CLIMAX OF CONFLICT BETWEEN CHURCHMEN AND THE CHRIST

The International Sunday School Lesson for May 27 is, "The Wicked Husbandman"—Mark 12:1-12.
Courage first. Lacking boldness, no man is ever called to teach or preach the Gospel.

clerastics had not been afraid of hoary sam-bowls, they would have got rid of Jesus on the spot. Nobody could publicly flout and deride them and get away with it; not if they knew themselves.

The First Rule For Preachers. Even the biting invectives of John the Baptist had never got under the skins of the Pharisees as did these sermon-stories of Jesus. His manner of preaching attracted the people as no other prophet's utterances had ever done.

Fisher Blanks Bristol Allowing Only Four Hits

Adams Beats Rockville Almost Unaided, 5 To 4

Fans 16, Gets 3 Hits, Allows 6, Accounts For 4 Runs As Trade School Wins 11 Inning Game; Many Errors.

Jimmy Adams pitched and batted. Manchester Trade School to a 5 to 4 eleven-inning decision over Rockville High yesterday afternoon in an error-studded topsy-turvy struggle up on Mt. Nebo. Adams had sixteen strike outs, allowed six hits, a single, a double and triple and accounted for four of Manchester's five runs including the winning tally, not to mention fielding his position perfectly.

The loosely-played ball game was crammed with plays of all sorts, good, bad and worse. Only two of the nine runs were earned, one by each team. The rest were the result of glaring misplays that were enough to discourage any pitcher. Yet, Adams and Ambrosi never once gave up the fight. Both did remarkably well considering the handicaps. Each retired sixteen batters on strikes. Passes were few and far between.

Both pitchers deserved to win and it was evident that after the first few innings that the one who got the telling breaks would get the honor. Adams' second game played in which the errors are so destructive as they were yesterday. In fact, only two of the twelve bobbles were not instrumental in manufacturing runs. The pitchers were the whole show. Probably if anybody else on either team had been on the mound the game would still be on. That's how uncertain the fielding was.

It is true that Manchester was lucky to tie the score in the ninth inning, but for that matter, Rockville was lucky to get some of its runs earlier in the game. The winning tally was the only one Manchester earned. Adams was hit and stole second from where he scored when "Swede" Lauridsen knocked a grounder down between first and second on either side of the latter caught a good game considering that it was his second attempt at this hazardous post.

Adams' lusty triple to right and Smith's error gave the trade its first run in the second. In the sixth, Landeen met with a counter, took second when the ball dribbled through the fielder's legs, and third when Ambrosi booted Pettier's grounder. Both men scored on Adams' single to left. In the ninth, Tirone walked with two out, stole second and scored when a double and scored on Pinney's single. In the eighth, Phillips walked, stole second and completed the circuit on errors by Lauridsen and Tirone. Ambrosi's single scored Heintz who had caused Tirone to fumble.

The teams will meet again next Tuesday afternoon in Rockville. Yesterday's summary follows:

ACTION ON 3 FRONTS FOR M. H. S. TODAY

Manchester High school will take part in three athletic events today. Two will be away.
This morning the track and field team is battling New Britain at the West Side. This afternoon the tennis team goes to Hartford to face St. Thomas and the baseball team travels to Willimantic.

A large metal band, encircling the whole plane from propeller to tail, is a novel idea just patented in England, for lessening damage from crashes or collisions.

WALLET THROUGH WITH COMMUNITY

"WOODY" WALLETT

Manchester baseball fans will doubt read with regret the information that Frank "Woody" Wallett has quit the Community Club baseball team.
Wallett is one of the most promising catchers Manchester has produced in years. His reason for leaving is because he feels he is worth more money than was being offered for this work, according to his own statement made last night.
Wallett has no immediate plans for the present season, but may sign up with the Rockville team. His place on the Community is being taken by his former understudy, George Kelly. The latter performed exceptionally well against Bristol last night holding up Fisher's delivery like a veteran in addition to getting a single and bagging a couple of difficult foul flies.

IRA VAIL ENTERED IN HARTFORD RACE

Ira Vail, one of the best-known drivers in the realm of dirt-track racing, has filed an entry for the automobile race meeting to be held at Charter Oak Park Memorial Day afternoon.
Vail will attempt to break some records in drives against time; he is especially anxious to lower the record of 29 seconds for the half-mile, made at the meeting at Charter Oak park last October by Ralph DePalma. Also he will try to smash the mark of 41 2-5 seconds for the mile which is held by Frank Farmer, a great driver, who will be in the field competing at Charter Oak next Wednesday.
The mile track at the state fair grounds will be used for this meeting; also it has been decided to combine the five and ten-mile events, originally planned, in a fifteen-mile race which will be a feature event of the afternoon.
Some of the well-known drivers, who will compete, are Charley Ganung; Henry Turgeon, Bill Tuttle, Alto Marino, Italian star; Sam Greco, another Italian driver; Bill Darrah, who will drive a Leado special; Ralph Melmond, driving a Miller Special; Frank Farmer, Vail and Bob Rife. Edward Otto, who staged the successful meet in Hartford last October, is arranging the Memorial Day meeting. The first race will start at 11 o'clock and there may be no conflict with the Memorial Day parades.

VICTORY THIRD STRAIGHT FOR COMMUNITY SLUGGERS

RUSS FISHER

TOMMY SIPPLES

HELP ERASE JINX
The Community Club players like apples, no matter what species, so when Eddie Goodridge & Company handed out a Baldwin last night over at Hickey's Grove, Jerry Fisher's sluggers partook liberally of the apples while Fisher was a complete puzzle to the New Departures and Bristol was beaten 4-0.

Manchester made eight hits off Baldwin but only three of them figured in the score. Goodridge, McWhille Fisher was touched up for only four bingles, three grounders between short and third and a fly that dropped in left-center which could have been caught. He also signalled the Bristolites down on strikes and passed only one.
It was a fast and well-played game watched by a small, but interested, crowd. The victory was the third straight for Manchester in the state league and the second over Bristol, the Community having beaten the New Departures in the Bell City 6 to 4 in ten innings a couple of weeks ago.

Four Oldtimers
The Bristol outfit isn't as strong as the one which used to draw great throngs to Mt. Nebo a few years ago by quite a bit, but three of the old favorites, Scott, Horkheimer and Goodridge, will defy Father Time. Only one player of yesterday is in the local lineup. He is Tommy Sipples, one of the best baseball players this town ever produced. The rest of the local team is new material which has risen to prominence since those good old days, which are gone but not forgotten.
It was a distinct credit to Fisher to subdue the Bristol team in the manner he did. For it must not be forgotten that, although Bristol is not the Bristol of old, it nevertheless has a darn good ball club. What's more, whenever Manchester can beat Bristol in any sport, its time to crow about it. Victories over the Bell Town have not been any too frequent of late.

THREE RECORDS ARE SMASHED, MORE EXPECTED TO GO TODAY

Manchester earned three of its four runs in the second Jim McGuire's patience was rewarded by a pass and he scampered home on "Hook" Brennan's double over Scott's head in left. "Pop" Edgar was safe on an error in the fifth and Tom Sipples was hit. Then both scored when Charlie Pelton socked a double which also sailed over Scott's head. The other run in the sixth was a gift. Kelly singled to St. John's and scored when Tracy threw Edgar's grounder over into Union Pond.
Bristol is really fortunate Manchester didn't beat it worse. Nine Community runners were stranded on bases. Once there were three men on, but Sipples forced a runner at third. Bristol had no real chances to score, only one man reaching second. That was in the first when Goodridge walked and stole. The fielding of Sipples, Horkheimer and Edgar was of high order, as was George Kelly's catching.

By DAVIS J. WALSH
Cambridge, Mass., May 26.—Three championship records were already out down and harrowed as the field athletes went into the final rounds of the intercollegiate track and field title games this afternoon and, according to popular belief, the pruning and the shearing was only begun. The lads were only using a manicure yesterday, it seems. Today, they were to be out there with a grain reaper.
The decapitation of as many as five games record was regarded as a distinct possibility before nightfall. Among the accepted probabilities was the defeat of the world's pole vault mark by Lee Barnes, Southern California, or Sabin Carr, Yale, or both. The latter held the outdoor and indoor records at 14 feet and 14 feet one inch respectively, until a few weeks ago when Barnes bettered both by a fraction of an inch in a coast meet. The meeting of this pair in the finals today, therefore, foretold the establishment of a world-wide supremacy in the event and the tentative establishment of a record that figured to endure until such time as the boys got to it again.

This contest between the modern secondary-story men of competitive sport left the rest of the program in bas-relief, any rival thrills being understood to be random

ABOUT TOWN

No action has been taken by the Recreation Center committee on the resignation of Miss Ruth M. Cahoun as associate director of the institution, a position she has held for nearly two years. Miss Cahoun has announced her resignation to be effective June 15. The next monthly meeting of the Recreation committee is scheduled for Tuesday afternoon, June 19, and it is probable that no action will be taken on the matter until that time, although it is possible that a special meeting of the committee might be called.

Among the cases reassigned at the short calendar session of the Superior Court in Hartford yesterday was the suit of Robert J. Smith of this place against William Gilkinson to recover $4,500 on a mortgage note loan.

An urgent invitation is again extended to all the men interested to come to the Center Congregational church tomorrow at 9:30 a. m., to hear Grant Colfax Tullar speak on the subject "Is God?" This will be the last meeting of the Men's League until after the summer vacation.

Manchester persons interested in automobile racing will have an opportunity to listen to a radio broadcast of the 500-mile Memorial Day race at Indianapolis next Wednesday. Station WTIC at Hartford is being linked with 39 other stations stretching from Atlantic to Pacific. This is the first time that an event of this kind has been broadcast by the Hartford station.

Temple Chapter, O.E.S., will conduct a sale of home-made food in variety at the J. W. Hale company's store this afternoon. The sale will begin at two o'clock and will be in the basement.

The tennis court at the North Methodist church grounds will be opened for the season Monday and this year will be under the management of the Young Men's club of the church. The court is open to all players upon payment of a reasonable fee, as the advertisements elsewhere in today's Herald will show. For appointments players should get in touch with the secretary and treasurer of the club, Walter Hanna.

Frank C. Busch of 18 1/2 Bissell street, boxing and swimming instructor at the Recreation Centers, will spend the week-end visiting friends and relatives in Norwich. His wife and daughter, who have been visiting relatives there this week, will return with him tomorrow night. Norwich was formerly Mr. Busch's home town.

8TH DISTRICT GRADUATES PLAN SHAKESPEARE PLAY.

On Friday, June 22 at 2 p. m. members of the Eighth District eighth grade graduation class will present a specially arranged and condensed version of Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice" as part of their graduation exercises. The graduating class consists of 70 pupils this year, one of the largest ever to graduate in the Eighth district.

MANCHESTER GIRLS GET ART DIPLOMAS

Complete Three-Year-Course in Costume Design at Hartford Art School Yesterday.

Two Manchester girls received their diplomas with the 1928 graduating class of the Hartford Art School yesterday. They are Miss Florence Anderson of Chestnut Street and Miss Stella Lincoln of Maple street.

Both have just completed a three year course in costume design. Miss Anderson received first prize in that subject at the annual exhibition which opened yesterday at the institution and Miss Lincoln, who gained that honor last year, was awarded the William Gedney Bunce medal for the best color work.

Both students received their first training in art from Miss Harriet D. Condon, local high school teacher, who has interested many Manchester persons in that field of work. It was through her efforts and recommendations, that Miss Anderson and Miss Lincoln were induced to enter the Hartford school for advanced training following their graduation from the local school with the class of 1925.

Miss Grace Hassett, also of this town, was given honorable mention in illustrative advertising. This is her first year at the school.

F. W. HULBURT'S CAR HITS A PEDESTRIAN

Fred W. Hulburt of 28 Mt. Nebo Place was the driver of an automobile which struck James T. Hoye, 70, of Station 17, Silver Lane, East Hartford on State street in Hartford yesterday afternoon, knocking him down. The injured man was taken to the police hospital where he was treated for a scalp wound. His injuries were found not to be serious. Police said the accident was Hoye's fault. He was crossing the street and started by the whistle of an approaching trolley car, darted in front of the automobile. Mr. Hulburt was not held in any way responsible.

E. E. HILLIARD WORKERS GOING TO COVENTRY

A group of the men in the employ of the E. E. Hilliard Co., of Hilliardville will spend the week-end at Sherwood L. Martin's cottage at Coventry lake. The party will leave directly after work this noon and will return early Sunday night. This little get-together of the employees is a semi-annual function made possible through the courtesy of Mr. Martin in loaning his cottage. The outing always uncovers someone with unexpected culinary ability while the remaining members of the party are assigned to "K. P." duty. The meals are always of the best but invariably the party returns with a truer appreciation of the tasks that beset the poor housewife.

TO QUIT SCHOOL BOARD.

Mrs. Alexander M. Shearer of 123 Hilliard street will retire at the end of the school year as secretary to the Town Board of Education. The reason for Mrs. Shearer's resignation is that she is moving to Windsor Locks, where her husband is employed as a supervising millwright.

"PINEHURST EDITORIALS"

For a number of weeks Pinehurst has been experimenting with this distinctive kind of advertising—these little articles, supplementary to price announcements—which, at the Herald office, we learn, are marked for identification, "Pinehurst editorials." We have checked, as far as possible the results of the experiment. Now, for a further check, we intend to suspend them for a short time, a couple of weeks or so. Pinehurst likes to be sure what it is doing—sure that it is doing the right thing.

We may, of course, become enthusiastic enough over some particular idea in the interim to break out into commentary, or we may not; we may stick closely to "regular" advertising for a fortnight or so. What we want to ascertain is whether the "Pinehurst edit" are missed by our readers. If we find that they are—in they go again.

Meantime this food department store—fresh meats, fresh fish, fresh vegetables, dairy products, staple and fancy groceries—will be giving just as close attention to the elements of Quality, Price and Service as if it were talking more about them in print.

ICE
—The Silent Sentinel
protecting food and health

WITH ice "on guard" in a good refrigerator, the busy housewife never worries about food; she has placed in its keeping. Every minute, day and night, it automatically safeguards their purity, freshness and flavor.

It keeps the air in the refrigerator in constant circulation. Impurities and odors from the food are deposited on the ice cube and carried off in meltage through the outlet. The whole process is simple, safe, sure and sanitary.

Have a good refrigerator. Keep it well iced. Ice saves food, flavor and money.
