remain unmarried, and it is for the most part an election, they have

INGROWN NAIL Turns Right Out Itself

Advertisement for Outgro nail treatment, featuring an illustration of a foot and text describing the product's benefits.

WTIC

Travelers Insurance Co. Hartford 535.4 m. 560 k. c. Program for Tuesday P. M.

AND LITTLE ELSE

ARCHIBALD: I live in the country now. It's terribly dull there. FLORENCE: It must be. What do you miss most?

TOWN ADVERTISEMENT

NOTICE OF THE TAX COLLECTOR All persons liable by law to pay Town or Personal Taxes, in the Town of Manchester, are hereby notified that I will have a rate bill for the List of 1927, of 12 1/2 mills on the dollar due and collectible on April 1, 1928.

THERE IS A DIFFERENCE

Advertisement for Three Rings Malt Syrup, featuring an illustration of the product can and text describing its quality.

P. BALLANTINE'S & SONS THREE RINGS MALT SYRUP

Famous for Its Rare Quality and Extra Fine Flavor FLAVORS Light Dark Hop Flavored Special Dark Why Not Have the Best On Sale Everywhere Sole Distributors Standard Paper Co. Hartford, Conn.

WTIC Travelers Insurance Co. Hartford 535.4 m. 560 k. c.

Program for Tuesday P. M. 6:25—Correct time, summary of program and news bulletins. 6:30—Waldorf-Astoria Dinner Music. 6:55—Baseball Scores. 7:00—Voters' Service, "What Congress is Doing," Charles C. Ross.

DAVID CHAMBERS CONTRACTOR and BUILDER

First and Second Mortgages arranged on all new work. 68 Hollister Street, Manchester, Conn.

NOTICE OF THE TAX COLLECTOR

All persons liable by law to pay Town or Personal Taxes, in the Town of Manchester, are hereby notified that I will have a rate bill for the List of 1927, of 12 1/2 mills on the dollar due and collectible on April 1, 1928.

GEORGE H. HOWE, Collector.

Large advertisement for Wise, Smith & Co. Inc. featuring a variety of women's frocks and a large price tag of $1.00. The ad includes the company name, address, and contact information.

THE HERALD'S HOME PAGE

FEATURE ARTICLES ABOUT INTERESTING WOMEN

LATEST FASHION HINTS BY FOREMOST AUTHORITIES

CHARLOTTA

COPYRIGHT 1928 BY NEA SERVICE

By ANNE AUSTIN AUTHOR OF "SAINT AND SINNER"

THIS HAS HAPPENED

The summer she is 16, SALLY FORD, ward of the state orphanage from the time she is four, is "harmless" until she meets CLAREN CARSON, she meets DAVID NASH, athlete and student who is working on the farm for the summer. Her innocent friendship with Sally and the student attracts him, crushing blow.

Sally and David see and join carnival, David as cook's helper and Sally in a sideshow disguised as "Princess Lalia," in crystal gazer.

NITA, Hula dancer, who knows the police are after David and Sally and who is infatuated with David, threatens to expose Sally if she doesn't keep "hands off" the young man.

In Capital City, Sally successfully escapes detection of CLAREN CARSON, who is playing "Lady Bonafide" to them. One little girl recognizes Sally and shouts her name. GUS, the harker, comes to Sally's rescue and diverts the children out of the tent. Sally is surprised to see the beautiful "Princess Lalia" stop and talk with a dark-eyed, well-dressed Easterner, earlier in the carnival has tearfully read Sally's fortune in the crystal and said she was the supper with him. Sally dislikes him and refuses. She hears these two speak of New York and a terrible storm comes up, and then blows down. Sally finds herself in the strong arms of the Easterner, who tells her he knows her. Sally looks about and finds David and Nita. Nita says that NITBYBEE's safe is robbed.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXIX

"EVERYBODY tumble out! Pop Bybee wants us all in the 'privilege car,' a carnival employe shouted, running down the sleeping car and pausing only to thrust a hand into each berth, like a Pullman porter awakening his passengers.

But Sally was already dressing, getting her dress on backward and sobbing with futile rage at the time lost in reversing it. When she was scrambling out of her upper berth, a tiny hand reached out of the lower and tugged at her foot.

"Don't forget me, Sally," the midge commanded sharply. "And for heaven's sake, don't take on so! You'll make yourself sick, crying like that. Of course your David didn't rob the safe. I'm all dressed."

Sally parted the green curtains and stretched out her arms for the midge, who was so short that she could stand upright upon her bed without her head touching the rounded support of the upper berth. Little Miss Tanner ran to Sally and clambered to her shoulder.

"It's that Nita," she nodded her miniature head emphatically. "I always did have my suspicions about her. Always turning white as a sheet when a policeman went into sight."

"Hurry up, everybody! Don't take time to pry girls!" a man bawled them from the door.

They found most of the men employes and performers of the carnival already assembled with the Bybees in the privilege car. Pop Bybee's usually lobster-colored face was as white as paper, but his arm was gallantly about his wife's shoulder. Mrs. Bybee still wore the black sateen petticoat and red sweater in which she had hurried from the show train to the carnival immediately after the storm.

"Come here to me, Sally Ford!" she shrieked, when Sally entered the car with "Pitty Sing" riding on her shoulder.

"Now, honey, go easy!" Pop Bybee cautioned her futilely. "Better let me do the talking."

"You shut up!" his wife commanded angrily. "Sally, you know where I kept the money! You saw the safe! Oh, I wanted to show that I trusted you! Huh! Thought I'd wronged you by accusing you of taking presents from my husband! Tell him you saw the safe! Tell him!" And she seized Sally by the wrist and shook her so that the midge's neck to keep from being catapulted to the floor.

"Yes, Mrs. Bybee," Sally answered, her voice almost dying in her throat with fright. "I saw the safe. But I didn't tell anybody—"

"Safe. But I didn't tell anybody—"

"Sally, you told that David boy that very night! Sneaked out and went walking with him and cooked up this robbery so you two could make your getaway. Thought it was a great idea to get out of the state so the cops couldn't pinch you, didn't you? Didn't you?" she repeated, beside herself with anger, her fingers clamped like a vise on Sally's wrist.

"Oh, please!" Sally moaned, writhing with a pain of which she was scarcely conscious, so great was her fear and bewilderment at this unexpected charge.

"Sally certainly didn't go with him," Pop Bybee interposed reasonably.

"Where she didn't!" his wife shrieked with angry triumph. "She couldn't! She was buried under the tent! If it hadn't been for the storm she wouldn't be here now, working on your sympathies with them dinky-eyes of hers—"

"Better let me handle this, honey," Pop Bybee interrupted again, this time more firmly. "Turn the child loose. Ain't a bit of use breaking her arm. Now, folks, I might as well tell you all just what happened, and then try to get to the bottom of this matter. The worst of the storm was over Mrs. Bybee left the show train to look for me, to see if I was hurt or if she could do anything for anyone who was. She hadn't been out of the room since she'd put some money into the safe right after supper. She found the boy Dave starting out to look for Sally, and she ordered him to stay on the train to keep an eye on it, in case tramps or crooks tried to board it. There wasn't anybody else on the train."

"That's right, Mother?"

"He turned to Mrs. Bybee, who nodded angrily.

"She told him she'd look after Sally, but he'd have to stand guard on the train. She didn't say anything to him about the safe—just that she was going. The safe is under a seat in our stateroom, and far as we knew, nobody knew where it was, except Sally here, who happened to come into the stateroom when my wife was counting a day's receipts."

"Please, Mr. Bybee," Sally interrupted, memory struggling with the panic in her brain. "Someone else did know! Nita knew! When I left the stateroom that last day in Stanton I saw Nita disappearing into the women's dressing room, and I thought she'd been listening."

"Hold on a minute!" Bybee cut in sternly. "How do you know she'd been listening? Any proof?"

"Yes, sir!" Sally cried eagerly. "Mrs. Bybee had been telling me that she'd found out that Ford isn't my real name, that the woman I always thought was my mother wasn't really my mother at all. She said she guessed I—that my mother was ashamed I'd ever been born. And that same day Nita called me a—a—bad name that means—"

She could not go on. She began to shake her small body again and her face was scarlet with shame.

"That's right!" Gus, the barker, edged toward Bybee through the crowd. "I found Sally lighting in to Nita for calling her that name. And Nita didn't deny she'd done it. Reckon that proves she was eavesdropping, all right. And if she was listening in, too, or heard Mrs. Bybee talking about the safe. Was the door open, ma'am?" Mrs. Bybee snapped. "Yes, it may have been. It was awful hot. And I didn't know anybody was on the train."

"It was open a little way," Sally cried. "I remember distinctly. Because I worried about whether Nita had overheard what Mrs. Bybee had been telling me. And there's something else—something that happened that night, when David and I were walking. Memory of that blessed hour in the moonlight brought tears to her eyes, but she dashed them away with the wrist which bore the marks of Mrs. Bybee's rage.

"What was it, Sally?" Pop Bybee asked gently. "All we want is to get at the truth of this thing. Don't be afraid to speak up. He's the best man in the world!" He's the best man in the world!"

"Then where is he?" Mrs. Bybee screamed. "Why did he blow? I left him to guard the train, didn't I? And he ain't here, is he? He wasn't! I didn't! David didn't do it! He couldn't! David's good! He's the best man in the world!"

"Then where is he?" Mrs. Bybee screamed. "Why did he blow? I left him to guard the train, didn't I? And he ain't here, is he? He wasn't! I didn't! David didn't do it! He couldn't! David's good! He's the best man in the world!"

"Now, now, Mother," Pop Bybee soothed her, but his eyes were troubled and suspicious. "Reckon we'd better notify the police, folks. I hate to call in the law. I've always said I was the law of this outfit, but I suppose if I've been harboring thieves I'll have to get the help of the law to track 'em down. Ben, you and Chuck beat it down the tracks to the police station and give 'em a description of Nita and Dave and this Steve person, as much as Sally's been able to tell us anyway."

"Please, Mr. Bybee," Sally ran to the showman and seized both his hands in hers. "Please don't see the police on David! I know he's innocent! There's some reason why he isn't here—a good reason! But he didn't have anything to do with the law or the train. He's been with the carnival they'll find him somehow and put him in jail on those other charges—and me, too! It doesn't matter about me, but I couldn't live if David was put in jail on my account! Oh, please!"

"You've been so good to her knees to him, her face upraised in an agony of appeal.

(To Be Continued)

at the last show and I thought Nita might really be all in, so I told her she could out the last performance and go to the dress tent. I never seen hair nor side of her again, and—" he paused significantly. "I don't reckon I ever will."

"No, I reckon you won't, unless the cops nab her," Mrs. Bybee cut in bitterly. "I always said she was a snake in the grass! And that David, too! Them good-bodies ain't no good worth the powder and lead I'd take to blow out their brains! I told you, Winfield Bybee, that there was something phony about that hussy and Dave! Taint like a star performer like Nita thought she was to trail around after a cook's helper, like she done with Dave. They didn't pull the wool over my eyes, even if they did double-cross the kid here—if they did double-cross her! Mind you, Bybee, I ain't saying I believe a word she's been saying! She knew where the safe was, and she tipped off the boy."

"I ain't forgot they were both wanted by the police when they joined up with us! As I said before, if it hadn't been that she was buried under the freak tent, she'd have skipped with Nita and Dave. You roped Nita in on your little scheme, didn't you, because she'd had more experience cracking safes than you or the boy? That's right, ain't it?" the old lady demanded fiercely of Sally.

Sally shrank from her in horror, but the midge, still perched on her shoulder, patted her cheeks reassuringly. "No, no! I didn't even tell David where the safe was! I didn't! David didn't do it! He's the best man in the world!"

"Then where is he?" Mrs. Bybee screamed. "Why did he blow? I left him to guard the train, didn't I? And he ain't here, is he? He wasn't! I didn't! David didn't do it! He couldn't! David's good! He's the best man in the world!"

"Now, now, Mother," Pop Bybee soothed her, but his eyes were troubled and suspicious. "Reckon we'd better notify the police, folks. I hate to call in the law. I've always said I was the law of this outfit, but I suppose if I've been harboring thieves I'll have to get the help of the law to track 'em down. Ben, you and Chuck beat it down the tracks to the police station and give 'em a description of Nita and Dave and this Steve person, as much as Sally's been able to tell us anyway."

"Please, Mr. Bybee," Sally ran to the showman and seized both his hands in hers. "Please don't see the police on David! I know he's innocent! There's some reason why he isn't here—a good reason! But he didn't have anything to do with the law or the train. He's been with the carnival they'll find him somehow and put him in jail on those other charges—and me, too! It doesn't matter about me, but I couldn't live if David was put in jail on my account! Oh, please!"

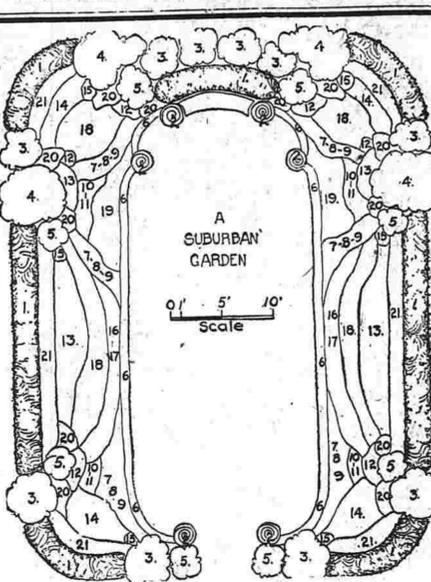

"You've been so good to her knees to him, her face upraised in an agony of appeal.

(To Be Continued)

Where is David? In the next chapter Sally finds him.

How Does Your Garden Grow?

THIS ONE TOOK PRIZE IN NEW YORK SHOW

The flower garden plan shown above, submitted by Miss Margaret P. Shaw, Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, New York, won first prize in the New York small garden competition recently. Here is its plan:

Key No.	Name	No. of plants
1	Ligustrum vulgare—privet	108
2	Juniperus chinensis and columnaris	10
3	Syringa vulgaris—purple lilac	10
4	Philadelphus coronarius—mock orange	4
5	Wigelia florida	160
6	Viola cornuta	200
7	Tulip—golden queen bouton d'or	300
8	Myosotis sylvestris—forget-me-not	100
9	Lupinus polyphylus—blue lupine	80
10	Narcissus poeticus	100
11	Dryopteris spinulosa—spleen wood fern	50
12	Irish geranium—Lohengrin Rembrandt	13
13	Delphinium hybridum—larkspur	48
14	Digitalis purpurea—foxglove	24
15	Lilium candidum—Madonna lily	40
16	Chrysanthemum maximum—shasta daisy	40
17	Pyrethrum roseum (shaded)	40
18	Phlox paniculata (white to rose)	65
19	Hardy chrysanthemum (white to rose)	60
20	Heuchera sanguinea and alba	72
21	Anemone japonica (pink and white)	60
A	—Bench

MARYE and MOM

Their Letters

Dearest Marye: I'm glad to hear from you about coming to help Betty out. She knew I didn't know what to tell her when she asked me what you said. I didn't like to write you about it again because I don't want to urge you to do things. It won't be any satisfaction to you to do a good deed at another's prompting. It never is to anyone. I'm sure that having decided by yourself to come you will be glad of it even if it does interfere with your plans because you can't possibly have any plans that are more important than doing a kindness to one who is in need of it.

Besides, I think it will be good for you to get back to a simple life for a change. Somehow I don't like you going to a studio party without Alan and doing an outlandish dance among a lot of strangers.

Frank had a few of his friends in the other evening and one of the girls was twisting and shaking herself in an awful fashion. I thought she had stomach trouble. Frank told me it was that dance you said you did—the Black Bottom. Such a name. If you contorted yourself like this girl did I wouldn't be surprised if you'll be complaining of a fractured spine shortly.

I can believe you attracted attention all right. But why you should desire attention that way get in that manner is a puzzle to me. I noticed that the boys were very much interested in this girl's dancing, too.

It does worry me to think of you going back to that studio to pose. Please do be careful how you conduct yourself, Marye. Perhaps if you assume a little dignity you may undergo the impression you must have created in the man's mind about you. It just can't be possible for him not to wonder if you care very much about your husband, going places without him and abandoning yourself to the gestures of a heathenish exhibition.

You know, my dear, that even though times have changed, people still judge each other by behavior. And I'm sure that not everyone in the city is ultra-modern. If you must indulge in a wild time do it among your own friends. People you know. There's less risk of being misjudged.

Fondlest love,
MOM.

The WOMAN'S DAY

By ALLENE SUMNER

Two spinster sisters of St. Louis aged 47 and 49, swallowed poison the other day. They said in a note written just before they chose to die that they were lonely, and that life was impossible without their mother.

Abnormal and morbid as this little true story is, it's only so natural a result from all too frequent unbridled maternal instinct that seeks to devour its children and make them utterly dependent upon the female parent that one really wonders that such a disaster doesn't happen even more frequently than it does.

CLEAN BLANKETS

When washing blankets, shake first, then plunge into warm suds and wash. Hang on line, stretching firmly, and rinse with the garden hose.

NEW DRESSING

Rub a bowl with garlic, put two pimientos through a sieve, add some chopped parsley and mix all with French dressing, and you will have an unexpectedly piquant dressing.

"RABALM HEALED MY VARICOSE VEINS"

Without an operation," says Mr. Harry A. Mayer, 374 Washington Street, Gloucester, Mass. "I suffer from Varicose Veins, painful swelling of legs and feet, start with RABALM tonight. 50c and $1.00 at druggists.

IS IT THE BABY?

Bertha talks about having a baby and the birch scene is rather realistic, but neither her pre nor post maternity philosophizing compares for frankness with most any old book picked up today. There are one or two tempestuous love scenes which might have horrified people of an age who never kissed in public, and perhaps Bertha's eventual hatred for her husband shocked an age which took the promise "till death do us part" very seriously, no matter what hell resulted for self and family.

One's objections to the book is a poem of thanksgiving that one lives in this frank, sane-minded day instead of when one refused to look at facts without swaddling them in either sentimentality or unwholesomeness.

DROWNED IN MILK.

Baby Ellen Laferty, just two months old, drowned the other day when the nipple of her milk bottle became loose and too big a flow of milk gushed down her throat into her lungs, causing strangulation. One can hardly pick up a paper without reading of a baby found smothered, burnt, drowned, or victim of some utterly unexpected tragedy.

Almost invariably, the mother is

Daily Health Service

HINTS ON HOW TO KEEP WELL

by World Famed Authority

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE KILLS ONE IN FIVE DYING IN 1924.

By DR. MORRIS. FISHBEN.

During 1924 one in five of the persons who died in the United States as the result of one of the complications of high blood pressure, either heart failure, brain hemorrhage or uremia.

Of persons dying after 45 years of age, approximately one in three dies of one of the terminal complications of high blood pressure. Methods of recording the blood pressure accurately have been used only during the last twenty-five years. During that time many attempts have been made to determine the cause of high blood pressure, but without success.

Cause or Result?

There has been much discussion as to whether chronic inflammations of the kidneys caused the high blood pressure or resulted from it. Even today there are many adherents on both sides of this question.

However, there is a vast amount of evidence to indicate that high blood pressure is not always associated with chronic inflammations of the kidneys, and the great number of cases in which the blood pressure is high without any apparent inflammation of the kidneys is sufficient to cancel the kidney disease as the universal cause.

It is known that persons who are considerably overweight after middle age also tend to have high blood pressure. At least a reduction of weight in such persons is frequently accompanied by a drop

Home Page Editorial This Modern Age

By Olive Roberts Barton

A woman who lived in a modern press-the-button apartment spent a week-end with some relatives of her husband's at a country place in southern Pennsylvania.

It was interesting to get her reaction to primitive living.

"You'd think you were in a book," she told the bridge club. "The house spreads all over the place—big halls, little halls, nooks and corners and closets everywhere, and fire-places big enough for a barbecue."

"But can you imagine? They haven't an electric wire in the whole house, and not a gas-pipe. Just oil-lamps, everywhere. When the light goes out at night they hand you a candle."

"Some of the wall-paper has been on for thirty-five years; think of it! And the floors are made of boards a foot wide, all rough and uneven. There are no logs in the fire-places, down stairs and coal in the bedrooms."

"It's a perfectly beautiful place, or would be, if the Trustees just had a little money and a little taste to fix it up. I wish I had it. I'd soon make it a real home."

Her husband had come in during the recital and stood in the doorway listening to his loquacious wife.

But at the last words he laughed heartily. "Where did you get the idea that the Trustees were poor, Bee?" he asked. "They could buy and sell us a hundred times. They thought you knew they were rather well heeled with money. They like the house the way it is."

"They prefer the old-fashioned way of living. I happen to know that Aunt Margaret is a connoisseur

Paris Influence Manifested in a Side Treatment

3009—Skirt fulness introduced at one side is a conspicuous style note and an important aid in achieving the soft feminine silhouette prescribed by Paris. The same one-sided treatment is noted in a jacket tacked at the shoulder and cascading over a slender belt which suggests a bloused waistline. The back is plain as are the sleeves. This frock is designed for both ladies and misses in sizes 14 to 18 years, 38 to 42 inches bust. Size 18 requires 3 yards 38-inch material. Price of pattern 15 cents.

1284—A charming printed cotton has been cleverly adapted to this simple pants frock which has a scalloped center-front closing, pocket tabs, collar and cuffs. It is designed for girls 2 to 8 years of age and size 4 requires 2 1/2 yards 38-inch material. Price of pattern 15 cents. Send 10 cents additional for New Spring Fashion Book.

Bridge Me Another

BY W. W. WENTWORTH (Abbreviations: A—ace; K—king; Q—queen; J—jack; 10—any card lower than 10.)

- 1—What is the quick trick value of A K J?
 - 2—What is the quick trick value of A K Q?
 - 3—What is meant by the spade convention?
- The Answers
- 1—Two and one-quarter.
 - 2—Two and one-half.
 - 3—That the informatory doubler, whether of a suit or no-trump bid, must be prepared to accept a spade bid or four cards by partner.

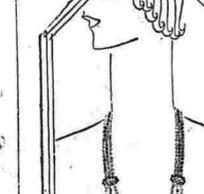

LUGGAGE RACK

Make your guest room a luggage stool by painting a camp stool a gay color and using chains for its legs.

Life's Niceties HINTS ON ETIQUET

1. Is a general announcement of an engagement made at an engagement tea?
 2. When the fiance drops in, who introduces him?
 3. Is such a tea usually more elaborate than most informal teas?
1. No, a few guests just quietly spread the news.
2. His fiancee sees to it that he meets the guests.
3. Not necessarily, though flowers and refreshments may be especially lovely.

Fashion Plaque

COLORED PEARLS lend themselves to chic treatment in this Chanel necklace. The innermost of the three loops is white, the other two of alternate red, green, and white. Red rings hold them in place.

FEEL WONDERFUL! Food that "Stands By" You

QUAKER OATS

Protein, carbohydrates, laxative "bulk" and vitamins, plus toasty, creamy deliciousness.

FEEL WONDERFUL! Food that "Stands By" You

Protein, carbohydrates, laxative "bulk" and vitamins, plus toasty, creamy deliciousness.

in the blood pressure. Many other conditions are likely to be associated with the increased blood pressure. Current views tend to the belief that the exciting cause is some substance circulating in the blood and associated with changes in the tissue structures.

High blood pressure is one of the things which seems to occur in families, the nature of the chemical reaction, or some other hereditary factor may be said to play some part.

The most common method of treating the condition is by diminishing body activities, including exercises and mental activities, and lowering the diet so that less stress will be placed upon the tissues.

High blood pressure is one of the conditions which comes on insidiously, but is found frequently for the first time during the course of a life insurance examination or by a periodic physical examination.

Correcting Defects.

The physician who discovers the presence of an increased blood pressure is likely to make a complete physical examination of the patient to determine any other defect which may exist in the body, and his first step will be to correct such defects.

Attention is paid particularly to infections of the teeth, of the tonsils, and of various organs in the body which may be the source of chronic irritation or for the dissemination of infection to other portions of the body.

Today the aphorism in the treatment of high blood pressure is regular hours of work, regular hours of sleep, and plenty of rest, and a low diet.

decorating and she is known for her remarkable taste. That wallpaper is priceless, almost. Why change it when it isn't even soiled?

"Really!" gasped his wife. "Then why?"

It is not necessary to repeat what he said, but we can guess. All this modernism, although convenient, often is ugly because it is mechanical. For who would live in a house because it hasn't hardwood floors, or steam radiators—well, we wonder what they would have done before either of them were known. Or electric lights or the bath? Was there no such thing as good taste in the old days?

If our great-grandmothers were to come back, we can well imagine them turning up their noses at our new ideas.

Manchester Herald Pattern Service

Pattern No. Price 15 Cents.

Name

Size

Address

Send your order to the "Pattern Dept., Manchester Evening Herald, Manchester, Conn."

Bayer-Tablets Aspirin

MOST people know this absolute antidote for pain, but are you careful to say Bayer when you buy it? And do you always give a glance to see Bayer on the box—and the word genuine printed in red? It isn't the genuine Bayer Aspirin without it! A druggist always has Bayer, with the proven directions tucked in every box!

Basketball Mixup Breaks After Season Has Ended

Heeneey's First Victory Attracts Attention of Wolves of Gotham

Heeneey Refused to Quit Harvey After Anderson Fight Although Advised to Do So.

SPORTS EDITORS: This is the fourth of six articles by Henry L. Farrell, The Herald and NEA Service sports writer, telling the interesting story of Tom Heeneey, who fights Gene Tunney for the heavyweight championship in July, and his manager, Charley Harvey, who finally received a "break."

By HENRY L. FARRELL

Under the tough, crocodile hide of the boxing ring you may have heard it said, there beats a big, soft heart. Like the wolves of the malignant Broadway, with fangs pictured always bared for the kill, the racket is not that way, they say. There are examples where the sporting element of Broadway has extended helping hands to those of its members in need of a lift. Many of them. But there are other stories where the hand was raised to sock or to pull down a man just getting a break. When Charley Harvey set out to get some matches for Tom Heeneey, a big, boyish-like New Zealander, who wanted only money enough to get back home, he had the well wishes of all the mob in the racket. They had been wanting to see Harvey get a break because he needed it. He was a square fellow. They knew that but they criticized him for it. Their logic was that a guy was a sucker to be as much on the level. They sympathized with the misfortune that nearly cost him his life in a Chicago automobile wreck, and accident that made of him a cripple almost almost a paralytic. They were for him as long as he wasn't getting along too well. Harvey too clean. Harvey is one of the finest personalities you would care to meet. A polished little gentleman. A square-jawed, clean-mouthed man whose extremity of profanity is "by jimminy crickets." A man whose word always is a bond and whose morals are those of an evangelist. Almost too good for the racket, as his friends told him. "You're too clean," they told him. But Harvey limped along strengthened by the faith that his break had to come.

The boxing racket is sometimes shown in rosy pictures. Pretty soft for a manager cutting in for his end of the money his man gets for fighting. But no one knows the hardships of the path from promoter to promoter with a fighter who is not established until he has tried it.

Harvey went five rounds, day by day, but no promoter would give his fighter, Heeneey, a tumble. Then Harvey finally got Heeneey a match with Charlie Anderson, a ham colored fighter, and Heeneey stopped him in five rounds. He didn't crash into the first place but he attracted some attention in the racket. He was a "limmie" fighter who wasn't knocked out. He looked like a prospect.

Heeneey had enough to live on for a while after that fight but he tried to get some more matches. Then the kind wolves started after him. "Get away from Harvey," they told him. "He's an old granddaddy. You got to do business to get away from him. Harvey don't stand in with the Garden bunch. Got to give up a piece to get in. Charley can't get around like he used to. Get a hustler like Johnston or Flynn who is in with the mob."

Raps Didn't Work. Heeneey listened to the raps about Jimmy De Forest and cut away from him. Heeneey stuck to Harvey and he's in there now. In

Local Sport Chatter

These are the days when local sport news isn't as easy to rake up as it was a few weeks ago. The period between basketball and baseball most always is that way. However, it won't be long before the boys open their baseball seasons, and then, if anything, we'll have too much work.

Manchester's fall and winter sport season was unusually successful. Starting with a town championship tennis tournament, first annual five mile cross country run and then the historical football clash between the Cubs and the Cloverleaves the program blended into the most successful basketball season the town has ever known. There was a long year. There was a very busy bowling season, not to mention the successful pocketbilliards tournament for the town championship. Nor must we forget the exceptional interest shown in winter sports at Center Springs Pond.

The Rec Five, winners of the town basketball championship, are planning to put an even stronger team on the floor next season. They are dickering for the services of Harry Benson and George Stanivsky. It is understood that Elmo Mantell will not be with the team next season. His present plans call for entrance to Bates College in Maine.

Sometime ago when Bill Brennan and the writer started a five hundred point pool match for the "honor" of being the "worst player in town," Brennan is said to have not been a bit bashful about circulating the news of his 31 walk in the first 200 points which was also published in the Times. Wonder how many Bill has told that at the end of 300 points, he is trailing 300-296?

"Pat" Carlson has made good in his fight for better conditions of the Arnold College nine at New Haven under the coaching of Sammy Massey. Carlson is doing the backstopping. On the recent southern trip, the team broke even in two games with Howard University. Pat got a bingle in each game. He reports that the Arnold infield is a crackerjack one but that the pitching is a trifling weak.

The Aces have a fine chance to make a name for themselves in the baseball world. They are starting up in much the same manner as the old Atlas team did eight or ten years ago. The Aces started at the bottom of the ladder and worked its way to the top. If the Aces keep going in the same direction and same speed as they are traveling now, they may attain a surprising height.

No date has been set for the Frank D'Amico-Jud Gallup pool match. D'Amico now wants enough delay to practice up a bit. Several of Manchester's foremost pool players said last night that Gallup would surely take D'Amico into camp although the score might possibly be close.

LAST NIGHT'S FIGHTS.

At Topeka, Kan.—Jack Johnson, former heavyweight champion of the world, was knocked out by Bearcat Wright, Omaha negro, fifth. At New Haven, Conn.—Bruce Flowers, negro light of New Rochelle, N. Y., won from Nat Kaylor, on technical knockout, 5. At New York—Sergeant Sammy Baker, leading welterweight contender, won decision over Billy Alger, Phoenix, Ariz., 10.

GERMANY IS FAVORITE

Spain, by defeating Chile three to two in their first round match of the Davis Cup eliminations, enters the second round and will play the winner of the Germany-Greece test. Germany is expected to beat both Greece and Spain and meet Chile in the semi-final match of the European zone eliminations.

that big dough where Johnston thought he would be with ten percent of Sharkey, where Flynn would like to be with any fighter and where those who tried to steal Risko from Danny Dunn wanted to be. Old Charley and Old Tom got their break. Prospects got so bad that Heeneey told Harvey to get anybody from Dempsey down and Harvey set out again. He matched him with Paulino. No one else wanted to fight Paulino but Heeneey took the match and that fight was the makings of him.

TOMORROW: Heeneey fights Paulino when no other heavyweight would take on the Big Basque wood chopper.

American League Results

Table with columns: At Boston, YANKS 7, RED SOX 2. Lists player stats for Combs, Koenig, Ruth, Gehrig, Myer, Durocher, Grabowski, Pipgras.

Table with columns: At Boston, ROTHSCHOK 4, RED SOX 2. Lists player stats for Rothrock, Todd, Flanagan, Williams, Myer, Regan, Hoffmann, Rogell, MacFayden, Williams, Rollings, Garrison, Berry.

Table with columns: At Detroit, INDIANS 5, TIGERS 4. Lists player stats for Jamieson, Lind, Gerken, Burns, Summa, Harnett, Uhl, Neun, Gehring, Helmann, Tavenar, Woodall, Whittill, Smith, Sweeney.

Table with columns: At Chicago, WHITE SOX 7, BROWNS 0. Lists player stats for Mostil, Metzler, Barrett, Falk, Kamm, McCurdy, Thomas.

Table with columns: At Philadelphia, NATIONALS 5, ATHLETICS 4. Lists player stats for Bishop, Cobb, Miller, Hauser, Hale, Boley, Dykes, Walberg.

Table with columns: At Philadelphia, NATIONALS 5, ATHLETICS 4. Lists player stats for Bishop, Cobb, Miller, Hauser, Hale, Boley, Dykes, Walberg.

Table with columns: At Philadelphia, NATIONALS 5, ATHLETICS 4. Lists player stats for Bishop, Cobb, Miller, Hauser, Hale, Boley, Dykes, Walberg.

Table with columns: At Philadelphia, NATIONALS 5, ATHLETICS 4. Lists player stats for Bishop, Cobb, Miller, Hauser, Hale, Boley, Dykes, Walberg.

Table with columns: At Philadelphia, NATIONALS 5, ATHLETICS 4. Lists player stats for Bishop, Cobb, Miller, Hauser, Hale, Boley, Dykes, Walberg.

Table with columns: At Philadelphia, NATIONALS 5, ATHLETICS 4. Lists player stats for Bishop, Cobb, Miller, Hauser, Hale, Boley, Dykes, Walberg.

Table with columns: At Philadelphia, NATIONALS 5, ATHLETICS 4. Lists player stats for Bishop, Cobb, Miller, Hauser, Hale, Boley, Dykes, Walberg.

Table with columns: At Philadelphia, NATIONALS 5, ATHLETICS 4. Lists player stats for Bishop, Cobb, Miller, Hauser, Hale, Boley, Dykes, Walberg.

REGULAR ON BOYS' TEAM

There's nothing feminine about Miss Alice Buckman's play as a member of the Griswold, Ia., high school baseball team. She does everything her male cohorts do, and, in most cases, does them a little bit better. That's how she made the team as an outfielder, the first in the history of sports that a girl has made a baseball team in open competition against boys.

Here's a good closeup of Miss Buckman, and a view of her getting up for a high one, while, below, she executes a perfect slide to a bag.

BOBBY JONES IS NOT READY TO SAIL WITH U. S. GOLFERS

Sarazen, Armour, Melhorn and Hagen on Board Ship; Jones Probably Will Not Play in England.

By DAVIS J. WALSH. New York, April 17.—Although late indications are that Robert T. Jones, Jr., the kid himself, will turn up almost totally absent this time, a small but quite select group of golfers today were ready to rally around the promenade deck of the Aquitania for the annual fling at the British open golf championship.

The impending departure of the last boat that can get under the wire for the British event leaves Jones very little leeway in which to repeat his overnight decision of last year. Robert must leave Atlanta no later than tonight in order to make the gang plank and the last word was that he had agreed to play some Olympic fling matches next month and, therefore, couldn't be expected to be among those present for the midwinter fling.

Sarazen's inclusion in the party represents a change of plans so sudden that Gene is spending the day having all of his clubs re-shafted in order to comply with British regulations, which bar everything except hickory in the composition of shafts.

But Gene's preparations would be leisurely in comparison with the program Jones would have to follow if he essayed another of those impulsive races for the steamship.

The British, of course, will be simply desolated if Robert decides to stay away. Not more than twice in the last eight years have they been able to win their own championship and the way this fellow Jones trifled with sacred traditions at Sunningdale and St. Andrews in 1926 and 1927 seemed to indicate that, if the young man couldn't be kept in America, it might become necessary to award him their title by acclamation.

However, even without Jones, the American team is a representative one. Sarazen has put on a real back since undergoing a course of training at Uncle McGovern's; Hagen is about due to go on another winning spree such as he enjoyed in wrapping two previous titles abroad; Armour, while not a sensational scorer, is always up with the pace in his big championships, and Melhorn is one of those eventually-so-why-not-now boys.

In addition, Jim Barnes already is stalking about the English courses, gathering atmosphere and hunting for a crack. He should be down Jim's alley and a lot of hand-cappers like his chances of repeating his victory of several years ago because of his admitted control of the push shot into the wind.

National League Results

Table with columns: At New York, PHILLIES 7, GIANTS 5. Lists player stats for Nixon, Thompson, Leach, Southern, Wilson, Wright, Wally, Frisberg, Forry, Ferguson, Lorian, McGray, Williams, Swastland, Walsh.

Table with columns: At New York, PHILLIES 7, GIANTS 5. Lists player stats for Nixon, Thompson, Leach, Southern, Wilson, Wright, Wally, Frisberg, Forry, Ferguson, Lorian, McGray, Williams, Swastland, Walsh.

Table with columns: At New York, PHILLIES 7, GIANTS 5. Lists player stats for Nixon, Thompson, Leach, Southern, Wilson, Wright, Wally, Frisberg, Forry, Ferguson, Lorian, McGray, Williams, Swastland, Walsh.

Table with columns: At New York, PHILLIES 7, GIANTS 5. Lists player stats for Nixon, Thompson, Leach, Southern, Wilson, Wright, Wally, Frisberg, Forry, Ferguson, Lorian, McGray, Williams, Swastland, Walsh.

Table with columns: At Cincinnati, PIRATES 5, REDS 1. Lists player stats for L. Waner, Adams, Wright, Traylor, Grantham, Barnhart, Goach, Grimes.

Table with columns: At Cincinnati, PIRATES 5, REDS 1. Lists player stats for L. Waner, Adams, Wright, Traylor, Grantham, Barnhart, Goach, Grimes.

Table with columns: At Cincinnati, PIRATES 5, REDS 1. Lists player stats for L. Waner, Adams, Wright, Traylor, Grantham, Barnhart, Goach, Grimes.

Table with columns: At Cincinnati, PIRATES 5, REDS 1. Lists player stats for L. Waner, Adams, Wright, Traylor, Grantham, Barnhart, Goach, Grimes.

Table with columns: At Cincinnati, PIRATES 5, REDS 1. Lists player stats for L. Waner, Adams, Wright, Traylor, Grantham, Barnhart, Goach, Grimes.

Table with columns: At Cincinnati, PIRATES 5, REDS 1. Lists player stats for L. Waner, Adams, Wright, Traylor, Grantham, Barnhart, Goach, Grimes.

Table with columns: At Cincinnati, PIRATES 5, REDS 1. Lists player stats for L. Waner, Adams, Wright, Traylor, Grantham, Barnhart, Goach, Grimes.

Table with columns: At Cincinnati, PIRATES 5, REDS 1. Lists player stats for L. Waner, Adams, Wright, Traylor, Grantham, Barnhart, Goach, Grimes.

Table with columns: At Cincinnati, PIRATES 5, REDS 1. Lists player stats for L. Waner, Adams, Wright, Traylor, Grantham, Barnhart, Goach, Grimes.

Table with columns: At Cincinnati, PIRATES 5, REDS 1. Lists player stats for L. Waner, Adams, Wright, Traylor, Grantham, Barnhart, Goach, Grimes.

REC FIVE PLAYERS PLAN PROFESSIONAL CLUB NEXT SEASON UNDER OTHER NAME

MACKMEN BEATEN BY THE YANKEES

Are Now In Last Place; Only Team That Has Failed to Win a Game.

May Lose Large Share of $400 Present Rec Was Going to Make; Lloyd Considers Players' Action Slap in Face to Himself and Committee.

By LES CONKLIN. New York, April 17.—Connie Mack, who took the rubber band off his back after seasons in a last desperate effort to win another American League pennant, today finds his Athletics in last place—the only team in either league which failed to capture a game. The Yankees, bitter rivals of the Mackmen and regarded a week ago as a set-up for the A's in the opening series in view of their miserable training trip record, are leading the league as usual.

Yesterday Rube Walcott of the A's lost a 5 to 4 decision to Horace Lisenbee of the Senators. Goslin's homer and single caused plenty of damage. Buster Gehrig smacked his second homer of the season as the Yankees smothered the Red Sox, 7 to 2. The Sox got only five hits off Pipgras.

Alphonse Thomas twirled the White Sox to their first victory of the season, blanking St. Louis 7 to 0 and hitting a home run which helped tumble the Browns out of first place. Cleveland shaded Detroit, 5 to 4, and jumped into a triple tie with St. Louis and Washington for second place.

With two men on base, old Cy Williams was carried to the plate for his pinch-hitting act and he clouted a home run which gave the Phillies a seven to five win over the Giants. The New Yorkers could not lead the senior circuit, however. The St. Louis Cardinals were trounced by the Cubs, six to three, but hung on to second place. Chicago put on a five-run rally in the fourth which ruined Jess Haines. Earl Webb got a homer.

Burleigh Grimes regained his pitching cunning and the Pirate sluggers got an eight to one landslide over Cincinnati. Rogers Hornsby got three hits as the Boston Braves took a three to two decision over Jess Petty, Brooklyn southpaw. It was Boston's first victory of the season.

Now that California again has defeated Washington in their annual race, the boys who like their crew races are waiting for Pennsylvania to dip its oars in a race to see just what Mr. Rusty Callow has done.

Mr. Callow hardly can be expected to put out an outstanding crew this year at Pennsylvania, but it won't be many years, if he is allowed to handle things his own way. The Penn crew will be will be dangerous every time they take to the water.

It took a very attractive offer to get Mr. Callow to leave his post at Washington and this attractive offer was made by the Penn officials merely because Mr. Callow had a very nice reputation as a coach of crews.

In less than a month, Mr. Callow's crew at Pennsylvania will be in action against Yale and Columbia. Perhaps it might be added that Columbia and Yale have very excellent crews and have great hopes of representing the United States in the coming Olympic games.

By TOM STOWE. Although the basketball season closed several weeks ago, the biggest "story" of all, broke today when it became known that discussion exists among the ranks of the Recreation Center, recreation center of the town championship. At a supposedly secret meeting of the players last night, plans for quitting the Recreation Center next season and playing professional basketball here, were discussed, and it is understood decided upon.

The point is that the players feel they are entitled to a financial reimbursement for their efforts. Their agreement with the Recreation Center team during the past season was a result of their receiving no compensation for their services but were to get sweaters if there was a surplus. The season proved the most successful in years and as a result a profit of close to $500 was realized.

Apparently the players thought all they were going to get was a sweater a piece. They did not realize that the Recreation Center Committee had decided to take a very small fee and spend the balance, close to $400, on the players. What reimbursement they will get now is entirely up to Director Lewis and the Recreation Center committee which meets tomorrow afternoon. It is understood that because of their revolutionary action, the players will not receive anything but sweaters.

While the question about the matter has been questioned about the matter this morning, Director Lloyd was non-committal other than to remark that he considered the action taken by the players as a "slap in the face" to himself and the Recreation committee for their efforts in putting Manchester back on the basketball map after several disastrous seasons. Director Lloyd was not invited to the meeting of the Recreation Center last night, under his nose," so to speak—in a Rec club room.

Although the meeting was supposed to have been a secret one, Director Lloyd learned that the main topic of conversation was the question of playing professional basketball here next season, possibly at the State Armory under a different name. All of the players were said to have been in attendance although some of them were understood not to have known about the professional ball subject until it was broached at the meeting.

While the season is over, it is nevertheless of great interest to Manchester basketball fans to contemplate what will be in store for them next season. If the present members of the Rec five will professional ball, they will not be enough left over for the Rec to organize another team. While no plans have been announced, it is understood that the club was managed by the Rec five during the past season and will have charge of the managerial reins of the professional team in the floor here next season.

QUITS DIAMOND FOR RING

Jack Smith, a huge catcher who tried out with the New York Yankees last year, has given up trying to be a prize fighter. He works as "Yankee Jack." He has beaten a couple of hams.

READY FOR BOAT

Vaughn W. Stevenson, a sophomore at the University of Iowa, became an outstanding candidate for the United States Olympic team recently when he ran 300 yards in 29 8/10 seconds. The recognized world's record is 30 6/10 seconds, made by Bernie Waters in 1896, and the American record was 30 5/10 seconds, made by Charley Faddock in 1921. In making his first time, Stevenson barely defeated George Baird, Iowa, who holds the Western Conference indoor quarter-mile record. Baird was timed in 29 9/10 seconds. They are members of the Iowa mile relay team.

Now that California again has defeated Washington in their annual race, the boys who like their crew races are waiting for Pennsylvania to dip its oars in a race to see just what Mr. Rusty Callow has done.

Mr. Callow hardly can be expected to put out an outstanding crew this year at Pennsylvania, but it won't be many years, if he is allowed to handle things his own way. The Penn crew will be will be dangerous every time they take to the water.

It took a very attractive offer to get Mr. Callow to leave his post at Washington and this attractive offer was made by the Penn officials merely because Mr. Callow had a very nice reputation as a coach of crews.

In less than a month, Mr. Callow's crew at Pennsylvania will be in action against Yale and Columbia. Perhaps it might be added that Columbia and Yale have very excellent crews and have great hopes of representing the United States in the coming Olympic games.

Suppose Mr. Callow's crew surprises two powerful opponents? It hardly is likely that the Penn oarsmen will, but if they do, Mr. Callow will be hailed far and wide by Penn alumni as a savior of the Penn crew history. And if his crew is not so much—well, he has had a lot of obstacles to overcome in his new job and one can't make championship crews overnight even though one is ever so good at this business of coaching.

FOXY PHANN

When some ball players get a single they always try to stretch it.

THE CAN'T CLUB YOU CAN'T GET INTO... THANKS TO JACKSON'S DANCE CITY, MASS.

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS:

No matter how large a girl's wardrobe, she's always short on skirts.

LETTER GOLF

VERSE TO WORSE IS NEXT. Now is the time when poetry, verse and worse runs rampant for spring is here!

Word puzzle grid with words MUSE and POET.

THE RULES. 1-The idea of letter golf is to change one word to another and do it in par, a given number of strokes.

Doctor (examining a negro, very much under the influence of liquor): "Why, this man's been drugged!"

"The automobile certainly is replacing the horse," remarked the man when he found a piece of a tire in the sausage.

THE TINYMITES

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE

The Tinies eyed the funny man and right up to him they all ran. He really seemed quite friendly, and the Tinies weren't afraid.

SENSE and NONSENSE

That Old Fleet Car of Mine By James Edward Hingertford I love my car, because to me it means sweet success from dull care;

I've steered it into accidents, And missed disaster by a hair! It's suffered scratches, mars and dents.

Linguistic Evolution New Co-ed (out on her first auto ride): Don't you dare!

Money makes the mare go and it may take a lot of it to make the new Ford go.

The Motor Muse She rides with me at evening-tide, In robes of silk and pearl,

The Motor Muse Helen: Oh, because, I coo and he pats.

SKIPPY

The Little Scorpions' Baseball Team

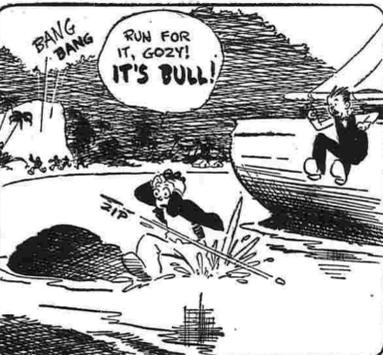

By Fontaine Fox

OUR BOARDING HOUSE By Gene Ahern

WASHINGTON TUBBS II

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

SALESMAN SAM

By Percy L. Crosby

By Crane

By Blosser

By Small

ABOUT TOWN

The meeting of the executive committee of the Town Players, scheduled for last night at the Recreation Center, was postponed until next Monday evening. Some of the members of the committee were unable to attend last night.

A son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford a Loomis of 34 Cambridge street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McGinness motored to Boston on Sunday and brought back with them Miss Mildred Hunnigbaker, who will visit at their home for a short time.

Star of the East, Royal Black Preceptory No. 13, will hold a meeting in Orange hall tonight at 8 o'clock when a number of knights will be raised to the degrees of royal scribe and royal green.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the South Methodist church will hold its annual meeting at the church tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. Reports for the past year and election of officers for the coming term will take place.

Mrs. William J. Burke of School street, who underwent a major operation at the Memorial hospital a week ago, is making favorable progress and now able to see her friends.

The Eastern Star Bridge club entertained the Amaranth Bridge club this afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. B. Johnston of Bigelow street.

Lady Roberts Lodge, Daughters of St. George, will hold its regular meeting in Tinker hall tomorrow evening at 8 sharp. Members who are planning to attend the anniversary supper at the Green Windmill, and theater party in Hartford next Monday evening, are urged to be present tomorrow evening to hear the final plans.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wheaton and Mrs. Henry Stanley of North Main street have returned from a motor trip to Providence.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Birnie of Springfield and their daughter, Miss Dorothy Sharp have been visiting relatives and friends in Manchester.

William Rubinov of Rubinov's apparel shop is in New York on a buying trip.

Chapman Court Order of Amaranth plans to hold a rummage sale on May 3, the place to be announced later. Members are urged to remember this cleaning house, and if they have donations they wish called for to notify the chairman, Mrs. Anna Robb.

The regular business meeting of Mary B. Cheney camp, auxiliary to the Spanish War Veterans, will be held tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the state armory. The annual muster day will be observed and candidates will be initiated. A meeting for the new members will be held and plans for the observance of Memorial day discussed.

EMERGENCY DOCTORS

Doctors Moran and Salvin will be the emergency doctors for Wednesday.

Mrs. George Snow and Mrs. Henry Brooks will give a whist tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Snow on Hilliard street for the benefit of the Women of Mooseheart Legion. Six prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be served.

The Cyn club will give an entertainment of plays, music and recitations at the Center church parish hall this evening at 7:45. Home-made candy will be on sale during the evening.

KIWANIANS OCCUPY STAGE TOMORROW

Second Annual Benefit Show Features Brilliant Array of Talent.

Everything is in readiness for the second annual Kiwanis Minstrel production, which is scheduled to take place on the stage of the State theater Wednesday afternoon and evening, April 18.

Hundreds of local people remember the huge success the Kiwanis Club made with their show last year, and it is predicted by advance critics who have already witnessed several of the rehearsals, that this year's program is going to be far superior, both in quality and quantity.

Such popular end men as "Nate" Richards, "Mush" Grezel, "Wash" Washburn, "Andy" Anderson, "Bill" Dillon and "Pop" Thienes will again be on hand to furnish the laughs. Al Jolson and Eddie Cantor would do well to see this sextet of comedians in action.

"Princ" Quimby is again master of ceremonies and will preside over the show in his usual pleasing manner.

The Beethoven Glee Club, one of Manchester's most popular vocal organizations, will add prestige and dignity to the program. This group, which appears under the direction of Helge Pearson, will offer a musical setting of pleasing melodies.

Another brilliant feature on the program will be Jack Sanson's stage presentation. It has been appropriately titled "The Old and the New" and it features Jack Sanson and his Presentation Orchestra, supported by Miss Olive Nymah, Miss Anna Sullivan, Fayette B. Clarke, Miss Arlene Moriarty, John I. Olson and Miss Dorothy Wirtalla.

Borst and Wasburn, a pair of entertainers who need no introduction to fraternal organizations in Manchester and surrounding cities, will offer a rapid-fire routine of songs and patter.

Dr. D. Y. C. Moore, better known as "Alphabet" to intimate Kiwanians, has prepared another of his famous offerings.

As in past years, this production is given for the benefit of the Kiwanis Kiddies' Kamp, which reaches the underprivileged children of the town.

There will be two complete performances. The afternoon show will take place at four o'clock especially for the school children and the evening performance is scheduled to commence at eight o'clock sharp.

If you have not already secured your tickets you should do so promptly, as all indications point to a capacity house at each performance. Tickets may be obtained from Harlow Willis, chairman, or members of the Kiwanis Club.

MISS HAVILAND TO LEAVE S. M. E. CHURCH IN JUNE

Director of Religious Education Will Remain While Pastor Is Away at Conference.

Miss Helen L. Haviland, director of religious education at the South Methodist church, will leave Manchester after the Children's Day services on the second Sunday in June, it was announced after the meeting of the official board of the church last night. Miss Haviland had previously announced her intention of leaving the church on May first but she will stay until the Children's Day exercises are completed.

The board also granted a leave of absence for the month of May to the pastor, Rev. Robert A. Colpitts, who is to attend the Quadrennial General Conference of the Methodist church in Kansas City as a delegate from the Southern New England Conference. Rev. Colpitts is one of three delegates from the conference and another is Rev. Bartholomew, a former pastor of the South Methodist church.

The pulp supply committee will arrange for substitute preachers during the absence of Rev. Mr. Colpitts, who will leave here on Sunday, April 29.

CHILDREN'S DRESSES

Mrs. Elliott's Shop

853 Main Street.

WATKINS BROTHERS

Funeral Directors

Robert K. Anderson

Phone: 500 or 748-2

FILMS

DEVELOPED AND PRINTED 24 HOUR SERVICE Film Deposit Box at Store Entrance

KEMP'S

PHONES Pinehurst "GOOD THINGS TO EAT"

MARKETING ROMANCE.

Every now and then we read some fascinating word picture of the old direct-dealing market—like in New Orleans or Baltimore—where the buyer trades with the very individual who raised the chicken or the pig or the sweet potatoes or what not. These pictures are intriguing in their local color and at very first thought seem economically attractive. Look at all the middlemen's and wholesaler's and retailer's profits that are saved!

But, as a matter of fact, the old time market system is just like the old time agricultural system, picturesque but expensive. There is such an enormous waste of time. Add the time—cost involved in each producer's turning his product into money—his long wasted day to sell a few dollars' worth of stuff—to say nothing of the time—cost to the purchaser who wanders half a day to do half an hour's marketing—and all the savings are eaten up several times over. Modern marketing is as much of an improvement on the old system, economically, as a power gang plough is superior to a crooked stick for tilling the ground.

The cheapest, as well as the best, kind of food distribution ever solved is the present day marketing, of which Pinehurst is a complete example. Definite guarantees of quality, hygienic preparation, speedy service—five minutes over the phone taking the place of half a day of haggling, and guessing and, half the time, getting stung by some irresponsible transient.

The old fashioned direct-dealing market makes pretty etchings. But the economy and the service and the certainty of quality lies in the modern way—the Pinehurst way.

PINEHURST CREAMERY TUB BUTTER 49c lb.
Strictly Fresh New Laid Fancy Eggs 40c dozen
Pinehurst Light Molasses 35c qt.

Please plan to buy your Good Things to Eat tomorrow morning, as Pinehurst closes at noon Wednesdays.

The Meat Department Suggests that you take advantage of the cool mornings and have a savory soup or stew for the main part of your meal.

Tender cuts of Lamb for stewing at from 18c to 33c lb.

Bare bones for soup stock, with plenty of marrow in them 3c lb.

Shank bones with meat on for soup.

Tender Beef for stew. Or would you like a small juicy chuck Pot Roast?

Pinehurst Hamburg 25c lb.
Sausage Meat 25c lb.
Link Sausage 29c lb.

Fresh Vegetables for a Spring Tonic.
Fresh Spinach Lettuce
Celery

Bunch Beets, 3 bunches 27c
Carrots, 3 bunches 25c

Asparagus Green Peppers

Parsnips, 4 lbs. 25c
Fresh Green Beans

Sliced Bacon, Special 33c lb.

FRESH SHAD AND FORTY FATHOM FILLETS

Wednesday Morning 50c Specials

Seasonable Merchandise at Reduced Prices for Tomorrow. Store Closes at noon.

$1.00
WASH DRESSES
50¢

(Sizes 7 to 14 Years)

Girls' gingham wash dresses in new spring plaids trimmed with contrasting colored collars. The skirts are finished with a kick pleat and a pocket. Sizes 7 to 14 years. Frocks suitable for school and general wear this spring and summer.

22 Only
$1.50 PURE LINEN SCARFS
50¢ each

One lot of twenty-two only, pure linen, hemstitched scarfs in plain white. Size 18x54 inches. Also a few of our regular 75c Indian Head scarfs can be found in this assortment.

79c and 89c NAINSOOK UNION SUITS 50c
Children's summer union suits made of checked nainsook. Your choice of bloomer or straight knee. These are the well known Forrest Mill undies. Not all sizes.

25c PLISSE CREPE 50c
2 1/2 Yards
Now is the time to make up dainty summer undies before the weather gets too warm. We have received new patterns in plain colors, stripes and floral designs that we are offering tomorrow morning at two and one-half yards for 50c. Colors: peach, pink, white, blue, maize and lavender. 30 inches wide.

WOMEN'S 79c to 99c MUSLIN BLOOMERS 50c
AND GOWNS
A good assortment of gowns trimmed with Hamburg, lace or tulle. All sizes. The bloomers are made from heavy muslin—good and full.

INFANTS' $1.00 SLIPS $1.00
2 for
A limited number of infants' long slips trimmed with lace or Hamburg. Very good quality. Regular $1.00 each.

GLADIOLUS BLUBS 50c Dozen
Now is the time to begin planning your summer flower garden. These gladiolus bulbs are grown by a local florist. Assorted colors.

FLOOR AND WALL DUSTERS 50c
Good quality cotton dusters chemically treated. They are made on a 12 inch frame attached to a good length, smooth, hard wood handle. Assorted colors.

WINDOW SHADES

50¢

An opportunity to replace those worn or dirty shades at a low cost. These shades at 50c are sub-standards—guaranteed usable. Size, 36 inches by six feet. Colors: linen, light green and tan.

'Self-Serve' Specials

Peppermint Patties, 2 for 50c
1 lb. box.
Evaporated Milk, 5 for 50c
All kinds.
Rutland Egg Preserve, 4 for 50c
Pint cans.
Beechnut & Armour's Prepared Spaghetti, 4 cans for 50c
Maple Syrup, 2 for 50c
Free—1 package Hecker's or Pillsbury Pan Cake Flour.

'Health Market' Specials

SHOULDER STEAK, 2 lbs. 50c
PORK CHOPS, 2 lbs. 50c
SAUSAGE MEAT, 2 1/2 lbs. 50c
LEAN POT ROAST, 2 lbs. 50c
STERLING STEAK, 2 lbs. 50c
LEAN BEEF STEW, 2 1/2 lbs. 50c

The J.W. Hale Company
SOUTH MANCHESTER, CONN.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The inter-class track meet will be held April 23, 25, 26. In past years the seniors have always defeated the other classes, and the class of 1928 seems practically sure to repeat this feat although the juniors now offer very strong opposition and may make trouble for the seniors' annual pilgrimage to Washington.

The topic "Resolved, that the emphasis placed on advertising is detrimental to the public welfare" has been selected for the forthcoming debate with Weaver High School. The debate will be represented by Julia Shaw and Marian Hills.

Considered from any angle the "Leap Year Hop" was a total success and those who worked so hard to put the affair over felt well rewarded for their labors. In addition to a large number of high school pupils there were many people now working in town or from college. This event was the last class of 1928 will put on for their Washington trip and brings to a climax a most successful campaign to raise funds for the seniors' annual pilgrimage to Washington.

The six group leaders and their colleagues have worked faithfully and the next two weeks will be spent in eager anticipation for the eventful day of departure.

The moon is about 239,000 miles from the earth.

Brown Thompson & Co.
Hartford's Shopping Center

A Remarkable Sale!

Direct From China Two Carloads Of SEA GRASS FURNITURE

Pieces That Have Sold As High As $9.95
$12.00, $15.00, $18.00

IMPORTING DIRECT FROM CHINA THRU OUR NEW YORK AND EUROPEAN OFFICES—WE ARE ABLE TO ELIMINATE THE MIDDLEMAN'S OR IMPORTERS PROFIT AND PASS THIS BUYING OPPORTUNITY TO YOU ONLY $9.95 EACH

HUNDREDS OF CHAIRS, ROCKERS, SETTEES AND TABLES—VARIOUS STYLES—BETTER FINISH AND FIRMER CONSTRUCTION THAN ANY WE HAVE EVER HAD. SEA GRASS PIECES CAN BE USED IN ANY ROOM.

Fourth Floor

I don't want to bore you, says Bill the Builder—but I would like to drill this into your mind. There will never be a better time to build a house—a garage—a store—a public building—a barn—a fence—a chicken coop—and a reputation for having good common sense than right now! And the best way to prove you have the latter is to buy your building material from

W. G. Glenney Co.
Coal, Lumber, Masons' Supplies
Allen Place, Manchester. Phone 126

TELEPHONE

No. 4
Norton's Electric Service
Hilliard Street

If you have any trouble with the Generator on Your Car Better service on generator, starter, ignition and magneto repairs.

Flat Rate on All Work Drive Your Car in for Free Tests.

NORTON Electrical Instrument Co.

Hilliard Street Near Manchester Freight Station

Buy Your Coal From Pola For Quality & Service

We Sell Lehigh Valley Clean Coal

Spring Prices Now In Effect

Stove Coal $15.00 Per Ton
Chestnut $14.75 Per Ton
Egg Coal $14.75 Per Ton
Pea Coal $11.25 Per Ton

L. POLA COAL CO.

62 Hawthorne St. Manchester Phone 546-2 or 3