

AGE VERSUS YOUTH IN ROCKVILLE FIGHT

Younger Element Bring Their Argument Before Democratic State Committee.

Dissension between the older and younger generation resulted in verbal fireworks at the Democratic caucus of the Town of Vernon in Rockville last night and the questionable matters were brought before the State Central Committee today in an effort to prove the illegality of the caucus.

The dissension within the ranks was not caused by disputes over the candidacy of Smith and Roosevelt but was attributed to the younger element's desire for recognition and leadership.

John Doyle pointed out that although 1500 persons in Vernon voted for Al Smith at the last presidential election, the list showed only 172 Democrats in the town.

The younger element also questioned the legality of holding the meeting in the town hall when it was announced for the court room, and asked why the list of voters differed from that to be found at the office of the Selectmen in the town of Vernon.

From this place where George Washington stood on the day of his inauguration let us call upon you governor to lead against this open wrong-doing and to condemn it as it would have been condemned by Grover Cleveland or Theodore Roosevelt.

It is time for public men of all parties, and for the representatives of all churches, both Catholic and Protestant, to unite in the demand that this scandalous situation shall be ended.

DR. DOLAN WINS LOCAL CAUCUS FOR ROOSEVELT

garet Brannick, Frank L. Doyle, Mrs. Annie Gleason, Edward L. Coughlin and Edward J. Murphy. These eleven delegates will attend the state convention to be held in the Bushnell Memorial Hall in Hartford on May 16 and 17.

Smith Group The slate of Smith delegates, which Breen unsuccessfully attempted to have nominated, consisted of Edward F. Moriarty, John F. Limerick, Harold Keating, Arthur E. McGinn, Louis T. Breen, William B. Gorman, John F. Shea, Thomas J. Hassett, Mary C. Dannaher, Mary B. Holmes and Margaret A. LaMotte. Toward the conclusion of the hour and a half session, there were cries of "robbers" and "in the bag" as the Smith forces realized they were beaten. They came from the lips of a few of the most excited Smith supporters.

New Committee The new Democratic town committee of 22 persons suggested by Thomas Sheridan, also favorable to the Dolan campaign, consists of 12 former members and ten new ones, the latter being chiefly members of the recently organized Young Peoples Democratic Club. Three former members of the committee dropped from the list are Louis T. Breen, Thomas Dannaher and William B. Gorman. They were three leaders of the opposition to Dr. Dolan last night.

The new town committee consists of John F. Limerick, Dr. E. G. Dolan, Thomas Sheridan, Joseph L. Doyle, John Spillane, Andrew Healey, Michael O'Connell, James Duffy, James Maguire, Charles Zorba, E. J. Murphy, Miss Mary B. Dielenschneider, Felix Moszer, Raymond Shea, Miss Esther Redding, Richard Brownell, Brunig Moske, Harold Garrity, Ellen Buckley, Mrs. Rena Rylander, Mrs. Sarah Healey and Mrs. Mary Brown. Just before the conclusion, Edward J. Murphy moved that Chairman Dolan be empowered to appoint alternates in case any of those named as convention delegates are unable to serve. This vote was also a tie.

Prior to the start of the caucus, the firehouse was the scene of considerable activity. Automobiles came from all directions bringing voters to take part in the battle that was to follow. Members of the Young Peoples Democratic Club, taking its first active part in politics, were busy rounding up supporters of Dr. Dolan. The meeting was called to order at 8:40 by Chairman John F. Limerick and it was almost an hour later before the ballot check-list voting was completed.

Printed Ballots The tellers appointed by Chairman Limerick were C. S. McHale, Thomas Sheridan, Louis T. Breen and Edward Moriarty. The registered Democrats filed slowly past the table in the front of the hall where their names were checked on the 1961 list and the ballots placed in a paper box held by McHale. Printed ballots were distributed among the Moriarty forces while the Dolan faction was given blank paper.

Argue Over List There was considerable argument just prior to the casting of the ballot when Chairman Limerick ruled that forty voters registered last September were not allowed to vote. Their names were not on the check list of 1961 which was prepared in August. Many of the group were members of the Young Peoples Democratic Club and therefore favorable to Dr. Dolan. The list had been certified by Robert N. Vetch, Republican registrar of voters, but Louis T. Breen, Democratic registrar, refused to sign the list.

New Voters The list of new Democratic voters not allowed to take part in the caucus as prepared by Registrar Vetch included Raymond Shea, president of the Young Peoples Democratic Club. The list follows: Elvera Calve, Rose M. Capello, Julia V. Kosinski, Laura Matushak, Elizabeth G. Miller, Elsie I. Minnicucci, Rosana O'Neil, Mary F. Smacchetti, Natalie Ambrosini, Nicholas Angelo, Joseph R. Baroni, John F. Barry, George O. Bingham, Thomas R. Boland, Joseph E. Carlson, Leon A. Daoust, Raymond F.

Dr. Dolan's Plea Following Dr. Dolan's victory in the contest for chairmanship of the caucus, the state central committee-man who has been active in Manchester and state politics for a score of years addressed the gathering expressing his gratification for the honor. His defeated rival had moved a moment before that the vote be unanimous. This was greeted by a chorus of "ayes" with no dissenting voices.

Wants Solid Front Dr. Dolan congratulated Mr. Moriarty adding, "Differences of opinion are bound to creep into such affairs, but in the end we are all working for the same cause. This contest is the best thing that has happened to the Democratic party in Manchester during my 20 years of contact. Contests are healthy, but don't let bitterness develop. The rivalry must be friendly. Let us unite and go into the battle as a solid phalanx."

Asks Prodigal's Return Dr. Dolan urged the party to unite in its bid to "send us along the road to victory in the forthcoming presidential election" and to carry on the fight in "the rock-ribbed Republican town of Manchester." "Differ if you will, but let it be gentlemanly, kind, fair and honest," he requested his listeners. He urged Democrats who had registered as Republicans to "come back home" and pledged honest, successful democracy. "I urge you, plead with you in the name of not only the town, but the union as well, to unite in one solid phalanx to bring about peace and prosperity under the Democratic banner," he concluded.

Wounds Guard Yesterday Holmes inflicted a slight wound on Claude Ramey, a guard, when Ramey, J. W. Balder, another guard, and Deputy Warden W. P. Gillahan took him his breakfast. The prisoner lunged at Balder with an improvised knife, but Balder stepped aside and Ramey was stabbed in the stomach. The wound was not serious. Authorities later learned the knife had been made from the handle of a water bucket and sharpened in the stone floor of Holmes' cell. Holmes surrendered it when threatened with a tear gas gun.

Twenty thousand shares of one stock, worth nearly $60,000 at present prices, and a number of shares of two other leading stocks, which he claims to have received in the exchange, would bring the present value of his find close to $1,000,000. Campbell claims he was led to the box by guides from the spirit world. "I get impressions," he said. "And I had an impression of this buried box. I went to the old cellar and began to dig. I dug all around the cellar wall before I found it."

MUSTER CEREMONY IMPRESSES CROWD

Spanish War Veterans Hold Annual Roll Call — State Officers Here.

In the presence of Department and National officers of the United Spanish War Veterans, Ward Cheney Camp and Auxiliary renewed their allegiance to the flag at the annual muster and roll call at the armory last night. The inspiring ceremony, celebrated annually on the date of call to service in '98, brought out the largest assembly of members of the Camp in years. The event followed a fine roast beef supper, labeled a "depression meal" which was up to the usual high standard of U. S. W. V. repasts.

Guests of honor at the dinner were Past National Junior Vice-Commander, Frank E. Shea of Burdette Camp, Hartford, and Commander Charles A. Ward of Danbury, Department Commander of the United Spanish War Veterans. The table decorations were yellow, pink and blue streamers and red, white and blue bunting. Members of the Camp and Auxiliary met in the veterans' rooms and guests from local patriotic and ex-service groups were escorted to a place near the Commander's station, led by Commanders Ward and Shea. Adjutant Charles Warren called the roll of members of Ward Cheney Camp and Past Department President Mary A. Johnson of the Spanish War Veterans Auxiliary read the roll of Auxiliary members. Those attending stood at attention as Commander Ward read the obligation, each member repeating the oath after the state officer. Mrs. Johnson, for the Auxiliary, read and accepted the renewed allegiance of Auxiliary members.

Patriotic Program Following the roll call the entire assembly sang "America." A short program was given by members of the Auxiliary. Mrs. Elizabeth Phelan read "The Toast to the Flag," and Carrie Samlow recited

"The Songs of '98." Mrs. Mary Johnson read the famous Spanish War selection, "Remember the Maine." All joined in singing, "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean."

Past National Junior Vice-Commander Frank E. Shea brought the greetings of Burdette Camp, Hartford, and complimented the local Camp for their large attendance and devotion to the flag. He charged the 80 veterans present to perform the duties assigned them in their post work, and to continually uphold the traditions of the order.

Commander Shea said that the time might come when those who served under Shafter, Schley and other Spanish War officers might again be needed to "shoulder a rifle in the streets" to suppress the uprising against recognized government, and urged members to hold themselves in readiness for the call if it should come.

"Be Americans" He said that all veterans should organize a campaign against any attempts to tear down the well-established structure of government, and to show by their devotion to the flag and the principles laid down by those who died for the Union, that aliens must be "Americans" or be deported to other shores. Commander Shea urged members of Ward Cheney Camp and Auxiliary to visit sick comrades in the Newington hospital.

The keynote message from the State Department was brought by Commander Charles A. Ward of Danbury, in which he paid compliment to the fine manner in which the post had conducted the annual roll call and renewal of the oath for service. Commander Ward who has given much of his time in the Departmental work gave an interesting account of his labors and the problems confronting the Department. He urged all members of the Camp to present united front for the passage of the Widows' and Orphans' bill now before Congress. Department Historian Eva Ward of Danbury, paid the post and Auxiliary a high compliment for the manner in which the muster was presented and the fine spirit of patriotism which was thus expressed.

Other Guests Others who brought greetings from their respective organizations were: Commander John L. Jenney, Dilworth-Cornell Post, American Legion; Mrs. Ida A. Woodhouse, Dilworth-Cornell Post, American Legion Auxiliary; Past Commander Archie Kilpatrick; Anderson-Shea Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars; Mrs. Fleanor Freelove, President, Anderson-Shea Post Auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars; William

Ritchie, Mons-Tyres Command, British War Veterans; Miss Beatrice Dart, Patriotic Instructor, Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, and Past Department President Mary A. Johnson of Mary

Bushnell Cheney Auxiliary, U.S. W. V. The annual muster was in charge of Commander Harry Hilton of Ward Cheney Camp, assisted by members of the Camp Auxiliary.

AL SMITH 410, ROOSEVELT 61, AT CAUCUSES

nuses, in their campaign to pledge Connecticut's 16 delegates to the Democratic National convention to him.

Although still far from a majority in the state convention, May 16 and 17 when national convention delegates will be named, in last night's voting Smith pledged delegates outnumbered those pledged to Governor F. D. Roosevelt seven to one.

Complete unofficial returns showed of the 988 delegates to the state convention would be divided as follows: Smith 380; Roosevelt 49; un-instructed 559.

Roosevelt backers, pinning their hopes on the un-instructed delegates, refused to concede defeat.

Cities for Smith

It was pointed out that many of the un-instructed delegates were sent from rural sections, regarded as favorable to Roosevelt, while in the cities where much of the 1928 campaign's strength was centered, pledged delegations have already been named.

MORE MORE

Bridgeport deferred pledging its delegation of 49, one of the largest in the state, until another convention May 13. A strenuous campaign during the next two weeks for this group of convention votes was forecast by leaders of both factions.

Virtually all of the other large cities pledged delegates to Smith. Among them were Hartford and New Haven, each with 61 delegates; Waterbury, Torrington, New Britain, Meriden, Danbury, Norwalk, and Norwich and Stamford, home towns of Homer S. Cummings, former national chairman and a Roosevelt supporter.

Roosevelt received his chief support from rural towns.

In the face of the commanding lead held by Smith, Archibald McNeil, National committeeman and a leader of Roosevelt group, predicted the New York governor would get the support of six of the ten district delegates and all of the delegates at large.

Spelly's Prediction

Thomas J. Spelly, former National Committeeman, and a Smith supporter, claimed 600 of the delegates, however, and said "there is absolutely no question but that Smith has carried the state."

The contest for convention votes was complicated by a race between McNeil and Ex-Mayor David C. Fitzgerald of New Haven, a Smith supporter, for the former's post as National committeeman. Many delegates pledged for Smith were also instructed for McNeil, but Fitzgerald received none of the Roosevelt-pledged delegates.

Governor Wilbur L. Cross has maintained a neutral stand during the weeks of campaigning and recently suggested that Connecticut's delegates be equally divided between Smith and Gov. Roosevelt in the interest of party harmony in the state.

THE BALANCE OF POWER
(By Associated Press)

Uninstructed delegates to the Democratic state convention in Hartford next month hold the balance of power so far as convention business is concerned which requires the entire convention vote.

The Old Guard organization which favors the nomination of former Governor Alfred E. Smith for the presidency is in control of the First and Third Congressional districts on the basis of delegates elected last night in town primaries and city convention. In the other three districts the uninstructed delegates are overwhelmingly in the majority.

Delegates elected by counties:

County	Smith	Roosevelt	Un-instructed
Hartford	117	6	90
New Haven	122	14	44
New London	14	6	67
Windham	9	2	48
Fairfield	62	6	105
Litchfield	64	26	7
Middlesex	—	2	48
Tolland	7	12	29
Totals	395	74	438

Towns not included in above have 61 delegates. Waterbury yet to hold town convention; Middlefield and Cornwall held r primary; Naugatuck primary tonight; Stratford will send contesting delegations.

The convention as a whole will select the delegates-at-large to the National convention at Chicago in June and has the power to bind the entire delegation with its ten district delegates to the unit rule. Each district convention to be held during a recess of the state convention will select a delegate and an alternate and report these names to the convention for ratification. On the basis of returns from the primaries the district delegates from the Second, Fourth and Fifth districts may be either for Smith or for Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt depending upon the way the uninstructed delegates vote in their district convention. The New Guard leaders claim these districts.

In First District

In the First district, on the face of returns, the Smith pledged delegates are 117 as against six for Roosevelt and ninety uninstructed. In this district, Manchester, home of Dr. E. G. Dolan, the foremost leader in the Roosevelt canvass was assigned to the unit instructed column as it was not pledged to Roosevelt.

In other towns in the state the elections were of men and women identified with the New Guard but they were not bound either by pledge or the unit rule.

In the Second Congressional District

The Second Congressional District the Smith delegates are thirty, the Roosevelt two, and uninstructed, 107.

In the Third District

The Smith pledged delegates nearly all bound by the unit rule, are 107, those for Roosevelt two, and uninstructed 36. The Smith strength was augmented by New Haven, Meriden and West Haven which gave a total of 93.

In the Fourth District

(Fairfield county) The Old Guard have Danbury, Norwalk and Stamford. Its pledged strength is 62, with six votes for Roosevelt and 105 unpledged. Bridgeport with 49 and Greenwich with 13, have almost half of the last mentioned figures. Archibald McNeil, Jr., national committeeman claims the district.

In Fifth District

The fifth district was won by the Old Guard, even without Waterbury which is yet to hold its city convention and elect 36 delegates. This city is a Smith stronghold. Litchfield county as reported gave Smith 64, Roosevelt 26, and uninstructed seven. New Haven county, 15 for Smith, 10 for Roosevelt and 8 uninstructed.

On the face of returns as they stood irrespective of claims on either side the Old Guard control three of the five Congressional districts.

Today, the leaders on both sides were sifting the figures to determine just how many of the uninstructed delegates will go to Smith or to Roosevelt. "The complication is that many Smith delegates have been elected to aid McNeil in his effort to be re-elected National committeeman although such delegates themselves do not vote on the issue. There are delegations bound for Smith and McNeil, and to less extent for Smith and for David E. Fitzgerald, who is McNeil's rival."

New Guard Parley

The New Guard—Roosevelt force leaders will meet in Hartford this afternoon to formulate plans for its participation in the State convention. The call for the meeting was sent out last week and the county and town leaders known to be sympathetic with the Roosevelt meeting were asked to attend. Among those on the list were Angelo Paonessa, New Britain; Frederick M. McCarthy, Ansonia; Senator Allen Barton, Greenwich; Dr. Robert Wolfe, Norwalk; Leroy D. Downs, Norwalk; Henry M. Ayers, Westport; Hanford Weed, New Canaan; William C. Fox, New London; Herman Koppelman, Hartford; Major Harold Pinney, Stafford; John Walsh, Stamford; C. C. Middlebrooks, Winsted; David Goldstein, Bridgeport; Prof. Charles Harrington, Kent; William Citron, and Mayor Biondi, Middletown.

The primaries last night were quiet as a rule. In the small towns the attendance was small. In the larger towns and such cities as had gatherings the interest was keen.

In Wallingford in a contest between two groups, Representative Edward C. Cox was left off and he announced an intention of contesting the seating of the delegation.

In Middletown the Smith group led by Leonard O. Ryan was defeated by Mayor Biondi's ticket.

McNeil Has Advantage

On the National committeeman issue, the advantage seemed to be with McNeil because of the number of delegates pledged to aid him even though the delegates themselves are for Smith.

Stratford has a fractional fight on its hands and two delegations will go to the convention asking to be seated. The outcome in Torrington which Smith man carried two to one may come to the attention of the State convention.

From the primary returns as they stand much depends apparently on control of the convention, and by it will be named the credentials committee which will pass upon such contests as are carried to it from the towns.

ECONOMIST, HERO OF WAR, ASSAILS SOLDIER BONUS

represent the interests of the veterans."

O'Neill talked from notes and clipped his words in a military fashion.

"I disagree with those who say cash payment would ruin the country financially," he said. "I disagree also with those who say it will cure all our troubles."

O'Neill won the Congressional Medal of Honor for bravery in France when he was 20 years old, but he opened his argument with the statement:

"There are no living heroes."

He paid tribute to Representative Patman (D., Tex.), and Rankin (D. Miss.), leading bonus advocates, for their sincerity in forwarding veterans legislation.

"This committee could give serious consideration to the relief of veterans in dire need," O'Neill said. "Of the total holding certificates today, two-thirds don't really need the cash payment."

"The real veteran wants a job with a living wage, not a cash bonus."

A Fool's Paradise

"If the bonus is paid now the veterans will be living practically in a fool's paradise for a couple of months; then he will realize he has spent his family's only safeguard."

O'Neill assailed veteran leaders for using the cash bonus as "a political football."

"They were known in the service as gold-brickers," he said. "Some veteran leaders have succeeded so well in selling this cash bonus idea that the real needy veteran thinks he gets his money. Some legislation should be enacted if possible for the needy veteran."

O'Neill charged the Workers Executive Men's League, one of the groups urging cash payment, was a "Communist organization," "taking advantage of this situation to spread their doctrine."

Fisher's Testimony

Professor Irving Fisher, Yale University economist, next took the stand.

"I am opposed to the Patman bill and all its subtleties with all that Secretary Mills and Governor Meyer have said," Fisher said. "I see two chief objections to the Patman bill."

"First that it would pay what is not due, and secondly, that it might further impair confidence by impairing confidence by deflationary not inflationary. We are now suffering from deflation."

"What we need is reflation, that is inflation justified because counteracting recent great and rapid deflation; and this can best be secured by what Secretary Mills advocates and calls 'controlled credit expansion,' that is an increase not of pocket currency but bank deposits subject to check."

"What we need is reflation, that posts back by restoring confidence in banks and confidence of banks. This can be done by controlled credit expansion, such as Federal Reserve banks are now bringing about."

Fisher, a leading advocate of price stabilization legislation, predicted a proper expansion of credit will "turn the tide."

"We are suffering from two economic diseases," he said. "A debt disease and a dollar disease."

"In 1929 our debts reached $200,000,000,000. Today, they are even greater because of the enlargement of the dollar. That is the dollar disease."

"The very effort of the public to reduce debts has increased them. Though the debt in the number of dollars has been brought down to $180,000,000,000, because of the enlargement of the dollar it really has increased 30 per cent."

"Today, Uncle Sam owes more on his bonds than he did in 1919 when we were supposed to have reached a maximum of twenty-five billions." Fisher said the effort to pay off debts had wiped fifteen billions in bank deposits.

HOSPITAL DRIVE PLANS PERFECTED
Executive Committee Meets; Expect 200 Workers To Canvass For Fund.

Begins May 9

The drive will open Monday, May 9, and will continue until Monday, May 16. An organization of nearly 200 volunteer workers will canvass a prospect list of 3,000 names. It was decided that the usual letter sent to past subscribers, announcing the campaign, be omitted this year for economy purposes, and it was also decided that the drive will not be a house to house canvass, but that personal calls will be made by the workers on all former subscribers and those considered in a position to give even as low as one dollar.

The drive organization will consist of seven divisions, besides a suburban division that will be created for the purpose of canvassing outlying towns that are actually served by the hospital. Each division will be headed by a major and will consist of five teams of five workers each, each team headed by a captain.

Twenty Calls

According to tentative plans, each worker will make twenty calls. The individual worker will also be given the opportunity of selecting his or her own prospect list as this plan has been found to eliminate duplication. It is planned to hold an opening dinner, to be served by church societies.

Mr. Rand this morning expressed his confidence that the quota of $20,000 will be raised, pointing out that the amount is one-third less than was asked for last year, when the quota was $30,000, and nearly half of 1930, when the quota was hands resting on the railing, Governor Roosevelt testified that he had conferred frequently with Broderick from the autumn of 1929 until Dec. 11, 1930, when the bank closed, and made it plain that he considered that he shared the responsibility of supervision of banks in the state.

The governor's view of his responsibility was stated in answer to a question as to whether he knew about the efforts to merge the bank with a stronger institution.

Many Weak Banks

"As I recall," the governor replied, "there were about 200 banking institutions in the state of New York at that time under the jurisdiction of myself and the superintendent of banks which were in a somewhat weakened condition, due to the stock crash."

The governor testified he had frequent conversations with Broderick regarding the condition of the Bank of United States, as well as other banks.

Governor Roosevelt arrived at 10:30 o'clock and was escorted to the court room and to the witness chair by a state trooper. He shook hands with Judge Donnellan. The court room was crowded.

Robert Adamson, former vice-president and director of the Bank of United States, was on the stand when the governor arrived and he was excused temporarily.

Hears of Broderick

Governor Roosevelt testified that while he was connected with the Federal government during the Wilson administration he had heard much about the work of Broderick, who was then chief examiner of the Federal Reserve system and who later became secretary of the Federal Reserve Board.

As the governor continued to testify that although he was not acquainted with Broderick at the time, he was "very intimately" acquainted with persons who knew of Broderick's work, Max D. Steuer, special prosecutor, interrupted with a series of objections based upon rules of procedure.

AS GUESSER, TRESCHUK HITS THEM ON THE LID

Picks Exact Number of Eyelets In Contest At Arthur L. Hultman's Store.

When it comes to guessing or accurate counting, credit must be given eight years old John Treschuk of 91 Autumn street. Some time ago the Arthur L. Hultman clothing store started a kids eyelet guessing contest. A knotted chain of the eyelets was placed in the display window and people asked to either guess or count them.

Exactly 350 persons, most of them children, but many adults as well, tried their luck. The contest has closed. The correct number of eyelets was 161. Treschuk's estimate was also 161. So he will receive first prize of a sweater. Six others came within one link of the correct total and they will gather at the store at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning to draw for second prize, a pair of Keds. The remaining five will be given their choice of a sweatshirt or pair of Keds.

The second place contestants are Henry Gryk, 14, of 76 Wells street; Albert Kurilowicz, 13, of 34 West Center street; Angelo Massolin, 16, of Bolton; Anthony Kaminski, 16, of 251 Lydall street; Louis Naretto, 10, of 23 Eldridge street and Thomas Elliott, 10, of 132 Bissell street. The first four guessed 160 and the last two 162. An idea of the difficulty of trying to count or estimate the eyelets may be gleaned from the fact that the guesses ranged all the way from 45 to 3,618.

GIFTS FOR POPE
Vatican City, April 29—(AP)—Mrs. John L. Stoddard, of Barnesville, O., widow of the American lecturer who died at Merano last June, today gave Pope Pius some jewels, an inkwell and a seal which once were the property of Napoleon. They were left her by her husband.

WILL ALL REFERENCE TO THE WITNESS IN HIS POSITION? Steuer said, "I submit that the same rule should apply to him as to any other witness."

"It does," said Judge Donnellan.

The governor went on to testify as to his appointment of Broderick to succeed Frank H. Warner. No mention was made of the circumstances surrounding the resignation of Warner, who was sentenced to Sing Sing prison for taking a bribe in connection with the City Trust Company case.

PATROLMAN TAKES
1,000 TO 1 CHANCE
Has Leg Cut Off At Hip
So He Can Go Back To Work.

New York, April 29—(AP)—Patrolman Jack Kennedy of the Nassau county police took a thousand to one chance in a gamble with death today, and won.

For four years Kennedy has been paralyzed from the waist down, the result of a bullet in the spine received when he entered a thicket at Woodmere, Long Island, to learn why an automobile was parked there without lights.

Recently he was informed the full pay he had been receiving would have to be reduced. He didn't think that he, his wife and their child could live on the smaller income.

"I've got to get well and go back to work," he told the doctors. "What is my chance in an operation?"

"A thousand to one against you," they said.

"I take the chance," he decided. "If I don't come through, my wife and child can live on the smaller pay."

So they operated today, taking the right leg off at the hip.

"He Will Live"

"Sheer will power carried him through," Dr. Henry Milch said after he had performed the operation. "He is one of the bravest men I ever met—a good soldier. He will live."

Kennedy was on the operating table at 7:00 a. m., Eastern Standard time, a weight of a man shrunk by illness from 240 pounds to 130.

"I have faith in you, Doctor," he said to Dr. Milch. "I feel as though I'll make it."

He came off the operating table at 6:00 and a little later regained consciousness in his bed, the doctor standing at his head.

"Doc, you're a good scout," he whispered, and his smile was a shadowy likeness of the grin his fellow officers used to know four years ago when he was known to the county force as "Handsome Jack."

Queer Twists
In Day's News

Chicago—Felix Robanski wandered into a fire station and drove away with the biggest engine, siren screaming. Later police found him asleep in the driver's seat before the charred remains of his vegetable store.

"Too late," they heard him mutter. "That fire was five months ago. I remember 'cause I started it." They accuse him of arson—and drunkenness.

Albany, N. Y.—Turning thumbs down on her relatives' plea that she marry a widower, Barbara Buds, 20, ran away from her Montreal home to join her true love in New York. Jailed here for not having a passport, she spied her sweetheart, Edward Scarra, in a cell nearby. Returning from a visit to Montreal, he had been judged for fighting a policeman. So they were married in jail.

Seattle—Japanese residents demand that 20 speakies near their homes be closed. "Our children cannot sleep because of drunken noises," they said. "So they go to sleep in school. How can they make good?"

Philadelphia—It would have been cheaper to let the 25-cent piece stay under the bed. When it rolled out of sight, Alphonse Wienskowsk hit a match to look for it. The apartment was burned and four people injured.

Morris, Conn.—Housewives who have to serve three separate meals at mid-day with folks would let the clocks alone. Factories have adopted daylight saving time, stores have not, and schools have compromised. They begin and close on the half hour.

Warsaw, Poland—Four thieves flabbergasted police here. They had themselves nailed up neatly in packing boxes and shipped to a warehouse. When night came they looted the warehouse and fled.

Bombay, India—Coat racing is the newest sport here. Promoters hope it will be as popular as greyhound racing. An advertisement for the "All India Goat Race Championship" says the "leading champion of western India will positively compete."

CONFESSES KILLING FATHER

Brownwood, Tex., April 29—(AP)—Eva Nell Meichinger, 17, confessed today she shot and killed her father, Joe Meichinger, 48, at the family home near here last night.

The girl said her father had refused her permission to attend a program at a school and her mother sided with her. There was an argument. When Meichinger began abusing his wife, the daughter said she shot him. The widow and daughter are in jail charged with murder.

HAD NO LICENSE

North Wilbraham, Mass., April 29—(AP)—State police investigated an accident in which a large truck left the highway, knocked over a telephone pole and landed on a lawn today found that the driver, Clarence E. Kelley, of Worcester, not only lacked a driving license, but on his own statement had been without one for nine years. The truck is owned by the Eyrolly Transportation Company. Kelley was arrested.

THREE KILLED IN CRASH

Uniontown, Pa., April 29—(AP)—Three men were killed when their automobile was struck by an interurban car at Cardale, near here, today.

The dead are William Grant, 30; Michael Brochen, 42 and his son, John, 19. They were milk dealers.

Fifteen passengers of the interurban were transferred to other cars. The wreck tied up traffic on the line for more than an hour.

A New York peanut magnate said the elephant was his favorite animal. Just for spite, monkeys ought to go on a peanut strike.

LONERGAN ADVOCATES FEDERAL SALARY CUTS

Washington, April 29—(AP)—Congressman Augustine Lonergan of the First District today said he would vote to reduce governmental salaries in excess of $2,500. This would include everybody in the employ of the United States government including members of Congress and United States Senators. The proposal of the economy committee is for a cut of 11 per cent in salaries which are in excess of $1,000.

Congressman Lonergan said he was opposed to reduction in salaries in the lower brackets because he believed this plan would be economically un sound. In explanation of his attitude, he said the country is in need of more people with purchasing power that business may be stimulated. He pointed out that Federal employes prepare themselves for life work and during the period of the war when others received materially increased wages, their increase was slight and at a time and during a later period when the cost of necessities of life was unusually high.

The Congressman said he was working with others to have economies introduced by the government which will do away with useless bureaus and commissions and the overlapping in various departments.

AUTHOR HONORED

The award was given for "Waterless Mountain," her book dealing with the life of a Navajo Indian boy.

UNCLE SAM'S AIDS TO FLOWER GARDENERS

IF WATERED RIGHT, ONE GOOD SOAKING OF THE GARDEN SHOULD LAST A WEEK

This is the tenth of a series of articles on flower gardening written especially for NEA Service and The Herald.

BY DR. WM. A. TAYLOR Chief, Bureau of Plant Industry, U. S. Department of Agriculture

In many flower gardens a good share of the water applied is wasted. If the soil is well prepared, flowering plants, with only a few exceptions, do not require daily soakings. A flower bed should have enough of the qualities of a sponge so when it is well soaked it will retain moisture for from two or three days to a week, or more. Even if the soil is not properly conditioned and bakes and cakes after each watering, a daily sprinkling is not the best management. In this case it is better to concentrate the day's sprinkling on a single bed or part of a bed and wet it thoroughly.

For most garden watering it is more effective to arrange things so it is possible to let the hose run a stream and devote the time to the cultivation of the surface and the creation of a soil mulch that will check evaporation and let air into the soil.

Rain Not Always Ample Gentle rain falling from the heavens is not always the ideal moisture supply. The flower gardener, as well as the farmer, has reason to speak approvingly of a "good, soaking rain." The gardener isn't, as a rule, trying to grow nature in growing flowers. He is trying to improve conditions and get finer blooms and more of them than would naturally grow in his grounds. He can turn with profit to the methods developed by farmers in irrigated districts who have demonstrated that in the driest regions intelligent control of the moisture supply will produce crops superior to those in the regions most favored in rainfall.

Intelligent control of moisture does not necessarily mean construction of ditches and dams, and the flooding of plots, though modifications of these methods may prove helpful in some instances. In a thoroughly prepared garden plot in which the subsoil is full of absorptive humus, it may not be necessary to apply much water except in a few spots where it will soak in and permeate all the soil.

In such a bed it may prove feasible to sub-irrigate by the simple means of inserting a drain tile vertically to reach from the surface of the bed to subsoil. Then, if the bed has been cultivated recently and has a satisfactory dust mulch and few weeds, the watering of the garden may consist only in permitting a small stream of water to run into the tile until rapid absorption ceases. A soaking in this style may suffice for a week, and it will not even disturb the dust mulch.

Roots Go Deep for Moisture When the principal supply of moisture is well below the surface, plants tend to send their roots deep. Then they are well anchored and have better connection with a more liberal food supply. With the exception of a few plants that do better in scanty soil and do not require much moisture, this system of watering by soaking is more satisfactory than sprinkling, and also saves time, energy, and water.

Conserving the water supply also helps. Breaking the crust and evaporation, mulching with granulated peat, or with clippings from the lawn, helps to conserve moisture and to prevent the formation of a crust, which also helps to keep the ground cooler on hot days.

If the ground has not been thoroughly prepared it is even more essential that watering should be in the form of thorough soakings as often as required and not daily sprinklings on crusted earth that reach only the upper inch or two of soil.

EVERY WOMAN

Contentment is a priceless gift. But discontent is helpful too. I want the first for what I have. The second, though, for what I do.

On Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, you may have three services done at the Mary Elizabeth Beauty Shop (Rubinow Building) for $1.00.

It is false economy to keep cracked dishes in use, even for left-over foods. Cracks in dishes collect germs which may be drawn out by hot foods put into the dish. It is safer to discard the cracked dish at once.

Hale's have just received a new shipment of Perstik, a new type of deodorant applied like a lipstick, guaranteed not to soil clothing and tested and approved by the Good Housekeeping Institute. It sells for 50c.

Always buy ground cinnamon in small quantities and keep in tightly closed jars as it loses its flavor very quickly.

I saw a very wide variety of mercerized and rayon anklets at Marlow's this morning. They have them in all colors and color combinations and sizes from 10c to 25c a pair. There is also a large and attractive selection of children's short socks in all shades.

Always keep salads in the refrigerator until just before serving. Its fresh and attractive appearance makes a salad delicious. Be sure that you do not serve any which are the least bit wilted.

You haven't forgotten it's almost May Basket time have you? Hales have a colorful assortment of May Baskets ranging in price from 10c to 50c. They will fill them for you at a small additional cost if you wish.

For a different sandwich filling, why not try watercress, which is so plentiful and refreshing at this time, mixed with a little crisp chopped bacon and just enough mayonnaise to hold the mixture together. Of course toast the bread.

The color is a guarantee of the supremacy of "blue coal" over all others. Not only is it better, but more economical. Place your order with W. G. Glenney, 4149.

NEW PLANE ROUTE

Montreal, April 29.—(AP)—Prediction that Boston and Montreal will be linked by air during the coming summer was made here last night by Major-General Sir John F. O'Ryan, vice president of American Airways, Inc., and president of Colonial Airways, Inc.

Sir John also said he thought a second service would be established with New York in the near future. At present Canadian Colonial Airways, Limited, operates a daily service between Montreal and Albany, with the same planes continuing to Newark Airport with passengers and mails, the latter part of the journey being under control of Colonial Airways.

The link with Boston would be made, Sir John said, by means of a new service from Albany to Boston which would be inaugurated when the American company was assured that sufficient traffic could be developed to justify its existence.

released in $1,000 bond on charge of evading responsibility for an injury to a person.

Quirk was found seated in a light delivery truck near his home early the morning of April 10, and died in a hospital four days later. An autopsy revealed he had died from a ruptured liver, received, authorities believed, from a blow.

Those questioned, in addition to Heckler and Anderson, were Mrs. Josephine Gabarino, proprietress of the inn where Heckler is employed; Irene Heald of Milford, and Harold Tranchard and Lyman Gilbert of Norwalk. They were released today.

The Norwalk men said their car struck Quirk, where he was lying unconscious on the ground, as they left the inn. Coroner Corrigan refused to comment on the results of his questioning.

SEEK LABOR ACCORD

New Haven, April 29.—(AP)—Harry A. Arthur, who recently acquired a string of New England theaters from the Fox Theaters Corporation, and New England Stage Hand Union officials conferred here today relative to proposed reduction in employment in the Arthur properties.

At noon Bernard Hine, speaking for Mr. Arthur, said that although negotiations were not ended he was confident an amicable settlement would be reached.

The conference was called after Arthur announced elimination of "excessive man-power backstage" and asked the consent of the Union to the dropping of stage hands in connection with the discontinuance of stage shows.

TWO STATES VOTE DRY, 46 WET, IN FINAL POLL OF THE LITERARY DIGEST

Thirty-Three States Return Over 3 To 1 Final Majority For Repeal; Comparison With 1930 Poll Vote Shows a Shift Toward Wetter Sentiment.

Seventy-three voters out of every hundred favor a repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment as evidenced by the final figures in The Literary Digest's nation-wide Prohibition Poll, which will be published in the magazine tomorrow.

A total of 4,688,537 ballots were returned and counted in this "straw" referendum. The division of the final figures shows 1,236,680, or 26.49 per cent, voting for continuance of the Prohibition Amendment and 3,451,857, or 73.51 per cent, favoring repeal.

Kansas and North Carolina are the only two States giving a clear majority for Prohibition, Kansas voting dry by a majority of 397 votes out of a total of 84,121 ballots received and North Carolina voting dry by a majority of 68 votes out of a total of 64,790 ballots returned.

The wettest section of the United States as evidenced by the returns in this Poll is the group of States from the Mississippi River east to the Atlantic Ocean and approximately north of the Mason-Dixon Line, with the dampest concentration in the seaboard States of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, and Rhode Island.

The driest section of the country includes the belt of States extending from Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas to the Atlantic with the exception of Missouri, Louisiana, and Florida, which three States register higher wet majorities.

The balance of the Middle Western States show a sentiment wetter than the Southern group but considerably drier than the Northeastern section of the country.

The Rocky Mountain States show a collective vote slightly less wet than the country at large while the Pacific Coast States give a majority for repeal higher than the national ratio.

Thirty-three States and the District of Columbia return wet majorities in the final tabulation ranging from 2 to 1 to over 7 to 1 for repeal.

Six States, giving a return of between 40 to 50 per cent of their total votes for the continuance of Prohibition, include Tennessee, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Alabama, Mississippi, and South Carolina, ranked in the order of their greater dry sentiment.

Nine States, finally voting more than 4 to 1 wet, are Connecticut, Illinois, Louisiana, Montana, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, Rhode Island and Wisconsin.

The nine States voting over 3 to 1 wet in the final returns include California, Maryland, Massachusetts,

OPPOSES CHURCH COURT

Hartford, Conn., April 29.—(AP)—Establishment of a final court of appeals in the Episcopal church was opposed today by the Rev. George C. Foley of Philadelphia Divinity School, speaking at the denomination's National Congress.

"The functions of the court would be to decide questions of faith and doctrine," Dr. Foley said.

"An Appellate Court could do only one of two things. It could reassess the language of the faith, which would add nothing to the judgment of the lower court or its value.

"But it would do something much more ominous; it would attempt to give an interpretation of that language. It would try to determine what opinions are legitimate within the church."

The morning session was devoted to a debate on the court of appeals questions. The Congress closes this afternoon with an address by Bishop Samuel B. Doob of Vermont on "Is religion necessary for a high morality?"

DEATHS LAST NIGHT

Whitewater, Wis.—Capt. J. J. Downey, 84, known as the "Drummer Boy of Shiloh" to his friends. He enlisted in the Civil War at the age of 14 and first served as a drummer boy.

Indianapolis—Frederick E. Taylor, 65, prominent Baptist leader.

After all, bandits are crude fellows. Otherwise they would settle down in some rich community and elect one of their number to county office.

A THOUGHT

A man after his own heart—Samuel 13:14.

Men are sometimes accused of pride, merely because their accusers would be proud themselves were they in their places.—Shenstone.

The man who says the right thing at the right time is rare. But not half so rare as the man who says nothing at the right time.

week-end bill at the State today and Saturday.

"The Crowd Roars" beggars description. Such track scenes have never before been depicted. There have never been so many thrills packed into a picture. Men, women and children will sit on the edges of their seats as the thrilling action unfolds on the screen, notwithstanding all of the action that is packed in this remarkable film, there is a tender romance that seems all the more sweeter by contrast with the tremendous pace of the racing portion of the picture. James Cagney has never done anything better during his screen career. Joan Blondell runs him a close second, and at times nearly succeeds in stealing the picture. Ann Dvorak, Eric Linden, Frank McHugh and Guy Kibbe have important parts in the strong supporting cast.

"She Wanted a Millionaire" presents Joan Bennett as the winner of the Atlantic City Beauty contest and Queen of the Quat'z Arts Ball, in Paris, with Spencer Tracy as the deserving hometown sweetheart who finally convinces her that luxury does not spell happiness. Una Merkel, James Kirkwood and Dorothy Peterson are in the supporting cast.

Due to the closing of the Circle Theater for the summer months, the serial, "The Lightning Warrior," featuring the famous screen dog, Rin Tin Tin, will be concluded at the State, but will be shown on Saturday only. This will give those who saw the first six episodes at the Circle an opportunity of seeing the complete serial.

Howard Hughes, who created such masterful screen productions as "Hell's Angels," "The Front Page," and others of like caliber, will present his latest screen masterpiece "Scarface," at the State Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

SENSE AND NONSENSE

He doeth well Who doeth good To those of his Own brotherhood.

He doeth better Who doeth blessing The stranger In his wretchedness.

Yet best, oh best Of all doth he Who helps A fallen enemy.

Young Wife—Oh, I feel so miserable. My husband has been out all evening and I haven't the faintest idea where he is.

Old Wife—My dear, don't worry. You'd probably be twice as miserable if you did know.

Housewife—Mary, don't let me catch you kissing the grocer's boy again.

Maid—Lord, ma'am, I don't mean to, but you bob around so.

Interested Mother—What's your son's income?

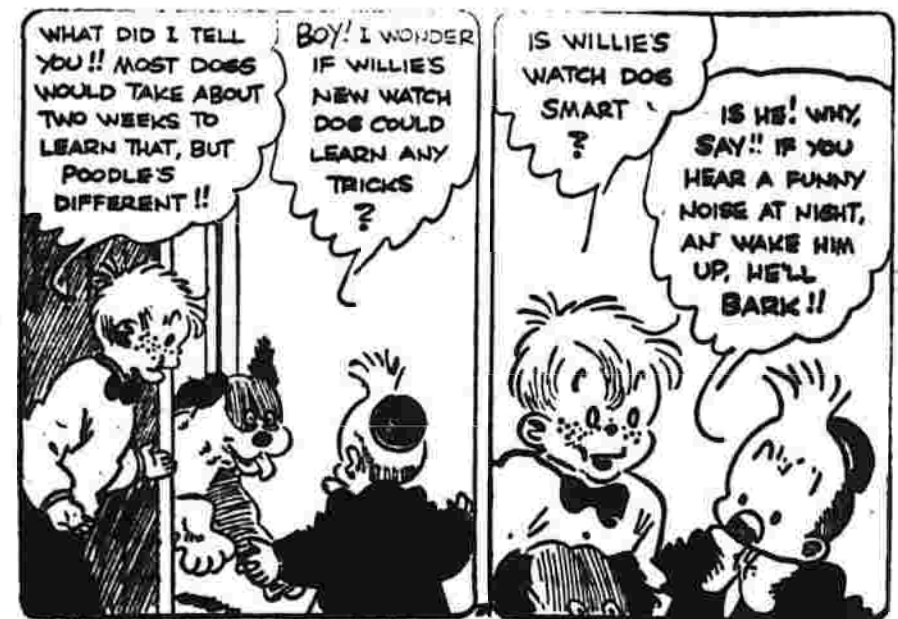

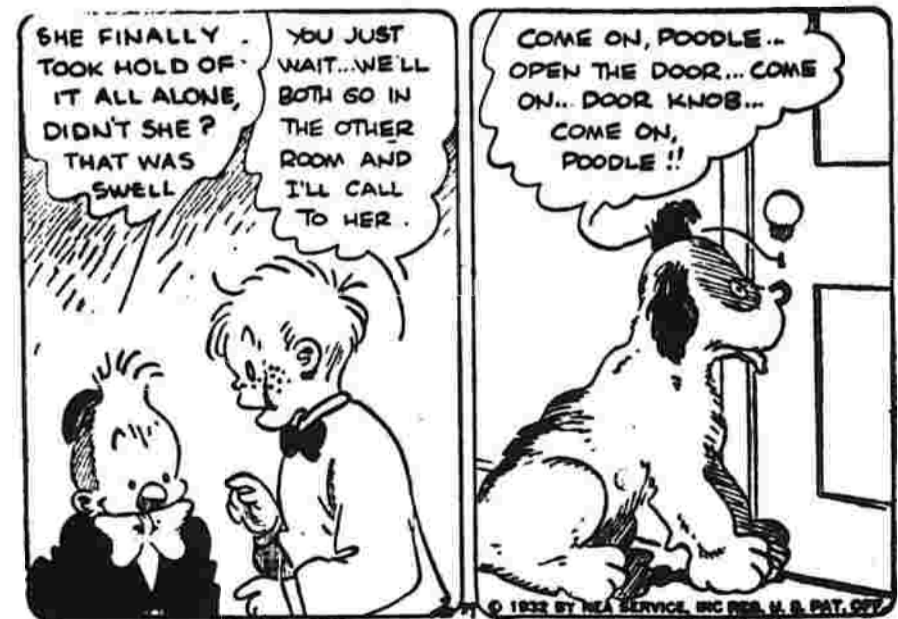

The Neighbor's Wife—Oh, usually some time after midnight.

Haah!

In most instances the most we get out of butting into the affairs of others is a sore head... What we need is more confidence and fewer confidence men... Some business men dispose of a disagreeable matter by stuffing the papers in the drawer of a desk... If you haven't noticed it yet, you will later, that the harder the times the bigger the taxes... One reason it peevish to consult Webster about spelling, a word is we always feel it our duty to let him have his way... The real test of patriotism is to be a Democrat and pray for the return of good times before November... Asked when prosperity would return a man replied: "Oh, about six months before anybody finds it out..." The faith you have lost in your fellow man may be due to the number of notes you have signed... What good is all money on a cold night?... Speaking of unemployment, the average man has 12,000,000,000 brain cells... Every man succeeds in finding a satisfactory reason for his follies... Being in the pink is dangerous, if we can believe the toothpaste advertisements... Mother read up everything she can find on "Child Health" so the sons can grow up and ruin it... It is now admitted that war doesn't pay. But, gosh, how it does collect... In the old days women and girls may have worn cotton stockings but who could tell. It is different nowadays... Alimony is a shorter name for matrimonial reparations... "Cheer up," said a man. "This depression may remain with us quite awhile—and then get worse"... Give me a man with a glint of enthusiasm in his eyes—he can do things... Change never ceases. We simply can't get things nailed down so they'll remain fixed... So many people seem to talk so much they have no energy left for working.

She said: "I want some powder." "What kind?" asked Salesman Huff. "The kind that goes off with a bang, Or goes on with a puff?"

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS By Blosser

She—Where will you be stopping when you get to Paris? He—Lady, when I get to Paris, I'll stop at nothing.

Our Secret Longings: We often wish that we could find something that tasted as good as the 10-cent-a-pound candy we used to get off the Sunday School Christmas tree.

Mistress—Did you water the ferns in the drawing room, Norah? Norah, the Maid—Yes, mum. Don't you hear the water drippin' on the carpet?

One way to hasten the return of prosperity would be for everyone who can to pay bills promptly.

Fond Mother (to father as she pinched the baby's cheek)—Isn't she the prettiest thing you ever saw?

The Father—All young babies are like that brat—like monkeys.

Neighbor (just coming in)—Mercy on me! I never saw a baby more like its father than this child is.

Timid Householder (resourcefully, after discovering two burglars at work)—Don't mind me, I'm only w-w-walking in m-m-my s-s-sleep.
