CUNARD CO. DOCKS MENACED BY FIRE

Twenty Firemen Overcome; Five Alarms Turned In; Pall of Smoke Covers New York City.

New York, May 6.—(AP)—Fire raged for hours through the $2,000,000 Cunard Pier in the Hudson river at 13th street today and this afternoon, with the pier threatening to collapse at any moment, the flames were still out of control and steadily spreading to other waterfront property.

The fire started early in the morning in rubbish under Pier 54, a steel and concrete structure extending 1,000 feet into the Hudson.

By noon the flames were creeping steadily along the creosote soaked piling on which the river piers rest toward the sister pier at 12th street and had advanced through a wall of water to ignite the two story office building on West street connecting the piers at 12th and 14th streets with the 13th street structure.

Five Alarms
Five alarms had been turned in and besides dozens of pieces of land apparatus five fireboats were pouring thousands of gallons of water on the flames from the river.

A 20th fireman was brought out unconscious a few minutes later from the dense cloud of smoke that billowed around the piers. He was taken in an ambulance to a hospital.

Black smoke billowed across the lower city and out over the Hudson, making accurate use of fire fighting facilities impossible.

Traffic Shut Off
Traffic was shut off in a large zone surrounding the fire, paralyzing the usual activity in the great vegetable and meat market district in the Washington street section.

For a time all traffic was halted on the new elevated express motor car line in the direction later permitted resumption.

The oily smoke cloaked the district of the fire in darkness relieved only by the light from the burning piles, flame in many instances reaching 50 feet in air.

The fireboats concentrated their efforts on raising a wall of water between the burning pier and the office building at its landward end, but the flames leaped directly through the deluge and set fire to the connecting structure.

Shortly after noon the smoke became so dense the fire department's searchlight apparatus, generally used for fighting fires at night, was called into play.

Despondent Hartford Man Attempts To Murder Wife and Sister-in-Law.

Hartford, May 6.—(AP)—Charles O'Dell, 65, despondent over unemployment for the past two years, this morning shot and seriously wounded his wife, 25 years old, and his sister-in-law and then killed himself with a .25 caliber automatic in his second floor flat at 123 Glendale avenue.

The wounded, in a serious condition at St. Francis hospital are Mrs. Gladys O'Dell, whose maiden name was O'Dell and who is the niece of the outside, and Mrs. Dorothy O'Dell Fox, 20, sister-in-law of O'Dell.

SCHOOLSUPT. HOWES MAY SEEK PENSION

Has Been Notified Present Education Board Cannot Renew His Contract.

Alfred F. Howes superintendent of the Outlying school districts of Manchester for 18 years has been notified by the Town Board of Education that it cannot renew his contract after July 15, the close of the school fiscal year. A rumor persisted today that Mr. Howes had resigned and would seek a teacher's pension. Mr. Howes denied this, but said that he had received the notice of the Board of Education's action.

Alfred F. Howes

Cannot Bind Town
Edward J. Murphy, chairman of the education board, said that the letter had been sent to Mr. Howes several days ago. The reason for the notice is that under the consolidation act recently approved by the voters of the town the Board of Education has no authority to bind the town after next fall when a new Board of Education will be elected.

Previously Mr. Howes was under a three year contract to the town but since the voters have been considering consolidating the school districts the past few years the education board decided to make only one year contracts so that the town would not be bound if consolidation were adopted.

COMPROMISE BILL ON TAX ADOPTED

Senate Warned By Sec. Mills That the Budget Must Be Balanced Soon.

Washington, May 6.—(AP)—The Senate finance committee today adopted a compromise tax bill. Confronted with a warning from Secretary Mills that it had dealt a disastrous blow to public confidence and with word that the President was about to issue a statement calling the attention of the country to his views for a prompt balancing of the budget, the committee accepted a compromise program presented by the administration.

Normal rates of 4 per cent on the first $4,000 income and 8 per cent on income over $4,000 were retained.

New York Police and Boy Scouts Form Alliance

Boys who are scared of the corner cop will be no more, if plans of Police Commissioner Edward P. Mulrooney of New York materialize. The Commissioner is seen here (at right) as he conferred with Boy Scouts from all five boroughs of the metropolis in an effort to form a police-Boy Scout committee for the cementing of relationships between the two organizations. As the camera clicked, Commissioner Mulrooney conferred upon Victor Hollander the highest ranking in Boy Scoutdom—that of Eagle Scout.

MEANS IS IMPLICATED IN LINDY BABY SWINDLE

Former Secret Service Man Gets $100,000 From Society Woman On Promise To Return the Child.

Washington, May 6.—(AP)—A Federal Grand Jury today heard evidence on charges that Gaston B. Means received $100,000 on false representations that he could return the kidnaped Lindbergh baby and will announce next Tuesday whether an indictment will be returned.

Within an hour, the Grand Jury heard the weird story of allegations that Means received the money from Mrs. Edward B. McLean, estranged wife of the publisher of the Washington Post, but failed to produce the baby kidnaped March 1. The witnesses were Mrs. McLean, one of her attorneys, Nelson T. Hartson, and her butler, Gustave.

NURSE MURDERED; MANIAC BLAMED

Body Found On Lawn In Exclusive Section of City, Had Been Strangled.

Toledo, Ohio, May 6.—(AP)—Strangled to death and criminally assaulted by an unidentified man, the body of Miss Winifred Rafferty, 22, dietician at the Robinwood hospital, was found early today in an exclusive Toledo residential section.

Police blamed a maniac for the attack. They said the young woman was killed only after a terrific struggle. Almost all of her clothing was torn from her body, the buttons were off her coat, and her shoes had been hurled several feet away.

The body was found by Richard Carr, son of W. C. Carr, prominent Toledo banker on the front lawn of his father's home, only a short distance from the hospital.

Miss Rafferty, a member of the Red Cross Life Saving Corps and of the Toledo Knights of Columbus swimming team was returning to the hospital after attending a swimming class when she met her death. Police said the murder was committed between 10:10 p. m. and 12:30 a. m. They estimated the time from the fact that a heavy rainfall set in at 12:30 and that both of the young woman's shoes were filled with water.

Mrs. William Greer, mother of the slain girl said her daughter and other upsets had been annoyed numerous times in the same vicinity by a man who gave evidence of weak-mindedness. The police searched for the molester on each previous occasion but were unable to find him.

GARNER'S VICTORY STARTS UP RUMORS

Favorite Sons and Dark Horses Mentioned—Norris Backs Democrats.

Washington, May 6.—(AP)—Another parade of Democratic favorite sons and dark horses is beginning just as the Republican stalwarts show notable signs of consolidating their position behind President Hoover.

At no previous time since the pre-convention campaign began has there been a more varied and conflicting discussion of candidates among the Democrats, or greater outward show of hopefulness on the part of the Republicans.

In both cases the Californian primary is largely responsible. Governor Roosevelt's defeat there is stimulating both his friends and his enemies to redoubled exertion.

President Hoover's unexpectedly large vote is greatly encouraging his supporters.

Acknowledgment by Senator Norris of Nebraska, last night that he would support a Roosevelt ticket against Hoover was hardly a surprise. He deserted the Republicans in favor of Smith in '28.

Among the favorite sons, the present speculation of the anti-Roosevelt leaders centers around Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland, and former Governor Harry F. Byrd of Virginia. There is even more talk however, of bringing definitely into the field some one with no delegates now pledged to him and trying out party opinion.

There is a revival of discussion about Newton D. Baker, Owen D. Young and Melvin A. Traylor.

No Agreement
However nothing like an agreement is in sight on any one candidate to oppose Roosevelt. Garner's friends seem to have little hope of nominating him, despite California. Few responsible leaders believed Alfred E. Smith can repeat.

While California was giving Garner its 44, and thus making him a real factor in the convention with an assurance of nearly 100 votes, South Dakota and Alabama were presenting Roosevelt with another 34 bringing his total to 313 exclusive of the big disputed delegations from New York and Pennsylvania.

The Republican returns from California caused almost as much surprise in Washington as the Democratic. Hoover was unopposed in the primary, yet he polled well over half a million, and more than Roosevelt, Garner and Smith combined.

Fishing Schooner Burned; Coast Guard Saves Crew

New York, May 6.—(AP)—The schooner Herbert Parker of Gloucester, Mass., a fishing boat bound to New York with a load of codfish, was burned and sank off the New Jersey coast today. Members of the crew were rescued safely by the Coast Guard cutter Reliance, which was standing by.

The Coast Guard cutter Sepaca joined the Reliance at the scene shortly before the gasoline tank of the burning schooner exploded. After the explosion, the Seneca sank the wreck with gunfire.

"Schooner's gas" tank exploded, completely gutting vessel, which was burning furiously. The Seneca radioed Coast Guard headquarters.

GOVERNOR RECEIVES REPORTS ON JAILS

Legislative Committee Suggest a Central Prison and a Prison Farm.

Hartford, May 6.—(AP)—A report from the legislative commission on jails urging the establishment of a central jail farm and other changes in the Connecticut penal system was before Governor W. L. Cross today for presentation to the 1933 General Assembly.

The commission, headed by Prof. Jerome Davis of Yale Divinity School, asserted after a year's survey that the county jails are for the most part unsanitary and inadequate for the welfare of prisoners.

It recommended that they be used solely to house persons awaiting trial, that women prisoners be sent to the State Farm at East Lyme, and that a farm for men prisoners be purchased. In addition, it urged the extension of the probation system and greater use of bonds to lower the number of persons actually held in jail.

Separate Reports
The report did not mention specific county jails, a thorough survey of which was made by Paul W. Garrett, former secretary of the National Society of Penal Information. It indicated separate reports had been given the county sheriffs, who the commission said, had been anxious to cooperate in improving conditions.

A central jail farm was held to be more economical in operation and far more beneficial to the prisoners, who would be given outdoor work.

The commission also said establishment of the farm would be cheaper than constructing new county jails, which it declared soon would be necessary.

Suggests Central Jail
"States which have established a central jail," the commission said, "have found the savings to be large. In Indiana for instance, the state farm has been run at a profit during some years."

"Because of its small area, Connecticut is peculiarly well fitted for a central jail farm. It would be comparatively easy to bring sentenced men by automobile to a central institution from the most remote sections."

Discussing present jail conditions, the commission reported sick prisoners are not segregated, that diet in many cases is monotonous, that little if any provision is made for exercise.

COL. OSBORN DEAD; EDITOR 50 YEARS

Head of the New Haven Journal-Courier Passes Away After Long Illness.

New Haven, Conn., May 6.—(AP)—Colonel Norris Galpin Osborn, 74, whose work during the last 50 years as editor in chief of the New Haven Register and later of the New Haven Journal-Courier, which was owned by his father, he contributed a weekly column to the New York Sunday Herald under the nom de plume of "Trumbull."

His column, which he started at the close of the Nineteenth Century under the Benetts, became widely known for its incisive comment on Connecticut politics and governmental affairs.

Colonel Osborn, known to his friends as "Doc," became editor-in-chief of the Journal-Courier in 1907 when a group of his friends and classmates at Yale re-financed the paper, one of the oldest dailies in the country. Previously he had served as editor-in-chief of the Register which was owned by his father, Minott Angus Osborn.

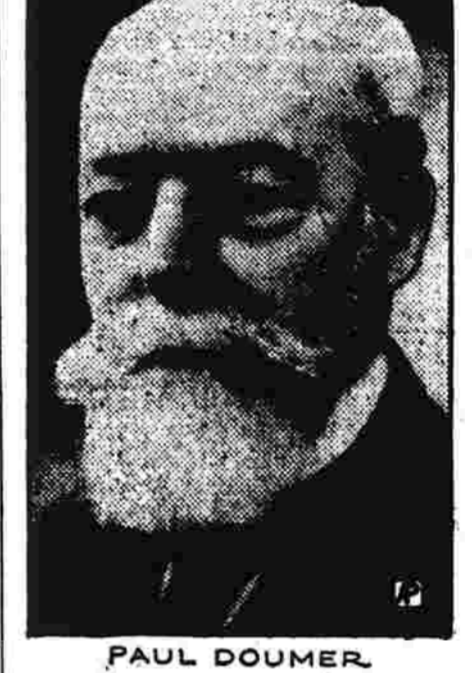

Friend of Cleveland
As a newspaperman and a member of the state prison directors, Colonel Osborn developed a variety of contacts. He was an intimate friend of President Grover Cleveland and frequently was his guest at the White House.

He developed a close relationship with Gerald Chapman, while the latter was editor of the Journal-Courier.

The schooner was sunk about 60 miles east of Barnegat light.

SEEK NO PARDON IN MASSIE CASE

Darrow Advises Four To Give Up Efforts At This Time—To Leave Island.

Honolulu, May 6.—(AP)—Lieut. Thomas H. Massie, his socially prominent mother-in-law, Mrs. Granville Fortescue and two Navy men, may not seek a pardon for their conviction of manslaughter in the slaying of an Hawaiian.

The sentence of each, 10 years at hard labor, was commuted to one hour by Governor Lawrence M. Judd of Hawaii. They served that in custody of their territorial high sheriff and were not at any time confined in prison. Then came the announcement a full pardon would be sought for the four who were tried for lynching a native who allegedly had confessed participation in a criminal attack on the naval officer's wife, Mrs. Thalia Massie.

Indications were today that upon the advice of Clarence Darrow, their adviser and defender, they would discontinue their efforts to obtain a pardon.

Darrow denied he had ever asked Governor Judd to pardon the convicted quartet, explaining that newspapermen had "misunderstood" a statement in which he said "they ought to have a full pardon."

Minimizing the importance of a pardon, Darrow advised them late last night to let the matter drop. He told them to accept Governor Judd's commutation of sentence, without seeking further relief at this time. He suggested the restoration of their citizenship rights—rights which they did not regain by the commutation—be taken up later.

Although indicating that Massie, Mrs. Fortescue and the two Navy enlisted men, L. J. Lord and Albert O. Jones, were anxious to be pardoned, he also indicated that they would be guided by what he said.

The veteran defender denied he had asked Governor Judd for a pardon after the local newspapers, attributing to Darrow a statement that he had asked for a pardon, printed at the same time a statement by Governor Judd that the attorney had merely discussed the possibility of one.

"The governor's statement is correct," Darrow said. While saying he was inclined to permit the matter to drop, the Chicago criminal lawyer had made an appointment with Governor Judd for Saturday to discuss the subject further.

The governor was emphatic yesterday in saying he did all that was asked of him in granting the commutation and in denying Darrow's implication that commutation had been forced on the defendants when they were seeking a pardon.

As the matter now stands, Massie and his associates have lost their right to vote or to hold office in Hawaii. Their status outside the ### Man Tells Police He Had Come To Paris Especially To Commit the Crime; Says Revenge Was the Motive—President Struck By Two Bullets In Head and Shoulder—His Condition Critical.

Paris, May 6.—(AP)—President Paul Doumer, 74-year-old head of the French Republic, was critically wounded today by an assassin identified as a "White" Russian.

Two blood transfusions and a trepanning operation were performed immediately and the doctors held out some hope that the President might recover.

The police hammered at the assassin until they learned that his name is Paul Gouglouff, that he had come here from Monaco especially to commit this crime and that his motive was revenge for the French refusal to intervene in Russia against the Bolsheviks.

This evening the ministry of the interior issued this statement: "Today at three o'clock President Doumer, during a visit to an exhibition by war veteran writers, was the victim of an attempt on his life by a Russian anarchist who appears to be not in full possession of his faculties."

"The president was struck by a bullet in the head and another in the shoulder which caused a flesh wound. He was taken to Beaujon hospital where he received the attentive care of leading surgeons."

EARLY BULLETINS
Paris, May 6.—(AP)—President Paul Doumer, white bearded 74-year old head of the French Republic, was shot three times today by an assassin as he opened an exhibition of books by war veterans.

He had come from the Elysee Palace with Claude Farrere, the noted author. Together they entered the grand hall of the Baron de Rothschild Foundation near the palace.

Farrere walked with him up the grand staircase where the President paused to sign a copy of a book by a contemporary author of the Baron de Rothschild Foundation near the palace.

Suddenly a man sprang forward, leveled a pistol at the President and fired three times.

Mr. Doumer's knees crumpled. He sank to the floor. There were bullets in the front of the head, in the head behind the ear and in the chest.

Farrere sprang forward by the assassin's pistol was still smoking in his hand. He raised it and fired twice.

Farrere stopped and a bullet in the arm sprang forward again and grappled with the man.

Paris police, ran forward. The assassin fired again. The bullet struck a structure and came down. By this time a dozen police surrounded the man and a crowd gathered about them.

As the crowd grew it became an infuriated mob. The police had the greatest difficulty protecting their prisoner.

At last they got him away. At police headquarters they identified him as Paul Gouglouff, a Russian physician.

They had no idea of his motive, but someone heard him shout as he fired: "Die for the fatherland."

Cheerfully, back in the exhibition room, Farrere and others bent over the President.

He already was nearly unconscious, but he mumbled a few incoherent words as they lifted him, placed him on a stretcher and carried him to the Beaujon hospital.

The doctors there performed an operation immediately and there was a blood transfusion.

It was impossible at this stage of the developments to get all the facts straight, but there were reports the President had said that he was dying, and that the assassin were not so serious as he was thought at first.

One of the witnesses who had seen the assassin, said he had seen

HALF ELKS DANCE PROFITS FOR THE JOBLESS HERE

Big Affair At College Inn Tonight Promises To Boost Local Unemployment Fund.

A large number of Elks and their friends are expected to attend the bi-centennial dance at the College Inn, Bolton, given tonight under the auspices of Rockville Lodge. Joseph A. Durkin of Manchester is chairman of the general committee. Other members of the committee are, Joseph A. Farr of Manchester, Louis Chapman and Clarence McCarthy of Rockville, Michael Roberts of Stafford and John Shean of Warehouse Point. The proceeds are to be given to charity and one-half of this amount will be turned over to the unemployment fund of Manchester. Bill Tassilo's orchestra will furnish a special program of dance music and the gathering will include Elks from many parts of the state and their friends. It is expected the purpose of the affair will bring to Bolton one of the largest dance gatherings in this section in years under the auspices of the Elks. In selecting the College Inn Ballroom, consideration was given to out of town members in the central and eastern part of the state. There has been a large advance sale of tickets.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Frank Happeny of 26 Birch street and Miss Catherine Foster of 333 South Main street were admitted yesterday. John Fracchia of Bolton was discharged yesterday. All clinic cases were discharged this morning. Adam Backus of Broad Brook; Edith Elliott of 132 Bissell street and Margaret Robshaw of 16 Huntington street were discharged today. Miss Helen Kasmerechuk of 115 Walnut street was admitted today. It is estimated that there are about 356,130 female students in colleges and universities of the United States.

SHIFT TO BRICK, PROCEED WITH P. O. FOUNDATION

Non-arrival of the stone for the Federal building at the Center is not holding up the work as expected. Connecticut rough-hewn brick has been substituted for the foundation and already the wall is up about four feet on the east, south and west sides of the building. The structural steel for the building has been tested at the yards of the New York contractors who have been awarded this part of the work. Arrangements have been made for the shipping of the steel to Manchester by railroad.

ABOUT TOWN

Manchester Camp, Royal Neighbors, will have a card party Monday evening at 8:15 at the home of Mrs. Joseph Holland, 388 Hartford road. Setback will be played, with six prizes for the winners. Sandwiches and coffee will be served. The social committee which is composed of the following members will be in charge: Mrs. Margaret Shea, Mrs. Agnes Messier, Mrs. John Anderson, Mrs. Alice Coleman.

The number of men employed in the road work at Buckland was largely increased today. A power drill and dynamite were being used to break up the ledge that extends from Buckland street about fifty feet west. This is being brought to a level on Tolland Turnpike making necessary a cut of nine feet ten inches at its highest point for forty feet. It is the intention of the State Highway department to cut away this ledge to the intersection of Tolland Turnpike and Adams street. Representatives of Manchester Water Co., were on the scene this morning. It will be necessary for the company to remove its small water mains and lay new ones at a much lower depth.

The Hartford House Wrecking Co., which has the contract to demolish the grain storehouse on Center street, the so-called Gorman brick building of Charles Oak street and the coal pocket trestle west of the land of the Manchester Lumber Company, has completed the wrecking of the storehouse and removal of the lumber and bricks. Its crew today started removing bricks and lumber at the Charter Oak street building. The last job to be taken up will be the wrecking of the trestle. The lumber and timbers there are exceptionally heavy and it will require more time and men to take the structure apart than in the case of the other two buildings.

Town Clerk Samuel Turkington this morning received a telegram informing him of the death of Mrs. Carleton Bell of Kingston, Ont., last evening after a short illness with influenza. Mrs. Bell was a daughter of Mr. Turkington, and he and Mrs. Bell have entertained Mr. Turkington and other Manchester men, including Joseph Albiston, George H. Howe and John G. Pentland, who have accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Turkington on fishing and hunting trips to Canada. On receipt of the telegram, Mr. and Mrs. Turkington at once started by automobile for Kingston. The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon.

The Manchester police received their semi-monthly pay checks yesterday. They would have received their pay on Tuesday but for the delay checking up the receipts of the tax collector. Checks have also been received by many firms and persons the last two days for bills previously approved for payment by the Selectmen.

Miss Vivian Barto of Oak street entertained about twenty of her High School classmates at a party at her home last night. Refreshments were served and games and dancing were enjoyed.

Albert Lennon, 44, of 30 Bank street was arrested by Lieut. William Barron at 8:15 this morning for assault on his wife, Helen, and son early this morning. During the domestic disturbance the accused struck his son and broke several dishes. Lennon will appear in court tomorrow for breach of the peace and assault.

Clan McLean, O. S. C. has received an invitation from Clan Gordon of Hartford to attend a social meeting and gathering of the clans at their hall on Ann street, Hartford, Monday evening. Clanmen who plan to go should leave the Center at 7:30 that night.

Rev. J. Stuart Neill, pastor of St. Mary's Episcopal church, will be nominated as one of the deputies to the synod of the first province at the annual convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Connecticut, to be held at Christ Church, Stratford, on May 17 and 18.

The grading of the playground at Buckland school, which required considerable blasting of stone ledges, has now been completed and it gives the children a large playground as any other district in town. The work was done through plans of the ways and means committee of the Parent-Teachers Association, the donation of carts and horses by residents of the district, and the unemployed.

C. E. Ellsworth of Marble street, who each year spends his winters in Florida, returned home last week. After unpacking and getting settled, he went to the Town Clerk's office and took out his fishing license for 1932. Mr. Ellsworth is ninety-one, the second oldest man in town to hold a fishing license; the other being John Allen of Hudson street, who is ninety-two. They are planning a fishing party together.

Today being the first Friday of the month, masses at St. James's R. C. church at 5:30, 7:00 and 7:40 o'clock were largely attended as were also the masses at St. Bridget's church.

James W. Foley, proprietor of Foley's Express and the City Taxi, has returned to his work after being confined to his home for the last two days with an attack of indigestion.

PARENTS BOTH BLIND, THEIR DAUGHTER DIES

New Britain, May 6.—(AP)—Into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sullivan, both of whom are blind, tragedy reached today. Their seven months old daughter, Dorothy Agnes, died at New Britain general hospital a few minutes after they had made a hurried trip to her bedside.

Although the parents are deprived of their sight, their lives since the birth of the child, whose eyes were normal, have been filled with happiness. Today their hearts are gripped by grief.

Mr. Sullivan is widely known in the state as a correspondent for a Sunday newspaper published in Bridgeport. Before her marriage Mrs. Sullivan was Miss Agnes Wall of Hartford and was employed as a typist by the State Board of Education for the blind. She is an accomplished pianist. The child was taken to the hospital last night after a doctor had discovered that she was suffering from a heart affliction.

IS 100 YEARS OLD—Mrs. Mary R. Spencer, who came to the United States from Ireland in 1836 on a windjammer that required several weeks for the trip, celebrated her 100th birthday anniversary yesterday.

Eight of her children, including John R. Spencer of South Norwalk were here for the celebration. Mrs. Spencer lived in Albany, N. Y., until her marriage to the late John R. Spencer, when they moved to Seymour. She came to New Haven a few years ago.

ROCKVILLE

Ellington Town Meeting
There were about three hundred citizens present at the town meeting in the Ellington Town Hall on Tuesday night. Representative Morton Thompson presided. The first matter to be brought up was regarding the elimination in whole or in part of the electric lights. First Selectman Felber stated there were 96 lights in the town which cost $1824 or $19 a year for a 60 candle power light. It was brought out that the town had no contract with the Lighting company. Mr. Ahern of the Lighting Company was present and stated that the Company would be glad to make a survey of the town and arrangements could be made for a circular survey similar to Rockville. After much discussion and on motion of Percy E. Ainsworth a committee was appointed to look into the matter, as follows: Walter H. Skinner, Joseph Lavitt, Carl O. Gehring, Leon Dobbins, Tom F. Cavley. This committee will cooperate with the Board of Selectmen, Henry Felber, E. Foster Hyde and Bernard A. Kelley. On the question of lowering salaries of school teachers there appeared to be a misunderstanding. Mr. Lavitt stated at a town meeting held in February the citizens favored a cut of 10 per cent. He claimed the school committee only made a five per cent cut at a meeting due to the fact that the musical supervisor had resigned. Lavitt thought the school committee should reconsider and cut the pay 10 per cent. No vote was taken on the salaries question. Supervisor of the Ellington Schools stated that Ellington teachers are getting $1200 and $1300 where in other places teachers are getting $2000. Emblem Club Banquet
At a meeting of the Rockville Emblem Club Wednesday afternoon final plans were made for the installation banquet to be held next Wednesday. Installation takes place at 4 p. m., with Supreme President Mrs. Bernard McHugh of Watertown, Mass., and suite in charge. The banquet will take place in the evening at 7:30. After the dinner there will be a social time at the Elks home to which the members of the Rockville Lodge of Elks are invited. Cards will be played, with prizes. Guests will be present from Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New Hampshire and this state. Friendly Class Banquet
The 26th anniversary banquet of the Friendly Class of Union Congregational church was held in the social rooms on Wednesday evening, with 125 members and guests in attendance. A turkey dinner was served by the Ladies' Aid Society of the church. The dining room was decorated with pink and blue streamers, Japanese lanterns, Easter lilies and other bush flowers. After an invocation by Rev. Charles P. Redfield, there was a period of silent prayer for deceased members. Luther H. Fuller, for more than sixty years connected with Union Church, acted as master of ceremonies. The address of the evening was given by Dr. Henry Luce of the Hartford Seminary Foundation, who spoke on "China." He was a missionary in China for more than thirty years. There was an interesting program of music and readings. Suspect Brought Here
One of three men suspected of several thefts in this vicinity was picked up in Detroit last week by police. State Policeman Thomas Abbotts of the Stafford State Police Barracks was assigned to bring him back. The accused is John Weinstock, 20, and he was presented before the Ellington Justice Court charged with breaking and entering a cottage at Snipsic Lake, Justice Theodore Palmer bound him over to the June term of the Tolland County Superior Court under bonds of $8,000 which he was unable to furnish. One man was bound over in the case a few weeks ago and a third man is still being sought. Mrs. Catherine Cody of 17 Lawrence street, telephone operator at the Rockville exchange, who is to be married to Richard E. Coughlin of Providence on May 25, was given a pleasant surprise by the operators and office force Tuesday night. She was presented with a table lamp. The program of the evening included games and musical numbers. Prizes were awarded Mrs. Cody, Miss Devlin and Miss Lucille Brigham. Those attending the party were: Mrs. John Fitzgerald, Miss Rose and Mildred Jelinek, Miss Mary Conway, Miss Lucille Devlin, Miss Lucille Brigham, Miss Marjorie Mann, Miss Gertrude Ludwig, Miss Mary Wendtliaser and Mrs. Catherine Cody. More Dogs Licensed
According to a report from the office of Town Clerk on Thursday it was found that there were more dogs registered up to May 1 than last year. 508 licenses were issued last year and this year 527. Last year there were eight kennel licenses and this year only three. Since Monday 10 more dogs have been licensed, making the total now 527. Address Conference
Rev. George S. Brookes, pastor of Union church will address the meeting of the Litchfield Northeast Association of Congregational Churches and Ministers which is to be held at Riverton on next Tuesday. New Fire Truck
The new auxiliary apparatus of the Ellington Fire Department is about completed, the work being done by the regular pumpers and a 100 gallon tank for water or chemical mixtures, spot lights, siren, running boards on sides and back. Miss Lizzie Sauer
Miss Lizzie Sauer, 60, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Edward Leonard of Grove street, on Wednesday night following a short illness. She was born in Rockville, September 1, 1862, the daughter of Daniel and Rosine Sauer, and had lived here all her life. She was a member of Union Congregational church. The funeral was held from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Leonard of Grove street this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. George S. Brookes, pastor of Union church officiated.

FACE DEPORTATION
Danbury, May 5.—(AP)—An inspector from the Hartford office of the United States Immigration service took into custody here last night Mr. and Mrs. Savario De Grazia and their two children, as aliens who had entered this country illegally. The man was locked up in default of $1,000 bail and the woman and children released in their own recognizance. It is alleged that they entered the country from Canada fraudulently in 1929. They will be taken to Hartford today and face deportation to Italy. De Grazia has been conducting a tailor shop here.

DOG SAVES MAN
Great Barrington, Mass., May 5.—(AP)—A pet bull dog puppy was credited today with saving the life of John Tryon, 25, after a bull had attacked Tryon, knocked him to the ground and had begun to maul him. Tryon was returning the bull from the pasture when the animal attacked him. The dog turned on the bull and diverted the animal's attention long enough to enable Tryon to escape.

STUDIO REOPENS
Hollywood, Cal., May 6.—(AP)—Reopening of the RKO-Pathé studio in Culver City, which has been dark since that company's merger with Radio Pictures several months ago, was announced today by E. B. Kahane, president of RKO-Radio. Kahane said contracts have been signed with J. I. Schnitzler, Larry Darrow and J. C. Bachman, each of whom will make four feature pictures for the 1932-33 radio program. Work on the pictures which will employ several hundred persons, is expected to be started soon.

SELL WHEAT TO RUSSIA
London, May 6.—(AP)—Operators on the exchange here today said four or five cargoes of Canadian wheat, totaling approximately 1,500,000 bushels have been sold to Russia for shipment from Vancouver, B. C., to Vladivostok. The London agents for the Soviets declined to give any details of the grain purchases, however.

Notes
Harold F. Pitney, 24, and Anna Orliowski, 21, have filed marriage intentions at the office of the Town Clerk. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hayward, who have resided here for some time, have moved to Ellington. E. Ignatowicz is at the Rockville City Hospital where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. The Cornelia Circle will meet on Tuesday with Mrs. Frank Marble of North Park street. The closing recital of the Veronica Coffey School of Dancing will be held at Princess Hall this evening.

KILLED BY EXPLOSION
London, Ont., May 6.—(AP)—The cause of an explosion which killed one man and injured ten at the wholesale fruit plant of C. Catalano and Sons last night was sought today by authorities. One conjecture was that ether fumes used to hasten the ripening of tomatoes exploded. Another was that a furnace in the banana ripening room blew up. The blast shattered a large part of the plant, and shook the district for miles. Joseph Moczulski, 17-year-old workman, died in a hospital three hours after the accident. Of the other workers trapped by the collapsing walls, three may die. Emergency crews quickly put out a fire that followed the blast. Richard Catalano, manager, who suffered a deep neck wound, was unable to account for the explosion. "The building trembled, then all went black," he said.

WINS $1,000 PRIZE
Paris, May 6.—(AP)—Philippe Soupault, 35, was awarded the Strassburger Foundation prize of $1,000 today for the best series of articles published in French newspapers during the past year tending "to maintain and fortify the cordial relations existing between France and the United States." The articles were published in L'Europe Nouvelle, Le Vu, and La Revue des Vivants. M. Soupault, now living in Brooklyn, N. Y.

SEASON AT RAU'S

OPENS ON MAY 14

Rau's open their season at Crystal Lake next Saturday, May 14. This will be their seventeenth season at this popular lake resort. The road has been widened passing the ballroom and the bath-houses, thus creating more parking space. New lighting effects have been installed in the ballroom and the dining rooms have been painted giving the whole place an atmosphere of cleanliness and inviting one to eat, drink and be merry.

Timmie Crowe and his Colonials—that celebrated novelty orchestra from the Tea Garden at Peach Lake, N. Y., will be the opening band. This is a twelve-piece singing orchestra playing more than forty instruments. During their regular dance program they introduce novelties featuring eight violins, six trombones, six trumpets, six saxophones or six banjos. Timmie Crowe has searched all through the New England states as well as New York state to bring these exceptionally talented musicians together under his banner. The following Saturday night Bill Hehey and his Merry-makers will be at Rau's for their first engagement of the season.

HEBRON

A well child conference will take place at the town hall, Hebron center, Friday, May 13, from 2 to 4 p. m. Helpers appointed to assist the doctor and nurses are: Miss Clarissa L. Pendleton, Mrs. Howard O. Thompson, Mrs. Fitch N. Jones, and Mrs. Carlton H. Jones.

At a Democratic caucus held at the town hall, April 28, the following were appointed delegates to attend the Democratic convention at Hartford: Carlton Jones, Ames W. Sisson, Claude W. Jones and Fitch N. Jones.

Funeral services of the late Francis Gillespie Waldo were largely attended, Tuesday, at 2:30 p. m. at the residence on Hebron green. Bearers were W. C. Robinson, Edmund H. Horton, Alphonse Wright, and Albert W. Hilding. The Rev. Howard C. Champe, pastor of the Lebanon Congregational church, and a former pastor of the Hebron church, assisted the Rev. Walter Vey in the service. Mr. Champe gave a brief talk telling of the quiet, consecrated life of the deceased, and spoke of that which seemed to be the actuating principal of his life, the fear of infringing on the rights of others or in any way hurting them. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. Among those present were: Mrs. George Wakefield, of North Brookfield, Mass., Mr. Waldo's eldest daughter, and Mr. Brookfield, Mrs. Cora Hollister of South Glastonbury, his sister, David Waldo, of Kingston, N. Y., his nephew, and Mrs. Waldo, and many other relatives and friends. Interment was in the family lot in St. Peter's cemetery.

Mrs. Cora Hollister of South Glastonbury is spending a few days with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Francis G. Waldo.

Miss Hazel Hamilton of Toppfield, Mass., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gray for a few days this week.

Callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Kibbe during the past week and were: W. E. Upston of East Hartford, John S. Mott of South Glastonbury, W. H. Kibbe, Mr. Kibbe's brother, of Rockville, who is spending a few days, John Roche of Rockville, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morrell of South Manchester, Mrs. W. H. Brown of Rockville, Mrs. Nellie Dodge, Carpenter of Perryville, R. L. and Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Raymond of New Britain and family.

R. N. Houston, who has spent the winter in Washington, D. C., was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Benzinger overnight going to Norwich Wednesday forenoon.

Harry Tomchin, who has spent the winter with relatives in New York, has returned to his former boarding place with H. Clinton Porter's family, for the summer.

Mrs. Amanda Davies of Baldwin, L. I., is visiting her sister, Miss Victoria Hilding and family at the Hilding homestead.

The case against the Rev. Walter Vey, pastor of the Hebron and Gilead Congregational churches, accused some weeks ago of indecent assault, was nolleed for lack of evidence on the recommendation of States Attorney Brown, at the Criminal Superior Court at Norwich, Tuesday. Mr. Vey's parishioners and all who knew him, congratulated the clergyman upon his release from the charge. There was much indignation felt at the bringing of the charge, and Mr. Vey's parishioners here and his former people in Lebanon were convinced from the first that the pastor was innocent. From the first he emphatically denied the charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Kellogg and family, of Hartford, are spending the week at their country home, the former F. H. Waldo place.

Miss Hazel Broome of Hartford was at her father's home in Hopevale a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. David Waldo, who motored from their home in Kingston, N. Y., to attend their uncle's funeral on Tuesday, were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Costes in Hopevale before returning.

Allan L. Carr motored to New London Wednesday afternoon to visit Enoch Crandall, who is at the New London hospital for treatment. Mrs. Sherwood Miner, with whom Mr. Crandall boards, Mrs. Harold Gray and children, accompanied him. Mr. Crandall was somewhat improved at the last report.

Allan L. Carr, reader of St. Peter's Episcopal church, was too ill from the effects of a bad cold Sunday to do more than render the prayer service. The sermon was omitted, but the usual Sunday school session was held. Mr. Carr hopes to be able to preach next Sunday.

The spring season has been quite late about here. It is said that this town, Colchester, and some others adjacent, are in a sort of cold zone as compared with East Hartford, New London, etc. The gardens here now are in full bloom, with jonquils, forsythia, daffodils, violets, etc., in their prime. The wild flowers are also being brought in, such as violets, five finger, anemones, bluets, and many others.

Quite a delegation of local Democrats attended the meeting of the Tolland County Democratic Association held at Yeomans Hall, Columbia, Monday evening. The next meeting of the association will be at Somers by special invitation. John Coleman of Willimantic has bought the Hudak place on the Manborough road, with 45 acres of land, dwelling house and farm buildings. The place has been through a good many hands within recent years.

There was a large gathering of Grange members at the regular meeting Monday evening. A Mothers' Day program arranged by Mrs. Frank Hamilton, was carried out.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Phelps attended the funeral of Frank Waldo in Hebron Tuesday afternoon.

Elmer Finley of New York and Bolton was a recent caller on Fred Bishop.

Miss Annie Mathewson who has been ill for several weeks, is under the care of Dr. Michael D. Riordan of Williamstown.

Miss Betty Winstup of Hazardville is spending the week with her grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. Wallace Woodin, at the parsonage.

Burton Lewis and Percy Cook are painting the buildings on the Mark Bass place.

Mrs. Robert Parker of Hartford spent Wednesday at her cottage at Andover Lake.

FAMILY OF FIVE FLEES FROM BURNING HOME

Farm House in Wapping Area Destroyed But Other Buildings On Stoughton Place Are Saved.

Fire, originating around a chimney just under the roof in the old John Stoughton place on the Sand Hill road between Wapping and Windsorville resulted in the total destruction of the building late last night.

The farm and buildings are owned by William Sluzhanis. The estimated loss is $5,000 partly covered by insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. Sluzhanis and their three children, two sons and a daughter, one only an infant, were in bed when the fire was discovered by a neighbor, Leroy Strong, living close by. They fled with only a few personal effects but upon the arrival of men from neighboring farms some of the household goods on the first floor were saved.

The absence of wind prevented the spread of the flames to adjoining buildings, including a barn, tobacco shed and two-car garage. Neighbors got up on the roofs and kept them wet down with pails of water.

The house was a rambling structure with a gable roof and was built well over 75 years ago. In the years that have passed several additions had been built on and the whole affair burned fiercely.

TODAY IS THE WORLD WAR ANNIVERSARY

AUSTRALIANS ADVANCE

On May 6, 1918, Australian troops drove the Germans back near Moriancourt, between the Ancre and Somme river, in a day of heavy fighting.

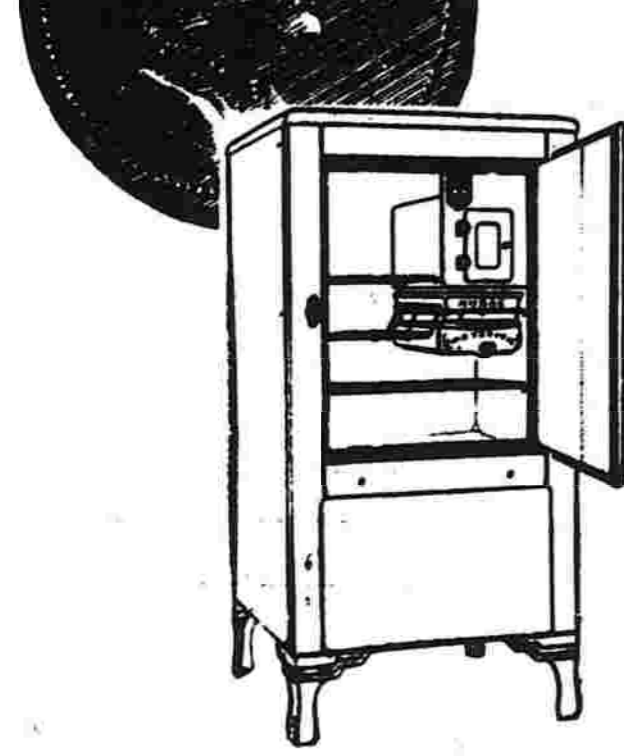

The advance relieved the pressure on Amiens and was regarded as an important gain, although it was of a local nature.

Canadian troops in the same sector of the western front made slight, unimportant gains. Americans brigaded with the British were shelled heavily by the Germans, but no attack was made. Countless mustard gas shells were dropped in the American sector.

The Third Liberty Loan drive, for $5,000,000,000, was over-subscribed, it was announced in Washington.

Removal of John K. Caldwell, U. S. consul at Vladivostok, was demanded by the Soviet government. The State Department in Washington immediately announced that he would not be removed.

FRIDAY, MAY 6.

"BETTER HAVE WORK"

Those pro-ber verses that Senator Bingham caused to be read in the Senate the other day, while as dreary a mess of doggerel as the Senate—victim of the world's worst poets—has listened to in many a day, contained one significant line,
 the last one. "Better have work than blood," warns the rhymster.

The time is not yet when words like these, in this country, bring a creeping sensation. Unfortunately there is no complete assurance that it will not arrive if, by dire chance,
 the people of this nation should be called on to withstand another two and a half years of the same kind as the last two and a half—a period of ineptness and bewilderment and futility utterly incredible. We have stood this past two and a half years without serious suffering, almost without great inconvenience, because we could live, so to speak, on our own fat. We couldn't do it over again. There isn't enough fat left.

One hundred and twenty million people are beginning to worry. You can't have a hundred and twenty million people worrying, very long, without having them undergo an attack of nerves, of hysteria. And a hundred and twenty million people with the jitters are liable to do anything—even a hundred and twenty millions of docile, conventionalized Americans.

So far in this depression the United States has been giving a pretty fair imitation of Wilkins Micawber—making rhetorical speeches and waiting for something to turn up. Nothing has turned up but the roots of the commodities and securities markets. Having collapsed from an overdose of credit we have sought to regain our health through the application of more credit. Having bankrupted ourselves through taxation we seek to restore solvency through more taxation. But these devices are mere reminders of the typical method of treating a compound comminuted fracture of the thigh or a chest bullet wound—in the movies.

When the stricken hero is brought in the young woman in the case takes charge, wangles a bowl of hot water, sops a towel, wipes away four drops of blood from the region of the wound, tucks the unconscious patient in, and hopefully sits down to wait for his recovery. He gets well in the movies but he would die
 in reality.

So far we have done nothing but mop up a little of the blood. Now we are waiting for the recovery, or something else, to turn up. If the people of the country, not half of them but all of them, do not get gainfully to work in the next couple of years—then watch out against the warning in the beer poem.

The ills of this era are not to be cured by communism—there is not genius enough in the world to establish such a system in a country like this and among a people like ours, in a century, even if the nation believed in it. They are not to be cured by "confidence"—a fool may be everlastingly convinced that he could jump across the Connecticut river, but his faith wouldn't keep him out of the water if he tried it.
 They are not to be cured by more borrowings and lendings—mere forms of the credit disease. They are not to be cured by tariffs of embargoes or trade barriers of any kind. They are not to be cured by bigger and worse sales methods.
 They are not to be cured by pensions and bonuses nor yet by inflation through credit money. They are not to be cured by ten per cent reductions in government expenditures.

Yet what other remedies than these have been suggested by any important leadership anywhere?
 And which of those palliatives that have been suggested has not instanly been combated by some salutary and blindly self interested group.

 Somewhere between communism
 and the desperately aggravated capitalism of the twentieth century lies a middle ground; a zone ruled by true economic law and not by greed or self interest masquerading as economic law; a zone watched over by a strict and honest government devoted to preventing stupid voracity from squandering the nation's resources in Kreuger wildcatting and worthless foreign loans; a zone in which no man could absorb a fortune by the trick of signing his name; a zone of honest wages and honest profits; and of honest money that will not swell from day to day and destroy the debtor nor shrink from day to day and destroy the creditor; a zone in which natural monopolies would be administered as belonging inherently to all the people and no public franchise ever permanently alienated from their control; a zone in which dishonest inflation would be prevented from being followed by inevitable deflation because there could be no dishonest inflation; a zone of sane
 business and industry and agriculture in which no group or class could exploit any other group or class and in which profits could follow only service.

When we find such a middle ground we shall have cured not only this depression but all depressions.
 Unless we set ourselves resolutely to the task of finding it, and move on always with that object in view—and unless we make a very early start on our search—we may, some day before we realize it, suddenly become aware of the sinister import of those words: "Better have work than blood."

HOOPER, BORAH

Yesterday President Hoover sent a message to Congress and Senator Borah made a speech. Granting that the President's position is infinitely more difficult than that of a United States Senator who has no occasion to worry even about his job, it is difficult to refrain from drawing a comparison between the two utterances.

"The most essential factor to economic recovery today," said the President, "is the restoration of confidence." His criticism of the House of Representatives for its failure to accept any legislation calculated to balance the budget, profoundly justified as it is, was predicated on such failure's effect on "confidence."
 He spoke of "uncertainty" and "fright" as causes rather than as effects.

The message, completely justifi-cable in every line, was that of a worried office manager trying to get a rebellious and intractable staff to do its obvious duty and pointing out the liability of the sheriff to come around if the accounts and the bank balance were not soon gotten into workable shape.

Senator Borah, possibly because such details are not his responsibility, dealt with a bigger and more fundamental subject. Apparently he is less interested in trying to make the machine run on two left wheels than in getting two new wheels for the opposite side. Pointing out that the total of indebtedness in this country is 140 billion dollars and that because of the shrinkage in values this is actually twice what it was in 1929, he demanded that the United States abandon the "gold mentality" and take the lead in an international conference for the rehabilitation of silver—
 a means, according to his reasoning, whereby the burden of internal debt might be restored to merely its normal weight and at the same time the purchasing power of half the world be so increased as to re-establish trade.

There is just one criticism to be made on the Borah speech by those who, like him, believe that the gold standard fixation is the worst of all obstacles to the restoration of trade and industry. That is with relation to the time of its delivery.

It was not quite fair for the Senator to deliver that speech on the day on which the President's emergency message was, it is safe to assume, expected. Mr. Hoover's strictures upon the House are just and timely. They deserved to receive the full consideration of the country, Mr. Borah's much more important utterance overshadows the message. That was not quite sporting. Nor, in view of the desperate emergency, was it altogether patriotic. The President, at the moment, needed all support from every member of his party.

"STOP-SMITH" FIGURES

Smith boosters who profess to believe that there is a chance to get the Democratic Presidential nomination for their candidate appear to be setting at defiance the rules of arithmetic. They appear to have overlooked the fact that it would take no more votes to stop Smith than it would to stop Roosevelt. In order to prevent any candidate

from getting a two-thirds majority, which under the party rules he must do to win the nomination, it is necessary for his opponents to control only 386 votes in the Chicago convention. There are already 330 pledged to or instructed for Roosevelt. This leaves only 51 more to be obtained with sixteen states to be heard from which are regarded as certain to supply him with a great many more than the required number—not for the nomination but for "stopping power." Since it is inconceivable that any important part of these votes could ever be switched to Smith the nomination of the latter is an obvious impossibility from the beginning.

Wherefore the professions of the Smith advocates, upon inspection, appear to lack sincerity. They may, and do, hope to block the nomination of the New York governor;
 they certainly haven't, because they couldn't have, the remotest expectation of nominating their own man. What they are after, and what their leader is after, is to get into a position where they can dictate the compromise candidate.

NEXT STEP

Now that they have Al Capone locked up in the Atlanta Penitentiary the next thing in order, after that blood stained individual has lapsed into the retirement incidental to his situation and remained there for a few months, is the usual Atlanta failure of health and much pressure to obtain executive clemency. Probably in a year or so we shall begin to hear how much weight
 the fat killer has lost and how, if his precious life is to be preserved, it will be quite necessary to let him out. That is the usual formula for federal prisoners who have some money left to pay the right kind of lawyers and buy influence in the proper quarters. Wouldn't it be dreadful if it failed to work in the Capone case?

IN NEW YORK

Just a Little Air
 New York, May 6—Moe Finklestein, beaming down from the fire escape of his button factory upon a feast-spirited throng in Allen street, spoke for the "seven million"
 when he said simply: "Yes, it's nice mama and the babies should have maybe some sunshine, witt air, witt room."

Only in New York might you come upon 15,000 humans celebrating the achievement of a little more space, a peep of daylight and stretching space in the air.

Allen Street, nationally identified as "barras town," is no longer
 "the street of shadows." To a visitor interested in social welfare, this East Side highway now presents a study in "before and after taking."

To the westward, Allen Street remains as it has been through the generations. Elevated tracks are as a grim, black river overflowing into tenement windows. One needs but thrust out an arm to touch one of the cross-ties of the "El."

The Old and the New Once the Bowery found in this dank, clammy corridor a rich field for its fungus overgrowth.
 Dives of rankest odor thrived.
 Time turned airless, sunless basements into thriving nests of craftsmen and artisans. Workers in brass hammered out their wares in the half-light and today a "world of brass" attracts tourists and searchers for Manhattan's more colorful atmosphere. Here are andirons and Elizabethan table bells; Spanish lanterns and door knockers, ash trays and candlesticks, pots and kettles.

But the eastern half of the street, widened many yards, basks
 in the sun, with a mile of benches and promenade for "mamma and the babies."

Gay at the Passover
 Just one block to the East and Orchard Street has been bulging with crowds preparing for the Jewish passover. In this holiday season, the street of a thousand pushcarts is gayer than ever with color, and noisier than ever with street cries, bargaining and efforts at neighborly conversation.

Second Avenue, with the holidays at hand, uses the festive spirit for a hasty hygienic against the depression's inroads.

This Broadway of the East Side had been the home of the Yiddish Theater in America. During the winter months five companies collapsed. But one was left when spring came.

Odds and Ends
 In a report of Will Hay's speech at the opening of the Motion Picture Club's Tuesday lunch gathering, one scribe quoted the "movie czar" as saying: "The day of the cheap cynic has passed."
 Wonder if Will didn't mean, or say, "the cheap scenic?"

Just before sailing back to his native Ireland the other day, John McCormack confessed that he didn't know the difference between good jazz and bad. . . . It all sounds
 the same to him.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON WITH RODNEY DUTCHER

SENATOR CARAWAY DOES NOT GROSSWORD PUZZLES IN SEN-ATE—WHO COULD BLAME
 HER?
 By RODNEY DUTCHER

Washington.—Notes from our nation's capital:
 Senator Hattie Caraway's habit of doing crossword puzzles from time to time in her back row seat on the Senate floor has not escaped a certain amount of supercilious criticism from other women who are not senators, but there are two schools of thought on Mrs. Caraway's crossword puzzle
 . . . After all, she is faithful in her attendance and sitting in the Senate is a terrible bore at least nine-tenths of the time.
 The men are, for the most part, usually not to be found in their seats at all. If they happen to be spending the afternoon in the chamber, they may go off in groups for a couple of hours at lunch, or saunter about the chamber, draping themselves wherever they like or pile out into the cloakroom to tell stories and smoke. . . . Mrs. Caraway remains a rather lonesome figure and it seems to be a mean person who would deny her those puzzles.

Lobbyists Multiply Seldom in recent years has the capital so teemed with lobbyists.
 They are even thicker than the movie stars and radio crooners who call on the President. Taxation and proposals to write tariff items into the tax bill have brought the largest number, but these are days when every organized group has some scheme or other which is recommended to restore national properly through favoritism for, or salvation of one particular industry,
 class or section.

Delegates to recent conventions of wet women and of dry women here also turned to and did a great deal of personal lobbying.
 Al Smith announced that the only complaint among hundreds of telegrams following his Jefferson Day dinner speech (about war debts, Governor Roosevelt, etc.), was one from "a man I didn't know who asked if I would all another bedtime story tonight for his boy." But the complaint hardly counts. The "man" was a couple of newspapermen attending an alcoholic party, who heard Al on the radio and decided it would be funny to send him the wire. . . . They ed Cage.' Say, you're getting off easy.

 Well, maybe there is some balm in Gilead! Or, perhaps, as some wag recently put it: "You can strain it through a microphone—
 but it's still croaky."
 GILBERT SWAN.

REALLY FOR RUB
 Fort Worth, Tex.—A wrinkled little man entered the offices of Federal Judge James Wilson and asked for a gallon of medicinal liquor "for a rheumatism cure."
 He explained that he was going to mix the whiskey with a dead rattlesnake and herbs, and rub the concoction on his ailing knee. He promised to bring the snake into the judge's office to show he was on the level.

About 9,500 Americans reside in China and 2,088 in Japan.

THIS IS NATIONAL MUSIC WEEK

"Give more thought to music"

Is your child
 among this fortunate
 million?

More than a million children are studying music today! Taking private lessons. . . . playing in school bands or orchestras. . . . knowing the infinite joy of creating rich harmonies, playing haunting melodies. Giving untold pleasure to others.
 Reaping a rich reward for themselves! The gift of music is priceless. . . . yet its actual cost is little today. Come in tomorrow. . . . during National Music Week. . . . and select a piano on our budget plan.

HEALTH-DIET ADVICE
 Dr. Frank M. Cox
 347 The First Way to Health
 Dr. Cox's Diet Plan is the only one that makes it possible to eat what you like and still be in perfect health.

FOODS ARE NOT MEDICINES
 The only way in which foods can be considered curative is when they supply deficiencies in the diet, in the same way that a little aqua-pura might be considered a remedy for excellence to a man on the desert and dying because of thirst.
 In this case we are only supplying something which the body needs for its functioning. Yet we do not consider excessive thirst a disease and water as the medicine simply because of the very obvious cause and effect. There is no doubt that food would help a starving man more than all the medicine in the world.
 Ordinary starvation is a very obvious condition, but there are many cases of partial starvation which are not so easily recognized. Scoury was at one time a frequent cause of death and suffering. Every boat or expedition returning from a long trip had its quota of victims. Now we know that this disease is due to a deficiency in the diet and that it is caused by a lack of vitamin C which is so abundant in the citrus fruits and some other fresh foods.
 In this sense only food be regarded as a medicine—when it supplies a deficiency.

Doctors at one time had the idea that every disease had some specific remedy if it could only be discovered.
 Few believe this at the present time. Now even the most optimistic doctors could not name over a few specific drugs. Yet this idea that each particular food has some special curative property still remains. I am convinced that such beliefs are largely superstition.

Dieting for disease, however, includes more than merely supplying dietetic deficiencies; it also consists in regulating the diet and keeping away foods which are injurious.

D. A. R. MEMBERS TOLD ABOUT CONVENTION

Delegates and Alternates Report At May Meeting Yesterday At Center Church.

Orford Parish Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution held its May meeting yesterday afternoon at the Center Church House. The greater portion of the time was occupied with reports of the delegates and alternates who attended the recent continental congress in Washington, D. C. Mrs. F. A. Verplanck told in detail the proceedings of the first Sunday. The other speakers were Mrs. Emma Hutchinson, Mrs. Herbert B. House, Mrs. C. R. Burr, the regent; Miss Alice Dexter and Miss Ida Holbrook, told of the high spots during the days that followed. Miss Holbrook and Miss Hutchinson took a trip to Richmond, Virginia. The reports were most interesting and the other members gleaned from them many valuable facts in regard to the organization, and doings at the Capital during the Washington Bicentennial. Among other things it was reported that the D. A. R. has spent almost $25,000 the past year in patriotic education. Mrs. Alfred Wassall of Hartford played two piano numbers and Mrs. Henry Lowd gave a humorous recitation, "The Lost Harbor" and "The Worm". The hostesses, Mrs. A. E. Loomis, Mrs. T. J. Lewis and Mrs. Clinton Williams were assisted by Mrs. W. B. Lull and Mrs. F. H. Jones.

DRIVER IS CLEARED IN REID FATALITY

Deputy Coroner Relieves New Britain Man of Criminal Responsibility.

In a finding filed with the clerk of the Superior Court at Hartford, Harrison D. Schofield, deputy coroner of Hartford County, fails to find anyone criminally responsible for the death of Robert Reid, formerly of New Bedford, Mass., and an uncle of Robert M. Reid of 201 Main street, who died at the Memorial hospital after being struck by an automobile driven by Charles M. Dean of 208 Belden street, New Britain.

The fatality occurred on the night of March 27 on Center street, opposite the Edgewood House. Mr. Reid, who was 76 years old, was crossing the street when he was struck by Dean's car. Dean was arrested and charged with driving with defective brakes and reckless driving. His case was continued until tomorrow, pending the coroner's finding. According to court officials Dean will come before the court here tomorrow morning, charged with driving with defective brakes.

RADIO-MICE CASUALTY LIST QUICKLY GROWS

When William Dalton yesterday reported that he had found two dead mice in a radio set, both having been electrocuted, it brought out the fact that this is not the first instance of the kind. John Stavinsky of Purnell Row reports that a customer of his found radio reception poor until he investigated and found not two mice but a whole nest of them. John Bausola reports that a customer to whom he had sold a radio demanded that it be taken out because of the odor that came from the radio. He investigated and found a mouse, long deceased, caught between the wires. The heat did the rest. The radio is still working.

MODEL AIRPLANE MEET TO BE HELD IN HARTFORD

The fourth annual State Model Airplane Meet will be held at the State Armory on Broad street, Hartford, Saturday, May 28, conducted under the auspices of the Hartford Aero Model Club. Any young man between the ages of 14 and 21 in the state who is interested in this contest may participate by writing to the contest manager for application blank and paying a registration fee.

Overnight A. P. News

Washington—President, in message to Congress, demands a definite and conclusive program for balancing the budget. Robinson reports that "unaccountable errors" in executive department estimates have made task difficult.

Washington—Senate finance committee increases individual income tax rates to minimum of 4 per cent. Honolulu—Darro asks for full pardons for Masie case defendants.

Washington—Gaston B. Means jailed on charge of embezzling $100,000 given him by Mrs. Evelyn Lash McLean to pay Lindbergh kidnapers.

Washington—Senate rejects proposal for year's suspension of arms construction. Chicago—Government has recovered more than $1,000,000 income taxes in campaign against gangsters.

Yorkton, Sask.—Peter Verigin, leader of Doukhobors, convicted of perjury. Nelson, B. C.—Sentences of three years each are given 18 Doukhobors for parading in nude.

Louisville—Universe withdrawn from Derby. New York—National amateur boxing championships reach semifinal round.

Lynn, Mass.—Police recover 22 Army pistols, stolen from the Lynn State Armory last January, in home of man serving time for larceny. Boston—Police seek identity of illiterate 13-year-old girl found weeping over body of her supposed mother in a south end room.

Boston—Officers of the Nicaraguan steamer Tabasco report school of strange fish off Boston lightship; the school was two miles long and hundreds were killed by the ship's propeller; the fish were large and swam on the surface of the water.

Provincetown, Mass.—Coast Guard patrol boat 819 beached, leaking badly through seams that were stretched in an all day chase of a rum runner.

Boston—Plans are underway to equip three of the Boston fishing fleet with radio telephone apparatus.

SEARCH FOR FLIER

Boston, May 6.—(AP)—W. Hamilton Lillie, World War flier and a salesman out of work was missing in his monoplane today many hours after he started on a "short flight" and a relative feared he had flown into the mists to a new kind of premeditated death.

Lillie who lived in Newton, hired a monoplane yesterday morning and said he was going to take a half hour flight over the city. He headed down the coast in his plane that carried little fuel.

Lillie's uncle, W. H. Reynolds, expressed the opinion that Lillie had flown his plane over the ocean until the fuel was exhausted with suicidal intent.

The beacon lights at the East Boston Airport were turned on intermittently all last night in the hope that the missing birdman would return and three National Guard planes were sent out to search for him early today.

In public weath among nations America ranks tenth.

CONCERT DISCONTINUED

Norfolk, Conn., May 6.—(AP)—The concert which for many years has been annually given in the music house at the summer home of Mrs. Carl Stoekel will be omitted this year, the first time since 1898. Invitations which had been sent out for the concert June 3 have been recalled, the explanation being that with the present financial conditions and the "great amount of want and distress prevailing" Mrs. Stoekel feels that "it would be wrong for her to devote the amount of funds necessary for this undertaking to a purpose which is not an absolute necessity."

KILLED BY BANDIT

New Haven, May 6.—(AP)—Dominic Cofrancesco, 68, who was shot in the abdomen when two youths attempted to hold up his store in West Haven Saturday night died today in a hospital.

Neither of the pair has been arrested. Cofrancesco told police after the shooting the two, each about 17 and holding handkerchiefs over their faces, entered his store where one placed the revolver against his abdomen ordering him to remain quiet. When the other started to rob the cash register, he shouted for help.

The youth carrying the revolver, he said, fired. Both fled, leaving the contents of the cash register untouched.

INVESTIGATE THE G-E 4-YEAR SERVICE PLAN

Before You Buy Your Refrigerator

The Mechanism of Any Refrigerator is More Important to You than the Price Tag

LET'S GET DOWN TO THE FACTS on modern refrigeration. It is misleading to focus all attention on incidental features... or on the price tag only. The mechanism is your most important consideration in the selection of a refrigerator. When it fails, service and repair bills commence. Continuous service charges on a "cheap" refrigerator can eat up the very savings modern refrigeration makes. General Electric's 4-Year Service Plan protects every new buyer against any failure of the famous Monitor Top mechanism for four full years! General Electric spent fifteen years perfecting a mechanism that would give uninterrupted, economical service. Today, the G-E Monitor Top is the only refrigerator mechanism entirely sealed-in-steel. Belts that can stretch and break, fans that can get out of order, shaft seals or stuffing boxes that can leak, are all eliminated. Only the G-E gives you the benefit of natural air cooling. The G-E mechanism requires no attention... not even oiling. It is the cleanest, most simple and efficient refrigerating mechanism ever developed. Its four year record in more than a million and a quarter homes is unparalleled in refrigeration history. Don't confuse lowest price with lowest cost... probably the most expensive refrigerator you could buy would carry the lowest price tag. Look ahead six months... a year... five years! Buy a General Electric and you buy but once. As little as $10 delivers a full-sized General Electric to your home tomorrow. Its savings start at once—and continue through the years. And, it's as easy to buy as the cheapest. Join the G-E Circle. A special program for women every day at noon (except Saturday). On Sunday at 5:30 P.M. a program for the whole family. N. B. CABINET RESIGNS

Vienna, May 6.—(AP)—The Austrian Cabinet headed by Chancellor Karl Buresch resigned today.

The resignations presented to President Miklas by Chancellor Buresch, were accepted but the chancellor consented to the president's request that he continue in office until a new government is formed.

The formation of a Rightist Cabinet was expected in informed circles, probably with Chancellor Buresch continuing in his post, but with representatives of the "Feldmarschall"—the Fascist Heimwehr—joining the government.

Governor Rintelen of Syria also was mentioned as a possibility for the chancellorship. The resignation followed a clamor for dissolution of the parliament and a call for new elections as a result of the provincial voting on April 24 in which the Fascists revealed spectacular strength.

The chancellor resisted the demand for dissolution, pointing out the disadvantages of calling an election in these critical times.

This afternoon President Miklas consulted the party leaders in an effort to put together a new Cabinet, but there appeared to be some difficulties in manipulating the several parties.

POST OFFICE RECEIPTS SHOW APRIL SLUMP

Fall Off Nearly $4,000 In Two Offices — Decline Sudden After Holding Up Well.

Postal receipts for the month of April in the two major local post offices reveal a decrease of close to $4,000, it was announced today. The south end office dropped $2,145.27 and the north end office did $2,499.53 less business. The north end receipts for the first quarter, however, exceeded the 1931 total for the corresponding period.

The South Manchester office receipts for the first four months of 1932 show a sharp decrease over the same period in 1931 and practically all of the loss may be charged against the month of April. The total decrease for the four months is $2,604.73 as compared to a decline of $2,145.27 for the month of April alone.

Postmaster Frank B. Crocker said that it is difficult to place a finger on any one outstanding reason for such a big drop in the receipts for April. The total receipts for January, February, March and April of 1932 were $16,778.78. The 1932 first four-month period comprises $5,477.35 for January, $3,711.85 for February, $4,469.75 for March and $3,120.10 for April. The 1931 April total was $5,385.37.

Thompson Will Play With Gems Sunday

Colored Star To Be At Second Base For Manchester-Hartford Combination Against East Hampton.

East Hampton's baseball team, winners of the Tri-County League last summer, will play in Manchester Sunday afternoon against the Gems at the West Side playgrounds. These two teams were to play here last Sunday but rain blocked their plans.

The Gems are composed of Hartford and Manchester players, with about half from each place. From the Silk City are such well known stars as Tommy Sipples, "Lefty" St. John, "Woody" Wallitt and Jack Stratton. In addition it was announced today that the Gems have obtained the services of Marsh Thompson, Negro star, to play Sunday.

Score Five Runs In Fifth To Nose Out Camels In Legion League.

Occidental College at Los Angeles, one of California's "little" fellows because its 800 students do not rank it with the Big Three, advocates Jimmy Meeks for the 1932 Olympic team. Uncle Sam will do well to make room for Jimmy.

Meeks is called the Occidental "iron man." He's the prize development of Coach Joe Pipal, who used to coach Czechoslovakia teams. In recent years, Joe's Oxy relay quartet have successfully invaded eastern and midwestern relay meets several times.

But this Meeks fellow, without having seen him perform, I'd say he is a cinch to make the 400-meter hurdles squad. He flew over the 220 lows the other day in 23.6 seconds. Resting a few minutes, he returned to the track and topped the 120 highs in 15 seconds. Still later he sped a quarter in 50 seconds, easing up in the last 30 yards to let a teammate hit the tape ahead of him. He frequently shaded 49 seconds last year, and was the hero of many thrilling mile relay victories with his sensational speed in the anchor leg.

There performances clearly indicate he could be the 400-meter hurdler in something like 53 seconds. And 53 seconds will win the event in the Olympics, besides establishing a new record.

Do You Remember?

One Year Ago Today—Old Jack Quinn gave the New York Giants five scattered hits as the Brooklyn Robins downed the McGrawmen 1 to 0 in the series final at Ebbets Field. Walker and Heving, Giant pitchers, held the Robins to four hits.

Five Years Ago Today—Babe Ruth, the showman, stepped to the plate in the 10th inning of the Yankees' exhibition game with a Fort Wayne semi-pro team, scored tied at 3 all, a teammate on first and announced the game was over and the customers could go home. He then crashed the next pitch over the right field fence.

Ten Years Ago Today—Old Dick Glendon's Navy crews, varsity and freshmen, swept Harvard and Princeton off the Charles river to win two easy rowing triumphs. The Middy varsity finished six lengths ahead of Princeton.

If the insect called the "walking stick" loses a leg, another will grow in its place.

Athletics Still Jinx To Cleveland Pitcher

(By Associated Press)

Wesley Ferrell won more games than any righthander in the American League season, 22 of them but he still is just "a cousin" to the Philadelphia Athletics.

The Cleveland ace started against the Mackmen six times last year, was knocked out of the box twice and charged with five defeats, almost half his total of reverses against all clubs. He didn't win one.

Yesterday, flushed by five consecutive victories over western teams, Ferrell was chosen to open the eastern campaign at Shibe Park. When Ferrell finally threw in the sponge in the seventh inning he had been raked for 12 hits by the league champions and the score was 11 to 2. The final count after the A's had finished 17 on Pete Jablonowski was 15 to 3 and the Indians had

Yale Grid Star Stopped In Third Round By Feary of California.

New York, May 6—(AP)—Thirty-two youngsters had punched their way into the semi-finals of the National Amateur Boxing championships today and won the right to compete in the final Olympic try-outs at San Francisco the second week in July.

The East, with the largest entry list, led all the rest with a dozen representatives in the semi-finals. The Midwest had ten; the south five; the farwest four and Honolulu 1.

These 32 survivors of an original starting field of 165 thus had won one of their two major objectives—a place in the Olympic trials. Remained, however, another goal, the eight national titles.

These will be won or lost tonight when the semi-finals will begin, before the night's battling is over all eight championships will have been decided, flyweight to heavyweight. Last night's third round competition was marked by the defeat of two of the New York team's outstanding contenders, Jack Kilcullen, Yale tackle, who was seeking heavyweight honors and Mark Hough, considered one of the nation's finest amateur 160 pounders.

Kilcullen was knocked out by Fred Feary of Stockton, Calif., in the third round. Hough lost a decision to Carmen Barth of Cleveland. Eddie Flynn, from Loyola University of New Orleans, defended champion in the welterweight class advanced to the semi-finals at the expense of Hugo Crowder of the New York delegation.

America's Biggest Race Takes Place Tomorrow

Field Is Most Open In Years With Tick On Nearest To A Favorite; Crowds Gather At Churchill Downs.

Louisville, May 6—(AP)—It's still the one horse race in America that really grips the imagination of the sports following public, this Kentucky Derby, but its 58th running tomorrow around the picture-lacking oval at Churchill Downs lacks much of its customary glamour and most of its usual thoroughbred class.

For the very reason that the field is more wide open than in years, it may be better and more exciting race but the uncertainty and unrest of the times has unquestionably struck this classic. Within four days this week, three stars including the winter book favorite, Top Flight were withdrawn and now the weather man says it looks like rain for Derby Day.

Tick On, the handsome black son of Watch and Star of the Lona Stable, owned by Mrs. Louis G. Kaufman of New York, is the nearest thing now at off 2 to 1. Run earlier than usual, and prior to the Preakness for the first time in years, the derby may develop a new three year old sensation, but the rainbirds do not look for anything approaching Twenty Grand's record performance of 2:01 4-5.

While surprises are being considered it might be well to keep an eye on Hoops, a chestnut gelding owned by W. F. Knobelkamp. Yesterday this horse won a claiming race, at a mile in the starting time of 1:37 3-5. Immediately its owner announced Hoops would be entered in the $50,000 classic along with Adobe Foot.

The consensus however is that the Derby winner likely will be found among these four entries: Tick On; Burgo King, paired with Brother Joe; Esomac, the speedy property of J. H. Louchain; Stephenfitch, coupled with Over Time, Mrs. John Hay Whitney, the former Mary Elizabeth Altman of Philadelphia, whose colors appear in the classic for the first time.

Two of the greatest jockeys of all time will ride Mrs. Whitney's entries. Buddy Ensore, making a big comeback will be astride Stephenfitch, son of The Porter. Earl Sande will have the leg up on Over Time. Sande has won three Derbies and will set a record if he wins another.

Not more than 12 to 15 three year olds were expected to be drawn for positions today after the posting of final entries.

the MAN HUNTERS

BY MABEL McELLIOTT

BEGIN HERE TODAY

SUSAN CAREY, pretty secretary, is secretly in love with BOB DUNBAR, young millionaire. At a party given by DENISE ACKBOYD, who hopes to marry Bob, Susan realizes he is not for her. Bob fights with BEN LAMPMAN, another friend of Susan's. ERNEST HEATH, Susan's employer, happens along and escorts her back to the Ackroyds' home. His wife threatens to sue for alienation of affections but JACK WARING, Heath's assistant, is able to prevent this by producing an incriminating letter. Mrs. Heath goes to Reno instead. Susan tries to forget Bob. RAY FLANNERY, girlfriend she is heartbroken because "SKY" WEBB has married another. Susan's chum, ROSE MILTON, plans to give up a career for the man she loves. Ben is angry because Heath sends Susan flowers and they quarrel. Waring learns Denise has deliberately caused a misunderstanding between Susan and Bob. Heath asks Susan to marry him when his wife's divorce decree is granted.

CHAPTER XXXIII

It was the Saturday after Heath's astounding proposal and Susan found the atmosphere of the office strained and embarrassing. She tried to appear as though nothing had changed but of course everything had.

At one o'clock after Waring and Benson had gone her employer came out and spoke to her.

"May I drive you home?" he asked.

Susan felt a sort of terror. The time for a decision had come. She had tossed and turned at night, seeking an answer, but had found none. She had not dared to confide in Aunt Jessie.

Illustrated Dressmaking Lesson Furnished with Every Pattern

Aren't the fascinating new caplet necklines too tempting for words? They are so entirely youthful and flattering.

Few models could be simpler than today's. You may note the clever way the pointed front section of the bodice breaks into a shoulder caplet. The skirt is cut along exceptionally slimming lines.

The new sheers in silk are very nice for this model. It can be worn for evenings as well as for formal afternoons.

Susan watched her friend's face fearfully. She came and stood beside Rose, touching her arm impatiently until the other girl motioned her away.

"Yes, yes," Rose kept saying. "In the morning. All right, doctor. Thank you." She turned a smiling face to Susan.

"He says she came through in fine style. She'll have a bad night, of course, but you can see her tomorrow. Oh, yes, he wants to talk to you."

Susan flung her arms around Rose's neck, sobbing with relief.

"There, there," Rose soothed. "It's all right now. There's no sense in your feeling so badly. You'd better go to bed."

The aftermath of the operation proved exceedingly painful for the sick woman, although the doctor and nurse insisted she was coming along "as well as could be expected." Susan told Dr. Smith she was worried.

"That's all right," he assured her comfortingly. "Your aunt's doing nicely. We have to expect these little ups and downs for the first few days. I've been wanting to have a little talk with you though. Your aunt isn't going to be able to rush around, working herself gray-headed when she gets up out of bed. She really should get away for a while if it can be managed." His shrewd old eyes searched the girl's face.

"I know she should," Susan told him. "She always worked too hard."

"I've warned her about this before," the doctor said. "But she won't or can't slow up. Do you think you can manage it?"

Susan thought quickly. There could be but one way. Aunt Jessie would never consent to draw on her small savings for convalescence. The girl met the doctor's gaze squarely. If she had been hoping for a sign to show her what she should do surely this was it. For almost 20 years Aunt Jessie had been taking care of her. Now it was Susan's turn.

"I think I can," she told Dr. Smith.

"Good girl." He rose. "That's

Susan never knew how she got through that terrible evening. Rose came, a pillar of strength as usual, and insisted that the other girl must eat something.

"I couldn't possibly," Susan objected.

"Well, you can drink a cup of tea, anyhow," Rose decided. The hot, fragrant beverage made Susan feel a little better but she was tense, waiting for the telephone to ring.

"I've never really appreciated Aunt Jessie," she said. "I've never been half good enough to her. She's been father and mother to me and she's worked like a slave to keep us both."

Rose comforted her. "She wanted to. She did it because it was her choice."

Susan groaned. "She's never had anything. She's cooked and scrubbed and sat up late at night sewing and she's always been worried about money."

For the first time in her life the girl realized how difficult it was to be poor, how important security was. Perhaps Aunt Jessie had been conscious for some time of that pain in her right side but had postponed seeing the doctor because she felt she could not afford to be ill. "If she gets well," Susan promised herself wildly, "I'll make it all up to her somehow."

"Of course you will," Rose said soothingly. "I'm sure of that."

"You answer," Susan begged when the telephone bell shrilled. It was almost 11 o'clock. Rose picked up the instrument and Susan crouched in her low chair, every nerve taut.

"Yes," Rose said. "Oh, I see."

YOUR CHILDREN

By Olive Roberts Barton

CHILDREN, TOO, ARE OFTEN SNOBISH—

One day after school a lady walked into her small daughter's bedroom where three small schoolmates were chattering and gossiping like a sewing circle.

"She was just in time to hear her own girl assert dramatically that 'she couldn't bear somebody and wasn't going to walk with her or even speak to her,' and to hear the 'me others' of the others."

"Who is it?" she asked with immediate interest.

"Oh, just Sara Jones—"

"Who is this terrible Sara?"

"You know those Joneses, mother. She's always trying to break into our crowd; and we don't like her."

"You're anybody go with her?"

"Oh, I guess so, but she likes us and we won't go well, where she belongs. She is a regular little snob!"

"Snob? You mean she high hats everybody but you girls?"

The girls laughed and one of them said, "She couldn't high hat anybody when she wears such queer clothes." Then catching a certain look in the lady's eye she added hastily, "not that it makes any difference about her being poor. We just don't like her."

"So she walks alone and stays alone. I think I have seen her passing here. She always looks neat and clean to me. Is she smart?"

"Yes," came the chorus. "She gets the best marks in the class. The teacher's pet, that's what she is. When the teacher goes out she lets her watch the room."

"Does she talk on you?"

"No. We act up like everything but she never says a word when Miss White comes back and asks her. She just looks around and smiles as much as to say, 'Now isn't this nice of me to talk to you?'"

"But—Who's the snob?"

"It seems to me that the teacher is putting her in a very bad position."

"What's wrong, mother? You set so funny? We can't help not liking her."

"I was just wondering," was the reply, "who is the snob." She looked directly at her daughter. "I think the least you could do is to be nice to her, walk with her, and be decent. I hope you are not going through life just being polite and friendly to a dozen people with whom you are intimate."

"I just knew I'd get a lecture."

"Yes, you are, here and now, and I don't want you to forget it, ever. The real test of a lady is her willingness to be amiable to people who are friendly to her. There is too much rudeness these days. I get a shock everytime I go out at the lack of courtesy in so-called 'ladies.' Girls, this talk is for Muriel. I am only scolding her."

"I guess we all deserve it," said the girls on the bed. "We'll listen."

"Very well, my dear, but that is about all. I don't want my daughter to snub anybody on earth. And it won't hurt her to make this little girl happy by being pleasant and treating her like a human being. Tell you the truth, I think you are all a bit jealous."

"We'll all be nice to her," agreed the girls readily. "I guess we are jealous."

The real spirit of democracy begins in childhood. And mothers can do much to encourage it. We are all too "clicky." It is bad for the individual as well as for the nation.

Your Child's Health

By Dr. Morris Fishbein

EARLY TRAINING MEANS MUCH TO FUTURE HEALTH AND HYGIENE OF CHILD

Habits of Cleanliness Should Be Formed Early—Outside Play Also Essential.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the second of a series of six articles by Dr. Fishbein on "Your Child's Health." Others will follow daily.

BY DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN

Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine.

Any child can be given simple lessons in personal hygiene and nutrition. Once habits of cleanliness are established they need be given little further attention. They will mean to the child so much satisfaction that it is likely to continue without more than an ordinary amount of regulation.

Every mother ought to be able to instruct her child in personal cleanliness. The hands should be washed before eating and after going to the bathroom and whenever they are unusually soiled. The finger nails should be cleaned at least once each day, and the fingers should be kept away from the eyes, ears, nose and mouth.

Every child ought to have a bath at least twice a week and every day if possible. Bathing cleanses the skin, removes dust and oil from the pores, and in addition helps the functions of the body. It does this by stimulating the circulation of the blood. A cold bath with a brisk rub is invigorating; a warm bath is quieting and helps to induce sleep. Finally, the bath serves to remove parasites from the body and to keep away odors.

It seems rather simple to give instructions as to how to take a bath, but every child has to be taught. It must learn how to get water of the right temperature, how to use a wash cloth, how to clean the neck and the ears, and how to keep the scalp clean.

The toothbrush ought to be used morning and night, and under some circumstances even after each meal. Any good toothbrush will do, since the shape and size and similar characteristics are merely matters of taste and have not been found to be of special importance in securing a satisfactory result.

If the child prefers any particular toothpaste, it may have the one it prefers, since several of the leading toothpastes sold in the country today have been found by official bodies to be satisfactory. Teeth should be brushed with a circular motion, which will include the gums, the tops, the inside and outside of both upper and lower teeth.

Every child should have proper sleep and rest; the young ones an extra nap in the afternoon. They should learn the importance of standing erect, with the abdomen and the chin in.

Outside play, particularly in fall, spring and summer, is essential to health and happiness. It develops leadership, teaches good sportsmanship, and above all provides the child with sunlight and fresh air. Under such a program children will be found to improve in their

SCANDIA LODGE BESTOWS SERVICE EMBLEMS ON 5

More Than 200 Attend 32d Anniversary Benefit Dance and Entertainment.

More than 200 persons gathered at Orange Hall last night for the benefit entertainment and dance sponsored by Scandia Lodge, No. 23, Order of Vasa, in celebration of its thirty-second anniversary. In a brief ceremony, District Deputy Arthur Lantz of Hartford, assisted by Miss Ebba V. Gustafson, president of the local lodge, presented service pins to Carl E. Thoren, August Carlson, Carl A. Anderson, Sven E. Johnson and Anton Chelberg in recognition of their twenty-five years or more of membership in the lodge. Two members eligible for the award, Julius Johnson and August Larson, were unable to be present.

The program opened with a selection by Bill Waddell's orchestra, followed by a short address of welcome by President Gustafson. G. Albert Pearson, prominent local bass soloist, sang two groups of two numbers each, "Old Black Mare," "Home on the Range," "Barndrom-shummet" and "Mor, Lilla Mor," accompanied by Miss Eva M. Johnson. His splendid singing brought much applause from the audience, which after the last number amounted to an ovation.

ABOUT TOWN

Word has been received in town of the birth of a son, to Mr. and Mrs. David Housen, of Orange, Mass. Mr. Housen for some time conducted the Depot Square Garage at North Main and North School streets.

Forget-me-not Circle of Junior Kings Daughters will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 with Miss Beatrice Lydall of 22 Hudson street. The girls are reminded to bring their Maybaskets, also their gifts for a sunshine basket.

Tonight at 8:15 the Married Couples Club of the Second Congregational church will give a minstrel show and dance. "Bill" Dillon has been coaching the principals and with "Andy" Anderson, another well-known local comedian, will take part in the show.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kitten of Miami, Florida, are spending a vacation at the home of Mrs. Kitten's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson of West street. They are planning to leave for Boston where they will make their home.

The Cecilian Club, under the direction of Thomas Maxwell, and Mrs. Merrifield's Plectral Players, will give a concert this evening at the Baptist church in Willimantic, similar to that presented at the South Methodist church here on Tuesday evening, in observance of National Music Week. Selections will include compositions of the old masters as well as American composers. Mr. Maxwell expects that the Plectralists, a comparatively new musical organization by five local girls, who perform on five-stringed instruments, and had a prominent part in Tuesday's concert, will be on the program this evening. Miss Gladys Carlisle is director and first banjoist, Miss Maxine and Miss Helen Odedonk, first and second banjoists, and Miss Mary and Miss Fanny Curgenven, second banjoist and pianist respectively.

Younger members of St. Mary's Girls Friendly society will have a social at the parish house this evening at 7:30. Miss Alice Attkin heads the committee in charge.

Robert Kelso has returned to his home in Paterson, N. J., after spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. Joseph Muldoon of Eldridge street.

James Bayliss of Henry street, who has been on the sick list for several days, has developed scarlet fever. He is a junior in Manchester High school and makes his home with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Donahue.

The Young People's society of the Zion Lutheran church on Cooper street will have a business meeting this evening at 7:30 at the church. This will be the annual meeting with reports and election of officers for the coming year.

Mrs. Stuart G. Segar of Oxford street has been appointed chairman of a committee in charge of a public bridge party to be given Tuesday afternoon, May 24, at the Y. M. C. A., for the benefit of the Open Air school on North School street. Assisting Mrs. Segar will be Mrs. D. D. Austin, Mrs. C. E. Loomis and Mrs. Elton Johnson.

Manchester High School's debating team has chosen the subject of "Unemployment Insurance" for their debate Monday noon before the Kiwanis club at its weekly meeting at the Hotel Sheridan. The boys are Merrill Rubinow, George Marlow, James Toman and Stewart Josiah. Past President Dr. D. C. Y. Moore will preside.

TWO STUDENTS INJURED

Norwalk, May 6 — (AP)—Victor Marchetti, 18, and Bernard Haggerty, 17, Springfield, Mass., high school students were seriously injured early today while riding on top of a truck from Port Chester, N. Y., to Norwalk. Both boys are in the Norwalk hospital. Marchetti with a fractured skull and Haggerty with severe lacerations of the scalp and face.

Carl Johnson of Hawthorne, N. J., driver of the truck heard moans and screams as he was passing through here on the Boston Post road and when he stopped the truck, Haggerty alide from the canvas top. Marchetti was lying on the top unconscious. Haggerty said they boarded the truck at Port Chester and that the last he remembers was seeing a sign "three miles of Green." Police and truck driver say that the boys were apparently struck by a low hanging limb of a tree or by the structure work of a railroad bridge.

PROFESSOR'S WIFE SUCCESS IN ART

Exhibits 28 Canvases in New York—Was 20 Years Without Touching Brush.

New York, May 6.—(AP)—All his time—the past twenty years—Alice Stallknecht has been looking at things and mentally painting them, but never a brush to canvas or a pencil to paper did she apply.

Then her husband retired as professor of Greek at Johns Hopkins and the family went to Chatham, N. Y., to live on the seacoast. "The family" included her son, Frederick White, successful portrait painter.

So there, in the midst of paint and coastal scenes and colorful fashion life, and urged on by a son who thought it would be nice to have a mother follow in his footsteps, Alice Stallknecht rubbed pigment with brush and not only amazed her friends, but bowled over herself.

28 Paintings
Twenty-eight dazzling canvases on the walls of the Ferragil galleries, each of them close to the soil and powerful—so say the critics—in their drawing and color, attest what twenty years of "just thinking" will do.

When she was a girl, Miss Stallknecht—she is Mrs. Doctor Carroll van Buren White—studied life drawing for a little while at the New York School of Applied Design.

Then she let it drop in favor of being married and applying herself to the task of raising the son who was to become a painter, and to the social duties that devolve upon the wife of a professor.

Only once did she get an inkling that her artistic talent was developing despite the lack of practice and that was during the war when she attended class for a time in the Pennsylvania Academy at Philadelphia.

Both she and her son are classed as "moderns." She is a native of Orange, N. J.

This Morning—Actual Freezing Began Yesterday

At 7 o'clock this morning the L. T. Wood ice plant on Bissell street produced the first 100 tons of ice for local consumption. The plant was started up yesterday morning after workmen spent the entire night checking up on the final details.

For the first hour the temperature of the water in the hundreds of ice tanks slowly reduced from 50 degrees to 44 degrees and at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon ice began to form on the edge of the tanks when the temperature of the water dropped to 32 degrees.

The plant is being run on eight hour shifts and the two large compressors will run continuously except for repairs. Much of the planning for the plant and the drawings for the elaborate pipe lines and modern accessory equipment were made by Samuel Stevens, one of the partners of the company.

The front area of the plant has been so arranged as to allow a small grass plot and a gasoline pump for service to the company's trucks. The plant has been under construction for four months and the equipment is considered the best obtainable.

PROFESSOR'S WIFE SUCCESS IN ART

Exhibits 28 Canvases in New York—Was 20 Years Without Touching Brush.

New York, May 6.—(AP) — All this time—the past twenty years—Alice Stallmecht has been looking at things and mentally painting them, but never a brush to canvas nor a pencil to paper did she apply.

Then her husband retired as professor of Greek at Johns Hopkins and the family went to Chatham, Mass., to live on the seacoast.

The family included her son, Frederick White, successful portrait painter.

So there, in the midst of paint and coastal scenes and colorful fishermen life, and urged on by a son who thought it would be nice to have a mother follow in his footsteps, Alice Stallmecht rubbed pigment with brush and not only amazed her friends, but bowled over herself.

28 Paintings
Twenty-eight dazzling canvases on the walls of the Ferragil gallery, each of them close to the soil and powerful—so say the critics—in their drawing and color, attest what twenty years of "just thinking" will do.

When she was a girl, Miss Stallmecht—she is Mrs. Doctor Carroll van Buren White—studied life drawing for a little while at the New York School of Applied Design.

Then she let it drop in favor of being married and applying herself to the task of raising the son who was to become a painter, and to the social duties that devolve upon the wife of a professor.

Only once did she get an inkling that her artistic talent was developing despite the lack of practice and that was during the war when she attended class for a time in the Pennsylvania Academy at Philadelphia.

Both she and her son are classed as "modernists." She is a native of Orange, N. J.

Road in Northwest Section Badly in Need of Repair—Completes Bissess St. Job.

The town scarifier, which was in use on Bissess street for three days to the repair work down on that street, was started off on its own power this morning to a job in the northwest part of the town and at noon had started work tearing up Windsor street, a road that runs north from Tolland turnpike near the Buckland cemetery. This road was given considerable attention several years ago and was turned from a mudhole into a passable roadway by dumping hundreds of loads of cinders and stone into the roadbed. It opened a new artery for residents living in the extreme northwest part of the town and the

After testifying, Mrs. McLean and Harrison conferred with Leo A. Rover, United States district attorney. Justice Department officials talked with the butler.

Means has been charged with larceny after trust. He is confined in the District of Columbia jail upon failure to post $100,000 bond.

AUTO VICTIM DIES

New Haven, May 6.—(AP)—William Collins, 17, whose leg was nearly severed last night when a truck struck the motorcycle on which he was riding died today in a hospital.

Itela Branchini, Collins' companion on the motorcycle remained in critical condition with compound fractures of the leg and arm and a head injury. Joseph Francesco, 38, suffered internal injuries when he was pinned to a tree by the truck after the collision.

Anthony Mazarro, driver of the truck was ordered held.

Washington, May 6.—(AP)—The jaunty figure of Gaston Means, notorious figure for a generation, plumped himself sensationally yesterday into the Lindbergh kidnaping case limelight and into jail.

The one-time Justice Department investigator and ex-convict was charged with obtaining $100,000 from Mrs. Edward B. McLean, wife of the publisher of the Washington Post, by falsely representing that he could return the missing Lindbergh child.

The child was unfolded by attorneys for Mrs. McLean and by two men who assisted her in negotiations through which Means allegedly got the money, led the prominent woman on a fruitless chase to Alken, S. C., and to the Mexican border, and then failed to return either child or money.

Means would not tell his side of it. Before a United States commissioner he pleaded not guilty, bond was set at $100,000 and on failure to post it, he was jailed. Preliminary hearing was set for Tuesday.

WRIST IS INFECTED AFTER KNIFE WOUND

Henry T. Coleman, Company G Veteran, Goes To Newington Hospital For Treatment.

Henry T. Coleman, of 17 Oakland street, was removed today to the Veterans' hospital in Newington, suffering with an infected wrist. Mr. Coleman accidentally cut himself Tuesday evening with a pocket-knife, but did not think the wound of sufficient importance to call a physician. He worked as usual Wednesday but the arm began to bother him, and last night it was so painful he was unable to sleep. Today the infection had spread so that it was decided to take him to the Veterans' hospital. Coleman was a former member of Company G and saw service as a mechanic with the company overseas during the World War.

Should Governor Judd decide on pardoning the almost certainly will do in the face of criticism from the native element and a portion of the white population.

To the displeasure expressed by the natives to the commutation of sentence was added yesterday the protest of A. G. M. Robertson, former chief justice of the Territorial Supreme Court.

He asserted "a pardon would condone lynch law and set a disastrous precedent."

The citizens' organization for good government, made up largely of white women, has circulated petitions "demanding" a pardon.

It became practically an accepted fact today that the four men accused of attacking Mrs. Massie would not be brought to trial again, with her husband ordered transferred to another assignment. Mrs. Massie and her mother, Mrs. Fortescue, have booked passage on the Malolo, which sails Sunday.

The Globe Hollow Ice House, located on the west shore of the west pond at Globe Hollow, and used first for the storage of ice by Carl Seaman and later by L. T. Wood, is being torn down. It was the largest ice storage house in Manchester, and was situated with a steam hoisting cleat drawn elevator that could deliver 80 three hundred pound cakes of ice an hour into the house. It has recently been badly in need of repair. It will also remove an eyesore to one of Manchester's most and most exclusive real estate developments.

GOOD THINGS TO EAT

OFTEN INDICED

New York, May 6.—(AP)—Gaston Bullock Means, who again has been named into big print, once told a Senate committee, with a smile, that his business consisted of "being indicted."

A hectic jumble of suits, trials, adventure and misadventure made him a headline star for years. He has been a sleuth, German agent before the World War, investigator for the Department of Justice, star witness of a Senate committee investigating Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty's official conduct, juicy raconteur and inmate of Atlanta Federal penitentiary.

The whole country first heard of him 15 years ago after Mrs. Maude A. King, young and wealthy North Carolina matron for whom he had been engaged as a peacemaker, suffered a fatal pistol wound.

Employed As Guard

Employed to guard Mrs. King against an alleged fortune hunter Means had been receiving money from her to invest. One day, at Blackwelder's Spring, near Concord, N. C., Means' birthplace, Means and Mrs. King, according to his story later on the witness stand, went out to get some pistol practice. Means

20 YEARS OF ILL HEALTH

Then Mrs. Duke Discovered Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

Of her own accord, Mrs. Duke sat down and wrote a glowing tribute to Kellogg's ALL-BRAN:

"I have been constipated all my life, which has been about 20 years, up until last year when I started eating your ALL-BRAN. Since I have been eating it, people tell me I am looking better, and I am sure that I feel a great deal better."—Mrs. L. W. Duke, 210 Hardin Ave., College Park, Ga.

Constipation is usually caused by lack of two things in the diet: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines; Vitamin B to help give them tone. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides both of these dietary necessities, as well as iron for the blood.

Within the body, the "bulk" in ALL-BRAN forms a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes.

How much more natural it is to enjoy this delicious cereal than to risk taking pills and drugs—so often harmful.

Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily—serious cases with every meal—for most types of constipation. ALL-BRAN is not habit forming. Intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Sold in the red-and-green packages. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

HOUSEWIVES NOW PHONE TIP, PEDDLER COMING

Band Together To Keep Doors Closed Against Swarms of Itinerant Salesmen.

The Chamber of Commerce today repeated its warning against the itinerant peddlers that are swarming over the town.

In another section of the town the housewives have been so annoyed by agents, worthy and unworthy, they have no means of knowing which—that they are held up by voluble sales talk or hard luck story, she immediately notifies the neighbors by telephone and there is no answer when the vendor rings the door bell elsewhere.

Marilla Metcalf, Louise Götter and Albert Götter are the Rockville High school seniors from Tolland who are on the eight-seeing tour in Washington and vicinity during this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Sparrow and daughter, Mrs. Donald Hicks of North Woodstock, were guests Monday of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Neyman and other former neighbors.

Mrs. Zoe Beckley and sister Mrs. Virginia Fulenwider, left Tuesday for a few days in New York City.

Mrs. Ellen B. West of Hartford and Tolland is spending the week at her Snipic home with her sons and their families.

The regular meeting of Tolland Grange was held Tuesday evening at the Federated church, social rooms with visitors from Manchester and Southington Granges.

spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Henry Wilkins, has returned to New York City for a few days and Mrs. Wilkins' sister, Mrs. Peter Wagner, who has been a guest there, had returned home.

MAY BE BIGAMIST

White Plains, N. Y., May 6.—(AP)—The Westchester County Grand Jury will investigate charges made by Pearl Hawthorn Spector, a Buffalo beauty parlor owner, that the man believed by her to be her husband, Theodore L. Spector, from whom she has been separated for several years, married Olive Gordon, across the street, last year and is guilty of bigamy.

Chief Assistant District Attorney Walter E. Ferris said today the allegations by the Buffalo woman would be given to the Grand Jury during the week of May 16.

Ferris said he may have Mrs. Spector and Miss Gordon meet soon to decide if Spector actually is the man.

A man named Theodore Spector, giving his residence as Paterson, N. J., and his business as that of a broker, obtained a license and married Miss Gordon on March 28, 1931, in Paterson, N. J. In the license Spector said it was his first marriage.

SENSE AND NONSENSE

The Boy Who Didn't Pass

A sad faced little fellow sits alone in deep disgrace. There's a lump arising in his throat and tears drop down his face. He wandered from his playmates, for he doesn't want to hear their shouts of merry laughter, since the world has lost its cheer.

He has sipped the cup of sorrow, he has dipped the bitter glass, and his heart is fairly breaking—he's the boy who didn't pass.

"In the apple tree the robin sings a cheery little song, but he doesn't seem to hear it, showing plainly something's wrong."

Comes his faithful little spaniel for a romp and a bit of play, but the troubled little fellow bids him sternly go away. And alone, he sits in sorrow, with his hair a tangled mass, and his eyes are red with weeping—he's the boy who didn't pass.

"Oh, you who boast a laughing son, and speak of him as bright, and you who love a little girl who comes to you at night with shining eyes and dancing feet, with honors from her school, turn to that lonely little lad who thinks he is a fool, and take him kindly by the hand, the dullest of his class, he is the one who most needs love the boy who didn't pass."

A college boy in telling a friend of the good time he had at a recent college dance, said: "Boy, I had a slick time at the prom. My date was plenty smooth, the floor was slippery and I was well oiled."

Teacher—Now, Johnny, what did Caesar exclaim when Brutus stabbed him?
Johnny—Ouch!

What has become of the old-fashioned father and mother who went to church on Sundays with the whole family and filled up one or more pews?

Mike—Did ye ever speak before a large audience, Pat?
Pat—Fairly large, I did.
Mike—An' what did ye say?
Pat—Not guilty.

We feel sorry for the man who always seems to be overworked. What we need is more appreciation for the man who handles his job so skillfully that he never seems to be crowded, and always has time for that extra job.

Dare More and Don't Depress
"If people would—
Whistle more and whine less,
Hustle more and holler less,
Work more and worry less,
Boost more and beat less,
Give more and grab less,
Dare more and not depress—
Business would be a blank sight better!"

STATIC: It is the blowhard who usually gets the harpoon. The whale would be all right if it didn't come up to spout. . . . The saddest part about war is that they never kill off those responsible for them. . . . Among the things which Emily Post forgot to mention—the tactful way of asking a gangster's daughter to go out for a ride. . . . It seems to us the more laws the more criminals. Every new law produces a crop of crooks. . . . When you complain about what you think other people don't do just think about how much you do. . . . There is nothing certain about luck except that it is bound to change. . . . Most old maids poignantly regret their state. But many of their married sisters secretly envy them. . . . Some legislators seem to believe that it is possible to tax our national wealth 101 per cent. . . . By all means have a referendum before declaring war. Then let those who want it pay for the thing.

Fussy Lady (who has been a long time in selecting her purchase)—But I don't think this is lamb. It looks to me like mutton.
Exasperated Butcher—It was lamb when I first showed it to you, lady.

When asked if he filled his date the previous night, a youth said: "Well, I should hope so. She ate everything on the bill of fare."

Daughter—Mother, does daddy kiss my little kitten?
Mother—No 'ar, but why do you ask such a foolish question?

Daughter—Well, last night when I went by our maid's room, I heard daddy say to her: "I like to kiss you ten times better than the old cat."

The buscle is coming back, it is suggested in fashion circles, but surely no girl who has ever seen pictures of the women of another generation can believe that.

A man walking along a country road found an Irishman perched upon a sign post which pointed north, with the inscription "THIS WILL TAKE YOU TO MALVERN."
The Man—Why are you up there?
The Irishman—Faith, I've been sittin' here for two hours and I'm wonderin' what time it starts.

Keeney Street
TONIGHT!
Dancing and Refreshments.
$5 Gold Piece Door Prize.

ABOUT TOWN

The publicity given to the fact that about forty Manchester youngsters during the vacation period fished from rafts on Globe reservoir has had some effect. Yesterday a member of the police department visited the pond south of the Country Club and found but a half dozen boys with fish poles leaning on the fence. They asked if "fishing was allowed" and Manchester's drinking water and fishing was not permitted.

W. B. A. Guards will have a rehearsal tonight in Tinker hall at 7:30 sharp for the drill which they are to put on at the state rally in New Britain, May 18. After practice the guards will have a social at the home of Mrs. Paul Hussey of Oak street.

Town Treasurer George H. Waddell has accepted the invitation of the Flag Day Committee of the Rockville Lodge of Elks to read the Elks' history of the flag at the public Flag Day exercises in Talcott Park, Rockville, Tuesday evening, June 14. Other speakers on the Elks Flag Day program will be Henry C. Smith of Rockville who will deliver the Elks' tribute to the flag and Rev. Percy E. Thomas of Lowell, Mass., formerly of Rockville who will deliver the Flag Day address.

Howard, nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto E. Kohl of 809 Spruce street, has entered the Nursery for the Blind in Farmington. The boy had been attending the Nathan Hale school but his sight has been gradually failing owing to a cataract. Upon advice of a local eye expert, Howard was transferred to the Farmington institution. He is not totally blind. The Kohls have three other children, two boys and a girl.

Star of the East, Royal Black Perceptory No. 13, will meet in Orange hall this evening at 8 o'clock for its regular monthly business session. The Royal Black degree will be conferred and several sir-nights will be raised to higher degrees. A number of applications for membership will also be acted upon.

Friends in town have received announcements of the birth of a daughter, Peggy Louise, to Mr. and Mrs. William S. Bunnell of Reading, Pa. The baby was born May 3 and is the granddaughter of Mrs. Margaret Aitkin of Summit street, who is with her daughter in Reading. Mrs. Bunnell was the former Miss Lolita Aitkin of this town.

Rockville of Elks will hold a bi-centennial charity dance this evening in the College Inn, Bolton. Music will be by Bill Tassilo's 10-piece orchestra.

Miss Catherine Patten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Patten of Hollister street, a senior in Manchester High school, underwent an operation at St. Francis hospital yesterday for an acute mastoid condition. Her condition is reported today as satisfactory.

Kings Herald and Junior Girl Scouts of the South Methodist church will leave the church tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock for a hike. The children are reminded to bring something for supper.

Cards announcing the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Dominick Berardelli of Pittsburgh have been received by their Manchester friends. The baby, who has been named Bernard Joseph, was born at St. Francis hospital, Pittsburgh. Mrs. Berardelli was the former Miss Nellie DeMann of North Main street.

The Luther League of the Swedish Lutheran church will meet at 8 o'clock tonight. After the business session a May basket social will be held, in charge of Raymond Benson, and his decorating committee.

The Junior Boys' Glee Club of the Swedish Lutheran church will rehearse at 7:30 o'clock tonight instead of 7 o'clock.

Andrew Galli of 156 Bissell street enlisted in the U. S. Navy in Hartford yesterday and was sent to the Newport Naval Training Station for training.

CHAMBER TO INSPECT STATE TRADE SCHOOL

Final Meeting of Commerce Group To Be Held At School On 25th of May.

The final monthly meeting of the Manchester Chamber of Commerce before the summer season, no meetings being held in June, July or August, will take place at the Manchester State Trade school on Wednesday evening, May 25. The gathering will be in the form of a tour of inspection to make the Chamber members better acquainted with the work being carried on in the Trade school under the guidance of Director J. G. Echmalian.

The evening's program will begin with a roast beef dinner. The tour of inspection under the guidance of members of the Trade school faculty will follow. Then there will be an entertainment furnished by students from the school. The school orchestra will play. The principal speaker of the evening will be Herman S. Hall of New Britain, state supervisor of industrial and vocational education.
