

HARTFORD DISTRICT WOMEN RALLY HERE

Members of Congregational Church Council Meet in Town Today.

Two of the six associations of the Hartford District of the Council of Congregational Women of Connecticut met at the Center Congregational church today for an inspirational rally to stimulate further interest in the work of the Council.

The morning session was devoted to informal discussions of "Our Council at Work" led by Miss Sylvia Norton and Mrs. Newton B. Hobart.

Two local girls will also speak this afternoon. Miss McComb will report on the Storrs Conference and Miss Ruth Flagg on the Northfield Summer conference.

TRIO'S TALE OF BEAR CATCHING NOW BARE

Manchester Young Tell About Hunting Cubs in Trees But They Really Got Porcupines.

The "bear" tale being circulated about town by Henry McCann, Christopher McHale, Jr., and Isaac Coleman since their trip to New Hampshire's wilds last week, is a "far" tale now.

The young men sought the "porks" while strolling through the hills about Lake Stinson at Rumney, N. H., where Wilfred J. Clarke has his summer camp.

In an effort to bear out their tale about catching the "porcupine" produces the tails and the feet of the animals as they somewhat resemble a bear's extremities.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Russell Wolfram of 118 Autumn street and Mrs. Sadie Fyler of 17 Norman street were admitted yesterday.

ISOLATED RABIES CASE IS DISCOVERED HERE

Not Much Danger of Contagion Spread So Authorities Will Not Take Drastring Action.

What appears to have been an isolated case of rabies has been discovered in Manchester. The dog in question was killed and the head forwarded to the state laboratory where examination revealed a positive case of the disease.

In view of certain circumstances relative to the dog in question, it was believed that there probably was no local board of health officials have decided to play a waiting game.

THREE MEET DEATH IN BURNING AUTO

Kin of Former President Coolidge Among Victims; Three Others Injured.

Boston, May 11.—(AP)—Fred D. Pollard, Jr., of Newton, prominent Boston attorney and a second cousin of former President Coolidge, and his wife and a Boston youth were burned to death early today in a head-on collision of two automobiles.

Three others were injured in the accident which occurred on Commonwealth avenue across from the home of William Cardinal O'Connell.

The Pollards were so badly burned that definite identification was impossible for several hours. The identification was finally confirmed by Dr. Eugene Pollard of Boston, a cousin of the victim.

The injured were: George Heuser, 18, driver of one of the machines, Agnes Collins, 18, and Josephine Carey, 19, all of Boston. They were taken to St. Elizabeth's hospital. Heuser escaped with minor injuries; Miss Collins received a probable fracture of the arm and severe burns on the legs, and Miss Carey sustained a fractured leg and cuts about the face.

John Casely, a taxi driver, who arrived on the scene shortly after the burning machines in an effort to split the cars apart and allow rescuers to drag out those imprisoned within. He was forced to stop his efforts when the flames threatened his own car.

The Pollards, in a small coupe, were driving toward their home in Newton and the second machine, a sedan containing the two girls and two men, was traveling toward Boston from Marlboro, where they had stopped at Heuser's cottage.

Pollard was a member of the law firm of Dallinger, Pollard and Richardson, which is headed by Congressman Frederick W. Dallinger.

The Ladies' Sewing Circle of the Concordia Lutheran church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Memorial Temple, Pythian Sisters, followed a brief business meeting last night in Odd Fellows hall with an entertainment and social at which the Knights of Memorial lodge were guests.

This statement came after a prolonged wrangle over whether, under House rules, Britten could make a reference to the Glass speech.

The chair, occupied by Rep. Browning (D. Tenn.) ruled Britten could not quote from Glass' speech so the Chicagoan confined his remarks to newspaper reports and did not mention Glass by name.

This impugns the honesty and purpose of every member of this House," Britten shouted.

Waterbury, Conn., May 11.—(AP)—Fifteen possible victims of a rabid dog were rounded up here today by Dr. E. J. Godfrey, city health officer, for serum treatment, following a positive diagnosis of rabies after examination of the dog's head.

The dog wandered through the east end of the city and into Wolcott's yard before its capture. This impugns the honesty and purpose of every member of this House," Britten shouted.

NATIONAL HOSPITAL DAY TOMORROW

Local Institution To Be Open For Inspection By Public, 10 A. M. To 5:30 P. M.

Tomorrow is National Hospital Day and the Manchester Memorial Hospital will hold open house from 10 a. m. until 5:30 p. m. to allow special conducted tours through the local institution.

The various departments of the hospital will be visited and attendants will explain the features of each department. The trustees of the hospital will be in attendance and will assist in the long program of events scheduled for the children which will start at 3 o'clock on the hospital lawn.

Children's Program The children's program arranged by Mrs. Jane J. Aldrich in co-operation with Miss Elizabeth Bennet, Miss Ruth Hampton, Miss Elizabeth Smith, Miss Sophie Ferderber and Joseph Dean, will include a doll carriage parade for the kindergarten kiddies of the Nathan Hale school; a baby carriage parade participated in by seventh grade girls.

These girls will compete with their own or neighbors' babies and will pass in review before the judges. Awards will be given in the latter contest with reference to the best decorated carriage.

The bed-making contest for girls of the eighth grade will be judged for efficiency, neatness and speed. Beds will be made with and without patients. An Hygiene contest will be next in order for eighth grade boys. Prizes will be awarded in all events.

A poster contest has been held during the past few weeks in the primary, elementary, and Junior High schools. Boy Scouts will put on a first aid demonstration under the direction of Joseph Dean.

The Manchester Memorial hospital is competing with thousands of other Grade A hospitals throughout the country in presenting the most original "Hospital Day" program. In the past few years the hospital has celebrated the occasion with a "Baby Day" at which time all babies born at the hospital during the year return with their mothers for a visit.

The various events which have been on display all week in Watkins Brothers' window on Main street are as follows:

Bed-making contest, 8th grade girls—1st prize, bedspread; 2nd prize, pajamas, donated by J. W. Hale Co.

SAVANIS PREPARE FOR SUN'S ECLIPSE

To Take Photographs In Eastern New England On August 31.

Middletown, Conn., May 11.—(AP)—After setting up ponderous instruments to make observations during the one hundred seconds of a total eclipse August 31, astronomers will have about a "50-50" chance of cloudy weather to render them helpless, Professor Frederick Stoom of Wesleyan said today.

Prof. Stoom was named chairman of a committee of the American Astronomical Society to study weather throughout these areas of Eastern New England in which the eclipse will be total and prepare advice as to the possibility of clear observations. Scientists with the Mount Wilson observatory, he said in a speech before the student chapel today, are preparing to gather data from Lancaster, N. H., and other scientists will be posted in other places.

If no observations are made on this occasion, no other opportunity will be offered until April 8, 1934, he said. The principal value of eclipse observation lies in the possibilities of studying the nature of gases surrounding the sun.

Complete darkness in the August eclipse will sweep in a 100-mile path from the Arctic ocean, through the eastern provinces of Canada, through New Hampshire and East-ern Massachusetts, across Cape Cod and out to sea, he said.

FORTUNE FIGURES IN DIVORCE SUIT

"Isn't it true," he asked, "that upon your coming into a possible inheritance an undesirable condition will be created if Gray remains your husband? Will it not give him an interest in the inheritance that is not desired?"

Not Desired Mrs. Gray's only reply was "It was not desired."

It is reported that Mrs. Gray's grandmother, Mrs. Charles S. League, of New York City, one of three relatives against whom Gray is bringing a $500,000 allegation of affection suit, is worth several millions of dollars. It is believed the granddaughter will eventually inherit a large part of this fortune.

Attorney Reich also asked Mrs. Gray on the stand if she had not been induced by her grandmother and father to remove Gray.

"No!" was her emphatic reply. Calls Him Cruel

"Then you want the court to believe you have ceased to love Gray?" "Yes, he was cruel to me," she replied.

Mrs. Gray became highly emotional when she was shown love letters written by her to her husband in the early years of their marriage.

She claimed, however, that the terms of endearment contained in the letters written around June 1, 1931, were purely a matter of habit and used solely to keep peace in the family.

Shown Own Letters Yesterday, at the opening of the trial Mrs. Gray said her husband had always spoken disparagingly of her family. But she blushed today when Attorney Reich showed her letters she had written to her husband in which she, herself, speaks highly disparagingly of her own family.

One of them said, "so you can see what a nice family I have. Personally, with one or two exceptions, I would not go around the corner to meet any of them."

In another letter she says: "I do believe we can go without my grandmother."

Mrs. League, 77, of New York City, Mrs. Gray's grandmother, declined any of the charges brought by the husband's attorney against her and told of a $500,000 check she had given the Grays as a gift.

EAST HAMPTON STABLE WINS ROCKVILLE BOUTS

Promoter Bride Sees His Men Take Three Awards — Next Card in the Open.

The Rockville men, who have been promoting boxing in that city for the past six months, closed their indoor season in the presentation of ten three round bouts at Town Hall, Rockville last night and on May 24 the scene will shift for the gladiators to a new arena now in course of construction at Sandy Beach, Crystal Lake. The closing program brought joy to the veteran promoter Bride of East Hampton who was an active performer in the squared circle back before the tussle with Spain, in which scrap he also took part as a member of Company G of Manchester.

taken over the handling of four or five boys in the roped circle. Four of these he presented last night and on three occasions he carried away the gold watch but Mike Murphy, one of his contenders had to be satisfied with a brown derby.

The evening festive ties opened between Mike Murphy of East Hampton at 123 pounds against "Kid" Forbes of Monson, 120 1-2 pounds. Mike never had a chance to get started, the award going to Forbes. Eddie Bannington, 136, was pitted against Al Satryb of Rockville, 135 1-2, who has been given many chances to show his ability. Bannington proved to be a superior instructor and was awarded the decision.

Young Stanley of Windsor Locks, 158 pounds was scheduled to meet Johnny Fox, 161 pounds of Hartford in a three round bout which ended suddenly when Fox went to the floor and showed no desire to get up. Mike Leonard, 124, Ware, Mass., took such a big lead in the first two rounds that the effort of Young Griffo, 127 1-2 pounds of East Hartford in the last stanza was not sufficient to overcome the lead piled up by Leonard who was awarded the match.

The go between John Mack of New Britain, 127, and Peter Burke of Ware, 128 1-2, was hotly contested going the limit with a decision in favor of Mack. Wally Bonail, 139, New Britain, won the decision over Lefty Gibbs, 136, of Monson.

Toe-toe fighting was furnished by Young Terry, 150, of Windsor Locks and Jack Williams of Monson, 150, Williams winning by a knockout in the second. George Halliday, 147, East Hampton, knocked out Johnny Wilson, 146, East Hartford, in the second round, this being the first fight lost by Wilson in the eight in which he has taken part. Tommy Tucker of Rockville, 146, was floored in the second by Louis Holt, 145, of New Britain, but came back and fought such a strong finish that he was given the popular decision.

TRYING TO STOP SALE OF ANTI-DRY STAMPS

New York, May 10.—(AP)—Prohibitionists have asked postal authorities to ban "Swat the Dry" stamps from the mails.

Fred A. Victor, superintendent of the New York Anti-Saloon League, told the Kings County W. C. T. U. he had written to President Hoover objecting to a proposal by anti-prohibitionists to circulate the stamps through the mail. He said the protest had been referred to the postmaster general.

The stamps, which it has been proposed to sell to raise a $5,000,000 fund to fight prohibition, carry pictures of insects over which is poised a "swatter" labeled "votes." The basis of the protest lies in the suggestion of "violence in the phrase, "Swat the Dry."

OFFER PRIZE OF $30,000 FOR SEATTLE-TOKYO HOP

Seattle, May 11.—(AP)—With 20 days remaining before expiration of a two-year offer of $25,000 plus interest for the first non-stop Seattle-Tokyo flight, plans of aviators to make the attempt were carried forward today.

From Tokyo came word Harold Bromley, who has made several attempts to span the Pacific ocean by the air route, was planning to take off from Seattle by May 20. He asked permission to land in Japan.

Attempts to learn the whereabouts of the Tacoma, Wash., aviator brought word he was reported flying for a mining company in Durango, Mexico.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Troop 8 We were called to attention by M. Seaburg. After saying the oath and law we had a short patrol meeting. Following this we played games. Mr. Craig gave us a very interesting talk on Astronomy. An announcement was made that we would have a speaker on nature study merit badge.

We closed the meeting by saying the scout oath and prayer.

Scouts Have Social Troops 1 and 4 were guests of Troop 3 at a social held in Center Church assembly room last evening.

The three troops massed on the Center Church grounds for the dedication of an elm tree which was planted in honor of George Washington. The first shovelful of dirt for the dedication was dug by Scouts Nelson, Green, and Gordon who represented the different patrols of Troop 3. After the dedication, Rev. Woodruff spoke a few words on why the elm was planted. Colors were presented by Scout J. Pickles and after the exercises the Troops marched into the assembly room.

race was won by group 2. Scout officials Lynn and McComb of Troop 3 and also Scoutmaster Crawshaw of Troop 4 entered a special "sack" race. This race was won by Lynn although a spurt by Crawshaw almost beat him.

A potato race held among the six groups was also run off. Scouts Leslie and Custer of Troop 3 entertained the audience to a few stunts in rope-spinning. Troop 1 acted out a short play which had hoboes as characters. There was a good variety of violin and harmonica selections given, and the singing of "Caruso" kept the Scouts laughing.

Troop 4 was next with a skit entitled "Station E. V. D.—Broadcasting." Jimmy Neill as the announcer had the leading role. The triple-troop social ended after refreshments of cocoa, cake, and sandwiches had disappeared. All Scout officials of the three troops have to be complimented on the kind of program which they had planned.

Scribe, Matchett.

ARRANGE TO PROTECT CHILD PEDESTRIANS

Changing of Police Beats Will Not Take Men From Crossings At Schools.

According to Police Commissioner Willard B. Rogers, additional protection is to be given to pedestrians and especially to school children from now on than has been the case for the past ten days. By the change that has been ordered by the police commissioners the day men who have been reduced from three to four by eliminating the 6:00 a. m. beat which took one patrolman off duty and left unprotected street crossings during school hours is now to be taken care of by the assignment of Lieutenant William Barron as a traffic officer.

This was the decision reached by the board of police commissioners a week ago Sunday but because of the schools being closed last week the change was not made. This will leave Chief Gordon on duty in the police station eight hours a day and also make it possible to call a man into the office for relief work if the chief should be called from the station.

EMBLEM CLUB SEATS ITS NEW OFFICERS

Supreme President At Elks Home This Afternoon For the Installation Ceremony.

The Rockville Emblem Club held its installation of officers this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Elks Home on Prospect street, with more than 150 members and guests in attendance. The installation ceremonies were in charge of Supreme President, Mrs. Bernard McHugh of Watertown and her suite.

The newly installed officers are: President, Mrs. Raymond Hunt; past president, Mrs. Thomas Danaher; Manchester, vice-president, Mrs. Carl Frutting; recording secretary, Mrs. George Grandio; Manchester, financial secretary, Mrs. Robert Brown; treasurer, Mrs. James Foley; Manchester; trustee, Mrs. J. Arthur Dayton; Mrs. Charles Willis; Mrs. Edward Burns; inside guard, Mrs. Lewis Chapman; outside guard, Mrs. Abe Fine; organist, Mrs. Joseph Rostek.

Following the installation there was an informal program of remarks given by the Supreme President, Mrs. Bernard McHugh and members of her staff. At this time three presentations were made. Mrs. McHugh the supreme president and Mrs. Miles S. Sweeney, of Providence, R. I., organizer of the Rockville Emblem Club, were presented with personal gifts. Mrs. Thomas Danaher, retiring president received an electric Magic Maid set. The recipients greatly appreciated the thoughtfulness of the members. The supreme president congratulated the Rockville Emblem Club on its success the past year under the leadership of Mrs. Danaher. The latter had had most successful term of office, and one of the best years in the history of the club has just come to a close. Mrs. Thomas Garvin was chairman of the afternoon program.

Tonight there will be a banquet for the members and guests. A turkey dinner with the following menu will be served under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Chapdelaine: special fruit cup, hearts of celery, Queen olives, sweet mixed pickles, cream or new asparagus, finger rolls, young native turkey, dressing, cranberry sauce, mashed potatoes, green peas, spring salad, Russian dressing, Neapolitan ice cream, fancy cake, coffee.

At the close of the dinner all will adjourn to the Elks Home, where they will be joined by the Lodge of Elks at cards. Prizes will be awarded. Mrs. Carl Frutting is in charge of the cards and social hour.

The ticket committee included Mrs. Margaret Farrell, Mrs. Fred Lippmann, Mrs. Edward Burns, Mrs.

Peter Fagan of Rockville, Mrs. George Grandio and Mrs. George Dover of Manchester, Mrs. Forrest Adams of Stafford Springs and Mrs. William Reeves of Broad Brook. The reception committee includes the officers of the club.

Community Gardens
The Lions Club of this city held a special meeting at the Rockville House on Tuesday noon. It was for the purpose of discussing and acting on the suggestions of Mrs. Leubens F. Bissell for community gardens in this city. The club voted to put its united support behind the movement and donated $50 to assist the work. The plans of Mrs. Bissell were presented by Percy Ainsworth, general manager of the Rockanum Mills Company.

Francis J. Frichard, Fred Bradley and John P. Cameron were appointed a committee to secure land and carry out other plans for community gardens.

Conference At Ellington
The Fourth Annual Tolland County Older Boys' and Girls' conference will be held at Ellington May 20-21. The general theme of the conference is to be "God's Dreams" and the subject will center about three sub-divisions—"God's Dreams For America," "God's Dreams For the Nations," "God's Dreams For Me."

The conference is held under the auspices of the Tolland County Council of Religious Education and the Y. M. C. A. and is for boys and girls ranging from the ages of 14 to 20. Registration of delegates will be from 4 to 5 p. m. and the first session is called at 5:15. President George Kingsbury will lead in the morning. Rev. Theron French of Manchester will lead in the service of worship. Frank B. Lens of New York City will give the opening address on "Christ Among the Nations."

A banquet will be held on Friday evening. Philip M. Howe, chairman of the County Y. M. C. A., will act as toastmaster and a program of music and toasts have been arranged. Dr. Samuel W. Graflin of White Plains, N. Y., will be the speaker.

Saturday morning the delegates will be divided into four groups for more intimate discussions of questions facing the conference. At noon lunch will be served at the church and the closing session will take place at 2 p. m.

All registrations should be sent in by Monday, May 16.

D. of P. Memorial Service
The annual Memorial service of Kiowa Council, Degree of Eochontas will be held on Friday evening, May 19, in Red Men's Hall. The committee has been fortunate in securing Past Great Sachem William N. Newport of Torrington as the speaker of the evening. The ceremonies will be in charge of the officers, Mrs. Flossie Chapman, presiding. The charter will be draped in memory of the deceased members and a ornamant pinned on the drape in memory of each one who has passed away.

The officers are asked to wear white and meet at the hall at 7 p. m. The meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock and the service will follow. Members and friends are invited to attend. The committee in charge includes Mrs. Mary Chamagagne, Mrs. Rose LaCross and Mrs. Rose Marcus.

To Present Concert
The Leidesdorf Singing society under the direction of Max Kabrick, will give a concert at the Palace theater on Friday evening, May 20. The society has been organized for many years, and many of the old members are still singing as strong as ever. Several valuable sets will also be staged by the organization on that evening.

To Entertain Play Cast
The cast of "Rev. Dayton Up-to-Date," which put on the play on three different occasions, will be entertained by Mrs. Irene (Schart) Lach at her home in Watertown, opposite Frederic Marsh. Few stars have risen in popularity so rapidly as Miss Hopkins. "Dancers in the Dark" will be more than satisfied rapidly growing following. A Charlie Chase comedy, a Van Dine Mystery story and the latest news events round out an unusually entertaining program.

THEATERS

AT THE STATE

"Dancers in the Dark"
Miriam Hopkins, Jack Oakie and Eugene Pallette in "Dancers in the Dark" is the new attraction at the State today and Thursday. Miss Hopkins is seen as an enticing, emotional—warm-blooded, too generous girl—a taxi dancer whom men meet easily, love carelessly and forget early. At heart, she is a good girl, but conventionally, just half-good, some would say. Men were no novelty to her, but love frightened her and she was afraid she could not play square with the boy who worshipped her. This is the setting in which she is whirled into a series of dramatic events that lead to a high-voltage climax. Withal the highly dramatic qualities of the picture, there is an abundance of comedy furnished by Jack Oakie and Eugene Pallette. Oakie is the orchestra leader in the dance hall and William Collier Jr., is a sax player in the orchestra who falls in love with the beautiful taxi-dancer.

The role of Gloria, the taxi-dancer, is one that seems built for Miss Hopkins. It is the finest role she has had since her memorable part in the picture, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" opposite Frederic Marsh. Few stars have risen in popularity so rapidly as Miss Hopkins. "Dancers in the Dark" will be more than satisfied rapidly growing following. A Charlie Chase comedy, a Van Dine Mystery story and the latest news events round out an unusually entertaining program.

DR. BEARD 99 TODAY

Norwalk, Conn., May 11.—(AP)—The Rev. Augustus F. Beard, the oldest living graduate of Yale and Union Theological seminary and also believed the oldest living Congregational minister observed his 99th birthday anniversary today but to him it was just another day.

He chose to celebrate the occasion by following his daily routine—a trip downtown, some reading and a chat with friends.

Dr. Beard, former dean of the American Cathedral in Paris, was graduated from Yale in 1857, and became its oldest alumnus with the death of Virgil Dow of New Haven in the spring. He expects to attend class day exercises at Yale next month.

Until 1926 Dr. Beard was secretary of the American Missionary Society, a post he held for forty years.

KIND HEARTED BANDIT
Beymour, Ind., May 11.—(AP)—To save a new grocery clerk his job, a holdup man passed up an opportunity to steal $60.

H. C. Bultman, the clerk who had just received a job in the store, was working industriously when the robber walked in yesterday and told him to hold up his hands.

"If I give you the money in the cash register I'll lose my job," Bultman said as he offered the gunman $2 of his own money.

But the robber went him one better. "I'll split fifty-fifty with you," he said. So he took $1 and left the money—$60 in all, in the cash register.

20 COUPLES DANCE IN THE MARATHON

Twenty weary and foot-sore couples and four solo contestants remain in the Palais Royal, Capitol Park Golden Slipper Dance Marathon. Starting on April 31 with 66 couples, the strictness of the rules governing the contest cause team after team to take the count, only the hardest being able to stand the grind.

The general health of the field is a cause for amazement among visiting physicians. However, foot troubles seem ever present and keeps the hospital corps on the alert. Many of the contestants have gained weight, which is attributed to being served food eight times each twenty-four hours.

Day by day the long hard grind continues, contestants requiring more attention from the hospital staff, as well as more sleep in the arms of their partners while on the floor. Among the remaining teams in the contest now, it is very doubtful that all of them will be able to withstand many more hours of marathon participation and a change in our marathon family may be expected momentarily.

In spring football practice at Wisconsin the first string line at one time was composed entirely of athletes who had at some time in their careers played backfield positions.

ANNOUNCEMENT

To Our Ice Customers

Our new 50 Ton Ice Plant is now serving our customers in Manchester and vicinity. We have had faith enough in you to make this large investment in order that we may provide you with a product of the best quality. Our aim is, as in the past, to give the utmost in quality and service.

Only your full co-operation at this time will make this possible. We are faced with two alternatives; first, to put our customers all on a cash basis or, second, to increase prices. Our policy has always been to lower prices rather than increase as often as conditions warrant it. We have decided on a middle course which we trust will work no hardship on any one. Beginning May 15th we will collect all new accounts weekly. This applies to customers who have not made other satisfactory arrangements with our office.

On or about June 1st, when we expect all will be fully completed, we invite you all to inspect our plant and see how the best, most sanitary and the cheapest refrigeration is being furnished you.

OIL COMPANIES REPORT A PROFIT

Some Mid Continent Concerns Making Money For First Time In a Year.

Tulsa, Okla., May 11.—(AP)—Oil companies operating in the mid-continent area are making a profit, some of them for the first time in a year, reports to the Associated Press revealed today.

Only those major companies which do not have headquarters here or whose spokesmen could not be reached are missing from the list of those once more making money, the survey showed.

Companies reporting are: Continental Oil Company of Ponca City; Consolidated Oil Corporation (Fratric-Sinclair); Barnsdale Oil Corporation, Mid-Continent Petroleum Corporation, Skelly Oil Company, Phillips Petroleum Company of Bartlesville and the Indian Territory Illuminating Oil Company also of Bartlesville, one of the Cities Service group.

Without exception these companies attributed the improved conditions to the recent advances in prices of crude oil and refined products and lessons in economy taught by the lean months of the past.

Daniel L. Pierce, speaking for Harry F. Sinclair of Consolidated Oil, specifically mentioned the stringent economies practiced by all oil companies at this time.

Frank Phillips, president of Phillips Petroleum, joined the chorus but warned, as did W. G. Skelly and C. C. Herndon, of Skelly Oil, and E. E. Z. Reesor of Barnsdale, the time is not ripe for an orgy of rejoicing.

The additional work has provided a like increase in field employment and in sales of rigging and equipment.

CONVICTED OF MURDER

Los Angeles, May 11.—(AP)—Convicted of the attempted murder of a young girl, Frank Newland, Jr., young Pomona married man, was held in the county jail today awaiting sentence Friday.

Newland, a golf caddy, was convicted of throwing Lois Wade, 17, in an abandoned well after she had pleaded with him to divorce his wife and marry her so that her unborn child might have a name.

"It has happened a million times before, and will probably happen a million times again," Deputy District Attorney Grant Cooper quoted from the novel, "The American Tragedy," in opposing the defense. Newland was not normal when he made love to Miss Wade.

Newland also was convicted of an offense against a minor, and will be sentenced on that charge also. The charge resulted from his relations with Miss Wade.

Queer Twists
In Day's News

Fairmont, W. Va.: When he says "do you want to see my operation?" Frankie "Owell," five years old, uses the plural. He's had 100 operations in two years. Instead of talking about them he smiles and has come to be known as the "Sunshine Boy" to thousands of persons who have written him. His throat trouble, which the operations aim to correct, is improving.

Hollywood: Realism burned Barbara Stanwick the movie player, on the leg. Fighting a fire for the films, Barbara didn't extinguish the flames with the expected speed, so they took her to the hospital, and now she's much better.

Springfield, Ill.: What if it a man gets elected school director and can't even read or write? It happened near Jonesboro, and the attorney general has just ruled that nothing can be done about it.

San Pedro: Once upon a time (it was yesterday) two fishermen hooked a 350-pound sea bass; and the bass began swimming around, hauling the two men in their motorboat in circles. A lighthouse keeper came to the rescue and by dint of much muscle, Mr. Sea Bass was pulled aboard. That will be a good story for the fishermen to tell their grandchildren, who probably won't believe it.

New Brunswick, N. J.: There was a song, "let the women do the work," and that is what Mrs. Henry Ford apparently had in mind when she suggested, in an address, that small farms, where women could do most of the work, might help the country get rid of whatever is the matter with it.

DEPRESSION REDUCING NUMBER OF DIVORCES

Chicago, May 11.—(AP)—Existing conditions were credited today with saving about 22 per cent, of matrimonial barks that otherwise would have been grounded during the last year in the divorce court.

The authority for this is Judge Joseph Sabath, who in his 16 years on the bench has heard nearly fifty thousand divorce cases.

The human team pulls with less friction when the going is a bit hard he said.

The fundamental reason, the judge said, for the decreased divorce rate is the shortage of ready money.

"There is not so much money or time now for pleasure-stepping. When there was, the husband was inclined to get dissatisfied with his wife, and the wife with her husband. Now they have more serious things to consider, and many pleasure loving couples today are finding real happiness for the first time by their own firesides."

Furthermore, the judge said, there are not as many "gin marriages." "People are inclined to think now before they marry," he added.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS HERE COMPLETE ORGANIZATION

Name Publicity Committee and Hear Members Speak on Functions of the Club.

The Young People's Democratic Club completed its organization last night at a meeting in Tinker Hall and a determined effort will now be made to increase the membership of the club. A publicity committee was elected and the committee on committees was authorized to appoint other necessary committees.

It was voted to hold two meetings a month during June, July and August, instead of weekly meetings and the next meeting was announced for Tuesday, May 24. Benjamin Radding and Mary Dielenschneider were chosen to speak at this meeting. The publicity committee elected was: J. Sumner Vanderlock, chairman; Edward Hammill, Richard Brownell, Lucy Farr and Katharine McCann. It was announced that a dance will be held at the College Inn, Bolton, Thursday evening, May 26.

The speakers last night were Esther Radding and Fred Dielenschneider. Both spoke on the functions of the club and asked for the continued interest of the members in the future of the club. They also spoke for better attended meetings and a larger membership.

The meeting was conducted by President Harold Garrity. About forty persons were present.

LICENSES SUSPENDED

A list of operators whose licenses to drive automobiles in Connecticut have been suspended for one year because of a conviction for driving while under the influence of liquor was given out today at the State Motor Vehicle Department as a part of the effort to reduce this highway menace. The department statement advised people to notify the department or the police in case they should see any of these drivers operating motor vehicles.

SEEN EXTORTIONIST
Chicago, May 11.—(AP)—An extortionist who threatened injury to the two small sons of Mrs. Grandolyn Hart Fargo, daughter of Francis Russell Hart of Boston, unless she paid $1,000, was sought by police and private detectives today. Mr. Hart is vice-chairman of the directors of the Old Colony Trust Company of Boston.

Threats to injure the children, Charles H., Jr., 6, and Bronson, 3, were made in notes, one of which was sent to Mrs. Fargo the day after the murder of her husband, John. Grandolyn Hart's one of two Army Reserve Air Corps officers killed when the airplane fell into a house on Chicago's north side.

 all things considered, on a surprisingly successful one.

A budget which cuts more than $90,000 from the cost of public schooling out of a total of somewhat more than $430,000 indicates a degree of realization on the part of the Board of Education which will go a long way toward restoring the townspeople's faith in the wisdom and disinterestedness of the people to whom they have entrusted their school affairs.

It is not difficult to understand
 the distress, almost agony of spirit, that must have accompanied some of the steps taken by the Board in arriving at its determinations; what a scrapping of pet theories there had to be; how the members of the authoritative group had to armor themselves in ruthlessness and trample on their own favorite convictions. Wherefore, all honor to them. They have made a good start, an excellent start on the road to hardheaded economy in school affairs. Anything more than that it would have been altogether unreasonable to expect.

This is no time to greatly emphasize the circumstance that it is not so long since such economies as those now put into effect were "impossible" in the view of the school authorities; that for insisting that just such a reduction in school costs
 as is now proven feasible could then be put into effect this newspaper was regarded, in some quarters, as stupidly reactionary. We feel, however, that we have the right to make bare mention of it.

The Board of Education has done
 a good job. It has done a good job in saving more than $90,000 of the taxpayers' money at a time when taxpayers' money needs saving as it never did before. It has done even a better job in demonstrating the possibility of doing the "impossible." It has broken down the inhibitions and the superstitions that made genuine economy the most difficult thing in the world to bring about. It has cut its own shackles.
 And it has, however reluctantly and with whatever heartaches, scrubbed
 the odor of sanctimony from the sacred cow.

THE COUNTIES
 Miss Marjory Cheney, Manchester
 representative in the Legislature, advances, explicitly in her capacity
 as a private citizen, the theory that the state should buy, take over and operate the county homes and the county jails. She presents the question as one of finances and taxation.
 Miss Cheney makes the point that a good many towns in the state have borrowed to their legal limit and that a number of them have not paid their county tax; that the towns are restricted in their taxing power while the state has tax sources not open to either town or county; that the burden of county expenses could be more easily borne by the state; that the total cost of the services in question would be less under state control and the relief to the towns considerable.

 This is a very opportune time for the presentation of this form of argument. The taxpayers in the towns are peculiarly susceptible just now to any proposition that seems likely to afford them relief in any degree.
 Just the same we see it as a very good time to resist temptation to take any step toward extension of state control and toward centralization of power in a state bureaucracy.

The picture of our county homes placed under the management of the Bureau of Child Welfare is not, we make bold to say, one that will appeal strongly to the people of Connecticut. Nor, for that matter, does the idea of a central administration of the county jails possess any particular fascination.

On the other hand it is quite possible that the county, as a governmental unit, has a future more important than its past in Connecticut.
 It is becoming apparent that what we need is more rather than less county. The counties, for instance, should be the unit of road control,
 rather than the towns. It takes no more time to cross a county by automobile nowadays than it did to drive a horse across a township fifty years ago. Counties are becoming communities rather than geographical areas. Instead of reducing them to governmental impotence it is very likely indeed that we shall soon be increasing their functions. Perhaps we shall find it expedient to re-draft our county lines and create several new counties in this state.
 Whether or no, the county, as a political division, is likely to be more before it is less.

Miss Cheney's proposal is in the line of state centralization. It is doubtful if it will find much favor among those who have watched the rapid growth of state job-holding bureaus.

SHIPS AND PLANES
 It has been estimated that when Congress votes $40,000,000 for a battleship it votes in effect a $250,- 000,000 appropriation extending over the term of years representing the ship's commissioned life—for with all the charges for maintenance of vessel, crew and supplies such a ship is destined to use up a quarter of a billion dollars before she eventually goes to the warships' graveyard—probably without ever having fired a shot in defense of her country.

Meantime if we should get into a war after the battleship has lived half her normal life and has cost
 a mere eighth of a billion dollars, along may come a $10,000 commercial airplane, translated into a bomber at a cost of a couple of thousand more, and send the 125-million gun platform to the bottom, with all hands.
 The Hale bill, which would commit
 the United States to the spending of a billion dollars for navy ships'
 first cost, plus five times as much for a few years service, is urged on the ground of "national defense."
 With a fraction of that amount of money any potential enemy nation could build an armada of aircraft
 big enough to sink all the seagoing fleets in the world. And then have enough surviving planes to sweep away most of the armies on shore
 as well.

Setting aside the utterly ruinous cost of battleships and great cruisers the exasperating thing about their everlasting advocacy is the futility of them. For all the good great fleets would be, in a new war,
 we might as well pay forty millions
 each for hay wagons and paddy them to war on the sea. They would be at least cheaper to maintain and take less lives with them
 when they were bombed.

THE MEANS FELLOW
 If it were not for the unsolved item of a murder mystery casting its shadows on the traveled path of Gaston B. Means, that fantastic liar and scoundrel might almost be deemed worthy of a measure of pae-don for the picturesqueness of his villainies. There has been a certain implausibility about most of his performances, an uncanny play upon the follies and moral weaknesses of his victims which makes it almost impossible not to yield to a tendency to grin at them, even when one realizes how shocked he should be.

The social aspirations of Mrs. Edward B. McLean of Washington and the lengths to which that lady will go to attain eminence have been so well known ever since the arrival of the Hardings in the national capital that the news of her victimizing
 by Means to the extent of a hundred thousand dollars started a ripple of titers across the country that hasn't stopped rippling yet. And now, much as Helen Gould Flipley is admired for many estimable qualities, any sense of outrage must be tempered with smiles when it develops that Means has been playing upon that estimable personage's mad superstition, perhaps as glibly as he played upon the soaring ambition of Mrs. McLean.

 Means is a sort of Cagliostro, getting away with the most audacious, unexpected and half-judicious adventures in crime—but always through an unerring understanding of the follies and blind spots of his victims
 —and never picking victims lacking
 some such weakness.

Of course he should be in jail—permanently. But there is no denying that he adds an interesting if reprehensible note to the picture of America as is.

BEER OR POSTAGE
 It now seems rather too bad that Senator Bingham did not postpone the testing of his beer policy in the Senate until the present moment.
 His re-statement of that policy through the medium of an amendment to the tax bill comes at a moment when it would have had the advantage of an exquisite timeliness if it had just been freshly brought forward.

Mr. Bingham proposes to raise,
 through a tax on legalized 4 per cent beer, the sum of $375,000,000 and thereby eliminate all postal rate increases, the taxes on admissions, telegraph and telephone messages
 and the taxes on radios and phonographs, which otherwise are practically certain to be imposed.

Here is something which citizens who have submitted to the domination of the dregs "because it doesn't make much difference" to them can get their teeth into—something that brings straight home to the little old family budget this business of soaking the private purse for the support of a factional fetish.

The Bingham proposal is almost spectacular in the smashing effect of its argument. It makes clear as crystal the manner in which prohibition operates to heap needless taxes upon the individual—and the method of relief. There are countless persons in this country who have taken no particular interest in the need of getting rid of Volsteadism but who, when they realize every time they post a letter and every time they pay their telephone bill and whenever they go to the movies or buy a new radio that part of the money they are paying out is going to support prohibition, will conclude that they have had about enough of the noble experiment.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN Washington

VETS HOLD VOTE CLUB OVER HOUSE ON BONUS
 Ex-Soldiers Average 9,000 Ballots Per District — Congressmen Frightened.

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
 NEA Service Writer.

Washington.—There's a farm vote
 a labor vote and a soldier vote in this country, but the one that throws
 the largest scare into Congress is the soldier vote.
 The veterans are greatly outnumbered both by the laboring men and the farmers, but the veterans always know what they want from the government and come much nearer to getting it.
 They are better organized, more articulate and determined and spread more evenly over the country. The real farm vote is relatively sectional and the labor vote—which perhaps should be referred to as "the so-called labor vote"—is heavily concentrated. But the veterans are scattered more or less evenly, in proportion to the voting population, through every state and every congressional district.

Can't ignore them Few congressmen can afford to ignore them. If it were not for the official opposition of the American Legion, the present pressure of veterans for measures to cash
 the bonus certificates would be far more likely to succeed than now seems probable.

Even with the Legion's opposition,
 Congress would be likely to pass
 the thing over a presidential veto if it were not for the sad state of the National Finance.
 Four million veterans represent a formidable voting group. They may not vote as an organized unit,
 but they can be congealed in one direction or the other more effectively than any comparable element.

They have the obvious incentive of voting for benefits to themselves which take the form of cash money, an incentive stimulated by current hard times. Their average age, which is just under 40, is that of the voter not too young to have become interested in politics and not yet too old to care. And they never lack for political candidates who appeal to them as a group with attractive promises.

9,000 Per District
 Assuming an average of about 9,000 veterans to a congressional district, it is easy to see why no congressman who isn't completely sure of re-nomination and re-election cares to offend "the boys."
 Least of all in this period when he is more than ever likely to find an ex-service man running for his seat.
 Already there are 36 World War veterans in the House and 18 in the Senate. The number has increased gradually and an increase larger than usual is anticipated next November.
 When the organized veterans really go whole hog for a piece of legislation here the onslaught starts with wires or letters from about 10,000 Legion posts, along with whatever individual members are inspired to write or wire on their own. The Legion plea of pressure propaganda is increased by the other veteran groups, plus efforts of the veterans' lobbies on the ground.

Remember the G. A. R.
 The heights of power to which the G. A. R. rose after the war are still remembered and in recent years the veterans of the Spanish-American War, which had only 250,- 000 men enlisted, have demonstrated their ability to force pension and other legislation through Congress.

It is not surprising that the veterans of the last war, far stronger in numbers, should be able to dictate to Congress whenever they desire.
 Congressmen must worry not only about the veteran's vote, but also the vote of his family and friends. The veterans get other home town organizations to petition their representative and have recruited the support of many shopkeepers who are pleased with the proposal that each veteran be paid a few hundred dollars available for spending or paying bills.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars, leading the cash bonus fight, have cited to the House Ways and Means Committee not only 609 resolutions and memorials from meritorious Legion posts, but petition signatures by hundreds of thousands of non-veteran citizens and pleas from Rotary clubs, farm organizations, labor unions, W. C. T. U.'s, chambers of commerce, state legislative bodies and a couple of dozen city councils.

New Ellery Queen Book Offers a Challenge to Detective Story Fans.

The author of a mystery story is generally supposed to put all of his cards on the table—or let the reader have every bit of information that the master-mind detective has, so that the reader, if he is smart enough, can figure out who the guilty party is without waiting for the author to tell him.
 Authors seldom play fair, though.
 Usually they hold back just two or three little clues; the crucial ones, without which the right conclusion can't be reached. Indeed, the author is almost invariably even in those books which advertise that all the dope is given to the reader without reserve.

Consequently it is refreshing to find a book that really does play fair; such a book, for instance,
 "The Great Coffin Mystery," by Ellery Queen, which is about the only detective story I know of that lets the reader in on absolutely everything that goes on.

This story deals with the funny business that begins at the funeral of a Greek art dealer. First, his will vanishes, then they dig up his coffin and find an extra corpse in it, then someone gets shot and finally the brilliant son of the police inspector brings the murderer to book. It's all exceedingly ingenious and I defy you to figure it out for yourself—even though, as I say, every scrap of information is given to you.

Unfortunately, the book has some humorous after and the leading detective sounds like a poor imitation of Philo Vance. Much of the action sounds awfully improbable, too.
 But the author does play fair
 with you.
 It's published by the Frederick
 A. Stokes Co., and costs $2.

CONSTRUCTIVE LIBERALITY

(The Hartford Times.)
 The Hartford Light company has long enjoyed enviable reputation for its progressive methods and breadth of managerial viewpoint. It has been a pioneer in the utilization of new developments in the electrical field, long having been regarded as one of the leading companies in this respect. Some years ago it originated the customers' dividend, a means of returning to patrons a part of the revenue derived from the charges against them, when it did not seem practical to alter the permanent rate structure for their benefit. This policy has been broadened to include shareholders and employees as well as patrons.
 Now the company announces a plan whereby victims of the depression who find themselves unable to meet their bills may not be deprived of electrical service as they would under ordinary circumstances. The company is willing to take their promises to pay when able and has issued slips which are good for the payment of bills under this plan.
 Its experience is that few people deliberately cheat and it has no fear that it will in the end lose money by adopting temporarily a very liberal policy.
 We have no doubt that this generous gesture on the part of the company will be much appreciated by those who receive its benefits. It is a commendable step, evidencing
 a sympathetic interest in the victims of the depression, and indicating that here is at least one corporation which is not soulless.

HEALTH-DIET ADVICE
 By Dr. Frank McCay
 Why Not Eat What You Want?
 THE ONLY BOOK ON DIET AND HEALTH IN AMERICA
 WHICH TELLS YOU HOW TO LIVE LONGER AND BETTER

GET RID OF THE TOKINS
 The first few days of any cleansing eliminative diet course are in some respects the most difficult, because, when the only foods which are used are those which will not interfere with elimination, the body begins to throw out vast quantities of morbid material. The blood picks up this poisonous matter from wherever it is deposited and carries it to the lungs, kidneys, skin, liver and bowels, from where it is eliminated through the ordinary functions of these organs. The only way the toxins have of being carried to the eliminative organs is through the blood and lymphatic circulation, and, owing to the large amount of toxins suddenly freed, one will often notice a slight headache, a coated tongue, a bad taste in the mouth and an offensive breath. In a sick person the elimination from the organs which the body has for this purpose is largely ineffective. The result is that the toxins gradually accumulate, causing a partial stoppage.

If you have been following this Spring Tonic Diet Course, you have dieted for five days longer. The fatty acids are now on non-starchy vegetables on the third day. You should continue with the nonstarchy vegetables and the general instructions given in the previous articles, for five days longer. In today's article I will tell you how to return to general diet and build up your strength. In today's article I want to give you some instructions for speeding up the elimination of toxins so that you will get the greatest benefit from following this course. While taking this elimina-tive diet, you should use at least two sponge or shower baths daily and in addition, for five days longer, use to follow this bathing with a vigorous skin friction with a rough towel.
 It would also be a good plan for you to take sweat baths, blanket sweats or Turkish baths so that the skin will eliminate even a larger amount than usual. Such baths could be taken as often as once a day for those who are overweight or in average health, but, if one is very weak, I would not advise them more than once every other day. The sweat baths should be followed by a cold shower to tone up the skin after the heat treatment. In taking a sweat bath it is always advisable to first take some light exercise. Drinking a large amount of pure water will also give the kidneys added fluid to carry off the wastes. Deep breathing four or five times a day will eliminate carbon dioxide and remove stagnant air from the lower sections of the lungs. During this diet course I am sure that the eliminations of toxins is at least ten times as great as during ordinary everyday life providing you use all of the aids to elimination which I have suggested. Do not fail to follow the instructions in detail as I have dieted many thousands of patients and know that every part of these instructions is necessary to secure the most complete results.

Do not try to substitute laxatives for the enemias which should be taken twice daily while on this diet course. The fact that elimination is increased during this diet can be proven by a careful examination made during this fast of the toxins thrown out by the lungs, skin, kidneys and bowels. Tomorrow and Saturday follows the same instructions that were given yesterday and today, and on Saturday I will give you the final instructions.
 No-matter what trouble you have

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
 (Be Not Inheritable) Question: Mrs. W. writes: "My husband is in the hospital with tuberculosis. I wonder if there is any chance of our little boy contracting or inheriting the disease.
 How can I care for him so he will not catch it?"
 Answer: Tuberculosis is not an inheritable disease. Although a tendency toward it may be inherited in some cases. If your little boy is fed on a well-balanced diet, allowed plenty of sleep and perhaps given sunbaths, there is not much danger of him contracting the disease.

(Handout for Office Workers) Question: Norde asks: "Do you recommend the game of handball for the office worker? If so, how often should it be played, and what other exercise do you suggest?"
 Answer: Playing handball is a very good exercise for the office worker. Three 45-minute periods per week would be valuable. The different machines used in the gymnasiums are also to be recommended. However, a certain amount of calisthenic exercises should also be taken each day in connection with walking, swimming, etc.

GARDENS EXHIBIT AIDS ART SCHOOL

Hartford and Simsbury Beauty Spots To Be Open To Public May 18 and 19.

For the third season, important gardens in Hartford and vicinity will be open to the public for two days this spring, for the benefit of the Hartford Art Society. May 18th and 19th are the days chosen by the committee, which is headed by Mrs. A. Everett Austin, Jr., of Scarborough street, wife of the director of the Morgan Memorial. In case of rain on the proposed days, Friday, May 20, and Saturday, May 21, are alternative dates.

Thirteen gardens in Hartford and four in Simsbury will be on the list. Carefully landscaped walks and terraces, broad expanses of greenward, bright-colored bird baths, fountains and brooks, secluded spots of natural beauty, rare shrubs and brilliant blossoms—all the beauty of nearly a score of large and small estates will be opened for the benefit of the Hartford Art School, which is sponsored by the Art Society.

Those persons who will permit the public to survey their gardens are: Mrs. Charles F. T. Seaverns at 1265 Asylum avenue, Mrs. E. C. Hilliard at 86 Woodland street, Mrs. H. H. Armstrong at 25 Woodside Circle, Mrs. Benjamin Perkins at 24 Woodside Circle, Mrs. Charles A. Goodwin at 84 Scarborough street, Mrs. George S. Auerbach at 1040 Prospect avenue, Mrs. James L. Howard at 1210 Prospect avenue, Mrs. Roy D. Basset at 1832 Albany avenue, Mrs. George H. Sage at 54 Ledyard Road, Mrs. Porter B. Chase and Mrs. Richard Wayne at Orchard Road, West Hartford, and Mrs. Robert W. Huntington at 145 Bloomfield avenue.

Four estates will be open in Simsbury—those of Mrs. Joseph R. Ensign, Mrs. Robert Darling, Mrs. E. John S. Ellsworth and Mrs. H. E. Ellsworth. Both days, tea will be served in Mrs. Charles A. Goodwin's garden with Mrs. Francis Goodwin II. in charge.

Mrs. A. Everett Austin, Jr., has charge of publicity; Mrs. John Roberts and Miss Sally Conklin will take charge of the admission at the entrances; Mrs. Barclay Robinson and Mrs. Wilmarth S. Lewis have charge of the tickets; Mrs. Eliot S. Cogswell will assist Mrs. Austin with publicity. It is expected that the enthusiasm this year will exceed that of last year, as last year did that of the year before.

In 1931 the gardens to be seen in Hartford were on view one day of the two, and those in Farmington the other. This year a different arrangement will be effected—both the Hartford and the Simsbury gardens will be open to the public both days.

Tickets are on sale at Witkower's book store, McCoy's music store, and the Lewis Street book store. The officers of the Art Society of Hartford are: President, Mrs. Thomas Hooker; first vice-president, Mrs. Charles A. Goodwin; second vice-president, Mrs. Charles C. Beach; recording secretary, Mrs. Robert B. Engler; treasurer, Mrs. A. Everett Austin, Jr.; board of managers, Mrs. Joseph Alsop, Mrs. A. Everett Austin, Jr., Mrs. Charles C. Beach, Mrs. Goodwin B. Beach, Mrs. Henry Leon Berger, Mrs. F. Minot Blake, Miss Meta A. Bush, Mrs. Woods Chandler, Mrs. Austin Chenery, Mrs. Eliot S. Cogswell, Mrs. William P. Conklin, Mrs. A. Douglas Dodge, Mrs. Stanley W. Edwards, Mrs. Ostrom Ender, Mrs. Joel L. English, Mrs. Robert B. English, Miss Helen Forrest, Mrs. Harrison B. Freeman, Mrs. Charles A. Goodwin, Mrs. Francis Goodwin, II, Miss Julia L. Havemeyer, Mrs. Albert W. Hitchcock, Mrs. Thomas Hooker, Mrs. Wilmarth S. Lewis, Miss Grace Plimpton, Mrs. John T. Roberts, Mrs. Barclay Robinson, Mrs. Charles F. T. Seaverns, Miss Elizabeth T. Stevens, Mrs. Henry F. Stoll, Honorary managers, Mrs. Appleton R. Hillyer, Mrs. N. H. Batchelder and Mrs. George G. Williams.

WAPPING

There was another of the popular birthday surprise parties, which have been held in the neighborhood of the northern part of the town, this one being held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frink in honor of Mrs. Elizabeth F. Armour's birthday. There were nine tables of set-back. Ladies first prize was won by Mrs. Roy Strong, and the gents first by Harold Hare. The consolation prizes went to Mrs. Harold Hare and Wellman Burnham. The door prizes went to Mrs. William Armour and Frank House. After the games they all journeyed to the garage where they enjoyed dancing until a late hour, when Stanley Mack who plays over the air at WDRG played the accordion. Refreshments consisting of hot dogs, coffee and peanut butter sandwiches were served. Mrs. Oscar Strong presented Mrs. Armour with a birthday cake.

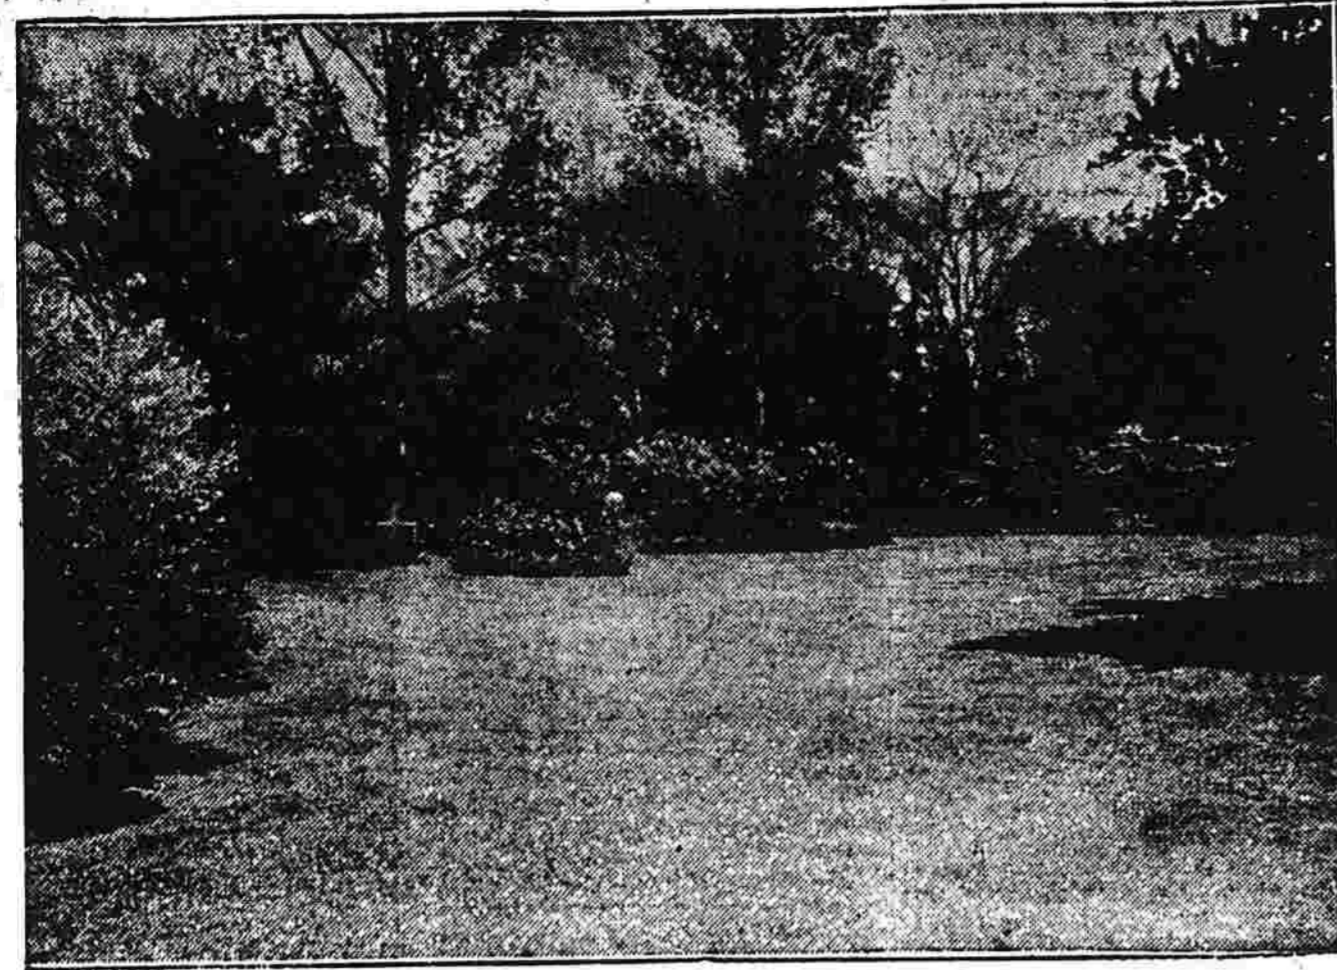

Mrs. Truman H. Woodward and infant daughter, Mary Lou, returned to their home in East Hartford from the Hartford hospital last Saturday.

The next meeting of the South Windsor Parent-Teachers Association will be held next Thursday, May 12. This is to be the annual meeting and section of officers will take place. Mrs. Alfred B. Wilson will act as hostess.

Mrs. Frank E. Bidwell left for Detroit, Mich., Sunday, as a delegate to the Supreme Shrine, order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, for a week.

The Wapping Parent-Teachers Association held its annual meeting Monday afternoon with 27 present and voted to the following officers:

Beautiful Hartford Garden Open to Public

Among the several Hartford and Simsbury private gardens that will be open to public view May 18 and 19 for the benefit of the Hartford Art School is the one pictured above. This is the garden on the estate of Mrs. Charles F. T. Seaverns at 1265 Asylum avenue, Hartford.

Mae Holden; membership committee, Mrs. George A. Frink; hostess, Mrs. Ruth L. Dewey; sunshine committee, Mrs. Anton Simler, Jr.; publicity committee, Mrs. Ruth Anderson. After the business meeting there was a cooking demonstration by the Northern Electric Light Company and Mrs. Anton Simler, Jr., was the lucky winner of the loaf of cake.

HEADS HOMEOPATHS

New Haven, May 11.—(AP)—Dr. Florence Compton of Middletown has been elected president of the Connecticut Homeopathic Medical Society.

Other officers chosen by the society at its annual meeting here yesterday were:

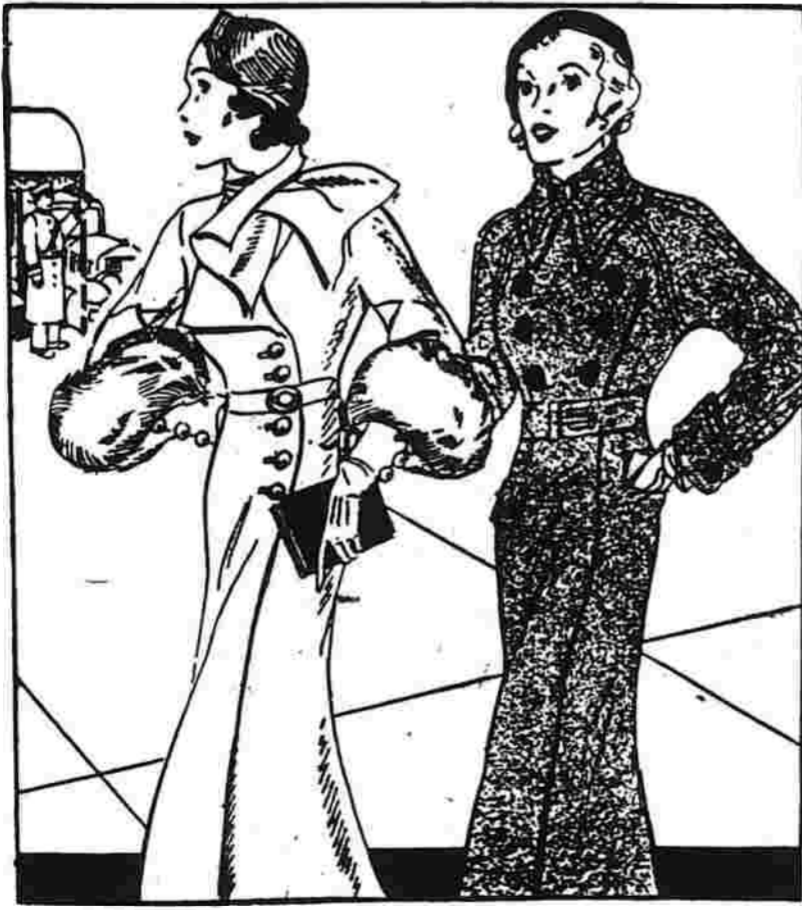

First vice president, Dr. Richard A. Mueller, Waterbury; second vice president, Dr. Stuart H. Bowman, Stamford; secretary, Dr. H. A. Roberts, Derby; and treasurer, Dr. Henry P. Sage.

Dr. Clarence N. Payne of Bridgeport, was named to the censors committee and Dr. Frederick E. Wilcox to the state examining board.

MRS. SUNDERLAND DIES

Danbury, Conn., May 11.—(AP)—Mrs. Rachel Sunderland, mother of State Police Commissioner Anthony Sunderland, died at her home here last night, in the eighty-ninth year of her age. Mrs. Sunderland, who had been an invalid many years, was the widow of William W. Sunderland, a prominent building contractor of this city. She leaves four sons, Dr. Paul V. Sunderland; Philip N. Sunderland, architect and secretary of the Danbury Board of Education; George M. Sunderland and Anthony Sunderland, and one daughter, Miss Isabelle Sunderland.

REVOLT REPORTED IN JUGO-SLAVIA

Sixteen Officers Arrested; Strict Censorship Prevails and Details Are Missing.

Vienna, May 11.—(AP)—Sensational reports which circulated in Vienna last night to the effect that King Alexander of Jugo Slavia had fled the country in the midst of a military revolt apparently were based on the arrest of 16 officers of the army for insubordination, it developed today.

The affair was serious enough, however, to cause Minister of War Stojanovic to go to Marburg, the scene of the insubordination, and officers, including a colonel, were brought to Belgrade for court martial.

Special dispatches to Vienna newspapers amplified these details considerably. The correspondent of the Reichspost said military officers were arrested at several garrisons besides Marburg and that one Marburg officer committed suicide and another attempted it.

Strict Censorship. The dispatch said the strictest censorship prevented the details from reaching Belgrade but that the conspiracy was aimed at the overthrow of the monarchy, the establishment of a Republic and the reorganization of the state on a federal basis.

Officials at Belgrade, insisted, however, that the affair was due merely to "personnel" differences between the officers and a superior. The official news agency issued a communique which said: "The reports which have circulated abroad concerning the alleged disorders in Jugo Slavia are completely without foundation and wholly biased in nature."

QUEER GOLD STRIKE

Fairbanks, Alaska, May 11.—(AP)—A gold strike was made in the heart of the Fairbanks business district, but there were no location notices posted and no stampeded followed. All the "pay dirt" was trucked off by the discoverer before anyone could "muscle in."

George Moore, a carpenter, helping raise the old Washington-Alaska bank building preparatory to construction of a new federal building here, saw bright yellow particles clinging to his hand.

Once a prospector, Moore yesterday appeared with a gold pan. Washed dirt yielded him 50 cents worth of the metal. He hired a truck and took five loads of the dirt away.

The gold dust probably had speeded through floors of the bank during the years it was receiving gold "pokes" of prospectors.

ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR UTILITY, NOT LUXURY

Committee On Finance of U. S. Senate Told Market For Product Is Really In Small Income Group In Nation.

In a report described as being "comprehensive but simple and straightforward," Louis Ruthenberg, chairman of the Refrigeration Division of the National Electrical Manufacturers Association, told the Committee of Finance of the Senate of the United States that electric refrigeration is a utility of poor people, and not a luxury of the rich.

The eleven electric refrigerator manufacturers who comprise this group produce approximately 90 per cent of the mechanical household refrigerators sold in 1931. Like the automobile the electric refrigerator is rapidly becoming a utilitarian article in millions of families of smaller incomes.

In Small Income Group. "As has been the case with the automobile, prices of electric refrigerators have been reduced as the pioneering stage has been passed and quantity production become possible.

In the ten year period from 1910 to 1920 there were but 10,000 electric refrigerators sold, and their average price was $600 each. In 1931, 965,000 household models were sold at an average retail value of $245 per unit. In 1932 prices have still further declined and a number of manufacturers are producing models that sell as low as $150 or less.

"Reduced prices in electric refrigeration are further evidenced by the fact that while unit volume increased in both 1930 and 1931 over 1929, the dollar volume was less in each year.

"Recently an investigation was made by a well known organization along 1,067 families in cities of various sizes ranging from Greenville, Texas, to Philadelphia, Boston and San Francisco. Of the families interviewed 28 per cent indicated that they intended to buy electric refrigerators.

Of this group 26.9 per cent had annual incomes of $1,000 to $2,000, 37 per cent had incomes ranging from $2,000 to $3,000, and 26.2 per cent had incomes of $3,000 to $5,000. Only 5.2 per cent had incomes of $5,000 to $10,000, and but eight-tenths of one per cent had incomes above $10,000.

"Approximately 20,441,249 homes in the United States are wired for electricity. This indicates an initial market saturation of 17.12 per cent, leaving $2.88 per cent of the market yet to be supplied with electric refrigeration.

Protects Health of People. "Dr. Royal S. Copeland, Senator from the State of New York, well known as an authority on public health, has said: 'Hundreds of thousands of persons in this country suffer the evil consequences of improper refrigeration. Milk must be kept at a low temperature (50 degrees Fahrenheit or below) from the time it is produced until it is consumed, if its quality is to be maintained. The only safe way is to have at your disposal some method of artificial refrigeration.'

"On this same subject, the United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Home Economics, states: 'Milk, fresh meat, poultry and fish, and many fresh fruits and vegetables, should be kept at a temperature of 50 degrees Fahrenheit, or preferably lower, to check the growth of microbes that cause souring and decay.'

"As many as 950 per hundred thousand of population have died from food poisoning in one year, according to the United States Bureau of the Census reports. Epidemics arising from the same source, have struck entire countries from time to time.

"Since 1923, the death rate from food poisoning has been decreasing. The last report shows it reduced to 750 per hundred thousand. This decline in the death rate from this cause parallels the growth of the electric refrigeration industry. The mechanical refrigeration industry has spent tens of millions of dollars in newspaper and magazine advertising repeating this vital fact over and over and over again. In effect, this industry has extended the work of Federal, state and municipal governments by impressing through the power of the press, the vital importance of food protection on the minds of the public.

Is Means Economy. "The mechanical refrigerator is an instrument of thrift because, compared with less modern food preservation mechanisms, the mechanical refrigerator accomplished the following things:

"1. Prevention of food losses (It is estimated that approximately 70 per cent of the foodstuffs sold in the United States are perishable.) The national loss caused by the shrinkage and spoiling of perishable foodstuffs amounts to hundreds of millions of dollars annually. Any mechanism that tends to reduce this tremendous loss must contribute greatly to the savings effected by families of modest incomes.

"2. The householder, having adequate and efficient means for food storage and preservation, need purchase perishable foods only when the lowest prices are offered.

"3. Gives Employment. "From the standpoint of the unemployment situation, a canvass of the companies represented by the National Electrical Manufacturers' Association, indicates that those companies give employment to approximately 180,000 people. Any factor that would unduly increase production costs would tend to reduce the sale of electric refrigerators and lessen employment, there-county said Meeker also implicated himself.

Found in Creek. The nude body of Meeker's young wife, Gertrude, was found Monday morning lying in a creek near Millersburg. She had been killed by blows on the head.

About a mile away, officers found the husband's automobile with blood on the running board, wrecked against a tree.

With this evidence, Holmes county officers subjected Meeker to questioning and he confessed.

Meeker's Statement. Sheriff Stevens said Meeker related that the two men and the woman were riding in Meeker's automobile when Young struck Mrs. Meeker with a tire pump. Subsequent blows killed her, and the two men then attempting to cover up the crime, sent the automobile hurtling down the road, driverless, to make it appear the woman had been killed in an accident.

Immediately after obtaining the confession, Sheriff Stevens and Sheriff Clark Shearer of Wayne county, went to Young's home to arrest him. They were breaking through a locked door when they heard a shotgun fired, and a moment later found Young's body with a fatal wound in the head.

Meeker was held in the Holmes county jail at Millersburg, pending the filing of charges.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Manchester high school debaters and all those interested in debating will certainly look forward to the following announcement of a broadcast on the same question as was debated this year by the triangular teams.

Leaders among America's high school debaters will be heard over WABC and the Columbia network from 4:00 to 5:00 p. m., EDST, Wednesday, May 18, when the national high school championship debating finals will be broadcast from the auditorium of East High School, Sioux City, Ia. The occasion will be the outstanding event of the Second National Speech Tournament, to be held in Sioux City under the auspices of the National Forensic League.

The question for debate will be: "Resolved, That the Several States Should Enact Legislation Providing for Compulsory Unemployment Insurance," a subject which carries more than usual weight at this time. Preliminary to the final contest, this same question has been under debate in high schools in more than 5,000 communities of 33 states.

The two teams to be heard during the broadcast of the final contest will be the survivors of approximately 20,000 high school teams that have studied and debated the question during that period. The result of the debate and the broadcast has been so arranged that students throughout the country who have been preliminary participants in the question will be enabled to hear its treatment by the star debaters who will take part in the championship contest.

Evidence of a rapidly growing interest in debating is manifested in the remarkable increase in the number of entrants over that of last year, as well as in a large number of letters from prominent educators throughout the country who urged that the Columbia network broadcast the final debate.

As a result of last year's tournament, held at Ripon, Wisconsin, teams from Miami, Okla., H. S. and Topeka, Kansas, H. S. were respectively the champions and runners-up. Meriden high won in Connecticut City tomorrow.

Urbaneth, Britton, Brozowski, and Sturgeon, will play the first tennis game of this season against West Hartford this afternoon. The eight boys who have been playing tennis constantly since the beginning of May in order to play off all of the matches scheduled have completed their round robin so they are in fine shape to start the tennis season. Manchester's success at tennis was so successful last year that the school looks forward to some excellent matches this season. The Nathan Hale courts have been used thus far but high school courts are being rolled at present and will undoubtedly be ready for use by Friday of this week.

The assembly for tomorrow is in same rate.

BOARD APPROVES LIBRARY IN REC

An expression of opinion from the board was made so that he could report on the matter before the annual district meeting which will be held some time before July 15. He made it clear that the proposed changes in the Recreation building but that in return for this expenditure the town should give a 10-year lease to the library. The recommendation was unanimously voted.

Tax Collector George H. Howe appeared before the Selectmen last night to have his rate books signed. While in the meeting he asked the Selectmen if anything could be done to relieve the needy of the $1.00 penalty for non-payment of the personal tax. It was decided that nothing could be done along this line since the $1.00 penalty is by state law and not by town by-law.

Circus Fee. The board sent a letter to Chief of Police S. C. Gordon authorizing him to charge a $50 circus fee if applications are made for licenses this year. Previously the town by-law stated no particular fee for a circus performance here and it was difficult for the chief to impress it upon the advance agents of the shows that they would have to pay $50 in town.

A letter was received from the Board of Assessors stating that a clerical error had been made in the list of Mrs. Catherine Helm on Summit street. The amount overpaid was $8.88 and the payments extended over the period from 1925 on. It was voted to refund the money to Mrs. Helm.

It was reported to the board that it would now be possible to purchase additional property for the West cemetery on Spencer street since Emil Seelert who owns the property east of the cemetery is willing to sell whatever is needed. It is understood that Mr. Seelert is willing to take his payment in lieu of paying taxes over a period of years. The proposition was turned down since there is little demand for lots in the West cemetery and the town has a large area as yet undeveloped in the East cemetery.

The Permanent Memorial Day committee asked the Selectmen for permission to place a cabinet of war relics in the Municipal building. The clerk was instructed to get more detailed information since it was not clear from the letter whether or not the cabinet would be furnished or it would be necessary for the town to construct one.

The directors of the Whiton Memorial Library asked for a ruling on the rental of the auditorium in the new building. It was voted to have the directors make recommendations and present them at the next regular meeting of the Selectmen. Until that time the directors will have jurisdiction over the building.

East Center Street Lines. The question of building lines at East Center and Foster streets was tabled until the next meeting since the highway committee has not yet met to make a recommendation. A request from national headquarters of the George Washington Bicentennial commission for the naming of an official committee was turned over to the original monument committee named by the Knights of Pythias. Town bills were approved and the report of Building Inspector Edward C. Elliott, Jr. was read and accepted. Copies of these will be found elsewhere in today's Herald.

State Building and Loan Associations Meeting Today At Hotel Bond, Hartford.

Three representatives of the Manchester Building and Loan Association are attending the State League of Building and Loan Associations being held at the Hotel Bond in Hartford today. The state session is an all-day affair and features Governor Cross as its principal speaker.

The Manchester delegates are officers of the local association: Frank Cheney, Jr., president; C. E. Hodge, secretary; and Fred L. G. Hohenstiel, director. The program includes many noted speakers and also the regular annual business session together with the election of officers.

MODEL KITCHENS TO BE EXHIBITED

Watkins Brothers Sponsoring Hoosier Cabinet Demonstration Here.

The first of a group of model kitchens and breakfast rooms are now under construction in Watkins Brothers basement. For the present two breakfast rooms and one kitchen will be shown, decorated in style similar to the well-known cottage rooms shown for many years in the Watkins main store annex.

The outside of the new rooms will be decorated to represent model cottages, with the exposed sides clabboarded and with decorations at each side of the door. The interior will be decorated in the latest style, using the new marbled linoleum especially made for walls.

The breakfast rooms will be done

in the latest color schemes, with ultra modern equipment and will prove an added attraction to homeowners seeking the current styles in kitchen and breakfast room equipment.

During the current week Watkins Brothers will sponsor a factory demonstration of Hoosier cabinets. To the first 100 homemakers taking advantage of this spring showing of the Hoosier line, the company will give a 16-piece topaz glassware set for 99 cents. The set consists of four large compartment plates, four cups, four saucers and four footed water glasses. They are ideal for luncheons and bridge parties.

The Hoover line includes breakfast sets, kitchen cabinets, utility cupboards, base storage cabinets and other kitchen utilities and furnishings.

VICTIM OF SHOOTING DIES

New Haven, May 11.—(AP)—Mrs. Wilhemina Masley, 51, who shot herself yesterday morning in her home in Wallingford, died early today in New Haven hospital.

Ill health, police believed, was the cause of her suicide. She left three notes, written in Hungarian, but her husband has been unable to read them, and police have been unable to get them translated.

Masley said his wife awakened him yesterday morning and told him "I won't be any bother to you any more." When she collapsed, he discovered the bullet wound.

The set consists of four large compartment plates, four cups, four saucers and four footed water glasses. They are ideal for luncheons and bridge parties.

VICTIM OF SHOOTING DIES

New Haven, May 11.—(AP)—Mrs. Wilhemina Masley, 51, who shot herself yesterday morning in her home in Wallingford, died early today in New Haven hospital.

Ill health, police believed, was the cause of her suicide. She left three notes, written in Hungarian, but her husband has been unable to read them, and police have been unable to get them translated.

Watkins Brothers Sponsoring Hoosier Cabinet Demonstration Here.

The first of a group of model kitchens and breakfast rooms are now under construction in Watkins Brothers basement. For the present two breakfast rooms and one kitchen will be shown, decorated in style similar to the well-known cottage rooms shown for many years in the Watkins main store annex.

The outside of the new rooms will be decorated to represent model cottages, with the exposed sides clabboarded and with decorations at each side of the door. The interior will be decorated in the latest style, using the new marbled linoleum especially made for walls.

The breakfast rooms will be done

in the latest color schemes, with ultra modern equipment and will prove an added attraction to homeowners seeking the current styles in kitchen and breakfast room equipment.

KNIGHTS ADVANCE 20 CANDIDATES

Third Degree To Be Conferred At Big Meeting Here Next Sunday.

Campbell Council W. of C. last night presented and advanced a class of twenty candidates through the final working of the Second Degree in preparation for the major or Third Degree which is to be conferred upon a class of thirty candidates at a special degree meeting which is to be held in Tinker hall next Sunday afternoon.

The meeting will open in the preparation of the degree at 2:30. The class will be known as the Jubilee Class as 1932 marks the fiftieth anniversary of the incorporation of the Knights of Columbus as a fraternal and insurance organization under the laws of Connecticut. The committee having charge for the social section of the degree is arranging for an exceptionally large number of out of town members of the order who have already signified their intentions of being present.

HOLD SIX SUSPECTS

Hartford, May 11.—(AP)—Six alleged safe crackers, arrested late Tuesday night and early today were arraigned in police court this morning on various charges and all bound over to the June term of the Superior Court under heavy bonds. They were: Julian Masurk, 21, of 1317 Broad street, and David Brown, 25, of 1829 Broad street, both charged with breaking and entering and theft, reckless operation of automobiles and evading respondent; George F. Tobin, 19, of 187 West street; Fred De Monte, 19, of 190 New Britain avenue, and Joseph Letteri, 20, of 16 Roxbury street, all three charged with breaking and entering and theft, and held in bonds of $2,500 each, and Frank Matarrese, 23, of 81 Brown street, charged with aiding and abetting in the crime and held under bond of $1,000.

A squad of Hartford detectives and patrolmen rounded up the accused at the home of Matarrese with the exception of Letteri, who was picked up by a state police officer at his father's cottage in Clinton.

COTTON CARNIVAL BEGINS

Memphis, Tenn., May 11.—(AP)—A gaily decorated Memphis was given over to revelry today for the opening of the second annual cotton carnival, and King Cotton, "white gold of the delta" began a three day rule.

The carnival also marks Memphis' celebration of the Washington bicentennial.

"King Cotton" J. P. Norfleet, and his queen, Catharine Butler, were instructed to receive tributes from the cotton industry and religious blessings before proceeding to city hall, where Mayor Watkins Overton, a great-grandson of one of the founders of Memphis, arranged to turn over the keys to the city.

It was Memphis' tribute to cotton from which a large part of the city's income is derived. Mayors from cities in Arkansas, Mississippi and West Tennessee are here for the celebration.

Three days of dancing and parading will close Friday with a grand carnival parade led by the king and queen and a ball.

CAMBRIDGE BANK CLOSED

Cambridge, Mass., May 11.—(AP)—The Central Trust Company of Cambridge and its branches were closed to business today, the directors of the bank having asked Bank Commissioner Arthur Guy to take possession of the affairs of the company.

According to the latest statement of the bank, it had deposits, surplus and capital totaling $11,808,000. There were 22,000 depositors.

Heavy withdrawals during the past three weeks made necessary the action taken, the directors said. They said the bank was solvent. President Walter G. Davis said a reorganization was expected which would result in the depositors being paid in full.

When Commissioner Guy took possession of the bank and its branch offices, he said he had no reason of his own to close the bank and no need to investigate its affairs. The company is in no way connected with any other bank.

ROLLING MILL REOPENS

Amherst, N. S., May 11.—(AP)—After a long period of idleness, the Amherst rolling mill of the Canadian Car and Foundry Company will resume operations late this week.

W. T. Caldwell, manager, announced today he had received word from the company's head office that an order will be allotted the Amherst mill sufficient to keep it running until some time in the summer.

CHORUS GIRL'S CHANCES

New York, May 11.—(AP)—There's a bright future ahead for the American chorus girl—providing her brain is as nimble as her feet—Maurice d'Kobra, French author said today.

"Any $40 a week chorus girl can work her way to the heights for which she hopes, if she has brains to balance her beauty," he said.

Marriage is De Kobra's idea of success for the chorus girl.

"The truly successful ones marry into the French peerage," he said.

SPEAKER CALLS LOYALTY OUR NOBLEST QUALITY

Hartford, May 11.—(AP)—A new benediction, "Blessed be loyalty," should be added to those in the New Testament which cover almost all of the fine attributes which men desire, said the Rev. Hazel I. Kirk of Danvers, Mass., president of the Women's National Missionary Association of the Universalist church at the annual meeting of the association this afternoon at the Church of the Redeemer, West Hartford. The meeting opened the one hundredth anniversary of the Connecticut Universalist convention, which will be held here today and tomorrow.

"Loyalty is one of the noblest qualities of the human race," the speaker told the convention delegates. "In friendship it has many names, affection, fair-mindedness, sincerity, fair play; in civic and national life we call it patriotism; in church work we call it faithfulness, generosity, zeal; but by whatever name it is called the fundamental principle is the same."

Quoting the 39th session of the Anglican Synod that a marriage of a Catholic and an Anglican performed by an Anglican clergyman is entirely valid and cannot be annulled.

"Whatever regulations the Church of Rome may see fit to make in the case of mixed marriages, and these regulations have been very prominently broadcast of late, it ought to be made perfectly clear to our own church people that a marriage duly solemnized between a Roman Catholic and a member of the Church of England by one of our own clergy is perfectly valid and cannot be annulled," the bishop said. "There is no obligation at all that the ceremony must be by a priest of the Church of Rome and no promise should ever be made by a member of our own church that the children of the marriage be baptized and brought up in the Roman Catholic faith."

ANGLICAN MARRIAGES CANNOT BE ANNULLED

Quebec, May 11.—(AP)—The Right Reverend Lenox Williams, Anglican bishop of Quebec, told delegates to the 39th session of the Diocesan Synod that a marriage of a Catholic and an Anglican performed by an Anglican clergyman is entirely valid and cannot be annulled.

"Whatever regulations the Church of Rome may see fit to make in the case of mixed marriages, and these regulations have been very prominently broadcast of late, it ought to be made perfectly clear to our own church people that a marriage duly solemnized between a Roman Catholic and a member of the Church of England by one of our own clergy

PREPARE PARSONAGE FOR NEW MINISTER

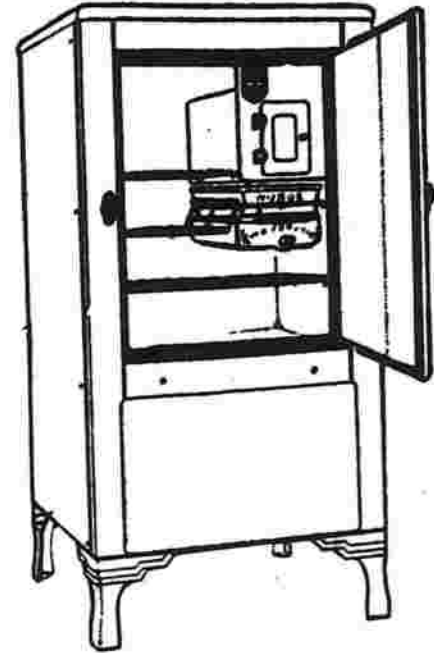

Swedish Lutheran Pastor's Home Undergoing Extensive Repairs—Expect Rev. Ericson June 19.

The parsonage of the Swedish Lutheran church is undergoing extensive general repairs and alterations in preparation for the arrival of Rev. Knut Ericson of Chicago, Ill., who will assume the local pastorate about June 19. A large part of the work is being done by members of the church, with funds contributed by various societies and organizations.

The interior of the ten room house has been entirely redecorated, including new floor, and wall paper. The exterior is being painted an ivory color by members of the Bethoven Glee Club, who with the Dorcas society, Ladies A1 society and G. C. Glee club, contributed funds for the inside work. A new front veranda has also been constructed. A two-car garage has been built by the Men's society, and it is expected that the work will be completed by the first week in June.

AN ANCIENT WONDER TALE COMES TO LIFE in Your Kitchen

In the old Arabian Nights story, Ali Baba kept his treasure in a cave, whose door opened when he spoke two magic words: "Open sesame."

JUST a fairy tale, of course... but scarcely more wonderful than the modern kitchen magic of electric refrigeration, as Leonard places it at your command. You need little more than a word to open your Leonard Electric, because of the exclusive LEN-A-DOR. Simply touch your toe to a lever near the floor; gently the door swings wide.

Note the beauty of the new Leonard... its durable, lustrous finish... its unusual roominess and ice capacity... its many extra features—chrome hardware, semi-concealed hinges, broom-room legs, one-piece steel exterior, table top, Leonard approved insulation, one-piece porcelain interior, Chill-on-ster with 8 freezing

ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR

Safely through the critical years

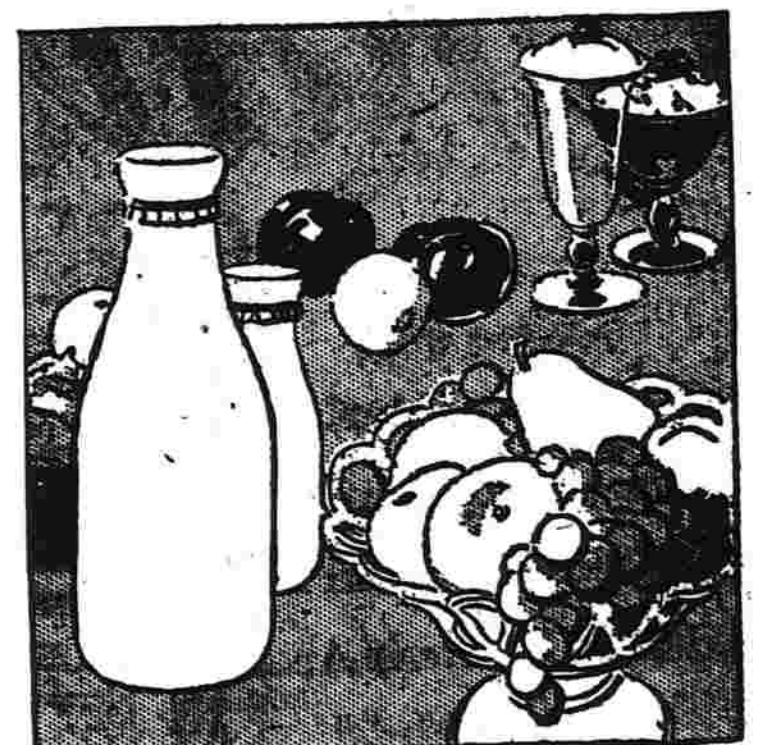

our Electric Refrigerator keeps his food fresh and wholesome

"HOW well I remember the words of our baby's doctor: 'The food and drink of your children are the materials of which their growing bodies are made. Keep an eye on their milk—be certain it is pure, safe—always fresh. Keep an eye on every single item of their food. Baby digestions are easily upset.'"

"Do you wonder that I insisted on adequate refrigeration in our home? And what a real investment I have found our electric refrigerator! With its automatic cold temperature—I never have to worry a moment about the wholesomeness of the children's food or milk. And for all of us it is an inexhaustible reminder of the most novel menus—a never-ending source of pleasure and stimulator of thrift. "The meat pies I can make, the soups, stews, and casseroles, all from left-overs kept fresh in my electric refrigerator. The delicious, economical frozen puddings, sherbets and frappes I make—and frosty fruit drinks with ice cubes tinkling in them! Since an electric refrigerator can be bought on such very easy terms, and it makes possible so many, many thrifty things, I often wonder why anyone should try to get along without one!"

Consider quality above price when buying an electric refrigerator. Select one adequate to your family needs. A good rule is to provide 2 cubic feet of refrigerator capacity for each member of your household.

TOWN GETS KEYS TO NEW LIBRARY

Chairman of Selectmen Takes Over New Building — Dr. Butterfield Speaks.

"Three hundred years ago the Pilgrim Fathers laid the foundation for the literary and educational advancement in New England," said Dr. Ernest W. Butterfield, State Commissioner of Education in his dedicatory address in the Whiton Memorial Library auditorium yesterday afternoon. "The Virginia and New England settlements were made at about the same time, he continued. "Both settlements were by English speaking people, yet the foundations laid then were vastly different. Virginia was of the aristocracy, while New England was settled by democratic peoples.

"In the south, the newcomers settled on large plantations and paid no attention to the ideals which later became an integral part of the life of the northern colonies. New England settlers founded churches and schools soon after settlement, and later when these colonies migrated westward they took their civilization with them, with the result that they became educated and possessed higher intellectual ideals.

"In the south, when the time came to migrate westward into the mountains of Kentucky and beyond, the pioneers suffered because of the lack of learning. Today, many families living in the mountains cannot read or write. There are books in homes which are never opened."

The dedication exercises were opened at 2:30 p. m. by Edwin A. Lydall, chairman of the board of directors of the library. Mr. Lydall reviewed the early history of the library in Manchester which was begun over 40 years ago, in the Patten and Brown building by the King's Daughters. He complimented the long list of workers who were instrumental in bringing about the new library building, provided through the will of Dr. Francis H. Whiton, one of the early directors.

was a using process rather than an experience once having gone through, and should be continued in post-school life. "We should all strive to create new and varied interests in books," he said, "and the greatest medium possible for carrying out these motives is through the public library."

Wells A. Strickland, chairman of the building committee reviewed the many details incident to the decision of the committee of the Community group, planning for the new buildings. He especially gave due credit to the Robertson family for their deep interest in the welfare of the townspeople and children, and to William H. Childs, and the donors of the buildings for helping to make the realization of a community group possible.

Mr. Strickland also gave credit to all who have been in a position to give assistance during the trying period of construction. He presented the keys of the new building to Thomas J. Rogers, chairman of the Board of Selectmen of Manchester.

Mayor Rogers complimented the Board of Directors on the acquisition of the new building and said that the result proved that the committee had done its work well. He acknowledged that it was a distinct pleasure to represent the town in accepting the keys of the library.

Following the dedication by Rev. Frederick C. Allen, pastor of the Second Congregational church, the guests were shown the new building. The High school orchestra under the direction of Miss Marion Doward furnished music for the dedication ceremony.

Open Hours
Announcement of the opening hours of the Whiton Memorial Library was made today. They are as follows: Tuesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons from 2:00 to 5:00 and Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings from 7:00 to 9:00 o'clock. The present schedule does not make any provision for open hours on Saturdays.

LOCAL GIRL SCOUTS WIN FIVE AWARDS

Manchester may well be proud of its Girl Scouts, for they received five awards, four first and one second, in the exhibit that competed for the Eastern States Exposition. They were as follows: Troop 3, Girl Scout trefold patch-work quilt, first award. Troop 4, mounded sampler, first award. Patch-work quilt, second award. Troop 8, little old-fashioned fireside chair, first award. Troop 8, needle-point cushion, first award. These articles will be displayed at the Old Gilbert House in September and become the property of the Eastern States Exposition and part of the permanent exhibit. These awards were made at the New London convention last week, a report of which was made at the monthly meeting of the Girl Scout Council yesterday afternoon at Scout headquarters in the Cheney building by Mrs. Harold Agard, one of the delegates. The Girl Scout movement is steadily growing in Connecticut. Sixty new troops have been formed during the past year, making an increase of 400, with a total of 9,827 Girl Scouts in the state at the present time.

Girl Scout Play Day
Play Day for all Girl Scouts will be held at the old Golf Links on Center street, Saturday, May 14 from 2 to 5. The Drum and Bugle Corps will play for marching and also give a demonstration of their work. Mrs. Charles Oliver, local commissioner will have charge of the opening exercises, followed by the presentation of the badges and awards by Mrs. John Pickles, chairman of that committee. Games, relays and a general good time make up the program, with ice cream and candy for sale and an ice cream cup for each Girl Scout. Mrs. Harold Agard, field captain, will take charge of the good-night circle. If rainy, the Play Day will be held at the state armory.

Brownie Reveal
The Brownie Reveal will be held at the old Golf Links, Saturday, June 4. Further announcements will be made later. Council members, parents and friends are invited to join the Play Day and the Brownie Reveal.

Camp Norton
Announcement was made by the camp committee that Camp Norton will be open the first part of July for two weeks or more for local Girl Scouts.

The final meeting of the council will be an outing at Camp Norton June 14.

Mrs. C. P. Quimby was hostess at yesterday's meeting and served delicious refreshments.

BOLTON YOUTH'S HEN LAYS 8 INCH EGG
Kneeland Jones, Jr. has Rhode Island Red That Produces Big Spheroid.
Thirteen years old Kneeland Jones, Jr., of Bolton is the proud possessor today of a most unusual egg—one that weighs 8 1/2 ounces, measures 7 1/4 inches in length and circumference and 6 inches around the middle.
The egg was laid yesterday by one of the Rhode Island Red hens which Kneeland has in his flock. The boy is a member of the 4-H Poultry club of which David Toomey is the leader. Each member has a flock and makes daily reports.
Kneeland is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kneeland R. Jones.

NEW STATE SANITARY CODE REGULATIONS

Public Health Council Issues New Decree Covering Rules On Bathing Establishments.

The Public Health Council, at its meeting April 21 approved the adoption of a new Sanitary Code regulation for bathing establishments to take effect June 1.

Reg. 117.—A public bathing establishment, as used in these regulations, shall include the grounds, bath houses, toilets and other appurtenances of any bathing establishment on or near any stream, natural or artificial pond, or tidal water where bath houses for the use of the public are maintained either free or for hire. No city, town, borough, institution, person, firm or corporation shall operate or maintain any public bathing establishment except after full and literal compliance with the following regulations.

(a)—Adequate numbers of fly-tight privies or water-flushed toilets and sewage disposal systems shall be constructed and located in such a way as not to contaminate the waters used by the bathers. These accommodations shall be installed with the approval of the local health officer and shall be maintained at all times in a sanitary condition. Separate toilets for men and women shall be provided. The location of all toilets shall be plainly indicated by signs.

(b)—No water supply shall be available for drinking unless of safe, sanitary quality.

(c)—The dressing rooms, hallways, toilet rooms, shower rooms or other rooms to which patrons have access shall be kept clean and well ventilated at all times. No combs or brushes for common use shall be provided for the use of patrons.

(d)—All persons known or suspected of being afflicted with communicable diseases shall be excluded.

(e)—No bathing suits or towels shall be furnished to patrons unless such bathing suits or towels have been thoroughly washed with soap and hot water and dried after previous use.

(f)—Fly-tight depositories shall be provided where necessary for the reception of rubbish, garbage or other refuse contaminated material and shall be maintained in a sanitary condition.

Y. M. C. A. ANNUAL MEETING TONIGHT

Session In Local Y Building; Committee Re-Nominates Six Directors.

The third annual meeting of the Manchester Y. M. C. A. will be held this evening starting at 8 o'clock. The session will take place in the Y. M. C. A. building. Members of the board of directors will be named and officers appointed.

The nominating committee has prepared a slate of six names for re-election to the board of directors. They are Joseph Wright, W. W. Robertson, Edward R. Coleman, Mrs. James Shearer, Charles B. Loomis and William Foulds, Jr., whose terms expire.

Following the regular annual meeting, the board of directors will go into executive session and appoint its officers who at present are as follows: Wells A. Strickland, president; Mrs. Clifford R. Burr, vice-president; Mrs. James Shearer, secretary and Harold C. Norton, treasurer.

TEN HUET IN MOT
Wellington, N. Z., May 11.—(AP)—Ten men were sent to the hospital and 20 others were less seriously hurt today when police swinging their clubs, broke up a riot by 2,000 unemployed.

The mob grew unruly during a harangue from a soap box. When police ordered them to disperse they threw sticks and stones and the police charged.

Yesterday a disorderly crowd stoned the Parliament building and the stores around the square, breaking 150 windows and looting some of the shops.

Mrs. Dorothy Beaverstock Seeks Damages For Injuries To Throat and Mouth—Two Defendants.

Rockville, May 11.—Herman Backofen, who conducts a market on Cottage street and A. C. Hunt Co. of Springfield, Mass., are the defendants in a suit brought against them by Mrs. Dorothy Beaverstock of Mountain street, returnable in the Tolland County Superior Court. She alleges that her tongue and throat were cut and torn and she was made ill after eating cheese purchased at the Backofen store which contained glass and other foreign substances. The cheese was purchased from the A. C. Hunt Company by Mr. Backofen.

The plaintiff alleges that on December 10, 1931, she went to the store conducted by Mr. Backofen, purchasing the cheese. It was wrapped in tinfoil and bore the label of the A. C. Hunt Company. The cheese contained glass and other foreign substances. Not knowing

FOUR NEW MEMBERS JOIN THE CHAMBER

Board of Control Transacts Routine Business At Meeting Held Yesterday.

Four applications for membership in the Chamber of Commerce were accepted at the monthly meeting of the Board of Control yesterday afternoon, consisting of the individual application of A. J. Collier and the firm applications of the Manchester Dairy Ice Cream company, Marlow's and E. J. Holl.

It was voted not to send a delegate to the annual convention of the national Chamber of Commerce as the meeting is being held in California. Secretary E. J. McCabe reported that the name of the new post office building would be "Manchester," as announced in last night's Herald. The directors also discussed the budget of the Chamber and other routine business.

ALLOWED BUT $3,500
New York, May 11.—(AP)—A verdict of $3,500 was awarded by the Queens County Supreme Court jury today to Miss Claire Feilner in her $50,000 breach of promise suit against Paul Berlenbach, former world's light heavyweight boxing champion.

The verdict, sealed by the jury, was opened in Supreme Court today. Counsel for Miss Feilner filed a motion asking the verdict be set aside on the ground the amount was inadequate. Berlenbach's attorney filed a similar motion, alleging the verdict was contrary to the evidence. Both motions were denied.

Berlenbach's defense was that Miss Feilner broke their engagement.

BY MABEL McELLIOTT

BEGIN HERE TODAY

SUSAN CAREY, pretty secretary who is in love with BOB DUNBAR, has a proposal of marriage from BEN LAMPMAN, prominent young man. She refuses him. Ben is jealous and several weeks later when Susan agrees to marry ERNEST HEATH her employer, Ben shoots at her, then turning the gun on himself. MRS. MITTON ACKROYD has informed Bob that Susan is going to marry Ben. Ben's condition is serious and Susan is distressed. JACK WABING, Heath's assistant, told Bob that Susan is still free. Bob tries to find her but cannot. She goes to travel in the west and Susan stays with friends. She does not get Bob's message. Ben begins to show signs of recovering and Susan tries to tell Heath she cannot marry him because she does not love him.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XXXVII

After wavering in the balance for several days Ben Lampman's condition suddenly improved. The doctor announced that Ben would recover. Susan did not make another trip to the hospital. From Ernest Heath she heard the details of Ben's convalescence. As soon as the young man was strong enough to travel he went on to California where his job in an orchestra awaited him.

Poor Ben! There was something pitiful about him, even about his magnificently foolish behavior. Susan was delighted to know that his recovery was certain but the inevitable reaction had set in. She was annoyed with Ben for having made her conspicuous. She felt he had placed her in a false and ridiculous position. It wasn't as if she had ever snatched him. She hadn't and she had him to thank for opening new the whole problem of her marriage.

Before the shooting her course had seemed so simple, and so plain. It had seemed both generous and wise of her to accept Ernest Heath's name and protection. Now she saw that love was never wise but always irrational, wild and passionate. It was Ben who had made that clear to her. She knew he had not meant to do it but he had accomplished it just the same.

She procrastinated. She let the days pass without coming to a decision. She even wore, nowadays, on the third finger of her left hand a ring with a single, standing diamond. She would tell Ernest Heath of her change of heart but always at the last minute her courage would fail. Then, too, she had to think of Aunt Jessie. She had promised herself she would take care of Aunt Jessie always.

She tried to talk to Rose about it, but there was not much help from this quarter since she did not dare to speak of Bob Dunbar. After all, what was there to tell? She and Bob had shared a few glorious moments of perfect mutual comprehension. Once in a lifetime, fools and wise men say, one gets his mate. Whether this was true or not, Susan thought she had found hers in this tall, fair, sunburned young man whose eyes were so different from hers. But how could she explain all that to Rose? Practical Rose would say, "D'ye ever say anything? I mean did he ask you to marry him?" And Rose would over the admission that he had not, Rose approved of Ernest Heath. She said and thought that Susan was a lucky girl.

So the days slipped by and nearing came the date set for the wedding. Aunt Jessie wrote glowing letters from Florida. She was feeling ever so much better, she said. She would be home soon.

One afternoon when Susan went over to the little house to see if all well there she met Mr. Schultz, the next door neighbor.

"Young feller's been around asking about you," he told her.

Susan's heart gave a wild leap. It was preposterous, of course, but suppose Bob should have been looking for her here the very day he had to speak to her. "What was he like?" she asked.

Mr. Schultz was, as he would have put it, "no great hand at description." He fumbled for words.

"Oh, a sort of medium sized—well maybe he was tallish, young feller," he said slowly. "He wore a gray overcoat and no hat like these college boys selling magazines."

Her disappointment was keen. "I guess maybe he was one of those," Mr. Schultz said, feeling he had failed her but not quite knowing why.

"I suppose so," Susan answered. When she went into the house she heard the telephone bell ringing and sped to it but just before she reached the dining room the bell gave a final gasp and stopped. Susan picked up the receiver with fingers that trembled. The operator's matter-of-fact voice droned, "Number please?"

"You called this number," Susan told her fiercely.

"Sorry but there's no one on the wire now."

The girl could have wept at the words. Someone had been trying to reach her. All her immediate friends knew she was staying at Rose's. It might have been—it might have been the one person she longed to hear from!

For the hundredth time Susan chided herself for her folly. How could she go on hoping in the face of so many disappointments? If she had known that at that instant Bob Dunbar was disconsolately quitting a pay station in the loop, her heart would have leapt for joy. But she had not known that. She had only seemed to speak to the one person who would have given her so much. Mrs. Milton whose round common sense and innate worldliness rejoiced in a good match, Aunt Jessie who was so helpless.

"It's too late to back out now," the girl told herself excitedly. "I must go through with it."

Heath was taking her to dinner and to the theater at evening. Lately the girl rubbed and arrayed herself. How different it was, she thought, to be going out with one man and with the only man she took no pleasure tonight in her appearance although her mirror gave back the image of a slim, glowing girl in a simple white frock. She knew she looked well but she didn't care. It didn't seem to matter. The thought of that telephone call remained persistently in the back of her mind. Of course it might have been no one. It might have been a wrong number but there was always the chance.

Mrs. Milton appeared at the door of the bedroom, beaming at her.

"My, but you do look fine," she said. "Guess what I've got for you!"

Susan widened her eyes. "I never could. Did you have a devil's food cake?"

Mrs. Milton smiled. "Listen to the girl," she implored the ceiling. "No, it's nothing like that. Can't you think of something else?"

Susan said she could not. She was brushing her hair, pressing it into sleek waves around her face. Mrs. Milton with the air of a conjurer produced a huge green dressmaker's box.

"There must be a mistake," Susan said. "It must be something else. You're giving me a thing."

"Your name is on it, large as life," Mrs. Milton told her triumphantly.

Excitedly she cut the strings and folded back the tissue.

"My greatest thrill," she declared, "came when Roy Wilson in an airplane tried to drop a note to Jimmy Flavin and me in an automobile and hit an air pocket, causing him to nearly crash right into me. Now that it's all over I can look back on it as simply an exciting moment. But at the time I was so frightened I couldn't even think."

Lucille had been mauling by an ape, has been soaked with ice water while working in snow, has taken immovable falls from horses and recently was nearly drowned when she became entangled in her parachute after falling into a lake. She hasn't even had a chance to find out if she likes Hollywood.

"I have to get up at 5:30 in the morning to be on location on time and when the day is finished I'm too tired to go anywhere but to bed," she declares.

And that, folks, is what we call earning one's salary.

Susan stammered, "I can't take it from him." So this was what Heath had meant the night before when he spoke of a surprise. "I'd like to know why," demanded Mrs. Milton roundly. "Aren't you going to be married in two weeks? It's perfectly proper. Anyhow you'll have to wear it tonight or he'll be disappointed." Mrs. Milton seized the dress and pointed to it. "I believe that's what this is," she gazed at the girl with awe.

"I believe that's what this is," she gazed at the girl with awe.

Half fearfully Susan slipped into the sumptuous wrap. Above the fur her face rose clear and pale and proud. It changed her, subtly altered her whole aspect. Mrs. Milton whispered. She ran her hands over the velvet-soft surface of the fur and Susan did likewise. The girl thought she knew now why women were enthralled by the promise of riches. "There was something indelicious about such a coat."

When Heath arrived a few moments later his eyes shone with pleasure at the sight of her.

"It's much too fine for me," Susan told him shyly.

"My dear," said the man with some emotion, "nothing is." He drew her to him. She rested her palms against the silk lapels of his dinner coat. She hated herself for the thought but she hoped he wasn't going to kiss her.

Almost as if he divined her thoughts, the man looked at her shrewdly, smiled, and let her go.

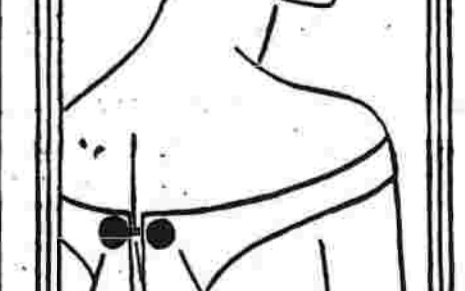

"There, we shall be late if we don't hurry."

Simon smiled at her as he helped her into the car. Was this all true, Susan wondered, or was she dreaming? Was she soon to be mistress of so much grandeur?

They rode through shabby streets where children pelted each other with snow balls and tired workmen nodded home through the dark. Susan shivered, pulling the fur closer around her throat. Why was she here when her heart belonged somewhere else?

New Necklines

Evening gowns are now adjusting their necklines to follow the lines of bathing suits, the reverse of a few seasons ago, when bathing suits were made to follow the lines of evening gowns. One of the newest evening necklines of startling proportions is shown here. The shoulder straps are cut sideways from the front rather than vertically and are wrapped about the arms just at the shoulder tip. They are not attached to the dress at the back, but fasten together by means of elaborately jeweled end-links, holding the back bare. The earrings match the cuff-links.

FEWER WEDDING RINGS

A London West End registrar asserts that few of the couples he has married this year have used wedding rings. He attributes it to the fact that just as plain gold bands were supplanted with more decorative platinum wedding rings some time ago, so women today prefer to wear one that is not a really handsome ornament.

CROWN NEW QUEEN OF SERIALS AS OLD HAIR-RAISERS RETURN

By DAN THOMAS
NEA Service Writer

Hollywood, May 11.—Hail movie-land's new serial queen, the girl who takes those death defying leaps from speeding automobiles, jumps from a horse to a fast moving train and hangs from an airplane with one hand—Lucille Browne.

The hair-raising serials, which used to form such an important part of film programs during the old silent days, really have come back into their own again. Several studios, with Universal taking the lead, are concentrating on serials just as much as on their feature productions. Thus, with Miss Browne crowned as Universal's official serial queen, she steps into the place once held by Ruth Roland, Fred White, Kathryn Williams and Helen Holmes.

And Lucille goes her predecessors one better. Instead of suffering in silence as those former heroines did, she cries, she jokes and her thrilling stunts are performed amid plenty of noise—all of that due to the influx of the talkies.

Miss Browne is the daughter of a minister. Her father being, says the girl, a member of the Christian Church in Memphis, Tenn. And, contrary to the usual stories, he did not object to her becoming an actress.

It was her mother who objected to her acting at this time. One is that bright early summer sun which she was teaching Sunday school. At 14 she won the title of "Miss Florida." And at 18 she was in New York posing for nationally famous illustrators.

Now playing in her third serial, the young blond actress has plenty to talk about—far more than in our straight romantic roles.

"My greatest thrill," she declares, "came when Roy Wilson in an airplane tried to drop a note to Jimmy Flavin and me in an automobile and hit an air pocket, causing him to nearly crash right into me. Now that it's all over I can look back on it as simply an exciting moment. But at the time I was so frightened I couldn't even think."

When ever anyone sits for them, and many nobles such as Paula Longworth, Countess Szechenyi and Horthy, Senator Borah and others have, both girls paint the subject.

Hard to Beat

Frances Williams, a musical comedy star, won a divorce from her pianist-husband because, among other things, she told the court: "He used to miss a beat on the piano just to throw me off my singing."

Pioneer Prisoner

When Mrs. Blanche Deares was taken into custody for drunkenness in Falmouth, Mass., last week, she was the first woman in 75 years even to cross the threshold of the local police station as a prisoner.

Silent Hating

A Frenchwoman recently had her husband haled into court because he refused to utter a word of conversation at any meal time. The court decided a man had a right to eat in silent peace if he wanted to.

Lucille Browne, above, is the new queen of the serials. Her hair-raisers are in such demand that she works from 5:30 a. m. until dark at most every day.

GLORIFYING YOURSELF

WHEN EYES NEED REST FROM SUMMER SUNLIGHT

Several women have written for directions for making and using eye packs.

There are two reasons why these letters came at this time. One is that bright early summer sunshine always hurts the eyes until they become accustomed to it. The second is that these little brats of hats expose the eyes cruelly. No wonder eyes hurt!

There are literally hundreds of eye packs you can use. If you are in a hurry and want to rest your eyes, saturate some little pieces of cotton in the hottest water you can stand, lie down and plaster them over your eyes. Saturate them several times. Then, at about the third heating, try to catch a cat nap. Your eyes will feel immeasurably better, even if you only rest 10 minutes.

Remember it is the heat which helps your eyes quite as much as any medicinal quality certain packs contain.

Any reliable beautician sells eye packs. Or you can make your own. Crushed rose leaves, one part, and camomile tea two parts, make a nice pack for home use. Make tiny bags of cheesecloth, double thickness. Cut them like eye spectacles, with the eye parts in the bags. Sew them up by hand.

When you want to use one of these, merely dip it into very hot water and apply immediately and lie down with it over the eyes. Do not redip this, unless you feel that the heat is doing quite as much good as the herbs.

Lavender and camomile tea make a nice eye pack, too. There are many herbs you can use. Their drawing qualities relax the eyes wonderfully.

But remember, whenever your eyes hurt very badly, lie down for a half hour with them thoroughly covered, to keep out all light. Your freshness after the nap will reward you.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

COLD FACTS ABOUT REFRIGERATORS

By SISTER MARY

No matter what kind of refrigerator we possess, intelligent care and consideration are necessary if we would gain its maximum efficiency.

There are certain fundamental principles that apply to the mechanical as well as the ice refrigerator.

The first essential is to keep the ice-box clean. Refrigeration is needed primarily to check the growth of bacteria in food, and cleanliness as well as cold aids in accomplishing this end. At least once a week the refrigerator should be emptied of all food and the shelves removed and washed and dried, the walls washed thoroughly with a warm solution of baking soda and water and wiped dry. This treatment, with a few simple daily precautions, insures a sweet, clean refrigerator in which butter and milk can be stored without danger of absorbing any foreign taste.

It's a good idea to form the habit of always rinsing and wiping dry the outside of milk and cream bottles before putting them in the ice-box. Be sure, too, that dishes in which food is stored are free from grease or any other particles of food clinging to the outside. Use care in choosing containers and don't fill them so full that a slight jar will make them run over. These little precautions do much toward keeping the ice-box clean and make its cleaning easier.

Don't Waste the Cold!

Of course, an important consideration from an economical point of view is that of maintaining the lowest possible temperature with the minimum amount of ice or other chilling agent. Manufacturers use the utmost care to insulate their refrigerators to keep the heat, but the most expensive materials and expert workmanship have no effect if doors are left open carelessly. Much cold is wasted if the doors are left open while planning a meal. Decide what is wanted before opening the doors, take out what is needed and quickly close the doors.

The most perishable foods such as milk and meat should be stored in the coldest places, while fresh fruits and vegetables can go in the warmest place. In the side-ice type the coldest place is the section directly under the cooling chamber.

Most left-overs are stored in the next coldest place. This is the lowest shelves of the section beside the ice chamber. Food should never be placed in the ice-compartment.

Highly flavored foods should be kept in the warmest place in the ice-box since it's at this point that the air is ready to pass into the refrigerating chamber. Air here and carried through the box to come in contact with other foods.

Covered dishes are desirable to prevent food flavors from mingling. In an iceless refrigerator they are quite essential to preserve the moisture in foods.

Keep in mind the necessity of cooling foods before storing them in the ice-box. Warm food will raise the temperature and the steam will condense, making excessive moisture which increases the tendency of food to spoil.

Do not store useless parts of food. For example, beet and carrot tops and coriander leaves that will not be used should be cut off and discarded before putting into the ice box. They take up room as well as cold, causing waste on two points.

An economical measure in operating an ice refrigerator is to keep the ice compartment as full as possible. This is necessary also to insure adequate refrigeration. A sure piece of ice cannot be expected to hold a temperature below the danger point of 48 degrees F. and above this point food will not keep in good condition. The warmer the box becomes the more ice will be needed to chill it again.

A warm ice-box is a danger to health and should not be tolerated. It defeats its own purpose since it fosters food spoilage by its airless moderate temperature.

MODISH WOMEN HAVE THE BLUES

There's no denying the popularity of blue this spring. At a luncheon at a smart New York hotel every single woman wore blue. You can get any effect you want with it, so no wonder women like it. Mrs. Paul Whitman, with William Sea-suburn hair and Mrs. William Sea-suburn with her honey-colored tresses, sat side by side. These two former movie favorites achieved very different results with blue. Mrs. Whitman wore a smart dressmaker's suit of navy wool, with three-quarter bell-shaped sleeves, a white silk blouse with a "little boy's collar" and a stunningly chic little hat of blue cellophane straw, with nose veil. Mrs. Sea-suburn was quietly distinguished in her dark blue crepe dress, with Roman-like neckline terminating in a deep shoulder cape and a one-side blue straw hat that showed her lovely hair to advantage.

CHILDREN SHOULD LEARN JOY OF COMRADESHIP

At a Parent-Teachers' meeting a few days ago, the subject of friendship came up.

One mother asked what to do if a child wouldn't make friends, or rather wanted friends but didn't know how to go about having them.

Another mother asked how to handle the situation where two leaders came together.

Still another spoke of her worry about the neighborhood. "What can you do when none of the other mothers around will co-operate?" she asked. "All my boy's friends stay up until ten o'clock. I think my boy regards me as something queer, without good common sense. I see only one against dozens."

Yes, this problem of friendship is a real one. I venture to say that there isn't a woman living who does not have something about her, in one form or another, to worry her. Yes, we cannot make enemies of our children, rear them alone, or shut out the world. For friendship and even enmity develops us.

I cannot dispose of these three questions. Every child, every minute, is a different problem. The problems are yours to unravel. But it may help to crystallize your thinking if I drop a few lines on the subject.

If your boy or girl shrinks from friendships, just doesn't know the joys of comradeship or the spiritual satisfaction that comes from them, he needs your help. Don't force him, or her, to play with

SPECIAL TRAINING FOR HANDICAPPED CHILDREN IS FAR FROM ADEQUATE

Nearly 3,000,000 Partially Deaf Get No Special Instruction.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the last of a series of six articles by Dr. Fishbein.

By DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN
Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of HYGEIA, the Health Magazine.

A special report of the White House Conference on Child Health and Protection deals with handicapped and gifted children. While 35,000,000 of the 45,000,000 normal in America are reasonably normal and while 1,500,000 of the children are especially gifted, it is found that 5,500,000 are handicapped to an extent requiring special attention in education.

A committee charged with investigation of handicapped children finds 3,000,000 with impaired hearing; 18,000 totally deaf; 1,000,000 with defective speech; 1,000,000 with weak or damaged hearing; 450,000 mentally retarded; 300,000 crippled; 14,000 wholly blind and 50,000 partially blind.

One of the aims of the White House Conference, as expressed in the children's charter, applies directly to these children. It says: "For every child who is blind, deaf, crippled, or otherwise physically handicapped, and for the child who is mentally handicapped, such measures as will early discover and diagnose his handicap, provide care and treatment, and so train him that he may become an asset to society rather than a liability."

Expenses should be borne publicly where they cannot be privately met.

Accomplishment of this aim is still far away. Six thousand children who are blind are being educated in public or private schools for the blind, but there are 5,000 not receiving such attention.

Five thousand children who see with great difficulty are enrolled in special sight-seeing classes, but there are 45,000 who are not receiving such consideration. Only 30,000 of the children who are hard of hearing are being given special training in overcoming their defect. There are 2,980,000 partially deaf children who are not having the benefit of such training.

Few people realize the great difficulty of providing special education for these children.

There is a class for blind children in a town in Illinois, 22 miles from a farm where lived a child who

Cubs Appear Strongest In the National Circuit

Have Won 13 of 16 Games Played; Lou Warneke Beats Giants For His Fifth Victim; Athletics Win.

(By Associated Press) Tearing along three games in front of the closest pursuers today, their great pitching staff mowing down opposing batmen with relentless efficiency and their hitters slumping in unison, the Chicago Cubs threaten to make a runaway of the National league.

When young Lou Warneke set the New York Giants down yesterday, 8 to 2, the leaders scored their fourth straight victory over eastern clubs and their thirteenth win in sixteen engagements. Unless Rogers Hornsby's team is slowed down soon, it will seem like it will pile up such an advantage it will be able to coast through to the flag.

Warneke's sensational hurling has rounded out one of the most formidable starts in either league. In winning his first five games, in each of which he went the full distance, the 23-year-old product of Mount Ida, Ark., has given up only nine runs, all told. His work has overshadowed that of such veteran mates as Malone, Bush, Smith, Root and Grimes, and they have done well enough.

The Giants could find Warneke for only five hits yesterday, two of which came after two were out in the ninth and provided their second run. In six of the nine innings he was unhit. His teammates whaled three Giant hurlers for 11 safeties, every man in the lineup getting at least one. They were helped along by three Giant errors, running the total for McGraw's crew to six miscues in 20 games.

The day's only other National League bout saw the Phillies break Cincinnati's five-game winning streak, 4 to 0, behind Ray Benges' effective pitching. Five Red Sox were widely spread as they checked the scheduled activities at Pittsburgh and St. Louis.

Vic Sorrell turned in the day's American League masterpiece when he allowed the Boston Red Sox only two hits in pitching the Detroit Tigers to a victory. Hal Rhyme's two singles knocked Sorrell out of a no-hit game.

Lefty Grove was almost as effective as the Athletics banked the Chicago White Sox, 9 to 0, but bore down in the pinches. Jimmy Dykes knocked in four of the winners' runs with a home run and a double.

The wildness of Walter Stewart and "Bump" Hickey, who pitched eleven innings, helped the Yankees' triumph the St. Louis Browns, 10 to 2, in their delayed opener. Vernon Gomez held the Browns to seven hits in achieving his fourth win of the year and likely would have had a shutout but for weak fielding behind him in the fifth, when the visitors scored all their runs. Cleveland was rained out at Washington.

BOOTH RESUMES YALE BASEBALL

New Haven, May 11.—(AP)—Persistence has won Albie Booth his place at shortstop on the Yale baseball team and an opportunity to add another letter to the eight he has been awarded in three sports.

After nearly six months of inactivity because of a lung infection, little Albie trotted out to the diamond yesterday for the game between Yale and Rikido University of Japan. The latter team has already beaten Columbia, Syracuse and other colleges during its tour of the country.

The crowd gave him a rousing reception after recovering from the surprise, for it was only two weeks ago that Booth was warned not to fake any part in sports. But the three sport star, feeling his health steadily improving since his recent discharge from a sanatorium insisted he be examined again. This time the physician gave him permission to resume his athletic career.

Albie a little rusty after his period of rest, wasn't up to his usual form, and Yale suffered an eight to one defeat. He failed to make a hit in four trips to the plate and in the fifth inning made a wild throw which started Rikido on a four run rally. Booth struck out three times and fouled to the catcher.

He is expected to play the remainder of the season, but the doctor has ordered that a substitute do his base running. However, opposing teams, rather than a doctor have the say as to permitting such a change.

BOWLING

At the Charter Oak alleys last night, Flora Nelson and Howard Murphy were three straight from Miss Sheekley and De Bella and one out of three from Miss Mitchell and Waters.

Mae Sherman and Charlie Kebert won two out of three from Miss Sheekley and De Bella and lost three straight to Miss Mitchell and Waters.

LUCKY STRIKES WIN LEGION CONTEST 16-4

In the third game of the American Legion Junior Baseball League the Lucky Strikes set back the Camels 16-4 at the Charter Oak field last night. The Lucky Strikes have a great defensive team and hit in the pinches. This victory puts the Lucky Strikes in first place with two wins and no losses. McCurray pitched fine ball for the winners, getting ten strikeouts, three runs and making a three base hit. Brown, McCurray and Lyons were best for the winners while Kennedy, Brown and Johnson featured for the losers.

MONTREAL ROYALS WIN 11TH GAME IN A ROW

By The Associated Press
Bill McAfee, who started the Montreal Royals' current winning streak on April 28, has carried the Royals through to their 11th successive International League victory.

The right handed hurler Jersey City to two hits yesterday, and enabled the Royals to make a clean sweep of the four game series. The score was 3 to 1 and, as it turned out, Montreal had the ball game won at the second inning when Henry's double drove in Grabowski and Walters for a 2-0 lead. That advantage looked slim enough at the time but with McAfee in his best form of the season it was plenty.

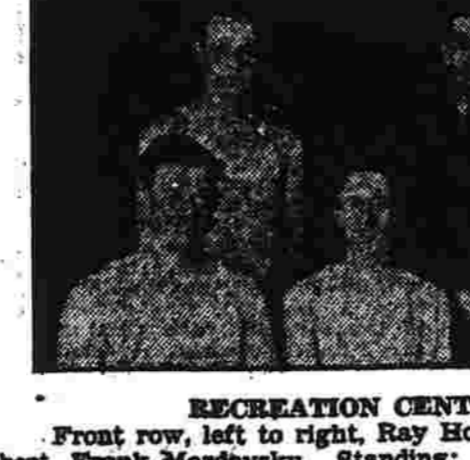

Just to make things look a little better, the Royals punched through another run in the fourth inning. McAfee blanked the Skeeters for six innings but they finally broke the ice with one run in the seventh. But that was all McAfee was prepared to allow.

Bill Morrill pitched effectively for Jersey City, allowing only eight hits. He held the top end of the Montreal batting order safely in check but lost the ball game when he failed to halt the boys further down the list.

The Royals again turned in a magnificent game in the field, making not the semblance of an error. In their string of 11 victories, the team has played errorless ball in nine.

Unfavorable weather forced postponement of the rest of the day's schedule which included three prospective doubleheaders.

Rec Has Successful Volley Ball Season

The Recreation Centers' indoor volleyball team, judging from its past record of three years since organization by Frank Busch, feel proud of itself. Excluding the town series, 35 matches were played and 28 were won—a record which speaks for itself.

This team has played some of the leading Y. M. C. A.'s in the state and has created quite a stir in volleyball competition. They are being considered to compete in the State Y. M. C. A. league next season.

BURGOO KING'S TRAINER LIKES OTHERS BETTER

New York, May 11.—(AP)—Burgoo King, Kentucky Derby winner, ranks no better than third in the affections of his trainer, Dick Thompson.

Blue Larisrup was the greatest horse ever trained," Thompson said at Belmont Park where Burgoo King is resting preparatory to the Preakness at Pimlico Saturday. "Next to him I would rank Bubbling Over which won his derby by six lengths."

Burgoo King, a son of Bubbling Over, won this year's derby by five lengths. Blue Larisrup finished fourth in the 1929 renewal of that classic.

Although final decision was not to be made until after a workout today, Burgoo King seems an almost certain starter in the Preakness.

Eugene James, who won the derby on him, is expected to ride the colt again Saturday.

HORNER KNOCKS OUT DUNN IN ROCKVILLE

Rockville, May 11.—Jackie Horner, Broad Brook middleweight, won the feature bout of the last indoor show to be staged this season by the C. D. K. Club in Town Hall last night. He knocked out Bob Dunn of Somersville in the first round. The results of the bouts follow:

Jackie Horner, 165, Broad Brook, knocked out Bob Dunn, 158, Somersville, in one round; Tommy Tucker, 148, Rockville, won from Harry Holt, 145, New Britain; George Holliday, East Hampton, 147, knocked out Johnny Wilson, 144, East Hartford, in two rounds; Jackie Williams, 150, Mohson, knocked out Young Tivy, 150, Windsor Locks, in second round; Wally Bonola, 139, New Britain, won from Lester Gibbs, 136, Monson; Johnny Musk, 137, New Britain won from Pete Burke, Ware, 128; Mickey Leonard, 125, Ware, 128; from Young Guffy, 127, East Hartford; Young Stanley, 158, Windsor Locks, knocked out Johnny Fox, 161, Hartford; Eddie Banning, 136, East Hampton, won from Al Sabry, 135, Rockville; Kid Forbes, 120, Monson, won from Mike Murphy, 123, East Hampton.

ONLY FEW TOURNEYS ATTRACT JOHNNY DOEG

New York, May 11.—(AP)—John Hope Doeg, national tennis singles champion in 1930, will make the first of a limited number of competitive appearances this season in the Orange Lawn Tennis Club's invitation tournament starting at South Orange, N. J., May 26.

Doeg probably will not play in more than a half dozen tournaments this year including the Seabright Invitation, the National Singles and doubles championships, and possibly in the Newport and Southampton invitations.

Rockville-Manchester Battle At West Side

The same holds for twilight baseball. That the Gems are worthy of good patronage is attested by the caliber of baseball which they display. It would be hard to name a semi-pro club in the state off-hand that could give the Gems a real trimming. With six Manchester players in uniform, the Gems' doings are of especial interest to Manchester fans. The six are Sipples, Wallist, S. John, Dowd, Stratton and Thompson.

Rockville's lineup will include Ambrosi or Vince, c; Weber, Mantell, Genovese or Hints, p; Ash, 1b; Burke, 2b; Kulick, ss; B. Dogawich, 3b; L. Dogawich, cf; Doster, cf, and Lessig, rf. The teams will play a return game in Rockville later in the season. The battery for the Gems tonight will probably be Berg or Fisher and Wallist.

Gems Also Book New Britain Falcons For Game Here Sunday; Berg Or Fisher To Pitch Tonight.

The first twilight baseball game of the season in Manchester is due to take place tomorrow evening at the West Side field. Efforts will be made to complete the full nine innings by starting the game promptly at 8:15. The contesting outfits will be the Manchester Gems and the All-Rockville.

CHAMPIONSHIP DUBLINSKY

Chicago, May 11.—(AP)—Tony Canzoneri, world lightweight champion, and Har' Dublinisky, of Chicago, have been matched for an outdoor ten-round non-title bout at the West Side Boxing club June 16.

"THE BEST BLADE EVER MADE"

SAY 92% OF ALL SHAVERS WHO TRY THE GILLETTE BLUE SUPER-BLADE

Johnson City, Tenn., May 11.—(AP)—W. L. "Young" Stribling, making his first appearance in the ring since he was defeated by Ernie Schaff at Chicago last December, won an easy decision here last night over George Neron, Greek heavyweight.

Dial Twisters

By W. J. DALTON

According to the New York Times, station WABC recently polled its listeners for their reactions on the question concerning the relative popularity of modern and old-fashioned (so to speak) music. The consensus has it that the old-timers went beyond a doubt. About 6,000 listeners enumerated 614 different songs with the old heart ballads predominating. Of the seven receiving the highest number of votes five were composed many years ago and the other two were of comparatively recent date. The saying is that the majority rules but I doubt if any of the readers of this column, including myself, would name the same seven songs which received the highest ratings. Most of us have neither the time nor the inclination to delve into our memories for those bits of melodies which we treasure for our own. Many of us are associated with important events in our lives; they seem to belong to us somehow or another.

These 6,000 people seem to have a fair idea of good melody. "Silver Threads Among the Gold" received the highest number of votes which was 513. This song was composed sixty years ago. The next in order are: "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," "Paradise," (two years old) "Old Man River," "Let There Be a Song," "My Irish Rose" and "Perfect Day." Strange as it may seem many of the young people selected old songs as their favorites.

Are there any of the above which you would class as your first choice? Have you ever heard the first choice sung by a good soprano or the last choice played on an organ? Or walked to the fifth best as interpreted by a real orchestra? Of course you like them all; who does not? But I will wager that the best liked songs of the majority of you did not fall among the first seven.

Has anyone ever heard the Revelers' Quartet sing "The Bells of Saint Mary?" And will you ever forget Jesse Crawford and his organ in their rendition of that Hawaiian masterpiece "Aloha Oe?" I once heard Rose Ponnelle sing "My Old Kentucky Home" and "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" and "way back in grammar school" days the only girl sang "Memories." And on the spur of the moment we can remember "Danny Boy," "Loves Old Sweet Song," "Paraphrase on the Lorelei" and those two never-to-be-forgotten war songs "I'll We Meet Again" and "There's a Long, Long Trail."

Also Major Shaw's Mattatuck drum corps from Waterbury marching up Fifth avenue during the Washington bi-centennial playing "Yankee Doodle" as it never had been played, or so it seemed.

As I said before it is the important event combined with any one of hundreds of melodious pieces that make that particular song or melody stand out. I'll bet "Barnacle Bill" and "Hula Lou" were among the five hundred and maybe "Partey Vou" too. And if I were sentimental I might say something about an event of nine years ago and a little church and an organ and a contralto voice singing the most beautiful song ever composed "I Love You Truly." But I'm not sentimental and anyway my first choice and yours might lead us into too many arguments.

RUSSIES PROPAGANDA

On May 11, 1918, George Leygues, French minister of marines, made a statement in the Chamber of Deputies which denied Germany's claim of tremendous losses to allied shipping.

Leygues declared that the total allied tonnage sunk by German submarines in the preceding five months was 1,648,862, and not the amount claimed by Germans, which was released as more than 3,000,000 tons.

He said further that the number of submarines sunk by the allies was greater than Germany's output.

Italy, expecting a concerted movement from the Austrians along her front, decided on a push of her own, and penetrated advanced Austrian positions on Monte Carlo.

PAY LAST TRIBUTE AT DOUMER RITES

Over Million Persons Through Paris Streets As Funeral Procession Passes On Way To Great Cathedral.

Paris, May 12.—(AP)—France bowed in sorrow today and paid a last tribute at the funeral of Paul Doumer, the venerable, white-bearded president she liked to call "father." M. Doumer was slain last week by a assassin's bullet. Tens of thousands of Parisians jammed the streets this morning and stood in solemn silence as the funeral procession filed by on its way to the great Cathedral of Notre Dame.

A King and four Princes trudged behind the rumbling artillery caisson all the way from the Elysee Palace to the cathedral, a march of an hour and a half in the warm, damp morning.

At the cathedral the requiem mass was celebrated by Cardinal Verdier, Archbishop of Paris, who wore a black and silver cope over his mitre and crozier.

ACT OF NAZIS CAUSES MIXUP IN REICHSTAG

Attack Newspaper Reporter and Are Suspended For 30 Days—Confusion Reigns and Session Is Adjourned.

Berlin, May 12.—(AP)—An unprecedented situation developed in the Reichstag today when after four National Socialist members had refused to leave the hall when the speaker ordered them suspended for thirty days, the session was adjourned indefinitely without even having completed the brief schedule laid out.

The National Socialist members were so surprised that they even forgot to shout. Instead they gathered in the halls outside, talking excitedly but apparently unable to agree upon what they ought to do about it.

It was expected that there would not be another Reichstag session before June 6.

Attack Reporter Paul Loebe, the Speaker, ordered the suspension of the four Nazis after a hurried investigation had established that they had participated in mauling a newspaper man in the Reichstag lobby. It turned out that the reporter was a Social Democrat.

The session was adjourned during the investigation and immediately after the proceedings were resumed the government defeated a motion of no confidence against the chancellor and his cabinet by a vote of 287 to 257.

There was bedlam on the floor when, after the vote, the speaker announced that his investigation of the incident in the lobby had been completed and that he had determined upon the suspension of the four Nazis.

Defiantly, they refused to leave and the speaker took the House by surprise when he ordered the adjournment.

When the members stood up in groups in the hall, thirty uniformed policemen headed by Inspector Weiser, the assistant chief, appeared.

The annual spectacle provoked a storm of boos by the Nazis and cries of, "Out with Loeber, the swine!"

The policemen seized the four members who had assaulted the newspaper man and were about to take them out when a number of other members gathered about and assured the chief that the men would appear in court when they were wanted. Thereupon the police withdrew.

Secretary Hyde was one of the first Cabinet officers to arrive, preceding the presidential party.

The doors of the temple were thrown open and many people thronged from the main inside the building. Hundreds clustered around the seats erected for the dedication in front of the structure.

Washington Memorial Dedicated by Masons

Alexandria, Va., May 12.—(AP)—Undaunted by pelting rain, thousands of Masons marched up George Washington Hill today for the dedication of the granite temple to George Washington, the Mason.

It was raining when the military section of the parade, headed by Major General John A. Lejeune, former commander of the Marine Corps, led the march through the winding road, replete with traditions of Washington.

The downpour increased as the Masonic units fell in line. Colors on gorgeous uniforms began to merge but the procession went through Alexandria with bands playing.

As time for the dedication drew near, units were still moving toward the emplacements where the granite memorial towers over the surrounding country.

NEW PROTOCOL IS BACKED BY SENATE BOARD

Foreign Relations Committee Votes 11 To 9 On World Court Issue; Johnson and Moses Bring Up Matter.

Washington, May 12.—(AP)—A Senate foreign relations committee today reported favorably to the Senate the revised protocol for American adherence to the World Court.

The vote was 11 to 9. Foes of the court succeeded in adding a reservation requiring that the other 51 countries to the court should formally accept the Secretary of State's advisory opinions affecting the United States before American entry is effective.

Senator Walsh (D., Mont.), made the motion for a favorable report. Aroused by the action in putting the protocol before the Senate at this time, Senator Johnson (R., Calif.) and Moses (R., N. H.), two outspoken opponents of the court, announced they would force the issue immediately.

The vote Those voting for the favorable report were: Republicans: Capper, Kansas; Reed, Penn.; Fess, Ohio, and Vandenberg, Mich. Democrats: Swanson, Virginia; Pittman, Nevada; Walsh, Montana; Harrison, Mississippi; George, Georgia; Black, Alabama; and Connally, Texas.

Against: Republicans: Borah, Idaho; Johnson, Moses, La Follette, Wisconsin; Robinson, Indiana; Glenn, Illinois; and Cutting, New Mexico. Farmer Labor: Shipstead, Minnesota.

Senators Robinson of Arkansas and Wagner of New York, both Democrats, were not recorded on the vote.

Borah's Views Chairman Borah of the committee, stated the adoption of the Moses reservation had the effect of making the resolution of Senator Walsh (R., Pa.), a reservation adopted, a reservation.

The Reed reservation, which the Senate's 1928 reservation that the court shall not, without the consent of the United States, enter into any treaty, convention, or agreement, was not recorded on the vote.

At the start of the hearing letters of recommendation on behalf of Sherwood were read into the record. One was from Dr. William Sherwood, Jr., chairman of the sanitation commission.

Dropped From Payroll Asked by Seabury to describe the circumstances under which Sherwood terminated his employment with the Bank of Manhattan, Rowley said Sherwood began his vacation August 1, 1931, and did not return at the end of one month.

"Having violated our rules," Rowley said, "and in view of the publicity he meanwhile received, he was dropped from our payroll and so notified."

The witness said he had heard nothing from Sherwood since. "Didn't you get a cable from him from Mexico City in which he asked you to forward a certain payment due him of $337?" Seabury asked.

"I am not familiar with those details," Rowley replied. "I believe..."

COMPROMISE NEAR ON RELIEF; HOOVER HOLDS CONFERENCE

HASTINGS EXPLAINS HIS BANK DEPOSIT President Talks With Leaders of Both Parties; Dawes, Mills and Meyers Also Attend—No Details Revealed But the Budget Must Be Balanced First.

Washington, May 12.—(AP)—A compromise Federal relief program took shape today at conferences involving about the White House and the Reconstruction Corporation and participated in by Republican and Democratic leaders.

As the discussions concluded, President Hoover in a statement revealed the aim as being to combine, simply and "put into concrete form" various relief proposals. First of all, however, is placed a balancing of the budget.

Senators Watson and Robinson, Republican and Democratic leaders respectively, were visitors at the White House. Others there during the morning were President Dawes, of the Reconstruction Corporation; Eugene Meyer, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, and Secretary Mills.

The President went over the situation separately with Watson at breakfast and later with Robinson. Reveals No Details Declining to discuss details, Watson stated later a "tentative agreement" was in process.

Robinson yesterday proposed a two billion dollar bond issue for Federal construction and $300,000,000 for assistance to the unemployed. He discussed this with the President.

There is every indication the President desires to work the problem out through the two billion dollar Reconstruction Corporation. A non-partisan relief program is expected to pry loose the wedge that will make possible an adjustment of the Federal budget.

Speaker Caines and Representative Shell, of New York, Republican leader of the House, have been in on the relief consultations. It is understood.

Text of Statement The text of Hoover's statement follows: "At a conference this morning, the President and Senator Robinson canvassed the plan of Senator Robinson and the plans of the President to provide for relief and to stimulate enlarged employment."

"Methods were considered of determining, simplifying and putting into concrete form the different proposals so as to secure united non-partisan and immediate action and not to delay completion of the work at this session."

"The President expressed his high appreciation of Senator Robinson's action in opening the way for united action and his confidence that a solution will be found."

It was agreed that the prerequisites of any plan is balancing of the budget.

SLUTHS DISCOVER NEW FASCIST PLOT

Meant To Kidnap Officials and March On the Capital of Australia.

Sydney, N. S. W., May 12.—(AP)—Police reported today they had discovered evidence of an elaborate anti-government plot in a series of letters on headquarters of the "New Guard," a Fascist organization formed more than a year ago which now claims 100,000 members.

Documents seized in the raids, said the police, included plans to capture the disused Berrima jail where the organization proposed to place "certain ministers of the Crown and high police officials."

There were plans for kidnaping certain other officials, formulated before the recent opening of the Sydney bridge, and a scheme for a march on Canberra, capital of Australia.

Fascists, police think, planned to capture the capital and imprison the Cabinet. Canberra is the site of the legislative and administrative buildings, with homes of members of Parliament and civil servants, and its capture would be comparatively easy, Canberra is populated by only 5,000 officials and 1,000 trades-people.

YOUTHFUL FIREBUG CONFESSES CRIMES

Says He Set Fire To Tower At Boys' School and To Houses In This State.

New York, May 12.—(AP)—A sixteen year old boy was in the police lineup today charged with having set fire to the tower at Mount St. Michael's Academy in the Bronx two days ago, endangering the lives of several hundred boys, and also with having set fire to half a dozen homes in Mt. Vernon, N. Y., and Waterbury, Conn.

Police said the boy, Richard Burns, who gave his address as 45 Windwood avenue, Waterbury, explained: "I did it because I love excitement."

He was arrested last night on a charge of arson on complaint of Assistant Fire Marshal John J. Cashman. He was employed at the academy as a utility man and his room was in the tower of the academy.

Police said Burns told them he burned down a garage, a barn and a three family house in Waterbury, and then went to Mt. Vernon where he burned out three families.

TWO MEN MEET DEATH WHILE MOORING AKRON

Three Carried Aloft As They Cling To Ropes—Two Fall—Other Is Hauled Up To Ship.

San Diego, Cal., May 12.—(AP)—The navy dirigible Akron today swung calmly at anchor at Camp Kearney field where two bluejackets were killed in an attempt to moor her.

A third seaman, Charles Cowart, dangled for two hours to a mooring line yesterday before being hauled aboard the world's largest airship at 2,000 feet.

"Eccentrically stratified air" was blamed by Lieut. Commander C. E. Rosendahl, master of the Akron, for the airship's sudden descent after snapping its cable, as efforts were being made to moor it.

Two hundred blue jackets had hold of the lines dropped from the Akron that the three men who clung to the ropes had reached a dangerous height before they realized their predicament. At a height of about 775 feet, one of the sailors lost his grip and fell to earth. A few feet below the surface of the sea he was seen to be flailing his arms and legs in the air.

PRESIDENT VEToes FOES' TARIFF BILL

House Backs Him and the Measure Is Killed—Protection Needed Now.

Washington, May 12.—(AP)—Vetoing the Democratic tariff bill yesterday, President Hoover declared himself for the time-honored Republican principle of high protection and, in effect, took up the gauntlet of battle flung at him by the opposition party.

In the message of disapproval he termed the measure bad, both generally and specifically. He affirmed his belief in the equity of the present tariff provision under which the President has control of tariff rates chosen by Congress.

The veto promptly stuck. The Republican House leader, Snell of New York, compelled a record vote. The Democrats, with a slim majority in that chamber, could not muster anything like the two-thirds needed to override, and the bill died.

This was the result expected from the time the bill was first planned by the Democratic declaration for lower rates.

American Archaeologists Discover Tower of Babel

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 12.—(AP)—Prof. Leroy Watersman, director of University of Michigan-Cleveland Museum archaeological excavations in Mesopotamia, announced today discovery of what is believed to be the Ziggurat or "Tower of Babel" in the ancient city of Akkad.

The find is a mound about 50 feet high and 250 to 300 feet in diameter. The outer structure is a circular wall of sun-dried bricks, 30 feet thick and 15 to 20 feet high. Above the level of the wall are alternate layers of reeds and earth. The north side of the mound is a 30-foot structure of sun-dried bricks. This mound contains a core, 40 feet square, of mud-brick. MRS. WHITNEY ACTS TO RESTORE PEACE

New Haven Woman Eliminates Herself As Rival of Mrs. Fannie Welch.

Hartford, May 12.—(AP)—At least one possible obstacle to harmony in the Democratic Party apparently has been removed.

Mrs. Joseph Whitney of New Haven virtually eliminated herself as a rival of Mrs. Fannie Dixon Welch for the post of the National committee. During a conference with Governor Wilbur L. Cross yesterday she expressed the opinion that in view of Mrs. Welch's services to the party, other Democratic women "should stand aside."

Mrs. Whitney was proposed as a candidate by fellow townsmen after the Federation of Democratic Women's Clubs of which Mrs. Welch is president, has endorsed Archibald McNeil for re-election to the National committee. This group of women favored the candidacy of David E. Fitzgerald, former New Haven mayor.

McNeil who recently announced he would not become a party to any compromise plan calling for his withdrawal and that of Fitzgerald from the race, also conferred with the governor. The subject of this discussion was not disclosed.

The governor also received during the day a delegation of women who favor presidential candidacy of Alfred E. Smith, but no indication was given as to the purpose of the conference.

CURTAIN AT Y.M.C.A. RELEASE SECRETARY Directors Re-Elected—Plan For Summer—President Strickland Reports.

Directors of the Manchester Y. M. C. A. faced the "hard times" factor last night in planning activities for the summer and year to come and the necessity of curtailing the personnel of the institution brought about the release of Secretary William H. Petherbridge.

Secretary and Mrs. Petherbridge, who now reside at 85 Hudson street, will spend the months of July and August at a private camp for boys and girls in Fryburg, Va., which is located near Conway, N. H. The camp is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Kraemer of Boston and Mr. Petherbridge has worked there in past summers. Both he and his wife will have summer positions there.

No Plans Regarding his plan for the fall, Secretary Petherbridge said that nothing definite had been decided upon. "My plans for the fall are a bit uncertain at this time," he commented. "I have several possibilities, but may return to Springfield College on a scholarship which I have been offered."

Secretary Petherbridge began his work here on September 5, 1930, and has worked hard in the interest of the many recreational and educational advantages afforded by the Manchester Y. M. C. A. During his stay in Manchester he has acquired many friends who will regret his departure.

Third Annual Session Prior to the executive session of the board of governors last night, the third annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held. The meeting was called to order by President Strickland and the minutes of the second annual meeting held on May 13, 1931, were read by Secretary Petherbridge in the absence of Mrs. James Shearer.

President Strickland in his report told of the many activities of the building during the past year, stressing the big improvement which was made when the Community Club was transformed into the present greatly improved Y. M. C. A. building with its numerous added facilities.

"Activities at the Y. M. C. A. have been very successful during the past year," President Strickland declared. "This has been due to a capable personnel and interest and cooperation shown by the board of governors. The membership has not been as large as I had expected but this may have been due to the late season when the building was opened, to our failure to push a membership campaign and to the general business conditions which exist today."

Meeting Needs "However, I believe our new building is meeting our needs better than we had expected. I believe we can look ahead to the future with confidence that this project will produce results which will exceed anything we have anticipated," he concluded. During his talk, President Strickland took the opportunity to express his appreciation to everyone in any way, small or large, had a part in erecting the Y. M. C. A. Mrs. W. D. Crockett, who was in charge of the women's physical education department, told of the activities conducted by Miss Christine Mason and herself, stressing upon the cooking demonstrations, bridges, whists, dinners and gymnasium training.

Secretary Petherbridge in his report centered on the development of the Y. M. C. A. organization, telling in particular of the 17 boys clubs which were formed out of some 150 boys who took part from the various schools of the town. He told of the men's activities such as softball, bowling and gymnastics.

Election The terms of the six members of the board of governors which expired were renewed for three more years when the secretary was ordered to bring the matter to the attention of each. They are Joseph Wright, W. W. Robertson, Edward R. Coleman, Mrs. James Shearer, Charles B. Loomis and William Foulds Jr.

The board of governors then went into recess until 10:30 when the session was taken on the post of Y. M. C. A. secretary. The board deferred until its meeting June 8, the business of appointing officers and authorized the president to name a nominating committee to prepare a slate.

Change Necessary President Strickland stated today that the activities of the Y. M. C. A. this summer will be in charge of Mrs. Mary Crockett and Mr. and Mrs. David Hamilton. He said that plans for the fall and winter will be made later. Mr. Strickland pointed out that the action taken by the directors is not in any way indicative of support for the institution. On the other hand he stressed the fact that financially the institution is in excellent condition. The changes made were necessary in face of economic conditions, he said.

Gov. Cross Answers Hartford, May 12.—(AP)—"If a special session of the General Assembly appears necessary, one will be called," Governor Bruce L. Cross asserted today in a letter to Mayor William J. Rankin. The letter was in answer to a communication from a gathering of mayors and selectmen here Tuesday, in which they asked a special session be called to consider the financial needs of Connecticut municipalities.

"As soon as feasible, I shall want to meet with the mayors as a body or with a committee of them to consider the outcome," the governor's letter stated. He also acknowledged receipt of a resolution adopted by the mayors and selectmen asking that a committee be named to survey the financial status of all towns and cities in the state.

MAY USE BUT SINGLE IRON TO WILLIMANTIC

Railroad Officials Considering Removal of One Track To Save Operating Expenses.

Engineers in the employ of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad this morning taking measurements of the road bed and railroad tracks east of Apel's Crossing. The object of the visit is said to be one of a series of economy movements to cut operating expenses which will be done by the removal of one line of tracks as far as Vernon. This will mean that there will be but one line of tracks between Manchester and Willimantic, and trains in either direction operating on a block system located at Manchester and Willimantic.

The plans under consideration now call for the installing of "sprung" switches. The number of trains now operating over the division is so greatly reduced that it is estimated by the cost operating department that one single rail will be sufficient between Manchester and Willimantic. A saving will also be made in the cost of labor in switch operating.

Today section men were at work on the west bound track strengthening the ties and testing the spikes. This is being done because of the heavy freights that are run over the line. The work is being done in heavy for several months past and most of this is taken care of west of the Main street crossing.

CIGARETTES THEFT AT WEST SIDE STAND

Thieves Took Time To Drink Up Four Bottles of "Pop" William Russell Reports.

William Russell, groundkeeper of the Four Acre baseball field, reported to the police this morning that the small refreshment stand which he operates during the summer months was broken into last night and cigarettes to the value of $10 were stolen. The thieves evidently took plenty of time doing the job as they drank four bottles of "pop" during their stay in the building.

JENKINS TO TEACH AT BULKELEY HIGH

Debating Coach Here Past Three Years To Begin Work In Hartford In September.

It was made public today that Ariand Jenkins, for the past three years teacher and coach of debating at Manchester High, has been elected to teach Civics and English at Bulkeley High in Hartford for next year. Mr. Jenkins verified the report and stated that he plans to begin work in Hartford next September.

During his three years here he has been very successful as coach of debating, the team which he coached having won the H. W. Lines cup in the triangle league for two consecutive years. For the first year Mr. Jenkins taught Ancient History but the past two years he has taught sophomores and juniors English, Economics, and Economic Geography. He has been a very popular member of the local faculty and interested in many of the student activities in addition to debating.

Mr. Jenkins comes from Danforth, Maine, and is a graduate of Bates College. While at Bates he was on the college debating team and prominent in the department of Argumentation. He taught one year in South Manchester before coming to South Manchester.

Girl Reserves The regular meeting of the Girl Reserves was held at the Teacher's hall Wednesday evening. The program opened with an informal talk by Doris Johnson who told of her work and at the Girl Reserves Conference in Bristol. Following this the "Hutter Club" gave a short comical play called "The Foolish Quest." The parts were well played by Frisberg Thoren, the King; Hildner Skoog, the Queen; Hilma Dahlman, the Princess; Alice Reserves, the Duke; and Astrid Skoog the Curtain.

A business meeting followed during which the officers for next year were elected. They are as follows: Alice Reserves, president; Olga Kwash, vice-president; Doris Johnson, secretary; Ruth Peterson, treasurer. The club's last meeting will be one in which there is to be no business as it will be for entertainment only. It was decided that a hike to the land park followed by a hot dog roast would be appropriate and Miss Feder who was a guest at the meeting was cordially invited. Refreshments were served and the remainder of the time was spent in dancing.

Somnambulist Photographs The group photographs, which are to be printed in the year book will be taken Friday of this week and the beginning of next week. Somnambulist, Green, Hilma Dahlman, and Student Council will be taken tomorrow and Girl Reserves, Band, Glee Clubs and Orchestra will be taken Monday morning while the track and baseball photographs will be taken in the afternoon at the West Side.

The Glee Clubs went to West Hartford this afternoon to participate in the C. C. L. Glee Club contest. About a month ago the clubs sang the selections and were praised considerably for their excellent work. They have spent a good deal of time in the assembly hall rehearsing under the direction of Miss Marion Dorward and it is the wish of the entire student body that their efforts will be rewarded.

The H-Y has chosen the assembly program this afternoon and they showed the three following reels: "Hoot Mon," "Coast to Coast" and "The Spider's Lair."

The Golf team, the second which was started at Manchester high school is playing Weavah high school this afternoon and Melnden Saturday. The team is made up of Daniel Civiello and Michael Civiello. Mike Reardon, Elmore Hultine. They lost their first match to West Hartford 13-5 last Saturday.

MINISTER OF DEFENSE IN GERMANY RESIGNS Berlin, May 12.—(AP)—Enemies of Chancellor Brüning's Cabinet made their first successful assault on its ranks today when, through a delegation of generals, they persuaded Wilhelm Groener to resign as minister of defense.

On Tuesday Herr Groener spoke in the Reichstag in defense of the dissolution of the National Socialist storm troops. Oratorically his speech was a failure, for he in all respects spoke only with great difficulty. Immediately afterward his right hand man, General Curt von Hammerstein, and General Curt von Hammerstein, chief of staff of the army, suggested to him that his health was such that he ought to resign.

So today he did, asking President von Hindenburg to relieve him of the defense portfolio but expressing his willingness to continue in the office of minister of the interior, which he also holds.

There was a general inclination to believe his resignation virtually was forced and that it was his opposition to the Nazi storm troops while he defended the Republican Reichswehr which alienated the Army and Navy heads.

Many people seemed to think this was only the first of several moves in the reconstruction of the Cabinet.

CHIEF DROWNED Norwich, Conn., May 12.—(AP)—Joseph Stewart, 3, drowned today in the Shetucket river at Baltic while playing on the bank with an older brother. The child slipped and fell into the water. The body was recovered at once and taken to a hospital where attempts at resuscitation were futile.

METHODISTS CUT THEIR EXPENSES

Abolish Seven Episcopal Areas At Home and Abroad—Protest Heard.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 12.—(AP)—A unanimous, concerted demand from both its clergy and laity, the Methodist General Conference in a move to effect economy and efficiency, today decreed the abolition of seven of its episcopal areas.

In the United States, Buffalo, Indianapolis and Helena, and abroad the episcopates of Paris, France; Peking, China; Korea, and Calcutta were eliminated.

The Buffalo and Indianapolis delegations protested the abolition of the Buffalo area and the church's continued for three and one-half hours, but all their protests and arguments were met by answers citing an episcopal fund deficit of $275,000 and the insistence of the "people back home" that drastic steps be taken to reduce the overhead of church administration.

Called Selfish Opponents of the Buffalo and Indianapolis area abolition warned the elimination of these two large Methodist episcopates would be "selfish" and subversive of both spiritual leadership and the church's well-being in the two sections.

They urged the conference not to reduce overhead at peril to the "underpinning" of the church, and to sound a note of optimism, not of pessimism, over the church's financial condition.

Proponents of the changes met these pleas with statements that the members of the church back home were the "underpinning" of the church and to saddle them with a continued heavy financial burden would be fatal. As for optimism, the reply was "anything that ignores the present depressed conditions is not optimism."

The abolition of the Helena area aroused no protests, nor did the foreign area eliminations. With the single exception of Paris, France, the foreign areas have been formally eliminated for some time by the election of native bishops to supplant American bishops. Today's action on foreign areas merely was the official confirmation of acts already in force.

The disposition of the abolished domestic episcopates was suggested by the committee report, but must await the action of the Board of Bishops.

The proposals are to consolidate Indianapolis with Detroit; to appoint Buffalo to the adjoining New York, Boston, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia areas, and the parcel Helena to the areas of Omaha, Portland, Ore., and St. Paul.

COMMITTEES NAMED FOR FLOWER SHOW

Mrs. J. R. Lowe, General Chairman of June Exhibit, Picks Her Assistants.

Mrs. J. R. Lowe, chairman, and the members of the general committee in charge of the Manchester Garden club's June flower show, have appointed head of committees to look after the details of arrangements, as follows: W. E. Buckley will head the committees on schedules; Miss Mary Chapman, the judges; Mrs. Herbert E. House, hostesses for the different days of the show, June 9 and 10 at the Masonic Temple; Mrs. R. K. Anderson will arrange for the ribbon awards, prizes, posters and publicity. C. W. Hienzenburg of Talcottville will be chairman for all arrangements and general decorating. It is understood these leaders will arrange their own assistants.

The exhibits will be by no means confined to Garden club members, any one may enter in the different classes without fees. The Garden club held no flower show last season, and the general committee is soliciting the interest of both the members and garden enthusiasts in this 22nd nearby towns in the exhibit. There will be no admission charge.

This season the club has decided to abandon its sole money-making project, aside from dues—the May plant sale. Those who have a surplus of bedding plants, and others who would like to purchase particular seedlings are asked to give their names and varieties to Mrs. W. J. Taylor. The sales will be for the benefit of the club's treasury.

200 TO ATTEND CONVENTION HERE

New England Luther League Sessions To Be Largely Attended June 25 and 26.

When the 16th annual convention of the New England Conference of Luther Leagues is held at the Swedish Lutheran church here on June 25 and 26, it will be the first time that the local Luther League has been host to the past eight years. The League was host to the Hartford District Luther League in September of 1929 and to the Christian Conference of the New England League in March of 1929.

The various committees in charge of the coming convention are now hard at work arranging for the two-day session, under the leadership of President Herbert Johnson. With favorable weather it is expected that the attendance at the four sessions will be the largest in the history of the Conference Luther League. Arrangements are being made to lodge more than 200 delegates overnight and between 1,000 and 1,500 Leaguers from the 71 Leagues in New England are expected on Sunday.

The convention will open with a business meeting in the afternoon at which officers will be elected. In the evening, after a supper served at the church, an inspirational rally will be held. Holy Communion will be celebrated at the Sunday morning service and the final session will be held in the afternoon at the South Methodist church, after which refreshments will be served at the Swedish church.

The convention will be held a week after the arrival of Rev. K. J. Ericson of Chicago, who will assume the duties made vacant by the resignation of Rev. P. J. O. Cornell.

RAPID PRICE CHANGES IN NATIVE VEGETABLES

Walter Gorman, of Pinehurst, Points How Market Fluctuates Within a Brief Space of Time.

To illustrate the rapid and violent fluctuations which can occur in prices of foods Walter Gorman, of the Pinehurst Grocery, today pointed out to The Herald that green beans of the grade which was selling at $4.50 a basket a week ago could be obtained at $2.00 to $2.25 a basket. The beans come from Garden City, Florida.

Fresh market quoted in the Boston market last week at 15 cents a pound were down to cents this week. Native rhubarb dropped from 15 cents to 4 1/2 cents a pound today and berries and native asparagus showed a change in the lower brackets of about 40 per cent.

Mr. Gorman said that native asparagus is coming in slowly because of the cool weather but that at present there is plenty to care for the demand. Native radishes are at their best now as are native spinach, asparagus, rhubarb, raspberries and dandelions. The Pinehurst grocery is featuring Brown's native asparagus for tomorrow and The Herald calls attention to the Pinehurst advertisement of fresh vegetables which will be found on the back page of today's issue.

NATIONAL HOSPITAL DAY IS OBSERVED

Hundreds Visit Local Institution—Children's Contests At 3 O'Clock.

National Hospital Day was observed at the Manchester Memorial Hospital today. Several hundred visitors availed themselves of the opportunity to visit the local institution at a time when the fine building on Haynes street is looking its best, and the surrounding grounds lawns and shrubbery are taking on their annual spring dress.

Expressions of surprise and gratification were heard today when the nursing staff conducted five separate tours of visitors through the four wards, sun porches, operating rooms, laboratory, library and X-ray room, kitchen, dining rooms, laundry, and the heating plant. Patients who appeared genuine happy with the crowds milling through the wards. Even the babies in the nursery cried lustily but visitors got no farther than the door there.

The children's contests in bed-making, the baby and doll carriage parade, the hygiene exhibit, the poster contest for elementary schools and the Junior High school students which began at 3 o'clock on the front lawn of the hospital. A Boy Scout troop under the direction of Joseph Dean gave an interesting exhibition of first aid as taught the Scouts in their camps and meetings rooms.

The Manchester Memorial Hospital is competing this year for the National Prize which will be awarded to the Grade A hospital presenting the most novel program on Hospital Day. A full account of the Hospital Day program will be carried in this paper tomorrow.

Hartford, May 12.—(AP)—Kenneth L. Messenger, commissioner of child welfare in the state department of public welfare left today for Philadelphia to attend the conference of the National Probation Association to be held in that city today, tomorrow and Saturday. William Squires, secretary of the public welfare board and Mr. Messenger will attend the National Conference of Social Workers to be held in Philadelphia from May 15 to 21.

TEACHERS TO RECEIVE THEIR CONTRACTS SOON

Supt. F. A. Verplanck Says Exact Number To Be Employed Is Not Known Yet.

Superintendent F. A. Verplanck announced today that contracts for teachers of the present Ninth District are now at the printers and will be mailed within the next week or ten days. The exact number of teachers to be employed in the Ninth District or the exact changes to be made are not yet ready for publication. Miss E. Marion Dorward, music supervisor, and Mrs. Hazel Gess, dental hygienist, will not return as a result of the recent announcement that these two parts of the school curriculum will be discontinued next fall.

PYTHIAN SISTERS ENTERTAIN KNIGHTS

The entertainment given by Memorial Temple, Pythian Sisters, Tuesday evening in Odd Fellows hall, with the Knights of Memorial Lodge as guests, consisted of several musical numbers by the Triplets, an ensemble of banjo and mandolin players directed by Miss Gladys Carline. Miss Arline Homes executed a tap dance, Mrs. Frederick Kubly of Rockville sang; readings were given by Mrs. Mabel Holmes and Helen De Varney; Mrs. H. A. Fritz of Hartford and Miss Frances De Varney played piano solos. A vocal duet was sung by Miss Frances De Varney and Alice Miller, and a piano duet played by Mrs. Frank Kearnes, of this town.

Remarks were made by Chancellor Griswold Chappell of the Knights and Past Chancellors Myron Peckham and Gustave Magnuson. An invitation was extended by them to the Pythian Sisters to attend their anniversary celebration in June.

It is announced that Memorial Temple will be hostess to the state convention of Pythian Sisters here on June 28, under the direction of Deputy Sadie Nutland of Rockville. It was also voted to change the meeting night from May 24 to May 29 in order that the members may visit Thompsonville Temple when Grand Chief Mrs. Frances Chambers of this town and her staff makes their official visit.

DAUGHTERS OF LIBERTY PLANNING MAY PARTY

Daughters of Liberty No. 125 are making plans for a May party to be held at Orange hall, Friday evening, May 27, at which the Organizational Committee of Washington Lodge No. 117 will be guests.

The entertainment committee which includes Mrs. Annie Johnson, Mrs. Lillian McCaughy and Mrs. Lillian Conner is arranging for a play and other numbers. The supper will be in charge of the following ladies: Mrs. Mary Dunlop, Mrs. Martha Lesmon, Miss Meta Hooks, Mrs. Minnie Brown, Mrs. Elizabeth Caverly, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith and Mrs. Georgia Tomlinson.

TROOP 9 GIRL SCOUTS HONOR THEIR LEADERS

Present Miss Doris Davis and Miss Myrtle Fryer With Gifts—Both To Leave Here Soon.

Troop 9 Girl Scouts affiliated with the South Methodist church presented their leader, Miss Doris Davis, and first lieutenant, Miss Myrtle Fryer, with acceptable gifts this week. Miss Davis has been captain of the troop since its organization. She has been director of work among the young people of the church for the past few years, while studying for her degree at the Hartford Seminary Foundation, from which institution she will graduate in June. Miss Davis received a handsome silk umbrella from the Girl Scouts.

Miss Myrtle Fryer who as junior superintendent of the church school as well as an officer in the Scout organization, has had many of the girls under her instruction, received one of the newest robots, an electric iron cooker, Miss Fryer is to be married to W. E. Roemer of St. Petersburg, Fla., this summer, and already she has been honored with several showers.

INJURED FROM FALL

New Britain, May 12.—(AP)—Siles Rogers, 21, of 72 Pleasant street, West Springfield, Mass., received injuries to his skull today when he either jumped or fell from a large gasoline tank at the local distributing plant of an oil company.

DRAMATIC SKETCHES ON LIONS' PROGRAM

Comedy Reigns Supreme in Local Charity Show—Prominent Local Stars in Parts.

Several dramatic sketches of unusual interest are to be found in the Lions' Club revue, which is scheduled hereon May 18 and 19. All of these short plays will prove to be the last word in clean, sparkling entertainment, as it is the combined efforts of the Lions Club and the Community Players to give to the public of Manchester one of the finest shows seen here in many months. The casts in these sketches are made up of prominent local stars, all of whom are wholeheartedly donating their services.

Heading the list of skits is "Twenty Years After," an uproarious comedy featuring Anne McAdams, Clayton Holmes, Lucille Grant and Karl Keller. Elizabeth Jones, Mark Holmes, Mrs. Margaret Handley, Joseph Dean, Ann Anderson, Beatrice Coughlin and Gwen Prescott are starred in "Inside Dogs," another entertaining piece. "Bookers' Busy Hour," the third black-out has Joseph Handley, Mrs. Mabel Holmes, Albert Tuttle, Mrs. William Hamilton, Jr., Faith Fallows and Raymond Mers in the principal parts.

The two remaining farces, namely, "The Daily Doesn't," and "You Can't Believe Everything," are due to send the audience into gales of laughter. The former has Leonard Johnson and Harriet Coburn sharing starring honors. The latter offering features Patricia Petricolas, Roger Winton and John Mikoleit. Tickets are now on sale at Conran's Soda Shoppe at the North End and are also in the hands of both the Community Players and Lions Club members. All indications point to a capacity crowd on both evenings.

GRANGE MEETING

Manchester Grange's meeting in Odd Fellows Hall last night was well attended. The program was in charge of the Home Economics committee, Mrs. Arthur Hutchinson, chairman, and consisted of a talk on the subject by Mrs. Walter Havens of Coventry, chairman of home economics of the state Grange. Mrs. Harry Cahoon sang in a pleasing voice "O Promise Me" and "The Ball of St. Mary's." The lecturer, Mrs. Henry Lowd, then presented to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Warren, whose wedding took place this spring, a handsome floor lamp from members of the Grange. Mrs. Warren is overseer of the ladies' degree team and Mr. Warren is steward of the Grange. Another surprise was the presentation of a birthday cake to Mrs. Jennie Thompson of 618 East Center street who recently passed her eightieth milestone. The cake was the gift of the Home Economics committee. An original monologue was given by Mrs. Leslie Hardy. There was chorus singing, and a roll-call. The men answered by giving suggestions on how their wives might save, and the women told how they saved on food staples.

EVERYWOMAN

Although I side with optimists and think they have the right of it, I'm not just glad because of life. But often-times is spite of it.

The much-talked-of novel, "Grand Hotel" by Vicki Baum, (the screen version now playing in Hartford), you may purchase at Hale's Stationery Department for 75c the copy. Be sure to get yours as soon as possible while they last.

Hard-boiled eggs which are to be used for salads should be plunged into cold water immediately after they are done to prevent discoloration.

When you have meat, soup or vegetables on the stove that will require two or more hours, put a tea-kettle full of water on the unlighted burner next to the one you are using. Then when your cooking is done you will have a kettle full of almost boiling water without burning any gas for the purpose.

Select your wall papers from Olson's Paint Shop. There you will have your choice from an assortment distinctive in quality and design.

It is well worth your while to coax birds to live on your premises, for every day they eat just pounds and pounds of grubs and insects, which means they are great little aids to the gardener. Provide them with attractive little houses and bird baths. It's nice to have the birds around and besides they are amusing to watch.

Your car troubles will be efficiently and economically eliminated if you drive to the Depot Square Garage.

Do not use hot water on varnished floors. Use a cloth wrung out in luke-warm water. Each section should be rubbed with a dry cloth as it is washed.

Send your clothes to the New Model Laundry. When you see how beautifully and economically they are done, you will never go back to the home way with its work, worry and bother. Phone 8072.

To remove medicine stains from sheets or linen, make a paste of fuller's earth and ammonia and apply to the stain. Leave till dry, then wash the stained parts in cold water. Afterwards wash the articles in the ordinary way.

Growing children especially need the wholesome and nutritious milk from the Waranoke Farm Dairy. Among other things, it helps to provide them with the mineral elements so necessary to normal growth and general health.

Man answered by giving suggestions on how their wives might save, and the women told how they saved on food staples.

Now they're trying to call wine bricks unconditional—but there seems to be no telling what some men's constitutions will stand.

DO YOU INHALE?

Here goes the last "sacred cow" in cigarette advertising!

INHALING has long been an "untouchable" subject taboo in the tobacco trade... a "sacred cow" Why? ... Because in every tobacco leaf—even the finest, the mildest—nature hides certain impurities which, when not removed, are unkind to delicate membranes!

And since, knowingly or unknowingly, we all inhale some part of the smoke from our cigarettes—Lucky Strike developed that great scientific process which removes certain impurities. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it!

Do you inhale? Remember—more than 20,000 physicians, after Luckies had been furnished them for tests, basing their opinions on their smoking experiences, stated that Luckies are less irritating to the throat than other cigarettes.

us all from the international epidemic of deflation.

Following the Borah speech, than which no more significant utterance has been made from any forum
 in years, comes the proposal of Winston Churchill that Britain and America join in the promotion of a world wide monetary conference.
 And almost simultaneously comes the promise of President Hoover, made to Senator Hayden of Arizona, that a very careful study will be made of the latter's silver-payment resolution by the interested government departments, before the administration passes judgment on that measure. It would be difficult to exaggerate the importance of this promise.

The Hayden resolution would authorize the President to accept silver in foreign debt payments at the rate of one and a half ounces of silver, 900 fine, to the dollar. This is at the rate of 68 2-3 cents an ounce, whereas the price of silver bullion is now a little less than 50 cents an ounce. The ratio to gold established by such a proceeding would be roughly 27 to 1, whereas the present ratio is something like 47 to 1 and the traditional or "historic" ratio is 16 to 1.

and very fast, if every condition is exactly right and nothing breaks.
 But helpless monstrosities when extraordinary luck fails.

In a specially constructed world with a specially designed atmosphere
 a giant dirigible would be a fine thing. Under the conditions of perpetually succeeding climatic surprises, "bumps," cross currents, electrical storms, infrequent hurricanes and frequent squalls, however, they are there merely toys at the mercy of nature's vagaries. By and large they have killed more of their occupants than they ever landed safely.
 Of the many scores of them that have been built in Europe and this country only four or five continue in existence. Only one, the German Bremen, has any noteworthy achievement in mileage to her credit—and only miraculous luck has kept her from disaster on several occasions.

The giant dirigibles are a wicked
 waste of money and human life.
 They are wrong in principle and hopeless of perfected practicability.
 To squander the public's money on them and keep on slaughtering human beings in a mad determination to make them do what they never in the world can do is sinful.

Is This How the War Debt Problem Will Be Solved?

OH, BOY! I'M THIRSTY! I WISH I COULD REACH THAT WATER!

AH, I HAVE IT! PEBBLE BY PEBBLE...

... AND THERE YOU ARE!

YOUNG—BLOEY!

Owan D. Young, often regarded as a dark horse who might receive important support for the Democratic Presidential nomination, made an address at St. Lawrence college the other day which is generally accepted as formulating his ideas on economic causes and effects for the purposes of a possible political campaign. It was notable, coming from such a presumably authoritative source, for its naivete.

We are in this slump, according to Mr. Young's notion, because one half of the workers of the country, i. e.
 the industrialists, were receiving high wages while the other half, the agriculturalists, were not getting anywhere near as much. The farmers tried to keep up with the standard of living established by and do so by getting head and heels into debt; when the farmers couldn't pay
 the installments on their automobiles, their new farm machinery, their refrigerators and electrical plants and radios, the buying stopped and the slump came.

He would restore the farmers' purchasing power through the establishment of the equalization fee and then business would start up again.

It is rather astounding to hear an Eastern Democrat advocating a measure which originated among the insurgent Republicans in the wheat belt and which even its originators apparently have long abandoned as impracticable and visionary. But even that is scarcely more surprising than to learn from so eminent a source that all America was divided into two parts in the matter of wages, with the farmers on one side and the industrialists on the other side of the line.

Mr. Young is, of course, right in maintaining that the country could not survive economically with half the people working for high wages and half for starvation wages, because the lack of purchasing power on the part of the submerged half would eventually destroy the market for the other half's products. But where on earth did he get the idea that wages on the industrial side ever attained a common level?

During the boom years—and the condition hasn't been adequately corrected even yet—there was probably twice as much spread between bottom wages and top wages in the industries as there ever was between farm incomes and the average of industrial workers' incomes.

Mr. Young has displayed an amazing degree of ignorance for an industrial leader of wage conditions in the industries during the period of prosperity. You cannot draw any such line as he has drawn and then proceed to argue from the aspects of the picture. If you do you present an empty argument.

Something very, very different might have been expected from a personage of Mr. Young's standing —author of international settlement schemes, father of great banking ideas, dealer in vast finance problems. But it is little less than stupefying to discover how many of these big men of ours, when you catch them off the very limited ground of their own specialties, have even the remotest idea of what it is all about.
 At all events, there goes one more Presidential possibility—bloey.

YARDSTICKS

After almost three years of the utmost confusion in which the world has found no answer to the problem of economic rehabilitation there are indications that a dawning light is beginning to break through the blindness and that the eyes of civilization are turning blindingly toward the promise of salvation that abides in a world monetary congress and the establishment of an international currency bank. Will you

With the actual merits of the Hayden plan we have nothing to do here.
 The full measure of its effect, if adopted, there is no way of ascertaining. It would take a great deal of study of the subject to warrant a sheer guess. But the apparent or obvious first effect would be to increase the purchasing power of about half the people in the world, users of silver money on a large scale, and it is difficult to see where it could fall to be of universal benefit to some indeterminate extent.

However, the President's promise to look very closely into the proposition is in itself deeply significant,
 in that it is a tacit admission that just possibly there may be something of vital import in this business of money bases. And that, to us, seems to be the item that counts
 most of all.

The world cannot do business without a measure of values and that is what our money standards are. It cannot successfully do business with a measure of values that fluctuates seriously from day to day or from year to year. It cannot do business through credits if a man is to borrow a hundred dollars today and find that he must pay it back with three times the amount of value next week because the yardstick has stretched. It cannot do business with credits if a man is to lend a hundred dollars today and get back a third of the value next week
 because the yardstick has shrunk.
 A manufacturer cannot do business making an article that costs him three dollars only to find that its value has shrunk, because the yardstick is stretching, to two dollars by the time he gets it finished.

Business—world business and all business—cannot be stabilized till money is stabilized. At least a few of the leaders are beginning to see that point. That's why they are beginning to talk about greenbacks
 and about silver's rehabilitation.
 That's why Churchill proposes a world monetary conference. That's why Mr. Hoover, staunch single gold standard man that he has always been, promises to look searchingly
 into the Hayden proposal.

"ON THE ROPE"

The voters of Ohio hit prohibition
 the hardest punch it has ever received when, on Tuesday, they defeated every dry candidate who showed his head in the congressional, senatorial and state primaries of both parties and bowled over the Anti-Saloon League, which heretofore for years has dominated Republican politics in the Buckeye state.
 One of the most significant results of the primaries was the victory of a wet aspirant for the Republican senatorial nomination over Louis J.
 Taber, president of the National Grange and one of the most influential and uncompromising dries in the country.

It is nonsense to attempt to ignore the importance of the prohibition question as a political issue in the face of the tremendous Ohio revolt against dry control. Ohio heretofore has been a stronghold of the Anti-Saloon League as well as its birthplace and home. The sweeping character of its defeat on Tuesday cannot possibly fail to have a deciding influence on Congress and on both political parties. The days of dry domination through political frightfulness are almost over.

GIANT DIRIGIBLES

The horrifying tragedy accompanying an attempt to land the dirigible Akron in California is just one more contribution of human lives to the proof of what these giant gasbags are. They are balloons, when all is said and done, and when the wind is blowing balloons with engines and propellers that can make them go in a desired direction

TARIFF VETO

The tone of President Hoover's veto message on the Democratic tariff measure would seem to indicate that the strain of his responsibilities is putting a slightly sharp edge on the President's temper. At a time when Mr. Hoover is seeking to eliminate partisanship from the activities of Congress it might have been quite as well to pass up the opportunity to challenge the opposition party on such a momentarily secondary issue as its tariff creed and to present the veto, if not with a sugar coating, at least without the addition of unnecessary acidity.

The President might without injury have realized that there are a not inconsiderable number of members of his own party, some in Congress and a great many more outside, who are not so cocksure that an international tariff conference would be the worst thing in the world, for the world—including the United States. And that these people, supporters of his, may not be fools and certainly are not knaves
 just for holding that particular view.

The veto itself was, of course, inevitable. No Republican President in the present situation would have withheld it. It was not necessary, however, to accompany it with a gratuitous display of contempt for a House majority whose co-operation with the administration is so vitally necessary as is the present case.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON WITH RODNEY DUTCHER

HEFLIN'S LONG-WINDED SPEECH HELPS SENATE DECIDE FOR BANKHEAD

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
 NEA Service Writer

Washington—Tom Heffin, the picturesque erstwhile senator from Alabama, spent five hours trying to talk himself back into the Senate, standing on the same Senate floor
 where in years past he had consumed many long, weary hours.
 But he must have talked himself out of whatever chance he had, if any, in his contest against Senator Bankhead. It was a fearful thing to have to watch and to listen to.
 It made the Senate itself look pretty sick and there wasn't the faintest ray of sunshine that day except as it might be found in the fact that the Senate itself realized how awful it all was. But the sight and sound of old Tom was enough to remind the senators of the great loss they had sustained in Tom's defeat—and to reconcile them to that loss completely.

Prefer Silent Bankhead

Not that anyone is especially enthusiastic over Bankhead, who made a weak speech on his own behalf,
 or over the skullduggery which unquestionably figured to some extent in the election in which Bankhead defeated Heffin by an alleged 50,000 votes.

But there is a preponderant opinion here, beguiled as it may be,
 that a silent Bankhead is more to be desired than an erupting Heffin.

Most of these election contests are pretty smelly, anyway, in both the Senate and the House. Members vote on party lines as a rule, apparently disregarding the merits of the cases.

There are a few, however, who insist on voting their convictions rather than their partisanship, and that sometimes the cause of righteousness and virtue triumphs even in Congress.

Good Politics for G. O. P.

 he at least demonstrated all over

HINTS for HOME GARDENERS

HOME GARDEN HELPS SAVE POCKETBOOK

(This is the first of a series of exclusive articles on vegetable gardening prepared for NEA Service and The Herald.)

BY WM. E. BEATTIE
 Bureau of Plant Industry, U. S.
 Department of Agriculture

From everywhere comes the report that people living on farms
 have had plenty to eat this winter.
 They may not have had many new clothes, but they are not worrying about food. They have their pantry shelves filled with canned goods, and their cellar storages and bins are well stocked with potatoes, turnips, cabbage and other products of their gardens and orchards.

Most of these folk have plenty of cured hams and bacon in their

Tough on "Uncle George"

It was rather tough on good old Uncle George Norris, the Nebraska senator, who had opposed permission for Tom to make that speech.
 When Heffin allotted two-hour
 time was about to expire, he said
 "I wonder if I could get a half hour more?" Norris graciously asked unanimous consent that he be allowed to continue. Heffin went on for three hours.

Instead of confining himself to the strong points of his case, Heffin roared accusations that couldn't possibly be proved, told dull "darky"
 stories to embellish his charges, accused excessive abuse all over the place, ridiculed sitting senators despite the courtesy he was enjoying,
 quoted incessantly and absurdly from the Bible and the poets and drove one senator after another from the chamber.

Here's a Sample

A sample Heffin "darky" story was:

"Senators have heard the story about the Spaniards when a nigger went out and said he had cut off the feet of 20 Spaniards."
 "They said, 'What?' He said, 'I just cut the feet of 20 Spaniards.'
 'What do you mean, nigger?' He said, 'I cut off the feet of.' They said, 'Why did you not cut their heads off?' He said, 'Somebody else had done that.' . . . So somebody else had 'done bin' in those basic boxes."

Senators, in fact, had also heard about all the other stories Tom told.

What Tom Cost

I'm not going to try to figure out how much the Senate's time costs
 —or is worth—by the hour, but the Congressional Record costs $58 a page and Tom used up $1,500 worth fired in the economy campaign.

TO ADJOURN JUNE 10

Washington, May 12—(AP)— Congressional leaders agreed today to make a determined effort for final adjournment of Congress on June 10.

The decision was reached at a conference attended by Speaker Garner, Senator Watson of Indiana,
 the majority leader, and Representative Snell of New York, Republican pilot in the House.

It was understood Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic chairman, when in agreement on the program, although he was unable to be present at the party. Earlier in the day Robinson said on the Senate floor that it was the inten-

 all business by the June 10 date so that no session will be necessary
 after the political conventions in June.

From everywhere comes the re-

 have had plenty to eat this winter.
 They may not have had many new

Health and Diet Advice

By DR. FRANK McCUJ

MORE FOOD AND MORE EXERCISE

The process of elimination should now be well established for all of those who started this Spring Tonic Diet Course. We had at first two days of acid fruit diet and you are now on the third day of the nonstarchy vegetable diet which should be continued for two days more, making the eliminative period last seven days.

Many of you have undoubtedly noticed an improvement in your health by this time. This is because your diet is simple and you have not been interfering with the digestive processes by using the usual bad condiments. You have also been increasing the elimination of toxins through the elimina-tive organs. A few of you may feel a little bit weak and out of sorts but this is simply because your organs have not yet eliminated a sufficient amount of impurities. Have the courage to stick to the diet for a few days longer
 so that the elimination may proceed. After two more days of the non-starchy vegetables, also using deep breathing, etc., you should start using the diet outlined in the manuappearing yesterday.

It is well to remember that a cure is but a temporary change and that it cannot be permanent,
 whether it is brought about by a special diet, or by other means,
 unless you are constantly on the alert to correct your every-day habits of eating, exercising and thinking. Now is a good time to build into your mind these health habits. Once you begin to return to a general diet it is advisable for you to begin taking some kind of vigorous physical culture exercise. I would suggest that you use the exercises morning and evening and take at least one long walk sometime during the day, possibly late in the afternoon or before retiring. The walks should be gradually increased until you are able to walk four or five miles without fatigue. Walking is necessary for building endurance and you should use it unless you are actually doing such a task as carrying mail when you have to walk a long distance at your work. Such games as basketball, baseball, football, wrestling, etc., which produce heavy sweating tend to deplete the strength and vitality
 because of the exertion they require.
 As only a few people take up such sports which require deep breathing, others should practice to inhale and exhale slowly and

AIR PATHS OF GLORY

By DEXTER TEED
NEA Service Writer

One sits at an official desk in Washington. One is back on the farm. One roams restlessly without even a flying license. One died early. One is wealthy, several are poor. One flies the mail. This one instructs flying recruits. That one takes passengers for short hops. The other one runs aerial errands for whomsoever he can serve.

These are the pieces to which air paths of glory have led the great flyers who blazed the sky trails.

Many of the great aviator-heroes have retraced their steps to oblivion. The spotlight which once played on them has shifted to other figures.

Who first flew the Atlantic? It wasn't Lindbergh. Who first flew non-stop across the Atlantic? That wasn't Lindbergh either. Where are they now? Probably you do not know. Most of us have forgotten.

The Cream Is Skimmed
Even more recently: what has become of Wiley Post, pilot on perhaps the greatest flight in history, the eight-day flight around the world? With the profits of that flight, about $500, he is back in Oklahoma trying to sell planes. And here's what he has to say about his experience:

"The day of money-making flights is passed. Lindbergh was the only natural. The public has gradually lost interest and in the future flights will have to be backed by plenty of money if aviation is to progress."

So Wiley Post spends much of his time back at the old farm near Mayville, Oklahoma, a local hero who made good in aviation but did not get the big bank account many supposed he would.

Col. Lindbergh, although fame has brought with it more than its share of heartaches, is a wealthy man. Capt. Frank Hawks, now convalescing in a hospital, has been prosperous and constantly in the limelight. Commander Byrd's fame has endured. Eddie Rickshaber, greatest of American World War ace, is reasonably successful.

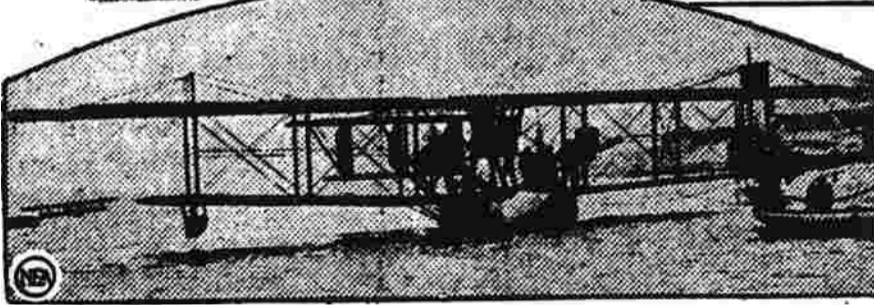

Remember Them?
But some of the great birdmen have been almost forgotten: Lt. Com. Albert C. Read, Captain John Alcock, Sir Arthur Whitten-Brown, Lt. George Noville, Bert Acosta and Capt. von Gronau. Yet their names were in big type on newspaper front pages.

Commander John Rogers, Lt. William V. Davis, Lt. Erik H. Nelson, Lt. Lowell H. Smith—all were international figures. Now their stirring achievements and even their names are little remembered.

Others have been remembered only when they were involved in some escapade—aid your real aviator is quite likely to be a bold, swashbuckling man who has the knack of getting into trouble. Charles Levine, who flew to Germany with Clarence Chamberlin, has been entangled with the law, missing, and sometimes playing the lead in impromptu dramas of laughter and amazement.

That's the story of aviator-heroes. If the paths they have followed, or have been forced to follow, have taken them back where they started, they aren't worrying much. Like forgotten war heroes, they have had their day and they are still doing their jobs.

At a Washington Desk
There is Commander Albert C. Read, stern-faced, suggesting the indomitable will so characteristic of men who succeed, he sits Already it looks a bit old-fashioned—the uniform (left) in which Commander Albert C. Read flew the Atlantic, 13 years ago. . . . Today, a distinguished, quiet, graying man (right) Read sits at an official desk in Washington, guiding naval aviation policies. . . . below, his famous ship the NC-4 as she rode the waves at Plymouth, England, after his great flight.

at a desk in the Bureau of Aeronautical Engineering of the Navy in Washington now and plans the future of naval aviation. He is just Commander Read, practically forgotten by the public. Yet—

Thirteen years ago in a big, four-motored biplane he was taking off from Trepassy Bay, Newfoundland, on what was to be the first Trans-Atlantic flight in history. Four exhaust pipes spouted flame, regularly. That was encouraging, for there had been motor trouble before the start. The moon came up, the motors hummed, and dark sea lay below. The commander encouraged the crew of five. Soon they flew blind through the fog—and knew not whether they would ever see land again.

Wind shrieked through wire struts, the air became bumpy. They caught glimpses of heaving waves as the big plane plunged on. To descend might mean death. But the plane stayed along and 15 hours and 17 minutes after the start they reached the Azores. Next came a hop to Lisbon, Portugal, then a triumphant flight to Plymouth England, and a stirring welcome. Two sister ships of that plane, the NC-4, had failed. One went down off the Azores; the other was driven back to Newfoundland by fog.

In the years since then, Commander Read has been doing his job in the Navy. He flies infrequently but he will always be in the records as the man who blazed the trail that Lindbergh and the others followed.

In a London electrical shop a pleasant, graying man is doing his job, day by day. He is quiet, and many do not remember the day he flew non-stop across the Atlantic, one of the two first to accomplish this feat. Do you remember who he was? See tomorrow's Herald for "Air Paths of Glory."

out through the dense foliage at the arrival of three tiny ships, the Sarah Constant, the Godspeed and the Discovery, bearing 105 adventurers including Captain John Smith, thirteen years before the Plymouth Colony was founded.

Students of the College of William and Mary will present a "Jamestown" pageant in three scenes and a prologue. It will renew the custom of participation by the college students from nearby Williamsburg, started at the first celebration of Jamestown Day in 1895.

The exercises are to be sponsored by the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities. They have been arranged by Miss Ellen Bagby, chairman of the association's Jamestown committee.

KREUGER'S SERVANT CALLED TO STAND

Match King's New York Housekeeper Knew Nothing of His Finances.

New York, May 12.—(AP)—Miss Hilda Aberg, an attractive blonde, for some years employed as housekeeper for Ivar Kreuger, the late Swedish match king, testified today at a bankruptcy hearing of the International Match Company, but denied generally any knowledge of Kreuger's business affairs.

"I was simply a domestic employee," Miss Aberg told Oscar W. Ehrhorn, referee in bankruptcy.

The housekeeper told the special inquirer's last visit to New York, during which he was ill for two weeks. It was after this visit he committed suicide in his Paris apartment.

Questioned regarding conferences Kreuger had here with Anders Jordahl, of the New York office of Kreuger & Toll, and Donald Durant, of Lee Higginson and Company, bankers for the match company, Miss Aberg testified she knew nothing about them "as it was not my business to listen."

She said Kreuger often telephoned to Europe and that most of these calls were made at night.

"Mr. Kreuger asked me to buy him an alarm clock, so he could get up

STUDY CANDIDATES, HUBBARD'S ADVICE

Head of State Manufacturers Tells Members That Industry Must Be Considered.

Waterbury, May 12.—(AP)—E. Kent Hubbard, president of the Manufacturers Association of Connecticut, Inc., in a letter to members has pointed out "the duty of every manufacturer in the state of Connecticut to aid in the selection of proper candidates (for the Legislature) and get out the vote for those candidates."

The letter further said: "There is not a manufacturer in the state who cannot afford to give a considerable amount of time during the next few months to this matter. If it is not done we face certain disasters in the way of industrial and confascatory legislation."

Mr. Hubbard predicted that at the coming session there would be introduced "more radical legislation than ever has been introduced in any previous session." On this he wrote: "This is not an overstatement of fact. We do not want, nor should we have, a Legislature made up of manufacturers, but we do want and ought to have a Legislature made up of men and women who recognize that industry must be given a chance if the state is to prosper."

Gerard Swope, president of the General Electric Co., also will be awarded a gold medal for his work in initiating organization for unemployment relief and for his plan of stabilizing work with guarantee of employment.

STARS AT RALLY

Whiton, Conn., May 12.—(AP)—Three stars of the Metropolitan Opera Company a well known musical comedy star will greet Governor Wilbur L. Cross when he comes to the Town hall Friday night for a monster Democratic meeting. Mario Chamlee, Ruth Muller and Madame Wakefield of the Opera company and Greek Evans, who has sung prominent roles in many Broadway shows will sing the quartet from "Rigoletto" as a feature of the reception to the governor.

Other speakers on the program in addition to Governor Cross will be Congressman William L. Tierney, Hon. Joseph Tone, state labor commissioner, and Thomas H. Seck, state fish and game commissioner.

It is reported that Gov. Cross will take the opportunity tomorrow night of offering the olive branch of peace to the New and Old Guard factions of the Democratic Party.

Hubbard of the Manufacturers Association may be taken as the first forecast for the business in the General Assembly of 1933. At that time the subjects of old age pensions will come up for a more general consideration than in the last two sessions, as a commission under appointment of the governor will report; unemployment insurance will again come up for attention; the commission on the unemployment situation will report; consideration will be given a report of the commission to survey the jails of the state which has just made a report to the governor; and another commission will make its findings on an inquiry into pension systems for municipalities.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and snaky and the world looks pink, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas blocks up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste. And your health is foul. Skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

EPISCOPAL BISHOP OF CUBA COMING

Rt. Rev. H. R. Hulse To Be Preacher At St. Mary's On Sunday Evening.

Rt. Rev. Hiram R. Hulse, D. D., Cuba will be the preacher at the evening service in St. Mary's Episcopal church Sunday. Bishop Hulse is especially interested in educational problems in the island Republic, which stands in the relation of an adopted daughter of the American people. Through the peculiar circumstances of Cuba's history, practically all her industries—the railroads, banks, mercantile interests and the great sugar industries, are under the control of foreigners leaving nothing to the growing youth of the island, but a political career which is not especially promising at the present time. Education alone will remedy the situation, and Bishop Hulse is striving to build up in the interior of the island educational institutions which will not only train Cuban youth for an intelligent activity in politics, but will also rear a generation of Cubans equipped to play their part in the commercial future of the island Republic.

His Training

Born in Middletown, N. Y., September 15, 1868, the son of Frederick B. and Selena Richards Hulse, the Bishop was graduated from the Philadelphia Divinity School with the degree of D. D. in 1896 and in the same year became both deacon and priest. He began his ministry as Vicar of the Pro-Cathedral in New York City, and in 1899 became rector of St. Mary's church, Lawpost street, that city, which post he filled until 1912. In the latter year he became Archdeacon of the Diocese of New York. He was also examining chaplain in the New York Diocese and secretary of the American Church Missionary Society. He is author of the text books on "Old Testament Worthies" in the New York Sunday School Commission series.

Consecration

On January 12, 1918, he was consecrated Bishop for the missionary district of Cuba, at the first Episcopal consecration held in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, in New York, and since that time has done notable service in his chosen field. Sunday night's service will begin at seven o'clock.

AUTOMOBILES CRASH AT BAD INTERSECTION

At 7:30 last night cars driven by George Bingham of 44 North street and Miss Ellen LaChapelle of 765 East Middle Turnpike collided at the corner of East Middle Turnpike and Summit street. Bingham was driving north on Summit street and Miss LaChapelle was going west on Middle Turnpike. When Bingham was half way across the intersection his car was struck on the right rear side by the LaChapelle car, throwing him against the curbing and utilities pole.

Both cars were damaged by the impact. Neither of the drivers carried insurance. Patrolman Herman Muske investigated.

This intersection has been the scene of several close accidents, residents there say. The road surface is particularly rough at the intersection and this oftentimes causes the driver crossing Middle Turnpike on Summit street.

WAPPING

The Windsorville Methodist church will hold their annual strawberry festival and entertainment at the church next Tuesday evening, May 17.

The Wapping Parent Teachers' Association will hold a setback party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Asher A. Collins on Friday evening at 8 p. m., May 20.

Frank Hitchcock and son Russell, of Deming street have moved to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hitchcock of Pleasant Valley and Mrs. Frank Hitchcock has been staying with her mother in Hartford.

Several of the parents of the boys who attend the Manchester Trade school are planning to attend "The Parents Night" this evening.

Charles J. Dewey and Miss Dorothy Nevers motored to Torrington and took his niece Helen who has been visiting relatives there, to her home in Lebanon, Tuesday.

The Wapping Wargium Girls club are to hold their annual "Mothers and Daughters" banquet this evening at the Wapping Parish House at 8:30 (D. S. T.) May 12.

Wapping Grace No. 30, F. of H. held their eighth regular meeting at the school hall Tuesday evening with about 50 members present, it being Garden Night. After the business, the following program was presented: song by all, roll call, piano solo by Miss Doris Benjamin, original paper by Sherwood Bowers, read by Miss Marion Welles, vocal solo by James Folk, paper by Mrs. W. N. Foster, a depression band furnished music and Ellsworth Fairbank was the speaker of the evening, subject: "Ornamental Gardens."

SIAM OFF GOLD

Bangkok, Siam, May 12.—(AP)—Siam went off the gold standard today because of a slump in the price of rice.

The rice went back immediately to its old rate of 11 to the pound sterling. The rice industry was expected to benefit immediately by the change because the bulk of the trade in rice is in the form of a bill of exchange in the pound, or in Indian rupees.

MANY SNAPPING TURTLES ARE NOTICED THIS YEAR

Worst Enemy of Young Ducks, Say Hunters—Swim Under Them and Kill Them.

One member of the reptile family is being seen in this vicinity in large numbers this year—the snapping turtle. One hunter recently shot five such turtles on the banks of the Hockanum river in the vicinity of Laurel Park. The turtles all weighed more than twenty pounds each.

According to local hunters, a turtle is the most dangerous enemy of young ducks. The turtle will swim under water towards a flock of ducks and because of its color can approach unseen and come up under the ducks and kill them.

MARATHON CONTEST FULL OF THRILLS

Contrary to the popular belief of Marathon patrons, there are more thrills in the first 400 or 500 hours of a Marathon dance than there are in a contest that is passing through what might be termed the wearing down stage. During this stage the dancers have acclimated themselves to the new routine. They dance, rest and dance again. They merely wear themselves out as they become too-fatigued to go on.

They drop out few and far between at this time. At the stage this contest is in at the present time most anything can happen at anytime. The dancers are not accustomed to the new way of living that is being thrust on them. They cannot stand the vigorous treatment that they must go through to remain in the contest. They drop out thick and fast during these early hours of the contest which adds to the thrills of the marathon.

ENVOY'S WIFE KILLED

Wielmar, Germany, May 12.—(AP)—Mrs. Mentzing, wife of the Turkish consul general, died today from injuries sustained yesterday when the automobile of Kemal Edin Sami Pascha, Turkish ambassador, overturned near here.

The ambassador, who suffered a fractured skull, was still unconscious today. His wife also was seriously hurt.

MELLON WORE TROUSERS

London, May 12.—(AP)—Ambassador Andrew W. Mellon established himself definitely last night as of the Dawes trousers persuasion, rather than of the Harvey breeches cut, in the matter of wearing breeches when one goes to a Royal Court.

The ambassador appeared in plain republican pantaloons, eschewing the silk breeches which are the ordinary court mode. In this he followed the precedent set by his unconventional predecessor, former Ambassador Charles G. Dawes.

Date Previously Announced Changed—Was To Be Held This Evening.

A Benefit Concert by the Salvation Army Band, sponsored by the American Legion and Veteran of Foreign Wars Posts of Manchester and their Auxiliaries will be presented in High school hall Wednesday evening, May 18. Owing to a misunderstanding about the date, it was previously announced that the concert would be held this evening.

The Salvation Army Band under the leadership of Bandmaster David Addy will give a group of patriotic songs and marches and the meeting will be in the nature of a Benefit Concert for the Relief Funds of each of the ex-service groups, who will start the annual poppy sale May 19 on the streets of the town.

Ensign George D. Williams will deliver the address of the evening. The poppy sale will continue for three days.

During the past year the posts have rendered aid to a large number of families of veterans in need of assistance, due to sickness and unemployment and the sale of the flowers "of Flanders Fields" provides funds for this purpose.

Dilworth-Cornell Post American Legion and Auxiliary and Anderson-Shea Post, V. F. W. and Auxiliary are cooperating in this year's sale.

Short talks on the uses of the fund will be given by officers of each organization. It is expected that Thomas J. Rogers, Chairman of the Board of Selectmen will be chairman of the meeting.

NEED NO MEDICINE TO CURE DISEASE

Doctor Reports Unusual Method of Curing Ailment With a Diet.

New Orleans, May 12.—(AP)—A cure for celiac disease without a drop of medicine was reported to the American Medical Association today. Diet alone does it.

This disease is one of the pitiful ills of childhood, causing retarded growth, serious stomach disorders, growing weakness and, when too long neglected, almost certain death.

Predisposition to relapse has made it difficult to cope with. In announcing the successful diet, Dr. Sidney V. Haas of New York City, said there has not been one recurrence.

The new treatment is an example of the rapidly developing science of finding in two or three commonplace articles of food a regulator that enables the body to convert he entire diet into its natural "medicine."

Cause of Disease One cause of celiac disease is a peculiar form of sugar starvation. No matter how much sugar a child eats, the system cannot assimilate it, and the sweet only makes them worse. Dr. Haas found the sugar in ripe bananas can be eaten freely, and that in the children's bodies it converts ordinary sugars into an agreeable form.

He said an enzyme in the banana sweet probably accounts for this transformation. Enzymes are microscopically small substances possessing big chemical effects.

The sugar enzyme acts as a spearhead of a special diet including milk, from which the sugar has been extracted and certain fruits and vegetables. This diet solves both the sugar problem and an improper digestion of fat, which is a contributing cause of celiac disease. It also supplies extra proteins long recognized as needed for these cases.

Extraordinary Effects As an example of the "extraordinary" effects of harmless appearing bites of ordinary food when taken at the wrong time, Dr. Haas said that eating a single crust of bread a day has been known to cause relapse of celiac disease. This is due to sugar in the bread starch.

Two cases of a rare tongue disease like "lumpy jaw" in cattle contracted by farmers from chewing grass, hay or straw were reported by Dr. Olin J. Cameron of the University of Michigan.

Certain potassium salts correct irregular heart beats and slow down too rapid heart action, according to J. J. Sampson, M. D., of San Francisco. He said it is found this form of potassium can be taken safely by mouth. Its effects begin in 30 to 60 minutes and last six to eight hours.

George H. Mackee, M. D., of New York City, said that X-rays now can be used to advantage to treat about 80 kinds of skin diseases.

CUT OUT FOURTH MEAL HEALTH DEPT. ADVISES

Director of State Bureau Says Depression Has Given People Better Means On Diet.

Elimination from the daily diet both as a matter of health and economy of "that fourth meal," often the result of the ill-advised American habit of eating breakfast the night before and often the result of the equally unthinking habit of nibbling between meals, was urged today by Elizabeth C. Nickerson, Director of the Bureau of Public Health Instruction of the State Department of Health in the latter's weekly broadcast.

Miss Nickerson pointed out that the prevailing economic conditions which had forced many families to make the last cut count in the purchasing of food had promoted a real interest in well-balanced food plans, so that many families today are on intimate terms with protein, calcium, iron and vitamins.

While this interest has not yet reached the height where many housewives actually calculate the diet to insure the correct daily amount of each essential, they have begun to think in terms of the foods which supply these essentials. In the majority of homes, however, the fourth meal is taken in one manner or another.

It may be a midnight raid on the refrigerator, merely because the appetite juices have been trained to demand food at that hour. It may be the afternoon cup of tea which usually calls for cookies, sandwiches and the like. It may be the sampling of left-overs between meals. It may be devouring of the better portion of a box of candy, while the calories mount quickly to the total of a full meal. Elimination of any of these might readily save the money or the leftover foods to make up an official meal the following day.

Usually, the desire for food at times other than regular meal hours is the result of a craving of the body for certain essential elements which the diet fails to supply. The fourth meal may not satisfy even this demand, but may add a still further deficiency by an excess of starch, sweets or protein, according to the character of the extra foods eaten. This craving can be reduced

80 CANDIDATES

St. Paul, May 12.—(AP)—A record list of 80 persons has entered the free-for-all scramble for Congressional nominations in the Minnesota state primary of June 20.

The final filing day yesterday added 29 names to the already long roll from which the voters from three parties will pick their nominees for the National House of Representatives, nine from each party to go into the November election.

Of the 89, the Farmer-Labor Party has 35; the Republicans 22 and the Democrats 22. All of Minnesota's present ten Congressmen are seeking re-nomination at large, not by district, because the state lost one seat in Congress through the 1930 census reapportionment and the State Legislature's Redistricting Act was held unconstitutional by the United States Supreme Court.

WHITON LIBRARY HOURS

The Whiton Memorial Library will be open to patrons for the first time this evening between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock. The hours will be the same as when the public library was on North School street, namely: Tuesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons from 3 to 5:30 p. m., and Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock.

For the present, during the opening hours of the library, the reference room will be open to High school pupils, and 7th and 8th grade pupils during the afternoons only. Children in the third grade and above may borrow books from the library, but not on this, the opening night of the new library.

TO USE HOBOKEN PIERS

Hoboken, N. J., May 12.—(AP)—Hoboken piers may be used by the Cunard steamship company until the New York pier, destroyed by fire last week, is rebuilt. Cunard officials have not reached a definite decision, but say piers here, offered by Mayor Bernard M. McPeely, may be accepted.

FORMER ENVOY OPPOSES FREEDOM FOR FILIPINOS

W. Cameron Forbes Declares Certain Interests in the United States Would Only Reap the Benefits.

Boston, May 12.—(AP)—Expressing disapproval of the measures now under consideration in Congress to give the Filipinos their "freedom," W. Cameron Forbes, former ambassador to Japan, today told a Boston audience that the Filipinos "now have vastly more freedom than they would under their own government."

The proposed legislative measures are being actively supported by certain interests in the United States, not for the benefit of the Filipinos, but for the benefit of their own enterprises," he told members of the Chamber of Commerce during a luncheon address.

"These interests can be roughly grouped as those of sugar, cordage, labor and dairy products. The bill now before Congress places a limitation on the amount of products competitive with these interests which can henceforth be brought in free of duty from the Philippine islands. It provides for a commonwealth, with officers in all departments chosen wholly by the Filipinos, but with the work of government carried on under the supervision and sovereignty of the United States.

Have Freedom Now "The Filipinos now have freedom of opportunity, of movement, of speech, of worship and of employment. They have free access to our markets and our shores. They have had a natural desire to manage their own affairs. Their leaders have repeatedly asked for independence and there is little doubt that many of the people themselves actually believe they want it.

"The measures now under consideration in Congress might result in much more of an oligarchy than the form of government they now enjoy."

The former ambassador thought our management of the Philippine islands could have been better but that "it could have done more to advance the progress made by the Filipines under our direction has compared favorably with the progress made by dependencies of other countries in other parts of the world."

He said that he believed whatever success we have had has been due largely to the fact that we have genuinely tried to win the respect and the friendship of the Filipinos, and have given them social recognition.

"Perhaps the greatest factor in making prosperous people of the Filipinos has been the fact that we have opened our markets to their products and given them a substantial free trade between their country and ours," he said.

"The growth under these institutions has been phenomenal and now reaches the goodly sum of $200,000,000 a year in reciprocal trade between the Philippine islands and the United States."

The former ambassador spoke briefly of the recent Chinese-Japanese troubles in Manchuria and Shanghai and said that there was no doubt but what the Japanese people were convinced of the necessity of their move in Manchuria. He did not undertake to place the blame for the recent oriental disturbances.

Clash Regretted Both sides, he said, regretted the "clash in Shanghai."

"There was a large Japanese population in Shanghai menaced by the Chinese, who were very angry over the Manchurian situation. My contact with men prominent in public and private life led me to believe they genuinely regretted the whole Shanghai episode and were sorry their military and naval officers had felt it necessary to move in."

He expressed the desire particularly to impress upon his audience the importance of recent events in the orient and the proposed Philippine legislation as bearing on the future trade of the United States.

"The Pacific trade of the future is likely to be vastly more important than the Atlantic trade routes," he said.

"The Pacific is much greater, there are greater populations depending upon it, and there is little doubt that with the passage of time it will become the principal theater of the world's commerce."

German high authorities in 1898 went on record as believing that in the long run the control of the Pacific would lie with that country which controlled the Philippine islands.

"We do not want to control the Pacific. We want it free. We do, however, want to protect our trade lines and we must remember that free access to the shores of Asia ought to be a cardinal principle of our national policy."

PRIESTS DISCOVER SODOM, GOMORRAH

HEBRON Site of Biblical Towns Found Near the Shores of the Dead Sea.

London, May 12.—(AP)—The Biblical story of the destruction of the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah by fire and brimstone is believed by Father Alexis Mallon, Jesuit archaeologist of the Pontifical Biblical Institute at Rome to be confirmed by archaeological discoveries on the site of the two towns.

Father Mallon, who with Father Robert Koeppl, has spent three years excavating on the north shore of the Dead Sea in Palestine said their investigation has shown the two cities were contemporary and existed from before 2,500 B. C. to not later than 2,100 B. C. At the time, he said, both had been destroyed by fire and never were reoccupied.

Traces of violent conflagrations were found in the ruins, he said, including layers of ash. He added that on the plain below the hill on which the cities stood there was a curious rock formation, about five feet high which legend associates with Lot's wife, who, according to the Biblical story, was turned into a pillar of salt at the time the towns were destroyed.

Excavations Three Cities The excavators penetrated 26 feet and dug through three cities, each built on the ruins of another. Underneath these three, they said, probably a fourth. The ruins of Sodom and Gomorrah were found in the top layer.

The houses were rectangular indicating that the inhabitants had developed out of the primitive circular huts of the desert. The floors of the houses in the upper layer were of stone and those in the lower of brick. In the floor were holes in which grain was stored.

The inhabitants were evidently engaged in agricultural pursuits judging from the number of agricultural instruments of silica or flint unearthed. Some instruments, of the same material, were for war. These included formidable mace-heads.

Many skeletons came to light, with the same characteristics as a skeleton today. Babies were buried in pottery urns. One incident of the discoveries was the finding of a child's head cut off apparently by a sharp instrument. Some ancient person had taken the head and made an urn around it.

Effort to be made by the Manchester Memorial hospital authorities to canvass the town of Hebron for funds in connection with a drive for the benefit of the hospital. Hebron is in the center of activities for three or more hospitals and has already done considerable to help for the Middlesex and Willimantic hospitals. Some of the citizens here feel that this is all that ought to be asked of them, especially as town and hospital are willing and anxious to settle their bills, and have always done so. However, the attempt is being made to collect as much as possible for the hospital in question, and no doubt it is a worthy cause. A supper was given at the Masonic Hall, Manchester, Monday evening. Allan L. Carr and Miss Clarissa L. Pendleton represented Hebron Center, and accompanied J. Banks Jones to attend the auction of the property on Wednesday. Mr. Carr is in charge of the matter in this part of the town and have already made some collections.

Mrs. Frank Mitchell and two children, John and Barbara, of Columbia, spent the night of Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jared B. Tennant, Mrs. Mitchell's parents. "Clover Time," a three-act play, will be presented at the local Town Hall by Norwich Town players, Friday evening, May 13, at 8:15, day-light saving time. Proceeds will be divided with the American Legion. G. Merle Jones Post, and will be used to help swell the fireworks fund for the Fourth of July. Dancing will follow the program, with special music.

The town of Hebron, by its Selectmen, offers for sale a tract of land known as the Kernan lot, formerly owned by Isaac and Jacob Kernan, containing eight acres, located on the Burnt Hill road. This land will be sold for back taxes, at the Record Building, at public auction, on Wednesday, May 14. Terms will be cash. First Selectionman Clarkson F. Bailey is in charge.

Miss Marjorie Martin of Dalton, Mass., public librarian, spent Sunday and Monday here at the home of her mother, Mrs. Josephine Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Emmons of Boston, Mass., are spending a few days here.

EIGHT REBELS EXECUTED

Lima, Peru, May 12.—(AP)—Eight sailors of the Peruvian army were sentenced to death and shot, all in little more than an hour last night, as the government truck in retribution for the feeble naval revolt of last Sunday.

Fourteen others were sentenced to 15 years and 13 to ten years in the penitentiary.

It was just dusk when the naval council completed its consideration of the case and announced the sentences. A little more than an hour later four condemned men stood at attention on the edge of a new-dug ditch, staring straight ahead. Sixteen rifles spoke and the four bodies fell.

The bodies were placed in the ditch and the four remaining men marched up to meet the same fate.

HOLT TO CONTINUE Had Planned To Resign But Reconsiders — Recently Named For Another Term.

Frederick H. Holt, city tax collector, who had planned to resign that position has reconsidered and will continue to serve. The communication to this effect was read at the meeting of the City Council on Tuesday night. He was recently appointed for another term after several years of service to the city. He recommended two weeks ago that the position be turned over to William Partridge, employed at the National bank.

The city council took no action on a proposal that bonds of the collector, treasurer, and treasurer of the town deposit fund be reduced from $10,000 to $5,000. This proposal was held over from the last meeting.

The local Post, V. F. W. sent a letter to the City Council asking them to accept a cannon, which was donated to the Post some place in Central Park. Nothing was done about the matter at this time.

Several permits were granted at the meeting as follows: Miss Mary Forster, permit to build a garage on Laurel street; Frank Goscak's permit for addition for garage on Franklin street. Stanley Bielecki asked for permission to build a henoop on Stone street. This was referred to the Public Works committee.

The lighting committee, George Schetsa, chairman, reported they had investigated the lighting rates and read a report from Mr. Gibson of the Rockville-Willimantic Light company, which customers give the new rates. A discussion was held on the new gas rates. Mayor Waite stated that an official of the company stated that the customers in Rockville would save $15,000, while all customers of the company would benefit about $42,000. Ralph Gibson, manager, said these figures were correct, but spread up throughout the state, and the experience of the management in many towns where these new rates have had an opportunity to demonstrate their effectiveness, and the company has a conclusion that they encourage the rapid development of the use of both services to the distinct advantage of both customers and company. The company, therefore asks that the city make a fair trial for a sufficient period to enable them to justify themselves in Rockville as they have elsewhere.

Most of the objections that have been raised against the new rates have been based on bills covering a single month. In all fairness, and particularly in the light of the complete analysis of the customers' accounts for the entire year which has been made by the company, which shows that the community as a whole is benefitted by no small degree by the substitution of the new rates for the old, it would appear that the request made by the company that the rates be given a fair trial is a reasonable one.

Epworth League Banquet The Epworth League of the Rockville Methodist church held its annual banquet in Wesleyan hall, Tuesday evening, May 10, at 6:30. Friends present and all sat down to a delicious dinner served by the Ladies' Aid Society of the church. The menu consisted of meat loaf, mashed potatoes, succotash, cabbage rolls, coffee, bread, and berry shortcake. The decorations of the hall and tables were very attractive in red and white, the league colors.

Merle Tyler acted as toastmaster and introduced the program numbers in a most creditable manner. The program was as follows: Reports of treasurer and budget committee; toast, "Our League Officers," Miss Frances Plummer; report of president, Francis Green; toast, "Our Epworth League," Rev. Charles S. Johnson.

The speaker of the evening was Rev. Harold H. Clemmens of the South Park Methodist church of Hartford. He emphasized the necessity of clinging to our ideals, though we may never reach them. The Leaguers were honored by the presence of John Forrest, the first president of the Rockville Epworth League, as a special guest.

Kingston Grange Anniversary The 48th anniversary of Ellington Grange was observed Wednesday evening. A program under the chairmanship of N. M. Kibbe was presented. Musical selections were rendered by a quartet consisting of past masters of the Grange, and vocal solos by Miss Agnes Miller. An original paper, "History of the Grange" was read by M. E. Thompson.

The address of the evening was given by David L. Handlow, publisher of the Rockville Journal, which was filled with humor and interest. A short sketch also featured the address. The following were the speakers: Mrs. Harjold Patric, Mrs. Aborn and Mrs. J. McKnight, Carlton Pease and Mr. Keysser.

Dear in mind you let man, that there is danger in too much salt. The safe way to reduce weight—no-half responsible of Krugheim Salt is a glass of hot water every morning—cut down on fatty meats and sweets—use one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle—get it at J. QUEER TWISTS IN DAY'S NEWS

Chicago—Horton Smith has exchanged his caddy for a nurse and his score card for a hospital chart again. This time it's a nose infection. Just when he was recovering from a broken wrist two years ago, his teeth became infected and after that, trouble with the muscles of his back kept him out of the game.

Versailles, France—Folks in Paris are looking forward to some luscious Louis Fourteenth peas again this year. They are grown on trees planted by the king who had so much furniture named for him. The trees are 250 years old and are in bloom now.

Berlin—Things are brightening up in the brass hat trade which suffered a severe dent after the World War. An order has come in for 6,000 gala helmets for the Royal Rumanian Guards to wear on parade. They cost about $6 apiece.

Madras, India—June 28 of this year looks like an important date for Pandit V. K. Sadagopachari, known in India as the Gandhi astrologer. After taking a look at the stars he announced a world war would begin after that date and last several months.

Pizzoferrato, Italy—The last gesture of Vitangelo Casato amazed his fellow townsmen. After burning $1,100 in banknotes, part of his savings while bartering in the United States, he tossed a bomb into the house of his estranged wife. Then he retired into his own domicile and set fire to it, perishing in the flames. His wife was unharmed.

Boston—Looks as if there might be mushroom with the beans and brown bread almost any time now. The Boston Elevated Railway Company has been granted permission by the Department of Public Utilities to lease space in the Broadway subway station to a mushroom grower.

Harbin, Manchuria—The League of Nations investigating committee is being carefully guarded by Chinese and Japanese police. So carefully in fact, that the commissioners find it necessary to slip away from the swarm of detectives and hold an unguarded session to get any evidence.

New London—Wednesday afternoon is Ropes Yarn Sunday henceforth at the submarine base. It has nothing to do with rope yarn, however, nor with Sunday for that matter. It simply means the enlisted men will have shore liberty instead of spending the afternoon sewing and pressing uniforms as heretofore.

New York—Chris Hemminger is convinced that he was held up by two of the most heartless wretches ever to pick on a meat dealer. They not only robbed him of $160 and put him in his own refrigerator, but they made him throw his clothes out to them.

World Needs Courage Vatican City, May 12.—(AP)—What the world needs to lift itself out of the economic depression is courage, Pope Pius XII told Archbishop Edvard J. Hanna of San Francisco, today.

"It's courage that is needed," said the Pontiff after the archbishop had reviewed the situation in the United States, "if all the nations have courage this crisis will be overcome."

Archbishop Hanna said the Pope displayed a keen knowledge of world conditions, asking numerous pertinent questions during the fifteen minutes of the audience. Their conversation was in Italian, a language which the archbishop speaks fluently having spent his youth in Rome.

STATE PLANTS WESTERN RICE AS DUCK FOOD

Ten Marsh Areas Seeded—Will Attract Waterfowl If Successfully Established.

Wild ducks are due to quack with delight and fish to slip with joy at the announcement today by Superintendent Arthur M. Clark, of the Connecticut State Board of Fisheries and Game, that plantings of 1000 pounds of Wisconsin wild rice have been completed in ten marsh areas throughout the state.

What catnip is to the household tabby, wild rice is reported to be to hungry wild ducks and if the western plant can be successfully established in Connecticut waters there is reason to believe many more ducks will drop into state marshes on their annual migrations. It is indicated by Superintendent Clark, that the plant furnish food for waterfowl and aquatic insects thrive on its foliage thereby furnishing food for fish. Dense growth of the plant affords refuge from enemies of both fowl and fish.

County Warden Edward G. Wright, of Rockville, was in charge of the planting and he will keep record of results. If successful the State Board of Fisheries and Game will extend the work next year. Following are localities planted: Bantam Lake, Pachang Forest, Hampton reservoir, Hatch and Leonard Ponds, Tolland Marsh, Lord's Cove and Windsor marshes on the Connecticut River, Cromwell meadows, Shade Swamp sanctuary and State Line Pond.

That migratory waterfowl may be induced to nest in Connecticut has been successfully demonstrated at the Bridge Lake state game sanctuary in East Lyme. Previously moving South when ice formed in winter, over 1000 ducks and Canada geese have found grain, distributed by the State Board of Fisheries and Game, too great an attraction to desert and Warden W. S. Watson, of New London County, reports five broods of young wild ducklings and others about due to hatch out.

Egg destroying crows, ever on the alert to descend upon duck nests when mother ducks leave to seek food, and voracious snapping turtles which drag the youngsters to under water lairs where they are devoured, are problems state game officials propose to overcome with guns and turtle traps.

HEADS STEAMSHIP CO. Bremen, Germany, May 12.—(AP)—Heinrich F. Albert was elected chairman of the board of the North German Lloyd Steamship Company today.

He was in the United States from 1914 to 1917 on an economic mission for Germany, later became foreign property trustee and subsequently was a minister in the German Cabinet. He represented Germany at the St. Louis Exposition in 1914.

Willimantic, Conn., May 12.—(AP)—A long cherished hope of another hospital to serve Windham and thirteen surrounding towns advanced a step further toward fulfillment today with the laying of the corner stone for the $450,000 Windham community Memorial hospital.

Gov. Wilbur L. Cross was to be the principal speaker at the ceremonies at 3:30 p. m. Nearly four thousand residents in the Windham area contributed the funds for the building, a four-story structure overlooking the Willimantic river valley. The hospital will be equipped with 91 beds.

the MAN HUNTERS

BY MABEL McELLIOTT

BEGIN HERE TODAY

SUSAN CAREY, 30 and beautiful, has become engaged to marry ERNEST HEATH, her former employer. Now she is secretly in love with BOB DUNBAR, who is said to have "an understanding" with DENISE ACHARD, a girl of his own set. Heath's wife has just secured a Bessebrook. Susan's chief motive in promising to marry Heath is the desire to provide for the future of her AUNT JESSIE, who has cared for her since childhood. Her aunt is ill now and Heath has arranged to spend her south. Susan is staying with the MILTONS, old friends. BEN LAMPMAN, an old tutor, shoots at Heath one night in a fit of jealousy, injuring him slightly. After then turns the gun on himself. After several days of illness the doctor announces that Lampman will recover. Heath takes Susan to the theater.

NOW ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XXXVIII

The curtain had risen on the first act when Susan and Ernest Heath drifted down the aisle of the theater. More than one head turned to look at the tall girl in the regally simple wrap of brown fur. There were one or two whispers as Heath was recognized. He had recognized her original caution and desire to avoid publicity in his eagerness to take Susan about. Although impatient for the marriage to take place he had agreed to wait for her aunt's return.

Now conscious of the craned necks and the whispers, he felt only a glow of pride. The girl was so beautiful! She had a look of race about her.

Susan leaned forward absorbed in the play, and the man watched her with interest. It was not until the curtain dropped again and the lights came on that Susan drew a deep breath and returned to reality.

"You like it?" the color came up in her cheeks and her eyes were stary. "Oh, so much!"

"Well, it's all right, only all these British comedies sound so rotten. They may be to you but I've never seen one before and I think it's wonderful," she confided with a happy little laugh.

Susan loosened her wrap and leaned back, looking about her for the first time. As by a magnet her gaze was drawn to a little group in the box just to the left. Irresistibly her eyes clung to the three people balancing on the little gilt chairs. Surely she knew that girl in black, with her bright hair combed demurely back from a brow of camellia whiteness. Susan's heart plunged as she realized the identity of the fair-haired young man whose head was turned away from her. Try as she might, she could not take her eyes away.

As though impelled by Susan's gaze the man turned and stared at her. For the fraction of an instant something quivered between them. Then the girl inclined her head with dignity and looked swiftly away. Her pulse was racing now. This was just as she had dreamed.

"Someone you know?" Heath asked curiously, noting the quality of her brow.

Susan never knew how she answered him. She was fighting desperately for control. All her hard won defenses seemed shattered by this encounter.

Meanwhile, in the box another little drama was being enacted. The bright haired girl in black had followed the direction of Bob Dunbar's glance and had seen him flush. She laughed coolly.

"Oh—no, your little friend turns up again!" she said. "Who's that with her?" Denise leaned forward, frankly staring. At the glimpse of Heath's aristocratic profile she whistled softly.

"That's a nice fellow," she said. "She's a beauty, isn't she? What's her name?"

Denise's other day the talk was that old Heath had a girl around town now.

"Fiercely Bob interrupted her. "Don't be a fool," he said. "You know Susan Carey isn't that kind."

Denise shrugged. "You know more about her than I do, Smarty." She turned her attention to the other member of the party, a youth who looked like a professional tango dancer.

The dark youth said something that made Denise laugh immoderately just as the curtain rose again. So far as Susan was concerned, the second act was a muddle. People babbled in high English voices of unimportant nothings, and slim, sophisticated girls lounged in, stealing epigrams about.

In her heart the old, dull pain

YOUR CHILDREN

By Olive Roberts Barton

TEACH CHILDREN TO BE THOROUGH

I am going to digress from the children today because there is something to be said about older folk. And, after all, there is a lesson in it, too.

It is about thoroughness.

In these times of stress and trouble it seems to me there is more carelessness in the world than ever there was before. Why? It is because for jobs are scarce and work scarce.

Yet many of those who have work are not appreciative enough to fill the positions they have properly. In that it is because they are so busy that the remainder must do double duty and have less time to be accurate? I am trying to be kind.

Inside of a week several things have occurred to irritate me, and I am not easily irritated. Here they are:

Carelessness Again

I took a dress to a cleaner. The buttons that featured the dress were removed and lost. I needed the dress very much for a certain occasion but the buttons did not turn up. They did, in someone else's pocket later, but meantime I had to wear the wrong thing at a wrong time because the clerk had no system of numbers.

We needed nappies or small sauce dishes. I went to town and bought throbbed again and yet she was not sorry she had seen Bob. She had been living, she felt, for this hour. Her whole being was keyed up to the possibility of seeing again that beloved face. She would suffer for it but that was unimportant.

During the second interval Susan determinedly kept her eyes away from the box, but just as the lights went off, quite against her will, her eyes flashed in that direction. The box was empty. They had gone. The world suddenly went gray. What she had expected she scarcely knew. Perhaps she had hoped against hope that as the well-dressed througher might brush against Bob's, she would look up and smile. Perhaps he would shake hands. She would give everything she owned at that instant to slip her tingling palm into the grip of his strong fingers. It was something to remember, something to treasure. But now she had gone and she would not see him.

What had happened was this. Denise and the Spanish youth had seen the play before and Bob, who was rapt in his heart at the conversation touching Susan, was quite ready to concur in their proposal to go on some place and dance. He wanted overwhelmingly to hurt someone. Since he could not hurt her, he turned the battery of his sarcastic fury upon his two companions.

Denise ordered the taxi driver to stop.

"Look here, if you don't like us you know what you can do," she said crudely. "Bobby's in a beast of a temper," she explained to the other man. "I stepped on his pet dog and he doesn't like it. He's tired of the comedy and left before it was over? Dunbar's anger turned to apprehension now. He bowed absently to two of those dowagers waiting for their cars. Where was she? He had searched for her for weeks and here she had been all the time, playing around with this older man—this man in whose employ she had been. His mouth twisted angrily.

At last he caught a glimpse of her through the crowd. In that sumptuous wrap of petal soft fur Susan looked the very best young princess.

He might plunge through the crowd to seize her and carry her away as a bandit prince. He might do that—but he wouldn't. If he preferred this sort of thing she could have it. Remembering that night in the lane and her appeal for Heath's protection, Dunbar's mind

Brides need a make-up all their own.

The make-up for white clothes is not applicable to the May or June bride. We still like our brides a little bit demure, a little bit shy and clinging-vine looking.

Go easy on the rouge. No one minds a bride looking as if the bridegroom was making her sign on the dotted line a little against her judgment. Let her look not wan but delicately young, as if she must be protected!

Lipstick should be applied carefully. If you leave the tiniest bit of a line right smack down the center of the upper lip, and rouge from this unrouged center line out to the corners at each side, that gives the bride a breathless, shy look, a young look, the lower lip should have much less rouge than the upper. Have the rouge a clear, young geranium-red.

Eyes should not be made up too much. If it is a daytime wedding, use brown mascara and not much. The made-up bride just does look theatrical and there are no two ways about it.

Use eye shadow sparingly. The way wedding veils are this year, you will get no protection from them. Your eyes will just stand out and your eye shadowing must be skillfully applied so no one will guess how sophisticated you are.

Coiffures can suit the bride this year. But remember you probably never will wear anything less becoming than the average bridal veil. So curls about the face always help. They just do frame a face as nothing else can. If you insist upon it, you can have a bridal cap and veil that is designed just for you and is far more flattering than most of them are.

A BOOK A DAY

BY BRUCE CATTON

STORY OF SWAMP NEGRO LIFE IS LIKELY TO MATCH BEST EFFORTS OF YEAR

The month of April brought a lot of new books into existence. Some of them were pretty good and some of them were pretty bad; but now that the month has ended it isn't a bad idea to glance back and see which ones seem, on the whole, to be the best.

Picking a list of "best books" is a sure way of starting an argument, of course. But, after all, none of you can really get at me—so here goes a list of the five books which seemed to me the best ones issued during April.

First comes Julia Peterkin's "Bright Skin." This story of life among illiterate negroes in a southern swamp is told with fine sympathy and a deep appreciation of the bright lights and deep shadows of the life of the people. The entire year will not bring many better books than this one.

Then there is "A Glastonbury Romance," by John Cowper Powys. Here is an involved novel enriched by a deep mysticism and exceptional beauty, but it does provide a fascinating introduction to one of America's greatest literary figures.

In the field of poetry, there's "Conquistador," by Archibald MacLeish. Mr. MacLeish has in a free, swinging, imaginative poem that will stand a good deal of re-reading.

Lastly, there's "I, James Lewis," by Gilbert Gabriel. This novel is the story of a young man's life in the Columbia river in 1811 is the romantic-adventure story as it ought to be, but seldom is, written.

There, then, is a list of some of the best books of the year. If you haven't read them, you've missed some worthwhile reading.

Your Child's Health

By Dr. Morris Fishbein

MOST MATERNITY DEATHS BELIEVED PREVENTABLE

By DR. MORRIS FISHBEGIN, Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine

The death rates of mothers in the United States during childbirth have aroused great interest. The subject is being constantly agitated before Congress because of legislation planned to provide increased preventive medicine applied to this cause of death.

Just as long as any preventable deaths occur, the mortality rates may be considered excessive. There are, however, some factors which are hardly controllable.

In a recent survey of this subject, Dr. Haven Emerson, professor of public health administration in Columbia University, points out some of the factors which are commonly disregarded, but which nevertheless are of the greatest importance in calculating maternal death rates and in classifying them as preventable and those not preventable.

For instance, many calculators fail to note the instances of multiple births, such as twins and triplets. Obviously the number of children born is greater than the number of periods of childbirth.

There are various ways of calculating the death rates of infants. In some European countries the age at which the child lives until it is baptized. This may not be for several days. Obviously such calculation is not to be compared with one in which every child dying at birth is called a death or every child dying within the first week is called a dead birth.

Expert statisticians have found that the race of the mother, her occupation, her economic status, the age at which her first child is born, the period elapsing between two births, and similar factors are of greatest importance.

Dr. Haven Emerson shows that the death rates of mothers in cities, for both white and colored, are 60 to 75 per cent higher from puerperal sepsis and about 35 per cent higher from all causes than the death rates of mothers in the country.

If the age of the mother at the first childbirth is over 35 years and if she has on the average less than three children, she will run a greater danger of death in childbirth than when the first and other childbirths occurred at an earlier period in her life.

The tendency in modern times is for women to wait longer for a marriage and for the birth of a first child than previously. Dr. Emerson says that in some of our modern states within the past five years one-third of all deaths of mothers in childbirth have occurred among rather elderly women.

TODAY IS THE WORLD WAR ANNIVERSARY

RUSSIA PROTESTS

On May 12, 1918, George Tchitcherin, Bolshevik foreign minister, welcomed Ambassador Joffe in Berlin to try to obtain from Germany cessation of all hostilities. He insisted that continuance of capture of Russian territory violated previous peace terms.

He assured Germany that the Black Sea fleet would not attack the port of Novorossiysk, which Germans threatened to capture.

In an answer, the German commander in the east evasively replied that he would agree to cessation of naval operations against the Black Sea fleet only on the condition that all ships return to Sebastopol and remain there, leaving the port of Novorossiysk open for navigation.

French troops gained ground north of Komel, capturing Hill 44, and near Orville-la-Sapelle.

FREE STATE WARNED

London, May 12.—(AP)—J. H. Thomas, minister for dominions, gave a clear warning to the Irish Free State today that if it abolishes the oath of allegiance to the Crown of the British government will enter into no agreement with Ireland at the imperial conference in Ottawa this summer.

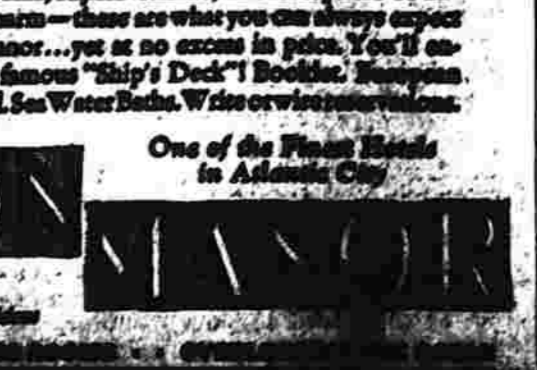

"The provisions of the bill to abolish the oath," said the, "are in direct conflict with the obligations undertaken by the Free State under the treaty of 1921. It would be unreasonable to expect that the British government should negotiate further agreements with a government which has repudiated an agreement it already had entered."

Illustrated Dressmaking Lesson Furnished with Every Pattern

Lovely for matrons is the darling home ensemble.

The dress is cut on lines borrowed from the chic sports mode. It's very very slimming with its wrapped bodice, paneled skirt and seamed hipline.

And note in the miniature view, the one-piece apron, edged with a hem founce. Isn't it a cute idea? And it's so easily slipped on and off.

The dress is made of brown and yellow plaided linen with white trim. The apron is plain yellow linen with white bias piping.

Another scheme is French blue and white dotted dimity dress with white trim with plain blue dimity apron.

Style No. 2651 includes both patterns and comes in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust. Size 36 requires 3 1/2 yards of 36-inch material with 1/2 yard of 36-inch contrasting for dress and 1 1/4 yards of 36-inch material for the apron.

Finns May Boycott Olympics If Nurmi Is Not Reinstated

Country Would Not Contribute To Support of Finnish Team If Its Star Runner Were Denied Permission To Compete.

By Toivo Vitikka.

Heisingfors, Finland.—(AP)—There is talk of a Finnish boycott of the Olympic games at Los Angeles, if Paavo Nurmi is not reinstated shortly by the International Amateur Athletic Federation.

Captain Lauri Pihlaka, head of the physical training department of Finland's volunteer army and long prominent in national athletics, told the Associated Press that the financing of the trip of a Finnish team to California would be impossible, so far as contributions from the Finnish public are concerned, if Nurmi's disqualification is not rescinded.

Ordinary contributors, the men who follow the fortunes of their athletic stars as Americans follow their baseball heroes, would rather see Finland unrepresented at Los Angeles than have the team leave Heisingfors without Nurmi, according to Captain Pihlaka.

Meanwhile, the latest indications are the L. A. A. F. intends to stand pat and make a real test case of the charges against Nurmi that he received excessive expenses.

Finland's athletes have been shown the bills for Nurmi's travel. They are the basis of his suspension.

On September 13, 1931, Nurmi accepted $28 mark for his own and Henri Larva's expenses to Berlin and return. A check mark is about 24 cents, so the amount is equivalent to around $130.

For their stay of eight days in Berlin, Nurmi was given 160 marks, or about $40 additional.

This amount, according to Finnish athletic authorities, does not violate L. A. A. F. rules.

Similarly, it is stoutly asserted that Nurmi's bills for his expenses to Berlin in October, 1931, were not excessive, nor were his expenses to Danzig and Copenhagen, on the same trip.

Reports from Germany that Nurmi received other funds from newspaper organizations in Breslau and Danzig have not been commented on here.

YANKEE PITCHING IS MUCH STRONGER

Comes To Rescue As Batting Slumps; Hallahan's Wildness Beats Cards.

(By Associated Press)

The New York Yankees no longer are getting the batting that had opposing clubs hanging on the ropes the first fortnight of the campaign, but their pitching suddenly has become a thing of beauty.

In scoring four straight victories over Detroit and St. Louis, and setting off the firing of Washington Senators, Joe McCarthy's curbers have more than atoned for a marked falling off in the club's attack.

In four games the quartet of George Fingers, Charley Ruffing, Vernon Gomez and Johnny Allen has allowed only four runs, two of which would have been averted by snappier support. Fingers and Allen have registered shut-outs. And less than a week ago Yankees would be very difficult to handle if they had a pitching staff.

Allen Does Well

Allen, the rookie from Toronto who barely was hanging on until he bobbed up with a great job of relief twirling last week, was himself a starting berth yesterday when he set the Browns down 3 to 0, on five fast-paced hits. He didn't allow a runner past second base.

Sam Gray offered Allen some real competition for seven innings, yielding but five hits and one unearned run, but the Yankees hopped on the first inning and added two more for good measure in the second. From then on Pete Genovesi, the Rockville moundman, held the local slugger well in hand. Marsh Thompson, playing his second game with the Gems, doubled, slid to third and grounded out, pitch to first in three trips to the plate. He made no errors.

Jack Stratton started both of Manchester's rallies. His double in the opening stanza was followed by a base on balls to Shortell and Sipples' stinging single. Thompson added a double along the left field line. Down singled before the frame was over and four runs poured home during the excitement.

Stratton singled to start the fun in the second after Fisher had whiffed. Shortell forced him at second and the Sipples and St. John hit successive doubles which counted for the final pair of Manchester tallies. Sipples had a perfect evening at bat getting three hits in three trips to the plate.

It was announced that the Winchester team, instead of the British Falcons, will oppose the Gems at the West Side field Sunday afternoon. Berg is slated to pitch for Manchester. The summary of last night's twilight game—the first of the season in Manchester—was as follows:

What of Sharkey?
 If Schmeling is steadfast, by what word could Jack Sharkey be best described? After three guesses, the word this writer likes "best" is "hysterical." It is a word that fits him whether he's winning or losing.

You Said It
 In a bout between Stetfastness and Hysteria, which would you pick? Of course, you can't lose. I'll take the turtle, too.

Mr. Mack's Frank
 The other day Mr. Connie Mack called the gentlemen of the press around him and admitted with a longer face than usual that the Athletics were "on their backs" and would find it a tremendous task to get back into the pennant race.

More About Sox
 The Sox are hard ones to figure. It seems to be a good half club on paper, but the boys do everything wrong on the field.

The Robot Fitcher
 Somebody in San Francisco has invented a robot pitcher. The suggestion was made to the enterprising Lew Fonseca that he try to acquire the automatic finger for his White Sox. Mr. Fonseca's reply was to the effect that he already had a whole bunch of robot moundmen.

Five Years Ago Today
 Five years ago today—Abe Mitchell justified his selection as British Ryder Cup golf team captain by his sensational victory in the Daily Mail tournament, most pertinent to our P. G. A. championship. Mitchell scored 94 for 72 holes to beat out Fred Robson by three strokes and Archie Compston by eight.

Husbands a Nuisance Says Glenna Collett

Southampton, Eng., May 12.—(AP)—With many a husband in the night, the American women's golf team which will play an English side at Westworth next week, arrived yesterday on the liner Berengaria. "After all, husbands are only a nuisance and were thought they had best be left behind," said Mrs. Glenna Collett Vane. "Hard-hitting Helen Hicks, the American champion was bubbling over with excitement as she viewed the green English countryside from the Berengaria's deck. "Gee, I'm just crazy at seeing old England again," she exclaimed. "We're just a nice, quiet party of golfing girls and none of the unmarried ones got engaged on the way over." The team will start practice tomorrow at Westworth for the matches with the English team headed by Joyce Wethered.

Gems Defeat Rockville; Fisher Allows Two Hits

Hits By Stratton Start Two Rallies For Manchester As Locals Score 6-1 Victory and Remain Undefeated.

The Manchester Gems continued in the undefeated class last night by trimming the All-Rockville's at the West Side playgrounds by a score of 6 to 1. Run Fisher was in good form and he let the visitors down with two singles. Perfect fielding would have given him a deserved shutout.

Manchester got away to a flying start with a four run rally in the first inning and added two more for good measure in the second. From then on Pete Genovesi, the Rockville moundman, held the local slugger well in hand. Marsh Thompson, playing his second game with the Gems, doubled, slid to third and grounded out, pitch to first in three trips to the plate. He made no errors.

FRENCH ATHLETES STILL WANT WINE

Hope U. S. Will Permit One Quart Per Man Each Day At Olympics.

(AP)—The French Olympic committee still is hoping that American prohibition authorities will be lenient and permit French athletes at Los Angeles to have a quart of wine a day.

"If the Americans knew how great will be the effect on our boys if they are deprived of wine, they would be sporting and let us take as much wine as we need," one official told the Associated Press.

"We are accustomed to wine with our meals and to suddenly stop and to obey any regulations which prohibition officers wish to impose.

The committee has asked for permission to take a quart of wine a day for each athlete. It has agreed to carry reserve supplies under seal and to obey any regulations which prohibition officers wish to impose.

Manchester Enters Bristol Game With Undefeated Record

Smith, Squatrito, Rautenberg Hit Hard As Locals Score Fifth Straight Victory, Score Is 8 To 5.

Manchester High made certain of entering the critical Bristol battle Saturday with a clean slate by polishing off West Hartford 8 to 5 on the latter's field yesterday afternoon. A four run rally in the first inning featured the Manchester attack.

Bobby Smith, hard-hitting right fielder for the Kellyites, continued his effective batting by collecting two singles. He also executed a perfect peg to the plate to nip a West Hartford rally in the fourth. Smith walked once but also struck out with two runners on base another time.

The heaviest hitting was done by Domenick Squatrito and Eric Rautenberg, each of whom was credited with three safe blows. Morrissey's two singles was the best individual performance for West Hartford. The losers used four pitchers in vain attempt to stem the attack of the Silk City sluggers.

Billy Neubauer went the full route for Manchester to score his third triumph of the season. He allowed nine hits, struck out 13 batters and walked only four. Unlike the Meriden game, he was not often in bad pinches. The selection of Neubauer to pitch the West Hartford game came as somewhat of a surprise as it had been figured Coach Kelley would probably save him to face Egletol.

But by using Neubauer yesterday, it becomes apparent that Coach Kelley intends to depend upon Ray Berger, the husky Wapping farmer lad, to subside the Monahan clan. Manchester has yet to meet defeat having defeated Rockville, Middletown, East Hartford, Meriden, Manchester Trade and West Hartford in Smith, Rautenberg and Neubauer did the damage. Kerr's pass and O'Leary's double in the seventh accounted for the other Manchester tally.

West Hartford scored twice in the first on hits by Havers and Holcomb after Hyde had walked. In the fourth Harris singled. Manise walked, Nichols singled, Anger walked and Morrissey singled to account for three runs. Smith's great throw to the plate ended the rally.

In the third, Rautenberg singled and later scored on errors. The fourth brought two more runs for the Kelley machine. Squatrito's pass, together with singles by R. Smith, Rautenberg and Neubauer, did the damage. Kerr's pass and O'Leary's double in the seventh accounted for the other Manchester tally.
