

DIES AFTER AUTO CRASH WEEK AGO

Vincent Ginkus, Jr., of Worcester, Victim of Accident in Andover.

Vincent Ginkus, Jr., 23 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Ginkus, Sr., of Worcester, Mass., died this morning at the Manchester Memorial hospital, exactly one week after he had been admitted as a patient, following an accident on the Willimantic-Manchester road, near the former John H. Cheney farm at Andover on May 26.

The driver of the car, Edward Smith of Brooklyn, N. Y., was arrested and is under bond of $1,500 to appear before a justice court in Andover on Monday, June 16, on a charge of operating recklessly and while under the influence of liquor.

Smith and William Merten, another passenger in the car, were in Manchester yesterday, arriving just when Ginkus took a turn for the worse and it was evident he had but a short time to live.

At the time of the accident Ginkus, with his two companions, was returning to New York where he was employed as an insurance agent, after spending the week-end with his parents in Worcester.

CAN HAVE WASHING MACHINE AND WELCOME

This Woman, One of Many Sued, Had No Wiring in Her House Anyhow.

One of the purchasers of electric washing machines from the defunct Electrical Appliance Corporation, an assignee of whose accounts is bringing a lot of suits against debtors in Manchester and elsewhere in the state, is a woman who has special reason to regret having bought the apparatus, as she did, for the installment plan—or at all, for that matter.

CAR CRASH ON BRIDGE INJURES LOCAL PEOPLE

Trolleys Bump and Several Commuters from Here Suffer Bruises.

Several Manchester persons were slightly injured early this morning by a trolley collision on the west end of the Connecticut River bridge and some of them had to return to their homes unable to work.

William Chipman of Oakland street, one of the passengers, was bruised quite a bit and had his back sprained. He told The Herald that several others were also injured.

The cars were under control of Hartford motormen and were not badly damaged. The accident happened shortly before 6:30.

"LONE WOLF" BACK

Darien, June 2.—(AP)—Sgt. Amos Anderson, the nationally famous "Lone Wolf" of the Darien police department has returned to his duties as a motorcycle officer, following a seven months layoff due to an accident while on duty last November.

Anderson, who gained fame from his numerous captures of notorious characters and cargoes of rum, on the Boston post road, is fully recovered from his leg injury.

DEATHS ACCIDENTAL

Bridgeport, June 2.—(AP)—Two findings of accidental deaths were returned here today by Coroner J. J. Phelan. One was in the case of John Mikolajczyk, 10, who was killed by an automobile while running across the street and the other was in the case of Severino Micelici, 45, of Torrington a laborer, struck by a hopper on a concrete mixer while working in Stamford. Both accidents occurred on May 23.

SHOT IN RESTAURANT

New Haven, June 2.—(AP)—William Johnson, 25, negro, was shot through the heart fatally this morning after an argument in a restaurant which started, the police said, when he saw a patron putting slugs into a player piano.

Jerry Irving, 29, also negro waiter of Collinsville, Tenn., and Morristown, Pa., was held on a breach of the peace charge while the inquiry proceeded.

YALE HONOR AWARDS

New Haven, June 2.—(AP)—Exercises of the 108th anniversary of the Yale Divinity School were held in Marquand Chapel this morning. Dean Luther A. Weigle presided. Among the honors awarded, were these:

Two brothers fellowship established in 1926 by gift from Caroline Hazard in memory of her brothers, for the purpose of biblical study in Jerusalem or in other foreign lands to Ross John Griffith of Enid, Okla., a member of the graduate class.

The Hooker-Dwight fellowship established in 1878 by President Dwight for a traveling fellowship to Allen J. Miller of Brooklyn, N. Y. Harold A. Plugg, of Massillon, Ohio was awarded the Julia A. Archibald high scholarship prize.

BALDWIN DEMANDS PACT INFORMATION

Former Premier Wants Commons Committee to Probe Recent Naval Treaty.

London, June 2.—(AP)—The statement that before signing the naval treaty, the country wanted to know more exactly to what it had committed itself was made by former Premier Baldwin in moving a resolution in the House of Commons today that a selected committee be appointed to report on the treaty.

The former premier said that the Americans had had their investigation and were satisfied, adding: "Why shouldn't we have the same thing here in order that we may satisfy ourselves as to the effect of the treaty on ourselves."

The country wanted to know before it was committed to the treaty, continued the former premier, "whether our security in the first place remains, whether we shall be in a position in any circumstances to fulfill our own sacred obligations under the League of Nations."

MacDonald's Answer Replying to the Conservative leader, Prime Minister MacDonald said that if the proposal of a select committee were adopted, it would affect the future relations between the government and the House of Commons.

Referring to the hearings on the naval treaty before a United States committee in Washington, the prime minister said that this has been done in the United States because it was part and parcel of the ordinary procedure in the United States.

Britain's Policy The prime minister said that if England was not to build in accordance with agreement with other powers and if Mr. Baldwin thought a three-power agreement was so unsatisfactory that it was wrong, then why did he send representatives to the Geneva conference of 1927 where only three powers were represented.

The premier said he could claim he had seen the advisability of a five-power agreement while Mr. Baldwin had not. "The world does not consist of the United States and ourselves only, nor even of the Pacific alone," said the premier. "There is the Pacific and the European group and consideration of group questions is inseparable from any effective reduction of armament."

DEBATE ON WAGES

New Haven, June 2.—(AP)—The agreement between the Connecticut Company and its employees having to do with operations having expired yesterday the matter of a new agreement was in a stage of negotiations today with executive committee of the men empowered to submit for a vote any proposition offered by the company.

The discussions over a new wage scale began about eight weeks ago and in keeping with the practice of many years no information was given out by either side.

The request for a new agreement includes provisions for an increase of six cents an hour for operators of woman cars, seven cents an hour for operators for one man cars.

DESPONDENT, TAKES LIFE BY DROWNING

Barney Johnson, Worried Over Ill Health, Is Suicide At Globe Pool.

Despondent over ill health, which it is understood, brought on a nervous breakdown recently, Barney Johnson, age 59, of 125 School street, committed suicide by drowning in Globe Hollow, shortly before noon Saturday. The body was discovered at 11:20 by John Harwarth of 285 East Middle Turnpike, who immediately summoned the police, who had the body removed in Holoran's ambulance to Holoran's funeral parlors to await identification.

Johnson was identified by his elder son Carl at 2:45 o'clock in the afternoon. Waded in Pool. Johnson spent a sleepless night and left the house about 10 o'clock Saturday morning for a walk. It is believed that he went immediately to Globe Hollow as his watch was stopped at 10:50 o'clock. Johnson evidently waded out to the diving platform from the shallow side of the pool and then jumped off. His coat was buttoned tightly and formed a ballast, supporting him on the water, which led to discovery of the body.

Harwarth called Chief of Police Samuel Gordon and Patrolman Arthur Seymour to the scene. Medical Examiner W. R. Tinker pronounced death due to drowning.

Family.

Besides his wife, Johnson leaves a daughter, Mrs. C. J. Small; three sons, Carl A., Victor J., and Roy W.; one brother, Samuel, all of Manchester; two sisters, Mrs. James Hall of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Miss Hulda Johansson of Sweden.

The deceased came here from Sweden about 25 years ago and was employed at Cheney Brothers for the same length of time. He was a member of the Swedish Lutheran church and of Swedish Benevolent Society Segar.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home, Rev. S. C. Frantz will officiate. Burial will be in the East cemetery.

ABOUT TOWN

Arthur Starkweather of Starkweather street is building a cottage at Coventry lake. The carpentry work is in charge of Edward L. Gates of North Elm street.

Attendants of the Nazarene church and all others interested in missions will attend a meeting at the church this evening at 7:30 at which the principal speaker will be the general secretary, J. T. Morrison from the Kansas City headquarters of the Nazarene Foreign Missionary society.

The Nazarene Sunday school held its annual Children's Day exercises last night in the church here, a very fine program of recitations, exercises, class songs and singing by the entire school was given. Due to the week-end holiday, many of the children were unable to be present, but a well varied program presented by all classes from the primary group to the juniors, was arranged by the school committee in charge.

PARENTS TO VIEW CHILDREN'S WORK

Manchester Green School Pupils to Present Programs Tonight, Tuesday, Wednesday.

Parents' Night program will be presented at the Manchester Green school tonight, Tuesday and Wednesday evening, from 7 to 8 o'clock in the assembly hall. All parents of pupils are invited to attend and inspect the work of the children during the past year.

The program tonight will be presented by the Kindergarten and will include songs and stories along with the regular school work. Tomorrow night the program will be given by Grades 1 to 4. The exercises will open with a selection by the orchestra after which Grade 1 will sing "Blow Bubbles Blow," followed by a reading "The Cup of Milk," and another song "I Hal a Little Doggie."

Next a poem "Our Flag" will be read followed by a song "Marching Around the Schoolroom." Grade 2 will sing a Japanese song and present a play "The Sleeping Beauty." Grade 3 will give exercises entitled "Our Flag," and Grade 4 will conclude the program with a play "The Health Clown," and by singing a group of songs.

Wednesday evening the orchestra will open the program with a selection of 11 girls of the fifth grade will sing "Over the Bright Blue Sea." Barbara Caboon and Robert Sherwood will sing a duet "A Morning in Spring." Ten pupils of the class will read essays on a prominent man in history. The sixth grade program will open with a piano selection by Betty Goslee followed by a report on sixth grade projects by Geraldine Tenney. A one-act play "The Charter Oak" will be presented by the sixth grade boys and the eighth grade will give a play "Lincoln, Deputy Surveyor." The concluding numbers on the program will be by the seventh grade with Ernest Larson speaking on "The Meaning of Flag Day," followed by a dialogue "Makers of the Flag" by Walter Buckley and Walter Johnson, and a flag drill.

On all three evenings parents may examine work done by the children throughout the year including that done in the manual training and domestic science classes. The manual training will include exhibits of floor lamps, end tables, table lamps, taboretts, bird houses, derrick, coping saw work and toys, and also mechanical drawings and tracings by the seventh and eighth grades.

ROBERTS TAKES OFFICE

Washington, June 2.—(AP)—Owen J. Roberts of Philadelphia was inducted into office today as an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.

When he had taken the oath, the bench again had its full membership of nine for the first time since February. Roberts succeeds the late Justice Sanford of Tennessee. Simple ceremonies following a formal dinner were held at the ascension of the new justice to the highest court.

The court room was crowded, Mrs. Roberts and their daughter, and a number of friends from Pennsylvania having come to Washington to be present.

QUEEN'S POPULATION

New York, June 2.—(AP)—New York apartment dwellers, searching for cheaper, airier living spaces away from metropolitan dust, more than doubled the population of Queens—New York's borough of homes—in the last ten years, census figures for 1930 disclose today. Complete figures show Queens, largest in area and fastest growing of New York's five boroughs to have a population of 1,082,212, an increase of 613,170 or 130 per cent. over 1920.

Ten years ago Queens borough, stretched across northwest Long Island had a population of 469,042, which represented a gain of 65 per cent. over 1910. Today it tops Cleveland, Pittsburgh or San Francisco.

KEMP'S WINS FREE ATLANTIC CITY TRIP

Local Music House Gets Award Of Trip to Convention All This Week.

By virtue of a very successful radio sales program, carried on during the past few weeks, Kemp's, Inc., has been awarded free trips to Atlantic City, to the Radio Manufacturer's Association Show, by three of the leading radio manufacturers, Stromberg-Carlson, Atwater Kent and Majestic.

To win a trip to Atlantic City, it was necessary for the local dealer to purchase and sell a designated number of sets. To do this in any one line of radio is a big job, but to accomplish this feat in three different lines of radio is an exceptional achievement.

The full quota of Atwater Kent sales, has been exceeded by no less than seven sets, while the sales of Majestic and Stromberg-Carlson, were in like proportion.

With the exception of the United States, which has one practitioner to every 750 people, Great Britain has a higher number of doctors proportionately than any other country in the world.

ROCKVILLE

Superior Court Opens Wednesday.

The Tolland County Superior Court will be in session on Wednesday of this week and three criminal cases are listed and the accused will be put to plea at the opening of the court and the cases not disposed of will be assigned for trial.

A case of interest will be that of Albert DiCuccio, 21 and Joseph Polce, both of Hartford, who are charged with stealing about $1,000 worth of pre-war liquor from the summer home of Gustave O. Cartier of Coventry.

The second case is that of Edward Cassant of Portland, Maine, and Mrs. Ellen Grassan of Brunswick, Maine, who will appear before the court on charges of misconduct.

The third case is that of the State vs. Norman S. Wilson, who is charged with the violation of the quarantine of animals regulations.

Wall Street Briefs

New York, June 2.—The National City Bank's June review of economic conditions says it is not surprising that business recovery should be slow.

The United States Pipe and Foundry Co. is calling all outstanding second preferred stock for redemption July 1, at $21 a share.

Shipments of iron ore from Lake Erie docks to interior furnaces last month amounted to 3,148,994 tons against 4,951,980 tons a year ago.

Employment in 51 major plants, mostly automotive, during the week ended May 30 was 25,728, a decline of 420 from the previous week, and about 17,000 under the total on the same date in 1929.

The June bulletin of the National Association of Credit men says that credit conditions throughout the country are generally improving.

The American Bureau of Metal Statistics says that exports of refined copper from the United States amounted to 20,376 tons in April against 15,464 in March.

The Ford Motor Co. of Canada, Ltd., has reduced prices of cars and trucks from $15 to $85 each.

SPEAK AGAINST BIGOTRY

Boston, June 2.—(AP)—Citizens of Massachusetts had before them today the counsel of a Catholic, a Jew and the president of a first woman's college given in the first major celebration of the Massachusetts Bay Colony tercentenary.

Urging Americans of every faith to stop "blasting at the rock of each other's religions," Senator Walsh declared they should "approach the struggle against the forces whose philosophy of life is purely secular or a compound of materialism, of greed, of tangible advantage, or cynical distrust of human nature."

Peiping, China, June 2.—(AP)—A general northern advance into the province of Honan following a vigorous offensive launched on the night of May 30 was claimed in Chinese official dispatches published in war extras tonight.

These reports stated that northern cavalry in a surprise attack captured twelve pursuit planes believed to be the entire Nanking Nationalist air force on the Honan front. Fifty pilots and mechanics were taken prisoners.

The northerners declared that at least 30,000 Nanking troops were reported to have reached a point about 50 miles to the east of Kaifeng.

At the same time the Shanghai army of the Northern Alliance was reported to be crossing the Yellow river in force to attack the important city of Tsinan, the fall of which was predicted here.

One of the laws of Tibet is that married women must not make themselves attractive to men. Therefore they plaster their faces with black mud.

TWO COPS KILLED BY RUM RUNNERS

Detroit, June 2.—(AP)—Police were searching the underworld here today for the slayers of two policemen of Grosse Pointe Park, exclusive Detroit suburb, who fell before the bullets of rum-runners early Sunday.

The victims described by their chief as the "best men in the department" were Erhardt W. Meyer, 28 and Claude Lanstra, 24.

Meyer and Lanstra were sent out to look for a car which had knocked down and seriously injured Mrs. Ina Placz half a block from the Grosse Pointe Park police station near the outlet of Lake St. Claire where rum runners are known to load cargoes of liquor.

Men in the car began firing and Meyer fell shot through the head. Lanstra opened fire but slumped over the wheel of the police car, shot four times. The rum runners car sped away.

Detectives said they found gangland deserted Sunday. There had been a double slaying Saturday and police sought to connect the two crimes.

PROBE CUSTOM AGENTS

Paris, June 2.—(AP)—Two deputies today filed notice that they will interpellate the government when the chamber meets on alleged irregularities by American Customs officers.

The first interpellation will be by Henry Guy, who will ask concerning activities of American Customs officers in France, which is construed as concerning a complaint to Poirret by the couturier, Poirret, that officer records of the account of Mrs. Robert L. Dodge were abstracted and photographed.

The second interpellation will be by Deputy Charles Pomaret on the general subject of the activities of the American Customs agents in France.

LOCAL STUDENTS' WORK IN ART EXHIBITED

Manchester young people who received their first instruction in art in the local elementary schools and under Miss Harriet Condon, art teacher at the Manchester High school, figure prominently in this year's exhibition at the Hartford Art school.

The exhibition will continue during the present week, including Sunday, June 8, from 2 to 5 p. m., with graduate pupils and some member of the faculty always in attendance to confer with parents or prospective pupils.

Miss Esther Welles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin G. Welles, Miss Josephine Piesick, Miss Clara Hylek, Miss Margaret Russell and Russell Taylor are among the first year and advanced pupils whose work in textile, costume and other lines of designing and painting was deemed of sufficient merit to warrant a place in the exhibition.

Russell, daughter of La Motte Russell, has executed a miniature copy of an imported rug design, one of a group that is attracting no little attention at the display.

The floral, poster and costume designs by some of the other local girls are excellent, and bear out the promise of artistic talent displayed when they were students under Miss Condon.

FRANCE AND ITALY This is indeed the strangest of times—when sane hopes for permanent world peace are stronger than they ever were in all history and when, at the same moment, another great European war seems, if possible, all the more imminent.

But the fact that France is thus called on, not only to assert her readiness to defend herself but to maintain herself in a position where such an assertion is no idle boast, explains what a great many Americans have been so little able to understand—why France, while talking peace, so resolutely sets herself against disarmament commitments which other nations, including this one, so earnestly desire.

"REASONABLE" SPEED Tragedy sometimes has its ludicrous aspects. When nine motorcycles charged down the road at Durham yesterday, traveling at sixty miles an hour, a sedan, making a left turn into an intersecting road, got in their way and seven of the motorcycles piled up, one rider being killed.

As a matter of fact every member of that squad of cyclists was guilty of the worst kind of criminal recklessness. It is completely inconceivable that any such formation, traveling at any such speed, could proceed far on the public roads without causing a fatal accident in one way or another.

IN INDIA While the death lists in the Indian troubles continue to be very small that fact is attributable, apparently, to the fact that lethal weapons have been only sparingly employed.

been only sparingly employed. Plenty of broken heads and minor injuries are provided by the sticks and stones with which this most singular of revolts is being fought out.

Never in history has there been such a revolt as this. For once the subtle mind of the East has matched itself against the more direct and perhaps less intricately capable brains of the white man in a game at which the latter seems to be at a very great disadvantage.

HOOPER'S THOUGHT President Hoover's Gettysburg address, a pleasant surprise in its literary quality—perhaps the first Presidential utterance since Wilson to bear the stamp of highly skilled expression of original thought—improves with re-reading.

Pointing as the paths of true glory to the nation, it may be remembered, Mr. Hoover said that "to pursue diligently the common welfare and find within its boundaries our private benefit; to enlarge the borders of opportunity for all and find our own within them; to enhance the greatness of the nation and thereby find for ourselves an individual distinction" was to find those paths.

TO FIND YOUR OWN WELL BEING IN THE WELL BEING OF HUMANITY—there is sense to that. After all perhaps it is not only the best way but the only way for any of us to find it.

shivery beliefs about that part of the world which now appear to have mere superstition. Saddest of all it is to contemplate the fate that will overtake Donald Baxter MacMillan's annual winter lecture tours, following his annual summer visits to the North, if Stefansson's debunking of the Arctic really gets across.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of a series of four articles by Rodney Dutcher, Washington correspondent for The Herald and NEA Service, on the highly interesting senatorial primary campaign in North Carolina.

BY RODNEY DUTCHER Raleigh, N. C., June 2.—Senator Furnifold McLendel Simmons, who at 76 has been in the Senate longer than anyone and now seems renominating in the Democratic primary of June 7, has remained in Washington throughout the campaign.

Neither Furnifold nor Josiah has made a single campaign speech. All the old favorite issues have been trotted out: Raskobism, White Supremacy, Rum, Popery, Prosperity—and especially Party Loyalty, the issue Josiah is depending upon to defeat Furnifold as a result of the latter's desertion of Candidate Al Smith in 1928.

Scarlet fever has been called a disease of the neighborhood, since neighbors often transfer it from one household to another by visiting infectious, and patients with it should be kept away from others for from three to six weeks, or as long as the skin continues to peel.

Is it possible for one to go on seven years with one, and not vomit? Also, does an ulcer cause a large amount of gas?" Severe ulcers usually produce vomiting, but sometimes the patient is only nauseated and cannot vomit.

Letter Injects Al Smith Into Campaign Just to show you the devious way this campaign is being waged, let's take a look at the "Dickens letter," which has become quite an issue toward the end. Someone wrote a letter signed "O. W. Dickens, Salisbury, N. C.," to the editor of a Charlotte newspaper, who published it. "Dickens" professed to be a Bailey supporter and he whooped things up for Al Smith, Raskob and Bailey together. Raskob was described as "the smartest politician of the day" and Smith "the greatest statesman of our era."

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS Question—Mrs. M. L. P. asks:— "Is there an absolute cure for ulcerated stomach without undergoing an operation? Is it possible for one to go on seven years with one, and not vomit? Also, does an ulcer cause a large amount of gas?" Answer—It is certainly possible to cure most cases of stomach ulcers without an operation. It is doubtful if an ulcer will continue to exist in an aggravated form for as long as seven years. Severe ulcers usually produce vomiting, but sometimes the patient is only nauseated and cannot vomit.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF CABLE NEWS

A Survey of Important Happenings in Foreign Countries During Last Week.

By Associated Press.

Blood was shed in two parts of Asia last week—in India, where riots which were principally racial caused deaths estimated from 100 up, with injuries nearing 1,000 and in China, where the government is battling against a northern coalition while Communist bandit armies ravage interior cities.

India's attention was drawn momentarily from the Nationalist salt raids by disturbances in the four great cities of Rangoon, Dacca, Lucknow and Bombay.

In Rangoon the riots developed between Hindus and Burmans, growing out of a dock laborers' strike; in Dacca between Hindus and Moslems; in Lucknow between Nationalist Congress volunteers and police, and in Bombay between Moslems and British police.

Raiders against the government salt works continued, however, principally at Dharamasa. Hundreds of volunteers who attempted to seize salt pans were arrested. British mounted troops broke up a raid Saturday by charging a group of 156 volunteers.

Other volunteers invaded Sholapur. They used an ingenious method, wearing green shirts, red stockings and white caps—the Nationalist colors—but were forced by police to change to the customary Indian white.

The government tightened its defenses by promulgating an ordinance against inciting to non-payment of taxes and another against picketing and the boycotting of government servants. These are weapons which have been used frequently by the civil disobedience campaigners.

In China. China's warfare developed widely conflicting stories. The Northern coalition declaring it had achieved "smashing" victories against the government forces of Chiang Kai-shek along the Hunan-Hubei province, and claiming the reoccupation of Kwei-chow, which was taken by Chiang's troops several weeks ago.

The government denied these stories, but a statement by the government finance minister indicated that it was short of money and weakening in strength.

Whatever the result, it is known that furious battles have been fought, with high casualties. Both sides are using airplanes, for bombing and for "dog fighting" in the air.

Communists raised, meanwhile, were reported to be besieging the city of Changchow, causing thousands of terrorized inhabitants to flee, and still were attacking Hanchow.

The Graf Zeppelin continued her journey with almost as much ease as a motor car on good roads. Following her comfortable flight from Spain to Brazil in the previous week, the Graf left Pernambuco Wednesday morning and was tied up at Lakehurst, N. J., early Saturday morning. She had intended to stop at Havana, but because the tropical heat of South America had caused a loss of gas Dr. Hugo Eckener, the commander, decided to come straight to the United States.

American Gold Star mothers and wives continued to visit the graves of their sons and husbands in the battlefields of France, Belgium and England. The first contingent sailed for home late in the week, but two others were in France and another was on the way.

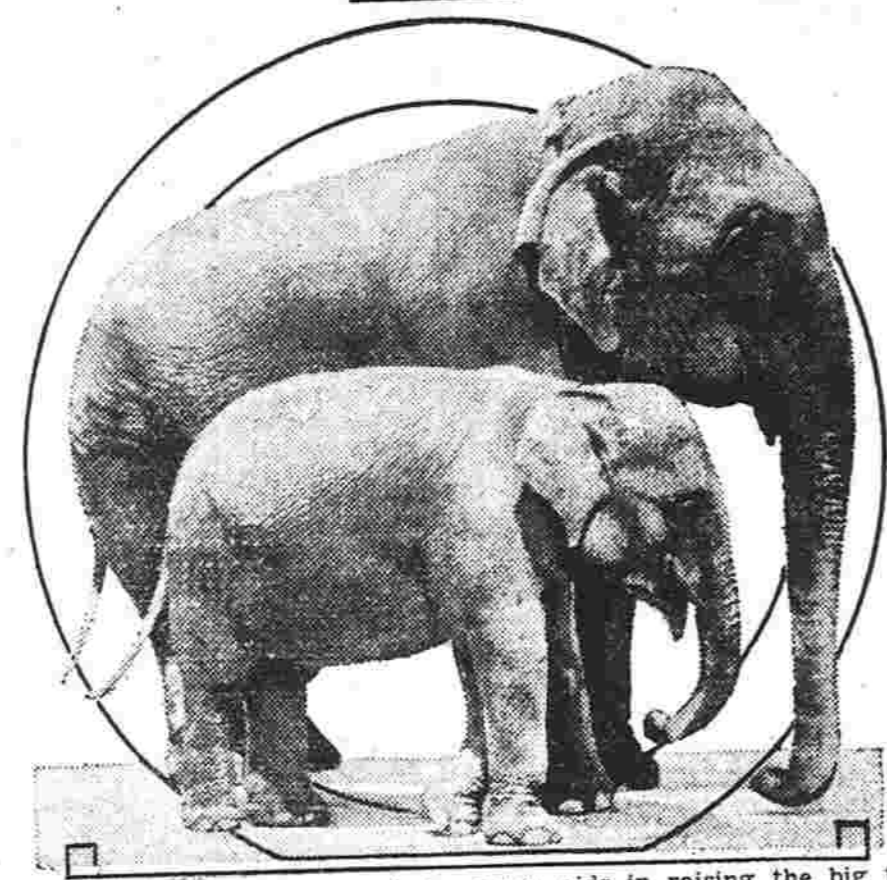

Political observers believe the government was permitted to win over the Conservative motion because no party—not even Labor—cares to risk a general election, which would follow a government defeat, at this time.

PLAN CABINET CHANGES

London, June 2.—(AP)—Several British newspapers said today that an announcement of important changes in the Cabinet of Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald might be announced with publication of honors to be bestowed on the occasion of King George's birthday, tomorrow.

Some reports were that the changes would be extensive and would amount to re-shuffling of the Cabinet. It was generally expected that at least posts would be found for two or three back benchers.

Many Old Favorites With Sparks Circus

Veteran "white top" enthusiasts will find several old favorites among the myriad of new and novel attractions that will come to town when Sparks Circus stages two exhibitions, afternoon and night, on Wednesday, June 11. Tents located at Center and Dougherty streets in South Manchester.

There is "Zulu," the great, who for twelve years has lured it for height and bulk over all the other Sparks elephants. "Zulu" is not only one of the best dancing elephants in captivity, but is also a hard and consistent worker. Just as soon as the "bulls" reach the circus grounds, she starts her daily task of shoving the cages, aids in raising the big top, and doing other odd big jobs. Last year "Virginia," a young baby, arrived on the show, and was immediately adopted by "Zulu," who protects and watches her constantly.

Jake Posey, last of the 40thorse drivers, is another veteran with Sparks. Posey has entire charge of the two hundred head of baggage stock and it is his duty to move the many cages, wagons, and paraphernalia from the trains to the lot and back again at night. Posey is known throughout the entire land. Seats may be secured circus day at Packard's Drug Store, 487 Main street in Manchester—same prices as at show grounds.

IN NEW YORK

New York, June 2.—New York's picturesque foreign colonies no longer lag behind the parade of modern innovation.

Whether fashion, science or custom be involved, the process of Americanization has reached that point where one can expect the second and third generation to be right on its toes, ready to adapt each new idea to its particular section of population.

There is, for instance, a talking picture concern which is turning out films in Yiddish only and thus appealing to that vast audience which can be drawn from the East Side. It is called Juda films and early June will see it operating three New York theaters where only Yiddish language films will be shown. A national chain of such theaters will soon span the nation, with houses in every metropolitan center where large Yiddish speaking populations congregate.

For generations the Yiddish theaters on the East Side and up in the Bronx have been among Manhattan's most interesting playhouses. Here, some highly original experiments have been made, theater art movements have started and modernistic stage decorations have set styles which Broadway later adopted.

In the days of silent films one could find on Second avenue a dozen picture houses where the subtitles were in Hebrew, Italian or some other tongue.

There are still thousands of patriarchal old fellows who, have failed to acquire more than a working knowledge of English and who want to see and hear the words of their mother country.

And back of the Wall Street belt, down where the business section hurries toward the river, you can find a broadcasting station which appeals to the Italian residents of this conglomerate island.

Presiding over the programs is none other than Fortune Gallo, the late operatic impresario.

The music lovers of a large part of this land depended for years upon the annual visit of Gallo and his grand opera organization. He became something of a national figure and built up a considerable fortune. Then he tried to crash New York, built himself the Gallo theater and came upon less fortunate days. For one reason or another, Gallo's playhouse didn't seem to click.

Now he runs his Italian radio station, putting scores of his old favorites upon the air and enjoying a vast audience of Manhattan's Italian folk.

In the interim, by the way, Gallo has found time to film the first Italian language grand opera. He

HIGH WINDS CAUSE PROPERTY DAMAGE

Two Children Killed—Shipping Damaged All Along New England Coast.

Boston, June 2.—(AP)—The month of June came to New England with gales of April strength which took the lives of two children, damaged small shipping, endangered aviation and caused extensive property losses. The bulkhead of a skylight torn from a roof struck and fatally injured a three year old, Shirley Elwood, Cambridge and Catherine Kellher, 14, Boston, drowned in a canoe upset by the high wind at Marlboro.

The glider piloted by Miss Maude Irving Tait, 22, Springfield, plunged 40 feet to the ground at the airport there and she received three broken ribs. She was the only girl pilot on the recent air tour.

Small shipping was tossed about badly on the Massachusetts coast. Nancy Carroll, film actress, her husband, Jack Kirkland and a party of 13 were endangered by wind which disabled the motor yacht Katherine II off Minor's Light. A fishing schooner, the Jackson Arthur, towed them to port.

Two Boston boys, Samuel Sarceno 16, and Peter Cassaro 15, drowned in a canoe upset at Sharon by a companion who swam to shore when the accident had been caused when the two tried to exchange places.

Wires were torn down, windows shattered and trees uprooted at Lawrence, Keene, N. H., and Waterville, Maine. Fallen trees delayed traffic on many highways.

CENSUS RETURNS

Washington, June 2.—(AP)—Census returns of 1930 for New England towns of 10,000 to 12,000 reported by census supervisors but still subject to revision are as follows:

Table with columns for City, Population, Increase Pct. Cities listed include Amesbury, Wellsley, North Andover, Westbury, Easthampton, Mass., Denvers, Needham, Westbrock, Derby, Swampscott, Lincoln R. I., Cumberland, Rochester, North Attleboro, Mass., Shelton, Stoneham.

EX-SENATOR DIES

New Haven, June 2.—(AP)—The funeral of Stephen Witney, former Senator from the eighth district who died at his home in Hamden of heart failure Saturday was held from Trinity church on New Haven today. He served in the Senates of 1915 and 1917 and was a Democrat. He leaves a widow and four children.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Try-outs for the Sock and Buskin dramatic club will be held on next Tuesday and Wednesday. Sophomore candidates will be judged on Tuesday during the seventh period, while the Junior candidates will try out during the seventh period and after school on Wednesday.

Thursday was Ribbon Day at Manchester High School. Practically every girl in the senior class wore a large, bright colored bow on her hair, and, in addition, many wore their hair in long curls. Large "all-day" suckers were also employed to remove the dignity from these "dignified seniors."

The sixth period was omitted last Thursday in order that the assembly could be held at that time, as school was dismissed at half past ten to allow all the students to attend the important baseball game between West Hartford High and Manchester High.

The program opened fittingly with the singing of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" by the entire student body. The Girls' Glee Club rendered "We're Tenting Tonight" and "Marching Through Georgia" very well, and the Boys' Glee Club sang "Bugles" and an interesting medley of war songs.

The platform of the assembly hall sat five Civil War veterans, James Allen, Lucius Foster, Chauncey Ellsworth, Rev. Baker, and Mr. Hotchkiss. Mr. Quimby, substituting for Mr. Verplanck, who has delivered an address at each of the assemblies held in observance of Memorial Day ever since their institution and was absent from this one only through sheer necessity, spoke in honor of these men who had offered their "all" for the sake of the Union.

Each of the veterans was introduced to the audience by Mr. Quimby, who noted that the total ages of the five men amounted to over four hundred and fifty years and that two of the men were over ninety-two years of age.

The Boys' Glee Club sang Taps in an impressive fashion as the part of the assembly program devoted to the celebration of Memorial Day was brought to a close. The remainder of the program was devoted to a very short baseball rally conducted by Mr. Quimby. He reminded the student body of the importance of the game in a spirited fashion, and then called on Carle Cuddeberly to lead one big cheer. The success of this rally was proven by the fact that there was a large crowd at the game despite the inclement weather.

The site for the White House at Washington, D. C., was selected by President Washington and Major Pierre L'Enfant when they laid out the city of Washington in 1791.

KILLS WIFE AND SELF

Los Angeles, June 2.—(AP)—Domestic strife which for years caused David G. Borst, 67, and his wife, 64, to live in the same apartment separated by locked doors and without speaking, had been ended today by murder and suicide.

The Borsts, apparently in comfortable circumstances, were married in 1912, but neighbors said that disagreement, apparently marred their marriage from the start. Mrs. Borst recently filed suit for divorce, and only an hour before her death yesterday sold her automobile for $500.

Mrs. Borst's body was found pierced by two bullets. Her hand held the check for the car. A few feet away Borst, a bullet through his brain, still clutched a new pistol. Police decided a quarrel over the money for the automobile merely hastened an act Borst planned after the divorce was filed.

TODDY FLANT BURNS

Jamestown, N. Y., June 2.—(AP)—Fire early today swept the Toddy Manufacturing Company plant at Watts Flats, 10 miles west of here, causing a loss estimated at $100,000, and for a time threatened several other buildings nearby, including those of the Erie railroad.

The blaze was discovered shortly after 1 a. m. by workmen and before firemen could reach the scene was beyond control. The concern manufactures a beverage composed in part of powdered milk and it is believed the fire started in one of the boxes containing this powder. The building, a three story structure, is one of several similar plants operated by the Toddy company. Head offices of the company are at Rochester.

SENSE and NONSENSE

Send Out "Moving Cards." The latest thing in announcement cards is a "moving card" sent out by tenants to their friends after they have moved to another apartment or to another part of town.

Where God Walks. A garden is a lovely thing. God wot! Rose plot—Fringed pool—Ferned grot—The veriest school Of peace; and yet the fool Contends that God is not—Not God, in gardens! when eve is cool?

What Do You Think of This, Watson? After the judge, bailiff, and clerk vainly sought to run a skunk out of a courtroom here, the animal jumped out the window when a lawyer appeared.

Vacation Ditty. The rain is raining all around: Vacation days are damp: It rains a lot on many folks But mostly those who camp.

These hot June days it is rather a hard task for the women to try in rouge and keep their talcum dry.

There is a musical instrument called the lyre, and there is a fisherman called the same thing only it's not spelled that way.

Blue Fingernails are to be all the rage this summer, says a Paris style hint. The best way to acquire them is to lay a stair carpet with an untrained tack hammer.

"In my collection of old photos, I have the picture of a newly married couple, the bride standing beside the sitting groom, with her hand on his shoulder." And if we

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS:

Fashions are no longer "straight" from Paris. may believe what her neighbors say, she has kept her hand on his shoulder ever since, except when she changes to a grip on his nose.

Lady—Conductor, there's a man in my berth. Pullman Conductor—Well, Number Thirteen ain't so unlucky then, is it, madam?

City Visitor (noticing how industrious the farmer's wife is)—Mr. Perkins, you have a very hard working wife. Mr. Perkins—You're right, I wish I had a couple more like her.

Few newspaper men are ever troubled with high blood pressure on account of an increased circulation.

"Your flowers beds this summer have been a regular Paradise," a man complimented to a neighbor one day last week as they discussed the lawns and yards of the city.

Fishermen report that fish are staying much nearer shore this year. Who wouldn't with what you can see on the beaches!

Very few women ever suffer such a thing as "untold" agony. June brides who will not cook keep their husbands in hot water.

The Nut Cracker

Joe O'Goofy has just returned from the Kentucky Derby, where he achieved undying fame by not being one of the reporters who wrote a poem about Earl Sande.

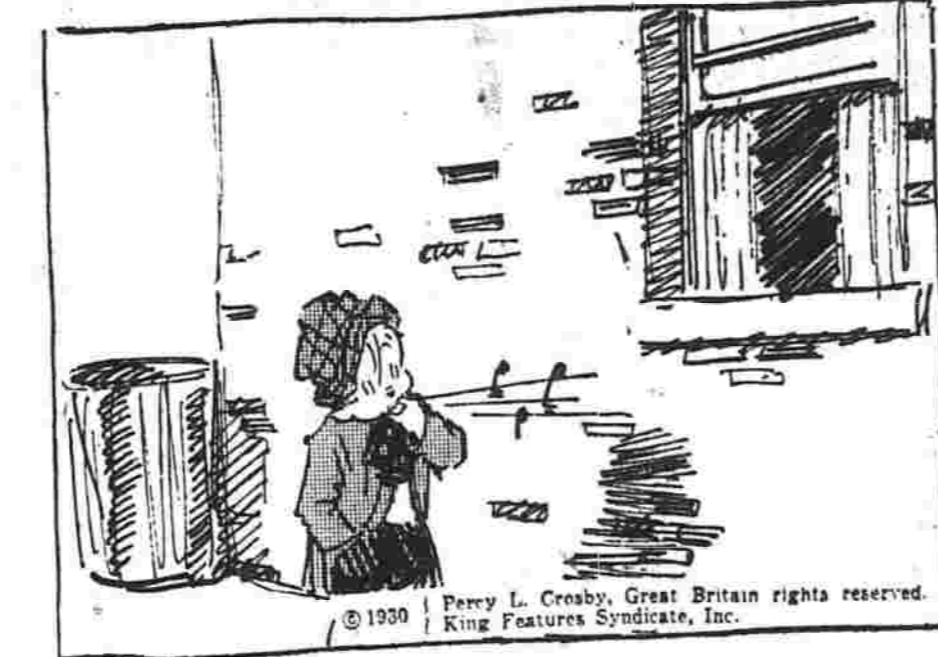

The watch company that offered shiny little pocket clocks to Cub players who hit home runs certainly started a lot of timely hitting.

With the lively ball such as it is, O'Goofy is thinking of offering a watch to every infielder who stops a grounder—but you see O'Goofy has a little Scotch in him.

The visitors had 20 runs before the seventh inning; "That's nothing," loyal rooters said, "We're but 12 short of winning."

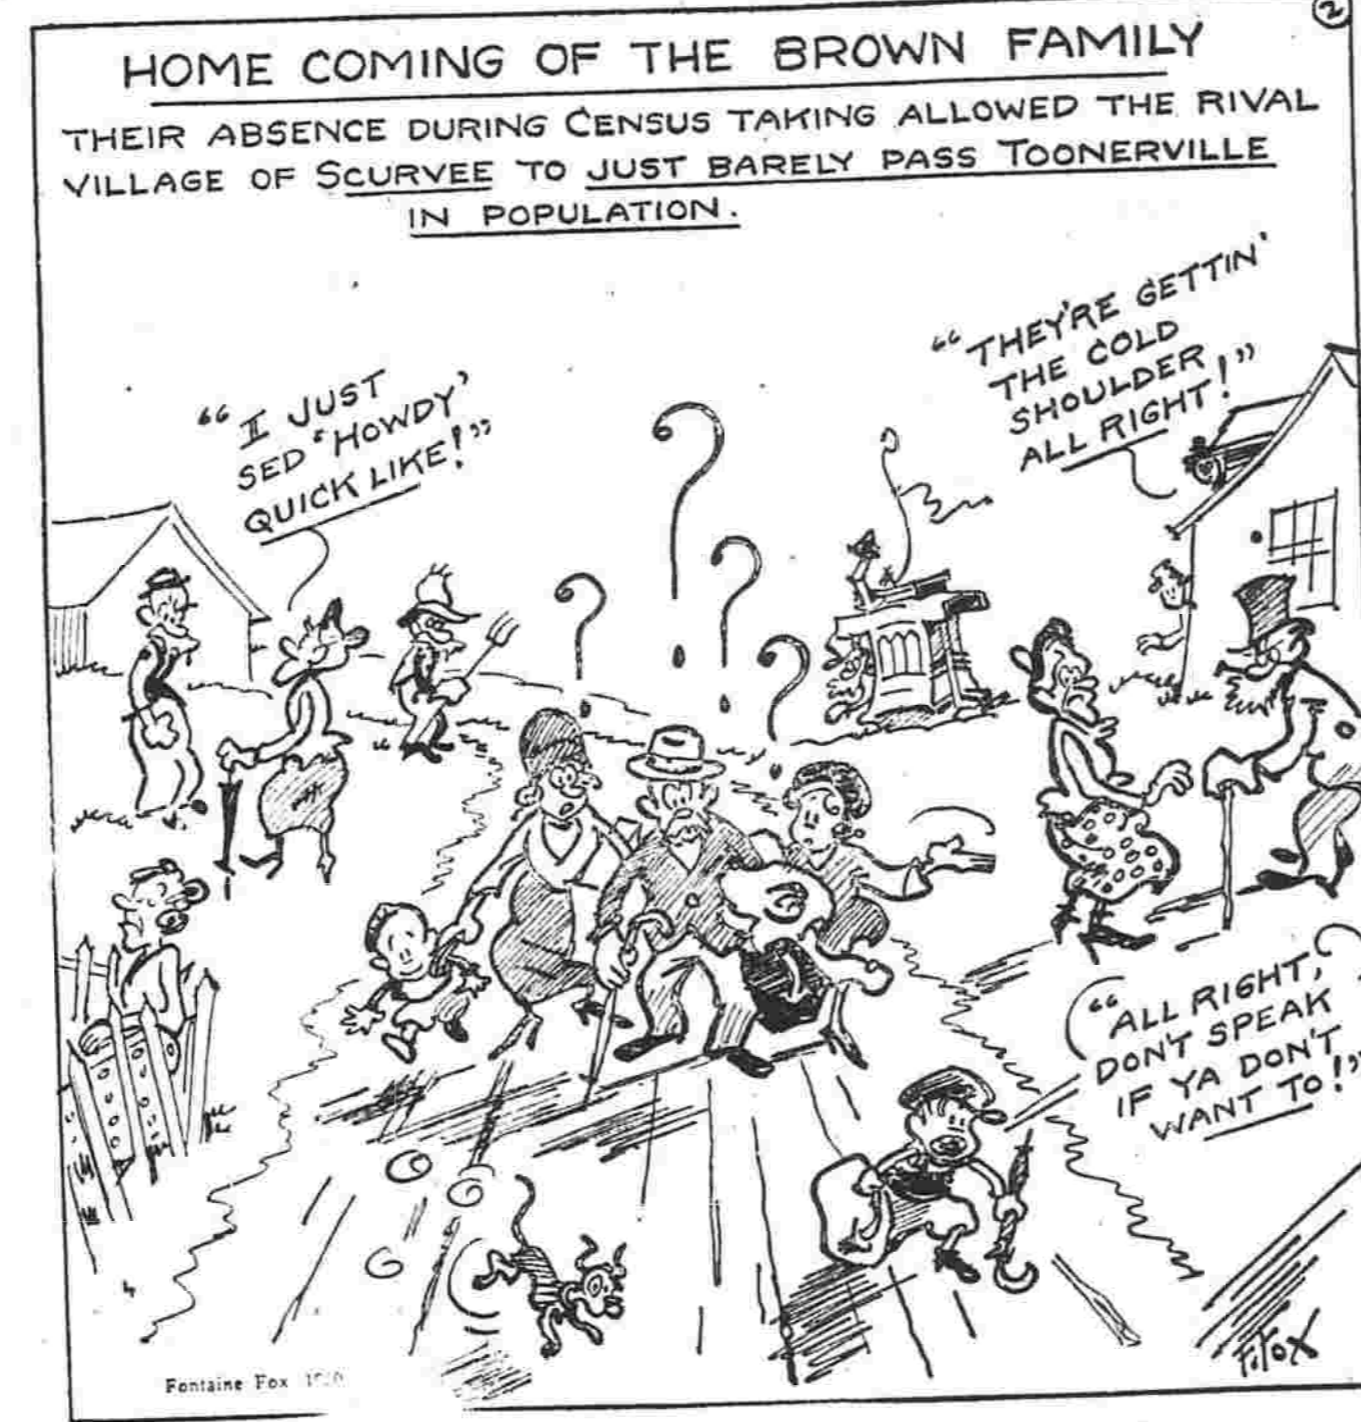

An Indian named Jim Clinkstock has joined the wrestling racket. There is no reason why an Indian can't succeed in this form of burlesque. Wasn't it the Indians who used to shoot from behind trees?

THE TINYMIES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE.) The Tinies all seemed very glad to help pitch grain. Of course they'd had a very restful looking spell. A little work felt good. Wee Scouty grabbed a pitchfork and he shouted, "I think this is grand. We fellows never get as much hard labor as we should."
