HITLER HINTS REVOLT IF FASCISTS CONTROL

(Continued from Page 1) Hitler said he had always been of the opinion that trying to undermine the Reichswehr was folly. "I think that would be a crime. I never advocated it and I never made overtures to the Reichswehr."

"Heads Will Roll" That blood may flow, once the Hitlerite are in power was admitted by the Fascist chieftain who declared passionately: "Whenever my party, by legal means shall have seized power, then there will also be constituted a new German Supreme Court. November, 1918, will then find its expiation and heads will then roll."

Asked why he spoke of revolution so often, Hitler replied: "What other name can we give a movement which aims to overturn the present state and construct a new German state on entirely new lines?"

Firemen turned their hoses on the followers of Hitler to drive them from the square before the Supreme Court building. The firemen gressed to the Hitlerite, filled the square and their shouts of "Deutschland, erwecke" (Germany, awake) grew louder. Many women in the crowd became hysterical. The police were unable to drive the people from the square and the crowd from the fire hose had the desired effect.

IS NOT A CITIZEN Leipzig, Germany, Sept. 25 (AP)—The court here today found Adolf Hitler as leader of the German Fascist Party and at the same time as a man without a country who has no right to sit in the German Reichstag was explained in court today.

After the war and his bearing the scars of a soldier, Hitler made no attempt to acquire German nationality, but remained a man without a country. After the putsch, the German government tried to deport him to Austria but Austria declined to receive him on the grounds that by his participation in the putsch he had lost Austrian citizenship.

Since then Hitler has tried at various times through friends to gain admission to German citizenship but so far has failed.

WOMAN'S TEMPER CAUSED COURT ROOM SHOOTING

Mrs. Douthitt, whose gun play re-ceived memories that she was ac-quired of the slaying of her husband 26 years ago, told newspapermen she was "a volcano by temperament."

"They tortured me into it; they hounded me into it," the woman de-clared. "For months they have been after my money. I have $35,000 or $40,000 they are trying to get. 'I don't know why I did it. I don't know why I wanted to kill.'"

NEW BAKERY TO GET UNDER WAY BY DEC. 1

Won't Wait Longer Than That for Machine But May Start Hand Wrapping. The first shipment of machinery to be used by the Square Pie Bakes, Inc., in their factory at 10 Hillard street was due to arrive this afternoon from the manufacturers in Massachusetts. This machinery is to be used in staking out the individual plates. Other machines are expected to arrive from time to time on schedule, but a patented wrapper machine which is of great importance will be delayed in arriving. This machine is built in Springfield and the factory is at present busy on a big order of ninety wrapping machines for Lucky Strike cigarettes. It may be two months more before the machine is received here. It is not the intention of the Square Pie Bakes, Inc. to hold up production any longer than absolutely necessary and if there is a prospect of further delay in getting the wrapper machine the concern may start in with hand wrapping. It will be about December 1 at least before production gets under way.

SKIDDING CAR KNOCKS DOWN STREET COLUMN

A Mohr bakery truck driven by Charles King, skidded on the wet pavement as King attempted to turn into Cambridge street from Main street this morning about 8:30, ran over the curbing and struck the two-foot square brick pier located on the south side of Cambridge street. It knocked off bricks like piled up wooden blocks, dumped them onto the lawn and shot the limestone top of the pillars into a yard, the surrounding vase being knocked to the ground and broken. The brick column on either side of the Cambridge street entrance, were erected by E. J. Holl when he developed the Pinehurst tract. Mr. Holl heard about the accident soon after and within a half an hour the place had been cleaned up. The column will be reconstructed out of the same material. The truck, though not badly damaged, had to be hauled away for repairs.

Milton E. Fish, whose farm is on Lake street, Manchester Green, reports that one of his Kenzie apple trees has a sizeable crop of little apples which he believes would grow to maturity if the frost didn't blight them. The regular crop of fruit and the leaves were cut off by the hailstorm of August 16. The summer crop run down by Mr. Fish's place met the same fate, but they have put forth new leaves and blossoms and squashes a few inches long are growing as they did early in July. E. L. Gates of North Elm street has been confined to his bed this week as a result of an accident which happened Saturday at the Eastern States Exposition. He had parked his car and was crossing over to the grounds when he was run down by a driver from Barkhamsted, Conn., and one arm and knee injured. Mr. Gates made the rounds and drove home before he saw a physician and realized the seriousness of his injury.

CONNECTICUT'S GOLD STAR GROUP

GOLD STAR MOTHERS ENTHUSE OVER TRIP

Mrs. Albina Chaput Arrives Home From Journey to Son's Grave in France; Mrs. McCann Visits in N. J. Manchester's two gold star mothers, Mrs. Joseph McCann of Cross street and Mrs. Albina Chaput of Foster street, returned Saturday on the "S. S. America" from a pilgrimage to the graves of their sons in France. Mrs. Chaput returned to Manchester Monday, while Mrs. McCann stayed over to visit relatives in New Jersey.

Mrs. Chaput, seen at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Firato, 93 Foster street, was enthusiastic over the treatment accorded the party by the French and our own government. The Connecticut gold star mothers left Hartford for New York Monday, August 18, and were given a sight seeing trip around New York City the next morning. Late in the afternoon the party went aboard the "S. S. George Washington" and sailed that evening for France. The easterly crossing was uneventful, the mothers enjoying themselves on the big liner listening to the music and entertainment provided for them. The gold star mothers traveled first class and mingled with the tourists of which there were 1,300 aboard. Neither Mrs. McCann or Mrs. Chaput were seasick. Both ladies gained several pounds in weight as a result of the invigorating voyage.

The George Washington docked at Cherbourg Wednesday, August 27, and the party were taken immediately to the Invalides, the headquarters. The itinerary of the party was very crowded, beginning with a conference with the conducting officer the next day and the ceremonies in honor of France's Unknown Soldier at the Arc De Triomphe in the afternoon of the first day. The second day was spent in a sight seeing trip to Sacre Coeur, Paris, returning for dinner to the

Editor of The Herald:— Sir: This is written in appreciation of your article as published in last night's issue, under caption, "Practical Picture." It is indeed regrettable that many societies, whose avowed objects are supposed to be the uplifting of the human race, has failed to give to this "inspired" production their support in a public and outspoken manner as one might expect from them, judging by their clamor in matters less essential to the welfare of humanity. It is evident from such attitude that like Don Quixote of old, they prefer to tilt at windmills and beat the air fighting unrealities instead of existing and world-wide evils. War to me has a personal factor, having experienced some of its terrors indirectly for the four years' period of the late World War, and assisted in hospital work with its victims. Horrors I saw then which can only be forgotten when death comes to me. I agree with you, sir, that this picture should be used to portray (even mildly as it does) some of war's horrors. Drink has its evil results, but for every single evil following it and the ensuing horrors, war has its thousands of evils and more unmentionable horrors than ever drink has had or will have, and to the mothers of our beloved land there is a crusade worthy of all our energies.—To fight against such evils as shown in this picture, knowing as I do, that not even the fringe of its magnitude of devastation, misery, horrors and misery, as war brings about, has been shown in this picture. Thank you for your uplift article. Yours truly, AN ANTI-BUT OF WAR.

Mrs. Nellie Pierce of Ithaca, N. Y., is a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Blackwood, 119 Center street. Turrington Nominated. Torrington, Sept. 25.—(A.P.)—Frank H. Durkington of Morris was unanimously nominated for re-election for sheriff of Litchfield county at the county convention held today in Litchfield.

Advance Guards

Thrusts and Counters Interest to Local Soldiers

Members of the Howitzer Company will 'fall in' next Tuesday night dressed in their melon uniforms with white shirts and collars. This procedure will be followed throughout the winter upon the last drill night each month; at each of these formations the men will be inspected by the company officers. All units of the 169th Infantry have accepted invitations to parade in Meriden on Saturday, November 8, when the city of Meriden will dedicate its World War memorial. The invincible rifle team of Phaneuf and Mozzer triumphed over Douglas Lynne and Knight Chambers on Tuesday night. Corporal Doran's squad in the Howitzer Company won the close order drill competition Tuesday night. The Howitzer Company has an attendance standing to date this month of 88 per cent. Keen rivalry has developed among the corporals in keeping a high percentage of attendance in their individual squads. The standing of squads in the contest is as follows:

Squad	Corporal	Standing
5	Vitullo	200
1	Bober	90.6
6	Boran	90.6
3	Anderson	87.5
4	Korch	87.5
2	Minor (Pvt 1cl)	75.

First Sergeant Ragnar Gustafson of the Howitzer Company has returned from a vacation spent in the "wilds" of Canada.

The Howitzer Company spent last Sunday morning on the Keeney Street pistol range. A considerable amount of improvement is shown this year in pistol marksmanship. Sunday, October 5, has been assigned as the day for final pistol qualification and the company will be on the range all day. A test mobilization of the local companies is planned for some day this week. The signal for this formation is twelve blasts on the fire whistles. Each man is supposed to report to his organization as quickly as possible. The company rolls will be called one half hour after the sounding of the signal.

Next Monday evening at 7:30 Major Irving Farbridge, commander of the Second Battalion, will pay his first visit to G Co. A rigid inspection of ordinance and equipment will be made, the result to be reported to regimental headquarters. These men of Co. G assisted at the funeral of Ivar Anderson Wednesday afternoon: Sergeant DeHan, Privates Ferrell, Wolfman, McCann and Topping. There was a firing squad of eight men under Sergeant DeHan, the other men being from the Howitzer Company. Private Ferrell, bugler for G, sounded taps. The men presented a very neat appearance.

The "Big Moment" is about to arrive for Sergeant "Jimmy" McCann. A West Side girl is soon to start on the long journey with the famous fisherman of G Co. There is not a better soldier or one more liked in Co. G than Jimmy. On Oct. 4 the best wishes of 60 men will accompany the sergeant and his bride as they start their journey together. Starting next Sunday the non-commissioned officers of Company G will receive instruction on how to give commands. Soldiers generally respond to a command the way the command is given. If the command is without spirit or pep or not in cadence the result cannot be anything but a poorly executed movement. Let a command be given with pep and with the proper tone, and the men will respond immediately and are on the alert. A platoon will be formed and each man will be given an opportunity to practise his commands on these men. Privates of the company are permitted to attend the school.

40 HAVE SUPPER, PLAY CARDS AT THE ARMORY

At the American Legion Auxiliary's supper and social at the State Armory last evening, forty members enjoyed baked ham, baked beans, salads, pickles, rolls, coffee and home made pie. A short program was given by some of the members and the remainder of the evening was spent at cards. In straight whist, Mrs. Lena Cervini won first prize, Mrs. Lawrence Moonan second and Mrs. John Hartnett consolation. In bridge Mrs. Catherine Hare had highest score, Mrs. Elizabeth Barrett second and Mrs. Fred Woodhouse consolation. During the evening a handsome enamel mesh bag was presented to Past President Mrs. Jennie Bausola in recognition of her services, and also in honor of her tenth wedding anniversary, which falls on Saturday.

Mrs. Elizabeth McIntosh was chairman of the supper. Mrs. Mildred Tedford of the entertainment and Mrs. Mary Brosnan of cards.

ISMET TO RESIGN HIS PREMIERSHIP

Right Hand Man of Persia's President to Quit Post to Form New Party.

Istanbul, Turkey, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Ismet Pasha, President Kemal's right hand, will resign the premiership tomorrow at an extraordinary session of Parliament. Ismet thus will force Kemal to clarify his ambiguous position as the head of the Peoples Party and at the same time the underground sponsor of a new opposing party led by the Liberal, Fethi Bey. Unless the expectation of political observers are greatly upset the president probably will reappoint Ismet as premier and make some minor changes in the Cabinet. Creation of an opposition party in Parliament is expected to be the outcome. It is Kemal's purpose to make possible free discussion of Legislation in a Parliament that heretofore has had only a single voice. A second party, he believes, will enable the Peoples Party to display its ability to parry the thrusts of the visible opposition and also provide an outlet for pent-up criticism.

Fethi As Leader
Fethi Bey will sit in the Parliament as the leader of an opposition of fifteen deputies who have left the Peoples Party. He has given up his post as ambassador in Paris to help Kemal with his experiment in two party government. Newspapers which have been criticizing the government today published an attack on Premier Ismet saying he drove hundreds of women workers from the Broussa silk factories to the polls yesterday and attempted to have them whipped into voting for the Peoples Party's municipal candidates. It is reported the women shouted "We earn only 15 cents a day and your taxes gobble half of that! We won't vote!" And it is authoritatively reported that the women did not vote, despite the attempts made to show them the glamor of their first opportunity to participate in an election.

TWO KILLED BY TRAIN
Corning, N. Y., Sept. 25.—(AP)—Hurling in their car in front of a speeding Lackawanna passenger train after the machine had left the highway and plunged down a 90-foot embankment to the tracks, two men were instantly killed near here today. They were identified through papers as W. Sterling Maxwell, salesman of the Maxwell Brothers Box Manufacturing Company, of Chicago, and J. L. Larsen, of Astoria, N. Y.

MISS MORROW TO TEACH IN SCHOOL OF HER OWN

Englewood, N. J., Sept. 25.—(AP)—Elizabeth Morrow soon is to realize her hope of having a school all her own.

On September 30, she will open a school for children too young to attend the city grades. She has leased the old Vanderbeek mansion, a show-place in Englewood. During her college days at Smith, at the Sorbonne and at the University of Grenoble, Miss Morrow has been strongly possessed of the Morrow penchant for teaching. Her paternal grandfather was a college professor and her father, Dwight W. Morrow, always had the idea he would like to be a teacher. But the paths of law, banking and a diplomatic career, led him away from his idea.

Miss Morrow taught at the Dwight school in Englewood, a school of which her father was trustee, and also in the English school in Mexico, the country to which her father was ambassador from the United States.

NATIONALISTS CLAIM CAPTURE OF KAIFENG

Nanking, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Nationalist government military headquarters tonight claimed the capture of Kaifeng, capital of Honan province, from northern rebel forces.

This announcement followed Nationalist statements yesterday reporting government advances against the rebel army of General Feng Yu-Hsiang but the latter's forces were believed to be either retreating or planning a retreat into Shaan province as the result of Manchurian intervention in the civil war between northern rebels and the Nationalists.

Previous advices from Peiping also said Feng's army had routed the Nationalists south of Changchow, important railway point west of Kaifeng but this was taken to be temporary rebel activity anticipating the withdrawal of northern forces.

The Manchurian occupation of Peiping and Tientsin has been looked upon as virtually ending the military phase of the current trouble.

TO VOTE TWICE IN FIFTH DIST.

Hartford, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Voters in the Fifth Congressional district will vote twice for Congressman at the November election, writes for a special election to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Congressman James P. Glynn, having been issued by Governor Trumbull.

The short term election will be for the Congress which opens in December and the regular term election will be for the Congress which begins next March.

The Democratic convention last Saturday played "safe" although the special election writes had not been issued, by naming Judge Martin E. Gormley of Naugatuck for both terms. The Republicans will name state Senator Edward W. Goss of Waterbury for both terms.

The voters in the Fifth District will vote for a short term Congressman by use of the machinery set up for the regular election.

Last spring in spite of Democratic demands and the criticism, Governor Trumbull did not call a special election after Mr. Glynn died on the ground the expense was not warranted and there was no urgent need to send a man to Washington from the Fifth District.

A news dispatch from England says that a cricket match was played between two teams of dentists. Naturally, the rooters pulled for each side.

SEC. MELLON PURCHASES VAN EYCK FOR $800,000

Pittsburgh, Sept. 25.—(AP)—The Sun-Telegraph says that according to Paris dispatches, Secretary Andrew W. Mellon has purchased the painting "Annunciation," by Jan Van Eyck, at a cost of $800,000.

The painting was purchased from the Hermitage Museum at Leningrad, the report says, according to the Sun-Telegraph. Sir Joseph Duveen stated the Duveen Brothers, who have been the agents for Section Mellon in collecting the paintings, know nothing of the transaction for the Van Eyck canvas, the newspaper adds.

The only other Van Eyck painting in America is "The Portrait of a Man" in the Johnson collection in the Philadelphia Museum.

FORD BUYS OLD AUTO

Munich, Germany, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Henry Ford, after examining with great interest the first automobile built in Germany in 1885, which is displayed at the Deutsches Museum, has bought one almost as old for his own museum.

It is an 1888 model Benz, a product of Karl Benz, who had designed the three-wheeled, chain driven vehicle which Ford had seen in the Museum.

The American motor magnate also has turned his attention to buying old watches of which there are many in Munich.

FASCIST OFFICIAL RESIGNS HIS POST

Rome, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Augusto Turati, secretary of the Fascist Party, has resigned.

The reasons for Turati's resignation were not made public but it was expected that they would be brought out in tonight's issue of Foglio D'Ordine, the Fascist order sheet.

Virtual Leader of Italian Party Quits—Reason for the Move Is Not Known.

Turati who is 39 years old had been secretary of the party since May, 1926, and in that position had been virtually directing head of the Fascist Party, although of course answerable to Premier Mussolini.

As secretary, Turati wrought the reconstruction of the party and was largely responsible for its new statutes.

He was considered by nearly everyone to be the second most powerful secular man in Italy. He did much for sport being an expert cyclist and above all was a fencer, having won many prizes in international fencing.

"A champion race horse or a leader in industry, I have found, is seldom a result of chance. Concentration upon quality—that's what counts. When I read the personal reports of your distinguished visitors, revealing your use of the Ultra Violet Ray in the 'Toasting' of the LUCKY STRIKE tobaccos, I knew that you were on the right track. Quality is everything—and the American people demand and appreciate the best."

John Hertz

LUCKY STRIKE—the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—THEN—IT'S TOASTED. Everyone knows that heat purifies and so TOASTING removes harmful irritants that cause throat irritation and coughing. No wonder 20,679 physicians have stated LUCKIES to be less irritating! Everyone knows that sunshine mellows—that's why TOASTING includes the use of the Ultra Violet Ray.

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough

Consistent with its policy of laying the facts before the public, The American Tobacco Company has invited Mr. John Hertz to review the reports of the distinguished men who have witnessed LUCKY STRIKE'S famous Toasting Process. The statement of Mr. Hertz appears on this page.

There is something New Under The Sun

A KELVINATOR

At $159.50
F. O. B. Factory

The New YUKON Model

At last the great ambition of the entire electric refrigeration industry has been realized! Kelvinator has produced an electric refrigerator of self-evident quality, of ample food and ice cube capacity, of really striking beauty and traditional Kelvinator reliability—at a price that is destined to make refrigeration history. It is fitting that Kelvinator—the pioneer—should take this great step which finally breaks down the price barrier, enabling tens of thousands of families of moderate income to enjoy, to the fullest, the many recognized advantages of modern electric refrigeration. The Kelvinator name, the oldest and greatest in electric refrigeration, gives the assurance of quality, value and dependableness that makes the price of $159.50 so truly revolutionary. Never before has it been possible for all home owners to obtain quality electric refrigeration at the price they have wanted to pay... Take a few minutes to inspect the Yukon and satisfy yourself that the refrigerator you have always desired is really here.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE COURSES POPULAR

Will Be Taught at Public Evening School; Classes Open On Next Monday.

It is anticipated that the domestic science courses to be offered in the local public evening school, which is to open on Monday evening of next week, will, as in years previous, be very popular.

Plain sewing, dressmaking and cooking will be taught in the Franklin building on Main street. An additional class for sewing and dressmaking will meet on Thursday and Friday evenings in the "West Side" Recreation building on Cedar street. The instructors are those who served so acceptably in previous years—Miss Nettie Johnson, Mrs. Nicolene Johnson and Miss Helen M. Smith.

The equipment of the Ninth District school system will be used for the evening classes, including machines, individual sewing tables, large tables for cutting, electric flats for pressing and fitting rooms for dressmaking. One of the four rooms to be used is the attractive cooking room of the Franklin building which adjoins a model dining room. This room has all of the cooking utensils, dishes and conveniences of an ideal kitchen.

There are twenty-six gas burners besides the electric ranges suitable for all kinds of cooking. The room is commodious and well lighted. Registration for the course in cooking is limited to twenty-six, the number of gas burners.

In addition to actual practice in cooking there will be practical discussions about such topics as balance rations, the nutritive values of the more common kinds of food, the preparation of menus, the planning as well as the preparation of breakfasts, lunches and dinners; also lessons in table setting.

Each in the term the pupils will be engaged in pickling and preserving. Such relishes as jams, marmalades, chili sauce and pepper relishes will be made. Later the pupils will be taught vegetable cooking and the preparation of scalloped dishes. The course also includes the making of cakes, muffins, quick breads, pies and cookies and the cooking of cereals. Each pupil will prepare a book of recipes under the direction of Miss Smith, the instructor. The cooking class will be taught as a unit, but every pupil will be required to follow the recipes of the evening by cooking under supervision on her individual gas burner.

The arrangement for teaching sewing and dressmaking will be somewhat different. Each lady will choose her own project and will be instructed by one of the instructors. The finished garment will be the personal property of the maker, for the materials to be used are to be furnished by the pupil, not by the school. The school will furnish the equipment and provide the assistance in making any sort of new garment or in altering wearing apparel already used whether it be for men or for women.

These classes are open to any women resident in the town regardless of previous experience, in either cooking or sewing. The cooking classes will meet on Monday and Wednesday evenings; the sewing classes will meet in the Franklin building on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. Ladies who expect to take sewing are advised to bring some of their cloth on the first evening when actual instruction will begin as in all other courses offered in the evening school.

COPS FIND "SUICIDE" IN A BARBER SHOP

New Haven, Sept. 25.—(AP)—The three day search for Frank G. Anderson whose automobile with a suicide note was found abandoned Monday night in Fort Hale Park on the shore of Long Island Sound ended today in a barber shop rather than at the bottom of the sound. Police arrested him while he was getting a shave on a warrant charging non-support which his wife had sworn out a few hours before his suicide note was found.

In the note addressed to his wife, Anderson said "I can't stand it any more and when you get this note, I'll be at the bottom of the Sound." Told by Mrs. Anderson that her husband had disappeared "several times before" under similar circumstances, police expressed doubt at the outset of the search that the man had committed suicide. Mrs. Anderson also told police she and her husband had quarreled recently and that he had been without permanent employment since Christmas.

CITY TAX RAISED New Haven, Sept. 25.—(AP)—The New Haven Board of Aldermen today were on record in favor of a three mill increase of the city tax rate to 27 mills after a stormy public hearing last night marked by heated debates between democratic and republican leaders.

Queer Twists In Day's News

White Plains, N. Y.—Few of the fellows at Merion would recognize the names Vardon, Flyer, Henley, Tucker's Dunes and Musselburg. They are brands of golf balls of the last century, the old gutty affair, which came to light when a pond at the Knollwood Country Club was dredged.

Ardmore, Pa.—H. Chandler Egan, National amateur golf champion in 1904, uses no little wooden peg to tee up his ball. He makes a mound of sand, as everybody else did.

Milwaukee—Mrs. Ellen Neuman is dead, having been struck by her husband's driver when they were playing golf. As he swung she stooped to make a tee. He missed the ball and the club fractured her skull. They were in a foursome at the Blue Mound Club. Mrs. Neuman was 21 years old.

New York—Primo Carnera is a great fighter of fires. He pulled hose around as if it were spaghetti in helping firemen with a stubborn two-hour blaze in the basement of the Park Plaza Annex.

Toledo, O.—Clarence Kehr, six years old, smokes cigars, has a moustache and shaves. He is three feet five inches tall and weighs 94. Toledo authorities have refused him admission to the public schools and his parents are to refer the matter of his education to state authorities.

Bogota, Columbia.—Saturday is just another working day now for the government employes. The new president, Dr. Enrique Olaya Herrera, has abolished weekend holidays.

New York—Mrs. W. Averill Harriman is closing Long Island University and going into business. She will open a gallery for the purchase and sale of modern art. On her honeymoon abroad in the spring she purchased some of the pictures she will hang in her new gallery.

Paris—"In Love" and "Love Awakens" are the last plays in which Mlle. Yvonne Hautin plans to appear. She intends to leave the stage shortly and enter a Benedictine convent.

New York—The oldest of 18,000 practicing physicians in New York is 90 years old today. Dr. A. W. Catlin has been practicing 68 years. He is one of the oldest Yale Alumni. He finds his greatest joy in serving the needy without reward.

TRAIN SCHEDULES CHANGE ON SUNDAY

Train schedules on the New Haven Railroad will undergo the usual seasonal changes next Sunday, September 28, when the daylight saving period comes to an end, practically all trains with the exception of some of the through trains over the Pennsylvania Railroad being changed an hour in their running time.

All of the changes, however, will involve merely the change of one hour in time, some additional adjustments in schedules taking place. Therefore it would be wise for prospective railroad passengers to provide themselves with new time tables, which will be in the hands of local agents by the end of the week. The various summer trains such as the White Mountains Express, the Sea Shore Express, and the Cape Codder, of course do not appear in the new timetables, but there are added such trains as the Florida Sunbeam, connecting with the Seaboard Air Line and the Havana Special via the Atlantic Coast Line, both of which will go into service December 1.

OPENING STOCKS

New York, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Stocks opened higher today as the momentum of yesterday's late rally carried through. American Can, Case, and National Cash Register were up a point, Fox rallied 2 1/4, Johns Manville 1 1/2, Loew's 1 3/8, and Eastman Kodak 2 points. U. S. Steel and American Telephone were unchanged. Advances in Westinghouse, Borden, General Electric and the convenience of the ladies who mean "Tobacco 'B'" lost a point and Cerro de Pasco broke 1 to a new low.

The advance soon flickered out, and the price movement became very irregular. Renewed liquidation in some of yesterday's weakest pool stocks, notably Vanadium and United Aircraft, turned the market downward just after the opening. International Harvester and National Lead joined Cerro de Pasco in making new lows for the year and net losses of a point or so developed in American Can, U. S. Steel, North American, Case, Standard Oil of New Jersey, American Telephone and others.

However, support quickly appeared at these lower levels and most of the leaders regained the declines. Vanadium got back 2 points of its 3 point drop and U. S. Steel moved fractionally above the previous close. Speculative sentiment seemed highly confused as a result of yesterday's sharp decline and brisk recovery, but the firmness of wheat at the opening in Chicago lent considerable reassurance. Foreign exchanges were slightly irregular, sterling cables opened at $4.86, off 1-16.

The proportion of the bank's reserve to liability is 55.20 per cent compared with 55.50 a week ago. Rate of discount 3 per cent.

HILLYER INSTITUTE OPENS ON MONDAY

Begins 37th Year at Hartford Y. M. C. A.—Class Registration Now.

With 36 years of invaluable educational service to the community to its credit, the Hillier Y. M. C. A. Schools, formerly known as the Hillier Institute of the Hartford Y. M. C. A., will begin its 37th year Monday evening, September 28. This week, September 22-27, is set aside as the week of registration. Classes will begin on Monday, September 28. In addition to the regular classes scheduled in the Junior College of Business Administration, the Engineering Institute, and the Preparatory courses, many special unit subjects will be offered this year. Perhaps the most outstanding of these unit courses is that in Aircraft Welding, which started Monday evening, September 22. This is a thoroughly practical course in every respect, with ample laboratory equipment and good instruction. The class is taught by Charles Borchers, foreman of the fuselage department of the Chance Vought Corporation in East Hartford. Pipe Welding is another popular course that was organized by the Hillier Y. M. C. A. Schools last year. This class is taught by Robert J. Dampman, supervisor of welding at the Whitlock Coil Pipe Company. The class began Tuesday evening, September 23. Both classes will meet from 7:30 to 9:30. Aircraft Welding meeting Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and Pipe Welding Tuesday and Thursday.

In the Junior College of Business Administration the following courses will be offered: Advertising, taught by John Lee Brooks; Junior Accounting, by R. K. Stanley; Accounting I and III, and Auditing, by A. T. Bierkan; Economics, by Professor W. B. Bailey; Cartooning and Commercial Art, by J. S. Merritt; Effective Speaking, by J. S. Augur; Business English, by Paul W. Stoddard; Investments, by G. C. Durant; Commercial Law, by Attorney J. Harold Williams; Psychology of Business, by William M. Mackensen; Real Estate and Appraising, by Louis St. Clair Burr, who will also teach a class in Salesmanship.

In the Engineering division the new classes in Mechanical and Architectural Drafting, Physics, Engineering Mathematics, Machine and Tool Design and Electricity will be given. In addition to these classes special courses have been developed in Power Engineering and Cam Layout, taught by local authorities. Special unit courses such as Radio and Slide Rule will also be given if the need warrants.

This year the course in The Airplane and Its Engine, taught by Lieut. A. Lewis MacClain, test pilot of the Pratt & Whitney Aircraft Company, will hold its first session on October 16. Lieutenant MacClain will have this year as an assistant George Egli, assistant superintendent of the Chance Vought Corporation in East Hartford, who will give a group of special lectures on the dirigible. Mr. Egli's experience as an engineer on the dirigible Los Angeles qualifies him to handle this phase of the course.

The class will meet once a week on Thursdays, beginning October 16, for a period of 25 lessons. At the present time Mr. MacClain is working on a complete outline of the course.

To take care of the young men in industry who have not had an opportunity for High school or even grammar school education, a Preparatory division has been organized. In this division a curriculum of English, Arithmetic, Algebra, and Elementary Drafting may be taken and, after two years of preparatory work, the student may enroll in the Junior Engineering group and work toward a diploma of Junior Engineering.

A few preparatory courses will be offered, such as English, French, Geography, History, Trigonometry, French and Spanish.

All of the courses given at the Hillier Y. M. C. A. Schools this year will be open to both young men and women. The classes meeting in the Y. M. C. A. building on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings of each week from 7 to 9 p. m. Educational guidance is given to any one, regardless of whether he is a student, by the Director. Appointments may be made for such interviews. Julius S. Augur, Director of the Hillier Y. M. C. A. Schools, is beginning his third year in that capacity. With his background of ten years educational work in the Philippine Islands, he is always anxious to help young men and women in solving educational and vocational problems. Practically all of last year's teaching staff will be reengaged for this year's work. They, too, are willing and anxious to assist their students and give individual instruction if necessary.

HOW TO PLAY Today's BACKGAMMON

EDITOR'S NOTE: The actual start of a game of backgammon is explained in the following article, the third in a series on "Today's Backgammon" which has been written for The Herald and NEA Service by Elizabeth Clark Boyden. She is author of "The New Backgammon" and co-author of "Contract Bridge for 1929" and "Contract Bridge for 1931."

BY ELIZABETH CLARK BOYDEN

Written for NEA Service

The original setting up of the men and how to move the checkers from point to point in accordance with the throw of the dice were discussed in yesterday's article.

We will now illustrate, with the aid of the diagram, the start of a game of backgammon. It is recommended that the readers get out their backgammon boards and follow the moves as suggested below. The two players seat themselves on opposite sides of the table with the board between them. Each player or throws one die in his right hand table. They each throw a six and must rethrow, and continue to do so as long as they throw the same number. On the second throw, one player throws a five and the other a six. High (the six) wins and that player chooses the white men and chooses to set the board with his home table on his right. He will hereafter be referred to as white and his opponent as black.

They now set up the table and in looking at the diagram we are looking over white's shoulder and black is opposite facing us with his inner table on his left. White now must play the numbers on his own table on black's die for his first move. This was a five and a six. He looks over the board and finds he has a choice of several moves. He can move two men from point 12 in black's outer table, one to point 8 and the other to point 1 in his own outer table. He can also move one man from point 1 in black's inner table and play that man for both numbers. In making this move he must play his man first a 6 which carries it to point 7 in black's outer table and then the 5 which carries it to point 12 in black's outer table. If white attempted to play his 5 first it would bring the man to point 6 which is already occupied by black's men. A point thus occupied is called a block. He can, however, take one man from point 1 in black's inner table and play that man for both numbers. In making this move he must play his man first a 6 which carries it to point 7 in black's outer table and then the 5 which carries it to point 12 in black's outer table. If white attempted to play his 5 first it would bring the man to point 6 which is already occupied by black's men. A point thus occupied is called a block. He can, however, take one man from point 1 in black's inner table and play that man for both numbers. In making this move he must play his man first a 6 which carries it to point 7 in black's outer table and then the 5 which carries it to point 12 in black's outer table. The strange story of a religious venture that became a two-million dollar business

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the last of a series of four stories on Aimee Semple McPherson and her mother, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy. Today, Don Roberts describes in detail the huge and smoothly-working machine for the dissemination of religion in an elaborate scale that these two women have built up at Angelus Temple.

Los Angeles, Sept. 25.—"God's runs everything," Aimee Semple McPherson once described herself back in the days when she was a struggling evangelist, is a wholesaler of religion now.
No "big business" in any line operates more smoothly than her Angelus Temple here, with cash and property assets of $2,000,000, as hundreds of employees in 50-odd departments pursue their daily leading of sinners to salvation, spreading the work far and wide by means of missions, training future preachers, teaching music, praying in hospitals and jails, selling books, publishing a monthly magazine, weekly newspaper, dispensing charity to the needy, selling tracts and forever expanding along additional lines.
The organization is a complicated one, but Aimee Semple McPherson runs everything. She is president of the Church of the Four Square Gospel, which is Angelus Temple; president of the Echo Park Evangelistic Association, which owns all the property; president of the International Four Square Gospel Lighthouse Association, which extends the work to distant fields.

IN HER STEPS—Mrs. Aimee Semple McPherson is shown above with her two children—Roberta Semple and Rolf McPherson—who are being trained by her as evangelists to carry on the work she has begun. Rolf recently returned from his first series of revivals and is delighted with his success.

Here is a list that gives an idea of the varied activities at Angelus Temple, through which hundreds of thousands of dollars are said to flow each year:
THE CHURCH—Miss Mae Waldron, Mrs. McPherson's secretary, says it costs about $1200 a week to support the church alone and the offerings "just about take care of this."
THE BIBLE SCHOOL—For the training of future pastors of Four Square churches in Aimee's roof-raising methods of evangelism. Mrs. Harriet Jordan, a trustee in the Evangelistic Association, heads the school and receives about $200 a month therefor. The highest salary goes to the business manager, formerly an auditor with a commercial firm, but the amount is not revealed.
THE MUSIC SCHOOL—Directed by Lavine Parolotti, who also supervises the three church bands, the school orchestra and bands and many musical activities.
THE BOOK STORE—Sells Aimee's books, of which there are six, including "In the Service of the King," which is widely read.
CHURCH PUBLICATIONS—The Bridal Call Foursquare, a monthly magazine, and The Foursquare Crusader, a weekly.
PRINTED SERMONS—Every sermon is printed in a booklet form and sold for a small sum, usually 25 cents. Some are ordered in 150,000 lots and distributed throughout the world.
MISSIONS—The International

profits from the sale of Aimee's books, but she gets the royalties as the author. She also receives an additional, if minute, income from the sale of her songs, of which there are about eight published by herself. She has also written six oratorios given by the temple choir, but there is no cash attached to these.
As a teacher in the Bible school—which trains young evangelists of both sexes and somewhat resembles a school of public speaking—Aimee receives the regular teacher's salary of $200 a month.
Thus the discernible total of her income appears to be about $900 a month.

Sister has little life outside the church and its kindred organizations, as one might guess after reading the schedule of her activities. Her home is not used much for receiving callers, neither does she go calling.
The parsonage in which she lives on the rear of the temple property is comfortably and fairly expensively furnished but it belongs to the evangelistic association, which holds all the church property.
The temple furnishes the parsonage and supplies a cook and a woman to clean the house. Mrs. McPherson has no maid and usually drives her own car, a Cadillac sedan, although she has a chauffeur. Roberts, her daughter, had a small coupe before it developed a bad case of old age and was discarded. Rolf, her son, has no car.
The children make their home with her. She is training both to be evangelists; Roberts has donned the familiar flowing robes and assisted her mother in various energetic campaigns against the devil; Rolf has just returned from his first tour as an evangelist and is highly pleased with his chosen career.

Pets at the McPherson home are numerous and varied. Right now, Mrs. McPherson has a gigantic police dog, "Fido," descendant of a movie dog, "Fido the Great." Rolf has a cage of birds and a pet monkey which occasionally escapes and leads the family and the hired help a merry chase through the adjoining Echo Park.

Strangely enough, there has never been any hint that money was the cause of the various squabbles between Sister Aimee and her mother, Mrs. Kennedy. Temporarily, the interest of personal exchanges, no such charge has ever been made by either. A few years ago when they parted for the first time they split amicably as to money matters—and fifty-fifty.
At the bottom of all their differences, so far as an impartial observer can discern, has been the thirst for power between two remarkable women. They started with nothing and an equal terms and as success crowned their long struggle with a $2,000,000 enterprise, there was a consequent—and natural—clash between two exceptionally strong minds as to which should be boss.
The rest is simple—Aimee is still there, Ma is out.

Facts and Near Facts About Things Here and There.

The three R's, the little Red Schoolhouse and various other subjects pertaining to our school systems have occupied the attention of readers for the past few years. But we became acquainted the other day with a new method—new to us—of teaching youngsters how to read. Our bright young man came home, proud as a peacock, with his first schoolbook. Just as proudly as he carried the book did he speak up "Daddy, I can read." We took his assertion with the proverbial grain of salt but sat down at his insistence to listen to the reading.
"Opening the little paper covered booklet he began 'This is the mother,' 'This is the boy,' 'This is the girl.' We nearly fell off the chair. In school—first grade—but two or three days, and already reading! We tried to catch him by covering part of the page and asking him to read. But it didn't work. He seemed to know all the words in the lessons he had learned.
"But when we asked him to spell 'boy' or 'girl' or 'this' or 'is,' it wasn't quite so easy for him. We had taught him some spelling at home before school days and he could remember these words. And so we are a bit skeptical over this method of visionary teaching. It is much more of a mental effort to try to make a picture of everything to conjure up when need comes than it is to learn to do things mechanically. But the mechanical way takes more time to teach.
"We're a little afraid that the modern method has been designed to teach youngsters the rudiments in the quickest possible time. We have always prided ourselves on our method employed in teaching us. We would be disturbed mightily if the youngsters of today were not given the same possibility of becoming good spellers that we had. But, judging from some of the letters we have seen written by college graduates, the world today doesn't want good spellers badly enough to take

THIRTY BELL CARILLON FOR TRINITY COLLEGE

Hartford, Sept. 25.—(AP)—A thirty bell memorial carillon will be installed in the 163 foot tower of the new chapel being built for Trinity College by William G. Mather of Cleveland, it was announced today by President Benjamin B. Ogilby. The carillon is the gift of the Rev. and Mrs. John F. Plumb of Hartford in memory of their son John Landon Plumb, a member of the class of 1926 who died at the beginning of his junior year.
On the largest bell of the carillon which now is being cast in the foundry of the John Taylor & Co., in Loughborough, England, will be an inscription in Latin in commemoration of the dead Trinity student.
The carillon expected to be dedicated at founders and benefactors day exercises on November 1, 1931.

DOPE QUEEN JAILED

Sydney, Australia.—(AP)—It is hoped here that the conviction of Mrs. Kate Lee, so-called queen of the underworld and acknowledged ruler of a desperate band of gamblers, will bring the Australian narcotic ring which for years has directed this traffic in Australia.
Police say that, bereft of its brains, the narcotic ring must collapse.
Kate Lee and her beautiful daughter Eileen lived a life of ease and splendor. Their fleet of automobiles rivaled that of the governor. Their residence had been raided on numerous occasions by police but finally Kate Lee was found in possession of narcotics. She was sentenced to 12 months imprisonment and fined $17,500.

HEADS KIWANIAN

ARREST TWO HUNDRED IN GIGANTIC SWINDLE

Lisbon, Sept. 25.—(AP)—A vast organization that swindled thousands of peasants who wanted to emigrate to South America has been broken up as the authorities today announced the arrest of 200 persons.
The organization engaged in forging passports, visas, and affidavits, generally using certificates purporting to be those of the Portuguese consul general at Rio De Janeiro. It sold not only such "documents" but also "employment" in Brazil. The authorities said that Spanish accomplices helped smuggle the peasants across the frontiers of Portugal.
Manuel Maria, Paulino, leader of the gang, confessed that it had made a net profit of 3,000,000 escudos (about $150,000), according to the police. A raid on the headquarters of the organization disclosed it possessed government stationery, official stamps and hundreds of faked passports with visas for Spain, France and Brazil.
Most of the victims of the ring were from towns of Barrozeles, Gondomar, Braganza and Miranda. France, Spain and Brazil took care of them until Portugal could arrange to repatriate them.
It is said scores of operators in the ring have escaped from Portugal.

FAKES SUICIDE TRY

New Britain, Sept. 25.—(AP)—A woman between the ages of 17 and 23 was found sitting in a room at the New Haven Railroad station today, her lips burned with a radioactive poison.
Behind a radiator was an empty bottle which had contained a poisonous liquid.
Refusing to disclose her identity, the woman fought against treatment at New Britain hospital where she was taken by policemen.
No trace of poison could be found in her stomach and the police believe she faked a suicide attempt.
"I don't want my name in the newspapers," she firmly declared to the police.
Today's smile: As rare as the World War veteran who hasn't written a novel about the great conflict.

NEW HAVEN ATTORNEY GETS JAIL SENTENCE

New Haven, Sept. 25.—(AP)—James F. Rosen, New Haven attorney, today was sentenced to two months in the county jail by Judge John Richards Booth in Criminal Superior Court on charges of forgery.
Rosen was accused of withdrawing $2000 from the New Haven Connecticut Savings Bank.
Phillip Pond, former president of the New Haven County Bar Association made a lengthy plea for clemency. He said Rosen had been mentally unbalanced as a result of an injury to his head in 1924.
Prosecutor Hoyt said charges involving Rosen in irregular practices in bankruptcy court were pending against him in Hartford. He also faced disbarment action.
Rosen was arrested in New Haven on his return this summer from a honeymoon trip in Central America.

EUROPE ALL EXCITED OVER RUSSIAN WHEAT

London, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Political observers believe that wheat possibly will play a dominant part in the coming imperial conference discussions.
The dumping of Russian wheat has raised an outcry not only in rural England but across the agrarian states of Europe, and has given the movement for wider empire preferences impetus such as no mere academic discussions could possibly have done.
Nevertheless there are strong doubts as to whether the present Labor government would be prepared to impose a duty on foreign wheat since the Free Traders and the "Free Fooders" such as Philip Snowden, chancellor of the exchequer, and William Graham, president of the Board of Trade, are much at the economic helm at Downing street.
If Sir Thomas Lipton looked a bit swanky in his yachting costume, observes the wise-cracking office boy, it should be remembered that in Scotland they usually dress to kill.

CANNON COMPLAINS OVER NEW CHARGES

Says Elders of Church Took Too Hasty Action While He Was Absent.

New York, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Bishop James Cannon Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, complained today in a radio message of the action of elders of his own church filing charges against him while he was in Brazil on church work.
The message was sent to the Associated Press from the American Legion on which he is coming from Brazil.
These charges, while their content has not been made public, are understood to involve Bishop Cannon's stock operations and political activities as well as certain new charges.
They have been brought by the Rev. Dr. Forrest J. Freytmann, of Baltimore; Dr. J. T. Mastin and Dr. Costen J. Harrell, of Richmond, Va.; Dr. I. P. Partin, of Abingdon, Va.
His Message
After detailing circumstances of his notification, while he was spending a honeymoon in Brazil, with his former secretary, that new charges were to be filed against him, Bishop Cannon in his message said:
"I shall protest the legality of the hurried and premature action taken before my arrival, making impossible conference with me, which the disciplinary provision to carefully inquire necessarily includes.
According to the bishop's message he was notified briefly by the four clergymen on September 8, that they were inquiring into his case.
TAKING TIME
About 61 per cent of all passenger automobiles bought in the United States during 1929 were purchased on the installment plan, the average deferred payment being $444 on each car, according to the American Motorists' Association.

Kid Kaplan

By THOMAS W. STOWE
Herald Sports Editor

Visions of the halcyon days of bygone years were mirrored before 7,000 persons over in the Hurley Stadium in East Hartford last night when Louis "Kid" Kaplan, former world's featherweight champion, buzzed his way to a clean cut and impressive ten round decision victory over Bat Battalino, present incumbent, who seems destined to lose his crown to the first good man he meets outside his own backyard.

Kaplan has been gradually fading from the fight picture for some time despite his own reluctance but one would have never formed such an opinion by watching him perform last night. He was the Kaplan of old last night, the Kaplan of old last night, the Kaplan of old last night. He was the Kaplan of old last night, the Kaplan of old last night.

Battalino never really had a chance. From the very outset, Kaplan swarmed all over the champion from close range pumping steady fire of rights and lefts to the body interspersed with short, jolly uppercuts to the jaw that started out of a clinch. The champion was game as a prize cock. Not once did he give up trying to find the opening for his haymaker right. It was evident at the close of the eighth that he realized the futility of his task.

It was simply a case of Battalino stepping out of his own class and receiving as neat a lesson in the art of self defense as one could wish to see. It was Kaplan's range in experience and his relentless infighting that enabled him to outclass the champion so thoroughly. And yet in the face of all these facts, it was a highly interesting fight, not nearly so one-sided as the 9-0 scorecard of Referee Bill Conway would seem to indicate.

Kap kept inside. At times both men stood toe to toe throwing caution to the wind and engaged in spirited slugfests. Almost invariably the masterful Kaplan had the edge. Battalino made the grave error of failing to fight Kaplan at long range. The former Meriden boy kept getting in the side of the champion by boring in continually, his face increased in bent elbow. Bat hit the Kid on the elbow time and again, but unlike Fernandez, Kaplan's joint was not made of glass.

Battalino was a very tired and sad young man at the finish but he received ten grand for his effort which made it a worth while proposition. The champion's record since he won the title from Andre Routis has been anything but impressive. A defeat administered by a man of Kaplan's repute was more to his credit than most of the reverses with which he has met.

The outcome of the fight was a decided boost to the boxing game in Connecticut. There had been an unusually strong under-current of feeling to the effect that the scrap was just another of the "in-the-bag" species and that Battalino would win. It was pointed out that both men lived in Hartford and were good friends; also that victory meant far more to Battalino than to Kaplan.

However, if there was ever a fight that was strictly on the up and up, it was last night's battle. Kaplan has long been known as at least one boxer who positively refuses to participate in a framed bout. Bat and the Kid may be good friends outside the ring, but there wasn't even the least symptom of brotherly love during the battle. And on one, at least, the experts were right when they unanimously placed their finger on Kaplan as the winner.

The crowd and gate fell far below expectations, the figures showing that 6,410 persons paid $21,577.30. From this sum, Battalino collects $10,000 while Kaplan gets 25 percent of the net. The balance of the card was interesting. Ralph Lenny and Tony Leto, strong Manchester favorites, scored easy knock-out victories. Mickey Flahive won his bout on a decision. Lack of space prevents going into detail.

Card is Okay. Referee Conway's scorecard in the Battalino-Kaplan fight showed the maximum five points for Kaplan in every round with Battalino scoring five in only one round. Usually we differ greatly with Conway's viewpoint but last night we had identically the same card so far as rounds were concerned. Kaplan won nine rounds, Battalino none and one, the

The conference of 1845 gave baseball its name and its diamond-shaped field that is still used, but in many other respects the game was very much unlike the game that is being played now.

A codified set of rules was adopted at this conference, and a glance at them will show how great some of these differences were. In reading these rules, which are printed exactly as the 1845 conference adopted them, one must bear in mind certain definitions: "home" is a put-out was called a hand-out, a run was called an ace, and the batter was called the striker.

Here are the 1845 rules: ONE—The bases shall be from "home" to first, from first to second, from second to third and from third to home, 90 feet.

TWO—The game shall consist of 21 acres, and at the conclusion of an equal number of hands out, the system shall remain as it stands. (Note that the modern nine-inning game had not yet been developed.)

THREE—The ball must be pitched, not thrown, to the bat. (This meant that the pitcher must deliver the ball underhand.)

FOUR—A ball knocked outside the line of first or third base is foul. (This was a new development, before there were no foul balls and the batter ran on everything from a foul tip on up.)

FIVE—Three balls must be struck at. If they are missed, and the last one is caught, it is considered a fair, and the striker is out.

SIX—A ball being struck at and tipped, and caught, either flying or on the first bound, is a hand out.

EIGHT—A player running who shall prevent an adversary from catching the ball or getting the ball before the runner has made his hand out.

NINE—Two hands are already out, a player running home at the time the ball is struck cannot make an ace if the striker is out.

TEN—Three hands out, all hands out.

J. C. AITKEN AGAIN GIVES NET PRIZES

Pawtucket Man Donates Tennis Racquets to Winners of Town Title for Third Time.

James C. Aitken of Pawtucket, R. I., years ago a resident of Manchester, has forwarded a pair of high grade tennis racquets to the sports editor of the Herald with the request that they be given to the winners of the town tournaments for men and women this year with his compliments.

Mr. Aitken, a great lover of tennis, donated tennis racquets to the winners of the first two tournaments and would have done so for the third if he had not learned of the tournament until after its completion but when he did, Mr. Aitken hastened to send another pair of racquets to the winners by his brother, Walter T. Aitken, of Bank street, who had been down to visit his brother in Pawtucket.

Walter R. "Ty" Holland, winner of the men's tennis title for the third straight year, received his racquet just before the start of the final town championship baseball game at the West Side last Sunday. Miss Elizabeth Washkewich, new women's champion, received her donation last night. Needless to say, both Miss Washkewich and Holland were immensely pleased. Each had silver loving cup, the gifts of the Montgomery Ward and Company, Manchester Plumbing and Supply Company, May Jewelry Company and Louis Jaffe, Jewelry Company.

ONLY EIGHT LEFT IN GOLF TOURNEY

Merion Cricket Club, Ardmore, Pa., Sept. 25.—(AP)—The eight quarter-finalists in the National Amateur Golf championship began their all-day battle over the 36-hole route today under cloudy skies and with the galleries sharply reduced in size.

The main gate attraction, Bobby Jones, still was in the chase and a prohibitive favorite to continue his unbeaten campaign, but he was the only survivor favorite or performer of national renown with the exception of Jess Sweetser of New York.

Jones was paired with Fay Coleman, young Los Angeles star, in the last of the day's matches.

The pace-setters were Gene Homans, respected former Princeton player, of Englewood, N. J., and John Lehman, of Chicago, the present western amateur king.

Charles Beaver, Los Angeles, and Billy McPhail, Boston; Jesse Sweetser and Maurice McCarthy Jr.

Bobby Jones was leading Fay Coleman by a narrow margin of two strokes at the end of the first half of their 36 hole match today. He was playing very poorly, yet he managed to keep ahead of his rival. Jones score was 76 and Coleman had an approximate 78.

Created after the changes of 1845, and before a long summer of play in and about New York were playing regularly scheduled games. The press, however, took little notice of this new sport for several years, and it was not until 1853 that a boxscore appeared in a newspaper.

In that year the New York Clipper covered a game between two clubs known as the Knickerbockers and the Gothams. The Clipper's boxscore is presented herewith. Note that the positions of the players are not given, nor is the score by innings; and only the runs and putouts are given. The scores are set down in the boxscore.

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

The triple has become baseball's most thrilling play.... Adam Comorosky of the Pirates specializes in that kind of swats.... he leads both leagues in that respect.... Babe Ruth has hit as many homers as triples.... Charley Gehring of the Tigers nearly always gets around to third when he bounces one off the wall.... another fast man at reaching third base on two-base hits is Paul Waner.... It seems odd, sometimes, that promoters will guarantee a fighter $100,000.... and the fighter doesn't even guarantee to fight.... Connie Mack is a year older than Your Uncle Wilbert, who is 66.... both broke into the game in New England.... this is Robbie's 17th season as manager of the Brooklyn club.

CARDS MAY WIN PENNANT TODAY

Victory for St. Louis and Defeat for Cubs Would End National Race.

The National League pennant race may be settled in one day's play. Yesterday the two contenders again hoist the battle flags today, St. Louis starting its final four-game series against Pittsburgh and Chicago clashing with the Cincinnati Reds.

If the league leading Cardinals can win today's game and the Reds again can assert the supremacy over the Cubs the race will be over. Today the two leaders stand this way:

Team	W.	L.	P.C.	G.	T.P.
St. Louis	90	61	.596	0	3
Chicago	86	64	.573	4	4

This result, however, is by no means certain, for the Pirates already have knocked out a team, the N. Y. Giants, out of the pennant race while the Cubs, easy victims of Cincinnati, have done somewhat better against the Reds in Cincinnati and can be counted on to show their best with the pennant at stake.

Rain interrupted the Cincinnati-Pittsburgh game several times and finally halted it in the sixth, bringing the Pirates a 5 to 1 victory. Brooklyn's floundering Robins dropped into fourth place half a game behind the N. Y. Giants as they lost to the last place Phillies, 6 to 3. Klein made his 40th homer of the season.

Another tallender, the Boston Red Sox, came out ahead in the only American League game, defeating the second place Washington Senators.

BASEBALL SERIES NETTED A PROFIT EXCEEDING $700

West Sides, Bon Ami and Green Realize Tidy Sum for Efforts in Title Games.

The intake at the five town championship baseball games involving the West Sides, Bon Ami and Manchester Green totaled nearly $1,000, it was learned today from Walter J. Buckley of the The Manchester Trust Company, who had personal charge of the financial affairs of the titular series.

In striking contrast to the usual percentage basis used in series of this nature, the winning team which was the West Sides, makes but a comparatively small sum more than the two unsuccessful contenders, Manchester Green and the Bon Ami. The net receipts were split 40 per cent to the winner, with 30 per cent to both of the other clubs regardless of which was eliminated first.

The total gross intake for the five games was $878.35 and expenses amounted to $172.30. This left a profit of $706.05 to be split as designated. The West Sides' winning share was $282.42 while the Green and Bon Ami both received $211.82. Although these sums are very small in comparison to the profits in big baseball series of yesteryear, the 1930 profit greatly exceeds that made for several years at least.

The newly crowned West Side champions had the most profitable season of all three town teams. It is understood they realized a tidy sum for games prior to the series. The Green also profited but not as big. The Bon Ami, too, made money but owing to a much smaller schedule, took in less money than either the Green or West Sides previous to the series.

It has not been definitely decided what any of the three teams will do with their profits. Each is planning a banquet. Some will split the money while in some cases liberal sums may be set aside as the foundation for another year's baseball campaign.

Local Sport Chatter

Don't forget the fact that the Sharkey-Campolo fight will be broadcast over WEAJ tonight. The bout is expected to get under way between 9:30 and 10 o'clock. Be there in beforehand. It may be short and sweet.

Met Eddie Zeltner of the New York Mirror at the Batallino-Kaplan fight last night. He doesn't think much of our present featherweight champion. Says Bat would be duck soup for Keed Chocolate. Likes Bat's gameness and the punch in his right hand but says the Hartford boy is stupid.

Incidentally, so far as is known, Zeltner was the only New York newspaper man at the ringside last night. Eddie came out to Manchester after the fight with us to visit Mr. and Mrs. Frank Busch and Mrs. Antoinette Miller, wife of the late Walk Miller, in whose boxing stable Busch once fought.

Zeltner says he looks for Sharkey to beat Campolo on a decision tonight but adds that if Campolo punches a couple of his hard body punches, Sharkey may not last the limit.

Manchester lovers of Bobby Jones read with interest his safe voyage over the two 18-hole match play matches of yesterday. Now he is a strong favorite to win his remaining three 36-hole matches and thus capture his fourth major crown of the year, a feat no other golfer ever approached let alone equaled.

Southington Schoolboys To Furnish Opposition

Coach Kelley Depending Upon Speed and Deceptive Plays to Offset Light Team; Game Starts at 3:30 at West Side.

The first football game of the season in Manchester will be played tomorrow afternoon at the Four Acre Lot where the High School level will have as its opponents, Lewis High School of Southington. Sunday will find both of the local professional teams, the Cubs and the Majors opening their 1930 campaigns.

Tomorrow's scholastic battle will get underway promptly at 3:30 with Johnny McGrath of East Hartford as the referee. This will be the initial test for both schools, but Manchester is favored to win inasmuch as it is a larger institution from a standpoint of enrollment. The game is a sort of a "feeler" for Manchester prior to the opening of the Central Connecticut Interscholastic League with Middletown here either next week Friday or Saturday.

Coach Tom Kelley, despite the disadvantage of losing all but two of the regulars on last year's season, is hopeful of a successful season. He expects that he will be able to develop some good players from the available rookie material. Lack of many heavy players means that the local schoolboy outfit will be the lightest in several years. To offset this fact, Coach Kelley is giving much attention to developing speed and trick plays in effort to outwit their opponents.

The schedule includes nine games, six of which will be played at home and the other three on the grid-irons of opposing schools. The out of town games are with Bristol, Meriden and Windham High of Willimantic. Five league games appear on the slate as usual and in addition there will be games with the Alumni, Southington of New London, Southington and the Windham game. The latter is one of Manchester's traditional rivals.

Here is the complete schedule: September 26, Lewis High School of Southington at Manchester; October 3, Middletown High School at Manchester; October 11, Bristol High School at Bristol; October 17, Meriden High School at Meriden; October 24, East Hartford High School at Manchester; October 31, West Hartford High School at Manchester; November 7, Bulkeley High School of New London at Manchester; November 13, Windham High School of Willimantic at Willimantic; November 27, Alumni at Manchester.

NO ONE STAR ON CARD NINE

New York, Sept. 25.—(AP)—If the St. Louis Cards should win the National League pennant, they don't stand much of a chance for any of the individual honors. Watkins is the only regular among the first ten basemen of the league. He is hitting .368 while the club ranks third in batting and is tied for fifth in fielding. As a club however, the Cards lead in doubles with 385, are first in total runs with 974 and also first in runs batted in with 898.

COLBY TO PLAY AT MIDDLETOWN

Middletown, Sept. 25.—(AP)—A team lacking in weight but possessing a great deal of speed and punch will be sent by Coach Jim Oberlander against Colby Saturday when Wesleyan opens its 1930 football campaign on its home ground.

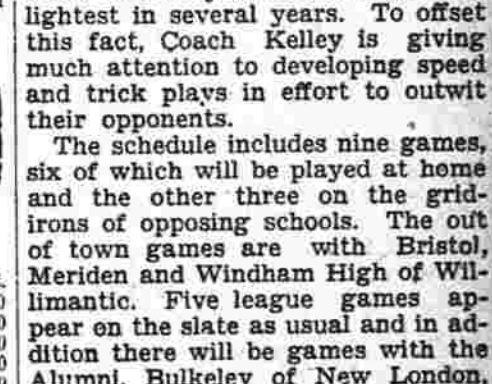

Nine men who gained some varsity football experience during the regime of Coach Bill Wood, and two sophomores will make up the Cardinals eleven for the opening game. The lineup is expected to consist of Wells and Odell, ends; Luan and Sweet, tackles; Means and Eldridge, guards; Captain Joe Miller, center; Striebing, quarterback; Tirrell and Schlumb, halfbacks, and Housley, fullback.

Coach Oberlander has confined his charges to straight football during the pre-season sessions, but expects to capitalize the speed of the team later by developing a forward pass game.

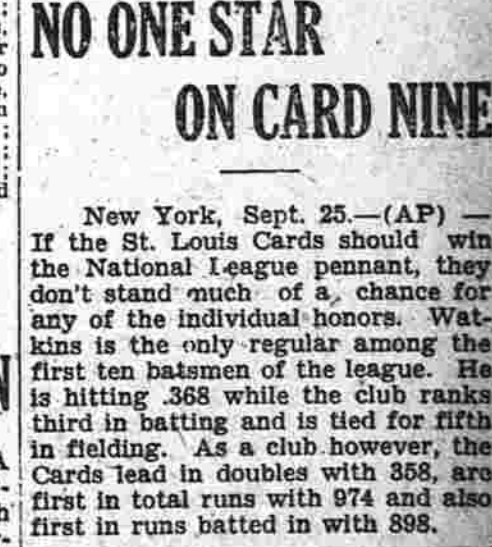

More than 55,000 persons will witness the first match between the American and British polo teams September 6, advance ticket sales indicate.

GAS BUGGIES—Did You Ever Know It to Fail

SENSE AND NONSENSE

Things I'd Like to Know
Where vaudeville actors buy their overcoats... why President Hoover insists on reading his movie-toned speeches...

ULTRA MODERN COSTUME
From the Baltimore Post—Mrs. S... arrived early and seated herself beside her attorneys. She was fashionably dressed, wearing a green hat, green pumps, a fox fur and a diamond ring.

Glady—Won't you sit in this chair? Her Boy Friend—After you.

What this country needs is more wild life in the open spaces and a bit less in the cities.

And speaking of this year's crop of brides, we wonder how many of them can bake her cake and eat it, too.

Some men never hit the mark because they never pull the trigger.

Another thing the talkie needs is sense enough to stop talking until the applause stops.

Mrs. S.—So you've landed a man at last? Mrs. P.—Yes, but you should have seen the ones that got away.

Another thing of which the world is plenty full are people who hate to say, "I don't know" when they really don't know.

Larry—So you have a very pretty girl, eh? Harry—I'll say so. When she gets on a street car the advertising is complete loss.

Silk hose generally give you a run for your money.

A new instrument is a combination of the violin and the saxophone.

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS

The girl without a date is usually of a retiring nature.

We were afraid somebody would think of this.

The married couple that doesn't pull together soon or late pulls apart.

Mother (to friend)—Yes, my dear, I'd trust my daughter anywhere.

Daughter—Well, mother I like that.

Neighbor—How old are you my little man? Child—I don't know. Mother was twenty-six when I was born, but now she's only twenty-four.

Youth—O—can I marry ya daughter sir? Girl's Dad—Better wait awhile—you're only 18 an' she's 24! Wait till you're 24 and she'll be about the same age!

Did you hear about the trapper who skinned a raccoon and found a college man inside?

Gertie—To think you used to catch me in your arms every night. George—Yes, dear, and now to think I catch you in my pockets every morning.

The new long skirts are long only in spots.

Nobody can make as many enemies without trying as a school teacher.

When eating asparagus in a hotel it is customary to leave the tips for the waiters.

THE PARTHAN SHOT

The fatal word had just been spoken. The rejected suitor was standing before her listening to her elaborate explanations of her decision.

"I trust I have made myself sufficiently plain," she said. "Well, I would scarcely go so far," he answered, as his courage gradually returned. "It's only fair to give nature the credit for that," he added.—Calgary Herald.

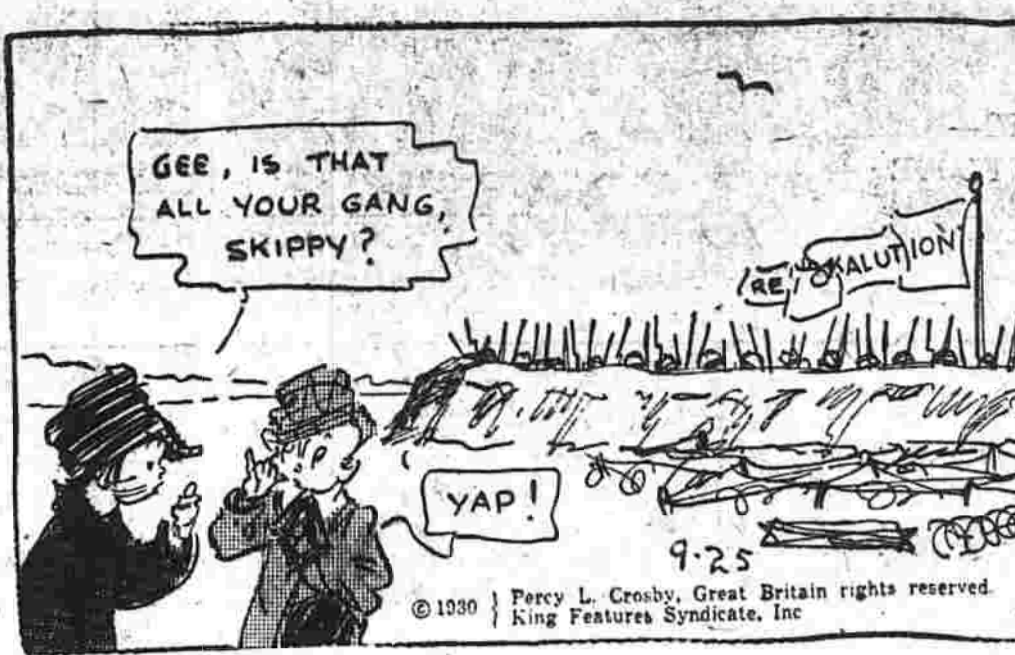

QUITE ENGAGING

BETTY: I've been engaged to one man seven times. BESSIE: Well, I've been engaged to seven men at one time.—Answers.

HAZY MEMORY

SHE: Am I the first girl you ever kissed? HE: No, that you mention it, your face does sort of look familiar.—Pele Mele, Paris.

THE TINYMITES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)
The horses on the tallyho seemed very glad to prance and go along the pretty highways that wound here and there through Berne. The Travel Man explained the sight to all the happy Tinymites. Said Scouty, "Gee, the more we see, the more there is to learn."

A meeting of the joint committees from the North Methodist and Second Congregational churches, will meet at the latter church tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. These committees, under the chairmanship of Fayette B. Clarke were appointed some weeks ago to investigate the subject of federating and to secure speakers. This they have done and the purpose of the meeting tomorrow evening is to recommend to each church the advisability of voting for federation.

George Tedford, for more than twenty-five years a motorman on the local lines of the Connecticut Company, has retired from that activity. When the recent changes in operation went into effect, making almost all the cars one-man affairs, he did not put in a bid for a run as he did not care to move out of town.

A PERMANENT FAIR
 Pinehurst is a sort of permanent exposition. There are as many new things appearing in the food line, nowadays, as in the line of mechanical appliances. Interesting things, health makers, luxury items. Pinehurst keeps the closest possible watch on such developments, finds out about them, tests them—stocks them when they are of proven worth. We take a lot of pride in the fact that Manchester people can always "get it at Pinehurst" even if the good thing is too new or unusual for general adoption.

Every day we have a lot of visitors who drop in just to get the food news, so to speak—to learn what novel and fascinating item has appeared since the last visit. Be among them. We enjoy showing the novelties. Whether you are in a buying mood at the moment or not doesn't in the least matter.
