

AGAIN REFUSES A PARDON FOR FAMOUS LIFER

Governor Young Declines Clemency to Tom Mooney and His Companion, War- ren Billings—Needs More Information.

Los Angeles, July 8.—(AP)—Governor C. C. Young today declined to pardon Thomas J. Mooney, who is serving a life sentence for the 1916 San Francisco Preparedness Day bombing.

Until some further light is shed upon the case, which I do not now possess," the governor said, "I manifestly must accept the conclusions of the Supreme Court and the Advisory Pardon Board."

In a statement the governor said he considered the Warren K. Billings and the Mooney cases parallel, and both men were innocent or both were guilty.

The Supreme Court last week declined to recommend a pardon for Billings, also serving a life sentence for the bombing which killed ten persons and injured 40. The Advisory Pardon Board decided late yesterday Mooney was not entitled to a pardon.

Governor's Comments
"I would respectfully suggest to the members of the Supreme Court," the governor said, "should John McDonald, or any other material witness who has repudiated his former testimony, appear before them for the purpose of proving such repudiations as trustworthy, and that their former testimony was perjured, it may be only just and right to consider the propriety of giving hearing to such witnesses in the case of Billings, just as I should desire to do in the case of Mooney."

"Until the truth of the repudiating affidavits can be definitely established, no one can question the decision of the Supreme Court or the reasoning of the Advisory Pardon Board for there are certainly some portions of McDonald's affidavits which appear patently untrustworthy."

"For instance, in his affidavit

ROCKEFELLER 91 YEARS OLD TODAY

Richest Man Spends Day Quietly At His Vast Es- tate Near Tarrytown, N. Y.

Tarrytown, N. Y., July 8.—(AP)—John D. Rockefeller was 91 years old today.

But the world in general probably took more note of it than did the retired gentleman of the Standard Oil millions, who in his prime was one of the greatest industrial giants of modern times.

Except in slight details, the day's routine was the same as on hundreds of other days since his retirement from active business life 20 years ago.

Plans Quiet Day
On his Pocantico Hills estate—so vast that he can take his afternoon automobile ride without ever leaving his own property or being seen by the public—Rockefeller spends the day doing the same thing at the same hour as on other days that stretch back and back through the years in an endless procession of quiet, leisurely, pleasant monotony.

Miles away in New York, through every part of the country than ever before in my life, and it is needless to state that I am unspeakably grateful.

Best of Health
"I am in the best of health, surrounded by dear friends, and have naught but good will toward all."

Today's program called for the bestowal of many bright, new dimes on servants, guests and members of the family of the man who has given away, in larger sums, more money than most men ever possess.

SCOUTS' INVITATION
Auburn, N. Y., July 8.—(AP)—John D. Rockefeller, on his 91st birthday today had an invitation to revive the days of his youth in the old haunts. Forty-two Boy Scouts of Cayuga county, in camp on Orisco Lake, in almost the exact spot where Rockefeller lived as a boy, penned and signed the invitation about their campfire, asking him to return and fish with them and play with them where he learned to angle with a bent pin as a lad.

"If you let us know when you're coming, we will have Scouts up along the main road to show you the drive down to our camp," the letter said.

KILLS 9 YEAR-OLD BOY WHO AWAKENED HIM

San Jose, Cal., July 8.—(AP)—Rescued from a threatening crowd after he had shot and fatally wounded Joseph Pagliaro, 8, Antonio Colosimo, 28, was being held today on a murder charge. Police said Colosimo fired because Joseph and two other boys were disturbing his slumber.

The boys climbed on the roof of Colosimo's cabin yesterday. Angered at being awakened, Colosimo shouted a warning and then fired through a hole in the wall with a shotgun. Joseph, sitting on a fence beside the cabin, received the charge in his back.

BRITAIN BIDS LIPTON GOODBYE AND GOOD LUCK

Notables Say Farewell To Noted Irish Yachtsman "On Eve of Sailing for the United States."

London, July 8.—(AP)—Britain today officially said farewell to Sir Thomas Lipton, the noted Irish yachtsman, on the eve of his fifth attempt to bring back the America's Cup. The Prince of Wales personally conveyed a message of Godspeed to Sir Thomas at a complimentary luncheon at Fishmongers' Hall which overlooks the 1,000-year-old Billingsgate fish market at London bridge.

Sir Thomas is going to sail shortly with his Shamrock V for New York and Newport.

The Prince of Wales said, "All we ask, gentlemen, is a turn of the luck. I believe it will be as popular in America as here if Sir Thomas, at eighty years of age, brings back the America's Cup."

Reads His Speech
Sir Thomas, who is 80 years old, rose to respond. He started to deliver his "farewell" speech from memory, but soon faltered, adjusted his spectacles, and read the rest of it from manuscript.

His speech was a tribute to the Americans for their fair play and square dealing in many past races. Turning to the prospects of his Shamrock V, he evinced an enthusiasm which seemed to say, "I am not too old as yet. I am going to show them this time."

Sir Thomas's voice trembled somewhat as he declared that the Shamrock would "put up a good fight. Shamrock V is a very fast boat, and she has a reasonable chance of success."

Rudyard Kipling who sat two seats away, wearing an American soft collar of ample dimensions, nodded his head vigorously.

To the America's Cup he referred as "that illusive mug," "Americans always won fairly and

(Continued on Page Three.)

DOLLAR'S BUYING POWER GOES UP

Saving of $3 Monthly in Purchasing $50 Worth of Food for Family.

Washington, July 8.—(AP)—Ethelbert Stewart, commissioner of labor statistics, reports that the purchasing power of the retail or "home" dollar applied to foodstuffs last May was $1.06 compared with $1 in July, 1929. For a family whose monthly outlay for food is about $50, the saving is from $2.50 to $3 a month.

Government economists say that while a decline in retail prices is virtually never commensurate with the drop in wholesale prices, the current slump in the latter should add some power to the home dollar.

The retail prices of 22 articles of food decreased from April 15 to May 15, the latest period on which prices are available. The prices of seven articles increased while 13 showed no change. Since May, however, the general trend has been downward, the reduction in meat prices being a notable feature.

The wholesale price level of all commodities in May was the lowest it has been since September, 1916. The wholesale purchasing power of the 1926 dollar for all commodities was $1.12 in May. It is greater today. Farm products, foods, cotton and woolen goods, silk, rayon, fuel, drugs and furniture have dropped in wholesale prices.

While up-to-the-minute figures

(Continued on Page Three.)

MOONEY PARDON AGAIN REFUSED

Thomas J. Mooney, right, and Warren K. Billings, left, now serving life terms for San Francisco Preparedness Day bomb explosion in 1916 were refused pardons today by Gov. C. C. Young (lower center). The picture in the upper center shows Mooney as he appeared when he entered prison more than a decade ago.

LINDY TELLS LEAGUE FAULTS OF AVIATION

Says There Is Great Need Now for Standardization of Flying Laws in the Various Countries.

Lincoln, Neb., July 8.—(AP)—A plunge from an airplane, soaring over the Municipal Airport late yesterday cost the life of Miss Alberta Brinkerhoff, 21 year old University of Nebraska co-ed.

A few minutes before the pilot, one low winged monoplane, Pete Orr, had pulled the young woman back into the cockpit of the ship after she had stepped out on the wing. He was preparing to land the ship, when the young woman again climbed out on the wing and fell to earth from an altitude of approximately 1,200 feet.

Friends of the university senior said she had not been despondent and could advance no cause for her actions.

Arranges for Flight
Arriving at the airport in a taxi cab, Miss Brinkerhoff arranged to make a brief flight. Orr, pilot for a flying school, began warming up the motor of the ship, and Miss Brinkerhoff laughingly remarked that she was getting nervous.

The plans revolved down the runway and was soon high above the airport. Before the take-off, Miss Brinkerhoff had been strapped in the cockpit.

When the ship reached a high altitude she stepped out on the wing. The pilot grabbed her and pulled her back into the cockpit. While he was regaining control of the plane, the young woman again climbed out on the wing and plunged to earth, he said.

Other Systems
"There are instances where only aircraft registered within a country and carrying its markings are allowed to operate. Others in which it is required that a native pilot be carried in certain countries a visiting pilot must qualify for a license before he is permitted

(Continued on Page Three.)

DO THIS FOR THE TINY TOTS' SAKE

"WE ALL HOPE YOU WON'T LEAVE US BEHIND WHEN YOU HIE AWAY ON YOUR VACATION"

Two Policemen and Two Na- tives Killed—Fear Ser- ious Trouble.

Cairo, Egypt, July 8.—(AP)—Two policemen and two rioters were killed today at Mansurah in a furious and prolonged encounter between armed forces and followers of the recently resigned Premier Nakhass Pasha. The police fired into the mob which offered stubborn resistance.

A pitched battle was raging in the center of Mansurah, which the police and a detachment of troops appeared unable to end.

Nakhass in Fight
The Nakhass Pasha who was in his motor car, was in the thick of the fighting.

Mansurah is a notorious Wafd stronghold. The Wafd executive committee held a meeting last night to discuss its future program. The members decided to proceed by ordinary train over the state railway by way of Tanta, this forenoon.

A prominent member of the Wafd executive body informed the news papers that the Wafd would do its utmost to hold its meeting in Mansurah notwithstanding a prohibition by the government on the use of the Delta railways.

TEASURY BALANCE
Washington, July 8.—(AP)—Treasury receipts for July 8 were $7,285,195.99; expenditures, $11,768,218.50; balance, $692,977,111.47.

LEGAL BATTLE OVER BILLION IS CONTINUED

Stockholders Attempting to Prevent Merger of Mon- ster Steel Companies; Campbell On Stand Today.

Youngstown, O., July 8.—(AP)—Trial of the stockholders' injunction suit to prevent merger of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company with the Bethlehem Steel Corporation was resumed in Mahoning county Common Pleas Court today with James A. Campbell, 70-year old chairman of the board of the Youngstown company, on the witness stand.

The trial—involving a billion dollars—started June 26 and halted dramatically three days later with the suicide of Leroy A. Manchester, chief counsel for Youngstown Sheet and Tube.

Campbell was called to the stand as a hostile witness for cross examination by the plaintiffs.

Questioned by Harry Crawford, one of the attorneys associated with Luther Day of Cleveland in the conduct of the plaintiffs' suit, Campbell revealed the history of the Youngstown company from its organization in 1900 with capital of $650,000 to the present day, when its assets total more than $285,000,000.

He testified the Youngstown company has always paid cash dividends during the past 25 years.

"Isn't it the truth," Crawford asked the veteran steel man "that Bethlehem (Steel Corporation) only wanted to get control of Youngstown for its Chicago plants?"

"I don't know," Campbell answered, "I suppose that was a big item."

Saying that the Bethlehem corporation had exchanged costs with the Youngstown company, Campbell denied the two firms were competitors to any great extent.

Other Proposals
Crawford led Campbell over other merger considerations of the Youngstown company, namely, with Republic Iron and Steel, Trucon steel, and Inland steel. Merger with the latter was approved by directors of both concerns, he said, and then called off by the Inland company because some of the large stockholders were dissatisfied.

Campbell said he later reopened negotiations with the Inland company at the solicitation of Cyrus S. Eaton, Cleveland capitalist, who is now the leader of the opposition to the merger with Bethlehem.

Former Secretary of War Newton D. Baker who heads the defense legal battery, charged at the

(Continued on Page Three.)

KING GEORGE OPENS NEW INDIA HOUSE

In Address Monarch Ex- presses Hope for Peace in the Near Future.

London, July 8.—(AP)—A new India House was opened in London by King George today with an expression of hope for the emergence of India from her present troublous era into days of peace and contentment.

The restoration of a true understanding of the unity of the greater commonwealth of which India is a part, King George said, would aid in solving India's destiny.

The building, a beautiful new governmental structure in the heart of London, will house the various trade and commercial interests of India, as Australia House on the Strand long has those of the Australian Commonwealth.

Critical Period
"At this critical period of India's history, when the thoughts of all people are centered upon constructive effort and upon laying well and truly the foundation of India of the future," King George asserted, "I regard it as a happy augury to be able to open a building which marks the end of one period of adversity and the beginning of a new era."

See Unity
"But India House stands for

(Continued on Page Three.)

DEBATE ON TREATY BEGUN IN SENATE; GALLERY CROWDED

Just One Over a Quorum Present As Senator Swan- son Makes Long Address Favoring the Pact—Lead- ers Preparing for Vote on First Issues Raised by Treaty Opponents, a De- mand for Secret Docu- ments.

BAND CONCERTS START TONIGHT

Series Begins At Center Park—Waddell To Intro- duce the Program.

Manchester's first series of band concerts since the weekly concerts of years ago at the West Side, will be inaugurated tonight at Center Park with a two-hour program by the Salvation Army Band, under the leadership of David Addy, Geo. H. Waddell as chairman of the band

Washington, July 8.—(AP)—The Senate began debate on the London naval treaty today with Senator Swanson, ranking Democrat on the foreign relations and naval committees, advocating ratification.

As the Virginian spoke, leaders were preparing for a vote on the first issues raised by the pact's opponents—a demand for the documents relating to the London conference which President Hoover has denied the foreign relations committee.

A division of opinion prevailed on the resolution to that end offered by Senator McKellar, Democrat, Tennessee. Some leaders proposed to have it voted upon as quickly as possible, believing it would make no difference whether it was adopted or not, inasmuch as the President already has decided to withhold the papers. Others wanted to defeat the resolution, and wanted to make a fight against it. There is doubt as to the outcome of the vote.

Swanson's Address
Senator Swanson's 12,000 word analysis of the treaty and his demand for ratification cheered the advocates. He was the war-time chairman of the Senate naval committee and always has been regarded as a staunch preparedness advocate.

There were indications that the treaty proponents were willing to rest their case on Swanson's speech and the message presented yesterday by President Hoover. The Virginian said the treaty gives America a well-balanced fleet for the first time; establishes naval supremacy for this country in the western hemisphere; saves the taxpayers at least one billion dollars by checking naval competition and is "promotive of peace."

Today's opening quorum call showed just 50 Senators answering—only one more than the 49 necessary to carry on business.

Secretary Stimson, who headed the American delegation to London, arrived on the Senate floor shortly after Senator Swanson began his address.

For the most part the Senate membership remained through the long speech and gave it close attention. The galleries again were filled.

WATCH FRENCH ISLANDS
Paris, July 8.—(AP)—The French ministry of colonies is keeping an eye on shipments of liquor to and from the islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon, but no official action of any kind has as yet been taken, according to official quarters.

Some three months ago United States Ambassador Walter E. Edge asked informally for statistics on the liquor trade of these islands, but the foreign office replied that no figures were available.

It is understood that the ambassador's request was repeated at a later date, but that so far the French authorities have been unable to comply with it.

The American government at no time has protested at alleged shipments of liquor from these French islands to the United States. The Paris authorities are merely watching the situation with a view of taking steps in case French law should be violated.

SWANSON DEFENDS LONDON SEA PACT

Senator From Virginia Says Best Interests of U. S. De- mands Its Ratification.

Washington, July 7.—(AP)—The London naval treaty was championed at the outset of Senate debate on the pact today by Senator Swanson, Democrat of Virginia, the war-time chairman of the Senate naval committee.

In an exhaustive 12,000-word address, Senator Swanson made a detailed analysis of the agreement limiting the auxiliary ships of the American, British and Japanese navies and called for its ratification as in "the best interests of the United States."

The Virginian said the treaty gives America a well-balanced fleet for the first time; establishes naval supremacy for this country in the western hemisphere; saves the taxpayers at least one billion dollars by checking naval competition; and is "promotive of peace, conducive of good will among the nations involved, and marks the beginning of a more complete treaty for the limitation of armaments."

Knows His Subject
Swanson's leadership in the treaty debate opening today was hailed by advocates of the pact. The Virginian Democrat is intimately acquainted with both the naval and foreign affairs situation. He is the ranking member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

(Continued on Page Two.)

Once Worth 75 Millions Now Faces Jail Sentence

Uniontown, Pa., July 8.—(AP)—Once worth more than $75,000,000, J. V. Thompson, former Fayette county banker and coal operator, might raise $200,000 by July 31 or serve an indeterminate jail sentence for contempt of court.

The money is needed to meet notes Thompson gave while trustee of two estates here, one that of John Niccolini, father of the Princess of Thurn and Taxis. The case was brought into court by the princess, who is Thompson's niece.

Attributed in court here yesterday, Thompson, once an opponent for the governorship of Pennsylvania, confessed inability to meet the obligations made was about to be sentenced to jail when his attorneys sought and obtained a 24 day stay.

33 Years Ago, Hale's Store Was Founded

Thirty-three years ago today the J. W. Hale Co. started in business at their present location on the corner of Oak and Main streets in Manchester. A veteran of nearly a quarter of a century of association with Manchester people when the new store was opened, Mr. Hale looked forward with rare vision to a larger, more modern establishment at this, the town's most central location for a business enterprise. The early and original plans of the founder of Manchester's best known store were based on many years experience in dealing with the families of South Manchester and the results of his work and enthusiastic application to the cherished plans he had so long treasured.

His Experience
Mr. Hale came to South Manchester with several years experience in store work of the old days. He had been employed as a clerk, bookkeeper and general salesman for a western Massachusetts store and after a number of years in the neighboring state he accumulated a little money by dint of hard untiring labor in the then long hours which constituted an average day's work.

Finis Partner
Upon his arrival in town he immediately looked around for a business location, having decided the time was ripe to launch his own business and he formed a partnership with George Day, the firm then being known as the Hale-Day Company. The store was located on Main street.

Dry Goods Speciality
One year later Mr. Hale bought out Mr. Day's interest and opened a dry goods store in the Orford block known as the Boston Store. The new proprietor discarded the old policy that had been a part of all stores of the period, unlimited credit and the old general store idea prevalent at that time and instead specialized on dry goods entirely. This was really the early beginning of the present J. W. Hale Company.

Well Known
The Boston Store continued to prosper under the able guidance of "Bud" Hale, the stocky, energetic and always good-natured proprietor. He became known in all sections of Hartford county for his reliability and integrity, always interesting himself in seeing that his customers were fairly treated and that they received their deserving values from each purchase made at his store. He became known as a man who would give "100 cents value for a dollar spent." The policy of the early founder of the company has been continued in all the business dealings with its patrons and is reflected in the ever increasing patronage from this town and surrounding sections.

Center of Trade
The story of the rapid strides of the early Hale store is known to the older people in Manchester. During the twelve years that the J. W. Hale Company conducted the business in the Oak Hall block, the store was the gathering place and market point of the new generation just beginning. The business of the village had advanced from the early store at the corner of Charter Oak and Hartford Road northward and with the dimming of the old, the J. W. Hale Company was the leader in the new location.

Building Burned
In 1909 the Oak Hall block was destroyed by fire and a temporary store was built on Oak street in rear of the present store while plans were being drawn for the present store building. When the new building was completed the company moved in to the largest store space in town and the business again sprang to new heights. In the years that followed the company has added many new departments to the original store until 28 separate departments are now housed under one roof, the town's largest and most up-to-date store.

The J. W. Hale Co., in observing the Thirty-third anniversary of opening for business at their present location have adhered strictly to the life-long aspirations of the founder and have arranged for store-wide sales values as seen in the columns of today's paper.

ATTACKS HUSBAND WITH A HATCHET

Potsdam, N. Y., July 8.—(AP)—Officials today believed they had cleared up the mystery connected with the killing last night of Mrs. Theobald Parmenter Kirk, 28, and her husband, Leland Kirk, 28, in their home near here.

The finding of a note, written by Mrs. Kirk before the tragedy, was indicated as the key to the slaying. The contents were not divulged, but District Attorney Ingram characterized the affair as "plainly the work of a maniac."

Officials, as a result of their investigation, have drawn the conclusion that Mrs. Kirk, in a mentally deranged state, attacked her husband with a hatchet which he slept, and cut her own throat with a razor. The couple's two children, aged 5 and 3, the only witnesses, did not seem to realize the significance of the situation.

"Kills out herself," the five year old child, Kirk, unconscious at a hospital, is not expected to live. Authorities are hoping he may regain consciousness that they may learn more details from him.

COMMERCIAL AIRPLANE LOST, LANDS IN BOLTON

Two Men Come Down, Ask Directions and Take Off Again for Hartford.

A touring plane enroute from New York city to Springfield landed in a field in Bolton owned by R. H. Jones this noon. The news of the aviators could not be learned, but after a successful three-point landing in the nose too smooth emergency landing spot the visitors admitted having lost their way and dropped down to get directions.

After five minutes stop and the receipt of the desired directions they took off again for Hartford and Springfield.

It is an unusual circumstance for passing flyers to lose their direction while flying in this vicinity. The plane was seen to land in the East by the clear air from the point of landing in Bolton and other points by which their direction should have been maintained could have been easily located. Undoubtedly both were student flyers on their first flight east.

RETURNS TO MANCHESTER FROM PHOENIX, ARIZ.

George Mulholland, formerly of Delmont street, and an employe of the Orford Soap factory, has returned to Manchester for a visit and may possibly locate permanently. It will be remembered he left for Phoenix, Arizona, nearly two years ago on account of his wife's health. Mrs. Mulholland died after they had lived there six months, and the elder of their two daughters was married in the West. Mr. Mulholland was employed by the Santa Fe railroad. He says business is no better there than in Manchester, but owing to the land boom, real estate is held at prohibitory prices.

Mr. Mulholland brings the greetings of Rev. Charles M. and Mrs. Calderwood to their many friends here. Mr. Calderwood for a number of years was pastor of Second Congregational church. He left to take charge of the pastorate of the Congregational church at Lee, Mass., from which he transferred to Glendale, California, near Los Angeles. During his pastorate there a number of new churches were built and not long afterward Mr. Calderwood gave up his rapidly growing parish in Glendale for his present church in Phoenix, Arizona. According to Mr. Mulholland the Calderwoods are getting along well in Phoenix.

KILLS WOMAN, SELF
Chicago, July 8.—(AP)—Mrs. Bessie Lahey, 38, mother of five young children, was shot to death by a rejected suitor today while she slept with three of her offspring. Her slayer, Alfred Geisler, 43, then killed himself. Mrs. Lahey was divorced.

Geisler's sister, with whom Mrs. Lahey lived, said her brother entered the house and went directly to Mrs. Lahey's bedroom, knocking her twice in the heart. The sister killed herself. Mrs. Lahey had refused his repeated proposals, saying she did not wish to burden anyone with her children. Geisler had been a widower two years.

HOME BANK NAMES 3 NEW DIRECTORS

W. B. Rogers, W. J. Shea and John F. Sullivan Increase Board to Fifteen.

Announcement was made today of the addition of three new directors of the Home Bank and Trust Company following a meeting of the stockholders. The new members are Police Commissioner W. B. Rogers, Attorney William J. Shea and John F. Sullivan, former owner and manager of the Park theater here.

W. B. Rogers

W. J. Shea

There are twelve members of the board of directors, Alexander Amott, Albert T. Dewey, Carl E. Johansson, Edward S. Goodwin, George W. Kuhney, Luigi Polin, Thomas J. Rogers, Lewis H. Sipe, George W. Strain, John Spillane, George H. Waddell and Thomas H.

John F. Sullivan

Weldon. The additional three makes a total of fifteen.

All three of the new directors are well known in Manchester. Mr. Rogers needs no introduction at all because of the active interest he had long taken in town affairs. Mr. Shea is engaged in law practice and has already acquired a wide field. Mr. Sullivan served as a director at the bank for five years and resigned about five years ago.

FISHER BODY STRIKE PRACTICALLY ENDED

Flint, Mich., July 8.—(AP)—The labor troubles which have centered about the Number 1 plant of the Fisher Body Corporation here for the past week appeared to have ended today as the factory carried on its operations with two-thirds of its normal force.

Factory officials announced that 3,500 men were at work. About 1,000 more were lined up at the employment offices.

Leaders of the striking employes who walked out last Tuesday, insisted that the strike had not been broken. A delegation of strikers planned to seek an interview with R. J. Whiting, plant manager, today. Whiting, who Saturday offered the workmen their 1929 pay scale with a six months guarantee, said he would not grant another interview.

During the night 17 persons, a number of them alleged labor agitators, were arrested. Among those held were Robert Woods of Detroit, secretary of the Michigan branch of the National Auto Workers Union.

The police raided an alleged Communist gathering and arrested 13 men with a quantity of literature. The assembly was said to have no particular connection with the present controversy.

TALL CEDARS OUTING AT EAST HAMPTON

All Members of Forests in This State to Gather at Carrier's Saturday, July 19.

All of the Tall Cedars of Lebanon in Connecticut will hold a joint outing at East Hampton Lake, Saturday, July 19. Members of Nutmeg, the local Forest, are leaders in planning for the affair. The local committee consists of James O. Baker, Thomas Smith, Howard Hagedorn, Harold Futer, Gus Ulrich, William Forbes and William M. Anderson.

The outing will be held at Carrier's Cottage with cater serving claim out at 1:30 and a chicken and spaghetti dinner at 5:30. Games and sports of all kinds will be on the program for the afternoon.

Local Tall Cedars will leave here at 1 o'clock going to the lake in private cars.

GEN. HINES HEADS VETERANS AFFAIRS

President Places Him in Charge of Combined Organizations — Important Post.

Washington, July 8.—(AP)—Brigadier General Frank T. Hines will be appointed administrator of Veterans Affairs under the new consolidation of veterans agencies.

President Hoover announced his selection today. The general now is director of the Veterans Bureau. Asserting the consolidated budget for the three organizations next year would amount to approximately $800,000,000, Mr. Hoover said it becomes one of the major activities of the government.

"The consolidation of his statement on consolidation of the veterans activities said:

"One of the most important steps taken in reorganization of the Federal government was the legislation carrying out my recommendation for a consolidation of all veterans agencies—that is, the Veterans Bureau, an independent establishment; the Pensions Bureau from the Department of Interior and the Soldiers Home from the War Department.

"The bill places large authority in the hands of the President for the consolidation and reorganization of the bureaus under the title of the Veterans Administration, with the appointment of a new head to be called 'Administrator of Veterans Affairs.'

"I have prepared the necessary executive order in compliance with the authority under the act. It is proposed to combine the Veterans Bureau with the present office of the Soldiers Home and the Pensions Bureau, as separate divisions under the veterans administration, but to transfer certain functions from one to the other so as to bring about economies and avoid overlaps. The transfer of functions will take place gradually and avoid disturbance to the administration.

"General George H. Wood will be continued as head of the Soldiers Home. The board of managers will probably be constituted into an advisory board. The Pensions Bureau will be administered by an acting commissioner of pensions for the present. The Veterans Bureau will be acting director.

"I propose to appoint General Hines as 'Administrator of Veterans Affairs.' General Hines has been offered a very important commercial position, but has agreed to remain on temporarily to give me the advantage of his wide experience in reorganization of the new set-up.

"As I have said, we will be able to make important economies in administration of hospitalization and domiciliary questions and in the better handling of fiscal relations with veterans throughout the entire organization. The consolidated budget of these services for the present fiscal year amounts to approximately $800,000,000, so that the new establishment becomes one of the most important functions of the government."

AGAIN REFUSES A PARDON FOR FAMOUS LIFER

(Continued from Page 1)

McDonald says that no positive identification of either Mooney or Ellings was made by him; that Ellings had not been seen since the day of Mooney's cell and said: "This is your man, this is Mooney, and that he subsequently took him to Billings's cell, asked a turnkey to open the door and said: 'Come out here, Billings.'"

"Upon careful investigation I am convinced that nothing of this kind occurred, nor can anyone believe that Billings and Mooney, and their attorneys, knew of such a spurious identification of these services for the present to the matter in either of the trials."

BOLTON.
The Tolland County Farm Bureau will hold a meeting on Thursday afternoon at which a demonstration of furniture and chair manufacture will be given. Mrs. Marion Lowe, home economist will demonstrate the art of cooking foods using a modern pressure cooker. Mrs. Sarah Dimmock will be in charge of the meeting.

OBITUARY

DEATHS

John Bauer
John Bauer, age 67, a resident of Manchester for the past 40 years, died at his home, 106 Woodbridge street, this morning following a lingering illness. Mr. Bauer was well known in the north end where he had lived a great many years. He was employed by Cheney Brothers 37 years.

His wife survives him as do two daughters, Mrs. Walter Miller, of Hartford, and Miss Lena Bauer, who lives at home, and one son, Theodore Bauer, of Hartford. There are also two grandchildren. One sister, Mrs. Adam Fountain, of this town and one brother, Michael Bauer, of Long Island City, N. Y., also survive.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at two o'clock from Mr. Bauer's late home, Rev. E. F. R. Stehobols of the First Methodist church, 113 Prospect street, officiating, and burial will be in the Buckland cemetery.

SWANSON DEFENDS LONDON SEA PACT

(Continued from Page One)

member of his party on both of these Senate committees.

"Whether controlled by selfish, material interests or by broader, nobler purposes of promoting world peace and settlement," he concluded, "the best interests of the United States demand ratification of this treaty."

"From military and selfish standpoint, the United States cannot afford to reject this treaty. From a higher and nobler purpose the treaty should have our approval. It would create in the rest of the world an apprehension that we had sinister purposes to serve when we rejected the treaty, and would create a mistrust among all the nations of the world, and would result finally in political combinations against us to our detriment and menace. This situation would injure our foreign commerce and retard our material development."

Swanson took up in detail the dominant issue over the limitation of construction of cruisers and the complaint of American naval officers against the restriction upon the number of ships for the United States Navy.

He noted that when the London conference opened Great Britain was in excess of parity with the United States on all kinds of cruisers by 8-1 while Japan was in excess of the 8-1 ratio by 10-1.

"If this treaty is ratified," he continued, "the United States can build five additional 8-inch gun cruisers; Great Britain will have to scrap 4 of the Hawkins class, and Japan will completely lose her new construction. The ratio of 8-inch gun cruisers will then be, United States 10, Great Britain, 8.1 and Japan 6. There certainly can be no complaint as to this."

Reviews Complaints
Reviewing the complaints against limitation on the 8-inch gun cruisers while Great Britain is allowed more of her favored 6-inch gun cruisers, Swanson concluded that "it would be folly to wreck this treaty on the difference in the military value between 27 eight inch guns and 30 six inch guns. He said this difference in the cruisers involves less than 3 per cent of the entire naval tonnage.

"The naval supremacy of the United States is firmly established by the construction of the White Mountain and other places of interest in New England, and are spending a few days with Mrs. Weatherly's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Maxwell of Hamlin street, before taking up their residence in Boston.

Mrs. Samuel Dunlop of Oak street who recently underwent a major operation at the Memorial hospital, has returned to her home.

Friends of Miss Adele Eggert, formerly night supervisor at the Memorial hospital, will regret to learn of the death of her father, Adolph Eggert, of New Britain. Miss Eggert relinquished her duties at the local institution to care for him.

4 CENT MURDER TRIAL
New Haven, July 8.—(AP)—Anthony Mangano, accused of shooting to death Giovanni Carillo, a neighborhood grocer, in a quarrel over four cents, went on trial today in Criminal Superior Court before Judge Frederick M. Pansley.

At noon only two jurors had been accepted.

Mangano, the state charges slay Carillo because his daughter had been short-changed when she went into the store to spend a nickel. The shooting occurred on July 21, 1928. Mangano fled and surrendered only three weeks ago.

Look Who is Returning to SANDY BEACH BALLROOM
Wednesday Ev'g, July 9th
THE FAMOUS DIAMONDS OF PENNSYLVANIA
Marvelous dance band, sensation of the season, returning for their third engagement.
Harry Brinkman and His Orchestra
Saturday, July 12th

to the transport for which it provides. The benefits of an even sailing program extending over a number of years are very great. The Navy is able to employ persons known to the new construction service. The benefit of an even flow of work at both the navy yards and the commercial shipyards is of great benefit to labor in insuring continuous work. This latter is a feature which must be given great consideration in the future.

President, from a military and selfish standpoint, the United States cannot afford to reject this treaty. From a higher and nobler purpose the treaty should have our approval. It is a progressive measure, conducive to good will among the nations, and I hope marks the beginning of a more complete treaty for the limitation of naval armaments."

"For the United States to reject this treaty would be far less to abandon her normal leadership in the world and declaring at the same time that she is an imperialistic nation seeking conquest and expansion. It would create in the rest of the world an apprehension that we had sinister purposes to serve when we rejected the treaty, and would result finally in political combinations against us to our detriment and menace. This situation would injure our foreign commerce and retard our material development."

President, whether controlled by selfish, material interests, or by broader and nobler purposes of promoting world peace and betterment, the best interests of the United States demand the ratification of this treaty."

ABOUT TOWN

Memorial Temple, Pythian Sisters, will meet this evening at 8 o'clock in Odd Fellows' hall. This will be the final meeting until August 26 and Most Excellent Chief Mrs. Sarah DeVarney is hoping for a good turnout of the officers and members.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin B. Taylor and daughter, Lela have moved into their new home recently purchased from Contractor Edwin C. Suncato. The house is English style situated at 113 Prospect street and just south of the new house built by Thomas D. Faulkner. The Taylors were former residents of Whitney street, Hartford.

Mrs. W. P. Wilson, Mrs. Nelson Judd and Mrs. Frank Warner, all of Hamden, and Mrs. F. H. Hastings of Hartford, were guests today of Mrs. Thomas Ferguson of Main street.

Shirley Webb of 23 Lila street celebrated her sixth birthday yesterday with a party of little friends. Refreshments were served at 4 o'clock with games played until 6 o'clock.

All of the public and parochial schools in town are enjoying their summer vacation. Special school sessions are being held in some of the churches, but there is another school that is also subject to call for school sessions, both in the evening and in the morning. Such a school is the one now under construction. The ratio of 8-inch gun cruisers will then be, United States 10, Great Britain, 8.1 and Japan 6. There certainly can be no complaint as to this."

Ensign and Mrs. Horace E. Weatherly have returned from a wedding tour of the White Mountain and other places of interest in New England, and are spending a few days with Mrs. Weatherly's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Maxwell of Hamlin street, before taking up their residence in Boston.

Mrs. Samuel Dunlop of Oak street who recently underwent a major operation at the Memorial hospital, has returned to her home.

Friends of Miss Adele Eggert, formerly night supervisor at the Memorial hospital, will regret to learn of the death of her father, Adolph Eggert, of New Britain. Miss Eggert relinquished her duties at the local institution to care for him.

4 CENT MURDER TRIAL
New Haven, July 8.—(AP)—Anthony Mangano, accused of shooting to death Giovanni Carillo, a neighborhood grocer, in a quarrel over four cents, went on trial today in Criminal Superior Court before Judge Frederick M. Pansley.

At noon only two jurors had been accepted.

Mangano, the state charges slay Carillo because his daughter had been short-changed when she went into the store to spend a nickel. The shooting occurred on July 21, 1928. Mangano fled and surrendered only three weeks ago.

Look Who is Returning to SANDY BEACH BALLROOM
Wednesday Ev'g, July 9th
THE FAMOUS DIAMONDS OF PENNSYLVANIA
Marvelous dance band, sensation of the season, returning for their third engagement.
Harry Brinkman and His Orchestra
Saturday, July 12th

Local Stocks

(Furnished by Putnam & Co., Central Exp., Hartford, Conn.)

Bank Stocks	Bid	Asked
Bankers Trust Co.	325
City Bank and Trust	370
Cap Nat Bank	370
Conn. River	425
Hartford Trust	138	138
First Nat Bank	240
Land Mtg and Title	40
Mutual B&T	220
New Brit Trust	180
Riverside Trust	500
West Hartford	30	35
do, rts
Insurance Stocks
xAetna Casualty	132	130
xAetna Life	78	80
xAutomobile	35	37
Conn General	125	130
Hartford Fire, $10 par	68	70
Hartford Fire, $10 par	60	62
National Fire	96	98
Phoenix Fire	70	79
Travelers	1225	1260
Public Utility Stocks
xConn. Elec Serv	71	75
xConn. Power	77	79
Hart Elec Lt	79	81
Greenwich W&G, pfd	90	95
Hartford Gas	72
do, pfd	45	171
S N E T Co	167	174
do, rts		8 1/2
Manufacturing Stocks
Am Hardware	57	60
Amer Hosiery	30	25
Amer Silver	35	35
Arrow H&H, com	34	35
Automatic Refrig	54	57
xBigelow Sanford	100	100
do, pfd	100	100
Billings and Spencer	3	5
Bristol Brass	15	20
do, pfd	100	100
C Collins Co	100	100
Case, Lockwood and B	23	25
Coll's Firearms	23	25
Eagle Lock	24	28
Fair Bearing	15	18
Fuller Brush, Class A	15	18
Hart & Cooley	140	145
Hartmann Tob, com	60	60
do, 1st pfd	70	80
Inter Silver	105	110
do, pfd	105	110
xLanders, Frary & Ck	65	68
Mann & Bow, Class A	15	17
do, Class B	15	17
xNew Brit. Mch, com	19	21
North & South	25	28
Niles Bam Pond	7	10
Peck, Stow and Wilcox	45	51
Russell Mfg Co, x	45	51
xScovill	49	51
xSeth Thom Co, com	25	25
xdo, pfd	110	120
Standard Screw	100	105
do, pfd, guar "A"	100	105
xStanley Works	38	40
Smythe Mfg	80	80
xTaylor & Penn	115	115
Torrington	54	57
Underwood Mfg Co	84	88
Union Mfg Co	225	225
U S Envelope, com	112	112
do, pfd	125	125
Veeder Root	34	38
xWhitlock Coil Pipe	15	15
x-Ex-dividend.
xx-Ex-rights.

N.Y. Stock

(Furnished by Putnam & Co., Central Exp., Hartford, Conn.)

Adams Exp	24 1/2
Aling Corp	30
Am Can	114
Am and For Pow	68 1/2
Am Internat	20 1/2
Am Pow and Lt	77
Am Rad Stand San	35 1/2
Am Roll Mill	68 1/2
Am Smelt	29 1/2
Am T and T	39 1/2
Am Tob	231 1/2
Am Wat Wks	80 1/2
Anacosta	49
All Ref	55
Baldwin	24 1/2
B and O	102 1/2
Bendix	29 1/2
Beth Steel	78 1/2
Can Pac	125 1/2
Case Thresh	166
Cerro de Pasco	59 1/2
Chi and Norwest	68 1/2
Chryslers	29 1/2
Col Gas and El	60
Col Graph	15 1/2
Coml Solv	22 1/2
Comwith and Sou	19 1/2
Consol Gas	104
Contin Can	104
Conn Prod	89 1/2
Dupont de Nem	96 1/2
Eastman Kodak	158 1/2
Elec Pow and Lt	65
Fox Film A	39 1/2
Gen Elec	84 1/2
Gen Foods	53 1/2
Mont Ward	28 1/2
Gold Dust	37 1/2
Grigsby Grunow	13
Hershey Choc	86 1/2
Int Harv	80
Int Nick Can	23 1/2
Int T and T	73 1/2
Johns Manville	73 1/2
Kennecott	38 1/2
Krugger and Toll	27 1/2
Leh Val Coal	8 1/2
Loews Inc	64 1/2
Lorrillard	17 1/2
Mo Kan and Tex	33 1/2
Mont Ward	28 1/2
Nat Cash Reg A	47 1/2
Nat Dairy	48 1/2
Nat Pow and Lt	37 1/2
Nev Cop	18 1/2
N Y Cent	158
N Y N H H	100 1/2
Nor Amer	87 1/2
Par Public	53
Penn	72 1/2
Phil Rdg C and I	15
Pub Serv N J	90 1/2
Radio	38 1/2
Rad Keith	103 1/2
Reading	103 1/2
Rem Rand	25
Sears Roebuck	61 1/2
Simmons	21 1/2
Sin Oil	21 1/2
Sou Pac	112 1/2
Sou Rwy	92 1/2
Stand Elec	18 1/2
Stand Oil Cal	59 1/2
Stand Oil N J	64 1/2
Stamps Corp	50 1/2
Timken Roll Bear	56
Transmont Oil	17 1/2
Union Carbide	65 1/2
Unit Aircraft	50
Unit Corp	30 1/2
Unit Gas and Imp	34
U S Ind Alco	84 1/2

DRY BROOK JOB FINALLY STARTED

Health Menace in Town's Center To Be Cleaned Up; Work Is Begun.

Work of covering the so-called Dry Brook which runs through the heart of the east side section of the south end of the town, was continued yesterday when workmen started breaking through the surface of School street, which is the southern extremity of the uncovered section of the brook. The expense of the proposition will be about $14,000, Town Engineer J. Frank Bowen estimated today.

The work of entirely covering the brook which has long been a menace to health besides a detriment to the town's beauty, will extend over a period of about three years. It is to be done in sections. Cheney Brothers started the work by covering the section between Maple and Oak streets. Now the town is engaged on the strip from School to Birch street area will be covered and this will leave only the strip from Birch to Main and Place open. When the work is eventually completed, it will not only add to the value of property bordering on the "prohibition stream," but will also make conditions far more sanitary. Debris of every imaginable sort has collected in the uncovered brook clogging at various points and thus forming a menace to health in general. The aroma rising from the Dry Brook has been particularly bad at various points. At no place is this fact better attested than on School street where the road has been opened.

Town Engineer Bowen said this morning that the entire Dry Brook will have a concrete bottom pitched to a drop of about four or five inches to cause the water to flow through the center. The sides will also be concrete and the top covering will be of reinforced concrete to withstand the overhead weight. Manholes will be installed at various points so that the culvert may be cleaned if the case necessitates. From School to Eldridge the culvert will be 13 feet wide and three feet deep and from Eldridge to the Maple will be ten feet wide and three feet deep.

The work is being done by men in charge of Foreman Henry Bradley.

KING GEORGE OPENS NEW INDIA HOUSE

(Continued from Page 1.)

more than that. As I look around me I see the emblems of the religious, the provinces and the states of India. This building which contains them surely testifies to the unity of India in herself. The position of India House among those of the sister nations here in the center of my capital further symbolizes the unity of the great commonwealth of which she is a part. For a deeper realization of that two-fold unity, I most earnestly pray.

"During recent months I watched with anxious heart the troubled passage of events. Trusting in the Divine guidance, I hopefully await the day that shall restore the gift of true understanding and thus unite every race and creed in one desire to bring peace and contentment to my Indian people.

"In the successful issue of your plans, I congratulate you, Sir Atul Chandra, and all those who have been associated with you. Foremost among these was Sir Herbert Baker who has impressed his genius upon so many continents as the architect of more than one of the great buildings in the imperial capital of Delhi.

The speech replied to an address of Sir Atul Chandra Chatterjee, high commissioner of India.

The address of the king lasted just six minutes. It was broadcast and arrangements had been made with the National Broadcasting Company in America for its rebroadcast.

CARDINAL DYING; IS 93 YEARS OLD

(Continued from Page One.)

send him the apostolic benediction. Msgr. Pizzardo, undersecretary of state, shortly thereafter notified the cardinal's household that the pontiff had gladly accepted the request and was praying most fervently for the cardinal's recovery.

Cardinal Vanuttelli today was serene. He talked freely with those about him. Dr. Froil, his attending physician, said the cardinal's condition was of the living because of the age of the prelate.

This afternoon the Pope sent Monsignor Ottaviani, of the secretary of state's office to Cardinal Vanuttelli with a message of hope and cheer.

DOLLAR'S BUYING POWER GOES UP

(Continued from Page 1.)

on the general cost of living are not available, the comparatively recent survey of December, 1929, shows a big drop from the peak of June, 1929. In 31 representative cities the average cost of living decreased 2.5 per cent. In nearly all of these cities the decrease in the cost of clothing since the silk-shirt era has been tremendous. Rents have decreased steadily since 1923 and the furnishing goods have had a similar decline.

BIDS OPENED FOR NEW ROAD TO ROCKVILLE

Will Start At Oakland Corners and Run Through Talcottville for Nearly Six Miles.

Bids were opened at the state highway commissioner's office in Hartford yesterday for several different roads and bridges that are to be built this summer throughout the state, but the one that is of most interest to Manchester people concerns the new road that will be built from the junction of Deming street and Tolland turnpike through to the Vernon town line. From there there will be a detour from the present road cutting out the bridge at the Ellington town line which borders on to the Vernon town line in the vicinity of Ogden switch.

The figures are not as yet completed and what the cost will be has not been decided. It will be a fifty-four foot wide roadway of concrete and will extend for about a six mile stretch. This will not quite reach the city line of Rockville.

In East Hartford there is also to be an improvement made in East Hartford that will interest many Manchester people. It concerns the building of the new culvert near the junction of Main street and the bridge at the end of the present old bridge and in its place there will be a concrete box culvert with fifty-four foot road and sidewalk. This road will not only extend to Silver Lane, but will continue on to Glastonbury where it will connect with the new road from there to Middletown.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR LIONS' BENEFIT

"The Rogue Song" To Be Shown To Aid Fund For Local Club's Camp.

Final arrangements for the movie benefit, under the auspices of the Lions Club, were made at the regular weekly meeting of the Lions at the Hotel Sheridan last night. The show will be given at the State theater, Wednesday and Thursday, July 16 and 17, featuring Lawrence Tibbets in "The Rogue Song." Tickets for the performance will go on sale Thursday at no advance in prices. Funds obtained from the benefit will be used to purchase a camp site at Bolton Lake for the use of Manchester junior organizations.

It was voted, to hold the balance of the July meetings at the Ellipse on July 10. The date will be as usual, Monday evening at 6:15 o'clock. No definite spot has as yet been selected for the camp although it is understood that it will be on the second lake at Bolton. Negotiations are underway to purchase a suitable piece of land.

PUBLIC RECORDS

Warrantee Deeds
Edwin C. Bunce to Katharine T. Taylor, lot 5 in the Prospect Hill Terrace tract on Norwood street.
Frank Rogers to Fred M. and Nellie M. Thayer, 8 acres of land and buildings on the Bolton road at Manchester Green.
Selma M. Erickson to Raymond C. and Norma E. Erickson, half interest in a lot of land on Haines street.
Giuseppe Tiramanzi to Pasquale Ponticelli, one half interest in lots 24 and 25 in the Homestead Park tract on Homestead avenue.
Antonio Petrovsky to Beatrice P. Peterson and Anna Petrovsky, land on Hamlin street.
Quitclaim Deed
Elsie G. Lewis to Frank E. Zimmerman, land and buildings on lot 41 and the north half of lot 42 in the Greenacre tract.

THEODORE'S DEFENSE

Canberra, Australia, July 8.—(AP)—E. G. Theodore, Queensland federal treasurer, who resigned under charges against his administration, today defended himself in Parliament.

A former miner, who entered labor politics at 25, Theodore demanded that formal charges be made against him so that he might appear before some tribunal to defend himself. The resignation has engaged the attention of all Australia.

Theodore was charged with having accepted graft in the purchase of miners on which the state of Queensland has lost about $5,000,000. Accused with him were W. M. McCormack, a former Labor state premier, Peter Goddard, a mining manager, and Fred Reid, Goddard's associate.

Labor leaders today indicated the party was solidly supporting Theodore.

SERVICE - QUALITY - PRICE SPECIAL

- Fancy Fresh Calves Liver 75c lb.
- Fancy Rib Lamb Chops 45c lb.
- Shank of Hams for boiling, 4 to 5 lbs. each 1.8c lb.
- Lean Rib Corned Beef 1.2c lb.
- Fancy Boneless Brisket Corned Beef 25c lb.
- Our Home Made Sausage Meat 25c lb.
- Blackberry Pies from native berries 15c-30c each
- Orange Layer Cakes 30c each
- Maple Walnut Cup Cakes 28c dozen
- Lamb Pies 15c each, 2 for 28c
- Fancy Dark Red Sweet Cherries 20c lb.

Manchester Public Market

Dial #111

FINE ATTENDANCE RECORD IN NINTH

Long List of Pupils Perfect During the Second Semester.

A list of pupils who attended every session during the second semester of the school year starting February 1 and ending June 20, '30, announced at Superintendent F. A. Verplanck's office today. The list follows:

Nathan Hale: Edith Gordon, John Jordavsky, Sherwood Moorhouse, Mary Salmond, Pauline Salmond, Chester Shield, William Sinnamon, Anna Haberers, Edmund Hapooni, Harold Jones, Alda Favre, Sherwood Henry, Quasina Legation, Edward Moser, Edward Swanson, Edward Wadada, Francis Felcic, Lucian Cherrubini, Frank Dominick, Andrew Dominick, Helen Haberers, Irene Lofeski, Earl Stone, Alice Mason, Margaret Ubrich, Andrew Kravtchik, Bernice Strohewski, Alice Kosinaky, Antionette Pagan, Maurice Correnti, Marion Metkus.

Washington School: Franklin Anderson, Henry Peck, Dorothy Galloway, Nellie Frachey, Gladys Millis, Marjorie Mitchell, Catherine Wilson, Duncan Johnson, Florja Pisan, Elmo Duffy, Peter Frachey, Elmy Magnuson, Spirito Vesto, Margaret Johnson, Margery McCahey, Vytantas Bireta, Langdon Judd, Wallace Lepper, Arthur Fongrads, Samuel Pratt, William Runde, Helen Demko, Emma Flakbein, Gladys Pallait, Charles Evans, Richard Grant, Bengt Magnuson, H. Norman Moore, Ruth Stratton, Walter Freeman, John Hamilton, Ralph McCole, Rose Frachich, Norma Goren, Anna Howarth, Jessie Kerr, Phyllis Marks, Annie Pierce, Florence Sabins, David Dougan, Howard Murphy, John Thurner, Anna Ackerman, Joseph Bellis, Robert Dorgan, John Bertram, Russell Small, Grace Benson, Ruth Hunt, Alice Sault, Astrid Skoog, Albin Piescuk, Sherwood Bach, James Daggart, Henry Frye, Ralph Heres, William Lenon, Ernest Weiss, May Pratt, Charles Bellis, Harry Laine, Irene Douglas.

Lincoln school: Marjorie Marle, Albert Lindsay, Jack Park, Victor Binks, Steward Atkinson, Russell Cole, Robert Degen, Helen Matcsett, Eleanor Hultgren, Burton Smith, Flora Pickles, Doris Stratton, Robert McCabe, Robert Baiter, John Mrosek, Mary Anello, Ruth Podrove, Howard Conn, Lottie Berzenski, Anna Mirucke, Jean Crockett, Clara Fish, Margaret Turek, Paul Davis, Warren Schaefer, William Struaitis, Burtel Wegman, Michael Anello, Russell Gram, Ann Wright, Henry Swartz, Dora Behrmann, Evelyn Jassie, Aline Jodoin, Marvlin Cois, Franklin Delaney, Wafelnde Fatscher, Robert Kraetschmar, Harold McCugan, Stewart McKinney, Joseph Wells, Pansy Arvanetaki, Dorothy Braithwaite, Gladys Brathwaite, Gertrude Holmes, John Bertram, Kosta Berzenski, Howard Ialsh, Joseph Mirucke, Clifford Sault, Joseph Berzenski, Frederick Ialsh, James Leeman, Dorothy Benson, Louise Burr, Ruth Robinson, Albert Brown, James Edmonson, Willard Fish, Arthur Johnson, George Smith, George Willard, Muriel Armstrong, Viola Eccellanti, Martha Gyllenhammer, Gertrude Ritchie, Ellen Toman, Georgina Brown, Louis Anello, James Dougan, Arnold McCugan, William Pickles, Nelson Richmond, Francis Robinson, John Smythe, Fred Luce, Norman Pitt, Robert Samuelson, Anna Farr, Robert McKinney, Pearl Shendo, Freda Selwitz.

Bunce school: Wesley Clifford, Richard Cobb, Marion Erickson, Frances Savitsky, Lorraine Wagner, Archie Jarvis, George Krats, Ernest Schiller, Alice Sedlak, Mary Spaeck, Anton Leone, Barbara Markham, Evelyn Markham, Shirley Schiller.

A total of 80 pupils in the Barnard school braved weather of every sort and thereby succeeded in attending every session during the past school year, it was announced today at the office of Superintendent Fred A. Verplanck. The list follows:

Jane Sonnicksen, Margaret Carrison, Anna Lerch, Margaret Atkinson, Minnie Cordera, Edith Coffrell, Alma Hills, Helen Holmes, Anna Klein, Elsie Klein, Mary Marsaro, Lillian Peck, Elizabeth Sinnamon, Gladys Stevenson, Katharine Winzier, Josephine Falkowski, California Greenaway, Virginia Loomis, Stanley Falkowski, Edward Haisburd, Otis McCann, Louis Vince, Dorothy Fragin, Irma Aomero, Edward Atkinson, John Haberers, Fred Hansen, Maurice Jodoin, Albert Sedlcek, Frank Spaeck, Donald Tedford, Georgiana Avastaki, Ed-

The Herald Hears

That one of the greatest and most dangerous infractions of the state automobile laws is parking on a curve, and by that is meant a curve in the road.

That little is being heard and less is being done about getting the five grand which Manchester hopefuls won on the British Open by the simple process of betting on "Bobby Jones at 10 to 1...and why? because it's agin' the law to gamble in U. S. A."

That in case you don't know it by now a grand is a thousand dollars and a yard is a hundred and in the vernacular local winnings on the Open totaled five grand and five yards.

That no less than five sign point the way to Worcester, Mass., at Tolland and would you believe it, they all point in the same direction, and that a couple would look good at the center but if any more are placed there it will have to be called "Direction Square," or something.

That local beer drinkers who can't brew it fast enough these hot days are buying near beer by the case, the bottles, dropping in a bit of yeast in the near variety and placing the batch in the sun. Wonder what happens?

That the American ambassador and the Irish sportsman both drank a toast in water.

The Prince of Wales wore an ordinary lounge suit without waistcoat, as the weather was hot he left the coat unbuttoned.

Just before he departed from the dining room, he turned again to Sir Thomas, saying "I wish you the very best of luck, Sir Thomas."

It was stated authoritatively that the Prince of Wales had "given up the idea of witnessing America's Cup races."

BRITAIN BIDS LIPTON GOODBYE AND GOOD LUCK

(Continued from Page 1.)

squarely," Lipton reiterated. "If ever they made a mistake, I assure you it was in my favor."

Unlike the ambassador Charles G. Dawes who sat on the other side of the Prince of Wales, joined heartily in the general laughter when the Irish sportsman told funny anecdotes of his early American quest.

Looking over the tops of his spectacles at the prince, Ambassador Dawes gesticulated in his characteristic fashion as he discussed the forthcoming race.

Toast in Water
The American ambassador and the Irish sportsman both drank a toast in water.

The Prince of Wales wore an ordinary lounge suit without waistcoat, as the weather was hot he left the coat unbuttoned.

Just before he departed from the dining room, he turned again to Sir Thomas, saying "I wish you the very best of luck, Sir Thomas."

It was stated authoritatively that the Prince of Wales had "given up the idea of witnessing America's Cup races."

LEGAL BATTLE OVER BILLION IS CONTINUED

(Continued from Page 1.)

beginning of the trial, that Eaton's opposition to the merger with the Bethlehem company is based on his desire to merge the company with Inland which Baker asserted would be more advantageous to Eaton. The Eaton group, however, made the counter charge that merger with Bethlehem was voted illegally and on unfair terms, after officers of the Youngstown company had been promised good positions with the Bethlehem corporation.

POLICE COURT

William Gedraitis of 19 Homestead street was found guilty of intoxication in the police court this morning. He raised a row at the home yesterday afternoon and his wife complained to the police. Patrolman Griffin who was sent there tried to pacify him and ordered him to go to bed. Later in the evening he kicked up another row and Sergeant John McGinn went to the home and placed him under arrest. This morning his wife and daughter appeared in court against him. A fine of $15 and costs was imposed for intoxication, and on the breach of the peace charge judgment was suspended. Gedraitis was unable to pay his fine and costs and had to go to jail as Mrs. Gedraitis refused to settle for him.

DISPLAY FEATURES FASHIONS OF 1897

Male's Observes 33rd Anniversary by Unique Exhibit of Old Keepsakes.

A unique display of old articles of wearing apparel, early purchases and other oddities pertaining to that period when the J. W. Hale Company first opened its doors to the public in its present location, are to go on display tomorrow in the main street windows.

Of all these articles, the one that is the most interesting to all ages and generations is the cream-colored wedding dress of 1897. It is trimmed with satin and pearl beads and was just the latest thing when William McKinley took his seat as President. Manchesterites who are contemplating the observance of their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary soon will be pleased to see how they looked on that happy day years ago.

The list of articles displayed in the Hale store window, follows: 1897 wedding dress fashioned of cream cashmere with trimmings of cream satin and pearl beads and old lace. Two-piece style with the long wide skirt and tight-fitting jacket with long tight sleeves. Velvet bonnet hat of dark purple with black feather trimmings. This was worn well back on the head. Tandem bicycle.

Two table cloths that were purchased at the store 33 years ago. These were the type used on living room tables at that time, one a printed velvet and the other a gold-colored silk damask with fringed ends.

Ingrain floor carpet in all-over printed design that was commonly used in 1897.

A long, wide, cotton petticoat in the prevailing fashion of 33 years ago.

A wool cashmere printed scarf and a black and gold brocaded scarf that was used as a head piece.

Pictures of the High school baseball team and school classes in 1897.

Two dolls that were used by a local woman 33 years ago, both China dolls dressed in the prevailing fashion of the time.

Table and chair used in the living room in 1897.

Black silk faille parasol that milady used to carry to church in 1897. All black silk with silk lace around the ends. Bamboo handle. Wood butter box.

White kid wedding slippers with pointed toes and low baby-lou heels.

White enamel cradle, two-piece style.

DEGREE OF POCAHONTAS OFFICERS INSTALLED

Sunset Council Degree of Pocahontas installed its new officers for the year at a meeting held last evening in Tinker Hall. The work was in charge of Deputy Nellie Jackson of Rockville, Great Minnehaha who is in line for the office of Great Pocahontas of Connecticut. The officers are: Pocahontas, Mrs. Lillian Pentland; prophetess, Mrs. Josephine Emonds; Winona, Myrtle White, East Glastonbury; Powhatan, John White; first scout, Minnie Hollister; second scout, Nora Keeney; first runner, Evelyn Akkrigg; second runner, Edith Daley, East Glastonbury; first counselor, Ida Diana; second counselor, Mary Aceto.

Guard of forest, Irving Keeney; guard of tepee, John Bailey; musician, Anne Foley; first warrior, Clara Pentland; second warrior, Anne Hurlburt; third warrior, Berlice Trowbridge; fourth warrior, Viola Daley.

The following officers were re-elected: keeper of records, Mrs. Florence Cabana; collector of wampum, Patra Fitzgerald; keeper of wampum, Ruth Hanson.

No change was made in the trustees. Mrs. Josephine Emonds was elected first delegate to the Great Council and Evelyn Akkrigg, alternate.

Deputy Jackson awarded a prize to Myrtle White, who brought in the greatest number of members.

LINDY TELLS LEAGUE FAULTS OF AVIATION

(Continued from Page 1.)

to fly. Numerous and complicated papers are often required where a careful study would make most of them unnecessary.

"Intelligent consideration of these and other problems confronting aviation would be of untold assistance to development of international commerce. Aviation does not concern one nation alone. Its ultimate value lies in bringing the countries of the earth into closer contact. It is not possible to develop air transport and communication in its broadest aspect without the co-operation of the entire world."

NEWS DEALER KILLED

Chicago, July 8.—(AP)—James D. Phillips, 45-year-old news dealer, was shot dead early today by two men as he was arranging papers on his stand on the west side.

A waitress standing at a window in a restaurant across the street, heard five shots and saw the men as they leaped into their automobile and drove away.

EMERGENCY DOCTORS

Dr. E. C. Higgins and Dr. D. C. Y. Moore will be on duty to handle emergency calls tomorrow afternoon.

ABOUT TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Evans and their son of Windsor and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Rysmarick of 215 Woodbridge street have returned from a camping trip through the White Mountains.

Miss Dorothy Lear of Arvine Place is spending a week's vacation with friends in Providence.

Guests at "Tammany Hall" Sound View, are: Peter Coughlin, David LaRohelle, James Wynn, Raymond Baldwin, Simara Cappelli, Florence Walk, Esther Wall, William Moran, Jean Sala, Jean DePools and Estelle Moginsky of Hartford, Conn., and Clifford Charter, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Tammany, Theresa Frackey, Anna Falkoaki and Barbara Falkoaki of Manchester. Mrs. Philip Coffey who runs the cottage is formerly of this town.

The police vacation period has started. Patrolman Galligan is this week completing his ten days. He is expected to return to his home in Northampton, Mass. Next week Patrolman Winfred Martin is planning on his vacation, part of which will be spent in Maine.

William Borst of 64 Holl street, truck driver for Luigi Pota, School street coal and wood dealer, suffered a broken right leg yesterday afternoon when a truck he was cranking, started forward, having been in gear, and pinned him against the garage wall. He was removed to the Memorial hospital.

Franklin J. Scranton of Elgin, Ill., returns tomorrow after spending the holiday and week-end with his mother on William street. It is eight years since he went to Elgin and this is his first trip home since that time.

The Women of Mooseheart Legion will hold their regular meeting in the Home Club on Blisset street this evening, starting at 8 o'clock.

NEED MONEY?

LOANS 3.00 PER CENT

QUICK COURTEOUS SERVICE

The only charge is three and one-half per cent. per month on unpaid amount of loan.

PERSONAL FINANCE CO.
Rooms 2 and 3
State Theatre Bldg., Second Floor
753 Main Street
SO. MANCHESTER, CONN.
Telephone Dial 3-1-3
Open 8:30 to 5—Saturday 8:30 to 1
—LICENSED BY THE STATE—

IT WORKS MIRACLES WITH SORE BURNING TIRED ACHING FEET

A new discovery—so please do not get it mixed up in your mind with the failures you have tried before.

They call it Radox and your feet can be so tired and weary—so sore and inflamed that every step you take is torture—your poor feet burn and ache all day long.

Just take a footbath tonight with Radox—a joyous invigorating foot bath—directions come with each package—and when you walk without misery or distress tomorrow if you don't say it's the most wonderful discovery to make ailing feet strong and vigorous—money back.

If you have corns take a Radox footbath 3 or 4 nights in succession and then pick out the corn roots and all. Get Radox at North End Pharmacy; So. Manchester Agents Packard's Pharmacy, Magnell Drug Co.—or any live druggate anywhere.—Adv.

BIG JEWEL THEFT

Sprague, Czechoslovakia, July 8.—(AP)—Jewels worth $600,000 according to the police were stolen in the night from the suit of Mrs. Clara Hryman of Chicago, in the Imperial Hotel here. A $300,000 pearl necklace was among the articles taken.

The stolen articles the police said, aside from the rope of 190 large pearls, comprised platinum and gold rings with diamond settings.

The robbers escaped without leaving a clue, according to the police and it was the theory of the officers that they probably had crossed the frontier.

The foreign police have been notified.

LIGHTNING STRIKES TWICE, KILLS COW

Second in Hard East to Herbert E. Mitchell, on Bell Street, Sunday Night.

The old theory that lightning never strikes twice in the same place was blasted to smithereens by the severe thunder storm of Sunday evening when for the second time death by lightning claimed a cow in a herd owned by Herbert E. Mitchell of Bell street, just over the Manchester line in Glastonbury.

Ten years ago Mitchell lost a cow struck while standing in an open field. Sunday evening, the second cow to be killed, an unusually large Holstein, was in the barn with seven others. At 8:30 o'clock when the storm was at its height a terrific flash of lightning followed by crashing thunder extinguished lights in both the house and barn and put the transformer out of commission. As a result no one in the Mitchell family visited the barn until morning when they found the Holstein dead. The only mark on her was a slight burn on the back. The cow was valued at nearly $200.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Patients reported admitted at the Memorial hospital are William Borst of 64 Holl street, Sylvia Suhr of 37 Village street, Rockville, Sylvia Kellman of 33 Village street, Rockville and Charles Treat of 178 East Center street.

Albany, N. Y., July 8.—(AP)—Claude Udwin, Jesse Thomas and William Force, the Auburn prison convicts convicted of first degree murder in connection with the lynching at the prison last December, were denied new trials.

STARTING SOON

AMAZING STUPENDOUS FURNITURE SALE

THE GREAT NEWS WILL BE READY SOON

WATCH AND WAIT

FRADIN'S JULY CLEARANCE SALE

Begins Thursday, July 10th.

"The Sale Awaited by Manchester Women Because of the Sensational Values Offered."

See Our Announcement in Tomorrow's Herald

Manchester Evening Herald. PUBLISHED BY THE HERALD PRINTING COMPANY, INC. 13 Bissell Street, South Manchester, Conn. THOMAS FERSON, General Manager. Founded October 1, 1881. Published Every Evening, Except Sundays and Holidays. Entered at the Post Office at South Manchester, Conn., as Second Class Mail Matter. SUBSCRIPTION RATES: One Year, $4.00; Six Months, $2.50; Three Months, $1.50. Single Copies, 5c.

fact we are just beginning to appreciate the possibilities of air travel. When the designers of engines overcome the troubles with their oiling systems the question of sustained flight in the air will be solely a matter of human endurance. Attempts at records have been stopped time after time by broken oil feed lines, or other troubles with the lubricating systems of the planes involved. A clogged oil filter forced the Hunters to land in the midst of the usual crazy crowd that always seems determined to seek a quick death in the path of the plane.

take advantage of the linen sales, the dress sales, the hat sales, the furniture sales, and those other departmental sales that are so regular in their appearance in the advertising columns as the seasons. For that matter there are many careful male buyers who emulate Russell Sage to a considerable degree. It is good business. It is in such periods as the present one that those who always manage to have some spare cash on hand for emergencies find that it pays big dividends. This is one of those unexpected sales times that does not arrive by the calendar. It is not possible to prepare for it in advance except by always being certain to have funds on hand to permit taking advantage of periods when the merchandiser, struck with the necessity of paring his stock to the bone, makes it possible for the thrifty to buy their straw hats advantageously without waiting for December.

WASHINGTON LETTER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER, NEA Service Writer

Washington, July 8.—No detective of fiction ever did more with questioned handwriting, typewriting, ink and watermarks in paper than Bert C. Farrar. Farrar is the treasury's examiner of questioned documents and he has been studying the authenticity of signatures and papers for 30 years, often providing convincing proof which men free or decided disputes involving hundreds of thousands of dollars.

FOOLS AND GUNS

The old time balloonist will always claim that ballooning is safer than airplane flying, with the notable exception of fools with firearms. Two of the crews of balloons that have been competing in the elimination contest to decide the participants for the United States in the Gordon Bennett international race to be held later, have landed with reports that they were subjected to rifle fire. One report came from Aero Digest which was fired on near Conroe, Texas. The crew of the United Van Service balloon made a similar report about a farmer in Arkansas. It's an old story with balloonists, whether they are drifting over the "wild and woolly West" or in what some are pleased to believe is the more civilized parts of this country of ours.

PAY OF OFFICIALS

Apparently there is reasonable ground for the complaint in many quarters that the cost of administering our municipal affairs has grown out of all proportion. John S. Roth, tax commissioner of Middletown, has resigned because he figured he was receiving too much salary for his job. "I have not the nerve," he said, "to draw $3500 for twelve months' work and only give the city about six months of actual work. This job should be a part time proposition or combined with another job."

ENDURANCE TESTS

Let's see. It was 27 years ago that the Wright Brothers managed to keep their flimsy airplane, then called aeroplane, in the air for 59 seconds. The Hunter Brothers kept their second-hand craft in the air for 553 hours and if it hadn't been for trouble with the oil filter apparently it could as well have been another 23 days before they came back to earth. That's quite a bit of progress mechanically in a quarter of a century, with the end not yet reached. As a matter of

THE THRIFTY WIN

Russell Sage once said when asked how he had made his money: "I buy my straw hats in December." The careful housewife tries to have ready cash available to

THE BOOK SURVEY

BY BRUCE CATTON. The book is illustrated by some excellent action photographs. It is published by G. P. Putnam's Sons, and sells at $2.50.

The Puritan has come in for a lot of criticism lately. The veneration we used to have for the Pilgrim fathers seems to have a good mixture of vinegar in it nowadays, and the early settlers of New England are pictured as long-faced, joyless meeklings who were only happy when they were plunking a good, sized "thou shalt not" down on somebody's harmless amusement. Samuel Eliot Morison, professor of history at Harvard University, does not think that this is the proper attitude. He has written "Builders of the Bay Colony" to demonstrate that the Puritan settlers were nowhere nearly as bad as some of us have supposed, and he has done such an excellent, charming job of writing that he is likely to make a good many converts.

Health and Diet Advice

By DR. FRANK McCLOY. SUMMER SQUASH RECIPES. In buying summer squash, look for those that are small, thin-skinned and with a fresh, waxy appearance.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Lymph Nodes) Question.—B. M. C. writes: "Have had small lumps in my arms for about ten years. My doctors says it is an excess of lymph. What can I do about it?" Answer: Take plenty of exercise, massage treatments and hot and cold baths. This will improve your circulation, and tend to discourage the formation of lymph in the nodes.

YOUNG ARTIST

London.—One of the world's youngest painters to receive nationwide recognition is Jack Rennie, 15. He painted a picture which he called "Summer Flowers" during school holidays recently. Someone sent it to the Royal Academy without his knowledge. It was so excellent that it was displayed with the works of some of the world's best painters.

FIRST-AID COOPS

London.—If you slip and break a limb in London, call a "cop. Lord Byng has recently issued an order that all Metropolitan police must make themselves thoroughly proficient in the business of giving first aid. They must undergo instructions, and pass tests. After passing tests, they are given a certificate which entitles them to attend to first-aid cases.

other case he demonstrated that a "will" involving hundreds of thousands, dated 1902, was written on paper not manufactured before 1909. In a tax refund case here in which $400,000 was claimed he was confronted with loose leaf ledgers dated in a certain year. The question was whether certain documents had been inserted some time subsequently. Farrar found that on some sheets where pale green and blue lines, horizontal and vertical, ran together the pale green ate out the blue. But that had required time and the questioned sheets showed no such phenomenon. The judge was willing to believe on that evidence that these sheets were much newer and had been faked.

IN NEW YORK

New York, July 8.—About this time of year, when the "visiting firemen" begin to pour in from every section of the land, the New Yorker gets to see his own town.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Vain on Nose) Question.—L. asks: "What can be done to an enlarged vein on end of nose?" Answer: A dermatologist or plastic surgeon should be able to get rid of the large vein for you. These veins can be reduced through electrical treatments or destroyed entirely through frequency and the electrical high-frequency spark.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Spinach) Question.—H. D. asks: "Should not spinach be cooked, and the water discarded? Does not raw spinach contain oxalic acid?" Answer: The water from cooked spinach should be discarded, but it is not necessary to discard the water from raw spinach. It is better to cook it, and then discard the water. This is because the oxalic acid is in the water, and it is better to get rid of it that way.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Nervous and Hungry) Question.—Mrs. J. J. C. asks: "What is wrong when one is extremely nervous and hungry all the time, also underweight?" Answer: Your troubles are probably caused by hyperacidity of the stomach, which causes the stomach to give you your symptoms of nervousness and hunger.

of the town folk have never crossed the Brooklyn bridge, and only the other day I went into the Woolworth building for the first time in two years. And speaking of this quality in New Yorkers, several of us were sitting at lunch the other day when someone piped up with: "And what-else became of the Flatiron building?" Yes, it's still there—a thin slice of a building cat-a-corner from Madison Square. But you don't hear much about it any more, do you? When I was a youngster, long, long before I even hoped to get to New York, I came to look upon the Flatiron as something of a New York symbol. All the naughty cartoons of the day showed the girls' petticoats being whirled about in the famous wind. I have swooped around that corner, Johnnies in derrick would stand at the corner swirling their waxed mustaches and waiting for the wind to blow. The records show that one young man actually was arrested for such peepings.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Vain on Nose) Question.—L. asks: "What can be done to an enlarged vein on end of nose?" Answer: A dermatologist or plastic surgeon should be able to get rid of the large vein for you. These veins can be reduced through electrical treatments or destroyed entirely through frequency and the electrical high-frequency spark.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Spinach) Question.—H. D. asks: "Should not spinach be cooked, and the water discarded? Does not raw spinach contain oxalic acid?" Answer: The water from cooked spinach should be discarded, but it is not necessary to discard the water from raw spinach. It is better to cook it, and then discard the water. This is because the oxalic acid is in the water, and it is better to get rid of it that way.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Nervous and Hungry) Question.—Mrs. J. J. C. asks: "What is wrong when one is extremely nervous and hungry all the time, also underweight?" Answer: Your troubles are probably caused by hyperacidity of the stomach, which causes the stomach to give you your symptoms of nervousness and hunger.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Nervous and Hungry) Question.—Mrs. J. J. C. asks: "What is wrong when one is extremely nervous and hungry all the time, also underweight?" Answer: Your troubles are probably caused by hyperacidity of the stomach, which causes the stomach to give you your symptoms of nervousness and hunger.

CLOSED AT NOON WEDNESDAY. Success Flower Boxes. $1. Wednesday Morning Only. You can't help but have success with these flower boxes, for they are scientifically designed. Plants are watered at the bottom... by a special arranged trough... instead of at the top. Made of heavy galvanized sheet iron in green finish. Regular $1.75. Cash and carry. WATKINS BROTHERS, INC. 55 YEARS AT SOUTH MANCHESTER.

TOWN ADVERTISEMENT

Hearing on the assessment for the construction of sidewalks or curbs or both on McKee Street. Patrick and Maria Moriarty; Louis Peck; James Serpiss and James McAdams; Albert Grezel. Owners of property abutting sidewalks or curbs or both on McKee Street. You are hereby notified that the Selectmen of the Town of Manchester, Conn., acting under and pursuant to Section 20 (396) (House Bill No. 929) Special Laws of Connecticut, 1915, entitled "An Act amending an Act concerning the nomination of candidates for public office and the number, power and duties of the Town Officers of the Town of Manchester," Approved May 20th, 1915, will meet at the Municipal Building in said Town of Manchester on July 15th, 1930, at seven o'clock, E. S. T., for the purpose of assessing two thirds of the cost thereof upon the property adjacent thereto, for the construction of sidewalks or curbs or both upon said street.

TOWN ADVERTISEMENT

Hearing on the assessment for the construction of sidewalks or curbs or both on West Center Street. Ellen McSweeney; William McSweeney; James McVeigh Estate; Oscar Schuster; Francis Donahue; E. J. Holl; Chas. and Erna Labinske; Pine Forest Realty Co.; Elizabeth T. Galvoss; Mary Simpson; Cipa R. Taylor; Edwin Standish; William Kanehl; Adolph Schlack; Frank Edmonds; John Margaret and Owen McCann; Patrick and Maria Moriarty; George Brown; Alexander Jarvis, Sr.; E. J. Holl; Holl Investment Co.; Ernest T. and Emma A. Evans; E. J. Holl; Samuel Davidson; E. J. Holl; Samuel H. Bolles; Andrew and Virginia Ansaldo; E. J. Holl; Ota L. Seeliger; Paul Donze; Francis P. L. Donze; C. Gilroy; Elmo and Muriel Genovesi; Andrew and Eliza Donze; Paul F. Donze; John Andisio; Gustave Schreiber; Patrick Dougherty Estate. Owners of property abutting sidewalks or curbs or both on West Center Street. You are hereby notified that the Selectmen of the Town of Manchester, Conn., acting under and pursuant to Section 20 (396) (House Bill No. 929) Special Laws of Connecticut, 1915, entitled "An Act amending an Act concerning the nomination of candidates for public office and the number, power and duties of the Town Officers of the Town of Manchester," Approved May 20th, 1915, will meet at the Municipal Building in said Town of Manchester on July 15th, 1930, at seven o'clock, E. S. T., for the purpose of assessing two thirds of the cost thereof upon the property adjacent thereto, for the construction of sidewalks or curbs or both upon said street.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Vain on Nose) Question.—L. asks: "What can be done to an enlarged vein on end of nose?" Answer: A dermatologist or plastic surgeon should be able to get rid of the large vein for you. These veins can be reduced through electrical treatments or destroyed entirely through frequency and the electrical high-frequency spark.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Spinach) Question.—H. D. asks: "Should not spinach be cooked, and the water discarded? Does not raw spinach contain oxalic acid?" Answer: The water from cooked spinach should be discarded, but it is not necessary to discard the water from raw spinach. It is better to cook it, and then discard the water. This is because the oxalic acid is in the water, and it is better to get rid of it that way.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Nervous and Hungry) Question.—Mrs. J. J. C. asks: "What is wrong when one is extremely nervous and hungry all the time, also underweight?" Answer: Your troubles are probably caused by hyperacidity of the stomach, which causes the stomach to give you your symptoms of nervousness and hunger.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Nervous and Hungry) Question.—Mrs. J. J. C. asks: "What is wrong when one is extremely nervous and hungry all the time, also underweight?" Answer: Your troubles are probably caused by hyperacidity of the stomach, which causes the stomach to give you your symptoms of nervousness and hunger.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Nervous and Hungry) Question.—Mrs. J. J. C. asks: "What is wrong when one is extremely nervous and hungry all the time, also underweight?" Answer: Your troubles are probably caused by hyperacidity of the stomach, which causes the stomach to give you your symptoms of nervousness and hunger.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Vain on Nose) Question.—L. asks: "What can be done to an enlarged vein on end of nose?" Answer: A dermatologist or plastic surgeon should be able to get rid of the large vein for you. These veins can be reduced through electrical treatments or destroyed entirely through frequency and the electrical high-frequency spark.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Spinach) Question.—H. D. asks: "Should not spinach be cooked, and the water discarded? Does not raw spinach contain oxalic acid?" Answer: The water from cooked spinach should be discarded, but it is not necessary to discard the water from raw spinach. It is better to cook it, and then discard the water. This is because the oxalic acid is in the water, and it is better to get rid of it that way.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Nervous and Hungry) Question.—Mrs. J. J. C. asks: "What is wrong when one is extremely nervous and hungry all the time, also underweight?" Answer: Your troubles are probably caused by hyperacidity of the stomach, which causes the stomach to give you your symptoms of nervousness and hunger.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Nervous and Hungry) Question.—Mrs. J. J. C. asks: "What is wrong when one is extremely nervous and hungry all the time, also underweight?" Answer: Your troubles are probably caused by hyperacidity of the stomach, which causes the stomach to give you your symptoms of nervousness and hunger.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Nervous and Hungry) Question.—Mrs. J. J. C. asks: "What is wrong when one is extremely nervous and hungry all the time, also underweight?" Answer: Your troubles are probably caused by hyperacidity of the stomach, which causes the stomach to give you your symptoms of nervousness and hunger.

BUSCH TEACHES BIG CLASS IN SWIMMING

Nearly 250 Boys and Girls Receive Daily Instruction At Globe Pool.

Nearly 250 boys and girls ranging in age from four to fourteen years are receiving daily instruction how to swim from Life Guard Frank C. Busch at the Globe Hollow swimming pool, it was stated today. The class for boys and girls held each morning has a total membership of 238 children. The boys lead by the close margin of 121 to 117. Here is a list of all the boys and girls who are learning to swim:

Robert Gorman, 86 Linden street; John Pratt, 86 West street; William Mosley, 85 Brookfield street; Fredrick Mohr, 18 Gorman Place; James Douglas, 18 Pearl street; Charles Davidson, 16 Laurel street; Douglas Johnson, 82 Cottage street; Sherwood Goslee, 45 Church street; Clarence Nelson, 80 Cottage street; Kenneth Morrison, 100 Elm street; Robert Wetherell, 130 Washington street; Ugo Oppizzi, 73 Cottage street; Paul Davis, 77 Brookfield street; William Robbins, 14 South Main street; Peter Vendicelli, 13 Middle Turnpike; Howard Daniels, Foster; William Daniels, Daniel; Kenneth Beeber, Strickland; William Groot, Birch; Walter Allen, East Green; John Treacher, Autumn; Sherwood Tedford, South Main; Edward Sweeney, Porter; Fred Werzock, Charter Oak; Edward Pignani, Charter Oak; Raymond Charter, Clinton; Horace Russell, Charter Hill; Frederick Mahoney, 60 Maple; John Madaki, 17 Clinton; John Mrosek, 67 Bissell; Francis McVaughy, 44 Maple; Ralph and William Runde, 18 Walnut; William Tedford, North Manchester; Earl Sinnamon, Highland Park; Joseph Fagen, Porter; Frederick Fish, 109 Pine; Gilbert Hunt, 13 Pine; Frederick Kelsh, 40 Clinton; Edwin Smith, 30 Lilly; Henry Moore, 125 Summer; Owen Doggart, 127 Summer; Robert Doggart, 127 Summer; Godfrey Hunter, Highland Park; John Benson, Bissell; William and Theodore Robbins, South Main; Edward Cotton, Pine; Alfred Salmonson, Pleasant; Ernest Mosley, Cooper Hill; Sherwood Porterfield, Oak Grove; Russell Swartz, Bridge; William Davidson, Laurel; Harold Symington, Munro; Jack Moriarty, East Center; George Bronk, West; Frederick Waldo, Fairfield; David Mosley, Brookfield; Edward Jilson, Cambridge; Milton Levitt, Munro; Douglas Swartz, Bridge; Richard Moore, Summer; Earl Hampton, Summer; Jack Strange, Lancaster road; Lawrence Harris, Centerfield; Robert Harris, Centerfield; Raymond Arson, 148 South Main; George DeHope, 73 Alton; Thomas McCooe, 73 Wells; Samuel Taggart, 90 Wells street; Howard Hanson, 82 Oxford; Robert Davis, 77 Brookfield; George Hunt, 131 Pine street; Francis Blanchard, 70 Fairfield; Samuel Pratt, 85 Fairfield; Geard Blanchard, 70 Fairfield street; Thomas Serpilas, 129 Summer; James Serpilas, 129 Summer; Robert Turkington, Scarborough road; Richard Dimmock, Porter; Leon Podrove, 40 Benton; Norman Peterson, Charter Oak; John Tierney, Cooper Hill; Clifford Baglio, 73 Wells; William Halsted, 44 Benton; Edward Bensch, Maple; Einar Samuelson, Pleasant; Robert Knofia, Arvine Place; David Caldwell, Arvine Place; George Glos, South Main; Daniel Critelli, South Main; Willard Wind, 466 Parker; Robert Knapp, South Main and William Knapp, South Main.

The girls taking swimming lessons are: Coral Dickson, Main; Anna Krob, 78 Linden; Constance Dickson, South Main; Elaine Krob, 78 Linden; Virginia Ryan, 138 Charter Oak; Marjorie Nocker, 118 Charter Oak; Elizabeth Henderson, 134 Charter Oak; Ruth Dowd, 140 Charter Oak; May Pratt, 84 Fairfield; Dorothy McKinney, 37 Elm; Thelma Dickson, So. Main; Florence Robinson, 14 So. Main; Lorraine Gorman, 77 Linden; Rhoda Mohr, 18 Gorman Place; Freida Selwitz, 4 Pearl; Lillian Street, 112 Maple; Ruth Hunt, 138 Pine; Barbara Strange, 19 High; Doris McCurry, 30 High; Armstrong, Depot; Loraine Coleman, Maple; Alberta Wilkie; Oak Grove; Lucille King, Oak Grove.

Shirley Fraser, 35 Lewis; Eleanor Fraser, 35 Lewis; Martha Kamise, 90 Wells; Anna Packard, Wells; Laura Wagon, Grand View; Zita Brennan, 21 Bissell; Mildred Arson, So. Main; Marie King, Oak Grove; Flora Pickles, Holl; Caroline Pignani, Charter Oak; Marjorie Lahey, Linden; Katherine Gorman, 72 Linden; Florence Gorman, 72 Linden; Elizabeth Vendicelli, 13 Vine; Arline Jodin, 162 Center; Doris Arson, So. Main; Esther Pickles, Holl; Dorothy Larder, 26 Fairfield; Margaret Torrence, Walnut; Gladys Ponticelli, Charter Oak; Barbara and Frances Walset, Cambridge; Valerie Miller, 70 Cambridge; Dorothy Chapin, Lewis; Betty McCaffey, Maple; Elizabeth Cross, Highland; Marcella Kelly, 30 Hemlock; Wanda Mosley, Brookfield; Ann Civicelli, So. Main; Frances Packard, Wells; Cynthia Fish, 109 Pine; Evelyn Wilson, 113 Highland; Marjorie Hilderbrandt, Spruce; Harriett Clonson, 113 West; Elenore and Marion Peterson, Wells; Julia Hicking, Manchester; Green; Bernice Taggart, 111 Cooper Hill; Astrid Benson, 119 Cooper Hill; Marjorie Taylor, 323 Center; Dorothy Lennon, 30 Bank; Eunice Brown, 26 Bank; Elizabeth Lupien, 12 Bank; LeMos Wittman, 125 Cooper Hill; Mary McCaughy, 17 Bank; Helen Adamson, 60 Cooper Hill; Shirley Bruen, 148 Cooper Hill; Doris Taylor, 323 Center; Doris Kennedy, 103 Cooper Hill; Helen Colgrave, Cooper Hill; Mary O'Brien, Walnut; Shirley Enea, 83 Cummings; Arline Halsted, 44 Benton; Ruth Podrove, 40 Benton; Grace Benson, 119 Cooper Hill; Muriel McConkey, 51 West; Mary Fogarty, 5 Bank; Helen Demko, 68 Center.

Rose McSherry, 219 School; Jane Harris, Centerfield; Margaret Stipits, South Main; Helen Hart, Forest; Muriel Durkee, 43 Scarborough road; Dorothy Durkee, 43 Scarborough road; Dorothy Hollister, South Main; Marion Buck, South Main; Janice Simons, 43 Church; Evelyn Hess, 180 Center; Lillian Blanchard, 11 Fairfield; Dorothy Robinson, Strickland; Evelyn Robinson, 46 Strickland; Jean Crockett, 42 Bigelow; May Griswold, 18 Linden; Betty Johnson, 49 Glenwood; Barbara Shorts, Ridge; Lorna Peterson, Charter Oak; Virginia Thornton, Spring; Patricia Dimmock, Porter; Betty Rogers, Lewis; Valette Turner,

COLUMBIA

The annual business meeting of the Women's Missionary Society was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of the President, Mrs. Lillian Rice. Mrs. Rice was re-elected president and Mrs. Ruth Jacobs, secretary and treasurer with Mrs. June Squier as assistant. Plans were discussed for the annual Missionary Tea to be held during the summer.

Miss Anne Dix with a party consisting of Mrs. E. P. Lyman, Mrs. Edith Isham and two children, and Betty Fallor, motored to Groton Long Point Tuesday to "Rugged Waters" the summer home of Mrs. Isham's sister, Mrs. Lyndon Little of Willimantic. Mrs. Isham and her children Jean and Buddy remained for the rest of the week, the rest of the party returning to Columbia Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Locke and Mr. and Mrs. Sanford of Whitteville were callers Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Lucy Clarke. Miss Mary Hinkley of Norwich was also a frequent caller at the home of Mrs. Clarke, taking her for a long auto ride.

Mr. and Mrs. Perley Hyde of Newark, N. J., are at Columbia Lake for a short time and then will go to St. Albans, Vt., for the rest of the summer.

The regular meeting of Columbia Grange was held Wednesday evening. One new member Jasper Woodward, was obligated in the first and second degree, and William Wood, was obligated in the third and fourth degree.

A daughter, Norma Elizabeth was born Friday at the Clarke Hospital in Willimantic to Mrs. William Wolf.

The Ferguson and Wolf families of Jersey City, N. J., are at the Avery cottage for two weeks.

Miss Louise Beaty of New York has been a guest at Overlook for several days on her way to her summer home in Brattleboro, Vt.

A moving picture exhibition given at the Town Hall Friday evening under the auspices of the 4-H Club was enjoyed by a large audience.

The Fourth of July was a very quiet occasion in Columbia, there being no public program of any kind. One of the public beaches at the lake proved extremely popular, parking space being at a premium, and many enjoying the bathing.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Arnold and party from New York spent the Fourth of July in Columbia.

Miss Eleanor Collins of New York spent the Fourth and the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Collins of Chestnut Hill.

Miss David Hawkins of Brooklyn was a week-end guest at the home of Mrs. Natch.

Mr. and Mrs. Caspar Isham and two children of Boston stopped a few days to visit relatives here. They are on their way to Yellowstone National Park, and will be in the West all summer.

Mrs. Joseph Hutchins and little son of Washington, D. C., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hutchins. Mr. Hutchins flew from

ROCKEFELLER'S BIRTH

On July 8, 1839, John D. Rockefeller, American capitalist, who before his retirement in 1911 was regarded the wealthiest man in modern history, possessing a fortune estimated as high as $1,000,000,000, was born at Richford, N. Y.

At the age of 14 he moved to Cleveland, O., where, after receiving a public school education, became a clerk in a commission house.

In less than four years he became a partner. With his partner he invested a new business of "oil refining." Within 10 years this company, under Rockefeller's leadership, established itself as the most important factor in the petroleum industry in America.

In 1865 the Standard Oil Works was built at Cleveland and five years later was consolidated with others to form the Standard Oil Company. In forming his company it was found he had created a "trust" in violation of the law and was therefore compelled to dissolve it. He then formed separately operated companies.

Rockefeller devoted much time and money to the promotion of various educational, religious and charitable interests. In 1892 he established the University of Chicago, to which he made gifts exceeding $23,000,000. He built and initially endowed the Rockefeller Institute for medical research at a cost of $4,000,000. At the end of 1921 it was estimated his benefactions exceeded $500,000,000.

A THOUGHT

Thus saith the Lord God: Wee unto the foolish prophets, that follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing.—Ezekiel 13:3.

We are so presumptuous that we wish to be known to all the world, even to those who come after us; and we are so vain that the esteem of five or six persons immediately around us is sufficient to arouse and satisfy us.—Pascal.

SUICIDE AT SEA

Bangor, Me., July 8.—(AP)—The log of the steamer Belfast today bore the record of a woman's suicide by leaping into the ocean on a trip from Boston.

WaterSpar Varnish

Laquer and Enamels

Stop at this store for color cards of WaterSpar Enamel, Varnish and Laquer. Never before such a chance to cheer the home with beautiful color by refinishing furniture, floors and woodwork. All fast drying, ready and easy to use!

W. E. HIBBARD
282 No. Main St., Manchester

Uncle Sam's Planting Pointers

Washington Friday in his Lincoln Paige aeroplanes, circled around his father's house, a few times and then flew back to Brainard Field where he landed, coming to Columbia by auto, there being no good landing place here.

Rev. Asa Mellinger of Rowley, Mass., preached at the Columbia church Sunday morning. Following the regular service the Communion service was held. Miss Gladys Rice was the leader of the Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening.

The twelfth annual camp of the Boys Choir of St. Mary's Church of Willimantic will be at Columbia Lake for the next two weeks, starting Monday. About 35 boys are expected to be in camp.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Columbia Church will meet Thursday afternoon at three o'clock at the home of Miss Katherine Ink. Miss Ink and Mrs. Mary Ink will be the hostesses.

SEEK PLANE RECORD

Jacksonville Beach, Fla., July 8.—(AP)—George Haldeman and Stuart Chadwick, veteran pilots, were soaring over the Atlantic off Jacksonville Beach today in an effort to establish a new world's non-refueling endurance flight record.

Taking to the air yesterday, the pilots flew over the ocean at an altitude of about 1,000 feet. Their motor apparently was functioning in order and the weather was favorable for flying.

A crack train has been named "The Bullet." Probably because it's the custom after being taken for a ride.

Accidentally ELECTROCUTED

Boston, July 8.—(AP)—Accidental electrocutions took the lives of two men yesterday in New England.

John McDonnell, 25, a lighting company employe, died while working on a pole at Hull. His boot struck a wire carrying 2,300 volts.

A broken power line in contact with a wire touching a pump in the cellar of the home of Alvah H. Burdick, 84, Carolina, R. I., was blamed for his death.

DANCE

AT "MONTECARLO" HALL. Every Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday Evenings. Art McKay and his SHARPS AND FLATS OR. Admission 50c.

RUDOLF PINE TREE INN
402 Tolland Turnpike, Manchester

QUOTATIONS

"Let's play Indian."
—Michael, deposed boy king of Rumania.

"Responsibility for Chicago can be traced to illicit liquor traffic."
—Colonel Robert I. Bassdolph, of the Chicago crime prevention committee.

"Undoubtedly many who voted for Morrow are opposed to liquor, but saw no danger of dry law repeal by the election of just another wog from New Jersey."
—F. Scott McBride.

"To see those rows and rows of crosses would be the greatest appeal to all young mothers for world peace."
—Mrs. Charlotte Butler, Gold Star mother returning from France.

"All slumps are the inescapable consequence of the destructive forces of booms."
—President Hoover.

IS THIS YOU five years from now?

When tempted to over-indulge "Reach for a Lucky instead"

Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. Avoid that future shadow* by avoiding over-indulgence, if you would maintain that modern, ever-youthful figure. "Reach for a Lucky instead."

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Lucky Strike has an extra, secret heating process. Everyone knows that heat purifies and so 20,679 physicians say that Luckies are less irritating to your throat.

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough

*An investigation conducted by the Association of Life Insurance Medical Directors and the Actuarial Society of America revealed the fact that the death rate increases practically 1% for every pound of excess weight carried between the ages of 40 and 44 years. In other words, a man 40 pounds overweight at this age has only 60% of expectancy of life of a man of normal weight. We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky instead," you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.

TUNE IN—The Lucky Strike Dance Orchestra, every Saturday and Thursday evening, over N.B.C. network.

STORM PARALYZES TRAFFIC; SEVERAL BUILDINGS STRUCK;

Springfield Home Struck by Lightning; Church Steeple and Home in Pelham Are Damaged by Bolt.

Damage by lightning and wash-outs was reported throughout Western Massachusetts and Connecticut as a result of the severe electrical storm that swept from the West late yesterday afternoon.

Are Your Valuables in a Safe Place?

Manchester was on the edge of that storm. We might have been in the middle of it. If you are one of the thousands who are planning your vacation soon how much more satisfied you will be if you know that YOUR VALUABLES are Safe in our Safe Deposit Box. Your home may be damaged or destroyed but if your securities, valuables, silver, insurance policies, etc., are safe in our vault you are protected.

The Manchester Trust Company

DAILY RADIO PROGRAM

Tuesday, July 8.

Cholly's game roster. Gellach and... station which WJZ and associated... will broadcast Tuesday night... at 8:30, daylight saving time.

302.5-WJZ, NEW ENGLAND-990. 8:30-9:00-Dance music. 9:00-9:30-Dance music.

Leading DX Stations. (DSF) (NY) 11:45 10:45-WBB, ATLANTA-740. 11:45 10:45-WBB, ATLANTA-740.

ROCKVILLE

Fourth District Legion Meeting

The Fourth District meeting of the American Legion was held at East Woodstock on Sunday afternoon at 8 o'clock.

The American Legion Auxiliary of the Fourth District held its meeting at East Woodstock on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

To Hold Tennis Match. St. John's Church Tennis Court is sure to be crowded on Wednesday evening when a tennis match will be given under the auspices of the Young People's Fellowship.

TOLLAND

The July meeting of the Tolland Library Association will be held Monday afternoon at 8:30 o'clock in the library rooms.

Howard Ayers who is to build a new house at the south end of the village street has just completed laying the water pipes from the main to the foundation.

The Baptist church Sunday school will hold its annual outdoor next Saturday at Willington Grove, Willington.

Those who attended the Fourth District meeting of the American Legion and its Auxiliary at East Woodstock on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. William C. Plunder, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shea, Mrs. Elsie Nutland, Francis Pritchard, George Brigham, Charles Batz, Roy Sanford, L. W. Martin, Harry Lebedevsky, Ira Bowers, William Ryan, Edward Newmark, Thomas Bay and Francis Cratty.

FAMOUS ORCHESTRA AT SANDY BEACH

Diamonds of Pennsylvania To Be At Crystal Lake Resort Tomorrow Evening.

Sandy Beach Ballroom at Crystal Lake, Rockville continues to feature the most sensational dance orchestras in the country and has arranged to bring the famous Diamonds of Pennsylvania to Sandy Beach tomorrow evening for a return engagement.

Charles Rudolph of New York City is at the home of his mother, Mrs. Henry Rudolph for two weeks vacation.

Glens Falls, N. Y., July 8.—(AP)—James McKenna, trade magazine salesman of Lynn, Mass., was found lying in Park street early today, with a bullet through his chest.

DAVID CHAMBERS CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER

68 Hollister Street

by having your plumbing and heating system repaired and put in first class shape; and the gutters and downspouts on your house replaced if they are leaking.

We do all kinds of tinmithing, sheet metal work, etc.

E. A. LETTNEY Plumbing and Heating Contractor. 38 Main St. Tel. 3036

DYING, WONT TALK

Glens Falls, N. Y., July 8.—(AP)—James McKenna, trade magazine salesman of Lynn, Mass., was found lying in Park street early today, with a bullet through his chest.

WATER LEVELS

Ottawa, July 8.—(AP)—Water levels in the Great Lakes averaged six inches lower in June, 1930, than in June, 1929, but fifteen inches higher than the average June level for the last ten years.

BANKER KILLS SELF

Omaha, Neb., July 8.—(AP)—The body of Edward L. Droste, missing vice-president of the First National Bank of Omaha, was found floating in the Missouri river yesterday near Dakota City.

FEAR PRICE CUT

San Francisco, July 8.—(AP)—Directors of the Retail Service Station Dealers Association today asked Governor C. C. Young to intervene in the California gasoline price-cutting war and save them from "utter ruin."

INDIANS IN POW-WOW

Gallup, N. M., July 8.—(AP)—Said in whose man's medicine something more dependable than the caprices of their rain god, Navajo Indians of six tribal divisions gathered in annual pow-wow today to discuss irrigation.

There's Nothing Finer than a STROMBERG-CARLSON KEMPS INCORPORATED

763 Main St., South Manchester

GREEKS FILE PROTEST AGAINST SKYSCRAPER

New York, July 8.—(AP)—Over in Athens, Greece, it seems, there's much ado over plans by some Americans to erect a sky-scraper amid the classic ruins of the ancient capital.

WEDDING AT ST. JOSEPH'S

The bride was attended in a gown of white satin and lace, with veil of rose point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

WEDDING AT ST. JOSEPH'S

The bride was attended in a gown of white satin and lace, with veil of rose point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

WEDDING AT ST. JOSEPH'S

The bride was attended in a gown of white satin and lace, with veil of rose point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

WEDDING AT ST. JOSEPH'S

The bride was attended in a gown of white satin and lace, with veil of rose point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

WEDDING AT ST. JOSEPH'S

The bride was attended in a gown of white satin and lace, with veil of rose point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

WEDDING AT ST. JOSEPH'S

The bride was attended in a gown of white satin and lace, with veil of rose point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

WEDDING AT ST. JOSEPH'S

The bride was attended in a gown of white satin and lace, with veil of rose point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

WEDDING AT ST. JOSEPH'S

The bride was attended in a gown of white satin and lace, with veil of rose point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

WEDDING AT ST. JOSEPH'S

The bride was attended in a gown of white satin and lace, with veil of rose point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

WEDDING AT ST. JOSEPH'S

The bride was attended in a gown of white satin and lace, with veil of rose point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

WEDDING AT ST. JOSEPH'S

The bride was attended in a gown of white satin and lace, with veil of rose point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

WEDDING AT ST. JOSEPH'S

The bride was attended in a gown of white satin and lace, with veil of rose point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

WEDDING AT ST. JOSEPH'S

The bride was attended in a gown of white satin and lace, with veil of rose point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

WEDDING AT ST. JOSEPH'S

The bride was attended in a gown of white satin and lace, with veil of rose point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

WEDDING AT ST. JOSEPH'S

The bride was attended in a gown of white satin and lace, with veil of rose point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

WEDDING AT ST. JOSEPH'S

The bride was attended in a gown of white satin and lace, with veil of rose point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

WEDDING AT ST. JOSEPH'S

The bride was attended in a gown of white satin and lace, with veil of rose point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

Business Men appreciate Country Club because it's refreshing... it's insurance against after-lunch-heaviness... it's a sparkling drink with a real tang and because it's a quality comes from its pure ingredients... pure fruit juices and ozonated water. It's a good "buy". PALE DRY & GOLDEN

FOR RADIO SERVICE PHONE 8160 Have you heard the new Majestic Electric Radio Barstow Radio Service Authorized Dealer Majestic, Philco 20 Bissell St. Next door to Kitter's Market

Infants Insist On It! When the children wave their spoons (even though they may know its poor table manners) and demand "more" Manchester Dairy Ice Cream there's only one thing to do and that is to serve them more. IT'S GOOD FOR THEM. The Manchester Dairy Ice Cream Company DIAL 5250 Always Obtainable At Its Best, At Your Neighborhood Store or Favorite Soda Fountain

WTIC PROGRAMS Travelers Broadcasting Service Hartford, Conn. 50,000 W., 1060 K. C., 282.5 M. Tuesday, July 8, 1930 (E. D. S. T.) 4:00-News. 4:10-Happy, Go and Lucky. 4:30-Famous Women in History-Isabella of Spain. 4:45-Laura C. Gaudet, pianist. 5:00-Stringwood Ensemble with Gertrude McAuliffe, contralto. 6:00-"Salesmanship"-T. J. Russell. 6:15-News; Time. 6:25-Rhythm Chasers. 6:40-Baseball scores; Sport Digest. 7:00-Diamond Orchestra. 7:30-Soconyland Sketch-NBC. 8:00-Silent.

WBZ-WBZA Tuesday, July 8 4:15-Home Forum Decorating Period-Vella Reeve. 4:30-Light Opera Hour. 5:15-Ellen and D. Rose. 5:30-Safety Crusaders. 5:45-Kyanize Road Man. 5:50-Time. 5:51-Champion Weatherman. 5:53-Agricultural Market Report. 6:05-Baseball scores; Sport Digest. 6:15-Savannah Liners' Orchestra-Lady of the Slipper, Herbert; Espana, Waldteufel; Help Yourself to Happiness, Grielle; The Beauty Parade, Schad; Al Fresco, Herbert; Just Like a Story Book, Henley; Three Impressions of Chinatown, Miller; In the Shadows, Pink; Oriental Dance from Wonderland, Herbert; There's Plenty of Sunshine for You, Lewis. 6:45-Literary Digest's Topics in Brief, Floyd Gibbons. 7:00-Bulova time. 7:01-Peppodent's Amos 'n' Andy. 7:15-Easybeat waltz. 7:30-Phil Cook, Quaker Oats Man. 7:45-Memphis Five. 8:00-Dixie Trail. 8:30-The Old Timers. 9:00-Johnson and Johnson Musical Melodrama. 9:30-Goldman String Ensemble. 10:00-Westinghouse Salute-The Beautiful Danube, Strauss-Stokowski; Danse des Sylphes, Berlioz; Overture to "William Tell," Rossini; Flight of the Bumble Bee, Rimsky-Korsakoff; Anchors Aweigh; College Medley. 10:30-Crush Dry Cronies and Old Topper-I Still Remember, de Rose; Selections from "Cherry Cheaters" When They Merge Mazeltoff with the Irish; Anchors Aweigh; The Song Without a Name; Love in Central Park; Lord Geoffrey Amherst; Cheer Up! Good Times Are Coming. 11:00-Bulova time. 11:01-Champion Weatherman. 11:05-Baseball scores; Sport Digest. 11:05-Midnight Melodies.

There's Nothing Finer than a STROMBERG-CARLSON KEMPS INCORPORATED 763 Main St., South Manchester

SAGE-ALLEN & CO. HARTFORD Store Open All Day Wednesday Out of Town Customers Call Enterprise 1000 Without Charge.

Be Smart and Cool in These Exquisite Underthings! SALE OF MILANESE Glove Silk Samples $1.47 $1.97 (Values to $5.95) At $1.47 At $1.97

Infants Insist On It! When the children wave their spoons (even though they may know its poor table manners) and demand "more" Manchester Dairy Ice Cream there's only one thing to do and that is to serve them more. IT'S GOOD FOR THEM. The Manchester Dairy Ice Cream Company DIAL 5250 Always Obtainable At Its Best, At Your Neighborhood Store or Favorite Soda Fountain

Merchants' Night At State Theater Every Wednesday Night

Another Gala Night of Free Gifts for the Lucky Persons Who Attend
State Theater Merchants' Night Show Tomorrow Night—Big Show, Plenty of Gifts

CORONA COOKER
SPECIAL OFFER
SOON TO END

$11.00 COOKER

NOW $8.50

50c DOWN $1.00 A MONTH

Electricity Is Your Lowest
Priced Servant

The Manchester Electric Co.

Another week, another Wednesday, another Merchants' Night at the State Theater. And who hasn't heard of Merchants' Night? Even at this early stage those who have not are in the minority, because the popular appeal of this evening when valuable gifts are given away free to holders of the lucky numbers, was tremendous the very first time it was held, and since then it has increased in popularity.

So if you haven't been to a State Theater Merchants' Night be sure to be on hand tomorrow evening. Fourteen valuable gifts, from Manchester's leading merchants, will be given away. A coupon will be given with each admission ticket, a duplicate of which will be placed in a box for drawing later on. Merchants' Night will be held every Wednesday through-out the summer months.

The following articles will be given away tomorrow night: folding kodak, Kemp's Music House; dress, Smart Shop; one gallon Thermo Jug, Marlow's Department store; a set of golf clubs and bag, Manchester Plumbing and Supply; traveling bag, George H. Williams; beach chair, Watkins Brothers; Man's straw hat, Glenney's; a set of ebony and sterling silver military brushes, May Jewelry store; bed spread set, Marlow's Department store; electrical appliance, Manchester Electric company; two four-inch hand ties, George H. Williams; pair of linen knickers, Glenney's; the latest and popular "Daisy" horn, Berger and Berman; and iced tea set, green glassware, Marlow's.

Perhaps no other film document of recent years is so abundantly supplied with sheer entertainment value as "The Bad One," the United Artists all-talking and singing comedy-drama of the French water-

DO YOU KNOW THAT . . .

Dolores Del Rio is one of the largest property owners in Mexico. . . that her Las Cruces ranch comprises a million acres . . . that she is the first motion picture star to make records . . . that her "Ramona" for the Victor Talking Machine Company was one of the best sellers two years ago . . . that she speaks fluently in English, Latin, Spanish, German and French?

Do you know that she has risen to the top of her profession in less than four years . . . that she is 5 ft. 3 1/2 in. tall, has coal-black hair and brown eyes . . . that she is considered one of the most graceful actresses in Hollywood . . . that her hobby is gardening . . . that she has one of the finest exhibits of desert flora in existence . . . that she is appearing at the State theater in United Artists' "The Bad One," with Edmund Lowe . . . that this picture is her first all-talking vehicle . . . that it is acknowledged to be the finest picture she has ever made?

front cafes starring Dolores Del Rio, with Edmund Lowe at the State theater, tomorrow and Thursday.

Starting with the noisy Marseilles cafe scene, with a mechanical piano raising its cracked voice above the shout of men for wine, and more wine . . . dancing and singing women and the busy activity of commission girls doling out drinks to sailors on carnival, the picture affords the star her greatest opportunity to date.

With Edmund Lowe appearing with her for the first time since the pair made their memorable appearance in "What Price Glory," Miss Del Rio as "Lita" in "The Bad One" is strongly reminiscent of "Charmaine" in the war story.

Her character is that of a girl thrust by circumstances into a typical seaport cafe, whose living depends on the exploitation of her charms, the timely winking of her eyes and her industry in refilling empty glasses.

In this role the star is obliged to exercise the full emotional range: from coquetry to comedy and from wistful moodiness to tragedy when one of her innocent flirtations sets in full motion the machinery of love.

"The Bad One" demonstrates Miss Del Rio's aptitude for melodramatic action as well as characterization in voice.

Though this is her first appearance on the talking screen, the star, who portrays a Spanish entertainer set loose in cosmopolitan Marseilles, invests her voice with shadings and phrasings that are delightful in opposition to the masculine gruffness of the wise-cracking American sailor played by Lowe.

Because of its sheer humor and aggressive drama, George Fitzmaurice, director, has to his credit a picture that deserves a high place in any list of film plays judged primarily on their entertainment value alone. "The Bad One" is rickling fun, set in a melodramatic background that correctly mirrors the Marseilles waterfront, with its gayeties.

Edmund Lowe is again the character he was in "What Price Glory," "In Old Arizona," and "The Cock-eyed World," though his profanities are lacking in favor of salty wisecracks. As the American Don Juan of the seas, whose boast is that he can get any girl in the world, he

DO YOU KNOW THAT . . .

Edmund Lowe was one of the youngest college instructors in the United States . . . that he was assistant professor of theoretical pedagogy at Santa Clara University at the age of nineteen . . . that he was also captain of the baseball team there . . . that he made his first stage appearance with Florence Reed as Marc Antony . . . and worked for nothing . . . that his professed ambition is to make money enough to tour the country with his own Shakespearian company?

Do you know that though he acknowledges a preference for Shakespearian roles, he has founded his great motion picture popularity on rough characterizations . . . that his first great opportunity came when he appeared with Dolores Del Rio in "What Price Glory" . . . that he may be seen with her once more at the State theater in "The Bad One," starring Miss Del Rio in her first talking picture?

presents a typical Lowe whom any girl would find it hard to resist. The picture abounds in high-lights, with the climatic thrill wisely reserved for the end when the two central characters find themselves involved in a desperate revolt from which they emerge happily.

SUES AFTER 16 YEARS

Los Angeles—After waiting 16 years, Charles Arthur Taa filed suit for divorce here. He charged that shortly after they were married he returned home to find his wife with another man. The couple married in 1904 and separated in 1914. He was awarded a divorce.

CLOSED AT NOON WEDNESDAYS

SEMI-ANNUAL SALE

$5.95

Here's a typical example of the values Watkins Brothers bring to you. Full size, metal beds in brown finish to harmonize with walnut dressers, with 2-inch continuous posts, as shown.

WATKINS BROTHERS

55 YEARS AT SOUTH MANCHESTER

SPECIAL

—for—
Wednesday Morning SILK DRESSES

$2.95

Plain and Printed Colors

Plenty of Large Sizes

Formerly Sold as High as $7.95

HOSIERY SPECIAL

Our Regular $1.09 Full Fashion

HOSIERY WEDNESDAY ONLY

88c

The Smart Shop

DRESSES, COATS, UNDERWEAR, HOSIERY
State Theater Building

VACATION DRESS

While on your vacation you will naturally want to look your best. Here are a few suggestions in articles that for comfort and style cannot be equaled.

Jantzen Swimming Suits

- Linen Knickers $3.50-$5.00
- Sport Hose $1.00-$5.00
- Sport Sweaters $4.50 to $7.50
- "Bostonian" Shoes $7.00 to $10.00
- "Florsheim" Shoes $10.00
- Friendly Five Shoes $5.00

GLENNEY'S

Equip Your Car For That Vacation Trip

Here Are Miles of Tire Service at a Price.

USED TIRES $1.45 to $2.00

All Makes All Sizes All Kinds

Absolutely Miles of Service in These Values.

Differentials and Transmission Cleaned by Air and Pressure Gun Working Under 175 Pound Pressure.

NO EXTRA CHARGE

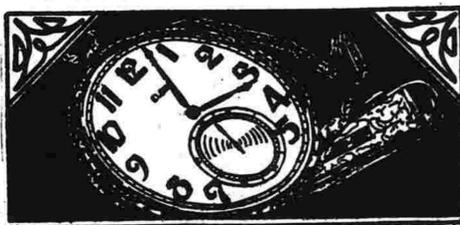

As necessary as draining the crankcase for longer life and efficient service.

Cars Washed, Polished, Greased

The Bergen & Berman Battery Co.

24 Main Street Phone 3819

"For Service That Pleases"

This Handsomely Engraved Watch, Knife and Chain

Further evidence of our reputation for unexcelled value-giving . . . this handsome pocket watch, knife and chain . . . ALL THESE AT $19.75

$19.75

PAY A LITTLE EACH WEEK!

The May Jewelry Co.

845 Main St.

WILLIAMS, Inc.

STRAW HATS

During the sultry days of July you will enjoy the comforts of a Sailor, Milan or Panama. Let us fit you with a hat that becomes you.

Shirts, Socks, Underwear, Caps, Neckwear, Polo Shirts and Bathing Suits.

$1.95 and up

SUITS

smartly tailored for business and dress wear.

$22.50 and up

USE OUR TEN PAYMENT PLAN

Get Your Kodak Out

—and keep your vacation days forever— We have genuine Eastman Kodaks and it is a well known fact that Eastman Film "the film in the yellow box" gets the best results for you.

Cine Kodaks $70 to $300

Kodaks $5 to $25

Brownies $2 to $6

We Carry All Sizes of Film in Stock

KEMP'S, INC.

Developing and Printing

Advertise in The Evening Herald-It Pays

Advertise in The Evening Herald-It Pays

DANCING JUDITH

By CORALIE STANTON and HEATH HOSKEN
COPYRIGHT 1930 BY CHELSEA HOUSE

BEGIN HERE TODAY
JUDITH GRANT, artist's model, loves ALAN STEYNE, painter, who is also loved by her roommate, CHUMMIE MORLEY, who lost her memory when Steyne disappeared seven years ago and only regained it after he returned. Feeling obligated to Chummie, Steyne has asked her to marry him, although she loves Judith. Judith is studying dancing under the great GUARVENUS, and is planning to star her in a musical show. She overhears Gideon Stornaway's conversation with the trait painter, that "Judith isn't the sort one can marry," and Steyne wars her against him. She goes to Stornaway's studio to pose, and finds Gideon there.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XXIII

Gideon greeted Judith with his usual deference, playfully remarking that Guarvenus must be a slave driver, and that she ought to escape from him now and then. "I am escaping from him," she said. "Why you have never turned your attention to the girls who would be attracted by you, or to the women of your own set, who value brains, knowledge of the world and good taste, and to whom life is a fine art. Why do you waste yourself on these little vulgarians? Think of Alisa Davenne—what she cost you, and how nearly she ruined your life!"

Gideon was suddenly roused. His pale face hardened into a mask; his forehead looked ghastly under its band of thick black hair. "I will pray you, my dear Thirza," he said, "not to mention that name in the same breath as Miss Grant's. And as for the woman you speak of, they bore me to distraction. All they want is money, and freedom to pursue their own particular form of self-indulgence. As you know perfectly well, I am attractive to no woman for myself alone."

His laugh rang through the room, silky but uncertain, suggestive of an immense edifice of pride built upon a shaky foundation. "Are you ridiculous, Bruce," his sister said rather sharply. "Nowadays even women do not need to be good looking in order to be attractive. Why should men?"

He did not reply. A moment later he was summoned to the telephone. When he came back to the little dining room, his sister was drawing on her shoes. "Are you entertaining in Venice in September?" she asked him casually.

"I don't think so," he answered after a second's hesitation; "but if you and Manuel and the boys want to come, I shall be delighted." She eyed him with a knowing smile as she went out of the room. "I'll give you plenty of notice before we come," she said significantly.

He accompanied her to the front door and saw her into the elevator. Then he stood looking down after her with a frown on his heavy brows and an ominous droop at the corners of his ill-natured mouth.

It happened that a domestic hitch prevented the Toros family from starting for Europe on the following day. They were obliged to spend another couple of nights in send her over to Paris to study for a while under Julia Chassier. Madame de Toros' smile was a challenge. "Bruce, you are not thinking of marrying her?" Gideon laughed. "My dear Thirza, what an idea! Then why all this trouble about her?" "What do you mean?" "What cher, I am a woman after all. The girl has no clothes, no jewels. She looks worked to death."

"She is." Madame de Toros lit another cigarette. "It mystifies me—volla tout." "We will leave it at that, my dear Thirza. Miss Grant is very interesting and very difficult."

"Ah! Not easy to manage, you mean?" It was Gideon's turn to shrug his shoulders now. "For the moment, she is wrapped up in her career." His sister smiled. "It has always puzzled me," she said, "why you have never turned your attention to the girls who would be attracted by you, or to the women of your own set, who value brains, knowledge of the world and good taste, and to whom life is a fine art. Why do you waste yourself on these little vulgarians? Think of Alisa Davenne—what she cost you, and how nearly she ruined your life!"

Gideon was suddenly roused. His pale face hardened into a mask; his forehead looked ghastly under its band of thick black hair. "I will pray you, my dear Thirza," he said, "not to mention that name in the same breath as Miss Grant's. And as for the woman you speak of, they bore me to distraction. All they want is money, and freedom to pursue their own particular form of self-indulgence. As you know perfectly well, I am attractive to no woman for myself alone."

His laugh rang through the room, silky but uncertain, suggestive of an immense edifice of pride built upon a shaky foundation. "Are you ridiculous, Bruce," his sister said rather sharply. "Nowadays even women do not need to be good looking in order to be attractive. Why should men?"

He did not reply. A moment later he was summoned to the telephone. When he came back to the little dining room, his sister was drawing on her shoes. "Are you entertaining in Venice in September?" she asked him casually.

"I don't think so," he answered after a second's hesitation; "but if you and Manuel and the boys want to come, I shall be delighted." She eyed him with a knowing smile as she went out of the room. "I'll give you plenty of notice before we come," she said significantly.

He accompanied her to the front door and saw her into the elevator. Then he stood looking down after her with a frown on his heavy brows and an ominous droop at the corners of his ill-natured mouth.

It happened that a domestic hitch prevented the Toros family from starting for Europe on the following day. They were obliged to spend another couple of nights in their New York house, though it was practically shut out. On the morning after her luncheon with her brother, Madame de Toros was rung up by Vincent Stornaway, who told her that he had been asked to send her portrait to an international exhibition in Madrid, and he wanted her consent. "I will come and have another look at it," she told him. The portrait was still in his studio, gotten what it looks like. "I've forgotten what it looks like. It's not too ugly, you can send it to Madrid, if you like."

She made an appointment with him, but was unable to keep it on time; but she went, on chance, about two hours later. She found Stornaway out, and his studio tenanted by a little person in rather startling clothes, whom she at once recognized as the girl she had seen with her brother.

She was glad of the opportunity of judging Judy Grant for herself. She smiled with her pleasant self-assurance as she advanced into the great room. Judy was a little gaudier even than she was. She wore a dress made of a Roman silk, scarf, with wide stripes of turquoise, rose, black, yellow, and green, hardly any sleeves, and a low-cut neck. At close quarters, Madame de Toros was struck by the garishness of Judy's general appearance. It was the face of a child, thought the woman of the world—so truthful, so candid, so utterly lacking in guile.

"Is Mr. Stornaway painting you, Miss Grant?" "I am sitting as a model. That's my trade, you know. I have to live while I'm working at my dancing. It was through Mr. Stornaway that I met Mr. Gideon."

Madame de Toros could make nothing out of it. "Are you expecting Mr. Stornaway?" she asked. "He should be here directly. My appointment was for about a quarter of an hour ago."

Stornaway came in just then, and Judy slipped into the model's dressing room. Madame de Toros inspected her portrait and told the artist that he could send it to Madrid to be exhibited, if he liked. "I suppose it's what you call strong," she said with a grimace. "It's certainly ugly!"

She did not see Judy, again. She went away more disturbed than before. Either the girl was very ugly, or she was a specimen of her sex that could only be described as unique.

(To Be Continued)

HENPECKED
At a dinner one of the speakers talked and talked until the chairman was unable to stand it any longer, and banged a loud bell, after which the talker sat down abruptly without completing his speech.

A guest sitting next to the chairman whispered with a sigh: "I wish I had a bell like that at home."—Tit-Bits.

Belted Silhouette Continues to Be Smart

Added Smartness in Kilted Flashes

By ANNETTE
The simulated buttoned closing gives a trim tailored-air to a white shantung sports model.

A dash of color in marine blue shantung with white polka-dots is either chic, noted in collar, cuffs and belt.

The white novel buttons have blue rims and centers.

The panel front and low placement of the plaited flounce are particularly striking features. The crossover effect of the bodice and button trim also produce lengthened line.

This attractive dress will be found very useful for all-occasion wear.

Style No. 777 comes in sizes 16, 18, 20 years, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30 inches bust.

It's a model that adapts itself perfectly to cotton pique which is so fashionable in white, dusty-pink, light green and baby blue shades.

Candy stripe silk shirting, pastel flat washable crepe, dotted batiste, cotton basket weave and linen smartly appropriate.

Pattern price 15 cents in stamps or coin (coin is preferred). Wrap coin carefully.

Manchester Herald Pattern Service
777
As our patterns are mailed from New York City please allow five days.
Price 15 Cents

Name
Size
Address

Send your order to the "Pattern Dept., Manchester Evening Herald, So. Manchester, Conn."

YOUR CHILDREN

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON
© 1930 by NEA Roberts, Inc.

It may help the mother who is getting ready for the new baby to know just what is needed for his wardrobe.

So often the young mother-to-be engages herself on small dresses and knitting wee coats and blankets only to find when the time comes that his babyship is without some of the real necessities for his small life.

Far be it from me to discourage all these love-stitches into which she works her dreams. That is one of the greatest joys in life. All I suggest is that she keep a watchful eye on French knots and garter lace that make laundry work an art and that make laundry very rub and irritate the satin skin of the future president.

The following list may be added to but I don't see how it can be subtracted from. It is the good old standard list usually handed on to the new mother:

Three abdominal bands, six to eight inches wide and twenty inches long, torn from very soft white wool flannel and unhemmed.

Three shirts, size 2, of wool and cotton mixture, or wool and silk mixture, but not all wool.

Four flannel skirts that fasten on the shoulders.

Three nightgowns of outing flannel (hannel). These should button down the front.

Eight plain white dresses or slips—very soft and laundered before using.

Three knit bands to take the place of the top band later. These should have shoulder straps and should be part wool.

Three, or better, four dozen diapers.

A long cloak and cap.

Two small blankets, preferably knitted or crocheted.

Six tiny sheets. These like the dresses should have the dressing washed out before using.

Three or four pairs of socks in summer. The same of white soft woolen stockings for winter.

A baby does not need a pillow for his head, but a couple of small pillows are good to have on hand for his carriage, to keep out the draughts, and later will be found necessary to support him when he starts to sit up. Often a mother finds a small slider-down pillow a great comfort to lay on her arm when she is holding the baby.

Other articles necessary for his toilet should be provided:

Four dozen safety pins of different sizes.

Several very soft old towels—old table linen is splendid, hemmed in squares. This is good for small wash-cloths also.

An old soft shawl or a flannellet bathing apron in which to wrap him for his daily bath. (I'm not fond of flannellet for this purpose, however, if there happens to be an open fire near the baby's bathtub. Flannellet is fuzzy and ignites easily. With a mother leaning and moving near to a flame with her attention on her work, it isn't so good.)

A small hot-water bag with flannel cover.

Pure unscented talcum powder.

Pure soap.

Old dry sheets.

Small package of boric acid.

And last but very important—a crib. Every baby should have his own bed from the first. A clothes basket makes good bed, or a mattress may be moved from any thick smooth material that won't kink or roll into lumps; table padding is good. It is used of course, folded several times. Such mattresses are preferable for a while to the regular mattresses because they can be washed and sun dried.

Other conveniences are:

Bath tub of rubber or tin. Small wooden frames on which to dry flannels without shaking. Baby's cot, low green. A low table or canvas covered frame on which to dress or bathe the baby. This saves a mother's strength and is one of the new ideas.

HAVE YOU HEARD?—

TROUBLE WITH EYE IS OFTEN DUE TO INFECTED TEETH OR TONSILS

BY DR. MORRIS FISHER
Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine

For at least twenty years the interest of medicine has been centered particularly upon the possibility that infections in the teeth, tonsils, joints and in other places—so-called focal infections—may be carried to the eye, the heart, the brain, the spine, cord, or other parts and there new infections be set up. Of particular interest is the manner in which the eye may become infected in this manner.

Recently Dr. A. F. MacCallan of London has described various types of disorders of the eye which were relieved by the recognition of such an infection and its removal. Of particular interest were certain cases in which the eyes were constantly filled with fluid or tears—a symptom called lacrimation.

A woman 32 years old whose eyes were always watering was found to have a considerable number of badly infected teeth. No other cause for such a disturbance of the eye could be ascertained. When the tooth condition was cleared up, the eye condition cleared up promptly. The result may have been coincidence, but it is reasonable to believe that there might also be a cause and effect relationship.

Inflammation of the eyelids is quite frequently associated with the presence of enlarged and infected tonsils. Sometimes these conditions are treated by lotions and ointments and by the provision of glasses and they will seem to improve temporarily, but the improvement will not be permanent until the infected teeth and tonsils are removed.

The most serious of the types of infection are ulcers of the eye which are frequently associated with infection of the mouth. In the presence of ulceration with a severe infection of the mouth, it is advisable that the dental treatment be immediate, since every moment of delay may make the condition more serious.

There are of course, certain forms of disorders of the eye which are apparently in no way related to focal infection, for example, cataracts. In an attempt to handle this condition numerous cases have been

London.—It is rumored among stylists here that the newest fide to be adopted by "smart" women will be tinted teeth. This, said, similar to that of tinted finger-nails, will produce teeth of all colors. In place of "teeth as white as pearls," open mouths flash red, blue, green, violet, or other colored teeth. It is said that this coloring will hide a lot of imperfections in the teeth.

HINTING
"Granddad, tell me a story."
"What sort of a story?"
"One about a little boy who had a kind granddad who took him to the movies every Sunday."—Buen Humor, Madrid.

NO CREDIT EXTENDED
BEGGAR: Spare me a copper.
BUSINESS MAN: I can't spare the time now—call again tomorrow.

HOW TO SHOP

CAPPING SUMMER STYLE
By William H. Baldwin

Caps, always high in the favor of boys, are worn by men mainly on outings or when attending or participating in sports events. For some of these occasions a particular form or style of cap is preferred.

Motorists may wear leather caps, hunters, caps of heavy canvas, corduroy or leather; fishermen, caps of duck or water-proofed canvas, and golfers, caps of soft woolsens, harshe-tweeds, or silk or linen. Whatever the material, the cut or style and the durability of the sewing are essentials to satisfactory wear.

Cloth caps are made from several pieces of fabric sewed together, or suitcases for this purpose, from coarse weaves of heavy tweeds, felted meltons and jerseys, to the finer worsteds, linens and silks. The sewing on caps, whether overlock, flat, cover seam or other stitching, be used, should be strong and durable with the best quality thread; and the sweatband should be of leather. Visors or peaks are made of buckram or cardboard covered with the same material as the crown and should be stiff enough to withstand ordinary usage.

HIS DUTY
COP: I'm afraid I shall have to take you in charge. Do you know that you've walked around that monument 75 times?
INTOXICATED: Well, I must do it, you know, old fellow; I'm a Rotarian.—Tit-Bits.

SORRY FOR HER
WIFE: One thing a woman expects when she marries is sympathy from her husband.
HUSBAND: Well, haven't you got it since you married me?
WIFE: Yes—from the whole town.—Hummer, Hamburg.

EXCESS ACID
SICKENS—GET RID OF IT!

Sour stomach, indigestion, gas. These are signs which usually mean just one thing; excess acid. The stomach nerves have been over-stimulated. Too much acid is making food sour in the stomach and intestines.

The way to correct excess acid is with an alkali. The best form of alkali for this purpose is Phillips Milk of Magnesia. Just take a spoonful of this harmless, almost tasteless preparation in a glass of water. It works instantly. The stomach becomes sweet. You are happy again in five minutes! Your heartburn, gas, headache, biliousness or indigestion has vanished!

Know Phillips Milk of Magnesia and you're through with crude methods forever. It is the pleasant way—the efficient way to alkalize the system; to relieve the effects of over-acidity.

Phillips Milk of Magnesia has been standard with doctors for over 50 years. 25c and 50c bottles at all drug stores. Be sure you get the genuine.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered trade mark of C. C. Chas. H. Phillips Chemical Co. and its predecessor, Chas. H. Phillips since 1875.—Adv.

HEALTH

BY DR. MORRIS FISHER
Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine

It is quite possible that the disturbance of the eye is caused not by the germ carried to the eye but by the development of the poisonous products of the germ and the effects of these poisons upon the tissue of the eye. It has long been known that the eye is sensitive to various types of poison and that blindness or inflammation of the eye is not infrequently a very early symptom of various forms of intoxication.

Both started something
Middletown, July 7.—(AP)—John S. Roth, the man who resigned as tax commissioner because he thought the salary too high for the work involved and thereby started the country, today discovered what publicity usually means.

A Cincinnati, Ohio, woman wrote as follows: "I am wondering if any gentleman have any money they do not want. I am a fine old lady doing a little charity. I have a few worthy ones I am helping and if you have no use for a few pennies, I will promise I will give them to a dear old man and woman."

Roth intimated that his pennies are pretty well tied up.

The most serious of the types of infection are ulcers of the eye which are frequently associated with infection of the mouth. In the presence of ulceration with a severe infection of the mouth, it is advisable that the dental treatment be immediate, since every moment of delay may make the condition more serious.

There are of course, certain forms of disorders of the eye which are apparently in no way related to focal infection, for example, cataracts. In an attempt to handle this condition numerous cases have been

London.—It is rumored among stylists here that the newest fide to be adopted by "smart" women will be tinted teeth. This, said, similar to that of tinted finger-nails, will produce teeth of all colors. In place of "teeth as white as pearls," open mouths flash red, blue, green, violet, or other colored teeth. It is said that this coloring will hide a lot of imperfections in the teeth.

HINTING
"Granddad, tell me a story."
"What sort of a story?"
"One about a little boy who had a kind granddad who took him to the movies every Sunday."—Buen Humor, Madrid.

NO CREDIT EXTENDED
BEGGAR: Spare me a copper.
BUSINESS MAN: I can't spare the time now—call again tomorrow.

and Yours

There's Witchery in Lovely Skin . . . says Hollywood

HOW people thrill to the charm of a beloved star when the revealing close-up brings her NEAR. A severe test of beauty, 45 Hollywood directors declare, that only the girl with exquisite skin can pass.

That is why the famous stars take devoted care of their skin with Lux Toilet Soap. "It takes such beautiful care of our skin," say 511 of the 521 important Hollywood actresses who use it regularly.

YOU will want to try it. For you, too, have a close-up test to pass! Admiring eyes close to YOUR skin must find it temptingly soft and smooth—alluringly lovely in the most trying light.

Use this fragrant white soap for the close-up complexion every girl wants. Order some and begin today.

JOSEPHINE DUNN, popular M. G. M. star "It's so refreshing!"

LOIS MORAN, loved Fox star "I love the way it makes my skin so soft!"

98% of the lovely screen complexions and radiant complexions everywhere are cared for with

LUX Toilet Soap—10¢

BE YOUR AGE

NOW THAT STYLES HAVE GONE ELEGANTIA MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS CAN BE DISTINGUISHED BY THEIR CLOTHES

TRAINS AND EAR RINGS REQUIRE THE GRACE AND DIGNITY THAT ONLY THE YEARS CAN BRING

PUFF SLEEVES AND DEMURE BOWS ARE FOR YOUTH

ELABORATE ERMINE WRAP LOOK RIDICULOUS ON A YOUNG GIRL

TRAILING A GOWN SHOULD BE LEFT FOR THE COMPLICATED WHILE THE SIMPLE DRESS IS BECOMING TO HER YOUNGER SISTER

It is the girl who is always about with?

Gideon did not hesitate in his reply. "A little model from Greenwich Village, my dear Thirza. Does it interest you?"

"I am wondering why you take her to the places you do," she went on. "I have seen you myself several times."

"Why shouldn't I?" he asked, with a low laugh. "It has not been your habit—that is all. These are places where you meet your friends. And Manuel saw you with her in the hotels and at all the very smart places."

Manuel was Madame de Toros' husband. "Well?" asked Gideon, his small eyes meeting his sister's with an expression of amusement.

"I was only asking," she said, shrugging her shoulders. She and her brother had always been good comrades. She had no fear of offending him.

"Miss Grant," he said, "is a rather remarkable little person."

"I take it she must be, to interest you," his sister answered. "But remarkable in what way?" "She is going to be a dancer. Guarvenus has taken her up, and she thinks much of her. He may

There's Witchery in Lovely Skin . . . says Hollywood
HOW people thrill to the charm of a beloved star when the revealing close-up brings her NEAR. A severe test of beauty, 45 Hollywood directors declare, that only the girl with exquisite skin can pass.
That is why the famous stars take devoted care of their skin with Lux Toilet Soap. "It takes such beautiful care of our skin," say 511 of the 521 important Hollywood actresses who use it regularly.
YOU will want to try it. For you, too, have a close-up test to pass! Admiring eyes close to YOUR skin must find it temptingly soft and smooth—alluringly lovely in the most trying light.
Use this fragrant white soap for the close-up complexion every girl wants. Order some and begin today.
JOSEPHINE DUNN, popular M. G. M. star "It's so refreshing!"
LOIS MORAN, loved Fox star "I love the way it makes my skin so soft!"
98% of the lovely screen complexions and radiant complexions everywhere are cared for with
LUX Toilet Soap—10¢

Art Mulligan Will Coach The Cubs Next Season

Hartford Man Is Named To Succeed Tom Kelley

Manager Clune Makes Known His Selection At Meeting Last Night; New Mentor Has Fine Reputation.

By THOMAS W. STOWE

Although the 1930 football season is still several months away, the town champion Cubs are already making plans for what they hope will be their banner season. At a meeting of the club last night, it was officially announced that Arthur J. Mulligan of Hartford has been selected as the new coach of the team succeeding Thomas F. Kelley who resigned at the close of the season.

Arthur J. Mulligan.

authority to find a successor to Kelley. Manager Clune said that he and Mulligan had come to terms and that a contract would be signed within the next week or so. Mulligan is the first out of town man to come here and coach a professional football team since the days of the old Army & Navy Club when Fred Webber was at the helm.

Since that time the work has been pretty well monopolized by three Manchester coaches, George Mooney, Jack Dwyer and Tom Kelley. Dwyer has coached teams at both the north and south ends of the town and last year handled the Major League team, the Hartford Cubs. He will again pilot the Cubs next season, it was stated this morning, thus assuring Manchester football lovers of another town classic.

Mulligan comes to Manchester with wide reputation and long experience in the coaching field. He is best known, perhaps, through his work with the All-Hartford and Hartford Giants, but he also developed the Hartford Blues and Hartford Redskins. He is a former college man. Art built up the All-Hartford largely from a bunch of railroad workmen in East Hartford to a point where they were able, with a few additions, to tackle the Providence Steamrollers.

The Cubs' new mentor is a strong believer in discipline and very strict on its enforcement. He is an advocate of plenty of practice, but regardless of how many sessions a team holds during the week, whether it be few or many, he insists that all of the members report. Without this sort of co-operation on the part of the players, Mulligan feels that it is impossible to get the maximum ability out of a team. And in this connection he states that the Cubs are no exception.

Satisfactory Terms The salary which Mulligan will receive for his work with the Cubs was not announced but Manager Clune said he was confident that the figure would prove satisfactory to all concerned when the proper time came for it to be made known to the players.

BAT WILL SHOOT A BODY BARRAGE AT MR. FERNANDEZ

Realizes From Former Bout That Filipino Has No "Button" But A Weak Tummy.

The former ring battle between Bat Battalino and Ignacio Fernandez, staged last February before a gallery that jammed the state armory brought tough sledding for the Hartford champion in the first few rounds.

Battalino and the rugged Filipino come together again on Monday night, July 14, at the Hurley Stadium at this time with the world's featherweight title at stake and over the fifteen-round route. The importance of this battle next Monday night makes the story of their other combat of much interest at this time.

A serious impediment in that clash in the big armory was a difference of opinion between Bat and Hy Malley and Lenny Marcello who were in the champion's corner. Both Malley and Marcello had the idea—and it was entirely correct—that the only vulnerable spot in the Filipino's armor was his body and they urged Battalino to concentrate his attack there.

The champion didn't agree with them and was resentful of the advice given him in his corner between rounds. So Bat wailed away at the Filipino's upper structure where a gatling gun would make no real impression, Fernandez having skin not unlike the hide of a rhinoceros and, as far as any of his opponents have been able to discern on "button," that is, no spot on his chin where a well-placed blow will send him reeling.

There was real wrangling in the corner, as newspapermen and front-row fans can attest, and it was a real handicap to the battle the featherweight champion was waging against the toughest adversary he had ever encountered in the ring.

Meanwhile, the battle was not going so well for Bat. He was down for eight in the third round and he was wobbling in the next two rounds.

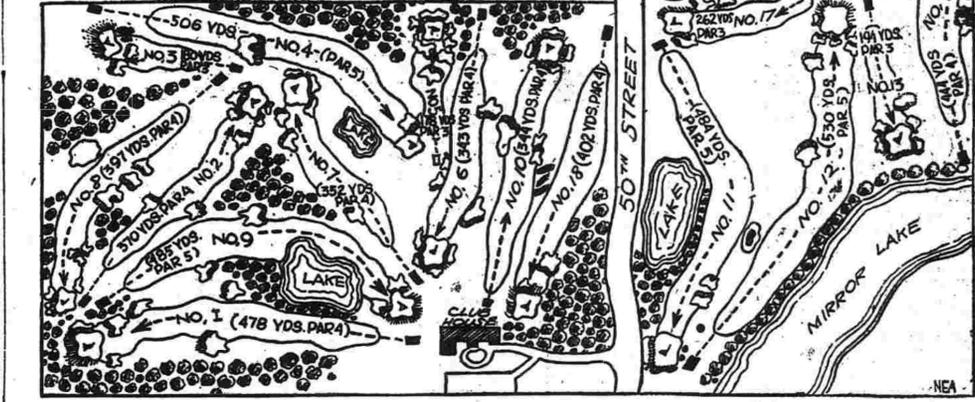

Finally in the seventh he acted on well-given advice and shifted to the Filipino's midsection; a terrific blow to the stomach doubled Fernandez and gave the first sign that any of the champion's blows had really hurt him.

The stomach attack took the "zip" out of Ignacio's punches and from that point on Battalino gave the doughty, little brown-skinned battler a lot of punishment.

INTERLACHEN A REAL TOUGH COURSE

A sketch of the course at Interlachen, Minneapolis, where the National Open golf championship will be played July 10 to 12, is shown below and to the right. The sketch is by Willie Kidd, professional at Interlachen, and outlines the hazards the golfer must negotiate to make a respectable score. Notice the numerous water holes and the dog-leg fairways. The fairways are narrowed to a nicety and the greens are closely guarded.

Willie Kidd, who has been responsible for a great many of the improvements around the course in preparation for the entertainment of the stars, says Number 2 is going to accuse as much difficulty as any of the holes. Accuracy is essential there, but the same holds true of most of the other holes.

Red Sox Nose Out Pirates In Thriller

The Red Sox nosed out the Pirates in a red hot ball game last night at the West Side 8-7. The Sox started off with a bang in the second inning scoring four runs. Hand hit to left, Hugh Moriarty walked and Bycholsky hit to center scoring Hand. Carlson struck out and Hadden was safe on Holland's error. Moriarty scored. Marcus Moriarty walked and Jack Hunt crashed the first one to deep right field scoring Bycholsky and Hadden.

"Cueball" Moriarty pitched hitless ball up until the fourth inning, when he was hit by the Pirates. Sturgeon got hold of a fast one that scored on a wild throw by Hadden. In the fourth the Red Sox accounted for another run. Marcus Moriarty got hit and came home on McConeky's hit to left. The fifth inning was a big one for the Pirates. Ty Holland hammered the first one in fast making a beautiful catch and pegged to Hunt to make a double killing. Stratton got hit and stole second on a fast one that scored on a wild throw by Hadden.

In the fourth the Red Sox accounted for another run. Marcus Moriarty got hit and came home on McConeky's hit to left. The fifth inning was a big one for the Pirates. Ty Holland hammered the first one in fast making a beautiful catch and pegged to Hunt to make a double killing. Stratton got hit and stole second on a fast one that scored on a wild throw by Hadden.

The score was then 7-5 in favor of the Pirates. In the sixth Bycholsky was safe when Fracchia dropped the last strike. Moriarty hit to left and got the man at first. Sturgeon was called in from the outfield with three men on, a mighty tough position to be in. Marcus Moriarty was the first to face Sturgeon and he "bummed" his way to first on a second strike. Moriarty hit to left and got the man at first. Sturgeon was called in from the outfield with three men on, a mighty tough position to be in. Marcus Moriarty was the first to face Sturgeon and he "bummed" his way to first on a second strike. Moriarty hit to left and got the man at first.

When the Sox came to bat Fraser was hit by the first ball pitched. Hugh Moriarty walked. Bycholsky hit to Jimmie O'Leary who made a nice pickup, but in trying for a double killing, hit Moriarty with the ball and all were safe.

Again Sturgeon faced a tough spot, three men on and no outs. He then wiffed Carney who after hitting about a dozen foul balls, missed a high one. Stavitzky, with two strikes on him dumped one down third base, which should have been an out had the third baseman played it, but Sturgeon took the play and just couldn't seem to get a hold of it, and Fraser scored ending the battle.

Pirates (7) A. B. R. H. P. O. A. E. Hedlund, cf. 3 0 1 2 0 0 0 Sturgeon, lf. p. 4 0 1 1 1 2 0 W. Holland, 3b. 4 0 0 1 2 0 0 Stratton, ss. 2 1 1 1 2 0 0 Chapman, 1b. 3 2 1 8 0 0 0 White, 1b. 1 0 0 1 0 0 0 Mahoney, lf. 3 1 1 0 0 0 0 O'Leary, if. 2 1 1 0 0 0 0 Raynor, rf. if. 1 0 1 2 0 0 0 Vennart, c. 2 1 0 1 2 0 0 Fracchia, c. 3 0 1 4 2 2 2 Kasulki, p. 3 0 0 0 3 0 0 Totals 35 7 7 19 12 5

Plenty of Trouble Awaits Bobby Jones And Other Golfers

Eight Dog-legs Dot Interlachen Course; Many Lakes and Scores of Sand Traps Form Hazards for U. S. Open Title Chasers; Four Par Five Holes.

Walter Hagen is credited with re-marking once about the golf course at St. Andrews, "it makes you try to steer your shots where you know they won't go if you do try," and that terse axiom may be said to be equally true of the Interlachen club at Minneapolis, where the National Open Championship opens its tumultuous three-day stand July 10.

There are 6700 yards of velvety greensward to be done in 72 strokes by the player who would stay abreast with par—approximately 100 yards more than either Olympia Fields or Winged Foot, where the last two opens have been held—but there is considerable more to the course than mere length, which, in these slambang days, has come to mean little or nothing.

Interlachen means "between lakes." Nature has helped man no little in conspiring to turn young golfing heads gray by dropping scores of small bodies of water into the picturesque rolling country of Minnesota. Within the confines of the club are many of these sparkling little moist jewels, and on several holes they are a terrifying adjunct to rough and sand.

Eight dog-leg holes of varying degrees and tightly-trapped greens make it imperative that the player who hopes to be even close to the top has excellent control of both his tee shots and his tries for the greens. Failure to get position on the drive is one of the most severely penalized errors in the layout.

The particular trouble of the four par 5 holes—the fourth, ninth, eleventh and twelfth. A pushed second on No. 4 is quite apt to disappear with a splash in the lake which hugs the fairway to the right, beginning about 400 yards from the tee. In particular, many of the ninth fairway in half and makes a strong second imperative; another almost an "8" out of the twelfth, after giving the player a fairly clear path all the way up from the tee.

clamps down on him at the green and compels an accurate pitch in order to escape the five traps which stand guard over the putting area. Numbers seven and eight are typical examples of the premium that is put on pistol-shot marksmanship off the tee. The former is a 352-yarder, but unless the drive is kept to the left of the dog-leg fairway, the second shot must be sent toward the tiny pinch of green. Even a well-placed drive must be followed by a pitch that cannot afford to be off line the slightest, else it will wind up in a bunker.

Number eight is almost as hazardous unless the drive comes to rest well to the right, in which case the green opens up nicely for the second. A pulled shot means nothing but trouble, for if it luckily misses one of the three traps which stare at you from the left hand side, another sandy waste remains to be carried just prior to reaching the green.

The four one-shotters are ideally arranged, they being numbers three and five on the first nine and thirteen and seventeen coming back. Their yardage gradually increases, starting with the 175-yard third and ending with the seventeenth at 250 yards, a full poke for all save the mightiest swatmen. Undoubtedly the most brutal short one is the 180-yard fifth, the hole on which most familiar with the course are predicting more than one hole-in-one will pass out of the running. It requires a No. 3 iron, and the ball must stick to the green or disaster will follow, for it is by far the most savagely protected parcel of Interlachen.

This will be Interlachen's first time as host to a national tournament. The Western Open was played there in 1914, Jim Barnes winning with a 293. Two years later the course was the scene of the Trans-Mississippi championship, captured that year by Harry Legg of Minneapolis.

Los Angeles, July 8.—(AP)—Miss Helene Madison, 17-year-old Seattle school girl who bettered four world records in the National A. U. U. swimming meet at Long Beach, has rejected an offer to turn professional, it became known today. The offer, from a New sportsman, was $10,000 for a series of exhibitions with Miss Martha Norelius.

Local Sport Chatter

With Art Mulligan at the helm, it goes without saying that the member of the Cubs football team will not get away with the "skipping practice act" unless they desire to warm the bench on the following Sunday.

The Cubs are opposed to paying out a lot of their hard earned money next season to defray the expenses of players coming here from out of town to play with the Cubs. This probably means that several of the star players, Happen, Donnelly, Melkie and others may not be seen in the Cub uniform next season.

Jack Cheney is sure abusing the pride of Old Man Far. Again last night he circled the 18-hole Manchester Country Club course in one stroke under par with a splendid 69. Last week he broke the amateur course record with a 68 and last night he had a chance to even better this mark. Young Cheney and Earl Ballester are taking part in a one-day tournament at Shuttlemeadow in New London, today.

Playing with E. C. Greer of Hartford as his amateur partner, Billy Martin, Country Club pro, turned in the sixth lowest score in the tournament at Sequin Sunday. Martin and Greer were called in 37-38-75. They had 15 pars and three holes one over. Billy shot a 78 and Greer a 92.

"Ricky" Anderson, assistant pro at the Country Club, is also quite a golfer. Last night he went the rounds under 80 for the fourth time this season, thanks to a birdie two on the home hole, the result of a pretty putt from the outside rim of the green.

Wednesday night the Yankees and Pirates meet and Friday the Red Sox and the Athletics in the West Side League.

Sammy Massey, who needs no introduction to the baseball fans of Manchester, has been placed on the Yankees, and has also been signed to play with the West Sides.

With The Leaders AMERICAN Batting—Gehrig, Yanks 392. Runs—Ruth, Yanks 94. Runs batted in—Gehrig, Yanks 88. Hits—Hodapp, Indians 111. Doubles—McManus, Tigers 27. Triples—Combs, Yanks 12. Home runs—Ruth, Yanks 32. Stolen bases—McManus, Tigers; Rice, Senators 12. NATIONAL Batting—O'Doul, Phils. 400. Runs—Cuyler, Cubs 77. Home runs—Klein, Phils. 86. Hits—Klein, Phils; Terry, Giants 114. Doubles—Friedl, Cards 26. Triples—Cuyler, Cubs 12. Home runs—Wilson, Cubs; Klein, Phils. 24. Stolen bases—Cuyler, Cubs 19.

Yesterday's Stars Earl Whitehall, Tigers—Gave White Sox only four hits in ten innings as Tigers won 3 to 2. Babe Herman, Robins—Hit 30th homer and pair of doubles to give Robins 3 1/2 victories over Braves. Al Chubb, Senators—Scattered Red Sox eight hits and beat them 6 to 1. Fred Lindstrom, Giants—Singled in 9th to drive in runs that beat Phils, 13 to 12. George Eshelbar, Browns—Bent Indians 6 to 1, giving up nine scattered hits.

LEGION VS. WILDCATS IN TONIGHT'S BATTLE The Legion baseball team engages the West Side Wildcats this evening at the West Side Playground. The Wildcats composed of school-boys-should-prove-rigged-opposition for the Legion. The contest is slated to start at 6 p. m. with the following batting orders: Legion: Kennedy, cf; Jolly, 1b; O'Leary, 2b; Fraser, 3b; Sturgeon, 4b; Raynor, 5b; Vennart, 6b; Hedlund, 7b; Kasulki, 8b; Mahoney, 9b. P. Hedlund. Wildcats: cf, Vince; 1b, Jolly; 2b, O'Leary; 3b, McConkey; 4b, Hadden; 5b, Squatrito; 6b, Civallo; 7b, Metoal; 8b, Mahoney; 9b, Fraser; p, Hedlund. 2b, Moriarty; 3b, Rautenbarg; 4b, Vennart; 5b, Lovett; 6b, Berger; p, Sendrowski.

HELENE MADISON WON'T TURN PRO Los Angeles, July 8.—(AP)—Miss Helene Madison, 17-year-old Seattle school girl who bettered four world records in the National A. U. U. swimming meet at Long Beach, has rejected an offer to turn professional, it became known today. The offer, from a New sportsman, was $10,000 for a series of exhibitions with Miss Martha Norelius.

Tilden Says Request Did Not Come In Time

New York, July 8.—(AP)—The North American Newspaper Alliance today published an explanation from William T. Tilden as to why he had refused an invitation to join the American team for the Lutzzone finals and the challenge round of the Davis Cup. Declaring that the invitation had come too late, Tilden said it would be unfair to ask for a release from his contract with the Alliance "at this late date." Under United States Lawn Tennis Association rules, no player may write currently of a tournament in which he is participating.

SONNENBERG IN DRAW Seattle, Wash., July 8.—(AP)—Dynamite Gus Sonnenberg, regarded as world's heavyweight wrestling champion in a majority of states, and Ed "Strangler" Lewis, world champion, wrestled eight rounds to a draw here last night under Australian rules. New York—Eddie Murdoch; Tulsa, Okla., outpointed Lopez; Tenorio, Philippines, ten.

NEW LOWER PRICES NOW PREVAIL FOR JULY LOWEST PRICES EVER QUOTED HIGH GRADE USED CARS 1930 Studebaker Dictator 8 Sedan, used as a Demonstrator, mileage 2,800. 1929 Commander 8 Sedan, used as a Demonstrator, mileage 2,200. 1928 Commander 6 Sedan 1927 Dictator Sedan 1927 Commander Victoria 1927 Standard 6 Sedan 1926 Big 6 Coach 1926 Big 6 Sedan 1925 Duplex Touring—This car run 8,800 miles. Looks like new. 1928 Oakland Coupe 1928 Paige Sedan 1927 Chevrolet Sport Coupe, rumble seat. 1925 Buick 7 Passenger Sedan 1925 Hudson Coach 1930 Dictator 8 Sedan Save $255 Now on a Quick Sale. 1929 Commander 8 Sedan Practically a New Car. Save $430 Now on a Quick Sale. OUR PRICES ARE RIGHT! OUR SALES PROVE IT! ALL CARS SOLD UNDER THE STUDEBAKER PLEDGE 5 Days Free Trial, 30 Days Free Service. Come In and See Our Cars COMPARE OUR PRICES You Will Be the Judge! We are from THE COLONIAL AUTO CO. 59 Farmington Avenue, Hartford, Conn. Studebaker Distributors Since 1914 All Cars On Sale THE CONKEY AUTO CO. 20 East Center Street At the Center

SENSE and NONSENSE

Biography Of A Married Man
Whatever you say about wedlock. Its manners, its drawbacks, its morals. It's only one long conversation. That's frequently varied by quarrels.

Happiness and measles have one thing in common, both are contagious.

The only day one should not begin to save his money is tomorrow.

Lies buried here one William Bold; Departed from this life, Because he went out into the cold Attired like his wife.

Mother—Why didn't you call me last night when that young man tried to kiss you?
Daughter—But, mother, I didn't know you wanted to be kissed.

Love is blind but the neighbors ain't.

Lawyer—Well—er—if you want by honest opinion . . .
Man—No, no—I want your professional advice.

Because she acts that way is no sign the nurse knows more about the case than the doctor.

"Strike when the iron is hot" and if you don't hit, keep striking until you do.

Game Warden—Hey! young man, what's the idea of hunting with last year's license?
Bliss—Oh, I'm only shooting at the birds I missed last year.

Opportunity can knock and maintain its popularity but you'd better not try it.

Chicago song: "Enlighten the corner where you are."

Bill—She's a rumble seat girl.
Sam—Howdy?
Bill—Oh, she just fits in anywhere.

Description never for long deceives anyone but him who practices it.

There was once a cynic who though he knew everything that was going to happen at a picture show. But he was wrong. One night the theater caught fire.

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS

It's a week-end case that discloses intimate things.

One trouble with the world today is that hair brushes and slippers don't get enough exercise in other ways.

Lady—You bad boy! How would you like to have some big rough animal chase you up a tree like that?
Boy—Believe me, lady, if I could climb a tree like that I wouldn't give a whoop who chased me.

Dumbell: Wants to know what kind of glue he should use to make a yard stick.

The straight and narrow path never suffers from traffic congestion.

If the good really die young, a lot of old kill-joys evidently have their definitions badly mixed.

Family Visitor—Where is your doll dear?
Infant (calmly)—Oh, the boy next door has the custody of the doll and I'm awarded three lollipops a week alimony.

HANDLESS POSTMASTER

Bell, Calif. — This town has a handleless postmaster in Charles C. M. McGonegal, 34, a World War veteran. After losing his hands in the war, he returned to this country and secured his present position. With special devices on his arms, he handles the mail, drives an automobile and performs other duties required of his position.

WALKING FISH

Chicago. — Walking fish had the curiosity seekers gaping here recently when several of them were exhibited at the Outdoor Life Show here. This species has its breathing apparatus adapted to life out of the water. By means of its fins and gills it can travel overland from one body of water to another. It is found in Asiatic waters.

ELECTRIC VIOLIN

London. — An electric violin, the notes of which are amplified by radio tubes, is causing no little comment in music circles here. The violin has no sound box, although there are four regulation strings. When the viola is played, amplifiers and transformers cause the tube circuits to emit perfectly pure tones of far greater volume than those produced by an ordinary violin.

ONCE UPON A TIME

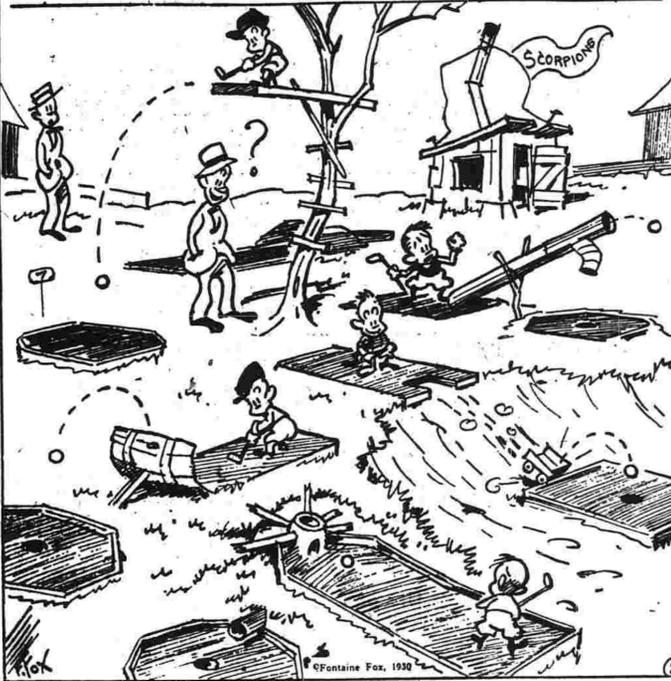

Walter Hagen, the colorful golfer, started as a caddy on a links at Rochester, N. Y. The Hags later became golf's first wealthy professional and has made more money in the game than anyone else.

SKIPPY

Toonerville Folks

THE HOME MADE TOM THUMB GOLF COURSE OF THE LITTLE SCORPIONS CLUB IS THE SPORTIEST COURSE IN THE WHOLE NEIGHBORHOOD.

By Fontaine Fox

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

By Gene Ahern

WASHINGTON TUBBS II

Another Trap

By Crane

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

Company!

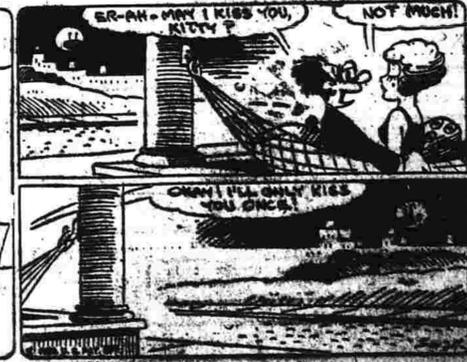

By Blosser

SALESMAN SAM

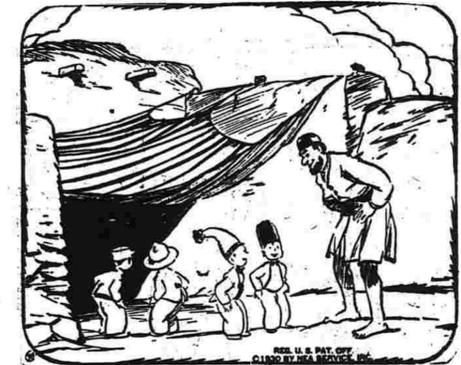

Just a Misunderstanding

By Small

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN - PICTURES BY KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE.)

While standing by the Caspian Sea, one Tiny said, "A thought strikes me. Why don't we have our lunch right here along the pretty shore? A picnic would be heaps of fun. Now, one of us could surely run and buy whatever we want to eat, if we can find a store."

The others shouted, "Gee, that's great. Let's do it! It gets too late. But, who will go and buy the food? That's what we'd like to know."

The Travel Man began to smile. He said, "Why, say, we'll eat in style. I know where I can buy some food, so I'm the one to go."

He found a pony big enough to take him over roads quite rough. Then, as he started off, he cried, "Now wait right here for me. I'll move as quickly as I can, as sure as I'm a Travel Man. Just play around and shortly, quite a nice surprise you'll see."

And so the Tinies did as told. Loop Clowny cried, "The water's cold, so we can't go in bathing. It might give us all a chill. Let's just sit down and rest a bit. At lunch time we'll be feeling fit. I'm sure that what the Travel Man brings back will be a thrill."

It wasn't long until they spied the Travel Man and Scouty cried, "Ah! Now we eat! And sure enough, they had a wondrous lunch. They passed copper small hats now and then. Said Copy, "Gee, let's visit one. That is a happy bunch."

And soon they stopped and looked around. The hut was built close to the ground and it was made of stone and mud. A real queer place to see. The Persian family came right out and told them what 'twas all about. The Tinies liked them cause they were kind as they could be.

(The Tinies meet some Persian youngsters in the next story.)

ABOUT TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. John P. McGrath and children of Brooklyn, N. Y., are visiting Mrs. McGrath's sisters, Mrs. James Campbell and Mrs. Frank Rawson of Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Haggerty of 30 Liberty street left yesterday morning on a two weeks' motor trip through Maine, New Hampshire and Canada. On their return home they will stop at Montpelier, Vermont, for a few days, the guests of Mrs. Haggerty's aunt.

The official board of the Church of the Nazarene will have a meeting this evening at 7:30 at the church.

Manchester Grange members will have an outing tomorrow evening at Bolton lake instead of the indoor meeting at Odd Fellows hall. The Grangers are requested to gather at the lake as near 6:30 as possible for a dog roast. If it should rain the get-together will be held in Odd Fellows hall. The committee in charge includes Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin, Mr. and Mrs. William Montie and Miss Grace Sowter.

The Philadelphia Club, which is affiliated with Mary B. Cheney Auxiliary, United Spanish War Veterans, will give a large whist and setback party this evening at 8:15 at the Highland Park clubhouse. There will be 12 prizes awarded and refreshments served. All players will be welcome.

JUST 3 LITTLE WORDS COST MIKE 6 MONTHS

Former Local Man Couldn't Resist Talking Out Loud and Judge Didn't Like It.

Michael Klukinski, formerly of Spruce street, South Manchester, who was the manager of a barber shop and a social club in New Britain six months ago and who was found guilty of keeping liquor with intent to sell, is serving the "is that all" part of his sentence.

Michael had a bright idea which he intended to turn into real money. Hiring a ground floor room for a barber shop he also engaged an upper room. It was called a social club and keys were sold to those who wished to use the clubroom. The New Britain police took exception to Michael's idea and visited the place where they found considerable liquor and Michael. He was given a sentence in the New Britain City Police Court, from which he appealed. At the session of the Superior Court in January he was sentenced to six months in jail.

This did not please Michael at all and he made the big mistake of his life when being sentenced in saying "is that all?" immediately the judge said "No; one year." Mike has completed the original six months but is now on "is that all" part.

ALL SAVING TINFOIL FOR CRIPPLED KIDS

If You See Prominent Citizens Picking Up Discarded Packages, Be Not Alarmed.

Many a well known Manchester man may be seen walking along the streets in town suddenly darting in to the roadway, to pick up a package and start to unroll the tinfoil that is found in the wrapping. Because so much of this has been noticed some have believed that many of the leading citizens of the town were "dippy" over business troubles.

Such is not the case. It seems that about everybody who wishes to do a little act of kindness has started saving the tinfoil. It is being collected and will be sent to the Shrine Hospital in Springfield where wonderful work is being done for crippled children. The tinfoil is sold and the proceeds go towards entertaining the little tots confined at the institution.

FINE HAY CROP, IF RAIN WOULD ONLY BE DISCREET

The rainy weather is causing the farmers who still raise hay a lot of trouble. It has been ideal weather for growing and there has been sufficient rain to give it a good start. The grass has been thick and a good crop was expected. Then came the time for cutting and curing. The men would get the hay out and spread it around for drying.

Along would come rain and wet the hay down and again it would be necessary to spread the piles around and let the hay dry out. This has been a continued round of work for the past week and when the hay does get dry it is drawn to sheds as soon as possible. Too much dampness is not going to help the crop, the farmers say.

Miss Mary F. Ferguson of 3 South Main street is motoring with her guests, Miss M. E. Short and Miss Elizabeth Barber of Lincoln, Nebraska, to visit friends at Poland Springs, Maine. They will be absent eight or ten days.

THOUSANDS OF THE BEST DRESSED MEN SAVE MONEY BY BUYING NASH GOLDEN RULE MADE TO MEASURE CLOTHES.

Having been the local representative over two years I am qualified to properly measure you for a suit, topcoat, overcoat or tuxedo. Over 200 beautiful all wool samples to select from.

For appointment Call 6265 Manchester or 172-5 Willimantic, Conn. A. Nash Co., Cincinnati, O. J. M. Champlin, Salesman. South Coventry, Conn.

Norton's Electrical Service

Generator Starter and Ignition Repairs

Our instruments locate trouble quickly saving you much time and annoyance. All makes repaired at a reasonable charge.

Drive Your Car in For Free Tests.

Norton Electrical Instrument Co.

Hilliard St. Dial 4060 (Near Manchester Freight Station)

33 Years Ago

WHEN William McKinley was president of the United States. Lorrin A. Cook was governor of Connecticut. Clarence Watkins was first selectman of the town. The population of Manchester was under 10,000. Old dobbin was a familiar sight on our streets. The High School graduating class consisted of ten graduates. When the prevailing fashion of the day was the leg-o-mutton sleeve and the circular skirt measuring seven to nine yards around in breadth. The automobile was a curiosity. The airplane was unheard of in this country. The oil lamp was commonly used. The total personnel of The J. W. Hale Company was six people. Back in those days Justus W. Hale, who up to that time had conducted a general store on Charter Oak Street, opened on the present site, the corner of Oak and Main Streets, Manchester's first dry goods store. The fundamental principles laid down by Mr. Hale when he opened the first dry goods store in Manchester prevail to this day: Full Value for Every Dollar Received and a Square Deal to All. Little did he realize that the small store which he started would grow to be Manchester's leading department store. During the past thirty-three years it has been the aim and the aspiration of The J. W. Hale Company to grow with this beautiful town and to serve the people of Manchester with needed commodities at fair prices in a friendly community way. It has been the custom of the J. W. Hale Company for a number of years to show our appreciation to our customers in a way which means savings in dollars to them. This year is no exception! The utmost effort by our department managers and our merchandise office has been put into securing wanted merchandise to be offered at the lowest prices in years.

Beginning, Thursday, July 10th, For 10 Days

HALL'S 33rd ANNIVERSARY SALE

Offering Hale's Standard Merchandise At The Lowest Prices In Years

Every 33rd Cash Sale Will Be Refunded Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Ask About It!

The J.W. Hale Company DEPARTMENT STORE SO. MANCHESTER, CONN.

Free Delivery to all Connecticut shores by our own motors. Out of town customers may call us without toll charge by calling "Enterprise" 1200. Store Closes Wednesday at 12 o'clock June, July and August. Open All Day Saturday.

Brown Thomson Announces Beginning Tomorrow SEMI-ANNUAL JULY SALE YORKE SHIRTS

Unequaled for Style, Comfort, Wear and at Economy Prices.

Here's an opportunity—buy a dozen or more Yorke Shirts, perfect in fit, make and finish, each garment made to fit like custom built. Choice of the finest materials, guaranteed fast colors and zero shrink. We will gladly replace any Yorke-Shirt that fades or shrinks.

Yorke Shirts—collars attached, collars to match, made of white broadcloth, woven madras, fancy broadcloth, wide or narrow stripes, fancy jacquards and checks. Values to $3.00. $1.85, 3 Shirts $5.25

Yorke Shirts, collars to match, collars attached. Made of woven madras, broadcloth and oxfords. $2.59 each, 2 Shirts $5.00

Yorke Silk Shirts and other brands, white and solid colors, collars to match or attached (not all sizes in all styles.) values to $8.50. $4.69 each, 2 for $9.00

Yorke Shirts, collars to match, imported madras and English broadcloth. White broadcloths with collars attached or neckband. $3.69 each, 2 for $7.00

Men's Shop—Street Floor Brown Thomson, Inc. Hartford's Shopping Center

ANNUAL SUMMER SALE STAMPED GOODS 25c, 35c, 50c and $1.00 Groups PRICES BELOW COST 20% discount on all other stamped goods on sales amounting to over $1.00. MRS. ELLIOTT'S SHOP. Room 4 555 Main St.

MONIE Pinehurst GOOD THINGS TO EAT Watermelons, whole, halves or quarters. Cantaloupes, Honey Dew. WEDNESDAY WE CLOSE AT NOON—DIAL 4181. Just in—Pickled and Lady Fingers, selling by the pound. Glass jars of Pickled Figs, Feet, plums and quarts. Lesco—O-Cedar Spray for moths, flies and ants. Black Flagg Powder and spray. Full strength Vinegar. Baked Ham, Corned Beef, Liver-wurst, Bologna, Veal Leaf, Pressed Ham, Tongue, Corned Beef. Freshly Ground Native Veal 44c lb. Veal and Lamb for stewing, boneless if you wish. Royal Scallot, Fats Dry Ginger Ale... $1.49 dozen Cucumbers (firm and fresh) 2 for 15c. Excellent value and quality. Green or Wax Beans 3 qts. 15c. Figs, 2 dozen... 35c. BLUE BERRIES 33c qt. Black Raspberries. FOR RENT—4 room apartment in Pinehurst building, $25.00 month summer months, $30.00 month when heat is turned on.

When In Hartford why not stop at the H-O-H for some of their Fresh Lobster Meat, Crabmeat, Shrimp, Soft Shell Crabs, Steaming Clams, Open Long Clams and Chowder Clams. We also serve in our Dining Room a "Five Course Lobster Shore Dinner" each day from 4 to 8 p. m. for only $1.50. Honiss's Oyster House 22 State Street, Hartford, Conn.

WATKINS BROTHERS, Inc. Funeral Directors ESTABLISHED 55 YEARS CHAPEL AT 11 OAK ST. Robert K. Anderson Funeral Director Phone: Office 5171 Residence 7494

WHEN YOU NEED MONEY NO... Your Signature is Our Only Requirement $5 to $5 Monthly Principal Payments... Ideal Financing Association, Inc. 555 Main St., Room 2, First Floor, South Coventry, Conn.

ADVERTISE IN THE HERALD... MEXICO IN MEXICO Mexico City, July 8—(AP)—The correspondent of Universal today reported that ten Agrarians had been killed and numerous others wounded in a battle between farmers of Huacachi and Soyotlan over disposal of surplus animal grants of land.