

MISSIONARIES: IN CHINA TELL OF RED MENACE

Say That Soldiers in Be- leaguered City of Kan- chow Are Ready to Join Communists' Attack.

Canton, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Four Catholic priests and eight nuns, forced to flee from Kanchow, Kiangsi province, when Communists depredations made it unsafe to remain, arrived here today after an eleven day journey through a country infested with brigands and Reds. The party included the Rev. Fathers MacGillivuddy, Glens Falls, N. Y.; McClintock, Brooklyn; Corbett, Boston; the Rev. Bishop Dumond and eight American sisters, the majority of whom were from Emmitsburg, Maryland. Members of the group said it became necessary to evacuate Kanchow as a result of the Nationalist government's persistent efforts to withdraw the meager defense forces there and move them further northward to assist in the defense of Nanchang against the red hordes besieging that city and surrounding territory.

Refused Wireless

They declared efforts of foreigners to ask the American Consul at Hankow that demands be made upon the nationalist government for retention of the troops in the city where they were stationed were nullified. The Chinese military refused to allow foreigners use of wireless equipment, this action causing them to decide to withdraw.

On August 3, the missionaries said, three Red flags were seen across the river from Kanchow, and it was believed the Reds were preparing an immediate attack on that city, but the onslaught failed to materialize. The following day, the defense garrison succeeded in repulsing the Communist killing fifty and later capturing a dozen of the Red force.

A captured spy, the missionaries said, revealed a letter saying the Reds planned an attack August 4. The same letter asked the defense forces to join in the Communist raiding the city.

The missionaries said it was considered many Reds were in the city, all fully armed, awaiting opportunity to join the attackers. On Aug. 4 merchants sounded alarms indicating the Reds were preparing to renew their efforts to capture the city. The missionaries, therefore, decided to leave at once, and did not learn the outcome of the anticipated Red attack.

Others Stay in City

A number of Protestant missionaries were urged to accompany the Catholic group to Canton but the Catholic fathers said they refused. Bishop O'Shea, Deep River, Conn., one French priest, two German Lutherans and five English Protestant missionaries remained in Kanchow despite the danger of the city's capture, they said.

WOMEN SWINDLED BY HARTFORD CO.

Police Seek Men Who Adver- tised to Provide Sewing to be Done at Home.

Hartford, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Two men, who it is charged, swindled hundreds of women throughout the country by obtaining two dollars from each upon promises to provide sewing to be done at home, were sought by police today.

Warrants for the arrest of Samuel Topf and Albert H. Berman were issued yesterday by Prosecuting Attorney Ernest McCormick after an investigation of the Better Business Bureau. Topf and Berman, however, suddenly closed up their combined offices and apartment and left the city.

Police Scheme

According to authorities, the men advertised home work on children's dresses and solicited women in all parts of the country, excluding Connecticut. In each case $2 was required. The women were to be paid $2.50 a dozen for sewing. They opened the office of the "Leona Children's Wear Company" here July 15 and from then until August 6 prepared the letters. The letters were received August 8 and since then, the Better Business Bureau reported, replies containing the $2 deposits came in by the hundreds.

George Miller, merchandising manager of the Better Business Bureau, questioned Berman and Topf after receiving letters inquiring about the "Leona Children's Wear Company." At that time Berman denied he was the Albert H. Berman who had promoted a similar scheme in Newark, N. J., in 1928.

IRISH CASINO TO RIVAL THE REAL MONTE CARLO

Dublin, Aug. 15.—Ireland is to have a gambling casino which will rival Monte Carlo, it is said. Backed by a group of English financiers, it is to be located at Bray, the seaside resort about 12 miles from here. It is to be pretentious, will have a "paradise" garden and amusements which are not found at the island resort. Present plans call for the expenditure of more than $300,000 in preparation, grading and surveying of the site.

DROUGHT RELIEF NOW ORGANIZED

Governors of 13 Stricken States Start Home With Details of the Plan.

Washington, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The stupendous task of building up a network of state and county relief organizations to tide drought stricken farm families over the winter, save livestock and prevent the spread of disease, today was under way.

Governors and representatives of the thirteen states most seriously affected by the prolonged dry weather headed homeward to carry out the program agreed on yesterday at President Hoover's conference. In each state where conditions warrant, a drought relief committee will be set up, headed by a leading citizen and including a state agriculture official, a banker, Red Cross representative, railroad representative and farmers.

County Units

The committee is to create in each affected county a group of similar composition. The county units will receive applications for relief, supplying locally all possible aid and pass on the others to the state groups.

Relief needs reaching beyond state resources will in turn, be passed on to a federal committee set up by the President, comprising representatives of the Department of Agriculture, the farm and farm loan boards, Red Cross, American Railway Association and Public Health Service.

This group will work with the state committees in providing credit for purchasing feed and seed, moving livestock to pasturage and other large scale tasks. Guarding human suffering, the Red Cross will set up its own committees in each county with the chairman of each represented on the county committee.

The Red Cross already has allotted $5,000,000 for this work pending the actual need.

DANGER CONTINUES ON INDIA'S BORDER

Peshawar May Be Attacked Any Moment by Savage Tribesmen, Is Report.

Peshawar, India, Aug. 15.—(AP) Threat of a tribal attack against Peshawar persisted today with new and dangerous elements entering into the situation.

Older heads among the Afridis who during the last fortnight menaced the city have gone back to the Tirah villages but they have been replaced by new arrivals, principally young men.

The internal feud between the Muss Kohls and the Mohmands has been settled and the Hajl of Turangzai is attempting to raise men among them to attack Peshawar.

A small Lashkar of Sunni Orals are reported to be gathering on the Khandi river, about to attack Kohat, which is strongly defended. The Kurram area is quiet after an intensive bombing.

Some All-Indian National Congress volunteers who have been holding daily meetings in the villages near Kohat and Banku have been arrested.

Missing Couple and $70,000 Safe

Mystery cloaked the return of Charles Kern, 80, wealthy retired bakery owner, and Mrs. Kern, above, to their home in St. Louis, allying fears that they had been kidnaped by a gang of swindlers. The Kerns, who carried a $70,000 bank draft to be used in a real estate transaction at Toledo, disappeared from a train at Defiance, Ohio, and were missing for two days while police combed gangland haunts in the belief that they were held captive. Kern refused to reveal where he and wife had been.

$500 PER MURDER OFFERED BY TONGS

Police Tipped Off by Youths Who Seemed to Agree to the Proposition.

New York, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Through the dark and mysterious haze of a fitfully warring Chinatown today moved the menace of Tong slaughter on a strictly cash basis.

For behind the arrest yesterday of three Chinese and a Filipino lay a story, the very ferocity of which startled even detectives. The story was told by two white youths whose identities remain a secret with the police to protect them from the fate they were hired to mete out to four On Leong Tongmen at $500 a murder.

A 19-year-old youth, friend of Detective Rosenberg, told him that as he was sitting in Bryant Park, dependent over his inability to find work, he was approached by the Filipino, Lamberto, Eulleran, 38, who asked him whether he was working.

$500 a Murder

The Filipino, the youth said, then told him he could make some money "if he had any guts."

"That's all I have got," the youth said he replied.

"What's the proposition?" "Murder Chiniks at $500 a Chinik," was the answer.

The youth said he agreed and promised to bring a companion into the prospect.

Tips Off Police

Arrangements were made to meet at a 26th street laundry last night. The youth tipped off Rosenberg who with four other detectives waited outside the laundry while the youths went in.

The two were introduced to the Chinese who gave them their instructions. Eulleran was to go with them. They were told four Chinese had been marked for death at their hands last night.

When the youths emerged from the laundry with Eulleran the detectives seized him, but the Filipino put up a terrific struggle and was subdued only after fifteen minutes of fighting. The detectives then arrested the Chinese.

IN HARTFORD

Hartford, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The headquarters of the On Leongs were under police guard here as the result of renewed tong warfare in New York and Boston. Leaders of the Hartford Chinese quarters appealed to Captain John M. Henry for protection yesterday and a policeman was assigned to the On Leong headquarters in State street.

HANDCUFF COP AND KILL HIM IN PORTLAND

Patrolman's Body Found Ly- ing on Beach—Had Been Attacked Before — Was Old Member of Force.

Portland, Me., Aug. 15.—(AP)—Handcuffed with his town "bracelets," Patrolman M. T. Connolly, 48, was slain early today and his body thrown face down in the sand on the beach below the eastern promenade, midway between the east end bathing beach and the Grand Trunk docks.

The body was discovered at 8 o'clock this morning. There was a hole above the right eye but whether it had been made by a bullet or a blow from a sharp instrument could not be determined pending an examination by physicians.

In Uniform

Connolly's coat was buttoned and his revolver was in his right hip pocket while his billy was in the small pocket provided for it. He was in uniform but his cap was missing.

There were several cuts and bruises on the back of his head. Connolly pulled in his last box after five o'clock this morning and when he failed to send in his next call, police started to hunt for him. Connolly had been a member of the force for 12 years. His widow and five children were spending the summer on Peaks Island.

Attacked Before

Connolly, fellow officers recalled, was the victim of an attack in the west end of the city a few years ago. At that time he was beaten and left lying on the street.

The place where the body was found is approximately one-half mile from where he pulled his last box.

Dr. Ralph Goodhue, medical examiner said the hole in the head had been made by a sharp instrument and not a bullet.

He said the blow would have been sufficient to stun the officer but alone would not have caused death. The exact cause of which could not be determined until further examination.

Connolly's watch had stopped a few minutes after 4 o'clock and as he pulled his box at 5:09 standard time authorities considered the possibility that some one other than the officer had pulled it in.

SPRINGFIELD HOLDS BAD CHECK PASSERS

Confess They Worked in Hartford Recently—Four Are in the Party.

Springfield, Mass., Aug. 15.—Two youths were arrested here today and the father of one of them and a woman companion were arrested later in Greenfield, the male members of the quartet being engaged, according to local police, in spreading worthless checks in this city, Hartford, Conn., Miami and other cities about which they were less specific.

Edward Govatos, 22, giving his address as 114 West 9th street, Boston and Creswick J. Young, 16, of 4 Wilbraham avenue, pleaded guilty in District Court to charges of vagrancy and larceny by means of worthless checks. Edward J. Young, of Jacksonville, Fla., father of one of the boys and said by Chief of Police Manning to be a notorious check passer and Alice Burtell of Philadelphia were charged with a statutory offense.

Police say the youths admit passing worthless checks in this city, Miami and Hartford and in other places.

BAD WEATHER FACING R-100 OVER ATLANTIC

Is Drought Serious? Read These Reports

Washington, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Tense stories of drought disaster were told before President Hoover's conference of governors. Some of the worst, relayed from county agricultural agents through Secretary Hyde, follow in part:

Bolivar county, Mississippi: "Feed for 10,000 mules needed. Local resources exhausted. Human suffering already seen. Hundreds of families going from place to place hungry and ill clad."

Carroll county, Mississippi: "No water. Livestock cannot last much longer. Conditions serious. Thousands of families will need food furnished this winter."

Diarrhea situation; 3,200 families will be furnished feed and food by banks and merchants on monthly basis.

Sebastier county, Louisiana: "Urgent need of food supplies for 3,200 human beings."

Columna county, Arkansas: "Local authorities will be unable to make further advances. The 2,500 families will be without food. One million dollars will be needed."

Conway county, Arkansas: "One thousand families without food and half a million dollars needed."

Poinsett county, Arkansas: "Wholesale stealing of food already started among poorer tenant families."

Daviess county, Kentucky: "No local agencies can possibly take care of existing conditions. Probably over 1,500 families will need food furnished this winter."

Nelson county, Kentucky: "Conditions frightful. Have let hogs go, no prospects of feed—3,000 persons starving this winter."

While many other counties reported conditions almost as bad, a majority were more optimistic.

BLAMES SCHOOL BOOKS FOR WAR'S CONTINUANCE

English Professor Says His- tories Tell of Nothing But Conflicts — Peace Time Monuments Rare.

Williamstown, Mass., Aug. 15.—(AP)—War and preparations for war would seem less important if children were taught that national greatness is measured in terms of moral victories, C. DeLisle Burns, professor of the University of Glasgow and lecturer of the University of London, told the Institute of Politics today.

Leading the general conference on the progress of western civilization, he said that men learn what their country is "from the teaching of history in the schools and the vague memories of school history which survive in the newspapers."

History is Warfare

"But history is generally nationalistic and bellicose," he said. "Children are taught that the chief object of their own country with foreigners has generally been victorious. Service of one's country is thought of as fighting against some other country. Monuments are raised everywhere, not to poets, but to soldiers."

An Oriental view of western civilization was presented by Yasuko Tsurumi, former member of the Japanese Imperial Diet. Japan's ambition, he said, is "to be the custodian of Oriental culture and the harmonizer of the civilization of the east and west."

"The admission by Japan of the superiority of the western civilization does not mean that we thought that your western civilization was a higher type of civilization as a whole," he declared. "Our only admission was that you had many superior points in culture. However, we have never conceded to the west that the latter had a more sublime civilization as a whole, or that the western people were more cultured than human beings were."

Mr. Tsurumi said that "nothing is as erroneous as to conclude that Japan has emerged from barbarism in 70 short years with the assistance of Commodore Perry." In Japan, he said, the conflict between the materialistic and the spiritualistic is acute.

RAIN SAVES CROPS

Torrington, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The rain last night and today saved the crops in this section from destruction by drought, farmers reported today. It came too late, however, to save the early fall apples, most of which have been ruined on the trees.

Mystery Woman Involved In Smith Brothers Murder

Hartford, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The mystery of the murder of David Smith of Sharon and his brother George Smith of Cornwall, in a hotel in Muskogee, Okla., last April became deeper and more complicated today with the return of State Policeman Thomas Rose, of Canaan, from the scene of the crime.

A woman enters the case for the first time, according to Rose's report to State Police Commissioner Robert T. Hurley. This woman of mystery was seen in Hotel Severs, where the double killing occurred the day after the Smith brothers and their friends, John Wiles of Sharon and Powell G. Seelye of Washington arrived on a business trip in connection with the affairs of the defunct New Milford Securities Company.

She was in the hotel the entire day of the murder she was in the hotel with two men in the case, Commissioner Hurley said.

For the seven months of the year ending with July the country has had a net increase in gold stock of $201,806,000.

Causes of the large gold exports were said by Grosvenor M. Jones, finance specialist of the Commerce Department, to be found in the increased foreign lending by America during the first half of this year. The United States has been extending short and long term credit abroad at an increased rate over that of 1929, he said, adding the gold movement resulting was to be regarded as probably a favorable general factor to world financial operations.

8:45 a. m.—Estimated crossed halfway mark of trip.
10:11 a. m.—Sighted by S. S. Cameronia, two thirds of the way across the Atlantic span.

Cardington, Eng., Aug. 15.—The R-100, Britain's giant dirigible, threatened by bad weather ahead, is winging her way steadily for the home base. Latest reports have her nearly three-quarters across the Atlantic.

Seeking the Great Circle route, and with hardly any deviation from it, the ship sped toward its hangar here at a speed of about 62 miles an hour.

If this speed is maintained the dirigible might be expected to reach Cardington in about 5 1/2 hours after departure from Montreal, or about 7 a. m. (G. M. T.) Saturday, 2 a. m. (S. T.).

Such a cross over a distance of 3,287 miles, air line, would compare with the Graf Zeppelin's record of 4,200 miles from Lakehurst to Friedrichshafen in 55 hours, 24 minutes, an average speed of 75 miles per hour.

Radio messages from the ship, both to stations in Canada and the Air Ministry at London said all was well aboard.

SPEED CUT DOWN

London, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The Air Ministry this morning reported the position of the R-100. British dirigible enroute to England from Montreal, at 6 a. m. G. M. T. (1 a. m. E. S. T.), at 53:05 North 39:20 West, which is about 1,555 miles from Montreal and 1,732 miles from Cardington, the ship's home.

In the six hours since the last preceding report the dirigible's speed has been cut by a cross-head wind from in excess of 60 miles per hour to about 32 miles per hour, and its average for the trip lowered to about 55 miles per hour.

Should the dirigible not gain in speed the remaining part of the journey her arrival at Cardington, which had been expected at dawn Saturday, probably will be greatly delayed.

The dirigible was proceeding eastward at an angle of 68 degrees east of north, facing a wind from an angle of 18 degrees east of north with a velocity of ten miles per hour. The ship's altitude was 2,000 feet, with rain ever since midnight.

ESCAPES STORM

Aboard R-100, Aug. 15.—(AP)—This dirigible, bound for England, during the night escaped what it appeared was a terrific storm.

Thursday evening's sunset was accompanied by dark clouds which shortly after filled the sky. The temperature dropped and there was every indication of the setting in of a furious atmospheric disturbance.

The dirigible descended almost precipitately 1,000 feet, and just in time managed to clear the storm zone. A heavy rain followed, but the airship maintained good speed and all is well.

Passengers were loud in praise of the officers' skill in navigation of the ship.

During the early hours of the morning the dirigible passed the half-way mark of its 3,287 mile voyage. The crossing thus far has been extraordinarily tranquil with (Continued on Page Two.)

JACKSON, O'BRINE STILL GOING GOOD

Leave Old Record Two Days Behind Them After 1,000 Hours.

St. Louis, Aug. 15.—(AP)—With the former endurance record two full days behind them, Dale Jackson and Forest O'Brine today drove their monoplane Greater St. Louis into its twenty-sixth day and on toward a 1,000 hour goal.

MOTORS ARE O. K. St. Louis, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Having announced "We'll be down when the motor stops running," Dale Jackson and Forest O'Brine today continued to circle leisurely over Lambert-St. Louis field in their monoplane Greater St. Louis, the previous sustained flight record far behind them.

Skilled mechanics turned knowing ears skyward but refused to hazard a guess on "when the motor stops running" will be. They said they were unable to detect the slightest trace of a faltering in the engine.

White Jackson and O'Brine continued to fly on and on their manager William H. Pickens was making plans to "strike while the iron is hot."

Manager's Plans "I'm going to take the boys on a state fair tour within two or three days after they come down," he said as he looked over a large number of offers which will spell financial reward to the airmen. Offers to exhibit at state fairs, theatrical offers, and offers to write testimonials for manufacturers whose products were used in the flight poured in on Pickens.

The flight already is paying financial returns to the pilots. An oil company is paying them $100 for each hour they remain aloft longer than the previous record but this offer will end after 70 hours.

Congratulatory messages continued to pour in, the senders including well known fliers. Eleanor Smith, women's altitude champion, hoped "You stay up till the ship separates" while Mrs. May Hazlip, aviatrix said she regarded Mrs. O'Brine and Mrs. Jackson, who have cooked the meals as "deserving no less than a citation."

MISS MARY WOODS, SILK WORKER 50 YRS., RETIRES

Cheney Brothers Pension Former Dressing Mill Employee—Lives at Fouracres.

Miss Mary Woods of Four Acres, 140 Cooper street, has been retired by Cheney Brothers on a pension after 50 years and seven months of almost continuous service.

Since the suspension of operations at the dressing mill in July, Miss Woods has not been regularly employed. She is enjoying good health and spoke reminiscently of the time when she first entered Cheney Brothers' employ and walked to her work every day from Manchester Green, where her father, the late Daniel Woods, was the village blacksmith. The mill with the clock was the "new mill" then, but Miss Woods says she has seen many new mills added to the Cheney plant since first she went there in 1876.

For 23 years she has made her home at Four Acres, formerly the Forest House, or since the death of both her parents and only brother. She has several cousins in town, and one of them, Miss Mary McAleer, also makes her home at 140 Cooper street.

Miss Woods says she has no plans for the future as yet. She is enjoying her rest after so many years of labor. She received her service pin for forty years, and U. J. Lupton of the industrial relations department has assured her that her pin for 50 years with the firm will soon be forthcoming.

DIES ON STREET Middletown, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Frank Hughes, 48, of Dover, N. H., who has been selling needles and pins on the streets here, died today in a hospital a few minutes after being freed in City Court on a charge of vagrancy.

He was arrested yesterday and appeared in court this morning. Free again he walked two blocks and then collapsed. He died soon after being admitted to a hospital.

Medical Examiner John E. Loveland began an investigation to learn what caused his death. GOVERNOR'S VACATION Plainville, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Governor John H. Trumbull left today for Moosehead Lake, Me., to join Mrs. Trumbull. He intends to do some hunting and fishing before returning to resume his duties.

ABOUT TOWN

The committee in charge of the outing consists of William Schiedge, Joseph Leggett and Joseph O'Brien. The feast will take the form of a clam bake which is always popular with the members. An interesting program of sports is under course of preparation.

Rev. Truman Woodward of the Congregational church in East Hartford will be the speaker Sunday morning at the union service of the Center Congregational and South Methodist churches at the Masonic Temple. The following Sunday, August 24, Rev. Dorrance B. Lathrop of the People's Baptist church of Providence will preach, and the last Sunday in August Rev. Laurence Barber of Nashua, N. H., who was born and brought up in Manchester, will occupy the pulpit.

Frank Busch is making steady progress at the Memorial hospital where he underwent a recent operation for appendicitis. He will be able to leave the hospital in the normal length of time.

The marriage of Miss Lena Rose Gasper of Andover, formerly of Four Acres, to August Ringhoffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Ringhoffer of 28 Putnam street will take place tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Hohenthal of Center street celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary quietly yesterday. They received many congratulatory messages, appropriate gifts and flowers from their friends here and elsewhere. Mrs. Hohenthal, who before her marriage was Miss Eunice Case, is prominent in local musical circles, and Mr. Hohenthal bids fair to become as well known in temperance and law enforcement organizations as his illustrious father, the late E. L. G. Hohenthal.

The Herald Hears

That a certain well known local shoemaker drinks a cup of coffee almost every hour each day.

That the East Hartford police have a trap for speeding motorists in Burnside. Two of three Manchester men were caught yesterday and one more today.

That the present rain storm is welcome but not sufficient in either intensity or longevity to satisfy the farmer.

That a certain married man not far from the center of the town is due for a warning tomorrow that he must cut out some of his capers of late and be more faithful to wifely dear.

CONGRESSIONAL MEDAL PRESENTED TO LINDY

After Simple Ceremony Colonel and His Wife Are Guests at the White House.

Washington, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Charles A. Lindbergh today was presented with a special Congressional Medal of Honor in recognition of his achievements in the air.

In his office at the White House, with high officials of the government grouped about him, President Hoover, smiling broadly, handed the medal to the young aviator saying: "It is a real pleasure to present you this Congressional medal on behalf of Congress and in commemoration of your achievements in aviation. I am sure the sentiment expressed by congress is shared by the whole American people."

Lindbergh, replying, said: "Mr. President I thank you and wish to express my thanks to Congress and my appreciation to you."

Grouped around the President, in addition to Mrs. Lindbergh, were Secretary Hupley and Secretary Adams, the four highest government officials handling aviation matters and other officers of the government.

Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh were guests at the White House at luncheon after the ceremony.

The Radio Commission still seems to be up in the air about rights and privileges.

OLD AGE PENSION FOR STATE NEXT

Labor Federation Outlines Bill to be Introduced at Next Legislature.

Bridgeport, Aug. 15.—(AP)—John J. Egan, secretary of the Connecticut Federation of Labor today made public the details of an old age pension bill which will be introduced at the next session of the Legislature.

Drafted by a committee representing the Federation of Labor and ten other organizations of the state the bill provides a pension of $9 a week to every indigent person over the age of 65 years provided he had been a resident of the state fifteen years and has had no prison record within ten years prior to the application for the pension. The applicant for the pension Mr. Egan said must also show he is a citizen of the United States and has no one legally responsible and fully capable of supporting him.

A commission of five men appointed by the governor would be responsible for the administration of the pension under the provisions of the proposed statute. Mr. Egan said the pension would be paid monthly in cash.

GOVERNOR DISAPPROVES Hartford, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Governor Trumbull today expressed disapproval of any old age pension measure that would call for doles or outright cash donations as a solution to the problem of caring for aged men unable to support themselves by working.

The governor, however, said he was not able to offer a definite opinion on the old age pension bill proposed by the Connecticut Federation of Labor and ten other organizations because he has not read the bill. At the same time he admitted that the old age problem created a situation "we've got to face some time."

ATTEMPT TO BURN CHILDREN'S CAMP

Mob of 2,000 Enraged Because Leaders Refuse to Accept An American Flag

Elmira, N. Y., Aug. 15.—(AP)—A threatening mob of 2,000 men and boys with a sprinkling of women, were held to a deadline today by Sheriff Harry J. Tift and six deputies, assisted by a dozen state troopers, at the Communist Children's Camp at Van Etten, following threats last night to burn the camp. Leaders of a mob of 200 persons from Waverly, N. Y., and Sayre and Athens, Pa., last night gave camp heads and the 70 children under their charge a half hour to leave before they set fire to the camp. Authorities arrived just in time to prevent the threat being carried out.

The trouble began last Friday when a patriotic society's offer of an American flag was refused by Mabel Husa and Alene Holmes, leaders of the International Workers' Relief Camp for Children at Van Etten.

Leaders Arrested — Miss Husa and Miss Holmes were arrested on a charge of desecrating the flag after a mob had torn a red flag from the entrance and had burned a fiery cross there.

At their hearing yesterday the two young women obtained a postponement until tomorrow. Members of the International Labor Defense were present at the hearing.

The 70 children in the camp were terrified when leaders of the mob, wearing white armbands, ordered the camp heads to leave before they burned it. Mob leaders said that they were determined to destroy the camp before the inmates leave tomorrow, the last day of their stay.

RAIN TOO LATE

Hartford, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The rain today was declared inadequate to bring any great benefits to crops in Hartford county, said Charles D. Lewis, agent for the Hartford county Farm Bureau. While the rain fell steadily for several hours it did not come in any great volume and it was quickly absorbed by the soil, added Mr. Lewis. About 35 of an inch fell up to 11 a. m.

The drought has caused a shrinkage of approximately 25 per cent in the Hartford county potato crop, according to Mr. Lewis.

Mr. Lewis said the rain today would revive the tobacco, particularly that on light soil, which has suffered greatly.

For this reason no shortage in the supply has been reported.

DANGER CONTINUES

ON INDIA'S BORDER

ing Afridi tribesmen have been engaged in an attack on the city as serious and one of considerable gravity and danger. The raiders' total strength about Peshawar was said to be about 1,200 now.

"They move about rapidly in gangs of 50 to 100 among the ravines and walled gardens and villages," the communique said.

"Military action is being taken against them but decisive action is difficult at the present season when the crops are high. They undoubtedly are receiving shelter, food, and assistance from villages in the neighborhood of Peshawar, and the villages actually have joined them when there appeared prospect of loot."

Reinforcements Arrive. The communique said that a number of the hostile tribesmen had left the district and returned to the Tirah villages but that reinforcements kept arriving and the situation must be regarded as critical until the last of the enemy have been definitely expelled from here.

The Tirah Afridis are doing everything possible to enlist cooperation of the Mohmands to the north and of the Hassar, Khel, Asho Khel, and the Pass Afridis to the south, while two sections of the Orakzai are already known to have raised a Lashkar in Tirah with the intention of attacking Kohat. There is ample troop strength in Peshawar and Kohat districts, which are fully prepared for all emergencies. There is a widespread feeling of uneasiness locally, and public confidence will be difficult to restore until the gangs of armed tribesmen have been ejected from the district. Whatever measures are necessary to this end will be taken.

POTTERY PLANTS

RUINED BY FIRE

Half Million Dollar Blaze Destroys One of Oldest Factories in U. S.

Cambridge, Mass., Aug. 15.—(AP)—Flames that destroyed the buildings of A. H. Hews and Company, Inc., owners of one of the country's largest and oldest pottery plants, were brought under control early today by the combined efforts of Cambridge, Boston, Belmont, Arlington and Somerville firemen. Loss was estimated by Daniel Lockwood, treasurer of the company at $500,000.

Traffic along the Fitchburg division of the Boston and Maine railroad, which bounds the plant on one side, was held up until a late hour, while sections of the railroad, working through the night, had cleared the right of way. Trains were rerouted during the night and early morning hours. The blockage was caused by falling bricks from crumbling walls and two high chimneys of the plant.

Heat and hot air explosions kept fire fighters "well back" from the plant buildings. Outside help was called for for when nearby tenements became endangered and all of Cambridge's apparatus had failed to make any noticeable headway. Thousands of gallons of oil stored in the buildings added to the terrific heat and roared the firemen during the early hours of the fire, which started shortly before 11 o'clock last night.

The pottery plant was founded in 1765. Most of the present buildings were very old. Lockwood said, and every prevention precaution had been taken because the old wood was like tinder. The loss was covered fully by insurance, he said, and reconstruction would be started immediately.

Just one injury was reported. William F. McGrath, 17 year old son of a Cambridge fireman, injured his leg when he fell into the elevator of the burning building. He was pulled out of the pit by firemen, who lowered a rope to him.

GIVEN SURPRISE PARTY

ON 81ST BIRTHDAY

Miss Catherine Sullivan of 88 Oakland street who yesterday attained her eighty-first birthday was the guest of honor at a party given by her cousins, Miss Josephine and Miss Margaret Sullivan, at their home, 67 Oakland street. The guests numbered 18 and were relatives of Miss Sullivan from this town and Hartford and near neighbors and friends both women and men.

It came as a complete surprise to "Cousin Kate," who with her sister Elizabeth was induced to come over to the Sullivan home a few steps further down the street for a clam chowder supper, as they supposed. When they arrived they found the house elaborately decorated in a color scheme of blue and gold and their friends and relatives already there. Last year on the occasion of her eightieth birthday a similar celebration was arranged by the same group practically, and Miss Sullivan was not expecting a repetition. Nevertheless she was delighted and spent a very happy afternoon.

The guests represented all ages and no special entertainment, other than music and the bountiful repast was provided. The table was very tastefully decorated and at each place the favors were small bouquets of blue and gold flowers. The birthday cake, which was made and decorated in the kitchen of Mrs. Wells Strickland, bore 81 blue and gold lighted tapers. Mrs. Strickland also presented to Miss Sullivan a beautiful blue and gold basket filled with flowers. She also received many other pretty and useful gifts and immensely enjoyed the party, expressing her hearty appreciation of everybody's kindness to her.

GUNS OF GANGSTERS

ROAR IN MIDWEST

Tommy Abbott, well known Chicago gangster, who stood nearby. Moran Gummam, Abbott described by police as one of the chief executioners for the Moran gang, was one of the many suspects in two of Chicago's recent gang killings—the slaying of Jake Lingle, Tribune reporter, and the subsequent killing of Jack Zuta, vice overlord.

Of the three men killed near St. Paul Wednesday night, two were positively identified as bank robbers and the third was believed to have been a member of the "Six Scouts" Police knew little of the recent activities, however, and could only guess at the motive for the assassinations.

The theories ranged all the way from the conjecture that the robbers had quarreled over division of their loot to the belief they interfered with an attempt on the part of the Chicago gang leader, George "Bugs" Moran, to organize the twin city area.

DELAY BOMBERS' TRIAL

Dixon, Ky., Aug. 15.—(AP)—The examining trials of Paul Montgomery, Richard Grant and Ewing Riley, charged with having dropped nine bombs on the coal fields here last Monday were postponed in county court today.

Montgomery whose confession that he piloted the plane still is held at Murphysboro, Ill., and Grant and Riley, two striking miners, are at liberty on $5,000 bond each. In Illinois it has not been decided whether Montgomery and James Malone, another aviator, who is said to have introduced Grant and Riley to Montgomery, are to be prosecuted in the state or Federal courts. This left indefinite for the present the time for further court action here.

James Harvey, 33, a miner, was arrested here today in connection with the bombing and it was announced that Noble Harris, also of Providence, also was arrested.

POLICE COURT

Frederick V. Pauloz of Berlin paid a fine of $25 and costs in the Manchester Police Court this morning for speeding his automobile through Manchester last night. He was arrested by Traffic Officer Prentice near the Miller farm on Hartford road. According to the testimony of the officer, Pauloz went through East Center street at a rate of 60 miles an hour. He slowed up going through the Center but continued on down Center street at an exceptionally fast rate of speed. Prentice had hard work to overtake him and probably could not have done so had Pauloz not been stopped by the corn borer officials.

The charge against him was reckless driving. However, because of the fact that the young man is employed by the American Telephone and Telephone Company and is depending on the use of his automobile in his work, Judge Johnson allowed the charge to be changed to speeding. Pauloz was defended by Attorney William S. Hyde who made an earnest plea in the young man's behalf, stating that he was of good character and had not been in police court before. He stated he did not realize he was going so fast.

VERMONT'S TANGLE IS GROWING WORSE

Supposed Dead Woman Alive and Now Who Was the Real Dead Woman?

Springfield, Vt., Aug. 15.—(AP)—Returned from the dead, Mrs. Catherine R. Packard waited in a hotel guarded by detectives today for her husband. The meeting, authorities hoped, would offer some clue to the identity of the woman whose body was identified as Mrs. Packard's months ago and to the circumstances surrounding her death.

George J. Packard, Mrs. Packard's husband, started for Springfield last night from St. Albans where the news of his wife's reappearance reached him just a month after he had married Margaret L. MacFarland of Rutland, in the belief that his first wife had been dead a year.

Threatened Suicide

Mrs. Packard disappeared more than a year ago after a series of quarrels with her husband. She had threatened suicide several times. Last August the body of a woman was found in a field at Chester, Vermont. The woman had died of poison sometime before and the suicide was the medical examiner's verdict. Packard identified her as his wife and William F. Kingston of Boston, handwriting expert, identified a suicide note found near the body as in Mrs. Packard's handwriting. However, an insurance company did not accept the verdict and refused payment on the woman's policy.

Supposed Dead

A few days ago Mrs. Packard turned up in Manchester, N. H., and was brought to Bellows Falls. There she was surprised to learn that she had been supposed dead. Yesterday she was placed under arrest as a material witness by State Detective E. C. Brown who had worked on the case after the body at Chester was found.

Mrs. Packard could throw no light on who the woman was. She spoke of suicide notes she had written in periods of despondency and thought perhaps she might have lost one of them. She also thought the woman had been murdered, but couldn't say why. Last night she went to church unguarded.

HOPE ABANDONED FOR TRAPPED MEN

46 Miners in Canadian Mine Given Up for Dead Today.

Princeton, B. C., Aug. 15.—(AP)—Although hope vitally was abandoned today for the 46 men imprisoned by an explosion in the Blakeburn mine at Coalmont since 7 p. m. Wednesday, rescue parties worked strenuously today to reach the entombed miners.

While the main air broken by the blast, had been repaired and pipes to work air in the tunnels was so laden with poisonous gases that the rescuers were able to work only in short shifts. Gas masks and other safety equipment were employed.

The bodies of two hoist men, Albert Cole, 19, and Clifford Smith, 40, were brought out shortly after the explosion. Their deaths were pronounced due to "after damp," a deadly mine gas. One man was rescued alive.

The entombed men were believed to be nearly 1,800 feet from the mine portal. Workmen had penetrated 2,900 feet from the entrance last night. They reported the tunnels choked with debris and said the work of clearing the passageways was constantly becoming more difficult on account of the lack of air.

A West Virginia coal operator has urged the president to suspend radio broadcasting because in his belief it has caused the drought. To be sure, the programs have been rather dry of late.

Dinner—Broiled lamb chops, small green peas, 5-minute cabbage, Artichoke salad, apricot whip.
Salad of watermelon and cantaloupe.

loupe: Select a thoroughly ripe, dark colored watermelon and small well flavored yellow cantaloupes. Grill and cut melons through center. Remove all seeds and with a Parisian potato baller (which may be purchased in any hardware store) scoop out small balls of each melon and heap on large lettuce-covered plates. Serve very cold, with no kind of dressing. Smaller portions of only two or three balls of each kind of melon, may be served as cocktails at the beginning of a meal, if desired.

The acids of these fruits are very mild and their combination causes no harm, as in the ordinary fruit salad where the more acid fruits are used and where, dietetically considered, the juices are not compatible.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Can Adults Grow)
Question: Mrs. E. writes: "I recently read an article regarding the influence of the pituitary gland upon growth—that there were certain treatments which would influence this gland toward producing growth. Would that mean increased strength as well as physical growth? Children gain strength as they grow, you know. I am of very small stature and seem to be literally wearing out, and I have so much to live for that I would try anything. How could I get in touch with anyone familiar with this method?"

Answer: The pituitary gland treatments are still in an experimental stage and their value has not been definitely ascertained. It is doubtful if they would be of value in increasing the growth of one who is mature. You may be able to increase your height slightly by spinal exercises and much walking, but, withal, you will probably have to console yourself with the fact that a short stature is not a detriment to a woman.

(Food Questions)
Question: Miss C. A. W. writes: "(1) Does not intestinal putrefactive quality of meats render them more objectionable than other forms of protein food? (2) Is it true that asparagus is not advisable for persons suffering from diseased or weak kidneys? (3) Are eggs a good food for such persons? (4) Is it true that two ounces of protein food is sufficient daily for the average adult?"

Answer: (1) No, not when taken with fresh salad vegetables. (2) A moderate use of asparagus is not injurious. (3) You should be able to handle a limited number of eggs, about one a day, properly prepared by cooking or poaching. (4) More protein food is necessary when no starches are used.

TODAY IS THE ANNIVERSARY

THE PANAMA CANAL

On Aug. 15, 1914, the Panama Canal, the ship canal across the Isthmus of Panama connecting the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, was opened to commercial traffic by the passage of the government steamship Ancon, carrying the Secretary of War and 200 guests. The passage was made in nine hours and 40 minutes.

From that time the canal has been opened to general traffic, except when the slides at Culebra hill and at Cucaracha have interrupted navigation. At the end of the first year 1317 ocean-going vessels passed through the canal paying in tolls $5,216,140. The tolls were established by the president at the rate of $1.20 per net vessel ton for loaded vessels.

The canal is 50 miles long and cost about $4,000,000 to build. The engineer to whom greatest credit is due for the success in its construction is Col. George W. Goethals.

Both Col. Goethals and Col. William C. Gorgas, through whose work in sanitation improvements on the Isthmus it was possible to construct the canal under favorable health conditions, were raised to the rank of major-general in recognition of their services.

"Nothing so educates us as a shock," says Will Durant. This will be sort of flattering to those who have been splashed by jocosse bathers at the beach this summer.

REDS ADVANCING ON NANKING NOW

Dozen Foreign Warships Nearby to Take Nationals From the City Today.

Nanking, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Communists today were reported advancing against this Nationalist government capital and the sister cities of Hankow, Hanyang and Wuchang, 600 miles up the Yangtze river. This city was virtually defenseless and appeared doomed should the Reds carry out their threatened attack. Few defenders remained inside the 32 mile wall enclosing the capital, virtually all troops having been drawn to fronts where government forces and northern rebels are fighting for supremacy.

Peasants Armed
Uneasiness was rife here as peasants turned Communists and appeared in surrounding towns armed with rifles. Many persons suspected of being Communists were summarily executed at Hankow where sandbag defenses were being made and machine guns mounted. Thousands of terrified Chinese poured into the city, frightened from their outlying homes by the invaders. A dozen foreign warships were anchored at Hankow, affording foreigners a means of escape in case of emergency. Many foreign commercial vessels also were anchored there ready to evacuate their crews. Changsha, Hunan province capital recently sacked and burned by Communists was reported to have been recaptured by Reds.

MOTHER KILLS MAN

WHO WEDS DAUGHTER

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 15.—(AP)—Mrs. Elizabeth Attitilo, 40, shot to death James Cassidy, 48, today after he had called at her home to announce he had married her 18-year-old daughter Rose.

The girl who had accompanied Cassidy and stood below the house steps in West Philadelphia, collapsed as her mother fired the shot at the man who had turned away as though to run.

Cassidy had been boarding for some years at the home of Mr. Attitilo. She told police she did not suspect his attachment for her daughter until they left her house yesterday.

8 PRISONERS FLEE

Lewisburg, W. Va., Aug. 14.—(AP)—Seven Greenbrier county prisoners, one of them under sentence to die for murder, were at liberty today in the mountains near here. One of the group of eight who escaped from the county jail last night was recaptured this morning.

County officers believed most of the fugitives would flee across the Virginia state line a few miles away. Their trails were obliterated by a hard rain.

The man convicted of murder is Roosevelt Darnell, sentenced to be hanged November 14 for the slaying of Clarence Holbrook.

STEAL $20,000 IN GEMS

New York, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Four young men held up a jewelry store owned by Klava Vasnor in Church street, Brooklyn, today, and escaped with diamonds he valued at $20,000.

Vasnor and his son had just opened the store when the robbers entered and one displayed a gun. They took a tray of diamonds from the safe and warning the Vasnors not to follow them, ran into the street and escaped in a taxicab.

NEEDS MORE WATER

Washington, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Governor Emerson of Illinois appealed today to Secretary Hurley to permit an increase in the flow of water from Lake Michigan into the Chicago river. The governor reported the low water in the river did not serve to carry away sewage from the city and asked emergency permission to increase the flow from the lake.

Secretary Hurley said he would refer the request to engineering and legal advisors. However, Army officials believe the flow cannot be increased beyond the maximum established by Chief Justice Hughes while acting as a special Supreme Court master to decide the question.

DENY OIL REPORT

Madrid, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Denials were made at the offices of the government oil monopoly and the Department of the Treasury of any knowledge of a reported offer by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey to loan Spain $100,000,000 for the oil monopoly. Nevertheless rumors persisted on the Bourse that the offer had been made but had been declined by the government.

In some well informed quarters it was thought that some such negotiations may have been under way.

Wrecked Vessels, Subs, Pacific Skipper's 'Fleet'

San Francisco (AP)—Battered, wrecked ships compose the fortune of Capt. Thomas Patrick Henry Whitlaw. His fleet of 71 vessels... barks, yachts, stubby freighters, tugs, barges... is strewn along the rugged Pacific coastline from Canada to Lower California. In addition the 83-year-old Scot owns two sunken submarines which he purchased eight years ago to scrap after the F-1 and F-5 had been decommissioned by the government. During Whitlaw's 62 years as a "junkman" of wrecked vessels of the Pacific he has successfully raised 289 ships. RADIO SERVICE on all makes. New Sets and Standard Accessories. WM. E. ROCKVILLE

A young lady, who has been working in tobacco this season was in the Rockville Police Court this morning charged with taking articles of clothing and other small things from women and a man in a large rooming house in this city. She said in court that she took the articles belonging to the man because he had tried to get in her room and she wanted to get even with him. Many articles which she stole were found in her room. Sergeant H. J. Hubert and State Policeman Zehrer of the Stafford Springs Barracks worked on the case with local Police officer Richard Shea.

A. & P. STORE SALES SHOW BIG INCREASE

The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company reports greater sales for July 1930, than for any other July in the history of the company; this increase in dollar sales being 3.26 per cent over sales for the corresponding period a year ago, and the increase in physical volume being 14.33 per cent. Dollar sales for the five weeks in July, 1930, were $96,723,870, compared with $93,871,398 for the five weeks in July 1929, an increase of $3,052,272. Tonnage sales, showing actual amount of goods sold, were 488,682 tons, in July of this year, compared with 427,451 tons in the same period last year, an increase of 61.251. The percentage of increase in tonnage sales is greater than the percentage of increase in dollar sales since a year ago, and is a reflection of the higher purchasing power of the retail food dollar. "Retail prices must parallel as nearly as possible the decline of prices in primary markets, and the present high level of wages should be maintained if business is soon to recover from the depression of the last few months," the Company said in a statement issued today. Lower prices raise the purchasing power of wages, and stimulate trade by bringing more commodities within buying reach of a larger number of consumers. Average weekly sales for the five weeks period in 1930 were $19,344,734, compared with $18,734,280 in 1929, an increase of $610,454. Average weekly tonnage for the 1930 period was 97,736, and 85,486 for the corresponding period of 1929, an increase of 12.250. The Connecticut farmer who traded 75 acres of land for a radio set is thought to have done it to tune on this farm relief program he's heard so much about. In South America, a scientist says, there is a fly that can travel 800 miles an hour. In New Jersey there is a flyer who may go after the record.

PASS RESOLUTION ON BIRTH CONTROL

Episcopals in London Favor It by Vote of 193-67 at Conference.

London, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The stamp of Episcopal approval was placed today upon birth control. One of 70 resolutions passed by the Lambeth conference of Anglican bishops, which has set for five weeks under the chairmanship of the Archbishop of Canterbury, declared: "Where there is a clearly felt moral obligation to limit or avoid parenthood, the method must be decided on Christian principles. The primary and obvious method is complete abstinence from intercourse as far as may be necessary in a life of discipline and self-control. Nevertheless in those cases where there is such a clearly felt moral obligation to limit or avoid parenthood, and where there is a morally sound reason for avoiding abstinence, the conference agrees that other methods may be used, provided this is done in the light of the same Christian principles. The conference records its strong condemnation of any method of conception control from motives of selfishness, luxury or mere convenience." NEW DRIVER TRIES WALK AS PEDALS GET MIXED

Sidewalks in Manchester are better riding for a new automobile driver than the roads, was the apparent thought of a new driver who drove a few people into doorways and into the street after 7 o'clock last night. The driver intended to park just south of the "no parking" signs of the State theater. Instead of stopping the car went up over the curb and looked as though it was going to enter the theater door, but the driver pulled it into line and drove stop at the junction of Main and Biwell streets. Policeman Joseph Prentice was in the vicinity and looked over the registration and driver's license. As no one was injured and the license indicated that he was a new driver who had become mixed between his brake and gas pedals no arrest was made.

PLANNING CHEST CLINIC AT MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

Dr. Edwin C. Higgins Will Be In Charge - Aids in Fight Against Tuberculosis.

The Manchester Memorial hospital will open a chest clinic in the near future, it was announced today at the institution. Facilities for the examination and treatment of chest conditions will be available to the people of Manchester. The foregoing statement is but another of the series of forward steps taken by the Manchester hospital since its erection several years ago.

The clinic will constitute a part of Manchester's anti-tuberculosis program and one of its major activities will be to examine those persons, especially children, who through long or debilitating illness may be predisposed to tuberculosis. By taking these precautions, the danger of active infection with its consequent long drawn-out treatment and convalescence may be considerably lessened, hospital authorities state.

80 FOREST FIRES

Straits, Mich., Aug. 15.—(AP.)—The roar of forest fires gradually subsided in the smoke-fogged upper Michigan peninsula today after rain and favorable winds aided more than 1,000 men to control the most serious of almost 80 blazes. One fire had threatened to destroy the village of Strong.

Information from Menominee county, where conditions were deemed critical, said that fires here also were under control.

SEEKS LINER RECORD

Yokohama, Aug. 15.—(AP.)—Seeking to lower the seven year old record for steamship crossing of the Pacific, the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Japan sailed at 6 p. m. today (1 a. m., P.S.T.) for Vancouver, B. C. on her first voyage between these ports.

In June 1923 the Empress of Canada sailed from Yokohama to Vancouver in eight days, ten hours and 53 minutes, averaging 20 1/2 knots 25 between these ports.

The new ship was designed to make 21 knots but in tests easily did 23. She has a gross tonnage of 25,000. She was built in Glasgow at a cost of $7,500,000 and launched last December. She is 666 feet long, has luxurious accommodations for 1,212 passengers and a beam of 87 feet.

DO-X IS READY

Friedrichshafen, Germany, Aug. 15.—(AP.)—Cladius Dornier, airplane designer and builder, today said trial flights of the giant airplane DO-X with its new Curtiss motors thus far have been satisfactory.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 15.
"SOCIALISM"
The candidacy of Dr. Norman Thomas for a seat in Congress as representative of a Brooklyn district and that of Heywood Brown, columnist in a Manhattan district, both on the Socialist ticket, have produced a good deal of comment which recalls the frequent mournful regrets about the "fine fellow—too bad he drinks!"

Brilliantly intellectual. But a socialist! The end of all things. One wonders, sometimes, what sort of a conception of socialism the ordinary citizen of this country holds. As a matter of fact there is scarcely a vaguer or more indeterminate term in the English language. If a man tells you he is a socialist he tells you next to nothing about what he believes. Let us go to Webster's New International Dictionary and see what it says about socialism. A political and economic theory of social reorganization, the essential feature of which is government control of economic activities, to the end that competition shall give way to co-operation and that the opportunities of life and the rewards of labor shall be equitably proportioned. Its VARIOUS THEORIES and VARIOUS PROGRAMS have received MANY DISTINCTIVE NAMES. Such are Christian Socialism, promulgated in England by Thomas Hughes, Charles Kingsley, F. D. Maurice and others; Owenism in Fabianism in the same country; collectivism, Saint-Simonism and Fourierism in France; the communism of Brook Farm and the nationalism of the followers of Edward Bellamy in America; the socialism of the chair, state socialism and social democracy in Germany. Often, however, socialism is used to denote specifically the economic theories evolved especially by Ferdinand Lassalle and Karl Marx, advocating the annulment of private ownership of capital and land and maintaining that all values are the creation and just due of labor.

Socialism of a more idealistic sort appears in the anti-utilitarian and aesthetic theories of production of Ruskin and William Morris, which have also found some following in America. In questions of policy, opportunist or conservative socialists are distinguished from revolutionists or radicals. The latter have been more or less associated with anarchists and socialism is often confounded with anarchism. Socialism, however, advocates a powerful central government, anarchism opposes all government as evil; both, however, are forms of communism, sharing the ideals of co-operative society. The word socialism date from about 1835, and seems to have originated in several quarters simultaneously. Leroux claims to have invented it as an antithesis to individualism.—A. T. Hadley (Dict. of Philos.). For the purposes of modern discussion, socialism may be described as that policy which aims at a more equitable distribution and, in subordination thereto, a better production of wealth by means of direct action of the central authority.—James Bonar (Encyc. Brit.). Every prohibitionist who favors that measure because of its presumptive effect on the pecuniary well being of the worker is a socialist. Every person who believes in extending government relief to the drought-stricken farmers of the mid-west is a socialist. Our public school system is socialism. Our sewers are socialism. Our Interstate Commerce Commission is socialism. Our weather bureau is socialism. Our Bureau of Standards and our Coast Guard are socialism. Our Department of Agriculture and our Department of Labor are socialism. Moscow and the Third Internationale are socialism. Washington and the Pension Bureau are socialism. The tariff is socialism. Every device and every effort aimed at the improvement of the people at large is socialist; every method that seeks to prevent the unrestricted exploitation of the population by the individual is socialist. There is fantastic, ruthless, self-defeating socialism like that of the Bolshevik tyrants. There is beneficent socialism like that of the Manchester Board of Health which safeguards the physical well being of the people. The idea that we are trying to convey is that the shallowest and most futile of all possible arguments against man or policy is the assertion that he or it is "socialistic." You might as well try to convey a definite impression of a particular individual by saying he is a human being.

WORTHY OPPONENTS
Fourth District Democrats are talking about running Don Carlos Seitz of Greenwich for Congress, against Schuyler Merritt. If this nomination were made we should probably have the very unusual spectacle of a contest for office between the strongest possible candidate on one side and the strongest possible candidate on the other. It is very doubtful if Fairfield county possesses one other citizen who, being a Democrat, combines in so high a degree so many qualities equipping him as a Congressional candidate. On the other hand the Republican party in that district would be sore put to it to quite fill the place of Schuyler Merritt in the same capacity. We can think of no one else likely to receive so many votes on election day. If Mr. Seitz does consent to run and if the Democrats of the Fourth have sense enough to nominate him—which is something that cannot be taken for granted, since some political nobody, likely as not, may walk off with the nomination—the G. O. P. will be fortunate in the fact that Mr. Merritt's years still sit lightly enough upon him to make him available for still another term. Against some other candidate, in view of the peculiar conditions in that end of the state, Seitz would be a formidable antagonist indeed. The natural discontent among the industrial centers of that region will naturally be no help to the party in power and there are in the district, into the bargain, a considerable number of New York commuters who suffered from the puncturing of the stock market balloon last fall; so that the Republican party may congratulate itself on having so powerful a vote getter as well as so admirable a representative in Congress as Schuyler Merritt.

DRUGHT PROFITEERS
Accustomed as the people of this country are to expect but little in the way of drastic law enforcement against violators who hide behind the name of "business," there will be no lack of confidence that, in the particular matter of the drought profiteers, those who are engaging in this activity will be dealt with by the United States government as they deserve. Every agency of government having to do with such matters unites in agreement that there is nothing whatever in the drought situation to produce any scarcity of human foods, particularly of fruits and vegetables either fresh or canned. Also that there is no justification for the increased prices brought about by the manipulations of commission merchants, wholesalers and jobbers of these products. Persons engaged in such reprehensible activities under the impression that they can escape the consequences by crawling through loopholes, or that there is no real power of law to be brought to their prosecution, are due for a shock. They will find that it is one thing to juggle prices in periods of high prosperity and another to increase the distress of communities already burdened by scantiness of earnings; one thing to laugh at the law against bootlegging and another to hold in contempt statutes for the safeguarding of the nation's food supply. There is plenty of law under which the Department of Justice can seize food profiteers and clap them into federal penitentiaries; and the manipulators are going to find not only that the federal government will be surprisingly prompt in bringing such prosecutions but that juries will be as eager to convict food profiteers as they are ready to acquit certain other types of criminals. This country is not going to tolerate the greedy commercialization of drought reports.

TRANSFER POINTS
During the recent period of pavement reconstruction at the Center it was at times impossible for the Crosstown and Manchester Green buses to use the parklet as a transfer point and the Green buses were compelled to do their transferring at the curb close by the Center church. Passengers transferring to and from the Hartford trolley cars or Crosstown buses found themselves unexpectedly relieved, for a few days, of the necessity for scurrying through automobile traffic, at peril of their lives, and were correspondingly grateful. Even with the torn up condition of the area, this method of transfer was found workable. Which suggests the thought that if the Connecticut Company and the Police Board were to get together on the subject it might be entirely feasible to work out some system whereby the hiking of passengers on foot from one point to another might be avoided. Recognizing the fact that automobile traffic must not be too much discommoded, the safety of some hundreds of bus and trolley passengers who are compelled to transfer at the Center would also seem to be important—to say nothing of doing away with an intolerable inconvenience.

NAMES
Some of the jokesmiths are trying to make thing out of the names Byrd and Hawks in connection with flying achievements. Not so hot. What we are waiting for is the establishment of an air speed record by somebody named Walker or Turtle.

MacDonald Condemns Chain Letter Nuisance
London.—(AP)—Unauthorized use of famous people's names in chain letters has been sternly condemned by Ramsay MacDonald, prime minister. A London woman received a chain letter predicting dire misfortune unless she sent copies of it to nine other people. The prime minister, the Prince of Wales, and George Bernard Shaw were among those cited as having formed links in the chain. She wrote MacDonald asking him whether he had actually passed the missive on. The prime minister replied that he "never at any time had anything to do with chain letters." Sir Godfrey Thomas, the prince's equerry, said that chain letters were never allowed to reach the prince.

ALABAMA'S PRIMARIES
Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 15.—(AP)—Official tabulation of returns from Alabama's biennial Democratic primary today swelled the total vote in the Senatorial race to more than 160,000 and definitely established B. M. Miller of Camden as the gubernatorial nominee who will join with John H. Bankhead, the party's choice for Senator, in opposing an independent ticket headed by Senator J. Thomas Heflin and which also will offer candidates for both governor and lieutenant governor. The commerce department declares that miniature golf courses have helped relieve the unemployment situation. Our impression, on the contrary, was that they were putting the country in a hole. A Kentucky editor suggests that emporiums be built specializing in milk drinks. At least the beverage should be popular with those patronizing baby golf courses.

WASHINGTON LETTER
BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer
Washington, Aug. 15.—For nearly 30 years they have been talking about replacing the U. S. S. Rochester, the oldest ship on active service in the United States navy. But this ancient cruiser has gone back after an overhauling at the Brooklyn Navy Yard to resume her place as flagship of the special service squadron, in Central American waters, and still nothing is being done about replacing her. She has lived to an almost unbelievable age of service since she was conditioned in 1893 and, under one name or another, has gone more places and done more things than any other of the navy's vessels. Originally she was named the New York and later the Saratoga, but these names were preempted for bigger although perhaps not better ships. Congress authorized her in 1888 and she cost $3,000,000. As the New York, she had her real baptism of fire when she served as the flagship of Admiral W. T. Sampson in the Spanish-American War, taking part in five engagements, the last of which ended with the defeat and surrender of Cervera's fleet off Santiago. Sailors Like Her
Everyone in the navy liked her and still does. Her name was changed to the Saratoga in 1911, and to the Rochester in 1917. Her personnel runs over 600 men and she is still strongly built as well as roomy and comfortable in tropical waters. In 1915 she was the flagship of the Asiatic fleet and she was the only foreign man-of-war present when she anchored at Yokohama to represent the United States at the coronation ceremony of the emperor of Japan. In May, 1917, she was being repaired prior to joining the patrol force of the Pacific fleet. A month after the declaration of war, however, repair work stopped because Congress had failed to pass a bill authorizing funds. The authorization was obtained a month later and while still being repaired a patrol from her engaged in a riot at Seattle which followed an attack by soldiers and sailors on an I. W. W. meeting place. German agents were supposed to be leaving Mexico on a merchant ship clearing Ensenada, Mexico, and the Rochester was sent to that port in September to intercept them. She was instrumental in the seizure of the steamer Anvil, which was said to hold 32 agents and "slackers" wanted by the American government. Carried Troops
After that she was sent around through the Isthmus of Panama to Hampton Roads, Va., and in December sailed on the first convoy trip from New York with the U. S. S. Pastores and the U. S. S. President Grant, which carried 1000 troops and again she zigzagged across the war zone with subsequent convoys. Once a submarine torpedo missed the Rochester by 30 yards as she was chasing a submarine which had torpedoed a parade group, the Atlantic. At another time she headed a convoy carrying 25,000 troops. In 1919 she was attached to the transport forces which returned troops from Europe and for the next three years was a flagship with the destroyer squadron of the Atlantic fleet and later with the scouting fleet in Caribbean and South American waters. General Pershing called down on the Rochester and remained aboard her while heading the plebeian commission at Tacna-Arica on the lower west coast of South America. Quite recently the Rochester carried President Hoover's Haitian commission during the investigation and then carried it back. Made Goodwill Trip
For several years she has headed the special service squadron, first under Admiral Latimer and now under Admiral Caneby, serving on many special missions. During the Nicaraguan troubles, beginning with the Liberal revolt in 1926, she was anchored at Puerto Cabezas on the east coast of Corinto on the west coast when the president, Hoover, in Corinto harbor when he visited Nicaragua in 1928. Last year she visited each of the Central American republics so that the commander of the squadron might pay personal calls to all the Central American presidents. This was followed by another goodwill trip as far south as Trinidad and Venezuela. It will be at least a couple of years before the Rochester's voyage has to be used for new cruiser strength under the naval treaty and meanwhile the navy suspects that she will just go on in active service forever.

IN NEW YORK
New York, Aug. 15.—Down in New York's East Side district, the season of saints and shrines has come again—a colorful and incongruous transplantation of the old world upon the nation's greatest foreign section. Whatever other changes may creep over Elizabeth street, Grand street, Mulberry and all the rest, there is a shrine of candles and religious paganism devotes insofar as new American devices intrude. And it is this invasion of everything from the peanut and soda stand to the shriek of nearby radios which never may be found the shriek incongruities. The basis of the ceremonial itself remains as ancient as the little provinces of Europe where such festivals to the saints are centuries old. It all begins almost overnight. Upon some morning a few blocks of the tenement zone appear suddenly in trappings of var-colored streamers. A few carpenters begin work on a wooden platform. Bunting begins to adorn the building fronts and serpentine drops from windows. A shrine, enclosing the image of some saint—just now it's Saint Fortunata—begins to cover a store front or is borne through the streets on the shoulders of a parade group. Hundreds of little girls, clad in their whitest finery, troop just behind an assortment of bandsmen. If ever the melting pot brewed thoroughly its mixed ingredients, this is the moment. For races and creeds are forgotten, and patriarchal Jews, shuffling along in little skull caps, line the curbstones; Germans, Greeks, Hungarians, Irish, Italians—Catholics, gentiles and agnostics—soon are all swept into the busy street arena. Along about nightfall, the background of carnivals makes its appearance. Now the tin-panny little carroussels are drawn up to the corners and the official cranks take up his post to gather pennies from the hordes of children drawn from the crowd to this tiny whirl-a-gig. The candy merchants set up their stands in the streets. The balloon man appears with his bobbing bouquet. A hawkler-passes on a side street with an armload of rubber beach dolls. Sly flirtations are engaged in between the beaux and belles. Here, again, there is little heed of race. A pretty face is a pretty face, and the bright eyes of Hungary ask no questions of the quick glance of Italy. The vendor with a pushcart load of canaries, trilling songs from their tiny cages, arrives. So does the ice cream man and the fellow with tin whistles. The crowd begins to grow and the outdoor shrine shines in its frame of candles and wax flowers and gilt ornaments. The passerby draped money on a collection plate, placed just before the shrine, and a great pile of bills soon is growing. Neighborhood folk gather on the fire escape. Just down the street a band begins to blare. The sounds of childish voices come through the street from somewhere around a wooden platform. Piping pains of lodged clocks to the spinal nerve of the tenemented canyons. An undercurrent of excitement passes along the festival square—

Health and Diet Advice
By DR. FRANK MCCOY
THE ADVANTAGE OF FRUIT IN FASTING
When most people think of fasting they think this means going without food entirely. Most of the doctors who originally used the fasting regimen gave a plain water fast at which time the patient was given plenty of water but no food. In some cases the patients were given a dry fast which is the opposite extreme—lots of dry food but no water. These are not the kinds of fasts which I usually write about or advocate in this column. What I usually recommend is a short fruit or fruit juice fast, or a milk diet, followed by a well balanced menu. In some cases, longer fasts would be helpful, but I do not believe it is advisable for a person to take a long fast without being under the supervision of someone who understands fasting. I have had patients on fasts for thirty days or more, during which time they used nothing but large quantities of water. No food of any kind is given in these cases, and such a fast is necessary to bring about a cure of some deep-seated organic or functional disease. However, the majority of the fasts which I now prescribe consist of fruit or fruit juice fasts, for the reason that as soon as the patient starts on a plain water or dry fast, the body is literally flooded with acid poisons, and an acute toxemia develops which, however, disappears in a few days, but recurs at irregular times if a long fast is taken. After observing many of these crises it seems to me that they were caused by the fact that the poisons of the body were not eliminated with a steady regularity and I believed that some means could be devised for avoiding these crises. Accordingly, I experimented with fruit fasting and found that if the patient took orange, apple, tomato or other fruit juices containing alkaline mineral elements, the value of the fast was not interfered with, but some of the unpleasant symptoms were avoided. This is especially true in cases where the liver or gall bladder is congested. The fasting regimen seems to bring about a steady flow of bile and other digestive juices which is highly important, as the bile is made up almost entirely of bodily wastes. I do not wish to convey the impression that fasting is a cure-all, but I believe that a properly used fast is a helpful adjunct in the beginning of any disease. Even in such diseases as anemia and tuberculosis the patients always start to improve when placed on a short exclusive fruit diet. I have never seen anyone who was injured by a few days' of fruit dieting. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS (Too Muscular?) Question: Miss G. writes: "I would like to know how I can keep my flesh solid without becoming any more muscular. I am already too muscular, and have stopped playing basketball on that account." Answer: Do not worry about being too muscular. It is healthful to be muscular, and as you grow older the muscular condition will be rounded out so that it will not be noticeable. Keep right on with your athletics. Women athletes do not seem to be deformed by muscular development—take Helen Wills Moody, for instance. (Old Shrapnel Injury) Question: Mrs. J. H. writes: "During the war my husband was injured with shrapnel, one piece of which lodged close to the spinal nerve near the base of the brain. An operation was considered too dangerous, and it was never removed. He is subject to violent headaches which I do not believe due to faulty diet. Do you think it advisable for him to have an x-ray so that the exact position of the shrapnel could be determined. It is rare that a foreign object in the body ever works into a dangerous area, as the tendency is for them to work toward the skin or become imbedded in fibrous tissues. It would be necessary for him to have a careful examination to determine the cause of the headaches." Answer: I believe the best plan would be for your husband to have an x-ray so that the exact position of the shrapnel could be determined. It is rare that a foreign object in the body ever works into a dangerous area, as the tendency is for them to work toward the skin or become imbedded in fibrous tissues. It would be necessary for him to have a careful examination to determine the cause of the headaches. (Simple Anemia) Question:—Mrs. L. O. H. asks: "If there are only two kinds of anemia—primary and secondary—under which head would you place simple anemia?" Answer: The term "simple anemia" is often given by physicians to what could more properly be called secondary anemia, which, simply means that the anemia is secondary to some other disorder which is more important, and the cause of the anemia. (Calcium) Question:—Mrs. M. W. writes: "One time a doctor explained to me that calcium and together with deterioration of the tissues, gradually come to our ends, some more speedily than others. But as we must have calcium to live, is there not some way to gauge the amount in order to avoid this ossification process?" Answer: The ossification from calcium is not due so much from calcium in the food as in the inability to eliminate it. Its deposits in the tissues is usually caused by chronic irritation from toxins. Other changes taking place in a degeneration of the ductless glands. These symptoms can be avoided to a great extent by the use of large quantities of non-starchy vegetables, fruits and distilled water in the diet, and avoiding the use of foods made from cereals. The sodium in foods assists in keeping calcium soluble so that it is not so likely to form deposits in the body. I am sending you an article called "Food Minerals" which tells you which foods contain the various minerals, etc. More than $2,000,000,000 of Germany's money is invested abroad.

Health and Diet Advice
By DR. FRANK MCCOY
THE ADVANTAGE OF FRUIT IN FASTING
When most people think of fasting they think this means going without food entirely. Most of the doctors who originally used the fasting regimen gave a plain water fast at which time the patient was given plenty of water but no food. In some cases the patients were given a dry fast which is the opposite extreme—lots of dry food but no water. These are not the kinds of fasts which I usually write about or advocate in this column. What I usually recommend is a short fruit or fruit juice fast, or a milk diet, followed by a well balanced menu. In some cases, longer fasts would be helpful, but I do not believe it is advisable for a person to take a long fast without being under the supervision of someone who understands fasting. I have had patients on fasts for thirty days or more, during which time they used nothing but large quantities of water. No food of any kind is given in these cases, and such a fast is necessary to bring about a cure of some deep-seated organic or functional disease. However, the majority of the fasts which I now prescribe consist of fruit or fruit juice fasts, for the reason that as soon as

Tilden Is Justified For Defaulting Match

Objects to Group of Fans Razzing; Trails Sutter 1-6, 0-4 at Time; Headed for Sure Defeat it Seemed.

Rye, N. Y., Aug. 15.—There were dramatic moments in the annual men's Eastern turf court singles championship lawn tennis tournament of the Westchester Country Club, as the field was cut down to the semi-final round brackets yesterday.

There was the picture of William T. Tilden II, national and Wimbledon champion, trailing young Clifford Sutter, of the New Orleans Country Club, at 6-0, 0-4 and then with his beautiful looking returns drawn and haggard than usual and his eyes blazing like coals of fire, announcing his default.

Tilden had good cause for his action, in the opinion of a vast majority of the 2,000 persons in the gallery. He has started the match suffering from a sprained right knee and ankle and, with Sutter playing aggressive, sound tennis every minute of the time, the veteran was doing the best he could under the circumstances. There were moments when he flashed in brilliant fashion when he could get up to the ball, and then his strokes and all of their old fire and effectiveness. But far more often the national champion was beaten out two or three feet by the young inter-collegiate champion's beautifully placed returns. Sutter was playing with unruffled coolness, employing soft, spinning ground strokes that Tilden had difficulty in stroking and charging in for sharp finishing volleys and smashes when he had paved the way for his openings.

The only game the second greatest player on the courts today could win was the second, on his own service, and this he took at love. With that one exception Sutter was outplaying his world-famous opponent by a decisive margin, and as the Southern star in the first and then the second game in the second set it began to look as though Big Bill was headed straight for defeat.

But it was an outside influence that brought about Tilden's decision to default to his young rival. A group of ill-mannered Tilden fans in one section of the main grandstand, in whom the spirit of fair play and sportsmanship was all too obviously lacking, had been heckling the national titleholder for several minutes, and in voices that were plainly audible both to Tilden and Sutter, a "No, let's get Tilden mad; he's a poor sport," and there by convicted himself, for it was a member of the feminine sex speaking of the very crime of which she accused Tilden.

Big Bill stopped abruptly as he was about to serve, with the score at 0-4 and 15-41 against him, then walked to the center of the court and called across the net to Sutter: "I think I've had about enough of this gallery; I'll default, Cliff."

Sutter, plain and unadorned, ran down and shook hands with Tilden across the net, and then, as Big Bill limped off the courts to the umpire's chair and began to gather up his racquets, many of those in the two stands left their seats and ran down the path-way between the main stands and the court inclosure, not sure just what had happened and anxious to get a close-up view of Tilden as he left the arena to make his way to the locker room.

Such were the outstanding features of the match that marked Tilden's exit from the singles play. Undoubtedly, Sutter was the better player as they met this afternoon, and his play was of the highest standard all through the match. He took many of Tilden's hardest hit forehand drives and sent them back with that soft, lazy spin that has always annoyed the national champion, from the days of Vincent Richards down to Rene Lacoste, when the French ace was leading the world on the courts. Sutter is one of the most remarkably improved players since last season in this country, and he is to be taken lightly by no one. The pity of it is that he was not able to have the satisfaction of going through to a complete victory.

The other three men's singles matches in the quarter-final round resulted as follows: Berkeley, Bell defeated Richard Murphy, of Utica, by the score of 4-6, 7-5, 8-6; John Van Ryn slaughtered Francis T. Hunter, veteran Davis Cup star, by the smothering score of 6-1, 6-2, playing some of the finest tennis seen this week at Rye, and Gregory S. Mangin, of Newark, N. J., conquered young Ted Burwell, of Charlotte, N. C., by the score of 6-3, 6-4.

In the women's quarter-final round matches today, Miss Marjorie Gladman, of California, defeated Mrs. J. Dallas Corbiers, of Boston, 6-3, 6-4; Miss Clara Louise Zinke, of Cincinnati, defeated Miss Mary Greaf, of Kansas City, 8-6, 7-5; Miss Helen Marlowe, of California, eliminated Miss Alice Francis, of Montclair, N. J., 6-2, 6-3, 6-4; and Beronice Giacomio Giorgio Levi, of Italy, conquered Miss Dorothy Andrus, of Stamford, Conn., by the score of 6-1, 7-5.

Tilden and Hunter, former national and Wimbledon doubles champions, were eliminated in the quarter-final round by the young California pair, Ellsworth Vines and Keith Gledhill, the latter team scoring at 6-2, 4-6, 6-4. The three other winning teams in this division were Bell and Eddie Jacobs, Van Ryn and Mangin and the young English collegians, S. J. Perry and H. G. N. Lee.

SHAMROCK GOOD LIGHT AIR BOAT

Crew Says English Entry Likes An Eight Knot Breeze Best.

New London, Aug. 15.—(AP)—

The topmast and spare gear of the Shamrock V, Sir Thomas Lipton's fifth challenger for the America's Cup, was being unloaded from the Lipton yacht Erin today at the Electric Boat Works yard.

The Erin will proceed to New York late today to meet Sir Thomas who is due there tomorrow on the Leviathan. The yacht conveyed the challenger on her 26 days trip from England.

The Shamrock V swung at anchor off the boat yard pier while top mast, spare spars and other gear, including a spare center board, built entirely of bronze, were being taken off the Erin. The conditioning of the Shamrock will probably not start until Monday, shipyard officials said. The stepping of the top mast they say was the most difficult task that confronted them.

The top section of spar which fits into the lower part must be hoisted 100 feet in the air and a wooden tower will be built on the pier to aid in the stepping process.

The crew of the Shamrock who made the trip aboard the challenger are resting aboard the Killarney, a former excursion boat which has been fitted up to furnish quarters for them.

The Shamrock's crew says she likes an eight knot breeze or better, and those associated with her last she is also a good light air boat.

$10,000 GOLD POT SOUGHT BY GOLFERS

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 15.—(AP)—

The long trek for gold and glory over the Keller County golf course today saw 150 entries wishing for a generous crop of birdies in St. Paul's first open golf tourney.

One round of 18 holes was on today and another similar round will be played Saturday. The low 60 scorers and ties will go into the 36 hole final Sunday to determine how the $10,000 prize money offered by the St. Paul Junior Association shall be divided.

WHITE SOX OFFER $75,000 FOR STAR

Washington, Aug. 15.—(AP)—An offer by Charles Comisky owner of the Chicago White Sox to purchase Joe Hauser, slugging first baseman of the Baltimore International League team for $75,000 cash was announced here today by Lee Barber, secretary of the Chicago team.

Barber said the White Sox had been negotiating for Hauser for nearly two weeks and that Comisky was willing to add Bud Clancy, Sox first baseman to the large cash payment. Hauser is leading all organized baseball in slugging out home runs—54.

"CHUCKY" SMITH WINS TOWN JUNIOR NET TITLE

Smith won the first after a long battle 7-5. In the second game Urbanetti came through winning 6-3. In the third and deciding set Smith won 6-2 which brings the Junior Tennis Championship to the West Side of the town for one year.

The match was played at the West Side Playgrounds with quite a few watching.

WILSON'S VICTIMS NOW NUMBER 40

Chicago, Aug. 15.—(AP)—In collecting 40 home runs so far this season Hack Wilson of the Cubs, has found Pitcher Bob Smith of Boston, to be his favorite server.

Wilson has picked on Smith for four of his homers, while other members of the Brave pitching staff have suffered enough to make their total contribution eight for the season.

Next to Smith, the Dempsey of the dugouts likes Wild Bill Hallahan of St. Louis, who has thrown him three home runs. Dazy Vance and Ray Phelps of Brooklyn; Claude Willoughby and Phil Collins of the Phillies and Tiny Chaplin of the Giants, all have been rocked twice by Hack's home run bat.

Fifteen of Wilson's league leading collection have been scored on foreign diamonds.

WHICHONE TAKES POST AGAINST GALLANT FOX

New York, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The tussle "battle of the century" is due at Picturesque Saratoga Springs tomorrow when Harry Payne Whitney's Whichone attempts in the traverse stakes to wrest the three year old title from William Woodward's Gallant Fox.

Unbeaten in six starts this year the Fox with Earl Sande up probably will go to the post the 4 to 5 choice but there will be plenty of 11 to 10 and 6 to 5 money riding on the Whitney flash and his sensational jockey, Sonny Workman.

Bitter Feeling Among Green and West Sides

The chief interest in the forthcoming baseball series for the town championship appears to center about the clash between the West Sides and Manchester Green, the first edition of which is scheduled to take place at the Four Acres next Sunday afternoon. These two teams are bitter rivals which cannot be said for the feeling of either team and the Bon Ami winners of the town title last year. Strange as this unorthodox situation may seem, it is nevertheless true.

There is much feeling between the Green and West Sides and this is not entirely confined to the camps of the two teams proper. Even the supporters of both sides are having many a verbal altercation as the time of the opening battle draws to hand. Further proof

Local Sport Chatter

The Bon Ami will practice at Hickey's Grove tonight and next Tuesday will play the Holy Trinity of the north end, also at Hickey's.

The Green and West Sides have obtained Carl Thorsell and Charlie Nagle of Hartford to umpire the town series baseball game here Sunday. Both have been working in the Insurance League.

Dr. M. E. Morlarly, well known local physician, has finally succeeded in breaking 100 and now is shooting for another goal, under ninety.

Believe it or not, as Ripley would say, Tom Stowe, Herald Sports editor, is not going to take either his golf clubs or tennis racquet when he goes to Long Island tomorrow for a week's vacation.

In his absence players in the town tennis tournament are requested to report their matches to Erik Mo-dean who will do the pinch-hitting. Here's wishing him better success than the day he struck out five times in a row playing with a Boy Scout baseball team down Glastonbury way.

Probably someone is remarking, "Well, now maybe we'll have something to read about besides golf and tennis." And that is true, too, for the town baseball series gets underway Sunday. But the tennis tournaments will provide some good news along this line also.

VAN NESS, SMITH VICTORS IN TENNIS

Former Beats House 6-2, 7-5 and Smith Trims Anderson 6-0, 6-0; Van Ness vs. Holland.

Two more matches were played last night in the men's town singles tennis championship tournament, both on the splendid courts of the Manchester Country Club.

In one, Fred Van Ness, southpaw racket wielder, won his way into the second round by eliminating Clifford House, 6-2 and 7-5. Although Van Ness showed himself to be the better player, House made some good recoveries, especially in the second set when he ran up a lead of 5 to 3 before losing four straight games.

Van Ness' next opponent will be the defending champion, Ty Holland. The date for the match has not been decided, but it will probably be played on the Country Club courts which are far superior to any other courts in Manchester.

The other match last night was also in the same "first eight" of the top bracket in the pairings. Bobby Smith, son of Senator and Mrs. Robert J. Smith, won over Sherwood Anderson, 6-0, 6-0. Smith, a former high school star, displayed a brilliant exhibition of stroking and won easily. His opponent fought hard but the odds of experience and skill were too great to overcome.

Smith's next opponent will be the winner of the Holland-Van Ness match. Last year Holland eliminated Smith in the quarter-finals 6-2, 6-3.

Rain threatened to block the few matches scheduled for today. After completion of the first two rounds today in the semi-final round will be left in the competition. Play in the women's tournament is scheduled to get under way tonight with Miss Ruth Behrand meeting Miss Muriel Tomlinson.

SUTTER VS. BELL, VAN RYN—MANGIN

Rye, N. Y., Aug. 15.—(AP)—Three of America's first ten tennis players and an unranked collegian from Tulane University were due to clash today in the semi-final round of the eastern grass court singles championships at the West Chester Country Club.

Johnny Van Ryn was down to meet Gregory Mangin in one all Jersey match. The other half of the draw brought together Berkeley Bell the Texan and Clifford Sutter, intercollegiate champ.

The women's semi-final round placed Baroness Levi, the Italian sensation of the tournament against Miss Helen Marlowe of Los Angeles and Miss Marjorie Gladman of Santa Monica, Calif., meets Miss Louise Zinke of Cincinnati.

Chicago has won two clashes and went one full game ahead yesterday as Pat Malone pitched a fine game for a 5 to 1 triumph. But still the big advantage for the Bruins is that the difference is in the losing column, where Brooklyn is two games to the bad.

The Cubs, held in check to some degree through the second game, were completely superior yesterday as Malone stopped the thunder of Brooklyn's big bats. They went out ahead in the very first inning and did all their scoring in the first three to win without much difficulty. Malone, his speedball working at its best clip, gave the Robins only three hits in the first six innings and had a shutout in hand until two were out in the ninth, when a Cub let up the only Brooklyn run across the plate.

With four teams kept idle by rain and wet grounds, the National League as a whole made no more progress toward a decision yesterday than its two leads have in their struggle. The St. Louis Cardinals and Boston Braves divided a close doubleheader that was principally

Cubs Must Win Again To Obtain Good Lead

Unless today's final clash of the "decisive" series between Brooklyn and Chicago finally brings some thing like a decision, it looks as if the race of these two teams for the National League pennant might continue indefinitely, or at least until they meet again in September.

Chicago has won two clashes and went one full game ahead yesterday as Pat Malone pitched a fine game for a 5 to 1 triumph. But still the big advantage for the Bruins is that the difference is in the losing column, where Brooklyn is two games to the bad.

The Cubs, held in check to some degree through the second game, were completely superior yesterday as Malone stopped the thunder of Brooklyn's big bats. Malone, his speedball working at its best clip, gave the Robins only three hits in the first six innings and had a shutout in hand until two were out in the ninth, when a Cub let up the only Brooklyn run across the plate.

With four teams kept idle by rain and wet grounds, the National League as a whole made no more progress toward a decision yesterday than its two leads have in their struggle. The St. Louis Cardinals and Boston Braves divided a close doubleheader that was principally notable for the appearance of some of the league's older pitchers. Sothe Selbold lost a tough struggle in the first game as the Cards put on a two run rally in the ninth to win, 4 to 3, although out-hit, 11-9. In the second Old Tom Zachary outlasted Burleigh Grimes and held St. Louis to six hits while the Braves pulled out a 3 to 2 triumph.

Three pitchers, Was Ferrell, Earl Whitehill and Eddie Durham provided the features of the American League day. Ferrell won his 20th game of the season as Cleveland came back after five defeats to pound out a 15-0 triumph over the Athletics.

Whitehill won his tenth successive game and a major league record for the season as he beat the New York Yankees 5 to 1. Durham, pitching in a lesser cause turned in the best hurling job of the day. He shut out the St. Louis Browns with four singles and without a free pass to first to give Boston a 3 to 0 victory.

Washington used three hurlers and obtained the best results of them all so far as the standings are concerned, although they had something of a struggle to win a 5 to 4 decision over Chicago.

Elliott Waddell, 11, scored a hole in one at the Columbus, Ga., Country club.

TROOPS TO MARCH TO TRAINING CAMP

Regular Soldiers in This Area to Concentrate in Vermont This Fall.

(Special to The Herald)
By Archie Kilpatrick

Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass., Aug. 15.—Under leaden skies the troops of Connecticut and Rhode Island were reviewed by their respective governors at 2:30 p. m. yesterday. Governor John H. Trumbull left Plainville at 9:35 a. m. piloted by Lt. Charles Wright and landed at the Leominster airport at 10:20 a. m. and was driven immediately to Camp Devens.

Trumbull's Escort
On his arrival at Camp Devens the guard of honor, a select body of troops picked from the 102nd regiment of Connecticut met the governor at the main gate and a salute of fifteen guns was fired by a battery from the 152nd field artillery. Major General Morris E. Payne and staff met Governor Trumbull and conducted him to Division Headquarters.

Governor Norman Case of Rhode Island arrived at the camp at 11:30 a. m. and was met by an honor guard selected from the 118th engineers, of Rhode Island and the customary salute was fired. Governor Case inspected the guard of honor on his arrival at division headquarters.

Promptly at 2:30 the 85th Brigade, composed of the 102nd Infantry, the 169th Infantry, 118th

Engineers and the Branford Tank Corps passed in review before Governors Trumbull, Case and the adjutant generals of their respective states. Several thousand people from Connecticut and Rhode Island were on hand for the big review. Today, marks the last official military review of the present encampment.

Award Trophies
Previous to the review, the John Trumbull annual State regimental rifle match trophy and the George M. Cole regimental indoor rifle match trophy was awarded to members of the Connecticut troops.

Following the review the Governors were entertained by Major General Morris B. Payne, division commander. Governor Trumbull flew back to Connecticut late in the afternoon.

Notes
Richard D'Amico, ex-G company man, visited the Manchester quarters yesterday. In company with First Sergeant Duke of G Company and Sergeant Bellucci a visit was paid to Company G of the 102nd regiment of Waterbury where the local boys met two old war-time buddies, Lt. Marsella and Sgt. Garvey of that company.

G. A. Polito, Anthony Polito and John D'Amico visited Joseph Polito at the Manchester barracks yesterday. Company G will mount guard today at 4:30. This makes for a hardship on the G boys for in addition to their guard duty they will have to hustle around and get their things in shape for the departure which takes place Saturday morning at 8:55. 1st Lt. E. A. Morrison of Co. B will be officer of the day and 2nd Lt. Williams of 2nd Battalion Headquarters, will be officer of the guard.

Orders for breaking camp issued to the Manchester company commander state that the Howitzer company and G company will return on the first section of the train leaving camp at 8:55 a. m. and are due to arrive in Manchester at 12:45 p. m.

Hot Shots
Tonight will produce little rest for the Manchester boys. Rockville is due at 3:30 a. m. and an early breakfast will be in order to allow for the packing of dishes and greasing of the ranges which are a permanent fixture in these barracks. The second section of the troop train will leave Ayer at 9 a. m. and is due to arrive early in the afternoon.

The Manchester boys enjoyed a fine feed last night put on by the two company mess sergeants, Bellucci and McCann. Chicken and spaghetti was the dish, and the boys put away large orders.

"Spare Parts" or the Special Troops detachment won divisional honors yesterday when they beat the 102nd Infantry team, 3-1. Izzy Weiss of the Special Troops team, a former Providence tryout, held the 102nd to four hits and fanned seven. The Providence tryout man pitched and won three games in the inter-regimental tournament.

The 1st battalion of the 162nd Artillery, (Maine) has the record for distance traveled from Camp Devens. They hall from the vicinity of Caribou, Me., an eight hour train ride beyond Portland. They will entrain at 6 p. m. tonight.

Honors in the division field and track meet went to the 172 Infantry team with a total of 47 points with the 169 Infantry team of Connecticut second with 29 points. The others in order were the 101st Infantry, 19; 118 Med. regiment, 9; 102nd Inf. 5 and Special Troops 1.

DEMOCRATS MAY CALL BOWERS AS KEYNOTER

New London, Aug. 15.—(AP)—In making arrangements for the Democratic state convention to open at the state armory on September 10th, there has been a proposal to the committee that the address of the "Keynote" be radio-broadcast. The matter however rests until the final arrangements are made. The committee selected to invite a "keynote" has not yet come to a decision among several names under consideration. One suggestion put forward is to have Claude Bowers, a New York city newspaper editorial writer who gave the "keynote" address at the Democratic convention at Houston two years ago be invited, but in such case he would not serve as permanent chairman at the business session of the second day.

To go outside the state for a "keynote" would be contrary to precedent, it is believed, and Mr. Bowers' name is put forward merely as a suggestion.

The committee to select a temporary chairman are state chairman J. J. Walsh, secretary A. S. Lynch, former Senator A. T. Miner, who heads the committee on arrangements and national committeeman Archibald McNeil.

The mayor of a North Carolina town who was arrested for drunkenness recently probably felt it was his duty to lessen that infernal long time between drinks.

INDIA'S SALT TAX IS AN ANCIENT LAW

Long Before Britain Ruled Country the Tax Had Been Collected.

Bombay.—(AP.)—Breakers of the salt law in India are still being sent to jail daily in various parts of the country.

Hundreds were arrested soon after Mahatma Gandhi made his spectacular march to the sea, inaugurating his civil disobedience of India.

The prisons became crowded, thousands of other persons having been arrested for various civil disobedience offenses, and the courts have been jammed for weeks.

Gandhi chose to break the salt laws in the first place because he considered the salt tax humiliating to the national consciousness of an awakened India and because, as he stated in his weekly, "its heavy burden was being felt by the very poorest in the land."

Soon after the end of the World War the government of India decided to double the salt tax as one means of balancing the budget. Many newspapers opposed the decision, contending that the increased tax would not touch the wealthy classes, but instead would pinch the poor.

One British editor in condemning the salt tax monopoly pointed out that it had been calculated that never in India were there less than 40,000,000 people living below the margin of subsistence, their single daily meal being only a bowl of rice with salt as a condiment.

India's uneducated classes have profound respect for the law and it was Gandhi's desire to upset their mental balance by a demonstration of wholesale breaking of the laws. That was the real object of Gandhi in making the long arduous trip to the shores of the Indian Ocean in order to attempt the manufacture of salt contrary to government regulations.

Some of Gandhi's followers, who traveled about the country speaking in villages as a means of stimulating interest in the passive resistance movement, accused the British of being the first to impose a salt tax in India. The government refuted these statements, which had been given wide publicity by the Nationalist Congress party, the authorities contending that the salt tax in India dates back to the very earliest times, having long been in effect when the British gained control nearly 200 years ago. Mention of the salt tax is made in the Shastras, or Hindu scripture, and the tax was levied by the Mogul emperors who made so much out of it that the duty was more than double the cost of production.

This condition, as a universal human necessity, has always provided revenue for rulers. In the days of William III the salt duty in Great Britain was about $3 a bushel, or roughly thirty times its cost originally.

The city of London, history records, came into existence through the demand for salt. Before the Roman conquest of Britain and only for the north of Britain but also for northern Gaul. The route followed by the pack trains was across England to the Thames. The river ford then was somewhere along the embankment in London now known as Westminster.

When floods or high tides delayed the salt packs, the men and animals camped on the bank. A little shop was opened. Gradually a village began to grow. That was the beginning of London.

Germany has been feeling the pinch of the salt tax since the beginning of the year.

Through the growing abstinance of Germans from hard liquor, the government is facing a material loss of revenue from its state alcohol monopoly.

This year's profits were estimated at $80,000,000, an increase of 25 per cent over the previous year. But returns thus far indicate that there will be a deficit of around 40 per cent in this important item.

Sales of alcohol for industrial purposes show a slight increase and the use of alcohol in motor fuels is about at the same level. The difference, therefore, lies in the smaller consumption of schnaps and cordials.

Two main cures are being considered. One is to increase the percentage of alcohol in motor fuels. It now stands at 25 to 75 per cent benzol.

The other remedy proposed is an increase in the price of distilled alcohol. Business circles, however, say this will result in trimming the dog from the tail, as the present augmented price of $150 a hectolitre led to a reduction of one-fifth in the consumption of cordials in 1928.

To add to the woes of the monopoly managers is the fact that they held over 400,000 hectolitres of alcohol from last year's supply while this year an exceptional potato harvest has kept the country's 52,600 distilleries going at augmented speed.

ONCE UPON A TIME

Greta Garbo, film favorite, at the age of 14 did "soaping" in a Stockholm barber shop. That is to say she mixed the lather and looked after the utensils used by the Swedish barbers.

All that is necessary to cure the smoking habit, according to a Russian scientist, is to take three-hypnotic treatments. It might work for a spell.

GREY'S "BORDER LEGION" PLAYS HERE TWO DAYS

Accompanying Feature Will Be Marion Davies in "The Floradora Girl."

The week-end program at the State consists of Jack Holt and Richard Arlen in Zane Grey's "The Border Legion", and Marion Davies in "The Floradora Girl."

"The Border Legion" is Zane Grey at his best. It has swift, breathtaking action, hard riding, shooting from the hip and romance that brings a lump into the throat and a tear to the eyes. There is great suspense as Arlen, Holt and Stanley Field face each other with guns in man, for the love of Fay Wray. Then there is comedy in that roll character, Eugene Pallette. There are magnificent vistas, gorgeous backgrounds, vast herds of cattle, horses by the hundreds—and always the border legion, riding, joking, fighting and terrorizing.

A breath of a brilliant if somewhat faded past sweeps across the screen in "The Floradora Girl." Marion Davies latest screen production. For here we have a panorama of New York in the gay nineties, when even bathing suits had big high necks and long sleeves and a trip to Staten Island on a "bicycle built for two" was decidedly more of a treat than a motor trip is today. Miss Davies reaches new triumphs in this excellent musical romance. She has a supporting cast which includes Alexander Gray, Vivian Oakland, Walter Catlett and Sam Hardy.

As an added attraction tonight only, the management will present another of the popular "Cabaret Nights," which is a regular Friday night attraction. Four acts of professional vaudeville will provide forty-five minutes of fast moving stage entertainment. The vaude-

ENDURANCE MARKS BEING SHATTERED

24 Years Ago Plane Stayed Aloft 26 Seconds—And Now—

New York, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The endurance flying records of today have practically as many days in them as those of a quarter century ago had seconds, and as many days as those of only 10 years ago had hours.

Twenty-four years ago Santos-Dumont went up in a crude plane in France and stayed off the ground while the second hand of a clock ticked just 28 times.

In 1920, Bessout and Bernard, other French aviators, kept in the air for 24 hours.

Today Dale Jackson and Forest O'Brine were in the 26th day of their flight above St. Louis.

When the one year record of a decade ago fell it was to Eddie Stinson and Lloyd Bertaud, who was later killed in an Atlantic flight, and their achievement brought an official world endurance flight record to America for the first time since Orville Wright had stayed up for two hours and 20 minutes in 1908.

Stinson and Bertaud stayed up two hours longer than the Frenchmen. That was in 1921.

Records Switch
After that the record shuttled back and forth between America and France and Germany, gradually increasing in duration until Johan Risticz and Wilhelm Zimmerman of Germany stayed aloft for 65 hours and 25 minutes.

That seemed the ultimate in flying endurance, but when the United States Army started the world with the first real flying endurance flight the record jumped to undreamed of duration.

First Refueling
It was on New Year's Day of last year that five Army officers went up in a plane called the Quaker Mark, and by refueling in the air stayed aloft for almost a week.

Less than five months later, Reginald Robbins and James Kelly hung up a record of more than 171 hours, and two months after that Jackson and O'Brine boosted it to more than 428 hours. In June of this year the Hunter brothers of Chicago pushed the record to more than 553 hours.

On July 21, Jackson and O'Brine went up to get their record back. They've been up ever since, have got the record, and still fly on.

Women have played their part in the endurance race, too. Among those who have made notable endurance flights are Eleanor Smith, Louise McPhegrie, Bobbie Trout, and Viola Gentry. Among them they ran the woman's record up into the higher twenties.

NEW HAVEN GREETES GROTTO DELEGATES

New Haven, Aug. 15.—(AP)—New Haven today was in festive garb prepared to welcome hundreds of delegates to the second annual convention of the Connecticut State Grotto.

The streets adjoining the Green where the bands contest and patrol drills will be held tomorrow were lined with flags as early arrivals made their way into the city.

Grand Monarch H. Dyer of Boston and Past Grand Monarch John A. Dertrick of Brooklyn will be the principal speakers at the banquet.

Besides the band contest and patrol drills, tomorrow's program will include a parade through the streets of New Haven and athletic events at Lighthouse Point. A Mardi Gras tomorrow night will bring the two day convention to a close.

Speaking of Lindy's major achievements, the fact escapes most of us that he made his Maine flight the other day.

MANSION IS WRECKED BY DYNAMITE BOMB

Cleveland, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The pretentious home of Raymond Porello, who has seen two of his brothers meet death in the strife over control of Cleveland's corn sugar trade, was demolished by a terrific explosion early today.

Porello and his family were absent and escaped the death which police believe was marked for all seven of the Porello brothers.

The explosion was caused by gas, a fire official said. He expressed the opinion some one might have opened the gas mains and left a candle burning in the attic. Firemen estimated the loss at $25,000.

Passersby told police they saw two men, who drove up in a large car shortly before the explosion, enter the house carrying a large package.

Last month, Joe Porello, reputed to have gained dominance in the corn sugar industry, and his bodyguard were slain as they stood in a speakeasy. Three weeks later, Vincente James Porello met a similar fate.

GYPSIES STEAL $700

Waterbury, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Two women members of a gypsy band were in jail here today awaiting arraignment on charges of stealing $700 from Henry Johnson, 60, a Southbury farmer.

They were Anna Miller, 39, and Amelia Steve, 39. They will be arraigned in Southbury Saturday.

Johnson told police the women stopped at his farm house yesterday and asked for matches. When they were gone he said he missed his wallet which contained $700.

State police traced the gypsies to Norwalk where Johnson identified the two women.

Then there's the bright shipping room clerk, who when asked for an invoice, hummed the boss a tune.

DRY INFORMERS ARE CONDEMNED

Board of Trade Says Worst Class of Men Are Being Hired at Present.

Washington, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Prohibition bobbed up again in capital discussions today after having yielded the spotlight to the long-drawny drought.

Another proposal by Representative La Guardia, of New York, a Republican wet bloc leader, suggesting a showdown on prohibition enforcement effort, shared attention with a report by a Washington Board of Trade committee condemning employment of disreputable persons as "stool pigeons and informers" by Federal dry agents in the district and the alleged disappearance of liquor seized in evidence.

The report was prepared for the law enforcement commission. La Guardia suggested the Department of Justice be given every facility for a strong enforcement drive. He said the department was entitled to it in "this last attempt to enforce the law."

Asks Frank Report
"If they fall," the New Yorker added, "I think the country should expect from them a fair, frank statement by the first regular session of the Seventy Second Congress that it can't be done, or what is needed to enforce it against the will of the majority of the people in many states and quite a large percentage in other states."

The Board of Trade report complained of "lawless conduct" by Federal prohibition agents, listing employment of "disreputable persons as stool pigeons and informers" as one of the worst. The conditions had become so bad, it said, the United States attorney was forced to refuse to prosecute cases based on informers' evidence.

DON'T SUFFER FROM CONSTIPATION

Prevent It This Pleasant, Healthful Way

Beware of the frequent headaches, the listless feeling, bad breath and sallow complexion. If allowed to continue, constipation may get its grip on you and serious sickness can result.

The poisonous wastes in your system must be removed. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to do this—safely, completely. Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily—recurring cases, with every meal.

Doctors recommend Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Because it is ALL-BRAN it brings complete results. Far better than habit-forming drugs or pills that are often dangerous. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN not only prevents and relieves constipation pleasantly—it also supplies your blood with the iron it needs to keep a healthy color and a strong body. Ready to eat with milk or cream. Delicious with fruits or honey added. Recipes are on the package for muffins and breads. Sold by all grocers. Served by hotels, restaurants and dining-cars. STEADY WORK AS CURE FOR SLACK BUSINESS

University, Va., Aug. 15.—(AP)—The theory that steady work at satisfying wages automatically creates more consumers than a steady flow of goods at reasonable prices was advanced before the Institute of Public Affairs today by Donald Randall Richberg in a vigorous defense of the employe in relation to the employers of masses.

He said he found the doors of opportunity are being deliberately closed to the independent, self-protecting worker, whom he said was "free" to be deprived of his job without notice, and forced "to beg or steal" without imposing any responsibility or loss to his employer.

The subject of Mr. Richberg, a Chicago lawyer and author, was "Shall Government Encourage Larger Business Units?"

Present Needs
"A work-a-day world in which twenty-five per cent of the workers are constantly menaced with unemployment and in which over fifty per cent do not earn a decent living might reasonably be more concerned with improving methods of production and exchange than in increasing the number, or even improving the quality of its products," the speaker said.

Rural America's need of medical enlightenment was proclaimed today at the round table on National country life questions by Dr. Marvin F. Haygood, state health officer of Tennessee.

Although he said the span of human life has increased from 19 years in the Sixteenth Century to 38 in 1870 and 49 in 1920, the doctor's skill has not taken into complete embrace the vast population of the hinterlands.

POLAND PROTESTS

Warsaw, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The Polish Telegraph Agency today reported that the government had issued an official communique announcing that Foreign Minister Zaleski had conferred with the German charge d'affaires regarding a speech made last Sunday by Gottfried Treumann, German minister of occupied regions. The speech has aroused the Polish public and press.

The government said that an emphatic protest has been lodged by Poland at "statements aimed at the integrity of the Polish state on the part of a member of the German Cabinet." Minister Zaleski pointed out that "such manifestations render impossible any positive activity in the relations of both states and create an atmosphere which is in contradiction with the principles of pacific collaboration."

Exports of merchandise from the United States during 1929 reached a value of more than $5,248,000,000.

BUSINESS MERGER FOR 22 AMERICAS

Cuban Expert Wants All American Countries to Unite for Progress.

Havana.—(AP)—Scientific organization of business men in the 22 countries comprising the Americas, with the elimination of selfishness of common progress, is the somewhat novel plan offered by Dr. Miguel Varona Y. Querrero, as a solution to the present economic crisis.

Dr. Varona is one of Cuba's best known economists and in his long business career has been judge, consulting attorney to the Department of Public Works, chief of the last three years director of customs. He proposed the organization, on a technical basis of the private actions of business men of the Americas by territorial divisions, technical associations, technical functions, consultative technical bodies, special allied universities, and technical experts trained in a central institute.

Natural Regions
Eight "natural regions" would be created, as follows: North Region—Canada and the U. S. A.; South Pacific Region—Chile, Bolivia; North Pacific Region—Peru, Columbia and Ecuador; Southern Region—Argentina, Uruguay, Paraguay; Atlantic Region—Brazil, Venezuela; Central American Region—Panama, Honduras, Nicaragua, Salvador, Costa Rica; Region of the Gulf of Mexico—Mexico, Cuba, Guatemala; Antillean Region—Santo Domingo and Haiti.

Pan-American universities and technical institute would be established to train men under the most advanced principles of economics. From the graduates of these institutions would be drawn the personnel which would serve as the superior board of the organization.

This board would be non-political in character and would work on a basis of cooperation among private corporations and business men. Its objective would be the knowledge and solution of economic problems, local and general; and it would work in accord with a specially outlined "code of civilized economy."

World Harmony
It would harmonize the economic whole of the regional divisions, study and resolve on its own initiative after hearing resolutions offered by the regions, and its rulings would take the form of recommendations binding on the letter, the unlimited autonomy of the affected nations notwithstanding, when there is a matter of vital interest to the organization as a unit.

"It is a postulate," Dr. Varona says, "that world force is a declining power in civilized countries. No matter if the world is arming, the real forces of future activity will be applied scientific knowledge to commerce, industry and international relations.

"Our America presents a proper field for their application, and Pan-Americanism applied on scientific principles to economics will be, with the cooperation of all the nations of America, the strongest force of civilization we have seen."

PLANE THRILL

Tulse, Okla.—Bill Barwell, assistant at the municipal airport here, got his biggest thrill in a runaway plane recently. Getting into a plane in which the motor was idling, Barwell accidentally opened the throttle and the plane was well on its way to a ditch at the end of the field before he discovered that there was no pilot at the stick. Quick work saved the plane.

ENGLAND PLANS NEGRO COLONY

Scheme Calls for Three States for Native Tribes in British East Africa.

By MILTON BRONNER

London.—The greatest charter for the negro race handed down by man since Abraham Lincoln during the Civil War issued his world-famous proclamation, freeing the negro slaves in the southern states, has been proposed recently by the Labor government of Great Britain in a "white paper" dealing with the future government of British East Africa, a territory one quarter the size of the United States.

The scheme is nothing less than to set aside forever for the native tribes and to make them inalienable, so that other races cannot take the soil away for their own purposes.

Thus once again a British government, troubled as the mighty British know how to learn from the failures that are written down in history. The government is trying to write a new chapter in the story of the relations of the white man with those he found in possession of territories into which he has intruded. It has not always been so pleasant a story.

The United States set aside reservations for the Indians, but under the pressure of the ever-expanding white race, vast areas were taken back again and ultimately became states. In Africa many dark chapters have been written. In the last century the whole world was horrified by an expose of the manner in which the blacks in the rubber regions of Belgian Congo were mismanaged and even maimed by cruel taskmasters. In the German colonies, before the World War, it was repeatedly charged that the natives were largely caused by the cruelty of the whites. In the French Congo a great French writer openly charged that the natives were forced to labor in a state of collective and sentences of imprisonment inflicted without rhyme or reason.

In the vast territory collectively known as British East Africa the authorities are anxious to write a new chapter in the domain of the white man and Uganda, which are British possessions, and Tanganyika, the mandate for which was assumed by Great Britain when this former German possession was wrested from German rule.

To Make United Colony
Taking the long view the British government desires to make of this territory something like one united crown colony, the like of which has never before been made of a great self-governing dominion. For this purpose the government proposes to name a High Commissioner who will have all the powers and most of the status of a Governor-General or a Viceroy. He will supervise Kenya, Uganda and Tanganyika. He will have two-fold duties. He will be the chief adviser to the Secretary for the Colonies on all native questions. He will administer and legislate on such subjects as railways, ports, harbors, customs, defenses, posts, telegraphs and telephones. To perform the latter duties he will have a council consisting of three officers of his staff and 21 other members, each of the colonies being represented by seven, but all being named by him. In doing so, he will, as far as possible, name some who will represent the various races. This means that, in addition to white men on the commission, there will probably be native Africans, Indians and Arabs.

Turning to the native question, the government backs up a "white paper" issued in 1923 which said that Kenya was promised an African territory and that the interests of the African native must be paramount. If and when those interests clash with those of immigrant races, the former should prevail. The government does not think the African natives are yet ripe for voting and other things that go with modern forms of government. But they should be encouraged in the development of their own social and political institutions. A desire should be fostered in them to take an increasing share in their tribal affairs and in the land reserved for tribal use, and, ultimately, in the governance of the territory in which they live. The government will help them by schools and by medical attention.

Will Exchange Natives
In the economic sphere the government will encourage the natives to make the most efficient use of their own resources for purposes of production, full regard being had to the principle that the native should in fact be effectively free to work. It is set forth that such natives as are prepared to take up agriculture on their individual account. The government, therefore, declared that lands gazetted as native reserves are to be reserved for the use and benefit of the natives forever.

Further, the government says the policy in East Africa should not admit any restrictions on the possession of land being of such a kind as virtually to compel the natives either directly or indirectly to work for wages for private employers. He must be free to work his own land if he wants to or to work for others, if he desires. As to taxation, evies on the native should be definitely limited to his capacity, without imposing hardship. No taxation should be imposed which would practically force him to work for wages for others in order to raise the money. Furthermore, the government says it is incumbent to ensure that government expenditure on native services should bear a proper relation to the revenues raised from the natives. In other words, money paid by the natives would largely be expended in helping the natives.

This great document will not meet with the approval of Parliament without a fight. Already the white settlers in Kenya are protesting about various phases of it. Furthermore, the Germans are talking about lodging a protest with the League of Nations, on the ground that the British government is virtually proceeding as if Tanganyika, a former German territory, were a British possession, instead of mandated land governed by Britain only under the fiat of the League of Nations.

SKILLED LABOR SCARCITY DRAG ON SOVIET PLAN

By WALTER CHUMAK (Associated Press Staff Writer)

Moscow.—(AP)—Soviet Russia is undertaking to quadruple its supply of native skilled labor within four years.

This campaign has been undertaken because of lack of craftsmen, engineers and technicians, to start and operate the numerous factories, power plants, railways and other enterprises contemplated by the five-year industrialization plan, in providing a heavy drag on the progress of that gigantic scheme.

Importation of large numbers of American, German and other foreign technicians has failed to overcome the dearth of skilled hands. The foreigners have helped to work out projects and to supervise the building of industrial plants, but continued operation of those plants is something else.

The State Planning Commission, a fecund source of methods, has drawn up a five-year plan on technical education aimed at converting a million laborers and peasants into skilled workmen within the time limit. The present chain of universities, technical schools, night schools and factory courses is to be expanded and the radio and movies are to be employed in spreading technical knowledge.

Figures issued by Tass, the official news agency, show that up to last October 120,000 Russian specialists were engaged in industries under construction. Of this number 31,452 were university graduates, 35,231 had received a secondary education and 53,398 had gained their skill by experience and had no theoretical training.

The same source states that within four years there must be recruited 435,873 skilled specialists of whom 176,450 must be university graduates and 259,443 of at least secondary education. It is acknowledged that even this program will not fully meet the needs, being only about two-thirds of the required total. But it is pointed out that it will be a big advance over the present situation.

Soviet authorities claim that America increased its technical experts by only 50 per cent in the decade 1910-1920 and that Germany took almost 30 years to quadruple the number of her engineers. Soviet Russia expects to equal this latter mark in four years.

AVIATION FORECAST

London.—Sir Alan Cobham, famous aviator, is so enthusiastic about the future of aviation that he is devoting the major portion of his time to it. He predicts that aviation will become so popular in a few years that London alone will need more than 20 airports on its outskirts to handle the amount of air traffic.

WIND'S PLANE'S ENEMY

Paris.—Wind offers the greatest obstacle to trans-Atlantic flyers crossing from east to west, according to a survey conducted by Capt. Voituron, French naval officer. He conducted a study of weather conditions over the north Atlantic for more than a year and came to the conclusion that wind forces 95 per cent of the odds against the east-west flyers.

STOP PLANE TAX

Austin, Tex.—State tax on airplanes cannot be levied in Texas, according to a recent ruling received at request of tax collector Rube Hanks from chief license inspector L. G. Phares. Because they do not use public highways, they are exempt from this tax and also from the four cent gasoline tax placed on automobiles.

DONOGHUE INJURED

Nottingham, England, Aug. 15.—(AP) —Little Steve Donoghue, credited with being one of the greatest jockeys the world has ever known, may never ride again.

Donoghue, who rode six derby winners, three of them in succession, is in a nursing home here with his right leg broken in two places as a result of his fall from Pampolina in Monday's races.

X-ray photographs taken today have been sent to Dr. Frank Romer, noted jockey club surgeon, for analysis, and all Steve's hopes rest on the doctor's verdict. However it is said to be improbable that he will ride again as he is in his forty-fifth year and the bones will not knit so easily.

King George sent a personal message to Steve. Another came from Lord Derby, England's great sporting peer.

SMOOTS ON HONEYMOON

Salt Lake City, Aug. 15.—(AP) —Senator Reed Smoot of Utah and his bride, the former Alice Taylor Sheets, prominent Utah church and society leader, left today for Honolulu on a delayed honeymoon.

The couple will sail from San Francisco Saturday for a three months stay in the Hawaiian islands. They were married here nearly two months ago and planned to leave immediately for the islands but the Senator was called to Washington by President Hoover to aid in securing ratification of the London naval treaty.

STEADY RAIN IMPROVES
GARDEN PRODUCE HERE

All Day Storm Welcomed by Everyone—First Steady Rain in Over a Month. Manchester and many other parts of the state are benefiting today from a much needed rain that started about dusk last evening and continued intermittently throughout the night without any signs of immediate abatement at noon today. The weather man, however, has promised fair weather for tomorrow. Late garden produce will be greatly aided by the rainfall. Tomatoes, which had been spoiling from the drought and actually, in some instances, baking on the vines from the recent heat wave, will profit as much as anything. Late lettuce, beans, peppers, celery, cabbage and onions will also improve, according to a local garden expert. Flowers and lawns which have been stunted by the combined drought and heat, will also show much improvement. The storm was the first steady rain the town has had in more than a month but it wasn't particularly heavy or consistent, at times being nothing more than a mere mist. It was accorded a hearty welcome, none the less. The silver loving cup to be awarded the girl who wins the title of "Miss Connecticut" at Sandy Beach Ballroom tomorrow night is on display in the window of G. H. Williams, Inc., of the Johnson Block. The judge of the contest, in which four Manchester girls are entered, will be Miss Margaret Eldahl, "Miss America of 1930."
